What does "Touch Me Fall" mean, anyway?

Damned if I know!

Is it ... like ... "touch me, autumn?"

No.

Is it a Fall? ... like Niagara?

What do I look like an Indigo Girl?

You're no help.

I'm gonna call Amy and Emily and ask them myself.

Hey ... dial-a-clue, pal. They're busy.

TONY BENNETT

The Kids Are All Right

At 67, Tony Bennett has been singing longer than most of his newfound audience has been alive. These recent converts may have never heard of the likes of Johnny Mercer or Zoot Sims, but that doesn't worry Bennett; in fact, he's thrilled the under-25 crowd has welcomed him. His eyes light up when he talks about his new fans: "I find it's the best audience I've ever sung to, and I'm the most inspired in front of them. It's a whole new vein that I thought was impossible, because the marketing people just created too big a gap between parents and their children, which I consider very destructive, insisting to the young people that this [rock 'n' roll] is your music and you're a chicken or a square if you don't like it."

This month, Bennett taped a special for MTV Unplugged, which isn't that surprising, since he has been recording in acoustic settings his entire career. During recent concerts, Bennett goes so far as to unplug all microphones, letting the sound of his voice and his group, the Ralph Sharon Trio, fill the space. "That's definitely unplugged," Bennett chuckles. "I got that from the old cab drivers in NYC. They'd say to me 'You young singers use a microphone. You're not really singing, the oldtimers like Al Jolson and Eddie Cantor sang to the back of the house with no microphone,' and I always remembered that. So I tried it one day and it got a great reaction."

A few guest stars (Elvis Costello, J. Mascis, Evan Dando and k.d. lang) showed up to play and sing with Bennett for the MTV gig. Lang, Bennett says, is "a wonderful, wonderful singer. She has a real destiny in her voice."

Bennett has performed with the world's finest orchestras, yet at the end of the day he prefers the intimacy of his trio. "The way Ralph Sharon plays, it's a hand and glove thing, you can't replace that," Bennett explains that the trio's freshness and simplicity is the key to its appeal and success: "With everybody trying every trick in the book, like synthesizers, big symphonies and other guest stars, we've won two Grammys in a row with just the trio... [For Steppin' Out] we rehearsed for a couple of months, but when we went in the studio we did all the sides in two and a half days, so it was very fresh. That might be one of the reasons the young people love it now, they can feel the spontaneity. It's alive."

Bennett remembers his singing teacher's advice, which encouraged him to find his own style in an era of faceless crooners. "She said 'Don't imitate other singers, because then you'll just be one of the chorus. Listen to the musicians you like.' And I liked the way [pianist] Art Tatum used to make a production out of a song. And I liked [saxophonist] Stan Getz's honey tone. So I took the two and put them together...and it became dramatic. The musicians that moved me were the ones that sounded like singers. When Tommy Dorsey played 'Getting Sentimental Over You,' you could hear the words almost. So I learned from all these masters...I tried to keep my eyes and ears open to everything they were doing."

Bennett speaks warmly about his association with legends past like Getz, Count Basie and Duke Ellington, and he's equally gracious when discussing the great songwriters (from Hammerstein to Hart, he can name every one of them) who have given him such great material. One can hear a genuine appreciation for the composer in the way Bennett sings. He'll slow a song down or give it the extra jolt it deserves, or stop on a line to accentuate a phrase that a lesser singer would have walked right through. Perhaps Bennett's desire for excellence as a singer and his exuberance about life itself are revealed in this comment about his second love, painting. "Painting is a very long process. It takes a lifetime to learn how to do it," Bennett explains. "But it's the adventure of doing it that becomes wonderful."

JOHNNY CASH American Recordings (American, 3500 W. Olive Ave., Ste. 1550, Burbank, CA 91505)—Johnny Cash could have packed it in a long time ago, headed to Branson, Missouri, and made a comfortable living mugging his way through "A Boy Named Sue" for retired appliance salesmen four times a night. But Cash is still finding inspiration some 39 years after his first Sun single. It's hard to believe, but most of the performances on American Recordings are as vital as Cash's Sun singles and the At Folsom Prison recording. The concept is simple: Cash in Rick Rubin's living room with his acoustic guitar and a two-track, and the execution is brilliant. Although American Recordings is not a crass attempt to appeal to "the kids," most of its 13 songs deal explicitly with the side of Johnny Cash that seems to appeal most to the rock 'n' roll end of his following. Violence, loss, guilt, redemption, travel outsiders, and some very black humor loom large throughout these songs. Cash's low baritone is still an incredibly powerful instrument, and its stark, wobbly tone can be either unsettling or inspirational, but it's always believable—he seems to connect with every cut in a truly personal way. In "13" (by Glenn Danzig), Johnny claims "the list of lives I've broken could reach from here to Hell," but in "Like A Soldier," he again acknowledges his turbulent past, but refuses to apologize for it since it has made him as strong as he is today. This is exactly why Cash is still making important music almost 40 years into his career.

LIVE Throwing Copper (Radioactive, 1775 Broadway, New York, NY 10019)—These days, just the fact that a band can make it past the ripe old age of five years is a success story in and of itself. Consider that Live has been playing together since its members were 13 (that was in 1985) and you'll get an idea of what a tightly focused unit the band has become. It was Live's own brand of concentrated, angst-laden (live) energy that led to its debut, Mental Jewelry, which hovered around the top of the CMJ album charts for the better part of the winter of '92, as well as giving the band a #1 CMJ single ("Operation Spirit").

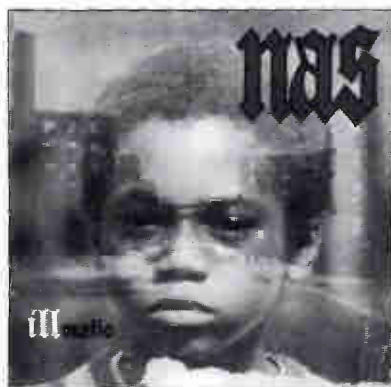

Throwing Copper, the band's newest, is decidedly more poppy, although no less heavy than Mental Jewelry, and favors thickened, more traditional arrangements. Once again, ex-Talking Head Jerry Harrison lends his production expertise, with co-production duties falling on the band itself. Live is stretching its lyrical boundaries as well, with Ed Kowalczyk's lyrics wandering off the wide road of global concerns, opting instead for the darker, more shadowy path of personal subjects (the problems are now in our own neighborhoods in "Shit Towne"). Kowalczyk's voice is as emotionally wrenching as ever on tracks like "I Alone," one of the richest, most leaden love songs this side of any recent Seattle entries. Appearing soon, live, in your town: "Selling The Drama," "Waitress" and "Stage."

NAS Illmatic (Columbia, 550 Madison Ave., New York, NY 10022-3211)—Illmatic boasts some heavyweight hip-hop producers—Large Professor, Q-Tip, Pete Rock and Gang Starr's DJ Premier—but the undisputed star is 20-year-old Nasir Jones, a k a Nas (formerly Nasty Nas). Illmatic is billed as a "reality story-book" "straight outta the fucking dungeons of rap" ("NY State Of Mind"), namely the unforgiving Queensbridge projects, which also spawned MC Shan and Marley Marl.

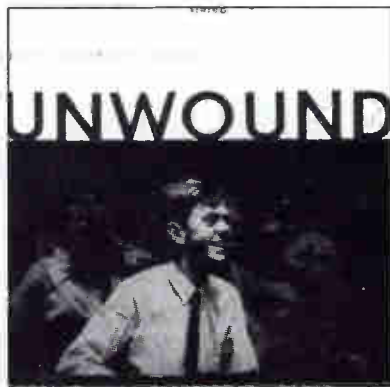

Nas does more than "tell it like is," he tells why it is and who he is with a firm grasp on the ironies, limitations and possibilities of his talent and surroundings. It's no accident that the song "Life's A Bitch" is followed by "The World Is Yours." The amount of hype and expectation over Illmatic (its advance single "It Ain't Hard To Tell" has been strong on our Beat Box chart for most of '94) has led some to compare Nas to Snoop Doggy Dogg, but unlike Snoop, Nas doesn't insist how great he is every other line. While lesser rappers justify obscenity and violence behind the notion that their records are "documents of the street," Nas uses that method to present something far more intense. Great sound, less bullshitting: "Represent," "One Love" and those mentioned above.

UNWOUND New Plastic Ideas (Kill Rock Stars, 120 State Ave. NE #418, Olympia, WA 98501/206-357-9732)—A scant seven months have passed since the release of Unwound's full-length debut, Fake Train; but seven months comprises a large portion of a teenage punk rock life and the teenagers in Unwound have obviously undergone a growth spurt. In the past, the threesome from Olympia, Washington, has been easily compared to its influences, but with New Plastic Ideas Unwound has outgrown its influences and sprinted down the pathway towards a definitive voice. The album's nine songs work together as a cohesive statement, reflecting the once scattered band's newfound focus. A whirlwind of angst is immediately apparent from the onset of the aggressive guitars on "Entirely Different Matters" to the passive tension apparent in the basslines of "Friction Friction." As Unwound blossoms, it is beginning to realize that inherent punk standards can be just as effective as in-your-face ideologies. Existing in a realm of those who stress attitude over ability, Unwound's true beauty lies in the fact that the band neither celebrates incompetence nor dwells on perfectionism—a band of naturals.

JON HASSELL AND BLUESCREEN Dressing For Pleasure (Warner Bros., 3300 Warner Blvd., Burbank, CA 91510)—The essential deconstructive nature of hip-hop and its emergence as a widely popular genre of music produced a crack in the pop culture veneer, through which any number of jazz and avant garde musicians and composers have slipped through to make their own attempts at the style. Renowned composer, trumpeter and occasional Brian Eno acolyte, Jon Hassell is the latest, and in many ways, the most successful. He's titled the band Bluescreen after the film technique of superimposing one image onto another by the use of a screen painted in a color (often blue) that keys the camera to fill anything in that color with a second image: think Superman, or think about what happens when your six o'clock newscaster wears a light blue shirt. The metaphors here are obvious, but no less effective. The hip-hop is all implied, cut-up and reformed into a more complicated idea of music that is somehow also fun to dance to, just as Christopher Reeve can, with a bluescreen projecting sky and clouds around him, seem to fly. Helping Hassell along with this sleight of hand are notables like Miles Davis alum Kenny Garrett, Disposable Heroes Of Hiphoprisy producer Pete Scaturro and a slew of appellative alternative musicians like Flea, Brain and Buckethead. Dressing For Pleasure is an exciting and fun mixed-media collage of avant-garde composition, hip-hop and phone sex eroticism. Put on "G-Spot," "Personals" and "Club Zombie."
—Scott Frampton

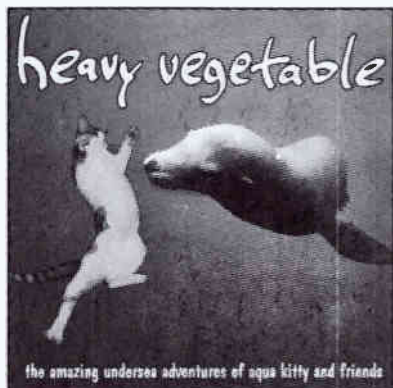

MAGGIE ESTEP No More Mister Nice Girl (NuYo, c/o Imago, Carnegie Hall Tower, 152 W. 57th St., New York, NY 10019)—Poetry and music have long been amiable bedfellows, but not until MTV recently put a spotlight on spoken word artists have the two occupied such a noteworthy spot on the mass cultural map. At the helm of the impending spoken word onslaught is Maggie Estep, who has already appeared on MTV's Spoken Word Unplugged special and toured colleges on the network-sponsored spoken word tour. Her debut album, No More Mister Nice Girl, features her full-time back up band, I Love Everybody, whose crunchy, funk-inflected rock gives Estep's poems a street-wise beat. Her words, however, remain the fuel behind the fire: "I don't have anything against men, just stupid men" she sneers on the snappy "Hey Baby." Estep's tuneful music and universally appealing topics flush both "The Stupid Jerk That I'm Obsessed With" and "I'm Not A Normal Girl" with instant radio appeal. Her speaking turns into bona fide singing on the heart-wrenching "Scarification" and the surprisingly poppy "Road Trip Strip," while "Bad Day At The Beauty Salon" features Estep solo in prime storytelling mode.

—Lydia Andersson

FUDGE Southside Speedway (Caroline, 1 W. 26th St., New York, NY 10001/212-989-2929)—Fudge ingrained itself in the mind the alternative community last year with its debut album The Ferocious Rhythm Of Precise Laziness, a lysergic escapade into gooey-sweet hooks and sugary melodies. While the ingestion of too many confections often results in weakened gums and tooth loss, Southside Speedway proves Fudge has a stronger bite than ever. Unlike the debut, which resonated meek cuteness, the record is gritty and immediate, confronting the listener in forceful waves of sound. Like recent punk pop albums by Seaweed and Mega City Four, Southside Speedway sounds as if the band stumbled into the local record store while on tour and discovered the frenetic joy of Husker Du and the Replacements. Indeed, much of the new energy probably has a lot to do with the band being on the road so much—325 days last year alone. Live Fudge has always been intense and spontaneous, reveling in the urgency and absurdity of rock, and now the group is incorporating that spirit into its recordings. Southside Speedway takes off with foot to the floor, quickly accelerating into "Dart Gun before hitting cruise control with the keyboard gurgles and reflective guitar riffs of "It's Morning Already." The record has its unpredictable hairpin turns as well, like the two minute noise storm of the title cut or the radio static wash that drenches "Car Stereo Blast Off." Also rev your engines with "Superstar Junky" and "Shirts & Skins."
—Jon Wiederhorn

HEAVY VEGETABLE The Amazing Undersea Adventures Of Aquakitty And Friends (Headhunter, c/o Cargo, 3058 N. Clybourn Ave., Chicago, IL 60618/312-935-5683)—

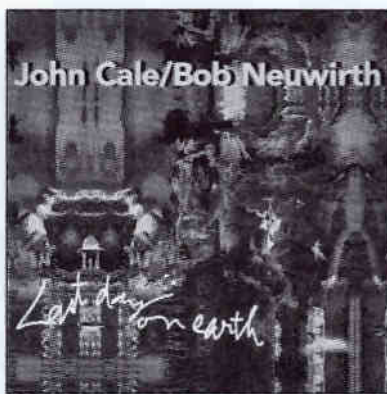

FUDGE

CAROLINE

Despite the flippant nature of the band's moniker, album title and great cover art, Heavy Vegetable has a rare understanding of how to make an experimental album unforgivably entertaining and unforgettably rock-solid. While we've heard many bands that attempt to impress by squeezing a few hundred time changes into each song and feigning cleverness with quixotic lyrical brevity, the difference with Heavy Vegetable is that the whole deal is offered with honesty. This band is too busy making each section of music interesting even to consider playing a riff or roll that doesn't fit, or is being included just for the sake of showing off. And while The Amazing Undersea Adventures... contains no formulas per se, there are common threads woven throughout, primarily the get-in-get-out attitude of each song and the clear and bright vocals of Rob Crow, who is occasionally backed up by the light, wistful harmonies of Elea Tenuta. With a demeanor more vicious than anything even Alice In Chains might dish out, "Krishna On The Ledge" gets our vote for one of the best songs so far this year with its savage, steely guitar and granite-solid percussion stalking from all angles. Other wonderful adventures: "Myllebetz," "Eggy In A Bready" and "Black Suit."
—Aaron Clow

JOHN CALE/BOB NEUWIRTH Last Day On Earth (MCA, 70 Universal City Plaza, Universal City, CA 91608)—This collaboration by ex-ex-Velvet Underground member John Cale and veteran American songwriter Bob Neuwirth is somewhat of an "interactive" record. The listener doubles in the role of "the tourist" in Last Day On Earth, led through a series of vignettes supplied by the patrons of a cafe. The record starts small, and quickly widens its vision, as if the album were set to capture the planet's life flashing before its eyes. The liner notes for Last Day On Earth are surprisingly sparse, considering its scope, although their brief definition of the project as "a blueprint for theatre" says it all. Cale's haunting sense for the dramatic and Neuwirth's wry and often obtuse lyrics always add up to an engaging listen. The album drifts through song styles and moods as briskly and expertly as large, detailed sets are shifted in a grand stage play. A magical, mysterious tour indeed: "Who's In Charge," "Short Of Time," "Streets Come Alive" and the tumbleweed swagger of "Paradise Nevada."

—Steve Ciabattoni

OTIS RUSH Ain't Enough Comin' In (This Way Up, c/o Mercury, 825 Eighth Ave., New York, NY 10019)—Bluesman Otis Rush has had a spotty recording career, despite being considered by many to be a major influence, as well as one of the top performers on the blues scene (His was the original version of "I Can't Quit You"). He's had releases on at least nine different labels since he began in the 1950s and his last record was a live recording released in 1985. Ain't Enough Comin' In is Rush's first-ever major-label release and it's a stunner. His guitar style is distinctive; he plays left-handed but the guitar is strung for a right handed player, and his lithe voice was made for the blues. Augmented by a full horn section, Rush tackles diverse material from the likes of Sam Cooke ("Ain't That Good News"), Ray Charles ("A Fool For You"), B.B. King ("It's My Own Fault") and others with burning intensity and gritty soul. Such qualities should assure that Ain't Enough Comin' In may finally bring him to the wide audience he so rightly deserves.

West and South Africa—no synthesizer hybrids, no Parisian icing or Western influence. Three players each take three turns performing solo pieces on African instruments, creating a spartan, haunting feel that underscores the quieter side of African music, as opposed to the massed drums and dazzling guitars of the large bands that often grab the spotlight in the West. Djimo Kouyate, from Senegal, plays the kora, displaying the unadorned and unembellished African griot tradition. Dumisani Maraire, from Zimbabwe, plays the mbira; if you like the sound of Thomas Mapfumo, these are the traditional, original sounds from which he builds his electric, pulsing music. Seleshe Damessae performs on the krar, a five-string pentatonic lute that is really the African root of the banjo and guitar. This simple set proves that if you're willing to listen a little harder, you'll find there's a lot of roots here, building blocks for other musics and styles that have spread all over the world.

JELLO BIAFRA & MOJO NIXON Prairie Home Invasion (Alternative Tentacles, P.O. Box 419092, San Francisco, CA 94141/415-431-5697)—"Hellooooo Bayyyyybe," croons Jello Biafra at the beginning of "Buy My Snake Oil," imitating the patented voice of the Big Bopper. "Can you say plane crash?" he continues, importing the type of sarcastic irreverence he started with the Dead Kennedys and still continues today. Like everything in Biafra's back catalogue, his new record rails against conservatives, hypocrites, idiots, back-stabbers and, of course, organized religion, with venomous wit. But while Biafra usually chooses a punk rock framework to house his lefty political tirades, the new lyrics are backed with the twang 'n' strum of country/blues. And rather than satire the blue-collar primitivism of the music, Biafra chooses to celebrate it alongside the capable hands of Mojo Nixon and the Toadliquors. Even when the jolt of the lyrics—such as "I love blacks and gays and Latinos/As long as they don't move next door" ("Love Me, I'm A Liberal") and "...An abortion is what she chose/Christian showed her a bloody fetus/She said, 'That's fine, I'll have one of those,'" ("Will The Fetus Be Aborted")—wears off, there's still the music to hold the listener's attention. From ragtime trills to harmonica hoots, Prairie Home Invasion delivers a true alternative to the scream and strum formula so prevalent in indie rock.

—Jon Wiederhorn

CHRIS KNOX Polyfoto Duck Shaped Pain (Communion, 290-C Napoleon St., San Francisco, CA 94124/415-647-5667)—New

Zealand's Chris Knox, the shorter half of the long-running duo Tall Dwarfs, is one of the more engaging songwriters in either hemisphere. His trademark lo-fi recordings, tape-loop rhythm tracks and kitchen drawer percussion may prevent his hummable, often Beatles-esque melodies from ever reaching a mass audience, but he's already been a major influence on Sebadoh, Portastatic, Dump and a growing number of D.I.Y. bedroom hermits. On his fifth solo album, Polyfoto Duck Shaped Pain, biting humor and insightful lyrics cover familiar Knox territory: imperfect bodies, rape, death, suicide and love. A slightly new twist this time is his use of the Omni-chord, a 1970s vintage, battery-operated, cheesy keyboard/drum machine. Its synth-wheeze contrasts with nasty fuzz guitar on alternating tracks, blending surprisingly well together on "The Glide." On "The Outer Skin," this thrift store relic is used rather intimately. Its toy-organ sound, along with whispered vocals, seemingly transport you right into Chris' living room. Knox's albums are always deeply personal, his solo efforts particularly self-revealing compared to his Tall Dwarfs songs, or nearly anyone's songs for that matter. Gum, a bonus five-song EP included with the album, is simple and spare, just Chris and his guitar, but is definitely not generic. Nobody else but Chris Knox could pull off a song called "Self Pity's Just A Name For Feeling Real."

—David Newgarden

WYNTON MARSALIS SEPTET In This House, On This Morning (Columbia, 550 Madison Ave., New York, NY 10022-3211)—Trumpeter Wynton Marsalis, along with his prodigious siblings, has given a renewed life to jazz within his younger generation, helping scores of young artists break through, as he built himself a reputation as a player and composer with few contemporary comparisons. Some would also say that the legend and stature given to him as a serious musician has taken the fun out of his work, but there is no denying Marsalis' passion and vision on In This House,

On This Morning. The ambitious two-hour, two-CD piece is the score for Marsalis' commissioned work for New York City's Lincoln Center (which premiered in May, 1992), and it showcases with intensity the possibilities of jazz in a long-format composition played by a small seven-piece ensemble. Long-time Marsalis sideman Reginald Veal (bass, vocals on "Father") and Herlin Riley (drums) provide the rhythm section to the orchestrations for trumpet, trombone, sax and piano, played masterfully by Marsalis' working septet. The roots of the composition lie in the houses of the African-American church, its hymns, songs and shouts inspiring the spirituality and communal feelings of Marsalis' work (gospel legend Marion Williams sings lead on "Prayer"). In This House, On This Morning burns warm and radiantly, and benefits from not only its players' virtuosity, but a collective soul and eloquence, in reading these dramatic liturgies with their full breadth of human and spiritual emotions. And, the Septet does have fun, especially on the New Orleans-styled "Processional," all showing Marsalis' playing and composing to be well-deserved of their greatest praise and place of importance in American music.

viable old-timers once again finding new ways to reinvent themselves through the life-giving force of punk rock. The resultant chemistry of the band's collective roots is one of basic punk swagger, a rough-hewn dual guitar roar and low-end bristle that rants and rolls with wiry strength. Prescott howls lines like, "How can I smile when I feel so infantile?" with veteran wit, Davis lays down some solid thumping, and the twining guitar chords are kept to an effective minimum. Beantown rocks!: "Big Trick," "It Lives!" and "Nothing. Not No One." —Colin Helms

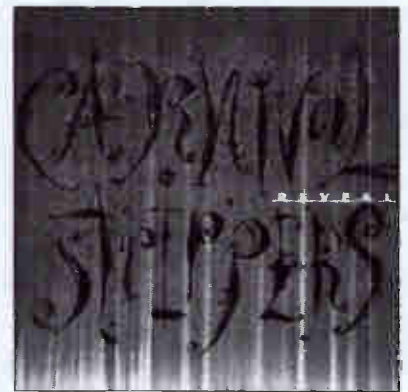

BLACK TRAIN JACK You're Not Alone (Roadrunner, 536 Broadway, 4th Fl., New York, NY 10012/212-219-0077)—Over the years, Roadrunner Records has been inundated with death, doom and gloom, but lately the label has been slowly branching out to spotlight other musical genres, such as the animated rock of Black Train Jack. You're Not Alone is a fun, spirited offering, brimming with catchy rhythms and pop/punk/funk overtones. The band takes pride in its positive songwriting structure, its happiness at being free of drugs and alcohol having a noticeable effect on the overall sound of the band. Staying true to the old motto, "If it ain't broke, don't fix it," You're Not Alone retains all of the powerful, rockin' rhythms that put Black Train Jack on the map last year with its debut album, No Reward. Ernie (guitar/vocals/harmonica) explains, "Whatever people liked on No

Reward, I wanted them to like again." The band breathes new life into Steve Miller's "Joker"—it grooves along a sped-up bass line, drenched in heavy guitar rhythms and youthful energy. Rob's lucid, four-octave voice (he also sings opera!) soars above chugging guitar chords and powerhouse drum beats on "What's The Deal." "Lottery" is more reminiscent of '80s pop punk groove and has a "Ballroom Blitz" feel to it. Also check out "Handouts" and "The Reason." —Jenni Glenn solo album, Venus Kissed The Moon, a few years ago; guitarist Mike Hoffmann and drummer Kirk McFarlin used to be in EIEIO and Ecoteur, respectively; and—surprisingly, given Reveal's laid-back, countrified groove—bassist Keith Brammer is best known for his work in Die Kreuzen. At her best, Nelson comes on like vintage Chrissie Hynde (the lower-register Midwestern melisma helps the comparison), emoting artfully through her notebook-philosophical lyrics as McFarlin's three-dimensional drums bang and roll around her. A few of these tracks are armed with heavy-artillery hooks (yes, "Objects In The Mirror" rhymes with "appear," but try getting it out of your head); the best, though, is "Take One Guess," a 6/8 ballad in the spirit of the late songwriter Doc Pomus, who indirectly gave the Milwaukee band its name. Other songs simply get over on the strength of Nelson's lazy strum and the Strippers' mellow camaraderie. A few more of Milwaukee's finest: "Mind Letting Go," "Cracked Man" (with an unnerving spoken-word bit by Nelson's father) and "Shifting Sands."

NEGATIVLAND Over The Edge Vol. 6: The Willsaphone Stupid Show (Seeland, c/o Stucky And Stakke, 1920 Monument Blvd. MF-1, Concord, CA 94520/206-866-4940)—The Willsaphone Stupid Show offers more inspired dementia from Negativland's weekly free-form radio show that's broadcast over KPFA in Berkeley, California. This two-disc set, culled from two broadcasts originally aired in 1991, is a fairly disjointed history of David Wills, a k a the Weatherman, and his family, presented through tapes made over the years on home recording equipment. These tapes, which contain some very personal moments, are then mixed with live and recorded performances that are processed to create expansive soundscapes, illuminating the preoccupation this group has with sound, tape and the manipulation of both. While not as engrossing as some of Negativland's previous releases, The Willsaphone Stupid Show is an amusing addition to the band's continuing saga. —Jim Caligiuri

VARIOUS ARTISTS A Day In The Park...A Compilation Of Now Sounds (Now Sound, P.O. Box 91317, Durham, NC, 27708)—Every year or so, there's a compilation that surveys the state of American indie-rock, from The Wailing Ultimate to ...one last kiss. A Day In The Park is this year's entry. As might be expected, a couple of Carolinian natives check in here, notably Archers of Loaf, whose "Power Walker" is one of the strongest things the band's ever done, fake Brit accent and all. Other highlights come from the East Coast (the Dambuilders' "Montana," an instrumental with a "Good Guys And Bad Guys" guitar line), West Coast (Nothing Painted Blue's frenetically hooky "Missed The Point"), South (the Grifters' "Spaceship," blurred-out and wrapped in slide guitar) and Pacific Northwest (Crayon's joyfully stumbling "I Could"). There's a guys-with-guitars aesthetic that pervades the compilation, but it never gets too samey, thanks to the first-rate songwriting of the vast majority of these artists. Check out all of the above, plus Diskothiq's "There Is No Joy In Irvine" and Butterglory's laconic, buzzy "Drop The Baton."

THEE HYPNOTICS The Very Crystal Speed Machine (American, 3500 W. Olive Ave. Ste. 1550, Burbank, CA 91505)—The Very Crystal Speed Machine is an awe-inspiring device, a monstrous contraption able to suck up the best of the Stones, Hendrix, Zeppelin, MC5, Sly And The Family Stone and any other vital rock landmarks in its way, grind them up and spit them out as a dazzling powerhouse of acid-pounding, blues-grinding and hip-swayin' boogie. Overseeing the machine's production is Black Crowes frontman Chris Robinson, whose reverence for rootsy rock 'n' roll is only outdone by his ability to assume the era's fashion trends. As a result, Speed Machine comes across as Thee Hypnotics' most direct and honest work to date, gracefully maneuvering through musical influences while retaining a grasp on the sleazy growl of their three previous albums. The first single, "Heavy Liquid," is heavy-fisted, cock-rock at its best, winding out a slow groove with acid-drenched guitar wail. "If The Good Lord Loves Ya" travels to the land of piano and harmonica-driven boogie-rock, while the wah-wah grooves of "Tie It Up" and call-and-response chorus on "Look What You've Done" traverse funk and soul influences with effortless agility.

ALLEN CLAPP AND HIS ORCHESTRA One Hundred Percent Chance Of Rain (Bus Stop, P.O. Box 3161, Iowa City, IA 52244-3161/319-339-3960)—On his first album One Hundred Percent Chance Of Rain, Allen

Clapp doesn't really have an orchestra, just a few back-up instruments; and if the group name is misleading, the album title is completely off-base. This peppy record is smooth, lo-fi music that never even hints at the daunting sentiment of its title. Creating this album, Clapp made full use of his surroundings—recording tracks in church offices and Volkswagen vans. But listeners should not write it off immediately as another record dwelling in the feedback-laden gravelpit, for the album is surprisingly clean. The swift four-track production and uplifting musicality with strange titles ("Why Sting Is Such An Idiot" and "Shopping Mall Disaster #1") places Allen Clapp somewhere between HoneyBunch and Brian Ritchie. A spirit booster, One Hundred Percent Chance of Rain emerges as a perfect springtime soundtrack. The best forecast includes: "Evening Time," "Something Strange Happens" and "She Grins And Waves Goodbye." —Dawn Sutter

JACKPOT EXTRA!

COME "Wrong Side" (5") (Matador, 676 Broadway, 4th Fl., New York, NY 10012/212-995-5882)—Boston's Come specializes in moods of reverberation, with loads of heavy chords wrenched from warm throbbing guitars; imagine Green On Red mixed with Codeine, or Royal Trux on a country blues bender instead of a Stones jones, and you're on the right track. Recorded on the soulful soil of Memphis, the three songs here are warm, fuzzed-out and languorous, although the Swell Maps cover, "Loin Of The Surf," kind of blows the mood with its reverby surf moves. More than a stop-gap EP, this single represents a new phase of growth for the group, a strong new direction for Come that's outside the scope of its previous recordings but not alienated from the roots of what the band does best. —James Lien

ZENI GEVA "Autofuck" (7") (Skin Graft, P.O. Box 257546, Chicago, IL 60625/312-989-9865)—The latest installment from the comic book/7" label Skin Graft is from Japanese noise master K.K. Null and Zeni Geva, a band that continually damages eardrums with the harsh sounds of its metal/hardcore. "Autofuck" lives up to the legendary wall of noise this band has produced in the past; the B-side "When I Was On Horseback," a traditional British tune, comes as quite a shock. The song begins with a standard arrangement and then, three-quarters of the way through, launches into a Zeni Geva addendum to the song. —Dawn Sutter

WILLIAM HOOKER GROUP "Vulnerability" (7") (ERL, 418 Madison Ave., Albany, NY 12210/518-432-0851)—Here's an odd concept from a jazz drummer who's had a curious career. After leading his own terrific groups (which included later-to-be stars David Murray and David S. Ware in the early '70s) for two decades to minimal attention from the jazz press, Hooker has been ballyhooed by the indie-rock community for recent collaborations with Sonic Youth guitarists Thurston Moore and Lee Ranaldo. This single consists of two excerpts from a live improvisation, and spotlights Hooker's free drumming nearly to the exclusion of the group (horns, squealing electronics and Borbetomagus' Donald Miller on guitar). The briefness of the format leaves you wanting (a lot) more, but we have to admit it'd be pretty amazing to hear this on a jukebox at your favorite bar. —David Newgarden FREEDOM CRUISE/NIGHTWALKER "Cruise" (7") (Simple Solution, 1025 Brown St., Dayton, OH 45409/513-223-1333)—Oddly enough, the lo-fi goth-metal band on one side of this split single and the even lower-fi experi-metal band on the other side share the same members. Even more oddly, they've got the same members as Guided By Voices. Freedom Cruise's "Cruise" is a slow, minor-key grind, a fine Robert Pollard-penned mini-descent into madness. Nightwalker's "Lucifer's Aching Revolver" begins with found-noise meanderings, lapses briefly into an overheard two-chord headbanger, then dives back into the comfortable territory of four-track randomness and an oxygen-deprived "yeah yeah yeah" chant before it cuts off abruptly. —Douglas Wolk

FRIENDLY Bloodsucking Daemons, Machines And Banshees (7" EP) (Friendly, c/o Trashbox Design, P.O. Box 14465, Richmond, VA 23221)—Friendly's debut single is a glorious mess of home-brewed all-over-the-place-ness. Produced by Eggs' Rob Christiansen, these texturally sprawling four songs recall Huggy Bear's off-the-cuff, sometimes atonal embrace of variation, from the mellowly jaunty "Mariana" to the chaotic but driven "Lighthouse Keeper." Six band members (three of whom sing) play about a trillion instruments, from slide guitar to clarinet to appliances. The band's greatest strength is its ability to circumvent obviousness altogether; though not all of this works, it's never less than interesting, and sometimes tremendously fresh. —Douglas Wolk FAUNA "Songone" (7") (TenPop/Prospective, c/o Susstones, P.O. Box 6425, Minneapolis, MN 55406)—Fauna's first single sounds like a cross between the rugged song structures of My Bloody Valentine and the crisp, '60s-spiked pop of Game Theory. Guitarist Tommy Roberts' breezy singing floods "Songone" with fresh energy; it starts out as a tuneful romp but soon after concedes to its less structured, more relaxed leanings. On the flip, "Pretty" skips to Roberts' tension-racked strums and a surly bassline, all thinly but-tered by Roberts' vocals. —Lydia Anderson

VIVA SATELLITE! "Episode d'Ammour Matinee" (7") (Happy Go Lucky, 44000 Middle Ridge Road, Lorain, OH 44053/216-397-7612)—Under the pseudonyms of Phineas and Phaedra, Rob Christiansen (of Eggs) and Lauren Feldsher went to play in the studio, and Viva Satellite! resulted. The two use Moogs, synthesizers, drums and bass as background noise for their whispered musings. The record is the epitome of silliness under the guise of seriousness. "Nous Sommes Un Sandwich" and the misspelling of "amour" dispel any rumors that Phineas and Phaedra are really French—but foreign nationality is no requirement for fun. —Dawn Sutter

ROGUE'S MARCH Never Fear (c/o Wish Management, 1674 Broadway Ste. 5D, New York, NY 10019/212-315-4032)—A new band has emerged from the same lively Irish-expatriate New York scene that produced Black 47, drawing crowds at the taverns and pubs. Like Black 47 a year or two ago, Rogue's March has garnered a fast-growing cult of fame through New York's young Irish community, and the band is just waiting for a spark to take them to even higher visibility. Rogue's March's sound reflects what its members are, mingling their Irish roots with American dreams and NYC's do-or-die lifestyle. But this band isn't a sound-alike by any stretch: While Black 47 mingles the sound of the reel and the ceili with streetwise hip-hop beats and overtly humorous American influences, Rogue's March seems more influenced by American guitar rock, particularly the sounds just across the Hudson in Hoboken, NJ. The songs are great, sounding at times like the Feelies with an Irish flair, or a hypothetical Yo La Tengo acoustic set of Paddy Reilly's. It sounds like Rogue's March is a little new to the studio—one can only imagine how much more fire and spirit the songs might have when performed in front of an enthusiastic crowd on a rowdy Saturday night. It takes a while for the band to warm up; about three or four songs into the CD, things start to get really good—"Amsterdam Mistress" is a spirited drunken sing-along a la the Pogues' "Dirty Old Town" or Black 47's "Funky Ceili," while "Bad Mistake," "Guide Our Love" and "I Wish My Wife Was A Country Singer" hint at potential along the lines of the finest moments of the Mekons or the Pogues. —James Lien

FYI

The demo tape from DUNEBUGGY (1230 Garden St., Hoboken, NJ 07030/201-792-6056) buys pretty heavily into the One Last Kiss/indie-pop aesthetic, but within its count-four-and-strum limitations, parts of it work amazingly well. "Chump Change" and "Pediddle" are dandy janglers in the Small Factory/Velocity Girl mold, aided by Tracy Wilson's bright-eyed girlpop vocals. Where Dunebuggy is most effective, though, is where it pulls off tricks that show it knows how to make a song stand out, like the one-note guitar obligato played against a far-ranging bassline at the beginning of "White Chocolate," or the foreign-language radio broadcast heard through the last few minutes of "Bucket." And just when a song like "Green Eisenhower" seems to be heading for midtempo anorak predictability, guitarist/singer Jon-Michael Procopio will pull off an artful solo or (even better) a lengthy instrumental passage. It's in the passages where nobody's singing that Dunebuggy sounds most like itself: "Pediddle," for example, starts and ends with distinctive, strange guitar noises, and has a really effective section towards the end where the head-nodding four-chord riff is balanced out by a peculiar vibrating solo. —D.I.Y.

BATHERS

BATHERS Lagoon Blues (Marina, Kassel/Lahnemann GBR, Lindenallee 21, 20259 Hamburg, Germany/040-439-9802)—Over the course of a decade, Chris Thompson has proved himself a maverick, even by pop-sophisticate standards. His first venture, Friends Again, was Scottish guitar-jangle at root but wryly spun and extravagantly embellished, pitched between Orange Juice's chirpy melodicism and Prefab Sprout's academic beauty, before his next group, the Bathers, took a more serious, ambitious direction. After three albums of ever-decreasing response/sales, Thompson arrives at Lagoon Blues, an even more deliciously idiosyncratic, highbrow excursion. Sometimes Thompson lets loose the contained Friends Again sensibility on tracks like "Gracefruit," "Thru' The Old Holmwood" and "Ave The Leopards," but elsewhere the deliberate, arch atmosphere suggests a British, refined, ultra-romantic, non-vaudevillian version of Tom Waits, with strings and piano at the fore behind his rich swooning vocal. The album artwork sums up the musical tone: cream-colored, pillar-fronted Georgian architecture, figures in dress shirts and ruffled evening dresses—in other words, precious and rarified, with Thompson's obtuse, poetic lyricism provoking more extreme responses. Lagoon Blues is the kind of work to risk the accusation of Grand Pretension—forget Scotland, this is grand European period drama posing as contemporary rock/pop songwriting with beautifully judged rococo and baroque flourishes. Encapsulating and encapsulated, Thompson is a dreamer unafraid to dream; if only more would dream alongside him.

VARIOUS ARTISTS Volume Nine (Volume, 22 Brooks Mews North, London W2 3BW, U.K./071-706-8122)—19 new exclusive releases on one lengthy CD, coupled with 192 pages of colour, insight, introspection, ink, wit, wisdom and fish. The fish remain the cover stars but otherwise Volume's proclamation of its valuable cargo is spot-on. As per usual, the tracks mix live versions (cranberries, Buffalo Tom's "Soda Jerk"), new arrangements (Tindersticks' "Her") and demos (Kristin Hersh's "Close Your Eyes") among the wealth of new recordings. Mark Lanegan's version of the sensualized Tim Buckley blues on "Wheels" is sublime; Paul Weller's take on Tim Hardin's "Black Sheep Boy" is modestly understated, the epitome of authenticity; the Divine Comedy's interpretation of Talk Talk's "Life Is What You Make It" retains the original's poised grandeur but with a skeletal arrangement; Sonic Youth, Morphine, Madder Rose, That Dog, Jah Wobble and Fun-Da-Mental all represent themselves admirably. The two debuts this time are ambient dancers Wogin Christ (a.k.a. Luke Vibert from Cornwall, like the Aphex Twin, signed to Rising

OVER SEAS

High [megan: is this right?-LA] with acid-simple, candlelight-mellow "Gas Fish," which sits between Spooky and Pressure Of Speech in the middle dance section, and Rub Ultra's "Suspend," a manic multi-cultural rock-funk amalgam that follows the Senser/Rage Against The Machine maxim, but recalls some of the rock/reggae (or ragga) guitar lurch of the Ruts. Volume remains the best documentation of alternativism as it progresses through the months; you'd be a fool to do without it.

VARIOUS ARTISTS Themes From The 60s (Future Legend, P.O. Box 727, Kenley, Surrey CH8 5YF, U.K.)—This collection is a curio of limited interest but a treasure trove for the paisley-minded. Future Legend has inspired a host of unheralded talent to attempt versions of classic film and TV themes, in order to give pleasure to millions. No doubt, but even more so to spread its name around rather than resort to the usual heard-my-demo? debacle. Are you ready for a ska-fied take on "The Saint" (Ministry Of Ska), or a '60s-groove through "Casino Royale"—hold on, wasn't that already a '60s-groove thang? No new arrangement takes any chances—contemporary dance blueprints are non-existent, so timewarped kitschedelia reins, with heavy deployment of guitar twang and do-the-swim dynamics on the likes of "Dr Who," "Dangerman," "The Munsters" and "Borbarella," with oddities like "All Too Much," from the Beatles' Yellow Submarine soundtrack, by Box Office Poison.

PLUS, ALSO, TOO

This week's playlist: DISCO INFERNO DI Go Pop (Rough Trade), SEEFEEEL's Starsthrough EP (Warp), MOONSHAKE's forthcoming The Sound Your Eyes Can Follow (Too Pure), JEFF BUCKLEY's Live At Sin-é EP (Columbia), SWELL's 41 (American), the RAINCOATS' three reissues (DGC), MAGIC HOUR's No Excess Is Absurd, TIM BUCKLEY's epochal Starsailor. Play Nirvana's Nevermind and wonder how depression seeps from vinyl versions of 'lost generation' disposition into reality. Committing suicide takes away your fear of death—Shakespeare said that, I think...The two most promising guitar-pop factions of '94 make their debut in the same month. "For The Dead"/"Child's Body" by London quartet GENE is my favorite debut single since Suede's "The Drowners," and since we're on the subject, Gene plies Pop According To The Sm*ths more than Suede ever did, but so sublimely you can forgive the band its trespassing. "For The Dead" is a brief, bittersweet croon of a song, with greater r'n'b tinges to the rambunctious jangle—more Weller than Marr, in fact—and a more poised warble to the deep end, crisply enunciated voice than M*rr*ss*y. There must be some conscious Moz 'tribute' or parody in part, going by the odd falsetto climb and playful growl, unless it's identity-crisis time, while the "pedophilic" possibilities inherent in the song title/lyric of the more fractious, tempo-shifting "Child's Body" ("Give me your child's body/And make it small and make it real/And if the dress fits/Why can't I wear it?") is also playing with Moz-style. But ultimately, who cares; both tracks already sound like classics—utterly assured, effortlessly cool, gorgeously flirtatious, perfectly formed (Costermonger, c/o Alan James PR, 130 London Road, London SE1, U.K./071-620-1383)...Manchester quartet OASIS, meanwhile, is said to evoke the ghost of the Stone Roses, but when did the Roses ever sound like "Supersonic"? The guitars have more pre- and post-punk rock razzle to them, with snarlier vocals. But like the Roses, and Gene for that matter, there is a surfeit of surefooted self-belief in the lyrical and climb-aboard anthemic chorus. More proof of potential greatness lies in "Tame Me Away," a convincingly tender ballad, and the nagging drama of "I Will Believe" and "Columbia" (Creation, 2nd Fl., 8 Westgate St., London E8, U.K./081-986-7190)...Who trusts a situationist these days? The 'ten commandments' according to THESE ANIMAL MEN, like their advocacy of amphetamines (banned tours, government 'outrage' et al.), before any musical worth is established, is cheap entertainment—the horse before the cart on most anyone's terms. The follow-up to their debut, "Speed King," is "You're Not My Babylon," proof at least of something worth waiting around for—a five-minute ride of itchy, nervous pop serration, if you will. The format is pure noo wave: urgent thrashiness but neo-Merseybeat melody, with violin/cello, pleading chorus and BIG guitars, more Manic Street Preachers' disciplined rockular 'action' (at the helm, Dave Erlinga, Manics producer) than the supposed Who/Small Faces comparisons (Hi-Rise, 429 Harrow Road, London W10, U.K./081-964-6195)...Having parted with PJ Harvey, Stereolab and Seefeel, Too Pure is looking to new signings like MINXUS to lead the way forward. The trio's debut single, "Steal Steal Steal"/"Today, I," reveals a pliable, sea-sawing rock formation with razorish strumming, stop/start rhythms, a forceful, trained female voice (the curiously named She Rocola) and a veneer of soul. The result is almost like a traditionally 'indie,' but jazzier, version of PJ Harvey, but don't take this as a comparison because, like all Too Pure signings, Minxus has an individual, different voice (Too Pure, 3A Highbury Crescent, London N5 1RN, U.K./071-609-2415)... Damaged Goods is one of the more unheralded but stoically independent of indies, against the fashion tide. London band HOPPER's single "Hunter" is punkily charged, sinewy pop, with female voice, controlled dynamics and steely tension; "Bottle Island"/"Youngblood" by NEW BOMB TURKS is the work of rock renegade Billy Childish, bleeding together archetypal garage/punk snottiness with manic-raw vox and corruscating guitars in low-fi garage heaven. Best of all, THRILLED SKINNY is a more typically buzz-pop thrasher at heart, with Buzzcocks/Clash 'riot boyz' dynamo tendencies on "Popstar Prat," "White Grid" and "Let There Be Shelving." Guitar friction of the week (Damaged Goods, P.O. Box 671, London E17, U.K./081-807-0618)... "Jake's Flower Garden"/"Swamp Child" by JAKE VEGAS' NAKED KISS shares the Damaged Goods aesthetic—low-fi, guitar toting, against-the-grain, in love with its own r'n'r willfulness, with a combustible, nocturnal rockabilly-trash rumble, a punk cousin to Gallon Drunk's swampy blues (Camden Town, 5 Kentish Town Road, London NW1, U.K./phone Wayward PR, 071-978-8611)... TRIBUTE TO NOTHING's second single "24 Hours"/"Yet Again" is more proof that age does not make experience; at 13, 15 and 17, the trio is already masters of stripped-down punk pyrotechnics, with pure teenage-kicks vitality (Kingslake/071-708-5073).

Martin Aston, 125B Crofton Road, Camberwell, London SE5 8LZ, U.K./071-703-3281.

Chart information is based on combined airplay of reporting commercial and college/noncommercial radio stations. Statistics are compiled from point totals tabulated from positions (1-35) of artists on airplay reports, then multiplied by station code factor (based upon programming, market size and market impact). ▲ indicates a significant increase in airplay. #1-5: equal or upward position; #6-10: increase of at least 1; #11-20: increase of 2 or more; #21-30: 3 or more...PEAK column represents highest chart position to date.

Swell

Stories of record labels tinkering with bands, fabricating their sound and image, make some groups dream of a utopian D.I.Y. situation, where all creative control comes directly from the artist. American Recordings has granted Swell that dream: the band does everything itself—the writing, recording, production, artwork and videos—all from the band's old home and recording studio at 41 Turk St. in San Francisco. 41, the band's latest release, is an intimate and modest collection of ethereal, artistic (but unpretentious) rock songs that give a glimpse of the concepts developed while living at 41. Programmers don't need too many directions in finding Swell, as 41 jumps 79-39 in its second week on the chart. Of the record 519 top 35 reports this week, 100 are charting Swell, led by KCMU, KCRH (#1), KKSM, KMSU (MN), KRCK, KSDB, KSSU, KWLC, KZSC, WCKS, WGMU, WUMD (MI) and WUSB (#1), all calling in top 10 reports.

PROGRESSIVE RETAIL

Chart compiled by Dawn Sutter

ON THE CHART

Recently, each week has brought a new #1 record—this week, Imago's Rollins Band muscles its way up 35-1, and ranks the #1 In-Store. Only next week's chart will show if the band has the strength to hold onto the top spot, and we doubt that DGC's Hole (#2 debut, #1 Breakthrough) will settle for runner-up status in this pageant. Also moving into the top 10, Nirvana's In Utero (19-9), seeing an expected resurgence (along with re-entries from Nevermind (#49) and Bleach (#56)), and Charisma's Enigma (13-10).

There is not a lot of hustling and busting on the chart this spring. Those taking the challenge include Sire-WB's Aphex Twin, whose first domestic album moves up 57-29. Elektra's Luna makes another attempt to reach the top of the chart (#6-38). Mammoth's Australian signing Frente! reaps the rewards of airplay, moving up 68-39; watch for the band's domestic debut album on Mammoth-Atlantic, due out May 3. Hannibal-Rykodisc's Ali Farka Toure With Ry Cooder makes way through the rock 'n' roll groups, pushing up 56-47.

It is definitely the time of year for new things. New things on the chart this week include: Warner Bros.' live Husker Du album (#16), Sire-WB's Primal Scream (#28), Epitaph's Offspring (#32), Warner Bros.' Iris DeMent (#33), Revelation's Sense Field (#40), Beggars Banquet's Main (#52), Mute-Elektra's Nick Cave And The Bad Seeds (#55), Trance Syndicate's Bedhead (#65) and Sympathy For The Record Industry's '68 Comeback (#67). RETAIL FOCUS

HOLE

Hole makes its major-label debut on DGC Records with its second album, Live Through This. The album's title has become a frightening prophecy for the group's lead singer, Courtney Love, but the album has not been lost in all of the tragic events, as Live Through This makes its first appearance on the chart at #2, also capturing the #2 In-Store spot and winning the #1 Breakthrough. The album shows a marked musical departure from the rambunctious screaming style of the band's first album, with an emphasis on strong melodies and fully developed songs with firm beginnings and ends. The lyrical content has not changed, as the songs are still full of the angry and vengeful musings of Ms. Love, who seems to know she has the answers. It's good to know that someone does.

AFTER ENLIGHTENMENT

The venerable bassist GARY PEACOCK took a long pull on his cigarette and, looking up, addressed his new acquaintances. "What do you do," he asked, "after you've found enlightenment?" Hearing no answer, only shrugs and upturned palms, he provided his own: "You do your laundry." There is something of the Zen master, something of the Ancient Mariner perhaps, in the mien of this well-travelled musician whose career has taken him from the seismic upheavals of saxist Albert Ayler's early '60s quartet to the complex harmonic serenity of pianist Bill Evans' trio in 1964 to Keith Jarrett's Standards Trio of today. Peacock, born in Idaho in 1935, has devoted his life to the mastery of his instrument and, in the true spirit of improvisation, the quest for satori through music. The contrabassist, who doesn't so much keep time as imply it, or plasticize it, has maintained during his 30-plus-year career a "hunger after the unknown." Added Peacock, "And the minute you know it, you give it up." His "willingness to not know," as he describes it, has enabled him to bring a completely fresh, noncliché perspective to any playing situation. The august bassist had just completed an evening of explorative music, opened but far from amorphous, at Visiones jazz club in Greenwich Village with a group consisting of trumpeter Tim Hagans, guitarist Vic Juris and drummer John Riley. Peacock's shock of closely cropped grayish white hair and his deeply lined countenance give heft to his metaphysical comments but contrast markedly with his well-conditioned body movements and laughter-filled reminiscences. This guy is deep and, though steeled to the ambiguities of real life, still a searcher after the unknown. While the working band he brought to Visiones has not been recorded—Manfred Eicher of ECM is heartily advised to consider such a project—Peacock is represented as a co-leader or sideman on a number of worthy new releases. Six of the nine selections on Oracle (ECM, 1540 Broadway, New York, NY 10036-4098/212-930-4996), his duet with classical and 12-string guitarist Ralph Towner, are Peacock originals. Sympathetic interplay, as opposed to show-offy exhibitionism, is the order of the day on Oracle, as it is on In The Evenings Out There (ECM), the second installment of an extrasensory studio session uniting kindred spirits Paul Bley on piano, Tony Oxley on drums, John Surman on reeds and Peacock on bass. Peacock and the venturesome drummer Paul Motian provide the oompf for brothers Wolfgang (guitar) and Christian (trombone) Muthspiel on Muthspiel-Peacock-Muthspiel-Motian (Verve, c/o PolyGram), a dynamic, highly engaging listening experience. The bassist, drummer Motian and pianist Jarrett brought their high-level commitment to improvisation to a small club in the Poconos near Jarrett's home town of Allentown, Pennsylvania. Over the years Jarrett has been slugged, with some justification, for his overweening ego. But this gargantuan talent hasn't forgotten his roots and those who've nurtured them.

ON THE CHART

In a coup at the top, Qwest-Reprise's A Tribute To Miles, by Herbie Hancock, Wayne Shorter, Ron Carter, Wallace Roney and Tony Williams, overtakes the #1 position (it's tops at KBUT, KTUH, KVRX, WMPG, WRHU, WRMC (VT), WSJU, WVRU and WWUH, amongst the 39 of 122 reporting stations charting the album), just barely edging out Verve-PG's Charlie Haden Quartet West (5-2; #1 at KAZU, KCBX, KDNK, KTEQ, WCBN, WIDR and WJRH, and appearing on 38 of 122 reports). Elsewhere, Reprise's Groove Collective wastes no time in plunging into the top 10 (23-9). Enja's German import by the Maria Schneider Jazz Orchestra continues to impress (19-13), remaining one spot ahead of Elektra Nonesuch's Bill Frisell (20-14). We have only two debuts this week: Atlantic's Acoustic Masters I, featuring Charles Lloyd, Cedar Walton, Buster Williams and Billy Higgins (#18), and Henry Threadgill on Italy's Black Saint label (#21). (JAZZ REPORTS PRINTED AFTER TOP 35 REPORTS)

Jarrett did his first jazz-trio gig as a pro At The Deer Head Inn (ECM), and it was to this rustic club, which has never wavered from its all-jazz booking policy for an astonishing 40 years, that Jarrett returned in September of 1992 to convey his thanks and record an album. In the company of Peacock and Motian (subbing for Jack DeJohnette, the regular stickman in Jarrett's Standards Trio of recent years), Jarrett puts the accent on lyricism with a lively program of standards, including "Basin Street Blues," "You Don't Know What Love Is," "You And The Night And The Music" and "Bye Bye Blackbird." Last year's Bye Bye Blackbird (ECM) by Jarrett's Trio (with Peacock and DeJohnette) is an homage of sorts to the departed Miles Davis, with whom all three musicians played at one time or another. Sandwiched between CD-opening and -closing renditions of the title track are the evergreen "I Thought About You," Thelonious Monk's "Straight No Chaser" (a Davis band staple) and "For Miles," a 19-minute tribute co-composed by the three participants. What all of the aforesaid CDs have in common, besides the presence of Peacock's consummate basswork, is a sojourner's spirit of discovery and an integrity, in the pursuit of the unknown, that bespeaks jazz at its best...Trumpeter TIM HAGANS, who blends so effortlessly into the Peacock quartet cited above, turns his debut recording for Blue Note, No Words, into an exciting showcase for his multi-genre experience as a jazzman. Well-schooled in mainstream traditionalism (stints with the big bands of Stan Kenton, Woody Herman and, more recently, Bob Mintzer and Maria Schneider) and aesthetically suited to the terra incognita of the avant-garde (via stints with Peacock, Bob Belden and Lovano), the soft-spoken Hagans, 39, maintains a cutting-edge albeit melodic quality on No Words while spanning a broad idiomatic expanse taking in bop, fusion and Free jazz. Produced by the tenorman of the moment, Lovano (who also plays on the album), No Words features nine Hagans originals that take full advantage of, and challenge, the talents of guitarist John Abercrombie, pianist Marc Copland, bassist Scott Lee and drummer Bill Stewart. As he has shown with Peacock and Juris (on the guitarist's adventurous For The Music CD for the German Jazzpoint label), Hagans doesn't require a chordal net or strictly demarcated rhythms to blow expressively. Hagans isn't a rhythm-dependent hornman. But, with chordal underpinnings (on No Words) and the surging rhythms of young master-in-the-making Stewart, the trumpeter shows he is capable of tight-knit ensemble chemistry and surprising fireworks. No Words is the inaugural release in Blue Note's New Artists series, which also includes tenorist Javon Jackson's When The Time Is Right and pianist Kevin Hays' forthcoming Seventh Sense, a scintillating quintet session enlivened by his percussive interplay with vibist Steve Nelson.

DOPE!

ANOTHA LEVEL On Anotha Level (Priority, 6430 Sunset Blvd., Hollywood, CA 90028/213-467-0151)—The City Of Angels has always been the hub of gangster rap ever since the early days of N.W.A. and Ice-T. In recent years, while gangster crews reproduce faster than rats, Los Angeles has proven that it can bring lyrical flavor, and show the rest of the hip-hop community that there's more to rap than pulling drive-bys and substituting oral sensationalism for good rhyming skills. Anotha Level (Stix, Stones, Stenge, Ced Twice and Bambino) joins the same camp occupied by groups like the Pharcyde, Freestyle Fellowship and Tha Alkaholiks, and the group's sole purpose is to promote and propagate itself with business-like, high-powered tongues. Its whiny, high-pitched deliveries (behind swingin' funkbeds) rap about everyday events, often sounding like rappers with nothing on their minds—perhaps they've spent too much time on the basketball court or lounging in front of In Living Color re-runs to arouse any useful wisdom. But that's O.K., because so much of hip-hop has become so painfully predictable—not to mention avariciously pigeonholed and pre-packaged—that it's a refreshing change of pace to hear a crew like Anotha Level, in all its simplistic splendor, rock the mic. The group raps from the heart despite being occasionally vulnerable to criticism ("Don't Stimulate" is plainly sexist), and its sound—although chilled in L.A.—could be from any big city suburb. Check out the Jamaican funk flow on "Just Feenin'," "On Deck" and "Phatt-T," which features guest freestyling by the Pharcyde.

SHYHEIM A\K\A The Rugged Child (Virgin, 338 N. Foothill Road, Beverly Hills, CA 90210)—"Hello little boy and what is your name? Oh, I get it, you're one of those rappers, huh." This "little boy" we're referring to would probably jump up and give you a crack in the dome if you spoke to him in such a condescending manner. Shyheim is Virgin's answer to groups like Kris Kross, Illegal and Da Youngsta's—and his arrival is perhaps a little late for some of us. Locking his bike up in Staten Island, NY (currently ruled by Wu-Tang Clan), A\K\A The Rugged Child doesn't suffer from any weak, immature rhymes, but it's possible that at a time when people like their hip-hop with a teaspoon of broken glass, much of Shyheim's rough-rider rants may not stand up to older, more schooled acts. But hey, we like kids! And for a kid, Shyheim's mouse-pitched raps are perfect for young, wannabe G's looking to hip-hop for a lesson in attitude and expression. He speaks like he has lived vicariously through various street characters, transmitting an honest street swagger that seems more natural than rehearsed ("Buck Whylin'"). The success of "On & On" is proving that Shyheim is no stepchild. Its eye-popping and unfeigned narration of his hood is a real surprise coming from someone who seems too young to be so in touch. While he spends much of the album's 15 tracks

HE'S ILL + MATIC: In an unsurprising turn of events, Columbia's Nas makes this week's highest debut, charting Illmatic at #2—just behind Chrysalis-ERG's Gang Starr (1-1)—and landing 16 #1 reports (see Blowin' Up). While Nas wrecks shop, Death Row/Interscope-Atlantic has another monster hit with Above The Rim (18-5), which makes one of this week's most notable gains, while Payday/frr-ILS artist Jeru The Damaja hits the top 10 with his second single, "D. Original" (#6 debut). With all of the hype surrounding the departure from its label, K.M.D.'s "What A Niggy Know" (17-8) is having its greatest success, while Virgin's Shyheim debuts at #11 with his full-length LP. Other records of note include Columbia's Fugees (Tranzlator Crew) (19-14), Tuff Break-A&M's Dred Scott (32-19), and Chemistry Ltd.-Mercury's Ed O.G. & Da Bulldogs, who move 30-22 behind "Love Comes And Goes." Further down the chart, we welcome aboard new records from Priority's Anotha Level (#29), Bluemoon-Mesa/Bluemoon's Jazzhole (#34), Giant-WB's Ahmad (#39) and Reprise's Da Bush Babees at #40. This week's Adventure Picks: 1) K.M.D.; 2) Above The Rim; 3) Casual; 4) Shyheim; 5) Anotha Level; 6) KRS-One; 7) Heavy D. & The Boyz; 8) Quo; 9) 2 Live Crew; 10) Mad Flava. (BEAT BOX REPORTS PRINTED AFTER TOP 35 REPORTS) trying to deliver a knockout punch, hitting below the belt on "Here Come The Hits" and "Here I Am," Shyheim proves that this rugged child is going to grow up to be a brutal force. Represent kid: "Pass It Off," "Napsack" and "Little Rascals."

GRANDMASTER FLASH, MELLE MEL & THE FURIOUS FIVE Message From Beat Street: The Best Of Grandmaster Flash, Melle Mel & The Furious Five (Rhino, 10635 Santa Monica Blvd., Los Angeles, CA 90025-4900/310-474-4778)—A New York outfit made up of five distinct voices (Cowboy, Melle Mel, Kid Creole, Mr. Ness and Raheem) and one of the most innovative DJs in the biz, Grandmaster Flash & The Furious Five were more than just an essential component in the development of early

hip-hop. Aside from the resulting infectious disco rhythms and party-friendly raps, DJ Grandmaster Flash was the Jimi Hendrix of the turntables. Taking conventional techniques and exploring their limits, Flash mixed and scratched records, creating new sonic blends equivalent to Hendrix's distorted, flashy guitar explosions. Message From Beat Street is a compilation of the group's finest singles in full digital stereo. While "Grandmaster Flash On The Wheels Of Steel," one of his first singles, is unfortunately missing, there's plenty here to trace their short, but un-disputedly influential career. Starting with early party-joints like "Freedom," "Birthday Party" and the MC battle with the Sugar Hill Gang on "Showdown," its early formulas were colorless, spirited and inviting—there's not a hip-hop fan alive who can't remember a few lines to one of their anthems. The release of "The Message" in 1982 was probably one of the single most important progressions in rap music. For the first time, rap became an escape for social reality. "The Message" revealed the ugly side of ghetto life with shocking realism. Subsequent releases saw the group taking a more socially-aware position, as heard on "New York New York" and "The Message II (Survival)," which was co-written by Spoonie G., before the business began to break up the crew. Also included are Melle Mel's 1983 hit "White Lines (Don't Do It)" (which came after the group's split) and "Beat Street" from the soundtrack to the hip-hop movie of the same name. After reuniting in 1987 to release On The Strength, the crew is again considering another comeback. The timing is impeccable!

ILL FEATURING AL SKRATCH "Where My Homiez (Come Around My Way)" [88 BPM] (Mercury, 825 Eighth Ave., New York, NY 10019)—Take one part Domino, take another part Leaders Of The New School and add a pinch of Wu-Tang Clan. Stir the three up with some collard greens and chicken parts for flavor, and you'll be savoring the latest addition to the Mercury roster, Ill Featuring Al Skcratch. With a radio version in the mix, this single is primed for heavy rotation—it's easily digestible thanks to its slow-flow delivery and relaxed funk. "Where My Homies..." is ready for a spin alongside anything from the West Coast.

WORD IS...

FIGHT THE POWER: In case you have not heard, K.M.D. has been dropped by the authorities at Elektra Records (which is owned by Time-Warner) due to a conflict over artistic expression and a supposed "controversy" surrounding the cover artwork to the group's second album Black Bastards. The cover depicted a Black Sambo caricature being hung from a noose. The group claims that it was trying to provoke thought by symbolizing the execution of the Sambo/minstrel stereotype. If you already received your "What A Niggy Know" single, hang on to it. Time-Warner, if you remember, tangled with ICE-T last year, which resulted in Ice-T signing with Priority Records. Expect the record to be released by an independent label...PUBLIC ENEMY is hard at work on a new album. Look for the first single "Give It Up" to be released in late May...CAREER OPTIONS: A major label is looking for a manager of Urban sales/marketing. A basic understanding of radio and retail is a must. Don't call me for a number, fax your resume to (212) 830-2387... After his successful and convincing acting debut in the Robin Williams film Toys, LL COOL J will star as guitar hero Jimi Hendrix in a fantasy/history film called Jimi. I can see it now: Jimi launches into "Star Spangled Banner" at Woodstock wearing a hockey jersey and fuzzy Kangol hat...BIG DADDY KANE will make his MCA

ON THE CHART

With everyone still slammin' and jammin' the Death Row/Interscope-Atlantic Above The Rim soundtrack, giving it its second straight week at #1, Chrysalis-ERG's Gang Starr (3-2) moves up one notch, along with Death Row/Interscope-Atlantic's Snoop Doggy Dogg (4-3), who is still feeling the effects of "Gin & Juice." Making unsurprising debuts this week are Columbia's Nas, who enters Illmatic at #5, just ahead of Virgin's Shyheim, who enters AKA The Rugged Child at #6. You can definitely look for Nas to challenge Death Row's grip on the top three

next week. STILL MOVIN': Records that are outlasting the Duracell bunny include Assault-Big Beat's DFC (13-10), which is getting Things In Tha Hood's ball rolling; Motown's Queen Latifah (18-11), gaining on the strength of "Just Another Day"; Wreck-Nervous' Black Moon (14-12), which is enjoying week number 23 on the chart, and Jive's R. Kelly, who has bumped and grinded from 16-13. (BEAT BOX RETAIL REPORTS PRINTED AFTER TOP 35 REPORTS)

NAS Illmatic (Columbia, 550 Madison Ave., New York, NY 10022-3211) Radio Chart Position: #2—Reporters have been teased and tortured by Nas ever since his appearance on Main Source's "Live At The BBQ." He showed signs of greatness with "Halftime," which was featured on the Zebrhead soundtrack, and now the world has a full-length bomb from the Queens-bridge projects' favorite son. Illmatic has easily been one of the most anticipated records in hip-hop since Snoop Doggy Dogg, and the results live up to every ounce of hype and expectation placed on it. Like watching the ax fall on your neck, Chrysalis-ERG's Gang Starr should relish what is likely to be its last week at #1 before Nas takes over both Beat Box charts—and perhaps the whole damn planet! Debuting Illmatic at #2 (and #5 on the retail chart), Nas racks up 63 out of 146 reports, and pulls down 16 #1 reports, giving Gang Starr plenty to be nervous about. Here's Nas' #1 fanclub: CTR, KBVR, KCMU, KTRU, KVRX, WBUL, WBUQ, WECS, WIUS, WLFM, WLFM, WNAR, WRKC, WRRR, WSYC and WXVU.

NEW WORLD MUSIC

Chart compiled by James Lien/
Column by Cliff Funnald

INGRID KARKLINS Anima Mundi (Green Linnet, 43 Beaver Brook Road, Danbury CT 06810/203-730-0333)—I can't hide my biases here: I am an unabashed fan of Ingrid Karklins, from her first cassette (a Futures pick in CMJ, by the way) to A Darker Passion, her first Green Linnet release in 1992. Ingrid embodies what I find most important in music, a timelessness that keeps the future and the past firmly in view, while being totally absorbed in the present. She uses the folk traditions of her parent's Latvian and her own Anglo-Celtic American roots in innovative ways that allow her to make new music that reflects but never mimics any of its inspirations. She is equally enthralled by the ancient strum of the kokle harp and the modern possibilities of an electronic keyboard. Through all of her previous work, the search for balance has been a promise of great things.

What sets Anima Mundi apart from her other work (and the work of everyone else around her) is that while previously she made exciting explorations into music, here she has made a full blown discovery. I always wondered "What is she going to do next?" Now I wonder how she's going to get any better than this. The songwriting is darker, deeper and more mystical. The music is more fully realized, complex and personal. And then there's the band; the current incarnation of Backbone is skilled, creative and adventurous. The heart of the band is bassist Steve Bernal, who can fuse folk, funk and outright outrageousness into a single phrase, and a phenomenal young drummer, Chris Searles. Searles took the last Backbone tour to the Northeast this winter, and he amazed me. His skewed sense of timing, his intuitive ability to know where the silences are, and his open approach to unusual sounds and combinations reflects Ingrid's own attitudes and ideas. The rest of the entourage on this record includes the ghostly vocals of Malford Milligan, guitarist Craig #7 (the other member of the winter touring group), Susan Voelz on violin and a small string section.

There have been endless comparisons of Ingrid to Kate Bush (from me, among others), Boiled In Lead, even Laurie Anderson. It's the diversity of these comparisons that makes it clear what an original she is. Her dense poetic impulses, her uninhibited fusion of folk and funk, and her humorous flair all sum up an art that deserves nothing as simple as comparative study.

NUSRAT FATEH ALI KHAN & PARTY The Last Prophet (RealWorld, c/o Caroline, 114 W. 26th St., New York, NY 10001/212-989-2929)—It would be completely fatuous to "review" this album. Nusrat Fateh Ali Khan is a modern master of the Pakistani art of qawwali music. For decades he has brought this music to the world, and absorbed the rest of the world's music, occasionally taking a shot at pop fusion, but

After five weeks at #1, Ellipsis Arts' Africa Never Stand Still compilation has finally been dethroned by the amazing new album from Ali Farka Toure With Ry Cooder (2-1). Look for Ali on tour next month (although dates weren't confirmed at presstime, he will probably return again this summer). Perhaps our strongest mover this week is RealWorld-Caroline's Shu-De (12-3), moving boldly into our top 10. Our biggest debut comes from legendary qawwal singer Nusrat Fateh Ali Khan & Party, who takes to the chart at

#14 with his latest RealWorld-Caroline opus. Our next-highest debut comes from rap/reggae newcomers Delicious Vinyl's Born Jamericans, with the first single from their forthcoming album debuting at #18. Also, reggae stalwart Bunny Wailer re-enters the chart at #20 with his Crucial! Roots Classics album on Shanachie. (NEW WORLD MUSIC REPORTS PRINTED AFTER TOP 35 REPORTS)

through it all continuing to expand the ancient tradition of his mystical music. The Last Prophet is simply a continuation of that tradition, unlocking some of qawwal's mysteries and creating new ones. Unlike many recent Real World albums, there is no crossover here, none of that homogenization meant to make the music accessible. Voices, accordions, percussion, and Nusrat's passionate expression bring the arcane sounds of Sufism to a wider audience without bowing to the commercial possibilities.

ROVA SAXOPHONE QUARTET Chanting The Light Of Foresight (New Albion, 584 Castro St. #515, San Francisco, CA 94114/

415-621-5757)—Terry Riley's composition retells the heroic Irish myth of The Tain Bo Cuailnge, an eighth century tale of war, invasion and cattle. Composed for the Rova Saxophone Quartet in 1987, it is a work of experimental drift and sonic austerity. It is a challenging work that required the learning of new tunings and techniques for the instruments (and five years of rehearsal). Riley composed it on a Prophet synthesizer to attain its unique tunings, and then transposed these impossible arrangements to the acoustic instruments. The results are surreal, creating a sound as alien as any electronic composer could hope for and yet so earthy it conjures up ancient airs for pipes and voices. Violent, beautiful, romantic and at times jazzy, Chanting The Light Of Foresight is a project that sheds a new light on both Riley as a composer and Rova as performers.

ALL THE NEWS THAT FITS

All of the "angry young voices" of punk in the '80s and post-political punk in the '90s owe a musical debt to PHIL OCHS, the late, great singing newsboy of the '60s, whether they know it or not. Phil was the ultimate outsider, a rebel with a cause, and a man of personal and often confusing political beliefs, but one of unswerving conviction to his ideals. It was probably this conviction that brought him to suicide. He was out of place in every age, and try as he sometimes did, could never compromise enough to get by in the world. But Phil was also a romantic, a poet who quoted Poe, a believer in the

American dream of Kennedy's Camelot even as he protested the insanity of the war his hero pursued in Vietnam and Cuba. While he was famous for "Talking Vietnam Blues," "I Ain't Marching Anymore" and "Draft Dodger Rag," it was his romantic side that made him unique. Not only did he sing of the trials of the age, but also of the hope for the future. "Power And Glory" was a take on Woody Guthrie's "This Land" with the same awe for the land and a combination of fear and love of the people who work it. Love songs like "Celia" were relaxed, natural songs without all the goo and flowers of pop songs. But it is still the political that the memory returns to: his report on the Cuban missile crisis ("Now most Americans stood behind the president and his military minds, but me I stood behind a bar, dreaming of a spaceship getaway car, head for Mars, or any other place that has bars..."), the deaths of John Kennedy and Medgar Evers, union songs that chided both the bosses and the noncommittal tradesmen, or his dark warning of repression, "Knock On The Door." His singular vision skewered reactionary and liberal alike, leaving him outside of the growing political movement for his lack of seriousness and hated by the right for his lack of respect. While many of his songs were timely and topical takes on the headlines, about events most have forgotten (or have tried to forget), they still ring true today, some 30 years later. So it is a tribute to Hannibal (c/o Rykodisc, Pickering Wharf, Bldg. C-3G, Salem, MA 01970/508-744-7678) that the label has seen the value in reissuing All The News That's Fit To Print and I Ain't Marching Anymore, the two Elektra albums that made Ochs famous.

ET AL...
Pennsylvania klezmer enthusiast OLD WORLD FOLK BAND takes it all in stride. When mistakenly billed as a "circus music" band one time, the band took some old Jewish tunes and twisted them into a marvelous three-ring medley that would have made Micky Katz proud. On Hot Tracks (Old World, 2435 N. Third St., Harrisburg, PA 17110/717-232-7817) the band takes a truly American view of klezmer, throwing out Dixieland riffs and Tin Pan Alley antics along with the more traditional aspects you'd expect...Drummer JOEY BARON comes up front on Raised Pleasure Dot (New World, 710 Seventh St., New York, NY 10036/212-302-0460). A trio of his drums, Ellery Eskelin's tenor saxophone and Steve Swell's trombone knocks out downtown jazz, blues and avant-humorous music that's relaxed and crazy. "The Girl From Ipanema Blues?" Yeah, that's the ticket.

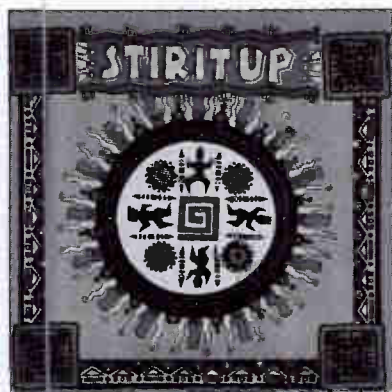

Peace.

CRUCIAL!

VARIOUS ARTISTS Stir It Up (Columbia, 550 Madison Ave., New York, NY 10022-3211)—Those of you lucky enough to be on the advance cassette mailing list from Columbia know that this compilation has been brewing for some time, and if you were paying close attention, you probably noticed that it's gone through a couple of lineup and personnel changes over the last few months. Now the finished version has finally arrived, with several of last year's hits (Mad Cobra) being dropped in favor of newer, fresher titles and fast-breaking artists as spring winds into summer. Stir It Up is an adventurous, multi-genre sampler that pulls together different styles and makes them work together successfully, all fuelled by the beat of the dancehall. Personally, this writer loves the big, booming, hip-hop flavored sound of this compilation and its Chaos/Columbia artists, a sound that's equally great on both a humble Brooklyn stoop or booming out of the top-floor window of an uptown penthouse. The liner notes here are not blowing hot air when they point to the strong Jamaican roots of hip-hop (pioneering rap figure Kool DJ Herc was Kingston-born), nor are they out of line to posit that the hip-hop dancehall flavor is one of the most significant musical developments of this decade. One point on Stir It Up that's interesting as well as symbolic of the whole phenomenon is Annette Brisett's rendering of "I Shot The Sheriff": right before the chorus kicks in ("and so, and so..."), there's that moment where once the Wailers kicked into a break full of tumultuous riffing, which has now been replaced by a sampled bassline and a pumping breakbeat. So feel proud and turn up the bass...Stir Up these: Ini Kamoze's "Here Comes The Hotstepper," Diana King's title track, Ninjaman's "Me A Go Ride" and Rayvon's "Slave To The Music."

one being the high-charting Best Of The Best, Vol. 1 released earlier this year). The names are monumental enough, with cameos from Brigadier Jerry, Big Youth, Prince Jazzbo, I Roy and Dillinger (a shrill, shouting remake of "Cocaine," which does sound considerably more coked-up than the original). This compilation, like Best Of The Best, senses a need and fills it tastefully, falling in between the seriously rootical vibe of classic reggae of the '70s (see the Ethiopians review above) and the modern, pulsing beat of today (see Crucial!). Nice cover art, too, an interesting blend of Japanese ninja-movie style, mixed with a hint of the sleekness of old Blue Note jazz stylings. Other highlights here are U Brown's "Bits Of Paper," Massive Dread's Willie Williams rewrite "Action" and U Roy & J.C. Lodge's duet, "Satisfy My Soul." Good stuff, here, so check it out.

BARRINGTON LEVY Divine (RAS, address above)—Last year's triumphant major-label bow for Barrington Levy, simply titled Barrington, was a major breakthrough for one of reggae's most interesting and diverse artists. These Jah Screw-produced tracks are more fundamentally reggae-oriented, and should be greeted with equal enthusiasm from fans both old and new. Some of the tracks aren't up to the stellar level of either of Barrington's MCA or Profile albums, and listening to all the backing tracks at once does get a little thin, but the good songs, such as "Silver Words," "Bless My Eyes" and "Sweet Reggae Music," are certainly worthy of bearing his esteemed name. Also of particular interest is "Looking My Love," a duet with Cuty Ranks that closes out the disc.

ETHIOPIANS Owner Fe De Yard (Heartbeat, 1 Camp St., Cambridge, MA 02140/617-354-0700)—Led by the frail, unassuming voice of one Leonard Dillon, the Ethiopians are among the great, and perhaps most underrated groups in reggae history. This collection spans the years, drawing together sides the Ethiopians recorded from the late '60s all the way to the mid-'80s. Surprisingly, it holds together very well—usually the sounds of different decades clash when placed side by side on the same collection, but here they mesh seamlessly, no doubt due in part to the steady guidance of Leonard Dillon's unwavering vision. Throughout the years he has made consistently important, crucial music full of positive messages and important ideas. What's interesting is how even the tracks from the mid-'70s, when reggae was perhaps at its slowest (we mean the speed of the beat, not the level of popularity or the amount of music being made!), his music still retained that chugging, insistent ska-like beat of his greatest hit, "Last Train To Skaville." Leonard Dillon and the Ethiopians are one of reggae's true treasures, and this CD certainly does them justice.

VARIOUS ARTISTS Old Time D.J. Come Back...AGAIN! (RAS, P.O. Box 42517, Washington, DC 20015/301-588-9641)—The old and not-so-old stars are on parade on this interesting compilation, another Tappa Zukie production showcase on RAS Records (the other

JACKPOT!

ROBERT OWENS

ROBERT OWENS The Statement (EP) (Musical Directions, UK/071-259-5376)—Chicago's Robert Owens is widely recognized as the finest male house vocalist on earth. From his early career in the Midwest with partner Larry Heard (the duo formed the groups Mr. Fingers and Fingers, Inc.) on to the present, Owens has lent his powerful lyrics and resonant vocals to numerous underground house projects. Hearing his previous single, "Was I Here Before," you had to wonder why everyone else didn't just pack it in right then and there. Robert Owens could send a shiver down your spine singing your grocery list. After a troubled stint with RCA in the U.S., Owens has set up his own label, Musical Directions, in the U.K. The A-side of this six-track EP is nearly pure soul, especially the aching "For the Rest Of My Life." The flip, however, contains three momentous, beautiful deep house tracks. On the first, "What Good," Owens duets with NY vocalist Arnold Jarvis (whose garage anthem "Take Some Time Out" still smokes to this day). The standout, though, is the pulsing, "Forever," a nearly magical concoction of minor key synth strings, Owens' haunting vocals and percussion beneath the subconscious and the feet. Apparently, Owens is working on a full album, which you will certainly read about here.

NEW YORK/NEW JERSEY HOUSING AUTHORITY RECONVENES

New Jersey has long been home to some of the finest garage producers. From the days when Blaze were stars and Tony Humphries presided over Zanzibar, Newark, Orange and New Jersey became centers for some astounding deep house music. The spirit of Jersey is being kept alive by Sabrina Johnston's Perfect Pair label and now by Music Station, yet another in-house label of Dancefloor Distribution. Without doubt one of the most magnificent Jersey garage records of this year is the aching Mentalinstrum EP, which features newcomers such as H. CARTER, whose vocals on "Sometimes" are tremulous and gospel-infused to the point of heartbreak. The track opens with Hammond surges and Carter's vocal before breaking down to sweeping percussion and deft keyboard strokes. The flip's "More Music" is thematically influenced by the O'Jays, with its celebratory, spiritual feel. You're unlikely to find a set of tracks this deep for a long time to come (Music Station, c/o Dancefloor Distribution, 111 Cedar Lane, Englewood, NJ 07631/201-568-7066)...The team of Howard, Dockine and Wormly, known as PROJECT 4007, has just released a much anticipated double-12" containing remixes of its debut EP It's Our Turn. The three enlisted some real heavyweights for the project, including the ubiquitous DJ Duke, who contributes two acid-trance mixes for the hardheads, as well as

ON THE CHART

With the Aphex Twin now firmly entrenched at #1 with Sire-WB's Selected Ambient Works Vol. II, the Orb has slipped 1-3 after 11 weeks in the top two. Richard James' enormous popularity gives him a jump of three places (11-8) with the Wax Trax!-TVT released Analogue Bubblebath. Vinyl Solution-Columbia's John Rocca (a.k.a. Midi Rain) enters the chart at #18 this week with the only new entry. The compilation count drops to eight this week, probably due to the increasing number of domestic full-length records from single artists/producers. The biggest leap of the week is Too Pure/Astralwerks-Caroline's Seefeel, whose Quique jumps 14 spots (19-5), while Seefeel's producer, also known as ambient artist Locust, may soon have a domestic release. (RPM REPORTS PRINTED AFTER TOP 35 REPORTS)

New York garage legend Hippie Torrales (of Turntable Orchestra fame). The most compelling mix here is the "Down Under Vocal" mix, treated by Lenny Fontana and Michael Paternostr. The duo builds a percussive bed on the intro, then drops a delicate piano hook over the top, finally adding the vocals. Its mix is solidly in the James Williams/D-Train style and is all the better for it. Four sides of vinyl without disappointment (Emotive, 19 W. 21st St., Ste. 1204, New York, NY 10010/212-645-7330)...If anyone asks you which New York house producer seems incapable of making a bad record right now, tell him or her it's Kerri Chandler, whose way with a deep bassline still shocks. His latest offering is BASS-MENTAL's "Just Wanna Be With U." Chandler's basslines seem to emerge from beneath your feet and move slowly, inevitably towards your head, and nothing is going to stop them. The electrifying "6;23 Per Lb Club" evokes a sensation like that of a aural wave machine rolling back and forth in hypnotic motion. Right now, Chandler's name on a record is a virtual guarantee of deep house perfection (King St. Sounds, 611 Broadway, Room 534, New York, NY 10012/212-995-9566)... Not a week goes by in which some tiny NY dance indie doesn't spring up with a clutch of killer tracks, only to disappear after the first pressing.

Let's hope that the "i" label sticks around a little longer than that. Its first release is the wicked, five-track First Avenue Project EP. The in-demand TODD EDWARDS contributes the gorgeous "Can't Live Without You," a tightly produced garage smoker, while the X-MEN offer the hardhouse influenced "What We Gonna Do," which takes Erick Morillo's bold ideas to the next level. "Get Away" by UNREEL PRODUCTIONS is another hardhouse careener that refuses to stand still (i, NY).

FINAL NOTE

This week, I'm adding yet another phone number to the two usually printed here, due to the difficulty I have returning many of your phone calls. I can be reached directly at this number from 12 noon-6 p.m. EST on Friday only (at least for the moment). I hope this will facilitate a more direct dialogue than in the past.

SKATENIGS

What A Mangled Web We Leave (Red Light, 880 Lee St., Ste. 208, Des Plaines, IL 60016/708-297-6538)—The Skatenigs' well-received debut album, Stupid People Shouldn't Breed, unleashed these Southwestern psychopaths upon the metal masses with a heavy blend of industrial laced speed/thrash. This time around, the "cyberpunk cowboys" are primed to lasso even more moshing, sweaty fans with their second release, What A Mangled Web We Leave. Skatenigs surge forward with vociferous force, enmeshing inventive samples, social issues and boisterous attitude into its mix of oppressive, hardcore music. The band's brazen political incorrectness is evident throughout the entire album, especially on "Family Values"—a raucous, violent slamfest of meaty guitars, spliced with samples of hideous screaming and laughter. "Regret," the first single, shrieks out a warning through a heaving wall of noise—"I'm not your only threat!" The songs are devised to wake everyone up to the harsh realities of life, while stirring up emotions of anger and disgust. "Ranch Apocalypse" reignites the blazing horror of the Branch Davidian tragedy through sonic guitar blasts, enraged vocal wailings and samples of newsreporter sound bytes that were aired during that period. It's time to "put your hands up and surrender, we are through negotiating," the song forewarns—give in to the harrowing power of Skatenigs and enter into its web of grating discontent. —Jenni Glenn

LARVA

Waiting For Daybreak (Energy, 545 Eighth Ave., 17th Fl., New York, NY 10018/212-695-3000)—To some, the word "larva" may conjure up thoughts of slimy, developing life forms, but to others it represents a temporary mask that harbors colorful beauty and serenity. Larva represents a spiritual, uplifting resurrection from the ashes of all that is unpleasant. The band can instill a newfound hope in those surrounded by anger, violence, corruption and destitution with its blend of passionate, inspiring musical styles. Todd Youth (guitars) and Michael McDermott (drums), both formerly of Murphy's Law, formed Larva in an attempt to quench their thirst for a more enlightening, splendidous approach to creating music. Roger Guimond's tranquil, flowing vocal utterings meld into the band's huge, sweeping guitar riffs and heavy grooves, creating an aura of powerful intensity. One of this album's distinctive factors is Todd's insightful guitar playing. He explains, "Each riff on the album was directly correlated to a specific color I saw when I played the part." The use of the Mellotron on "Empty," "She Said" and "Devotion" helps to spread this vision to the listeners. Waiting For Daybreak is an adventure through open, winding paths of melody intertwined with hard-driving rhythms. Also try "Kia," "Faces So Real" and "Word." —Jenni Glenn

MIND OVER MATTER

Security (Wreck-Age, 451 W. Broadway #2N, New York, NY 10012/212-260-5114)—Mind Over Matter combines the unbridled fury of Rage Against The Machine with the bristling vehemence of fellow New Yorkers Prong to create its own blend of hardcore madness. Security takes you right to the edge, only to slam you over it with a violent convulsive blow to the groin. Brutal to the core, each track spews pent-up frustration and savage force. The title track is a schitzo mindfuck composed entirely of overlapping voices, rapid firing question after question ("How could you do this?/How could someone so smart be so confused?") to tormented, psychotic screams of "I DON'T KNOW!!" over and over again. A band that can be this intense without the help of one instrument deserves your attention. Every other tune on this album vibrates with massive guitar crunch and a bombastic rhythm section. Mind Over Matter's thick, harsh guitar grinds and furious drum blasts will knock you senseless. "Parts" begins with a slow, deliberate beat and mellow psychedelic guitar strumming, then...WHAM! A full-on, in-your-face assault of noise. The melding of styles and tempo changes will keep you on your toes and rockin' non-stop throughout. Also check out "Sin Eater," "God Hates Me" and "Forbidden Fruit." —Jenni Glenn

CANNIBAL CORPSE

The Bleeding (Metal Blade, 2345 Erringer Rd., Suite 108, Simi Valley, CA 93065/805-522-9111)—Here, have a grain of salt. Have another. If you're offended by 2 Live Crew, gangsta rap, Slayer or Andrew "Dice" Clay, then Cannibal Corpse is definitely not a band for you. If you already like death metal, but wish that it was a little bit faster and a little bit more brutal than usual, then The Bleeding could be this season's main Corpse. The band certainly isn't trying to hide behind its words with titles like "Fucked With A Knife" and "Stripped, Raped And Strangled." Cannibal Corpse is as musically tight as a brass knuckled fist. Vocalist/lyricist Chris Barnes claims that the lyrics are stories that brew inside of him, because, in his own words, he is "probably the most desensitized person on the planet." Hey, before you go off after C.C. half-cocked, just realize that his lyrics "reflect violence," and that when it comes to women, Barnes says, "I love them." As for violence against women, the objects of his love? "I don't condone it." Fair enough. Maybe next time, some of this will be included in the album's liner notes, as well as the band's press releases. —Brian Ives

LOVE/HATE

Let's Rumble (Caliber, 12754 Ventura Blvd., Studio City, CA 91604/818-985-0009)—Since the band's inception back in 1986, Love/Hate has not only been an active part of the Hollywood club circuit, but has also warmed up crowds for mega-huge bands, such as Guns N' Roses, AC/DC, Skid Row, Dio and Ozzy. Formerly on Columbia Records, the band has not released any new material in about two years; Let's Rumble (Caliber Records' debut release) is sure to reacquire Love/Hate with its avid fan base. Although the shallow, libido-driven lyrics of Let's Rumble are not exactly groundbreaking ("Say you are a dancer/ Come and dance/Take off your shirt/Take off your pants" or "Girl you're a pretty midnight bloomer, yeah/Say, maybe I could touch your boomer-rang tang"), there's no denying that Love/Hate is the ultimate screeching, rowdy, party band that causes young boys everywhere to bang their fists and heads in unison. This self-produced, raw rocker is reminiscent of the band's riotous first offering, Blackout In The Red Room. Jizzy Pearl's raspy vocals pound through wave after wave of walloping drum kicks and piercing guitar chords. "Spinning Wheel," the first single, has a great underlying guitar groove, but a better choice would have been the electro-industrial tinged, hard-edged "The Boozer" or the rough, ballsy, foot-stomping title track. —Jenni Glenn

SPHINX

Test (Heart & Soul, 6050 W. Touhy Ave., Chicago, IL 60646/312-775-9797)—The Windy City has blown yet another talented, young bunch of rockers our way. In 1991, Sphinx was voted "Best New Hard Rock Band" and "Best New Alternative Hard Rock Band" in both 1992 and 1993 by a Chicago Rocker fan-based poll. Sphinx has an Aerosmith-Saigon Kick-Seattle texture to its sound. Relatively new to the national scene, the band should turn some heads with its debut LP, Test. It incorporates a solid, potent groove with grungy guitar riffs bubbling underneath. Experimenting a bit with different musical styles (especially an "Death Of A Poet"—tambourines, plucky acoustic guitar and fuzzy megaphone-filtered vocals), the band tends to favor basic, hard-n-heavy structured pure rock 'n' roll... which isn't a bad thing. As long as there's a sun in the sky and bums in NYC's subways, there will be a demand for full-tilt, straight-forward rock bands. Also give a listen to "Jonestown," "Tribe" and "Out Of My Head." —Jenni Glenn

STANFORD PRISON EXPERIMENT

Stanford Prison Experiment (Chrome Gods, c/oWorld Domination, 3575 Cahuenga Blvd. West, Ste. 450, Los Angeles, CA 90068/ 213-850-0254)—The name Stanford Prison Experiment comes from an experiment performed at a college involving student role-playing; half of the participants were guards and the others were inmates. The obvious outcome was, of course, that like security shock troopers at concerts, the "guards" became intoxicated with their "power." Anyway, the band says it took took up this name only because it "sounds interesting." Yeah, right. Whatever the reason for choosing the handle, it fits. The feelings of disgust and disenchantment that probably followed the experiment is all over SPE's music. It's full of disturbing images, from the bully teacher from hell on "Disbelief" and "Mr. Teacher Dad" to the rotted dreams of "Frozen" and the corruption of art on "What's An Epidemic?" (Also included on this album is a groovy cover of the Minutemen's "It's Expected I'm Gone.") The combination of these lyrics with the incredibly abrasive music (derived from a lot of heavy stuff, from Tool to Fugazi) creates an identifiable sound that will probably scoop up mosh pits full of pissed off metalheads everywhere. Members of Rage Against The Machine and Quicksand (both of whom SPE has opened for) are fans of the SPE experimenters, and that just might be the little extra support that they need to become household (and country fair) names. —Brian Ives ■

In an effort to keep more in touch with the underworld of metal, Argh!!! would like to encourage unsigned bands to send in their demos or self-financed albums for possible review. Please send all materials including group bio to:

Jon Nardachone, Atlantic Records, New York, NY (212) 275-2135

Let new music reign: STUTTERING JOHN, SURGERY, JAWBOX, RUST, UNSANE, COLLECTIVE SOUL, GODSPEED and COLLAPSING LUNGS!! Are YOU on top of the scene?!? Check it out.

Larry Mac, KZRX, Phoenix, AZ (802) 848-7735

Kurt Cobain proving once again that it doesn't matter how much success one can have in one's life, if you don't have it together upstairs mentally, it just doesn't matter. Condolences to his family from all of us here at KZRX. On to happier subjects, SOUNDGARDEN, PANTERA and MOTLEY CRUE continuing to kick ass in sales and requests here in the desert. I dig the tune "Heavy Liquid" by THEE HYPNOTICS. Check it out if you get the chance. ROLLINS BAND's "Liar" kickin' ass request-wise. Until next time, have a good one!

Marni/Wayne/Psycho, Roadrunner Records, New York, NY (212) 219-0077

NAILBOMB is just jammin' at everyone's station. We seriously advise those who do not have this record in heavy rotation to WAKE UP!! Concentrate on "Wasting Away" and "Religious Cancer." But then again, play what you please. Max and Alex are doing interviews, so call us for more info. LIFE OF AGONY and TYPE O NEGATIVE are still on the road, call us for dates. RR's next phenomenal release is BLACK TRAIN JACK's second release called You're Not Alone. This follow-up release to No Reward is full of catchy, powerful punk-pop tunes. This will be on your desks by the end of April, and going for adds on May 9th and 10th. Coming soon DOG EAT DOG. Now start drooling—OBITUARY. We got the edge!

Jill and Jeannie, Red Light Records Death Squad, Des Plaines, IL (708) 297-OKFU

I got a speeding ticket this morning on the way to work—$75.00! Even flashing my cleavage didn't work on the old prick. Went to a Sony party last night for Carcass. Great food, great open bar action. Thanks to lrv from the Chicago branch, E.J. and Jim Welch from you know where. I just got off the phone with yet ANOTHER metal director telling me horror stories about label reps and indies harassing them to add their bands. That's very uncool. Well, keep up the support for COVEN and now GUTTED, OPPRESSOR and SARKOMA! Jeff from 'SMU—thanks for the Shampohorn CD, ha! Oh yea! I vote for a Frank Zappa weekend on MTV—a true genius, not some selfish, weak, loser asshole like Cobain. Play my bands and like them!

Sheri Sinclair, Energy Records, New York, NY (212) 695-3000

LARVA on your desk now!! Live with this baby for a day and you'll be in love. Suggested tracks include "Kia," "Word" and "Faces So Real." So, stop reading this and go give Larva a few spins. Well, if you dare to read more, here we go. Larva will be performing in New York for their record release party. All interested should contact me ASAP. Got it?? Oh, by the way, add dates 4/25, 26. Thanx! XOXO.

Maria "Mom" Abril, Metal Blade Records, Tarzana, CA (805) 522-9111

GWAR continues to command all of you to kneel! "Jack The World" is huge. Metal radio says so.

Headbanger's Ball says so. Beavis & Butt-head say so. More importantly, I say so! Their new movie Skulhed...face is great. Cameos by Jello Biafra and Sebastian Bach. CANNIBAL CORPSE's The Bleeding is in your hands now. Their first video ever was made for track #1, "Staring Through The Eyes Of The Dead." Add this track on April 18th, kids. Without sacrificing their integrity, Cannibal Corpse have launched themselves into a new level of musicianship. The lyrics CAN be understood without a lyric sheet! Really. I kid not. Remember, they've sold more merchandise than anyone the last two years of Milwaukee Metalfest. The hype is VERY REAL. Therefore, if your spinning Carcass, put in "Staring Through The Eyes Of The Dead" immediately. Coming soon to metal: Those lovable hardcore types from Phoenix, BEATS THE HELL OUT OF ME. On the road: Beats The Hell Out Of Me, Gwar, BROKEN HOPE with Unleashed and Demented Ted, CHEMLAB with KMFDM, THOUGHT INDUSTRY (dates upcoming with Type O Negative) and soon, Cannibal Corpse. Peace, love and cannibalism (as long as it's in the privacy of your own home). Whew! Mom outahere!

Joe Degenhart, Leviathan Records, Atlanta, GA (404) 463-1009

Thanks to all of the stations who have added the new IMPERIUM Too Short A Season. The initial response has been excellent and sorry for everyone whose copies have been delayed by our wonderful mail system. The lead track from this incredible CD is "Chemical Dreams." An intense display of the band's unique brand of progressive heavy metal. Sorry if that term offends all of your "modern" types. Just play it and listen to the response.

Greg Derbas, Pavement Music, Oakbridge Terrace, IL (708) 916-1155

CROWBAR is raging across the country with Pantera, right now as you read on. From what I saw in Detroit, this is the best f!@!ing tour of the year. I hope all show go-ers got their chance to hook up with the band. If you are going to a future show and want to meet the band, let me know. Their video for "Existence Is Punishment" debuted this weekend on Headbanger's and Beavis & Butt-head love seeing Kirk take a dump! After Pantera, Crowbar will set out on a headliner of their own. Openers to be announced. DEMENTED TED just started their assault across the country with Unleashed and Broken Hope. Call for interviews, meet and greets and tickets. Geniorturers is sharpening up her gear to nail STRESSBALL right where it counts. That's right, Stressball on tour with Gen. Call for dates in your area. It's just about time to start that summer crap, so if you're going to be in this summer, CALL ME!! I'll be spending some time on the road with Crowbar, so if I don't get back to you right away, you'll know why. Again, thanks to all supporters.

Therese Mahler, Earache Records, New York, NY (212) 343-9090

Once upon a time, there was a princess named Therese who was locked in a tower by an evil dark lord because he was jealous of all the wonderful things Earache had to offer. For example, the PITCH SHIFTER tour w/Stabbing Westward and their video for "Triad" soon to be seen on Headbanger's Ball, not to mention new releases from DISGUST, A.C., as well as reissues from MORBID ANGEL, GODFLESH, NAPALM DEATH and ENTOMBED. Well, luckily, Therese's fairy godfather, Dan Mitchell, was moonlighting as a night in shiny armor to make ends meet. Sir Dan slew the evil lord, along with a few dragons for good measure, and freed the princess. She was so grateful that she took him out to dinner and let him pay.

Chuck, Virgin Records, New York, NY (212) 586-7700

Never mind Pantera! Check out Lemmy singing on the new SHONEN KNIFE single, "Tomato Head"!!! The band is on U.S.A. tour now. Three tough women and loud guitars. Watch for their video on 120 Minutes. If you need tix or a pro-CD with the Lemmy in there mix, call me. Have fun with your show and mix it up "Tomato Head"! 4/16 Sacramento, CA, 4/17 San Francisco, CA, 4/19 Eugene, OR, 4/20 Portland, OR, 4/21 Seattle, WA, 4/28 Minneapolis, MN, 4/29 Chicago, IL, 4/30 Detroit, MI, 5/4 Providence, RI, 5/5, Boston, MA, 5/6 Philadelphia, PA, 5/7 NYC, 5/9 Washington, DC, 5/11 Atlanta, GA, and more. Shonen Knife could kick your little butts. Trust me. Thanks!!

Sue Stillwagon, Zoo Entertainment, Hollywood, CA (213) 468-4225

Hockey season is over...bummer. On to the playoffs—go Pens! VARGA—enough of you have heard me on my soapbox screaming about this record. Get with the program. This record does work! Test it, I guarantee a positive response. Top 5 phones at KIBZ, KISW, KQAL, WMHB, WPSU and WVBR back me up. COURSE OF EMPIRE—the new track is "Breed." The tour is with Prong.

Linnea Nan, Warner/Reprise Metal, Burbank, CA (818) 953-3692

DIO "Jesus, Mary & The Holy Ghost." The time is NOW! ATOMIC OPERA "Justice" should be in your hot little hands. Give this progressive outfit from Houston, TX, a listen. You and your listeners will be mighty pleased. Add date 4/25 & 26. It's getting closer and closer to BIOHAZARD, State Of The World Address and new music from FAITH NO MORE, MR. BUNGLE, L7, the JESUS LIZARD, THE CULT, LIFE, SEX & DEATH and more. P.S. JOAN JETT has a little surprise for you, tool

Karl de Winton, Cargo Records, San Diego, CA (619) 483-9292

In your face at this very moment from Cargo's covert metal division on the Blackmark label, the long awaited third album from Sweden's EDGE OF SANITY. The Spectral Sorrows delves into at least a dozen genres and has been added and reported on both loud rock and alternative charts everywhere. Also demanding your immediate attention is the debut from Vancouver's HC/noise architects FACEPULLER on Bang On Records. If you have yet to experience the sheer horror, call immediately and get your prescription filled. The band is also available for interviews, so do not hesitate to ask. Scheduled for early April release, Saltrubbed Eyes from SEANCE and a classic re-issue on Patois of In Battle There Is No Law from BOLT THROWER, re-mastered and available for the first time ever on CD. Watch for the band on tour over the summer months! Slated for late April/May release is The Essence from TORCHURE and O Agios Pethane from fellow Germans, BLOOD, as well as the sophomore offering, Impurity, from FLESHCRAWL. More than enough good shit to keep you frothing and twiching uncontrollably for months.

REVIEWS

SAM PHILLIPS "I Need Love" (Virgin, 1790 Broadway, New York, NY 10019)—In a live performance of this song Sam Phillips noted that its direct sentiment was somewhat inspired by an L.A. beggar holding a sign saying "Why lie? I need a drink." When Phillips sings "I need love, not some sentimental prison," she's cutting through everything that keeps us from enjoying love. Similarly when she sings "I need God, not the political church," she seeks to avoid the earthly definitions that drag us down. Choosing to film this clip in the setting of a church filled with the instruments of Dr. Frankenstein, is a wise, albeit odd, choice. In the black and white tones of the video, Phillips' features glow like those of an immortal silver screen beauty, her eyes wide open and always looking upwards. "I Need Love" combines shots of exquisite beauty (namely Phillips) and visceral, grotesque shots of severed heads and graphic body charts courtesy of Dr. Frankenstein. To call "I Need Love," the best track on her recent LP, Martinis And Bikinis is to sell short the other great songs on the record, but this video reminds us that it's surely one of the finest pop songs of the year bar none. (SC)

MAZZY STAR "Fade Into You" (Capitol, 810 Seventh Ave., New York, NY 10019)—If there ever was a song that cried out for a video relying on slow-motion filming, it's "Fade Into You." Following the path of dark and hypnotic beauty laid out by Hope Sandoval's plaintive voice and the mournful guitar work of David Roback, the clip employs a variety of footage shot in concert, on the road and in the desert, piecing them together with delicate fades. Images of a lone tree in the desert, a crow on a telephone wire or Sandoval's angelic face bathed in the rich blue light of the stage merge in an endless stream of brooding imagery and desperate emotions. A perfect, moody and delicate marriage of song and video. (CH)

JULIET ROBERTS "I Want You" (Warner Bros., 3300 Warner Blvd., Burbank, CA 91510)—No this is not a cover of the Beatles' "I Want You (She's So Heavy)." Although a diva/dance version of that song might be interesting in a sort of

morbid curiosity way, this fresh and bright song/video from Juliet Roberts is sure to delight eyes and ears in the club scene and beyond. The video is not much out of the ordinary for this genre (it almost looks like a soft drink ad with all those muscular black dancers without shirts), yet Roberts give the video definition with a strong, soaring voice that bursts through the tight constraints of dance music. Cool hat too! (SC)

LUCY'S FUR COAT "Treasure Hands" (Relativity, 187-07 Henderson Ave., Hollis, NY 11425/718-217-3600)—Coming from San Diego (the home of Stone Temple Pilots) is not nearly the mixed blessing of calling Seattle home, yet Lucy's Fur Coat have worked hard to shrug off STP comparisons. By releasing a performance clip, one gets an impression of the band's own identity, a reckless, almost geeky intensity, supported by crushing chords and edible pop hooks. The clip looks like it was shot by someone with an inner ear disorder as it swoons and dives with the rhythm of the song. The video would have been just as effective by letting the Lucy's Fur Coat supply the movement. The band certainly has a wild enough stage presence to handle that task. (SC)

DIG "Unlucky Friend" (Radioactive, 70 Universal City Plaza, Universal City, CA 91608)—"Believe" was a successful video for Dig (we told you it would be), and "Unlucky Friend" follows in its wake. At first, we thought this video was going to play out in some lame storyline, but "Unlucky Friend" proved to be purposely obscure, funny and entertaining.

"Unlucky Friend" has all the looks of a buzz clip, but this band generates more than a buzz around here. (SC)

SHONEN KNIFE "Tomato Head" (Virgin, address above)—Japanese import Shonen Knife isn't meant to be taken that seriously, but its songs and videos are serious fun. "Tomato Head" (sounds and looks almost like a Robyn Hitchcock song, doesn't it?) is perhaps the most well-shot "silly" video we've ever seen. There are smooth shots of tomatoes rolling down stairs and funnelling through a canning plant, and sinister shots of creatures with giant tomato heads, as if they were the plot result of a 1960s sci-fi flick (love those radiation freak films!). Yes, ultimately it's as corny as a Laugh In skit, but it's the highest form of camp pop you'll ever see. (SC)▼

GUEST DIALOGUE

Charlie Baldonado of Downy Mildew, High Street Recording Artist

And some may still ask, what exactly is Downy Mildew? The answer remains vague. And concrete. Open a book to find out.

It's infallibility as paradigm and paragon as vapor, mist, cloud, rain, sleet, snow, hail. It is strength in rigid hydrants. It's variety of forms in bays and gulfs and archipelagos.

It's democratic equality and constancy to its nature in seeking its own level.

It's unplumbed profundity in the Miriana trench of the Pacific.

What play of forces, inducing inertia, render departure undesirable?

So this to you, who know and are just learning, is part of what Downy Mildew is. All this inspired on Monday morning over coffee while reading James Joyce. Sometimes words just work the way you want them to.

RECORD COMPANY

John Notsure, Revelation Records, Huntington Beach, CA (714) 375-4264

SENSE FIELD. Alert, attention, can you hear me? Sense Field's debut album Killed For Less on Revelation? Hardcore? No way, so don't miss out and pass this one on to the metal/hardcore dude (but they'll probably like it anyway). Do yourselves (and your listeners), a favor put this in rotation and play it. Pure ear candy filled with gruelin' melodies and soulful rage. Imagine the sensation of cool melodies and soulful rage. Imagine the sensation of cool spring mountain fresh water tricklin' down your delicately exposed shoulder as you run naked through the desert...Seriously, Sense Field are better than a York peppermint patty. Play the first song "Today And Tomorrow" and see what all the commotion is about. Adds on the week of April 11 would be really rad. Call me, abuse me, introduce yourself so we can know who you are and track your charts. Plenty of promotional stuff for the pestiest callers! Sense Field on Spring Tour. Call if you need passes for you or your listeners. Later (until FARSIDE and INTO ANOTHER) and I hope the Gorilla Biscuits will linger in your hearts forever.

Luke & Laura, Back In Port Charles, Virgin Records, New York, NY (212) 586-7700

Yes, that's right, we're back. We're not letting that bastard Frank Smith control our lives any longer. And God knows Luckey needs some stability in his young life. It's great to see everyone again—so much has changed! There's a new bar/club in town. Luke really hopes SHONEN KNIFE will swing through on their upcoming tour. I think I'll call Chuck and Steph and ask them for tickets and an interview to surprise him. Now that we're in one place for more than a month, I've bought a CD player for the new house. We've been listening to the new SAM PHILLIPS called Martinis & Bikinis. I wish I could sing like her! We also love BEN HARPER's Welcome To The Cruel World. His songs are just beautiful, so beautiful, in fact, that I'm going to cry again. Oh, I'm sorry, it seems I cry at the drop of a hat these days. Well, at least I'm not as screwed up as that Billy Corgan guy—did you see the new Rolling Stone interview? What a soap opera that band is...but their cool new import of "Disarm" with B-sides of Fleetwood Mac and Thin Lizzy covers rules! Felicia and Mac told me that VERVE has a new mini-LP coming out in about three weeks—it's called No Come Down. They also said a new EP and full CD from the AUTEURS was on the way...I love cute English bands. Well, it's been nice talking with you. If you want to volunteer your time to help us fight the building of the toxic waste dump on Charles Street, please call me.

Mike Kondo, Sky/Ichiban Records, Atlanta, GA (800) 966-4242 ext. 3020

Now more to add to the confusion. As you know Ichiban distributes Sky and Naked Language, well we will now also be distributing Monkey Hill Records out of the Big Easy. Their first releases are from BLUERUNNERS and MUSTANG LIGHTNING and are at your stations now. Bluerunners, formerly on Island, are a foursome from Lafayette with one foot in Zydeco classicism and the other kicking down the roots-rock barn door. Which means in layman's terms, give it a listen. Mustang Lightning are a cross between Dick Dale and the Reverend Horton Heat. A definite party band if there ever was one. Also watch for FIVE-EIGHT to be opening up for Cracker during their Midwest and Southeast dates in May. Thanks to everyone who has been playing the FLESHTONES. Watch for dates soon. Also cool band to watch for: Everclear (Michelle at Restless, how about that plug—talk to you soon).

Chuck P. & John Perrone, Radio, Caroline Records, New York, NY (212) 989-2929

We send the records and you listen to 'em and love 'em. You got the new ones this week...A great return for the lone rhino himself, ADRIAN BELEW. It's called Here and it is possibly his best record to date. Check out "I See You" and "Never Enough." He will be out on the road this summer. If you're not familiar with Mr. Belew, you are way behind the times...You also have the U.S. debut from London's SEEFEL called Quique. This is not just a dance record! If your into the Cocteau Twins, don't pass up on this one. Take a listen to "Plainsong"...The sounds of BARK PSYCHOSIS should be melting your CD players by now. Their record Hex is a cross of Slowdive meets Spacemen 3. Check it out...All of you lovely RPM peoples should be enjoying the sounds of Barramundi—An Introduction To A Cooler World. Some incredible new stuff from Astralwerks will be on the way in the coming months such as TRANSFORMER 2, FUTURE SOUNDS OF LONDON and Technomancer IV: The Hard Edition...Every time we listen to Siesta by PEACH and Southside Speedway by FUDGE we get so excited we can't contain ourselves. We will not be responsible for what happens to you. Be on the look out for these later this month...The usual message from Chuck is on hold this week because he is still in a daze from hangin' out with Evel Kneivel.

NEW MUSIC REPORT 61 APRIL 25, 1994

Anne Gleeson, Break Thru Promotion & Marketing, San Francisco, CA (415) 626-7611

Well, I guess this is goodbye, then. As of April 18, I'll be working as the sales assistant in the Northwest branch of PolyGram Group Distribution. And the radio world will just have to live without me, I'm afraid. I want to thank all of you that I've had the pleasure of getting to know over the past year plus. You've made my job a lot more pleasant...There are certain, special people that I should thank specifically, but chances are good that if you're one of them, you know it. Please keep in touch—I'll be around. Meanwhile, please be nice to my replacement, who is Chris Baldwin, former music director at KJSJ in San Jose, CA. Finally, please program what's good and not just what's popular or "cool." You'll earn as much credibility following that rule than if you just play what all the indie-than-thou types expect you to play. In my humble opinion "different" or "indie" don't automatically equate with "good." Unless you're being truly creative and diverse, you may think you're being clever or daring, but you're just following a flock. My parting words: think for yourself!

Marvin Gleicher, Smash/Island Records, Chicago, IL (312) 751-0020

What's really alternative you ask? Ask no further! Be sure to check out the EP from SHEEP ON DRUGS From A To H And Back Again. There's a cool edit on the new CMJ April CD sampler.

Glenn Boothe, Epic Records, New York, NY (212) 833-4695

It's been a while since I've written a Dialogue (or even spoken to a college station) but there's an album out now that I feel is far too important to be overlooked by college radio. Reg E. Gaines' spoken word debut on Mercury. Beat Poetry meets Hip-Hop; street knowledge meets academic intelligence...whatever, this record moves me. Start with "Just Another Misunderstood Brother": a real tribute to Jimi Hendrix that outshines the Stone Free compilation. This is a special album that shouldn't be segregated to your specialty shows.

Kerry Murphy, President, Pop Tart Club, Slash Records, Los Angeles, CA (213) 937-4660

Oooooo! There's just not enough sugar and caffeine in the universe to keep me satisfied. Been kickin' the proverbial ass with this new FAILURE record. I love you all (you know who you are). And then there's LATIN PLAYBOYS, which is doing mighty fine with all you folk who know what real, unabashed musical genius is. If you think I'm exaggerating, then you haven't given this record enough of your time. Kapeesh? Failure are on the road with Tool and will be sharing the stage with the Flaming Lips on some of the dates. Yea.

Stephanie/Lisa and Caris, The Andrew Angels, Vision Trust Promotions, San Francisco, CA (415) 752-2564

BRAND NEW HEAVIES—rule! BNH will be on a small national club tour, will keep you posted with the dates. We know this lovable ragamuffin in New York, he is grey has eight arms, has a big basket with long legs and boy does he rock our world! If you are reading this, call us...if you want to. CANDY PLANET have gone back to their own galaxy to record a new CD to be released this fall. Humans that want giveaways of Candy Planet's, Deeper Than Fluff call us. We saw some killer bands this past month: Scribble, lead singer is none other than KALX's Anthony Bonet, Sympathy F on Caustic Fish, Gruntruck on Roadrunner, major's Biohazard, locals—Spit Muffins, Marginal Prophets, GodBox and Alphabet Soup. Viva la live shows! Speak to you soon.

Dane Olson/Natalie Morgan, Marketing/Promotions Gurus, Ardent Records, Memphis, TN (901) 725-0855

Hellohowareyal Greetings from Ardent! (This is our virgin Dialogue I might add.) We're back in the record biz after...oh...20-odd years...anybody remember BIG STAR!?! Anyhow, just setting down into our new digs here in Memphis. We've been up and rolling officially now for about eight weeks, and work is plentiful. Three exciting releases already: Memphis' own wild and crazy NEIGHBORHOOD TEXTURE JAM, and Little Rock, AR's young jangle/crunch gods TECHNO-SQUID EATS PARLIAMENT (I know that you all saw their show at South By Southwest). And speaking of Neighborhood Texture Jam, check out "Passive" on CMJ issue #367's sampler CD! Our own shiny unhappy boys in TWO MINUTES HATE have just released their debut album Worm on Ardent, which is our most recent offering. Big news number four is that we are oh-so-soon releasing domestically ALEX CHILTON's album Cliches, which is a previously import-only album of beautiful acoustic songs his father used to play. Other than that, just excited as a puppy with three peters! If ya'll want to chat, give us a call. We're looking forward to talking with ya, so if you want promo goodies or anything, talk to Natalie or me. If you want press stuff, call for Lee Gardner. Until then, see ya...

Kerri Savage, College Promotion, Relativity Records, Torrance, CA (310) 212-0801

Hello there friends. I have recently recovered from my insane weekend in San Diego where I ogled LUCY'S FUR COAT at their wonderful video shoot, indulged in the pleasures of triple dose chocolate with Attenberg and Lloyd, and was amazed by a very excellent band called Three Mile Pilot. Lucy's Fur Coat are now on tour, please call for all needs—I just may see you at some of those dates if you reside in the Northeast... PISS FACTORY have a new radio-only EP called I Melt to support their current tour of our fair country, you should play it and go see them. EX-IDOLS full-length CD will be here, there and everywhere this summer. By now you are playing the shit out of OVERWHELMING COLORFAST's Two Words. Good. I really enjoy the Silkworm song about New York's Laure Parsons...

NEW MUSIC REPORT 62 APRIL 25, 1994

Gary Jay, AIM Marketing, Old Bridge, NJ (800) 275-0091

In the wake of the untimely passing (does anyone ever pass away timely?) of Kurt Cobain, this week's comments are dedicated to him and the musical legacy he left behind. Nirvana's music touched so many lives, opened so many doors for other bands, and other ideas. Headlining this year's Lollapalooza tour would have been the crowning gem for the band who set the standard for artists and poets in this decade. In Utero was such an obvious cry for help (remember its initial working title and subsequent song on the Beavis & Butt-Head album, "I Hate Myself and Want To Die?"). Kurt's identification with Frances Farmer, (the 1930s actress who felt so trapped by her own success and fame she went insane, became institutionalized, lobotomized and ultimately died, alone, drunk and despondent) was clear. He named his daughter for her, as well as a song from the album. As I sit in my office listening to the haunting strains of "Something In The Way," the thought of calling radio stations and plugging records seems really trivial. Ian Curtis, Stevie Ray Vaughan, John Lennon, Andrew Wood; all great, all gone. Now add Kurt Cobain's name to this tragic list of beautiful artists we were blessed to have shared the planet with, if even for a little while. We'll miss ya, Kurt. Wherever you are now, hopefully you have found the "Nirvana" you were sadly unable to find with the rest of us.

Scott "Rosehips" Giampino, Touch and Go Records, Chicago, IL (312) 463-2907

What's this, RODAN on the cover of CMJ? You bet, the calls keep rolling in. People who were once afraid are no longer afraid. Their tour with the Grifters is going better than expected. Also touring tall, MULE, ARCWELDER, and newly appointed KEPONE, from Richmond, VA. Mule and KILLDOZER, three weeks on the radio chart and rising! Keep on playing "Knuckles the Dog." New stuff! April 18! Arcwelder is back with Xerxes, their fourth album, second for Touch and Go. I mean come on, they're a power-trio! This will be an add where most people two years ago wouldn't have even thought twice. BAD LIVERS slap us heartily on the back with Horses In The Mines. Are you hip to this power-trio from Austin? Blue grass, shmoo grass, this is punk-rock! Finally, SUPERCHUNK's Foolish arrives the 18th! This will be the one. Their CD single from this album debuted at 20 (!) on the retail chart. The album will debut no doubt in the top five! I'm telling you all, this will be the one! Also on Merge, MAGNETIC FIELDS broods us with road songs from The Charm Of The Highway Strip. Rounding out the 18th is Drag City's GASTR DEL SOL with Crookt, Crackt, Or Fly. This is one of the most interesting bands presently together. Formed from the ashes of Bastro, this LP (their second) will creep up on you, and no doubt countless others. Like I said, people are not necessarily afraid, just ecclesiastical.

A.T.S. is back with a brand new release entitled Blood Drive on the Shimmy-Disc label. If you don't have it yet call Shimmy-Disc at (718) 768-2424. Blood Drive was mixed and produced by Kramer (of Shockabilly/Butthole Surfers/Bongwater fame). The CD has 19 original A.T.S. songs. It's great to be talking to you again! I met many of you and spoke on the phone with lots more last year when I was working the A.T.S. self-produced 50-song CD, Seppo. Thanks to many of you behind us we've got great hopes for Blood Drive. You'll remember a few songs from last time ("Rugwar," "Future Child") but check out the brand new title track and especially "Louise." Hey, I hope you listen to the whole thing and play whatever you like. A.T.S. is a phenomenally prolific, independent band, now on a great indie label, Shimmy-Disc, and the band wants to play your college. We do our own booking and we'll give you a great deal. Call me, Kevin, at (412) 241-0704. I'd love to hear from you again playing A.T.S. music.

Ska! You have it and I want to play it! Here at KGLT I've been hosting the Friday Morning Ska Break every Friday at 11:00 a.m. since last summer. I've gotten tremendous listener response, but have depleted our station's meager ska reserves as well as my own. I'd appreciate any labels/radio people/ska fans to send me new/old releases fitting (loosely) into the ska genre. Bios, press releases, tour schedules, etc. would be most gratefully appreciated and reciprocated. Currently playing on the ska break, JOHNNY SOCKO, the new live BOP HARVEY, STEADY EARNEST and Reno, NV's MUDSHARKS and more. Thanks to Alexis at Steam Records for the skat Ska aside, that STILLMOTION 7" that came from Word Of Mouth was one of the best things I've heard in awhile. Who are these guys? Speaking of Word Of Mouth, I'd really like to track down some stuff by SPAVID of Buffalo. WOM is supposedly putting out their CD this summer, but I think they have a 7" on another label. Someone let me know where I can track this down! By the way, a friend of mine talked to Bobby S. Fred the other day and evidently he and Fred are changing the name of their label to Humble Records. Keep an eye open for new 7" and CD from SPURGE. Send your ska to: Dan The Man, KGLT, Montana State Univ., Bozeman, MT 59717. One step beyond!

Tom Ksobiech, Lame Duck Music Director/General Manager Elect, KLCR, Dubuque, IA (319) 588-7172

As this whirlwind ride we've known as the '93-'94 school year comes to a close, I thought I'd drop a note into the Dialogues to thank all of the helpful execs. at the various labels who have stuck by KLCR; you're the reason for our recent improvements...As my title indicates, I'm moving up to a bigger desk next year, but my successor Scott Rose should provide you with a solid liaison...Currently being tickled by our lasers: VALENTINE SMITH, LIVE, the GRAYS, CHARLATANS, MOXY FRUVOUS, SMART BROWN HANDBAG and MATERIAL ISSUE...Above and beyond though, isn't PRIMAL SCREAM's new album a combination of everything good in this world?...As for everything else, we are always looking to receive music from other big labels and the indies. I think our playlist and report reflect that nicely too. As for the summer, we will be shutting down on May 14...The good news is that we will start up again bigger and better than ever August 29...My time here is done, so now get ready for Mr. Rose. I'm warning you, he's zany...

Brent Wilcox, Producer of Night Land, KOTR, Cambria, CA, and WorldWind and Cryptomusicology, KCBX, San Luis Obispo, CA (805) 927-1953

Someone actually phoned me anonymously and slammed me for implying in my last Dialogue that the FAMILY CAT EP was new, when it is in fact a months-old import. Get a life! Sheesh...Meanwhile, ALI FARKA TOURE & RY COODER rule right now, and segue neatly with BILL FRISELL. LORENA MCKENNITT gets raves, and BARK PSYCHOSIS raises eyebrows while massaging eardrums. Worth a mention—INSPIRAL CARPETS, THAT PETROL EMOTION, MADDER ROSE, VANILLA TRAINWRECK, the HOLY TOLEDOS and especially the CHARLATANS. A few monosyllabic bands—EAT, LUNA, PRONG, GONE, RIG, LIVE, SWELL, CELL, THERAPY?, THE EX + TOM CORA slides into the UKRAINIANS, and LATIN

PLAYBOYS are a party by themselves. The mel-low song-stylings of NINE INCH NAILS counter-poise the pungent SAUSAGE. And I like the quasi-beatnik sounds of CICADA SINGS. Just an aside...why wasn't THE FALL's Volumeinous cover of "War"—an old HENRY COW tune—credited correctly? SLOWDIVE calms things nicely, swinging into TREY GUNN, ROBERT FRIPP, CALIFORNIA GUITAR TRIO, STEVE TIBBETTS, HAROUNI HOSONO, APHEX TWIN, ORBITAL and a bunch of Barramundi tracks. Always happy to hear tunes from Tuva, this time from SHU-DE. Other international landmarks include KHALED, DOUDOU N'DIAYE ROSE, OUMOU SANGARE, LIBANA and BALAFON MARIMBA ENSEMBLE. Note: INGRID KARKLINS will one day rule the world! Want weirder music? Okay...JON ROSE, BORIS KOVACS, PRAXIS, Yearbook Vol. 3 and NEGATIVLAND's radio show tracks. New mailing address: 2450 Main St., Ste. 1554, Cambria, CA 93428. Fax me at (805) 927-0384, email me at brent.wilcox@genie.geis.com.

Todd Hyman, WNUR, Evanston, IL (708) 491-7101

I thought it'd be fun to write a Dialogue for the first time. Don't have anything really to say except that there's way too much music around for even two people to be expected to listen to. Being in Chicago, the SEA AND CAKE and GASTR DEL SOL are all the rage. Listening to the new BED-HEAD CD right now which is quite enjoyable. I'm also gradually learning that the entire music industry will be converging on my hometown during the first Saturday of May (Derby to y'all). If anyone wants to talk to me, I'll probably be wearing my WNUR t-shirt. I'm expecting an article on the Louisville scene in Spin anytime now. Also, for those literary-inclined, check out the new issue of Buttrag or you will be doing yourself a great disservice. My personal favorite is "A Treatise On Noise." Bye.

Tes & Tex, Musical Morphine Manipulators, KSCU, Santa Clara, CA (408) 554-4907

Another Cobain Comment: "Stars Kill Rock, Rock Kills Stars." Reminds me of the inner sleeve comments of one of my KRS CDs where it says none of these bands want to be rock stars. Could selling your music be more than just music when your music is your soul? Shit. Well, like HOLE's new album says Live Through This. So on we go wishing Frances Bean and Courtney the best. And this year, we venture again to the great Northwest to see the bright new untainted indie talent. Yo-Yo A-Go-Go. Gee, it's scary. On other stuff, KSCU would like to announce that we masturbate. Yes, we masturbate. We do it outside the building, we do it in the studio, we do it in our bedrooms, we do it everywhere. Just as we play JELLO's "Will the Fetus Be Aborted" at this great Jesuit university, we masturbate on the air. We are independent. What is an independent person who conforms to this tenet that you have to do exactly the opposite of certain groups and do the same as certain "cool" groups? I don't give a shit. We will do what ever we want to.

Adam Potts, Music Director, KYMC, Chesterfield, MO (314) 530-0981

Music, music, music, if your Flippin' Out, the GIGOLO AUNTS will help you cope, new SWELL—simplicity is complex, DENZIL isn't useless, MUCKY PUP's Lemonade has a bite I like, SMALL BALL PAUL You In Flames on fire, MESSIAH makes a big noise with "Thunderdome," MILLA's music lives up to her beauty, DIG's new 5-inch feels lucky, KING MISSILE in love?, BILLY PILGRIM and his female background vocalists may keep you up...Plus NINE INCH NAILS, SOUNDGARDEN, BEN HARPER, MORRISSEY, SARAH McLACHLAN, TORI AMOS. For those of you who don't have it straight, our new address is: P.O. Box 4038, Chesterfield, MO 63006, new phone number above. Call me Monday 9:30 a.m.-11:30 a.m. Central time (it's the best time to find me). More Dialogues in the future.

Mike B., WMNF, Tampa, FL (813) 238-8001

As much as the underground may have pretended to hate Nirvana, Kurt Cobain spoke for the generation of disenfranchised kids who still can't find the right words to describe how they feel about the world they live in. And it doesn't matter if you're black or white, Kurt felt the pain that we 20-somethings and younger experience everyday. How much of an effect will his suicide have on the people who really enjoyed his music? On the negative side, I hope young people realize that suicide is not the only alternative. I'm sure at some time in our lives we've all wanted to die but hopefully we overcame those pressures and moved on. On the positive side, maybe more of our older generation will start to really take a hard look at the pressures that the '60s and '70s created. Yes, your generation did open the door, but you left us wondering what we were supposed to do once we stepped in. Nirvana's 1992 anthem "Smells Like Teen Spirit" brought together that spirit and rage at a time when things needed shaking up. On another level, emotionally, Kurt was a wreck. You can hear it in his songs. He never seemed to come to grips with fame and all its trappings. Will Courtney fall into the same emotional trap? I don't think so. She seems a bit stronger than Kurt, but the memory will tarnish her until eternity. Are the '90s over? For some people probably not, but for others the voice of a generation has been extinguished and that flame is a very hard thing to ignite.
