ELEVENTH DREAM DAY

Lived To Tell

(Atlantic, 75 Rockefeller Plaza, New York, NY 10019)

With an almost alarming lack of flash and fashionability, the anti-heroes of Eleventh Dream Day have, without much fanfare, developed into a true-to-life American rock band. The songs on Lived To Tell cover all the bases that sprouted with guitar-hero bands in the '70s: tortured-artist breakthrough jams, salt-of-the-earth ballads and plain-spoken rock 'n roll jump-starts—the latter with enough inspiration to fire up anyone's enthusiasm to start a band. Rick Rizzo and Janet Beveridge Bean write with the same unfathomable instinct that steered rugged individualists, like Neil Young, Neil Young and Neil Young, down an innately American-product trail, reconstructing their upbringing without being obvious or righteous. Rizzo and Baird Figi handle their guitars the way Steinbeck handled words, plunking out a string of time-weathered truths with each precipitous, exacting passage. Along with Yo La Tengo and Giant Sand, Eleventh Dream Day is as inarguably a basic supplement to the rock 'n roll diet as, well, any old thing a thirtysomething would point to when declaring there's no "real" music these days. Rub these in their faces: "Rose of Jericho," "I Could Be Lost," "Strung Up And/Or Out," "It's All A Game" and "Daedalus."

STETSASONIC

Blood, Sweat & No Tears

(Tommy Boy, 1747 First Ave., New York, NY 10128/212-722-2211)

While it seems like every rap group around has a story about being around "back in the day," being the best, the first and so on, Stetsasonic is truly a groundbreaking unit—a hip-hop band combining live drumming and samples, and fighting apartheid with the A.F.R.I.C.A. project. After a long hiatus, with side projects galore from mixmaster Prince Paul and rapper Daddy-O, Stet has finally hit with a third LP, Blood, Sweat & No Tears, which should give them the critical and commercial recognition that has for so long eluded them. With the departure of Fruitkwan, the posse's lineup goes like this: MCs Wise, Daddy-O and Delite; DJ Prince Paul; sampler D.B.C.; and drummer Bobby "The Eye" Simmons. Simmons' live drum work supplements the samples by giving the music a harder-edged kick, especially on the go-go party tune "So Let The Fun Begin." The Brooklyn/Long Island outfit uses its smarts to great effect, mixing so many musical and lyrical ideas that it'll make your head spin: There's cookin' funk ("Hip Hip Band," "Go Brooklyn 3"), hilarious Prince Paul wizardry ("Uda Man," "Paul's A Sucker"), hardcore old-style rap (title track), heavy messages ("No B.S. Allowed," "To Whom It May Concern" and the Norman Cook update to "Free South Africa") and even a gooey ballad ("Walkin' In The Rain"). There's 17 songs, without a clunker in the batch, so let's hope this will be the LP to give Stet the Black Belt they so deserve.

JESUS JONES

Doubt

(Food, c/o SBK, 1290 Ave. of the Americas, New York, NY 10104)

"Right here, right now/Watching the world wake up from history," goes the refrain from the Joneses' second SBK LP in the last seven months, and their ironic lyrics (in light of recent goings-on) are only one facet of many that make this effort leagues beyond their debut, Liquidizer. Like the little devil that graces the album jacket, Mark Edwards leads his merry quintet into territories hitherto passed up by the band: sing-along melodies ("Right Here, Right Now"), mainly straight-faced club beats (Phil Harding mixing "International Bright Young Thing" and "Real, Real, Real"), acoustics and brass ("Welcome Back Victoria" and "Right Here..." respectively) and Eastern melodies (throughout the first few tracks). Despite all the mentioned additions, Edwards retains his emotional, nasal delivery and much of the music still has that distinctly British fuzzed-out hip-hop appeal with sirens wailing and found sounds chirping. "Stripped," for example, sounds like the psychedelic-era Beatles playing in a jungle with gunfire and a b-boy beat coming through on short-wave radio. Slightly wacked, slightly funky and thoroughly curious—the second coming is even better than the first. Our favorite noise thrills: "Right Here, Right Now" (by far), "Blissed" and all of the aforementioned.

BLUE RODEO

Casino

(East West America, 75 Rockefeller Plaza, New York, NY 10019)

East West is under the WEA umbrella around the globe, and the label makes its U.S. debut with the third release from Toronto's Blue Rodeo. With nods ranging from Dylan to Elvis Costello, this Canadian fivesome draw from many sources—country acoustic strumming, rockabilly bar-band energy, blues electric guitar/bass phrasing—for a sound that is remarkably cohesive considering the diversity of its parts. Led by two singer/songwriters, Jim Cuddy and Greg Keelor, who combine for harmonies that'll take you back to the two-part heyday of the '60s and '70s, Blue Rodeo harkens back to simpler musical times without resorting to overt sentimentality or hippie nostalgia. Keyboardist Bob Wiseman (whose solo album clued us in to his special genius) provides some eerie Hammond B-3 consonance, as well as an NRBQ-meets-Doors solo here and there. The organ elevates the band's sound to a Beatlesque psychedelic halo (the spiraling "Two Tongues"), then scales back to a piano and a delicate pop sound two songs down the line—Blue Rodeo keeps their barroom roots and infuse enough maturity to know where they are now. It is all tied together by producer Pete Anderson (Dwight Yoakam, Michelle Shocked, Jackson Browne) with a ribbon that is loose enough to not strangle but tight enough to keep the pieces from falling out. Besides the aforementioned track, also bet the house on these Casino tables: "Til I Am Myself Again," "5 A.M. (A Love Song)," "What Am I Doing Here" and "Time."

CHAGALL GUEVARA Chagall Guevara (MCA, 70 Universal City Plaza, Universal City, CA 91608)—Every once in a while, a new band comes along whose sound is so instantly fresh, innovative and distinctive, it defies easy pigeonholing or labeling, and causes its exact origins and influences to remain a bit of a boggle to new observers and listeners. Throughout the years, Nashville has had an unassuming but serious reputation as the home of great rock guitar bands; well, add Chagall Guevara to the ranks. Their music is chock full of things that just about everybody likes a whole lot (bristling guitars, instant hooks, lyrical twists), but there's still a nagging element that's delightfully difficult to pin down. Using the guitar like a light pen, they etch out lines of melody or shade in large jagged regions of guitar explorations, reminiscent of classic guitar-based sounds like the Byrds or Television, while remaining equally current as a challenge to latter-day 16-string ensembles like Ride or even Teenage Fanclub. Top Cuts: "Murder In The Big House," "Violent Blue" (also on Certain Damage Vol. 32), "Escher's World," "Love Is A Dead Language" and "If It All Comes True."

CHARLIE HADEN AND THE LIBERATION MUSIC ORCHESTRA Dream Keeper (Blue Note, c/o Capital, 1750 N. Vine St., Hollywood, CA 90028)—Charlie Haden and Abdullah Ibrahim are two composers who are able to capture the harsh reality of a socio-political situation and convey it in their music with utter eloquence, passion and power. Dream Keeper was inspired by Langston Hughes' collection of poems, The Dream Keeper and Other Poems, which relate moving and liberating statements against racism. All five compositions were masterfully arranged by Carla Bley, with the exception of "Rabo De Nube" (written by Cuban composer Silvio Rodriguez), which was arranged by Karen Mantler. In their many years of musical collaborations, Bley and Haden have developed a thorough understanding of each other's musical intuition, clearly evident by how breathtakingly the music is laid out. Charlie Haden's rendition of "Nkosi Sikeleli Afrika"—the anthem of the African National Congress—is truly mesmerizing. The list of names in the Liberation Music Orchestra will give you an idea what this music carries: Paul Motian, Joe Lovano, Dewey Redman, Mick Goodrick, Tom Harrell, Don Alias and Branford Marsalis, just to name a few. Not one note is wasted here—it's just succinct solos, a swinging rhythm section when need be. All in all, a perfect performance.

CANNANES A Love Affair With Nature (Feel Good All Over, P.O. Box 8428, Chicago, IL 60614/312-486-2594)—The bio says that this album "will fit in with the better Flying Nun pop or Go-Betweens or something like that," which is something like what we were going to say anyway. This Australian trio writes great little pop songs about nothing in particular, and do so simply and elegantly. Like American kin Beat Happening, each band member contributes some lead vocals, making for a personal journey into the lives of some Australian friends whom we've never met, telling us all about their parties and heartaches. "Take Me To The Hotel Johanna (And Let's Trash The Joint)" recalls early Verlaines, with Stephen O'Neill's pained vocals at the center and a wavering violin weaving its way throughout. The Bats also come to mind, due to the songs' frail melodies and their undercurrent of anguish despite rather jaunty beats. But don't start thinking the Cannanes are redundant because they fit into a structure of existing bands—it's no accident that the Cannanes' songs are so powerful. When Stephen sings a line like "The best memories in my collection are moments of shared deception" over a tense, rhythmic backbeat, his pain ripples down your spine. Other excellent cuts: "Nuisance," "Seatbelt," "Paper Bag" and "Vivienne."

AZALIA SNAIL Snailbait (Albertine, P.O. Box 154, Vauxhall, NJ 07088/201-798-2745)—If there was a group of Deadheads who were into do-it-yourself indie rock and were crazy enough to live in New York City, they'd probably be jamming with Azalia Snail and recording with her on a four-track in her apartment. Since she couldn't find any Deadheads with such spaced-out notions, Azalia gathered a few talented friends who can play instruments like zither, kalimba and flute, and recorded an album herself. Snailbait is a rebellion against the oppressive trappings of modern life. (Where is the time for exploring your inner self and creating beautiful things?) Azalia's concoctions work best on the sparse numbers where her delicate guitar-playing and ethereal voice recall tearly Felt compositions, as on "Azalia Bloom #16" and "Hiss & Crackle," and when biting electric power chords foist a new dimension into her beautiful songs, as on "Another Slave Labour Day." "Baby Brother," a duet with King Missile's John S. Hall, is a choice radio pick, with its catchy little riff and swooning vocals. There is a positive force that flows through Snailbait and reaches out to its listeners; it reaffirms one's faith in the individual's ability to construct a meaningful piece of work from his or her inner conflicts and resolve some of that angst through its creation.

JUDYBATS Native Son (Sire, c/o Warner Bros., 3300 Warner Blvd., Burbank, CA 91505)—They say bats fly better at night. The Judybats, however, seem to fly strong at all times of the day, using their own brand of radar to translate their passages into songs that we can all sink our fangs into. Roosting in Knoxville, TN, this flock of six mix a little folk, a little jangle, a little sweet pop and a little mid-'80s new wave in a manner that avoids the stereotypes of any one ingredient, coming across in spots like a lighter, dreamier Damned. The vocals of Jeff Heiskell, though toyed with production-wise, give a similar kind of aural perception as the Dream Academy's Nick Laird-Clowes, with a hint of Gothic at the edges. The chimerical harmonies push the songs on Native Son, their major-label debut, beyond the standard musical dimension and into mesospheric heights—angelic female highs are countered with a deep, almost spoken-word low for a magnetizing effect. The lush production of Richard Gottelrher (Joan Armatrading, Go-Go's) harvests some interesting keyboard and violin sounds—sounds that push the "Bats into a genus of their own as they float through these 12 songs. Check out: "Native Son," "She Lives" (which appeared on the Roky Erickson tribute album, Where The Pyramid Meets The Eye), "Convalescing In Spain," "Waiting For The Rain" and "Wanted Man."

CHEMISTRY SET Wake Up Sometime! (EP) (Romilar-D, Ferraz 33, 4 SA-28008, Madrid, Spain)—Not at all to be confused with the Seattle-headquartered group (the two even sound faintly similar, though we hazard to say the U.S.-ers have been around a bit longer), this Set's of English stock, and unfurls a droll brand of psychedelia on a debut of nine songs. Hurdy-gurdy rhythms and calliope guitar are the basic elements of the Chemistry Set, their songs definitely dosed with paisley potion, but also with a melodic spryness more reminiscent of an early-'60s power-pop phenomenon. There is more Lemonpipers and Left Banke than Seeds or Troggs, with the grandiosely prissy moments from De Capo tossed in (which would be obvious even if they didn't include "A House Is Not A Motel" from Love's Forever Changes); the Set has enough instrumental substance to keep such light and froth from falling flat. Chemistry Set is best when they get all frilly and silly, as on the above song, "A Dream Of Murder" and "I'm All Of The Time."

VARIOUS ARTISTS Lazy Loud & Liqueur'd Up: The San Francisco Alternative Country Compilation (Shindig, 1300 Page St., #4, San Francisco, CA 94117/415-864-3811)—Though you might notta thunk it right off the bat, there's actually lots of great country musicians who have made their homes on the ranges of hills like the Twin Peaks or Mt. Sutro around the Bay Area, rustlin' their doggies through the pass across the Golden Gate Bridge and over into Berkeley, or shootin' it up at the saloons and watering holes down in the Haight and Mission districts. While broadening the definition to include folksy and rockabilly twangs and tinges, this compilation of undersung Bay Area performers will hopefully bring this fertile and vibrant scene greater renown. It's nice to know that nestled away amidst the nose-pierced vegetarians in black leather motorcycle jackets, and faded hippies bumming change and cigarettes on the Golden Gate panhandle, you can still find a tavern or two with gentlemen wearing Stetsons and gals in gaucho-embroidered shirts singin' and strummin' or settin' behind a pedal steel. Hopefully, when all's said and done, this comp will help shine a little more light on these performers than the dim beer lights and campfireside glow that these musicians have hithertofore been wallowing in. With highlights from Buck Naked And The Bare Bottom Boys, Flophouse, the Wannabe Texans and former Futures faves the Easy Hoes, you really can't lose when you draw from this stacked deck of new countryfied talent. Ace.

BARBARA DENNERLEIN Hot Stuff (Enja, c/o Mesa/Bluemoon, 209 E. Alameda Ave., Suite 101, Burbank, CA 91502)—That Barbara Dennerlein can play was thoroughly evident on her debut release for Enja, Straight Ahead. On Hot Stuff, we see what a great musician Barbara Dennerlein truly is. This time around Barbara covers more musical ground than on her debut: from jazz to blues, and places in between. Many artists, when covering too much territory, seem to lose themselves along the way. Dennerlein is able to stay focused throughout Hot Stuff due, in part, to her powerful and skillful writing, and she allows the musicians to breathe and stretch. Let's not forget the musicians accompanying her: drummer Mark Mondesir (Courtney Pine), guitarist Mitch Watkins and tenorist Andy Sheppard. Having digested plenty of Jimmy Smith and Larry Young, Dennerlein clearly possesses a distinct voice within the Hammond B3 tradition—no easy task, to be sure. Mondesir's powerful drum chops coupled with Dennerlein's extremely fluid foot bass pedal work is one of the many highlights within this album. Andy Sheppard's tenor aptly flexes with the different moods of the album. Most of the tracks are Dennerlein originals with the exception of two covers, Benny Golson's "Killer Joe" and Miles Davis/Victor Feldman's "Seven Steps To Heaven" (CD only). Highlights include the title track with its varying themes and the very groovin' "Wow."

JACKPOT EXTRA!

SEAWEED "Deertrap" (7") (K, P.O. Box 7154, Olympia, WA 98501/206-786-1594)—The word pop doesn't normally jump to mind when describing Seaweed, but that's just because of the over-amped guitars and the raspy screams. "Deertrap" is full of interesting cadences and catchy, comfortingly familiar, smooth melodies. "Carousel" has bouncing rhythms and interacting guitar and vocal lines. Seaweed crush the idea of pop by adding bold accents, not forgetting to move quickly along a string of musical ideas, slowing only to smooth the edges.

GIRL TROUBLE "Cleopatra And The Slaves" (7") (Wig Out, P.O. Box 44633, Tacoma, WA 98444)—Released on their own label, Girl Trouble varoom with two covers (Captain Beefheart's "Who Do You Think You're Foolin'" and the Collins Kids' "Mercy") along with an original, all of which exemplify the massive talents of this established groove quartet from Tacoma. K. P. Kendell's vocal chords quiver in a vibrado reminiscent of Johnny Cash or Elvis, then jump into a head-first yodel. This single makes you ride off into the sunset with Roy Rogers, but reality is better than fiction.

PLEASURE FUCKERS "Get Away" (7") (Sympathy For The Record Industry, 4901 Virginia Ave., Long Beach, CA 90805/213-423-0281)—From Madrid, Spain, this band mixes twangin' metallic guitars, whorlin' bass and brassy drums into a jumpy p-rock ensemble. Kike Turmix on semi-English vocals leads the P-Fucks in kicking out the jams. Basic production lends to the raw sound which enhances the bump 'n grind extravaganza, "The Saint," complete with '60s biker movie sleeze.

PASTELS "Different Drum" (7") (K, P.O. Box 7154, Olympia, WA 98507/206-786-1594)—Wherein the Pastels continue their supreme anorak pop with a cover of Monkee Mike Nesmith's anti-love song, "Different Drum," also recently done by the Lemonheads. Highlights of this version include poppy banjo picking, dreamy organ bits and Stephen and Bernice's not-quite-whiny singing. The flip is a spunked-up version of an old B-side, "Empty House," with a frenzy of sloppy power chords, train-track cloppety-clop drum beats, organ swirls, Bernice's droning "yeah, yeah, yeah"s and Stephen's heart-wrenching proclamation "My life is like an empty house."

SMASHING PUMPKINS "Tristessa" (7") (Sub Pop, P.O. Box 20645, Seattle, WA 98102/206-441-8650)—Second vinyl thingy from this Chicago band, who're still wet behind the ears but already bigger (-sounding) than most bands' boots and have an LP ready to go for Caroline this spring. The flip side is an opulent, Opal-esque sad-faced ballad, and the A-side is a grinding drawled-out lascivious rocker that reeks of Soundgarden Syndrome, but with a chisel-sharp pop aesthetic to make that OK.

HARD-ONS "Where Did She Come From" (7") (Waterfront, c/o Sub Pop, P.O. Box 20645, Seattle, WA 98102/206-441-8650)—The Hard-Ons, all three of them, vociferously worship All, but wethinks it might as well be the way around. Ostensibly these are Dickcheese excerpts, but both sides ("Get Out Of My House" is the B) sparkle more distinctly here than we remember and once again verify the Ons' spot at the top of the Aussie singles heap, hearty Ramones' riffs, barbell guitar sound, sticky-sweet three-part harmonies and all.

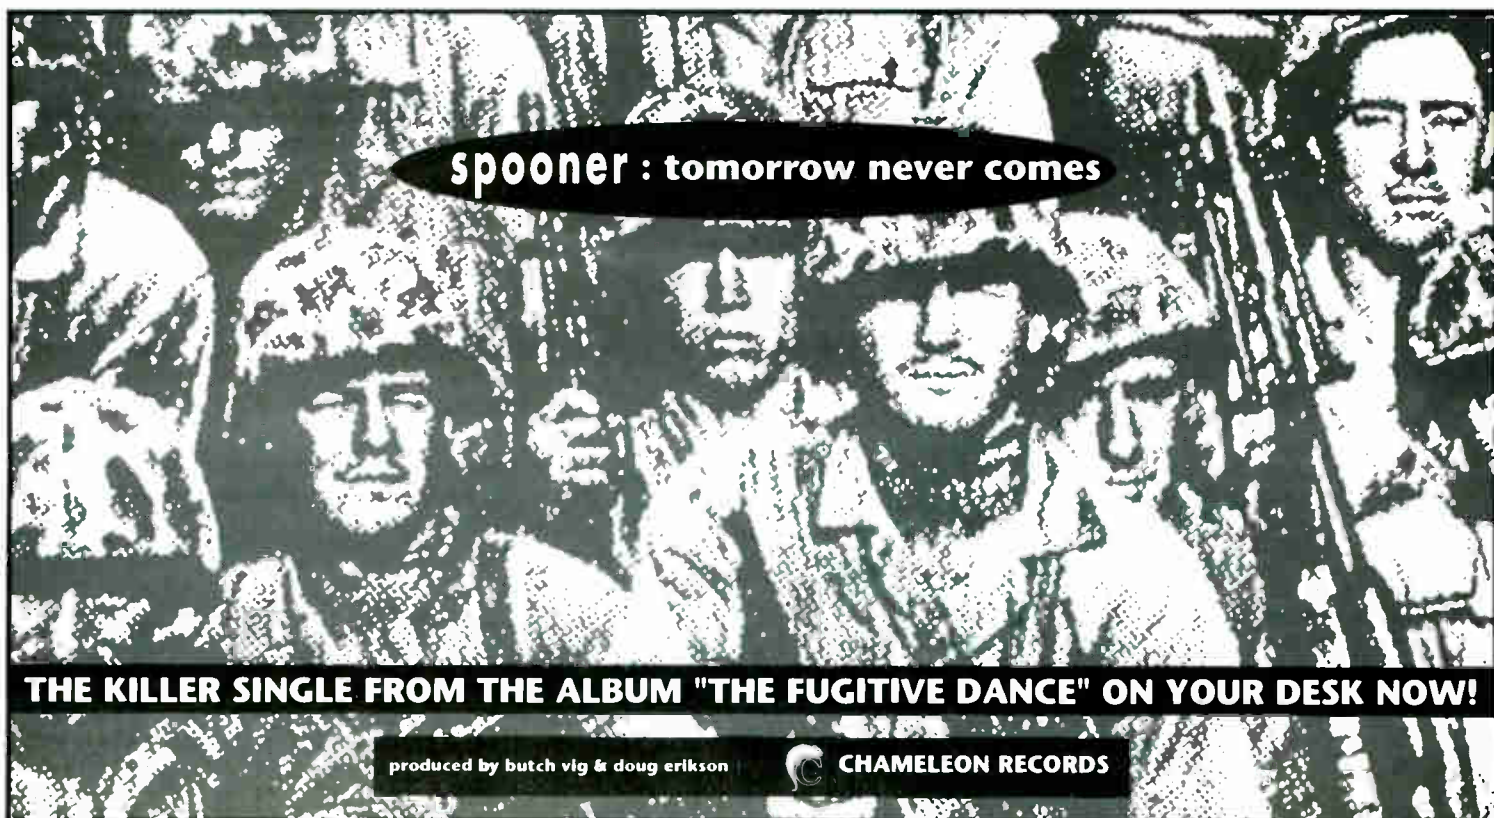

MUMMIES "Out Of Our Tree" (7") (Estrus, P.O. Box 2125, Bellingham, WA 98227/206-647-1187)—Don't let the scary costumes fool you—this Bay Area based band is serious rock music for the unsuspecting populus. Following a self-released single, they continue to worship the fuzzbox-retro-shimmy-shimmy-boom-groovy-rock-me bands of the '50s and '60s along with the likes of Billy Childish, Cynics and Yard Trauma. Annette and Frankie surf in on the B-side as the Mummies bang out their version of the essential "Tall Cool One." Ladies and gentlemen, the completely ruling Mummies are a power to be reckoned with, we assure you.

PIGFACE Spoon Breakfast (12") (Invisible, P.O. Box 268795, Chicago, IL 60626/312-764-2838)—A band with more stars than you can squint at in the Manhattan sky (various and sundry from Ministry, PiL, RevCo, Skinny Puppy, NIN and in a class by himself, David Yow), "Tonight's The Night (Little Sister)" bears a startling resemblance to an old Tones On Tail song, but of course with an extra row of teeth. The remaining three remixes are more like fallout from an Adrian Sherwood/Einsturzende Neubauten collision, strung-out rambling dubs that don't match up to the bounciness of the A cut.

GRIFTERS "Disfigurehead" (7" EP) (dOINK, 1572 Overton Park #11, Memphis, TN 38112/901-725-0644)—"That was fuckin' weird," claims a band member at the end of "Need You," which isn't a bad way to describe the four musically diverse gifts on this nifty slab. Mixing acoustic guitars and melodic whispers with stretching bass strings and confused screams, the Grifters are aggressive and, more importantly, unpretentious. "How Long" has a great musical interlude where the bass pounds as the guitar screams tiny high-pitches that induce goose pimples.

SEX CLARK FIVE "Ketchup If You Can" (7") (Records To Russia, 1207 Big Cove Rd., Huntsville AL, 35801)—If you thought of Huntsville's SC5 as somewhat like a cross between Meet The Beatles and Tyrannosaurus Rex before Marc Bolan picked up an electric guitar, your ears are due for a twist: "Ketchup If You Can" is a weird, thrashy, Beefheart-jams-with-Neubauten romp through a garden of feedback delights. The real find here, though, are the three shining gems of glorious SC5 helium-pop dementia. Four songs, eleven minutes, pure joy.

AMATEURS Backslide (Romilar-D, Ferraz 33, 4 5A-28008, Madrid, Spain)—The Amateurs have had a previous record, but that didn't even get noticed in their native Spain, and anyway, decent Spanish bands don't wash up on the turntables here very often, so we'll exempt them and start with this, "a new album that was like an introduction for wider audiences." You don't have to be wide to like this, and you don't have to like Mano Negra either, because the Amateurs excel at guitar-steady basic barspew rock, and evidently adore the kind of raggedly uplifting choruses and melodic-yet-hammering formula that's all over college radio like fleas on beagles. The happiest selections of the Amateurs (the ones that leave us curious about their non-wide sound) are when they pocket the best licks from late-era pub rock, with Eddie And The Hot Rods and Chris Spedding getting their gritty, heartfelt due. The band also does a pretty dandy Died Pretty imitation ("My Back To The Wall"), and the guitar work of Jose Andreu and Miguel Fuentes is never less than propulsive and only occasionally too derivative. The live side of the record is up to snuff with—sound-and spirit-wise—anything put on tape by more familiar upstart beer-swilling young bucks, and the chunkiest cuts on side 1 are "Jeffrey's Fever" and "Monster's Track."

hints of paisleyed guitar flourishes that point to earlier, more mystical times (Younger Than Yesterday, Forever Changes) mingled with rumbling basslines, the LP displays a sophisticated attention to the details of the work—like the broad, roaming arrangements and subtle embellishments from piano and strings—that betrays an incredible sense of craft. Swing Set will either go far and prosper, or they'll still be one of those unknown but beautiful and wondrous pet bands who make some of the world's most magical and riveting music. . . . Feeling gravity's. . . . It's no secret that we here at CMJ love Wilmington, Delaware, and hail it as the great unsung music mecca of these United States. What might not be so well known are some of the great bands that are emerging from that metropolis' teeming underground scene, and one such band would have to be THE PULL (c/o Ivanitch, 2704 W. 5th St., Wilmington, DE 19805/302-428-1371). With loads of bright, clear melodies and ringing guitars, and a set of singers who play complex games of Stipe-y stumble-y-mumble (that kind of vocal interplay where the background singers sound like they're in a completely different song altogether), The Pull rummages through the bins at Lydia's boyfriend's record store and pulls out references to albums like Reckoning, Oh-OK, or even Spiral Jetty's oft-overlooked Dogstar LP. —D.I.Y.

F.Y.I.

It's really fun if you twist the chains up and then spin around real fast as they unwind. . . . In a dramatic presentation complete with fold-out CD J-card with complete lyrics and almost Factory-esque graphics, SWING SET bursts forth in full flower on their debut, The Soul Remains (Blackberry Way, 606 13th Ave. S.E., Minneapolis, MN 55414/612-378-2466). With

Meet The Faces Behind Most Medical Advances.

There are a lot of doctors and researchers out there who deserve credit for society's medical achievements. But the fact is, they'll have to share the credit. Because before any medical project can break new ground, it has to get off the ground. And that takes money. We urge you to contribute to the hospital of your choice. Your help could mean a solution to many of today's most pressing medical concerns. The first of which is, quite frankly, funding.

JACKPOT!

ONLY ONES Special View (Epic, P.O. Box 4450, New York, NY 10101-4450)—"Post-Modern Pioneers" is the awful name of this particular reissue series (we'd have preferred "Records That Trouser Press Really Liked") from CBS, er, Sony, and while there are more than a few who-really-cares in the batch (Artful Dodger?), the Only Ones' Special View by no means falls into that unfortunate category. Led by the affecting whine of singer/songwriter Peter Perrett, the Only Ones turned out a sizable chunk of superior Brit guitar-pop singles and LPs, beginning in 1978 with their self-titled debut (their best), followed by Even Serpents Shine in 1979 and Baby's Got A Gun in 1980. Special View was their first U.S. release, a collection of tracks from their first two records, along with their debut single. Hopefully you're already familiar with "Another Girl, Another Planet" (the Replacements covered it for years), a genuine new wave classic that's as transfixing now as it was when liking the Only Ones and the Buzzcocks and the Heartbreakers meant that you were into that "punk rock shit" (we kid you not). And while popular history has so far relegated the Only Ones to one-hit wonder obscurity (cultists excluded), Perrett's winsome melodies and Ray Davies-like romanticism clearly cast them in a much more meaningful light, as bands such as the Pastels and Perfect Disaster have reflected. "Peter And The Pets," "Someone Who Cares," "The Whole Of The Law" and especially the beautiful "Out There In The Night" more than secure Perrett and Co. a warm place in our hearts.

BEAT HAPPENING

BEAT HAPPENING 1983-85 (K, c/o Feel Good All Over, P.O. Box 8428, Chicago, IL 60614/312-486-2594)—Beat Happening, the premier minimalist indie-rock band, helped start a punk rock revolution by distilling pop music into its purest elements and abandoning all traditional rock 'n roll pretenses for a childish love of melody and rhythm. BH's simplistic approach bleeds into their lyrics and singing style as well, showing that complex feelings can be expressed with the most rudimentary tools and techniques. The 26-track 1983-85 chronicles the earliest, most primal works of Beat Happening, including the first self-titled album, the Three Tea Breakfast cassette, an early 7" (the lovely "Our Secret"), various compilation tracks and some unreleased material. Some songs were recorded at home, defining their lo-fi sound—bongos, charmingly out-of-tune guitar and BH's trademark boy/girl vocals. Heather's dreamy voice has the sweetness of a babysitter reading a story to a child, while Calvin's deep voice and spoken style can be cute, sultry or downright evil. What Beat Happening lacks in musical prowess and technical aptitude, especially on their early recordings, they make up for with a sincerity and intellect, creating pop music that's both immediate and lasting. The poorly recorded live version of "Bad Seeds" surpasses the tamer, Greg Sage-produced version due to the grunge, nay badness present in the air. The primitive recording of "Down At The Sea," where Calvin teaches Heather the vocal parts, is a good chuckle but not nearly as good as the surfy version earlier on. Other rock 'n roll beat poems to savor: "Our Secret," "I Love You," "Primitives," "I Spy," "Foggy Eyes," "Run Down The Stairs" and "In Love With You Thing."

KEN NORDINE The Best Of Word Jazz, Vol. 1 (Rhino, 2225 Colorado Ave., Santa Monica, CA 90409-3555)—When you hear his voice, chances are you'll recognize it, but you probably won't be able to pin down where; Ken Nordine has done literally thousands—possibly millions—of professional voiceovers for commercials, radio spots, documentaries and the like. The question then arises: What does a well-groomed bespectacled man who, throughout the '50s, '60s, '70s and '80s, was the voice of products like Miller Beer, Taster's Choice and Chevrolet, do in his spare time? When Ken Nordine's beatnik sense of poetry and absurdity collides with bebop and beyond, the results are simply, word jazz. Backed by scatty jazz from an assortment of cool '50s session boppers (apocryphal fact: Richard Marx's dad played on several of these sessions), Nordine recites—or rather, performs—his word jazz pieces, odd fragmentary anecdotes of howling hipsterisms and suave beat philosophy. Culled from several much-sought-after LPs from the late '50s, at his most way-out, Nordine's talents are well on the far side of genius, as "My Baby," "Looks Like It's Going To Rain," "Bury It Yourself Time Capsules," "Faces In The Jazzamatazz," "The Sound Museum," "Flibberty Jib," "Hunger Is From" and "Adult Kindergarten" attest. Don't be a square—check out this recording. Word up.

MARTIN DENNY Exotica: The Best Of Martin Denny (Rhino, 2225 Colorado Ave., Santa Monica, CA 90404-3555)—We know what you're thinking, and at first we thought the same thing: Who is this rather portly, congenial-looking middle-aged man in spiffy white tropical garb, bopping away on exotically sculpted tribal drums with his multi-national backup band rattling gourds, plinking banjos and gently caressing the vibes behind him? Well, he's Martin Denny, and for those unfamiliar with his curious blend of jazz, Polynesian sway, Afro-Cuban rhythms and the caw-caw cries of jungle birds, the discovery of his music (which he defined as

Column coordinated by Craig Marks

"exotica") is as bold as one's first meeting with a torchlit village full of friendly natives in swaying grass skirts surrounded by mysterious clay idols. What's interesting about Denny's music is how he puts together disparate elements that don't obviously fit, like a Bugs Bunny cartoon incorporates sound effects that don't always quite match the r tions on screen (eg. a coyote falling off a cliff sounds like a dive bomber). Similarly, Denn, incorporates stuff into his exotica that not only isn't Hawaiian, but logically shouldn't be there at all, like Chinese gongs, Cuban rhythms or hollow Peruvian flutes. Anything's fair game in Denny's world of exotic and romantic backdrops for mystery and tropical intrigue. Turn down the tiki lights and get romantic with "Quiet Village," "When First I Love," "Love Dance" or thrill to "Bangkok Cockfight," "Caravan" or "Stone God." (Helpful hint: The cuts with the most bird noises are also usually the best.)

BLIND WILLIE JOHNSON Sweeter As The Years Go By (Yazoo, P.O. Box 810, Newton, NJ 07680/201-579-7763)—Among the legends of early blues guitar like Robert Johnson, Big Bill Broonzy and Mississippi Fred McDowell, Blind Willie Johnson fits in as a true pioneer and legend in the form. Many of the most famous of Johnson's emotive, spellbinding slide blues are compiled on Yazoo's Praise God I'm Satisfied album; these 16 titles comprise the remainder of Johnson's seminal 1928-31 recordings. Straddling the line between gospel and blues, Johnson alternated between secular and spiritual matters with ease; only his slide guitar technique and gruff bass vocals remained consistent and marked him as one of the most revered and easily recognizable stylists of the blues' early recorded history. With simple and austere female vocals (often provided by his wife Angeline) augmenting his charcoal-hued voice, Johnson's gospel-tinged blues are as highly regarded and instantly recognized as any of his contemporaries such as Leadbelly or Memphis Minnie. Although sometimes lacking the pristine, chilling remastered quality of recent blues reissues (the Columbia Roots N' Blues series stands out), it's difficult to criticize the audio quality of recordings made long before the advent of magnetic tape, and we'll take the occasional crackles and pops just the way they are on tunes like "Let Your Light Shine On Me," "Lord, I Just Can't Keep from Crying" or the exquisite "John The Revelator" (which, believe it or not, Michael Stipe often sang in a raggedy a capella version during lulls in early R.E.M. sets).

Many of the releases reviewed in Flashback can be ordered through Midnight Records. For a free catalog, write to 255 W. 23rd St., New York, NY 10011 or phone 212-675-2768.

Chart information is based on combined airplay of reporting commercial and college/non-commercial radio stations. Statistics are compiled from point totals tabulated from positions (1-35) of artists on airplay reports, then multiplied by station code factor (based upon programming, market size and market impact). BOLD indicates a significant increase in airplay. #1-5: equal or upward position; #6-10: increase of at least 1; #11-20: increase of 2 or more; #21-30: 3 or more... PEAK column represents highest chart position to date.

Lush

Happy Mondays

CHART TALK

Column by Mark Glaser

Hollow Men: Brushing up on Top 30

Hearing Footsteps?: Though the Charlatans UK hold down the top spot for the 11th consecutive week, their pursuers are definitely closing in. Lush (4-3-2) and Happy Mondays (5-4-3) have been inching up a slot per week and Lush seems about to dethrone our Mancunian heroes. The Mondays have the strongest support in the Midwest (#2), while Lush has its greatest strength in the East (#2); both projects could use follow-up singles or tours for added pushes. Meanwhile, Meat Beat Manifesto climbs into the Top 10 (11-7), giving Elektra three artists in the top seven. Buffalo Tom (#9) remains the only American group in the Top 10, not including some of Red Hot + Blue (#5).

Meat Beat Manifesto: 99th percentile on chart

Pop Goes The Grebos: The #1 Breakthrough this week goes to last week's cover darlings, RCA's Pop Will Eat Itself (#11 debut); their fourth and best LP nabs the #2 Adventure Pick and an excellent #5 showing in the East regional. Look for PWEL and Sire-Reprise's Ride (16-12), Island's Drivin' N' Cryin' (29-15), Beggars-RCA's Daniel Ash (18-16) and A&M's unavoidable Sting (#22 debut; #2 Breakthrough) to make runs at the Top 10 next week.

How Many Brits Can You Fit on a Chart?: Yet another British dance/rock hybrid (another good one, it should be noted) storms the Top 150, and this time it's Arista's Hollow Men (103-30), who grab the #1 Adventure Pick for the second straight week. Bucking the limey trend are Athens, GA's Chickasaw Mudd Puppies (#43 debut), who get the #3 Adventure Pick from programmers; their last LP, White Dirt, peaked at #83, so they've already far surpassed that in their first week on the chart. Their special appearance/performance at CMJ resulted in an all-out munchfest for the CMJ staff and a great interview coming soon to the News section.

Charlatans UK: Not another bloody #1!

Acceleration of Independents: While Wax Trax's KMFDM is the highest-charting indie release (#10; #2 in the West!), the highest upward-moving indie is Relativity's They Eat Their Own (37-29), a project that seems to have nine-and-a-half lives. The highest indie debut goes to Twin/Tone's god-like Ween (#96; #7 Breakthrough), who finally have landed after a long-delayed release date—well worth the wait. Other independent movers include Shimmy-Disc's Rutles Highway Revisited covers-of-a-parody-band comp (101-90), Sky's Children (#98 debut), Skylad's Psychotic Youth (#102 re-entry), Earache-Combat's Godflesh (#111 debut) and Amazing Black Sand's Giant Sand (#143 debut).

Incoming!: Eleventh Dream Day, Chagall Guevara, Stetsasonic, Jesus Jones, Jesus Lizard, Leaving Trains, Manchester—So Much To Answer For and Nova Mob.

PROGRESSIVE RETAIL

Chart compiled by Lydia Anderson

ON THE CHART

Still not much action up at the top of the chart—just minor shifts to maintain the balance of power. But with the release of Sting's The Soul Cages, we can expect that to change.

Upward movement has mostly come to those that have seen it before. Mute-Elektra's Manc band, Inspiral Carpets, jumps 45-28, Sire-Reprise's Replacements scoot up 37-30, Columbia's infectious C & C Music Factory climb 49-36, Virgin's Iggy Pop builds 59-37, Reprise's Neil Young & Crazy Horse rides up 63-38 (how 'bout that tour with Sonic Youth?!), and Arista's Urban Dance Squad shimmy up 50-39 with MTV support behind them.

Debuts this week are all quite notable, starting with WB's David Lee Roth at #27 and Def Jam/RAL-Columbia's EPMD at #34. Further down there's Tommy Boy's new Digital Underground EP at #48, A&M's Sting at #54 (primarily on the strength of the single), Reprise's Dream Academy at #60, Wing/Mercury-PG's Chickasaw Mudd Puppies thunderin' stomp at #61 and Relativity's They Eat Their Own at #64.

Be on the lookout for the new Daniel Ash LP on Beggars-RCA (single debuts at #74), Epic's mighty Screaming Trees and masterful Front 242, and Reprise's B-52's re-release.

Exciting new trend this issue is the local indie 7" taking the #1 spot at four stores! Rockville's Uncle Tupelo scores at Euclid in St. Louis; Smashing Orange on Ringer's Lactate took the top spot at Bert's in Wilmington, DE; Touch And Go's Didjits top the chart at Reckless in Chicago; and the Minneapolis four-band compilation Cowboy Tea Show (a 10", actually) on Rocket Sound sits pretty at Oarfolk Jokeopus. CMJ COUNTRY

JACKPOT!

MARTY STUART Tempted (MCA, 70 Universal City Plaza, Universal City, CA 91608)

Hot on the heels of the super successful Hillbilly Rock, Marty Stuart serves up Tempted, a hot set of rockin' country tunes sprinkled with a couple of ballads that are heartfelt yet not wimpy. Stuart is part of the group of artists that are updating the traditional sounds of country, keeping hillbilly alive and evolving, yet remaining true to the spirit of Hank Williams and Ernest Tubb. Listening to Tempted, one is reminded of the first records made by Steve Earle—there's lot's of ringing guitars, some exquisite pedal steel and fiddle work and a walloping back beat. When you check the credits to see the supporting all-star cast that includes John Jarvis, Harry Stinson and Mark O'Connor and with the fine production touches of Richard Bennett and Tony Brown, you realize why. This is basically the same group that worked with Earle on his records, and they sure know how to make smart country records with a solid helping of rock 'n roll thrown in. The songwriters represented on Tempted are an amazingly diverse bunch; Stuart wrote with some of today's finest, and yesterday's best are represented as well. The stand-out tracks include "Little Things," co-written by Paul Kennerley and Stuart, the Bill Monroe/Hank Williams-penned "I'm Blue, I'm Lonesome," Neil Young's "Get Back To The Country" and a wonderful old Eddie Miller song, "Burn Me Down."

CHICKASAW MUDD PUPPIES

8 Track Stomp (Wing/Mercury, c/o PolyGram, 825 Eighth Ave., New York, NY 10019)—On their second LP, 8 Track Stomp, the Mudd Puppies continue their stompin' and hollerin', and while the sound is still raw, the atmosphere created is not as otherworldly as

White Dirt. Call it growth, or perhaps the influence of producers Willie Dixon and Michael Stipe—not an odd combination, once you think about it—some of the tunes here, notably "Do You Remember" and "Moving So Fast," have a positive smoothness that will surely win over a broader audience. This is not to say that they've compromised their sound or sold out. Overall, listening to 8 Track Stomp is akin to listening to a couple of sun-burnt rebels who are standing by the side of the road passing the jug around, pickin' out the blues, while scraping on the washboard and wailing on the mouth harp. If that sounds like your idea of a good time (it sure sounds fun to me), get down and dirty with these little dittys: "Jambalaya," "Omaha" and Willie Dixon's classic "Night Time."

NASHVILLE'S NEW BREED

Despite radio's general indifference, there's still a real ground-swell of fine new talent coming out of Nashville. The fact that college radio is ignoring these artists is bad enough, but the programmers at country radio are saying there's too many new artists and they can't possibly play them all, probably because they're too busy playing 10-year-old songs by Ronnie Milsap and Crystal Gayle. All of this babbling is leading into me twisting your arm to check out a couple of fine new singer/songwriters with distinct takes on today's country.

AARON TIPPEN is a hillbilly from South Carolina with a twangy voice and a knack for writing tunes with a traditional sound. His debut, You've Got To Stand for Something (RCA, 1 Music Circle North, Nashville, TN 37203) shows an adeptness for turning a phrase, and an appreciation for swing and rock-tinged country with just a bit of an edge to make it interesting. Give a listen to "Ain't That A Hell of A Note," "Up Against You" and the title track. . . . On the other side of the fence is ROB CROSBY with his new one, Solid Ground (Arista, 6 W. 57th St., New York, NY 10019). He's also from South Carolina (is this a trend?) and is more in the singer/songwriter vein. Some of the tunes here recall Jackson Browne and the Eagles—they're full of acoustic guitars, Crosby's high and clear vocals, just a touch of pedal steel and some sweet harmonies. His songs are touching vignettes of the heart; check out "Somewhere Down The Line," "Love Will Bring Her Around" and the anthemic title track.

BLUES POWER

Two primo musicians working on the blues side have released new records. LUCKY PETERSON may be just 27 years old but he's already a veteran, having played on the Tonight Show when he was 6 (!) and having been a sideman for such greats as Little Milton and Bobby "Blue" Bland. Triple Play (Alligator, P.O. Box 60234, Chicago, IL 60660), his fourth release is chock full of his outstanding keyboard and guitar play combined with a soulful vocal style. Add some big funky horns and an amazing amount of enthusiasm, and you get the jumpiest blues record to be released in a long time. Get into these grooves: "I'm Free," "I Found A Love" and "Funky Ray." . . . Part of the debut of Rounder's new Bullseye Blues label is JOHN MOONEY's Late Last Night (Bullseye Blues, c/o Rounder, 1 Camp St., Cambridge, MA 02140). Mooney comes from New Orleans, which is obvious from the funky rhythms on display here, and he's a major innovator on slide guitar. He's a protege of Son House and translates that style with aplomb to the electric guitar. The combination of Delta slide and Delta funk is not like anything you've heard before and will surely set all bodies within earshot in motion. Give a listen to "Baby Please Don't Go," "It Don't Matter" and "Country Boy."

FOSTER & LLOYD SPLITSVILLE

After almost four years of making great music together, Rodney Foster and Bill Lloyd have decided to pursue solo careers. Lloyd was quoted as saying, "I'm very proud of what we accomplished as Foster & Lloyd, but there are a lot of other things I want to do in the music business." Their last album, Version Of The Truth, was recently re-released with three new supposedly "radio ready" songs replacing some of the tunes on the original release, although to these ears, the new tunes were no more or less country than the songs they took the place of. Somewhat ironic is the fact that the split was announced the day after they received a Grammy nomination for Best Country Instrumental Performance for their track, "Whoa."

IN THE NEWS

As promised, MCA has digitally remastered and will be reissuing JOE ELY's first four recordings: Joe Ely, Honky Tonk Masquerade, Down On The Drag and Musta Notta Gotta Lotta. Out of print for quite a while, this is the first time these classics will be available on CD. Release date is March 5. Rolling Stone recently named Honky Tonk Masquerade as one of the top albums of the '70s. . . . The aforementioned Alligator Records, started by Bruce Iglauer with $2,500 in 1971 and currently almost everyone's idea of the leading label in the surging blues field, will celebrate its 20th Anniversary with a double CD/cassette release, Alligator Records' 20th Anniversary Collection. Scheduled for a February release, it will feature some vintage recordings from the likes of KOKO TAYLOR, ALBERT COLLINS, HOUND DOG TAYLOR, SON SEALS, JUNIOR WELLS and JAMES COTTON.

ON THE CHARTS

After letting Slayer rule the #1 slot for close to a month, Megadeth recaptures the pinnacle of the Loud 100, as well as the Commercial, College and Audience charts. AC/DC retakes the Retail chart and something a little more interesting has happened on the Adventure chart, as Agony Column, Wrathchild America, and Godflesh take the top picks (funny how they were all Loud Rock Picks!). Still more static in the Top 10, so let's move down the charts for more interesting action. A little ain't enough for David Lee Roth, as he takes a nice leap 25-12, while slow climbs continue for Napalm Death (22-19), Entombed (29-25), Lethal (36-26) and Exhorder (37-27). Top debuts goes to Agony Column (at #35) and Wrathchild America (at #50) and top jumpers are Morbid Angel (57-28), those comeback boys Annihilator (40-29) and Slaughter (42-34). The only other thing worth noting are the slow rise of Anthrax (13-10) and Alice in Chains (18-15) over the past couple of weeks—the woman in the box remains there, at least for the time being.

JACKPOT!

ALI FARKA TOURE

ALI FARKA TOURE The River (Mango, 14 E. 4th St., New York, NY 10012)—At long last, one of the best guitar albums of last year hits the streets of America! He has been called the Robert Johnson of Mali, and Mr. Blues of the Niger delta. His acoustic guitar work has been well documented on two previous releases on Shanachie and Mango, and his bluesy, reggae-riffed solos are here in force. The River goes to the next logical progression: the electric guitar—a funky, fat Chicago-sounding axe on some cuts is absolutely marvelous. The real ear-openers on this album are his collaborations; throughout, he works a steady groove with the calabash and sticks of Amadou Cisse, who beats a steady yet diverse pulse. The opening electric cut has Toure vamping with Brit harmonica player Rory McLeod, and the feel is rock solid R&B. Celtic bard meets griot on "Kenouna," with the Chieftains' Sean Keane and Kevin Connell sawing and paddling the fiddle and bodhran, the calabash clicking like bones, and Toure singing like an Irish balladeer. It's natural and never self-conscious, and works beautifully. Possibly the most interesting cut is a collusion between the electric guitar and the sax of Steve Williamson, who matches and challenges every pluck with a wail. At its best, music is supposed to be like this—player to player, each learning from and inspiring the other. On The River, Ali Farka Toure and friends achieve that elusive goal.

KHALIFA OULD EIDE AND DIMI MINT ABBA Moorish Music From Mauritania (World Circuit, 2 Regents Park Road, London NW1 7AY, U.K.)—You can also thank Ali Farka Toure for recommending this group. To my limited knowledge, this is the first time the music of modern Mauritania has been made available in Europe or America. Nestled in the African Northwest with Mali, Senegal and Western Sahara, the Islamic Republic of Mauritania sits at the crossroads of African and Arabic culture, absorbing, adopting and transforming the music of Berbers, Arabs, Wolofs and of course, the various Europeans and Asians who trampled through the country over the centuries. At the very heart of this music is the tidinit, a small lute-type instrument. Its cyclical melodies define the "way" of the music: a strict structure of repetitions upon which the players may elaborate, but not deviate. It is within this structure that the singers tell their stories in passionate solo or exuberant chorus against the steady, complex beat of hands and drums. The rhythmic clapping of Moorish music is best known in flamenco, and the singing style is familiar in all Northern Africa. What Dimi Mint Abba hopes to accomplish with his music is the creation of a modern Mauritanian form using instruments from all over Africa. He hopes it will show deep respect for the past, but not a slavish aversion to the world as it is. He begins this experiment on this recording with some cuts that effectively use the electric guitar in place of the lute, giving it a modern feel that still seems timeless. Then, there is the voice of Khalifa Ould Eide. What can I say? It is wonderful, sometimes sweet, sometimes searing and makes this recording a must.

ON THE CHART

Wow! Looks like a lot of people came back from Christmas break and suddenly realized there's a new Bunny Wailer album out, as he vaults straight to the top, beated up by our strongest number of reporters since the end of last November. New and rising releases include the mighty Augustus Pablo, Jambo and the Celtic-flavored Mouth Music. Strange but actually not so surprising, we find the strongest jumps this week from records that were all released well before the holiday interruptions—Black

Uhuru, Burning Spear, Arrow, Paul Simon and Lee "Scratch" Perry, just to name a few of the elders of our World Music charts these days. Not to deny artists like Spear, Uhuru and Scratch the acclaim they so richly deserve, but let's not keep any other worthy and newer releases off our charts for the sake of records that have already lived long, happy and prosperous lives! See you next week. (WORLD MUSIC REPORTS PRINTED AFTER TOP 35 REPORTS)

DR. JOHN & CHRIS BARBER On A Mardi Gras Day (Great Southern, Box 13977, New Orleans, LA 70185)—What could be better than a Mac Rebannack greatest hits collection? A live one! Having seen the good Dr. live in all the best places, I can assert that this is THE way to get your gris-gris. So the next best thing is this great collection of originals and classics (some are both!). There are his signatures like "Such a Night" and "Right Place, Wrong Time" that have become New Orleans standards. There are standards he has re-written and claimed for his own like "Stack-A-Lee." And there's a hefty dose of all that is New Orleans: Mardi Gras, krewe and Cajun musical stew. What makes this unusual is the source of all this musical madness: London. Chris Barber's Jazz And Blues Band is top-notch, with great musicians who know how to lay back and crawl or get tight and jump. While it wasn't recorded at Fat Tuesday's headquarters, it surely gave London's Marquee Theatre voodoo chills and creole thrills.

ETC...

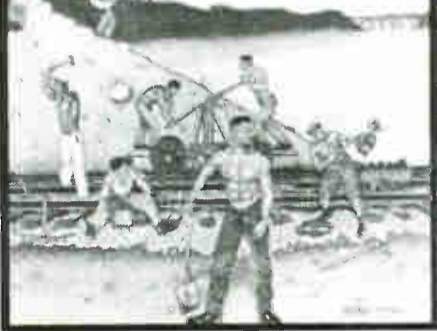

There's a third cell in the "world-pop-fusion-parody" party, occupying the Celtic section of the room inhabited by Mustaphas and Brave Combo-deers. They are Minneapolis' BOILED IN LEAD, and their new album, Orb (Atomic Theory, Box 160, Minneapolis, MN 55458) is their most globe-hopping set to date. They have expanded their African and Celtic fusions to include Serbian dances, Thai kaens and Albanian motorcycle songs. They tend to favor strong, rock rhythms to the Mustaphas' more local sound; the band is at its best when the distortion flies. There are some good songs on the record, as well, including a clairvoyant (this was recorded last year) "Brave Bombardier" that could well serve as the news this week. Dance, think and roll around the world with BiL... Mix equal parts of Joe Strummer, the Incredible String Band and T-Rex, shake well, pour over a fuzz box and presto! Chay cocktail. I have a few favorite home studio musicians, and DOUGLAS CHAY (2005 Wellington, North Augusta, SC 29841) is certainly on the list. His ability to take the day-to-day of American life and turn it into the absurd is unaffected and charming. The production byword here is low budget, with acoustic guitar, bass, cheap synths, drums and fuzz-box electric over his, er... ah... unique voice. Rock 'n roll, ragtime and folk all have their place in Chay's insidious, perverse world and the stories of TVs, hospitals, laundry and love are satirical but strangely sentimental.

BLOOD, SWEAT & NO TEARS

STETSASONIC Blood, Sweat & No Tears (Tommy Boy, 1747 First Ave., New York, NY 10128/212-722-2211)—When you're speaking of pure hip-hop, the name Stetsasonic is all you need to know. The group possesses the ability to combine diverse live hip-hop beats with lyrics that tackle many socially and culturally aware subjects, while mixing in playful freestyle jams that capture much of the punch of their acclaimed live performances. Stet's two-year layoff was highlighted by Prince Paul's masterful remixes and production work for groups like De La Soul, Living Colour and Fine Young Cannibals, and lyricist Daddy-O's production work for Red Hot Chili Peppers, the B-52's and They Might Be Giants. This hip-hop band, who use a live drummer, set sail on their third voyage (this time without Fruitkwan) called Blood, Sweat & No Tears, which follows up 1988's awesome In Full Gear. The strong-as-ever Stet posse widens their base of poetic genius and cutting-edge production on this 20-song LP with a plethora of body-rockers that penetrate your mind, body and soul all at once. With one of the best rap voices ever in Daddy-O, the group's messages in songs such as "Ghetto Is The World," with its harmonic chorus, the struggle-for-equality vibes in "Corporate America," and the remixed 1987 cut "Free South Africa" are delivered with conviction and sampling from D.B.C. The abundance of party jams and street-level intelligence, most notably "I Like To Party," the new version of "Speaking Of A Girl Named Suzy," "Uda Man," "Go Brooklyn 3," "Heaven Help The MF's" and "Don't Let Your Mouth Write A Check Your Ass Can't Cash" show how schooled the group's conscience really is. There's even a dramatic ballad, "Walkin' In The Rain," and a cut with labelmates Force MD's called "Do You Remember This," which features silky vocals sung to the melody of "Turn The Beat Around," among others, over a host of popular beats and samples. Stetsasonic's lyrical spectrum is boundless and Blood, Sweat & No Tears is an inspiring array of artistic vision that more upcoming rap groups should mirror.

EPMD Business As Usual (Def Jam/RAL, c/o Columbia, P.O. Box 4450, New York, NY 10101-4450)—EPMD has to be one of the more underrated rap groups over the last few years. Their third release, Business As Usual, this time on a new label, shows Erick and Parrish adding a rougher edge to their usually mellow, groove-along beats ("Brothers On My Jock," "Hit Squad Heist"). Their self-righteous, street-based lyrics flow nicely with jeep-pumping scratches and sampling from DJ Scratch. Erick and Parrish deliver street-tough lyrics that perfectly reflect the attitude and intensity of their music. Jeep busters: "I'm Mad," "Rampage," with guest vocals from L.L. Cool J, "For My People," the uplifting "Give The People" and "Funky Piano."

ON THE CHART

The man in charge of the Beat Box chart for the fifth straight week is Paris. And like the country of Iraq, he is the target of all oncoming attackers. First there was L.L. Cool J keeping constant pressure on Paris, but his surge was weakened and he had to retreat to #7. That pressure has been replaced by an offensive by Ice Cube (9-2), who falls one spot short from removing Paris from power. Other allied supporters include Brand Nubian (3-3) who continues with constant force, and newest to the allies is the LP from EPMD (#4 debut). The high-powered funk attack from Digital Underground (10-5) jacks a bit closer to the frontline while down the ladder a bit we find some old friends re-joining the war: Father MC (#21), Guy (#22), Movement Ex (#26) and Kool G Rap & DJ Polo at #27. The liberation of the chart continues. This week's Adventure Picks: 1) EPMD; 2) Son Of Bazerk; 3) Ed O.G. And Da Bulldogs; 4) Stetsasonic; 5) B.M.W.; 6) Redhead Kingpin And The F.B.I.; 7) Gang Starr; 8) C & C Music Factory; 9) Kid Capri; 10) Leaders Of The New School. (BEAT BOX REPORTERS PRINTED AFTER TOP 35 REPORTS)

DEF 12

LEADERS OF THE NEW SCHOOL "Case Of The P.T.A." [112 BPM] (Elektra, 75 Rockefeller Plaza, NY 10019)—The latest addition to the ever-expanding Elektra rap roster is a frolicking hip-hop crew headed by the impressive Charlie Brown. He delivers rhymes in a rapid-fire fashion but with an amazing amount of character and clarity, with enough little remarks or sound effects (with help from his crew) to force a smile. Their music borrows mostly raw piano samples, but is beat-heavy enough to back up their vocals.

RAISE YOUR FIST
The war got you down? Check these out... YOUNG BLACK TEENAGERS are back after the seemingly unending success of "Nobody Know Kelli" with a reply to Madonna's raping of Public Enemy's "Black Steel In The Hour Of Chaos" (on "Justify My Love"), interestingly titled "To My Donna" [104 BPM] (SOUL, c/o MCA, 70 Universal City Plaza, Universal City, CA 91608). While overdubbing Madonna's version of the groove, the Teenagers drop mocking, deadpan lyrics... ED O.G. & DA BULLDOGS' "I Got To Have It" [96 BPM] (PWL, c/o PolyGram, 825 Eighth Ave., New York, NY 10019) offers a looping groove full of style with Ed's street-wise lyrics coming across clear and relaxed... MONIE LOVE steps out of the middle and hits us with "It's A Shame" [116 BPM] (Warner Bros., 3300 Warner Blvd., Burbank, CA 91510). Teaming with True Image and the production team of Andy Cox and David Steel (Fine Young Cannibals), Monie should find even greater commercial success with these very flashy mixes... Also new and improved is the first single from REDHEAD KINGPIN AND THE F.B.I.'s new LP Album With No Name entitled "We Don't Have A Plan B" (Virgin, 9247 Alden Dr., Beverly Hills, CA 90210); MANUFACTURE'S "A Measured Response" (Netzwerk, 1717 W. 4th Ave., Vancouver, BC V6J 1M2/604-732-9414); RHYTHM WARFARE'S "Two Notches" (Strictly Rhythm, 1650 Broadway, Suite 312, New York, NY 10019); BROTHER MAKES 3'S "Do Ya Wanna Dance?" (Cardiac, 1790 Broadway, New York, NY 10019); and the surprisingly brilliant AMBITIOUS LOVERS' "Umbabarauma" (a cover of Brazilian Jorge Ben's tune) from their Lust LP (Elektra, see address above). JACKPOT!

BOBBY WATSON & HORIZON Post-Motown Bop (Blue Note, c/o Capital, 1750 N. Vine St., Hollywood, CA 90028)

Don't be deceived by the curious title, which is more suitable to Steve Coleman's music than to fellow altoman Bobby Watson's. Post-Motown Bop is swinging, joyously voiced straight-ahead acoustic jazz, the only connection to Motown pop being (as the leader explains in the liner notes) a similarity in progressions. Be that as it may, this 10-tune, 64-minute disc deftly balances form and content, ensemble swing and solo space, muscle and finesse, originals and standards. The members of Watson's latest Horizon quintet—Melton Mustafa, trumpet; Edward Simon, piano; Carroll Dashiell, bass; and Victor Lewis, drums—emerge as a polished, precise unit, all the more so because each of the players, save for Dashiell, contributes to the repertoire; Lewis, in particular, wrote three of the numbers and gets co-star billing on the cover. Many an alto saxist has the chops and malleable tone to glide from evocations of Johnny Hodges to Charlie Parker. But Watson has a leg up, compositionally, on the competition; his three originals here are solidly, imaginatively structured, and his juxtapositions of alto sax or soprano with Mustafa's trumpet are daring when they aren't braying and light-hearted, buoyed by a crisp and springy rhythm section. Watson has taken to heart the "jazz message" he learned in the employ of Art Blakey (1980-1984), and his prolific recording since then, as both leader and member of the 29th Street Saxophone Quartet, has culminated in this winsome quintet outing.

RED RODNEY Red Alert (Continuum, 380 Ludlow Ave., Cranford, NJ 07016-3228)—Here's a new CD with the potential to find favor (with different tracks, for different reasons) with both fusion/NAC and mainstream-jazz audiences. Whether either camp will get behind the CD enough to put it over is questionable. Red Alert, a sequel of sorts to bebop trumpet legend Red Rodney's Code Red, is a mixed bag of straight-ahead quintet tracks along with several contemporary-styled cuts featuring producer Bob Belden on synthesizer. The electronic pieces leave me cold—though, I must confess, Charles "White Lightnin'" Telerant's rap lyrics on Charlie Parker's "Moose The Mooch" are good fun—but the bop songs showcase Rodney's superb new combo to fine advantage: Pianist David Kikoski, bassist Chip Jackson and drummer Jimmy Madison lay down supple grooves for the leader, and the multi-saxist Chris Potter (only 19 when this CD was recorded) is a real find and a comer. Red Alert (60 minutes), seeking to please jazzers of every stripe at least partially, finds Rodney, a genuine survivor and living link to Bird, entering his seventh decade as a pro, and his re-

ON THE CHART

Well, it had to happen sometime... There's a new #1 on our leader board this week: none other than Wynton Marsalis and his soundtrack for Tune In Tomorrow... which switches places with Art Blakey & The Jazz Messengers. Marsalis is back to a position he's very comfortable with, and it should be interesting to see how long he hangs on this time around. Remaining at #2 once again is the Dave Holland Quartet. Rounding out the Top 5 are two releases from MuWorks—Pheeroan akLaff (8-4) and

Thomas Chapin (16-5). Lotsa new stuff and re-entries at the bottom this week, led by the new live-in-the-studio Chick Corea Akoustic Band effort at #20, vocalist Shirley Horn with her all-star lineup at #22, and the wonderful new release by bassist Charlie Haden And The Liberation Orchestra at #23. We'd like to welcome new reporter WBEZ in Chicago. (JAZZ REPORTS PRINTED AFTER TOP 35 REPORTS) cent induction into the Down Beat Hall of Fame is just and welcome. At press time it was learned that Frank "Vanilla Bean" Ballesteri of WMFU in New Jersey, a DJ who grooves from hip-hop to bebop without skipping a beat, is being courted to do a dance remix of "Moose The Mooch."

KEYING IN

This past holiday season, retailers reported a quantum leap in sales of pianist-composer MICHEL CAMILO's third Epic (P.O. Box 4450, New York, NY 10101-4450) recording, On The Other Hand. The breakout of On The Other Hand is hardly surprising, considering the success of his previous outings for the company. While retaining his feisty Latin locations and quicksilver right-hand runs, On The Other Hand extends the Dominican Republic native's pocket-perfect rhythms—much of his previous work has been with a trio—by adding a handful of hornmen, among them saxist Chris Hunter and Ralph Bowen plus trumpeter Michael Philip Mossman (the latter two best known for their work with Out Of The Blue). If you haven't already spun On The Other Hand, heed my advice and cue it up... The third installment in pianist RANDY WESTON's "Portraits" triptych, Self Portraits: The Last Day (Verve, c/o PolyGram, 825 Eighth Ave., New York, NY 10019), is the best of the lot. Wonderful though Portraits Of Duke Ellington and Portraits Of Thelonius Monk are, Self Portraits captures Weston in his artistic totality, his influences in hand and his original vision fresh and crystalline. "African Night" and "Ganawa In Paris" are poignant evocations of the motherland of jazz, while "Berkshire Blues," one of his best known originals, is 10 minutes of captivating enchantment. 1990 was a pivotal comeback year for Weston in the States, and one hopes these three Paris-made quartet recordings will serve as a springboard for additional, much-deserved opportunities for this marvelously gifted musician in the States... CECIL TAYLOR has surely received his fair share of recognition, yet many jazz mavens, while acknowledging his creative breakthroughs and freedom quests, haven't fully understood or appreciated his artistry. That situation can be remedied, at least partly, by a listen to Air on Candid (available from P.P.I. Inc., 88 St. Francis St., Newark, NJ 07105). This 64-minute CD, consisting of three Taylor originals with alternate takes (all previously unissued), presents the eruptive Taylor in heady company of tenorist Archie Shepp, bassist Buell Neidlinger and drummer Dennis Charles (Sunny Murray on one tune). Recorded in New York City in 1960, with supervision by Nat Hentoff, Air should serve as a convenient reference point for those who've tried but failed to grasp the pianist's unbending originality... MULGREW MILLER's fifth album in as many years for Landmark, From Day To Day (c/o Fantasy Inc., 10th & Parker, Berkeley, CA 94710) returns the Mississippi native and New Jersey resident to the trio setting, where he shines alongside drummer Kenny Washington and bassist Robert Hurst. Following two strong group outings for Landmark—Wingspan, a quintet date, and The Countdown, a big-name gathering with Joe Henderson, Ron Carter and Tony Williams (Miller's chief employer in recent years)—the pianist unveils five originals here and, just as important, displays a sureness of touch and harmonic aptitude that should dispel any lingering whispers that he's stylistically dependent on Oscar Peterson and McCoy Tyner, two of his principal influences.

RECORD COMPANY DIALOGUE

Gerard Cosloy, Matador Records, New York, NY (212) 995-5882

Why does it take Todd Bisson nearly six weeks to respond to my Dialogues? Perhaps 'cause it takes nearly that long to find someone willing to read them out loud. I never said that Todd was guilty by association because he collects a paycheck from Warrant's record company. In fact, I said the opposite. So much for reading comprehension, Todd, you flunked again. To my knowledge, Robert Palmer has not made any records or videos for Island in a few years. I do recall Todd Bisson working for Virgin Records when the last Palmer video and LP were released, but I don't recall any public comments about sexist content. As far as PolyGram's "numerous misogynist metal records" are concerned, Todd failed to identify any of them (I think he meant Michelle Shocked). It's entirely predictable that Bisson's social consciousness is stirred only when he sees a finger pointed in his own direction. I mean, are these misogynist metal records a new development, Todd, or did you just learn how to write a week ago? Hey, better late than never, and the same goes for learning to count to 10. . . Todd's gone nearly two months now without writing a Dialogue that plugged his wonderful company's wonderful records. A third consecutive month, now that's worth holding your breath for.

Tamra Feldman/Pete Redmond, Alpha International Records, Philadelphia, PA (215) 425-8682

She's a middle-aged housewife from Des Moines whose hobbies include leaf collecting and slam dancing. He's a former street person from Newark who, when he grows up, says he wants to be either a fire truck or small farm animal. Together they make up the new college radio/alternative promotion team for Philly-based Alpha International Records. . . In the next couple of weeks, many of you will be hearing from either one of us due to the upcoming releases we have in store. By the beginning of February we'll have 12" singles from the EXOTIC BIRDS and the HUNGER as well as a BAD MUTHA GOOSE EP. Albums will be forthcoming from the latter two. . . So, when you get that phone call, don't run screaming into the filthy, crime-ridden streets. Take a deep, uproarious breath, hit the line 1 button and very placidly say, "Yeah, what the hell do you want!?" Until the next time, Tamra bids farewell with a hearty "Groove Sorghum" whereas I opt for the more traditional "Yes Virginia, there is a Jim Morrison and he's living in your colon."

Greg from Sky Records, Philadelphia, PA (800) 779-0759

NO, NO, NO, NO, NO!!!! What I wrote in the Dialogue of issue #218 was that for questions regarding UNITY 2, you could call me at the toll-free number above, Mike Kondo at 800-442-3142, or Jim Dickson in the Reprise office at 818-953-3597. The version printed was slightly skewed. Always proofread! Hype of '91 goes like this. . .

PYLON, on tour again soon; CHICKASAW MUDD PUPPIES (on Mercury), new LP out now; the CHILDREN, new LP out now. Chameleon releases SPOONER at January's end. Coming very soon from Alpha International, with able promo assistance from us Sky people are the HUNGER, BAD MUTHA GOOSE (make the Chili Peppers sound whiter than Barry Manilow) and POPINJAYS. Late February from Sky. . . FLAT DUO JETS!! Need anything?!? Well, call Mike Kondo or me, the numbers have been printed already.

tacle with militarism is best left to the Yugoslavian alchemy of Laibach. . . . On the eve of the best advertised war, I can only "toyfully" wish that Our Fearless Bush would not have opted to institute a "new order" in the world but would have in turn jumped on the bandwagon and released a killer cover of New Order's "Love Vigilantes." . . . Best described as tribal-circus-run-amok, CHRISTY MCCOOL is still building momentum from their pre-holiday debut, Lovelier Than The Queen Of England. We have new releases galore for the upcoming year. ANDY PRIEBOY's second single "Montezuma" will be released including two new tracks and a live cover version of "Far Side Of Crazy." Also keep your visual feelers glued to the tele for the video released simultaneously. . . . On the spring release front: WALKING WOUNDED, CADILLAC TRAMPS, FOOD FOR FEET and discount wartime world peeps.

Steven Joerg, Bar/None Records, Hoboken, NJ (201) 795-3809

We may be on the verge of standing by ("please stand by") while a whole bunch of fellow humans start taking each other out, start cutting each other down, start and never finish their last breath. George is so cool. I'm glad he's in charge. You people out there, he's giving the USA a chance to look strong in the face of faltering confidence. This means more of our healthy stock of young 'uns have a chance to die for democracy. This means hopefully it's a long, busy war. This means maybe we can just quick drop a bomb and teach those guys, gals and kids a lesson for believing in that crazy looney. I wonder which TV channel will have the best coverage. I hope they're not still fighting on Super Bowl Sunday. This means we don't have to worry about anything less, mmmmm, something BIG for a change. The homeless are old hat. It would be cool if they all had places to live, and peace would still be best. Every last thought has been thought before, and every mistake has been made. However, we need to remind ourselves of this every once in a while, so let's go. We took the body bags over, let's fucking use 'em. Gawdamn. I hope none of this means shit when it shows up in print.

Beatrice Pulliam, National College Promotion, Boomerang Productions, New York, NY (212) 941-0147

RAVE, rave, rave. BLAH, blah, blah. Hard to be cheery with the Middle East situation. It's pretty frightening that it's being reduced to "Let's Kick Butt." Maybe the boys at Milton Bradley will come up with a board game. . . . On the new release tip: Great music from East West's BLUE RODEO. You should have "'Til I Am Myself Again" 12" by now. Casino, the LP, will be out soon! Also up and comin' . . . Chicago's MATERIAL ISSUE, with a delicious four-song EP on PolyGram. Check out the single, "Valerie Loved Me" . . . Other raveables: Relativity's THEY EAT THEIR OWN. A hearty thank you to everyone jamming "Like A Drug." Looks like WDRE isn't the only one with something to SHRIEK about. BOP (HARVEY), those skankin' fellas from Lansing, MI, have everyone shaking a leg to Bread & Circuses, their release on Relativity. Both bands are touring, so call for details!! Travelin' . . . The CONNELLS are also on the road with "Get a Gun," the new single from their One Simple Word LP. Bubbling. . . Wonderful music from Fire's PARACHUTE

MEN, CHUCK PROPHET and the HARBOUR KINGS. Anyone not hip to it: GET ON IT, it's great stuff!!!

Glenn Boothe, Island Records, New York, NY (212) 995-7874

Gosh, it's only been a couple of weeks since I sent in my CMJ year-end ballot and I already know my favorite cover version for the '91 survey: Galaxie 500—"Cheese And Onions." An amazing rendition that surpasses the Rutles' original by a long shot. . . . On the Island front, I want to thank everyone for the immediate warm reception given to Fly Me Courageous—the latest from Atlanta's DRIVIN' N' CRYIN'. In addition, STEREO MC'S are starting to make waves on this side of the Atlantic with their latest Supernatural which securely balances itself on the fence that separates the Red Hot Chili Peppers and De La Soul. I also want to thank all the stations who have given the hip-hop compilation Strictly The Beat a shot in their regular format. It seems everyone playing it is getting lots of requests for DREAM WARRIORS. Look for their second single in late February. In the near future, you'll be receiving a collection of unreleased live tracks from BOP (HARVEY) titled Talkin Blues. Also, prepare yourself for an kickin' rap album from TONY D on the 4th & Broadway label. At home you'll find me listening to Ice Cube's Kill At Will, that Rutles compilation, "Star" by Blake Babies, and 7" by Jesus Lizard and Finger. . . . Oh yeah, for you non-believers—snow-cream in NYC is just as tasty as good ole Carolina flakes.

Sue Patel, Netzwerk Productions, Vancouver, BC (604) 687-8649

OK, I'm just as cool as you're cool as f. Yeah, that's right let's talk cool. Yeah, these are the cool records that I like, the cool people that I will name-drop knowing or disagree in a public space with and ignore in person, while continuing to monopolize free space with my self-important preambles that in most cases are only a means to underline my coolness and camouflage my agenda. . . . to sell records for the company and build a public image for my ego. . . . This is my agenda: The FALLING JOYS (Netzwerk-I.R.S.) will be beginning their first North American tour in February in support of their debut LP, Wish List. Yeah, I would really like for you to play the record and support the show. And by now MANUFACTURE's "A Measured Response"/"Running Mad" 12" (Netzwerk-I.R.S.) should be on your desk, in your office and hopefully on your turntables too. . . . This is my ego: *

Doug Schoemer, First Warning Records, New York, NY (212) 925-7220

As I put PC to paper, the boys in CLOCKHAMMER are in the midst of their first-ever tour of the Northeast, i.e. NYC, Philly, Boston, Providence and Hartford. Although these southerners are not quite as unschooled as labelmates the JOLLY BOYS when it comes to snow, it is a somewhat new experience for them. . . . We have just finished recording the third record for the Jolly Boys, produced by Andy Kershaw from the BBC, but keep your shirts on 'cause it won't be out for a year—their second record, Sunshine 'N' Water, will show up in mid-February, and though Ryko may not want you to know, it is a First Warning release, manufactured and distributed by Ryko. . . . In other label news, we have signed a great band from L.A. called DIVINE WEEKS, who some of you out there may remember from a record they had out through Steve Wynn's Down There label a couple of years back. Their debut will be out in the late summer, but we should have a single or two to send out before school breaks up, right around the release of our debut record from bluesman TERRY GARLAND, who will be touring with Johnny Winter this spring. Neat huh? Extra Special Purple Eardrum Award this week goes to Glenn Boothe of Island for staying through the the 4 a.m. end of the CLOCKHAMMER show this past Saturday (1/12) at CBGB. Play the Buck Pets record one extra special time for him.

John "Skippy" McFadden, Crew Entertainment, Woodland Hills, CA (708) 359-3760

Yes, it's me. That infamous "Skippy" character. I've resurfaced in 1991 at a new company, Core Records. It's based out of California, but my car broke down in Chicago, so that's where I'll be for now. So if I owe anyone money or have fathered any children, I can be reached at the above #. Core will be bringing you fine LPs from JET BLACK FACTORY, MAD TURKS, and two you should have now, the VIGILANTES OF LOVE and ED-E ROLAND (both from Athens, GA). If you don't have these, be callin' me yesterday. The Vigilantes are possibly touring with Vanilla Ice, so IDs, stop-bys and tickets to the show are available. Ed-E Roland didn't invent the synthesizer, but you should still play this platter. I'll be pranking your station soon, so don't answer if you know it's me. Call me, I'll tell you a story. Also, listen to Maggie's Dream and Killing Joke, two great records that don't sound like Zamfir. Here we go. . . .

Esther McGowan, Merkin Records, Baltimore, MD (301) 234-0048

Less rancor this week from us here at Merkin. Instead, I want to clue you in on the releases from BUTTSTEAK and the MOONCLAVES, which will be coming out early next month. . . . Y'all who've been thrashin' to those Buttsteak 7"s and are ready for more, we've got it for you—a 26-track CD called Fatty's Got More Blood. Yep, more sonic insanity from the Norfolk kids. And for those of you who think you'd feel more at home with a band who have their minds and bodily functions under control, check out the Moonclaves on their debut CD, Friends Of The Young And Cynical Ectomorphic Mr. Douglas. Merkin bands are also going to be doing some heavy touring in the new year thanks to the Open Booking agency. Just give them a call at (301) 234-0049. Anyone lucky enough to catch the Black Friday show at the Bitter End on January 8 knows the true magnificence of a Merkin band live! Other cool gigs for all you New York types—LAMBS EAT IVY at the Whitney Museum (Philip Morris branch) on March 13 and MONKEYSPANK at CBGB on March 15. Feel free to give me a call with questions, queries and pleas for product!

RETAIL DIALOGUE

Paul Ashby, TRIP, W. Sacramento, CA (916) 373-2548

I'm confused. Does being on/working for a major label make you suck, or is it the other way around? Since I hardly ever talk to major record reps (except when they call to make vague, ominous threats about alleged parallel imports), I can't really be judgmental except for Dialogue-styled hearsay and said reps' defensiveness. Chart analysis: Why isn't KLF "What Time Is Love" on the Progressive Retail chart? Tower's selling obscene amounts. . . . But oh, that's right—no Tower stores report to CMJ retail. . . . (whiny voice) . . . It's not that we don't want to. . . . Likewise THE ORB "Little Fluffy Clouds" (WAU/Mr. Modo, England). It's one of the catchiest, least vapid dance singles ever (even with Ricky Lee Jones' sampled airhead ramblings) and people who hate dance music seem to like it, mainly because it contains elements alien to most current dance releases: irony, humor and melody.

[Paul, perhaps someone at Tower could send us a sales list. With 60 stores to choose from, there should be one Progressive store in the batch—Ed.]

Chris MacDermott (a.k.a. Vanilla Wood), Caroline Records, New York, NY (212) 989-2929

Alright, alright, so you know the deal about our stuff that's out and what's going on, right. If not, here's an overview: Raygun. . .

CONTINUED DIALOGUE

Naked Raygun still doing well with college radio; KINGHORSE getting ready to tour; MUSSOLINI HEADKICK on tour in Europe with Revolting Cocks (U.S. tour hopefully to follow) and new 12" "Get Out" available; BORIS MIKULIC was refused entry into the States to play shows (check out the Heresy LP or the new "Break Free" 12" and find out why); and Take 7, the compilation of the hottest dance stuff in Europe right now in one exciting package. But you know all that, here's what you don't know: new A SPLIT SECOND 12" soon; BAD BRAINS Rock For Light reissue (extra tracks, remixed by Ric Ocasek and the Bad Brains); CHUCK TREECE is finishing up his debut solo LP with Ron St. Germaine at the mixing board (Bad Brains, Sonic Youth, etc.); spring release dates for SPRINGHOUSE, SMASHING PUMPKINS (check out their 7" on Sub Pop and Feb. tour dates) and the infamous BLOODY STOOLS (featuring several multi-platinum V.I.P. guests). Need more info, p.o.p. or whatever? Gimme a ring at the above number. Also, any of you retail people out there with rare Motorhead, Angry Samoans, Big Boys, Public Enemy, Black Sabbath (w/Ozzy), Necros, etc., let's talk.

RADIO DIALOGUE

Sevillesdote, DJ, WXDR, Newark, DE (302) 451-2703

After eight or nine songs, JANE'S ADDICTION walked off the stage in Philly claiming "the crowd wasn't into it." A buddy of mine who attended (and this is purely his opinion, now) took this to mean that the audience wasn't moshing enough, rushing the aisles callously enough, instigating enough of a crush at the front and generally failing to intimidate each other to the degree Perry Farrell would've liked. He certainly got his wish when he left the stage, though—dozens of audience members tossed bottles at the empty stage and eventually spilled out onto a bus intersection in front of the theater, banging the tour bus and chanting "Jane's a dick." Disgusted as he was, my friend had to admit that for those 40 minutes, Jane's A was the greatest Rock and Roll Band Alive. Seems to me, though, that the only "alternative" these Aerosmith sound-alikes we're all so currently fond of have to offer is the chance for college-aged men to behave like puberty-addled Van Halen fans at their live shows. Either way, if Farrell and the band are in fact as disappointed with their audience's failure to play fist-pumping, rock-god-worshipping thugs as my friend believes, perhaps ads for future Jane's shows should include the stipulation/disclaimer: "No Femmes or Freaks" . . . Some "liberal arts institution" or another recently pronounced a moratorium on students using speech deemed offensive to minorities while on campus. In effect, you can stand in the middle of the Commons and say "jew!" or "fag!" once, in no context whatsoever, clearly and loudly enough to be heard by the wrong person, and you'll be cited, fined and/or penalized. Such P.C. censorship has no place on college campuses or these pages, so please, lay off Mike Kole! My point about his cocksucking comment referred to his choice of words, not the person who wrote them. Can't a guy make a funny about blow jobs without (ahem) taking it on the chin? Mike, I'm sorry to hear that for you "oral sex means, in general, submission." But I can't deny it means the same to enough older people that you can safely assume it will be read in that context. If that's a societal stigma you're willing to settle for, go for it. I was just hoping you had a less predictable way of getting across your intelligent and valid opinions. Until FUGAZI or CONSOLIDATED write a song about the sexist patriarchy of foul language, I'm afraid our only spokesman against profanity is CRUCIAL YOUTH, so if you folks don't mind my saying so in the meantime: Up with oral sex! Y'all got our phone number (and our address to which you can send airchecks), so use it.

Les Scurry, Program Director, KFJC, Los Altos Hills, CA (415) 949-7092

Due to the influx of real issues, social commentary and concerns of many CMJ subscribers, it becomes quite clear that the "New Music Report" as it exists today cannot deal with the real values and feelings of its audience. In order to do so, CMJ must change its format as a whole. It must reflect the concerns and wants of its readers. I propose these new features for an increasing demand. Arts & Literature: Many, many pertinent discussions can be held here. Topics such as "Eisenstein's use of montage: how it can help your band's video image" or "Umberto Eco: Elvis in disguise?" could be just a starting point. Food & Leisure: Recipes can be swapped and restaurant food rated according to background muzak. Love & Life: It could run the gamut from industry gossip to "Swallowing? Politically correct?" Politics & Religion: Innumerable pointed subjects can be covered here, i.e. "Spirituality on the charts" or "Libertarians: the choice between CDs and DAT." Finally, we could have a self-help column to help us solve our many problems, mid-life crises, job burn-out and the like. This would be a good group forum for everyone to get involved in. With these new columns replacing the old, CMJ would be responding to the true needs and wants of its subscribers. Of course, the price would have to go up, but it would be well worth it. CMJ would be more than a mere tip-sheet—it would be a communicator, a teacher for the youth of today. A journal to explore and examine life's many questions. I mean why would a "New Music Report" want to have anything to do with such a common, puerile subject as music?

Scott Crater, Station Manager, WPRB, Princeton, NJ (609) 258-3655

I realize that not many station staffers besides the PDs and MDs read these Dialogues, but here is an important piece of advice you could pass on to your cohorts in the Business/Sales/Station Management department: There are a number of companies out there doing business under various names such as Radio America, Advertisers Broadcast Services and Radio Advertising, Inc., that sell public service announcements to local businesses for broadcast on college and other commercially insignificant radio stations. The text of the DJ-read announcements is usually something like, "Fred's Texaco in Trenton reminds children not to smoke dope. . . ." Our station has been involved with the above companies for varying periods of time during the past three years, and my advice is to stay away from them at all costs, even if it means loss of a significant revenue source for your station. The salesmen for these companies work over the phone and are very slippery. They never get a signed contract from anyone, but rely purely on oral commitments. Sometimes they tape phone conversations, the legality of which is pretty dubious. We've had a number of complaints from businesses who said they weren't interested, but the salesmen took that as a "yes," sent us the ad to be aired and then sent those businesses the bill. And when those businesses tried to extricate themselves from paying they got the run-around from the PSA companies' 800 number, so they called us directly. A lot of the time, the businesses were given the impression that the salesman was calling from our offices, because he would say, "Hi, I'm Mr. X, and I'm calling from WPRB." Also, the return address of the bills usually said WPRB, so many of the complainers identified the slimy business practices with WPRB and not those companies. Also, the rates these outfits charge are outrageous, ranging anywhere from $90 to $120 a spot. We're a commercial station, so they base our rates on our maximum spot rate which is $15, and mark it up from there. The last PSA company we were involved with said they would only mark it up four times, but the customers were charged $90 per spot. We're 17,000 watts, but a spot on our station is not worth anywhere near $90. These guys will do anything to make a sale, including lie. The last complaint we got was from a man who was convinced his money was being spent to support blood drives for the troops in Saudi Arabia. After this complaint, we canceled all our PSA company contracts and started selling campaigns ourselves, and it works all right. We charge $25 per spot and $100 for five. If you're a DJ or whatever and know that your station runs these kinds of spots, ask your station manager why you do and urge him/her to cut them loose.

Toni (The Boop) Michaels, Music Director, WSFX, Nanticoke, PA (717) 821-0933

Saturday, April 6, 1991, WSFX will host the Pennsylvania Regional College Radio Conference in conjunction with the National Association of College Broadcasters. This convention is open to members and non-members of NACB. The seminar will be held at Luzerne County Community College in Nanticoke, PA. There will be a registration fee of $20 per person which includes speakers ranging from record promotional representatives to major market personalities. Also includes lunch and entertainment. An added feature to this seminar will be segments for college television clubs. There will be various speakers on subjects such as free-lance video to computers and graphics. This convention will provide you with many opportunities to meet with a diverse group of industry professionals. Look for more information in the weeks to come via the mail. Or if you would like more information contact me or Ron Reino at (717) 821-0933. Now for my exhilarating poop! The Booper returns in '91. Stuff that is really grooving: LOUD SUGAR, SISTERS OF MERCY, BLAKE BABIES, the RINGLING SISTERS and DRIVIN' N' CRYIN'. Until the next time, keep in mind the Booper lies.

Peter Wohelski, Music Director, WMNF, Tampa, FL (813) 238-8001

It's Monday afternoon, war is almost upon us. I thought that since I haven't written a Dialogue in a long time that I'd write what could be the last Dialogue ever. The Americans call Saddam Hussein a murderer and a torturer, but what about our own CIA; we just never hear about that on NBC's Evening News with Tom Brokaw. Enough politics, let's talk about music. . . I hope everyone's holidays were what they wanted to be. I saw some great bands over the holiday, traveling to Chapel Hill, NC, to see the much-talked-about WILLARD and a band called GERRYMANDER BOB. Nifty town, Chapel Hill—if you haven't been there, check it out and see what everyone talks about. . . Glad to see that someone finally went and released the MEAT BEAT MANIFESTO LP domestically! It was one of my favorites this year and if you haven't checked it out, do yourself a favor and give a listen. Other things slamin' here at WMNF and my CD player. . . BUCK PETS, KLF, CHAINSAW KITTENS, the SHAMEN's En-tact on One Little Indian (UK), PWEI 12" (can't wait for the whole record!) and HELMET. . . By the way, my office hours are the same as they were. For those who forgot or don't know, they are. . . Mondays 12 p.m.-6 p.m. EST and occasionally during the week, take your chances. I also have a new assistant, Theresa (MC Lovetrain) Milam. She's very hip and I stole her from another "radio station" . . . If there ever is a next time, just remember, "give peace a chance."

AFTER THE SUPER BOWL, I'M GOING TO SONYLAND

The Sony Corp. is reportedly planning to open a theme park, possibly called Sonyland, which will feature characters, rides and exhibits culled from Sony-owned Columbia Pictures, Tri-Star Pictures, Columbia Pictures Television and Sony Music. MIND OVER MATTERS

Provide an Alternative to Mainstream War News

by Cliff Furnald, CMJ and WPKN

These last few weeks have been almost impossible for me. The idea of doing radio as usual has been out of the question. I couldn't sit by quietly, and the listeners wouldn't stand for it. Regardless of where you stand on the issue, and no matter what the outcome, this war is one of the most significant events of the time, for more reasons than I choose to go into in this forum.

What I am most aware of is how little happened until the last minute was upon us, and how little college and community radio did to stimulate discussion. I am writing this many days before you read it, and have no way of knowing what is happening today. I do know that we as volunteers in our communities have a responsibility to be out front about our own feelings, and in the forefront of presenting our community's ideas and feelings. More than once on my most recent program, people called to complain about the lack of reliable, challenging information that was coming out of the various network "crisis reports." (One wonderful slip came when a CBS reporter accidentally signed off with this inverted statement: "This has been 'Crisis To Countdown.'" Brilliant!)

We have an obligation to get out of depeche mode and into crisis mode ourselves. One suggestion I want to make is that it is vital that we share information and programming at times like this. The Dialogue pages of this magazine are one place to make available to other stations the programs you have produced, and to find programs to share with your listeners.

"We have an obligation to get out of depeche mode and into crisis mode ourselves, to supply airtime to the many splintered viewpoints that will never be heard on the national media."

In the mid-'70s, there was a remarkable informal network of college radio stations that shared information and programming on a daily basis all over New England. The technology then was comparatively primitive to what's out there now, yet it worked effectively, and reasonably smoothly. There are some established sources out there. Pacifica News Service (800-735-0230) has been running endless amounts of interviews, talk and commentary. Intercollegiate Broadcasting System (Box 592, Vails Gate, NY 12584/914-565-6710) is eager to act as a clearing house for programs that are available at little cost. The public affairs department at WPKN (244 University Avenue, Bridgeport, CT 06601) has shows it will make available.

I am sure there are dozens of other stations actively making their voice heard, and willing to extend that voice anywhere in the country. But most effective is grass-roots, home base reporting. Tell other stations what you are doing, what kinds of program ideas you've tried. Tell the world about it, here and anywhere else you can. Please, I again remind you that in any war, any revolution, the transmitters are the first thing they try to take. There is tremendous power in your hands, and to squander it by keeping silent is a crime. Someday they may be after YOUR tower because of your complacency. Peace.

CMJ War Correspondent Cliff Furnald also writes the New World Music column and works for WPKN in Bridgeport, CT. You are urged to respond to this or any other Mind Over Matters by contacting Carlos Tabakof at CMJ (516-466-6000) for details regarding submission.

FRED LeBLANC AND COWBOY MOUTH CBGB, New York City, January 10

Virtually anybody with an ear to the street in the world of the well-tuned pop song has come to know the name of Fred LeBlanc in the last few years. As the powerhouse stick-o-dynamite drummer for New Orleans' Dash Rip Rock, Fred pounded the skins for that cowboyish outfit for more than a few rabble-raising years, turning in some of the group's most memorable tunes and boisterous performances as well. Finding, however, that the group's tendency to raise a shoot-'em-up, hell-raising live ruckus left little room for his more crafted, subtle songwriting side, he split with the group a year or so ago (a departure that both parties are quick to stress was an amicable one), and struck out on his own in pursuit of a more pop-oriented dream. Returning to the North on his first tour with his new band, Cowboy Mouth (featuring fellow Crescent City pals like Paul Sanchez and John Thomas Griffith), Fred immediately filled the stage with his Bam-Bam-derived drumming and powerful vocals. While his new live band is still too green to give some of the songs the fire and punch they deserved, it would behoove anyone who keeps tabs on who's writing the best songs and doing the best shows to keep on the lookout for Cowboy Mouth in the near future.

BOILED IN LEAD/COLOR-BLIND JAMES EXPERIENCE Wetlands, New York City, January 16

Despite the news of the bombings in the Middle East hanging in the air, the show must go on, as they say, and this bill of two eclectic, innovative bands was a treat. The Colorblind James Experience started the night with their sly mix of polka/country/jazz with wry and cartoonish lyrics. Featuring tunes from their rare and wonderful self-titled debut and Why Should I Stand Up?—their latest, available through Cooking Vinyl—Colorblind James led his ensemble from the rave-up "Polka Girl" to the jazzy "Buster Cornelius" to a Dylanesque ballad with surprising ease and tight yet supple musicianship. Boiled In Lead describes their brand of music as "Celtodelic World Beat Rock 'N Reel" which hardly begins to describe their status as the loudest folk band you'll ever hear. Bil performed a large chunk of their new Atomic Theory release, Orb, with a fiery intensity. Musically, the audience was transported from the bright and airy folk of the Celtic isles to the out-of-kilter dance sounds of Eastern Europe to the joyous polyrhythms of the Caribbean and beyond, all performed with exceptional skill and breathtaking fury, and without jarring the audience with the seeming contradictions of presenting such a wide range of styles back to back.

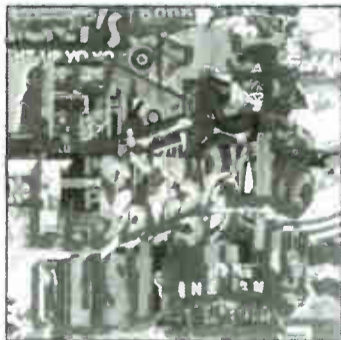

THE MONTH IN REVIEW

RIDE Nowhere (Sire-Reprise)

"All the youthful exuberance of the Smile collection remains intact on Ride's true album debut, but enhanced production creates bigger and fuller sounds, sculpting their raw energy into suggestive textures."

HAPPY MONDAYS Pills 'N' Thrills And Bellyaches (Elektra)

"With the producing, arranging and mixing help of super Brit DJ Paul Oakenfold and Steve Osbourne, the Mondays have pushed their musical base from simple, looping rhythms 'n guitars to include hip-hop, clip-clop beats and more melodic, catchy riffs. . ."

WEEN God Ween Satan—The Oneness (TwinTone)

"Youth of America, meet your new god: its name is Ween. Rather than killing their idols, Ween takes a giant Magic Marker and draws a silly—or sillier—mustache on almost every rock icon you can imagine, sorta like cyberpunk Marcel Duchamps."

GODFLESH Streetcleaner (Earache-Combat)

"Godflesh carves their own little extreme by tightening and exciting the fat from the mechanistic, slow-building sequences, the echoey vocal exhumations erupting forth for only a fraction of the song."
