NEW FEATURE:

TERRITORIAL TIPS

A new development in the record business necessitates a new feature in The Cash Box.

With the rise of rock and roll to the status it enjoys today, it has been found that more than ever territorial hits are developing which do not necessarily spread beyond the area in which they originate. With strength evident in only one part of the country, these records very often do not make the Rhythm & Blues Top 15 best seller chart although they are actually best sellers in their areas. Therefore, The Cash Box has decided to make available to the entire industry information concerning these territorial hits so that other areas may benefit by becoming aware of them.

This new feature which will report on R&B records which have already made it in specific places, should prove of enormous worth to various factors in the music industry.

To juke box operators it will mean that they can more safely choose the records which are being promoted to them every day, for they will at least have some indication whether a particular record is making noise anywhere at all.

For disk jockeys likewise it will be an added implement to their programming, helping them pick their records with a greater knowledge of what is going elsewhere.

As for retailers, they must benefit not only in their purchasing, but also in being able to pinpoint the originating spot of records they may be getting requests for but which they never heard of.

Manufacturers of course will be able to go all out on the records reported in this feature, for it has always been an axiom in the record business that if a record has the ability to break out in one area, the potential exists for it to be a hit in all areas.

The greatest beneficiary of all however will be the distributor. For to the distributor, it will mean that amidst all his labels and the records that are released on those labels, he will have a clear indication of what he may inadvertently be neglecting. The new Cash Box feature will pointedly help a distributor go after a record he may have overlooked or have been unaware of. It will mean that records which might normally have to fight their way to the attention of the distributor will now have the way opened to them by dint of their being reported as hits in specific areas.

With Territorial Tips, The Cash Box takes one more step in its constant program of aiding all the people in our industry to function more efficiently, with greater ease, and with more profitable results. This is a never ending campaign for us and one which we will endeavor to expand and develop even further as conditions in our industry change and the situation calls for it.

JOE WARD
(King 4897; 45-4897)

B "MAMA DARLING" (2:19) [Zodiac BMI—Finlay, Lehman, Worth] Joe Ward, who had a strong seller in "Nuttin' For Xmas", does a beautiful job on touching song dedicated to mother. Tender ballad that will tug at the heart-strings of adults.

B "UPSY DOWN TOWN" (2:56) [Jefferson ASCAP—Sims, Perry, Kosloff, Pollard] The child star cleverly fashions a light kiddie novelty telling about the unusual layout of a place called "Upsy Down Town". Should be a good kiddie seller.

FRANCES WAYNE
(Epic 9153; 5-9153)

B "ON THE STREET WHERE YOU LIVE" (2:43) [Chappell ASCAP—Lerner, Loewe] A beautiful ballad from the forthcoming musical "My Fair Lady" is neatly woven by Frances Wayne while hubby Neal Hefti and the ork supply a pretty string backdrop. Good show song.

C+ "WEDNESDAY'S CHILD" (2:43) [Pinelawn BMI—McGregor, Covert] Another arty ballad tenderly thrashed by the talented artist. A heavy but beautiful item.

HARRY BELAFONTE
(RCA Victor 20-6458; 47-6458)

C+ "THE BLUES IS A MAN" (2:52) [Shari ASCAP—Kennedy, Belafonte] The popular Harry Belafonte offers an interesting item on his latest release. It's a musical story excitingly performed against a jazz flavored background.

C+ "THE BLUES IS A MAN" Part 2 (2:50) [Shari ASCAP—Kennedy, Belafonte] A continuation of the first side. Something different, which can always be expected from Belafonte. Limited appeal. His fans should love it.

CATHY RYAN
(King 4890; 45-4890)

C+ "ONLY A DREAM" (2:59) [Wemar BMI—Snelson] Cathy Ryan lends her dramatic voice to a tearful, emotional ballad. Pretty number with a good fish-beat.

B "HIGH FALUTIN' HONEY" (2:02) [Jay & Cee BMI—Singleton, McCoy] A solid bopper aimed directly at the teen-age market. Catchy ditty with a strong commercial flavor.

FRANKIE LESTER
(Vik 0198; 4X-0198)

B+ "HELD FOR QUESTIONING" (2:07) [Larry Taylor ASCAP—Baum, Kaye] Frankie Lester comes up with one of his best releases for the label. A delightful new ballad with a clever play on the familiar phrase "Held For Questioning". Frankie does a great job with this lilted and could have a big seller.

B "LOUISIANA WALTZ" (2:17) [American BMI—Dees] The songster does a pretty job on a smooth and warm waltz item. Tender tune that the crooner handles most pleasantly.

DISK OF THE WEEK

"THE LITTLE MUSICIANS" (2:45) [Boosey & Hawkes ASCAP—Frontin]

"FLAHERTY'S BEGUINE" (2:44) [Gregory ASCAP—Winterhalter]

HUGO WINTERHALTER
(RCA Victor 20-6459; 47-6459)

HUGO WINTERHALTER

● Even though the country is in the midst of the rock and roll craze, instrumentals by the big string orchestras seem to be doing better than ever before. On his latest release, Hugo Winterhalter introduces a tremendously pleasing instrumental-choral affair that should be zooming right up the lists in a matter of days. It's a refreshing and most contagious bouncer labelled "The Little Musicians". The chorus adds a novelty touch by singing along in various spots, but without lyrics. A most infectious item that everyone will be humming. Flip is an unusual item, a latin tempo number with an Irish theme titled "Flaherty's Beguine". Beautiful selection that recalls Hugo's exciting "Barefoot Contessa" record. Topper is the one to watch.

"THE MAGIC TOUCH" (2:23)
[Panther ASCAP—Ram]

"WINNER TAKE ALL" (2:12)
[Southern ASCAP—Wayne, Frisch]

THE PLATTERS

(Mercury 70819; 70819x45)

THE PLATTERS

● With two tremendous hits under their belts—"Only You" and "The Great Pretender"—the Platters hit hard with an exciting new coupling that should keep the crew's batting average at 1000. Two hot sides that should be top sellers in both the pop and rhythm & blues fields. One deck is a dramatic fish-beat ballad tagged "The Magic Touch". It's a powerful deck chock full of all the commercial gimmicks that have skyrocketed the group to stardom. The lead voice is in classy form as he and the crew send up this solid rock and roll moneymaker. Flip is another love song "Winner Take All". A strong dance item aimed directly at the teenagers. Watch this coupling climb.

"PORT AU PRINCE" (2:20)
[E. B. Marks ASCAP—Wayne]

"MIDNIGHT BLUES" (3:05)
[Gale & Gayles BMI—Eustrom]

NELSON RIDDLE ORCH.
(Capitol 3374; F-3374)

● With his fabulous hit "Lisbon Antigua" riding high wide and handsome, Nelson Riddle offers a twin-threat follow-up that could do as well with ops, dealers and jockeys as his current topper. Both sides are imaginative creations. "Port Au Prince" is a lush and melodic theme with a most delightful latin rhythm and an intimate atmosphere. "Midnight Blues" is an enchanting moody-blues item treated in a velvety and refreshing new manner. The chorus is employed on both ends, humming and singing without lyrics. The blues side has a wonderful similarity to "Sentimental Journey". Two hot decks to watch closely. They look tremendous.

THE HILLTOPPERS
(Dot 15451; 45-15451)

B+ "WHEN YOU'RE ALONE" (2:40) [Arc BMI—Smith, Broadwater] Jimmy Sacca and the Hilltoppers come up with a powerful rendition of a dramatic love song. Strong piece of material with some commercial vocal gimmicks that should greatly please the youngsters. Could be a big one for the crew.

B "DO THE BOP" (2:05) [Randy Smith ASCAP—Vaughn] Rockin' jumper about the current dance rage of the teenagers—the bop. Good rock and roll disk aimed at the youngsters.

EILEEN BARTON
(Coral 61609; 9-61609)

B+ "TOO CLOSE FOR COMFORT" (2:46) [Laurel ASCAP—Bock, Holofcener, Weiss] One of the big rhythm numbers from the Sammy Davis vehicle "Mr. Wonderful" gets an exciting treatment from Eileen Barton. A hot side for the thrush.

B "THE SCENE OF THE CRIME" (2:28) [Herb Reiss—Hosey, Cier] A clever jump number with a play on the familiar court phrase. Good rhythm romancer.

FRANKIE LAINE
(Columbia 40663; 4-40663)

B+ "HELL HATH NO FURY" (2:38) [Leo Feist ASCAP—Cahn, Brodsky] The exciting Laine voice rings out dramatically on this emotional ballad from the new flicker "Meet Me In Las Vegas". Beaty affair.

B "THE MOST HAPPY FELLA" (2:35) [Frank ASCAP—Loesser] Frankie Laine hands in a lively interpretation of the title song from Frank Loesser's new musical. Number is performed in the second scene of the first act. Cute ditty that could catch on.

THE BLUE STARS
(Mercury 70808; 70808x45)

B+ "SPEAK LOW" (Tout Bas) (2:35) [Chappell ASCAP—Weill, Nash] The Blue Stars who are currently enjoying great success with their hit "Lullaby Of Birdland", glide through a lovely interpretation of a great standard using French lyrics. Beautiful performance that should please the many folks who enjoyed their first release. Great sound.

B "MAMBO ITALIANO" (2:00) [Rylan ASCAP—Merrill] A French lyric rendition of an Italian-American novelty hit of a few years ago. Revived in delightful fashion by the group. Should get plenty of air play. Good change of pace for boxes and jockeys.

JOHNNY DESMOND
(Coral 61608; 9-61608)

B+ "WITHOUT YOU" (2:38) [Broadcast BMI—Hackady, Mascheroni] The chorus assists Johnny Desmond as he gives his all for this tender and touching romantic ballad. Beautiful love story. Could happen.

B "THE MOST HAPPY FELLA" (3:00) [Frank ASCAP—Loesser] The happy-go-lucky title tune from the first act of Frank Loesser's new musical, gets a spirited treatment from Desmond and a chorus. Cute Italian flavored ditty that should attract some attention. Could develop into a hit.

(Decca 29840; 9-29840)

(Decca 29869; 9-29869)

B+ "MAIN TITLE FROM THE MAN WITH THE GOLDEN ARM" (3:14) [Dena ASCAP—Bernstein, Fine] Elmer Bernstein, the composer of the exciting music from the sensational Otto Preminger flicker, leads the orchestra on this powerful sound track rendition of the main title theme. Great piece of music that could well become the first big-band hit since "Dragnet."

C+ "CLARK STREET" (2:33) [Dena ASCAP—Bernstein, Fine] Another swinging instrumental with jazz overtones, also from the pic's sound track. Both sides come from the LP of the film's track.

THE GOOFERS
(Coral 61593; 9-61593)

B "OH HOW I MISS YOU TONIGHT" (1:57) [Bourne ASCAP—Davis, Burke, Fisher] The hilarious goofers who've been creating quite a sensation with their zany antics, come up with a pleasant up-beat arrangement of a great oldie. Easy going bouncer.

SLEEPER OF THE WEEK

"VIBRATIONS" (2:32)

[Sheldon BMI—Sherman, Sherman]

"THE WAY SHE TALKS" (3:15)

[Klive BMI—Wolf, Komack]

JIMMIE KOMACK

(RCA Victor 20-6452; 47-6452)

JIMMIE KOMACK

● Jimmie Komack, an extremely talented youngster with a powerful voice and a unique vocal technique, makes a most promising debut on the Victor label as he introduces a fascinating and zany new novelty that could develop into a smash. It's a catchy item tagged "Vibrations." Jimmie handles the beaty ditty in a humorous light-hearted manner with great results. A chorus gives Komack a big assist as does Winterhalter with a powerhouse instrumentation. The use of a vibrating echoey gimmick adds to the original quality of the entire recording. Flip, "The Way She Talks" is a wild rock and roller with a cute set of lyrics that should have great appeal to teenagers. Top half looks like a big one.

"TILL I WALTZ AGAIN WITH YOU" (2:40)

[Village BMI—Prosen]

"SLEEP" (2:06)

[Miller ASCAP—Lebieg]

BILLY VAUGHN ORCH.

(Dot 15454; 45-15454)

BILLY VAUGHN

● A few years ago, Teresa Brewer recorded a tune called "Till I Waltz

Again With You," which turned out to be one of the top sellers of the year. The tune has become somewhat of a standard and now Billy Vaughn and his ork do a beautiful job of reviving it instrumentally. It's a lush and flowing offering that features a penetrating sax solo and a chorus singing without words. A beautiful piece of mood music that could be a smash all over again. Flip is the great old favorite "Sleep" tenderly fashioned in a slow waltz manner. Pretty twosider that should greatly please the many fans who made "Melody of Love" a hit.

RECORD REVIEWS

DISK & SLEEPER	GOOD
EXCELLENT	FAIR
VERY GOOD	MEDIOCRE

BILLY MAY ORCH.
(Capitol 3372; F-3372)

B+ "MAIN TITLE" (2:50) [Fred Raphael ASCAP—Bernstein, Fine] Billy May and the ork offer an exciting interpretation of the thrilling title theme from the much talked about Sinatra film "The Man With The Golden Arm". May's presentation is definitely a striking one. Should be a big seller.

C+ "OUR MELODY" (2:42) [Hill & Range BMI—Dixie, Lindt, Evans, Hughes] Whistling is enjoyably employed on this cute rendition of the much recorded "Phonograph Song". Chorus is most pleasing. Top deck carries all the weight.

ROLAND SHAW ORCHESTRA
(London 1634; 45-1634)

B "BLUEBELL POLKA" (1:57) [Essex ASCAP—Stanley] London's musical director Roland Shaw hands in a fascinating and imaginative arrangement of a catchy polka ditty that's currently one of Scotland's best sellers. Good gimmick deck that glides from the polka beat into a jump and back.

C+ "THE JOSEPHINE WALTZ" (2:37) [Michael Reine ASCAP—Addison] A lush and flowing slow waltz item. Lovely arrangement. Pretty piece of mood music.

BING CROSBY & BUDDY COLE TRIO
(Decca 29850; 9-29850)

B+ "OL' MAN RIVER" (2:11) [T. B. Harms ASCAP—Kern, Hammerstein II] Bing Crosby who will be before the TV public in the musical version of "High Tor", gets an up-beat assist from the Buddy Cole Trio as he glides thru an ear-pleasing version of a great "Show Boat" classic. Exciting performance by the star.

B+ "IN A LITTLE SPANISH TOWN" (2:17) [Leo Feist & Warock ASCAP—Wayne, Lewis, Young] Crosby's years of singing experience stand out on this terrific arrangement of another oldie. One of Bing's best vocal performances in a long while. Two strong sides could make this a big seller for "Der Bingle". Watch this half particularly.

THE HI-LO'S
(Starlite 1375; 45-1375)

B+ "THE BIRTH OF THE BLUES" (1:47) [Harms ASCAP—DeSylva, Brown, Henderson] The Hi-Lo's, one of the most creative of the vocal groups, hand in a potent rhythm arrangement of a great standard. Exciting interpretation that dee jays will be wild about.

B "TOO YOUNG FOR THE BLUES" [Warman BMI—Meyer, Jones] An interesting new blues item is cleverly treated to the group's unique brand of harmony. Catchy jumper.

BARRY FRANK & S. BOLIVAR ORCH.
(Seeco 4195; 45-4195)

B "MY COCALITA" [Ivan Mogull ASCAP—Gallop, Michaels] Senor Bolivar handles the instrumental chores and Barry Frank the vocal duties on an attractive Spanish-English lyric rendition of a melodious cha cha. Good dance deck with a commercial pop touch.

C+ "THE GAY MERENGUE" [Harvard BMI—Thorn, Maik, Belmonte] A lively merengue item is smoothly fashioned with an English lyric by the vocalist. Pretty item.

THE FOUR COINS
(Epic 9148; 5-9148)

B+ "THE SONG THAT GOD SINGS" (2:51) [Rush BMI—Holmes] As a follow-up to their successful disk "Memories Of You", the Four Coins introduce a beautiful new inspirational ballad that could blossom into a king-sized hit. A striking, emotional effort set to a shuffle beat. Looks good.

C+ "THE OLD PROFESSOR" [Shapiro, Bernstein ASCAP—Glazer, Lee] The boys take hold of an unusual ballad with a pleasing college theme. Pretty number.

JERI SOUTHERN
(Decca 29856; 9-29856)

B "KISS AND RUN" (2:40) [Herb Reis BMI—Ledru, Denoncin, Engvick] Jeri Southern hands in a wonderfully tender rendition of this excellent up-beat romancer. Tune has been around for some weeks. This version could send it toward hitdom.

B "A LOT OF LIVIN' OUT-A-LIFE" (2:36) [Fairway BMI—Allan] The polished thrush is in class-y form as she warbles this terrific piece of blues. Thrush constantly records top notch material.

DAVID CARROLL ORCH.
(Mercury 70822; 70822x45)

B+ "THE BEAUTIFUL GIRLS OF VIENNA" (2:16) [Ross Jungnickel ASCAP—Coots] With European flavored instrumentals currently riding high, David Carroll introduces a delightful number loaded with all the commercial characteristics of a strong instrumental seller. Interesting side that could click for the maestro.

C+ "THE LITTLE BALLERINA" (2:38) [Pure BMI—Lafarge] A familiar classical theme is adapted for the pop market by Carroll, and the result is a contagious novelty item full of color and gaiety.

JOHNNY MADDOX
(Dot 15452; 45-15452)

B "FAREWELL TO THEE (Aloha Oe)" (2:02) [Gallatin BMI—Traditional] A delightful Hawaiian traditional is pleasantly styled by keyboard star Johnny Maddox and his boys. Corny item that could catch on.

C+ "BOPPIN'" [Gallatin BMI—Griffin, Griffin] Johnny and the boys hit hard as they drive through a strong rock and roll jumper titled after the currently popular teen-age dance, the Bop.

KAY CARSON
(Capitol 3366; F-3366)

B "DON'T GET CARRIED AWAY" (2:32) [Jimskip BMI—Fegan, Endeavor] Kay Carson, who made a fine first showing with her rendition of "Band Of Gold", eases thru a cute jumper in a pleasant manner. Rhythm novelty.

B "THOSE WHO HAVE LOVED" (2:56) [Hollis BMI—Watson] The rich voiced lark changes the pace on this portion and presents a sincere, heartfelt rendition of a pretty romantic item. Juicy song that could click.

From the Grand Old Opry, to the London Palladium is quite an achievement for Slim Whitman. Slim, who arrived in London this week to open at the big London House is still bewildered at the fame he has reached on this side of the Atlantic. He opens at Glasgow Empire this Monday, prior to his London two-week stint and already the House displays SRO notices and has added two extra matinees. While in London, Slim will also guest on TV for both Channel 9 and BBC.

Called Jack Lacey at Shannon on arrival to welcome him to these shores. Judging from his schedule, listeners to WINS are in for some exciting broadcasts from Europe. Jack is due in London on March 6th and on March 8th we will be welcoming Stan Kenton.

The music strike was called off last Tuesday, and although discussions are still in progress, music has returned to BBC-TV. BBC is planning a British Festival of Song. British compositions will be performed and viewers will be asked to vote for the best tune. But the contest is only open to professional writers.

Victor Young flew in to London from Germany and back to the States after a short European trip. He was here for confabs with movie chiefs.

The Oriole label issued a record by a newcomer, Maxine Daniels, singing an oldie, entitled "Our Love Affair". Despite the unquestionable resemblance to Rosemary Clooney, I must admit this is still a very excellent record.

I wonder if we are in for a French spell, what with "The Poor People of Paris," Lou Busch's "Mademoiselle from Paris, France," and "French Lullaby of Birdland"?

R&B Disk Jockeys Form National Organization

NEW YORK CITY—Coming out of the first meeting of its kind, held here for the purpose of forming a national organization, some twenty of the nation's top disk jockies returned home resolved to form the first national organization of Rhythm and Blues record spinners in the history of the profession. The men who came from as far West as San Francisco and as deep in the South as Florida, met for three days at Smalls' Paradise. Scheduled to operate collectively under the name, The National Jazz, Rhythm and Blues Disc-Jockey's Association, Inc., the men formed the foundation of the organization which they hope will embrace a bulk of the major record riders in the country.

At the first meeting officers were elected and plans set in motion to hold the first major convention in Chicago May 18th through the 20th. Officers of the new group are: Jack Gibson, of Atlanta's WERD, president, Ken Knight, Jacksonville, Fla.'s WRHC, 1st Executive vice-prexy; Tommy Smalls, this city's WWRL, 2nd vice prexy; Jimmy Woods of Savannah's WJIV, treasurer; Larry Dean, Cincy's WCIN, financial and recording secy; Baltimore's Buddy Young, sgt.-at-arms; Buffalo's Howard Cole, chaplain; and William L. Rowe of Louis-Rowe Enterprises, as national public relations director. Each of the other attending members were made regional directors with the rank of vice presidents.

The purpose of the new organization is to create a disk-jockey code. The nation-wide aim will be to broaden the field of this type of music and put it on a more dignified basis. The organization will strive to bring due recognition to those connected with Jazz and Rhythm and Blues through the creation of annual awards that will go to both artists and those who make up the record industry. A committee was formed to study the industry so that suggestions could be made to better the type of R and B records made.

The group also resolved to help fight juvenile delinquency and strive to create a closer association with its members and advertising agencies so as to be better able to sell the products of the various sponsors. In summing up the three days of meeting and planning, Tommy Smalls, the host record announcer said: "The main purpose of our organization is to create good fellowship among men throughout the country in the same profession and to increase our efficiency both audience and sponsor-wise."

The attending jockies were: Jack Gibson, WERD, Atlanta; Larry Dean, WCIN, Cincinnati; John Hardy, KSAN, San Francisco; Ernie Durham, WJLB, Detroit and WBBC, Flint; Buddy Young, WEBB; Baltimore; Larry Dixon, WJKO, Springfield, Mass.; Jimmy Woods, WJIV, Savannah, Ga.; Jack Holmes, WLOW, Norfolk, Va.; Spider Burke, KXLW, St. Louis; Jimmie Jones, KPRS, Kansas City; Adrian K. Knight, WRHC, Jacksonville, Fla.; Maurice Hulbert, WITH, Baltimore; Bill Powell, WILY, Pittsburgh; Howard Coles, WSAY, Rochester, N. Y. and Genial Gene, WGIV, Charlotte, N. C.

The organization is mixed and is open to all jazz and Rhythm and Blues jockies regardless of race, creed, color or national origin.

RCA Victor Announces National Save On Records Coupon Plan

NEW YORK—Officials of the RCA Victor Record Division have announced that a unique plan for the merchandising of phonograph records will be inaugurated nationally starting March 11th.

The plan will enable customers to buy from record dealers a $3.98 coupon book which entitles them to three free $3.98 records in the course of a year, plus the option to buy up to 24 additional $3.98 records at $2.98 each.

"In effect, a customer who takes full advantage of the plan can save $31.96 on his record purchases through the year," said Lawrence W. Kanaga, Vice President and General Operations Manager for the company. "However, a person who spent only $3.98 for the coupon book can obtain a total of three records, with a total value of $11.94, with no further expenditure."

Kanaga emphasized that the coupon books, as well as the monthly and bonus records, can be obtained only through record dealers.

"We are firmly convinced that the basic strength of any merchandising plan lies in a sound dealer structure," Kanaga explained. "Through record dealers customers get complete selection, service and more value for their money."

Basically, Kanaga said, the Save On Records coupon plan will embrace the following principles:

1. All emphasis is on the dealer.
2. All transactions are made through the dealer.
3. The dealer is identified with the bonus records, and the lower prices so that the customer looks upon his store as the place from which all benefits come.
4. In every respect, the plan is designed to build store traffic.
5. With this plan, RCA Victor will not be setting itself in competition to the dealers in any respect. Here is how the Save-On-Records Coupon-Book Plan works:

1. Upon the purchase of the $3.98 coupon book, the customer may choose free any classical or popular $3.98 long playing or 45-Extended Play album in the dealer's stock, for which he turns in the first of 27 coupons.
2. During each of the following 12 months the customer will be notified of the advance release of two albums, one classical and the other popular. If he wishes, he can buy either or both of these records at his dealer's for a coupon and $2.98 each.
3. In July and October, regardless of whether the customer has bought any of the advance release records he can obtain free two more $3.98 albums by presenting the special coupons to his dealer.

"Actually the customer has to invest a minimum of only $3.98, entitling him to his first free record, plus two bonus records," said Kanaga, "but we are sure most of them will take advantage of the additional savings offered by the plan."

The campaign will be inaugurated with an advertising blitz that will include full page ads in Life with follow up ads in the same magazine as well as the Saturday Evening Post, Collier's, Time, Look, Esquire, the New Yorker, Saturday Review, High Fidelity and Hi-Fi Music At Home. Newspaper ads will break nationally Sunday, March 11. There also will be two full minute film commercials, one on Producer's Showcase and the other on the Milton Berle show. On April 2 there will be a follow-up color commercial on Producer's Showcase. These three commercials will be seen by an estimated audience of 115,000,000 potential coupon book purchasers. In addition there will be a saturation campaign on NBC network radio on programs such as Dragnet and Monitor.

The Save-On-Records plan was launched February 6 in three major test markets—Kansas City, Boston and Los Angeles. It operated so successfully in those areas that RCA Victor officials decided to make the coupon books available nationally.

Autographing Records

NEW YORK—The surprised gent at the table is none other than Desi Arnaz autographing MGM records of "Forever Darling" at Gimbel's Department Store in New York City. Shown with him is Al Levine of Ideal Record Products Co., local distributor for MGM. The appearance at Gimbel's culminated a coast to coast trip that had Desi visiting record counters in department stores for autograph parties.

Arnold Shaw Upped To V. P. of Marks

Old Contract Reported Scrapped With
New One Calling For Longer Term
And Increase

NEW YORK—Arnold Shaw has been named a vice president of the Edward B. Marks Music Corporation at the last meeting of the firm's board of directors. Before leaving on March 1 on a combination business and vacation trip to Mexico and California, Herbert E. Marks, president of the concern, announced Shaw's promotion. He indicated also that Shaw's initial contract has been scrapped and a new one involving a longer term and a substantial increase had just been negotiated.

Starting only last May as general professional manager, Shaw was successful in quickly bringing the sixty-two-year-old publishing house into the up-to-date teen-age market of pop, rhythm and blues, and country and western while, at the same time, retaining and exploiting all the standard values inherent in the catalog.

Just recently Shaw had "Dungaree Doll," as recorded by Eddie Fisher, while Elvis Presley's "I Forgot To Remember To Forget" has been the #1 best seller in the country and western field. Percy Faith's "Tropical Merengue" approached hit proportions as one of a substantial group of new recordings of the firm's famed Latin-American repertoire. The firm's current songs include "Rock Right," recorded by Georgia Gibbs; "Port-au-Prince," Nelson Riddle's follow-up to "Lisbon Antigua," and "I Don't Have To Worry," the first Bobby Scott record since "Chain Gang."

Bob Marks continues as the head of the firm's Hollywood office, with Mort Hillman in the same capacity in the Midwest area.

Mel Torme At Cameo

NEW YORK—Mel Torme opened at the Cameo, Thursday, March 1. He followed Frances Faye who ended a smashing four-week engagement.

Torme has dropped his earlier "velvet fog" technique for a more musical singing style that retains only a trace of huskiness, and this laryngological license he keeps well under control.

At the Cameo, Mel sings many of the favorites which he has just recorded for Bethlehem Records with the Marty Paich Dek-Tette group. Among these are "Lulu's Back in Town," "The Lady Is a Tramp," "Carioca," and "When April Comes Again."

Mel has developed some new talents since his last New York engagement. He has added a drum number to his act along with some highly entertaining comedy bits, and he brings to his Cameo appearance a well polished and diverting routine.

Working along with Mel is Corky Hale, the talentend pianist-harpist.

Vaughn Monroe Records Theme For Red Cross

NEW YORK—The American National Red Cross is rushing out this week to every radio station and all Red Cross chapters throughout the country, a recording by Vaughn Monroe of its new theme song, "Share The Luck," which was written by Meredith Wilson.

Some 8,000 records will be distributed by hand by field workers, so that it can be used in conjunction with the annual fund-raising campaign during the month of March. In a display of unusual split-second timing and coordination, The Red Cross will have completed the entire project, including the writing of the song, its recording and the distribution of the records, within the short space of four weeks.

It started when a member of the Board of Governors of the Red Cross asked Meredith Wilson to write a new theme song for the 1956 campaign. He wrote it in a week end, through Plymouth Music, Inc., assigned the copyright to the American National Red Cross. Vaughn Monroe was then contacted and he agreed to record it, with the approval of RCA-Victor Records. However, since he was appearing at the Sahara Hotel in Las Vegas, it was impossible for him to fly to Los Angeles for the session. After surveying the different facilities, available, he suggested doing the recording in the Congo Room of the Sahara, using Cee Davidson's house band. At the same time, he and Meredith Wilson discussed the instrumentation and arrangement via telephone and two days later, a representative of the Red Cross was on his way to Las Vegas with the music. The recording session was held on Monday, February 20, and the following day the master was processed and records were being pressed in Los Angeles. Shipments were on their way to the Red Cross Chapters by the end of the week.

Action On "Strip For Action"

NEW YORK—As "Strip For Action," the new musical comedy, prepares for its Broadway debut in early April, a number of songs from the score have already taken a bow.

Robbins Music Corporation (Big 3), publishers of the McHugh-Adamson songs, have already racked up a Nat "King" Cole EP on Capitol of four big numbers from the score—"Too Young To Go Steady," "Love Me As Though There Were No Tomorrow," "I Just Found Out About Love" and "Dame Crazy."

"Love Me As Though There Were No Tomorrow" has three singles with major platters by Lu Ann Simms with The Percy Faith Orchestra on Columbia, Dorothy Collins on Coral and Dick Kallman on Decca.

Patti Page has just recorded "Too Young To Go Steady" on Mercury label.

According to Murray Baker, general professional manager of Robbins, Capitol Records is set to come up with the original show album on "Strip For Action."

POPULAR

"HIGH TOR"—Songs and Story From the Ford Star Jubilee—CBS Television Production—Bing Crosby, Everett Sloane, Julie Andrews—Decca DL 8272 (1-12" LP)

LIVING ONE DAY AT A TIME; WHEN YOU'RE IN LOVE; SAD IS THE LIFE OF THE SAILOR'S WIFE; A LITTLE LOVE, A LITTLE WHILE; JOHN BARLEYCORN; ONCE UPON A LONG AGO. A long awaited and ambitious television production will take place on the Ford Star Jubilee, March 10th. This will be the musical version of Maxwell Anderson's celebrated play, "High Tor". The stars will include Bing Crosby and Julie ("The Boy Friend") Andrews. Producer-Composer Arthur Schwartz has set down seven warm and tuneful melodies and writer of the play Anderson has written appropriate and well integrated lyrics on this disk. Crosby narrates and sings the story of a man who attempts to hold on to some land on the Hudson against commercial real estate interests. Miss Andrews warbles tenderly in her co-starring role. Best song bets for pop hits are "When You're In Love" and "John Barleycorn". The set should be a big sales item after the film is shown on TV.

"LOVE MUSIC FROM HOLLYWOOD"—Paul Weston And His Orchestra—Columbia CL 794 (1-12" LP)

MY FOOLISH HEART; LAURA; RAMONA; SAMSON AND DELILAH; SPELLBOUND; ODD MAN OUT; KING'S ROW; DIANE (FROM "SEVENTH HEAVEN"); NOW VOYAGER; WUTHERING HEIGHTS; DARK VICTORY; LOST HORIZON. Some of the loveliest themes ever to have graced movie sound tracks are performed with tender care by Paul Weston and his ork. With fitting lushness such memorable selections as "Laura" and "Now Voyager" have every drop of sentimentality carefully squeezed out of them. Excellent follow-up to Weston's other movie music set, "Sound Stage". Movie-goers and mood music enthusiasts will prize this package. The set has a chart-like sound about it. One of Weston's top LP's to date.

"FOUR FRESHMEN AND FIVE TROMBONES"—Capitol T683 (1-12" LP)

ANGEL EYES; LOVE IS JUST AROUND THE CORNER; MAM'SELLE; SPEAK LOW; THE LAST TIME I SAW PARIS; SOMEBODY LOVES ME; YOU STEPPED OUT OF A DREAM; I REMEMBER YOU; LOVE IS HERE TO STAY; YOU MADE ME LOVE YOU; GUILTY. Already quickly rising on the charts, this set offers the virtues of topnotch harmonizing, a non-conforming approach, hard rock material and excellent instrumentation. The harmonizing chores are performed by one of the most exciting vocal groups around today, the Four Freshmen. These disk jockey favorites sing the platter's smart songs ("Somebody Loves Me", "Speak Low") with the wide latitude jazz arrangements can provide. It all comes across with the tune's feeling still intact. The accompaniment gently and tastefully acts as the vehicle for the boys. As already stated the pop-jazz buyers are going wild over the package. Should be a big package for the boys. Two items, "Angel Eyes" and "Somebody Loves Me", have been released on a single. This should further boost the album's sale.

"SENTIMENTAL SOUVENIRS"—The Four Aces—Decca DL 8227 (1-12" LP)

HEART OF MY HEART; WEDDING BELLS; MISTER SANDMAN; THERE IS A TAVERN IN THE TOWN; IN APPLE BLOSSOM TIME; AMONG MY SOUVENIRS; DREAM; I DON'T KNOW WHY; TELL ME WHY; PERFDIA; I UNDERSTAND; MY HERO. When vocal groups caught the public's fancy a few years ago, the Four Aces emerged as one of the most successful. This Decca release of previous single sessions contains some of their earlier hit platters. This includes such Four Aces' favorites as "Tell Me Why" and "Perfidia". Other numbers are in keeping with the set's objective of presenting sentimental favorites livened up, when called for, by attractive arrangements. The boys deliver with zealous vocalizing. The group's great popularity could make the package a top sales item. Terrific album for a gathering where gang-singing is planned.

"ENCORES"—Rusty Draper—Mercury MG 20117 (1-12" LP)

GAMBLER'S GUITAR; EATING GOOBER PEAS; NATIVE DANCER; CAN'T LIVE WITHOUT THEM ANYMORE; BIG MAMOU; THE BALLAD OF DAVY CROCKETT; SEVENTEEN; THE TRAIN WITH THE RHUMBA BEAT; MUSKRAT RAMBLE; I'VE BEEN THINKIN'; ANGRY; JUST BECAUSE. When the more energetic tunes began to hit the charts, performers who could capture the excitement of such material were in demand. One of the best entertainers to fit the bill was and is Rusty Draper. Whether on guitar or vocal Rusty's vitality in both mediums keeps the kids hoppin' around. This platter contains 12 previously released singles. With his "Are You Satisfied" among the top sellers the disk ought to have the cash registers humming. "Gambler's Guitar", Rusty's first big hit, is one of the many delightful selections of this set.

"MARGARET WHITING SINGS FOR STARRY-EYED"—Orchestra Conducted by Frank De Vol—Capitol T 685 (1-12" LP)

WHY SHOULDN'T I; LIKE SOMEONE IN LOVE; I'VE TOLD EV'RY LITTLE STAR; LET'S FALL IN LOVE; DAY IN, DAY OUT; LOVE CAN HAPPEN ANY TIME; I GOT LOST IN HIS ARMS; THEY DIDN'T BELIEVE ME; SOMETIMES I'M HAPPY; REMIND ME; I HADN'T ANYONE TILL YOU; A YOUNG MAN'S FANCY. There are still singers around that deliver a tune without the doubtful aid of a unique vocal trick or a clever recording engineer. One of these select entertainers is Margaret Whiting. With a pleasant and sweet voice she does charming justice to 12 quality melodies on a new Capitol release. All the tunes are romantic and fall into the mood music field with their relaxing nature. "Why Shouldn't I", "Let's Fall In Love" and "Remind Me" represent some of the healthy selections on the disk. The set should provide for steady sales from year to year.

"SMART ALEC"—Alec Templeton—ABC-Paramount ABC-100 (1-12" LP)

GOLDEN BANTAM POLKA; GIVE ME YOUR HEART; HAVE A FEW WITH DINECU; MENDELSSOHN'S SPRING SONG; HE'S A HOLLYWOOD FELLOW; PORTRAIT OF BENNY; DISK JOCKEY TOCCATA; PORTRAIT OF FRANCES; STIP CHOCKS; LA MAMBALOMA; ROYAL DIXIELAND FLUSH; 2 1/2 GUITARS. One of ABC-Paramount's first album releases may well be one of their more daring and unusual pressings. For on this disk the accomplished master of musical satire, Alec Templeton, has thrown off all restrictions for a delve into tongue in cheek piano antics. The titles of the selections (i.e. "Portrait Of Benny", "Disk Jockey Toccata") tell you something is up. Templeton's device is to create an unusual sound (his own or in the recording process) and strongly emphasize a particular tune's tempo. The result is devastating musical satire. His accompanists find themselves in the frolic too. Completely off-beat package with a special audience that should find the goings-on highly satisfying.

LATIN RHYTHMS

"MERENGUE A LA NORO"—Noro Morales And His Orchestra—RCA Victor LPM-1163 (1-12" LP)

LO CASARON; DONA RAMONA; EL NEGRITO DEL BATEY; NOT TOO FAST; COMPADRE PEDRO JUAN; CAN'T HELP IT; TROPICAL MERENGUE; SIREN; SEMILO; THE TWINS; JUAN GOMERO; TOMO QUE TOMO Y TOMO.

With the merengue currently getting a firmer grip on our shores, famed Noro Morales and his ork offer 12 exciting merengue waxings on this Victor set. All the numbers sport the stamp of "Genuine". An exciting entry by the Latin music star. More and more folks are taking to this delightful easy-to-learn dance. And young and old alike should find this disk a delightful backing for their hoofing activities. Disk really swings.

"FIESTA TROPICAL"—Ramon Marquez and His Orchestra Featuring Damiron and Chapuseaux—Fiesta FLP 1201 (1-12" LP)

LESSONS IN CHA CHA CHA; MAMBO INDIA; MAMBENGUE; UNO DOS Y TRES; DONDE ESTABAS TU; CHIVIRICO RHYTHM; CHA CHA CHA RHYTHM; FIESTA TROPICAL; CARABINE; EL GUAPO; ANABACOA; A LITTLE BIT OF MAMBO.

Three triple threat Latin steps, the Mambo, Cha Cha Cha, and Merengue, are the offering of one of the ablest interpreters of such beats. Ramon Marquez and His orchestra broadcast some excellent material with an authentic sense of rhythm. The numbers include some current favorites plus Ramon's own smash "Lessons In Cha Cha Cha". This baby oughta sail first class into the Latin dance lover's platter file.

"CHA CHA CHA?"—Featuring Argueso And His Orchestra, Damiron & Chapuseaux, Ramon Marquez And His Orchestra—Fiesta FLP-1205 (1-12" LP)

YO SABIA; MERENGUE MERENGUE; POR FAVOR; CHA CHA CHA EN BOOGIE; ADORABLE; PRINCIPE CHA CHA CHA; NINO PERFIDO; CHA CHA CHA ANDULUCIA; AY, DAME UN POQUITO; MANTELETA; EL GANGREJAL; EL MAMBO DE MI PRIETA.

The dancing public's crazy over the cha cha cha. They're still very much excited over the mambo. And there's a growing enthusiasm for the merengue. Thus all concerned should welcome this Fiesta entry that spotlights three name Latin-rhythm outfits in well arranged and authentic numbers. The waxing is a reliable addition to the current South of the Border dance mania. Great disk for a party. Offers a delightful mixture of the three top Latin dances.

"TRIO LOS PARAGUAYOS"—Epic LN 3189 (1-12" LP)

MI DICHA LEJANA; GALOPERA; CASCADA; FLOR DE PILAR; MARIA DOLORES; SERENATA; MI DESTINA; FLORECITA DE MI CIELO; VIVA LA LIDA! VIVA EL AMOR; ASI CANTA MI PATRIA; MALEGUENA; PAJARA CAMPANA.

The overwhelming dominance of Latin dance rhythms sometimes makes us forget about the sentimental and less restrained music from South America. A threesome from Paraguay here offer their combined talents in 12 Paraguayan folk songs. The Trio Los Paraguayos is a blendful group that sings with feeling and involved emotion. The set's restricted audience of folk music lovers will find the group and material a worthwhile offering.

COUNTRY

"THE GOLDEN COWBOY SINGS THE GREATEST WESTERNS"—Eddie Dean—Featuring The Frontiersmen—Sage & Sand C-1 (1-12" LP)

RIDIN' DOWN THE CANYON; THE CATTLE CALL; RAGTIME COWBOY JOE; WAGON WHEELS; TUMBLING TUMBLE WEEDS; COWBOY'S PRAYER; EMPTY SADDLES IN THE OLD CORRAL; LITTLE JOE THE WRANGLER; WHOOP! TI-YI-YO; COOL WATER; THERE'S A GOLDMINE IN THE SKY; THE LAST ROUNDUP.

The hard work and sweat of the cowboy (not the Hollywood version) is often made much more bearable by a song. There have been dozens of melodies written which sentimentally describe this satisfying outdoor life. Eddie Dean and the Frontiersmen sing 12 of the better cowboy songs on this Sage and Sand release. Western standards like "Wagon Wheels" and "Tumbling Tumble Weed" are warmly sung with an obvious love of the music by the artists involved. Dean received national recording recognition with his clicker, "I Dreamed Of A Hillbilly Heaven". This factor plus the overall popularity of the well sung numbers should account for sturdy sales.

CLASSICAL

"MOZART ANNIVERSARY ALBUM"—Symphony No. 26 in E-Flat, K. 184; Symphony No. 29, in A, K. 201; Symphony No. 34, in C, K. 338—Centennial Symphony Orchestra; Symphony No. 38, in D, K. 504; Vienna Philharmonic Orchestra Bruno Walter, Conductor—Symphony No. 39, in E-Flat, K543—Thames Symphony Orchestra—Symphony No. 40, In G Minor, K. 550—Stratford Symphony Orchestra—Symphony No. 41, in C, K. 551, Serenade in G, K. 525—Vienna Philharmonic Orchestra Bruno Walter, Conductor—Sinfonia Concertante in E-Flat, K. Anh. 9—Warwick Symphony Orchestra—Sinfonia Concertante in E-Flat, K. 364—Albert Spalding, Violin; William Primrose, Viola New Friends Of Music Orchestra, Fritz Stiedry, Conductor—Requiem Mass, K. 364—Warwick Symphony Orchestra, with Soloists and Chorus—Camden CFL-105 (6-12" LP's).

Tapping Victor's impressive catalogue, Camden offers a gigantic Mozart Anniversary Album. The 6 LP's contain 11 works by the genius performed with the care and dedication of some of the world's finest orchestras and conductors. With few exceptions the Camden artists are under assumed names. The Centennial and Warwick Orchestras for example are actually the Boston Symphony under Serge Koussevitsky and the Philadelphia Orchestra under Leopold Stokowski. The waxings cover seven symphonies, the familiar "Serenade In G, K. 525", two Sinfonia Concertantes (E-Flat, K. Anh. 9 and E-Flat, K 364) and the "Requiem Mass, K. 626". With others like Bruno Walter pitching in too, the performances almost never fail the listener in brilliance and understanding. Fairly even sound throughout the disks. With six recordings at a budget price the boxed package should be a terrific classical stock item.

"STARRING RICHARD TUCKER"—Richard Tucker, Tenor; Fausto Cleva Conducting the Columbia Symphony Orchestra—Columbia ML 5062 (1-12" LP)

VERDI: UN BALLO IN MASCHERA; "DI TU SE FEDELE"; PUCCINI: MANON LESCAUT "DONNA NON VIDI MAI"; VERDI: REQUIEM "INGEMISCO TAMQUAM REUS"; GIORDANO: ANDREA CHENIER; "UN DI ALL' AZZURRO SPAZIO"; MASCAGNI: IRIS—"APRI LA TUA FINESTRA"; MASSENET: MANON; "AH FUYEZ DOUCE IMAGE"; VERDI: LUISA MILLER; "QUANDO LE SERE AL PLACIDO"; VERDI: IL TROVATORE; "AH! SI BEN MIO"; "DI QUELLA PIRAI"

The rich tenor voice of Richard Tucker is heard in eight operatic arias on this Columbia release. Certainly one of the most outstanding singers of present (Continued on Page 26)

Nat Shapiro To Head Columbia's Foreign A & R Dept.

Art Schwartz Takes On Advertising Duties

NEW YORK—Columbia Records announced a number of major personnel assignments last week in addition to the rearrangement of responsibilities within the firm.

Nat Shapiro, who previously handled special project and public relations duties for Broadcast Music, Inc., was appointed to the newly-formed post of Co-ordinator of Foreign Pop Artists and Repertoire. This move was made by the diskery in view of the wealth of important material that has been coming from the Continent and making a great impression on these shores. Shapiro was also in the publishing business prior to his work with BMI. He will report directly to Goddard Lieberson, vice-president of Columbia. His A & R duties will include the supervision over material acquired from Columbia's European affiliate, Philips Records, as well as other affiliates throughout the world. Domestic material considered suitable for foreign exploitation will also be a part of his duties.

Another major move was the promotion of Art Schwartz. Schwartz is currently sales promotion manager for the label. He takes on additional duties as advertising manager. Gil McKean, who had held the advertising post, resigned as of March 1.

Key personnel in the sales staff have been assigned new titles: Stan Kavan is sales manager of album products; Dick Linke, sales manager of single releases; and Bill Gallagher, field sales manager. The three report to director of sales Hal Cook, as does Milt Selkowitz who remains sales manager of special markets which includes chain stores, etc.

RCA Hits Billion Mark In Sales

NEW YORK—David Sarnoff, chairman of the Radio Corporation of America, announced this week that in 1955, the company did its largest volume business in its thirty-six year history, exceeding $1,000,000,000 in sales for the first time. The annual statement to RCA's stockholders noted that the record business last year put RCA among the nation's top 25 industrial companies. Sales and services of its products increased 12% to $1,055,266,625 last year from $940,950,220 in 1954 the firm's previous record year. Net profit after taxes also set a new high of $47,525,465, equal to $3.16 a share.

The report also said that 1955 was a record year for the National Broadcasting Company, a subsidiary of RCA. The total television network billings rose 35% over the 1954 level and over-all sales gained 23%.

Sarnoff, who this week celebrated his 65th birthday, sent a message of congratulations to all employees for their teamwork in making the record accomplishments. This year is also Sarnoff's 50th anniversary in the field of radio communications. Sarnoff entered the field in 1906 as an office boy of the Marconi Wireless Telegraph Company of America which eventually became the Radio Corporation of America.

Crosby Included In "High Society" Album For Capitol

NEW YORK—Frank Sinatra has put together a record album of music from the Metro film "High Society" in which he will be joined by Bing Crosby, Louis Armstrong, Celeste Holm and Grace Kelly.

Despite the fact that Crosby and Armstrong are both Decca contractees, the album will be pressed and released by Capitol. This will mark the first occasion in many years that Crosby has recorded under any other than the Decca label.

Completion of arrangements for this five-star album marks the culmination of plans on which Sinatra has been working ever since the start of filming on "High Society" in which all five of them appear.

Plans are for Capitol to use the sound tract conducted by Johnny Green for the MGM musical.

In addition, Sinatra and Crosby will team up at Capitol studios to re-record slightly shortened versions of two of their duet numbers for the album. These numbers will be conducted by Nelson Riddle.

Release of the album will be timed for maximum impact and exploitation in connection with the national release of the musical film this spring.

"Yearbook of Jazz" Planned

NEW YORK—Horizon Press announced this week that as a result of the unprecedented success of "The Encyclopedia Of Jazz", released last November and already the biggest selling book in jazz history (priced at $10, it grossed over $100,000 in three months), plans have been completed for publication next fall of the first "Encyclopedia Yearbook Of Jazz".

Posing Prettily

LOS ANGELES—Peggy King, featured vocalist on the George Gobel Show and Columbia recording artist, poses prettily with the new Wurlitzer 1900. Peggy's latest recording is "Kiss And Run".

day opera, Mr. Tucker performs the frequently powerful pieces with surpassing eloquence and tonal beauty. Of particular excellence are Puccini's "Donna Non Vidi Mai" from "Manon Lescaut". It is a gem that the Metropolitan star handles lyrically. This disk cannot be avoided by opera lovers. Fausto Cleva hands in a masterful job leading the Columbia Symphony.

VIVALDI: The Seasons—Virtuoso Di Roma, Renato Fasano—RCA Victor LHMV-26 (1-12" LP)

The prolific pen of Vivaldi was involved in many concertos. His "The Seasons" (actually five short concertos) still stands as one of the composer's most popular and oft-times recorded concerto works. Victor, through its English counterpart, His Master's Voice, has released a lovely pressing of Vivaldi's attempt to use instruments to paint the spirit and translate the sounds of the various seasons of the year. Virtuoso Di Roma under Renato Fasano's direction follows through with a penetrating reading of the opus. An elaborate container houses the disk. Excellent sound. The platter is a choice waxing of the work.

JAZZ

"PRESENTING THE GERRY MULLIGAN SEXTET"—Gerry Mulligan, baritone sax; Zoot Sims, alto sax; Bobo Brookmeyer, trombone; Jon Eardley, trumpet; Dave Bailey, drums; Peck Morrison, bass—EmArcy MG-36056 (1-12" LP) MUD BUG; SWEET AND LOVELY; APPLE CORE; NIGHTS OF THE TURNTABLE; BROADWAY; EVERYTHING HAPPENS TO ME; THE LADY IS A TRAMP; BERNIE'S TUNE.

With the Gerry Mulligan Quartet a segment of past jazz history, the Gerry Mulligan Sextet seems set to capably carry the ball from now on. EmArcy has waxed the Sextet in eight stimulating and resourceful sessions. The boys are effectively cool with "Everything Happens To Me" and deliciously go all-out on "The Lady Is A Tramp". Gerry's new combo should give jazz adherents a good conversation piece, and dealers a strong sales disk. Mulligan in recent years has been one of top jazz LP sellers. This disk should follow suit.

"BLUES AND OTHER SHADES OF GREEN"—Urbie Green—Slide and Valve Trombone—ABC-Paramount—ABC-101 (1-12" LP)

REMINISCENT BLUES; THOU SWELL; YOU ARE TOO BEAUTIFUL; PARADISE; WARM VALLEY; FRANKIE AND JOHNNY; ONE FOR DEE; LIMEHOUSE BLUES; AM I BLUE; DIRTY DAN; IT'S TOO LATE NOW.

Whether he accelerates his pace or not, on this disk Urbie Green always manages to keep his trombone technique reflective and soft. With well above water material (i.e. "You Are Too Beautiful" and "Too Late Now") as his guide Urbie comes across with an extremely desirable jazz pressing. His accompaniment, particularly Dave McKenna at the keyboard, takes the easy-does-it attitude and provides graceful support. Choice sound. Very pleasing and accomplished jazz entry. Green has a wide following that should find this disk an attractive morsel.

"INTRODUCING CARL PERKINS"—with Leroy Vinnegar, Bass and Lawrence Marable, Drums—Dootone DL 211 (1-12" LP)

WAY ACROSS TOWN; YOU DON'T KNOW WHAT LOVE IS; THE LADY IS A TRAMP; MARBLE-HEAD; WOODY YOU; WESTSIDE; JUST FRIENDS; IT COULD HAPPEN TO YOU; WHY DO I CARE; LILACS IN THE RAIN; CARL'S BLUES.

The jazz-wise public can take a sufficient hear-see with this Dootone disk so as to discover a bright jazz pianist. Carl Perkins is his name (not to be confused with the Western singer Carl Perkins). The platter covers enough ground to display a good, varied sense of jazzmanship. His something borrowed, something original numbers have been specifically chosen to give Carl this chance of displaying a wide range of techniques. A polished and versatile performer with an exciting technique.

MOBILE, ALA.—Chuck Thompson and John Dixon, Dee Jays with WALA Radio and TV in Mobile, double up to give the teenagers a special showing of Chuck's Celebrity necktie collection on John's "Dixon on Discs" Saturday afternoon teenage dance party on WALA-TV.

Some of Chuck's ties are seen draped over the Seeburg Hi Fi 100 juke box on the set. In his unusual collection, Chuck has ties selected, worn, and given him by Bing Crosby, Bob Hope, Dean Martin, Jerry Lewis, Richard Hayman, Jackie Gleason, Lou Monte, Billy Vaughn, Larry Clinton, Billy May, Vaughn Monroe, Herb Shriner, Tex Williams, Red Foley, Rudy Vallee, Eddie Condon, Les Paul, Vic Damone, and many others. Each tie has a background story of interest to fans.

Chuck selects a different one of his famous ties to wear on each of his record shows. The show, incidentally, is programmed from The Cash Box charts.

Panart To Launch

"Music of Cuba"

12" LP Series

NEW YORK—With over 250,000 visitors to Cuba from all over the United States, Panart Recording Corporation will join with the Cuban Tourist Commission in an effort to promote the music of Cuba via 12" Albums of the melodies of Cuba as heard today in the various Night Clubs and Ballrooms of Havana.

Currently the three orchestras at the Tropicana Night Club in Havana are Panart exclusive recording artists. Fajardo and His All Stars, playing nightly at the Montmatre Night Club are on the Panart exclusive list. In all there are over fifteen orchestras and combos recording for Panart—all of whom are well known to the American visitors to the island.

Stan Steinhaus, heading the Panart operation for the United States and Canada during his three weeks in Havana, recorded at the Panart Studios not less than forty sides with the various artists there. Most of this material will see sales here in 12" Albums.

The first "Music of Cuba" Volume will be released during the end of the month and will assure the dealer no less than 100% return on their buying price. The list for this album has been scheduled at the standard $3.98 price.

At the same time four additional 12" LP's will be released, using the accepted market trend towards photography and lamination, all covers to be done both in English and Spanish. The new LP's are: "Ole, Torero", Pasodobles; "Chavales de Espana", Continental Favorites in Spanish; "Merengues and Cha Cha Cha" and "Fajardo and His All Stars from the Montmatre Night Club" Cha Cha Cha's by the "King". Coming soon will be the first Jam Session release on the new $4.98 series, which was recorded in Havana two weeks ago, featuring the top sidemen in Cuban music, led by Julio Gutierrez and Perruchin, Cuba's prominent names in composer-arranger teams.

Panart has been granted the seal of approval by the Cuban Tourist Agency and this seal will appear on the backs of all 12" LP's, guaranteeing the buyer the authenticity of the contents.

Atlantic Cuts 12" LP Price

NEW YORK — Nesuhi Ertegun, vice president of Atlantic Records and A & R head of the company's jazz label, announced this week that Atlantic's price on its twelve inch LPs has been dropped from the $4.85 figure to $3.98.

The price change becomes effective immediately and will apply to the diskery's current release by Lennie Trisano; Jess Stacy's "Tribute To Benny Goodman"; and "Nobody Else But Me" by Betty Bennett with arrangements by Shorty Rogers, Andre Previn and Erroll Garner.

Baker Named In Balloting

FRANKFURT, GERMANY—Chet Baker has been accorded the honor of being named the top trumpet player in the annual balloting by The Jazz International in Germany. In the voting, Baker topped his nearest competitor by more than 900 votes.

Chet and his international aggregation have just wound up their tour of Germany with three nights of playing to jam-packed crowds at the Storyville Night Club in this city.

His appearance at Storyville is reported to have marked the first time an American jazz musician has ever played a club date in Germany.

Frank Dailey Dies; Helped Many Bands

NEW YORK—Frank Dailey, owner of the famous Meadowbrook in Cedar Grove, N. J., and one of the pioneers in the growth of the band business back in the 1930's, died of a heart attack last week at the age of 55.

The Meadowbrook, early in the band era, featured such towering names as Glenn Miller, Tommy Dorsey, Peggy Lee, Kay Starr, Stan Kenton, Vaughn Monroe, Eddy Howard and an endless chain of others. He was among the first to broadcast on radio, band shows emanating from the nite spot and also introduced many innovations like "Matinee at the Meadowbrook" and a live TV show from the club.

He is survived by brothers Jay Clifford and John, his wife Monica and sister Helen.

THE CASH BOX RHYTHM N' BLUES Ramblings

NEW YORK:

As always, we're constantly thinking of ways to make this department more complete and more functional to the trade, and we think we've hit on a real service which begins in this issue. Titled, "Territorial Tips", we will endeavor to highlight records that have created action in one, two, or more regions but which do not appear on our "Nation's Rhythm & Blues Top 15". Now, more than ever before, records have been showing strength regionally, and remain restricted to certain areas, never breaking nationally. By pinpointing these records we hope we can help draw attention to them so that disk jockeys, retailers, juke box operators and distributors can get "on them" and perhaps break them in their own respective areas. See the page three editorial for a more detailed survey of this new feature. . . . About eighteen disk jockeys from all parts of the United States gathered at Tommy Smalls' "Smalls Paradise" last weekend, Saturday and Sunday, February 25 and 26, for a series of meetings. These jockeys are the nucleus of what they hope will develop into a national organization that will include all the r & b jockeys. Mailing pieces will go out to every r & b jockey inviting him to join. A national convention date has been set for Chicago, May 18 and 19. Forums will be held and it is hoped that great strides will be made to solve many of the jockeys problems, further the industry, and get together with manufacturers and distributors. On Saturday, February 26, a cocktail party was held at which manufacturers, publishers, and the trade press got together with the jockeys who came into New York for the meetings. . . . Mr. Blues (WNJR-Newark, N.J.) came up with a funny that has the station staff hysterical. Seems, as is a teener practice, that Mr. Blues received a request to spin a tune dedicated from "Blue Eyes" to "Cuddles" Dubie. "Cuddles", it develops, is a teacher at the local Roselle High School and when the word got around all the teachers and students of the school became avid and apprehensive listeners of Mr. Blues. It reached a point where the principal called the station and dictated a list of teachers, whose names he insisted do not appear among the dedications. Mr. Blues, by the way, has become so strong a personality in Newark, that when he leaves the station each night he has to fight his way to his car. . . . Ray Clark, Groove Records, to the west coast for two weeks. Ray will visit Dallas, Phoenix, Denver, Portland, Seattle, San Francisco and Los Angeles.

DICK (RICARDO) SUGAR

Bob Rolontz, a & r head, hopped down to Atlanta for the weekend to sit in on a live concert by Piano Red. The label also announced the signing of Roy Gaines, guitarist-vocalist. Groove happy with the sale of "Chains Around My Heart" by the Avalons, and "Mumbles Blues" by Big Connie, which has stirred up some dust in several areas. About to be released is a new Tommy Brown, "Gambler's Prayer". . . . Jack Angel back on the job after a quickie vacation on the sands of Miami Beach. . . . Herald Records has four items going well for them. "Sister Sookee" by the Turbans; "Dear Diary" by the Smoothtones; and both new releases, "I Gotta Have You" and "Little Fool" by Charlie & Ray as well as "What Will I Do" by Al Savage. . . . Billy Brooks on Duke has a strong item in "I Want Your Love Tonight" and "This Is My Prayer". Also on the sister label, Little Richard has a potent release on Peacock called "Directly From My Heart To You" and "Little Richard's Boogie". . . . Mr. and Mrs. Abe Cohen of Essex Distributors, Newark, N.J. will leave for Los Angeles on March 20 for about 10 or 12 days. It will be a combined pleasure-business trip during which time "Mom" Cohen will have a chance to compare west coast "blintzes" with her own unbeatable. . . . The Teen Queens continue to grab off the bulk of the sales as "Eddie My Love" climbs upwards on both the r & b and pop charts. . . . Eddie Jenkins (KCUL-Dallas, Texas), with Duke Ellington for almost 19 years as a featured trumpeter, and composer for Tempo Music, and road manager for Roy Milton, T. Bone Walker, Roy Hawkins, Tiny Bradshaw, etc., got into deejaying when he had to lay over in Dallas for a severe operation. They took off the left side of his back, removed some ribs, took his heart out, scraped his chest, put his heart back and sewed him up. Despite this setback, Jenkins says he is "hollering real loud and drawing a crowd, popping my fingers, singing and wailing them gutbucket blues" on KCUL, a 10,000 watter. Jenkins writes asking his old friends to get in touch with him at the station. . . . Sidney Siegle, Seeco Records, off for a quickie trip to Puerto Rico, back to the states, and then off to Europe on April 13 for two months. Seeco is now putting out all lps on a 12" basis. . . . Bob McGhee, president of Rim Records, just back from a midwest tour, reports enthusiastic receptions from distributors and deejays on Lori Jai's "Thrills And Heartaches" and "Hold Me Close". . . . Joel Turnero back in town after a tour with The Turbans, Roy Gaines, Guitar Slim, Margie Day and Lloyd Lambert. . . . Sit up and take note of this. Jack Angel reports that Lightning Hopkins has broken pop in St. Louis with his guitar boogie, "Sky Hop". . . . Danny Stiles (WNJR-Newark, N.J. and WCTC-New Brunswick, N.J.) setting up a Rock and Roll Concert on March 16 in the New Brunswick High School Gym. Danny has already signed Frankie Lyman and the Teenagers, Harriet Kay, The Belvederes, Big Mike Gordon, Tommy Ryan and his Rock and Roll orchestra. Others are in the process of being added to the show. . . . Bea Kaslin, Hull Records, getting a solid reaction in New York on her Heartbeats "Darling How Long". This is the second straight Heartbeat release that stirred things up in this area. Her other deck, "Dearest Dream", by Mabel Lee is also getting a good local reaction. . . . Thanks from this column, the B'nai B'rith, and all the kids up around Joan of Arc Junior High School to Frankie Lyman and The Teenagers, and the Hearts, and thanks to George Goldner, who arranged for the Teenagers to appear, and to Sol Rabinowitz, Lou Sprung and Zell Sanders, who brought down the Hearts. Also thanks to Johnny Conquet, and his great Latin American band who played all night for the dancing youngsters. It was a great night and heartwarming to see all these decent kids have an evening of fun. Dick Sugar (WEVD-New York) helped arrange the dance and acted as MC, pitting his voice against the howling and appreciative teeners. . . . William B. Walker (WGH-Newport News, Va.) has started a new r & b hit parade every Saturday night. Walker would like to have the companies put him on their mailing lists. . . . Hank Goldman (WANN-Annapolis, Md.) conducting a Sunday afternoon car hop show, 3 to 6 pm, during which time he plays the top fifty r & b tunes compiled for him by The Cash Box. The list consists of the top twenty tunes in the order of their strength and the next thirty without listing their positions. . . . Long Larry Dean (WCIN-Cincinnati, O.) hosted Bob Rolontz, Groove Records, and Mike Gradney, Vita Records, on one of his recent shows. . . . Sid (Mustache) Dickler (WNCC-Barnsboro, Pa.) writes he plays only two rock 'n roll records on his show. "Kids don't dig the stuff too much yet," says Sid. They don't? ? ? Les Bihari, Meteor, and James Beard, Cadet Record Mfg. Co., in town.

CHICAGO:

Mention here last week regarding lack of disks for juke box ops who have adult spots, like taverns, since everything now directed at pop market with R&R dominating influence, has distributors here doing some serious thinking. . . . Looks like Roy (Shorty) Hamilton is going to bust some records wide open over at the Regal Thitter with the way the crowds lining up to listen to him warble. George and Ernie Leaner, who distribute Epic here, sent "Shorty" their bestest of the best. . . . Back from Florida, B. B. King flies on to California for a short rest, and will meet his crew in Memphis. . . . Saul Bihari of RPM phoning here to get those big orders for "Eddie My Love" and to advise that the 16-year-old Teen Queens will soon be in town for deejay promotion. . . . Hadda Brooks and Ernie Harper just jammin' 'em in to the Black Orchid's Junior Room with their grand songs and terrific 88's. Hadda's gonna stay on and on and on. Al Greenfield and Benny Dunn signing the gal to a long term contract. . . . Everyone expecting George Leaner to pop up in the showrooms of the firm wearing a straw hat, plaid shirt, farmer style overalls and chewing on a straw, now that Georgie howlin' himself but hoarse over Carl Perkins and his "Blue Suede Shoes". . . . Chuck Berry reported goin' great guns on the West Coast. . . . Len Chess a busy, busy boy this past week in session with The Moonglows. Len believes that the greatest disks Chess and Checker have ever presented on the market now and more to come. . . . Abner just ravin', but ravin', man, over the tremendous click of "Cavalcade of Vee-Jay Stars". The troupe composed of The El Dorados, Jimmy Reed, The Spaniels, Joe Buckner and Tommy Dean's Ork. Played to full house at Trianon, 2/24, packed 'em to the rafters in Milwaukee, 2/25, socked an' rocked 'em in Dallas, 2/27, and so forth and so on in Tucson, Phoenix, and points west. . . . Vee-Jay's Jimmy Bracken just signed The Swan Silvertones, beloved Pittsburgh spiritual group to an exclusive recording contract. . . . Paul Glass claims that The Teenagers' "Why Do Fools Fall In Love" is the hottest seller of all and right on the way to No. 1. "And", adds Paul, "I don't ever miss". By the way indie diskeries should check with Paul Glass on some angles he has regarding better biz for all concerned. . . . Eli Toscano of ABCO very happy the way Arbee Stidham and Herby Joe clickin' for him with their disks. Eli sure he's on the way with his first disks. . . . Whisper here is that new Priscilla Bowman, Jay McShann disk (The Cash Box' "Award O' The Week", 3/3/56) is gonna prove a terrific followup to "Hands Off".

LOS ANGELES:

Etta James due in town for some recording sessions at Modern Records. Both sides of her new disc—"I'm A Fool" and "Number One" look good. . . . Cornel Gunter and the Ermines and The Harris Sisters both signed to record for ABC-Paramount last week. . . . RHYTHM 'N BLUES REVIEWS

ⓐ AWARD & SLEEPER	ⓐ GOOD
ⓑ EXCELLENT	ⓑ FAIR
ⓒ VERY GOOD	ⓒ MEDIOCRE

BILL DOGGETT
(King 4888)

B "IN A SENTIMENTAL MOOD" (2:50) [American Academy AS-CAP—Ellington, Mills, Kurtz] Doggett paints a lush picture via his Hammond and group. It is a lovely, relaxing soft lights effort.

B "WHO'S WHO" (2:40) [Billace BMI—Doggett, Harris] Doggett jumps on the flip and turns in a modern jazz rhythm piece that will appeal to the ever growing jazz conscious market and the Doggett fans.

ARBEE STIDHAM
(Abco 100)

B "I'LL ALWAYS REMEMBER YOU" (2:32) [Lawn BMI—Stidham] Arbee Stidham sings a stirring slow beat blues recalling the girl who left him and who remains in his memory forever. Stidham convincingly portrays the dispirited lover.

B "MEET ME HALF WAY" (2:36) [Lawn BMI—Stidham] Stidham rocks a middle beat blues with a strong vocal treatment. The blues chanter tells his gal she has to meet him half way if she expects him to foot the bills. This is a good side that could get action.

EARL (CONNELLY) KING
(King 4889)

B "DEAR ONE" (2:33) [Wemar BMI—Medley, King, Glover] Earl (Connelly) King wails a slow, melodic ballad with romantic, tender lyrics. King turns in a warm performance of the "Ace" type ballad. A good wax that could stir up some action.

B "BIG BLUE DIAMONDS" (2:45) [Lois BMI—Earl, Carson] King sings of big diamonds instead of a "band of gold." A slow, melodic ballad of the girl who wanted the diamonds instead of the wedding ring, but who finally regrets her decision. Well done. Two good sides, with "Big Blue Diamonds" the stronger of the two.

AL SAVAGE
(Herald 468)

B "WHAT WILL I DO" (2:00) [Angel BMI—Carroll, Taylor] Al Savage rocks out with a melodic jump that is excellent teenage material. Deck is strong and Savage should get a good reaction with this one.

B "TEEN AGE ROMANCE" (2:35) [Angel BMI—Dick Goodman] A slow, rhythmic teener story of "too young to love." A teenage romance that ends in marriage. Will probably appeal to the motions of the kids and could therefore make a splash in the sales column.

THE CASH BOX

AWARD O' THE WEEK

"WHO" (2:29)
[Arc BMI—B. Roth]

"IT AIN'T RIGHT" (2:37)
[Arc BMI—Jacobs]

LITTLE WALTER
(Checker 833)

LITTLE WALTER

● Little Walter sounds a little menacing as he sings a slow, rhythmic blues, "Who." Walter, accompanied by his wailing harmonica, wants to know who told her he was cheating. Whoever did, had better get out of town, says Walter. It is a strong bit of blues singing and Little Walter could have another hit riding the charts for him. The flip, "It Ain't Right," is a quick beat that Walter drives with much gusto. Deck races along with spirit. Ok coupler, either of which could make it.

JIMMIE ROGERS
(Chess 1616)

C+ "BLUES ALL DAY LONG" (2:39) [Arc BMI—Rogers] Jimmie Rogers sings a slow country blues with a deep south treatment that marks it strictly for that market.

B "YOU'RE THE ONE" (2:19) [Arc BMI—Rogers] Another deep south effort with a rocking beat that could penetrate the urban markets. Ok deck.

SUGAR AND SPICE
(Mercury 70788)

B "HEY JOE (Let Me Know)" (2:35) [Tone BMI—Taylor, Ryder] Sugar and Spice, new he and she duo, make a bow on Mercury with a medium paced calypso cutie. Chuckley wax.

B "INDEED I LOVE YOU" (2:45) [Tone Music BMI—Taylor, Ryder] The team dishes up a smooth reading of a melodic, tender, romantic ballad. Smooth vocal teamwork comes off with appeal.

CARMEN TAYLOR
(Apollo 489)

B "OH PLEASE" (2:15) [Crestwood BMI—Taylor, Carroll] Carmen Taylor dishes out a middle beat rhythm piece with a solid performance. The gal is good and her style effective. Like it.

B "TEEN-AGE BALL" (2:20) [Crestwood BMI—Taylor, Carroll] Miss Taylor rocks out on this jump ditty and the gal is given a gang-shout backing. Kids will like it.

PEE WEE CRAYTON
(Hollywood 1055)

C+ "STEPPIN' OUT" (2:24) [Golden State BMI—Escamilla] Pee Wee Crayton and his crew handle a Latin flavored middle beat rhythm piece infectiously. Homer the Great handles the vocal. Entertaining wax.

B "HEY LITTLE DREAMBOAT" (2:18) [Gallo Otis BMI—Escamilla] Homer sings a romantic jump on the flip. Good beat to rock to. Crayton supplies the musical backdrop.

SAM (THE MAN) TAYLOR
(MGM K 12197)

C+ "TO A WILD ROSE" (2:43) [Arthur P. Schmidt Co. SESAC-MacDowell] Sam (The Man) Taylor offers a soft reading of a slow, moody ballad. Very easy to listen to wax, different from the wild blowing usually associated with Sam.

B "BLUE SUEDE SHOES" (2:28) [Hilo Music BMI—Perkins] The Man sings the fast beat rocker currently hitting in all fields. Sam The Man fans will latch on, tho with the strong action on the original, it will find tough competition.

"I WANT YOUR LOVE TONIGHT" (2:46)
[Ludlow Music Co.—Eddie "Tex" Curtis]

"THIS IS MY PRAYER" (2:35)
[Lion BMI—Don Robey]

BILLY BROOKS
(Duke 149)

BILLY BROOKS

● Billy Brooks swings out on this fast beat Latin flavored rocker.

Brooks hits hard, the orking is infectious and result is a strong contender for Brooks in "I Want Your Love Tonight." A fast mambo tempo with a precocious set of romantic lyrics and Brooks shooting the vocal works add up to a deck to watch. The flip, "This Is My Prayer," is a slow, sentimental ballad, smoothly and pleasingly chanted, but the wax does not figure with "I Want Your Love Tonight."

THE CASH BOX SLEEPER OF THE WEEK

"LITTLE FOOL" (2:25)
[Angel BMI—Hendricks, Towne]

"I GOTTA HAVE YOU" (2:10)
[Angel BMI—C. Jones]

CHARLIE and RAY
(Herald 472)

● Charlie and Ray have a strong twosome in their newest release, "Little Fool" and "I Gotta Have You." "Little Fool" is a rocking middle beat chanted by the stylized duo who sell the cute romantic lyric with the touch that has become so readily recognizable. Formidable wax. The reverse, "I Gotta Have You," is another middle beat rhythm piece that the boys handle with flair and zing. The waxing is a lively effort that will please. Both sides are potent and either side could be the one to break.

"BEYOND THE CLOUDS" (2:57)
[Excellorec BMI—Bragg, Louallen]

"FOOLISH ME!" (2:48)
[Excellorec BMI—Bragg, Louallen]

JOHNNY BRAGG
(Excello 2078)

JOHNNY BRAGG

● Johnny Bragg makes his debut with two excellent sides, both of which can be hits in r & b and pop. "Beyond The Clouds," is a poignant slow beat folk type ballad tenderly sung by Bragg. A touching lyric of a failure on earth, who finds a measure of happiness in the thought that he has a home "beyond the clouds." The presentation is very simple, both in vocal reading and instrumental support, in keeping with the theme. Like it. The flip, "Foolish Me," is another slow beat romantic ballad, delightfully sung. Bragg's smooth and sweet reading of the light rhythm piece is a treat and could go a long way. Two sides to be reckoned with.

CLENEST GANT
(Kit 884)

B "I HATE TO SEE YOU GO" (2:58) [A. Bubis BMI] Clenest Gant sings simply but effectively as he handles a slow, but tender melodic blues. Gant sells with an effortless style. Ok deck and ok performance.

B "JUMP-JUMP-HI-HO" (2:35) [A. Bubis BMI] Gant rocks in wild style on the flip and turns in an exciting wax. Kids can jump to this tempo.

BROWNIE MCGHEE
(Savoy 1185)

B "MY FAULT" (2:41) [Savoy BMI—W. B. McGhee] Brownie McGhee sings a middle beat blues in which he begs the gal to forgive him. It was all his fault and he asks for another chance. McGhee does a good job, as he always does.

B "WHEN IT'S LOVE TIME" (2:40) [Crossroads BMI—McGhee] McGhee chants a middle beat blues on the reverse deck. It moves with a strong rhythm, providing two good sides for the McGhee audience. Strong southern fare.

THE DELLS
(Vee-Jay 166)

B "ZING, ZING, ZING" (2:45) [Tollie Music BMI—V. Allison] The Dells swing through a middle beat jump that comes off good, tho just a shade restrained in the excitement department. Ok deck.

B "DREAMS OF CONTENTMENT" (2:53) [Tollie Music BMI—V. Allison] The Dells drift tenderly through a melodic bit of sentiment. Good lead gives the deck sales potential.

JOE TEX
(King 4884)

B+ "RIGHT BACK TO MY ARMS" (2:20) [Jay & Cee BMI—Davenport, Cooley] Joe Tex sings a middle beat jump blues with a stylized vocal that come through effectively. Tex admits he's been wrong and won't she please come home. Deck has excitement and could pick up where his initial "Davy You Upset My Home" ended.

B "MY BIGGEST MISTAKE" (2:45) [Jay & Cee BMI—Joe Tex] Tex sings mournfully in slow tempo about the mistake he made with his women. Tex sings with telling effect. Two good sides.

ROLLEE MCGILL
(Mercury 70807)

B "ONCOMING TRAIN" (2:53) [Brand Music Co. BMI] Rollie McGill sings a slow, rhythmic blues telling of his impatient waiting for that oncoming train carrying his baby to him. McGill sings with deep feeling. Ok deck.

B "I'M NOT YOUR SQUARE" (2:45) [Studio Music BMI—McGill] McGill tells his babe off, in a rhythmic slow beat wax. McGill handles the fish beat in good style. Good coupling.

BOBBY BANKS TRIO
(Savoy 1186)

B "SHANGRI-LA" (2:38) [Robbins ASCAP—Maxwell, Malnick] The Bobby Banks Trio offers a lovely sound blend on a soft, slow beat lovely.

B "BLUES FOR EVERYBODY" (2:40) [Crossroads BMI—Cadena] The Banks Trio wax a middle beat jump on the flip. Two good sides for listening pleasure.

Robin Seymour Presents
"The Ten Toppers"

DEARBORN, MICH.—"The Ten Toppers" is the official name of the new presentation incorporated into the "Bobbin' With Robin" show, the program conducted by Robin Seymour, Dearborn-Detroit jockey heard regularly on station WKMJ. The new segment will be presented from 5 to 6 p.m. every Saturday.

The new feature will play the ten best selling records of the week starting with number 10 and leading up to the number one best seller. During the week of the regular "Bobbin'" show, Seymour presents the top five sellers each day.

Record shops in and around the Detroit area are called every day and asked what are the best selling records. The daily tabulations are compiled on Wednesday to Wednesday and at the end of the week the top ten of the week are programmed. The audience is asked to write in to the station in advance of the Saturday show listing what they think will be the top ten. The one person coming closest will be awarded a prize.

The station expects that this new format will add incentive for the audience to listen all week to hear the daily best sellers so that they will be in a position to choose the weekly "Ten Toppers".

Helping Recruit For The Navy

NASHVILLE, TENN.—Ernest Tubb checks the script for a show in a brand new series of Navy recruiting transcriptions, the first country music shows to be used by the Navy. With Tubb is producer Will. H. Voeller and Carolina Cotton, Tubb's guest. More shows are scheduled to be produced in Nashville in April, utilizing Grand Ole Opry talent as guests with Tubb.

Country Records Hit In Pop Field

NEW YORK—The two strongest records to skyrocket onto The Cash Box Top 50 Pop Best Seller list, this week, are tunes recorded by artists who, when they began recording, were aimed at the country market.

Elvis Presley, the dynamic RCA Victor youngster, who has made quite an impression on the teen-age public with his appearances on Jackie Gleason's "Stage Show" TV'er, cracked the list in the No. 26 spot with his latest platter "Heartbreak Hotel". The coupling "I Was the One" hit in the No. 43 spot.

The other is Carl Perkins' recording of "Blue Suede Shoes", waxed on the Sun label, which hit in the No. 28 position. This disk is already a top seller in the country field, is gaining great strength in the rhythm and blues market, and with this week's pop listing, hits across the board.

Presley, incidentally, is also a Sun Records alumnus. RCA Victor recently purchased his contract from the indie label and in the agreement also acquired the masters of Presley's former releases. This week, Victor sent to disk jockeys around the country, four of Presley's early releases for the stations' libraries.

Wilburn Brothers To Work As Single Act

NASHVILLE, TENN.—The Wilburn Brothers (Decca) announced here this week that, in line with their continued promotion, they will be working as a single unit as of February 26. Prior to that date, the highly rated country music duo were working personals with the Faron Young Grand Ole Opry unit under the direction of Hubert Long.

The Wilburn Brothers met with almost immediate success as a recording duet and they are considered today as one of the top duets in the country music field. Detailed plans on their future activities will be released shortly, the Wilburn Brothers said. At the present time they are busily engaged in a heavy schedule of personal appearances.

THE CASH BOX BULLSEYE OF THE WEEK

"DUST ON THE BIBLE" (2:07)
[Acuff-Rose BMI—W. Bailes]

"HOW FAR IS HEAVEN" (2:55)
[Peer Int'l BMI—T. Franks, J. Davis]

KITTY WELLS
(Decca 29823; 9-29823)

● The 'queen' of the gal singers is in top form once again as she comes up with two platters aimed at the sacred market but which should, nevertheless, find a wide range of appeal among her vast legion of fans. On one end "Dust On The Bible", the thrush is joined by a chorus as she effectively fashions a meaningful, quick paced item designed to stir up the folks who have neglected reading the 'good book'. On "How Far Is Heaven", young and talented Carol Sue assists Kitty as they sing a penetrating tale of a mother telling her child that "daddy has gone to heaven". The results are excellent on both ends.

TERRY FELL
(RCA Victor 20-6444; 47-6444)

● "OVER AND OVER" (2:25)
[Lowery BMI—M. McDaniel, D. Welch] Mellow-toned Terry Fell comes up with a splendid reading of a heartfelt, middle beat weeper with expressive lyrics. Could prove to be a real money-maker.

● "IF I DIDN'T HAVE YOU" (2:17)
[Trinity BMI—J. Leisy, C. Grean] The gal is the source of all his happiness on this light-hearted, up beat biscuit. Grade "A" pairing.

BILLY WALKER
(Columbia 21499; 4-21499)

● "WHIRLPOOL" (2:30) [American BMI—Johns] Billy Walker displays a captivating vocal style as he grooves a beaty, up tempo romantic item that's gonna make the ops and dealers sit up and take notice.

● "GO AHEAD AND MAKE ME CRY" (2:48) [Acuff-Rose BMI—Lyle] Walker puts a great deal of feeling into his delivery of his heart rending, moderate paced biscuit.

MOON MULLICAN
(King 4894; 45-4894)

● "HONOLULA ROCK-A ROLL-A" (2:23) [Joy ASCAP—Hoffman, Manning] The current teenage beat has spread to the land of the swaying palms (and skirts) as Moon Mullican tells us about it on this catchy island-flavored ditty. Could be a big country-pop item.

● "SEVEN NIGHTS TO ROCK" (2:24) [Mar-Kay BMI—Trail, Innis, Glover] Mullican socks out this solid-driving, r & r deck in a manner that's gonna keep the boxes hoppin'. Potent support by Boyd Bennett and the Rockets on both ends.

JIMMY BLAKLEY and DOROTHY BLAKLEY
(Starday 221; 45-221)

● "PING PONG" (2:00) [Starrite BMI—B. Reid, K. Bowman] The refreshing voices of Jimmy and Dorothy Blakley are a treat to the ear on this delectable, up tempo rhythmic ditty. Could create a heap of noise.

● "SORRY FOR YOU" (2:45) [Starrite BMI—J. Rollins] This half is a liltin', middle beat weeper that the duo spins impressively. Two fine sides.

"WAIT A LITTLE LONGER" (2:45) [Central BMI—J. Rhodes, T. Collins]

"WHAT KIND OF SWEETHEART ARE YOU" (2:23) [Central BMI—D. Reynolds, T. Collins]

TOMMY COLLINS
(Capitol 3370; F3370)

● Tommy Collins puts his best foot forward once again as he comes up with a pair of tunes that have the necessary ingredients to rank as strong chart contenders. On one lid Collins is beset by a gal who has more patience than he has as he decks out a most enjoyable reading on a spright, fast paced, romantic cutie tagged "Wait A Little Longer". On the other half the artist has his trouble with a two-faced lass as he spins an infectious, quick beat lover's tale labeled "What Kind Of Sweetheart Are You." Terrific coupling that should attract a heap of coin for all concerned.

LEW WILLIAMS
(Imperial 8306; X8306)

● "I'LL PLAY YOUR GAME" (2:40) [Commodore BMI—L. Williams] A chorus neatly blends with Lew Williams' socko performance as the boys sing up a storm on a hard-driving rock 'n roller. Could step out in the country-pop market.

● "DON'T MENTION MY NAME" (2:05) [Commodore BMI—L. Williams] Under lid is an intriguing, rhythmic romantic novelty that Williams wraps up in tasteful style.

WILEY BARKDULL
(Hickory 1044; 45-1044)

● "'CAUSE YOU'RE ALWAYS ON MY MIND" (2:10) [Acuff-Rose BMI—J. D. Miller] Wiley Barkdull stands a good chance of breaking into the hit category as he comes up with a real enticing reading of a bouncy, romantic handclapper. Deck rides merrily along in gay style.

● "ME, YOU AND MY HEART" (2:20) [Acuff-Rose BMI—Miller, Kershaw] Here Barkdull slows down the pace as he softly vocals a pretty and tender love item. Top quality pairing.

JOHNNY DAKOTA
(Coral 61600; 9-61600)

● "I GAMBLED ON LOVE" (2:24) [Nutmeg ASCAP—J. Kenny] The smooth chords of Johnny Dakota come across in soft, sincere fashion as the chanter spins a tear-compelling, middle beat lover's tale.

● "THERE'S A LITTLE BIT OF SUNSHINE" (2:15) [Riverside ASCAP—J. Rivers] Here Dakota brightly waxes an appealing, up beat ditty about a gal who brings happiness whenever she's around.

TROY CRANE
(Oak 101; 45-101)

● "HONKY TONK PIANO" [Peer Int'l BMI—J. Crane, T. Crane] Troy Crane comes up with a happy-go-lucky ditty that gaily bounces along. The warbler calls for the return of the rinky-dink piano so that everyone can sing along and join in the fun.

● "RING ON YOUR FINGER" [Peer Int'l BMI—J. Crane, T. Crane] This half Crane waxes a crying-towel waltz item. Subdued musical backdrop.

"RED LIGHT, GREEN LIGHT" (2:01) [Benell BMI—A. Wiseman, B. Wiseman]

"NO MONEY DOWN" (2:47)
[Arc BMI—C. Berry]

MITCHELL TOROK
(Decca 29863; 9-29863)

● Country tunes with the rock and roll beat have certainly had their influence on Mitchell Torok as can be evidenced by the chanter's latest release. On the top portion Torok is colorfully supported by the Tulane Sisters as he belts out a house-rocking novelty labeled "Red Light, Green Light". On the flip the artist dishes up a fetching, rhythmic ditty that's busting through in the r & b field. The artist is putting "No Money Down" on his deal for a Cadillac with all the accessories. Two coin-catchers tailor-made to fit into current country-rock and roll trend.

BONNIE SLOAN
(Columbia 21502; 4-21502)

● "HONKY TONK WORLD" (2:13) [Ridgeway BMI—Burris, W. Hayes] Velvety-toned Bonnie Sloan takes hold of a feelingful, up tempo lover's ballad and handles it in top drawer style. Should lure loads of sales and spins.

● "THE NEXT WALTZ WITH YOU" (2:32) [Ridgeway BMI—B. Faye, Call] On this end the chirp warmly waxes a slow paced lilter as she tells about an uncertain love affair.

DON GIBSON
(MGM 12194; K12194)

● "SWEET DREAMS" (2:23) [Acuff-Rose BMI—Gibson] Don Gibson comes up with strong entry as he convincingly delivers a poignant, moderate tempo, self-penned weeper.

● "THE ROAD OF LIFE ALONE" (2:35) [Milene ASCAP—Rose, Covington] Once again the chanter sings right from the heart as he spins a middle beat lover's lament with the utmost of sincerity.

TIBBY EDWARDS
(Mercury 70816; 70816x45)

● "I CAN'T FACE THE FUTURE" (2:24) [Acuff—Rose BMI—J. D. Miller] Tibby Edwards dishes up a grade "A" vocal effort as he waxes a middle beat lover's lament with heartbreaking lyrics.

● "YOU MADE A BELIEVER OUT OF ME" (2:33) [Tree BMI—Buttram] The future, however, is brighter on this end as Edwards tells about a gal who convinced him that love can be a happy thing. Dandy, quick beat coupler.

RUSTY COLE
(Emerald 209; 45-209)

● "BIG BLUE DIAMOND" [Lois BMI—Carson] Rusty Cole persuasively renders the tale of the gal who preferred wealth to love. A tearful, moderate paced ballad that the chanter spins with finesse.

● "ONCE IN A LIFETIME" [Harmony House ASCAP—S. Sherwin] On the lower deck Cole etches a pretty, middle beat romantic tune in easy-on-the-ears fashion. Pleasant listening.

Smaller Ops Complain About:

Here and There

JACKSONVILLE, FLA. — As reported some time ago, the State of Florida is growing by leaps and bounds. It is reported at this time that the State is the fastest growing big state—both as to population and business. It is stated that big money is arriving from industry, syndicates and investment pools. While the northern part of the state from Jacksonville in the east to Pensacola in the extreme west is developing in big industry, such as chemicals, fibers, pulp and paper, the southern sections are really booming. Such areas as the Gold Coast (Miami north thru Ft. Lauderdale, Palm Beach); Lower west coast (southward from St. Petersburg-Tampa area); and the Mid-State Ridge (interior — including Ocala, Leesburg, Orlando, Lakeland, Kissimmee, Lake Wales) are developing at a boom pace.

COLUMBUS, O. — An insurance company here, in an annual survey, pointed out that the havoc on our highways is tremendous and there's been an alarming increase in accidents involving youthful drivers. This company urged parents to take "firm charge" of their children's behavior on the highways. "Drivers under age 25, particularly the teen-age group, have become the number one problem in highway safety," said one of the officials. "The mixture of high powered cars and immature drivers too often leads to tragedy." This reminds us of a statement by Orville E. Reed, who said that if you're careless enough, you car will last you a lifetime.

BATON ROUGE, LA. — The Dow Chemical Company announced this week that it had taken options on three tracts of land on the west bank of the Mississippi River in the Baton Rouge area, with the expectation of building a new $20 million manufacturing operation. The firm's initial plans call for the investment of at least $20 million and the employment of approximately 500 people. Good news for ops here.

NEW YORK — We noted in this column last week that the price of copper was advanced to 46¢ per pound. A request came along this week from Chile, major producers of this metal, asking companies to increase the United States price to 48¢ per pound.

CASH LOANS AND BONUSES TO LOCATIONS

Smaller operators everywhere in the country are again complaining that the larger operating firms in their areas are making it ever more difficult for them to continue in business on a profitable basis.

The smaller operators report that it isn't the bigness of the larger operating firms but, rather, their methods of competing with them for locations that has been hurting their businesses.

They feel that they can hold their own against the large operators who use servicemen, collectors and mechanics, as well as fleets of trucks and quantities of equipment but, they state, they cannot compete when the larger operating firm offers locations big cash loans or bonuses of such a nature that the small operator would be left with no working capital if he tried to meet this competition.

The small operators believe that, by servicing their own machines, by giving the locations personal attention, by making certain that their machines are always clean and in working order as well as by taking care of all the other necessities connected with operating themselves they have been able, in a great many instances, to overcome the competition of the larger operating firms.

But as one small operator says, "We cannot compete for new locations or even for our present locations when our lease contracts run out with the large operating firm that offers a tremendous cash loan to the location and, sometimes, offers this cash simply as a free bonus to obtain the location."

The small operator feels that he is conducting a better and more efficient operating business all around than is the large operator. He points out that he doesn't waste time nor materials when servicing a location. He doesn't rush thru a collection. He makes friends with the location owner. He pays closer attention to the needs of the location. He does business on a personal basis with the location.

"But," he asks, "putting myself in the location owner's position, what would I do when another operator calls around, just as the lease contract is up, and offers me a $500 bonus to sign up with him?"

The small operators report that, in the large urban centers, they are forced to constantly compete with cash loans and bonuses to maintain their locations, as well as to attempt to obtain new locations.

"For example," one operator advises, "the owner of a brand new diner that was still under construction promised me the location. A few weeks later, just as the diner was getting ready to open, one of the big operators walked in. He offered a $500 bonus for the location plus a brand new phonograph and the first month's collections from the phonograph free to the location.

The average small operator, he claims, might be able to somehow meet the competitor's $500 offer, if it were a loan and not a bonus, but, could never afford, in addition, to also offer the entire first month's intake from the phonograph.

This sort of competition, the small operators claim, is forcing them to get together to create "competition insurance funds."

As this operator explains, "We're attempting to bring together all the smaller operators in this area into a plan whereby they will agree to invest 50¢ per machine per month in a competition insurance fund so that, if one of the men is again faced with a large cash loan or bonus attempt against one of his locations the fund, thru a committee, will be able to match the competition with a like amount."

There are a great many other almost unanswerable facets to this problem of cash loans and bonuses.

It would be interesting, some of the small operators believe, to hear from others in the trade who have already overcome such competition and just how they accomplished this.

LAWYERS MEET ON COPYRIGHT BILL

Attorneys For Both Sides Appear Before Senate Sub-Committee of The Judiciary, Levine and Chaffetz for Juke Box Industry Refuse to Consider Compromise Discussion

WASHINGTON, D. C.—The lawyers representing the various parties interested in the copyright legislation appeared before the Sub-Committee of the Judiciary in the Senate on Wednesday, February 29, in this city, before Senators Alexander M. Wiley and Joseph C. O'Mahoney.

After listening to the arguments of all the attorneys, Senator O'Mahoney suggested, that as long as all of them were on hand, that they sit down and work out a compromise.

The lawyers for the juke box interests, Sidney Levine (MOA) and Hammond E. Chaffetz (Manufacturers) expressed themselves strongly as against any compromise. It was pointed out that after 11 previous open hearings on similar proposed legislation, the sub-committees of both Senate and the House of Representatives always refused to bring out these bills. Pointing out that the juke box operators do not at this time pay these tributes to collect on agencies, Levine and Chaffetz strongly refused to agree to this compromise proposal.

Both sides were requested to hand in argumentative briefs by Wednesday, March 14. O'Mahoney and the Sub-Committee members will then study the briefs. A date then may be set for open hearings.

Lawyers attending the closed hearings were Sidney Levine and Hammond E. Chaffetz for the juke box industry; Charles W. Merritt, representing the American Hotel Owners Association; Ralph Curtis for the National Beverage Association; Herman Finckelstein for ASCAP; Sidney Kaye for BMI; Ernest E. Myers for RIIA; Sidney Wittenberg for several music publishing firms; Max Lerner for SESAC; and John Schulman for the Song Writers protective Association.

Senator Harley M. Kilgore; Sponsor of Copyright Legislation (S.590) Dies

WASHINGTON, D. C.—Senator Harley M. Kilgore, Democrat of West Virginia, chairman of the Senate Judiciary Committee, and sponsor of the Kilgore Bill (S. 590), died on Wednesday, February 29, of a cerebral hemorrhage. He was 63 years old.

The Kilgore Bill (S. 590) would exclude juke box operators from the exemption granted them in the Copyright Act of 1909, and would permit collection agencies to extract royalty-tribute for tunes recorded by their members from juke box operators using them in their machines.

Senator James O. Eastland, Democrat of Mississippi, becomes chairman of the Senate Judiciary Committee.

N. Y. Arcade Assn. Formed

Elect Officers and Adopt Constitution and By-Laws

NEW YORK—Owners of arcades in New York City met on Tuesday night, February 28 at the Park Sheraton Hotel and formed an association to be known as the Amusement Arcade Owners Association of Greater New York City.

The body held an election of officers, and adopted a constitution and by-laws.

Elected were: Leo Weisskoff, president; Eugene Shaffer, 1st vice president; Al Myers, 2nd vice president; Dave Katz, treasurer; Fred Shork, recording secretary; and Al Blendow, executive secretary. Named to serve on the Board of Directors were: Charles Rubenstein, Stanley Nankof and Sam Wertheimer.

Next meeting is scheduled for Tuesday, March 6 at Hubert's Museum on 42nd Street at 8 P.M.

"Juke Box Baby" Contest Brings in Large Number of Entries. Ends March 26

NEW YORK — Bernie Miller, RCA Victor, in charge of the current contest to select a "Juke Box Baby" from among the children and grandchildren of the country's juke box operators, their personnel and one-stop operations, reports that he has received a large number of photographs. (See Music Section for reproduction of several pics.)

As the winner receives a Wurlitzer model "1900" phonograph and a box of RCA Victor hit records for one year, interest in the contest has been extremely lively. The contest ends March 26, and Miller suggests operators rush in their photos to him at 155 E. 24th Street, New York City, as rapidly as possible.

New Chicago Coin "Clover Pool" Features Automatic Table Scoring No Back Rack. Scores Electrically Appear on Sides of Table. 3-Way Play Plus 3 or 4 Side Use

SAMUEL WOLBERG

CHICAGO—Samuel Wolberg, president of Chicago Coin Machine Company, this city, reported that shipments are under way of the firm's new pool game, "Clover Pool".

The entire organization, from assemblers up to executives, are all excited over the new "Clover Pool". All are of the opinion that the firm has opened an entirely new path for pool game operators.

"We take pride in announcing the introduction", stated Wolberg, "of the most sensational innovation since the outset of pool game manufacture, our amazing, new 'Clover Pool'".

"Our enthusiasm for this superb game", Wolberg continued, "is heightened by the fact that all indications point to it establishing new and greater profit records for operators everywhere."

Wolberg also went on to explain, "With pool tables, as with other types of games, players eventually tire of the simpler, old fashioned models. They demand more action and color. More exciting and challenging styles of play. 'Clover Pool' has all this and more.

"'Clover Pool' is the ideal change-over piece", Wolberg pointed out. "It is the first automatic scoring pool game designed for three or four-sided play. It features advance scoring with progressive values from 400 to 1,000 for the player's individual color cups. And from 1,000 to 4,000 for the center 'Clover Hole'."

Wolberg went on to say that "Clover Pool" also features colorful lite-up bumpers around the 'Clover Hole' and also has lite-up buttons behind the end cups indicating scoring values as the game progresses. The players' scores are automatically recorded on individual score panels at opposite ends of the table. These are mounted flush with the table top.

"Clover Pool" is actually three games in one, according to Wolberg, and by eliminating the automatic scoring feature it can be played in the regular manner as a three hole game. By plugging the center hole it becomes a two-hole game.

Wolberg concluded, "We could go on almost indefinitely describing the fascination, beauty and tremendous earning potential of 'Clover Pool'. We want to simply suggest to every operator that he drop into his nearest Chicago Coin distributor's showrooms to see and play 'Clover Pool' himself."

First Holds Showing For "Clover Pool"

CHICAGO — Wally Finke and Joe Kline of First Coin Machine Exchange, this city, believe that the biggest showing they've ever held came about this past week when they displayed Chicago Coin's newest pool game, "Clover Pool".

Operators had been advised of the showing a week in advance. Refreshments of all kinds were ordered. The showrooms were arranged to accommodate the crowds.

As Wally Finke reported, "This was the greatest showing we've yet held and, without any doubt, the most successful."

Joe Kline chimed in to state, "We believe that we obtained the largest percentage of orders from those who attended than we have ever received in our entire business career."

Both men are tremendously enthused over the new "Clover Pool" and advise, "We exceeded our quota the day of our big showing. We are already going beyond our quota. This is a quota we set for ourselves. "We believe that we shall establish a new sales record for our firm for sales of pool games with the new Chicago Coin 'Clover Pool'."

Gottlieb Hits New High For Initial Orders With "Harbor Lites" Game

CHICAGO—Great elation at the D. Gottlieb & Company factory here over the fact that the firm has broken still another long-standing record by receiving the largest initial orders from its distributors for its new five-ball, "Harbor Lites", than for any game so far produced.

Said Nate Gottlieb of the firm, "This is truly phenomenal. We never believed that we would surpass the tremendous number of initial orders which our distributing organization has arranged with us for our new games as they are introduced.

"But for our new 'Harbor Lites,'" Nate Gottlieb stated, "the wires and phone calls that resulted, after samples were received by our distributors, set an entirely new record for our firm."

Alvin Gottlieb of the firm added to this, "It taxes the imagination at this time to try and conceive of such large advance initial orders ever being reached again.

"Our distributors advise us that they can use just as many more, in addition to their initial orders, as we can possibly ship them.

"This, in addition to our production peak on our 'Spot Pool', has taxed our factory and we are trying very hard to set up new and record-breaking production schedules."

Big snow storm Tues., Feb. 28, in Hub failed to dampen biz enthusiasm and activity was good all around. Music is moving good. Used equipment is still short. Used pin games are getting rarer and rarer in the territory. Overseas demands have caused the terrific shortage. . . . Ten cent play is making splashy inroads in Maine and surprisingly the state is going for the dime better than Massachusetts where it originally started a year ago. Several ops in the pine tree state who made the switch from 5c to 10c report that their take is up 40% comparing their collections with 1955 for the same period week by week. All the big cities in Maine are now on the dime. In Massachusetts, Boston is coming up better on the dime than in past months and the 10c play is getting its best run around the Springfield area.

At Trimount Automatic Sales Corp. (Seeburg)—Mr. and Mrs. David Bond off in March for trip to Europe where Dave will visit customers and friends in many countries, France, Holland, Italy, Belgium and the Scandinavian countries, and the well known couple will spend much time in Israel where Mrs. Bond has many interests. Brisk demand for new five-ball being felt here, Irwin Margold, gen. mgr., reports, and Dave Riskin is making the swing among the Maine ops with the new Gottlieb "Harbor Lights," which is considered just what the doc ordered. Dan Brown is calling on ops around Springfield. Demand for pool games is still phenomenal at Trimount, it was reported, and the demand has been upped by the fact that many cities and towns never allowing pins and coin games are favorable to the pool games. . . . At Associated Amusements (Rock-Ola)—Ed and Mrs. Ravreby have a new son-in-law, Richard Mandell, gen. mgr. of the Ravreby enterprises who was married to Ruth Mae Ravreby at the Ravreby ranch in Brookline Sunday, Feb. 26. Couple are now honeymooning across the country on an auto trip to the coast and are visiting distribs along the way in the southern and western states. Last heard from in Baltimore, they reported everything "fine." Ed and Al Levine, sales, are carrying on at the Brighton plant.

More than 200 were at the wedding and among the guests were Leo Willins, of Capitol Projectors, who planed in from Miami; Eddie Condon and Bill Smith of the First National Bank. The route of the newlywed Mr. and Mrs. Richard Mandell is through the Carolinas to Florida and thence to New Orleans, Las Vegas to L. A. (distribs along the way, please note). Kiddie rides have come to the front again at Associated and it looks like an early Spring with heavy emphasis on the small fry rides again. Many ops are planning to start with the kiddie rides in March, Ed Ravreby reports. United's "Caravan" bingo game going great here and pool game biz still perking at heavy rate.

At Atlas Distributors (AMI)—Louis Blatt reports biz on the bright side with demand heavy and op enthusiasm at all time high. Barney Blatt is spending another week in Florida where he has recovered from a recent illness. Barney's son, Arnold, an op, expanding his routes in a big way. . . . At Redd Distributors (Wurlitzer)—Si Redd back from Fort Lauderdale, Florida, vacation sporting a nice tan. Bob Jones, genial sales mgr., reports pool table biz zooming; more than 200 sold in a week. Bally's "Broadway" big seller.

Ops visiting distribs around town this week included: Ralph Ferratra, Concord, N. H.; Bernard Smith and J. J. Hally, Berlin, N. H.; John Perry, Stoughton; Ralph Ridgeway, Springfield; Eva Thurston, Fall River; George Kuntz, Newport, R. I.; Ray Hade and Ray Shea, Worcester; Martin Oliver, Portland, Me.; Lou Zideman, Portsmouth, N. H.; Harry Baker, Portland, Me.; Harry Walker, Newport, R. I.; Ernest Marcantonio, Middletown, Conn.; Tony Lazar, Manchester, N. H.; Tony Brazil, Mansfield; Pat D'Amico, Salem; Ray Faini, Framingham; David Baker, Arlington; Oscar Pratt, Manchester, N. H.; Tom Kelly, Boston; Val's Music, Peabody; Gerald Potheir, Gloucester, Connie Pocius, South Boston; Al Dolins, Hyannis; and Andy Levine, Dorchester. . . . Ops are rushing to send pictures of their babies into RCA Victor in the first "Juke Box Baby" contest being conducted by the diskery.

This contest closes March 26 and New England ops should send photos to "Juke Box Baby Contest," RCA Victor Records, 155 E. 24th St. New York 10. Children from the infant stage through teens are eligible. New England is supposed to have the most beautiful children in the world because of the climate. Let's see if one of the New England juke box ops has the "Juke Box Baby" winner!

Excitement all over the beach as everyone tries to get ready for an early season. . . . John Evans buying by the truckload. . . . Jerry Juanico in New Orleans where he is picking up new equipment. . . . Tony Ingrassia on the phone with Nick Carbajal placing orders. . . . John Trueing showed up with a truckload of new Keeney bowlers. . . . Howard Richburg also in New Orleans, as were the Morrison boys, buying equipment. . . . Bobby Robins, seen on the highway with a truckload of machines. . . . Frank P. Corso, King of the Mardi Gras of Biloxi, called by many the King of vending on the beach. . . . Johnny Pettus in Miami, Fla., taking in the sun. . . . Found C. M. Mosely trying his hand at the pool tables. . . . Lex Howard and C. U. Collins, Crystal Amusement, Grenada, just starting with pool tables, report they are keen on the results. . . . John T. Foster, McComb, in sickbay this week with the flu. . . . Abe Kaiff, McComb, putting his routes in A-1 shape for the summer season. Smitty Buie, McComb, reports his cigarette route doing fine. . . . D. E. Levine, Hattiesburg, just back from a visit to Crown Novelty Co. in New Orleans. . . . Guy Slay, Hattiesburg, also just back from a buying trip in New Orleans. . . . Rosco Reed, Laurel, out tending to business while Mrs. Reed stayed at the office. Harvey Reils, Ben Lewis and Pop were busy in the shop. . . . Charles Hall, Meridian, shot into New Orleans . . . for a buying spree. Moore Music's record bar jumping as teenagers filled the spot. . . . Found T. C. Null and B. C. Lyde deeply engrossed in a huddle. . . . J. C. Tiery, Columbus, back home. He sold The Fairway to Buba Ford several years ago, but never completely lost that feeling for pins and music. He finally bought his old route back from Buba. J. C., Mrs. Tiery, and daughter all in the office, and all happy to be back in business.

Williams Mfg. Co. Production Rolls at Top Peak

SAM STERN

CHICAGO—"Our production continues at top peak and, believe it or not, we are trying to reach even higher plateaus of production each day", is the way Sam Stern explained the busy production schedules now in effect at Williams Manufacturing Company, this city.

As Executive Vice-President and General Manager of the firm, Sam Stern has been one of the busiest men in this city, trying to get production to the point where not only would the factory be able to meet all advance orders it now has on hand as well as the big backlog of orders that has accumulated, but to also be able to crack through the barrier of the orders that are phoned and wired in to the Williams' plant each day.

"It doesn't seem possible at this time", Stern reported, "that we will be able to catch up with the tremendous number of orders we have to the point where we will be shipping orders as they arrive.

"The demand for our products has continued to grow to such a pace that this demand has gone beyond the ability of our production lines to match the orders coming in.

"But this doesn't mean," Stern emphasized, "that we have given up trying for even an instant and will plan ahead as much as possible in an effort to match production to demand while arranging to step up production schedules each and every day."

Keeney Service School at Crown

NEW ORLEANS—A recent J. H. Keeney service school held at The Crown Novelty Company, this city, saw a large turnout of operators and servicemen for the two-day schooling. Nick Carbajal, Crown Novelty, reported that despite the heavy attendance, Tom McCormack, Keeney service manager, would have to return soon so that the many operators of Keeney equipment who were unable to attend this session might have a chance to sit in on a future school. McCormack said he would try to get back in March. Shown here (left to right) are George Singleton, Tom McCormack, Gus P. Lamana, and Buster DeCourt.

Along Pico Boulevard this week business continues on the up-swing. . . . Hank Tronick of Minthorne Music Company is very pleased with the registration from operators for the Seeburg Service School which is starting in one week in Los Angeles. Percy Shields is being kept so busy at Minthorne Annex that he has had to take on added help. . . . Al Sherman of Record Sales Company doing a rave over the reaction to the Carole Creveling L. P. album that he sold out in one day. . . . Charley Robinson of C. A. Robinson & Company and Al Thaelke, engineer for United Manufacturing Company, trying out their new model pool table with a private match of their own and Al came through the "Champ". On their recent trip through Southern California and Arizona, Al and Dave Wallach found that the pool table business was the predominating play in all areas. Al also commented on the growth of the coin machine business throughout this territory and that Phoenix showed the greatest increase. Dave must have worked hard on the trip because he returned home and was bedded with the flu. Al leaves this week for San Francisco, Portland and Seattle and hopes to be back in Chicago to see the "home-team" by mid-May or the first of June. . . . S. L. Griffin's recent purchase of Jack Mallet's Mission Novelty Company of Pomona has him so busy he's had to limit his visits to Los Angeles. . . . Barbara Chandler, niece of Mary and Kay Solle of Leuenhagen's Record Bar, is doing a term paper on "The History of Records" for her high school in Marysville, California. All the recording artists and operators that drop in are giving bits of information to Mary and Kay which they forward on to Barbara. "Babs" spends her summers helping the girls at the Record Bar, so the record business is not entirely new to her. Bill Leuenhagen was passing out handy tape measure-key chains to his many friends that dropped in. Mary says that Georgia Gibbs' "Rock Right" on the Mercury label is going fast with the operators. Lee Palmer who has just taken over the distribution for the Wing label stopped by to predict that his first big hit with the new line will be Nick Nobel's "To You, My Love".

At all the one-stops along Pico Perry Como's "Juke Box Baby" was going well with all the operators. A great interest was being shown by the operators to enter the contest sponsored in connection with this record by RCA Victor. . . . Ben Councilman of Santa Ana says that he expects Orange County to go completely dime play within the month. . . . Wayne Copeland of Sierra Distributors having lunch with Sol Gottlieb of D. Gottlieb and Company whose entire line Sierra will represent in Southern California and Arizona. . . . T. H. Loo of El Centro reports that though they felt the earthquakes in that area none of his equipment was harmed. . . . Ben Chemers, business manager of the California Music Merchants Association, says that at the next general meeting of the association on March 13th a fine buffet supper will be served all the members attending. The annual banquet planned for March 17th by the Los Angeles Division has been postponed until a later date. . . . Last week those who visited headquarters were Al Cohn of Trico Music, Jerry Jacobs of Norwalk, formerly of Glendale, Walter J. Hemple and his partner, Homer RaZor, of San Fernando, Fred Ross and his son-in-law, Lorin Farmer, of Pasadena, Glen Wolcott of La Crescenta and Dean Brown of Glendale.

Jack Simon of Simon Distributing Company took his wife with him on his trip to San Francisco and the Bay area. John Freeman is handling all the export business while Jack is away. . . . Ben Korte of Glendale is home from the hospital and doing nicely after his serious operation. . . . Jerry Wallace new Mercury artist played a dub of his new release for Sam Ricklin and Gabe Orland of California Music Company. The new release is a "rock 'n roll" which is a change of pace for Jerry who has been associated with ballads up to now. Georgia Gibbs, another Mercury artist, dropped in to see Sam and Gabe before she departed for Chicago. . . . At Badger Sales Company, Inc. Marshall Ames was telling Al Silberman and some of the operators about his son, Mike, four years old, explaining why he didn't have to go to school on February 22nd. . . . "It's Abraham Washington's birthday!" Fred Gaunt is improving rapidly from his recent illness and should be back to work in the Badger display room soon.

John Guthrie of Guthrie & Guthrie had serious surgery recently. Mrs. Faith Guthrie, John's mother, is handling all routes until he is fully recovered. . . . Jimmy Wilkins and Ed Wilkes of Paul A. Laymon, Inc. greatly enthused about Bally's new "convertible" pool table. According to Jimmy, pool tables have been sparking business in all areas both pool table and juke box wise. It seems that to play the best pool, music is needed to relax the players and sooth those waiting their turn. . . . Operators seen along Pico this week were: G. B. Stevens of Montebello; Hank DeYoung of Bishop; Clyde Love of Visalia; Austin Nobel and Dick Gray of San Bernardino; Jack Neal of Riverside; Mr. and Mrs. Tom Reese of Bakersfield; D. D. Headed by Bear, Roy F. Waltemade, vice president and manager of the North Tonawanda factory, and Art Daddis, Southeast district sales manager, and their wives, the group included: Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Ash, Active Amusement Machines Co., Philadelphia, Pa.; Mr. and Mrs. C. Genco Mfg. Again Hikes Production Schedules

RALPH SHEFFIELD

CHICAGO—Ralph Sheffield, sales director for Genco Manufacturing and Sales Company, this city, reported this past week that the firm has again hiked its production schedules.

“We’ve been working six full days each week for many months now”, Sheffield reported, “but”, he added, “it seems we just can’t get caught up with the backlog of orders we have on hand.

“Therefore”, Sheffield said, “we are once again stepping up our production schedules in an effort to meet all orders as they arrive.

“We have been hiring every day. In fact, we have a standing ad going to get more labor.

“We hope, very soon, to find that we shall be in position to meet all orders and to even get a little ahead so that our customers won’t have to wait for the machines they want and need.”

The Genco plant here has been one of the busiest in the city. Both Avron Gensburg and Ralph Sheffield put in many, many hours in an effort to have production stepped up to catch up with the orders that arrive here every day.

impressed by the excellent manufacturing and assembly facilities of his plant. Later in the day Mr. and Mrs. Riojas were hosts at a cocktail party in their charming home. The group then flew to Acapulco and the Majestic Hotel for more fun and frolic, and one of the highlights of the trip . . . the Wurlitzer Sailfish Derby.

The fishermen were in luck. During the time on the water an amazing total of six sails were caught as well as a Dolphin and a Wahoo. The latter species is said by natives to be extremely hard to catch, with a ratio of only one Wahoo to every two hundred Sailfish caught. Those who took Sailfish were: Joe Ash, Mrs. W. T. Cruze, Raymond Williams, Roy Waltemade, Bob Bear, and Art Daddis. Mrs. Bob Bear caught a fine Dolphin, and Mrs. Raymond Williams pulled in the Wahoo.

While in Acapulco the party visited many of the world famous attractions including the Morning and Afternoon Beaches, the Mirador and Rocamoor night spots, the Sunday bullfights, and the La Perla where the high divers plunge into the sea from dizzy heights.

The party returned to Mexico City where a gala closing night party was held in the renowned El Patio night club. During the festivities a presentation of a beautiful trophy was made to Joe Ash by Bob Bear as a memento of his winning the fishing derby with his catch of a 118-pound Sailfish. The group returned to Dallas the next morning and left shortly thereafter for their home cities.

In recounting the trip Bob Bear said, “We all had a wonderful time during our stay in Mexico. This holiday was certainly as thrilling for the group as was our trip to Bermuda last year.”

ASCAP's Strong Campaign Against Phono Ops

Until after the forthcoming open public hearings in Congress on the four bills now pending, two before the Judiciary Sub-Committee of the Senate and two before the Judiciary Sub-Committee of the House of Representatives, juke box owners should cut out the two columns here and paste this right in front of them as a constant reminder that the big and vital problem ahead is to again defeat this ASCAP-sponsored copyright legislation.

This should act as a constant reminder that every single juke box owner in the nation must work harder than ever to obtain for himself and for all his industry nationwide—favorable public opinion.

He must tell the story of what this legislation would mean to his business, to his family's livelihood, what it would mean to all those he employs, to all of his friends and to his future in his community.

He must gain staunch friends among all his civic and social leaders. Among all of his location owners and the friends of his location owners. Among the people from whom he purchases materials to maintain him in business and from anyone and everyone else with whom he has contact in any fashion whatsoever.

His employees, his wife and his children, and the wives and children of his employees, must do the same. This is the one and the only way to help gain favorable public opinion for the small businessman, the local juke box operator, in his own community. For from that community will come the help that every juke box operator will need to assure him maintaining himself in business by defeating this ASCAP-sponsored legislation.

Whatever charitable organizations he had worked with and helped in the past must also be approached by the juke box operator. He must tell these people and their organizations what is being attempted against him and his family's livelihood by the multi-million dollar collective collection corporation known as ASCAP (American Society of Composers, Authors and Publishers).

Every juke box owner should make it his business to meet with his Senator and his Congressman, if at all possible, and explain what would happen to his small business, the business and livelihood of a constituent of these Senators and Congressmen, and how much their help would mean to him if the Senator and Congressman would make certain that this ASCAP-sponsored copyright legislation is most definitely defeated right where it is at this moment—in the Judiciary Sub-Committees of the House and the Senate.

As if the parking situation wasn't bad enough, a new regulation, effective Friday, Mar. 2, was put into effect on Tenth Avenue (coinrow). The new rules bar daytime parking entirely from 7 AM to 7 PM on both sides of the street. Trucks can pull up for loading and unloading. This regulation is bound to have a very bad effect on business, as many ops stop off for a few minutes, pick up some needed supplies, and drive off. Wholesalers will have to work out some plan to overcome this problem.

Al Simon, Albert Simon, Inc., back from Miami Beach just in time to welcome the arrival of ChiCoin's new pool game "Clover," with different play features, and scores totaled mechanically on both sides of the playing field. Ops immediately started testing machine, and all proclaimed it "tremendous." Surprising how talented coinmen are becoming with a pool cue. Among ops playing the game was Joe LaMotta, brother of former world champion fighter Jake LaMotta, who is a games op here. ... Jack Mitnick, AMI regional representative, at Runyon Sales this week. Jack came in after covering AMI distributors in the Mid-West and Toronto and Montreal, Canada. He'll be around about a week, and then off on a tour thru the Southern states. Jack carries his fishing equipment in the trunk of his car, and should the opportunity arise, Jack, an expert rod and reel man, will haul out the pole and tackle, and try his luck. ... Barney (Shugy) Sugerman, Runyon's head man, should be back on the job from the South when you read this. Morris Rood, Irv (Kempy) Kempner, Lou Wolberg and the entire staff looking forward to his return so that they can ease off a bit from the pressures being exerted on them during Shugy's absence. ... Irv Holzman, Long Island wholesaler and operator, off on a cruise with his missus. Should be gone about 10 days or two weeks. ... Max Levine, Scientific Machine Corp., bedded at home for the past few weeks. ... Meyer Parkoff, Atlantic New York Corp., tells us the Seeburg Service School sessions, held every Monday night, drawing larger and larger attendance every week. Buffet served to visitors from 6 to 7 PM, and school runs from 7 to 9 PM.

Harry and Hymie Koepfel, Koepfel Distributing, open a store at 630 Tenth Ave., just opposite present offices on coinrow. New spot will be utilized as a shop and warehouse. (Aside to the Koepfels: How about building a tunnel underneath 10th Ave., so that ops can cross over the street without being run over?) ... Al "Senator" Bodkin back from his vacation at Miami Beach. According to the "Sen," Hialeah should be thankful he left. "If I'd have stayed on a few more days, they would have had to close up as I took away all their money," said the "Sen." ... Mike Munves tells us Joe Munves, who's still in the South, has been suffering from a bad cold. Joe sent Mike a coin operated music machine he picked up, particularly good for an arcade. Has 20 selections, and a pair of dancers about a foot high, that start a tap dance on a platform in the center of this rectangular machine when a coin is inserted for a record. ... Dave Hendrickson, Valley Stream op visits on coinrow. ... Humbert Betti, Union City, N. J., op, off to Italy again with his missus on Tuesday, Mar. 5. Betti has been making this trip for the past number of years. Stays there a number of months. This time, he says he hopes to come back for Christmas. ... Joe Young and Abe Lipsky, Young Distributing, phone the factory to hurry shipments of more Wurlitzer model "1900" phonos. Floor model loaned to the Cotton Institute, who is using it for its spring cotton promotion, according to Joe. ... Murray Waldman tells us he recently bought a games route. Murray, with brother Sol Wolham, operated here for years, sold their route about a year ago. Sol still inactive. ... Arcade owners held their organizational meeting at the Park Sheraton Hotel on Tuesday, Feb. 28. Officers were elected, and it was agreed to meet Tuesday, Mar. 6 at Max Shaffer's "Hubert's Museum." These men plan to meet once a week until the March 15 license fees can be worked out.

Many extremely worried over the use of the word "hoodlums" by weekly mag which, with extremely undiplomatic editorializing, has created a very horrible situation especially at this time while the industry hard at work attempting to build good will and gain better public relations for forthcoming copyright legislation battles with ASCAP. As someone here stated, "This is just like giving ASCAP the gun with which to shoot the industry. Especially by a magazine identified with this trade". . . . Vince Shay, Stanley Levin and Mickey Schaefer thrilled over their new showrooms and offices at 4407 West Fullerton. ASCME believe that it will now be better able to serve all its customers. Exhibit Presents New Electric "Skill Score" Pool Game

SAM LEWIS

CHICAGO—Sam Lewis, president of Exhibit Supply Company, this city, announced this past week that the firm was shipping "Skill Score," an entirely new and different electrical scoring type pool game.

Lewis explained, "Since the advent of the pool games, and because of their tremendous success everywhere, players have become greatly skilled. These players are now demanding play action which will force them to extend themselves and also show their prowess as great pool players."

"We believe," Lewis continued, "that the bank shots which the player can make, the other skill shots that he has to complete, and the generally different and unique, as well as extreme skill play requirements of 'Skill Score', will bring operators tremendously enhanced profits on a great many of their locations."

"The game, itself," Lewis reports, "is one of the most attractive ever built. It is extremely appealing. It pulls the customers off their bar stools and up from their chairs just to look at it. This, in itself, is the first basis of getting play action started for any game."

"The progressive scoring back rack is also attractively designed to appeal to the players. It gives them accurate scoring of such nature that play continues ahead at a faster pace."

"In fact," Lewis concluded, "the entire game was designed for an entirely different type play action. 'Skill Score' will make even the most skillful players extend themselves and will prove the kind of game that will never remain idle. Even when there isn't competitive play action, the skillful players will be at it trying their best to further develop their prowess."

Shipments are already under way. All Exhibit distributors have samples on display. Lewis urges all operators to see and play "Skill Score" at Exhibit's distributors' showrooms.

"Everyone knows my merchandise and my price", he would continue, "and I like to talk things over with everyone—openly and aboveboard."

That was good, lovable Old John. And Henry Smith, like many and many another operator, was deeply indebted to Old John. Old John had given him his start in the operating business. Old John had carried him for long months on his books. Never rushed him for the money. Helped him financially. Even helped him in many personal matters. Like all the others, Henry Smith was proud to call Old John his friend. He admired and respected him. He thought the world of Old John.

One cold and blustering winter's late afternoon, while Henry Smith was visiting with Old John, the phone rang. Said Old John,

"Guess that's the long distance call I put through to the big city distributor", as he reached for the telephone that was always perched on a chair right near his elbow.

"Yes", spoke Old John into the phone, and added, "yes, this is me, friend."

Old John listened for a while, then said,

"Yes, I got the order for those 45 machines, alright. Just listen to the list of the machines and the prices I got for them."

Old John called off the list of the 45 machines which were just three different types comprising 15 machines of each type.

After listening for a while, Old John said,

"Sure sorry to hear your truck driver is home sick.

"I'll try my best to get one of my boys to take the train up to the city and drive your truck back here.

"Will you have the 45 crates all ready?" he asked.

"Okay, then", Old John concluded, "I'll see if I can't get a man up there right away. I sure do need those 45 just as soon as I can get them."

While Henry Smith listened to Old John he began to dream about the big city and all of its glamour and bright lights and good times.

Said he to Old John, "Listen, John, if you want me to I'll make the trip to the big city and drive the truck back for you."

Old John looked at Henry and said with a grateful smile,

"Say, Henry, that's real nice of you.

"Here", he added, digging into his pocket and pulling out some bills, "Here's the train fare and some extra for meals and a room, because you won't be able to get up there until sometime late tonight.

"Here's also some money for gas, oil and any emergency while you're driving back", he concluded.

So Henry Smith phoned his wife and told her about the favor he was doing for Old John who had done so many, many favors for him. Mrs. Smith agreed with Henry that this was a very nice thing for him to do. Told Henry not to worry about her and the children and to just be careful driving back.

Well, Henry arrived late that evening in the big city. He checked into a hotel. Quickly washing and brushing up a bit he eagerly went out to see the sights of the big city. He visited here, there and everywhere. He saw some of the hot spots. He imbibed a bit. Before he knew it, the dawn was coming up, so he dashed back to his hotel.

It was no use crawling into bed at this hour. So he showered and cleaned up as best he could. Went downstairs and got himself some cups of coffee to clear his head. To help drive away the fuzziness. By the time he was finished, he figured the big city distributor was probably in his office.

He was right. The big city distributor was in his office. In fact, the whole force of his employees were already hard at work.

"What a beautiful place", Henry thought to himself when he entered. It was modern, clean, impressive. He represented himself. The distributor pressed a button on his desk and one of his men, smartly uniformed, came in from the shipping department.

To make a long story short, the trailer truck was all loaded and ready to roll. All Henry had to do was climb up into the cab and drive the truck back to Old John's place. Even the truck, Henry noted, was beautifully painted. Clean. Neat. Powerful looking. He was actually proud to drive it.

As he drove along the lonesome, winding, mountain highway, Henry began to feel the effects of the night before. Especially felt the lack of sleep. He pulled up time and time again for hot coffee. He washed his face with cold water. But he kept on driving.

As late afternoon came on it became a real effort for him to keep his eyes open. To steady the wheel of the big trailer truck on those slippery, mountain roads. He stopped and tried to nap for a while. But he just couldn't. So he continued to drive on until he saw an eating spot. It was now nightfall. He pulled up to get a hot meal, more hot coffee, and to dash some more cold water on his face.

He stalled throughout the meal. Taking as much time as he possibly could. Feeling better now, he climbed back into the cab of the trailer and again started to drive. For a short time everything went well. He sang out loud. Talked to himself. Began to feel awake. Then, as time kept moving inexorably ahead, he again began to feel tired.

"Guess I'll stop for some hot coffee", he said aloud to himself.

But his head began to nod. A few times he jerked himself awake and shook his head vigorously. He strained his eyes down the dark road ahead, hoping to see the lights of an all night eatery. He felt very sleepy.

The next thing he remembered, as the truck began to grind its way up a steep incline alongside a large hill, was a sudden bump. Then rattling, shaking noises. He awoke just in time to note the trailer jackknife against his cab.

He pulled the emergency brake up to its limit. Turned off the ignition key. Jumped from the cab. He saw the entire load go sliding off the back part of the trailer. The ropes had ripped apart as the trailer jackknifed. The crates plunged deep down into the canyon below him. Crash, bump, crunch, bang. The noise of tearing, splintering, ripping wood came to his ears from far, far down below in the canyon.

Then it flashed into his mind that this was Devil's Canyon. Neither the State Police or even the Forest Rangers would go down there for any merchandise. Maybe they'd crawl down into this treacherous and dangerous canyon, a matter of hours of climbing, to recover a body. But anything else, Henry knew, they wouldn't even attempt to recover from those dark and dismal depths. It was too dangerous and treacherous a task.

Henry was now wide, wide awake. His heart beat like a triphammer. He felt sick down in the pit of his stomach. His friend and benefactor, Old John, had completely trusted him in every regard. Old John, the man who had given him a chance to earn a decent living. Who helped him financially. Who even loaned him money for the hospital and doctor bills each time his wife bore him a child.

"This", the now deeply saddened, scared and sick Henry railed at himself, "is how I'm repaying Old John for all his goodness to me and my family."

Then, very suddenly, a thought occurred to him. He checked the truck. It was okay. He climbed back up into the cab. His mind made up. He, too, would prove that he could return some of the good that Old John had done for him, and Old John need never even know.

He drove like a man beside himself all that night. The next morning he pulled into the big city. He drove over to another distributor. He told him about the 45 machines he wanted, describing them by name. He advised this distributor that they must all be crated and, what was more, he needed them right away.

The distributor told him that, regardless of his great hurry, it would still take all day to get them ready and crated. There was nothing else Henry could do but wait. In the meantime he arranged for payment of the 45 machines to the distributor by assigning his entire route to him on a series of twelve monthly notes. He had to take out every dollar he had in his bank account to make the down payment the distributor required.

He waited impatiently. He helped load the 45 crated machines on the truck. As he worked with this distributor's men to load the truck he thought hard to himself. He wouldn't tell his wife what a fool he'd been. Especially how he had gone roaming about the big city's hot spots. How he'd later lost all the merchandise down Devil's Canyon and almost killed himself at the same time.

No, he thought to himself, better not tell his wife. He would, instead, tell her things were tough on his route and that they would have to stringently budget themselves. He'd just give her about half of what he now gave her each week to run the house. She'd just simply have to make that do. That was the only way he could ever meet those heavy notes to this distributor for the next twelve months.

It would be rough, alright, he admitted to himself. Very rough. He'd somehow have to make those monthly payments very secretly so that neither his wife nor Old John would ever learn what had happened.

Henry delivered the 45 crated machines to Old John's place. As per usual, Old John's men just tossed them here, there and everywhere about the place. Just as if they were worth little or nothing. Henry, in the meantime, sneaked out the back way, so that Old John wouldn't see him.

Sneaking about became part of his daily routine as the months went slowly by. He made sure, before he'd call over at Old John's place, that Old John was either out to lunch, or away somewhere. He'd then sneak in to obtain the few parts and supplies he needed and leave hurriedly.

At long last the big day arrived. Henry filled out the very last check

Keeney Vendors Enjoy Boom Sales

BILL COAN

CHICAGO—Bill Coan, sales manager of the Vending Machine Division of J. H. Keeney & Company, Inc., this city, reported this past week:

"We are enjoying a tremendous boom for all of our new vending machines with this boom business growing bigger every week."

Coan explained that, at this time, its coffee vendor business has the No. 1 spot for vending machine production at this big factory.

"Following the tremendous production of our coffee vendors of all models", continued Bill Coan, "comes the ever-growing demand for our snack vendor that dispenses standard vending machine pack cookies and peanut butter sandwiches."

"Believe it or not," emphasized Bill Coan, "the growing demand for our snack vendors convinces me that this machine will, eventually, prove itself

to pay the final note to this big city distributor. He was so happy his eyes just brimmed over from a full heart. Now, he thought, his wife and children wouldn't look at him as if he were just a mean, scroungy, old ogre, instead of a doting, loving father and husband. Now he could ease things for his wife and children. No more arguing and fighting when his wife wanted to buy an apron or some other necessity.

Yes, Henry was again himself. He left his little store, walked over to the corner mailbox and dropped in the envelope containing that twelfth check for the very last payment. His heart felt lighter. It seemed as if a heavy load had been taken off his shoulders. He felt happier and younger than ever before. He had continued walking, after mailing this last and final check and, looking up suddenly, he found to his surprise that he was on his way over to Old John's place.

It goes without saying that Old John, and all the others sitting about the pot-bellied stove, greeted him gladly and cheerfully.

"Where've you been, Henry?", asked Old John in his friendly, chuckling voice.

"Oh, I've been around, John", Henry smilingly answered.

"Sure I know you've been around", chuckled Old John, "you've even bought things here."

So the general conversation continued all over again after this greeting and Henry seated himself in one of the worn, comfortable chairs around the old, pot-bellied stove. The men were talking about a new machine that had just been introduced. The conversation circled around from one to the other and then back to Old John.

"Well", Old John remarked, "if you men like this new machine so much I'll call up the big city distributor and ask him to send a truck full down here."

Henry chimed in, "John", he said, "I'm not going to drive the truck back this time like I did the last time."

Old John asked, "What time, Henry?"

"Why, John", Henry answered, "you surely remember that day when you asked me to take the train up to the big city and drive back the distributor's truck with the 45 crated machines."

Henry continued, seeing that Old John still looked at him with a puzzled expression,

"Why that was just exactly a year ago right to this very day, John."

"Well, by golly". Old John remarked, brightening with memory, "now I remember."

"Oh, yes", Old John added, "that was the time I gave you the fare and all."

Then Old John chuckled as he remarked,

"Guess that big city distributor didn't have the truck loaded like he said he would. You got back a day late."

Henry then began to expansively and dramatically explain to all present, "What a job it was driving that big trailer truck loaded with 45 crated machines over those hills."

Old John held up his hand and halted him.

"Now, Henry", he gently said, "don't let's exaggerate. Don't let's fib."

Henry asked in righteous indignation,

"What do you mean by exaggerate and fib, John? You know well enough I took the train up and drove back 45 crated machines for you in that big, beautiful, trailer truck."

"Now, Henry", admonished Old John, "those were not crated machines."

"No, sir, Henry", he added, "those were just 45 empty crates I needed. I had the machines right here."

"It's What's in THE CASH BOX That Counts"

THIS WEEK'S USED MACHINE QUOTATIONS 17th YEAR OF PUBLICATION 857th CONSECUTIVE WEEK'S ISSUE

How To Use "THE CASH BOX PRICE LISTS"

[Also known as the "C. M. I. (Coin Machine Industry) BLUE BOOK"]

FOREWORD: Many times, wide differences appear in the quotation of high and low prices of certain equipment. Like any true reporter "The Cash Box Price Lists" can only feature the market prices as they are quoted. "The Cash Box Price Lists" act exactly the same as the market quotation board at the Stock Exchange—posting the prices as they are quoted for the past week, regardless of how much they may seem to be out of line. Some prices do not change for months. "The Cash Box Price Lists," rather than show no price, retain the last known quotations for such equipment so that the subscriber at least has the last known prices as a basis to work with. Prices may be very widely divergent. Someone on the West Coast may feel a certain machine worth $150.00 whereas someone on the East Coast may think it worth but $75.00. Of course, serial, appearance, demand, territory, quantity, and condition of equipment must be taken into consideration. (Some equipment offered by outstanding firms, having a reputation for shipping completely reconditioned machines, will be offered at higher prices than others, due to the added cost of reconditioning.) "The Cash Box Price Lists" reports each quotation exactly as it is made and depends on the subscriber to make average price adjustments to fit the peculiarities of his territory.

METHOD: "The Cash Box Price Lists" should be read as follows: First price listed is lowest price quoted for the week; Second price listed is highest price quoted.

FOREIGN BUYERS: To cover cost of packing, crating, shipping, etc., figure an additional $20 to $25 on Pin Games—and $25 to $30 on Phonographs.

REGARDING SELLING PRICES

IMPORTANT!

Reports received indicate that, in some cases, purchasers become upset due to the fact that they cannot, many times, buy equipment listed in the lower price brackets. Sometimes sellers of machines listed at from $10.00 to $25.00 ask from $50.00 up to $75.00 and even more for these very same machines. Purchasers of such equipment must realize that machines in the very low priced categories are much worn to be priced at these low figures. To completely recondition such machines, the reconditioner must add onto his price the cost of transportation to obtain these machines, the labor, parts and supplies needed to recondition the machines, plus the cost of cartons, crates and labor for packing and shipping of the machines, in addition to a decent profit which will, in most cases, raise the price of a $10.00 to $20.00 machine to anywhere from $50.00 to $75.00 and up. In the case of arcade and kiddie ride machines these may even be higher due to the fact that many of the parts have to be made by hand or contracted for at some machinist shop, since manufacturers of many of the old arcade machines and kiddie rides are no longer in business and it is impossible to obtain parts for reconditioning. Purchasers of such equipment should take these facts into consideration and, at the same time, should also realize that many buyers today have their own repair and reconditioning departments as well as experienced mechanics, such buyers will purchase machines "as is", at prices quoted by the trade at large, and recondition the machines themselves to meet their own operating standards.

Triple protection against warpage

POOL-operation is a big business with a bright future. So why buy future trouble . . . warped "golf-course" tables that kill play and eat up your profits in costly repairs and replacements?

Now, when you invest in Bally PIN-POOL, you get triple protection against warpage.

New EASY-ON-EYES GUIDE-LINES

with precision-marked spacer-dots . . . standard in all models of Bally PIN-POOL . . . end arguments on starting-shot . . . and insures accurate re-positioning of balls, when table is against wall (3-SIDE PLAY).

First, because Bally owns and operates 2 large cabinet-furniture plants and is geared to big-volume production, Bally warehouses are constantly stocked with select, seasoned, kiln-cured lumber.

Second, new exclusive Bally 4-Point Stabilizer, built into Bally PIN-POOL . . . rigidly mounted on steel-reinforced cross-bars . . . is factory-adjusted to flatten out the slightest "wood-wave" that may develop in table-panel during construction.

Third, Bally Stabilizer controls warpage caused by atmospheric conditions on location . . . damp weather, steaming radiators or other sources of humidity . . . keeps Bally PIN-POOL playing surface flat as a professional billiard table.

Bally 4-Point Stabilizer is not merely a so-called "jack" that can apply only pressure—and only to one spot. Bally Stabilizer acts at 4 separate points, exerting flattening force on all 4 quarters of table.

Using ordinary screw-driver, turn right to PUSH up a "valley" in table . . . turn left to PULL down a "hill" to insure smooth surface that attracts repeat-play. 4 separate Stabilizers may be adjusted in any combination of PUSH and PULL, guarding all 4 quarters of table against play-killing, profit-eating warpage.

And you can PUSH UP to remove a "valley" in one area, while you PULL DOWN to flatten a "hill" in another area.

Only by PUSH UP and PULL DOWN action, as required in different parts of table, can a perfectly smooth, play-stimulating surface be guaranteed. Only Bally 4-Point Stabilizer permits PUSH-PULL action under entire table.

An ordinary screw-driver is the only tool you need. Simply raise hinged table-top and . . . with a quick, easy UP-turn here and DOWN-turn there . . . keep your PIN-POOL tables in top-earning condition.
