PORTISHEAD Dummy

Go! Discs, c/o London, 825 Eighth Ave., 24th Fl., New York, NY 10019

It's hard to stop playing this record: With just voice, keyboards, a sampler and percussion guiding it, Dummy forces you to listen to silences, the essence of the beat and the shadowy, haunting textures arising from the slightest twist of a knob, scratch of vinyl or added instrument. This may all sound somewhat precious, yet Dummy calls attention to none of its devices; it's not even self-conscious about its fondness for film noir soundtracks or its own glorious understatement. The samples (from Weather Report, Isaac Hayes, War and the theme from Mission Impossible) are expertly used to add mammoth mood with surprisingly little effort. As eerie and dramatic as some of Dummy's tracks are, vocalist Beth Gibbons plays it cool throughout, often changing the character of her voice to shift the color of the song. The contrast of her crisp cabaret vocals against the often jarring beat box percussion prompts as much head scratching as it does admiration for the juxtaposition's success. Put another way, this is the record Sinead O'Connor or Sade would kill to make, a challenging blend of moody and gripping vocals over hip beats and forward-thinking arrangements. Don't miss a second, but first try "Sour Times," "Wandering Star," "Strangers" and "Roads." STEVE CIABATTONI

GRENADINE "Nopalitos"

Teen Beat, c/o Simple Machines, P.O. Box 10290. Arlington, VA 22210-1290 703.276.0680

Though we've come to expect a challenge from enigmatic supergroup Grenadine (one part Unrest, one part Tsunami, one part Eggs), the trio has thrown us for yet another loop. Some of the songs on "Napalitos" are unsurprising (some of Mark Robinson's songs have a distinct Unrest flair, while some of Jenny Toomey's have a clear Tsunami ring), but many of the tracks are not as easily traceable. The band's approach to the songs, especially in the barber shop quartet style of "Hell Over Hickory Dew" and the old-school cartoon-y "Roundabout On A Tuesday," has a distinctive 1920's old-timey feel. In addition to the songwrit> ing, the recording techniques distinguish Grenadine from its contemporaries. The songs become progressively stranger with increasingly odd production. Warren Defever has done a fabulous job compounding the bizarre quality of the songs, most noticeably on "Speeding," which is remixed to an almost unrecognizable extent as "Snik" four songs later. It all culminates in the wildly beautiful underwaterlike warble of the Burt Bacharach/Herb

Alpert cover "This Girl's In Love." DAWN SUTTER

When Baaba Maal sings, the voice of contemporary Africa comes through loud and clear. This isn't traditional music per se, nor is it some pastiche of "world beat" concocted to be more palatable to sweeping demographics or the ears of radio programmers. In fact, it's both, and a lot more, masterfuly woven together to make a simmering opus de funk, contemporary Senegalese style. Fresh from a show-stopping stint at last year's Reggoe On The River festival (where he jammed onstage with Michael Franti), Maal has released his latest masterful blend of hi-tech future funk and Senegalese African roots. The telling moment comes in "Swing Yela," which begins with a two-second sample of traditional drums and chants, then slips into a slinky funk groove that would sound natural next to > anything on Prince's Black Album or on the stage at an Ohio Players' live set. Add in Maal's hypnotic, soaring vocals (and stunning harmonies) and you've got yourself the cutting edge of contemporary urban African soul music-truth, justice, respect and a funky party to boot. Underneath Maal's transcendent vocals, the bouncing rhythmic center of gravity of the bass anchors the heavy funk of "Nilou," "African Woman," "Salimoun (Funky Kora)" and the excellent, subdued "Ba." This isn't world music as a narrow category, it's the broad vista of international soul music looking boldly to the future. Loosen up, listen up and lively up. JAMES LIEN

MAGIG HOUR No Excess Is Absurd Twisted Village, P.O. Box 35604, Brighton, MA 02135

Magic Hour's members include guitarists Kate Biggar and Wayne Rogers (ex-Crystallized Movements) and Galaxie

500's rhythm section, Damon Krukowski and Naomi Yang, and the band's debut warmly reflects this lineage. The guitars churn out a melodic psychedelia that's both controlled and sprawling, the sixstringed workhorses circling around the same plush chords, while continually redefining a familiar set of sounds. Yang's slow-moving bass lines flow through the songs like a major artery, while Krukowski's lavish rhythms offer the songs both a sturdy bed and lavish ornamentation. The band uses the word "excess" in its LP title, probably referring to attacks levied on the members' previous bands for being self-indulgent, and Magic Hour's thick slabs of sound are indeed as rich as a chocolate fudge brownie sundae; thankfully, however, the album's potential absurdity is nullified by a keen balance of sound and melody, the songs' aural luxuriousness never overwhelming their treaclelike structures. Rogers' molasses-thick vocals are surprisingly prominent in the mix, except on the understated "Sally Free

And Easy," on which Yang quietly assumes mic duties before the guitars take center stage. For a quick dose, try "Always Never Leaving" or for a freefall, try "Isn't A Way" or "Heads Down #2." LYDIA ANDERSON

Magic Hour

Former member of Arrested Development Dionne Farris has recently released her multi-faceted solo debut, Wild Seed-Wild Flower, on Columbia, and she also took time out to talk to The Last Word.

#1 BREAKTHROUGH

CATHERINE Sorry

Radio Chart Position: #51 On its debut, Chicago's Catherine converts its pop melodies into gritty rock-'n'-roll tunes. The band's formula appears successful, its strong debut at #51 an early indication of things to come. Beneath Billy Corgan's lush production, Catherine's songs are basic and fun, making them an easy programming choice. Sharing a name with three of Henry VIII's wives, Catherine gets its head into these stations' top fives: KBCC (#1), KCSU, KGSP. WMRE, WMUW (#1), WRFT, WRHU (#1), WRST (#1), WRUV, WVUR, WWPV and WWUH.

ON THE CHART Matader-Adiantic's Liz Phair retains her hold on #T yet agans, with Warner Bros.* R.E.M. staying the bridesmaid at #2; whether or not the boys will claim the top spot is anyone's guess. Hauling up from #10 is Color indicates a significant. Hinty Fresh-DGC's Versuca Salet, parlaying the hype and NTV airplay into a strong Top 150 showing. Island's Weddling Present (5-5) and Cramberries (9-7) and Elektra's Ween (12-10) get bolds, while increase in airplay. A.: greatest. Virgin's Smasshing Pumpkins (3-4), Matador's Jon Spencer Blues Explosion (4-6), Hercury's Mighty Mighty Bosstones (7-8) and Rykodisc's Sugar (6-9) all loss some ground. Elsewhere on upward chart movement.

ON THE CHART Two debuts storm to the top of the charts: DGC's Niervana (#1) and American's Black Crowes (#2). MCL's soundtrack to Pulp Fiction inches along (4-3). Other albums new to the chart, and also to the top 10, are Warner Bros." Tom Petty (#6) and Capital's Megadeth (#8). There are a plethora of debuts on the chart this week, including: Icen Beat-Simple Hachine's Greenadine (#34), EHI's Red Hot Chill Peppers (#46), VHI's Flying Sauscer Attack (#54), No Iribe/Rap-A-Lot-Virgin's Scarface (#59), Vrance Syndicate's Bedhead (#61), Vrance Syndicate's Butthole Surfers 7" (#67), Slash-WB's Soul Coughing upward chart movement. (#68) and I.R.S.'s Concrete Blonde (#70). There is relatively little movement from those albums that have been on the chart for some time. Some exceptions: WHTE LBLS/Ander Subway-American's Lords Of Acid (24-17), #: in store play. Elektra's Ween (31-27), Mercury's Mighty Mighty Bosstones (37-31), Island's Melissa Etheridge (46-41), Lookout's Screeching Weasel (51-42) and Chrysalis-EHI's Sinead O'Connor (67-58). ### BLACK CROWES Amorica

American, 3500 W. Olive Ave., Ste. 1550, Burbank, CA 91505

There may come a day when the Black Crowes will simply have to become the Faces. Chris Robinson's warmly hoarse voice and his easy improvisational inflection are a dead ringer for Rod Stewart in his prime, and the complex rhythmical dynamics bursting out of the decadent yet purist rock of Amorica are toe-to-toe with the Faces' best on every song. Imitation is the sincerest form of flattery, but the Black Crowes are a far cry from retro-puppetry; instead, their records are genuine tributes that, on their own merit, threaten to roar past the milestones built by their forefathers. Shake Your Moneymaker, their 1990 debut, was crisp, clean, foot-stomping, country-rock, but their sophomore CD two years later showed pleasing development by hanging on to their natural sense for great hooks and wisely leaving behind the commercially poppy undertones. Their third record, Amorica, is a huge leap ahead with its unapologetic assault of every last one of their influences that's as raw and spontaneous as it is carefully schooled. Liberal doses of harmonica, warm pedal steel guitar and organ mixed in with acoustic blues, soul and country pepper Amorica from start to finish, and the Black Crowes have masterfully freed the hooks from their melodies by weaving them into apparently cockeyed, yet ultimately natural rhythmical schemes. The CD is chock full of hits, of course, but take a quick shot at citizenship with: "Gone," "P. 25 London," "Downtown Money Waster" and "A Conspiracy." CHERYL BOTCHICK

ELEVENTH DREAM DAY Ursa Major

Atavistic, P.O. Box 578266, Chicago, IL 60657

Ursa Major is the first album from Eleventh Dream Day since the band's departure from Atlantic Records. The one-year gap since last year's El Moodio has resulted in stylistic changes. The group has emerged on the small Atavistic label and unlike the surly, go-get-'em rock of 1991's Lived To Tell, the aptly titled Ursa Major has an ethereal, dreamy quality. Stretching out and using many of its previously untapped resources, Eleventh Dream Day has dotted the album with instrumentals and finally put Janet Beveridge Bean's lovely voice to full use. What the group has sacrificed in abandoning its raw spontaneous approach has been compensated for in the smooth and soothing beauty of quiet songs like "Taking Leave" and even the not-so-quiet pieces such as "Orange Moon." The calculated diversity of Ursa Major makes it one of the band's best releases. Bigger than the Big Dipper: "Exit Right," "Bearish On High" and the lullaby-like "Flutter." DAWN SUTTER

ANTIETAM Rope-A-Dope

Homestead, P.O. Box 800,

Rockville Centre, NY 11571-0800 212.675.0922

Antietam's sound is the unholy spawn of a cheap one-night stand between three-chord '60s garage-rock sludge and Neil Young at his most aggressive. Now imagine this wayward child taken in by Lower East Side hepsters and weaned on the first two Velvet Underground records, the Patti Smith Group and Television. On Rope-A-Dope (the band's sixth LP), Antietam's garagepunk roots are still prominent, but the trio's artsy-craftsy leanings and innate inventiveness take those roots to strange, mostly unfamiliar terrain. "Silver Solace," for example, is a 10-minute-plus epic built around a rudimentary chord progression with no real chorus, but its shrewd use of dynamics and feedback keeps boredom at bay, while the sparse, haunting "Leave Home" recalls the Birthday Party's "Jennifer's Veil" until it erupts with a phenomenal noisy solo by guitarist Tara Key. Key is one of the fiercest guitar players around, taking volume, feedback and the visceral antitechnique of Neil Young to places most are too yellow to tread. But, more importantly, her expressive use of dark, guttural power chords and stinging jabs of high-pitched melody are what propels most of these tunes forward and makes them memorable. Cuts: "Certain Muse," "Graveyard" (a Dead Moon cover) and "Hardly Believe." STEVE McGUIRL

LORDS OF ACID Voodoo-U

Antler Subway/WHTELBLS, c/o American,

3500 W. Olive Ave., Ste. 1500, Burbank, CA 91505

What if Stacy Q were a dominatrix? Listening to Voodoo-U, it's not hard to imagine. Voodoo-U is just like those mall-rat electronic disco hits that dominated Top-40 radio in the early '80s, only it's been updated with techno beats and by replacing those tales of teen love with blunt, salacious takes on bondage, the deflowering of young boys and pubic lice. It's a deliciously evil thing the Lords Of Acid have done, mixing banally catchy pure pop dance grooves with Forum-letter imagery. Songs like the guitarloopy "Young Boys" play on the sexually-charged subtext in the pristine love songs of teen divas everywhere with lyrics like "Young boys/I want you to be my toys" and "I wanna watch them come"—"Shake Your Love," indeed. Where this sort of open sexuality could be seen as a simple, titillating ploy, the record is so blunt and hyperbolic that it points to the ridiculousness of both ends of the sexual expression spectrum. There is no statement here, inherent or otherwise, about sex's role in society, just a dozen giddy dance tracks that make The Sensuous Woman read like Archie comics. Fun. SCOTT FRAMPTON

CHRIS CONNELLY Shipwreck

Wax Trax!, c/o TVT, 23 E. Fourth St., New York, NY 10003 212.979.6410

Chris Connelly's third solo record moves him even further away from his industrial roots (which include a lot of Wax Trax! bands, such as Ministry and Revolting Cocks), his white (Scottish) soul crooning enhanced by female background singers and honky-tonk guitar. Connelly's continual movement is the reverse of his clearest reference point, David Bowie: where Bowie grew towards dancier pop, Connelly is moving towards introspective musings and a wide range of styles. Where Shipwreck is consistent, however, is in Connelly's cabaret style of singing, his overblown vocals so completely over the top at times that more complex instrumentation would be superfluous. This is especially true on the stomping "Meridian Afterburn," which features a classic rock riff repeated over and over while Connelly declaims his poetic lyrics. The occasional piano also adds a similar touch, its pure simplicity making an additional dramatic statement. An interesting bonus: Connelly has a song titled "Detestimony III," echoing Fini Tribe's (his first band) best song, "Make It Internal," which itself had a "detestimony" mix. MEGAN MCLAUGHUN

BRAND NUBIAN Everything Is Everything

Elektra, 75 Rockefeller Plaza, New York, NY 10019

Brand Nubian is as hardcore as the hardest, but doesn't get all defensive about it (we won't name names, but it's a refreshing change). Lord Jamar, Sadat X and Sincere have heavy-duty politics (and their Five Percenter affiliation remains), but their lyrics come from their convictions instead of acting as a platform for their views. The group lets its flows speak for themselves, over slow, minimal jazz-funk loops—sometimes the groove is so laid back it's almost "Quiet Storm-y," though the words couldn't be tougher-minded. "Nubian Jam," in particular, is at the nexus of blunted intensity and honed deliberateness, with soul-sung backing vocals and tossed-off gems like "MCs freeze at 32 degrees." The lyrics this time are off-kilter, free-circling, wandering off and back onto the beat of the track, approximating the rhythms of unrhymed speech and D

RIG AUDIO Higher Power

Columbia, 550 Madison Ave., New York, NY 10022-3211

Having dropped the "Dynamite," as well as the "II," Mick Jones and friends have also dropped a few members and come out with a record that replaces the dubbiness of their original output with another incarnation of their pop/reggae/techno/folk hybrid. Intact is the soft reggae feel and Jones' basic vocals—he still doesn't attempt to sing, allowing the music's rhythm to carry all the melody. In other places, the vocals have been replaced by samples, which often become the focal point of the song, as on "Over The Rise." "Why Is It?" has a sprightly techno melody, with an equally light-hearted lyrical bent. The best songs here combine the '90s wave in dancebeat and sampling with languid reggae rhythms. Higher Pawer is Big Audio's '94 statement, the band growing with current trends but sticking with its classic sound. MEGAN McLAUGHLIN

ALISON STATTON AND SPIKE Tidal Blues

Vinvi Japan, 281 Camden High St., Camden Town, London NWI 7BX U.K. fax: 071.267.5186

Alison Statton's work with Young Marble Giants always seemed like an act of bravery: quiet but resolute resistance to rock. That group only made one album and a few singles, but its work continues to resonate both in pop music (Hole's Alison Statton and Spike "Credit In The Straight World," as well as a forthcoming tribute album) and its members' own careers-Stuart Moxham recently recorded with "The Original Artists" (a k a the Giants), and two Moxham brothers appear on Tidal Blues. The alternative world is more open now to smooth, subtle music like this, which is fortunate. There are hints of drums on some songs, but mostly it's acoustic instrumentation: double bass, fiddle, understated guitar, quiet organ. Within those limits, the arrangements are as varied as a bouquet of wildflowers (though it's always a joy when Statton sings against a background of soft, percussive strumming). Statton's unaffected voice is as clear and pleasant as ever, acting less as an interpretive element than as an instrument for which the songs are composed. Hear the tide in these shells: "Seaport Town," "A Greater Notion," "Lemming Time" and "Open Eyes." DOUGLAS WOLK

LÁZARO ROS Olorún

Xenophile, c/o Green Linnet, 43 Beaver Brook Rd., Danbury CT 06810 203,730,0333

Each of the 11 tracks on this disc bears the name of a different orisha, deities of the Yoruba religion, and each is a rhythmic chant prayer constructed with that particular orisho in mind. Traditional Cuban musical currents are usually presented and perceived either as influences or ingredients rather than entities unto themselves (take for instance, the hybrid of Afro-Cuban jazz, or a funk group with a Latino conga player on board), or else they're presented as ethnomusicological field recordings, often in dire recording quality. Ros' album is superbly recorded and impeccably performed, representing the real stuff presented in full stride. A musicologist might describe these pieces as something like "intricate call-and-response chants with heavy rhythmic accompaniment," but to us these simmering recordings offer a full-on taste of Cuban fire in its most primal, direct and undiluted form. The liner essay bills Lázaro as a "messenger of the gods," and we agree. As further proof that Lázaro's not fucking around, keep in mind that he's been attending Yoruba ceremonies since he was a teenager in the 1930s, and that the singers here are selected and nurtured on the basis of their ability to infuse the chorus with African characteristics. Check "Elegba," "Obatala," "Oshun" and "Shango" to hear what they have to say, JAMES LIEN

SATURNINE 60 Autoguider

Dirt, Knickerbocker Sta., P.O. Box 1053.

New York, NY 10002-9998 212.226.1632

Autoguider, the first full-length release from New York City's Saturnine 60, stakes out a dynamic perspective on wall-ofsound guitar shimmer, proving that contrast is often the most effective recording tool. The forceful opening track

"Almost Impossible" wastes no time in pointing this out, frequently trading its stacked guitars for quietly seductive breaks or stark, melancholy solos. Lead vocalist/ guitarist Matt Gallaway often borrows heavily from U.K. pop vocal tradition (not to mention stateside dreamers like Galaxie 500), unassumingly transmitting an inescapable air of distress and despondency. While this lends a seemingly British feel to the project (and despite the presence of a good deal of Telecaster jangle), Autoguider still manages to tip the scales a tad heavier than its European counterparts, partially due to its more immediate, raw production. The untitled instrumental at the album's end flushes this sound out most fully; it becomes one of the album's most interesting tracks when its syrupy, writhing open jam slowly swells and whirlpools out of control, with layers of tremolo-laced guitar leads, triangle hits and whistles chiming in one by one. Also glide on: "West" and "Time Of Day." AARON CLOW

HENRY KAISER & DAVID LINDLEY

The Sweet Sunny North

Shanachie, 37 E. Clinton St. Newton, NJ 07860 201.579.7763

Following up their two A World Out Of Time collections, both of which vividly explored the music of Madagascar, Henry Kaiser and David Lindley travel to Norway to survey Scandinavia's musical landscape. Like Madagascar, an African island nation, Norway has remained musically isolated from the rest of the world, which, in turn, would lead to its traditions have remaining relatively untarnished by modern pop culture. As portrayed on The Sweet Sunny North, it's a land of extreme musical variety, ranging from ancient fiddle tunes to haunting folk ballads to lighthearted dance numbers to modern cross-cultural fusions (would you believe, a Norse native of Pakistani descent singing dub reggae?). Since very little music from Norway has been made available in the U.S., the 28 tracks making up The Sweet Sunny North are an unknown yet ultimately worthwhile collection that gives a fascinating overview of a musical world that merits further investigation, IIM CALIGIURI

VARIOUS ARTISTS Ninja Tune: Trip Hop And Jazz

Instinct, 26 W. 17th St., #502, New York, NY 10011 212.727.1360 Okay, okay so we all know the book and cover cliché, but there's a lot here to tell you that Ninja Tune: Trip Hop And Jazz is a good deal even before you even drop the disc in the player. First, Instinct's This Is Acid Jazz series has been remarkably solid considering its profligate release schedule. Second, and most important, Ninja Tune is a U.K. label started by the Coldcut team of Jonathon Moore and Matt Black, who produced Eric B. & Rakim's hip-hop benchmark Paid In Full and Lisa Stansfield's wonderfully disco-y debut and are fine artists in their own right. Third, Trip Hop And Jazz is as much the recipe to create this acid jazz splinter genre—one part hiphop, a few parts jazz, combined in a mixer until it's all trippy-as it is a snappy title for the compilation. The best thing about Trip Hop And lazz is the tracks' ability to work on your head as well as your backside. Hedfunk's "Freedom," for example, winds around the room like some ambient techno suite, dropping beats just often enough to keep you groovin'. Other tracks, like DJ Food's "Ninja Walk," are undeniably funky, stretching out on a Hot Buttered Soul vibe, but still mix in enough hipster detritus to give it the tripped-out feel of, say, a Bevis Frond album. Trip Hop And Jazz is often as fucked up as it is funked up, and should grab the attention of more than just the acid jazz cognoscenti. Ninja Tune into: DJ Food's "Well Swung," Up, Bustle & Out's "Apple Strudel" and 9 Lazy 9's "Spoonful of Slow." SCOTT FRAMPTON

HIGH LLAMAS Gideon Gaye

Delmore, P.O. Box 477458, Chicago, IL 60647-7458 312.227.5306 Mid-'60s pop (the Beach Boys in particular) has heavily influenced some exceptional recent indie-pop (Epic Soundtracks, Cardinal, Stereolab, etc.). The High Llamas are even more blatant in their borrowings, paying loving tribute to the Pet Sounds/Smile era on "Giddy And Gay," "The Dutchman" and "The Goat Looks On," with sophisticated piano and string orchestrations, lush vocal harmonies and impeccable production techniques (even down to the snare drum sound). Of course, fancy arrangements and producer's polish can't hide weak songs, and the High Llamas' pop charms are worthy of the treatment. Gideon Gaye is the second full-length album from this group led by Sean O'Hagan, an on-again off-again member of Stereolab, and former guitarist/songwriter of the '80s Irish band Microdisney (whose singer, Cathal Coughlan, now leads Fatima Mansions). In addition to the Brian Wilson fixation, there are ambitious nods to the Kinks/Beatles/Bee Gees and to Steely Dan on the catchy "Checking In, Checking Out" and the 14-minute "Track Goes By" (perhaps the nine-minute flute break is a bit much...). There are also several instrumentals, some just leftovers and excerpts from the songs, but the giddy and gay "Up In The Hill" is another High Llama high. DAVID NEWGARDEN

S*M*A*SH Self Abused

Hut USA, c/o Vernon Yard,

1790 Broadway, 21st Fl., New York, NY 10019

With its fuzzy chords, snotty British vocals and repetitive riffs, S*M*A*S*H is a direct descendant of basic punk rock, but without any "retro" feeling; rather, S*M*A*S*H plunders those ideas without the usual accompanying coyness, the brisk rhythms and well-constructed melodies bringing the band into the '90s. It's also important to point out that the band can definitely play its instruments—the guitar riffs are basic but commanding, the stop/start rhythms done masterfully. The songs are written more like classic rock than punk rock, the emphasis on melody and hummable tunes as important as the brash energy with which they're played. One look at the lyrics, however, confirms the punk rock ethos, "We'll have to invent a new, language to describe just how fucking great this band is. —Melody Maker -Melody Maker No, really. "Fucking great" describes them just fine.

EVERCLEAR Fire Maple Song (EP)

Capitol, 1750 N. Vine St., Hollywood, CA 90028

The Fire Maple Song EP contains the first set of new songs from Oregon's Everclear since the group got signed by Capitol. Thankfully, things remain much unchanged, with vocalist/guitarist/writer/producer Art Alexakis' piercing, agonized lyrics and dark, choleric riffs still producing all the causticity of salt on open wounds. One possible exception is the remarkable surf-punk number "Pacific Wonderland," which sounds something like the Ventures meet Social Distortion. There's also a poignant acoustic version of "Fire Maple Song," along with a remix of the version found on World Of Noise. AARON CLOW

TECHNICAL JED Southern States

with Cracker's David Lowery), comprising an impressive debut displaying the band's sixstring facility, both in rugged hooks and exploratory noodling. As an LP. Southern States uncovers several of the band's facets and moods. Of the dozen cuts here, "Time Bomb" and "Vitamin E" jump out as the punchiest and most radioimmediate, while the groove sustained by the ebb and flow of "Black 60" also encapsulates the band's sound nicely. But Technical Jed is equally capable of sinking its teeth into wider spheres, so that the hooks running through "Rocket Science" and "Liquid" are subtle but captivating, and the meandering saxophone on the relaxed-pace "Gina (Fix Yourself A Drink)" adds a nice, unexpected touch. ### DINK Dink

Capitol, address above

If there is a Dink motto, it may well be "Entertain, Ignite, Annoy." This feisty fivesome from Kent, Ohio (a neighbor of Cleveland), built an impressive local following, selling close to 10,000 copies of its self-released EP. The band's attitude is evident on its majorlabel debut, making it clear how the group attracted a following during all those pre-signing club dates. Dink's songs aren't conducive to a solo acoustic jaunt, but that's not the point. The kernel of songs like "Running Red" and

"Green Mind" is the clamor created by all band members. The band has the same cocky impudence that made EMF hard to ignore; not surprisingly, there's a touch of that band's chugging dance grooves at work here, but the comparison ends there. At times sounding like Rise Robots rise or a rejuvenated PiL, the members of Dink take broad swipes at metal and dance, all the while shouting down anyone who dares call them either. Also check out: "Angels," "Big Bags" and the psycho rant "Urban Suicide (Hippie Killer Remix)." STEVE CIABATTONI

LOVE BATTERY Nehru Jacket (EP)

Atlas, c/o A&M, 1416 N. LaBrea Ave., Hollywood, CA 90028

On its seventh release in five years. Love Battery cleverly darts away from a Seattle-grunge pigeonhole and modifies its sound just enough to keep old fans and earn new ones. For the uninitiated, Love Battery boasts an impressive pedigree, with members previously spending time in Skin Yard, Green River and Mother Love Bone, among others. To its credit, Love Battery habitually separates itself from its peers (especially on 1992's hardnosed and melodic Dayglo) by minimizing excessive retro-metal, and that same charm illuminates the quick four-tune sampling of the band's punk and psychedelic influences on Nehru Jacket. Precious few bands of the grunge days of old would probably consider covering a British rock tune, but Love Battery pays tribute to the Telescopes with ease on "Please Before You Go." The title track and "Red Onion" are tempting teasers for the ensuing Love Battery fulllength, due in February of '95. CHERYL BOTCHICK

FLASHBACK

MASSIVE ATTACK Protection (EP)

Circa, c/o Virgin, 338 N. Foothill Road,

Beverly Hills, CA 90210

"Sly." the first single from the new lineup of Massive Attack, is a strange and wonderful slow groove, sidling sleepily through an understated arrangement with strings, a popping drum machine and Nicolette's coolly unimpressed vocal. The gems on this disc, though, are the extra mixes. The Underdog's remix runs a backwards drum loop and a subwoofer-straining bass wave, then pulls away almost everything else within grasp. Dub legend Mad

Professor contributes two excellent dubs that crank up everything weird about the song and fricassee everything else with echoes and processing until it's nearly unrecognizable and very disturbing. DOUGLAS WOLK

ENVELOPE Envelope (7" EP)

Peepland, 108 Wooster St. #2E, New York, NY 10013

New York City's Envelope is often discarded simply as the "side project of Matador's Gerard Cosloy" and nothing else. As the band has progressed over the course of four singles, however, Envelope has become more of a group and less the product of Cosloy's notoreity alone. Guitarist Michael Pavlak's "C'mon, C'mon" is a surprisingly cheerful pop tune that's balanced out by the B-side's "Operate," which features Cosloy's angst-ridden vocals. The other two songs offer a few hooks and distortion, not to mention improved songwriting. This double single is the band's best effort to date. We can only hope Envelope will record the ever-catchy "Best Letter" next, DAWN SUTTER

BUTTAFUOCO VS. THE SPOILED BRATS 2 x EP (7" EP)

Maximum RockNRoll, P.O. Box 460760,

San Francisco, CA 94146

The X-Ray Spex and the Avengers were two seminal punk bands fronted by aggressive and charismatic female vocalists, and although each produced just one album and barely lasted into the '80s, their influence is still growing today, as this double EP attests. The unfortunately-named San Francisco bands Buttafuoco and the Spoiled Brats are probably young enough that their musical memories of the '70s involve Kermit and Big Bird, but it's a safe bet that at some point they not only heard, but wore out copies of Germ Free Adolescents and the Avengers LP. Both groups are pretty swell, but if this is a battle of the bands, we'd say the smart money is on the Avengers fans in Buttafuoco, who are slightly less of a throwback, and are hopefully smart enough to change their band's name. DAVID NEWGARDEN

BOWERY ELECTRIC Bowery Electric (7" EP) Hi-Fidelity, P.O. Box 1444, New York, NY 10276

The first release by this New York ensemble is a twosingle set that thunders as slowly and grandly as Zeus's chariot across the night sky, calling to mind early Spacemen 3 and their fellow blown-away advocates of the drone dream. All four songs are hung on single, droned chords, with majestically rolling drums underpinning them and everything else—anything else the guitars are doing, vocals (male on three, female on "Let Me Down"), twonote bass-mixed into the foggy distance. It's a recipe that could lead to saminess in the wrong hands, but these tracks attain a sort of self-involved Zen directness and oneness. DOUGLAS WOLK

SALT OF THE EARTH Salt Of The Earth c/o Scott Schwan, III4 Dorset Dr.,

West Chester, PA 19382 610,793,2358

This tape actually has two bands on it: The first side is by Scott Schwan's rough-hewn solo project Salt Of The Earth, the second by his "band" Eucalyptus (though Eucalyptus appears to consist entirely of Schwan and his guitar recorded without fooling around with the tape). Salt's "Bucket 'A' Shit" has an awkward but energetic twochord melody and homemade drum-bashing, along with some awkward lyrics (mentioning "the Seattle sound" is always a bad idea). "I'm A Loner" is better, a faux-Stooges anthem that gradually transforms into a self-loathing pisstake ("I don't really care/I've got long long hair/But my chest is bare") and tacks on a bizarre, watery solo at the end. And "Roger's Tribe" is even better, with double-tracked murmuring backed up by strange percussion, stranger vocal noises and a little wah-wah guitar. In contrast to the intentionally clumsy Salt Of The Earth songs, the Eucalyptus material has a reflective, candle-lit feel to it. Though Schwan's got a bit of growing up to do as a songwriter (getting his heart broken by girls happens a little too often in these songs, and sometimes the syllables don't quite scan right), his songs get more affecting and heartfelt as they get quieter and simpler. DOUGLAS WOLK

TEXASS Texass

IFA, 607 Eastlake East,

Seattle, WA 98109 206.622.7168

Let's make things perfectly clear this isn't pop-punk, this is the real thing, no pop allowed. On the 13 sloppy and drunken tunes offered on its debut LP. Texass brushes aside influences of the Damned and the Buzzcocks and heads straight for the jugular, drawing inspiration from the spikes and safety pins of nasty punks like the Dead Boys and Germs. Some of its members already hail from bands of ill-repute, like the F Holes and Lectra Shave, and Texass stumbles into every song with a haphazard and violent destructive bent rivalled by few. There's joy to be found in hearing the band barely make it through thrashing insult barrages like "Hatchet Face" and "Loner With A Boner," and the spitting, atonal, barking vocals of lesass offer a youare-there repulsiveness usually hard to capture on tape. It's tough to ignore some of the almost-British sounding vocals and evil laughter that mimic Johnny Rotten rather than shout him down, but after listening to this punk barrage a few rather inspiring times. we're fairly certain that this is indeed a lifestyle, and not an act. They just don't make 'em like this anymore. CHERYL BOTCHICK

DON COVAY Mercy Mercy: The Definitive Don Covay Razor & Tie. 214 Sullivan St., Ste. 5A.

New York, NY 10012 212,473,9713

Don Covay's reputation rests primarily upon his songs, which have been covered by a disparate range of artists including the Rolling Stones and the Remains ("Mercy Mercy"), Aretha Franklin ("See Saw" and

"Chain Of Fools"), Solomon Burke ("Hanging Up My Heart"), Steppenwolf "Sookie Sookie") and Chubby Checker ("Pony Time"). For Covay himself, however, his were inexplicably elusive. He surrounded himself with great players and effortlessly churned out great songs, but only a privileged few have heard the wealth of classic records Covay cut in practically every sub-genre of R&B; these records have had a profound influence on singers like Mick Jagger and Van Morrison. In his tireless quest for a hit, Covay wasn't afraid to indulge in some obvious imitation, and a listen to Mercy Mercy is like experiencing a history of American R& 1957-75 in 68 minutes. But even if these song invite comparisons to R&B heavies (i.e. Little Richard, Hank Ballard, Solomon Burke, Ben E. King), there is an undeniable urgency and sincerity in Covay's best singing that can be chilling or uplifting, and the quality of the songs he wrote is unmistakable. Talk to any diehard record collector, and he/she will gab your ear off about the many figures in popular music who never got their due-some are the real thing, so ne are treasured only because of their obscurity. Covay is the real thing. STEVE McGUIRL

WEDDING PRESENT

Seamansters, Hit Parade I and Hit Parade 2 Bizarre/Planet, 740 N. LaBrea Ave., 2nd Fl., Hollywood, CA 90038 213,935,4444

With the Wedding Present on its third statesice label (Island) and having just released one of its finest album's (Watusi), now is the perfect time to play catch-up with this Leeds, England, quartet, which fills an essential chapter in defining British guitar rock of the last decade. Originally released in '92 by the now defunct First Warning label, the Steve Albiniengineered Seamonsters is the Wedding Present's last proper album, a densely packed arsenal of grinding guitars and smug hooks. David Gedge's strained voice tells bittersweet tales of love and love lost, making for an LP that reveals the band's equal affinity for sonic impact and a crafted tune. Before gearing up for another album, the band took an unusual step in 1992, releasing one 7" single each month with a new Wedding Present song backed by a fun/unexpected cover version. Hit Parade 1, collecting the first six singles, was released in the U.S. in mid-'92, before First Warning dissolved, leaving Hit Parade 2 available as an import only. Of the collective 24 sones, the originals include WP classics like "Blue Eyes," "Silver Shorts" and "Flying Saucer," while the cover choices range from vastly influential rock legends (Neil Young's "Don't Cry No Tears," Bowie's "Chant Of The Ever Circling Skeletal Family") to indie-heroes (the Go-Betweens' "Cattle And Cane," Altered Images' 'Think That It Might"), from forays into moods aping ("Falling," originally sung by Julee Cruise for Twin Peaks, Isaac Hayes' "Theme From Shaft") to just plain fun (the King/Goffin-penned Monkees hit "Pleasant Valley Sunday," Bow Wow Wow's "Go Wild in The Country"). ON THE CHART (urb-MCA's Lyle Lovett holds onto the top spot for the fourth week in a row, while Reprise's Joni Mitchell inches closer (4-2), pretty impressive for her second week on the chart. Big movers this week include Mammorth-Atlantic's Color indicates a significant: Victoria Williams (10-4), Warner Bros.' Laurie Anderson (24-12), Red House's Greg Brown (19-13), Reprise's American Muste Club (23-15) and Stash-Reprise's Grant Lee Buffalo (38-19). Two relatively new increase in airplay, records that have stalled in the middle of the chart that are worth more attention; Margaritaville-MCA's Todd Snider (26-25) and Restless' Golden Palorni

TOM PETTY Wildflowers

Warner Bros., 3300 Warner Blvd., Burbank, CA 91510

Wildflowers is Tom Petty's best record in years: it's certainly his least commercial and most heartfelt. His first album for Warner Bros. (after a career's worth on MCA) captures the vibe that's attracted the likes of Bob Dylan, George Harrison and Roy Orbison to Petty's side. With Rick Rubin thankfully replacing Jeff Lynne in the producer chair, Petty sounds as comfortable as a man can get in the studio. leaning on his acoustic side far more than he did on past efforts. While Petty's fans include album oriented rockers across the country, Wildflowers stands toe-to-toe with the likes of the Jayhawks and Alejandro Escovedo in its warm presence and six-string splendor. We'll be listening to these tracks again: "Only A Broken Heart," "It's Good To Be King," "Honey Bee," and the title track. STEVE CIABATTONI

BUDDY GUY Slippin' In

Silvertone, 137-139 W. 25th St., New York, NY 10001

For Slippin' In, Buddy Guy teams up with legendary producer Eddie Kramer for the no-holds-barred blues breaker you'd expect from that electrifying combination. Six of the album's 11 tracks were recorded with Reese Wynans, Tommy Shannon and Chris Layton of Double Trouble fame, pushing Guy to even greater heights. Several of his guitar solos will leave all blues lovers screaming for more, while his vocals have never sounded more urgent. From the set opener, a burning take of Bobby "Blue" Bland's "I Smell Trouble," to the slippery funk of Jimmy Reed's "Shame, Shame, Shame" to the frenzied, party style of "Someone Else Is Steppin' In (Slippin' Out, Slippin' In)" to the spiritual vibe on Charles Brown's "Trouble Blues," Guy and friends set a blistering pace. While Slippin' In breaks no new ground, it shows once again why Buddy Guy is considered a living blues master. JIM CALIGIURI

Very few records capture nearly everyone's attention here at CMJ, but Dummy, the debut from Bristol, England's PORTISHEAD (Go! Discs, c/o London, B25 Eighth Ave., 24th Fl., New York, NY 10019), has done just that, as it's been emanating from many offices with increasing frequency. More of a musical collaboration than a band. Portishead resembles the Golden Palominos in more than one way. Although led by Geoff Barlow, who plays keyboards and drums, the centerpiece of each sonic landscape is the ultra-smooth vocal presence of Beth Gibbons. Without being pretentious, Portishead creates soundtracks for little movies that haven't been made yet with its intriguing mix of hip-hop, dub, jazz and soundtrack music. Miss these and you'll be the Dummy: "Sour Times," "Numb," "Wandering Star" and "Roads."...With the H.O.R.D.E. family of bands (Widespread Panic, Rusted Root, Blues Traveler, etc.) having so much success on the Triple AAA chart lately, you'll want to check out $1.99 Romances, the debut from New York City's GOD STREET WINE (Eleven, c/o Geffen, 9130 Sunset Blvd., Los Angeles, CA 90069). With its engagingly ragged harmonies and fat, jazzy grooves, GSW recalls middle-period Doobies or Steely Dan without sounding dated, and that's no easy feat. Top tracks include "Stone House," "Crazy Head" and "Nightingale."...It seems power-pop never goes out of style. CHRIS VON SNIDERN's Big White Lies (Heyday, 2325 Third St., #339, San Francisco, CA 94107 415.252.5590) is a contemporary example of the state of the art in big, chiming guitars, shimmering harmonies and sing-along melodies, all done in three minutes and 30 seconds. Fans of early Elvis Costello, XTC or Tommy Keene are sure to fall in love with songs like "Hard Again," "Roll On" and "Mindreader," IC

ON THE CHART We have a new #1 on our hands, as Sister Carol ascends to the top spot, dethroning Axiom's Maleem Mahmoud Ghania With Pharwah Sanders (1-2). With three number ones in as many weeks, it's or indicates a significant going to be an exciting next few weeks on the New World chart. We have several significant debuts this week: first up, world-travelers Henryy Kaiser & David Lindley's latest Shanachie outing bows at #16, while Baalba Maal's Firin' In Fouto on Mango-Island jumps on the charts right behind at #17. Elsewhere, Messidor-Rounder's compilation United Rhythms Of Messidor comes onto the charts at #22—Rounder has had good luck this fall with compilations from its associated labels, as the earlier One World sampler did impressively well in the past two months. And at the bottom of the chart we find two new arrivals: ex-Band leader's Robbie Robertson's Capitol outing with The Red Road Ensemble comes on at # 4 (the first Native American-derived title to chart) and the impressive new album from Hannibal-Rykodiss's Songhai debuts at #25). ### LE MYSTERE DES VOIX BULGARES Ritual

Elektra Nonesuch, 75 Rockefeller Plaza, New York, NY 10019

Will the real mysterious voices of Bulgaria please rise? At Town Hall in New York City last month, they did, and it was a splendid example of what happens when dedicated professional performers, talented arrangers and ancient folk music come together.

These are not field hollers, threshing songs or courting ballads. They are contemporary arrangements of old themes, a neo-classical approach to tradition that usually suffers, but here it shines. This new studio recording continues the search for ancient wisdom started when Philip Koutev formed the choir back in the '50s. Ritual songs for Christmas and Easter from Bulgarian folklore are reinvented in a modern form that is uniquely Bulgarian, Director Dora Hristova carries Koutev's vision into the '90s, adding a trio of Jewish songs and more instrumental pieces to the repertoire, and the resultant collection is vibrant and untamed while still amazingly precise. Those qualities may seem at odds with one another, but here they are complementary ideas that make the music come wildly to life. You don't need disco beats and DJ mixes to make music new again, and this orchestra proves it brilliantly.

DIVAN GASPARYAN Ask Me No Questions

Traditional Crossroads, c/o Rounder, I Camp St.,

Cambridge MA 02140 617.354.0700

If there is an aural analogy to the human spirit, it may be the duduk, an ancient wind instrument made of roots and reeds. In Armenia, the instrument's home, Gasparyan is the acknowledged master of its music. He appears on the recent Kronos Quartet album, and has been featured in many film scores, including The Last Temptation Of Christ. This album is a rare wonder for its simplicity. Gasparyan plays the melodies with only a drone accompaniment, each song a warm, contemplative reflection of the soul of humanity.

HENRY KAISER & DAVID LINDLEY Sweet Sunny North

Having covered Madagascar with two fine albums of their own device, this American duo has set its sights on Scandinavia. Travelling around the country, recording folk and contemporary musicians, and occasionally joining in on the recordings, Kaiser and Lindley are making a major change in what used to be called field recording. Their own tastes and input are making new music out of the old, It's an interaction that will appall traditionalists and I say, "Good for that!" There are a bunch of excellent tracks on this set. A sax and vocal duet with vocalist Kristen Bråten Berg is cool and beautiful. Hardanger fiddler Annbjorg Lien appears on a number of tracks, including a wonderful piece with a brass band. Sami joikers, a Pakistani/reggae song with an oud solo, folk dances and contemporary fusions of traditional with pop and jazz all sneak in here in a predominantly acoustic endeavor. As an album, it can be a bit scattered and aurally overwhelming, but track by track it is a good description of a modern country with deep folk roots. Where next, guys?

VARIOUS ARTISTS The Exotic Beatles Part Two Exotica, 49 Belvoir Road, London SE22 0QY U.K.

Covers come and covers go, but the Beatles retain the world's most abused and revered song library in the world. In volume two of this eclectic series, the saga of worldwide Beatlemania continues. A Japanese psychedelic singer out-acids the Fabs on "Nowhere Man," Mae West croons "Day Tripper," and "Piggies" reverts back to demo-quality on an antique home keyboard replete with automatic drums and chords. Kids, try this at home. It's certainly cheesy and silly, but once in a while one of those cover bands finds just the ticket to ride a Beatles song into a new space and make something uniquely its own. Geesin's Mahogany Minstrels, Lili Ivanova, Los Fernandos and the Templeton Twins With Terry Turner And His Bunsen Burners all offer ample evidence of the durability of a good song. Even the worst bands can maim, but never kill one.

MUSIC FOR

In the early '40s, the brothers Farhenstock from Long Island were wealthy sailors explorers in the classic National Geographic mold, collecting artifacts. WILMINE pecimens and phoographs for various museums s they travelled the world in their sailboats. They were intrigued by the music of then Dutch East India, and went back a number of times to record the indigenous music of Java, Bali, New Caledonia and the other islands of Indonesia. But the death of one brother in the war, along with the later business success of the other, left their original acetate discs languishing in the attic until 1986, when wife Margaret donated them to the Library Of Congress. Now some of those recordings have been rescued and remastered as part of The Endangered Music Project, spearheaded by Mickey Hart and Alan labbour, on Music For The Gods (Rykodisc, Pickering Wharf, Bldg. C-3G, Silem, MA 01970 508.744.7678), a sublime look at the music of Indonesia before World War Two, It is an incredib e look at music untouched by centuries, a living folk/classical music. There are gamelan o chestras, hamboo hell ensembles, lew's harp solos and small ensembles of wind and percussion instruments, each amazingly beautiful, and, thanks to increasinglyamazing new technology, almost as clear as the bells that originally made the music. While this music lives on and grows all over the Pacific. these are examples of music made before the dominance of foreign trade and international radio and TV. You can hear why the gods would be Elsewhere, Messidor-Rounder's compilation United Rhythms Of Messidor comes onto the charts at #22—Rounder has had good luck this fall with compilations from its associated labels, as the earlier One World sampler did impressively well in the past two months. And at the bottom of the chart we find two new arrivals; ex-Band leader's Robbie Robertson's Capitol outing with The Red Road Ensemble comes on at #24 (the first Native American-derived title to chart) and the impressive new album from Hannibal-Rytodisc's Songhai debuts at #25). Christmas and Easter from Bulgarian folklore are reinvented in a modern form that is uniquely Bulgarian. Director Dora Hristova carries Koutev's vision into the '90s, adding a trio of Jewish songs and more instrumental pieces to the repertoire, and the resultant collection is vibrant and untamed while still amazingly precise. Those qualities may seem at odds with one another, but here they are complementary ideas that make the music come wildly to life. You don't need disco beats and DJ mixes to make music new again, and this orchestra proves it brilliantly.

DJIVAN GASPARYAN Ask Me No Questions

Traditional Crossroads, c/o Rounder, I Camp St.,

Cambridge MA 02140 617.354.0700

If there is an aural analogy to the human spirit, it may be the duduk, an ancient wind instrument made of roots and reeds. In Armenia, the instrument's home, Gasparyan is the acknowledged master of its music. He appears on the recent Kronos Quartet album, and has been featured in many film scores, including The Last Temptation Of Christ. This album is a rare wonder for its simplicity. Gasparyan plays the melodies with only a drone accompaniment, each song a warm, contemplative reflection of the soul of humanity.

HENRY KAISER & DAVID LINDLEY Sweet Sunny North

Having covered Madagascar with two fine albums of their own device, this American duo has set its sights on Scandinavia. Travelling around the country, recording folk and contemporary musicians, and occasionally joining in on the recordings, Kaiser and Lindley are making a major change in what used to be called field recording. Their own tastes and input are making new music out of the old. It's an interaction that will appall traditionalists and I say, "Good for that!" There are a bunch of excellent tracks on this set. A sax and vocal duet with vocalist Kristen Bråten Berg is cool and beautiful. Hardanger fiddler Annbjorg Lien appears on a number of tracks, including a wonderful piece with a brass band. Sami joikers, a Pakistani/reggae song with an oud solo, folk dances and contemporary fusions of traditional with pop and jazz all sneak in here in a predominantly acoustic endeavor. As an album, it can be a bit scattered and aurally overwhelming, but track by track it is a good description of a modern country with deep folk roots. Where next, guys?

VARIOUS ARTISTS The Exotic Beatles Port Two Exotica, 49 Belvoir Road, London SE22 0QY U.K.

Covers come and covers go, but the Beatles retain the world's most abused and revered song library in the world. In volume two of this eclectic series, the saga of worldwide Beatlemania continues. A Japanese psychedelic singer out-acids the Fabs on "Nowhere Man," Mae West croons "Day Tripper," and "Piggies" reverts back to demo-quality on an antique home keyboard replete with automatic drums and chords. Kids, try this at home. It's certainly cheesy and silly, but once in a while one of those cover bands finds just the ticket to ride a Beatles song into a new space and make something uniquely its own. Geesin's Mahogany Minstrels, Lili Ivanova, Los Fernandos and the Templeton Twins With Terry Turner And His Bunsen Burners all offer ample evidence of the durability of a good song. Even the worst bands can maim, but never kill one.

MUSIC FOR

In the early '40s, the brothers Farhenstock from Long Island were wealthy sallors/explorers in the classic National Geographic mold, collecting artifacts. wildlife specimens and photographs for various museums as they travelled the world in their sailboats. They were intrigued by the music of then Dutch East India, and went back a number of times to record the indigenous music of Java, Bali, New Caledonia and the other islands of Indonesia. But the death of one brother in the war, along with the later business success of the other left their original acetate discs languishing in the attic until 1986, when wife Margaret donated them to the Library Of Congress. Now some of those recordings have been rescued and remastered as part of The Endangered Music Project, spearheaded by Mickey Hart and Alan Jabbour, on Music For The Gods (Rykodisc, Pickering Wharf, Bldg. C-3G, Salem, MA 01970 508.744.7678), a sublime look at the music of Indonesia before World War Two, It is an incredible look at music untouched by centuries, a living folk/classical music. There are gamelan orchestras, bamboo bell ensembles, lew's harp solos and small ensembles of wind and percussion instruments, each amazingly beautiful, and, thanks to increasinglyamazing new technology, almost as clear as the bells that originally made the music. While this music lives on and grows all over the Pacific, these are examples of music made before the dominance of foreign trade and international radio and TV. You can hear why the gods would be pleased.

LORDS OF THE UNDERGROUND

Keepers Of The Funk

Pendulum, c/o EMI, 1290 Ave. of the Americas,

New York, NY 10104 Few would argue with Newark,

New Jersey's Lords Of The Underground if they want to proclaim themselves-as their album title Keepers Of The Funk (with airtight production by

Marley Mari). On their debut album Here Come The Lords, DoltAll, DJ Lord Jazz and Funkyman at first seemed like another crew of boastful mic-wreckers comparable to the sewer-stained sounds of Das EFX. The trio's second album uses much of the same formula as the first, but DoltAll and Funkyman's rapping has evolved into its rightful place in the hip-hop continuum of MCs who could break bones with their lyrical weight. Not quite as hazardous as, say, M.O.P. LOTUG tie in welltrimmed hooks and breaks for radio-appeal, while their wellarticulated verbal firepower isn't fired aimlessly: "Tic Toc," "Faith" and even the egocentric "What I'm After" ("Hip-hop and props...Stacks of those plaques/That's what we're after") are formidable streetcore blasts that confirm the group's dedication to the music. Keepers is comparable to Organized Konfusion's latest: through anxiety-filled raps, the three counterpunch mediocre competitors ("Steam From The Knot"), lobby for notoriety, and spend more time trumpeting their own horn than pushing the envelope. In the ashes and residue, traces that the group's overall potential is yet to be fully realized remain. Still, it's a rock-solid release. Funk it up: "Ready Or Not," "Neva Faded" and "Frustrated."

ON THE CHART IT'S A BLOWOUT: Pendulum-EMT's Digable Planets (1-1) are keeping up the momentum on Blowout Comb for a second straight veek, as Bad Boy-Arista's Craig Mack (2-2) remains the same and Jiw's Keith Murray pushes his debut single from 7-3. The top 10 is littered with debuts this weelt: Elektra's Brand Mubian forces Columbia's Mas (5-9) to take a tumble, as Everything is Everything (the group's third album) makes the highest new entry at #5, white Pendulum-EHI's Lords Of The Underground debut Keepers Of The Funk at #6. The second single from Elektra's Pete Rock & C.L. Smooth slides in at #8, narrowly edging out Del Jam/NAL-PG's Method Man, who debuts Tizal—his first solo record apart from Wu-Tang Clan—at #10. Moving closer to the top 10 are Capitol's Channel Live (18-13) and Pendulum-EMI's Booglemonsters (25-14), who hope to return Riders... back to the top 10. We're keeping a close watch on the new release by Wild Pitch-EWI's gifted rhymer Q.C., who moves Word. Life from 31-18, as well as on Payday/firr-PG's Group Horne (37-19) and the new single from Def Jam/RAL-PG's Redman (28-20), Also making debuts this week are Jive-Hollywood's Souls Of Mischief/Casual (#31), Columbia's Ini Karnoze (#34), HCl's Justice System (#37) and Loud-RCl's Tha Alkaholiks at #40. Murder Was The Case (1-1) continues to make the most noise on the Retail chart, along with Noo Trybe/Nap-A-Lot-Virgin's Scarface, who keeps The Diory at #2. Haking debuts into the top 10 this week are Elektra's Brand Nubian at #5, Pendulum-EHI's Lords Of The Underground at #6 and Elektra's Pete Rock & C.L. Smooth at #10. The other soundtrack in the top 10, Joson's Lyric, moves 8-7, while looking down the chart we see debuts coming in from jive's Keith Murray (#14), Priority's Da Lench Mob (#17), R.B.L. Posse (#19) and Def jam/RAL-PG's Method Han at #24. This week's Top Adds: 1) Method Man; 2) Redman; 3) Lords Of The Underground; 4) Souls Of Mischief/Casual; 5) Notorious B.I.G.; 6) Digable Planets: 7) O.C.; B) Slick Rick; 9) Boogien onsters; 10) Pete Rock & C.L. # BURNESS EXPER TREES

O.C. Word...Life

Wild Pitch, c/o EMI, address above

While much of hip-hop plods through a quagmire of monotonous rappers whose styles were stale before anyone ever lent an ear, Brooklyn's O.C. may be one of the most capable voices to change that precept. Having made appearances on Organized Konfusion's first two albums and MC Serch's "Back To The Grill," O.C. creeps in on a soothing jazz tip on Word...Life, drawing the listener in before busting a single rhyme. The first single, "Time's Up." may be one of the most lyrically-proficient tracks of the year, as O.C. predicts the end of fabricated MCs within a numbing string of freestyle, bass, guitar and a scratched Slick Rick sample. Produced by Buckwild, O.C.'s rhymes are perfectly intertwined with light, sophisticated jazz samples that are given thumping earmarks and bestow upon the finished product that elusive "realness" that so many artists fail to achieve. O.C. avoids predictable hip-hop pitfalls by maintaining his individuality on cuts like "Ga Head With Self" and remaining authentically O.C. Disciples of Rakim, Jeru The Damaja and Nas had better listen up, even when his mother turns up on "Ma Dukes." Word up: "Creative Control," "O-Zone," "Point Of View" and "Story."

SHAQUILLE O'NEAL Shaq Fu: Da Return

Jive, 137-139 W. 25th St., New York, NY 10001 212.727,0016 The hooper/rapper known as Shaquille O'Neal doesn't have any trouble making friends these days. His second album, Shaa Fu: Da Return, features an endless list of guest hip-hop producers and MCs who assist Shaq in lyrical slam dunks. The first cut, "No Hooks" (we're not sure if that's a reference to his B-ball ability), teams Shaq with Wu-Tang's Prince Rakeem before his deep vocals appear to be pitched even deeper on "Newark To C.I." (featuring Keith Murray). Playing with hip-hop's elite makes the flaws in Shaq's delivery more noticeable over the changing prepackaged beats, but he does drop the defense and expose a personal, vulnerable side on "Biological Didn't Bother," the Warren Gbacked "My Dear" and "Nobody," which are all praiseworthy. Although he will likely do more damage on the basketball court than he will behind a mic, his superhero persona should earn this record plenty of listeners. Shoot, pass, slam: "Mic Check 1-2" (featuring III Al Skratch) and "My Style, My Stelo" (featuring Erick Sermon and Redman).

DOCTOR DRE & ED LOVER Back Up Off Me

Relativity, 79 Fifth Ave., New York, NY 10003 212.337.5300
Hosts of Yo! MTV Raps and a popular morning show on New York's Hot 97, Doctor Dre and Ed Lover (formerly of No Face) may not be the saviors of hip-hop on Back Up Off Me, but there are enough surprises and lively, old-school rhythms to make this more than a public relations stunt. Check your facts and you'll know that Dre's old crew, Original Concept, released the influential cut "Knowledge Me" in 1986, and one album, Straight From The Basement Of Kooley High, on Def Jam in 1988. Back Up... has no agenda or definitive message outside of the playful and satirical approach on the title cut (which samples "Ain't No Stoppin' Us Now") and "Tootin' On The Hooters." Ed Lover frequently sounds like Sugar Hill Gang's Big Bank Hank, and has a hard time covering up his cartoon-ish sense of humor to display real rapping skill—although "For The Love In You" isn't half bad. Erick Sermon produces "It's Goin' Down," while the strongest performance is on "Who's The Man," which features raps from Notorious B.I.G. and King Just. Also check out: "Knowledge Me Again" and "Recognize."

Another alumni of Gang Starr's 1992 track "I'm The Man," the Group Home mark its debut with the release of "Supa Star." Apparently aware of the ills of street life, the duo work over an easy groove spiced with loops and noisy samples, while using street reality to liberate their minds and provide a message for those caught up in the dark side of ghetto life ("There's no rules and you only have one chance/If you

SMOKEY ROBINSON AND THE MIRACLES

The 35th Anniversary Collection

Motown, 6255 Sunset Blvd., Los Angeles, CA 90028

It's hard to resist slobbering superlatives when assessing Smokey Robinson's career as documented on this boxed set—these four CDs are proof of how transcendent a simple three-minute pop song about heartbreak, devotion or even a dance craze can be. This set is also the story of Motown, for Smokey's talents as a writer, arranger, producer and singer are inseparable from the label's development of the aesthetic that eventually became the Motown Sound. Disc one shows the Miracles' origins as a fairly typical but good neighborhood doo-wop outfit, but it doesn't take long for Smokey's vocals and songwriting to come into their own, and the end of disc one, and discs two and three represent the Miracles at their peak, effortlessly churning out one doozy after another. On gems like "The Love I Saw In You Was Just A Mirage," Robinson's falsetto is a flawless combination of Clyde McPhatter, the raw, soulful pleading of Little Willie John and the technique of a jazz singer like Joe Williams, and when it came to getting his message across, Robinson would stop at nothing-no image was too grandiose, no metaphor could be stretched too far, no rhyme was too absurd. The quality of music begins to take a dive about halfway through disc four, which covers the post-Smokey Miracles and Robinson's solo career, but what's most surprising is that even the mega-hits still sound good after being put through the ringer by the Grateful Dead and Linda Ronstadt, and as the soundtrack to Baby Boomer nostalgia. If there are tougher ways to test the endurance and quality of a body of work, we've yet to see them, STEVE McGUIRL

PORTISHEAD Dummy

Go! Discs, c/o London,

825 Eighth Ave., 24th Fl., New York, NY 10019

This entrancing debut from Bristol, England's Portishead introduces one of the more innovative and experimental groups to come along in some time. Dummy prowls through thinly-disguised blues, soul and alternative pop using samples, loops, instruments and the aching, melancholy vocals of Beth Gibbons with masterful effect. Many cuts are stirring torch songs, given cinematic textures (especially "Sour Times") with an atmosphere so heavy that you can practically reach out and feel it. Masterminded by Geoff Barrow

(who has worked with the Gravediggaz), the combination of Gibbons' lilting, Sade-styled vocals and the equally vital unions of subtle hip-hop rhythms and calm, saturating bass make for a sound never heard before, unless you were watching a '60s noir film with Cypress Hill playing in the background. This isn't merely studio magic: songs like "Mysterious" and "Glory Box" come to life with genuine feeling, while the amazing epic "Roads" gracefully builds like one of Al Green's heart-rending ballads (most notably "Strong As Death"). GLEN SANSONE

With her album slated for PLUS, ALSO, TOO a January release, the second single from missjones, entitled "Where I Wanna Be Boy" (StepSun, c/o Tommy Boy, 902 Broadway, 13th Fl., New York, NY 10010), is a mouth-watering follow up to "Don't Front," featuring production by human party favor Ron G. Missjones' style of R&B is more comparable to the lush vocals of Evelyn "Champagne" King than today's more sexually-outspoken male and female groups—you can play this one for the folks... A sample of Slick Rick's "Hey Young World" can be heard on "Creep" (LaFace, c/o Arista, 6 W. 57th St., New York, NY 10019), the first single from TLC's upcoming Crazy Sexy Cool. The cut was written and produced by Dallas Austin, and the trio's sound is a hint more refined and mature, while the stamp "hit" hasn't faded.

TREE Plant A Tree Or Die

CherryDisc, P.O. Box 313, Boston, MA 02258 617.244.8521

Over the past few years, Boston has become quite a hotbed for new hardcore/rock bands, including

Stompbox, Sam Black Church and Tree. Many of you will remember Tree's '93 debut, A Lot To Fear, which helped establish the band as a hot, up-and-coming handcore band, but for those who haven't yet experienced the raw power of Tree, now's your chance.

On its sophomore effort, Plant A Tree Or Die, the band lashes out at the apathetic and careless attitudes of today's society with an aggressive mix of hardcore, punk, rap and metal, while also warning us of impending environmental destruction, especially on the harsh, pounding "Put The Wood To Her"-"Put the wood to her/Let's make love to mother earth/Rape her for all she's fucking worth/Get her hooked on toxic fills/Drench her body in oil spills." Defying easy categorization, Tree's music brings to mind a diverse assortment of bands, including Biohazard ("Free Rock" and "Not Afraid"), Danzig ("My Brain") and Sick Of It All ("Negative Hippie"). "Try" rumbles with rough, distorted vocals interspersed with loud, clear shouts and thick, grinding guitar riffs, while "Surf Aids" rides atop a wave of crashing, frantic instrumentation and spit-fire screams of frustration and anger. Also check out the three previously recorded but never released. unlisted bonus tracks at the end: the rowdy, punk-pop thrust of "Squatter's Rights," the hardcore/rap churn of "Engulfed" and the funky, bubbling bass swirl of "Save The Whales." ### SWEATY NIPPLES Bug Horvest

Megaforce, 210 Bridge Plaza Dr.,

Manalapan, NI 07726 201.972.3456

After a series of unfortunate label mishaps, the controversial crew Sweaty Nipples signed with Megaforce Records and released its debut self-titled EP in 1993. Already well-known throughout the Northwest for their totally out-of-control and outrageous live shows. Sweaty Nipples were ready to unleash their heavy rockin' blend of punk/industrial/hardcore/ alterna-metal onto the rest of the unsuspecting world. Getting noticed was something that came easily to the band, as its reputation preceded it in both positive and negative ways—from inciting riots and being banned at all Seattle-sponsored events to winning the Portland Music Association Awards (in 1991 and 1992) and performing on the Northwest leg of 1992's Lollapalooza tour. Even the band's name has caused a ton of reaction, inciting a slew of rumors about how the moniker really came about; the bandmembers say the truth is so disturbing that they would rather not talk about it. Bug Harvest, the band's first full-length release, is swarming with wailing guitar riffs, raucous punk stomps and chugging industrial grinds blanketed by catchy rhythms and melodic overtones. A heavy, grungy element also runs through songs like "Swollen," "Clumsy" and "Someone Said," (the album was produced by Candlebox producer Kelly Gray). Also check out "Demon Juice" (which has already been featured on various MTV programs and the soundtrack for a series of Nintendo commercials), "Pig Boy," "Labrador," "Eye Tooth Magnet" and "Tequila," and don't miss the unlisted, groove-laden, atmospheric track at the end. ### TRIXTER Undercovers

Backstreet, P.O. Box 304, Terryville, CT 06786 203.584.0606

Most metalheads would probably consider Trixter a cheesy hair band from New Jersey, but just because these young, rowdy rockers prefer to pump up the volume with some fun, party-time rock 'n' roll rather than bellow and scream their way through crushing guitar riffs and pounding rhythms, doesn't mean they should be overlooked. Trixter's light-hearted, playful musical approach is a bright spot within the thick, black cloud of negativity hovering over so much of today's loud rock music. It's obvious that these boys just wanna have fun with Undercovers, an interesting album of cover tunes, ranging from Supertramp's "Take The Long Way Home" to the Beastie Boys' "Fight For Your Right (To Party)." When asked why the band recorded this album, Trixter simply replied, "We started jammin' on some covers and really had a blast doing them, so we thought it would be cool to just go down to the basement, record some tunes and put it out just for the hell of it." Plain and simple, this is a lively, happy-golucky collection of tunes paying tribute to some of the world's best and brightest rock/pop musicians of past and present. Check out the inventive renditions of Elvis Costello's "Pump It Up," Paul Simon's "50 Ways To Leave Your Lover," Nine Inch Nails' "Terrible Lie," AC/DC's "Dirty Deeds Done Dirt Cheap" and the Beatles' "Revolution." ### PEACH Dead Soldier's Coat (EP)

Caroline, 114 W. 26th St., New York, NY 10001 212.989.2929

Though this EP's title track is already featured on the band's debut LP, Siesta, the three extras are enticing attentiongrabbers on their own. Two of the three tracks are covers of songs by bands that Peach considers essential influences:

the unlikely, yet deserving James Gang and T. Rex. "Children Of The Revolution" is a fine tribute to Marc Bolan and co.; it beefs up the plodding guitar hook the song's famous for without simplifying it and hangs onto subtle highlights of the original, like the falsetto backup vocals on the chorus. "Stop" could mark the first time a new rock band has ever covered the lames Gang, and this energetic version is whole-heartedly welcomed, as it reveals the rock-everyman side of a band otherwise ghettoized into your local record store's bargain bin. Interestingly enough, with these nods to its idols in mind, Peach's guitar-wail hooks begin to sound more suspiciously like Joe Walsh on every listen. Also included is the previously unreleased "Smart Went Crazy," which is as good as anything on Siesta. CHERYL BOTCHICK

PEARL JAM "Spin The Block Circle" (5") Epic, 550 Madison, New York, NY 10022-3211

For a hand that was always perfectly content to remain on a "street level" and has continued to shun the "corporate structure" openly for years, it's ironic that Eddie Vedder and co. have become mega-superstar commercial rock icons, selling over 12 million copies of Ten and Vs. combined. Even though Pearl Jam is a huge mainstream success, the raw angst and honest emotional quality of its music has enabled the band to retain the undying support and adoration of alternative and metal crowds alike, while at the same time attracting new audiences with each release. Pearl lam is destined to remain a multi-format smash hit third release, Vitalogy, due in December. This is also the last chance you'll get to hear Dave Abbruzzese banging the skins for Pearl Jam, as he departed the band shortly after the album was completed. Unlike the moody, grungesoaked songs on Ten, "Spin The Black Circle" has a more upbeat, energized rockin' quality, similar to that of "Go" from Vs., while the mid-tempo bounce of "Tremor Christ" has a slightly psychedelic, more subdued Beatles-esque element. It looks like another platinum-plus album for Pearl Jam. JENNI GLENN

K HAND Global Warning (EP)

Warp, P.O. Box 474, Sheffield S1 3BW U.K. 0742.757586

One of Detroit's most underrated artists is K. Hand (a k a Kelly Hand, who runs the Acacia label). Her dramatic drum work and serpentine bass manipulations have earned her acclaim from a small cadre of the underground. Perhaps her extraordinary work will reach a larger audience with her first single for Warp. The title track is a mercurial, slippery analog house of mirrors. K Hand's percussion work is always slightly offcenter and her ability to throw in drum sounds between beats and on the off-beat makes these tracks all the more interesting. The flipside's "Acid 101" utilizes the sounds of the ubiquitous Roland TB-303 in a wholly unique fashion, bending notes and pitches to and fro. K Hand's work has become de rigueur for the followers of the North American electronic dance underground.

ITALIAN ANALOG

batch of singles from the reliable ACV label, as well as a host of records from newer labels. The latest slammer from ACV is RICCARDO ROCCHI's Start EP, an accelerated acid drumdown with lean, crisp production work. With titles like "Car" and "Start," you can be sure this EP is not heavy on the accoutrements. Rather, it builds castles of energy from very little raw material. Taking his cue from the Armani school, Rocchi comes up with a pot-boiler, as melodramatic as it is incendiary. Let us hope that the Pow Wow label in New York will license more material from this outstanding label (ACV, Via Antonio Coppi 4/C, 00179 Rome, Italy 06.780.6441)...The production team of Gemolotto and Fabrice has released a number of oddball projects for the Muzak label, and the latest outing from the pair is the sinewy "Tattoo" by KARMA, a six-minute exploratory dig into the unknown, with the aid of some penetrating acid sequences. The flip's "Stonehenge" leans a little on bouncy synth chops, but its bass line and 303 patterns are quite something. This somewhat arcane label is well worth following (Muzak, c/o Informal, Via Della Rosta, 13 UD, Italy 0432.505228)...The recently formed Pin Up label (part of the Informal stable) has established a reputation as a serious site for hard, minimal electronic dance tracks. The Data Brain EP, produced by MASSIMO PERINI, is only the latest and it does not disappoint. "The Tempter" is a warbling, pitch-shifted melange of 909 kick drums and bass lines, while "Electrofrogs" is a growling, glaring number with deep, lurking synth chords surrounding the mix (Pin Up, c/o Informal, address above).

BLAZING GARAGE

known as Blaze, never let the garage fan down. This pair have been at the forefront of the garage movement from the very beginning. Try playing "Can't Win For Losing" from '89 now and you'll see it hasn't aged a bit. The production work by Blaze on "Fantasy," the latest single by CASIO WARE and SAJAEDA, has just the sort of exquisite textures you'd expect. Bass lines melt into minor key, but never maudlin, string arrangements and electric piano chords while Sajaeda's pleading, emotive vocals are perfectly balanced in the mix. Blaze projects never disappoint (Shelter, 461 Central Park West, 5te. 2H, New York, NY 10025 914,358,7397).

PLUS, ALSO, TOO

Abe and co. at the highly regarded Tension label in Queens have started a house division, Hollis Haus, and it's off to a fine start with LISA CADENA's elegantly titled Volume II EP. Now, these folks have obviously been listening to house records from Detroit and Chicago since time began, which is not to say they haven't defined a unique sound. Cadena's endearing vocals hover above the spraying volleys of 909 toms and high-hats, and the whole project is put together with considerable precision. Check out the bonus beats at the end of side one for a real treat (Hollis Haus, c/o Tension, 8916 187th St., Hollis, NY 11423 718.454.6345)...The new, long-awaited PLASTIKMAN single shows Richie Hawtin in a distinctly new, surprising mode. Gone are the nail-biting extremes of his previous records. Hawtin has really slowed things down here, almost to the BPM domain of dub. The dangling, laconic "Plastique" knows more than it is telling, while "Freek" and "Ethnic" circle around their prey before descending rapidly (NovaMute, 140 W. 22nd 5t., 10th Fl., New York, NY 10011 212.255.7670).

As of November I, I will be at a new address. All FINAL NOTE mail can now be directed to the address listed below. My voice mail number will remain the same, as will my direct contact number (at the record store where I work). You may reach me at the direct number Wednesday through Friday from 12 noon-6 p.m. EST. ### RAVE REVIEW

GENE FARRIS Farris Wheel (EP)

Relief, c/o Cajual, 1229 N. North Branch #218. Chicago, IL 60622 312.642.8008

Chicago is on fire right now. Every week we're introduced to another producer with enough ideas to fill five LPs. The newly discovered Gene Farris is simply not going to allow his listeners a moment's rest. If you're not at least bobbing your head while listening to "No ?s," there is something very wrong with your nervous system. Simply put, this is music of undiluted rhythm, music designed to create physical movement (in one direction or another). Not so long ago, critics of minimalism charged that the genre was limited, that it needed bass lines, hooks, etc. But these critics missed the point. The more stark and stripped down the sound, the more inventive it has to be to keep the listener's (or dancefloor's) attention. After all clance music without a bass line is a radical concept, which, in the hands of an amateur, can be disastrous. Gene Farris cannot be counted among the latter. The Aside's "Blind Rage" is marked by rushing, whooshing textures that suggest drum sounds without an actual drum machine. The drums are marked by their virtual absence. the percussive equivalent of a negative of a photograph. The Farris Wheel EP is one of the most inventive and original records of the year.

Permanent, 209-05A Hillside Ave., Ste. 514, Queens Village, NY 11427 718,788,6969

Now here is an oddity for you, an EP featuring artists whose work go together like chalk and cheese. The Permanent label is run by the acclaimed Glenn Toby, a house legend whose "Ma Boom Fey" by Cultural Vibe remains a New York classic. Thus, Toby's "No More Line's" track constitutes the A-side of this 12", with its smooth, deep house surface and sprightly sax runs, particularly on the firing "Sweety 'G' Dub." The flip contains three tracks of superb analog electronics by Joey Beltram, whose commitment to hardhouse shows no signs of relenting. The flailing "Construction" is as good as anything from Beltram's recent, exemplary EPs for Trax, while "Fuzz" is a thick, glowering drum exercise. If this collection of tracks does well. maybe we'll see more disparate double A-siders like this.

DASIS

"Supersonic"

Epic

songs and flavored with hearty Brit spices. In "Supersonic." there's a road trip

documented (at times looking suspiciously like the O.J. free way chase) that eventually leads the band to a park full of giant dinosaur models Whether this video was supposed to be a low-speed chase or a lazy drive, it doesn't matter. When each second of a song is this catchy and edgy, it hardly matters what what's on. people will want to watch, and Oasis gives us plenty to see and hear with "Supersonic," SC

SUPERCHUNK

"Driveway To Driveway Merge

A stylish black-and-white clip for one of the least rambunctious songs Superchunk has ever done, "Driveway To Driveway" features the raggedy band all done up in tuxedos, neat haircuts and (visual) Southern accents. The almost-clear storyline; crisply shot and edited, involves a week-long party at a Southern mansion, with hungover Mac trying to capture Laura's affections from a way-too-fashionable suitor. Cleverly, the band also appears done up in its usual flannels, as a party band seated at a bandstand. The clip ends cryptically, though it hints at The Graduate, DOUGLAS WOLK

MAZZY STAR

"Halah"

This video comes at the perfect time with Mazzy Star getting second-hand success through Hope Sandoval's appearance in Jesus And Mary Chain's "Sometimes, Always." In "Halah," even the real-time moments seem as if they were filmed in slow-motion

ON THE CHART This week sees Minty fresh-DGC's Veruca Salt losing a bit of ground to Virgin's Jamet Jackson, who seems to have all the right players behind her (MTV, The Box, BET, Much Music, etc.). Despite Jackson's beavy-Color indicates a significant weight push, the overwhelming local support for Veruca Salt should continue to hold the Chicago band safely near the top. Jive's Shaquille O'Neal is not only this week's highest debut at #11, but the chart's high-increase in airplay. est positioned independent release with the next closest indie being another Jive artist, Keith Plurry, at #54. This week's Hover And Shaker Award goes to Arista's Ace Of Base, which climbs 41 places to #18. Look for a few more unexpected changes next week as programmers return from Billboord's Music Video Conference to greet the jiffy bag stacks that have accumulated in the interim

K HAND Glabal Warning (EP)

Warp, P.O. Box 474, Sheffield S1 3BW U.K. 0742.757586

One of Detroit's most underrated artists is K. Hand (a k a Kelly Hand, who runs the Acacia label). Her dramatic drum work and serpentine bass manipulations have earned her acclaim from a small cadre of the underground. Perhaps her extraordinary work will reach a larger audience with her first single for Warp. The title track is a mercurial, slippery analog house of mirrors. K Hand's percussion work is always slightly offcenter and her ability to throw in drum sounds between beats and on the off-beat makes these tracks all the more interesting. The flipside's "Acid 101" utilizes the sounds of the ubiquitous Roland TB-303 in a wholly unique fashion, bending notes and pitches to and fro. K Hand's work has become de rigueur for the followers of the North American electronic dance underground.

batch of singles from the reliable ACV label, as well as a host of records from newer labels. The latest slammer from ACV is RICCARDO ROCCHI's Start EP, an accelerated acid drumdown with lean, crisp production work. With titles like "Car" and "Start," you can be sure this EP is not heavy on the accourrements. Rather, it builds castles of energy from very little raw material. Taking his cue from the Armani school, Rocchi comes up with a pot-boiler, as melodramatic as it is incendiary. Let us hope that the Pow Wow label in New York will license more material from this outstanding label (ACV, Via Antonio Coppi 4/C, 00179 Rome, Italy 06.780.6441)...The production team of Gemolotto and Fabrice has released a number of oddball projects for the Muzak label, and the latest outing from the pair is the sinewy "Tattoo" by KARMA, a six-minute exploratory dig into the unknown, with the aid of some penetrating acid sequences. The flip's "Stonehenge" leans a little on bouncy synth chops, but its bass line and 303 patterns are quite something. This somewhat arcane label is well worth following (Muzak, c/o Informal, Via Della Rosta, 13 UD, Italy 0432.505228)...The recently formed Pin Up label (part of the Informal stable) has established a reputation as a serious site for hard, minimal electronic dance tracks. The Data Brain EP, produced by MASSIMO PERINI, is only the latest and it does not disappoint. "The Tempter" is a warbling, pitch-shifted melange of 909 kick drums and bass lines, while "Electrofrogs" is a growling, glaring number with deep, lurking synth chords surrounding the mix (Pin Up, c/o Informal, address above).

BLAZING GARAGE

known as Blaze, never let the garage fan down. This pair have been at the forefront of the garage movement from the very beginning. Try playing "Can't Win For Losing" from '89 now and you'll see it hasn't aged a bit. The production work by Blaze on "Fantasy," the latest single by CASIO WARE and SAJAEDA, has just the sort of exquisite textures you'd expect. Bass lines melt into minor key, but never maudlin, string arrangements and electric piano chords while Sajaeda's pleading, emotive vocals are perfectly balanced in the mix. Blaze projects never disappoint (Shelter, 461 Central Park West, Ste. 2H, New York, NY 10025 914.358.7397).

PLUS, ALSO, TOO

house division, Hollis Haus, and it's off to a fine start with LISA CADENA's elegantly titled Volume II EP. Now, these folks have obviously been listening to house records from Detroit and Chicago since time began, which is not to say they haven't defined a unique sound. Cadena's endearing vocals hover above the spraying volleys of 909 toms and high-hats, and the whole project is put together with considerable precision. Check out the bonus beats at the end of side one for a real treat (Hollis Haus, c/o Tension, 8916 187th St., Hollis, NY 11423 718.454.6345)...The new, long-awaited PLASTIKMAN single shows Richie Hawtin in a distinctly new, surprising mode. Gone are the nail-biting extremes of his previous records. Hawtin has really slowed things down here, almost to the BPM domain of dub. The dangling, laconic "Plastique" knows more than it is telling, while "Freek" and "Ethnic" circle around their prey before descending rapidly (NovaMute, 140 W. 22nd St., 10th Fl., New York, NY 10011 212.255.7670).

As of November I, I will be at a new address. All FINAL NOTE mail can now be directed to the address listed below. My voice mail number will remain the same, as will my direct contact number (at the record store where I work). You may reach me at the direct number Wednesday through Friday from 12 noon-6 p.m. EST. The most open route to reach me by fax will also be at the store (though I will print my home fax soon).

house division. Hollis Haus, and it's off to a fine start with LISA CADENA's elegantly titled Volume II EP. Now, these folks have obviously been listening to house records from Detroit and Chicago since time began, which is not to say they haven't defined a unique sound. Cadena's endearing vocals hover above the spraying volleys of 909 toms and high-hats, and the whole project is put together with considerable precision. Check out the bonus beats at the end of side one for a real treat (Hollis Haus, c/o Tension, 8916 187th St., Hollis, NY 11423 718.454.6345)...The new, long-awaited PLASTIKMAN single shows Richie Hawtin in a distinctly new, surprising mode. Gone are the nail-biting extremes of his previous records. Hawtin has really slowed things down here, almost to the BPM domain of dub. The dangling, laconic "Plastique" knows more than it is telling, while "Freek" and "Ethnic" circle around their prey before descending rapidly (NovaMute, 140 W. 22nd St., 10th Fl., New York, NY 10011 212.255.7670).

RAVE REVIEW

Relief, c/o Cajual, 1229 N. North Branch #218,

Chicago, IL 60622 312.642.8008 Chicago is on fire right now. Every week we're introduced to another producer with enough ideas to fill five LPs. The newly discovered Gene Farris is simply not going to allow his listeners a moment's rest. If you're not at least bobbing your head while listening to "No ?s." there is something very wrong with your nervous system. Simply put. this is music of undiluted rhythm. music designed to create physical movement (in one direction or another). Not so long ago, critics of minimalism charged that the genre was limited, that it needed bass lines, hooks, etc. But these critics missed the point. The more stark and stripped down the sound, the more inventive it has to be to keep the listener's (or dancefloor's) attention. After all, dance music without a bass line is a radical concept, which, in the hands of an amateur, can be disastrous. Gene Farris cannot be counted among the latter. The Aside's "Blind Rage" is marked by rushing, whooshing textures that suggest drum sounds without an actual drum machine. The drums are marked by their virtual absence, the percussive equivalent of a negative of a photograph. The Farris Wheel EP is one of the most inventive and original records of the year.

LOST ENTITY

Lost Entity (EP)

Permanent, 209-05A Hillside Ave. Ste. 514, Queens Village, NY 11427

718,788,6969 Now here is an oddity for you, an EP featuring artists whose work go together like chalk and cheese. The Permanent label is run by the acclaimed Glenn Toby, a house legend whose "Ma Boom Fey" by Cultural Vibe remains a New York classic. Thus, Toby's "No More Line's" track constitutes the A-side of this 12", with its smooth, deep house surface and sprightly sax runs, particularly on the firing "Sweety 'G' Dub." The flip contains three tracks of superb analog electronics by Joey Beltram, whose commitment to hardhouse shows no signs of relenting. The flailing "Construction" is as good as anything from Beltram's recent, exemplary EPs for Trax, while "Fuzz" is a thick, glowering drum exercise. If this collection of tracks does well, maybe we'll see more disparate double A-siders like this.

DUKE JUKE

With the holidays approaching, the record companies, big and small, are cranking out jazz releases full-throttle. As such, it's time to rev up and hip you to some significant new titles.

Tenorman SCOTT HAMIL-TON, a throwback from the Ben Webster/Zoot Sims school who has recorded scads of records for Concord (P.O. Box 845, Concord, CA 94522 510.682.6770) over the past decade and a half, has come out with one of his grittiest, most soulful outings to date, Organic Duke. As the title suggests, this CD presents Duke Ellington-written. co-written or -associated material as performed by Hamilton's quartet featuring Mike LeDonne on organ. LeDonne, a New York-based pianist who has distinguished himself of late on a number of recordings for the Dutch CrissCross label, acquits himself favorably on the organ as a planist, first and foremost, he understands the value of lyricism-and the bass/drums tandem of Dennis Irwin and Chuck Riggs provides the requisite momentum. The well-chosen repertoire sidesteps the overly familiar Ducal fare, and, wisely, considering the inherent qualities of the B-3, leans towards the blues. Nice concept, nice execution.

When it comes to lyricism, TOOTS THIELEMANS, that III' of harmonicameister, it is unsurpassed. Following two highly varied, star-laden Brazilian projects for Private Music (9104 Melrose Ave., Los Angeles, CA 90069), the European-based master has come up with an interesting conceptual effort, East Coast West Coast, (Actually, Private Music's Ron Goldstein suggested the theme.) Almost evenly divided between East Coast and West Coast halves. the CD achieves a neat balance, though the geographic designations are based more on the home bases of the sidemen than on any major

ON THE CHART The top 5 is an exact repeat of last week, thigh Street's Jazz Passengers (i-i) again edging out Atlantic's Ginger Baker Trio (2-2) by a slim margin to top the jazz chart. Both albums were reported #1 on eleven st while the Jazz Passengers got top 10 reports on 41 stations compared to 37 for the Ginger Baker Irio. Warner Bros. Joshua Redman Quartet (3-3), Verw's Mark Whitfield (4-4), and Verw's Betty Carter (5-5) are holding steady. Haking big climbs on the chart are Private Music's harmonica great Toots Thielemans (13-6), Adantis's Wessell Anderson (16-7), Kokopelii's David "Fathead" Newman (18-10), Gitanes-Verve's Shirley Horn (20-11) and Rastascan's Peter Brotzmann (24-16). This week's chart debuts were the double Hammond attack of Winston Walls With Jack McDuff (#19) on Schoolkids, and bass great Ron Carter (#23) on Blue Note. (IAZZ REPORTS PRINTED AFTER TOP 35 REPORTS) stylistic contrasts. The turf dispute between the East Coast hardbop school of the '50s and its West Coast Cool counterpart was largely a marketing concoction (though racial tension played a part in the controversy), and today, a generation later, the rift is essentially nonexistent. Two Dizzy Gillespie tunes ("Groovin' High," "Con Alma"), a pair by John Coltrane ("Naima," "Giant Steps") and Thelonious Monk's "In Walked Bud" are highlights of the East Coast portion, which teams Thielemans with pianist Lyle Mays, bassist Christian McBride, drummer Troy Davis and, on selected tracks, trumpeter Terence Blanchard, tenorist Joshua Redman and vibist Mike Mainieri. The West Coast segment, the last six cuts, tends to be mellower, a tad sweeter, but nonetheless engaging as Toots makes his Hohner harp sing in unmistakable fashion (on "Waltz For Debby," "Take Five" and "Blue In Green," in particular) alongside pianist Alan Broadbent, bassist Charlie Haden, drummer Peter Erskine and guitarist Robben Ford. Two duets-with Mainieri on "In Your Own Sweet Way" (East Coast) and Herbie Hancock on "A Child Is Born" (West Coast)—spotlight Thielemans to especially tender effect. For many years a prominent guest artist (with Shirley Horn and, more recently, Zachary Breaux), the genial, exceptionally adaptable Thielemans is now benefitting, as a leader, from the eager participation of world-class guests. He deserves it.

GERRY MULLIGAN, a survivor of the hard bop/Cool jazz teapot-tempest and a leading practitioner on the baritone sax, then as now, is represented on two newly released CDs. Dream A Little Dream (Telarc, 23307 Commerce Park Rd., Cleveland, OH 44122 216.464.2313), recorded this past April, is a standards platter emphasizing brightly melodic, familiar songs. "Here's That Rainy Day," "Georgia On My Mind," "My Shining Hour," and "My Funny Valentine," among 14 selections, are given a jaunty reading by a quartet comprising pianist Ted Rosenthal, bassist Dean Johnson and drummer Ron Vincent. A larger unit, a sextet concentrating for the most part on Mulligan originals, is featured on Idol Gossip, a 1976 studio session newly issued on CD by Chiaroscuro (830 Broadway, New York, NY 10003).

As Mulligan is to the gruff-sounding bari (one of the world's best), RUBY BRAFF is to the sweet-sounding cornet (a smaller-sized trumpet). Braff, a clever, congenial master of melodicism, leads a foursome with unusual, but quite pleasurable, instrumentation on Live At The Regattabar (Arbors, P.O. Box 58059, Tierra Verde, FL 33715). Dispensing with drums and piano (save for one cut on which he himself tickles the ivories), Braff heads a quartet with two guitarists, Gray Sargent and Jon Wheatley, and a bassist, Marshall Wood, recorded live in Cambridge, Massachusetts. As on other discs from the consistently pleasing Arbors company, Live At The Regattabar is highly recommended for jazzbos who relish subtle (nothing brash) mainstream swing.

On previous CDs under his own name, and with the TanaReid quintet (led by Akira Tana and Rufus Reid), ROB SCHNEIDER-MAN has amply proven his prowess as a steadily swinging, inventive pianist. On Dark Blue, his fifth effort for Reservoir (276 Pearl St., Kingston, NY 12401), the pianist exhibits his compositional savvy in the neobop idiom. The quintet he has fashioned insures that virtually anything he might write will sound right: From the rhythm section (of bassist Peter Washington and drummer Lewis Nash) on up to the front line (of trumpeter Brian Lynch and tenorman Ralph Moore), Schneiderman boasts a tough-swinging bunch of guys with so much experience, personality and technique that they need never overplay or grandstand. That, come to think of it, is a pretty right-on recipe for top-notch jazz. Dark Blue is a solid hour of same.

ROOTS 'N' BLUES

RAY WYLIE HUBBARD Loco Gringo's Lament Deiadisc, 537 Lindsey St.,

San Marcos, TX 78666 512.392.6610

Ray Wylie Hubbard is forever linked to Jerry Jeff Walker, who turned the Hubbard-penned "Up Against The Wall, Redneck Mother" into a Cosmic Cowboy anthem on his classic, early '70s album Viva Terlingua. While Hubbard had a self-released record out in 1993 which pretty much stayed in Texas, Loco Gringo's Lament is his first nationally released album in far too many years. With this record he's moved to the next level as a songwriter with a sound akin to the latest work by Jimmie Dale Gilmore and Joe Ely. Both electric and acoustic songs like "Dust Of The Chase," "Didn't Have A Prayer," "Little Angel Comes A Walkin" and the title track have a lean, dark edge and lyrics that always ring true. With some of Austin's top players, including Lisa Mednick, Danny Levin, Iain Matthews, Rich Brotherton, Paul Pearcy and Bob Livingston, and a first-class producer in Lloyd Maines, Hubbard has come up with one the best records out of Texas this year. JIM CALIGIURI

DUKE LEVINE Country Soul Guitar Daring, P.O. Box 793, Marblehead, MA 01945

Country music has always been intertwined with soul music in America, often in ways that are deeper and far more sublime than the recent, glossy Rhythm Country And Blues pairing. In fact, the roots of the two go back quite far together; Bill Monroe remembers playing separate shows for black and white audiences in the years before integration, while in the early days of the recording industry, blues and hillbilly musicians customarily shared the same studios, equipment (sometimes even on the same day), producers and, no doubt, much of the same repertoire as well. The mingling of the twain ranges from the country-soul stylings of Arthur Alexander and Dan Penn all the way to the modern fruition of the historical lineage found in Duke Levine's Country Soul Guitar. Parts of it are downright funky-"Deep Blue (Sometimes Green)" could almost be a jazz-inflected Meters jam from the mid-'70s-while parts of it display the twang of deep country roots ("Nashville Skyline Rag"). The pairing of country and soul is certainly nothing new, but six-stringer Duke Levine's Country Soul Guitar is one of the freshestsounding outings we've heard in a blue moon. JAMES UEN

BLIND JOHN DAVIS Blind John Davis Evidence, 1100 E. Hector St., Ste. 392, Conshohocken, PA 19428 215.832.0844

Blueprint for the blues: John Henry Davis was born in Hattiesburg, Mississippi, in 1913, but was only four years old when his family moved north to Chicago. His mother was a former minstrel show dancer, while his father rather entrepreneurially started running several "goodtime houses" during Prohibition, where he provided entertainment and sold homebrewed moonshine. It was in this milieu that John Davis learned to play the piano. inspired at a young age by the great barrelhouse and boogie piano playing that was going on in Chicago in that bustling, high-rolling time. While this CD makes apparent the trills that Davis learned from bluesmen of yore, the set also reveals the most important thing he extracted from his upbringing, which was his vim and vigor, an outlook on life that suited him well as both a musician and an entertainer. Years and years later, it was that spirit that would serve him well when he sat down at the piano in a Chicago studio to cut this eponymous solo piano outing, making a record that's fun, timeless, lilting and perennially enjoyable. ## OVERSEQS

SABRES OF PARADISE Haunted Dancehall Warp, Studio 2, I Brown St., Sheffield, South Yorkshire S1 4GF U.K. 0742.757586

Andy Weatherall is better known as a master remixer, especially his work with "Loaded"-era Primal Scream, but his own vehicle is Sabres Of Paradise. The trio's recent single, the New Orleans Ska-delica of "Willmot," was prime evidence that Weatherall was unwilling to settle for the techno-generic advances of the debut album Sabresonic: Haunted Dancehall is as much concerned with mood as it is with groove. The Sabres, like Portishead (which pops up here with a typically steamy-stomping remix of "Planet D"), share the single-minded experimental brilliance of composers like John Barry and Ennio Morricone, except that the Sabres' world is a tense, up-all-night-both party and partyaftermath—London, with an overt fondness for the dynamic form of classic Detroit electro and dancehall dub. Cue loads of dry, sinewy melody lines, echo splash, subsonic bass, gunshot snares, percussive hiss and a predominantly dark, dank, urban-jungle atmosphere that will remind some of Barry Adamson's Moss Side Story. The ambient tip of Jungle is dance music's current cutting edge, with its nervous breakbeats and post-rave paranoid mood, to which the Sabres offer their own single.

SKYLAB Skylab #1

Mat Ducasse, Skylab's chief pilot, recently said his studio collective was "an attempt to widen horizons, create freedoms and suggest new spaces." That's a tall order for Ducasse and his cohorts Howie B and the Major Force West Crew, especially when the debut album Skylab #1 presents a predictable patchwork-quilt of genre-splicing, sampling and instrumental filling, but by aping that same Morricone/Barry methodology, horizonal freedom and space are easily within Skylab's grasp. The formula—ambient colors, steamy textures, sci-fi sensurround in Moog-arama-recalls a cross between the KLF's Chill Out and Stereolab, or Portishead's backing tracks on Ecstasy. But the real touchstone is Eno. "Indigo" could be an out-take from Abollo with trip-hop beats. and extra aural shimmer, while "River Of Bass" and "Seashell," niftily borrow from Eno's Here Come The Warm Jets and Byrne and Eno's My Life In The Bush Of Ghosts, respectively. Elsewhere, "Depart" recreates the melody from Born Free and "Next" samples the Twin Peaks-style synthstring motif from the brilliant '80s film Diva, but Skylab isn't always in magpie-mode; for example, "Ghost Dance" is poltergeist-playful with farmyard noises from Mars, chop 'n' changing beats and a gorgeous two-note bass shudder binding the ingredients. Take your protein pill and put your helmet on.

PLUS, ALSO, TOO

fed through a breakbeat machine—have been extended by (predominantly) white musicians to produce ambient jungle, or hardcore. The music-a darker antidote to the 'happy house' trend-has grown stealthily, and the first Top 20 jungle hit (by General Levy) has been followed by Goldie, a k a METALHEADS, the first jungle artist to sign to a major. "Inner City Blues" is mainly composed of Urban Cookie Collective member Diane Charlemagne's soulsiren vocal, shimmering but still slightly queasy strings and that shuddering, drums-'n'-bass fix-speeding breakbeats with hard, heavy mixing-desk tweaking. The result is the perfect backdrop to late-night inner-city life-thrilling, unnerving, epic, uneasy. The B-side "Jah" maximizes the formula with a brutal workout. # FURTHER OUT

Wearing eccentric Viking garb while playing weird triangular drums and reading his peculiar poetry, the blind composer MOONDOG (a k a Louis Hardin) was New York's most famous street musician in the 'SOs and '60s. His fans included Charlie Parker and Arturo Tuscanini, and Moondog managed to put out six albums of his bizarre polyrhythmic music on Columbia and Prestige

50-60, 4479S, Bochum, Germany), Moondog leads the

nine-piece London Saxophonic through compositions ranging from jazz-flavored marches and rounds (including a remake of "Bird's Lament") and lovely carefree waltzes to urgent, slightly sinister percussive pieces; his music was called "radical conservative" by one critic. On previous records, Moondog's strange lyrics are rather charming coming through his idiosyncratic singing voice, but the Broadway show tune-style male chorus heard on a couple of songs here is pretty corny; still, I highly recommend it...On Tuba Intim (ReR, c/o Cuneiform, P.O. Box 8427, Silver Spring, MD 20907 301.589.8894) MICHAEL VOGT plays music by eight composers (including Stravinsky, Morton Feldman, Lutz Glandien and Alfred Zimmerlin), some solo, some accompanied by tape or live instruments. My favorite is Raymond Luedeke's "Wonderland Duets," with lyrical overdubbed tubas and a German reading of Lewis Carroll (you'll recognize "labberwocky")...JOSEPH CELLI's Organic Oboe (O.O. Discs, 261 Grovers Ave., Black Rock, CT 0660S-34S2) is a reissue of a 1978 album. Celli blows (hums?) though reedless oboes, producing spooky, ghostly overtones on his composition "Sky: S for J." On Stockhausen's "Spiral," he modifies the oboes with kazoos, wah-wah pedals, "etc." while accompanied by random shortwave radio broadcasts, and on Elliot Schwartz's "Extended Oboe" he's accompanied by computer on a surprisingly melodic and sprightly piece, sounding at times almost like a British folk tune...St. George And The Dragon (Mode, P.O. Box 1026, New York, NY 10116) is a typically snail-paced, lengthy (47-minute) work from composer/accordionist PAULINE OLIVEROS: a sonic delight for those with p-a-t-i-e-n-c-e. She's joined by the American Voices on "In Memoriam Mr. Whitney," in which the dozen vocalists chant and sing the names of their departed loved one: probably very moving to perform but pretty creepy to listen to...Flies In The Face Of Logic (Pogus, P.O. Box 150022, Van Brunt Sta., Brooklyn, NY 11215-0022) features piano music composed by three non-pianists. Steve MacLean, who opens the disc with the sound of a piano dropped from a 100-foot crane, samples piano and prepared piano for interesting rhythmically active pieces with odd sonorities running in and out. C.W. Vrtacek (of Forever Einstein) monkeys with an electric keyboard (there's no shortage of liner notes if you really must know the specifics) to create what he calls "digital prepared piano music." He plays a dozen humorous miniatures with titles like "A Man Shaking Hands With A Squid" and "Look! Out On The Pond! Duck!" Nick Didkovsky, the compilation's producer and mastermind of the band Dr. Nerve, describes one of his own computer controlled piano pieces as "dense chaotic clusters." With random computer elements within human-controlled parameters, these pieces sound a lot freer and more spontaneous than his previous work.

OASIS

"Supersonic"

Epic

songs and flavored with hearty Brit spices. In "Supersonic," there's a road trip

documented (at times looking suspiciously like the O.J. freeway chase) that eventually leads the band to a park full of giant dinosaur models. Whether this video was supposed to be a low-speed chase or a lazy drive, it doesn't matter. When each second of a song is this catchy and edgy, it hardly matters what what's on, people will want to watch, and Oasis gives us plenty to see and hear with "Supersonic." SC

SUPERCHUNK

"Driveway To Driveway"

Merge

A stylish black-and-white clip for one of the least rambunctious songs Superchunk has ever done, "Driveway To Driveway" features the raggedy band all done up in tuxedos, neat haircuts and (visual) Southern accents. The almost-clear storyline, crisply shot and edited, involves a week-long party at a Southern mansion, with hungover Mac trying to capture Laura's affections from a way-too-fashionable suitor. Cleverly, the band also appears done up in its usual flannels, as a party band seated at a bandstand. The clip ends cryptically, though it hints at The Graduate, DOUGLAS WOLK

ON THE CHART This week sees Minty Fresh-DGC's Veruca Salt losing a bit of ground to Virgin's Jamet Jackson, who seems to have all the right players behind her (MTV, The Box, BET, Much Music, etc.). Despite Jackson's heavy-Color indicates a significant weight push, the overwhelming local support for Veruca Salt should continue to hold the Chicago band safely near the top. Jive's Shaquille O'Neal is not only this week's highest debut at #11, but the chart's high-increase in airplay. est positioned independent release with the next closest indie being another Jive artist, Keith Murry, at #54. This week's Mover And Shaker Award goes to Arista's Ace Of Base, which climbs 41 places to #18.

Look for a few more unexpected changes next week as programmers return from Billboard's Music Video Conference to greet the jiffy bag stacks that have accumulated in the interim.

ZERO HOUR

1600 Broadway, Ste. 704 New York, NY 10019 212,957 1277 CUCUMBERS "That Is That"

(the majority of this video is in slo-mo), but it's more comforting and pretty than boring in what is essentially a laid-back folk tune, Hope looks as wounded and beautiful as this shadowy multi colored, woozy clip. sc

CUCUMBERS

"This Is That"

Zero Hour

The Cucumbers could have used a few more sophisticated special effects for "This la That," but that would have ruined all of the clip's charm Hand puppets and gradeschool theater props and costumes supply all the m gic ded on this sweet and sour nop song. Though the video for This Is That' seems focused meinly on giving the views something to smile about, there's plenty of sharp teeth in its twisted fairy-tale plot SC

RADIOHEAD

"My Iron Lung"

Capitol

A bit more upbeat (but no less moody) than its labelmate Mazzy Star's latest clip, Radiohead's "My Iron Lung," recalls the performance stage setting of "Creep," and also reprises that song's mixture of sweet melody and guitar histrionics. The other nice thing about "My Iron Lung" is that it shows Radiohead as a performing rock band rather than a made-for-video product While that approach may be just as calculated, we'll take the satisfying results of "My Iron Lung" just the same SC is a forum for communication about all facets of the music industry. All CMJ New Music Report subscribers are welcome to submit comi for publication to: Dialogue, c/o CMJ, 11 Middle Neck Road, Ste. 400, Great Neck NY 11021-2301; or via fax to 516.466.7159. Dialogues will only be occepted every other week from ony individual subscriber. All submissions must be typed and include name, title, compony/station, city, state and phone number. Submissions exceeding 250 words will not be accepted. All Dialogue comments represent the opinions of the authors and do not necessarily reflect the opinions of the CMJ staff, the editors or the general readership. Dialogues are due each Monday (unless otherwise noted) by fax or mail at 6 p.m. EST, and will appear in an issue dated exactly three weeks from that Monday deadline.

DIALOGUE

John Notsure, Revelation Records, Huntington Beach, CA 714.375.4264 "My eyes are going crazy" is anyone else going blind trying to read the new font size in this thing? More importantly, Sense Field's much anticipated follow up to the amazing Killed For Less is out and on its way. Also, the Iceburn/Engine Kid record is out, Iceburn from 5alt Lake and Engine Kid from Seattle bring you some pulverizing and stunning stuff that may be light years ahead of your regular playlists. If you're bold enough and dare to be different, this one will be serviced by request. Did anyone see the "bands who wish they were still on Rev., but are probably better off" CMJ showcase at the Academy with Orange 9mm, Into Another and Quicksand? I did and it was fucking great. Check out Into Another on tour, but call Hollywood for your servicing needs on this. P.5.: Play 5ense Field.

Kristin Meyer, College Radio Promotion, Mammoth Records, Carrboro, NC 919.932.1882 Congratulations to Keith from KSCU who won himself a limited edition box set of the Jabberjaw Good To The Last Drop 7"s, and thanks to everyone else who entered and has been supporting this compilation! Kill Creek is on the road and their debut fulllength St. Valentine's Garage is at your station. John Strohm (of Antenna and Blake Babies historical significance) has a new band Velo-Deluxe, and a newly found fetish for vacuum cleaners, check it out. Dillon Fence and Frente! are also on tour...Need a little inspiration? Victoria Williams, whose name you might recognize from Sweet Relief, or you might already know as one of the most respected songwriters around, has released her Mammoth/Atlantic debut entitled Loose. That's the deal with Mammoth for now, E-Mail address in the works, until then, tap into our site on the Worldwide Web. (I don't know what that means, but I'm studying my Idiot's Guide To The Internet, and I hope to have it all figured out soon!)

J. Herskowitz, Prodigal Sun Records, Atlanta, GA 404.897.3433 I just wanted to say "hey" to all the others of the prestigious Those That Never Sleep club. Right now all of my insomniatic hours are spent pushing the new Biohio album, Kindergarten. The songs wander about the convolutions of the brain until they have taken over that spot reserved for the cherished "song that has been in my head all day," where they will then build a nest and continue to raise their family from that very spot. For all of you familiar with the great Washington, DC/Fairfax, VA music scene perhaps you have caught the buzz. With a recent nomination from Washington Area Music Awards for Best New Artist and a brand spanking new album produced by three time WAWA "Producer Of The Year" Marco Delmar (with a little help from Mike Ivey of Basehead), these boys are hot, real hot, damn hot, hot enough to cook a frozen chicken pot pie in less than the recommended time on the box! After a couple of incredible shows at CMJ Music Marathon and New Music 5eminar, the boys are out on the road. 50 go see them, say hi and tell them J. says get back to work.

Suzanne Forrest, Immune Records, San Diego, CA 619.448.3062 Thanks to all the radio stations who are supporting Buck O Nine. Special thanks to Mike Gaito and everyone at WUMF for playing the hell out of the CD making it number one. The guys are resting after being on the road for 40 days. It is apparent everyone's favorite song is "Don't Wanna Be No (Bon Jovi)"...In other news, look for Mike Keneally's new album Boil That Dust Speck at the end of November. (Fuck the hype...lt's a great album.) Thanks are also in order here for CO Lewis who has always supported Mike. Have a great holiday.

Pete Rosenblum, Elektra Records Group, New York. NY 212.275.4100 Well if you haven't heard by now, EastWest and Elektra have merged into one company now called the Elektra Records Group. I will be heading up the college department and you can call me or any of our college reps. Philadelphia: Ben Morgan, 215.387.1745. Atlanta: Matt Monroe, 404.355.3778. Chicago: John Delgiannis, 312.667.6162. San Francisco: Maridi Nalle, 415.861.7929. Los Angeles: Tanya Arand, 310.205.7420. Seattle: Elena Chavez, 206.270,9795. Washington, DC: Chris Elles, 703.502,8618. Madison: Jen Edelston, 608.251,4536, Denver; Rob Lissner, 303,444,0128, Minneapolis: Dan Rubinow, 612.331.7099. Providence: Scott Janovitz, 401.865.3925, Buffalo: Dave Kostek, 716.881, 1540, So. anyway, call us, we are here to serve. Look for a Stereolab EP and a new single from They Might Be Giants. You should already have Ween, Candy Machine, Sick Of It All, They Might Be Giants, Stina Nordenstam, and Moby.

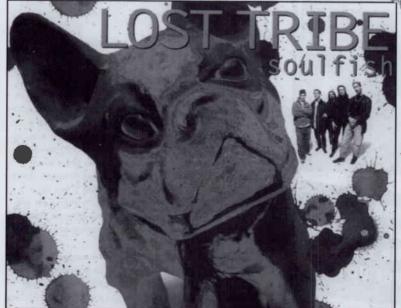

Sharon Joffe, Arista Records, New York, NY 1.800.627.4782 ext 2144 I live in an apartment building in NYC and like many of you dorm inhabitants, I use the laundry facilities in the basement. For future reference in the real world (not MTV style) be a kind and considerate person and push the start button on an "off" dryer if the clothes inside are wet. Don't be a cheap, slimy motherfucker by removing someone's wet clothes from the dryer and putting your own in and then trying to escape. Ya know why? Cause you'll get caught! Yes, I busted the jerk that tried scamming me out of my $1.25. Relax, you say? No. I got in that guy's face (ask Jeff Sperber, he witnessed it. Incidentally, we're not sleeping together. That'd be like incest - yuk) and that jerk came back downstairs with my money because he knew damn well that he was g-u-i-l-t-y! Ha Ha! I felt triumphant! While on the spin cycle, I clean my apartment to the lovely sounds of the album Loved by Cranes. "Reverie," "Lilies," "Paris And Rome" and "Shining Road" get my floors a-sparkling. Cranes are touring Europe right now and all four of them (instruments in tow) will grace stages across America this January and February, My bathroom tiles gleam brightly to the Family Cat's Magic Happens album. Mostly "Amazing Hangover," "Wonderful Excuse" and "Airplane Gardens." Flaco Jimenez makes the dust bunnies hop away with his great new record which you or specialty programs will enjoy a lot. seeyalaterbye.

Andy Leitner, Doghouse Records, Toledo, OH 419.536.9112 This is the first time in Dialogue for Doghouse Records, and this is what's up. Colossus of the Fall, the latest Doghouse release, is out now, and they just finished touring the Midwest and East Coast. I hope you've been playing this. Free Colossus shirts to anyone who calls! Split Lip is scheduled to record their second full-length in December, and watch for a free 7" of their new song "Union Town" in the next issue of Anti-matter, as well as online with SonicNet. Transcend is in the middle of recording a new album, which will be out in Europe around the first of the year, and in the U.5. soon after. Threadbare's new EP will also be released early next year. Keep an eye out for Fabric's new Body of Water 18-song CD! It should be out in December. Fabric have been touring with Unwound in England, and did a short stint with the Offspring, playing their own brand of indie-influenced British hardcore. New Musical Express and others in England already gave Body of Water an awesome review, so don't miss this when it lands on your desk.

DIALOGUE

Nicki "Plunger Woman" Aubin Schmaubin and Ric "Cool-E Doubles" Rosen, Radical Records, New York, NY

212.475.1111 I rule. I am the fixer of sick toilets everywhere, ever since my college days (those cheap dorm bathroom models) up to Radical's own swank Elier model today. I am Plunger Woman! God, am I in the wrong business! Maybe I should have an infomercial! Roto-Rooter has nothing over me!...Good luck to WJUL's Bowling Team (kill that computer science team!) They are the pioneers of a whole new part of college radio. Maybe they'll spawn a new panel at next year's CMJ Marathon: "Indie Rock Bowling Conclave I." What do you think?... Now, on to the music I.C.U. (Intensive Care Unit)-punk rock. You know it, so play it...Po' Boy Swing (Lite And Sweet CD, Royalty Records)—hardedged rock, very much like Faith No More. Play this one loud!...Slang (The Lesson CD, Big Truk Records) is a combo of EMF, lesus Jones and the Happy Mondaysreal good Manchestery pop!...A select few of you now have CDs from Milk Can and Sixo (Bad Karma Records). Check this out-both groups are the same people, same instruments, but totally different kinds of music; one punk and one pop. Cool, eh? Due to manufacturing hold-ups the release of Skampilation is being postponed until January, we promise! Thanks for your patience, and keep those Docs out!...That's all for now, but remember...Por favor no tiren la puerta! Thank you. Goodnight.

Zachary "Big Mac" Lanier, Energy Records, New York, 800.695.5678 My main focus for the month has been food. I love the feel of the little cardboard container by a pre-adolescent worker, voice strained by hours of "Can I help You?"s, sounding like they gave too much head to too many helium balloons. If it drips fat, reeks of special sauce, and gives me love handles, there's already two in transit from mouth to tortured stomach. It sends me on a sordid affair, running through the back alleys of fast-food love, only to wake in the morning next to a colon who, too lipidly drunk to remember the events of the night before, hastily gets dressed and leaves me feeling morose and somehow, empty inside...Enough about fattening up for winter, its tour food! Pro-Pain and MOD are getting plenty of it as the trek from Burger King to McDonalds across the country. Larva lives off the land on their tour, and Planet Hate eats only at health food stores and roadside fruit stands. Bile probably eats better than any of them. Have you ever read the nutrition label on the side of a road kill possum. Call me for information and dietary habits on any of these touring bands. Hey, I don't have to sound like an idiot, but it helps.

Adam J. Pollock, Island Recards, New Yark, 212.603.3942 I signed my lease for another year, but I'm still interested in any big, cheap apartments in lower Manhattan (right, and Milla needs a date for Saturday night). The end of the year is in sight, we're starting to think about our Jan. and Feb. records—Local H (power duo - drums and guitar - very heavy), Quicksand (our sophomore release), Sybil Vane (saw 'em last week in Seattle, female vocals over churning riffs) PJ Harvey, and many more. The rest of '94 will be spent keeping track of all our tours - Wool, Wedding Present, Spell, Royal Jelly and Deus are all out there. If you haven't heard Portishead yet, call me immediately, this is the coolest album you'll hear this month—Massive Attack meets Mazzy Star at a midnight screening of Eroserhead.

James Curry, 0898 Records, Hauston, Tx 713.526.9355 Sugar's File Under Easy Listening, Magnapop's Hot Boxing...what next? I'll tell ya what. Producer/Engineer Jim Wilson (he's a Texan, yee-fuckinghaw) is hot off of sharing the board with Bob Mould on the aforementioned records and is wearing his engineering and producer cap for Bee Stung Lips (the fact that their debut is eponymous shouldn't confuse you: it just means it's called Bee Stung Lips). This record will pay your bills, improve your love life and kill your landlord! No, it won't...but it's a magnet for smart-pop lovers. The add date was October 7. Are you paying attention? Thanks to all those who are, esp.: Mike at KUPS (top ten, already?), Carolyn at KZUM, Jason at KAUR, Wayne at WUCF. You'll all be looked after in my last will and testament. Also: look for Bee Stung Lips at your school—maybe this winter with the Connells or whoever else the boys can track down. Remember mine is the phone that loooves to ring.

Amy Dietz, Martketing/Promotions, Red Decibel, Minneapolis, MN 612.874.2410 Hey Everyone! I'm sure you're all dying to know what's new at Red Decibel. Well here it is... Cher U.K.'s new record Go-Go Fish should be on your desk now! It was recorded in Chicago with Keith Cleversley (of Flaming Lips and Mercury Rev fame) and man does it rock. Pick a track, any track I'm sure you won't be disappointed. If you were a fan of She's A Weird Little Snack, you'll love Go-Go Fish! If you weren't a fan of She's A Weird Little Snack, you'll love Go-Go Fish! Cher is on an East Coast tour right now with Kill Creek. Give me a call for dates and info. Glazed Baby is still tearin' it up on the road. They will be in the Southeast in mid November, Give me a call for more info. Thanks to Dave at KNON and Jared at KRUX for the Glazed Baby shows in Dallas and El Paso! I'm sure I'll be talking to you all soon, until then play Cher U.K.

Bill & Randy, "The Mint Boys", Mint Records, Vancouver, BC CANADA 604.669.MINT Hello again, all you out there. Yes, "The Mint Boys" are back, and with a peck of new releases either already out or almost ready. First off, please tell us what you think of Another Collection of Home Recordings from Lou Barlow & Friends, CD or double-7inch, either way this is a concise slice of Lou's solo material over the past three years and we hope you like it as much as we do. January 15 marks the release of Cub's second CD (or triple-7inch) Come Out, Come Out. 13 all-new songs, artwork by Nickelodeon's Fiona Smyth, and a truckload of good foolin's all in one. O yah-lanuary 15 is also Coming of Age day in Japan. Finally, keep yer eyes on the skies for the February II release of Cool Way To Feel, the debut full-lenghther from our very own Pluto. These boys have been makin' waves all over this land with their two seven inch releases "Rockcandy" and "Deathstar" and this CD is guaranteed to be one smooth, satisfyin' smoke. Please write for more info! Catch Pluto on tour 11/19-12/03 on the US Wet Coast! Thee Smugglers on tour of thee USA in November & December! Call us if you need anything, and thanks to everyone who put us up (and put up with us) on Cub's last US tour! Have Fun!

Dan "Don't Call Me Don" Armonaitis,
Music Director, WGKR, Jersey City, N.J. 201.200.3556

Thanks CMJ gods for misprinting my name in my virgin dialogue. I'll be sure my father gets all those messages for Don Armonaitis. In heavy rotation at WDAN, broadcasting within the confines of my apartment: R.E.M., Day Of Reckoning (you've got to see these guys rip through R.E.M.'s "You're My Everything" live), Motocaster, Scarce, Black Train Jack, D Generation, Jeffrey Gaines, Mercy Rule, Seed, Samiam, and anything by Kiss (was it just me or were Gene Simmons and Paul Stanley the two most intelligent people at CMJ?). Oh yeah, I'd also like to say "hi" to my buddies Jeff and T.J. at WPLS and Yigal at Interscope. Till next time, take care and God bless ya!

Mike Siciliano, Alternative M.D., WCWP, Brookville, NY 516.299.2626 Over 725 miles of driving for this pre-Halloween weekend as my boy turns ONE YEAR OLD! I said my happy birthdays two weeks ago, but hey, it's cool to say it twice! Happy Birthday Nick! I love you Marcie. Okay, down to business. A hello goes to the newbie at Atlantic, Carolyn. You must have arrived at the right time, with HUGE rebounds from Bad Religion, Hootie & the Blowfish, and Collective Soul. B.R.'s "Digital Boy," Hootie's "Hold My Hand," and C Soul's "Heaven's Already Here" are topping the alternative request charts for the past week, and I would like to say this: I LIKE IT! I LIKE IT! Since I was out last week, I'm going to make this short as I catch up. I'll end with this: WHAT THE HELL IS WRONG WITH THE NEW YORK GIANTS??? (If anyone cares).

Steve MacIsaac, Music Director, CKDU, Halifax, NS 902.494.6479 Despite what CMJ insists on printing at the top of our reports, Lucas Pearse is no longer the music director here at CKDU. I now have the honour of holding this esteemed position, and have Wednesdays & Fridays from 12:00-5:00 Atlantic Standard Time; I am here at other times, but not consistently, so I recommend you call during tracking hours because my budget for long distance telephone calls is almost non-existent and I probably won't call you back. If you want to set up telephone interviews, I'm the person to contact, feel free to call during the aforementioned office hours and I'm sure we can set something up. We'll be doing a mailout of our programming guide soon, so keep watching your mailbox. Ciao.

[New info noted, Mr. MacIsaac. Other new music directors or new specialty directors are advised to inform CMJ of changes in personnel when reporting Monday or Tuesday, or via fax at anytime during the week. Completing CMJ's radio station questionnaire can also help us improve the accuracy of our printed information. Call us if you haven't received one.—ed.] Annalisa Morrison, WDWN, Auburn, NY 315.255.1743 ext. 284 Here at Win-89 FM I'm a big music slut because I like it all! Right now I'm especially enjoying Soul Coughing, Love And Rockets, Cranes and Waterlillies. I still can't get enough Underworld, it's so-oo-oo delicious! Just put that hot little number on repeat and you'll keep going and going like the Energizer bunny! Others that are doing good things for me: Front Line Assembly, Bigod 20, D Generation, and Po' Boy Swing's "Baby Make Me Feel" (hi Dave R.). That reminds me—I'm swinging once again, so my office hours are changing to Wednesday (12-2) and Thursday (10-12)—so call me up, have that Underworld CD on repeat and just say go.

"Doc" Scott Pacyna, Music Director, WRBU, Peoria, IL 309.677.2231 Hello from corn land! We are a small cable-cast station which has languished in mediocrity in the past (yes, I am an English major) which is now trying to establish itself in the college radio community. I don't want to drop a billion names, but I do want to thank those people at places like AIM Marketing, Capitol, Warner Bros., Radioactive, etc. who have already been a great help to us. To all of the other companies who I have been getting in touch with, we could use all of the help that we can get. Although we are mainly an alternative station, we also do have specialty shows for metal, urban, '80's and jazz. We are already getting plenty of stuff for metal, and we are planning on reporting on a regular basis for that. We would also like to report for jazz, but we have not received any CDs in that area. If you are interested in sending jazz CDs to us, please call me at the number above and let me know. Also, we are very interested in putting on some concerts whenever we can, so if your band is looking for somewhere to play at between St.

Louis and Chicago, we'd be interested. That's it for now. If you need to get in contact with me, you can reach me at the number above Monday, Wednesday, and Friday from I to 3 p.m., or e-mail me at furball@camelot.bradley.edu. Thanks.

WDET Detroit, Music Department,

313.577.4146 In the spirit of Deep Forest arrives Nomad. This release from "down under" is a more recent hybrid of aborigines and hiphop, nicely maintaining some of the traditional and almost primitive aspects of the music. And speaking of hybrids, Capercaillie fuses celtic and pop with a hiphop feel-it grooves right along. And for a damn good dose of the blues, Buddy Guy's latest is not to be missed... Marisa Monte's new CD, Rose and Charcoal (Metro Blue), is one of our favorite releases of the of the last few weeks. Marisa is a South American vocalist and this album features Laurie Anderson, Gilberto Gil, Bernie Worrell and Arto Lindsay. Check out her version of the Velvet Underground's "Pale Blue Eye's"...Okeh-Epic recording artist Keb' Mo' stopped by the station for a live performance at the end of October. This man is a true performer and he blew away the crowd last night at his first area performance. If you pass up a chance to see Keb' Mo' perform live then you'd better have your lid examined...We can be reached via internet. You can contact Ann (adelisi), Martin (mbandyke) or Jason (jschuste) individually or all at once (#music): (name) @wdet.wayne.edu

One of America's great vocalists, Maria Muldaur returns with Meet Me At Midnite (BT 1107), a woman-wise, Memphisminded masterpiece, laced with sultry southern grit. Confessions of love, spirituality and passion resonate powerful in works by Alan Toussaint, Rick Vito, Rory Block, Tracy Nelson and Marty Grebb. Produced by John Porter.

LOUD ROCK DIALOGUE

Jon Nardachone, Atlantic Records, New York, NY 212.275.2135 It's hard to believe I'm still alive...six days, seven towns, 1600 miles and two bottles of amphetamines with the hardest working band in America, Savatage, is something that might have killed an average man, but those who shared the experience in Los Angeles, Las Vegas, Phoenix, Albuquerque, Abilene and Dallas are by no means normal! Thanx to the following super-humans for keeping me safe and sound: my partner in crime, Devastation's Rob Conner-a man of many words who managed to give Zachary Stevens the "black flu," Alex Skolnick a headache and Jon Oliva a coronary; Janie "Let's Dine In Jersey" Hoffman; the king of the kind bud, KNAC's Malcolm Ryker; the king of L.A. Greg Sorrels; Stephanie from RIP; Johnny Worm; Jon Goldwater; Angelica Cobb; Johnny Lee Middleton, who jinxed us in Vegas; the Palamino Casino; whoever the slamming early morning jock is on KUNV; all the folks at the heaviest station I've ever heard, KZRX, especially Vickie Cooper; Brian Curry and KZRQ; the girls in Fifth Column; the Texas legend Joey Jones of KEYJ (you're headed for the big time brother!); Kelly Rush; Linda Hollar; Floyd; Lori G.; Dawn Harrison; Kira; the mighty Z-Rock gang, including Michelle, Alan, Tim Boeder, Craig, Traci and especially Jim Coda; Duane Doherty (Happy B-Day Bones); the fantastic Cindy Scull and the rest of the KEGL crew; Lorenzo Banda; Jeff Plate; the spirit of Criss Oliva; and my hero, Zack Stevens, whose Columbo and Barney impressions will never get old. Here's to all the bands who got us through the many, many miles of desert and oil fields: Deep Purple, C.O.C., Kyuss, Melvins, Samiam, Testament, Slayer, Dream Theater, Rush, Core, Korn, Monster Magnet, Flipper, Clutch, Black Flag and, of course,

E.J. Johantgen, Columbia Records, New York, NY 212.833.4989 Murder was the case that they gave me... The Godflesh video shoot with the infamous artist Andre Serano went down last weekend and I can't wait to see the finished product. Rave reviews from every end of the spectrum are coming in on the Selfless album. Danzig/Type O tour begins soon. Corrosion Of Conformity—what more needs to be said? Thanks to all who have continued to support 'em. We have only just begun. Nativity In Black continues to be a smash. An edited version of "After Forever" from Biohazard is coming. Hey kidders, why ain't you playing Sponge's "Plowed?"

Smitty, Epic Records, New York, NY 212.833.5988 Guess what I'm gonna talk about?! That's right, Korn. Kudos go out to all the supporters—thank you, for we are now firmly situated Top 10! New band, four weeks, Top 10 (I told ya!) You know all the big boys are sweating (watch your backs, fellas, it's Top 5 next). Let's do this, damn it! Now, to all you clueless individuals, it's really quite simple...play Korn, the phones ring, your listeners love you, I'm happy, you're happy. What's so hard about that? Tour dates to be announced next week, or you can always call. Don't be afraid, we won't bite. We'll hook you up with giveaways, other info, etc... Get it, got it? Good. Arcade is on tour, Prong is jammin' too, go see 'em. One last word—if you are playing Pearl Jam, please give them the credit they're due. No need for official adds, just report 'em if you're playing them (a great idea, eh?). C-ya!

Tommy Delaney, Virgin Records, New York, NY 212.586.7700 Yo metal mongers! BC is now live and in full effect. Not only do you now possess three, count 'em, three very clean versions of "Necessary Evil," "Who Are You" and "Masters Of Revenge," but you have the band in your face! U.S. dates are as follows: 11/8 Washington, DC, 9:30 Club; 11/9 Baltimore, MD, Hammerjack's; 11/10 NYC, Limelight; 11/11 Providence, RI, The Strand; 11/14 L.A., Glam Slam; and

San Francisco, CA at Slim's! If you are, by chance, in one of these lucky markets and would like to be involved in some small way, get on the fucking horn and give me a shout! Play the hell out of the new edits as well. Gilby Clarke is now on tour and playing dates everywhere! Get on the new single, "Tijuana Jail," it is an absolute smoker! Gilby is simply top notch. Please contact me if you would like tix to any shows or interviews and stuff. Let me know! And hey, the Pumpkins still rock too, ya know? There are a few heavy gems on Pisces Iscariot, so turn the fucker up! New on the rock horizon for '95-Urban fucking Dance Squad! If you were one of those people who were just devastated when the ball was fumbled on these guys a couple of years ago, fret fucking not! This band has delivered THE album of their career. Persona Non Grata is, without a question, the best thing that these guys have ever recorded. The summer of '95 will belong to UDS. So it is written, so it shall be done.

Maria Abril, Metal Blade Records, Simi Valley, CA 805.522.9111 Mercyful Fate #1 added! Thank you. Make it #1 overall now. Fates Warning on tour with Dream Theater. AOR should be starting on "Pale Fire" and metal folks can sink their teeth into "Monument." Speaking of sinking your teeth into something, Peter Steele, hey hey hey. Was that rude? Generation's Brutal Reality and Clawfinger's "I Need You." Gwar on the road and in the Beavis & Butt-Head video game! Chemlab remixes and Ten Ton Pressure. Tell one and all. Dave Lombardo's Grip Inc. is signed to The Blade. Who's better than us?

Munsey Ricci/John LaRosa, Skateboard Marketing, Ltd., Volley Streom, NY 516.328.1103 Once again, thanks to Stu, Ken, Vern and the crew and all the WROQ staff for the fine Southern hospitality. You rule. So yo, how about our records. The Body Count tour is in your face. Dig on the re-mixes because they're clean. Drown is doing 80% for this tour. Don't miss them live. The Ex-Idols are climbing most of your playlists. There will be a second track coming your way. Groovezilla shorts with a dope leaf, Ozzy said it all with "Sweet Leaf." Leviathan giveaways are in from Europe and we have them. Megadeth kicks ass. Look at the MTV taping and you'll see the Munz in the pit. Now that's a beautiful thing. Monster Voodoo Machine is the shit, dig on the record. Overdose CDs are in this week. Sorry about the delay if you did not get one. Now you will have it the end of the week. Sick Of It All is NYHC to the max. Support this band in the biggest way. And yes, they're on the road. W.A.S.P. will work on your show. As we always say, "Support what you play." Report it as well because the artist needs your support.

Marc Stone, Pure Rock TV. Philadelphia, PA 215.638.8859 Welcome to another edition of Pure Rock TV's word on the street. The only place to get an honest opinion about our industry! On the street this week...bad news. As a national provider of the latest hard rock and metal videos to kids, Pure Rock TV set its sights on Tower Records this Halloween, you know the place that's supposed to be the only hip retail chain in the country? The place where kids can line up the night before a record is released and buy it at midnight. This week's real life horror story took place at Philadelphia's own Tower Records. The kids are lining up anxiously awaiting the release of the new Megadeth record, our cameras are rolling and midnight has finally arrived. Only this Halloween Tower Records has left trick or treaters with a sour taste in their mouths. They're closed! No new Megadeth for these fans. Kids are in tears, their hopes of hearing another CD worth of Dave Mustaine anthems destroyed. Thank god ! had my trusty Youthanasia pre-release on me, so at least I could give them a sample of the new record. Tower, the band's fault. I guess Tower has finally sold out, they failed their fans! I say fuck 'em and support your mom and pop stores from now on! Hopefully it's just another tragedy prevented during Pure Rock TV's pursuit of truth, justice and the heavy metal way! Until next week, happy retailing!

The Tink, WVUD, Newark, DE 302.798.0144 And here's the one of me with Ice-T and Ernie C. That's so cool that Ice would smile for the picture. And her's me at the Biohazard pool party, as you can tell, I'm one out of the other four people that didn't get thrown in the pool. Hey, wait! I'm in the wrong medium. You can't see these pictures of me at FF '94, can you? Oh, I feel like such a slub, I guess you'll just have to catch me in person for the pix. Here's an update on that Acid Bath gig I spoke of before: It's another tough decision. I had to face going up to NYC for a last minute Megadeth dealie (which, I might add, had all the big guns in attendance, plus the pop guns, water guns and a couple of stun guns). Well, Spike, Ron and the whole Rotten Records team had set it up earlier and that's where I ended up. I took an Acid Bath and loved it. The band is young and have been together for three years and are intent on dementing all audiences they play to. That's a recommendation to go see 'em if they blow through your burg or burb (and that's from a guy who is out in the clubs a lot and went to see a band, not an album cover).

Greg Derbas, Pavement Music, Oakbrook Terrace, IL 708.916.1155 You'll all be happy to know that we are not putting out any more new material this year. That's right. I know you're all swamped with a gagillion titles on your desk, but here are a few that might catch your ear. Of course, they're all mine. First off is New Idol Son's Reach, If you are not playing "Butterfly," you must be wacked out on drugs. The response has been phenomenal. These San Fran boys will be making their move with a video in the works and an upcoming tour with The Organization. How about B-Thong. These bashers from Sweden definitely hit below the belt. Just ask WMWM, KMSA, WFCS, WDBM, KWUR and WNYO to name a few. Check out "Schizophrenic Pavement" or "Fatal Accusation." Don't deny your listeners. Remember you're there for them. Headlock's "Too Much Power" should be all over your airwaves. The requests are pouring in. Start off your weekend right with Scatterbrain's "Beer Muscles." A tour is just around the corner. Speaking of tours, check out Fear Of God with Grave and Incantation. Meet Dawn face to face. Call for tickets and interviews.

Zach "Naked Boy" Lanier, Energy Records, New York, NY 800.235.5678 Winter sucks. I hate being cold. If I could run around all day in a little breechcloth embroidered with a nice floral pattern, I'd do it in a heartbeat. Every morning is a rebirth. First, you're nice and warm, snug in your womb of cotton and down, pleasant dreams floating through your pre-conscious mind like clouds through a New York City sunset, chemical laden horizon throwing a brilliant spectrum through the sky. Then you are awakened, thrown out into the cold before your time, expelled like a virus by the very bed which cared for you for so long. If sleep is a little taste of death, then awakening has the scent of the reborn. Good-bye sweet futon, farewell lovely comforter, au revoir dear pillow. parting is such sweet sorrow. As we part with our beds, so do we part with our friends. They all gather their stuff and go on tour. The Pro-Pain/M.O.D. tour continues to roll across the continent, waking up in strange places with strange people. Bile re-awakens in December with Gwar and Planet Hate continues to cross the planet with Fates Warning. Larva also has some dates out there, cocooned away in their traveling van. Wake me up for a date or tickets near you.

you owe me! See, these kids don't understand. They think it's

FRED "SONIC" SMITH DEAD AT 45

Fred "Sonic" Smith, formerly of the MC5 and the husband of Patti Smith, died of a heart attack in St. John's Hospital in Detroit on Saturday, November 5, 1994. Since their breakup, the MC5 have endured as one of the most influential bands of punk rock throughout the decades, and they left behind a legacy of three albums released during their existence in the late '60s and early '70s (Kick Out The Jams, Back In The USA and High Time), as well as numerous posthumous legal and illegal live releases.

NEW LABELS

American Recordings has started a new sub-label called Onion Records, which will be distributed independently through R.E.P./Rykodisc, along with American's new Infinite Zero re-issues label and select developing American artists.

There is an odd, sometimes unfortunate paradox at work when an artist reaches pop-icon status: an artist's defining moment can also halt artistic evolution, because it might alienate newfound fans. From start to finish, Dionne Farris' voice is the common thread uniting a wide spectrum of black music on her superb debut, Wild Seed-Wild Flower (named after a sci-fi novel by Octavia Butler). While her road to prominence crosses many musical borders, Farris hopes her fans will be free of musical prejudice and supportive of artistic individuality. "I don't think music should be categorized," she explains. "It almost makes people seem like idiots. You can't understand jazz and then go to a rock song? What's the problem with your comprehension? I don't know if [it's] the people or the record industry or whomever, they second guess people a lot of times. There are people out there who listen to music that are very ignorant."

> Farris' album avoids categorization by embracing a diverse, panurban design that'll make programmers and marketing departments tear out their remaining strands of hair, and leave listeners guessing. "I really wanted to have different types of music a part of my album because that's who I was and where I am in music: I listen to a lot of different music," reveals the young, spirited vocalist/songwriter. Stringing together soul, rock, R&B. hip-hop, blues and nearly every other style of black music, Farris arrives at an indiscriminate beauty that is sorely lacking in our format-heavy, prepackaged surroundings. "A lot of people were saying 'You can't do that, you're gonna confuse people. You have to get on a track and stay that way," says Dionne. "I said I have to start out the way I want to end up."

A former backup singer for Arrested Development (her voice highlights "Tennessee"), Dionne reflects on how she met and departed from the group: "I was with the same management company. They were looking for a singer, and they were actually looking for a large woman. I was really into it and they asked me to be a part of it. I really wanted to see what I could do on my own, but I thought this might be a good chance for me to get heard," says the 25-year-old Farris. "I became very frustrated. Things [within the group] were kinda just done. It's like being in a household where your parents say, 'Do as I say, not as I do.' I just don't work that way. I had to leave." The retrospective song "IIth Hour" was written shortly after her departure.

Out on her own, and riddled with self-doubt, Farris used the writing and recording of Wild Seed... to investigate her own soul, reflections which appear on "Reality" and "Find Your Way." While her voice glides over raucous terrain on "Passion" and stark, soulful plains on "Food For Thought," Dionne sounds stronger and empowered, almost enlightened, by her own discoveries, by the record's end. "When writing these songs, I was totally by myself. I had a lot of time to sit and listen to myself and talk to myself. I love what came out. It definitely empowered me to be a woman in this business surrounded by men. It lets me step up and say I can do that, too." Farris' voice is warm, enriched with a gospel-imbued soul that sounds hauntingly familiar, but never obvious. The a capella song "Human," with its refrain of "Before I am African, I am human," rivals Bobby McFerrin for its sparse ingenuity. Unearthing a like-minded universal theme, Dionne sees her rendition of the Beatles' "Blackbird" as a personal anthem. "It really is an anthem for this album. It's time for you to get on your own feet, that's what that song means to me. Nobody can help you. It has to come from you."

Breaking the emotional tension is comedian/actor David Alan Grier (of In Living Color), who plays character roles on "Old Ladies" and the gut-busting "The Audition." "It was so much fun," Dionne recalls. "He's so hilarious and modest. We had to do ["The Audition"] five times 'cause we cracked up every time." By the end of our conversation, we stumbled upon the real source of Dionne's strong, spiritual and insightful nature. In an eager, almost embarrassed voice she reveals: "You know what? I was named after Dionne Warwick. I swear to God!" Any chance of Farris starting her own Psychic Hotline? "Don't say that!! I'm like, 'Dionne, what are you doing?! You're my namesake...stop it!"
