ON THE COVER

LISA GERMANO Geek The Girl

4AD, 8533 Melrose Ave., Ste. B.

Los Angeles, CA 90069 310.289.8770

Lisa Germano doesn't look or talk like someone whose songs would make you lose sleep, feel creepy or rethink your opinion of yourself, but this small-framed, meek-voiced woman is capable of writing the bluntest, darkest, most revealing songs you're likely to hear. Geek The Girl is not supposed to be depressing; it's too busy detailing countless feminine insecurities and gargantuan dreads still looming from adolescence. Like Peter Gabriel's Us (on which he thanked his therapy group), Geek The Girl is unabashedly about the sticky, murky parts of self, yet Germano builds twice the atmosphere with just guitar, violin and a few effects on these homemade tracks. The intimacy of her "recorded at home" approach enables the songs to strike the senses even faster.

Calling this record moody is like calling Hamlet dramatic; in fact, Geek The Girl is built upon similar obsessive themes. Abuse and sexual confusion weigh heavily here, making the songs an uncomfortable listen at times, mostly because none of the themes are treated in a traditionally prosaic way. It's not surprising that Germano mimics a Beach Boys backbeat for "Trouble"; she's easily as wistful as Brian Wilson at his most broken, and somehow more relevant. Why recommend tracks? You'll want to wallow in the overwhelming personality of this whole record. STEVE CIABATTONI

Stolen Moments: Red Hot + Cool GRP. 555 W. 57th St. New York, NY 10019

Red Hot + Cool is the latest installment in the acclaimed Red Hot series of AIDS awareness benefit compilations, which includes Red Hot + Blue, No Alternative and Red Hot + Country. And while those albums were noble and beneficial in boosting AIDS awareness, there's even more reason to be excited about this one: while raising consciousness and funds, it also explores new musical terrain in the process. The pairing of jazz and hip-hop artists has been attempted before, but never has it been executed as well as on these 13 tracks (the bonus disc includes Branford Marsalis' straight-jazz take on John Coltrane's "A Love Supreme"). Appearing are such luminous matchings as MC Solaar with Ron Carter,

Me'Shell NdegeoCello with Herbie Hancock, the Roots with Roy Ayers, Digable Planets with Lester Bowie and Wah Wah

Watson, and, like wisened elders conferring their blessings upon the project, Pharaoh Sanders teams up with proto-rappers the Last Poets for a roof-raising rendition of "This Is Madness." Unlike many other benefit compilations, most of the songs on Red, Hot + Cool were specifically created and performed for this project, and most are lyrically and conceptually targeted toward AIDS awareness. There are few opportunities in life where the music one plays, watches or buys can really make a difference, and this is one of them. Get involved, JAMES LIEN

DOG FACED HERMANS Those Deep Buds

Alternative Tentacles, P.O. Box 419092,

San Francisco, CA 94141 415.282.9782

Dog Faced Hermans' new CD, Those Deep Buds is the Scots/Dutch band's masterpiece, a complex, joyous, battering exploration of what it means to be human in > the world of late capitalism, driven by music as accomplished as it is unique. Some of these songs are familiar to those who've seen the Hermans' epiphanic live performances; in all of them, Marion Coutts' steel-cold soprano (the descendent of Modernist art-song more than rock singing) and trumpet playing flash across and through the band's rich, brambly grooves. The band's lyrics are about the smartest, tersest and most elliptical around-"Lie And Swell," a sort of magicrealist folk slamdance, and "Virginia Fur," a setting of a > jawdropping sentence by Angela Carter, have the best here. You may not notice them for a few dozen listens, though, since the Hermans' near-psychic collaborative musicianship makes them sound less like a band than like a single. huge, newly-invented instrument, "H Tribe" and "Keep Your Laws/Off My Body," in particular, demonstrate a mastery of dynamics, hidden harmonics, gorgeous melodicism and flat-out atonality that transcends their rock trappings, great as they are. Within the group's package of chittering rhythms and words that demand long thought, there's a gift: pure invention and delight in music. DOUGLAS WOLK

SMALL FACTORY For If You Cannot Fly

Vernon Yard, 1790 Broadway, 21st Fl., New York, NY 10019

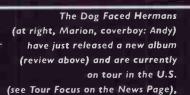

The sophomore release from Providence's Small Factory is like a winning season for the underdog football team: it's a happy surprise. Small Factory's first album, I Do Not Love You, a simple collection of good, lo-fi pop songs, reflected the trio's experience (or rather, inexperience). The songs on For If You Cannot Fly are based on the same basic songwriting principles as the first, using the tuneful voices of all three band members to even fuller effect, but they also incorporate all of the techniques and experience the band has gathered along the way. Partly due to smoother production, For If You Cannot Fly has a more developed "rock" sensibility, which happily does not detract from > the band's delicate trademarked pop, but rather enhances the energy of the songs. The power of each song is further intensified by the album's strength as a whole, sounding like a fully-conceived LP rather than a collection of odd recordings. Every team has secret ambitions, and this is the season that Small Factory has conquered its ultimate goal of producing a winning album. Flying high: "Hi Howard, I'm Back,"

"Everyone's Happy For The First Time In Weeks" and "Sixteen Years." DAWN SUTTER

Color indicates a significant increase in airplay. A: greatest upward chart movement.

Ween (9-10) slipping a little. Elsewhere on the Top 150, Matador's Halloween king, Jon Spencer, and his Blues Explosion propel their way up 145-20, sweeping the #1 Breakthrough. Reprise's Armerican Music Club continues to move up (39-21), Arista's Crannes flutter from 87-35, Medicine/Giant-WB's Cramps creep their way up 124-40 and the recently-signed Versica Salt (on Minty fresh, but aided and abetted by DGC) debuts at #61.

W: most requested

The #1 Import is also on the Top 150; Fauve-Rhythm ling (UK)'s Echobelly moves 119-60. The domestic version is imminent. ON THE CHART With no change at all in the top five, the rest of the chart does see some movement, Island's Wedding Present dancing its way into the top 10 (12-8) and both Grand Royal-Capitol's Luscious Jackson (6-9) and Elektra's

#1 BREAKTHROUGH

THE CULT The Cult Sire-Reprise Retail Chart Position: #9 This week's #1 Breakthrough is none other than Sire-Reprise's longtime favorite The Cult. lan Astbury and Billy Duffy have returned with another album. proving their heavy, psychedelictrimmed rock is still relevant today. The album has received a good deal of In-store play so far, and will most likely receive more, as songs like "Coming Down" are strong candidates for airplay. The Cult continues the success of lan Astbury and The Cult.

ON THE CHART

Color indicates a significant continues to dominate the charts for yet another week, with Yirgin's Smashing Purnpkins (#2) just behind them. The top spots on the chart have reached a status quo, as Island's cramberries (#3), Matador-Atlantic's Liz Phalir (#4) and Epitaph's Offspring (#5) all hold their spots from last week. Pushing into the top 10: Matador's Jon Spencer Blues Explosion (20-4), which also get the increase in sales. A: greatest upward chart movement.

DEAD CAN DANCE Toward The Within

4AD, c/o Warner Bros., 3300 Warner Blvd.,

Burbank, CA 91510

Though Dead Can Dance has recorded six albums, relatively few fans have had the chance to see the group's spectacular live show. Last year marked the band's most extensive U.S. tour, two dates of which were captured on film (by director Mark Magidson) and audio tape. Both document Dead Can Dance's breathtaking fusion of ancient and modern sounds, the results of which often transcend the stylistic entrapments of a specific culture for something larger. For these live events, Dead Can Dance's primary members, Lisa Gerrard and Brendan Perry, were joined by five other musicians who play an array of instruments, from Irish bouzouki and multi-cultural percussion to hi-tech synthesizers, draping the whole affair in a gorgeous tapestry of sound. Gerrard's soaring soprano and Perry's confident baritone remain centerpieces, Gerrard reaching spectacular heights on "Persian Love Song" and "Yulunga" and Perry personalizing the Irish ballad "I Am Stretched On Your Grave" (previously done by Sinead O'Connor) and stepping into singer/songwriter's shoes on "American Dreaming." Toward The Within's biggest treat is that it brings Dead Can Dance's music, which on record can be so other-worldly that it's intangible to the listener, right to the edge of the stage, where one can hear the rich tones of Gerrard's and Perry's voices and feel the warmth resonating from the group's intricate arrangements. LYDIA ANDERSON

KEVIN SALEM Soma City

Roadrunner, 536 Broadway, 4th Fl., New York, NY 10012 212.219.0077

Kevin Salem has been floating through the Northeast rock scene for a few years now, playing guitar with Freedy Johnston and Matt Keating and producing records for Madder Rose and Lisa Loeb, among others. With gigs supporting such notables, it was only a matter of time until Salem emerged with a collection of songs totally of his own design. Soma City, his first solo release, is a solid, physical sampling of laid-back grooves and inspired melodies produced by Niko Bolas, who's also worked with Neil Young. One of Soma City's greatest assets is the sense of struggle and personal involvement evident in each song's lyrics. Like most of the album, tracks such as "Will" and "Forever Gone" (co-written by Butch Vig) almost defy their wounded emotional content and take on a live, energetic flowing quality when thrust against drummer Keith Levreault's rooted beats and Todd Novak's shimmering rhythm guitar. That's not to say there isn't the occasional treat for those with a melancholic leaning-the luxurious, coolly harmonized "In A Whisper" is one of the album's best songs, benefitting from the more subdued, immediate approach. Add to all this an overall sound something like equal parts Costello/Mould/Petty, and you can bet Soma City is sure to pull Salem out from the shadows and into his own, well-deserved, spotlight. AARON CLOW

SILVER JEWS Starlite Walker Drag City, P.O. Box 476867, Chicago, IL 60647 212.260.3389

On Starlite Walker, the second Silver Jews longplayer, the group has graduated from home-cassette fidelity and made the startling and bold move to a professional recording studio. There will always be comparisons between the Silver Jews (led by former Pavement guitarist D.C. Berman) and that other group—not a big surprise considering that Pavement personalities Steve Malkmus and Bob Nastanovich moonlight as 2/3 of the Silver Jews-but the group is quickly evolving and might prove to be more than a footnote in rock history. While the revelry, unabashed sloppiness and cryptic humor are all familiar, the differences—such as a darker mood and heavy use of piano, synth and even country-ish pedal steel guitar as lead instruments-make the Silver Jews an interesting variation on a theme and a lot more original than some blatant Pavement-soundalikes that come to mind. Highlights include the anthemic "Advice To The Graduate" (with vocals traded by Berman and Malkmus), "Living Waters," "Pan American Blues," "New Orleans" and "The Silver Pageant" (electric piano surf rock with ridiculous party noises). LOUD FAMILY The Tape Of Only Linda

Game Theory was ultimately Scott Miller's project, and so was the Loud Family on last year's Plants And Birds And Rocks And Things. This time, though, the band is playing as more of, well, a family, interacting more as musicians, rocking offhandedly ("My Superior," "Baby Hard-To-Be-Around") and setting up the occasional dance groove ("Marcia And Etrusca," whose quasi-Mancunian beat is a charming first for the band). The guitars of the debut have made way for a greater keyboard presence; Miller has even ceded some lead vocals to keyboardist Paul Wieneke, though his own airy tenor still dyes almost all of these 10 lengthy tracks in his distinctive paisley. And the band's tricky wit is still in evidence, from the album's title (a reference to the infamous, embarrassing cassette of Wings backing vocals) to the subtlety-complexity-ambiguity code of the lyrics' approach to the familiar ground of human interaction ("Ballet Hetero" may be the only love song ever to use the phrase "fugue-state aphasia"—it's not a rhyme, either). Best of all are Miller's fractally twisting melodies, most evident on the giddy "It Just Wouldn't Be Christmas." DOUGLAS WOLK

VARIOUS ARTISTS Rock Stors Kill

Kill Rock Stars, 120 NE State #418,

Olympia, WA 98501 206.357.9732

The third installation of the Kill Rock Stars compilations, Rock Stars Kill is a bit of an oxymoron, more star-studded than the previous albums, featuring songs from Kim Gordon's Free Kitten, Kathleen Hannah, Spinanes, Boredoms, Rancid and Smog. Unrelated to the bands' individual successes, the label has collected 23 quality songs, a rare occurrence with compilation albums. Some are older songs from other 7"s or albums, but most are previously unheard. Looking back on the Kill Rock Stars series, it's easy to spot several artists who went on to a certain level of fame, the ones that A&R scouts have drooled over. Those with stellar showings on this particular album include Helium, Star Pimp, Mukilteo Fairies and Team Dresch. Kathleen Hannah does a cover of Noise Addict's tribute to Evan Dando, "I Wish I Was Him," changing a few key words to fit her own view of the pop star. Rock Stars Kill is the best of the compilation series to date; it's not an album where the program button on the CD player will be used often. DAWN SUTTER

TEN FOOT POLE Rev

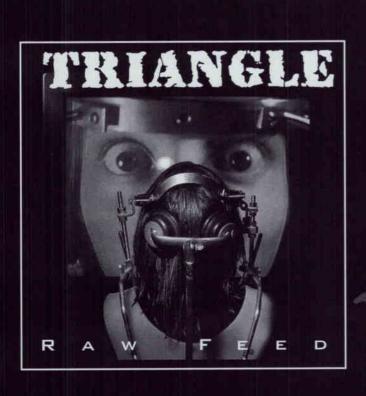

Epitaph, 6201 Sunset Blvd., Ste. 111, Hollywood, CA 90028 213.957.7555

Post-nothing, this is punk rock, plain and simple. Formerly known as Scared Straight (the name change made to avoid being wrongly classified as a straightedge band), Ten Foot Pole has been kickin' around California's hardcore scene for about a dozen years now. Now that Epitaph has struck gold (nay, platinum) with Offspring, and West Coast punks like Green Day and Bad Religion continue to bring this formerly marginal music to the masses, Ten Foot Pole will be getting far more attention than the band ever thought possible back when it was playing "New York's Alright (If You Like Saxophones)" for the kids at the local rec hall. Predictably, none of the hype seems to make a helluva lot of difference to Ten Foot Pole; it's just taken the rest of the world a while to come around. With their heads down, teeth clenched and rally caps on, the guys in Ten Foot Pole speed through Rev's 13 jaw-droppingly tight songs in a 35 minute blur, and Scott Pulmyfinger (one of the worst punk rock pseudonyms we've ever encountered) sings with a candor that makes chip-on-the-shoulder, call-to-arms lyrics like "Wake up kid and stop your whining/Every silver cloud has a black lining" believable, STEVE McGUIRL

RADIAL SPANGLE Syrup Macrame

Beggars Banquet, 274 Madison Ave., Ste. 804,

New York, NY 10016 212.889.9595

Radial Spangle named its second album, Syrup Macrame, after the sticky residue that remains in pubic hair after sex, which seems kind of ironic considering the album is about as sexy as unbuttered toast. Radial Spangle isn't the type of group that expresses fervent love or passion in its music, yet its unique brand of sonic manipulation is wholly inviting. While lines like "When it starts to swell and it's far away/Before you go to work when you masturbate" ("Special Kind Of Love") are delivered in a lifeless drawi that's totally devoid of sensuality, they're perfectly in line with the band's skewed sensibilities. The band plays lazy, off-kilter melodies that vary in tone from an inactive mumble to a propulsive roar. Like fellow native Oklahomans the Flaming Lips and Glue, Radial Spangle writes songs that communicate its need to escape environmental stagnancy, indulging fully in a range of weird guitar effects and unusual styles. Much of Syrup Macrame is loose and scribbly sounding, the instruments often fighting each other instead of working in unison. On the sparse "Busy Hole" Radial Spangle even shows up low-fi bands like Guided By Voices and Smog by using only off-key vocals and drums that don't even pretend to be on time. The rest of the record is more musical, but no less challenging, though the rewards of "Marble," "Caf,'fine" and "Knees" are well worth the listening effort." JON WIEDERHORN

BLACK 47 Home Of The Brave

SBK, c/o EMI, 1290 Ave. of the Americas,

New York, NY 10104

Bursting from the implausibly varied New York City music scene of the '90s, Black 47 has struck a nerve with a diverse audience, attracted either by the band's sociopolitical stance, its distinctive Irish lilt, or intensely energetic live performances. Home Of The Brave is a natural follow-up to last year's critically acclaimed Fire Of Freedom. It's filled with broadly told stories of heroes of every stripe, from activist Paul Robeson to rock-'n'-roller Bobby Fuller, as well as a multitude of characters right from the streets of urban America. Co-produced by bandleader Larry Kirwan and former Talking Head Jerry Harrison, Home Of The Brave also shows Black 47's uncommon ability to incorporate traditional Irish melodies, dancehall reggae, funk and a variety of rhythms into its big rock sound. "Paul Robeson," "Who Killed Bobby Fuller," "Danny Boy" and "The Big Fellah" stand out among the 16 tunes here, as vast and unpredictable as New York itself. JIM CAUGIUR!

TOM JONES The Lead And How To Swing It Interscope, 10900 Wilshire Blvd., #1230,

Los Angeles, CA 90024

After surviving years of self-parody as a hunky Las Vegas act drawing fawning, panty-tossing housewives anxious to hear his brawny and amazingly powerful set of pipes belt out standards like "What's New Pussycat" or "It's Not Unusual," Tom Jones has made a pop/dance record that suits his style as well as that of a pulsating, steamy night spot or MTV's The Grind. After working with Prince and the Art Of Noise in the late-'80s, Jones returns with The Lead And How To Swing It, a grinding, mixed-bag of contemporary styles that's affably listenable rather than presumptuous or overly clichéd. Appealing more to 20somethings than their parents, Jones assembles a slew of top producers (Teddy Riley, Flood, DJ Battlecat and Jeff Lynne) from various genres, which keeps the tracks inviting, even on the smooth hip-hop of "Something For Your Head" and "I Don't Think So." If you can't stomach the Rise Robots Rise-penned "If I Only Knew" or the house-tempoed "Fly Away," try on "I Wanna Get Back With You" (featuring Tori Amos) or the gospel/soul of "Lift Me Up." Maybe next he'll turn up in a future mutation of C & C Music Factory, but for now lones is showing his ageless energy and feral imagination. GLEN SANSONE

LUNGFISH Pass And Stow

Dischord, 3819 Beecher St. N.W.,

Washington, D.C. 20007 703.243.2454

Pass And Stow is strange and disturbing at almost every turn, but completely enthralling in its devastating, ruthless, meditative riffing. It's one of those rock creations that deserves to be listened to at full volume with the lights out. There's simply no better way to become totally immersed in the creepy, slithery and mesmerizing world of the band's hypnotic rhythms. Most songs here have a relentless, steady stride, with Eastern-sounding roots popping up now and again, most clearly on the relatively calm "In Praise Of Amoral Phenomena" and "Astronaut's Prayer," which serve as brief crack-fillers between the band's harder-edged pieces. "Washing Away" is a particularly bizarre LSD nightmare, unmercifully separating fundamental elements of the universe into minute fragments and grossly exaggerating the physical appearances of others. Turn the lights out for "Computer," "Idiot Vehicle" and "Terminal Crush," but you might want to have a friend there—just in case. AARON CLOW

SCARFACE The Diary

Noo Trybe/Rap-A-Lot, c/o Virgin, 338 N. Foothill Road, Beverly Hills, CA 90210

Geto Boy Scarface's style is particularly suited to rap's "day in the life of" mentality, and The Diary extends the rap-as-reality connection to an almost literal level. "I just try and live life one day at a time, you know," says a disembodied voice in "I Seen A Man Die," and you get the feeling that each track represents a day in the life of one of rap's most controversial figures—each one's different, but eerily the same as the one before. There's plenty of jacked-up Truck Turner/Shaft In Africa sound beds for Scarface to rap on top of, laid-back funk grooves that suit his laid-back rap style to a T. It doesn't even seem to matter that his particular style of low-riding gangster funk appears to be on the wane—he's so straight-up cold and so locked into his do-or-die mentality that it doesn't affect his rhyme style or outlook on life one bit. This kind of rap will continue to flourish for those who feed on its alienation and rage or simply look to it for entertainment like comics or cartoons. The Boys' original Def American debut it ain't, but it's probably better than the Geto Boys' or even Big Mike's latest, so cue it up. Cuts: "G's," "Hand Of The Dead Body" (featuring a cameo from Ice Cube) and "I Seen." JAMES LIEN

KILL CREEK St. Valentine's Garage

Mammoth, Carr Mill, 2nd Fl.,

Carrboro, NC 27510 919,932,1882

You can have all the crafty hooks, memorable melodies and fluid rhythms in the world, but if they're not delivered with energy and emotion they might as well remain unheard. See, you can't manufacture sincerity, it's something that comes from conviction and self-belief, two traits Kill Creek possesses in spades. St. Valentine's Garage, which follows the recent Stretch

EP and a couple of cassette-only releases, is like a car battery charged to the point of explosion, and allowed to run at full power for days on end. Packed with aggressive, guitar-churning chant-alongs and painfully introspective musings, songs like "Cosmetic Surgery," "Kelly's Dead" and "Fruit Pie" will get you triumphantly punching the sky while you neurotically reflect over your shortcomings. And when the band slows the pace and drops the distortion, as on "Mother's Friends" and "Million," the music becomes weary and heart-rending. Although Kill Creek is doubtlessly influenced by Hüsker Dü and Soul Asylum (like so many bands from the Midwest), it has its own humble perspective on punchy punk/pop. And the way it embraces twin-guitar bluster without being flashy or over-indulgent makes its songs motivational and instantly appealing. JON WIEDERHORN

DELERIUM Semantic Spaces Nettwerk (Canada), 1250 W. 6th Ave., Vancouver, BC Canada V6G IAS 604.654.2929

When they're not busy laying down apocalyptic, industrial dance tracks, Front Line Assemblymen Bill Leeb and Rhys Fulber aren't puttering around killing time. They're in the studio working on side projects

Noise Unit. Intermix and the prolific Delerium, which has released six records since 1987, including the new Semantic Spaces. Unlike previous Delerium discs, which were strictly moody, ambient keyboard projects incorporating tribal beats and transcendent religious chants in an atmospheric frame of blips and beeps, the 77-minute Semantic Spaces features assorted vocal segments by Rose Chronicles singer Kristy Thirsk, including the band's first commercial single, "Flowers Become Screens," and the ethereal dance song "Incantation." The addition of vocals gives the music extra dimension, adding the appeal of structured solids rather than just billowing sound baths. The rest of the disc features shimmering aural waves, gothic organ swells and multi-cultural rhythms which ascend and drift gradually from one pattern of sound to the next, ranging in tone from sterile and shivery to organic and warm. Additional sonic enlightenment can be found in the many unusual samples. Space out with the above, plus "Consensual Worlds," "Flatlands" and "Gateway." ION WIEDERHORN

BRICK LAYER CAKE Tragedy-Tragedy

Touch And Go, address above

After a couple of EPs and about twice as many years, Tragedy-Tragedy is technically Brick Layer Cake's first fulllength effort, but judging by the epic quality of the band's work, it's pretty tough to tell. Brick Layer Cake songs are long, practiced, excruciatingly controlled, detailed and usually best described as dirges. Vocalist and chief songwriter Todd Trainer's vocals are consistently guttural and droning, exposing more of his debt to the goth scene on each successive release. The drums, which generally form a rock record's backbone, are unusually spare, and the technique here makes them a kind of metronome to keep the numerous layers of guitars on the same track. Their beat barely keeps up a steady tempo, and it seems to drag the begrudging guitar experimentation through the rest of the song by sheer force. Brick Layer Cake's sound is concept-oriented, and the group's records require a straight-through listen in a single sitting, but a quick introduction is best found in "Gone Today" and "Cold Day In Hell." STARFLYER 59 Starflyer 59 Tooth And Nail, 92 Corp. Pk. C-605, Invine. CA 92714 714 852 8722

If the death of the shoegazing-band craze of a couple of years ago has quietly left your heart empty ever since, then this record is here to save the day. Though My Bloody Valentine was arguably the apex of that brief-but-prolific scene, Starflyer 59 has taken the best of what MBV did and reinvented it just enough to make it its own. Borrowing from the rock inclinations of latecomers like Swervedriver, Starflyer 59's debut eases up on the echo sometimes abused by others and delves deeper into the possibilities of guitar textures. It's hard to imagine how many tracks of droning guitar were laid down to give this record its dense, but somehow still lilting, sound. Thankfully it's not so many that the eerie lyrics are obscured, as most of the songs lament the departure of and heartbreak over a never-named "she" (the band's first EP was called She's The Queen) in strange and sometimes funny twists of phrases. For a quick fix, try the intense opener "Blue Collar Love," or "Droned" and "The Zenith." CHERYL BOTCHICK

SKIPLOADER Sprainy

Schizophrenic, 233 Commercial St. NE,

Salem, OR 97301 508.364.4937

This band knows what it's doing. Sprainy boasts high-quality guitar rock that stands out in the sea of bands that sound more like someone else than themselves. While it's hard for this Oregon-based band not to sound like some other

Northwest bands or any other four-guy/two-guitar band for that matter, Skiploader has good ideas which it translates briskly onto Sprainy. There's nothing subdued about the record's production or presentation; the guitars are glaring, the vocals melodic, yet gruff, and the drumming remains the center of the sound even as it splashes all over the place. Sprainy could have been ordinary, but instead, from track one to 13, Skiploader fails to slow down (there's hardly any silence between tracks as well). Maybe on its second LP, the band will record either moodier or folkier songs, but for now there's plenty of stuff here to keep the adrenalin pumping. Hear: "Kindness," "No," "Name Dropping" and "Behave In E." STEVE CIABATTONI

KRONOS QUARTET Night Prayers

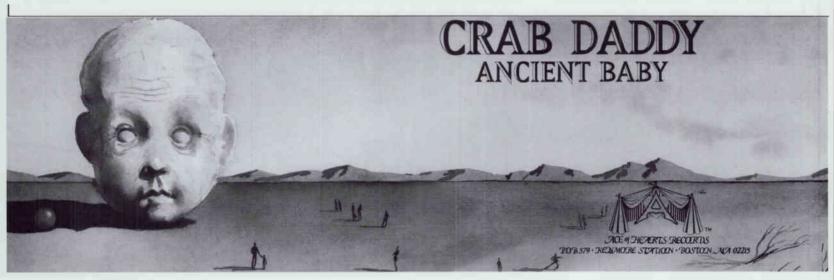

Elektra Nonesuch, 590 Fifth Ave., New York, NY 10036

In addition to being one of the most popular American "classical" groups around today, the Kronos Quartet is also one of the most prolific (in addition to its frequent Nonesuch output, the group frequently records independent-label albums released under the composers' names) and one of most adventurous (commission-ing composers such as John Zorn. Bob Ostertag, Foday Musa Suso and, reportedly, Gastr Del Sol's lim O'Rourke). Like the quartet's 1992 Pieces Of Africa, Night Prayers is a theme album, featuring collaborations with traditional folk musicians and classical composers from the former Soviet Union. On the wonderful "Kongerei," the quartet accompanies the oddball, otherworldly Throat Singers of Tuva, and on "A Cool Wind Is Blowing" it is joined by Armenian Djivan Gasparian on the oboe-like duduk. Uzbekistani composer Dmitri Yanov-Yanovsky's (try that one three times fast) beautiful "Lacrymosa," with vocals by opera star Dawn Upshaw (Gorecki's "Third," etc.), and Georgian composer Giya Kancheli's breath-taking title track are the highlights among the classical material, DAVID NEWGARDEN

POSTER CHILDREN Just Like You (EP)

Sire, c/o Reprise, 3300 Warner Blvd., Burbank, CA 91510

It's good to know that five years of hard labor hasn't deadened the Poster Children's ability to craft a good crunchy hook. Just Like You's opener "Not Like You" is charged with the same blazing current that ran through the kids' last two albums, striking an equal balance between flammable intensity and anthemic hummability. In between this first burst of energy and its refrain at the disc's end are four relentless work-outs, including the stretched-out and heavy "Sick Of It All" and the meaty "Voight," with a bouncy, whiplash-inducing bass line. Sing and/or pogo along while the Poster Children polish the edges of their third LP, Junior Citizen, due out next February. LYDIA ANDERSON

JAM & SPOON Tripomatic Fairytales 2001 Epic, SSO Madison Ave., New York, NY 10022-3211

Originally released in Germany last year, Tripomotic Fairytales 2001 is the first full-length album by the team of master remixers Jam El Mar and Mark Spoon. Their signature sound combines the irresistible propulsion of early electronic dance music and acid house with the weightlessness of current techno, often leaning more heavily toward the past than the present: "Neurotrance Adventure" is a rewrite of "French Kiss," with nods both to Yello's "I Love You" and current ambient music. They also keep their music tied to the history of vocal house and disco, even when there are no vocals immediately evident. The silky, billowing "Odyssey To Anyoona," a 10-minute instrumental, reappears at the end of the album as the four-minute pop song "Find Me," featuring a rather Madonna-like vocal; "Right In The Night" starts as a chiming techno workout, but then turns into a sweet-tempered dance song. Jam & Spoon also embrace pop structures on a larger level, which means that Tripomatic Fairytales 2001 is easy to listen to as an album, paced to develop and flow without becoming monotonous. Trip to this: "Path Of Harmony," "Heart Of Africa" and the above. DOUGLAS WOLK

hHEAD Fireman (EP)

Although the band has been making waves in Canada for quite some time, most people's introduction to the peculiarly spelled hHead will be this domestic EP. hHead plays rock, straight-ahead basic rock, the kind which has returned with the popularity of bands like Pearl Jam and Stone Temple Pilots. At times, hHead shares more than just a category with Pearl Jam, especially when the songs suddenly ease up on the noise, allowing the emotional vocals to shine, then just as suddenly crash in again with a guitar flourish. At other points, hHead has the melodic intensity of Buffalo Tom, the guitars winding their way around the hook and nearly strangling it. Each of the seven songs on Fireman contains this tension, each parlaying a nugget of melody into a swell of noise and rhythm, each sounding striking and ideal for radio. Try the title cut or, if you have more time, indulge yourself with the seven-minute "Moron." MEGAN McLAUGHLIN

IMPALA El Ranchero Reverbo

Icehouse, c/o Select O Hits, 1981 Fletcher Creek Dr., Memphis, TN 38133 901,388,1579

The Nashville-based four piece group known as Impala set up shop within the hallowed walls of Sam Phillips' recording studio to record 13 songs for El Ranchero Reverbo. All of the finished album's 16 cuts are short, sizzling earfuls of reverb-heavy guitars, bass and drums that ride a wave between rockabilly ("Wild Night At The Bloody Bucket"), surf music (check the "Wipeout"-flavored "Derailed") spontaneous Tex-Mex ("Taos Pueblo"), with lots of string-bending, vibrato and twangy soloing thrown in to make it complete. With a tip of the cap in the direction of Dick Dale and the Del-Tones, this vocalless outfit cuts loose without sounding either contrived or mimicking; the ever-changing rhythms and riff-heavy melodies capture an early-'60s, retrocool feeling similar to that of Esquivel's latest collection, and the scattered mood changes make this record sporty from beginning to end. Any fan of the Munsters or Shadowy Men On A Shadowy Planet will like the loungy "What The Astronauts Drink," "Have You Seen This Man?" and the raunchy "Hell Of A Woman." GLEN SANSONE

CONGO NORVELL Music To Remember Him By Basura!, c/o Priority, 6430 Sunset Blvd., Hollywood, CA 90028

Congo Norvell, a collaboration between Kid Congo Powers and Sally Norvell, trods a parallel (but never intersecting) line to cabaret; the music the two and studied, almost too overthe-top to believe. But what leaves Congo Norvell trembling on the precipice overlooking overstatement is Powers' clean guitar leading the simple, stripped-down band. The band's stark approach contrasts sharply with Norvell's singing, which is opulent and showy. There are moments when the band, too, gets lush, making the whole sound sumptuously rich and studied. The best songs balance the two elements—Powers' guitar is best when wailing out of control, and Norvell's voice is most striking when she, too, is on the emotional edge. Music To Remember Him By is the perfect title for this type of music; Powers' and Norvell's creation sounds like a soundtrack to a twisted film noir. Remember "Drift Away," "Mercy Mine" and "My Midnight." MEGAN McLAUGHLIN

FLYING SAUCER ATTACK

"Land Beyond The Sun" (7")

Drag City, P.O. Box 476867, Chicago, IL 60647 212.260.3389

There has been a great deal of hype about this Bristol, England, band, whose self-titled debut album became available domestically earlier this year. "Land Beyond The Sun" is the band's first release for Drag City and it lives up to the gushing hype. Both sides are tortoise-paced and drenched in feedback, giving them a far-off quality. "Everywhere Was Everything" is the more discordant of the two, exposing the band's versatility. A new album, a collection of hard-to-find singles and previously unreleased pieces, will be out soon on VHF. DAWN SUTTER

DAME DARCY WITH THE COCTAILS

Tardvark (7" EP)

Hi Ball, P.O. Box 61-7522, Chicago, IL 60661

Tardvark marks an unusual musical collaboration between jazz-informed pop craftsmen the Coctails and cartoonist/chanteuse Dame Darcy that's at once all over the map and still complete in its artistic endeavor. With the Coctails providing a musical backdrop featuring vibraphone, musical saw and clarinet (along with the more usual instruments), Darcy takes center stage with her quirky but endearing voice and imaginative tales, whose lyrics are printed and illustrated in the fun-filled accompanying booklet. The "historical" story of "The Great Molasses Flood of 1919" is the standout, Darcy and the Coctails reaching an expressive height on this memorable, toe-tapping number. Also try "Fennel" and "Band Aid Box." LYDIA ANDERSON

SUMMER HITS "Groovier Drugs" (7")

Small-Fi, c/o Volvolo, P.O. Box 4453,

Culver City, CA 90231 310.392.7509

Hardly the unassuming pop single we expected from the names of the band and the songs, "Groovier Drugs" is a sweet little tune enshrined in a cathedral of casual but VU-needle-pinning guitar buzz. Another whomping guitar part joins into the song every couple of bars until the end, when it reaches critical mass and a blanket of organ gets spread over it to keep it from blowing up altogether. "California Summer" starts at a peak and stays there for its two action-packed minutes, barely managing to end before it collapses into string-scraping noise. DOUGIAS WOLK

Berkeley, CA 94712 510.654.6124

The Softies are the latest project of Rose Melberg, lead singer from the now-defunct Tiger Trap. The duo is just as twee and pop-oriented as its predecessor, but compared to Tiger Trap's more raucous, full-band sound, the Softies' sound is toned-down, comprised solely of Rose and her partner Jen's voices and guitars. All four songs here are pop treasures, leaving us hoping the Softies will fill an album full of such gems soon. DAWN SUTTER

PEE SHY Pee Shy's Rockin' Demo: For Those Afraid To Rock We Salute You Pee Shy, 1014 1/2 Powhatan Ave.,

Tampa, FL 33604 813.237.5843

If ever there were a band to prove that there is indeed a "fine line between clever and stupid," it's Pee Shy. The only undisputable quality of this six-song demo is that it will incite a strong reaction:

a listener may think it's brilliant or he/she may want to fling it against a wall, but he/she will definitely not be without a response. The stories in each song are hilarious and delivered in a condescending, yet subtly tongue-in-cheek way, making it unclear whether this is an artistic outlet for the band members or merely an elaborate prank. "Little Dudes," for instance, is a romantic ode to younger teenage men, and includes such tightly woven couplets as, "You hardly have to shave around that smile/Please don't think I'm a pedophile." Far more interesting than the lyrics, however, is Pee Shy's decidedly juvenile selection of instruments, a favorite being one of those Wurlitzer home organs and its electronic beats (i.e. "rhumba," "calypso," "cha-cha"). Occasionally, one of the vocalists rips out a clarinet or an accordion solo, but for the most part these songs remain as spare and simply performed as possible. Imagine our horror/delight at hearing Pee Shy cover Alice Cooper's "Only Women Bleed." Pee Shy: not for the weak of heart. CHERYL BOTCHICK

CAMPFIRE GIRLS Campfire Girls (EP) Boy's Life, 6831 Delongpre, Hollywood, CA 90028

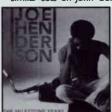

That's technically Cämpfire Girls, which is a glowing sign that the band isn't quite there yet: Motörhead, Queensryche and Spinal Tap are the only English-speaking bands that can get away with umlauts. And the muddy basement production obscures the clarity of the band's playing more than it adds useful rawness. Still, on the strength of these three songs, the Campfire Girls sound like a promising indie-rock trio. They've listened to the same bands as others of their ilk (Nirvana, Slint, Yo La Tengo), but they've picked up some less-than-obvious things from them: a sense of pacing, ways of sustaining the flow of a five-minute song that are subtler than verse-chorus-bridge, ways to make the part before they step on the distortion pedal attention-grabbing. "Sad Dog" is a 6/8 slide with some nice guitar/bass interplay, the closing "Post-Coital" is a spacy cousin to "Come As You Are" that builds to its choruses instead of jumping, and "Little Wolverine" is the best of the three, with a deliberate minor-key tread and lots of small, tightly controlled crescendos and decrescendos, DOUGLAS WOLK

JOE HENDERSON The Milestone Years

Milestone, c/o Fantasy, Tenth & Parker, Berkeley, CA 94710 510.549.2500

Fantasy has rolled out a box set of saxophone giant Joe Henderson's recordings for the Milestone label in the late-'60s to the mid-'70s. While it's not as colossal as Fantasy's similar sets on John Coltrane or Sonny Rollins (the latter has been cited as a personal favorite of Henry Rollins), there's still a whole heckuva lotta good jazz goin' on inside its eight CDs, comprising all the albums Joe Hen recorded for the label from 1967-76. Listeners with differing tastes will find different phases and albums of his career more to their liking, from the straight-ahead, soaring loe Henderson In Jopan (an overseas concert with a particularly inspired pickup rhythm section) to the far out Afro-psychedelic freakouts of his hip late-'60s albums like Power To The People or In Pursuit Of Blackness (with electric piano, electric bass and extra percussion power, they contribute to a late '60s subgenre we've dubbed "Fillmore jazz"). Overall, it paints an intriguing picture not just of loe Henderson's talents, but of the currents and trends of ideas about jazz that were occurring through the years of work involved. And in some ways, it's most illuminating: who knows, maybe even Joe could listen to some of this box (and his excellent Blue Note retrospective from last year) himself, and recharge his muse. While he's currently a hot jazz property and his records today are nice, they're a little slick for our tastes, and could benefit from some of the rawness and spirituality found in his music of this era. RON WOOD

I've Got My Own Album To Do and Now Look Warner Archives, c/o Warner Bros., 3300 Warner Blvd., Burbank. CA 91510

These days, he spends four nights or so a week playing bum notes and sloppy solos, embarrassing the rest of the Stones (pay attention and you'll notice the sound guy noticeably turns his guitar down every night after "Miss You") and having his ugly mug and rooster hairdo broadcast on the lumbotron TV screens in stadia around the planet, but Ron Wood's previous solo dabblings have also come to light, as two of his '70s solo albums have recently been re-released by Warner Archives, I've Got My Own Album To Do is an interesting but sloppy LP from the great jet-set-rock nadir of the mid-'70s-check out the album cover's photo of the various musicians sprawling languorously in somebody's mansion, including Keith Richard noticeably lurking in the background (lurking is something he does almost as well as playing guitar). Of the two, I've Got My Own Album... is the better bet, with plenty to feed the fanatics: "I Can Feel The Fire," with The Lips himself on vocals; "Far East Man," featuring George Harrison; "Act Together" and "Sure The One You Need," both Jagger/Richard songs featuring Keith on vocals that rumor says were slated for the Stones, but were handed to Wood when deemed not up to snuff. Hearing Richard and Wood attempting to sing together has been compared to the blind leading the blind, a spectacle so shambolic that it could be used by Prohibitionists and teetotalers as an argument against intemperance if there ever was one. It also features a neat tune in "Crotch Music," by session bassist Willie Weeks, who also popped in on the Stones' It's Only Rock N' Roll; Weeks, like Billy Preston, brought far more to the mid-'70s Stones milieu than he's usually given credit for. That said, this record is a classic of the sprawlrock genre, inspiration to the likes of Royal Trux, and it was even reportedly singled out by J Mascis as a desertisland disc.

ON THE CHART There's lot's of interesting chart action this week, as the logiam at the top of the chart breaks and Curb-MCN's Lyle Lovett slides into the top spot (4-1), leaping over Warner Bros.' R.E.M., holding steady in the #2 slot. Capitol's Beat Color indicates a significant The Retreot... (9-3) collection leads a long list of big jumpers, which also include Matador-Astantic's Liz Phair (12-6), RCI's Dave Matthews Band (19-10), Island's cramberries (26-13), Capitol's Robbier Robberts increase in airplay. And The Red Road Ensemble (31-15) and Chrysalin-EM's Sinead O'Connor (40-29), Top debuts include Mammoth-Atlantic's Victoria MyIlliams at #21, Rounder's the Bobs at #23 and Yanguard's Paul Kelly at #30. We're proud to announce two new additions to the Triple AAA reporting panel this week: KPFT, Houston, TX, and KFJM, Grand Forks, ND.

SHORT SHOTS

MATT KEATING Scaryarea

Alias, 2815 W. Olive Ave., Burbank, CA 91505 818,566,1034

While he possesses a cynical mind set similar to Paul Westerberg's and occasionally lets loose with punk rock urges to match those of Soul Asylum's Dave Pirner, Matt Keating has developed his own distinctive songwriting style that comes into full bloom on his second release, Scaryarea. It's a song cycle exploring isolation and emotions in a way that's neither pretentious nor self-pitying, Keating utilizing a mostly acoustic setting to ensure the words come through loud and clear. Listening closely, his feelings shine through, as if getting his very personal ideas out in public is Keating's form of therapy, his unrestrained passion and striking melodies reaching out to the listener. "McHappiness," "Way To Go," "The Wrong God" and "Boxed Inn" are prime examples of Keating's talent for introducing us to a frightening place that we'll likely be returning to again and again.

GREG BROWN The Poet Game

Red House, P.O. Box 4044, St. Paul, MN 55106 800,695,4687

In my house, a new Greg Brown record is cause for a major amount of excitement and The Poet Game doesn't disappoint. One of our day's foremost storytellers, Brown has the knack for getting to the heart of things with a minimum amount of words, while his husky voice lends each tune a dark, dramatic edge. His songs of American life have always been wonderful little snapshots that are nearly perfectly developed, but this may be his most accomplished work to date. How can you resist a song with a title like "Jesus & Elvis," a tongue-in-cheek comparison and contrast of two great men? On "Sadness," Brown's voice turns into a warble that portrays the song's somber mood amazingly well. The stark imagery of "Here In The Going Going Gone" is flawlessly matched to its spare acoustic setting, an impeccable example of Brown at the top of his game. Don't miss the title track, a sprawling epic folk song reminiscent of the late Steve Goodman or Blood On The Tracks-era Dylan.

LISA GERMANO has come up with an understated masterpiece with Geek The Girl (4AD, 8533 Melrose Ave., Ste. B, Los Angeles, CA 90069 310.289.8770). It's an album that compels you to sit and listen to it in its entirety to comprehend fully its austere beauty, as Germano takes us on an intimate journey through her psyche filled with deep, dark dread that reveals more with each listen, "Phantom Love," "Stars" and the title track are the most radio-friendly tracks upon initial listenings, but give this record close attention and others may stand out over time...Having slugged it out in the clubs of New York City for the last few years, KEVIN SALEM is now ready to take on the rest of the world with Soma City (Roadrunner, 536 Broadway, 4th Fl., New York, NY 10012 212.219.0077). In the past he's worked with Freedy Johnston, Chris Harford, Yo La Tengo and Dumptruck, and this record proves that Salem's a powerhouse songwriter/guitarist as a solo artist as well. His music is a confident assemblage of the American rock paved by the likes of Tom Petty and Tommy Keene and tracks like "Amnesia," "Shot Down," "Deeper Hole" and "In A Whisper" demonstrate he's worthy of such comparisons...The scope of BLACK 47's music moves beyond the pubs and gutters of its

Stolen Moments: Red Hot + Cool GRP, 555 W. 57th St., 10th Fl., New York, NY 10019 212,424,1000

Red Hot + Cool is the fifth installment of AIDS awareness albums produced by the Red Hot Organization. Musicians can be important flag-wavers for causes like AIDS, which can strike folks of any rellgion, race or sexual orientation. Red Hot

Cool is designed to help break down the callous misinformation about this horrible, viral disease. In the spirit of Guru's Jozzmatozz, new champions and promoters of the jazz/hip-hop dynamic are paired with legendary-status jazz glants for a meeting of the generations fueled by a cooperative and improvisational ethic. The pairings are musically infallible, and the tracks were mostly written and designed to heighten AIDS awareness-and that they do. Sounding more like the bold collaborations they are, rather than a studio-molded overlaying of genres, Gang Starr's Guru meets Donald Byrd, French rapper MC Solaar meets bassist Ron Carter and the Digable Planets team up with Lester Bowle and Wah Wah Watson Carleen Anderson and acid jazz stars Incognito also get into the act, joining forces with Ramsey Lewis on "Trouble Don't Last Always." The album will be accompanied by a documentary, to be aired on public television, featuring live performances and interviews, which will also be available in a home video version. While specialists search for a cause and cure for AIDS, actions to heighten awareness and raise sorely needed funds should concern everyone, and everyone should do what they can to get involved. Also check: Groove Collective and Bernie Worrell's "Rent Strike," and the Last Poets with Pharoah Sanders on "This is Madness."

ON THE CHART YOU'RE IT: It's seems that Bad Boy-Arista's Notorrious B.I.G. (2-1) and Craig Mack (1-2) are on a weekly rotation for the top radio position. This week marks the fourth time the two records have switched positions. Moving up dicates a significant one spot is Elektra's Pete Rock & C.L. Smooth (4-3), who are getting plenty of mileage out of "I Got A Lave," while Pendulum-EMI's Digable Planets take Blowout Comb from 8-4 in just two weeks. Singles are infiltrating increase in airplay.

the top 10, as jive's Keith Murray moves his debut single from 9-7 and Elektra's Brand Nubian (17-9) cracks the top 10 with "Word Is Bond." Powered by hot singles from Genius and Raekwon, Fresh: Music Inspired

By The Film darts 32-11, while, further down, we're pulling for great new singles by Capitol's Channel Live (24-19) and Pendulum-EMI's Lords Of The Underground (36-22). We also welcome in new releases by Ruffhouse-Columbia's Goats (#35), N85 Trybe/Rap-A-Lot-Virgin's Scarface (#38) and Qwest-Reprise's Saaffir at #40. Notorious B.1.G. (1-1) is still pinning down the #1 position on the Retail chart, narrowly beating out Craig Mack (2-2) and the debut of Interscope's Thug Life at #3. While Mercury's soundtrack for Jason's Lyrric moves up 7-5, we see new releases charting this week by Scarface (#10), the incredible soundtrack for the Snoop Doggy Dogg film, Murcler Was The Case (#11), Priority's Paris (#15), Digable Planets (#18) and Dangerous-Warlock's Bloods & Crips at #23. This week's Top Adds: 1) Digable Planets; 2) Keith Murray; 3) Lords Of The Underground: 4) Brand Nubian; 5) Black Sheep; 6) Fu-Schnickens; 7) Urban Species; 8) Craig Mack: 9) Shaquille O'Neal; 10) Jeru The Damaja. BURNESS EXED TREES

THE COUP Genacide & Juice

Wild Pitch, c/o EMI, 1290 Ave. of the Americas,

New York, NY 10104

Coming from the Bay Area, a stones-throw from the birthplace of the Black Panther Party, the trio know as The Coup is more than a pack of neo-revolutionaries using music and suggestive wordplay as effective ammunition. They do that with composed and determined aplomb that is headier than nearly everything coming from the Bay Area (see also E-40 and Spice 1). "Fat Cats/Bigga Fish," "Pimps" and "Takin' These" creatively show the crew bumping heads with cultural elitists in a boiling combination of radical politics and chunky '70s funk. Boots, E-Roc and DJ Pam's lyrical concepts- although clear and digestible-are fiery, suspicious and occasionally cynical ("Gunsmoke"), while the album's attitude takes on a malevolent, agitated likeness. E-40 teams with The Coup on "Name Game" and DJ Pam lets her skill shine on "This One's A Girl (Pam's)." Fortunately, Genocide & Juice refrains from tired chiding and makes its statements through storylines ("Repo Man") and swift, precise vocal blows that focus on knowledge and liberation.

MYSTERME & DJ 20/20 Let Me Explain

Gee Street, c/o Island, 400 Lafayette St., New York, NY 10003 Groups coming out of New York's Bronx borough generally have an instantly recognizable, beefy Boogie Down-type sound. To genuinely represent the hip-hop Mecca, rhyming proficiency and frank posturing are paramount. Paper-thin ploys and econo-line posing will bring an instant end to a rapper's career in a place where only the strongest survive. Mysterme and his DJ 20/20 stare back at you on Let Me Explain like they have nothing to hide. They have survived as artists long enough to make their dense walls of rhythm unusually familiar—making you feel almost as if you've returned to a place you haven't visited in years. Mysterme is sullen, unflinching and confident, while 20/20 blends jarring tempos that cut through dark tunnels of bass and unhinged, but calculated, loops ("If Ever"). Pay attention to: "What's The Word," "Unsolved Mysterme," "Call Me Myster" and "Peepin' The Wreck."

State Of Emergency: Saciety In Crisis (Vol. 1)
Mad Sounds, c/o Motown, 6255 Sunset Blvd.,

Los Angeles, CA 90028

While many log onto computer on-line services for news and information, hip-hop is the information superhighway for people who want to know what's going on in inner cities and in their own backyard. While consciousness in hip-hop has lost some of its popularity (especially among younger fans) and has been tempered by high-budget videos, State Of Emergency... is both a wake-up call and a lengthy collection of songs and snippets taking aim at the strong arm of oppression with militant precision; it also scolds and implores the black community to take action and develop self-respect and mutual understanding. This revolution is supported by sound bites of Farrakhan, Geronimo Pratt, Chuck D., Dr. Martin Luther King and Kwame Ture (a k a Stokley Charmichael), while the agit-prop concepts expressed in the songs are biting and timely. Standout tracks include Ukfe Uye's "Da Spook Dat Sat By Da Door," Lord Finesse's "Shorties Kaught In Tha System (S.K.I.T.S.)," Bobcat's "I Ain't Checkin' For The Curb" and the Pharcyde's "My Soul."

PARIS Guerrilla Funk

Priority, 6430 Sunset Blvd., Hollywood, CA 90028

Since his debut single "Break The Grip Of Shame," Paris has been running his political ambush vehicle on an upward course (becoming more trenchant and revolutionary along the way) that reaches its breaking point on his third release, Guerrilla Funk. The CD booklet to his last album depicted Paris as the president's assassin, and the blood-soaked images inside this one are even more brutal. The seriousness of Paris' political agenda is quite clear, his solutions to racism, white supremacy and police brutality are to wage terrorist attacks against the system ("A coward dies a thousand deaths, a brave man dies but once" is a quote printed in the CD booklet). Paris used to stand alone with his creeping, syth-bass and low, Rakim-like delivery. On Guerrilla Funk, he resorts to G-Funk raps—which sound like he's rapping from his underground bunker—and mountains of Parliament samples in hopes of making his messages more accessible to younger listeners. What younger listeners are asked to digest takes a sophisticated mind and can easily be misinterpreted. Proceed with caution and know your facts.

URBAN SPECIES Listen

Payday, c/o London, 825 Eighth Ave., 24th Fl., New York, NY 10019

In the mold of British artists who have embraced American jazz and cross-bred it with soul and dance to create a fascinating new hybrid, London-based trio

Urban Species (DJ Renegade, Mintos and Dr. Slim) welcomes hip-hop into its already brimming pot of reggae, jazz, funk, etc., with hopeful themes that are not always loose and sanguine. The jazzy "Musikism" speaks against ignorance based on fear and misunderstanding. Listen is not an empty commercial for a new variety of music: it's another model example of how innovative musical foundations and positive viewpoints can come together to buck against the norm, encouraging freedom and individuality. Listen's reliance on hip-hop and far-reaching soul ("Just A Matter Of Time") keeps the sound picturesque, spiritual and dreamy, as if the light at the end of the tunnel has not yet been reached. The title track features vocals (singing melody instead of lyrics) from Incognito's Maysa Leak and rapping from MC Solaar on the brooding mix of acoustic and electric guitar and modest hip-hop rhythms. Listen is an evolving experiment that boldly uses hip-hop in a variety of setting and forms for a blissfully untraditional result. Also listen to: "The Consequence" and "Brother." GLEN SANSONE

SOUNDTRACK Jason's Lyric

Mercury, 825 Eighth Ave., New York, NY 10019

Although the single and video from Jason's Lyric, "U Will Know" by the choir of top male R&B artists known as Black Men United, has garnered most of the attention, the remaining 19 cuts make up a potpourri of rap, soul, R&B, blues and spiritual black music (Oleta Adams covers "Many Rivers To Cross") that gives this soundtrack a jukebox of artists to choose from. L.L. Cool J turns in the well-oiled "Candyman," which leaves only a moderate impression, while Tony Toni Toné offers the sweet, soulful "Just Like My Papa" and K-Ci Hailey of Jodeci croons passionately on the pining-soul of the Bobby Womack-penned "If You Think You're Lonely Now." Other tracks to taste: Bryan McKnight's "Crazy Love" and Ahmad's "That's How It Is." GLEN SANSONE

USHER Usher

LaFace, c/o Arista, 6 W. 57th St., New York, NY 10019

After lots of tempting and teasing with his first single "Can U Get With It" (a BET favorite) and his name on the lips of people inside and out of the industry, Usher finally puts forth his long-awaited self-titled debut. Usher started kicking vocals with his mother's church choir when he was only nine years old. Now, at 16, he has been well-primed for the big time. It's hard to put a finger on Usher's vocal influences; he sounds like no one else, which is very refreshing and rare in today's R&B world. All of the tracks here are well conceived and not over-produced, tightly structured around Usher's vocals, which strike with the force of a typhoon while he keeps it all under control like a seasoned pro. The first single "Can U Get With It" is a slow bumpin' stew with a Roger Troutman-styled chorus alongside Usher's lovestarved vocals. Some other cuts that'll grab hold of your soul: the Dave Hall/Al B. Sure-penned and produced "The Many Ways" and the Brian Morgan-produced (SWV) "Crazy," which melts in your mouth like butter. Also getting props here is the sparsely-produced "Interlude 2 (Can't Stop)," which is sensual and involving. DERRICK THOMAS

MEGADETH Youthanasia

Capitol, 1750 N. Vine St., Hollywood, CA 90028

Five years ago, if you told someone that Megadeth was destined to become a HUGE crossover hit, selling thousands upon thousands of records to long-haired headbangers, buzz-

cut alternative dudes and mildtempered, mainstream music lovers

alike, he or she probably would have been way too busy laughing at you to even consider the idea. Today, Megadeth has risen high above the odds to become one of the most well-known, highly-respected metal bands around, due to the undying dedication and determination of founding members Dave Mustaine (vocals) and David Ellefson (bass). It's been two long years since 1992's mega-successful Countdown To Extinction, but Megadeth's sixth LP, Youthanasia, was well worth the wait. The opening blast of "Reckoning Day" shreds with heavy, ominous guitar riffs, freight-train rhythms and Mustaine's trademarked angry snarls while at the same time, mixing in some tight, catchy grooves. Next, the heaving, chugging crunch of "Train Of Consequence" rumbles with gritty grinds and wailing guitar breaks that slam right into the thick, infectious, instant-mainstream-hit melodies of "Addicted To Chaos." With lyrics of frustration piercing through dense, raging thumps of instrumentation, "The Killing Road" takes a glimpse into the hardships of being on tour with a band—"The road will never end/It always starts again/Another show's around the bend/Another long lost friend...I lost my mind/I lost all my money/I lost my life to the killing road." Also check out the chilling swing of "Family Tree," the hipgrinding injection of "Youthanasia," the cold reality slap of "I Thought I Knew It All," the foreboding stomp of "Black Curtains" and the inventive lyrical make-up of "Victory" (constructed of old Megadeth song and album titles carefully pieced together to tell a story). JENNI GLENN

QUEENSRYCHE Promised Land

EMI, 1290 Ave. of the Americas, New York, NY 10104

It's been four years since the release of Queensryche's tripleplatinum Empire and two years since the band played a live show, but vocalist Geoff Tate and co. are still, and always will be, the ultimate masters of progressive rock. Whether the band is performing a beautifully flowing, heart-felt ballad or pumping out a high-energy, rockin' tune, Queensryche reigns supreme as one of the most accessible, major crossover bands ever to grace the music world. For over a decade, Queensryche has been expanding its musical boundaries, refining its powerful presence and absorbing each and every new facet of life, allowing the group to successfully complete this amazing, introspective masterpiece. Promised Land, the band's fifth album, takes a reflective peek into Queensryche's collective, careeroriented experiences, as well as delving into the bandmembers' pasts, creating an emotionally touching record. Although most of the songs here don't fit into the typical "loud rock" format, each tune is an intricate and unforgettable musical ride that can be enjoyed by just about everyone, no matter what his or her primary musical choice may be. Amidst the flurry of fluid, serene instrumentation on songs like "Out Of Mind," "Bridge," "Lady Jane" and

"Someone Else," there are some harder rockin', more forceful tunes for the metal crowd to check out. Give a listen to the tribal chug of "I Am I," the soaring grind of "Damaged," the sonic punch of "Dis Con Nec Ted," "Global Mind" and "One More Time." JENNI GLENN

SMASHING PUMPKINS Pisces Iscariot

Virgin, 338 N. Foothill Road, Beverly Hills, CA 90210

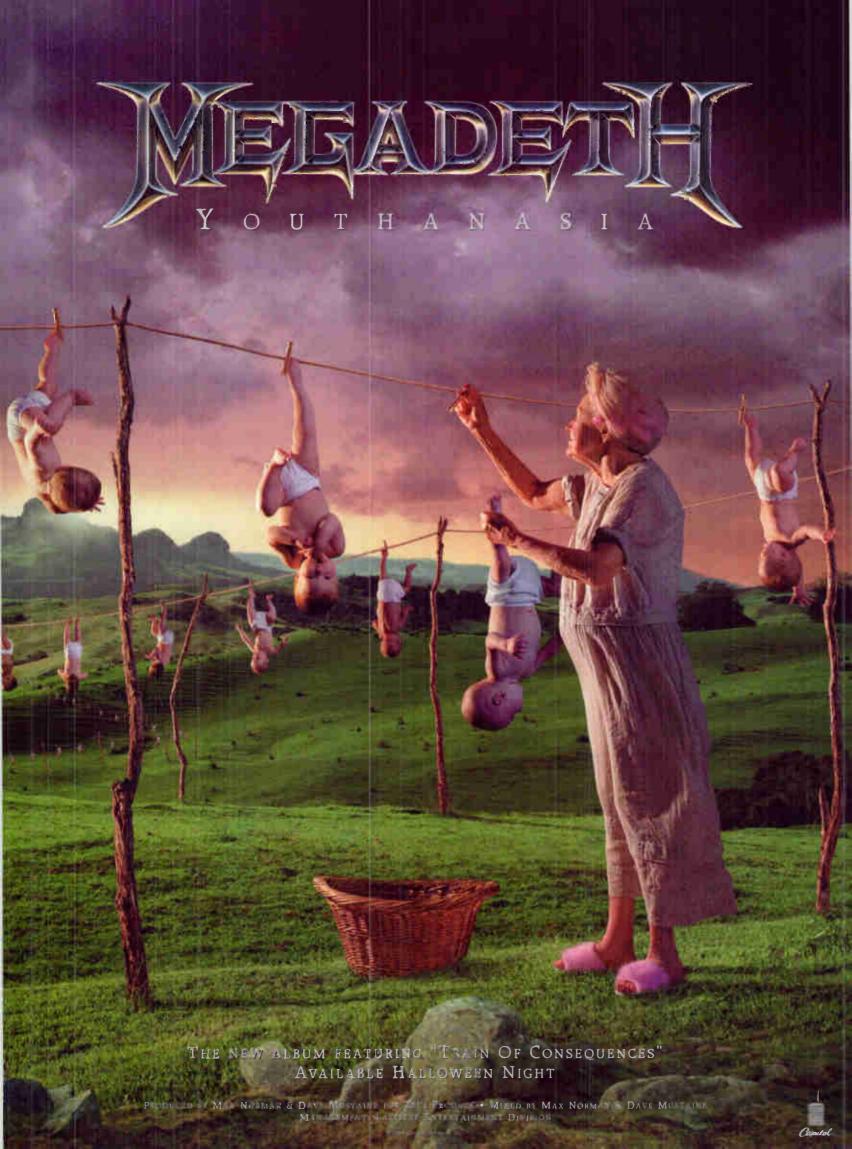

This compilation of songs that were never intended for official album release, and the liner notes that include Billy Corgan's wacked-out descriptions of each one, offers a glimpse into the brains of the Smashing Pumpkins. Featuring

B-sides and rare live radio performances that never made it onto Siamese Dream, Pisces Iscariot reveals the slow, grinding melodies of the Pumpkins' earlier work, along with a new, heavier side that was previously under wraps. "Plume" rocks the house with the band's signature thick, fuzzy guitars and psychedelic twinge, while "Pissant" leans in a punkier direction. Honest-to-goodness slammin' rock 'n' roll can be found on "Hello Kitty Kat," which was intended for Siamese Dream "but the ghosts of Gish said no no no...so I left it alone...my most passive aggressive song," writes guitarist/vocalist Corgan. "Starla" was named after a girl Corgan met in Dallas while on tour with the Chili Peppers. As it turned out, her name was really "Darla," but pay no mind; the song will astound you with its slow, trance-like grind, which melts into an intensely heavy Hendrix-like solo. Other songs with heavy grooves include "Blue" and "Girl Named Sandoz." LANA WRAITH

DEVILHEAD Your Ice Cream's Dirty Loosegroove/SSO, c/o Epic, SSO Madison Ave., New York NY 10022-3211

Formed by brothers Brian and Kevin Wood (siblings of the late Andrew Wood, who previously fronted influential Seattle band Mother Love Bone). Devilhead is the first band to release an album through the brand new, musician-oriented Loosegroove label, started by Pearl Jam's Stone Gossard and Satchel's Regan Hagar, Joining the brothers Wood is guitarist John McBain and bassist John Waterman (both ex-Hater) and former Monster Magnet drummer Luke Kimble. The combination of these seasoned, talented musicians makes for one hell of a first release, with a sound that's punky, bluesy, melodic, heavy and rockin' all at the same time. Your Ice Cream's Dirty swirls together full-on, slamming punk crunches ("Your Mistake") and heavy, grinding grooves ("Too Much Protection"), topped with catchy blues romps ("Don't Make Me") and trippy, dreamy melodies ("There"). The slow, swaggering rhythms and hysterical lyrics of "Devilhead" sound like they were recorded when the band was absolutely, completely intoxicated, while the rough, upbeat shake of "We Like You" makes you wanna get up and shake your booty 'til you drop. Also check out "Troubled Moon." "Birthday" and "Cup Of Tea," and don't miss the two totally groovy, psychedelic and raunchy unlisted bonus tracks at the end ("Man Of The Hour" and "I Don't Know Man"). JENNI GLENN

FUDGE TUNNEL Complicated Futility Of Ignorance Earache, 295 Lafavette St. #915,

New York, NY 10012 212.343.9090

Fudge Tunnel squeezes out enough thick, oozing chunks of aggressive hardcore, throbbing grooves and shuddering noise to keep the Tidy Bowl man working overtime in the dark trenches of musical metal mayhem. Formed in 1989 by singer

Alex Newport (who was only 18 years old at the time), Fudge Tunnel has proven itself to be much more than a rough, rambunctious outlet for teenage angst. A few singles, an EP and two albums later comes Fudge Tunnel's third full-length record, Complicated Futility Of Ignorance, jam-packed with grinding rhythms, gritty vocals and powerful thumps of extreme heaviosity. Bassist Dave Ryley explains the lyrical inspiration of the album: "The subject matter of the songs is much the same; we've always dealt with the simple horrors of everyday life and other people, and a few frustrated barbs for the machine we call the Music Biz." Unlike the band's last album, Creep Diets, there are no soft acoustic songs or breaks in the furious, frothing trademark Fudge Tunnel sound on Complicated Futility Of Ignorance. Thundering hardcore grooves saturate all 11 blaring tracks, including the brainpummeling thud of "Random Acts Of Cruelty," the rough sting of "Backed Down" and the slow, sludgy swelter of "Six Eight." Also check out "Long Day," "Suffering Makes Great Stories," "Circle Of Friends, Circle Of Trends," "Rudge With A G" and stick around for the loud and rumbling hidden track that starts about five minutes after the last listed track ends. MERCYFUL FATE Time

Earlier this year, while reacquainting themselves with their fans and prepping everyone for their next lesson in dripping, bloodladen heavy metal, the legendary King Diamond and co. released The Bell Witch EP, featuring Mercyful Fate classics such as "Curse Of The Pharoahs" and "Come To The Sabbath." Now, it's finally time for another wickedly evil, brand new Mercyful Fate release, entitled Time, featuring 11 tunes filled with the chilling, blood-curdling screeches of Diamond and the trademark eerie overtones of the band's music that's been defining the Mercyful Fate sound for almost 15 years now. In keeping in tradition with old-school metal fashion, the songs on Time scream out with blunt force and wailing guitar riffs, but also embrace a variety of new musical styles. The unique Middle-Eastern stomp of "The Mad Arab" marks a crafty musical turn for the band, as the haunting chant of "Nightmare Be Thy Name" stays true to the band's familiar, possessed rhythmic ring. Shroud yourself in a bubbling, malevolent cauldron of doorn with tunes like "Angel Of Light," "Witches' Dance," "My Demon," "Lady In Black," "Castillo Del Mortes," "The Preacher" and the title track, IENNI GLENN

GROOVEZILLA Groovezilla

Mausoleum, 18 E. 53rd St., New York, NY 10022 212.758.4636

Storming in from Lexington, KY, Groovezilla's crushing selftitled debut rips with heavy rapped vocals, funky grooves and hard-edged rhythms. Described as "power death jungle groove music," Groovezilla's blend of free-thinking, soulful grinds and thick, pulsating instrumentation falls somewhere between a catchy hiphop stomp and a hardcore metal-funk slam, Groovezilla has been rumbling around the Kentucky underground for the past five years and is now more than ready to bust wide open nationwide, "Our Time" gives the new Groovezilla listener insight into just what the band is all about-"We're back, and we're harder than ever/A band of many colors that blend together/Hardcore is our train of thought/And a soul is a thing that can't be bought." "Zilla Groove" is a fun, bump-and-grind tune with catchy, upbeat rhythms and some cool, jammin' saxophone thrown into the mix, while "Secure" rocks with rough, aggressive guitars and angry vocal shouts. The metal masses will also love the fastblasting fury of "Negative Posse," the exploding force of "Survival," "Blind Eye" and "Stop The Drama." JENNI GLENN

NEW IDOL SON Reach

Pavement, 17 W 703 A Butterfield Road

Oakbrook Terrace, IL 60181 708.916.1155

San Francisco's New Idol Son (formerly known as Difference Engine, until the band discovered another band was also using that name) mesmerizes with a heavy, hypnotic force reminiscent of bands like Black Sabbath and Kyuss.

Characterized by thick grooves and slow, grinding rhythms, New Idol Son induces a euphoric musical high that expands the mind and stirs the spirit. With emotional lyrics touching on everything from religion to environmental decay, Reach is an intricate, impressive debut album from a relatively unknown "baby band" that probably won't remain in that category for long after everyone gets a taste of the music. "Butterfly" soars with deep grooves and the powerful vocals of singer Matt Hilzendrager, while "Magnet" has a more down 'n' dirty, rockin' rhythm to it. Also check out "American Flush," "Snake Oil," "Past The Point Of God," "Half The Sky," "Pain Blossom" and "My Brother, I" and pay close attention to the chilling warning of "Last Eden." JENNI GLENN

LOUD ROCK NEWS

Check it out!! There's some really great contests going on right now that everyone should know about: As some people already know, Overdose frontman B.Z. (pronounced baza) is a graphic designer of some renown. Not only has he provided artwork for Overdose album covers, he also designed the signature "S" for the Sepultura logo. Beyond these designs, he is also a talented tattoo artist. One of the most publicly displayed is the tattoo on the side of Rob Halford's head! Futurist Records is offering the chance to win your very own tattoo designed by B.Z. All you have to do is mail in a postcard with your name, radio station. address and phone number. On the card explain why you deserve to win above all others. Winners will be judged on orginality and creativity. Hostility is encouraged. Send postcards to: Overdose Contest, c/o Chainsaw, Futurist Records, 6 Greene St., 2nd Floor, New York, NY 10013. Postcards must be received before Dec. 31, 1994. Winners will be notified by Jan. 31, 1995. First Prize: A free tattoo designed by B.Z. 5 Runners-up: Autographed copy of Overdose's Progress Of Decadence. You must be 18 or older to win. Futurist Records or any of the label staff can not be held responsible for any injuries acquired by the winner should he/she wuss out under the needle... Red Light Records is having a contest also. Go through your station's CD collection and write down all of the tracks from each of the following Red Light Records' fulllength or 3-song CD-pro releases: Gutted's Bleed For Us To Live, Oppressor's Solstice Of Oppression, Cianide's A Decent Into Hell, Sarkoma's Integrity, Skatenigs' What A Mangled Web We Leave and The Pleasure Elite's Bad Julu. Write them on a sheet of paper and fax them to Jill Castellano at 708.297.5849 by Halloween! One station will be drawn at random to win an Ibanez guitar autographed by the Red Light band of his or her choice. Remember to list the band, followed by each track on their CD. Only entries with all six releases and each track from all six releases will qualify. Got it? Deadline: Halloween, Oct. 31, 1994... Create your own Roadrunner medley! All you need to do is create one song by combining any four tracks from the following bands: Machine Head, Obituary, Madball, Buzzoveen, Dog Eat Dog, Black Train lack. Directions: Go into your production room with the four CDs and one reel, then choose a track off each CD. Now, use your creativity and production skills and create one brand new, never before heard song from the four. Next, put it on a cassette and send it to Roadrunner with a title, the bands and the tracks you used. For example: Take Machine Head's "Old," Obituary's "Don't Care," Madball's "Smell The Bacon" and Dog Eat Dog's "In The Dog House" and mix up the lyrics and music to create a COHERENT song. Then title it "Don't Care About Smelling The Bacon In That Old Dog House." The DJ that creates the best new "creation" will receive a green Machine Head long sleeve t-shirt, an autographed copy of the Obituary CD, four available Roadrunner releases on CD and a new CD sampler. The second place winner will receive the Roadrunner sampler CD and four available Roadrunner cassettes. Deadline: Nov. 21, 1994... In metal news this week: If you're scouring the movie section of your local newspaper each and every week, desperately searching for the premiere date of the killer new film, S.F.W., you can stop looking now. The movie's release date has been pushed back until January, 1995. On the last date of the Korn/Biohazard/House Of Pain tour in San Francisco, Billy and the crew from Biohazard dumped cans of corn all over Korn, while they were playing. If that wasn't disgusting enough, numerous halved corn-on-the-cobs were chucked at the band throughout their entire set. Such bonding is mesmerizing... Epic's Prong has been nominated for the "Best Clip Of The Year (Hard Rock/Metal)" in this year's Billboard Music Video Awards for its video, "Snap Your Fingers, Snap Your Neck," while Rage Against The Machine has been nominated for the "Best New Artist Clip Of The Year (Alternative/Modern Rock)" for its video, "Freedom." Congrats!!... Guns N' Roses guitarist Slash has finished recording a solo album with a group of friends that he's dubbed Snakepit. Co-produced by Slash and Mike Clink (who produced the GN'R albums) for Geffen Records, it has a working title of It's Five O'Clock Somewhere and is expected to be released in mid-February, 1995. In addition to Slash on lead guitar, the Snakepit players for the album are Guns N'Roses drummer Matt Sorum, Alice In Chains bassist Mike Inez, rhythm guitarist Gilby Clarke and Eric Dover, guitarist for the defunct band Jellyfish, who handles lead vocals. Although Slash plans to do some touring in support of his album, he says: "Guns N' Roses is still my first priority. But we weren't ready to record, so I just went ahead with Snakepit. I'm impatient that way. I love playing and when there's an opportunity, I grab it. I love being in that element of a gig that's happening." Recent Guns N' Roses break-up rumors aggravate Slash. "How would they know? Everything with this band is always blown way out of proportion. But that's given us a serious bond ever since day one—it's us against the world. We're this volatile little gang and our goal is to make a good record, however long it takes. That's how GN'R works." Keep your eyes peeled.

RAVE REVIEW

AURRA AND THEE DOVE "Kattwalk" (12") Radikal Fear, P.O. Box 367, Park Forest, IL 60466

"Prophets of Nature" (12") and "In Thee Gorden" (12") Global Cuts, 82 Limburgstraat, 9000 Gent, Belgium 2.241148

The prodigious Felix 'Da Housecat shows no signs of relinquishing his title as hardhouse emperor on both sides of the Atlantic. Once again, he does away with the binarisms of house and techno. opting instead for a hybrid of the two. You need only see the dancefloor reaction his records get from those two normally irreconcilable camps to understand that 'Da Housecat is a true dance visionary. With the kind of artistic output this guy maintains, you'd think he'd have run out of ideas. Not so. His three latest releases are packed to the walls with sonic trickery, bass lines that can move through solid walls and a momentum which envelops the listener in a warm haze. 'Da Housecut has said that his four chief influences are Marshall Jefferson, George Clinton, Prince and Jimi Hendrix. Whether his records sound like these four filtered through a hardhouse sensibility is a question I'll let you answer. What's clear is that these three singles don't sound like anything else on wax right now. "Kattwalk" by Aurra And Thee Dove is a clanging, percussion-driven endeavor with a swooping bass line dropping in and out unannounced, leaving your body in shock. The long, building mixes change slowly, almost imperceptibly, adding and subtracting elements with a surprising grandeur. The two Aphrohead singles are similarly and glowering. demonstrating that Felix 'Da Housecat is as much an electronic architect of physical movement as a dance producer. If you're having difficulty following 'Da Housecat's career as he moves from label to label, fear not: RPM will keep you up to date.

ON THE CHART Quickly encreaching on the Orb's record for lengthy chart dominance, ffrr-London's Orbital hangs tough once again at the chart's peak. Astrahverks-Caroline's Fierce Ruling O'rea makes a significant leap this week (18-3), while adicates a significant Moonshine's Psychotranece comp (#6) and Planet Earth's Armbush (5-11) both slip out of the top five. Techno staple Moby takes the highest debut this week at #12 with his latest single "feeling So Real," and other firstappearances are made by firr-London's Sabres Of Paradise full-length (#16) and Silent's Heavenly Music Corporation (#20). Re-entres this week include Elektra's Dece-Lite (#14). Dedicated's Global Communication (#18), Sonic's Anolog Heaven comp (#21) and Nettwerk-L.R.S.'s Single Gun Theory (#23). The Astralwerks-Caroline count this week: five.

ORIGINAL CREATORS "Roy's Revenge"/"Flashback" (12")

Strictly Rhythm, 920 Broadway, New York, NY 10010 212.254.2400

Strictly Rhythm's forays into the hardhouse domain began with its prescient release of Phuture's "Rise From Your Grave" in 1992. Now, Roy Davis Ir. and co. are an established part of the label's roster, periodically dropping bombs such as this on a waiting public. When Davis gets into the studio, his restraint just goes to the dogs, and the result is winding smokers like this one. "Roy's Revenge" moves at a quicker pace than most of his stuff, with clanging snare hits and a grinding bass line, while the acerbic "Flashback" resonates with excoriating acid lines and sharp snare cracks. EPs like this one and the above singles by Felix 'Da Housecat are drawing a new audience to deep house and labels like Strictly Rhythm.

DI ESP "Balance" (double-12")

Drop Bass Network, 1654 N. Jackson Lower, Milwaukee, WI 53202 414.224.5343 As the Mid-West hardtech scene grows with Freddy Fresh's Analog label in Minneapolis and Kurt Eickes and Patrick Spencer's Drop Bass Network organization in Milwaukee, the most inventive producers are slowing things down a bit, moving away from the raging 160 BPM and upwards hardcore sound of yore towards a more subtle, rhythmic sound which is every bit as hard. Thus, we have Milwaukee's finest, DJ ESP (Woody McBride), releasing a batch of tracks that will re-define the Mid-Western sound. The textures of "Balance" lie somewhere between the Chicago minimalist trax sound of DJ Funk, Dave Clarke's pyrotechnics and the spare Detroit sound of Robert Hood and Dan Bell (DB-X). Yet the tracks here sound totally unique, imbued with the grimy, raw sensibility evident on McBride's previous outings. A highly worthwhile collection.

MARK THE 909 KING "Can Yau Dig It?" (12")

Sex Trax, c/o Power Music, 4 Thompson St., #11B, New York, NY 10003 212.982.2506

DJ Duke, the enfant terrible of the Sound Factory underground, has been moving closer to the minimalism of his peers elsewhere in the U.S. With his latest project (whose moniker is a rip on esteemed hip-hop producer DJ Mark The 45 King), that trend has come to fruition. "Can You Dig It?" is laced with bouncing 909 rimshots, and an electric bass line that hums like a periodic power surge. Never content to let the same drum and bass patterns drone on ad nauseam, DI Duke makes minute changes in the mix over the length of the track. And his records sound better the louder they get. If the Power Music release schedule continues at its current pace, there will certainly be more where this came from.

DI SNEAK Funkadelicrelic (EP)

Cajual, 1229 N. North Branch, #218, Chicago, IL 60622 312.642.8008

The last time we heard from the busy DJ Sneak, he was constructing minimal hardhouse tracks. But he is clearly a producer of many talents, and his latest effort is this jazz-soaked six-tracker, which samples everyone from Santana to Duke Ellington to Parliament and beyond. Cajmere is really the originator of the hard-bop jazz house sound, but some of its more adroit practitioners are really pushing the boundaries of the sound. DJ Sneak is one of those. Records that cannot incorporate the textures of jazz into the structure of house ("Doop" is an example) fail precisely because the jazzy elements sound disorganic, detached. Sneak works sax runs and bass notes into the flow of the track so deftly you'd think they'd been there from the git go. This is dense, complex dance music with polyrhythms that fly to and fro with an endearing fallibility. It isn't clean, it isn't polished, but the production quality is exquisite.

Strictly Hype's Underground Construction label has just released a storming eight-track EP by the HOUSEGANG, entitled Hittrax Four: The Resurrection. It's so titled because the PLUS, ALSO, TOO Housegang consists of Mike "Hittman" Wilson and Neal Howard, two veteran house producers who've been quiet in recent years. Howard's contemplative "Time To Indulge" remains an early trance-house classic while Wilson's work with Shawn Christopher and Steve Hurley is legendary. This EP finds the duo exploring a wide range of dancefloor tricks. Perhaps the most satisfying movement here is "Doin' It," a hooky, organ-driven number with samples from Chip E's "It's House" and a rolling 909 bass line. The energetic "Work Your Body" has a graceful flow, while the Howard-penned "Bounce" is a "Percolator"-style Chicago track with enough energy to power the island of Manhattan in midsummer (Underground Construction, c/o Strictly Hype, 9209 Ivanhoe St., Schiller Park, IL 60176 708.678.1271)...The elusive Thomas Heckmann is known for his biting acid tracks and nonexistent public presence. He releases records now on his own Trope label and they are invariably relentless, distorted excursions of unmediated sonic force. His latest project is Mental Surgery by SILENT BREED, a four-track kickdown that takes no prisoners. Heckmann keeps the tracks flying along even when they are dense with grinning electronics, a feat managed by very few indeed (AFU, c/o Trope, Frankfurt, Germany 6131.364121).

ON THE CHART Mesa-Mesa-Mesa-Mumoun's Rose And Share remains our #1 this week, but chart stalwart Manu Dibango's Grant-WB album is close behind at #2, bounding back from a brief slamp at #7. On the levitational Moroccan jazz dicates a significant front, the world-meets-jazz collision of Maleern Mahmuod Ghania With Pharoah Sanders collaboration on Axiom-Island continues to gain support, moving 8-5 this week. Meanwhile, even though the group has dipped to increase in airplay. #25, we've got to hand it to Luaka 800-WB's Zap Marna, which has been on our charts for an incredible 21 weeks so far—that's only one week less than Ali Farka Toure With Ny Cooder's record-setting collaboration earlier this year. Our most newsworthy new debuts this week are Heartbeat's Sister Carol (#11), Steel Pullse's Yer on MCA (#13), which was the Jackpot' pick in the most recent Reggae Route column, Rounder's Tablu Ley Seigneur Rochereau (#15) and Shanachie's wonderful The Long Way Home by Dama & D'Gary (#22).

Malagasy stylings by Rossy, Tarika Sammy and David Lindley express the universality of the Spence/Pindar cosmos. "Carmen Goes To Bimini?" Why not? An electronic keyboarding of "Burma Road" and a thundering Memphis-style "Out On The Rolling Sea" carry the idea from the heart out to the fringe. This is precious music that knows as few bounds as the singers who inspired it. As Uncle Patrel Mustapha reminds us, "Joseph Spence, he knew many things, he understood many things...and many things he tells us." I bid you goodnight.

It's a sound that permeates every avenue of pop music, from the hardest

MORE CARIBBEAN jazz to the products of television hucksters. It can have the annoyance of bubblegum or the vitality of bebop, but it always maintains its identity. And all over the world artists emulate the sound and migrate to its rhythm.

At 72, ANDY HAMILTON made his first excursion into a recording studio in 1991. Now he has made his second triumphant journey with Jamaica By Night (World Circuit, c/o Rounder, I Camp St., Cambridge MA 02140 617.354.0700). While his first album was a straight-ahead jazz thing, this one is swimming in the Afro-Caribbean sounds he cut his musical teeth on. From the first bars of "Give Me The Highlife," a jumping west African/calypso revel through jazz, reggae and more, then onto the calypso finale of "Come Back Gal," with its driving Latin piano, Hamilton delivers new jazz with home-grown, burning Jamaican roots.

It is no small celebration when one of the legends of the music rises again. The SKATALITES return with Hi-Bop Ska (Shanachie, 37 E. Clinton St., Newton, NJ 07860 201.579.7763), and this is no look back. Armed with classic tunes like "The Guns Of Navarone" and guest musicians like Lester Bowie, David Murray and Steve Turre, the Skatalites bring the music to new turf, from the township sound of South Africa to a wild grooving interpretation of a Lester Bowie tune. They swing on "African Freedom" and fly on "Man In The Street." Add guest vocals from Toots And The Maytals and Prince Buster and you have classic ska for the '90s

Will there ever be too much LORD KITCHENER? Doubtful. Klossic Kitchener Valume Two (Ice, 110 Greene St., Ste. 1111, New York, NY 10012 212.431.5522) dishes up more of that timeless soca/calypso he has virtually trademarked over the decades. "One To Hang", "Love In The Cemetery," and the classic "Miss Tourist" portray the wit, wisdom and sly commentary of the master of Trinidad's music.

The ska of the '60s begot the Skanarchy (Elevator Music, P.O. 1502, New Haven, CT 06505) of the '80s and '90s, that raw-edged, nasty white boy sound that took Britain by storm and made a few ripples in America. But somewhere under every rug in every state there lurks a young ska band. Here are 14, from the raw soul of Agent 99 (NY), the smooth Blue Meanies (IL) and the manic Pacers (WI). My own state of Connecticut is well represented by the bouncy Spring Heeled Jack and the Caribbean surf sound of Seed. Check it out

SING HALLELUJAH!

Tributes to great musicians have inherent dangers. If the contributors are too much in awe of the tributes, the end result is a bland imitation, loving but flat (Capitol's recent Richard Thomoson tribute comes to mind immediately).

But if the artists being praised are as quirky, original and inlimitable as grand Bahamas guitarist and singers Joseph Spence and Edith Pinder, and the concept as loose as Out On The Rolling Sec. A Tribute To The Music Of Joseph Spence & The Pinder Family (Green Linnet, 43 Beaver Brook Road. CT Danbury 203.730.0333), the results can be pleasantly surprising and occasionally astounding. Spence was an original. His music was a blend of European folk, American gospel and wafting Caribbean sweetness, but his playing and singing were all scratch and vinegar. With vocals often supplied by Edith and the Pinder Family, the results were so beautiful and special that there is little danger of imitation, no matter how devout. Instead, we get 19 creative, crazy, amiable tracks that reflect on the music rather than simply pay homage to ir. Taj Mahal comes close to the core with his original "Blow Wind Blow," as does the marvelously twisted Wavy Gravy rendition of "The Crow." But 3 Mustaphas 3 come blasting in with the sublimeto-ridiculous "Chilling Tale: Harcourt Drowned/ Troublesome Water." Perhaps my favorite Spence tune is "Great Dreams Of Heaven" and electric guitarist Michael Chapman captures the feeling beautifully. Van Dyke Parks, the master of Americana-gonemad, orchestrated his way through "Out On The Rolling Sea" back in 1972, and it gets a revival here in all its Ivesian glory allelula. Niles Hokkanen aspires to the growl of "Mr Walker." Victoria Williams is joined by a quartet of violin, pedal steel guitar, string bass and a lonely pounding bass drum to bring out the earthy spirituality of "Although The Lord Be High Above." Three

Milestone (c/o Fantasy, Tenth & Parker, Berkeley, CA 94710) scores heavily on the Latin-jazz front with strong new releases from MANNY OOUENDO & LIBRE and IERRY GONZALEZ & THE FORT APACHE BAND The York City-reared Oquendo, a timbalero whose tone is as resonant as his time is flawin the interrelated Afro-Cuban. Puerto Rican and Nuyorican genres, celebrates the 20th anniversary of his underheralded band Libre on Meior Oue Nunca (Better Than Ever). Libre's insistent blend of hand-percussion, bass. piano and voices, overlaid with a four-man trombone section (a stylistic carryover from Oquendo's '60s tenure with planist Eddie Palmieri's La Perfecta), enters the body like an unguent, expanding throughout the nervous system until it reaches the head, where guest soloists Dave Valentin on flute and Charlie Sepulveda on trumpet, among others, add lazzy touches sympathetic to the Latin grooves. Key cuts include the guaracha-rumba "Alabanciosa," the bolero "Prelude To A Kiss/Misterio De Tus Besos," the jazzmambo "Speak Low" and the descarga (salsa jam) "Mejor Oue Nunca." On all countsfor weight, depth, color and variety-Mejor Que Nunco is a winning disk from a salsa survivor. Kudos to Oquendo for keeping his dream band alive two decades.... Congero/trumpeter lerry Gonzalez's Fort Apache Band, be it a big band or a sextet (as on Crossroads), boasts an ensemble sound so cohesive it's hard to discern where the Afro-Cuban stylings leave off and the bebop begins. Not that it matters one whit. Pianist Larry Willis and hornmen John Stubblefield (tenor sax) and Joe Ford (alto and soprano) are first-call jazz soloists, but they aren't the least bit cowed by clave

ON THE CHART Atlantic's Ginger Baker Trio and Windham Hill-High Street's Jazz Passengers again dominate the jazz chart, holding the top two spots respectively. Ginger Baker Trio was reported by 36 of the whopping 117 jazz reporters this week and garnered nine #1 reports. The Joshuan Redman Quarteet on Warmer Bros. moves up 6-3, as Joshua's dad, Dewey Redman on Evidence, returns to the top 10 (15-10). Also returning to the top 10 is Blue Note's McCoy Tyner & Bobby Hutcherson (13-6). Blue Note again has five albums on the chart, but that's still fewer than Verve's six. Making chart debuts this week were Verve's Betty Carter (#13), Atlantic's Wessl Anderson (#15), Axiom-Island's Maleem Mahmoud Ghania With Pharoah Sanders (#21) and Accurate's Either/Orchestra at #23.

rhythms laid down by the Gonzalez brothers (Jerry's brother Andy is a bulwark bassist in a number of bands, including Libre and Fort Apache) and percussion marvel Steve Berrios. Whether the compositional framework be Latin ("Viva Cepeda," "Guaguanco I" and "II") or modern jazz (J.]. Johnson's "Lament" and Jackie McLean's nine-minute "Fort Apache," the latter written expressly for this group), the Fort Apache Band forges a delightful, diverting synthesis of Latin and bop without ever letting the seams show. For that reason, stations specializing in bop can spin the Latin-tinged bop tunes with impunity, and vice versa. Hot stuff...Incidentally, both the Libre and Fort Apache CDs were produced by Todd Barkan, former head honcho of Frisco's Keystone Korner jazz club, who has come into his own as a top-flight producer. Besides overseeing saxist Grover Washington, Jr.'s new straight-ahead outing, All My Tomorrows (Columbia), Barkan is directing the new Keystone International label, whose first production is a nifty session from the renascent Eddie Henderson, who's playing as much trumpet as anybody on the scene...While we're on the subject of rhythm, check out the latest platter from the Essex County, New Jersey-based drummer CECIL BROOKS III, Neck Peckin' Jammie (Muse, 160 W. 71st St., New York, NY 10023 212.873.2020). I'm not exactly sure what Neck Peckin' Jammie means-it sounds like a Wyntonism and probably involves the way one's head moves up and down, involuntarily, when the sounds are really swinging-but the ultra-affable, take-care-of-business Brooks, besides being a first-rate drummer/composer/leader, has fashioned a repertory/production company utilizing a number of the scene's top talents. This, his third Muse title, is an II-tune grabber (with six Brooks originals) deploying a three-horn alignment of altoman Justin Robinson, trumpeter Terell Stafford and tenor/sopranoist Craig Handy with the leader's drums and the stellar piano/bass tandem of Geoff Keezer and Christian McBride bringing up the rear with urgency and inventiveness. Especially effective are Wayne Shorter's "One By One," a driving 4/4 Messengers bop vehicle recast as a syncopated Caribbean/reggae tempest, and the Brooks co-composition "In Jody's Corner," which demonstrates the leader's uncanny means of meshing bop and Latin locutions. Get it! ... Brooks' talent-scouting and production abilities are clearly in evidence on the eponymous debut outing (Landmark, c/o Muse, address above) by the wide-ranging QUARTETTE INDIGO, a swingful string quartet led by cellist Akua Dixon Turre. Technique, taste, and stylistic range —the material ranges from Scott Joplin and Duke Ellington to Wayne Shorter, John Coltrane and Thelonious Monk, with infusions of blues and gospel to boot-abound on Quartette Indigo. But what distinguishes this foursome (cello, two violins and viola) from its string counterparts is its improvisatory brilliance. Eschewing cuteness, oddball material and empty virtuosity, this foursome blurs, indeed almost obliterates, the arbitrary boundaries separating the spiritual from the secular. In addition to making for wondrous music, that weltonschouung (the Golden Rule applied to all aspects of everyday life) makes for expressive, tolerant, progressive human beings. This is highbrow stuff, devoid of any elitist pretension, that everybody can enjoy...Brooks, by the way, has also produced and is shopping around the inaugural recording by jazz singer Gail Allen, a rhythmically savvy Jerseyan contralto with a keen sense of phraseology and a flair for lyric-writing. She's a comer who should go far. Label moguls take note. More on her next time...Closing out, we come to drum master JOE MORELLO's Morello Standard Time, his second entry on DMP (Park Square Station, P.O. Box 1583S, Stamford, CT 06901 203.327.3800). The 6S-year-old Morello, who made 60 or so albums with Dave Brubeck from 1955-68, shows no slackening in swing and odd-meter adentness as he hooks up with the same cast (Ralph Lalama, tenor; Greg Kogan, piano; Gary Mazzaroppi, bass) that meshed so superbly on his label debut, Going Places. "Paper Moon," "Take Five" and "Doxy" are among the well-roasted chestnuts on this engaging mainstream session.

KIM WILSON That's Life

Antone's, 500 San Marcos, Austin, TX 78702 512.322.0617 Best known from his days as frontman and harmonica player of the Fabulous Thunderbirds, Kim Wilson has just released That's Life, his second solo effort for Antone's, and it's a no-frills blues lover's delight. He's been on the road almost constantly since the release of his first album, and his touring band, augmented here by standout guitarists like Duke Robillard, Derek O'Brien and Clarence Holliman, has come together as a fine-tuned gut-bucket ensemble able to blow hard and wild on sweaty jams or get low and mean on gospel-tinged ballads. Don't miss Wilson's feverish take of Sonny Boy Williamson's "She's My Baby," the roadhouse blasting original "Baby Please Don't Lie To Me," the blazing harp playing on the instrumental "Humpin' To Please" and the down and dirty Chicago-style "Blues Leave Me Alone." JIM CALIGIURI

There wasn't a Roots 'N' Blues column back when the independent blues and jazz label Mapleshade first released guitarist ARCHIE EDWARDS' Blues 'N' Bones, so it's MAKE THAT somewhat apologetically and belatedly

finest acoustic blues albums we've heard this year

TO GO that we're hipping you to one of the (Mapleshade, 2301 Crain Highway, Upper Marlboro, MD 20772 301.627.0525). Edwards is joined by the illustrious Richard "Mr. Bones" Thomas, known throughout this great land and the world for his clicking, clacking, chicken bone percussion, made by dexterously holding and clicking together two bones in one hand to create a sound like modern-primitive clackers or caveman-castanets. Mr. Edwards and Mr. Bones jive together effortlessly, making a breezy, warm, homespun album. Harp blower Mark Wenner (of the Nighthawks) also sits in on a few tracks...From a movie we have seen several times: The soundtrack to Quentin Tarantino's Pulp Fiction (MCA, 70 Universal City Plaza, Universal City, CA 91608) is a truly awesome blend of surf (Dick Dale) and sleaze (Urge Overkill doing "Girl, You'll Be A Woman Soon"). Added bonuses: the infamous John Travolta/Samuel L. Jackson "Big Mac" dialogue, and Jackson's frightening rendering of "Ezekiel 25:17" which allow one to experience the movie's spine-chilling reality at home...And from a movie we haven't seen: Though not every track comes recommended (some of them are really dreadful), there are a few gems hiding on the soundtrack to Corrina, Corrina (RCA, 1540 Broadway, Times Sq., New York, NY 10036). For one thing, you can compare sensitive soul singer Ted Hawkins' version of the movie's title tune with Big Joe Turner's, and Hank Ballard's "Finger Poppin' Time" and Duke Ellington's "It Don't Mean A Thing If It Ain't Got That Swing" are always favorites...Fans of harmonica blues should check out the latest offering from the Rooster Blues label, Low Blows: An Anthology Of Chicogo Harmonica Blues (Rooster Blues, 232 Sunflower Ave., Clarksdale, MS 38614 601.627.2209). It features outstanding tracks from several undersung, if not totally obscure, blues artists from the '70s. Not quite as timeless as the classic Little Walter or Shakey Horton stuff from the '50s, but these Chicago sides reflect the heavier, slower blues of the '70s. Not only does this compilation spotlight the harmonica, but most of the performers are solid vocalists as well. The roster is also thankfully lacking in post-Blues Brothers wannabes in bad suits and dopey shades. Our picks are Joe Carter and

Big John Wrencher's slow-dragging rendition of Muddy

Waters' majestic "Honey Bee," and the outrageous, show-

stopping "Good Rockin" by Good Rockin' Charles. Outta

sight! IAMES UEN

LAIKA Silver Apples Of The Moon Too Pure, 3A Highbury Crescent, London NS 1RN U.K. 071,609,2415

When Moonshake split in half, we got two bands of equal worth. While Dave Callaghan kept the name, cofounder/writer Margaret Fiedler, with drummer Lou Ciccotelli, took off to hitch up with producer Guy Fixsen and flautist/saxophonist Louise Eliott. Like the band's namesake (the first dog in space), Silver Apples Of The Moon attempts to go where no man/woman/dog has gone before (except Moonshake, really), deep into the heart of an extraordinarily vivid jungle of aural foliage, preferring jazz's heady abandon and funk's momentum to pop's make-sense curvatures in molding this polyrhythmic taste sensation. The album is a studio concoction but the intelligentsia at play retains its organic brief while making advances on Jon Hassell's Fourth World musical ideal by adding sample-led giddiness to the established loop/trance foundations. Fiedler, meanwhile, takes the lion's share of the vocals, intonating softly in speak-song mode, keeping a low profile but having plenty of fun with some supercharged lyrics. After three manic openers, the pace settles for the all-too-brief Itchy & Scratchy-esque "Coming Down Glass" and the brilliant, vibes-led, mantra-onic "If You Miss." where Laika's orchestra of colors reaches new textural highs, before the spinning top takes off again, though the potential neurotic content of such busy music is brilliantly smoothed out, mostly by warm, luminescent sounds. Bonus points for the superb handmade sleeve featuring real '60s-era Albanian stamps. A serious labor

Lest we forget...early-'80s pop too often sounds like advances in electronica buried the lack of real progress, syndrome. But one of the era's emperor-sized contributions were made by the ASSOCIATES. The Radio I Sessions covers both the original MacKenzie/Rankine (1981-82) and post-Rankine ('82-85) lineups, with a surfeit of opulent pop and bleached funk-Bowie-inspired, Krautrock-shaded, texturally extravagant and cinematically ambitious. Four previously unreleased tracks are a bonus in this history lesson in futuristic pop (Strange Fruit, Electron House, Cray Ave., St. Mary Cray, Orpington, Kent BR5 3PN U.K. 0689.899.021)... Monday night's Club Spangle at Camden Town's Dublin Castle pub has spawned a record label with a four-band debut, Club Spangle! Number One EP, which says quite a bit for the current pop avenues traversed in the U.K. and the usual hardships in outrunning those original influences. MARION follows its Rough Trade single with "The Only Way" (inspired Smiths-ian pop leanness); SHRIEK follows its Deceptive single with "Shaved" (inspired PJ Harvey seesaw jaggedness); FLINCH, winner of the recent In The City seminar best band competition, follows up two singles with "In Awe," where a cigs-andcoffee female voice, rhythmic guitar and overall punky drive celebrate in an inspired, sassy-spirited manner; and GOYA DRESS stands a little apart with its debut recording "Strangedeath," with its inspired 4AD-style moodistry, ubiquitously pretty, giddy female vocal, gliding guitar and tom-tom drum thud (Spangle, 136 Royal Oak Ct., Pitfield St., London N1 U.K. phone: Wayward PR

PLUS, ALSO, TOO

KURT SCHWITTERS Ursongte

Wergo, c/o Harmonia Mundi, 2037 Granville Ave., Los Angeles, CA 90025-6103 310.478.1311

There were phonetic poems before Kurt Schwitters' Ursonate, notably Raoul Hausmann's "fmsbwtäzä3," but Schwitters' 1932 piece—a 40-minute sonata of spoken nonsense syllables, in four movements—is certainly the most important, longest and best. If you've seen the animated short Primiti Too Taa, or heard Brian Eng's "Kurt's Rejoinder," you've heard part of the Ursanate. This recording was made by the author and was, until recently, feared lost;

it's a fascinating document of experimental poetry between the wars, and guaranteed to make anybody who hears it say "what the hell is that?" DOUGLAS WOLK

VARIOUS ARTISTS America The Beautiful

RRRecords, ISI Paige St., Lowell, MA 01852

Celebrating its 10th anniversary this year, RRR has been this country's foremost label of noise/industrial music. with well over 100 releases, the majority of them from American artists. The label's landmark 1986 three-record boxed set, God Bless America, defined the RRR aesthetic, ranging from blistering noise to hilarious social commentary. We Americans just love sequels, and this 40-artist, double-CD again spotlights American artists, again the "theme" is "The Land Of The Free," and there are again some hits and misses. Most of the betterknown names here (Negativland, Lee Ranaldo, Kings Of Feedback, Phil Milstein) unfortunately deliver unspectacular cuts. Among the many standouts in this hodgepodge of noise, collage, rock and other undefinable rackets are the Luxurious Bags, Mono Pause, AMK, Grae-Com, Shrilltower, Nicholas Collins and a half dozen artists from the San Francisco Nuf Sed/Amarillo family. Also, returning from eight years ago are Borbetomagus and Randy Grief, whose Bacteria & Gravity LP on RRR is a little-known (and still available) gem. DAVID NEWGARDEN

VARIOUS ARTISTS Tellus #27: Mini-Mall

Tellus 596 Broadway #602.

New York, NY 10012 212.431.1130

Tellus is an ongoing experimental audio series of music, radio, spoken word and other sounds, each issue centered around some loose theme (i.e. All Guitars, Fluxus, Just Intonation). The latest installment is a looser theme than usual (hopefully they haven't run out of ideas); new audio works by artists-in-residence at Tellus' sister projects, Harvestworks and Studio PASS. Due to the studio's New York location, these eight composers are, invariably, New Yorkers (including a few transplanted Asians). Brenda Hutchinson sings into a nine and a half foot long aluminum tube in "Long Tube Trio," focusing on harmonics which produce odd acoustical effects inherent to her didgeridoo-like tube. "Time Piece," a radio work by Pauline Oliveros & Fanni Green, overlaps three poems/narratives about "time," along with Oliveros' tortoise-paced accordion. Ben Neill's "The King Of Thule" is a haunting melodic piece for adapted trumpet and interactive computer that samples from Berlioz. Jin Hi Kim, better known for her komungo improvisations, here adapts another Korean instrument, the changgo hour-glass drum. Her electric MIDI drum pads trigger samples of the changgo and other sounds, both familiar (gamelan, telephones, helicopters) and unfamiliar. Other highlights include backwards tapes and whispers from Ground Zero's Kato Hidecki and Gen Ken Montgomery "playing" the Ice-O-Matic™electric ice crusher. DAVID NEWGARDEN □

VIDEO REVIEWS

BLUR "Parklife" Food/SBK-EMI

There are no camera tricks here (except for the glaring color stock), so all involved have to ham it up a bit to keep our intere s t "Parklife" takes a drive through town with Phil

Daniels (that guy with the thick accent who was in Quadraphenia), who comments on the pleasure of leisure. Meanwhile, Blur mugs for the camera, performing cute little choreographed moves with hands and rainbow umbrellas. If those Monkees reissues are making you nostalgic for spedup film and other assorted campiness-not to mention melodic brilliance-check out what's sure to be Blur's second big hit from Parklife. SC

SPEARHEAD "People In Tha Middle" Capitol

Michael Franti's Spearhead eschews the aggressive stylings of his previous outfits (Disposable Heroes Of Hiphoprisy and the Beatnigs) in favor of a soulful, funk-and jazz-inflected brand of hiphop. This smooth, spiritual, seductive vibe manifests itself in every tone and image of the band's first video. A rich. earthy brown warms the clip's kitchen setting (where else do you "cook up" soul?) and more than just a few shots of Franti and his fellow Spearheads are interspersed with subtle visual metaphors (fire on the stove, a whirling industrial sized beater in front of some steamy coupling on the kitchen counter, etc.). Ultimately, the clip communicates with the same subversive cool as the band's uplifting musical blend. CH

ON THE CHART Remixers take note: the re-released, remixed version of Craig Mack's "Flava In Ya Ear" proves to be Bad Boy-Arista's ringer this week, confidently taking hold of the #1 position with airplay at MTV. The Box, BET, Powerplay, Dance Color indicates a significant Connection and numerous regional programs, including Colifornia Music Channel, Dance Vision and Bohemio Afterdark. "Wei'rd A1" Yarnkovic's take on the Crash Test Dummies' hit in "Headline News" is the highest debuting clip at increase in airplay. #20, while RCA's Gigolo Aunts (#22), HCA's Urge Overkill (#26) and Columbia's Irni Karmoze (#29) all make first time appearances in the top half of the chart. Our predictions for chart dominance in the near future: Minty Fresh-DGC's recent signing Veruca Salt (#48 debut), American's speed-metal kingpins Slayer (#36 debut) and Elektra's Brand Nubitan (#68 debut), which is already impacting our rap radio charts.

VERUCA SALT "Seether" Minty Fresh-DGC

"Seether" has loads of cute kitties, cute girls, cute dollies and sloppy film stocks, and a riff and chorus that would make the Breeders do a double take. Partly filmed outside a glittery gas station in the band's hometown of Chicago, this video has all the trappings of an indie hit. With all eyes now turned towards Chicago, "Seether" will keep those eyes focused sharply on the forward progress Veruca Salt is sure to make. SC

IESUS LIZARD "Destroy Before Reading" Touch And Go

If you've ever seen The Brain That Wouldn't Die, then you'll have an idea of what goes on in the latest clip from Chicago's infamous bad boys, the Jesus Lizard, Frontman David Yow seems to have ended up as part of a freak experiment, in which his head, which has been separated from his body, is kept functional by a complex setup of tubes and pumps. As two curious children examine his head in a dissecting tray with horrific bio-medical instruments, Mr. Yow still manages to provide his vocal accompaniment to the band's performance taking place just a few feet behind the lab table. C'mon, you'd kill to know what the hell is going on inside that demented noggin of his too. CH

BRYAN FERRY "Mamouna" Virgin

Roxy Music was know almost as much for its provocative album covers as it was for its sleek. modern art rock. So, it's no surprise that head Roxy Bryan Ferry has made a new video that's erotic, daring and rhythmic. The film's strange quality almost makes it look like some bootlegged porno film (we're guessing here, of course), which makes the fleeting shots in exotic settings of writhing, bathing and posing women seem more forbidden. The video will probably get limited airtime because of its risqué content, but it's an accurate compliment to Ferry's sensuous mood rock. SC 🖸

is a forum for communicaton about all facets of the music industry. All CMJ New Music Report subscribers are welcome to submit comments for publication to: Dialogue, clo CMJ, 11 Middle Neck Road, Ste. 400. Great Neck NY 11021-2301; or via fax to 516.466.7159. Dialogues will only be accepted every other week from any individual subscriber. All submissions must be typed and include name, title, company/station, city, state and phone number. Submissions exceeding 250 words will not be accepted. All Dialogue comments represent the opinions of the authors and do not necessarily reflect the opinions of the CMJ staff, the editors or the general readership. Dialogues are due each Monday (unless otherwise noted) by fax or mail at 6 p.m. EST, and will appear in an issue dated exactly three weeks from that Monday deadline.

Billy Pruitt, Retail Promotions, Monkey Hill Records, New Orleans, LA 504.944.4776 The Continental Drifters' self-titled debut release is the best record to come from an indie, bar-none. If you're not familiar with the project, let me elaborate. Do artists such as the dB's, the Cowsills, and Bangles ring a bell? Well the Continental Drifters is comprised of members from these well established professionals as well as studio cats who have worked with Tori Amos and the Dream Syndicate. Triple AAA radio is loving it and thanks to stations like, KSCA, KCSU, KRCC, WNCW, WCBE, KFMU and WCBE the listening audience is loving it too. Don't miss this one. It's American music at it's finest. The Rent Party is blasting its way out of Northampton, MA. Produced by Eric Calvi (Miles Davis' producer) Pic-Nic is somewhere between the Chilli Peppers and Dinosaur Jr. It's funky, it's rockin', hey, it's a damn good record. And I did say dB's earlier. Yes I did. Released last week was Paris Ave. Recorded in 1988 this material should have graced our ears years ago. In typical Holsapple fashion, Paris Ave. is a baker's dozen of pleasantly crafted tunes in the standard dB's style. I know there are many of you closet fans out there, so dust off your headphones and add it to your playlist. Before I go to Bourbon St., Cowboy Mouth their newest in January.

Tim Yasui, A&R, RKD Records, Beverly Hills, CA 310,246,9455 Hats off to California's Abbey Road OS for a terrific one day convention held at the Lax Marriott recently. Of course the top exhibit booth goes to our distributor, RED, who graciously allowed us to display our "wares" for all the enthusiastic retailers in attendance, as well as play host to a successful autograph session featuring the "Godfather of Rap" Mr. Rudy Ray Moore (AKA "Dolemite!") who was literally swarmed by eager fans just wanting to talk to or get a glimpse of this African-American historical figure and folk legend, whose RKD debut is scheduled for release sometime this fall. Other offerings from our growing label include a release this month from the Jamaican-born reggae guru Alric Forbes (yes, this is the real shit, mon!) the "quasi-Christian Metallic Thunder" of Precious Death in November and yes, even a folk release in December by the East coast's best kept secret-Virginia Wagner, whose self-titled debut has already snuck up on some of your college playlists even before servicing! Also in the works, a follow-up release to this year's 2000 Retro by Spiders & Snakes entitled Oddities: The Glitter Years which will include a short story/mini-novel authorized by the band's lead singer and legendary Hollywood songwriter Lizzie Greay. Kudos to Charlie Frick at Power Play Television and Nat Morris at Video Request for adding the video clip from Spiders & Snakes entitled "Nuke The Sun" to their playlists. If you haven't received your 3/4" copy yet, just ask!

Randy Dry, Alternative Marketing Manager,
Polygram Classics & Jazz, New York, NY 212.333.8314 Hey there, college radio movers n'shakers! Looking for something really different... something just a bit more alternative than the new R.E.M. album? Then look no further than Arthur Russell's Another Thought (Point

Music). One of modern music's true visionaries who sadly died of AIDS in 1992, Arthur Russell blended the elements of cello, guitar, and percussion with his stark vocals and abstract (yet poetic) lyrics. The result is a haunting, dream-like sound that is playful, meditative, and mysterious. This enchanting album puts a new spin on a sound first put to wax way back when by the likes of Robert Wyatt, Nick Drake, and the Young Marble Giants. To put it in another way, it sounds kind of like Tracy Chapman meets Peter Gabriel in a relaxation tank. Sound Interesting? It is. To hear for yourself, contact your local PGD College Rep or just give me a call. Believe you me, once you discover the moody magnificence of Arthur Russell's Another Thought, R.E.M. will sound about as alternative as the Bay City Rollers.

Ionathan Obera & Pete Burness, Virus Promotions, Ass Kickin' Music, Muther Fuck'n Promo Dudes, San Francisco, CA 415.788.4787 This is the first official Dear Jon column entry: Question...I love my boyfriend, like a whole lot, but he's always wearing my underwear. He says it's because his clothes are all dirty. and he doesn't like to do laundry. I'm really crazed, what should I do?...Answer...Well Suzie, let's not point fingers at the ones we love, instead let's play in his court. If he doesn't like to do laundry, don't do your laundry. If he still wears your "dirty underwear," don't start wearing "thong underwear" (whoa, I hear it can be painful for men). If that still doesn't work, find yourself a new boyfriend. (Names have been changed to protect the submitter, but if you send a check made out to Dear Jon, I'll spill the beans, shhhh). MDs, DJs & whoever please submit your Dear Jon letters to P.O. Box 170391 - San Francisco, CA 94117-0391. Metal and Hip Hop/Rap Music Directors, please contact me, either by mail or phone, I want to get you into my life; I may have shit you should be all over!!! Live shows you ask..Puzzlefish.. amazing show!!! Check this shit out, 4:20 on What Records, there's something for Metal, Hip Hop & Alternative Music Directors! Strung Out, it's a punk thang, Drag Me Down, In Harms Way & Faulter, don't make me come over there and kick your ass...Stimmies get on it because it feels good, Spawn, Pet, Gina's Great and Life Boat. xxx Jonathan.

Lindsay Shannon, College Radio Promotions, Ichiban Records, Atlanta, GA 1.800.966.4244 ext. 3026 Quiet please! Thank you. I wanted to bug you all again with some shameless promotion. Moe Tucker. Moe Tucker! Don't you wish your mother was the drummer in the Velvet Underground? Dogs Under Stress is the new album and she is on tour so check your local rag for dates. You all will be getting another Moe album soon called I Spent A Week There The Other Night which features those other VU members Lou Reed, John Cale and Sterling Morrison. On the Monkey Hill/Ichiban label you should have a record by an infectious funkin' rock band called Rent Party (just listen to "Pic-Nic" and you'll know what I'm talking about) and Continental Drifters (look at the line-up). Besides Continental Drifters, Peter Holsapple was in the dB's (college rock gods) and they recorded an album in 1988 called Paris Avenue that hasn't been released until now; it will also be on the Monkey Hill/Ichiban label. And if that were not enough for you to stop hounding me, we have Ska! Strange Tenants are an Australian Ska band that will wet the skappetite with their album Bluebeat Party. I hope that was enough processed cheese for your diet and thanks for your undivided attention. Oh, Hi Bonnie Burton!

Adam J. Pollock, Island Records, New York, NY 212.603.3942 Please, if anyone has a line on a one bedroom apartment in lower Manhattan as of 12/1 l'd love to hear about it—my lease is up and I have to move.

Rewards will be paid (I've a few Quicksand shirts left). New Quicksand album in January while we're on the subject. dEUS and Portishead just in-stored (10/18) very cool new stuff, Wool are rocking it up with L7 and the Melvins—go see'em, also go see Consolidated and Engine Alley and Spell (with the Meat Puppets) and the Wedding Present, and once again, Quicksand (with Helmet in November). Please, the apartment!! Call me.

Carolyn Wolfe, Atlantic Records, New York, NY 212.275.2086 I live a Billy Joel song. After years of working in the heart of the Village a la Roadrunner and TVT, I have officially become an Uptown Girl. However, don't for a moment think that I am living in an Uptown World (but that's another story completely!). Anyway, to the point here. I have filled the illustrious shoes of Mr. Seth Gershman and am now here to fill all of your Atlantic needs (and with a fall like ours, you'll need me). Entering my office and seeing certain remains of Seth's (like an enormous rubberband ball) was a quite "impressive" whip. Now I'm no prude, but I'm hoping that was simply in anticipation of Liz Phair's Whip-Smart! Hitting your desk right now: Stoner Witch the latest from the Melvins. As a follow-up to last year's Houdini, Stoner will provide enough guitar fuzz-noise to make mid-terms a bit more tolerable. Need a study break? Catch them on the road with L7 and Wool through mid-November. Other tour news, Samiam is out currently with the Toadies, then meet up with labelmates Bad Religion in early November for two weeks. Interviews and contests are just a phone call away. Other news: Daniel Johnston Fun, glad to know many of you "get" Daniel; Victoria Williams' Loose; Jawbox on the road thru November; ditto for Unsane, which is what I am at the moment. So much time, so little to do. Strike that, reverse, Jim Neill, National Director Of Promotion, Rhino Records, Los Angeles, CA 310.441.6652 At Rhino, we're nostalgic for the future. New Wave Hits Of The 90s. Volumes 6-10 has landed at radio. Yes. our promotions are going to fuck up commercial alternative BDS again for the next few weeks so tell your bosses not to flip out and fire you. John Cale, founding member of the Velvet Underground is chronicled to date on the new two-CD Rhino Anthology Seducing Down The Door. John baffled the mainstream at the Graceland Elvis Tribute with his terrifying and lovely rendition of "Heartbreak Hotel." Fine...maybe it went over the heads of the masses, but John looks and sounds better at his age than Elvis...and there's probably no fatal dump in his future. Meanwhile, NRBQ's presence at the tribute was a pip. NRBQ is on tour now and due for live broadcasts on WXRT and KTCZ. They'll be demo-ing tracks for their new album soon. Robyn Hitchcock's post-Soft Boys, pre-A&M albums will be out on Rhino (nine titles in three months) starting in January. They'll have lots unreleased tracks and new liners. The final album in the series, You & Oblivion will consist of all unreleased songs...kinda Invisible Hitchcock II. Don Fleming would probably advise you to play all our new Monkees re-issues. In January, Rhino will release Sonic Youth's soundtrack to the film Made In The USA.

Dan Poppe, Spirit Recordings, San Francisco, CA 415.252.1139 Available now from Spirit's distributors is the new Komotion International Sound Magazine #7. As many of you know, Komotion is an artists' collective in San Francisco which, among a slew of activities (studio, performance space, general anarchy), publishes a "sound magazine" twice a year. This issue features a limitededition CD with exclusive live and studio tracks from Primus, Barbara Manning, Michael Franti, Charlie Hunter, Horsey, Bedlam Rovers, Virginia Dare, the Buckets and more. Sorry, there was no radio mailing of the CD, but interested stations and press folks can contact Komotion directly at 415.861.6423, or P.O. Box 410502, San Francisco, CA 94141-0502. Tell 'em I sent ya! Watch your mailboxes for "Short Way To Love," the new single from Plum (recorded at Komotion, by the way). Plum will be making their first live appearances with new bassist Eve Bekker (Wade, Caroliner Rainbow) in the Pacific Northwest soon: Nov. 10 at the Mt. Tabor Pub in Portland, Nov. 11 at John Henry's in Eugene, and Nov. 12 at the O.K. Hotel in Seattle. Call me for interviews, guest lists, etc. I hope to see you there.

Robert Goldklang, National College Promotions Manager, Warner Bros., Burbank, CA 818.953.3567 OK everyone, imagine this. It's about 3 AM, the buzz is wearing off, your coffee's getting cold, and you just can't find that perfect record to keep you through the night. Well, you obviously need to hear Soul Coughing! Try it and see why. Looking for more of a fix?? Well the new Laurie Anderson is a spooky, eerie look into her world that will leave you speechless. So enough of the metaphors, I wanted to thank all of you who are spinning R.E.M.! It's a great record. simple as that. To those of you who aren't playing it, or at least making it available; you're missing out. Evaluate art objectively. That's all I can ask or expect of you. I recently got the chance to check out the 4AD festival in L.A. Wolfgang Press blew everyone away. Their duets with Tom Jones were timeless. Look for a new album in January. One last note, Lords Of Acid. Seen the artwork?? This record is wild. Listen to it and it will fulfill your deepest desires. That's it, Look out for Fossil and the new Goo Goo Dolls!! Until then...beware of the crablouse. See ya.

Tom Gates, Roadrunner Records, New York, NY 212.219.0077 Hey there. I've just gotten over this freaking flu that is going around and it's left me wondering if The Stand was really a work of fiction. Lord, how I dread the coming of winter. New music to play includes Lazy's Some Assembly Required, Front Line Assembly's Millenium and the amazing debut from Kevin Salem entitled Soma City. Now's as good a time as ever to waste CMJ column space by printing tour dates. Call me if you'd like to a) see the show, b) interview the band, or c) receive large amounts of cash to play the record (strike that, read Hit Men instead). Black Train Jack with Down By Law: 10/28-New Haven, 10/30-Trenton, 11/1-Hampton, VA, 11/3—Columbia, SC, 11/4—Atlanta, 11/8—Orlando, 11/9—Jacksonville, 11/11—Houston, 11/12—Dallas, 11/13—Austin, 11/15—Tucson, 11/17— Los Angeles, 11/18—Santa Barbara. Kevin Salem: 10/29—Detroit, 10/30—Milwaukee, 10/31—Chicago, 11/1-San Francisco, 11/2-Los Angeles, 11/8-Chicago, 11/9—Minneapolis. Buzzoven with Gwar: 11/3—Seattle, 11/5-Portland, 11/8&9-San Francisco, 11/11-Palo Alto, 11/13—Phoenix. The Moon Seven Times: 11/4-Boston, 11/6-CD, 11/7-Philly, 11/8-New York. Congrats to the Wolfegirl on her new uptown gig!

Teri "Awkward With A Vengeance" Brusky, Station Attendant, WLFM, Appleton, WI 414.832.6567 WLFM. See, we're in this fall gig so... Yaw is the "urban" guy, Rahul is the metal guy. Skye is the world/folk girl. Gus is alternahunk. Me? I'm a little bit cutesy, I'm a little bit rock 'n' roll. Call me about any of the above and I'll clue you in or at least leave a note. I'm good like that. While we're at it—ANYBODY NEED A LACKEY? I'm kinda leaving in the spring and I need something to do. Is your college cheap and in need of a MD? Need a spunky rep? I'm uh...open for suggestions. Or whatever. Yeah. I know. How cheap. Allison the Party Girl and I feel the need to state the obvious: I. Scam, sham, blam, man. 2. So, the schmoo is funny, huh? Hi. 3. Bootsy Collins? Really. Evidence, my good man, evidence. 4. Aqua Net? I still maintain it does not lubricate. 5. I don't think the witness protection program allows out of state visitors. 666. I kiss you back. Noisily. And with gusto. Damn. 7. Those McDonald brothers. I remind you once again. Those McDonald brothers. 8. Who needs Jagger when you can have Alex Chilton? 9. WFLM. We got blues. We got ska. We got folk. We got ambient. We got Euro pop. We got punkers. We got office boys. We got party.

Parris Roselli, President, PLS Communications, Inc./The Otherside @ WIIL, Buffalo, NY 716.874.4011 Three people, sick of Buffalo's radio graveyard, decided to do something about it. With a few dollars from their thin wallets, a time-slot was purchased and Commercial Alternative Programming began. I am one of those three people who began PLS Communications, Inc. to bring new music to the Buffalo airwaves. The station that sold us the air time was WJJL AM 1440, broadcasting to Niagra Falls and Buffalo. This pilot program, called the "Otherside," aired every Sunday from 6-9 p.m. and played some of the area's best new and local music. Unfortunately we were not allowed to report to the Top 35 list because the "Otherside" was a specialty show. Even with this hurdle we asked for support and we got it. Thanks to all the labels that supported our effort: Especially Yigal at Interscope and all those at Elektra and Virgin, and local record stores New World Record and Home Of The Hits-and everyone else (you know who you are). Thanks for everything! Our lease has expired after a summer of music and interviews with local artists like MILF, Snapcase, Outer Circle Orchestra and Urban Sturgeon. Lisa Scott and I are discussing other lease options with some stations in the Buffalo area. For now we are off the air; we plan to be back, stronger than ever. If anyone has any questions, or wants to say "hi," please write or call. Again, thanks for everyone's support in this truly independent venture.

Chad Crawley, Music/RPM/World Director, WQAC, Alma, MI 517.463.7301 A couple of quick facts 1) Yes, this is my first dialogue, 2) Yes, we here at QAC do call ourselves the duck, and finally, 3) no, there will be no big ups or name dropping in this dialogue. Office hours for myself (RPM, world, or music director items) are on Tues and Thurs from 1:30-4:30 p.m. EST. Chad Jenkins (Hip-Hop/Urban Director) are 2:00-4:00 on Tues & Thurs...en Kostal (Metal) are 1:30-3:00 on Mon & Tues. Thank You to all that service us (two hours northwest of Detroit), for those that don't, please do, I might call and bug you pretty soon about it. We are vinyl accessible (have a damn turntable) and enjoy 7"s. For the RPM folks, playlists will be on their way shortly, we play deep house, electronic, and ambient. World—we have a small catalogue at the moment, we do report, we do play it, please send it! Fax # is 517.463.7277. In rereading this (proof reading) I realized that I use way too many parentheses, maybe school will straighten that out by the time I'm done. You don't have to be an English major to enjoy good music. Thanks for your attention and service (kissing up). Later.

Mike Siciliano, Alternative Music Director, WCWP, Brookville, NY 516.299.2626 A hearty thank you goes out to John at Radioactive for all his help with the show last Friday night in our backyard at the Tilles Center. Live and Weezer put on a show to remember. My ears are still ringing, three days after the fact. Truly some amazing material at that show. Okay, I've been neglecting this area for a while, so lemme throw out some hellos. Jeremy at AAM, Amy at Detour M, Gina at Round The Globe, Amy at AIM, Brian at PGD, Rob at Sony NY, Stephanie at EMI, Joe at Island, Stephanie at Virgin, Lisa & Stephanie at Vision Trust, and Katrina & Jennifer at Segue, Danke.

Jason Martin, Music Director, WVMH Mars Hill, NC 704.689.1259 October has brought both beautiful autumn colors and killer tunes here to the mountains of Western North Carolina. The Asheville area continues to flourish and bands are taking notice. Thanks are due to Terry at A&M, and Jack and Cary from Jackopierce for an amazing show. Velocity Girl, Mighty Purple and Hootie & The Blowfish are on the deck, WVMH DI's and audiences are hooked on Liz Phair, Sunny Day Real Estate, Dave Matthews Band and G. Love And Special Sauce. Personally, Giant Sand, Daniel Johnston, David Gray, and local yokels Everyman Jones And The Stick People are making fall semester tasty. I'll be up here in the penthouse suite Thursdays 9-12 and Fridays 9-1 & 3-5, so give me a ring. Thanks again folks at Phillip Morris and to all our friends.

Eitaro Hayashi, Music Director, KTUH, Honolulu, HI 808.956.4848 Yo, I just checked out the new Stallone flick The Specialist, which was a poor excuse of an action flick with what's-her-name-who-can't-act-but-thinks-she's-so-hot briefly taking it off. Oh well, here's to True Lies, so far the best action film this year. (Now let's see what Mr. Tarantino does!) And as far as our trivia goes, this is the quote for the week... "(whispering) I'm not... going to let...my life...run...by you!" Peace to Gatcha-Man at MCA.

Gregory Slifkoff, Music Director, KBCC, Bakersfield, CA 805.395.4523 Hey, things are finally calming down here, and I finally decided to write. My office hours have changed since the summer time; I'm mostly in my office on Mondays and Fridays. Out of all the new stuff I got in the mailroom; I really fell for that new group Rosemary's (They almost wiped out Ride & Hollow Men to me). Our address is still 1801 Panorama Drive, 93305. Other adds I would like to mention are Liz Phair, American Music Club, Lazy and a very late add for that rad group Drown. Also, thank you Aim Marketing for introducing me to Echobelly. (That one will be added next week.) We also have a Rap Director, who is in deep need for some new releases, so anything anybody could send us will be greatly appreciated. Other specialty shows we offer are Jazz, Metal, Punk, World-Import-Reggae and Techno Dance. Also a question for Relativity Records; is there a Lucy's Fur Coat full-length CD? (The record at our station is wearing out.) Enough rambling for now, Bye!

Colin Forbes, Music Director, KUOI, Moscow, ID 208.885.6433 Hey, it's my first Dialogue! Maybe you had better get used to seeing me, as I'm almost as prolific a writer as my predecessor (Lisa Cole) was a talker. Last I heard, Lisa is splitting her efforts at jobs at a deli during the day and an Italian restaurant by night...I'm also a computer geek, and I was wanting to point out what KUOI has to offer on that information Goat Trail we call the Internet. For over 18 months, KUOI has had presence of one form or another. You've probably seen our playlists posted to the newsgroup alt.music.alternative, but those playlists are also archived on our World Wide Web server! Tell Mosaic to go to http:/kuoi.asui.uidaho.edu/ to see our marvelous logo, read our electronic program guide, and snag our playlists. America On-Line and Delphi users never fear, as kuoi.asui.uidaho.edu is also an Internet gopher site!... I'm also starting a new Internet mailing list dealing specifically with College Radio. I hope to get people talking about how their radio stations are run so that maybe I can cheat and run my station better. For more information about this mailing list, send a short missive pleading "help" to: college-radio-Irequest@uidaho.edu...I promise I'll talk about music next time...Call me Tuesdays & Thursdays between 10 a.m.-4 p.m., or just send email to: collinf@kuoi.asui.uidaho.edu.

Cmndr. Nasal Jelly, Music Director, WARY, Valhalla, NY 914.785.6752 If this nation ever had an armpit, you'd expect it to be in Florida's Everglades, or the Oklahoma panhandle, or the outskirts of Salinas (no offense to the fine folx who live in these areas); but NEVER would you expect it to be some 30 miles north of NYC, the largest city in this part of the world. But this is precisely where our dinky little 10-watt transmitter is stuck, and I really couldn't be happier 'cuz college radio makes it all worthwhile. (And since we weren't on the air for most of the summer, a flux of still over 200 CDs to review means I have to really be a masochist to say that!) My picks for the week: the new Engines Of Aggression single is working over-time in our CD players, ditto Corrosion Of Conformity's full-length. Trent Reznor, blood-of-reptile and all, is still God. (Don't those Nine Inch Nails people ever slow down?!) D Generation smolders, if any of you X Generation folx care. Eat some Korn with every meal. Trust me. The big news: Shudder To Think, the greatest indie breakthrough since colored vinyl. If you don't know about 'em yet, get the disc now. I've never heard a more powerful sound. Grab it. Slam it. Use it on your breakfast cereal. Somebody call me, dammit, it's lonely down here!

Jon Klinowski, Music Director, KWSB, Gunnison, CO 303.943.3033 What does CMJ stand for? Consumed Much Jaegermeister. Thanks to the following who made Music Marathon '94 the ultimate in Guava Mania: Interscope Interscope a k a Yigal, Jeff "Cell-Phone" Marks and Spackle, Chuck at Immortal, Jeremy and Drew from AAM, X-Man, Bambino, Crazy Mary (WSPN), Catwoman and Dave (where the hell is Danbury?), Kelso at Roadrunner, Mike Snow, Jason at Capitol, EMI's very own Bruce Larson, Toby at MCA, the Dambuilders, Jeff Buckley, James at Epitaph, Motocaster, Stabbing Westward, Slang, Korn, April's Motel Room, everyone at Heineken and Rolling Rock, Compulsion, Black 47, Tree, Marilyn Manson, Bouncing Soles, Devil Dogs, Lotion, Spearhead, Mailing a Rake, Schneider, Ten Ingredients of Fun, Mysteriously Missing Vacuum, two Kegs and four Live Chickens to go, Hitchhiking, Down with WAMH!, 40's of water, Breadstick Blow in Half, Gagged and Collared at El Teddies, Defective Pay Phones, 30 people in the back of a Ryder, Fuck You-Get a Real Band, Free Guiness, Show and Perry Farrell, Pink Bikini Car Crash, the Fastest McDonald's in the Land, Props in the Elevator, Open Empty Running Cab, Two Words: New Jersey-Three More: We Would Rule, Crazy Mary's Lost Badge, Get A Receipt, 33 floors of Urination, Takin' the Stairs, Media from El Vivaro, Not Dead Polios, Josh Swallows, Puke and Rally, the Kielbasa Song, Complementary Toothbrush, Birthmark Eyebrow, Charting Marky Mark, Cabs for five, thanks for the Mammaries and see ya at CMJ '95!

Dave Ross, Producer, Future Flash, Atlanta, GA 404.419.4964 New videos we're grooving to here in (thankfully it is beginning to cool off so its not quite so) Hotlanta: Bad Religion, Echobelly, and Urge Overkill...Interviews and live sets: Big wet thank yous to Ken @ American & MC 900 Ft Jesus, Doug @ Atlantic & Madder Rose, Eleanor @ Warner Bros. & the Judybats, Brett at Matador & Pavement, and Spoonman...Tickets: Thanks to Julie @ Visibility for Joan Jett, Debbie @ Endless for 311, and Kimberly at 550 for Sandra Bernhard...Attention labels: we are now doing weekly in-store promotions with several local Atlanta record stores—call for more info...Girl, you'll be a woman soon...

Ion Nardachone, Atlantic Records, New York, NY 212.275.2135 There's nobody in the world nearly as excited as me this morning! No. it's not because I bought a new longboard this weekend and I'm ready for some winter surf, it's 'cause Testament tour dates are in the house! Two months of intensity starting Nov. 17th in St. Louis! Have you received your Stoner Witch?!? I'll bet nobody would've guessed Stoner Witch is the Melvins 12th release!! (That's more than Led Zeppelin, for all your AOR people!) Those who have seen King Buzzo and co. on this tour with L7 and Wool have admitted to being sonically crushed! Savatage have a new single. "Chance" is the most original hard rock single the band has ever written. This tune could be bigger than Queen's "Bohemian Rhapsody!!" NO SHIT! Are you playing Jerky Boys' new single, "Sick As A Dog?" You really shouldn't unless you want your request lines lit up with hundreds of closet Jerky fans asking, "Where did this tune come from?" Page/Plant frenzy is touching us all. I feel like I'm in junior high again!

Dyana Kass, Hollywood Records, Burbank, CA 818.560.5670 The truly unique sounds of our newest signing, Into Another, will be gracing your city soon on tour with their uncategorizable blend of "aggro-rock," joined by Stanford Prison Experiment on most dates. Prepare early by acquiring a CD from your Hollywood representative who is patiently standing by to take your call for the proper Into Another hook up! With ground-breaking cuts like "Ungodly," "Laughing At Oblivion," "Drowning" and "Poison Fingers," their latest release, Ignaurus, has much to offer. Tickets, interviews and giveaways are on a first come, first serve basis, so you snooze...you lose!! Take that first action step towards exposing good music and call to put your ears and those of your listeners and customers on point.

Jill Castellano, Red Light Records, Des Plaines, IL 108.297.6538 Look for the review of the Milwaukee Metal Fest in the November issue of RIP. Our good buddy, Dr. Blood of The Death Files loved Oppressor and Gutted (hey, what's not to love?). In the December issue, the polaroid photo that usually accompanies his column will be replaced by a photo of Colin with Tim, vocalist of Oppressor. Cool, huh? Our autographed Ibanez guitar contest is going extremely well! Keep those entries coming. Deadline Halloween! I just got a phone call from some guy trying to sell me packaging tape at a cheaper price then we get it for now. Like who fucking cares? Could you imagine? What a hated job. A tape salesman. Well anyway, back to the phones I go. Oh! a big huge congrats to Ryan King from WHUS who will now also be hosting a show at WXZR Z-Rock! Later, Zach Lanier, Energy Records, New York, NY 800.235.5678 New York sucks sometimes. No matter how good of an attitude you might have, this city will beat you down. Just yesterday I was going home on the subway, and this guy just leans over and starts throwing up, all over the train. I had to sit there about twenty feet away from him until the train stopped and I could switch cars. How many times do I have to play this damn lottery thing before I win it? I mean, come on, I have already spend almost ten bucks so far and haven't won a damn thing. How many other people can possibly be buying tickets? Oh well, one day I'll win, I'll show you all. So, you say you need some excitement in your life? I have just the thing, it's a beauty, five hundred foot range, heat seeking projectiles capable of dismantling large cars or small buildings. Not your thing? Then how about the Pro-Pain/M.O.D. tour, or the remaining Bile/Thought Industry dates? Still need more? Try the upcoming Souls At Zero or some Larva dates. Playing Planet Hate? Of course you are. Need some giveaways to sate the hungry masses before they go to the show? Need some information on the bands? Call me. Need some advice on how to assemble your girlfriend or having relational problems with your toaster? Call me. Listen to it, love it, play it for your grandmother to finally claim your inheritance.

Michael J. Schnapp, EMI Records, New York, NY 212.492.1812 What a week! Exciting EMI Rockin' events that rocked us out of this world! Can you say "ROCK!?" Sure you can. Can you say "RYCHE!?" You already are! Queensryche held the largest headphone listening party ever in their hometown of Seattle. 1,500 fans at the Boeing Airflight Museum all plugged into the experience of Queensryche's new LP, Promised Land. It was truly a monumentous event. Thanks to the people from KOSS Headphones for donating 1,500 pairs of headphones to make this party special and unique. The new Oueensryche LP should be in your hands now and on the airwaves immediately! EMI Rocks all around the country, Seattle to New York City, as D Generation celebrate the release of their new record, D Generation, with a packed show at Irving Plaza in New York City, Look for D Generation on the road soon. Listen for them on the airwaves and look for D Generation on the charts NOW! Look for Moist on the road very soon. Moist will be on tour. Keep "Push"-ing Moist. Also look for those young Southern blues-rockin' dudes of Bloodline! Get up and boogie woogie with Bloodline as they continue to tour this tremendous country and turn many heads. Speaking of turning heads, Butt Trumpet! Watch this record react big time! Look for the 7-inch of "Primitive Enema" now! The full record will be out the beginning of November, so keep listening for the sounds of Butt Trumpet! Call Schnapp or Stephanie Pensyl in the EMI Rock Crew for assistance, feedback, great road stories and the hottest chili you could possibly eat. And keep those 8-tracks comin'!!

Smitty, Epic Records, New York, NY 212.833.5988

KORN!!!! A most impressive week! What a show of promise!

Sorry for the delay in shipping, however, you should all be in possession of the mighty discs (Korn full CD and "Clown" edit) by now. If now, why aren't you on the phone? As any "Clown" can see, many are as excited as I am. But now the real work. You, as a convert to the cause must now jam Korn to your listeners. You know it's great to turn people onto fantastic new music. It gives you that warm, fuzzy feeling! It's like a drug, now you tell two friends, and so on and so on... Tour dates are forthcoming. Other tour dates soon to be announced: Suicidal Tendencies (with Biohazard) and Arcade. And speaking of tours, Prong is out with Clutch and Drown through November! FYI: Prong's "Snap Your Fingers..." video has been nominated for a Billboard Video Award!! Hurrrah! Korn! Get it??

Marni Halpern, Roadrunner Records, New York, NY 212.219.0077 Hey people! I know it's pretty crazy out there with all the new music, but shit happens and like always we have to deal with it. I just can't wait until my five new releases come your way in January and February, Joyous! Here's the deal for now: Songs to check out for airplay on Front Line Assembly's Millennium are "Vigilante," "Millennium" and "Division Of Mind," However, be my guest and listen to the whole album, because it is absolutely brilliant. Black Train Jack are hitting the road with Down By Law and they will be playing a huge show with Offspring and Rancid in NYC at Roseland on October 25th! I sent out flyers to those that will have the pleasure of Black Train lack coming through their town. Therefore, I would like to coordinate soundcheck or live interviews with you. So, call me or you know I will definitely call you. Buzzov*en and Gwar are touring together and Buzzov*en will have time to visit stations for interviews or just to say "Hello." They will be able to interviews at the venue as well, so bring your tape recorders. Machine Head will be touring with Slayer in Europe, and then they will be back by December for a national U.S. tour. Obituary's World Demise is still very strong at radio. Please start playing "Redefine," "World Demise" and "Boiling Point" if you have not already. All I can say to end this informative dialogue is that Madball are touring and they are, without a doubt, phenomenal! Bye.

E.J. Johantgen, Columbia Records, New York, NY 212.833.4989 By the time you read this Marni will have moved to Brooklyn and Jay Hughen will have gotten another ulcer due to lack of hockey. Anyway, you can all take comfort in the fact that C.O.C. has begun its assault on the American public. You know where to reach me. Well, shiver me timbers! As we all knew, Sabbath still remains the ruler supreme! Godflesh. Now all together, "GODFLESH!!" See, that wasn't so hard. Now, get out there and crank this puppy. "Crush My Soul" is a song that eludes classification. The band will be supporting Danzig and Type O Negative beginning November 17th...dates to come.

Maria "Mom" Abril, Metal Blade Records, Simi Valley, CA 805.522.9111 Mercyful Fate Time. "Nightmare Be Thy Name." Add it October 24th. AOR adds Fates Warning "Pale Fire" October 31st, as well as metal adds on "Monument." The tour starts now and they join up with Dream Theater November 10th. Cannibal Corpse on the road. Gwar's out just in time for the Beavis & Butt-head/Gwar video game. Thought Industry is still out. What stamina! Check these guys out. Great show! Joey Vera's A Thousand Faces is in stores now. Former song writer/producer/bassist of Armored Saint has given you, the people, the first solo effort. Go nuts! Generation and Clawfinger are coming. Mercyful Fate, Fates Warning. Mercyful Fate, Fates Warning. Kinda like peanut butter and chocolate, eh? Peace, love and fate(s). Mom outtahere.

Meg MacRae, Earache Records, New York, NY 212.343.9090 So far the response to the new Brutal Truth material has been out of control! Thanks to all who added "Godplayer" to your playlists. Those of you that have not added this yet, it's never too late, my friends. I know you can handle the truth! Full length goes for adds Nov. 1st. Some shows in the northeast area with Only Living Witness and also a show with Entombed at the Limelight on Oct. 30th. Many thanks to Randy at WSOU for having the boys on his show and props as well to WSOU's Mike D., Kim and the rest of the crew there. Fudge Tunnel's first single, "Rudge With A G" goin' for adds on Oct. 24 & 25. Take the plunge(r) and add it! This record is truly amazing! Full length also goin' for adds on Nov. 1st. Tour plans brewing for the new year. Scorn listening party at the Bowlodrome in New Brunswick, NJ on Friday October 28th. Anyone interested in coming out please give me a call, 75 cent drinks until midnight! Anyone need promos? Ultraviolence full length, Life Of Destructor, is in da house, so if you are ready to get kicked in the ass by Johnny Violent's extremehardcoretechno, call me. It's pretty fuckin' out there. Anal Cunt still doing a few shows here and there, but they will be going to hibernate in the studio soon. Godflesh will be touring with Danzig and Type O Negative. Call me or El (Lord Of Metal) at Columbia for more info. Well, that's all for this time oh children of the dark. By the way, it's 8:00 p.m., do you know where your truly dedicated promotions person is? Friends don't let friends work too late, so call me...NOW!! G-bye.

Steve Woitasek, Cherrydisc Records, Boston, MA 617.244.8521 Went to New York City over the weekend to see 6L6 and the Mighty Mighty Bosstones. 6L6 kicked ass playing in front of a sold-out Academy crowd. Their Cherrydisc debut is called Not Even Warm and should be in your CD player. If not, put it there and turn the volume up to 10. You'll be as blown away as the crowd was at the Academy. They went totally insane, one of the sickest pits I've ever seen. 6L6 will be kicking off an eastern U.S. tour in November, so everyone out there will be able to see this amazing band. Till then, just play the CD. Be on the lookout for the new Tree record at the end of October. It's called Plant A Tree Or Die. This sophomore effort is hard as nails, dudes, so be ready to make it a priority.

Marc Stone, Pure Rock TV, Philadelphia, PA 215.638.8859

Well, this is my first Loud Rock dialogue column representing the Pure Rock TV. You know the show we've all come to love and know! Seen in New York, New Jersey, Philadelphia, Detroit, Chicago and Los Angeles. Did I mention the 4.5 million homes we invade each week? My name is Marc Stone. MTV graduate and full-time metal programmer here at Cutting Edge Productions, Inc. Yeah, believe it or not, another one of us durnb metalheads (that's what they used to call us, isn't it?), that's me, owns one of Philadelphia's premiere video production facilities, Cutting Edge Productions. And it just so happens that I'm not only a video production specialist, but was raised listening to Black Sabbath and Mercyful Fate some 24 years ago. The combination has been the evolution of Pure Rock TV. So, now that two successful years have gone by, I figured it was time for someone to finally represent the large pool of metal video watchers out there. See, this column will be the real deal, not what some boss wants me to write. So, when you see it here, you can rest assured it's been tested by the people who mean the most. The dann Pure Rock viewers who are gonna buy your records! So, pick up a pen or pencil and start takin' notes, because Pure Rock's word from the street is the only tool you're gonna need to fill those radio and video playlists. Love us or fear us. It all begins next week!

LIZ PHAIR QUOTE OF THE WEEK

"Some people see me as a wounded soul and want to get that. Some people see me as the girl that scorned them in the schoolyard and they want me to be bitchy and bratty. Some people see me as a kind of hippy collegiate." —Liz Phair

"I started recording because I was in rock bands that were recorded really poorly; and I got tired of being recorded poorly, so I decided to try myself," explains producer Brad Wood, oned time member of Shrimp Boat and occasional member of Tortoise. He started Idful Studios in 1988 with co-founders Brian Deck (Red Red Meat) and Dan Sonis. Though Wood has recorded, mixed and produced numerous bands, including Sunny Day Real Estate, Freakwater and God And Texas, he is best known for his work with Chicagoans Liz Phair and Veruca Salt.

"There are people who know me simply because of my work with Liz. It's frustrating, but if it weren't for the success of Liz's records, I wouldn't have benefited in other ways. It'd be kind of foolish to think there wouldn't be a downside [to the attention]." The upside is that it has helped Idful get off the ground. The Seam record, THE PROBLEM WITH ME, is probably the best record I've ever worked on, probably the best sound on a record I've ever done. I wish more people could have heard it."

Wood has a distinctive recording sound but tries not to influence a band's end result. "Sometimes my limitations as an engineer will dictate what the record will sound like. But often times, the way I make things sound is why the band is there. I'm not as hung-up on crafting a sound for a band as I am on the band enjoying themselves. I'm just this guy who's supposed to know how to work the machines."

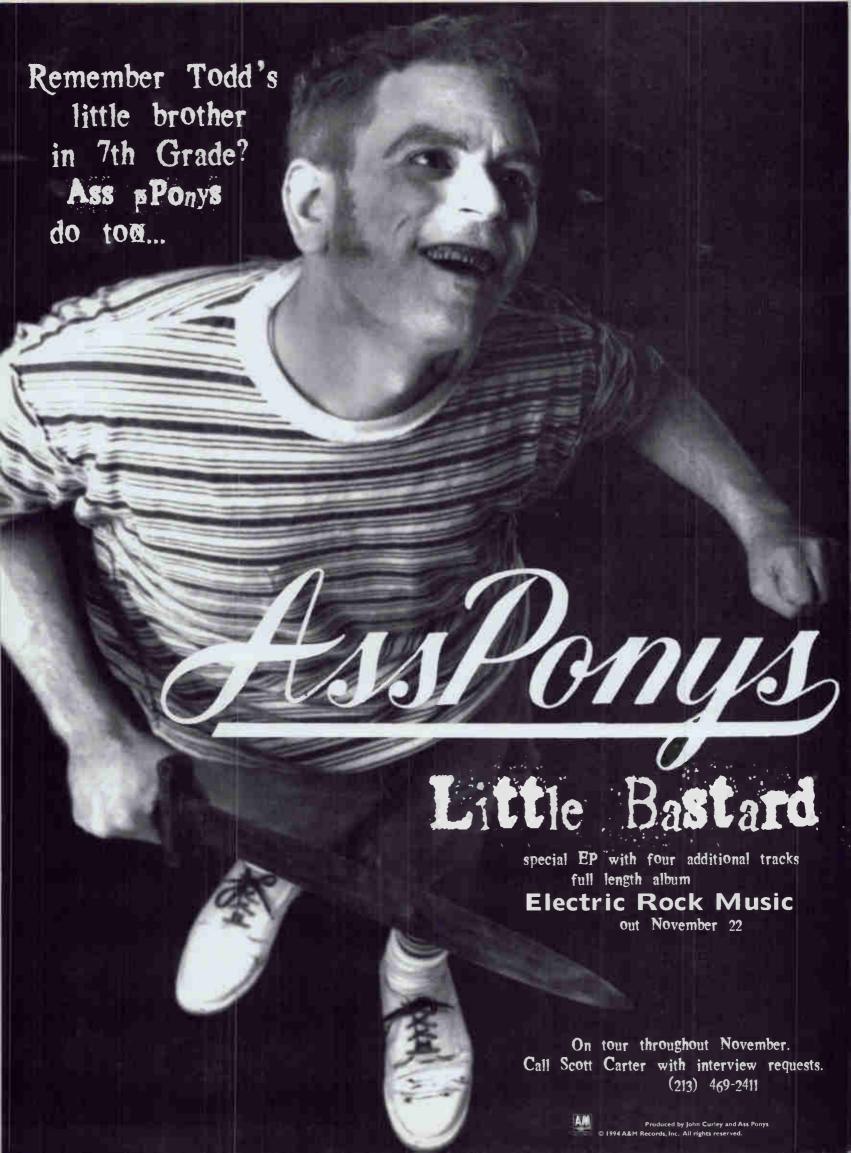

"A classic record is one that is a good recording regardless of production style," says Wood, describing his ultimate goal. He mentions heroes like Curtis Mayfield and Lee Perry in this light. "If it's contemporary I usually notice it because I don't like it." One exception he cites is the Jon Spencer Blues Explosion's previous record, EXTRA WIDTH, recorded at Easley Studios in Memphis. "It's a classic record, where production is only noticeable because it is so complimentary."

In addition to the long list of successful records to leave the studio, there is quite a bit for Brad Wood to be proud of at Idful studios. "The fact that Casey Rice, John McEntire and Andy Bryant work here... that I've got three people who work in the studio and all are trying really hard to be good engineers. They're learning about how the recording process works and how to make good records and even classic records." DAWN SUTTER

BRAD WOOD:

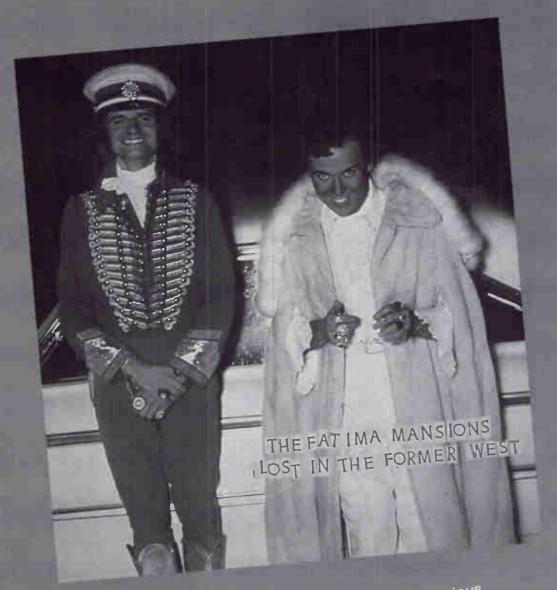

From Janitor To Producer In Demand

studio, nestled in Chicago's hip Wicker Park neighborhood, didn't pay off right away. "I was a janitor until a couple of years ago. I cleaned toilets on seven floors of the Chicago Theater, a fabulous movie palace here. It paid money, as opposed to the job I had at Idful, which paid no money." Now the studio makes enough money to employ Wood and a staff. Although Wood appreciates the notice he has received for producing Phair's two albums, it sometimes overshadows his other work on other projects. "I think the
