Is Modern Rock Radio Still Rolling Through Songs Too Quickly?

by John Loscalzo

Is modern rock radio churning through new music faster than ever? For some record reps, the answer is a resounding "yes." They now worry that many tracks are being dropped before they have time to prove themselves or that records are burning out faster at modern rock because of multiple-format airplay.

Modern rock stations have a aditionally been faster on and off new music, if only because of the pature of the format. As modern rock programmers began to rely on the arue research tools as PDs in other formats, one might have expected that biorhythm to slow down, but some reps say that research is actually making stations turn over music faster especially given modern rock's historical tendency to drop records that spread to other formats.

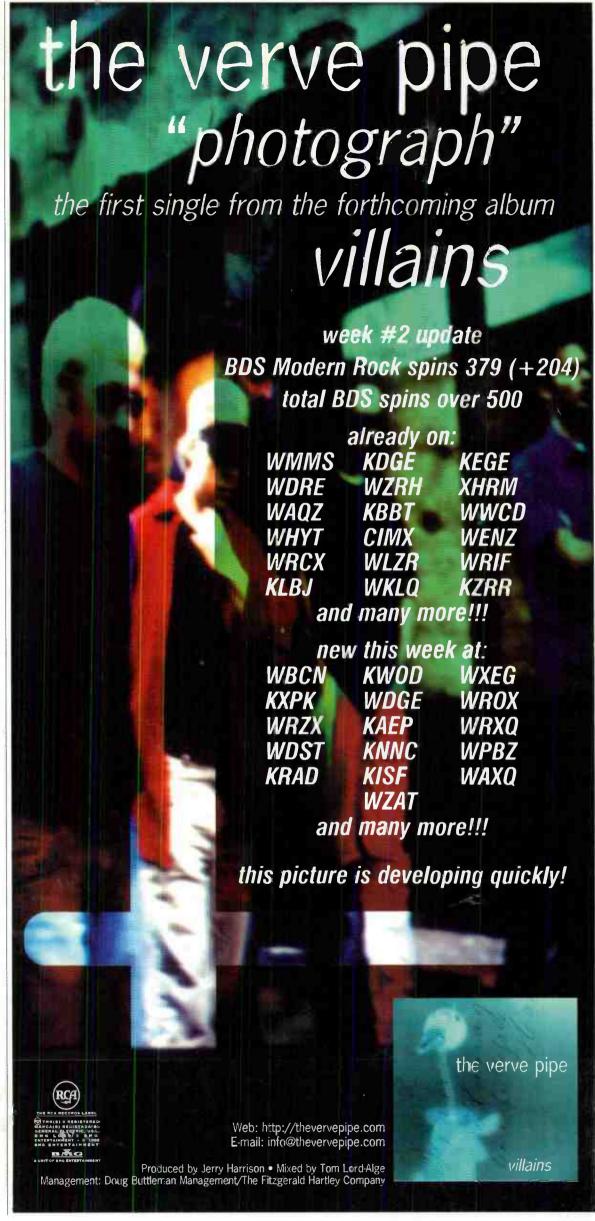

Jon Cohen, Columbia's director of alternative promotion, says, "This is the biggest problem I have right now with a lot of modern rock programmers. A lot of people will put a new band on the radio and expect immediate reaction. Not everything is going to react like the Presidents Of The United States Of America's 'Lump' or as quickly as a new Pearl Jam song. That's the expectation at alternative right now. [It's] going to prevent so many great records from becoming lits."

Cohen adds that many stations he deals with expect a reaction or good call-out after 20 or 30 spins. "I realize that the audience of this format is the most active audience, and you can rely on a quicker reaction. But to expect—when you play a current 30 time—and put the pressures on that banc and that record—to see massive sales and massive phones and even have the nerve to call it out . . . you're really expecting way too much."

In an effort to make records pop faster once they get on the radio, labels sometimes spend months trying to line up as much anno as possible. Columbia's last Jeff Buckley album wasn't brought to radio for a year after its release, Cohen notes. "We

World Radio History

Infinity, Paxson, Clear Channel Strike Again

ore from the "Everybody Wants To Rule The World" department: Infinity's long march to world domination continues this week with the $410 million acquisition of the Granum group. The move gives Infinity a new classic rock/rock AC combo, WHTQ/WMMO Orlando, Fla., as well as new properties in Baltimore, Dallas, Atlanta, and Boston. Infinity's Westwood One companies pick up the Shadow Broadcast Services this week. Also, Clear Channel picks up modern WENZ Cleveland, which it was already operating in a duopoly with album WNCX, and the U.S. Radio chain (for $140 million), including rockers KMJX Little Rock, Ark., and WRFY Reading, Pa. And Paxson adds TK's modern WSHE and AM sister WSRF to its Miami holdings for $57.5 million. Meanwhile, the three companies rumored to be bidding on WAXQ (Q104) New York are reportedly Evergreen. Chancellor, and Viacom.

As tipped here last week, ABC did indeed retool its "Deep Cuts" triple-A network to go adult modern as "MR-35." The network named jocks for all dayparts except mornings. PD Cary Pall from WSRR Memphis will do middays, rock vet (WWDC Washington, D.C., WMMR and WYSP Philadelphia) Steve Sutton will do p.m. drive, John Morrill from KDGE (the Edge) Dallas will do nights, and WNNX (99X) Atlanta jock Blake Wolnev will host overnights.

WEBN Cincinnati PD Tim Dukes is named OM at one of Jacor's latest additions, modern XETRA-FM (91X) San Diego. PD Mike Halloran stays on. WEBN OM Mark Chase will handle some day-to-day programming with MD Brad Hardin taking the acting PD slot.

After weeks of speculation, modern WLUM Milwaukee names WEDG (the Edge) Buffalo, N.Y., PD Vince Richards to the PD position vacated by Ron Bunce. WEDG/WGRF OM John Hagar will handle PD duties for the Edge.

Dana Jang, PD of San Jose, Calif., rockers KSJO/KUFX joins Millbrae, Calif.-based the Lund Consultants as associate consultant. Jang will work with the company's classic rock and rock clients, which include mainstream KNCN Corpus Christi, Texas, and KCMQ Columbia, Mo. Jang will continue as PD in San Jose.

Randy McArten, PD of album WIIL Kenosha, Wis., is named PD at rock/AC WRVE Albany, N.Y., replacing Hank Nevins. Scott Matthews from sister station WRVV Harrisburg, Pa., replaces Nevins in mornings. APD Tom Kief is upped to PD at WHL, which has also been without a GM since Ed Doody left last month.

After KNRX (92X) Denver made its predicted switch to top 40/dance as "Jammin' 92.1," crosstown KVOD flipped from classical to classic hits as KKHK (the Hawk) using the slogan "All rock'n'roll hits." Scott Taylor, director of programming/operations for sister AC KOSI/nostalgia KEZW, will oversee KKHK. Crosstown KBCO APD Lois Todd joins as format manager; Dan Mitchell from oldies KOOL Phoenix joins for mornings; crosstown KQKS (KS104) production director Rich Hudson takes the assistant production director slot and 9 a.m.-noon shift; Bob LaBorde from crosstown KIMN goes to p.m. drive; and KOSI hosts Marty Lenz and Melissa Morgan go to evenings and overnights, respectively.

Seventies oldies WJUK Charleston, S.C., becomes classic hits "Q104" under new PD Jim O'Brien, previously part of the morning team at new duopoly partner WSSX (95SX). Q104 will use the syndicated "Bob And Tom Show" in mornings. Rick Peters is consulting. WJUK exited its old format with 24 hours of Queen's "Another One Bites The Dust" and is now playing 5,000 songs in a row. The listener who hears the first spot will win $5,000.

Meridian, Miss., has picked up two classic rock outlets in two weeks. AC WTUX flips to classic hits as "Eagle 102.1" under OM/morning man Dennis Warren. Market veterans Scott Shepard and Barry Walters, both of whom were working in engineering, return to jock duty for middays and afternoons, respectively. Meanwhile, crosstown country WZMP has become WZRW (Arrow 95.1); John Anthony remains PD. Classic rock WRKU Youngstown, Ohio, drops Classic rock WRKU Youngstown, Ohio, drops "Imus In The Morning"; crosstown N/T WRTK picks it up. WRKU will use ABC's classic rock network in mornings . . . '70s oldies WNAP Indianapolis is looking for a new morning show following the departure of Adam Smasher.

Album WRQK Canton, Ohio, unveiled a new morning show March 4 featuring station vet Mercy Killan and WQAL Cleveland's Rick Michaels. That changes the station's lineup to Jay Wolfe in middays, Todd Fisher in p.m. drive, Alfonzo Riley in evenings, and Jesse Johnson in overnights.

Album WIYY (98 Rock) Baltimore fills its longvacant overnight slot with WYSP Philadelphia P/T Matt Davis. In other 98 Rock news, promotion director Mary France segues to N/T sister WBAL; PD Rick Strauss is looking for a replacement.

Modern WXZZ (Z103) Lexington, Ky., taps Roadkill Kessler from sister WKQQ for mornings. Shae Maddox from crosstown WGKS joins for middays. In-house computer guy the Prophet does afternoons. Kelly Gates from WXEG Dayton, Ohio will do nights.

Listener Hurt In KCQQ Morning-Show Stunt

by John Loscalzo

One of radio's "outrageous stunts" got out of hand recently when a listener who agreed to participate in one ended up in the hospital in serious condition with head injuries.

The problems started March 4 when classic rock KCQQ (Q106.5) Davenport, Iowa, morning team Greg Dwyer and Bill Michaels asked a listener to roll down a flight of stairs in a barrel on their show. There was no prize involved.

According to local press reports, James

Schmedding, outfitted in full hockey regalia with a helmet and various padding, got into the barrel, armed with a cell phone to record his reaction, and set off on his trek. The Moliene Dispatch's Sean Leary told Rock Airplay Monitor that the morning team suggested Schmedding wear a neck brace, but paramedics advised against it. Schmedding suffered injuries during the stunt that warranted sending him to the University of Iowa Hospital, where, at press time, he was listed in serious condition. KCQQ PD Jim Hunter would not comment on the incident.

'Adult' And Rock Are An Odd Mix

ith ABC and the Jones Satellite Network announcing their eerily similar "adult" modern formats within a week of each other, I've decided to speak out—not on the formats, but on the use of the A-word, adult. Far be it from me to pretend to be an expert on the world of the grown-ups (or "grups," as they were called in an old "Star Trek" episode), but isn't rock-'n'roll about not growing up? It seems that the attitude of the music is, as John Mellencamp wrote, to "hold onto 16 as long as you can."

To put things in a Haight-Ashbury perspective, the "us" of 20 years ago is now, conceptually, "them." So, if "us" is "them," and today, "them" is more like "us" than ever before, what's all this adult fuss? As far as I know, many corporate CEOs were dope-smoking freaks 25 years ago and probably still knock one back now and then while listening to Blues Traveler or the Grateful Dead (same band). Adults don't do that. They yell and tell you to turn the music down and get off their lawn. Besides, the ones who have truly become adults are too busy buying John Tesh records to care about rock'n'roll anymore.

It seems that the "us" of 1969 is not comfortable with the "us" of 1999 is not comfortable with the "us" of 1996. Why else would this "adult" stuff be popping up? That's not to say that "us '96" dislikes "us '69" as much as "us '69" despised the Nixon-lovin' "them '69." Could it be "us '69" is using adult as a code word? Perhaps their motto today is "don't trust anybody under 40." I wonder if that makes "us '69" merely clubby or chauvinistic? It seems to me that no matter how old they are, they want to be part of their own little world. Have they tried being down with "us '96" but feel strangely out of their element? Probably, it's like Lenny Bruce said: "There's nothing sadder than an old hipster." In that case, hiding behind the A-word makes sense. It's like saying, "Me adult, you baby" to the entire "us '96" generation and somehow relegating them to second-class status. Sound familiar, hippies? But rock'n'roll and adult are still a very odd marriage.

Can't wait to see "Free Bird," the movie? What's next? "Stairway To Heaven," the miniseries? "Life In The Fast Lane," the motor oil? "Funeral For A Friend," the snack food? (Confidential to modern programmers: Stop playing "How Soon Is Now" before it's too late!)

I just installed a CD-ROM drive on my home computer. It took me a month to figure out how to get the thing to work—just in time to realize how much garbage is out for these things. It's crazy. Some of the CD-ROM music discs that are pretty good are the Sarah McLachlan and Bush releases. One disc I found wildly fascinating, but wouldn't buy, was "Supermodels In The Rainforest." If anyone has it, let me know, so I can stage an intervention and get you out of that private hell you're in.

ay Cool Music adds Wendy Naylor as VP of useless information and unkept promises (aka head of radio promotion). She had been MCA's

VP of alternative promotion. Also on board is Leland McNeely, who will head college radio promotion efforts as "national college radio geek."

Zoo Entertainment brings in former Relativity promo maven Doug Ingold to head alternative promotion. Ingold replaces Thomas Westfall, who exits by "mutual agreement." Zoo also has an opening for a Washington, D.C., regional rep, as Pat Milanese departs in mid-March to take over as Curb's national director of promotion.

Fair Air Communications names Cheryl Broz Midwest regional sales manager and Rich Pastore Northeastern regional sales manager. Broz was a consultant with Shane Media. Pastore was regional promotion manager at RCA.

Roadrunner Records is in the process of expanding its staff. It's looking for someone to handle modern rock promotion and plans to hire field reps in New York, L.A., Chicago, Atlanta, and Dallas before the end of the year.

Scotti Bros. Records announces a name change to All American Music Group. The label also announces a new distribution deal with WEA.

93Q, After Rockin' For 23 Years, Goes Jazz/AC

Heritage rocker WQFM (93Q) Milwaukee flipped to jazz/AC March 8, exiting its format of the last 23 years with the Who's "Long Live Rock."

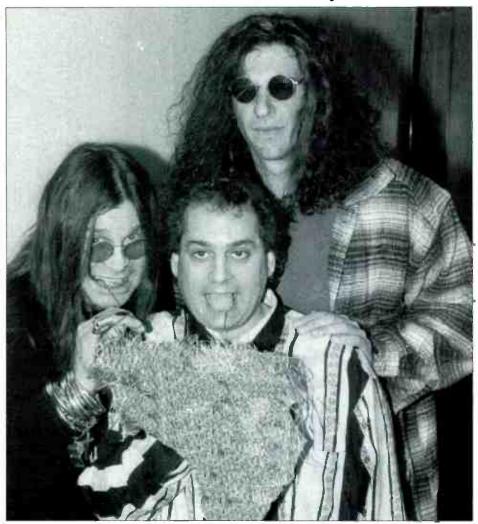

WQFM, which carried Jonathan Brandmeier's syndicated morning show, was purchased by current owner Shamrock Communications in 1973 when it switched from polka to rock. WQFM's ratings steadily decreased in the '90s owing to competition from mainstream WLZR, classic WKLH, and modern WLUM. In the fall Arbitron, 93Q sank 1.9-1.3 12-plus. JOHN LOSCALZO

CHEET SHEET BYMMIN MARONE

From College Project To Feats Of Clay

Less than three years ago, Jars Of Clay vocalist Dan Haseltine, keyboardist Charlie Lowell, and bassist Steve Mason were not only going to the same school—Greenville College in Illinois—but also sharing the same dormitory floor. For these three, writing music fulfilled curriculum obligations: Haseltine says Jars Of Clay started because he and his friends "just needed songs to record for studio classes," which gives new meaning to liberal arts credits.

Encouraged by other students, Jars Of Clay played acoustic-based music at local coffeehouses. One day, while sitting around flipping through magazines, the band members learned of a songwriting contest sponsored by the Gospel Music Assn. and decided to send in a demo tape for critique. Jars Of Clay wound up winning the contest and qualifying to perform at the GMA convention in 1993. After the confab, Haseltine says, "when we got back to school to finish out the year, we started getting phone calls from record companies. [We thought,] 'OK, this is interesting,' so we [moved] to Nashville at the end of the school year to see what would happen." The band wound up signing with Essential in December '93.

The timing proved to be right for Jars Of Clay. While Essential's Robert Beeson, who signed the band, was looking for a producer, he learned from an intern related to Adrian Belew that the noted guitarist producer had just moved to Nashville. Both Beeson and the band were fans of Belew's solo work, as well as King Crimson and the Bears. Beeson contacted Belew, who agreed to produce a couple of tracks ("Flood" and "Liquid") for Jars Of Clay's debut album. Haseltine says that Belew "brought a really focused direction [to the project]. We all had a clue where we wanted to go with the songs . . . but he helped us pinpoint where we needed to go.

The album sold well enough on Essential—mostly through Christian bookstores—to come to the attention of BMG subsidiary Silvertone, which licensed the debut set that went on to grab a Grammy nomination this year for best rock gospel album.

Haseltine and Jars Of Clay are anxious to get on the road. "One of the things we love most about this industry is just being able to play live," he says. "Musically, we want it to be the best that it can be. We don't necessarily do stuff exactly the way it is on our album. We come from a philosophy that people have the album and they don't come to the show to listen to the album—they want more." Jars Of Clay are set to play Boston (March 11), Seattle (March 22), and San Francisco (March 28), followed by a full-fledged club tour in KISS: Love Grunge?

Kiss rose from the boroughs of New York in the early '70s to capture the imagination of kids across the country, particularly during the band's peak years of 1975-79. Undoubtedly, the band's comic-book-come-to-life rock persona left an indelible print on many of the '90s superstar acts, including Pearl Jam, Nirvana, and Alice In Chains (a possible opener on a rumored reunion tour).

The original Kiss appeared in the full makeup of '77's "Love Gun" era at this year's Grammys, but have yet to confirm a tour. The original band's reputation as one of rock's greatest live shows hasn't been tarnished, despite what many consider the band's "lost decade" of the '80s.

Kiss-mania is poised for a resurgence with the release of "MTV Unplugged" this week on Mercury. The album features some of the band's classics, such as "Beth," but also offers fan favorites "Plaster Caster" and "Goin' Blind." Acoustic sessions aside, fans are looking forward to Kiss' version of hard rock that needs to be plugged in and fully complimented with the band's legendary stage gimmicks: Ace Frehley's smoking guitars, Peter Criss' elevating drum riser, the classic fire-breathing of Gene Simmons, and even Paul Stanley's classic, inane stage banter, which has also achieved cult status.

Releases And Notes

Elektra will release a compilation of '70s and '80s one-hit wonders done by contemporary acts entitled "Wonderama." The first single, "Funkytown," by RuPaul and Henry Rollins will drop at radio May 7, with the album scheduled for June release. Among the other tracks are Ben Folds Five's version of "Video Killed The Radio Star," the Toadies' take on "Cars," and Moby's cover of Devo's "Whip It."

The Auteurs release their third album, "After Murder Park," April 30 on Vernon Yard/Caroline. Steve Albini produced the long-player.

A correction from last week's column: Jay Rifkin is president of Mojo Records, Goldfinger's label, which will be distributed by Universal.

The Foo Fighters begin a theater tour March 22 in Denver at the Ogden Theater. The first leg of the tour, running through the Midwest, will feature That Dog opening; the Amps will join April 2 for Cleveland, Toronto, Worcester, Mass., and New York

Everclear guests on "Saturday Night Live" March 16. [Then they can stand beside the risers and watch the jokes die.—Ed.]

The new Cure album will be called "Wild Mood Swings," and the first single, "The 13th," will drop at radio April 13.

With Relativity dropping its rock roster, could Our Lady Peace be headed to Columbia or Work?

Is Modern Rock Rolling Through Songs Too Quickly

worked it at retail. He toured, did in-stores. We did retail promotions. We had a video and worked it without radio's involvement. So when we took it to radio he had a base. Everybody had heard about him, a lot had seen him, [and] there was already a strong base at retail. So when we got airplay, we saw sales much more quickly than we would have if we hadn't set it up [before]. But it was still another record that people, after ten spins, wanted to see [have] top 50 sales, No. 1 phones. The expectations are unbelievable.

As for the problem of songs being burnt faster through multiple-format airplay, Cohen says, "I understand that when an artist starts at modern and then gets to that level where there are five stations in that market sharing the artist, Ithel alternative station wants to move off. But to give that artist up is ridiculous. That's where the station has to get a little creative, position itself as the founder of that artist. Maybe go deeper and play something else by that artist.

"There used to be a day in the format when PDs played a record because they dug the band and the record," says Work Group director of alternative promotion Geordie Gillespie. "I think research has become such a big part of modern rock's programming tools that [its] information may be misconstrued. Everyone at a station may love a record, but they're finding that if it's not testing well with their cell," that record is dropped. "Maybe they're communicating with the wrong cell, or maybe that week they got the wrong sample. The only problem I have is that research is dictating when a record should come off."

Bill Gamble, PD of WKQX (Q101) Chicago, counters, "It's amazing that [this is] an issue, because you have on one side [people saying], 'You guys never add anything, and why are you playing Folk Implosion a thousand times? Why don't you make room for something else?' And the other side [saying], 'You never give anybody a fair chance, and you drop records after three weeks.' I think it's a tempest in a teapot.

'I think there are certain records you put on [that] you think are going to work. [But it might turn out that] you put them on for a couple of weeks, and there's that sense that something's not happening or it's a slot filler. There's no real way to quantify that to a label." Gamble cites the Smashing Pumpkins' "Bullet With Butterfly Wings" as proof that modern rock will hold onto the right record. "Burn scores are in the 20s, and favorites are in the 50s—that could still be a legitimate [A-rotation record] for half the people playing it.'

What is a reasonable time frame to separate the dogs from the hits? "It probably takes a couple of hundred spins before you can get accurate call-out." Gamble says. "But not every record is going to make that hundred spins," because a programmer's gut instinct will come into play and identify songs that won't make the cut. WDGE (the Edge) Providence, R.I., PD Brent Petersen says, "I really don't think you can get a feel for how a record is performing with less than a 150 spins; normally, I like to go to at least 200 spins unless it looks like it's a complete wash." With aggressive competition on the modern side from crosstown WBRU, which is traditionally early on music, and mainstream WIIJY, which is relatively late and shares currents with the Edge, Petersen says he tries to ride a thin line between "being hip and holding onto records long enough to take advantage of those WHJY spins.

WNRQ (the Revolution) Pittsburgh PD Phil Manning says, "If I'm going to add a record, I'm going to give it at least six weeks. I won't research something until it has at least 80 spins, and even then it's premature. We have a small gold library, so our B-rotation records will immediately get 25 spins a week, so we've really got to be confident in something for it to go into

As for when a song has to be dropped because it is burnt with listeners—as opposed to not performing—Jacobs Media's Tom Calderone thinks stations are willing to put up with more burn now. Records may reach that point even faster because of multiformat airplay. "About two years ago, when you'd do callout in this format, you were very sensitive to high burn scores. If the bar was a 20%-25% burn score, you'd probably want to move [the song] on to recurrent. Because the music is so co-opted at this point, the bar has moved to the 30% range. Because of [the sharing] between hot AC, active rock, or top 40, the shelf life for a lot of these records, like Gin Blossoms, is a lot quicker [at modern].'

Any doubts about a record that a PD might have are compounded by the amount of new material waiting for that song's slot. "I think the amount of product in the pipeline is a good thing, Gamble says. "Anything that gives us more choice will ultimately make the radio station better." But Gamble also bemoans the "vin and yang" of labels wanting to get their new releases on the air while their previous projects are still active and developing.

Gillespie says that labels only have a certain amount of time to get a band on a station before another act is competing for an open slot. 'It's almost unavoidable that some songs are not going to get their full due."

It's those developing "baby bands" about which Petersen gets the most flack from record labels, because "they tend to have their adds spread out over several weeks. So if we're early on a record, we start to drop off while [the label] is trying to create some kind of a story and keep some sort of forward momentum going." But "if it's toast," he says, "it's got to be gone no matter how many MTV spins or keychains [the labels] throw your way.

The format has turned into a song-for-song battle, [and] these newer bands and newer songs are going to be put under a lot more scrutiny than they were a year ago or so," says Calderone. "When we were our own private beach front, it was great that we could take chances, and [programmers] wouldn't worry about it too much, because maybe [listeners would] sit through an OK song to get to another great song. That's not the case anymore. They do have other options.

One project that was in sync with modern's pacing was Bush. Calderoné says, "Bush's music was so slow to burn that we were really able to take advantage of the longevity of this record. I think that alternative radio is not getting off singles as quickly as the perception is. When it comes to a record like the Gin Blossoms', which is being shared not two or three weeks later but literally that same day with every other format, you need to be careful how long you play it and then move on at the appropriate time.

Jacor Puts Up Its (Tim) Dukes In San Diego At Modern Rocker 91X

ast week, Jacor made its first move since acquiring the programming rights to modern XETRA-FM (91X) San Diego, naming Tim Dukes, PD of its flagship rocker WEBN Cincinnati, 91X's OM.

Tim Dukes? But isn't WEBN the most musically conservative rock station in America? Isn't putting him in charge of a modern rocker sort of like transferring Dorothy from Kansas to Oz?

Dukes doesn't agree with that assessment of WEBN, "We're the exact opposite," he says. The station has had the opportunity to stretch out musically since acquiring crosstown classic rock WOFX last summer. "The presentation didn't change whatsoever. [Former WEBN PD, now Jacor group PD] Tom Owens already had the radio station in a presentation mode where it was very exciting.'

Tim Dukes Operations Manager XETRA-FM San Diego

'You need to have product managers devoted to one station'

Musically, Dukes says, the tastes of WEBN's 25-34 core recently changed, and the station has already changed with them. "If [that core] had told us to be straight-ahead classic rock and didn't want to hear new music, then that's what we would've done. It wasn't a conscious effort to increase the current/gold ratio as much as we picked our target and decided to superserve it.

As mainstream stations like WEBN evolve, which acts get the axe? "It's more in relation to title than artist," says Dukes. "We stopped playing the ones that our audience didn't want to hear anymore, plain and simple. Too many mainstream AORs hang onto this or that title or band simply because they were forced into a situation where they had to win 25-54, so by golly, we've got to keep Crosby, Stills & Nash on the air." Dukes cites Traffic's "Dear Mr. Fantasy as a classic track the station still plays, which he says is "a great testing record here, but at the same time, we also play 'Sober' by Tool." That, he says, proves that WEBN "really is one if the last true mainstream AORs left out there.

On whether mainstream rock is alive or dead, Dukes says, "from my vantage point in Cincinnati, I ask, 'Did it ever go away?' In other places, perhaps, the mainstream rockers haven't been focused. They've changed direction from classic-based to low-end to modernleaning to whatever else. Those are the only places where it's in trouble.

"You've got a lot of different markets across the country where a lot of people decided to get out of the format, [believing] that there was no future in it. Knee-jerk reactions like that and constant changing of direction and confusing listeners has left mainstream radio stations out in the cold. It's the ones who have remained focased and reinvented themselves without blowing off their audience over the years that have remained strong, like WEBN.

"I think it's impossible to sign on as a mainstream rocker these days and immediately build a loyal following and go from there. First and foremost, you have to have strong morning show, which WEBN has. The other part is 28 years with the same set of call letters and being focused on rock.

Because WEBN has been around so long, and because it's consistently second or third in the market—it was third this fall, slipping 8.2-7.2 12-plus—Dukes says, "I've gotten used to the heritage that presents so many more opportunities for a radio station rather than a station that's just five years into a format or heading into a turnaround. I'm going to miss it."

But Dukes realizes that he's headed to a station with a strong heritage of its own, albeit with increasing competition from such relative newcomers as XHRM (the Flash) and '80s-leaning modern/AC hybrid KFMB-FM (Star 100.7). Fortunately, 91X has been able to fight off the Flash and keep it at bay and still do quite well within its target demos and also with revenue.

XETRA-FM went 3.6-4.4 summer to fall, a jump that Dukes attributes in part to "some things [that] were added to the radio station. over the last few months, including Howard Stern in mornings. [It has] taken off like gang-busters and is still growing with each trend. On the other side of that, 'Loveline' at night is producing some strong 18-34 numbers Seems like a lot of talk for a modern station built on music, doesn't it? Dukes says both Stern and 'Loveline' are "compelling and entertaining [shows] that transcend any sort of musical selection. Both perceptually and ratings-wise, it seems that Howard and 'Loveline' are a fit for the 91X core audience.

AC/DC, "Have A Drink On Me"; Kenny Wayne Shepard, "Deja Voodoo"; Rush, "Fly By Night"; Seven Mary Three, "Water's Edge"; Doors, "Break On Through To The Other Side"; Van Halen, "And The Cradle Will Pack"; Collecties Soul "The World Livers". Rock"; Collective Soul, "The World I Know"; Aerosmith, "Sweet Emotion"; Stone Temple Pilots, "Creep"; Led Zeppelin, "Going To California"; and Spacehog, "In The Meantime."

Here's a sample of 91X from the same time:

Bush, "Comedown"; Self, "Cannon"; Counting Crows, "Einstein On The Beach"; Love & Rockets, "Sweet Lover Hangover"; Pearl Jam, "Leaving Here"; U2, "Pride (In The Name Of Love)"; Folk Implosion, "Natural One"; Smashing Pumpkins, "1979"; Toad The Wet Sprocket, "All I Want"; Alice In Chains, "Heaven Park, "All Vant"; Alice In Chains, "Heaven Park, "In Chains, "Heaven Park, "Heaven P en Beside You"; Tori Amos, "Caught A Lite Sneeze"; and Radiohead, "Creep."

Having spent the last two years in the epicenter of Jacor, Dukes has gotten his feet wet in the brave new world of megapoly. In Cincinnati, the company holds two FMs (WEBN and WOFX) and two AMs (WLW and WCKY)with two more FMs (WKRQ and WWNK) and a TV station (WKRC) on the way as part of the acquisition of Citicasters—and has links to several other stations through sales agreements.

As for the effect of the Telecommunications Act on staff consolidation, Dukes says, "it makes the most sense to set systems up inside your radio station, where there's some synergy between the staffs working together. It's not a matter of 'this is great: We own two radio stations, [and] we only need one receptionist and one PD.' Those were the initial things that popped into people's minds when LMAs came into the picture. I think now that the industry has had time to swallow that and fill things out, [it has] realized that you need to have product managers who are devoted to one station or

SEAN ROSS IS ON A QUEST FOR HIMSELF

Airplay Monitor editor Sean Ross and his hardworking staff have now added editorial to all four Airplay Monitor publications. Since that's kinda time consuming, and they'd all like to go home once in a while, Monitor is looking for "The Next Sean", a New York-based writer/reporter with a knowledge of radio programming, a familiarity with multiple formats, and a genuine love of the business. Ability to copy-edit and proof read would be helpful too. Fax resume + writing samples to:

Records showing an increase in detections over the previous week, regardless of chart movement. A record which has been on either chart for more than 20 weeks will not receive a bullet, even if it registers an increase in detections. Airpower awarded to those records which attain 800 detections (mainstream) or 1000 (modern) for the first time. If two records are tied in number of plays, the record being played on more stations is placed first. Records below the top 20 are removed from the chart after 26 weeks.
