Artist of the Year

Each year the editors of Billboard honor an artist who in their opinion has made the most significant contribution to popular music during the year. The decision is not based solely on chart performances or record sales. It also takes into account much more lasting values.

1968 was the year of the underground, the year of progressive rock, the year of blues rock, the year of Jimi Hendrix and the Jimi Hendrix Experience. While Hendrix's group first hit the U. S. in late 1967, it was 1968 before they became one of the most sought after acts in the business.

Hendrix, 23, is a dynamic stage personality, and an exceptional blues singer and guitarist. Backed by two fine English musicians, 23-year-old Noel Redding, guitarist and bass, and 22-year-old drummer Mitch Mitchell, Hendrix, in the Experience's second U. S. tour, showed he was second to none in appeal and excitement.

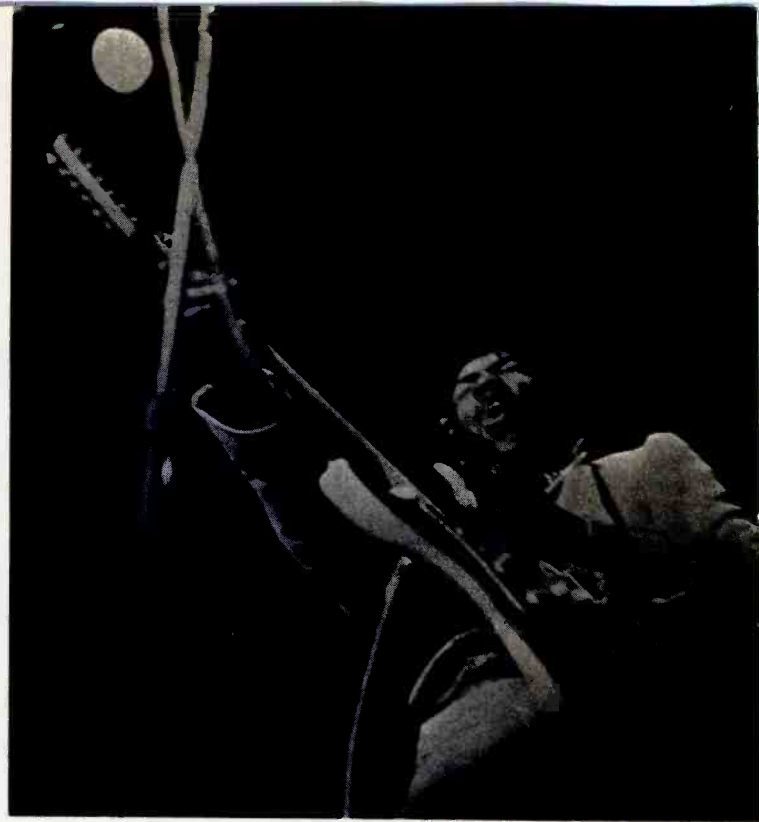

Yet, indicative of underground acts, this was accomplished before the act's first hit single, "All Along the Watchtower," which hit Top 20 late in October. But, all three Reprise albums have been big winners. The first album, "Are You Experienced?" which was released in September, 1967, remained high on the Top LP's Chart for all of 1968. "Axis: Bold as Love," whose release was timed for the second tour, also hit fast. Both gained Gold Records for sales topping $1 million and both are still selling.

The third album, issued in October, had Hendrix as producer as well as performer and the two-LP "Electric Ladyland" shot up the charts to become the Experience's first No. 1 album, taking only five weeks to hit the top. Hendrix's considerable talents as a songwriter also have contributed to his huge success. Of the 40 selections on the trio's three albums, 35 were penned by this exceptional artist, including "Purple Haze" and "Foxy Lady," which have been adopted by many performing groups.

But his impact extends far beyond his songwriting. His fusing of the highly-amplified music of today with the purer sound of the blues place him at the forefront of today's major pop music trend. A clearcut example was a jammed Singer Bowl, New York, concert on Aug. 23, when Hendrix was the closing act for 18,000 fans, who earlier heard such top blues-oriented artists as the Chambers Brothers, and Big Brother and the Holding Company featuring Janis Joplin. Billboard's description of Hendrix's performance was: "His bluesy singing was first rate; his guitar playing, superb, and his stage presence, electric."

A New York Times article on Feb. 23 speculated on whether Hendrix was "the Black Elvis." The article, out of San Francisco, was based on the Experience's record-breaking Fillmore West stand, which opened the second tour. Time Magazine, referring to the trio's tour appearance at Cleveland's Music Hall, said in its April 5 issue: "Their music . . . is a whirlpool where currents of Negro blues and psychedelic rock meet, and it churns with all but overwhelming power from their nine amplifiers and 18 speakers."

Hendrix, a native of Seattle, previously toured the U. S. as lead guitarist backing rock acts. He played six months in New York with the Blue Flames using the pseudonym of Jimmy James. Next came a stint at New York's Cafe Wha? before going to England two years ago, where he teamed with Redding and Mitchell in September, 1966.

The trio's overnight success at Paris' Olympia was the first of a series of smash engagements, which also included Stockholm's Tivoli, Copenhagen's Sports Arena, and London's Saville, where they were the first act ever to sell out both shows. The first U. S. tour in 1967 included a notable appearance at the Monterey Pop Festival. But, it also included a tour with the Monkees, whose young audiences were not yet ready for the Experience, which clearly was ahead of its time.

The 1968 tour, however, was a complete success with more than 50 per cent of their concerts sold out two weeks before their appearance. Hendrix and the Experience also have been featured on countless psychedelic posters and their pictures turn up in light shows on programs where they're even slated to appear, a tribute to their widespread popularity with the hip set.

Also, in this day, when pop artists have to prove their musicianship, Hendrix has been at the forefront in jam session participation. He's a central figure of the frequent jam sessions at Steve Paul's Scene in New York. "He loves to play," Paul explains of Hendrix. Among the many artists Hendrix has jammed with at the Scene are Jim Morrison, Eric Clapton, B. B. King, Howlin' Wolf, the Grateful Dead, Jefferson Airplane, Larry Coryell, James Cotton, John Hammond, the Who, Ten Years After, Jeff Beck, Jeremy Steig, and Buddy Miles. Two jams with Curtis Knight have been released on Capitol.

Hendrix explained the Experience's outlook in the New York Times on Feb. 25: "We'll keep moving. It gets tiring doing the same thing, coming out and saying, 'Now we'll play that one.' People take us strange ways, but I don't care how they take us. Man, we'll be moving. 'Cause man, in this life you gotta do what you want, you gotta let your mind and fancy flow, flow, flow free."

The year 1968 was the year of the underground, the year of progressive rock, the year of blues rock, the year of Jimi Hendrix and the Jimi Hendrix Experience, a key to the trend, a trend that shows every evidence of growing.

Top Artists- 1968

The following charts are based on Billboard's weekly charts in the various categories of recorded music from January 6, 1968, to October 26, 1968. The two most important factors in determining the charts in this issue are the positions the records attained on the weekly charts published in Billboard and the number of weeks these records remained on the charts. Records were given more points for number one position than for number two, etc., and records on the charts for 10 weeks were given more points than records on the chart for 9 weeks, etc. In this way all the records of a particular artist, publisher and producer were compiled, combined and placed in total point strength order. Where a record was shared among more than one artist (known to record independently) the points were divided equally. This also holds true for publishers and producers who shared in a recording. All charts were prepared by Billboard's Music Popularity Chart Research Dept.

You've heard all the talk about Country-Rock - this is the group that it's about.

Pogo

Pogo scored with renditions of hard rock interwoven with a new-sounding country electrification. The marriage of both is right on the mark with an interesting blend of short, twangy, pleasing numbers.

Daily Variety, November 21, 1968

Pogo is one of the tightest groups I have seen, a coordination which obviously stems from endless practice and good feelings within the combo. The band seems to be the natural heir to the originality, diversity and togetherness which marked the beginnings of the Byrds and the Buffalo Springfield, Southern California's two best folk-rooted rock groups so far.

Pete Johnson, Los Angeles Times, November 21, 1968

ON TOP SINCE 1894 IN CIRCULATION IN REPUTATION IN PENETRATION

No other music-trade publication gives its advertisers the global exposure, strength of editorial backing and proof of circulation claims that Billboard offers.

The nearly 70 years of international respect for Billboard's quality of journalism, scientific methods of research and high standards of business practice provide advertisers with an unmatched setting of prestige for their message.

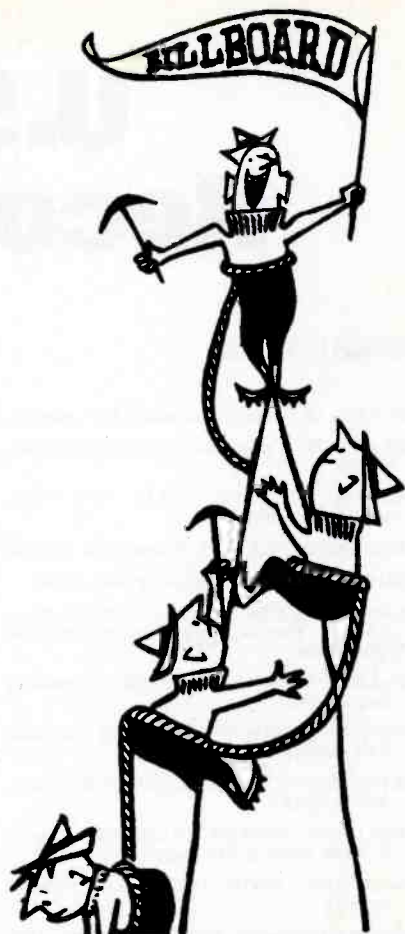

With a world-wide circulation twice that of any other music-trade publication, only Billboard offers advertisers incontrovertible proof of circulation figures by opening its files twice every year for audit by the rigid and exacting Audit Bureau of Circulations (ABC).

Their reports detail for every Billboard advertiser just where his message goes throughout the world . . . who receives it . . . and how many receive it.

Basic Information That Every Advertiser Should Not Only Expect—But Demand!

December 1, 1968

Dear Mother and Dad,

I know you're always saying that I never write unless I need money, and this time will probably be no exception.

I have been here in the big city three months now, and I have been so busy trying to get it together (that's one of those jazz expressions) that I haven't had time to write until now.

Against the better advice of practically everyone, I have made the decision to go into business for myself as a booking agent. I am going to call my firm Music And Drama associates, as you can see from the fancy printing at the left. It is not just by coincidence that the initials spell MAD, because that is what you have to be to get into this business.

I have been calling on many of the musicians I've had an opportunity to meet over the years, and a surprising number of them are going to let me represent them: DAVE BRUBECK in performances of his oratorio, "The Light in the Wilderness;" EARL HINES, YUSEF LATEEF, OLIVER NELSON, RUFUS HARLEY (the first and only jazz bagpiper), DONALD BYRD, REDD FOXX (who I think is the funniest man there is--did you see him on the "Soul" TV special?), JOE VENUTI, MITCHELL-RUFF DUO, MAX ROACH (with ABBEY LINCOLN--you know, "For Love of Ivy"--in performances of his "Freedom Now" Suite); the SYMPHONY JAZZ QUINTET, a somewhat unusual combo of five bona-fide longhair musicians, including a chick trumpet player who can cut almost anyone on that axe; and GEORGE GOODMAN, a booming bass-baritone who I predict will set the supper-club set on its vibrating ear one of these days. I also will be active in the classical field, with a number of famous jazz musicians --such as the MODERN JAZZ QUARTET --represented for performances with symphony orchestras. Frankly, I don't know why we have to bother with labels like "jazz" and "classical." It's all just music.

Well, I must close now; the phone is ringing. And, you know, if you can spare a little something . . .

Sincerely, Your Son The Agent

sif story

- 1-1-1968 We were born. We start representing the RIVIERA label.
- 1-2-1968 We are present in the SAN REMO FESTIVAL with NINO FERRER.
- 1-3-1968 We become the Italian licensees of the French label FLECHE
- 1-4-1968 We establish our Publishing Firm: S.I.F. Edizioni Musicali. We start sub-publishing the RIDEAU ROUGE catalog (Gilbert Becaud) in Italy.
- 1-5-1968 We produce some of the BARCLAY's artists such as CHARLES AZNAVOUR, EDDIE MITCHELL, MONTY, whose records are distributed by R.C.A. Italiana
- 15-5-1968 We obtain the sub-publishing rights for Italy of CHARLES AZNAVOUR's song "Le Cabotin" and start a co-operation with this artist.
- 20-6-1968 We are present in the "CANTAGIRO" (Singing Tour Of Italy) with our first Italian artist KIM ARENA, whose records we release under the Italian label RARE.
- 1-7-1968 MOSTRA INTERNAZIONALE DI VENEZIA (Venice's International Pop Music Festival). We are present with our artists CHRISTOPHE, CLAUDE FRANCOIS (first TV appearance in Italy) and GILBERT BECAUD, whose participation is due to publishing promotional purposes.
- 15-7-1968 "SE TORNI TU," by CLAUDE FRANCOIS, the first FLECHE record released in Italy, is No 5 in the Italian charts.
- 1-8-1968 We sign an agreement with Johnny Stark to release MIREILLE MATHIEU's records in Italy.
- 15-9-1968 Three of the most important Italian disc-jockeys, Arbore, Mazzoletti, Nissim, call our Firm the "Revelation Company." Our records are among the most broadcast in their radio-programs.
- 1-10-1968 The Italian Television Company releases two important programs and the corresponding opening themes are two of our copyrights—which we have world wide control of: "La Sigaretta"—performed by our singer OMBRETTA COLLI—for the program "Giochiamo Agli Anni 30," and "Donna Rosa" by our NINO FERRER—for "Settevoci," a very important program devoted to young people. Of course, we do also release the corresponding records.
- 1-11-1968 Four of our records enter the charts: "Monya" by PETER HOLM, "Donna Rosa" by NINO FERRER, "Prendi, Prendi" by CLAUDE FRANCOIS, "La Sigaretta" by OMBRETTA COLLI.
- 15-11-1968 Our firm is on the front line facing the syndical agitations of the Italian artists in respect of the foreign ones and the results are so satisfactory that NINO FERRER, CLAUDE FRANCOIS and PETER HOLM are present in the most important current TV programs.
- 1-12-1968 We are going to organize the most efficient and numerous promotional and production office. We consider our firm the most dynamic and young Company in Italy.
- 1-1-1969 And now we are making plans for the next San Remo Festival.

Are you interested in collaborating with us ?

Some children find happiness easily. Others need the help and guidance only a trained person can provide, medical attention they cannot afford, love they have been denied. When you decide to give to your United Fund or Community Chest, you may change a life.

Your company gift, plus a payroll plan, works many wonders

27.5 million families benefit from child care, family service, youth guidance, health programs, disaster relief and services for the Armed Forces through 31,300 United Way agencies.
