Katz Sold, IPO Dead

Investors Donaldson, Lufkin, Jenrette spend $100 million for majority of rep firm

Katz Media Corp. Tuesday (7/12) announced that the company had been sold to Donaldson, Lufkin & Jenrette. The deal also resulted in the cancellation of Katz's planned $70+ million public stock offering.

Terms of the radio-TV-cable rep firm's sale weren't disclosed. DLJ, a Wall Street investment banking firm, is buying a controlling interest in Katz Media beyond the 41% currently owned by Sandler Media, so the price tag could be in the $100 million range. Katz Media managers and employees will continue to own a substantial stake in the company. (The company's most recent earnings report appears on Page 4.)

"Our interest in offering stock to the public was based on our conviction that this would be a great opportunity for recapitalizing our company and enabling our equity partners and our management stockholders to capitalize on the benefits of their investments," said Katz Media Chairman Jim Greenwald. "However, DLJ's offer provided us with an even better opportunity and a partner with a proven track record working in the media industry."

No Changes For KRG

DLJ handled last year's public stock offering by Evergreen Media and financing of the Argyle Television group (which is being sold at a substantial profit). It also negotiated the sale of Westwood One's radio properties.

"We believe that DLJ has a deep understanding of what we do," said Katz Radio Group President Gordon Hastings, who is also a director of the parent company. He told R&R that no structural changes are anticipated at KRG from the DLJ acquisition.

"We believe the new partnership with DLJ is going to allow us to serve our clients in an even better way than we are now," Hastings added.

Bisceglia Now Arista Sr. VP

Longtime Arista Records exec Rick Bisceglia has been named Sr. VP, solidly making him the No. 2 person at the label behind President Clive Davis.

Bisceglia, who joined Arista 14 years ago, will continue to oversee its CHR, Rock, AC, and video promotion departments while also coordinating efforts between the sales, marketing, black music, and promotion departments.

"In recognition of the invaluable role Rick has played in the continued growth and expansion of Arista, it gives me great pleasure to congratulate him on his well-deserved promotion," Davis said.

Bisceglia

"Arista has enjoyed continuous growth, and being a part of it has been very rewarding," noted Bisceglia. "I look forward to the challenge of formulating strategies and realizing the maximum potential for the future. To be acknowledged by Clive Davis in taking on these new responsibilities is its own incentive, and I deeply appreciate his support."

Bisceglia has worked in a variety of promotion functions at Arista. Before joining the label, he was in the programming department of WXLO (now WRKS)/New York and on the promotion staff of Ariola Records.

Morris Named Pres./COO Of Warner-U.S.; Krasnow Exits

Speculators point to Rhone as likely new Elektra chief; WB's Ostin expected to stay

Atlantic Records co-Chairman/co-CEO Doug Morris has been named President/COO of Warner Music-U.S. He now oversees all of the company's record labels, including Warner Bros., Atlantic, and Elektra.

The promotion, which was announced by Warner Music Group Chairman Robert Morgado, apparently triggered Elektra Chairman Bob Krasnow's resignation Monday (7/11). But Morris said rumors of other changes at the music empire are unfounded.

He tossed off as "pure speculation" various media reports projecting that Krasnow would be replaced by EastWest Chairman/CEO Sylvia Rhone if a rumored Elektra-EastWest merger takes place, and he took particular exception to stories that WB Chairman Mo Ostin would be encouraged to retire so that he could install Interscope Records chief Jimmy Iovine in his place.

Morris

"It's not true," Morris said of Ostin. "He's the most beloved executive in the industry."

Morris said his long-term mission is to nurture and expand Warner Music's already expansive stable of artists: "All of us with titles are completely dependent on the genius of the people who

White House: Mixed Signals Over Performance Royalties

Commerce Secretary Ron Brown sent a mixed message to broadcasters last week regarding performance rights. While the White House task force he chaired has recommended that broadcasters pay performance royalties to artists and record companies, Brown told a news conference he'd prefer "not to have traditional broadcasters involved" in new performance rights legislation currently under consideration.

After examining potential potholes in the Clinton administration's information superhighway (officially known as the National Information Infrastructure), the task force rolled out a blueprint for changing copyright laws last Thursday (7/7). The portion dealing with music licensing called the lack of a public performance right for sound recordings a "historical anomaly" that "does not have a strong policy justification . . . and certainly not a legal one" — and suggested it's "time to rectify this inequity."

Brown: Target DAB

Secretary Brown, however, took a different course when questioned by journalists at the report's unveiling. "My personal judgment is that it would make some sense not to have traditional broadcasters involved in the way that has been originally sug-

Cook Takes KHKS/Dallas PD Position

Former WYXR/Philadelphia PD John Cook has been named PD at Gannett CHR KHKS (Kiss 106.1)/Dallas. He replaces Sean Phillips, who resigned last month.

KHKS President/GM Brenda Adriance told R&R, "John represents the right combination of the qualities needed to take Kiss to the next level. We're excited to have him as a part of our team."

Cook commented to R&R, "The opportunity to rejoin a great company like Gannett and work with [Gannett President] Gerry [DeFrancesco], Brenda, and the KHKS staff is a really exciting opportunity. The station is already successful, and I'm looking to grow it into a CHR dynasty."

California Station Owner Convicted Of Murder Charges

■ KOLA engineer reportedly paid $2000 to kill lover of owner's estranged wife

Clapping a scenario straight out of the film noir handbook, Riverside station owner Fred Cote, 59, was found guilty Monday (7/11) in Riverside Superior Court of first degree murder in connection with the 1991 death of his estranged wife's lover.

Cote (Ko-tay), owner of satellite Gold KOLA/San Bernardino and dark KMET/Banning, CA, will be sentenced August 29. Under California law, the only sentence he can get is life in prison without possibility of parole. He's been in jail since August 1991, when he was arrested at a Hawaii airport holding a ticket to Argentina.

Trail Of Evidence

On February 21, 1991, KOLA engineer Joseph David Miller and another man (who wasn't charged, for want of evidence) entered John Morell's apartment and bound him and Jane Cote, then 39, in what was meant to look like an abduction. Then they took Morell into another room and shot him in the head.

Prosecutor Rodric Pacheco argued that Cote had hired Miller to kill Morell, 43, and that he agreed to pay $5000 for the execution, but ultimately only wrote two $1000 checks. Those

AC WMGK Flips To '70s Gold

WMGK/Philadelphia segued from AC to all-'70s Gold early Monday morning (7/11). The station has retained its calls and "Magic" slogan but now bills itself as playing "All The Greatest Hits Of The '70s All The Time."

PD Julian Breen told R&R, "We began running a Saturday night '70s show last November, and it gave us a nice spike in the winter book. It became obvious that there's a demand for this music, and it isn't being addressed by any other station in the market. We were either going to seize the opportunity or have someone else club us over the head with it."

WMGK, a pioneer of the "Magic" approach, had been an AC since September 2, 1975.

Mascolo, Young To Navigate River North/Nashville's Course

McClusky & Associates/Nashville Sr. VP/Promotion Eddie Mascolo and VP/Promotion Bobby Young have joined River North/Nashville as VP/GM and VP/Promotion & Artist Development, respectively.

"We're really excited to have the opportunity to bust a label loose in this town," said Mascolo.

"It's exciting to be working with a small label," added Young. "In the corporate world, music sometimes comes in second place. River North puts it first."

Mascolo

Young

Mascolo began his career as an independent promoter in 1968. After working in Polydor's pop division for five years, he spent several years at RCA, where his posts included National Promotion Director and Sr. VP/Product Development. Mascolo then served as Sr. VP/Country Promotion for Mercury/Nashville, then RCA/Nashville, before joining McClusky.

Young first worked with Mascolo at Mercury/Nashville, where he served as VP/Country Promotion. Prior to that, he was an independent record promoter.

RADIO BUSINESS

Drug Companies Underutilize Radio

Over-the-counter (OTC) drug marketers increased their radio ad spending 45% from 1989 to 1993.

In fact, the good news for radio is that some non-prescription drug marketers have learned to go where their customers are. Spending for OTC drug advertising rose from $57 million to $82.4 million during the aforementioned four-year span. But most still overspent on less effective media while their target consumers were listening to radio, according to an Interep Radio Store research report.

Radio Reaches More

The report — "Reaching The Non-Prescription Drug Consumer" — found that in every Top 10 product category for both men and women 18+, based on Simmons Market Research Bureau data, radio reached more OTC drug consumers than broadcast TV or cable. Yet TV netted 70.1% of the industry's $1.8 billion in 1993 ad spending, according to LNA/Arbitron Multi-Media Service, while cable TV networks claimed 7.5% and radio a mere 4.7%.

Cold, headache, and sinus reme-die were the top OTC drug categories for both men and women. Among cold remedy users, Interep found that 13% more of the women were heavy radio listeners than frequent TV viewers and 8% more men were heavy radio listeners.

'Huge Opportunity'

For headache medications, 15% more women and 13% more men were heavy radio users; and for sinus medicines, 22% more women and 7% more men were heavy radio listeners than heavy TV users. Cable TV trailed far behind in all three categories.

"This report explodes the conventional wisdom of heavying-up OTC marketing budgets in television and going with little or no radio," said Interep Exec. VP/Director of Research Marla Pirner. "OTC marketers are missing a huge opportunity to reach their prime customers at a time when industry competition is more intense than ever."

EARNINGS

WW1 Posts Profit; Gannett Revenues Up

Westwood One Inc. (Nasdaq: WONE) reported its first quarterly profit since the third quarter of 1988. WW1's net earnings for the fiscal second quarter ended May 31 were $1.5 million (four cents per share), compared to a loss of $1.3 million (nine cents) a year ago.

Revenues were $41.3 million (including recently acquired Unistar), up from $24.8 million. Operating income was $3.6 million, up sharply from $319,000. Operating cash flow was $7.8 million, compared to $3.3 million a year ago. On a pro forma basis, adjusting for the Unistar acquisition, the company's operating cash flow was up approximately 20%. President/CEO Mel Karmazin said WW1 was "on target to achieve planned cost reduction from the merger of Unistar."

WW1 owns the NBC Radio Networks, Mutual Broadcasting System, and Westwood One Radio

Networks. Its largest shareholder is Infinity Broadcasting (Nasdaq: INFTA), also headed by Karmazin, which owns 26 radio stations.

Gannett Co. (NYSE: GCI) reported record second-quarter earnings of $131.8 million (90 cents per share), up 16% from $113.7 (78 cents) a year ago. Net revenues were $540.2 million, up from $513.2 million.

Broadcasting revenues were $107.5 million, down from $109.0 million, reflecting the sale of four radio stations and one TV station. However, Gannett said broadcasting revenues were up 29% to $39.5 million. On a pro forma basis, radio revenues were ahead 18%.

Gannett owns 11 radio stations, nine TV stations, the nation's largest newspaper group, and various other communications businesses.

Katz Corp., which has called off a public stock offering (see Page 1), reported a first-quarter net loss of $5.5 million ($3.82 per share), compared to a loss of $4.6 million a year earlier.

Net revenues were $35.4 million, up from $30.5 million. The company posted an operating loss of $1.2 million, compared to operating income of $79,000 a year earlier, with the change primarily attributed to increased depreciation and amortization costs from representation contracts acquired in 1993.

Katz Corp. is the nation's largest station rep firm, with operations in radio, TV, and cable. The Katz Radio Group includes Banner Radio, Christal Radio, Eastman Radio, Katz Radio, Katz Hispanic Media, and Katz Syndication.

Mairite Guaranteed Broadcast Partners L.P. (publicly traded partnership units) reported a first-quarter net loss of $112,000 (10 cents per unit), compared to a loss of $1.1 million ($1.06) a year ago. Revenues were $999,000, up from $940,000. The partnership's operating loss was $55,000, improved from $910,000.

MGBP owns WJJZ/Philadelphia, which is being sold to Pyramid Communications for $20 million.

Noble Protests Galluzo's Denver Deal

Noble Broadcast Group wants the FCC to reject the sale of Denver move-in KTCL to Tsunami Communications, charging that Tsunami is controlled by Jacor Communications.

Tsunami is owned by former Jacor executive Anthony Galluzo, but funding for the $3.95 million deal (including AM KIXX/Wellington, CO) is being provided by a Jacor subsidiary. Noble claims that Jacor will have de facto control of Galluzo's stations because its financing contract gives it rights to buy the stations (if the FCC raises its ownership limits) and to block a sale to anyone else.

Jacor already owns three Denver stations and is buying a fourth, which would put it at the FCC's limit for a single owner in the market.

"Jacor is in the process of manipulating the Commission's rules toward the end of destroying competition and diversity in the markets in which Jacor competes," Noble charged. "The Tsunami application is just another movement in Jacor's secretive campaign."

More Cincinnati Charges

Noble's allegations echo those already heard in filings by three Jacor competitors in Cincinnati, where they claim Jacor is the controlling force behind stations purchased by Chuck Reynolds.

In yet another FCC filing, the three Cincinnati competitors provided the Commission with a stack of exhibits (including Jacor's internal phone list) which purport to show that Reynolds is acting as a "shill" for Jacor.

Both Reynolds and Jacor President Randy Michaels have denied there is anything improper in the relationships between their stations.

Michaels was traveling and unavailable for comment on Noble's Denver petition. Galluzo had not returned a call at R&R's deadline.

Flinn Claims No Waiver Needed To Buy Station

Flinn Broadcasting claims it doesn't need a new waiver of the FCC's one-to-a-market rule to buy KFTH/Marion, AR (Memphis).

Flinn, which already owns two AMs and a TV CP in the Memphis market, claims the waiver it received to acquire the TV CP already allows it to buy other radio stations within the FCC's duopoly rule.

WLOK/Memphis owner Gilliam Communications filed a petition to deny the KFTH sale after noting that no waiver request had been filed.

KUSC Fights EEO Fine

KUSC/Los Angeles is appealing a $17,500 EEO fine as unfair and unjust. The University of Southern California non-commercial outlet claims the FCC acted improperly in retroactively applying 1994 EEO standards to fine the station for its 1984-1990 performance.

"There is precious little about either the Commission's new EEO standards or the way they have thus far been used to punish licensees which is fair or appropriate," KUSC argued in its appeal. The station said its fine was particularly unfair because it is "wholeheartedly committed to equality in employment."

Feds Want More Rent

A government study released Tuesday (7/12) claims broadcasters are getting a bargain on tower site leases and proposes huge rent hikes.

The study, released at a House subcommittee hearing, claims the cash-strapped U.S. Treasury could take in $23 million annually if rents were raised to market levels, rather than the current $4 million.

For example, the U.S. Forest Service now charges Los Angeles FM stations $431 to $679 per year for sites on Mt. Wilson. The Forest Service wants to raise that to $34,000 per year.

KKHI Becomes News/Jazz KPIX

After 40 years of Classical programming, KKHI-AM & FM/San Francisco has become "The Express," with new calls KPIX-AM & FM. The recently acquired Group W station is now all-News on weekdays and "flavors of jazz" over the weekend.

Former crosstown KFRC programmer Harry Valentine has been named PD at the station, which is positioning itself against all-News KCBS and News/Talk KGO by offering news in a long-form format, augmented by frequent, extremely detailed traffic reports.

KPIX VP/GM Blaise Howard told the Contra Costa Times that Group W wanted to beat other stations to the punch by putting an information-based format on FM.

Although the loss of the longtime Classical outlet prompted some complaints, the San Francisco Chronicle reported that plans are afoot for KKHI's music library and call letters to surface on KTID-AM & FM/San Rafael.

Winslow Wins WZGC/Atlanta PD Slot

WFOX/Atlanta PD Dennis Winslow has been named PD at crosstown Classic Rock WZGC (Z93). Winslow replaces Mike O'Connor, who exited the Infinity outlet last week to pursue other opportunities.

Winslow

GM David Meszaros said, "We're delighted to have Dennis join

Z93. He's an excellent programmer and a market veteran with a great track record."

Winslow said, "I'm really excited to be here. I've admired many of the things Z93 has done in the past, and there's still a lot of potential for growth. It's got a great staff that's itching to win, and I believe we can."

In addition to his 10-year tenure at WFOX, Winslow previously programmed WMGG/Tampa and WMGF/Milwaukee.

Jefferies Joins KFRG & KOOJ As OM; Jackson New KHTX PD

KHTX/Riverside-San Bernardino PD/morning personality Jan Jefferies has been named OM at crosstown Country duopoly KFRG & KOOJ and PD of KFRG. Concurrently, KHTX Asst. PD/MD Bryan Jackson has been promoted to PD.

KFRG & KOOJ VP/GM Reid Reker told R&R, "Jan and I have a lot of history together, having worked together in Oklahoma City and Chicago. He's truly one of the most talented and aggressive programmers and talents I've been associated with."

Jefferies replaces Charlie Harigan, who had been PD since KFRG debuted in December '89. Jefferies joined KHTX as PD two years ago and flipped it to 18-34-

Consultant Stefan Rybak has been appointed PD at WBLI/Nassau-Suffolk (Long Island). He succeeds Bill Terry, who remains with the Liberty Radio Hot AC as EEO Director/Promotion Director/MD.

Rybak

GM Herb Usenheimer told R&R, "We felt it was time for a change. Stef's talent and fresh approach, combined with Bill's creativity and experience, give us a great one-two punch. We'd interviewed many people and felt Stefan was the best of the lot. He's everything one could want in a PD."

Rybak previously programmed KVMY/Phoenix and WKCI/New Haven.

EXECUTIVE ACTION

Kehlbeck GSM, Townsend LSM At WCBS-FM

Four-year WCBS-FM/New York LSM Bill Kehlbeck has been promoted to GSM. He replaces Nancy Dobrow, who had earlier exited the CBS Gold outlet.

VP/GM Maire Mason told R&R, "Bill has tremendous people skills and is a great leader. He's tremendously talented when it comes to inventory control. When you're sold out 40 weeks a year, that becomes very important."

Before joining WCBS-FM in 1989, Kehlbeck was Network Executive for Katz Radio Group and GM at Supemet. He's also worked for Torbet Radio as AE and Network Manager and was an AE at Roslin Radio and WRKO & WROR/Boston. NSM Steve Townsend has been tapped to succeed Kehlbeck as LSM.

Kepple Becomes KGME/Phoenix PD

Former KUKQ & KUPD ND Mike Kepple has been named PD at crosstown Sports/Talker KGME (The Game), replacing Jack Blair.

"We're thrilled to have someone as talented and sports-savvy as Mike be a part of our team," said KGME VP/GM Kathy Lawrence.

"I plan to make us known as a sports presence in the area. We want to be the sports resource," commented Kepple. "We're bucking the big boys in town — we need to change listeners' perspectives and start being the one they tune to for sports news."

Kepple's 26-year radio career includes a stint as a talk show host and newsman at KTAR/Phoenix.

Cote

were used as evidence against him, as were a car he rented for Miller and a key he provided to Morell's apartment.

According to the Riverside Press-Enterprise, Cote's attorney argued his client had lent Miller money to get his car fixed and rented the car for him while his was in the shop. He said Miller had killed on his own and then asked Cote for money.

The jury, which was out just five hours, agreed with Pacheco's interpretation of the evidence. Said one juror: "It was just overwhelming." As the six-week trial came to a close and the guilty verdict was read, Cote reportedly mouthed the words, "I didn't do it, I didn't do it."

Anatomy Of A Murder

Why did he do it? Pacheco argued Jane Cote had said she wanted a divorce. Such a move would force Cote to sell KOLA, which he'd valued at $30 million. Said Pacheco: "He had 30 million reasons to kill this man. The radio station was threatened."

Miller had had a clean record until he did away with Morell, but he was arrested just three months later after committing a second unrelated homicide: He killed a teenage boy over a small debt. That week, Cote disappeared and didn't resurface until his arrest nearly three months later.

Miller, who pled guilty to both murders, testified extensively against Cote. He'll be sentenced Monday (7/18), but like Cote, he'll receive life without possibility of parole.

'Eccentric Loner'

January of last year and started Inland Empire News Radio, an independent news source where he's been covering the case. He told R&R, "I worked with Joe, and I would never in a hundred years have thought he or Fred would have resorted to violence to solve their problems."

"The working relationship Mr. Cote had with his employees was extremely unusual. He had very little contact with most of them. He was very eccentric, just a loner type, and not one to share his personal disappointments with anyone. Obviously with Joe Miller it was a different story."

KOLA On Ice

Whether or when the FCC will force Cote to divest himself of the stations is unknown. KMET has been dark since May '93, and KOLA has been LMA'd with SBR Rock outlet KCAL/Redlands, CA since July '92. SBR, a division of Santa Monica, CA-based Anaheim Broadcasters, has had a $5 million deal pending since fall '92 to buy KOLA. That transaction has been held up by the trial and a related petition to deny that charges Cote isn't a fit licensee.

KOLA is currently being run by San Francisco-based radio broker Chester Coleman (who reportedly owned it jointly with Cote in the '60s) and KOLA Inc. GM John Lego. Lego and officials of Anaheim and KCAL were either unavailable or offered no comment. In addition to KCAL, Anaheim owns KBZS/San Diego and KHQT/San Jose.

If the FCC does pull the license and put KMET & KOLA up for applications and a comparative hearing, a minority-owned firm would probably have the best chance at a purchase.

'ZINE SCENE

'Roots Of Country' Show 'Life!'

In Life's special issue on the "Roots Of Country Music," a host of "witnesses" give tongue to memories: Johnny Cash, the Carter family, Chet Atkins, Emmylou Harris, and Willie Nelson. Life also takes to the road with Travis Tritt, who says of his half-million-dollar stage set: "It's killer. Very cool. If you walked in, you'd think Aerosmith was playing."

Atkins notes: "People always ask about the Nashville sound. I had some Germans here, and one of them asked, 'Vot is the Nashville sound?' Another German took out some coins, shook them and said, 'This is the Nashville sound.'"

Prince Of Vibes

Prince

Vibe cover star Prince says he wants to release stockpiled music by "[the old] Prince" on Warner Bros. while working with a smaller label to put out his new stuff. "The best Prince music still hasn't been released... I really think they would find a way to let me do this, but they're afraid of the ripple effect, that everybody would want to do it."

Don't expect a handshake deal, though... "I don't like shaking hands. Brothers always feel like they got to give you that real firm handshake. Then you can't play the piano the next day."

Garth Gets Grumpy

In American Airlines' American Way mag, cover star Garth Brooks waxes grouchy: "Rock & roll has the media foaming at the mouth... They can be the worst band in the world, and the media will give them 10 times more coverage than the best band in country music... They won't let rock & roll die. They'll let country music die quicker than a hot egg."

Love Is Hell

Axl Rose makes the cover of People because his ex-wife, Erin Everly, tells all about how abusive he was. Stephanie Seymour is also mentioned, because it was her lawsuit against the Guns N' Roses singer that prompted Everly to take her story public.

"Pregnant Wynonna Dumps Father Of Her Love Child," trumpets the National Enquirer headline. It seems Arch Kelley III tried "to control her life" and flirted with her kid sister. Naomi's thrilled to see him go.

Marketing Geniuses

Advertising Age's annual "Marketing 100" roundup of selling stars singles out Angel Records president Steven Murphy (for the "Chant" record), Rhino Records VP/Product Management Garson Foss, and Danny Bennett (for his dad's career revival).

Harry Connick Jr. tells People he made his stage debut at six, playing the national anthem at his father's swearing-in as New Orleans DA. "I played and they clapped. I couldn't believe that they were clapping for me, so I started my second number. My dad was like, 'Whoa! Whoa! This is my day, and pulled me off the piano.'"

It's A Tough Job, But...

Sir Mix-A-Lot tells Vibe, "I'll never dis Hammer. A black man with a $25 million house on top of a mountain? I'm proud of him... I don't like steppin' on toes to succeed, 'cause God doesn't like ugly. I'm gettin' mine, why shouldn't he get his?"

John Mellencamp shares with Entertainment Weekly his sanguine view of professional disappointment: "You make a bad movie or you make a bad record? So what? Big fuckin' deal. They don't take away your birthday for it." Does he like his career? "Beats the fuck outta pouring concrete."

In a letter to an Aberdeen, WA newspaper, Nirvana bassist Krist Novoselic decried plans to erect a statue of the late Kurt Cobain, the town's most famous export. "Kurt would hate the idea," he wrote. "I'll knock that statue down" (Time).

Social Darwinism '94

"I watch the Discovery Channel all the time," says House Of Pain's Everlast. "Lions go and fucking slaughter innocent elk. It's how they fucking live! So if some kid is feeding his family by sticking up liquor stores and selling drugs and he ain't getting caught and he's providing and dealing with his parenthood, he ain't committing a crime. He's doing what he's got to do" (Details).

From a report in the Clinical Journal Of Pain on teens examined after continuous head-banging: "We conclude that head-banger's whiplash is a self-limiting painful disorder. The easy resolution of the pain problem in this adolescent group is a tribute to the resilience of youth" (Harper's).

Rush Vs. Howard

Asked who she'd rather sleep with — Rush Limbaugh or Howard Stern — ex-porn star Traci Lords (a Radioactive signee) says, "I'd kill myself" (Details).

Each week R&R sneaks a peek through the nation's consumer magazines in search of everything from the sublime to the ridiculous in music news. R&R has not verified any of these reports.

MacLeash Now PD At KTCZ/Minneapolis

Progressive KTCZ (Cities 97)/Minneapolis has recruited WKOC/Norfolk PD Lauren MacLeash as its new PD. She replaces Jim Robinson, who left the station to pursue other opportunities.

MacLeash

Cities 97 VP/GM Doug Brown told R&R, "Lauren has a wonderful track record and reputation in our format. We wanted someone with strong promotions and people skills. [WKOC] is close to Cities 97 in its content and in the way we do things. I'm confident our growth will continue under her leadership."

"I'm very excited about moving to a station with so much heritage," says MacLeash. "It has solid ground in the market and still has potential to make an even larger impact."

MacLeash has been PD at WKOC for the past two and a half years. Previously, she programmed cross-town WAFX and WGFX/Nashville.

ket, or sell. The task at hand is to develop more of that creative genius. I'm also indebted to our talented executives. The Atlantic Group, for example, is staffed with marvelous people, and they've put together a powerhouse company."

Morgado said of Morris, "Our size notwithstanding, we intend to preserve the artistic expression and individual identities of the recorded music companies that have been so vital to their success. Doug's capacity for nurturing a variety of contrasting management styles and sensitivities has been pivotal in the revitalization of Atlantic. During his tenure, the Atlantic Group achieved the largest market share of any U.S. recording company. Having spent his entire career in the music business, Doug is that rare executive who understands every facet of the industry."

Morris began his career as a staff songwriter for music publisher Robert Mellin Inc. In 1965 he joined Laurie Records as a writer/producer and eventually became its VP/GM. He later formed Big Tree Records, which was eventually acquired by Atlantic. He was named President of Atco Records in 1978, became Atlantic's President in 1981, COO in 1989, and co-Chairman/co-CEO a year later.

gested," Brown said. Apparently referring to pending legislation on performance rights for digital transmission of music, the secretary suggested there might be some restrictions to discourage taping from DAB, such as not announcing cuts before they're played or not permitting stations to air entire albums.

Brown is no stranger to broadcasting. As part-owner of WKYS/Washington, he is forced to stay out of some broadcasting-related policy decisions to avoid any conflict of interest.

The NAB was thankful for Brown's words of support, but was also quick to express its frustration with the study's recommendation.

"We greatly appreciate the personal support of Commerce Secretary Brown," said NAB General Counsel Jeff Baumann. But, he added, "we are sorely disappointed that the NII Working Group for this administration still wants to impose a performance right on broadcasters."

RIAA, however, welcomed the working group's recommendation, which heard from both NAB and RIAA at a hearing last November. "I'm very pleased that the administration has taken its support one step further by incorporating our concerns into this report," said RIAA President Hilary Rosen.

EZ President Alan Box said, "These alignments allow EZ to take full advantage of Doug and Tim's tremendous talents. Doug has demonstrated his skill at coordinating and guiding our stations' programming and is clearly capable of taking on more."

McGuire told R&R, "We're having a lot of fun at EZ. We're enjoying our greatest year ever, and I'm thrilled to be a part of each station's programming team. Tim Murphy and I decided it makes sense to have just one person who represents each station's needs to the corporate team. Besides, I wanted stress and travel, and Tim wants to rock & roll."

Murphy added, "Doug and I were quite often crossing paths and doubling tasks. We both feel it's a win-win situation."

Both Levinson and McGrath had been promoted to their positions as heads of MTV last fall. They both reported to MTV Networks Chairman Tom Freston.

McGrath joined MTV's prior owner, Warner Amex Satellite Entertainment, in 1981 as a Movie Channel executive.

Cox Draws 'ACE In Los Angeles

Cox Enterprises is buying UC KACE/L.A. for a duopoly with crosstown N/TAC combo KFI & KOST. The announcement, coming just precious nanoseconds prior to ST's deadline, gave no hints as to price or format plans.

Elsewhere in the quake zone, Chagal Broadcasting — owner of suburban outlets KFOX/Redondo Beach and KREA/Ontario and rumored a possible purchaser of KACE — bought KMGX/San Fernando from Buckley Communications for $4.5 million.

Guerinot Resigns

A&M Sr. VP/GM Jim Guerinot resigns — effective Friday (7/15) — to concentrate on his management company, which will be based in Laguna, CA and handle Offspring, among others. Don't look for Guerinot to join another label — he has an exclusive consulting agreement with A&M. ST hears A&M Pres./CEO Al Cafaro will not replace Guerinot.

Major ink in the L.A. Times Tuesday (7/12) about whether David Geffen will renew his contract with MCA Inc. and stay with the Geffen label. The current deal expires in April '95, and observers think a renewal's unlikely.

Gold KFRC-AM & FM/SF PD Brian White exited last week over contrasting philosophical tenets. ST hears Alliance VP/Programming Rick Torcasso will handle the station for the next several weeks.

Proactive Psychotherapy?

Jerome Murray — host of Talk America syndicated sex therapy program “For Lovers Only” — pleaded innocent to

Rumors

- Following the Monday (7/11) resignation of Linda O'Connor as VP/GM of Noble UC KMJM/St. Louis, could she — as Gateway gabsters claim — eventually wind up at River City Broadcasting across town?

- Will EZ's WIOQ/Philly hitch former APD Glenn Kalina or 'IOQ afternooner Billy Burke to its PD post?

- Will Star 94/Atlanta OM Tony Novia become PD at WXKS (Kiss 108/Boston) so Pyramid VP/Programming Steve Rivers can concentrate on his corporate duties? And is Kiss 108 Music Coord. Tad Bonvie about to be named MD?

- Which two NY-based Promo VPs might be willing to give up their stripes to replace Island Dir/ Nat'l Promo Danny Ostrow? Or will an East Coast MD snag the slot? And... will Island Independent Labels Dir/Alternative Promo Howie Miura ascend to a West Coast Nat'l Alternative post at Island?

- Will CHR WBBO/Greenville, SC — which hired crosstown WWMM PD/MD Dan Stevens as MD — resurface as a “new” station under recently named PD Bill McCown real soon?

- Is former Giant Rock promo head John Sigler about to resurface?

- Are WPGC/DC QM Jay Stevens and Z100/NY APD/MD Frankie Blue up for a key role at the Box under Exec. VP Les Garland?

10 misdemeanor counts of practicing psychotherapy without a license and one count of sexually exploiting a female client. AP reports Murray's hometown station, KZST/Santa Rosa, dropped the show after a 20-year-old woman told police Murray demanded that she perform sex acts with him in his office during a counseling session.

A Talk America VP told AP the company doesn't plan to drop the show unless Murray's convicted. The host has a previous conviction for unlicensed psychotherapy, and was convicted 12 years ago of having unlawful sex with a 15-year-old patient.

WMMS/Cleveland's new morning team took the bags off their heads Monday (7/11), and as expected, Brian Fowler and Joe Cronauer were underneath. The pair's noncompete with crosstown WENZ — where the separation was not on the happiest of terms — was the reason for the “unknown disc jockey” approach.

Virginia Net VP/GM Jack Alix joins Liberty Gold WXTR/DC to co-host mornings with the legendary Bobby Bennett. Alix spent 13 years in the market at WINX, WEAM, WEEL, and WPGC, among others.

Meanwhile, former DC legend Barry Richards will consult 'XTR and host a weekend satellite show from LA. He'll maintain his indie promo/marketing company as well.

The studios of AC combo KPAY-AM & FM/Chico, CA were devastated by a fire Monday (7/11). No injuries reported, but equipment damage was severe. The stations hope to return to the air by week's end.

Saginaw Whistlestop

Two former WTCF/Saginaw, MI AEs filed lawsuits and an FCC complaint against station owner Mid-America Broadcasting Inc., claiming violations of their civil rights and whistleblower protection laws.

Attorney Victor Mastromarco Jr. said his clients — Leanne Curtis and Julia Richardson — were forced out of their jobs for blowing the whistle on TCF when the station pulled the plug on an advertiser's vacation giveaway promotion.

WTCF denies any wrongdoing. “There was a mistake made [with the promotion] but it was her [Richardson's] mistake,” said WTCF VP/Station Mgr. Richard Doud (aka Rich Panama). “There's no complaint from the client,” added station attorney Philip Della Santina. “They're going to suck air on their wild allegations.”

Richardson wants $10,000 in damages. Mastromarco said the FCC complaint centers on the promotion.

Jim Richards, PD at Goodrich CHR WSNX/Muskegon-Grand Rapids, exits. The hiring of Jill Schmiecher — former crosstown AC WGRD Sales Mgr. — as GM and ex-GRD MD Mark McGill as PD leads inevitably to speculation that SNX will go Hot AC, but McGill denies it. Schmiecher replaces Tim Huelsing, who left to join crosstown Country WMUS a month back.

Meanwhile, another WGRD alumnus, former GM David Gates, surfaces as crosstown Goodrich Gold WODJ VP/GM (plus a corporate VP post). Lotta waggin' tongues about Goodrich CHR WVIC/Lansing kicking the tires of a Young Country format, too.

It's official! The Eagles reunion LP, "Hell Freezes Over," will come out on Geffen, along with a longform video from their recent MTV special. All pending litigation between Don Henley and Geffen — and Glenn Frey vs. MCA — has been resolved. Look for future Eagles releases to appear under the Giant aegis.

Those customized hits collections EMI plans to sell through McDonald's — much to the advance consternation of retailers — are an official go. About a half dozen 10-song CD or cassette anthologies — including packages by Garth Brooks, Roxette, and Tina Turner — will bow this fall.

A tip o' the ST backward baseball cap to Frank Martin, morning man at WJET/Erie, PA for more than 40 years, who was inducted into the Radio & TV Hall of Fame. Martin's said to be the longest-running CHR/Top 40 air personality in the nation.

Playing It Cool Against Hot ACs

Consistency's the key to fighting upper-demo foes

Pop CHR stations are the targets most vulnerable to a Hot AC/Adult CHR flank attack. How do you fend off a challenge from one of these stations yet stay true to your audience's expectations? This week, two programmers and a GM who've experienced this type of competitive clash share their strategies.

Meeting The Challenge

When Hot AC KYIS/Oklahoma City made its move on KJYO (KJ103), the Clear Channel Pop CHR took a 9.1-7.9 hit in the Fall '93 Arbitron. But a winter comeback brought KJ103 back up to an 8.8, while KYIS remained steady at a 4.5. KJ103 also widened its lead in the key 18-34 and 25-54 demos this winter.

Veteran KJ103 PD Mike McCoy recalls that KYIS began mounting a serious challenge when it hired PD Jon Zellner (who recently resigned to program KTHT/Fresno) about a year ago. "They began mirroring us at every angle. They even began parroting our positioning statement, 'The Most Variety,' and whatever variations we introduced. Zellner's efforts were exciting — they motivated us to take KJ103 to the next

How To React — And What To Avoid

If you have Hot AC competition and your target is 12-34 or 18-34, make sure you don't:

- Soften your sound or embrace AC core music
- Make radical programming or staff changes
- Become afraid of playing adventurous new music
- Begin playing more gold to attract adults
- React to "no rap" positioners
- Lose market visibility.

And here are some things you should be considering:

- Reviewing your library and positioners with research
- Becoming more promotionally active
- Enhancing your marketing efforts in other media
- Staying as musically consistent as possible
- Repositioning the competition as "stale" or "boring"
- Maintaining a fun, exciting sound.

View From The GM's Chair

After years of being Hartford's CHR bridesmaid, WKSS (Kiss 95.7) has beaten WTIC-FM in three of the last four books. But now it faces competition from an abundance of adult outlets.

A few weeks ago, TIC-FM repositioned itself in a more adult direction that excludes rap. Hot AC WZMX (Mix 93.7) has brought in a new PD — WPLJ/New York Dir./Research

Adam Goodman — to turn up the heat. Throw in another Hot AC — WYSR (Star 104.1) — and the continued success of AC WRCH, and you've got an intense struggle for young adult numbers.

But WKSS Pres./GM Tim Montgomery remains optimistic, noting that his station always scores well in adults 18-34. "With Mix and WTIC-FM jockeying for position, it's time for us to remain consistent."

Slogan Skirmish

Part of the battle is being fought on the positioner front, with WKSS's "Connecticut's Hottest Hits" being attacked by both TIC-FM ("Today's Top 40 without the rap") and Star ("Superstars of the '70s, '80s, and '90s with no rap, no kiddie stuff, and the best mix").

"They're both trying to reposition us," Montgomery maintains, "but it's not going to work. They're all trying to niche 25-34, so part of our 18-34s are under attack. However, [PD] Jay Beau Jones and I believe that adults like new music, and it's going to be easy to Billy Joel listeners to death in this market soon."

"We promote what we do play — the hottest hits. We sell the fact that we're the state's most-listened-to station and that we're exciting, fresh, and fun. The other stations are more reliant on library, so that music is going to become burnt more quickly. I believe Kiss 95.7 is in a winning position by staying the course."

tang giveaway or the 'Pay Off Your Plastic' contest, where we paid off a listener's credit card, are attention-getters. So was the 'B.O. Geo' promotion, where four listeners lived in a Geo to see who'd survive to drive the car home.

"It's this ability to be more fun-sounding and crazier than the Hot AC that brings out a positive difference. In fact, we've positioned ourselves and repositioned KYIS — without mentioning them — with liners like 'KJ103 . . . we're Oklahoma's alternative to boring radio' and 'the radio station that dares to be different, KJ103.' Being able to expose new music earlier and play a wider variety is a positive, and when the selections are backed up by audience research, those CHRs are postured to enjoy terrific victories in 1994 and beyond."

No Bandwagons

KQKS (KS104)/Denver PD Craig Jackson led his station to a 4.2-5.1 winter Arbitron increase, but still found his station's success overshadowed by Hot AC KWMX-AM & FM (Mix 107.5)'s 3.8-5.4 leap. Jackson says, "The key is to stay on course and focused. We're not going to be able to compete with their upper demos. We have a new station in town, Alice 106; some of their songs are CHR, some are AC. They're broader than both of us, and it would be easy to overreact to them as well."

Jackson and consultant Steve Perun have made some strategic music changes in an effort to eliminate some potential listener negatives and disarm a favorite Hot AC marketing slant. "KS104 used to play a lot of rap," Jackson states. "But we've moved away from that. Now we're a Pop CHR with a rhythmic lean that'll play Alternative crossovers from the Gin Blossoms or Spin Doctors. But we're not jumping on any bandwagons. These are records that Mix can't or won't play, but we're especially careful not to react to the AC product they play."

Focus On 18-34s

"With KS104 in a rebuilding process, we're not experiencing the usual problem of trying to compete for 25-54 numbers, which is generally the goal in the back of everyone's mind," explains Jackson. "But realistically, with this market's radio

These are records that Mix can't or won't play, but we're especially careful not to react to the AC product they play.
—Craig Jackson

pie being split so thin, you can't be that broad and survive. That's why we've redoubled our efforts to serve 18-34s with a current emphasis on a 27-year-old female's tastes.

"We've done a bit of rotation tweaking, but not much. We don't believe that making rotations longer will make a positive variance in our TSL. We're more concerned with playing hit records no one else can play, getting off them at the right time, and being as promotionally active as possible in light of the fact that we don't have the budget for TV or outdoor marketing that Mix does. We've beefed up our promotion department with 12 staffers whose sole job is to keep us visible, and the addition of a boom box reinforces our on-air product at the street level, an area Mix leaves virtually all to us."

Hot AC is actually a narrow position to take and, from what I've seen, it's not the future of contemporary radio that everyone thought it would be.
—Mike McCoy

level using research and gut knowledge of the market he didn't have."

Using auditorium research, focus groups, and callouts, McCoy trimmed KJ103's library — eliminating some AC-leaning titles that were getting overexposed at KYIS — to keep pace with the market's tastes. "Our position is now simply 'The Best Variety.' Research showed listeners perceived KJ103 as having the best variety in the market. KYIS is still shadowing us, but our perception is that we're the leader — and they're just copying us."

Don't Give Chase

The best advice McCoy offers for warding off a Hot AC attack is to avoid chasing them. "We've tried to sound different from KYIS by being a true Top 40. That in itself allows KJ103 to play a lot of hit music they can't play. [The current

KRFX Pleads, 'Give Peace A Chance'

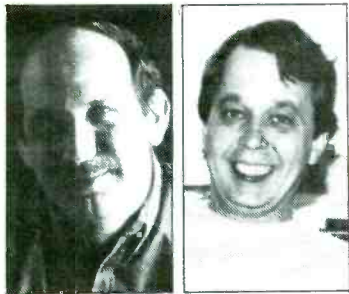

■ Denver Classic Rocker promotes yearlong anti-violence campaign

The Mile High City isn't commonly thought to have a major problem with violence. But Denver's inner cities are struggling with the same predicaments as most other large American cities. As a result, Classic Rock KRFX is leading a yearlong crusade to promote safety in the inner cities and suburbs.

KRFX's education and awareness campaign has been dubbed "Give Peace A Chance." "Summer Of Peace." and "Stop The Violence." OM Jack Evans and APD Beau Bennett explain the origins of the station's quest for peace.

R&R: What was the impetus for your peace campaign?

JE: This whole idea came to fruition after looking at how severely Denver suffered last summer because of youth violence.

Jack Evans Beau Bennett

without fatalities — brought back the pizza parlor incident in all the news stories.

R&R: How did you determine what angle to take?

BB: When we were approached about doing a music festival, we wanted to do something unique to set it apart from others. We started brainstorming for ideas and realized the media here were focusing on the acts of violence but not doing anything about educating people on how to make their neighborhoods safer.

JE: All the focus was negative, so we wanted to take a proactive standpoint. We wanted to step up to the plate to do something that would create awareness and help our community's youth. We went to the governor's and mayor's offices and found there wasn't any money for youth programs because of budget cuts. So we decided the way to help was to generate funds for the city and state youth programs. That's when we came up with the "Summer Of Peace" and "Stop The Violence" ideas.

R&R: What was your strategy — both on- and off-air — to promote peace?

BB: From January to May, we ran a very aggressive on-air PSA campaign. Every three to four hours, 24 hours a day, we broadcast information on how to make neighborhoods safer, organize block watches, etc. Our focus was education and encouragement — telling people they have the capacity to do this. A lot of our preproduced image liners were built around the themes of peace and getting involved to make neighborhoods safer.

JE: The local cable company gave us 1800 spots at no charge for our "Stop The Violence" TV commercial. We had coverage on 11 cable channels and the two independent stations. The commercial was based on John Lennon's "Give Peace A Chance." That spot had an amazing impact on the community. I can't remember getting so many positive phone calls on anything we've ever done.

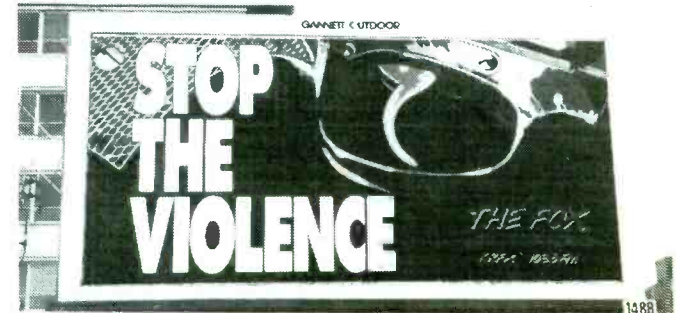

BB: For the first six months of the year, we've had a very aggressive on-air, cable, and billboard campaign. We've spent about $75,000 on this project, including production for the TV spot, print ads, etc.

R&R: You've co-sponsored two large "peace" events recently to raise money. Please tell us about them.

JE: On June 25, we co-sponsored the "Colorado Peace Walk." The governor and mayor led the two-and-a-half-mile walk that raised thousands of dollars for Denver's Safe CUTTING EDGE — KRFX morning mavens Lewis & Floorwax watch Colorado Governor Roy Romer and Denver Mayor Wellington Webb cut the ribbon to begin the two-and-a-half-mile Walk For Peace. The walk raised over $9000 for the Mayor's youth programs. Preparing for the cut are (l-r) Michael Floorwax, Governor Romer, Mayor Webb, and Rick Lewis.

'STOP THE VIOLENCE' — One of KRFX's "Stop The Violence" billboards promotes public awareness and helps deter crime in the city.

CROWD KEEPS THE PEACE — More than 18,000 people attended the Concert For Peace, which raised $13,000.

BB: The media dubbed it the "Summer Of Violence" because some acts were particularly brutal and some involved very young children.

JE: The catalyst was an incident early last summer, in which a gunman went crazy inside a pizza parlor and killed four teenage employees. For the rest of the summer, any violent incident that occurred — even

City Foundation. The Peace Walk was followed by the Concert For Colorado, which had an unbelievable lineup: Jefferson Starship, Poco, Arlo Guthrie, Leon Russell, and the Allman Brothers. More than 18,000 people attended, and it was a great show — no fights. Funds from the concert went to the governor's Community Partnership Office.

For the rest of the year we plan to continue the awareness campaign. We'll present the governor's and mayor's offices with checks for their respective funds, which will go to youth programs for the state in general and for our city.

BB: We've also joined forces with Fey Concerts, so that 50 cents per ticket from concerts at Fiddler's Green [a division of MCA] and Red Rocks will be donated to the youth programs. The goal for Fey and MCA is to raise $300,000 by the end of the year. Last week, they presented the first installment — more than $62,000 for the Youth Of Metro Denver.

R&R: Do you broadcast locations of specific youth centers?

JE: Yes. Our PSA campaign includes information on kid's activity centers. We announce what's available at the different centers this summer [to prevent kids from] hanging out on the streets. In addition to keeping youth centers open later at night, the money will also be used to repair some of the facilities. For example, a lot of basketball courts need pavement repair and new nets.

R&R: Do you have any commemorative memorabilia to go along with the campaign?

BB: For summer marketing, we have "Give Peace A Chance" T-shirts, bumper stickers, and peace pins. Instead of prize patrols, we're doing "Peace Patrols" — we hand out pamphlets explaining how to make neighborhoods safer. Plus, we have a deal with Ben & Jerry's to give out Cherry Garcia Peace Pops on these summer peace patrols.

Being a Classic Rock station, the peace sign fits us to a 'T'; it hasn't been hard to integrate. And our audience has been very receptive.

R&R: How has this public service campaign affected the image of the station?

JE: KRFX has the reputation of being irreverent and colorful. But our relationship with the governor and the mayor through this campaign has helped to solidify KRFX as a market leader. We're not just a station that plays classic rock and does wonderful promotions. We also care about our community and take what happens here very seriously. This has given us a new level of depth and stationality.

Achieving Ratings Potential In The '90s

Getting your fair market share with a niche format

With the resurgence of Progressive, radio owners and managers are looking at the ratings potential and financial viability of stations in the format. Will it survive? Can stations get more than a few shares?

Larry Johnson

Dynamic Market Research's Larry Johnson says, "The trick is to expand upon the audience who immediately finds your station and loves it. You can't be too hip for the house. While the Progressive audience will sit through a song or genre they don't particularly care for, their patience still wears thin when they hear two songs in a row they don't like. It's important to be accessible by playing the right artists from adjacent formats.

"I firmly believe music testing is essential to achieving your potential. Not only can you determine which songs are popular, but you can find out what's accessible to partisans of your direct competitors. By using cluster analysis you can determine which genres and eras are compatible with each other. You must also account for tempo, texture, and familiarity. Auditorium tests done prior to spring and fall books provide optimum results.

"Perceptual research is fundamental to make sure your audience is perceiving the station the same way you've designed it. Think of it as a yearly health checkup. You can determine which elements make a difference and breathe life into quantitative research results with at least one focus group project consisting of four to six groups a year."

'Upscale Audience'

WZEW/Mobile PD Catt Sirten believes big shares may not be possible to achieve. However, that fact doesn't preclude market success for Progressives. "As far as sheer numbers are concerned, this format isn't targeted to a mass audience. It's a niche format, so the key to survival for us has been on local, direct business. We've succeeded not necessarily in the volume, but with the quality of listeners.

"The beauty of the niche is that it's an upscale, loyal audience; therefore, the quality of a three share is much greater for a Progressive than for an also-ran AC, for example, with the same numbers. A typical Progressive listener has a higher education and expendable income levels. It's a very active group, although there are fewer of them than the masses.

"The number of people like that in each market varies. For example, in Raleigh-Durham there's probably a much greater concentration of those individuals than in Mobile.

By Cyndee Maxwell

We've been able to survive for 12 years in this format by just selling the qualitative information rather than the numbers."

Exclusive Clients

Sirten says, "We may not get a McDonald's buy because they're trying to get everyone alive to buy their hamburgers. But two of our longtime clients are exclusive buyers on our station: an air charter service and an upscale jewelry store. In fact, aside from WZEW, they don't use radio at all. But they've found that we superserve the people they want to reach.

"Aside from the heritage stations like KBCO [Denver], WXRT [Chicago], and KINK [Portland], I'm not convinced that Progressive is a format that'll pull tremendous numbers. Also, those stations have a tremendous market size to pull from, so a three, four, or five share for them translates into a huge amount of people. And while they've gone beyond mediocre numbers, part of it is a matter of them holding their noses to the grindstone and focusing on their identity and that of their listeners.

"They've also been able to propagate their own listenership through the years — they're legendary in their markets. When a listener first turns on a Progressive station and he's not accustomed to listening to that type of music, it's unusual and a little uncomfortable because it's rather challenging. But after so many years a station's listener base grows. The more they listen to you, the more comfortable they are with you — and the more uncomfortable they are with anything else targeted to a lower common denominator. Marketing and keeping the station focused over a long period of time eventually pays off.

"While we've been here for a long time, we've continually had to fight for our share. In Mobile, typically 70% of the numbers go to two dominant stations — a Country and an Urban — and everybody else is fighting in the next tier."

Blessings & Curses

KINK/Portland PD Carl Widing notes the difficulty of programming a station that's both an art form and ratings-driven. He says, "If you want your station to grow, it must be very market-specific. That's both the blessing and the curse of this format. Each market has a different programming landscape to consider. Different competitive situations require different programming tactics; musically speaking, it's not so much with the current material, but with the library.

The beauty of the niche is that it's an upscale, loyal audience. A typical Progressive listener has higher education and expendable income levels.

"Research is one way to help determine your strategy. Another is to be diligent and study the possible competition. In larger markets with many signals, a Progressive station has a problem with visibility. In smaller towns, Progressives are probably able to be a little more eclectic.

"In almost any market a Progressive can sign on and get a two or three share right away. We got beyond that [because] early on we created an identity and then reinforced it over the years. People who live here know what to expect when they tune into KINK. It's really important when starting in this format to make sure you have your act together. It's like eating at a restaurant: If people don't like you the first time they check you out, they're not coming back again.

"So make sure the format is executed well and that it's consistent. One of the ways to build ratings is to stick with it for the long haul; you build ratings over time. Given time — especially with niche formats — what you're trying to do is make more people aware of you and reinforce the good qualities of your station. Hopefully, as other stations change format and musical styles come in and out of fashion, you'll be one of the pivotal stations that people go to."

Smorgasbord Of Sounds

Widing says, "A niche format doesn't necessarily have to have low ratings. Look at KINK: We sound strange to the average person who moves into the market. But if you can get into the listeners' minds, their thought is, 'I may not like the song I'm hearing now, but I really like the station overall and I'll stick through this song to hear one I do like.' An eclectic type of format such as Progressive is a smorgasbord rather than a cheeseburger stand, salad place, ribs place, etc. It's a little bit of everything.

"If you're a good programmer, read the market well, do your homework, and come up with a sound for your station that's compelling for your audience to listen to, then you're on the road to success. But you have to divorce yourself from art form and get into the practicality of radio. There's a business side to this business, too.

"A lot of people get lost in trying to do art and be so different. If you're being different just for the sake of it, it won't work. You must be different to be good, and you must be able to get a consistently appealing sound. And stations need to evolve over time — you can't stay stuck in a niche."

WTKS: 'Real People & Real Music'

Orlando FM Talk station makes successful segue to weekend Alternative

Orlando's FM Talk station WTKS has posted big dividends since it began playing Alternative music on weekends. In its first book — the Winter '94 Arbitron — the station's weekend numbers skyrocketed from 11th to second place in men 25-34 (see box at right).

When Press Broadcasting purchased WTKS 14 months ago, the Talk outlet took a cue from sister WKXW (Jersey 101)/Trenton and switched to a tight-formatted, female-based CHR on weekends. Following a six-month run as a weekend CHR, WTKS began evolving to Alternative last December when it developed a younger, hipper Talk format.

Jay Clark

Rich Boerner

"Since FM Talk is new, there are no rules," states PD Jay Clark. "We don't have to stand by the old tradition that says people aren't going to listen to anything but talk on a Talk station. Our audience wants music on the weekends, because our lifestyle is different. We identified the hole in the marketplace for the right music to play. This is the freshest-sounding station during the week and on weekends. The music represents the same attitude as our talk."

"It's working extremely well with our 25-54 target. Our narrow target is 25-34, but I like to see a broader target of 18-50. It will go down on the low end and up on the high end. We're hitting the 25-34-year-old right smack in the nose and picking up more 18-25s, too."

'Gutsy' Evolution

WTKS initially took a very safe Alternative approach because of management sensitivity. "We call it

'Real Music' because 'Alternative' would scare the station's owners," notes Creative Director/Asst. PD Rich Boerner.

"It was an evolutionary process and sounds nothing like it did in December. We introduced it with a lot of artist and song identification. We said, 'Real Music Weekend — nobody else in town plays real music; nobody has the guts.' We named our core artists: Pearl Jam, Nirvana, the Cure, U2, INXS, Peter Dinklage, and Depeche Mode. I was bringing a lot of stuff from home and carting it up. When Jay arrived in April, we got the music on Selector and began broadening the library after our positive results [prompted] the official go-ahead."

"We've gone from 250 to 400 songs. I break up the music by time periods — early '80s, late '80s, early '90s, and currents. We're about 50% current — our gold is mostly late '80s. We play one 'oh wow' song an hour, so [listeners] can identify with the station. AOR WJRR plays a lot of new product like Nirvana and Candlebox. We do the same, but the difference is they rotate back to Tom Petty and the Who — we come back with Depeche Mode."

Avoiding Burn

Boerner explains his music selection process: "For my currents, I watch the R&R chart. We avoid things that are too radical. For instance, the Beastie Boys' 'Sabotage' is kind of hard for who we're catering to. We keep our current list between 25-30. They come up in a five-hour rotation. I don't want a high burn factor. Remember, we're only playing these songs on weekends."

"For recurrences and gold, it's a lot of gut. I have Top 200 lists from various Alternative stations. With the limited amount of airtime, they don't have to turn over that fast. I can control them through Selector and have [U2's] 'Sunday Bloody Sunday' play every second week or repeat once a month."

Clark adds, "Rich has a very good feel and sense for good music flow. It's extremely listenable. Everything we play has a good melody and lyric line. This is important since we're looking for a slightly older audience."

Cross-Promotion

Initially, WTKS didn't promote its transformation to weekend music. Now the station ties the music to its weekday Talk format with highly produced promos on the Talk personalities and snippets of Alternative music. Clark explains, "It mentions, 'Real people all week and real music all weekend.' We do a lot more

WTKS's Weekend Numbers

WTKS/Orlando began playing Alternative music on the weekends just prior to the Winter '94 book. Here are the results, which list under each demo the station's Fall '93 rank, followed by its Winter '94 rank for weekends, 6am-midnight:

cross-promoting. Ninety percent of our bumper music is Alternative music. Middayer Ed Tyll does a lot of personal appearances at the music clubs. He knows the music and artists. He even dresses like these people."

Boerner points out, "In some promos, we say, 'A weekend packed with modern rock.' It's the only time we really lend ourselves to saying anything like that. I was concerned with the 30+ people predisposing what modern rock is."

Overwhelming Response

Clark says groundswell indicates it's working. "We're sold out on weekends — people realize we have a lot of listeners. The club scene is seeking us out. I'm out three or four days a week talking to people, and the response has been overwhelming. I'm hearing over and over again, 'My God, there's a station for me.' They feel we're hip and on the cutting edge with some of the newer artists, but still have a comfort factor."

"I believe this station will be in the Top 3 across the board, including weekends. These people want to talk about O.J. Simpson and what's wrong with the community. But on the weekend, they want to party. Weekends are helping weekdays, and weekdays are helping weekends. It's been a very good marriage, because most of the music has a very broad appeal. It's just a different kind of animal that's working extremely well in Orlando. It may not work elsewhere."

"Orlando is a young market," mentions Boerner. "The median age is about 30 years old. We're a transitional market. A huge bulk of the people are Disney and hotel workers. These are single party people who are into modern rock. In the beginning, everyone thought we'd scare people off."

• Essentials: Founding members Kevin Martin (vocals) and Scott Mercado (drums) — acquaintances since high school — began collaborating musically three years ago with a band called Uncle Duke. Peter Klett (guitar) joined Uncle Duke a few months later. When Bardi Martin (bass) was added at the end of '91, the band renamed itself Candlebox, after a Midnight Oil song lyric in "Ten Legs And Ten Minds." Their eight-song demo, released in their hometown of Seattle in '92, sold out all 600 copies in less than two months. Their debut LP contains two tracks from the original demo.

• Artist POV: "We're four very different people," notes Martin. "It's been a long road; we're still growing every day musically and as friends. We have four real different influences — all stemming from blues-oriented rock 'n' roll — but it helps us grow as a band. Our drummer is jazz-influenced, but he wants to get away from certain rhythms and take us one step further."

• Label POV: Maverick Nat'l Dir./Alternative Promo Sherri Trahan notes, "Platinum plus sales, No. 5 most requested video on MTV, and heavy phones mean we're giving listeners what they want. We just turned 5000 people away from a soldout show in Milwaukee. Can it get any bigger? Yes, yes, yes!"

'Juneteenth' Celebration Hot Summer Ticket

KHVN & KJMZ host day-long festivities attract record crowd of 40,000

KHVN & KJMZ/Dallas-Ft. Worth hosted their "Family Unity Day"/Juneteenth celebration for the third consecutive year, this time drawing a record crowd of 40,000.

Hottest Ticket In Town

The Juneteenth celebration, which takes place all over the southwestern part of the country as well as areas in the deep South, is a day of strong commitment to family and community. In Dallas, the day-long event featured two free concerts. "Praise In The Park," a gospel concert, was hosted by KHVN and featured the nationally-renowned Bobby Jones and New Life, as well as Rev. Oscar Hayes and the Calvary Breakthrough Choir, and Min. Carnell Murrell and NeWork Community Choir.

KJMZ presented "A Celebration Of Juneteenth" that evening with a performance by the O'Jays, with special guest, Gerald Levert from the group Levert. John Henton of Fox-TV's comedy series "Living Single" provided his comedic talent for the event. But the real kicker was JAMZ's after-party featuring the "Father Of Funk," George Clinton of P-Funk fame!

FATHER'S FOOTSTEPS — Gerald Levert (l) with father Eddie Levert on stage in Dallas to celebrate Juneteenth, Father's Day, and other festivities.

Tremendous Turnout

"This year's Juneteenth marked the largest free promotion these stations have ever executed," says the combo's Sales/Promotion Coordinator Ann Rindone. "The response to the concerts was tremendous. We had promotion staff members out in the streets no less than six days a week for four weeks distributing tickets. At the onset of the promotion, the number of tickets we needed to distribute was intimidating. It took only two days for us to realize that this was the hottest ticket in town.

"Ironically, our problem was not having enough tickets to give away! KHVN & KJMZ have definitely set a precedent in the market for producing quality promotions for the family. This free concert was our way of saying 'thank you' to the communities we serve and those who support us in return."

Creating A Partnership

VP/GM Howard Toole, explains, "When a promotion draws that number of people, it's nice to see the radio stations give something back to the community. I was most impressed with those who approached our staff members to say, 'Thank you for bringing such a quality event.' It's been a long time since people have had an opportunity to attend an adult show in this market. Obviously, this was a very successful promotion. It was a breakthrough for both stations, but especially for KJMZ to be able to do the show with the O'Jays. It was also a breakthrough for the venue, Coca-Cola Starplex. This was the largest attendance of African-Americans they've ever enjoyed. This will lead us to a positive future partnership with them."

This was definitely an imaging event; very appropriate for our older demo lean.

— Thomas Bacote

KJMZ PD Thomas Bacote was equally satisfied with the results. "I was very pleased with the event. It was an excellent opportunity to tie together several different elements — Black Music Month, Father's Day, and Juneteenth. We were very fortunate to do this concert in an excellent venue with, in my opinion, the perfect group for Black Music Month: the O'Jays. I felt it was a concert people would talk about. I didn't want your typical track act for our annual Juneteenth celebration. Because the O'Jays had not performed in the market for a few years, it was a great opportunity to give people someone they hadn't seen in awhile. This was definitely an imaging event; very appropriate for our older demo lean."

Heavenly Mission

Heaven 97's PD Drew Dawson enthuses, "It was encouraging to see major corporations sponsoring a Gospel concert, something which hasn't happened in this market in the past. I think the quantity and quality of audience that attended 'Praise in the Park' made it well worth our sponsors' investments. This was the fourth year 'HVN has successfully executed this event, and we continue to be excited about the listeners responses. Families, children, and senior citizens came out to enjoy this event. It has become a Dallas-Ft. Worth summer tradition."

Knowledge Is Power: WCDX Awards Scholarship

WCDX (Power 93)/Richmond established a $10,000 academic scholarship earlier this year to award a local student who maintains a high grade point average.

Station VP/GM Ben Miles says, "Many of our listeners have all it takes to continue their education — except money. We're happy to be able to help them reach their goals and their potentials in life."

The Power 93 Scholarship allocates $2500 per year, renewable for four years as long as the student maintains a specified GPA. The station will award the scholarship every year to an area high school graduating senior planning to attend a four-year accredited college or university.

This year's recipient was Julia Elizabeth Graves, who graduated from Henrico High School with a 4.17 GPA. She'll attend Duke University this fall with Biology (pre-medicine) as her major.

International Peace Conference — L.A. Style

KKBT (92.3 The Beat)/Los Angeles joined the Stop The Violence/Increase The Peace Foundation to help bring together community leaders, politicians, rappers, and concerned citizens for last month's International Peace Conference in Los Angeles.

The seminars and concert encouraged dialogue and launched a new commitment to stop the violence not only in L.A., but throughout the country. People from all walks of life were part of the antiviolence coalition, hoping to get the message out to everyone.

Station VP/GM Craig Wilbraham commented, "The Beat created, organized, and executed the Stop the Violence Conference to provide structure and to create an environment of cooperation and communication. Education, employment, and a platform for expressing their views were the most important issues facing our audience and this city in general. This first of what we anticipate will be a series of conferences will hopefully help achieve these goals."

Assemblywoman Gwen Moore was on hand with a group of NFL players, including Ronnie Lott, Rodney Pete, Howie Long, and Ron Bernstein, to talk to attendees. Also making an appearance were Sugar Ray Leonard, rappers Ice T and Eazy-E, Los Angeles Urban League President John Mack, KBT air personalities, and former gang members.

Mass Appeal With Class Appeal

Format pioneer Paul Goldstein assesses the format he helped shape

Is NAC a mass-appeal format? Sony Warner Radio Network Exec. Producer Paul Goldstein thinks so. He says it's a "myth" that this is a niche format, and explains why in this week's look at one of the "Format Pioneers."

Until recently, Goldstein was at KOAI (the Oasis)/Dallas, where he made history by propelling the station to an unprecedented 5.0 share 12+ — good for third 25-54 in a market with four Country stations. Word of his future endeavors at SW is pending.

Paul Goldstein

R&R: What were the basics of the programming philosophy that led to your success at KOAI?

PG: Three people played a major role in repackaging a format Gannett had dropped. Granum's Herb McCord, Peter Ferrara, and Skip Schmidt believed in my mass-appeal NAC strategy and supported it with the necessary revenues. We broke ratings records in Dallas by focusing our attention on three key issues: music, events, and product personality.

[Then-MD, now PD] Tom Miller and I spent the majority of our time fine-tuning the music and adjusting formatics based on research and the level of solid new product available. It was our strong conviction that weaker songs dilute the strength of the format. Think of the great melodies written by George Gershwin and Cole Porter. Use them as a quality benchmark. Weak melodies give you low ratings; strong melodies yield high ratings.

We took very few musical risks, playing the best of the best songs in an almost CHR approach to NAC. With high attention to detail, we massaged the music mix to create a hypnotic and seamless flow. Tom has a great sense for identifying timeless songs, which helped us avoid music that would weaken the mix.

“NAC is deeply penetrating radio's emerging primetime — office hours — by creating an intoxicating atmosphere that results in very strong TSL.”

We created big events and promoted them on-air with very little talk but very high impact, and that played an important role in propelling the Oasis to a dominant position. These events were free concerts at venues which held from 3000-50,000 people. We combined mystery, drama, and suspense in creative campaigns designed to increase listener loyalty and heighten brand awareness.

We found that very big events are more effective because, when properly executed, they build drama on the station before, during, and after. Smaller events appeal to fewer listeners and usually result in clutter and little emotional impact. [Consultant] George Johns said it best: "The goal of a promotion should be to get on the evening news and in the paper the next day." In the end, big events make your station much more memorable.

When listeners scanned the Dallas FM dial, the Oasis stood out because its overall sound was extraordinarily distinct. All product elements were profoundly different from our competitors' in both style and texture. The on-air attitude showed enormous respect for the listener and enthusiasm for the product.

Added to this were colorful yet concise "tips" on how to use the station, which resulted in forward momentum and the feeling that if you turned us off you might miss something good. This uniqueness came through to the listener in a lush, rich, comfortable environment that was perceived as natural, genuine, and not at all forced.

R&R: You have been particularly vocal in your insistence that NAC is not a niche format.

PG: After years of R&D, NAC is delivering big ratings in major markets like New York, Chicago, San Francisco, and Dallas. The experimental period has ended. Gone are the weird New Age music, cricket sound effects, and whale noises. The mass-appeal music mix has replaced them. Kenny G, David Sanborn, Dave Koz, and Larry Carlton are now coupled with AC artists like Michael Bolton, Mariah Carey, Celine Dion, and Whitney Houston, resulting in a blend that takes a healthy "flanker-type" bite out of a variety of other formats, including AC, CHR, Rock, and Urban.

NAC is a niche the same way WGN/Chicago and KGO/San Francisco are a niche. They specialize in News/Talk; NAC specializes in blending New Adult Contemporary music. The ratings are rivaling those of the industry giants in many complicated and competitive major markets. The race is on to see who will be the first to own this mass-appeal format in markets where it's still an available option.

Arbitron says NAC is hotter than ever. In Dallas it's now ranked third 25-54 with a 6.1. NAC is fourth 25-54 with a 5.1 in New York, sixth in Chicago with a 4.2 25-54, and tied for fourth in San Francisco with a 4.4 25-54.

R&R: Numbers that strong can't be ignored. How did we get here?

MIDDAY AT THE OASIS — About 10,000 listeners flocked to KOAI (the Oasis)/Dallas's third listener appreciation party, where they were rewarded with sets from Zachary Breaux, Joe McBride, and RCA act Warren Hill, seen here with a fan.

PG: NAC's growth is very similar to the evolution of AOR. AOR began with an eclectic and progressive mix. Over time, the best songs were identified, playlists were tightened, and ratings soared. The exact same process has occurred in NAC. I believe 1995 is the year NACs will emerge in more and more cities across America. Forward-thinking label groups like Sony, WEA, EMI, and PolyGram are moving quickly to deepen their rosters of NAC artists.

R&R: From the perspective of owners and GMs, what does the future hold?

PG: Owners and GMs now view NAC with a keen new interest as an affirmative, proactive move to increase the asset value of their properties. They're asking, "Why should I be the third AC, Country, or Rock station in a market, losing buys and trying to stay afloat with marginal ratings, when I could own a mass-appeal format with class-appeal demos?"

Furthermore, they're recognizing that selling NAC in a duopoly setting will be particularly powerful and lucrative, because its sales profile is extremely compatible with a variety of other formats — including AC, CHR, Rock, and Urban. Add to that NAC's operational cost effectiveness, ratings punch, and differentiation, and wow! — it's a salesperson's dream.

“The race is on to see who will be the first to own this mass-appeal format in markets where it's still an available option.”

Visionary GMs and owners see evidence everywhere of the substantial impact NAC has had on popular culture. The David Letterman and Arsenio Hall shows have enjoyed NAC artists David Sanborn and Dave Koz as regular guests. NAC artists including Dave Grusin and Al Jarreau score the music for a wealth of motion pictures and TV shows. NAC has continued to grow, becoming one of the most popular and dominant forms of music in the media.

It is also deeply penetrating radio's emerging prime time — office hours — by creating an intoxicating atmosphere. This results in very strong TSL, because adults leave their radios on all day at work. The music's toe-tapping energy and tempo keep the format foreground, yet it still has the smooth, rich production value that gives listeners the format's primary benefit — relaxation.

The result is a format which media buyers believe is the best environment on radio for an advertiser. Commercials are showcased in a classy, lush setting, and the lack of contesting, talk and contrived elements really allows the advertiser's message to stand out.

R&R: Why isn't NAC asserting itself as strongly in markets below the Top 10?

PG: NACs should be achieving at this level in markets 11-75. Because the format has matured, I believe the answer is simple: It's only a matter of time.

Six Steps To Finding Talent

Finding the right air personality can be one of the most time-consuming, nerve-racking, and frustrating things a PD does. It's also among a PD's most important responsibilities.

Dale Carter

WWYZ/Hartford PD Dale Carter recently conducted a search for a morning personality. As he was preparing for the great hunt, he decided to go about it differently than he had in previous explorations.

"Too many times programmers put ads in R&R with little or no thought as to what we want," he says. "We assume we'll know it when we hear it. I've done it dozens of times myself. So this time I actually mapped out six qualities I wanted for the next Country 92.5 morning show. One headhunter I spoke with was blown away by the precision; he had only two people in his database who came close."

Outlined below are the six qualities on Carter's prospective personality inventory and his reasoning behind each one. (Equal time will be provided to personalities taking exception with Carter's points.)

Personality Parade

Youth — Carter says "youth" doesn't necessarily mean chronological age. "Too many jocks are matter-of-fact about what they do and fail to communicate a sense of energy on the air. I certainly wasn't looking for a screamer, but energy in the morning is very important to me."

In nine out of 10 cases, hiring a Top 10 market personality to come to a medium market is a mistake.

A Move Up — One of Carter's considerations was the market-size move being made by the talent. It's one many people talk about but few take into consideration when hiring. "I've made this mistake before," he admits. "In nine out of 10 cases, hiring a Top 10 market personality to come to a medium market is a mistake. No matter how subtle, there's a feeling the jock has gone from the majors to Triple A. People who've had 15 jobs in 15 years also fall into

After a new personality is on the air is not the time to hear, 'I'm the morning talent. I don't do _____.'

this category because my station would be job 16 looking for 17."

Commitment To The Format — A station should take on an attitude and then staff it with believers. "This theory flies in the face of Don Imus and his success at WFAN/New York. However, as a general rule, you don't want a morning person who really thinks country music sucks."

Not Just Another Deep Voice — "What a jock has to say is much more important than [in] what octave it is said. I've gotten hundreds of tapes over the years with wonderful voices giving me liner-card radio. That won't cut it here."

Teamwork — Everybody claims to be a "team player." Ascertaining whether someone really is is important — and sometimes difficult. "This is one of the biggest buzzwords in the hiring process. This is a quality that must be demonstrated in previous jobs. It takes more research to find out, but it's worth the effort to know that the person you're hiring isn't just giving lip service to the teamwork issue. After a new personality is on the air is not the time to hear, 'I'm the morning talent. I don't do _____.'"

Show Prep As A Second Religion — Ah, show prep. Some folks think it means coming in 20 minutes before their airshift. "It's another buzzword in the hiring process. The proof would be in unscoped hours of the jock you want to hire. This may require a clandestine trip to the market or having someone you know in the market roll tape on the person. It's another extra step that will pay huge dividends in the long run."

A Plan For All Shifts

Of course, the qualities you're looking for in an air talent may vary from these. But there's no doubt that sitting down and writing them out forces you to think about what you're really looking for in prospective talent. That has to help you recognize it when it passes through your tape player.

Carter says he couldn't be happier with his choice for mornings: Stormin' Norman, who came from WHVK/Huntsville, AL. And the process Carter went through has changed the way he hires all talent. "I really believe if you hire someone who meets those six tests you'll have a winning, stable morning show. I've begun to use it in hiring all the way down to entry-level parttime jocks — and it works great."

PRIME PROMOTIONS

Computers, Caravans, & Chaos

KTCS/Ft. Smith, AR is placing its call letters in front of office workers via a computer screen-saver promotion.

Floppy disks containing the program are being given away on the air, and sales reps are distributing them to clients. Airstaffers are even making office visits to install the software.

KTCS has tied in with Diet Coke as a national sponsor. The screen saver displays the KTCS logo in the lower left corner; various Diet Coke cans and bottles float across the screen with glasses and ice cubes. This is something you could do on your own, with your logo playing a more prominent role in the graphics. If you've done so, pass the particulars along to me and I'll share 'em with everybody else.

WTCR/Huntington, WV personality J.B. Miller discovered an interesting phenomenon as he looked around the Cracker Barrel restaurant located 125 miles away: A lot of his friends and listeners had made the same trek to eat there. Thus was born the WTCR Cracker Barrel Caravan.

A three-mile-long procession of cars, trucks, campers, buses, and motorcycles left Huntington with a police escort bound for Lexington, KY's Cracker Barrel. Once there, the contingent dined while Miller presented restaurant management with a petition bearing 7000 signatures, asking them to build a Cracker Barrel in Huntington.

KIXQ/Joplin, MO has wreaked havoc on local agencies and utilities in recent weeks. It drew the ire of the city's police chief when its "Free Lunch" promotion literally brought traffic to a standstill on one of the town's main streets. The station and a local restaurant fed 1500 people in two hours. But it wasn't the food that caused the jam — one of the lunches contained $1000.

KIXQ also shut down the local phone system for 15 minutes when it offered $10,000 to the 94th caller after the airing of a Garth Brooks song.

WYNY/New York teamed with 7-Up to award a lucky listener a "dream date" with Doug Supernaw. Margaret Mazol was picked up in a limo and taken to a local restaurant, where Supernaw met her after an interview on the station.

But their date didn't end after dinner. Mazol had the limo driver stop by a high school, where she challenged the athletic and very competitive Supernaw to a game of hoops.

WKIX/Raleigh gave away thousands in cash in what it called the "Easiest Contest In The World" — and the money belonged to the competition. When crosstown Country rival WQDR played its "Song Of The Day," KIX aired "touch tones" so listeners would know it was time to call the other station to win.

BARREL OF FUN — WTCR/Huntington, WV afternoon personality J.B. Miller (r) presents Cracker Barrel officials with a golden shovel to break ground whenever they decide to build a restaurant in the Huntington area.

100 MARKETS AND COUNTING!

Just seven months ago, people thought we were crazy. Who in their right mind would put on a national radio show just for the overnight daypart? A lot has changed in those few months. Now, the "overnight revolution" has officially spread into over 100 markets across the United States.

YEAH, BUT IT'S A SATELLITE SHOW

Who would trust their radio station to some satellite show? How 'bout KNIX-FM in Phoenix, WMIL-FM in Milwaukee, WDSY-FM in Pittsburgh, KKAT-FM in Salt Lake City, and KEBC-FM in Oklahoma City. The list goes on and on. You get a show that is compelling ... it gives listeners a reason to listen to your station! And by the time your local morning show comes around, the audience is ready and waiting.

CAN I SELL THE THING?

95 KSJ in Mobile, AL actually sells out their overnight commercial inventory night after night. Jim Koblas of KSJ says, "What has been an unexpected bonus ... some of the clients get so excited about their results, they are receptive to a daytime schedule. Many are first time advertisers." Best of all, since After MidNite is market exclusive, your competitors won't have anything to answer it with.

COUNTRY'S GLOBAL WARMING

Arista, BMG Set Sights Overseas

With the go-ahead for simultaneous international distribution of all its releases, Arista/Nashville and BMG are poised to win the hearts of thousands of new country listeners around the globe.

The label's multilevel plan to accomplish its far-reaching goals has already kicked into high gear, according to Arista/Nashville Director/Product Development Ramona Simmons. The first step in that plan came when Simmons attended BMG's International Marketing Conference in Venice, Italy several months ago, making a presentation on Arista's successes for representatives from BMG's 39 worldwide territories.

"I attended this conference last year as a guest, just to meet people and make some overseas contacts within the company," she explains. "But this year the attitude about country had changed so much that we were invited to attend and were requested to do this presentation.

"It was a great opportunity, because the conference participants are the ones who decide whether an album is released in their territories. It's structured differently over there — if you're in sales and marketing or A&R and are excited by an artist, you have the power to go back and make the decision to release that artist's product."

COUNTRY FLASHBACK

1 YEAR AGO

- No. 1: "Chattahoochie" — Alan Jackson (2nd week)

5 YEARS AGO

- No. 1: "Cathy's Clown" — Reba McEntire

10 YEARS AGO

- No. 1: "That's The Thing About Love" — Don Williams

15 YEARS AGO

- No. 1: "Amanda" — Waylon Jennings (second week)

20 YEARS AGO

- No. 1: "Not Through Loving You" — Conway Twitty

According to Simmons, 13 territories made the commitment to release Alan Jackson's new album, "Who I Am," during a workshop luncheon later in the conference. In fact, the response was so overwhelmingly positive that the decision was also made to have a simultaneous international release of all Arista/Nashville product. BMG also gave the green light to German manufacturing of Nashville product, a process that will not only facilitate its availability but also eliminate importation hassles. The European product will reportedly be repackaged to include several bonus cuts, with 12-13 songs per album.

Absolute Country

Because of the increased international interest and commitment to country, Arista is now shipping advances to territory product managers and alerting them to forthcoming projects through an international newsletter, which Simmons is overseeing. Country efforts are being coordinated through BMG Munich with BMG International VP/Strategic Marketing Klaus Schmalenbach and VP/A&R Marketing/Europe Chris Stone.

According to Simmons, the U.K. is a special area of concentration because it tends to influence other areas of Europe. Plans are under way to release a special U.K. compilation, "Absolute Country," featuring songs by Pam Tillis, Radney

Foster, Matraca Berg, Clay Walker, Lee Roy Parnell, Michelle Wright, Restless Heart, Martina McBride, Brooks & Dunn, Clint Black, Alan Jackson, and Carlene Carter. The CDs will be available for a minimal cost at W.H. Smith stores (one of BMG's biggest retail accounts in England), prominently displayed with each artist's full-length CD. Postcards about a CD's availability will be sent to 3000 potential buyers once it hits stores as well.

The GSA territories (Germany, Switzerland, and Austria) also plan to get in on the country act next month. "We've been invited to attend their sales and marketing conference and bring an artist, so we're taking Michelle Wright," says Simmons. "Her album release coincides with the trip, and during the conference BMG will kick off its official GSA territories campaign for the promotion and development of country music. That's when we officially announce we're committed, we're going for it, and we're going to do it!"

Another compilation CD in the planning stages for the GSA territories will include only Arista/Nashville music. Along with promotional displays, the CD will be marketed through fliers which will be distributed at music festivals in those countries to alert fans to the CD's availability. To further express their commitment to the GSA territories, Arista will return with Wright to visit the area in November, when she will also tape a TV special in Scotland on women in music with Bonnie Raitt, Mary Chapin Carpenter, K.D. Lang, and Emmylou Harris.

Dance Fever?

Arista may also be at the forefront of a European country dance craze prompted by excitement over a promotional CD. The disc contained dance mixes that the label originally used to introduce new act the Tractors at stateside clubs. "I played this CD — which has 'Boot Scootin' Boogie,' 'Chattahoochie,' 'Rock My World,' and other songs — for Klaus [Schmalenbach] in the car on our way to the Venice conference, and he just loved it," says Simmons. "They've decided to release it commercially and are already getting great feedback from the European clubs. So now there's a good possibility of a country dance craze starting in Europe just like it did here."

One of the label's ultimate goals, according to Simmons, is to have an album and single released in all of the European territories. With this newly strengthened commitment from BMG, it is surely well on its way to achieving that goal. "In two years, I think all of Nashville will be involved on an international level," says Simmons. "We're at the perfect time for the further development of country, and the international interest in our products seems to be at an alltime high.

"Music is an international language, and our artists speak that language. And for us to be so narrow-minded to think that it just needs to be heard in the U.S. or North America is very limiting. We need to open up our eyes and have a world vision."

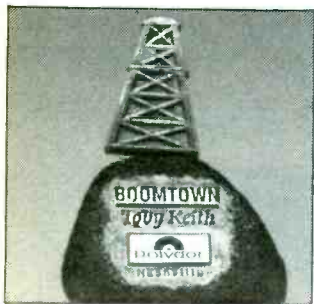

Bits & Pieces

Suzy Bogguss and Chet Atkins have been busy putting the finishing touches on a new album they recorded together. Bogguss co-produced the project, which should be out sometime this fall . . . A box set on Webb Pierce was recently released by the Country Music Foundation, and a new Bill Monroe collection will hit stores next week (7/19) . . . Mavericks fans who missed the band's ABC-TV "Day One" appearance can catch them on "The Late Show With David Letterman" on July 28 and on "Today" July 29.

Gushing with excitement over Toby Keith's newest release, "Boomtown," the goldiggers and oil riggers at Polydor/Nashville sent programmers a reminder of their rock solid commitment to great country music — a letter opener/paperweight with the name of Keith's new album chiseled in stone. The slick accessory is proof positive that Polydor's promo people are primed and ready to mine their share of country hits.

RANDALL BLOOMQUIST

Post-Mortem: The Art Of Show Critique Sessions

The hour is up, the show is over, and another daypart is history. Now it's "Critique Time." When properly handled, the post-show review meeting can be an invaluable programming tool — a way for PDs and hosts to communicate their views and needs, work out problems with the show, and otherwise insure that everyone is on the same page and headed toward the next chapter.

But improperly done, such post-mortems can quickly become counterproductive sessions that waste everybody's time and/or breed negative feelings. Here are some tips for making the most of your critique sessions.

How Much Is Enough?

Programmers interviewed for this story said they like to try to talk at least briefly with every host every day — even if that means just chatting at the Coke machine or in the parking lot.

The frequency of more formal critique sessions, they said, really depends on the nature of the talent.

You need to find out what the host was trying to accomplish. Once you've figured that out you can frame things in terms of helping them reach their goal.

— Bill McMahon

Veteran talkers who are fixtures on established stations generally need a lot less feedback than rookie hosts, young talkers, or the hosts of newly-established drivetime shows.

WGST/Atlanta PD Eric Seidel, who is temporarily overseeing implementation of a new program lineup at Jacor sister WCKY/Cincinnati, is currently dealing with both ends of that spectrum.

"I meet with the WCKY morning team every day to go over that day's show and plan the next day's show," says Seidel. "And I think that process should go on indefinitely with a new show.

"But at WGST, I have several successful hosts who have been around for years. I talk informally with them once or twice a week and have lunch with them every couple weeks." The one exception, he says, is WGST middayer Sean Hannity. Hannity, Seidel explains, is an "energetic" young host who needs more frequent guidance in order to "grow and effectively channel his energy."

Consultant Bill McMahon says it's important when scheduling critique sessions to think about what the particular host wants and needs. Some personalities, he notes, crave a steady diet of feedback from the boss. "Once you've set a schedule, whether it's once a day or once a month, it's very important to stick to it."

Warning: Overload!

To avoid overburdening the host or damaging his confidence, PDs should keep review sessions focused on one or two issues or problem areas. The emphasis should remain on those topics until the host has made enough progress to move on to something else.

"It's possible to give a host so much information and so much to

One important purpose of the critique session is to make the host feel good about their show.

— Tom Langmyer

worry about that they become immobilized," says WXYT/Detroit VP/GM Michael Packer.

KMOX/St. Louis PD Tom Langmyer suggests you think carefully before bringing up small problems and concerns, particularly with top-flight talent. "If you have a host who understands Talk radio and has a passion for what they do, nitpicking them to death doesn't do any good. You don't need to tell them about every complaint from sponsors or other sources. You gain a lot more by standing by your people."

Effective Critiquing Tips

- Try to talk briefly with every host every day
- Consider the particular host's wants and needs
- Once you've set a schedule to meet, stick to it
- Keep review sessions focused on one or two issues or problem areas
- Don't nitpick hosts to death
- Establish with the host what is good about the particular segment you're going to critique
- Use specific examples to show you understand his work, know his strengths, and respect his talent
- Try to see things from the host's perspective
- Be specific and objective

Indeed, Langmyer adds, "One important purpose of the critique session is to make the host feel good about their show."

Gently, Gently

Of course, sometimes there are problems that have to be addressed with the host. McMahon offers these tips for conveying your message. First, make it clear to the host that you understand what is good about the particular segment you are going to critique. Use specific examples to demonstrate that you understand his work, know his strengths, and respect his talent.

If you can't convince the host of that, warns McMahon, you don't have a prayer of winning acceptance for your criticism. As you go about addressing a problem, try to see things from the host's perspective. Find out why he chose to discuss that particular topic, or why he engaged the caller in the way he did.

"You need to find out what they were trying to accomplish," says McMahon. "Once you've figure that out, you can frame things in terms of helping them reach their goal. You are working with them to close the gap between what they wanted to get across and what came across on the air." In offering that help, he

It's possible to give hosts so much information and so much to worry about that they become immobilized.

— Michael Packer

adds, it's important to be very specific and objective. "You can't just say, 'Your monologue was too long.' That's subjective. You have to say, 'That aside you went into sidetracked the monologue and obscured the points you were trying to make.'

"Similarly, you can't just say a bit wasn't funny. You have to offer an explanation of why it wasn't funny."

THE FEMININE MYSTIQUE

Parenti Ponders Programming Paradox

One of the strangest ironies about our format is, despite its strong female appeal, it only boasts a handful of women programmers.

Deborah Parenti

Before WMMX/Dayton PD Shelley James exited to program in Houston (September '92), she and VP/GM Deborah Parenti formed AC's only female GM-PD combo in a Top 50 market. "More female programmers are in male-oriented formats like Alternative and Rock," Parenti remarks. "Perhaps women programmers don't want to be associated with female-oriented stations and would rather prove they can make it in a male-dominated world."

Open-Minded Search

Seeking James's replacement, Parenti spoke with several female applicants. "I was certainly open to hiring [another] female. But I needed someone who would come to the station with lots of professional credentials and take the station to the next level. It didn't matter if the person were male, female, polka-dotted, or striped.

"At the time, though, I knew we [Stoner Broadcasting] were about to acquire two crosstown stations [Country WONE & Rock WTUE]. I couldn't afford the luxury of hiring someone and holding their hand. We needed someone with good leadership and management skills. There's no way I could run all three stations 'hands-on' by myself."

Better Odds

AC women seem to have greater access to positions in sales management and station management than in programming. "The perception is that sales is a much more people-oriented business, requiring personable skills. Unfortunately, we don't always look for those [traits] in programmers.

"PDs are surrounded by four walls and a computer. Management puts them in charge of a group of people. It's closeted — sales is more open and social. We think of women more in these social terms. The odds are a woman eventually will make it into management."

Parenti reflects on research projects conducted 20 years ago. "One question asked 16 different ways regarded the acceptance of women on-air. It was news when stations hired female newscasters. People wondered about a newswoman's credibility. Questions like that aren't asked in sales areas because we're used to seeing women as department store sales clerks."

According to Parenti, those buying into the theory that women are emotional might understand why they'd be successful in sales. "What is radio but an emotional sale? It's 'theater of the mind.' In sales, you get the 'whole' person."

Improving People Skills

Parenti sees AC's fragmentation as a possible reason for females to improve their chances of becoming programmers. "As things become more competitive, we need more expertise. Anything extra that someone can bring to the table makes that person that much more valuable.

"If I were an aspiring PD, I'd work on my people skills. Many times, presentation differentiates one station from another. That falls back to personalities and the person leading them. Women are excellent in reading, understanding, and working with people."

While some prejudices against potential female programmers may still exist, Parenti feels things may be changing. "We don't live in a perfect world. As much as we'd like to, it's impossible to totally erase certain biases. But I'm where I am today because of hard work and good opportunities. If there's any prejudice against women, it tends to be more subliminal — which makes it harder to fight."

KRNO's Adamson: 'It Makes No Sense'

Among those surprised at the incredibly low number of women AC programmers is KRNO/Reno PD Laurie Adamson.

"It makes no sense. I may be too close to the situation, but I think stations would want programmers who are part of the demo."

First-time PD Adamson was promoted from APD/MD last September by owner/GM Lorraine Arms. "She felt it made sense to have a woman program a station that was [targeted] to women," says Adamson. "The first PD I worked for was a woman [KHYL/Sacramento's Sue Ryan]."

Positive Feedback

Adamson would discuss several topics with other female AC PDs in networking sessions. "We're very promotion-oriented, so I'd be interested in how they've handled them on-air. It would also be interesting to know if they're open to having more female announcers." KRNO has two fulltime female air personalities — Adamson, who's on-air 10am-3pm, and one hired last month to handle the 7pm-midnight shift.

Five Female Top 100 PDs

Compiling a list of women who program Top 100-market ACs is nearly an exercise in futility. While there are quite a few female GMs, GSMs, and APDs/MDs, to the best of my knowledge, this is the complete list of women PDs (not including interim situations):

Mkt.	Station/Calls	PD
23	WDOK/Cleveland	Sue Wilson
33	WMXN/Norfolk	Maxine Todd
51	KYIS/Oklahoma City	Brenda Bennett
72	KESY/Omaha	Keisha Stevens
97	WLRQ/Melbourne	Clare Carver

Your thoughts on the scarcity of female AC programmers are welcome. Please call or send me a fax.

Stevens Suggests Female Summit

Although it's rare for a woman to program a Top 100-market AC, KESY/Omaha's Keisha Stevens is one of the select few.

"I'm not sure why there are so few female PDs in the format, but I think we should all have a summit meeting. We could talk about things like sexual harassment and figure out how we can get more women in programming positions. I was very fortunate to have some great mentors. [KESY GM] Dana Webb always has given me every opportunity to move forward. Being in the demo I'm programming to gives me an edge. I believe I have more of a feel for the music women like."

Keisha Stevens

While considering herself to be an open-minded programmer, Stevens notes, "We're not a station that breaks music. I'm a little slower to jump on the bandwagon. I won't refrain from playing Madonna because she has a bad reputation." Stevens especially enjoys working on music selection. "We're music-intensive and don't do a great deal of promotions and personal appearances."

Being in the demo I'm programming to gives me an edge.
—Keisha Stevens

'Sweet' Sounds

A 15-year radio veteran — three as KESY's PD — Stevens says sexual harassment has not been an issue with her and envisions KESY's target listener to be similar to her: a mid-30s female. "They don't want to hear elevator music during the day. Omaha has lots of rock stations and these women prefer an alternative that isn't very hard. ACs need some 'sweet' songs in their library and some songs that don't make the station sound like Muzak."

Afternoon driver Stevens and one parttimer are the only females on KESY's 14-person airstaff. "I started here six years ago as a receptionist, progressed to Traffic Manager, MD, and PD," she recalls. "Most of the people I've worked with have been great. There are times people say they want to deal with the 'man' in charge of programming. I let those comments go by and don't dwell on them. Maybe it's a good chance to educate them."

Thus far, Adamson hasn't been intimidated by her predominantly male airstaff. "I've been in the market six years and have worked in AC for almost 10. There's been nothing but positive feedback from [my staff]. They trust me and feel very free to come in my office and talk about any problems."

She constantly reminds them about the station's target audience. "My morning man doesn't try to wait until a song hit No. 15 before we'd play it. I've added songs by new artists like Story and Marcella Detroit. Women in our target demo — like me — will think these songs sound pretty good. We must break and develop new artists so we have Michael Boltons and Celine Dion down the road to keep the format fresh and prevent burnout.

"I don't continue playing records as long as my predecessors did. When I decide to play a record, I want to give it my all and hope other stations across the country embrace

I may be too close to the situation, but I think stations would want programmers who are part of the demo.
—Laurie Adamson

step over the line by doing anything 'cutesy' or dirty. I get the impression he's thinking about me when he's doing a bit. He's talking to a bunch of people like me and wonders what we think is interesting."

New Attitude

When it comes to music, Adamson believes she's more liberal than

it. But if it's dying on the chart, I'll stop playing it."

Seemingly content with her present situation, Adamson's hopeful that if she were to move on, no biases would exist. "I'd want to be considered on my past record and how long I've been in the business. I might have an edge because of who and what I am."
