New Faces Claim Monitor Radio Awards: B96's Four Honors Tops

A bevy of new faces graced the podium at last week's Billboard/Airplay Monitor Radio Awards ceremony, held Sept. 19 at the Pointe Hilton at Tapatio Cliffs in Phoenix. Unlike the previous year, when almost half of the victors were repeat winners, only five of this year's 35 Radio Awards made a return trip to the winner's circle.

Even so, some familiar and heritage names were honored in several categories.

The biggest multiple winner was WBBM-FM (B96) Chicago, which took home four major-market rhythmic top 40 nods, for station, PD Todd Cavanah, MD Erik Bradley, promotion/ marketing director Michael Beimholt, and air personalities Eddie and Jobo. The only thing preventing a clean sweep in the newly created rnythmic 40 category was WKTU New York's third straight win for station of the year (it won in the broader top 40

Balancing, Branding Dominate Lively Radio Seminar Panels

by Jeff Silberman with Sean Ross, Marc Schiffman, and Chuck Taylor

Maybe it was the triple-digit weather, but heated conversations on hot-button topics sparked many panels at the Billboard/Airplay Monitor Radio Seminar and Awards, held Sept. 17-19 in Phoenix. Here are some choice hits, verbal and otherwise, from the confab.

Mainstream top 40 programmers offered two solutions to the chief question posed at the "Will Success Spoil Top 40?" panel: balance and branding. Balance, they said, means more than the proper mix of pop and rhythmic hits. "You need a balance of music styles and record types, both reaction records and those that don't initially call-out," noted WHTZ (Z100) New York PD Tom Poleman.

Call-out, and top 40's heavy reliance on it, was a recurring topic at the mainstream session. KRBE Houston PD John Peake warned against worrying too much about burn figures, as improperly asked questions can lead to misleading results. By the session's end, so many panelists had reiterated that research was not meant to be taken literally that British PD Paul Chantler asked why they didn't just dispense with it altogether.

As for branding, Poleman cited it as a major factor in Z100's renaissance. "We always focus on the vibe and what has always been the essence of the station." he said. K11S Los Angeles PD Dan Kieley added, "You learn more about a station from its history than you do from where it's going."

Today's corporate mega-clusters have put many top 40 stations in the position of having to deal with a format rival again. Panelists' advice: Focus on your strengths, and don't overreact. "As [ex-WNCI Columbus, Ohio, PD GM] Dave Robbins once said, 'Do nothing until it no longer works,' "Peake said. As for the greater number of spots that most stations are now dealing with, most panelists said that "10 in a row" and other quantitative positioners were no longer as important as they once were. But consultant Dan Vallie, predicting the return of quantitative music imaging, warned PDs not to abandon the "best/most music" position.

Finally, despite predictions that top 40 is already facing an inevitable down cycle, Poleman told attendees that "I'm not programming Z100 to be an also-ran two years from now because of the cyclical music. I'm programming Z100 to be No. 1, and I'll make whatever adjustments I need to ensure that we get there."

SHOULD THEY BE DANCING?

The lack of viable dance pop—the music once at rhythmic top 40's center—was a key topic at the rhythmic panel. WKSS (Kiss 95.7) Hartford, Conn., PD Jay Beau Jones noted that dance acts lack a strong visual presence and that "our audience has only so much room for nameless dance product when there's an Aaliyah and Brandy out there." KYLD San Francisco PD Michael Martin defended dance product, saying that it usually needs more time to develop before it starts testing well.

The hot topic for the future: Spanish stations' increasing influence on rhythmic's target demo. WPOW (Power 96) Miami PD Kid Curry affirmed programmer/consultant Bill Tanner's contention that once Hispanic females hit 25, they listen more to Spanish radio and lose their interest in rap. That led Power 96 to daypart heavily for the first time in years. But other PDs refuse to counterprogram Hispanic radio. "When I was at [KPWR] Power 106 [Los Angeles], our tests found out that we couldn't compete with KLVE for those women who look into their heritage and nationality," said KKFR Phoenix PD Bruce St. James. "Now, all we [as a format] can do is go after them as P2s and P3s."

FITTING IN

Adult top 40 session panelists brought up that "B" word again—branding—as a key to maintaining the format's success. WQAL (Q104) Cleveland PD Mary Ellen Kachinske combated an aggressive $600,000 media attack from rival WMVX by "just doing what we were cloing well. We didn't react. It was important to give our listeners what they expect from us."

Detailing the impact of consolidation on adult top 40, KHMX (Mix 96.5) Houston PD Lorrin Palagi noted that "product isn't the product for programmers" anymore. "It's important to look outside our little corner and see the big picture. Radio has changed so much in the last five years. It's a whole new world."

RADIO TERRORISM

The "Who Owns What Acts" panel debated the politics of concert presents and related issues. Although the panelists agreed that their listeners don't often know who "owns" the acts, and that the loss of one presents won't irreparably harm a station, "it can have a cumulative effect," KROQ L.A. PD Kevin Weatherly warned. "We want our audience to identify top-of-mind with our [core] artists."

MCA Records senior VP Nancy Levin slam-

MCA Records senior VP Nancy Levin slammed groups that flex chainwide clout. Citing a market in which one station first broke Semisonic and three Jacor stations also played it, she claimed Jacor threatened to drop MCA product on all its stations if it didn't receive the presents, as well as in-studio appearances, etc. "We clon't negotiate with terrorists," she declared.

DIALING FOR DOLLARS

Panelists and audience members at the "Dialing For Dollars" panel covered a variety of strategies to increase radio's share of the label dollars. Elektra's Greg Thompson noted that, as a promotion person, "print is not our choice," saying it comes from "extortion labels pay [retail] for placement in the market. Radio needs to go to retailers, not labels."

needs to go to retailers, not labels."

BANG II Records' Ilene Burns urged programmers to "talk to Kmart and Wal-Mart" directly. K1IS Los Angeles marketing director Von Freeman, as moderator, said he would do that, offering Jacor's aforementioned group muscle to promise labels the same efficiency offered by a print ad that lists multiple titles. Paul Drew, a longtime proponent of above-board pay-for-play, suggested that radio's new megagroups own their own record labels, as they did in the '50s and '60s.

THE HITS JUST KEPT ON COMIN'

Other highlights of the Billboard/Airplay Monitor Radio Seminar and Awards, which attracted approximately 850 attendees and 1.000 to its Saturday-night awards dinner:

• DreamWorks SKG co-founder Jeffrey Katzenberg and DreamWorks Records co-leader Mo Ostin showed clips of their animated holiday epic "The Prince Of Egypt" and outlined the all-star artist participation in the film's three soundtracks. They also screened a clip of Mariah Carey and Whitney Houston in the studio, recording the project's lead single.

• Featured speaker Allen Kovac of Left Bank Organization bemoaned the corporate label pressure to cut marketing, which stunts artist product growth. His answer is to build an audience for acts on his Beyond label through outside marketing before taking them to radio.

• Acts on Sept. 18's artist panel described their experiences with radio as positive overall, despite what some saw as an arrogance on the part of some PDs. Mark McGrath of the Atlantic act Sugar Ray remained sanguine, telling attendees that he was still the "stupid puppy... who says, 'Fuck me for all I'm worth.'"

• The panel saluting legendary top 40 KZZP Phoenix, moderated by station alumnus and WPXY Rochester, N.Y., PD Clarke Ingram, quickly turned into a roast of then PD-turned-consultant Guy Zapoleon. In one of the panel's rare serious moments, Zapoleon saluted late GM Mickey Franko for dropping an entire stopset to protect the station's product, something that probably wouldn't happen today.

The best parting shot of the Billboard/Airplay Monitor Radio Seminar was delivered by KKFR (Power 92) Phoenix PD Bruce "Blonde Ambition" St. James, who wondered aloud, "Who owns us?" On Sept. 18, after several days of denials, KKFR and N/T sister KFYI-AM were sold to Chancellor for $90 million.

Speaking of "who owns us," The M Street Journal reports that the FCC is soliciting public comment on Chancellor's purchase of six Cleveland stations, including adult top 40 WQAL, AC WDOK, and top 40 WZJM (Jammin' 92).

CHART WATCH: In its seventh week at No. 1 on the mainstream top 40 chart, Aerosmith's "I Don't Want To Miss A Thing" (Columbia) is tied with Chumbawamba's "Tubthumping" (Republic/Universal) as the third-longest-running No. 1 on that chart this year. At 11 weeks, Natalie Imbruglia's "Torn" (RCA) is the longest-running No. 1 title on the mainstream chart, followed by Celine Dion's "My Heart Will Go On" (550 Music), with 10 weeks.

If Aaliyah's "Are You That Somebody?" (Blackground/Atlantic) stays atop the rhythmic top 40 chart for one more week, it will become the second-longest-running No. 1 on that chart this year, behind Brandy & Monica's "The Boy Is Mine" (Atlantic), which spent nine weeks at No. 1. This issue, "Are You That Somebody?" is tied with K-Ci & JoJo's "All My Life" (MCA) and Next's "Too Close" (Arista) for the song with the second-most weeks at No. 1 on the rhythmic top 40 chart. Incidentally, this issue Arista and Atlantic are tied with 16 weeks each at No. 1 on that chart this year.

Have you noticed that more than a third of the songs on the rhythmic top 40 chart are collaborative efforts between artists? Does anyone else think this might be slightly confusing to consumers?

BRIGHT STARS

Long hailed as a leader in the burgeoning modern adult field, KFMB-FM (Star 100.7) San Diego earned three adult top 40 trophies, for major-market station, PD Tracy Johnson, and air personalities Jeff and Jer. The only multiple secondary-market adult top 40 winner was KMXB (Mix 94.1) Las Vegas, where MD Kozman and air personalities Mark and Mercedes were honored. Dusty Hayes, PD of adult modern sister KAMX (Mix 94.7) Austin, Texas, won for PD of the year, while WKTI Milwaukee was named secondary-market adult top 40

AC powerhouse WLTW (Lite FM) New York dominated its category, winning major-market awards for station, PD Jim Ryan, and air personality Valerie Smaldone. The MD honoree was Donna Rowland from WBEB (B101.1) Philadelphia.

Elsewhere, the secondary-market rhythmic top 40 category was split between KLUC Las Vegas (station, PD Cat Thomas) and KQKS (KS107.5) Denver (MD Jenunder longtime host Casey Kasem. The syndicated personality of the year was once again Howard Stern.

In the new record-label promotion team awards, Arista Records, under senior VP of promotion Richard Palmese, won the top 40, AC/adult top 40, R&B, and country categories, the latter for its Arista/Nashville operation. Capitol Records garnered awards for mainstream rock and modern rock.

GROUP ANALYSIS

When aligning the winners to their corporate parent, it seems that certain groups did extremely well in specific markets.

In Chicago, CBS won seven times thanks to B96's four and WXRT's trio of triple-A awards. Chancellor also fared well, with four honors going to rock WRCX (three) and R&B WGCI-FM.

Why Hootie Was Country's First Crossover

Four years ago, researcher John Parikhal told attendees at the Country Radio Seminar that they could expect to see a country oldies format start nipping at their 35-plus numbers. Country PDs, who up until that time had be-lieved their upper demos were happy with the "hot country" programming of the early '90s, spent the next year filtering more oldies into their programming, oldies that were unfamiliar to anybody who had come aboard in the early '90s. Over the next four years, country's younger listeners wandered off, although many country PDs would contend that they had done so solely of their own volition.

In late '94/early '95, when those listeners were looking for a new home, there were no country crossovers being played at top 40 radio. In fact, aside from a brief surge of activity between "Achy Breaky Heart" and "When She Cries" in 1992-93, there hadn't been much country-to-top 40 crossover since late 1983. Artists like Tim McGraw and John Michael Montgomery could sell enough singles to have an impact on Billboard's Hot 100, but Montgomery's songs only got played at top 40 if they were being performed by All-4-One.

There wasn't country per se on top 40 in 1994-95, but there was Hootie & the Blowfish, and by echoing the Southern rock and singer/ songwriter pop of the '70s (not unlike Brooks, BlackHawk, or Travis Tritt), that band was offering listeners a lot of the same things that had once attracted them to country. So, subsequently, would Sister Hazel, Edwin McCain, and the Wallflowers, all at a time when country was starting to look askance at rock-influenced music (although that sound never disappeared from country entirely).

The irony is that when adult top 40/hot AC began to embrace Hootie, the Wallflowers, Sister Hazel, et al., they did so by turning their backs on many of the ballad artists who had been the format's mainstays. Top 40 used to depend on hot AC to help break a certain amount of that music. Instead, the two formats turned to country, which, having softened considerably over the past several years, was now able to offer them "How Do I Live" and "You're Still The One." In other words, the country-tinged music broke through hot AC; the soft pop ballads came from country radio. Got that

In any event, it's not surprising that country artists are again a significant part of top 40 for the first time in years. That LeAnn Rimes, Shania Twain, and Faith Hill have crossed pop-That Alan Jackson, whose 1994 signature hit chided pop artists and songwriters who had "Gone Country," has tried. That Garth Brooks, having almost done it before with a Kiss remake, tried this time with a Bob Dylan tune. Members of top 40's 18-34 audience don't mind country. Many of them listened to it heavily for three to five years and might not have left if they weren't pushed. And even after several years of decline, country still claims more listening nationwide than top 40. There's no reason top 40 shouldn't cherry-pick country's hits.

Some PDs wonder how many country crossovers they can have on their stations at once. While I have an ongoing concern about top 40 loading up on research-driven ballads, the format is certainly capable of doing that with or without country crossovers. Otherwise, it might be best to look at country crossovers as pop records that just happen to be by country artists. Seen that way, "From This Moment On" and "This Kiss" don't resemble each other any more than, say, "Iris" and "Intergalactic," even though both of those records are by modern rock artists. And they don't serve the same need for listeners.

Not only should PDs not set a quota for country or any other genre—besides determining not to let the balance tip too far in any direction—they shouldn't restrict themselves to the country records that are worked to them. I'm still waiting for a top 40 PD to discover Dixie Chicks, a trio often referred to (not entirely inaccurately) as the "country Spice Girls." Having gone platinum with a debut album, something that has again become unusual in country, the Chicks won't be worked pop-unlike other artists who now realize they can't reach their previous sales levels without top 40. That doesn't mean top 40 PDs should ignore any sales story that might exist in their own market.

And with so many top 40 listeners having tried country, it might be interesting for some PDs in heartland markets to test a few of the uptempo anthems from country's boom years. Some suggestions: Twain's "Any Man Of Mine" and "(If You're Not In It For Love) I'm Outta Here!"; Jackson's "Chattahoochee"; Brooks' "Friends In Low Places"; David Lee Murphy's "Dust On The Bottle"; Lonestar's "No News"; Brooks & Dunn's "Boot Scootin' Boogie," "Rock My World (Little Country Girl)," and 'My Maria"; Mindy McCready's "Guys Do It All The Time"; Mary Chapin Carpenter's "Down At The Twist And Shout"; and McGraw's "I Like It, I Love It." There are probably ballads that would also test with pop audiences, but the uptempo stuff-if any of it proved usable—would fill more of a need.

In the early '90s, as top 40 scrambled, its PDs were afraid to touch country crossovers, for fear of publicizing a competitor that listeners seemed perfectly capable of finding anyway. Now, with country at a momentary lull, its PDs are afraid of top 40 stealing their artists. In truth, country radio has done well with and without pop crossover airplay. Its success hangs on more complicated issues, as does that of top 40. What country crossovers, used intelligently, offer top 40 is one more place to look for music, something that's never unneeded.

Records showing an increase in detections over the previous week, regardless of chart movement. A record that has been on the chart for more than 20 weeks will not receive a bullet, even if it registers an increase in detections. Airpower awarded to those records that attain 900 detections for the first time. If two records are tied in number of plays, the record being played on more stations is placed first. Records below the top 20 are removed from the chart after 26 weeks. © 1998, Billboard/BPI Communications.

Records showing an increase in detections over the previous week, regardless of chart movement. A record that has been on the chart for more than 20 weeks will not receive a bullet, even if it registers an increase in detections. Airpower awarded to those records that attain 900 detections for the first time. If two records are tied in number of plays, the record being played on more stations is placed first. Records below the top 20 are removed from the chart after 26 weeks. © 1998, Billboard/BPI Communications.

Records showing an increase in detections over the previous week, regardless of chart movement. A record that has been on the chart for more than 20 weeks will not receive a bullet, even if it registers an increase in detections. Airpower awarded to those records that attain 400 detections for the first time. If two records are tied in number of plays, the record being played on more stations is placed first. Records below the top 20 are removed from the chart after 26 weeks. # 1998, Billboard/BPI Communications.

Records snowing an increase in detections over the previous week, regardless of chart movement. A record that has been on either chart for more than 20 weeks will not receive a bullet, even if it registers an increase in detections. Airpower awarded to those records that attain 2,000 detections (mainstream) or 600 detections (rhythm) for the first time. If two records are tied in number of plays, the record being played on more stations is placed first. Records below the top 20 are removed from the chart after 26 weeks.
