A man with ambition

Sitting opposite me in his office, come to think of it, I should have said he is Brian Ferrari.

The office wasn't representative, as was his front shop, because this man had no need for show, he is still a down to earth, business man and requires no trap- phages, though I think somehow he could well afford them.

Brian was born of ordinary circumstances, his father worked hard to keep things moving, more than that his dad took two jobs to provide the extras, need because his job was an automatic and needed the special treatment.

So I got the idea of setting up a hire business, I had a good idea of what I could do, I had a good idea of what I could do, I had a good idea of what I could do.

JON BLANCHFIELD

LOVE
I believe in love, although I've never been in love. I become infatuated with different girls every day. I love my parents very much. I don't know how long it will be before I'm mature enough to fall in love.

MARRIAGE

I look forward to marriage but I can't see how I will be ready for it for a long time. You have to be really sure about a person to feel that you would spend the rest of your lives together. I don't believe there is an ideal age for marriage. It all depends on the individuals.

RELIGION

I'm very confused about this. I believe in God, but more than I do in God. I think God and Christianity are just a crutch for people to lean on when they don't know what to do.

HAPPINESS

Happiness is personal satisfaction. I achieved this by being good at something. I am occupied by something I can do well and people appreciate me for that. I am happy. I dislike being looked by anybody, especially people I respect.

MY LIFE

I love my life, it's very normal. I rarely get into any trouble. I spend the night looking to people. I'm basically a lonely person. I don't have any really close friends and I hate my own company.

BLIND DATE

IN ANOTHER LAND BILL WYMAN (LONDON)

Sounds like they're all freaking out and having a ball. It's terribly uncommercial. I don't like it. On goah Bill Wyman wrote it and The Stones produced it. I can't see what he's trying to get at musically. It just started and finished. Full marks for originality anyhow.

CHAIN OF FOOLS

It's got to be Aretha Franklin. It's very good and I like Aretha Franklin. She would be a good record for her. I love the way she sings.

Looking fabulous for summer!

Christmas and New Year, holidays, summer — the ideal time for you to look your simplest, fittest best. With every boy around not only taking a second look, but a third and fourth, at you — beautiful suntanned baby. This is the time for parties, and twenty-four hour swinging. Here are some hints on how to make the most of this high-spirited time of the year.

TANNING

Everyone knows about being careful in the sun, so you don't look like a throbbing, boiled scarlet creature, instead of a radiantly tanned swinger. Take your tanning easily and carefully, and always, no matter where you're sunbathing, have a bottle of Nivea Oil handy to smooth all over you to replace all that dried out of your skin. If you do this religiously, your skin will be smooth and your tan even, right through the

NON-TANNERS

For those who don't tan, and who suffer summer after summer the agonies of rotten sun-burn, here is a solution. Buy yourself your own personal beach umbrella, a winter rain one will do, sew lots of icy fruits around the edge, and every time you're anywhere near those dangerous sun-rays, sit yourself under your very feminine little umbrella, cool and mysterious. Pale skin can be just as

Remember, your feet suffer in the heat with all that grooving and swinging, they deserve oil treatment too —

Thank you, Madam.

ROB TAYLOR-James Taylor Move

IT'S WONDERFUL THE YOUNG RASCALS (ATLANTIC)
The Young Rascals. Haven't they changed since "Good Lovin'"? Really don't think it's as good as some of their past records. The record itself seems a trifle semi-psychotic. It's sad that a group like this has to have some psychedelia in their records, because some of their other things, especially their arrangements, are brilliant.

MONTEREY ERIC BURDON AND THE ANIMALS (M.G.M.)

Eric Burdon and The Animals. It's called Monterey. It's a good. I love it. It runs for over four minutes, which is very long. He could have achieved the same thing in three minutes. Hope it's big because Eric Burdon has one hell of a voice

OF COURSE THE YOUNG RASCALS (ATLANTIC)
This is the other side. It's good. I like this. It's more their style. Most typical of what they have done and what they should continue to do.

TWO LITTLE KIDS PEACHES AND HERB (DATE)

It's a Tamia type thing and I've gone right off Tamia. It got off to a good start, but became monotonous. I don't know who it is. Peas and Herb. Well, it leaves me a bit cold.

LOVE ME TWO TIMES THE DOORS (ELECTRA)

Yeah, The Doors. Good, good. I like it a lot. Didn't like "Light My Fire" all that much. This is better because it gets you. Hope it's big. I think it will be.

Extra Special Christmas HOLIDAY HINTS

alluring as a tan if you have an image to suit it.

Before you leave work buy yourself a big bottle of the cologne of your favourite perfume. This serves two purposes. First, it is a refreshing cooler in the heat of the day, or in the midst of the swinging at a party, throw it all over yourself and you'll feel marvelous. Secondly, it is really lovely to always have a subtle, slight aura of light refreshing sweet-smell, very, very feminine.

HAIR PROBLEMS

If you plan to swim a lot, your milk supplies of hair conditioners and vitamins, like "Tami" You must replace all the oils lost in salt, muddy or chlorinated water. To look taxising, every night you have to have clean, shiny hair.

SUMMER MAKE-UP

Remember as your tan increases, change the color of your make-up appropriately. Use more eye make-up than normal and lots of frosty, soft, high lighters, and you're sure to be the most sort-after beautiful baby around.

Another big offer came from an interstate firm, they wanted a Victorian Manager to handle their men's suits. This was just up my alley. I took the job, and did well. I had to go out and promote the work, besides I liked the work, selling suits. I spoke, I had found my location.

When I got the idea of setting up a hire business, I had a good idea of what I could do, I had a good idea of what I could do, I had a good idea of what I could do.

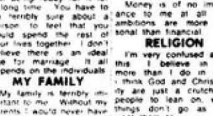

When I got bigger, I brought into the Ormond shop and put everything had to do with money and effort.

I had a good idea of what I could do, I had a good idea of what I could do, I had a good idea of what I could do.

Traffic catchy but simple

HERE WE GO ROUND THE MULBERRY BUSH THE TRAFFIC (FESTIVAL) Written for film of the same name. Easy to visualise it as a film theme. Comparatively simple for the Traffic. Grows on you. Delightful, catchy and commercial. YESTERDAY

RAY CHARLES (AMPAR) Must be one of the most recorded songs yet. Ray Charles' soulful treatment, makes it worth buying Yesterday again. Beautifully handled in the very distinctive Charles' manner.

TOO MUCH OF NOTHING PEACE OF MIND PETER, PAUL AND MARY PAUL BURESS AND THE RAIDERS (RCA) Capable band of Peter Paul and Mary easy to remember following in progress. Nothing really new, but their outstanding or distinctive records seem to make it about the record. Not as good as the original commercial as it is. Dig Rock and Roll Music and Roll Music. Will please Mary. Lendray, this is not a P and M fan. Not really a really commercial enough chart material but could just make it.

UPRIGHT TO GO ANTI-COMMUNAL STAIN BOFE'S TONIC

Melbourne's trendy, TV teenage program 'UPTIGHT' will be seen in Victorian television at least until May 1968.

In October this year, the teenage television was dead. 'Kommitment' and 'Cret' had been axed, creating a desperate need for the exposure of pop artists. When producer David Joseph announced the intention to screen a four-hour spectacular at 8 o'clock in the morning, there were many doubts as to its chances of success.

David used a computer to select the artists of Melbourne, and now the show is a success. A formal celebration and interview as well as a music never before considered for a young audience.

From these dubious beginnings, eight weeks later 'Uptight's' audience is established and contracts have been renewed for the middle of next year.

When asked about 'Uptight's' chances as a national show, David Joseph said: 'I am sure the show will be seen nationally as from the middle of January. I feel confident because of the enormous response we had, not only from interstate, they read about the show on Go-Set and write to us asking how much they wish the show could be seen all over Australia.'

CHRISTMAS SHOW

For the Christmas show, David has some very odd but as yet no secret plans up his sleeve. All he would like to see is the 'Uptight' show. And Ray Brown, will be performing, but I won't tell you what they're doing in the special segment, but Terry Britten and Norman Kaye will explain the intricate workings of a 'Uptight' show. Melbourne's teenagers are lucky - here's hoping that next of Australia's producers get their chance to see 'OUT-OF-SIGHT UPTIGHT'.

WILD CHERRIES: Les, Keith, John, Lobby and Denny

CHERRY-POWER! Wild Cherries are getting wilder

The Wild Cherries are busy setting a trend to 'big-power' in Australia. LOBBY LOYD, noted for his ability to shatter ears while with the Purple Heerts, has doubled this ability since changing to an amplifier with the 200-watt sound.

John Phillips, the newest Cherry, is proving himself a great bass player. Actually, all the Cheries made it in the musos' pool. Lobby won the guitar section, and all the others were in the top three. John was still in the 'Running, Jumping, Standing Still' group.

NEXT WEEK: GO-SET AWARDS FOR THE AUSTRALIAN POP SCENE-1967

DON'T MISS IT!

The biggest show since the BEATLES: Who: Small Faces: Paul Jones

THE WHO

The Who are widely acclaimed as Britain's most sensational group. This is no exaggeration: The Who brought to the pop scene a totally new approach. Consisting of Pete Townshend, Keith Moon, Roger Daltry and John Entwistle. The Who first hit the charts with 'My Generation' and have progressed a long way from that sizzling rocker to their current softer style of 'I'm a Boy' and 'Mary Anne with the Shaky Hand'. Their act consists of smashing up their guitars as well as letting off smoke bombs, and riotous music. All in all, The Who have made a giant impact on the world pop scene.

PAUL JONES

When it comes to sex appeal, you can't do much better than Paul Jones. Ex-laud singer of the Manfred Mann group, Paul has emerged as Britain's leading solo singer - and rightly so! Paul has a great amount of expression in his voice - and in his face. This year Paul has turned his career in millions of directions all at once. He starred in a movie with Jean Shrimpton - 'Privilege'. He wrote a play with his wife, and he is forever offering solutions to such diverse problems as Vietnam, capitalism, religion and Monkeys. Lots of people said Paul would die a miserable death when he left Manfred Mann, but how wrong can you be!

THE SMALL FACES

Among any list of the top six English groups, you will invariably find the Small Faces. Named because of their lack of height, the Small Faces have been to the top several times with 'All or Nothing', 'Hey Girl', and 'My Mind's Eye'. They consist of Steve Marriott, 'plonk' Lane, Kenny Jones and Ian McLagan. One of their biggest assets is Steve's song writing ability. The Small Faces could emerge as one of the top three groups in England, they are already on the way!

Go-Set Special Offer. Includes details for Melbourne, Brisbane, Sydney, Adelaide, Perth, and Auckland. Lists ticket prices and contact information for each city.

"These Dogs is crazy. You can tell by the clothes. One guy wears beads and they all wear pads. We were gonna get them for a dance after the basketball game but my best pal warned me you can never tell how many will turn up, some times the guy in the fur coat doesn't show up and sometimes he does show up only he brings a bunch of crazy people with him and they dance all over the place. None of the kids at my school like these Dogs, specially since my teacher told us what the words to their songs mean."

We are very thrilled with the tremendous progress the show has made in just a few short weeks and I am pleased to be able to tell you that the show will continue through 1968.
