

The Four Voices, whose recent Columbia hit, "Lovely One", made them a factor in the record world, ask lovely Allison Young, Toronto TV star, which of them is the one. The boys' follow up to "Lovely One", "We Can Write Our Own Love Story" and "Bim Bam Baby", has just been released and seems to be getting attention on both sides. The group is currently at the Shamrock Hotel in Houston and will do the Arthur Godfrey morning TV show for two weeks starting June 11.

MOBILITY MAKES THE DISK BIZ GO 'ROUND!

There's probably no facet of the entertainment business in which success can come more quickly than in the record business. Overnight an unknown artist can become a national sensation. This is due, in great part, to the mobility of the record business, to the fact that there are no stratas. A hit record moves from the bottom to the top without any artificial barriers in its way. All it needs to do is find acceptance.

That is why it is so important to keep all aspects of stagnation away from the record industry. We've said it before, but we must say it again, that in this respect it is vitally important that records on the way up receive the proper exposure.

Sometimes people in charge of programming, whether it be on radio, juke boxes or any other medium, have the tendency to rely too strongly on the very top disks and to neglect the ones that are in the twenties and thirties and forties. That approach is counter to the whole feeling of the record industry.

Probably the factor which makes the record field so exciting and interesting to the people in it is its unpredictability. Hits come from everywhere. Trends disappear and new ones take their place. But for these things to occur, exposure is necessary. It can't be achieved by sticking to the hits alone, important as that kind of programming may be. By making it possible for new records, new artists to be heard constantly, we can continue the constant growth and development of the record business.

In the past few years, most programmers have managed to achieve a blending of the established and the up and coming. Almost all juke boxes have a combination of the two, in addition to standards and most radio stations have programs that are devoted to each type of music and also programs which blend the two.

However there still remains a tendency in some quarters to stick too closely to the top of the list, instead of wandering a little.

So it is necessary to remember at all times that it is mobility which is one of the striking factors of the record industry. Eliminate that and you'll be taking away a great deal of the hit making possibilities.

THE GOOFERS (Coral 61650; 9-61650)

(Cord 61650; 9-61650) B "TEAR DROP MOTEL" (1:43) [Vim ASCAP — Goofers, Green-field, Jacobs] Deejays oughta have a picnic with this hilarious Goofers take-off on the Elvis Presley smash "Heart-break Hotel". The boys wail, mumble and come up with a side-splitting deck. The kids will get a big boot out of this one. TEDINESSEE BOCK N' BOLL"

• "TENNESSEE ROCK N' ROLL" (2:45) [Broadcast BMI - Cole-man, Reid] The boys are compara-tively subdued on this smooth sailing rocker.

MARK REDDY (Double AA 123; 45-123)

(Double AA 123; 45-123) B "WIGGLE WALK" (2:20) [Re-public BMI—Kaplan, Bower] A catchy rhythm novelty about a dance the teenagers swing to, is strongly presented by Mark Reddy and the Sid Bass ork. Good jumper right up the teensters' alley. C "BYE-BYE" (2:19) [Miller ASCAP—Schuman, Pepe, Brown] A straight delivery of a lilting blues item. Ok side.

JOHN LESLIE (ABC-Paramount 9713; 45-9713) "TLL BE LAUGHING TO-NIGHT" (2:24) [Chappell ASCAP —Frisch, Alfred] Don Costa sets up a terrific lilting rhythm backdrop for John Leslie's wonderful interpretation of a rhythmic love song. Beautiful job by the gifted songster. Could establish Leslie. "TO LOVE YOU!" (2:58) [Famous

B "TO LOVE YOU" (2:58) [Famous ASCAP—Young, Gordon] The crooner is smooth on this rich love song from the new Paramount pic "The Proud and the Profane". Movie should help this side make noise.

AMRU SANI (Grand Award 1005; 45-1005) P "I'M IN THE MOOD FOR LOVE" [Robbins ASCAP — McHugh, Fields] Indian songstress Amru Sani, familiar to much of the public thru her appearances on the "Ed Sullivan Show", bows on Grand Award with a weird and fascinating latin tempo arrangement of a great standard. Enoch Light supplied the striking ac-companiment. Introduction to this side is spine-tingling. Thrush has an interesting sound and style, and should do well in the U.S. "TABASCO" [Record Songs

• "TABASCO" [Record Songs ASCAP — Nelson] A spicy rhythm tune is forcefully belted on this half. Side has a latin-jump quality.

CAB CALLOWAY (ABC-Paramount 9689; 45-9689)

(ABC-Paramount 9689; 45-9689)
"CHIGGER CHIGGER WA WA"
(2:31) [David BMI—Bartel] Cab Calloway, who recently clicked with the tender "Little Child" tune, makes an about face and belts out an excit-ing, commercial rock and roller that really cuts. It's a solid swinger that the teensters should be hopping to. The Gayles account for the hot vocal backdrop. Great deck. Watch it.
"REMEMBER WHEN" (2:56) [Trinity BMI—Ebb, Klein] The Gayles assist here too as Cab's rich voice cruises through a pretty ro-mantic ballad. Delightful piece of material handled most invitingly. Good coupling.

(RCA Victor 20-6554; 47-6554)

Mr. Como introduces a delightfully different new novelty that should follow in the footsteps of his cur-rent smash. It's a colorful bouncer titled "Glendora". Mitchell Ayres' ork and the Ray Charles Singers ac-company Perry as he sings about his love for an attractive depart-ment store window mannequin. Cute bouncer that should please the Como fans. "More" is another chart contender which features Perry on a beautiful romantic waltz ballad. It's a simple and tender affair that should slowly and steadily climb to a high spot on the lists. Another big twosome for El Como.

"ROCKIN' THROUGH THE RYE" (2:07) [Valleybrook ASCAP-Haley, Keefer]

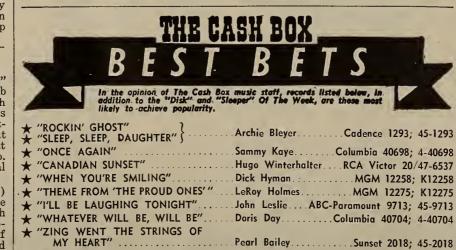

"HOT DOG BUDDY BUDDY" (2:34) [Valleybrook ASCAP-Haley]

• As a follow-up to his recent two-sided success "R-O-C-K" and * "PRAY"

"The Saints Rock 'N' Roll", Bill Haley and his Comets dish up an-other wild and swinging rock and roller that'll keep the boxes hum-ming where the teenagers con-gregate. "Rockin' Through The Rye" is a hard-hitting new ditty based on the familiar Scottish folk favorite "Comin' Through The Rye". The lyrics are aimed right at the kids. The coupling "Hot Dog Buddy Buddy" is another free-wheeling jolter with the drums, bass and guitar all cutting it up. As usual, both halves have a great dance beat. Another Haley coupling destined to make the charts. charts.

(Candlelight 1001; 45-1001) B "ON BENDED KNEE" (2:44) [Kellem ASCAP—Craig, Blake] The new Candlelight label makes its debut on the wax mart and introduces Alan Blake singing a potent fish-beat romantic ballad that has the ear-marks of a strong seller. It's a drama-tic delivery of a commercial tune that the kids should find right up their alley. Solid arrangement. G "ROCK-TIME TUNE" (2:02) [Essex ASCAP—Zinsser, Blake] Neal Hefti sets up another solid back-ing for Blake as he flies through an up-beat rocker on this end.

DORIS DAY (Columbia 40704; 4-40704) "WHATEVER WILL BE, WILL BE (Que Sera, Sera)" (2:03) [Artists ASCAP—Livingston, Evans] Doris Day comes up with a delightful new waltz novelty sung by a mother to a daughter. It's a pleasant, free swinging ditty with an infectious Ital-ian flavoring. Could make big noise. "UVE GOTTA SING AWAY GOTTA SING AWAY "I'VE GOTTA SING AWAY THESE BLUES" [Daywin BM] —Cooper] Miss Day sings the blues on this half. A good torchy tune rendered with feeling by the talented thrush thrush.

thrush. JIMMY DUNCAN (Cue 7929; 45-7929) B "HERE AM I" [Bulls Eye ASCAP —Duncan] Jimmy Duncan, who had a big territorial hit in Texas with his last release, could make it all across the country with this lovely new ballad which he chants impres-sively. Sincere, straightforward de-livery of a class ballad. B "SING ME NO SAD SONGS, SAM" [Bulls Eye ASCAP—Dun-can] The songster offers another of his own compositions on this side. A warm and sentimental piece of blues. Jimmy is assisted capably by a chorus on this tune. LEROY HOLMES ORCHESTRA

Jimmy is assisted capably by a chorus on this tune.
LEROY HOLMES ORCHESTRA (MGM 12275; K12275)
"THEME FROM 'THE PROUD ONES'" (2:28) [Weiss & Barry BMI—Newman] The title theme from the forthcoming 20th Century flicker "The Proud Ones", is beautifully executed by Leroy Holmes and the orchestra with some lovely whistling supplied by Whistlin' Jones. It's an exciting and unusual theme with a strange tempo. And it's different enough to make the grade. Could develop into another "High And Mighty".
"WOULDN'T IT BE LOVERLY" (2:47) [Chappell ASCAP—Loewe, Lerner] Another infectious and colorful tune from the B'way smash "My Fair Lady", is pleasantly presented by a chorus and the Holmes ork.

"WHEN YOU'RE SMILING"
(2:02) [Mills ASCAP — Shay, Fisher, Goodwin] The same wonderful sound that made the "Three Penny Opera" theme such a success, is again captured by Dick Hyman's Trio on this delightful revival rendition of a great oldie. Whistling, as in "Moritat," is again heard here. Charming, easy-to-take platter.
"ROLLIN' THE BOOGIE" (2:23) [Cromwell ASCAP—Hyman] The mood is changed on this half as Hyman cruises through an original boogie woogie item. Side has a smooth beat and a terrific sound. Brings back memories of the bygone era of music.

"M SORRY I MADE YOU CRY"
(2:51) [Leo Feist ASCAP--Clesi] A tearful heartrending love song is executed with sincerity and meaning by the polished crooner.
HUGO WINTERHALTER ORCH.
(RCA Victor 20-6537; 47-6537)
"CANADIAN SUNSET" (2:50)
[Meridian BMI-Heywood] About a year ago, Hugo Winterhalter and pianist Eddie Heywood hit with a beautiful instrumental opus titled "Land Of Dreams." Here the stars team their talents once again and come up with another easy-going rhythm instrumental superbly executed. Should enjoy loads of air play and result in a healthy sale.
"THIS IS REAL" (2:41) [Remick ASCAP-Murray, Auric] A choral introduction leads into a warm and inviting mood instrumental from the film "Lola Montez." Dreamy, velvety material. Chorus is employed as an instrument in various spots. PRISCILLA WRICHT [Unique 335: 45-335)
"Man In A Raincoat," hands in another commercial side as she sings about the joys of kissing. Sultry item amusingly treated by the teen ager.
"MY SWEET SIXTEEN" (2:12)
[BMI Canada Ltd. — Jessel] Little Priscilla Wright, who clicked big with "Man In A Raincoat," hands in another commercial side as she sings about the joys of kissing. Sultry item amusingly treated by the teen ager.
"MY SWEET SIXTEEN" (2:12)
[BMI Canada Ltd. — McMann, Walters, Wright] Priscilla falls into the rock and roll fold on this half and glides through a good dance beat swinger. Chorus assists.

(Columbia 40698; 4-40698) "ONCE AGAIN" [Republic BMI --Wolf, Frank] The same superb simplicity and charm that made "Mission of St. Augustine" a hit for Sammy Kaye, is in abundance on this beautiful rendition of a new song set to a great Beethoven melody that probably every piano student has played a million times. The new lyrics are simple and delightful, and the Kaye Choir does a magnificent job on the vocal. Could break wide open. "EVERY SUNDAY MORNING" [World ASCAP-Singer, Mann] The Kaye Choir hands in a wonderful new semi-religious ballad that has the charm and simplicty needed to send it up the sales ladder. A fragile, easy-going tune, warm and tender.

> DELLA REESE (Jubilee 5247; 45-5247)

DELLA REESE

• There are occasions in this amazing music business when a song and an artist that seem to 7; 45-5247) have been meant for one another, fortunately do get together to re-sult in a great record. Just such a magnificent relationship exists be-tween a greatly talented thrush, Della Reese, and a tremendous new tune, "Headin' Home." And the re-sulting Jubilee disk is one of the most exciting platters we've heard in years. Della sings the song as tho she's living it and projects her message with unique impact. You just can't sit still when you hear this one. Della's "Headin' Home" just can't miss making the grade. And once it does, Miss Reese will be a tremendous name. Bottom half, "Daybreak Serenade" is a pretty ballad.

"THE GOLDEN BATON" (2:26) [Coliseum BMI-Guion]

DICK JACOBS ORCH. & CHORUS (Coral 61653; 9-61653)

"Main Title" & "Molly-O," two potent new sides, both of which have the ingredients needed to send them soaring. One half is a neatly-woven latin tempo romancer dubbed "Te Amo." It's an infectious dance item featuring a warm and harmo-nious vocal by the Jacobs chorus. Pretty arrangement of some top drawer material. "The Golden Baton" is an exciting instrumental creation with a strong jump beat. It features a number of commercial gimmicks including the use of the chorus as an instrument. Side has a pleasing similarity to the "Main Title" theme. Sounds as though Jacobs has twin threat.

ALFREDITO ORCH. (Tico 365; 45-365) B "CHINESE CHA CHA CHA" B [--Lang, Goldner] Alfredito makes his debut on the Tico diskery with a clever Oriental sounding ar-rangement of good dance cha cha. Al-fredito handles the vibe work as usual. G "WONDERS OF CHA CHA CHA" [G. Barry ASCAP-Jorrin] A vocal is employed on this lively, smooth-sailing interpretation of a cha cha ditty. Another pleasant dance item. item.

ARCHIE BLEYER ORCH. & CHORUS

ARCHIE BLEYER ORCH. & CHORUS (Cadence 1293; 45-1293) "Subject Street Street, DAUGHTER" (3:32) [Planetary ASCAP—Sim-mons, Applebaum] Archie Bleyer's ork and chorus come up with two strong sides that deserve watching. This half is a warm, lilting tempo lullaby sung to a daughter by the chorus. An un-usual beat for a lullaby, but it has a unique charm that could send it soar-ing.

unique charm that could send it soaring.
"THE ROCKIN' GHOST" (2:47) [Veronique ASCAP—Allen, Lee] Another imaginative and commercial creation is this spooky novelty about a ghost. It's a clever and refreshing new tune that offers the jockey a change of pace from the run-of-the-mill stuff. Side has big possibilities. It immediately recalls Bleyer's smash "Hernando's Hideaway." Big twosome.
BIXIE CRAWFORD (C-Note 1201; 45-1201)

[Minor-Tone BMI — Crawford, Smith, Lincoln] Bixie Crawford makes an impressive debut on the C-Note label with an exciting latin-beat piece of blues. Thrilling song delivered with zest.

of blues. Thrilling song derivered with zest. Tone BMI—Lincoln, Smith] The versatile lark leans into a strong rock and roller' on this half. An emotional reading of a stirring piece of material. Kids should like it. BILLY WILLIAMS (Coral 61639; 9-61639) PRAY" (2:46) [Delaware AS CAP—Genna, Francis, Alexander. Eddy] Billy Williams, still going strong with his "Crazy Little Palace" disk, works without the quartet here as he beautifully chants an emotional inspirational ballad. Billy has a great voice which gives this song an un-usual dramatic feeling. Strong pos-sibility.

usual dramatic feeling. Strong pos-sibility. "YOU'LL REACH YOUR STAR" (2:33) [Montauk BMI—Minucci Silvers] Another stirring semi-reli gious ballad rendered with extreme understanding by the gifted vocalist. Williams fans should be wild about both halves.

"THE MAN FROM THE SOUTH"
(2:00) [Skidmore A S C A P — Woods, Bloom] Washburne handles the vocal chores once again on this presentation of a lively oldie. Good change of pace programming. Older generation should get a kick out o both halves.

"IT'S ALL OVER" OTIS WILLIAMS & His Charms (Deluxe 6095; 45-6095)

> "IT'S TOO LATE" CHUCK WILLIS (Atlantic 1098; 45-1098)

• Otis Williams, currently topping the charts with "Ivory Tower," and Chuck Willis, making his debut on Atlantic, both introduced commercial rock and roll tunes, this week, with great potential for the pop charts.

"It's What's in THE CASH BOX That Counts"

B. B. C. is planning to transmit the Bob Hope Show (transcription of the NBC-TV Show) starting June 28th for 13 weeks on its sound light programme.

Elvis Presley breaks into the Best Sellers this week in the No. 14 spot with his disk of "Heartbreak Hotel" currently the No. 1 spinner in the States. The critics have not been too kind to Presley, but it seems that some of them are slowly starting to eat their words. Already rumours are going around re. Elvis making an appearance in England. This, however, I feel is rather premature since I personally believe that any recording star who wants to come over here and, naturally, play the London Palladium, should have at least several big sellers on this side of the Atlantic to back him up.

Glad to see Capitol is issuing a disk by The Four Freshmen; a song from their album, currently in the best sel-lers in America. I hope "The Four Freshmen and Five Trombones" album will follow here very soon.

Liberace's tour will start at the Festival Hall, London on October 1st, and my guess is he'll pack 'em in. Those who don't want to hear him play are bound to want to see him smile and wink.

Over on a visit from California is Henry Leyser of Associated Coin Am-usement Company Oakland.

Eartha Kitt has had her successful stay at the Cafe de Paris extended for an additional two weeks. The gal will play a week's vaudeville engagement at the Glasgow Empire and will also guest with the B. B. C. Show Band. In-cidentally, Eartha starred in a play on B. B. C. television this week, titled "The Valiant," and the critics loudly praised Eartha's performance. Mickay Katz arrived here for a se Mickey Katz arrived here for a se-ries of concerts and Capitol is releas-ing his waxing of "David Crockett" to coincide with his visit.

Lou Levy arrived this week for con-fabs with Cyril Simons and Sal Chiantia. Howie Richmond planed to the Continent and Bobby Mellin due back in the States this week after his six weeks over here.

This week's best selling pop singles: (Courtesy "New Musical Express")

- 1) "No Other Love" Ronnie Hilton (HMV)
- 2) "Poor People Of Paris" Winifred Atwell (Eng. Decca)
- 3) "My September Love"

- 7) "I'll Be Home" Pat Boone (London)
- 8) "The Happy Whistler" Don Robertson (Capitol)
- 9) "Main Title" (Man With Golden Arm)-Billy May Ork (Capitol) 10) "Lost John"/"Stewball"

Lonnie Donegan (Nixa)

ANDY STARR (MGM 12263; K12263)

B "ROCKIN' ROLLIN' STONE" [Hi'll & Range BMI—Gulledge, Patty] MGM introduces Andy Starr with a swinging rendition of a hard-driving rock and roller handled in the Presleyan manner. The lad has a com-mercial sound and a good dance item to work with. Kids should keep the boxes hoppin' with this side.

G "I WANNA GO SOUTH" [Hill & Range BMI—Gulledge] The country feeling in Andy's voice is more easily recognized on this slow-moving rhythm item. Good beat.

PEARL BAILEY (Sunset 2018; 45-2018)

"ZING WENT THE STRINGS OF MY HEART" (2:46) [Harms AS-CAP—Hanley] Pearl Bailey makes her bow on the Sunset label singing two songs which she performs in the forthcoming Bob Hope, Eva Marie Saint, Paramount pic "That Certain Feeling." This half features the in-imitable lark on a humorous swinging arrangement of a great oldie. Unique phrasing and delivery make this side a winner, Could break open. It's loaded with laughs. with laughs.

(2:23) [Harms ASCAP—Gersh-win, Gershwin] Here Pearl offers the title tune of the film. Pleasant read-ing of a great Gershwin oldie.

LEO DIAMOND (RCA Victor 20-6513; 47-6513)

"DU BIST SHOEN WIE MUSIK" (2:14) [Burlington ASCAP— Gaze, Balz] Harmonica ace Leo Dia-mond gets a lovely instrumental assist as he drifts through a melodic, en-chanting theme of German origin. The chorus in the backdrop, singing without lyrics, makes for an attractive showcase. Lovely side that's charming enough to step out. enough to step out.

C "POLYNESIAN" (2:28) [Lero ASCAP—Diamond] This pretty piece is a Diamond creation. Haunting mood item.

EDDY HOWARD (Mercury 70881; 70881x45)

B "WHATEVER WILL BE" [Art-ists Music ASCAP—Livingston, Evans] A delightful waltz lullaby with a wonderful Italian flavor, is smoothly presented by the warm Eddy Howard voice. Pretty song that has the ear-marks of a hit.

B "YOU CAN'T KEEP RUNNING FROM YOUR HEART" [Peter Maurice ASCAP — Sigman, Carmi] The experienced crooner comes over convincingly on this refreshing latin-beat romancer. Pretty tune with great commercial qualities.

MIYOSHI UMEKI (Mercury 70880; 70880x45)

B "THE STORY YOU'RE ABOUT TO HEAR IS TRUE" [Larry Spier ASCAP — Hoffman, Manning] The velvety voice of talented young Japanese starlet Miyoshi Umeki is perfectly suited for this lovely roman-tic tale. The lark has a unique tender-ness in her singing technique and could make the grade with this pretty side. side.

C "LITTLE LOST DOG" [Rayven BMI—Parker, Misraki, Marnay] Another fragile and charming lullaby type song handled with extreme ten-derness by the lark.

LES ELGART ORCH. (Columbia 40703; 4-40703)

THE POOR PIANIST OF PARIS" (2:06) [Southern AS-CAP—Ferre] Les Elgart's ork dances through a lively, infectious melody, which in title and delightful sound resembles the recent smash "Poor People of Paris." It's a commercial European creation that should do well here here.

"THE LEFT BANK" [Cromwell ASCAP—Monnot] Another color-ful French flavored melody with that "Poor People" bounce. Lovers of the European melodies should enjoy both halves. halves.

DICK JURGENS ORCH. (Coral 61637; 9-61637)

B "ROCKIN' CHAIR" (3:29) [Peer International BMI—Carmichael] Dick Jurgens' ork sets up a smooth, easy-going backdrop for Al Galante's vocal interpretation of a lazy Hoagy Carmichael standard. Strong new ver-sion of a classic.

G "D O O D L E-DOO-DOO" (2:32) [Leo Feist ASCAP — Kassel, Stitzel] Galante, Stan Vann and the Ensemble take on the vocal duties on this lively lilter out of the past. An-other smooth instrumentation by Jurgens.

LUCILLE WATKINS & THE BELLTONES (Kapp 145; 45-145)

B "HIS HAND IN MINE" (3:10) [Bregman, Vocco & Conn ASCAP -Lister] Lucille Watkins and the Belltones, an exciting new group with a refreshing and different vocal blend, bow on Kapp with a strong new side that could develop into big seller. Un-usual group sound that jockeys should enjoy. enjoy

B "MAYBE YOU'LL BE THERE" (2:59) [Triangle ASCAP—Gallop, Bloom] An inviting interpretation of a great oldie is uniquely fashioned by the crew on this half. Interesting listening. Two good decks.

BUDDY HACKETT (Coral 61640; 9-61640)

"I USED TO YATE YA" (2:25) [Oxford ASCAP—Hoffman, Man-ning] As a follow-up to his very suc-cessful Chinese comedy disks, Buddy Hackett offer a light and infectious novelty describing a conversation be-tween a little boy and girl. Hackett's voice and baby talk is amusing and the tune is catchy. Should appeal to the kiddies... the kiddies.

B "THE SONG MY MOTHER USED TO SING TO WHO" (2:47) [Shapiro-Bernstein ASCAP—Brown] This half stars the inimitable Mr. Hackett on an amazingly ridiculous but extremely hilarious number. The lyrics make no sense, and nothing rhymes. Hackett's delivery is side-splitting. Jocks'll get a big boot out of this one.

THE DREAMERS (Manhattan 503; 45-503)

B "NO OBLIGATION" [Manhattan ASCAP—Green] The Dreamers bow on the Manhattan label with a strong new fish-beat rock and roller aimed at the teen age market. Group has an interesting sound and should do well with this side.

Geen] The tempo is upped on this rhythmic romancer, and the results are commercial.

POPULAR

"ELLA FITZGERALD SINGS THE COLE PORTER SONG BOOK"—Verve MG V-4001-2 (2-12" LP)
 ACE IN THE HOLE, ALL OF YOU; ALL THROUGH THE NIGHT, ALWAYS TRUE TO YOU IN MY FASHION, ANYTHING GOES, BEGIN THE BEGUINGE, DO I LOVE YOU, EV'RY TIME WE SAY GOOD-BYE, FROM THIS MOMENT ON; GET OUT OF TOWN; I AM IN LOVE; I GET A KICK OUT OF YOU; I LOVE PARIS; IT'S ALL RIGHT WITH ME; IT'S DELOVELY; JUST ONE OF THOSE THINGS, LET'S DO IT; LOVE FOR SALE, NIGHT AND DAY; RIDIN' HIGH; SO IN LOVE; TOO DARN HOT; WHAT IS THIS THING CALLED LOVE; WY CAN'T YOU BEHAVE; YOU DO SOMETHING TO ME; YOU'RE THE TOP, DON'T FENCE ME IN, EASY TO LOVE; I CONCENTRATE ON YOU; IN THE STILL OF THE NIGHT; I'VE GOT YOU UNDER MY SKIN; MISS OTIS REGRETS.
 Verve hasn't wasted any time in seeing to it that Ella Fitzgerald's first LP effort for the firm is a memorable listening experience. This two disk set has Ella singing 32 songs by Cole Porter. Rarely, on records, has a combination of songstress and song-writer had such fruitful results. Each of the Cole Porter gems requires intimacy and phrasing of the highest order and Ella possesses these two qualities in the highest order. A list of the highspots on the disk would just about entail another listing of the above 32 selections. Exciting orchestrations by Buddy Bregman. The package is a must for the gigantic Fitzgerald and Porter following.
 "STARRING AL HIBBLER"—Orchestra Conducted By Jack Pleis—Decca DL gigantic Fitzgerald and Porter following.

"STARRING AL HIBBLER"—Orchestra Conducted By Jack Pleis—Decca DL 8328 (1-12" LP)
AFTER THE LIGHTS GO DOWN LOW; SEPTEMBER IN THE RAIN; YOU'LL NEVER KNOW; WHERE ARE YOU?; NIGHT AND DAY; WHERE OR WHEN; STELLA BY STARLIGHT; THERE ARE SUCH THINGS; I DON'T STAND A GHOST OF A CHANCE WITH YOU; COUNT EVERY STAR; SHANGHAI LIL; PENNIES FROM HEAVEN.
Al Hibbler, of late, has been greatly associated with his big, dramatic delivery. And one might be apt to forget he possesses a polished ballad and swinging style. Well, Decca sets things straight with a tremendous new package of Hibbler's other, and perhaps more exciting side. Al sings the choice material in his own marvelously resourceful manner. Here's Hibbler at his best. He never sounded better and he's singing the cream of the standard crop. It's Hibbler's first LP for Decca and it should be a sell-out. Watch the charts for this one. The only new tune on the set is a beautiful ballad "After The Lights Go Down Low" which Hibbler delivers superbly.
"THE PLATTERS"—Mercury MG 20146 (1-12" LP)

"THE PLATTERS"—Mercury MG 20146 (1-12" LP) GLORY OF LOVE; BEWITCHED, BOTHERED AND BEWILDERED; AT YOUR BECK AND CALL; HEAVEN ON EARTH; WHY SHOULD I, I WANNA, ON MY WORD OF HONOR, MY PRAYER; REMEMBER WHEN; I'M SORRY; HAVE MERCY. When a group normally associated with single disks, is honored with an album displaying their talents, it's a vital clue to the group's popularity. So here's one of the giants in the Rock and Roll rage, the Platters in their initial LP release. The set is a mixture of standards and special material sung in the same dynamic harmony of the group's single smashes. And it's all wrapped in a pretty jacket. The kids should make the waxing a sales craze. Exciting listening. listening.

"SARAH VAUGHAN AT THE BLUE NOTE"—Mercury MG 20094 (1-12" LP) THE TOUCH OF YOUR LIPS, S'WONDERFUL, TENDERLY, IT'S MAGIC, HONEY, LET'S PUT OUT THE LIGHTS, I'M IN THE MOOD FOR LOVE, I DON'T KNOW WHY; PARADISE; TIME ON MY HANDS; GIMME A LITTLE KISS; MAKE YOURSELF COMFORTABLE. Another Sarah Vaughan album gem is available in her latest Mercury record-ing. As usual with Sarah, her selections are the best of popular songs and Sarah is one of the few larks you can trust such tunes with. Sarah's voice thrives on velvet tones and perfect timing of lyrics. Like a certain river Sarah keeps rolling along without any sign of tiring. The waxing's in for sub-stantial sales. stantial sales.

"DAYDREAMS"-Roger Williams At The Piano-Orchestra Conducted By Martin Gold-Kapp KL 1031 (1-12" LP) TENDERLY; MY FOOLISH HEART; ETUDE; PARADISE; SONG FROM THE MOULIN ROUGE; SECRET LOVE; IT MIGHT AS WELL BE SPRING; A SERENADE FOR JOY; WHEN I GROW TOO OLD TO DREAM; TO LOVE AGAIN; I'LL ALWAYS WALK WITH YOU; I'LL STRING ALONG WITH YOU.

With You. Roger Williams moves his notch among mood music artists a little higher with this pleasing platter. The "plot" revolves around 12 reliable melodies and the fleet fingers of Williams at the keyboard. The set includes two familiar Chopin pieces, "Etude" and "Nocturne In E-Flat." The latter selection is popularly known on the charts today as "To Love Again". Elegant cover. Set is due for sizeable sales. Choice of material and delivery are outstanding.

"KITTY WHITE"—Orchestra Conducted By Hal Mooney—EmArcy MG 36068

"KITTY WHITE"—Orchestra Conducted By Hal Mooney—EmArcy MG 36068 (1-12" LP)
COLD FIRE, WHEN YOU'RE IN LOVE, IF I WERE YOU, THE OTHER WOMAN, FRANTIC FEELING, PLAIN GOLD RING, AS CHILDREN DO, LOW TIDE; POLY MAN BONGO; THE CHINESE LADY, MEANING OF THE BLUES, LAND OF LOVE.
A program of tunes with varying tempos gives singer Kitty White her "letter" for fine achievement in song styling. Miss White has a warm and honest delivery that reacts equally well to the ballad, rhythm or novelty number. The selections here offer the listener a chance to hear some melodies that, though not too familiar, are, melody and lyric wise, highly professional stuff. Cover is sensational. The set is a thoroughly entertaining ear-full. In the past 12 months, Kitty has been adding many fans to following. This fact should be felt in the sale of this exciting disk.
"IN LONDON IN LOVE"—Norrie Paramor His Strings And Orchestra—Cap-

"IN LONDON IN LOVE"—Norrie Paramor His Strings And Orchestra—Cap-itol T10025 (1-12" LP) THE NEARNESS OF YOU; STAIRWAY TO THE STARS; STARDUST; EMBRACEABLE YOU; STARS FELL ON ALABAMA; THE TOUCH OF YOUR LIPS; ALL THE THINGS YOU ARE; I'LL GET BY; DEEP PURPLE; SOMEONE TO WATCH OVER ME; DEARLY BELOVED; THE VERY THOUGHT OF YOU.

OF YOU. Capitol's latest stop in its International Series was London and as a delightful memento of the "trip" it has brought back this enchanting mood music disk. The standard selections receive the lush treatment by Norrie Paramor and the ork. There's also a "mystery" thrush whose high notes are heard only in a few lines of each piece. It makes quite an effective and unusual gimmick. Extra-special entry in its area.

"STARLIT HOUR"—The Music Of Peter DeRose—Ambrose And His Orchestra—MGM E3350 (1-12" LP)
 CLOUD LUCKY SEVEN; LET'S DREAM TOGETHER; MUSIC BOX IN BLUE; GRASS WIDOW'S LAMENT; LILACS IN THE RAIN; MOONLIGHT MOOD; STARLIT HOUR; THE AMERICAN WALTZ; BLUE SEPTEMBER; AUTUMN SERENADE; WHITE ORCHIDS; DEEP PURPLE.
 The attractive melodies of Peter DeRose set a solid foundation for Britain's Ambrose and His Orchestra. Though mood music is the waxing's main objective, Ambrose does let out with an occasional fast rhythm section as with "Cloud Lucky Seven". It's all good lush stuff but with, at times, a bright snap.

"TANZ!"-With Dave Tarras And Sam Musiker-Epic LN 3219 (1-12" LP) RUMANIA; GYPSY; THE ROUMANIAN FANTASY; TANGO; TANZI BULGAR; SAM'S BULGAR; DER NEIER DOINA; DER CHOLUM FUN YID; SAM SHPIELT; SILENE PAJAMAS; A BULGAR; PAPIROSSEN.

PAPIROSSEN. One of the highlights of any joyful Yiddish function is in having a Yiddish folk-music inspired band. Clarinetists Dave Tarras and Sam Musiker have a famous aggregation in that area of music. On this Epic platter they and the ork perform 14 buoyant melodies that will be nostalgically familiar to all who have listened or danced to such contagious melodies. If the record col-lector hasn't, as yet, been introduced to such music he'll have many happy surprises after purchasing this disk. Disk should enjoy a healthy sale in the big cities.

FILM SOUNDTRACK

The Cash Box, Music

"PINOCCHIO"—Music From The Original Motion Picture Sound Track—Dis-neyland WDL-4002 (1-12" LP) when you wish upon a star; cricket theme; little wooden head; fairy theme; give a little whistle; village awakening; hi-diddle-dee-dee; i've got no strings; sad reunion; lessons in lies; out of the sea-sea horses; desolation theme; the whale chase; turn on the old music box.

LATIN RHYTHMS

"DIG THAT CHA CHA CHA"-Pepi Luis And His Orchestra-Tico LP 1024 (1-12")

CUIDADO CON EL CICLON; LA PALOMA; LAS SECRETARIAS; LA CACHIMBA DE SAN JUAN; TOTIRI MUNDACHI; FRENESI; YO SABIA; CLASES DE CHA CHA CHA; MI LINDA; LAS POSADAS; EL UNO DOS.

For the millions who dig Cha Cha music, Tico adds another in its impressive series of South of the Border inspired dance music. Pepi Luis and the ork have the necessary vitality and arrangements to give some top Cha Cha Cha numbers an exciting spin. Good party issue.

POETRY

"SIDNEY POITIER IN POETRY OF THE NEGRO"—With Doris Belack-Glory GLP 1 (1-12" LP)

AT CANDLE LIGHTIN' TIME; WHEN MALINDY SINGS; AN ANTE-BELLUM SERMON; THE DEBT; ERE SLEEP COMES DOWN TO SOOTHE THE WEARY EYES; WE WEAR THE MASK; THE CRE-ATION; LIFT EVERY VOICE; TO JOHN KEATS; YET DO I MARVEL; I, TOO; BLUES AT DAWN; MOTHER TO SON; WHEN YOU HAVE FORGOTTEN SUNDAY; DEBATE OF THE DARK BROTHERS; EPIGRAM.

A moving tribute to the poetry of the Negro is achieved with consummate drama by Sidney Poitier and Doris Belack. Poitier will be remembered as the repentant juvenile delinquent in "Blackboard Jungle". The poems themselves contain many lyrical and poignant passages and are delivered with great enthusiasm and understanding by Poitier. Miss Belack also shows keen in-sight in her effective delivery of her parts. Collectors of the spoken word on records will find this distinguished set a thrilling listening experience. There's a good chance that the package will have a wider sales range than one might evenct expect.

JAZZ

"JONAH JONES AT THE EMBERS"—The Jonah Jones Quartet—Groove LG-1001 (1-12" LP)

IT'S ALL RIGHT WITH ME; FROM THIS MOMENT ON; LEARNIN' THE BLUES; SOMETHING'S GOTTA GIVE; ALL OF YOU; LULLABY OF BIRDLAND; BASIN STREET; HIGH SOCIETY; TIN ROOF BLUES; MUSKRAT RAMBLE; AT SUNDOWN.

Jonah Jones' cozy foursome give a stylish account of themselves on this Groove pressing. Besides the versatility of the Jones trumpet, the group has the excellent ideas of pianist George Rhodes. Working with some ambitious ma-terial the boys turn out a good number of neat jazz tricks in harmony and interplay. Strong jazz release. Jones has a loyal following which should enjoy this platter.

THINK OF YOU WITH EVERY BREATH I TAKE"-Marlene-Savoy MG 12058 (1-12")

I THINK OF YOU WITH EVERY BREATH I TAKE; ACCENT ON YOUTH; SNUGGLED ON YOUR SHOULDER; SOME OTHER TIME; IF I LOVE AGAIN; WE COULD MAKE SUCH BEAUTIFUL MUSIC TOGETHER; DEEP IN A DREAM; TWO CIGARETTES IN THE DARK; WITHOUT A WORD OF WARNING; YOU LEAVE ME BREATHLESS.

A new pop-jazz voice makes her all-important first impression in a package an excellent one. Marlene (that's the whole name) sings with tender feeling and careful phrasing. Every tune on the waxing is a challenge the gal takes on with sensitive and sometimes rhythmic attack. It's a pleasure to see such worthy songs as "If I Love Again" and "Without A Warning" getting such well deserved (and well interpreted!) attention. Let's hear more of Marlene.

"THE JAZZ WORKSHOP"-Manny Albam-RCA Victor LPM 1211 (1-12" LP) ANYTHING GOES; HEADSTRONG; BLACK BOTTOM; THE CHANGING SCENE; THE TURNING POINT; CHARMAINE; DIGA DOO; ROYAL GARDEN BLUES; SWINGIN' ON A STAR; INTER-MEZZO; FERRIS WHEEL; URBANITY.

Victor's latest addition to its "Jazz Workshop Series" highlights the ideas of Manny Albam. Arranger-writer Albam keeps in touch with the swing tra-dition and capably presents this approach with keen arrangements. Workable tunes (evergreens and Albam-inspired compositions) are tastefully handled by the four-man combo. Interesting jazz entry.

Trips To Continent

HOLLYWOOD, CAL.—Four Capi-tol Records executives, three from the company headquarters in Holly-wood, Calif., and one from the New York office will be in Europe on busi-ness trips next month.

President Glenn E. Wallichs leaves Los Angeles May 30 to attend a Capi-tol Board of Directors meeting in London June 4, after which he will make visits to Paris and Spain, re-turning to London June 21 to attend a Board meeting of the Electric and Musical Industries, Ltd. (parent com-pany of Capitol) of which he is a member. This will be one of Wallichs' usual semi-annual trips to the Con-tinent. He will return to his executive offices in Hollywood about July 4.

James W. Bayless, Manufacturing-Engineering Vice President of Capitol who headquarters in The Capitol Tower in Hollywood, arrives in Europe in mid-June for a one month visit during which time he will meet with EMI engineering and manufacturing personnel. During his stay overseas Bayless also will have technical dis-cussions with J. N. Macleod, Manager of EMI. Paris.

Francis Scott III, the label's album A&R chief will be absent from his office in Hollywood from two to three weeks to attend a series of meetings in London with EMI artist and repertoire men to discuss A&R matters after which he plans to visit Capitol's New York offices for about a week before returning to Hollywood.

Dick Jones, Cap's classical A&R producer in New York, leaves that city May 31 to fly to Madrid, Spain for a visit with Capitol's Frank Sinatra, who is currently starring in a movie in production there, "The Pride and the Passion." Jones moves on to London June 5 where he will remain 10 days to meet with EMI executives to discuss Capitol's classical repertoire plans for the future.

Yogi Yorgesson Dies

HOLLYWOOD, CALIF.-Harry E. Stewart, 48, better known as Yogi Yorgesson, Hari Kari and Klaus Hammerschmidt, was killed instantly last week when he apparently fell asleep at the wheel of his car and plunged into a culvert on a highway 18 miles north of Tonopah, Nev.

The entertainer, who lived in Beverly Hills, Calif., was returning to his home from a professional engagement in Ely, Nev., when the accident occurred, according to his wife Grechen. In addition to his wife, Stewart is survived by a 24-year-old daughter and an 11-year-old son.

As a recording artist for Capitol Records, Stewart is best remembered for his Yogi Yorgesson version of "I Yust Go Nuts At Christmas", and "Yingle Bells". As Yorgesson, Stewart was featured on the Al Pearce "Happy Go Lucky Gang" network radio show on the Pacific coast in the late 1930's. He is also well remembered as Hari Kari for his hit "Yokahama Mama". He was born in Tacoma, Wash.

Wexler Leaves Columbia

NEW YORK—James B. Conkling, president of Columbia Records, last week announced the resignation of Paul J. Wexler, who was vice-president in charge of Columbia's Electronics Products division.

It is rumored that Wexler resigned to go into business for himself in the electronics line.

Wexler came to Columbia in 1941 after graduating from the university of Pennsylvania. In 1951, he became vice-president in charge of sales, a position which he held until 1955. In 1955 he was promoted to vice-president in charge of Electronics Products and played an important part in the growth of Columbia's Phonograph division, Epic Records and Columbia Transcriptions.

At press time, no announcement has been made as to Wexler's replacement.

It was speculated in the trade that Wexler's departure from Columbia might in some way be connected with the announcement in the New York Times last Thursday, that Columbia might be contemplating the discontinuation of its Electronics Products department.

Disk Stars Entertain At Chicago Youth Rally

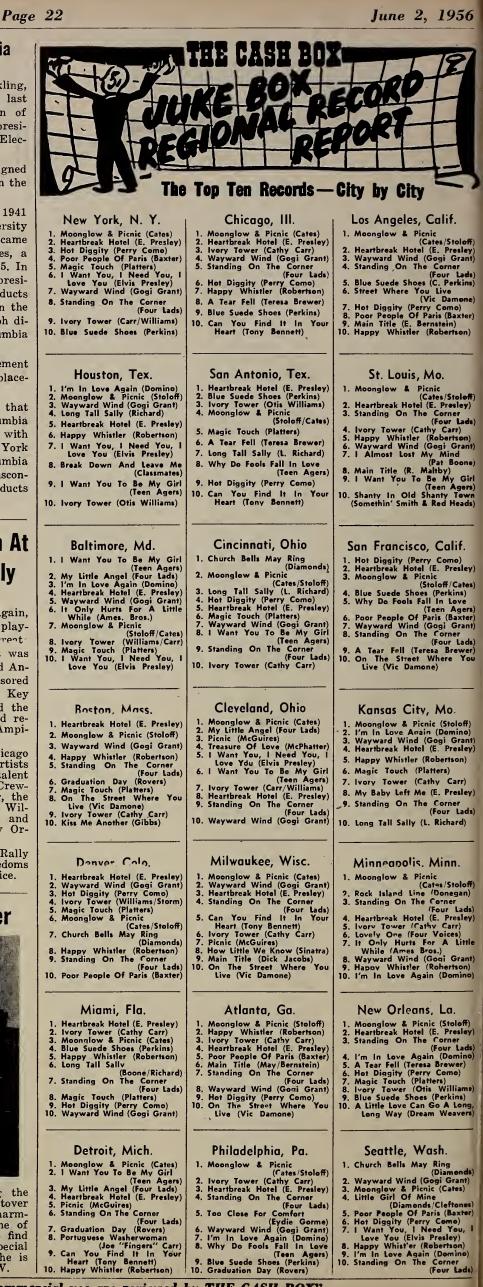

CHICAGO, ILL. — Once again, prominent recording stars have played an important part in helping creat a better America. This time it was at a huge youth rally, the Second Annual Chicago Youth Rally sponsored by the Kiwanis International Key Clubs in the Chicago area and the Chicago Daily News, and staged recently in the International Ampitheatre.

Under the emceeing of Chicago dee jay Howard Miller, the artists who donated their time and talent included: Jaye P. Morgan, the Crew-Cuts, Don Cherry, Peggy King, the Chordettes, Pat Boone, Roger Williams, the Four Step Brothers and David Carroll and his Mercury Orchestra.

In 1955, the Chicago Youth Rally won a top award from the Freedoms Foundation for community service.

NEW YORK — After asking the question: "Why did Mamie Stover have to leave San Francisco?", charming Linda Manning invited some of New York's top platter men to find the answer for themselves at a special disk jockey screening. Above she is shown with Al Trilling of WNEW.

CHICAGO—Studio party given by Mary Gillette of Gillette Distributing Company as well as of the Belmont-Central Record Shop, Wednesday evening, May 23, brought out one of the largest crowds of noted record people here. The "studio offices" of the Belmont-Central Record Shop will be located on the second floor of their present location at 5611 West Belmont Ave-nue. These are unusually attractive. All business will be conducted in these offices instead of the record shop downstairs on the main floor of the building in this busy intersection of Belmont and Central Avenues. Surprise of the evening were the little "anticipation cards" which were passed out to all the large crowd pres-ent.

These advised that "Gillette Bel-mont-Central" would open on Novem-ber 1, 1956, in the fashionable Old Orchard section of Skokie, Illinois, another record shop to be known as "Gillette-Old Orchard". The card was very ingeniously in-scribed. It was labeled, "Volume II" of "Gillette" and the frontispiece stated, "Anticipating". The inner folder contained the fol-lowing: "Name: "Gillette-Old Or-chard". Date: "November 1, 1956 (A.T.)". Parents: "Gillette-Belmont Central". Godparents: "Record Com-panies". Doctor: "Bank". It was an enjoyable evening with all noted record distributors and rec-ord company representatives present These advised that "Gillette Bel-

Gillette Record Shop | Ed Penney Day May 31

June 2, 1956

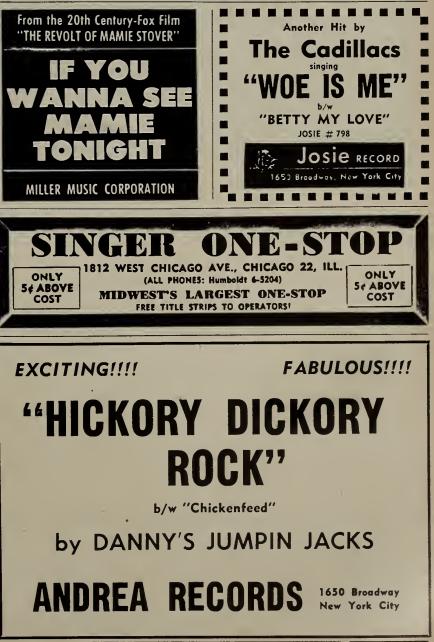

BOSTON - An all-day celebration headlined by Steve Lawrence and many other show business stars will mark the fifth anniversary of diskjockey Ed Penney's show on WTAO Thursday, May thirty-first. The day has already been proclaimed "Ed Penney Day" by the mayors of two cities and plans have been completed to move the whole radio station to the W. T. Grant store that day as a joint observance of Grant's fiftieth anni-versary and Ed's fifth. Ed joined WTAO in 1951 and has held down the two to six spot on the popular indie ever since. In addition to being Program Manager of WTAO, Ed is also the fellow who recently flew all the way from Boston to San Antonio to do a record hop for Air Force trainees from the beantown area.

Hawkins Disk Heard In Film "A Kiss Before Dying"

NEW YORK-Epic this week released Dolores Hawkins' "A Kiss Before Dying", theme song from the United Artists Picture of the same name.

Miss Hawkins is heard on the film track twice during the running of the picture, and the tune is the theme heard throughout as background music.

Film credit is also given to Miss Hawkins at the opening of the picture.

I Like Mountain Music, Too! by Governor Frank G. Clement of Tennessee At the Radio & TV Executive Society, N.Y.C., May 21

There are three things we folk in Tennessee take seriously: our politics, our religion and our country music.

I've been known to make a political speech now and then, here and there, and it has been my privilege to occupy many pulpits in the past three years. But it's not often I have such a dis-tinguished "captive" audience for a dissertation on country music. And if a little politics or religion creeps in, that is how it should be, for without the votes of the good people of Ten-nessee who like country music, and without the wonderful support of such stars as Minnie Pearl, Roy Acuff, Carl Smith, June Carter, Ferlin Huskey, George Morgan and Ernest Tubb, I may not have become Governor of Tennessee. And because religion is so basic and integral a part of our people, it quite naturally is the theme of many a country song. You people up here on Madison I've been known to make a political

You people up here on Madison Avenue, and others across the country, sometimes make a big to-do about not sometimes make a big to-do about not being able to understand the popu-larity of country music or the phe-nomenal success of a show like the Grand Ole Opry. The staid and proper Wall Street Journal once sent a re-porter to Nashville to find the answer to the question: "Why the mountain music fad?" I guess he found the an-swer because he wrote and L conte: music fad?" I guess he found the an-swer because he wrote, and I quote: "People love hillbilly music because it's simple. Listeners find they can sing just about as well as the profes-sionals and it helps satisfy their urge to burst into song." I can understand that feeling. I've felt it myself, al-though my wife, Lucille, and my three boys, declare that it really isn't so— that my talents do not include singing country music.

One recent Saturday night, a New One recent Saturday night, a New York agency man came to Nashville to see WSM's Grand Ole Opry for himself. He made it quite plain to us he had come to watch a "simple little hillbilly production." He was escorted into the venerable old Ryman Audi-tarium and gring a gast although up torium and given a seat—although re-serve seats to the Opry are sold out serve seats to the Oprv are sold out sometimes as much as 16 weeks in ad-vance. He didn't have to wait in that long line outside the ticket office that extended down Fifth Avenue, and around the block down Broadway. (Yes, we have a Broadway also—the Broadway of Country Ballads in Tin Pan Valley, as Time magazine called it.) it.)

He didn't even have to worry about a place to park his car—which was a lucky thing, for he would have found the lots for blocks around crowded with cars bearing license plates from some 40 of the 48 states.

some 40 of the 48 states. Once settled in his seat our New York friend found out first—to his utter amazement—that the show it-self runs for four and one-half hours —four and one-half delightful, fun-filled hours, I might add. Then, he was surprised to learn that with the ex-ception of the half-hour network por-tion which Prince Albert has bought continuously since 1938, there is no program rehearsal. Nothing is done to rob the show of its genuineness and spontaneity. spontaneity.

He watched in wonder as entertainers milled around on the big wooden ers milled around on the big wooden stage, frequently wandering out into the audience. His eyes popped at the organized chaos around him—At one moment a carpenter with a hammer and saw walked in and calmly fixed one of the seats near the front of the Ryman while the network portion was in progress. in progress.

in progress. But the important part of our New York friend's visit to the Grand Ole Opry was not the quiet confusion and apparent lack of planning. The im-portant thing is—he too caught the spirit of the evening. he too entered into the kilarity and hi-jinks, and came away convinced and converted.

As a newspaper friend of mine (Jim Ewing, Memphis Commercial Appeal) once wrote: "The appeal of the Opry is almost universal. People in all eco-Is almost universal. Feople in all eco-nomic stratas and of widely varying tastes are lured by its conglomeration of folksy banter, dying calf lamenta-tions, square dancing and just plain corn." I'm no historian on the subject, but I do know that today's country music

I do know that today's country music has captured and held the melodies our has captured and held the melodies our forefathers sang as they trudged through the tall rhododendron-covered Smokies—toward a new land. This was the music of the pioneers and the Sons of the Pioneers. It told of their sorrows and joys; of the heart-aches and laughter of frontier and mountain life. It was a way of life put to the music of a fiddle and a guitar—stripped of all pretensions, free from the synthetics of so much of our modern music. This was and still is the music of the heart; of love, and hatred; of jealousy and gener-osity, of sympathy and sincerity and all the myriad emotions that make osity, of sympathy and sincerity and all the myriad emotions that make Man what he is. And it speaks of God and faith; it sings of courage, and honor, and a fundamental decency cency. One day the WSM ticket bureau in Nashville received this letter: "Please reserve two seats for me for Saturday, September 20. This is very important to me. My husband and I have been married eight years and we have drifted apart. Now, the Grand Ole Opry is our last chance. "He has agreed," the letter goes on to say, "to take a few days off and we're coming to the Opry to see if we can't make a new start in life together ..." together . . . " How much of our modern music is we can't make a new start in life together . . . " How much of our modern music is as vital a part of our live as that? On another Saturday night, a man took another man's wife to see the Opry. (Let me add quickly—this is not a common occurrence.) Suddenly the husband walked in and sat down beside the startled couple. He calmly took out a pistol and twirling it in his hands, whispered, "Enjoy the show while you can because it will be your last. Right after it's over I'm going to blow your brains out." A few min-utes later, Marty Robbins wandered onstage, and began singing "Some-body's Two Timing Me." When the show ended, the three of them walked out together—arm in arm. I wondered about this strange, al-most hypnotic appeal of the Grand Ole Opry until I went to the Ryman Auditorium myself many years ago and afterwards heard the story of old Captain Tom Ryman, for whom the structure is named. Captain Tom owned a line of pleasure boats on the Cumberland River during the latter half of the 19th Century. The gam-bling rooms and bars in his boats were denounced by a revivalist named Sam Jones, who dared the Captain to come to his tent revival. Captain Ryman and some of his boatmen accepted the challenge. Although they came prepared to heckle the preacher, they ended up hitting the sawdust trail themselves after hearing the preach-er's sermon on "Mother." The cap-tain, so the story goes, then proceeded to tear out the bars and gambling rooms on his boats, declaring, "No fine man like Sam Jones is going to preach in a tent." He then went about building a tremendous tabernacle for all revivalists of any denomination. In 1895 a balcony was added for the Confederate Veterans Union and later when a stage was added also, the tab-ernacle became an auditorium. The seats, however, are still the same when a stage was added also, the tab-ernacle became an auditorium. The when a stage was added also, the tab-ernacle became an auditorium. The seats, however, are still the same benches used in the original taber-nacle, and I like to believe that the people who crowd into Ryman today are the same kind who sang Halle-lujah! in the days when Preacher Jones held forth. But those five thousand people from every state in the Union and from for-eign countries who drive to Nashville

Whiting, Les Paul and Mary Ford, Joni James, Tony Bennett, have come down to Nashville to make guest appearances at the Ryman. We even had Metropolitan opera star, Helen Traubel, cutting a few squares! Now I know you gentlemen are pretty well convinced, after listening to this country boy from Dickson, about the popularity of country music. Before I came up here, I saw what is called an American Research Bureau study. Now I'll admit I can sit down and talk intelligently with you about stocks and bonds—particularly if they're State of Tennessée bonds, which Moody's Investor, Service has rated Double AA for the first time in the state's history—but this ARB rating has me a little baffled. It says that in the month of February, in the metropolitan markets—this isn't out in the country or up in the mountains —in the nation among network variety shows. And it's still climbing. And it's the first choice among men and children, and third among the women, in these markets.
Now, lest this give you the idea that you folks have been missing some easy money down Tennessee way, let me tell you what happened to a certain New York publisher who shall be nameless. I don't mean by this story that you aren't welcome in the Volunteer State. You are. Bring your money with you. We'll help you spend it.

At any arate, this publisher had heard about singers like Minnie Pearl and Carl Smith and Eddie Arnold and Carl Smith and Eddie Arnold making more money than they right-fully knew what to do with, so he called in the late Fred Rose from Nashville, who with Roy had one of the oldest and most famous country music publishing firms in the business. The publisher told Rose he was get-ting into what he called "this hillbilly racket." "We're among the biggest in the business," he said, "and in a year's time we ought to be able to make a killing. All I need are the right tunes."

tunes." Fred squinted at the publisher and gave him that perpetually haggard look that comes from dealing with too many people like this. "Don't do it, friend," he advised, "you'll lose your shirt." The publisher scoffed. Why, he knew the music business from the ground up music?" the publisher demanded. Well, sir, Fred Rose was a man who believed that actions speak louder — and more clearly — than words. He pulled himself up from his chair, walked over to the piano, took out a lead sheet from his inside pocket and beat out a fast little tune. It was a tune called "Fire Ball Mail." The publisher scowled publisher scowled.

"I think you can do better than that, Freddie," he said. "We need a good tune to lead off with. Why don't you give it some thought instead of just trying to bang something out." "Might be a big hit," said Mr. Rose. "Might make a thousand bucks."

"You're crazy," said our New York friend. "The music is monotonous and the lyrics are lousy." Fred pulled a check for $3,300 out of his pocket. "This," he said, "is my first royalty payment on Fire Ball Mail. It was published three months ago and it looks like it might keep selling for a long time." It did, and the publisher took the hint. the publisher took the hint. His com-pany stayed out of the folk music field. I haven't tried to tell you how you should solve your many radio and tele-vision problems today, anymore than I would expect you here in this room to come down to Tennessee and tell me how to run the state government. But we do have one thing in common. We both are guided by the wishes of the people. If people didn't watch your television programs and buy the myriad of products you peddle, and if I didn't listen to the voices of the people of my state and try to run it like they want it, we'd both be looking for jobs. I may be looking for one three years from now—anyway. But, whether I take up guitar-picking, or stay in my present profession, this much I know: Country music is the music of the people. It's the spontaneous musical outburst of the events in their daily lives—their joys and hopes and tears. Country music is folk music, hill-billy, western, mountain music, old-time music like you'll hear at a corn-husking bee. It's the song of the cow-boy on the open ranges. Country music has been with us always—as long as people have sung at their work, danced away their leisure hours, plucked a "geetar" or sawed on a fiddle. It is one of the resources of a people, of an intelligent, neighbor-loving, God-fearing people, steeped in folk tradition and folk cul-ture. I love country music because when I have it L hear Amavia singing

I love country music because when I hear it. I hear America singing. And I guess, gentlemen, I'm not

NEW YORK-Pat Barrett, who sings tenor with The Crew-Cuts, will marry Marianne D'Andrea, one-half of the D'Andrea Sisters, on Saturday, June 2nd. The three other voices in the male group will sing High Mass at the wedding, as Benita D'Andrea (now with Ted Lewis' show) will be maid of honor.

Ceremonies will take place at Sacred Heart Church in the bride's home town of Bayside, L. I. Father John Sherman will officiate.

Singing in church is no new experience for The Crew-Cuts. The quartet got its start when the boys studied church music together at the Cathedral Choir School in Toronto. In addition to Pat, the other members of the group are Rudi Maugeri, Johnnie Perkins and Ray Perkins.

Following the Barretts' honeymoon in Miami, The Crew-Cuts wil open at the Palmer House in Chicago for four weeks on June 14th. Their latest release, "Honey Hair, Sugar Lips, Eyes of Blue" backed with "Out of the Picture," is making its climb upward.

Burl Ives Gets Book-Record Tie-In

NEW YORK-Decca Records has made arrangements for a joint promotion with Ballantine Books on the new Burl Ives-Decca album "Down To The Sea In Ships", and the paper-bound collection of "Burl Ives Sea Songs," being published by Ballantine. An entire page of the book, which contained 68 songs with melodies and guitar chords, is being devoted to the mention of Ives' Decca recordings. In return, Decca is publicizing the book on the album liner.

Ives, who is an avid sea enthusiast, has included many of his favorite sea chanteys in the album. The Cover of the LP, an unusual one, was suggested by Ives himself, who is a collector of sailing cards. In order to obtain the prints, Decca had to make special arrangements with the Boston Historical Museum, owners of the original sailing cards. The album cover features authentic reproductions of these cards.

Decca is also participating in a promotion with Farrar, Strauss and Cudahy, publishers of the new Nelson Algren novel "A Walk On The Wild Side". Algren, also author of "The Man With The Golden Arm," gave his new book its title after hearing the song "Wild Side Of Life", which Ives has recorded on Decca.

R & B Disk Jockey Assn Meets In Chicago

CHICAGO-The National Jazz and Rhythm and Blues Disk Jockey Association met last week at the Hotel Sutherland, this city, on May 18, 19, and 20.

It is reported about 60 disk jockeys from all over the country attended, in most cases each jockey acting as a representative for a number of others in his area who were unable to get away.

With the exception of one meeting on Saturday, all business was con-ducted behind closed doors.

It is reported that about 25 representatives of record companies, booking agencies and publishers were present at the open meeting. Questions flew thick and fast as to how everyone in the record industry could help each other.

Misunderstandings on both sides were brought out into the open and, at least to some extent, settled then and there.

The upshot was a reaffirmation on both sides that the deejays need the record manufacturers and in turn the manufacturers need them.

A major complaint from the deejays seemed to concern not receiving records from the manufacturers.

Also discussed were: stronger backing by the deejays of large dances or ing by the deejays of large dances or shows in their towns; the necessity for more cooperation of Negro artists with reference to appearing on deejay programs; cooperation by the deejays in playing the records sent them. At the close of this session, the feel-ing was generally apparent that get-ting together was of definite mutual advantage to all concerned.

600 Photos To Autograph

BOSTON—Alan Dary, Boston dj, played Vicki Young's Capitol release of "Let There Be You" three consecu-tive times a week ago and mentioned that autographed photos would be sent to those who wrote in. Over 600 re-plies were received within a week and Vicki is still autographing the photos to each and every one to each and every one.

NEW YORK-Mitch Miller, Director of Popular Artists and Repertoire for Columbia Records, and Dean Hunter, WMGM disk jockey and conductor of the "Dean Hunter Show," will star in the fourth and final of the current popular music jamborees and discussions on Thursday afternoon, May 31st, at the Donnell Branch of the New York Public Library, 20 West 53rd St.

In addition to his role as Director of Popular Artists and Repertoire at Columbia Records, Miller occasionally doubles in brass as orchestra leader and oboe soloist on Columbia Pop Records. Mitch has had a large hand in making some fourteen disks hit the 1,000,000 mark—"Mule Train" and "Lucky Old Sun," by Frankie Laine on Mercury and on Columbia Laine's "Jezabel" and "I Believe;" Guy Mitchell's "My Heart Cries For You;" Tony Bennett's "Because Of You," "Cold, Cold Heart" and "Rags To Riches;" Rosemary Clooney's "Half As Much," "Come On-a My House," and "Hey There;" Johnnie Ray's first recording for Columbia, "Cry." Others selling over a million copies are Doris Day's "Secret Love," Percy Faith's "Song From Moulin Rouge," and Jo Staf-ford's "Make Love To Me." Mitch's Christmas 1952 record, "I Saw Mommy Kissing Santa Claus" sung by 12-year-old Jimmy Boyd, sold over two million disks. Mitch also produces the Little Golden Record series for Simon & Schuster. ## Homecoming Day

COLUMBUS, IND.—It was Homecoming day in Columbus, Indiana, as Capitol Recording stars, The Four Freshmen, played to a packed 8,000 house in the old home town. The Freshmen recently completed a tour as part of the Nat Cole-June Christy-Ted Heath package. Serving as unofficial greeter, Vic Knight, popular spinner with WXLW, Indianapolis, welcomes The Freshmen. Left to right, Ken Albers, newest member of the quartet, Don Barbour, Donna Barbour, (welcoming her daddy) Ross Barbour, Knight, and Bob Flanigan. The Barbours spent their childhood in Columbus, Flanigan in Greencastle, Indiana. The boys were hosts to the entire cast and friends at Ross' new Columbus home, following the show.

Decca Gets Heavy Response In Window Display Contest

NEW YORK-The window contest being sponsored for dealers by Decca Records has already resulted in more than a thousand window commitments from all over the country. Additional pledges come into the Decca offices every day. The contest, which only went into effect on Friday, May 25th, is expected by Decca brass to be the most extensively participated in in the history of the company.

A Doll Raccoon

NEW YORK-Mrs. Shimpei Nakayama, wife of the late Japanese pop songwriter, is shown presenting George R. Marek, RCA Victor vice president in charge of albums, with a doll raccoon for Eartha Kitt in honor of her "The Hungry Raccoon" disk which sold over 200,000 copies in Japan. Mr. Nakayama was the author of the song and he wrote exclusively for the Japaneese Victor label which used to be affiliated with the U.S. company.

Prestige Signs Moondog

NEW YORK—Bob Weinstock of Prestige Records has added his first non-jazz artist to his talent roster. A three-year contract was recently non-jazz artist to his talent roster. A three-year contract was recently signed with the highly publicized mu-sician, Moondog. Moondog will have complete control over the choice of material and musicians in a series of 12-inch LP's to be prepared for the label. A re-mastering of Moondog's music previously issued on his own private label will appear on Prestige in three weeks.

In the jazz department, the multi-talented Gil Melle has recorded his first sides for Prestige featuring his quartet under his new two-year con-tract. The quartet's first album will include Melle's compositions and ar-rangements which he describes as ex-amples of his concept of jazz, Primi-tive-Modern. One of the tunes is entitled, "Dedicatory Piece to the Geo-physical Year 1957".

Weinstock announced that the Gil Melle Quartet will continue to record as a unit and use other Prestige artists such as Phil Woods for guest appearances.

Pop Weinstock, the diskery's sales manager, has headed out to the Mid-west on a general promotion tour.

Prestige also announced the addition of Choice Distributing this week, which will handle the complete Prestige line for Kansas City, Des Moines and Omaha.

Rainbow Signs Four

NEW YORK-Eddie Heller, prexy of the Rainbow label, this week announced the signing of four new acts to recording pacts.

The four include the Myra Sisters, a rock and roll group from Philadelphia; the Startones, another rock and roll singing group; Melino and his Orchestra, a cha cha band well known to visitors of the Grossinger Hotel in New York; and a new singing find, Dottie Forbes.

Markevitch To Tour U.S. in '56-'57 Season

NEW YORK—As a result of his phenomenal success in Boston last Spring, prominent European conductor Igor Markevitch was invited to appear at the helm of this country's major orchestras throughout the Summer and thru most of next Winter. At present, the Decca Gold Label artist is slated for appearances in Philadelphia, Chicago and the Hollywood Bowl during July; in Montreal on four dates in November; St. Louis, New York and Cleveland in December; Havana from Jan. 7 through the 27; Montreal, San Francisco, Boston and Providence in February and then back to Montreal in March.

Markevitch was praised for his recordings of Mussorgsky's "Pictures At An Exhibition", Berlioz' "Sym-phonie Fantastique" and many others in which he conducted the Berlin Philharmonic Orchestra. Markevitch's renewed visit to the U.S. is, in the true sense, the result of public demand and is sure to create great interest in his works when he arrives here.

Markevitch is the first of a number of Decca Gold Label performers who will come to the U.S. during the '56-'57 season. He will be closely followed by: Wolfgang Schneiderhan, German violinist, who will make his U.S. debut in October; Irmgard Seefried; the return visit of soprano Maria Stader; and Dietrich Fischer-Dieskau.

Also of great interest is the impending two-month visit of the Berlin Philharmonic Orchestra.

Haley To Tour Europe in '57

NEW YORK-Pat Boone, has been signed by William Wyler to sing a special song behind the main title of the $3,000,000 Allied Artist film, "Friendly Persuasion," produced and directed by Wyler and starring Gary Cooper, Dorothy McGuire and Marjorie Main.

Randy Wood, president of Dot Rec-ords, announced that Boone will fly to Hollywood from New York for record-ing sessions under the supervision of Dimitri Tiomkin, musical director of "Friendly Persuasion."

Boone signed an exclusive record-ing contract with Dot Records in 1955. In the space of one year he cut five sides on the Dot label and sold over 4,000,000 records. His latest releases are "I'll Be Home" and "I Almost Lost My Mind." Boone regularly appears on the CBS-Godfrey Show.

New Hibbler, Sherwood LPs

NEW YORK-Decca Records has announced the release of two new 12inch vocal albums. "Starring Al Hibbler", a collection of standards by the singer, is the only album on the market which features newly recorded tunes by Hibbler.

The second album being issued at this time is "Introducing Roberta Sherwood." Miss Sherwod, a veteran in the music business, has just recent-ly hit the "big time". After a good deal of publicity given her in syndicated columns, she was pacted by Decca several months ago. Since then she has been booked into several top clubs, and has made four guest appearances on "Stage Show" over CBS-TV. On these TV shots she has given exposure to most of the selections contained in the new album.

Prior to the release of the LP, Decca issued two singles by Roberta Sherwood. The latest, "Lazy River," is currently making noise in a number of territories.

THE FIVE KEYS (Capitol)

(Copitol) PEACE AND LOVE" (2:42) [Rush BMI—Chuck Willis] The Five Keys dwell on the state of the world and offer prayer as the means of cure. It is a serious message pre-sented in slow tempo against a soft humming background. May be too somber to capture the full market, tho we think it will find a strong accept-ance with certain phases of the buying public. public.

THM

"MY PIGEON'S GONE" (2:41) [Raleigh BMI — Davenport] A complete about face as to tempo and theme. This side takes off with a driv-ing beat and rocking treatment. Spirited wax for the jump crowd.

Ightly on a middle beat romantic bouncer. Pretty tune, catchy arrange-ment, good deck. "THAT'S WHY I DREAM" (2:46) [Progressive BMI—Samu-els, Feiler, Feiler] Hunter drifts tenderly through a slow melodic floater with an effortless treatment. Tuneful ditty with a touching lyric evertly ditty with a touching lyric expertly handled.

THE SONNETS (Herald 477)

(Herold 477) B "PLEASE WON'T YOU CALL ME" (2:30) [Buchanan BMI-D. Goodman] The Sonnets blend effec-tively on a middle beat romantic bouncer. The lads turn on all the ac-cepted gimmicks and the result is a pleasing wax. B UP" (2:00) [Buchanan BMI-D. Goodman] The Sonnets drive at a fast pace on this deck and come up with a deck that has lots of appeal and excitement. Good group and two better than average sides.

THE FOUR TOPS (Chess 1623)

(Chess 1623) "COULD IT BE YOU" (2:26) [Arc BMI-R. Davis] The Four Tops combine in good style as they chant the middle beat rhythmic num-ber with a cute romantic lyric. The boys are looking for the right girl who possesses all the qualifications. Good deck well done. "KISS ME BABY" (2:31) [Arc BMI-Davis] The Four Tops turn out a fast beat rocker with all the enthusiasm the item demands. Good treatment except that the embellish-ments have already adorned other recordings.

CHUCK HIGGINS (Dootone 396)

(Dootone 396) B "OH YEAH" (2:20) [Dootsie Wil-B liams BMI—Higgins] Chuck Hig-gins and his aggregation drive out a wild jump novelty in which the title represents the entire lyric. Deck has screaming horns, honky tonk piano and a gang shout "oh, yeah" scrambled up, and the result is a real wild hunk of wax. G "I NEED YOUR LOVE" (2:31) [Dootsie Williams BMI—Chuck Higgins] Chuck Higgins and his band present a slow bouncer blues on the flip that will appeal to a select market. Fair deck.

dle beat rhythm ballad. The number is expertly handled by Williams and should add impetus to his rise to stardom. It is a pretty item sung with feeling and backed with a gimmicked chorus support. There should be an immediate reaction to this side. The reverse end, "One Night Only," is a quick beat me-Night Only," is a quick beat me-lodic jump that will provide some exciting dance moments for the kids. It just bursts with tuneful joy and the teeners will get his mes-sage. However, for the side that will find its way into the charts it's "It's All Over." ELMORE MORRIS (Peacock 1660)

REVIEWS

"DARLING, DEPEND ON ME" (2:22) [Lion BMI-Robey, Wash-ington] Elmore Morris sings a slow blues with deep feeling. Morris warmly offers the love tune with a resulting ok etching.

JAMES BROWN (Federal 12264)

"I FEEL THAT OLD FEELING COMING ON" (2:29) [Armo BMI -Knox, Scott] James Brown really sells in this etching. He throws himself heart and soul into this middle beat rocker. A shouty reading assisted by some wild orking adds up to a pretty torrid side. Good jump deck

(B) "I DON'T KNOW" (2:43) [Armo BMI—Brown, Terry] Slow beat with a spiritual feeling. Simple back-ing and shouty lead and rocking vocal answer. Exciting wax.

DAVE BARTHOLOMEW (Imperial 943)

B<sup>"WOULD YOU"</sup> (2:00) [Reeve BMI — Augustine, King] Dave Bartholomew chants a slow beat bouncing melodic pleaser with an effortless vocal. Mellow item given a rocking treatment.

B "TURN YOUR LAMPS DOWN LOW" (2:05) [Reeve BMI-Bartholomew, King] Bartholomew turns on the fire on the flip as he rocks out a middle beat jump with enthusiasm. Good Lindy side.

MARY EDWARDS/THE SAXONS (Meteor 5031)

B "CHILLY WILLY" (2:27) [Met BMI-Edwards, Leslo] Mary Ed-wards dishes up a middle beat jump in an easy vocal effort. Deck moves with sprightly effect and the kids can hen to it hop to it.

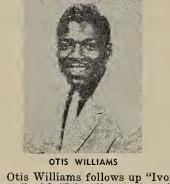

• "OH! OH! MAMA" (2:56) [Met BMI-Edwards, Leslo] Miss Ed-wards chants a middle beat bouncer with a cute lyric built around mama's efforts to control her teener daughter.

FATS GAINES

(Authentic 701)

B "KATY LEE" (1:49) [Dootsie Williams BMI—Fats Gaines] Mac Burney sings a southern blues of a middle beat tempo. The chanter wails in strong manner against potent ork support by Fats Gaines. Ok deck.

(2:45) [Dootsie Williams BMI-Nap Henry] Nap Henry handles the vocal on this deck, a slow blues balad, Slow, moody blues.

"IT'S TOO LATE" (2:34) [ Rush BMI-Willis] "KANSAS CITY WOMAN" (1:58)

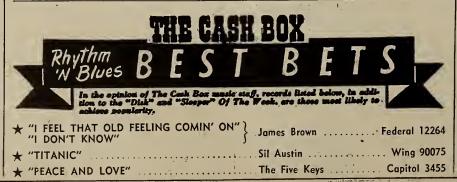

[Rush BMI-Willis]

CHUCK WILLIS (Atlantic 1098)

CHUCK WILLIS • Chuck Willis comes up with one of his strongest pieces of material on his first Atlantic release, "It's Too Late." Willis, always a threat who somehow never made it beyond territorial success, is riding with a beautiful, slow paced melodious offering that will move listeners of any market. It is a lacelike drifter further emboidered by the use of the celeste. We think Willis has his first national hit-and we think it first national hit—and we think it is of the type that will make its impact the pop market. The flip, "Kansas City Woman," is a fast beat rhythm piece that Willis belts with enthusiasm. Infectious and happy piece of wax. Willis pulls out all the stops and rocks. Good deck not to be overlooked, but for the long pull we look to "It's Too Late."

[Reeve BMI-E. Freeman] ERNIE FREEMAN (Imperial 5391)

• Ernie Freeman, who has built a strong audience on the basis of his past two releases, "Jivin' Around" and "Lost Dreams," will no doubt be given a hearty welcome with this newest two-sider, "Rainy Day" and "Funny Face." "Rainy Day" is a slow paced moody piano offering depicting a blue feeling and a leaden sky. The flip, "Funny Face," brings an abrupt change in the sprightliness of treatment, the joy of lifted spirits, and Freeman sprays notes hither and yon with abandon. Two good sides, either of which may become Freeman's third successive hit.

THE DAPPERS (Groove 4G-0156)

B "THAT'S ALL, THAT'S ALL, THAT'S ALL" (2:32) [Sylvia BMI-Rudy] The Dappers blend effectively on a slow paced ballad pretty. Silken voiced lead sings softly against the deep voiced accompanying chant. Easy to listen to side.

"UNWANTED LOVE" (2:24) B [Sylvia BMI-Rudy] The Dappers again wax sweetly on the flip. It is a slow, drifting type love ballad. Relaxed listening.

IOHNNY BIRD ORCHESTRA (Groove 4G-0155)

"22 MINUTES" (2:20) [Conley B Music BMI—Slay, Crewe] Just 22 minutes from his house to hers and she's preparing a very tempting menu for him. It's a quick beat jump rocked out by Miss Lillian Childs with a happy treatment.

"THE LAST LAUGH WILL BE B ON YOU" (2:40) [Conley BMI-Slay, Crewe] Mr. Blues handles the vocal chores on this deck. It is another fast beat jump that will keep the kids hopping. Deck moves with sprightly abandon. Two good teener sides.

BOB DOUGLAS/RHYTHM ACES (Ace 518)

"LOOK WHAT YOU'VE DONE" B (2:01) [Ace BMI - Escude, Caruso] Bob Douglas wails a slow beat blues in which he begs his baby to come back to him. Full voiced chanter does a fine job and it could appeal to both markets.

"ROCK & ROLL MARCH" (2:10) B [Ace BMI—Matassa] The Rhythm Aces back with a very listenable and pleasurable middle beat rhythm instrumental side. Ok coupler.

BILLY BLAND (Old Town 1022)

€+ "CHICKEN HOP" (2:37) [Maureen Music BMI-B. Bland] Billy Bland drives out a quick beat jump novelty with a country flavor and exciting treatment. Happy sounding rhythm piece with very strong commercial sound.

"OH, YOU FOR ME" (2:41) B [Maureen BMI-B. Bland] Bland etches a fast beat jump on the flip and turns in another exciting performance. Another top drawer deck that the chanter lends his particular brand of chanting.

SIL AUSTIN (Wing 90075)

"TITANIC" (2:42) [Hartsdale B+ Music BMI-Austin, Irving] Sil Austin and his wild aggregation turn in a screaming, screaming side that makes it impossible to maintain your equilibrium while listening. Deck will find favor with the younger, stronger nerved set.

"SIL'S GROOVE" (2:23) [Jim B Jam Music BMI—Austin, Irving] A similar instrumental etching of a milder, tho by no means soft, approach. Deck features the wild, searing sax. Two sides for the teener set.

BOBBY LEWIS (Spotlight 397)

B "YOU EVEN FORGOT MY NAME" (2:40) [Merrimac BMI-Raleigh, Edwards] Bobby Lewis wails a pop styled ballad blues with great emotion and easy to listen to vocaling. It's the story of an unhappy love affair set to a slow paced melodic frame. frame.

B "SOLID AS A ROCK" (2:44) [Merrimac BMI—Lewis] Lewis chants a quick beat bouncer with a spiritual flavor. Lewis proclaims the solidity of his love. Spirited waxing.

CINCINNATI CUT-UPS

We are getting ready for the Ozark Jubilee Gang to visit us this week for a big show at the Taft Theater on Thursday night. We understand that Red Foley (Decca), Marvin Rain-water (MGM), Wanda Jackson (Dec-ca), Porter Wagoner (RCA), Pete Stamper and just about all the folks from the great TV show will be on hand. . . Although no official word has been received from Nelson King, we understand that the Country DJ Association will hold their annual meeting at Springfield, Mo. and be the guest on Ozark Jubilee on June 14th, 15th, and 16th. . . The Geer Sisters and Clay Eager worked Eddie Ruton's Hillbilly Park this week end along with Jimmie Williams and the Bower Sisters. . . The Davis Sisters (RCA) worked the Brown County Jamboree at Bean Blossum, Ind., Sat. May 19th.

Rusty & Doug Kershaw the brother singing team on the Hickory label are singing team on the Hickory label are making their first appearance on WWVA's World Original Jamboree, on Sat. May 26th. Mr. Paul Meyers tells us they will be a regular on the show. Their latest release is "Hey, You There"... Lee Moore & Juan-ita will be off to Nova Scotia and New Brunswick for two weeks' tour with Mac Wiseman. Lee's show will be on tape while he is away... Howard W. Meagle tells us that folks travel a combined distance of ten times around the world each Saturday night to see the "World's Original Jam-boree", according to a recent survey. around the world's Original Jam-boree", according to a recent survey. . . . # "Country Music Carnival" Sponsored By Country DJ Association To Be Held In Springfield, Mo. June 14, 15 & 16

SPRINGFIELD, MO .- The Country Music Disk Jockey Association announced last week that Springfield, Missouri, has been chosen by the board of directors as the site of the Association's first nationally promoted "Country Music Carnival and Summer Festival of America's Music." The dates announced are June 14, 15 and 16, and a full weekend of events is being lined up to entice Mr. and Mrs. Vacationing Public to visit the home of the "Ozark Jubilee." With Lou Black, Si Siman and other exec brass of the highly rated TV'er and its associated activities working closely with the officers and directors of the CMDJ Association, this first stanza is expected to be extremely successful.

The entire celebration will be pointed toward the public and, whereas the annual Nashville November caper is aimed strictly at the trade, and the yearly Meridian May goings-on is to the honor of one particular star, Jimmie Rodgers . . . the CMDJ Association hopes to make the "Country Music Carnival and the Summer Festival of America's Music" an annual affair strictly for the entertainment of all country music fans.

The site of the affair is to be moved yearly since the Association feels there are many who would never have the opportunity to witness such an all-star collection of country talent in one show. Two cities, recognizing the potential draw of such a show and its nationwide plugging by member disk jockeys have already put out feelers as to the availability of their towns for the 1957 fete, with one of the cities offering its municipal auditorium at a one dollar rental fee. The schedule of events is tentatively as follows:

The entire three-day period has been set aside for the first "Ozark Square Dance Jubilee" with square dance sets entering from all over the country. This Jubilee is to take place about 50 miles from Springfield in Marvel Cove. While the CMDJ Association has no connection with this feature, it is recognized as an attraction that will draw many visitors to Springfield on these dates; and Association member disk jockeys will be asked to plug this along with the rest of the Country music events.

The first big musical shindig will be the "Eddy Arnold Show" featuring Chet Atkins on Thursday night, telecast coast to coast on ABC.

On Friday night the CMDJ Association will present the "Country Music Carnival" at the Shrine Mosque. This will be the big show for the weekend. Top recording stars will appear in a planned program and all Country talent wishing to take part are being asked to contact Nelson King, president of the CMDJ Association.

Tickets for the Friday night "Country Music Carnival" will be scaled at a price which will enable everyone to see this all-star cast. Lou Black, general manager of Top Talent, who visited the Association meeting at Nashville last November, with the invitation to consider Springfield for this event, is offering his organization for the handling of advance ticket sales and other important details.

Ralph D. Foster, the man behind the scenes in all the Country Music activities at Springfield, has given the CMDJ Association assurance of complete cooperation from all Country Music personnel with Don Richardson who flacks for all the Crossroads TV Productions, handling future press releases from Springfield.

Red Foley, star of the Ozark Jubilee, will be asked to emcee the Friday night opus as well as appear as one of America's top country music personalities. Four of the country's leading recording stars have already assured the association of their desire to appear on the Friday night show and many more are expected to request a place in the line up. Since the public is going to pay, the association wants to give it the best possible line up of talent.

The program will be locked up on June 2d so that member jockeys can be advised of the final line-up of talent for the last two weeks of concentrated plugging on their respective programs. The CMDJ Association stresses the importance of talent contacting Nelson King at WCKY, Cincinnati, if they wish to appear on the show. All acts who are placed on the program will be notified and their spot on the show verified. No star or act will be extended written invitations due to the possibility of overlooking a person or group which might wish to participate. All will be welcome and an effort will be made to place all who apply before June 2nd.

Proceeds from the "Country Music Carnival" on Friday night will go into the treasury of the CMDJ Association for operating funds. What monies the Association has accumulated heretofore have come from dues and the Association banquet at Nashville. The banquet will not be held this year since the group voted at last November's meeting to schedule only the two days coinciding with WSM's annual CMDJ conclave, the feeling of the members being that a three-day leave of absence at that time of year was pretty hard to come by.

The "Summer Festival of America's Music" will wind up Saturday night following the regular Ozark Jubilee Telecast from the Jewell Theater. For this show an attempt is being made to hold the house for visiting disk jockeys and their families, artists and others of the Country trade who are in attendance.

The only meeting scheduled for the entire period is the regular board meeting listed for Friday. Although no other organized gatherings of jockeys are set up, three major labels and two publishers have already inquired about space for entertaining and meeting the visiting spinners. All such inquiries should be directed to Lou Black, Jewell Theater Building, Springfield, Missouri.

The CMDJA hopes to announce a partial line up of talent and the ticket prices in the near future.

This event is going to be consistently plugged by all Country Music Disk Jockey Association members and it should result in droves of devotees descending on Springfield, Missouri, June 14, 15 and 16.

"YOU ARE THE ONE" (2:08) [Starrite BMI-Patterson] "DOORSTEP TO HEAVEN" (2:50)[Hill & Range BMI-Payne] CARL SMITH

(Columbia 21522; 4-21522)

• A steady record seller and hit maker through the years, Carl Smith dishes up a potent new double-decker that we can expect to be hearing day in and day out. On one end the chanter pleasantly glides over a melodic, quick paced romantic affair tagged "You Are The One". On the other half Smith changes the pace as he convincingly renders a tender, slow moving religious-flavored ballad labeled "Doorstep To Heaven". Both ends rank as hit contenders. Carl is at his best.

HANK THOMPSON & MERLE TRAVIS (Capitol 3440; F3440)

(Capitol 3440; F3440) • Here's a great opportunity for ops, dealers and deejays to cash in heavily on a two-sided natural. It spotlights Hank Thompson vocally on one end and instrumentally on the flip as he teams up with Merle "16 Tons" Travis on the latter side. Thompson follows up his cur-rent chart-rider "Blackboard Of My Heart" with a slight up-tempo, tear-compelling romantic piece tagged "You Can Give Me Back My Heart". On the other end the Brazos Valley Boys flavorfully back up both Thompson and Travis' stellar guitar pickin' on an infec-tious quick-paced item labeled "Weeping Willow". Two big win-ners here.

"TWENTY FEET OF MUDDY WATER" (2:05) [J. B. BMI—B. Smith] "ALL MIXED UP" (2:03) [Central BMI-S. James] SONNY JAMES (Capitol 3441; F3441)

 Sonny James, who broke into the winner's circle and whose terrific vocal talent was finally recognized by the public via his click waxing of "For Rent", comes up with another powerful platter that could make it two big ones in a row. could make it two big ones in a row. The songster tells us that he's gonna go down into "Twenty Feet of Muddy Water" not only to re-claim the ring that his sweetie threw away but to also prove that his is a true love. It's a middle beat, rhythmic blues item that could sail away up to the top. On the reverse half—"All Mixed Up," James waxes a romantic nov-elty jump tune that the hoofers are gonna enjoy. Delightful coupler.

"IT'S OK" (2:17) [Starrite BMI-Jones] "YOU GOTTA BE MY BABY" (2:30)[Starrite BMI-Jones] GEORGE JONES (Starday 247; 45-247)

• George Jones, whose "Why Baby Why" and "What Am I Worth" helped make him a big factor in record sales comes through with another pair of chart contenders that should further increase his wax popularity. On one lid the warbler tastefully fashions an inviting bouncy, multiple-track, nov-elty weeper titled "It's OK". On "You Gotta Be My Baby" Jones sends up another fetching vocal job as he runs through a fast-paced romantic ditty with tantalizing lyrics. Colorful instrumental support on a 'pick-em' pairing.

FRED WAMBLE

(MGM 12261; K12261)

B "SINCE MY TRUE LOVE SAID GOODBYE" (2.30) [Acuff-Rose BMI—James, Hollingworth] The mel-low tones of Fred Wamble come over in top drawer manner as he sends up a touching, moderate tempo romantic weeper. A first quality waxing that should latch onto many sales and spins.

B "LET'S DON'T WAIT" (2:03) [Acuff-Rose BMI—Wamble-Gib-son]. This half Wamble takes hold of a catchy, up-beat love cutie and wraps it up attractively.

MONTANA SLIM

(Decca 29942; 9-29942)

B "I'M RAGGED BUT I'M RIGHT" (2:12) [Peer Int'l BMI-G. Jones] Montana Slim, ably supported by the Anita Kerr Singers, wonderfully paints the picture of a 'ramblin' gam-bler' who is, at the same time, a good home-lovin' man. It's a quick paced etching that could really step out.

THE YODELIN' SONG" (2:21) B [Copar BMI-W. Carter, W. Jones] On the bottom lid Slim (Wilf Carter) spins an intriguing, up-beat rhythmic piece in a rock 'n roll-yodel fashion. B

CASEY CLARK

(Sage and Sand 220; 45-220)

B "LOST JOHN" (2:10) [Sage & Sand BMI-Arr. B. Brownie] Casey Clark and the Lazy Ranch Boys brightly showcase Barefoot Brownie's delectable delivery of this quick-paced novelty platter.

B "POT OF GOLD" (2:15) [Sage & Sand BMI-Williams, Emmons] On this end Herb Williams grabs the vocal spotlight and is warmly support-ed by Casey and the boys as he ex-pressively portrays a feelingful, mid-dle-beat lover's ballad. Two good sides that should garner the sales and spins aplenty.

EDDIE NOACK

(Starday 246; 45-246)

(FOR YOU I WEEP" (2:45) [Starrite BMI-Noack]. Eddie No-ack handles the vocal efforts in first rate fashion as he puts a great deal of feeling into his waxing of this tear-ful, middle-beat lover's ballad.

"YOU DONE GOT ME" (2:06) [Starrite BMI-Noack] Under slicing is a dandy, quick-beat love nov-elty that Noack turns out in enjoyable style. Tasty biscuit that bounces along in a light-hearted manner.

DUSTY OWENS AND DONNA DARLENE

(Admiral 1000; 45-1000)

B "ONCE MORE" (2:35) [Dea BMI-D. Owens] Dusty Owens and Donna Darlene team up in standout fashion as they neatly perform this heart rending, moderate tempo ro-mantic ballad. The Rodeo Boys lend OK support on a deck that should win its way onto the turntables.

• "IT'S GOODBYE AND SO LONG" (2:10) [Hill & Range BMI-R. Couture, H. Breau] Here the pair wend their way through a fast-paced romantic opus in ear-pleas-ing style ing style.

BILLY WALLACE

(Mercury 70876; 70876x45)

"THAT'S MY REWARD" (2:20) [Alpine BMI — Wallace] New-comer Billy Wallace turns in a grade "A" debut for the diskery as he dis-plays his distinctive vocal styling on a haunting, fast paced blues biscuit. His Bama Drifters lend a striking in-strumental assist. Loads of potential here. here.

B "WHAT'LL I DO" (1:48) [Green Hills BMI-B. Wallace] On the lower deck Wallace, strongly support-ed by the Drifters once again, effec-tively renders a quick-paced lover's weeper. Both ends and the artist bear watching weeper. I watching.

PECK TOUCHTON

(Sarge 132: 132-45)

C "THEN I FOUND YOU" (2:13) [Tree BMI—P. Touchton] Peck Touchton comes up with a moving vocal effort on a moderate paced ro-mantic ballad with heartwarming ly-rics. Soft, subdued musical backdrop supplied by the Sunset Wranglers.

"YOU'VE CHANGED YOUR TUNE" (2:39) [Tree BMI-P. Touchton] This side Touchton entic-ingly waxes an appealing, up-tempo romantic piece that should win a fair share of the airplay.

TENNESSEE JIM and his HILLBILLY PLAYBOYS

(Choice 846; 45-846)

• "HANGING MY TEARS OUT TO DRY" (2:19) [Shelter BMI-J. McDonald] Tennessee Jim is joined by his Hillbilly Playboys vocally and instrumentally on their waxing of this heartfelt, quick paced romantic weener weeper.

• "DON'T STEAL HER" (2:16) [Shelter BMI-J. McDonald] On the botton portion Jim tells the guy with the phoney promises to keep away from his bride-to-be. It's an-other up-tempo etching that Jim and the gang wax in interesting fashion.

SANFORD CLARK (MCI 1003; 45-1003)

B "LONESOME FOR A LETTER" [Desert BMI—T. & T Ol'ier] San-ford Clark's enchanting vocal stylings show up to good advantage as he etches a fast paced love item that bears close watching. Could attract loads of attention.

"THE FOOL" [Debra BMI-N. Ford] Clark comes up with an-other captivating performance, this time on a moderate tempo sentimental piece. Two strong sides for Clark.

DICK WILLIAMS

(RCA Victor 20-6523; 47-6523)

(2:20) [Piedmont ASCAP—A. Korb] The splendid baritone voice of Dick Williams is a treat to the ear as he comes through with a polished per-formance on a meaningful, fast-paced piece with a religious flavor. Socko piece with a religious flavor. So choral and instrumental support.

'ROCK HEARTED (2:04) [E. B. Marks BMI – J. Thomas] This end is an engaging, rhythmic rocker that Williams re-vives in money-making style. Should make the boxes jingle. MAMA'

FRANKIE MILLER

<sup>(1)</sup> "DAY BY DAY" (2:27) [Ridge-way BMI—T. Raye] Frankie Mil-ler comes up with a potent etching as he performs a moderate beat lover's lament with utmost sincerity. Lovely wedding of melody and lyrics.

"I DON'T KNOW WHY I LOVE YOU" (2:15) [Hill & Range BMI -C. Walker] On the lower portion Miller smoothly grooves a sprightly, up tempo romantic ditty in easy-on-the-ears fashion. Two good showings.

JIMMY WILLIAMS (Sacred)

(MGM 12262; K12262)

ALPHA AND OMEGA" (2:13) [White Oak B M I — Grieshop, Stier] Smooth-toned Jimmie Williams tells us that "He's Alpha and Omega, He's the beginning and the end. He's GOD." An inspiring, quick paced sa-cred item that could develop into a big seller in the market.

B "WHERE WILL I SHELTER MY SHEEP" (2:08) [White Oak BMI—Grieshop, Stier] On this end Williams slows down the pace as he puts across a comforting message in warm, rich fashion. A fine two-sider that should easily please the bible belt enthusiasts.

The Honorable Frank Clement, Governor of Tennessee, and stars of the 'Grand Ole Opry', made the music headlines in New York this past week. Clement and the Opry stars, which included "Cousin'" Minnie Pearl, Carl Smith, June Carter, Chet Atkins, Ferlin Huskey and String Bean, were guests at the annual meeting of the Radio and Television Executives' Society at the Hotel Roosevelt, May 21st. The opry unit put on one of their wonderful shows, typical of what is seen and heard every week in Nashville, while guest speaker Clement spoke on his great love for Country music as well as the Opry. On hand for the afternoon's festivities were WSM officials Jack Stapp, John Dewitt, Bill McDaniel and Jim Denny, among others.

The May 26 Grand Ole Opry spectacular on ABC-TV drew its theme from the typical American scene in the springtime, that of an old-fashioned picnic and barbecue. The show featured Grand Ole Opry artists Roy Acuff, Johnny & Jack, Kitty Wells, Anita Carter, Rod Brasfield, Minnie Pearl, Jimmy Dickens, Ray Price, and George Morgan. The DeMarco Sisters, Decca record-ing artists, were the special guests along with the Junior Kentucky Briar-bonners hoppers.

Don Larkin and Lyle Reed, WAAT country and western disc jockeys, will present three C & W roundups at the Mosque Theater, Television Center, Newark in the next four weeks. . . Webb Pierce, Red Sovine, and Roy Clark will appear on June 3; Lefty Frizzell and his contingent of hillbilly music stars, on June 22; and Roy Acuff with the Smokey Mountain Boys, Kitty Wells, and Johnny and Jack, on July 7th.

Larkin is heard on the "Hometown Frolic", Mon-Sat, 7:45-9 A.M. and 1:05-3 P.M., while Reed is the host of WAAT's "Night Time Frolic", Mon-Sat, 7:05-8 P.M. and the "Sunday Frolic", 9:05-11 A.M. and 1:05-3 P.M. . . . Larkin and Reed have been presenting the top names in personal appearances at the Terrace Room of the Mosque Theater for the past two years.

Vita Records this week released their first waxing in the country and western field. Larry Mead reported great reception to the first disc which features Smiley Monroe and the Sandovals on "Paul Bunyan Love".

LEFTY FRIZZELL OUT this week. Bill sings "Rockin' & Rollin' Western Roundup" "Definition Of Love" and "Work, Work, Work" by Bill & the Cowboy Ramblers is gaining more and more attention each day. Ferlin Huskey (Capitol) this week received an invitation from Core Millor Ferlin Huskey (Capitol) this week received an invitation from Gene Miller, Program Director at WNOX, Knoxville, Tennessee, to attend a celebration in honor of Lowell Blanchard's 20th year as producer of the WNOX "Mid Day Merry-Go-Round" and the "Tennessee Barn Dance". During his 20 years as producer of the two shows, Blanchard has set an outstanding record of first-class programs which are great favorites in the East-Tennessee area, Huskay said Huskey said.

Word was received this week that Steve Stebbins of the Americana Cor-poration, Hollywood, has recently added Ekko Recording artists The Cochran Brothers to their roster of talent. Stebbins had the duet into Meridian, Miss., last week for the Jimmie Rodgers Day Celebration plus their regulars Lefty Frizzell, Gary Williams. The Cochran Brothers cur-rently have a new release which is causing much talk. Titles are "Tired and Sleepy" and "Fool's Paradise".

LONNIE BARRON

Como Show.

Big Jim Hess, Knoxville Country Music promoter and deejay at WIVK, has just returned from a visit through the Southern states where he has been pro-moting the new Babs and Floyd RCA Victor recording of "Giggle Box". Tune is published by Knoxville, Tenn. pubbery, Valley Publishers, headed up by Jack Comer Comer.

Johnny F. Dolan, publicity chief at the Big "D" Jamboree in Dallas, Texas, informs us that Hank Locklin (RCA Victor) and Charline Arthur (RCA Victor) have just completed a successful tour through Canada. Dolan also reported that Big "D" topper Ed McLemore and Sun Records Prexy, Sam Phillips made the jump into New York on May 26th when Carl Perkins (Sun) made his appearance on the Perry

Red Foley (Decca) seems to have another one of those big, big songs with his current waxing of "A Hand Full Of Rice". Many say this will be one of the biggest tunes to come from the C&W field in some time. All eyes are on Foley and his "Hand Full Of Rice".

Jim Reeves (RCA Victor) just back from a very successful road tour according to word from his personal manager, Herb Shucher. Reeves is slated for the coast to coast NBC Prince Albert Portion of the Grand Ole Opry this month.

Sage & Sand recording artist and WDOG-Marine City, Mich., deejay Lonnie Barron notes that he and Okie Jones, also on the label, were in Missis-sippi for the Jimmie Rodgers Memorial Day activities. It was sort of a business-pleasure trip for Lonnie since his folks live just South of Meridian. Lonnie's new release for the Sage & Sand label is titled "Go On, It's OK" and "Don't Doubt My Love". Okie's first effort is tagged "Could You, Would You?"

* * * * * * Luke Gordon, star of "Town And Country Jamboree" in Washington and Starday recording artist recently dropped in to visit with George T. Popkins, "Pop's Country Store" on WXGI-Richmond, Va. . . . "Red" Swarr of Sage & Sand Records and fan clubs tells us that the Frontiersmen along with Joanie Hall (Sage & Sand) opened a new show and dance in Newhall, Calif. on May 5th and played to a turn-away crowd. The show and dance will be held every Saturday night at the American Legion Hall. Later they hope to have guest artists.

Mary Jane Johnson, formerly of Midwestern Hayride and now Town Hall Party in Compton, Calif. has announced her engagement to Bill Huber (non-pro). The couple plans to wed July 21st in Las Vegas.

Bonnie Sloan (Columbia) has left the Pee Wee King unit and has rejoined the cast at Town Hall Party. Also added to the cast at Town Hall is the Cochran Brothers.

Larry Dexter, who is at the present doing "Classics Country Style" and pushing his Republic Records is opening a Country Night Club in Jacksonville, Fla. and hopes to make a smash with the help of the other WRHC DJ's Georgie Riddle and Ted "Teddy Bear" Crutcheld Crutchfield.

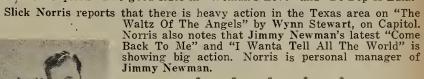

Crutchfield. Blue Hen records has added Hank King to their roster of artists, and his first release for the label bears the interesting titles of, "Atom Bomb Heart" b/w "I Want To Know". Both tunes were written by Cowboy Howard Vokes. Vokes would like to have all those disc-jockeys who are having a hard time getting records to please drop him a card or letter on their stations letterhead so he can add their names to his nation-wide DJ listing that is due out very shortly. Send to him, care of Vokes Music Publishing Co., New Kensington, Pa. Wynn Stewart's Capitol recording of "The Waltz

Of The Angels" has taken off to a flying start with raves and good deejay exposure coming from every direction. Exciting, new singer with a real commercial sound.

Curtis Gordon back in Mobile, Alabama after having been discharged from the U.S. Army on May 10th according to word from Mary Jane Adams of the Nashville Mercury Records office. Curtis records for Mercury.

There's definitely a new star on the horizon in the name of Bobby Helms who now has his first release for Decca on the market. Helms comes in strong with a fine one called "I Don't Owe You Nothing" and it's coupled with a real go-geter entitled "Tennessee Rock N' Roll". Watch this boy, 'cause he offers plenty as a young recording artist.

Speaking of new talent, there's another feller to look out fer-he's Gene Vincent on Capitol. Two good sides in "Woman's Love" and "Be-Bop-A-Lula."

* * * * * * Both Lester Flatt and Earl Scruggs have bought new ranch style brick homes next door to each other in the suburbs of Nashville. Benny Martin recently moved into a new home in the same vicinity. Faron Young will begin shooting another movie, this time in Eastman color, sometime during the month of June. The title of the film is "Stampede" and will be filmed in Kanab, Utah. The rest of the cast has not been completed.

COCHRAN BROTHERS

Jean Shepard has just released her first album for Capitol records. The title of the album is "Songs of a Love Affair" and was written especially for Jean.

Hank Snow and Chet Atkins have teamed together to make a record for RCA Victor entitled "Echoing Guitars" b/w "The New Spanish Two-Step." The top side is a tune written by Hank.

The top side is a tune written by Hank. Tom Edwards, WERE-Cleveland, Ohio tells everybody that he had a marvel-ous time the past week when he appeared as the guest deejay on the WWVA-Wheeling, W. "Balin' Wire" Bob Strack, KIMO-Independence, Mo., pens via his newsletter that he hears that "Gene Autrey is a-fixin' to pull the picket pin and drift away from that gum com-pany that's been sponsoring him for lo, these many years. No conflict is re-ported; it's just that Gene wants to be able to hit the road more often with his aggregation. He plans an extended tour of the rodeos for several months this coming summer." coming summer.

BOBBY HELMS

Ferlin Huskey this week mailed a special promotion "gimmick" to DJ's and operators calling attention to his release of "Aladdin's Lamp" and "That Big Old Moon". Huskey says the idea is the brainchild of one Simon Crum, and that it consists of a small, pressed sponge which unfolds when immersed in a glass of water. Purely an "Aladdin" trick, says Crum! *

Ray Price is set for a string of summer fair dates in the Eastern and Mid-Western states, according to his manager Al Flores. Price is currently the recipi-ent of much favorable attention with his Columbia disking of "Crazy Arms" and "You Done Me Wrong".

Simon Crum, alter-ego of Ferlin Huskey, this week threatened to release a "no-holds-barred" rock 'n roll item if interest in the style continues strong. He added that he would first have to get permission from Huskey who holds a somewhat strong iron grip on Crum's Contict contract Capitol contract.

TWO TUNES PER SIDE

ADDITIONAL PLAYING TIME

why a modern music system should program E. P. records . . .

Most "pop" tunes are released on 45 RPM singles. But, standard music on 45 RPM is available principally on Extended Play records. This standard music all-time favorites, show tunes, classics and varieties — is music the public wants to hear. By including it, you make sure there's "Music for Everyone."

makes proper programming profitable...

It takes longer to play a two-tune E.P. record than it does a single-tune record. The operator should be compensated for this additional playing time.

The Seeburg V-200 makes this possible. That's because the V-200 is equipped with a Dual Credit System that permits you to (1) program single records at one price and (2) Extended Play records at a proportionately higher price. That's why it's called the World's First Dual Music System.

Urge Diversified Operations As The Answer To:

MORE ASSURED INCOME TO MEET CONSTANTLY GROWING, INFLATED OVERHEAD EXPENSE

Specialized operating of any one type equipment is reported to lack income appreciation. It is no longer consistently profitable.

Leading operators have so advised this publication. This has been the same report for some years now. And this is the report that has been published here over these years.

Assured income of a profitable nature is now deterrently affected by continued and creeping inflation.

As inflation continues, overhead expense increases. Profits decline. Not due to decreasing income but, rather, due to a static income situation.

Operators who specialize in any one certain type of equipment usually build up the patronage for their machines to the highest possible peak on every location.

Once they have reached the highest possible patronage peak they are assured profitable and steady income.

But, in most cases, this happened before inflation started its constant, creeping, upward glide.

With income from their locations at the highest peak, and with creeping inflation causing constantly rising overhead expense, profits continue to decline.

This happens, after a period of time, even tho operators increase the cost of the play, institute new and more favorable commission percentage arrangements, front money guarantees, or any other profit seeking methods.

There is but one answer, leading operators claim. And that is complete operating diversification. In short, these operators now agree with this publication that the location, itself, is the most important factor in the profit equation.

If it is a good location, one they wish to retain, they must operate all the different types of machines the location requires.

By such diversification operators claim they are assured the maximum intake from each of their locations.

Many leading operators believe this is the one and only answer to continued, profitable operating.

They point out, should one type of equipment fall in weekly intake the probability is, provided the location maintains its constant traffic flow, other equipment will show up with an income increase.

In this fashion the operator who diversifies his equipment operation-wise has every opportunity of continuing ahead on a profitable basis.

Furthermore, leading operators advise, it no longer pays, from any standpoint, to invest their entire capital or replacement finances in just one type of machine.

They point to the modern type operation where music, pool and other games as well as vendors, are under one operating firm's banner in a growing number of locations nationwide.

The claim is also that certain equipment will help amortize other type machines.

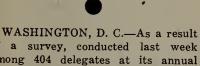

Diversified operating is the answer to more assured income to meet constantly rising, inflated overhead expenses.

Such is the belief of many leading operators nationwide.

What do you think?

NEW YORK—What can be con-strued as disheartening business news the past few weeks, as the reports come along about the auto manufac-turers laying off production work-ers, can be offset with the reports in the same period about the booming steel and construction businesses. It is obvious that reports on these ac-tivities are only temporary and peri-odic. Regardless of these fluctuations, what the future holds for business in this country can be visualized by studying the "Census Reports"—and it would take a hard-bitten, perpetual pessimist to predict anything else but pessimist to predict anything else but continued prosperity and good times for the great majority of the peoples in the United States. Robert W. Burgess, director of the Bureau of Census, in a talk here, looks for boom times to continue with each year due, to a great extent, to the continuous, prolonged and spectacular rise in the birth rate. Just from 1950, we have leaped from a nation of 150 million to a nation of over 167 million. Burgess lists five leading reasons for the baby boom: 1) Change in the attitude of young people toward large families; 2) Improvement in the relative earning power of younger 'workers; 3) Greater willingness of the parents of young couples to help support their children; 4)' Reduction in mortality rates; and 5) Absence since World War II of depressions or severe recessions. If the birth rate persists at the 1954-55 level, Burgess says there will be 228,500,000 people in America in 1975. It is predicted that the baby boom will compel an explosive expansion in all types of industries, services and trades. Home building, it is said, in the '60's will dwarf the boom of the '50's, because when the postwar babies start marrying in the '60's and having babies of their own, the demand for merchandise and services will be staggering. What does this all mean to the coin machine industry? Well, the more people available-of all agesmeans that all, from operators to manufacturers, have to meet a challenge to supply them with economical entertainment (coin operated equipment).

of a survey, conducted last week among 404 delegates at its annual meeting, the United States Chamber of Commerce reported that 42 per cent expect last half sales to exceed those of the first half. Another 24 per cent looked for sales to remain steady. Only 4 per cent forecast a slump. The rest did not hazard a guess.

Factory Engineers Search For: NEW AMUSEMENT MACHINES Burn Midnight Oil in Effort to See New Era Dawning Develop More New Equipment For Amusements Industry to Meet Operators' Emphasis on Better, More Intensive Requirements Merchandising Foreseen as Leading

CHICAGO—If any operators, any-where in the nation, doubt that the engineers of leading manufactories here aren't hard at work searching for new amusement game products, they had best change their minds, but wight quick. In fact, engineers are asking that operators contact them with any sug-gestions they may have regarding any new type equipment they desire. Every leading factory here is keep-ing its engineering force burning mid-night oil in an effort to meet operators' requirements

Demand for new products, such as the pool games, is well known here. Manufacturers have received loads of wires and letters from all over the country giving them this information. But such products, on loader

But such products, as one leader here points out, aren't just plucked out of the blue skies. As he stated, "It takes weeks and weeks of experimentation and develop-ment to bring an entirely new product to market."

Furthermore, not too many of the leading factories are going to pioneer new type equipment unless, of course, the operators thruout the nation will help them by purchasing samples so that the factories will quickly learn whether or not these are the products the public desires. A great many hand-made models of machines are received by the factories here each year.

Engineers tear these down and put them thru the tests necessary to learn whether or not they are fitted for national operation.

But regardless of the number of suggestions and hand models that are shipped in to various factories here, the engineers feel that even if any operator may think his idea or sug-gestion may be ridiculous, not to hesi-tate and to send it in to his favorite factory. "For," as one well-known engineer says, "this may prove to be just what the entire industry is seeking.

"Operators," he continued, "are out on the firing line. They know what their customers want. If they get an idea from what is happening on their routes they shouldn't hesitate to mail this in for it may prove to be just what they need to assure themselves better and bigger profits."

CHICAGO — "The emphasis from now on will be on better and more intensive merchandising," one well-known sales manager for one of the largest manufacturers here stated this past week, "rather than on seeing what volume can be reached in as fast a time as possible." This statement clearly brings to light the manufacturer's cognizance of what has just taken place for his, as well as for other factories, due to the extremely high-powered produc-tion made possible with the new and better automatic machinery and super-tion made possible with the new and better automatic machinery and super-efficient manufacturing methods. The manufacturers have learned that its present production facilities are sufficiently powered to quickly out-strip what used to be known as even "unusual" demand. When more than three factories take advantage of any one type product which may have reached a very definite stage of pop-ularity in the trade it doesn't take ularity in the trade it doesn't take very long before they saturate the market.

This has brought back the thought of specialization in certain type products which each manufacturer feels himself best fitted to produce. Should this come about, as many now believe that it will, pointing to certain manufacturers who have successfully adopted this course, there will be a more definite distinction in the trade concerning various products.

As one manufacturer has long put it "controlled production" may be the answer for the average coin machines producing manufactory. This should meet with the wholehearted approval of the operators. It would mean that they would be better assured of tradein valuation on whatever purchases they may make of any new type machines because volume would be controlled.

Whatever does finally result there is every indication at this time that a new era is dawning in the industry. This new era, it is believed, is sure to bring about better conditions for the wholesaler as well as for the operator.

Manufactories Find Present High

Powered Productivity Can Outstrip

Demand, More Products Specializa- tion Believed Ahead as Factories

Plan Production Schedules to Fit

Sales Potential

If the manufactories will place greater emphasis on better merchandising of their new products the operators will definitely be assured of getting finer service and closer cooperation while, at the same time, enjoying better relationships with the producer as well as the seller.

All this simply means, according to leaders here, that the operators are going to receive the finest, most respectful, kid-glove treatment of their careers.

This will also mean a better industry for all concerned. There is no doubt that better cooperation and more assured merchandising to the basic economic backbone of the industry, the operator, thereby more or less guaranteeing his well-being and future security, is the one surefire method of protecting and even enhancing markets for the future growth and progress of the industry itself.

SAN ANTONIO, TEXAS-Lou Sebastian, sales manager, Phono-Vend of Texas, distributors for Rock-Ola Manufacturing Corporation in this area, reports that L. H. Porter has joined the firm as sales representative and will cover the San Antonio and vicinity territory. Porter has had many years of experience in the business.

Sebastian advises that the addition of Porter to the staff will leave him free to do more travelling.

Coinbiz Leads CJA Amusements Division

Chairman Gil Kitt Reports Chicago's Coinbiz Division Has Passed'55Record

GIL KITT

CHICAGO—Gil Kitt, chairman of the coin machine division of Combined

Jewish Appeal in this city, reported this past week that donations already received have exceeded the 1955 mark by better than 20 per cent.

In 1955, when Kitt was named chair-man for the first time, he surpassed the former marks, as far as the coin machine division here is concerned, by better than 100%.

The Chicago coin machine division started off the very first day, May 18, with over $25,000 pledged to CJA.

Kitt also reported that the coin machines division has been responsible for better than 50% of all the monies raised for CJA by the amusements division in this city each year.

The amusements division is com-prised of motion pictures, motion pic-ture distributors, theatres, bowling alleys, and all other businesses featuring amusement.

Kitt also issued an appeal to all those in this area who haven't yet sent in their donation to contact him im-mediately.

Westchester Ops Guild Holds Fifth Annual Dinner-Dance

WESTCHESTER, N. Y. — The Westchester Operators Guild, Inc., held its Fifth Annual Dinner-Dance on Tuesday, May 22, at the 42 Club Restaurant in Scarsdale, N. Y.

The affair was one of the most successful ever run by the Westchester Guild and its attendance was one of the largest.

The Westchester Guild annual dinner has become known for its abundant gayety and minimum of speeches. This evening outdid all of the prior functions in the brevity of its talks and in the good time had by all. Malcolm Wein, attorney, introduced the guests, and Carl Pavesi, president, made a short speech of welcome.

A long line-up of recording talent provided a wonderful show and Don Joseph's orchestra rounded out the evening with a variety of dance tempos.

To be commended for the work which went into making this affair the success it was are Jimmy Smith, Lou Tartaglia, Malcolm Wein, Eddie Goldberg, Carl Pavesi, Max Klein, Meyer Budinoff and Seymour Pollak.

A large contingent of coinmen from outside the Westchester borders attended. From the New York State Operators Guild were Tom Gobels, president; Jack Wilson, past president; Gertrude Brown, Tom Greco. Representing the Music Operators' of New York were Al Denver, president; Sidney Levine, attorney; Lou Hirsch, Al Bodkin, and Ben Chicofsky. From the J. P. Seeburg Corporation were Jack Gordon, regional representative, and John Stuperitz, field engineer. AMI, Incorporated was represented by Marty Blatt, regional representative. From the Bally Manufacturing Company was Art Garvey, regional representative, and from J. H. Keeney & Co., Inc., Bill Boles.

On hand from the New York Games Association were George Holtzman, president; Teddy Blatt, attorney; and Claire Morano, business manager.

Local distributors and their parties also made up a large delegation. Runyon Sales Company was represented by Barney Sugerman, Abe Green, Morris Rood, Louis Wolberg, Jack Prigoff, and Irving (Kempy) Kempner. From Atlantic-New York were Meyer Parkoff, Murray Kaye, Nat Solow, Gordon Howard, and Gene Brody. Young Distributing was represented by Joe Young, Abe Lipsky, and Allie Goldberg. Mike Munves of Mike Munves Corp., and Dave Lowy of Dave Lowy & Co., were also present.

Assisting Ravreby in hosting the visitors will be Dick Mandell, general manager and Al Levine, sales manager, as well as the other nine staff members.

OIL CITY, LA.—Harry S. Lavine, this city, a member of the "Golden Circle" of the "20 Year Club", and who has spent over 53 years in the coin machine business, comes up with a great idea. "How about an 'Opera-tors' Day'", he suggests. "Without the operator the whole structure would collapse", he comments. His suggestion mode "Here about the operator the whole structure would collapse", he comments. His suggestion reads "How about the idea of an operators' day, to be recognized and honored by all affected in his efforts to carry on a business that is a great factor for their good. He is like Atlas carrying the Universe —the automatic phonograph, the au-tomatic amusement devices, the pho-nograph record makers, the finance companies, the manufacturers, the dis-tributors, the brokers; as well as the great number of merchants who profit greatly from these; the vast numbers of employees engaged in the above enterprises. RICHMOND, VA. - Jack Bess, president and general manager, Roa-noke Vending Exchange, Inc., with ofnoke Vending Exchange, Inc., with of-fices in this city, Bristol, Va., and Charleston, W. This phonograph will not be taken in as part of the deal by Roanoke, but the operator must donate it to some worthwhile organization such as a church, teen-age canteen, synagogue, youth center, etc., for the benefit of America's youngsters. The offer is for the next few months only.

A heat wave has opened up outdoor locations, four weeks late in the territory, and precipitated a big demand for equipment of all types. Local distribs were busy shipping pins, games, music and arcade pieces out this week. A shortage of used games is beginning to be felt here. Pool tables are going strong along with baseball games and guns in the beach, park and pool, roadside and arcade locations. Bob Jones, sales manager, Redd Distributors (Wur-litzer) reported biz so terrific this week that inventories are at the lowest ebb and scraping the bottom of the barrel to get orders filled. Exports biz, which has stepped way up at the Lincoln Street plant, has taken a lot of equipment out to Europe and South America. Bob is off this week on a trip around the territory to make trades and get some used equipment in. He reports biggest season on kiddie rides ever, far ahead of last year. Demand for guns, pool tables and games is rated "phenomenal." Activity on everything from music to in-line games has been bigger this week than in any like period for years. At Hill Amusement, Little Rock, Cecil was in his plush office with two radios and a tv set all going at the same time. Cecil was listening to and watching three ball games all at once. Harold Dunnaway was busy keeping scores while Red McNight was taking care of the customers. . . . Jimmy Wilson, in coins for seventeen years, has gone into business for himself. He was formerly with Western Sales, Little Rock. . . . C. H. Holmes, Western Sales, reports business good, and Haskel Person and Boots agree. . . . H. F. Bryant has moved his shop and office to his home. Says it's the only way he could think of to see more of his family.... Was unable to catch up with Dutch Yancy and J. D. Ashley. . . . Had a long talk with Mrs. John Lima, one of North Little Rock's top operators. She has almost all new equipment on her route. On the floor were three new Wurlitzer phonos she was getting ready for her route. . . . Robert Krispel out making collections. . . . Earl Gill, Hot Springs, Ark., out selling tickets to aid a worthy cause. Gill was happy to report his cigarette route was growing very fast and the music and amusement machine routes were also doing very well. . . . Asher Allison . Phil Marks, setting one more cigarette machine, which makes it 206. . Hot Springs, reports that despite the flash floods last February, winter business was good. . . . D. H. Faull, Hot Springs, in Memphis on a buying spree. . . . Rocky Jennings trying to make up his mind which of the new equipment to buy. . . . Saw C. O. Temple, Hope, at his party and he reported business good. . . . I. E. (Red) McCray and Jack were happy to report their cash boxes filled at each collection. . . . Business in Arkansas looks good for the coming warm weather season. The roads are already filling up with tourists, industrial conditions look promising as it appears to be a summer without strikes, and operators are buying new equipment to hype business. Almost every operator we speak to is very optimistic about the immediate future.

MR. MUSIC OPERATOR:

We have a very important message to bring to you at this time. That is my reason for writing you this letter. Some months past we introduced to you our Model G-80 and G-120 AMI phonographs. In the meantime, many of you have purchased some of these machines from us and have been happy with your operation of them. As you probably already know, we introduced at the MOA convention in Chicago recently the G-200 AMI as an addition to our line of fine phono-graphs. It was accepted by everyone present with the greatest enthusiasm and everyone commented that it is the simplest, most compact mechanism that has ever been produced by AMI or anyone else.

and everyone commented that it is the simplest, most compact mechanism that has ever been produced by AMI or anyone else. In the MOA meeting there was a great amount of emphasis placed on the operator as to public relations in his community and what could be done about them. In cooperation with you, as our AMI operator, we have come up with a plan that we believe will be of great value to you from the stand-point of public relations in your, community point of public relations in your community. This, Mr. Music Operator, is what we propose to do. For the months of June, July and August for each AMI 80, 120 or 200 selection phonograph purchased July and August for each AMI 80, 120 or 200 selection phonograph purchased by you and delivered during this period you will be given the privilege of trading any post war phonograph in good operating condition for a $50.00 allowance. And instead of delivering this trade-in to us, you will be given the privilege of donating this machine to any civic or fraternal organization or to any church, community project or other recognized public use that you may choose. The above trade allowance will be in addition to any other trade-ins that you may wish to make on your purchases. Or, if you prefer not to trade, you will be entitled to a cash discount on your purchases, or if you find it necessary to finance your purchases we are at your service as usual. usual.

Be sure to come in and see us during the months of June, July and August if possible. If unable to do so, phone, wire or write us how many Model G AMI's you wish to purchase. Our salesman for your territory will be calling on you as usual during this period.

I wish to take this opportunity of again thanking you for your past business and looking forward to doing business with you again soon. Yours sincerely,

Recession? NUTS! TRADE NEEDS AND WANTS NEW, BIG MONEY-MAKING MACHINES

Price be Hanged! What Really Matters is for the New Machine to Amortize the Investment Made in it and Show a Decent Profit Over a Reasonable Period of Time! No Established Operator in His Right Mind Wants Machines Priced So Low That His Territory Will be Flooded by New Blood Competition Who Will Operate Part-Time While Retaining Regular Jobs, Cut Commissions, Upset Play Action, Smash All Possibilities for Profit!

Recession? NUTS!!!

There is no more a recession in this industry than there ever was as long as anyone now alive can remember.

If there is existing today a general business recession, due to overstocked inventories and creeping inflation, it certainly isn't anywhere near as rough as the terrible depression of the '30's.

AND THIS INDUSTRY ACTUALLY GREW GREAT DURING THE TERRIBLE '30's!!!

There is nothing that a hit machine won't cure for the whole industry!

That's just what's needed!

A BIG MONEY-MAKING MACHINE!

A better machine. A different machine. A MONEY-MAKER!!!

Price be hanged! All those men who talk "low price" are the very same men who will yell bloody murder should a hit machine come to market at so low a price it will flood their territories with new blood.

New blood that will operate part-time. That will cut commissions. That will upset play action. That will smash all possibilities for profits for a long, leng, long time to come.

Every single established operator in the nation knows this to be true. Every single operator must protect his livelihood. Must safeguard the tremendous investment he now has in his business.

Every operator knows that THE ANSWER is in a brand new, different, better, big hit, MONEY-MAKING machine.

Price be hanged! What really matters is for the new machine, whatever it will be, to amortize itself and show the operator a DECENT PROFIT over a reasonable period of time. THAT'S WHAT COUNTS!

The coin machines potential sales market of 1956 is the biggest in all the history of the industry. What's more there are less manufacturers than ever before. In the depressed '30's this market wasn't even one-tenth the present size. There were forty times more manufacturers.

The coin machines market of 1956 is gravy. It's honey. It's the grandest, greatest, financially big market that there has ever been in all the long history of the industry.

It's a hungry market. It must have new and better and bigger money-making machines. THAT'S THE ANSWER. New, better, bigger money-makers!

Price never did count. Never will count. During the days of the $35 pin games, the late Ed Pace introduced a console called "Paces Races". He absolutely floored everyone present at that old-time coin machine convention when he said, "My price is $500.00". Operators howled. They laughed. "How in the world are you going to take in $500 worth of nickels?" they asked. "How many years will it take to pay for the machine?" they laughingly wanted to know.

But what happened? Those who had the courage, the fortitude and the foresight to buy a few of the machines and place them on location, came howling for more, more and still more. And "Paces Races" started a new era for the industry.

PROVING THAT PRICE DIDN'T MEAN A THING—as long as the machine could amortize itself and show a decent profit on the investment in a reasonable period of time.

Sure, some are going to say, "But, that was a console." What about guns? What about the Bowlers? What about in-lines? What about dozens of other machines that made just as much if not MORE for the operators?

It sure isn't price. It is, instead, a new, BIG MONEY-MAKING MACHINE that's needed.

And every single man and woman in the industry can help bring it about by advising their favorite manufacturers of what they think this machine should be.

From all these ideas, good, bad, mediocre, is sure to come the BIG MONEY-MAKING MACHINE.

THINK!

AMI Assigns Factory Trained Teams To 5 II.S. & Canada Districts

U.S. & Canada Districts of factory-trained men to five dis-tricts in the United States and Can-ada to assist music operators is an-nounced by E. R. Ratajack, Director of Domestic Sales for AMI Incorpo-rated, Grand Rapids, Michigan. A District Sales Representative and one or more Field Service Engineers are based in each of five areas to work closely with local operators on prob-lems affecting their business. "Operators in any section of the U.S. or Canada now can call on these experienced AMI field-based teams with the assurance of getting fast considerate attention", Ratajack said. "Under our new district plan, quali-fied men who live and work in the operator's area and know his local problems will be on call at all times for consultation and help. One of these men can be at the operator's door in a matter of hours ready to as-sit in any way possible." Tom Sams, district sales represen-tative, and field service engineer Eu-gene Wasson will continue as a team to work with operators on the Pacific Coast and Far West as they have in the past. Fied service engineers con-tinuing under the district plan are deorge Klersey in the Southeast and Henry Hoevenaar in the Midwest. Other experienced men added to provide the same top-notch service in all areas include: John Hickman, fiel service engineer in the South-west district, teamed with Albert Ma-son, recently appointed district sales representative. Mason will headquar-ter in Dallas; Hickman in New Or-eans. Both men will cover the terri-tory south from St. Louis to New Oreans and west to El Paso. Sales representative Arthur Daddis and field service engineer Martin Blatt are teamed to cover the North-east territory along the Atlantic Sea-board from Maine through Maryland and west to Buffalo. They will also cover portions of Eastern Canada and west to Buffalo. They will also cover portions of Eastern Canada and west to Buffalo. #### Franklin Sales Named Wurlitzer Distrib

NORTH TONAWANDA, N. Y.-Robert H. Bear, phonograph sales manager for The Rudolph Wurlitzer Company, this city, announced the appointment of Franklin Sales Corp. of Buffalo as distributor for the com-plete line of Wurlitzer coin operated phonographs and remote equipment. The appointment was effective May 15, 1956. Murry Sandow will be in charge of operations for Franklin Sales. A 25-year veteran of the coin machine business, he has had valuable experi-ence in the operating and distributing segments of the industry. Murry has been located in the Buffalo area for the past ten years and is well known by operators in the area. The distributorship is located in newly remodeled quarters at 265 Franklin Street in Buffalo. The show-rooms, service department and parts department are designed in a most modern and efficient manner and San-dow extends an invitation to all oper-ators in the area to drop in and meet his staff. Richard "Dick" McCann will head his staff.

Richard "Dick" McCann will head the service and parts department. He is completely familiar with the Wur-litzer phonograph line, having been associated with Wurlitzer distributors for a number of years. John Seuling, a familiar figure to operators in the Western New York area, has been added to the sales staff as part of the expansion of the firm in embracing the Wurlitzer phono-graph line. The territory covered by Franklin Sales includes nine Western New York and three Northwestern Penn-sylvania counties. Richard "Dick" McCann will head sylvania counties.

George Klersey, will cover Alabama, Florida, the Carolinas, the Virginias, and Tennessee. Klersey will work out of Miami. New district sales representatives for the Midwest is Eric Dyer who will be stationed in Grand Rapids, Michi-gan. He is assisted by field service engineers Henry Hoevenaar from Chicago and Monte West in Cincin-nati, covering areas in Michigan, Il-linois, Pennsylvania, Ohio, Minnesota, Indiana, Nebraska. Wisconsin, Ken-tucky and part of Central Canada.

We went to a party on Tuesday night, May 22. This was the wonderful 5th annual dinner and banquet of the Westchester Music Guild. Some 500 coinmen and their guests enjoyed themselves to the utmost, as they usually do at this grand affair, held by those grand people of Westchester. The officers and directors of this organization can now relax with the knowledge that their strenuous efforts for many weeks resulted in the most successful and enjoyable banquet ever held. We doubt if the organization made any profit as the dinner and entertainment was elaborate, and the price charged so small. But, as we're told, the main purpose is to give its members and friends an evening of sociability and enjoyment. And it couldn't have been more successful from this viewpoint.

What happened on coinrow? We didn't have too much space—but everyone doing well.... Sorry to report that Phil Simon, for whom many in this area donated blood, failed to survive the heart operation performed in Phila. Simon died on Friday, May 18, and was buried from the Bronx, N. "It's What's in THE CASH BOX That Counts"

H E WAS quite a salesman. The handsome, daredevil type. Fast with a buck. Quick-witted, charming, constantly smiling. As intelligent as they come. Ready for a gag, a fight, a bout with lady luck. Dressed in the very height of fashion. Knew every train and plane schedule to anywhere and everywhere.

Yet, for some reason or other, even though all admitted to his great sales ability, he had never yet been favored with "the big break", as he termed it. He earned very good money. Always did. But not "the big money". The kind of money he liked to think about. Even though he always gave the impression that he was raking in dollars by the armful.

Then, one day, "the big break" did come along. He didn't know it at the time. He was called long distance by a small manufacturer whom he'd heard about. This small manufacturer told him,

"I've got something I want you to see.

"In fact", he continued, "I'm sure this is right down your alley. This is the item you've always wanted to sell."

"Thanks a million", answered the salesman, "I'll be in your town sometime next week. Will that be okay?"

The small manufacturer told him that would be fine. So after ascertaining at what hotel the salesman usually stopped, the manufacturer murmured a polite goodbye and hung up.

By the time the salesman reached the town, he'd forgotten all about the small manufacturer. He was doing alright with his regular bread-andbutter line. He'd made some very good deals. Now he was ready for some fun and relaxation.

He phoned some of his customers to come on up to his hotel suite. These men, plus some of his favorites, passed the time very pleasantly.

He was awakened very early the next morning by the insistent ringing of his telephone. This irritated him, especially the way he felt, and the head he had. Furthermore it was much, much too early to be awakened. He'd only had a couple of hours of sleep.

It was the small manufacturer calling him. The salesman tried his best to snap awake. He fought his tired condition. He made every effort to sound just as energetic as ever.

They arranged an appointment at the factory. The salesman got up out of bed. He shaved, showered, dressed. He had room service bring him tomato juice and hot, black coffee. He began to feel somewhat like himself again.

He got into a cab and was driven out to the factory. He wasn't very impressed with the old, red brick building. He was even less impressed with the even older, small office and the lone girl who captained it. Or the old and worn leather couch he had to sit on, while the girl buzzed the back part of the small factory floor, trying to locate the manufacturer.

At long last the manufacturer came walking out. He was clothed in a greasy, long mechanic's coat. A butt of a well chewed cigar remained in his mouth while he greeted the salesman.

"Glad you came right over", said the manufacturer.

"I've got just what a good salesman like you wants and needs", he added.

The salesman was going to come up with a snappy answer, but thought better of it and, instead of saying anything, just smiled. He followed the manufacturer into an office marked "private".

While the manufacturer started to untie the cord about a small corrugated carton, the salesman looked about this private office. One well worn desk heaped full of bills, circulars, magazines and what not. A few rickety chairs. Some old pictures on the walls. A hat rack. One window. That was it.

The salesman thought to himself that he might as well get away from there just as fast as he politely could. No use wasting his time, he told himself.' He was pulled away from his quizzical mental contemplation by the voice of the manufacturer who said,

"Well, here it is", adding, "isn't it a honey?"

The salesman looked at a small boxlike instrument attached to a record turntable. He gazed at the manufacturer questioningly.

turer questioningly. "Now", said the manufacturer, "just pretend this turntable is a phonograph.

"Watch this", he eagerly added as he pressed a button and indicated the dropping of a coin through the chute.

He elatedly stated, "Look, an odd number record came up.

"Get it?" he asked the salesman. The salesman didn't get it. So the manufacturer explained. He advised that the player could place a side bet with the location or just bet the coin dropped into the phonograph and, before pressing the special button, guess whether the record that would play would be odd or even numbered.

"That's how simple it is", the manufacturer said, "but", he added, "here's the big opportunity for the music operators to earn some real money.

"As far as the music is concerned, the player gets his music. That takes care of value for the money. Another thing, the older players aren't too fussy about music. The kids, maybe, are music pickers. They like certain kinds of tunes. But the older guys, the guys with money, just like to have music playing.

"My 'Odd Or Even' unit will let operators take in plenty more money. The players can win and hear the music anyway. They can even make side bets. They have an even chance to win. Two for one on all side bets as well as on whatever coin is used to play the phonograph.

"If they use a dime", he went on, "they'll still get a tune and maybe get twenty cents back. If they use a quarter, and that's just what most of them will invest, they can pick two more tunes after the first one, if they lose or win.

"They don't lose out on the music", he concluded, "but, in the meantime, the operator gets more and a smart storekeeper gets plenty."

The salesman quickly saw the possibilities. But he controlled himself. He wanted to know what his deal was first.

After much talk, the salesman made himself a very great deal. He had to admit to himself it was "the big break".

He had the whole world as his territory. Exclusively his. He could appoint salesmen and distributors. He could sell operators and location owners. He could do anything and everything where sales were concerned. He was the sales boss for all the wide, wide world.

He dictated all this in a simple contract to the girl. After she typed it, both he and the manufacturer signed, each retaining a copy. They had a drink and shook hands wishing each other the greatest success. The manufacturer advised that, as soon as the salesman got him orders, he'd go into immediate, big scale production.

In the cab, with the small corrugated box in his lap, the salesman's mind worked at supersonic speed. First, he decided to himself, he would test the unit very thoroughly with a close music operator friend. Then, he thought, if it works out, why not take it to one of the really big manufacturers and get quantity production fast?

Before he even reached his hotel he became more and more enthused. He was mentally selling thousands of units each week. He was way ahead of tomorrow. He'd crossed all the bridges long before he reached them.

The very first thing he did was to call on his operator friend. They talked over the unit. Studied and discussed all the features and all the angles. The operator's head mechanic made the installation in a carefully chosen location. The salesman then left his operator friend with the statement,

"I'll call you every day from wherever I'm at on the road. Don't forget to give me a complete and detailed report of each day's action."

The salesman kept his word. Though he'd flown many miles away to another town to transact business, he phoned his operator friend bright and early the next morning.

"Sorry", said his operator friend, "it's too early. The location hasn't opened up yet. Better call me in the afternoon and I'll let you know just exactly what happened."

The salesman made his regular rounds. When he returned to his hotel he was given a handful of messages. Reading through them he found they were all from his operator friend. He had been trying to contact him every half hour by long distance telephone. The salesman became excited. Then fearful. Said he to himself as he dashed for his room to return the many phone calls,

"Hope nothing went wrong. Hope the unit's working alright. I wouldn't like to hurt such a good friend."

While waiting for the phone call to be put through, he kept smoking cigarette after cigarette. Took a couple of drinks to steady his nerves. He was now really worried.

At last he was connected. 'Before he could even say "hello", his operator friend excitedly shouted over the phone,

"You have no idea what's happening. Man, oh man", he added, "this unit's terrific.

"It doubled my take. All my other locations are calling me to put 'em on the phonographs.

"I need fifty units. I'll pay you cash. And I don't care how much they cost", he concluded.

The salesman was actually stunned with happiness and elation. On recovering he excitedly advised his operator friend to mail him a check to the big city hotel. He was grabbing a plane right away. He'd be with the manufacturer in the morning.

"In the meantime", he pleaded, "please keep this quiet. Don't say a word to anyone. Remember", he added, "you're my friend. I'm depending on you.

"Pull the unit off the phonograph right away and airmail it to me with your check", he concluded.

He quickly packed, checked out and rushed for the airport. He got on the first plane he could to the big city.

Very early the next morning there was a knock on his hotel door. It was a bellboy with the airmail package he'd been so eagerly and anxiously expecting. Inside was a check in full for fifty units.

He quickly dressed. He kept walking around and around his room like a caged tiger. Many, many thousands on thousands of dollars were dancing around in his mind. He jigged. He shouted out loud. He laughed. He kept slapping his hands together. He looked at himself in the mirror and asked his starry-eyed reflection,

"How's it feel to be rich, huh, fella?"

He kept watching the clock. As soon as a decent hour approached, he phoned the biggest and richest manufacturer in town. He told him excitedly, that he had the greatest and most profitable item in history. He arranged for an immediate and private appointment.

He dashed out to this big factory by cab. He closeted himself with the rich manufacturer. He told him the story as fast as he could get the words out of his mouth. He showed him the check in full for the first fifty units. He displayed the unit and described it in the most glorified terms.

When the salesman finished, the manufacturer looked at him coldly. He said,

"In the first place, my friend, you'd ruin the music business.

"In the second place", he continued, "I'm in the business of manufacturing phonographs, not ruining them.

"What's more", he frigidly added, "every other phonograph manufacturer also knows about this unit. We're all agreed on fighting against it with every cent we have.

"And remember further", he icily stated, "I'm buying merchandise from you. I don't have to give you my business. I can give it to your competitor. So can all the other manufacturers.

"But", he stated very pointedly, "I don't even have to tell you all this.

"The fact of the matter is", he concluded, "this unit is no longer on the market.

"I bought out that whole factory yesterday."

Eastern Mass. Music Ops Meet. Discuss Exclusive Location Contracts, Credit Information Exch., Insurance Program, Cerebral Palsy Telethon, and Health and Accident Plan

BOSTON, MASS. - Location contracts offer ops the best way to stabilize business, Atty. Jacob Levy, guest speaker, told the Eastern Massachusetts Music Operators' Association at their May 15 meeting in Beaconsfield Hotel, this city. Speaking on "The Legal Importance of Exclusive Lo-cation Contracts," he cautioned ops to watch nine points in writing contracts as follows:

- Name of true owner or cor-rect name of the corporation.
- 2. Correct business address.
- 3. Exclusive right clause.
- Practical needs of the op as to the hours when access to the machine is permitted.
- 5. Personal property clause.
- Clause on accounting.
- Automatic renewal and successor clauses.
- 8. Rights of the op to transfer the contract if he sells his business.

9. Vandalism clause.

"Contracts are important for the protection of the investment in equipment and as security for its use over a sufficient period of time to make the location profitable," he pointed out.

A director's recommendation that members use the association for the exchange of credit information was announced, explained and discussed. A proposed form for reporting credit losses was reviewed and several changes were suggested by Atty. Levy. After explanation of how the new system will work, it was unanimously agreed to adopt the plan and the secretary was asked to prepare and issue the necessary material.

President David J. Baker, Melo-Tone Music, Arlington, reported on the MOA Convention in Chicago and gave members a complete roundup. He revealed that George A. Miller, prexy of MOA, and Sidney H. Levine, legal counsel, will come to Boston for the meeting in June.

Baker pointed out that based on his talks in Chicago and information secured there, he felt there would be little difficulty in securing top recording artists for entertainment at any social affairs that the association might sponsor as a means of securing new members. Baker said he planned to attend a meeting of the New York operators in the near future to learn how they organize their social affairs and invited members of EMMOA to accompany him.

More activity in the association's insurance program was urged. It was pointed out that only 12 members have taken the insurance whereas losses have already exceeded $1,000. It was agreed to develop more contact work in the insurance program.

A report on participation in the Cerebral Palsy campaign was pre-sented. Records are to be given away at a telethon in the name of "The Juke Box Operators of Massachu-setts." Canisters will be left on lo-cation during most of the month of June. June.

Announcement was made that the annual meeting will be held on June 13. It was announced that the as-sociation is working on a plan for a group policy on health and accident insurance.

Among those attending the session were: Cyrus L. Jacobs, Interstate Music Co.; Arthur C. Sturgis, Auto-matic Distributors, Inc.; Bob Rome, Automatic Music Service, Inc.; David Gropman, Beacon Hill Music Co.; Is-rael Spector, Capitol Music Co.; Leon Sherter, Chester Music Co.; Frank Fendell, Fendell Brothers; Benjamin H. Ross, Graben Vending & Coin Machine Corp.; Ralph Lackey, Karel Music Co.; James A. Geracos, National Music Service; Peter Pom-peo, Pompeo Music Service; and Ed-ward Ross, Suffolk Vending Co.

Los Angeles operator, says that "Portuguese Washerwoman" by Joe "Fingers" Carr on Capitol is very popular in his locations and he predicts that it will hit the top ten. At Badger Sales Company, Inc., Fred Gaunt had his busiest week last week in arcade equipment. Fred said that the demand exceeded the supply, but fortunately was able to fill all the orders. Genco's "Hi-Fly" baseball game is continuing very popular with the operators. Bill Happel and Al Silberman are awaiting another shipment of the new AMI "G-200" to fill the mounting orders they are receiving. Al says the rotating mechanism of the new machine is one of the features that is proving so interesting to the operators. . . Bill Leuenhagen is inaugurating a "Breakfast Club" at Leuenhagen's Record Bar. Bill will have a buffet set up consisting of coffee, donuts, coffee cake, etc. every morning so that the operators and visitors can enjoy a mid-morning snack. The first "honorary" member of the "club" will be Louis Uhl in honor of his tenth anniversary in dealing at the "Record Bar." In to see the "Sisters Solle," Mary, Kay and Claire, were the Four Lads with their road manager, Bob Crystal, who all swooned over Mary's new hair-do. Mary says that "Trans-fusion" by Nervous Norvus on the Dot label is the craziest record she's had at the "Bar" yet and its sales are great with the operators. The sisters finally all agreed that Kay Starr's "Second Fiddle" on RCA Victor is on the way up in a big way. . . Ray Powers, M. A. C. Vending Inc., says that the addition of many new routes has been keeping everyone busy. The two-way radio system that is being used by M. A. C. is the first one licensed by the FCC in the vend-ing machine business. Ray is happy to report that Dick Kerr is resting up and getting fat and sassy at the Barlow Sanitarium. Dick wants to thank his many friends who have sent him the cards, flowers and cheery messages. . . . Reports received indicate that, in some cases, purchasers become upset due to the fact that they cannot, many times, buy equipment listed in the lower price brackets. Sometimes sellers of machines listed at from $10.00 to $25.00 ask from $50.00 up to $75.00 and even more for these very same machines.
Purchasers of such equipment must realize that machines in the very low priced categories are much worn to be priced at these low figures. To completely recondition such machines, the reconditioner must add onto his price the cost	PINBALI	GAMES of transportation to obtain these machines, the labor, parts and supplies needed to recondition the machines, plus the cost of cartons, crates and labor for	Manufacturers and date of game's releas	e listed. Code: (B) Bally; (CC) Chicage packing and shipping of the machines, in addition to a decent profit which will, in most cases, raise the price of a $10.00 to $20.00 machine to anywhere from $50.00 to $75.00 and up. In the case of arcade and kiddie ride machines	Coin; (Ev) Evans; (Ex) Exhibit; (Ge) (Un) United; (Wm) Williams.	Genco; (Got) Gottlieb; (Ke) Keeney;
these may even be higher due to the fact that many of the parts have to be made by hand or contracted for at some machinist shop, since manufacturers	4. ABC (UN 3/52) 25.00 65.00 4. Across the Board (Un	4. Campus (Ex 2/50) 15.00       20.00         4. Canasta (Ge 7/50) 25.00       34.50
