HAPPY MONDAYS Pills 'N' Thrills And Bellyaches (Elektra, 75 Rockefeller Plaza, New York, NY 10019)

The most significant quality of a band that's trying to establish itself is the ability to progress from album to album, building on its original themes and musical ideas. Well, the pill-poppin' papas of the overexposed, overabused Manchester scene, the Happy Mondays, have shown themselves here, on their third LP foray, to be more forwardthinking, diverse and downright interesting than most would have imagined from previous dour efforts. With the producing, arranging and mixing help of super Brit DJ Paul Oakenfold and Steve Osbourne, the Mondays have pushed their musical base from simple looping rhythms 'n guitar to include hip-hop, clip-clop beats and more melodic, catchy riffs from guitarist Mark Day. A strike many had against the ensemble was a lack of focus in songwriting, but on Pills, lead warbler/writer Shaun Ryder brings a host of disparate and enticing images to play—"Someone somewhere swam between your knees" comes from his trumped-up persona of "God's Cop"; "I had to crucify some brother today" from the enigmatic, hooky "Kinky Afro"; and the "I smell dope/I smell dope/I smell dope' chant weaves through the "Holiday" bust. Perhaps the most ironic part of the LP is the similar playfulness of both "Grandbag's Funeral" and "Holiday"—a band that can connect the morbid with the cheerful with such ease deserves either drug rehab or hearty kudos (or both).

RUN-D.M.C. Back From Hell (Profile, 740 Broadway, New York, NY 10003/212-529-2600)

Few fields of entertainment (except maybe prizefighting) rival the lot of the rapper in terms of sheer career brevity—a year or two in the lights, a few hits, money, fame, fortune, notoriety, and then suddenly, you're over and out, thrown out like an empty bottle of Brass Monkey or last year's pair of Filas. Still, the fact that these guys hung out way back with Mike Tyson during his seemingly unstoppable heyday, and contributed to the soundtrack of-eeeeuw-the last Ghostbusters epic shouldn't necessarily damn these guys to hasbeen status or, at the worst, utter irrelevance. Just one quick listen through side one of Back From Hell ("The Ave.," "What's It All About" "Faces" stand out) shows that the Kings Of Rock may be older and wiser, but that older and wiser don't necessarily mean slower, less relevant or hard-hitting. Two years is (ahem) a hell of a long time to go in rap without releasing a record, but if anybody could pull off the near-impossible, it would be ol' Run, D.M.C. and Jam Master Jay. Comeback? It's like they've never even been away—face it, these guys were making records when most of today's rappers were still in diapers.

SURGERY Nationwide (Amphetamine Reptile, 2541 Nicollet Ave. S., Minneapolis, MN 55404/919-932-5256)

NY fave Surgery has improved their ways and their means most considerably since their 7" debut a year ago, and since the 12" they've brought forth as well. Originally the four had little patience for anything but ultra-loud, ultra-distorted hate vibrations—hearty, but not drastically different from what slews of guitar-toting New Yorkers had in mind. They haven't entirely ditched basic scowling, mid-tempo, two-minute guitargrime, but it's the deviations thereof that make Surgery noticeable from their pals. To be more specific, when they slow down and drone out ("Drive-In Fever"), or trot out the slide guitar, the surliness and malingering tendencies of the band turn more genuine, Sean McDonnell's Novacaine growl the very depiction of sullen, Scott Kleber's guitar spittin' the blues whenever it's allowed room. When Surgery lets itself ramble on for a bit, it does more to ratify a Blue-ish constitution for urban pseudo-intellectual trash than would a more conventional combo-Nationwide's just as full of ferocious fed-upedness as has been espoused before, but with its own dialect. King crawlers: "Breeding," "Drive In Fever," "Bronto" and "Caveman."

EITHER/ORCHESTRA The Half Life Of Desire (Accurate, P.O. Box 390115, Cambridge, MA, 02139/617-354-4309)

Take the brainy, bright, Knitting Factory-esque jazz of this large Bostonian ensemble, a few astute original tunes, a hybrid arrangement of two nearstandards, a left-field art-rock cover tune, and the odd pioneering fusionary chart, and imbue all the above with the undeniably magic resonances of the confines of Rudy Van Gelder's studio, and the results are bound to be intriguing. Pardon our divergent metaphors, but it's truly difficult to describe such varied and undeniable music without pointing out how effortlessly the twain of their influences and sounds meet up: From the word go, the Either/Orchestra can be slinking Mancini-esque through slow, seductive passages full of intrigue and Ellingtonian poise, and then next they're blowing full tilt like they're trying to get the roof of the bandstand to collapse on their very heads. Sometimes it's almost as if, musically speaking, two roads diverged in the woods and half the band took the path straight ahead, while the other players forked to the far left, and their music is somewhere further down where the two trails suddenly cross again—better, richer, both reverential and delightfully unpredictable all at the same time. Either try ''Strange Meridian,'' ''He Who Hesitates'' or ''Circle In The Round/I Got It Bad,'' or their innovative arrangement of Robert Fripp's 'Red.'

DUSTDEVILS Struggling, Electric + Chemical (Teenbeat, clo Matador, 611 Broadway, Suite 712, New York, NY 10012/212-995-5882)—

At a time when a lot of NY rock-types are busy making music that's idiosyncratic or confrontational or completely personal or experimental, none of it's really new. Since we don't remember the Dustdevils them-selves claiming use of unprecendented methods, we'll start off by saying that they get further at bringing pure poetics out of intense noise than anyone else whose will-to-power stems from outer tunings and excess amping. After seven years moaning and blaring both in England and NYC, the Dustdevils plumb masterful extremes, from heart-catching little details to mountainous ranges of acrobatic pickings and pedal-pushing, guitars and vocals colliding like meteorites all over the record. With the Dustdevils, timing is everything, as the band breaks into isolated rhythms of torment, then comes together in a unified rage, each instrument clearly audible in its atonal and alienated fury. Struggling perfectly simulates that feeling of one's brain cells fizzing like Pop Rocks, and then your minds split open to: "Hip Priest," "Love You Like A Rock" and "Slope."

BEDLAM ROVERS Frothing Queen (Heyday, P.O. Box 411332, San Francisco, CA 94141-1332/415-864-8768)—What's the use of stringing together adjectives when music this simple and unadorned is there for the taking? Cast in roughly the same mold as the timeless, Gaelic-influenced strains of Fairport Convention in their classic prime, there's a homegrown sincerity and sleeves-rolled-up honesty about these acoustic, fiddle-bred sounds that greet the ear with openness and an unassumingly musical quality. Seldom have we heard such a sincere and well-heeled fiddle-fest pulled off with such effortless ease without seeming stilted and premeditated, but the grace and poise of the Rovers fits like a well-worn pair of dungarees—especially vocalist Caroleen Beatty, who evokes the ruffian quality of Sandy Denny perfectly. The strains of lux-uriantly sorrowful gypsy-fiddle lines and simple, lamp-lit lyrics lament the passing of time and reflect upon life without ever fall-ing for pitfalls of the '90s—no corny toothless Pogues-isms or pointless, quirky Camper Van Eclecticisms hiding in hereiust a cellarfull of celebratory rogue melodies. Songs like "No One's Illegal,"

"Angel From Montgomery," or "Laughin Babies" are as sweet as butter from a churn, and swing as low as anything Shane and his men ever brewed.

DANIELLE DAX Blast The Human Flower (Sire, c/o Warner Bros. 3300 Warner Blvd., Burbank, CA 91505)—Brit denizen Danielle Dax is a lot more than she seems on the surface. Dance music is her style, but her background as a performance artist helps to add a more dramatic and provocative touch to these beat-heavy songs—her second domestic collection utilizes real guitars and strings for a sound that's purer than most artists in this genre. Produced by Stephen Street (Smiths), Dax defies expectations, her trippy cover of the Beatles' "Tomorrow Never Knows," of the Beatles' "Tomorrow Never Knows," complete with Talking Heads samples, setting the quick pace and edgy mood early. That she is able to deliver ceaselessly catchy melodies with a hypnotic, almost celestial voice (check out the Kate Bush-like 'Daisy''), while adding many electronic bites and quirks, keeps things interesting throughout the album. As a whole, the sound is smooth, flowing along effortlessly while not being afraid to make stops into a dark and sometimes disturbing subject matter. Dax's music is techno-pop that can please even the most finicky listeners. Other choice cuts: "Big Blue '82," "The Id Parade," "Bayou," "The Living And Their Stillborn" and "16 Candles."

(PopLlama, P.O. Box 95364, Seattle, WA 98145-2364/206-$27-8816)—The shakin'-est in Tacoma sound, Girl Trouble breaks a couple-year silence with two hipswing-satiating LPs (the other one was reviewed two issues ago) It's all three chords, blown amps and werewolf-on-the-make vocals, which are, not coincidentally, features of Girl Trouble's favorite phonograph records. They haven't evolutionized a day past the neolithic stompings of their Sub Pop debut, but they've tightened and excitened their songwriting, and if Russ Meyer ever makes another movie with Tura Satana, these guys are obvious choices for the soundtrack There are only two covers on the whole record, though it seems like more, as the band woofs out enough originals that stay band woots out enough originals that stay true to the classics, by dint of writing songs that the Sonics or whoever could've written if only they'd thought of it. Girl Trouble and, two shores to the right, Wild Billy Childish are the closest to vintage Garage Punk Unknowns one's bound to get, both in sub-stereophonic sound and in the

RENEGADE SOUNDWAVE In Dub (Mute, c/o Elektra, 75 Rockefeller Plaza, New York, NY 10019)— Techno-dance music has always been Techno-dance music has always been known for borrowing from other genres and stretching the reaches of these artforms into some kind of dance mutation—the American music of the '50s and '60s, especially Motown, is alluded to now and again. Renegade Soundwave is proving to be at the head of the class when it comes to new ideas, as In Dub is testimonial to. This London outfit first made waves with their cult hit "Biting My Nails," which was finally released domestically on Sound-clash in January of this year. Taking a cue from 808 State's instrumentals, this follow-up finds the outfit performing a collection of songs based on the dub reggae sound—repetitive dance grooves with a few vocal bites dropped in every now and then. Like a soundtrack to some space-age sci-fi flick, In Dub provides an instrumental bed laced with images—like the Spanish flavor of "Bacteria"—that, with the imagination of each individual listener, can conjure up either your greatest fantasy with Mr. Rourke or your scariest nightmare as in 1984's Room 101. Either way, In Dub, is intriguing in its own right, and is a great step away from so much of the stale dance music put out these days. Check out: "Pocket Porn Dub," "Thunder," "Women Respond To Bass," "Deadly" and "Recognise And Respond."

DRUMMING ON GLASS Asparagus
Tea (Aurora, P.O. Box 2596, Jamaica Plain, MA 02130/617783-2439)—Drumming On Glass is spankin' new from Boston, and already heads and tails above other distortionworshipping Bostonians even though they're of mere debut status. The DOG three are big on grand, sweeping, musical gesture in the form of snowballing guitar volubility (the lavish amount of fuzziness on the record is of Amherstian proportion) and in reedy vocals that trail off into long-unfolding instrumental passages. Combined with the aforementioned Dino-derived guitar contortions, Drumming On Glass also hops on a magical mystical carpet ride (which can't really be helped when you have pesky sitars popping up in the mix), the vocals and airy drift of most songs similar to the lofty vantage point of the Screaming Trees. Though Drumming On Glass occasionally seems to gaze into the mist a bit too intently when they should be concentrating on firm song structures, most songs do sprout wings strong enough to hurdle such lapses, the band managing an approach separate from the indie cesspool while not straying too far out on a limb. Top Cuts: "All The Colors," "Jagged," "In The Factory" and "Legal Obsession."

HERBIE HANCOCK/FODAY MUSA SUSO Jozz Africa (Verve, clo PolyGram, 825 Eighth Ave. New York, NY 10019)—As part of the Jazzvisions series—a two-week series of live recorded performances by jazz and pop musicians at the Wiltern Theater in Los Angeles—Jazz Africa brings us two consumate musicians, Herbie Hancock and African kora player Foday Musa Suso, along with Santana percussionist Armando Peraza and Senegalese percussionist Aiyb Dieng, who adorn the night with their saucy and inimitable percussive touch. While terms like fusion and world music would be the first that come to mind when describing the music in this recording, these are trite and narrow descriptions of such rich and powerful music as this. Yes, this is a fusion of African, jazz and latin rhythms and yes, these are players that come from different corners of the world, but this music's powerful tonalities and rhythms transcends borders, nationalities and categorization. All compositions are by Foday Musa Suso and though their average duration is between seven and 12 minutes, they are well focused and well balanced. True enough, our world is fast becoming more and more intricately connected and it is with the help of events such as this one that terms such as global village will make sense to all of Vinayakram on ghatam, vocalist Ganam Rao, V. Lakshminarayana (Shankar's father) on violin and double-violin, and guest keyboardist Peter Gabriel. This is not a pop-meets-jazz-meets-Indian-music record—it is a traditional recording of some traditionally structured pieces that Shankar composed for this project. In the last couple of years, Shankar has made much use of his personally designed double-violin in contexts far from his Indian roots. Not here. He wishing the project of the pr here. His violin use is strictly in Indian intonations, leaving no room for synth-derived embellishments. For those of you that have followed the path of these won-derful musicians, you should notice the fact that both Zakir Hussain and Vikku Vinay-yakram are present on this record. The music these two are able to generate can be overwhelmingly stirring, even other-worldly, though we only get glimpses of these explosions in Soul Searcher. Axiom Records house engineer Billy Youdelman superbly caught all the in-credible sonic nuances of this incredibly rich and earthy music.

PLASTICLAND Confetti (Midnight, Box 390, Old Chelsea Station, New York, NY 10011/212-675-2768)— Finally it's a live album from the original second generation garage band! Before the Battle Of The Garage comps or Skyclad Records, Plasticland was formulating psychotic masses of guitar fuzz and wearing tackier clothes than Jellyfish. Cross the Lyres' reverence for the garage masters with the tripped-out attitude of the Flaming Lips and you'll get the idea. You can probably guess that this means black holes of guitar drones and solos, lyrics approaching another dimension and a general green fuzz floating into your ears. Confetti commemorates the 10th anniversary of the band and it's the first live LP they've released during their tenure as Wisconsin's psychedelic masters. The recording is a bit tinny, which shows the grittiness of Plasticland's live show, though it might be sharp on ears accustomed to DDD compact discs. There's a certain soul and inspiration in garage music that Plasticland has tapped into, in turn spouting out enough to keep its essence preserved for future fucked-up generations. At our party we'd throw "Process Of The Silverness," "House," "Euphoric Trapdoor Shoes" and either version of "The Mushroom Hill."

AND ALSO THE TREES Farewell To The Shade (Troy, P.O. Box 2103, Venice, CA 90294-2103/213-305-1643)—England's And Also The Trees come out of the modern Gothic art-rock mold of the Sisters Of Mercy and early Cure, take highlights from said bands and others, and churn out a dark, mysterious and thoroughly engaging collection of songs. Simon-Huw-Jones' haunting deadpan rolls across the ominous soundtrack in its best Vincent Price, like a thin mist of funereal music that echoes as through a dense forest. The lyrics, like medieval stories, paint portraits that are sometimes quite beautiful, sometimes quite morose, and all the while precise in their poetic visions. Jones, joined by guitarist/brother Justin, leads this quartet through these songs that are as lacking in discretions high on somber intensity, as Farewell To The Shade avoids the black leather stereotypes and manages to search out the brightness of the darkest hour. You may consider this to be suicidal music, but somehow, it doesn't come across as troubled as, say Joy Division or even Morrissey—the poetic nature of the album just gives it an enlightening quality. Verse to check out: "Prince Rupert," "The Street Organ," "Misfortunes," "Ill Omen" and "The Pear Troo" (with a second of the Pear Troo") (with a second of the Pear Troo"). "The Pear Tree" (with a remix by The Cure's Robert Smith available on the CD)

HINTERLAND Kissing The Roof Of Heaven (Island, 14 E. 4th St., New York, NY 10012)—It's safe to say that Hinterland may not be the best band from Ireland on Island, if you know what we mean. But after knocking around Europe for a bit, this duo has written and produced some quality songs, featuring some top-notch musicianship. OK, they're not as fun to drink with or as gritty as the Pogues, but there's plenty of Ireland in these songs. Just try the bouncy "Desert Boots," or the mystical, sentimental almost madrigal "Galway Bay," which will make anyone hark back to their youth in the land without snakes. So they're not as sexy or bluesy (or pompous) as U2, but they're definitely melodic, with just a hint of that snappy echoed guitar effect a la the Edge, snappy echoed guilar enec. and lyrics peppered (not overbearingly) with political and religious overtones. ' throws a nice little jab at egomani acal melancholy among artists. The production certainly has mature qualities for a debut and the songs really shine when they travel to that dark quiet place (hinterland)—the songs seem to rely totally on atmosphere as on "Handle Me" and "Stanley's Minutes." They sound best when they don't sound like anybody but themselves, and avoid an overbearing Big Country sound, though the single, "Dark Hill," is buoyed by the rousing, heavily accented chorus. This band will do just fine to fill their own shoes.

RENEE ROSNES For The Moment (Blue Note, c/o Capitol, 1750 N. Vine St., Hollywood, CA 90028)— On For The Moment, pianist Renee Rosnes shows considerable growth and maturity both as a composer and leader since her self-titled debut album, also re leased on Blue Note, earlier this year. In the eight-song, 60-minute program, Rosnes is superbly backed by her long-time musical partners, drummer Billy Drummond, bassist Ira Coleman along with altoist Steve Coleman and a special guest on tenor, Joe Henderson. The music is played with sharp tightness and all players seem clearly confortable and comunicative with one another. Among the highlights of this re-lease is "The Organ Grinder," a Woody Shaw composition which the quintet dedicates to the late trumpeter and where we find Henderson (a close friend of Woody Shaw as well as a member of Shaw's band) delivering a moving salute to his late friend. Of Rosnes' original compositions, "For The Moment" best showcases the depth and growth in her ability as a composer. Rosnes is able to focus her playing a lot more with this record, playing exactly what it is needed when it is needed. Her light piano touch can suddenly transform itself into a fiery and striking statement.

ACKPOT EXTRA!

LOVE CHILD Love Child Plays
Moondog (7" EP) (Forced Exposure, P.O. Box 9102, Waltham, MA 02254)—An unfamiliarity with the ouevre of Louis Hardin, aka Moondog (a bearded NYC legend whose modern "folk" music went underappreciated in his hometown for decades, then garnered acclaim in Europe, and has since found some renewed favor back in the states) in no way diminishes the homespun, atonal charm of the latest FE audio artifact. Love Child's usual bubblegum melodies are waylaid by the disjointed, primitive non-rhythms of Moondog's compositions ("All Is Loneliness" especially, with spiralling, disharmonious guitar plinking), as well as by the more subdued abstract beauty of "I Love You" and "Be A Hobo." Love Child has shown themselves not only to have swell record collections, but to be able to pay tribute to their heroes with considerable skill and imagination. Fans of such amateur savants as the Shaggs and Jandek will be suitably enraptured. C/U entire pressing.

IGGY POP Butt Town (EP) (Virgin, 9247 Alden Dr., Beverly Hills, CA 90247)—Or Iggy Un-Plugged. This promo-only plum collects 10 demo versions, largely just Iggy and acoustic guitar, of tracks for and from the Brick By Brick record (only four of the demos here eventually made it to the LP). Among the highlights are the stripped-down takes on "Foolish Dreams," "Starry Night," "I Am" and "L.A. Blues," all of which are unencumbered, dressed-down sketches that get right to the heart of the matter. By now, no one should need reminding of Iggy's strength as a writer, but in case you had forgotten, Butt Town should jog your memory but good.

WOLVERTON BROTHERS "Fireproof" (7") (OKra, 1992 N. High St. B, Columbus, OH 43201/614-294-3833)—Definitely a limited edition release, and almost certainly near gone, so speed is of the essence. Owners of a classic single ("Love City"), an EP of similar quality and a choice debut LP, the Wolvertons' spastic, beer-guzzling, C&W fueled shit-rock is perfected with "Fireproof," like ZZ Top without the chops, fronted by a fat, drunken David Thomas singing his heart out. The sleeve art is hand-crafted and as worthwhile as what's inside, so don't just sit there...

JACKPOT!

SUDDENLY TAMMY Spokesmodel (1128 Mill-Mar Road, Lancaster, PA 17601/717-394-1925)—Suddenly Tammy has little to do with any particular person of that name, but the centerpeice of their sound is the voice of Beth Sorrentino, a wily and riveting female presence whose voice soars over a spartan instrumental bed provided by her brother Jay's drumming, Ken Heitmueller's basslines, and her own piano musings. Guitars? Who needs 'em? That's what, as odd as it may sound, provides Suddenly Tammy with their punch—the added edge of the absence of certain expected sounds serves eerily to add an odd, skewed tension and ambiguity. Dark and brooding sometimes, others she's (Beth, not Tammy) extroverted and extravagant—we like her most when she's moody and scruffy, with all the unpolished hooks and knuckly charm left out in the open. Tasteful piano and punchy, stop-start time signatures intercede on Sorrentino's behalf in many instances, but there's never any real danger of her vocals warbling into the maudlin, black-skirt-clad terrain that plagued other female-voiced combos. Moments on Spokesmodel sparkle with a maturity and depth not often found in most groups this young, as on "The No Respect Girl," "Long Way Down" or "Fearless."

Baylen, #2, Pensacola, FL 32501/904-433-0954 or 477-7729)—then we realized we were simply supposed to invent our own mythos of this legendary combo to suit our particular editorial needs: ours starts out, "Born in the stagnant Florida swamps in the wake of an unspeakably horrid motorcycle accident involving leather-clad Gene Vincent colliding with a rabid, nine year old

" Both sides of this home-Lux Interior made demo tape (both interestingly labeled side 'B', one of which also curiously bore a mysterious set of station IDs from Gregory Davis of the Dirty Dozen Brass Band) have all the primitive, microphone-stuffed-undersomebody's-dress live quality as the best Cramps, Jojo Richman and Velvet Under-ground live recordings do, the kind of sound exploited by devil-tuned blues and hellbent rockabilly cats like Jandek, the Gories, and the Flat Duo Jets... The WOLF DOLLS (c/o Matt Galloway, 771 Green Briar, LF, IL 60045) are one of those groups about whom the phrase "Basement Tape" was involted thin for the property was involved thin for the property was involved thin for the property was involved the prop Tape" was invented—six-feet-under produc-tion techniques, sub-Radio Shack cassette quality, song listing scrawled on what appears to be a crumpled bookmark...in other words, the essence of crude. These recordings behind the Wolf Dolls), which have apparently been languishing since 1988, have an eerie, Norman Bates-like charisma to them, the vocalist muttering in grey-toned self-absorbtion, the whole time sounding like he's singing to his shoes. The music enveloping the vocalist is equally macabre (as in The Munsters, not H.P. Lovecraft), traipsing from dirge territory to out-n-out goth to rockabilly to immersion in a pool of muddy synth effects, all of it slightly deranged, very gloomy and unmis-takably distinct. The rawness of the tape, and the singularity of the person(s) who recorded can be a bit off-putting in one whole piece, but you'll do well to sample "Drowning In Lava," Bleached Bones" and -D.L.Y.

Absolutely no one under 17 will be admitted into the control room during the last 10 minutes of this demo tape...Bearing no background or identifying info whatsoever, we were pretty much left to fend for ourselves with the BILL SILVERTONE QUINTET's latest (c/o Elvis Jones, 1120 N.

Bedlam Rovers: Rove where you want to

Trash Can Sinatras: Scooby Dooby Doo

Beggars Can Be Choosy: For the third straight week, the Charlatans UK top the Mega 150 with no signs of dropping. The band is #1 in all the regionals and has been getting major requests, too (#2 Audience). The Beggars Banquet-RCA camp can also count Buffalo Tom as a success story—the LP moves into the Top 10 (13-7) and still gets kudos from the programmers (#7 Adventure Pick). Meanwhile Jane's Addiction hangs on to #2 thanks to videoplay of "Been Caught Stealing," a wild supermarket dance party. The Cocteau Twins (4-3), whose title track is the latest single, switch places with The Cure (3-4), who have a revamped version of "Close To Me" out. TVT's Connells finally join the Top 10 (16-10) on the strength of an overwhelming showing in the South (#2); the band also has been getting lots of requests (#11 Audience).

Epic And More Epic: Thanks to either fate or an ultraprecise promotional campaign, Epic lands four straight slots on the chart—from #27 to #30: Living Colour, Indigo Girls, Screaming Trees and the Front 242 single. Unluckily, only the Front 242 track moves up enough to gain a bold.

Wherefore Art Thou Rubaiyat?: Elektra Entertainment is overloaded with new projects (thanks to the Mute deal, especially), and most of them are doing quite well on the Top 150. Sisters Of Mercy leads the charge with a 29-14 move (#5 Audience) with "More" moving up to #3 on the Top Cuts chart. The special covers comp, Rubaiyat, hangs on to #33 while infiltrating AOR, metal and alternative formats equally well. Beautiful South has already scored on the U.K. charts, moving 115-70 here, while the Happy Mondays grab the #1 Radio Breakthrough this week (#74 debut) with their excellent new LP. Look for Renegade Soundwave to break through next week.

Indiedom: Caroline keeps on keeping on with Naked Raygun, which climbs 21-19, while Boris Mikulic bows in at #138. Other independent releases that are making noise: 4AD's Pale Saints EP (51-46; still #1 Import); RNA-Rhino's Exene Cervenka (60-52); Wax Trax's KMFDM single (74-57) and God's Acre (95-71); Relativity's They Eat Their Own (69-60); ¼ Stick-Touch And Go's Pegboy EP (94-64) and Rollins Band LP (103-93); Sub Pop's Swallow (#127 debut); and Rough Trade's Butthole Surfers single (#115; #1 Adventure Pick!), with lots more in the bottom 50 of the chart.

Futures: The following list represents the recordings we either think should be up there, or the LPs that will be up there like-it-or-not: Fred Frith, Bedlam Rovers, Neighborhoods, Jandek, Oho, And Also The Trees, Byrds, Area, Tom Ze, Run-D.M.C. and Killing Joke.

ON THE CHART

With the Christmas buying season upon us and the amount of new releases dwindling, this week's chart shows only seven new entries but a bounty of records moving upwards. The Cure and Morrissey remain firmly planted at #1 and #2 respectively, while Sisters Of Mercy (5-3) displaces Paul Simon (3-4), who inches Charlatans UK (4-5) out of the #4 spot. That nifty new mix of "Been Caught Stealing" moves Jane's Addiction up a notch to #6, though the biggest jump up top was made by Island's Pogues (23-7). Elektra's Deee-Lite (12-9), in its 13th week on the chart, and Sire-WB's Madonna (13-10) both leap into the Top

That gusty wind blowing all kinds of records upstream has caught hold of 4AD-Reprise's Lush (17-14), also #1 In-Store; Butthole Surfers' "The Hurdy Gurdy Man" single (51-15) on Rough Trade; Blast First (UK)'s Lunachicks (53-26); Beggars-RCA's fine Buffalo Tom LP (47-28); and Wax Trax's KMFDM LP (61-36)

The top two debuts this week are both from indie labels, a true rarity. Rough Trade's Butthole Surfers' side project, taking the name of Jackofficers, charts at #32 and Amphetamine Reptile's new Boss Hog LP slides in at #42. Look for debuts from Elektra's bunch o Mancs, Happy Mondays, with Pills 'N' Thrills And Bellyaches and upward motion from Noise's Killing Joke (#61) and Sire-WB's Danielle Dax (#71). RUN-D.M.C. Back From Hell (Profile, 740 Broadway, New York, NY 10003/212-529-2600)—Regardless of what people have been saying about Run-D.M.C.'s last LP, Tougher Than Leather, or reports that the trio have lost that spark or drive to top or even come close to earlier works like King Of Rock or Raising Hell, you must remember the boys hold many firsts in hip-hop and are responsible for revolutionizing the artform and earning it commercial/pop respectibility. Their pioneering sound was scraped directly from city streets and playgrounds and still to this day acts as a blueprint for many budding artists. Between Run and D.M.C.'s new JDK label (Smooth Ice) and the Jam Master Jay label JMJ (which produced the Afros), the trio took the time to pool their newly discovered ideas and release Back From Hell. Although their respectability alone could push them platinum, Back alone could push them platinum, Back From Hell displays a respectable smoother side of the group by combining R&B-style samples to several cuts ("Pause," starring the Afros, "Don't Stop" and "Not Just Another Groove") while still remaining tougher than ever on more standard RunD.M.C. tracks like the opening "Sucker D.J.'s" which is in the same vein as their classic "Sucker M.C.'s"; "The Ave."; the rhyming mastery on "Bob Your Head"; and the Stone Roses sample/Johnny Mathis crooning on "What's It All About." Jam
Master Jay's apparent new-found Afrocen-Master Jay's apparent new-found Afrocentricity has helped create such musical diversity and flair that tends to shy away from their past, more beat-heavy albums and keep up with rap's ever-expanding imagination with more relaxed and artistic grooves. It's just like their ad says, "You always come back to the basics."

RENEGADE SOUNDWAVE In Dub

(Mute, clo Elektra, 75 Rockefeller Plaza, New York, NY 10019)—The London-based techno-industrial dance outfit Renegade Soundwave made quite a splash last year with Soundclash, which helped give club-goers a peek into the future of dance music and opened the door for newer sound explorers 808 State. The Renegade arrangements are frenzied contemporary chunks of sonic confusion bound together with unmistakable rhythms of tomorrow. Their latest, In Dub, delves a little deeper into obscurity, as they piece together some truly outrageous sounds without any vocals. While stepping into the house on "Thunder" and "Women Respond To Bass" and being and "Women Respond To Bass" and being as esoterical as you can imagine, they are still capable of translating a feeling or state of mind through their ultra-dense grooves ("Bacteria," "Deadly" and "Holgertron" with its John Bonham drum samples). Definitely something you might hear on an episode of Saturday Night Live's Sprockets. Tune in to these: "Transition," "Pocket Porn Dub," "Percapise And Respond" 'Recognise And Respond.'

Ain't no stoppin' him now! L.L. Cool J (1-1) remains at the top of the heap and, like I'm going out on a limb, should steer us through December into 1991. Bum rushin should steer us through December into 1991. Burn rushin toward the top is ex-champions Public Enemy (10-3), who just two weeks ago were way down at #29, while homegirl Monie Love (8-4) finally creeps into the Top 5. Other bigsteppers include Too Short (16-8), A Tribe Called Quest (20-10) on the strength of their previously unreleased "When The Papes Come" and Movement Ex (37-17).

VARIOUS ARTISTS

FATHER M.C.

Weighing in this week at #14 are rap super-heavyweights Run- D.M.C. who should be giving L.L. a run for his money in the coming weeks. Do not overlook the potential of Brand Nubian (#27)—their LP One For All will be out this week. This week's Adventure Picks: 1) Run-D.M.C.; 2) King Sun; 3) Public Enemy; 4) Stereo MC's; 5) Brand Nubian; 6) Papa Dee; 7) Tony D (LP next year); 8) Paris; 9) Freshco & Miz; 10) Young Black Teenagers. Wing-PG

Uptown-MCA

A&M

Burbank, CA 91510)—His royal badness returns with the fourth release from Graffiti Bridge for the driving, power-funked
"New Power Generation." In this episode, Prince's genius runs wild as the cut is spiced up with raps from T.C. Ellis and new conceptualized versions of the cut on the B-side which has it broken into three segments with all new vocals and instrumentation.

YOU KNOW IT'S TRUE

Our pledge: The following 12"s are guaranteed to be original recordings with the actual artists themselves singing/rapping the vocals. No attempt has been made to hypocritically sell an image/look...and no one with long, fake dreads named Fab or Rob can be found anywhere within. New from the Wild Pitch camp (231 W. 29th St., New York, NY 10001/212-594-5050) is N-TYCE's "Black To The Point" [108 BPM]. With looping, psychedelic guitars and sparce vocal samples, the determined female-delivered lyrics are dropped with a Lyte-like flair...Exclusively from Nettwerk (Nettwerk, 1717 W. 4th Ave., Vancouver, BC V6J 1M2/604-687-8649) is the new 12" Trom MC 900 FT. JESUS WITH DJ ZERO entitled "UFO's." The limited edition 12" also contains the unreleased "Revolution 10" [96 BPM] which is a midtempo, reggae grooved cut chock full of Flavor Flav vocal samples while boasting in-

Other attention-grabbers: THREE TIMES

DOPE's "No Words" (Arista, 6 W. 57th

St., New York, NY 10019), CHARM

ONE's "Togetherness" (Sam, 76-05 51st Ave., Elmhurst, NY 11373/718-335- 2112) and K.M.D.'s "Peachfuzz" (Elektra, see address above). Just in time for the holidays are a couple of anti-censorship compilations Priority's Explicit Pan (Priority) rions. Priority's Explicit Rap (Priority, 6430 Sunset Blvd., Hollywood, CA 90028/213-467-0151) is a 10-song comp containing everything from 2 Live Crew to the Geto Boys, while also featuring a new track called "The Product" from (every mother's nightmare) Ice Cube. A large portion of the profits will be donated to Dave Marsh's Right To Rock Network/Rock & Roll Con-Right To Rock Network/Rock & Roll Confidential censorship-fighting organization. JACKPOT!

BOBBY PREVITE Empty Suits BOBBY PREVITE Empty Suits (Gramavision, clo Mesa/Bluemoon, 209 E. Alameda Ave., Suite 101, Burbank, CA 91502)—On his third
Gramavision project, composer-drummer
Bobby Previte unveils eight strikingly bold originals for his new band, Empty Suits:
Pobin Eubanks, trambane, Stave Grahaury Robin Eubanks, trombone; Steve Gaboury, keyboards; Jerome Harris, electric bass and guitar; Allan Jafee, electric guitar. With this core lineup and various guests (in particular, alto saxist Marty Ehrlich and vocal-instrumentalist Roberta Baum), Previte presents music that defies easy analysis yet offers immediate enjoyment. Guitar, voice and wispy organ are used selectively, decoratively, in engaging combinations, but rarely as dominant, lead voices. Previte's tunes are film scores without films. Visceral and image-inducing, with none of the machine-induced motion-slickness that mars most pop-jazz and fusion these days, his compositions are mini epics with abundant suggestions of narrative and suspense. His riveting bongo pattern at the outset of "Across State Lines," for instance, recalls the menace in the Orson Wells movie Touch Of Evil. Another effective number, "Pichl," is a lovely ballad supporting superb trombone and piano solos propelled by the leader's adroit snare tom-tom and cymbal playing. Previte, in short, is an ecletic genre bender who eschews easy shock-value in favor of enchantment.

BLUES POWER

Since I have been so shamefully remiss in my blues coverage of late, here's a sample ing of the current crop of blues hot and tasty, down and dirty, neat ond downright nasty: Hot Spot (Antilles, 14 E. 4th St., New York, NY 10012), the soundtrack for the Dennis Hopper-directed small-town adventure flick starring Don Johnson, is disappointing not for what it is, but for what it ain't. John Lee Hooker, Taj Mahal, Miles Davis, Earl Palmer and various rhythm men may indeed constitute THE ULTIMATE BLUES BAND, but the tunes suffer from a slow- or medium-tempo sameness, though several of the numbers are effective, stomping grabbers. In all fairness, this is a soundtrack (sonics must perforce be subordinated to visuals), and perhaps the music suits the plot and characters (I haven't seen it). But taken on its own, the music isn't varied and dynamic enough to sustain interest for the dura-tion...By now you must've heard about Columbia's Robert Johnson—The Complete Recordings, a two-CD two-cassette hinged-box set containing 41 takes of the blues legend's 29 known tunes from 1936-37 plus an incisive 48-page booklet. You may not know, though, that this is but one of eight offerings in the company's "Roots 'N Blues" series. The historical im-portance of these CDs is indisputable, but their visceral impact and timeless immediacy (the hallmark of the best blues) cannot be

ON THE CHART

Leading by the race track's length at #1, for the third consecutive week, is Art Blakey & The Jazz Messengers, and One For All is showing no signs of slowing down. Moving back up 8-2 is Sun Ra—who has been hospitalized due to exhaustion—for the place position, and Don Cherry holds steady at #3 to round out A&M's sweep of the top. Looking to break into their hold next week is the Dave Holland Quartet, inching 5-4 and gaining momentum. Other high jumpers are Dexter Gordon (18-10) and Old And New Dreams (20-12). Top debut honors go to the Jazz Passengers (#16). Keep an eye out for new Wynton Marsalis, Dave Brubeck and Chick Corea in the coming weeks. (JAZZ REPORTS PRINTED AFTER TOP 35 REPORTS)

He may be at that, considering the big fun he's had and the enormous impact he's made on audiences and musicians alike. If additional evidence beyond his constant (chunka-chunka) touring and commercials (with the other Bo) is required, then Bo Diddley, The Chess Box is exhibit A-plus. Under the stewardship of Andy (The Blues Is A-OK) McKaie at MCA (70 Universal City Plaza, CA 91608), The Chess Box is a treasure trove chronicling Diddley's seminal singing and guitar playing from 1955-62. Among the 41 guitar playing from 1733-02. Among the A tracks are nine previously unissued items along with his masterpieces, "Bo Diddley," "I'm A Man" and "Who Do You Love?" Get it... The wicked blues harpist and singer SONNY BOY WILLIAMSON is long gone and buried, but listening to Keep It To Ourselves (Alligator, Box 60234, Chicago, IL 60660), you'd swear he was siting on a bar stool right alongside you. these 12 studio tracks, cut in Copenhagen in 1963, capture the then-66-year-old bluesman in an informal, intimate setting with accompaniment, on various tracks, by guitarist Matt (Guitar) Murphy, pianist Memphis Slim or drummer Billy Stephney For sheer electricity and a full-throttle adrenaline rush, by all means check out Williamson's Chess sides. But the easygoing acousticity and unself-conscious repartee make Keep It To Ourselves worth owning and savoring... Moving to the here and now, we hear the bluesy singer and harmoonicat WILLIAM CLARKE Blowin' has done for the blues in the '80s and '90s what Blue Note did for modern jazz in the '50s and '60s. On his Alligator debut, this native southern Californian and six-time W.C. Handy Award nominee wails on nine originals with snappy piano/contrabass/drums/guitar accompaniment; several cuts add a fusillade of horns to the leader's impassioned blowing. More blues next time. I promise.

VOCAL DEPT.

MARLENE VerPLANCK isn't my favorite singer, nor is she the most expressive, but she's a singular stylist, her voice the closest to perfection I've ever heard. A Quiet Storm (Audiophile, 1206 Decatur St., New Orleans, LA 70116), produced, arranged and conducted by her husband Billy, showcases the songstress with both the Sonny Costanzo Big Band and a trio headed by pianist Jim Mcneely. Besides boasting unsurpassed technique, vast range and a quick-study authenticity (which has enabled her to croon commercials for cigarettes, soup, hamburger and beer: "Mmmmm good..." "Weekends were made for..."), VerPlanck is no slouch when it comes to song selection. On A Quiet Storm she assays lesser-known works by well-known songsmiths ("Dream Dancing" by Cole Porter), along with familiar fare from musicals, plus a surprise rendition of pop star Sting's "Sister Moon." As before, husband Billy's arrangements are tailormade for Marlene's sparkling voice, but even sans accompaniment, as on the a cappella "Too Late Now," she displays her unerring flair for melody and embellishment.

CMJ COUNTRY

JACKPOT!

EMMYLOU HARRIS Brand New Dance (Reprise, 3300 Warner Blvd., Burbank, CA 91505)—While being on the cutting edge of country music for almost 20 years, Emmylou Harris has always stood for its solid, yet simple traditions. For Brand New Dance, she decided to hand the production duties, which she had been handling herself on the past few releases, over to Richard Bennett (Steve Earle, Marty Stuart) and Allan Reynolds (Kathy Mattea, the O'Kanes) and concentrate on being the singer; the result is a sparkling, inspiring listening experience. On Brand New Dance, Harris interprets a fine bunch of songs by a disparate group of today's best tunesmiths, ranging from the decidedly non-traditional sounds of Bruce Springsteen's "Tougher Than The Rest" to perhaps contemporary country's finest writer, Kostas' "In His World" to the very traditional feel of Robin and Linda Williams' "Rollin' And Tumblin'." Each is done with Harris' trademark style and grace featuring her evocative voice in settings that bring out the heart and soul of country and expand its boundaries at the same time. Other standout cuts to check out: the funky "Sweet Dreams Of You," the delicate "Red Red Rose" and the etheral "Better Off Without You."

CHUCK PROPHET Brother Aldo (Fire, P.O. Box 800, Rockville Centre, NY 11572/516-764-0800)—

Sparse, yet filled with deep sentiment, this solo debut from the guitar player for L.A. roots rockers Green On Red is a welcome surprise. Composed of rough hewn blues and countrified rock 'n roll that brings to mind "Let It Bleed"-era Stones, each song is set off by the quirky mingling of Prophet's wavery drawl and the sweetness and light of accordionist Stephanie Finch. The vocal interplay and the outstanding guitar work also call to mind the early work of Richard and Linda Thompson; while Prophet is not quite the instrumental innovator Thompson is, the raging emotions displayed are just as real and equally captivating. Tracks like "Scarecrow" with its swirling accordion, extended guitar rant and moody underpinning and "Tune Of An Evening" with its bayou beat and offhand mutterings on the underside of life are prime examples of the deceptively simple elements that are fused on Brother Aldo with satisfying results. Other choice cuts: "Say It Ain't So," "I'll Be Alright" and "Queen Bee."

INDIE TIME

Lots of really fine independent label releases this time around. Leading off is Northern California's SARAH ELIZABETH CAMPBELL, whose A Little Tenderness (Kaleidoscope, P.O. Box O, El Cerrito, CA 94530/415-845-9200) is as warm and comfortable as a fuzzy old sweater. Campbell's songs and stories are blues-and bluegrass-based jewels, her smooth and mellow voice a perfect fit to the easygoing tempos and mainly acoustic instrumentation. A few of the tunes here ("Heartache", "To Remember") are reminiscent of the folkier side of Mary Chapin Carpenter, but for the most part Campbell's voice and take on affairs of the heart more than stand up to such comparisons...One of the leading banjo players in the country and a member of Alison Krauss And Union Station, ALISON BROWN, has just released her solo debut.

Simple Pleasures (Vanguard, 1299
Ocean Ave., Suite 800, Santa Monica, CA 90401/213-451-5727) is an acoustic, instrumental set produced by veteran man-dolin player David Grisman and featuring Mike Marshall, Grisman and Krauss in support roles. It amply displays her ability as a player of both banjo and guitar and as a writer. Brown tackles several different styles from the straight-ahead breakdown picking of "Leaving Cottondale" to the jazzy feel of "Mambo Banjo" to Grisman's Dawggrass style on "Weetabix" with remarkable precision... Red House Records (P.O. Box precision... Red House Records (P.O. Box 4044, St. Paul, MN 55104/800-695-4687) has just released two interesting collections by a pair of fine songwriters, DAVE MOORE's Over My Shoulder and GREG BROWN's Down On There. Moore is best known for his performances on A Prairie Home Companion where most of these songs were first heard. His songs are finely etched portraits of life in the American Southwest, drawing on the musical styles of the region with haunting effect. Moore is one of the great unsung instrumentalists and songwriters of our day and this release will rightfully expose him to a wider audience. Give a listen to "Just A Dog," "God Moves On The Water" and "The Third Candle I Burnt Tonight."... Down In There is Brown's seventh release for Red House and it's a delightful collection in the spirit of Guy Clark or Steve Earle at his folkiest. Brown's songs are snippets of rural life captured with charming ef-ficiency and adorned with fragile, yet funky, musical accompaniment highlighted by his gruff, wine-soaked voice. Shawn Colvin contributes her vocal talents to several of the tunes, adding an interesting counterpoint to the music's already rich tex-tures. "Hillbilly Girl," "Poor Back Slider" and "Worrisome Years" stand out on this thoroughly rewarding listening experience.

FLYING FISH DROPS A BOMB

I recently received a monster package from the 2 Live Fish Crew, Seymour and Mike, at Flying Fish (1304 W. Schubert, Chicago, IL 60614/312-528-5444) that contained a pretty amazing range of musical styles from the African beats of the FOUR BROTHERS to the Cajun brew of the BASIN BROTHERS. The best of the bunch is the FARMERS' Rock Angel—three guys from Chicago displaying a raw energy that recalls the spare rockabilly sounds of the '50s injected with a late 20th century sense of humor. The fact that they have no bass player, just two guitars and drums add to the primitive feel, while the harmonies are tight and just sweet enough for their songs of love and relationships. Check out "The Love You're Speaking Of,"

"This Town" and "Love Around The World."... From the same school as Jonathan Richman, ED'S REDEEMING QUALITIES, besides being a great name for a band, is a group of writers turned musicians from New England who get really silly on More Bad Times. Their simple instrumental combinations (violin, ukelele, acoustic guitar, rice in a coffee can!) and childlike melodies are endearing and hold up to repeated listenings. Favorites among the wacked-out story songs here include: "Lawn Dart," "Things That Scare Me," and "Sad."... In a more serious vein, the aforementioned Basin Brothers' Let's Get Cajun is a great dance record full of snappy beats and inspired playing. A collection of original and traditional songs that displays impressive affection for zydeco and all things cajun. From the steaming "Zydeco Boomerang" to soulful waltz "La Valse de Condamne" to the jumping "Bosco Stomp," the Basin Brothers keep the energy level high and guaranteed to set a few toes to tapping... On Singing My Troubles Away, LAURIE LEWIS AND GRANT STREET raise the stakes a bit as to who's the best up-and-coming bluegrass band working today. Featuring National Banjo Champion Tony Furtado and ace guitarist Scott Nygaard, alongside the charming vocals and fiddle playing of Lewis, on traditional tunes like "Diamond Joe" and several covers from the likes of the Louvin Brothers ("I Wish!! Had Been A Dream") and Jimmie Rodgers ("When The Cactus Is In Bloom"), this is as classy a bluegrass record as I've heard all year.

IN THE NEWS

KELLY WILLIS is in the studio recording her second for MCA with Tony Brown once again handling production chores. This time out she's trying her hand on some self-penned songs as well as recording tunes by Steve Earle, Paul Kelly and Jim Lauderdale, all of which were previewed at Willis' hot Music Marathon showcase at the Lone Star Roadhouse. Also, be on the lookout for Kelly singing the Joe Doe/Dave Alvin composition, "Little Honey," as the theme for Thelma And Louise, a film due in 1991 starring Susan Sarandon and Geena Davis... Due any day now is FOSTER & LLOYD's new improved Version Of The Truth. Essentially, this is the same great record that was released earlier this year with three new and equally exciting tracks tacked on... NANCI GRIFFITH has been working with Larry Mullen Jr. of U2 on tracks for her new album, The Sun, The Moon & The Stars, which is currently slated for late next spring. It's not all that surprising a combination considering her success and popularity in Ireland.....With the recent shakeup at A&M, TISH HINOJOSA was dropped from their Americana series. It's a shame, really, since she'd just finished recording her second album with producer Booker T. Jones... New country releases to get excited about are on the way from Don Henry, Marty Stuart, Aaron Tippin, Jim Lauderdale and Lucinda

JACKPOT!

FOUR BROTHERS Makorokoto

(Atomic Theory, clo Flying Fish, 1304 West Schubert, Chicago, IL 60614)—At long last, one of the sharpest guitar outfits in Zimbabwe gets a U.S. release, and a great package it is! The Four Brothers is a Zim band with no pretensions of having an international sound. They hit fast and hard, their guitars loaded with melody, and the crosshairs on the beat. Each cut smokes, driven by the bass of Never Mutare and the insistent kick drum and high hat of lead vocalist/drummer Marshall Munhumumwe. But it's those guitars, crunched by Aleck Chipaika and rippled by Edward Matiyasi that make the fire. I am an unabashed, hopeless fan of all music Zim, and the guitar's the thing in Harare. What you get in Makorokoto is their greatest hits, music from post revolutionary Zimbabwe's blossoming through some 1987 cuts. It's hard to pick out a single "best," let alone a greatest hits group, but the Cooking Vinyl crew (who compiled this set last year) have done a marvelous job on an impossible task. Check your pulse with impossible task. Check your pulse with "Rumbidzai," your blood pressure with "Makorokoto," and your circulation with the romance/rhumba of "Rugare." If you're into unadulterated speed, catch "Sara Tasangana," featuring some blistering guitar licks. You can catch your breath and slow down (a little) with the gentler, kinder "Guhwa Uri Mwana Waani," complete with a tight, purphy horn section. But plete with a tight, punchy horn section. But expect to get dragged back on the dancefloor seconds later. This is another classic case of African music for Africans, and for all those who want it straight, no chaser. Drink up!

JORGE BEN Benjor (Tropical Storm, 4100 Alameda, Toluca Lake, CA 91505)—Like almost every album by 91505)—Like almost every album by every major Brazilian star, Ben's latest offers a mixed bag of brilliant arrangements and painful schmaltz. I've gone on and on about the terrorist group I'm forming to abduct every drum machine in the world, so I need not spend too much time on the drawbacks of digital. Songs like "Cowboy Jorge" sink in the quicksand of silicon that permeates about half of the album. BUT...then there are cuts like "Homen de Negocios" that sizzles with Stratocaster fire and reggae-rooted horns (ond, of course, skin and wood for the beat.) When he hits these moments, Benjor is dynamic and pointed. Check out "Mama Africa" as well. Backed by Sunny Ade's drummers and singers, this one pounds and wails and grooves through a roll-call of Africa's great musicians: Mapfumo, Dibango, Bhundus, Toure Kunda. The set ends with a ragtime honkytonk about "Hair" that's humorous and fun. His poetry (in Portuguese, but with translations in the notes) is as direct and beautiful as ever, covering love, politics and social concerns with poignancy. So get out your remotes and program that disc machine for half an album.

Though it may be neck and neck between Aswad and Youssou N'Oour on the top of our charts, further down there's lots of moving and shaking (skanking and swaying?), as a few newer releases make headway and some older names die down. Witness the emergence of the wonderful Tom Ze, Pablo Moses and Niney The Observer, all of who crack the Top 10 to replace exiting older records. Likewise, in the teens, Gnawa: Music Of Marrakesh (one of the most spellbinding releases on the superb Axiom label), Ketama, Joe Higgs and the unstoppable Aster Aweke all score interest from programmers and more worldly retailers alike. If this chart was a Top 30, the last five would go like this: Barrington Levy (Profile), Jah Shaka (Mango), Gregory Isaacs (RAS), Paul Simon (WB) and Gazoline (Shanachie). River is a lovely piece of work—lyrical and sensitive. The pianist is joined by a small ensemble of violin, bandoneon (the accordion of Argentina), string bass and guitar. All the musicians are standouts, with a special nod to the ever changing, ever appropriate Marc Ribot and the melodic squeeze of Alfredo Pedernera. They touch on tango, waltz and tarentella, with a lot of stops in between. It never hits the violent emotion of Piazolla, but throughout the 12 songs on Water there is an undercurrent of passion that swells and ebbs, one mo-ment dreamy, the next steamy...ANDA . . Their performances are of mostly traditional songs for the expected instruments: quena, harp, guitars and small percussion. While not the most exciting of recordings, it gives a clear overview of the various Andean styles. That's all folks!

Josh Rosenthal, Columbia Records, New York, NY (212) 445-5095 "Makes No Difference": More irony within a joke couched by irony from the MEKONS. Truth is, The Band tune carries a bittersweet fatalism that typifies the Mekons, this time all souped in Manchester regalia, not to please you, but to display the decadence of the scene just as The Mekons Rock And Roll conveniently exploited said genre. It makes no difference whether you played, play or won't play the Mekons—their place in history is secure...I was walking back to work from CBS Studios one afternoon with Mustafa and King of MOVEMENT EX when some trash muttered "Go back to Africa." In his Dialogue the other week, Marc Attenberg from KCOU pointed out that he felt the NEIL YOUNG record, Ragged Glory, wasn't being properly promoted. (Oh, really?!) Let me address his comments. First, all of us at Reprise feel the record is extraordinary. That's why we made sure in advance the entire college panel was serviced with it. Second, the Reprise Contemporary Music Department's prime directive is to establish and develop NEW bands to the first logical level of visibility. In addition, we make sure that stations are properly serviced with appropriate music (i.e. rock, rap, dance, metal, etc.) that has already achieved this level of credibility and act accordingly. You all see this facilitated weekly on everyone from DEPECHE MODE to ERIC CLAPTON. Third, I don't strongarm anyone on our music (including the REPLACEMENTS). Don't believe the hype! The artists we have kick ass without me giving radio MDs a bunch of crap! I'll be the first one to take valid criticism from anybody. My number's at the top. Criticism in a public forum is invaluable in any in dustry. So now it's my turn. How is it that Mr. Attenberg is a regional college marketing representative for CBS Records and a music director for an alternative (?!) college radio station? Can anyone say "CONFLICT OF INTEREST"? I knew ya could! On top of that, I question a CBS college rep slagging the promotional efforts of another label (under the guise of an objective MD). All I can say is consider the source. I'm not going to take pot shots at CBS's philosophy on how they attempt promoting critically acclaimed records to the college radio level like Billy Joel, Bruce Springsteen, etc. It's not my concern as to how they conduct business. Get the picture? Some advice to all music directors—don't live at 666 Front Street. . That's the flim-flam address for suckers. Be informed, be objective and be hard. Everyone else is milk toast, and recognized as such. See you on the street (I hope).

925-7220 As I embark on this endeavor, my modest goal is to use more (non-gratuitous) commas in one Dialogue than anyone before me. To begin, my thanks go out to Greg Dubrow of Sky for his beautifully worded description of my esteemed sister's article in Rolling Stone a few weeks back. As the hundred to the property of the stone of the sto dreds of you who called in response to Greg's call-to-arms know, proud doesn't quite come close to describing how this brother feels about his little sis. Well, now brother teels about his little sis. Well, now that I've gotten the emotional part of the program out of the way, a bit of news about CLOCKHAMMER. A tour is slowly taking shape for January, so if you have the chance, get out and see 'em. If you can't see 'em, we have finished mixing the live CBGB show from the CMJ Convention, and will have a 7" out in the next few weeks, capturing these rock gods for all and will have a 7" out in the next few weeks, capturing these rock gods for all times. Speaking of rock gods, the JOLLY BOYS have started getting firm dates for their 1991 US Tour, beginning at the Jazz and Heritage Festival in New Orleans in April and winding up here in New York in June. First Warning is expecting—look for the eggs to hatch after the holidays. Unof-ficial CMJ Lead-Time Check—today is November 19. As I continue to carom around this space with no cohesiveness, I realize that as I read CMJ, strange thoughts occur. Do the editors put Jim(s)
Neill (who, by the way, seems to swear an awful lot) and McNeil's dialogues together on purpose? Does Jeff Gibson write Robin Williams' stand-up material? Who is Danielle Dax and how can I meet her? How come most of your stations are playing the Pogues and the Waterboys but not the Men They Couldn't Hang? These are questions which I cannot quite come to grips with, so, baffled, I give up. 19.

BROTHER FROM ANOTHER PLANET is going to do an interview for a new Japanese cable program. Good exposure for this developing artist. They are also in the studio working on their follow up to "Wishing On A Star." WAIT TILL YOU HEAR THESE SAMPLES!!! Major action on BOBBY KONDER's interpretation of the disco classic "Let's Do It" by Convertion. Any hip-hop, raggamuffin fan will groove on it. HMV, a record store from England, just opened two stores in New York and is definitely going to give Tower Records a run for their money! A little something not related to dance music. Check out "Wicked Sensation" by Lynch Mob. It's excellent! Yes, George Lynch can survive without Don Dokken. Till next time...live long & prosper!!!! AND GET RUFF!!!

Todd The Wet CBS Flack, Pt. 99: Todd Bisson would like you to believe that because I've appeared onstage and on record with GG Allin, I condone rape and other acts of violence. Never mind that I had long since stopped working with GG Allin by the time of his alleged assault, in the mind of Todd, singing about it and doing it must be the same thing. Funny, too, 'cause when Todd was MD at WUNH he got a big kick out of GG's antics (or so it seemed over the telephone). It's nice to know that the new, Socially Redeeming Todd knows the difference between wacky and reprehensible, even if it only took him seven years to figure it out. Hey, if GG Allin really is guilty of setting that girl on fire (and several newspaper accounts covering his trial left plenty of room for doubt), it shouldn't be necessary for me to say I don't approve. Unless of course Todd Bisson believes lyrical content encourages or is reflective of similar behavior, in which case he and the members of Judas Priest should have something to chat about... Sure, I can repudiate GG Allin's real life violence, but don't hold your breath waiting for Todd Bisson to tear up his Warrant-subsidized paycheck. GG Allin Warrant-subsidized paycheck. GG Allin may or may not be guilty of rape, whereas Warrant are guilty of contributing to a social climate that says treating women like shit is no big deal... If you don't have the new Fishbone or Poi Dog EP, Todd suggests "giving me a call," but why would anyone want to do that? (Surely both records are want to do that? (Surely both records are want to do that? (Surely both records are available for less than the price of a phone call at any used record shop)... Speaking of "sounding butch," the best scene violence rumor of the year concerns WDC's Nation Of Ulysses being "banned" from NYC or they'll face the wrath of the Surgery boys (whom N.O.U. ran afoul of earlier this year). Whaddya say, Mr. McDonnell, this is your chance to take a firm stand against scene violence (they don't talk about white-on-white crime very don't talk about white-on-white crime very often but perhaps someone should start). Fun listening: Poison Idea's Feel The Darkness, Fitchcraft's new Pocket Puppy cassette Little Death (47 Canal St., #2, NYC 10002) and the new Big Daddy Kane/Rudy Ray Moore collaboration...That fuzzy b&w photo in the News section looks suspiciously like a weird male sex ritual they talked about in Faces Of Death VIII but I can't tell for sure...John David Kalodoner said in the new Billboard that he spent three years looking for an intelligent Southern rock band. There are points in time where one must decide between one world or another. As of December 7, I will be leaving TE/BB in order to pursue my studies in full. As my health and my sanity have suggested, I am wearing myself thin. For this moment, I have made a decision. It has been an enriching and wonderful two years. There would be an enormous list if I were to thank each person who has helped to make my job really enjoyable; I think that you know who you are anyways. I would love to be there to work the BUFFALO TOM tour and the DARKSIDE LP next year; but I guess that I will be in spirit. Hopefully, I will live to see the day when the Laughing Hyenas, King Carcass, Chainsaw Kittens and the Verlaines will be on Disc Drive (My Dad Is Dead, Barkmarket and Rat At Rat R are already realities). Perhaps. . . anything is possible. Give me a call if you want to say goodbye and/or want to keep in touch.

Some friendly advice to my fellow radio reps: If you aren't servicing WZRD you are doing yourselves (and your records and touring bands) an injustice. Of all the college stations in the Chicago area, only two, WNUR and WZRD, have signals that reach into the city to any considerable degree. Most of you already know about WNUR, and I've encountered a surprising number of you who think you know about, and have dismissed, ZRD. It's true ZRD often doesn't report playlists or return phone calls. And yeah, they aren't included in any of the more influential trades. But they are a cool free-format station that plays cool stuff and mixes in a healthy, entertaining dose of "alternative" news features and has a proper (for a non-commercial, "alter-native" station) political diet...The kind of station Jim Fouratt complained that there weren't enough of at the CMJ convention.
Yeah, they won't play your shitty records and help you 'cross them over,' but they will play your good ones. We all know college radio promotion is really just a numbers game (to some of us more than others), but try to remember that you can't judge a station by their playlist alone. I mean, getting your records played and heard is the most important thing, isn't it? WZRD is full of folks who care more about how their staion sounds on the air than how it looks on paper. They care about music and not how to get jobs in the music industry. That's a rarity for college radio these days. There's no point trying to cram any commercial "alternative" stuff down their throats, but I know the station would appreciate service from a lot of you who haven't given it to them. My dial is always set to 88.3, and I'm here, listening, to tell you it is worth your time and money.

Paul V & Super Dave, Warner Bros. Records, Burbank, CA (818) 953-3566

Traditionally, the last quarter of the year is when record companies slip into a mild form of hibernation. Don't expect to find us holed up in a cave somewhere, though, au contraire, mon frere! Just check out new releases: LPs from ECHO & THE BUNNYMEN (get over the name and BUNNYMEN (get over the name and listen to the music, that's the whole point isn't it?) and DANIELLE DAX and a CD-single from a brand new Sire/WB signing the JUDYBATS (featuring "She Lives (In A Time Of Her Own)," from Where The Pyramid Meets The Eye). Besides these awesome, heavy-hitting releases that'll be sure to add real substance to your holiday playlist, we've got several others that are still quite fresh. How about the GOO GOO DOLLS? Their awesome "There You Are" from the LP Hold Me "There You Are" from the LP Hold Me Up is currently adored by millions, including certain persons at HITS. How about that Roky Erickson compilation? Besides the Judybats, there's great songs by the

JESUS AND MARY CHAIN, SISTER
DOUBLE HAPPINESS, PRIMAL
SCREAM, JOHN WESLEY HARDING and ZZ TOP. How about that ENO/CALE LP? "Been There, Done That" continues to do real well, and with the Edge in Dallas adding it this week, we're practically closed out at R&R. Where's Mr. Salt Lake when you need him? Pulling up the carpet in his office! With all of this great new music currently available, Warner Bros. is definitely the musical equivalent of cholesterol, as we clog up the playlists everywhere with these rich treats! The good thing is, this stuff is great for your health! JANE'S ADDICTION is continued its all-out assault on mankind as the tour continues and the hilarious video for "Been Caught Stealing" gets added by MTV. If "Stealing"'s getting a bit crispy for you, check out the remix on the CD single and 12", or start considering "Classic Girl." Either way, you can't lose. Also on the road are those awesome Goo Goo Dolls. The smart money says to see this band live—it's a great show! They kicked ass in Dallas last week mere days after Jane's did-quite a week for those Texans! Speaking of which, Super Dave wants to extend thanks to Larry Nielson and George Gimarc of the Edge for their hospitality during his visit. Coming soon: compilations from the BLASTERS, the ASSOCIATES and, yes, DEVO!!! Everyone have a great Thanksgiving, and you Jersey dwellers beware! The Clam Broth House is only days away! The Bugs List: Alex Luke, Sheryl Simmons, Lisa Johnson, Pocahontas and Capt. John Smith, Darryl Strawberry, Mike Parsons.

Amy Rosen, Former CBS College Rep, Still Music Director, WMSC, Upper Montclair, NJ (201) 893-7466

Due to restructure of the CBS Nashville College Dept., I am currently a jobless waif. I apologize to stations that probably thought I'd disappeared off the face of the earth, but the reality is that I can't afford to call you guys at the moment. Stations in need of CBS product should call the College Dept. at 615-742-4345. Run to the phone if you need copies of ROSANNE CASH or MARY-CHAPIN CARPENTER. There are so many incredible records coming out of Nashville these days—all the hippest stations realize that these are not a bunch of yeehaws. Call up Warner Bros. and get a copy of Kevin Welch and you'll understand what I mean. This record will change your life! But anyway, here's some WMSC biz: I don't think a lot of label reps realize that we are a mere 14 miles away from NYC; a major major major market. We consistently make the Arbitons and have a steadfast reputation as being good to work with. Call me at the above number if you are still in the dark about WMSC, or contact our PD Joe Jeremias at 201-893-4257. Adieu.

Cheryl Bateman, Music Director, KUT, Austin, TX (512) 471-6395

Many times I have mentioned and dismissed a new release, only to read a review that causes me to wonder if the reviewer and I listened to the same recording. I'll listen to the release again, but my initial judgement still stands. No offense, but a recording that sounds like the musicians are just learning to play their instruments or play them badly, and so they compensate by playing them loudly, is not innovative, fresh or on the cutting edge. I admit that, coming from a formal musical background, I tend to be somewhat biased. I am also concerned that musicianship is becoming secondary to technical wizardry. You don't have to be able to play an instrument or write a song, just sample the works of others. A few bands (i.e. GTO) do this in a creative way, most don't. In any case, I find the end product sadly soulless. And there is the trend towards just lip synching during live concerts, which becomes more of a show-case for special effects and choreography. If I plunked down 18 of my hard-earned dollars for a lip synched show, I'd be mad as hell. You might stay home and listen to the recording or watch the video. Does any of this bother anyone else out there?

Canada V6T 2A5...For the last 10 CITR has been the focus of attack by several community organizations that want the words of PUBLIC ENEMY removed from all on-air consideration—in particular, the song "Welcome To The Terrordome." The issue reached a new level CITR-wise when we presented the Public Enemy show on August 30: an anti-racist organization has lobbied the Canadian Radio-Television and Telecommunications Commissions (a.k.a. the CRTC, the federal broadcast regulatory body), demanding that CITR's license to broadcast be revoked for continuing to program racist material. Their demands are currently under review by the CRTC so we don't know what's going to happen yet. My last Dialogue, my how time flies. For all you music rep types out there I am graduating in December and am leaving the music director position in the hands of two people (since it takes two to equal me), Zack Bliss and Brian Massey. Hopefully you will treat them as you did me...A quick thumbs down to CBS for giving Amy Rosen the pink slip. Amy was the best rep and I think a lot of music reps could learn a lot about the treatment of the MDs from her. I can't believe you kept some of your other reps and let her go. WHY? All I can say is your loss. Amy is an angel and hopefully will find a better company to work for in the future. If Amy reads this; we here at WUPI want you to know that your efforts were greetly appreciated and are not forgotten, if there is anything we can do for you let us know. THANK YOU FOR EVERYTHING!!! What more can I say except, LIFE SUCKS! A last note, how does anyone get jazz service? We try but never can fit the mold for the stations that receive jazz. We want to provide our audience with jazz but without sevice how are we supposed to do this? Please give us a smaller station's chance and then if we don't make it worth your time and effort cut us—everybody has to start somewhere. Keep the music comin'.

to the main order of business, let me state for the record that NOT everyone who lives in this town is a gun-totin', rebel-flag-waving', pick-up truck-drivin', semiliterate redneck homophobe, despite what was said earlier this year by a certain English band in a certain trade journal. As a matter of fact, many of us here are quite embarrassed by the rude reception given that cer-tain band by an offensive but vocal minori-ty. However, despite the less-than-cosmopolitan behavior of some people here, the entire town did not deserve the slagging we took in the aforementioned journal... Enough from the soapbox. (And I DON'T work for the Chamber Of Com-merce!) I'm Tim Wolfe, the MD at WSFR, at the University of West Florida. We're a relatively new station, we've been on the air for about a year. Dave Carter, our founder and beloved patriarh, and WUWF (the University's classical/jazz/etc. station) asked for a few hours of each week to air alternative/college/progressive music, and were basically laughed out of the building. Undaunted, the intrepid Mr. Carter proceeded to create what is now WFSR. I could continued, with sob stories about hand-me-down equipment and inadequate funding, but I'm sure that's old news so why bother? Our music library does need some help, though. (Hint, hint, grovel, grovel.) Sincere thanks to the record company reps who've called and to those I've called. If you haven't heard from me, you will soon! Stuff that I find marvelous includes the latest NEIL YOUNG, AN EMOTIONAL FISH and DARLING BUDS, plus everything from ECOTOUR and CONCRETE BLONDE... If anyone has any comments, advice, questions, answers or just wants to talk, please call me at (904) 474-2691. My office hours are M-F, 10 a.m. till noon Central . . . Well, I gotta go now-me and my daddy/brother has gotta change the rollbar on the pik-upp

FREEMAN RETRIAL DENIED

Charles Freeman, the Fort Lauderdale record shop owner convicted of selling obscene materials when he sold a copy of 2 Live Crew's As Nasty As They Wanna Be to an undercover cop, was denied a requested retrial. Freeman is expected to be sentenced in the next two weeks. Freeman's lawyer, Bruce Rogow, says he will appeal the decision.

TELEVISION TURNED ON AGAIN?

Rumor has it that legendary '70s NYC band Television is talking about getting back together to perform and record. Guitarists Tom Verlaine and Richard Lloyd, who have both pursued solo careers, have already played informally with bassist Fred Smith and drummer Billy Ficca, according to Verlaine's manager, John Tefler. At this point, however, the reunion is still at the discussion stage.

DEEE-LITE TOUR = ALL-STAR JAM

Deee-Lite will be touring with the P-Funk Allstars and Bootsy Collins on their upcoming tour. The show will be divided into three sets, each focusing on one band, though they'll be backing each other up.

MCA DISTRIBUTION BECOMES UNI

With its distribution of Geffen and DGC set to begin in January, MCA Distribution has changed its name to Uni Distribution Co., increased its distribution staff by 50%, expanded its audiocassette manufacturing capabilities and opened two new distribution facilities. The name change was made to alleviate confusion between MCA Records and its parent distribution company and enable Uni to handle the volume added by its recent acquisitions.

ENVIRON-MENTALLY CORRECT CDs

Sting and Peter Gabriel are both releasing the CD versions of their new recordings with alternatives to the controversial CD longbox. Sting's new A&M recording The Soul Cages will be released in a Digipak, a plastic tray with multipanel paperboard housing instead of the traditional plastic jewel box. The Digitrack, a substitute for the controversial CD longbox which A&M plans to package the album in, will not be available for mass maunfacturing until after Feb. 1, so the initial shipment of CDs will be sent out in the longbox. Gabriel's Shaking The Tree: 16 Golden Greats will be sent out to retailers without a longbox, in a jewel box. It was Gabriel's decision to sell the CD this way, even though he may lose a significant amount of sales.

WINWOOD SUIT ROLLED OUT

A suit has been filed against Steve Winwood by Stone Agate Music, a division of Jobete Music Co., who claim that Winwood's '88 hit ''Roll With It'' infringes on the copyright of Junior Walker & The All Stars' '66 R&B hit ''(I'm A) Roadrunner.'' Along with Winwood, the suit names cowriter Will Jennings; publishers F.S. Music Ltd., Willin' David Music and Blue Sky Rider Songs; publishing administrator Warner-Tamerlane Publishing Corp.; Virgin Records America and Virgin Records Ltd.; and distributors WEA and Atlantic Records.

RECORD NEWS

Wax Trax will be releasing the debut single from Bedazzled, a band comprised of the three members of Jesus Lizard and Chris Connelly of Revolting Cocks. The band took their name from the movie of the same name, which starred Dudley Moore and Peter O'Toole, and the single will be a cover of the movie's theme song... Henry Rollins is rumored to be signing with Caroline, though the mysterious letters "TVT" have appeared in connection with his name as well.... Also in the rumor mill is the Meat Puppets, who are said to have their first major-label album set for a February release on London Records... Dutch East will be releasing 50 Peel Sessions titles in conjunction with Strange Fruit Records of London. The Peel Ses-

MIND OVER MATTERS

Filling a Niche or Hyper-segregation?

by Mark Glaser, CMJ

here was a time in popular music when everything could be put into neat little categories. R&B. Psychedelic rock. Disco. Punk. There was rarely a question as to where a sound could be placed in the categorical vernacular—but Top 40 would play the hits regardless of category. If it was popular, so be it. Now many of the distinctions between musical styles and sounds have blurred, yet the music industry, in its never-ending search for marketability (truly a four-letter word), accounts for all these new sounds—hip-house, new country, jazz-rap, metal/funk et al—by simply creating more little pigeonholes to squeeze them into.

Not only is this knee-jerk niche-making at the record company level limiting and unfair to the artists, it's been propagated by both commercial and non-commercial programmers as well. One look at the Gavin Report (as well as most other trades, us included) will show you the lines of demarkation—rap, adult alternative, album rock—all legitimate formats as defined by radio. Programmers and trade hounds alike will defend the barricades between these formats as logical breakdowns as needed by a more sophisticated listening audience who want to hear Top 40 but no metal, or want to hear Top 40 without Madonna, or want to hear Enya and Basia but not the Cocteau Twins.

This is the sign of an industry that, in the face of a lot of exciting new sounds, wants to preach only to the converted. And if a pre-defined audience doesn't exist yet for a certain sound, it's definitely not viable. Is there a commercial station left (other than a handful of small progressives) that will take a chance by playing any genre of music at any time? It took ages for Top 40 stations to accept rap, but the sad truth is that some non-commercial stations still haven't accepted hip-hop. In many cases at college stations, the programmers are content to play what an audience predictably will like without even testing out something different. To some imaginative free-form programmers, this surely doesn't apply, but the vast majority of non-commercial programmers are content to put reggae in its three-hour slot from midnight to 3 every Thursday and rap from midnight to 3 every Friday and, gee, what do you do with ragamuffin hip-hop? Or straight R&B?

ollege and non-commercial programmers have always prided themselves for impacting the commercial radio industry in some way or another. Well why don't they push the envelope of possibilities by breaking out of all the stifling niche programming and play jazz, new age, postpunk, reggae, spoken-word, WHATEVER, in an educational, yet entertaining manner rather than falling into the predictable? Sure, the mixing of genres might be disorienting, but when the music is presented in an orderly, articulate fashion, listeners will soon appreciate the wide variety of sounds. For skeptic MDs or PDs, take a look at the fine job stations like WFMU and KALX have done at building an audience through mainly free-form programming.

I'm not advocating total anarchy, with DJs grabbing anything in sight and slapping it on the turntable—though at least it wouldn't be predictable. My point is that there are a lot of interesting new sounds that are being unfairly filed away by the industry as "alternative rock" (sounds like Sonic Youth), "album-oriented rock" (sounds like Eric Clapton), "contemporary jazz" (sounds like Harry Connick Jr.), when a lot of music fans—who themselves have been pegged as "metalheads," "baby boomers," "black," etc.—might be turned on to hear something outside of their normal listening experience.

s this whole fragmentation just a form of hypersegregation? A reflection of society as a whole? You bet. Research shows, says the Rational Ruler of Radiodom, that blacks don't want to hear world music. Yeah, that's what "urban contemporary" radio said about rap music, too. And reggae, too. Throwing all that research out the window might be impossible for commercial radio, but for college radio, it's a necessity.

CMJ breaks down its editorial content into specialty sections to a certain extent (though John Zorn, as one example, was reviewed in almost all sections), but that shouldn't lead programmers necessarily to separate likewise. Play rap. Play world music. Play jazz. But what's the purpose of building specialized audiences through block genre programming instead of trying to convert a few unsuspecting listeners to something they might not expect? Be sneaky if necessary—use hybrid musics as segues, for example—just try to break down those limiting barriers by opening up the DJs' and listeners' ears to the music they don't know they like. Yet, Yes, Mark Glaser, CMJ's managing editor, can use a line popularized by ARGH!!!er Jem ''Play The Music They Don't Know They Like'' Aswad. That's because Jem never reads this mag cuz heez too into LOUDness. Get involved—call Scott Decker at CMJ to see how you can contribute to this essential exchange of editorial ideas.

sions have been recorded over the last 25 years on DJ John Peel's famous BBC radio show. The first 14 titles, to be released in mid-December, are from Syd Barrett, Birthday Party, Buzzcocks, The Cure, The Damned, Extreme Noise Terror, Gang Of Four, Happy Mondays, Hardcore Holocaust, Inspiral Carpets, Napalm Death, Prong, Siouxsie & The Banshees and the Smiths... Dutch East will also be releasing some titles unavailable domestically on vinyl via its vinyl-only label, Dutch East Wax. The Residents' live Cube E. Devo's Smooth Noodle Maps and the Cramps' Stay Sick, as well as earlier Cramps albums Smell Of A Female and A Date With Elvis (both including extra tracks), are set for release in January... Tim Finn release in January... Tim Finn is reportedly going to join Crowded House, who is busy recording their third album.

INDUSTRY SHUFFLE

Capitol Records has named Larry Jenkins senior director, media & artist relations. Jenkins was previously Arista's senior director, national publicity. PolyGram has named both Lynne Lubash and Marty Maidenberg managers of publicity in New York and Susan Deneau publicist in Los Angeles... It looks as though President/CEO Jerry Moss of A&M will be releasing his presidential duties to Al Cafaro.

WATERBOYS Beacon Theater, New York City, November

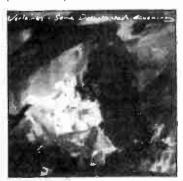

Mike Scott is definitely proving to be a man of many musical moods, and he proudly displayed several of them during this show. Supporting the Waterboys' new Room To Roam album, one would expect a traditional Irish evening, bedecked with fiddles, tin whistles and the like, as are prevalent on the new LP. Instead, Scott treated us to a, for the most part, upbeat selection of songs spanning the band's seven-year career. Leading the band through showstoppers like 1985's "Whole Of The Moon," last year's "Fish-erman's Blues," an obscure Bob Dylan cover and the new "A Life Of Sundays," Scott was able to carry the emotional tempo, add some Irish folklore, and blaze through an hour and forty-five minutes sounding like he enjoyed it more than the sell-out crowd did. Which, considering the en-thusiasm in the audience—many Irish folk, no doubt, began an Irish football chant to call the band back for their encore—was not an easy feat to accomplish. This show confirmed the Waterboys' unpredictability, and leaves us anticipating what will come next from this confident outfit

DEAD CAN DANCE Symphony Space, New York City, November 21

From the opening notes on the harp, you knew you were being treated to a show by a band that is quite beyond the ordinary. Fronted by Brendan Perry and Lisa Gerrard, who share the vocals, Dead Can Dance took the crowd through some very vivid images—at times religious and mystical, at times dark and haunt-ing, and at times dramatic and violent. The music ranged from Gregorian-like chants, to solo flute pieces, to classical stylings, to a cappella choral harmonies, all played with an effort and care that is unmatched. Lisa Gerrard's vocals effortlessly showed an elaborate dynamic range, both in volume and along the register, as she delivered her songs from behind her Yang Ch-ing (placed on a lectern-like stand as she addressed us with her call), while Perry charmed us with his smooth and easy voice. The highlight had to be the percussion jam on the third encore, a spontaneous burst of all sorts of drums, hand per-cussion and cymbals that brought the audience to a standing ovation. What followed was another a cappella chant from Gerrardthe calm after the tempest, and a perfectly soothing note to make us feel cozy as we made our way up the aisle to the door.

While a coutless number of bands crassly and awkwardly try to fuse black and white musical styles, King's X do so without the slightest whiff of effort or pretense... With this album, King's isn't doing anything radically different from its first two, but they've finally made a great album, instead of a good one with a few great songs.

"Here, the ideas are purely Weston's own, and the results are a triumphant exercise in the powers of jazz. The interface be tween Weston and his piano takes place not at the keyboard but inside his mind—the two work as one indistinguishable statement of pure emotive expression."
