Definately Don't Want to Buy the Machine When They Walk Up to It With Coin in Hand

This is one hard-headed, solid, definite, proved fact. A fact that every single operator in all the nation should indelibly impress upon his mind.

This is one fact that has been proven so many, many times in the past that it means the difference between profit and loss to any operator anywhere in the country.

That cigarette machine. Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Q. Public don't give one hoot whether it is, or it isn't, all lit up. Or whether it has, or hasn't, an electric clock. Or any other kind of attraction-getting gadget on it when they walk up to it with their coin in hand.

They are only interested in one thing, and one thing only:

THEY WANT TO BUY A PACK OF CIGARETTES!! THAT'S ALL!!

And they hope that those cigarettes are going to be fresh. Just as fresh as they would be if they bought them from some high class tobacconist who spent many thousands of dollars on humidor display cases.

They want that pack of cigarettes to be delivered to them. Not have to sock the machine. Not have to kick it. Not have to make themselves conspicuous by calling the attention of the spot's owner, and everyone else in the place, to themselves, if the machine doesn't work.

THEY ONLY WANT TO BUY A PACK OF CIGARETTES! THAT'S ALL!

When John Public and his wife walk up to any machine in this industry they don't give one hoot what's under the playing surface.

They don't care how many outstanding, praiseworthy, prize-winning electronic parts are in that gorgeous, beautiful, sensational machine.

All they want from that machine is some music; some fun; or some merchandise.

Or, maybe, a service, like getting their correct weight, or getting their shoes shined.

Away back in the days of "Camco" (and, by the way, the late and very great Franklin Delano Roosevelt was on the Board of Directors of this organization) an "idea" was originated whereby, after each candy bar purchase, the machine actually said, "Thank You."

This was done on a tiny recording ma-chine produced for the very benefit of this vending machine (and at terrific cost) by none other than the Thomas Alva Edison Laboratories of Orange, N. J.

So what happened?

So the damn thing FLOPPED.

Whv?

Because John and his wife (Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Q. Public, if you please) are two of the strangest people in the world.

Fickle? Just operate a few amusement games and you'll find out.

John and his wife were only INTER-ESTED IN BUYING THAT CANDY BAR.

They didn't give one hoot whether the machine said "thank you" or "the hell with you."

They went up to the machine with coin in hand to BUY A BAR OF CANDY. THAT'S ALL.

They wanted that machine, in the easiest, simplest, most non-exerting fashion, to deliver a bar of the candy they desired.

Fresh, clean, pure, and just as fine as if they had purchased it from the finest confectioner in the entire world.

So—the next time you get any ideas about yourself and your equipment—just remember ONE BIG AND IMPORTANT FACT:

"Mr. and Mrs. John Public Definitely Don't Want To Buy Your Machine When They Walk Up To It With Coin In Hand."

Juke Boxes Ready to Feature the New Stars and Songs That People Will Want to Hear Again and Again as Over 2000 New TV Stations Bring Them IntoBeing.

What does the end of the TV freeze mean to the juke box business?

According to most informed juke box men, it means a boom.

With the planning of 2000 new TV stations, there can no longer be any doubt that television is the mass entertainment of the future. In a very short time, there will be no section of the country that TV can't reach. It will bring constant entertainment into almost everyone's home.

And most importantly for our business, it will create numerous new singing stars and songs.

These are the artists and tunes which customers will then insist upon hearing in their nearest juke box. For on television, their favorite artists may do their favorite tunes once—or perhaps twice, but on a juke box, they can be heard as often as a customer is willing to pay a nickel or a dime to listen.

And here we hit upon the basic, sound reason for the success of the juke box: It lets the public play records it wants to hear for as long as it wants to hear them.

The situation created with the expansion of television is almost the same as when radio hit its peak. Radio, as we all know, created many singing stars, artists such as Bing Crosby, for instance. But you could only hear them on radio when they were scheduled. If you wanted to hear them at any other time, you either had to play a record or put a coin into the nearest juke box.

This same condition exists with television. Only more so. For now 2000 more stations will create untold numbers of new stars and songs which the public will insist upon hearing and hearing not only when they are scheduled to make appearances on television, but at many other times also.

As television spreads throughout the country, hitting areas which never had it before, it is likely that at the beginning people will be entirely engrossed in it. They may stay home for a short while to see every show that comes on. But very quickly they become selective. They find that, just as in radio, there are some shows they want to see, some they don't want to see. They find too, that after a week or two of not getting out at all, they want to see their friends again, get down to the corner tavern and have a drink with the boys.

It's when this period sets in-after the initial newness of television wears off-that the boom in juke box play must start.

For the shows that these people have been seeing on television will open up an entirely new entertainment world to them. They are going to see artists they never heard of before. They may hear tunes which are completely unfamiliar to them. But by the time they get to their nearest juke box, these will be the artists and songs they want to hear—the ones they will demand to hear. And when the public develops a whole new set of favorites (just as happened in radio 20 years ago), it means that play must necessarily increase because the old favorites are not being eliminated, they're being added to.

The picture then for juke box operators and music men as far as the lifting of the TV freeze is concerned, is a rosy one. The entire entertainment industry is set to boom. And the juke box business, which is an integral part of the entertainment industry, will boom along with it.

7. I'LL WALK ALONE......Don Cornell (Coral) 8. PITTSBURGH, PENNSYLVANIA Guy Mitchell (Columbia) 9. BE ANYTHING, BUT BE MINE Eddy Howard (Mercury) 10. PLEASE MR. SUN Johnnie Ray (Columbia)

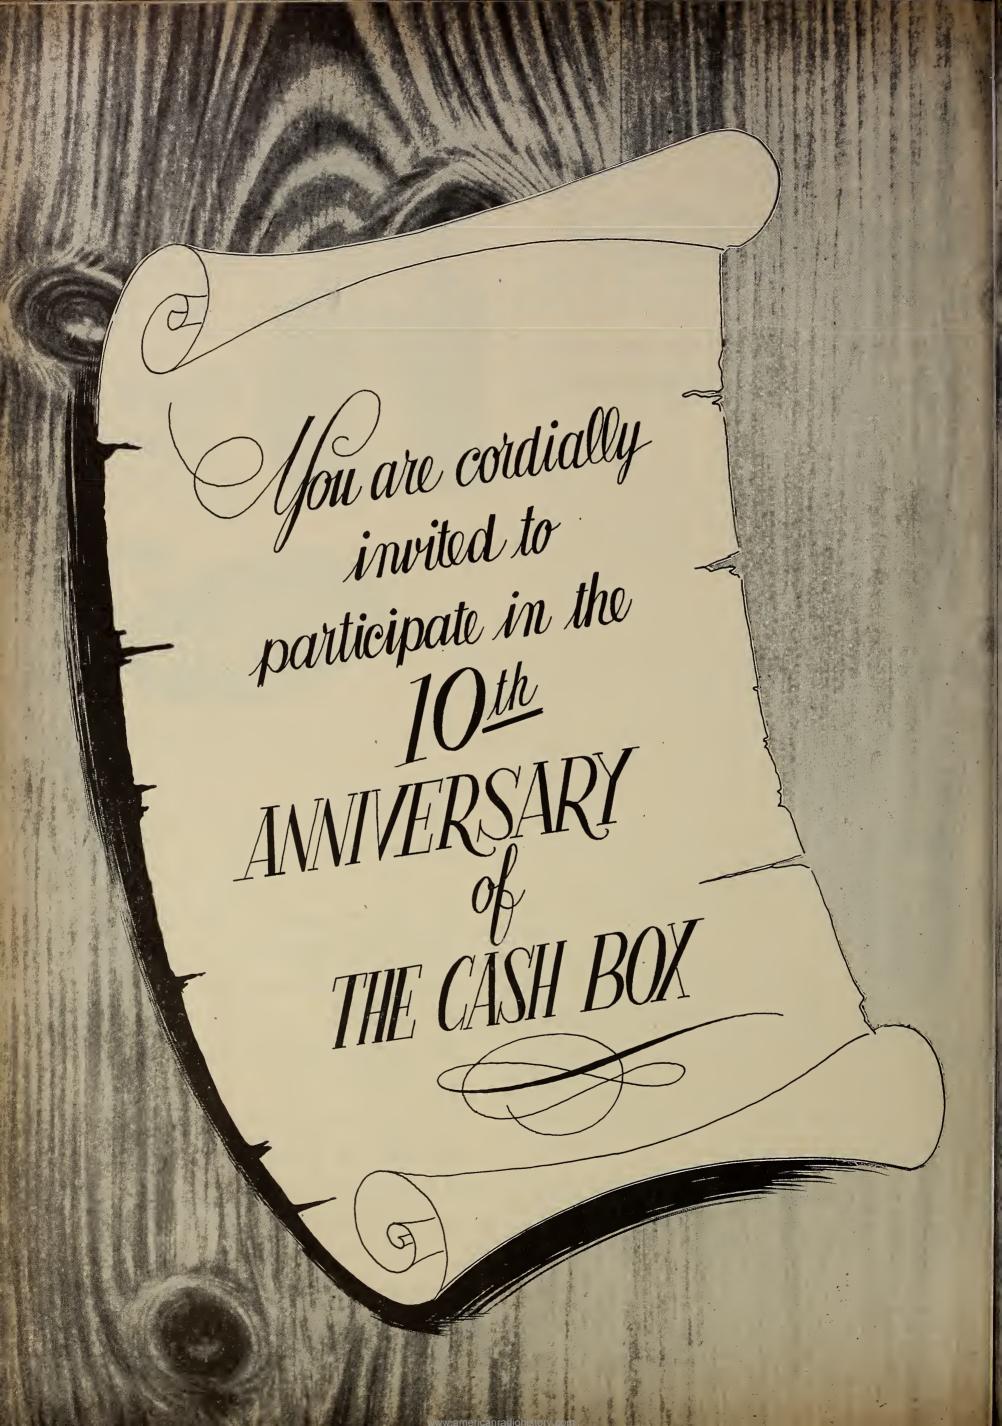

Joe Delaney, formerly A & R head of London Records, now with WJMR-New Orleans, has created quite an interest in his Saturday morning show among the juke box ops. Joe devotes one hour and forty five minutes of his show to airing the new releases of the week. All the record companies are represented, and it therefore gives the busy op a chance to sit down and review all the records since most ops can't spare the time to get around to every dis-tributor. This service aids both the record company and the operator. The proof of the pudding is that record companies are sending Joe their releases mornings with orders. . . Tom Reddy a new deejay at WJZ-New York, daily 2 to 2:30 P.M. . . . Ray Honaker (WSAP-Portsmouth, Va.) would like kidisks for his new kiddle show. . . . Dave Garroway wrote personal notes to 450 djs throughout the country plugging Jack Haskell's recording of "Come Back" and "Be Anything."

"Be Anything." Al "Jazzbo" Collins (WNEW-New York) broad-casts his 9:35-10:45 "Purple Grotto" from an eerie subterranean studio located beneath WNEW's regular studic. Jazzbo discovered the cavern, where by candle-light, he broadcasts his nightly show to his Grotto fans. . . John Wrisley, (WFGM-Fitchburg Mass.) is pretty pleased these days about his own 2KW organi-zation. The two KW's stand not for kilo-watts, but are the initials of his two little girls. The newest addition to the Wrisley family is Kathy, who bounced into the world on April 8th at a howling weight of 7 hs. 14 oz. Mom and baby doing well. The other KW is Karen, who is nearly three and owns, loves, and plays all Mitch Miller's "Little Golden Records." The cigar industry reported an upsurge in sales in Fitch-burg last week. . . Billy Eckstein held a telephone marathon with deejays all over the country. Jocks called Billy collect at the Paramount Theatre last Friday, many of them taping the interview for their shows. . . . WALK-Hunt-ransit Co. . . Something new in the realm of vocal quartets made its radio debut on the Bob Wolff sports show April 15th over Station WWDC, Wash-ington, D. C. The harmony quartet, called "The 4 Base Hits," is composed of Washington Senator pitchers Bob Porterfield and Tom Ferrick (tenors), out-fielder Irv Noren (baritone) and catcher Clyde Kluttz (bass). Accompanist or this stellar attraction is sportscaster Bob Wolff who reads notes and is a wizard on the uke (all four strings). * * * * * *

Among the judges and masters of ceremonies at the Easter Parade in Washington, D. C. for the benefit of the Cancer Crusade, were WWDC per-sonalities Hazel Markel, Art Brown, Milton Q. Ford and Jack Rowzie. Mrs. Markel was one of the Easter Fashion judges while the three WWDC djs alternated as mc's and described the affair. . . . Del Parks has replaced Stu Wayne on the morning spot at WPEN, Philadelphia. . . . Bud Wilson (WKBR-Manchester, N. H.) turned his program "Turntable Terrace" over to an an-nouncer in a hurry when his wife called. What was the result of his frantic dash from the studio? Debra Louise Wilson, first child for Bud and his wife, Marie. . . . Bob Poole, Mutual network personality, recently "faked it" without his vast audience ever knowing the difference. Poole, with a terrible case of laryngitis, was advised to talk very little. With the aid of his producer, Larry Dorn, Poole managed to use sound tracks, voice cuts and gimmicks so cleverly that he had to speak only about a hundred words on his whole hour show for days. . . . Morning Man, Pete Baron (WJXN-Jackson, Miss.) and his alarm clock keep them "Rising and Shining." Pete expects to add a parrot and/or a talking dog to the menagerie in the near future.

"HONEST AND TRULY" (2:54) "WHEN THE SWALLOWS COME BACK TO CAPISTRANO" (2:07) BILLY MAY ORCHESTRA

(Capitol 2054; F-2054) • A tune that is currently receiving many waxings is given another once over by the Billy May orchestra. The pleasant blend that has trade marked the group is put to good advantage as they spin through the top deck. Flip is an oldie that is also presented with the stylized May sound. Ops should get play out of both decks.

"BLACK SHADOWS" (2:57) "I FEEL LIKE CRYING" (3:08) JOHNNY HARTMAN (RCA Victor 20-4637; 47-4637)

• Johnny Hartman has one of his better sides on the initial end. The better sides on the initial end. The tune carries an eerie sound that Johnny renders in an expressive manner. The under siding is a slow ballad that's also done sincerely by Hartman along with his musical backing. The top one looks good.

"RAINBOW STREET" (2:24) "LOW DOWN MAMA FROM NEW ORLEANS" (2:45)

THE SATISFIERS

(Rudder 1002)

• The Satisfiers offer a polished blend as they go through a pleasant ditty on the top level. Together with the Rufus Smith quintet the disk comes out as listenable fare. The slow bounce that they present in a stylish manner. Ops might take a peek here.

"KISS OF FIRE" (2:35) "THE VERY FIRST TIME" (3:01) TONY MARTIN

(RCA Victor 20-4671; 47-4671)

• Tony Martin comes up with a first rate coverage of a tune that's sure to go a long way and his effort should give it an added push. The Henri Rene orchestra supplies the fitting backdrop to the grand vocalizing of Martin. The under portion presents Tony with an Irving Berlin ballad and the result is a delightful half. It's the first one.

"THE LITTLE TRAIN A-CHUGGIN' IN MY HEART" (2:46) "THERE'S A CLOUD IN MY VALLEY

OF SUNSHINE" (2:50)

MARION MORGAN (MGM 11219; K11219)

• Set off against a train effect background, Marion Morgan turns in an effortless job on a cute ditty. The LeRoy Holmes orchestra creates the musical mood. The second dish is a jump rendition of a tune that's cur-rently being teed off in the picture "Son Of Paleface." Ops oughta check here

"AS YOUR LOVE IS TO ME" (2:30) "SWEET, PURE AND INNOCENT" (2:15)

- PAULETTE SISTERS
- (Broadway 1012)

here.

• A plain but pleasant side is dished up on the upper portion by the har-monizing Paulette Sisters. The girls Jimmy Carroll orchestra which helps round out the disk. The bottom half is a beaty item that moves along easily as the girls run through the lyrics. Ops might wanna look.

F DISK

"I WAITED A LITTLE TOO LONG" (2:59) "(HO HO HA HA) ME TOO" (2:00)

KAY STARR (Capitol 2062; F-2062)

> slow and infectious melody that's labeled "I Waited A Little Too Long." The vocal is set against a light backing that adds to the effectiveness of the level. Another appealing feature of the disk is the change of pace that moves the tune along with a happy bounce. The total effect is one that should have ops scurrying for their nearest distributor in order to get hold of this tasty juke box item. The lower siding is a fast moving ditty that's handled cutely by Kay whose in-gratiating manner of delivery en-hances anything she turns out. The impetus of her current hit could impetus of her current hit could make this end stir up a bit of noise too. However, the lid that's gonna happen for sure is the first one and we advise ops to get with it now.

"BLUES AT SUNDOWN" (2:40) "BENSONALITY" (2:58) DUKE ELLINGTON

(Columbia 39712; 4-39712)

A slow but forceful blues item, composed by the Duke himself, is hammered out in convincing manner by the orchestra. Flip is another Ellington composition that's belted out in a driving fashion by the orchestra with a resulting good sound. Ops in the right locations can fully exploit this disk.

"I'M YOURS" (2:50) "JUST A LITTLE LOVIN'" (2:25) EDDIE FISHER

(RCA Victor 20-4680; 47-4680)

• A stirring and lovely ballad that's headin' high is given a wonderful send-off by Eddie Fisher and the Hugo Winterhalter orchestra. The lush backing and the expressive singing should make this waxing a logical contender for top honors. The under siding is a lighter tune with a pretty melody and here too the artist makes the most of it. The side to watch is the first one.

"LOVE ME" (2:38) "ONLY YOU" (2:46) FRANK CAMPANA (Jubilee 6003)

• An exciting tango beat and a fair vocal coverage makes the top level a listenable piece of wax. The Dick Freitas orchestra rounds the lid out. The second end is a dramatic number that comes out stronger as handled by Frank and the orchestra. Ops might be interested in this pair.

"TILL I SEE YOU AGAIN" (2:33) "JACK AND THE BEANSTALK" (2:44)

TOMMY TUCKER ORCHESTRA (MGM 11220; K11220)

• Tommy Tucker and his orchestra work their way through a slow, soft ballad on the top level together with vocalist Peter Hanley and a choral group. The result is a listenable half. The under deck is a cute ditty from the flick of the same name. The entire crew shows batter on this and Org crew shows better on this end. Ops oughta act accordingly.

"WRONG" (2:33) "I CAN'T STOP LOVING YOU" (2:53)

ANN GIBSON (Capitol 2049; F-2049)

• A pretty tune is given a first rate going over by chirp Ann Gibson with the assistance of Jerry Shard and his music. To go along with the fine vo-calizing of the artist, some delightful trumpeting adds to the level. The second end is a blues type number that's presented in a convincing manner.

"MUSIC LESSONS" (2:14) "DREAMS COME TUMBLING DOWN" (2:52)

ANDREWS SISTERS (Decca 28116; 9-28116)

• A novelty item with musical and animal effects is bounced through in a spright fashion by the Andrew Sisters. The girls make merry with the cute number and should find an additional method. additional market among the kiddies. The lower half is an up beat tune that carries a good melody and the trio takes care of the rest. Ops oughta get hep to both lids.

"JUST BECAUSE" (2:48) "DEEP ELEM BLUES" (2:51) DICK STABILE ORCHESTRA (Decca 28127; 9-28127)

• The Dick Stabile orchestra with the vocal work being handled by Billy Wilson skip around with a beaty numwith a Dixieland sound. The under lid is another similar disking that shows the vocalist to greater advant-age. Ops might be interested in this platter. platter.

"PLEASE DON'T CRY" (2:36) "I GIVE MY LOVE TO YOU" (2:47) ALFRED APAKA (Decca 28112; 9-28112)

(Decco 28112; 9-28112) • A slow, sentimental ballad is sent through its paces by Alfred Apaka on the top dish. The vocalist takes charge of the lyrics and turns in a listenable performance. The reverse side is a soft, soothing number that contains a bit of folk flavoring and here too Apaka brings in a creditable platter. Ops might take a peek.

KAY STARR

• With one song already at the very top of the parade, Kay Starr has waxed herself another potent contender. Fully exploiting her vocal talents, Kay takes off on a contender.

"TROUBLE IN MIND" (2:40) "THE DIRTY DOZENS" (2:34) TOMMY DORSEY

(Decca 28064; 9-28064)

• Tommy Dorsey and his Clambake Seven give a tune from the rhythm and blues field a thorough going over. The different instrumentalists are showcased on the disk with Tommy heading the list. The lower portion is a fast moving item that's given a slick treatment by the high flying combo. Ops could move this in the right spots.

"SHE MET A HANDSOME BANKER" (2:51)

"PHILOSOPHIZE" (2:48) EDMUNDO ROS ORCHESTRA

(London 1140)

• A pair of Latin tempo items are given the typical Edmundo Ros orchestration and vocal on this disking. The first one is a rhumba that Ros projects vocally while the under sid-ing is carried along with a samba beat. Both decks make for good listening and ops who are situated properly oughta watch this.

LOS ANGELES:

LOS ANGELES: Interesting to note that Capitol Records has just signed Freddie Slack on the label's 10th anniversary. It was exactly 10 years ago that Freddie and his orchestra backed E'lla Mae Morse in cutting Capitol's first great hit and its second release. First disc to bear the label had Paul Whiteman orchestra on "I Found a New Baby" and "The General Jumped at Dawn." But the new baby really jumped with "Cow Cow Boogie," written by Don Raye and Gene DePaul. . . . What makes the Slack return to Capitol all the more auspicious at this time is the hit he just scored by Ella Mae Morse on "Black-smith Blues." . . . While not yet scheduled, it would be a surprise to everyone around Capitol's Sunset & Vine offices if Ella Mae and Freddie weren't paired on a real big one in the very near future. . . . "YOU MADE ME LOVE YOU" (2:47) "THE DARKTOWN STRUTTERS BALL" (2:50) CONNIE HAINES & ALAN DALE

(Coral 60700; 9-60700)

• A grand old ballad is carried softly and smoothly by chirp Connie Haines. Assisting with the musical backing is Ray Bloch who lends to the appeal of the waxing. The lower level offers the combined talents of Connie and Alan Dale as they make merry with a jumpy item. Ops might merry with a jumpy item. Ops might be interested.

"OH MARIE" (2:34) "JUDY" (2:39) ALAN DALE

(Coral 60699; 9-60699)

• An interesting rendition of a fa-vorite Italian tune is presented on the first lid by Alan Dale and the Ray Bloch orchestra. Done slowly in Italian then jumped up in English, this dish makes for good listening. The under end is a plain number that Alan projects easily. The top one is a perennial coin catcher.

"SWEET SUE—JUST YOU" (2:35) "HAPPY BIRTHDAY" (2:45) JOHNNY LONG ORCHESTRA (Coral 60698; 9-60698)

• The Johnny Long orchestra takes hold of a cute oldie and bangs out an infectious rendition that bounces about merrily. The vocal ensemble projects the lyrics in a tasty manner making the end an interesting one. Flip offers Francey Lane with the group as they reface the old birthday classic. Ops might take a gander.

"KEY LARGO" (2:39) "HI HO TRAILUS WHIP" (2:41) ANITA O'DAY (Coral 60697; 9-60697)

• Anita O'Day takes a light Latin beat, adds a bit of sincere chirping and winds up with a good sound. The tune is helped along by the backing provided by Benny Carter and his aggregation. The under siding is a change of pace item that moves slowly then speeds up and Anita controls it all the way. Alvy West gets ork credits here. Ops oughta give a look.

"NO OTHER GIRL FOR ME" (2:32) "IF SOMEONE HAD TOLD ME"

(3:03)

GORDON MACRAE (Capitol 2047; F-2047)

A light number is dished up in a lilting fashion by Gordon MacRae on the top level. The Van Alexander orchestra sets the lid up musically and the result is a pleasant waxing. Flip is a pretty ballad from the flick "About Face" and here MacRae has a stronger entry. Ops oughta watch the bottom side.

"DELICADO" (2:22) "BAGS AND BAGGAGE" (2:55) STAN KENTON ORCHESTRA (Capitol 2040; F-2040)

• A South American Baio is offered with a novel instrumental arrangewith a novel instrumental arrange-ment by the Stan Kenton orchestra. This Latin tempo item should move well in the right spots. The under portion is another slick instrumental that features the bass soloing of Don Bagley. Ops oughta check here too.

SLEEPER OF THE WEEK

"YOU" (3:10)

"OH, HOW I MISS YOU TONIGHT" (2:05)

SAMMY KAYE ORCHESTRA (Columbia 39724; 4-39724)

> time, but this new release looks like the side to do it. The number is called "You" and it is based on passages from the opera "La Boheme." The melody is beautiful and Tony Russo, the band vocalist, takes full advantage of it as he projects the lyrics with warmth and feeling. The lush orking and expressive vocalizing make this lid a powerful entry. The second end is a pleasant sounding tune that the Kaydets handle in an adequate fashion. We look for the top deck to happen fast and ops oughta be prepared for it.

"MORE THAN LOVE" (2:47) "COME BACK" (2:43) GUY LOMBARDO ORCHESTRA (Decca 28132; 9-28132)

The pretty "Tango Of The Roses" dished up tastefully by the Guy Lombardo orchestra, featuring Kenny Martin with the vocal chores. The Lombardo crew could make this go. The flip level is a slow tune that's done adequately by both vocalist and orchestra. The upper lid deserves the attention of ops.

"HONEST AND TRULY" (2:46)

"SINGING WINDS" (2:30)

RALPH FLANAGAN

(RCA Victor 20-4656; 47-4656)

• Ralph Flanagan and his orchestra ease through a good tune with a typiease through a good tune with a typi-cally fine instrumental arrangement. Harry Prime and the Singing Winds add the finishing touches with their vocal efforts. The under lid is the Flanagan theme song and here too the band comes out on top. Ops can choose from either half.

"GOODY GOODY" (2:04)

"IT'S BEEN SO LONG" (2:11)

JEANNE GAYLE & BOB CROSBY'S BOBCATS (Capitol 2037; F-2037)

• A snappy, up beat ditty is given ample coverage on the upper deck through the combined efforts of Jeanne Gayle and the Bob Crosby Bobcats. The tune should kick up some excitement and this version should get some spins. The lower end is a jump item that the artists sell solidly. The upper one is stronger.

"IT'S A SIN TO TELL A LIE" (2:22)

"IT HAD TO BE YOU" (2:15)

DICK HAYMAN ORCHESTRA (Mercury 5825; 5825 x 45)

• A grand oldie that is currently being revived is given a wonderful instrumental and choral treatment by the Dick Hayman orchestra and chorus. The slow soft ballad is shown to good advantage via this rendition. Flip is another oldie that the group handles in a flowing fashion and once again come up with a good level. Ops oughta look in.

"STOMPIN' AT THE SAVOY" (2:48)

"BOULEVARD OF BROKEN DREAMS" (2:58)

RALPH MARTERIE ORCHESTRA ((Mercury 5827; 5827 x 45)

An old jump item is socked out convincingly by the Ralph Marterie orchestra. The band presents a big sound that turns out as listenable material. The under portion is a beautiful number that the orchestra executes tastefully with some fine trumpeting marking the end. Ops should get with this one.

"GOODBYE FOR AWHILE" (2:45)

"GOOD MORNING, MORNING GLORY" (2:47)

VIC DAMONE

(Mercury 5831; 5831 x 45)

• A popular Italian phrase coupled with a soothing melody make up the material Vic Damone has on the first platter. Together with the George Siravo orchestra, Vic sells the lyrics impressively. The bottom dish is a plain, jumpy number that Vic delivers creditably. We like the initial end.

"IT'S A SIN TO TELL A LIE" (2:45)

"THAT'S WHEN YOUR HEART-ACHES BEGIN" (2:38)

INK SPOTS

(Decca 25505; 9-25505)

• Using their familiar vocal format and styling, the Ink Spots come up with a pretty version of a wonderful old ballad. The ingratiating melody is carried effectively by the group with Bill Kenny in charge of the lead. The under siding is another slow, soft item that's presented typically. Our nod goes to the top deck.

SAMMY KAYE

• The Sammy Kaye orchestra comes up with a ballad that could very easily send it back to the head of the list. Sammy and the band have not had a big one in a long

"GOODY GOODY" (2:23) "AIR MAIL SPECIAL" (3:00) ELLA FITZGERALD (Decca 28126; 9-28126)

• An infectious ditty that's getting lots of waxing is given one of the better efforts by Ella Fitzgerald. Making use of all her vocal tricks and the backing supplied by the Sy Oliver orchestra, Ella has a potent end here. The reverse lid finds Ella running through a rousing number that she delivers with her patented vocal gib-berish that moves solidly with her fans. Ops have two good ones.

"BASIN STREET BLUES" (2:42) "FLAMINGO" (2:37)

HERB JEFFRIES & LES BROWN ORCHESTRA (Coral 60717; 9-60717)

The heartful vocalizing of Herb Jeffries is put to good advantage as he reads the lyrics to this classic blues item. The Les Brown orchestra fur-ther enhances the side with its fine musical accompaniment. The lower deck is another old tune that Jeffries handles expressively. Ops oughta get with the disk.

"PITTSBURGH, PENNSYLVANIA" (2:49)

"SOMEWHERE ALONG THE WAY" (3:15)

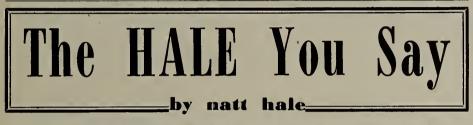

JERRY GRAY ORCHESTRA (Decca 28141; 9-28141)

• A cute ditty that's high up in the lists at the present time is given fair coverage on the upper lid. The Jerry Gray orchestra, with vocal credits go-ing to Tommy Traynor, gives out with a happy rendition. The second half offers the entire crew with a lovely ballad that could make noise. Their treatment could share in the spins treatment could share in the spins. Ops might take a gander.

Joe's Record Rack

NEW ORLEANS, LA.—Joe Delaney, formerly A & R head of London Rec-ords, and now a law student (crewcut and all) at Tulane University, has a little job on the side. He's a dj over WJMR, conducting Joe's Record Rack Monday thru Saturday 4-6 P.M. Here he is shown with guest stars Les Paul & Mary Ford during their recent swing around the country to promote their disks.

It isn't too often that we feel we've accomplished all we'd set out to achieve in any given 24-hour period. The other dawn, however, we found ourselves sit-ting in a roomy cab, driving to the lost horizon we bemusedly describe as home. During such moments of post-reflection, we usually find ourselves excogitating the plans for the next day's assault upon the deejay element and radio personnel en force.

sonnel en force. Into our enviable spirit of euphoria came the dulcet contemplation of the cabbie: "Whadd'ya doin' out dis time o' night? Hully smoke, it's five o'clock in d'mawnin awreddy... Whadd'ya do, own a joint or sum'pn?" Undoubtedly, we should have known better. Too many times, we've tried to explain our peripatetic duties to the layman, only to leave a bewildered and flustered "square" regarding us with a mixed feeling of something between awe and nathor awe and pathos.

awe and pathos. Undaunted, we gave out with a few succinct sentences describing the inci-dental details of professional record promotion. Naturally, the disc jocks, news-paper columnists, specialty photographers and all the rest of the publicity hierarchy came in for their share of mention. To all of which, our cabbie friend seemed apathetic. True, he gave us an at-tentive ear, which probably accounted for our warming up to the subject with greater detail and enthusiasm. This led us into the subject of how we expunged the competition with persistent and unrelenting campaigns, all calculated with fulminatory "gimmicks" and the like. By this time, we were rolling along the Drive at a

By this time, we were rolling along the Drive at a healthy 20-mile-per-hour clip. The cabbie had settled back into his inflated cushion with a far-away look in his retinas. Once again, the recital of our personal pursuit to justify our existence by extolling the talents of the glamorous figures in the never-never land of the recording world had exacted its toll. We felt certain that the cabbie now recognized his passenger as being above the ordinary run of men, beyond the realm of mere mortals.

NATT HALE It would probably cost us an additional two bits to inflate the impression, but we still felt it was worth it... Within a matter of minutes, however, the cabbie had inserted a sharp pin into the bubble that was our dream world, and left us a pale, exsanguine heap on the back seat.

"Bet ya have to take a lotta guff, don'cha?" he asked. "How do you mean—a lotta guff?" we asked. "Well, the way I see it," he said, "you're the Number Two man on the totem pole all the way. You gotta be nice to all the guys you have to see—those disc jocks, the newspaper guys, the artists and—well, just everybody. You're always the bridesmaid, don'tcha see?" We were beginning to see jocks, the newspaper guys, the artists and—well, just everybody. You're always the bridesmaid, don'tcha see?"

We were beginning to see.
"Maybe I'm wrong," he maybeed, "but, from where I sit, when you go out on your regular rounds, you're askin' for somethin' all the time. Either you're tryin' to get a record played, or you're seein' if some guy won't write somethin' for you or some guy takes a picture you need. You always gotta be in a position where you need a favor? Right?"
We were really irked. Probably because the cabbie was bringing facts to light which had hitherto remained imprisoned in the dark recesses of our mind. "Now, then," he continued, "I imagine it's even a little worse when you get one of those stars in town, isn't it? Geez, even with the few I get in the cab, I know how they like to be babied. I guess you gotta be with 'em, take 'em around, interduce 'em to the big people, see that they're not bothered, get 'em interviewed, get their names in the paper, maybe pictures, and everything. Isn't that kinda tough?"
He didn't realize how much tougher he was making it for us!
"Now, take me," he went on with the torture, "I just bought a new ranchtype house in the suburbs, I gotta wife, three terrific kids, a brand-new Caddie besides this cab, and a gift shop business on the side. I work eight hours a day and then, Buddy, that's all! If anybody doesn't like the way I drive or the way I work, I can tell 'em to lump it. . . . I don't have to take nothin' from nobody!"

However, to temper our disgruntlement, he added: "'Course, I don't get to meet all the glamorous people you do, and I don't get to see all the fancy places you do—but, whatthehell, I'm satisfied!" He's satisfied! He should only know! Well—what're you gonna do?

Record Stars Score In New York Club Dates

NEW YORK-There were several York night clubs last week which re-futed the old bromide that record stars didn't do well on personal appearances.

The most publicized, of course, was that of Johnnie Ray at the Copa, but we'll talk about his great show in another issue. At the moment our hats are off to start to finish shows how much that experience is worth. The audience's enthusiasm makes it hard for her to leave the floor and she has to sing about ten songs, in-cluding, naturally, her Jubilee record-ing of "Be Anything, But Be Mine." And what's more, every song has a style of its own, and every song shows Dolly to be an authoritative, polished performer. The Dominoes, who just closed at

At the moment our hats are off to Dolly Dawn, currently appearing at Cafe Society and to The Dominoes who last week played The Birdland. Dolly, who recently signed with Jubilee Records, gives one of the most polished performances we've seen. Although she hasn't been on records for the past few years, she's been appearing in clubs around the country and her manner of handling the audi-ence and keeping them with her from start to finish shows how much that experience is worth.

The Dominoes, who just closed at Birdland, are a group headed by Billy Ward whose reputation was made on their King Records. "Sixty Minute Man" sent them to the top of the list and they've stayed there ever since, having just won the Pittsburgh Couvier Poll

They pack all the excitement of their records into their act and, most difficult of all for a group, move with grace and agility while they sing. Although they are currently con-centrating almost exclusively on rhythm and blues material, there's no doubt that their appeal with pop material should be even greater. At any rate, here are two acts, at

At any rate, here are two acts, at least, which prove that being a hit on records doesn't mean that their style can't be transferred to a sight medium.

See Run On Puccini Melodies

NEW YORK—With Puccini's "La Boheme" now in public domain, a run on the melodies from this opera is expected in the music business. First to hit the market is Sammy Kaye's Columbia recording of "You" written by Sunny Skylar and Mor-ton Frank and based on "Musetta's Waltz." Tin Pan Alley tunesmiths have long

BANDS BOUNCE BACK BIG!

Turnout For Billy May Band At Martin Block's "Gandy Dancers' Ball" Stimulates Entire Biz As It Proves Pulling Power Of Name Orchestras.

The Band

NEW YORK-It looked like the good old days last Friday night, April 11, as more than 4000 kids jammed New York's Manhattan Center to dance to Billy May's orchestra and listen to the singing of Frankie Laine.

Titled the "Gandy Dancers' Ball" by its promoter and M.C., disk jockey Martin Block, the dance was not only a complete sellout, but thousands of would-be ticket purchasers were turned away at the door and still more thousands of $1.50 mail reservations had to be returned.

The huge crowd was treated to one of the most stimulating bands heard this way in a long while. Billy May, who with this appearance, had his first showing in the east, fulfilled the promise of his advance publicity and his highly regarded Capitol disks by coming up with an original sound and style that kept the audience listening and dancing throughout the evening. Frankie Laine, who was the guest singer, also drew tremendous response. The Columbia artist sang four of his recorded numbers and had them calling for more as he left the stage. The Gandy Dancer tag was applied

The enthusiastic response to this affair, together with similar turnouts for dance bands which have recently occurred in other parts of the country, have made it clear to everyone interested in the dance business that the day of the big band business is just to the dance because of the record of | around the corner. that title which Laine currently has in the best seller lists. Gandy dancers are railroad men and in line with that, the room was decorated with railroad posters, and railroad workers caps were distributed at the door by Columbia's N. Y. distrib Times-Columbia as well as pamphlets supplied by the railroads.

There is much talk of the revival of some of the great aggregations of a decade ago and certainly the crowds at Manhattan Center last Friday night gave everyone reason enough to go all out in an effort to cash in on the unreleased demand for big dances as we used to know them.

At the Gandy Dancers' Ball, the

May orchestra played several sets to which half the audience just crowded the bandstand to listen while the rest let go on the dance floor. Each contingent appeared to be enjoying itself as much as the other.

If, as many think, this a forerunner of even greater dances to come, the revival of big bands should make itself felt very shortly in the record business. For not only was Billy May introduced to the public through his Capitol records, but his personal appearances have been stimulants to their sale. The same is bound to apply to many other bands as soon as they really get rolling.

The Martin Block affair was what the entire business has been waiting for-the proof that it could be done. It was indeed a dandy Gandy Dancers' Ball.

Ruth Brown, Atlantic money maker, and principal product of the pen of Jack Walker, is climbing high on all of the "Hot" charts with her "5-10-15 Hours."... Joe "Zizzy" Johnson (we were cheerleaders together years ago at Wendell Phillips Hi) is producing the show at Detroit's Flame Club. His praise for Nellie Hill could be heard thruout the lobby of The Gotham Hotel where we lunched a week ago. Al Hibbler keeping the Flame burning right thru here; with Hadda Brooks and Tamara Hayes set to fan it during May. Maurice King and his band now in their second year at the Motor City's gay spot.... Bill Lane a pleasant addition to Detroit's WJR, with his show called "Swinging Down The Lane."... Robbins Music has some great music in that wonderful new movie "Singing In The Rain" another of the many fine products from the pride of Culver City, MGM.... T. J. Fowler signs with Savoy and Lee Magid doing flips about his first release "Fowlers Boogie." A huge box of Savoy records just delivered and sorry there was nothing on that new team called The Four Buddies. All sides look good from this turntable.

M. Whitmark & Sons have a national campaign to promote "If Someone Had Told Me" with Dolores Gray doing the vocal. . . . Mynna Granat types a note about the threesome good-luck charm. Firstly the gal is with three publishers: Raleigh, Bristol, and Biltmore. Nextly they are backing three sides: "Boogie Oogie" with Larry Darnell; "Why Don't I" The Heartbreakers and lastly "Proud Of You" featuring Mr. Blaine's boy Sonny Til. Columbia, Jubilee and Victor being the labels, all needed now is to get a saddle on three midnite drawings in a row and we can all retire from the business. . . When we made our last hurried overnite trip into New York City, Chris Forde, President of Tuxedo Records was most gracious in arranging things. Chris had set up interviews for this scribe with Tommy Small, Bill Cook and Phil Gordon, but it was so 'damp,' well maybe you know how it is.

Leonard Chess has passed thru the Cajun country and is now over where the soil is thick and red, namely Georgia and taking orders for John Lee Hooker's "Union Station Blues" b/w "High Priced Woman." Chess next will spin over to Memphis for a recording session with Howling Wolf. . . . Eugene "Genial Gene" Potts, a brother Alpha and deejay, is disking from WGIV in Charlotte, N. C. His "Coffee Pot Time" is a must during the early hours in Tobaccoland. . . While out in the well irrigated San Joaquin valley, Leroy Calhoun of KARM, Fresno, Calif., celebrated his third anniversary with ABC's outlet, as a deejay. . . . Singer Mabel Scott and hubby Charles Brown took it all to court, because things got so messy. Now a peaceful divorce and property settlement is being worked out to the satisfaction of both parties.

Settlement is being worked out to the satisfaction of both parties. When Alan Fried put on his big Moondog Dance, recently in Cleveland, it was not The Orioles, as mentioned in this column. All praise goes to The Dominoes, who along with Paul Williams and His Hucklebuckers, were the main attractions... Jack Gale, of United Music, coming to Chicago and wants to know "If I will have lunch with him?" The man must be kidding. I haven't had a T-Bone steak since the last record plugger was in town. Jack says: "The new Tony Bennett 'Somewhere Along The Way,' is slightly terrific." ... Sugar Chile Robinson; Hal "Cornbread" Singer; Lowell "Blues" Fulsom; Ray Charles and famed blues-singer Lil Green doing a stretch at Chi's Regal. To be followed on May 16th by Ella Fitzgerald and Erskine Hawkins. ... Stan Kenton playing to packed house every nite during his current run at The Blue Note. Delicado much in demand as an encore number. What a showman. ... The Devine Miss Sarah Vaughan follows Stan, and then Dinah Washington returns to her home town and The Note, plus some greens at my house. SAM EVANS is the Jass and Blues expert heard nitely on WGN, Chicago's Mutual outlet and on WBKB-TV.

TOWN" (3:16) "ROCK THIS MORNING" (2:00)

JESSE ALLEN (Aladdin 3129)

• A slow dynamic blues is given a dramatic reading by Jesse Allen. Allen, who wrote the tune, sings the sad lyrics potently. The musical group sets up the vocalist smoothly, as they back him in polished manner. Flip is a fast boogie beat that Allen belts out with zest. Allen's vocal and the supporting instrumentalists combine to make this a top flight waxing.

"GOOMP BLUES" (2:41)

"ONE NIGHTER BLUES" (2:31) JOHNNY OTIS

(Mercury 8273; 45x8273)

• Johnny Otis and his ork come up with two instrumentals that make good listening. The upper deck is a driving number that Otis and the boys spin through excitingly. A spirited arrangement that turns into a wild instrumentation makes this a likely side. The under lid is slow, low down item that features some exceptional saxing. Ops oughta check here.

"HAPPY DAYS" (2:14) "GIVE ME LIBERTY OR GIVE ME

LOVE" (2:52) PAUL GAYTON

(Okeh 6870)

• A rocking rhythmic blues is given a rollicking treatment by Paul Gayton as he bangs out a forceful vocal. Gayton pipes the happy lyrics with zest and spirit as the ork, featuring a driving brass section, provides a potent backdrop. The second side is a slow romantic oldie that the boys do justice by. Gayton sings the pretty ballad feelingly and succeeds in waxing a listenable end.

"DRIPPERS BOOGIE" (2:31) "TANYA" (3:05)

JOE LIGGINS AND HIS HONEYDRIPPERS (Specialty 430)

• A real gone wild boogie beat is bounced through with contagious spirit by Joe Liggins and His Honeydrippers. The slick orking of an exciting arrangement, enhanced by the sock vocalizing of the harmony group, add up to a smash side. The lower lid, a slow jump is another dramatic treatment, solidly executed. The entire waxing is accompanied by a stirring undertone. Ops have two smash sides here and we recommend their putting them into the boxes.

"REELING AND ROCKING" (2:23) "GOIN' HOME" (2:15)

FATS DOMINO

 (Imperial 5180)
 A slow jump is given a rocking Fats Domino treatment and the result is a strong side. Fats' slick singing makes this a side his devotees will go for. The rollicking tune is sold in sock style by the chanter who is potently backed by the ork. Flip is a slow beat item executed forcefully by the singer and the musical aggregation. Ops who are looking for good filler material need look no further.

AWARD O' THE WEEK

"MOODY MOOD FOR LOVE" (2:35) "EXCLAMATION BLUES" (2:41)

KING PLEASURE (Prestige 924)

• The top level presents the distinctive vocalizing of King Pleasure. The quick tempo delivery of a slow tune makes this an unusual etching and one that comes out a potent platter. "Moody Mood For Love" is a slow, soft tune with romantic lyrics that Pleasure chants engagingly. A fem chirp aids in the singing, and pipes in the same racing manner to help make this a different side. The lush orking of the slick arrangement aids no end as they provide a dramatic backdrop for the chanting duo. Ops looking for a record that's sure fire have one here. Flip is a hustling tune that has King Pleasure reversing the pattern he set on top lid, singing a fast bounce with an easy delivery. King's powerhouse selling of this item makes this side a happy companion for the top deck. Ops are advised to latch on to this record immediately.

"HOUSEWIFE BLUES" (2:29) "I'VE LOST" (3:00) THE ENCHANTERS

(Jubilee 5080)

• A fast moving tune is taken through its paces by the Enchanters. An ok set of lyrics and a solid melody are chanted with zest by the quartette who are backed in polished style by Buddy Lucas and his Band Of Tomorrow. The under lid is a slow item capably sung by the harmonizing group. Ops would do well to take a listen.

"SO TIRED" (3:00) "THELMA LOU" (2:40) ROY MILTON

(Specialty 429)

• A slow sentimental number is given an easy treatment by Roy Milton as he vocalizes the sad lyrics with warmth. A sincere arrangement is projected soothingly by the Solid Senders as together they bring in a listenable side. The second portion is a moderate jump that Milton socks out expressively. The sax is the featured instrument on both sides.

Lucky Millinder and his orchestra. Titled, "Loaded With Love," the happy, stimulating item is treated to a sock arrangement that the Mil-linder ork projects merrily. The musical aggregation provides sprightly mood music for the vocalizing duo, Corky Robbins and Johnny Bosworth, who chant the happy lyrics smoothly and with ease. The infectious warbling of Corky and Johnny do much to help put the tune over, and the polished

"BE ANYTHING" (2:19) "SKIPPIN' AND HOPPIN'" (2:35) BOBBY SMITH (Apollo 1191)

• Bobby Smith and his ork come up with a r&b treatment of a current pop plug item. Kitty DeChavis chants the pretty tune in ok style and Smith and his ork provide the musical backdrop. Lower deck is a driving beat instrumental that the boys rip through as they drive home the spirited arrangement. Ops should take a peek.

"MAILMAN'S SACK" (2:13) "NEWSPAPER BOY BLUES" (2:44) TINY BRADSHAW

(King 4537)

Rives SLEEPER OF THE WEEK

"LOADED WITH LOVE" (2:16)

"RAM BUNK SHUSH" (2:30)

LUCKY MILLINDER

(King 4534)

• A moderate bounce is taken for a rollicking spin around the wax by Lucky Millinder and his orchestra. musicianship of the ork provide the finishing touches. Juke box devotees know the name "Millinder" with it.

• Tiny Bradshaw belts out a fast moving shouty item with zest. Bradshaw's dynamic vocal is supported in spirited fashion by the ork as they handle a driving arrangement solidly. Featured is a raucus and wild bit of saxing that does much for the waxing. Flip is a low down blues sung by Tiny Kennedy, and again on this side, the ork is strong as it delivers a rollicking instrumentation. Ops have two likely sides.

and with the right kind of waxing, which we have here, another kind of happy tune will be played—that of coins dropping into the boxes. The under portion is a similar beat instrumental that showcases the Millinder group to advantage. Listeners are treated to some solid saxing and all around strong orking. We look for the top side to break fast and advise ops to get "NUMBER MAMBO" (3:09) "MAMBO BLUES" (2:38) NAT BROOKS (Rainbow 173)

• A catchy novelty mambo is taken for a pulsating spin around the wax by Nat Brooks and the Mambo Boys. Brooks' vocal of the rhythmic latin number is top grade and he receives forceful accompaniment from the instrumental group. The etching is an exciting presentation and makes for good dancing and good listening. Flip is a similar item ably rendered by the artists. Ops should take a listen.

"MAMBO HOLIDAY" (Side #1 2:45) "MAMBO HOLIDAY" (Side #2 2:39)

JOE HOLIDAY (Prestige 772)

• A stirring mambo tune written by Joe Holiday is treated to an exciting arrangement and socked out in stimulating manner by Holiday and the ork. The Latin tempo item is presented on both sides of the platter and it comes out as an infectious piece. The tenor sax solo is an impressive bit of musicianship backed excitingly by bongo and timbales.

"BLOODSTAINED BANNER" (2:42) "THE GOVERNOR" (2:41)

THE DIXIEAIRES (Prestige 2001)

• A driving religious item is handled with much gusto by the Dixieairs, who sock out a contagious harmony arrangement in grand style. The lead vocal chants the rhythmic spiritual dynamically and the result is an ok disk. The under portion is a similar number with a slower beat. Once again the Dixieairs come through with a solid performance. Ops who have the right location for this material should take a listen.

"MY LAST AFFAIR" (2:34) "STILL WATER" (2:55)

CHARLES BROWN (Aladdin 3120)

• Charles Brown and his band run through a slow blues item easily. Brown, who seems to rome up with one good one after another, chants the sad lyrics expressively and smoothly. The band provides a soft, melodic backing. This is an ok side. Flip is another slow number that Brown delivers in a potent manner, and again on this end the arrangement is top flight.

"BOOGIE-OOGIE" (2:43) "DARLIN"" (3:03)

LARRY DARNELL

(Okeh 6869)

• A driving boogie beat novelty is sung by Larry Darnell with joyful abandon. Darnell's chanting of the catchy lyrics is explosive. The orking of this rhythmic rocker backs the singer solidly as they bring in a likely disk. The under position is a change of pace that Darnell and the boys work on with pleasing results. The artists give a moving performance as they handle this slow mellow tune.

BOSTON, MASS.—Earl Bostic, just recovered from a near fatal accident which occurred last December while he was enroute to fill a one nighter, is pic-tured with his band as they played before a capacity crowd at the Hi Hat Club in Boston recently. The band made its first recording in five months last week, under the direction of Ralph Bass of King and Federal.

Winning Artists Receive Pittsburgh Courier Awards At Carnegie Hall Concert

NEW YORK — The Pittsburgh Courier held its annual "Courier Concert" at Carnegie Hall, New York, on April 19th, at which the winners of it's yearly theatrical poll received their awards. Among the formult of it's yearly theatrical poll received their awards. Among the favorites who stood the test and emerged winners were: Nat "King" Cole, who was voted the best of the Trios. The Cole group won handily, though Rene Hall, Errol Gar-ner and Charles Brown were strong vote getters and finished in that order behind the "King". Billy Eckstine drew the nod as Champ Male Singer. This made the fifth time that Billy has led the field. However, Eckstine did not come through without a strong struggle from Bob White, a talented newcomer for whom a great future is predicted. Lionel Hampton was overwhelming-ly voted the best band. Lionel, who has taken this coveted honor three times, received his closest run for the championship from Duke Hampton. The winning Hampton garnered twice as many votes as the runner-up was able to gather. The Dominoes ran away from the list of Quartets which included some of the biggest names in the theatrical

Deejay Frank Plath (WFJL) To Tape Atom Bomb Test

CHICAGO—Probably the only dee-jay who will be present at the next atomic bomb test will be Frank Plath of Station WFJL, this city. Frank left town this past Tuesday with his favorite portable tape re-corder and instructions to be in Las Vegas, Nevada at a certain date. This will be the first time that any deejay has been present at an atom bomb test explosion, Frank believes, and is looking forward to thrilling and is looking forward to thrilling the audiences of his many shows on WFJL with the tape of the bomb burst.

burst. Frank Plath has two daily shows over WFJL: "Disks & Data" at 4:00 to 5:30 P.M. and "Musical Memories" at 10:30 to 11:00 A.M. He is also heard on Thursday eve-nings, 8:00 to 8:30 P.M. with "Chi-cago's Top Tunes" as well as Satur-days 12:30 to 2:30 P.M. with the show: "Saturday Date".

Joe "Cactus" Nixon has taken over with the country record spinning at WOKE in Oak Ridge, Tenn. Joe previously did his spinning at Nashville's WMAK. He's now carrying three and a half hours per day split into two morning segs.

Margie Hess of the "Jamboree Sweethearts" is in need of a lead or alto female voice for the group. If interested contact Margie at P. O. Box 18, Pennsboro, West Virginia.

Pat Cook, who spins the country records on St. Louis' KSTL, opens "Pat Cook's Rhythm Roundup and Jamboree" on May 4th. Show is presented each Sunday through the summer at Chain of Rocks Park in St. Louis. Dave Landers (M-G-M) will be the featured name on May 4th, with Johnny and Jack (RCA Victor) following on May 11th. Cowboy Copas (King) will hold the feature spot on May 18th with succeeding Sundays to be booked. Anyone interested in a St. Louis Sunday date?

Frank Page, who heads the country artist work at Shreveport's KWKH, is building a fine stable of record-ing talent. Station now boasts of Webb Pierce (Decca), Faron Young (Capitol), Slim Whitman (Imperial), Red Sovine (M-G-M), and Jimmie Lee. Page spins the coun-try records at KWKH and handles the Saturday night "Hayride" which has long been a feature of the mid-west west.

Maggie and Scotty (Swan) head the "Chippewa Val-ley Barn Dance" from WEAU in Eau Claire, Wisconsin. They carry their own managing and booking chores having traveled 83,000 miles during 1951 on their per-sonal appearances. Scotty also does the country disc jockeying at WEAU. Slim Williams is carrying a one hour live show each lay from WENE in Endicott, New York. On Saturday afternoons they have a show from WNBF in Bingham-aturday noon television show is being set for this group.

He is "Little Danny" Fields, age 3, who was discovered in one of the station's recent talent contests. "Little Danny" carries on his show for a local sponsor, spins his own records and occasionally picks up his little guitar to do a number himself.

Pee Wee King (RCA Victor) entertained the local disc jockeys and other Nashville personalities following his guest appearance on WSM's "Grand Ole Opry" April 12th. Occasion was handled by King's manager, J. L. Frank, and Prof. Mgr. of his Ridgeway pubery, Charlie Adams. During the festivities tapes were cut for use on stations all over the country in conjunction with King's new RCA Victor record of "Busy Body."

The Carlisles (Mercury) in Nashville cutting new sides for Dee Kilpatrick following a very successful two weeks of p. a's. in Alabama. Martha Carson (Capitol) shared billing with them on Alabama tour. Reports are that it was one of the best accepted and attended tours through those parts in some time.

Cousin Walt of WIEL in Elizabethtown, Ky. recently appointed Director At Large of Elizabethtown's Chamber of Commerce. Vine Grove FFA also saw fit to appoint him an honorary member. Congrats, Walt! Now between spinning your country records you will have plenty to keep you busy.

Jack Davis, who does the WROM (Rome, Ga.) country record spinning from his own Rockmart, Ga. studios, has just completed an eight week "Amateur Program" from the stage of Rockmart Theatre. All winners appeared on an hour long TV'er from Atlanta's WAGA on April 13 with all kinds of comment kicked up around the viewing area. Maybe chances for a regular spot.

"ECHOES OVER THE SMOKEYS" (3:00)

"MY WORST MISTAKE" (2:52) MATTIE O'NEIL and SALTY HOLMES (King 1056)

• Mattie O'Neil and Trio, assisted by Salty Holmes on the harmonica, cooperate on a slow country item with excellent results. Mattie O'Neil's lead vocal is strong and she uses the now popular echo chamber effectively. Holmes harmonica playing backs the singers in solid style as together they etch an ok side. Flip side presents the same artists in a slow tune with sad lyrics.

"DOODLIN"" (2:22)

"THANKS FOR LOVING ME" (2:22) JOE ALLISON and HIS NASHVILLE BOYS (Capitol 9219; F-9219)

• A moderate, lilting ditty is sung by Joe Allison in sprightly fashion as he warbles the infectious lyrics smoothly. Allison's effortless, but appealing vocal is backed unobtrusively by his Nashville Boys, and the result is a grade A side. The under level is a similar soft and easy tune with romantic lyrics that Joe Allison executes pleasantly.

"DING DONG BELLS" (2:23) "I'D LIKE TO KISS SUSIE AGAIN" (2:31)KENNY ROBERTS (Coral 60696)

Roberts happy warbling of the contagious lyrics, "Those ding dang bells are ringing again, but I'll be darned if they're ringing for me", is solidly backed by the instrumental group. The second side is another novelty that Kenny Roberts yodels joyfully. Ops have two interesting sides to choose from.

"A LOVELESS MARRIAGE" (2:36) "I'D SURPRISE YOU" (2:31) RED SOVINE (MGM 11214)

• Red Sovine warbles a moderate beat that tells the story of a loveless marriage. Sovine's dramatic vocal of the weeper is done in polished manner and the presentation comes out an ok disking. The lower lid is a slow country lament that Red projects with feeling. The instrumental accompaniment on both decks is better than fair. Ops should take a listen.

fabulous success for the artist. The catchy, rhythmic piece is treated to a spirited arrangement that Pee Wee's band polishes off in sprightly fashion. Redd Stewart warbles the cute lyrics infectiously, and his lilting performance does much to help make this side soar. Effective use of a clicking sound throughout gives the reading an interesting touch. Another point of interest is the short time it takes to spin the record. Just under two minutes. Flip is a snappy, happy tune that the artists do well by. However, we look for the top deck to break out and be another big one for Pee Wee and the ops.

Rome, N. Y. and had the entire town turn out to greet him. April 15 was declared "Bobby Wayne Day" in Rome. The entire city from the Mayor and top officials to the local restaurateurs were keyed for the arrival of the new Mercury star who went there especially to help the town relaunch vaudeville—and the re-ception was an all out demonstration that could not be topped.

Townsend met the plane with other Rome officials. Also on hand was Lou Barile, 200 members of a local Bobby Wayne Fan Club, several sound trucks, committee of juke box ops from the Rome-Utica area and a fleet of automobiles sup-plied by the local Buick dealer. The group was taken through the town by police escort—sirens blaring. First stop was luncheon given by ops. After eating, Wayne visited juke box

Four Aces Rush "I'm Yours"

FOUR ACES KUSH "I'M YOURS" CLEVELAND, O.—The Four Aces did a rush recording of "I'm Yours" last week, covering a tune which looks like a big one. Appearing at Moe's Main Street in this city, the boys couldn't get to New York for a wax-ing session, so Ed Kissack and Law-rence McIntyre of the Decca staff flew out here to do it. The treatment follows their successful "Tell Me Why" style and the coupling will be "I Understand," the great standard originally cut by Jimmy Dorsey and Bob Eberly about a decade ago. The disk is scheduled to be released immediately. Other recordings on "I'm Yours" which are already making noise are those of Don Cornell on the Coral label and Eddie Fisher on Victor. The tune was not only published by Bobby Mellin but also written by him.

U. S. DISTRICT COURT (District of Maryland) HOLDS OPS ENTITLED TO INJUNCTION

DISTRICT OF MARYLAND

Civil Action No. 5690

Civil Action For Declaratory Judgment And Injunction - Johnson Act-"Dealers" In Coin Machines Within Meaning Of Act-Interstate Transportation Of Gambling Devices-Held Plaintiffs Are Entitled To Declaratory Judgment And To Injunction:

CHESNUT, District Judge-

The plaintiffs in this case are seeking a declaratory judgment and an in-junction to prevent the enforcement by the defendants against the plain-tiffs of the provisions of the Act of Congress of January 2, 1951, c. 1194, 64 Stat. 1135, 15 USCA, ss. 1171-77, sometimes referred to as the Johnson sometimes referred to as the Johnson Act. The case has been heard upon complaint, answer, evidence and ar-gument of counsel. There is no pro-cedural objection interposed by the defendants. The principal question in the case is whether the activities of the plaintiffs constitute them "dealers" in coin machines within the meaning in coin machines within the meaning of the Act.

of the Act. The main purpose of the Act is to aid the States in the local enforce-ment of anti-gambling laws by pro-hibiting the interstate transportation of such gambling devices. Section 1171 defines the term "gambling devices". It includes cer-tain, so-called slot machines or coin machines, including such machines owned and operated by the plaintiffs in this case. Section 1172 prohibits the inter-Section 1172 prohibits the inter-state transportation of such gambling devices except where the interstate transportation is to a place in another State which has enacted a law pro-viding for the exemption of such State from the provisions of the Act.

Section 1173 requires manufacturers of and dealers in gambling devices to register with the Attorney General, and to file inventory and sales and delivery records monthly. It also re-quires the manufacturer or dealer to mark and number each gambling demark and number each gambling de-vice so that it is individually identi-fiable. It is made unlawful for manufacturers or dealers to sell, deliver or ship gambling devices not so marked, and it is also made unlawful for them to recondition, repair, sell, deliver or ship such machines without having registered or without filing monthly reports.

And by section 1174 the shipping packages for such gambling devices or repair parts thereof must be plainly marked.

Section 1175 provides that it shall be unlawful to manufacture, recon-dition, repair, sell, transport, pos-sess or use any gambling devices in the District of Columbia, in any pos-session of the United States, within Indian country or within the maritime and territorial jurisdiction of the United States (it will be noted that that the prohibition does not apply to the use of gambling devices within the State).

Section 1176 provides maximum penalties for violation of any provi-sion of the Act, to be not more than a fine of $5,000 or imprisonment of not more than two years, or both.

Section 1177 provides that gambling devices transported, delivered, ship-ped, manufactured, reconditioned, re-paired, sold, disposed of, received, pos-sessed or used in violation of the provisions of the Act shall be seized and forfeited to the United States.

forfeited to the United States. The facts of the case with respect to the activities of the plaintiffs as stated in the complaint and fully supported by the evidence are not in dispute. Two of the plaintiffs are Maryland corporations engaged in conducting amusement parks or re-sorts on or near the Chesapeake Bay and within about 25 miles or less of Washington. One such park is in Anne Arundel County in the State of Maryland, and the other in Calvert County. The third plaintiff is a part-nership which owns and operates about 100 such gambling machines placed in various locations in Anne Arundel County on a rental or per-centage basis of about 50% to the owner and 50% to the proprietor of the location. None of the plaintiffs have at any time in their present busi-ness engaged in any way in interstate transportation of such machines. They have bought and from time to time may buy the machines but only from reputable and established dealers in the State of Maryland. They have never ordered any of such machines for delivery to them interstate. They maintain their own service employees for repair of machines. When occa-sionally a repair part must be ordered from a dealer it is bought from a Maryland. One of the plaintiffs, the Southern Maryland Development Com-pany, Inc., owning and operating a bathing beach known as Triton Beach Club in Anne Arundel County (the whole park consisting of about 200 acres) has not bought any machines anywhere since the passage of the Act. The two corporate plaintiffs in their The facts of the case with respect The two corporate plaintiffs in their amusement parks have many other types of machines and devices for the amusement of their patrons. The ownership, use and operation of all gambling devices possessed by the plaintiffs are lawful in the respective Counties of Anne Arundel and Calvert in the State of Maryland where they alone are used, under Acts of the General Assembly of Maryland. All taxes, Federal state and county, have be duly paid by the plaintiffs respectively. Shortly after the passage of the Act the plaintiffs in good faith inquired at the office of the Attorney General of the United States whether his office interpreted the Act as applicable to their activities, but were unable to obtain a ruling upon the subject. Subsequently, and before filing the present complaint, their places of business were visited by representatives of the FBI who made particular inquiries about the possession of such machines and in some cases demand was made for their inspection, and attention was called to the provisions of the Act with regard to registration and reports. The plaintiffs also have seized such gambling devices. The plaintiffs respectively, although maintaining that they were not subject to the provisions of the Act orney General. They contend, however, that they are not obliged to continue that form of compliance with the Act.

compliance with the Act. My conclusion of law is that the activities of the plaintiffs respectively do not bring them within the scope of the Act and they are therefore entitled to a declaratory judgment to that effect. They are also entitled to an injunction to restrain the defendants from enforcing the provisions of the Act against them by requiring regis-tration or monthly reports or seizure of any of the machines owned and operated by the plaintiffs, unless the particular machine is shown to have been transported interstate in viola-tion of the Act. The controlling point in the case is tion of the Act. The controlling point in the case is the very narrow one of construction of the meaning of the word "dealer" contained in section 1173. There are two well known elementary rules of construction that are applicable here. One is that the words used in the statute are to be understood in their ordinary meaning and accentation unordinary meaning and acceptation un-less the context of the Act as a whole reasonably indicates to the contrary. Another rule is that the statute is highly penal in character and there-fore should be strictly construed.

nighty penal in character and there-fore should be strictly construed. It is clear enough that the ordinary acceptation of the term "dealer" as applied to an article or commodity, means one who buys and sells that commodity in the usual course of trade. The undisputed facts are that no one of the plaintiffs does sell any of these gambling devices. The evi-dence shows that they constitute as-sets of the respective plaintiffs used in their activities, and these activities are by the local law legal in the places where they are exercised in the State of Maryland. The plaintiffs own, use and operate the machines but they do not sell them. With respect to a very few of the machines one of the plain-tiffs has at times surrendered or traded them in for an allowance on the purchase price of a new machine purchased in the State of Maryland and not ordered from outside of the State. State.

Counsel for the defendants contend that by the proper construction of the word "dealer" as contained in the Act, it should be given a broader meaning to include the relation of the plaintiffs to the gambling devices. In other words, it is contended that the word "dealer" as used in this Act should be construed to include the plaintiffs be construed to include the plaintiffs who are owners and operators of the machines. It is admitted by counsel for the defendants that this is an ex-tension of the application of the word "dealer" beyond the ordinary mean-ing of the word. No authority is cited for this expanded and unusual defini-tion of the term, which is not defined in the Act. I find no basis for the con-tention from the context of the Act as a whole. The main purpose of the Act In the Act. I find no basis for the con-tention from the context of the Act as a whole. The main purpose of the Act is to aid the State in the enforcement of their local laws. There is no local law in the Counties in Maryland in which the particular gambling devices are owned, used and operated con-trary to their ownership, use or opera-tion. The main purpose of the Act being to prohibit interstate transpor-tation of gambling devices for the purposes mentioned, the provisions of section 1173 with regard to the re-quirements made of manufacturers and dealers is incidental or merely for implementation of the Act to ac-complish its main purpose. It is not even contended by the defendants that the plaintiffs are manufacturers, and he evidence clearly shows that in no way have any of the defendants been engaged at any time since the passage of the Act in interstate commerce with regard to the machines.

There is another important reason against the unusual and expanded definition of the term "dealer" as used in the Act. The Act was passed pur-suant to the constitutional power of Congress to regulate interstate com-merce. To extend it as contended for by the defendants, I think, gives the Act an effect beyond the constitutional power of Congress with respect to power of Congress with respect to purely intrastate transactions. It is another elementary rule of construc-tion that an interpretation of an Act which would make it unconstitutional will not be adopted unless impera-tively required by the wording of the Act or the context of the Act as a whole. This is not the case here.

It should, of course, be unnecessary to add that the question presented to the court is essentially only a question of construction of the meaning of the Act. Nothing that has been said in Act. Nothing that has been said in that connection has any bearing on or relation to the question as to the pub-lic policy involved in prohibiting or permitting the ownership, use or op-eration of gambling devices of any nature. That is a matter of State policy.

As the Act is a very recent one it is not surprising that there are few if any prior judicial decisions upon its application. The only one that has been called to my attention is a deci-sion of District Judge Christianberry in a recently decided case in the East-ern District of Louisiana, No. 729 Miscellaneous, entitled United States of America vs. 200 Gambling Devices, where under facts less favorable than in the instant case the conclusion of law with regard to the meaning of the word "dealer" was that it should be limited to activities of buying and selling the machines, that is, in ac-cordance with the ordinary accepta-tion of the word. And I find nothing in the legislative history of the Act as contained in the United States Code Congressional Service, 1950, Vol. 2 pp. 4240-4257, to the contrary. For these reasons I conclude that

For these reasons I conclude that the plaintiffs are entitled to a declara-tory judgment as above stated and to an injunction as prayed for with the limitation above mentioned. Counsel may present the appropriate orders in due course.

From 0 to Over 550,000 Juke Boxes on Locations Everywhere in the U. S. and From 10 Selections to Over 100 Selections in 18 Years is Greatest Growth Phenomena in History of Modern Music. Many Other Thousands of Juke Boxes Located All Over the Known World. Canada is Second to U. S. With About 15,000 Juke Boxes on Locations Thruout Dominion. Biz Still Growing and Now Entering New Era as TV Unfreezes is Belief of Industry's Juke Box Leaders.

CHICAGO — Tho there are very, very few left in the juke box industry today who can go back to the dawn of the 20th century, there was in existence at that time the beginnings of the modern juke box business.

There are still a few old timers around who talk about the "Automatic Harp", the "Automatic Pianos", the world-famed "Violano Virtuoso", the "Automatic Band" (which looked like the automatic piano but which contained drums, cymbals, etc., and of which a few probably can still be located here and there thruout the world.

Before 1934, when the modern juke box came into being, that is, when the first fully automatic amplification unit was produced and placed into a cabinet, to change the old timer's juke box into the beginnings of the present type highly scientific and electronic juke box, the trade then had juke boxes, too.

But, to get the tone louder, the retailer would step over to the machine and push a lever that looked like the old time emergency brake arm. If he pushed it in, the sounding board would force the speaker to play lower. If he pushed it out, the tone would be louder.

Bamboo needles were used in those days and, after about ten plays, the storekeeper would step over, open the lid and place a new needle in the tone arm. Tone arms had a pressure of about four to five ounces in those days and actually "ate" records.

In short, the juke box, prior to 1934, was anything but "automatic." Then, in 1934, the first truly automatic juke box came into being, playing 10 records on one side for 10 selections.

It was tough in those days to "sell" coin machine operators on the "idea" of a juke box paying off. Few could see how they would get anywhere investing about $300 in a machine that was supposed to show them a profit.

In fact, amusement games, in most cases, were still on penny play. Few had as yet gone to the nickel side of the fence.

It is, therefore, all the more amazing to see the modern juke box jump into the prominence it now enjoys.

From zero in 1934 to over 550,000 juke boxes located in almost every kind of retailing establishment in the nation in 1952.

From ten records (and only ten selections) in 1934 to over 100 selections in 1952.

From 78 rpm in 1934 to a mixture of 78 rpm and 45 rpm in 1952.

From the first early recordings which were sold to juke box ops, with tongue in cheek as to whether "this juke box business will last", and that was at the time when the recording industry was all but ready to fold as rdaio came in to deal it a terrific blow, to the present state when publishers, artists, recorders and everyone else in any fashion whatsoever connected with popular music, chases juke box ops everywhere in the nation, from tiniest hamlet to largest cosmopolitan center, to "sell" the juke box man on using certain disks.

Truly a phenomena in every sense of the word. Truly the greatest growth in all the history of music, modern or otherwise, and all in 18 years.

From 1934 to 1952 the juke box industry has continued to grow and, according to predictions of its present leaders, is still growing.

In fact, they state, this is an entirely new era coming up that will zoom the juke box to even greater prominence than it has enjoyed these past 18 years.

They point to the unfreezing order by Uncle Sam to allow for over 2000 more TV stations. They predict that these, like radio in 1934, will bring into being new songs and new artists that the public will want to hear again and again.

They point out, just as happened with radio, the public will only be able to hear the new TV stars that will be created on juke boxes as many times as they desire to hear them, after their click on some TV station.

In fact, the average juke box leader is enthusiastic over the greater growth of TV.

He foresees an entirely new era for recorders and that, he points out, means a new era for the juke box business.

Juke boxes will cash in on the new stars, he explains.

As the present Senator Homer E. Capehart (R.; Ind.) once stated:

"The one basically sound reason for the success of the juke box is the fact that it allows the public to play what it wants to hear for as long as it wants to hear it."

This, leaders of the juke box industry point out, is why they are enthused over the greater growth of TV. Whereas other industries are extremely worried as to what over 2,000 more TV telecasters can do to their business, juke boxmen are optimistic. The public will see new faces, hear new songs, get acquainted with new

Night Time Shoppers Help Boost Coin Machine Play

CHICAGO — Coinmen from many cities report that the night time shoppers, especially those who shop at suburban stores and where merchants are now making a practise of holding open one or two nights each week usually until 9 P.M., are helping to boost collections on all types of machines.

Investigation has uncovered the fact that such cities as Chicago, Los Angeles, Philadelphia, Cleveland, Portland, Newark, Milwaukee, Boston, and many others, as well as merchants in other cities, are now making plans to hold their stores open until 9 P.M. at least one or two nights each week.

This is much due to the fact that wives are working right along with their husbands and haven't the time to shop during the daylight hours. Employment among wives is reported to have increased over 50 per cent since 1940. And continues to go up.

Some of the large stores here have discovered that they are getting about 30% of their business after 5:45 P.M. In view of this fact, some of the stars they've never before known, these men point out.

And, they explain, in each instance this will bring these new stars to the attention of the recorders, who will make their recordings, because people will want to hear them over and over again.

The juke box, they explain, is the one and only medium which can truly convey the music of these new stars correctly and to the complete satisfaction of the general public.

So, these men state, the juke box industry is actually entering into an entirely new and greater era.

The 100 selection machines have opened the path to the public's greater appreciation of the nation's popular music here in the U. S., as well as all over the known world.

(They offer more music, finer tone quality, greater selectivity, plus the greatest of stars singing their very best, as only recordings can reproduce their best, at the most economical price the public has ever paid for such outstanding entertainment.) leading stores here have now decided to stay open two nights per week until 9 P.M.

Suburban operators here, as well as operators from other cities, are enjoying an increase in collections due to these night time shoppers.

Some tavern and restaurant owners report that they are getting more people after 9 P.M. than they ever did before.

Furthermore, these men state, these are good customers. Usually shoppers who have been purchasing merchandise and drop in for an hour or two before going home.

As one tavern owner in a Chicago suburb told a leading operator:

"Husbands and wives who shop at night are making an evening of it. They not only enjoy their shopping expeditions, but drop in during the evening for a glass of beer or a cocktail or two."

This operator claims to have noticed that, on Monday and Thursday evenings, play has been greater than during other evenings of the week, with the possible exception of Saturday evening.

This is now spreading thruout the country. Many cities are reporting that their leading stores are giving night time shopping a holiday air.

Not only does this cause people to visit the business sections after work, and especially after their dinners, but, it tends to increase play in almost every such area where night time shopping has become the vogue.

Milwaukee ops, for example, have been enjoying this holiday spirit brought about by the stores staying open later. Not only in the downtown area of the city, but, also out in the suburbs where suburban business men have caught on to the increase in business they enjoy from the late shoppers.

As night time shopping spreads, operators find that collections on music, games and vendors increase during those evenings when businessmen keep their stores open to greet husbands and wives who work all day.

Busy as a Beaver

The busy beaver spends time to good purpose, collecting the stuff with which he builds security at the bank. So does the operator who fortifies his routes with the Model "D."

There's no need for cussing profit leaks when it's so easy to dam them with the "D."

Chi Op Donates Juke Boxes Thru Offer On Air Show

CHICAGO — Robert E. (Bob) Gnarro of A. B. C. Music Service, well known juke box operator here, instead of breaking up some old juke boxes he had on hand, decided to donate them to worthy charities, orphanages, teenage canteens, churches, and other institutions.

Bob, tho, found himself at a loss as to how best to give the nine or ten juke boxes he had on hand away to the most deserving institutions.

"First of all," he said, "I believe that donations of this kind prove to the peoples of Chicago that we juke box operators are just as interested in helping to bring about better general conditions, eliminating teenager delinquency and other troublesome conditions.

"An operator just can't put an ad in the daily press and say, 'Listen, I've got some nine or ten juke boxes that I'll fix up and make work perfectly, load full of records, and give them away.'

"There are, without any doubt, institutions and teenager groups that want these juke boxes. Therefore, I turned the entire matter entirely over to Howard Miller, noted disc jockey of radio station WIND. He's telling about this offer on his airshows.

"Howard Miller turned around," Bob Gnarro reports, "and named Bill Gersh, publisher of 'The Cash Box,' as the person to choose from the hundreds of applications just which causes were the most worthy."

There have been suggestions made here for sometime to the local juke box ops association that such donations of old juke boxes be arranged thru a central source as a matter of good public relations effort.

So far, since nothing has as yet been decided, Gnarro, and other ops like him, are making donations on their own.

This is the first time, tho, that such an outstanding air show was arranged to call attention to the good work done by juke box ops. "This five ball 'Majorettes' is one of our best efforts" stated Sam. "Before releasing the game for production, we went thru extensive location tests, and in addition had it under scrutiny of our leading distributors. All tests worked out wonderfully, and our distributors were most enthusiastic in their praise of its moneymaking abilities."

"Majorettes" has 4 kickout holes which light up; thumper bumpers for increased scoring; a star hole which scores points, and which becomes an extra special for 5 replays; special roll over; 'Point' thumper bumper which scores points when lit. It's a high score game with points scored for replays; 5 thumper bumpers; 5 kickout holes; and 2 flippers.

All Williams distributors have the game ready for delivery.

Sandler Distrib For Wurlitzer In Des Moines

IRV SANDLER

DES MOINES, IA.—Sandler Distributing Company, this city, of which Irving Sandler is president, has been appointed distributor of Wurlitzer phonographs and equipment in the Des Moines area, according to an announcement by Ed Wurgler, general sales manager of the phonograph division.

Sandler will represent a territory which includes Henderson and Rock Island counties in Illinois; Clark, Putnam, Schuyler and Scotland counties in Missouri; and 72 counties comprising the state of Iowa.

The Sandler organization takes over the territory as an individual distributor, replacing a branch office which had previously handled Wurlitzer equipment in Des Moines as a part of the Brandt Dist. Co. in St. Louis, Mo. Greatly increased business activity has made it necessary for Pete Brandt to confine his sales facilities to the area adjacent to St. Louis.

Sandler has an excellent background and has been an important factor in the business for many years. His organization is staffed with capable sales and service personnel. Bob Crosby, head of the service dept., attended the service course at the factory, and is now ready to give expert assistance to operators on the new Models "1500" and "1550."

Jack Mulligan And Leo Dixon New Distributing Combination

Mulligan Ties In With Dixon To Form Big Ohio-Penna. Distrib Firm. Rock-Ola First Big Line

YOUNGSTOWN, PA.—Dixon Distributors, this city, announced this past week, thru president Leo Dixon of this firm that Jack Mulligan of Tri-State Distributors, Sharon, Pa., had joined hands with the firm and that the name of the firm would remain Dixon Distributors with headquarters in this city.

The first big line being distributed is the products of Rock-Ola Manufacturing Corp.

The Dixon firm will now handle Northwestern Ohio as well as part of Western Pennsylvania for Rock-Ola. As yet no official announcements have been made as to any other lines it will handle. Regarding the formation of the

Regarding the formation of the new firm, Jack Mulligan stated:

"We believe that we shall be able to bring about better and more efficient distribution to the operators thruout the Ohio and Pennsylvania areas than has ever before been possible.

"In the first place," he continued, "Leo Dixon is as well acquainted with the operators in Ohio as we are with the operators in Western Pennsylvania.

"Between the two of us," he stated, "we feel certain that we shall be able to serve the operators better than they have ever been served before."

Nat Bartfield Elected Pres. Of Cincy Phono Assn

CINCINNATI, O.—Annual election of officers took place at the Automatic Phonograph Owners Association, this city, when music operators met at the Hotel Sheraton Gibson on Tuesday evening, April 8.

The meet was one of the best attended of the year, and as a result of the spirited voting, Nat Bartfield of B W Novelty Co. was elected to serve as president for the coming year by a close margin.

Other officers elected were: Bill Harris, Lincoln Amusement, vice president; and Phil Ostand, K & O Music Co., secretary and treasurer. Elected to the Board of Directors were: Sam Chester, Diamond Vending Co.; Joe Westerhaus, Westerhaus, Inc.; Abe Villinsky, A & B Music Co.; and Paul Pusateri, Ohio Specialty Co.

Charles Kanter, out-going president, was highly complimented by the membership for his four years service to the organization.

Mr. Ray Somers, popular operator from Logan, Utah, in town buying lots, but lots, of equipment in anticipation of a great business in the Resort Areas. ...Bob Bever, sales manager for the Dan Stewart Company, leaving for a trip through Montana, reports sales are terrific on United's new "6 Player Shuffle Alley" and Exhibit's "Big Bronco." As soon as Bob returns from the Northwest he will be off again to their Los Angeles office... Bob Goss, of Missoula, wrapping, roofing and in general getting everything in order for the opening of the fishing season. Bob has a reputation of being one of the top fisherman in the country and as Montana has the fish, naturally he always comes up with the best... One of the most frequent visitors to Salt Lake City, keeping an eagle eye on all new equipment as it comes out is Melvin C. Gardner, as usual sporting a big smile on his face.

Press Struby of R. F. Jones Company, who just returned from a trip through Nevada, and surrounding parts, tells us the weather was good but the roads were bad.... Gene Phelps, Amusement Sales Co., Midvale, Utah, in and out of Salt Lake City, keeping track of all new equipment and looking for new business... Understand Roy Holt, owner of Rainbow Music, is branching out. Roy is opening a new cafe in Salt Lake City. Good luck, Roy, we wonder how you get all of your activities into a 24 hour day.... Earl Wilson, Las Vegas, Nevada, keeping the telephone wires hot for more and more of Exhibit's "Big Bronco."... Irving Munsey, owner of the Atlas Specialty Company, still waiting very patiently for a new Cadillac.... Norman Cragun, Cragun Music Company, Ogden, Utah, limping around this week. Tells us he strained his sacroilliac lifting all the heavy machines he has been buying.

Salesmen, Too, Want "Coin Machine Club" In Chicago

CHICAGO—In addition to distributors who have been asking that a "Coin Machine Club" be created in this city, where coinmen would have a meeting place when they arrived in town, it seems that salesmen, too, for the various leading manufacturers would like to have such a club in existence.

Jack Mitnick, Eastern Regional Director for AMI, Inc., and Ben Becker, Regional Salesmen for Bally Manufacturing Company, who met at Runyon Sales Company offices in New York wrote The Cash Box, along with Barnet Sugerman and Abe Green of the Runyon firm, that they would certainly like to have a "Coin Machine Club" come into existence. They stated, "Any Loop hotel," would do.

Plans so far made for the "Coin Machine Club," which was originally proposed by The Cash Box, at the request of many leading coinmen from all over the country who found this city without the meeting places it had had for years when they arrived in town, have been well under way.

A very large suite at one of the leading hotels, turned into club rooms, has so far been recommended.

Other plans as to how to conduct the club have also been proposed by some of the leading coinmen.

It is believed that such a club can become this coincenter's general meeting place for all coinmen from all over the country as they come into town.

DO YOU WANT A "COIN MACHINE CLUB IN CHICAGO"?

If you do, then tell us what such a Club would mean to you! What it should be like! And where you think it should be located in Chicago!

One of the outstanding events ever to hit the coin machine industry in Los Angeles can be reported as the Wurlitzer 1500 showing at Paul Laymon's. And it wasn't merely the fine turnout of top recording artists or the excellent vittles prepared by Lucille Laymon and the wives of Charlie Daniels, Ed Wilkes and the other boys—it was just the warm, friendly and yet effective way the whole thing was handled by Paul, Lucille and staff. All this on top of showing a really excitingly new, different and fine product. You could tell by the atmosphere, the studied appraisal and approval of veteran music operators as they looked the new machine over, commenting on its 104 selections, beautiful appearance, competitive price and the "WurliMagic Brain" that enables the machine to play any combination of 78 and 45 speed records. Just about all the music ops we've ever seen or heard of in these parts were on hand to look the new baby over on Sunday and Monday, and whoever couldn't get in or thought they might not be interested was brought in by word of mouth acclaim before the week was up.

Among the artists visiting with the boys on Sunday were Capitol's Jeannie Gayle, Dottie O'Brien, Stan Freberg, Yogi Yorgesson and Ben Light, with promotion man Joe Mathews on hand for the introductions. . . A gracious and charming hostess was Lucille Laymon while Paul looked as proud and pleased as if he'd fathered the Wurlitzer 1500 all by himself. . . Charlie Daniels should be just about ready to put in for his bartender's card after the affair, long as he goes to work for a rich tavern keeper (seems the only drink Charlie can pour is a double). Fortunately, most of the folks stuck to the softer beverages. . . . Nice chat with Phil Weinberg, Bally's regional man in from Texas, who seemed to enjoy the new Wurlitzer as much as anyone though he did manage to tell us a few nice things about Bally's new game, "Atlantic City". . . . Jack Smith of the Wurlitzer business office was in from the East on the following day or two.

Musically speaking, there seemed to be considerable other activity in these parts, with Nick Carter taking a run from his Nickabob up north to handle a batch of AMI sales up that way... Dan Stewart reported a spurt of action on the Rock-Ola with the local lads. . . Actually, the only concern rumored around the Row about the latest machine to grace the market was attributed to some folks up the street who've had things pretty much their own way for some time when it came to locations demanding maximum selection. . . With Jack Simon, it's a real spurt on arcade equipment these days, with his "Buccaroo" horse still racing to catch up with demand, Jack reports. . . At Badger Sales, it's Keeney's new "Super DeLuxe League Bowler" that's bringing the boys back for more, Bill Happel tells us, while another big item is Williams' "Baseball" 5-ball, what with the keen interest in the game since the Spring warmup contests by such clubs out here as the St. Louis Browns, Pittsburgh Pirates and Cleveland Indians, not to forget our own local prides, the L. A. Angeles and the Hollywood Stars. . . Phil Robinson of Chicago Coin is counting the days now till arrival of that new 5-ball that's advance reported as being a winner.

On the Row: Perry Irwin of Ventura. . . . Balboa's Clyde Denlinger. . . . Norman Hayes from Santa Maria . . . William Schaefer of Bakersfield . . . Big Bear's Jack Spencer . . . Charlie Cahoone and the Lawrence Bros. from Long Beach . . . George Miller of the Jack R. Moore Co. in from Portland . . . Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Griffin of Pomona . . . George Rigas from San Diego . . . Santa Ana's C. L. Anderson . . . Tommy Workman of El Monte . . . Milton Noriega of Colton . . . Porterville's J. F. Maggart.

Throughout Minnesota, North Dakota, South Dakota and through Iowa and Missouri considerable damage is being done by the flood waters. Pierre and Ft. Pierre, S. D. have been very hard hit after being isolated by four blizzards this winter. Now the towns are under water and it is really making these two towns the "hard luck" towns. Naturally, with everything going under water there is a lot of equipment being lost. Claire Nitterburg of the Nitterburg Bros. Castlewood, S. D. made the trip into the twin cities and received a call to hurry back so that he could help with the sand bagging job... Vic Hendel of Worthington, made his first trip into the Twin Cities in many a week. ... Andy Benna of Ironwood, Mich. finally made it into the Twin Cities to pick up some supplies for his route. ... Don Culver of Glendive, Montana finally got away long enough to come into town to see what was new in coin operated equipment.

long enough to come into town to see what was new in coin operated equipment. Another infrequent visitor to the Twin Cities area was John Morton, associated with the Dakota Amusement Co., of Bismarck, N. D. Izzy Alpert of Twin Ports Sales Co., Duluth, is vacationing down South at the present time and his center of activity is in and around New Orleans, La. . . . Morris Anseau of Minnesota was very much surprised inasmuch as he was to make the trip into town and out again without any unhappy results. Morris was beginning to think that he was jinxed because everytime he came into town there was a blizzard. . . . Back from Florida and on the job again are Jack Lowrie of Lake City, and also Mike Crakes of the Friendly Sales Company of Minneapolis. The husband and wife combinations in town last week were Gordon Dunn and his wife of Moose Lake, and Dan Thibadeau and his wife of Menominie, Wis. While hubby was looking at the coin machines the wives were picking out records for the route. . . . Seen here and there at the distributings office were Don Kohner of Winona; Lester York of Mitchell; Walter Fischer of Pipestone; Chet LaDoux of Virginia; Pete Kramer of St. Cloud; Kenny Anderson of Austin; Wes Rydell of Mora; Ed Kubes of New Prague; and Forest Dahl of Fergus Falls. . . . Seen picking up records and supplies were Amos Miller of Spooner, Wis.; Bob Cross of Jackson; Fred Kirschman of St. Cloud; Jack Harrison of Crosby; August Quade of Rochester; Jack Bailey of Twin Brooks, S. D.; Roy Foster of Sioux Falls, S. D., Elgin McDaniel of Wadena; and Harold Peterson of Bethel. Another welcome visitor to the Twin Cities was Harold Scott and Mrs.

Another welcome visitor to the Twin Cities was Harold Scott and Mrs. Scott of Mobridge, S. D. Harold is very prominent in the activities of the South Dakota State Operators Association. He states that the next meeting of the Association will be held the first part of May in Deadwood, S. D.

From Kansas City, Kans.: Walter Webb; A. J. Alderson; Jack Jones;

Many operators drove over 400 miles from western Kansas to attend the showing, and Mashek reports they told him "it was well worth the trip."

EASTERN FLASHES

The excitement over the showing of the two new machines, Wurlitzer's new 1500 phonograph, and Exhibit's shuffle pool game "Twin-Rotation" still prevails along coinrow. Altho it would appear that these machines were viewed by all local coinmen, each day sees many additional operators dropping into Joe Young's offices to see the Wurlitzer phono, and into Mike Munves' showrooms to look over Exhibit's game. Reaction on both are terrific. . . . Joe Young and Abe Lipsky of Young Distributing are now faced with the situation where they have an order book all filled up and must now await deliveries. "Operators will get deliveries in rotation" states Young. . . . Mike Munves reports he's ordered a quantity of "Twin-Rotations" from Exhibit, based on the orders he's taken, but he too must await deliveries.

Johnny Fuller, Universal Vendors, Albany, N. Y., visits coinrow—happy as a lark. His beautiful missus, Mary, presented him with a new daughter, Pamela, on March 12. . . Jack Kanter, games operator, and "Senator" Al Bodkin, exchange pleasantries when they meet on coinrow—they're neighbors in Forest Hills, L. I. . . Ben Sterling, Jr., Moosic, Pa., in to see Mike Munves. Ben received a tough blow, almost disastrous, when his arcade and park burned down last spring, and isn't over it yet. "It took me nearly 30 years to build up the arcade, and we had equipment that's impossible to replace" states Ben. ... Al Simon, Albert Simon, Inc., now completely moved over to his new building. We've already reported that the outside is the most beautiful in New York. Al took us around the inside this week, and it's more gorgeous than the outside. The entire industry here owes Al a vote of thanks—and should try to emulate this example. A house warming and open house party will take place sometime in the very near future. . . . Teddy Seidel, manager of Milty Green's coinrow offices of American Vending Co., doing a big job on used shuffle games.

Barney (Shugy) Sugerman, Runyon Sales Co., attracting plenty of attention to Bally's "The Champion" coin operated mechanical horse. In addition to displaying it in his private office, he has one in the window of his showroom, Kids, on their way to and from a nearby school, crowd up against the window to look it over. "Shugy" and Abe Green and a few invited guests thought they'd take in the opening baseball game at the Polo Grounds, but were keenly disappointed when it was rained out. . . Harry and Hymie Koeppel, Koeppel Distributing Co., came up with a strength saving move this week—they installed a phone in their shop and showrooms. Now if they're out of the office, they don't have to rush back to answer a call. . . . Nat Cohn wants us to tell Bill Gersh how thrilled his wife, Lillie, was to receive that birthday card from him. . . . Max Weiss, brown as a berry, back from a vacation at Miami Beach, raving about the wonderful time he had, and the hospitality shown by his Miami friends. . . . Jack Mitnick, AMI regional sales representative, in town for a week, returning from a trip that carried him thru the Midwest and Canada. . . . In town also is Ben Becker, Bally's regional representative. Ben returned from Florida in time to help the missus with the kids, who came down with the measles. . . . With the Easter Holidays behind them, Dallas operators are setting down once more to business as usual. A check of the leading phonograph distributors brings forth the good news that spring business prospects are good. Over at Commercial Music Company the place is still in an uproar over the new Wurlitzer. Tommy Chatten says that operators have been ganging in all week to buy the new machine. . . When we were there early in the week we saw Bob DePriest. He was giving Tommy a hard time because he was out of the six player shuffle alleys. . . Ray Langley, T. A. J. G. McCain was in from Shreveport, La. . . . Clark Richardson was in from Dumas. He says that business is good in his territory. We saw Dewey Parsons, Jack Sprott and C. A. Taylor. . . . Bill (Baldy) Sheffie'd of Paducah has just returned from a vacation in Georgia. . . . Raymond Williams has been fishing at Possum Kingdom. He brought back a nice string. . . . By the way, Tommy Chatten has just moved into a new home. . . at Walbox Sales Company the new Bally coin operated horse "The Champion" has just arrived. Fred Barber says it looks like it will be a good seller. . . Phil Weinberg, regional sales manager for Bally, has returned from a trip to the West Coast and now he is on his way to Houston and San Antonio. He says that business conditions look good to him. . . . Jack and John Durham from Texarkana were in town the other day. . . . Things are going well for Abe Susman and the gang at State Music Distributors Inc. They are now handling American Shuffle Boards in addition to the Keeney line and AMI. When we talked to Audry Hunter she said that the operators are flocking in.

The fact that manufacturers are manufacturing as speedily as they can and the majority have the finest games they've ever produced on their production lines; the fact that ops are going right ahead, with the usual gripes, of course, which proves things are normal; the fact that this, that, and the other thing, has happened here, there, and everywhere; all this, and much else, too, was cast more completely aside this past week (Tuesday) as the Cubs and Sox played their opening games of Big League Baseball's 1952 season. Always sportsmen, coinmen crowded about TV sets and, even if they were busy on their routes, had their car radios going full blast. To get the action and the final scores. "THE CONFIDENTIAL PRICE LISTS"

THIS WEEK'S USED MACHINE QUOTATIONS

13th Year of Publication 707th Consecutive Week's Issue

How To Use "The Confidential Price Lists" [Also Known As the "C. M. I. (Coin Machine Industry) BLUE BOOK"]

FOREWORD: Many times, wide differences appear in the high and low prices of certain equipment. Like any true reporter "The Confidential Price Lists" can only feature the market prices as they are quoetd. "The Confidential Price Lists" acts exactly the same as the market quotation board at the Stock Exchange —posting the prices as they are quoted for the past week, regardless of how much they may seem to be out of line. Some prices do not change for months. "The Confidential Price Lists," rather than show no price, retain the last known quotations for such equipment so that the subscriber at least has the last known prices as a basis to work with. Prices may be very widely divergent. Someone on the West Coast may feel a certain machine worth $150.00 whereas someone on the East Coast may think it worth but $75.00. Of course, serial, appearance, demand, territory, quantity, and condition of equipment must be taken into consideration. (Some equipment offered by outstanding firms, having a reputation for shipping completely reconditioned machines, will be offered at higher prices than others, due to the added costs of reconditioning.) "The Confidential Price Lists" reports each quotation exactly as it is made and depends on the subscriber to make average price adjustments to fit the peculiarities of his territory.

methods on the substritery. METHOD: "The Confidential Price Lists" should be read as follows: First price listed is lowest price for the week; Second price listed is highest price.

This Week's Used Market

The action in the used machine market continued to be the heaviest in some time. This burst of activity, as explained in last week's analysis, while attributed to many factors, can mainly be laid to Spring buy-ing. Each year, with the opening of va-cation locations in the offing, buying al-ways swings upward. Prices more or less held at the same level as last week and indications are that the current splurge of activity will continue for a while.

The pin section, as can be expected, got a large share of the action. Almost all the games available received many askings. Again the newer games led the field in quotations. As was the case last week, new games entered the listings for the first time. The music section went along with the other sections insofar as activity was cerned. Prices remained unchanged, an indication of the strong emphasis placed on music machines. The major action continued with the big movers of the past months getting the play. To continue the similarity of the trend in the market, shuffles were the second largest participant in the week's heavy activity. The prices, contrary to last week's market, when they dropped slightly, held firmly, indicating that the demand had stiffened the prices of the offerings.

Arcade equipment showed slight increases in activity with a few more machines entering the flurry of buying and selling and here too, prices held quite constant.
