Johnny Rebel Cash

First of all, what everyone wants to know about a long-distance interview with Johnny Cash: No, he didn't answer the phone and say "Hello—I'm Johnny Cash." Still, it is a little disconcerting at first, hearing that low ominous voice over the telephone, speaking from his Tennessee cabin, discussing the weather or reading off the address for his House Of Cash management office.

"This is an album I've always wanted to do," he says of American Recordings. "I even had a name 25 years ago for this album, it was going to be called Johnny Cash Alone. Years later I thought about it again and wanted to do an album like this, and call it Johnny Cash Up Close. But this same concept has been in my mind since the early

About his first meeting with producer/label head Rick Rubin, Cash recalls, "I liked the way he talked. Because right off he said, 'I'm familiar with most of your work, and you know what you do best. And I'd like to talk to you about making some records, and trying to get the best out of you, whatever you think that is.' And I saw that he was really serious, and that he was interested in getting the real me on record, whatever that is, for whatever that's worth...And the more we talked about that, the more I realized that I might be able to do that kind of dream album that I've always wanted to do, where it's just me and a guitar singing a song to you—no showbiz, no performance kind of a thing. Just to get real with it, get intimate.

Does Cash worry that some of his newer fans might miss American Recordings' themes of redemption and underlying optimism, and overlook his deeply-felt Christianity in favor of celebrating his legendary rebellious past? "Well, I hope they don't miss the redemption. Because the theme of this allowed in the redemption of the properties of the redemption. this album in my mind is sin and redemption, and redemption is really the upside of it. The picture on the album cover with those two dogs, I named them Sin and Redemption. And Sin's black with a white stripe, and Redemption, he's white with a black stripe, and so neither one is complete... My redemption is not complete because I'm not perfect. I'm not sanctified. I mean, God has redeemed me from that kind of life that I sing about in those other songs, but I don't close the door on the past, because that might be a dangerous thing for me to do, to forget what the past was like. To forget the mistakes and the triumphs I had over pain and near-death so many times. So I don't want it to happen again. If I lose track of where I've been, I might lose track of where I'm going."

"I know what the hard times are like, what the rough life is like, the bad life, but I don't close the door on it. That there's redemption from it, and you can be 62 years old and let God take control. I had friends who weren't so lucky, you know. With all of our misguided energy, some of us hit the tree instead of going around it.

When Cash says something like this, you suddenly realize that here is a man who really means what he says, 24 hours a day; earnestly talking with a stranger about sin and redemption at 10:30 in the morning is as important a part of his being as all the legendary stories, hundreds of songs and thousands of concerts that have made Johnny Cash a legend Being the Man In Black may seem to some observers like an almost inhumanly full time job, but to Johnny Cash, it's not what he does, it's simply what he is.

BECK One Foot In The Grave (K, P.O. Box 7154, Olympia, WA 98507/212-260-3389)—A question to those who call Beck the very model of a modern slacker: Just how many full CDs, EPs and singles did you put out in the last nine months? Recorded in two bursts just prior to the release of Mellow Gold, One Foot In The Grave makes clear Beck's love for the bleak and beautiful recordings of Mississippi John Hurt and other rustic sliders and pickers by throwing in the occasional gospel or blues song. Beck's own songs never seem to be terribly profound (though the media has made his "Loser" an anthem for the anthem for the anthemless) or terribly musical for that matter, yet they are among the most candid and enjoyable bits of guitar and voice put to tape in recent memory. The solo acoustic tracks "He's A Mighty Good Leader" and "Hollow Log" on One Foot In The Grave have more impact than some of the oddball electric stuff found here ("Burnt Orange Peel"). The inclusion of an extra guitar, off-key harmony or simple drumming (of a non-beatbox nature, courtesy Scott Plouf of the Spinanes), however, is never out of place. If Beck, as he claims, is not the voice of a generation, then maybe he's the scrawny, baby-faced missing link between contemporary indie rock's lo-fi aesthetic and the original indie rock recorded earlier this century by long-forgotten blues and gospel artists. Discuss.

REVEREND HORTON HEAT Liquor In Front (Sub Pop, c/o Interscope, 10900 Wilshire Blvd., #1230, Los Angeles, CA 90024)—With two albums already under his belt, the Reverend Horton Heat (a k a Jim Heath) is well-known for his rockabilly racket—but a purist of the genre he is not. Heat(h) plays his music with reverence to the greats of Sun Studios, while taking it on a contemporary, punk tangent. In accordance with the old school 'billy style, the break-necked pace builds hypertension jitters, giving the listener the feeling of taking a hit of speed. This energy, combined with Betty Page tattoos, checkered suits and punk attitude, adds up to today's good-time rock 'n' roll. Liquor In The Front, the band's third album (its first Sub Pop/Interscope co-release), continues the non-stop raucous punkabilly the band first explored on with Smoke 'Em If You Got 'Em. Too busy shouting more of the same nonsense lyrics like "I Can't Surfl," the Heat barely pouses for breath, but does pause for a change in production this time around. Ministry's Al Jourgensen does the job on this one, leaving his distinct imprint on songs like "Yeah, Right," where the distortion conjures an impression of Rev. Horton Heat doing "Jesus Built My Hotrod." But it becomes evident with the honky-tonk swank of "Liquor, Beer & Wine" that it's the Reverend, along with bassist Jimbo and drummer Taz, that drives this album straight up to ...The Front.

MC 900 FT. JESUS Loony Tunes (american, 3500 W. Olive Ave., Ste. 1550, Burbank, CA 91505)—As traditional hip-hop draws more and more on jazz rhythms (US 3, Gang Starr, etc.), it seemed only inevitable that some hip-hop artist would cross the line and make a jazz album. MC 900 Ft. Jesus, previously crossing borders with his style of angst-hop, has done it, creating what is essentially a beat-poet excursion against a cool jazz backdrop. Like John Giorno or King Missile's John S. Hall, Mark Griffin (MC 900 himself) uses spoken word as his lyrical drive, but instead of ranting or goofiness, Griffin achieves a Chandler-esque feeling, with a little bit of "Warm Leatherette" ghoulishness thrown in. The music is cool and complex, the flute trills of "But If You Go" complementing the dual vocals of Griffin and a female vocalist. There are slight hints of MC 900's past, as on "If I Only Had A Brain," a funky rhythm backing his sly sarcastic rap. In the main, however, this is a totally new sound for the MC, one which he tackles without kitsch or condescension; Loony Tunes is a groovy, funky record, striking in both lyrical and musical content. Depending on your mood, every song is recommended.

FIFTH COLUMN 36C (K, address above)—The members of Toronto's Fifth Column—musicians, fanzine writers and independent filmmakers—could easily be categorized as quintessential riot grrls. But to confine them so quickly to such a heading would be to deny them the boundless musical credit that two previously self-released albums, To Sir, With Hate and All Time Queen Of The World, along with their latest, 36C, have proven they so richly deserve. While 36C is more slickly produced than say, Hole or the Ramones, with crisp, clear vocals and punchy, penetrating rhythms, its venomous defiance and individuality stem from both its jarring yet infinitely listenable arrangements, as well as its eerie and unnerving instrumentation. Shimmering, cartoonish organ binds with searing, grainy guitar resulting in a concoction that sounds something like the Groovy Ghoulies meet L7. It's kind of like surf music for the punk rock crowd, delivered from a vehemently feminist platform. The brilliant "All Women Are Bitches," originally released as a single late last year, mocks the misogynist, while "Don't" spells out the male threat more precisely, with the warning "Don't go in the underground parking,...Don't go in the elevator in the lobby." Even when the topic is weighty, the music is not.

"Schizocrush" and "Von Brucker In Love" are delivered in the finest bubblegum-punk style, yet are still as lyrically vicious and confrontational. Don't miss all mentioned above, plus "Donna" and "(Get the) Bug."

RIDE Carnival Of Light (Sire, c/o Reprise, 3300 Warner Blvd., Burbank, CA 91510) Ride has changed its sound, and for a band with such a recognizable sound, it's surely a sign of growth. The band that once defined a scene of shimmering atmospheres and wild guitar splendor spawned so many copy-cat shoegazing bands that even an above average Ride record in 1994 could have sounded passé, merely on the grounds of overkill. Next to the band's past work, Carnival Of Light is a tamer, more traditional record to say the least, but to its credit, the band searches out new strengths and dimensions instead of romping through territory it's already conquered. The outlines of the dozen songs on Carnival Of Light are easily discerned in the past; their keener melodic shape would have been buried under the band's former fuzzy aesthetic, while here a conventional sense of rhythm guides them. Here Ride looks back into dreamy folk (the Byrds are referenced on occasion) and early psychedelic British garage (check the cover of the Creation's "How Does It Feel To Feel?") with strong results. These peeks back have nothing to do with stoking a retro fire, as any reference to the Faces and other lofty British names is decidedly underplayed. Sing along: "1000 Miles," "Endless Road," "Birdman" and the Creation cover. -Steve Ciabattoni

BORN JAMERICANS Kids From Foreign (Delicious Vinyl, c/o EastWest America, 75 Rockefeller Plaza, New York, NY 10019)-Dancehall music has recently benefitted from the inclusion of American soul and R&B in its mix, softening the often inaudible melange of toasting and body-rocking riddims (see Chaka Demus & Pliers). While artists like Snow, Tiger, Barrington Levy and Shaggy have allowed pop influences to homogenize their dancehall for otherwise hesitant listeners, the duo of Edley Shine and Natch (a k a Born Jamericans) is a sound system which combines Edley's verbal attack, which sounds more like rapping than toasting, and Natch's Dennis Brown influenced vocal support, which adds enough R&B and soul spices to make Kids From Foreign chic and memorable. If you listen long enough, you'll find the group's melodic hooks leave a lasting impression: "Cease & Seckle" has already found many radio followers, while "So Ladies" and "Ain't No Stoppin" are intoxicating dancefloor treasures. If you like it rough, try "Instant Death Interlude" or -Glen Sansone BOBBY SICHRAN From A Sympathetical Hurricane (Columbia, 550 Madison Ave., New York, NY 10022-3211)—Bobby Sichran's music, to borrow from current '90s sample-credit parlance, contains elements of hip-hop, folk, rock and funk music, all pulled together to create something starkly innovative and genuinely new. Entirely self-produced, From A Sympathetical Hurricane is a surprisingly confident debut album, already showing the poise that other artists usually build over the course of three or four records. Playing guitar and singing in a mellow monotone, Sichran builds on the funky one-man slacker hip-hop concept of Basehead and Beck, but instills it with a fire and passion rarely seen in such bands—really, the closest spiritual comparison we can think of is Neil Young's 1969 self-titled debut. He may be intelligent, but he's no Bruce Cockburn with a beatbox—he's as down-to-earth as they come. On the title track (in which he sings about hoping to get a girl), his voice recalls Jonathan Richman's way back in his early, scruffy proto-punk days. Few debuts truly follow through on hype, but From A Sympathetical Hurricane marks the emergence of a new artist that just might actually be here to stay. Sympathize with: the title track, "Stray Dog," "Real Live Wire" and "Poison Arrow." —James Lien SAINT ETIENNE Tiger Bay (Warner Bros., 3300 Warner Blvd., Burbank, CA 91510)-After defining its dance/pop synthesis with its near-perfect 1992 debut Foxbase Alpha, Saint Etienne has focused on refining its heavenly sound. On its third LP, Saint Etienne's sugary hybrid remains difficult to place in time: the trio's love for pure female vocal pop meshes seamlessly with spacious electronic dance grooves, vocalist Sarah Cracknell's honeyed vocals gliding effortlessly over colorful synthetic waves of sound. Tiger Bay's breezy singles like "Hug My Soul" and "Like A

PULP His 'N' Hers (Island, 400 Lafayette St., New York, NY 10003/310-276-4500)—Glamorous, theatrical and ever so suave,

Pulp specializes equally in melody and melodrama. Fronted by Jarvis Cocker, a singer with more poutpower than Suede's Brett Anderson, Pulp plays lush, orchestrated sagas that burn with luster and dribble with lust. Songs like "Lipgloss" and "Do You Remember The First Time" fill the band's kitsch quotient with Candida Doyle's chirping keyboards and Russell Senior's Mick Ronson-inspired guitar lines, stirring up comparisons to other British glam revivalists. But while Cocker's precious, Englishsounding vocals are reminiscent of Bowie, Pulp's eccentricity defies categorization. Many songs on

His 'N' Hers, the band's first U.S. release, feature a range of instrumental embellishments, including violin, bowed bass, school piano, timpani and a fire extinguisher. Cocker yelps his way through "Acrylic Afternoons," his voice sounding like air escaping from a pinched balloon, while "Babies" features a campy melody line and unusual keyboard sounds. Then there's "She's A Lady," a dark, brooding number with a techno/disco beat. Lyrically, Pulp traverses equally broad ground, sarcastically declaring, "Oh and we like women/Up the women we say/And if we get lucky/We mighty even meet some one day "Joyriders" and irreverently commenting "The trouble with your brother/He's always sleeping with your mother" on the unnamed 12th cut. Also spin "David's Last Summer" and "Have You Seen Her Lately?"

—Jon Wiederhorn

COBRA VERDE Viva La Muerte (Scat, c/o Matador, 676 Broadway, 4th Fl., New York, NY 10012/212-260-3389)—Tucked away in a cultural warp between the East Coast and the Midwest, Cleveland remains shielded from the trappings of the music industry or an overly efficient and (locally) popular "scene." While this gives a lot of Cleveland bands their distinct quality, an unfortunate result is that some of the town's most talented musicians have unintentionally drifted away from activity. Such was the case with John Petkovic, vocalist for the dissolved Death Of Samantha, who was missing-in-action until he recently emerged to create and front Cobra Verde. While the band is actually 75% former Death Of Samantha (Petkovic, along with lead guitarist Doug Gillard and drummer Dave Swanson), comparisons to DOS prove groundless. Viva La Muerte is a richer, more intense record based on the past work of the three. With the low end beefed up by bassist Don Depev (formerly of local metal legends Breaker), Cobra Verde rocks harder than DOS did, and its songs take on an epic, cathartic quality ("I Thought You Knew What Pleasure Was," "Already Dead"). Petkovic's vocals are deeper and fuller, while retaining their characteristic drama, and Gillard's skilled guitar work stands out on every track, notably the ending scorcher, "Cease To Exist." The return of these veterans is whole-heartedly welcomed. Also recommended: "Until The Killing Time," "Give Me Your Heart" and "Despair. -Cheryl Botchick

VOLUME 4 NUMBER 1

VARIOUS ARTISTS ReR Quarterly Sound Magazine Volume 4 Number 1 (ReR, c/o Cuneiform, P.O. Box 8427, Silver Spring, MD 20907/301-589-8894)—Since 1985, the British label ReR (formerly Recommended Records) has released its Quarterly compilation/journal, introducing listeners to new experimental music and oddball rock from around the globe (five continents are represented on this one). Koongoortoog (from Tuva) takes its homeland's traditional instruments and throat singing style into some definitely nontraditional territory. N.O.R.M.A. (Italy) humorously hopscotches musical styles of various cultures and centuries. The Kalahari Surfers (South Africa) and Les Sales Combles (Switzerland) check in with terrific examples of their idiosyncratic pop. If you like Susanne Lewis (of Hail and Kissyfur), you can sample her extremely different former band, (the very Art Bears influenced) A Thinking Plague. Among the better-known names here are Biota, ReR chief Chris Cutler with his early '70s bandmate (in the groups Henry Cow and the Art Bears) Fred Frith and John Oswald of Plunderphonics fome, who rebuilds John Zorn/Naked City samples for listeners with an even shorter attention span than Zorn himself (47 samples crammed into 14 seconds!). Because of the small size of the CD format (the previous volumes were on vinyl), the accompanying magazine (which always features fascinating articles, editorials and illustrations) will be published separately in the fall.

MARILYN MANSON Portrait Of An American Family (Nothing, c/o Interscope, 10900 Wilshire Blvd., #1230, Los Angeles, CA 90024)—It comes as no surprise that Trent Reznor's first signing to his Nothing label is a band like Marilyn Manson. This South Florida quintet is an extension of all the black leather decadence that NIN exudes in videos and live shows, but where Reznor wallows in self-deprecation, Marilyn Manson uses the ideologies of conservative America as fodder for its acidic attacks. Granted, the shock value afforded by lines like "Who said date rape isn't kind?" ("Cake And Sodomy") provides a typically perverse sting to the band's already obvious sound, but "White trash get down on your knees/it's time for cake and sodomy" wastes no time in asserting a catchy, albeit degenerate, diversion to the caustic industrial-metal mix. Portrait thrives on its Alice Cooper-ish flare for blood-'n'-guts dramatics, from its explicit lyrics and its musical props (organ fills that wouldn't be out of place in an old Bela Lugosi flick frequent the same place in an old Bela Lugosi flick frequent the same space as blackened guitar jolts and fluctuating screams) to its more obvious nods at pop culture's desensitization of sex and violence (band members' names include Madonna Wayne Gacy and Sara Lee Lucas). The new American Gothic: "Get Your Gunn," "Wrapped In Plastic," and "Dogma."

FISHBELLY BLACK Fishbelly Black (Back Beat, 8907 34th Ave., College Park, MD 20740)—On the heady philosophical tip, it's beginning to seem like so many of the supposed jazz/hip-hop pairings crowding the bins these days simply end up using a few scratchy old Blue Note or Flying Dutchman sides for flavor, not really capturing the essence or importance of jazz music's rich legacy (Branford Marsalis' Buckshot Le Fonque and Guru's Jazzmatazz are two of the most notable exceptions to this unfortunate trend). This record, like those two successful examples, pairs the concept of jazz players with hip-hop's new sounds, instruments and technology and achieves quite successful results—rarely has the excitement of hip-hop dovetailed so seamlessly with the freedom and flow of jazz. Fishbelly Black is a collective, largely the brainchild of producer George Mitchell, who brings together live saxophone, Hammond B-3 organ, drums and guitars, and pairs them with rap's beats, breaks and rhymes from four guest rappers. Many of today's jazz/hip-hop fusions may end up sounding shallow, but this is not one of them; on a deeper level, the true artists are using the new form to make artistic statements that are more than just the flavor of the month. Check the go-go-flavored beat of "Spontaneous Combustion," "Eight Ball" and "Plum Wine," and also be sure and peep the non-LP "Get Up, Get Down". cameo from none other than Roy Ayers.

classical instruments, then added a male guitarist and drummer, and is now collaborating with the likes of Einsturzende Neubauten's F.M. Einheit and Alexander Hacke. With all that, the group sounds awfully confident, even through its accelerated changes. There's a nod to the songs of the past in a coldly two-stepping cover of Kurt Weill's "Havana Lied," but other than that, MSG is living entirely in the present while building its music out of the instruments of many generations. Glockenspiel and viola are comfortably nestled up next to industrial drilling; delicate vocals coexist peaceably with battering drums. Tracks like "Cut" and "Serial Angels" can be loud and chaotic, but their chaos is always somehow stately, even composed-sounding. Parts of Fairytales Of Slavery are elegantly filmic instrumentals; in others, Katherine Blake's and Donna McKevitt's voices wordlessly trace jagged lines around each other. Somehow, the album's broad-scoped approach not only comes together but sounds like that's how it was always meant to be. Check out the above, plus "Intermission" and "Peep Show."

FRETBLANKET Junkfuel (Atlas, c/o A&M, 1416 N. LaBrea Ave., Hollywood, CA

90028)—Fretblanket is one of those rare bands that manages to blend guitar noise with pop nuance in a way that sacrifices neither might nor melody. Credit this to both the group's upbringing and its fragile emotional state. Born in Britain but raised on American indie rock, Fretblanket piles on the power chords in a way that would make Hüsker Dü and Dinosaur Jr. proud, but it can't escape its roots, causing numbers like "Song In B" and "Now We're 30" to resonate with the loose groove and catchy hooklines of fellow countrymen like Ned's Atomic Dustbin, Bivouac and Mega City Four. For Fretblanket, contrast and conflict are the most vital rretianker, contrast and conflict are the most vital ingredients for creative expression. "Junkfuel" mixes soaring harmonies with Will Copley's searing vocal rasp, and "I'm Going To Buy A Hang Glider" layers diving, dirtencrusted guitars over an infectious singalong melody. But the highlight of Junkfuel is unquestionably "Twisted," a savage soul-rending saga of vitriol and vengeance that features an imposing twin quitar assault and termented vocals: imposing twin guitar assault and tormented vocals: "She'll wait for me to turn my back/Twist the knife then hit the sack." Much of Fretblanket's strength springs from its relative inexperience. None of the members had played in any other bands, or even seen a live gig before they formed Fretblanket. As a result, Junkfuel bubbles with restless discovery, bounding from track to track with pained exuberance. Fuel your engines and fret no more. -Jon Wiederhorn

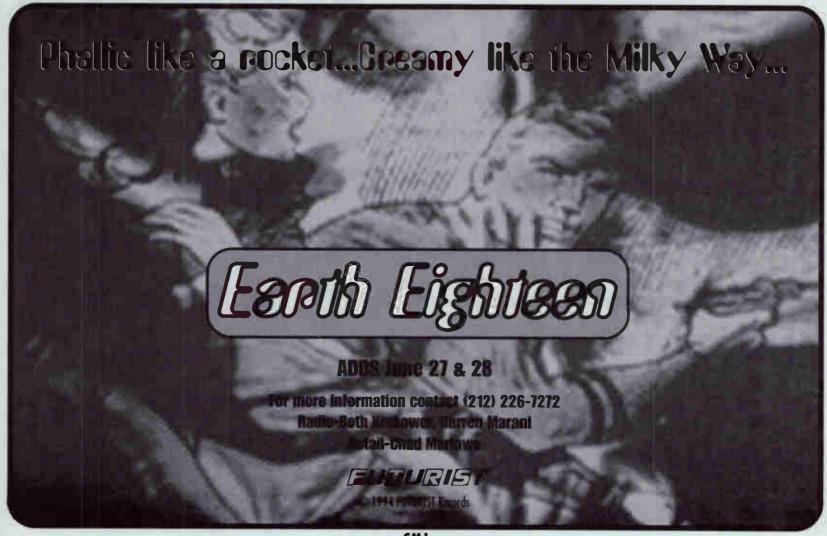

BLACK/NOTE Jungle Music (Columbia, address above)—For a young jazz group that names itself with an Afrocentric turn on "blue note," one that begins its debut release with the scratchy recording of Malcolm X intoning "It's time to stop singin' and start swingin'," Black/Note is surprisingly less revolutionary and more traditional than one would expect. The fact that revolution is considered something of a tradition to the hard bop they play is another matter. The disc's 11 tightly-coiled tracks draw on the history of bop as that of an urban folk art, imbuing the group's honest love for the sound with a workman-like charm. Even though you won't find a hip-hop beat until the last track (and at that it's a remix), the record's impeccable sense of cool is in many ways closer to acid jazz's club dynamics than the ruminations of contemporary jazz. Still, it's an earnestness, a desire to be another strong link in the chain, that sets this record apart. Its easy to see that Jungle Music is just the beginning for this group, but it is, for all its passion tempered with purpose, a welcome introduction to Black/Note.

GUMBALL Revolution On Ice (Columbia, address above)—As Don Fleming's lengthy career has progressed through his various bands—the Velvet Monkeys, Half Japanese, B.A.L.L., and now Gumball—his music has gotten poppier and poppier. With Revolution On Ice, recorded in a church in Woodstock, New York, Fleming and his right-hand man Jay Spiegel have been rejoined by guitarist/keyboardist Malcolm Riviera, meaning that three of the band's four members are now Velvet Monkeys veterans. And while parts of the album are poppily nostalgic for the early days of punk ("'77 and things are looking bright/Punk rock heaven, CBGB's on a Friday night"), the band hasn't abandaned its lo-fi, lo-budget roots. Race" has its borders guarded by some spiky guitar barbed wire, and it's followed by "Trudge," a garbled hardcore shudder and the Farfisa-fied oddity "She's As Beautiful As A Foot." For the most part, though, Revolution On Ice is pure pop for now (and then) people, with Fleming's tangy guitar and voice drawing on the power-pop tradition of Rockpile and the Strawberries as much as it does on recent guitar-pop. LOCUS SOLUS Waverly (Grass, c/o Dutch East India Trading, P.O. Box 800, Rockville Centre, NY 11571-0800/516-764-6200)— Like quiet rock bands such as Codeine and Slint, Locus Solus generates emotion without making a lot of noise. Simultaneously purging its aggressions, while taking care not to wake up the neighbors, the sounds on Waverly are thickly layered and melodically simplistic. Sister-era Sonic Youth influences abound, as circling guitar melodies send the listener on a lilting journey through a dimly lit world. The opening track "Mm" sets the tone, its lulling guitar quietly accompanying the raspy and somewhat obscured vocals. The subsequent tracks continue in a similar low-key vein, almost bleeding into one another, creating a continuous trip. From the almost organ-sounding guitar solo on the opener to the lounge sounds of "Habanero," Locus Solus exercises its self-control, only occasionally stepping out of its self-imposed bounds, while it creates a blurry and moody sound. -Bryan McNamara

SEESAW ...And The Head Popped Off (EP) (Simple Machines, P.O. Box 10290, Arlington, VA 22210-1290/703-2760680)—The eight-song debut from this Omaha-byway-of-Chicago band qualifies Seesaw for a spot in the blossoming genre of slowpoke rock, amongst the sleepy beats of Low and Codeine. Unlike those groups, however, Seesow includes the occasional trot-paced song to get the blood flowing, but does eventually revert back to more melancholy rhythms. It's the ups and downs of the rhythms and song structures that make the band's name so appropriate. Because of the do-it-yourself production, enhanced by simplistic guitar strums, ...And Their Heads Popped Off has the familiar sound of lo-fi fuzz rock; but the canned sound of the EP's underproduction weighs heavily on the other side of the pivot, lifting the beauty of the soft, lazy songs high and bringing them to the listener's attention. Winning more world records than Bobby and Cindy Brady: "Mace," "Thinking On The Pale Ride" and "King Of Mars."

DINGLE Red Dog (New Alliance, P.O. Box 1389, Lawndale, CA 90260/310-430-6838)—Seeing Dingle live must be a little like watching Fat Albert and the Cosby Kids ballin' the jack at the junkyard. In addition to banjos (slide banjo, too), trumpets, cello, reeds and quattro, the vast list of instruments used on Red Dog includes a whole bunch of stuff that must have just been lying around the house like "metal balls," "tonic," "bubbles" (played by someone named Scrappi DuChamp) and saw (other household items put to use by these resourceful gentlemen probably include cans of whipped cream, vanilla extract, Robitussin and rubber cement.) What emerges from all of this is, well, messy, but it's a pretty compelling mess, and one that sounds like no other: try to imagine the Hoosier Hot Shots crossed with Ween, Frank Zappa, Carl Stalling and a group of aging hippies doing guerilla street theater. Of the 21 cuts here, naturally a couple are self-indulgent throwaways, and there are tons of in-jokes, but we have to give Dingle a couple points for naming "Birdy Num Num" after a brilliant Peter Sellers gag in Blake Edwards' The Party. For the best examples of what Dingle is up to, check out: "Hemorrhage," "Fleas," "Soliloquy" and "Journey On A Davenport."

OPUS III guru mother

OPUS III Guru Mother (EastWest America, address above)—Opus III's brand of synthdance is light and pure, its glistening sound as fresh as a just-picked peach. On Guru Mother, Opus III's sophomore record, the band refines its Eurodisco sound, pushing the vocals in front and making the incessant rhythm as light as the synthesizers which carry the melodies. The star of the record, however, is the breathy female vocal, the poignant quality of which drives the earnest lyrics. Her voice is a trilling soprano, its swoops and glides adding an even lighter dimension to the music. This is the perfect soundtrack to the carefree summer, recalling those perfect pop moments of New Order or Depeche Mode, but with more of a pure dance flair. Float away to: "Dreaming Of Now" and "When You Made The Mountain."

JACKPOT BXTRA!

JEFF BUCKLEY Peyote Radio Theatre (EP) (Columbia, 550 Madison Ave., New York, NY 10022-3211)—Essentially a single for "Mojo Pin" from Jeff Buckley's forthcoming album Grace, Peyote Radio Theatre has a couple of noteworthy bonus tracks. "Dream Brother (Nag Champa Mix)" is a silken, dubbed-out slow rock instrumental, with long passages decorated with tablas and occasional glints of Buckley's wine-dark voice; "Mojo Pin," a solo version of which appeared on Live At Sin-é, draws on Led Zep's moments of quiet majesty. An overwhelming 14-minute cover of Big Stor's "Kanga-Roo" spotlights Buckley's quavering, emotionally supersaturated vocals and guitar before diving into an endless, stately riff.

—Douglas Wolk

BOREDOMS Super Roots (EP) (Reprise, 3300 Warner Blvd., Burbank, CA 91510)—This maxi-single, just in time for the Boredoms' appearance on this summer's Lollapalooza, is the band's most listenable moment to date. It's not quite a "Pop Kiss" (the title of the first track, a 54-second wriggle up an E-string), but the sonic terrorism of earlier recordings has evolved into a weirdness that's not painful, just alarming, and still utterly unique. "Budokan Tape Try (500 Tapes High)" sounds like the Residents playing Grace Jones' version of "Demolition Man" upside-down; "96 Teenage Bondage," part of the eight-"song" medley at the end of the disc, actually has a couple of recognizable chords.

-Douglas Wolk

MOBY "All That I Need Is To Be Loved"
(7") (SOL, P.O. Box 966, New York, NY
10009)—For his latest release, techno superstar Moby reverts to his original love, the thrashy punk rock of the early '80s, made most clear by his choice of covers, Joy Division's "New Dawn Fades," on the B-side. "All That I Need..." is fast and monotonous, the driving rhythm a less-thanobvious counterpart to techno's manic beat. The cover is slow and steady, as befits that most solemn of bands, and Moby plays the song straight, even down to imitating lan Curtis' tortured moan.

NECTARINE NO. 9 "This Arsehole's Been Burned Too Many Times Before" (7") (Postcard, P.O. Box 546, Glasgow G12 8NY, Scotland)—After announcing his new band Nectorine No. 9 with last year's debut, A Sea And Three Stars, Davey Henderson (ex-Fire Engines, Win) is back with a new single that's as smart, smug and well-crafted as you could hope. Though "This Arsehole's Been Burned..." is dense with chiming acoustic guitars intertwined with a crunchy electric solo, smeared over with Henderson's sweet, snarling vocals, the tune is surprisingly catchy; a couple of answering machine samples make the tune that much more jagged and unpredictable. The funky, chunky Fall-like rhythms of the album resurface on "Can't Phone Potatoes," its scratchy guitars and distorted vocals texturing the song's repetitive groove. —Lydia Anderson TUSCADERO "Mount Pleasant" (7") (Teen Beat, P.O. Box 3265, Arlington, VA 22203/703-358-9382)—This pop band from the D.C. area hardly evokes the tough girl image that its namesake Pinky Tuscadero (Happy Days) did, but the band's first single makes a fine showing, without the attitude. "Mount Pleasant" snarls with bad girl imagery, but is smoothed by airy "woooos" and jangling guitars. The B-side, "Nancy Drew," is cute pop with an '80s John Hughes soundtrack quality, due to its storyline of a child betrayed by her parents who've thrown away her treasured childhood toys (which included a set of Nancy Drew books). Like the wonderful but infrequent Pinky appearances on Happy Days episodes, this single makes us hope for more Tuscadero.

HARDSHIP POST "Sugarcane" (7") (Mag Wheel, P.O. Box 15, Boston, MA 02133)—
This Canadian outfit is one of the many bands currently being subjected to the "sounds like you know who" A&R frenzy, and should prove to be one of the few to stand on its own after all the hoopla and comparisons have died off. "Sugarcane" does have its share of Bleach-era riff-work, but takes a more subdued vocal approach to its shaded stop/start pop dynamic. The B-side, "Canopy," recalls similar guitar and voice rumblings, barreling with sturdy power chording and fierce trapwork.

JACKPOT! -

MARIZANE Marizane (c/o Tony Visconti Productions, 1619 Third Ave., Ste. 9-K, New York, NY 10128/212-860-3658; fax 212-996-0825)—We love David Bowie as much as anybody else, especially the early '70s stuff like The Man Who Sold The World; but of all the Bowie fans we've ever met, none come close to the Long Island rock outfit operating under the enigmatic moniker Marizane, which has replicated the stardust, sequins and fuzz of old-school

Bowie to an uncanny degree—Marizane vocalist Todd Jaeger in particular comes ludicrously close to the cracked warble and 12-string strum of vintage Ziggy Stardust. Of course, having original Bowie producer/main man Tony Visconti (!) twirl the knobs on the band's demo certainly helped its case. One story has it that when this tape was reportedly played for the Thin White Duke himself, his eyes lit up, as if to ask, "When did I do this?" having genuinely mistaken it for some undiscovered outtake left off the Rykodisc reissues. Normally such shameless lack of originality is enough to relegate a demo to the out-bin, but Marizane is such an uncanny replication, down to the strings, the drum sound, and even the eerie backwards cowbell from "Fashion." "Marizane Of The Alien Christ" is like liquid Bowie mixed from powdered concentrate, an ingenious distillation of "Starman," "Five Years," and oh, maybe a bit of "Width Of A Circle." In a weird and unexpected sort of way though, we've got to hand it to Visconti and Marizane for dusting off those old string charts and recording techniques, which, in a way, reveal how integral these factors were to Bowie's magic. Even with the (much) lesser songwriting material proffered here, this demo still winds up an entertaining listen. Recommended for curious scrutiny.

FYI

Aside from the fact that the band has virtually no regional musical history to follow, Anchorage, Alaska's TRAUMA GROOVE practically exists in its own musical bubble. Which doesn't quite explain Scares Me Daddy (Trauma Tunes, P.O. Box 243113, Anchorage, AK 99524-3313/907-274-4581). Sure, national acts do stop by occasionally (the band has opened for the Posies and Flop) and the University of Alaska's college radio station, KRUA, provides some alternative listening on those frosty spring nights, but Trauma Groove's quirky pop sensibility seems to have been formed from classic pop molds, albeit cracked and misshapen ones. Most of the group's eccentricity stems from vocalist Dylan Buchholdt's voice, and lots of hyper backup harmonies and la-la-las don't hurt either. We're sure this band rocks a lot more live, the guitars sounding a bit retrained on this recording, but an ear-catching variety of melodies spring from the voices, guitars and frantic rhythms populating this cassette. Some of the songs sound so oddly familiar we swear we heard bits of these hooks in songs by Too Much Joy or maybe even XTC, but maybe that's a result of Trauma Groove's influences being filtered down to the band through all the ice and snow. —D.I.Y.

Chart information is based on combined airplay of reporting commercial and college/ noncommercial radio stations. Statistics are compiled from point totals tabulated from positions (1-35) of artists on airplay reports, then multiplied by station code factor (based upon programming, market size and market import). BOLD indicates a significant increase in airplay. #1-5: equal or upward position; #6-10: increase of at least 1; #11-20: increase of 2 or more; #21-30: 3 or more...PEAK column represents highest chart position to date.

BLUR Parklife (Food/SBK-EMI)

The third album from the precocious English troupe Blur is its nuttiest (and perhaps best) yet. The band has always had a knack for dispensing unabashed pop, and Parklife leaves no fan of catchy Brit-rock dissapointed. Nearly every track features a nice big juicy "la la la" or "oooh oooh aahhh" chorus/harmony to sing along with, a nod to Mott The Hoople or a kinky Bowie-ism. Parklife is about as "British" as a record can get, but Anglophiles and red-blooded Americans alike have helped vault it to #17 in just two weeks. Here are some Stateside blokes and birds charting Blur in their Top 5: KCMA, KSCR, KSSB, KTCU, KTEQ, KUOM, WFIT (Melbourne, FL), WGMU, WIXQ, WRFT, WRNU (Newark, NJ), WRST, WWUH.

Please Note: Due to our production schedule, the red highlights on the Top 150 have been replaced by boldface. The red will return next week.

PROGRESSIVE RETAIL

Chart compiled by Dawn Sutter

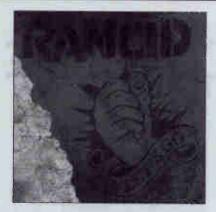

ON THE CHART

Once again, Grand Royal-Capitol's Beastie Boys are at the top spot this week (and they've finally snagged the #1 position at radio!) with Atlantic's Stone Temple Pilots (2-2) trailing not far behind. Interscope-Atlantic's The Crow soundtrack also holds on to its position at #3. Reprise's Green Day reaps the rewards of its recent press, jumping 6-5, while A&M's Soundgarden, currently on tour, also continues its ascent (10-8). The newcomers in the top 10 this week are both debuts: 4AD-Reprise's Lush (#4) and Chrysalis-EMI's Arrested Development (#10)

The chart is brimming with new releases this week. Just below the top 10 are Sub Pop's Velocity Girl (#13) and Epitaph's Rancid (#14). The live album from Jesus Lizard on Collision Arts/Giant-WB slides in at #28, while Epic's Spin Doctors (#15) and Suicidal Tendencies (#32) make strong first appearances. Beck's new one, this time on indie label K, makes its premiere at #40. Interscope's hard rock in pretty packaging from Helmet appears at #49. British label Too Pure has several successful new releases, including electronic German duo Mouse On Mars (#65) and Lalka (#69), featuring former members of Moonshake.

Running up the charts this week: Food/SBK-EMI's Blur (69-16), Merge's Polvo (56-37) and Matador's The Fall (55-43) and Pavement (60-48). Many familiar faces have shown up for a second time including: Elektra's Violent Femmes #53), 4AD/Sire-Reprise's Kristin Hersh (#55) and Sub Pop's Combustible Edison (#59). (RETAIL REPORTS PRINTED AFTER TOP 35 REPORTS)

RANCID

The latest band to emerge from the burgeoning Berkeley punk rock scene is Epitaph's Rancid, whose second album, Let It Go, debuts on the chart this week at #14. With two bands in the top 15 (Offspring is at #12), Epitaph, the indie label run by members of Bad Religion, is witnessing its fair share of success. The success just continues to grow, sure to be bolstered by the imminent release of a new album from NOFX. While Bad Religion took the plunge into the major label world and signed with Atlantic last year, the bands on Epitaph have thus far refused the big label bucks. The popularity of bands such as Rancid can be partly attributed to its wide appeal to both the alternative and metal crowds, which has ironically enough made punk rock big business.

NEW MUSIC REPORT 22 JUNE 27, 1994

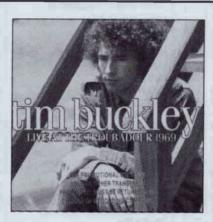

VARIOUS ARTISTS The Specialty Story (Specialty, c/o Fantasy, 10th And Parker, Berkeley, CA 94710) [cat. no. 4412]—If you're already familiar with the legendary story of Specialty Records, home to Little Richard ("the quasar of rock"), Art Neville, Lloyd Price, Larry Williams, Guitar Slim, Sam Cooke's early gospel years, and dozens of other R&B, gospel and blues hitmakers, then flipping through this box set and lavish booklet will feel like reading a high school yearbook—you'll be filled with the same kind of warm nostalgic glow as you thumb through page after page of the unfolding saga of one of the greatest independent labels in the history of American recorded music. You'll relive the story of Lloyd Price actually breaking into tears while singing "Lawdy Miss Clawdy" at the end of an otherwise terrible audition session for Art Rupe, the wild piano-banging tales of Little Richard, or how a young gospel singer named Sam Cooke cut some amazing spiritual material before finding fame as one of the greatest voices in secular soul. Of all the small independent labels during the rip-roaring '50s, Specialty was arguably the most important of them all, with the possible exception of Sam Phillips' Sun Records. While Sun might have given rock 'n' roll its face and upturned snarling lip, Specialty gave it the beat, the beat, the beat—pounding, driving, unrelenting, and swinging, more often than not provided by the key New Orleans and Los Angeles session cats who were the chief architects of rock and roll. Box set compiler and Specialty reissue king Billy Vera is not only a vigorous researcher and distinguished blues scholar, he's also a tremendous fan, who's included such over-the-top Specialty gems as Joe Liggins' "Rag Mop," and Little Richard's incredibly kooky last outing for Specialty, the awesome "Bama Lama Bama Loo" (where a frenzied Richard takes the big backbeat back from the Beatles and uses it to whup them on the head).

Of course, Specialty not only broke new ground musically, but on a less distinguished note, according to Richard and others on the scene, the label also pioneered many of the entrepreneurial, and even potentially exploitative, practices of the record biz. From assuming control of publishing credits for its artists to such advanced record-biz tactics as reissuing the same Little Richard material over and over again with different titles and different covers throughout the '60s and '70s, Specialty pioneered techniques that record labels are still following to this day. Nonetheless, on the strength of the music and the incredible quality and respect given to it by this reissue, this is a monumental story in American music, at last told in full. Though it's actually smaller than either of the Stax bax sets, it's an epochal slice of R&B history.

TIM BUCKLEY Live At The Troubador 1969 (Bizarre/Straight, c/o Rhino, 10635 Santa Monica Blvd., Los Angeles, CA 90025-4900/310-474-4778) [cat. no. 71663]—Though he has been lauded in certain circles, Tim Buckley remains a largely unsung hero for someone who contributed so much to song. Unlike many stars who fizzled out early, leaving only a small body of work behind, Buckley (luckily for us) is survived by nine studio albums and 1990's breathtaking double-disc Dream Letter, a live recording from 1968—quite remarkable for a vocalist/song-writer/pusician who bursed out 2.9. There's writer/musician who burned out at 28. There's always a certain morose quality listening to unearthed live performances of an artist who's had a tragic death (Buckley died of an alcohol/heroin overdose in 1975, ironically after having taken steps toward cleaning up his act), yet Live At The Troubador expands our knowledge of this important artist and reveals his love for the improvisational process, in which jazz rhythms and guitar leads played an essential role. While it's not quite as impressive a pockage as Dream Letter, lacking the earlier performance's intimate, yet crisp sound reproduction, Live At The Troubador remains impressive. Buckley's voice soars—as it nearly always did—careening towards life's sweetness when it was able, and plummeting towards its darker moments for the remainder. Though he was gifted with a dynamic vocal range, Buckley's most impressive attribute was how he used his skills, extracting a vast spectrum of emotions from his soul, as if the painful removal of his ghosts was necessary to avert further suffering down the line. When he wails "I'm so happy! I'm so happy! I'm so happy!" at the start of "I Don't Need It To Rain," his voice approximates the voltage of an electric shock, evoking a frighteningly real barrage of emotions. Collectors will enjoy the two previously unreleased tracks on this 78-minute disc, but we'll all grow from experiencing Buckley as he was on stage in 1969.

VARIOUS ARTISTS The Swingtime Records
Story (Capricorn, 120 30th Ave. N., Nashville, TN 37203/615-320-8470) [cat.
no. 20242]—Capricorn Records continues to unfold its extensive reissue program, having previously covered small independent R&B and blues labels like Fire/Fury, Jewel/Paula and Scepter/Wand. This set focuses on Swingtime, a seminal R&B label that was home to some of the greatest R&B and jump blues of the era, featuring a roster that included Lowell Fulsom, Charles Brown, Jimmy Witherspoon and a young Ray Charles. One can feel that even before his legendary tenure at Atlantic Records, Charles' primordial blues groan was already perfected, and we're reminded here that his warm and heart-rending voice had already been warbling its way off old 78s and 45s for some time before he belted out "What'd I Say" or "My Bonnie."
Even in the rather primitive quality of these early '50s recordings (such luxuries as stereo and multitrack tape were still a few years away), this two-CD set is still a very strong testimony to the impact and importance of Swingtime Records. In a word, Mmmmmmm.

RAVI SHANKAR Transmigration Macabre (C-Five, P.O. Box 328, Maidenhead, Berkshire SI6 2NE, U.K.)—Submitted for your approval: Transmigration Macabre has got to be one of the most unusual curios to come out in recent memory, and a confirmation of our hopeful belief that these days, virtually anything interesting could end up re-released on CD by somebody somewhere, as long as there's no major label involved. This unusual Ravi Shankar vehicle was the original soundtrack to an obscure British art film called Viola. In the movie, the central character is a man possessed by the notion that his recentlydeceased wife has come back to haunt him in the form of a disturbing black cat that seems to pursue him relentlessly. The music from the film score fol-lows the man's subsequent descent into madness, and the titles of the individual pieces—"Madness," demonstrate the tone and timbre and psychodelic nature of Shankar's accompanying music. Far from the typical '60s Indian curry-flavored soundtrack fare (see the little instrumental snippets between songs on the Beatles' Help!), it's instead a fairly demented piece of work—horns blare, tympani thunder cacophonously, strings groan, while our main man Ravi spins out webs of tormented melody on lots and lots of echo-drenched sitars. Not exactly indispensable stuff, and not likely to set any sales records up against the Rolling Stones catalog, but it is a deliciously twisted and delightfully strange little disc nonetheless.
"Fantasy" "Anxiety," "Torment," "Submission"—

AHMAD Ahmad (Giant, c/o Reprise, 3300 Warner Blvd., Burbank, CA 91510)—On his first single, "Back In The Day" (which is featured three times on Ahmad), South Central's Ahmad vividly raps (with a warped, Pharcyde-like flow) about his younger days of innocence as if he wished he were still in junior high doing homework, and not suffering from the anxiety of growing up into a mature, productive adult. Well, as eloquent and informed as Ahmad sounds, he is still only 18 years old, even though he raps like a hardened vet. With a versatile delivery, Ahmad's raps stay within familiar surroundings arising from his personal life experiences. Having grown up raps stay within familiar surroundings arising from his personal life experiences. Having grown up during the hardcore explosion of the late '80s, Ahmad is grounded enough not to berate listeners with worthless fantasies, as if his hardcore hometown is going to dictote his rap style. Instead, his stories are couched in playful, uptempo funk beds, which includes everything from Long Beachfunk on "You Gotta Be..." to Parliament-sampling on "Can I Party?" to brilliant, L.A. electro-funk on "The Jones'" to background vocals by Roger Troutman on the danceable "We Want The Funk." This is one of the most unpretentious rap records ever to come from the hardcore capitol of the world. Also freak the funk of: "Touch The Ceiling," "The Palladium" and "Ordinary People."

While groups like the Solsonics and Groove Collective have won the attention of major labels, it's compilations like Instinct's This Is Acid Jazz series that allow street jazz disciples to discover the full range of acid jazz arriving in America. The clear standout this week is Instinct's The Vibe, a 12-cut convergence of some of Japan's finest groove merchants. While domestic debut from Japan's United Future Organization remains one of the most overlooked acid jazz remains one of the most overlooked acid jazz records, Japanese acid jazz uses many common tools of the trade, but experiments more with the rhythm, incorporating more Latin and Afro-Cuban rhythms (O.M.U.'s "Jazz Addiction"). ON THE CHART

THE SUN REFUSES TO SHINE: For the fourth straight week, Columbia's Nas (1-1) outshines PavDav/ffrr-ILS' Jeru The Damaja (2-2), who spends his fourth week at #2 after debuting at #7 five weeks ago. After 31 weeks on the chart, Jive's A Tribe Called Quest (4-3) moves up one, causing Chrysalis-EMI's Gang Starr (3-4) to slip, while Gang Starr's labelmate Arrested Development (14-8) explodes into this week's top 10. Also on the move are Violator/RAL-PG's Warren G (12-10), Cohiba-Island's MC Solaar (21-14) and Jive's Aallyah (18-15). After three years off, RAL-PG's Nice & Smooth make this week's highest debut with Jewel Of The Nile at #17, while Tommy Boy's House Of Pain is back for the attack, debuting "On Point" at #19. While we're tracing the upward movements of So So Def-Chaos' Da Brat (25-21), Blackfist's King Just (34-22) and Blunt-TVT's Mic Geronimo (32-25), we welcome in new entries from Columbia's Buckshot Le Fonque (#27), Def Jam/RAL-PG's Public Enemy (#29), EastWest America's Terror Fabulous (#33) and A&M's Marxman (#34). This week's Adventure Picks: 1) Rampage-The Last Boyscout; 2) House Of Pain; 3) Extra Prolific; 4) Public Enemy; 5) Warren G; 6) King Tee; 7) Terminator X; 8) Fesu; 9) Outkast; 10) MC Solaar. (BEAT BOX REPORTS PRINTED AFTER TOP 35 REPORTS)

Records has released the Speakeasy Collective, focusing on acid jazz and rare groove from some of America's finest participants. Like the Brand New Heavies' first album, tracks such as Third Person I Pondered's "Related To What" wander through bottomless grooves, the rappers taking center stage over vocalists (check Riot Goin' On's "A Gift"). The clear standout is DJ EFX Presents San Jazz Disco's "Dirty Jazz," which incorporates vibes, a walking, standup bass sound and hard swing beat.

MC SOLAAR: Kid From Foreign
France's MC Solaar recently performed at a Giant Step event at New York City's Supper Club. After burning through his single "Nouveau Western" and a short freestyle session, Gang Starr's Guru came on stage, his arm draped over Solaar, and shouted to an applauding crowd: "MC Solaar represents international hip-hop! And I just want to say that I am proud to know him." Earlier that afternoon, Solaar ventured out to the CMJ offices, where he and I sat amid mountains of CDs, tapes and press releases, to talk about hip-hop in France and America, and to find out exactly how he became a household name in his native country. Keep in mind that that English is Solaar's second language, and his answers require a bit of imagination to be understood.

Glen Sansone: Speak about your introduction to hip-hop.

MC Solaar: I was born in Senegal. I grew up in Paris—in the suburbs of Paris. Then in 1982 I was this kind of Zulu Nation and hip-hop in Paris. At this time, I was fond of this kind of dance on the tloor...

They call it break dancing...
Yes. At this time in 1984, there was a kind of underground radio where they were rapping in French. I heard it, [and said] in my mind, keep doing that. Finally in 1986 there was a kind of hip-hop movement in Paris because Afrika Bambaataa used to come, and Fab 5 Freddy. '89 was the first compilation of some of Paris and suburban himbaa. suburban hip-hop.

ls there rap in Senegal? Yeah, crazy, crazy, crazy. Groups like Positive Black Soul, or Supreme Spirits. Many groups from Senegal rap in Senegalese, in French and in English. I made them come to Europe twice to have them as my opening act in Paris.

Who were the first groups you got into?

The first music I liked to listen to was Bob Marley,
Peter Tosh and Police—I don't know why.

Peter Tosh and Police—I don't know why.

What about rap groups?

Grandmaster Flash or the Sugar Hill Gang—Sugar Hill Gang came to France. What has happened that, in France we had like [as if I'm proud] the first broadcast of hip-hop was a guy called Sidney. It was the first transmission on T.V. of the hip-hop—it was in 1983. One hour every week.

What was your reaction when you first heard rap? It was Sugar Hill Gang. They came on the French TV by night. It was amazing the way they were talking. In my classroom, everybody saw that (Solaar stands up and mimics the performance)—it affected my school a lot, all remembered that.

Do you relate to the violence found in American rap?
The violence is not the same. I can't say, 'Yeah, I got in the street and shot three people, because first, it's not true, and it's not close to the reality of France. The difference is it's more quiet. The violence is not acute. I can talk about the racism sometimes, but I try to be different. Try to have story, and I never say 'do this' or 'do that.' I have story like addition: A+1+3—no conclusion, just the mind to have the reaction.

Now that you've been to America, what have you mind to have the reaction. Now that you've been to America, what have you learned about the music that you never knew

Perhaps I haven't been in the place [where] people act like gangsters and disrespecting women are from. For me, it's very often an exaggeration. There was something positive in Public Enemy, for example, that had to make people open the eyes, listen, try to know the roots, and so on. Right now, there's not that Zulu Nation positive. It's just to be scandalous—we lost the positive thing of peace, unity, love, fun. Obviously, there's a lot of jazz on your record. Is that a big thing for you?

No. I like jazz, I write on jazz, because it makes me not talk about...writing is a kind of reflection. The first time we had the material to do the music, we got into jazz because soul was done before. Now, Jimmy Jay the DJ is going the same way on jazz. For me, just for writing. When I hear Roy

Yeah. I like that.

Ayers, I can write hardcore, anything! So you use it to help you write...
Yeah. It makes your world be different in other ways. Sometimes I write for rapping, and sometimes I try to be like just a idea with a kind of poetry. I don't know which will be for music because we work very fast, and I have to adapt it. All is done in the studio, this album. We just had five tracks when we got into the studio, when we got out, we had the album. Jazz goes with my voice. I don't have a high voice, and jazz makes you choose: you can speak loud or you can speak quiet.

voice. I don't have a night voice, and jazz makes you choose: you can speak loud or you can speak quiet.

What influences you to write?

What I see sometimes, information. I read all newspapers, from extreme right to extreme left. I read all. Then I read books during the year, I watch the TV, I listen to some American rap. During all the year when I'm in the studio—'cause I never write between. I still like to have concrete material. So I go and ask my friends—when I was in the studio there were 30 persons I grew up with—to ask them about their problems, how they feel, what they are doing, what is their job, and then I write. I talk about racism, but this word 'racism,' 'separation'—can't see it on any of my albums, but the idea is inside—by stories, by sometimes a name.

What's different about the racism you see in this country and in France?

In France, the difference is you don't see it. But when you want to do something—I studied a lot—university and so on. But when we go to have a summer job, or regular job, or for me, when I go to get a taxi and they don't know I'm MC Solaar, it's hard to have a taxi. The police, when they see the rap people, the way they ask you for your papers, the way they keen you until there is no train to get rap people, the way they ask you for your papers, the way they keep you until there is no train to get back home, so you stay in Paris all the night—when you're a student, you don't have money to pay a long, long taxi—very often those things happen and want to mention it.

Yeah, yeah. If you're very popular in France.
Yeah, yeah. If you get two triends and you ask for a singer, or for three singers...
You'll be one of them?

Yeah. I like that.

Is there a lot of pressure for you being so famous?

No. Because I'm doing rap, there is something totally different. When people see me in the street, instead of saying (in a high pitched voice), 'Yeah, MC Solaarl' they keep cool and go and talk about, 'Yeah, I got this problem.' At first they are surprised, they want me to sign something, then they talk like human beings because perhaps any of these tracks are very close to people.

What rap groups are popular in France right now? of these tracks are very close to people.

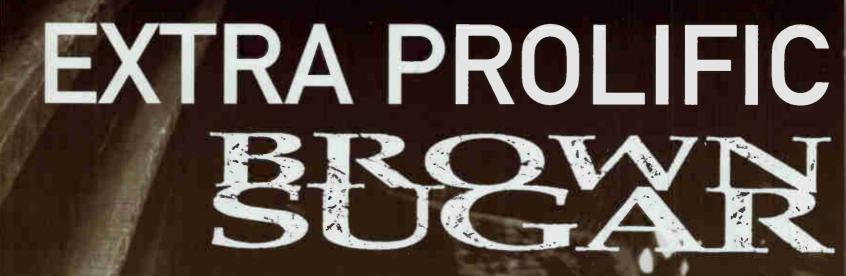

What rap groups are popular in France right now?

Is the hip-hop culture the same?

We very often follow. Right now it's kinda like blue jeans, Timberlands. Something is changing, instead of having our French blue jeans and so on, we got Karl Kani. Doing well is MC Solaar, (jokingly) I don't know why?! Uh, from here [America] there is Boss, because it is women hardcore, it was a real surprise for people in France. And Digable Planets, and Guru because he comes very often to Europe. Still A Tribe Called Quest, there is something in the mind of everybody just waiting for A Tribe Called Quest. Jeru, because of people talking and then coming back to France. The ones playing on the radio are Queen Latifah, Snoop Doggy Dogg, Domino.

What are your goals as a rapper?

I did an album. Instead of going to university, I said to mama, during one year I'm going to do a kind of music [rap], so I just wanted to do it for my friends and so on. And it sold four, zero, zero, zero, zero, zero copies. I had to go on, so I did this one. I want to do a project with producers friends and so on. And it sold four, zero, zero, zero, zero, zero copies. I had to go on, so I did this one. I want to do a project with producers. Helping and giving the same spirit as I do with Jimmy Jay. A kind of, I don't know how to say, to have the courage to sample things we don't know. Are there any other good rappers in France? Certainly. There is Sunny MC, with a live band, they play well. There is Wise Poets Of The Street, they are on the album on one track. They are working now with Jimmy Jay.

CMJ COUNTRY

JACKPOT!

WEBB PIERCE King Of The Honky-Tonk (Country Music Foundation, 4 Music Sq. E., Nashville, TN 37203/800-255-2357)— Between 1952 and 1959, Webb Pierce was among the most popular of all the "hillbilly" singers, with a total of 13 number one hits, more than any other country artist of the time, including Hank Williams, Ernest Tubb and Lefty Frizzell. While Pierce's star may have tarnished a bit since his heyday, King Of The Honky-Tonk compiles all his charttoppers, as well as a few of his other top 10 hits and two previously unreleased tracks, and it's as delightful a collection of country music you're likely to hear. All the tracks are remasters taken from Pierce's recordings for the Decca label, which have been out of print for a shamefully long time. Immaculately packaged with detailed notes on each track, a brief chronicle of Pierce's life and rare photos of Pierce in his trademark, lavishly detailed Nudie suits, King Of The Honky-Tonk is a must for any country music fan. Top Of The Pops: "Broken Engagement," "There Stands The Glass" (recently covered by Ted Hawkins), "In The Jailhouse Now" and "Honky Tonk

SARA HICKMAN Necessary Angels (Discovery, 2052 Broadway, Santa Monica, CA 90404/310-828-1033)—The story of how Necessary Angels came to be released is an extraordinary display of one person's perseverance and ingenuity, as well as a great tale of love between an artist and her fans. Sara Hickman had released two moderately successful albums for Elektra and had recorded and completed a third when the label dropped her. She came up with the idea of buying the unreleased tapes from the label, but was presented with a demand for an amount beyond her means. Hickman decided to go to her fans to try and raise the funds needed to buy back her songs. The response was incredible. Hickman collected enough to get back the tapes, record several new songs for Necessary Angels and make donations to the Romanian Orphan Fund. As for the music, this is surely her most substantial collection to date. With a pleasing combination of quiet acoustic musings and bright pop melodies, Hickman proves she has the uncommon ability to tell stories in creative ways with witty lyrics and an attractive, adaptable voice. Necessary Angels indeed: "The Best Of Times," "Room Ot One's Own," "Shadowboxing" and "The Place Where The Garage Used To Stand."

SHORT SHOTS

Here are four new records from four singer/song-writer types, each with a distinct voice. MICHAEL JERLING's second for Shanachie (37 E. Clinton St., Newton, NJ 07860/201-579-7763), New Suit Of Clothes, shows why he won the "New Folk" competition at last year's Kerrville Folk Festival. Jerling's songs present a widescreen view of the human condition and he masterfully utilizes a broad range of musical styles (country, blues, folk) to their utmost effect. From the twangy introspection of "Time To Begin Again" to the sultry mood of "Shadowland" to the bounce and swing of "Save Me" to the New Orleans R&B flavored "Katy's Me" to the New Orleans R&B flavored Rary's Stroll," Jerling has delivered a touching and enjoyable set that's sure to garner the wider audience he deserves...Dos Records (500 San Marcos, Austin, TX 78702/512-322-0617) has just released Stray Dog Talk from Austin's DAVID HALLEY domestically. Originally available only in Europe, it's a brilliant set of roots rock from yet another member of the Lubbock, Texas, songwriter set. This version of Stray Dog Talk has been re-sequenced and remastered, and a track has been added ("Hard Livin," a top 10 Country hit for Keith Whitley), making it more special. Highlights include the ether real "Rain Just Falls," the steady rockin' "Live And Learn" and the guitar anthem "Opportunity Knocking."...Also from Austin, by way of England, is IAIN MATTHEWS, who's had a long history of singing other people's songs, dating from the days when he was a founding member of Fairport Convention. Since he moved to Texas in 1989, Matthews has been inspired to write more songs and his talents are evidently flourishing in the heat, if The Dark Ride (Watermelon, P.O. Box 402088, Austin, TX 78704/512-458-6275) is any indication. Matthews' tunes mix traditional British folk and Texas-style acoustic storytelling. Standout tracks include "Girl With The Clouds In Her Eyes," co-written with Horizons fave Michael Fracasso, "Ballad Of Gruene Hall" and "Davey's Stung."...DAVID KNOPFLER is best known as a founding member of Dire Straits with his brother, Mark. Since leaving that band in 1980, he's recorded six solo albums, only a couple of which have been released in the U.S. On The Giver (Mesa, c/o Mesa-Bluemoon, P.O. Box 5510, Glendale, CA 91221/818-841-8585), he manages to recall the ebb and flow of his former band, while adding a captivating, eerie undercurrent. With their simple melodies, sharp wordplay and stark instrumentation, songs like "Domino" (not the Van Morrison song), "A Father And A Son" and "Mercy With The Wine" draw the listence into Knopfler's refined and spiritual world. One of the most soothing and surprising records of the year, so far.

ROOTS AND BLUES

After making a stab at the Nashville sound, JO-EL SONNIER returns to the sound of his heritage with Cajun Roots (Rounder, 1 Camp St., Cambridge, MA 02140/617-354-0700]. He pays heartfelt tribute to the likes of Iry LeJeune, Nathan Abshire and Shorty LeBlanc, with a collection of songs in French aided by a group of some the best musicians from Southwest Louisiana, including fiddler Michael Doucet from Beausoleil. Familiar tunes such as "Church Point Breakdown," "Evangeline Special" and "La Chere Toute-Toute" are given sincere and authentic renditions. One of the top Cajun releases of the year...West Coast bluesman/harp player

JAMES HARMAN is back with Cards On The Table, his third for Black Top (P.O. Box 56691, New Orleans, LA 70156/504-895-7236). It's an entertaining set of horn-filled swing and greasy grooves. Harman again shows why he's considered one of the prime harmonica players of our day on "Temporary Blues," which features a guest turn by Anson Funderburgh, "Don't Spoil My View" and "Three Way Party."...Fans of serious blues guitar are sure to enjoy Trouble Man, the second album from JIMMY THACKERY AND THE DRIVERS (Blind Pig, P.O. Box 2344, San Francisco, CA 94126/510-526-0373). Originally a member of the Nighthawks, Thackery has been thrilling audiences for a long time with his guitar histrionics, which are unlike anybody else's playing in today's blues scene. Check out "Don't Lose Your Cool," his tribute to Albert Collins, the flat out rockin' "Hang Up And Drive" and the funky title track.

IN THE NEWS

to be called The Flyer, and it's set for release in the fall. Griffith received production help from Peter Collins and Peter Buck on the mostly acoustic album. Expect guest appearances this time from the Bodeans, Adam Duritz of Counting Crows, the Indigo Girls, Mark Knopfler and members of U2...Alligator (P.O. Box 60234, Chicago, IL 60660/312-973-7736) has just released the final three collections in its Trumpet series. Trumpet Records, based in Jackson, MI, recorded a wide variety of music from some of the South's most popular artists in the early-to-mid-'50s. The three new volumes are Goin' In Your Direction, which features rare recordings by SONNY BOYWILLIAMSON, including one with B.B. King;

Shout, Brother, Shout, featuring R&B from the likes of Willie Love & His Three Aces, the Four Sharps, Beverly White & Her Trio and Lonnie Holmes & His Dark Town Boys; and In The Spirit, a gospel collection with tracks from the Blue Jay Singers, the Southern Sons, the Carolina Kings Of Harmony and others...Flying Fish Records is celebrating its 20th Anniversary this year and has put together a fine promo-only compilation of some its artists through the years to commemorate the occasion. ARGHYY IT'S THE LOUD ROCK REPORT

KYUSS Sky Valley (Elektra, 75 Rockefeller Plaza, New York, NY 10019)—Venturing through the expansive, rocky terrain of Sky Valley is a lush musical experience you'll never forget, as Kyuss takes you on a mesmerizing three-part trip through thick soundscapes of searing guitar grinds and massively heavy drum blows, all wrapped up in a shimmering cloak of spirituality and psychedelia. The Kyuss legacy began years ago in the desolate canyons of Palm Desert, where the guys would get together and pound 'em out during night-time generator-driven parties under the stars. Now, with the aid of production tools and major-label support, Kyuss' free-flowing, heavy sound of sludgy desert rock comes blasting through the speakers. After the demise of the band's original label Chameleon Records, parent company Elektra picked up its option on just one band—Kyuss. The band draws you into a heaving, swirling pool of torrid grooves and sultry grinds that will leave you breathless with dizzying bliss. The foursome is already electrifying today's hard music scene with the powerful, adrenalin-fueled rhythms and vibrating melodies of Sky Valley. Take a whiff of "Gardenia," sweat along with the surging intensity of "100°," cleanse your mind with "Demon Cleaner," or just relax and mellow out with the bluesy "Space Cadet." Also check out "Supa Scoopa And Mighty Scoop," "Asteriod," "Odyssey" and "Whitewater." —Jenni Glenn

GLAZED BABY
Karmic Debt
(Red Decibel, 2217 Nicollet Ave. S., Minneapolis, MN 55404/612-872-0646)— Hailing from Providence, Rhode Island, hard-rockin' trio Glazed Baby has released a string of 7" singles over the years, but this is its first full-length. Karmic Debt is simmering with heavy, amped guitar riffs, slamming drum beats and chaotic, clamoring noise bursts. Glazed Baby could be the bastard, mutant child of White Zombie, the Butthole Surfers and Helmet, with its enormously powerful rhythm section, distorted vocals, crazed spurts of scratching, grating noise and thick, grinding guitar crunch. "Anais Anais" has a slow, vacillating groove that churns around an industrial-tinged metallic backdrop, while "Under Nancy's Boot" speeds along the same rambling route as the Zombiefied "Thunder Kiss '65." Karmic Debt is a very diverse first offering, each song relying on a different sound and tempo; a track could bring an out-of-control, freaky attack of noise and sonic sounds ("Michael Meyers") or an eerie, dreamy instrumental ("Red Room"). Also check out the caterwauling "Handgun," the drunken slam of "That Much Closer To Hell," the scratchy, psycho rant of "Mad Man Blues" or the fast, pummeling "Vincent Van Goth" for an appetizing taste of some Glazed Baby. Dig in! –Jenni Glenn

BARBED WIRE DOLLS

(Gladiator, 565 Monroeville Blvd., Monroeville, PA 15146/412-373-7693)—"I feel like a queen...when I'm on my knees" comes purring out of the speakers, but it's not "Flower Part 2," it's "Mister P.P. Smash." While the Barbed Wire Dolls viewpoint is staunchly feminine, their music is solid enough to eradicate any gender-based categorization. Most of their tunes are about relationships (you guessed it, failed ones), and the Dolls' female perspective enhances the songs' impact. (It's also interesting to know that the Dolls came together when they lived in a house with their boyfriends, all of whom were in bands that practiced in the basement.) While the band's sound has been described as Black Sabbath meets the Go-Go's, many of the songs on Esoterica swing more than Sab ever did, so let's just say Kiss crossed with Belinda and co. instead. The lyrics have a Chrissie Hynde-ish quality to them; the Dolls are not too tough to admit that they love guys, they just seem tired of constantly having to put 'em in their place. They don't get preachy, either; they just tell it how it is. A lot of these tunes are really catchy, but guys and gals alike should check out "Sweating Like A Parrot,"

"Misguided Young" and "Spiritual Breeding."

NOFX Punk In Drublic (Epitaph, 6201 Sunset Blvd., Ste. 111, Hollywood, CA 90028/213-957-7555)—

NOFX is a thumping, spirited foursome that slams and rocks in true punk fashion. The band could easily be deemed the hardest working punk band of all time, having toured the States 10 times, Europe six times, Canada twice and Japan once. After the release of the band's sarcastic first 7", "The PMRC Can Suck On This," which was followed by a line of equally energetic, biting full-length LPs, NOFX has released yet another gem of an album with Punk In Drublic. NOFX incorporates a variety of different musical styles into its mix of music, including reggae, oi and even calypso and opera, but never loses the amped pump of attitude-laden, aggressive punk rock. Punk In Drublic will be met with open doors at a ton of different formats, and the metal population will love the heavy, guitar-driven punch permeating the entire album. Politically aware lyrics drive the point home in songs like "Don't Call Me White" and "Perfect Government." For a fun romp through something more light-hearted and humorous, check out "Jeff Wears Birkenstocks"—"He's got a tie-dyed Rancid shirt/He wears his Birkenstocks to work/Is he a jerk?/No!/Just confused, Jeff don't wear regular shoes." And don't forget to lend an ear to the heavy jammin' "Dying Degree," "Punk Guy," "Happy Guy" and "Lori Meyers."

SEA OF SOULS

Titanic

(Trumpeter, 5660 E. Virginia Beach Blvd., Ste. 103, Norfolk, VA 23502/804-455-8454)—Sea Of Souls will cause more than few bodies to sway and buck in a wave of fervor with its debut album, Titanic. Crashing in from the sundrenched dunes of Virginia Beach, Virginia, Sea Of Souls' Titanic blends straight-forward rock 'n' roll with a thicker, dirgy grind that will satisfy pop/rock lovers, along with alternametal/grunge lovers. The album opener, "N-Anger," blasts with sharp, blistering guitar riffs, a low-riding bass line and an extremely infectious chorus, while "D.I.G." delves into a more flowing, mainstream rock sound. The band uses "God Money" as a tool to voice its disgust at society's preoccupation with material goods, while the groovy, rapped "Dodge City" reflects the evergrowing presence of violence in today's world and tries to educate its audience—"Bullets in through a window/Mothers and fathers screaming 'not my boy no'/Cop runs for cover like Groucho in duck soup/Thinkin' the problem comes just from one group/It ain't about race or hate/It's a lack of knowledge and a need to articulate." Also give a listen to charged "Second-Hand Bigotry," the bluesy slamming "Locust," "Circling" and "Religion." Jenni Glenn

BRUCE DICKINSON

"Cyclops" (5")

(Mercury, 825 Eighth Ave., New York, NY 10019)—Bruce Dickinson needs no introduction to the land of heavy metal. After fronting Iron Maiden for more than a decade, Bruce reached a point where he felt it was time to move on, develop something new and turn a brand new page in his musical career. Following his first solo effort in 1990, Tattooed Millionaire, when he was still very much part of the Maiden outfit, he decided to part ways with the band in order to produce something totally new. Now, four years later, Bruce is on his own and back rockin' hard in a big way. "Cyclops," the first single from his second solo offering, Balls To Picasso (which, by the way, is brimming with fierce originality and some killer heavy tunes!), highlights a spiritually heavy groove with haunting, devilish overtones. Bruce recruited a local L.A. Latino metal act, Tribe Of Gypies, to record the album with him and producer Shay Baby (who's engineered albums for Whitesnake and Foreigner). The band's musical diversity adds a soulful rhythm to Bruce's hard rockin' crunchy style. Check out "Cyclops," and prepare to be crushed by Balls To Picasso (on your desks in a few weeks). -lenni Glenn

OUD ROCK NEWS

Hey, all you metal-loving freaks! E.J. Johantgen in the Columbia Metal Department is looking for a few hard-working, enthusiastic interns to help him out during these busy summer months. If you're interested, please call him at (212) 833-4989. You must receive college credit for your internship. Also, word from the Columbia offices is that Carcass and Life Of Agony will begin their co-headlining tour in Vancouver on July 16. Stay tuned for some tour dates...Futurist Records has signed Leeway (formerly on Profile Records). Look for a late summer/early fall release from the band. Sectorhas II-Futurist has brought aboard Splatter. Formerly known as Elvis Hitler, Splatter has only changed its name and label, not its band members. Keep our eyes peeled for an early September release... Gilby Clarke has recruited some of his old Guns N' Roses pals to help him out with his Virgin Records' debut release. The album features Slash, Duff and Axl of GN'R, Rob Affuso of Skid Row and many more. You should be receiving the album the latter part of July, but if you can't control your curiosity and longing to hear this rockin' album, call Chuck or Steph at (212) 586-7700 for an advance copy...Moonstone Records has once again received NAIRD's "Heavy Metal Album" of the year award for its Quiet Riot Terrified CD. Look for the band in your neighborhood as it heads out this summer to do several mini-tours...Leviathan studio news Joe Stump is currently in the studio recording the follow-up to his debut release, Guitar Dominance. The title of the new album will be Night Of The Living Shred. Look for a late 1994 release. David T. Chastain is in the studio working on a new vocal project. This will be David's first vocal oriented release since the highly acclaimed 1990 CD, For Those Who Dare. Simple Aggression is working on its follow-up to Formulations In Black, which won't hit the streets until 1995. Global Satellite Network's Rockline recently celebrated its 13th anniversary with the party of a lifetime. Guests included Slash of Guns N' Roses, Mike Inez of Alice In Chains, Klaus and Rudolph of the Scorpions, Kevin and Bardl of Candlebox, Paul Stanley of Kiss, Sass Jordan, Sammy Hagar, George Thorogood and Lars from Metallica...Not even the pouring rain could put a damper on this event, as 15,000 music fans stood in a downpour during the 90-minute Candlebox set during KISW's Rockstock '94. The sold-out event, which also featured Tool, Paw, Screamin' Cheetah Wheelies and Failure, raised over $10,000 for the Washington Music Industry Coalition, which is continuing its battle over censoship after successfully repealing Washington's ludicrous "erotic music" law last year.

HEY EVERYONE! PLEASE CONTINUE TO SEND ME ANY NEWS, TOUR DATES OR PICTURES YOU WOULD LIKE TO SEE IN ANY FUTURE ARGH!!! COLUMNS. MAIL OR FAX, ATTN. JENNI GLENN/METAL EDITOR/LOUD ROCK NEWS TO 11 MIDDLE NECK ROAD, STE. 400, GREAT NECK, NY 11021-2301/FAX: (516) 466-7159. THANKS!!

DIALOGUE

James Barnes, Epitaph Records, Hollywood, CA (213) 957-7555
Just a quick hello from my new post here at the underground punk label hall of fame. Yes, believe it or not, I have moved from my old stomping grounds, Capitol Records, to work the mindblowin' bands of Epitaph. Needless to say, I am beyond stoked to be a part of the team at this rowdy label. So, ahead we go with the OFFSPRING. Be a part of the fever that this band is giving out, literally blowing up everywhere. Don't wait to play this record or you will be missing the boat, and this boat is fuel injected and turbo charged. "Come Out And Play," "Self Esteem"...yes, yes, yes.
Also, the equally super charged NOFX, DOWN BY LAW and RANCID are in your face with new releases this month and tours for all later in the summer. Please call me and let me know what's up in your area, what you're into...Remember, we are an underground label, so it takes me awhile to get the manhole cover off to get to the phone. Later! James outta here.

Anya/Kristen/Joanne, AIM Marketing, Old Bridge, NJ (908) 679-9111 Ah...summertime! A time for fun, relaxation and erratic office hours! Please call us and let us know what's up. We're working really cool shit, so don't miss out! See

Jon Nardachone, Atlantic Records, New York, NY (212) 275-2135

Questions...Questions...Everyone's asking me the most bizarre questions..."What's the real title of the STP record?" "What color is Weiland's hair? "What does OVERKILL's 'W.F.O.' stand for?" "Did Alex Skolnick really join SAVATAGE?" C'mon people, this is common knowledge here! All you need to know is that STP's Purple is a big fat #1, and of course, that YOU REALLY NEED TO ADD Overkill's "Fast Junkie" if there is any bit of heaviosity in you at all!

Munsey Ricci, Skateboard Marketing Ltd., Valley Stream, NY (516) 328-1103

So, by now all of you had a killer taste of the WICKED MARAYA. It's an owesome record, besides they're local dudes from my neighborhood. We will be setting up phoners next week. DROWN was on the phones last week and they will be on the phones this week doing phone interviews. You know you love this record, so don't be dissin' it. The station liners for

DIALOGUE

Drown will be in your face this week or next. The DIO and LOVE/HATE tour is bringing in about 70% at all the shows. Both records continue to climb all the metal charts. If your station did not get giveaways, give me a call. FOR LOVE NOT LISA's single "Slip Slide Melting" on The Crow soundtrack is way cool. We're working on some special things for ya, you will be hearing about it this week. The SKATENIGS "Family Values" kit is in your bedroom by now. And I know you love this kit. Who else hits you with something so cool, whip and fly, dude. The full-length is in your CD player, do it. Arriving this week is the full length CYCLONE TEMPLE. The production on this record blows away the last record. Metal adds on July 20th & 21st. If you need giveaways, call me. Also coming is the HEADSTONES. Dig on this record, dude. It's got some really cool stuff on it. And I don't mean start licking the

Maria "Mom" Abril, Metal Blade Records, Simi Valley, CA (805) 522-9111

CD, dig on it big time. Cya.

Lovely, I can't believe you were 20 feet away from me and didn't know it. I won't get over this, but CANNIBAL CORPSE still ruled my world. They still do even though they're in the Midwest and so far away from me...sigh. "Staring Through The Eyes Of The Dead" was on Headbanger's again this weekend along with a GWAR walk-on and "Jack The World" video. Cool, eh? We at Metal Blade love proving over and over that ya don't have to be commercial to sell records, thank you. Gwar's "Saddam A Go Go" is your ticket to salvation, so work it, kids. The video premiers on MTV soon. SKREW's "Picasso Trigger" should be in everyone's Top 10, so what's the problem, doc? Take an enema and get a move on. Check out the video and I have tour dates, too. ADD DATES TO REMEMBERIII
July 27 and 28 for DESULTORY and MERCYFUL FATE. The Desultory track is "A Closing Eye." Coming in July are EPIDEMIC and FATES WARNING. Yes, you read it right...Fates Warning's new album titled Inside Out is out in July and the first single, "Outside Looking In," is practically staring you in the face. Be afraid. Be very afraid. On the road...Cannibal Corpse, Skrew, Gwar, THOUGHT INDUSTRY, CHEMLAB, BEATS THE HELL OUT OF ME, and at Milwaukee Metalfest are Cannibal Corpse, BROKEN HOPE, Skrew and Epidemic. Face it, Metal Blade is harder than you, jerkyl

Roger Ganley, WOBC, Oberlin, OH (216) 467-4594

It was great seeing all you industry types at the McGathy Party. I would like to send special thanks to Lauren at Concrete and Phil at McGathy for being super cool to us Clevelanders and buying us dinner. My summer office hours are M,W,F 11a.m.-2p.m. For the summer of '94, we have eight metal shows with 16 hours of metal programming all located in the 6-10 p.m. slots. Are you playing the COUNT RAVEN CD, Destruction Of The Void? If not, you should be. Remember, your radio show is supposed to be metal and not filled with all this alternative stuff they are passing off as metol. STOP DESTROYING THE METAL FORMATII Just heard that the original line-up of Raven is back together. The pack is back! See you at the Milwaukee Metalfest at the Eagles Auditorium on July 30

Cheryl Valentine, Epic Records, New York, NY (212) 833-5987

SUICIDAL TENDENCIES!! New single, new album, hefty ass tour! We want the whole world to be Suicidal and you can help us get there! Let's all become Suicidal now. MOTHERLAND's full album, Peace 4 Me, should be in your disc player as we speak. Folks have segued them with anything from SEPULTURA to Life Of Agony and it gets a great response. Check out "Peace 4 Me," "Let Me In" and "Last Words." Sepultura are back in the States and on tour with Pantera all summer. Tell all your friends to pack up the picnic supplies and beer, cuz it's show time with one of the best live bands ever. PRONG are in Europe converting the masses. They'll be back our way for their portion (eight weeks) of the Sepultura/Pantera tour, so get your tickets now. "Whose Fist..." is the single, Prong is the band. Make sure you check out the B-side ("Anger") off of the new single from THE POOR, "Tell Someone Who Cares." It's a lovely little tale laden with various profanities, so be careful. It wails, as does The Poor on tour with the Scorpions! INFECTIOUS GROOVES will have a new single for "Cousin Randy" on July 20 & 21, which will include, yes, an edit. They will be back on tour, so keep 'em in ultra-heavy rotation and be sure to put in your entry for Concrete's Creepy Cousin contest. ALICE COOPER's new album will be out on July 121 Yeah! Then you can understand the concept in its entirety and be as juiced as I am over The Last Temptation. The comic book is awesome wait 'til you see it! You have a three-song sampler of my new band, MOTHER TONGUE. If you blast it and give it your undivided attention, you'll know why I love this band so much. The McGathy Party was a complete blast! Thanks oodles to the McGathy clan for all of their hospitality and one of the sickest porties of the year yet againl

Sue Stillwagon, Zoo Entertainment, Hollywood, CA (213) 468-4225

4.1 aftershock, Rangers win The Cup, Vancouver riots, evidence builds against O.J. Simpson...all this in one day! Could it get any worse? Let's hope we have to wait another 54 years to find out. Coming in July: VARGA "Freeze, Don't Move," COURSE OF EMPIRE "White Vision Blowout" and KILLING JOKE "Millenium.

Meg MacRae/Kevin Reilly, Earache Records, New York, NY (212) 343-9090

So, let's talk about flowers, fruit and Sexual Chocolate? No, no, no...that's A.C., that I mean. It's make or breok, do or die. So do it! Our famed noise-meisters are creating a swirling mass of fear, loathing and despair. "Do we have to play this?!"—YESI "Do we have to like it?"—isn't that the point? Put aside your fears of an afterlife of simultaneous ice and fire and show your favorite deity what you think of him. Damn your disc player with A.C.I! And while you're at it, condemn yourself by pressing on through this century's end with the sounds of PITCH SHIFTER (punks with occasional shaving problems?), DISGUST (punks with an identity crisis?) and if we live long enough, SCORN. Gosh, it's getting hot in here. Satan's minions, BOLT THROWER, are rumored to be resurfacing at this year's Milwaukee Metalfest. Will A.C. hear our cries of distress and lend their powerpacked punch (as chaotic as it may be) to save the day? Tune in next week. Same bleeding channel, same bloody day. 'Til next time, folks.

Chuckie Metal, Virgin Records, New York, NY (212) 586-7700

The ROLLING STONES...how fucking cool. I get to deliver their new record to college radio. Their new album is total "old school" Stones. You know, the sound that every band rips off daily. Virgin has the real deal. Call me up for a taste of the new record. GILBY CLARKE's (from Guns N' Roses) first single from his solo debut on Virgin ships real soon. "Cure Me Or Kill Me" is a full-on, guitar ripper. Call me for advance tapes. Have you seen the new "Rocket" video on MTV? We signed BODY COUNTI Ice T. Imagine working for a label that has SMASHING PUMPKINS, LENNY KRAVITZ, the Rolling Stones, CRACKER, THE VERVE, Gilby and many more. Virgin destroys! Now go out and help your dad mow the lawn! You Voodoo Jesus Freaks! Thanks! Call me when you need anything.

Greg Derbas, Pavement Music, Oakbrook Terrace, IL (708) 916-1155

Yea, so the Rangers won The Cup, big deal. While watching the game at a local watering hole, I actually got to interview on British TV. Some questions about World Cup Soccer, like I care. It couldn't be half as exciting as the new FEAR OF GOD record, Toxic Voodoo. Everyone should have gotten this record early, so no one should be saying, "I haven't had a chance to listen yet." Going for adds TODAY, right NOW. Their first appearance will be at Milwaukee Metalfest for all the folk that are going to be headbangin' in cheese town. Also, at the fest is the lang-awaited SOLITUDE AETURNUS and DEMENTED TED. Fear Of God will headline this August with STRESSBALL and HEADLOCK as show openers. Who's Headlock? You'll find out. This fall, you'll be begging me for passes and giveaways. Interviews for F.O.G. to start in July.

E.J. Johantgen, Columbia Records, New York, NY (212) 833-4989

And the summer's just beginning...Blood! Murder! Satan! Footboll! Never a dull moment. NAPALM DEATH. The plague rages across Americal STABBING WESTWARD is getting bigger and bigger. On tour with Kyuss soon. GODFLESH is adding July 11 and 12. Taking Beantown's rock 'n' roll heritage to another new level, STOMPBOX turned in one hell of a performance at the Paradise last week in Boston. And, as always, peace, love and vegetable rights.

Michael J. Schnapp, EMI Records, New York, NY (212) 492-1812

Here's the continuing adventures of "NYC Cabbies Of Doom," but first, this commercial message: Play MUTHA'S DAY OUT, My Soul Is Wet. Add Mutha's Day Out, My Soul Is Wet. Play Mutha's Day Out, My Soul Is Wet. Add Mutha's Day Out, My Soul Is Wet. Add Mutha's Day Out, My Soul Is Wet. Play Mutha's Day Out, My Soul Is Wet. Play Mutha's Day Out, My Soul Is Wet...and now, back to "NYC Cabbies Of Doom"...My last cab ride was "Taxi Terror!" As the cab sped down the minefield-like streets of New York at trecherous speeds, holding on for life and limb, I asked the cabby, "What's the hurry?" "I'm in hurry, yes, I'm in hurry! A hurry to add Mutha's Day Out My Soul Is Wet. I want to do the Schnappy thing and add it! Yes, add it and play it, yes! Yes!" But, the question is, "Is tipping considered payola?" Keep the change.

David T., Leviathan Records, Atlanta, GA (404) 463-1009 Check out the great article on IMPERIUM in the new

Check out the great article on IMPERIUM in the new Hit Parader magazine. Pretty cool! The band is still having success at radio and we keep getting calls from stations that dian't even receive the CD yet. If somehow we missed you on this, give us a call. You don't want to be left out on this release.

Wayne Pighini, Earache Records, New York, NY (212) 343-9090

For those of you who have been living in a bubble, I am Wayne and I have the most difficult task of replacing Dan Mitchell as the retail guru here at Earache. Give me a call and say hill like to think of myself as sorta nice, so go ahead and give it a try. Now, let's talk music...New A.C. is out on July 7th. The boys from Boston cannot be controlled. Everyone Should Be Killed will be a huge smash for those underground lovers. If you think you've seen it all at the local concert hall, then you definitely haven't seen Anal Cunt do their live thing. Seth always has surprises in store for the crowd. There are 58 bursts of noise on this baby, so if you need anything (posters, tapes) call me! DISGUST will calm the savage beast in all punk worshippers. Their debut LP, Brutality Of War, is for anyone into bands like Napalm Death, Entombed or Pearl Jam (just kidding!). This beauty features members of Discharge and Blitz! That should give you an idea of what you are in for. Call me about reissues and I also have some cool 7's coming in the summer for those carrying cool vinyl. By the time you all read this, I may not be here anymore...Rangers vs. Canucks, game 7 But if they win...ooooooohhhhhhh! Phat! My Sox are strugglin'l

With the coming of summer, the temperature isn't the only thing sizzling. New releases and preview tapes, brand-new offerings and reissues, are piling up like dishes on my desk, so here's a brief cleanup, er, rundown of some tasty stuff. Alex Merck Music (156 5th Ave., Suite 408, New York, NY 10010/212-807-9707), which issues fusion/funk on its Lipstick label and straight-ahead jazz on Jazzline, has come out with two fine platters on the latter. Drummer CAROLA GREY displays aptitude and attitude (streetwise boldness) in equal measure on Noisy Mama, an energetic straight-ahead date with a raw, edgy urban perspective. The leader, who is closely attuned to the tonal possibilities of the skins, powers a group of players who respond splendidly to her aggression. Ripsaw tenorman Craig Handy, trumpeter Ralph Alessi, pianist Mike Cain and bassist Lonnie Plaxico aren't the least bit cowed by Grey's extroverted direction. Grey exhibits a sure feel for swing, with admirable hand-speed, and, also to her credit, she steers clear of false drama. A nice surprise. Tenor saxist BILL SAXTON, an inside-outside player seemingly caught in the Lost Generation Syndrome (he's too old to be young, too young to be old), returns with a vengeonce and a varied program on ATYMONY (And The Young Musicions Of New York). With the proper promotion and some choice gigs in New York, Saxton should regain some rightful visibility ATYMONY, a studio recording from Germany, finds Saxton's foursome (Carlos McKinney, Piano; Omar Avital, bass; Noel Parris, drums) in peak form, captured while on tour of Europe. Saxton manifests both control and tonal subtleties on a variety of woodwinds (clarinet and flute besides tenor, alto and soprano saxes), and by linking up with a young-blood band, he pulls off a nifty if-youcan't-beat'em-join'em coup without diminishing his own originality and devotion to swing one iota. Touche! The leader's six originals (especially the blistering 3:45 "Pyramid Power") provide many programming opportunities for jocks whose taste run to deep-toned tenors and hard-driving swing; the late tenorman Clifford Jordan's "Bearcat" and the Ellington ballad "In A Sentimental Mood" (a bit longish at 7:48 but a sterling vehicle for Saxton's soprano) are also eminently play-worthy. Nice job... Speaking of tenormen, the up-and-coming NED OTTER is about to issue his second, selfproduced effort as a leader, The Right To Know. The New York-based Otter, schooled by fellow tenorman George Coleman, penned five of the eight compositions and welcomes back on this unflinchingly straight-ahead date most of the players who contributed so strongly to his debut, Focus. Trumpeter Tom Kirkpatrick, pianist Harold Mabern and drummer Billy Higgins are back in the fold, and this time Coleman, aptly nicknamed "The Chief," also does some bravura blowing. (Available from Nelson Otter Productions, 165 Christopher St., #6-J, New York, NY 10014/212-243-6512.)... The underappreciated pianist

The top five are fairly stable, as Verve-PG's Roy Hargrove Quintet maintains a commanding lead over Novus-RCA's Maceo Parker (2-2), and Gramavision's Ray Anderson (5-3) trades spots with Verve-PG's Charlie Haden Quartet West (3-5). The big news this week is six debuts: Trevor Watts Moire Drum Orchestra on ECM (#24), pianist Tommy Flanagan's Enja tribute to composer/trumpeter Thad Jones (#20), Columbia's Black/Note (#18) and Horace Silver (#17), the World Saxophone Quartet's Black Saint import (#15) and Mose Allison on Discovery (#13). The highest ascent was made by the Paul Motian Trio on JMT/Verve-PG, climbing 13 spots (19-6). Reporters, take note that the World Saxophone Quartet has two current albums; please be sure to specify which one you are reporting. (JAZZ REPORTS PRINTED AFTER TOP 35 REPORTS)

HAROLD MABERN's star is sure to rise after Aug. 9, when DIW/Columbia issues The Leading Man. "Mabe" or "Big Hands," as this Memphis-bred master is known, brings surging dynamism, an encyclopedic command of the Great American Songbook, and surpassing lyricism to bear on this outing, which teams him with drummer Jack Dejohnette and bassist Ron Carter or Christian McBride. Alto saxman Bill Easley, trumpeter Bill Mobley and guitarist Kevin Eubanks guest on various numbers... ROB BARGAD, a mainstay in hard-bopper Nat Adderley's band for the past four years, brings his compelling pianistry to the foreground on his debut as a leader, Better Times (Criss Cross (Dutch import) Postbox 1214, 7500 BE Enschede, Holland), a sextet title boasting a durable infrastructure (courtesy of bassist Peter Washington, drummer Billy Drummond and percussionist Daniel Sadownick) on which soloists Eddie Henderson (trumpet) and Steve Wilson (alto and soprano) cruise to fine advantage. Bargad, who studied with Kenny Barron at Rutgers, composed seven of the 10 songs on this 59-minute DDD production, which, coming as it does from the critically esteemed Criss Cross, is likely to shed additional light on the leader's already luminous approach...Fans of Herbie Hancock, and they are legion, are encouraged to seek out the solo recital Love

Locked Out (Mapleshade Productions, 2301 Crain Highway, Upper Marlboro, MD 20772/301-627-0525), from the eminent pianist CHRIS
ANDERSON, a wonderful player best known as Hancock's one-time instructor. Love Locked Out, according to the notes, features a "reclusive, blind and crippled" pianist. That Anderson may be, but he's also gifted, graceful and great. Anderson's duet with saxist Clifford Jordan, now sadly deceased, is expected to be issued by Mapleshade in the near future... New World Records (701 7th Ave., New York, NY 10036/212-302-0460), a company that has distinguished itself with highly progressive, (sometimes far) left-of-center acoustic jazz, has put out a CD by alto saxist ED JACKSON that, while multifaceted and somewhat daring, should be palatable to virtually all straight-ahead mavens. Highly regarded for his work with the Roy Haynes Quartet and the 29th Street Saxophone Quartet, Jackson has fashioned an octet (five horns plus three rhythm) that swings gleefully, logically and imaginatively. The first track on this welcome 70-minute CD, Thelonious Monk's "Played Twice," boasts all five horns in a circular pattern that even the iconoclastic Monk would have admired. Sure-handed swing, combined with harmonies that span the entire light-to-dark spectrum, infuses a CD that melds abstraction with a solid structure. Exceptional.

PLANET AFRICA REVISITED

This is the summer of the big-name-returned, and with Yaussou N'Dour poking around for a spot in the Top 40. So it is with joy and pleasure that I can offer you same splendid alternatives from all around Africa.

Back in 1989, Illinois record store owner turned African concert promoter Bab Diener met and befriended Zimbabwe's king of chimurenga, Thomas Mapfumo. At Mapfumo's invitation, he visited Zimbabwe in 1991 and 1992, and the two of them decided to release albums in the U.S. on a new label, dubbed Zimbob (P.O. 2421, Champaign, IL 61825/217-344-6878). The already-recorded Hondo was released by Zimbob in 1993, and now we have a new album by THOMAS MAPFUMO & THE BLACKS UNLIMITED that ranks among the summer's best records. Vanhu Vatema (Black People) follows Mapfuma's well-worn formula, pitting the rhythms of the mbira against and pairing them with the electric guitars and kit drums in a continuous flow of music and message. Mapfumo has spent two African concert promoter Bab Diener met and of music and message. Mapfumo has spent two of music and message. Maptumo has spent two decades bringing the sounds and voices of the Shona people to the world, taking in soukous, reggae and other "world beat" ideas, but making them uniquely Zimbabwean. His revolutionary, and post-revolutionary, messages have fueled political resistance and fought for change, in a music so danceable it's amazing it has so much to say. Such is the way of much great African music, sa dance to the sparkling "Ndakura," and the incessant jump and jive of "Ndinotenda."

KING SUNNY ADÉ AND THE NEW AFRICAN BEATS have been captured Live At The Hollywood Palace (I.R.S., 594 Broadway, Ste. 901, New York, NY 10012/212.334-2179) in a jumping new set of high energy juiu and pop. All the drummers, all the guitars, and all thase voices guarantee a good time, and they deliver to the max. In a dozen Paris-London-NYC studio recordings there isn't as much energy as there is in just one of Sunny Adé's opening guitar phrases. Add Sunday John Akpan's second lead, Remi Abegunde's sliding and soaring bass lines, and drums of every size and description, and there is nothing stopping this party. The rhythms glide, build, soar and stop, then take off again in a continual flow of sinew and sweat. The recommended cut of the album has to be "Majo," a seven-minute feast of all that is great about music, which boasts hard rhythms, sweet melody and pure energy, and then segues into a "Talking Drum" solo that refines and defines it all.

There are also some less familiar names to KING SUNNY ADÉ AND THE NEW Drum" solo that refines and defines it all.

There are also some less familiar names to reckon with. Senegalese kora player VIEUX

DIOP takes the heart of west Africa into both new and all too familiar territory on Deesso (Alebrije, P.O. 3247, Hoboken, NJ 07030/201-656-7861). Here is a textbook case against synth drums and programs. The record starts in magnificent form on "M'beguel," a rich collection of balafon, drums and harp, sung in Woloff in Diop's splendid voice. "Alin-Si-Iowe" is a story song from Bambara folklore, and the interplay between the acoustic instruments is again a marvelous, sinuous blend. "Bamaba" adds keyboards and saxophones to the voice/kora mix in a lush piece not unlike some of Salif Keita's best new work. It is powerful

ON THE CHART

RealWorld-Caroline's Shella Chandra retains her hold upon our #1 spot for the second straight week, with Luaka Bop-WB's Zap Mama moving swiftly into second place (3-2). Zap Mama's last one topped the charts, so we'll be watching this competition closely. "Soul Makossa" man Manu Dibango debuts his new Giant-WB album this week, bowing in impressively at #4 after just missing the chart by a hair last week. Next on our debut-to-watch list, we find Black Uhuru's Mesa-Mesa/Bluemoon CD Strongg, debuting at #6 (we're waiting for the next chance to interview them, to ask them what the extra "g" is for). Among the many records jockeying for better positions this week, RealWorld-Caroline's Nusrat Fateh Ali Khan & Party bounce back impressively, moving 16-8 in their 10th week on the chart, while Ladysmith Black Mambazo's Shanachie outing moves up 12-7. And way, way down on our chart we have two more debuts not to be overlooked: Heartbeat's More Hottest Hits From Treasure Isle (#21 debut) and Milan's Raise The Red Lantern soundtrack, coming on board at #23. (NEW WORLD MUSIC REPORTS PRINTED AFTER TOP 35) contemporary roots music. "Tiere" welds the Senegalese groove to a nice bluesy guitar riff and makes it modern without losing its ancient sight. But there is a stiff, programmed side to this album that emulates N'Dour's hit-seeking-missile approach, and a few tracks, such as "Sutura," are stiff and unsatisfying in the extreme. Most of this recording is highly recammended, with tastes of Brazil and the Caribbean tossed lightly into the mix, so keep your ears open.

the Caribbean tossed lightly into the mix, so keep your ears open.

Of course, all my bitching about programmed drums and synths can be rendered moot by a voice like that of MADILU SYSTEM. Fans of Franco's T.P.O.K. Jazz band will know his voice, as melodious as a bird in the forest of Zaire, a thick, honeyed sound that bows to no amount of synthoid noodling (and believe me, they try on this production). Sans Commentaire (Stern's, 598 Broadway, New York, NY 10012/212-925-1648) is all about his voice, and it is such a marvelous instrument that the tracks of this Sylla-produced recording almost drift into the backgraund at times, instrument that the tracks of this Sylla-produced recording almost drift into the background at times, occasionally pulled to the forefront by the sassy guitar licks of Syran M'Benza and a chorus that includes Shimita, Wuta Mayi and Djeffard Lukombo. Le Grand Maitre's spirit invades this record at every turn (check some of M'Benza's salos), but it never overshadows Madilu System, who is destined to be one of Franco's chief inheritors. This is soukous of the most pap, not the rumba of the master, but it is the voice that makes rumba of the master, but it is the voice that makes the music, and this voice is among the best.

Two years ago I discovered the African connection in Finland via Hasse Walli and Asamaan (Olarin Musikki Oy, PL 20, 02211 Espoo, Finland). This week, via the Internet, I came upon the Stockholm cannection in the body of MAKONDE, a big band of Scandinavian and MAKONDE, a big band of Scandinavian and African musicians with roots in the Ugandan heritage of the band's leader, vocalist and bass player Sammy Kasule. Joined by a cast from Sweden, Zaire, Gambia and beyond, Makonde is a slick, pop-oriented band with a tough sound and a rock-solid percussive groove. The group leans heovily on an Afro-Cuban and soukous foundation, some tasty/nasty electric guitars adding some edge to the sweeter west African taste. There is also the warm vaice of Marianne N'lemvo to make this record even finer. Ba-Makonde (Rub-A-Dub, Tjårhovsgatan 44, 116 29 Stockholm, Sweden/fax: 46-8-714-9179; e-mail: perre@skom.se) is a swirl of rhythms, honest and true to the roots, yet open to the rhythms, honest and true to the roots, yet open to the sounds of the band's European home and the rest of the world.

Coming soon will be the much heralded YOUSSOU N'DOUR (Chaos), some great new tracks from I.K. DAIRO M.B.E. & HIS BLUE SPOTS (Green Linnet), and a substantial tour of the world in a six-CD set titled The World Of Traditional Music (Ocora-Harmonia Mundi). As you read this I'll be winging my way back to Finland, so don't expect me to return your important phone calls. But I will be reading my e-mail, so try me in the computer aether.

JACKPOT!

FELIX 'DA HOUSECAT "Thee Morning After" (12") (Reload, c/o Big Time International, Belgium/9225-2816) and SHARKMAXX "Clashback" (12") (Soma, Scotland/41-331-1477)—Well, the prodigious young producer Felix Stallings (a k a Felix 'Da Housecat) is gaing from strength to strength. His visibility was dramatically increased by the still massive "Thee Lite" by Aphrohead from last year, but he's been tailing away in Chicago for nigh on seven years, even creating the acid garage of Pierre's Phantasy Club in 1987. But he's na retro artist. With the call going out for deep trance, Stallings can whip up grinding epics which have their heart (and lungs) on the dancefloor. Listening to the warbling, serpentine bass undulations af these two singles, you'll realize why Stallings' tracks sound like three-day house parties the cops just can't seem to break up. These tracks are truly trance for the dance. Though the underpinnings of Felix 'Da Housecat's music are stylistically indebted to the stripped down Chicago sound, he constructs floors of sound and follows each idea down an unexplored hallway, bass trembling and explosions rumbling in the distance, then suddenly in the foreground. Felix 'Da Housecat is a producer to watch closely.

NEW YORK INDEPENDENTS

Count on New York to keep everyone on his toes with at least two records a week that justify the dance mythology of the city. The peerless folks in Smack Productions, who, along with the Mentalinstrum crew, are the best East Coast producers of any stripe, contribute two immaculate mixes to SPRING's "Independence," which leaps like a salmon in season. The way the Smack folks can increase the bass line tension 'til you think it'll snap is exemplary, and makes so many lesser producers seem almost complacent. "Smack That Dub" just coasts above the surface like a hovercraft, with the occasional vocal snippet darting through the mix. Smack Productions' tracks grip you instantly and don't let go (Nott-Us, 801 2nd Ave. Ste. 303, New York, NY 10017)...The sadly defunct Shelter club in Manhattan was once host to some of the deepest house in the Western hemisphere. Fortunately, its in-house label is going well, judging by the Eclectic EP by T. SOLOMON. This is the sort of deep Shelter bass aerobics we've come to knaw and love. The four tracks here have an aesthetic not unlike the interior of the Sound Factory; like that club, with its stark, unadorned design, constructed for the hardcore to dance 'til 10 a.m., this EP is shorn of all accoutrements, stripped of everything except a groove like the Concorde. These tracks were made to dance to. End of stary (Shelter, New York, NY /914-358-7397).

PLUS, ALSO, TOO

I've mentioned the illustrious Woody McBride here before, and I will again. From a city better known for Prince and Jimmy Jam and Terry Lewis, McBride's Drop Bass Network has established itself as the one of the most aggressive hard acid labels in the Midwest. But fortunately, his efforts are far from the garden variety testosterone-overdose techno so predaminant right now. The label's strongest release to date is the furious "Phase Two" (12") by ASTROCAT (pseudonym of Jordan

ON THE CHART

The hardy Future Sound Of London remains at the top of the chart after only three weeks in the top 25. Waveform's ambient compilation, One A.O., moves up two places to #2. This label is the U.S. branch of the U.K. Beyond label. Opus III makes a massive jump (15-5) this week with its debut full-length for EastWest America. Elsewhere, New York DJ Keoki's collection of tracks for Moonshine makes its debut at #17 and

Ultimate Life Experience on Sabam enters the chart at #19. Crystal Waters' second LP for Mercury, produced by the venerable Basement Boys, debuts at #23, and finally Astralwerks-Caroline's fourth Technomancer comp arrives at #25. The compilation count this week (lowest to date): five. (RPM REPORTS PRINTED AFTER TOP 35 REPORTS)

Trais). The Roland TB-303 has become a near cliché in many techno circles, and in the wrong hands, it can still sound dreadfully antiseptic. McBride's callective, however, is one of the few practitioners that can still wring tidal waves of utter kinetic madness from the instrument (Drop Bass Network, 1654 N. Jackson, Milwaukee, WI 53202/phone/fax: 414-224-5343)...The brilliant yet totally overlooked PAUL JOHNSON has just created four sides of vinyl packed with more ideas than many producers have in an entire career. The expansive "Psycho Kong" double 12" is some of the best music in Johnson's four-year career. Warking around a remix of his frantic "Donkey Kong," he expands the minimalist analog vocabulary in surprising ways. Fascination with video games is an enduring feature of African-American electronic music, first made manifest on Bobby Robinson's 1980 electro-funk pounder "I'm The Packman" by the Packman, and its subsequent slew of imitators. So Johnson's incorporation of the other-worldly effects of "Donkey Kong" into a jackhammer drum track should come as no surprise. One of the other tracks of merit here is the gently menacing "The Birds" with its cut-short, slippery synth chords and elliptical bass line. Tremendous (Djax, P.O. Box 2408, 5600 CK Eindhoven, Netherlands/40-450434)...Finally, a quick mention the superb Da Soul Revival EP by TYREE, a figure long absent fram the U.S. dance underground. The remix of the classic "Acid Crash" is well worth the purchase price, but the incinerating "Git It Right" is the real standout, with skipping, maniacal percussion and thick jazz stabs (Dance Mania, c/o Barney's, 3400 W. Ogden, Chicago, IL 60623/312-521-6300).

Tim Haslett, 65 Leighton Road, Wellesley, MA 02181/Voice Mail: 617-764-6741/Fax: 617-237-4730 (8 a.m.-11 p.m. EST only).

SOUNDGARDEN "Black Hole Sun" (A&M, 1416 N. LaBrea Ave., Hollywood, CA

90028)—As Soundgarden has evolved over the course of its four albums, the band has continued to keep its original day fans in close tow, even as it gradually brings new elements to its unmistakable sound. "Black Hole Sun" is a relative departure in form for Soundgarden, throwing in more big "rock" hooks than shredding riffs, but it still retains a subtle might that'll keep legions of fans coming back for more. Similarly, the song's video is a step away from the weighty imagery of, say, "Jesus Christ Pose, looking something like a cross between David Lynch's humorous surrealism and a segment from Twilight Zone The Movie, Peopled with bizarre scenes from American suburbia, "Black Hole Sun" succeeds by letting its sometimes funny, sometimes disturbing array of cartoon-like images carry the song way beyond direct interpretation into the realm of over-the-top exaggeration while adding a smirking nod to the band's own popularity. (CH)

MC 900 FT JESUS "If I Only Had A Brain" (american, 3500 W. Olive Ave., #1550, Burbank, CA 91505)—No, this is not the DJ hyper-remix of the Harold Arlen sing-along classic from The Wizard Of Oz, it's the surprisingly different lead single from MC 900 Ft Jesus. Director Spike Jonez (Breeders, Sonic Youth, Beasties) scores again with this dim-witted tale of a brainless boy who mails himself away in a cardboard box to get a new brain. The clip has enough silliness, camera mugging and visual jokes to pass for the latest from DJ Jazzy Jeff & The Fresh Prince. The box tumbles recklessly about town, out of windows, down punishing staircases, from moving vehicles, etc. Inside the box, MC 900 Ft Jesus doesn't seem bothered one bit by all the bouncing around, a stance bolstering the clip's "ignorance is bliss" theme. The groovier, trippier beats he's using help keep the clip goofy, making for good, nonsensical entertainment. (SC)

PANTERA "5 Minutes Alone" (EastWest America, 75 Rockefeller Plaza, New York, NY 10019)—With a band as sonically annihilating as Pantera, a video of performance footage just wouldn't do justice to the intense punishment these guys inflict on their instruments. Enter "5 Minutes Alone," which focuses more on those brutal pluckings and smashings that provide the band's wallop than on the typical posturing that goes along with music this heavy. Like the eye of a microscope, the camera careens down the neck of a Pantera guitar, following the bending and wriggling strings that produce the jarring riffs and notes of the gods and watches as the drummer's stick and fist approach their target in the cymbal's reflection, helplessly preparing for the shuddering blow. These detailed shots of the band's power keep the viewer focused on what is actually a fairly long video. (CH)

RONNY JORDAN "Under Your Spell" (4th & B'way, c/o Island, 400 Lafayette St., New York, NY 10003/212-995-7800)-Before you say "Hey, this guy's ripping off US 31"—Ronny Jordan has been mixing smooth rap and soul beats with his be-boppin' jazz tones for a few years now. This latest single from the English guitarist (and erstwhile Guru sideman) features the mellow patter of Truth Anthony mixed with the equally smooth and mellow voice of Fay Simpson. The video is a joy to look at; shots of deep, dark tones are cooled off by shots of icy blue, black and white. "Under Your Spell," has some sweet little pop/soul hooks in it that should help keep the focus on one of music's most significant (yet relatively unknown) innovators. (SC)

SURGERY "Off The A List" (Atlantic, 75 Rockefeller Plaza, New York, NY 10019)-

With all the '70s blues and Southern rock influences creeping around Surgery's latest album Shimmer, the band had to do something to reclaim its place in Manhattan's Lower East Side noise scene from which it emerged a few years back. What better way than to film your latest video on the streets and in the clubs and practice spaces that birthed your sound in the first place? Though simple in its scope, "Off The A List" is Surgery's visual tribute to the New York City toughness of its sound, offering glimpses into the graffiti-ed holes and neon-bathed environments that breeds the city's music scene. RECORD COMPANY

Todd Heinz, Nettwerk Records, New York, NY (212) 979-0745

Hi. You will soon have some weird piano punk from ITCH. So watch for it. Shortly thereafter you will see some stuff from DELERIUM, BRAIN-BOX and SINGLE GUN THEORY.

P.O.W.E.R. & PAPA BRITTLE should already be there, if you don't got 'em you got a problem. I'd like to thank the CMJ employee who informed me in the response to my last Dialogue that pledging WFMU during their fund drive does not earn me any, uh, "brownie points" as far as CMJ is concerned. I guess I shouldn't have put that on my expense account then. Boy, do I have some explaining to do to my bosses (for those of you who are still confused, when I write my Dialogues I occasionally employ a communications technique known as "sarcasm." Webster's defines sarcasm as "A taunting or contemptuously ironic remark." Sarcastic remarks are generally not intended to be taken literally. You should all try sarcasm, it's easy to use and it's gobs of fun.) E mail: nettwerk@phantom.com.

Adam J. Pollock, Polygram Label Group, New York, NY (212) 603-3942

I'm going to Jamaica this weekend, so I really don't have much on my mind besides what SPF I need, however...I heard the Tindersticks were fabulous at the Mercury Lounge on Saturday—big buzz on this Bar/None band. The MEAT PUPPETS rocked the McGathy bash and Bar Bat the week prior, they'll be back in late July for a date with STP. We've got the new PULP and JAH WOBBLE albums hitting the street this week, with PUBLIC ENEMY scheduled in July (PLG has Def Jam now, a very cool thing). August is gonna be huge, with WOOL, CONSOLIDATED, GRAYEDIGGAZ and MARIANNE FAITH-FUL all coming out with new material. Cool new local New York band I heard recently, Bender—till next time when I'm tanned.

Nelson Wells, Radio Schmuck, Revolution Promotion Management, Athens, GA (706) 548-6007

Hello and greetings from Athens again, folks. What to talk about...For starters, SCHWA (yes, the one and only Schwa from Richmond, VA) has changed their name to FASHION CENTRAL and will release its next effort, a fabulous 7", on spinART. Look out for it and add it soon! Also, for all of you LAY QUIET AWHILE fans out there, vocalist/stylist DANIELLE HOWLE has just released a "single" treat herself, with the help of those great folks at Simple Machines! Catch Danielle with the band opening select shows for the beloved Indigo Girls (what a team!)—The Radio City Music Hall show in New York this Wed. the 29th should be a blast! Go EARLY!!! Next, a small number of you will receive Grandmother's Tea Leaves, the newest and most heart-warming record from San Francisco's EMILY BEZAR. Listen to this one and you may find new meaning for the word "ethereal." WOW!! OK two more: First, the DROVERS new EP, Kill Mice Elf, is out there and tearing up some new ground—thanks to all of you who are making this record happen! Last, but far from least, Halo On The Dead Man is the debut LP from HUNDRED YEAR SUN (where were these guys when SST and Sub Pop were stacking their rosters? Augusta, GA?!!), and, for those of you who like JAMES HALL, it should prove to be a gem in and of itself. Listen for surell Until next time, take care and call us (Teri or myself) soon!

Dan Mackta, Autotonic, New York, NY (212) 260-3389

every week, which I will be calling in from the beach house. The stuff: GRIFTERS Crappin' You Negative (Shangri-La)—third album from these Memphis good ole boys. You've got a CD or perhaps LP vinyl. They're touring a lot of the U.S. this summer. Also touring with the Softees (w/Rose Melberg, ex-Tiger Trap) are CRAYON, from Bellingham, WA. Please don't forget their new CD on Harriet Records, Brick Factory. We're also bringing you Bee Thousand, the new LP from GUIDED BY VOICES on Scat Records, manufactured and distributed by Matador. Please don't bother the bull fightersit's us you want to talk to if you're a radio person or press-type. Another escapee from our prison-SOME VELVET SIDEWALK Whirlpool (K). Their third album, produced by Steve Fisk. Don't forget the compilation A Day In The Park (Now Sound) or the JENNYANYKIND CD on No. 6 Records. Coming soon: COBRA VERDE Viva La Muerte (Scat)—pure rock power, kids, no foolin', ex-Death Of Samantha people, doing some Insects Of Rock dates with GBV; FIFTH COLUMN 36C (K)—a new record from these outspoken Toronto alterna-dykes; plus, of course, you bet there's a lot more. Call us at the beach house, babe.

Christine "Production Queen" Burrell, Alias Records, Burbank, CA (818) 566-1034

Well, it certainly has been awhile since I last addressed my public. I guess the biggest piece of news other than my new-found love is our new band. They're called KNAPSACK and they have one of the five best drummers I've eve stood near, including they guy from Wings (go Jet). They're from Davis, CA, and have only one on Goldenrod Records out of San Diego. Check them out at NMS this fall with the release of a 7"/CD3 thing-a-majig right here on ol' Alias. Also, that damn Arthur Lee/Love Tribute is finally off my desk and out to you. If you believe in Karma, this record should be huge. Word is Lee is on tour this summer. Check it out. Also, ARCHERS OF LOAF will be touring VA, PA, NC, AL, FL & LA in the next few weeks. Look for them with the Lemonheads as well as alone. You suck if you don't like them. Why aren't the Barnabys, Gigolo Aunts, Silkworm & Lilys huge? How about that Bedhead, Helium EP and Portastatic? Also, I just heard TOMMY KEENE'S new four-track demos and some big, fat, rich, sweaty major should snatch him up and make him a big star. By the time you read this you will have tired of hearing about how awesome our party was. Gotta go. It's tanning season.

Seth Goldman, Head Honcho, Goldman Management Group, New York, NY (718) 377-7905

First, I want to tell everyone that Susan White is our new director of college radio promotions. Call and say hello, before she calls you. Second, KENNY YOUNG AND THE EGGPLANTS, Kenny Young And The Eggplants, Kenny Young And The Eggplants. This Quixotic Records trio is in heavy rotation on a number of stations. Some DJ's have been playing the band's "Randolph Got A Haircut" immediately after Pavement's "Cut Your Hair"—perfect for those bad hair days! If you haven't gotten their single, call, call, call immediately. We are watching the charts and have a special gift for all music directors on whose stations they chart. We guarantee that this gift is valued at under $1.00! Now isn't that a better incentive than you've been getting from other promoters? We are setting up a fall tour after the band returns from their U.K. concerts in August and September. Look for Kenny Young And The Eggplants from Chicago to NYC in October. Yes! They want to do live radio and promos for every date. (They've been on WFMU, WNYU and WDST last month.) Stay cool this summer.

Chris Stimer, Geil Publishing, Chicago, IL (312) 942-0530

Many requests for all the requests for SLAPSHOT Live At SO36. I told you it would kick your ass.
Check out "Back On The Map" and "Chip On My Shoulder." I have a few copies of Live At SO36left, so call if you have not gotten one. Special treat for those dedicated to ska. The BUSTERShave a new release, Sexy Monkey. Last year's West Coast tour had the kids breaking down the barricades. The band's previous tours with the Toasters brought its frenzied comical stage show to the fans in the East as well. Europe's finest ska band delivers a new alternative power-pop attack on their new release. Limited promo CDs, so call me soon.

GWAR: Hope you all caught Oderus and Slymenstra's appearance on Headbanger's Ball, this past weekend (if not I hope you are repenting...on your knees, as you read). Skulhed Face, Gwar's new full-length feature film (and follow-up to Phallus In Wonderland), will be released on video August 9. Their last video for "Saddam-a-go-go," comes out June 27. This will be followed by the reissues of their first three albums, the Gwar video game, and the "Carnival Of Chaos" tour. Yet, Gwar remains true to their Antarctic roots...in the words of Mr. Sleazy P."I'm their fucking manager" Martini himself, "Gwar will never sell out!" (unlike some of those "other" Gwar "duplicate" band(s)). Speaking of bands, astounding show last weekend in Arizona, featuring Stanford Prison Experiment and BEATS THE HELL OUT OF ME, who headlined and just blew everyone away with their powerfully intense set. The crowd was left in a state of submission, literally begging and pleading for more! Check 'em out in CA this week, and on their full tour this August. Next, my favorite topic, SKREW. Adam & Co. will be hitting the states shortly, and if their response in Europe is any indication of what lies waiting, ready to befall thee, this is definitely a "must see." And finally, CHEMLAB & THOUGHT INDUSTRY, are doing the road kill thing as we speak, so go see them. And on that note... my "pik-o-the-week" for the most tired/trite pick up line: "Ooooh! You're just too hot to pass up...!" Well hell, I suppose that beats, "You are beautiful woman. You will be with me tonight..." Someone please shoot me now!

Jill & Jeannie, Red Light Records, Des Plaines, IL (707) 297-OKFU

CMJstersI Oh what a feelin' it is having all of your bands kicking ass. And it's all thanks to the talented musicians that create the music, your good taste and judgement and not to forget the fine tuned ears of your faithful listeners. YIPPEEI Keep on the SARKOMA, SKATENIGS, and PLEASURE ELITE as well as GUTTED and OPPRESSOR. If you need anything just call. Thanks for your support!

Scott Carter, A&M Records, Hollywood, CA (213) 469-2411

You tots should have the new FRETBLANKET album, which became an A&M thing just recently. If you like SWERVEDRIVER or Buffalo Tom or Green Day, then you just might like this. You should also have the "Black Hole Sun" single from SOUNDGARDEN, with a live track and a really weird remix of "Spoonman." And don't forget the new THERAPY? "Die Laughing" single with a Membranes cover on the back. (The Membranes are SO HUGE!) And if and when the NEVILLE BROTHERS or JACKOPIERCE tour near you, feel free to call for tickets or interviews. Oh, and when I'm not listening to A&M stuff, I listen to the newest from Long Ryders, Love Tractor, Hunters And Collectors, the Longshoremen, Stump, and the Carbonated Ham Beverage 7".

Jay Moskowitz/Craig Albertson, Your Radio Friends, Fifth Column Records, Washington, DC (202) 783-0044

We're back in the fold and poised for a killer summer! As mentioned in this space before by some of their numerous admirers, CHEMLAB is a strong group making innovative electronic music for the 90s. Make sure you catch Chemlab with THOUGHT INDUSTRY as they continue their never-ending the strong this great land of ours. For you Chemlab junkies out their, you'll get your fix with the upcoming re-release of their first EP 10 Ton Pressure slaved with the Magnetic Field remixes of Burn Out The Hydrogen Bar. Thanks for all the undying love and support WSTB (Jason), WESU (Richard), KBVR (Adam), WVUA (Mark & Jeff), WRPI (Laura), WMPG (Fred), WDNR (George). No matter hydrogen for a following remains will be a followed by the summer will are in the summer will be a followed by the summer wi inevitably become, fans of electronic music will have something to look forward to when, on September 15, we release the beautifully violent Tension Filter from HALOBLACK and ACUMEN's Transmissions From Eville. All you techo/ambient/RPM people should also keep your good eye peeled for PERPETUAL OUTER DIMENSIONS' Journey To The Planet P.O.D. Call us for hype and Chemlab tickets and interviews. Fake your orgasms.

Records, New York, NY (212) 586-7700 Here's a little bedtime story...Once upon a time there was a huge hotel with 150 stories. Boy, was it big. Everybody who went there tried to stay on the top floor—it was a beautiful penthouse suite where guests were treated like gold (until they vacated the premises, that is). Even if guests couldn't get up to the penthouse, the higher floors were much preferred—better air quality, I think. Anyway, smaller, less influential guests were always being stepped on by huge, old giants. These giants thought they could drop their names and get better service, and sometimes it worked. Why, just this week, five giants shoved their way in—they had funny names like Pink Floyd, Boz Scaggs, Traffic, Jimmy Buffett, and a group of brothers named Allman. The smaller guests screamed out for help. HELP! WE DEMAND BETTER SERVICE AND MORE ATTENTION! Especially vocal were two guests named THE VERVE and the AUTEURS. They screamed so loud and so long that people started paying attention. The hotel staff realized how deserving these folks were, even though they didn't have much clout yet in their young lives. And so, The

Chunk and Steph, Fable-makers, Virgin

Gina Galli, Round The Globe, New York, NY (212) 947-5575 NAKED SUN's Wonderdrug and TEN WINGS' Wishing Well should just be arriving at your stations this week. Check out "Shriek Of The Weak" from the Suns and "Special," as well as "Keep On," on Ten Wings. KMLS in Santa Rosa, CA, already on the scenel Don't miss TINDERSTICKS currently on the road. Stay tuned, there's more to come...

Verve and the Auteurs and a bunch of other folks kicked it in the bar at the hotel with Zima, a refreshing new beverage that's clear. The End. P.S. And Chuck says, "Wake up, kids!"

Lindsay Shannon, College Radio Promotions, Ichiban Records, Atlanta, GA (800) 966-4244

Hi everybody! I have taken over the college radio calls for Mike Kondo, so if you want to send playlists and T-shirts and stuff, please send them in care of me—record boy. You all should have received copies of the SHINES' self-titled debut album along with PAUL (Cowboy Mouth) SANCHEZ's Wasted Lives And Bluegrass and should also be playing the hell out of them by now. I have probably told most of you by now that the Shines are greasy, swampy American rock'n'roll band and Paul is of the singer/songwriter (Richard Thompson) variety. Check 'em out! FIVE-EIGHT has headed to the West Coast for some summer tour dates; they are one of the best bands to see live. Ask anyone who saw them with Cracker in May, they'll tell you! We also have a new record from the Velvet Underground's MOE TUCKER called Dogs Under Stress. Moe is the VU drummer that sang the really cool songs—yeah, you remember, Sterling Morrison from the Velvet Underground, Sonny Vincent, Daniel Hutchins and John Slugget play on this record as well. We are also making available the album I Spent A Week There The Other Night previously released as an import, which features Lou Reed, John Cale and Sterling Morrison with Brian Ritchie and Victor DeLorenzo from the Violent Femmes. Look for these records in July and a tour in the fall with Morrison and DeLorenzo. Speaking of fall, I'll be expecting the summer reading list and reports on "What I Did This Summer" to be completed and sent to me before the fall semester begins.

Russell Lefferts, Cuban Hand Made, Zero Hour Records, New York, NY (800) 722-0613

Que posa, amigos? Once again I am here to present you with some most exciting news in the wide world of independent music. First, I hope you are all enjoying the 22 BRIDES debut album, which you should have received at least a week ago. If not, call me and I shall be most happy to float one your way. So dial those free digits...Second in my lineup of exciting news events is a double CD compilation of live tracks from that groundbreaking headquarters of indie rock known only as Threadwaxing Space, featuring some of the forefront bands in the ever-influential underground musical landscape. Which bands, you ask? Let me just whet your palate with a few delectable morsels, such as SATUR-NINE 60, SEXPOD, SLIM, HALCION, TRIP HAMMER...and the list goes on and on, so get happy...On your plate in the very near future, and something many of you have expressed a certain feverish interest in, is the 7" and fulllength from the CUCUMBERS. News? You want news? Well read on fellow travelers, for there is a new virus in town and it consumes your flesh. No shit. It's Invasion of the Body Snatchers in the really real and it's coming to a town near you, so lock up your daughters and chain the pup. Special thanks to: DCR SW Cable, KFAN, KPFT, WCWP, WHLC, WIRE, WMNF, WOUI, WXDU, WXPN, WXRT, WYEP, Radio Shanghai, and all others supporting the cause. Anyway, that's all the news I care to share for now. See ya in two.

McGathy Bash 94—What a great NYC refresher. Thanks to Sudi, Bill, Rose, Corey, Mike and Phil. Oh yeah, and the McGathy Dog. Thanks to Leigh Taylor, for her excellent company. Beth Krak, thanks for the hospitality. Greg—thanks for blowing your whole expense account on my drinking binge with Kealty—who's getting married? Maria Cannibal Abril—what it like to be back home-psyche! Psycho—you need a cellular, so you can blow AOR calls from metol radio parties. All the radio people—you all rock!!! Thanks for all those drinks!!! Thanks for adding DEAD ORCHESTRA!!! New Grave full-length is coming. Mayhem is coming. Graveyard Rodeo is coming. Peter And The Test Tube Babies. Peace Out!!!

If you haven't caught on to the smooth groove and foxy French rap of MC SOLAAR yet, you are in for a treat. Previously featured on the Jazzmatazz and Rebirth of Cool records, Prose Combat is destined to be your favorite record of the summer. This record is so right on would fit into anybody's collection. Rappers, dancers, world music-ers as well as alternative geeks should love this with reckless abandon. The MEICES are winding up their tour with King Missile. If you can catch the show, be sure to tell the boys how much you love them. TRIPPING DAISY have a new EP. It's called Get It On and it's love, like they ought a be. Currently taking a much-needed but short break from touring, you can catch them on the Conan O'Brien show on July 71 Anyone not already pumpin' JERU is missing the boat. Any retailers who need a copy of this baby should call me right away. Jeru will be on tour with Gang Starr this summer, so you can skip the beach. If you call me and give me a really good reason to send you a Meices T-shirt, maybe I will.

RADIO

Randy Ten Brink, Music Director, WCKS, Allendale, MI (616) 895-2356

It's hot, we're on for the summer, Lake Michigan is warming and I'm sitting here in the bosement because I love it. Pax is on tour with the Dead for most of the summer while we strive to provide the musical shock for freshmen orientation. THE VERVE continues to keep everyone floating around here and dragging along behind it is the resurgence of A Storm In Heaven. MISS ALANS and FUZZY are fast becoming favorites out here in rural utopia. BEATS THE HELL OUT OF ME from Metal Blade continues to gain ground as well. If you get a chance, see TINDER-STICKS this summer. Thanks to all my friends in the record industry for your help in getting us started. Listen to ELLIS CLARCK AND BIG PARADE. Rita is my angel.

Wes Lang/Andrea Noire, Music Director/Asst. Music Director, WUVT, Blacksburg, VA (703) 231-9881

The time has come to expose the obvious truth once again. CD-singles are evil!!! Not only do they not serve their intended purpose, they create unnecessary clutter and waste. How many CD singles can you possibly send in one day? Why don't you wait a week and send a full-length worthy of airplay instead! CD-singles have single handedly destroyed the entire notion of indie rock 7". The bottom line: Don't send us CD-singles!! We would rather just have the jewel boxes!!!

Kim Gentry, Co-rock director, KBVR, Corvallis, OR (503) 737-3640

Well, it's been a fun spring. Despite my last Dialogue, I've enjoyed working as co-rock director with Jen. KBVR is on the air this summer, although we'll probably be on an abbreviated schedule, not 24 hours like we usually do. I will not be here, but Jen will be. I am going to Maine for the summer to work at a summer camp. I get to play all day and get paid for it. At least it will be more exciting than a summer in Corvallis! CDs and tapes currently glued in my player: XORCIST Phantoms on 21st Circuitry—great, spooky, dark industrial music. SUNNY DAY REAL ESTATE Diary on Sub Pop—this is excellent! Thanks for the copy Adam! SICKO You Can Feel The Love In This Room on Empty—excellent punky stuff. There is a great 7" by CAKE out on Hairy Records from San Francisco too. See you all in September! Have a great summer and don't forget to put sunblock on your tattoos!

Anthony DelRosario, Traveling Indie Rock Dork, WTUL, New Orleans, LA (504) 865-5887

I'm working on my summer travel plans. So far, the Merge party is a definite yes, NMS still a possibility, Yo Yo-A-Go-Go unfortunately a no-go. I would like to thank Chuck S. and the Neighborhood Safety Patrol for keeping the streets of Atlanta safe during 'RASFEST. Loose ends have finally come together for our live broadcasts. We are doing a weekly simulcast, the TULBOX, from the Howlin' Wolf here in town. Just recently 'TUL welcomed SUPERCHUNK and VERSUS to their first shows in Nawlins. Also, beginning in September, WTUL will be coordinating shows on campus every other Friday which will be broadcast live. So let the booking agents and bonds know about the TULBOX. Contact me at the station or Jack at the Howlin' Wolf (504) 529-2341. Personal faves GRIFTERS, BUILT TO SPILL "Joyride," SEBADOH "Rebound," VERSUS and DRIVE LIKE JEHU live, creole tomato and mozzarella cheese sandwich, and local releases from LUMP and NEW ORLEANS KLEZMER ALL-STARS. Ask me about Colonel Sonders' grave. Later.

Michael Szilagyi, Stateside Music Director, Radio Shanghai, Madison, WI (608) 255-1011

(608) 255-1011 Well, Jonathan Levitt left for China yesterday (Sunday, June 12) and left me in charge of the stateside operations of Radio Shanghai. Once again, in case you are reading this for the first time, Radio Shanghai is an actual radio station with an estimated listening audience of around 7.5 million people (17.5 million in the city itself). So, if you have any questions or would like to consider servicing this grossly underestimated market, please give me a call or drop me a let-ter. Right now my office hours are Wednesdays, 9 a.m.. to 5 p.m., but I will be trying to increase my office hours soon, so please be patient if it takes me a week to get back in touch with you. And now...some plugs...Unfortunately for me, Jonathan left me with nothing to review or listen from previous servicing (you'd be surprised at how little several hundred compact discs actually weigh when stuffed into carry on baggage), so, I'll be brief. I just picked up four CDs the other day that rock me to the base of my spine: MY NÁME's latest disc, DRIVE LIKE JEHU, WRECK, and an oldie but a goody, ARCWELDER's Jacket Made In Canada/This. Goddamn if I don't get goosepimples listenin' to all that stuff! And inspirational too! Heck, if you've ever been dumped by a girlfriend/boyfriend then you must listen to My Name's song "Rumpled Blanket," it'll bring you to your senses in no time. Well, drivel I could for a long time, but I'll stop while I'm only boring. Solidarity, brothers and sisters!

Dave Chiasson, Music Director, WGAO, Franklin, MA (508) 528-4210

By the time you all read this, DOWNSET will be bigger than PEARL JAM!! Well, I can dream, can't!? These guys have really blown me away. I can't wait for the tour (with BIOHAZARD?).

Another band presently kicking butt with us is RUST. They cracked the Top 10 and show no signs of leaving. How about MARXMAN?

Another band that came out of nowhere and is really doing well. "All About Eve" is the single of the summer. The new HELMET feels like a future Numero Uno with us. The ROLLINS BAND and LIVE have dominated that spot for the past couple of months. Let me quickly plug some local music that we are currently digging: the new DAMBUILDERS is way cool. STOMPBOX is friggin' raucous. As is the new ORANGUTANG. TOE TAG is still a personal fave (on CherryDisc. Check them out). SPORE is still doing well.

GIGOLO AUNTS are nicely nestled in our Top 35. And lastly, some releases we think rule the world: BEASTIE BOYS, JOHNNY CASH, DRIVE LIKE JEHU, JUSTER, SUPERSUCKERS, BLACK TRAIN JACK, FRETBLANKET, Biohazard, and lest we forget another local fave KUSTOMIZED. Did I forget anyone? Probably. Call me and bitch me out if I did. My office hours are 9 a.m. to 2 p.m. EST Tuesdays. Thank yous: Terry Dry, Joe Calitri, John at Radioactive, and Lauren at Concrete. You guys rule!!

Rob Schultz, Music Director and/or Station Manager, KAGU, Spokane, WA (509) 484-2820

rschultz@gonzaga.edu"...Ah yes, time once again for another CM Dialogue. Let's see, should I try to impress everyone by listing all the coolest music I've head this summer? Well, it was cool, two weeks ago when I wrote this anyway. Nahl Why bother? You should know it when you hear it anyway. Should I whine about the crappy summer weather? No! By the time this is printed it will probably be 90 degrees anyway. You want a weather report, watch the Weather Channel! Actually, what I want to use this public forum for is to ask all the wonderful record folks out there to send us a wider variety of music. We'll be adding more jazz, blues, world beat, and various forms of techno/ambient/house, etc., in addition to our traditional specialty shows featuring reggae, funk/rap, and metal. I'm usually in the office from 12-2 p.m. MWF, but if you have e-mail you can leave me a message that way and I'll be sure to respond as soon as possible. If you have any cool ideas for music programming, drop a line, I'm always open to consideration of new ideas. Have a great summer, keep the Coppertone off the CDs and especially keep it off the viny!!!! It makes weird sounds like snof and blub when the needles goes through suntan lotion. Talk to ya later, bye.

Pete Kernast, Folk/World Music Director, WTSR, Trenton, NJ (609) 771-3200 Spring fever has hit me hard. Can't even remember when my last Dialogue column was written. Probably wanted to follow up on a particular topic but I'll stick to music this time around. Music with some exceptional voices behind it, to be exact. Had to catch my breath when I heard the new IRIS DEMENT record, My Life. She truly must be an "angel." I don't believe anyone could write more heartfelt songs than these. Awesome!!...1994 will probably be the year of the throat singer. SHU-DE and their Voices From A Distant Steppe is an exceptional blend of vocal and instrumental pieces. Still trying to figure out where those extraordinary sounds come from? Perhaps they're heavenly voices too....And, the mouth in "mouth music" is back. TALITHA MACKENZIE's Solas record may be an uneven effort, but that sound of wonderful Gaelic poetry and swirling rhythms almost make me forget the reverent American Recordings and the weatherbeaten voice of JOHNNY CASH that I've also been enjoying recently. To top it all off, I'm off to a ZAP MAMA concert in Philadelphia. Thank you Lord for all these wonderful voices. Later!

Thanks to everybody that helped me when I was the music director; especially Seth at Atlantic, John at Caroline, Scott at Beggars Banquet, Carl at Generic, Matt from EastWest, Brett from EMI, Dave at Energy, Mike at Hour, Jeff at Interscope, Page from Mammoth, Terri at Revolution, John at Radioactive, Cornelia at Taang!, Stephanie at Virgin, and all at Vision Trust. We are in the process of expanding our frequency. The new music director is Dawson Faith and the new promotions director is Mike Varcoe. We have 24hour free format programming. DJs are on the air from 7 a.m.-1 a.m. everyday. Our favorite new releases include WEEZER, APRIL'S NEW HOTEL ROOM, BLUR, VIGGO MORTENSSEN, Caffiene Sampler, VIOLENT FEMMES, FRENTEI, CHAINSAW KITTENS, TOAD THE WET SPROCKET, MAGGIE ESTEP, the GO-FIGURES, HOLE, SONIC YOUTH, the NEW MONGRELS, VANILLA TRAINWRECK, MADDER ROSE, DOOLITTLE, KING MISSILE, and the HATTERS. Send us the movie soundtracks (on vinyl so they don't get stolen). Keep us posted on all Orlando, Gainesville, and Jacksonville concerts.

Mike B., New Music Director, WMNF, Tampa, FL (813) 238-8001 Just got back from Atlanta where I saw the PRI-MAL SCREAM-DEPECHE MODE double bill. Personally, I still can't figure out why people despise Primal Scream so much. Sure, there's a lot of Stones and Faces influences, but what music today is really that original? Techno ripped off disco which ripped off funk. Grunge ripped off the blues. MORRISSEY ripped off rockabilly, which ripped off country which definitely ripped off the blues. Experimental ripped off freestyle jazz, while Michael Bolton has ripped off everybody. With the Primals you now exalt where the influences come from because they wear them on their sleeve (unlike Morrissey who would never admit that "How Soon Is Now?" is actually a Bo Diddley riff!). Besides, they are one of the few bands that can inject doses of rock, blues, gospel, jazz, funk, and dance into a mix to create a beautiful wall of sound. Believe me, I've been a fan since their 1985 release "All Fall Down," and like everything they seem to get better with age... Since most of you know what's going on with the WMNF charts, my own personal faves for the long hot summer include THEE HYPNOTICS, HEAVENS TO BETSY, GALLIANO, lots of acid jazz, T. REX, BUCK-SHOT LEFONQUE, AFRICAN HEAD-CHARGE and of course the ROLLING STONES. All of this can be heard on my weekly two-hour exotic journey through the sonic under-world of new wave music called The Zanzibar Lounge, the show that plays" just the hits, babe." Vive le rock!

Tim Randolph and Scott Meiggs, Music Director and Asst. Music Director,

WODU, Norfolk, VA (804 855-2753 Good news! Rumor has it that the FROGS are playing some Lollapalooza dates. Finally a reason to attend this daylong fashion show. Some really great underground "alternative" bands playing this year, huh? Six months ago GREEN DAY wouldn't have been able to serve water at something like this. Thank goodness for the Frogs. WODU is up and running this summer, and Tim's office hours are 2-4 p.m. Mon.-Thurs. We have a fax machine, too! (804) 683-6088. E-mail as well Wodu@sequoia.webb.odu.edu. Info superhighway, here we come. Send us stuff at 2102 Webb Ctr. Norfolk, VA 23529. The TIM GARMAN EXPERIENCE is taking the local scene by storm and will be hitting the tour cicuit soon. Call for a demo tape—our special friends will be getting one in the mail soon. Rock and roll, bucko. Things we love: UNWOUND, VERSUS, BEDHEAD, 108, BOYRACER, LILYS, GLO-WORM, CANDY MACHINE JAWBREAKER, SPRINGFIELDS, STATE OF THE NATION, HENRY'S DRESS, HOOVER, 30.06....Looking forward to the new VELVET CRUSH and keep your eyes peeled for AIR MIAMI—ex-members of Unrest and Rites Of Spring? My prayers have been answered! They're playing the Mergefest at the end of June—We'll be there! You're not punk and I'm telling everyone....

Mike Siciliano, Alternative Music Director, WCWP, Brookville, NY (516) 299-2626

As the entire New York metro area goes under the rollercoaster hell in sports, here is music to soothe the savage beast. What's up people? At WCWP, LIVE continues to kick ass without taking thoughts of prisoners. There isn't a cut off of Throwing Copper that hasn't had unbelievable response. From "Selling The Drama" all the way to "Lightning Crashes," this boy thinks these guys have followed up Mental Jewelry with a major smash. By the way, the above description is for anyone who has been off the planet Earth for the last three months. Now then, back to the stuff at hand. SEED's new one, Ling, has got all the markings of a super release. Check out the track "Virgin" and tell me what you think. ROB RULE has been the surprise lately. This self-titled CD has got some beats that are really cool to this guy, and I'm curious to know what others think. Check out the track "Fifteen." HELMET's sound hasn't changed, and I'm sure not complaining. "Clean" has been going ballistic in this area since its release. Nice follow-up, I think. Some new stuff that WCWP is checking out this week, alternatively, of course, are 22 BRIDES, TINDERSTICKS, TEN WINGS, and the FIGGS. I'm done. Till the next time, later...

ATTENTION! ATTENTION! ATTENTION!

Because of the July Fourth holiday, we will be accepting reports on Friday, July 1 and Tuesday, July 5. Please try to call on Friday, since Tuesday will be an unusually heavy reporting day. As usual, faxed reports will be accepted until Monday at 10 p.m.

THANKS! THANKS! THANKS! THANKS!

HOLE BASSIST DIES

Kristen Pfaff, bassist of Hole (and formerly Janitor Joe), died on June 16 at the age of 27, reportedly of a drug overdose.

HENRY MANCINI DIES

Composer Henry Mancini died of liver cancer on June 14 at the age of 70. Mancini, recipient of four Academy Awards and 20 Grammys (the record for a pop artist), was best known for his soundtracks to the films The Pink Panther, Breakfast At Tiffany's and Days Of Wine & Roses, and the television show Peter Gunn. His song "Moon River" (lyrics by Johnny Mercer) has been recorded by over 1,000 artists.

ON-LINE ROCK BULLETIN BOARD

The first alternative rock computer BBS has been started in New York City. SonicNet was officially launched on June 1; for a flat rate of $10 a month, it offers users access to Internet electronic mail, on-line conferences, discussion groups on various topics, maps of how to get to dozens of important rock clubs around the country, and a handful of on-line electronic magazines (including Blender and KGB). Founders Tim Nye and Donald Newman say that the system will soon offer ticket sales, mail-order alternative music, coverage of musical events (including sound and video), and much more. For more information, log on to SonicNet at (212) 431-1627, or call (212) 941-5912.

IN MY ROOM

PERSONAL PICKS

The ABC radio network has announced an "awesome" response to its test-marketing of Commando Radio, a talk show hosted by rock-god/gun-lobbyist Ted Nugent. His two-week drive-time stint, heard in 25 markets, included an interview with

Charlton Heston and plenty of discussion on what Nugent feels is "the positive side of citizens carrying firearms."

NEW HOME FOR SOL

The Tim Kerr label has taken over the manufacturing and distributing of Bob Mould and Nick Hill's Singles Only Label (SOL), formerly handled by Dutch East India Trading. Already out is a 7" by Elektra artist Moby (see review on page 16); coming soon on SOL are singles from Buster Poindexter and the Psycho Sisters, featuring the Bangles' Vicki Peterson, Susan Cowsill and Peter

The Frogs CBGB's, New York, NY, June 11 A band that's been together for over a decade, knows over 1300 songs, is appearing on Lollapalooza's second stage this summer and hasn't had a stage this summer and hash thad a new album out in five years. A master-ful, withy pop group whose singer looks like a latter-day Meat Loaf, plays guitar like White Light/White Heat era Lou Reed and appears on stage wearing a faux-tiger/leopard-skin suit with matching giant bat wings and an unspeakable pink feather boa. A band that inspires ironic moshing. The Frogs are an exception to practically any rule you care to name. Playing its first New York show in years, to a packed crowd that knew all the words (at least to the songs on It's Only Right And Natural which was recently reissued on Homestead), the band made its audience's jaws drop in a combination of awe and horror. You don't go to a Frogs show to have your politics reaf-firmed—no matter what your politics are—and the band cheerfully offended anyone who was willing to take anyone who was willing to take offense, opening with its manifesto "Fuck Off" and running through "These Are The Finest Queen Boys I've Ever Seen," the odd pro-rape number and a couple of dubious songs about race relations, as well as a couple of less offensive, but equally astonishing new songs. Smashing Pumpkins' Billy Corgan joined the Frogs on quitar for Corgan joined the Frogs on guitar for the final song, the way-over-the-top stage-diving anthem "In The Year Of Our Lord Grunge." Then the band trashed its equipment and stalked offstage in the finest rock tradition, leaving a baffled and delighted audience to wonder what had just happened and how seriously they were supposed to take any of it.
