SICK OF IT ALL

FCC Proposes Low-Power FM Rules

The Federal Communications Commission has proposed new rules to license 1000-watt and 100watt low-power FM radio stations. The Commission is also seeking comments about establishing a third "microradio" class at levels from 1-10 watts. In its Notice Of Proposed Rulemaking adopted January 28, the FOC expressed the need to "provide new opportunities for community-oriented radio broadcasting, foster opportunities for new radio broadcast ownership and promote additional diversity in radio voices and program services, while protecting the integrity of the spectrum." The FCC said that it received more than 13,000 inquiries in the last year from groups and individuals interested in starting low-power stations, although no figures were available about the expected number of new low-power FM stations that could be licensed under the proposed rules. The FCC's move to license low-power radio would diversify the airwaves, unlike the current consolidation trend in commercial radio. Likely candidates for low-power licenses include high schools and colleges, community groups, religious groups and individuals. The FCC said that it would work on measures to prevent new low-power stations from interfering (continued on page 15)

Atlantic Dealing New 'Dose' From Latin Playboys

Latin

By Steve Ciabattoni

When the Playboys released their self-titled debut in 1994 on Slash Records it critically was praised, and the band has since earned a growing cult following. The deviously

David Hidalgo and Louie Perez of Los Lobos and the production duo of Mitchell Froom (Cibo Matto) and Tchad Blake (Soul Coughing) was one of the most unexpected and adventurous "all-star" projects of the decade. With the March 2 release of Dose, Atlantic Records hopes to build on that critical acclaim.

SICK OF IT ALL Call To Arms (Fat Wreck Chords)

When it comes to New York City hardcore, few bands can match Sick Of It All's longevity, hard work and sheer persistence. With Call To Arms, the 13-year-old punk mainstay follows up its short-lived major label stint by returning to its indie roots, this time on the San Francisco-based label Fat Wreck Chords. Thankfully, this new association with the West Coast hasn't softened or compromised the band's traditionalist sound at all. Call To Arms thrashes away in SOIA's well-respected NYC hardcore style, maintaining the buzzing guitar riffs, pummeling bass lines and jackhainmer drumming that has become the band's trademark. This album's one divergence from the band's past efforts, however, is its noticeable of stylings. Frontman Lou Koller spits out his raspy vocals with urgency and rage, and the shoutalong choruses are both fierce and chilling. Call To Arms' songs come from the gut - anthems in the truest sense, flexing championship muscles that have been pumped up by working class bravado and street punk pride. - Kelso Jacks

A nasty contract war with an exlabel put XTC on ice for seven years, ultimately costing Apple Venus one of her limbs when Dave Gregory left before the album's completion. The long-awaited album, however, emerges as a ray of light after all that foul weather. Focusing on acoustic instruments and symphonic arrangements, Andy Partridge and Colin Moulding have created an album of refined ambition, employing detailed and decorous arrangements while taking care not glop too much make-up on the songs' pretty faces. The playful, galloping "I'd Like That" ranks with Partridge's most hummable ditties, while the adventurous "River Of Orchids" shows a new wrinkle in his genius, crisscrossing three nursery rhyme melodies atop a pulsing score. Moulding's music-hall musings on smalltown suburbia ("Fruit Nut" and "Frivolous Tonight") owe as much to Rodgers/Hammerstein as they do Lennon/McCartney. While to XTC's snap-crackle electric guitar work has made way for more "grown-up" instrumentation on Apple Venus, Partridge's toothy wit has not been filed down; the scathing "Your Dictionary" will make you very glad indeed that you are not the former Mrs. Partridge. – Steve Ciabattoni

SAM PREKOP Sam Prekop (Thrill Jockey)

Sam Prekop writes songs filled with subtle beauty. His wistful guitar melodies and gentle voice are already quite familiar to fans of Chi-town faves Shrimp Boat and the Sea And Cake, but the work contained on his solo debut marks an evolutionary step for the multi-faceted musician. Sam Prekop is as close as any of Chicago's brainy "post-rockers" come to singer-songwriterdom. Eschewing the keyboards, drum grooves and studio effects that marked the Sea And Cake's later work, Prekop takes a more organic approach, employing delicate guitar interplay, resonant bass and minimal percussion. As fragile as the melodies sound, they never fail to exude an intimate warmth. Prekop's tasteful support cast, which includes album producer/guitarist Jim O'Rourke, Archer Prewitt, guitarist trumpeter Rob Mazurek and violinist/violist Julie Pomerleau, is careful not to crowd the singer. Trumpet and upright bass generate a distinctly jazzy vibe, and the shimmying bossa nova rhythms deepen the album's acoustic smarts, adding seductive rhythms throughout. — Tad Hendrickson

PRINCE PAUL

A Prince Among Thieves (Tommy Boy) Prince Paul doesn't need the ambitious, cinematic A Prince Among Thieves to solidify his status as one of hip-hip's most ingenious visionaries: he produced De La Soul's 3 Feet High And Rising and De La Soul Is Dead, he established the (now requisite) betweensong skit; and his imaginative sampling introduced new, whimsical elements to rap's previously staid soundscapes. A Prince Among Thieves, Paul's second solo outing, is his most audacious accomplishment yet — a two-disc realization of his self-penned screenplay, complete with a seedy (and often comical) cast of hustlers, hookers, cops and inmates. Underground New York rappers Sha and Breeze portray the story's two main characters, while De La Soul, Everlast, Chubb Rock, Kool Keith, RZA and Big Daddy Kane, among others, fill out the rest of the cast. But despite A Prince Among Thieves' high concept (and its sheer length), Paul's unwavering vision manages to succeed as both an R-rated radio play and a compelling hiphop experiment, intertwining the genre's time-honored narrative qualities with Paul's boundaryhopping work behind the boards. - Colin Helms

Belle & Sebastian Recording New Album, To Reissue 'Tigermilk'

Glasgow, Scotland, pop band Belle & Sebastian is cur rently recording its fourth album, which Jeepster Records tentatively plans to release late this summer in the U.K. The band's U.S. label, Matador Records, said it will release the album concurrently with Jeepster. Jeepster also plans to release a three-song single before the full-length, but Matador said it probably would not issue that single domestically. In more good news for the band's fans, both labels are planning to re-release the band's out-of-print debut album, Tigermilk, probably this spring. Belle & Sebastian recorded Tigermilk in 1996, and a Stow College music class released only

1,000 vinyl copies of the album. In addition to their work in B&S, several band members are also busy with side projects. Bassist Stuart David's electronic/spoken word project Looper will release its debut album, Up In A Tree, on Sub Pop Records on March 8. Also, cellist/vocalist Isobel Campbell has recorded an album under the name the Gentle Waves. Jeepster describes the work as "'60s influenced pop-folk." Jeepster will release a Gentle Waves' 7" on March 22, followed by the debut album The Green Fields Of Foreverland. A spokesman for Matador said no one at the label had heard Campbell's album and thus Matador had no current plans to release it. Belle & Sebastian is also nominated for a 1999 Brit Award for Best Newcomer. BBC Radio One listeners will vote for the winner.

Muslimgauze's Bryn Jones Dies At Age 35

Avant-garde composer Bryn Jones, who recorded under the name Muslimgauze, died on January 14 at the age of 35. Jones had been rushed to a hospital in his hometown of Manchester, England, on December 30. Tests revealed that Jones has a rare fungal infection in his bloodstream, weakening his immune system and causing him to contract a severe case of pneumonia. Jones started his incredibly prolific career as Muslimgauze in 1982 and released more than 90 albums, most on the Staalplaat, Limited, Extreme and Soleilmoon labels. Soleilmoon has just released his most recent album, Hussein Mahmood Jeeb Tehar Gass, and the label plans to release two works posthumously, Fakir Sind and Hand Of Fatima, in March. Muslimgauze's instrumentals mix percussive grooves and Middle Eastern-influenced sounds.

Mute To Release Can Music, Book, Video Set

Mute Records will celebrate Can's 30th anniversary by releasing a multimedia set. Can Box, due May 18. will include a double CD of live recordings from 1971-1977. Band members Michael Karoli and Irmin Schmidt compiled the discs, which include four previously unreleased tracks. Also, Can Box will include a book edited by Can's manager Hildegard Schmidt, as well as a video that will include live footage and a documentary. Additionally, all four of Can's original members -Holger Czukay, Jaki Liebezeit, Schmidt and Karoli - will play four shows in Germany in March. The dates won't include a genuine Can "reunion," instead showcasing each member's solo projects. The influential Krautrock group formed in Cologne, Germany, in 1968.

Amazon.com Reports 4Q Sales Of $252.9M

Amazon.com reported fourth quarter sales of $252.9 million, compared with $66 million last year. The online retailer posted a fourth quarter pro forma operating loss of $17.8 million, compared to an operating loss of $11.3 million last year. Amazon.com said its customer accounts rose by more than 1.7 million during the quarter, bringing the total to 6.2 million. Amazon's music sales were $33.1 million during the fourth quarter of 1998. Because the company started selling music during 1998, a comparable figure isn't available for 1997. Its music sales were $14.4 million in the third quarter of 1998.

CARTIST SPOTLIGHT POLE

Interview by David Day

By day, Stephan Betke works as an engineer at the legendary Chain Reaction Studios in Berlin. During his downtime, however, Bethe flips on his 4-Pole Waldorf Filter and becomes Pole. With a palette of whimsical crackles and dead-serious bass, Pole creates astonishingly dense dubscapes. Matador Records will issue his first two U.S. releases, CD1 and CD2, on February 23. CMJ talked to Betke from his studio in Berlin.

CMJ: What exactly is a Pole filter?

Betke: It's very small. It's like a half of a piece of paper. And it's normally used to put analogue sound through a filter. You can change the character of a sound with it, normally (laughs). But this one is broken. It fell down to the floor and it broke and it doesn't work. You switch it on and it makes this "krrtch, scritch" crackle and that's all.

How did it break?

Friends of mine stayed in my flat [for] one week, and we did shows together and they wanted to make a present for me... And in the moment they gave it to me, it fell down. And they said, "Oh no! I can't give it to you now, it's broken!" And I said, "Forget about it, I'll bring it to the shop and make a repair, and it's no problem." And after that I listened to it and said, "Oh, I want to use it this way. It's much better."

You create pretty strange music. How do people react to it?

When I'm playing live, nearly every time, when I start [to] sound check, the sound engineer comes to me and says, "Stop it! Stop it! Stop it! The P.A. is broke!" And I'm saying, "No, don't worry about it, it's me, I'm doing this." [He says,] "No! Impossible! You can't play this way!"

It's almost as if you and the filter are equals.

No, no, no, no, no, no. It's an instrument. Everyone is asking me about this unit and everyone is mystifying it. But it is definitely only a synthesizer, nothing more. It broke! It's my luck that this unit makes this sound and I can use it for my music. But maybe tomorrow I will find a sound that is much more interesting than this one, and I will work with it. But for me, it's not a mystic thing. It's only a unit, and I'm using it, and that's all.

Whiskeytown Recording New Album

Whiskeytown has started recording a new album at Dreamland Studios in Woodstock, New York. The band has already recorded more than 40 tracks for its follow-up to 1997's Strangers Almanac.

Singer-songwriter/guitarist Ryan Adams said the new recordings are still committed to "American rock" styles while also showcasing more sophisticated arrangements and compositions.

Adams has added Wurlitzer organ and piano to the new songs, and he said that he is "letting the music convey the emotions I used to depend on the lyrics to spell out." In addition to greater songwriting contributions from fiddle player/vocalist Caitlin Cary, the upcoming album also includes guest work from Smashing Pumpkins guitarist James Iha. Ethan Johns (son of famed producer Glyn Johns) is producing the album, and Trina Shoemaker (Sheryl Crow) is engineering. The album, tentatively titled Go Bye Bye Music, is scheduled for release on Outpost Recordings in late summer. Whiskeytown formed in 1994 in Raleigh, North Carolina, but Adams recently relocated to New York City.

Blues Pianist Charles Brown Dies At Age 76

Blues pianist Charles Brown, best known for his Christmas compositions "Merry Christmas Baby" and "Please Come Home For Christmas," died of congestive heart failure on January 21. Brown, 76, passed away in his sleep at Summit Medical Center in Oakland, California. Brown, who performed solo and with Johnny Moore And The Three Blazers, is scheduled to be inducted into the Rock 'n' Roll Hall Of Fame on March 15. Earlier in January, Bonnie Raitt, John Lee Hooker, Charlie Musselwhite and Maria Muldaur performed a benefit concert in San Francisco to help cover Brown's medical bills. Brown made a surprise appearance at the event in a rolling bed.

Guitarist Jimmy Domengeaux Killed In Motorcycle Accident

Guitarist Jimmy Domengeaux, of the bands Black Dog and Steve Riley And The Mamou Playboys, was killed in a motorcycle accident in southwestern Louisiana on January 25. Domengeaux, 44, had been performing for almost 38 years, and he also worked with acts such as Warren Storm, Cajun Heat, the Gumbo Cajun Band and Cheryl Cormier. "Jimmy was a gifted guitarist and a happy spirit," said Mamou Playboys Manager Peter Schwarz. "His smile and his high voltage solos lit up the stage wherever he played and his dynamic style was an integral part of our sound. He was also a caring friend and a brother on the road." Domengeaux is survived by his parents, three sisters, a brother and his nine-year-old daughter. Donations (to a trust fund for his daughter) can be sent to: Murphy or Annie Domengeaux, 210 East Bridge St., Breaux Bridge, LA 70517.

U2 and Salman Rushdie Collaborate On Song

Controversial author Salman Rushdie and U2 are working together to create a song entitled "The Ground Beneath Her Feet." The Irish rock band has taken lyrics from Rushdie's forthcoming novel of the same name and set them to music. The band hopes to include the romantic ballad, which has already been recorded in demo form, on its next album. U2 is also considering releasing the single via the Internet, to coincide with the April 13 publication of the novel.

The song is said to reconfigure the myth of Orpheus and Eurydice in a rock 'n' roll context. Rushdie told British newspaper The Guardian that "Bono and I have been friends for several years and I sent him the novel when I'd finished it, and he responded by coming up with this beautiful melody." This is the writer's second collaboration with U2. Rushdie appeared on stage with U2 during the 1993 Zoo TV tour in London. Rushdie has spent the last 10 years hiding under British police protection after late Iranian ruler Ayatollah Khomeni issued a religious edict to kill Rushdie for the book The Satanic Verses, claiming that Verses blasphemed Islam.

Go Kart Signs Anti-Flag, Down By Law

Go Kart Records signed has politically the charged punk rock bands Anti-Flag and Down By Law. Pittsburgh trio Anti-Flag released its debut album, Die For The Government, on New Red Archives. Go Kart will release the band's next album, A New Kind Of Army, in March. Down By Law, which recently parted with Epitaph Records, will release its Go Kart debut in April. Go Kart also plans to release a new studio album from the Lunachicks this year.

Hannibal Signs Loudon Wainwright

Hannibal Records has signed singer-songwriter Loudon Wainwright III. Wainwright is currently at work on his next project, an album based on political songs he has written for National Public Radio over the years. Hannibal expects to release the album in early summer. Virgin Records released Wainwright's 16th album, Little Ship, in 1998.

Jetset To Release 'Lost' Go-Betweens Album

Australian cult band the Go-Betweens will add a new album to its canon when Jetset Records releases an album of "lost" recordings from 1978 and 1979. The April 6 release, '78/'79 The Lost Album, includes studio recordings from 1979 that were never released after the band's deal with Beserkley Records fell through. The collection also includes two singles (and their B-sides) that were originally released by Able Lable in 1978 and 1979. The Go-Betweens recorded mainly during the late '70s and '80s. The band launched the solo careers of underground pop luminaries Robert Forster and Grant McLennan.

Add N To (X) Makes Music For MTV

The Mute Records trio Add N To (X) has recorded new original music that will accompany MTV's new show packaging that will begin airing February 1. The new show packages will be aired individually before all 13 parts are played together as one piece. The music won't be available on the London band's forthcoming new album, Avant Hard, which Mute will release April 20.

Phantom Planet Drummer Stars In 'Rushmore'

Jason Schwartzman, drummer for Geffen pop-rock band Phantom Planet, is garnering kudos for his work away from the kit. Schwartzman makes his acting debut in the acclaimed new film Rushmore as the lead role, Max. The Chicago Film Critics Association has named Schwartzman Most Promising Actor for his performance in Rushmore, which also stars Bill Murray and was voted best film of the year by Premiere, The New York Daily News and the Village Voice. Following fruitless casting calls across the nation, director Wes Anderson was introduced to Schwartzman after a casting director in San Francisco met him at a party thrown by Schwartzman's uncle, Francis Ford Coppola. Geffen released Phantom Planet's debut album, Phantom Planet Is Missing, in 1998. For more information on the film, visit www.rushmore-themovie.com.

Swing Festival Coming To Hawaii

Production company Monumental Pictures will unite swing bands old and new for its Spring Swing 99 festival, to be held April 3 at the Turtle Bay Hilton Resort in Oahu, Hawaii. Tony Bennett and the Count Basie Orchestra will headline the outdoor event, and other performers will include Royal Crown Revue, Cherry Poppin' Daddies, Indigo Swing and the Camaros. A live album will also be recorded at Spring Swing 99. Ticket prices range from $20-$75.

Graham Parker To Release Internet-Only Album

British singer-songwriter Graham Parker plans to release his next album exclusively on the Internet. Razor & Tie's Web site (www.razorandtie.com) will sell the upcoming collection Loose Monkeys, Spare Tracks And Lost Demos, starting March 15. The album, from Parker's own Up Yours label, includes 20 rarities recorded from 1983-1996. Parker selected the tracks himself.

Omad Productions Launches Label

Songwriter John DeNicola ("I've Had The Time Of My Life") and his partner Tommy Allen have expanded their production company, Omad Productions, into a record label. Omad Records has signed a national distribution deal with Never Records Group/Proper Distribution. The label will launch in April with the release of the Vegas Nerve's Killjoys Anonymous. The band features former members of Philadelphia pop band Idle Wilds. Omad Productions, which will maintain its existing relationship with Paradigm Records, has worked with the Sighs, Kara's Flowers and Bruce Henderson.

Advantix To Merge With Tickets.com

Ticketing technology and services company Advantix Inc. has announced plans to merge with Tickets.com. The merged company, to be called Tickets.com, will take advantage of Tickets.com's Internet presence as well as Advantix's established network of venues in the U.S., Canada and Europe. The company will also continue to develop and service Advantix's line of products, such as Artsoft and Sportsoft. "The new Tickets.com will unite the online entertainment marketplace, creating a forum where consumers, venues and advertisers will exchange information and conduct commerce," said W. Thomas Gimple, Advantix's President and CEO.

Providence, Rhode Island's Load Records recently issued You're Soaking In It - The Sounds And Smells Of Load Records. The liner notes claim that the album is "a sampler of artists on or related to Load Records...The purpose of this release is to get you to buy Load. So get to it." Fair enough. The compilation includes tracks by Astoveboat, Gerty Farish, Arab On Radar, Strawman, Oronaco Crash Suite and the now-defunct Thee Hydrogen Terrors.

Genre-Fest Volume One is a new compilation or comp-elation if you look at the fine print on the artwork - on lvy Records. An overview of the current state of creative music in the notoriously fertile Pacific Northwest, the disc features tracks by Harvey Danger, Faith & Disease, Hoover Cain, Melody Unit, Kill Switch...Klick, Vertigo Bus with Kristen Barry and nine others.

Drawing from the currently bubbling punk 👫 and post-hardcore bandpools, Songs For The Broken Hearted shows the ohof so-sensitive side groups such as Weston, Roadside Monument, Metroschifter, Mastodon, J Church and Jimmy Eat World. This Glue Factory Records compilation also includes 11 other songs for the dumped.

World Class Records recently released the soundtrack to the film Steam (Hamam: The Turkish Bath). In keeping with the motion picture's exotic and mysterious aura, the record includes traditional Turkish music, Sufi dervishes and modern ambient sounds by artists such as Trancendental, Agricantus and Secret.

The soundtrack to Blast From The Past, the new big-screen comedy starring Alicia Silverstone and Brendan Fraser, balances proven acts with up-and-coming talents. Available from Capitol Records, the album includes tracks by R.E.M., Everclear, Randy Newman and the Squirrel Nut Zippers, as well the efforts of newer names like Block, Tommy Henriksen and Sonichrome.

TVT Records, in conjunction with the Sci-Fi Channel, has collected enough "alien music" to create four volumes of Sci-Fi's Greatest Hits. The four discs, entitled The Final Frontier, Dark Shadows, The Uninvited and United Super Heroes Of America, survey some of TV greatest science fiction theme songs. Some reliable favorites include the themes from Spider Man, Star Trek, The Day The Earth Stood Still, Lost In Space, The X-Files and even Mork & Mindy.

To those of you who wish to immerse yourself in noise: Extreme Records salutes you! The Australian label is releasing Merzbox, a collection of music by one-man Japanese extremist Merzbow. The anthology spans Masami Akita's 1979-1997 "career" and it includes: 50 CDs, 30 of which are reissues, 20 of which are previously unreleased albums. As if that wasn't enough, the set also includes author Brett Woodward's Merzbook biography; the Merzrom, an enhanced CD providing fans with images, music and video clips; the Merzdallion, a two-sided bronze medallion inspired by the band; a T-shirt; a series of postcards featuring the band's artwork; stickers; a poster; and finally, a special rubber case and a custom-built wooden box to house all of the Merzparaphernalia. Non-completists could just buy the one-CD Merzbox Sampler.

America's worst stand-up man Neil Hamburger has released a new comedy album on Drag City. Left For Dead In Malaysia collects 28 bits with titles such as "Spice Girls," "Swingers' Parties," "Religious Humor" and "Necrophilia." The performer's alleged overseas tour, of course, allowed for the recording of this album, and the experience gave Hamburger the opportunity to baffle other cultures with his er... unique brand of humor.

Capricorn Records has reissued John Lee Hooker's Grammy-winning album The Healer. The classic blues release had been unavailable for more than five years. Highlights include the legendary guitarist's performances with Carlos Santana, Bonnie Raitt, Los Lobos, George Thorogood and Robert Cray.

Joanie Madden's second volume of Songs Of The Irish Whistle (Hearts Of Space) also features the sounds of other traditional instruments. Irish fiddle player Eileen Ivers, pianist John Boswell and sibling vocalists Mary and Frances Black make guest appearances on the album.

Legendary Los Angeles musician Chuck E. Weiss has issued a new album on the Slow River label. Weiss made a name for himself performing with the likes of Willie Dixon, Lightnin' Hopkins and Tom Waits, and Extremely Cool marks Weiss's first solo release in 18 years. Tom Waits, who also produced the album, contributes guest vocals, while Spyder Mittelman plays sax, John Herron plays keyboards and J.J. Holiday and Tony Gilkyson play guitar.

Dubd'sco Volumes 1 & 2 (RAS) contains new, 100% Jamaican dub versions of songs from two landmark Bunny Wailer albums. For this reconstructive project, Wailer's fans chose tracks such as "Roots Raddics," "Worly Girly" and "Rule This" from the albums Blackheart and Bunny Wailer Sings The Wailers.

Alternative Tentacles has compiled the entire catalog of Amsterdam-based, political hardcore outfit B.G.K. onto A Dutch Feast... The Complete Works Of Balthasar Gerards Commando. A 45-track CD clocks in at almost 80 minutes, and it collects the band's two albums, a single and compilation appearances.

Green Linnet has released Spellbound - The Best Of Sharon Shannon, which contains 21 tracks by the popular Irish accordianist. A live version of "The Mighty Sparrow" and five newly recorded songs are among the highlights. Donal Lunny produced most of the record, but Mike Scott (of the Waterboys) and Adam Clayton (of U2) also twiddled a knob or two.

Vox, featuring Fadia El-Hage, recently released a concept album called Divine Rites (World Class). Using vocals, synthesizers and guitars, the group recreates the chants of the early Christian women who lived in the Middle Eastern desert. Composer Vladimir Ivanoff's modern electronic instrumentation updates these passionate pieces, which borrow Jewish and Muslim melodies.

Fans of the Mighty Blue Kings can now take home one of the pumpblues/swing band's energetic live performances. Available from Red Ink, Live From Chicago was recorded on August 15,

1998, at the Windy City's Cabaret Metro. The record includes raucous versions of "Buzz Buzz Buzz," "Rag Mop," "Little Too Late," "Grinnin' Like A Chessy Cat" and others. ◆

The National Association of Broadcasters expressed concern about such interference on "an already-congested radio band," and about how new stations could impede the transition to digital radio. coalition is to use its open-standard enhancements of digital music formats such as MP3 to "provide digital authentication of the origin and ownership of music." Members of the coalition will display a "Genuine Music" logo in every legitimately encoded piece of content, whether it is sold or freely distributed over the Internet, allowing consumers to clearly distinguish between pirated and approved content. "Liquid Audio's proposal to make the tools and technology available at no cost," said Michael Robertson, CEO of MP3.com, "shows an understanding of the importance of standardization and demonstrates a real commitment to the future of digital music."

The formation of the coalition follows the recent launch of the Secure Digital Music Initiative (SDMI), announced last December by the leaders major labels, the RIAA and software developers. While not directly related to the SDMI, Liquid Audio assures that its coalition "will be fully aligned with the goals, principles and efforts" of the SDMI. Support for the new "Genuine Music" standard will initially be available in both Liquid Audio and MP3 formats. ◆ other dates are expected to be added. Monster Magnet will open the shows. The tour announcement follows Manson's recent public slagging of Courtney Love in British music weekly the NME. "Courtney never bothered to say hi to me until I sold a million records," he said. "She's an opportunist, and I wouldn't consider her a friend." The tour marks the first full-scale tour either Marilyn Manson or Hole has launched in support of their 1998 albums, Mechanical Animals and Celebrity Skin, respectively.

handles Atlantic's college radio promotions. "The hip people who know about it know about it. But it falls on my shoulders to bring up the awareness at a format like college." When the album goes for radio adds March 8, Gorman hopes programmers will seize the opportunity to play such an unusual, but strong, album. "If you pick up five or 10 fans as you go along, that's what's most important," Gorman says. "If they continue to put out adventurous records like this one, you can't go wrong."

While Atlantic will offer suggestions for certain standout tracks, the label is not planning to issue a single, allowing radio programmers to explore Dose on their own. "We'd like people to find their own favorite," says Product Manager Pat Creed. "It's not your typical radio record, but it's one of those great things that is an album, something that hangs together well. It's an amazing headphone record."

The record will be serviced to multiple formats within college, non-commercial and commercial radio, as Atlantic senses the potential for Dose to have an impact on specialty programs that feature genres like blues, world and roots music. "It crosses so many different barriers," Creed says. "Anybody who has an adventurous nature will want to seek this record out."

Backing the radio push is a solid press campaign that will include features in Rolling Stone, Spin, CMJ New Music Monthly, Playboy and Entertainment Weekly.

Perhaps the biggest thrill for fans of this studio-centered band is a tour that will begin in mid-March, covering some 20 dates through April.

BUILT TO SPILL Radio 200: #7 debut

Core Radio: #11 debut Adds: #1 with 192 reports

This week's cover star, Built To Spill, has an unsurprisingly stellar first week at radio with its new album, Keep It Like A Secret (Warner Bros.). With a strong fanbase at college (thanks to an impeccable string of albums and singles) and indie promotion company SPECTRE on the case, BTS should be a very strong contender to unseat Ms. DiFranco from the #1 position in coming weeks. Just ask the 192 stations who saw fit to report Keep It Like A Secret as an add, as well as the stations that pushed the album to #7 in its first week. See this week's Last Word for more about this essential college radio band.

APRIL MARCH Radio 200: #34 debut Core Radio: #26 dcbut Adds: #5 with 78 reports

Though Ms. April March hails from Los Angeles, she's transformed herself into a French chanteuse, and Chrominance Decoder (Ideal-Mammoth) is her most delectable pop effort yet. Ideal prepped the college radio community for this album by releasing a sampler of March's previous work, called Lessons Of April March, late last year. The advance work paid off, as Chrominance debuts at #34 on the Radio 200 and #26 on the Core chart while garnering 78 reported adds, putting the album at #5 on the Adds chart.

CHART ACTIVITY

CROSS MY HEART Radio 200: 193-70

This Baltimore, Maryland, quartet makes quite a splash this week. Though its self-titled album on Deep Elm is only charting on the Radio 200 chart so far, it leaps 123 positions in one fell swoop, boding well for its future on both the Radio 200 and Core Radio charts. Cross My Heart blends visceral rock with soaring melody, and does it while hanging on tight to its post-hardcore roots. The like-minded lets To Brazil (Jade Tree) peaked at #6 on the Radio 200. Perhaps Cross My Heart can mirror that success.

JOHN COLTRANE

Radio 200: #84 Core Radio #64 Jazz: 14-1

Though The Classic Quartet (Impulse!) wasn't the biggest mover on this week's Radio 200, it's a chart success worth noting anyway. Impulse! is making every effort to promote this eight-CD, 66-track box set across the board. While extensive print and retail campaigns are being launched, college radio has received a nine-track CD sampler from the box. Programmers are responding heartily to being included in the promotion of such a sublime release: while its #1 position on the Jazz chart is to be expected, The Classic Quartet also debuts on the Radio 200 at #84 and the Core Radio chart at #64, proving the format's respect for this jazz master's legacy.

Internet retail site CDPoint was started by NetRadio network to capitalize on its users' music interests. CDPoint is an ideal example of what it calls "content-enabled commerce," where the browsers of NetRadio become the customers of CDPoint. Although a site unto itself, CDPoint is "Powered by NetRadio Network" and, consequently, is entwined throughout NetRadio's large site. NetRadio links every artist it features directly to CDPoint. Once there, CDPoint functions much like any other major Internet retailer. CDPoint has sound clips for most albums, with album release notes and snippets from reviews from publications like Rolling Stone and Entertainment Weekly. NetRadio users can browse CDPoint according to their favorite genres: Kids, Hits, Modern Rock, Electronica, and so on. Shoppers can also check out what other people are buying in Pointwatch, read "CDPoint Picks" and get Audio Music News from NetRadio. CDPoint also has an extensive Classical database, and classical fans can search in a number of directions. The result of a smart marriage of Internet Broadcast and Retail, CDPoint can back up its claim as "The Music Store of the Internet."

Diamond Multimedia Launches MP3 Portal

Diamond Multimedia Systems, creators of the controversial Rio PMP300 portable MP3 music player, has launched a Web audio portal (www.rioport.com) designed to help promote legitimate Internet music. The portal contains links to MP3 music, as well as to other audio content on the Internet. In addition to providing links to partners such as Audiohighway.com, eMusic, Food Chain Records, Liquid Audio and GoodNoise, the RioPort.com site enables visitors to register to win a variety of prizes, including the Rio player.

Warner/Chappell Music Embraces Liquid Audio

The industry's largest music publishing company, Warnet/Chappell Music, will use

Liquid Audio software to promote songs and songwriters on its Web site (www.warnerchappell.com). Liquid Audio's Liquid Music System will initially be used to digitally encode nusic from featured artists such as Sheryl Crow, Alan Jackson and Green Day. Warner/Chappell eventually plans to encode its entire catalog of music, for promotional use. Each track will include a lyric snippet, notes about the song and a link to a site where consumers may purchase the album that features the song. Interested parties may download song clips for a 45-day trial period, after which time the song is no longer active. However, access to lyrics, song notes and links are not affected.

Alex Grant Wins BowieNet Songwriting Contest

BowieNet has announced the winners in its songwriting contest. David Bowie's Internet-savvy fans helped the singer finish his new song, "What's his new song, "What's Really Happening." The artist supplied the music and chorus, while contestants submitted three potential verses. Bowie himself weeded through the top entries and named Alex Grant the winner. Grant will watch Bowie record the finished song, which will be posted on the Internet. The contestant's winning lyrics included "All the clouds are made of glass/And they're slowly sinking/Falling like the shattered past/Were we built to last?" Grant also won a $15,000 publishing contact with Bug Music, a weekend in New York City, a subscription to BowieNet, copies of every major title in Bowie's catalog and other prizes. Bowie also honored Derek Donovan, songwriter for Love Among Puppets, with a Special Creativity Award. Scott Nellis, Michael Solein, Bob DeVore and Jane Gilmartin were the runners-up in the contest. For more information or to track the recording process of "What's Really Happening," visit www.davidbowie.com.

Real Networks Announces Record Fourth Quarter

Streaming media company RealNetworks Inc. has reported fourth-quarter revenues of $20 million, compared with $10.3 million last year. RealNetworks' pro-forma net loss for the quarter was $600,000, excluding the amortization of assets from its March 1998 acquisition of Vivo Software. Last year, the company posted a fourth-quarter net loss of $2.6 million. RealNetworks said it had more than 50 million registered users of RealPlayer as of December 31, 1998.

Pennywise Offers New Songs Online

Punk band Pennywise has released two new songs on its Web site, www. pennywisdom.com. "Straight Ahead" and "Greed" are now available for download in the MP3 and Real Audio formats. Pennywise plans to release another new online song, "My Own Country," before Epitaph Records issues the group's next album in May. The band's site includes video clips, a chat room and other features.

CustomDisc To Include Billboard Charts

CustomDisc.com is working with Billboard's parent company, BPI Communications, to license portions of Billboard's archived charts. After CustomDisc.com customers select a year (from 1946 onward), they may view CustomDisc's library of any Billboard Hot 100 track from that year. CustomDisc said that its library of 190,000 songs includes more than 3,500 Billboard Hot 100 cuts.

POSTER CHILDREN

New World Record (SpinART)

Champaign, Illinois's Poster Children have been plugging away for nearly 12 years, yet the music on the band's sixth full-length album sounds as vital as ever. New World

Record is a milestone for the band in several ways. It marks their return to an indie label, and it's also the group's first self-produced album, recorded in a home studio built by major label cash. New World Record fits into the quartet's continuum of melodic, punchy post-punk, but also works in the darker intensity of the band's famed live shows. A reliable source for dynamic rhythms and the occasional nod to New Wave, the Poster Children are equally dependable for a thudding rhythm section and aggressive guitars. Despite the persistence of time, Rick Valentin's sneering vocals ("life is a slow decay") hardly turn down the angst. — Wendy Mitchell

For Fans Df: Beatnik Filmstars, Gang Of Four, Pixies Recommended Tracks: "Accident Waiting To Happen," "6x6," "Chemicals" Contact: Jeff Price Phone: 212.343.9644 Fax: 212.343.1970 Email: spinart@erols.com Release Date: February 23; at radio now Marketing Data: Enhanced CD also includes screen savers, videos and a game; www.goodnoise.com offers the album for download and details about a Poster Children Web contest; tour updates at www.posterchildren.com.

BETA BAND

The Three E.P.'s (Astralwerks)

Sprung from the rib of the same retro revolution that launched the careers of Arnold and Gomez, Scotland's Beta Band assists in bringing Britpop's psychedelic roots back into the college radio fold. The Three E.P.'s collects the quartet's three import 10"s and modifies them to fit the size of your domestic, American headphones. Sounding like Pink Floyd's Capitol Records catalog being played all at once, this 80minute juggernaut augments its surreal brew with turntable mind tricks, Gregorian chants, out-of-phase ambient folk, and homespun sound effects. The Beta Band makes art out of mind explosions, so close your eyes, mute the telly, and crank this puppy up. Rock and roll just got interesting again. — Ron Hart

For Fans Df: Beck, early Pink Floyd, Arnold, Gomez Recommended Tracks: "Dogs Got A Bone," "Monolith," "Needles In My Eyes" Contact: Crystal Stephens Phone: 212.886.7570 Email: crystal@astralwerks.com Fax: 212.886.7500 Release Date: January 26; at radio now Marketing Data: New full-length due out this summer with tour to follow.

WILLIAM HOOKER

The Distance Between Us (Knitting Factory) William Hooker's third studio album opens with an onomatopoeic meditation, sung solo over strains of blissfully thundering percussion. What follows this uncharacteristic prettiness is even more surprising. The powerhouse freeform drummer leads a small ensemble through a celestial track celestial track from the Willy Wonka And The Chocolate Factory soundtrack, which gives way to a hard-rocking, trippy version of Sonic Youth's "Because," abetted by singer Gisburg's harmonious clarion call. But the subsequent "Sensor Suite" and "Unknown Tongues" are Hooker's tours de force — robust, panoramic expansions of the full-bodied horn washes, joyous piano splashes and time-keeping cosmic violence of his 1997 album Great Sunset. A hazy, chantlike reprise of "Because" cools the fire, while Hooker hammers out the closing "Ear" to remind listeners that the master hasn't sacrificed any muscle for his newfound, wonderful eclecticism. — Jordan N. Mamone

For Fans Df: Charles Gayle, Sonic Youth, Patti Waters, The Ex Recommended Tracks: "The Gates," "Because [Of You]: Dimension 1," "Sensor Suite," "Unknown Tongues," "Ear [From H...]" Contact: Harris Eisenstadt Phone: 212.219.3006 ext. 418 Email: harris@knittingfactory.com Fax: 212.219.3401 Release Date: February 16; at radio now Marketing Data: Hooker plays frequent NYC gigs

GOLDIE

Ring Of Saturn (ffrr-London)

Goldie's Ring Of Saturn has been billed as a remix project based on 1998's audacious SaturnzReturn. However, the disc only revisits two tracks from that release: "Mother," which has been whittled down to seven minutes from its hour-plus version, and "Temper Temper," which gets the once over from both Grooverider and Optical. New cuts, such as the '70s R&B remake "What You Won't Do For Charlewagne Love," feature diva Diane Charlemagne (from Tricky's Timeless), and rely on the undiluted soul that laced the gold one's debut effort. But the regression is short lived, as most of Ring Of Saturn progresses towards the devlish, industrial-tinged drum 'n' bass annihilation rumored to exist on Goldie's work-in-progress, Sonic Terrorism. Ring Of Saturn may not be Timeless, but it's definitely worth a chunk of your time. — M. Tye Comer

For Fans Df: Grooverider, Boymerang, Optical Recommended Tracks: "What You Won't Do For Love," "Judged By Colour, Heard By Sound, Seen By Blind," "Unkle" Contact: John Rosenfelder Phone: 212.603.7871 Email: earbender@earthlink.net Fax: 212.603.3965 Release Date: February 9; at radio now

T-MODEL FORD

You Better Keep Still (Fat Possum-Epitaph)

The plaintive, weather-beaten groan of T-Model Ford makes most of Fat Possum's roster of juke joint troublemakers sound like Eric Clapton. The second-nature rhythmic fluidity of Ford's autistic, percussive strum exudes minimalism and wobbling rawness, even in the company of his decidedly non-decidedly nonslick labelmates. A few missteps aside (ignore the unnecessary "Pop Pop Pop" remix), You Better Keep Still is a stripped-down affair, with the singer/gui-tarist's first person yowlings of woe and women backed only by a few chords and/or the unsteady, all-feel beats of drummer Spam. Ford projects an entertaining and sly persona, but he can't quite recreate the consistency of his 1997 debut Pee-Wee Get My Gun. Still, when the 77-year-old bluesman drawls out the phrase "I put my foot in yo' azzzz," he's beyond such petty criticisms. —Jordan N. Mamone

GAZE

Shake The Pounce (K)

Gaze makes pretty music that's perfect for stargazing, sitting in tall grass or falling in love. The sweet, non-threatening hybrid of folk and twee pop drifts through the atmosphere, capturing hearts along the way. On its sophomore effort Shake The Pounce, this vibrant, Northwestern female trio plays barebones, melancholy-tinged songs that get their power from restraint and control, rather than from urgency and excess pep. Miko H of f m a n's simple, jangly guitar playing sets up easy-todigest, dreamy melodies that will inspire heads to bop and shoulders to sway. Hoffman and bassist Megan's dual lead vocals are sometimes charmingly out-of-tune, but they never lose their pixie-ish charm. — Kelso Jacks

For Fans Df: Heavenly, Softies, Spinanes Recommended Tracks: "Nine Lives To Rigel Five," "A New Home," "Sunday Night Waterworks," "So Early To Tell" Contact: Melissa Burnell Phone: 360.786.1594 Email: promo@kpunk.com Fax: 360.786.5024 Release Date: January 26; at radio now / Marketing Data: Touring in April with Dub Narcotic Sound System.

TAKAKO MINEKAWA

Cloudy Cloud Calculator (Emperor Norton)

Whether they're swirling around loopy, ambient beats or clinging to airy, orchestrated melodies, the otherworldly vocals of the enticing, schoolgirl-ish Takako

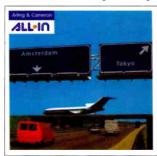

M i n e k a w a float like clouds ascending into space. The Japanese pop singer's lush, silky, and saccharine purrs (delivered in both English and Japanese) assert themselves over a busy backdrop of rhythms and synthesizers, livening up instrumentation that would otherwise end up sounding cold and artificial. There's a lot going on in Miss Minekawa's lightweight, sugary tunes, including a menagerie of waxing and waning beeps, blips and clicks, hooting owls, the monotone repetition of multiplication tables and mathematical theories. To those with a sweet tooth for angelic yet unconventional pop fluff: Indulge! — Amy Sciarretto

For Fans Df: Stereolab, Kahimi Karie, Pizzicato Five, The Moog Cookbook Recommended Tracks: "Black Forest," "Micro Mini Cool," "Phonoballoon Song" Contact: Dave, Matthew, Todd (S.P.E.C.T.R.E.) Phone: 323.860.7090 Email: davesanford@earthlink.net Fax: 323.856.0541 Release Date: November 3; at radio now

ARLING & CAMERON All-In (Emperor Norton)

Imagine Fatboy Slim, Cibo Matto, Dimitri From Paris, Buckethead and Aphex Twin collaborating on remakes of Gershwin classics and you'll begin to understand the erratic and eclectic audio insanity of Gerry Arling and Richard Cameron. The only rule embraced by this Dutch duo is "no rules." The pair's epic debut, All-In, debut, All-In, flows from chirpy techno pop to sexy breakbeat, and it moves from zero to 60 and back faster than a NYC cab driver. Arling & C a m e r o n drop everykitchen applithing from Dutch divas to kitchen appliances into their pot, cooking up an aphrodisiac stew that will leave your ears indefinitely basking in the afterglow. On the surface, the work is just fun and frilly electro-pop, but there's no denying the dedication, musical dexterity and utter brilliance that went into its creation. — M. Tye Comer

For Fans Df: Pizzicato Five, Takako Minekawa, Fatboy Slim Recommended Tracks: "Voulez-Vous?," "Speeding Down The Highway," "But What About The Boys?" Contact: Dave Sanford (S.P.E.C.T.R.E.) Phone: 323.860.7093 Email: davesanford@earthlink.net Fax: 323.856.0541 Release Date: February 16 Add Date: February 16 Marketing Data: The U.S. pressing of All-In contains three exclusive tracks: "But What About The Boys?," "Gershwin" and "We Love Rock"

TRINKET Trinket (RCA)

Some all-American radio-friendly bands are great at pulling out all the stops on an anthemic chorus, and others are better noted for their ability to deliver tender, radio-ready ballads. Rare is the band, however, that can do both of these things on an album without compromising the effectiveness of the other. Trinket is one of those exceptions. Formed in Athens, Georgia, and polished to a high sheen through relentless touring, Trinket delivers a self-titled debut of meaty hooks packed with tear-jerking love songs. As much as the quintet follows a time-tested pop formula, it makes its mark on the genre's crowded landscape by injecting the songs with mod attitude and an occasional taste of dissonance. — Cheryl Botchick

For Fans Df: Goo Goo Dolls, Everclear, Hoodoo Gurus Recommended Tracks: "Unbehaved," "All The Rave," "Throwaway Culture," "To Be A Star," "Haunt Pallenberg" Contact: Elias Chios Phone: 212.930.4717 Email: elias.chios@bmge.com Fax: 212.930.4546 Release Date: February 9; at radio now Marketing Data: Appearing on RCA's Music Madness tour with Babe The Blue Ox and the Interpreters from February 17-March 20.

BAILTER SPACE

Solar.3 (Turnbuckle)

It's a wonder that this long-standing New Zealand-to-New York trio hasn't resolved its bipolar inter-song tension. After 12 years as a group (19 if you count the band's first incarnation as the Gordons), six full-length albums and a flurry of EPs, Bailter Space is still searching for that delicate, shimmering intersection of depressive shoegazer pop and slaughtering sheets of volume. Solar.3 continues to cram tuneful, extended song structures full of reverb, drones and charred, alien guitar tones, discarding the more economic immediacy of the preceding Photon EP. The new record fails to depart much from the group's established approach, though several tracks possess an introspective sparseness that contrasts the expected density. Otherwise, it's business as usual, but the midnight luster of rockers such as the spectral "So Am I" makes familiarity a rather inviting proposition. — Jordan N. Mamone

For Fans Of: Jesus And Mary Chain, Sonic Youth's Daydream Nation, Ride, My Bloody Valentine Recommended Tracks: "Two Stars," "Right Now," "So Am I" "Woke Up," "Windows On The World" Contact: Dan Mackta Phone: 901.276.2225 Email: radio@autotonic.com Fax: 901.276.6554 Release Date: March 9 Add Date: February 23 Marketing Data: Currently on tour in New Zealand; European tour in the spring; tentative American summer tour.

JIMMY EAT WORLD

Clarity (Capitol)

Waves of delicate melancholia break all over Clarity. The record's prevailing mood is downcast, but Jimmy Eat World's delivery is striking enough to make you throw down that proverbial razor blade. Propelled by tinny, clangy guitar riffs, Clarity is excessively dynamic, yet it's also a bit too tame. On this promising effort, vocalist

Jim Adkins is smart enough to leave his sweater and black specs at the door, thankfully sparing us any ultra-serious emocore wailing. Each song still feels like an outpouring of underscored emotion, though, as if the band members have unzipped their chests to let their hearts spill onto the floor. Clarity is the perfect soundtrack to feeling overwhelmed; when you're reeling, the album is an adequate salve to dull the pain. — Amy Sciarretto

For Fans Of: Sensefield, Knapsack, Sunny Day Real Estate Recommended Tracks: "Lucky Denver Mint," "Table For Glasses," "A Sunday," "For Me This Is Heaven" Contact: Steve Nice Phone: 800.342.8842 Email: cagepromo1@aol.com Fax: 323.462.7489 Release Oate: February 23 Add Date: February 16

DIRTY POODLE

Dirty Poodle (Put It On A Cracker)

You'd never believe it by listening to this debut from Dirty Poodle, but Scott Beckey, the band's frontman, played guitar for the S&M metal band Genitorturers as a teenager! This debut album from his current project is certainly proof that Beckey is working overtime to correct the brazen ways of his youth, and he's succeeding quite nicely, too. With the sparest, most thoughtful instrumentation (often little more than simple combinations such as piano and quiet bass, or brushed snare and lap steel guitar) carrying Beckey's plaintive vocals, Dirty Poodle is spellbinding in its unwavering mood and Even tone. when the band fiddles with tape manipulation ("Illegal Kindergarten"), the result is a hypnotic, Revolver-like effect rather than mere studio trickery. Dirty Poodle is a riveting addition to the always-evolving slowcore movement. — Cheryl Botchick

For Fans Of: Idaho, Mazzy Star, Mojave 3 Recommended Tracks: "Winter Secrets," "Get Out Or Come In," "I Opened It," "Sinking In My Chair" Contact: Bill Benson (Team Clermont); Bill Bryson (Put It On A Cracker) Phone: 888.548.TEAM Email: radio@teamclermont.com Fax: 706.548.0094 Release Oate: February 9; at radio now Marketing Oata: Playing select dates this spring with Macha.

NOVASONIC DOWN HYPER SPACE Embracing Magnetics (AIP)

While many of its hometown's musicians are investigating post-rock, Chicago's NovaSonic is exploring sounds a galaxy or two away. Much like Spiritualized and Spacemen 3, Novasonic's voluminous space-rock will blast you with its brainwavealtering array of slow-motion effects and interstellar guitar eruptions. What's great about Embracing Magnetics is that there are actual songs driving these oceanic dreamscapes. For example, "Melody In Chaos" blossoms into a symphony of nearly every instrument and processing device (etherwave theremin, mxr flanger, etc.) listed in the liner notes, though its melody remains clean and warm. The song's concurrent, repeating electronic flutter sounds like an alien cricket chirping alone in the wide-open space. God's speed, NovaSonic! — Steve Ciabattoni

For Fans Of: Spiritualized, Pink Floyd's Meddle, Galaxie 500 Recommended Tracks: "Melody In Chaos," "Sounds Just Like An Ocean," "Almost Home" Contact: Aaron McEvoy (AAM) Phone: 212.924.3005 Email: word@aaminc.com Fax: 212.929.6305 Release Date: January 15; at radio now

LOWER EAST SIDE STITCHES Staja98L.E.S. (Ng)

All greased up in gutter grime, the Lower East Side Stitches are a picture-perfect '77 punk band made for 1999. Staja98L.E.S. offers tales about drugs, alcohol and all the other vices easily developed in New York City, and thus, the album is a cynical rocker with desperate, nihilistic tendencies. Vocalist Brown's marble-mouthed delivery pays homage to both Johnny Rotten's jabber and Joe Strummer's sloppy slur. Behind him, two guitarists bang out s k i d d i n g m e l o d i e s, while the notably tight, uncluttered rhythm section of Branica and Baggs plows through any remaining obstacles. The bassist and drummer's fondness for tried-and-true tricks of the trade benefits the Stitches to no end. Just check "Rustic City," which borrows from the infectious reggae-rock hybrid popularized by the Clash. — Kelso Jacks

For Fans Of: Sex Pistols, Johnny Thunders, Rancid Recommended Tracks: "Could Just Die," "Parasite," "Rustic City," "Frustration" Contact: Chinaman Phone: 212.337.8505 ext.14 Email: chinaman@ngrecords.com Fax: 212.337.8510 Release Date: January 19; at radio now Marketing Data: Touring throughout February; video for "Down The Drain."

VIRGINIA DARE

Baby Got Away (Absolutely Kosher)

Quiet, contemplative and darkly melodic, Virginia Dare could be seen as the rebirth of the Velvet Underground by way of Barbara Manning's perceptive indie folk. The San Francisco trio's debut album, Baby Got Away, is a stark, drum-less collection of pop songs accented by the torch and twang of No Depression and the dry quirk of wellexecuted lo-fi rock. Mary O'Neill, Brad Johnson and Greg Freeman weave a minimalist afghan of bent guitar notes, mercurial autoharp strums and fretful bass lines, laying the foundation for such witty numbers as "Dumb As A Doll" and their surefire ode to "Johnny Depp." Boasting cameo appear-ances by Ms. Manning herself, and by O'Neill and Johnson's four-year-old son Kit, Baby Got Away is frought with thought-provoking, simple tunes for all ages. - Ron Hart

JOHN P. STROHM

Vestavia (Flat Earth)

Since the late '80s, John Strohm has been lending his warm, modest voice and sly pop craftsmanship to the work of such bands as the Blake Babies, Antenna, Velo Deluxe and Hello Strangers. His second solo album gently blends of all of his stylistic flirtations from acoustic country to crunchy indie rock and matches them with the '60s pop interests of Polara's Ed Ackerson, who acts as the album's co-producer and utility player. Vestavia's charms are subtle and sweet. Ackerson's slightly disaffected tone contains just the right hint of affection for his songs' occasionally offbeat subject matter, while the album's instrumental details banjo, organ and a variety of effects pedals alongside the standard rock props - add an air of soft beauty to its quirky hooks. - Colin Helms

For Fans Of: Polara, Tommy Keane, Paul Westerberg Recommended Tracks: "Eva Braun," "For Awhile," "Ballad Of Lobster Boy' Contact: Brandon O'Leary Phone: 317.780.1313 Email: radio@flatearthrecords.com Fax: 317.783.5469 Release Date: February 2; at radio now Marketing Data: Regional touring in the spring, including a performance at SXSW.

ROOTS 'N' BLUES

CEPHAS & WIGGINS Homemade (Alligator)

Cephas &c Wiggins collectively form one of the blues' most time-honored and road-tested institutions. The guitar-and-harmonica team works together perfectly to bring home the authentic sounds of the Piedmont tradition of acoustic

American art form - someone should erect a statue of them somewhere. Homemade features covers of tunes first made famous by Memphis Minnie, Skip James and Blind Boy Fuller. Cephas & Wiggins's original compositions are just as connected to old time musical roots. — James Lien

FLASHBACK

JIMI HENDRIX

Jimi Hendrix: Live At The Fillmore East (MCA) According to rock mythology, Jimi Hendrix never played the same guitar solo twice. That ability to continually re-think his songs gave each Hendrix concert its own unique flair, which, in turn, gave each one of his live albums its own legacy. Jimi Hendrix: Live At The Fillmore East is the longawaited. definitive version of 1970's Band Of Gypsys. It recaps the majority of Hendrix's historical, two-night stand at the folk blues. The Piedmont style first emerged on the East Coast (as opposed to down South), and Cephas & Wiggins are perhaps the primary contemporary exponents of this

World Radio History

Texas Funeral is one of those rare, instantly memorable albums - either because you find it repulsive or because you think it's brilliant. Listening to Jon Wayne reel, stumble and hiccup its way through the record is like watching a drunk on the verge of passing out. Guitarist Ernest Bovine and singer/guitarist Ion Wayne are sloppy at best, vet there's a certain fucked-up charm about their old-school country licks. But Wavne's completely un-politically correct lyrics push this boozy honkytonk album over the top; his vocals seem like the product of too much time spent with a CB radio. Wayne also proves himself as a xenophobe of the highest order, with his racial slurs against Egyptians, Native Americans and blacks, yet his bigotry is tolerable because he really just makes a bigger ass out of himself. Though he doesn't like anyone, Wayne does love one thing: the Lone Star State. "Texas" appears in half of Texas Funeral's song titles, and the word itself is proudly referred to elsewhere as if it were short for "I'm from Texas, you go to hell." According to Cargo Records, the most recent Jon Wayne show occurred in Los Angeles in 1998. True to character, the band was so drunk that it could neither play its songs nor remember the lyrics. It didn't matter; the crowd knew all the words by heart anyway. Originally released on import vinyl in 1985, and re-released on Fist Puppet-Cargo in 1992, Texas Funeral is a stupid, hilarious and twisted classic. There has never been another record like it and that's probably for the best; its chaos and obscenity isn't likely to be topped - unless, of course, Jon Wayne gets around to making a second record. -Tad Hendrickson

For Fans Of: David Allen Coe, Flipper, Charles Bukowski Bio Fact: The band refuses to give out any sort of biographical information, preferring to remain anonymous. There's been talk of a follow-up for years, but nothing has been released.

Fillmore East, which took place on New Year's Eve 1969-70. Spread over the course of two albums, this collection features alternate and expanded versions of the six gems that encompass the indelible original, plus scorching, Gypsy-fied renditions of such classics as "Stone Free" and "Voodoo Child (Slight Return)." But what makes this massive set such a find is the previously unreleased material, notably the only known live versions of the obscurities "Burning Desire" and "Earth Blues," along with a wailing take on "Auld Lang Syne." Jimi broke into the January I standard just seconds after the end of the '60s. Times Square had nothin' on this party. — Ron Hart

JUNO

"All Your Friends Are Comedians" (7')

(Mag Wheel) "All Your Friends Are Comedians shows off Juno's flair for dramatic shifts in volume. The guitars hum busily, the rhythms alternately drive and dip and the pining vocals are full of heartfelt tension. However, "The Great Salt Lake" is much more ominous, relying on the tenuous building of quieter instrumentation, until it ends in an inspired ambient-punk clash, bookended by a foreboding and distant voice-over. — Kelso Jacks

WOLFIE SINGLE "You're Lucky I'm Skinny" (7") (Parasol)

Regardless of how strong the members of Wolfie may get as they grow older, the Chicago-area foursome will always be hopelessly caught up in the teenage romance of a 98-pound weakling. "You're Lucky I'm Skinny" is a shy, chirpy, keyboardsmattered poptune, and the nerdiness pumps harder on the ever-so-bouncy "Ginger Ale Yawn." This is new wave cotton candy. — Kelso Jacks

As an unsung pioneer of the anti-folk movement that spawned such names as Michelle Shocked and Beck, New York City acousti-

punk troubador Lach's definition of folk is a far cry from the socially conscious prose of Joan Baez and Pete Seeger. His low-brow humor and his uncanny knack for storytelling owe as much to the Sex Pistols as they do to Woody Guthrie. On Blang!, Lach savagely deconstructs the rudiments of contemporary folk music, waxes nostalgic about drinking beers with his mom, rolling joints on a copy of Dark Side Of The Moon, and getting busy to the sounds of 2 Live Crew. And that's all within one song! Bonus points for one of the coolest Kiss tributes set to tape. — Ron Hart

One Pound Note (Blue Planet/Nothing-Interscope) Fresh from his role in the film Velvet Goldmine, Micko Westmoreland returns as Bowling Green to fuse disco funk, sci-fi noise and erratic breakbeats into a glamorous mess of mesmerizing sound. Each track is laid like a film score, replete with engaging drama, intense climaxes and satisfying conclusions. An impressive debut offering from this up-andcoming British producer.

VARIOUS ARTISTS Old School Vs. New School (Jive Electro)

Past and present collide on this ingenious collection of old school jams revisited by a new school of dance floor innovators. Hip-hop/R&B classics account for the majority of the source material, although "Fools Gold" by Manchester's Stone Roses gets the once over by both Grooverider and Rabbit In The Moon, providing the disc with two of its brightest moments. Elsewhere, the pairings range from the logical (A Tribe Called Quest Vs. Aphrodite, Whodini Vs. The Freestylers) to the barely believable (Jazzy Jeff & The Fresh Prince Vs. Hybrid, Whodini Vs. Westbam). Listeners from both schools will find each track to be an adventure in and of itself, however.

Language Of Silence (Metropolis)

Don't let the title confuse you: There's no silence on Numb's latest release. The duo packs each second of Language Of Silence, its sixth full-length, with mountains of guitar feedback, waves of synthesized chaos and a lion's share of aggressive, angst-ridden vocal terrorism. This is a sonically intimidating record that's guaranteed to beat everyone in earshot into submission.

Aphex Twin is at it again. Once more, the British electronic music producer (real name: Richard D. James) has teamed up with award winning video director Chris Cunningham, the man responsible for Aphex's most recent clip, the harrowing "Come To Daddy." Cunningham also worked visual wonders for Squarepusher's "Come On My Selector" and for Madonna's "Frozen." This time, the director has produced a 10-and-a-half minute short to accompany the Twin's latest single "Windowlicker" and the result is being described as "potentially the most controversial and mind-blowing video ever made." The video will be available for purchase on February 23, while the CD version of the single will hit stores on March 23. Sixpence None The Riche

RICKY SKAGGS AND KENTUCKY THUNDER

Ancient Tones (Skaggs Family Records)

In a career that spans more than three decades, Ricky Skaggs has earned the industry's highest awards, racked up 18 Top 10 hits, and still managed to generate some controversy. His shuttling from bluegrass to country and back again has confounded some fans, but Skaggs is a master of both styles. Ancient Tones, his follow-up to last year's Bluegrass Rules!, sinks Skagg's feet even deeper in pickin' territory. Once again backed by Kentucky Thunder, Skaggs delivers flawless and heartfelt renditions of songs by two of his great bluegrass mentors, Ralph Stanley and Bill Monroe. The album also features a new Ricky Skaggs tune, plus a song by banjo player Jim Mills.

J.D. CROWE AND THE NEW SOUTH Come On Down To My World (Rounder)

For the last 40 years, J.D. Crowe has been one of the most influential banjo players in the world. Along with the New South (which once included Ricky Skaggs), he has toured the planet spreading his brand of bluegrass love. On Come On Down, J.D. and the boys play renditions of songs by Merle Haggard, Charley Pride and Townes Van Zant, along with New South originals.

MARTIN'S FOLLY Man, It's Cold (Tar Hut)

Straddling a line somewhere between Barenaked Ladies and Uncle Tupelo, Martin's Folly can rock with abandon. However, even on geared-down ballads like "Track 5 Blues" and "Giant On The Beach," Chris Gray's dusty vocals are enhanced by Jim Duffy's quirky keyboards. Producer Eric "Roscoe" Ambel ensures Tar Hut's best sounding release to date.

SOOTHSAYER Zen Turtle (Mutant Sound System)

While MCs such as Method Man, DMX and Busta Rhymes express dark brical visions of doomsday, Soothsayer and his Trumystic Sound System cohorts are heading into the next millennium on a more positive tip. The Brooklyn native has channeled his energies into a diverse, yet articulate expression of politics, street life and rich musical explorations. Soothsayer's calm, socially conscious rhymes slide over an engaging blend of dubbed-out reggae rhythms, crisp jungle breaks and dusty hiphop beats. Joined by Dr. Israel, Soothsayer melts rhymes over Divaship's buttery R&B vocals on the guitar-laced "Hero," and duets with the gritty-voiced Sideeffect on "Moonbeams" and Jungle Brother Mike G. on the trippy "Down The Road."

RUBBEROOM "Sector Rush"/ "Evil Archangels" (12") (3-2-1-Zero Hour)

Bringing the pain with one of independent hiphop's hottest one-two punches, Rubberoom shines on this gem taken from their upcoming full length Architechnology. The team exchanges smokey verses over an ominous fusion of industrial knocks, buzzing bass lines and scratches by DJs Precvse and Spontaneous.

ICE CUBE FEATURING NOREAGA & GILLIE DA KID "Pushin' Weight" (Remix) (12") (Priority)

Making Cube's club jewel shine even brighter, Noreaga and Gillie Da Kid have replaced Short Khop, the track's original guest MC, with an explosive set of verbal flips that fit Ice's fiery chorus like a glove. Producer Clark Kent overhauls the beat with a slinky synthesizer loop and ultra-funky '70s grooves.

It's going to be a busy 1999 for Irish pop-folkrock fusionists the Corrs. In mid-March, the Dundalk-based quartet, which consists of one brother and three sisters, will open several American dates for the Rolling Stones. The new Corrs album, Talk On Corners: Special Edition (Atlantic), consists of remixed versions of songs from the band's two full-lengths. The group will perform on Saturday Night Live on March 13...Storied Czech iconoclasts the Plastic People Of The Universe will play a total of 15 American and Canadian dates, beginning on February 23, in Boston. The tour

new world news

will end on March 13, in Los Angeles, and the outing will probably mark the Plastic People's most extensive American tour ever. The band has a book in the works in addition to plans for some new music...Gator Music has released Put It On, the first solo album by reggae soul singer and Inner Circle mastermind Carlton Coffie. As many television fans know, the Inner Circle hit "Bad Boys" is currently being used as the theme music for Cops. Put It On will be a more soulful affair, as Coffie's musical influences now include jazz and pop, as well as reggae...On January 26, Gator issued the New Era Reggae compilation. The reggae round-up includes contributions by many of the genre's heavyweights, such as Freddie McGreor, Judy Mowatt, Dennis Brown and Mykal Rose.  $\blacklozenge$

HUUN-HUUR-TU Where Young Grass Grows (Shanachie)

The remote province of Tuva produces some of the world's most unique music. Featuring a singing style where one singer produces multiple notes, the music of Tuva has recently become quite popular with audiences in the West, largely because of highvisibility tours and albums by Huun-Huur-Tu. The latest from this ensemble captures their traditional sound, which includes rare instruments such as doshpuluur, pipes and numerous skin drums. The last track is particularly unique — a live recording of the Tuvan throat singers practicing their craft while riding on horseback!

DENNIS KAMAKAHI 'Ohana (Dancing Cat)

With this release, George Winston's Dancing Cat label continues its wonderful series dedicated to the great living masters of Hawaiian "slack key" guitar. The Hawaiian genre of open-tuned guitar music emerged when Mexican and American laborers came to the islands and brought acoustic guitars with them. Over the ensuing decades a unique style of music emerged that was indigenous to the Hawaiian isles. Dennis Kamakahi is a master of the open-tuned guitar (check out his dazzling fingerwork and ringing chords) and is joined here occasionally by his young son David on ukulele.

BUNNY WAILER Dub D'sco Volumes 1 & 2 (RAS)

Here are two classic Bunny Wailer dub albums now available for the first time on CD. Bunny Wailer, as one of Bob Marley's original Wailers, was and still is a guiding force on the reggae scene. These classic late-'70s recordings from the reclusive Wailer showcase the deep classic reggae sound for which he's known. Funny how today's reggae artists must struggle to match the quality of recordings like these, which great masters like Bunny used to toss off so easily.

HAGANS Animation — Imagination (Blue Note)

Trumpeter Tim Hagans takes an adventurous tack with his Animation - Imagination project for Blue Note. The follow-up to Hubsongs, his brilliant Freddie Hubbard tribute from last year, Animation Imagination is bound to infuriate and confound the militant, hard-bop coterie who can only think in terms of standards and well-cut suits. It's an awe-inspiring blend of jazz, hard rock, psychedelic music and modern beats and drum 'n' bass influences. In a word, subversive.

ABBEY LINCOLN Wholly Earth (Verve)

Abbey Lincoln reigns as one of the world's most fabulous and expressive vocalists. Every time she takes on a new tune, she imbues it with depth, resonance and shades of meaning that often go beyond simple performance into the realm of the sublime. And what adjective can one use to describe Wholly Earth other than sublime? Trumpet wunderkind Nicholas Payton guests on a few cuts, making this album one of those truly special releases that comes along only once in a great while.

BOBBY SHORT How's Your Romance? (Telarc)

Pianist Bobby Short is the picture of elegance behind the keys. This collection of love ballads from his Telarc CDs sets a romantic mood from the opening strains of "When Love Beckoned (In Fifty-Second Street)" that lasts throughout all 16 selections. Arrangements range from understated trio to large ensemble, yet the mood is seamless and the playing superb throughout.

Veteran drummer Peter Erskine has joined well-known rhythm-and-jazz outfit the Yellowjackets. Erskine was given his first big break in the mid-'70s, when he played with the Stan Kenton Orchestra. But the drummer really rose to prominence when he manned the kit for the prime line-up of Weather Report, which also included Jaco Pastorius. Erskine, who has appeared on more than 300 albums, has also worked with non-jazz acts like Joni Mitchell and Steely Dan. The Yellowjackets formed in 1980, and charter bassist Jimmy Haslip and stalwart pianist Russell Gerrante have been the only constants in the group's rotating membership. Yellowjackets Current wind-player Bob Mintzer joined in 1991. With the addition of Erskine, the Yellowjackets are playing a number of U.S. dates in late February, early March and early April...Pianist Matthew Shipp has finished his 16th album as a leader. The new record, entitled DNA, also marks Shipp's 32nd album appearance since 1992, and it will be his first domestic release since 1997's Flow Of X. Thirsty Ear will issue DNA in May, and, once again, Shipp will play in his favored duo setting with bassist William Parker. The pair will run through Shipp originals, as well as standards, including "When Johnny Comes Marching Home" and a very passionate, but straight reading of "Amazing Grace." The pianist has reasoned that "I have completed my opus." He claims that DNA will be his last album for quite a while. However, the self-imposed sabbatical does not apply to performing, or to the release of the occasional import title; it will merely denote the (continued on page 35) loud rock news As if the mammoth March Metal Meltdown isn't enough! Throughout the weekend of April 30, the equally skull-shattering New England Metal And Hardcore Festival will take place at the Palladium in Worcester, Massachusetts,. Earth Crisis, Hatebreed, Today Is The Day, Dillinger Escape Plan, Keelhaul, Deicide, the Misfits, Living Sacrifice, Morbid Angel, Shadows Fall, Crisis, Cave-In, Tree, Isis, Sam Black Church, Meshuggah, Gwar, Honkeyball, Candiria, Drowning Man, and Piecemeal have all confirmed their participation in the event...The grapevine claims that Iron Maiden is unhappy with

OVERKILL Necroshine (CMC International)

Loud rock fans typically support their favorite bands come hell or high water, even when a beloved band completely overhauls (and sometimes commercializes) its sound. It's bands like Overkill that pay back those true-till-death fans by never straying from their roots. On Necroshine, these Brooklyn stompers stick with the traditional thrash metal path that's been their forte for 15-plus years. The shrieky, high vocals of Bobby "Blitz" Ellsworth soar with utter grace over the rhythm section's pummeling grooves and the guitarists' searing chords - this stuff is played at such a furious pace that it's probably wearing the fingerprints right off the band's hands! So, throw on an old pair of skintight black jeans, don a Horrorscope t-shirt, and bang your head to Necroshine.

MINDSET A Bullet For Cinderella (Noise)

The curiously-titled A Bullet For Cinderella was coproduced by Drew Mazurek, who twiddled the knobs for emo powerhouses such as Texas Is The Reason and Jawbox. But neither of those bands is an indication of Mindset's sound. The Virginia quartet maintains a sense of melody amidst its metallic girth by laying tonal, enjoyable vocals (rather than archetypal shrieks) over its crunchy guitars. Nothingface's Matt Holt also lends his pipes on "Die, Ricki Die."

SOLITUDE AETURNUS Adagio (Olympic-Slip Disc)

The music of Solitude Aeturnus is often modified by the description "doom metal." While there is an overall dark vibe emitted from the layered vocals, gargantuan riffing and harrowing rhythms on Adagio, the album also focuses on the band's tradition of progressive metal. Most of the songs clock in at four minutes or longer, with thick, slow, dirty textures throughout.

loud rock news (continued from page 34)

Doug White. Maiden's label, CMC International says that it's aware of the rumor, but won't confirm any details...Nebula has signed to Zero Hour, and plans to enter the studio in April. Relapse recently reissued the prolific group's Let It Burn, and the Music Cartel's forthcoming In The Grove compilation will contain a Nebula track, along with material by Roachpowder, Roadsaw, Sheavy and Raging Slab ... On February 23, Fear Factory, Spineshank, and System Of A Down fell victim to a costly crime in Philadelphia. In broad daylight, thieves made off with all three bands' equipment, causing the groups to postpone their remaining tour dates until March. Officials recovered the bands' flaming tour truck, sans equipment...Deftones bassist Chi Cheng recently underwent emergency surgery on his big toe. As a result, the musician had to bow out of his band's tour with Black Sabbath and Pantera. Quicksand's Sergio Vega will fill in...In an archival campaign, Noise Records will reissue one classic underground metal title every month. Look for Hellhammer's Apocalyptic Rage in March... Korn has made a video for "Freak On A Leash," the latest single from its best-selling Follow The Leader. The mini-movie-style piece mixes performance footage with an animated extension of the album's cover art... Even the most die-hard Republican moshers got busy during Rage Against The Machine's benefit performance for death row inmate Mumia Abu-Jamal at New Jersey's Meadowlands Arena. Zack de la Rocha's energy is certifiably transcendent; he's one of the most intensely passionate frontmen to ever grace a stage...Keep an eye on Ng Records. Old time metal cat Smitty is the organization's new promotions man, so expect good things in the loud rock arena from the label in the future.

BUILT TO SPILL BUILT TO SPILL A SECRET NO LONGER COLLEGE RADIO'S FAVORITE MAJOR LABEL INDIE ROCKERS ADD ANOTHER INDELIBLE RECORD TO THEIR CANON.

Feature by Amy Sciarretto Photos by Brad Miller

"Daddy, will you play with me?," five-year-old Ben asks his father. "In a little while. I have to talk on the phone right now," gently responds the child's attentive dad, Built To Spill's Doug Martsch. The elder Martsch is an indie rock icon, but you probably wouldn't guess it from this Norman Rockwell-like father-son exchange. Rock music has a general disdain for, shall we say, "maturity." Respected and lauded for his honest lyrics, his disregard for trends, and his could have a band that was along the lines of that. The band always ended up being people I liked. I chose them for their personalities, not because of their musical abilities."

Ironically, musical ability is something that Martsch has received accolades for, but he doesn't consider himself gifted. "It doesn't come naturally to me. I don't think I suck or anything," he laughs. "I think I've made good use of what abilities I have. I'm twists on traditional song structures, Martsch is more of an indie rock elder statesman. If he wasn't churning out rich, guitar-based rock, the songwriter says he would "probably be tending bar that's the last job I had." Martsch speaks with the sort of normalguy frankness you wouldn't expect from someone whose band recently released its second major label album.

"I REALIZED YOU COULD MAKE MUSIC AND YOU DON'T HAVE TO BE GREAT AT IT TO MAKE MUSIC THAT'LL MOVE PEOPLE AND BE SINCERE." — Doug Martsch

Keep It Like A Secret is more accessible than its predecessor, 1997's Perfect From Now On, which was long on guitar epics. On Secret, Martsch has trimmed his songs of their extended excesses, an aesthetic choice he made free of any label pressure. "I got tired of it myself," Martsch says. "It took a long time to do that other record because of that. I just wanted shorter songs, more to the point, quicker, easier. It's nicer to listen to."

Martsch structures a Built To Spill song by writing the music long before he writes his lyrics. He's more concerned with phonemes than syntax and meaning. "Lyrics are the very last thought. I'll write a melody and a meter for the melody and I sort of sing nonsense for a while and eventually come up with some real words. A lot of the nonsense will stay in the song because I've gotten used to it. I like the sounds of words, rather the words themselves."

The current incarnation of Built To Spill, which includes bassist Brett Nelson and ex-Spinanes drummer Scott Plouf, is an increasingly collaborative effort. In the past, the band consisted of Martsch and a rotating cast. "What I like best about this record is that the band is better than ever. Everyone knew the songs really well and a lot of it was written collaboratively. It's the first time we've done that. It's always been collaborative in a way, but it was always songs that I brought in. A lot more stuff was written out of jams. When it comes down to it, I have to figure out exactly what the songs are gonna do and how the parts will fit together and write the words and be involved in all the production, whereas those guys aren't, but the initial ideas were coming from everyone."

Because of the musical bond he shares with Plouf and Nelson, Martsch has finally solidified Built To Spill's line-up. He's chosen stability over the spontaneity of his early revolving-door personnel. "One of the main reasons was so we could all write songs together," he explains. "I also wanted to get the band tight. I like [Scott and Brett] a lot, [and] I didn't want to pass up the opportunity to keep them in the band. It was a pain in the ass to switch line-ups after a while, teaching people songs and starting from scratch every time. It's a lot scratchier. Even learning old songs...it's hard. It takes a long time to get everyone in the groove."

Martsch concedes that he used to change line-ups "to keep it fresh, fun, spontaneous, so all the records were different sounding. If I changed what kind of music I wanted to make, then I more about imitating things and being sort of clever about putting music together. I don't have a good sense of rhythm or tone. That's why punk rock was so important to me. I realized you could make music and you don't have to be great at it to make music that'll move people and be sincere."

Diehard Built To Spill fans may have waited patiently to gorge themselves on Keep It Like A Secret, but Martsch himself doesn't much care for the album. "I don't know if it's something I would personally listen to, but we did the best job we could on it. I don't think I would listen to Built To Spill. I listen to blues, people who are really good players and singers. I don't listen to alternative rock."

Despite fans' perception of Built To Spill as an indie band that just happens to be on a major label, Martsch isn't too concerned with the perceived state of non-corporate music; he's much too unpretentious for such musing and prophesizing. For Doug Martsch, the meaning of music has nothing to do with genre or contracts, or even a band's musical intentions. Martsch is more concerned with listener's interpretations. "I probably overestimate how many people get what I'm doing," he admits. "I don't even know what I am doing. There are probably people who have a better idea what my music's about than I do. I like to imagine that people understand it. The listener is always responsible for what they're hearing. You make your decisions about what's good or bad. It's a creative process in itself."

INDUSTRY PROFILE

Interview by Glen Sansone

Tom Nuccio joined BMI in 1989 and held the title of College Radio Analyst until being promoted to Associate Director, Supervisor of Radio Per Program in '94, and then Music Performance Identification in 1997. As a radio analyst, Nuccio was the first person at BMI to administer its college radio logging system, which just celebrated its tenth anniversary. Prior to his career at BMI. Nuccio worked for the jazz music publishing company Second Floor Music. He also served as music director of his college radio station (WRUV) at the University of Vermont.

TOM NUCCIO

Associate Director, Music Performance Identification, BMI

Phone: 615.401.5417 Email: tnuccio@bmi.com

"The lines are really blurred right now, and in a loose sense you can say that the popularity of commercial alternative radio has to owe something to the ground that college radio broke years and years ago."

How does your position fit with BMI's main function as a performance rights organization?

Music licensing is a cycle. A songwriter writes a song, then radio stations and businesses use that music and play it [on the air and] at their establishments. They pay us licensing fees in order to play the music. What we're doing is monitoring the media to determine how those fees get distributed back to the writers and publishers as royalties so they can continue with their craft.

How do you make that determination?

Well, we identify performances that are obtained through our logging of college radio. In order to log college radio, we select stations by using a scientific sampling method that is similar to the method used for commercial radio.

What were your impressions after going from a college radio station to BMI?

When I started at BMI in 1989, eight years after I graduated, I found myself back in college radio on the other side, heading up something brand new that [the company] had just implemented. [BMI's monitoring of college radio stations] was basically started in recognition of the growth and importance of college radio at that time, and [to fill] the need to compensate the people creating that music.

What was your perception of this monitoring system?

For me, it was the most exciting thing on Earth. It was a thrill to be involved in college radio again from the standpoint that I was communicating with the stations and making sure their reports came in. By building up knowledge and expertise on college music, I was able to administer this system that was compensating the people who were writing the music and publishing the music on the medium where I first got my start. It was an exciting time for college radio, too. The mainstream and the general public were just starting to take a look at it as something that had crossover potential.

How many college

stations are you working with?

Our universe is still approximately 800 [stations], and back then it was about the same. It's a pretty stable base of stations, which I think is a testament to the strength and stability of college radio.

What is so significant about your tenth anniversary? What are you most proud of?

Well, we were the first organization to implement a college radio logging system that was comprehensive and operated like our commercial radio logging system. It's significant because back when we first implemented college radio logging, certain songwriters and music publishers who [recorded] songs that were played exclusively on college radio started to receive their first royalty checks. A lot of these people never got airplay on commercial radio or television, so we were able to break through and begin rewarding the creators of music that found a home on college radio. After ten years, we've kept it growing and going, and we have an excellent man named Steve Saxon who has been handling it since I turned it over in '94. A lot of the college radio folks have met him at the CMJ convention.

Do you think that the importance of college radio support is overlooked by the industry?

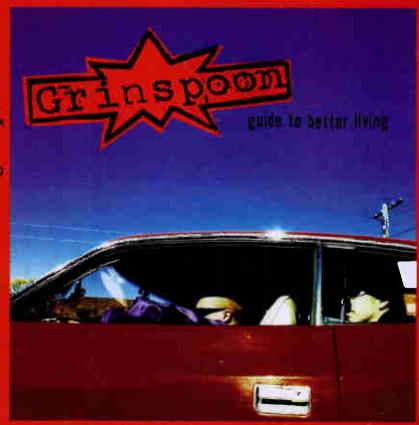

I think it's really neat to observe how college radio has always been at the vanguard of what's going on in music. I think, on a personal note, a real credit to college radio is the proliferation of alternative formats on commercial radio; It's hard to define what's alternative. I remember getting samplers at CMJ conventions that said, 'What's Alternative?' or 'Alternative To What?' The lines are really blurred right now, and in a loose sense you can say that the popularity of commercial alternative radio has to owe something to the ground that college radio broke years and years ago. When I was in college radio, it was amazing how much attention [the industry] paid to us back then - it was gratifying, too.
