Prawn Songs And Sausage Links

About the label's links to the early homemade label that released Primus' first LP, Les says that "It's really in name only. I had already spent hours meticulously drawing a grass shrimp with feathered wings, so I wasn't going to go through the hell of designing another logo! I actually went down to the bait shop, got a quarter pound of grass shrimp, picked out the finest looking specimen, and sat there and drew it for God

Les Claypool of Primus is describing the latest strange side project he's been cooking up, something like: "Texas Clamrod and the El Sobriety Twangers. So far it's me and Lar, and M.I.R.V., and Brain, the drummer for the Limbomaniacs." He's also discussing his record label, Prawn Song, which since its debut last year, has enjoyed great success with records by the Charlie Hunter Trio, M.I.R.V. and most recently Sausage. This latter reunites the original lineup of Primus, featuring Claypool, Todd Huth and Jay Lane. "I had kept in touch with Todd and Jay, because Todd didn't leave the bard under had sirgurations."

"I had kept in touch with Todd and Jay, because Todd didn't leave the band under bad circumstances—he had gotten married, and had a kid, and didn't want to travel, and I don't blame him. He had a family to support, was in the pipe-fitters union and all. And I'd always said that we'd do something again. And I'd kept in touch with Jay, because he's a good friend and one of my favorite drummers. I was in between projects, so we said, 'Let's do a Sausage record and we'll dig up some of those old tunes we used to do.' And it was pretty comical."

Are we not men? We are Sausage!

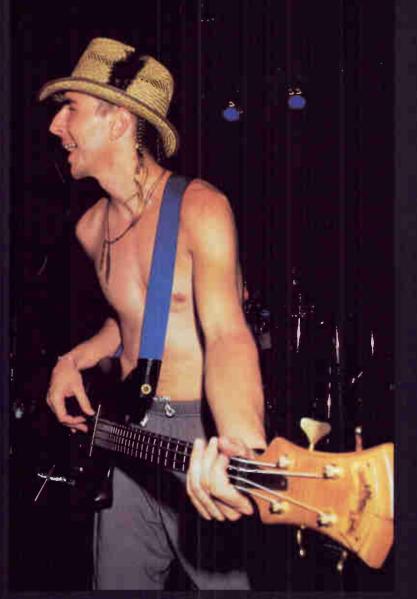

knows how many hours. "The whole principle was pretty casual. It wasn't like a big, grandiose idea that I had. I had friends—and I still do—that I've known from being around the Bay Area playing for so many years, that are very talented, that aren't necessarily going to be able to do their thing on any label that actually, needs to, um, make money. So I had been talking to Charlie [Hunter] about doing his thing, and I had some recording equipment, so I started recording him. And I called up M.I.R.V. because the Limbos were in limbo. And I said, M.I.R.V., you're a talented guy, let's just get together and put some stuff on tape, and we'll release it.

^{in}It's not like anything I'm doing is any groundbreaking, revolutionary thing Indie labels and college radio are to me the two key factors in keeping the music industry fresh. Otherwise, we'd still be listening to John Cougar records."

Prawn Song is distributed by Mammoth, except for projects with extensive Claypool involvement, which go through Interscope, who "get first dibs on everything I do," he says. Future projects include jazz-rap group Alphabet Soup, Eskimo, Todd Huth's band Porch and Les' favorite on the roster, Polkacide.

"I'm just a guy who comes from off-center a bit, and having many friends that do, as well, who are frustrated...Me, I'm a lucky guy, I'm making a living at it. And, as one of those guys that has gone the route, I just want to look back and make sure that there are still streams for other obscure fish to come upstream and spawn." —James Lien

ON THE COVER IACKPOT!

VELVET CRUSH Teenage Symphonies To God (Creation/550, c/o Epic, 550 Madison Ave., New York, NY 10022-3211)—Take a look-see at the pictures of Velvet Crush's three members in their new duds on the back cover of Teenage Symphonies To God, dig an earful of the sounds inside, and that silly old saying about judging a book by its cover is quickly loid to waste. Their change from cutesy striped Gap Tshirts and fresh-scrubbed, well-groomed innocence (see their debut, In The Presence Of Greatness) to earth tone turtlenecks, suede jackets, flannels and sideburns is indicative of a change in musical direction: these guys look and sound like they've aged about 10 years since 1991. Don't worry, kids, they haven't outgrown simple hooks and a bright-eyed worship of past pop heroes like Big Star, but on Teenage

Symphonies they build upon their sound by embracing a broader range of influences such as Neil Young and country via

Gram Parsons and later Byrds (several songs are sweetened by pedal steel and dobro), and placing a surprisingly larger emphasis on lead guitar of the ear-splitting, stuffed-trouser variety. That's not to say that old fans will be disappointed. "Hold Me Up," "Star Trip," "My Blank Pages" (which winks at the Byrds' version of Dylan's "My Back Pages") and "Weird Summer" are pure P-O-P that'll be swirling 'round your noggin for weeks, and even the more country moments like "Keep On Lingerin'" are still informed by the band's pop instincts. Also, get the cryin' towel ready and check out the band's cover of the Gene Clark weeper "Why Not Your Baby." —Steve McGuird

MOONSHAKE The Sound Your Eyes Can Follow (Too Pure, 3A Highbury Crescent, London N5 1RN, U.K./071-609-2415)—A few singles and a critically acclaimed debut LP, Eva Luna, put Moonshake on the map, but after a fairly electrifying stateside tour last year, the band split: songwriter Margaret Fiedler, bassist John Frenett and producer Guy Fixsen left to form Laika, and the other songwriter, David Callahan, along with drummer Mig, retained the Moonshake moniker, adding woodwind player Raymond Dickaty and various guest contributors to the fold. Moonshake's dark, difficult sound remains recognizable on its follow-up LP, with thick snaky bass lines flowing through a pool of sampled sounds and Callahan's wry vocals and lyrics darkening the overall mood. His vocals work especially well when paired with a female vocalist, such as PJ Harvey on the standout inner city blues number "Just A Working Girl," or Stereolab's Katherine Gifford on the snarling "Your Last Friend In This Town." Moonshake's hallmark remains its open ear for sounds, exemplified here by Dickaty's squawking saxophones and twittering flutes, and its rare ability to work all the disparate sounds into a seamless flow of sound that transcends mere experimentation. Also try "Right To Fly" and "Into Deep Neutral." —Lydia Anderson

ESQUIVELI Space Age Bachelor Pad Music (Bar/None, P.O. Box 1704, Hoboken, NJ 07030/201-795-9424)-

Mix up a pitcher of martinis, pop some Esquivel on the hi-fi and— W-O-W!—instantly transform any apartment into a swinging space age bachelor pad. Party music? Unequivocally, especially if you've invited Peter Gunn, Elizabeth Montgomery and George Jetson. With surprises at every turn, the music often sounds like a soundtrack to a wacky old cartoon (which it isn't). Mexican bandleader/arranger Juan Garcia Esquivel released dozens of "easy-listening" albums from the late '50's through the '60's, but was quickly forgotten as his records fell out of print and were never repressed until now (this best-of collection licenses recordings from RCA). Esquivel took popular standards, big band jazz, Latin rhythms and novelty camp, and radically mutated them, utilizing hairpin mood shifts, unusual instrumentation and extremes of volume and pitch. Moaning trombones, screaming woodwinds, exploding trumpets, cascading piano and rasping percussion, along with dozens of odd sounds (theremin, jews harp and harpsichord, to name just a few) and delightfully cornball "zoo-zoo-zoo" wordless singing jump from one stereo speaker to the other in insanely excessive cross-channel panning and echo. Listening with headphones is a mind-altering experience. Esquivel created music that was simultaneously easy listening and experimental, oldfashioned and futuristic, but above all, very, very cool.

SNEETCHES Blow Out The Sun (spinART, P.O. Box 1798, New York, NY 10156-1798/212-343-9644)—Amidst sharp stylistic changes in the ever-evolving "alternative" music scene, San Francisco's Sneetches remain unmoved by any trends, spinning out the same sort of high-quality, breezy pop confections since 1985. With its fourth album (its first full-length effort since 1990's brilliant Slow), the band sticks with its trusty formula—the introspective pop beauty of Pet Sounds crossed with the bubbly enthusiasm of the Association—and gives its songs a slightly more mature and studied brilliance. Matt Carges and Mike Levy, who make up the Sneetches' consistently impressive songwriting team, have never earned their due respect, but Blow Out The Sun offers 10 more reasons why craftsmanship awards and big-money deals should be flooding their mailbox. "The Weather Scene" is a suitably moody introduction—bouncy but with a strong downward pull. Few pop combos equal the Sneetches' flair for effervescent tunes that carry serious lyrical undertones, such as "Saving It For Me." These undercurrents are echoed by contemplative songs like "A Good Thing" and "Behind The Shadow," while buoyant janglegarage sounds are explored further with "A Light On Above," "...And I'm Thinking" and "All Of Everything." —Lydia Anderson

BRACKET 924 Forestville Street (Caroline, 114 W. 26th St., New York, NY 10001/ 212-989-2929)—Though major cities often garner the most label attention, some of tomorrow's great talents are currently honing their chops in towns with populations smaller than a capacity crowd at a big-city mid-sized venue. With no happening shows to go to on weekends and no scene to hang out at, what else do these outfits have to do but drink until they collapse and practice until their fingers bleed? And in the case of Forestville, California's Bracket, most of whose members are under legal drinking age, all that's left to do is make music. And what music it is. Bracket makes quite a roughling racket on its debut record 924 Forestville Street, culling elements of punk and pop together in a speedy, adrenalized and neathy wrapped pockage of sound. Drawing on youthful aggression and small-town restlessness, the group plays buzzing three-chord riffs strung together with hook-filled retrains and bubblegum harmonies. And while many of its songs sound pretty similar, they're so tight and cleverly constructed that any lack of individuality can be easily overlooked. If you dig the Ramones and Cheap Trick, you'll love "Missing Link," "Get It Rite" and "Can't Make Me." -Jon Wiederhorn

TENDERLOIN Let It Leak (Qwest, c/o Warner Bros., 3300 Warner Blvd., Burbank, CA 91510)—Diversity and unpredictability are two immediately apporent trademarks of Tenderloin. At times this Kansas foursome goes right for the throat (a la Mudhoney), with Gray Ginther's trashy, feedback-ridden guitars, and at times the band sounds like an experienced blues band. When listening to Let It Leak, one can almost hear ghosts of Stevie Ray Vaughn in Ernie Locke's vocals. "One Kind Favor" and "Daddy Was A Clydesdale" are among the blues-infested tunes on the album. The heavier songs include "Time Bomb" and "Supernatural Bologna." Locke also plays harmonica on the rockin' "Kitchen Floor. Tenderloin gives Locke's vocals a rest on two of the 13 tracks that make up Let It Leak. These two instrumentals are as different as night and day: "(Puffed) Wheat Ball" is fun, loud and obnoxious, while on "Heavy Bong" the band relaxes you

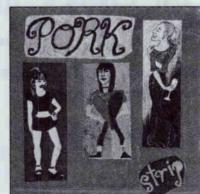

PORK Strip (No. 6, P.O. Box 3306, New York, NY 10185/212-260-3389)-If we didn't already know that the group was from Austin, Texas, after listening to Strip we might guess that Pork was a product of Olympia, Washington's punk rock scene. The band's spit-in-your-eye attitude conjures images of Olympia's Bratmobile or Frumpies, while Strip's lo-fi grooves and covers of old garage tunes add to the band's West Coast sensibilities. In the vein of traditional punky-pop garage, the guitar chords are few and the hype large. Pork's technical approach might be minimal, but the girls' disposition makes up the difference. Their debut album reveals the scrapes and bruises of a young band, still a bit awkward and perhaps a bit shy ("Oh Connie"), but Pork manages to come briefly, then continues to manipulate your brain. -Jon Landman

TALL DWARFS 3 E.P.s (Flying Nun, P.O. Box 677, Auckland, New Zealand/64-9-377-4607)—There have been a couple of earlier CDs collecting Tall Dwarfs' old EPs. This isn't one of them; rather, it's a brand new, hour-long Tall Dwarfs album, divided into three EPs with separate titles. Whatever-any excuse for a new Tall Dwarfs record is a good one, and the Dwarfs seem most comfortable sequencing songs in the 20-minute structure of an EP (e.g. "Folding," "Ain't It Funny" and "Our Advice To You" all sound like recordclosing songs, and end the three EPs). The duo of Chris Knox and Alec Bathgate can still effortlessly pull jaw-dropping melodies out of the empty air, fully formed (see, for example, "Entropy" or "Highrise" or "Bee To Honey" or virtually anything else here). This time, Alec's guitar playing is a bit tougher than it's been before, notably on the middle EP, Up The Down Staircase, where he gets to EP, up the bown staticase, where he gets to stretch out on the lengthy "Neusyland" and the warbling, buzzing "Archaeopteryx." The best of the EPs, though, is the third, Sam's Spaniel. It's got guest performances by a couple of Pavement-boys on two tracks (including the terribly silly "Post-modern Deconstructivist Blues"), and a wide variety of the Durate aburn diverse conic textures weird of the Dwarfs' always-diverse sonic textures, weird, burbling rhythm tracks, and, of course, those -Douglas Wolk amazing melodies.

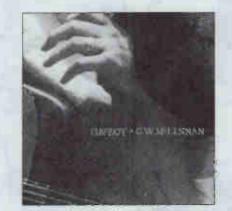

Am I just Paranoid?

DOOK (C (4/2/1-45529) Produced by Rob Cavallo and Green Day Management: Cahn-Man. through with a forceful rock groove on a majority of the tunes. The album's raw and rough noise is only natural from a group with only a few singles to its name, and of course it's the ad-libbed-sounding tunes that give punk rock its good name. Pork's best pieces include a cover of the Coasters' "I'm A Hog For You," "The Sweeter The Better," and "Spineless Wonder." —Dawn Sutter

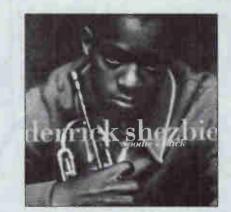

APOLLO 9 Nothing Matters (Trixie, P.O. Box 379373, Chicago, IL 60637/312-493-6716)—How many cooks make the best possible broth? Apollo 9 knows the answer. Nine people, including two lead singers, a violinist or two and a trumpeter, play on Nothing Matters, usually all at the same time. Whitney Jackson's pure, silky vocals play off Soren Davis's tormented growls and chokes, while the instrumental army chugs along like a Midwestern tornado. Davis and bassist Scott Sendra are veterans of a bunch of little-known, but excellent mid-Michigan bands, including the notorious Snake River, and Apollo 9's been a local favorite for years on the strength of its superb live shows. What brings the whole unruly melange together is Davis's fresh, charming songwriting, which can sound like grinding midtempo punk, old-time hillbilly music and a lost Motown hit all at once, and which consistently gets across genuine emotion. When Jackson sings "It just doesn't feel right/It just doesn't feel right/I guess I'll step out for a beer," it's heartbreaking. This is as distinctive and memorable a debut album as we've heard in a while; in places, it's still a little rough around the edges, but parts of it have been in the can for over two years, so the band promises new recordings soon. Check out "Satellite," "I Ain't Leavin'," "Stupid, Stupid" and the wrenching closer "It Doesn't Matter." —Douglas Wolk

G.W. McLENNAN Fireboy (Beggars Banquet, 274 Madison Ave., Ste. 804, New York, NY 10016/212-889-9110)—After a distinguished career with the Go-Betweens, Grant McLennan released a fine solo LP, Watershed, in 1991. His latest, Fireboy, continues the solid stretch of work with 13 steady-strumming songs that balance acoustic and electric guitars about as well as possible. As always, his voice is confident, and his guitars and vocals both shift gears from a smooth folk tone to a grittier one when the tempo picks up. A memorable McLennan song relies on a structure that is sometimes no more complex than a three-chord folk ballad. For example, "The Dark Side Of Town" is guided by chords that could just as well accompany a nursery rhyme, and the dark, menacing "The Pawnbroker" uses a repeating fivenote bass line throughout. These naive setups encourage McLennan to craft melodies and text of sterner stuff. What result are songs that stay in your head for days and are worthy of further consideration. Might we suggest: those mentioned above, plus "Lighting Fires," "Whose Side Are You On?" and "Bathe (In The Water)."

-Steve Ciabattoni

DERRICK SHEZBIE Spodie's Back (Warner Bros., 3300 Warner Blvd., Burbank, CA 91510)—So here's the latest in the really looooong line of young jazz turks to come along, this 19 year old with a trumpet tucked under one arm and a major-label contract under the other. But wait a minute: what makes Derrick Shezbie unique is that his style of jazz is not the big-suited child prodigy bebop that's getting so played out and tired by now, but something far more invigorating and down-home than what we're used to hearing from the average well-dressed teenage jazz musician. Namely, Shezbie looks to the roots of jazz for inspiration, drawing influence from the early days of jazz as the sound of parades and parties, not a stuffy concert hall. He's making music that recalls the vibrant original sounds of Louis Armstrong, Paul Barbarin, Kid Ory and Papa Celestin rather than simply trying to sound like Miles, Dizzy or, even worse, Wynton. In some ways the results are not all that conceptually different from the modern/trad stylings of Dr. Michael White, where a modern artist uses an old form to express himself, revealing the sophistication and skill inherent in the original model in the process. LEAVING TRAINS The Big Jinx (SST, P.O. Box 1, Lawndale, CA 90260/310-430-7687)—While grace might not be the defining term for the Leaving Trains, their remarkable longevity after six records remains no less than a spectacle. Always submerged in some kind of chaos (their claims of widespread blacklisting and physical threats at shows have never been held in question), the Leaving Trains have managed to stagger on, with vocalist Falling James serving as the unlikely anchor to what's become a rotating cast of band members. Amidst this natural disarray, the Leaving Trains give us The Big Jinx, another dishevelled, scowling entry into their already impressive catalog of anti-social records. Falling James' howling, spatout vocals hit the hacking and slashing music headon, making for a listen that's anything but subtle, and that's precisely the point. The real surprise comes when the Trains try their hand at a ballad or two ("A Woman's Clouds," "Stowaway"); though completely uncharacteristic, these tracks allow the band to stretch out a bit, showing more groove and cohesion than one might normally expect from such inveterate punks. No need for alarm, however, because the Leaving Trains won't be going soft anytime soon, not while they can still crank out these punk anthems while wearing dresses: "Go A-Fuckin' Head," "Ice Cream Truck," "Can't Afford To Die" and "Osmosis." —Cheryl Botchick

ZEKE FIDDLER Waterproof (spinART, P.O. Box 1798, New York, NY 10156-1798/212-343-9644)—Zeke Fiddler was undoubtedly weaned on all the right college radio staples: His debut album Waterproof leaks enough Dinosaur Jr., R.E.M. and Meat Puppets to warrant its own carrier-current transmitter for its tasteful nods to college rock's heyday alone. In fact, Zeke was able to convince J Mascis himself to smack the skins on a few tunes here, and with help from two members of New Radiant Storm King (bass, guitar and backing vocals), Zeke has created the kind of record he had been playing out on Western Massachusetts campuses for the past few years. Although Waterproof has the sound of a completely fleshed-out band effort, Zeke's voice and guitar are the main attraction, sculpting bittersweet strains of emotion with every rumbling lick and carefully applying a sensitive creak or lazy groan to every lyric. Rejection and self-pity are his meat and potatoes, as much a part of each song's underlying melancholy as the occasional jangly guitar texture. As fine an example of any of You're Living All Over Me's influence on the western hemisphere: 'Grounded," "Shutdown," "Buglamp" and "Slumper." -Colin Helms 78765/512-452-9044)—The self-titled debut from Austin, Texas' Sons Of Hercules has all of the ingredients of early punk rock, taking us on a nostalgia trip back to the days when punk was simply loud and fun. The band's just-out-of-thegarage raw guitar rock makes no bones about paying tribute to the Sons' influences, which range from the Stones to the Sonics. The guitars are punchy, played with enough verve to keep heads bobbing and toes tapping. Besides a peck of enthusiasm, the Sons Of Hercules have a Southern vibe, adding a hint of twang to their garage sound ("Damaged Goods"). The vocals are overwhelmingly New York Dolls-ish and the band includes a cover of the MC5's "Shakin' Street," but for all their tributes to artists of yore, the Sons of Hercules have a fresh edge and avoid falling into the trap of simply imitating a redundant sound. Herald the simplicities of early punk rock: "IOU Nothing," "Piece Of Mine," "Lost In Space" or "Angel On Fire" —Dawn Sutter

GODFLESH Merciless (EP) (Earache, c/o Columbia, 550 Madison Ave., New York, NY 10022-3211)—To say that Godflesh has perfected a combination of metal and techno is to imply that Merciless has, say, heavy riffing guitars over electronic dance beats. But it doesn't; what Justin Broadrick and Ben Christian Green's longstanding project has done is much more subtle and ingenious than that. The duo has taken the techniques and aims of trance techno—heavily electronically processed sound, repetition without melodic variation, the icy bliss-aut of a good rhythm track—and thrown in the gnawing, claustrophobic menace of post-grindcore metal. The four tracks on Merciless aren't songs anymore; they're the corpses of songs from earlier Godflesh records, dug up, hacked apart and reassembled bit by bit into dirt-cold, pounding monsters. The concluding "Flowers" takes four guitar notes from "Don't Bring Me Flowers" takes four guitar notes from "Don't Bring Me Flowers" (off Pure) and drives them through your ears for over 10 minutes, until they're painful, then numbing, then terrifyingly peaceful. This is some of the coldest, most desolate music ever made. —Douglas Wolk

HORACE SILVER Pencil Packin' Papa (Columbia, address above)—As a founding member (along with Art Blakey) of the Jazz Messengers, pianist Horace Silver has been a major player for well over 30 years. A younger generation may recognize Silver's piano bass line from the 1960 piece "Song For My Father," which was appropriated by Steely Dan and more recently sampled by US 3. Refusing to lie back and waltz through standards, Silver looks back in spirit and sound at swing, bop and New Orleans legends, resulting in fresh and lively original compositions. The title track leads off the disc, combining the frenzied, speakeasy jazz of the '20s with big-band instrumentation and classy solo trading. The remainder of the disc is a festive stew of all flavors of good-time jazz, with a moonlit ballad or two thrown in. Recorded in just two days, Pencil Packin' Papa shows that these folks showed up to play: Silver still plays his piano with equal parts gentle melodic touch and key-rattling abandon. Had this record been recorded in a live setting, chances are it would have been a bit bolder, but this sharp studio session hardly has a stale moment. "I Got The Dancin' Blues" and "Soul Mates" with vocalist O.C. Smith are among the defining moments of the disc. —Steve Ciabattoni

JUSTER I Remember That Night (EP) (TVT, 23 E. Fourth St., New York, NY 10003/212-979-6410)—The last couple of years have seen a number of rapper-meets-rocker efforts, the most successful probably being the ubiquitous Judgment Night soundtrack, which featured a hefty sampling of household-name bands meshing with rap's most notable performers. The latest entry in this field, the debut EP from Juster, spins the concept in a slightly different direction, weighing in a bit more heavily on the electronic hiphop side of things. Chugging, relentless beats rotate furiously beneath layers of guitarist Dillinger's ruthless buzzsaw riffing, creating a sharp, icy bed for rapper Juvenile's accounts of adolescent struggle in Chicago's industrial South Side. The production talents of Steve Marker (House Of Pain) shine on two of the EP's best tracks, "Riding On The High" and "No Respect." —Aaron Clow VARIOUS ARTISTS This Is Acid Jazz: The Vibe (Instinct, 26 W. 17th St., #502, New York, NY 10011/212-727-1360)—The latest in the ongoing series This Is Acid Jazz takes a refreshing turn away from the clubs of New York, London and the continent, instead focusing on the vibrant acid-jazz scene bursting out across the water to the West, namely in Japan. While U.F.O. may have been the shot heard 'round the world as far as Japanese acid-jazz stylings are concerned, there appear to be plenty of other groups of similar talent and stature, based upon the various soul wares presented here. There's the funky kickoff of E.M. & I.'s "3 On 3" and "Yellow Cab," the mellow, romantic soul of Tomio Inoue, the Y.M.O.-ish Takahiro Watanabe, and the irresistible get-up-anddance vibe of Apachi Tanaka's "Go Get Tem"—all are the equal of anything we've heard from New York or London, and we dare say, some are far better. Next time we're record shopping in Tokyo, instead of just stocking up on Shonen Knife rarities, the latest Osaka hardcore and ridiculously plentiful jazz reissues, you can bet we're going to go digging through the 12" crates looking for more of the simmering new sounds of Japanese soul. —Lormes Lien

HOT TOASTERS "Fish And Doctor" (7") (Drag City, P.O. Box 476867, Chicago, IL 60647/212-260-3389)—The Hot Toasters, like fellow Japanese band the Boredoms, write songs utilizing particularly bizarre structures, but with very different results. "Fish And Doctor" alternates insipid la-la early '70s fluff (remember the group Chicago?) with death metal riffs. It's all done with tongue firmly in cheek (um, we think). With lofi garage instrumentation, "YUKIWATARI" is a bubbly '60s girl-group style pop song, until it takes two inexplicable left turns, ending with a brief 12-string guitar riff and a barrage of drums and squealing saxophones. "Milk" is the oddest, and most amazing of all. It alternates between isolated Black Sabbath-like guitar riffs, saxophone blurts and melancholy accordion, until suddenly a song emerges and all the individual elements combine to form a bombastic arena rock anthem (reminiscent of the dramatic climax of "Lady" by Styx). We swear we're not making this up. —David Newgarden LAIKA Antenna (EP) (Too Pure, 3A Highbury Crescent, London N5 1RN, U.K./071-609-2415)—When Margaret Fiedler left Moonshake last year, she took engineer/multiinstrumentalist Guy Fixsen and bassist John Frenett with her. Laika is their new project and, like Moonshake, it backs Fiedler's sinuous, whispery songs with creepily off-kilter uses of dance technology. "Marimba Song," which appears in two versions on the fourtrack Antenna, is so gracefully and carefully orchestrated that its constant atonalities and rhythmic weirdness (a 7/8 beat subdivided like a crippled samba) slip past easily as Fiedler murmurs "butter and honey and milk and water." "Lyin' Goat" starts like a hardcore techno track, with a tiny, high-speed clicking noise propelling the whole thing, but has its attack softened by chiming synths and Fiedler's coos. Watch for a full-length album from Laika soon. —Douglas Wolk

CATH CARROLL "My Cold Heart" (7") (Teen Beat, P.O. Box 3265, Arlington, VA 22203/703-358-9382)—Though Cath Carroll was in an early Factory band called Miaow and was a music journalist in the '80s, she's probably best known as the cover star of Unrest's Perfect Teeth and namesake to the band's single "Cath Carroll." Whatever the reasons for her long absence from music, she's returned with a single on former Unrest leader Mark Robinson's label Teen Beat. The focal point of the two sleepy songs here is Carroll's voice, which is warm, expressive and softly raspy. The clean sound, acoustic guitar, twangy electric guitar and soft organ touches form a nice bed for her voice on "My Cold Heart," while the less twangy "Into Day" has a billowy, poetic feel. —Lydia Anderson

SHIVA AFFECT "Rest Is Easy" (7") (Frog, 196 Manby Park Road, London E15 U.K./081-579-6186)—As the days of shoegazing become a fading memory and everyone waits to see what My Bloody Valentine will do next, four Englishmen under the moniker Shiva Affect are taking the wall of guitars sound to new levels. "Rest Is Easy" is a gliding, yet not overly tranquil, excursion calling to mind the huzzed-out melodies of Bailter Space. The result is simply alluring—a great pop melody mixed into a magnetic guitar sheen. The flipside, "Pitch Black," pays homage to space guitar gods Chrome, tripping through outer atmospheric reaches, tinny feedback and all. Shiva Affect keeps it simple, but never boring. —Bryan McNamara

MONO MEN "Mystery Girl" (7") (Estrus, P.O. Box 2125, Bellingham, WA 98227/206-637-1187)—For anyone who ever 98227/206-637-1187)—For anyone who ever doubted the vitality of garage rock, the prolific Mono Men once again make a strong case for it, laying down a gritty slab of what they do best. Teasing fans with the approach of their upcoming full-length Sin & Tonic, "Mystery Girl" is as straightforward as it gets, a hep guitar twister with all the right growls and stomps, while the flip, "Sin & Tonic" (notably not on the album) reshuffles the deck and produces a more mysterious surf instrumental. —Colin Helms

SHRIEK Bunnies (7" EP) (Bulb, P.O. Box 8221, Ann Arbor, MN, 48107-8221)-

Michigan's Shriek takes the demented noise offerings of the Boredoms and throws in a bit of Ween's childish sense of humor to come up with a sound that is alternately intense and hysterical. A modest bit of instrumentation, fleshed out with a grab bag of sounds comprises this five-track effort, which takes its artistic inspiration from the Muppets and answering machine messages. "Song Of The Moth Man" is the most "song" oriented of the bunch, almost achieving a sense of cohesion. The radio-unfriendly "Candy Ass Motherfucker" shows how the band handles writer's block, alternating between 10 seconds of playing and a playful "fuck you" for over two minutes. If it sounds slightly moronic, well, it is, but that's part of Shriek's charm. —Bryan McNamara

JACKPOT!

HUGH Hugh (EP) (1358 Funston Ave., San Francisco, CA 94122/415-681-3912)— While Hugh doesn't admit it anywhere on its bio, there's a pretty good chance that the band's members have a couple of Slint records lying around the house. More than a few Slint-influenced bands are turning up these days, but Hugh manages to stand out from the rest by means of skilled songwriting, a mature and practiced sound, and a slowly growing D.I.Y. catalogue. Earning bonus points for the swank, hand silk-screened jacket, this seven-song EP clocks in at nearly 40 minutes, making it eligible for full-length LP status. Hugh works within a six-to-seven-minute song structure, maximizing the contradiction between its lumbering, pensive verses and the noisy, cathartic, angry choruses they erupt into. On the second side the band even surprised us a bit by breaking out of its mold on "Little Acoustic Thing," which is just that. Though Hugh wears its influences on its collective shirtsleeve, the group knows where to draw the line and try something new. These are by no means simple songs, and it seems that Hugh has graciously honed its craft for awhile before recording this record. With a 7", a compilation appearance (the esteemed Germ's Choice 1994) an EP under its belt, and another 7" as well as two CDs in the works for summer and fall, Hugh should prove to be a promising bet in the coming -Cheryl Botchick year.

F.Y.I.

Punk is a tag stuck on just about any band that plays heavy rock and doesn't make any money. As the D.I.Y. ethic experiences a resurgence in the '90s, too many average, samey and generally uninspiring bands get away with mediocrity because they're "hardcore." Luckily, once in a while a decent band in the low-profile college circuit actually records some worthwhile stuff. And this bring us to emiLy (c/o Rent to Own, P.O. Box 1138, Notre Dame, IN 46556-1138). On this demo, recorded live at the WVKC studios at Knox College, in Galesburg, IL, emiLy exudes the joyous spirit of punk rock—no budget, no career plans, just a bunch of kids beating up on instruments they saved up their Christmas and lawnmowing-job money to buy. with strong nods to punk stalwarts like Fugazi, emiLy proves to be far more competent than those straight-up 4/4-time punkers that all the brothers mosh to at trat parties. Despite a really spotty production, the music's power shines through, especially on the punchy "Bannana 6" [sic] and the emocore-ish "Cold Beer." The melodic "5[Frialator]" even calls to mind the genius of Agent Orange. Tight, but still punk enough to miss a note here or there, emiLy shows all the signs of band with a bright future. —D.I.Y.

JACKPOTY-

EASY The Sun Years and EGGSTONE Somersault (Soap, P.O. Box 3271, London SW2 1AQ, U.K./071-738-6112)—Due to legalities, the Swedish label Snap has changed its name to Soop, which misses the metaphorical attributes of the original name. Snap/Soop's popdriven rock manifesto is exemplified by Popsicle's epic debut album Lacquer from last year, but Easy runs a very close second, with the same end-to-end manic pop thrill. The quintet was originally signed to Blast First, until that label's business wrangles upended the band's progress, but not before its debut album Magic Seed signalled a 'C-86' era indie-pop rumble. After Easy's two year absence, the "Never Seen A Star" single indicated that a more dream-pop propulsion was now at work, which the aptly-named The Sun Years confirms, a surfeit of fuzzier, dream-cake guitars breaking through a warm, 'Sun years' glow, as John Holmlund's Americanized, lazy-choirboy drawl adds more distinct character. On "In Black And White" (the new single, replete with strings), "Someone's Mecca" and "Never Seen A Star," Easy has harnessed a pure-pop energy that radiates a contemporary psych-pop wobbliness, while there's a danceadelic laxity to the summer-shimmering "Listen To The Bells" and bluesy thrust to the title track. Imagine if the Charlatans had really developed the potential of their earliest singles; Easy as that, By comparison, Eggstone falls more in line with the '60s beat-pop era, on both rocker and ballad fronts, with more crisply defined edges—think Merseybeat/Beatles and 'new wave'/XTC (especially vocals and harmonies), maybe even "Aztec Camera meets the Monkees meets the Small Faces, "according to one pundit's description. "It's Not The Rain" and the gorgeously featherlight "Good Morning" shows that the sun shines bright on Eggstone too. The trio is as accomplished and pop-intuitive as Easy; which one turns you on depends on personal taste, but both bands unquestionably administer the right stuff.

NECTARINE NO. 9 Guitar Thieves

(Postcard/Nighttracks, Electron House, Cray Ave., Orpington, Kent BR5 3PN, U.K./0689-870622)—After a notable absence, the man for whom the word 'maverick' was invented, ex-Fire Engines/Win mentor Davy Henderson, returned with Nectarine No. 9. The band's evening sessions on the national 1FM were deemed better than the Sea And Three Stars album, so here they are. Henderson's perverse-pop aesthetic—whether angular or gooey in melody, the sign reads 'terrorist at play'—gets further fractured, as ideas are quickly unveiled, chopped about, even quickly dropped, in pursuit of fresher thrills. Album tracks like "The No You Mean" and "22 Blue" are joined by new songs like "Frownland, with its speeded Halloween-y vocal, and a cover of the Velvets' "Inside Of Your Heart," with filmic-style incidental links recorded for this album. The result is like some chemically imbalanced party, where the guests include Kenneth Anger, Andy Warhol, Marc Bolan and Eno-the art-wave/punk antics of 1976 and 1980 link arms with more contemporary sample-based chaos-scapes, but are also akin to the alien headiness of Eno-era Roxy Music. Nefarious drugs or not, the result is like a 1994 Smile more paranoid, mirror-cracked versions of candyfloss pop. Overground meets underground, but certainly no middle ground.

OVER EAS

PSYLONS Gimp (Thunderbird, Cranford House, 24A Longley Road, Rainham, Kent ME8 7RU, U.K./0634-261559)—With a triple-guitar arsenal, Southern England (Portsmouth) quintet the Psylons channel almost as much electricity as its near-namesake structures. Though the band has been around since 1986, it's only released a six-track cassette before this debut album. Produced by Jim Shaw of the Cranes, the 11-track set shows an epic guitarscape in the Bunnymen/Chameleons/Into Paradise/Sound mold, but with the monochrome flux of Wire and Sonic Youth. The result, in fact, bears little resemblance to any potential influences, working up its own sinewy, panic-station tension—not just because of its budget, Gimp could have been recorded in a damp air-raid shelter—amplified by deep, ominous vocals and the dense, straining wail of those guitars. "Scrap Brain" is the most agitated churn, a cover of Syd Barrett's "Late Night" the calmest, the rest rumbling around somewhere in between, with "Bug," "Blind," "Runner" and "Come Around" the most addictively unnerving. Get Gimped.

PLUS, ALSO, TOO After two albums of nearly-there potential,

STRANGELOVE truly arrives with "Time For The Rest Of Your Life." It's an epic, ambitious track, with the anthemic aura of Scott Walker or the Doors, welded onto sturdily quivering guitars and fearsome, baritone vocals, both of which walk a dynamic tightrope between clenched-teeth rock and interludes of suspended animation, with more peaks than any one song should rightly contain. Strangelove treats Bob Dylan's "Motorpsycho Nightmare" with methodical sparse dexterity, sounding like prime The The, while the nearly seven-minute "It's So Easy" is a sublime piano-andvoice ballad that is more gripping for not overplaying its anguish. A definite single of the year (Food, 20 Manchester Sq., London WC1A, U.K./071-486-4488)...ECHOBELLY just got its first music-press cover (Melody Maker) in time for its third single. Like Gene, the influence of the Smiths is more of a positive push toward greater things than a negative drawback, and "I Can't Imagine The World Without Me" (about the universalism of individualism), is a sashaying, fierce little number, with a slow, dreamy, brass decorated middle eight and a climax where Sonia Aurora-Madan triumphantly bellows "me, me, me, me, "Sober" is a delicate, touching ballad that wavers a little too close to Sonia's Mancunian idol (the end is pure "That Joke Isn't Funny Anymore"), while "Venus Wheel" is a roughed-up rockabilly-ish dash. It's interesting how Asian-born Sonia has so successfully harnessed the generically white indiepop preserve; with a mission of sorts that embraces racism and sexism, she is one of Britpop's more vital new sparks (Fauve, Queens Studios, 121 Salisbury Rood, London, U.K./071-372-3959)...In 1992, SWALLOW got signed to 4AD, almost as a replacement for the departing Cocteau Twins. The band has since severed links and secured new ones with Rough Trade, and its Hush EP is immeasurably better than the underachieving debut album; the electro-pop languor is more extreme, precious, daring, quixotic and intoxicating, as if Swallow had swallowed some deadly nightshade. The effect seeps through as the songs get progressively sleepier and treaclier, ending up at the opiated version of Steve Miller's "Dead Mary" (Rough Trade, 66 Golborne Road, London W10 5PS, U.K./081-960-9888) ... IVY is not the same band as the Seed variety; this quarter is from Norwich in Eastern England, with "Wish You Would" released on a sampler and re-recorded for the band's debut single. Would you believe, hy is quintessentially Sarah—winsome female vocals' n' harmonies, gently buzzing guitars and that sweet-sad atmosphere—hopelessly pretty. The band has a closer affiliation with the Cocteau Twins in the dynamics—a drum machine, tailchasing guitar patterns—and Spencer Harrison's giddy-angel vocal and layers of self-harmonies make for a more enticing mix, although "Nowhere To Mourn" is a faster, more straightforward and therefore less special version (Sarah, P.O. Box 691, Bristol BS99 1FG/0272-636929)...Cathal Coughlan has come a long way from the AOR subversion of Microdisney. FATIMA MANSIONS have pursued an abrasive, confrontational front with new wave-style dynamics but "Humiliate Me"—a free onesided 7" single in a rubber sleeve given away at a recent London residency—is more like a garage Metallica with Coughlan's vocal reaching parchedthroat punk proportions. A messy, funny, thrashy, bloody, take-no-prisoners kind of single. No label as such, but try Kitchenware at (091) 232-4895...GARP is a Rage Against The Senser Peppers prototype, living in garageland on an electronic tip, so a bit closer to a Nine Inch Nails. "Prototype" and its close cousin B-side "Believe In All The Hype" takes the best from both worlds, with great megaphoned vocals over a barrage of interlinked blips, noise and sample hooks (orchestras, sitar drones). Sense fans might take offence, but this is arguably the most convincing techno-rap urbanscape to come out of the U.K. (Sugar, c/o Spicy Promotions, P.O. Box 2670, Chelmsford CM3, U.K./phone Hall Or Nothing PR at 081-740-6288)...FOREHEADS IN A FISHTANK's second album Yeah Baby Wow (Some Bizarre) was an inspired mush of soundbites and art rock-afflicted song 'perversions.' The story continues with "My Whippy" (a brand of travelling ice cream van), a sing-along indie-pop thang with submerged background noise that explodes into submerged background noise that explodes into chaos for the choruses, building up to a heady flip-my-wig climax. "Cajun" is an accordion-led bastard child of polka and rock, with about 17 nagging hooks. Sounds like fun? Hurry for a limited-edition green 12" vinyl (Newt, P.O. Box 214, Northampton NN2 U.K./phone News PR at 071-486-3441)...Facts to know about classically trained electric violinist Ed Alleyen-Johnson: his violin is fivestringed for extra range; each track is recorded live using echo loops and effects without overdubs or backing tapes; his instrumentals are titled "Red," "Orange," "Yellow" and "Violet" but their luscious luster avoids damning new age classification. A remedy for those starved of classic/rock fusions but are afraid to ask where to find it (Equation, c/o Poole Edwards, 44 Charlotte St., London W1P, U.K./071-436-3632).

DICK DALE

Unknown Territory (Hightone) With a twangy flourish, Dick Dale hightails it from 62-21, making Unknown Territory the #9 Radio Breakthrough and #12 Adventure Pick. Dale's blistering brand of surf guitar has stayed true to form over the course of his 30 plus years of recording, as fierce as his vocal yelps and howls. It seems as if his persistence has paid off, with a continuing interest in his down 'n' dirty kinda sound. Unknown Territory is a bit of a misnomer, since it was reported on 76 stations, with top 5 reports coming from KCPR, KUOI (#1), WCNI, WFHB, WNTI and WRFL (#1).

ON THE CHART

Grand Royal-Capitol's Beastie Boys hold fort at #1, while Atlantic's Stone Temple Pilots remain steady at #2. Interscope's Helmet rushes up to the front in its second week on the chart (49-3), as does Mercury's Kiss My Ass compilation (56-9). Sub Pop's Velocity Girl inches forward this week (13-10)

The summer months are slow for new releases. This week's debuts include: Mercury's John Mellancamp (#23; #1 Breakthrough), Island's Jah Meinancamp (#23; #1 Breakthrough), Island's Jain Wobble (#39), Sire-Reprise's Ride (#45), Creation (UK)'s Oasis (#47), Jive's Aaliyah (#59), Chaos' Youssou N'Dour (#61), Cohiba-Island's MC Solaar (#63), P.R.O. Division/RAL-PG's Terminator X And The Godfathers Of Threat (#63), Everpheia Sever (#70), Surposity For The (#67), Earache's Scorn (#70), Sympathy For The Record Industry's Experimental Audio Research (#71), Rhythm King (UK)'s Echobelly (#73) and american's Medicine (#74).

The oldest man on the chart, american's Johnny Cash, continues to move up (26-15), as does one of the youngest on the chart, K's Beck, who jumps up 40-36. Collision Arts/Giant-WB's Jesus Lizard continues to rock the charts with its live album on Collision Arts/Giant-WB (28-19), while Scat-Matador's Guided By Voices continues its success after plenty of media hype (29-25). Interscope's Drive Like Jehu re-enters the chart at #52 after a lengthy tour. (RETAIL REPORTS PRINTED AFTER TOP 35 REPORTS)

HELMET

Helmet's second album for Interscope, Betty, dashes for the top of the charts this week (49-3) and enters at #1 on the In-store. Longtime Helmet fans should not be fooled by the inno-Helmer tans should not be tooled by the inno-cent cover picture—Betty packs just as much of a wallop as Meantime did. The formula of Meantime has been altered, adding another dimension to Helmet's sound, which had once been thought predictable. The band makes giant leaps after just two weeks on the chart; perhaps next week the band will battle with those Benstie Boys for the top spot. Two with those Beastie Boys for the top spot. Two bands enter the ring, which one will remain standing?

NICE & SMOOTH Jewel Of The Nile (RAL, c/o PolyGram, 825 Eighth Ave., New York, NY 10019)-The self-proclaimed "Return Of The Hip Hop Freaks" couldn't have come at a better time. While so many groups battle for the spotlight with theatrics, complex themes and jargon, Greg Nice and partner Smooth B are playful duo whose offsetting deliveries and nobones attitudes always ensure their verses are simple, fresh and enticing. Greg Nice lets fly highenergy, old-school enthusiasm while Smooth B's conversation-like style parallels the odd meter of Slick Rick or Dana Dane. Jewel Of The Nile, their third release, couples lively metaphors with savory bits of familiar beat and music samples, giving many cuts unlimited crossover potential. Without distancing the street fan, "Return Of The Hip Hop Freaks" is invaded by Schoolly D's "P.S.K. (What Does It Mean)" beat, while the sporty, positive spirit on "The Sky's The Limit" is supported by samples of Prince's "I Wanna Be Your Lover." The most noteworthy moments come on "Let's All Get Down," which features Slick Rick dropping a rhyme like he never went out of style, and the Judgment Night-metalized "Save The Children" with "the crazy, white peckerwood cracker" Everlast (House Of Pain) providing a firm, lyrical smack. While hip-hop radio seems satisfied with "Old To The New," Jewel offers CHR and urban formats an unexpected eye-opener with "Cheri," a simmering R&B ballad featuring Jodeci on vocals. Other jewels: "Let's All Get Down" and the "White Rabbit"-sampled "Do Whatcha Gotta." (GS)

(F.K.A.P.) The Beautiful Experience (EP) (NPG, c/o Bellmark, 7060 Hollywood Blvd. 10th Fl., Hollywood, CA 90028/213-464-8492)—The artist formerly known as Prince came back on to the scene—following his largely misunderstood name change in 1993—with the hit single, "The Most Beautiful Girl In The World." This time, he remixes and redefines the song with six new mixes, plus the original version. All of the remixes here are R&B coated with subtle. sometimes dramatic, musical styles and influences bubbling just below the surface. "Beautiful," with its house-injected groove, and "Staxowax," with its mid-tempo funk romp, will undoubtedly lodge themselves in your head. Also take note of Mayte (who is actually the Crown Princess of Cairo) and her amusing dialogue on "Mustang Instrumental." Even though these are only remixes of the one song, each one takes on a life of its own.

ON THE CHART

OH SO CLOSE: Only one report separated this week's #1 and #2 positions: Payday/ffrr-ILS' Jeru The Damaja (2-2) bows to Columbia's Nas (1-1) for another frustrating week. The ill trio known as the Beastie Boys moves III Communication from 5-3, while Chrysalis-EMI's Gang Starr (4-4) holds steady and labelmates Arrested Development jumps from 8-6. Future chart-sitters include the first full-length from Violator-Relativity's Beatnuts (11-10), Gee Street-Island's Gravediggaz (18-11) and RAL-PG's Nice & Smooth, who run Jewel Of The Nile up 1712. This week we welcome in debuts from Tommy Boy's House Of Pain, which debuts Same As It Ever Was at #22, OKeh-Epic's G. Love And Special Sauce (#32), Jive's Extra Prolific (#34) and P.R.O.Division/RAL-PG's Terminator X And The Godfathers Of Threatt at #36. This week's Adventure Picks: 1) King Tee; 2) Gravediggaz; 3) Rampage-The Last Boyscout; 4) Terminator X; 5) House Of Pain; 6) Public Enemy; 7) Arrested Development; 8) Coolio; 9) Dred Scott; 10) Extra Prolific. above)—It's funny how success can hurt a group. Six years ago, Public Enemy turned hip-hop on its head with bracing messages that were both timely and urgent. Everything about the group was revolutionary: From the relentless onslaught of beats and samples, the militant S1W posse, and the messages it presented, PE created a higher standard in rap that will likely never be matched again-by PE or anyone. Today, critics examine every inch of tape the band produces, expecting the revolution to blow up in their face again, as if

Chuck D could single-handedly turn it on and off. Well, folks, it not going to happen. From the upcoming Muse Sick-N-Hour Mess Age, the bouncy "Give It Up" may seem lifeless being more a possecut than platform to drop science (the remix offers live drums), but Chuck D. still garners the full attention from this reviewer and lifetime fan.

DON'T FRONT

The following releases hit their mark better than a wide-open New York Knick guard: Warm and funky, the debut from DES'REE, entitled Mind Adventure went down smoother than an expensive, imported brew. Des'ree makes a return with "You Gotta Be" (from the upcoming I Ain't Movin' LP) [96 BPM] (550 Music, c/o Epic, 550 Madison Ave., New York, NY 10022-3211), her tranquil, Anita Baker-meets-Caron Wheeler voice gliding over lush, percussive melodies. For a nice meal, try "You Gotta Be" with the debut from hot new street-diva missiones, entitled "Don't Front" [92 BPM] (StepSun, c/o Tommy Boy, 902 Broadway, 13th FL, New York, NY 10010/212-388-8300). Missjones swiftly takes her place next to the likes of Mary J. Blige and SWV—'cept this girl has more natural, understated soul. For a bird of a different feather, turn on your video channel and check out the radio, because the LADY OF RAGE's "Afro Puffs" [92 BPM] (Death Row/ Interscope, c/o Atlantic, 75 Rockefeller Plaza, New York, NY 10019) is the next bomb detonated from the Above The Rim soundtrack. Additional production is handled by Dr. Dre. Double phatt shoutouts to Funkenklein (Hollywood BASIC), Mr. Bill Stephney (he's still watching), Kareem, Anne-Marie and Kelly-Lynn (StepSun), Sincere (PG) and Vanessa (Rowdy), and am I the only one who's caught World Cup fever? Word out

WORD IS.

Casting dark shadows on this Independence Day will be Ruthless-Relativity's ABOVE THE LAW, which will release Uncle Sam's Curse on July 5, drawing attention to inequality in Americaand we thought Uncle Sam was dead (see Ice Cube's Death Certificate)... ARRESTED DEVELOPMENT, along with six well-known South African groups, headlined the Soweto Day Concert in Johannesburg, South Africa on June 16. With an address by President Nelson Mandela, the show commemorated the anniversary of the 1976 uprisings marking the modern activist age in the struggle against apartheid...Delicious Vinyl's PHARCYDE plans to be on the Lollaplacoza tour later this summer... Look for Jive's A TRIBE CALLED QUEST on the tour starting July 1...Elektra's PETE ROCK & C.L. SMOOTH are planning to release their second full-length, The Main Ingredient, in September... KING TEE has joined the MCA roster and will soon be releasing his album, King Tee IV Life...Now that Jive has wisely signed California's E-40, the label has re-released his EP, The Mailman with the two new cuts, "Ballin' Outta Control" and "Captain Save A Hoe (Remix)," tagged on. Epic Street's Manager of College Black Music, Ron Archer, is looking for regional reps: Send your resume to Ron at 550 Madison Ave., New York, NY 10022-3211, or fax it to 212-833-5780.

HANGIN' WITH..

BILL STEPHNEY: President, StepSun Music Call him a hip-hop historian, intellectual or progressive thinker: StepSun Music President Bill Stephney is a key figure in today's hip-hop hierarchy. Starting as a Frankie Crocker-wannabe at WBAU, where he introduced the hip-hop format, Bill has left deep footprints wherever he has worked. In 1985, he founded CMI's Beat Box section, giving hip-hop its first national chart (shameless plug), before moving on to work for Def Jam during its heyday. While at Def Jam, Bill conceptualized Public Enemy (and supervised production on the first two albums) with friend Chuck D. before launching the now-defunct SOUL Records with Hank Shocklee. Today, he's at the helm of StepSun Music, home of artists like missjones, Troubleneck Brothers and Paul Mooney. Just as Public Enemy is getting ready to release its sixth album, I recently kicked back with Bill about the early days of PE, and how it all started.

"One of the things I did write about in the next-tolast or last issue I did for CMJ was that I was leaving to work at another label and one of my dreams was to put together a group that could combine the politics of The Clash with Run-D.M.C.," recalls Bill. "While I was at CMJ, they [Chuck and Flavor Flav] were pretty much together in that they existed as Spectrum City—and they had a record out on Vanguard called 'Check Out The Radio.' What happened was it turned up in the 25 cent bin within a couple of weeks. Chuck and Flav had done this freestyle tape called 'Public Enemy No. 1' that [Dr.] Dre (of Yo! MTV Raps fame) played on WBAU. It gets great response—it's on top of the break beat, 'Blow Your Head' by the JB's—and Dre brings it up to Rick [Rubin]—Dre had signed to Rick already as an artist, and he [Rick] had loved this other tape that Dre had done called, 'Knowledge Me,' which is now the basis for 'Born To Roll' by Masta Ace. Rick loves it, he loves Chuck's voice Of course Run, D[MC] and Jay are saying that this guy is the second coming—everyone's going crazy. Now Chuck didn't want to go through the whole Vanguard Records experience again—he's a very competitive guy—and didn't want to see his records in the 25 cent bin again, and essentially didn't want to be a rapper anyway, he wanted to be a radio guy because he was still doing his Super Spectrum Mix show on WBAU and wanted to try and take that commercial radio station. So Rick comes to me and says what can we do to sign your boy Chuckie D? He didn't want to do it, he didn't want to become a rapper—he didn't want to be marginalized. Rick, in a jocular fashion (I think) says, 'If Chuckie D. doesn't sign to Def Jam, you're fired!' So now I had to convince Chuck, and again, he didn't want to do it-he and Hank [Shocklee] wanted to do other things. So at that point what I did propose was that we really reconfigure everything and try and take the concept that I always talked about and really work it, and maybe we could really put a whole spin on everything. At that point, they were with it, Chuck and Flavor signed, except we didn't have a name for the group. I told them to come up with a name, and one day I came back to the studio, I looked on the board, and they had 'Public Enemy' up there which of course came from the freestyle record they had done. So it was pretty easy for me mister Media Rationalization: (mockingly) 'Oh, of course all black males are public enemies in 1986-19871' So it was pretty easy to work it. And also with the CMJ background, and other writing I did, I was able to work in the whole 'alternative' thing and come up with some of the rock 'n' roll theatrics, and combine it with some of the stuff we were doing. So, at least, the band had a little bit more of an alternative tilt to it than most rap groups had."

ARGHYYY It's the loud rock report

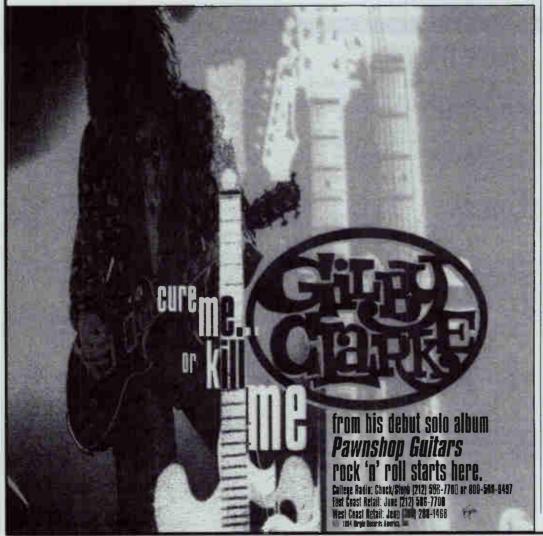

OVERKILL W.F.O.

(Atlantic, 75 Rockefeller Plaza, New York, NY 10019)—The past decade has seen many of thrash's big-name founding bands turn "mainstream," while up-and-coming thrash bands were being crushed by the monstrous Seattle-grunge scene. Overkill celebrates its 10th anniversary by remaining true to its roots, while still exhibiting a tremendous amount of musical growth and retaining an amazingly huge and dedicated fanbase. W.F.O. (the band's seventh LP, and first one produced solely by the band) is definitely a cut above the rest and is sure to make many a metal-lover's mouth water. This is fast-riding/fist-in-the-air/head-banging music at its best, cloaked in darkness and permeated thraughout by a very heavy, funky bass line. Proving his vacal diversity, Bobby "Blitz" Ellsworth takes it a few octaves lower on this album, and even sneaks in a few growls and snarls. "Fast Junkie" careens out-ofcontrol dawn a path of inescapable destruction, through intense, wailing guitar bursts and thick power metal grooves. "They Eat Their Young" aggressively rips and slams through chord after chord, devouring everything in sight, while the instrumental "R.I.P. (Undone)" serves up some melodic acoustic strummings. Also check out the fiery evil of "Gasoline Dream," the taunting rasp of "Where It Hurts," the attitude-laden "What's Your Problem" and the pissed-off power of "Supersonic Hate" for a "wide fucking open" ride with the boys through the fast-lane of metal. —Jenni Glenn

DESULTORY Bitterness (Metal Blade

(Metal Blade, 3245 Erringer Road, Ste. 108, Simi Valley, CA 93065-2200/805-522-9111)—Hmmmmm, a death metal band that focuses an life?! Primary lyricist Hakan Morberg (bass) explains: "Most brutal bands write about death and afterlife. I choose to write about life, 'cause as I see it, life is much more interesting than death." Desultory sucks in all of life's fear, uncertainty and despair, only to spit it back out through a thick mass of heavy, aggressive instrumentation. The music doesn't plod along repetitively or flail around uncontrollably; instead, it's an unpredictable, tight mix of varying tempos, gripping guitar riffs and dark, fareboding intensity. Bitterness, produced by Tomas Skogsberg (Entombed, Dismember, Grave) and Dismember drummer Fred Estby, takes death metal to a new level by capturing the cold realities of life and loneliness, instead of haphazardly spewing out blood-laden tales of gore. "Life Shatters" blasts with sharp-edged guitar licks and pelting drum blows, interspersed with melodic breaks, while "Winter" churns with stark, gloomy rhythms and icy, pained vocals. "Left Behind" shudders feverishly with grinding rhythms, capturing the empty feeling of aching solitude with dark and distraught melodies. Also check out "A Closing Eye," "Taste Of Tragedy," "Enslaved" and "Cold Bitterness." — Jenni Glenn

RHINO BUCKET Pain

(Moonstone, 3030 Andrita St., Los Angeles, CA 90065/213-341-5959)—No frills, no gadgets, no machines, no sampling...just potent, straight-forward, raw edged rock 'n' roll. Rhino Bucket has been belting out its high energy, intensified blend of jamming party rock for the past seven years and, with the release of Pain, it's obvious the band will be around for many more. Despite numerous camparisons to veteran Aussie rockers AC/DC, Rhina Bucket has its own unparalleled recipe for rock, which shines through on every track of Pain. Sure, Georg Doliva (vocals/guitar) sounds a lot like the late Bon Scott, but who cares? With the addition of ex-AC/DC drummer Simon Wright, even more comparisons are sure to fly, but one listen to Pain reveals that Rhino Bucket isn't just another rip-off band. The album rocks with tons of attitude, potent guitar grinds and riproaring drum blasts that'll pound out any preconceived opinions you may have of the band. If straight-shooting, blood-pumping hard rock with a touch of bluesy guitar is your game, then Pain is the name. The album opener and title track drags you out of the starting gate and is the perfect prelude to a rough 'n' tumble ride through the remaining nine tracks. Also check aut "Blow By Blow," "Bird On A Wire," "What'd You Expect," "The Hard Grind" and "World Gone Mad." —Jenni Glenn

GODFLESH Merciless (EP)

(Earache, c/o Columbia, 550 Madison Ave., New York, NY 10022-3211)—Godflesh, one of the original bands of the industrial-aggro-metal scene, returns in pure form in '94 with an album due in the fall. While we wait for the main course, the band has dropped a "new" EP, Merciless, which consists of different versions of previously released tracks. The remix thing is, of course, nothing new in loud rock these days, but Godflesh brings its own slant to this art form; the first three cuts, "Merciless," "Blind" and "Unworthy" (all from the band's last album, Pure), are not merely remixes, but "biomechanical mixes" of the original versions. Rather than using the popular technique of extending a tune and adding more drum beats, Godflesh breaks down each tracks to its components, and then reconstructs the song in a whole new way. The other selection, "Flowers," is a more conventional "trance remix" of an older tune, "(Don't Bring Me) Flowers." While old-school metalheads might snicker at the merging of heavy rock and techno-type stuff, there are some very interesting things that have been done recently in this subgenre by Nine Inch Nails, Ministry, Sister Machine Gun and others, not to mention some hard rock tunes which have been remixed with great results (KMFDM's work with White Zombie and Living Colour comes to mind). If you are still unfamiliar with this type of music, Merciless is a great place to start -Brian lyes

MERCYFUL FATE The Bell Witch (EP)

(Metal Blade, address above)—No introduction is needed here...King Diamond has already made his indelible mark on the metal industry with his unforgettable charisma and brutally evil ways. Mercyful Fate's last album, In The Shadows, was a landmark album for the band and two of the outstanding tracks from that album, "The Bell Witch" and "Is That You, Melissa," are highlighted on this EP. The other four tracks ("Curse Of The Pharoahs," "Egypt," "Come To The Sabbath" and "Black Funeral") were recorded live by Westwood One Network on October 8, 1993, at The Palace in Los Angeles. "Is That You, Melissa" pierces with Diamond's chilling, high-pitched wails and wicked growls, while the kinetic roar of "Curse Of The Pharoahs" rings with true Mercyful Fate flavor. "Egypt" blasts with ferociously fast guitars, foreboding overtones and eerie, spine-tingling screeches. If you're a Mercyful Fate follower, this powerful live EP should hold you over until the boys release something new. Enter into the ominous lair of Mercyful Fate if you dare. —Jenni Glenn

"Cure Me...Or Kill Me..." (7") (Virgin, 338 N. Foothill Road, Beverly Hills, CA 90210)—Guitarist extraordinaire Gilby Clarke is still very much a part of the Guns N' Roses posse, but he decided to temporarily break away on his own to whip up some outstanding solo work. "Cure Me...Or Kill Me...," the first single from his upcoming Pawn Shop Guitars, is just a taste of what to expect from this extremely catchy, hard-rockin' album. Gilby's rendezvous with fame came when he joined Guns N' Roses back in 1991, after a few years' stint as lead singer/guitarist for Kills For Thrills. His characteristic heavy crunching guitar stylings made him a mainstay with the band and garnered the attention of thousands. This single highlights Gilby's amazing guitar talent, as well as his vocal and songwriting abilities. "Cure Me...Or Kill Me..." will get your head-a-bobbin' and feet-amovin' immediately on first listen with infectious guitar riffs, slammin' rhythms and instantly hummable choruses. Guns N' Roses must have the same enthusiasm and belief in Gilby's music, as the entire line-up joins him on various album tracks, not to mention guest appearances from ex-Pixie Frank Black and Skid Row drummer Rob Affuso. Sit back, pump up the volume and enjoy a hefty shot of pure adrenalin with this hard rock gem. —Jenni —Jenni Glenn

Almost every one of my bands are on the road this summer. It's so f@1*#ing crazy!! BLACK TRAIN JACK will be on the road with Mighty Mighty Bosstones in August. BUZZOV-EN doing some headlining dates on the east coast. Expect their new release, Sore, in July. DOG EAT DOG hitting the road with Biohazard late July. They are touring the northeast until then. MADBALL is on the road with Murphy's Law and The Toasters. Their debut release, Set If Off, will also be out in July. LIFE OF AGONY will be doing co-headlining dates with Carcass, which kicks off July 21st in San Francisco. TYPE O NEGATIVE are currently on the road with Motley Crue and King's X. The SEPULTURA,

Call us for all the dates and venues, and every one of these bands are doing interviews. A big "THANK YOU" for those DJs who did interviews with NAILBOMB, Dog Eat Dog and Cynic. You rule! The debut release for MACHINE HEAD is amazing. Just ask Bill Peters from WUJC. Get ready, boys and girls, the new OBITUARY will be here in July.

Sharon Joffe, Arista Records, New York, NY (800) 627-4782 ext. 2144

The full Airheads CD will go for metal radio adds on July 25. Mark your calendars now! You should have gotten the cassette sampler in the mail to tempt your ears and satisfy those cravings, but just wait 'til you hear the whole CD from beginning to end! Practically all new, previously unreleased material from MOTORHEAD, PRONG, 4 NON BLONDES, White Zombie, CANDLEBOX and more. Call for giveaways and any further questions. Thanks to everyone (you know who you are) for making my BIOHAZARD adventure so extreme! If you have not had the opportunity to witness the Biohazard, Sepultura and Pantera assault, you should find a way! More Biohazard tour info to follow! In the meantime, keep the State Of The World Address status quo. No, RPLA is not The Cult. Add "Last Night..." the 27th and 28th. Also, welcome Ray aboard @ Giant. He'll be your metal type there. Contact him @ (212) 226-7272. Yes, we're still a team, so you can still call us! No, I'm sorry on L7's "Andres." Add it 27th and 28th! This record is unbelievable. It's sick, it's heavy, it's awesome. The full, Hungry For Stink, will be hitting you in more ways than one on 7/11. Finally, some ATOMIC OPERA dates announced...SummerFest Milwaukee, 7/10 and the KNAC Stage @ the Blockbuster Pavillion Pre-Show on the Metallica, Suicidal Tendencies, Alice In Chains, CANDLEBOX (Platinum, here they come!). Jon Nardachone, Atlantic Records, New York, NY (212) 275-2135

The frenzied reaction to the new OVERKILL single, "Fast Junkie," is even larger than the allergic reaction I suffered from eating bad fruit this weekend. At metal radio, "Fast Junkie" is THEE SHIT! Overkill is THEE SHIT! This band shows that cool heavy music is a far cry from ever going away. Many bands on the road: GODSPEED, KING'S X, STP, COLLAPSING LUNGS, STUTTERING JOHN, COLLECTIVE SOUL, SURGERY, RUST, JAWBOX ... call the above # for info and tix. New King's X single is "Pillow!" A CD-Pro with live stuff is on the way! "Pillow" is just the track to cause the perfect stir for this most amazing band. The new SAVATAGE record will be titled Handful Of Rain and I really don't have the words yet to explain just how mammoth it will be. New Kyuss, Stompbox, L7 and Helmet rule my world. Get 'Wide Fucking Open!!!"

ROLLINS BAND DROWN SUICIDAL TENDENCIES CARCASS ENTOMBED

You can take MOSE ALLISON out of Mississippi, but you can't take Mississippi out of Mose Allison.

After "44 years in this deal," the 66-year-old product of Tippo, Mississippi—who has actually lived on Long Island for decades—is seeing his perseverence pay off with a strong resurgence in popularity. With a new Blue Note CD, The Earth Wants You, and a sackful of reissues on the market or soon to be, the hip, white-haired composer, pianist and singer is a prime candidate for apotheosis with an MTV crowd that has embraced Tony Bennett as the epitome of Cool. Indeed, Allison's bracingly avuncular wit and wisdom (delivered in a deadpan voice at once contrasted with and complemented by a buoyant, bluesy sense of swing) could provide the perfect sop for a nihilistic, under-25 Generation X in need of collective consolation after its hero, Kurt Cobain of the grunge group Nirvana, sought his reward not with a song but with a shotgun. (Hey, Allison's new disk is lively enough that the X-sters could mosh to it-pass supine bodies overhead from person to person-in a club while their homebound parents nosh low-fat food to it.)

Neither a fuddy-duddy nor a fossil, the social commentator/satirist whose song "Your Mind Is On Vacation (But Your Mouth Is Working Overtime)" never fails to elicit laughs takes exception, mildly, in a soft-spoken drawl, to the "cynical" and "caustic" tabels affixed to his image. What's more, he no longer performs "cottonsack songs" such as "Parchman Farm." Explains Allison: "I quit doing songs based in that sharecropper sociology. The cottonsack era has been gone a long time. If you go down to the Delta now, it's completely different. There are no small farmers anymore. There are big farms with machines and chemicals and all that."

The small farmers may have vanished, but their wisdom remains. The sly misdirection underlying the Southern farmer's adage that prompted Allison to write "I Don't Worry About A Thing" ("because I know nothing's going to be all right") is alive and well, sort of, in the title track of The Earth Wants You: If you feel neglected by someone you love/Even get rejected when push comes down to shove/You think nobody gives a damn about what you're going through/But one thing you can count on/The Earth wants you.

Sounds cheerful, éh? But these seemingly depressive words are defity counterbalanced by a half-Cuban, half-Cajun bounce accompaniment, a "Cajun boogie-woogie" Allison says is traceable to rhythms played in the '50s by pianist Lloyd Glenn. "It's meant to be humorous," Allison says. "That old ironic approach—that stoic, rural farm-person understatement—is all part of it. A lot of people mistake that for cynicism, when it's actually funny, a joke, to me. A lot of people tell me that my songs have made them feel better in bad times. [Songwriting] is my own therapy. By writing about your teelings, you can get a release from them. And there's no way in the world you can [perceive] something as cynical if it swings."

Swing has always been the thing for Allison, whose pianistry is an amalgam of interlocking

ON THE CHART

Verve-PG's Roy Hargrove Quintet posts its third week at the top of the chart, Elektra sax star David Sanborn moves up (12-5) and Qwest-Reprise's Milt Jackson (9-3) is enjoying good vibes. The big climbers of the week are Columbia's Black/Note (18-6) and MoJazz' Norman Brown (23-9). Rounding out the top 10 is Elektra Nonesuch's World Saxophone Quartet (#10 debut), fresh out of the box. In a chart rarity, the WSQ has both the #10 and #13 spots, as the group's Black Saint import (15-13) continues "Moving Right Along" with strong radio play. Reporters: please sure to specify which one you are playing in your faxes and phone reports! Also debuting on the chart are New World's Ed Jackson (#19), GRP's Diane Shuur/B.B. King collaboration (#22 with strong retail reports), the second Atlantic "Acoustic Masters" album, this time with Bobby Hutcherson/Craig Handy/Lenny White/Jerry Gonzalez (#24) and Concord's master Latin percussionist Ray Barretto (#25). influences: boogie-woogie (Albert Ammons, Meade Lux Lewis), rural blues, mainstream swing (Erroll Garner, Nat Cole, Lester Young) and modern jazz (Thelonious Monk and Bud Powell, Al Haig and John Lewis). On his new, third Blue Note CD Allison taps the talents of such versatile, blues- and jazz-minded players as Joe Lovano, John Scofield, Hugh McCracken and Paul Motian. Rural blues and modern jazz spring from a "common source," according to Allison, and his orchestrating of these idioms for his canny vocals accounts for the lasting value of his music, which is being reissued, seemingly all at once, by a variety of labels.

seemingly all at once, by a variety of labels. In addition to reissues of his '50s Prestige work and a new two-CD retrospective on Rhino, Allison blasts-from-the-past are expected from Atlantic, Columbia Legacy and Elektra Musician. Joel Dorn's new Ram label has just come out with a live Allison trio date from the late '70s, Pure Mose. Admitting with a laugh that "a lot of people thought I died," Allison remarks, "I've always said that, every so often, people who are considered 'sources' are dug up and given another shot. Maybe it's my time for that." He feels "vindicated" by the reissues, he says, "because if I had done the sort of stuff they sometimes wanted me to do [including a disco album], the records probably wouldn't be reissued." CMJ NEW MUSIC REPORT 31 JULY 4, 1994 semiautobiographical statement-in-swing covering childhood ("This Ain't Me") through protessional salad days ("Cabaret Card") and into golden years ("Certified Senior Citizen"). Even more, The Earth Wants You offers the bard's concise takes on celebrity ("Who's In Who's Out") and the psychic collisions between the sexes ("What a Shame," in which he pinpoints: Men...prone to pathetic obsessions/ Women...bearing the burden of procreation.../What a shame, such a mess. Allison may no longer do "cottonsack songs," but he extols, in amusing 6/8 time, "the land of cotton" in "Variations on Dixie." Through it all, though, he insists he's no nostalgist: "I'm into doing a show that's pertinent right now, tonight.

Longevity—and sticking to one's principles—in showbiz has its rewards, and chief among them for Allison is still live performance. In 44 years of travel, often as a single (he does roughly 130 nights per year), he has cultivated top-notch rhythm sections in every major city. "I even have a good bass player in Hong Kong!" he notes. Terming himself an "independent, small operator," he emphasizes: "I'm a jazz musician who plays for a living. It's never easy getting work as a jazz player, but things seem to be rising for me. A good night for me is when I play something I've never played before."

JACKPOT!

JOEY BELTRAM The Re-Releases 1989-91 (double 12") (Trax/932 W.38th Pl., Chicago, IL 60610/312-247-3033)—The last single from Joey Beltram for the Trax label was the pummelling Sound Generator EP, which saw the Brooklynite keeping things wrapped tight and stripped to the bone for one of the best outings of his career. Now he's recorded eight more instrumental jump trax that'll keep all of you flying 'til summer's end. Whether these were recorded last week or between '89-'91 really makes little difference, because in keeping with the most vital contemporary movement in underground dance, minimalist hardhouse, Beltram lets the 909 speak volumes here, embellishing its raw kinetic power with flashes of synth chords and heavy metallic flirts and bursts. When sounds like these are left to linger too long in the mix, they can weigh the music down; but Beltram, like Robert Armani and Eric Martin, keeps everything moving at high velocity, dodging the drum-and-bass hits, enabling those hard synth sounds to form part of the percussive power of the track. Despite the disappointing pressing quality, this set of tracks is a necessary acquisition.

CHRISTIAN VOGEL Tales From The Heart (EP) (Force Inc., Germany/69-239918)— Christian Vogel is a protege of the highly lauded Dave Clarke, who released Vogel's first two EPs last year. Despite his relative obscurity, Vogel must now ranks alongside Clarke and Luke Slater as one of the most innovative U.K. techno producers. His latest EP demonstrates a clarity of artistic vision which will win him a much larger audience. Vogel is stylistically indebted to the spartan groove maneuvers of Dave Clarke, Robert Hood and Robert Armani, though he speeds things up quite a bit (to around 129 BPM) and envelops the project with a semi-operatic sci-fi texture, particularly on the haunting "A.M.O.V.A.," which breaks down to muffled, fractured, rising and falling synth chords before the 909 percussion again rears its head.

There's enough acid in the title track to hold a second Woodstock, though it never falls to selfindulgent pyrotechnics as often happens with ambitious young acid creators. Vogel will certainly remain part of the growing electronic dancefloor movement.

VOCAL SUPPORT

This has been another fine week for well-constructed, emotive vocal house records, starting with the most in-demand garage label of the year, Music Station. With yet another release in the past two weeks, this stable shows no signs of slowing down. And why should they, with the Mentalinstrum and Smack Productions teams in residence over in Englewood? BARRON McGILL's "Brighter" is an uplifting, sweeping dancefloor igniter with a minimum of production tricks; they're just not needed with the sort of board work done by the Smack crew on the "Melodious Club Dub," which keeps things lean and mean and full of steam (Music Station, c/o Dancefloor Distribution, 111 Codar Lane, Englewood, NJ 07631/201-568 766)...The Red Cat label's promising debut (picked here two weeks ago) has been followed by the gripping "Holdin' Back" (12") by OASIS OF SOUL, a sprightly six-mix 12" with immaculate production work by the inimitable Roy Davis, Jr. and sidekick Damon Neloms, who, between the two of them, can whip up a rhythm that just won't quit. "Holdin' Back" is deeper and more songstructured than the last record, with vocals by Alonzo Hunter, but that demonstrates that Davis and Neloms can make great vocal house as well as sweltering instrumental dubs (Red Cat, 4343 W.

ON THE CHART

Astralwerks-Caroline's Future Sound Of London is hanging in there at #1, with the Waveform compilation, One A.D. (2-2) not far behind. This week's highest new entry comes from those European electronic explorers of old, LassIgue Bendthaus, with its first domestic release for Restless at #17. The venerable Saint Etienne's new full-length appears at #23, while the prog house exercise by Prohibition debuts at #25. Elsewhere, there's not much movement this week as the slower summer release schedules begin to take effect. This week's longevity awards go to Wax Trax-TVT's Ethnotechno comp, in the chart for 14 weeks, and the Aphex Twin, whose Vol. II of the Selected Amblent Works clocks in 12 weeks. Lincoln Hwy. Ste. 303, Matteson, IL 60443/708-747-9444)...The latest corker from the Downtown 161 folks is the spirited "Work Song" by NICK JONES with DOROTHY OLIVER. Now, Nick Jones is, in all likelihood, the famed DJ Pierre, and the restless vitality in these mixes makes it seem all the more probable. Miss Oliver's vocals are superb, sounding at times like a cross between Eartha Kitt, circa "Where Is My Man?" and Kim Mazelle. The death-defying, tightrope organ tricks here, courtesy of the Blade To The Rhythm posse, fit perfectly with Jones' deft handling of the bass line. Four mixes, all of them incendiary (Downtown 161, 20 Greene St., New York, NY 10019/212-965-0065)...The immensely talented TOMMYE has returned with a sterling vocal house single, "My Mind," which has a maddeningly catchy keyboard refrain. His debut lament, "I Need To Go Away (All By Myself)," went out of print instantly and has achieved cult status in little over a year. This one should really make his presence known. His label, I-D, has already sent Chantay Savage up to RCA in the past year, and Tommye shouldn't be far behind. This is a shining sophomore effort (I-D, 9520 W. 47th St., Brookfield, II 60513/708-387-7100). REQUIRED LISTENING 101

YOUSSOU N'DOUR The Guide (Wommot) (Chaos, 550 Madison Ave., New York, NY 10022-3211)-I admit to having something that sits on the border of ambivalence and disdain whenever Youssou N'Dour releases another recording. It's partially a knee-jerk reaction to the homogenization of pop music around the world, partially the fact that I have such a passion for the mbalax music he made in the past. A Youssou N'Dour album is "an event" in the world of world music, and therefore impossible to ignore. Writing a review of The Guide becomes an exercise in restraint and re-examination. I thought since there's already been a glowing review of the album in the Jackpotl section, I'd just ramble through some tracks and see what's up. I put the CD player on 'random" and here's some of what we get: "Leaving" starts off the record, a piece of pop mbalax that exemplifies all that's right about this music. Solid, unique rhythms on voice and drum, accented by crisp horn lines and some great, swirling rhythm guitar. N'Dour's voice is restrained, sweet and punchy. "Without A Smile" is a serious letdown, a schmaltzy ballad with few dynamics to offer the ear. Nice drumming underpins a pat sax solo by Branford Marsalis.

"Undecided" is programmed out of the race. Another standard bit that would be ignored if it wasn't coming from an African source to give it some pop PC

"Mame Bamba" goes back to mbalax in a cooler but no less driving groove. Simplicity brings strength to this tune, and the addition of good English lyrics (an improvement over the last album) gives it additional punch. "Love One Another" stays in the same vein, with some nice funky touches in the chorus to accent his voice. "Chimes Of Freedom" (yes, the Bob Dylan song) is given a dramatic reading by N'Dour over live drum and synth tracks (including a good accordion sample) that not only picks up Dylan's folksy sound, but echoes traces of Salif Keita and Celtic folk-rock. An excellent cut, if only for its unique take on a great, familiar song. "Generations" falls into the hit-seeking-missile category, with an overdose of standard pop riffs on keyboards. "Seven Seconds," a duet with Neneh Cherry (who also contributes to the writing credits), follows suit. Top 40 is Top 40, and I can't take this kind of nonsense, no matter how good the singers are. It's a fine song that gets lost in a morass of pop triviality.

The remainder of The Guide's 15 tracks go through similar paces, some lovely and original, some dull and insignificant. As on his other majorlabel releases over the last few years, N'Dour is struggling with musical demons and angels, torn between being the innovative African musical creator and the popular international rock star. I hope for the former, every time.

Rigor mortis has temporarily set in amongst the top five, with RealWorld-Caroline's Sheila Chandra still at #1, but Shoukichi Kina enlivens the party by skipping up 13-5. Right behind Kina's Luaka Bop-WB album, tropicalismo masters Caetano Veloso E Gilberto Gil rise towards even greater heights, moving 11-6 with their Elektra Nonesuch album. Mango-Island's Ziskakan also make substantial gains, moving up 15-7. Chaos' Youssou N'Dour debuts on our chart at #15-with a duet between Neneh Cherry and the downfall of an album like The Guide is in some ways its uncreative use of contemporary technology, the success of Myths Of The Near Future (Extreme USA, 2450 Main St. #2000, Cambria, CA 93428/805-927-1952/e-mail: extreme@well.sf.ca.us) lies in the brilliant utilization of technology to achieve music that has a natural beauty as strong as its computer component. MO BOMA is the child and machine of Skuli Sverrisson and Carsten Tiedemann, two European musicians who ride in the slipstream of extremes produced by the convergence of carbon and silicon instruments. Most of the time it's hard to tell where real and virtual begin or end, and the result is a rush of ideas that only masquerades as what some would call music. Sampled field recordings from Africa, bowed electric guitars, percussive strings and electronic pulses are intertwined in this ambient soundscape. Sometimes you walk a clearcut path of rhythm and melody, at others a thicket of vines and weeds so dense you have to turn back

Of course, ignoring technology has its benefits, too. Take EDDIE PALMIERI and his cohorts on the rock solid Latin jazz sound of Palmas appropriately released as part of the Elektra Nonesuch American Explorer series [Elektra Nonesuch, 590 Fifth Ave., New York, NY 10036/212-575-6720]. Afro-Latin, Cubop, Latin jazz; they all owe their existence to New York City as much as to the islands of the Caribbean. The band here is HOTI Brian Lynch, Donald Harrison and Conrad Herwig provide some bright, epic horn lines and Johnny Torres the thundering bass lines, while the skins unit of Richie Flores, Anthony Carillo, Robbie Ameen and Jose Clausell gives the percussion fire. But it's pianist Palmieri who takes it all in, and produces a vibrant, charging kind of jazz that exudes percussive force at every strike of the keys. Take your pick of seven larger-than-life tunes that go the distance.

While Nonesuch was the leader in exploring the roots of the world's music a few decades ago, Globestyle Records [46-50 Steele Rd., London NW10 7AS], and especially its musician/producer/explorers Ben Mandelson, David Young and Roger Armstrong, is at the forefront of preserving this generation's roots music. Their 1989 trip to Mozambique has already produced two stunning albums by individual artists, and now, with Mozambique 1, they finally offer a broad look at many of this beleaguered nation's great musical styles and artists. Each track is a remarkable look at a diverse country, from an eerie vocal/percussion ensemble from Ilha de Mozambique to the thundering drums and timbila of bands like Conjunto Ndzumbe. Joao Mate is a street musician from Maputo whose ragged guitar and wonderfully acidic vocals bring Joseph Spence to mind. Of course, almost all Globestyle recordings require an accordionist, so this set finishes off with Afronzo Balate, accompanied by guitar, singing a song about loneliness, death, moving to the city and becoming a musician, all played out with a boisterous verve and a jovial laugh. Vout-o-rooniel Hit that jive, Jack! R-r-reet! Reeniel Floy! Floy! Guitarist Charlie Christian's influence on jazz and pop music extends in many directions, and one of his followers was the incredible King Of Vout, SLIM GAILLARD. He was equal parts musician, hipster poet and comedic parodist. He pounded the keys, plucked the guitar strings, and created some psychedelic raps along the way, blowing the walls off any pigeonhole the music world tried to stick him in. After way too long, his work for Verve is back in print, including the incredible "Opera In Vout (Groove Juice Symphony)," recorded live in L.A. in 1946. Laughing In Rhythm (Verve, c/o PolyGram, 825 Eighth Ave., New York, NY 10019) is classic pre-rock 'n' roll jump and jive, played by some incredible musicians and driven by the inexhaustible humor and talent of Gaillard. He could spot a good phrase a mile away, whether his own vocalese or a Count Basie piano spoof, and then twist and turn it into something insane.

CRUCIAL

TERROR FABULOUS Yaga Yaga (East West America, 75 Rockefeller Plaza, New York, NY 10019)-Presenting one of the most eagerlyawaited reggae albums of this year, a record that is sure to find its way onto many year-end best-of lists come December. But in fact, this is more than just a great record. Terror Fabulous' East West America debut represents a major shift in the focus of major-label American dancehall records thus far: while the records by virtually every major label dancehall signing of the post-Shabba era feature some form of hip-hop crossbreeding, interpolating or remixing, Terror Fabulous' Yaga Yaga is a straight-up, unrepentant dancehall record. The album is heavily stacked with hits—"Number 2" and "Gangster's Anthem" providing the opening salvo, followed closely by "Action," the duet with Nadine Southerland. "Gangster Anthem" is one of those rare and resonant moments, where a classic reggae feel is paired with today's sound and mood to make a song that is as perennial and significant as anything in reggae history. The credits read "Recorded at Penthouse Studio, Kingston, Jamaica, Mixed at Penthouse Studio, Kingston, Jamaica" the lack of remixers and stateside overdubs shows how honest Terror Fabulous' debut is. East West has given the green light to real Jamaican reggae, whatever its sound. It's just a hope, but maybe the term "crossover" might someday really mean something other than changing the sound to make it more palatable, and maybe Terror Fabulous will someday be hailed as the first Jamaican artist to cross over on his own, tough, real Kingstonian terms.

COCOA TEA Can't Live So (Shanachie, 37 E. Clinton St., Newton, NJ 07860/201-579-7763)-Cocoa Tea's latest CD follows up earlier Shanachie efforts, such as last year's Authorized and his collaboration with Dennis Brown and Freddie McGregor. He sings his heart out on these 11 Gussie Clarke-produced tracks. Some are stronger than others, but all display his vocal style in top form. Furthermore, even some of the songs that start out kind of ordinary build up to extraordinary conclusions, or grow on the listener with repeated listenings. A good example of this would be "Can't Live So," which starts out as a fairly typical electronic track, but by the time it reaches its conclusion, with Cocoa Tea repeating the hypnotic refrain of the song's title, it's gotten under the listener's skin and emblazoned itself into memory. The same thing happens in "She Is So Faithful," "Burn It Down" and "The Mood Is Right," which all show Cocoa Tea in fine form.

SKATALITES Stretching Out (Danceteria (UK), c/o ROIR, 611 Broadway, Ste. 411, New York, NY 10012/212-477-0563)—

After last year's triumphant reunion CD and tour, the Skatalites have seemingly reconquered the world with their original ska sound, which first set the world a-skankin' so many years ago. Now, ROIR and Danceteria Records have released this double-CD, which celebrates another of the group's anniversaries, the 18th anniversary reunion way back in 1983. With two long-running discs, it's a remarkable overview of their history, played live in front of an enthusiastic crowd. Maybe it's this CD's rougher, rawer live quality, evoking the buoyant energy and tinny, scratchy sound of old crusty ska 45s, that makes us like it so much, but unlike Skavavoovie's slicker, more up-to-date sound, this set crackles with extra excitement and electricity from start to finish. To these eyes and ears, it seems that the revival of interest in the Skatalites roughly parallels what's happened here in the States with, for example, funk musicians of the '60s and '70s such as Maceo Parker, Fred Wesley, the Isley Brothers or Barry White: every so often, they'll stage a "comeback" and do exactly the same great stuff they've always done, and audiences will go nuts. For their monumental contribution to reggae and ska, the Skatalites-then and now-are worthy of the utmost respect, the highest honors and the deepest love, on a level of musical esteem that we reserve for the likes of the JB's, the Meters or Booker T. and the MG's. Long may they reign.

PULP "Do You Remember The First Time?" (Island, c/o PolyGrom, 825 Eighth Ave., New York, NY 10019)—This video could have been a standard run-of-the-mill Brit-glam clip, with its dreamy shots of Pulp frontman Jarvis Cocker and brief reenactments of the song's suggestive title, but instead the band opted for a stunningly innovative film technique. You really have to see this video to fully comprehend the effect, but here goes a quick explanation: The video turns 360°, giving the impression that you're on a ferris wheel or a looping rollercoaster, watching the video play out. The camera tracks over a each scene as if it were on an axis, flipping to a new perspective underground as your "car" rotates over a particular shot and into the horizon. As the song begins the camera rocks back and forth until it gains enough momentum to flip fullcircle between two settings, eventually reversing direction as the song reaches its climax. The sense of movement created by this tracking technique is nothing less than mesmerizing, and is one of the few things able to create that funny, ticklish feeling inside your tummy, outside of an amusement park. As a song, "Do You Remember The First Time?" is somewhat overshadowed by its accompanying video, yet the group's edgy pop is by no means run-of-themill. (CH)

HOUSE OF PAIN "On Point" (Tommy Boy, 902 Broodway, 13th Fl., New York, NY 10010/212-388-8300)—Pugilism has once again found its way into the tough faced arena of rap with "On Point," a video as infectiously potent as L.L. Cool J's glove-touting in "Mama Said Knock You Out." This time it's Everlast and the rest of the Irish crew, knocking around in the dark underworld of boxing with the same party-jam flavor that made "Jump Around" such a smash on the group's debut. For all its fist-waving catchiness and blasting beats, "On Point" is still a menacing and brutal visual trek through the House Of Pain aesthetic, pairing Everlast's charismatic roughness with bloodying uppercuts and left-hooks. NICK CAVE AND THE BAD SEEDS

NICK CAVE AND THE BAD SEEDS "Do You Love Me?" (Mute, c/o Elektra, 75 Rockefeller Plaza, New York, NY 10019)—Nick Cave currently lives in Brazil when he's not touring, and a seedy, yet glimmering Sao Paolo disco is the main setting for his latest video. Cave begins the video acting as novelist, sizing up the people in the joint (complete with freeze frame titles for each character), mixing in tales from his own life and thrusting them upon the characters he sees here. Later in the video the swooning lights and gaudy colors flooding Cave and the Bad Seeds add a peculiar, yet impressive effect behind Cave's own dramatic vocals. Cave doesn't need someone like David Lynch to direct his videos; just placing Cave in front of a camera supplies all the exotic and creepy atmospohere you could ever want in a video. (SC)

GREEN DAY "Basket Case" (Reprise, 3300 Warner Blvd., Burbank, CA 91510)—Not since the Ramones' video for "I Wanna Be Sedated" has punk rock so appropriately ventured back into the realm of the mentally ill. Yes, "Basket Case" plays right into the visual scenario that its title implies, but with Green Day's spastic performance it seems perfectly appropriate. Take three wandering inmates in a mental institution, set up some amps, give 'em something to play, and voilal: pop-punk rides again. The clip succeeds not only by updating the Ramones' classic theme, but by establishing its own distinctive look with the same hyper-drenched colors that made Longview" such an eye-catching slab of video brilliance. We knew punk nostalgia would arrive sooner or later. (CH)

FMOB "Pump, Pump (The Vibe)" (EastWest America, 75 Rockefeller Plaza, New York, NY 10019)—"Pump, Pump (The Vibe)" uses similar visual cues as US 3's "Cantaloop (Flip Fantasia)," and the song's underlying groove suggests similar influences, with an emphasis on the smooth and funky. Stark silhouettes, cool blue tones, deep yellow shadings and burnt orange hues mimic the hipster vibe of the song, as well as its warm, enticing backbeat. Many tracks from the group's debut Once In A Blue Moon rely on a mid-tempo funk groove, where hip-hop, jazz and R&B flow in seamlessly. With this track, there's no sidestepping the steady beat, tight chorus and catchy jazz lines, ensuring this video will be seen on as many dancefloor big screens as regular TV screens. (SC)

GUEST DIALOGUE

Guide To The World Cup By The Dentists (EastWest Recording Artists)

Despite the fact that England will not be represented in the U.S.A. this month, we still feel that you need us since we invented the bloody game in the first place. What we don't want happening is you Yanks corrupting our beautiful game, especially the terminology. So here are a few rules:

1) The big green thing that everybody stands on is called a "pitch." A "field" is something you grow potatoes in.

2) We have attack, defense, and midfield, and anyone being offensive normally needs a punch in the mouth.

3) A goal has a net behind it and is defended by a goal keeper, or "goalie." The best goalkeepers in the world are always English, and the worst, Scottish. Only the goalkeeper is allowed to touch the ball with his hands during open play, except if you are Argentinean and your name is Diego.

4) A nil-nil draw can be the most exciting game you will ever see. Conversely, it can be more exciting to watch paint dry. Either way, the two teams have battled over 90 minutes and concluded that on this occasion there is nothing to separate them and honors finish even. There is no overwhelming desire to have this "overtime" crap. In cup knockout competitions obviously there is a need to have one team progress to the next round, so a reasonable period of extra time is allowable, normally 30 minutes. 5) A football is round.

6) There is one referee and he always has questionable parentage.

7) Spitting is only permitted if you are Dutch.

8) A goal is considered to be scored if the entire ball crosses the goal line. If, however, you are Geoff Hurst at Wembley in 1966, you are a God, and consequently, anything goes.

9) All Brazilian teams are considered to be "skillful"; all German teams, "ruthless"; and all Irish teams bloody lucky to be there.

10) All games must feature someone holding a placard that reads "John 3:16."

And remember, the great man himself, Bill Shankly, once said: "Football is not about life and death, it's far more important than that."

[CMJ apologizes to readers if their heritage was not offended in this piece. Perhaps in future reports on the Cup, the Dentists will be able to malign your nationality as well.—ed.]

Mike Fisher, Master Beat, Newark, DE (302) 932-8638

Firmly believing that the trend-setters and torchbearers of the artistic community are those who steadfastly follow their own light, the MASTER BEAT long ago declared its independence (both musically and philosophically) from the sewer of jukebox slavery. From deep in the heart of the East Coast megalopolis, the Master Beat's seven song CD, Radio Sampler (TMB 001), has been steered by fate...like the seed of a dandelion blown to fertile ground...to over 700 radio stations. Thanks to the music directors and stations who've added us already: CHRW, WRTN, KMXT, WVUD, WMUH, KMSU, WMSE, WORT, WXAV, CKWR, WYSO and WLTL (where we made it onto their top 35) to name a few. We also thank the on-air personalities who are playing the Master Beat...with your continued support we'll crack the top 35 on more playlists. To those music directors who haven't checked us out yet...look into your database or go to the mound of materials where the hundreds of releases you receive each month lie in repose. Pick up the ecologically friendly paper envelope (made from recycled materials), that contains the Master Beat's CD and take it out and listen to it. Listen to the whole CD, we've very eclectic writers and our songs cover a lot of stylistic territory. If you categorize us after only one or two songs you might find you have us in the wrong pigeon-hole. The Master Beat juggernaut is gaining momentum.

NEW MUSIC REPORT 55 JULY 4, 1994

Gerard Cosloy, Matador Records, New York, NY (212) 995-5882

First off, despite being tagged on the cover of CMJ as a "Scat-Matador" release, the new Guided By Voices long player Bee Thousand is a 100% Scat release. Matador are merely handling the manufacturing and distribution duties, but all other questions pertaining to marketing, probation officers, etc. are best directed to Scat. Radio and press are being handled by your good friends at Autotonic (212-260-3389), so please don't ask Kris Gillespie for any GBV stuff, 'cause it isn't his to throw around...secondly, Jay Septoski is "distressed" that I "reamed" Ben Knight of KXLU. As of the 6/13 issue of CMJ, my only comments concernig Ben Knight were in relation to his shilling for the godawful L.A. band Further (a pretty good example of "a myopic vision of what alternative music is," come to think of it). I take exception to Knight's ill-informed reportage, which is in no way a reflection on the quality of KXLU's music programming (Further excepted)...much funnier than Stiffed in poperback was the dope from MCA who pulled the usual reverse discrimination scam ("Guided By Jehu"? "Fretwelder"?) before scam (Guided by Jenu & Freweider ?) before pitching his "new records so good you'll shit blood." Is that supposed to be a good thing? Well...our new records by THE FALL, BAILTER SPACE, SF SEALS, BABYLON DANCE BAND, PIZZICATO FIVE, MOONSHAKE and CIRCLE X are OK, but I don't think they'll cause you any bathroom problems...We fucked up dept...new big money contracts we sent out to Scarce and Veruca Salt got lost in the mail, we accidently signed MECCA NORMAL instead. Go figure.

Chris Baldwin, Assistant Sales/National Radio Promotion, Break Thru Productions, San Francisco, CA (415) 626-7611 Okay. Ready? Everybody sing along now..."It's fun to be a moron, hooray-hooray..." I find that if I sing that twice a week out loud as I walk the streets, not only does it keep my head from swelling (haw-haw-haw, as Henry Rollins would say), but people actually cross the street to get away from me. Break Thru in July is—ARVO PART (sorry Arvo, my keyboard won't put that umlaut over the 'a' in Part), STAKKA BO, MEAT PUPPETS, SYN, THERAPY?, and Mercury's Kiss My Ass compilation. I'm disgustingly happy because now I get to say Kiss My Ass all the time. And, by the way, thanks to Mr. R. Holtzman, Chuckie P., Scott C., and especially Carolyn Wolfe and Sharon Joffe ("Unlock The Doors To...").

Dave Mac, Manager, Radio Promotions, Guitar Recordings, Port Chester, NY (914) 935-5200

935-5200 I was just looking over my list of stations who are playing the FENWICKS "Member Of No Tribe." And counting. Thanks. Buzz buzz.

Tom Gates, Alternative Department, Roadrunner Records, New York, NY (212) 219-0077

Sore is here! BUZZOVEN's Roadrunner debut should just be arriving at your station. Check out "Unwilling To Explain" on the Certain Damage disc if you haven't gotten the full record yet. Buzzoven display extremity at its best...especially when you see them live. July and August are packed with Buzzoven tour dates—just call for a rundown. BLACK TRAIN JACK are also taking their show on the road. They're doing about 10 Midwest dates with Samiam in July (Milwaukee, Detroit, Cleveland, Chicago) and will play New Music Seminar with them on 7/20 at Wetlands. Don't forget that Black Train Jack will be touring in August and September with Mighty Mighty Bosstones! A new BTJ songle for "Handouts" will be showing up soon. It's got some very cool Bsides, including a doo-wop version of "Guy Like Me" and a hidden track that features voices from WRPR, WSJU, WSOU, WARY and WNYO. Call

Keith Jenkins, Relapse/Nuclear Blast America, Millersville, PA (717) 397-9221

America, Millersville, PA (717) 397-9221 I hate to interrupt you because I know you are quite busy playing the three new discs you've received from us: CONVULSE Reflections (groove-ridden grind rock), PHOBIA Return To Desolation (a must for every serious grindhead), and HYPOCRISY Inferior Devoties (heinous black metal featuring a cover of Slayer's "Black Magic"). If you haven't received them yet, don't panic; they'll be there soon! Speaking of soon...the long-awaited full length from AMORPHIS, Tales Of The Thousand Lakes, is due out on July 12! Satan has informed me that too few of you have been mentioning the CANNIBAL CORPSE, CYNIC, and SINISTER tour (running through July 30)

Reporting To CMJ New Music Report

WHEN TO REPORT:

Reports are taken weekly as follows:

- By FAX at (516) 466-7159 or (516) 466-7161 until 10 PM Eastern Time on Mondays.

- By PHONE at (516) 466-7111 from Noon until 6 PM Eastern Time Monday and Tuesday.

It is strongly suggested you call early.

WHAT TO REPORT:

If you FAX us, please include the station's call letters, music director's name, city, state and a phone number at the top of the report. Include the Artist, Title and Label of all records reported.

If you PHONE us, please be prepared with an Artist's record, Title and Label, and have the following information ready:

1) TOP 35 RECORDS (mandatory-no fewer than 35 accepted)

In airplay order (#1 is most played, etc.) only. Records alphabetized within rotation categories (i.e. heavy, medium, light) is not suggested. The playlist reported should accurately reflect the entire radio station's programming—not one particular program—and should include ALL TYPES OF MUSIC presented (not necessarily rock only) and ALL FORMATS represented (albums, EPs, 7" and 12" singles, imports, tapes, etc.). We want an accurate list of what current releases have been played on your station for the week—either a direct count or a reflection of rotation. The CMJ Radio Top 150 is album-oriented, so if you must report album tracks, be careful NOT to report more than one track from the same album.

2) ADVENTURE PICKS (not mandatory but highly encouraged)

Up to 3 subjective selections of new personal favorites. These have no correlation with station airplay, and do not necessarily represent projected adds.

3) TOP CUTS (not mandatory but highly encouraged)

Up to 5 of the most played tracks, be they album cuts or singles. Mention the artist's name first when reporting. For an album track, know what album it's taken from.

4) TOP AUDIENCE RESPONSE (not mandatory but highly encouraged)

Up to 5 of the most requested artists with current releases and/or positive feedback on such releases being programmed.

Please call us if you have any questions! (516) 466-6000

Todd Sievers, American Records, Burbank, CA (818) 973-4545

Once upon a time our hero, Rupert the wonder cat, had a holy vision while sniffing cat nip; he saw the MESSIAH! The omnipatent being stood at 300 yards, dwarfing our scared hero. ah Sou yaras, awaring our scared nero. Shaking, Rupert addressed this almighty power as "Mr. MC 900 FT JESUS" and he muttered, "How can I be a better kitty?" Bellowing, MC 900 replied, "Stop sniffing that cat dope and take your MEDICINE, you are a sick kitty and Thee Hypnotic visions you love are causing your DECONSTRUCTION!!!" MC's voice was so powerful that Rupert fell to his knees and his head began to SWELL from the deafening volume. "I need help!!" cried kitty and he gently replied, "Go see the gnome PETE, his surname is DROGE, he will guide you, but beware he will charge you far some CASH." Thankful, our hero turned on a dime and headed for the ATM machine on his way to the gnome's domicile looking for his golden path of spiritual enlightenment. The moral of the story is stoy off drugs and play the MC 900 FT Jesus record and you will go to heaven.

Here we go again...thanks to everyone for playing the EVELYN SWOONS 45. It's a teaser of their full-length CD, due out this fall. Also, thanks for the support of SIGNS OF LIFE's recent CD. Hard to believe, but they should have a new record out this fall...Current projects: ICEBOXERS and DADADAH. Iceboxers hail from Virginia, and have quite a buzz around the mid-Atlantic area. Their three-song CD/EP is titled Science Won't Save Us and it is on the Composite/Godamn label. This is a preview of their full-length debut, due in the fall...Dadadah hail out of NYC. Give it a listen when you have plenty of time to five it a fair shot. It's wild, and goes all over the place. Lead singer Kitty Brazelton has an amazing three-octave voice. The album is called Rise Up and it's on Accurate/Distortion, the label that first brought you Morphine. The Boston Phoenix called it the debut of the year. It's rock. It's jazz, It's opera. It's a mess. It's cool. So check it out! We'll be calling you, but call if you need anything. Luv & kisses.

Dale Johnson, Retail, Slash Records, Los Angeles, CA (213) 937-4660

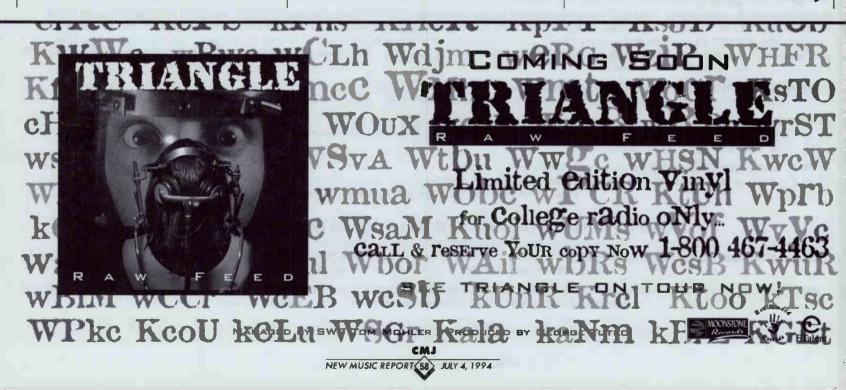

L7 got a record comin' out July 12 and it's new new new, babyl it's called Hungry For Stink and was produced by the band with GGGarth, a man with a lot of G's in his name. They're gonna be on Lollapolooza main stage this year, so make sure you rock down to electric avenue and see them. And then we'll take it higher. Don't forget about the new MICHAEL PETAK record comin' out August 16, called Pretty Little Lonely. It's acoustic-y. It's electric-y. It's school house rock-y. Mighty Joe Moon is the name of the new GRANT LEE BUFFALO record which should be making an appearance in September. It's sooo good. Trust me. Worship the cause that is SOUL COUGHING. Coming soon. And I promise I'll lay off the Nyquil.

Jil & Jeannie, Red Light Records, Des Plaines, IL (708) 297-OKFU GUTTED, OPPRESSOR, SARKOMA, SKATENIGS, The PLEASURE ELITE, keep 'em

spinnin.' That's all you need to know.

Sharon Joffe, Arista Records, New York, NY (800) 627-4782 ext. 2144

I don't want to discuss the current events that everyone's talking about, so I'll spore you comments on the Rangers (still hate 'em), Knicks (don't care), and O.J. (he was dumb). I'm not one to name-drop, but Errol (Hair Boy) from WVFS is a funny guy. He described a band [name witheld to protect the innocent] as "the first Las Vegas folk band." What a card! What can I complain about? Oh, of course, the weather. It's not even June 21 (the first technical day of summer) and it's way over 90 degrees and 100% humidity. I should move to the Arctic North. I bet you'd take my calls as a novelty. I could tell you about the snowball fights I had with my shadow, the snow family I was building and of course, the incredible ice sculptures. Though being a vegetarian would be difficult to continue in the Arctic. No soil to grow veggies in...On 13 July try and stomach Conan O'Brian's show to see SARAH McLACHLAN. Those that didn't receive THE CHURCH Sometime Anywhere double CD will be getting the second CD of seven bonus tracks any day. More tunes from Marty and Steve to tickle your fancy. Coming this July is the Airheads soundtrack with WHITE ZOMBIE, PRIMUS, PRONG and more. You alternageeks will find a few tracks worthy of your programming standards (even Errol). Dedicated's THIS PICTURE will visit the City Of Sun mid-July and the FAMILY CAT will make Magic Happens mid-August. CRANES? September. SPIRITUALIZED? October. Seeyalaterbye.

Randy Ahmann/Brett Cripe, Unkulunkie Records, San Francisco, CA (415) 397-4957

Thanks to all who assisted in the success of BABY SNUFKIN's recent Northwest tour, especially KCMU, KWVA, KAGU, KALX, KPOO, KBVR, KAOS, and KGRG. Things went so-o swell and crowds went so-o bonkers (!!), they'll be returning during the first two weeks of July to spread their crafty, world punk all over Eugene, Portland, Seattle, Victoria and Vancauver. Dance The Orange (their debut CD, which also includes the abrasive Fish String Quartet, slaphappy Buckwylin' Horns & many more) continues to garner accolades from regional & national press and is starting to move in stores. Check out their recent Magnet write up and upcoming Alternative Press coverage. Baby Snufkin just recorded a blistering new track as part of an upcoming compilation for illegal New York artist Ron English. The diverse release includes contributions from Sara Hickman, the Sutcliffes, and illustrious others. If you desire Dance The Orange promos or tickets to catch Baby Snufkin's explosive live show, call us anytime for anything!

RADIO

Brent Wilcox, KOTR, Cambria, CA/KCBX, San Luis Obispo, CA (805) 927-1953 Right now I love SEEFEEL. Anxiously awaiting FUTURE SOUND OF LONDON. Getting mileage out of FRANK BLACK, and no retreat from the MEKONS or NICK CAVE (who's taken off with my audience this time). KING MISSILE enters the fray. JAH WOBBLE is assured. So is LUSH. And I'm getting others playing BOILED IN LEAD-a sure cure for sinus trouble. Having a good time with the RAINCOATS reissues... used to play them a ton once-upon-a-time in my dim radio past. The AUTEURS rhymes with "The Otters" (as in K-Otter)... SAUSAGE sucks! So I play them ... Still amused and rather puzzled by GEGGY TAH. And enjoy CHANNEL LIGHT VESSEL quite a bit. International stuff??? MANU DIBANGO and RARA MACHINE join SHANG SHANG TYPHOON, ZAP MAMA, SHIELA CHANDRA and VELOSO E GIL (better with each listen). Listeners still ponder the musical question "What Is Bhangra?", and there's always room for BLACK UHURU. I'm really happy that Restless has brought DUB SYNDICATE and AFRICAN HEADCHARGE out over here (thanks!), and check out the domestic DUB ADDXX (from the SF Bay-Area, I think). Indescribable stuff? I'm still getting a lot of mileage out of the ReR Quarterly, and the new 5UU's...with reissues by CARTOON and the MUFFINS filling my heart with a warped nostalgia. And I often find myself wandering in ambience—APHEX TWIN and One A.D. in particular. My new mailing address: 450 Main St., Suite 1554, Cambria, CA 93428. Fax me at (805) 927-0384, email me at brent.wilcox@ aenie.geis.com.

Bobby Comstock, Rast America Show Producer, WVBR, Ithaca, NY (607) 273-4000

Since I last wrote, we've been blessed with great shows here. Recently, KING SUNNY ADE opened his U.S. tour here. The show was special. Also MYSTIC REVEALERS and SKADANKS rolled through. Positive vibrations were plentiful. The summer is just getting started. BIG YOUTH and JOE HIGGS will appear as part of a grassroots music festival in late July along with ALI FARKA TOURE and who knows what else is to come. Ithaca is a happening place musically. Release-wise, Heartbeat continues to crank them out. Truth And Rights Observer Style, More Hottest Hits From Treasure Isle and the MEDITATIONS Deeper Roots are soaring up the playlist. There is a label that is quietly putting out great stuff. It's Grapevine Records in Washington, D.C. They have two strong records: a LONE RANGER collection and an album from CARLTON LIVINGSTON, who has been around for a number of years and who is co-owner. Check them out, RAS distributes for them. On a regional note, a track from Jahmel, Ronnie Ruff @ Birdie Culture called "Hotness" is tearing Ruft @ Birdie Culture colled "Hotness" is fearing it up not only on my show but at the club I play at weekly. If you want a copy, call me and I'll give you the address. music companies: I need better service! Send Third World, Caribbean, Latin and other related releases.

Joseph Caravella Jr., Station Manager, WQCC, Bayside, NY (718) 229-0396 Hello all. This is my first Dialogue entry, so be gentle with me. Basically the reason I am submitting my first Dialogue is due to the fact that my station, like many other college stations, plays many unsigned local bands. Yet there is no listing for those, so in turn I am forced to include in my top 35 lists many of the bands that I play that are not under contract. This is not fair to the signed bands that get bumped by the locals, but it is unfair to the local bands because they are not given a forum of their own. I know it would also be of great service to many record companies because it would enable them to see bands that are getting airplay and exposed to the public. Bands such as LEIGON and THE REIGN, both from the Bayside and Bellrose, New York area get so much airplay on WQCC that bands like SMASHING PUMPKINS get outplayed and are therefore lower on our top 35 listings. The solution to this problem can be handled by the college stations if we get together and tell the CMJ editors to start a listing for local unsigned bands. This would be a boon to the many local bands that rely on college radio for airplay. New York has many stations that most likely play a lot of the same local bands. Where would COLLECTIVE SOUL be without college radio while they were unsigned? That's all folks!

[CMJ stresses that Top 35 charts should represent the 35 releases receiving the most airplay in one week. If local bands are receiving as much airtime as signed bands, that fact should be accurately represented in that station's weekly report.—ed.]

Artie Fufkin, Music Director, KGSU, Cedar City, UT (801) 586-7975

Stuck in the middle of radio wasteland in the Southern Utah desert! We at KGSU have recently switched our format to college radio and are dying for contacts with real live record weasels! We can't get enough of that Interscope-Atlantic release of The Crow soundtrack and love the latest from the STONE TEMPLE PILOTS from Atlantic. The kids here sure love Throwing the Copper around the place with Radioactive's toetapping release from LIVE. Please call and chat with me, Artie Fufkin. My summer office hours are Wednesdays, Thursdays and Fridays from 1:00 to 2:00 p.m. Mountain Standard Time. Please feel free to send us stuff at: KGSU, Southern Utah University, 351 W. Center St., Centrum 213, Cedar City, UT, 84720. Please help rescue us from radio wasteland!

Jake Burns, Program/Music Director (and Promotions, Promotions, Promotions), KJRP, San Bernardino, CA (909) 888-6511 ext. 1391 Well, here I am. The new PD/MD etc., etc.

Everyday is like Christmas around here. New music, new music, new music. Keep it coming. I've already been in contact with some of you (or you've been in contact with me), and I look forward to lots more. A few quick thank-yous (already?) to my good friend Ralph Torres, one of the guys from (actual size) who's been taking some time from his band to help me with re designing some station stuff. He's a Macwhiz. Also, Craig at Zoo Records for all the great paraphernalia. Special thanks to Alex at EastWest Records. A semi-acoustic set of BUFFALO TOM was just what the doctor ordered. If you're ever in the Santa Monica area, I highly recommend a close, intimate show at McCabes Guitar Shop. Hey (a great song by the way) all you bands, indie labels, and humongous labels (I'm. not prejudiced): If you send it, I will make it available to the jocks. If it's good, they will play it. At least it's supposed to work that way. It will! I'm also working with the student government and the administration (roll your eyes) to utilize the wonderful little amphitheater we have for those warm (OK, hot) So-Cal summer nights, when loud music is required. Work with me. Talk to you later, and thanks to all. Remember: Question authority, somebody's got to.

Jeff Montgomery, Brand Spankin' New Station Manager, WPLS, Greenville, SC (803) 294-3045

Howdy from the cultural meca of the South. The INDIGO GIRLS played in Greenville (no kidding) the other night and put on a marvelous show, so go see it. I would give everyone office info, but considering the date that this will appear, you can just call and get it from me or the answering machine if you haven't already. Couple of notes for everyone: we have a section of our rotation devoted to 7"s, 10"s and such. Strangely enough, the number of vinyl selections appearing here has been dwindling greatly, so kindly send stuff. You can talk to me about the vinyl, but don't send any vinyl singles from upcoming albums unless it's a present to me. Secondly: our Top 35 is determined by what our DJs decide to play, so ixnay on the begging for us to put something in the Top 35, because we have no control over it. Most of you rep types don't anyway, but there are a few of you pesky little poppets out there. Say, if any one knows or is involved with a station that has either-1) put on a benefit concert or; 2) put out a benefit cassette or CD or eight-track (whatever), please let me know via phone or write to me c/o WPLS at Box 28573, Furman University, Greenville, SC 2961. Thanks mucho.

Eitaro Hayashi, Music Director, KTUH, Honolulu, HI (808) 956-4848

Yo the movie trivia continues with this week's edition, and the category is comedy..."Take a look at this hat. I bet if you buy this you get a free bowl of soup! Looks good on you though (rolls eyes)." Think of a sport that many don't consider a sport. As always, calls are welcomed for answers and more hints if necessary. By the way, if anyone is listening, how can I get in touch with Nervous/Wreck and PayDay/ffrr? Whoever has contact numbers, please let me know. The station is impatiently waiting for BLACK MOON and JERU THE DAMAJA and does not have the money to buy them! Mahalo and Aloha for now.

Jennifer Matson, Music Director, WHRB, Cambridge, MA (617) 666-4139 The verdict seems to be in on the fate of summer air at WHRB. Although some at the station still speak hopefully about reviving the sation for the summer months, WHRB is now off the air, and has been as of June 10th. I'll be keeping Dialogue readers posted as to wheter the station will be starting up again anytime before August, but until then, keep sending us mail. Releases received in the summer months will be considered for addition to our playlist when WHRB is back on the air at the end of the summer. The usual questions, concerns and chitchat can, as always, be directed toward me at the above number. You'll reach me from 6 p.m. to 8 p.m. on Tuesdays and (to a lesser extent) on Thursdays; my machine will pick up the slack the rest of the hours of the day, the other days of the week. And the technologically inclined are strongly encouraged to e-mail me at jmatson@delphi.com, where your chances of getting my attention are almost 100%. A lessening of station responsibilities during these slow summer months has enabled me to see two of my favorite bands, MAGNETIC FIELDS and HONEYBUNCH, who not-so-coincidentally share Claudia Gonson's drumming abilities. After witnessing Magnetic Fields' entrancing set last week, I am convinced that the band should record both organic and electronic versions of all their songs. And if only Honeybunch would release another record, period...

SONY WINS GEORGE MICHAEL SUIT

A British court ruled against the singer George Michael in his bid to escape from a 15-year contract with Sony Music, which he has compared to "professional slavery." Michael con-tended that Sony, uninterested in his "artistic development," didn't adequately promote his last album, Listen Without Prejudice, Vol. 1, punishing him for his reluctance to continue to be marketed as a sex symbal. The album sold only five million copies, compared to his previous album Faith, which sold over 14 mil-lion. Michael, who still owes Sony six albums, said he would probably appeal the decision.
