Vandal Pulls Plug On Stern

■ Cleveland execs trade barbs on blame

Howard Stern's appearance before 12,000 fans in Cleveland last Friday (6/10) to commemorate his ascendancy to the top of that market's morning rankings was disrupted by a series of pranks that momentarily pulled him off the air on a couple of occasions.

The first incident took place while Stern was receiving an award at the Rock & Roll Hall of Fame and Museum construction site. Stern's voice, which was being carried via a Marti unit supplied by local affiliate WNCX/Cleveland, was apparently replaced with an obscenity-laden barrage by someone who was able to jam WNCX's gear.

"They overrode our Marti signal and started uttering 'F-U, F-U, F-U,'" according to WNCX VP/GM Walt Tiburski. "We had to dump out of the delay loop so it wouldn't get out on the air. That caused Howard to abort the broadcast."

No sooner had Stern arrived back at the permanent stage than, all of a sudden, Tiburski said, "There was a ruckus, and the broadcast wire to the communications truck was cut."

Stessel To Oversee EMI As Sr. VP/GM

Stessel

Larry Stessel has joined EMI Records as Sr. VP/GM. In this new position, he'll oversee marketing, sales, and PR for EMI, Chrysalis, SBK, and related labels. He comes from a similar post at Mercury.

EMI President/CEO Daniel Glass stated, "Stessel's years of experience in the music business, as well as the many successful careers with which he has been associated, make him a dynamic addition to the company."

Calling the EMI staff "an aggressive group of people" working "a roster of some very impressive young talent," Stessel said he looked forward to being a part of Glass's team.

Stessel began as a CBS college rep in 1972. He moved to Epic as Product Manager in 1977, eventually becoming the label's Sr. VP/Marketing. He joined Mercury as Sr. VP/GM in '92.

Granum To Buy 3 Summit Stations

Summit Communications late Tuesday (6/14) completed deals to sell all but one of its radio stations to Granum Communications.

Granum is buying KHVN & KJMZ/Dallas, WAOK & WVEE/Atlanta, and WCAO & WXYV/Baltimore. The deal will give Granum a duopoly in Dallas, where it already owns KMAT & KOAI.

Widespread rumors that Summit's remaining station, WRKS/New York, would be sold to Emmis Broadcasting could not be confirmed at R&R's deadline. Such a move would give Emmis a powerhouse duopoly with WQHT.

There was no immediate word on price tags. Observers had expected the entire group to fetch $150 million-$200 million.

Summit announced several months ago that it was putting all of its radio stations and cable TV systems on the block to maximize investment returns for its shareholders, mostly members of the Gray family.

Dees Crosses To ABC Radio; 'AT 40' Canceled In States

"American Top 40," the institution that spawned an entire industry of syndicated radio programming — not to mention a host of countdown imitators — will air its final U.S. episode next month, 24 years to the week after its first broadcast.

The program's owner, ABC Radio, has inked a multiyear, multimillion-dollar deal with CD Media to instead offer its affiliates the "Rick Dees Weekly Top 40" beginning July 1.

ABC and overseas syndication firm Radio Express will continue to market "AT40" in international markets. The two companies will also offer the Dees program to foreign stations.

"In a time of growing fragmentation within the domestic CHR marketplace nationwide, 'Rick Dees Weekly Top 40,' with its unique blend of morning show style and countdown format, has not only weathered the storm, but managed to flourish," remarked ABC Radio Networks Exec. VP David Kantor. "ABC's

No Need For Expansion Of EEO Regulations, NAB Says

There's no need to expand EEO regulations, NAB told the FCC Monday (6/13), because the broadcast industry is already doing a good job of recruiting women and minorities. NAB backed up its claims with statistics obtained from the FCC itself stating that "women hold 90% of the new broadcast management-level jobs and other decision-making positions created since 1975," and "minorities hold nearly 40% of these top leadership positions."

The FCC was seeking comments on its EEO policies to see whether broadcast stations should be subject to the same type of EEO compliance audits cable systems undergo periodically.

FCC's Facts

FCC guidelines call for businesses to maintain female and minority workforce levels equivalent to at least 50% of their markets' available female and minority workforce.

According to the FCC stats quoted by NAB, the percentage of women holding broadcast industry jobs overall is 87% of the available female workforce, with 75% of that workforce

Gingrich: No Offsets Needed For GATT

A key member of Congress proposed an idea last week (6/10) that would help pass the GATT international trade agreement without taxing broadcasters.

During a press conference, House Minority Whip Newt Gingrich (R-GA) said instead of raising taxes to make up the $14 billion budget shortfall resulting from lowered tariffs, Congress should count future tax revenues resulting from increased exports. "I believe Congress can instruct the CBO [Congressional Budget Office]" to count GATT as a revenue earner rather than loser, Gingrich spokesman Tony Blakely told R&R.

Blakely said the proposal has some detractors. One is Sen. Robert Byrd (D-WV), who considers the idea a budget waiver. Blakely pointed out it's not considered a budget waiver because "you don't need to raise taxes for a non-existent loss."

Rule Change Needed

The scenario he described would require a change in budget rules. To do so, Congress would have to write new legislation ordering the CBO to show GATT as a revenue earner. A CBO spokesman said this type of legislation is not unprecedented.

Gingrich said "the vast majority of Republicans" would be behind the rule change to pass the international trade agreement, adding that the question of making up the budget shortfall is the largest political barrier to passing GATT.

Meanwhile, the administration is sticking to its original plan to come up with revenue — including $4.8 billion from broadcasters — to offset the shortfall. A spokeswoman for U.S. Trade Representative Mickey Kantor, President Clinton's chief agent on GATT, said Kantor doesn't agree with Gingrich's proposal.

The spokeswoman also said Kantor and Leon Panetta, Director of the Office of Management and Budget, will probably hold a joint press conference within a month to outline their suggestions for new fees or spending reductions.

Minority Recruitment Key Concern

■ Small market issues also on NAB Radio Board Chairman's docket

New NAB Radio Board Chairman Doug Williams hopes to make the recruitment of women and minorities the "benchmark" of his tenure. He also plans to focus on other small market broadcaster issues such as tightened EEO regulations.

"That's an entirely different problem for smaller broadcasters," said the KWOX/Woodward, OK owner/GM. "It takes a couple of months to find someone. Everyone should start at a small station and learn the basics."

Williams, President/CEO of Omni Communications Corp., also said he hopes to rally the troops on other key issues facing broadcasters this year, including the proposed spectrum royalty tax and hike in user fees: "The biggest troubles we're facing are coming from Congress and the FCC ... whether that's a threat to programming or attempting to police programming or the FCC ultimately hoping to finance their existence with fees."

Williams noted that the NAB will "be out of its building during all of my administration," referring to problems with asbestos. He expected to move out within the next three months and spend a year in leased offices during renovation. He said at some point the NAB might solicit donations from members to help finance the work.

Late-Breaking Career
 Williams, 52, said he first became interested in radio as a career at the age of 40. But it's been a lifelong infatuation. As a child, he "played radio" with a pretend microphone; after stints as an FBI agent and a trial lawyer, he decided to take the plunge into broadcasting.

"A friend walked into my office in 1979 and said, 'We ought to start a radio station.' I read the FCC rules and said, 'I don't have a clue as to how you do this.'"

Four years later, he started broadcasting from an 800-square-foot trailer. One bedroom served as the on-air studio, another housed the production facilities, and the bathroom doubled as the newsroom. "On December 16, 1983 I became a fulltime broadcaster," said Williams, who also owns and operates a low-power TV station in Woodward.

Williams is now KWOX's morning man, rising at 4:30am each day. He employs 18 fulltime and six parttime employees. "My lawyer friends — some do sports play-by-play for me — are terribly envious. Nothing compares to coming in and having a good time at what you do."

KGO will LMA KSFO starting September 1. Closing could be delayed because an FCC waiver will be needed for the radio-TV combination.

IDB: 'Uncertainty Removed'

IDB Communications Group saw its stock rise Tuesday (6/14) after its former auditor told the SEC that its dispute over first-quarter earnings concerned only $5.4 million in satellite transponder capacity sales.

IDB Chairman/CEO Jeffrey Sudikoff said the letter to the SEC from Deloitte & Touche "validates our view that the market overreacted to our auditor's resignation." But he also said IDB is "taking seriously the credibility issues" that caused its stock to drop over 50% when the resignation was announced June 1.

IDB's stock closed Tuesday (6/14) at $9.75, up $1.63 for the day. The stock had closed at $7.13 the day Deloitte & Touche resigned.

"Now that this cloud of uncertainty has been removed, we can once again concentrate all of our energies on growing our business," said Sudikoff.

Infinity Ready To Buy

Infinity Broadcasting President/CEO Mel Karmazin is preparing for another station buying spree.

Infinity announced that its bankers, led by Chase Manhattan, have increased the company's credit line for acquisitions by $150 million. The announcement said the company would use the boost to "finance acquisitions of radio stations in the nation's largest markets." The new agreement will also allow Infinity to buy back up to $50 million of its own stock, which is traded on Nasdaq as INFTA.

Infinity owns 23 stations and is buying three others.

FCC Simplifies Payments

The FCC is making it easier for broadcasters to pay its new user fees by accepting bank wires, credit cards, and electronic payments.

"This program will help bring us into the 21st century and bring increased convenience to everyone," said FCC Deputy Associate Managing Director/Operations Tom Holleran.

The new program allows users to pay the Commission in a lump sum for multiple services. Payment should be made with the FCC's new Form 159. The deadline for FM fees is August 10; the AM deadline is September 2.

DAB Stock Offering On Hold

Satellite CD Radio received the FCC's approval for a public stock offering, but then put the stock sale on hold because of poor market conditions.

In granting SCDR's request to sell up to $54 million worth of stock, the FCC rejected NAB claims that allowing the stock offering to proceed would prejudice the Commission to grant SCDR's application for a satellite DAB license. The FCC said there was no assurance of any license grant.

Shortly after winning FCC approval, the stock offering was indefinitely postponed. Lead underwriter Seidler Amdec Securities blamed market conditions.

Composer Henry Mancini Dies At 70

Henry Mancini, the composer/performer/arranger who wrote such tunes as the "Pink Panther Theme" and "Moon River" and helped transform the role of film music, died Tuesday (6/14) of complications from liver and pancreatic cancer. He was 70.

Most recently signed to RCA Victor, Mancini cut more than 90 albums in a career that encompassed Juilliard, the Glenn Miller-Tex Beneke Orchestra, scores for well over 100 films, and a long collaboration with filmmaker Blake Edwards, for whom he wrote scores for "Peter Gunn" and "Victor/Victoria," among others.

Mancini collected 20 Grammys, four Oscars, and countless other honors, including a Lifetime Achievement Grammy this past April. He is survived by wife Ginny, daughters Monica and Felice, son Chris (an exec at All Nations Music Publishing), and three grandchildren.

Baker, Gordy Take WB VP, Black Music Posts

As part of a reorganization of Warner Bros. Records' Black Music department, Carolyn Baker has been promoted to VP/A&R Development and Kerry Gordy has joined as VP/A&R.

Baker

Gordy

Sr. VP/Black Music A&R & GM Benny Medina praised Baker's "musical ears, visual creativity, and intimate understanding of our A&R approach."

He added, "Kerry has all the elements — the ears, the experience, and the enthusiasm — of a great music executive."

Gordy told R&R he'll be responsible for "the finding, signing, and mining of talent" as well as limited administration, thus relieving Medina of some hands-on A&R duties. He noted Baker will focus more on marketing and artist relations.

Baker first joined WB in 1975 as Director/Artist Relations. After nine years spent working on television projects, she returned to WB fulltime in 1988 as Product Manager and rose to Sr. Director/A&R Development, Black Music in '91.

Gordy most recently was VP/A&R & Artist Development at Paisley Park. The son of Motown founder Berry Gordy, he's also been Director/A&R at Motown, President of the Gordy Company's Recording Division, and CEO of KG Entertainment Group.

Dickson To WB Alternative Director

Warner Bros. Records has elevated Jimmy Dickson to National Promotion Director/Alternative Radio. The boost follows Paul Vitagliano's departure to start Cloudbreak Management.

Dickson

"If ever a promotion was well-deserved and truly earned, this is it," stated VP/Contemporary Music Craig Kostich. "I have every reason to believe Dickson's new responsibilities will result in even greater achievements."

Dickson's career began on-air at San Francisco's KUSF and KITS (Live 105). He worked as a CBS college rep and in Bill Graham's organization, then joined Reprise in 1989 as National Promotion Manager/College Radio. In 1991, he rose to WB National Promotion Manager/Alternative Radio.

Richards EastWest Dir./ Pop Promo

Gary Richards has been appointed Director/Pop Promotion at EastWest Records America. He joins the label from American Recordings, where he was VP/Pop Promotion.

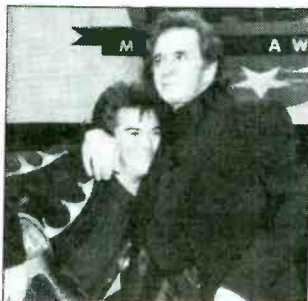

Richards

"Gary has incredible enthusiasm, and his knowledge of the industry will certainly complement the EastWest promotion department," said VP/Pop Promotion Valerie DeLong. "We are elated to have Gary as part of our family."

Prior to his stint at American, Richards served as West Coast Promotion Manager for RCA Records. He began his music career at KPWR/Los Angeles in 1989.

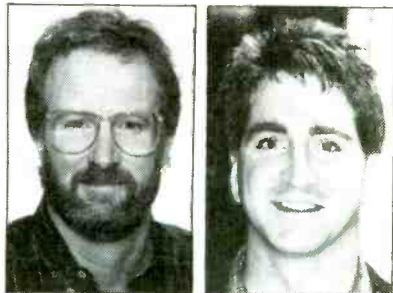

Now That's Country

Pulgini

Mercury/Nashville President Luke Lewis commented, "John Grady has proved his capability repeatedly during the past year. He is innovative and forward-thinking, and he has his finger on the pulse of the '90s marketplace."

Grady joined the label from Capitol Records, where he served as National Director/Field Marketing. He has held various posts at Pickwick, MCA, and Arista Records. Pulgini started at PGD in 1989 as an account service representative and went on to become a sales rep before becoming National AE.

HOW NOT TO GET AHEAD

Five Stumbling Blocks To Future Success

Whether you want to get ahead in any area of your life or simply elevate your business's bottom line, there are certain traps to avoid.

According to Quincy, MA-based Graham Communications' President John Graham, the following are the five biggest stumbling blocks to success:

Avoid certainty. Think you know all the answers? Then you're not keeping up with your reading. If you haven't thought of any new ideas or flagged forthcoming trends, you'll just keep repeating what you've done in the past.

Avoid tunnel vision. While it might be easier to stay on track by focusing on one goal and shutting out all complicating, confusing, stressful, and challenging ideas and issues — what if you're on the wrong track?

Avoid inflexibility. If you're unwilling to make adjustments, sooner or later the changing marketplace will pass you by. Many companies that have been in business for years are closing their doors because of this type of closed-minded attitude.

Avoid ignorance. Don't be oblivious to customers' needs. Do the necessary research to understand what your customer wants.

Avoid dull people. Dull people usually want their peers to be just as uninteresting and mediocre as they are. They don't like anything new or unusual. Do everything you can to avoid having them around you.

Stressed Out? Use Your Brain

If you're feeling depressed or emotionally overwrought, chances are the stress is located in the right hemisphere of your brain — the creative, emotional, holistic side.

To ease this stress, Ontario, Canada-based registered nutritional consultant Jane Cole-Hamilton suggests you switch to your matter-of-fact left hemisphere via working on math problems, writing factual prose, or organizing something.

However, if your stress stems from feelings of time-sensitivity or being overburdened, it's your left hemisphere that's involved. In that case, you need to shift your focus to your right hemisphere by singing or playing a sport.

No, we didn't produce that one. But if we had, it would probably still be shining, bright and clear, on some guy's chariot. Which brings up a point. How long your decal survives the environment is important. That's why our decals are heavier, tougher, than the one's sold by cut-rate producers. Our quality materials and state-of-the-art production make sure that your decal looks just as impressive on the last day of your promotion as it did on the first. Call us ...who knows... you might be making history.

'ZINE SCENE

Atlantic's Morris In 'Business Week'!

In four years he's boosted "revenues from $400 million to an expected $900 million," ratcheted market share up to a leading 9.4%, and "return[ed] Atlantic to the hit parade" — partly by seeking small labels run by execs with "music in their blood."

Business Week casts an approving eye upon the job Chairman Doug Morris is doing, and turns up more positive palaver from label founder Ahmet Ertegun, as well as David Geffen, artists Pete Townshend and Tori Amos, and Wamer Music Group Chairman Bob Morgado, who says, "Clearly, Doug has the talent to play a wider role in the future."

Ticket Talk

In a two-page article on "Rock 'N' Roll's Holy War," Time outlines the Pearl Jam-Ticketmaster fracas. CEO Fred Rosen says, "If Pearl Jam wants to play for free, we'll be happy to distribute their tickets for free... We ought to change our name to Targetmaster." PJ manager Kelly Curtis notes, "All the band wants to do is to be able to tour with a cheap ticket price."

"One floor seat for one game to watch the under .500 Lakers play costs $500. The Eagles get together once every 14 years, so I think $115, parking included, is not too much to ask. It's all relative... As far as I know, the only people who brought the [price] issue up are press people who are getting their tickets for free" — Glenn Frey in Rolling Stone.

Appetite Suppressants

Pictured on the cover of Ebony with her husband and child, Whitney Houston says she took no diet pills to lose her pregnancy weight. She just exercised and toured Asia: "When you walk down the street and see things like pigs and live ducks hanging from the windows, your appetite changes."

With a piece of carpet from Elvis Presley's bedroom selling for $50 and a plastic tree pegged at $100-$150, is there anything that won't go on the block when Jimmy Velvet sells off his Elvis Presley Museum? Says Velvet, "I have some of his pill bottles, but I won't put them on display" (People).

Speaking of the King(s), the Globe headline screams, "Michael's hot & heavy for Elvis's little girl" over pics of Jackson in a long black wig and fake mustache. He's "incognito," pushing a baby stroller at Disney World with Lisa Marie.

And on the Jackson tip, all three supermarket tabloids covered Janet's kidney stone emergency.

'I'm The Cute One!'

Adam Duritz

Adam Duritz, leader of Rolling Stone cover band Counting Crows, says modestly, "To the outside world, I'm the cute one, I'm the quiet one, I'm the funny one, and I'm the sad one."

But still, this is a band. Maybe not in terms of decision-making, but it is a band."

He readily admits his little dreadlocks are hair extensions, adding, "The first time I wore them was the first time I really looked like myself to me."

Colder Shoulders

According to Us, many wish to guest on "Sesame Street," but few are chosen. Who's been snubbed by Big Bird? Michael Bolton, Kenny G, and the Red Hot Chili Peppers, to name a few.

Crash Test Dummies singer Brad Roberts tells Us the band came together because Winnipeg is "so fucking cold, you either play hockey or play in a band."

Limited Partnerships

Kenneth "Babyface" Edmonds reluctantly addresses his split with LaFace partner Antonio "L.A." Reid in Ebony. "I'll just say we had a difference in opinion on a couple things... [and] we're cool with each other." He also says he's handling his current marriage better than the first one: "You can't get so caught up in your career that you let your life pass you by. Now, I will deal with problems head-on, whereas before I would just play creative and let things happen."

To support its cover story on "Don [Johnson's] Sad Slide," People produces a partial transcript of the actor (and onetime singer's) April 13 radio interview with syndicated talkers Ron & Ron. He called them "meatheads," and they threatened to "bitch-slap you, pretty boy."

Fad Gadgets

Public Enemy's Chuck D, touting the group's forthcoming LP in Rolling Stone, says he's not going to dog prevailing rap trends: "If people want to hear Luther Vandross-style beats with someone cursing over them, that's their prerogative. Some use music to calm their nerves. I like to be at attention."

"I guess I was supposed to always be this bald-headed tattooed guy," grouses Pantera singer Phil Anselmo, who hates it when people tease him for having had blond hair at 17. "They think you're born with tattoos" (Rolling Stone).

Each week R&R sneaks a peek through the nation's consumer magazines in search of everything from the sublime to the ridiculous in music news. R&R has not verified any of these reports.

SALES & MARKETING

Nine Reasons For Radio's Renaissance

By Gerry Boehme

After experiencing some lean times between '91-'92, radio business stormed back in '93 with huge billing increases. The '94 pace has kept up so far, with radio ad expenditures up another 13% nationally and locally.

Ask any 10 salespeople to explain this resurgence, and you're likely to hear 10 different answers. What's more, they'd all be right. Radio's renaissance can be attributed to many different factors. Closer examination of them will help us prolong the growth pattern.

Better Economy

During the recent economic downturn, we focused on selling the benefits of radio in general, relating them to the overall effectiveness of radio in particular. We positioned radio as the cheaper, quicker, and more effective medium to reach target audiences.

When the economy improved, radio was already established in advertisers' minds as a valuable medium that delivered results. We need to maintain the momentum by continuing to serve clients' ad needs, designing campaigns that accomplish measurable results.

New Business Development

The slow economy helped us re-discover the value of bringing new accounts and dollars into the medium, fostering a cooperative spirit among radio sales organizations and agencies.

Major rep firms, networks, and broadcast groups now work together, selling radio's positives rather than selling against competitors. Examples of this synergy include the RAB Executive Partnership and stronger local market radio associations.

The increased visibility of such industry programs as the Mercury Awards helped highlight the factors that contribute to effective radio campaigns. The focus on creative elements has increased radio's "sexiness" on the agency side.

Major rep firms, networks, and broadcast groups now work together, selling radio's positives rather than selling against competitors.

This cooperative spirit is necessary to maintain momentum. In a good business climate, we tend to relax or treat the station across the street as the main competition for ad dollars. By stressing radio advertising's benefits — instead of bashing the competition — the industry provides potential sponsors with a positive outlook that promotes cooperation and long-term success.

Success Stories

Many nationally known advertisers have used radio either exclusively or as their primary promotional tool; e.g., Motel 6, Snapple, Vermont Teddy Bears, and Hooked On Phonics. The visibility and documented success of these companies led other clients to view radio's potential in a new light.

These campaigns worked because all elements were in place: the right product, a good creative message, and enough reach and frequency to make the plan work. Sticking to these guidelines will enable stations to create a new generation of satisfied clients who use radio as their primary ad medium.

Duopolies & LMAs

Combined programming and sales operations have reduced radio competition in many markets. Positive effects include unified, long-term strategies that focus on delivering results, a reduction in petty competition among stations, and greater focus on building sales/agency relationships. Duopolies and LMAs also kept radio in the forefront of media coverage.

Now it's important for sales organizations to sell the value of their respective properties and further develop cooperative ventures with ad clients and competing radio stations. Constructive pricing policies and a focus on long-term results will protect each property's value in the marketplace.

Pace Of Business

Reduced lead time and the need for quick turnaround and copy changes spotlight the qualities radio delivers well. As the pace speeds up, we must continue to ensure that clients appreciate the value of the audience each station delivers.

Changing Lifestyles

As the American population becomes more mobile and demographics change within individual markets, it's becoming harder to reach target consumers. Radio has proven itself as the only medium that provides specific choices for each population group and adapts to changing lifestyles; e.g., in-home/out-of-home, outdoors, at work, in-car.

Recent research shows that other media have declined (newspaper), fractionalized (broadcast TV), or lost momentum (cable TV) over the last 10 years. Yet, radio listening levels remained steady for persons 12+ in the face of increasing competition. In fact, radio listening actually rose over the last 10 years for the key 25-54 demo.

This information helps us sell the value of the medium and counteract the unsupported negative perceptions that limit radio's potential.

FOUR-PART PLAN

Right Time For Sales Revival

Successful sales plans depend on four broad factors: a valuable product or service, a good marketing plan, strong consumer demand, and the consumer's ability to purchase.

Sometimes, timing is everything. For the past year and a half, radio has benefited from the convergence of these four key elements.

Tracking The Resurgence

If we look at radio advertising time as the product — and the time-buyer as the consumer — we find we're in the right place at the right time with the right product to meet our clients' current needs. Here's an overview of how we got there:

- The poor economy caused consumers to cut back on spending, leading advertisers to weigh their expenditures carefully and investigate more effective media options.
- The radio industry began marketing the medium more cooperatively, while duopoly changed sales and programming practices.
- New and exciting programming choices — both music- and information-based — arose just when radio operators and advertisers were searching for active, targeted vehicles to build audience loyalty.
- The flat or fractionalized trends of other media helped increase radio revenue.

New Programming

The rise of such newer formats as Country, Alternative, and Spanish proves radio's ability to incorporate new ideas and programming interests. Syndicated formats and Talk personalities like Rush Limbaugh have added quality and a stronger national image to stations in many markets, improving radio's visibility and attracting audience to the AM band.

Added Value

Radio has done a terrific job of getting stations involved in sponsors' total marketing efforts, leading to promotional value and local involvement beyond running a spot schedule. This ties in with clients' typical marketing strategies — mixing traditional media advertising goals with in-market promotional spending.

Better Information Sources

Radio offers more support information than any other medium. Monthly updates keep people talking about radio throughout the year. Qualitative information sources provide individual stations with detailed profiles that go beyond age, sex, and geography, thus allowing advertisers to look more closely at their consumer and psychographic targets.

New computer systems take the mystery and difficulty out of planning and buying radio. We can now prove radio provides reach as well as frequency, while media-mix programs combine radio with TV and print to show total impact of schedules. Creative methods like Optimum Effective Scheduling (OES) apply time-tested local concepts to national campaigns to create more impact.

BDS Explains Flexible 'Reality'

Inquiring minds have been dying to hear BDS's explanation of how its Top 40 Monitor (issues 5/27 and 6/3) published incorrectly detected airplay information from KFMB-FM (Star 100.7)SD during the station's format-a-day experiment.

After a conversation with BDS's Kevin McCabe, Star 100.7 PD Tom Gjerdrum told ST, "Apparently the BDS computer couldn't identify what we were playing and generated or substituted some previous weeks' detections. Someone at BDS didn't catch the error." Industry observers wonder just how many other "non-current" airplay detection lists have been passed off in Monitor as current.

Another aspect of that flexible BDS "reality": On Memorial Day (5/30), KPWR/L.A. ran an all-oldies special from 6am-midnight. Yet BDS's log for that day shows normal play levels (up to nine plays) for the station's currents! Could that be more of those substitutions of previous days' detections?

LATEST NY/L.A. RESULTS

KROQ, WMXV, WPLJ, Stern Score In Arbitrends

KROQ shot to fourth in L.A.'s March/April/May Arbitrends with a 3.9-4.3 jump, while WMXV and WPLJ muscled their way into NY's Top 10 with 3.5-3.8 moves. WLTW (5.0-5.1) retained the NY lead, with WCBS-FM (4.2-4.4) edging WHTZ (4.2-4.3) and WQHT (4.1-4.2) for second. WRKS (3.8-3.9) regained the UC lead over WBLS (4.1-3.8).

KLAX (5.9-5.8) remained L.A.'s champ by almost a point over KPWR (5.1-5.0). KABC (4.0-4.1) continued a sustained surge by nipping rival Talker KFI (4.3-4.0). KLVE (3.2-3.6) became the second Spanish outlet in the Top 10.

The morning race was a bit more dramatic. The WINS news team and Howard Stern were a fairly stable 1-2 in NY, with WOR's John R. Gambling vaulting into third. Biggest movers were WPLJ's Scott Shannon & Todd Pettengill (3.5-3.9) and WQHT's Dr. Dre & Ed Lover (3.4-3.9), now tied for sixth just ahead of WHTZ's John Lander (3.6-3.7). Stern jumped 5.5-6.0 to widen his L.A. lead considerably and score the market's biggest gain.

Mutual's Clements To Retire

After 21 years with Mutual, President Jack Clements will retire at the end of June. Clements shepherded the company through several ownership changes and is credited with hiring Larry King 16 years ago. His duties will be absorbed by Westwood One Nets Prez Bill Hogan and WW1 Entertainment Prez Greg Batusic.

L.A.'s first modern-day Progressive station will debut in a couple weeks. Although he couldn't verify specific details, consultant Dennis Constantine told ST he's polishing off the paperwork now. He added, "The new studios are being built to accommodate a huge record library, with facilities for live on-air performances. Expect an early July sign-on."

ST hears the station is Golden West AC KLIT and the nucleus of the staff will come from top stations in Boston, Philly, and L.A. its ownself. Consensus picks for PD and MD are, respectively, WXP/Philly

Rumors

- Is Chaos Nat'l Dir. Promo Justin Fontaine being courted by American and Maverick for top-level promo slots?

- Now that NAC JAZZ-FM/L.A. has changed calls and identifier to "Smooth Sounds" KACD/KBCD, can the on-air handle "CD 103.1" be far behind?

PD Mike Morrison and WBOS/Boston's Merilee Kelly. The call letters and entire staff should be unveiled by next week.

Why does
Loreena McKennitt
have a #2 record in Minneapolis?

We don't really know. The guy who put The Mask and Mirror on the radio there (Jim Robinson, PD of KTCZ) says she "casts a compelling spell on our audience" and that "every spin conjures up phones."

And the people who are calling are also buying. It's been in the top five at the 15-store Tidal Wave chain for more than a month, and Tidal Wave's John Kulstad says there's "no evidence of it slowing down."

Same story in Philly. And Tucson. And Denver. And every place else that Loreena gets played.

If you think your adult audience might be interested in Loreena McKennitt, fax us at 1-800-846-8474, and we'll send you a copy.

Stern

Police almost immediately arrested William Alfred, an engineering assistant from crosstown Rocker WMMS, and charged him with felony counts of possession of criminal tools, breaking and entering, and disruption of public service.

Alfred reportedly told Cleveland police he had committed the act of his own volition and not on behalf of the station.

"I am not accusing WMMS or [owner] OmniAmerica of any wrongdoing," Tiburski said. "Although I have my suspicions, I am not making an accusation." He also said he could not fix blame for the Marti incident earlier in the morning.

Conspiracy Theory

WMMS OM John Gorman told R&R, "That individual was told by me and others that, in his best interest, he should stay away."

WMMS Exec. VP/GM Dean Thacker issued a statement emphasizing that his staff "did not and does not authorize, encourage, or condone the interruption of another radio station's broadcast." He also said

The 'MMS Buzzard' also pitches in on the Stern issue.

Alfred has been suspended without pay.

Thacker then suggested that WNCX itself engineered the incident by allowing Alfred access into restricted areas. "Based upon our investigation thus far, we are confident that people will come to a different understanding of these events when the truth is made public."

Tiburski called Thacker's comments "laughable and ignorant." He said he is accepting of competitive promotional tactics that are "customary, usual, and acceptable . . . but none of that happened. What did happen was criminal activity on the part of one of WMMS's employees."

Kasem and radio programmers Tom Rounds and Ron Jacobs. The first show aired July 4, 1970 on just seven stations, with the affiliate count growing to 150 a couple of years later.

Kasem left the show in 1988 to start a competing countdown program for Westwood One. He was replaced on the ABC show by veteran DJ Shadoe Stevens.

Banta

Banta will not be replaced; station GMs and other corporate staff will now report directly to Greater Media CEO Tom Milewski. The company's radio division was apparently enjoying its largest earnings to date, a source close to the decision said.

Banta, a 20-year radio veteran, has also been a partner in a Monterey, CA-based radio company and ran broadcasting operations for the Rich family's stations in Buffalo.

marketing the many successes we've had under the Infinity umbrella to help make advertisers aware of the phenomenal opportunities available at Westwood One."

Before moving to WYSP, Benrubi had been LSM at another Infinity Classic Rocker, WXRK/New York, since 1984. Prior to that, he was Director/Sales at Madison Square Garden Network.

a person with Steve's credentials take over the helm of our flagship station. Kenney's reputation as a long-term player, his understanding and love of radio, and his natural people skills are among the qualities that Embarcadero sought for this important position."

Kenney spent 17 years in Denver — the first 10 as VP/GM at KIMN & KYGO, the latter seven at KHOW.

Wingate

"Dick has been a highly regarded executive in our industry for several years," said President Clive Davis. "His wide-ranging experience and strong management skills will be tremendous assets."

Wingate said he was "thrilled" by the new challenge, adding, "Creative and responsive marketing will be an integral part of the label's expansion in the years ahead."

After beginning his career as MD and PD of WBRU/Providence, Wingate spent 10 years at CBS Records (now Sony Music) in varied jobs and four at PolyGram as Sr. VP/A&R. Since 1990, he's been VP/Market Development for the in-Touch Group, which developed the "iStation" music sampling post for retail stores.

in decision-making and managerial positions. For minorities, the overall percentage is 80%, with 55% of the workforce in top leadership posts.

NAB also said FCC regulators should give more weight to joint recruitment efforts, such as broadcast job fairs and employment clearinghouses.

The NAB argued for "greater relief" in record-keeping for small market broadcasters, noting the special problems that come with small communities, such as lower wages and benefits.

New NAB Radio Board Chairman Doug Williams agreed the EEO regs are too difficult for small market broadcasters. He also said he hopes to make the recruitment of minorities and women a "benchmark" of his tenure.

fering promotion roundtables on a format-by-format basis, as well as radio panels dealing with such topics as added value, motion pictures, duopoly, and publicity.

Futurevision

Opening keynoter and QVC Chairman/CEO Barry Diller reminded attendees that, in today's media maze where every entertainment and information entity claims future dominance over the industry, "The only solution I know is the one I've depended upon since I started in the business 26 years ago . . . to have a simple idea and carry it through without listening to all the sensible reasons why it can't be done. A good idea always works when it's simple, when it fills a need, when it can be explained easily . . . and when you don't give up."

Diller also sounded a theme that was to be repeated throughout the convention: There were more computer monitors than TV sets sold in the U.S. last year, and today's youth is far more interested in being informed and entertained via computer than by way of traditional TV.

On the last day of the conference, poet Maya Angelou told attendees, "Courage is the most important of all the virtues." She said those who want to accomplish creative change may have to "reinvent themselves," . . . and when "the paths you've walked no longer get you anywhere . . . start a new path!"

Next year's PROMAX convention is slated for June 7-10 in Washington, DC.

Burch

Before becoming KEZK's OM in 1991, Burch previously was COO for Saturn Communications. He also has been Century Broadcasting's National PD, Station Manager at KGLD & KWK/St. Louis, and GM for KXOK & KLTH/St. Louis.

casting Partners] has purchased WJPC-AM & FM, and the promotion of Darryll to GM better positions us to fight this battle more effectively. It's also the furtherance of a leadership curve I hope you'll all adopt . . . teach those under you so that they can someday replace you. This kind of thinking is the only way any of us can go to the next level."

"WGCI is the best station in the country, and I'm glad to have the opportunity to lead it into the future," Green said. "We're always looking for ways to improve. On the sales side, for example, there are still a lot of clients that do not see the benefit of targeting the African-American consumer. We have to go out and promote those benefits . . . that's very important to me."

Green also was VP/Controller and Operations Director of WGCI (AM). He joined Gannett 10 years ago as a Sr. Auditor. Before that, he was a Sr. Accountant with Deloitte, Haskins, & Sells in Rochester, NY.

Woodward-Duncan will be GM at WENS and WKLR; former WCKY & WIMJ/Cincinnati GM Tom Severino will become WIBC's GM.

Regarding the two appointees, Emmis Chairman Jeff Smulyan said, "Christine's exemplary 11-year Emmis track record has earned her the opportunity to help us build in our home market. Tom's intimate knowledge of Indianapolis' competitive workings makes him a highly valued asset."

Woodward-Duncan added, "Emmis's combination of three powerful stations is a dream come true in today's competitive duopoly market. I've known Tom for 12 years and feel fortunate that we finally get a chance to work together in this new venture."

Concurrently, WNUA PD Lee Hansen has been elevated to OM.

Pyramid President/CEO Rich Balsbaugh said, "Ralph continues to impress me with his leadership qualities, and I'm extremely happy that this position can be filled internally by someone of [his] character."

Sherman commented, "I am very pleased to be able to grow in my professional development and continue to be part of this unique station."

Hansen, who will also consult the programming of pending Pyramid acquisition WJZ/Philadelphia, stated, "Having been at WNUA over the past five years, I'm eager to continue expanding my responsibilities and grow with the station."

Sherman joined WNUA at its inception in 1987 and has since held various management positions in the station's sales department.

WALT LOVE

KMJM's Gateway To Success

Amid duopoly, St. Louis outlet earns ratings gains 'the old-fashioned way'

St. Louis has staged very unique Urban radio ratings battles over the years. But now that Noble Broadcasting Group has a duopoly in the market, the situation has changed dramatically. Check out the following overview of Urban radio in St. Louis to see why.

Noble's KMJM (Majic 108)/St. Louis continues its consistent ratings climb to the top: It jumped 6.9-7.4 12+ in the Winter '94 Arbitron, raising its market rank one notch to No. 3.

Consistency Counts

Chuck Atkins

Chuck Atkins — who serves as VP/Operations for all Noble stations in St. Louis, including NAC KNJZ and Urban Gold KATZ (AM) — explains KMJM's ratings rise. "We're just getting back what we've always had. We're always very consistent. Someone said in an interview that we were one of the most consistent radio stations in the country. We normally maintain around a 7.0 or a 7.2, and we'd dipped back to a 6.9 in the Fall '93 book. But I don't fault anyone or anything.

"I attribute [our latest 12+ ratings] to our consistency. It was nothing really special that we did. Our staff has been together for quite a long time. For the last few years, we've just been doing the things we do: play great music and treat listeners like they're kings and queens."

Chuck recently was promoted from KMJM OM/PD. "Now I work with three PDs — Doc Winter at Majic 108, Ted Habeck at KNJZ, and Rod King (Dr. Jockenstine) at KATZ (AM). The four of us work very closely at all times to make sure everything is covered when it comes to music, personnel, and each station's direction and presentation. We make sure things run smoothly."

Daypart Dominance

Taking a closer look at the winter numbers, KMJM placed No. 2

"We really don't do much research. It's pretty much all gut . . . the old-fashioned way. We believe in the important things. When we're out — for business or pleasure — we listen to what people tell us and what they're talking about. And all three stations are very active in the community. We have a lot of hands-on promotions — we listen and talk to people, then we give them what they want. It's really very simple. We're never forcing anything on them."

Atkins agrees that common sense, local knowledge, and taking appropriate action seem to work for his St. Louis stations. "I've been here for eight years, and it's been working for me. I'm sticking with it until I find a need to escape it."

Corporate Support

While many broadcasters talk about being No. 1 in their markets, Atkins's approach is quite different. "We've been [No. 1] before. As far as the rankings are concerned, they're important. But to me, it's more important to get the biggest share possible at all times.

among persons 18-34 with a near 13 share. In fact, in the 12+ demo between 7pm-midnight, the station's ranked No. 1 with almost a 15 share. During the same daypart among persons 18-34, Majic 108's also ranked No. 1 with approximately a 25 share.

PROGRAMMER PROFILE

Spotlight: Chuck Atkins

Age: 35

Most influential person in life: mother Hazel Atkinson

Most influential person in broadcast career:

brother Ron Atkins, PD at WVAZ/Chicago.

Favorite song: "It's too hard to name one, but it would have to be one of those jams by Barry White."

Favorite station while growing up in Buffalo: WUFO (AM)

Favorite station before getting into radio:

KMJQ (Majic 102)/Houston

Favorite air talent: Jammin' Jay Michaels

Hobbies: "I like working out in the gym. I also like working on my home; through a community organization, I help erect homes for those less fortunate."

Advice to potential PDs: "Learn as much about the job as possible and pay attention. Be a sponge and absorb as much knowledge about the business and people as you can. Weed out the bad stuff; keep and use the good stuff. And be persistent."

Future Goals: "I've often thought about station ownership. I've reached a lot of my goals right here. I've only been in the business eight and a half years, and my first fulltime job was here as an air talent; now I oversee three stations. So I guess I have to sit down and figure out some new goals."

Favorite car: Porsche 928S, "but I don't have one."

URBAN ARROW?

KXOK-FM Aims For 25-54s

KXOK-FM/St. Louis's new OM/PD, Mike Love, is a native of the city. He's just returned home from handling afternoon drive at WPGC/Washington and served as PD/morning man at WBLS/New York.

Before Love assumed KXOK-FM's programming reins, the station was doing "a soft black AC format. We now do a '70s/'80s-type of format, spiced with some special '60s [songs] and Urban currents from artists like Toni Braxton, Tevin Campbell, and Babyface. Our target audience is females 25-54. I kind of want to say it's going to be like a black Arrow format, but it's a form of an Urban AC."

'Gangsta' War

And why this approach? "It's the only niche available for Black radio in the market. Let's be honest — Majic 108 [KMJM] has done a fantastic job cornering the market in the 18-34 demo. We're not prepared to go head to head with them right now. But I do feel there's an opening with those adults, especially among females 25-54, who really can't take the surge of 'gangsta rap' music coming out now and are looking for a different form of music.

"If you look at some of the movies [recently released] — like Spike Lee's 'Crooklyn' and Mattie Rich's 'The Inkwell' — you'll see that '70s music is back on the plane. We want to catch it while it's hot. Our ultimate goal is to be in the Top 5 among 25-54s."

"Since the demographics here don't lend themselves to positively affect an Urban station to hold the No. 1 position, our goal is to always be the No. 1 Black station in the market — and that's what we are! I don't go out of my way to try and beat out a Country or Talk station here to be No. 1. But we'll always be the No. 1 Black station here, no matter what happens."

What else is unique about Majic 108? "We have corporate backing. They trust me and our staff to do whatever is necessary in the market. I think you need that. Yes, you must have the right basic style, but you also need corporate backing to do the things needed to win. When you get creative, it also gets expensive."

Staying In St. Louis

Atkins continues, "I feel like a native of the city even though I'm originally from Buffalo. My greatest

We listen and talk to people, then we give them what they want. It's really very simple. We're never forcing anything on them.

advantage not only is that I've been here a long time, but I plan on staying. So I'm very serious about the things that we do in the community. I'm not just into giving away cash and cars on-air. I'm seriously concerned about our listeners. There are a lot of ways to use the radio station, and we choose to use it to help the people in our community.

"We're not the kind of station that tries to target anybody except those we serve — our black consumers.

We've just been doing the things we do: play great music and treat listeners like they're kings and queens.

We don't play crossover kinds of music, we just do what we do. We're mainstream . . . black. We have the ability to do whatever, but we do whatever it takes to appeal to people in St. Louis who want to hear good R&B music."

Ad Industry Needs More Minorities

Although members of minority groups are valued as consumers by the advertising industry, they continue to be seriously underrepresented in the field's labor force.

The Bureau of Labor Statistics reports that African-Americans hold only 5.2% of the positions at advertising, marketing, and public relations companies; that figure drops to 2.1% among managers and other high-level employees, according to Black Enterprise magazine.

Despite efforts to broaden minority representation, these low numbers have persisted for nearly three decades. The recent recession hasn't helped, either, thousands of advertising employees have lost their jobs and many agencies have folded in the past five years.

Winter '94 Top 100 Ratings Analysis

■ Format growth continues: 1.9% this book, 8.3% since Winter '93

The Winter '94 Arbitron ratings resulted in a split decision for CHR: Pop stations in the Top 100 markets showed a 3.9% increase in total shares over Fall '93, while the Rhythmic contingent turned in a 2.6% loss. Overall, though, the format was up 1.9% for the book.

Comparing winter-winter numbers, strong gains for both Pop (9.3%) and Rhythmic (6.4%) propelled CHR to an 8.3% increase over last year. It's actually been quite a book for CHR. A Katz Radio Group study showed CHR's average winter book share stable this year at 7.6 — the first time that figure hasn't fallen since Winter '88. And there was good news for CHR's bottom line: According to Miller, Kaplan, Arase & Co.'s recent survey of revenue growth in the first four months of 1994 (R&R 6/3), CHR's 18% increase led all formats and was a significant improvement on the format's 7% gain for all of 1993. Could 1994 be the year of the great CHR ratings and revenue turnaround?

The No. 1 Club

Once again, 10 CHR stations (9.7% of the 103 surveyed) found themselves perched atop their markets' 12+ ratings in the Winter '94 Arbitron. This book's No. 1 Club members are WPGC/Washington, WPRO-FM/Providence, KTFM/San Antonio, WKRZ/Wilkes-Barre, WAEB-FM/Allentown, KBFM/McAllen-Brownsville, KQKQ/Omaha, WNNK/Harrisburg, KPRR/El Paso, and KKRD/Wichita. A total of 64 (62.1%) captured Top 5 12+ honors; only 53% could make that claim in Winter '93.

In the 18-34 female demo, the format was off slightly, with 74.7% of stations scoring Top 5 rankings in this demo, compared to 78.9% last year. That decline can be traced primarily to losses at the Rhythmic stations, which seem to be losing some partisans to their Pop peers because of renewed interest in pop alternative crossovers.

Rhythmic CHR lost a few defectors to Pop mid-book, including KUBE/Seattle, WZJM/Cleveland, WKSE/Buffalo, and WHJX/Jacksonville. And some other Rhythmics, like WHYT/Detroit, are now experimenting with a small handful of the more rhythmic alternative crossovers. Will this trend toward Pop continue, or will Rhythmic CHR revitalize itself? The next few months will tell the story. Good luck to everyone!

Book-To-Book, Year-By-Year Comparison

The chart below was compiled by categorizing CHRs in the Top 100 markets as either pop or rhythmic based on their R&R reporting status during the Winter '94 book or, for nonreporters, the overall lean of recent playlists. KUBE/Seattle, WZJM/Cleveland, WKSE/Buffalo, and WHJX/Jacksonville — which were predominantly Rhythmic CHRs during the Winter '94 Arbitron — were counted as Rhythmic. Thanks to CHR Asst. Editor Paul Colbert for his help in compiling this analysis.

RATINGS REVIEW

The Morning Numbers Game

Let's take a leap into the winter Arbitron numbers once again, this time focusing on the morning shows at Rock and Classic Rock stations in the Top 100 markets.

Rock Stats

Three Rock outlets grabbed No. 1 honors 12+: WFBQ/Indianapolis (20.9), WCMF/Rochester (16.9), and WKLQ/Grand Rapids (10.8). Eight Rockers were No. 1 in both adults and men 18-34 and adults and men 25-54 (see box at right).

Rock stations scored best overall among men 18-34, wherein 47% placed first, 21% were runners-up, and 6% came in third. Rock's next best stats were in adults 18-34 (33% No. 1, 16% No. 2, and 11% No. 3).

The lowest showing for Rock stations was in the adults 25-54 demo:

8% ranked No. 1; 11% ranked two or three. As for men 25-54, the rankings spiked up a bit — 25% No. 1, 15% No. 2, and 9% No. 3.

Classic Rock Stats

Four Classic Rock stations scored the top spot 12+ in their respective markets: WXRK/New York (8.3), KLSX/Los Angeles (5.5), WNCX/Cleveland (11.3), and WRFX/Charlotte (11.2, tie). Only three Classic Rockers were No. 1 among adults and men 18-34 as well as adults and men 25-54: WXRK, KLSX, and WRFX.

Overall, Classic Rock continues to appeal primarily to the male demos. In adults 18-34, 17% were ranked first, 17% were second, and 9% placed third. In men 18-34, the breakdown was 24%, 26%, and 11%.

The adult 25-54 demo had the poorest showing for Classic Rock — 7% No. 1, 13% No. 2, and 9% No. 3. But the rankings came up again for men 25-54, wherein 28% came out on top, 19% were second, and 4% were ranked third.

In a forthcoming column, I'll delve more deeply into Rock morning shows. Stay tuned.

KDGE Goes To The Movies

■ Innovative new video presents promotional, advertising opportunities

Edge Broadcasting Corporation's KDGE (The Edge)/Dallas has found an interesting new way of getting into listeners' homes: The station has produced a music video that listeners can watch free with a paid rental at area Blockbuster outlets.

The hour-long video features excerpts from the station's recent Edgefest '94, including footage of KDGE personalities broadcasting live and interviewing bands. In addition, the tape contains several music videos from bands who performed at the festival.

Visual Edge

KDGE GSM Brian Brown credits former MD George Gimarc — who, incidentally, produced the video — with coming up with the idea. "Every radio station is faced with the challenge of being able to touch its listeners with original promotion-

66

It gives us an opportunity to market the station and put us in a position where we can have indirect, but still physical contact with our listeners.

al ideas," explains Brown. "When you're dealing with a cume of 400,000+ listeners, you're never going to see all those people. This is not a recycled idea, and that's what got my attention.

"They are smart marketers at Blockbuster and we had a marketing concept that would appeal to them. It obviously gives them the opportunity to attract more customers. There are 90 stores in the market, and a substantial portion of our cume probably visits those stores on a regular basis. It gives us an opportunity to market the station and put us in a position where we can have indirect, but still physical, contact with our listeners.

[Video] represents a piece of work of what we are. It gives the listener visual contact with the station. They see the personalities and pictures of the music. By virtue of this format, the listener tends to be a lot more of an aficionado than most formats. Our audience is hungry for this kind of stuff."

Free Advertising

Blockbuster, in exchange for carrying the videos, gets plenty of on-air mentions. "We have 10 videos at each of the stores," Brown explains. "They're in the new release section — with shelf-talkers. We ran 24 spots the first week because it was new. We'll run a schedule of recorded promos every week.

The station is also using the tape as a sales tool. There are commercials 15, 30, and 45 minutes into the video, selected by the station — and placed on the tape at no cost to the advertiser. "It's evaluated on the basis of promotional value and what it can offer us in the way of additional leverage with advertisers. It's an opportunity for us to entice advertisers that may not have otherwise been interested in us. It gives advertisers another reason to advertise on the Edge, and they have another means of amortizing the video production expense. They're always looking for these opportunities.

"We're concerned with the type of advertisers. We don't want any alcoholic beverages because there's a strong possibility that a lot of these tapes will fall into the hands of minors. We're not only responsible about commercials, but also the language content."

Monthly Venture

KDGE is planning to produce a new video every month. "We have our birthday bash on June 26, so we'll shoot footage for the July 'Edge Home Movie,'" notes Brown. "We're working right down to the wire — we'll have the new video in stores July 1.

"We're taking it a step at a time. The big concern we have is producing a high-quality product that's cutting edge, because that's what our audience expects from us. We have to make sure they're getting something from us they can't get somewhere else. We treat this like any other promotional expense.

Brown says labels readily bought into the plan. "It's beneficial to [labels] because it's going to help sell product and it's not costing them anything. This is the best promotional piece I've ever created, and I've been doing this for a long time."

Pearl Jam Bootlegs

Now that Pearl Jam's summer tour is an apparent casualty of the band's ticket-price war with Ticketmaster, most fans will have to console themselves with memories of the band's Atlanta show, which was broadcast live via satellite on radio stations across the country.

But some fortunate fans will have more than just memories — KNDD (The End)/Seattle and WNNX (99X)/Atlanta both produced limited-edition 17-track bootleg CDs of the concert for their listeners.

The End Bootleg

KNDD distributed 1300 of its 2000 CDs through on-air contests over the Memorial Day weekend, with the remainder given away at Home Video Express locations.

"We had such great response from the broadcast that it made sense for us to set it in stone for our listeners that didn't have the chance to bootleg the show," says KNDD Promotion Director Keri Lee. "It took a big chunk out of my promotional budget, but it's well worth it when you're giving something like this to your listeners."

99X Bootleg

99X put together a batch of 1000 CDs. "Pearl Jam fans are everywhere, and it's a unique thing to offer our listeners," notes 99X Promotion Director Amy Henry. "We had Pearl Jam and 99X stamps made, and we hand-stamped the back of each one. Every single one is different. We didn't want to include any song titles because a bootleg wouldn't do that. I really wanted it to look 'bootleg-ish'."

"We started giving them away on-air Memorial Day weekend every other hour, even overnights, for a week. They've been a hot addition to all our on-site appearances. They're already showing up on the streets being sold — the latest price I heard was $130."

Song Selection

There wasn't enough room to include the entire concert on one CD, so both stations had to decide which tracks would be included.

"We wanted to include cuts we were going to play on the station," 99X PD Brian Philips explains. "We edited about 23 separate [Eddie Vedder] 'fuck' tirades out; we kept some of them because they were very funny. This is the hottest giveaway of my history in radio. It's amazing — it's hotter than the tickets to the show. It was a wonderful gift from the band to allow radio to do this."

The End's bootleg kept the focus on songs from the band's recent "Vs." CD, says MD Marco Collins. "We're aware that Pearl Jam is coming out with a new album in July. We wanted to put a unreleased tune on it, but we didn't want to milk the band for all its new songs and pull some steam away from the new record."

Stacking Them Up

Both stations crammed the maximum 74 minutes of music onto their bootlegs, and the CDs have 14 tracks in common: "Release Me," "Rear View Mirror," "Dis-sident," "Why Go," "Jeremy," "Glorified G," "Daughter/Another Brick In The Wall," "Go," "Animal," "Black," "Alive," the unreleased "Better Man," "Elderly Woman ...," and "Once." The 99X version includes another unreleased track, "Whip-pin," plus "Even Flow" and "Garden," while the End's exclusive tracks include "Prelude," "Deep," and "Indifference."

- LP: "Supermarket"

• Essentials: Fed up with band democracy, Swedish-based Stakka Bo (aka Johan Renck) one year ago embarked on a solo venture with the help of longtime friend/producer Jonas von der Burg (keyboards/programming). The pair collaborated on songs, then assembled a group from friends and relatives. Stakka Bo and former Orange Crush member Oscar share lead vocals, backed by David Wilczewski (flute/saxophone), Magnus Lindsten and Mats Karlsson (keyboards), Niclas von der burg (bass/guitar), Martin Renck (guitar), and vocalists Nana Hedin, Katrina Wilczewski, and Monica Hulten. The name? It's a combination of Johan's old band — Stakka Homes Bumba Clot — and his Christian name, Bo. He cites ska (e.g., the Specials and Madness) as a big influence.

• Artist POV: "I have similarities between the attitude and two-tone scene of ska," notes Johan. "It's the political satire with an ethical blend of black and white music. It's rap, soul, and jazz, with a pop dimension."

• Label POV: PLG VP/Alternative Promotion & Video Steve Leeds notes, "With radio requests, sales, and MTV exposure — Stakka Bo is stacking up to be another PLG success."

Walking An Alternative Wire

Lauren MacLeash

"Rather than a format, we're a formula," notes PD Lauren MacLeash. "We have been able to integrate alternative into our adult-leaning station, because that's our formula. When I came here two and half years ago, the station was on course to have its own identity, and we began by playing fewer Classic Rock artists. The purpose was to slowly take our listeners with us as we evolved, narrowing our playlist and niching this as a Progressive/Alternative station.

"The majority of the Classic Rock, like the Allman Brothers, Traffic, and Pink Floyd, is gone

now. These artists would be the extremes for Progressive, because they're already on other stations in the market. On the Alternative side, the extremes would be Hole, the Rollins Band, and the Beastie Boys. We're not going to play either extreme, but the Gin Blossoms, Toad The Wet Sprocket, and Collective Soul will work.

"What works at the beach isn't necessarily going to work in the mountains, and vice versa. You have to really know your market. I have a sound for the station in my head. We do quality-control panels with core PI listeners, and I use a little bit of research and Soundscan.

"We're an uptempo station because of the psychographics and lifestyle of the Norfolk-Virginia Beach area. The important cell to work — whether you're an 18-34 or 25-54 station — is that 25-34 core. I have a category of songs that are the essence of the 25-34 demo. We come back to home base with R.E.M., 10,000 Maniacs, and U2.

I stay away from songs that specifically cater to the lower end; if it doesn't overlap the 25-34, it's not going to fit.

—Lauren MacLeash

These groups are palatable to the 30+.

"We're going to lean a little 30+, because we don't play the younger side of Alternative. Our station doesn't have the angst other Alternative stations have, so we're probably not going to please the 18-24s. I stay away from songs that specifically cater to the lower end; if it doesn't overlap the 25-34, it's not going to fit."

Balancing The Sound

MacLeash explains how she balances the station's sound: "I use dayparting, and the station progresses with a person's mood during the day. In the morning, we have a sound that appeals to the commute listeners — there are a lot of people coming in and out. In the middle, people are listening in the office, so I'm going to avoid any heavy stuff. The afternoons pick up in tempo, because people are going home, and their attitudes change. At night, 'The Coast After Hours' explores more 18-34-leaning groups, like Smashing Pumpkins, Michael Been, and the Stone Temple Pilots.

"When we play something that leans a little younger, the next song will be a transition song for the 25-34s, and then we go a little bit older. You're never going to hear the Indigo Girls into Michael Been, because there has to be music in between that fits both lifestyles. We don't want to turn off the younger listener with the next song. That's why I chop off the extremes on both ends. You can't go from the Allman Brothers to the Rollins Band. There has to be a center — then you go out from the center."

WVGO/Richmond

"We make an effort to present equal amounts of alternative music and the adult, folksy material," notes PD Paul Shugrue, a Richmond vet who joined the station five months ago from crosstown AOR WRXL [XL102]. "We try to present fresher-sounding alternative bands as well as older acts that don't get that much airplay anywhere else, like Bonnie Raitt. It's an odd combination sometimes, but it sounds good going from the Cure into Stevie Ray Vaughan.

"We look at them as two different styles of music. We don't want to get too top-heavy in one particular sound. We categorize songs as 'folky softer adult' and 'alternative.' We call them 'Rock AC' and 'Modern,' because we're trying to strike a balance between modern and an AC kind of sound. It's real subjective — we move things from day to day."

Shugrue says the station offers variety and balance. "There's a lot of dayparting, although we try to balance the different categories. It's

CONSULTANT VIEWPOINT

History Of The Format

Format pioneer and consultant Dennis Constantine recounts the evolution of Progressive radio in the following letter.

Now that R&R has unveiled its new Progressive section, it's an appropriate time to look back to the beginnings of Progressive radio 27 years ago. Tom Donahue is generally recognized as the father of Progressive, and it was Friday, April 7, 1967, when Tom's nightly program on KMPX 106.9 in San Francisco debuted.

Constantine

KMPX (now KEAR) was owned by Crosby-Pacific Broadcasting Company. The station sold blocks of time, in much the same way Religious stations do. The specialty of KMPX was foreign-language programming. During the overnight time period, KMPX played music, and on weekends, it had student announcers who paid for their timeslot as part of their training in the Crosby School of Radio.

When Donahue came to KMPX to meet with GM Leon Crosby, the overnight show was already playing an eclectic mix of music featuring folk, classical, jazz, and rock. Larry Miller's overnight show began in February 1967 and was really the first Progressive show. It was Donahue, however, who brought the style to a large audience by focusing on a rock genre.

The name given to the format at the time was Underground Radio. Donahue actually paid for his airtime via a very complicated agreement with Crosby. Tom's company, North Beach Productions, would sell the ad time on his show and then pay Crosby-Pacific 65% commission. Part of the agreement was that as the contracts for the foreign-language programs could be terminated, Donahue would expand the progressive rock programming into other dayparts. On Sunday, August 6, four months after Donahue's first program, KMPX went Underground fulltime.

Thanks to the tremendous response in San Francisco, Donahue convinced Crosby-Pacific to purchase a station in Los Angeles. On November 6, 1967, they assumed control of KPPC, a station operated out of the basement of the Pasadena Presbyterian Church. Starting in November, Donahue became the first "fly jock" by doing shows on both KMPX and KPPC. Depending on what city he was in, he would record his show for the other city, and send the tape to the station on the airplane. In Los Angeles, Donahue inherited a staff unfamiliar with the Progressive music scene, so he wrote down the playlists for the announcers to follow. So there was a format and preprogrammed playlists in early Progressive radio!

By 1973, practically every major city had a Progressive outlet. KRNW/Boulder, CO (now KBCO) started playing Progressive in October 1969. WXRT/Chicago, a foreign-language station, began playing Progressive music on its overnight show on August 4, 1972. It's the only station that's remained Progressive since its inception.

By the winter of 1976, Progressive radio was dying. Many of the old big-library album outlets were converting to the tight-listed Superstars format. Stations that once let the DJs pick anything they wanted were beginning to take themselves seriously and installed systems to rotate the 600 best titles. Top 40 formatics were introduced into these former Progressive stations, with card files, lists, and rotations.

While today's Progressive stations have not reinstated total free choice by the DJs, most stations use modern technology to try to recreate the "feeling" of Donahue's vision almost three decades ago.

two-to-one folksy to modern during the day, but at night it's the other way around. The available night audience is younger, but older people are still listening, so we still play our folksy category."

Conservative Approach

Shugrue explains his alternative music selection process. "We have a conservative approach to modern rock. We play very little grunge or heavier alternative bands. What we play at night must be compatible during the day. If it's a revolutionary kind of band that has a completely different sound, we'll be slower to go on it. The bands that have a wide variety within their own sound seem to work best.

"We look for alternative music we think our listeners won't be able to find on other stations. We also want to play songs our listeners expect to hear on the station, which is one reason we didn't play Soundgarden. They have a song that's fairly compatible with our sound, but it's being played enough at other stations in the market.

"We pay attention to what XL102 plays, but we often don't have to go to any effort to avoid songs they play. We're usually on the station before them, if we're going to play it. Collective Soul is another song we might play, but we've stayed off it because it's getting played enough at XL102, where it sounds more compatible."

FAN FAIR '94

Plaques, Performances, And Tears Of Joy

Heat, humidity, thunder, lightning, torrential downpours, and fans — thousands of folks who love country music in a way that most of us even in this business barely understand. Yep, a week of all of the above means another Fan Fair has come and gone.

Don't get me wrong — there's not an ounce of complaint in that first paragraph. I love the annual event. The adoration and extent the fans go to for a chance to spend 30 seconds with their favorite stars has an incredibly rejuvenating effect.

In addition to the events depicted in this week's Fan Fair photo spread, the one I'll always remember is John Berry's performance at the Liberty showcase — his first since undergoing brain surgery last month. His family was on hand, including his mother-in-law, who held his newborn baby. After receiving numerous plaques from label President Jimmy Bowen, Berry strummed the first chords to "Your Love Amazes Me." His voice broke as he began to sing; many watching from the wings wondered whether he'd make it through the song.

By the time Berry reached the chorus, there wasn't a dry eye in the audience — or among the supposedly jaded, we've-seen-it-all industry folks gathered backstage. When he finished, he and show host Charlie Daniels embraced for a few minutes, tears streaming down both of their faces. It was truly one of the most moving experiences of my 20 years in radio. Godspeed, John.

IS IT OVER YET? — Blackhawk's Henry Paul and Linda Davis join the Arista/Nashville staffers for a post-Fan Fair party to cap off the week's festivities. Fan Fair crowds were surprised during Arista's show when Reba McEntire joined Davis onstage to perform their smash duet, "Does He Love You." Also performing were Alan Jackson, Lee Roy Parnell, and Pam Tillis. Pictured breathing a collective sigh of relief after a week full of activities are (l-r) Paul, Davis, and Arista/Nashville Sr. VP Mike Dungan and VP Jack Weston.

OUTLAW'S DOZEN — The powers-that-be at Curb Records surprised Tim McGraw after his Fan Fair performance with no less than 12 awards for his latest album, "Not A Moment Too Soon." Also featured in the Curb show were Sawyer Brown, Hal Ketchum, and Boy Howdy. Pictured at the presentation are (l-r) former Curb exec Dick Whitehouse, label VP John Brown and Chairman Mike Curb, McGraw, and Curb Sr. VP/IGM Phil Gernhard and VP Dennis Hannon.

WILLIE AND RAY — Willie Nelson made a surprise appearance during Liberty's show to perform with old pals Asleep At The Wheel. Label head Jimmy Bowen also announced during the show that Nelson has signed a deal with the label.

STANDING BY HER MAN — Tammy Wynette surprised Collin Raye onstage during his portion of Sony/Nashville's Fan Fair show. The two performed a rendition of Hank Williams Sr.'s "Your Cheatin' Heart." The Columbia/Nashville and Epic/Nashville extravaganza also featured performances by Bobbie Cryner, Joe Diffie, the Gibson Miller Band, James House, Patty Loveless, Ken Mellons, Doug Stone, and Joy Lynn White.

A BERRY GOOD CAUSE — Liberty artists John Berry (l) and Charlie Daniels (r) join actor Danny Glover and Coors spokesperson Phyllis Coors for a press conference announcing the partnership between the two companies for a new literacy program. Berry, Daniels, and other Liberty acts will record songs for a cassette to benefit the new program.

Hot AC: New 'KDD On The Block

A major step in the growth process of a budding format took place two months ago (4/22) when R&R debuted a Hot AC/Adult CHR chart. While each Top 10 market is represented, confusion still persists in exactly what constitutes such a facility.

"Hot AC represents a station's ability to maintain CHR's traditional repetitiveness, while expanding a gold library," opines CHR-turned-Hot AC WKDD/Akron PD/MD Chuck Collins. "A HAC's gold library can be expanded to include different eras and musical textures that you might not be able to get away with on CHR. Instead of being concerned with new product, I focus more on gold."

Chuck Collins

As a CHR, WKDD played virtually nothing more than five years old. Adjusting that policy after the station's Hot AC evolution, Collins explains, "Our 'main' gold library today is from 1986-1991 and a 'regular' oldie comes from 1980-1986. We also have this wonderful resource called the '70s that gets about eight plays a day."

Three Cleveland outlets, including Hot AC WQAL, supply WKDD with format challenges. "We're not concerned with WQAL or the 'straight-ahead AC' [WLTF]," Collins remarks. "They don't impact this market as much as the Soft AC [WDOK]."

Counting The Ways

In attempting to define what makes WKDD 'hot,' Collins comments, "I watch the ACs be extremely conservative and then I'll add John Mellencamp ['Wild Night'] and stick my neck out on and reap the benefits from Counting Crows ['Mr. Jones']. We have the liberty to move faster than other ACs on adding songs like this.

"'Mr. Jones' might not make sense to a 40-year-old woman hearing the song for the first time. She might have a hard time with the strange chord patterns. After several months, though, our callout supports that it's one of her favorite songs. We can be a little more experimental with currents than ACs and more broad-based than CHRs in my oldies library."

Reflecting on WKDD's '70s-oriented Memorial Day Weekend spe-

Soft ACs can't vary from their programming. They're about as homogeneous as it gets and they must stay that way. Our strength is variety.

— Chuck Collins

cial, Collins says, "My audience loved it. Soft ACs can't vary from their programming. They're about as homogeneous as it gets and they must stay that way. Our strength is variety."

Daypart Options

Collins takes advantage of dayparting. "We're a bit more contemporary and upbeat at night when our upperend demos' behaviors change. They're glued to television, so we play music 18-34s want to hear."

While Collins admits WKDD does many things at night that it wouldn't do during the day, he steers clear of reverting to a CHR approach. "We'd be talking to 12-24s and would have to do 'Make It Or Break It,' and countdowns."

He remembers problems from the station's recent CHR past and notes, "Our ratings suffered tremendously because we couldn't get into offices or [establish] any daytime listening. Our listeners have stuck with our heritage morning show for the past nine years. Without that kind of foundation, the CHR-Hot AC transition would have been very difficult."

No Experiments

Collins is happier and more comfortable with how AC promotes records to programmers. "There's a more professional approach compared to CHR. [Promotion people] talk to me about a record's value and what it will do for us. If they start talking about giving away TV sets, it's clear a record can't stand on its own merit."

"With our relatively short current playlist, I can only afford to put songs on the air that my listeners will absolutely love. We can't experiment with songs that get 20-30 plays a week."

Hot AC's Music Strength

Collins doesn't expect Hot AC to replace CHR. "We're going after different audiences and the music coming out now is exactly what Hot ACs need. This format is here to stay. As far as growth potential is concerned, I'm much more comfortable as a Hot AC looking to the future than I would be as a CHR."

Shattering Some Shocking Hot AC Myths

Perhaps the biggest misconception people have with Hot AC/Adult CHRs involves the approach these stations take with new music. The widespread belief that HAC/ACHRs are extremely aggressive and have huge playlists is being shattered.

"When the first R&R Hot AC chart appeared, record people told me it looked weird," remarks KIOI ("K-101")/San Francisco MD Angela Perelli. "They were shocked, but I told them that's what Hot ACs play."

Angela Perelli

Representing one side of K-101's competitive mix are KMEL and

KYLD, the Bay Area's potent urban-leaning CHR. "We're a lot like a CHR/Top 40 and for many people 30+, we are the CHR here," Perelli maintains, adding that her station doesn't play metal or rap. "We're a mainstream, 'pop,' CHR for adults and we have fun promotions and a personality morning show. The difference is we're talking to adults rather than teenagers."

CHR's Constant Quest

Reliance on gold is another key way K-101 differs from KMEL and

KYLD. "After a CHR plays a song 10 times a day for a month, you never hear it again. That's my biggest complaint as a CHR listener," Perelli remarks. "Hot ACs may go on songs late, but, if they test well, we'll play them as power currents, recurrences, and oldies. That's the biggest difference between CHRs and ACs. They're always looking for the next, newest, hippest record."

K-101's on-air presentation is closer to that of a CHR than AC. "Traditional ACs frown on personality and think talking is a bad thing. While people listen for music, they also want to hear people they feel they know. Our announcers don't chatter mindlessly, but we want them to talk over music. With the exception of our most recent currents, we don't backsell music."

When the first [R&R Hot AC chart appeared], record people told me it looked weird. They were shocked, but I told them that's what Hot ACs play.

— Angela Perelli

Soft Side Separation

Soft AC KOIT provides K-101 competition on the other side of the spectrum, but as Perelli notes, "[Listeners] are more actively involved in what we do. People come to us for more than music. Our station has an energy and personality and it sounds like we're having fun. "Many 25-40 adults who aren't ready yet for [ACs like KOST/Los Angeles] are being alienated by CHRs playing Snoop Doggy Dogg." The only reason Perelli foresees trouble for Hot ACs is if CHR starts to swing back into the mainstream. "But, if they continue to be as rap and alternative-oriented, there will always be a place for Hot ACs because we're playing hits that work for adults."

RANDALL BLOOMQUIST

Ten Reasons Why Your Ratings Don't Improve

Still chewing on that Winter Arbitron book and wondering why your station hasn't shown any growth over the past year? Can't figure out how you've slipped three notches in the 25-54 rankings? It's likely you're suffering from one or more of 10 common problems.

According to several successful Talk programmers, the following list will provide a guideline to use when giving your programming the once-over.

1. Management impatience. A key to success in the Talk format is putting together a good lineup and allowing it enough time to jell with listeners. Unfortunately, too many managers and owners, particularly those who joined the Talk radio party when it was in full swing, don't understand this basic format reality. If they don't see quick and steady ratings increases, they start demanding changes to the air product, which may just be starting to catch on with the audience. “I've seen managers freak out over one bad trend,” marvels WTMJ/Milwaukee PD Steve Wexler.

“I think bottom-of-the-hour newscasts are clutter unless, of course, there's a major breaking story.”
—John Mainelli

2. Commercial overload. Because the format is expensive to produce — and because AM has traditionally been spot-heavy — many Talk stations burden their hours with an excess of commercial time that may pay the bills, but ultimately wears on listeners' nerves.

“I think anything more than 16 minutes an hour is getting excessive,” says WABC/New York PD John Mainelli.

3. Weak talent. Perhaps the most valuable skill a PD can possess is the ability to recruit, groom, and retain truly captivating talk hosts. Alas, many programmers lack that ability. As a result, their stations are staffed with far too many has-beens and wannabes, who can fill up four hours of airtime with phone calls, but who will never be truly successful.

4. Too much news. Listeners come to Talk stations to hear debates about the day's hot news and issues — not for constant updates on them. “I think bottom-of-the-hour newscasts are clutter unless, of course, there's a major breaking story,” says Mainelli.

5. Loss of focus. Issue-oriented Talk stations should stick close to what they do best, issues-oriented talk. Just because there seems to be an opening for, let's say, sports programming, it may not be in your station's best interest to try to fill that need. You run the risk of blurring the station's image and possibly alienating its core audience in hopes of picking up listenership that may be of marginal value.

“Stations need to remember what audience they're not after,” cautions WXYT/Detroit OM Michael Packer. “Otherwise, they'll spend precious resources going after listeners they shouldn't even be worried about pursuing.”

6. Failure to reinvent. There are a million sayings that sum up this one, including: You've got to change constantly because things constantly change. “You need to look every day at each host, guest, and topic with a fresh eye,” says WWDB/Philadelphia PD David Rimmer. “You need to set aside the baggage

“You need to set aside the baggage of your relationships and years in the business and evaluate what you're doing. You also need to listen to new ideas and outside voices.”
—David Rimmer

of your relationships and years in the business and evaluate what you're doing. You also need to listen to new ideas and outside voices.”

Remember, there is no finish line — even when you're No. 1.

7. Wimpy management. A Talk GM who routinely answers corporate, sponsor, or community criticism by urging his PD to tone down the programming poses a serious danger to his station's health.

GATEWAY DEBUT — Syndicated Talk personality Rush Limbaugh visited KMOX/St. Louis to mark his debut on the Gateway City powerhouse. In addition to originating his own program from the station, he was a guest on the Barbara Whitesides (r) show and did some Cardinals baseball play-by-play with radio legend Jack Buck.

Ironically, notes Wexler, this tends to be a problem stations face once they've arrived as a force in the market. “Successful Talk stations tend to stir things up,” he says. “When you start to have an impact, meetings, drafting budgets, setting up remotes, blah, blah, blah. The successful programmer never forgets that the only thing that matters is what goes out over the air every day.

PDs must take the time — lots of it — to listen to their own stations. They must also take the time — and have the guts — to offer thoughtful, honest critiques of the air staff's work.

9. Dumb rules. Hosts don't work well when they're bound by a bevy of petty dictates about such things as the length of phone calls and the frequency of time checks. Give your talkers the freedom to be great.

10. Bleeding-heart screeners. Never, ever forget that the show is for the listeners, not the callers. Be merciless in screening out bad or weak calls. Just because they dialed your station's number doesn't mean they have the right to drag down your programming.

“Don't let call screeners be nice to callers at the expense of the audience,” says Mainelli.

BAD WEATHER

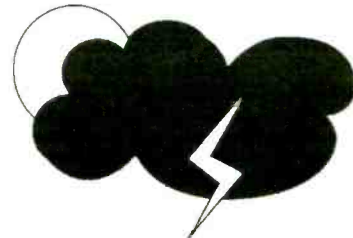

“Y-108 satellite weather calls for showers this morning changing to mostly cloudy skies by afternoon.”

VOICEOVER SERVICES

HE IS NOT THE VOICE OF GOD

A lot of voice-over guys would be bothered by that...But who cares about a bunch of voice-over guys?

I read 'em like you want 'em. Warm-edgy, slow-fast, hard-soft, funny-serious, staged-conversational. REAL. My price is right. And I do your work 'til it's just what you want. I am market exclusive and only interested in a handful of clients. Too many stations = slipshod service...and that won't cut it for either one of us. The Voice of God, I'm not. But if you want a Real Voice with impact and all the service you can handle, call for a demo and let's get started.

"Hooked On Phonics" thinks so. "Call 1-800-ABC-DEFG."

Compensation packages will be paid in U.S. dollars, with U.S. health insurance, trans-Atlantic travel allowances, and necessary support services included.

"STICKERS? STICKERS? WE DON'T MAKE NO STINKIN' STICKERS!"

- Pancho Villa, 1916

No, Pancho, you don't need no stinkin' stickers. But, effective, high-quality decals? Well, that's a different story. The heart and soul of your image may very well rely upon the acceptance of the bumper decals you distribute. If it doesn't look great, chances are most folks won't display them for you. And that's where we come in. We produce decals like nobody else, with care and craftsmanship. Head-turning design and state-of-the-art production, that's what you get with Communication Graphics. Call us today and see what a difference a few centavos can make.
