BAD LIVERS

DOING THEIR OWN THING: MAKING BAD LIVER MUSIC

Although Austin, Texas' Bad Livers are often pigeonholed after the first pluck of the banjo, the band's inspirations go beyond the obvious influence of bluegrass. "What inspired me to be a musician in the first place is what is historically referred to as the hardcore/punk rock scene of the early '80s," says stand-up bassist Mark Rubins. "Bands like Hüsker Dü, Black Flag or the Minutemen had a real grassroots network. It was hard to find the records [in Norman, Oklahoma] and the bands toured on shoestring budgets, but it seemed really real to me."

Along with the initial inspiration of punk, the drive of individuality was burning a fire beneath Rubins' feet. Also the bass player for Santiago Jiminez, Jr., he cites Jiminez as fueling that fire. "When you're around an older cat like that, it rubs off. Even though he does this other musical thing, it is very enlightening to be around someone who's been in this business doing their own thing for such a long time."

The Bad Livers incorporate the freedom they've learned from their musical heroes into their own dogma. It all started in 1991, when Danny Barnes, Mark Rubins and Ralph White rented a four-track and borrowed a guitar to record some favorite "stained glass bluegrass" tunes in the living room. Dust On The Bible was the result, and it was originally intended only for friends and fans. In '93, after the release of its first record, the band and its label, 1/4 Stick-Touch And Go, decided to re-release the tape. "It doesn't get more non-commercial than gospel music," claims Rubins, "but we're on this record label and they give us just enough rope to hang ourselves." Artistic freedom is extremely important to the band, and for two records now, the Bad Livers have been doing whatever they want.

They are particularly pleased with the outcome of their latest record, Horses In The Mines. Banjo player Danny Barnes describes it as "a slice of life," to which Rubins adds, "it's just a picture of what we were doing that week, like a grainy snapshot." The record was recorded in a shed, using on-site analog recording techniques, and incorporated impromptu bits (such as Judy the wonder dog barking (singing?) on "New Bad Liver Singer"). This record best captures what the band does live. "The idea was to make a more organic record," reveals Rubin. Despite the need to be musically independent, the band can never escape its influences. There is one cover on Horses..., "Blue Ridge Express." The tune was originally written by Ed Shelton, "a nice old gentleman from Temple, Texas," explains Mark. "He could burn on the banjo. When Danny was young, he learned this tune and won a lot of bluegrass contests playing it."

The Bad Livers have no doubt benefited from the recent surge of interest in country and bluegrass music, though the band tries to keep itself from being locked in one genre. "There seems to be a reappreciation of a lot of source music," notes Mark. The band will be playing at the Telluride Bluegrass festival this year, a distinguished honor, though the band is careful not to describe its music as bluegrass. "I'm a bluegrass fan; I'm inspired by bluegrass music, but that's not what we do. We do this other thing. We do Bad Liver music. That's how the old-timers around here call it. Hopefully, that's what everyone will call it after awhile."

GUIDED BY VOICES Bee Thousand (Scat, c/o Matador, 676 Broadway, 4th Fl., New York, NY 10012/212-995-5882)—In less than a year's time, Guided By Voices has gone from small town obscurity to the pages of Interview and Entertainment Weekly. And while the excitement of uncovering a dirty, buried treasure has worn off, we remain fascinated with the diamond-in-the-rough, lo-fi beauty of GBV. Bee Thousand is more bits and pieces culled from the strange minds of Robert Pollard and pals, the same pieces that made Vampire On Titus and Propeller such fabulous discoveries. Unlike those previous two, however, Bee Thousand is more of a mosaic, each piece a small fragment contributing to a larger part of a very clear, concise picture—the songs, which individually could be seen as incomplete, together form a complete record. Of course, each is a gem in its own right, sparkling with enigmatic lyrics and GBV's brand of crafty pop songwriting, the epitome of which is the memorable and seemingly never-ending "Kicker Of Elves" (lasting but a minute in reality), or the instant classic, "I Am A Scientist." It is the band's melodic wizardry that works the miracles on its crude, cut 'n' paste songs, making Bee Thousand a masterpiece made from scraps. Beyond the thousand mark on the scale: "Tractor Rape Chain," "Hot Freaks" and "Smothered In Hugs."

VELOCITY GIRL ¡Simpatico! (Sub Pop, P.O. Box 20645, Seattle, WA 98102/206-441-8441)—Calling Velocity Girl's second release fresher, clearer and more poppy than its debut is an understatement: ¡Simpatico! is simply one of the best examples of pop to come out this year, full of sparkling melodies, catchy tunes and vibrant music. The whole record sings with the band's dizzy excitement in capturing such an elusive sound, from the honestly apologetic "Sorry Again" to the swirling pep of "There's Only One Thing Left To Say" to the ragged guitars backing Sarah Shannon's self-assured vocals on "Tripping Wires." And that's only the first three songs. What makes the difference here is confidence and clear production; what was muddied and unsure on the debut is cleaned up and defined, without retreating from the basic formula which made the band's early singles so special. Where a male voice takes the lead, as on "I Can't Stop Smiling," Shannon's back-up harmonies provide a glossiness that makes it different from other indie-rock tunes, lending it a commerciality usually not heard from these groups. ¡Simpatico! is an exercise in marrying rough pop to sweet melody, and the result is just right.

WORLD SAXOPHONE QUARTET Breath Of Life (Elektra Nonesuch, 590 Fifth Ave., New York, NY 10036/212-575-6720)—The WSQ could be considered a long-time "side-project" for four of today's most accomplished and adventurous jazzleaders (David Murray, Oliver Lake, Arthur Blythe, Hamiet Bluiett) but its innovative structure and inspired arrangements have made it arguably the preeminent jazz group of the past two decades. Usually distinctive for its lack of a rhythm section, the foursome played with African drummers on its last album, 1991's Metamorphosis, and on Breath Of Life not only add piano/bass/drums, but on three tracks feature a rare vocal appearance by soul singer Fontella Bass, best known for her 1966 Chess hit "Rescue Me," and her sporadic but wonderful work with Lester Bowie and the Art Ensemble Of Chicago. Of the three songs, the standout's a mournful gospeltinged reading of "Suffering With The Blues." If you're new to the WSQ, don't fail to check-out "Picasso," characteristic of the unaccompanied group interplay that the band is revered for; the three higher pitched horns intertwine abstract melody lines anchored by Bluiett's burly baritone accompaniment. It's difficult to tell what's improvised and what's composed. The rhythm-accompanied tunes are less distinctively WSQ, but it's all solid material. Also recommended: the sumptuous "Song For Camille," featuring the lyrical side of Bluiett and Amina Claudine Meyers' resplendent Hammond organ.

WARREN G Regulate... G Funk Era (Violator/RAL-PG, 825 Eighth Ave., New York, NY 10019)—Warren G has been working hard to step out of the shadow of big brother Dr. Dre, building a reputation as a producer with tracks on The Chronic and Doggystyle and cuts like Mista Grimm's "Indo Smoke." With Regulate..., all the work has paid off, making for a solo bow that's a seamless combination of old-school beats (808 kick drum and handclaps), mid-70s funk basslines and mellow, blunted (in both senses, actually) sing-along melodies. In other words, the definition of the gangsta funk sound. The best example is the current top-10 single and de facto title track "Reg-u-late," which distills the "Gin And Juice" /"Today Was A Good Day" vibe into the most radio-friendly chunk of street culture since "Double Dutch Bus." As sometimes happens when producers turn into solo artists, the record is almost eerie in its Phil Spectorlike perfection, so that Regulate... feels more like a movie about gangsta life than a product of it. Where most hardcore rappers proffer their version of reality, Warren G offers verisimilitude. The Chronic may have put you (and every other car stopped at a red light last summer) in the mind of rolling in a low rider down some L.A. boulevard, but Regulate... actually feels like a 36-minute cruise in a hopping '64 Chevy Impala convertible. It's virtual hip-hop reality, direct from the 'hood to you. And it's hard not to hum along.

JESUS LIZARD Show (Collision Arts/Giant, c/o Warner Bros., 3300 Warner Blvd., Burbank, CA 91510)—At its best, a live album is not only a testament to a band's musical prowess outside the relative safety of a studio setting, but a living, breathing document of its charisma and personality. Show, recorded during CBGB's monthlong 20th anniversary celebration held last year, is probably the closest one can come to experiencing the Jesus Lizard's rabid thrashings without actually catching an eyeful of David Yow's gonads firsthand. Although Show could never aptly paint the same picture that Yow's on-stage antics do, it packs some of the Lizard's best songs into a performance as fierce as anything the band has ever laid on wax, and is even more representative of its dangerous presence. Perhaps the best element of Show, in addition to the band's shuddering intensity, is Yow's typical between-song bantering and acidspewing which only hints at the accompanying visual demonstrations. For those diehard fans cringing at the major label sellout stigma of Show, have no fear-it's merely a one off deal preceding the band's new studio album on Touch And Go, due out this fall (two new songs from which are featured here). –Colin Helms FUZZY Fuzzy (Seed, 19 W. 21st St., Ste. 501, New York, NY 10010/212-691-8805)—Fuzzy will undoubtedly be noted for having part-time Lemonheads drummer David Ryan as a member, or Tim O'Heir (Belly, Come) as album producer, but it's singer/guitarists Chris Toppin and Hilken Mancini who really carry Fuzzy into the realm of spiked pop, spreading layers of bubbly guitar distortion over sharp hooks and vibrant, emotional harmonies. One wields a twangy drawl, the other a voice of more innocent demeanor, and while many female-fronted groups end up sounding cute (Velocity Girl, Juliana Hatfield Three) or just plain mean (Hole, Babes In Toyland), this Boston foursome manages to straddle the two extremes with a sense of confidence. That's not to say that Fuzzy's knack for producing sweet vocal interplay alongside careening guitar riffs is anything less than its own distinctly affecting pop package; on "Flashlight," swift melodic undercurrents provide real muscle to the song's swooping harmonies,

"Sports" plays with childlike rhymes and a bouncy rhythm before giving way to bursts of guitar energy, while "Now I Know" and "Almond" languish just as comfortably in melancholic pastures.

-Colin Helms

HEAVY D & THE BOYZ Nuttin' But Love (Uptown, c/o MCA, 70 Universal City Plaza, Universal City, CA 91608)—The answer: He is the only pop-oriented hip-hop artist who gets nothing but love from street roughnecks. The question should be simple. The overweight lover Heavy D & The Boyz' fifth record, Nuttin' But Love, with all of its street sophistication and smooth vibes, returns Heav to his brand of sweetness, romance and the occasional positive message ("Move On"). The universal respect commanded by Heavy D stems from the fact that he is listened to by his peers as well as his fans ("Friends & Respect"). Nuttin' But Love is the perfect soundtrack to an all-night party or a mellow night lounging at home, all done with seemingly little effort. Gliding over a bright collection of '70s soul and hand-clapping rhythm and blues, the liquid rhymes and sharp hooks will only add more girth to Heavy D's enduring success. Rock the body to: "Sex With You," the first single "Got Me Waiting" (both mixes), "Something Goin' On," "Take Your Time" and "Black Coffee."

TORTOISE Tortoise (Thrill Jockey, P.O. Box 1527, Peter Stuyvesant Sta., New York, NY 10009/212-254-0355)—Practically every drummer uses cymbals of different sizes, but how often does the average listener notice it while listen-ing to a rock record? With neither guitars nor singing on Tortoise's debut album, the sounds, pitches and resonances of drums and percussion rise to the fore: cymbals, timbales, conga, cowbell, tambourine and snare drum beats that sound like gunshots. What is particularly noteworthy is that these instruments are all used with incredible restraint; Tortoise realizes that the less you play, the more important each note becomes. The group strips rock down to its essential rhythmic elements. And this is very much a rock record, not an experimental one; there's no noise and there's almost always a steady 4/4 beat. Eleventh Dream Day, Gastr Del Sol and Sea And Cake, Tartoise has an exceptional rock pedigree, but sounds like none of these groups. Like a tortaise, the music's almost all slow and quiet, but there's a diversity of rhythms and instruments which gives each piece a distinct flavor: rock, funk, regae and heartbeat rhythms; melodies improvised on vibraphone, melodica and bass; droning washes of Moog synthesizer and Farfisa organ; profuse reverb and delay; occasional voices floating from a TV set or off The Who Sell Out. All af these elements can be heard if you spend 50 minutes with Tortoise. And if you do, it just might make you rethink the possibilities of rock.—David Newgarden

VARIOUS ARTISTS What Is Bhangra? (I.R.S., 594 Broadway, Ste. 901, New York, NY 10012)—To fully answer the $500 Jeopardy question implied by this album's title, bhangra is an exploding new musical form, one in which the music of the Asian subcontinent (India) collides head on with hip-hop from the boroughs and 'hoods of America, with extra spice and flavor thrown in from the techno clubs of Europe and deep Caribbean dancehalls. Stop into any Indian-American deli, grocery or video rental store and check the cassette counter, where you can pick up the latest sensational bhangra beats for anly a couple of bucks a pop. It's a wild, fervent genre, of which Apache Indian was perhaps the first and most famous artist to penetrate the consciousness of those in the States. Other noteworthy names on the Banghra scene include Achanak, Sahotas and Bally Sagoo (who's sadly not on this compilation) While in spots it does sound rather like the bland electropop of B-movie sound tracks, at its best, as on Achanak's "Lako Wadeya" or the tabla-tapping Avtar Maniac's "Boliyaan," it's a head-spinning cul-tural collision giving birth to an exciting new form. While so far only England seems to be embracing the bhangra revolution with gusto, it's only a matter of time before the music takes hold around the world-in fact, this compilation could be just the first in an oncoming onslaught of bhangra fever, as I.R.S. plans to release the U.S. debut CD from Sahotas later this summer. -James Lien

STOMPBOX Stress (Columbia, 550 Madison Ave., New York, NY 10022-3211)—On its Columbia debut Stress, Stompbox comes charging at us with the subtlety and grace of a large hippo squeezing into a tutu. With its thundering drums, savage riffs and grunting vocals, Stompbox just might seize your head, twist it around and then give it a full skull-scraping crunch! The band steals names from songs it loathed from the '70s ("Carry On," "Fool For The City") but gives them a Helmetlike groove to carry its own message. Stompbox wants to change how rock 'n' roll is understood by throwing "a little bit of dirt into the gears," frontman Thaler explains. With experienced producer Sylvia Massey (Tool, Green Jelly) in tow and a live show that's different every night, Stompbox proves to be a new band to watch. Climb around your jungle gym to "No Woods," "Screwing In America"

Volume 1 (Razor & Tie, 214 Sullivan St., Ste. 5A, New York, NY 10012/212-473-9173)—The subtitle of the In Their Own Words live performance series, "A Bunch Of Songwriters Sittin' Around Singing," gives a good indication of the humor and charm of these unrehearsed get-togethers of acoustic strumming and informal conversation at New York City's Bottom Line nightclub. The CD boasts an impressive line-up of rock, R&B and folk tunesmiths from the '50s through the '90s, but the star of the show is radio veteran Vin Scelsa (WXRK in New York), host and mastermind of the series, which is now in its fifth year. Scelsa's just about the only New York AOR DJ who actually gets to pick his own music (the radio biz ain't all it's cracked up to be) and rather than following trends he simply plays what he likes: sometimes hip, sometimes archaic. Many of the album's highlights are Scelsa's informal interviews: Barrett Strong (co-author of "I Heard It Through The Grapevine") likens staffwriting for the Motown hit machine to assembly line factory work, Richard Thompson talks about role-playing in first person songs, and Joey Ramone discusses the lyrical content of "I Wanna Be Sedated" (we hope he'll elucidate "Beat On The Brat" on Volume 2). The songwriters perform their own songs and covers of some of their all-time favorites: Shawn Colvin sings Lefty Frizell, Lucinda Williams reinterprets Bob Dylan, and Luka Bloom croons LL Cool J. Occasionally the casual presentation is a drawback (impromptu accompaniment on chintzy organ and corny singalongs) but there are as many hits as misses.

SOME VELVET SIDEWALK Whirlpool (K, P.O. Box 7154, Olympia, WA 98507/212-260-3389)—The methods to Al Larsen's madness have evolved over the six years his band Some Velvet Sidewalk has been around, but the volatile angst fueling his skewed expression remains in full flower. SVS's first LP Appetite For Extinction refined the band's shambling, two-piece stomp, the subsequent Avalanche attacked a three-piece "rock" line-up with renewed fervor, and last year's

I Scream EP laid some of Avalanche's finest moments over heavy, Steve Fisk-induced dance tracks. Whirlpool is the next logical step: once again set in a "rock" format, Larsen's spastic wails have only intensified, and the surrounding guitar work has become blacker, building upon the Stooges-like grind of "I Blame You," which is recast with a more tightly-wound, white-knuckled sound than on I Scream. The Modern Lovers' sound and humor of "Big City Plans" spotlights Larsen's relation to the equally spastic and angst-riddled Jonathan Richman (with a surprising frumpet accompaniment!), while "Shame" highlights Larsen's adept rhyming ability. Also try the subtle title cut, "Mouse & Rat" or either of the album's two sweeter sounding closers.

FLY ASHTRAY Tone Sensations Of The Wonder-Men (Shimmy Disc, JAF Box 1187, New York, NY 10116/718-768-2424)—New York City's Fly Ashtray has been dishing out assorted singles for the last eight years or so, making its music in a similarly off-handed, silly and vaguely psychedelic manner. It comes as no surprise that Fly Ashtray sounds like Uncle Wiggly; the bands share drummer and guitarist James Kavoussi and members of UW have also written songs for past Fly Ashtray releases. It is also no surprise that with an album title like Tone Sensations Of The Wonder-Men and song titles like "Kronkite Knuckles," "What Do You Think Of The Guy In The Purple Chicken Bunny?" and "How To Avoid Probate," the proceedings would be low on substance. But irreverent as the band may be, Fly Ashtray is nothing if not a skilled bender of pop. The slinky guitar strumming contrasts with moments of total fuzz, providing as much rhythm as the tambourine beat that finds its way into several tracks. The band's affinity for reverb and an often brittle, beatnik delivery recalls spy flick soundtracks. Granted, any concrete description of Fly Ashtray ruins the whole idea of the band. What that idea is we haven't the slightest, but try these songs while you try to figure it out: "The Big 1-2-3-4," "The Girl From The Chinese Restaurant," "Belt" and the wryly-titled songs mentioned above.

7 YEAR BITCH Viva Zapata! (C/Z, 1407 E. Madison #41, Seattle, WA 98122/206-441-0875)—Throw these tattoo-bearing, fast-living women in a studio and they'll create something that defines exactly how they feel: a smashing rock sound. Viva Zapato!, 7 Year Bitch's second album, is dedicated to the band's good friend Mia Zapata of the Gits, who was murdered last year; her artwork graces the back cover as well. Produced by Jack Endino, the album scratches and snarls with true punk energy. Selene Vigil's vocals present a demanding, confronting speech, rather than a melodic song bird's trill, which fits right in with the group's bad girl image. After the tragic death of the band's own guitarist Stefanie Sargent, Roisin Dunne joined the show, showing off her fast-fingered talents, which blend extremely well with

VARIOUS ARTISTS Mud On The Wheel (Earth Music, c/o Cargo, 4901-906 Morena Blvd., San Diego, CA 92117-3432/619-483-9292)—It's amazing how quickly acoustic instruments have caught on. Since acoustic playing became a viable medium in the pop world a few years ago, with the premiere of MTV Unplugged, everybody, it seems, has been switching off their amps. Mud On The Wheel is a compilation of bands and solo performers from the San Diego area and elsewhere, united only by their avoidance (here, anyway) of amplified instruments. Although there's a certain amount of tasteful, folky stuff here, most of the participants play with the possibilities of acoustic instruments. The picks of the bunch are two bands best known for making considerably more of a racket. Heavy Vegetable's "Over Two Minutes" has lovely, mostly wordless harmonies and a twisty, multi-partite structure, like a feather-light "Happiness Is A Warm Gun"; and Doo Rag contributes "Oh, How That Bucket's Old," a short and super-catchy piece of hopped-up bang-on-a-can blues. Also notable are Mojo Nixon breaking character with an impassioned piece of country picking, "Go Back Home," and Lesser's unnerving percussion-and-voice piece "Red Shift," which ends the disk on an eerie note.

BOOKER T. & THE MG'S That's The Way It Should Be (Columbia, 550 Madison Ave., New York, NY 10022-3211)—Back in the '60s heyday of soul, Booker T. & The MG's were the premier soul band; whether on their own or backing up Otis Redding, Sam & Dave, Carla Thomas or whomever, they wasted the stiff competition. Although the drum sound has changed (the late drummer extraordinaire Al Jackson has been replaced by Steve Jordan), That's The Way It Should Be basically picks up where things left off in the mid.'60s. The regulation "Green Onions" rewrite, "Mo'Greens," is quintessential Booker T.

Understated, seamless, effortlessly groovy, it sounds as if the 32 years since "Green Onions" was a hit never happened. Of course, like Booker T. records of the past, That's The Way is loaded with covers. Some, like the instrumental take on Janet Jackson's "Let's Wait Awhile," will have many listeners reaching for the TV Guide, but the grinding version of Ann Peebles' "I Can't Stand The Rain," to name one, is a real winner. Also be sure to check out "Camel Rider," a self-penned six-minute slab of funk recalling the JB's at their peak.

DICK DALE Unknown Territory (Hightone, 220 Fourth St. #101, Oakland, CA 94607/510-763-8500)—At the age of 56, Dick Dale scorches through guitar strings like most people wear out napkins, has as much energy as the tigers he keeps at his home, and needs two drummers in his band to keep up with him—the guy will probably still be King Of The Surf Guitar long after we're all dead. Unknown Territory is a peculiarly double-edged title for a Dale album. He's hardly breaking new ground here—just reasserting his absolute dominion over his turf. "The Beast," for example, could very well be a just-as-good-as-the-original remake of a classic Dale tune from the '60s—except if's not. It's a new song that's exactly as good as anything he's ever done. And he's still got a taste for surfified covers, notably a fierce runtrough of the old standard "Mexico" and a surprisingly appropriate "Hava Nagila." Of course, the idea of the rugged individualist exploring "unknown territory" has also always been a theme of Dale's, and that's true here as well: His guitar sound, velocity and virtuosity are, as always, as tough as leather chaps. As it turns out, so is his voice—yup, Dick sings, and his tomcat yowling through "California Sun" and "Ring Of Fire" is awfully endearing. Also check out "Scalped" and the wild eight-minute title track. —Douglas Wolk

GOD IS MY CO-PILOT How To Be (Making Of Americans, P.O. Box 490, Cooper Sta., New York, NY 10276)—Love 'em or hate 'em, there's no denying that God Is My Co-Pilot sounds like no other band. GodCo is inspired by the Boredoms (anything can happen), 1/2 Japanese

(anyone can do it), and John Zorn (invite everyone you know to join in), but the group's sound is shaped mostly by the members' own personalities. Puckish lead singer Sharon Topper, songwriting wit Craig Flanagin, and the rotating cast of Co-pilots perform with chutzpah. Not many bands would dare attempt, let alone pull off, a rap song about their preferences for "Rubber Or Leather" sex gear, an Australian aboriginal folk tune ("Honey Ant Song") or a creepy minor key version of "You Are My Sunshine." As usual, most of the songs are short and to the point (14 clock in under two minutes), but on How To Be, GodCo's sixth album in just four years (with at least three more are already in the can!), the band makes its first attempts at longer (five-seven minute) pieces. These are particularly notable since they give Flanagin a chance to stretch out on guitar. By "stretching out," we don't mean Mahavishnu; Flanagin whips up a diversity of kitchen appliance sounds from his instrument—think trash compactor, blender, Cuisinart. He swaps licks with Andy Haas' yelping chihuahua sax on "Pygmy Dream" and with meowing pussies on "Kittybait," a rare GodCo sustained mood of seven minutes, and he's simply brilliant on the funky "Best Friends."

PETE DROGE Necktie Second (american, 3500 W. Olive Ave. Ste. 1550, Burbank, CA 91505)—Pete Droge will be, for better or worse, tagged with the somewhat dubious title of "American singer-songwriter." To his credit, however, most of the songs on Necktie Second (his debut) shrewdly avoid the stylistic and lyrical limitations of the navel-gazing wimps who gave the genre the bad name it has today. By virtue of the somewhat nasal, aw-shucks sincerity of his voice, his simple melodies and the tasteful Jayhawks-esque sound of his backing band, he sounds like a slightly less country Joe Henry, but the real focal point of Necktie Second is Droge's lyrics. For a man of a mere 25 years, Droge has an impressive range that is only occasionally spoiled by the heavy-handedness one would expect from someone his age. He gracefully jumps with ease from the tongue-in-cheek self-pity of the opening cut ("If You Don't Love Me (I'll Kill Myself)"), to touching songs of devotion, to the Greetings From Asbury Park-esque stream-

MILK Succeeding/Receding (Spanish Fly, 2217 Nicollet Ave. S., Minneapolis, MN 55404/612-872-0646)—Hailing from the land of 30-below-zero winters and 90-degree summers, Milk is as strange and unpredictable as the seasonal combinations in its hometown of Minneapolis. The band's sophomare effort for Lori Barbero's (Babes In Toyland) Spanish Fly label reveals a more polished band. Succeeding/Receding is a cornucopia of quirky, not-quite-pop melodies. The appropriately titled album reflects the antagonistic forces existing in the record itself; just as a pop melody gathers a bit of momentum, the chords and tempo change to negate any catchiness. Milk's occasional space age dissonance and strained vocals suggest that at least one member has a vast collection of Flaming Lips records. But unlike the Lips and its many inbred offshoots like Mercury Rev, Milk expounds on the general theme rather than continuing it ar imitating it. Songs such as "Lazy Sails," "Moping" and "I'm Not Much Fun" prove that the band is doing more succeeding than receding.

JACK LOGAN Bulk (Medium Cool/ Twin\Tone c/o Restless, 1616 Vista Del Mar, Hollywood, CA 90028-6420/213-957-4357)—There's no mystery as to the title of this record. Bulk is two CDs packed to their digital limit with 42 songs by Jack Logan and his countless collaborators. The story goes that these 42 songs were culled from over 600 songs Logan (with occasional help from some Dashboard Saviors and Vic Chesnutt) had recorded over the last 15 years. Though it might sound like a mess or a tiresome bore to sit through, it's a welcome listen taken as a sort of bootleg greatest hits double CD from a guy yau've never heard of. Since the majority of these recordings were done quickly in an attempt merely to capture a song that had just been written, Logan and his assorted pick-up bands steamroll through folk, backroom blues, rock and more. Granted, there are more than a few duds here, but even those half-assed songs fit the grab-bag nature of this package. In fact, the more "demo" sounding tracks are the most interesting and certainly stand out among the steady studio rockers on Bulk. Listen to it all if you've got the time, but we suggest,

SMEGMA Ism (Tim Kerr, P.O. Box 42423, Portland, OR 97242/503-236-0013)—The quintet-plus-friends that goes by the quaint name of Smegma is led by the extraordinarily dubiausly named Ju Suk Reet Meate. Add in the group's penchant for unusual instruments (mussette, clavinet, marimba, cornet) and the fact that the other four members of the band are listed as Dr. Id, Oblivia, Burned Mind and Amazan Bambi, and no one could blame you for thinking that Smegma is, well, a little weird. And it's true, they are weird, but the band's earned its reputation—it's been around for over 20 years. Smegma's basic technique seems to be taking collective improvisations and overdubbing them with tapes, occasional monologues, and random strangeness-songs, or even grooves, are not the order of the day here, although the group's willing to draw on rock traditions where it's appropriate. (For a reference point, think of Can's more peculiar moments, or of the improvisational parts of Thinking Fellers Union Local 282 records.) Thaugh there are a few headscratchers here, some af Ism's tracks wark up some niftily strange sounds, notably the mindwarping a cappella tower of Babel called "Voxx (Wild Mix)" and the lengthy "Modern Living," which sounds like the soundtrack to an imaginary Jan Svankmajer-Salvador Dali col--Douglas Wolk

FIGGS Low-Fi At Society High (Imago, 152 W. 57th St., New York, NY 10019)—Over the last couple of years the Saratoga, New York-based Figgs have garnered much attention in the Northeast with their dynamic and impetuaus live shows. From the first song on Low-Fi At Society High, their sophomore full-length, the band seems intent on attempting to somehow harness that same reckless energy and print it to tape. "Step Back Let's Go Pop" is a swift rock drop to the floor, setting up for the rest of the album's impulsive guitar-soaked melodic revelry. Writing and vocal duties for Low-Fi are split between guitarist Mike Gent and bassist Pete Donnelly, with Gent's songs leaning more toward the straight-ahead new-wave rock typified by The Clash and Donnelly's falling a bit nearer to Costello's brand of edgy, rollicking pop, albeit a bit different lyrically. "Jump Start" is a great example of the latter, with a thick Paul McCartney-style bassline meandering around earthy riffings and melodic attacks. Even as the album strays from its quick-stab song lengths, meddling with more epic and balladesque dimensions on the sevenminute "Tint," the songs are no less energetic, despite their careful mapping. Other filling tracks: "Stood Up!," "Favorite Shirt" and "Chevy Nova." —Aaron Clow

BLACK WATCH Amphetamines (Gotta Go, 7142 Phelps Road, Goleta, CA 93117, 805-685-1775)—Los Angeles-based Black Watch features a college English prafessor lead singer/guitarist and a prominent string bowing vocalist within a pop foundation, and all these elements meet without an ounce of artsy pretension.
On the band's second album, Amphetamines, the Black Watch plays smart, upbeat and jangly pop, windblawn with a touch of psychedelia and enough raugh edges to keep the sweet songs from becoming too sugary. Like Downy Mildew, the Black Watch features alternating male/female vocals from guitarist Jahn Andrew Fredrick and vio-linist J'Anna Jacoby, but as Downy Mildew's songs take on the air of each singer, Fredrick and Jacoby present a unified front, giving the Black Watch its streamlined sound. Amphetamines' strong hooks are formed by simple guitar jangles, understated melodies, smart, not overwhelming use of the strings and the graceful swing of moods, from brooding lullaby to dissonant guitar-driven flurries, providing a more tranquil effect than the album's title might suggest. Starters: "See You Around," featuring Medicine's Brad Laner, "Whatever You Need," "The King Of Good Intentions," "You've Got This Thing" and "Just Last Night."

BUCKSHOT LeFONQUE "Breakfast @ Denny's" (12") (Columbia, 550 Madison Ave., New York, NY 10022-3211)—No

Ave., New York, NY 10022-3211)—No secret. Buckshot LeFonque is the alter ego of Tonight Show bandleader Branford Marsalis. Prompted by the now famous lawsuit filed by non-white patrons against Denny's for inferior and non-existent service, "Breakfast @ Denny's" is a steady flowing ride, with beats by Gang Starr's DJ Premier and sax by Marsalis. This is not Branford's first attack on socialized racism: he wailed over "Fight The Power" on the Do The Right Thing soundtrack, and on his last studio LP he criticized cabbies who blow by black patrons and the lack of justice in the initial Rodney King verdict. "Breokfast @ Denny's" is easily the most anticipated jazz meets hip-hop release this year, but don't expect the same recipe for the rest of the forthcoming Buckshot record; there's a full menu of styles to suit every palate.

COBALT "And" (7") (Queenie, P.O. Box 2621, Peter Stuyvesant Sta., New York, NY 10009)—Yasmin Kuhn was the singer/guitarist who fronted the superb New York trio Flying Saucer several years ago. Her new band, Cobalt, has an all-star lineup on this three-song single: Kuhn is joined by Antietam's guitarist Tara Key and bassist Tim Harris, and by Elliot Sharp, who adds some sax squalls to the two-chord stomp "And." The A-side spotlights Kuhn's rich, expressive voice. She's not part of anybody else's vocal tradition, and she can really sing—"Sea Nine," a subdued, Flying Saucer-like track is especially impressive. The B-side's "Maryland Car Song" is a surging instrumental workout, with Kuhn's and Key's guitars crashing like breakers.

SWIMMER "Whippings" (10") (Quixotic, P.O. Box 7296, New York, NY 10116/212-979-6938)—London's Swimmer may hail from the land of goth, but its music is more akin to American indie rock. Using equal parts anthemic rock and experimental guitar doodling, Swimmer explores the post-punk world with satisfying results. "Whippings" takes its strength from a driving guitar rift, recalling Superchunk's "Mower." The flipside "Boxes," however, is a less straight ahead number, spinning from a subtle vocal harmony groove into a more locked single chord outro that resonates almost endlessly. —Bryan McNamara

81 MULBERRY "South Anna River" (7") (Free, P.O. Box 2851, London W6 9ZW, U.K./081-741-2272)—Like Swervedriver, 81 Mulberry steers its songs over bumpy, alluring roads paved by thick slabs of Dinosaur Jr.-like guitars, the band's restlessness coupled with a sensitive ear for melody. "South Anna River," the North Carolina band's second single (in addition to a mini-LP), is a compact summation of this sound, with rugged guitars and vocals trying to rise above the languorously paced, but noisy surroundings. The flipside offers two more interpretations of this sound, the faster, more blurry-eyed "Fire Escape" and the heovy/pretty "Scrubbing."

-Lydia Anderson

BEDWETTER "Abdominal Lift" (7") (Lethal, P.O. Box 14868, Long Beach, CA 90803-1414/310-435-2353)—A problem for most instrumental bands is a lack of diversity—with no lyrics to provide a distraction or hook, the music must work harder to maintain interest. Greensboro, North Carolina trio Bedwetter uses sparse digressions and odd noises to link the more obvious components. The opener "Open Band Test" is reminiscent of Don Caballero, with pounding, bashing power chords. The following two tracks, however, show why Bedwetter has that something extra, as they move into slowcore, a Slint-ish territory that alternately lulls and jars.

—Bryan McNamara

DRINKING WOMAN "Used Cars" (7") (Three Little Girls, P.O. Box 6833, Louisville, KY 40206)—It is unfortunate that Drinking Woman's first single has become available only after the demise of the band last fall. The four Louisville women recorded a scant few songs and the ones here bear the scrapes and bruises of an early recording session from a band with great songs. The songs are full of rapid style changes and shifts of personality—a slow and happy rhythm switches to a quick paced anger-filled wail. Both "Used Cars" and "Juan The Floors" leave us wishing Drinking Woman hadn't met her fate so young, though we can rejoice in her offspring: Erica Bricking is now with Cutter and Tara Jane O'Neil with Rodan.

—Dawn Sutter

LARRY CASH, JR./HANDSOME FAMILY "Evil Square"/"Telephones And Telescopes" (7") (Snap! Crackle! Punk!, P.O. Box 14561, Chicago, IL 60614/312-862-0089)—Snap! Crackle! Punkl is the new label started by the folks who put together the Chicago 'zine Speed Kills; this split single is the first record they've put out that hasn't come with an issue of the magazine. The Handsome Family's "Telephones And Telescopes" has one king-sized hook that repeats through the whole song, a confidently quavery vocal and a guitar solo that smokes and curves like a Fourth Of July snake firework. "Evil Square," on the other side, is a lower-fi, Datapanik-style rock pounder, with another creatively noisy solo, by Larry Cash, Jr.—not a person, but a quartet that shares a couple of members with Ashtray Boy.

DEFLOWERS Shiny New Pony (Platypus, 4515 Burke Ave. N. #15, 5eattle, WA 98114/206-634-1944)—Sometimes all it takes to make a good record is to cop a well-established sound and do it well—not necessarily unconventionally, just honestly, and with some personality and verve. Seattle's Deflowers play your basic well-honed power pop, not that much differently from bands like the Posies or Best Kissers In The World, but that's what makes them so vital in today's world of half-baked copycats and guitarhugging bores. The band knows what decent playing in a guitar-pop framework is all about: energy, character, a sense of melody and dynamics, balancing self-indulgence with self-mockery. Songs like "Live Through You" and the 13th track (not listed on the album's sleeve) succeed through varying levels of soul-baring and amp-blasting, coupling hummable, unapologetic choruses with emotional confusion. Shiny New Pony is the first full-length album the band has released on its Platypus label, and continues the group's work with producer Kurt Bloch (Young Fresh Fellows, Fastbacks), who recorded Deflowers' two previous singles, giving their twin guitar pop the same brash production of similarly minded records. With local recognition firmly intact, the Deflowers are poised to become one of the many next great Northwest hopes.

On the World Music Tip: Nuru (Son/Art, 1532 Old Village Dr., Mt. Pleasant, SC 29464/803-881-3548) is the first release from a loosely woven collective of musicians orbiting around producer/guitarist Thomas Kenny, also known by his nom destring T-Cat. Using this collective approach, Kenny plans to produce and release future albums recorded with various permutations of the other musicians he's worked with in France. Kenny, for his part, is a guitarist who has been working in Paris and in Pennsylvania, forging his vision. On NURU's debut release, Kenny's soulful playing provides the perfect foil to Adam Msiba's drumming and gravelly vocals. Nuru's music is an amalgamation of African and Parisian sounds, thankfully far leaner on the synthesizers than the typical Afropop productions. Sometimes the group mis-steps too far away from what it does best, but typically, the spartan nature of the music keeps things from bogging down too badly, making for a promising debut. Best cuts: "Mateso (Suffering)," "Feel Alright," "I Wanna Cry," "Walking Down The Road" and the soulful instrumental "Rain Falls." Future plans will hopefully bring the various performers over to the States for more performances and the release of further recordings from this vibrant transcontinental collective scene.—D.I.Y.

JACKPOT!

TISH HINOJOSA Destiny's Gate (Warner Bros., 3300 Warner Blvd., Burbank, CA 91510)—If Jimmie Dale Gilmore is the musical mayor of Austin, Texas, Tish Hinojosa is its first lady of song. On Destiny's Gate, her sixth album and first for Warner Bros., she continues to cross musical borders with a delicate yet potent touch. With her clear vocals and a deft way with words, Hinojosa tackles styles as diverse as Texas honky tonk ("I'm Not Through Loving You Yet") and a lively cumbia ("Espérate") with sparkling results. Meanwhile, she remains politically conscious, having done work in support of the United Farmworkers, AIDS awareness and several Central American peace groups, as is vividly portrayed with "Noche Sin Estrellas (Night Without Stars)," a moving Latin American protest song. Hinojosa's biggest accomplishment, though, may be how she and co-producer Jim Ed Norman get some of both Nashville's (Richard Bennett, Bela Fleck, Matt Rollings, Glen Worf) and Austin's (Marvin Dykhuis, Stephen Bruton, Paul Percy, Rich Brotherton) top players to perform together in such a seamless manner, since many have said how different a feel for this type of music the players in those cities have.

VARIOUS ARTISTS In Their Own Words: Volume 1 (Razor & Tie, 214 Sullivan St., Ste. 5A, New York, NY 10012/212-473-9173)—In the past five years, New York City's Bottom Line club has produced a unique series of concerts called "In Their Own Words: A Bunch Of Songwriters Sitting Around Singing." Basically an interview show, it's hosted by longtime NYC progressive radio DJ Vin Scelsa, who gets a diverse group of songwriters to talk about their craft and perform songs, old and new, in an acoustic setting. This disc collects 15 highlights of those shows, featuring artists as different as Joey Ramone (performing the closest approximation of an "unplugged" version of "I Wanna Be Sedated" as we're likely to get), Barrett Strong ("I Heard It Through The Grapevine"), Richard Thompson ("I Feel So Good") and Lucinda Williams (a haunting version of Dylan's "Positively 4th Street"). The rare combinations of artists tend to produce extraordinary moments, such as when Thompson sparks Dave Alvin's "Andersonville" with a passionate guitar solo. Another is the final portion, where Scelsa asks each artist to perform a song he/she wishes he/she had written, which results in such delights as Graham Parker's take of Bob Marley's "No Woman, No Cry" and Luka Bloom's reading of LL Cool J's "I Need Love." While most compilations of this type are listened to a few times and then filed away, In Their Own Words has more than enough brilliant moments on it to prevent that from happening. We can't wait for Volume 2.

JEFF & JANET Jesus Built A Ship To Sing A Song To (Kokopop, 33 34th St., Sixth Fl., Brooklyn, NY 11232/718-768-2424)—
Janet Beveridge Bean must be serious about this country stuff. Although best known as the drummer for alternative rock band Eleventh Dream Day, she's also involved with low-key twangers Freakwater. On Jesus Built A Ship To Sing A Song To, she teams up with fellow Chicago native Jeff Lescher, of pop band Green, for a collection of songs from Gram Parsons' repertoire that's as loving a tribute to the father of country rock as has ever been recorded. While Janet plays Emmylou to Jeff's Gram, the songs where she takes the lead vocals are the most impressive (taking nothing away from Lescher's drawl), especially on the lament "She" and the flat-out rocker "Luxury Liner." One major complaint: nowhere on the CD package, including on the disc, does it credit Gram Parsons or the other writers of these tunes. Aren't there copyright laws about that kind of stuff? And if those involved liked his music so much, wouldn't they want people to know these are his songs?

SHORT SHOTS

Baltimore duo and longtime Horizons fave disappear fear returns with a new label, Philo (1 Camp St, Cambridge, MA 02140/617-354-0700), and a self-titled album filled with the striking harmonies and solid musicianship of sisters Sonia Rutstein and Cindy Frank. Songwriter/guitarist Rutstein possesses the rare talent for composing songs of love and those making political commentary with equal passion, while ensuring all of it sticks in your head and heart. From the folky opener "Washington Work Song," which features the Indigo Girls (who disappear fear has been compared to more than a few times) on backing vocals, to the quirky guitar pop of "Priceless" to the ethere-al ballad "Be The One" to the rootsy rave-up "Kiss The World," disappear fear proves itself eclectic, versatile and imaginative...Well, it's come to this. One of my favorite songs so far this year has the refrain "Boom boom all night long." Not the most original of sentiments, for sure, but they come from Nuevo Boogaloo by the IGUANAS (Margaritaville, c/o MCA, 70 Universal Plaza, Universal City, CA 91608), one of the hottest groove bands around. And their groove is hard to resist. The Iguanas' combination of Latin rhythms, New Orleans-style R&B, Tex-Mex and roots rock allows them to sound different on every song, and they play each variety with effortless grace and wit. Check out the aforementioned "Boom Boom Boom," along with "My Girlfriend Is A Waitress" and "Hey, Sweet Darling," for a taste of a great American band at the top of its game...Currently set to break out of the Philadelphia area is an interesting new singer/songwriter by the name of IOTA. Her self-released Take Me Like A Man (Dewey Leaf, P.O. Box 114, Wynnewood, PA 19096/610-649-7991) features nine strong originals that show off her Chrissy Hynde-meets-theblues vocals. lota is already a mainstay at WXPN, where the infectious and laid-back "Not Livin' At All" has gotten a lot of play. The country-rock twang of "So Much To Lose," the dark, shadowy "In My Bed" and the lilting, yet intense title track add up to an impressive debut...Moving up the coast, JON SVETKEY's second self-released project, YeahYeahYeah (ECP, P.O 383464, Cambridge, MA 02238/617-354-9092), shows why he was nominated for a 1994 Boston Music Award in the New Folk/Acoustic category. Svetkey amply demonstrates his storytelling ability, and while he's best on quiet, introspective tunes like "Any More" and "Halloween 1936," he also proves he knows how to rock with uptempo songs like "King Of Sleaze" and "Right Here, Right Now." Fans of John Gorka and Bill Morrissey are sure to enjoy Svetkey's literary songwriting approach. One of the best kept secrets in folk music, MICHAEL SMITH has released his third album, Time, for Flying Fish (1304 W. Schubert, Chicago, Il. 60614/312-528-5455). He's had songs recorded by Jerry Jeff Walker, Steve Goodman and Jimmy Buffett, and has composed the music for and is performing in the Tony-winning stage production of The Grapes Of Wrath. Smith has the uncommon ability to transport you to other times and places with his tranquil songs of American life. Especially moving on Time are "I Brought My Father With Me," "Time Is Moving Down The Hallway" and "We Become Birds."

CAN'T LET THESE BLUES GO

Celebrating its 25th anniversary as one of the top blues bands in the nation, ROOMFUL OF BLUES lets loose with Dance All Night (Bullseye Blues, c/o Rounder, 1 Camp St., Cambridge, MA 02140/ 617-354-0700), one of its strongest efforts in a very long time. Boasting one of the finest horn sections around and the soulful vocals of Sugar Ray Norcia, these guys can blow the roof off any juke joint. Give a listen to "Lillie Mae," "Up The Line," "I'm Just Your Fool" and "Back On Front Street" and see how long it is before you get the urge to boogie. One of cornerstones in the rich Austin blues scene, W.C. CLARKE makes his recording debut with Heart Of Gold (Black Top, P.O. Box 56691, New Orleans, LA 70156/504-895-7239). Clarke has played with everyone from T.D. Bell to Stevie Ray Vaughan. His music is a funky stew of his smooth vocals and steamy guitar playing, backed up by an all-star cast of some of Austin's best blues artists, including the Antone's House Band, the Double Trouble rhythm section and the Kamikaze Horns. Highlights include a decidedly different take of "Cold Shot," a very slinky version of "Let's Straighten Out" and the Texas soul shuffle "I Want To Shout It Out."...There's been a spate of releases from the true originals/eccentrics in the blues world lately, from the likes of H-Bomb Ferguson, Cedell Davis, R.L. Burnside and others. Well, add LOVIE LEE to that list. Lee is best known for his piano work with Muddy Waters in the 1980s, and his Good Candy (Earwig, c/o Flying Fish address above) is a rough-and-tumble, yet very entertaining affair. All the tracks were recorded in the '80s and feature guest appearances by Eddie Taylor on guitar and Carey Bell on harmonica. Lee leads his band through some hardcore Chicago style on such originals as "Lovie's Boogie," "Whoopin' Thighs" and the title track.

PROGRESSIVE RETAIL

Chart compiled by Dawn Sutter

ON THE CHART

This week Grand Royal-Capitol's Beastie Boys rhyme and rap their way to the #1 spot and top In-store position. ZTT/Sire-WB's Seal makes a stellar debut at #4, but does not win any originality awards for the title of his second album called Seal. DGC's Counting Crows continue to bob up and down on the chart, this week springing up (13-8).

Astralwerks-Caroline's Future Sound Of London (#34) makes a premiere appearance with its sophomore album, its first available domestically. The first record to be released under the newly-formed Scat-Matador partnership, Gulded By Voices glides in at #43. Attantic's Stone Temple Pilots' colorful second album is at #48. At #50 is the new one from Alabama's foremost surfmen Man Or Astroman? on Estrus. Also among the fresh faces: Hut U.S.A.-Vernon Yard's Auteurs (#53), Lush, whose import single is in at #59, Lookoutt's Born Against/Screeching Weasel 7" (#64) and Matador's The Fall (#65).

Many bands are making the upward trudge towards those crazy boys at the top. Mammoth-Atlantic's Frente1 continues to excite listeners, jumping from 33-19. Atlantic's Collective Soul rises from 37-23, while Elektra's Violent Femmes move from 42-29. Arista's Ace 01 Base takes its act from 59-32. Indie rockers on the scene include Shangri-La's Griffers, stealing their way up 48-39; Teen Beat's Versus, which gains steady ground (51-46), and Matador's San Francisco Seals (68-57). Reentries include Sire-Reprise's Morrissey (#49), Elektra's Phish (#56), Delicious Vinyl-Atlantic's Brand New Heavies (#63) and Go! Discs/London-PLG's Paul Weller (#69). GUIDED BY VOICES

The band is from the depths of the Midwest—Dayton, Ohio. Existing in the pit of obscurity, Guided By Voices has put out a hefty handful of records that've gone virtually unnoticed—but no longer. The catchy melodies written by frontman Robert Pollard are making their way into the hands of the masses as the group's latest LP, Bee Thousand, debuts at #43 this week, grabbing the #2 Breakthrough spot and the #3 In-store position. The buzz continues loudly around the indie band. This summer GBV will be touring on the Lollapalooza second stage for some Midwestern dates, as well as headlining Scat's Insects Of Rock tour (see Tour Focus for more information).

SYD BARRETT Crazy Diamond: The Complete Recordings (box set) (Capitol, 1750 N. Vine St., Hollywood, CA 90028) [cat. no. 81412]—The legal battle of Gilmour, Mason and Wright v. Waters for the right to call their tired combo "Pink Floyd" brought to mind Syd Barrett, the original Floyd singer/congweiter/qui Barrett, the original Floyd singer/songwriter/guitarist, who named the group but was dropped from the band in 1968 due to his LSD-induced erratic behavior. Crazy Diamond is the first career retrospective boxed set from an artist who's career spanned just two albums, but in Barrett's case it's spanned just two albums, but in Barrett's case it's well deserved. If you're unfamiliar with Barrett, but enjoy the music of Robyn Hitchcock, the Television Personalities, Chris Knox or Uncle Wiggly (all worshippers of Syd), you should be on your way to a record shop right now. With Barrett at the helm, Pink Floyd pioneered British psychedelia, but the group dramatically changed direction when Roger Waters took charge. Barrett is generally written off or algrified) as an acid casualty and madman (or glorified) as an acid casualty and madman, which he was, but it's not entirely relevant to the enjoyment of his music. Backed by members of enjoyment of his music. Backed by members of Floyd and the Soft Machine for his early '70s solo material, his quirky tunes featured whimsical and surreal lyrics fashioned with humor, intelligence and a bit of despair. Crazy Diamond includes both of his solo records, The Madcap Laughs and Barrett, in their entirety, the later released Opel album of outtakes, plus 19 newly released alternate and acoustic versions. While the bonus tracks are appreciated, if they're going to call it "The Complete Recordings," we wish Capitol would have gone whole hog by including Syd's small, but significant Pink Floyd oeuvre (Piper At The Gates Of Dawn, his songs on Saucerful Of Secrets and Relics, and singles' B-sides) and perhaps licensing his 1970 Peel Session (which includes the song "Two Of A Kind" not available here). While we're complaining, we'll also mention that Crazy Diamond has the ugliest boxed set artwork since the Byrds atrocity. Gripes aside, you need this.

—David Newgarden -David Newgarden need this.

JIMI HENDRIX Blues (MCA, 70 Universal City Plaza, Universal City, CA 91608 [cat. no. 11060]—Though others had played with wild lifestyles, spun tales of mythical deeds and explored music's relationship to the supernatural, Jimi Hendrix was the first musician to posit that he Jimi Hendrix was the tirst musician to posit that he was from another world entirely. Bluesmen had been dabbling in the mystic for decades, whether it was Screamin' Jay Hawkins, Muddy Waters or Robert Johnson, but Hendrix was the first to present himself to the world as an entirely mythic creation, if not as a downright extraterrestrial. Of course, the fact that he was one of the first musicians to have practically unrestricted access to LSD might have been part of it. It was the '60s, after all, and it was all incredibly groovy. Hawaii, Neptune, Atlantis, Woodstock—to Jimi, they were all just concert there was more: he could play, and he could wrench sounds from the guitar that nobody had ever heard before and that can't be duplicated now, which is why his legacy will stand. Blues is a unique concept, compiling various bluesy performance in the could be supported by the concept of the mances into one pseudo-mystical package; most of the time, when the smoke and mirrors of the Hendrix mythmaking machine crank into action, the results are cosmic dribble, but this time it works. About 70% of the stuff here is unreleased, and even what isn't new sounds a heck of a lot better than it ever did, thanks to expert remastering. Why the flood-gates are opening now, and all this good stuff is surfacing after 20-odd years of crappy reissues is another mystery equally worthy of cosmic contem-plation. The centerpiece of Blues—and of under-standing Hendrix's life and music in this context—is "Hear My Train A Comin'." About a dozen differ-ent versions exist on bootless and legitimate reent versions exist on bootlegs and legitimate re issues. If you listen to them all in the order he played them, each one seems to grow louder, longer, wilder, more torturously drawn out and pyrotechnically orgasmic than the one preceding it. The song, like Hendrix's myth, was getting bigger every night, and the version here is one of the best. "This is a story that a lot of us have been through at one time or another, in one kind of way or another, Hendrix mumbles in a spoken preamble in his mellifluous, surprisingly musical speaking voice. "It's about a cat running around town, and his old lady thinks she don't want him around, and a whole lot of people from across the tracks are putting him down...and nobody wants to face up to him, that the cat has something. Fully everybody's against him, 'cause the cat might be a little bit different...so he goes down the road to be a voodoo child... come back and be a magic boy...right now we tune in on him, waiting down by the train station, waiting for his train to come in, so he can do his thing..." Even in the third person, he's talking abo himself, the wild-eyed guitar-playing kid who had Even in the third person, he's talking about to go to England to come home a star. Hendrix took a classic blues parable, gave it his own one of-a-kind cosmic spin, and used it to recast himself and tell the world who he was. Now, even though he might have left it far behind, that world will never forget him.

PLUS, ALSO, TOO

Drag City (P.O. Box 476867, Chicago, IL 60647/312-455-1015) has reissued Corky's Debt To His Father, the hard-to-find 1970 solo album by MAYO THOMPSON, leader of the Red Crayola for almost three decades and member of Pere Ubu in the early '80s. Corky, his only solo outing, is unlike anything he's done before or since, with a focus on melody and twisted lyrics in song structures that are relatively conventional compared to the psychedelic freakouts, experimentation and jagged pop of the Red Crayola. The beautiful bol-

lad "Dear Betty Baby" is an unqualified master-piece. Look for the first two Red Crayola albums to be reissued on the Collectibles label and a new Red Crayola album in the fall, with Thompson joined by members of Gastr Del Sol...One of the most extensive and most interesting blues archives of any label is that of Adelphi Records. Back in the late '60s and early '70s, Adelphi was a diligent label recording blues legends in relaxed, laid-back settings. The label is now handled by Gene's (P.O. Box 7778, Silver Spring, MD 20907), which has instituted an intensive reissue program known as the Blues Vault Series. So far, the label has rolled out titles by REV. ROBERT WILKINS (of "Prodigal Son" fame) and SKIP JAMES, along with a two-disc Memorial Anthology of the great MISSISSIPPI JOHN HURT. Although it's a little bit padded out by a 30minute interview with Hurt by Pete Seeger, almost all of the classic songs from Hurt's repertoire are here, from "Salty Dog" to "Candyman Blues" and even "Spanish Flangdang." Wilkins' set, entitled Remember Me, is a powerfully moving collection of gospel blues, recorded in August of 1971... While we'll probably pass on the two-CD set of funky flute tootlings from HERBIE MANN, other titles in the Rhino Atlantic Jazz Gallery (Rhino, c/o Atlantic, 75 Rockefeller Plaza, New York, NY 10019) are certainly worthy of note. Perhaps the best recent installment in the ongoing series is the two-CD anthology on YUSEF LATEEF, entitled Every Village Has Its Song. Sympathetically laid out and defitly constructed, it's a wonderful overview of this diverse and intriguing jazzman's oeuvre. Like Charles Mingus, Ornette Coleman or Eric Dolphy, Lateef was not only a consummate musician and groundbreaking bandleader, but he also knew how to give his records some of the coolest LP titles ever laid on the public: if you've ever heard a totally hip underground jazz DJ backannounce that he was playing a 12-minute cut from The Diverse Yusef Lateef or Three Faces Of Yusef Latesf or—our favorite—The Doctor Is In...And Out, then you'll know exactly what we mean. Interestingly, the anthology offers some of Lateef's strongest performances, even if they were occasionally on somebody else's studio time; thus Lateel's solos on Grant Green's "Blues In Maude's Flat" or Donald Byrd's "The Blues Walk" are topnotch, spotlighting his contributions as a player, beyond his role as leader, composer and arranger. Also of special note are Lee Friedlander's vivid photographs, capturing a bald and bespectacled, psychedelic-looking late-'60s Lateef fervently blowing away on various saxes and flutes. A definite mind-blower...Blue Note (c/o Capitol, address above) has cracked open the vaults to present Blue Note Break Beats Volume 2, and the two-CD set Straight No Chaser. Break Beats conset Straight No Chaser. Break Beats continues the series, compiling oft-sampled Blue Note sides from the late '60s and early '70s, including hip-shaking funky jazz from Donald Byrd, Bobbi Humphrey, Lou Donaldson, Jimmy McGriff and Grant Green. Song titles like "The Worm," "The Caterpillar," "Kumquat Kids" and "Ummh" should clue the casual browser in to this album's funk quotient. Straight No Chaser compiles "the most popular, most sampled songs from the vaults of Blue popular, most sampled songs from the vaults of Blue Note." Imagine if US 3's sampler broke one night Note." Imagine it US 3's sampler broke one night before a concert, leaving only the raw samples, unaltered and untouched: essentially, it sounds like a deconstruction of US 3's Hand On The Torch, reduced to its component parts (especially Herbie Hancock's "Cantaloupe Island" and Grant Green's "Sookie Sookie"). After years of being sneered at by purists and straight-ahead mavens, funk-jazz, igzzfunk and its rainbow permutations are finally. jazz-funk and its rainbow permutations are finally getting the respect and attention they deserve. Roots of a revolution? Could be.

VOLUME 10 Hip-Hopera (Immortal, c/o RCA, 1540 Broadway, Times Sq., New York, NY 10036)—Though it's perhaps still too early for rap artists to put a ghetto spin on Madame Butterfly, the debut by Los Angeles' Volume 10 (a k a Dino Hawkins) is a recitation in verbal ingenuity that makes it difficult to put a label on his routine cadence switches and animated delivery. At times Hawkins sounds like he has spent too much time sipping 40's with Tha Alkaholiks, and his unusual style falls alongside that of Freestyle Fellowship (he performed on FF's "Heavyweights"), as he surveys the streets and pumps out plenty of head-nodding egotistical wordplay that's more entertaining than annoying—just listen to "Harderthanallya'll." Strapped with production from eight producers, Hip-Hopera retains a level of consistency among the thicklylayered beats and bizarre samples and sound effects. Following no established customs, the rough-edged funk nuggets are deep-grooved workouts in intensity and unpredictable changes. Volume 10 takes long, deep stares into violence and death ("Where's The Snipe?") from a personal perspective, giving the finished songs a dramatic effect. Hip-Hopera offers both adventurous thinking and underground beat flavors. Funk around with: "Stylesondeck," "A Real Freestyle," "First Born" and "Flow Wood."

MC BREED Funkafied (Wrap, c/o Ichiban, P.O. Box 724677, Atlanta, GA 30339/404-926-3377)—While his former backup group the DFC is caught in the crossfire of the gangster rap scene, Flint, Michigan's MC Breed has modified his style to appeal to loyal followers of the funk, inspired by P-Funk and SIy & The Family Stone. Breed has been Funkafied: he no longer fires heavy gangster artillery (for the moment, that is), instead donning an afro and African accessories, but he can't seem to let go of the stereotypical pimp babble and surrender to messages of peace, love and headstrong Afrocentric themes. While cuts like "What You Want" and too many straight-up gangster rap songs make his funky guise seem thin, Funkafied does offer positive desires and groovy melodies on "Teach My Kids" and a smoothly-crooned chorus on "Smokin'." George Clinton wrote and appears on two cuts, "This Is How We Do It 2," amid Funkafied's overall like the ultimate mack.

IT'S NOT EASY BEING ILL: Columbia's Nas (1-1) clearly has both hands full, as Illmatic narrowly escapes the grip of PayDay/ffrr-ILS' Jeru The Damaja for the second straight week. For his part, Jeru settles The Sun Rises In The East at #2 for the second straight week. Chrysalis-ERG's Gang Starr holds onto the #3 position, thanks to "Code Of The Streets," while Grand Royal-Capitol's favorite sons the Beastle Boys move up 12-6. Before we rattle off this week's debuts, keep your sights on new releases from Violator/RAL-PG's Warren G (39-13), who moves an incredible 26 spots, Gee Street-Island's Gravediggaz (27-18) and Big Beat's

Artifacts (23-19), who make steady gains. WORD UP!: This week we welcome in three new releases, starting with the highest debut by Violator-Relativity's Beatnuts at #11, So So Def-Chaos' Da Brat at #27 and the brilliant domestic debut from Cohiba-Island's MC Solaar at #35. This week's Adventure Picks: 1) MC Solaar; 2) Jeru The Damaja; 3) Wu-Tang Clan; 4) Beastie Boys; 5) Heavy D. & The Boyz; 6) Warren G; 7) Fesu; 8) DFC; 9) Kwest The Madd Lad; 10) Da Brat. (BEAT BOX REPORTS PRINTED AFTER TOP 35 REPORTS)

One (Profile, 740 Broadway, 7th Fl., New York, NY 10003/212-529-2600)—It would be unfair to call this label warfare, but two long-standing foundations in the development and success of hip-hop have almost simultaneously released compilations tracing their histories, culling tracks which validate the credibility of the record label while providing an awesome listening experience. Wild Pitch's three most significant contributions to hip-hop are documented on Wild Pitch Classics: Gang Starr's "Words I Manifest" (from the group's debut Wild Pitch LP), the influential "Looking At The Front Door" by Main Source (which has since been dropped), and "Raise It Up" from underground kings the Ultramagnetic MC's. Also highlighting this trip down memory lane is the under-appreciated Lord Finesse & DJ Mike Smooth with "Funky Technician," along with cuts from UMC's ("Blue Cheese"), Latee and Chill Rob G., whose "Court Is Now In Session" is curiously included instead of "The Power"...hmmmm.

Profile's Diggin' In The Crates is a rewarding rummage through the vaults where you'll find some of rap's most important pioneers. Run-D.M.C. is represented with "Sucker M.C.'s (Krush Groove 1), perhaps the best rap song ever recorded, and the dauntless "Rock Box," while long-forgotten classics like Dr. Jeckyll & Mr. Hyde's "Genius Rap" and Pebblee-Poo's "A Fly Guy" make me want to break out the old roller skates and roll to the rhythm. While you're at it, sink into the grooves of Spyder D Featuring D.J. Doc's "I Can't Wait (To Rock The Mike)," Fresh 3 M.C.'s "Fresh" and Dana Dane's unforgettable "Nightmares."

RICK JAMES Bustin' Out (Motown, 6255 Sunset Blvd., Los Angeles, CA 90028)—
More than just the author of the (now exhausted) hook from 1981's funk anthem "Super Freak," Rick James, the sequined funkmeister will be given the high praise he greatly deserves with the release of the retrospective Bustin' Out. After tangling yourself in the disco/funk of gems like "Mary Jane" and "Give It To Me Baby," you begin to remember James strutting with that charismatic swagger, effortlessly squeezing out funky basslines and primitive, soulful cries of love, passion and hedonistic desires. Unfortunately, those desires became too real, as drug dealing and risque sexual escapades landed Rick in prison. But he has apparently cleaned up his act, restrung his bass and recorded three new cuts—"Down By Law," "Serious Love" and "Divine Love"—which have brilliant hip-hop and reggae overtones, and show Rick's rejuvenated 46-year-old spirit joyfully in tact. He also covers Norman Connors' mellow, soulful "Starship" (complete with electric sitar), which sees his voice soar and dive like never before.

MORE BEATS

Rather than the obligatory single pick, here's a few new releases that demand your attention—and airplay. A TRIBE CALLED QUEST went to great lengths to make everybody happy on "Oh My God" [100 BPM] (live, 137-139 W. 25th St., New York, NY 10001/212-727-0016). One 12" for the street and one made squeaky-clean for radio airplay. The remix removes the busy bassline and supplements it with short, bottom-heavy pulses and a sweet atmosphere. The B-side features a remix of "Lyrics To Go" and the beat-minded "One Two St," featuring the playful, nearly out of control, antics of Busta Rhymes...Getting ready to chart is the debut from DA BRAT entitled "Funkdafied" [96 BPM] (So So Def, c/o Chaos, 550 Madison Ave., New York, NY 10022-3211) from her upcoming Funkdafied debut album. The track was produced by Jermaine Dupri (Kris Kross), and the icy coating of the Isley Brothers'
"Between The Sheets" adds a cool backdrop for this new female MC's crafty rhymes and savory metaphors...JUSTICE SYSTEM's ambitious "Summer In The City" [100 BPM] (MCA, 70 Universal City Plaza, Universal City, CA 91608) features a live band providing a groove-oriented jazzy stew of sax, drums, guitar and bass as the crew makes the street its canvas to draw pictures of a hot summer in the ghetto. For a change, check out the "Sunshine Blend," featuring vocals by Angela Johnson.

WORD IS

American's SIR MIX-A-LOT will release Chief Boot Knocka' on July 19, his first solo release since 1992's Mack Daddy. It was recorded in Seattle at his home recording studio, and song titles include "Sleepin' Wit My Fonk," "Ride," "Let It Beaounce" and "I Checks My Bank."...EastWest America has recently parted ways with DA LENCH MOB. No future plans or label deals are known at this time...Priority Records will be releasing the debut album by DON JAGWARR. Best known for his rugged ragamuffin contribution to ICE CUBE's "Wicked" single, the Trinidadnative will release Faded this summer. It includes guest appearances from 2PAC on the cut "Skank With You" and Cube on "Bad Boy."... TERMINATOR X is resting comfortably after suffering a broken leg when he hit a pothole on his motorcycle and crashed. As he rests, his longawaited album, Super Bad, will be released June 14. In other related news, PUBLIC ENEMY is expected to release Muse Sick N Hour Mess Age (Music And Our Message) on July 4

THE SUN HAS RISEN: Despite his #2 position on the radio chart, PayDay/ffrr-ILS' Jeru The Damaja (1-1) takes top honors for the second straight week, convincingly defeating the weakening soundtrack for Above The Rim (2-2). His royal fatness Heavy D. & The Boyz move Nuttin' But Love up 5-3, while we see modest gains from Loud-RCA's Wu-Tang Clan

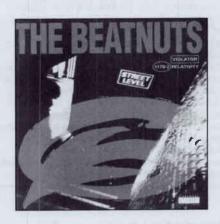

(7-6), GWK/DJ West/RAL-Chaos' South Central Cartel (9-7) and Virgin's Shyheim (11-9). Debuts this week come in from Violator/RAL-PG's Warren G (#12), Grand Royal-Capitol's Beastle Boys (#14) and Jive's Aallyah (#19). (BEAT BOX RETAIL REPORTS PRINTED AFTER TOP 35 REPORTS)

(Independence Day). The first single will be "Give It Up," while albums cuts include "Whole Lotta Love Goin' On In The Middle Of Hell," "They Used To Call It Dope," "What Side You On?," "Bedlam 13:13," "White Heaven/Black Hell," "Live & Undrugged (Pts. 1 & 2)," "Thin Line Between Law And Rape," "Death Of A Carjacka" and the controversial "Hitler Day," among others. From what I've heard, PE fons have plenty to look forward to. Word out.

BEATNUTS Beatnuts (Violator, c/o
Relativity, 187-07 Henderson Ave., Hollis,
NY 11423/718-217-3600) Radio Chart Position: #11—New York's Beatnuts have been one of the most critically acclaimed, multi-cultural groups since Cypress Hill. The trio of Fashion, Julu and Psycho Les has just shipped its first full-length following the group's 1993 debut Intoxicated
Demons. JuJu and Psycho Les met in a Queens Outreach Program for troubled youths, and later hooked up with Afrika from the Jungle Brothers, who introduced them to fellow Native Tongues A

Tribe Called Quest, De La Soul and Monie Love at a studio. Through the same Outreach Program the duo discovered the rhyming of Fashion, who rounded out the talented trio. The crew keeps both feet planted in the street, launching a relentless attack of battomless basslines, jeep-rocking rhythms and murky, hardcore lyrics. In its first week, Beatnuts debuts at #11, with 20 out of 85 stations reporting it top 10. With immediate underground acceptance, the Beatnuts are supported this week by the following stations: CKUT, KMSA, KSCR, KSCU, KTRU (#1), KUGS, KWUR, WAIC, WBUL, WCBN, WEIU, WKNH, WMLN (#1), WMUC, WRAS, WRKC, WRUV, WSHL and WVUA in Tuscaloosa, AL.

SHOUKICHI KINA Asia Classics 2-Peppermint Tea House: The Best Of Shoukichi Kina (Luaka Bop, c/o Warner Bros., 3300 Warner Blvd., Burbank, CA 91510)—I first mentioned this singer, composer and pop experimenter back in one of my first columns, in a desperate plea to have someone out there supply me with something better than the home-recorded live tape I had of Champloose doing "Haisai Ojisan." Two years later, Brent Wilcox (then at KCRW) sent me an import copy of Paradise (with some guest appearances by Ry Cooder, a world traveller even back then). I was hooked, big-time! During the heightened American presence in Okinawa during the '60s, Kina and Champloose took the indigenous instruments and music of the island and developed an exuberant, sometimes aberrant local pop style that was the closest anyone had come to punk in Asia. In the ensuing years I found him roaming through folk-rock and reggae, experimenting with the likes of Akiko Yano and Makoto Yano, and making some awful pop schmaltz best left alone. But in all of these recordings there's a spark of energy you rarely hear anywhere, and less often in the stringent pop music scene of Japan. All the brilliance and some of the dross appear in this wild collection, from the hyper "Haisai Ojisan" (literally, "How Ya Doin' Uncle?" or maybe a slang of "Hey, mon!") through the gorgeous "Hana O" (Flowers For Your Heart), featuring the best singer the band had, Kina's wife Tomoko, and a sublime guitar solo from Cooder (one of four appearances on the album). From the Celebration collaboration with the Yanos comes "Zorba De Buddha" and "lyunu-Pri." But it's the energy of kacharse rock bits like "Jing Jing," "I Yah Hoy" and "Crazy Kacharse" that will grab you the fastest, by the throat. Kina's latest album is less inspired, but that is probably a temporary aberration, because the power and vision of an artist like this is not likely to be sidetracked long. Track down Globestyle's The Music Power From Okinawa, their compilation from 1991 that includes a five "Haisai Ojisan," and Sky Ranch's Introducing... for a fuller range of his brilliance. And then start searching for all the Japanese imports to complete your collection.

AFRICANDO Vol. 2—Tierra Tradicional (Stern's Music, 598 Broadway, New York, NY 10012/212-925-1648)—The first volume from this fantastic ensemble was so highly and widely praised that it would be no surprise if the rest of the sessions recorded in 1992 were at least as good. Fortunately, it seems Sylla and company were holding out on us, and these are possibly even better. This trans-Atlantic re-fusion of Cuban salsa and three of west Africa's great singers is as energized as any music can be. Singer Ronnie Baro and some of his former cohorts from New York's infamous Orquestra Broadway are joined by Pape Seck and Medoune Diallo, two stalwarts of the African music scene, and Senegalese

As summer heats up, it puts us in the mood to go hear some live music, preferably outdoors in a large-scale festive environment. Look for several significant world music tours to be rolling though major U.S. markets this summer, including Africa Fete, WOMAD and stateside tours for artists like Zap Mama (6-3) and Ali Farka Toure & Ry Cooder (#1 for eight weeks). And with all these tours, no doubt people will continue to hear about all this exciting music through radio. Although there are no new debuts on the chart this week, there's plenty of action from records that have been off and on for some time. For instance, Axiom-Island's

Sola returns to our chart at #12, after dipping off for one week, as do Shanachie's Talitha MacKenzie (#17), Heartbeat's Truth And Rights Observer Style compilation (#22) and RAS' Dean Fraser, who creeps back on at #25. If things are looking a little static, don't worry: there are new records looming on the horizon from Born Jamericans, Black Uhuru and Worl-A-Girl, as well as Columbia's The Good, The Bad, The Ugly & The Crazy collection, so stay tuned. (WORLD MUSIC REPORTS PRINTED AFTER TOP 35 REPORTS) upstart Nicholas Menheim for another binge of pure Latin soul. You know the history from last year's Trovador, so just dig into some more great grooves: the steamy "Xale Bile," fueled by Diallo's classic Orchestra Baobab style, and a hot version of "La Bamba," showcasing Menheim in a wild salsa reinterpretation of the Mexican folk tune with a classic trumpet solo from Bomberito Zarzuela. Baro's "Ken Moussoul Guis Li" in Wolof and Seck's Spanish version of "Sama Thiel" makes the obvious nods to one another's influences. Simply put, this is as good as music gets.

AND THERE'S STILL MORE...

Liu SOLA has been a regular contributor to Bill Laswell's projects, and now she and Laswell have created her solo album Blues In The East (Axiom, c/o Island, 400 Lafayette St., New York, NY 10003/310-276-4500). On first listen I was interested, though I've come to the conclusion that the two short "operas" presented here present an idea that doesn't quite gel. There are momentary flashes of real beauty and bizarre design in here, but there's also a lot of random trivia, a cleverness for its own sake that mars the whole work. The band includes Amina Claudine Myers, Umar Bin Hassan, Aiyb Dieng, Henry Threadgill, James Blood Ulmer and Ned Rothenberg in its ranks. In spite of this strong lineup and Sola's formidable voice, the final product seems more a layering of Asian voice on to some spare Laswell tracks than a real conceptual vision. "Married To Exile," the second half of the album offers the best look at what they were trying to do. Track by track, there are some great moments, but you have to hunt for them!

Peace.

JACKPOT!

UMOSIA "Feeling High" (12") (Red Cat, 4343 W. Lincoln Hwy., Ste. 303 Matteson, IL 60443/708-747-9444)—The sadly underrated Roy Davis, Jr. has launched his new Red Cat label with a barnburner. "Feeling High" comes from the same tradition—deeply bassed house tracks with vocals at the boiling point—as Davis' recent Believers projects for Strictly Rhythm. The fact that Davis has been making outstanding underground house since Phuture's Acid Tracks EP in '87 should come as no surprise after you've heard this mighty piece of wax. No doubt the finest moment here is "Pierre's Club Dub," probably one of DJ Pierre's finest exercises in dexterity and bass power. The teasingly short "Original Mix," with vocals from Sheena Mahome Jackson, is a sweet, short firecracker and DJ Fiasco's "Red Dog Mix" loads the vocals into the sampler, then spills them out over a ripping percussive base. Labels like Red Cat and producers like Roy Davis, Jr. are simply not going to allow for the once easy distinctions between house and techno, and in doing so will chart the course for the dancefloor maelstrom currently moving from the city of Chicago, leaving exhausted dancers in its wake.

69 Lite Music (EP) and 69 "Jam The Box" (remixes) (12") (R&S, 82 Limburgstraat 9000 Gent Belgium)—Since his emergence with Rhythm is Rhythm in 1987, Detroit veteran Carl Craig has continued to make dance music without compromise, music that can move the crowd, yet sound like nothing else under the sun. Under his 69 moniker, Craig has released a series of pathbreaking EPs which hover on the periphery of dance music's outer limits. With the third 69 EP, Craig's clear-eyed artistic vision is made manifest. The rigorous "Jam The Box" is a careening, breakbeat exercise with swarming vocal effects and rigid snare shots, and the song is remixed on the second 12" to devastating effect. The "Medium" mix jumps into the future of dance music by at least a full year, and we'll see who can follow Craig's hazardous path after this one. Carl Craig is really the Coltrane of Detroit, re-creating, re-inventing and transforming Western instruments (analog synths and drums in this case) in a time-honored African-American tradition. Absolutely essential.

NEXT STOP: MUSIC STATION

The busy little Music Station label in Englewood, New Jersey, has, over a period of six months, become the U.S. garage label to watch, collect and dance to. If you need proof, look no further than the sweating "Take A Stand" by GERIDEAU, a potboiler which will leave no wallflower untouched. The peerless Mentalinstrum crew contributes the "Feel It" dub which, like its recent

ON THE CHART

The venerable production team of Dougans and Cobain, a k a Future Sound Of London, has the highest new entry this week at #3 with its second full-length record (its first available domestically) on Astralwerks-Caroline; this one, like its predecessor, is going to haunt the chart's upper reaches for a long time to come. The long-awaited new Oeee-Lite single debuts this week at #13, preceding its third LP. M People, the British group led by Heather Small, makes its first RPM appearance at #24 this week, with a single that's already done brisk business on import, before the group signed to Epic. Upward progression this week for: Waveform's One A.O. comp (10-5), KK-Restless' Zen Paradox (14-9) and Planet Earth's Spicelab (17-12). (RPM REPORTS PRINTED AFTER TOP 35 REPORTS)

Colonel Abrams record, is a seamless 909 and Hammond funk-fest that can turn on a dime. I don't know where these guys get the nervous energy required to make records this breathless and tight, but hopefully they'll spread some around with more records like this (Music Station, c/o Dancefloor Distribution, 111 Cedar Lane, Engelwood, NJ 07631/201-568-7066)...The newly arrived WARE-HOUSE BOYS hit the ground running with their debut, Dope Traxx Vol. 1 EP, which is going to establish them as track-makers of the first order. All four tracks here could fell a redwood with their bass frequencies, particularly the mercurial "Oh Shit!" and the heavily kick-drummed "Tribal Love," which is not as predictable as its title might suggest. A very promising debut (Music Station, address above).

KMS RISES

After a lengthy hiatus, Kevin Saunderson's prescient KMS label has been reinvigorated and there's no better evidence of that than the 10 singles the label is releasing this coming summer. The first is the powerful "Forces" 12" by ESSER, a strikingly heavy tech track from Saunderson himself. Now that the label has emerged from its breakbeat and hardcore phase, records like this are taking the label back to its roots. "Forces" has the same jagged, raw quality of early KMS releases, with a density of analog effects and whiplash drumming. The inimitable Carl Craig (previously mentioned) contributes a deep, pensive mix which takes the manic edge off the "Reese Mix" to explore the track's complex textures. "Forces" is the sound of Detroit unmediated by outside influence (KMS, 1486 Gratiot Ave., Detroit, MI 48207/313-259-7265)...KMS's track label, Serious Grooves, just released the pumping "Everyboby" by D'PAC, which once again demonstrates that you don't have to live in the 212 or 718 area codes to make dancefloor-ready, organ-filled house. The A-side has more breaks than the Midas headquarters, with Hammond stabs flinging every which way. As the warmer weather spreads over the nation, this is going to sound heavy, heavy, heavy emanating from car windows this summer (KMS, address above).

Giving up the alto saxophone, in favor of the tenor, proved to be a rather difficult undertaking for TED NASH. It wasn't that the size, range and embouchure of the larger saxophone posed insurmountable obstacles. The problem, simply, was that Nash had become so successful, so closely associated with the alto—especially during his 11-year tenure with the Mel Lewis Jazz Orchestra, now called the Vanguard Jazz Orchestra—that he kept getting calls for alto gigs. "When I quit Mel's band in 1992," recalls Nash, 34, from his home in Westchester County, outside New York City, "it caught a lot of people, especially the band members, by surprise. But it was the only way I could convince people that I'd stopped playing the alto and was concentrating on the tenor." Nash, who grew up in Los Angeles, the son of trombonist Dick Nash, still maintains close ties to the Vanguard Jazz Orchestra (which he calls "family" and whose book contains a number of his compositions), yet switching from his first horn to the tenor enabled him not only to find his true instrumental voice, but also to explore a fertile stylistic middle ground between bebop and freer, less chord-restricted music.

Together for four years, the Ted Nash Quartet, which he calls a collective (Frank Kimbrough, piano; Ben Allison, bass; Tim Horner, drums), explores that cross-genre territory to splendid results on its debut recording, Out Of This World (Mapleshade, 2301 Crain Highway, Upper Marlboro, MD 20772/301-627-0525), a fast-emerging, musician-oriented label. Uocks priding themselves on progressive tendencies are encouraged to check out Mapleshade recordings—all with superior sonics and generous annotation—by the likes of Larry Willis, Bobby Battle, bluesman Drink Small and Gary Bartz/Leon Thomas.) Another Nash quartet side, completed and in the can, is attracting major-label consideration. Nash, who doubles on soprano occasionally, is also a founding core member (along with Kimbrough and Allison) of the Jazz Composers Collective, which stages interesting concerts around town.

"It was a natural change from the alto to the tenor," explains Nash, whose quartet plays Big Apple gigs at Iridium June 15-18 and Visiones
June 29. "On the alto I felt constricted in terms of where the sound should go. I like the way I think on the tenor, moreso than on alto. With the alto, I figured I could play bebop or I could play some thing freer. I didn't feel there was a middle ground—something freer but still harmonically based—for me on the alto. With the tenor, the middle ground is far more available to me. I can play changes as well as tonal things with a freer approach. You also get much lower notes on the tenor; it's more of a human-voice quality that speaks to me and to other people. You can also go about as high as you want on the tenor."

Nash's switch to tenor, and the stylistic openings it has occasioned, also serves the collective identity of the foursome, he believes. Out Of This World, recorded live, as are many Mapleshade offerings, consists of six 10-minute-plus selections,

ON THE CHART

James Brown's altoist Maceo Parker zooms up to the top (17-1) with his new album on Novus-RCA, knocking Verve-PG's Charlie Haden Quartet West (1-3) out of the top spot it held for three weeks. Also surpassing Haden is his Verve-PG labelmate, trumpeter Roy Hargrove (7-2). It's a big week for Verve: along with the #2 and #3 spots, it's also got the top debut album with the Paul Motian Trio at #11. Swinging into the top 10 along with Maceo are Atlantic's Julian Joseph (21-8), Elektra Nonesuch quitarist Bill Frisell (19-6) and Gramavision trombonist Ray Anderson (16-4). Three independent releases broke into the top 25 this week: Japanese saxophonist Kazutoki Umezu on Knitting Factory Works at #18, Evidence's Franklin Klermyer Quartet featuring Pharoah Sanders at #20 and the So-Called Jazz Sextet on Accurate at #24. Reporters, take note that there are two current World Saxophone Quartet albums; please be sure to specify which one you are reporting. (JAZZ REPORTS PRINTED AFTER TOP 35 REPORTS) three penned by Kimbrough and two by the leader. Albeit a bit long by conventional programming standards, these selections grab hold and sustain the listener's attention by virtue of the ensemble interplay.

"Our roots are strongly there," explains the tenorist, "but we're not playing the language anymore. We're using the language when it feeds our organic conception. As such, our music is becoming freer—I don't want to say out, because that implies away—in that sometimes we do things without bar lines or without set chords. It can be difficult sometimes to play music with a freer base because you really have to listen to each other; it's not just a soloist playing on top of a rhythm section. There are ups and downs [dynamically] in our music that aren't dictated in advance; this comes from playing together extensively. If we were to take a tune like 'Stella By Starlight' and just play bebop lines and licks that fit in, it might be correct or even good, but it might not be saying anything that comes from the heart or soul."

BRU-SER

HELMET Betty (Interscope, 10900 Wilshire Blvd., #1230, Los Angeles, CA 90024)—For years, Helmet was a relatively unknown underground buzz band roaming the seedy streets of NYC, until the strong arm of Interscope Records thrust them into the spotlight with the critically acclaimed release of Meantime. Hordes of fans and plenty of positive press flooded in afterwards, as Helmet moved onto new projects, including the recording of "Just Another Victim" with House Of Pain for the Judgment Night soundtrack and the original version of "Milquetoast" for The Crow soundtrack. Betty highlights the band's extraordinary develop-ment into a tight, musical entity with a vast array of styles and a full palate of palpable, monstrously heavy gems. There are plenty of chunky, churning power grooves throughout the album, but Betty also includes some tunes that are very atypical of the trademark Helmet fare we have come to expect. "Beautiful Love" swoons with mellow, jazzy overtones then caterwauls into a distorted frenzy of chaotic, screeching noise. "The Silver Hawaiian" rides along a heavy, wicked bassline showered with eerie melody and low, raspy utterances, giving the song a texture and quality quite different from Helmet's previous offerings. "Sam Hell" has a surprisingly countrified, swaggering southern twang, while "Wilma's Rainbow" overflows with vivid, picturesque melodies amidst sharp, slamming, crunchy guitar riffs. "Tic" is swathed in a sweltering blanket of guitar-driven noise and grating, intense rhythms. Also check out the pump 'n' grind of trademark Helmet fare we have come to expect. rhythms. Also check out the pump 'n' grind of "Vaccination," the raw, stripped-down version of "Milquetoast" (very different from the version on The Crow), the dirgy, chugging "Street Crab," the Sabbath-esque "Clean" and the heavily resilient "Biscuits For Smut."

MARILYN MANSON Portrait Of An American Family (Nothing, c/o Interscope, address above)— This Portrait Of An American Family definitely doesn't paint a pretty picture of a happy, loving cauple with charming children and a country home, caupie with charming children and a country home, complete with a white picket fence, dainty flowers and a trusty dog. Rather, Marilyn Manson exposes the slow demise of the warld and society. The band is the first to sign with Nothing Records, the label founded by Nine Inch Nails' Trent Reznor and John A. Malm, Jr. The NIN influence is undeniable, but Marilyn Manson is drenched in more eccentric eeriness. Lashing out at American culture, the band voices its extreme disgust at force-fed sensationalism through the boob tube and the sick glorification of "stars" like Charlie Manson and John Wayne Gacy, through an aggressive, techno-industrial grind, brimming with catchy beats and bizarre samples and loops. Defying easy definition, Marilyn Manson's macabre machinations of devilish delight ring out with deliberate power and intricate design. Living in a predominantly desensitized society, Mr. Manson (vocals/loops), Daisy Berkowitz (guitars), Twiggy Ramirez (bass), Madonna Wayne Gacy (Hammond B3/Organ/samples/loops) and Sara Lee Lucas (drums) are here to electrify our minds and make all our worst fears a reality. Check out the mesmerizing intensity of "Cake And Sodamy," "Get Your Gunn," "Wrapped In Plastic," "Snake Eyes And Sissies" and "Misery Machine." -Jenni Glenn

FEAR OF GOD
Toxic Voodoo
(Pavement Music, 17 W 703 A Butterfield Road, Oakbrook Terrace, IL 60181/708916-1155)—After a short stint on Warner Bros., a bitter band break-up and the assembly of a new lineup, vocalist Dawn Crosby has survived the turbulent waters of success in the music biz and is back on a new label, stronger and wiser than ever, with the totally revamped and brutal Fear Of God.
Despite the negative experiences that have plagued the band over the years, Dawn kept her spirits high and refused to let her dream disintegrate. Toxic Voodoo is one af the band's best and most infectious offerings to date. Fear Of God infiltrates the metal/thrash/death arena with a fresh wickedness stemming from Dawn's doom-inflected vocals, which are either hissed, tortuously screamed ar spit aut in a raspy death-like fashion. Quick tempo changes cut into thick clauds of ominous, grinding guitars, relentless drum pummels, quick speedcore breaks and stomping, ruthless rhythms. Same creative sampling accentuates the already seasaned and theatrical album. "Claud Chamber" rumbles behind a threatening entanglement of grinding rhythms, speed bursts and wailing guitar riffs. Also check aut "Beyond The Veil," "Feed Time," "Santismo" and "Worms."

PLEASURE ELITE Bad JuJu

(Red Light, 880 Lee St., Ste. 208, Des Plaines, IL 60016/708-297-6538)—The carnival of musicians called the Pleasure Elite is na strangers to the words shock, bondage and mayhem. The band's lineup includes Rev. V. Blast (vocals, propaganda), Lord Hoop De'Luvleggs (guitars/ vocals/sequencer), The Deacon (keyboards), Razor Monkey (drums), Father Shark (guitar) and Evil Twins (many nasty unheard of things you wouldn't tell your mom about). The band's numerous religious references have caused it to be erroneously lumped in with Christian rock bands in the Seattle area, but we'll bet that image would change after seeing one of the Pleasure Elite's live shows, which feature leather-clad bondage mistresses Brandon and Kelly groping and stroking each other. The songs from the group's EP, Candy Ass Goes Stompin', are included on Bad JuJu, which goes beyond the usual scope of metal/ techna music mixing. "Media Feed" features an annoying busy signal entwined with a Ministry-induced groove. The CD also includes spoken word and songs of violence, rape ("In The Belly") and a psycho obsessed with his mommy ("Twist On This"). But don't let the lyrics fool you; the disc's intro reveals its message: "If you are stupid enough to believe the government is working in your best interests, that TV and newspapers are telling you the truth,...then you are probably dumb enough or just plain uptight enough to believe that we would promote violence to women, rape, or any other form of degradation that our society breeds through those anal pores of the norm..." In other words, buckle up your chastity belt, sit tight, enjoy the ride and stop thinking they're trying to control your mind.

LOUD ROCK NEWS & TOUR DATES

All choked up, and no place to go...it's Schnapper dude hangin' in the 'hood with Biohazard and Mutha's Day Out during a recent suprise gettogether in downtown Brooklyn. The Mutha boys were shooting their new video for "My Soul Is Wet" on the same street as Biohazard was shooting its video for "Tales From The Hard Side," and they decided to hook up for a few laughs and some cool promo shots. KYUSS
Sky Valley Part III (EP)
(Elektra, 75 Rockefeller Plaza, New York, NY 10019)—Instead of beginning our journey at the beginning, we'll start out with Sky Valley Part III, the last of three parts making up Kyuss' upcoming full-length, due at the end of the month. After soaking up the warm rays of this magically mind-altering offering, you'll be primed to experience the whole trip in its stunning entirety. This is a tasty treat of sludgy, desert rock from the masters of heavy groove 'n' grind. Psychedelic and uplifting, Sky Valley Part III sets forth a massive landscape of expansive musicality, free-flowing instrumentation and hypnotizing melody. Drawing heavily on '70s influences with a captivating, hard '90s edge, Kyuss explores the unknown depths of the musical spectrum. Kyuss doesn't fit nicely into the categories used to define today's loud rock/heavy metal music. Instead, the band carves out its own niche with a fresh, sultry tilt. "Odyssey" draws you into a whirling pool of thick soundscapes and scorching guitar riffs that glow with soothing spirituality while remaining heavy and exciting. Also check out "Conan Troutman," "N.O." and "Whitewater" while you're gearing up to embark on the rest of the Sky Valley tour.

Some quick tidbits of news...SEPULTURA (Epic/ Roadrunner) will be taking a couple of European festival breaks from its summer tour with Pantera. During some of these dates, the band will be performing in Germany with HENRY ROLLINS as its opening act...Happenin' news from Energy Records: ICE-T will make a special guest vocal appearance on the upcoming PRO-PAIN LP, The Priority Records has inked a long-term distribution deal with Metal Blade Records, whose distribution deal with WEA recently came to an end. The first release under this new agreement is GWAR's This Toilet Earth...Over the years, Lollapalooza exhibitions have run the gamut from underground art galleries to controversial political forums to freak shows. This year, Perry Farrell is introducing something new, stimulating and enlightening—the Mindfield. The Mindfield will give concert-goers the opportunity to step into the future of communications, entertainment and learning. Some things you can expect to see in the Mindfield are: a ride called Chameleon (a giant machine with long arms, each with a two-person gondola attached) that will take you into the "future of virtual reality"; the Revival Tent where, among other things, there will be open mics available for any "wanderer who wants to bare his soul and/or other parts of his spiritual anatomy"; a Visual Dating Service, which will help interested, single Lollapaloozers find the mate of his/her dreams at the concert site; giant MTV video walls that will show day-of-show live and direct from Lollapalooza '94, along with subversive video clips too hot for regular broadcast, MTV graphics, more left-of-center programming, spoken word reels, Rain Forest Action Network videos, current event clips from sources such as CNN, avant-garde cartoons and video paint box art (Japanamation), band PSAs and CD-ROM material from Voyager; and Rain Rooms, which will be kept at 50 degree temperatures to help keep fans cool and away from the sweltering summer heat. See ya there!

Keep the news coming!! Every contribution is welcome and appreciated. Also, don't forget to send me some more pictures and tour news!!! Mail to Jenni Glenn/Metal Editor, 11 Middle Neck-Road, Ste. 400, Great Neck, NY 11021-2301 or FAX to 516-466-7159 (Attn. Jenni, Metal News) Thanks!

Long time no hear? Pantera, Rollins and Biohazard are large, due to your support. Thanks for the SMASHING PUMPKINS support. And those who played SHONEN KNIFE, too! Thanks! We got a new guy on Virgin who rocks—GILBY CLARKE. Ever hear of him? His new single, "Cure Me...Or Kill Me," ships real soon. Lots of cool guests on the record—Slash, Duff, Axl and Frank Black (ex-Pixies), Robb Affuso from Skid Row...you get the picture. People that can play, listen up! Call me for advance tapes and info. Gilby will tour soon. Also on Virgin BODY COUNT! Out in September.

Keith A. Jenkins, Relapse/Nuclear Blast America, Millersville, PA (717) 397-9221

A very special Relapse "thank you" to Rayshelle and Century Media for one hour of alcoholic bliss at the Wetlands Deathfest this past weekend. Two Relapse employees have been admitted to the Betty Ford Clinic and their conditions have been improving hourly. For those of you who missed it, INCANTATION proved their worth and left eardrums bleeding. Even Satan, putting his busy schedule on hold, stopped in for a shot and a beer! He was heard to say that he was pleased with the success of PUNGENT STENCH, KATAKLYSM and COUNT RAVEN. So am I. Keep it up! Many of you have received Drop Dead from Boston's hardcore extremists SIEGE—a much sought after classic slab o' grind. Play it now! For info on SINISTER, touring with Cannibal Corpse and Cynic, call me. I live for this shit.

The mighty BIOHAZARD continue to dominate the world. While we're at McGathy, Biohazard play Castle Donnington's Monsters Of Rock, then hop on a plane to play Germany that night—out of control!! Rest assured, Biohazard comes home June 11th for a release party/performance @ NYC's Roseland, shoot another video and then tear it up for a few weeks with Pantera & Sepultura. Look out! In the meantime, be proud to be part of taking State Of The World Address to the top! How's the JOAN JETT working for you? Please continue to spin 'Spinster." The radio edit's exclusively for you on the Rawk and F-CDs. If you're not hooked up, call usl ATOMIC OPERA, converting the masses. Do your audience some "Justice" and get For Madmen Only. And yes, I'm on the road for a couple weeks doing some Strange Highways with DIO, the New York swing and the Biohazard thing! If you need me, call Brian; he knows all!

Jon Nardachone, Atlantic Records, New York, NY (212) 275-2135

It's estimated that between the brand new track, "Vasoline," and the current smash, "Big Empty,"

STONE TEMPLE PILOTS have been heard more times in the past week than any other artist in America at any format! You may be saying, "So what, we already know STP is a huge band!" That is not the fact I'm trying to get across here. Do you realize that in a matter of only 20 months, STP have hit us with the following tracks which rock radio has pounded into oblivion: "Sex Type Thing," "Plush" (ILP version and acoustic), "Crackerman," "Wicked Garden," "Dead And Bloated," "Creep," "Big Empty," and now, "Vasoline." In a year and a half, this band already has a show full of "familiar" songs. I can't name three other bands that can claim this, can you?!?! OVERKILL's "W.F.O." rules!!

Brian McEvoy, Mercury Records, New York, NY (212) 333-8458

Kiss My Ass on your desk this week. Add date 6/6! On the metal front we have our own MIGHTY MIGHTY BOSSTONES doing "Detroit Rock City," ANTHRAX doing "She" and SHANDI'S ADDICTION (Tool, Rage, Faith No More) doing "Calling Dr. Love." This should be an automatic add for your station. The buzz continues to grow on DOWNSET with "Anger" hitting your desk next week. Add date again on Downset is 6/13. Be the first on your block to jump on this baby. KERBDOG will be going out with Helmet on a European tour. BRUCE DICKINSON's first metal single will be "Cyclops." I have yet to have anybody who has heard this not be knocked out. I am looking for an intern for the summer to work for me at Mercury. Anybody who wants to apply, please call the above number.

David T., Leviathan Records, Atlanta, GA (404) 463-1009

imperium's Too Short A Season moved all the way up to #17 on the Hard Report Spins chart last week! It's great to see the response on this CD. Maybe there is even more room up the ladder. Keep it up. Once again, any track on the CD is a winner. There isn't a weak track to be found. It's not too often that can be said about a release. JOE STUMP is currently sequestered away in Boston recording his next CD, which promises to be heavier and less neo. Look for a fall release.

Modern stone-aged family? Bollocks! So, I'm settled in the new pad and rip roaring ready to go. The only problem is (as is with all Manhattan apartments) not enough space for my toys! At any rate, life is good and the killer tunes keep on coming out of Columbia. The newest slabs o' godliness are NAPALM DEATH's Fear, Emptiness, Despair and STOMPBOX's Stress. What more could ya want? How's about ALICE IN CHAINS on tour with Metallica, CARCASS/Life Of Agony playing co-headlining dates all over this mighty land and Napalm Death and ENTOMBED together with a third band to be named soon. On deck: GODFLESH, CATHEDRAL, SINISTER DANE and C.O.C. Any questions please ring me and we'll sort'cha out.

Jay Hughen, A&M Records, Hollywood, CA (213) 856-7139

The SOUNDGARDEN tour extravaganza is underway! Ahhh...crowd surfing to the lilting strains of the Superunknown. If you want to set up a promotion around the show aimed at your hardcore Soundgarden fans, call right now! THERAPY?'s "Die Laughing" is well underway and I'm very sorry you don't have a tour date in your backyard, but they're on another continent doing a little show called "Monsters Of Rock." Folks, plug your local record store by telling the people that they can find the first wave of Seattle documentation Deep Six CD there...you'll both benefit. User records on, penalties on except off-sides, five minute periods, big guns vs. big guns!

Munsey Ricci, Skateboard Marketing, Ltd., Valley Stream, NY (516) 328-1103

So, I still need an assistant. I have a bunch of resumes, but I would like to see what else is out there. Anybody interested, please give me a call. The DIO and LOVE/HATE tour is now in your face. Don't miss them on the road, it's a great bill. Both of these records are still moving up the charts, groove to it big time. FOR LOVE NOT LISA with 'Slip Slide Melting" on The Crow sountrack is in your face as well; we should have tour plans soon. The soundtrack is almost platinum, dude. Just thought you might like to know. The SKATENIGS full-length shipped, so you should have it by now. Dig on it, it's way cool if ya know what I'm saying. Talking about cool, the DROWN record will rock your world. You know you love this record, check it out. The SARKOMA record is making headway. Dig on the full-length because it is in your hands. Adds next week on the HEADSTONES and the WICKED MERAYA. If you don't have copies, call me.

Michael J. Schnapp, EMI Records Group, New York, NY (212) 492-1812

Summer's almost here. It's getting hot. So, here's more thematically justified reasons to play our music. Just in time for summer solstice, the changing of the seasons, and all that other crap. On June 20-21, our planet shifts. This will possess all your minds and bodies. "My Soul Is Wet," "My Soul Is Wet," "My Soul Is Wet," is what you'll chant. "My Soul Is Wet," is that MUTHA'S DAY OUT song that you'll add. "My Soul Is Wet" is what you'll play. Mutha's Day Out are welcoming in the summer by running away from home and tourin' the States. Then they'll go over to Europe for the second time. Look for the video for "My Soul Is Wet" by Mutha's Day Out on June 20 & 21. Start your summer on a wet note!

Greg Derbas, Pavement Music, Oakbrook Terrace, IL (708) 916-1155

FEAR OF GOD is only a few weeks away. That's right, Fear Of God is back with a brand new disc, Toxic Voodoo, and if you thought the last one was good...Dawn Crosby once again brings about her eerie ways with her doomy vocals, sure to run a shiver through your bones. Add date is June 20th, with a tour to start sometime in July. Be sure to check this one out. Also be on the lookout for new music from NY-based HEADLOCK and something new from SOLITUDE AETURNUS later this summer.

Cheryl Valentine, Epic Records, New York, NY (212) 833-5987

Let me play promo geek for a sec (no snide comments)...adds on June 6 & 7 for SUICIDAL TENDENCIES "What You Need's A Friend," THE POOR's "Tell Someone Who Cares" and MOTHERLAND's album. On tour this summer: Suicidal Tendencies, The Poor, SEPULTURA and PRONG. When you get the Motherland record, slap that puppy in your CD player and jam the volume. I've been playing some of their songs for people over the last couple of months and the response has always been an ecstatic one. Keep the INFECTIOUS GROOVES in a stylin' situation we've got a heap of songs for you to play to death. Coming up for adds and in-stores on June 14 are the full-length ALICE COOPER and Suicidal's new record, Suicidal For Life. I'm sure we all had a blast at the McGathy party! Thanks to the McGathy family for a happenin' time!

FRANK BLACK "Headache" (4AD c/o Elektra, 75 Rockefeller Plaza, NY 10019)—Original, memorable and witty, "Headache" is the kind of video we like to see around here. You honestly can't say that it looks like any other video today. "Headache" isn't a big budget video, but there's cer-tainly no skimping on ideas. Frank Black (a k a Charles Thompson, looking more and more like the late Jerome "Curly" Howard of the Three Stooges) hams it up in this clip, which spoofs the look of '50s commercials and newsreels. Complete with doubled images of Black singing backup, floating overhead like a parade balloon and running a chainsaw through a giant aspirin, "Headache" is the perfect remedy to the glut of beach blanket videos we're likely to see this summer (thank goodness old Charlie's keeping his shirt on in this one). (SC)

SMASHING PUMPKINS "Rocket" (Virgin, 1790 Broadway, 20th Fl., New York, NY 10019)—Believe it or not, "Rocket" is the fourth video taken from Siamese Dream, and it won't let down those expecting the same high-concept brilliance of the past two ("Cherub Rock" doesn't exactly qualify as "high-concept," but is a good vid nonetheless). Of course it's about a rocket (what'd you expect, another psychedelic milktruck?), but not just any rocket. This particular spacecraft is built by three children who must escape the strange Twilight Zone suburbia in which they live. A sizable production purse allows the clip to indulge itself with an array of vivid, detailed sets and special effects, bringing to life the kids' preliminary planning and subsequent launch into outer space, where they discover an aged (but still rockin'!) Smashing Pumpkins donned in glittery silver space suits. (CH)

WALLMEN "Kevin's New Trip" (Bar/None, P.O. Box 1704, Hoboken, NJ 07030/201-795-9424)—The Wallmen are a little-known 795-9424)—The Wallmen are a little-known Syracuse, NY band whose wildly playful approach to conventional guitar pop has been lurking about on the conventional guitar pop has been lurking about on the conventional guitar population. various releases for many years now. But don't let rel-ative obscurity stap you from seeking out this wonderfully bizarre and humorous clip. Most of the video's success can be attributed to its eye-crossing, non-stop whirl and blink synchronization with the music, and the strange costuming of its gangly actors. Sporting an array of beak-nosed masks and oddball outfits, these characters run, dance and play with reckless abandon, occasionally tempered by the foreground appearance of the band's vocalist Norm, who attemps a smirking lip-synch with a goofy hat strapped to his noggin. One of the best low-budget videos of the year so far. (CH)

FUTURE SOUND OF LONDON "Cascade" (Astralwerks, c/o Caroline, 114 W. 26th St., New York, NY 10001/212-989-2929)—The Future Sound Of London is actually two electronic wizards, Gary Cobain and Brian Dougans, who not only explore digital ambient music, but also pair that sound with equally amorphous visual expressions. "Cascade" presents the duo's current coupling of the two, a curious and mesmerizing display of computergenerated imagery. The clip travels through tubes of hyper-color into vast spaces filled with spidery shapes and geometric forms, dipping and sliding from one atmosphere into another with fluid movement. More of an experiment in futuristic artistic expression than a conventional music video, "Cascade" marks a beginning point on the limitless horizon of the video and audio revolution. (CH)

NAS "The World Is Yours" (Columbia, 550 Madison Ave., New York, NY 10022-

3211)—It seems like a half-dozen or so "big" rap records have been released since Nas' debut in late April, but Nas isn't about to be overshadowed by any of them. The follow-up to "It Ain't Hard To Tell," "The World Is Yours" has an inventive look; the bowed, letterboxed style gives the clip a faux Panavision look. Aside from the swift, black-and-white visuals, the star here is the song, a smart, up-front track that puts a healthy dose of realism in a genre too often clouded by boasts and posers. If you missed this guy the first time around (how you could've missed that last single is beyond us), don't blow it now. (SC)

TERROR FABULOUS "Action" (EastWest America, 75 Rockefeller Plaza, New York,

NY 10019—We'll avoid the puns on the words fabulous and action to simply tell you Terror Fabulous's new record Yaga Yaga is one of the few Jamaican offerings to make an impact in dancehall without any hip-hop remixes or other extraneous Americanism. What you hear and see is the same thing they'll be getting in Jamaica. "Action" features the sugary vocals of Nadine Sutherland (who makes a long skirt look sexier than a pair of cut off shorts), who makes this video as much fun to see as to hear. (SC)

GUEST DIALOGUE

Paul Sanders, Hammerhead, Amphetamine Reptile Recording Artist

July, 1985. Jeff Mooridian, myself, and a smooth talking ladies' man who couldn't play bass by the name of Dallas Kiland had formed Fargo, ND's first punk rock band. OK, there was a new wave band (the Phones) and a "hardcore" band (no, they weren't), and some frat boys at NDSU covering Sex Pistols songs, but we were real punk rock. Not pouty, self-absorbed members of the mohawk tribe, but total losers. We were bag boys at a local supermarket. Nobody liked us. We did not know how to play our instruments, and we didn't know how to say "hi." We were loud. People did not invite us to play their basement parties, but if they did, never more than once. Our music occasionally attracted the police and numerous recitations of the city's noise ordinance, but more frequently, it went over the heads of our "girlfriends," out of the basement and into the vacuum-like expanses of the midwestern prairie.

OK, Throbbing Headaches sucked.

We couldn't figure out a Flipper song, and our Friday nights were usually free.

Dallas and his older brother Rory had an affinity for buying, selling, fixing and crashing automobiles. On one Friday night the four of us were killing time in our usual fashion, looking for a party, eating Taco John's, driving around in Rory's dollar car. He actually bought it for a dollar. A piece of shit brown Chevy Nova. Some people would probably call Rory a redneck just because he was a high school drop-out who liked to get drunk, drive fast and fuck with people, but he did know how to have fun on a boring Friday night. We ate our taco burgers and drove down Broadway, and then Rory saw them. The mohawk tribe.

There were about 12 of them hanging out in front of a Chinese restaurant, exaggerating stories of childhood neglect. As we drove by the freaks, pointing and laughing, Jeff threw an old pillow at them. Just down the street, the light turned red and we stopped. The freaks converged around the dollar car. They looked at us, our car, our clothes, and instantly judged us to be dumb locals who listened to .38 Special. Little did they know we were all into synthpop. We just dressed like sugarbeet farmers

"You dropped your pillow," one of them sneered.

"That's OK, you can have it," Rory giggled.
"Nice hair. Now are you gonna get out of our way or am I gonna have to run you people over?"

The light turned green.

"If you run over one of us, you're going to have to run over all of us," one of the freaks replied. He had green hair.

There was a moment of tension. Jeff and I sipped at our large Pepsi products. Dallas nervously chewed and spat some tobacco. Rory was in command.

"Well, in that case, I better get a run at you."

Rory threw the Nova into reverse, backed up about half a block and threw it into drive. He floored it and never even considered hitting the brakes. The freaks abandoned their doomed attempt at passive resistance and dove for cover. It was the look on their pasty white faces, that hot July night, as they ditched all of their ideals, principles, and beliefs that they had so recently and passionately adopted from a xeroxed fashion magazine out of Berkeley, California. That look of terror, sheer terror that a lemming makes as he abandons all he stands for when given the choice between annihilation and standing up for moral principle that's beyond the grasp of white middle class kids with dyed green hair. That look said "I guess I was wrong about anarchy, and now I am going to die like a deer in the middle of the road." It was that look, and Rory's echoing despotic laughter that has enabled me to suffer through all those lousy years in Fargo, all the stupid jobs and my aborted college education. It was that look on that terrified punk rocker's face that has enabled me to truly say ..

I love the Cows.

RECORD COMPANY

Hood, T., MCA Records, Universal City, CA (818) 777-4102

Dear Buddies! (exclamation marks = enthusiasm), don't you just hate bad things? (universal statement of widely held belief = something in common for everyone), I only wish I was as cool as my records (self deprecation and the first step into the pitch, they drop their guard and you've got one foot in the door, great!!!!!). If I wasn't earning your tuition 50 times over, I would be playing Guided By Jehu, Fretwelder, Supercrunt (credibility's rising here, keep it up!!!!), and the new record from the IGUANAS Nuevo Boogaloo on Margaritaville/MCA, (yes! we're off!!! let's go, work 'em, you're in buster!!!!), file under "Spicy bluesicious New Orleans Latin chugalug" (nice filing reference, you know how college radio works, neat). Then get down and get to grips with JOHN CALE (he was in a band called...) & BOB NEUWIRTH's Last Day On Earth. New records so good you'll shit blood: the MURMERS, SMASHING ORANGE, LYLE LOVETT, the PULP FICTION SOUNDTRACK and STEEL PULSE. Reissues you normally give to the older, overweight guy who has that Sunday show: BOBBY "BLUE" BLAND, JIMI HENDRIX Blues, and BILL MONROE; call for your station copy (incentives, now we're talking!!!). Play 'em all please, I love you everyone!!!!! (a bit desperate, but it's your last chance so do whatever it takes C+).

Sharon Joffe, Arista Records, New York, NY (800) 627-4782 ext. 2144

Went to see the KMFDM show at the Slimelight and well, it was too damn crowded and I felt really ancient. So many kids at this show and even more obviously "dressed-up" for the evening.
I just realized why they always have knapsacks practically bursting at the seams...They leave their house in an outfit mom and dad deem appropriate and they pack the clothes that the hooligans down the street deem fashionable and change in their car or in a bathroom at the train station. The Supersuckers show was AMAZING! Already getting a lot of thumbs up is Sometime, Anywhere, the latest album from THE CHURCH. Those that didn't get the double CD with bonus "B-sides" will soon be receiving a second CD in the mail. Steve and Marty are currently doing acoustic dates across the country. The ticket situation is hard in some cities, but if they're coming to your city, call and I'll work my magic. On your desk right now is a live EP from Lawrence, Kansas' favorite export—STICK, It's called Full Frontal Nudity and loosens the belt buckles on the best of 'em. Check it out and play it loud! Finally, the Airheads soundtrack will be arriving in early July. It's got ANTHRAX covering the Smiths' "London" and a bad ass track from WHITE ZOMBIE—VERY heavy. SARAH McLACHLAN is doing more dates throughout the summer—mostly on the East Coast. Call for info. See Karen Brown's Dialogue for the upcoming Dedicated/Arista releases. seeyalaterbye.

James Barnes, National Radio Promotion, Capitol Records, Hollywood, CA (800) 342-8842

Just a little reminder from us to all of you regarding the phattessst new album out there to take a bite out of, I am sure if you know me, and you know the label, you know who I am talking about! Yeah, that's right, I'm talking about the trio, Mike D, Ad-Rock and MCA, the rowdy, smokin', hip, funk, rock 'n' roll which are the BEASTIE BOYS...Don't miss the boat on the most slammin album of the summer, III Communication...get your ass out on the dance floor or wherever...and grinding your but to the groove...Also in the works; the new LUSCIOUS JACKSON album which is alternative, funk and groove at its finest! And also can all my metalhead brothers out there say new MEGADETH...Yes yes yes you can...! thought so...It's a number of months away but we all know it will be worth the wait. Any of my people out there who need anything, call me, you know the number...James out! Later!

Jay Septoski, Alligator Records, Chicago, IL (312) 973-7736

With more music directors then ever sharing such a myopic vision of what alternative music is, found it distressing that Gerard Cosloy would ream Ben Knight/KXLU, a former music director who actually had a clue. Anyway, we just sent you the latest from NYC guitarist/vocalist/song-writer MICHAEL HILL. Listen to this and you'll experience blues for the 21st century. He really takes traditional blues to the next stratosphere and that's no bullshit. VERNON REID guests on this set of good songs with great guitar playing, check it out. Also current from us are new ones from SUGAR BLUE and LUTHER ALLISON. Hot non 'Gator stuff: the Uncle Tupelo catalog, Jimmie Vaughn, Luther Tucker, Big Sandy And His Fly-Rite Boys, Bill Frisell. Keep an eye out for a split 7" from Headspin Records featuring Kalamazoo bands, Killswitch and Squelch from San Francisco. Until next time, keep reaching for the stars

Y'all should have a few things of Frontier-ish origin in your rotation. BLACKEYED SUSANS All Souls Alive, ex-Triffids and no Black Crowes. Moody and boozy. Play "A Curse On You" and dedicate it to the one you love. HEATMISER Yellow No. 5. "Fortune 500" two minutes of groove with a health splash of bitter. The AFFECTED, "Mind" from A Fate Worse Than A Fate Worse Than Death. '70s riff-heavy pop that should be blasting out of car windows all summer. Play 'em all, make us smile. Also: seek and play any/all recordings by Compulsion (try Elektra). Thry're unbefuckinglievably great. Cheers.

Russell Lefferts, Lobotomized, Zero Hour Records, New York, NY (800) 722-0613
This here Dialogue's about John W. Smoke Junior...and 22 BRIDES of course. John was a little crippled midget lesbian boy but he stood ten feet tall with a knife...By this time, the 22 Brides full-length should be either on your desk, in your player, or making its way through the postal service to your loving hands. If you do not receive it within the next week, give me a ring and I'll send one your way quicker than you can say, "Johnnie Smoke's mom." If you're reporting chances are you'll get one. In case you missed it, pull the May 28 edition of Billboard from under the pile of crap sitting next to your desk and check out the 'Artists & Music' column on page 8, where Zero Hour and 22 Brides are featured.

In the near future, be on the lookout for green vinyl from the CUCUMBERS. Once again, please call me and let me know if you add wax and if you'll be around for the summer and I'll toss a copy your way. Shit that rules—Wool, the Figgs, Big Drag Ditchcroaker, Latin Playboys, Gits, Meices, Veruca Salt, BTJ...People who rule—Terri O. At WHLC, Liz A. at WIRE, Ken M. at WYBC...Special thanks to Jerry B. at WNTI for the live show...Anyone I may have carelessly overlooked, big love for all the help. Later.

Chris Stimer, Geil Publishing, Chicago, IL (312) 942-0530

Takin' this opportunity to introduce myself, I'm Chris. This is my first week at Geil Publishing, and just in time for an incredible new release from SLAPSHOT on We Bite Records. Recorded on last year's European tour, Live at SO36 is a powerful thang. This release captures the live raw energy and 'hammer-in-your-head' approach that is the trademark of this excellent Boston hardcore band. For all you live recording skeptics out there, the quality of this CD will kick your ass! Don't believe me?—PLAY ITI I'm in the office Wed. thru Fri. from 12-5 p.m. CST. If you haven't received your copy yet, call me. I love to hear your voices, so leave a message. Thanks to John-WERS, Ace-WRUW, and all you guys at WXUT. Don't sleep on Slapshot Live at SO36. Remember: YOU SLEEP, YOU LOSE!!!

Nooshin, Alternative Promotions, Metal Blade Modern, Simi Valley, CA (805) 522-

Can we say "how-happy-am-l-to-be-working-at-Metal-Blade"? Swallowing back those tears of pride and joy, as I got sprayed with semen and other bodily fluids at the GWAR show...sniff, if ma could only see me now! (That English degree sure came in handy!) Speaking of "handy," SKREW's "Picasso Trigger" will be out on video soon, and having seen it first hand. I must say that you will all love it. The response to their latest release, Dusted, has been amazing, and rightfully so. BEATS THE HELL OUT OF ME will be doing the West Coast thang early June, a definite mustsee. I listen to the Beats daily, it helps fuel my cynicism...My current track is "Told," I couldn't have said it better myself...and babe, you know who you are...Moving right along, for those of you who have been inquiring, the GOO GOO

DOLLS will have a new release out this summer, and finally, back to my favorite subject...Gwar. They will be involved with the Jim Rose Sideshow Circus later this summer, on the Carnival of Chaos tour. A kind of Lollapa-loser at its best, it will include fun for the entire family. Namely, midgets, mud and mayhem...more to follow.

Forest, Waveform Records, Sedona, AZ (602) 204-1989

Yo and hello from the U.F.O.-filled canyons of Sedona, Arizona. Yes, we could have picked NYC or L.A. but your new friends at Waveform plunked down in Arizona and now we're here speaking One A.D. folks. Packed with 11 tracks from England's coolest electronic music artists and already on over 100 stations nationwide in just its first week of release! This is smooth, in the groove ambient dub from the company that invented the phrase (in England we're known as Beyond Records, maybe you know our rare "Ambient Dub" imports). Whatever the case, we're domestic now and on just our first week on the RPM chart we checked in at #13, give us some time and your ears and we should easily be #1, thanks to all of you RPMers. And thanks to the early believers who realized this album is also mass appeal, regular format, heavy rotation material, specifically: KMCU, CFFF, WFCS, WUPI, WSIA, KCRW, KLBC, KCMA, WUOG and all you other CMers that have contacted us. Remember, we're here to support your station! We've got giveaways, posters, T-shirts, etc. to help spread the word. Call me, Forest, your friend in radio (I've got my own nationally syndicated radio program, so I'm with you). From what I've heard and been serviced with, I'd say One A.D. is the best electronic music compilation ever released! Listen for yourself and decide, and thanks for the plays!

Jim Neill/Eric Kayser/Jenni Sperandeo, Rhino/Forward Records, Los Angeles, CA (310) 441-6651

How can a well-trained consumer (willingly doing their part to feed the GNP and the corporate agenda, oblivious to world hunger and anything more pressing than whether The Simpsons is a re-run) even trust their mom anymore when we're asked to buy CDs to upgrade our CDs? And speaking of social decay, how about the new 100 CD changer that has a programming limit of 32 tracks and won't even shuffle?! What's an early adopter to do? Meanwhile, Rhino's ever ripening Forward label continues to bombard you with such good music that you can't even smell the commerce. NRBQ-Tip: Swab your favorite cavities and pack this news in: NRBQ provoked sheer adoration at KFOG's outdoor festival in San Francisco. 15,000 Bay Area Q-Heads were launched clean into groove orbit. Who needs Al with Johnny "Get Loose" Spaminato riffing like a true Sicilian through the classics and the debs alike? And what about that bastard of an album by WILLY DEVILLE? As Huck Finn said (more or less), "Put some sand inya, ya dang wusses." New BUSTER POINDEXTER should help put a crimp in any 12-stepper's progress and the stellar new RICHIE HAVENS is so honest you won't even believe it. Fuck art! Let's Fragment!

Adam J. Pollock, Polygram Label Group, New York, NY (212) 603-3942

Records I can't stop listening to—Green Day

(even though I was around when the original came out in '77], Pretenders (Chrissie and Martin and co. put on a great show in NYC last week— "If I'm so hot, how come I'm not getting fucked," Chrissie Hynde is the coolest woman in rock 'n' roll) and Hole (although Courtney needs to go to a few Pretenders shows). Records that you will be listening to by summer's end—WOOL, CON-SOLIDATED and GRAVEDIGGAZ. This horrorcore shit is really scary—imagine Vincent Price with a glock! Out this month (6/21) PULP and JAH WOBBLE, and MEAT PUPPETS hit the road with STP in July. Rock on.

RETAIL

Laura Lombardi, Alternative Sales Representative, Koch International, Westbury, NY (516) 938-8080

I realize many of you are under the impression that Koch International is strictly a Classical Music distributor. In fact, some of you may not be familiar with us at all...Well, I am here to tell you that we are the exclusive national distributor of an ever-growing list of truly alternative independent labels who record everything from rock, to razz, bluegrass, reggae, folk, world and country. I am happy to announce that the wonderful folks at Bar/None Records and Razor & Tie have become part of the Koch roster, which now includes: Shanachie, Yazoo, Hightone, Sugar Hill, Enja, Silva Screen, Smithsonian/Folkways, Smithsonian Collection, Lyrichord, World Music Library, Red House, Dreyfus Music, SOAR, and our very own Koch International Classics. Be on the lookout in June for a scorching new DICK DALE album on Hightone called Unknown Territory, the first volume of the "In Their Own Words" series from Razor & Tie, and ESQUIVEL's Space Age Bachelor Pad Music on Bar/None. Now do we have enough alternative music for you?

Hyla Urbany, U.S. Sales and Distribution, Com-Four, Brooklyn, NY (718) 599-1721 Selling like gangbusters are the two newest titles on the Your Choice Live Series label: SHUDDER TO THINK and STEEL POLE BATH TUB. Exceptional sound quality at a more than pleasant price. We have also secured the exclusive U.S. distribution rights for the German Dossier label, so look for new releases in June from PSYCHIC TV, CONTROLLED BLEEDING, DELIRIUM and CHROME! These titles also carry a low price tag. Stores: check with your cool indie distributor or call and deal direct. We sell lots of other stuff, too. Because these are import titles, we cannot do the kind of radio servicing that we would like, but we will be sending information to stations regarding these titles.

RADIO

Chris Sherwood, Alternative Music Director, WPHS, Warren, MI (810) 574-3137

To all in the radio world: All us lovely people at WPHS will be going off the air. Boo! Hiss! Yeah, sad but true. But we will be coming back on the air late August, early September. If you need to get a hold of me, you can reach me at (810) 294-6904 or 14803 Chippewa, Warren, MI 48093. Thanks man! Peace out!

William F. Marion, Station Manager/lame duck, WPLS, Greenville, SC (803) 294-3045

Well, goodbye college radio world. This is my last Dialogue entry. In fact, by the time you read this I will be long gone from WPLS. Jeff Montgomery is taking my place, so you can talk to him if you like or Jason Kriese the MD. It has been fun these past two years, and I will miss you all. I must send out special thanks.to: Sharon Joffe, Seth Gershman, Rich "I hate White Lightening" Holtzman, the Wonder Twins at Virgin, Chuck Arnold, Brain Cullinan, Pete Rosenblum, Todd Sievers, Mark Neiter, Valerie Pittman, and all the other wonderful people that I am leaving out. I hope you all have fun in the realm of college radio. I am off to intern for the summer with a couple of labels (no names mentioned). You can always call the station and leave a message for me or try me at my new number in Atlanta, GA: (404) 329-1448 (it will be active the second of June). I wish you all good luck and I hope to talk to you soon. Oh, yes, and of course, I am unemployed so feel free to call me if you need a new custodian to clean your office (ha ha). Great albums over the past four years: TRASH CAN SINATRAS, BELLY, RIVERSIDE, BOO RADLEYS, CATHERINE WHEEL, LOW, YO LA TENGO, SPIRITUALIZED, SARAH McLACHLAN, DRAG, LOTION and many others. Goodbye.

College radio...the last bastion for creative free-dom. This will be my final CMJ Dialogue as KCFV operations/music director. This station and its legacy will soon be under the care of the new music Director, Mike Hofer, and operations director, Greg Uptain. They will continue KCFV's fine tradition and take our listeners to new, unparalleled heights as they provide the best of new music...yeah, sure, right! Seriously, though, it's been a real trip over the past year, through lightning bolts and floods, Lotofwhatever '93, new equipment, and a lot of personal and professional change. I regret not being able to talk to a lot of you out there until the final months of my tenure, but it was nice to know you all the same. Thanks to all the record reps for sending us all the great music, and for those I might have slighted, believe me it was not intentional. KCFV is really going to be in wonderful hands with Mike and Greg and the '94-95 year is going to be our best ever. Thank you all again for all the support you've given KCFV over the past twelve months, and I hope you'll keep in touch. Farewell. Ah...wait... one last thing...The Crow lives!

Pax Bigham, General Manager, WCKS, Allendale, MI (616) 895-2356

This is my first one—so be king. I'm not into this advertising game, so I won't list our dear babies. But (to give substance) keep your ears open for RIPE Plastic Hassle and Kangaroo Court EP from ADORABLE. WCKS "Rites Of Spring" '94 headliner CATHOUSE will be on a five week sprint to the West Coast. Elizabeth, Elizabeth... (check them out, West Coast dudes, fer shur). In other areas of interest: Randy Tenbrink is directing music for us now. Thanks to THE VERVE for another beautiful CD. Wonderful (road) trip. One last note: the weather's fine, the grass is green and sticky, and the sun sets every night here in Allendale. Whatever.

Marcelino Sepulveda, M.D., KLBC, Long Beach, CA (310) 420-4300

School is out! Unfortunately, KLBC is off the airwaves until June 20. If you're trying to reach us, leave a message on our sketchy machine, or call after June 20. On that fateful day, I will be back and ready to receive your blessings. Just before the break, Rose at RealWorld sent us SHELIA CHANDRA's The Zen Kiss. Everyone must hear this disc. It induces a transcendent state of consciousness. Sheila is an Avatar. Thanks, Rose. Also thanks to AstralWerks for putting out fine listening. What a difference purists can make...Extra special thank yous to Texas Hotel for giving me the opportunity to meet VIC ("one day I will transcend/just like Janes Addict-chi-an") CHESNUTT. I was bummed to have to back out due to a final, next time! Vic is a dry witted, black humored, poet/singer and I urge all MDs to request their copy of Vic's latest. While you're making calls, telephone Triloka (in Venice, CA) and humbly request a copy of Ram Dass and Amazing

Grace. This devotional/spiritual should appeal to fans of RealWorld stuff. Play it, your listeners will worship your station...I'm so stoked. Hearts of Space services us now. Ambient always ought to be this good. Thanks John. SARAH McLACHLAN is wonderful live (thanks Nidia-BMG & Sharon-Arista). New JAH WOBBLE and MARXMAN are groovin', JARON LANIER Jolis! (Thanks Juli-PLG)...Too many people to thank not enough space, call us after June 20. I look forward to working with you once more. California Democrats, vote Tom Hayden in the primaries! Later...

Greg Wagner, WFAL, Music Director, Bowling Green, OH (419) 372-0202 Howdy, folks. I'm the summer music director at WFAL here in wunnerful Bowlin' Green, OH. a bunch of us got a station in the process of changing to modern rock dropped in our laps. But, hey, we're havin' ourselves a hoedown out here. Our point, you ask? While sifting through phone calls, letters, packages, and faxes, we ran across three really swell bands. First, WATERSHED from Columbus, OH, just signed to Epic. Hip-hiphurray, we say. Second, most of you have probably heard LOTION, but if you haven't, "Head" is a definite yeehaw. Oh, and FRETBLANKET! Give a listen to the Twisted EP. Check 'em all out. That's all for now. If you go stuff we might like, hell, send it, we got all the time in the world! You see, we're college students, we don't have real jobs. Damn, I'm not even taking classes...

Tes & Tex, X-Musical Morphine Manipulators, KSCU, Santa Clara, CA (408) 554-4907

Politics goes. Politics comes. Thanks to all the cool label reps that we got to work with. Tex will be considering Froot Loops instead of Frosted Flakes. Catch him on the black motorcycle rumbling down the freeway. Tes will be spending more time on drums & a job. If you're on AOL drop by Tes' IPU folder. Tes will see you at YoYo-A-Go-Go this summer, so no tears for Calvin, Slim, Donna, Pat and Jody. Bummer about BRATMOBILE and TIGER TRAP. Love the new 7 YEAR BITCH album, Viva Zapata. Also love the new HEAVENS TO BETSY and the new L7. Will, however, miss Bob, Sharon, Shannon, Kristin, Dan, Mike, Chris, Rose, Leslie, Jeff, Brian, Kerri, Jay, Keith, Adam, Rich, Leland, and all the cool people who actually tried to make all this stuff fun. KSCU broadcasts 24 hours/day 365 days/year in the San Francisco South Bay Area. Be nice to the new guy Keith, who will sit by the phone waiting for music calls on MW 10 a.m.-12 p.m. PST. Bye bye!

After having successfully produced another season's worth of Orgies, WHRB is starting to wind down a bit for the summer. Thanks to all the record labels who kindly donated giveaway stuff for the Rock Music of Scotland Orgy: DGC, Sub Pop, TriStar and Seed, among others. It looks as though GUIDED BY VOICES were treated to their very own Orgy none too soon: That very same week what do I find in the new Entertainment Weekly but a review of the new GBV album? (Uh oh, here we go with yet another round of articles on the "36-year-old school teacher from Ohio"...time for a new angle?). Ah, but Bee Thousand was worth the wait. Observant readers may have noticed that the phone number printed above has changed. Numerous fax, phone, and modem problems were recently solved with the installation of a second line for my music director business. Calling the above number during most times will connect you with a friendly answering machine (an oxymoron?) that will always invite you to leave a message—voice mail be damned! You'll reach me instead of the machine during my new summer office hours. Tuesdays and Thursdays, 6 p.m. to 8 p.m. EDT. A little late for you East Coasters, but, hey, a gal's gotta work...(at a real job)...

"Imagine if somebody told you when License To III came out that eight years later the Berlin Wall would be down, Nelson Mandela would be president of South Africa, and the Beastie Boys would release a mature, spiritual and brilliant album. The world is strange."
