Bob Dylan is a sensitive young man who has parlayed a catalog of sensitive songs into a fantastic disk career for himself and an ever-growing number of artists. A leading light in the "protest" song movement, Dylan just had a number 1 seller with "Like a Rolling Stone," which like most, if not all, of his creations is open to all kinds of special-message interpretations. Dylan's latest Columbia singles release is "Positively 4th Street," which moves into the 73 slot this week on the Top 100. The performer is also represented with a new LP, "Highway 61 Revisited," a sequel to a Top 10 album seller, "Bring It All Back Home." Dylan starts a coast-to-coast (and back again) 1-niter on Sept. 24, including a Carnegie Hall appearance Oct. 2.

A BROADER MUSICAL BASE

There is nothing in the record business treated quite so delicately as the relationship between radio (or TV) and the exposure of disks. There is, certainly, a number of perfectly understandable and, one may add, legal reasons why this is so. While the record trade cannot dictate, but much less advise media on what to play, there still remains some facts-of-life that confront both parties: each is dependent on the other for material success. The record industry realizes that about 75% of its sales stems directly from performances of its product on-the-air, while the latter, draws about 85% of its programming from the sound of music on records.

The public is fed a diet of music that is determined by the process of what is produced by record manufacturers and then chosen for airplay by stations. Both industries, we believe, thus become the parents of responsibility. We do not refer to an over-active blue-pencil or a form of censorship that screens material for its "acceptability" for programming. This, in our view, is an area of dubious morality.

Rather, we feel that it may be the time for radio to sit back awhile and ponder the question of whether or not many of its musical programming techniques have tended to restrict the base of the type of music it is offering. Have not tight Top 40 (or 30) schedules reached the self-limiting point whereby there has developed a monotonous conformity of sounds?

We believe that the record business is providing a broader base of music in the singles field than ever before. The rub is that many efforts that can be classified as middle-of-the-road are being excluded from concentrated air-play because they are deemed to fall short of Top 40 qualifications.

Radio, we must underscore once more, has every right in the world to turn-down any recording from air-play. Perhaps the producers of recordings, however, deserve the courtesy of radio's willingness to give a pre-programming listen and greater open-mindedness to the sounds and artists that may not immediately ring a Top 40 bell, but could find a significant and appreciative audience.

A paradox that presents itself in this matter is the position being taken by many of the "middle-of-the-road" stations. They seem to be letting their hair down a bit in the exposure of disks that more than drop a hint of teen-market influence. Could not the same kind of thinking be put into practice by Top 40 outlets as regards the broader musical base or for that matter, artists who do not have a Top 40 reputation, but are making a bid for acceptance in that area?

The truth, of course, is that the distinction between rock 'n roll and the middle-of-the-road sound is getting less apparent now. Could not the debt that each form owes to the other be translated into the logic of more diversified pop music programming?

Victor Unveils Stereo 8 Cartridges; Marketing, Promo Plans Revealed

NEW YORK—RCA Victor Records has made an initial release of 175 of its best-selling RCA Victor and RCA Stereo 8 titles on RCA Stereo 8 tape cartridges, enfranchised 63 distributors to sell the cartridges, and released broad merchandising and sales plans backed by a major advertising-promotion campaign to launch RCA Stereo 8 tape cartridges. The first release covers all musical forms.

An announcement was made by Harry Jenkins, vice president of marketing, who said that the initial release, at a list price range from $4.95 to $5.95, will be supplemented by additional monthly releases beginning in November.

The program was unveiled at two meetings of the distributors in New York, Kansas City and San Francisco. Jenkins said a total of 63 distributors had been franchised specially for RCA Stereo 8 because he visualized a requirement for wider distribution than that normally required for our other products.

Designed specifically for use with 8-track stereo players developed for moving vehicles, as well as the home, RCA Stereo 8 cartridges will be backed by a one-year warranty, covering manufacturing defects.

The initial release of 175 titles includes both single and "Twin-Pack" double LP equivalents representing 175 major artists on the RCA Victor label.

RCA also announced that RCA Stereo 8 product will be available in single and "Twin-Pack" double LP equivalents.

Necessaries for merchandising include an RCA Stereo 8 Floor Merchandiser, full-color mounted covers, consumer catalogs of all RCA Stereo 8 and Camden titles through November, permanent loose leaf catalogs and an RCA Stereo 8 Cartridge Tray which holds up to 10 cartridges.

The Ford Motor Company, which is offering a dash mounted radio-tape player as optional equipment in its Mustang, Thunderbird and Lincoln models as well as a hang-on tape player in Fairlanes, Fords and Mercurys, will have special demonstration displays and RCA Stereo 8 displays in its dealer showrooms, and these displays will make available to every customer a tape player-equipped RCA Twin-Pack cartridge, equivalent to two LP records, titled "Ford Family of Fine Music," which features music by Henry Mancini, John Gary, Curly Howard and the Boston Pops Orchestra and Morton Gould and His Orchestra. This Twin Pack was produced by Ford by RCA Victor.

To launch RCA Stereo 8 cartridges, RCA has planned a major advertising and promotion campaign which will include a distributor contest with RCA Stereo 8-equipped 1966 Mustangs as prizes.

Advertising includes full-page advertising in music and automotive trades, as well as full-page insertions in Life, Time, Newsweek, Sports Illustrated, Esquire, Playboy, Hot Rod, Motor Trend, Rod & Customs, Sports Car Craft, Stereo Tape Log, Harrison Tape Catalog and Phonolog Tape Parade.

Additionally, a color television commercial is scheduled during a pro football game telecast in November, and there will be special materials including mats and radio spots for cooperative local advertising.

Point-of-sale materials include the floor merchandiser, window cards, streamers, 2-color consumer catalogs and the loose-leaf catalog in full color.

Franchised Distributors

Distributors franchised to sell RCA Stereo 8 cartridges are: Phoenix—Arizona Sundries Co.; Los Angeles—Handleman Co., California Music Co. and RCA Victor Distributing Corp.; San Francisco—Calectron; Oakland—

Kapp Sets Month-Long Roger Williams Promo

NEW YORK—Kapp Records last week (15) kicked off 'Roger Williams Month' in observance of the 10th anniversary of the pianist's "Autumn Leaves" hit. A major promotion and merchandising effort has been planned incorporating saturation radio spots with listener contests, extensive local coop advertising through key stores in top markets, advertising in both trade and major consumer media and one of the heaviest in-store display campaigns in the history of the label. Special sales incentive programs have been planned for distributors and their sales and promotion personnel.

Williams, who is one of the best-selling pianists in the history of the record business, has reportedly sold more than 10 million albums to date.

Tied in with the promotion, which will run until Oct. 15, is the release of a new version of "Autumn Leaves," which features a choral background along with Williams. The original version of the song is on the flip side.

At the local level, extra promotion is planned wherever Williams is scheduled for a concert appearance in the months to come. His normal schedule calls for at least 60 concert appearances a year.

In addition to extensive trade paper advertising, Kapp has scheduled space in such key consumer publications as the New Yorker and Esquire magazines. Promotion will focus on the anniversary itself; the new single and on Williams' latest best-selling LP, "Summer Wind."

Among Williams' biggest albums, in addition to "Autumn Leaves," have been "Hits Of The Fabulous Fifties," "Hits Of The Fabulous Forties," "Hits Of The Fabulous Century," and "Till."

All of this product will be detailed in colorful catalog stuffers being made available to dealers immediately for the use during the month.

London Debuts Fall Album Release

NEW YORK—London Records will get the fall season off to a flying start by releasing 33 new albums. The highlight of the release is "Mantovani Ole" by the label's best-selling orchestra. Release of the disk is tied-in to Mantovani's current tour of the U.S. The rest of the release consists of product in the following categories: 6 Phase 4 Stereo, 3 Pops, 7 International, 15 Classics and 1 Coliseum.

The Phase 4 release is "Americana" by Robert Merrill, Werner Muller's "Germany," "Broadway Spectacular" by Stanley Black, "Straight Ahead" by Johnny Keating, "The King Of Sound" by Eric Rogers, and a new Frank Chacksfield album—"The New Limelight."

The label's pop product release is underlined by still another Chacksfield set, "Great Country And Western Hits." The other two albums are "Happy Days Are Here Again" by Will Glahe and "Marches From The Movies" by the Band of the Grenadier Guards.

The International product release features such titles as "Mucho Machucambos" by Los Machucambos, "Percussive Latin Trio" by Los Machucambos, "The Little Singers Of Tokyo At Lincoln Center," "A Musical Journey Through Germany's Harz Mountains," "Golden Hits From England," "The Biggest Hits From Greece" and "Spain's Marisol."

Heading the bill in the classical release is new version of Rossini's "The Barber Of Seville" featuring Teresa Berganza. Other long-hair albums are "Neapolitan Songs" by Giuseppe di Stefano, Chopin's "Four Ballades" spotlighting pianist Vladimir Ashkenazy, the Vienna Philharmonic Orchestra reading Tchaikovsky's "Symphony No. 1," Benjamin Britten's "Sinfonia Da Requiem," "Lute Song" with Peter Pears and Julian Bream, "Greta Keller," The Complete Piano Works of Brahms featuring Julius Katchen, Mozart's "Complete Dances And Marches—Vol. 2" by the Vienna Mozart Ensemble, Tchaikovsky's "Symphony No. 2" by the Vienna Philharmonic Orchestra, "Music For Two Pianos" by Bracha Eden and Alexander Tamir and Mendelssohn's "Violin Conc. In E Minor" by Ion Voicou.

The one Coliseum release is "Think Young" by Camarata and his Orchestra.

'Mary Poppins' LP: Great Past, Promising Future

NEW YORK—Although "Mary Poppins" as a film and disk spin-off has been around for more than a year, its sales allure is such that a whole music operation could be built around the great success.

The past performance of "Mary" is a statistical dream, but Disneyland Records is too busy trying to keep up with the future dividends of Walt Disney's most successful production to date.

The Seven Year Itch

As a movie, it is a certainty that it will be revived according to the famed Disney formula of a revival about every seven years. At the moment, the film continues to build its saturation in movie houses. By the end of the year, some 7000 to 8000 theaters will be screening the pic. Last Oct., "Mary" was playing in 16 locations, and by Christmas time of 1964, two more locations were added, and Jan. saw a total of 100. Thus, the film, in a sense, will be celebrating its first Xmas Season as a big road show. As far as the soundtrack LP is concerned, this is expected to push the LP to the 2 million mark in sales by Jan. 1. By March, Disneyland predicts, the LP may reach the sales mark of 3½ million, which would class it as one of the best-selling albums of all-time.

The statistical story to date of the soundtrack plus two other "second cast" Disneyland albums is possessed in fold-out chart form by Jimmy Johnson, president of the label. As of Aug. 27, the soundtrack had reached the 1,920,000 mark. The two other albums, a $1.89 and $3.98 story-book edition, had sold 629,313 and 246,000, respectively. Johnson pointed-out that the soundtrack figure did not include sales through the RCA Record Club, which has consistently highlighted the LP in its consumer ad program.

The Songs

Songs from "Mary," which include this year's Academy Award winner, "Chim-Chim Cheree," have already brought in 5 times more money in one year than the intake from the combined income of other Walt Disney-copyrighted music in the same period, Johnson asserts. Some of the most oft-cut songs from the score are "Chim-Chim Cheree" (45 versions), "Spoonful of Sugar" (27 versions), and "Supercal . . ." (24 versions). In the form of sheet-music, music books, band arrangements, etc., "Mary" material has also made the grade. The sheet-music leader is "Chim Chim Cheree" with 100,000 copies sold. But, Johnson points out, sheet-music sales have taken a back-seat to band and choral arrangements. As an example, a $20 concert-band

Atlantic Writes $1.6 Mil In Billings At NARM Meet

NEW YORK—Atlantic Records concluded the most successful sales meeting in its 18 year history last week. In the two-day meeting in Chicago with Atlantic and Atco distributors, the firm wrote a total of $1,600,000 worth of business, almost double the billings at the 1964 sales confab.

The meetings were attended by Atlantic-Atco executives Ahmet Ertegun, Jerry Wexler, Neushi Ertegun, Bob Kornheiser, Len Sachs, George Furness and fieldman George Bodansky.

Neushi Ertegun introduced the label's new album product, consisting of 10 Atlantic LP's, two Atco albums and one Volt LP. New singles by Bobby Darin, Esther Phillips, Nino & April, Don Covay, Tony Orlando, Mr. Acker Bilk and Bent Fabric, were introduced by Jerry Wexler.

MGM's Kiddie Disks To Be Headed By Galewitz

HERB GALEWITZ

NEW YORK—MGM Records is out to capture a strong share of the kiddie market with the aid of a newly-appointed manager-director, Herb Galewitz. Galewitz comes to MGM after six years as vp and business products manager of Golden Records, the large kiddie-market label.

His first project for MGM will be what is described as an "interesting and unusual" group of kiddie disks for release after the first of the year. At Golden, he produced such best-selling items as "ABC Mother Goose," "Romper Room Official Record," "Woody Woodpecker," "Mitch Miller Songs For Children" and others.

According to research he has conducted, Galewitz reports that when youngsters reach the age of 8, they are prospects for pop recordings. It is the age bracket from 2 to 8 years that represents a substantial part of today's kiddie record business, he has learned.

Prior to his association at Golden, Galewitz served in various departments for Pocket Books and was active in sales, administration and promotion.

Columbia: Long-Range Classical Drive

NEW YORK—A long-range marketing program for classical product is underway at Columbia Records. Bill Gallagher, vp at the label, said that the drive would put further emphasis on Columbia's 1965 convention theme, "Grow Power in an Age of Reason."

"This program," Gallagher stated, "is designed to enhance the growth and profitability of the full-line record dealer. The program is twofold in concept; we will, effective September 20, broaden the margin to the dealer on the major portion of Columbia's classical catalog. With this price adjustment, Columbia's branches will now offer a 50% margin to retailers on the ML and MS series. These price adjustments are on wholesale prices only and will not affect the suggested list price schedules of $4.79 on ML and $5.79 on MS LP's."

Last July, Columbia launched, via its record club, a Masterworks Subscription Program, designed to test consumer purchasing patterns on classical albums. During the past twelve months, Columbia has maintained a consumer panel of selected subscribers. This panel has been subjected to continuous evaluation and study, and results, Gallagher reported, have proved "conclusively that the classical buyer can be stimulated by broadening the selection of classical repertoire available to him." Columbia's tests also revealed that the classical market is growing rapidly, and demand is increasing for esoteric repertoire as well as for that of the "Warhorse" variety.

The object of Columbia Records now, as in the past, Gallagher stated, is to explore every means of increasing the classical market, thereby benefiting its artists as well as record dealers and, consequently, the public. Therefore, in addition to the price adjustments which will be effective immediately, Columbia will announce to its full-line retailers a program which will make it possible for the retailer to offer his own Masterworks Subscription Plan in his own store. The price adjustment will enhance the dealers' profitability, and the Subscription Plan is designed to broaden the dealer's potential in classical sales. The Columbia Record Club, as a result of the same tests, will offer a similar Masterworks Subscription Plan.

Gallagher further stated that "The new Masterworks prices we have announced are year-round in every respect and are consistent with our dedication to the 'Age of Reason' policy which has proven so successful for Columbia during the past two years. During this time Columbia has enjoyed consistent leadership with its extensive and outstanding releases of serious music. Now an even larger audience will be reached by such Columbia top-selling classical artists as Leonard Bernstein and the New York Philharmonic, Eugene Ormandy and the Philadelphia Orchestra, George Szell and the Cleveland Orchestra; pianists Vladimir Horowitz, Rudolf Serkin and Glenn Gould, violinists Isaac Stern and Zino Francescatti; organist E. Power Biggs, and the Mormon Tabernacle Choir."

Complete details of Columbia's new classical marketing plan will be unveiled to retailers by Columbia's sales organization in the near future.

Miller Catalog To Sherman

RUNNEMEDE, N.J.—Dave Miller, of Miller International Company and Al Sherman of Record Sales Company (Los Angeles) have jointly announced the purchase of the Miller International catalogs by Budget Sound Company. Budget Sound, a wholly-owned subsidiary of Record Sales Company, has represented Miller International for the past several years in the eleven Western States.

Miller, in a letter to members of the record industry, announced that all Miller exchange and return policies would be honored by Al Sherman's Budget Sound Company. He assured his customers that the nature of all Miller product would continue as in the past, with Miller devoting his full time and effort toward production of new product. A projected 50 new releases will be forthcoming in the next year—all in the same fine standards previously set by Somerset, Stereo-Fidelity, Audio Spectrum, and the fabulous "101 Strings" Orchestra.

Al Sherman's Record Sales Company is one of the nation's leading record distributing firms, based in Los Angeles. In taking over the Miller catalogs, Sherman has stated that he will continue all former Miller policy on inventory protection. Sherman stated, "Without the problems which his former administrative duties presented, Dave Miller's talents will be unhampered in the creation and production of new product."

TV's Monday & Disk Stars

NEW YORK—The record industry really gets into the TV network act on Monday nights. The new TV season began last week, with Monday nights packing a strong 1, 2 (and 3) punch on disk artists. "Hullabaloo" is back on NBC, and it returned with its usual fast-paced format. The premiere offering featured Sammy Davis, Jr., the Supremes, the Lovin' Spoonful and Sonny & Cher. This half-hour salute to the beat idiom is followed by the Andy Williams Show (9 pm EST), another NBC hold-over from last season. Besides Williams, Robert Boulet and Bobby Darin made many viewers think of perhaps adding to their disk library. CBS' Monday night contribution to disk artist exposure is the new Steve Lawrence program (11 hour at 10pm, EST).

Seeburg's New Phono Unit Stacks, Plays 12" Albums

CHICAGO—The world's first stereo music system that vertically stores and plays both sides of 50 twelve inch records automatically at either 16 $\frac{2}{3}$ or 33 $\frac{1}{3}$ speeds was introduced by the Seeburg Corp. at the recently-concluded MOA convention here. The revolutionary new non-coin-operated system plays three varieties of twelve inch records, two of them specially developed by the firm.

The system, which is designed for use in the prestige locations of the nation (e.g. motels, hotels, restaurants, etc.), centers around the new phono-graph record playing mechanism. It plays up to three separate and distinct programs of twelve inch records automatically selected from the fifty records vertically stored in the mechanism.

Seeburg president Jack Gordon pointed out that the firm has developed two vital ingredients heretofore unavailable in musical entertainment. The first is new mechanism which Seeburg developed after four and a half years of research and development. The second is the firm's own production of special records that offer varied musical programming that has never previously been available.

The heart of the new unit is a Select-O-Matic Record Playing Mechanism. It stores 50 12-inch records vertically in a magazine. It plays both sides of either 33 $\frac{1}{3}$ or 16 $\frac{2}{3}$ speeds intermixed. The mechanism is remotely operated from a control center that permits an over-ride of previously selected periods of programming. Up to three separate and distinct programs of records may be pre-selected from the 100 record sides listed on the selector panel of the Remote Selector Unit.

One simply depresses a button labeled Program 1, Program 2 or Program 3, and the system automatically plays each record (from 5 to 50) in that program and repeats the cycle when all records in it are played.

Deceptive LP Charges Initiates New York Investigation Of Product

NEW YORK—Charges of deceptive practices against a budget-priced record company has spurred the Attorney General's Office in New York on to a continuing investigation of similar schemes.

The office of New York Attorney General Louis J. Lefkowitz announced last week that it had filed court charges against the Buckingham Record Co., located at 30 East 42nd St., contending the company had released LP's by Gloria Lynne, Brook Benton, Nina Simone, and Ray Charles, all selling for 99¢, that contained only two selections each by the stars. The Attorney General's Office said it had received statements by the artists declaring that they had not given Buckingham permission to release the sides, some of which were old demo sides. The albums have been racked extensively in the New York area under the Palace and Altone labels.

A spokesman for Buckingham told Cash Box that the company did not have any comments to make "at this time" on the charges.

The titles of the LP's are: "Gloria Lynne—Dynamite," "Brook Benton—Blues Favorites," "Ray Charles and the Sounds of Rhythm and Blues—The Greatest Recordings Ray Charles Ever Made" and "The Second Album—Nina Simone."

If convicted, Buckingham can be fined—under the state's false advertising statute—$500 for every false ad claim or labeling.

Assistant Attorney General Stephen Mindell said, in a statement to Cash Box, that his office was looking into other violations of the statute within the record business.

London's '65 Hot Months Register 100% Sales Hike

NEW YORK—London Records weathered the hot months of June, July and Aug. in historic style. D. H. Toller-Bond, who heads the operation, reported last week that sales for the 3-month period were 100% ahead of the showing for the same period in 1964.

London's singles picture during June-July-August was extremely bright (as it is now), with a rash of big sides by such English artists as the Rolling Stones, Tom Jones, Marianne Faithfull, Mantovani, the Bachelors, the Fortunes, Them and Unit 4 Plus 2. Also, such American attractions as the Sir Douglas Quintet and Willie Mitchell (on the London-handled Hi label) came through. The label's singles area is handled by Walt Maguire, head of pop A&R and sales.

Album product, directed by Herb Goldfarb, national sales manager, also figured prominently in the record-setting pace. It was pointed out that many of the hit singles performers repeated their sales success with LP's. In addition, the label's Phase 4 dates (now 60 LP's strong), the general Hi catalog and a well-received recording of Wagner's "Gottterdammerung" drew sales attention to the label's merchandise.

General packaging and merchandising are under the supervision of Marty Wargo, the diskery's administrative assistant.

Phil Rose To WB-Reprise As Manager Of Int'l Dept.

BURBANK, CALIF.—Phil Rose, general manager of the Apex Division of The Compo Company, Canada, has been appointed manager of the international department of Warner Bros. and Reprise Records, Mike Maitland, president of the company, announced last week.

Rose, a veteran of 15 years' service with The Compo Co., has headed that company's sales, promotion and production activities, handling the Warner Bros. and Reprise labels, as well as performing similar functions for United Artists, Cadence, Roulette, Colpix and others, throughout the years.

Prior to joining Compo in 1950, he represented Metro Disc in a promotion capacity, and before that was associated with Maple Leaf Records in Canada.

Rose inaugurated the Apex Division for Compo, which was formed to handle Canadian distribution of masters recorded in the United States and other countries.

In his new post at WB, he will be responsible for the complete operation of the WB and Reprise international departments, reporting daily to Maitland.

Rose disclosed that Lee Armstrong from the Toronto office has been appointed to handle sales in his exit, with Roy Smith's duties being increased to oversee promotion and production, and Jacques Chenier named to handle local Canadian production.

MGM: Peak Sales Year

NEW YORK—MGM Records completed the most successful year in its history by breaking all sales records through the last two periods of its sales year, reports Mort Nasatir, president of the firm.

The parent MGM label with its associated Verve, Metro and Verve/Folkways liner, along with the labels it exclusively distributes, Deutsche Grammophon and Kama Sutra, hit an all-time high of more than three million dollars in sales for the hot weather period of July and August. This is the highest figure ever recorded by the company for any two month spread.

Nasatir also pointed out that the company has been one of the hottest for the entire year with as many as from five to eleven albums on the national charts at one time, and as many as nine singles on trade paper lists in a single week.

In explaining the solid performance the MGM Records' president pointed to consistent sales by Herman's Hermits, The Animals, Connie Francis, Johnny Tillotson, Hank Williams, Jr. and the "Your Cheatin' Heart" soundtrack and Sam the Sham and the Pharaohs. Instrumental in the record-breaking year and period sales was the acquisition of product by Roy Orbison, Nasatir said.

On the Verve label, the MGM president mentioned major sales of catalog led by Stan Getz, Astrud Gilberto, Jimmy Smith and Cal Tjader, while the Metro budget line accounted for a solid percentage of over all sales in the eight or nine months of its existence. Latter success, the exec stated, was underlined again at the National Association of Rack Merchandisers (NARM) convention where much Metro business was written.

Nasatir spoke of the label's momentum in terms of future product as well as the current sales leaders it has under its wing. First and foremost, of course, is Roy Orbison. In addition, he spoke of the strong product being contributed by the Kama Sutra label with its Vacels and Lovin' Spoonful singles. Nasatir sees a solid sales potential in the newly-formed Verve/Folkways label as a result of the boom in folk music, folk rock, folk beat and bluegrass music.

The MGM Records' President gave credit for the showing to LP sales manager, Sol Greenberg; single sales director Lenny Scheer; national promotion manager Frank Mancini; director of publicity, Sol Handwerker; Irv Stimler, Ed Barsky, who package and sell Metro; and Jerry Schoenbaum, head of DGG and Verve/Folkways wings.

Nasatir hinted at a wider variety of product to come from the label and "even more aggressive approach to talent and masters."

Pick of the Week

RUSTY BELLS (2:26) [George Pincus, ASCAP—Ahlert, Snyder]

IF YOU DON'T (Not Like You) (2:42)
[Music City, ASCAP—King, King]

BRENDA LEE (Decca 31849)

After a chart fling with "Too Many Rivers," the star songstress will touch many a teen and adult heart with "Rusty Bells," one of the best inspirational songs to come along in quite awhile. And Brenda's performance, with a lush ork-chorus backdrop, does it full justice. Fine emotional warbling on "If You Don't."

WHERE HAVE ALL THE FLOWERS GONE (2:28)
[Fall River, BMI—Seeger]

LOVE ME WHILE YOU CAN (3:06) [Johnny Rivers, BMI—Rivers]

JOHNNY RIVERS (Imperial 66133)

Johnny Rivers is an obvious choice to duplicate his recent "Seventh Son" best-seller with this first-rate reading of Pete Seeger's oft-cut "Where Have All The Flowers Gone." The chanter reads the anti-war pop-folk item in an impressive hard-rockin' contagious fashion. "Love Me While You Can" is a rhythmic, raunchy, chorus-backed twangy romancer.

JUST ONE KISS FROM YOU (2:37) [Chi-Sound, BMI—Mayfield]

TWILIGHT TIME (2:17) [Porgie, BMI—M.&A. Nevins, Ram, Dunn]

IMPRESSIONS (ABC-Paramount 10725)

The Impressions are a logical cinch to repeat their last-time-out smasher of "I Need You" with this potent pop-r&b follow-up labeled "Just One Kiss From You." The side is a plaintive, slow-shufflin' romancer about an easy-going fella who is really hung-up on the girl of his dreams. On the undercut, the crew offers an impressive reading of the years-back Platters hit, "Twilight Time."

RING DANG DOO (2:23) [Valley/Beckie, BMI—Byers, Tubert]

DON'T TRY IT (2:20) [Beckie, BMI—Samudio]

SAM THE SHAM & PHARAOHS (MGM 13397)

Sam the Sham and the Pharaohs should make it three-in-a-row (they're currently coming off "Ju Ju Hand") with this top-notch offering from MGM. The top lid, "Ring Dang Do," is a rollicking, fast-moving raunchy romantic thumper with an infectious repeating rhythmic riff. "Don't Try It" is a clever, medium-paced, blues-tinged, teen-slanted rocker.

LET'S HANG ON! (3:03)

[Saturday & Four Seasons, BMI—Crewe, Randell, Linzer]

ON BROADWAY (2:31)

[On Broadway Tonight, ASCAP—Crewe, Gaudio]

4 SEASONS (Philips 40317)

The Seasons should speedily add this Philips stand, "Let's Hang On," to their long string of previous hits. The tune is a hard-rockin' fast-moving rhythmic ode about a lucky fella who is mighty pleased that he's fortunate enough to have met the girl of his dreams. "On Broadway" is an impressive full-orked-backed legitish affair.

I FOUND A GIRL (2:20) [Trousdale, BMI—Sloan, Barri]

IT'S A SHAME TO SAY GOODBYE (2:15)

Screen Gems-Columbia, BMI—Altfeld, Gibson]

JAN & DEAN (Liberty 55833)

Jan and Dean should have no difficulty in jumping into the winner's circle with this new outing, "I Found A Girl," which has that money-in-the-bank sound plastered all over it. The tune is a lively, fast-moving warm-hearted romancer about a lucky fella who is delighted cause he's finally found the girl of his dreams. "It's A Shame To Say Goodbye" is a hauntingly lovely lament about a twosome who are about to go their separate ways.

EARLY MORNING RAIN (3:02) [M. Witmark, ASCAP—Lightfoot]

THE RISING OF THE MOON (3:31)

[Pepamar, ASCAP—Yarrow, Stookey, Travers, Okun]

PETER, PAUL & MARY (Warner Bros. 5659)

Peter, Paul and Mary should zoom up the charts in no time flat with this top-rung Gordon Lightfoot-penned effort tabbed "Early Morning Rain." The tune is a medium-paced, extremely smooth traditional-sounding folk ballad with a real impressive guitar backing. The flip is a plaintive soulful reading of "The Rising Of The Moon."

Pick of the Week

SHE NEEDS LOVE (2:25) [Camelback, ASCAP—Ballard]

LIKE I DID (2:31) [Kennedy Street BMI—Ellis]

WAYNE FONTANA & MINDBENDERS (Fontana 1524)

Wayne Fontana and the Mindbenders hit recently with "It's Just A Little Bit Too Late" and this potent follow-up stanza tagged "She Needs Love" should also develop into a blockbuster. The tune is an easy-going, rhythmic blues-tinged affair about a gal who wants a special guy all for herself. Watch it closely. "Like I Did" is a slick, low-key weeper with a throbbingly bittersweet melodic undercurrent.

CHAPEL IN THE MOONLIGHT (2:00)
[Shapiro, Bernstein, ASCAP—Hill]

THE OLD WISHING WELL (3:10)
[Bernice, BMI—Scott, Martin Gregory]

BACHELORS (London 9793)

The Bachelors are sticking with the oldie route (they scored recently with "Marie") with this top-rung re-working of "Chapel In The Moonlight." The crew reads the pretty, heart-warming romancer in impressive, feelingful full ork-backed style. Flip's an easy-going, country-ish, heart-throbber with a nostalgic years-back sound.

I MISS YOU SO (2:33) [Leeds, ASCAP—Henderson, Scott, Robin]

GET OUT OF MY LIFE (2:00) [South Mountain, BMI—Randazzo]

LITTLE ANTHONY & THE IMPERIALS (DCP 1149)

The songsters are up for further big chart sales, and the cut that's a natural to do the trick is "I Miss You So." Yes, the tune is the fine ever-green, which Little Anthony renders with touching sincerity. Supporting him is a full ork-chorus treatment, and, of course, his fellow songmates. Flip is a haunting expression, a sound that could also get around.

I BELIEVE I'LL LOVE ON (2:30) [BRC & Remitary, BMI—Singleton]

LONELY TEARDROPS (2:48) [Pearl, BMI—Gordy, Carlo]

JACKIE WILSON (Brunswick 55283)

Hot-on-the-heels of his "No Pity In The Naked City" triumph, Jackie Wilson comes up with another sure-fire winner with this outstanding Brunswick offering called "I Believe I'll Love On." The side is fast-moving, rhythmic pop-blues, chorus-backed contagious handclappin' romancer. The undercut, "Lonely Teardrops," is a tender, low-down, after-hours extremely funky weeper.

ONLY A FOOL BREAKS
HIS OWN HEART (2:27)

[Unart, BMI—Coburn, Borgen]

OPEN UP YOUR HEART (2:41)

[South Mountain
BMI—Costa, Meshel]

ARTHUR PRY SOCK (Old Town 1185)

Arthur Prysock should easily repeat his recent "It's Too Late Baby, Too Late" triumph with either side or both of this double-header entry. One side, "Only A Fool Breaks His Own Heart," is a sweeping, lyrical dramatic lament about an unfortunate guy who is singing the blues cause he is responsible for his romance ending up on the rocks. The other side, "Open Up Your Heart," is an easy-going lyrical legit-ish romancer.

WE DIDN'T ASK TO BE BROUGHT HERE (2:20) [T. M., BMI—Darin]

FUNNY WHAT LOVE CAN DO (2:48) [T. M., BMI—Darin]

BOBBY DARIN (Atlantic 2305)

Back home at the label operation that he really came through with (e.g. "Mack The Knife"), Darin evidently wants to get his re-association off on the right foot, for he does a terrific, strictly teen-oriented job on "We Didn't Ask To Be Brought Here," his own gift to the "protest" song field. Overall sound is touched by a colorful English influence. "Funny What Love Can Do," a strong funky-sound item, can also succeed.

MY HEART BELONGS TO YOU (2:40)
[Flomar, BMI—Simpson, Armstead, Ashford]

LOVE THAT MAN (2:20) [Flomar, BMI—Simpson, Ashford]

SHIRELLES (Scepter 12114)

The Shirelles are sure to hit the sales-jackpot with this power-packed pop-r&b affair tabbed "My Heart Belongs To You." The side is a soul-drenched, slow-shufflin' romancer about a lucky lass who claims that she can't get along without her fella. "Love That Man" is an easy-going moody item which concerns a decidedly love-struck gal.

ree cheers for three great new singles.

Pick of the Week

AND THAT REMINDS ME (2:30)

[Symphony ASCAP—Bargoni, Danpe, Stillman]

I ONLY WANT A BUDDY NOT A SWEETHEART (2:17)

[Westpar BMI—Jones]

DELLA REESE (ABC-Paramount 10721)

Della Reese, who made an impressive disk-comeback recently with "After Loving You," should continue in her money-making ways with this top-drawer outing. The plug side is the lark's while-back hit, "And That Reminds Me," which she updates in a lyrical, full-bodied dramatic style. Tremendous potential here. Undercut is a high-spirited rhythmic rendition of "I Only Want A Buddy Not A Sweetheart."

LET ME KNOW WHEN IT'S OVER (2:19)

[South Mountain BMI—Weinstein, Bandazzo]

I SAW ME (3:10) [Mixer—Glad BMI—Davis]

ESTHER PHILLIPS (Atlantic 2304)

Lark's recent hit reading of the Beatles' "And I Love Her" should make acceptance of her latest offering even easier to come by. The top date is "Let Me Know When It's Over," a solid hunk of legit ballad material that seems to get a definitive portrayal from the performer. Rich-sounding backdrop has lots of sound value. Side looks like a big one. Slower-paced, funky business on "I Saw Me."

AUTUMN LEAVES—1965 (2:45)

[Morley ASCAP—Prevert, Kosma, Mercer]

AUTUMN LEAVES—1955 (2:59)

[Morley ASCAP—Prevert, Kosma, Mercer]

ROGER WILLIAMS (Kapp 707)

In commemoration of the tenth anniversary of Roger Williams on Kapp, the label is releasing this updated version of "Autumn Leaves," the pianist's first best-seller. The new version spotlights Williams' distinctive light-fingered keyboard approach in an especially lush orchestral setting. The coupler is the original version of the sturdie. A natural for early deejay attention.

DON'T MAKE MY BABY BLUE (2:14)

[Screen Gems—Columbia BMI—Mann, Weil]

MY GRANDFATHER'S CLOCK (2:41)

[Shadows & Hill & Range BMI—Welch, Marvin, Bennett]

SHADOWS (Epic 9848)

The Shadows should quickly repeat their British hit of "Don't Make My Baby Blue" in the U. S. The side is a raunchy, medium-paced, lament about a lad who hopes that his ex-gal's new beau will take good care of her. The flip's a rollicking instrumental version of "My Grandfather's Clock."

THE THREE SONG (2:27) [Davon BMI—Williams]

THE WORLD I USED TO KNOW (3:13) [In Music ASCAP—McKuen]

SMOTHERS BROTHERS (Mercury 72483)

The Smothers Bros. kicked off their new national TV'er last week and the tremendous exposure of the stanza could well create a single hit out of this top-flight item tabbed "The Three Song." Side, which is culled from the duo's "Mom Always Liked You Best" LP, is an easy-going, lyrical folk-romancer which blends in some effective portions of counterpoint and harmony. On the flip, Dick Smothers offers a plaintive rendition of "The World I Used To Know."

THINK BEFORE YOU ACT (2:40)

[South Mountain BMI—Stallman, Weinstein, Randazzo]

SHE LOVES ME (FOR WHAT I AM) (2:12)

[Cotillion BMI—Cassavitis, Thau]

TONY ORLANDO (Atco 6376)

Many a deejay should dig this top-drawer Atco bow by Tony Orlando which seems destined of putting the songster right back on top again. The "A" side, "Think Before You Act," is a slow-starting but quickly-building chorus-backed bluesy ode about a guy who asks his gal to reconsider their relationship before leaving him. "She Loves Me (For What I Am)," is a low-down, funky heartfelt romancer.

SAND AND THE SEA (2:30) [Unart BMI—Blackwell]

SOFTLY AS I LEAVE YOU (3:00) [Miller ASCAP—Shaper, DeVita]

LENA HORNE (United Artists 911)

Here's a standout piece of commercial material by Lena Horne which should develop into one of the Fall's biggest sellers. The top lid, "Sand And The Sea," is a sweet 'n' sour, lyrical, chorus-backed romancer which builds to several exciting, dramatic crescendos. The coupler's a full-bodied treatment of "Softly As I Leave You."

Pick of the Week

SO LONG BABE (3:04) [Criterion, ASCAP—Hazlewood]

IF HE'D LOVE ME (2:45) [Linduane, BMI—Eddy]

NANCY SINATRA (Reprise 0407)

Nancy Sinatra can speedily establish herself as single saleswoman on the basis of this mighty impressive newie called "So Long Babe." The side is a throbbing, rhythmic folk-rock ditty about a realistic but unhappy gal who resigns herself that her romance is kaput. "If He'd Love Me" is a plaintive, slow-shufflin' teen-angled tearjerker.

Newcomer Picks

MR. JONES (2:52) [M. Whitmark, ASCAP—Dylan]

YOU'RE A LONELY GIRL (2:19) [Trousdale—Sloan, Barri]

THE GRASS ROOTS (Dunhill 4013)

The "protest" song movement should crowd the Top 100 even more with this strong warble by the group's lead voice, who does a telling job on a Bob Dylan piece, "Mr. Jones." Approach is squarely in the dirge-like mold of the Dylan genre. Faster rock-folk pacings on the flip portion, the number of which was co-authored by P. F. ("Eve of Destruction") Sloan.

MAKE IT EASY ON YOURSELF (3:12)

[Famous, BMI—Bacharach, David]

BUT I DO (2:53) [Arc, BMI—Guidry]

THE WALKER BROS. (Smash 2000)

The songsters are Americans, but they've made it big in England. "Make It Easy On Yourself" is a current English favorite by the boys, and its drama-laden poignancy is sure to bring the team recognition in their home country. Commanding cut. Interesting undercut is middle-beat, but highly exciting.

SOMEONE'S TAKEN MARIA AWAY (2:33) [Partita, BMI—Andrews]

DON'T BELIEVE HIM, DONNA (2:25)

[Ludix & Betalbin, BMI—Dixon, Thomas]

ALBERT STONE (Reprise 0404)

Albert Stone can make a tremendous sales-splash with this blue-ribbon Reprise item called "Someone's Taken Maria Away." The tune is lilting effectively-building chorus-backed affair which concerns a love-sick fella who is still carrying the torch for his ex-gal. "Don't Believe Him, Donna" is a pretty, slow-shufflin' teen-oriented romantic weeper with warm-hearted, nostalgic flavor.

TRY TO UNDERSTAND (2:08) [Hill & Range, BMI—Burton, Sawyer]

NOT IN THIS WHOLE WORLD (1:50) [Wemar, BMI—Davis, Simmons]

LULU (Parrot 9791)

Lulu is currently scoring in her native England with "Try To Understand" and there's no reason why she can't duplicate that success on this side of the foam with the tune. The side is a slow-moving, chorus-backed ode which makes a feelingful plea for tenderness in romantic situations. "Not In This Whole World" is a catchy, effectively building soulful weeper.

MR. SOUL (2:30) [Don, BMI—Malone, Cople]

LET ME LOVE YOU (2:25) [Don, BMI—Malone, Morrison]

BUD HARRIS (Peacock 1939)

Newcomer Bud Harris can quickly establish himself in both the pop and r&b markets with this excellent Peacock bow tabbed "Mr. Soul." The side is a lively, warm-hearted, teen-angled, blues-drenched affair about an affluent fella who is quite a ladykiller. "Let Me Love You" is a medium-paced, chorus-backed pledge of devotion sold with loads of authority by the chanter.

YOU'VE GOT TO HIDE YOUR LOVE AWAY (2:20)

[Maclean, BMI—Lennon, McCartney]

CITY WINDS (2:58) [Jaep, BMI—Silkie]

SILKIE (Fontana 1525)

The Silkie, a crew of British newcomers, can quickly establish national reputations with this blue-ribbon offering, "You've Got To Hide Your Love Away," taken from the Beatles new "Help!" flick. The side, which was A&R'd by John Lennon, is a lyrical effectively-building romancer about shy folk who can't always relate their true romantic feelings. "City Winds" is a catchy, medium-paced, warm-hearted pop-folk ditty.

Newcomer Picks

THE TIMES THEY ARE A-CHANGING (2:20)
[Witmark, ASCAP—Dylan]

YESTERDAY AND TOMORROW (2:57) [Survey & Nina, BMI—Antell]

PETER ANTELL (Bounty 45103)

Everybody's Dylan-izing and Peter Antell can certainly make the best of a good thing with this power-packed rendition of "The Times They Are A-Changing." The chanter delivers the folk message-song in a contagious, rollicking, hard-driving rhythmic feelingful fashion. "Yesterday And Tomorrow" is a rhythmic, medium-paced happy-go-lucky romancer.

EVERYBODY'S TALKING 'BOUT THE YOUNG (1:46)
[Viva, BMI—Russell, Leslie, Cale]

IT'S ALRIGHT WITH ME (3:10) [Viva, BMI—Blackwell, Russell Leslie]

LEON RUSSELL (Dot 16771)

Leon Russell makes an auspicious disk bow with this excellent Dot offering tabbed "Everybody's Talking 'Bout The Young." The side is a rollicking, raunchy folk-rock affair which contends that today's kids aren't half as bad as their elders claim. "It's Alright With Me" is a fast-moving happy-go-lucky rocker.

NEVER HAD IT SO GOOD (2:30)
[Flomar, BMI—Simpson, Ashford, Armstead]

LET'S GO GET STONED (2:45)
[Flomar & Baby Monica, BMI—Simpson, Ashford, Armstead]

RONNIE MILSAP (Scepter 12109)

Newcomer Ronnie Milsap stands an excellent chance of hitting big with this top-drawer Scepter outing called "Never Had It So Good." The side is a slow-starting, funky, pop-r&b romancer about a lucky fella who is on cloud nine since he met the girl that he's always dreamed about. "Let's Go Get Stoned" is a low-down, easy-going, chorus-backed tradition-styled blueser.

YOU BETTER RUN (2:41) [Maxana, ASCAP—Lawrence, Velona]

THE TWELFTH OF NEVER (2:36)
[Empress, ASCAP—Webster, Livingston]

DAVID FISHER (Columbia 43386)

David Fisher is a natural to grab the sales spotlight with this ultra-commercial Columbia stand dubbed "You Better Run." The tune is an easy-going, rhythmic romancer about a determined fella who serves notice on his gal that she can't escape him. The undercut's a lyrical heart-felt reading of "The Twelfth Of Never."

DON'T FOOL WITH FU MANCHU (2:13)
[Van Cleef & Seven Arts, BMI—Stone, Schatz]

TEARS MELT THE STONES (2:01) [Claridge, ASCAP—Campisi]

ROCKIN' RAMRODS (Claridge 301)

Here's an infectious novelty inspired by the forthcoming flick, "The Face Of Fu Manchu," which can well garner both pop and r&b airplay and sales. The top side, "Don't Fool With Fu Manchu," which begins with a clever cymbal-clashing intro, is an effective "Louie, Louie"—like teen-angled rocker. "Tears Melt The Stones" is a catchy, fast-moving rhythmic wooser.

Best Bets

SHANE (Brent 7047)

● DON'T TURN ME OFF (2:10) [Brent, BMI—Ansell, Spezze] Here's a strong rocker to excite the teens. Fast paced rhythm and strong beat could put this on the best sellers list. Finale builds to a feverish pitch that could have the rock set in a frenzy.

(B+) THAT GIRL OF MINE (2:14)
[Brent, BMI—Ansell, Spezze] Good jerk beat session over here.

ROSCOE SHELTON
(Sound Stage 7 2549)

● I KNOW YOUR HEART HAS BEEN BROKEN (2:10)
[Cape Ann, BMI—Orange] Roscoe Shelton makes his debut on Sound Stage 7 with a real low down, funky blues ballad. Effective waxing should make it in the R & B field.

(B+) YOU'RE SUCH A GOOD THING (1:57) [Cape Ann, East, BMI—Orange] In the same vein, but not as exciting as flip.

Best Bets

FANTASTICS (Sound Stage 7 2548) JOHNNY COOPER (Toddlin 3136)

● HIGH NOTE (2:20) [Copamarquee, BMI—Pernell, Caldwell] Fine blues harmony make this item a natural for r&b spinners. The lively rhythm should grab plenty of listeners with a good blues sales showing in store. Eye this side for some good reactions.

(B+) THAT ONE (2:10) [Copamarquee, BMI—Smith, Webb] Bouncy shuffle groover.

● HER MOTHER READ HER DIARY (2:22) [E. B. Marks, BMI—Nestor] Songster Cooper could see action on this soft-paced rocker. Deck relates the plight of secret lovers. Tragedy strikes when the girls' mother reads her diary. Enter excellent sales potential into the diary.

(B+) THIS TIME [Vapac, BMI—Nestor] Rock-a-cha-cha with a happy feel.

FRANKIE RANDALL
(RCA Victor 8681)

● TELL HER (2:16) [Valando, ASCAP—Roberts, Jacobson] Pretty ballad from the upcoming Broadway musical "Hot September," could break big. Deck should get exposure on both the good music and top 40 stations. An excellent vocal performance by Frankie Randall is more reason to watch this one.

● NOW I LAY ME DOWN TO SLEEP (2:16) [Diane, Lisa, ASCAP—James, Boles] Rock-a-ballad on this end is a jumping tune. Songster Randall might find himself with a two sided hit.

DON COVAY (Atlantic 2301)

● SEESAW (2:57) [East, Cotillion, BMI—Covay, Cooper] Up to date funky R & B rendition of the years back Moonglows smash. Don Covay, who has hit before should have a big R & B number on his hands.

(B+) I NEVER GET ENOUGH OF YOUR LOVE (2:44) [East, Cotillion, BMI—Covay, Cooper] Strong blues ballad.

RUFUS THOMAS (Stax 178)

● THE WORLD IS ROUND (2:25) [East, BMI—Thomas] R & B lovers should flip over this contagious session. Rufus Thomas, no stranger to the charts, could show in the pop field also with this deck. Eye this one carefully.

(B+) CHICKEN SCRATCH (2:20)
[East, BMI—Thomas, Cropper] Good R & B jumper on this side also.

JESSE LANKFORD (Musicor 1116)

● HOW'S THE WORLD TREATING YOU (2:15)
[Acuff Rose, BMI—Atkins, Bryant] Pretty ballad builds to a high pitch of excitement. Jesse Lankford effectively puts over this strong arrangement. Keep your eyes peeled for this one.

(B+) RUN LITTLE JOEY (2:38)
[Merge, BMI—Duncan] Up-tempo over here.

SAM HAWKINS (Blue Cat 121)

● I KNOW IT'S ALL RIGHT (2:38) [Trio, BMI—Barry, Greenwich] Sam Hawkins could make it big with this exciting medium-paced jerk-beat number. Deck could make noise in both the pop and R & B areas. Check the action on this Artie Butler arranged winner.

(B+) IT HURTS SO BAD (DRIP DROP) (2:05) [Trio, BMI—Barry, Greenwich, Hawkins] More medium paced rock over here.

MIKE POST (Reprise 0406)

● FOR MY HOME (4:00)
[Mirich, ASCAP—Post] Mike Post jumps on the protest bandwagon with a strong handclapper a la Dylan. This Mike Rubini arrangement will have the dancers jumping while the lyrics will keep listeners thinking. Watch the spins and sales.

(B+) LONG TIME ALONE (3:25)
[Mirich, ASCAP—Post] Tear jerking folk rocker.

REUBEN AND THE CHAINS
(Peacock 1983)

● AIN'T YOU GONNA LOVE ME (2:21) [Don, BMI—Malone, Silvers, Brown] Infectious jerk beat, R & B'r that could make the train to hitsville. Effective arrangement and strong wailing by Reuben and the Chains deserve close attention.

(B+) ANSWER THESE QUESTIONS (2:02) [Don, BMI—Malone, Thomas, Silvers] Beat ballad.

KETTY LESTER (Tower 166)

● I'LL BE LOOKING BACK (2:51) [Equinox, BMI—Cobb] Beat ballad by the songstress has that feeling which makes a hit record. Strong musical accompaniment and vocal backing are reasons this deck deserves watching.

(B+) WEST COAST (2:55) [Equinox, BMI—Cobb] Up tempo handclapper makes for an exceptionally good flip side.

ADAM WADE (Epic 9840)

● GARDEN OF EDEN (2:30)
[Republic, BMI—Norwood] This lively-paced, bouncing revival of the while-back chart-riding theme, "Garden Of Eden," could bring Adam Wade back to his winning ways. Eye this one for good deejay and teen response. May take off.

(B+) THE TIME FOR DREAMS (2:20) [Essex, ASCAP—Glaser, Solomon] Soft ballad.

THE VISCOUNTS (Amy 940)

● HARLEM NOCTURNE (2:16)
[Shapiro-Bernstein, ASCAP—Rodgers, Hagen] The while-back smash by the Viscounts may strike pay dirt for a second time with this moody updating by the group. Dreamy, melancholy sound makes it an excellent choice for change-of-pace programming.

(B+) DIG (2:10) [Martrick BMI—Viscounts] Rocking teen dance side.

Every element required to be a hit in today's market!

Best Bets

DEE SHARP (Cameo 375)

I REALLY LOVE YOU (2:42) [Blockbuster, Down-... BMI—Bishop, Gamble] Fine ballad outing on this side by Dee Sharp, who has hit big with several dance-oriented movers. Lush backing and vocal backing give the track enough appeal to make it a long possibility.

STANDING IN THE NEED OF LOVE (1:58) [Jalynne, BMI—Strong] Pleasant, bouncy ballad.

ANA KING (Claridge 300)

THAT KIND OF LOVE (2:20) [Precedent, Clemtone, BMI—Owens, Darrow] Steady, mid-tempo beat along with a strong vocal backdrop gives this intriguing teen art-grabber plenty of charm. Watch for strong reaction among teen audiences as well as in spinning circles.

BOY IN THE RAINCOAT (2:30) [Regent, BMI—Webster] Sweet updating of the decade blueser.

HNNY GILLIAM (Bo-Mar 5004)

FIND YOURSELF ANOTHER (2:25) [Intervalley, Brownstein, BMI—Gilliam] Funky ballad set in a low-keyed throbbing tempo makes this a side that could catch on big in the R & B markets. Gilliam comes across with enough skill on the self-penned item to grab the ear of many a buyer.

A BROKEN HEARTED MAN'S PRAYER (2:45) [Intervalley, Brownstein, BMI—Gilliam] earthy blues workout.

EL CHRISTIAN (ABC-Paramount 10729)

MASTERS AT WAR (3:02) [M. Witmark, ASCAP—Dylan] A raunchy interpretation of this Dylan anti-war comp give it long possibilities to join the list of contemporary "message" songs. Deejays may pick this one up immediately and give it saturation airing.

YOUNG BLUES (2:01) [Lollipop, BMI—Martin, Smith] Intensive uptempo teen "protester."

NE MORGAN (Epic 9847)

SIDE BY SIDE (2:39) [Shapiro, Bernstein, ASCAP—Goulds] Thinking ork backdrop sets this one up as another potent chart contender for vet hitmaker Jane Morgan. Powerhouse styling of the oldie, led from the thrush's latest LP, "My Style," makes it a top-flight choice for good-listening programming.

TILL I WALTZ AGAIN WITH YOU (2:39) [Hill & Lange, BMI—Prosen] Extra-fine updating of the Theresa Brewer way-becker.

THE SPACEWALKERS (Moonglow 5001)

● GEMINI, GO BABY GO (2:30) [Ray Maxwell, BMI—Hall] Raunchy organ and harmonica lead, spiced by a potent beat creates plenty of steam on this instrumental zonker by the Spacewalkers. Strong airplay could be the fuel to put the side in orbit.

TECUMSEH (2:06) [Ray Maxwell, BMI—Welton, Sunder] More action for the dance floor set.

BIG DEE IRWIN (Rotate 851)

● YOU SATISFY MY NEEDS (2:41) [Fineline, BMI—Sawyer, Burton] Sweet vocal offering by Big Dee Irwin, laced with powerful ork-vocal crescendos make this workout a great choice for booming reaction in r & b as well as pop areas. Side has good commercial possibilities.

I WANNA STAY RIGHT HERE WITH YOU (2:25) [Fineline, BMI—Ervin] More funky r & b material.

HALOS (Congress 249)

● SINCE I FELL FOR YOU (2:48) [Advanced, ASCAP—Johnson] Extra-sweet, teen-oriented revival of the oft cut standard makes for plenty of good listening here at the hands of the Halos. Good smooth vocalizing enhances a lovely ballad, making it a target for young buyers.

YOU'RE NEVER GONNA FIND (2:38) [Look Ahead, BMI—Shayne, Semmer] Warm-hearted romance outing.

REGINA (Columbia 43366)

● IF YOU'RE GONNA LOVE ME (3:12) [Ananga Range, BMI—Polhemus, Storm, Wyld] Look for healthy reaction to this commercial side by Regina. Lark steps up and fires off an attractive, multi-dance ballad offering that should stir up excellent reaction.

GOTTA FUNNY KINDA FEELIN' (1:50) [Ananga Range, BMI—Polhemus, Wyld] Pleasantly potent teen ballad.

RUBY AND THE ROMANTICS (Kapp 702)

● NOBODY BUT MY BABY (2:34) [Blackwood, BMI—McCoy] Catchy shuffle rock styling on the latest outing by Ruby and the Romantics could well put the group back on the best-seller charts. The side is a slow-paced dance tune with lots of appeal in the teen-slanted lyric. May break big.

IMAGINATION (2:47) [ABC ASCAP—Burke, Van Heusen] Tender updating of the well known sturdy.

(B+ REVIEWS)

ANDREW BROWN (4 Brothers 446)

(B+) YOU OUGHT TO BE ASHAMED (2:35) [Fairshake BMI—Brown] Funky, low-down blues-drenched tearjerker.

(B) IF WE TRY (2:15) [Fairshake, BMI—Smith, Daniels] Spirited, happy-go-lucky r&b romancer.

EPIKS (Process 146)

(B+) GIVE ME A CHANCE (2:05) [Process, BMI—Lesnansky, D'Aurora] A lovers plea set to a driving beat.

(B+) WHEN WE'RE APART (2:20) [Process, BMI—Lesnansky, D'Aurora] A light tuned tale about separated lovers.

PHINIUS AND THE FLASHBACKS (ABC-Paramount 10722)

(B+) BY THE LIGHT OF THE SILVERY MOON (1:54) [Remick, ASCAP—Madden, Edwards] Uptempo remake of the evergreen.

(B) ALEXANDER'S RAG TIME BAND (2:04) [Berlin, ASCAP—Berlin] Big beat reworking of the Berlin sturdie.

BECKETT QUINTET (Gemcor 5003)

(B+) BABY BLUE (2:56) [Witmark, ASCAP—Dylan] Impressive cover of the Leroy VanDyke, Warner Bros. stand.

(B) NO CORRESPONDENCE (2:28) [Judikay, BMI—Taylor] Rock-a-beat tale of a lost girl.

NAPOLEON (A.P.I. 334)

(B+) NO WAR TOYS (3:05) [Thrush, BMI—Ross, Bercoy] Anti-war message set to a strong backed folk rhythm.

(B) MAGIC GLASSES (2:50) [Thrush, BMI—Ross, Bercoy] Funky, folksy plea for peace and love.

GERALDINE LATHAM (Winner 101)

(B+) LAZY LOVER (2:56) [Ben-Lee, BMI—Huff, Scott] Uptempo, dance appeal side.

(B) MR. FIX-IT (2:39) [Ben-Lee, Tuchaper, BMI—Huff, Scott] Teen-oriented rocker.

GREAT DANES (Capitol 5509)

(B+) LONELY AVENUE (2:45) [Progressive, BMI—Pomus] Low-down, funky r&b weeper.

(B) HEY, SENORITA (2:42) [Progressive, Trio, BMI—Patterson, Treadwell] A free swinging, big beat hand-clapper.

LURCH (Capitol 5503)

(B+) THE LURCH (2:17) [Bechwood, BMI—Paxton] Gim-mick stand based on the TV character.

(B) WESLEY (2:49) [Central, BMI—Paxton] Interesting recitation.

CARMEN McRAE (Mainstream 630)

(B+) I CAN'T EXPLAIN (2:23) (Brent, BMI—Batchelor, Karen] Solid downhearted ballad.

(B) GO AND BUY YOURSELF A DREAM (2:26) [E. B. Marks, BMI—Herzog, Jr.] Slow lilt-ing cha-cha-rocker.

KIP ANDERSON (Tomorrow 501)

(B+) I GET CARRIED AWAY (2:43) [Arc, Tomaria, BMI—Hennie, Derrick, Thompson] Bouncy blues shuffler.

(B) HERE I AM, TRY ME (2:43) [Arc, Tomaria, BMI—Thompson, Anderson, Derrick] Slow soul chant.

JERRY BERRYHILL (Liberty 55825)

(B+) LEMON PIE (2:40) [American, BMI—Capehart] Pretty instrumental bouncer.

(B) MIDNIGHT IN THE AFTER-NOON (2:05) [American, BMI—Capehart] Bluesy harmonica showcase.

THREE OF US (Kapp 705)

(B+) I'VE BEEN LONESOME TOO (2:37) [Kiki, BMI—Foster] Potent middle paced throbbler.

(B+) LITTLE TOY SOLDIER (2:44) [Kiki, BMI—Foster] Folk-rock-type ballad.

LIZ SHELLEY (Decca 31840)

(B+) YOU MADE ME HURT (2:58) [Champion, BMI—Shapiro] Potent ballad.

(B) MAKE ME YOUR BABY (2:37) [Screen Gems—Columbia, BMI—Atkins, Miller] Funky shuffling love song.

EARL VAN DYKE AND THE SOUL BROTHERS (Soul 35014)

(B+) I CAN'T HELP MYSELF (2:42) [Jobete, BMI—Holland, Dozier, Holland] Raunchy instrumental remake of the recent hit.

(B) HOW SWEET IT IS TO BE LOVED BY YOU (2:49) [Jobete, BMI—Holland, Dozier, Holland] Lively, fast-moving romancer.

FATS DOMINO (Mercury 72485)

(B+) WHAT'S THAT YOU GOT? (2:17) [Cuculu, Neil, BMI—Bartholomew] Low-down, hard-driving blues ballad.

(B) IT'S NEVER TOO LATE (2:19) [Cuculu, Anatole, BMI—Bartholomew, Domino, Thompson, Sanchez] Ditto.

MIKE CASINO & ORCH. (Florence 101)

(B+) COBARDEMENTE [PD] Big band version of the classic.

(B) ENAMORANDOTE [PD] More of same.

ONE WORLD OF MUSIC

ON ONE GREAT LABEL!

Ganim, Slay Expand Show Biz Activities

NEW YORK—Dennis Ganim and Frank Slay have expanded their activities to include a new label, Claridge Records; a new artist-management firm, R.B.E. Management; and a film production company, Canterbury Enterprises, Inc.

Claridge's first two releases, out last week, are "Don't Fool With Fu Manchu" by The Rockin' Ramrods, and "That Kind Of Love" by Diana King. The Ramrods' number was inspired by the soon to be released Seven Arts feature "The Face Of Fu Manchu." Seven Arts and Claridge Records are joining forces to promote the picture and record.

Claridge intends to seek out material from independent producers as well as utilize the talents of its own A&R staff. Diana King's "That Kind Of Love" was purchased from Jay Darrow Productions. Hutch Davie and Neil Galligan have been enlisted to produce the first recording session by Chip Tyler, a new Claridge Artist.

Canterbury Enterprises in association with British Lion has just finished filming a full-length color motion picture entitled "East Is East." The picture stars new-comer Casey Paxton who sings the title song "East Is East" and whose record will be released on Claridge shortly before the film. Other Claridge stars featured in the picture include The Rockin' Ramrods and The Vagrants. Major music business personalities in the film include Freddie & The Dreamers, Peter & Gordon, The Bachelors, Freddy Cannon, Millie Small, The Merseybeats, and The Chiffons. Three major disk jockeys have cameo roles in the production: Baltimore's Bob Foster, Hy Lit of WIBG Philadelphia and Arnie Ginsberg of WMEX Boston.

Canterbury's next projects are a motion picture entitled "Casket For Candy" to be shot entirely in England and a syndicated T.V. series, "Tops 'N Tunes."

Claridge Music, Inc., an integral part of the organization at 250 West 57 Street, this city is expected to have its best year since 1963 when it led all ASCAP publishers in the number of hits that made the Top 50 in the national charts.

Jerry Winston's Father Dies

NEW YORK—Louis Winston, father of Jerry Winston of Wendy Distributors in Newark, N.J., died here on Friday, Sept. 10 at Brooklyn Jewish Hospital. He was 62 years old. Besides his son, Winston is survived by his widow, Fay, and a daughter.

BIOS FOR DEEJAYS

Ramsey Lewis

Once in a great while a jazz artist catches the fancy of the record-buying public in a spectacular fashion. Argo's Ramsey Lewis, who fronts his own trio, is just such an artist. The 88'er is currently zooming up both the Top 100 charts (singles and albums) with his "The In Crowd" stand.

Lewis was born in Chicago on May 27, 1935. He began studying the piano at the age of six, and he considers his father the major musical influence in his life during the early years. By the time he graduated from grammar school in 1948, Ramsey had won the American Legion Award for outstanding scholarship, special award for his services as official pianist at Edward Jenner Elementary School and $150 college scholarship.

After graduating from Chicago Musical College he joined a seven-piece dance band called the Clefs. With him in the rhythm section were bassist El Dee Young and drummer Isaac Holt. A few years later Ramsey switched to jazz and formed a trio with El Dee and Isaac. Since then he has been extremely active working some of the best-known jazz clubs in the country.

Barbarians

The Barbarians, who are currently striking paydirt with "Are You A Boy Or Are You A Girl" on the Laurie label, consist of four young men from Massachusetts: Moulty Moulton, Jerry Causi, Bruce Benson, and Geoff Morris.

Moulty Moulton was born in Provincetown on Feb. 24, 1945. A natural musician, he began singing and playing the guitar while still in grade school. Building a rocket when he was 14 cost him his hand when his creation exploded. Although the accident stopped his career as a guitarist, he started on percussion at the age of 16 with one stick carefully notched for his hook.

Jerry Causi, another product of Provincetown, started the bass guitar eight years ago when he was 16. He plays the banjo and has been a member of various bands at one time or another. He's presently the Barbarians lead singer.

Bruce Wilson was recently accepted at the U. of Mass. but with the success of the group he has decided to put off his college entrance for a year. He plays lead guitar but sometimes doubles on the trumpet.

Geoff Morris attended Boston U. for a year and a half majoring in Business Administration. At the age of eight he became interested in music, the guitar, in particular. Before he joined the Barbarians he worked with several New England bands.

PLATTER SPINNER PATTER

J. Howard Wood, president of the Tribune company and publisher of the Chicago Tribune recently announced that the firm's subsidiary radio station, WGN, has purchased an independent TV station, KCTO-Denver, for the price of $3.5 million. The station was purchased from the Channel 2 Corporation, which also owns KTVW-TV-Seattle and part of KIXI and KGMJ-Seattle. KCTO is located in the hub of a six-state market, comprising over 3,000,000 people with an estimated purchasing power of more than 6½ billion dollars, and boasting of the low unemployment figure of 3.7%. The sale of the station is still pending FCC approval. WGN, Inc. operates WGN radio and TV as non-network stations in Chicago, and also operates KDAL radio and TV (CBS affiliates) and WGN Televents, a community TV antenna system in Houghton-Hancock, Mich.

During the summer, the big thing seemed to be car giveaways. Station after station was handing over the keys to shiny new autos to their listeners. Recently, however, KHJ-Hollywood came up with a new twist to the promotion stunt. Not only did they have a chance to win a 1965 GTO in the station's "GTO-For-Two" contest, but the winner also got to give away a duplicate prize to the person of his choice. During the contest, the station would pick a different post card every hour, announce the contestant's name on the air and give that person 3 minutes to call the station and identify himself by naming the "person of his choice" to whom the second car would be given. Out of the 400 "finalists" who called in on time, the winner's name was picked in a drawing by Boss Jock Sam Riddle on his "9th Street West" TVer on Sept. 9. The 399 runners-up each received special Beatles beach bags.

Ever hear of a radio station being drafted into the Navy? It all started when WABC-New York began receiving requests for programming tapes from U.S. Navy vessels and bases around the world, including the USS Irex, a submarine stationed in New London, Conn.; the USS Hunley, stationed at Holylock, Scotland; and a Naval base in southern Italy. As a result of numerous other requests the station has agreed to provide transcriptions on a regular basis, in what the Navy has called "the first offer of its kind made by a commercial radio station in the U.S."

WHAM-Rochester spinner Johnny Canton has just narrated and produced "Making Of A President—1964 Preview" for the Xerox Corp. based in Rochester. The package is a promotion for the forthcoming David Wolper TV special to be sponsored by Xerox, with a reported 90,000 preview records being sent out to the firm's employees, customers and stockholders, as well as to all of the nation's radio and TV stations.

On Sept. 25, KWKH-Shreveport, La. will be celebrating its 40th anniversary with a week-long celebration running from Sept. 20-26. Highlighted by the in-person appearances of a whole list of well-known personalities, the affair will designate Monday as "News Day," featuring ABC newsman Paul Harvey; Tuesday as "Farm Day," with a visit from Secretary of Agriculture Orville Freeman; Wednesday as "Ladies Day," highlighted by the pre-premier of the latest Alec Guinness flick; Thursday as "Sports Day"; Friday as "ABC Network Day," with prexy Robert Pauley as guest speaker; and Saturday as "Music Day," featuring Nat Stuckey and the Louisiana Hayriders, the Uniques and numerous amateur groups. Happy Birthday to all concerned.

Down in the Nation's Capital WEAM-Arlington and the "WEAM Team" staged its presentation of "What's Happenin' Baby II," which played to an overflow crowd of 5,000 in downtown D.C. The station expresses its thanks to Chuck Jackson, Maxine Brown, the Showmen, Johnny Thunder, Candy & the Kisses, Link Wray, the Guess Who's, Willie & the Hand Jives, Vicki Baines, the Nu-Trons, Diana Batts, Miss D.C. and many more. The show was done in cooperation with the Job Corps, and government officials with enthusiastic acclaim. Two more shows are being planned for the future.

KSFO-San Francisco airman Dave Niles is the culprit responsible for all those guys who have been sneaking out of work and out of the house with those far-fetched stories about having to do "something important." The "something important" was the Niles Fishing Contest which asked listeners to come up with a good alibi to get away from the hustle and bustle and onto a fishing boat headed out over the briny. The contest culminated with a fishing trip on Sept. 8, when the authors of the 60 best alibis, and their guests, boarded an 11-boat flotilla for a day of forgetting the office and fighting the fish. As an extra bonus, the angler with the largest catch had his prize stuffed and mounted.

SUS-PANTS THRILLER—Going all out in the line of duty is all well and good, but there's such a thing as going too far. For example, WFBR-Baltimore traffic reporter Jim Conway was recently flying through the air with the greatest of ease in the station helicopter when he spotted an auto on fire in the city's eastern outskirts. Throwing caution to the winds, Conway ordered the pilot to land the craft, snatched up his handy can of fire-fighting foam and proceeded to douse the blaze before returning to the air and the airwaves. Unfortunately, during the incident our hero burned his trousers beyond repair . . . and some of you think it's rough when the boss asks for the shirt off your back. Of course, Conway's bosses and fellow workers recognized his devotion to duty and chipped in to buy him a new pair of pants. (It was starting to get embarrassing seeing him walk around the office.) In the photo above, two of the office cuties are shown handing over the new pants. (Sorry, no names for the girls.)

VITAL STATISTICS:

Paul Lindsay, formerly of WIND-Chicago, takes up station manager spot, while wife Julie heads up music department with WLAP-Lexington, Ky. . . . T. Michael Jordan, formerly Tom Jordan with KYSN-Colorado Springs, joins spinner staff with WGNE-Panama City Beach, Fla. . . . Ron Lowe, former deejay at WIRV-Irvine, Ky., now spinning 'em with WLKS-West Liberty. . . . Dick Byrd leaves turntable spot at KTWV-Seattle to assume similar duties with KSON-San Diego. . . . Joe Long, Jr. steps in as news director at KBOX-Dallas.

NEW YORK:

Basin Street East opened its fall season last week headlining Maynard Ferguson and his band, Morgana King, and comic Redd Foxx. The music-makers blasted out the jazz rhythms that made the crowd remember that the big band sound still lives. Ferguson gave the set its highlight when he blew a screaming solo of "People" and bowed off to a warm response. The group stayed back the bittersweet sound of Morgana King. The lark drifted Erwin Barg, pluggin' Dot outings "One Has My Name The Other Has My Heart" by Barry Young, "Look In The Yellow Pages" by Roger Douglass and "Down Down Down" by Lawrence Welk. . . . Chuck Livingston (Consolidated), working on Mercury decks "What's That You Got" by Fats Domino, "Big Mistake" by Timi Yuro and "Sea Cruise" by The Hondells. Incidentally, Mercury's Kenny Myers hosted a party of folks, including staffers Dick Bruce, Morris Diamond and Chuck Livingston along with WBEE's Tom Tyler, to Fats Domino's Club Laurel performance last week.

HOLLYWOOD:

Time was when L.A.'s night club "scene" was a full, live and rollicking three act play. Now it's a malingering short sequence and a sad vignette. The once proud Slapsie Maxie's is a coffee shop which specializes in Van De Camp's foods. The redolent Florentine Gardens is a union hall

Bld. The neon lights still shine like a beacon from the Hotel Ambassador and its Coconut Grove. And we're grateful. . . . This is not to demean the smaller clubs in town where many new artists are being heard and the folk and jazz palaces which are dispensing some fine talents. Stan Kenton, for example, is currently at Shelley's Manne-Hole on Cahuenga and we heard an uncommon and authentic new combo—Brazil '65—at the Troubadour on Melrose a week or so ago. The Slate Bros. presented a bouncy, polished and bright young lady in the person of Lesley Gore last weekend in her first west coast engagement and Vic Dana is appearing there this week. But just up the block on La Cienega is The Losers with a recent policy change—direct from San Francisco—a topless act with no cover. And another memoria is cancelled—no longer do they billboard "The Loser Of The Week". . . . We defy anyone—including Jonathan King—to explain the poetic lyric to "Everyone's Gone To The Moon". It's a series of lovely mosaics set to a haunting melody but altogether it's a gigantic hoax. . . . Who but the Beatles and Paul McCartney could come up with the brainstorm of a string quartet backing a plaintive lament to "Yesterday" and have it go all the way to the top? It's strange to hear the Beatles on KMPC—but why not? Our "West Coast Girl Of The Week" is gorgeous Quinn O'Hara, a sensible reason to rush—see the new Screen-Arts film "A Swingin' Summer"—Hanna Barbera Records has just released the soundtrack. Other film notes—Betty Comden and Adolph Green have been signed by MGM to write the final screen play to Irving Berlin's "Say It With Music" which Arthur Freed will produce. . . . Freddy ("Action") Cannon will soon be seen in the Joe Levine film "Village Of The Giants". . . . TV Briefs—Stu Phillips and Tommy Boyce have written a song for Paul Peterson which will be introduced on the Donna Reed Show this season. . . . Chad Stuart (formerly of Chad and Jeremy?) and his wife, Jill, will be together on Hullabaloo which airs Oct. 4. . . . The Byrds and Paul Revere and The Raiders have also taped segments for Hullabaloo on the coast. . . . In Town—Roy (Treat Her Right) Head giving credit to KDAY for "breaking" his Backbeat hit—record has gone past the 40,000 mark already in town. . . . Billy (Boondocks) Joe Royal, talking with film producers, visiting England next week and planning a tour of the states.

RACING HIS FUTURE: Dick Kallman is "Hank" of NBC-TV's new Friday night series. He's also a new RCA Victor disk artist, with a single, "You're the One," already marketed, and an LP to come in Nov. ("Dick Kallman Drops As Hank"). To celebrate his two associations, a press luncheon was held recently at Danny's Hideaway in New York: The top photo shows Dick (left) with Irwin Tarr, Victor's manager of product and sales planning; and Harry Jenkins, marketing vp; in the middle photo, Dick is shown with Joseph Imperio, vp of product and talent development; Dick poses with Bob Goldwater, press officer of NBC-TV (left) and Marty Ostrow, general manager of music and records at Cash Box, in the bottom photo.

VeeJay Inks Gary LeMel

HOLLYWOOD—Gary LeMel has been signed to a new one year exclusive recording contract by VeeJay Records. The contract calls for a total of thirty sides during the year consisting of two albums and three single releases. Plans have been set for the immediate production and release of the first album. The deal was negotiated by LeMel's personal manager Mark Mordoh and VeeJay president Ewart Abner. Artist LeMel previously recorded one LP, "The Gary LeMel Album" for the label which was released early this year.

It's A Boy For The Neil Daniele's

NEW YORK—Neil Daniele, operations manager with Capitol Records Distribution expanded his personal N.Y. Mets cheering section this month after his wife, Janee, presented him with his first son, Eric Gregory. Born in St. Vincent's Hospital in New York on Sept. 9, this is the second child for Daniele. His first-born is his 2-year old daughter, Karin.

Capitol Goes Back To School With Pop Art Contest

HOLLYWOOD—A set of five, full-color, pop art bookcovers which were designed by award-winning artist Charlie White has become the basis for a national contest being conducted by Capitol Records Distributing Corporation.

Pop art is the new art form that has been developed by contemporary artists over the past few years. For example, one of the five bookcovers is for physical education. On the cover is a box of wheaties—the connection is, of course, P.E and wheaties, the "Breakfast of Champions." That's pop art. Art which is in some clever and unique way related to the subject at hand.

The other covers are history (with a caricature of George Washington on the front cover), biology (with a frog—dressed in a coat and tie), English (William Shakespeare) and math (Albert Einstein).

Capitol will give more than a half-million college and high school students the opportunity to be one of the "in-crowd" (and a contest winner) by distributing 500,000 of the covers to record stores and college book stores where they will be given away.

In order to enter the contest, the students who have the covers will have to send in a caption for the picture on the cover (i.e. Einstein, Wheaties, Shakespeare, Washington and the Frog). The caption will win an auto-stereo for his (or her) car and second place will be awarded a year's supply of Capitol albums.

The covers actually serve a dual purpose. Besides being used as vehicles for a contest, they also have (on the inside) pictures of 20 of Capitol's best selling, teen and college-oriented albums. In order to enter the contest, the contestant has to list three song titles from any three of the albums pictured. This will lead him (or her) into the record store—the place he can find the albums and the titles—and thus serve as a traffic builder.

Window streamers and ad mats telling of the availability of the bookcovers are currently being distributed to the stores.

Pickwick/33 To Dip Into Roulette Catalog

NEW YORK—Roulette Records has become the 12th recording company to make selections from its catalog available to the new, Pickwick/33 economy-priced ($1.98) label. Some of the artists who will now be represented on Pickwick/33 are Count Basie, Louis Armstrong, Duke Ellington, Little Anthony & The Imperials, Sarah Vaughan, Jimmie Rodgers, Joe Williams, Dinah Washington and Billy Eckstine.

Among those record companies who have already concluded such arrangements are Capitol Records, Warner Brothers Records, Reprise Records, ABC Paramount Records, Everest Records, Jubilee Records, Soma Records, Challenge Records, Fraternity Records, Horizon Records and Laurie Records.

Pickwick recently announced the biggest consumer advertising promotion and publicity campaign in its history hard on the heels of the biggest trade advertising effort the company has ever undertaken.

Col. Pacts Greek Licensee

NEW YORK—CBS Records, Columbia's international label, has concluded a licensing arrangement for the distribution of CBS records in Greece, according to an announcement by Harvey Schein, vice president and general manager of the label.

The new licensee is the Music Box Organization. Mr. Schein and Martin Gesar, head of Music Box, negotiated the contract.

BOB DYLAN HIGHWAY 61 REVISITED

HIGHWAY 61 REVISITED—Bob Dylan—Columbia CL 2389/CS 9189

Currently experiencing the widest acceptance of his career, Bob Dylan should have little trouble coasting up the LP charts via his new Columbia offering, "Highway 61 Revisited." Featuring his No. 1 single, "Like A Rolling Stone," the set includes nine tracks with electrified small band backings. Among the tunes that should hit it off with his fans are: "From a Buick 6," the flip side of his new single; and "Desolation Row."

MY TOWN, MY GUY AND ME—Lesley Gore—Mercury MG 21042/SR 61042

Cashing in on the popular reception of her latest hit single, Lesley Gore should have little trouble in climbing the LP charts with her new Mercury LP, "My Town, My Guy and Me." The lark is radiant in her reading of a dozen girl-perspective, teen-slanted tracks. Standouts feature the title track, "The Things We Did Last Summer," and "A Girl in Love." Fine beat and orking on the set produced by Quincy Jones. Look for big things to happen to this one.

GOLDEN HITS/VOL. 2—Jan & Dean—Liberty LRP 3417/LST 7417

Masters of the "surfin' sound," Jan & Dean have collected another pile of their biggest singles successes and shoveled them into the second volume of their golden hits. The duo packs the LP with the wailing, percolating sound of the surf, which should give this package the same acceptance as the initial volume. Highlighting this one are such supercharged swingers as "Surf City" and "Little Old Lady From Pasadena."

five » you were on my mind

YOU WERE ON MY MIND—The We Five—A&M LP 111/SP 4111

After the immediate, hard-hitting success of their chart-leaping initial single, "You Were On My Mind," the We Five have waxed a powerful follow-up LP, which packs a terrific chart-sized wallop. In addition to the title track, the quintet offers a captivating menu of folk-flavored and heart-warming melodies, taken mainly from the harvests of recent years. Best tracks on the set include "My Favorite Things" and "Softly As I Leave You," as well as "Somewhere Beyond The Sea."

Wayne Newton Summer Wind

SUMMER WIND—Wayne Newton—Capitol T/ST 2389

Wayne Newton, who has already proved himself a strong attraction among the teen and young adult audiences, has the makings of another notch in his rapid string of chart successes with this potent session. Smooth orking backs the chanter as he delivers an assortment of evergreens and recent vintage winners. Some of the better grooves include "What's He Doing In My World" and "Those Lazy-Hazy-Crazy-Days Of Summer."

Johnny Mathis

THE SWEETHEART TREE—Johnny Mathis—Mercury MG 21041/SR 61041

With an extremely long list of hits already racked up to his credit, Johnny Mathis aims for hitsville once again with this outing, dubbed after his most recent single success, "The Sweetheart Tree." The super-fine, wide-ranging Mathis tonsils are put to excellent use interpreting a well-chosen selection of soft and tender ballads, including "Danny Boy" and "Autumn Leaves," and the lively "A Wonderful Day Like Today."

MY CHERIE—Al Martino—Capitol T/ST 2362

Easy-to-listen-to stylings are the usual bill of fare offered by vet crooner Al Martino, and this Capitol session is no exception. The golden tonsils and powerful lungs, backed by a sparkling ork and chorus should be just the formula to make this a strong chart contender. Late night romancers should particularly enjoy such tracks as "It Only Hurts For A Little While" and "I'll Never Find Another You," as well as the title track.

I WANT CANDY—The Strangeloves—Bang 211

The Strangeloves, whose debut single, "I Want Candy," rocketed up the charts, can look forward to similar success with their initial album outing, dubbed with the same title. Heading up the session with the throbbing sound of "Cara-Lin," the group never lets up the smashing, infectious beat that's just perfect for the dance floor set. The trio also displays its composing talents as all but three of the tracks are self-penned. Other goodies include "Satisfaction" and "Hang On Sloopy."

TRAINS AND BOATS AND PLANES—Billy J. Kramer—Imperial LP 9291/12291

English songster Billy J. Kramer, who recently zipped up the American charts with his "Trains And Boats And Planes" single, has lost no time in cashing in on that single with this album by the same name. The package should follow the same success pattern as the chanter nimbly mixes the rhythms from the soft and subtle cha-cha to the wild, turbulent frug-monkey tempo. Fine tracks here in "Twilight Time" and a wailing treatment of "Tennessee Waltz."

THAT'S THE WAY IT'S GONNA BE—Mitchell Trio—Mercury MG 21049/SR 61049

The Mitchell Trio, which has recently lost its leader, Chad Mitchell, makes its album debut with replacement John Denver as the new member of the trio. Although there's a change in faces, there has been no change in the acerbic, pointed wit contained in the group's "message"-type material. In this performance, the trio aims its balladeering toward such timely subjects as the papacy, Luci Baines and Liz Taylor, among others. Great tracks in "I Was Not a Nazi Polka" and "Ecumenical March."

THAT NEW COUNTRY FEELING—Henry Jerome—Decca DL 4676/74676

The rich, big-band sound of Henry Jerome, which has successfully delved into every musical area from pop to Latin to Dixieland, has widened its horizon and stepped into the country spotlight. The brazen brass stylings of the orkster are spiced with timely and ear-pleasing arrangements of some of the most well-known melodies to spring from rural Americana and should have plenty of appeal in both pop and country markets. Some of the top tracks are "I Walk The Line" and "Jambalaya."

THE ARTHUR SOUND—Wild Ones—United Artists UAL 3450/UAS 6450

The Wild Ones, featuring Jordan Christopher, bring the sound of their long smash at "Arthur," New York's internationally-known discotheque, to their first LP. Combining recent hits such as "Satisfaction" and "You've Lost That Loving Feeling" with original numbers like "Wild Way of Living" (Christopher-Alden), the Wild Ones create the atmosphere that has made the nitery the "in" place that it is. This one should be big with everyone who digs the dance, either the doing or the watching.

POP BEST BETS

COMIN' THROUGH—The O'Jays—Imperial LP 9290/12290

The O'Jays should capture a large audience with this wailing Imperial package titled "Comin' Through." The group has already proved its commercial acceptance with several chart singles and should radiate a far greater influence in the market as they fly high with plenty of strong r&b material. Featuring their latest single hit, "I Cried My Last Tear," the package also contains such wildies as "Lonely Drifter" and "Lip-stick Traces."

SPOTLIGHT ON JACKIE—Jackie Wilson—Brunswick BL 54119/754119

Jackie Wilson, whose long string of charters was recently lengthened with his "No Pity In The Naked City" success, is in the album spotlight once again with this wailing LP. The blues chanter plucks a bushel of plums from the ever-green orchards and serves them up in an appetizing platter, laced with a generous portion of "soul." Highlighted by "Over The Rainbow" and "Until The Real Thing Comes Along," the set should go over well in r & b locations.

THEE MIDNETERS—Chattahoochee C-1001

After carving out a large chunk of the sales pie on the recent "Land Of 1000 Dances" smash, Thee Midneters have cut their debut Chattahoochee album, highlighted by that same sound. The octet, which features a big sound, displays plenty of versatility as the boys deftly intermingle hard, pounding smashers with extra-sweet romancers for a groovy change of pace. Among the top tracks are the group's own comp, "Whittier Blvd." as well as "Giving Up On Love."

A SWINGIN' SUMMER—Music From The Original Soundtrack—HBR HST 9500

Hanna-Barbera has come up with a movin' 'n groovin' album from the score of the forthcoming United Screen Arts film, "A Swingin' Summer," which stars James Stacy and Raquel Welch, with cameo appearances by the Righteous Brothers, the Rip Chords, the Swingers, Donnie Brooks and Carol Connors. An extremely danceable set, the album features the Righteous Brothers with "Justine" and the Rip Chords dishing out "Red Hot Roadster."

JAN & DEAN'S POP SYMPHONY NO. 1—Bel-Aire Pops Orch.—Liberty LRP 3414/LST 7414

The "surfin'" songs of Jan & Dean, which have won a tremendous amount of acceptance from teen record buyers, have been done over by the duo, for the benefit of the older longhair audiences, in the form of symphonic arrangements. Jan Berry joins forces with George Tipton to arrange and conduct this unique and highly entertaining session, played by the Bel-Aire Pops Orchestra. Highlights are "Surf City" and "Baby Talk."

JOY IN THE MORNING—Richard Chamberlain—MGM E/SE 4287

Popular TV star Richard Chamberlain has come up with one of his best album offerings to date with this package dubbed after his latest MGM movie, "Joy In The Morning." Well-known evergreen lovelies and recently popular romancers are the order of the day, with rich, velvet orking an extra selling point. In addition to the title track, top selections include "Try To Remember" and "Georgia On My Mind."

IN ONE HEAD AND OUT THE OTHER—Jack Burns & Avery Schreiber—Columbia CL 2370/CS 9170

One of the newest and freshest comedy teams to arrive on the night club-TV scene in quite a while, Jack Burns and Avery Schreiber have come up with a debut album for Columbia that's a sure-fire winner in the laugh-making department. The keynote of the wildly hilarious routine is a conversation between a mild-mannered cab driver and his bigoted passenger, with the chuckles piling up one on top of the other. This one is perfect to liven up parties or those quiet evenings.

IN MY STYLE—Jane Morgan—Epic LN 24166/BN 26166

Jane Morgan offers a widely varied selection of oldies and newies, pop and a sampling of rock and folk in this Epic outing. With her warm, wide-ranged vocal chords in fine tune, the lark should appeal to lots of good music listeners and spinners as she comes across with one of her best albums to date. Among the best grooves on this album are "My Heart Belongs To Daddy" and "We'll Sing In The Sunshine," as well as "I'm Sorry."

INTRODUCING THE IN-SECT DIRECT FROM ENGLAND—RCA Camden CAS 909

With Great Britain exporting more and more top-notch disk artists to the U.S., the introduction of still another British group, the In-Sect, should meet with enthusiastic response. Strongly tinged with the "Liverpool" flavor, the group uses their first American LP as the vehicle to display their fine interpretations of recent smashes from both sides of the foam. Featured tracks include "Ticket To Ride" and "You Were Made For Me."

THE SINGING PRIEST—Father Columba McManus—Audio Fidelity AFDS 6143

Putting his religious message in a strongly melodic, quasi-gospel, musical framework, Father McManus, a Servite Friar, has created an entertaining, moving and emotionally forceful LP. All twelve tracks on the disk were written by the priest, who also accompanies himself on guitar, with bass and percussion added for the strong sound that his powerful lyrics demand. Some featured titles are "Promised Land," "Wandering Mary," and "Stay With Us Lord."

JAZZ BEST BETS

ONE FLIGHT UP—Dexter Gordon—Blue Note 4176

Three blues numbers make up the delectable fare on this outing with Dexter Gordon featured at tenor sax with four other hands equally proficient. The funk served up should attract plenty of listeners who should be delighted by the tremendous brass sounds of Gordon and Donald Byrd as well as Kenny Drew's piano takeoffs, the drum showing of Art Taylor and the efforts of bassist Niels Pedersen. Selections: "Tanya," "Darn That Dream" and "Coppin' the Haven."

DYLAN JAZZ—Gene Norman Group—Crescendo GNP 2015

In tribute to the work of Bob Dylan, the Gene Norman Group has put together a collection of the songsmith's best-selling works, and reset them on a flowing melodic jazz level. This LP features such Dylan hits as "Blowin' In The Wind," "Hey Mr. Tambourine Man," and "Like A Rolling Stone." The melodies of Dylan are as strong and compelling as his lyrics, and this treatment of his works, should get a big play on the stations looking for something different in programming.

McCOY TYNER PLAYS ELLINGTON—Impulse! A/AS 79

A soft trio reading of seven tunes from the Duke Ellington bag are served up here in tasteful versions that could grab a sizeable portion of the jazz mart. The threesome is headed by McCoy Tyner on piano, and includes Jimmy Garrison on bass and Elvin Jones at drums. Latin percussion is also featured from Willie Rodriguez and Johnny Pacheco. Highlight tracks are: "Mr. Gentle & Mr. Cool," and "Solitude."

EXPLOSIONS—Bob James Trio—ESP-Disk 1009

Negative critics of groovy third stream jazz, oft remark that it is nowhere in the music scene, but they may change their opinions after hearing this set by the Bob James Trio. With James on piano, Barre Phillips on bass, and Robert Pozar on percussion, the group eases into a sound in sometimes flowing, sometimes staccato runs. Each of the tracks on the LP were written (all, or in part) by the boys in the group. "Explosions" should get a big listen from the groups that dig the avant-garde jazz sound.

CLASSICAL PICKS

WAGNER: GOTTERDAMMERUNG; Nilsson, Windgassen, Fischer-Dieskau; London OSA 1604

The monumental concluding segment of Richard Wagner's Ring Cycle is now available for the first time in a complete recorded performance. The achievement itself is heightened by a cast of epic status: Birgit Nilsson (Brunnhilde), Wolfgang Windgassen (Siegfried), Gustav Niedlinger (Alberich), Gottlob Frick (Hagen) and Dietrich Fischer-Dieskau (Gunther) and others. The six-record package, which is already generating sales excitement in Europe and parts of the U. S., includes a photographic booklet with a complete libretto. An outstanding accomplishment.

A PURCELL ANTHOLOGY; Yehudi Menuhin; Angel (S)36270

A collection of many shorter works from the catalog of Henry Purcell is presented in a most appealing package on Angel, featuring Yehudi Menuhin on violin. Alberto Lysy and members of the Bath Festival Orch. are also spotlighted on the superb outing which includes nine bands, among them: "Fantasia No. 11" In G Major and several Fantasias. A release that should delight the classical discophile.

Pop Eras Kiddled on 'Tinpanorama' LP

NEW YORK—Tin Pan Alley down through the years gets a good-natured ribbing in a new LP called "Tinpanorama" from the Vista label. Twelve songs have been created for the LP by Dick and Bob Sherman, who hit the jackpot with their score for "Mary Poppins" (see separate story in this week's issue). Each top pop musical era, from ragtime to Liverpool, is represented, with song titles spanning "Rutabaga Rag" to "You Bug Me Anne-Arlene." Performances are by various orchestras, ensembles, bands, vocal groups and soloists under the direction of Camarata.

Acuff-Rose Sets Dates For Tom Jones, Donovan

NASHVILLE — Acuff-Rose Artists Corporation has completed a series of major bookings with key British artists, Donovan and Tom Jones, sharing the spotlight with the Newbeats, newly revived on wax with a new release on the firm's affiliated label, Hickory Records.

Donovan's long-discussed return to the United States has been confirmed. The 19-year-old hit British pop-folk star has been inked for a 24-day Dick Clark college tour, commencing Nov. 5 and is bringing Donovan top fees for his services. He's also been set for the "Hullabaloo" Show and will do the taping sessions Nov. 1 through 4. A number of press interviews are being set for that week in New York.

Tom Jones, who has been in Bermuda for the past week, is due back in New York for two days Monday (20) and will fly to the Coast Wednesday (22) where he'll spend two weeks. Special publicity and exploitation are being planned, highlighted by "Tom Jones Day" at KFVB, a leading Los Angeles pop outlet. Jones will also do the Ed Sullivan Show from the West Coast and a number of special appearances are also in the works there.

The Newbeats, whose newest on Hickory, "Run Baby Run," have been booked for Shindig tapings on October 11-13. They are also expected to do a number of Coast-originated TV shows as well.

Meanwhile, A&R president Wesley Rose returned from a West Coast series of meetings with Roy Orbison at the MGM Studios. Rose also announced the signing of Canadian singer, Stu Phillips to artist and writer contracts with Acuff-Rose Artists Corp. and Acuff-Rose Publications respectively. Phillips is on the Victor label.

Atlantic-Atco To Handle 2 New Labels

NEW YORK—Atlantic-Atco Records picked up two masters for national distribution last week. One is on the Los Angeles-based Joker label and the other is on the Sound of Soul label of New York.

The Joker record features a new group, the Autographs, singing "Do The Duck." The deck was acquired from Ralph Kaffel of Vault Records by Atlantic vice-president Jerry Wexler. It will be distributed by Atco.

The Sound of Soul date spotlights Little Tommy singing "I'm Hurt." The record is already stirring up action in Washington. It will be distributed by Atlantic.

Alfred J. Manuti Dies

NEW YORK—Alfred J. Manuti, president of Local 802 of the American Federation of Musicians died, at the age of 56, in his home on Sept. 11.

Manuti joined the union as a bass player at the age of 19, and played for several years in theatre orchestras and night clubs. When elected to a union post he became ineligible to play as a performer and never again played professionally.

In 1953 he stepped in as head of the union and since 1959 was a member of the union's international executive board. The following year he was named to the New York State Council of the Arts by Governor Rockefeller. Among the musicians which he represented were members of Metropolitan Opera, the New York Philharmonic and the Broadway theatres.

Among his major goals was that of winning public support for live music and checking the trend toward recorded music in order to increase employment opportunities for musicians.

Masonic services were held at Cooke's Chapel in New York on Sept. 14, with the funeral the following day. He is survived by his widow, a son, two sisters and a brother.

NARAS Elects Scott As Nat'l President

HOLLYWOOD—Capitol exec Francis M. Scott has been elected the new president of NARAS (National Academy of Recording Arts and Sciences). Scott was tabbed for spot by the Academy's eighteen national trustees at the conclusion of their two-day confab at the Continental Hotel here. He succeeds Atlantic's Nesuhi Ertegun who held the office for the past year.

Other newly-elected NARAS officers include: Mickey Kapp (New York) 1st vice-president; A. B. Clapper (Chicago), 2nd vice-president; Harold Bradley (Nashville), secretary, and Joel Friedman (Los Angeles), treasurer.

Scott comes into the presidency at a time when the Academy is moving into high gear, preparing for its annual Grammy Awards (the trustees undertook revisions in voting categories, details of which will soon be released), whose acceptance have reached an all-time high, as well as planning for a sequel to this year's immensely successful TV show, "The Best On Record," again scheduled for a mid-May airing.

FM Sales Tripled Since 1960; FM Stations Over The 1200 Mark

WASHINGTON—Sales of home and auto radios capable of FM reception have more than tripled since 1960 and an increase of 40 per cent above 1964 sales is expected by the end of next year. This is among the findings in an analysis of FM factory sales prepared by the marketing services department of the Electronic Industries Association.

The EIA statistics, which include domestic and foreign-label sets, show that one out of every four home radios sold in 1964 could receive FM, with the proportion expected to increase to one out of three by 1966. In 1960, the start of the FM boom, the ratio was one receiver with FM capability of every nine sold.

FM radio sales kept pace with FM broadcasting stations going on the air since 1960, EIA comparisons disclosed. With the tripling of the set market between 1960 and 1964, the number of operating FM stations moved from 821 in 1960 to 1,205 in 1964 after fluctuating in the 500-600 range in the 1950's.

Sales of FM auto radios, first marketed significantly in 1962 with 100,000 sets sold, are expected to increase five-fold by the end of next year.

Comparing Radio Advertising

Bureau statistics on total home radios in the United States, EIA estimates that more than 23 million FM sets were included in the 151 million reported by RAB to be in use today. The total is expected to rise to an estimated 30 million FM's out of 161 million radios in use this year; 38 million of 170 million next.

EIA expects sales of AM-only home radios, which have remained relatively stable at between 16 and 22 million since 1960, to total 20 million sets this year and just under 19 million next. Sales of FM and FM/AM home models, which began the decade at just under two million, will approach seven million this year and more than eight million in 1966, according to the report.

EIA found that about 60 per cent of 1964 home FM set sales to be domestic brands, one-third foreign brands, and the remainder developed from components. Of domestic-label sets sold, about 40 per cent are incorporated into phonographs, more than 25 per cent are table models, with the balance classified as being portables or combined with clocks or TV sets, EIA disclosed. The rate of increase in FM sales has been the greatest for portables.

Wanda Jackson To Tour Europe Again

HOLLYWOOD—Wanda Jackson, the country star, will be taking off on Sept. 29th for her second European tour in less than a year.

The artist will spend close to a month in Europe for personal appearances in Holland, Germany and France. On October 2, she will be one of the stars on the grand Gala Du Disque, one of Holland's biggest musical shows. Following her guest performance, she will travel to Germany and Paris for radio and TV appearances.

While in Germany, Wanda will record a follow-up to "Santo Domingo," her first German release which became a smash in that country's hit list earlier this year. "Santo" was also on the best-seller charts in Holland for a number of weeks. In addition to recording in German, Wanda will record her new single in Dutch too—the first time the native Oklahoman has ever recorded in the language.

Her first European tour was in March, 1965. At that time she recorded "Santo" and headlined at the Olympia Theater in Paris. The first tour, as is the case for the upcoming one, was arranged through Capitol and General Artists Corporation.

HAPPY TRIPP—The ice cream flowed freely the other day as moppets attended Musicor's "Birthday House" party at Hick's Ice Cream Parlor, this city, to celebrate the label's new LP of music from the very popular NBC-TV kiddie show hosted by Paul Tripp. The label says it has sold 9000 copies of the $1.98 album at the Korvette chain, which has exclusive distribution rights to the set for six months.

MGM To Join Show Biz Row On N. Y.'s 6th Ave.

NEW YORK—Sixth Avenue in New York, developing into show business row in the 50's, will get another important tenant next summer. It's Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer, which plans to shift its world headquarters from 1540 Broadway (since 1924) to a new building to be erected by the spring. The company's personnel, including those of the record division, will move into the new edifice, to be known as the MGM Building, late in the summer of '66. The area is the new homes for the Columbia and Capitol labels. ABC becomes a new neighbor later this year.

Welk's Telekew Firm Makes Pubbery Acquisitions

NEW YORK—Telekew Productions, headed up by Lawrence Welk, is still looking to add to the growing list of musical publisher's copyrights which the firm has acquired over the past few years.

Under the supervision of veep-general manager Paul Weirick, in Santa Monica, and Frank Abramson in New York, the company first entered into the publishing area with its purchase of the Harry Von Tilzer pubbery in 1959. The Von Tilzer setup had the rights to such sturdies as "Row, Row, Row," "I Want A Girl" and "When My Baby Smiles At Me." The next purchase was that of Vogue Music, formerly Meridian Music, which held such rights as "Canadian Sunset," "Pistol-Packin' Mama," "Blue Velvet," "Poetry In Motion" and "Vanessa."

The operation was further expanded with the acquisition of Bibo Music and later, several TV themes, including "Rawhide," "Lassie," "Perry Mason" and various college and football marches. Copyrights have also been purchased from Camp & Canvon ("Shutters And Boards" and "I Tell Every Little Star"). Windy City, Spartan, Bib B and Whelan Music.

One of the latest acquisitions by Telekew was Warman & Thunderbird, with a catalog that includes "To Know You Is To Love You," "Wayward Wind" and "To Know You Is To Love You."

Cameo/Parkway Ups Bell; Sets Up New Distrib Deal

PHILADELPHIA—Thom Bell, former studio musician and writer for Chubby Checker, has been promoted to A&R director at Cameo/Parkway Records. Bell is maintaining an open door policy for new talent and material, a policy which is now being fully exploited by the label. This program has already resulted in a hit single and album, both titled "Cast Your Fate To The Wind," for Sounds Orchestral, and the new Ivy League single, "Tossin' & Turnin'," which is presently making strong moves up the Cash Box charts. Along the same lines, managing director Phil Landwehr has also inaugurated the company's most vigorous promotion and publicity program in order to enhance the label's artists, product and corporate image.

Meanwhile, the firm has signed an exclusive, world-wide distribution deal with Conlo Records. The first release on Conlo, "Whiplash" by the Shells, is reported to be stirring up action in several markets. The session was produced by singer Jerry Butler.

Cameo/Parkway recently pacted Calla Records in another international distribution deal. The first Calla release, "Only Your Love Can Save Me" by Betty Lavette, is currently receiving good deejay and sales reaction, according to the firm.

Colpix/Dimension Doors Wide-Open For Indie Men

HOLLYWOOD—Actively involved in listening to new product and in pruning his list of artists to make room for new agreements. Bud Katzel, general manager of the Colpix/Dimension labels, made a bid last week for additional single and album product from outside producers. He reports that he has heard numerous masters and is negotiating for several new artists.

The "open door" policy has already paid off with the acquisition of two outside masters which are set for release within the next ten days. They include "You Got The Gamme Goochee" with Gamma Goochee Hines, which is a Screen Gems production and "The Willing Conscript" with Michael Blessing which is a Predaw production. The Michael Blessing record is a novel approach to the folk roll protest fad in that the song, according to Katzel dates back as far as the Civil War. The material was re-written during World War I and has been further updated for the new version.

Katzel informed Cash Box that the release schedule will be, for the time being, limited and selective. The firm does not have an A&R staff at present.

Connie Click Stimulates 'Breakout' Sheet Sale

NEW YORK—Although most traders are quite cognizant of the fact that sheet music no longer sells in any meaningful quantity, the folks at Leeds Music obviously think differently. The pubbery's Tommy Chanti is delighted about the 'breakout' like response that the sheet music "Roundabout" has been garnering in several key markets (e.g. Los Angeles, New York, Boston, Chicago, etc.) Five thousand copies of the song have been sold to date with more orders pouring in every day.

Interestingly enough, the Connie Francis MGM recording of tune is not a tremendous hit (it's number 8 on this week's Top 100.) However, Sol Handwerker, the label's publicity director, predicts big things in store for the Francis deck. He notes that two other recent vintage, slow-building sellers—Astrud Gilberto's "Gimme From Ipanema" (Verve) and Gloria Lynne's "I Wish You Love" (Everest)—both had large sheet music sales before they became successful records.

ASCAP Names Kloberg N.Y. Division Manager

John P. Kloberg has just been appointed ASCAP's New York division manager, according to an announcement by J. M. Collins, the society's president. Kloberg, who has been manager of the ASCAP Cincinnati office for nineteen years, will supervise the New York, Newark, Philadelphia and Baltimore offices. Kloberg began work with ASCAP in 1940 as field representative in the New York office.

At the same time, Collins announced the appointment of Charles Carter to serve as manager of ASCAP's Cincinnati Office. Carter has been manager of the Minneapolis Office for five years and prior to that time was a field representative in the Detroit office. He has been an employee of the Society for eight years.

In the Society's Minneapolis office, Ann Mandrich has just been appointed to serve as manager. Mandrich, formerly a field representative in the Minneapolis office, has been employed by ASCAP for five years.

UA Signs Crystals

NEW YORK—The Crystals, who have a healthy list of hit records to their credit, have been signed to a long-term contract by United Artists. Effective immediately, the deal encompasses both singles and albums.

The group, composed of Frances Collins, De De Henry and Delores Brooks, was discovered by Phil Spector, and immediately soared up the best-seller lists with its first disk, "Uptown." In rapid-fire succession the three knocked out a string of winners which included "He's A Rebel," "He's Sure The Boy I Love," "Da Doo Ron Ron" and "Then He Kissed Me." They continued to record for Spector until the UA pact. Initial singles under the new contract will be issued shortly, according to the label.

TV Special To Trace Sinatra's Past 25 Years

NEW YORK—Frank Sinatra will star in a one-hour special for NBC titled "Sinatra: The Man and his Music." It will feature Sinatra in a musical review of his 25-year career and airs Nov. 24 in color for Budweiser Beer.

Dwight Hemion, who directed the award-winning "My Name is Barbra," gets time off from his nightly "Nightlife" directing to helm Sinatra's show.

Ken Kendall Opens N.Y. PR Office

NEW YORK—Ken Kendall, who was most recently associated with the Connie DeNave public relations office here, has opened his own p.r. set-up here. The new firm, which will be known as Kendall Associates, will represent Sarah Vaughn, Lainie Kazan, the Kinks, the Del Satins, Brian Poole and the Tremeloes, Michael Allen and Janice Pryor.

TAKE TO THE HILLS—MGM/Verve Records recently feted its distributor promotion men and their wives with a weekend at the Concord Hotel in Kiamesha Lake, N.Y., in tribute to their fine work during the past year. Top to bottom we have: Luncheon for all at the City Squire Hotel, where the guests were greeted by MGM/Verve President Mort L. Nasatir. Boarding the bus for the ride to the mountains. Sam the Sham and the Pharaohs greeted the guests to thank them for helping to make "Wooly Bully" a million seller. The climax of the weekend was the presentation of the RIAA Gold Record Award to Sam the Sham by Lenny Scheer (right), director of single record sales, and Frank Mancini (left), national promotion manager, while the Pharaohs look on.

Attending the weekend at the Concord were: Mr. and Mrs. Allen Shevitz (Baltimore); Mr. and Mrs. Ed Kalmus (Boston); Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Miller

"Wooly Bully" Is An International Hit

NEW YORK—In addition to earning a gold disk for the million plus sales of "Wooly Bully" in the U. S., Sam the Sham and the Pharaohs have also been racking up tremendous sales with the tune abroad. To date, the song has sold 370,000 in Germany, 115,000 in Japan, 100,000 in England, 50,000 in Holland, 30,000 in Belgium, 25,000 in Mexico, 15,000 in Argentina, 55,000 in Canada, 50,000 in France, and 30,000 in Scandinavia.

Savoy Receives Injunction Against Caravans Dates

NEWARK—Savoy Records has obtained an injunction in Essex County Court here restraining Vee Jay Records from selling disks by the Caravans and Professor Alex Bradford. According to the ruling handed down by Judge Herbert, Vee Jay can no longer record the gospel performers. Savoy had claimed that they were exclusive pacts to the firm.

Larry Marks To Cut Sessions For Columbia

OLLYWOOD—Larry Marks has joined Columbia Records as associate producer in the pop A&R dept., according to Allen Stanton, exec producer on the west coast.

Before coming to Columbia, Marks served as a producer and arranger for a number of labels, including Veeva and Warner Bros. He has written such songs as "Sooner Or Later," "Say Goodbye" and, with Sammy Johnson, "Available." He had written these songs for Barton Music and Matra Enterprises.

Following the Regular Members meeting at the NARM Mid Year Meeting in Chicago (Sept. 7), the NARM general Counsel was directed by the membership to seek an advance ruling on a proposed liberal interpretation of the IRS Regulations, or to seek an amendment of the Regulations. It was decided that a united phonograph record industry front with IRS would be most helpful in the NARM efforts, and thus the invitations were issued and accepted by representatives of the record companies. It is hoped that something can be done to lessen the amount of paper work which will have to be done by rack jobbers and distributors in processing forms to their suppliers, if the provisions of the Internal Revenue Service Regulations concerning floor stock refunds are strictly construed.

Epic Records Presents Music Programming Guide

CHICAGO—Mort Hoffman, director of sales for Epic Records, presented a new Juke Box Total Location Programming Guide for operators and juke-boxes, at the recent Music Operators Association meeting, held in Chicago. Epic's Guide, which was introduced at last year's MOA meeting, was greeted with an exceptionally favorable response.

The latest Guide programs the entire Memory Lane Series, which contains popular hits of recent years, by various Epic artists, as well as Little LP's, each of which offers cuts from an original album. This year, as an added feature, the Guide includes a programming schedule of standards, which have been chosen from albums recorded by the label's top talent. The Guide was developed as an aid to operators in programming recordings in bars, lounges, pizza parlors, luncheonettes, cocktail lounges, and other specialized operations.

NARM-Label Meet In D.C. On Excise Tax

PHILADELPHIA—The National Association of Record Merchandisers (NARM), through its general Counsel, Albert A. Carretta, set up a meeting which was held last Friday (17) in the Continental Room of the Statler Hilton Hotel in Washington, D.C., on the subject of the Regulations concerning floor stock refunds of the excise tax on phonograph records.

In attendance at the meeting, held following presstime, in addition to Carretta, were NARM Executive Director, Jules Malamud, and corporate counsel from all the major record manufacturing companies, and many of the leading indies. Also there were Henry Brief, exec secretary of the Record Industry Association of America and Ernest Meyers, RIAA counsel.

Following the Regular Members meeting at the NARM Mid Year Meeting in Chicago (Sept. 7), the NARM general Counsel was directed by the membership to seek an advance ruling on a proposed liberal interpretation of the IRS Regulations, or to seek an amendment of the Regulations. It was decided that a united phonograph record industry front with IRS would be most helpful in the NARM efforts, and thus the invitations were issued and accepted by representatives of the record companies. It is hoped that something can be done to lessen the amount of paper work which will have to be done by rack jobbers and distributors in processing forms to their suppliers, if the provisions of the Internal Revenue Service Regulations concerning floor stock refunds are strictly construed.

Legit Cleffers To Host ASCAP Symposium

NEW YORK—Charles Strouse and Lee Adams, writers of "Golden Boy" and "Bye, Bye Birdie," and Tom Jones, lyricist of "The Fantasticks" and "110 In The Shade," will kick-off the first session of the ASCAP Symposium on American Music on Monday, Oct. 4, at 8 PM in Judson Hall, New York. Their topic will be the American Musical Theatre.

Tickets to the 6-week series are available free of charge from Dick Frohlich, ASCAP's director of public relations.

Mary Poppins LP

arrangement book—with orchestrations by Irwin Kostal—has sold 5000 copies. A further indication of the success in this area is a contest being conducted among 10,000 high-schools to come up with the best arrangement and formation on "Mary" material. Chief reward will be a performance at this year's Rose Bowl.

Disney: Musical Minded

How has the success of "Mary" affected future projects at the Disney organization? "It has made Walt more musical-minded than ever," Johnson declares. While Disney does not plan a sequel to "Mary" as such, there are two major musical efforts in the works at the Disney studios. They are the "Happiest Millionaire," with a score by Bob & Dick Sherman (Johnson says the writers of "Mary" consider this score even stronger) and a full-length cartoon feature, "Jungle Book" (with songs by the Shermans and Terry Gilkyson).

The Foreign Picture

In England, where "Mary" opened at the beginning of the year, the soundtrack LP has sold about 100,000 copies through the EMI distribution facilities. The film has also been playing in some of the Scandinavian countries. In addition, versions dubbed into Italian, German and French are available.

MOA HAPPENINGS—The recently-concluded MOA confab (Sept. 11-13) at Chicago's Pick-Congress Hotel brought out a tremendous turnout of both coin men and manufacturers. At the many hospitality suites and floor booths juke box executives had ample opportunity to exchange views with representatives from the various labels. At the Columbia booth are: Fred Salem, Don Van Gorp, Gene Weiss and Sal Forlenza. Pictured (left to right) at the Smash booth are: George Baylor, Roger Miller and Lou Rubin. Monument's Chuck Chellam is shown with two pretty assistants in the third pic. Cash Box publisher Joe Orleck is shown relaxing in the bottom left shot with Al Martino while Mort Hoffman is shown welcoming True-Coin's Steve Karas to the Epic booth in the right panel.

The side will be exposed on the Hulabaloo TV'er (20) to be co-hosted by Jerry and son Gary, who, with the Playboys, is hitting with a new Liberty lid tabbed, "Everybody Loves A Clown."

Request Records Acquires Italian Film Soundtrack

NEW ROCHELLE—Request Records prexy Hans Lengsfelder announced that the firm has acquired the rights to the original soundtrack of the Italian film, "Amore In 4 Dimensioni" (Love in 4 Dimensions).

The picture, which is loaded with sex and comedy, features some of the most beautiful female actresses in Europe, including Michele Mercier, Sylva Koscina, Franca Rame, Elena Martini and Franca Polesello. The music was composed by Franco Mannino.

Distributor for the United States is Eldorado Pictures International. The film will be shown shortly and various companies have already requested music material with a view to record.

The bidding for the original soundtrack was spirited, but Request emerged as the buyer.

Pleasant Music secured the music publishing rights for all English speaking countries, the Western Hemisphere, Japan and other territories.

Bergen, Sandler & Young Score In Grove Debut

HOLLYWOOD—The joyous news is that a Beverly Hills housewife named Polly Bergen is back on the boards and appearing nightly at the Coconut Grove. Eddie Fisher, Dinah Shore and Andy Williams, who sang a welcome at the opening, said it all when they parodied, "Hello Polly, it's so nice to have you back where you belong." Miss Bergen is as attractive a performer as you will find anywhere and, if she's mostly a middle-range singer, she more than compensates for it with a husky warmth, a sure dramatic style and an indefinable commodity which Johnny Mercer once lyrically described as "personality."

Highlights of the evening's repertoire included "Shangri-La," refreshingly reprised as a powerful dramatic ballad. A Mills Music Charleston novelty of the twenties titled "Frankfurter Sandwiches" and a surprising country-western styled arrangement of "Over The Rainbow."

About 15 minutes of the hour show was devoted to the outstanding new team of Frenchman, Tony Sandler, and New Yorker, Ralph Young. They presented an inventive jazz flavored counterpoint "pot pourri" of American and French songs. Bergen joined them in singing "Dominique." They then backed her with the spine tingling march tempo "Swing Low Sweet Chariot," "Swanee River" and "When The Saints Go Marching In." Young, whose voice has launched a hundred hits via demo recordings, may have finally found a more satisfying niche with the new act. Bergen was also aided by an off-stage chorus which was especially effective in her final offering, "What The World Needs Now Is Love," which, incidentally, has just been released as a Capitol single.

The sellout crowd, which included many of the best known names of television, the stage, screen and the record industry, gave the lark a well deserved, standing ovation.

Gerard Purcell Opens Nashville Offices

NEW YORK—Gerard W. Purcell Assoc. has announced the opening of its new offices in Nashville, with Ed Cummings taking over as general manager of the branch, located at 80 17th Ave. So.

Cummings will report directly to Purcell, and his primary function will be directed to artists' relationships, concert promotions, music publishing, recording, TV productions and commercials.

The firm, with its main offices located in New York, established another branch in Hollywood 4 years ago. Primarily in the field of personal management, the company handles such artists as Al Hirt, Monique Van Vooren, Eddy Arnold, Chet Atkins, Sonny James, Boots Randolph, Minnie Pearl, Gale Garnett, Ethel Ennis, Sally Ann Howes, Rod McKuen and Nancy Adams, and boasts of being the first personal management office to establish a nationwide hook up. The move to establish the southern branch was motivated by the growing importance of Nashville as a strategic point for artists' recordings, music publishing and as the source of country artists for nationwide contracts being promoted by the firm.

THE CASH BOX BULLSEYE

MAKE THE WORLD GO AWAY (2:37) [Pamper BMI—Cochran]

THE EASY WAY (2:32) [Al Gallico BMI—Kilgore, Sutton]

EDDY ARNOLD (RCA Victor 8679)

Smooth-voiced Eddy Arnold, currently clicking with “I’m Letting You Go,” is lining up his sights on the country charts once again with this enchanting number titled “Make The World Go Away.” An extremely lovely side, the tune is a captivating, infectious ballad of a man pleading with his woman to love him once again. “The Easy Way” is a light-hearted, perky bouncer taken from his smash album by the same name. Watch out for this one.

LOVE WORKED A MIRACLE (2:24) [Acuff Rose BMI—Bryant]

I LOVE YOU BECAUSE (2:02) [Fred Rose BMI—Payne]

BOB LUMAN (Hickory 1333)

Following hot on the heels of his recent “Go On Home Boy” charter, Bob Luman is rarin’ to get back onto the best-seller lists with this stanza, called “Love Worked A Miracle.” Tune is a high-flyin’, thumpin’ percolator about the pleasant effects caused by Cupid’s arrow. “I Love You Because” is a rousing, chorus-backed revival of the oldie.

THE WALTZ OF
MISS SARAH GREEN (2:08)
[Quartet, Bexhil ASCAP—
Arr. Parman]

HILLBILLY BOSSA NOVA (3:14)
[Quartet, Bexhil ASCAP—
Arr. Parman]

BILLY EDD WHEELER (Kapp 687)

Billy Edd Wheeler could very well have another “Ode To The Little Brown Shack” on his hands with either side of this double-barreled winner. “The Waltz Of Miss Sarah Green” is a tender, country-folk story of a man with eight young ’uns who marries up with a mother of seven. “Hillbilly Bossa Nova” is a real pretty, haunting Latin-flavored swayer that has drawn a bead on biggie-ville.

ONE MAN BAND (2:15) [Saran Cross, Deep Cross BMI—Leach]

LIVE WIRE (1:45) [Saran Cross, Deep Cross BMI—Baugh]

PHIL BAUGH (Longhorn 563)

After leaping up the charts with his recent “Country Guitar” smash-eroo, Phil Baugh should create even more excitement with this lollapalooza titled “One Man Band.” Side is a fast-paced, rollickin’ hoedown that should be immediately grabbed up by deejays far and wide. “Live Wire” is a self-composed, gallopin’ side, displaying some mighty fancy pluckin’.

I JUST CAN’T LET YOU SAY GOODBYE (2:45) [Pamper BMI—Nelson]

AND SO WILL YOU MY LOVE (2:53) [Pamper BMI—Nelson]

WILLIE NELSON (RCA Victor 8682)

Following up his “She’s Not For You” outing, Willie Nelson should make plenty of noise with this newbie, dubbed “I Just Can’t Let You Say Goodbye.” Side is a slow-moving, feelingful tale of a guy who kills his girl rather than let her go. The flip, “An So Will You My Love,” is a pulsating, pain-filled tear-jerker.

ROSES (2:17)
[Hill & Range BMI—T./G. Spencer]

A PICTURE THAT’S NEW (3:18)
[Peach SESAC—Woods]

GEORGE MORGAN (Columbia 43393)

Vet hitmaker George Morgan can climb up the charts lickety-split with either or both sides of this delightful twin-header. “Roses” is a tender, warm-hearted tale of a man’s love for his woman, culled from the chanter’s best-selling LP, “Red Roses For A Blue Lady.” “A Picture That’s New” is another touching, sentimental ballad that could also pull in lots of coin.

AIN’T YOU ASHAMED (2:20) [Johnny Cash BMI—Cash, Carter]

IT’S A MAN (Every Time It’s A Man) (2:20)
[Fred Fisher ASCAP—Fisher, Alfred]

JEAN SHEPARD (Capitol 5508)

Absent from the charts for a while, Jean Shepard comes up with a potent chartsville effort called “Ain’t You Ashamed.” Side is a raunchy, bluegrass lament of a gal who loses her guy to a man-hungry woman. Undercut “It’s A Man (Every Time It’s A Man)” is a slow-moving, heart-tugging ode done with plenty of feeling.

THE BLACK SHEEP (2:59) [Brave BMI—Rainwater]

INDIAN BURIAL GROUND (2:19) [Moss Rose BMI—Mills]

MARVIN RAINWATER (United Artists 917)

Marvin Rainwater has had hits in the past and looks like he may have another biggie with this goodie, called "The Black Sheep." The tune is a dramatic, powerful saga of a young man who is exiled from his home due to the lies of his brothers. "Indian Burial Ground" is a high-steppin', stompin' walloper that should get lots of spins.

YOU'RE RUININ' MY LIFE (2:05) [Acuff Rose BMI—Loudermilk]

PECOS JAIL (2:37) [Big D, Ly-Rann BMI—Torok-Redd]

HANK WILLIAMS, JR. (MGM 13392)

Hank Williams, Jr. has a great chance to bust wide open with this contagious ditty titled "You're Ruinin' My Life." Side is a thunkin', chorus-backed lament of a man whose gal has got his world turned upside down. Undercut, "Pecos Jail," is a catchy, high-spirited bouncer.

A-11 (2:17) [Pamper BMI—Cochran]

WHERE (In The World) (2:00) [Tad ASCAP—Perry, Sims, Weiss]

JOHNNY PAYCHECK (Hilltop 3007)

Johnny Paycheck should generate lots of sales excitement with this powerful chart contender titled "A-11." A blue ribbon side, the tune is a real sad-sounding, twangy thumper of a guy who finds that heart-breaking memories are revived by a certain tune on the juke box. The flip, "Where (In The World)," is a heartfelt, blues-drenched lament.

YOUR STEPPIN' STONE (2:25) [Freeway BMI—Darnell, Luper]

FOOL THE WORLD (2:17) [Freeway BMI—Darnell]

BOZO DARNELL (Kapp 696)

Bozo Darnell is a good bet to hit big with this top-flight, self-penned coupling. The side to watch, "Your Steppin' Stone," is a lovely plaintive ballad of a man who refuses to give up on his gal even though she treats him badly. "Fool The World" is a bouncy, medium-paced heartbreaker.

THE WILLIS BROTHERS
(Starday 730)

(B+) WHEN I COME DRIVING THRU (2:00) [Starday, BMI—Ellis] No newcomers to the country charts, the Willis Brothers could make a big noise with this spirited, barrelin' truck-driving romper.

(B+) PINBALL ANONYMOUS (2:00) [New Keys, Starday, BMI—Hall] Undercut is a red-hot, rollickin' charger about a contagious disease called pinballism.

CASH McCALL (Topic 8010)

(B+) ONCE IN EVERY LIFETIME (2:30) [Canyon, SESAC—Sikes] Cash McCall may garner a lot of spins and sales with this real slow, heartfelt blueser concerning romantic advice from a man who learned the hard way.

(B+) MY FRIEND JOHNNY (2:13) [Canyon, SESAC—Sikes] Undercut is a feelingful, lament-filled wooser about a man's double-crossin' "friend." Spinners may like it.

THE COUNTRY GENTLEMEN
(Rebel 250)

(B+) BRINGING MARY HOME [Starday, BMI—Duffey, Kingston, Mank] The Country Gentlemen stand a good chance to pull in lots of coin with this puzzling, folk-tinged tale of a strange ghostly incident.

(B+) NORTHBOUND [Zap, BMI—Duffey, Adcock] Side is a hoedownish, foot-tappin' hand-clappin' rollicker.

JACK GRISHAM (Studio 104)

(B+) LOUISIANA MAN'S IN TOWN (1:42) [Grand National, BMI—Grisham] Jack Grisham could create plenty of noise with this twangy, self-penned ditty about a popular fisherman down in bayou country.

(B+) BIG HEART (1:48) [Grand National, BMI—Grisham] Also self-penned, this side is a thumpin', lowdown blueser with lots of dance appeal.

SIMON BOWES (Silver Star 1003)

(B+) THEY POISONED YOUR MIND ABOUT ME (2:21) [Silver Star, BMI—Davis] Simon Bowes could make a national name for himself with this swaying, waltz-timed tale of a man who loses his gal due to nasty gossip.

(B+) TOO DEEP IN HEART-ACHES (1:58) [Cedarwood, BMI—Urban, Bell] Undercut is a liltin', bluegrass tale of a guy's romantic problems.

NOEL GAUDET (Casa Grande 5004)

(B) I GUESS I'LL BREAK MY HEART (And Let You Go) (2:35) [Donna, BMI—Hamilton] Noel Gaudet may do well with this sad-sounding, bluesy stanza about a man who has reached a heartbreaking decision.

(B) THE LINE ON THE HIGHWAY (2:10) [West-Par, BMI—Dyer] Flip is a fast-moving, happy-go-lucky stomper of a man on his way home.

COUNTRY ROUND UP

When Jimmy Dean went down to Nashville for the filming of his TV season opener he was dubbed with the title of honorary citizen of Music City by mayor Beverly Briley. The new Nashville citizen (who's just about a citizen of the world, thanks to the popularity of his TVer with the troops overseas) taped the show on Sept. 9 or filming the following week. Guest spots on the opener were Cash Box poll winners Buck Owens and Connie

Country music seems to be expanding so rapidly that there aren't enough records around to keep up with it. Lonnie Marchant, country music director with KARY-Prosser, Wash., tells us that the station has just hitched its wagon to the country comet and the new format has met with tremendous response (naturally). However, they are having trouble getting all the new releases because they have not yet been established

JOHNNY SEA

EDDY ARNOLD

KENNY ROBERTS

Smith, as well as Eddy Arnold, Gene Pitney, Linda Gayle and, of course, Rowlf. . . . Meanwhile, we hear that Dean recently broke the 116-year attendance record, including his own, at the 1965 Ohio State Fair in Columbus. Thousands of extra chairs had to be set up for the estimated 80,000 people who jammed the fair for the two-day, four-show stint.

Welcome back home to Mrs. Jim Reeves, who just wound up a very successful business trip in Europe. Some of the countries included in the itinerary were the British Isles, Sweden, Denmark, Switzerland and Norway, where she was presented with five (count 'em—five) silver and gold disks and one diamond disk for sales of Jim Reeves records in that country. Upon returning to the states she was hit with the good news that one of her Acclaim Music properties, "Moriair Sam," was breaking out all over the U.S. . . . From the same area, the Blue Boys, the late Jim Reeves' great musicmakers, have just re-signed with RCA Victor Records and will have a new release out very soon. During this month, the boys will be playing dates in Illinois, Tennessee, Missouri and Texas.

Kenny Roberts, Starday yodeler just back from a booking and promotion tour through New England, was also appearing in Milwaukee on a bill that featured Roger Miller and Hank Locklin. Roberts is set for several Canadian bookings in Nov. and Dec., and will be headliner for one week at the "Flame Club" in Minneapolis from Nov. 22 thru 27. Personal management for the chanter is now handled by "Reed" Welty of B-W Music.

with all the record distributors. Let's get those records out there to all these newcomers and help country music grow, and grow and GROW. This looks like one of the biggest years to date for our side, so let's not slow down the pace.

KFOX-Long Beach, Calif. deejay is in the process of compiling a national listing of country retail record stores, an admirable and exhaustive task. He sends out special thanks to fellow airman Eddie Daniels at KBER-San Antonio for all his help and asks that those who haven't been contacted personally please send him the name and address of one or more retail record outlets in their areas. It's going to take a lot of names to make up that list.

We hear that Alpine Records has moved its location and has done some shuffling among the top brass. The country label is now owned and operated by Andy Lauren, and has moved from Akron to Box 2306, Cleveland, O. Lauren, a rock artist, states that the label's country format will not be changed.

Mickey Gross sends word that Rex Allen has just sold his home town's radio station, KHIL-Willcox, Ariz. to Harold Bruzee for the price of $60,000. The sale is still pending FCC approval. . . . Gross further states that Allen has completed a walloping, record-breaking stand at the recent Central Wyoming Fair and Rodeo held in the town of Casper. This was the songster's fourth appearance at the fair in ten years, and each one is better than the last, if that's possible. Backed up by Koko, Jr., Allen put on a 45-minute show each evening, drawing a total of almost 85,000 people to the fair. A sellout to the point of standing room only was the order of the day, with many folks being turned away because there just wasn't any room.

Skeeter Davis, climbing up the Cash Box charts with her great newie, "Sunglasses," is busy hopping around the country, and the world, on her current personal appearance itinerary. Starting in Jackson, Mich. she will also play dates in Rockford, Ill. and Atlanta before teaming up with an RCA Victor contingent of Chet Atkins, the Browns and Hank Locklin which leaves for Japan at the end of Sept. The group will conduct an 18-day tour of the Land of The Rising Sun, and the perky country canary says that she has already received cards from Japanese music fans who are looking forward to the tour.

It's Montovani "live" once more in the U.S. The English maestro, shown at his arrival at JFK airport in New York last week, has already embarked on an extensive concert tour of eastern and midwestern states. It began last Sat. (18) in Poughkeepsie, N.Y. and will end on Sunday, Nov. 23 in New York City. Soon after his arrival, Monty was presented with a special plaque from Cash Box Magazine for his long-standing contributions to the recording art. The bottom photo shows the artist (second from right) with (left to right): Herb Goldfarb, national sales manager of London Records, Monty's U.S. disk outlet, Marty Ostrow, general manager, music & records, at Cash Box, and Walt Maguire, London's pop A&R and sales head. Monty's latest LP is "Montovani Ole," which will be marketed around the world in 30 days.

Today we complete the long list of hit records released lately by Odeon, as related by the Promo Dept. of the company. International compacts (7"-33 RPM) include that great winner with the Brazilian audiences, Richard Anthony, with his famous "La Mia Festa," and a French version of the old Crosby hit "Swinging On A Star;" the melodious orchestra of Frank Pourcel appears with international hits like "Se Piangi Se Ridi" and "Goldfinger;" French singer-composer Gilbert Becaud is also represented; master Frank Sinatra, with such hits as "Days Of Wine And Roses" and "Moon River," the strings of Mantovani, interpreting Latin melodies; The Animals, another sure winner with the Brazilian teenagers; and a Brazilian number, "Maria Ninguem," is among the Latin selection that Cliff Richard interprets with the group The Shadows. In the national field, two singles come into the competition for the best sellers' list, with Altemar Dutra, singing "Sentimental Demais" (already appearing on the charts) and "Serenata;" and the most swinging sambista of all, Elza Soares, with "O Neguinho E A Senhorita" and "O Que Passou, Passou!"

This week, we have little but rather important news about recent releases of Discos RGE. One item is about the new album cut for the company by exclusive artist Ely Arcoverde, with his Quartet, who comes on with a much more modern and advanced style, with good bets like, "Meu Pageu" (a 'baiao' by Luiz Gonzaga), "Dues Brasileiro" and his own composition called "Balanco De Um Eco Em Fuga."

The other item concerns a rare type of recording for RGE, "Antologia de Autores Brasileiros," with Eny Da Rocha on the piano. This is a praiseworthy disc, in the classical field, which comes as further proof of the profusion of great authors and excellent young performers in Brazil. Congratulations for the effort.

Companhia Brasileira De Discos comes next, with some important news. Starting off are two newcomers to the Philips label, the first being a vivacious red-haired "Carioca" named Luli, whose swinging interpretations of Luis Carlos de Sa's "Baleiro," and Paulo Thiago and Sidney Miller's "Missao," have already caused quite a stir! Her first album has just been released and should follow suit. On the male side, Philips is presenting singer-composer Tiaguara, whose current single is "Formosa," the third-place tune in Brazil's recent First Festival of Modern Popular Music. The current Philips LP releases also include two by CBD's most popular male singers, Jorge Ben and Jair Rodrigues. Jorge Ben's "O Homen Que Matou O Homen Que Matou O Homen Mau" (The Man Who Killed The Man Who Killed The Bad Man) has already begun to climb the charts. Jorge's very swinging versions of "Acende O Fogo" and "Na Bahia Tem," are sure to please his many fans. Of course, the "Big Ben" has the added plus of having many of his own songs on the album, in addition to the numbers mentioned above. His works are "Bom Mesmo E Amar," "Jorge Well" (English translation of his name), and "Agora Ninguem Chora Mais". Jair Rodrigues, currently sharing the best-seller spotlight in Brazil with "Dois Na Bossa," an LP made with Elis Regina, has cut his third album for Philips. Included are such MPM hits as "Samba Do Carioca" by Vinicius de Moraes and Carlos Lyra, and Sergio Ricardo's powerful "Barravento." A strong follow-up package for Jair.

More quickies concerning exclusive artists of CBS Do Brasil: newly signed Lenita Nunes, is preparing to make her first cut for the label . . . Mario Pereira's album is having a good sale . . . pianist Ney Salgado is happy with the success of his recently released LP. Niltinho will be in Europe for the next two years . . . The single cut by Paulo Bob is ready for release . . . Quick rising group, Renato & Seus Blue Caps is among the favorites in Brazil; from the Amazonas to Rio Grande do Sul, their "Menina Linda" is a must song . . . Definitely the greatest teen music success in the country—Roberto Carlos—appears on the charts in all categories; he has contracted to appear in Portugal and afterwards, he will tour Argentina and Peru . . . Another new single by another new artist: Robert Livi . . . The young songster from the north-east, Roberto Muller, off to a good start with his successful number, "Nunca Mais Brigarei Contigo" . . . A "double-compact" in which both artist and company have lots of hope, was made by Rolando Lopes . . .

We have regularly been receiving interesting news material from "Seeco Records, Inc." of New York, as well as from "Personality Productions, Inc.," of Las Vegas, Nevada.

Every week, new releases of Brazilian artists and Brazilian numbers hit the market in the United States. The most important was an album by Antonio Carlos Jobim, for Warner Brothers, titled "The Wonderful World of Antonio Carlos Jobim," "The Brazilian Mood," by Nelson Riddle; and "The Shadow Of Your Smile," by Astrud Gilberto, for Verve. Joao Gilberto and Dorival Caymmi are also preparing their first LP's for Warner Bros./Reprise. Guitarist Laurindo De Almeida cut a single for Capitol of non-Brazilian music (included are the themes from 'Morituri' and 'Forget Domani'). Pacific Jazz released two Brazilian music albums—"Bud Shank & His Brazilian Friends," with Joao Donato, and by the same artist, "Sambou, Sambou." Two more Brazilian talents interpret the Latin-American rhythms which they have become famous for. The Victor LP is called "The Many Splendored Guitars of Los Indios Tabajaras." Kapp also has a typical Brazilian album on the market, "Carnival In Rio"—Orchestra Copacabana. Besides the already mentioned album by Tony Bennett, "Songs For The Jet Set" (Columbia), the market is flooded with Brazilian mood records, such as: "Brazilian Byrd—Charlie Byrd," "Music of Antonio Carlos Jobim, with Strings, Brass & Woodwinds," also on Columbia. . . . "Latin Mann—Herbie Mann"—Afro to Bossa to Blues; "Brazilian Mancini," with Jack Wilson & Combo, cut for Vault; while Connie Francis (MGM) sings "Girl From Ipanema" in her new album "All Time International Favorites." Perry Como sings an excellent "Manha De Carnaval" . . . In their latest Command album, "Songs For Latin Lovers," the Ray Charles Singers interpret "Songs Of The Jet" (Samba Do Aviao), "No More Blues" (Chega De Saudade) and "Slightly Out Of Tune" (Desafinado) . . . It is about time that the Brazilian record industry, the artists, promoters and, at least not least, the Brazilian officials, start believing in the acceptance of this excellent export material in foreign markets and do something about it . . .

AUSTRALIA

Big news this week comes in the form of the absolutely staggering success of the just-completed Australian concert tour by American folk group, and Warner Bros. recording stars, Peter, Paul & Mary. We understand that all houses were completely sold out, which is something of a rarity these days. Their success speaks volumes for the level of interest being shown in pop/folk artists in Australia today. In view of the houses drawn by Peter, Paul & Mary, it wouldn't surprise to see a whole rash of concerts being organised for other big folk names. Let's hope that future shows make some provision for the usage of some top local folk acts; there are plenty of good ones around Australia.

Atlantic recording stars Sonny & Cher have been receiving very extensive press action right across Australia. The stories have centered mainly on the unusual clothing styles of the pair, and have also covered the world-wide success of their current smash, "I Got You Babe." Festival records have rush-released (on Atlantic) Sonny's solo hit, "Laugh At Me," which looks like it's going all-the-way. The Sonny & Cher album, "Look At Us," has been re-titled for the Australian market and will appear as "I Got You Babe."

Latest local single release through the Festival organisation (out on the Sunshine label) features Normie Rowe with his revival of "Que Sera Sera (Whatever Will Be Will Be)," the years-back hit for Doris Day. Normie has had a great run of hits over the past few months with revivals of "It Ain't Necessarily So" and "I (Who Have Nothing)."

Philip Crosby, one of Bing's sons, is in Australia for a hotel and nightclub season in the major cities on the East coast.

In a recent issue we inadvertently credited publishing rights on the title "I Told The Brook" to J. Albert & Son Pty. Ltd; when in actual fact this Marty Robbins composition is published in this territory by Acuff-Rose Publications Pty. Ltd. The song has been a very strong hit recently for local artist Billy Thorpe with his single on E.M.I.'s Parlophone label. The Acuff-Rose interests in Australia are handled through the offices of Allans Music (Aust) Pty. Ltd., one of the largest music publishers in this country.

Astor Records have released the first single by the newly-formed local group, the Dargies, featuring the message song, "Strange Rain," coupled with "Nobody Asked Me." The group is headed by Horrie Dargie, whose famous Quintet will cease to function at the end of this year when long-time member Joe Hudson leaves Australia to take up residence in Hawaii.

On the local scene RCA are out with a newie by the Chantinos with what is claimed to be the first English version of "Dominique," coupled with "Breaking Point."

Looks for sure that RCA have a real giant in-the-making with their release of "Eve Of Destruction" by Barry McGuire. The record is the subject of an enormous amount of air-play and sales are rapidly building, giving every indication of a monster.

Latest releases from the EMI group include "Hark" b/w "Stop Wasting Your Time" by the Unit Four plus Two; "Roundabout" by Connie Francis; "Move It On Over" by Del Shannon; and the Ronnie Dove single, "I'll Make All Your Dreams Come True" b/w "I Had To Lose You."

Southern Music Publishing Co. (A/Asia) Pty. Ltd. hosted a big cocktail party recently in honour of the visit to this country of Mrs. M. I. Peer-Morris, David H. Morris and Ralph I. Peer II. The function was hosted by Chris Vaughan-Smith, managing director of the Southern Music operation in Australia and was well-attended by top executives from the various sections of the trade.

Great to see that Crescendo records in the United States have released the Australian-produced record of "Fool, Fool, Fool" by Ray Brown. This single, on the Leedon label, has had enormous success around Australia.

In the column a couple of weeks back we made reference to the new subsidiary label of W & G Records. We gave all the essential details except the name of the label. It is known as In Records. Our apologies to Ron Gillespie and Jack Varney.

GREAT BRITAIN

Good news from the industry comes via the latest Board of Trade figures which show that manufacturers' sales of gramophone records in June valued at £1,645,000 were eight per cent higher than in June last year. Home sales increased by six per cent and export sales by one quarter. In the first six months of 1965 taken as a whole, total sales were four per cent lower than in the same period last year. Home sales fell by six per cent but export sales were nine per cent higher. Production of all categories of disks was lower in June than a year earlier. Output of 45 r.p.m. disks has been on a downward trend since the fourth quarter of 1964. In the first six months of this year production was about a quarter lower than in the corresponding period last year. Making the same six month comparison, output of 33 1/3 r.p.m. disks was slightly higher despite a fall in the second quarter of this year. Output of 78 r.p.m. records in this period fell by nearly one quarter.

A happy piece of news was relayed to Alan Holmes of Robbins Music last week from the house of Curci in Italy. It informed him that the original Robbins copyright "I'll Try Not To Cry" was recently awarded a Diplomat of Honour at the festival of the Gran Premio Della Canzone Mediterranea held at Agrigento. The number written by Les Reed and Barry Mason came second in the British heats for the Eurovision Song Contest. Robbins also had the winning song "I Belong" which Kathy Kirby took to second place in the finals at Naples in March. The company are currently enjoying enormous success here with "Zorba's Dance" by Marcello Minerbi on the Durium label.

Last week the Variety Club of Great Britain opened its autumn-winter social season with a luncheon at the Savoy Hotel where they presented awards to entertainers voted top of their respective categories by the Melody Maker Poll. The awards were as follows:

83 year old Igor Stravinsky in Britain to conduct a concert of his own works at the Festival Hall (also televised by BBC 2) which included the European premiere of his Variations in Memory of Aldous Huxley. CBS issued a special leaflet giving full details of all his recordings to date and, of course, it is CBS who are responsible for the unique "Stravinsky Conducts Stravinsky" series. Still on the classical side of CBS Records we must mention the E. Power Biggs recording of the three Haydn Organ Concertos recorded on the Haydn Organ in Eisenstadt which is still heading the classical sales for the company—a position it has held for the past fourteen weeks. The recording has met with unanimous praise from critics and reviewers and a further increase in sales is expected when Biggs arrives here in November for a series of recitals.

That 'chart-success-with-every-disk' girl Sandie Shaw comes up with another Chris Andrews composition for her latest Pye dishing "Message Understood" published by Glissando Music. Like her other hits Sandie will be cutting the number in German and French for release in those territories where she is an enormous success.

From September 24th to September 29th she will be in Germany for a series of TV shows thence to the Olympia Paris where she will top the bill with Richard Anthony.

Fred Jackson of Fanfare Music sounding the trumpet for "Whatcha Gonna Do About It" by Small Faces who have entered the charts with their debut dishing on Decca. Number penned by Ian Samwell who was responsible for the early Cliff Richard success "Move It" and "You Can Never Stop Me Loving You" by Kenny Lynch. Another Jackson pubbery Mason, has "Blue Bolero" composed and recorded by Tony Osborne which has also been covered by the Sounds Orchestral on the Pye label.

Hot-on-the-heels of "Zorba's Dance" from the Italian Durium label comes "Il Silenzio" by Nini Rossie which is published by Peter Maurice. This is the second hit for Durium since Pye took over their distribution in June this year. Another version of the Italian hit is by Heinz Schachter issued here on Polydor.

To commemorate the 25th anniversary of the Battle of Britain Fontana issue an album of the "For Johnny" BBC production which features many famous voices including Sir Winston Churchill, Richard Hillary, Lord Dowding etc. as well as the voices of the men and women whose actions at that time made history. Still with Philips we welcome back Dusty Springfield after her recuperative holiday and the release of her new single "Some of your Lovin'" written by the husband-and-wife team Goffin and King. She also has a new album "Ev'rything's Coming Up Dusty." The original soundtrack of "The Sandpiper" starring Elizabeth Taylor and Richard Burton is now available on Mercury.

ARGENTINA

Phonogram has started the distribution of a record prepared by the Chamber of Record Producers to help finance the Oct. 4-6 Convention of the Latin American Federation of Record Producers, which will gather members from all the Latin American countries. It is interesting to note that this record presents artists from all the labels associated with the Chamber and that its cover features a painting by Orlando Pardo, titled "Guitar Player In Blue." Other records on desk by the same company are "Il Silenzio," by Al Hirt, "The Game Of Love" by Wayne Fontana and an album by Vincent Morocco, with a selection very much alike the current best selling lists: "Que C'est Triste Venise," "Cominciamo Ad Amarci" and several others.

It is always worth mentioning every new recording by Los Cava Bengal, a melodic trio considered among the best ones of Latin America. Now, RCA has released an album by them, singing and playing standard tangos like "Frente Al Mar," "Que Falta Que Me Haces" and "Quedemonos Aqui." Also coming from RCA is the first album by Simonette, young lark of great potential and several new ones from the "Tango" series containing old recordings by top names in this field.

The promotion department of Odeon is working hard on the "Misa A La Chilena" (Chilean Mass) recorded in that country by Vicente Bianchi, and now released in Argentina through the EMI organization. The album is a significant effort towards the study of folk music in Latin America. Odeon expects to obtain good results both in the artistic and commercial senses from the set.

Music Hall reports the inking of a new artist Tito Emilio, who has already waxed his first single with the group directed by Horacio Malvicino: "Dios Lo Dirá" and "La Niña Y La Flor." Los Pickups have cut "Poupee de Cire, Poupee de Son," backed by "Mia Cara," an Italian hit sung in Spanish. On the international side there is a new album by Tony Bennett and Count Basie, under the Roulette banner.

Julio Korn Publishers report that they have arranged the representation of the entire United Artists Music catalog in Argentina. As we informed last week, the pubbery will soon launch the first records under its "Latin" label. Titles will be "Bread and Butter," by Los Guantes Negros (Sung in English) and "Los TNT" (In Spanish) and dance music by an artist called Angel Nube. Other news from JK states that Brazilian artist Roberto Carlos will soon come to Argentina; he has been inked by Channel 13 for a series of performances.

Label H y R informs that it has changed its Buenos Aires offices to wider facilities at Lavalle 655. The firm's new telephone number will be 31-7952. The company's parent offices are located in the province of Salta, in the North of the country, but the Buenos Aires branch has been expanding its activities very quickly during the past months.

Ricardo Castelblanco of Edami sends word about the success of "Quitate El Saco," which had already hit the charts in Colombia, via the Pedro Laza and the Pelayeros version, some time ago. Alberti has been promoting the recording on TV, with good reaction among the viewers.

CBS reports the recording of the second album by Ricardo Roda, after the success of the first one by this artist. Melodic singer Roberto Yanes has recorded an EP with songs from the musical comedy "La Pergola De Las Flores," currently on stage at the Avenida Theater, and a new album with well known boleros. Yanes is now fulfilling contracts in Central America and will visit New York soon.

Fermata Publishers are working on the promotion of "Cuando Me Vaya," cut by Pucho Alberto for Music Hall, and "Yo Ya Lo Se," recorded by Bobby Cuatro for the same label. Other recordings are "Gabrielle" (Dean Reed, Odeon Pops), "Veras Veras" (Los Cinco Latinos, Music Hall) and "Indiferencia," a tango waxed by Hector Maure. Brazilian Fermata topper Enrique Lebendiger will soon arrive in Buenos Aires, to get in touch with local boss Mauricio Brenner and other people belonging to the industry.

Ariel is releasing (under a license from Disques CBS of France), an album by Caravelli and his Magic Violins, tagged "Douce France," with several standard French tunes. The LP is being marketed simultaneously in mono and stereo. The success attained by the first album locally recorded by The Acapulco Serenaders has decided on the waxing of a new one.

Melograf Publishers are promoting "Ojos Verdes Que Iloran," recently recorded by The Brummels, and "Entre Palmeras," the latest waxing by the Cuarteto Imperial. The pubbery represents "Le Colline Sono In Fiori," published originally in Italy, and now to be cut by Juan Ramon for RCA here.

Disc Jockey Records may hit the jackpot once more with the new Compact 33 by French start Charles Aznavour, featuring his famous recording of "Isabelle" and "The World is Under Us." The first reaction to the promotion of this record has been very interesting, and it may get into the charts very soon.

BELGIUM

Business, which was rather slack for most Belgian records houses during the pre-season period (there were two exceptions), has picked up noticeably and most firms are now enjoying excellent sales. One might almost say that there is too much of a good thing. If some of the records now on the market would have been made available during the slack season, when little or no hit tunes were about, undoubtedly they would have enjoyed a much bigger success than the case now. Several numbers with hit qualities will probably not now make the top 10, because there are just so many good numbers around. This is especially true for a series of British recordings. Decca, for instance, can now boast several fantastic hits by Dave Berry, Johnathan King, Tom Jones and others, while Polydor is very successful with anything by Sam the Sham and the Pharaohs. About Polydor: artistic director Mertens chose the right moment to put out an LP containing all the hits by the Four Aces. This recording priced at only 139 fr ($2.80), a low price to promote sales, which have reached almost unbelievable proportions. Even though "Woolly Bully" continues its sales boom, the firm decided to launch "Ju Ju Hand," which will probably become just as popular as the previous Sham hits. The Who's "Anyway, Anyhow, Anywhere" is also given a good chance to make the hit parade, while the most recent Brenda Lee number, "Too Many Rivers," may signal the comeback of the former hitmaker. In the series of promotional recordings, new LP's are soon to appear on the counters, among them recordings by Buddy Holly, L. Haley, Carmen Cavallera, Helmut Zacharias, Glenn Miller and Brenda Lee.

The music publishing house Moderny of Mouscron has acquired the copyright on Ricardo's "Pourquoi se dire adieu" (Why Say Good-bye) and the latest Ed Mitchell recording, "Je T'en Veux D'être Belle" (You Are Too Beautiful).

Cliff Richard and the Shadows were the main stars of the North Sea Festival organized by the Belgian Radio and Television at the Belgian seaside during the past summer. Richard and his accompanists are still very popular over here as was demonstrated by their success during the closing gala held in Ostend Kursaal. SA Gramophone furthermore informs us that his latest disc "The Time In Between," and the just-issued "Don't Make My Baby Blue" have been very well received by the teenage public. In early September this firm is making a promotional effort with an opera selection "Aus Der Welt Der Oper." The well-known French jazz-pianist Martial Solal performed at a gala organized by the Knokke Kursaal.

Robert Bylois arranged a visit to Belgium by the Surfs for a TV-performance on the Flemish television network, broadcast from the American Theatre Brussels. Bylois is also the manager of the Sicilian-born Salvatore Adamo, established star now in many countries. Adamo, who spent most of his years in Belgium, where he arrived as a youngster, is a hitmaker, composer, writing and performing his own songs. He has become the number 1 star in France. During the past summer he carried out a series of engagements all over the French Riviera and broke every attendance record. He is now almost as popular as Aznavour, Bécaud, Claude François and Johnny Halliday. The French papers are full of praise for this very talented young man, who certainly has not reached the top of his career and of his possibilities.

The Animals got a special promotion in Flanders, especially in the weekly Zondag Nieuws and Kwik, organisers of the Golden Microphone contest, which no less than 173 beat-orchestras took part. The group will perform during the grand finale in the Antwerp Sports Palace, where some 20,000 youngsters are expected. On the day before this finale the Animals are to give a performance at an ambitiously conceived Youngsters Festival at Chatelet, the French speaking part of Belgium.

The Jokers, voted this year the most popular group in Belgium through a popularity poll held by Flemish television, have the busiest summer of their career. Playing the Continental Club in Blankenberghe in the week, they have many one-niters and weekends in the country. Besides their new stereo album "The Jokers go Discotheque," they recorded in August two new albums in Japan, "X-Mas With The Jokers" and "All Time Hits By The Jokers." Their new single is "Caravan" c/w "Umoresco," now on Arcade Records, distributed by Cardinal Records.

The "Flemish Song Festival" will definitely be a success. All Belgian record companies (except E.M.I.) participate with their best artists and follow-up top-names will sing the songs: Tonia, Ronny Temmer, Louis Neefs, Ray Mor, Kalinka, Ferry Devos, Liliane, Jimmy Frey, John Larry, Bobby Martin, L. Doll, Maria Liekens, Willy Williams, Nicole Josy, Joske Harris, Vivi, Wa Jung, Freddy Beeckman, Christiane Lenaerts and others. Pre-selections for songs are held on Aug. 30 and 31 in Antwerp. The recordings, entering competition, will be released on Sept. 27. As announced, all record companies agreed to pay a royalty per-record-sold to UNICEF. The fest is organized by L. J. Van Rymenant and sponsored by Grundig. Sabam, the Belgian Performance Rights Society, gives a special award for the winning song.

Polygram Belgium reports top-sales of "Capri C'est Fini" by French singer Herve Villar (Mercury record) b/w "Il Mondo." Johnny Hallyday's "Quel Revient La Nuit" is still on the charts and his newest EP (4 titles) is gaining in prominence.

Philips' newest discovery is the beat-group the Flying Condors. Their first single, "Chip Chip" b/w "Bei Mir Bist Du Schön," has hit potential and is well suited for export. The group regularly performs in this country, in Holland and in Germany.

A sure hit undoubtedly is Johnny Lion's "Sophietje" (Sophy). Lion dedicated this song to his fiancée and did so well that the whole Benelux territory is interested in her.

Horst Jankowski's "A Walk In The Black Forest" slowly but surely works its way to the top.

Philips just released the first album by a local French artist, Freddy Zeg, a most extraordinary talented singer and composer. First reaction is more than satisfactory and the press is unanimous in their praise: a pure and clear language, a sparkling vocabulary, a flowered imagination, an exploding temperament. Each of his songs is admirably written and bursts out of his heart with much feeling. Eddy Defaецq, whose first album is still selling very well, will soon have his second one out.

New discoveries in the "chanson" field are: Spa 1965 contest winner Jacques Hustin, who will soon have his first album out, and Jean Vallée, who is preparing his first album. Both are singers and composers.

Flemish songster Lilianne (Philips) has a topper with "Verboden Wereld" version on "Wishing It Was You."

L. Vandenhout, of Primavera Music Publishers, announced the discovery of a sensational new singing act, on which he promised to give us more details soon, but he did hint that it might provoke international interest.

On Sept. 6, nearly 1,000 prominent Dutch record dealers and other guests came to the new International Congress building "RAI" in Amsterdam for Phonogram's 19th Disko Dealers' Day, to open the 1965-66 season. Thanks to modern facilities, it was possible to have the entire Dutch presentation translated into the English on behalf of the foreign guests. Among them we noticed W. W. Townsley, director of Decca England; S. A. Beecker Stevens, Decca's sales manager; Jack Boyce, sales promotion manager for classical Decca; H. Watson, Decca's export manager and Marcel Stellman, Decca's sales promotion manager for Europe. Further D. Clover from Philips England, F. Jamison, managing director of Decca Canada, Messrs. Nole and Augustin from Philips-Ton Hamburg and Messrs. B. Lebbink and Ch. Licoppe from Polygram Belgium. Among distinguished Dutch guests were L. de Kok, director of Philips Nederland and J.W.A. Langenberg, director of Philips' phonographic industries.

In his opening-speech, Phonogram's managing director J. Haslinghuis stressed two vital points: the highly satisfactory progress of the past year's entire record industry in Holland with strong sales increase compared to previous years, and the announcement that Phonogram LPs in budget line categories between EP and normal LP prices (the less than three dollar albums) will be limited in the future to mono only and will differ essentially from the more expensive LP productions.

Much to the pleasant surprise of the audience, the curtains rose to reveal the entire Dutch Concertgebouw Orchestra, conducted by Bernard Haitink. Not only to draw the dealers' attention to five brand new Concertgebouw Orchestra LP recordings, but also to introduce a very attractive musical quiz, called "Will you ever guess?" This low priced album, one of the most peculiar recordings ever made, contains 100 short fragments from well known and lesser known classical works, to be guessed by the public. It is done in the form of a family play and will focus the attention on the pleasures of record playing. The album is an excellent catalog item.

The five new C.O. recordings are Bruckner's Fourth & Schubert's Eighth (a two LP-set) by Monteux, a Tchaikovsky-Dvorak program by Haitink, and three albums in the "De Luxe" series: Schubert's complete Rosamunde music, Mendelssohn's complete Midsummernight's Dream and two Symphonies by Haydn (the Miracle and No. 99), all conducted by Haitink. Very important classical releases are to be found in the Philips/Decca "Concert Series." The principle of these LP productions is that every prominent artist represented by Phonogram will have one brilliant LP in the series. The line will be packaged in luxuriously designed jackets containing many pages with photographs, articles, biographies and a full discography. Viennese pianiste Ingrid Haebler is represented with two Mozart Piano concertos ('Coronation' and No. 27), Arthur Grumiaux performs Bruch's Violin Concerto and a recital of French court music for flute, the woodwind is played by Jean-Pierre Rampal. Also present in these concert presentations are albums by Dutch contralto Aafje Heynis doing pretty Dutch folk songs and an album by Prof. Hans Bloemendal (Cantor of the Dutch Principal Synagoge and Professor in bio-chemistry), entitled: "Chag Same'ach" (Happy Feast Days).

From Decca's Opera repertoire, a series of ten LPs was introduced, entitled "Decca Opera High-lights" with high lights from Traviata, Rigoletto, Forza, Otello, Butterfly, Lucia, Aida, Boheme, Tosca and Die Fledermaus. Dealers were also highly interested in Decca's "Ace of Diamonds" series (low-priced category, mono and stereo) with popular works from the classical repertoire.

In the popular field, much attention was devoted to the beautiful Argentine recording "Missa Criolla" (over 100,000 sold in the Argentine already) on Philips, the Spiritual play "Black Nativity" in Fontana's "Gospel Train Series" (a total of seven LPs), a Philips album entitled "Pro Musica" by the famous mixed Dutch choir Pro Musica, and five albums on Philips for children. Other very commercial releases, supported by personal appearances of the artist, were "Willy Alberti sings Max Tak, The World of Song of Trea Dobbs," the two young Amsterdam students Mirjam & Stephen with a very pleasing Hebrew folk repertoire, and singles which are already in the hit parade, like "Wayward Wind" by Lucille Starr and "Ride Away" by Roy Orbison.

Rolfen Kate of Phonogram's P & Pr Dept., announced that Decca England had given special permission to Phonogram to release the new Rolling Stones LP. Thousands of copies were ordered right away by dealers.

Popular Dutch entertainer Wim Sonneveld who released an LP from his latest show, brought the successful day to a climax with his witty talks and songs. In a storm of applause the curtains were closed at 5 o'clock and dealers could visit a market in the RAI building to give all new releases a closer look and to hand in order sheets.

At last week's Bovema's annual Press conference at the singer hall (Laren), president Gerry Oord's welcome speech opened a short, "live" performance of 'new' discoveries from this company's current Dutch Productions. There was magnificent folk singing by the Shepherds, a comedy act by Jossy & Jacques Halland's "Li-La-Lo-Revue," and a few songs by Joris Schiks. Toon 'Rien v. Nunen'—Stiefbeen' caused quite a commotion with his presentation of Imca Marina's Golden Platter for "Harlekino." The meeting contributed highly to Bovema's strong relations with the Dutch music press.

Atlantic's label chief Rien Heeremans reported that Sonny's "Laugh At Me" was released in Holland last week. "We feel sure it will be as big a success as the hot-selling 'I've Got You Babe,'" says Heeremans, who added, "The couple's LP-album 'Look at Us' will hit the stands very soon." Ditto for their single "Just You"/"Sing C'est La Vie." Gerry Oord comments: "Bovema is ready to meet the Sonny & Cher craze, because it's the sound of tomorrow!"

Top jazz names on Atlantic will be making personal appearances next October. Trumpeter Art Farmer will be followed by Paul Acket's '65 season opener the Modern Jazz Quartet on Oct. 9.

TRIP TO THE SOURCE—Pictured above are 100 Scandinavian record dealers about to enter the Hamburg offices of Deutsche Grammophon Gesellschaft D.G.G. annually invites groups of European dealers to visit their headquarters for a talk with distribution chief Kurt Kinkele, and a preview of the fall releases, conducted by press head Hans Rutz. The guests are also taken on a tour of D.G.G.'s Hanover technical center, where the intricacies of production are explained by Dr. Gerd Schoettler and Friedrich Kleinke.

HOLLAND (Continued)

Bovema's Parlophone label will reportedly pass the 100,000 sales mark for the Beatles' "Help" this week, a unique result for this country. The label has recorded Freddy Moro & Los Trovadores Tropicales' latest hit, "Shan And Scandal In The Family."

HMV, still doing fine business with Adamo's "Mes Mains Sur Tes Hanches" presents its attractive collector's items of French chansons, entitled "T Bourse Des Chansons." Artists involved are, among others, Piaf, Aznavour, Chevalier, Bécaud, Mecias and Les Compagnons.

Imperial's songstress Shirley sings jazz-tinged interpretations of "Moonray," "Misty" and "Lost and Lookin'" on her latest EP, "Shirley Sings Swir And Sweet." Also on the label's agenda is Cor Steyn's new Magnic Organ LP with selections from "My Fair Lady" included.

Recently, Dureco Records had their first "Telstar" Dealer convention in Weert. More than 250 dealers and press reps attended the event. Johnny Hoes presented the new Telstar repertory for the coming season. Among the "Telstar" LPs already on the market are "Een Avondje In De Oase," "Meisje En Matrozen Nr. 2," "Havenmelodietjes," "Lief en Leed," "Cowboy E Meisjes," "Rierfeest" and "Alpenbal." The (female) "Singer Without Name" got a platinum record from Johnny Hoes for her 250,000 record sales. She also introduced her newest hit, "Het Broekje Van Jante." On the occasion of the "Europacup" matches, Dureco put on the market a single dedicated to famous Dutch football club Feyenoord. Johnny Hoes sings "Hand In Hand Kameraden" and De Feyenoord Polonaise." Other new Telstar singles include "Ik Weet Allang Waar Abraham De Mosterd Haalt" by Slome Japie, "Dag Buj Die Molen" by Johnny & Mary and "Waldeslust" by Helma & Selma.

After "Letkiss," "Dance De Zorba" and "J'ai Pleuré," Dureco has another great side with the Righteous Brothers' "Unchained Melody," already on Holland's Top 20 list. New releases on Dureco's Omega and Golden 12 labels: Casey Jones & the Governors with "Jack The Ripper," the Phantoms with "I Go Crazy" and "I Dream Of You," and the Goldstar Brothers with "Zeg m eens even." The last two singles are produced by RCP Productions, Hilversum.

Basart has the rights to the two most important hits in Holland at the moment: "Help" by the Beatles (Leeds-Holland) and "Satisfaction" by the Rolling Stones (Essex-Holland). Mills Holland (Basart N.V.) is very happy with the big Fortunes hit, "You've Got Your Troubles." After "Mr. Tambourine Man" the new Byrds single "All I Really Want To Do" also promises to become a hit in Holland. Both songs are sub-published by Basart for Music Publishers Holding Corp. Basart acquired from Cyril Shane of Shapiro Bernstein the rights to "I'm Alive," a new hit by the Hollies. From Radi Ricordi, Milano, Basart obtained the rights to the well known song "Rimpiangerai, Rimpiangerai." Rudi Reen made a Dutch recording of it for Polydor. Like all Bob Dylan compositions, his latest tune "Like a Rolling Stone," also reached the Dutch hit parade within a few weeks. A short while ago the soccer player Radi Radenkovic had quite a success in Germany with a song written for him, called "Bin I Radi, Bin I König." Basart has just released Dutch version on their Europhon label which they have dedicated to the well known Dutch soccerkeeper Eddy Pieters Graafland. Singer is Kleintje Pils Tor.

New CBS additions to the classical Album field: "Two Twentieth Century Masterpieces" containing the Barber and Hindemith violin concertos, played by the eminent violinist Isaac Stern with the New York Philharmonic conducted by Leonard Bernstein; Bartok's "Concerto for Orchestra," conducted by Eugene Ormandy; Brahms' Double Concerto with Isaac Stern (Violin) and Leonard Rose (Cello), accompanied by the Philadelphia Orchestra conducted by Eugene Ormandy (also containing the Variations and Fugue On A Theme By Handl; Schubert's Trio No. 1 in B-Flat Major, Op. 99, featuring Isaac Stern on violin, Leonard Rose on cello and Eugene Istomim on piano; Stravinsky Conducts His Choral Music; with the Festival Singers Of Toronto and the CBC Symphony Orchestra conducted by the composer himself.

New CBS additions to the popular catalogue include the latest album by the Dave Brubeck Quartet, entitled "Angel Eyes," containing composition by Matt Dennis; the first album by The Byrds entitled "Mr. Tambourine Man"; "Il Secondo LP di Bobby Solo"; Percy Faith's "Malaguena," featuring Music of Cuba; and the latest album by Ray Conniff, "Love Affair," featuring dozen romantic songs in the famous Conniff mood.

Recent releases in the CBS single field include the latest release by Bern Spier, "Einmal geh' der Vorhang zu" b/w "Ich bin nicht Schuld daran." Barbra Streisand with "Happy Days Are Here Again"/"If You Were The Only Boy In The World" and Doris Day with "Catch The Bouquet" b/w "Summe Has Gone."

NEW ADDRESS FROM 1ST OCTOBER 1965

54, GREEK STREET, LONDON, W.1.

Telephone: Regent 7111-3 Cables: Vocabl London

SCANDINAVIA

DENMARK

The publishing house Wilhelm Hansen, Musik-Forlag, has just released the sheet music of "Then Suddenly Love" with Danish lyrics ("Det kom som et chock") by Allan Hondé. Francis Day Scandinavia A/S has published "For Your Love" by Graham Gouldman and "In The Meantime" by John Birch.

NPA (Nordisk Polyphon Akts.) has four new LPs on their low-price Melody label, all with local Danish artists. On CBS, the Byrds with "Mr. Tambourine Man" and Bob Dylan with "Like a Rolling Stone" are reported doing very well.

HNF (Hede Nielsens Fabrikker A/S) has a new local LP on Bob Records, presenting Kirsten Eriksen and Juan Carlos Trio. The title of the album is "On Request." Other news from HNF includes "No One Can Live Forever" with Sammy Davis Jr., "Forget Domani" with Frank Sinatra, both on Reprise, Everly Brothers with "The Price Of Love" and Peter, Paul and Mary with "When The Ship Comes In," both on Warner Bros. HNF also has a number of classical releases on RCA Victor.

FINLAND

British group the Renegades, recording for Scandia here, has a new LP on the market. Most of the titles in the album are published by Scandia-Musiikki Oy.

Swedish group the Hep Stars, recording for the Olga label, are coming on very strong in Finland, now. The group has already done very well in Norway with most of their records. Now their "Bald Headed Woman" seems to give them a good chance with the Finnish market.

Latest releases from PSO (Pohjoismainen Sähkö Oy) include "Tyttö niin pieni" (Il Peperone) with Katri Helena, Heikki Rosendahl with "Hiljaisuus" (Il Silenzio) and "Maaailmani" (Il Mondo), both on Parlophone, Maria Dahl with "Lapin äidin kehtolaulu" (Lapland Mother's Lullaby) and "Vanka kotini" (My Old Country) on Columbia. However, giving PSO its busiest times at the moment is the Beatles' "Help!" on Parlophone, LP as well as single.

NORWAY

New on records here is Bjorn Roald Solheim, 14, making his debut on Philips with a local song. NPA (Norsk Phonogram A/S) is also happy to report that, during the two years their Bergen Beat serial has existed, a large number of hits have resulted. Bergen, a city in western Norway among mountains and fjords, has been for Norwegian pop industry what Liverpool is for the British. To celebrate the second year of the Bergen Beat, Philips has just released "Den första gång jag såg dig" (a Swedish song) and "A Day In June" with Helge Nilsen, Benne Iversen, Rune Larsen and the Stringers.

Debutant on Triola label here (from Arne Bendiksen A/S) is Torill Ravnaas with a local version of "Over The Rainbow"—"Over regnbuen" in Norwegian. A new group on same label is the Blue Secrets with "I Want You Back Again"/"Please Stay." Wenche Myhre, local nightingale on Triola, seems to have her troubles here. She made some records in Germany for Polydor, and Polydor and Triola claim that they have her under contract, also for her native Norway. How to solve the problems seems to be a job for the lawyers.

SWEDEN

Stig Anderson of Sweden Music AB, and other publishing houses of his, off for biz talks in Belgium, Holland, France and Britain for two weeks.

Bo Löfberg, head of Philips-Sonora (the record dept.) is leaving his present position May 1, 1966, to become a member of the firm's board. He will be replaced by Eddie Landqvist, now head of the distribution organization GDC (Grammofonbolagens Distributions-central). Löfberg will handle certain special parts of the business, mainly on the international line.

New on the charts here this week is "I'm Henry VIII I Am" with Herman's Hermits on Columbia, (as far as we know not yet published here) and "I Got You Babe" with Sonny and Cher on Atlantic, published by Belinda (Scandinavia) AB.

Cupol is doing a lot of promotion for the German Ariola label, as well as the affiliated labels, Eurodisc and Baccarola. Among the first releases is the LP "Ladi Geisler's Happy Guitar," and the single "Chilly Winds"/"Light From The Lighthouse" with the Seekers. There are also six LPs with classical music released on Ariola this week.

American nightingale Ernestine Anderson, well known here where she spent two years on tour some five years ago, contracted to the Berns Restaurant for the week Sept. 13 to 18.

Grammofon AB Electra is doing a lot to promote the Coachmen, a British Decca group who have toured Sweden twice (last year and this summer). Their "Freight Train"/"Hey Where Are You Going" has just been released. Also a Swedish group, the Yardleys were given a lot of publicity when their "My Babe"/"Under The Boardwalk" was released at Decca.

New sheet music from Southern Music AB includes two songs by Donovan, "Colours" and "Catch The Wind," and "Tossing and Turning" by Carter-Lewis and Perry Ford.

Christian Sylvan of Musikförlaget Essex AB reports to Cash Box that "Heart of Stone" and "Satisfaction," both on the charts with the Rolling Stones on Decca, are published in Scandinavia by Essex.

Sven Ingvars, Philips recording Swedish group, is now ready for its debut in international connections. They have just done their first German record.

CANADA

George Harrison, general manager of RCA Victor's record division, was a B. caller this past week. George was at the Lakehead to conclude contractual arrangements with a new label pactee, Martha Guran. "Miss Martha" as she has been billed on TV, and will be featured on a new RCA Camden LP, has recorded a series of kiddies stories, which she wrote herself. They will be released in time for the Christmas retail action across Canada, and possibly in other countries as well. . . . From the Winnipeg branch of RCA Victor, a recent B. visitor was Bill Patterson, who is very excited over the top ten action he's getting on "Eve Of Destruction" by Barry McGuire. It's a monster everywhere. Patterson has his fingers crossed for Hal Blaine's new outing, "Topsy '65." . . . Another good one on the Canada International label from RCA Victor appears to be the Jack London outing, "Don't Ever Change."

Patterson had word for the trade on a new one stop operation out of Winnipeg that is shaping up into a going concern throughout Manitoba, Saskatchewan and North Western Ontario. Herb Bain Ltd., Portage Avenue is developing a going concern in the Mid West's wax world. Patterson was hopeful of concentrated action on his firm's product as a new "record sell special" offering dealers eight selected album specials at the rate of one a week for eight weeks was just getting underway. It'll be in effect from Oct. 1, for eight weeks. He has only recently arrived in the Mid West area for RCA, coming from the Hamilton-Toronto area. His hard working successor in that market is Jack Morrison. . . . Basil Hurdon has announced that, effective almost immediately, the Bobby Curtola record product will be available in the U. S. The deal has been closed for all of the artist's record product to be distributed coast to coast in the U. S. on the Tartan label.

Distribution arrangements have been set up by the Hurdon Bros., with trading operators in all major American markets. First single to get a big trade push will be "Makin' Love." The side is culled from his newest Tartan LP, which is currently being featured as a Coca Cola Ltd., promotion throughout Canada. The soft drink firm is offering the sensational LP, just recorded in Nashville and packed with great golden hit sounds, through its bottlers from coast to coast in Canada at one dollar per LP. The campaign is boosted by radio saturation spot campaigns across the country. Jack Richardson at McCann-Erickson, the ad agency for Coca Cola Ltd., tells C.B. that the session that produced the new LP was the talk of Nashville, where they were cut at the Foster Sound Studios. The plural reference is intended, because in fact there were two albums produced for this Canada wide promotion, the Curtola set and a French-language LP featuring the combined vocal talents of Michel Louvain and Margot Lefebvre. At the conclusion of the month long promotion, the Curtola LP will revert to Tartan for distribution and sales, while the masters of the French language set will become the property of the artists, to be produced as they see fit. Reaction to both sets, and the promotion, is nothing short of fantastic right across Canada, reports Richardson. . . . Chum—Toronto is in the market for a Deejay, at least one. This is newsworthy in that such a situation just doesn't happen everyday.

Toronto gossip columns have Mike Darrow exiting the outlet, headed for New York, but commuting to do his weekly TV show in Toronto. . . . Barry Paine has a flock of good new chart-bound sounds to crow about of late. Two of them are strong Canadian entries. "I Don't Know" by the Canadian Classics Valiant and "My Tennessee Baby," Danny Harrison's latest Coral outing appear to be sure fire air play items with sales to follow. . . . The best of the American crop at Compo of late looks like the Dino, Desi and Billy follow-up on Reprise, "Not The Lovin' Kind." Paine indicates that a CFOX-sponsored &W package is headed for Montreal, 9/23.

Appearing in the one niter will be Decca artists by the bushel, includingitty Wells, Ernest Tubb and his Troubadors, Bill Phillips and Johnny Wright. . . . Martin Onrot of M.O.T.A. (entertainment) Ltd., Toronto sends along information on the fine new Canadian folk act, the Allen-Ward Trio. Their debut LP for Vanguard is reportedly selling well, with many P.A.'s already set for major Canadian centres. Get in touch with David Mostoway productions at their new Toronto address, 511A Yonge Street. They have, reports Manny Roman, a red hot-single pairing by David Clayton Thomas & The Shays on the Roman label. "Take Me Back" and "Out Of The Sunshine" are sharing chart honours in many key centres across Canada. The group has been breaking attendance records at Toronto's "Friars A Go Go," and appeared on the debut "A Go Go" seg on the CTV net, 9/11. DRL 101, the debut album under the Roman banner appears this week. It is entitled, "David Clayton Thomas and The Shays A Go Go."

Carl Schmidt postcards from Syracuse, N. Y. that his latest group find, Michel and The French Canadians have been given a very promising reception in the upstate N. Y. area. Their disc was very well received by spinners in that area, reports Carl. Gary Buck indicates that there has been much pop action on his latest outing, "Break The News to Lisa." It's on Arta in the U. S., Sparton in Canada. Gaye Galin has one red hot LP right after another lately at London. "Look At Us" by Sonny and Cher doesn't need much plugging. It's one of those had-to-happen LP sets that was a top tenner before the wax cooled. The latest Galin plug item on the LP scene is Johnny Rivers' new Imperial package, "King of Discotheque." It has all the ingredients to be a big air play/sales item very quickly. The Stu Phillips single, "Cathy Keep Playing," will be released in Finland as world wide interest grows in the wax efforts of this Canadian entertainer now holding forth in "Music City," Nashville.

FRANCE

Peter, Paul and Mary's recent performance at the Olympia Music Hall was a fantastic success. All the critics are praising the American trio, and every French artist thinks they're great. This is really important because a lot of French singers want to take up folk music this winter. We had of course, last year many hit French treatments of folk songs, but the interest now is in the fact that singers as Johnny Hallyday and Claude François decided to sing songs with folk lyrics. The first adaptation recorded by Johnny Hallyday will be "Le Jour De La Destruction" ("Eve Of The Destruction").

We have this week news from:

TUTTI. This publishing company is now settled on the 15 rue Saussier Leroy. Piérard, Tutti's manager, and Claude Pascal, in charge of the international department, invited us to visit their new premises. The most important thing is the construction of three recording studios. Actually, Piérard doesn't want to produce records so it's the first time in France we have a firm here which will just cut masters. Tutti will have its own orchestra and the songs written by Tutti's authors and composers will be able to be presented to French and foreign artists in the best conditions.

CBS: At the same time, CBS releases an LP and EP from the Beatles film "Help." Their last EPs "Ticket To Ride" and "I'm Down" are still in full swing. The film "Help" is expected in the very next days in Paris, and the TV show on the Beatles shot by J. C. Averty in the Palais des Sports three months ago will be broadcast on Sept. (22).

VOGUE: Dionne Warwick continues to become more popular in France. She was such a great success this summer on the Cote d'Azur that Bruno Coquatrix, the Olympia manager, decided to engage her as lead singer of a program set for next spring. Vogue released this week the first LP in France by an English group called "The Cops'n Robbers." The firm also set next release of an EP by Donovan.

BARCLAY: Atlantic and Capitol (2nd option) will now be distributed by Barclay. Riviera, the second set-up in the Eddie Barclay group, will also distribute the Atco and Capitol labels. A new LP by Jacques Brel will be released on the occasion of his Carnegie Hall performance in Dec. Eddy Mitchell has just completed a recording session in London. Hugues Aufray has recorded a single for Italy. It will be released through RCA. Another date in Spanish will be distributed by Columbia in Spain. This artist will present an album in the U.S. with his main hits in French. Eddie Barclay will leave Paris for an American biz trip. He will be in New York from Sept. 15 till 20 at the Americana Hotel; From Sept. 20 to 25 at Beverly Hills Hotel in Los Angeles; From Sept. 25 to 27 at Sands Hotel in Las Vegas; and from 27 to 30 at Americana Hotel in New York. Barclay will be back in town on October 1st.

PHILIPS: The label has just released a new LP by Barbara. This female singer will be the lead of the first program at Bobino Music Hall.

MEXICO

GERMANY

Enrique Guzmán released a new album with the orchestras of Chuck Anderson and Lucio Milena. . . . Eight of the songs were recorded in México and the rest in Argentina. Among them are "Abrázame Fuerte," "Mas Cerca," "Contigo En La Playa," "Un Recuerdo Eres Tú," "Buen Viaje," "Papeles," "Quiero Besarte." Cut in Argentina were "El Muro," "Solo Quiero Estar Contigo," "La Balsa" and "Maravillosamente." A fine album that should have good sales. Enrique is now in Spain, doing a picture with Spanish actress and singer Rocío Dúrcal.

New musical TV shows have appeared. Some of them are made in México City, like "Discotheque-A-Go-Go," sponsored by Orfeon-Videovox with artists of this label such as Los Locos del Ritmo, Los Rockin' Devils, Los Hermanos Carrión, Los Hooligans, Julian Bert, Renata, Los Rebeldes del Rock, Federico Valdés, Los Dominic and many others. This name "Discotheque-a-go-go" is used also on several radio programs with almost the same type of music. Another musical TV show which debuted is the American program "Hullabaloo." Seen on the first program: Paul Anka, Chubby Checker, Rita Pavone and others. It seems that rock and roll music (surf, twist, jerk, etc.) is getting strong again.

To celebrate our independence day (September 16), TV-6 of Monterrey signed a contract for performances on that day by Queta Garay, Hermanos Rigual, Daniel Santos, Rosita Gómez, Mónica Villareal, Lucha Moreno, Pancho Avitia and José Lasso. The country celebrated that day with big festivities.

On September 8, México lost one of the greatest Mexican musicians of this century. His name: Julian Carrillo, creator of sound #13 and well known all over the world because of his marvelous experiments in music. He died at the age of 90.

A new A&R man was named at Orfeon Records, José Ramón Moreno, who will be in charge of tropical music. The A&R Department of this label, commanded by Prfirio Reyna, has these names: Ricardo Carrión, Belino M. Preza, Rómulo Morán, Fidel A. Vista and José Ramón Moreno.

Musart A&R chief Guillermo Acosta flew to Spain with the mission to record several of the Mexican artists of that company who are performing in that country: Manolo Muñoz, Angélica María, Daniel Riobobos and Los Yosrys. They are a great success there.

Although it is not official now, it seems that Cuco Sánchez, one of our most popular composers and singers of our folk music and who used to belong to CBS Records, signed an exclusive contract with Capitol Records. This company also signed contract with Cuban bongocero Silvestre Méndez. He just finished a long play with a new rhythm.

Alberto Vázquez cut at Musart records a new single which contains two popular hits of some time ago. The songs are "Yo Sin Ti" and "Cast Your Fate To The Wind," with the support of the orchestra of Jorge Ortega.

Los Hermanos Castro, the excellent Mexican vocal group, returned from their tour through several South American countries, especially in Argentina, where they performed successfully. Los Hermanos Castro, who once recorded for Capitol Records in the U.S. are finishing their first long play at RCA Victor.

Discos Capitol de México, S.A. released four new albums, one with the Four Freshmen, another one with the orchestra of Claude Chiari, one more with Richard Anthony and the last one with the Orquesta Violines de Oro.

RCA released four old songs with Paco Cañedo when this artist used to belong to this company (he is now with Peerless). The songs are: "One Last Kiss," "Ginny Come Lately," "I'm Still Dreaming" and "Hello Mary Lou."

Tropical singer Linda Vera cut a new 45 with the songs "Nada Quiero De Tu Amor" and "Mundo" with the arrangements of Fernando Z. Maldonado.

Among the latest releases made by Peerless Records in the rock and roll field are "Chivi, Chivi" and "Mamá, la Soñé" with Los Summers; "That's Only What They Say" and "If You Want Me To Go" with Los Renos.

Gamma Records released on the Warner Brothers label the themes "Beyond Limits," "Saturn," "Out Of Limits" and "Other Limits" with Los Markettes and "Sometimes On Friday" with the orchestra of Claude Gordon.

$Double Sided Hit.

Here's a new twist to golden record awards. In Hamburg in the Zoo, the first "European Common Market" golden record was awarded to Nini Rosso by Ariola records for the sale of over a million records in the common market. Outside of the common market in Austria and Switzerland, an additional 95,000 records were sold. Sales figure wise, Italy has sold 595,000 records, Germany 525,000, Benelux (Holland-Belgium)—90,000 and 15,000 in France. The master controlled by Peter Meisel's indie Hansa label distributed by Ariola has been the top hit in Germany for around three months and is still selling as strong as ever. The song is number 1 in juke boxes, radio, records and sheet music sales. Hansa promotion man Jack Martin and distributor head Hans Blume were on hand for the ceremony.

Metronome Records has sold over 50,000 copies of the new Casey Jones and The Governors record of "Jack The Ripper" within 1 month of release. Singer, composer, lyric writer Michael Holm dropped by the Cash Box office to tell us that his tune "Desert Island" has been published and recorded in 19 countries including the U.S., Japan and England. A new tune composed by Michael and Fred "The Wedding" Jay called "Cry To The Wind" has been done in English and German by English lass Cherry Roland. Michael's new waxing for Teldec as singer is also headed up the charts.

Hans Gerig has several hot push items for his publishing firm including "Zorba," which already has 10 different records on the market here with more to come, the charter "John Brown's Baby" by Martin Lauer, and of course the festival favorite "Mit 17," which is in the number 2 slot again this week with Peggy March.

Willy Klofat from Ariola has a stack of hard working new entries including the new Chubby Checker single and the new goodie by The Chiffons. The firm is doing a full push on the Hep Stars who are racking up terrific sales in Scandinavia.

The fight continues for the top spot in the marathon "beat" band contest as Mike Warner group from Bielefeld played 155 hours long without a pause. Can anybody top that? The group is under contract to Ariola.

Polydor announced that "Wooly Bully" has passed the 400,000 mark in sales in Germany and the group continues to rack up a big name here. The firm has some terrific sellers including over 100,000 hits by Roy Black, & Wencke Myhre. Luxembourg D.J. Dieter Heck has just signed to the label and his first record for the firm comes out this week.

Philips is racking up great sales with their small tape cartridge box which has passed the 100,000 mark in sales. Yodeler Franzl Lang is now in Hawaii on tour which also covers Chicago, Milwaukee, Los Angeles, New York and Toronto. Philips is also set with the 2nd LP of the International Beat festival held in the Star Club in Hamburg which will include music from 21 different groups.

Publisher Al Schacht dropped in to tell us about the new Tony Sheridan waxing of "Vive L'Amour" on Polydor as well as "Lady" by Vico Torriani and beat recordings by The Matadornerne and The Modern Sounds along with The Rackets.

Next week, we'll report on the Rolling Stones appearances in Germany. That's it for this week in Germany.

1965 Convention A Success!

MOA STANDS TALL

At 9:00 A.M. Saturday morning (Sept. 11th) the uniformed security guards of Chicago's Pick-Congress Hotel checked their wristwatches and gave the signal to admit waiting members of the coin machine industry onto the exhibit floors of the 1965 MOA Convention and Trade Show. Somewhere between that moment and the close of the Convention on Monday evening, a new image for the trade was born—a sophisticated image mixing the ingenuity and sense of showmanship of the past with the techniques and modern approach of today's business community.

Indications of this new look were witnessed everywhere by the almost 1,400 manufacturers, distributors and operator conventioners. A feeling of freshness and polish stretched along the well-ordered aisles lined with vending, amusement and service exhibits; to the lavish music room where visitors strolled about the displays of juke box and record manufacturers to the delightful accompaniment of recorded music played superbly on the latest coin-operated phonographs; on down to the colorful games room—itsself a kaleidoscope of pins, pool tables, parts and supplies with the accent on profits for all through manufacturer-operator cooperation and mechanical excellence.

Just as responsible in fostering this new look were the MOA association leaders who, under Clint Pierce, were a working team during 1964-65 and not only produced a most worthwhile convention but established a precedent of effort and effectiveness in legislative and PR areas whose momentum should continue for years to come. Now the baton of command has been passed on to perhaps the very spirit of this new look, President John Wallace, an aggressive, intelligent, get-the-job-done veteran who during '65-'66 has vowed to carry out the programs and policies already begun by the previous administration and to further the ends of the association through an intensive membership drive and legislative service and to extend every effort toward the training and development of a mechanic servicemen force to fill the present void in today's coin machine industry.

Of the many singular breakthroughs in machine and parts design and association plans and accomplishments evident during 1965 MOA, perhaps the most significant step can be found in the formation of an operators' committee under newly elected Treasurer Bill Cannon which will act as a communications medium between ops and the record manufacturers, a much discussed item in the past but now a rock hard reality. We'll all be watching their progress with great interest.

In the final analysis, the MOA, standing on its own, has proven itself. Drawing generous support from all phases of our industry, it has asserted its value and furthered its cause. 1965 MOA's success leaves no doubt in our mind of the wisdom of bringing the 1966 show again to the Pick-Congress in Chicago (Oct. 28, 29 and 30th). The fact that it's to run along with 1966 NAMA (Oct. 29-Sept. 1st) should insure a record breaking attendance indeed. But secure in our minds of the strength of MOA, demonstrated last weekend, we need no longer be anxious about standing alone and therefore can stand proudly together.

1,400 CONVENTIONEERS MAKE 1965 MOA A SUCCESS

WALLACE ELECTED PRES. — PROMISES AGGRESSIVE YEAR

Ops-Record Mfg. Committee Launched; Mechanic School Endorsed

1965 MOA, CHICAGO—A final attendance figure of close to 1,400, delivered last Thursday by MOA's executive vice president Fred Granger, put the stamp of certification on the enthusiastic opinion expressed by most of the operators, manufacturers, distributors and suppliers who attended the 1965 MOA Convention and Trade Show Sept. 11-13—that it was indeed an uncontested success. Fears of a poor turnout at the show due to its solo stand (minus NAMA) were washed away within the first few hours of the convention as MOA registrars cheerfully busied themselves enrolling such a numerous amount of conventioners that someone quipped, "We don't need a UNIVAC to predict a great turnout—we're getting it already!"

John Wallace, of Oak Hill, W. Va., long known as a hard-working fighter for the MOA cause, was unanimously elected association president at a general meeting held Sunday, Sept. 12th. After a well-earned standing ovation by the assembled operators, president-elect Wallace bluntly laid out an aggressive program for his 1965-66 term, listing three major points:

To put on an intensive membership drive to include increased enrollment in state and local associations.

To build a truly effective relationship between record manufacturers and the music operator (a committee under newly elected association Treasurer Bill Cannon was instantly begun—see separate story).

Wallace vowed to put the weight of the MOA behind the training of mechanics for the coin machine industry (see separate story on Jack Moran's program).

Also elected to office besides Wallace and Cannon were Jim Tolisano for secretary and Lou Casola for chairman of the board. Vice presidents installed at the general meeting were: Al Denver, Howard Ellis, Frank Fabiano, Jim Hutzler, Les Montooth, Lou Ptacek, Clint Pierce, Harry Snodgrass, Henry Leyser and Harland

JOHN (RED) WALLACE
Association Pres.

Windgrave. Ted Nichols was ushered in as sergeant-at-arms.

Directors elected for three-year terms included: Bill Anderson, Jr., Jack Bess, C. C. Bishop, Royce Green, Jr., S. J. Hastings, Larry LeSturgeon, Millie McCarthy, Henry Nardone, Bill Poss, Lou Casola, Dick Steinberg, Art Jensen, Fred Ayers, John Masters, Lou Glass and Henry Keels, Jr.

A telegram, sent by MOA veteran George Miller, was read to the assembled operators by Clint Pierce voicing his regret on his inability to attend due to illness. The heartwarming applause which followed wished Miller well and a speedy recovery. Longtime coinbiz friend Rep. Miller was also unable to attend due to commitments on the federal space committee.

Pierce listed the MOA's accomplishments during his term, underscoring their survey and distribution of state license laws, the establishment of a life insurance program through the Bankers Life agency and the MOA's role in insuring a suitable coinage recipe, after which he received a standing ovation for his efforts.

MOA counsel Nickolas Allen delivered a report on the association's fight in Washington involving copyright legislation, spelling out the various efforts they have undertaken on the operator's behalf (details will follow in later issue).

MURPHY

BERNAY

In an industry seminar which preceded the "Carnival of Ideas," Eric Bernay, of A-1 Record Sales, moderated a discussion which engendered a lively exchange of ideas between record manufacturer reps and operators. Rep. John Murphy of Staten Island, N. Y. spoke to the operators on the value of communication. After the discussion, operators traveled from table to table for the "Carnival of Ideas" which informed them of everything from wage-hour and labor laws, to life insurance, to the training of servicemen.

The Trade Show—a Dazzling Array of Equipment

Of the close to 50 exhibitors who participated in the trade show, held in the Pick-Congress Hotel, all of the major phonograph and pool table manufacturers were there, most of the games factories were represented and a number of vending companies also displayed their wares to the throngs of operators who had gathered at the summit of the coin machine industry from Florida to Michigan to Hawaii. The exhibit area was a figurative fantasyland of color and convenience with a music room set aside for phono and record mfrs and a games room for amusements. It'll be hard to beat next year. (Next year, incidentally, the show will again be held in the Pick-Congress on Oct. 28-30).

New Developments In Scopitone

CHICAGO—In a corrective announcement just released, A. A. Steiger, president of Tel-A-Sign, Inc., and his associates (Cash Box 9/18/65, p. 78) have revealed new developments in their purchase of company stock held by Alvin I. Malnik.

Steiger and his group have now acquired all Tel-A-Sign stock held by Malnik, plus Malnik's 15% minority interest in Scopitone, Inc. (an 80% Tel-A-Sign subsidiary).

This 15% has now been sold by the Steiger group to Tel-A-Sign, Inc., bringing the parent company's holdings in the subsidiary to 95%.

In addition, Malnik's royalty interests in Scopitone, acquired by Steiger and his associates, have been relinquished to Tel-A-Sign.

MOA Endorses Moran's Mechanics Training Prog.

CHICAGO — Jack Moran, founder and head of the Institute of Coin Operations, in Denver, Colorado, plored upon Cash Box to express gratitude and appreciation to everyone in MOA who made it possible his big dream—endorsement by Music Operators of America, to be true, when the Cash Box reporter interviewed him on the exhibit floor during last weekend's annual convention. This endorsement was gratefully bestowed on him by MOA's Board Directors, when he spelled out fact that there is no financial involvement of any sort. He explained that this endorsement is requested of MOA by the various federal agencies who will back the project.

Since Moran first founded his school in Denver several years ago, he has been in constant telephone contact with the Cash Box Chicago office to report his progress, and to decry numerous obstacles which barred path to progression.

He explained that the reason he opened the school initially was to absorb the legion of young men who were daily being laid off at a hairplane plant in Denver. Oftentimes he would have to personally finance their training courses due to the lack of funds.

Since then, however, through diligence and perseverance, this plucky Irishman has managed to obtain approval from the Office of Education & Vocational Training of the United States Dept. of Labor (Manpower Training Development Agency—which supplies the financial support); Veteran Administration Rehabilitation Division; and the Employment Assistance Branch of the U.S. Department of the Interior, Bureau of Indian Affairs.

Moran's prime objective at this time is to further expand his school facilities to avail the expert mechanical training he offers to applicants from every state in the Union. His immediate plan is to send these trained men back to jobs in their respective hometowns.

One of the desperate problems in the manufacturing, distributing and operating firms in this country of the years has been a dearth of trained servicemen and mechanics. Since Moran has been a veteran coin machine operator in the Denver area for many years, he is very much aware of the crying need. This, he says, is actually what drove him into this training program. It is his contention that a school of this sort on a national basis will supply the industry with much needed mechanical talent.

Thus far, Moran has been well received by regional officials, and the cooperation has spurred him. Among the people he has singled out who have been most helpful to him were John Adams, Regional Director of the Denver Labor Dept., and William L. Lewis, Director of Chicago branch of the U. S. Department of Labor.

Moran is setting his sights now on the upcoming NAMA Convention Trade Show, Oct. 16-19, in Miami Beach. In his preliminary discussions with NAMA officials Moran advised that there was considerable interest in his training school program. He will seek NAMA's endorsement during the convention.

"We urge coin machine company heads who require trained mechanics to contact us in Denver for a complete rundown on this program, and what has to be done to obtain this so-needed personnel. It is really very simple to get the help you require," Moran concluded.

Outgoing president Clint Pierce bangs the gavel to bring the 1965 general meeting of the MOA to order.

Clint Pierce hands the gavel of command over to President-elect John Wallace while new treasurer Bill Cannon, chairman of the board Lou Casola and secretary Jim Tolisano smile their approval.

Carnival! A smashing affair was the MOA Convention; attendance records were smashed for MOA's solo bow—new games, party products and improvements — the bright lights and ringing bells and happy music, hot-footed dancers and hail-fellow were the orders of the three-day bash in Chicago. Everyone and everything looked and felt wonderful — things serious and joyful well met, as you can see below.

Seeburg Corp. Debuts 'Vast' Stereo Music Center At MOA Show

Unit Stores & Plays 12 In. Records In Both 16 2/3 & 33 RPM

CHICAGO—The world's first stereo music system that vertically stores and plays both sides of 50 twelve inch records automatically at either 33 1/3 or 16 2/3 rpm speeds has been introduced by the Seeburg Corporation, according to the firm's president J. Cameron Gordon. The new non-coin-operated system plays three varieties of twelve inch musical records, two of them specially developed by Seeburg firm for the new system. "The system," Gordon stated, "is designed for use in the prestige locations of the nation, be they motels, hotels, restaurants and other locations where music is the sign of a thoughtful, considerate host who uses it to heighten hospitality situations."

The Seeburg Stereo Music Centre, as it is formally called, centers

Seeburg's new Stereo Music System. The unit is now in production in the firm's new $5,000,000 plant in North Chicago.

around a new phonograph record playing mechanism. It plays up to three separate and distinct programs of twelve inch records automatically selected from the fifty records vertically stored in its mechanism.

Gordon pointed out that "Seeburg is a specialist in music. Because of our knowledge of music, we have developed two vital ingredients heretofore unavailable in musical entertainment. The first is the new mechanism developed after four and a half years of engineering, research and development. The second is our own production of special records that offer varied musical programming that never has been available before," Gordon said.

Heart of the new unit is a Select-O-Matic Record Playing Mechanism. It stores 50 12-inch records vertically in a magazine. It plays both sides of either 33 1/3 or 16 2/3 rpm records intermixed. The mechanism is designed to offer the location an opportunity to provide such a wide variety of music that any patron preference may be met.

The mechanism is remotely operated from a control center that permits an over-ride of previously selected periods of programming. Up to three separate and distinct programs of records may be pre-selected from the 100 record sides listed on the selector panel of the Remote Select Unit.

The Music Centre system is available in a variety of forms. The Select-O-Matic mechanism is available also for playing through existing sound amplification systems of high quality. The system also is available with a variety of speaker combinations that can flank the unit itself and/or be placed throughout areas where sound dispersion is required.

A Seeburg Automatic Timer Control is available which automatically turns on the system, switches on the record program previously chosen and performs functions according to a preset pattern that may program 10 days or weeks ahead. It will also turn off the unit as per pre-determined instructions. A program book is provided with each unit in which record title strips may be placed for easy reference to records and selections of title or artist to be made. If programmed entirely with Background Music records, each of 2 1/2 hours duration, the unit could provide 10 hours of music before repeating.

Liaison Committee

BILL CANNON

CHICAGO—As a result of a panel discussion Saturday afternoon, September 11, in the Florentine Room, on Customer Relations (between phonograph record companies, One Stops, and the music operators), which was moderated by Millie McCarthy, there was a spirited move generated by MOA's Bill Cannon and President-elect John "Red" Wallace to create a greater understanding and liaison between the two forces.

Later that evening representatives from both groups met under Cannon's direction to work out a plan whereby these two major factions can work in greater harmony in planning for next year's convention.

It was decided that Cannon would immediately set on a course of appointing a special MOA committee to keep in constant touch with record manufacturers. He assumed the chairmanship of this newly created committee.

The committee will furnish the phonograph record trade with a more useful and workable understanding and knowledge of music operators' activities. In keeping with this the record manufacturers will be supplied with data and statistical information on the juke box industry.

Cannon further advised that to conform with this, MOA will shortly publish a list of names and addresses of operator members in booklet form for record manufacturers. All activities in programming, product information and needs, etc. will be greatly expanded for the edification of the record companies.

Cannon asserted that MOA will diligently strive to close the communication gap between the music operators and the phonograph record manufacturers (and all other segments of the record industry).

Therefore, a regular Format of communications are such vital liaison activities as: (1) MOA is to supply marketing information to the record companies. (2) Supply a census of coin-operated phonos that can accommodate Little LP's. (3) A survey of regional preferences for certain variety types of music. (4) Tap the sources in the "grassroots" for new music ideas and innovations. (5) Establish a means of communications between record companies to supply music operators with information regarding new releases, promotions, catalogs, etc.; so that the operators become aware of what is available in the market place, and can assist in getting the product he wants and needs.

Cannon asserted in conclusion that this liaison effort will be aimed towards a greater understanding with the One Stops as well.

"There is a great need," Cannon stated, "between all segments to promote a person-to-person contact and liaison if we are to achieve maximum programming in the locations. If meetings are practical this is what we do!"

He urged all operators and record companies to send any ideas and suggestions they may have to MOA's headquarters in Chicago.

Valley Mfg. Intro's 2 1/4" Magnetic Cue Ball

BAY CITY—Valley Manufacturing Company of Bay City, Michigan, announced at the annual Music Operators of America Show at the Pick Congress Hotel in Chicago that the company has sized down coin-op cue balls to 2 1/4 inches (official pro size) and is sizing up additional sales.

The "secret" of this industry-revolutionizing new cue ball which took seven years to develop—four years in engineering research and three years of field testing—revolves around a magnetic principle, according to company executive John Ryan. "The cue ball, because of this magnetic feature, is now, for the first time in the coin-operated tables, the same regulation size as all other pool balls" he stated.

Valley's new 2 1/4" cue ball is shown in the diagram at right (center), compared to standard 2 3/8" sized cue used on coin-op tables.

Games Play Part Saving Lives From Hurricane Betsy

UMA, LOUISIANA—Three pin-games helped save the lives of seven people and a Persian cat in stormlashed highway town.

Hurricane Betsy howled across highway 90 at Houma, 42 miles southwest of New Orleans. The Gulf Coffee
Shop, a truck driver's spa, stood in Betsy's way. Owner Jean Sullivan found shelter and comfort to local customers and passing strangers, but through the plate glass window of the shop they could see the monster storm coming for them.

The truck driver jumped into the cab and pulled his vehicle in front of the shop to deflect the wind. Betsy's wind raged and so did owner Sullivan's Persian cat Gato. Then the men, as the storm fell upon them, pushed the heavy pinball machines in front of the dangerous window.

The lights went out. The refugees huddled behind the counter and the phonograph. Suddenly the glass shattered and the rain and wind rushed into the cafe. But the machines stood firm and the truck driver tore the pieces of the glass away with his bare hands to keep the fragments from flying around the room.

Just as suddenly, the storm had ended. All were safe. Coffee and conversations were passed around.

Why Fiddle Around?

We got the only 2-in-1 combination records &

Monster Gun Sparks Midway MOA Exhibit

Midway MONSTER GUN

Monster Gun Playfield

This new gun game was created by the Midway engineers to capitalize on the growing popularity of the "monster theme" throughout the land. Its unusual art work highlighted by an eerie black light effect certainly hit the mark.

Malaysian Operator Pays Business Call On Cleveland Coin

R. A. GOLD

CLEVELAND—R. A. Gold, president of Cleveland Coin International, reports that the office had a welcome visitor last week: K. N. Khoo of Malaysia.

Khoo, described by Gold as "one of our most excellent accounts," was returning a visit made by CCI's representative last year in the newly formed nation in the south Pacific area.

Well known in the eastern part of the world and "a pioneer" in coin machine exporting, Khoo recently introduced pool and bowling games to his own province. Feeling the potential in his area has not been fully developed,
Khoo plans to open several arcades in Formosa and Hong Kong with the equipment he has purchased on this trip.

Although he has been an account of Cleveland Coin International for many years, this is his first visit to the United States. A guest of the firm for three days, Khoo, reports Gold, is "extremely optimistic about the future of all types of coin-operated equipment, including vending."

VENDING NEWS

Vending Machine Industry's Only Newsweekly

Auto Canteen: Big Freeze Big Future

CHICAGO—Automatic Canteen Company of America expects to end its fiscal year this month with record high earnings of approximately $1.15 per share, plus an additional 47¢ per share of non-recurring income, Patrick L. O'Malley, president, told a meeting here tonight of the Chicago Science Analysts. (In fiscal 1964, the company earned 76¢ per share of common stock.)

O'Malley reported that the growth of Automatic Canteen's financial strength should continue to be supported by new technological and marketing programs. "Some of these, such as our recent entry into the concessions and fine restaurant management fields, and the credit card vending system now on test, are already a fact," he declared.

Speaking at a dinner meeting of the science analysts at the Union League Club, O'Malley described several technological developments which appear to have promise for application to the vending industry "at some time in the future." Among these are:

Application of solid-state electronics to vending control circuits. This may lead to significant cost reductions and improved reliability through elimination of moving contacts on relays and switches, and offer the vending operator lower cost equipment which can be maintained with less skilled technical personnel.

Automatic record-keeping for route servicemen, through use of portable electronic equipment which would plug into each vending machine or vending bank and automatically record all sales data for transfer later to data processing equipment.

Microwave heating and cooking, in commissaries, cafeterias and other manual food service centers. Recent advances include substantial reductions in the cost per kilowatt of microwave heating energy.

Integral vending systems are now being tested to explore the feasibility of this approach to vending. In an integral vending system, the vending apparatus is remotely located from the dispensing site, so that it is only necessary, for example, to install a cup dispenser and a coin mechanism at the point of sale. Products are directed to the point of sale through conduits, thus permitting one basic installation to service multiple locations.

Modular vending units, designed to be either coin or manually operated to suit changing daily requirements. The same units could be manually operated during peak feeding periods and coin or credit-card operated during off-peak periods to provide service for late comers, night shifts, transient sales, and so forth.

Frozen Meals for Housewives, High Schools and Hospitals. O'Malley also outlined the possibility of large central frozen food commissaries established by Automatic Canteen in major cities throughout the country to provide various services of frozen meals. "Some time in the future," he said, "it is entirely possible that Automatic Canteen will find itself in the business of providing frozen meals for housewives, high schools and hospitals. Actually, our plans for serving hospitals are not very far off," he added.

Frozen meals for hospitals would include dietetic specialties for individual patients and would be heated on each hospital floor in rolling microwave ovens.

Frozen meals for high schools, as well as for residence halls, would be heated by a similar battery of ovens at the school.

And frozen meals for the housewife would be delivered to her door in accordance with a pre-planned menu selected by her and related to cost and nutrition factors.

NEW 25¢ COINS PASS D.C. TEST

CHICAGO—Tests made this week in Washington show that the new non-silver 25-cent coins work reliably in all present coin mechanisms without any alteration.

The new "sandwich"-type quarters were tested this week at the Bureau of the Mint by members of the Technical Committee on Coinage of the National Automatic Merchandising Association and by representatives of major vending machine manufacturers.

"All the production-run new quarters worked in all the different types of coin mechanisms without any trouble interchangeably with present silver quarters," said Thomas B. Hungerford, executive director of the association.

Members of the NAMA technical committee, who had worked with government officials in earlier phases of devising the new coins, were invited to the special testing by the Bureau of the Mint to make sure that no troubles had developed during actual minting of the coins.

Hungerford said the new cupronickel-clad coins will not be in circulation until after the Mint has built up a sufficient supply several months from now.

He added that all manufacturers of equipment were satisfied with the tests. Those present comprised coin mechanism producers for merchandise vending, music machines, telephones and coin-op laundry businesses.

Members of the committee and others present at the tests were:

John Hennessy, the Vendo Company; Herman Jensen, the Seeburg Corporation; Joseph A. Lotspeich, Coin Acceptors, Inc.; Richard Mueller, Rowe AC Manufacturing, division of Automatic Canteen Company of America; William Pferd and Roger Kimber, Bell Telephone Laboratories, Inc.; David Rumer, Reed Electromech Corporation; Eric Sokol and Fred E. A. Wallin, National Rejectors, Inc.; and Hungerford.

3 NEW CHANGE MAKERS FROM NRI

ST. LOUIS, MO.—"Location-proven coin and currency changers from National Rejectors, Inc., a subsidiary of Universal Match Corporation, can handle all change-making needs for any vending locations," according to NRI executives. Three different models will be available for order on the NAMA Convention floor and are ready for prompt delivery.

The new NRI Model M-2 All-Purpose Coin and Currency Changer changes one dollar bills, halves and quarters. It features a special hopper loading system for the fastest possible loading time. The M-2's capacity is $1200. Its lighted cabinet is 20" x 25 3/4" x 21", and its weight with pedestal is 254 lbs.

The NRI Model N-1 Dollar Bill Changer has a two quarter, three dime, four nickel payout. It offers twelve payout combinations. The N-1 has a capacity of $400. Its cabinet is 18" x 22 1/2" x 11 1/4". Cabinet weight is 142 lbs. Optional steel pedestal weighs 84 lbs.

NRI's new Four-in-One Changer, the Model N-10, changes half dollars, quarters and dimes or will give one dime for two nickels. Its capacity is $205. The N-10 has the same cabinet size as the N-1, with a cabinet weight of 139 lbs. Its optional steel pedestal weighs 84 lbs.

"NRI Changers are all performance proven," the firm's executives stated. "They offer trouble-free operation, are tamper-proof, and have tamper-proof validation systems. A selection of NRI changers—or a bank of them at larger locations—increases vending profits by putting correct change into the hands of customers right at the point of purchase. And because NRI Changers are the fastest loading, free routemen for servicing vending machines, cutting down change-making costs to the bone," they said.

Long Island Story:

ACCIDENT, ACTION & AMENDS

CHICAGO—Vending operator cooperation with officials of a Long Island, N. Y., township has been promised by vending industry spokesmen, forestalling an interpretation of the New York plumbing code which could cripple beverage vending in the entire area.

Representatives of the New York Automatic Vendors Association and of the National Automatic Merchandising Association (NAMA) met with officials of the city of Hempstead, of Nassau County and of the State of New York in late August, following complaints that vending firms had failed to comply with provisions of the state plumbing code and of the Hempstead city code.

Agreement was reached on two legal requirements which apply to all beverage machine operators:

1. A city of Hempstead plumbing permit will be secured by all operators before the initial installation of water-connected machines and all installations will be made by licensed plumbers.

2. Vending operators will initiate a servicing program for drink machines to ensure odor-free and nuisance-free waste pails.

Representatives of the two associations pledged their cooperation by advising all vending operators of these requirements and in working further with New York officials.

Morris Weintraub of the New York Association and NAMA's David E. Hartley pointed out that under the Hempstead ordinance all water-connected machines must be installed by a licensed plumber and a permit must first be secured.

Enforcement authorities began to check all beverage venders in Hempstead after a 1964 incident in which 11 persons were hospitalized as they had consumed drinks from a vender which drew its water supply from a boiler-type heating unit because of faulty installation.

In a later incident two beverage venders were connected to water supply which proved to be affected by sewage contamination, according to tests.

"We urge all operators of water-connected vending machines to comply rigidly with the Hempstead ordinance by obtaining a license having installations made by licensed plumbers," Hartley and Weintraub said. "Any other practice is clearly a violation of the law and can lead to disastrous results for the entire industry."

Before the recent conference Hempstead authorities had planned to require a piping connection between machine waste pails and sewage systems. This would be impossible in many cases and would require expensive modifications for all existing machines, Hartley said.

"The local officials have been non-cooperative and it is now up to vending companies to comply with existing regulations," the two vending association representatives stressed.

NAMA Carbon Safety Manual Set

CHICAGO—An illustrated 12-page safety manual for the handling of carbon dioxide cylinders used in soft drink vending machines was issued this week by the National Automatic Merchandising Association (NAMA), according to Nelson Coons, chairman of the NAMA Safety Standards and Education Committee.

The manual outlines a complete safety program for vending operators which includes a specially designed shop record form available from the association.

The CO₂ manual details Interstate Commerce Commission regulations which govern the handling, transporting and maintenance of cylinders, suggestions for filling, testing and marking, tips on storage, installation instructions and record keeping and inspection procedures.

"This is the third important safety tool for vending operators issued by NAMA in the past three years and our committee hopes it will be adopted by all operators of cup soft drink machines," Coons said. "Copies have been mailed free of charge to all NAMA members and they can order additional copies at no cost."

Coons added that nonmembers may buy copies at $1.25 each, while the shop record forms, in pads of 50 sheets, are available to nonmembers at $1.00 per pad.

Casola Elected ICMOA President

CHICAGO—Lou Casola, of Rock-wood, Illinois, who has devoted much of his time for many years in behalf of the nation's music operators, was ably honored during the MOA Convention last week. He was unanimously re-elected to the chairmanship of MOA's Board of Directors, and was also elected president of the Illinois Coin Machine Operators Association (ICMOA) by acclamation. The latter achievement was accomplished during the ICMOA annual business meeting, Sunday morning, in the Music Room of the Pick-Congress Hotel. The session was chaired by the outgoing president, Bill Poss, of Valley Music Co., Aurora, Illinois. Elected along with Casola were: Harry Shaffner, of Alton, Ill., vice president.; Marry H. Gillette, of Monograph Service Co., Chicago, secretary-treasurer.

Also, directors for the new term are: Orma Johnson, Earl Kies, Les Antooth, Bud Hashman, Bill Poss, Gilbert, Moses Proffitt, Charles Brek, and Chick Henske.

During a Board of Directors meeting subsequent to the regular session was decided that the next ICMOA meeting will be held on January 30, 1966, in Springfield.

MOA Banquet S.R.O.

CHICAGO—The gigantic Great Hall of the Pick-Congress Hotel was jam-packed when MOA hosted its annual star-studded banquet and floor show Monday evening, September 13, as more than 800 guests turned out in a colorful array of semi-formal attire. The festivities started with a cocktail (pay bar) affair in the foyer of the Great Hall.

The floor show was greatly enhanced by some of the music and record industry's finest artists plus surprise appearances by Columbia's Aretha Franklin, Enzo Stuarti of Epic Records, Rhetta Hughes with Tennessean Stevens of Columbia and the "life of the party" Rowe-AMI's Killer Joe Piro.

Among the scheduled performers were Damita Jo (Epic), Vic Dana (Liberty), Li'l Wally (Jay Jay), Al Martino (Capitol), Dolly Parton (Monument), Boots Randolph (Monument), Mike DeChicco and The Crazy Kays (Drum Boy), Sonny Gale (Jubilee) and Charlie McCoy (Monument). Also, hilarious comic Lenny Colyer, the Sutton Dancers and The Appletons, with music provided by Frank York and his orchestra (Coral and Dash recording artists). The show was masterfully produced by Hirsh de La Viez and Phyllis Herson.

Eastern Flashes

MOA 1965—Thanks in large part to the scores of Eastern area coin machine reps who helped bring in a fantastic total attendance at last week's MOA Convention of almost 1,400, the MOA is looking better than ever. Red Wallace of Oak Hill, W. Va. is the association's new president. Red is an aggressive coinvet whose efforts during the following 12 months will certainly be noted with pride at next year's conclave. New Jersey Guild chief Bill Cannon, closing an excellent year as association secretary, has been elected treasurer for the coming year. MONY's Al Denver, a founding member of MOA, has again been reelected a vice president. Among the directors from these parts that were installed during the general meeting, Sunday, Sept. 12th, are: Millie McCarthy, Jack Bess, Larry LeSturgeon and Dick Steinberg. Our best wishes to all of them for a successful and fruitful term in office.

POOL TABLES ON SHOW—In addition to his lineup of 6-pockets, Justin Goldsmith and the All-Tech sales team from Hialeah, Fla. showed three models of their slot car lineup including the 'Seebring' coin-op version. Helping to keep the eager ops and interested MOA guests from running over themselves at the 'Seebring' exhibit were: Aaron Goldsmith, Lew Cohn and Bill Lynch of the ATI Family Hobby Center. . . . Over at American Shuffleboard's exhibit, that unbeatable team of Nick Melone, Sol Lipkin and Gene Daddis were joined by Dick Delfino in demonstrating the firm's tables and shuffleboard units. Sol said the American display got a good workout from visitors during the show and that special interest was shown in their brand new compact bank-shot table with the lavish new side-mount scoring device. . . . Irving and Howard Kaye of the Irving Kaye Co. were both rather pleased, to use an understatement, with trade reaction to their Eldorado 66 table series, on the exhibit floor along with the rest of the Kaye lineup. Howard says he was getting tongue-tied listing the table's many features to interested ops but admitted he loved every minute of it. . . . Al Simon, Art Daddis, Al D'Inzillo and Harry Berger were on hand at the U.S. Billiards area featuring their Pro Series. We joined in a game of 8-ball with Harry and beat the pants off Al D. and Verle Van Natten (we sank the eight, but Harry dumped in the rest!).

KILLER JOE AT THE SHOW—Killer Joe Piro was definitely in his element at the Rowe AC display in the convention's music room, knocking out those disco dances to the admiration of numerous foot-tapping ops and their guests. And more than one young lady in that crowd had to exercise a little restraint to keep from joining in with the famed dance master. Our own Candi Brooks was clearly visible in the balcony, taking a break from her duties at the Cash Box booth to scrutinize the Killer and note all the pointers to bring home to the gang at home. Fred Pollak, Jim Newlander (hoping to throw that cane away after his broken ankle too many weeks back), George Klersey, Jim Abato and Ed Claffey were all on hand from the factory out in Whippany, N.J.

A.D., O.C. AND C.B.—That's not code, mind you, but the familiar monikers of Wurlitzer's front line sales team. Messers Palmer, O'Connor and Ross were joined at the colorful Wurlitzer display by Bob Bear, Ralph Cragan and Bert Davidson in presenting the Model 2900 discotheque program to the trade. The Wurlitzer program looked and sounded mighty fine at the show and according to visiting Wurlitzer distributors Jimmy Ginsburg, Clint Shockey and Johnny Billota, it sells that way too! . . . Joe Munves of the Mike Munves Corp. put up a really eye catching exhibit display featuring the 'Monkey Band Box' and the 'Pex' vending dispenser. Joe's nephew Jerry Dancis, who lives in the area, dropped down to see him and observe how the coin machine industry does it when they get together once a year. He agreed that they did real fine!

UP AND DOWN THE CONVENTION FLOOR—Paul Kotler and Jerry Gordon hosted ops to the inside view of National Shuffleboard's 'Coronet' 6-pocket and their shuffleboard lineup and made plenty of hay during MOA. . . . Nat and Janice Bailen of Urban Industries, Louisville, Ky., provided plenty of entertainment with their film units. Their 3-D model in particular drew quite a crowd, most of us agreeing it was rather nicely programmed. . . . Among the numerous coinmen who traversed the equipment-decked aisles of the show from the general Eastern area were: Charlie House, Marv Ginsburg, Maynard Ross, Max and Terry Davis, Sol Tabb, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Pell, Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Taran, Johnny Rowell, Ron Rood, Al Allbritten, Vic and Carol Christopher, Bert Betti, Sol Keever, Dan Snyder, Sam Weisman, Harry Hoffman, Bob Levinson, Dan Spritzer, Vic Haim and Morris Nahum, Al Herman, Hank Knoblauch, Joe Lewis, Phil Brown, Jack Fine, Mr. and Mrs. Mike Mulqueen, Suren Fesjian and Aspet Varten, Art Bernstein, Harold Kaufman, Fred Ayers, Joe Silverman, Herb Rosenthal, J. D. Lazar, Dave Rosen, Evelyn Shinn, Jim Donnelly and Del DeHaven.

HERE AND THERE—Len Schneller of W.S. Dist. reports that good friend Neal Glazer, Automatic Music, Bangor, Me., will be dropping into the big city Monday night to catch 'Golden Boy'. Friends of Seeburg's Bill Adair paid a visit to the 'Funny Girl' crew last Thursday. Bill and Marty Toohey (Seeburg Eastern VP) have been tramping all over the area here, making stops from Boston to Norfolk. Marty info's that Frank Finneran has been discussing the features of Seeburg's new Dry Ground Coffee machine with ops all over the New England area. . . . Joe Ash raving about record run on Gottlieb's new 'Bank A Ball' pin. . . . Joe Mangone, All-Coins sales ace, is getting plenty of action on the RS-101 Call Control unit; it made a big impression at MOA's revue in Chicago last week and orders are starting to come into his Miami office—repeat, Miami! Our news story on RS-101 last week gave Joe's location as Tampa, but t'aint so. Sorry if we confused any ops. One more time: Miami! Now we feel better. . . . Dave Rosen off to Europe this week for plans and scans of movies and new machines for his Filmotheque-Discotheque program; Dave made a pleasant detour in Dublin, Ireland, to see the wedding of the son of Michael Verrichi, a coinvet and long-time Rosen customer in England; Dave and Michael hands-across-the-sea friends for many years.

Chicago Chatter

One success deserves another—so, MOA has shown that it is geared for another successful convention next year (Friday-Sunday, Oct. 28-30) in the Pick-Congress Hotel under the superlative leadership of John (Red) Wallace, of West Virginia, the president-elect. There is no doubt that Red will give to MOA the aggressive leadership it so sorely needs to continue the upward trend. Aiding him, along with a fine slate of directors, will be Board Chairman Lou Casola, Secretary Jim Tolisano, and Treasurer Bill Cannon. Cannon immediately set the wheels a-turning when he created a special committee, under the aegis of Red Wallace, to promote a greater togetherness between the music operators and record manufacturers.

When you consider the fact that MOA enjoyed an attendance of almost 1,400 and had an SRO banquet (some 800 in attendance) you just have to get the feeling that the trend is upward. Lest we forget: A huge round of applause is due Tom Mackey, the Pick-Congress Hotel's amiable convention manager, who directed MOA's activities like the old pro that he is.

Getting back to Lou Casola, he graciously accepted the board chairmanship of MOA only because Clint Pierce begged off pleading that he sorely needs a long rest. Both should be acclaimed by the rank and file for their long dedication to the MOA cause. . . . The biggest surprise of the convention was the registration figure (and the figure shown above is not the final result; which, according to Fred Granger, executive vice president, actually exceeded 1,300 by far!

On the exhibit floor Dick McLanathan informed that he sold his Salina Music Co., in Salina, Kansas recently. He now wishes to land with a distributing company, preferably in the midwest. . . . MOA director Les Montooth was delayed in Chi following the convention and just barely missed arriving in Peoria during the holocaust caused by the vicious tornado that struck Monday evening. . . . Among the Chicago operators on hand were: Dick Gienko, Eddie Holstein, Sam Greenberg, Bob Lindelof, Larry Cooper, Rudy Kit, Vince Angeleri, Charlie Sacco, Earl Kies, Mary Gillette, and many more. . . . A very happy Jack Moran, head of the growing Institute of Coin Operations Trade School, in Denver, was much happier when he departed from the Chicago scene. The reason was that he now has the certification of MOA to continue training mechanics for the national coin machine trade.

When we met a dear friend on the convention floor—Bob Portale, of Advance Automatic of Los Angeles, he advised that popular, longtime coinvet Frank Mencuri is now associated with him in L.A. Bob, Prexy Lou Wolcher, and all of other Advance Automatic staffers are tickled to have Frank in the fold in L.A.

The Chicago coinbiz scene was well represented on the convention floor, and it would be practically impossible to mention all of our manufacturing and distribution friends in this limited space. Suffice it to state that they were all on hand to greet their friends. . . . Harry Silverberg, of W. B. Music Co., in Kansas City, Mo., came in without his wife, Rose. However, he made the rounds on the exhibit floor, and renewed many old acquaintances among his distrib and operator friends.

Atlas Music Prexy Eddie Ginsburg, expressed much elation when we chatted with him on the exhibit floor over the fine racing season his horses enjoyed. Eddie is an old racing buff, and has quite a stable of thoroughbreds. . . . Dennis Ruber and Richard Uttanoff, of D & R Industries, greatly accentuated the successful theme of this year's convention. They stated that they enjoyed a huge sales accomplishment in their constantly busy exhibit. On hand in the D & R exhibit were reps Sy Lipp, Dean Roggness, and Jack Werbaneth.

The big news at the MOA Convention was supplied by A. A. Steiger, prexy of Tel-A-Sign and the subsidiary "Scopitone." He bought out Al Malnick's interest in Florida and moved that operation to the Chicago (main) headquarters last week. The firm will now be known as Tel-A-Sign/Scopitone.

Easily one of the big highlights of the exhibit floor was the effervescent Killer Joe Piro who danced with pretty dancing partners on all three days of the convention. He also gave all of the guests at the banquet an opportunity to dance his steps with him. The entire Rowe AC staff, including Jack Harper, Fred Pollak, Ed Claffey, Jim Newlander, Paul Huebsch, Jerry Marcus, George Klersy, and many others, were hard at work keeping up with Killer Joe. . . . Next year's MOA Convention will be held, Friday thru Sunday, Oct. 28-30, in the Pick-Congress Hotel. This will overlap with the NAMA Conclave, which is from Oct. 29-31.

Milwaukee Mentions

It seemed that most of the activities in Cream City were temporarily suspended last weekend, Sept. 11-13, as all coinbiz eyes were turned to Chicago's Pick-Congress Hotel, where MOA's rank and file convened for the 15th annual trade show. We gather that collections in all sorts of locations rolled merrily on as the good burghers are flocking into locations in greater numbers as the fall season looms ever closer. . . . It wasn't possible to chat with all of the Wisconsin delegates during the trade show. However, we did manage to meet and greet some of the assemblage. We extended our accolades to Clint Pierce and his Marie, for he just closed out a memorable term as president of MOA. A term in which he accomplished much towards making this one of MOA's better conventions. . . . Among the others we met were: Mr. & Mrs. Harry Jacobs, and Russ Townsend and his beautiful spouse. The lovely resemblance between the two was not accidental—they're mother and daughter! Also in this party was Chuck Meyers, of United, Inc. . . . We spotted Bob Rondeau, Harold LaRoux, and Dick Flaherty, all of Empire Coin. Just behind them: Bossmen Gil Kitt, Joe Robbins, and Jack Burns. And, of course, Alan Kitt. . . . Seated with us at the Sunday brunch were Jerome "Red" Jacomet, his wife, son and daughter. And, Joe and Irv Beck. . . . Other Wisconsinites on hand were: Nate Victor, S. L. London Music Co.; Sam Cooper and Joel Kleiman, Pioneer Sales & Services; and many, many more. . . . Next year's MOA Conclave is again slated for the Pick-Congress Hotel in Windy City.

Gottlieb Previews New Bank-A-Ball Single Player With Billiard Theme

Gottlieb BANK-A-BALL

CHICAGO—David Gottlieb, president of D. Gottlieb & Company, in this convention city, asserted (in a terse reminder) the other day, that all roads lead to D. Gottlieb's northwest side factory, especially during the annual Music Operators of America (MOA) Convention. Visitors, he added, were pleasantly treated to a singular surprise last week with the thrilling preview of Gottlieb's new "Bank-A-Ball" flipper amusement game, holding the center spotlight in the firm's game showroom.

This colorfully illustrated newest Gottlieb single player flipper offers the amusement game players in all of the world coin machine markets a billiard ball playing theme, an exciting, new idea in animated playfield action. Alvin Gottlieb urges operators everywhere to visit their nearest Gottlieb distributors to see and demonstrate this game to fully appreciate the color and action offered in this all-new idea, which, he asserted, must money-maker in all types of locations.

During his explanation of the playfield and scoring features in Gottlieb's "Bank-A-Ball" single player flipper amusement game, Alvin Gottlieb pointed the pool table play in the playfield action. He stated that the playfield features 15 numbered one through seven and nine through 15—lights the center target to score the eight ball a "Special."

There are 15 colored pool balls in a rack at the top of the lightbox which drop into the rack as the play rests on the playfield. Dropping the numbered one through eight, or nine through 15, lights the "low" or "high" rollover for "Specials." When a ball is dropped into the rack, the "low" and "high" rollovers are lit for additional "Specials." Three rollovers drop two balls each.

"Bank-A-Ball" flipper offers operators cabinet colors and design. Available in three or five play, the Gottlieb "Match Feature" and it is also available with twin chutes.

Gottlieb stated in conclusion that the "Bank-A-Ball" flipper amusement game is already being shipped to the firm's distributors for display demonstration in their showrooms.

It's farewell to MOA and hail to NAMA for many west coasters who'll be attending the National Automatic Merchandising Association convention in Miami on October 16. Though most "phonorow" reps here feel the Fontainebleau Hotel meetings are a little too far removed we're sure that the coast will be represented. And just in case you're considering the trip—here's some of the program highlights: the first session deals with routemen training to be followed by How To Increase Managerial Performance and Profits. There will be sessions also on how the manager can communicate more effectively and agree on company objectives along with meetings on "incentive programs," "system for hiring and evaluating above average employees" and there'll, of course, be the Annual Banquet, including entertainment which'll conclude the convention in the Grand Ballroom of the Fontainebleau. . . . Bob Portale at Advance Automatic Sales reports that the firm has been appointed a Gottlieb distributor in L.A. along with the happy news that Frank Mencuri, former employee at Simon Distributing, has joined the sales staff at Advance. Bob has just returned from a business jaunt which included N.Y.C. following the MOA convention. . . . California Music tips us on several fast breaking singles including "A Life Time Of Loneliness" by Jackie DeShannon on Imperial, "Only Sixteen" by Terry Black on Dunhill and "Yesterday" by Paul McCartney of the Beatles on Capitol. . . . Leo Simone at Badger Sales paints a healthy sales picture which includes pool tables in the foreground. The firm has been advertising in local newspapers and, apparently, it has spiced direct consumer sales. Leo has just returned from a business trip to Bakersfield and also infos that the employees at Badger recently had a little office party for Nate Durand of the staff who celebrated his birthday. . . . A new shipment of Rock-Ola phonos and cigarette machines arrived last week at Paul Laymon Inc., according to Jim Wilkins, who also reports that a new service of pool cue repairs is now being offered at the shop. Mr. and Mrs. Bill Fritz are spending this weekend in Santa Barbara with their daughter who's attending the University of California. . . . Clayton Ballard, back at his desk after another road trip, tells us that recent visitors to the Wurlitzer Factory Branch office include Gary Sinclair, regional man for Wurlitzer and Smith Smithyson all the way from Bangkok, Thailand who made several overseas purchases. . . . Stan Larsen at Struve Distributing is awaiting the arrival of the new Irving Kaye "Ambassador" '66 model pool table and infos that John Kalbfall of the staff is in Chicago attending the vending school on the new Seeburg modular and marquee single coffee vendor. Cliff Beninga, also a member of Pres' shop, is vacationing at Lake Louise in Canada. . . . Ray Lawrence, who recently joined Record Merchandising as sales manager for the firm, visited Luenhagen's recently with Cecile Holmes of the Ivy League group to spin their current release "Tossin' and Turnin'" on Cameo. The Solle girls report strong action on "Universal Soldier" by Donovan on Hickory and "Just A Little Bit Better" by Herman's Hermits on MGM. . . . Chuck Klein at R. F. Jones tells us the year end special sale is in full swing at R. F. Jones for the fiscal year ending Sept. 30—that's the deadline date for the special so please consider yourselves notified. . . . Incidentally, many of the Jones' employees attended the Harbor Music Association annual Luau held at the Edgewater Hotel in Long Beach recently including Chuck and Bill Gray who both celebrated their birthdays at the party—Art Wright is on vacation for two weeks touring through Arizona. . . . We hear that Al Pogatchnik of Cardinal Music in Delano, Calif. has a daughter, Annette, who's in San Jacquin Hospital in Bakersfield and we sincerely hope all is well by the time you read this. . . . Ops along "phonorow" recently included: Cecil Ellison—Lancaster, Allan McMahan—San Jacinto, Walter Hemple—San Fernando, Ray Brandenburg—La Habra, Eddie Young—Fontana and Bill May—San Bernardino.

Houston Happenings

Cleve Moses, owner Moses Melody Shop, 4048 Westheimer, one of the leading retail record stores in this city, died of smoke inhalation August 18. A couch in den of the fashionable home on which Moses was sleeping burned, according to a district fire chief, but only intense heat and smoke spread to other parts of the dwelling. His wife, Georgia, well known in retail circles as co-operator of the store, escaped by breaking a bedroom window and gave the alarm. Moses, his body unburned, was given artificial respiration and oxygen by firemen but was dead on arrival at local hospital. Besides his widow he is survived by a daughter, Joan and son, Cleve Jr., both of whom were away at school when tragedy occurred. . . . Local operator Bill Gates back on job after a short check up stay in hospital following a light stroke. . . . Chuck De Brandt was recently signed on as sales representative for Central Sales (Rowe AMI). . . . Household of Billy Rider (H.A. Franz & Co.) and wife Patsy temporarily under new management since birth of a seven pound ten ounce boy on Sept. 3rd. Named John Adam, he was, after both his grandfathers. . . . Fred M. Troy, owner Marc Amusement Co., reported very satisfactory cash receipts despite a slight seasonal dip. . . . When Hurricane "Betsy" hit New Orleans (2 deaths and millions of $$ overall damage) it was headed directly for the Texas Gulf Coast and operators in that area were seriously concerned. However, the storm changed course and blew out in Louisiana. No equipment damage was reported in Texas.

Happy Birthday This Week To:

Louis Tartaglia, Ft. Chester, N.Y. . . . Carlos M. Forrest, Ft. Wayne, Ind. . . . C. W. Holmes, Little Rock, Ark. . . . Harry Poole, Boston Mass. . . . Mrs. Pauline Bagnall, Thomasville, Ga. . . . ROSEN TO EUROPE FOR SCAN & PLAN

PHILADELPHIA — David Rosen, head of Filmotheque-Discotheque, left for Europe last Monday (13) on a double mission.

He will spend a week in England, screening a variety of film subjects being made available for his machines. From England he leaves for Milan, Italy, where he will meet with Angelo Bottani, president of the International Phonovision Society, manufacturers of the audio-visual Cinebox. Earlier this year, Rosen was named exclusive United States distributor for both Cinebox and the Society's film library. The Milan meetings with Bottani will cement the design for the new model audio-visual machine to be readily adaptable for inclusion of the juke-box mechanism to become a Filmotheque-Discotheque.

With the design secure, Rosen said that decisions will also be made as to manufacturing facilities and the company will go into immediate production. Like the present model, the new model will be adaptable for the juke box mechanism. The new model will accommodate the selection of 40 film subjects and up to 200 different phonograph record selections.

While withholding details at this time, Rosen said there will be "discussions about adding a new entertainment feature to the new Filmotheque-Discotheque to provide the machine with visual appeal at all times and to make it distinctive and exclusive among any other audio-visual machines on the market."

Rosen also said that the same lease-purchase arrangements will prevail for the new model. The plan, available to the coin machine trade only, provides for a basic $20 per week rental over a 25-week period, with the $500 leasing total applicable toward the purchase of the machine if desired by the operator. The basic plan also provides for 20 film subjects with a $5 total charge per subject for any replacement of film subjects during the entire leasing contract.

Rosen left for Europe immediately upon his return here from Chicago where he attended the sessions of the Music Operators Association.

"I am greatly encouraged by the reactions I received from so many of those in attendance at the MOA show," said Rosen. "It is a clear indication that my faith in the future of audio-visual for coin machine entertainment is shared by our industry leaders as well. When I was able to show them that in Filmotheque-Discotheque they can have two machines in one, combining the movie entertainment with the juke box entertainment in a single unit, they all agreed that it made great sense and their response was that this concept was 'wonderful!'"

Rosen said that he was also encouraged by the shop talk during the MOA show indicating that all the major music machine manufacturers are giving serious consideration of entering the audio-visual field.

"This further confirms my confidence in the new coin machine medium," Rosen added. "Their entrance in the field will merely hasten the universality of the medium and bring it to its proper place in the coin machine entertainment spectrum at a much earlier stage. This kind of competition will be good for the audio-visual industry, and I for one, respect it."

Rosen's present visit to London will also mean adding to his present film distribution library which already includes 622 individual color film subjects in high fidelity sound. The European film producers, said Rosen, were fast to realize the potential of the American market and have been preparing a large number of suitable film subjects expressly for the American market. Rosen said that he would have to spend the better part of the week in London to screen all the film subjects submitted to him by a number of independent film and television producers. He hopes to conclude distribution rights for the subjects selected during his stay in Europe.
