AQUALUNG DIVING ADVENTURES WITH MALCOLM McGEE

That's Malcolm's new hundred push up, and he's still looking fresh!

Malcolm McGehee is a pop star who's just as interested in swimming, fencing, karate and skiing, as he is in music!
His latest sporting interest is aqualung diving!

He trained at The Associated Divers' Academy, and there he learnt the theoretical as well as practical side of this exciting sport!
Malcolm now spends his spare time spear fishing and hunting diving for shipwrecks!

We thought that lots of Go-Set readers would be interested in taking this sport up with the Associated Divers' Academy, so we went down to see Malcolm in action at their pool. Talented underwater photographer Alan Kleiman took these shots of Malcolm.

Malcolm does some warming up exercises, in the new beautifully equipped fitness studio at Melbourne's Y.M.C.A.

Malcolm as he swims along underwater. It is extremely difficult to swim without a mask when you're breathing through an oxygen tank.

Malcolm comes up for a break. Here is one of the pretty aqualung diving instructors at the pool, she's giving Malcolm a few extra hints on how to breathe while surfacing.

MRS. FARNHAM TELLS HOW TO MAKE JOHNNY'S FAVOURITE FOODS!

Last week, Johnny Farnham said that his ideal girl would have to be able to cook apple pie and lemon meringue pie, just like his mother's. We were swamped with letters asking exactly how to make these dishes. We rang Mrs. Farnham, who's a lovely lady, and she gave us these special recipes of Johnny's favourite foods. Follow the instructions carefully, and who knows, you could be Johnny's ideal girl!

APPLE PIE
INGREDIENTS
 1½ cups self-raising flour
 3 ozs. margarine
 3 ozs. lard
 4 large apples cooked and cooled.

Method: Crumble the flour, margarine and lard, with enough water to make a firm dough. Roll this out on a floured board, then take half, and line a tin foiled pan with it. Pierce a few holes in the bottom of the dough. Dampen slightly with milk, and sprinkle with sugar. Cook for 25 minutes in 350 degrees.

LEMON MERINGUE PIE
 To make this you make the flan exactly of lemon meringue pie filling, and make the meringue with eggs and sugar, to the directions on the back of the packet. This is a fairly easy dish, and does not require much cooking.

STEAK AND KIDNEY PIE

INGREDIENTS
 2 lamb kidneys
 1½ lbs. of stewing steak
 1 Oxo cube
 ½ cups self-raising flour
 ½ tablespoon suet

Method: Chop steak and kidney, and cook in water, with salt, pepper and an oxo cube for 1½ hours. Mix the flour and suet until you have a sticky dough. With half of the dough, line a greased basin. Place the meat into the basin and cover with the other half of the dough. Wrap a cloth around the pie, tie it with a string, and steam for ½ an hour. You can make a gravy from the water that the meat was strained from. Serve with cabbage, boiled potatoes, and carrots.

UPTIGHT ACTION!

UPTIGHT is one of the few pop TV shows in Australia. It is now seen in Victoria, Perth and Adelaide, and should be fully national in the near future. Go-Set takes you behind the scenes and gives you some candid shots of Uptight in action...

• Merv Benton makes a surprise comeback appearance on Uptight and chats to Lily Brett about his new record.

• Record producer and famous personality David MacKay, appears on Uptight with lovely Roger Savage, who's a sound engineer. They're two very swinging members of the pop scene, and they were interviewed on the show.

• This week Lily had Glenn Sherrick of The Twilight as a special guest on her gossip segment.

• The Procession do their new record "Listen" for the first time on Uptight.

• ptight's comper Ro.s D. Wylie applauds Pete Watson's Rockhouse, while regular Uptight member Tony Heaty has a quick cigarette.

• Pete Watson's Rockhouse, who are always very entertaining, have a very unusual stage act to go with this "horror" song.

AMERICANS tell the truth!!!!

This week, we interviewed a young, controversial group of guys known as the COMPACT. We simply asked each member his views on sex, marriage, and love, then stood back with our mouths hanging open at the comments we received. The thing's for sure... these boys are certainly not scared to say what they mean!

MARK BARNES
LOVE
 A fetish I once had. Too often necessary. Terribly sad, but grooves into me. Stops the world from being completely square.

MARRIAGE
 "Through thick and thin and all that garbage!" Marriage is I suppose some sort of security, and a paper certificate. It's also something to save your virginity for!

SEX
 Behind doors... dirty books... in front of doors... in front of books... A priest told me the facts of life. I was a bit... I prefer sex on a peep show. I saw it started at school.

TREVOR COURTNEY
LOVE
 In conclusion... know what you're doing before you do it... read a lot of books... talk to a lot of girls... think about it first... Now you'll think I'm weird!

CHRIS STOCKLEY
LOVE
 There is not much left in this world of ours.

KEITH GLASS
LOVE
 I don't love many people, in fact very few with a type of love that will endure over a period of years. However, I believe it is possible to love someone with an intensity even for an extremely short time... and this can remain worthwhile. Really, it is necessary to love a female neurotic to gain anything from living.

MARRIAGE
 Has been attacked as an institution enough without me adding my little bit, in other words, outdated. Good for getting out of conception or to open a home savings account for that brick veneer in the suburbs.

SEX
 After much thought and discussion on the pros and cons, moral issues, human relationships, legal aspects, pleasure and pain of this important basic urge, I have finally reached one important decision. I think IT'S GHOUSE!

GREG COOK
LOVE
 I have four loves. (1) My solitary-college-type-in-the-universe guitar. (2) The Beatles and Lawrence Welk. (3) Mum, dad and all the food. (4) My personal manager and Tom.

MARRIAGE
 I was very close to being married. I found my fiancee of a few years of different religions!

SEX
 The remainder of the group have tried to initiate me into their strange rites, but as we are a five-piece group, I'm the odd man out. In the near future, comments would be appreciated. The COMPACT should certainly have no trouble obtaining an appearance on "Tell The Truth".

The four excited girls, Francine, June, Mary and Christine, talked, danced, laughed, and generally got to know the groovy Groove. The girls were a bit shy at first, but it wasn't long before everyone was swinging, and having a ball.

Tony Knight, owner of Berties, played the perfect host, and looked after his very special guests!

BOAC will shift you into Topgear

Go in. Try on. Come out swinging!
Topgear has some of the wildest clothes in all of clothes-conscious London. How do you get there? If you're an Australian under 26, via the British airline, the mini fare and the Armchair.
The BOAC mini fare to London is just $340.00 ($360.00 from Perth or Darwin.) That's a saving of $230! And devaluation means you'll have more to spend in England.
What's more, the mini fare includes the stretch-out BOAC armchair. And two stopovers—one in Asia, and the other in the Middle East or Europe.
Go see your BOAC Travel Agent, BOAC, or Qantas, General Sales Agents for BOAC. And be ready to spend your extra money on some way-out clothes.

She's Queen of the Pacific

Acker Ell, who has played to packed houses throughout his four year excellent concerta at the Melbourne Town Hall last week, is in four years since he last visit and his popularity seems to have increased in the interim.

The four years have made a difference—the wild exuberant spirit of the band is still there but is now controlled and the band exudes an air of quiet confidence and ease, which almost hides its superb musicianship.

Enough old favourites including "Stranger On The Shore" were played to please the casual listener while jazz fans were also well catered for.

All members of the band were given solo spots but guitar player, Tony Pitt, was outstanding and received a tremendous ovation from the crowd.

ANOTHER BEAUTIFUL GIRL around town last week was Australia's entry in the Miss Teen International Quest, Janette McLeod. We caught the photo of her visiting the Collins Motors stand at the Motor Show.
