NOVEMBER 25, 1961

The field of country music continues to supply the pop market with many of its biggest hits and most talented performers. Mercury's Leroy Van Dyke is one excellent example. His first Mercury release "Big Man In A Big House" was a solid country hit. Then came "Walk On By" which hit the #1 spot on the country charts and now seems to be headed for the same slot on the pop best seller list. Leroy also had a big hit some years ago on Dot dubbed "The Auctioneer." Booked solid for fair dates and one nighters, Van Dyke's first Mercury LP is being rushed into production and should be out in the near future.

New Cash Box Aid To Dealers

As a trade publication, we find ourselves continually acting as a Mr. Anthony for all facets of the music industry. Not a week goes by that we don't get a call from a dealer, operator, publisher, manufacturer, etc., pouring his heart out about the difficulties he's faced with in keeping up with our rapidly changing business.

But buried among these complaints is frequently a great deal of constructive criticism — criticism which frequently shapes our editorial suggestions and criticism which designs and re-designs our very own publication and its various features.

Many of the suggestions are impossible to offer and many others are of benefit to such a small segment of the industry that they are impractical from the standpoint of the space and time they would consume. But frequently there are excellent suggestions that could be of great service to a large segment of the trade.

One such suggestion will be incorporated for the first time in this week's issue of Cash Box and will run every week thereafter. It derives itself from a number of complaints from retail dealers who find it difficult to locate the title of a release when a customer asks for a new hit by the artist's name — e.g. "Could I have the Bobby Nelson record?"

Since no trade publication offers an alphabetical listing of the nation's best selling singles alphabetized according to the artist's name, we will perform this service to dealers beginning this week.

It is another effort on the part of Cash Box to supply as much information as possible to our subscribers and assist them in conducting their businesses more efficiently, more rapidly, and, as a result, with greater profits.

Pick of the Week

"THE MAJESTIC" (2:26) [Just, Mubon BMI—Jones, Young]

"THE WANDERER" (2:40) [Schwartz, Disal ASCAP—Maresca]
DION (Laurie 3115)

Dion, who just did top-of-the-chart business with his reading of "Run-around Sue," bids fair for more of the same here. This time Dion and the Glen Stuart ork-chorus come thru with an ultra-commercial set of instructions for a dandy new dance step tabbed "The Majestic." It's a rhythmic handclapper that can bust wide open in no time flat. Dion's in top shuffle-rock form on "The Wanderer" session. Could also come thru in a big way.

"UNCHAIN MY HEART" (2:52) [Tee Pee ASCAP—Jones, James]

"BUT ON THE OTHER HAND BABY" (3:11) [Tangerine BMI—Charles,
Mayfield]

RAY CHARLES (ABC—Paramount 10266)

The stellar blues vocal-instrumentalist follows his chart-topping sensation, "Hit The Road, Jack," with another standout piece of material that could easily be another chart triumph. It's a hard-hitting blues affair, tabbed "Unchain My Heart," that Ray & the Raelets knock out with money-making spirit. The slow mood blueser flipside spotlights Ray's fine '88 (and vocal) work.

"SOMEBODY NEW DANCIN' "ROOM FULL OF TEARS" (2:52)

WITH YOU" (2:55) [St. Louis, Progressive, Trio BMI—

[Ark-La-Tex, Progressive, Trio Pomus, Shuman]

BMI—Pomus, Shuman]

THE DRIFTERS (Atlantic 2127)

Looks like a two-sided chart outing for the Drifters, whose long, long chain of hits now includes "Sweets For My Sweet." Take your pick here. Both "Somebody New Dancin' With You" and "Room Full Of Tears" are up tempo (Latin-flavored) affairs that mean money-in-the-bank for all concerned. Big double-header for the group.

"THE SEINE" (2:10) [Flywheel ASCAP—Burgess]

"ONCE AROUND THE BLOCK" (2:15) [Julian Stearns, Arena ASCAP
—Pockriss, Tobias]

THE FOUR PREPS (Capitol 4659)

Chances are the Four Preps will have a big follow-up to their recent "More Money For You And Me Medley" smasher. Side to eye is the charming, shuffle-ballad romancer, "The Seine," that the fellas carve out with a light-hearted spirit. However, don't overlook the ear-splitting, soft bolero-like love affair, "Once Around The Block." Chalk up two grade "A" assists for the Lincoln Mayorga ork.

"EVERYBODY'S TWISTING DOWN IN MEXICO" (2:23)

[Tree BMI—Killen, Kennedy]

"MELODY IN THE NIGHT" (2:10) [Talisman ASCAP—Wood, Vaughn]

BILLY VAUGHN (Dot 16295)

Vaughn's outfit is a good bet to continue its long run of money-makers (currently it's "Come September") as they hop aboard the 'twist' bandwagon here. It's a contagious, south-of-the-border rocker, tagged "Everybody's Twisting Down In Mexico," that has a wordless femme choral joyfully joining in. The ork and male chorus warmly shuffles thru the "Melody In The Night" coupler. Watch it too.

"A SUNDAY KIND OF LOVE" (2:13)

[Leeds ASCAP—Belle, Prima, Leonard, Rhodes]

"POOR LITTLE PUPPET" (2:40) [Aldon BMI—Greenfield, Keller]

JAN & DEAN (Liberty 55379)

Jan & Dean, who have a host of hit trophies in their collection, begin their Liberty association in sock sales style. Artists take the oldie, "A Sunday Kind Of Love," and up-date it in the novelty gimmick manner of the Marcel's "Blue Moon" (and their own "Heart And Soul"). "Poor Little Puppet" is an intriguing, slow steady beat weeper that can also make the grade. Terrific J. Berry arrangements.

"NORMAN" (2:15) [Acuff-Rose BMI—Loudermilk]

"NEVER LOVE AGAIN" (2:04) [Acuff-Rose BMI—R.&D. Kershaw]

SUE THOMPSON (Hickory 1159)

Lark, who climbed up among the front runners with "Sad Movies (Make Me Cry)," should stay there with this new Hickory slice. It's a delectable, quick moving, razz-a-ma-tazz novelty (penned by John D. Loudermilk) devoted to her boyfriend "Norman." Real happy item. Watch it go. Tender, tear-compelling ballad on the change-of-pace coupler.

THE CONFESSIONS (Epic 9474)

(B+) "BEFORE YOU CHANGE YOUR MIND" (2:19) [Cherio BMI—Jones, Coger] Look for the Confessions to come thru in a big chart way with this driving, sock-rock beat performance that has a flavor of the Shirelles' "Tonight's The Night." Bright ork support on a deck loaded with hit potential. Keep close tabs on it.

(B) "BE-BOP BABY" (1:54) [Cherio BMI—Waddell, Jones]

This tune (not the teen oldie) also moves along at a hard-rock clip.

HANK BALLARD & THE MIDNIGHTERS (King 5578)

(B+) "DO YOU REMEMBER" (2:40) [Ha-Lo BMI—Ballard] Ballard & Co. shuffle-rock thru a chart-contending newcomer that oughta have the teeners sit up and take notice.

(B+) "I'M GONNA MISS YOU" (2:47) [Lois BMI—Ballard]

There's a complete change-of-pace on this hip-swinging ballad-with-a-beat romantic weeper. Two solid coin-catchers.

KIRBY STONE FOUR (Columbia 42232)

(B+) "WHEN YOU HELP A FRIEND OUT" (2:20) [Stratford ASCAP—Comden, Green, Styne] Fine joyous number from the forthcoming musical, "Subways Are For Sleeping," is presented with a happy outing by the first-rate song crew and unbilled ork. Many a jock will be programming.

(B) "FORBIDDEN FRUIT" (2:50) [Edw. B. Marks BMI—Brown] Merry recital of the fall of Adam & Eve.

LOU MONTE (Reprise 20,037)

(B+) "OH! MY PA-PA" (2:29) [Shapiro, Bernstein ASCAP—Turner, Parsons, Burkhard] Monte does a highly appealing Italian-English reading of the old hit. He's accompanied by an attractive trumpet & organ-included ork-chorus stint. Look for particularly active jukebox plays here.

(B+) "TICI TI-TICI TO-TICI TA" [Romance & Ding Dong BMI—Allen, Merrell] Charming novelty that tells of the signs-of-love. Same exposure potential.

JOHNNY & JACKEY (Tri-Phi 1005)

(B+) "SOMEDAY WE'LL BE TOGETHER" [Fuqua BMI—Beavers, Fuqua, Bristol] Pro, though familiar-sounding tune gets a fine vocal blend from the duo, who are backed by an interesting Latinish combo stint. Could develop into something.

(B) "SHO DON'T PLAY" [Birdsong BMI—Belvin, Gordy, Beavers, Bristol] Infectious blues novelty.

ERNIE FREEMAN (Imperial 5793)

(B+) "THE TWIST" (2:34) [Lois BMI—Ballard] The original Twist ditty is done with a sure-fire rock sound by the instrumentalist, who performs an organ here. Solid-sounding work on the dance craze. Eye it.

(B+) "SHINE ON HARVEST MOON" (2:20) [Remick & Jerry Vogel BMI—Bayes, Norworth] Infectious blues-band reading of the ancient. Also worth attention.

EDDIE HEYWOOD (Liberty 55396)

(B+) "THE DREAM OF OLWEN" (2:42) [Mills ASCAP—Williams] The lovely instrumental oldie receives a lush mood go from the popular pianist and ork-chanting chorus. When it's time for pretty music spins, here's a first-rate deck to program.

(B) "GOOD EARTH" (1:52) [Vogue BMI—Heywood] Sprightly gospel-type sound.

THE MASTERS (End 1100)

(B) "A MAN IS NOT SUPPOSED TO CRY" (2:29) [B. S. Wood ASCAP—Gotman] Lead and rest of song team tenderly essay the nice wistful, Keltie sound for sentimental teen spins.

(B) "LOOK OUT" (1:50) [Real-Gone BMI—Martin] Infectious quick-beat attack from the boys. Group has a pro beat attitude.

WILBERT HARRISON (Fury 1055)

(B+) "DRAFTED" (2:25) [Fast & Wilberton - Harrison] The blues artist, who had the awhile-back hit, "Walkin' To New Orleans," heads a bouncy blues marcher about who's about to become a G.I. He's backed by some off-beat guitar sounds from the combo. An interesting sound that could happen.

(B) "MY HEART IS YOURS" (2:25) [Fast & Wilberton-Harrison] Effective sounds in a more sentimental blues light.

LITTLE ELLEN (Smash 1724)

(B+) "THAT OTHER GUY" (3:00) [Lucky Eight BMI—Dee, Vestee] Gal has a Dear John talk with the guy in this good-sounding intimate teen ballad outing by the thrush. Male chorus and combo offer solid easy-beat accompaniment. Could click with enough airtime.

(B) "ANSWER ME MY LOVE" (2:10) [Bourne ASCAP—Winkler, Sigman, Rauch] Fast-moving rock go at the oldie.

JOHNNY MORISSETTE (Sar 121)

(B+) "YOU ARE MY SUNSHINE" (2:40) [Southern BMI—Davis, Mitchell] The oldie gets an unusual wailing-type blues portrayal from the vocalist, who is backed by a solid swing-rock sound from the band. This exciting entry could score for the label, currently represented on the Top 100 with The Sims Twins' "Soothe Me."

(B) "YOUR HEART WILL SING" (2:32) [Kags BMI—Alexander, Jordan] Performer pleasingly recites the bluesy ballad.

ALLAN CHASE (Cinema 108)

(B) "I'M IN LOVE WITH MISS CONNIE FRANCIS" (2:08) [Agard BMI—Chase, Weismantel, Davis] Cozy rock-beat vocal about a fella who thinks the star songstress sings only for him.

(C+) "LONELY HEART" (2:08) [Agard BMI—Chase, Nichols] Light rock-a-cha romantic sound.

JANE BOWMAN (Sapien 1005)

(B) "ETERNALLY" (2:19) [Borealis BMI—Canada, Wilbur] Lark, has a Brenda Lee vocal feel, offers a mild-beat reading of a teen sentimental. Headquarters for the label is Gardena, Calif.

(B) "MAD MAMA" (1:59) [Borealis BMI—Bowman, Wilbur] Beltin' in the Brenda Lee manner.

Pick of the Week

"I CAN DREAM, CAN'T I" (2:20) "I'M JUST TAKING MY TIME"
[Chappell ASCAP—Kahal, Fain] (2:49)

[Stratford ASCAP—Styne, Comden, Green]

THE MCGUIRE SISTERS (Coral 62296)

Platters spinners oughta go wild for the McGuire's newest Coral duo. One half's the enchanting oldie, "I Can Dream, Can't I?" that finds Dick Jacobs outfit backing up in splendid style. The other end's a newie, "I'm Just Taking My Time," a lovely ballad from the in-coming B'way musical "Subways Are For Sleeping." Burt Farber's crew tastefully backs up on this end (which is also in their LP of the same name).

"SWEET WATER" (2:07) [Figure BMI—Blackwell]

"THE BIG KNOCK" (2:59) [Roosevelt BMI—Covay, Blackwell, Berry]

THE STEREOS (Cub 9103)

"Sweet Water" is the tag of a sharp fella who just hit town. It's also the title of the Stereos' follow-up to their Cub click, "I Really Love." Side's chock full of the teen hit ingredients—including a march-like gimmick found in their initial success. Can be a blockbuster. Strong Bert Keys instrumental assist. Appealing rock-a-shuffle ballad stand on the other end.

"YOU DON'T HAVE TO BE A TOWER OF STRENGTH" (2:14)

[Famous ASCAP—Hilliard, Bacharach]

"I WILL FOLLOW YOU" (2:59) [Vogue BMI—Herman]

GLORIA LYNNE (Everest 19428)

Lark, whose "Impossible" is still collecting lotsa coin, can have her biggest money-maker to date in this answer to Gene McDaniels' "Tower Of Strength." Gloria's date, tagged "You Don't Have To Be A Tower Of Strength," is a tantalizing rock-a-cha-cha outing that features a first rate Leroy Holmes ork-choral showcase. Artists are also in top form as they warmly and dramatically carve out the lovely ballad, "I Will Follow You," from "Milk And Honey."

"GIRLS ARE SENTIMENTAL" (2:24) [Ludix BMI—McCoy]

"BABY DON'T TEASE ME" (2:10) [Ludix BMI—Dixon, McCoy]

VAN McCOY (Rockin' 1012)

McCoy, who kicked up a territorial fuss with "Mr. D.J.," can step out on a national level with his new Rockin' appearance. It's a soft and appealing ballad-with-a-beat love affair, tabbed "Girls Are Sentimental," that McCoy renders with touching sincerity. Lovely choral-ork support on this 'programming must.' Pairing's an inviting cha cha beat romancer.

Pick of the Week

Newcomers

In an effort to call D.J. attention to Pick records by "Newcomers" (artists never before on the Top 100) the editorial staff of Cash Box will list such records under this special heading.

"BYE BYE BABY" (2:07) [Sherman, DeVorzon BMI—DeVorzon, Bare]

"LOVE YOU" (2:23) [Sherman, DeVorzon BMI—DeVorzon, Ellis]

BOB CONRAD (Warner Bros. 5242)

Bob Conrad, who plays one of the star sleuths on the "Hawaiian Eye" TV'er, comes thru with a session that can earn him a star in the wax field. It's a tearful, quick beat romantic newie, dubbed "Bye Bye Baby," that Bob multi-tracks in ultra-commercial style. Superb choral and rock-a-string showcase by the Perry Botkin, Jr. crew. Fetching teen beat cha cha ballad on the other end.

"SMALL SAD SAM" (2:20) [R.F.D. ASCAP—Skylar, Deane]

"CHICKEN" (2:17) [R.F.D. ASCAP—Deane]

PHIL McLEAN (Versatile 107)

In marked contrast to the hero of Jimmy Dean's saga, "Big Bad John," is this rib-tickling tale of a no good cat named "Small Sad Sam." It's told in a similar narrative style by WNEW-N.Y. announcer Phil McLean, who's supported by a soft femme choral backdrop. Could make big chart news. McLean speaks the title, "Chicken," along the way on the catchy up beat coupler that sports sans lyric choral chants. Good harmonica bits on both ends. Label's based in N.Y.

TOMMY SANDS (Capitol 4660)

(B+) "JIMMY'S SONG" (2:14)
[Acuff-Rose BMI—Loudermilk] A rock artist gets a femme cleffer, her song and disk stardom in this teen charmer from the songster and his fine Latinish combo-chorus backdrop. Engaging sound that could score.

(B) "WRONG SIDE OF LOVE" (2:17) [Spanka BMI—Anka]
Lively rock-a-billy doings here.

VAUGHN MONROE (Jubilee 5412)

(B+) "BYE BYE BLACKBIRD" (2:05) [Remick ASCAP—Dixon, Henderson] Here's a happy version of the evergreen in which the vet songster is backed by a strong, Twist-able ork-chorus rock sound. Can be in for big airtime exposure.

(B) "ONE HOUR AHEAD OF THE POSSE" (2:38) [Supreme ASCAP—Golden, Ormont, Charig] This end should recall Monroe's years-back hit, "Ghost Riders."

BATTISTE (Kevin 104)

(B+) "WORLD OF MAKE BELIEVE" (2:40) [Gulf Stream & Singing River BMI—Smith, Maddox, McCord, Carpenter] Teeners will find great appeal in this romantic essay by Battiste of a fine wistful. Striking guitar comments are included in the combo-chorus chore. The Mobile-based label could have an active deck here.

(B) "DECEMBER" (2:30) [Gulf Stream BMI—Keith] Pretty string-included tale of a broken love affair.

LAZY LESTER (Excello 2206)

(B+) "I'M SO GLAD (MY BABY'S BACK HOME)" (2:40) [Excellorec, Jamil BMI—West] Count on Lester to always turn out a solid r&b stanza. This slow-beat romancer is expressively etched and features raunchy, harmonica-led combo accompaniment. Has top market potential.

(B) "WHOA NOW" (2:49) [Excellorec, Jamil BMI—West] Similar offering this end. Both sides have scorability.

JAMES STALLCUP & THE FLAIRS (LeCam 724)

(B) "SAD FEELING" (2:02) [LeBill & Starfire BMI—Smith, Stallcup] Songster nicely handles the tender wistful sentiments of the opus. Side the kids will feel for. Cosnat distributes the diskery.

(C+) "BABY, LET'S MAKE LOVE" (1:56) [LeBill BMI—Smith, Stallcup] Beltin' stuff whose title can be a programming barrier.

NORMA RIVERS (Vassar 318)

(B) "SAN ANTONIO ROSE" (2:05) [Bourne ASCAP—Wills] Lark has a juke-box following, and should again get such coin with her reading of the oldie against a bright rock-inclined full ork setting. Cosnat Distributing now handles the label.

(B) "I'LL HOLD YOU IN MY HEART" (2:35) [Adams, Vee & Abbott BMI—Arnold, Horton, Dilbeck] Organ is included in this sentimental waltzer.

GARY SHORTALL (Vista 382)

(C+) "PRIVATE PROPERTY" (2:39) [Arch—Schroeder, Silver] Novelty-inclined rockin' romantic.

THE LENNON SISTERS

(B+) "KAW-LIGA" (2:36) [Milene ASCAP—Williams, Rose] Gals and full ork offer a merry outing on the familiar ditty. Worth good-time programming. Cut is from the group's new LP, "Sad Movies."

(B) "WE LIVE IN TWO DIFFERENT WORLDS" (2:23) [Milene ASCAP—Rose] Old country number, not to be confused with the years-back Ron Dondo hit, "Two Different Worlds," is done with a nice light upbeat blend by the femmes. Also from the LP.

THE MERRY MACS (Portrait 102)

(B) "CLOSE YOUR EYES (Cha Cha)" (2:35) [Bernice Petkere ASCAP—Petkere] Slick mixed vocal crew warbles the fine oldie against a bright Latinish band backdrop under Lloyd Shaffer's direction. Well-worth legit programming. Waxery is based in Hollywood.

(Verve 10243)

(B) "TRADE WINDS" (2:35) [Harms ASCAP—Friend, Tobias] Pretty Hawaiian flavoring for the oldtimer. Effective swaying chants from the femmes.

THE LIMELITERS

(RCA Victor 7966)
(B+) "JUST AN HONEST MISTAKE" (2:40) [Livingston & Evans ASCAP—Evans, Livingston] The comic cop song, a showstopper in the musical, "Let It Ride," is done with a delightful merry-air by the popular folk crew. Some of the lines, however, can limit airplay.

(B) "JONAH" (2:42) [Amadeo ASCAP—Bagby] Handclappin' beat about the famed Biblical personality.

RONNI LEE (Everest 19427)

(B+) "TEACH ME TIGER" (2:26) [Aragin, Chandler ASCAP—Tempo] Thrush takes a winning Everest bow with this enticing ditty (cut awhile back by April Stevens) that she waxes in a soft, sexy fashion. Cute cha cha beat ork-choral support.

(B) "LOVE ME WITH YOUR EYES" (2:15) [Lowrey BMI—Flood] More whispery sound by Ronni on this pleasant, slow paced ballad.

SEYMOUR (Heartbeat 2)

(B) "WHEN DAY IS DONE" (1:53) [Harms ASCAP—DeSylva, Katscher] Another aimed-at-the-juke-boxes release from the muted trumpeter, who gets only organ backing in his easy reading of the evergreen.

JOE RAVAL

(ABC-Paramount 10261)

 "THEME FROM SUMMER AND SMOKE" (2:31)
 [Famous ASCAP—Bernstein]
 PETER NERO (RCA Victor 7956)

Nero's superb keyboard stylings should help him carve out a healthy slice of the final sales melon on the oft-cut ballad beaut, "Maria," from "West Side Story." Outstanding ork showcase supplied by Marty Gold's outfit. Side, Nero's singles bow, is from his hit "New Piano In Town" LP. Companion piece, the ear-arresting theme from "Summer And Smoke," is also presented in lush and lovely surroundings. Could also be all over the airwaves in the near future.

"NO MATTER WHAT I DO" (2:40) [Spanka BMI—Kasha, Thomas]
 "GIVE HER BACK" (2:28)
 [Sea-Lark Enterprises BMI—Adams, Nader]

Newcomer Casher can step into the national spotlight with this Epic debut. It's a captivating rock-a-cha-cha, tabbed "No Matter What I Do," that mentions a host of hits on which the songsters tried their darndest to prove their love was true. The chart-contending cha-rock pleader, "Give Her Back," makes for a potent companion piece. Two emotion-packed performances that sport top notch ork-choral assists.

THE BACHELORS (Smash 1723)
 (B+) "DAY I MET YOU" (2:25) [Sherman—DeVorzon BMI—Raising, DeVorzon] Vocalists tenderly portray a pretty teen-beat item about a fella whose life begins with the discovery of the love-of-his-life. Highly appealing sentiments for the kids.
 (B+) "HEY LITTLE GIRL" (2:09) [Sherman—DeVorzon BMI—Holmes, Sieber] Teeners will enjoy this quick-beat rock-a-cha date.

THE INDIVIDUALS (Tequila 101)
 (B) "HEARTBREAK HOTEL" (2:06) [Tree BMI—Presley, Axton, Durden] Sax and organ are sound-wise leads in this bouncy blues rendition of the early Elvis Presley triumph. Might get action with enough exposure.
 (B) "LA BAMBA" (1:45) [Naflo BMI—Nal, Flores] Musicians are hectic on the late Richie Valens' famed vehicle. Vocal shouts are part of the deck's rockin' brightness.

THE FOUR PREPS' NEW SINGLE IS "ONCE AROUND THE BLOCK."* #4659

*It's every bit as great as their hit single "More Money For You and Me" and their hit album "Four Preps On Campus."

Best Bets

OBREY WILSON (Liberty 55394)
(B+) "THAT'S WHERE LONESOME LIVES" (1:53) [Cedarwood BMI—Westberry] Fella's gonna let the world know that his home is where lonesome lives in this bright-beat blues rhythmic with strings, headed by pro songster Wilson. Type of teen excitement that gets exposure.

(B) "WHIPPING BOY" (2:17) [Hill & Range BMI—Shuman, Carr] Interesting chant effects in another lively rock-blues showing.

MORT (Doc) DOWNEY, JR. (Cadence 1407)

(B+) "THE BALLAD OF BILLY BROWN" (2:47) [Jo-Al ASCAP—Downey] Well-told "sickie," with Downey doing a teen-wise stint on a ditty about a teener who has died, and the things he has left behind. Femme portion is handled by Harvie June Van. If its gets enough exposure it could happen.

(B) "FLATTERY" (2:30) [Network ASCAP—Downey] Funky harmonica is used in this off-beat chant-spotlighted date.

Pick of the Week

Christmas

"A KISS FOR CHRISTMAS" (2:02)
[Belenda Canada Ltd. ASCAP—Wise, Wiseman]

"(I WONDER) WHO'S SPENDING CHRISTMAS WITH YOU" (2:25)
[Sure Fire BMI—M.&S. Singleton, Kennedy]

JOE DOWELL (Smash 1728)

This one's a natural for Dowell, whose past two hits ("Wooden Heart" and "Bridge Of Love") have incorporated foreign language portions. Side, tabbed "A Kiss For Christmas," is a charming up beat adaptation of "O Tannenbaum," that also sports a German passage. Another winner for Dowell. Extremely pretty sentimental ballad lilt on the other half.

Country favorites, the Wilburn Bros. come thru with a powerful seasonal outing in "Tag Along." Could be a big dual-mart pop-country money-maker. (See Country Reviews.)

Best Bets

CRAIG & HIS DADDY (Amy 834)

(B) "PLEASE BRING MY DADDY AN ELECTRIC TRAIN" (2:25) [World ASCAP—Dee, Wood] Cute sprightly Yule offering about a son who wants Santa to bring dad an electric train because dad has practically made the youngster's set his own. Good kiddie-directed Xmas offering.

(B) "ALL AROUND THE CHRISTMAS TREE" (2:05) [Republic BMI—Skylar, Kaye] Mop-pets will enjoy this happy item based on "All Around The Mulberry Bush."

HARVEY JUNE VAN (Briar 121)

(B+) "NATIVIDAD (Nativity)" (2:26) [Backwoods BMI—Ferguson] Attractive number about the first Christmas is essayed with an interesting sound. The lark's sincere vocal is supported by a lush Latinish ork-chorus backdrop. Could be a Holiday success.

(B) "DASHER" (1:54) [Copar-Forrest BMI—McPherson] This rockin' ditty says that Dasher lights Santa's way on Xmas eve with the light on his tail.

RICHIE ALHONA (Fantasy 556)

(C+) "THE PAGAN" (3:14) [Cireco BMI—Alhona] Dirge-like handling of a country-styled wistful.

GINA BOYER (Liberty 55390)

(B+) "JIM" (2:22) [Leeds ASCAP—Shawn, Petrillo, Ross] The fine hymn-to-Jim oldie is done with a feelingful blues-oriented sound by the lark. Her pretty support is a full ork-chorus affair. Likely to make lots of deejay turntables.

(B) "WRITTEN IN TEARS" (2:40) [Eden BMI—Singleton] A similar plaintive portrayal.

KEETIE & THE KATS (Huron 22007)

(B) "CROSSTIES" (2:03) [Arc BMI—Hawkins, Mathis, Lewis] Infectious blues-styled combination of sax-percussion-guitar ideas in this teen-market display. Effective combo workout.

(B) "WAY OUT" (2:26) [Dove BMI—Keetie & The Kats] Very Latin-inclined belting, including interesting organ effects.

MARION (Sandy 1026)

(B) "NITE BREEZES" (2:25) [Burnt Oak & Singing River BMI—Carpenter] Smooth sax sound tops this nice-listening rock-inclined combo date. Sound is worth programming.

(B) "CUTIE" (2:36) [Burnt Oak & Singing River BMI—Carpenter] Catchy shuffle-beat session is headed by a keyboard.

JIMMY McCRACKLIN (Art-Tone 826)

(B+) "CHRISTMAS TIME Pt. 1" (2:15) [B-Flat BMI—McCracklin] Vet songster, making big pop-R&B news with his "Just Got To Know" outing, offers his romantic Xmas message with funky low-down sound that his fans will take to. Date has only an R&B audience.

ALFRED APAKA (Decca 31331)

(B) "MEDLEY: 1. MELE KALI-KAMAKA 2. JINGLE BELLS" [1. Mayflower BMI—Anderson, 2. P.D.—] The late Hawaiian artist and his Hawaiian Village Sere-naders first offer a bright, popular Hawaiian Xmas ditty and then go into an Hawaiian language reading of "Jingle Bells."

(B) "SILENT NIGHT" (Po Ham- mau) [P.D.—] A lovely Hawaiian-English reading of the Yuletide standby.

"BIG" TINY LITTLE (Coral 62294)

(B) "TINY'S CHRISTMAS MED-LEY" (2:52) [P.D.—] The Lawrence Welk honky-tonk pianist offers bright readings of four Xmas favorites, "Jingle Bells," "Deck the Halls," "Good King Wenceslas," and "God Rest Ye Merry Gentlemen." Solid for Yule juke-box programming.

(B) "SILVER BELLS" (2:27) [Paramount ASCAP—Livingston, Evans] More honky-tonk merry-making on a Yule evergreen.

DICK WILSON (Silver Leaf 2400)

(C) "MERRY CHRISTMAS TO YOU DEAR HOLY-ONE" (2:14) [World—Elite & Stude's BMI—Edward, Stude] Warm pop vocal from Wilson, whose backing includes an organ and femme chorus. Label is based in Bridgeport, Conn.

(C) "I MISS ALL THE SONGS" (1:45) [World—Elite BMI—Baker] Bouncy old-time bit of nostalgia.

JEANETTE, JOAN & KAY (Teen-Ed 5)

(B) "SPIRIT OF CHRISTMAS" (1:51) [Condro ASCAP—Hillegas] Youngsters warmly sing the Christmas story. Melody is pleasing. Label's offices are in Medford, N.J.

(B) "LITTLE ANGEL" (2:15) [Condro ASCAP—Theckston, Evans] Jeanette solos in a light bouncy Xmas item.

JUDY BROWN (Skyla 1122)

(B) "DEAR SANTA" (2:20) [American BMI—Fayne]

Well-done rock stint (with strings) about a teener who asks Santa to leave a boy to love under her tree. May get some Holiday time spins.

(C+) "CHRISTMAS WEDDING DAY" (2:00) [American BMI—Fayne] Easy-beat lovey-dovey.

LENNY DEE (Decca 31332)

(B) "AULD LANG SYNE" (2:05) [P.D.—] After a sentimental opening by the Anita Kerr Singers, organist Dee heads a swingin' version of the classic New Year's opus.

(B) "MISTER SANTA" (2:00) [Edwin H. Morris ASCAP—Ballard] This is a sunny Xmas re-write of "Mister Sandman." There's a male lead.

LILLIAN BRIGGS (Newport 105)

(B) "NINA NON" (2:27) [Fred-erick BMI—Lewis, Raye, Yuffy] Thrush warmly handles the pretty Xmas lullaby, also cut some years ago by Joni James. Attractive legit item for Yule programming.

(B) "TWINKLE TOES" (2:23) [Frederick BMI—Williams, Keith, Wedyck] Cheerful kiddie Holiday stint about Santa's "new" reindeer.

Cash Box ALBUM REVIEWS

POPULAR PICKS OF THE WEEK

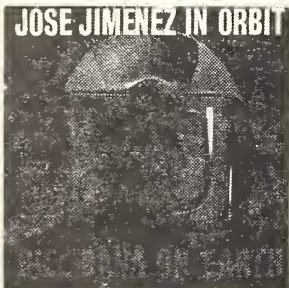

"RUSTY WARREN BOUNCES BACK"—Jubilee JGM 2039

There's no doubt that America's most popular sex story merchant on disk is Rusty Warren and this, her fourth Jubilee album, further attests to her standing. Before a highly receptive audience at Detroit's Club Alamo, she again offers new lyric versions of old songs, sage advice to both men and women, a couple of insults here and there; general good fun on an adult level. Has an open field to top chart standing.

"DOIN' THE TWIST AT THE PEPPERMINT LOUNGE"—Joey Dee—Roulette R 25166

Riding high on the crest of his current hit single, Joey Dee and his Starlites have cut an entire LP of twistin' music. The sound is loud, fast and hot as the boys read favorites "Ya Ya," "Hold It," and "Fanny Mae." Recorded live at the mecca for the Twist, the Peppermint Lounge, the noise of the crowd does much to add to the excitement. Disk seems destined to make sound on the charts.

"JOSE JIMENEZ IN ORBIT/BILL DANA ON EARTH"—Kapp KL 1257

Following his successful premiere disk, "The Astronaut," Bill Dana comes back more than strong in this new offering from Kapp. Disk's first side is devoted to a single bit in which Dana plays a somewhat bewildered spaceman. On the flip side most noteworthy are a beautiful satire of Mitch Miller and a funny piece of nonsense called "The Skin Diver." Comic's writing partner Don Hinkley ably acts as straight man and interviewer. LP's infectious humor should make it a sure comer.

"BERLIN MELODY"—Billy Vaughn—Dot DLP 3396

Tagging this new LP after his current hit single, Billy Vaughn has included eleven other popular tunes geared for the dancing trade. The Vaughn ork's style is easy and polished in their readings of "Wooden Heart," "Mexico," and "It Happened In Adano." Definitely not a twistable disk, this Dot offering should attract the waltz set in droves.

"THE BROTHERS FOUR SONG BOOK"—Columbia CL 1697

Cashing in on the sing along craze, Columbia has included a set of lyrics and music score for guitar accompaniment in this new Brothers Four LP. The boys offer a bag of folk standards read with polish and style. Kicking off the disk with a lively rendition of "Rock Island Line" the group delivers with equal skill a calypso version of "Goodnight Irene" and the beautiful "Greensleeves." Disk should find easy sales acceptance.

"PRESENTING PETER DUCHIN HIS PIANO AND ORCHESTRA"—Decca DL 74190

Here the young (24) son of Eddy Duchin feels his oats for the first time in an LP and the result is a sophisticated, modern, artful collection of dancing favorites. Sounding a little like his famous father, Peter does credit to the Duchin name as he reads "Make Someone Happy," "Maria," and "S'Wonderful." If this disk is an indication, Peter's future seems promising and bright.

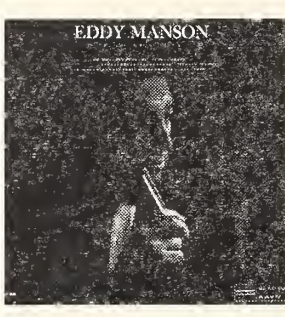

"SAD MOVIES (MAKE ME CRY)"—Lennon Sisters—Dot DLP 25398

Starting off with a sincere rendition of "Sad Movies (Make Me Cry)" the Lennon Sisters deliver eleven other Fred Rose tunes with artistry and warmth. The girls give champagne-like readings of "Roly Poly," "No One Will Ever Know," and "Afraid." All the tunes in this disk were ably arranged and conducted by Billy Vaughn. Homey collection looms as sure-fire favorite with Lennon fans.

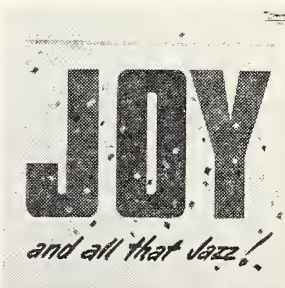

"RUSS MORGAN AT CATALINA"—Russ Morgan and his Orch.—Everest LPBR 5130

A typical sweet beat dance program by the Morgan band (which holds forth seasonally on Catalina Island) is offered here in a handsome new Everest package. Session begins appropriately with "Avalon" and then continues relaxingly through "Do You Ever Think Of Me," "Bye Bye Blues," "The Moon Was Yellow" and "Chanson Boheme." Pleasant adult ork fare.

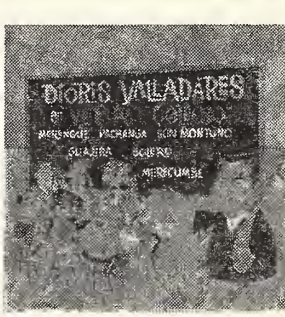

"THE GREAT EDDY MANSON"—20th Century Fox 3038

Eddy Manson's pleasing harmonica manner, backed by two more harmonicas and assorted rhythm, offers an up-to-date look at some of the more famed harmonica hits of the past. The venerable "Peg O' My Heart" opens the session; others include "Sabre Dance," "Ruby," "My Happiness," "Off Shore" and "Allegheny Moon." Top notch performances here assure sales interest.

"JOY AND ALL THAT JAZZ!"—The Honeydreamers—Cosmos C 1469

Top vocal group bows in the new label in a session centered around the expression of happiness. Group's delicate harmony work and swing feeling go a long way toward this goal, as do the selection of songs: such happy-go-lucky items as "I've Got The World On A String," "Accentuate The Positive" and "I Want To Be Happy." Orkster Aaron Richards contributed to the date a bevy of new songs, most notable of which is "Another Lucky Day." Light, breezy choral/ork entertainment.

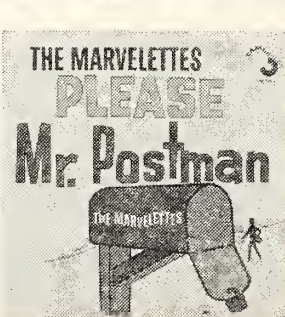

"VETE PA'L COLEGIO"—Dioris Valladares—Alegre LPA 809

Known as "king of the pachanga" to devotees of New York's Caravana Club, Latin orkster Valladares offers here, in his initial Alegre LP outing, a collection of merengues and pachangas with samplings of son montuno, merencumbé and guajira as added attractions. Playing is a perfect example of the authentic Latin sound; deck should add greatly to Valladares' following. Selections include "Vete Pa'l Colegio," "Descarga Merengue," "La Bamba" and "Como Bailo Mi Pachanga."

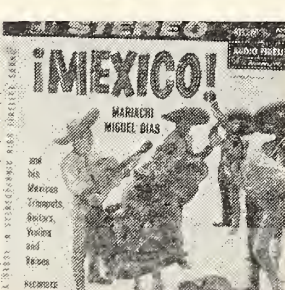

"SISTER ON TOUR"—Sister Rosetta Tharpe—Verve V-3005

This new Verve package by Sister Tharpe was cut in "live" concert and beautifully captures the in-person magnetism of her exultant passion. Among the tracks are "Joy In This Land," "Everything To Me," "Faith In God" and "Brother." An outstanding collection by one of the best gospel singers.

"PLEASE MR. POSTMAN"—The Marvelettes—Tamla TM 228

Girls' first-time-out LP hangs its hopes on the "Please Mr. Postman" chart-topper; it's a secure anchor. In addition to "Postman," the Marvelettes offer a roundup of new tunes in a variety of moods and tempos. The hard rocking beat shows to best advantage. Selections include "I Know How It Feels," "Way Over There" and "Angel."

"MEXICO"—Miguel Dias—Audio Fidelity AFSD 5957

The colorful, melodic strains of Mexico are faithfully represented by the Mariachi of Miguel Dias in this new offering from Audio Fidelity. The Dias group, extremely popular south of the border, employs a perfect harmony of trumpets, guitars, violins and voices. Orkster gives masterful and authentic readings of "La Cucaracha," "La Adelita," and "Cocula." LP should add to the growing popularity of Dias in the U.S.

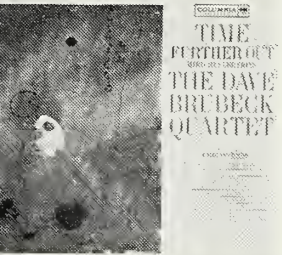

ALBUM REVIEWS

"HIGH AND DRY WITH THE YACHTSMEN"—Vista BV 3310

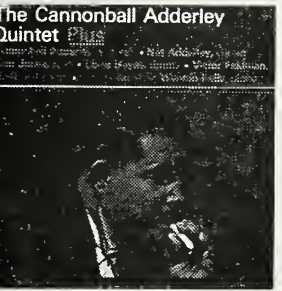

Launching their premiere LP with an original composition "High And Dry," this new folk group, which previously had worked at Disneyland, demonstrates a professional range and delivery. Sounding a little bit like the Kingston Trio, the boys read a lively "Cindy" and an excellent rocking version of "Erie Canal." In "Sinner Man" the lads treat a conventional tune in an unconventional manner but the effect is entirely pleasing. The Yachtsmen register on the promising side of the ledger.

JAZZ PICKS OF THE WEEK

"TIME FURTHER OUT"—The Dave Brubeck Quartet—Columbia CL 1690

Here's more time figure excursions by the Brubeck Quartet, following on the successful heels of the hit "Time Out" single and album. Of all groups in jazz, none has ventured so far into odd rhythms as Brubeck's, none so successfully. Drummer Joe Morello's mastery of these rhythms is the foundation. Selections include "Blue Shadows In The Street," "Maori Blues," "Far More Drums," "Unsquare Dance" and "It's A Raggy Waltz," the latter two a new single issue. Promises chart action.

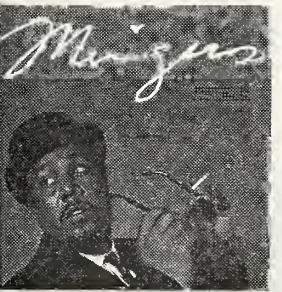

"THE CANNONBALL ADDERLEY QUINTET PLUS"—Riverside RLP 388

While the strong "soul" current is still prominent in Adderley's work, this date reveals the musician's broadening to a lighter swinging context in some of the tracks. The "Plus" in the title is the addition of pianist Wynton Kelly on four of the date's six tracks, and his glowing melodic presence accounts for the greater warmth in the playing on these tracks. Five jazz originals and one standard—"Star Eyes"—comprise the repertoire here.

"THE JAZZTET AT BIRDHOUSE"—Argo LP 688

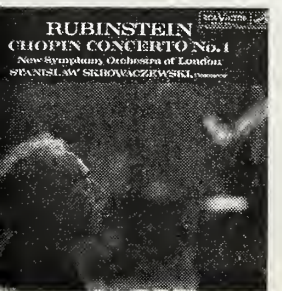

The case for recording a group during a nitery performance, particularly if atmosphere and acoustics are up to disk standards, is well-stated here. While earning a huge following from three Argo LP's there have been some reservations about the group's too-tight orchestrations, its somewhat slight stiffness. These reservations are quickly dispelled with this set, where the group takes off vigorously on six extended tracks with a newfound looseness and relaxed vitality. Art Farmer's flugelhorn work, debuting here, is a successful new medium of expression for him. The others also perform admirably. Should find many new friends.

"MINGUS"—Candid 9021

For an all-revealing look at what Mingus' music really is, the "MDM" (Monk-Duke-Mingus) track in which themes by the three are entwined in one forceful, compelling performance, is must-listening. Here, both old and new members of the jazz Workshop contribute their best for an overwhelming performance. Dannie Richmond is again a whiz of rhythmic drive; other standouts include Jimmy Knepper, Ted Curson, Britt Woodman and, of course, Mingus. Side two contains "Stormy Weather" and Mingus' "Lock 'Em Up," both superb. But it's the side one "MDM" that makes the album.

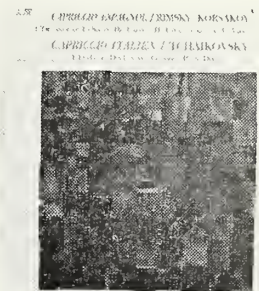

CLASSICAL PICKS OF THE WEEK

CHOPIN: Concerto No. 1 in E Minor, Op. 11. Arthur Rubinstein, pianist. New Symphony Orchestra of London conducted by Stanislaw Skrowaczewski—RCA Victor LM 2575

The vital, overwhelming skill of Arthur Rubinstein carries him in good stead in this excellent reading of the difficult concerto. Rubinstein treats the music with a sense of duty that creates a fabulous, almost unique aura of excitement. Aply accompanied by the New Symphony Orchestra of London, under the capable hands of Stanislaw Skrowaczewski, he gives a polished and masterful dimension to Chopin. LP ranks as top-rung Rubinstein.

RIMSKY-KORSAKOV: Capriccio Espagnol. L'Orchestre De La Societe Des Concerts Du Conservatoire conducted by Andre Vandernoot; TCHAIKOVSKY: Capriccio Italien. L'Orchestre Des Concerts Colonne conducted by Pierre Dervaux—Command CC 11004 SD

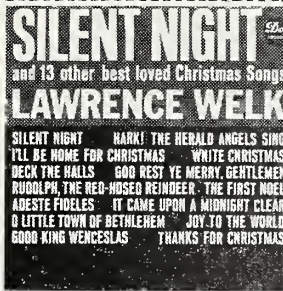

The spirited, light, vivacious strains of the "Capriccio Espagnol" are beautifully represented by the artistry of Andre Vandernoot in this superbly recorded offering from Command. All five movements are read with orchestral virtuosity combined with a perfect balance of languor and vigor. Pierre Dervaux faithfully captures the brilliant portrait of Tchaikovsky's Italy in his polished and bright reading of "Capriccio Italien." LP is marked by excellent frequency response and fidelity.

CHRISTMAS PICKS OF THE WEEK

"HOLIDAY SING ALONG WITH MITCH"—Mitch Miller and the Gang—Columbia CL 1701

Mitch and the boys are back with another holiday musicale. This set differs from the other Mitch Xmas package in that here the leaning is more toward the seasonal winter songs, although there are also Xmas songs of the light vein (e.g. "I Saw Mommy Kissing Santa Claus," "Santa Claus Is Comin' To Town"). Deck has strength beyond the holiday season with good programmatic tracks for all winter.

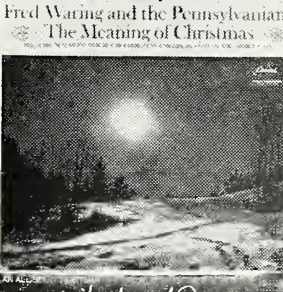

"SILENT NIGHT AND 13 OTHER BEST LOVED CHRISTMAS SONGS"—Lawrence Welk—Dot DLP 3398

Here's a big sound for Holiday listening. The Welk ork in effective new arrangements of 14 Xmas favorites features sans-lyric chorus work and additional instrumentation suited to the mode. Among the selections are "White Christmas," "Adeste Fideles," "Good King Wenceslas" and "Silent Night." Strong new merchandise.

"CHRISTMAS WITH CHET ATKINS"—RCA Victor LPM-2423

The Chet Atkins guitar versatility comes through winningly in this new Holiday collection. Such pop offerings as "Jingle Bell Rock," "Blue Christmas" and "Jolly Old St. Nicholas" are contrasted with several religious items. Makes for a well-rounded, easy-listening collection.

"THE MEANING OF CHRISTMAS"—Fred Waring and the Pennsylvanians—Capitol ST 1610

The reverend meaning of Christmas is well put here through the sensitive Pennsylvanian portrayal of many new, specially-written Christmas selections. Waring maintains the high standards of good taste here that established his reputation and earns particular attention for this new package. Stereo is used effectively for the big Waring ork-chorus assemblage.

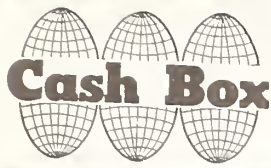

"WE WISH YOU THE MERRIEST"—Various Artists—Columbia CL 1699

An assemblage of seasonal items culled from previous outings by its stable of artists. There are some top names here in first rate performances of holiday highlights. Included are Doris Day, Johnny Cash, Ray Conniff, Aretha Franklin, Frankie Laine, Brothers Four and Les Brown. Pleasantly diverting entertainment.

"THIS TIME OF YEAR"—June Christy—Capitol ST 1605

Wintry Christmas season songs, all originals penned by husband-wife team Arnold Miller and Connie Pearce, are essayed with mature sophistication by the pop/jazz singer. Several good songs in the collection that deserve exposure; credit Miss Christy's superior song styling artistry for the fine, first-time airing of these tunes. A different kind of season session.

Chubby Checker

When adults in New York and other major east coast cities recently became aware of the twist dance they also "discovered" a talent whom their children had been listening to for a couple of years. Chubby's "Twistin'" career began professionally when, at the age of 19, his employer was able to set up an audition with Cameo Records head Bernie Lowe. Chubby was signed and elected by Lowe to spearhead the Cameo affiliate label, Parkway. His first record was "The Class" but it was "The Twist" that started the chain reaction that led to a string of hit singles and albums. Currently, Chubby is scoring with "The Fly" and a re-issue of "The Twist" in singles, and "The Twist" LP.

Chubby Checker was born Oct. 3, 1941 in Philadelphia, where he still lives with his parents and two brothers. He was graduated from South Philadelphia High School (one of his classmates was Fabian), where he had entertained fellow students on special school events.

The Chantels

Jackie Landry 20, Renee Minus 17, Anette Smith 20, and Sonia Goring 19, are the four girls who comprise the Chantels. All the girls are native New Yorkers having been born and raised in the Bronx. Rene and Sonia are currently attending Morris High School; Jackie and Anette have graduated from high school.

The group has been together since 1956, when they met while in the school choir at St. Anthony of Padua Grade School in the Bronx.

Recently the Chantels have appeared in Philly, Brooklyn and at the famed Appolo Theatre in Harlem with Clay Cole. The girls' current hit is "Well, I Told You." Previously, they clicked with "Look In My Eyes," their first effort for the Carlton label.

Once again, Radio's proved its enormous value as the "immediate medium" as KFMB-San Diego's coverage of the recent Los Angeles fire provided a direct line to the public. Station newsmen risked their lives by giving 2-way radio reports from airplanes over the scene. Other staffers reported the news from mobile units on the ground and via telephone from homes in the ravaged fire area.

Pete Johnson, famed K.C. blues pianist of the 40's, now living in Buffalo, New York, has been trying to run down recordings made by himself. WEBR jazz announcer, Carroll Hardy, has been helping the 88'er in his search and suggests that anyone who knows of the existence of Pete's LP's or decks, contact him at 76 Dodge Street, Buffalo, New York.

Hal Murray, morning jester on KDWB in Minneapolis, was recently presented a mounted gold plaque from the Service Clubs for the Handicapped, Inc. in appreciation for his entertaining job of hosting previous club pow-wow's. Service organization also gave Murray the nod to emcee all future events. . . . KDWB's musical Chief, Lou Riegert, was selected by the U. of Minnesota to act as a judge in the last school-wide freshman beauty contest. Riegert was forced to interview each girl, in an intensive four hour selection process, before returning to the station to do his regular 6-9 PM air shift.

Under the auspices of the Detroit Board of Education, the piping sweet voices of elementary school children will plead with local motorists for greater driving care over WJBK. Kids will ask drivers to observe speed limits, be alert, adjust speed to weather and traffic conditions and keep cars in safe operating condition.

Bill Bennett, WLOL-Minneapolis personality, was the host for a three-day First Anniversary celebration at Southtown, one of the leading shopping centers in the suburban Minneapolis-St. Paul area. Bennett sparked a huge stage show, including musical and variety acts, with guest appearances by the Minnesota Vikings professional football team.

Clevelanders who "know their music" are getting a chance to have a Thanksgiving turkey free from WERE. "Dial-A-Turkey," gives a bird to the winner and the berries (cranberries, that is) to the loser. Each hour during the day, the station announces a "lucky number." First listener to call in with this number as the last digit of their home telephone number, is the contestant and takes part in the game by trying to identify, from a number of well-known songs, a word that has been substituted for the word "turkey." Since contest started WERE has awarded 50 turkeys and 10 packages of cranberries.

Mrs. Frank Conrad, widow of the Westinghouse engineer and scientist whose experiments led to the start of radio and KDKA-Pittsburgh, died Nov. 10 in steel town at the age of 80.

KEX-Portland launched "Let's Take a Look," a new weekly educational radio series sponsored by the Oregon

Education Association. Program kicked off last week with a panel of educators discussing "What Is A Teacher?"

Larry Keene, WMID-Atlantic City deejay, recently celebrated his third year with the station in the 3-7 PM slot. . . . Station is presently touting a High School Record Hop Extravaganza at the local schools. Crowds are averaging over 1,000 per hop. Recent artists appearing were: The Dream-lovers, Freddie Cannon, The Rubies, The Tokens, Maureen Gray, Johnny Madara and The Angels.

Paul Sidney, spinner with WLIS in Old Saybrook, Connecticut, is attempting to improve his listeners' vocabulary. Twice a week deejay presents his audience with the definition of a new word in a bid towards more informative broadcasting.

KWIC-Salt Lake City musical chief Paul Coburn, has an interesting promo stunt going for him. Coburn invited listeners to write a post card suggesting the "Album Of The Day." All cards are placed in a barrel. One is drawn out each morning and read over the air with comments as to why a listener likes a particular album. LP is featured on the air and a duplicate is sent to the listener.

Proof positive that radio stations have a heart is WLCY-St. Petersburg Station's Marshall Cleaver winged to the Honduras where he personally distributed tons of medical supplies, educational supplies and clothing to the impoverished people served by a tiny mission in the hills of that country.

WROV-Roanoke weekend personality Richard Williams, recently spent 10 days in a fallout shelter. While Dick was in the shelter, Ron Sunshine brought Gary U. S. Bonds and group of teens from his popular "Teen Town" show down to visit Brother Williams in his cell and had an autograph party.

In conjunction with the two-week deer hunt in Utah, KLO-Ogden ran a "longest deer tail" contest, in which the winner won $1.00 an inch plus a transistor radio. Charlie Peterson counted and measured the 107 entries received and shelved out $14.50 to the lucky hunter. Spinner's trouble is that he is stuck with 107 deer tails.

VITAL STATISTICS:

Dick Lawrence named new program director for WJJD-Chicago. Prior to appointment he had been doing radio work in the Empire State and a WCOP-Boston. . . . Robert Forward veep in charge of programs at KMPC-L.A., named exec veep and general manager of L.A.'s KLAC. . . . Milton H. Klein, general manager of KEWB-Oakland, has been elected to the San Francisco Radio Broadcasters Association for 1962. . . . Jim Gallagher formerly spinning for WADE-Tampa in the 8-12 AM stanza, has taken over the 10 AM-2 PM slot at Tampa's WINQ. . . . Gene Loving promoted to music director of WLEE-Richmond as Joe Murray, previous music topper exits the station. . . . New personality at WROV-Roanoke is Jim Richmond WIST-Charlotte DJ, who moves into the 9-12 AM slot opened by Dave Novak.

RECORD COMPANIES ARE HUMAN!

Record companies are human. You can recognize them, get to know them, and after a while you can understand and judge them by their philosophy. Smash Records is human. Smash has always tried to operate in a manner that would give it prestige and respect. When Smash was born, it grew up under a philosophy of do it right or don't do it at all. Smash has been a choosey child and grew up to be a choosey and yet unselfish adult. The label has never glutted the market with unnecessary releases. Smash felt, and still feels, the best way to get a good record release is to wait until the right artist comes along, then wait for the right song for that artist, and then, wait for the right time to issue that pairing. This recording by Cathy Carr, "Nein, Nein Fraulein," is the perfect example of the Smash philosophy. "The right artist—the right song—the right time."

Paul Anka To Victor; Plan World-Wide Tour

NEW YORK—Paul Anka's move to RCA Victor Records, widely rumored over the past few months, was made official last week with the announcement last week by Bob Yorke, label veep, and Irvin Feld, Anka's manager, that the star songster had been exclusively pacted to the label.

The pact followed the announcement (Cash Box, Nov. 18) that Anka's pact with ABC-Paramount, due to expire next May, had been terminated.

As part of Anka's introduction into the Victor organization, the label is sending the performer on a world-wide tour next year to every major country in the world to meet the local RCA Victor people and to promote his new association. Anka is among the most popular American teen-market artists abroad.

Anka will be cut by his own record-production firm, Camy Productions, for release by Victor in the U.S. and throughout the world.

It was agreed between Anka and AmPar that no Anka album would be released on any other label before Jan. 1, 1962, and that no Anka singles would be issued by any other label prior to Jan. 25, 1962.

"Anka," Yorke said, "is one of the young giants of the entertainment world, a star of truly world-wide stature. His achievements as a recording artist, stage and screen personality and as one of America's most prolific composers of hit songs have already established him as a legend at the age of 20, and portend a tremendous potential for greatness—both in composing and performance—in the future."

Verve Ups Singles Issues

NEW YORK—The Verve label is going after a great share of the singles sales pie, including the teen-market, according to Andy Miele, director of marketing for MGM, Verve and Cub.

As part of the label's singles build-up, five singles have just been released, including "Imagination" by The Quotations and "Dick Tracy" by The Chants, two out-and-out rock decks, "Bachelor In Paradise" by Robert Holiday and His Orchestra, "Love Theme From 'El Cid,'" by Benton Ames and His Orchestra, and "Cry Me A River" and "Clap Hands! Here Comes Charlie!" by Ella Fitzgerald.

The Verve singles will receive "all-out" promotion on the distributor, dealer, one-stop and deejay levels to "drive-home" to Verve distributors the importance of stimulating extra singles business for the label that has been considered a strictly LP jazz outfit.

Miele said more singles of the type just issued would be released in the future.

Darrell Rice Named Victor Musical Dir. On Coast

NEW YORK—Darrell Rice, who joined RCA Victor Records' West Coast office in June, has been appointed to the position of music director, it was announced last week by Steve Sholes, manager of west coast A&R.

Rice, who previously worked in the west coast office as a consultant for religious product, will now supervise the recording of several Victor pop artists, and also concentrate on the general area of television music. In his new capacity, Rice will be working with music directors Dick Peirce and Neely Plumb.

In making the announcement, Sholes indicated that the move would enable Peirce, who formerly worked on TV and motion picture product in addition to supervising such recording artists as Henry Mancini, Ann-Margret and Lena Horne, to concentrate more heavily on individual artists. It will also, Sholes pointed out, enable Rice to fully utilize his experience as a television arranger and conductor.

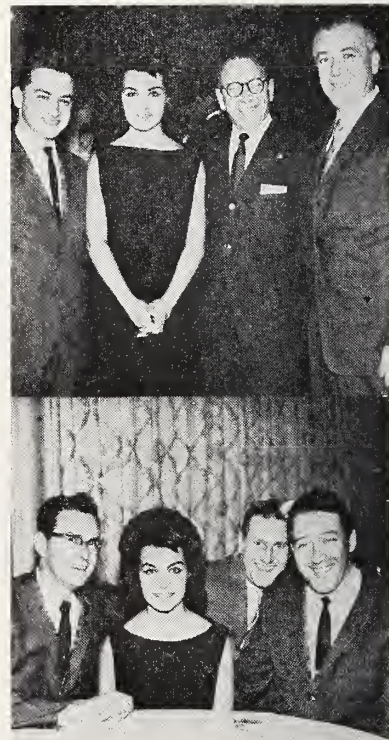

Pickwick Bows Pop Single Line

NEW YORK—Cy Leslie, president of Pickwick International, announced last week the introduction of a regular-priced, pop singles line to be called Showcase. First artist signed to the label is Mat Matthews, whose disk "Milk & Honey" and "Shalom" has already been released.

Leslie explained that his move into the singles field has a two-fold purpose; "We feel that we have the business acumen and the understanding of the business to make a success of the singles market and we are extremely interested in developing 'name' talent for our album lines."

Pickwick International is the merchandising arm for Cricket, International Award, Design "Compatible" Fidelity and Bravo Records, all low-priced LP lines.

All For Annette

Belafonte Feted On $1 Million Sales Of "Carnegie" LP

NEW YORK—Harry Belafonte received recognition last week for the sale of $1,000,000 worth of albums of his 2-disk Carnegie Hall entry. At a reception held last Tuesday (14) at Danny's Hideaway here, hosted by Bruno of New York, RCA Victor's distributor, Belafonte was presented with a gold record and plaque, in which a copy of the album was encased, by George Marek, vice-president of RCA Victor Records, and Phil Silverman, head of Bruno.

Belafonte noted that based on "my royalty taxes" he had been responsible for sales "in the vicinity" of $100,000,000 on his Victor waxings.

Deejays Get "Roses" In Pioneer Promo

CHICAGO—Charles Fach, head of Mercury's special products division and head of the Smash label, has devised a unique disk jockey mailing to plug his release of Larry and Dave's "Rose And A Star" on the Pioneer label, which is being distributed via the division through Mercury. Fach is mailing a hand-made artificial rose in a corsage box, suitable for wearing, to dj's and distributors. The tune, and the artists, have already received a promotional push in the latest issues of Dig and Dug magazines. Both magazines are currently running teen-baited contests on the artists, and Dig's contest is offering the winner a free trip to attend a recording session by the pair.

WB Names Vogue French Rep

BURBANK, CALIF. — Robert B. Weiss, international director of Warner Bros. Records, has announced the appointment of Vogue Records of Paris, France to manufacture and distribute WB disks throughout France.

Agreements between Vogue and WB, officially appointing them as a Licensee, were signed recently in Paris.

The French company, headed by Monsieur Leon Cabat, is expected to make the first release of WB products available in France by December 1. Scheduled to be included in that release are the soundtrack albums "Fanny" and "Parrish," and other albums by the Everly Brothers, George Greeley, Bob Luman and Connie Stevens.

A world premiere, similar in nature to those held when WB was introduced in other European capitols, will be held in Paris to herald the debut of the label in France. Extensive radio, television, newspaper, and major magazine coverage will be given to the introduction of the line in France.

Shelley Berman Bows New Rori Diskery

NEW YORK—The formation of Rori Records was announced last week as the newest business venture for comic Shelley Berman. Berman, who is himself under contract to Verve, named his personal manager, Harry C. Bell, Jr., prexy of the new diskery.

First release for the firm is "Santa And The Touchables" by Arkin and Goodman, currently being shipped. Also set for release soon is "Little Mama Twist" by Frankie Darcy, and an LP, "The Many Heads Of Dickie Goodman." Thirty-six distributors have been set to handle the line.

Bob Arkin was named sales veep and Dickie Goodman was appointed A&R head for the new label. Jason Jacobs, Berman's business manager, will serve as treasurer.

Berman emphasized that the new diskery in no way affects his own pact with Verve, or his other music business activities, including Callopie (BMI) and Drysen (ASCAP), which are all under the direct supervision of Vera Hodes.

Mercury Bows Compact 6's With Special Merchandising

CHICAGO—As previously announced, Mercury Records last week released the first six entries in its Compact 6 line, backed-up by special merchandising. The initial artists represented in the series, 7" 33's with six selections each, are Dinah Washington, Brook Benton, Damita Jo, Jose Melis, Patti Page and The Platters.

Mercury is already putting up a follow-up package which will include more names including David Carroll, Sarah Vaughan, Clebanoff and George Jones.

The Mercury Compact 6 carries a suggested list price of $1.69.

An integral part of the Mercury Compact 6 program will be special wire racks. The racks are made up so that they can be used ideally on record counters, for use as a floor display, or for hanging on the wall or pegboard. The disks themselves will be packaged in plastic bags which contain a brass grommet at the top. The grommet is used to hang the bag on the rack or on pegboards. The package can also be displayed in browser boxes.

To help the dealers promote the program, Mercury is also issuing with the release, two-color streamers and counter/window easels. Mercury is also backing up the program with a complete advertising campaign to the high school newspapers, college newspapers, neighborhood press and special "market tests". The neighborhood newspaper campaign is being aimed primarily at the teen market.

"Kwamina" Closes, But Capitol Feels Score Warrants Original-Caster

NEW YORK—Though the musical "Kwamina" ended its short Broadway run last Saturday (18), Capitol Records believes that Richard Adler has written "a great score" and is thus assembling the show's original-cast for a recording of the score this week (20). According to the label's Joe Matthews, the diskery feels that the quality of the songs warrants an LP version, which can still sell despite the fact that it will not be supported by a hit musical. The show, set in Africa, starred Sally Ann Howes, Adler's wife, Terry Carter and Brock Peters.

UA Quadruples Foreign Business

NEW YORK—United Artists Records, which is currently completing the biggest year in its four-year history gross-wise, will more than quadruple its foreign business in 1961, Art Talmadge, president, disclosed last week.

For the first time, the UA label has been used throughout the world, Talmadge said, and in every foreign country the firm has noted consistent chart action during the entire year. In addition, UA has established its own full-time representative in Europe, Norman Land, with headquarters in Paris, and has stepped up its foreign department at the company's headquarters, with Sidney Shemel, director of foreign operations, in charge, and Steve Morris, currently on a 3-week swing through Europe, serving as his assistant.

Recognition of UA and the talent recording for the company in all foreign areas has not only kept pace with the gross increase domestically, Talmadge said, but has surpassed all dollar-projections for the 1961 calendar year. In addition, the completion of world-wide coverage which was accomplished during the year assures affiliations for the coming years in all areas.

A preliminary analysis of the year to date reveals four major releases which were consistently in the best-seller charts throughout the world, Talmadge said. Included were Ferrante & Teicher's "Exodus," "Michael" by the Highwaymen, which is currently hitting in such countries as Holland, Ireland, Germany, Norway, Hong Kong and others, "Never On Sunday" by Don Costa, and Steve Lawrence's "Portrait Of My Love," which was the first UA single to earn a gold record in the Philippines.

Currently the label is reportedly on the move overseas with the Gene Pitney "Town Without Pity" release, as well as "Michael" and Ferrante & Teicher's current hit, "Tonight." Shirley Bassey, who recently joined UA, is a consistent best-seller in the United Kingdom, and Al Caiola, whose "Bonanza" opened the floodgates in the overseas market, also has been, and is, a frequent chart-maker all over the world.

Morris, who is making his initial swing through the European and Scandinavian countries for United Artists Records, will cover England, France, Germany, Belgium, Holland, Italy, Sweden, Norway and Denmark before returning to the U.S., Talmadge said.

Neil Galligan And Hutch Davie To Leave Canadian American Jan 1st

NEW YORK—Neil Galligan, general manager of the hot Canadian American Record Company, last week announced that he will terminate his association with the label, effective January 1st. Galligan also announced that Hutch Davie, A & R head of the label and arranger of many of the hit singles and LP's the diskery has produced during the past two years, will also end his association with Can Am on the same date.

Galligan revealed that he had been negotiating a new contract with the Canadian American board of directors for a number of months but could not come to terms on a new pact. As a result, he will fulfill the terms of his current contract with the diskery and exit on its termination date, Jan. 1, 1962.

Galligan has headed the label since its first successful release "Sleep Walk" by Santo & Johnny was issued about two-and-a-half years ago. Since that date the company has produced a number of best selling singles and LP's. In addition to Santo & Johnny,

Galligan and Davie played a major role in the success of Linda Scott who first hit big with "I've Told Every Little Star," followed with "Don't Bet Money, Honey" and "Starlight, Starbright," and is currently enjoying best seller status with "Don't Know Why" and "It's All Because." The Company also has been extremely hot during the past year with a number of other labels which it distributes nationally. Currently "Til by the Angels is riding high on the Caprice label as well as "If You Gotta Make A Fool Of Somebody," by James Ray, also on Caprice. Earlier, Janie Grant's Caprice waxing of "Triangle" hit big. Under the Sabina banner, the Belmonts have had "Tell Me Why," "Don't Get Around Much Any more" and their current click "I Need Someone." Santo & Johnny are currently making noise with "Birmingham."

Galligan announced that he and Hutch Davie would reveal their future plans shortly.

Via Route 66?

HOLLYWOOD—Dolton Records topper Bob Reisdorf and songster Vic Dana embarked last week on a month-long cross-country promo trek for Dana's recently-released "Little Altar Boy" single, currently drawing chart attention. Above (left to right) Liberty's Bob Skaff and Bud Dain see Dana and Reisdorf off in Reisdorf's Corvette, in which the entire trip will be made.

Pair plans to visit all key cities to meet with local distributors for special promotions.

Victor Bows Pop LP's In "Reprocessed Electronic Stereo"

NEW YORK—RCA Victor Records is releasing this week its first pop albums in its Reprocessed Electronic Stereo technique. RES bowed last Jan. with the release of three LP's featuring the late Arturo Toscanini. The five pop albums, all previously released in mono only, are: "Harry Belafonte's "Mark Twain & Other Folk Favorites," "The Dukes of Dixieland featuring Pete Fountain," "Inside Sauter-Finegan Revisited," "The Melody Lingers On," "The Voices of Walter Schumann," and "The Midnight Waltz," Wayne King's orch.

Decca Has Deluxe LP Of NBC-TV "Coming Of Christ"

NEW YORK—Decca Records has released a deluxe disk version of the much-acclaimed NBC-TV program, "The Coming Of Christ," which the outlet is airing again this year (Dec. 20) and for the next five years under the sponsorship of U.S. Steel.

The disk contains the Robert Russell Bennett score, whose main theme is from "O Dulcissime Jesu," one of the oldest Gregorian chants, and narrative by Alexander Scourby, heard in the TV'er.

An accompanying four-color, 10-page brochure—part of the book-type package—reproduces some of the artwork seen on the program, which uses a "still-pictures-in-action" technique.

Cooperative promotional activity has been undertaken between the NBC and Decca exploitation and publicity departments and will include exposure in Christmas issues of leading consumer publications, religious periodicals, FM and educational closed circuit classroom showings, dealer displays and special holiday programming built around the album in its entirety.

Len Salidor, Decca's promotion director, believes that with a running time of 26 minutes, "this production is excellent fare for a half-hour holiday special on local radio stations."

Decca A&R man Henry Jerome adapted the Bennett score for the disk version, and packaging was completed under the supervision of Murray Lorber, Decca's ad director in association with James Nelson of NBC's "Project Twenty," which presented the program.

The mono issue retails at $4.98, while the stereo waxing has a $5.98 list.

Verve Rushes LP On Jazz TV'er

NEW YORK—Verve Records is rushing into release a special LP package titled "Chicago And All That Jazz" based on the "Du Pont Show Of The Week" which will be televised over the NBC-TV network next Sunday (26).

Included in the session are Eddie Condon, guitar; Bud Freeman, tenor sax; Bobby Haggart, bass; Gene Krupa, drums; Jimmy McPartland, trumpet; Pee Wee Russell, clarinet; Joe Sullivan, piano; and Jack Teagarden, trumpet. Vocals are by Blossom Seeley and Lil Armstrong. With the exception of Haggart, all were working musicians in Chicago in the 1920's.

They were brought together for the television show which features Garry Moore and traces the history of jazz as it moved north from New Orleans to Chicago. The album was cut following rehearsals and taping of the TV show (resulting in some 50 consecutive sleepless hours for most of those concerned).

Joey Dee & Group On DeeJay Trek; Set For "Twist" Flick

NEW YORK—Joey Dee and His Starlites, who perform the Twist music at New York's Twist-crazy Peppermint Lounge, and currently clicking on the Top 100 with "The Peppermint Twist" (#61 this week), hit the road this week for a series of in-person deejay appearances.

In order to schedule the tour, Roulette arranged for a week's leave of absence for Joey Dee and the group from the Peppermint Lounge. The tour includes, Philadelphia, Baltimore and Cleveland with appearances on the Dick Clark TV show and the Buddy Deane TV show.

According to Bud Katzel, general sales manager of Roulette, the promotion trip was prompted not only because of the tremendous demand for Joey Dee and the Starlites to make these appearances, but also because the group will be involved in a new motion picture which begins shooting in New York this week. The picture, which is being produced by Harry Rome through Paramount Pictures, and is entitled "Hey Let's Twist." Joey Dee and the Starlites and the entire Peppermint Twist story will be the central theme of the picture. The picture will feature such artists as Jo-Ann Campbell, Teddy Randazzo and Kay Armen. The musical score is being written by Henry Glover, pop A & R Chief at Roulette.

Katzel also reported that "Doin' The Twist At The Peppermint Lounge" album was shaping up as the biggest album in Roulette's history. Because of the re-orders on the album, for the first time, Roulette will be pressing albums on the West Coast, as well as using more than one plant here in the East, to keep up with the orders.

Set NARM Awards Ballot

The National Association of Record Merchandisers (NARM) committee in charge of the annual NARM Awards has prepared the ballot shortly to be forwarded to all regular members (rack jobbers) of the group. Using figures on recorded product sold through record racks throughout 1961, the rack jobbers, will return their ballots to an independent certified public accounting firm, following the same procedure as has been used in previous years.

Jules Malamud, the association's executive secretary has announced the appointment of the firm of Aronson and Aronson to handle the final tabulations. Ballots will be sent directly from the record merchandiser to the accounting firm.

James J. Tiedjens, chairman of the committee has announced this year's ballot will ask for votes in the following categories: Best Selling Hit Single; Best Selling Albums, Regular and Economy Priced; Best Selling Vocal Groups; Best Selling Male and Female Vocalists; Outstanding Rack Promotions, Regular and Economy Priced; Best Selling Kiddie Album; Best New Product Introduced in 1961. Recipients of last year's NARM Awards included such artists as Elvis Presley, Connie Francis, Brenda Lee, Bobby Rydell, Mitch Miller, The Kingston Trio, Montavani, Billy Vaughan, Bob Newhart, and 101 Strings. Labels which carried away awards in 1960 were RCA Victor, Columbia, Decca, Capitol, London, MGM, Dot, Warner Brothers, Cameo, Command, Somerset Stereo-Fidelity, Bravo, and Spinorama.

Awards will be presented at the NARM Awards Dinner-Dance, held in conjunction with the association's Fourth Annual Convention, to be held at the Eden Roc Hotel, Miami Beach, Florida, April 8-13, 1962.

Add To Country Talent Mgrs., Bookers

NEW YORK—The listing of Talent Managers and Bookers in the special country music issue (Nov. 4) failed to list Artists Management Bureau, Inc. of Los Angeles. In addition, Cash Box has been informed that Marty Robbins should have been listed with AMB instead of with Jim Denny.

NARAS Panel To Debate: "Is Stereo Necessary?"

NEW YORK—A debate on the question "Is Stereo Necessary?" has been set by the New York Chapter of the National Academy of Recording Arts and Sciences on Tuesday, Nov. 28, at 8:30 PM in the ballroom studio of Fine Recording, Great Northern Hotel, 118 West 57th Street in New City.

Six recording and music world figures with opinions regarding stereo versus mono will debate the topic. The affirmative arguments will be made by Enoch Light, creator of the Command stereo line, Bill Miltenburg, former chief engineer for RCA Victor and now an executive at Ampex, and Sy Oliver, conductor, arranger and vocalist. The negative points of view will be upheld by Dave Kapp, president of Kapp Records, Gerry Mulligan, composer, arranger, band-leader and jazz saxophonist, and Francis Robinson, assistant director of the Metropolitan Opera House.

A door prize consisting of a rare Edison phonograph in good working order, manufactured between 1903 and 1907, will be awarded the winner. The vintage machine is the model for NARAS Grammy awards. There is no admission charge and all are invited to attend.

Margie Bowes Bride Of Doyle Wilburn

NASHVILLE — Doyle Wilburn and Margie Bowes were married here Nov. 11 at the Calvary Baptist Church in a quiet ceremony attended by close friends and relatives. Doyle is one-half of the Capitol Records' team, The Wilburn Brothers (with brother Teddy), and also has ownership interest in Sure-Fire Music and the Wilhelm Agency, talent managers. Margie Bowes was recently inked to Mercury and currently is represented on singles with "Lonely Pillow." She originally came to Nashville in 1958 when she won first place in the Pet Milk Grand Ole Opry contest.

Following the wedding, the Wilburn Bros, embarked on a p.a. tour of Colo. and Utah with the new Mrs. Wilburn accompanying them. A delayed honeymoon in December is being planned by the couple.

MEXICO

Pedro Vargas, the most popular romantic singer we have had in Mexico in the last twenty years, arrived in the capital after a long tour through the United States, and informed Cash Box that his manager Matt Gregory signed a contract for him to appear for two weeks at the "Sands Hotel" in Las Vegas, beginning next month. He also will appear at the Frank Fouce theaters for three weeks. Pedro has been with RCA Victor since he began his career.

After a week of performances at the Maya Theater of Los Angeles, Lucho Gatica returned to Mexico and probably will make important changes in his career very soon.

Libertad Lamarque, who has cut at RCA Ruben Fuentes' composition "Mala Ley" (Bad Law) and, "Fuego En El Alma" (Fire In The Soul), recently at the Million Dollar of Los Angeles, debuted in New York last week (17). When she returns to Mexico, she will film a new picture.

American singer and pianist Beverly St. Laurence bowed at the Terraza Cassino together with a Spanish show with Lucero Tena and ventriloquist Tony Pares with Chamaco Dominguez' orchestra.

The Palace of Fine Arts Autumn season of the National Symphonic Orchestra conducted by German director Theodore Fuchs, was a tremendous success.

Popular Mexican trio Los Tres Ases returned from Argentina after three weeks of big success. They performed on The Cap's Show on TV taking turns with Carmen Cavallaro and Rolando LaSerie. In ten days, they performed at Radio Belgrano and recorded an LP with songs like "Un Poco Mas," "Fuego En El Alma," "El Jarabe Loco," "Balajú" and others.

"Right or Wrong" and "Wooden Heart" has been recorded in Spanish versions by a new rock and roll group, The Luken's, and Jorge Barón and The Danny's orchestra, both on Peerless.

Panamericana de Discos (Musart Records) representatives in Mexico of Capitol Records, selected an album of never-released songs in Mexico of Frank Sinatra. This album includes songs like "This Was My Love," "They Came To Cordura," "You'll Always Be The One I Love," "All My Tomorrows," "Mr. Success" and others. This album has the name "Sinatra in Mexico" and is a tribute to his last trip to this country.

Under the name of "Enrique," Columbia Records is selling the second LP by one of the most popular new singers we have in Mexico today. His name is Enrique Guzmán, and with Chuck Anderson's orchestra he sings Spanish versions of songs like "South of the Border," "Sentimental Journey," "Mamselle," "My Blue Heaven," "Sleepy Time Girl," "Dream," and "I Need You." The album should sell very well.

E. Guillermo Salas, director of the Núcleo Radio Mil (Radio 590, Radio Mil, Radio Eco, Radio Satélite and X-E-O-Y FM), returned to Mexico after spending two months of vacation and work in Europe.

Popular conductor Pablo Beltrán Ruiz cut at RCA two of the most popular rock numbers in Mexico, "Pink Shoe Laces" and "Popotitos," and Fabricio's composition "Yo Te Querré" (I Will Love You). Pablo has in his orchestra the best Mexican musicians and many of his LP's sell very well in other countries, including the U.S.

Mariano Rivera Conde, Vice President of Mexican RCA and International A&R of this American company, flew to Rio de Janeiro and Sao Paulo in a business trip which will continue to Argentina. By the 22nd of this month he should be in New York and after that he will fly to Rome to inspect the subsidiary there.

Billy Vaughn's "Wooden Heart" and "Mexico" have appeared in Mexico from Dot, as did RCA's Elvis Presley album, "Blue Hawaii" and Ray Conniff's Columbia LP, "Somebody Loves Me."

Fermata Do Brasil received an important visit from Philippe Boutet, who is the representative of the group Barclay Editions Caravelle, the publishers of the top hit "Brigitte Bardot" in France. Boutet took with him, to release in France, about ten of the best Brazilian hits. Once more, Enrique Lebendiger proved to be a perfect host.

Fermata also obtained the rights of the hits "Berliner Polka," recorded by Kurt Edelhagen and by Billy Vaughn, under the title of "Berlin Melody" and "Zuckerpuppe" (Sugar Doll).

Sao Paulo welcomed the Japanese singer Eri Chiemi. She appeared for a week at Channel 7, TV Record, singing both Japanese and occidental music with great success.

Odeon Records just released a new collection of albums. Among them there is "Nós Gostamos De Cantar Samba" (We Like To Sing Samba) by Trio Irakitan, with twelve old time hits in our rhythm. Another LP "Jubileu De Prata De Lupicino Rodrigues" (Silver Jubilee of Lupicino Rodrigues) with Brazilian crooner Francisco Egydio, singing songs of that southern composer, responsible for dozens of hits in these last 25 years. And with Hebe Camargo, singer and TV star, there's "Hebe Comanda O Espetáculo" (Hebe Leads The Show) with six songs by Hebe Camargo and, presenting on the other six bands, the following artists: Isaura Garcia, Walter Wanderley, Osny Silva, Tony & Celly Campello, Francisco Egydio and Germano Mathias. Before each musical number, Hebe talks with the artist about the song to be sung. Since Camargo is one of the most popular Brazilian stars, Odeon expects a great hit with this new album.

Léo Romano, Brazilian singer, exclusive of Odeon Records, has a new 78 RPM release with two international melodies: "Escandalo," Spanish bolero, Portuguese version by Teixeira Filho, and "Está Eserito No Céu," Yiddish music in a version by Romeu Nunes. Romano is the only Brazilian singer who records versions of Yiddish melodies, and months ago he had a big success with "Lua Azul" (Blue Moon) another Yiddish number.

In the International field, Odeon gives to the Brazilian fans of music, four albums. "More Success of Nat King Cole," with twelve old tunes, including "Mona Lisa," "Around The World," "Love Is Here To Stay," "Return To Paradise," "Answer Me My Love," "Too Young," "To Young To Go Steady," "Hajji-Baba," "You Stepped Out Of A Dream," "Angel Smile" and "Madrid;" "A Lenda Da Montanha De Cristal," with "Warsaw Concerto," "Serenata D'amour," "Dream Of Olwen," "Cornish Rhapsody," etc.; "Music For Romancing" with Paul Weston and his orchestra, including "My Romance," "Poor Butterfly," "Orchids In The Moonlight," "Gone With The Wind," etc.; "Feliz Natal" (Happy Christmas) with the famous Meninos Cantores De Viena (The Singing Boys From Vienna).

ARGENTINA

The most important point of Mauricio Brenner's visit to Venezuela was the signing of contracts with Hugo Blanco and Joes Enrique Sarabia (two of the most important Venezolan composers) for all their future productions. Sarabia is the author of "Ansiedad," a big hit in 1959-60 in all Spanish speaking countries (it has been recorded by Nat "King" Cole). Blanco is an excellent harpist and composer. His last hit is "Moliendo Cafe," a top seller in Argentina and Brazil and now on Mexican lists. Fermata plans to give big promotion to both artists, geared especially to Sarabia's "Chelison," which is an answer to Blanco's recently created "Ritma Orquidea."

Antonio Prieto seems to have found the road to hits. His "Calle Del Pecado," recorded with Juan D'Arienzo's tango orchestra and released a few weeks ago, already has chart sales (see Cash Box, Nov. 18). Prieto's TV show, now sponsored by Kaiser, has increased its ratings in the last weeks. Additionally, "Nenita Nenita," his previous waxing, is still running very well (this week its #6 on the lists). Now, the singer is considering the possibility of starring in a new film, which may be made by an Italian film company in cooperation with Argentine producers.

Radio El Mundo is arranging the last details of its new 100 KW transmitter, which will start operating Dec. 1st. El Mundo, probably the most important radio station of Argentina, recently had some trouble with its old transmitter, which lowered its output to only 15 KW.

Dan Durand expects a lot from his tune "Late Mi Corazon" (already recorded by Ken Martin for the Discofonia label). Durand isn't a professional writer, but some of his songs (such as "Adios Otra Vez") have called the attention of the experts. "Late Mi Corazon" will also be recorded by RCA and Music Hall, although the artists haven't been determined yet. The song is controlled by Julio Korn.

Peter de Rougemont, head of Columbia Records, was very satisfied with Jose Carli's recording of "Vida Mia," made in the "orchestra and chorus" style. Carli will now record an entire LP in this way.

Some publishers are studying a way of proposing to SADAIC, the Society of Authors and Composers, a new way to control performance rights of their tunes. Under the system now in use, the singer or orchestra that performs in a theatre or dance-party must send to SADAIC the names of the tunes performed, and many don't send in the right information. Only radio and TV are directly controlled by SADAIC. The new system would pay only those authors whose tunes have been recorded or played on radio or TV. The money received from dance parties or non-controlled places would be distributed proportionally to the air play time, thus eliminating the possibility of faults or mistakes.

Another planned change is to raise the publisher's percentage of the rights from 25% to 33% (from foreign tunes publishers receive 50% if the song is published). It is considered that 25% is a small amount under the conditions of the industry today. Some publishers prefer to issue only foreign music simply because they receive more money from them. If this change takes place, local music would increase its potential a great deal.

Hernan Aravena, A&R man of the Corporacion de Radio de Chile, has been here for some days. He got in touch with Ricardo Mejia, head of RCA Argentina, and discussed new plans of cooperation between his company (RCA rep in Chile) and the local branch. Before returning to Santiago, Mr. Aravena spent a few days in Montevideo, Uruguay.

Another folk tune in the charts is "Chacarera Del Finado," recorded by Los Chalchaleros. It comes immediately after "Angelica," one of the biggest local hits (it is said that "Angelica" sold about 600,000 records, in 35 versions, in about seven months).

Music Hall released: a new LP by Bob Crosby; an album with tangos sung by Spanish actress Sarita Montiel; Juan Carlos Mereco's first LP "Pinocho"; an LP by Penny Mendo; a volume devoted to tango music by Lito Escarso.

"Noche De Brujas," recorded by Los Pilaes, is making a good sales showing. "Pide," by Roberto Palmer, is running well. Los Cantores del Alba have recorded a new LP that has already gone on the market.

Ricky Swings In Sweden

ENGLAND

During a recent tour of the record centers in France, Holland, Germany, Italy and the Scandinavian countries the growing importance of the international aspect of record making was everywhere apparent. Besides the universal American chart entrants Elvis Presley and Connie Francis, (Ricky Nelson too is currently in six of the continental charts with "Hello Mary Lou"), it was interesting to find the names of British artists well represented in the international popularity stakes. Undoubtedly leading the field is Cliff Richard, closely followed by his group The Shadows. On the distaff side, the name of Petula Clark can currently be found in the charts of France, Belgium, Holland and Denmark while the doors of international stardom are wide open for British teenager Helen Shapiro. Although still at school, Helen recently made personal appearances in France and Sweden which have considerably boosted her record sales. Continental manufacturers continually stress the vital importance of personal appearances as a promotional aid for American and British artists claiming that the resultant increase in record royalties more than compensate for the relatively low fees payable.

Saga Records announced 10 new releases in its Dandy series of Childrens Disks. These include a set of four religious records "The Nativity," "The Miracles," "The Crucifixion" and "The Resurrection" and in line with all Dandy disks they are 7" EP's retailing at 7/6d. For the Very Young, Dandy has a new series of "talking books"—disks of farm, bird and animal noises each housed in a full colored sleeve and accompanied by an illustrated booklet. The Dandy label, which was launched in October 1960, sold over a quarter million records in three months and a spokesman for the company predicts that this year's Christmas sales will be doubled.

Another success story comes from M. D. Ernest Wilson, for many years a member of the famous Victor Silvester Orchestra who reports that in the 18 months since he founded Silver Dollar Records sales have exceeded 30,000. Silver Dollar specializes in low-priced strict tempo disks specially designed for ballroom dancers and schools. To date 14 7" EP's have been issued and distribution facilities set up in the United States, Denmark, Holland, Germany and Switzerland. Outlets are now being sought in other territories.

Cliff Richard, currently touring Australia and New Zealand, last week collected his 9th silver disk for a quarter million sales of "When The Girl In Your Arms" from his film "The Young Ones." It is interesting to note that the song, specially written for Cliff by American composers Tepper & Bennett, has now been recorded by Connie Francis as "When The Boy In Your Arms." For once the tables are turned with a top American artist waxing a cover version of a British hit.

Anthony Newley's smash musical "Stop The World—I Want To Get Off" is to be filmed in January. This will be the first of a series of films planned by impresario Bernard Delfont. The second "The King Was In The Counting House" starring Newley and Sammy Davis Jr. takes the floor in March. Delfont is currently in New York negotiating a Broadway theatre where, in association with David Merrick, he will present "Stop The World" in September 1962. Singing star Julie Wilson opens a season of cabaret at Delfont's Talk of The Town.

Publisher Harry Lewis appointed general manager of Mellin Music, whose latest chart entries "Take Good Care Of My Baby" by Bobby Vee and "Bless You" by Tony Orlando are handled by Nevis-Kirshner. President Robert Mellin has now returned to the States. Lewis will still continue to look after his own company Marlyn Music and is currently working on a new Vera Lynn single for MGM "From Tomorrow."

Alan Parmor of Lorna Music off to Scandinavia for meetings with his associate companies, Wilhelm Hansen of Copenhagen, Nordiska of Stockholm and Norsk Music of Oslo. He will later visit New York for an exchange of copyrights with American publishers, and explore the possibilities of American guest appearances for Helen Shapiro. Her two successes "Don't Treat Me Like A Child" and "You Don't Know" are both published by Lorna.

Sir Joseph Lockwood, Chairman of EMI in his annual review of the company's activities announced that the total sales of EMI Records for the year ended 30th June 1961 "rose considerably, despite the fall in exports which was more than off-set by a very large increase of sales in the home market." In the classical field, out of the 30 most important international artists now filling the Opera Houses and Concert Halls throughout Europe most record for EMI, many exclusively. EMI's advance in the stereo field may be gauged by the fact that in the past three years nearly 400 LP classical stereo records have been released to augment the existing catalog of over 1000 LP mono disks. Pop-wise, Sir Joseph noted that since July 1960 EMI artists have received 15 Silver Disks for sales exceeding 250,000. He also paid tribute to the achievement of such established artists as Victor Silvester, Joe Loss, Russ Conway, Cliff Richard, The Shadows, Matt Monro, Adam Faith and The Temperance Seven. Of the company's more recent discoveries, Sir Joseph singled out for praise the talents of Helen Shapiro, John Leyton and Danny Williams.

Lionel Bart this month makes his debut as a singer with "Give Us A Kiss For Christmas" released by Decca. Tapes have been flown to the States for transatlantic release.

Warner Bros. international director Bobby Weiss and agent Hymie Zahl negotiating to bring Dorothy Provine, star of ATV's "The Roaring Twenties," to this country for TV appearances. Her latest disk release is "Don't Bring Lulu."

As the twist gathers momentum Warner Bros. re-issue "The Hully Gully Twist" by Bill Doggett first released in January this year. Meantime the famous Continental group Les Chakachas take the floor with "Twist Twist" on RCA.

The BBC has banned as 'unsuitable' all recordings of "God, Country And My Baby." Decca, who released both the Johnny Burnette and Chico Holliday versions, are giving the disks maximum exploitation on Radio Luxembourg and other mediums (see Cash Box story in last week's issue).

Harry Belafonte, top Christmas seller for the past two years with "Mary's Boy Child" has a new single "The Baby Boy" backed with "Kingston Market" released by RCA—both tracks from his LP "Jump Up Calypso" due out in January.

American Shelly Berman visiting London for the first time to tele-record "Shelly Berman—A Personal Appearance" for BBC TV. HMV release on LP of the same title.

Following his recent hits "Johnny Remember Me" and "Wild Wind" EMI release an LP on HMV entitled "The Two Sides of John Leyton"—tracks are divided between beat and ballad numbers.

SWEDEN

Back from biz talks in London, Bo Löffberg, head of record dept. at Philips told Cash Box that his company will do a lot to give its recently contracted songster Anita Lindblom as many international contracts as possible. Dick Katz in London will be handling her contracts in Europe, and as a start, she has a contract for p.a.'s at Sporting Club in Monte Carlo. Recording for Fontana, Jack Beverstock, a & r man of Fontana in London, will handle all her foreign language recordings for the future.

There will be a Swedish song festival also in 1962, one way or another. The winner of the local song festival will be Sweden's entry at the Eurovision Song Festival, taking place in Luxembourg on March 18, 1962. Behind the Swedish entry stands Swedish Broadcasting-TV (SBC-TV). Cooperating with STIM (the performing rights society) SBC-TV has picked out ten tunesmiths, inviting them to present their songs for the local festival. Invited are Evert Taube, Povel Ramel, Ulf Peder Olrog, Jules Sylvain, Owe Thörnqvist, Olle Adolphson, Bobby Ericson, Britt Lindeborg, Per Lindqvist and Ake Gerhard. However, according to the invited composers, their enthusiasm seems to be far from what could be expected. Taube, who actually is no composer of pop songs (he is more a poet, and one of the best in Sweden) has rejected the offer since he will be cruising in the Caribbean waters at the time the competition takes place. Sylvain is principally against so called song competitions and is not expected to accept. Ramel has refused since he considers himself a writer of show songs and not of pop songs of the kind needed in this connection. Olrog is doubtful and so is Thörnqvist, both saying "probably not." Definitely "yes" has been said by Adolphson, Lindeborg and Gerhard. Lindqvist has not yet been available. According to SBC-TV, should less than four accept, we will send a new offer to ten others."

After the more or less scandal-like entry at Cannes this year, there has been much written in the dailies here. The general feeling is that Sweden should withdraw from these competitions. As long as SBC-TV refuses to join the Eurovision Song Festival with a song with commercial value, looking more for the "highstanding" cultural value of the song representing Sweden, Sweden might have very little to expect out of such a competition where most of the European countries seem most anxious to present songs with "hit" appeal.

Speaking to record companies here, there seems to be another problem for SBC-TV to face once it has found a song for Luxembourg. The general feeling is that SBC-TV is not backing up the artists enough, and therefore, record companies might be less willing to see their artists in Luxembourg. Metronome, to mention one example, has already made sure that its Scandinavian top names will not be available, as far as Sweden is concerned it is Siv Malmquist, who will represent Germany in case she wins the local German competition. In Germany, six leading record companies have been invited to pick out two artists each for the German Song Festival. Anders Burman, A & R man of Metronome, Stockholm, returned from Munich the other day and told Cash Box that Nina & Frederik (from Denmark) and Siv Malmquist will be Metronome's representatives in the German competition.

Börje Ekberg of Metronome, Stockholm, told Cash Box that the firm expects a lot from its release of "Ya Ya" with Lee Dorsey, released here at Metronome. Swedish publisher of the song is Multitone. In the U.S., the recording is released on the Fury label.

Rolf Wallentin has just done his first EP for EMI on the Odeon label. His version of "Wayward Wind" is expected to be something extra.

Ann-Louise Hansson, teenage songster at Metronome label, in Torremolinos, Spain, on a three weeks vacation.

Anita Lindblom's first Swedish EP for Fontana has at least one song with plenty of appeal for the future charts. It is her version of the American song "You Can Have Her" in Swedish titled "Sån't är livet" (Such is life). Other songs on the EP are "No, je ne regret rien," "I Just Don't Understand" and "Mysterious Tango," all in Swedish.

FINLAND

Several spokesmen for the record trade in Finland have reported to Cash Box that the record biz is doing very badly these days, thanks to Nikita Khrushchev. "Being anxious for what the future might bring, it seems as people having any money to spend, prefer to place them in gold and jewelry instead of phonograph records, as the latter is considered something too luxurious in case anything serious should happen." Trade people have sounded very pessimistic about the coming Christmas sale, which, by tradition, is the best sales period for the trade.

At the top in Finland's Best Sellers is "Putti Putti" with Jay Epae on Mercury. A local recording with Kai Lind on HMV of the same song appears in the fourth spot. The Kai Lind recording of the song, however, is topping the list of best selling EP's in Finland at the moment.

NORWAY

Ricky Nelson, who recently was awarded a silver disk for the sale of 25,000 of his "Hello Mary Lou" by daily paper Arbeiderbladet, was the 13th silver disk winner in Norway since the paper started presenting such awards two years ago.

Norwegian singer Ray Adams will be touring Sweden until Christmas. In January, Germany wants him for TV programs.

GERMANY

Bob Schwartz of Laurie Records dropped by the office and brought up some basic differences between the record industry in Germany and in other world markets, especially America that are interesting for industry people all over the world. Everyone will agree that the record business is now a world business and no longer limited to the U.S., but the record business in each country is quite different. It is getting more and more difficult to produce a recording with international quality because the tastes of different countries differ. For instance, local singer Udo Jurgens has turned songwriter and has had 2 songs all over the international charts. His first tune "Jenny" recorded as both an instrumental and vocal picked up top sales in many world markets but was just moderately successful here. His latest effort, "Woher Ich Auch Komm" is practically unknown here but has sold terrifically in England under the title "Reach For The Stars" sung by Shirley Bassey, who is now warbling this song all over the U.S. Other German artists who are still selling well here but have not come up with a new international smash include Lolita, & Ivo "Morgen" Robic. Top execs on both sides of the ocean seem to agree that separate records must be recorded for home sales and for export to foreign lands. Even Connie Francis, who is doing sensationally on this market as well as Italy, is recording different material for release on different markets. At the present time, almost no top hits from the U.S. have made the charts here with the exception of "Michael." However the top hit here "Weisse Rosen Aus Athen" originated in Greece and "Pepito" is a Spanish song. With the cost of promotion being much lower here than in America (About 300 sample records for press and DJ's) and therefore the margin of profit being greater (no discounts, deals or freebies) the record firms can take a chance on more production at less cost than their American brothers. However, the top pops from the U.S. market just aren't doing the sales that they used to. The German market is best understood by a record exec who visits here at least once a year to see for himself. There's no substitute for travel when it comes to understanding and producing for the world market today. It can also mean lots of profit. One suggestion. When you reach a country, call the local Cash Box rep. He'll be glad to give you an unbiased picture of his market and set up appointments with the most important people for you.

"My Fair Lady" is certainly getting top coverage since the opening of the musical in Berlin. Philips has released not only the German language LP but also has cut 2 singles with Heidi Bruehl for the market. Metronome has also released a dixie land EP of tunes from the show from the Down Home Jazzband.

Metronome has re-released Bobby Darin's "Dream Lover" and "Splish Splash" back to back, and they're enjoying good sales. The top selling record for the firm continues to be "Schade, Schade, Schade" by Siv Malmkvist. Radio Luxemburg reports that "La Paloma" by Freddy continues to top its hit parade with Americans Elvis Presley and The Highwaymen also represented in its top 10.

An old German folksong with parts from "La Traviata" first recorded in 1936 has been revived and is now topping the hit parade in Scandinavia. The song "Violetta" will be on the market here in the next few days by Jorgen Ingmann instrumentally and Bobby Franco from Telefunken Records vocally. It should be a smash here, too.

That's it for this week in Germany.

Satisfied Smiles At Vogue

JAPAN

After a long absence, chanson songstress Fubuki Koshiji's "Jirasanaide (Please Don't Tease Me)" will be out this month by Toshiba. This album, her third, has 8 tunes. Among them is "It Was Written In The Sky," last summer's best selling one here.

The Yomiuri Shimbun, one of the three major dailies, has announced its invitation of Francisco Canaro y su Orquesta Tipica, world-famed maestro of Argentine Tango with the cooperative backing-up by Japan's Foreign Office, Tokyo Metropolitan Government, Argentine Embassy, Japan-Argentine Society, Latin America Society and The Toshiba Records. His appearance in Japan is to commemorate his country's president Arturo Frondizi's state visit to Japan on Dec. 13. Canaro's appearances will start Dec. 1.

Columbia is now busy selling and advertising the so-called "Don-Don" rhythm. To meet this need, the diskery cut "Don-Don" in LP form featuring many pop-tunes such as "Side By Side," "Luna Napolitano" and others. Tunes were recorded by nine bands and orks appearing in nitery spots. Deck's release will be followed by the big advertising, and "Don-Don" parties here.

Toshiba's Q Sakamoto, Kayoko Moriyama and Jerry Fujio will appear in the Toho film "Awamori-kun Nishi-e Iku" (in color) which is to open Dec. 24 for a week throughout the country. Q. Sakamoto will also be featured in another Toho flick in color "Comics: Ekimae Bentoh" along with many vet film stars (opening date is same as the former).

Gramophone announced its best-selling-5-tunes-in-revival-chart. The figures claimed by the diskery start from Jan. 1 to Oct. 31. This doesn't include ordinary tunes, of course. 1). "Ruten" by late screen star Keiichiro Akagi sold 100,000 copies. 2). "Uramachi Jinsei" by flick star Joji Takagi—50,000 copies. 3). "Meigetsu Akagi-Yama" by film actor Jo Shishido—30,000 copies. 4). "Tsumakoi Dochu" by Koji Kashima—20,000 copies. 5). "Tabi-no Tsubakuro" by Michiyo Oikawa—10,000 copies.

To maintain so-called "Rivival Boom," Columbia cut Hideo Murata's new deck "Kutsukake Kouta" b/w "Oshima-Sentaro Tabi-Uta." His biggest smash "Jinsei Gekijo" is also a revived oldie.

Nitery songstress Junko Kida, 19, debuted with Victor's album "Cocktail Music (produced by Voichi Suzuji)" which features evergreen Latin-American material. Selections include "Besame Mucho" and 7 others.

CORRECTION . . . We spotted "Hokkiko" No. 1 position of "LOCAL TUNES" chart last week. The deck by the Four Lads, was then read as available thru Capitol label, but the label is actually Toshiba. Toshiba, distributor of Capitol here, cut the tune during the group's stay in Japan recently and released it on Toshiba.

Columbia's prexy Yonezo Hata and managing director & record division topper Takishi Tatsunami have resigned. After the recent directors' meeting, the firm announced its gross sales as 7,330,012,000 yen (US $1.00 is equal to 360.00 yen on official rate) during the first-half of this year (Mar. 21 thru Sept. 30), gaining 1,109,000 yen over the last settlement term. (This excludes export outcome). Net profit shows 17,000,000 yen less than that of last term with the result of 5,115,900,000 yen. Record division occupied 19% (1,392,700,000 yen) out of grand total of gross sales. TV division gained 47% (3,445,150,000 yen). Electric appliances earned 26% (1,905,830,000 yen). Others won 8% (586,400,000 yen).

Meanwhile, Yonezo Hata proposed his resignation as Japan Phonograph Records Association's topper when his retirement from Columbia was announced. JPRA's extraordinary directors' session, however, succeeded in making him remain as the chief of association.

Sadao Naito, 29-year-old composer, was pacted exclusively with Columbia.

Nikkatsu film will release two color flicks bearing the name of recent best-selling tunes. One is "Kuroi Kizuato-no Broos (Broken Promises)" as Dec. release. The other is "Wataridori Kita-e Kaeru (Migratory Bird Backing North); from Hokkiko" for Jan. opening.

The Mercury label, which has long been distributed by King Records of Japan, will be released by Victor starting next month. Philips' purchase of Mercury made this change necessary here because Mercury is to bear Philips' label outside of the United States. Victor is the agent for Philips here.

ITALY

Pino Donaggio, one of our best singers-composers, is due Nov. 21 at the Olympia in Paris where he will present all of his hit product. He presented, on Canzonissima, a new tune he penned titled "Il Mio Sotterraneo" (My Cellar).

For the first time, Milan's music publisher Franz Leonardi has two items on the chart, "Non Essere Timida," which is the old "Santa Lucia" in a modern version, interpreted by Celentano, and Marino Marini's "Non Sei Mai Stata Così Bella" (You're Lovelier Than Ever). Young publisher Leonardi has a rich catalog of Italian light music, inasmuch as he has continued the job of his father who died four years ago after a life completely devoted to the music business. While his father principally went after the local music product, Franz wishes to enlarge, internationally, his music interests. His address in Milan is: Leonardi—Galleria Del Corso 4—Milan.

The Italian talent of RCA Italiana has been working successfully: Miranda Martino is number two in the Canzonissima TV festival with the tune Nico Fidenco wrote for her; Nico was, the other month, in the States for theatre-nights appearances and also was on TV. While RCA in America issued his "What A Sky" and "Un Granello Di Sabbia" (Tied To A Grain Of Sand), and RCA Italiana is releasing his first LP featuring his many popular pieces; Gianni Meccia presented on Canzonissima his song, "L'Ultima Lettera" (The Last Letter).

Recent requests from the States and Canada for saxist Fausto Papetti's recordings. Papetti is well known here and known also abroad in Europe, and he has been meeting with ever increasing success thanks to his "new style" in sax. Up to the present time, his record house, Durium, has issued two LP's featuring the best music of these years and just come out in the States his first single carrying "Come Sinfonia" (Like A Symphony).

Add to the available versions of number one hit "La Novia," Marino Barreto's edition coupling "Regalami Una Notte" (Give Me A Night) on Melodicon (Philips). The cover consists of a booklet with strip cartoons telling the story of "La Novia." Philips has also Sacha Distel's interpretation of this song.

No reaction yet from our public to the Twist, but much rumor and interest on the part of many record houses and by the papers, which have been announcing for some weeks that the Twist is the new original dance craze hitting the world, with a lot of pictures illustrating how to dance it. Marino Marini has cut the first Italian Twist for Durium for immediate release. CGD has Chubby Checker and therefore publishes his Twists. Carisch has the Twist by Hank Ballard on the Parlophon-American King label. Ricordi released the "Peppermint Twist" by Joey Dee on Roulette and also on the same label "The Twist Changa," by Machito and his ork. And lastly, Durium put out "Twistin' USA" by Danny and the Juniors on Top Rank.

Rifi Records announced it has received the Italian representation of the Sphinx label, which handles vedette Nico Gomez, while Melody Records (Atene) managed by Antoine Plomaritis, has taken over the Rifi representation in Greece, Syria, Egypt, Lebanon, Cyprus.

From Roulette, here represented by Ricordi, come two interesting LP's Louis Armstrong and Duke Ellington (recording together for the first time) and another album featuring Count Basie and Sarah Vaughan. "Duke's Place," a piece featured on the first LP, will be available also as a single.

Nilla Pizzi, the Titanus' songstress, has been touring South America and is expected back at the start of next year to take part in the San Remo festival. Titanus has published an LP (16 rpm) by her.

Recent visitors to Milan included Robert Schwartz, American producer of Laurie records of New York. Up to the present time the Laurie records were internationally distributed by way of Top Rank. Upon the recent expiration of his contract with Rank, Schwartz started a European trip, country by country, to become closely aware of the shape of each singles record market of the continent and to set up direct contracts with local houses. Along with Cash Box, he visited Mr. Gurtler, Mr. Mintangian, the present rep of Rank, and Mr. Casetta of Bluebell; and also Franz Leonardi. The latest Laurie big hit, "Runaround Sue" by Dion, is coming out here with a real possibility of hitting also on our market because the melody is already known here inasmuch as it was used as a main leit motive on the weekly shows of our successful TV spectacle "L'Amico Del Giaguaro" (The Friend Of The Jaguar), telecast last Autumn.

The second channel of our sole TV station, R.A.I., was officially opened. Caterina Valente has her own weekly music show on the second channel.

BENELUX

Delta's recording department shows remarkable activities. A special studio combination with choir recorded the theme song of the successful film "Taxi For Tobroek."

The Rollers a dynamic Dutch instrumental rock-group, debuted for the Delta-mikes with two no-rock traditional, "La Paloma" and "I Love My Holland." The recording got a rush release in Holland as well as in Belgium.

Popular vocal group The Sunbeams made new recordings for the Delta-label too, among which Dutch version of "Michael."

Basart-Amsterdam, already one of the major publishing firms in Benelux, has greatly strengthened its position this week when they purchased the world known firm of Alsbach & Co., an important publishing house in Holland. The Alsbach catalog, which is almost a hundred years old, contains some 5,900 copyrighted works and practically all the world known Dutch composers like Peter van Anrooy, Anna de Wijs-Mouton, Willem Ciere, Dirk Witte, Julius Röntgen, etc.

The wholesale department of Alsbach, which represents many important European catalogs, will also be handled by Basart through their own wholesale outlet, Eerste Muziekcentrale, The founder and owner of the Alsbach firm, Johann Adam Alsbach, died last year at the age of 88.

On Thursday, November 2, L.C. Bovema organized a very informal press conference for the famous French singer Gilbert Bécaud, who visited Holland to prepare an Ampex-tele-recording for Dutch AVRO-TV. Bécaud, whose records are being released by Bovema's His Master's Voice-label, told the press that he just finished his "Opéra D'Aran" (lyrics by Louis Amade and Pierre Delanoe) which will be inaugurated next year in the Paris Théâtre Des Champs Elysées. Among the invited personalities of Dutch show business were Eli Asser, Rita Corita, Johnny Jordaan, Wilma Driessen, TV-producer Karel Prior and Tante Leen.

Mr. Gerry M. Oord, president of Bovema, recently held several important discussions with Mr. Annotico, international sales director of Liberty Records, whose label will now be distributed in Holland by Bovema-Gramophonehouse.

Bovema's His Master's Voice-label will release the first series of EMI-"Encore" Records, which will largely promote re-issues of important performances of recent years. These 12"-LP's are presented in full-color albums and are including several recording greats, such as Norrie Paramor, Ray Martin, Sir Thomas Beecham, Wilhelm Furtwängler and The Royal Philharmonic and Vienna Philharmonic Orchestras.

There will be another Toon Hermans One Man Show 1961 on records, due before the end of the year. Hermans' first 12"-LP will be released in a luxurious full-color set, with photos and other details on the subject. As always it's Bovema's His Master's Voice-label, led by Willem Voerman, who will be in charge for this.

Bovema's HMV/SGL-label, featuring Dutch students' artistic achievements, has released the third EP-record by student-minstrel Jaap Fischer, whose songs with intriguing texts are very much in demand these days.

Jos Cleber, conductor of AVRO Orchestra "De Zaaiers," will leave for South Africa early next year. Cleber, who is also a noted composer-arranger, will become conductor-manager with Radio South Africa in Johannesburg. A great loss for Dutch light music! For the past years he has made records for the Philips label and also accompanied many pop artists on top-selling disks. Among Cleber's well known compositions are "De Postkoets," "The Golden Circle Song" and "Sleighride In Alaska."

Ruud Jacobs, younger brother of Pim Jacobs (husband of Holland's First Lady Of Jazz, Rita Reys) was recently married to Thea van der Kaay. This month Ruud has been touring India with The Dutch Jazz Quintet. The Pim Jacobs Trio—with Pim on piano and Ruud on bass—has made a new LP with Rita Reys, titled "Jazz Pictures At An Exhibition." Guest-soloist was famous drummer Kenny Clarke. (Philips, L.C. Phonogram.)

"Party Favourites" is a new LP by the ever popular Dutch Swing College Band (at this moment touring through Germany). Titles include "Wolverine Blues," "Mood Indigo," "Beale Street Blues" and "The Sheik Of Araby."

For the first time an EP by popular Italian singer Mina is released here on Philips. Included is an Italian song "Lipstick On Your Collar." Also new on the Philips label is Johnny Halliday, a French rock-singer.

The Dutch Swing College Band has recorded "Quena" (played on that instrument by leader Peter Schilperoord) c/w "Besame Mucho," on Philips. These versions were cut in Argentine, some months ago, when the Band played there. Other welcome single news: "Mexico" and oldie "Darktown Strutters' Ball" by Dutch guitar combo The Jumping Jewels. (Philips.)

The Highwaymen have their first EP out here on the United Artists label (L.C. Phonogram) with their top-selling "Michael," "Santiano," "Sinner Man" and "Irish Work Song," also known as "Fi-Li-Mi-Oo-Re-Ay."

FRANCE

Impossible not to say a few words once more about the amazing, the astounding success of Helen Shapiro (Pathe) in France. The singer's two appearances in Paris—one on the television show, "Toute La Musique" and the other on Europe No. 1's famous "Musicorama" spectacle at the Olympia—were all that was needed to unleash around this 15-year-old English warbler a veritable paeon of praise. The Parisian public as well as that of Marseilles, St. Etienne and people everywhere where the television and Europe No. 1's network reach are literally begging to buy Helen's records and the juke-box demand is especially marked. Juke-box man Vic Tahar hardly knows where to turn to meet the orders. . . . On the same program, big hit for Barclay's Vince Taylor. Another rock 'n roller who has won a top place through hard work, slowly but surely, is Richard Anthony. His interpretations of "Viens Danser Le Twist" and "Avec Une Poignée De Terre" have definitely established his reputation on the Pathe label where he's a sale leader along with Les Compagnons de la Chanson and Les Chats Sauvages. The latter group is appearing in public for the first time at the Pacra concerts, Paris sole remaining Cafe-Concert establishment which is open three times a week in the Bastille quarter.

Also a few words about "Hit The Road, Jack" which is on its way up on the list of best-sellers in France, first of all because of the original Ray Charles version (on Vega) and also because of Richard Anthony's singing of the French version entitled "Fich' Le Camp, Jack." Francis Linel also has waxed the tune, along with a rock version of "Nuits De Chine." This could be expected after his "Les Millions D'Arlequin" and he needs now only to record in rock "Les Roses Blanches." "Hit The Road, Jack" was also among the latest tunes recorded by Jacky Riders and his Starlettes (Philips). Jacky is a mechanic when he's not recording. Seems that the rhythm and the steady beat of the machines developed his taste for rock 'n roll.

Philips also announces a November 20 release of a new classical series called "Musique Contemporaine." 18 albums are already planned, among which will be found works by composers such as Messian, Boulez, Orff and certain first-time-on-records works such as "Lulu" by Alben Berg and Schoenberg's "Moses And Aaron."

There's no doubt about it—Paris seems to be on a real Anglo-Saxon "kick" and our panorama for this week would not be complete if we failed to mention that "coming-up-strong" number by Petula Clark, "Romeo." Les Compagnons have added the tune to their recorded repertoire too but it must be stressed that the fast rise of the tune is due mostly to Petula Clark for its recording was the last gift Petula left Vogue's Leon Cabat before she took time off to await the birth of her baby scheduled for the end of the year.

Decca has a new tune we'll be hearing more about no doubt—it's "Marilyn Monroe" by Michel Merendez, a Belgian although his name would hardly lead you to think so. Decidedly, Belgium produces a bumper crop of talented Latin-American type musicians and bands. Just to name a few—they're Les Chachas, Francis Bay, etc. . . . Also worth noting on Decca, Bob Moore's "Hot Spot." RCA has started on a new Alain Barriere promotion drive to consolidate his hit number, "Katie" and prevent him from making a name on one song only to slip up on the second.

We mentioned here some months back the film track of "Trois Petites Notes De Musique" published by a firm called "Nuances" and disked in the original version by Pathe. Yves Montand has recorded the lead tune for Philips and is including it in his present U.S. program. Sophie Darel has waxed it for Ricordi, Maro and Andre for Vega and Polydor has issued a German recording by Friedel Hensch. Also from Ricordi comes news of Sarah Gorbis' album "Chants Du Ghetto." Lasry and Bachet with their famous crystal instruments accompany her.

Gloria Lasso will wax "Le Beau Voyage," the French adaptation of "Hills Of Assisi" from the movie "St. Francis Of Assisi." Miklos Rozsa was in town for a few days and recorded several programs for radio and TV in which he presents the music he composed for the new version of "King Of Kings" scheduled to be shown in Paris in January.

Let's end with an item that has its importance where the music publishing folks are concerned: it's the opening of a Paris branch of Mills Music, called Mills France, in conjunction with Tutti-Pares, the whole thing to be run by Gerard Tournier. And finally, Vic of Fantasia Editors announces that his tune, "Tu Me Parlais De Lui" is off to a good start, Baxter and Favereau are the authors and Marie-Jose has waxed the tune. Note the remarkable come-back of this singer who brought herself to the attention of the French public—and how!—with "Si Tu M'Ecrivais."

CANADA

AUSTRALIA

During the past month, the Canadian record industry has witnessed a host of hot new Canadian recordings and also new artists. Tartan Records has come up with another winner from Bobby Curtola. Bobby had a hot Canadian disk during the summer months with, "Don't You Sweetheart Me." His current item, "Hitchhiker," was produced in Nashville studios. (The new Tartan distributor for Quebec is Phonodisc.) The Beaumarks have a string of hits with Quality Records. Their hits include, "Moonlight Party," "Clap Your Hands," "Oh! Joan," "Billy, Billy, Went A-Walking," and "Classmate." The boys have a solid chart entry with their latest release entitled, "Yours." Their first album was released last year and has been a strong item all year. Quality announced that the new album from the group will be released next week. It is called, "In Person With The Beaumarks." Apex Records has come up with Billy Blue, an instrumentalist who is currently attending McGill University in Montreal. Billy has a chart item in "Minuit." This is his first record. Dean Morgan, who has had a fair amount of exposure from his initial Canadian recordings, has his first outing for 20th Century Fox with, "Ouch! You're Breaking My Heart." A low priced album by a rock n' roll group called The Rockets has taken off for Adanac Music in the Province of Quebec. Adanac reports this Canadian item as its best seller in its entire catalog. Other Canadian artists who have recorded within the last few weeks include, Barry Boyd with "Going Home To Memphis" on Quality, The Courriers from Ottawa have recorded "Joe Bean" on Barry. Kelly Jay also appears on Barry with a new release entitled "Two Faced Woman." Bob Gillies, disk jockey with CFCF Radio and also emcee of the hour long "Like Young" TV show, has formed his own label called Valentine Records and has come up with a hit in, "Swingin' Mathilda." In the interest of the Canadian record industry, Cash Box has been giving special attention to Canadian artists and Canadian recordings. This column has presented views and opinions from Canadian record people and also special editorials aimed at encouraging the growth of the Canadian industry. This column has received many letters from disk jockeys, dealers, distributors, record companies, and from the management of radio stations. These people proved that they were interested in seeing more Canadian talent. The past months have probably been the most active period in the history of Canadian record productions. This of course includes the French industry. As we mentioned in last week's column, the big firms have been hitting hard at their low priced French albums. Add to this the new French Christmas product and the new singles. (Approximately 70 to 80 French singles have been released this month.) More and more radio stations are programming Canadian records. Cash Box in Canada receives charts from the key radio stations. Many of these charts now include Canadian records, previously these stations programmed very little, if any, Canadian talent. Stations such as CKGM in Montreal and CHUM in Toronto have sparked our industry by including local records high on their charts. For instance "Classmate" by The Beaumarks received a lot of attention at CKGM, the same goes for "Don't You Sweetheart Me" by Bobby Curtola at CHUM. This air exposure has encouraged Canadian companies to produce more local product. If the current trend should continue we can expect more chart items, in the near future, from our local artists.

French News:

As we mentioned above a lot of French product, albums and singles, has been released for the Christmas season. One or more Christmas albums have been released by the following firms, Trans Canada, RCA Victor, London, Compo, Fleur de Lys, Meteor, Pathe, and RMP Record. All these albums are aimed at the French market. We cannot mention all the new product that has been released in the singles department since it would take too much space. Instead we will mention the singles which are contenders for the top ten during the Christmas season. The hot items include, "Gros Jambon" which is the French version of "Big Bad John." It has been recorded by Marcel Giguire on Trans Canada. Also, "Nous Les Copains" by Gilbert Becaud on Pathe, "Oui Devant Dieu" by Gloria Lasso also on Pathe, "Si Tu Reviens Un Jour" by Michelle Richard on Meteor, "Le Grillon" by Marcel Amont on Apex, "Noel Blanc" by Fernand Gignac on Fleur de Lys, "Tu N'Peux Pas Figurer" by Andre Sylvain on Rusticanna, "Oh! Oh! Mon Coeur" by Michel Gingras on Venus, "Sans Ton Amour" by Claude Girardin on Rusticanna, "Oh! Jacques" by Ginette Sage on Apex, "Huguette" by Andre Marcoux on ABC, "Les Amants" by Edith Piaf on Pathe, "Bambino" by Carmelito on Cavalier, and "Si T'es Tanne" by The Rythmos on Fleur de Lys. These are the new disks which are receiving good air play. These should be the items on the charts during Dec. Of course, more releases will be marketed during the next couple of weeks and more chart items may come from them. All in all the Christmas season looks very promising. Canadian product should enjoy the best winter it ever had.

The entire music and record industry in Australia is looking to Nov. and Dec. to be bumper months and fortunately business is brighter now than it has been all the year—but of course if business does not improve at this time of the year it never will. The depressed state of the trade over the past fifteen months or so has been one of the most critical periods in the history of the record industry in this country. The recent Government announcement that "the credit squeeze is over" has had little effect to date in loosening the public pursestrings although there are now signs that the average Australian is spending a little more freely than for a long while.

The true extent of the damage to the record business as a result of the Government financial restrictions will probably never be known but it does seem certain that what has been lost will take a long time to regain.

Still the biggest individual headache to record companies is the lack of consumer interest in singles. The singles position is little, if any, better than it was six months ago but the better class singles currently being issued should greatly aid the return to strong consumer demand.

Recent cover versions released by RCA include "Let's Get Together" by Bonny Young c/w "I Love How You Love Me" by Val Palmer and "Runaround Sue" by Chet Avery c/w "Tower Of Strength" by Ray Garnett.

The EMI group certainly has the whip hand now in the hit market—it has five out of the ten best-sellers across the nation, three on London and one apiece on Capitol and Columbia. The Festival group has two—the nation's number one smash "I'm Counting On You" released on Leedon and on Ampar it has "Hit The Road Jack" by Ray Charles. ARC (Coronet), Pye and RCA have one disk each in the top ten hits throughout Australia. On the publishing side of things, Acuff-Rose leads the field with three of the top ten songs, namely "Crying," "Big Bad John" and "Mexico."

Interesting to note the Johnny Nash version of "I'm Counting On You" which has just been issued in the United States on ABC-Paramount. This title is of course the top hit throughout Australia under the Leedon single by local idol Johnny O'Keefe. The way O'Keefe's disk is selling (it has taken up almost permanent residence in the No. 1 spot) it looks like the hit of the year in this territory.

W&G Records released the Cocki Mazzetti record of "Pepito" which is a current best seller in Italy—disk is released under an agreement with Ri-Fi Record Company in Italy. Ron Gillespie of W&G says his company intends to pursue a policy of regular Italian releases to meet the demands of the continually growing Italian communities in Australia. Another recent issue by W&G is the original version of "Midnight In Moscow" by Jan Burgers, which is a click on the Continent and is expected to break through in England—where it is released on Oriole, which has licensed it to W&G.

Popular vocalist Alan Dean, who has been in Australia for some time, has cut a single locally for the Pye label, it carries "Jackeroo Calypso" and "I'm For Her." Another new release on Pye is "Sucu Sucu" by The Laurie Johnson Orchestra; this one is pretty hot in England right now where the melody is a theme of a television series, it has opposition from the original version by Ping Ping, which has been released in this country for many months.

EMI's present batch of new singles includes two hot items from England—Helen Shapiro's "Walkin' Back To Happiness," which is tipped for big things in US where it is released on Capitol—and a little thing called "My Boomerang Won't Come Back" by Charlie Drake; both these disks stand a big chance of success in Australia.

England's Mark Wynter has left Australia to return home via the United States where he has some TV commitments to meet. Mark enjoyed a very successful season (his second) in Australia, particularly in television shows. He was brought to this country under exclusive contract to GTV-Channel 9. Speaking with Cash Box prior to his departure, Mark said his Australian visits had given him tremendous experience and he hopes to make his third trip to this country late in 1962. His album "The Warmth Of Wynter" has been released here by EMI on the Decca label, and it should find a big market.

"MISERY LOVES COMPANY" (2:34) [Lowery BMI—Reed]
"I CRIED AGAIN" (2:15) [Peer BMI—Inman]
(PORTER WAGONER (RCA Victor 7967))

"Misery Loves Company" looms as the next hot chart item for Porter Wagoner. A fine singing job is turned in on this blue tear-jerker with plenty of emphasis on beat. Flip side of disk, "I Cried Again," ranks as a real comer and could also make some noise.

"SECOND CHOICE" (2:38) [Cedarwood BMI—Walker, Stanton]
"A WOUND TIME CAN'T ERASE" (2:37) [Buna BMI—Johnson]
STONEWALL JACKSON (Columbia 55332)

Here's a terrific new side for Stonewall Jackson. Singer wails this top-flight blues item with sincerity and poise. Quick moving deck has plenty of built in sales power. "A Wound Time Can't Erase" is a strong ballad with a pretty melody. Both sides are sure-fire chart contenders.

"TAG ALONG" (2:23) [Sure-Fire BMI—Burk, Burk]
"GIFT OF THE BLUES" (2:27) [Sure-Fire BMI—Cochran]
WILBURN BROTHERS (Decca 31333)

The Wilburns are really rockin' with an enjoyable country sound in "Tag Along," their latest Decca release aimed for the kiddie Christmas market. Deck's good spirits are destined to take it to the top. "Gift of the Blues" is a sincere chanting of a familiar lament. Has definite airplay potential.

"CHRISTMAS IS JUST ANOTHER DAY FOR ME"
(2:42) [Pamper BMI—Howard]
"RUDOLPH THE RED-NOSED REINDEER" (2:16)
[St. Nicholas BMI—Marks]
ERNEST TUBB (Decca 31334)

Vet country chanter Ernest Tubb gives forth with a poignant Xmas number penned by multi-hit tunesmith Harlan Howard. Tune has an infectious quality that should make it a sure Yule favorite. Ernest's reading of "Rudolph The Red-Nosed Reindeer" has a good, lively sound that should raise it above the category of being just another Christmas evergreen.

BILL BROCK (Era 207)

(B+) "I'M AFRAID MY DREAMS ARE REAL" (2:35) [Jaf BMI—Brock] Here Bill Brock offers one of his own compositions, turning in an excellent job on the deck, singer expresses an interesting blue-love lyric that could attract attention.

(B+) "IS LOVING ME OH SO HARD TO DO" (2:38) [Jaf BMI—Brock] More of the above, this time the sound is more distinctly country.

DICK BILLS (Crest 1089)

(B+) "FROM HERE TO NOWHERE" (2:28) [American BMI—Bills] Songster should make some noise with this one. Bills' excellent vocal work on a traditional theme make for a slow, feelingful ballad session.

(C+) "ROCKIN' AND A ROLLIN'" (2:04) [American BMI—Bills] This is a lively teen-angled dance innovation.

VERNON STEWART (Peach 751)

(B+) "HEAL THIS OLD HEART" (2:15) [Yonah BMI—Stewart, Blakenship] Stewart has cut an excellent tear-stained ballad that could go make big noise. Songster's sincere weeping has plenty of country feeling.

(B) "MEAN MEAN BABY" (2:23) [Yonah BMI—Stewart] Spirited countrv-blues slickly essayed by Stewart.

ARCHIE CAMPBELL (Starday 568)

(B) "SETTIN' MY TEARS TO MUSIC" (2:41) [Starday BMI—Russell, Horgis] Singer reads an attractive weeper about wasted love. Deck has a good chance of making some noise in the country markets.

(B) "A WOMAN'S WORK IS NEVER DONE" (2:58) [Starday BMI—Rhodes] More vocal tears are shed by Campbell, this time in a sentimental testimonial to "dear old Mom."

BOBBY BARNETT (Boyd 114)

(B) "ON THE WINGS OF CHANCE" (2:12) [Knob Hill BMI—Miller] Conventional blue-grass-oriented, quick-beat love opus. Barnett's engaging delivery makes for easy listening. Disk could get a nod from the deejay's.

CAL MADDOX (Flat-Git-It 699)

(B) "MY ONLY GIRL" (1:45) [Bee-Line BMI—Maddox] Interesting traditional-styled middle-beat ballad. This OK wax by Maddox could get jockey attention.

(C+) "HEY BILL" (1:40) [Bee-Line BMI—Maddox] A fast moving session. Maddox delivers a humorous novelty tune with enough bounce to call attention to it.

(C+) "WE'RE HEADING NOWHERE" (2:06) [Knob Hill BMI—Russell] The country counterpart of a treadmill to oblivion. Barnett reads an OK downhearted lament in a fiddle-led, toe-tapping hillbilly stanza.

Sure-fire proof of country music's growing popularity is KENS-San Antonio. One year ago the station turned the switch that made it the nation's most powerful c&w voice. During the past year, KENS has sponsored some 4 western stage shows, each time with capacity crowds. Some 8,000 members of the station's music club now actively participate in country activities. Growing with the rise of the station, KENS deejay personalities have achieved national prominence. Charlie Walker, Bill Mack, Neal Merritt and Ray Baker have all moved into recording careers through their association with the Texas station.

On the show were Ray Price and his Cherokee Cowboys, Patsy Cline and Don Reno & Red Smiley with the Tennessee Cutups.

Bass singer Ray Walker of the busy Jordanaires has a seasonal specialty on Epic as a soloist: an Xmas heart-tugger called "A Child's Question," produced by Jim Fogelson and written by Earl Barton, Music Nashville rep, Bob Tubert, and WSM all-night jockey Ralph Emery. Backing "Question" is "Little Children (Hope of the World)," by organist Paul Mitchell, staffer at KWTO-Springfield.

Saul Holiff up to Cash Box to tell us that he is now the new exclusive manager of Johnny Cash. Saul, who formerly worked out of Canada, is now operating out of the Cash office in Ventura, Calif. and hopes to rebuild his client's image to appeal to all musical tastes. For several years Saul had been promoting c&w shows in Canada out of London, Ontario and says he plans to maintain that office for his new charge. While he was at CB, Saul mentioned that Johnny will be opening at the Cave Supper Club in Vancouver and that a re-edited version of "Five Minutes To Live" will preem in Dallas on Dec. 9.

Red Foley's TV sidemen, the Tall Timber Boys, will join Slim Wilson, Bill Ring and the comedy song-butcher team of Flash & Whistler in opening a new Massey-Ferguson dealership at Wichita on Dec. 6, right on the heels of their week's engagement at Chicago's International Livestock Exposition. . . . Foley is scheduled for a Decca album session at the Owen Bradley incubator of hits within the next week. . . . Bill Ring, a one man fan club for the nation's top restaurant chefs, added to his usual 55-inch waistline on a visit to Bill Williams' annual Capon Dinner in Houston, where Rex Allen and Bill were among the charity event's special guests.

Handclapping, footstomping boisterous approval at the show affirmed the thoughts of all that live country music was back in the area.

Stirring a bit of controversy during a batch of sales activity during its first week on the market is Dick Flood's "Hellbound Train" on Epic. At the recent CMA event in Nashville, Earl Barton Music's Si Siman and Don Richardson teased pre-release interest in the tune, handing everyone they met a "one-way" ticket on the down-bound express. . . . Epic's national promo manager, Herb Linsky, will be in the K.C., Omaha and Sioux City areas with Flood this week to beat the drums for the deck.

The Dallas-Ft. Worth area is reporting a heavy attendance for all c&w events. Horace Logan at the "Big D Jamboree" is well pleased with the turn out, as is producer Jack Robbins of "Cowtown Jubilee" in Fort Worth, and Dewy Groom at the "Longhorn Ranch" in Dallas. . . . Lawton Williams, program director of KCUL-Dallas-Fort Worth, was seen mornings this past week up at 4 AM getting in a little crow hunting before beginning his day's work. . . . A new feature at the station is called "KCUL Record Prevue," whereby artists from their listening area are invited to send in their new releases for air approval. Listeners vote by mail as to likes and dislikes. Bob Clark, program host, reports that the feature has proven quite popular.

Jack Dunigan, DJ at WJTN-Jamestown, writes that he read in a recent Cash Box that his buddy Doc Williams has rounded out 26 successful years at WWVA-Wheeling. Jack says reading about Doc reminded him that this month he has been in radio for 30 years. DJ sends his congratulations to all his friends in the field.

Eddie Matherly, deejay at WKCW-Warrenton, Va., plans a birthday celebration on Jan. 4th for the station and would like all talent to send in tapes of congratulations. For the past two years WKCW has had an all country format from four-in-the-morning till sign off.

The End Of An Era

When a trade publication reaches its nineteenth year many of the services it furnishes with each issue almost become institutions.

We feel that way about Cash Box and its Price Lists. They have been with us now for nineteen years and it doesn't seem as though things will be the same without them. Our official announcement which appears elsewhere in the coin machine section this week reads that Cash Box will discontinue the Price Lists "since it no longer serves the purpose for which it was originally intended." While this is an accurate and wholly sensible reason for dropping the service, it reads rather harshly when the words are set in cold black print.

At the risk of bordering on the nostalgic, more than once the Price Lists have caught our eye and sent us off into a year when things were altogether different than they seem today. A 45 rpm juke box quote rings with so many memories, especially since it was the first machine to play 45's after a generation of 78 rpm record play. And how we thought about the confusion that would result!

An ancient arcade machine stirs memories of WWII and the shortages and the results that come about with shortages to say nothing of the taverns with weekly net figures that would stagger the imagination.

The first shuffle alley with pins "similar to real bowling!" as they were advertised, listed among the hundreds of games produced since then recalls many pleasant moments. The evolution of the big-ball bowler and the step-by-step additions of the many attractions that make for added play is all told through the ledger-like lists that told the industry what a machine was worth.

"Check the Cash Box Price List" was a remark made many times in many sections of the country before a sale was made. Cash Box Price Lists were the bible and everyone knew it. But today's market has made it impossible to furnish this information on today's equipment. As in many other industries, and in our very way of life in this day and age, things grow more and more complex. Until recently a machine was quoted on by a dozen or more sellers who in turn created a market price for this machine. The resultant price was then reported, with a high and low figure to allow for the slight variance in prices, condition and territory. Today's "slight variance" is no longer slight. It is the difference between what a buyer will pay for a machine in great demand, a machine that is completely renovated against the same machine which has been merely cleaned up, the difference between what a seller in Miami will sell it for as compared with the outlet in New York— or Los Angeles, or Hawaii. And the difference can sometimes be the difference between profit and loss. And here is where Cash Box, up until now, has been able to serve the industry with a weekly price that was the last word in trade circles. We can no longer provide this service.

We hate to see it go for nostalgic reasons alone. But go it must, since, to return to the cold black type in this week's issue, "it no longer serves the purpose for which it was originally intended."

Chicago Parks Show Another Sellout Coin Machines Featured

CHICAGO—The largest assembly of outdoor amusement equipment ever gathered under one roof will be seen during the 43rd annual convention and trade exposition of the National Association of Amusement Parks, Pools and Beaches, Sherman House, Chicago, Nov. 26-29, John S. Bowman executive secretary, announced this week.

"The trade exposition is now a sell-out," Bowman said. "There will be 242 display booths in operation—34 more than in any previous NAAPPB exposition."

Bowman cited two reasons for the increased demand for exhibit space: New firms entering the field; larger space requirements of regular exhibitors.

New rides, equipment and service installations—heretofore under wraps to the amusement business for competitive reasons—will be unveiled for the first time, Bowman said. Among these will be a helicopter, a space machine, a coin operated golf driving range and an automatic popcorn device that pops the corn in 40 seconds in full view of the purchaser and then dispenses it while still hot.

One of the largest of the new exhibitors will be the Automatic Canteen Co., of Chicago, with four booths. Among other first-time Chicago companies exhibiting: Automatic Retailers of America; Appleton Electric Co.; Halogen Supply Co., Inc.; Hi-Jinx Caramel Corn Co.; Original Pizza Crust Co.; Wittek Golf Range Supply Co.

Among out of town new exhibitors will be: Game-Time, Inc., Litchfield, Mich.; Miracle Equipment Co., Grinnell, Iowa; National Pools of Palos, Palos Heights, Ill.; National Ticket Co., Shamokin, Pa.; Outdoor Dimensional Display Co., North Bergen, N.J.; Radio Broadcasting Co., Philadelphia, Pa.; Seidel Amusement Machine Co., Brooklyn, N.Y.

Cash Box Discontinues "Price Lists" Feature Will Publish Weekly Lists With Descriptive Information, Date Of Issue

NEW YORK—Effective with this issue of Cash Box—November 25, 1961—the Coin Machine Section will no longer furnish a weekly Price List for used coin-operated machines. While the management realizes the gravity of such a move, it has not been made without thorough consideration of the value of a price list to the trade. However, because of a changing industry which has brought with it new methods of conducting a business, the Cash Box Price List no longer serves the purpose for which it was originally intended when it was introduced nineteen years ago.

Was Official Industry Guide

During the second world war and especially during the post-war period, the sale of coin-operated equipment was such that an accurate selling price could be published for every machine on the market and this price was generally within several dollars of every wholesaler's price regardless of his sales territory and without regard to the condition of the equipment. The Price List in Cash Box each week was literally the official buy-and-sell guide of the coin machine industry from one end of the country to the other.

Recently, due to a variety of marketing and economic factors, it has become increasingly difficult to report an accurate price on certain equipment. The shortage of pingames, for instance, prevents an accurate price report on this type of equipment, since supply and demand dictates the selling price on any product.

Territorial Differences

Territorial differences have resulted in the same machine carrying a different sale price depending on the section of the country selling it. The condition of the equipment has played a more important part in the sale price and a machine may carry an "as is" price, a price for refinishing, and another for the same machine if it has been thoroughly reconditioned. The export market, which uses Cash Box Price Lists as well as the domestic operator and wholesaler, has been disillusioned by published prices since they certainly do not take into consideration shipping, tariff, and the many other factors that enter into the cost of a machine.

Lack Of Information

Lack of information received from a seller, in the case of identifying a juke box as stereo or high fidelity, can easily result in that machine being quoted anywhere from $75.00 to $100.00 away from the actual sale price, when it is being recorded. Condition of the equipment is rarely outlined and, if it were, every machine would have to carry at least three different sale prices, or six figures, if a high and a low were furnished. This was not always the case.

Whereas each machine was credited with a minimum dozen quotes as recently as last year, today our statistical department, in many instances, may not receive a price quote on a machine for a month or possibly two months at a time. Who is to say that this particular machine is worth a certain price, other than the wholesaler who offers it for sale? Unless price quotes from many wholesalers are received a true price cannot be reflected. If a machine is in great demand there is no need for a price quote from the seller. He will sell the machine at the highest price. On the other hand, a model that is unsuccessful will not be quoted upon. The result is a misleading price line carried over from week-to-week. The operator, in this instance, is not receiving the accurate price information and may suffer from a distorted picture.

After Thorough Discussion

Cash Box has personally discussed this major decision to discontinue publishing a Price List with more than fifty leading coin machine firms. In addition, the subject has been discussed with hundreds more during the last twelve months. There is no doubt that some coinmen will suffer from the omission of what has evidently become the "bible" of the coin machine business. On the other hand, a buyer and seller will now be permitted to "make their own market" each time a sale is consummated. Considering the obstacles in the path of continuing a Price List each week, this appears to be the more healthy method of doing business.

While the Price List will no longer carry a price alongside each machine, Cash Box will continue to furnish the list with descriptive information and the date of issue, as we have in the past. This in itself will serve an important function in arriving at a market price for equipment. We hope to eventually expand this feature in such a way that perhaps the trade will be even more pleased with the end result than they were with our Price List. More will be outlined on these improvements in coming weeks.

The Changing Times

And so, what was originally designed to serve the industry must give way to the changing times since it no longer fulfills this function. This we sincerely believe is reason enough to overlook the argument in favor of continuing this Cash Box service. Once a Cash Box service fails to serve its prime purpose—that of helping the industry at every level—it has no place in our publication.

AMOA of Penna. Holds Annual Affair

Dignitaries, Mfrs., Distributors Attend PR Awards Highlight Statewide Affair

HARRISBURG, PENNA. — The AMOA of Pennsylvania held its annual banquet on Sunday, November 12, at the Holiday West Hotel here and a large turnout of coinmen and guests enjoyed a wonderful evening. Hundreds attended the affair, which attracted coinmen from all sections of the State.

Dignitaries, manufacturers, distributors, disk jockeys and entertainers were treated to a tasty meal preceded by cocktails and followed by entertainment with Al Martino, Al Alberts and Freddie Cannon, top juke box performers, swinging an evening's show along without a hitch.

The highlight of the evening was the presentation of awards to the leading people in the field. Paul Huebsch, vice president of the J. H. Keeney Company, was honored as making the most noteworthy contribution, not only to the organization, but to the coin machine industry.

Another award was given to Samuel Daubs, of Norristown, who was honored for being the person who "unselfishly devoted his time to the advancement of public relations" within the State of Pennsylvania.

Dignitaries in presence were the Honorable Nolan Zeigler, Mayor of Harrisburg, Pa.; Lee Swope, newly elected Judge of the Orphans Court in Dauphin County and his father, Ex-congressman and Governor of Puerto Rico, Guy Swope. Representing the manufacturers, were Art Garvey, sales representative of the Bally Manufacturing Company and Paul Huebsch and Harold Dorgan of the

J. H. Keeney Company. Disk Jockeys from throughout the area were in attendance.

Prizes were drawn and to the lucky few, Pool Tables, luggage and radios were awarded. (See pictures.)

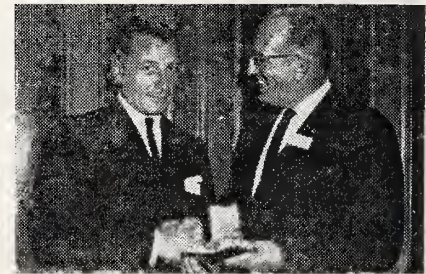

The statewide affair has attracted political dignitaries in high circles and leading businessmen of the community since its inception. AMOA has continued its public relations program in the face of much adversity coming about from increased costs and difficult-to-attain support. The coinmen in this area have supported the PR program while many other programs of similar content have failed in other sections of the nation.

The association is young but has grown rapidly in stature among distributors in the state. A gradual increase in membership has strengthened the group and it is expected to add other community and PR activities to its already lengthy list of association affairs.

PR OPERATOR AWARD went to Samuel Daubs of Norristown for "unselfish devotion of his time and efforts to the organization and the industry's public relations." Kadel makes presentation.

TOKEN OF APPRECIATION: AMOA membership awarded Felix Kadel a gold watch for appreciation of past leadership in organization. Harry Beck, AMOA treasurer makes presentation.

NOTEWORTHY CONTRIBUTION: Keeney's Paul Huebsch accepted award from AMOA for "manufacturer, distributor, jobber or person of a related field making noteworthy contribution to Pennsylvania public relations work."

HOW IT OPERATES:

The driver tries to assume complete mastery of the red racing car when he drops the coin and takes the wheel. He must steer the car parallel with and to the right of center line and hit every third contact point straightaway or around sweeping curves to qualify as a "perfect driver". Tampa Business On Upswing

Local ops report a slight upturn in business at this time, with every indication of the largest influx of tourists ever to visit our state just around the corner. The various distributors of all types of equipment are starting to lick their chops and start digging those golden operators for the business which will surely come when the cool winds start to blow to the north of us.

Local coinmen Charlie Budd and Howard Montgomery, both recuperating nicely after serious health factors, while Boss Ware Daniels is trying to hold down routemen and servicemen jobs at the same time, but with able assistance from Sons, Wayne and Cooky.

John Echols, Sportsman Extraordinary, and owner of Twenty Record Phono, this city, just returned from a hunting trip to the Canadian north woods reported that the weather was so balmy and warm that the grislys were sitting around in the shade fanning each other; however, the party all bagged legal limits of game.

Kentucky Op Goes Into Raptures Over Rock-Ola Phono, Service

Has Operated Line For Fifteen Years

"One Heck Of A Phonograph." Claims Dickens

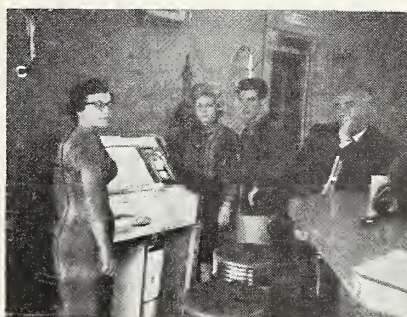

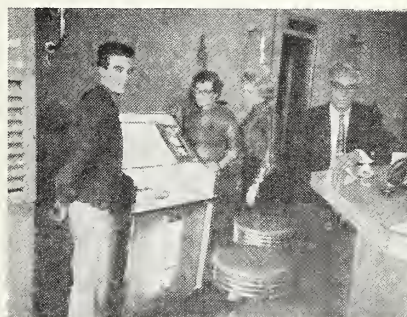

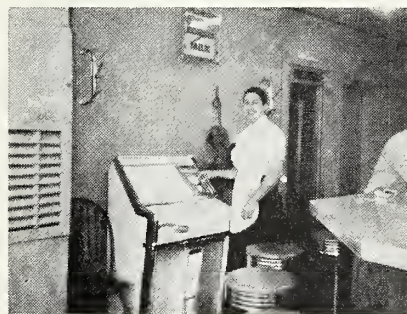

COVINGTON, KY.—Cecil E. Dickens is one operator who will stand up and be counted everytime Rock-Ola asks for a satisfied customer. At least that's the way Dickens' mail reads. A recent letter to the factory outlined as to how Cecil has used the line for fifteen years and in servicing and collecting has found them to be "the most dependable (phonographs) with fewer service calls and no complaints." Dickens uses 20 Rock-Ola machines on his route.

Dickens goes on to point out that the 33-rpm record mixer makes the machine "the most outstanding machine manufactured to date" and in a seemingly final gasp of adoration tells the factory that the phonograph is "one heck of a phonograph and can't be beat!"

He also complimented the distributor in the area, Bigner Music Company for their service and attention much to the delight of Ray Bigner. Pictured on these pages are several shots of Dickens' locations. The photos were taken in two of his stops and illustrate the reason why the Blue Grass Amusement firm has satisfied customers.

PLEASURE ISLE has its pleasure provided for by another Dickens "Princess" phonograph. The year 'round resort seats 300 people, and owner Georgianna Brattin claims that the ol' fireplace stimulates play on those cozy evenings.

Profits, Legislation, College Vending Course and Workshops To Highlight West Coast Show

Expect 3000 At L.A. Conference; Nat Cole Heads Banquet Show

CHICAGO—The NAMA Western Conference Exhibit, reported last week to be sold out (Cash Box Nov. 18), continued with construction of what it believes to be a tightly packed agenda of information for all visitors, last week as the deadline of the Los Angeles show approached. The vending show will be held December 1-3. Three thousand are expected to attend. The exhibit has attracted 65 individual firms who will occupy more than 100 exhibit booths. The show will be held in the Ambassador Hotel.

A forum-panel session program has been unofficially announced, with complete details available next week. So far, the sessions include talks on topics including "Can You Make A Profit In Feeding?", "Danger From Legislative Fallout" and "The L.A. Trade Tech College Vending Course." The college course is reportedly the first ever conducted in this country.

Sidney Kallick, NAMA counsel will talk on the legislative topic while Dean Franklin Johnson, UCLA will hold forth on the college course session. A keynote speaker has not yet been chosen.

Compact Ice Vender

NEW YORK—The K. G. Brown Mfg. Co., Inc. of Mattituck, New York has completed field testing of their newest ice vender—the "Spinette." This latest addition to the Brown line features a drum vending mechanism that permits a 4' x 4' box, occupying a space previously capable of taking only an attended merchandiser, to have a coin operated vender with a capacity of up to 44-10 lb. bags and storage facility for thirty more. Structurally and mechanically the "Spinette" boasts all the engineering and design features of the other Brown stations.

Workshops on cigarettes and coffee are expected to round out the discussions. A banquet will be held on Sunday evening at the Ambassador Hotel and Nat "King" Cole, top recording and television entertainer has been retained to perform for the vending representatives. A cocktail party will precede the banquet.

Ladies are well taken care of once again, as they were at the Chicago function last month, with programs including a tea, a discussion on make-up, and another on fashions.

Exhibit hours will be noon to 5:30 on Friday and Saturday, and 2:00 PM to 5:00 PM on Sunday.

Attendance is expected from almost every state in the union but the bulk of the operators turning out for the west coast conclave will emanate from California, Idaho, Nevada, New Mexico, Oregon, Utah, Washington, Alaska, Hawaii, Arizona, Wyoming, Montana and representation from Texas.

Campbell's Intros Camden Line

CAMDEN, N. J.—Campbell Soup Company last week announced the addition of a new brand name—CAMDEN—to its product lines for the Food Service Industry.

First products to bear the new gold, blue and white CAMDEN label will be two new powdered soup bases—Chicken Flavor and Beef Flavor.

According to William P. MacFarland, Marketing Manager for Campbell Institutional products, "The CAMDEN Soup Bases are a further extension of Campbell's new program of institutional product development and marketing. "Since August," he said, "the Company has announced nine new products for the food service industry. In addition to the two CAMDEN Soup Bases, the other new institutional products include: three new Insti-Pack soups, Chicken Noodle Soup, Clam Chowder and Vegetable Soup, and four eight-ounce ready-to-serve vending products."

Macke Will Occupy Philadelphia Site

PHILADELPHIA — Macke Vending Corporation will move into quarters with Variety Vending Systems in Philadelphia later this year, according to Macke officials. The parent firm acquired Variety in a stock transaction last summer.

The Variety plant, which previously housed Banner Specialty, a separately owned amusement machine distributorship owned and headed by Al Rodstein, vice-president of Macke, will have facilities available for the Macke move once the Banner amusement firm moves to new quarters in Philadelphia. (See separate story page 58.)

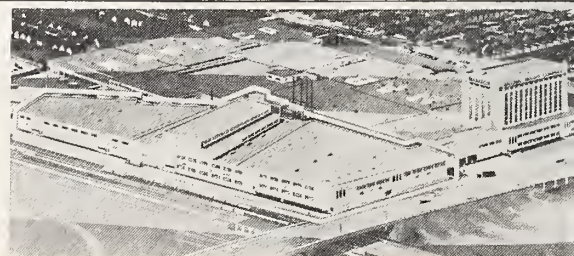

Macke's recent acquisitions in the Pennsylvania area require a Philadelphia site and the Variety Vending Systems location proved most acceptable, according to Rodstein.

French Coinmen Tour US Markets

NEW YORK — Norbert Levy and Girard Caen of Leca, Metz, France, left for home this week after spending several weeks in the United States, completing their stay by visiting the offices of Cash Box.

Leca, a distributing firm, represents D. Gottlieb & Company thru Mondial for the Northeastern portion of France, and Bally Manufacturing Company thruout France.

While in the United States, Levy and Caen spent a few days in Chicago, where, in addition to visiting the manufacturing firms, took in the NAMA Convention. They observed the vending exhibits closely with the view of studying conditions at home, and then they will determine what moves they shall make in the future. If they decide to take on vending, it will be as wholesalers.

During their stay in the United States, Levy and Caen, in an effort to buy used pinballs and music machines, visited, in addition to Chicago, Boston, Philadelphia, Newark and New York City where they embarked for France.

Midway Releases "Skee Fun" 2-Player

4 Balls Per Game, 10 Ft. In Length, Last Frame Feature

CHICAGO—Ralph Sheffield, general sales manager of Midway Manufacturing Company, Franklin Park, Illinois, announced this past week that Midway's new "Skee Fun" amusement game was released to the coin machine trade last week. He referred to it as "a compact two-player all location amusement game with intriguing play, plus terrific spectator appeal."

"We've enjoyed excellent acceptance in a wide range of markets with our previous 'Rifle Gallery' and 'DeLuxe Rifle Gallery' rifle-target amusement games," Sheffield stated.

"Naturally, it has always been our desire to give the operator the kind of coin-operated equipment which will, in turn, give him the highest possible earnings at the lowest possible cost for the equipment."

"Accordingly," Sheffield added, "we are now delivering 'Skee Fun'—a 100% skill game to tantalize and attract a wide variety of players."

The skee-ball type cabinet is compactly designed making "Skee Fun" available to all locations regardless of size. The game is played with three-inch rubber balls for quiet play.

The balls are thrown forward on the alley toward nine pockets in the obliquely raised back lightbox. Four of the pockets remain stationary. The other five pockets constantly (during play) move in a rocking motion for exciting skill action scoring.

"Skee Fun" has thrilling 'Criss Cross' scoring and exciting last frame suspense. The game overall is ten feet in length. The lightbox is five feet high and 2-1/3 feet in width. The lightbox, according to Sheffield, is three-dimensional in depth.

The player gets four balls for each frame in "Skee Fun". The game is easily adjustable (by the operator) for three or four frames depending on location activity.

"We are enjoying immediate and specializing in pinballs, bingos and music machines."

RALPH SHEFFIELD

very heavy sales action with 'Skee Fun,' Sheffield said, in conclusion, "and at this rate we are anticipating one of the biggest winners we have ever released to our operator friends."

Valley Intros '62 Pool Table Line; "Gave It Everything We Had"-Feddick

BAY CITY, MICHIGAN—The new Valley pool table line is here at last and according to reports from prexy Earl Feddick, the wait was a worthwhile one for all concerned.

Recently, the firm has conducted a promotion campaign consisting of teaser type copy whetting the appetites of pool table operators across the country but now the new line is a fact, and is reported available from Valley distributors.

Here's the 1962 line-up as released by the pool table plant: 3 sizes in the deluxe 6-pocket models—Model 750A—75x42x31; Model 850A—84x47x31; Model 900A—90x50x31. Valley has a "Special" this year, Model 745A—75x42x31. The deluxe, available in mahogany and walnut is the top line. The "Special" is available in a special multi-color finish which is reportedly attractive, tough, and long-wearing.

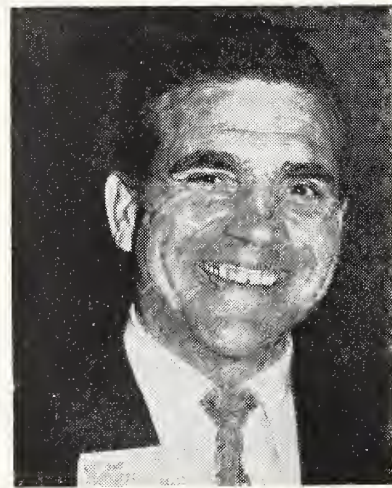

Valley's "Bumper Pool" continues, as it has for years, a staple on the firm's production line. The model this year has metal bumpers and comes in blond and mahogany.

"This is Valley for '62," stated Feddick last week. "New cabinets, new designs, recessed drawers, tapered slip-on legs, new sturdiness we thought we could never improve on but did, American cured slate beds, 100% moulded cushion pockets, genuine billiard cloth, pocket entrance gulleys for silent return, formica rails, heavy duty leg-adjusters, polished aluminum protection rings on cue ball returns and I'm sure so many other features that I've forgotten a few," said Feddick last week from his Bay City plant. "We're happy with the '62 line because we've given it everything we've got. A pool table today can earn as much or more as other equipment and its steady earnings represent an added responsibility to the manufacturer. We've accepted this responsibility by turning out what we truly believe to be the finest pool table product available in the world today."

The site is now the location of Scott Crosse Company, who will move to another showroom in Philadelphia. (See separate story page 62.) The move is expected to take place in December and will include all of the firm's coin machine equipment, parts, service and personnel. Banner's present site also houses

Variety Vending Systems which will remain at 5th Street above Girard. Al Rodstein, Banner president, stated that the Macke Vending Corporation will move into the 5th Street showroom later in the year. The vending firm acquired Variety Vending in a stock transaction last summer. Banner also distributes the United line from its Pittsburgh outlet which is headed by Herb Rosenthal.

General Expansion

Ginsberg stressed that the move is part of a general expansion program being conducted by Banner to strengthen its position with the Pennsylvania operators. Up until now, Banner has held a high position in this territory, having distributed the United line for close to a generation. "We have found, however, a need for additional space and a concentration of a specialized coin machine service," said Ginsberg in an interview with Cash Box last week. "New services are already set and ready for use once we are in the new showroom and personnel are being interviewed with an eye to expanding the sales staff."

"We feel that United has a great future, as witness the current three games that have enjoyed tremendous acceptance not only here but throughout the country (Ed. Note—Playboy, 7-Star and Stardust) and we have already experienced the increased business that comes with a strong line. Our inventory includes just about every conceivable type of used game and phonograph and our vending equipment has grown into a separate category all its own. Each type of machine is available in large quantities and we can fulfill the needs of every operator who is looking to replenish or expand present routes."

Emphasis On Service

Ginsberg joined Banner last year after several years sales experience in another field. He has since then assumed the leadership of Banner's coin machine division. Ginsberg traveled consistently throughout the sales territory at the outset and gradually limited his trips to periodic visits of a limited time. "The demands of a distribution outlet are many," said Ginsberg, "but in analysing the situation, we came to the conclusion that an emphasis on service with a greater abundance of product will result in increased sales. This, I am happy to report has already taken place. We will be in an even better position once we're set on North Broad Street."

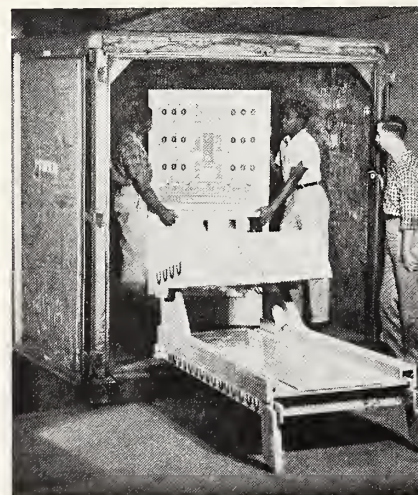

DAVE'S ONE-STOP in East Hartford, Conn. had a surprise guest last week in the person of old friend Al Martino, Capitol recording artist. The juke box record outlet picks a star of the week each week and displays it on the Seeburg phono for visitors to see. Martino's "Another Time, Another Place," b/w "Pardon" received the treatment this week. The disk also appears on the Cash Box Juke Box Ops' Record Guide this week.

Chicago Firm Announces Puppet Novelty Machine

CHICAGO—Admiral Vending Corp., a Chicago firm has announced that deliveries have begun on "Fortune Theater" fortune ticket vendor. "Fortune Theater" features interchangeable "live action" puppets, performing on a stage within a compact 20" x 14" x 12" cabinet.

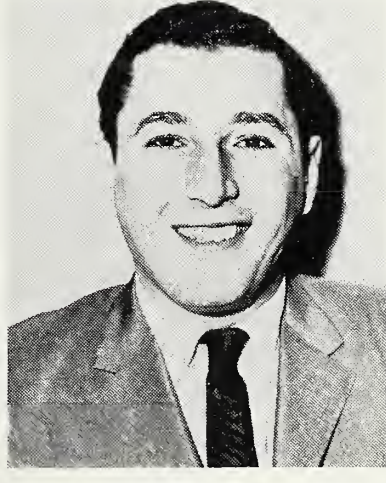

When a customer inserts a 5¢ coin for fortune, the "puppet" gives an amusing 30-second performance, climaxed by delivery of a fortune card. For example, the "Happy Bartender" puppet shakes up a drink, pours it into a glass, and drinks it. His face turns red and "smoke" comes out of his ears. Over 100 different puppets are available, among them are Professor Owl, Piggy Cook, Shoe Shine Boy, Elvis and Dolly Dressmaker. Each puppet does its own specialty. A simple mechanism operates up to 2 months on 2 standard flashlight batteries.

Operators, reporting on test location activity, remark on the strong appeal to patrons of all types of locations according to the factory. The unit can be installed on pedestal, counter, or wall.

According to its makers, Fortune Theater's initial cost, the interchangeable feature of the low-priced puppets, and the economical operation, permit operators to provide new play-stimulating appeal at frequent intervals on the same location, without big investments, and to do so profitably on 5¢ play.

The unit is reportedly being prepared for a Paris show premiere.

World Wide Holds Seeburg Phono School

JOEL STERN

CHICAGO—World Wide Distributing Company, distributors throughout this area for all Seeburg music and vending equipment, held a two part service school session in the firm's showrooms, Tuesday, November 14. The classes were attended by 42 phonograph servicemen and a few collectors, representing some 17 music operating companies. Equipment featured in the service clinics was Seeburg's "AY" Artist of the Week coin-operated phonograph.

Leonard Micon, general sales manager of World Wide Distributing, explained that the service clinics were conducted in two separate rooms. In one class, supervised by Frank McKinney and Newell Bellamy, collectors were instructed in the expeditious correcting of minor difficulties, such as jammed coin slots, lubrication of minor parts, etc.

The second class for servicemen was conducted by Charles (Chuck) Gates, Seeburg's field engineer. The

Art Weinand Joins Williams

Will Work With Distributors

CHICAGO—Sam Stern, president of Williams Electronic Manufacturing Corporation of this city, expressed his happiness this past week concerning the return to the Williams executive staff of J. A. (Art) Weinand as a vice president, when he made the announcement of the appointment.

Weinand, a veteran in the manufacturing phase of the coin machine industry, was equally delighted about his return to Williams Electronic Mfg. Corp. He and Stern reportedly enjoyed a lengthy association in past years.

In issuing his statement Stern said: "No factory is any better than its distribution organization. Thus, Weinand will spend a good deal of his time working with our distributors everywhere to increase our sales potential on all of Williams products.

"Weinand will also work out additional markets for the welter of new products which are coming along.

ART WEINAND

"In the overall course of his activities here," Stern added, "Weinand will have full authority to do anything which will further strengthen our strong distributive organization."

Weinand first came into the coin machine business back in 1936 at Rock-Ola Manufacturing Corporation. There he spent some 16 years and ultimately reached the position of vice president in charge of the sales and advertising departments.

In 1952 he joined the executive staff at Exhibit Supply Company as vice president. From there he moved over to Williams Electronic Mfg. Corp. as director of sales.

Weinand briefly entered the publishing field at the now defunct Vending Age before he was appointed director of sales at Chicago Dynamic Industries.

In welcoming Weinand back to Williams Electronic Mfg. Corp. Stern concluded with a lusty: "We are certainly very happy to have Art back home with us!"

Eastern Flashes

New machines continue to roll onto Tenth Avenue and evidently the Chicago factories are getting better and better with the technique they use in trying to outguess the public. The biggest job in the world is to satisfy the general public and this is the case whether you're trying to sell refrigerators, TV programs or coin-operated amusement. A bad guess can cost a fortune, as we all know. But the games moving onto coinrow of late have been "real gassers."

Latest game this week is ChiCoin's "Red Dot," a shuffle game that looks like another successor to the "Red Pin"—"Gold Pin" idea. Albert Simon was expecting the game in from Chicago any day, while sales on the ChiCoin "Triple Gold Pin" shuffle continued merrily along. (Speaking of new equipment did you see the picture in this week's issue of Royal Distributing's shipment of "Continental" gold pin bowlers from ChiCoin? Man, that's an order!) Continuing with new machines, don't overlook the new Williams "Road Racer" novelty machine in Runyon's. The game was premiered at a Williams dinner-distrib-meet in Chi two weeks ago and the reception was overwhelming.

Another new game on the market, and Runyon in NYC happens to be distrib for this one too is the Keeney "Two-Gun-Fun" gun game which broke two weeks across the nation. Paul Huebsch told the Chicago people that this gun will do more for an operator than any other gun that has been on the market. Those are big words and even bigger claims but just the same the new game is available and it is different.

United's "Playboy" shuffle, with the puck skeekee along and up into a scoring area is at Irv Holzman's along with the United outlet's "Stardust" and "7-Star" games which are doing very well. The Valley pool table line has been announced and new features add up to solid sellers for the wholesalers carrying Earl Feddick's line. A deluxe and regular 6-pocket table is available in sizes, and a "special" model is also on hand. The bumper pool has been continued. Ralph Sheffield kept his word and came up with a fine new game for Midway—"Skee Fun," a skee-ball game that's full of life and color. Irv Holzman has it on the floor and ops have taken to it.

Starting on the downtown side of the street and working north we learn that the Mike Munves Corp. has made arrangements to attend the Parks Show (see separate story on coin machine exhibits) but Mike will not go. Joe Munves, the old standby, will represent the firm in Chicago. Joe expects to have catalogs on hand and a few surprises as well. Last year's booth was done up real fine with reprints, backdrops, etc. The year before Munves copped the best booth award and no one knows as yet what his plans are for the Nov. 26-29 affair. Joe may not even know himself, but it doesn't matter. Genius doesn't take time—it takes brains and Joe can swing with the best of 'em.

Whitey and Lou Druckman, United East Coast Corp., managed several deliveries this week, filling the showroom and then shipping the United games back out, but to various operators in the area. Irv Holzman keeping busy between visits from Herb Oettinger and the United brass, and jumping out to L.I. National Sales as well.

Sad news from Nat Solow, Baltimore's Eastern Distributors Inc., with a note from Nat that his mother-in-law, Rose Brody, passed away Tuesday, October 31. She was buried Nov. 1 at Mt. Judah Cemetery in Brooklyn. Nat's mother-in-law was ailing for about ten years.

Gertrude Browne strolling the coinrow of NYC in search of parts, supplies, and pleasant conversation. . . . Jack Mitnick, spending some time around the Runyon corner, stops ops as they pass by, to say "hello" and "what's new." Jack is busy with his export business and reports that business has been very good. . . . Lou Valente, the smiling operator from Staten Island, looking forward to that bridge going up so that the "city-slickers" can drive in and spend money in his locations! Lou's daughter Johanna, is singing better than ever and her disks are enjoying lotsa play on the town's juke boxes.

Loads of action at Seeburg's Atlantic New York Corp., as the mounting success of Bally's coffee machine and the new candy machine reach the ears of ops. No delivery yet on the candy machine, according to Murray Karl, but the coffee vender is selling up a storm. The 7-Oz. drink machine will be in any week, too. Meanwhile, Bill Prutting, Seeburg regional rep, reports solid sales on the phono and increased availability on 33 rpm singles for "Artist of Week" programming.

Irving Kaye is supposed to attend the Parks Show and while we are sure he'll be there, no word from the factory to verify it. Irv's busy these days, as son Howard reports, shipping a wide variety of the tables to all parts of the nation.

Bert Betti, Eastern Novelty Distribs., staging a Grand Opening party in honor of his brand new quarters over in North Bergen, N.J. Refreshments, buffet, and a grand time for all, will take place Saturday and Sunday, December 9-10. All afternoon each day. More details on the Betti affair later. A few surprises are in store for all who attend and it looks like everyone will be invited. The new building is a knockout and Bert has said that business has increased since he moved in with no rhyme or reason for it other than the larger space, adequate handling facilities, and greater display area. "If you have the room, you use it and evidently the sales increase," stated Bert last week. (So get busy and expand the building you're in!)

Al D'Inzillo and Al Simon were so busy that they had to take a raincheck on the Rock-Ola cruise for distribs. The Simon organization was one of the leaders in the past sales drive but because of pressing responsibilities and a jammed schedule, the firm will take Rock-Ola up on its nice offer at a later date. Meanwhile, we hear the cruise was a ball and that everyone will be back at their desk Monday, selling the new "Empress" phono, which was reportedly displayed to a truly "captive" audience down on the islands. Between Polaroid cameras and Caribbean cruises, the Rock-Ola organization is keeping a lot of people busy!

Mel Rapp, Continental-APCO, out on the coast in Frisco to attend the Bottling Show. . . . Abe Witsen, moving to new quarters in Philly. Al Rodstein tells us that Jim Ginsberg and Banner Specialty will move into the Witsen showrooms. Macke Verding takes the old Banner facilities over once the coin-machine group is out. . . . Joe Ash delighted with the Rock-Ola line. "Feels like the old days again," said Joe. . . . Marvin Roth, Wilkes-Barre outlet, selling up a storm on Wurlitzer phonos. "When we can get busy and sell, man, we sell!" That's the way Roth put it. And that's the way we close it—for this week anyway.

Chicago Chatter

ChiCoin's Mort Seore proved too tough an opponent in competition on Chicago Coin's new "Red Dot" shuffle alley bowler. He makes too many strikes. One thing is certain at Chicago Dynamic Industries—everyone, and that includes prexy Sam Wolberg, Sam Gensburg, Jerry Koci and Mort,—is certain that they have a terrific winner in this new "Red Dot" puck bowler. . . . They're rollin' out the "Barrel-O-Fun" at Bally, and general sales manager Bill O'Donnell, Art Garvey and vice prexy Herb Jones assure us the '62 model is already proving a "Barrel-O-Fun" in sales figures.

We bid welcome to Fred Pollak, who assumes the duties of director of Retail Stores Services, a new division of AC Automatic Services, Inc. The appointment was made last week by AC prexy Joel M. Kleiman. . . . It's the appointment week out at Williams Electronic Mfg. Corp. for Art Weinand. Art returned to Williams last week to take over vice prexy duties. President Sam Stern tells us Art will have full authority to do anything which will further strengthen Williams' distributor organization. Meanwhile, sales manager Jack Baigelman informs that Williams "Kismet" pingame is destined (pun: Kismet means "destiny" in Arabic) to be a big winner in all markets

THOMAS HUNGERFORD

As we approach the upcoming NAAPPB convention at the Sherman House (Nov. 26-28) Joe Kline tells us to look for Admiral Vending's new "Puppet Theater" low cost coin-operated unit. Joe, Sam Kolber and Fred Kline will be on hand at the Park Show with the "Puppet Theater." Joe, prexy of First Coin Machine Exchange, will head the national organization for the "Puppet." By the way, Joe wishes his "gal Friday" at First—Georgene Laulette—the very best in her newly wedded bliss. He regrets losing her at the office. Georgene was married Nov. 11.

With all the time spent lately at D. Gottlieb & Co. on the many visitors among coinmen, from all over the country, to the Gottlieb Memorial Hospital very little mention was made about Gottlieb's terrific "Flipper Fair" (Add-A-Ball) pinball amusement game. However, Nate and Alvin Gottlieb are flipping over the excellent sales action everywhere. And that goes for overseas as well, according to Judd Weinberg. . . . Paul Huebsch and Clayton Nemeroff played host to Gregory Kraiser and Joseph Goldbaum of Kraiser & Goldbaum of Valparaiso, Chile, S.A. last week. The South American coinmen waxed mucho enthusiasm over Keeney's "Two Gun Fun" gun-target game.

There are still stars in the eyes of United Mfg's. Herb Oettinger and Bill DeSelm. The chief reason is "Stardust" shuffle alley bowler. The "7 Star" big ball bowler also rates raves in the sales dept. . . . Empire Coin's Gil Kitt and Joe Robbins shipped samples of Midway Mfg's. new "Skee Fun" amusement game to a host of operators in Wisconsin, Michigan, Illinois and Indiana. Now Joe (Robbins) has his fingers crossed hoping that the game will go over as well as he and Gil anticipate. Joe quips that Jack Burns (who is in the Rock-Ola Caribbean vacation party) set a new record for martini consumption. The result: the plane was held up three hours because of too much alcoholic content in Jamaica. Joe gave us an important business news report (quote) there will be a shortage of rum for export for the next six months—thanks to Jack (Bottles) Burns.

Tom Hungerford, executive director of NAMA pointed out that the NAMA staff is ready for the greatly increased attendance at the Western Conference and Show which will be held at the Ambassador Hotel in Los Angeles, Dec. 1 to 3. Sid Kallick, NAMA's western manager and counsel will be on hand with Tom and Walter Reed to greet the multitude of vending people. . . . Wico's Ed Ruber is back in town on one of those rare occasions, wondering how he manages not to have to dash off again soon.

Ed Doris, executive vice prexy of Rock-Ola Mfg. Corp., due back in his office after that whirlwind Caribbean jet bash with Frank Mitchell and Les Rieck and a host of Rock-Ola distributors and their wives. Ralph Wyckoff, Rock-Ola's ad chief, tells us he's snowed under (delightfully) with orders on Rock-Ola's "Bingo" . . .

president Del Coleman, Leonard Gross, Tom Herrick and Jack Gordon—are flush with happy excitement after the terrific action they received at the recent NAMA conclave and exhibit with the Seeburg line of vending machines. Everyone's still talking about Seeburg's new candy vending machine with easy top load feature.

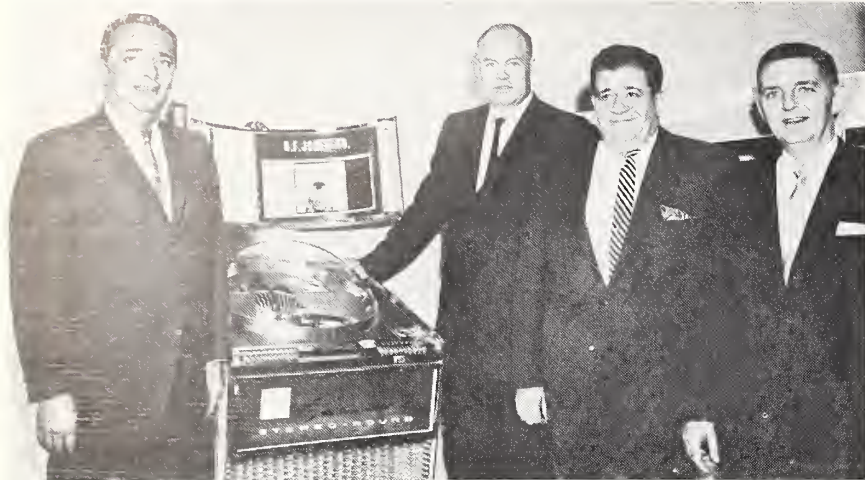

The gang at Atlas Music is enjoying heavy attendance at their phono service school sessions since they separated the various classes to simplify instruction on AMI's "Continental 2" coin-operated phonographs. Nate Feinstein tells us that Atlas always enjoyed excellent attendance at the school sessions, but that even these excellent attendance figures increased since the recent change in class schedules.

Johnny Frantz, J. F. Frantz Mfg., is somewhat secretive about the game he will introduce at the upcoming Parks Show. (We'll just have to wait with bated breath, Johnny).

All NAAPPB members and guests are invited to the American Recreational Equipment Assn's. cocktail party, Saturday, Nov. 25, between the hours of 4-7 p.m. in the Walnut Room of the Bismarck Hotel. . . . The winner of this month's AMI "Big Challenge" vacation contest is Hiram Roberts of Roberts Jackson Co., in Jesup, Georgia. The distrib there is Bush International of Jacksonville, Fla. The manager is Joe Barton. AMI chief Tom Sams gets a kick out of the fact that southeast coast operators have lately been dominating the winner's circle.

Joel Stern and Len Micon, World Wide Distribs, hosted a novel service school session last Tuesday, Nov. 14, during which service personnel and collectors of operating firms were instructed in separate classrooms. Len Micon explained that collectors were advised on how to make such minor repairs as clearing jammed coin slots, etc. Also on hand for World Wide were Fred Skor, Harold Freeman, Sam DiPiero and Howie Freer. The class sessions were conducted by Chuck Gates, Seeburg field engineer, and by World Wide's Frank McKinney and Newell Bellamy. (with the show) was lovely Dorothy

Scott Crosse To Move

PHILADELPHIA — Scott Crosse Company, Bally distributors in this area, headed by Abe Witsen, president of the coin machine firm, will move to more efficient quarters leaving the showroom and warehouse facilities on North Broad Street for space located at 1732-42 Fairmount Avenue in Philadelphia.

"We'll be in a position to consolidate our distributing and operating facilities plus offer operators a better service and parts set-up," said Witsen last week. The new quarters have a broader frontage, more spacious showroom area, and a wider display facility.

Witsen advised the trade that the move will take effect December 15. Banner Specialty, a Philadelphia coin machine distributor, will occupy the former Scott Crosse quarters on North Broad Street after the move is made. (See separate story

California Clippings

The disastrous fire that raged for over 3 days in the Los Angeles area, and took such a terrific toll of homes was the topic of conversation that most operators and distributors seemed occupied with during the week. . . . At the Wurlitzer factory branch, Ray Barry in Las Vegas for a couple of days calling on operators, while Clayton Ballard was busy in the San Diego and Oceanside areas. . . . Ralph Warne, operator from Las Vegas, in town for a short visit. . . . Houston Happenings

Hans Von Reydt, former vice president of H. A. Franz & Co. (Seeburg) here, departed Nov. 8th for Germany to assume his duties as Divisional manager of European Division for Seeburg International. He has established headquarters in Hamburg, Germany.

Except for two years WWII service in the Navy, Von Reydt has 26 years continuous experience in coin operated machine distribution. He is extremely well known in the trade throughout the entire Southwest in general and over Texas in particular. His many friends and customers, while happy over his appointment to such a responsible position, are bound to look forward to his return to the States.

Bill Williams, owner Bill Williams Distributing Co., (Wurlitzer) Houston and San Antonio, traveled the Rio Grande Valley territory and moved a car load of operating merchandise en route. . . . H. A. Franz, head of H. A. Franz & Co. (Seeburg) said that in his opinion the recent NAMA show at Chicago was the best one ever. The Franz Company has, for immediate delivery, the complete Seeburg vending line including the Bally coffee and hot drink vendor presented for the first time under Seeburg name. Franz mailed to all Carla Hurricane victim operators in this trade area a notice to the effect that new selection receivers, amplifiers and credit units would be made available to all Seeburg operators on a non-profit basis. . . . A mighty deal was when two of the largest operating firms here, City Music and Cigarette Service and Consolidated Music merged. Complete details were lacking at this writing.

Margie Kunkel, United Records, proud mother of a new daughter born Oct. 6th and named Cynthia Renae. The young lady weighed six and a half pounds at birth. The Kunkels have one other child, a boy. . . . Bob Davenport, Active Amusement, while reconditioning some equipment for sale that he had bought supposedly already reconditioned, quoted that old one about if you want a thing done right better do it yourself. . . . Bob Fead, sales representative for Liberty Record Sales Corp., calling on United Records as he made routine business trip over Southwestern territory.

ChiCoin Releases "Red Dot" Puck Bowler

Scoring Includes Super Strike, Strike To Beat, Red Dot

CHICAGO — Sam Wolberg, president of Chicago Dynamic Industries, Incorporated, this city, last week expressed the keen anticipation which only exists with the knowledge that a "winning game is on the line," when he announced the introduction of an exciting, new shuffle alley bowler in Chicago Coin's "Red Dot."

Wolberg minced no words in expressing his happiness in that "Red Dot" is a new (all-new) puck bowler. Especially, in view of the fact that this amusement game has two very special innovations in "Red Dot" and "Super Strike" scoring.

"The one thing we, here at Chicago Coin, just cannot help getting justly enthusiastic about is the all-new 'Strike or Bust' feature in 'Super Strike.' And, we cannot overlook the exciting 'Flashing Dots' in 'Red Dot,'" Wolberg declared.

"And, if that isn't enough," Wolberg continued, "we have added four popular play-proven ways to score, such as '300 Champ,' 'Flash-O-Matic,' 'Lite-O-Matic,' and the ever popular 'Regulation' bowling game. In addition, the player can also have 'All Strike' bowling by merely depressing the 'Strike or Bust' selector button.

"We have spared no expense, effort or engineering skill to deliver the bowling shuffle amusement game that the nation's operators will benefit most by, in much more additional play; and, of course, greater earnings."

At this point Mort Secore, sales director for Chicago Dynamic Industries, Incorporated, interspersed with the salient facts in the two new scoring features—"Red Dot" and "Super Strike." He further explained that due to popular demand "All Strike" is again available (as explained above).

Secore added that the "Flashing Dots" add considerable excitement to the game when played. Also, there are additional thrills created by the competitive play feature, as six people can compete with each other. This is amplified by the fact that there is much more "breath-taking" suspense in "Red Dot" than in any other shuffle bowler ever produced before, according to Secore.

In "Strike or Bust" the player attempts to increase his score quickly by adding 600 points to his score if he strikes. If the player misses on "Strike or Bust" he gets his normal pin count, so he doesn't actually lose out completely. A normal strike scores 300 pins, and a spare nets 200 points.

In "Red Dot" scoring one "Red Flashing Dot" scores 500 pins on the strike and 300 pins on a spare. Two "Flashing Dots" net the player 700 pins for a strike and 400 for a spare. Three "dots" are good for 900 pins on a strike and 500 for the spare. If no dots appear strikes are worth 300 points and spares 200.

"Flash-O-Matic" is an exciting high scoring bowling game featuring skill and expert timing in shooting for the pins as lights flash across the playfield just in front of the pins.

"300 Champ" features the continuous strike game, with 20-30 scoring for the maximum in exciting play. "Lite-O-Matic" is played two ways—"Mystery" or "Progressive." 8400 points is the perfect score.

"Regulation" bowling is played according to American Bowling Congress (ABC) rules. The perfect score is 300 pins.

The "Red Dot" cabinet is strikingly beautiful and is considered a very attractive piece in all locations, according to Secore. All of the buttons for game selection are in front of the playfield, and easily reached by the player. There is a double-size all steel cash box. The game has dime play. All the action (in all scoring games) is flashed on the pin hood during each frame.

Secore stated that many of Chicago Coin's distributors were in the city recently and viewed and demonstrated "Red Dot." They unanimously exulted over the game, assuring him that this game should sell very well everywhere.
