Changing Old-Line
Publishing Scene

The music publishing business can count on some profound changes based on the reasoning among large users of copyrights. It rests on the acquisition by large users of old-line publishing houses with strong catalogs, a trend that has already been realized through the recent acquisitions of Leeds Music by MCA and Bregman, Vocco & Conn by 20th Century Fox Pictures.

These giant enterprises view the hefty purchase prices involved as a great-buy in view of the amortization factor in gaining back monies via the constant performance fees obtained. This in itself, of course, is a good foundation for such acquisitions. But there is more. Much more. Companies such as MCA and 20th Century Fox are also involved in the creation of properties in motion pictures and TV which always involve the employment in one form or another of music. With an already established publishing company as the springboard, new material from these sources add an even broader coverage of the catalog. Performance fees accrued in the exposure of material other than on disks is big business. A TV series that makes the grade offers a continual return in performance fees. Even a one-shot performance of a song on a network TV show can earn as much as $300. Motion picture companies are also eyeing foreign markets. Material performed in motionpictures receives performance-fee credit in most countries of the world, with the current exception, of course, of the United States. Besides performance fees, an additional synchronization payment for use of songs in a film or TV program is negotiated.

The new wave of absorption of music publishing entities by giant show business companies is far from a new development, as is the creation of labels by many of same. But, it means further vertical consolidation of the music business within entities that can now consider themselves total elements in the broad spectrum of entertainment. The association of music publishing with film and TV ventures bears an even more direct relationship. And, in turn, their success in these areas is more decisive to their well-being. As far as the record business is concerned, a vacuum may well be created which the smaller indie publishing set-ups may well employ to their advantage. Since labels will always require the individual song with no film or TV property as its source, the day-to-day contact of labels with such material can take on greater significance for more modest operations.

Music publishing on the giant scale, however, seems headed for elaborate new associations. And the near future should hold a number of very interesting developments along this line.

Myron Cohen: Funny Side Up

Cameo-Parkway Enlarges Scope | Participation Factor A Key To Of Label Distribution Deals

NEW YORK—Cameo/Parkway Records has undertaken the world-wide distribution of a number of labels, reports Neil Bogart, sales manager. Involved are the Tomorrow, Showplace and Winchester labels. These are in addition to C/P's current agreements with Windy C, Lucky Eleven, Sentar, Chariot and Goodtime. Bogart is seeking a national promotion manager to ing a national promotion manager to take direct responsibility for all promotion and sales for Cameo/Parkway's subsidiary labels.

C/P has enjoyed a good track rec-motion and sales for Cameo/Park-way's subsidiary labels.

C/P has enjoyed a good track record with its previous distribution deals. On Curtis Mayfield's Windy C label, the Five Stairsteps have had four chart records; on Lucky Eleven, Terry Knight and the Pack have had four chart records and the New Colony Six on the Sentar label are currently on the charts with "Love You So Much."

Tomorrow Records, produced by Gerry Goffin and Carole King, will shortly have its first single on the market by Bach's Lunch, "Will You Love Me Tomorrow," which the duo

FRONT COVER:

Since its revitalization a year ago, Cameo-Parkway Records has contributed a score of singles to the Top 100 chart. The label's leading lights, both artistic and executive, make an interesting balcony tableau on this week's front cover. At the top are Al Rosenthal (left), president of C-P, and Neil Bogart, sales manager. Next, on the right are Question Mark & the Mysterians, who gave the label a number 1 hit via "96 Tears" and several other hits; on the left are the Five Stairsteps with Cubie, whose Windy C (handled by C-P) diskings, including "World of Fantasy, have contributed four chart items: posing in contributed four chart items: posing in the center are left Senator Bobby, center, and the Hardly Worthit Players, C-P's comedy hit, and, on the right, Terry Knight & the Pack, a Lucky 11 chart find from C-P. ### Success Of MGM's In-Store Displays

NEW YORK—When MGM Records convened its distribs in Acapulco last Jan. customs had failed to clear a series of new in-store display material. But, distribs got the message through an audio-visual presentation—and the message got through.

At a cost of $40,000 (as part of a $100,000 annual cost for displays), they have proven to be one of the label's most successful merchandising aids to date, according to Jack Maher, ad director. Obtaining distrib interest in such material is not easy, Maher points out, but the label is in the enviable position of having to fill continual distrib requests for more. And, adds Sol Greenberg, LP sales manager, the label is hearing from a numager, the label is hearing from a number of dealers who tell of youthful disk buyers who are offering to buy some of the displays right off the counter and, for the mobiles, ceilings. What much of the material has going for it, explains Maher, is that a portion has a "participation" feature. That is, traffic can actually do something with the items. Buyers can flash-through a Roy Orbison display and spin one touting the Lovin' Spoonful. (see cuts).

While it's difficult to measure the effectiveness of these displays in terms of sales, Greenberg feels that displays for a new cover of the label's "Fantasticks" caster and one for the Animals, sporting a "caged" gimmick, actually added further sales momentum to the albums.

An act that is boosted by in-store material is one who sports a good-selling LP catalog, Maher notes. Also, (Continued on page 48)

Mancini, Rose To ASCAP Board

NEW YORK—With several exceptions, ASCAP board members remain the same for a two-year period starting April 1. In the popular-production field, writer member Henry Mancini replaces Richard Adler and in the publisher section, Wesley Rose replaces J. J. Bregman, according to an election report to president Stanley Adams by Mitchell Parish, chairman of the committee on elections.

The writer members elected in the popular-production field (listed according to the size of the vote) are: Stanley Adams (10,046.08), Richard Rodgers (8,324,42), Arthur Schwartz (7,043.87), Jimmy McHugh (7,032,83). Ned Washington (6,591,57), L. Wolfe Gilbert (5,835.41), Cy Coleman (5,569,83), Jack Yellen (5,161,26), Henry Mancini (5,031,74). Mancini replaces Richard Adler on the board; and Cy Coleman, who was appointed to succeed Howard Dietz, has now been re-elected by the membership.

The writer members in the standard field are: Morton Gould (9,915.21). Paul Creston (7,292,18), and Peter Mennin (5,513,16). Dr. Mennin, who was appointed to fill out the unexpired term of Deems Taylor, has now been re-elected to the Board.

The publisher members elected, in the popular-production group are: Edwin H. Morris (3,192), Victor Blau (2,930), Louis Dryfus (2,914), Wesley Rose (2,795), Leon J. Brettler (2,736), Arnold Maxin (2,736), Howard S. Richmond (2,710), Lou Levy (2,668) and Irving Caesar (2,630). Wesley Rose, for Milene Music, Inc., replaces the longtime director, J. J. Bregman.

For the standard publisher directorship: Frank H. Connor (3,291) Adolph Vogel (2,990) and Rudolph Tauhert (2,932).

In addition to Parish, the society's committee on elections consisted of Harold Arlen, Franco Colombo, Milton Kramer, Carolyn Leigh, Gerald Marks, John H. Mercer, Vincent Persichetti and George Pincus.

More Space To Blossom For Liberty

HOLLYWOOD—Liberty Records is planning expansion in the Los An-planning expansion in the Los Angeles area.

According to vice-president Harold Linick, the firm's accounting building located directly next to Liberty's home office on Sunset Boulevard, has grown to such proportions that a trailer was temporarily added to handle the overflow. The rear of the building is now being "squared off" to provide 4,000 additional square feet which will be utilized for credit, internal audit and extra accounting space. A combination conference-lunch-recreation room is also planned.

A few blocks south of the home office on Orange Drive, Liberty has purchased a building with 50,000 square feet, and is now involved with construction to streamline every cubic inch. Director of manufacturing Irv Kessler reports that within six to eight weeks it will be the new home of Liberty Records Distributing Co. of California and will contain inventory to service all of Liberty's independent distributors in the western states as distributors in the western states as well as LRDC's California dealers.

The Orange Drive facility will also house the production department as well as shipping.

Jonathan King In U.S. For Anti-Drug Stand

NEW YORK—Jonathan King, whose cryptic "Everyone's Gone To The Moon" was a big hit here for the English songster, is making a clear case against all forms of drug addiction on his latest Parrott waxing and song, "Round & Round."

He is also personally involved in a campaign to "convince druggies & psychedelic drop-outs" that being "turned on for life" is bad business. King, who will graduate from Trinity College in England in three months, is on a 3-week trip to the U.S., including New York and Los Angeles, to promote the feelings expressed on the disk. A sample of the lyric reads:

disk. A sample of the lyric reads: "Today You're Just High/Tomorrow You're Dead."

King says he can see "an era when all non-addictive drugs, which, incidentally, means physically non-addictive, are as constantly imbibed as alcohol." "The only way to stop it is (by) logical argument," he contends. "Round & Round" is published by King's JonJo Music, affiliated in the U.S. with Al Gallico.

Welk Buys So. Mt., Electron Pubberies

HOLLYWOOD — Lawrence Welk's Vogue Music has absorbed two additional publishing companies to its growing music catalog. These include the purchase of South Mountain Music, acquired from owners Don Costa and Teddy Randazzo and Electron Music from Robert Reisdorf and Josie L. Wilson. The double acquisition makes a total of fourteen music companies now operating under Welk's parent organization, Teleklew Productions, Inc., including the Harry Von Tilzer Music Company, and Welk's own Champagne Music, Inc.

Topping the catalog of the South Mountain Music is the entire score of "Umbrellas Of Cherbourg," which include the title tune of the film, and the high-rated songs, "I Will Wait For You," and "Watch What Happens." Also included are the individual pop tunes, "Going Out Of My Head," and "Have You Looked Into Your Heart?"

Included in Electron's catalog are many numbers recorded by The Ven-

Miller-UA Deal For LP's May Go Deeper

NEW YORK—Mitch Miller has made a non-exclusive LP production arrangement with United Artists Records. His initial project, just released is "Kiss Me, I'm Italian," featuring Miller's long-time musical sidekick, Jimmy Carroll and His Orchestra. A spokesman for the label noted that the LP could initiate a deeper relationship between UA and Miller, including the possible backing of a new musical being written by the vet music man. Should the LP hit, the spokesman added, the series could continue with a "Kiss Me..." theme.

The Day Music Stopped, Among Other Things

NEW YORK—A little bit of science fiction has slammed home the point of music's place in terms of "sheer economics as well as of culture."

The writer is Russ Sanjek, public relations vp of BMI, who wrote the piece for a full-page ad that appears in this week's issue in conjunction with the upcoming convention of the National Association of Broadcasters (NAB) in Chicago (April 2-5).

Sanjek's theme is "The Day Music Stopped" and with it, the disappearance of a "universal language" in the "flash of a moment." Stressing the economic havoc of such an event, the tale tells of the fatal blows to the record and juke-box industries and the shuttering of night clubs, theaters, dance halls, concert halls, ballrooms, etc. "5000 radio stations, deprived of the majority of their programming, are reducing their schedules or going off the air," the story points out. "The music instrument manufacturing business is obsolete," the tale goes on. "13,700,000 children who have been studying music no longer have any use for pianos or violins or woodwinds. The country's 1,385 symphony orchestras and 782 opera producing groups have disbanded."

BMI, of course, would also be a fatality. "If yesterday had been the day music stopped." the story concludes, "you wouldn't be hearing about it from us. BMI wouldn't be in business. Nor, possibly, would you."

New Cash Box Feature Starts In This Issue

NEW YORK—A new editorial feature, Vital Statistics, starts in this week's issue of Cash Box. It is a detailed rundown of all information as sociated with disks making their first appearance on the Top 100. This includes chart position, title, artist, label and publisher addresses, arranger or producer, writers and title of flipside. Cash Box is interested in comments from the trade on what other helpful information it would like to see made available in Vital Statistics as well as any other suggestions about improving this service. Feature appears on page 12.

'Cabaret' Wins Half Of B'way's Tonys | Pop Stars Will Salute Opening

NEW YORK—"Cabaret" got half of the 16 Tony Awards at an Oscar-like showcase on network TV last week (26). The somewhat of a sleeper hit was named the best musical and contained the best featured or supporting musical actor (Joel Gray) and actress (Peg Murray), director (Harold Prince) and composers (Fred Ebb & John Kander). Also, the musical was a Tony winner for scenic design, costume design and choreography. Columbia has the "Cabaret" cast LP.

Musical star awards went to Robert Preston for "I Do! I Do!" and Barbara Harris for "The Apple Tree."
The colorcast also featured scenes from the four musicals nominated for various awards, including "Cabaret,"

"I Do! I Do!," "Apple Tree" and Walking Happy."

WELCOME 'WILL KOMMEN'-Clive J. Davis, vice president and general WELCOME 'WILL KOMMEN'—Clive J. Davis, vice president and general manager, CBS Records (left), and Edward Kleban, pop producer at Columbia Records (right), welcome "Cabaret" star Joel Grey to Columbia. The young entertainer is holding an acetate of his debut Columbia single, "Will Kommen," which was rushed for immediate release last week. The record was produced by Kleban.

The label has announced plans to release an LP by Grey in the near future. A newcomer to Columbia, but no newcomer to show business, Grey last week walked away with a "Tony" Award for "Best Supporting Actor in a Musical" for his role in "Cabaret." Although "Will Kommen" is the opening song from "Cabaret," Grey has indicated that his recording repertoire won't be limited to show music.

Silvers Named VP Of Garrett's Production Co.

HOLLYWOOD-Snuff Garrett, president of Snuff Garrett Productions, has announced the appointment of Ed Silvers as a partner and vp of the pro-duction company. Silvers will take over complete operation of the firm which is a music publishing and record producing organization.

Silvers' initial move for Garrett Productions was to sign Jimmy Griffin, Al Capps and Glen Hardin to producing contracts. Garrett Productions is responsible for the string of hits by Gary Lewis and the Playboys and the current chart revival of Brian Hy-

Silvers will also reactivate the production company's music publishing firms: Viva Music, Baby Monica Music and Glo-Mac Music. These publishing companies will have eight single releases on their material within the next four weeks. Silvers has signed three writers to work on building the catalogs of these pubberies.

Silvers will be in New York during the latter part of March and April setting production contracts with various major labels as operative head of Viva Records, now one year old. Viva is the Dot-distributed label in association with Garrett.

Norm Rubin To LHI As Promo-Sales Head

NEW YORK—Norm Rubin, disk promo man since 1950, has joined Lee Hazlewood's LHI label as national sales-promotion manager. He comes to LHI after a stint with Mercury. Philips and Smash. He previously was associated with Atlantic Records. Rubin will leave for the west coast shortly to discuss the label's future promo plans with Hazlewood.

In another move, the label has

In another move, the label has signed the Shacklefords, with their first deck, "California Sunshine Girl," being rushed to market.

Jan. Is Bright Spot In FM, Phono Sales

WASHINGTON-Jan. distrib sales of FM radios and phonos put a silver lining in those clouds said to be overhanging in the consumer electronics industry, according to the Electronic Industry Association.

FM radios were up strongly. The 1966 figure of 203,430 was surpassed by 8.7 per cent in the first month of 1967, for a distributor sales total of 221,105. Home radios (including table. clock and portable models), on the other hand, reflected the current softness: 661,432 moved out of distributors' warehouses in Jan. 1967, vs. 831,350 in Jan. 1966. Auto radios were slightly down: 729,666, 2.2 per cent away from the 746,152 of Jan. 1966.

There was strong growth evident in the portable/table phono category in January. Distrib sales rose to 254,616, 29.5 per cent over the Jan. 1966 figure. Despite a drop in console phonos (112,594 vs. 156,521), overall phono distrib sales managed a 4 per cent increase over the comparable 1966 figure (367,210 in total distributor sales compared with 353,105 in Januof ceremonies and Guy Lombardo and his "Royal Canadians" will play for dancing.

Prime Minister Lester Pearson and Expo 67's Commissioner General, Pierre Dupuy, Canada's senior diplomat, will join a cluster of show business personalities in cutting a 50-foot-high birthday cake honoring Canada's centennial and Expo 67.

The ball will be held in Concordia Hall, a huge ballroom in newly-completed Place Bonaventure, Montreal's world trade center. Sponsors expect upwards of 3,000 to attend the event, billed as the "Celebrity Salute to Expo 67." Proceeds go to the Foundation's heart disease research fund.

A reception will launch the evening program, followed by dinner and a two-hour show featuring entertainers from Expo 67's scores of national and industrial pavilions.

Top entertainers nominated for the sponsoring foundation's Golden Heart statuette as "entertainers of the century" include Barbra Streisand, Julie Andrews, Sammy Davis Jr., Judy Garland, Jimmy Durante, Lena Horne, Danny Kaye, Joan Crawford, Frank Sinatra and Maurice Chevalier.

Nominees for special honors in the Frank Sinatra and Maurice Chevalier.

Nominees for special honors in the television and recordings category are Dean Martin, Jackie Gleason, Ed Sullivan, Perry Como, Andy Williams, Steve Lawrence and Eydie Gorme, Connie Francis, Charles Aznavour, and Ella Fitzgerald.

Still other show business personalities will lend a hand when Prime Minister Pearson and Commissioner General Dupuy cut the mammoth birthday cake. Elizabeth Montgomery, Polly Bergen and Barbara Eden compose the vanguard of volunteers for this assignment.

Tickets to the "Celebrity Salute to Expo 67" may be obtained from the Quebec Heart Foundation, 6565 Decarie Boulevard, Montreal, Canada.

first release on the label will be "Flashback" by the Spokesmen. Madara and White have turned out such hits as "The Dawn Of Correction," "At The Hop," "1, 2, 3," "Like A Baby," "Somewhere," "The Fly" and "You Don't Own Me Any More."

Bogart has geared up for the extensive program by announcing that distribution will be split in cities where a single source is unable to give each label the proper sales and promotion attention. Additionally, Peter Wright in Chicago, Otis Pollard in New York and Dutch Holland in Miami have been retained to do proportion.

BIOS FOR DEEJAYS

Doors

The Doors are comprised of Jim Morrison, vocal; Ray Manzarek, organ and piano; Robby Krieger, guitar; and John Densmore, drums. They have been influenced by jazz, blues, and rock. Manzarek describes the Doors as "a representative American group. Our influences," he says, "spring from a myriad of sources which we have amalgamated, blending divergent styles into our own thing." The Doors create their own material and envelope it with a blend of organ, guitar and percussion backing. Jim Morrison's vocals ring out over the pungent electric sound that the Doors have made their own. The quartet has performed at Hollywood's Whisky A Go Go and Gazzarri's On The Strip; the Matrix and Avalon clubs and the Fillmore Auditorium in San Francisco; and most recently, Ondine's in New York. The Doors are now coming into national prominence as is evinced by their first album on Elektra, "The Doors," which is number 87 on the charts this week.

Cat Stevens

Cat Stevens, still in his teens, is already beginning to capitalize on his talents. He made his debut as a Deram recording artist with "I Love My Dog," which he penned. He was recently represented on the charts with "Matthew & Son." Cat Stevens, of Swedish-Greek extraction, was educated in Sweden and feels that there is a noticeable Greek influence in his music. He has written many songs over the past year and is a serious student of classical music. He brings a different approach to his songwriting and singing, and his musical ideas show great originality. His lyrics are extremely poetic. In spite of his foreign origins, Stevens considers himself an out-and-out Londoner and lives in Shaftesbury Avenue above a Greek restaurant, owned by his father.

FOCUS ON JAZZ

MORT FEGA

Too often the things we want to do never get done, for whatever reason. For example, I've been meaning to write Woody Herman a fan letter, maybe not the conventional style fan letter because I know him pretty well on a personal level. But a letter telling him what a great privilege it has been to know him from his music, and an even greater privilege to know him as a friend, and that I feel infinitely richer in my lifetime for having had this privilege. As we all know, the road to hell is paved with good intentions, and up until now I've never gotten around to writing him. I would have told him personally, but knowing Woody, it would have embarrassed him, I'm sure. Perhaps doing it this way, as a sort of open fan letter, might be better. True, it's not as personal, but, inversely, it should make more people aware of his greatness. And please bear in mind that this is And please bear in mind that this is being written by someone who holds the word "great" in high veneration, and by one who is quick to recognize the proverbial feet of clay.

It would be like "carrying coals to Newcastle" to recount Woody's many accomplishments as a bandleader, a career that has spanned some twentyeight years, even longer if you want to count his time as leader of a group of Isham Jones alumni after the Jones band broke up. If we were to chronicle the players who have worked with and for Woody Herman during this era it would read like a who's who in jazz. From that list of Herman graduates it would be difficult to find one who has anything but good to say about Woody. Naturally, I've not had the opportunity to speak to all of them, but those to whom I have spoken always refer to him in much the same way, with a warm, respectful devotion. You know the old saying, "If you really want to know about a guy, ask someone who has worked for him."

Woody's Great Inspiration As Bandleader

As Bandleader

With a track record like Woody's, it is apparent that he is an outstanding musician, using the term in its broadest possible sense. Perhaps equally important to his uninterrupted successes is his stature as a human being. Even if you aren't familiar with the big band business, you must realize that it takes a special kind of leader to make things hang together. When you deal with that many different personalities and their respective problems, it takes a unique man to maintain the captain's role. Unlike conventional business organizations, a band of musicians is much more complex, and The Herman Herds that have prevailed through the years are eloquent testimony to the fact that Woody has had to be father, mother, teacher, psychologist, disciplinarian, boss, friend, and whatever else it takes to endure and conquer as he has. If I were asked what impresses me the most about Woody Herman, I would answer, unhesitatingly, the fact that he is always a gentleman. This impression comes not only from my personal acquaintance with him, but also from watching him behave my personal acquaintance with him, but also from watching him behave with others. I've been witness to several instances when, at the conclusion of the last set and in the small hours of the morning, Woody was tired and anxious to get back to the hotel and to sleep. On the way out of the club, he would be stopped by a fan, more than half drunk with booze and nostalgia, and he would be subjected to interminable questions and feeble attempts at conversation, and never for a moment would he be abrupt with this early morning reveler. We must assume that Woody is ever mindful of his debt to the people who have kept him up front for so many years. Still, there are for so many years. Still, there are many performers in the limelight who don't practice this courtesy, and who are not only abrupt but often rude to their fans. I guess that difference is really what makes me dig Woody Herman as much as I do. He's ever unassuming, even shy, and he has the stamp of gentility all over him, in a word, CLASS!

Played One For Johnny Hodges

Thus far we've spoken very little about the musical side of Woody, but practically all that we have mentioned is related to his job as shepherd of The Herd, as his band has been known since the Forties. If he didn't have all these qualities, how could he possibly maintain his position at the top? Everyone asks the same question, "How does Woody keep coming up with so many good young players? Well, the big band business is a fairly small fraternity in which news travels fast, and if he weren't the kind of guy he is, you can be sure that getting musicians for the band would be much more difficult than it has been. And let's not overlook Woody's playing. One night in The Metropole in New York, where the band plays from atop the bar, Johnny

RECORD RAMBLINGS

NEW YORK:

Eddie Deane and Russ Vincent, of United Artists Music Publishing, returned from lunch on Tues. (last) to find that some of the more powerful New York outlets have gone on UA's "I've Got My Own Thing Going" by Claire Francis and "Friday On My Mind" by the Easybeats. All of which was topped by the fact that Chita Rivera had done Eddie's song "Pow Pow" on the Merve Griffin TV'er the night before.

IF YOU ASK US. . . . That "West Vs. East Rivalry" article in last week's CB was composed, obviously, by an eastern propagandist; patronizing puff which failed to note that the ballgame began back in '60 with the likes of Phil Spector on 1st, Brian Wilson as bat boy and Lou Adler, Lee Hazelwood, and Snuff Garrett in the outfield. Current scoreboard shows (last week's CB chart) eight of the top 20 produced in L.A. (including the No. 1 and No. 2 singles) with five from N.Y. Puzzlement of the week from Indie promo pun-dit Tony Richland (currently heaving a deep Cy of gratitude to those who are programming Cy Coleman's Columbia LP "If My Friends Could See Me Now") who asks, "When the 'Stan Cornyn and Johnny Magnis Sing the Andy Wickham Songbook' is recorded, who'll write the iner notes?" ... A note of despair and affirmation from Derek Taylor, returned to flackland after dumping his publicity office—"a staff of five, two pills to stay awake twenty hours and one pill to sleep for four." At the finish he had the Beach Boys, Buffalo Springfield, Byrds, Chad and Jeremy, Mamas and Papas, Paul Revere and the Raiders, etc. "After honorably discharging my staff and dispatching my bewildered clients, I thought of going to Big Sur and writting a book about it all. But I kept slipping into clinches about rock 'n' roll—'a group was born when the canyons were green and the girls were golden'—in other words I had suffered definite brain damage. So I decided not to write a book, but to do nothing at all. I again got bored and what a dream it was when Ben Shapiro and Alan Pariser decided to hold a Monterey Festival of Pop on June 16, 17 and 18 and asked me to be publicity director—a new scene and yet an old one. My former secretary is back with me and we have promised each other we will watch out in case we get back into business. It embarrasses me. Do you think I need a phychiatrist?" ... Obviously the Hanson and Schwam office staff doesn't watch "Dating Game"—otherwise they would not have suggested that "Mel Carter will be the first performer to sing on the ABC-TV game show on April 8th"—Chris Montez did the same bit a couple of months back. ..

Don't look now, friend, but that object that looks like a spaceship hovering overhead may be just that—a spaceship. At least that's the impression one might get from listening to J. J. Valley on KVI-Seattle. Valley has been plying his listeners with information about flying saucers and extraterrestrial life. Some of the communications concerning life in other worlds are: there are about 450 space aliens from the Third Solar System living on the Earth. The inside of their spacecraft looks very much like our modern-day kitchen. These visitors from outer space are living and working among us, but prefer to remain anonymous. Valley interviewed a man, who claims he knows and is friendly with many of the citizens of the Third Solar System. He says a friend of his helped the crew of a friend of his helped the crew of a crashed flying saucer and stayed with them for a week. Through this friend, the man interviewed alleges that he came to know the extraterrestrial folk. Incidentally, it appears that the trip from the Third Solar System to Earth took approximately 20 years. Just a little longer than it takes to get crosstown in New York traffic.

Royalty has come to Cheetah, the "now" club, in the person of His Serene Highness Prince Robert de Rohan Courtany, Duke of Sabbasto, and Heir to the Eastern Roman Byzantine Empire. Prince Robert will be crowned in a regal ceremony to be held at Cheetah on Tuesday, April 11. WBAI-FM-New York is sponsoring the event, which will begin at 7:30 P.M. with a parade from Columbus Circle down Broadway, to Cheetah, where at 8 P.M., Prince Robert, in full regalia, will be proclaimed Emperor. The first act of the new Emperor will be to assign the Byzantine treasure, consisting of 160,000 pounds of pure yellow gold to the United States government, in thanks for the homeland that he has found in America. Admission to the court of honor, and a full night of fun and dancing at Cheetah, will be $5.00 per person or $8.00 per couple, with tickets available through WBAI or at the door.

"Jim Lowe's New York" will be broadcast over WNEW-New York beginning Monday, April 10. The program will be heard Monday through Friday from 8 P.M. to midnight. Jim Lowe will host the entire broadcast. He will be joined by newsmen John Laurence, Chip Cippola, Christopher Glenn, Stewart Klein, Steve Bell, and others. Rudy Ruderman will be editor and producer, and will coordinate reports from reporters covering the and producer, and will coordinate reports from reporters covering the city. The emphasis will be on live news reporting from the scene and interpretation of the news. All news broadcast during the four-hour program will be news as it is happening, not wrapups or rehash of old stories. To implement this policy, there will be no regularly scheduled newscasts between 8 P.M. and midnight. The news flow on a given evening will determine the amount of air time devoted to news. For example, if there is a major story, the four hours could be entirely news. If the evening is "slow," Jim Lowe will concentrate on entertainment and music.

If you're in business in Kansas City, Mo., don't be surprised if Gene Davis shows up with the coffee for your coffee break. The WDAF-Kansas City morning personality has been providing a free coffee break, compliments of the outlet, to a firm selected in a weekly drawing. Davis draws a card each week from those sent in by listeners employed in offices in the Kansas City area. He then goes to the chosen office to serve as personal host for the entire staff of the company. Davis recently hosted 50 employees of Trans World Airlines General Accounting Office, providing them with free coffee and sweet rolls. He also gave coffee and pastries to City National Bank's secretarial pool of 40 young ladies.

Dionne Warwick will sing one of the five nominated songs for the 39th Annual Awards Presentation of The Academy of Motion Pictures Arts and Sciences. The artist, making her first appearance on the "Oscarcast," will sing the title song from "Alfie," written by Hal David and Burt Bacharach. In other performances of nominated tunes, Jackie DeShannon will sing "My Wishing Doll" from "Hawaii," the Young Americans and Roger Williams will perform the title song from "Born Free," and John Davidson will sing "A Time For Love" from "An American Dream." Bob Hope will emcee the Monday, April 10 presentation from Santa Monica, California, Civic Auditorium, and the event will be telecast and broadcast, live and in color, over the combined facilities of the ABC TV and Radio Networks (10 P.M. to conclusion, Dionne Warwick will sing one of the Networks (10 P.M. to conclusion, EST). LITTLE GAMES (2:33) [Mills, ASCAP-Wienman] PUZZLES (2:01) [Yardbirds, ASCAP—Relf]

YARDBIRDS (Epic 10156)

"Little Games" is likely to prove a rocket to the top of the charts for the Yardbirds. The side is a methodic, thumping, Oriental-flavored, chant-like, rock romp and it should get plently of spins and sales. On the flip side, "Puzzles" offers more of the same.

I LOVE YOU MORE THAN WORDS CAN SAY (2:50) [East, Time, Redwal, BMI—Floyd, Jones]

LET ME COME ON HOME (2:53)
[East, Time. Redwal, BMI—Redding, Jones]

OTIS REDDING (Volt 146)

Otis Redding uncorks another deckful of soul as he moans and groans with a newie called "I Love You More Than Words Can Say." Look out for the songster to do his usual monster twin-market sales with this powerful side. "Let Me Come On Home" is an R&B throbber.

OUT OF LEFT FIELD (3:09) [Press BMI—Penn, Spooner]

IT CAN'T BE STOPPED (3:12)
[Pronto, Quinvy BMI—Greene, Greene]

PERCY SLEDGE (Atlantic 2396)

The consistency of Percy Sledge in the hitmaking scene should be proven once again as a result of this moaning blueser called "Out Of Left Field," R&B fans should flock for this one. Flip is another soul-filled moaner, called "It Can't Be Stopped."

I'M INDESTRUCTIBLE (2:27) [Ensign BMI—Millrose, Barkan]

AFTERTHOUGHTS (2:31) [E. H. Morris ASCAP-Leigh, DePaul] JACK JONES (Kapp 818)

Following "Lady," Jack Jones lets loose with another goldie, also destined to see Top 100 action Titled "I'm Indestructible," this one is a rhythmic, light-hearted romancer sure to be a favorite with middle-of-the-roaders. "Afterthoughts" is a misty ballad.

MY BABE (2:05) [Tallyrand, BMI-Diamond]

PUT MY MIND AT EASE (2:38) [Tallyrand, BMI—Diamond]

RONNIE DOVE (Diamond 221)

"My Babe" is a front running candidate for top chart honors and should be a big one for vet songster Ronnie Dove. The side is a rhythmic, up-beat, soulful effort. "Put My Mind At Ease" fills the flip side with a rhythmic, danceable ballad for the romantically inclined.

SHAKE A TAIL FEATHER (2:08) [Va-Pac, BMI—Hayes, Williams, Rice]

GOODNESS GRACIOUS (1:51)
[Papa Don, Aim, BMI—Schroeder, Oldham]

JAMES & BOBBY PURIFY (Bell 669)

James and Bobby Purify should have a fast trip to the top of the charts with "Shake A Tail Feather." The side is a fast, up-beat, rhythmic, driving, sometimes-frenetic, workout that should get plenty of spins. "Goodness Gracious" fills the flip side with smooth, melodic, bouncy tones in ballad form.

LITTLE BY LITTLE AND BIT BY BIT (1:58)
[Ensign BMI—Jessel, Grudeff]

BLESS YOUR HEART (2:54) [Wendy BMI-Drake, Stride, Easton]

RAY CHARLES SINGERS (Command 4096)

Longtime favorites with good music spinners and listeners, the Ray Charles Singers offer a ditty called "Little By Little And Bit By Bit," which should be in for good response. This one is a bright, sparkling bouncer with a highly appealing sound. "Bless Your Heart" is a tender

[Northern, ASCAP—Tepper, Bennett]

HOW BEAUTIFUL THE WORLD CAN BE (2:10) [Roncom, ASCAP—Zais]

PERRY COMO (RCA Victor 9165)

Stop! And Think It Over" might prove a fast rising chart-bound vehicle for vet songster Perry Como. The tune is a bright, sprightly, bouncy, up-beat, spring-flavored romp that is a strong contender for lots of airplay. A smooth melodic romancer on the flip, called "How Beautiful The World Can Be."

I GOT WHAT YOU NEED (2:24) [Mikim, BMI-Stevenson, Brown] SOMEONE LIKE YOU (2:43) [Mikim, BMI—Stevenson, Brown]

KIM WESTON (MGM 13720)

Kim Weston stirs up a heap of excitement in this MGM debut. Side to watch, "I Got What You Need," is a high-powered, pounding workout which is definitely worth a listen. "Someone Like You" is a sweet, sway-

THE BEAT GOES ON (2:50) [Chris-Marc, Cotillion, BMI-Bono] FREE FOR ALL (2:19) [Herbie Mann, ASCAP-Mann] HERBIE MANN (Atlantic 2399)

The Sonny & Cher smash gets a wild, way-out revamping in the capable hands of jazz favorite Herbie Mann. The flautist is in exceptionally fine fettle as he delivers an excellent instrumental interpretation of the tune. More fine jazz sounds in "Free For All."

I FOUND A RAINBOW (2:15) [Low-Twi, BMI—Whitley] DON'T CRY NO MORE (2:40) [Don, BMI-Malone] SWINGIN' MEDALLIONS (Smash 2084)

The smooth, swaying, steady sounds of "I Found A Rainbow" might easily put the Swinging Medallions on the top of the charts. The side is a delightful, whimsical, romantic romp that should get lots of spins. Over on the back, "Don't Cry No More" is a frantic, freaky, frenetic, thumping, driving, pulsating rock workout.

YOU DON'T KNOW LIKE I KNOW (2:05) [East—Cotillion BMI—Hayes, Porter]

YOU DON'T LOVE ME (1:55) [KimLyn ASCAP—Jacobs] STEVE ALAIMO (ABC 10917)

Steve Alaimo should have a real winner with this strong, driving, rocking, wailing, pulsating "You Don't Know Like I Know" venture. "You Don't Love Me" fills the back side with up-beat, up-tempo, rhythmic, brassy sounds that should also get a fair share of plays and spins.

WHY? (Am I Treated So Bad) (2:59) [Staple, BMI-Staple] I'M ON MY WAY (6:53) [Upam, BMI-Adderley, Jr.] "CANNONBALL" ADDERLEY (Capitol 5877)

After bouncing into the charts with "Mercy, Mercy, Mercy," Cannonball Adderley springs right back with another groovy jazz sound in "Why? (Am I Treated So Bad)." This one is a swinger that should equal his former activity. Flip is a lengthly, but wailing, set called "I'm On My Way."

PATTY CAKE (2:03) [T. M., BMI—Resnick, Levine] TAKE A CHANCE ON ME BABY (2:26) [McLaughlin, BMI-Lately] CAPITOLS (Karen 1534)

The Capitols have had chart success in the past and could zoom with their version of "Patty Cake." The old nursery rhyme gets a modern, throbbing packaging just right for the pop-R&B market. "Take A Chance On Me Baby" is an easy-moving swinger.

Newcomer Pick

YOU'RE THE LOVE (2:05) [Gomba BMI—Ross]
WHAT TO DO (1:50) [Gomba BMI—Ross]

SIXPENCE (Impact 1025)

The Sixpence are already getting plenty of action with this wild sound, and threaten to break out on a big scale with the tune. Side to watch, "You're The Love," is a throbbing, hard-driving rocker with strong hitsville potential. "What To Do" is a softer, less frenzied lid.

CAN'T SEEM TO MAKE YOU MINE (2:31)
[Neil, Purple Bottle BMI—Saxon]

DAISY MAE (1:55) [Neil BMI-Saxon]

SEEDS (GNP Crescendo 354)

The Seeds may blossom into a national attraction via this Crescendo effort called "Can't Seem To Make You Mine." The boys offer a pulsing, easy-paced session with a sound just freaky enough to make it. "Daisy Mae" features an old "Long Tall Sally" sound.

HEY, PUT THE CLOCK BACK ON THE WALL (1:50) [Chardon BMI—Bonner, Gordon]

THEY ALL GOT CARRIED AWAY (2:00) [Chardon BMI—Bonner, Gordon]

PARROTS (Mala 558)

Here's another strong version of "Hey, Put The Clock Back On The Wall," this time as served up by the Parrots. The thumpin', driving film theme could prove to be just the right vehicle for the group. "They All Got Carried Away" is a low-key psycher.

HIGH HEMLINES (2:47) [Melody Trails BMI—Moore]
LOVE IS EVERYWHERE (3:08) [Melody Trails BMI—Moore]

JERRY MOORE (Columbia 44072)

"High Hemlines" might easily put Jerry Moore high on the charts. The side is a slow, methodic, blues-toned, thumping ditty that should get plenty of spins and sales. On the flip, "Love Is Everywhere" is a shuffling, melodic, gentle ballad for the romance minded.

ROUGH DRIED WOMAN (PART 1) (2:22) [Su-Ma BMI—Clay, Williams, Earle]

ROUGH DRIED WOMAN (PART 2) (2:25) [Su-Ma BMI—Clay, Williams, Earle]

BIG MAC (Ronn 8)

Big Mac's "Rough Dried Woman" should get all kinds of exposure; it's a thumping, up-beat, driving, wailing, freaky, frenetic, blues-toned workout. The flip side holds more of the same.

I'M MAD (2:29) [Dynatone BMI—Brown]
TWO SIDED LOVE (3:00) [Dynatone BMI—Brown]
LEON AUSTIN (King 6093)

A smooth, bluesy, shuffler called "I'm Mad" might prove a chart-bound vehicle for soulful songster Leon Austin. The side is a sure-fire shot for R&B honors. On the other side, "Two Sided Love" offers an up-beat thumping workout.

THE GOLDEN ROAD (2:07)
[Ice Nine, BMI—McGannahan, Skjellyfetti]

CREAM PUFF WAR (2:25) [Ice Nine, BMI—Garcia]

GREATFUL DEAD (Warner Bros. 7016)

The Greatfut Dead may well be on the "Golden Road" to the top of the charts with this up-tempo, pulsating, thumping, rocking, driving, freaky venture. "Cream Puff War," on the flip, holds plenty of pulsating sound

Newcomer Picks

I'M TAKIN' IT HOME (2:47) [Meantime, Rambull, BMI—Carbone]
SHOW ME (3:40) [Meantime, Rambull, BMI—Carbone]

DOWN 5 (Parrot 320)

The Down 5 should be on the way up with this groovey, frenetic, wailing, rock chart contender called "I'm Takin' It Home." The side is a front runner for spins and sales. On the flip side, "Show Me" is a shuffling, tear-stained, bluesy romancer in ballad form.

ONLY ALL THE TIME (2:33) [Meager, BMI—Jackson, Fox] OH HOW I NEED YOU JOE (2:50) [Mitchell, ASCAP—Jerome]

PATTI AUSTIN (Coral 62518)

"Only All The Time" is likely to enjoy a speedy rise to the top of the record pile. The side is a strong, driving, pulsating R&B workout that may do big things for newcomer lass, Patti Austin. Over on the other side, "Oh How I Need You Joe" offers a bluesy ballad for the romance minded.

DON'T SAY YOU'RE SORRY (2:25) [Brent, BMI—Greer]
TINKLE TALK (2:17) [Brent, BMI—Romano]
SIXPENTZ (Brent 7064)

Newcomer group, the Sixpentz should have a groovey romp up the charts with "Don't Say You're Sorry." The lid is a bouncy, harmonic, rhythmic, danceable venture that is sure to find favor with the teens. "Tinkle Talk," on the back, is a smooth, easy going romancer.

YOU'RE GONNA BE MINE (2:07) [New Colony, BMI—Rice, Graffia] WOMAN (2:29) [New Colony, BMI—Kollenburg, McBride, Graffia]

NEW COLONY SIX (Sentar 1206)

The New Colony Six should have a winning side with this groovey, rhythmic swaying, up-beat, lighthearted romp called "You're Gonna Be Mine." The side is a sure-fire-prospect for plenty of spins and sales; it should be big with the teens. The back side is a bluesy, rocking, effort called "Woman."

IF I'M HURT YOU'LL FEEL THE PAIN (2:10) [VeeVee, BMI---Gaskins]

TOO YOUNG TO BE FOOLED (2:37) [VeeVee, BMI—Gaskins, Dixon, Gaskins]

The sister team of Barbara and Brenda makes a strong bid for national attention with "If I'm Hurt You'll Feel The Pain." Could be a lot of action in store for the girls as a result of this potent pulser. "Too Young To Be Fooled" is a slow-moving teen ballad.

THE BREADFRUIT TREE (2:05)
[Record Songs, ASCAP—Light, Davies, Drake]

LISTEN TO YOUR HEART (2:21)
[Multitone, ASCAP — Stillman, Peeters]

KISSIN' COUSINS' (Project 3)

The Kissin' Cousins make their singles debut on Project 3 with a charming deck yanked from their current album release. Top side, "The Breadfruit Tree," is a lilting sparkler just right for good music and stereo programming. "Listen To Your Heart, is a pretty ballad for the same audience.

MIRACLE WORKER (2:10) [Stone Canyon, BMI-Griffin, Gordon]

LOOKIN' SO MUCH BETTER (2:05) [Stone Canyon, BMI—Griffin, Gordon]

JAMES ARTHUR GRIFFIN (Viva 611)

Here's a deck by James Arthur Griffin, called "Miracle Worker," which bears attention. An easy-moving, metrical sound, this deck should meet with healthy consumer response. "Lookin' So Much Better" is a happy-sounding swinger.

SPRINGTIME (2:41) [Blackwood, BMI—Taylor]

KEEP ON TALKING RIVER (2:40) [Blackwood, BMI-Gorgoni, Taylor]

DOORWAY THROUGH (Minuteman 205)

"Springtime" is a highly pleasing, appealing folk-ish sound that could be the key for the Doorway Through. The timeliness of the deck gives it an excellent shot. "Keep On Talking River" is a slow, haunting ballad, also with a light folk flavor.

REVIEW ALBUM

POP PICKS

SPANISH MOONLIGHT—John Gary—RCA Victor LPM/LSP 3785

John Gary sings a group of Latin tunes. Included on the disk are the title track, "Spanish Moonlight," "You Belong To My Heart," and "Love Me With All Your Heart." The artist demonstrates his virtuosity in wide-range vocalizing and displays over-all musical excellence. The album could very well develop into a big winner.

HOTEL — Original Soundtrack — Warner Bros. W/WS 1682

The original soundtrack from the film "Hotel." Carmen McRae sings the main title song, "Hotel," as well as a new song composed especially for a nightclub sequence in the flick, "This Year." Johnny Keating composed the richly varied and lightly swinging score. The album should receive the approbation of film music fans.

TONY BENNETT MAKES IT HAPPEN—Tony Bennett—Columbia CL 2653/CS 9453

The ever-popular Tony Bennett has come up with a spirited package of pop ditties that could quickly establish itself as a solid chart contender. Backed by Marion Evans and his Orchestra, Tony offers "On The Sunny Side Of The Street," "Don't Get Around Much Anymore," "Can't Get Out Of This Mood," and "I Let A Song Go Out Of My Heart." Watch this one move.

FRESH CREAM—Cream—Atco 33-206 (SD)
Here's a sure-to-please offering of Blues and rock from England's Cream. The group includes Ginger Baker, Jack Bruce (on 6-string bass,) and Eric Clapton. Highlights of this outstanding set are: "I Feel Free," "Cat's Squirrel," "Sweet Wine," and "Toad." From beginning to end, this one is a powerhouse set that should see plenty of spins and sales. of spins and sales.

THE BOB CREWE ORCHESTRA PLAYS THE 4 SEASONS' HITS—Philips PHM 200-238/PHS 600-238

600-238

The lush 40-piece Bob Crewe Orchestra captures all the dynamic and vibrant vitality of the 4 Seasons' singing styles. Included on the album are "Big Girls Don't Cry," "Walk Like A Man," and "Dawn (Go Away)." The versatile Crewe coauthored five of the ten outings on the LP, and the package should attract a huge following.

(RINGLING BROS. AND BARNUM & BAILEY) CIRCUS SPECTACULAR — Merle Evans London Phase 4 SP 44095

Merle Evans leads the Ringling Bros. and Barnum & Bailey Circus Band through a generous selection of "Big Top" tunes on this festive LP. Handsomely packaged and complete with striking color photos of clowns, tigers, acrobats, etc., the set should provide hours of enjoyment for all those who have ever fallen under the spell of "the greatest show on earth".

MAKEBA IN CONCERT — Reprise MIRIAM R/RS 6253

R/RS 6253

Miriam Makeba is recorded live at New York's Philharmonic Hall at Lincoln Center. Included on the disk are "Mommy," "Click Song," and "Mas Que Nada." The artist demonstrates her versatility by performing tunes from South Africa, Portugal, and America. The entire package is filled with the singer's electricity, and the LP should be received with much enthusiasm.

RIOT ON SUNSET STRIP—Original Soundtrack-

RIOT ON SUNSET STRIP—Original Soundtrack-Tower T/TS 5065

The Standells, the Mugwumps, the Chocolate Watch Band, and Mom's Boys are all featured in this groovy original soundtrack package from the American International flick, "Riot On Sunset Strip". Among the numbers on the set are "Riot On Sunset Strip," by the Standells; "Sunset Sally," by the Mugwumps; "Don't Need Your Lovin'," by the Chocolate Watch Band; and Children In The Night," by Mom's Boys. Looks good.

RAVI SHANKAR IN NEW YORK—Ravi Shankar—World Pacific WP 1441/WPS 21441

This dynamic LP spotlights famed sitarist Ravi Shankar in a performance of three exotic Indian compositions. Assisted by Alla Rakha (on tabla) and Shyam But-Nagar (on tamboura), Shankar plays "Raga Bairaga," "Nata Bhariravi," and "Raga Marwa." Indian music is becoming increasing popular with American listeners, and this set should do a lot to help the cause along.

TAKE-OFFS AND PUT-ONS—George Carlin—RCA Victor LPM/LSP 3772
Comedian George Carlin launches an all-out attack on TV, "Top-40" radio and commercials. "Wonderful WINO" is a hilarious take-off on rapid fire Top-40 deejays. In "Daytime Television," Carlin assaults the quiz show mania, and "The Newcast" provides a wildly comic comment on hyperthyroid newsmen. The album is topical comedy at its best and should please a large and appreciative audience.

THE BRIGHT & THE BEAUTIFUL — Nelson Riddle—Liberty LRP 3508/LST 7508

Nelson Riddle presents a collection of good music sounds. Included on the LP are "A Time For Love," from the flick "An American Dream;" the theme from the film "The Sand Pebbles;" and "Thoroughly Modern Millie," from the movie of the same name. The arrangements are smooth and stylish, and the album should see lots of sales action.

JAZZ RAGA—Gabo Szabo—Impulse A/AS 9128
Gabor Szabo lends his sitar to a selection of jazz-oriented tunes. The artist wrote or coauthored seven of the eleven efforts. Included on the set are "Walking On Nails," "Search For Nirvana," and "Sophisticated Wheels." Szabo exhibits great artistry on the disk, and the LP is likely to become a popular sales item.

THE GRATEFUL DEAD—Warner Bros. W/WS

The Grateful Dead serve up a batch of rock ditties. Among the tracks are "Good Mornin' Little School Girl," "Sittin' On Top Of The World," and "New, New Minglewood Blues." The group's sound ranges from hard-driving to subdued, as the occasion warrants, and the set is likely to achieve a great deal of attention.

ALL—James Darren—Warner Bros. W/WS 1688
Veteran chanter James Darren serves up a tempting batch of pop tunes on his latest LP.
Among the numbers on the set are "A Man And A Woman," "My Cup Runneth Over," "This Is My Song," and "Since I Lon't Have You. Darren is really at the top of his form on this package, and it might prove to be a big winner for him.

Sensational new follow-up! greater than ever!

ALBUM REVIEWS

=POP BEST BETS=

THERE GOES MY EVERYTHING—Don Cherry—Monument MLP 8075/SLP 18075

Don Cherry in a bag of pop goodies. Included on the set are the title tune, "There Goes My Everything," "Lucky Old Sun," and "Serenade Of The Bells." The artist is at the top of his form on the LP, as he delivers his material with effortless ease. The album should please the chanter's many devotees.

FROST & FIRE—Watersons—Elektra EKL 321/EKS 7321

The Watersons perform a collection of ceremonial folk songs, which in the distant past were used to invoke the blessings of nature. The tunes deal with various rituals practiced by early man, including ceremonial dances and spectacles. Included on the disk are "The Holly Bears A Berry," "John Barleycorn," and "Wassail Song." The album should prove fascinating to many listeners.

BILLY BAXTER AND HIS CARNABY STREET VAUDEVILLE BAND—ABC ABC/ABCS 581
Billy Baxter and his Carnaby Street Vaudeville Band present a program dedicated to fun and good times. Examples of Baxter's humor are heard in "Three Meals A Day," (wherein he solves the world's labor problems); "I've Never Wronged An Onion," (why does it make me cry)? and "I've Never Seen A Straight Banana" (and who has?). The LP should romp its way to solid success.

SOMEWHERE, MY LOVE—Alberto Rochi—Audio Fidelity AFLP 2163/AFSD 6163
Romantic baritone Alberto Rochi sings a group of pop melodies. Among the offerings are the title tune, "Somewhere, My Love," which is Lara's theme from the flick "Dr. Zhivago," "I Don't Want To See Tomorrow," and "For Your Love I'd Wait A Lifetime." The artist displays a rich and robust voice, and the album should find favor in the marketplace.

THE CORRUPT ONES—Original Soundtrack—United Artists UAL 4158/UAS 5158
The original soundtrack from the flick "The Corrupt Ones." The film's title song, "The Corrupt Ones," is sung by Dusty Springfield. The music captures the excitement and derring-do of the movie, and the disk should catch the fancy of film music aficionados.

THE LONESOME RHODES—Sandy & Donna—RCA Victor LPM/LSP 3759
Sandy and Donna Rhodes offer a selection of pop outings. Among the tracks are "The Last Thing On My Mind," "I Can't Grow Peaches On A Cherry Tree," and "Nothin' But Heartaches Here." "The Lonesome Rhodes" is the artists' first album, and the talented duo creates a good deal of musical excitement. The LP should make many friends for Sandy and Donna.

MY LATIN MOOD—Emilia Conde—ABC/ABCS

On this, her debut album, talented songstress Emilia Conde presents a stirring selection of Latin ditties (plus a couple of recent U.S. hits), all sung in Spanish. Included in the set are "Campanitas De Cristal," "No Puedo Olvidar," ("Strangers In The Night") "La Sombra De Tu Sonrisa," ("The Shadow Of Your Smile") and many others. Could be a big one.

STEVE MASON SINGS CROSBY & COLUMBO—Mason MLP 1002
Steve Mason performs songs of the '20's and '30's in the style of Bing Crosby and Russ Columbo. The selections include "I Found A Million Dollar Baby," "A Good Man Is Hard To Find," and "Call Me Darling." The artist's rich baritone is aptly suited to his material, and the set should be popular with good music lovers everywhere.

JAZZ PICKS

TENNESSEE FIREBIRD—Gary Burton and Friends—RCA Victor LPM/LSP 3719

An interesting and effective blend of jazz and country sounds, this striking album by Gary Burton and Friends could win the approval of an extemely diverse audience. Alternately playing vibes, piano, and organ, Burton leads his group through twelve rousing instrumentals including "Gone," "Just Like A Woman," "I Can't Help It," and "Alone And Forsaken". Deserves close attention.

THE CHARLES McPHERSON QUINTET/LIVE!
—Charles McPherson Quintet—Prestige 7480
The Charles McPherson Quintet offers six soulstirring jazz numbers on their latest LP. Included in the set are "The Viper," "I Can't Get Started," "Shaw 'Nuff," "Here's That Rainy Day," "Never Let Me Go," and "Suddenly". Could be a lot of chart and sales action in store for this one. Don't let it out of your sight.

SIMPLICITY-Joe Pass-World Pacific

SIMPLICITY—Joe Pass—World Pacific WP 1865/WPS 21865
"Simplicity" is both the title and the theme of this light, easygoing set by jazz guitarist Joe Pass. Included in the package are "Nobody Else But Me," "The Sand Of Time," "Who Can I Turn To," "Where Was I (Donde Estuve Yo)", and seven others. Could be a big one here for Pass. Watch for it on the charts.

THE JODY GRIND—Horace Silver Quintet/ Sextet—Blue Note BLP 4250/84250
Popular jazz pianist Horace Silver has put together a powerful collection of self-composed numbers for his new LP. Included in the package are such groovy tracks as "The Jody Grind," "Mary Lou," "Mexican Hip Dance," and "Blue Silver". Should be a big demand for this one in the jazz marketplace. Keep close tabs on it.

BALLADES (COMPLETE) Moravec—Vanguard Connoisseur Society CM/CS

Pianist Ivan Moravec performs the four ballades of Chopin, which are comprised of "Ballade No. 1, In G Minor, Op. 23," "Ballade No. 2, In F Major, Op. 38," "Ballade No. 3, In A Flat Major, Op. 47," and "Ballade No. 4, In F Minor, Op. 52". Moravec gives illuminating interpretations of the pieces, and the LP should be sougth-after by lovers of classical music.

MAHLER: SYMPHONY No. 3—Haitink/Concertgebouw Orchestra—Philips PHM2-596/PHS2-

This lovely two-record set is devoted entirely to a performance of Gustav Mahler's powerful "Symphony No. 3". The work includes several vocal sections, and conductor Bernard Haitink and the Concertgebouw Orchestra of Amsterdam are assisted in their efforts by contralto Maureen Forester, the Women's Chorus of Amsterdam, and the Boy's Chorus of St. Willibrord's Church (Amsterdam). Classical fans should really appreciate this one. ciate this one.

Mercury Completes Biggest Singles Period

NEW YORK—Mercury Records has reported that it has just completed the biggest single hit sales period in its history. The company is looking forward to the second quarter of 1967 as a time of continued volume sales by established artists as well as a period of potential through several new acts.

by established artists as well as a period of potential through several new acts.

During the first quarter of 1967 Mercury and its affiliated labels' sales success was reflected in the charts by numerous hits. Among them: Lesley Gore's "California Nights;" "Pipe Dream" and "We Ain't Got Nothin' Yet" by the Blues Magoos; "I Dig You Baby" by Jerry Butler; and Keith's "98.6" and "Tell Me To My Face" all on the Mercury label. Smash scored with the Left Banke's "Pretty Ballerina" and "Walkin' In The Sunshine" by Roger Miller, while the New Vaudeville Band followed their Fontana Hit "Winchester Cathedral" with "Peek-A-Boo." On Philips the 4 Seasons continued their string of hits with "Beggin'" and Dusty Springfield and Brian Hyland respectively had "I'll Try Anything" and "Hung Up In Your Eyes."

In the ensuing months the Mercury family of labels, according to vice president and director of recorded product, Charles Fach, will continue a program of launching "new faces" and "new sounds" to continually augment its roster of hit producing attractions. Fach named several acts that he feels have hit potential: Lori Burton, Margie Hendrix, the Riddles, and B. Bumble and the Stingers.

On the Smash and Fontana labels Fach noted the promising R & B reaction to "Walkin' The Floor Over You" by James Phelps produced by Bobby Miller for Fontana in Chicago and "Beg Me", an Artie Kornfeld find with the Five Card Stud, debuting on Smash.

Three groups recording under the Philips banner are slated, Fach feels, to join that label's other chart climbing artists. The Millionaires, produced by Bunny Jones and Mel Lasky are in the Shingaling bag with their rendition of "A Rather Hip Shing" while action grows on the Alouette Productions, "Coconut Grove" by the Dirty Shames and strong reaction has come in on "Most Peculiar Man," a Paul Simon tune produced by Artie Kornfeld with the Cowsills, an act of four brothers from Rhode Island ranging in age from 10 to 18.

Silvers Appointed To MTA Exec Post

NEW YORK—Bob Thompson, vice president of MTA Records, has announced the appointment of Howard L. Silvers as national sales manager for the label. In his new capacity, Silvers will head the company's national sales program from the home office as well as maintaining a personal contact with distributors and dealers over the country.

A native of Baltimore, Silvers began in the industry in 1958 and since that time has worked from both the distributor and manufacturing ends of the business. His distributor experience resulted from his affiliation with Musical Sales Distributing Company in Baltimore as sales manager; his label experience was with Mercury Records as regional sales manager and national promotion manmanager and national promotion man-

Seminary Students Work & Sing Vs. Anti-Poverty

NEW YORK—St. Louis has an unusual hit group. They are called the Montfort Singers, all members of which attend the Montfort Seminary at St. Louis University. Besides attending to their studies, the quintet is very active in the anti-poverty and civil rights movement in the St. Louis area. It is these activities that gave birth to an LP recording venture by the students tieing-in directly with their social consciousness. According birth to an LP recording venture by the students tieing-in directly with their social consciousness. According to Father Patrick J. Berkery, the students' guiding light, the LP has sold 4000 copies in the city at $3.79 in mono, $4.49 in stereo. The songs are of an inspirational nature and were mostly penned by members of the group, with assistance by at least 50 other seminary students.

Artwork on the album, called "There'll Come A Day," one of the songs in the collection, consists of a montage of photos depicting scenes from the poverty stricken area where the students work. In fact, the name of the label, Glasgow, is taken from a street in the neighborhood. In addition to the album, a single of two cuts from the LP, "Poor Man" and "Everything's Just Fine," is also available.

The students will finish their studies in four years. The Montfort Missionaries were founded in 1705 to work with the poor, and 26 Montfort seminarians continue this work in St. Louis today.

are serving as co-chairmen for the event.

Feature of the evening's program will be the presentation by General James Van Fleet of a Commendation on behalf of the Bedside Network to Martha Raye for her outstanding services to the U.S.

A "Generals Salute to the Wounded Veteran" is scheduled that evening, with Generals J. Lawton Collins, Lucius Clay and William Eckert (now commissioner of baseball) participating on the committee.

Prominent in the planning for the 1967 Ball are committee chairmen Thelma Ritter, Reception; Howard Cosell, Sports; Bess Myerson and Mimi Benzell, Radio-TV; George Marek, vice-president RCA Records, Music Industry; and Joseph Cates, Theatre. Theatre.

The Bedside Network, organized in 1948, was recently the recipient of a Citation from the American Legion for its rehabilitation oriented program on behalf of over 200,000 hospitalized veterans in over 100 hospitals across the nation. Volunteers from the entertainment and communications fields make weekly visits with scripts, music and professional skills to help produce the programs with the patients who are the actual performers. The taped programs are then broadcast in the hospital to the pa-

Plan TV Exploitation Films For Disk Artists

BEVERLY HILLS-Lennie Weinrib and Randy Van Horne have teamed in a venture to produce films for use in exploiting recording artists and songs on TV. Weinrib will write-produce-direct, Van Horne will score 16 mm. films as ordered by recording companies, talent agencies, managers and others involved with recording artists. Films will be 3 minutes in length, and are intended for free distribution to local TV stations and to network programs. Artists being exploited in the films will not perform, but will be photographed in varying situations, while their current recordings are being heard in the background.

Imagine that all music suddenly has ceased to exist. Composers have stopped creating. Musicians are silent. The phonograph record is gone. People have stopped singing. A universal language has disappeared in the flash of a moment.

All over the world, the blow is shattering. In the United States the economic loss is beyond belief. 5,000 radio stations, deprived of the majority of their programing, are reducing their schedules or going off the air. Television producers are converting every existing program and every commercial with music to straight talk. Many sponsors are simply cancelling. The juke box is extinct. The recording industry has closed down. The music instrument manufacturing business is obsolete. 13,700,000 children who have been studying music no longer have any use for pianos or violins or woodwinds. The country's 1,385 symphony orchestras and 782 opera producing groups have disbanded. Most nightclubs, theaters, dance halls, concert halls, ballrooms have shuttered their windows. Hundreds of thousands of people who earn their living because of music are now unemployed. The tax loss is incalculable.

A fantasy? Yes, but it makes a point. Music is vitally important in all our lives, in terms of sheer economics as well as of culture.

We are proud that BMI, together with our thousands of affiliated writers and publishers, is one of the many organizations which play a role in supporting and fostering the miracle of music.

If yesterday had been the day music stopped, you wouldn't be hearing about it from us. BMI wouldn't be in business. Nor, possibly, would you.

All the worlds of music for all of today's audience.

The Grateful Dead have provided Warner Bros. with an album which was produced by Dave (Electric Prunes) Hassinger, and will be the subject of a major consumer and press marketing campaign.

An additional album in the Reprise release includes "Don Randi Live On The Sunset Strip," an LP recorded by producer Dick Glasser at Sherry's, a club where Randi has been the star pianist for the past eight years.

The company is also rushing in this release an album by The Harper's Bizarre who currently are high on the charts with their hit single, "59th Street Bridge."

Epic Pushes Szell Product, Releases Final Mozart Volume

NEW YORK—Epic Records has announced that a major sales and promotion emphasis will be placed on the label's catalog of over 50 recordings by George Szell and the Cleveland Orchestra during the month of April. In conjunction with this campaign, Epic is releasing a specially priced three-record set, "Three Favorite Beethoven Symphonies," with George the Szell conducting Cleveland Orchestra.

These three popular works, Symphony No. 5 in C Minor, Symphony No. 6 in E Major, and Symphony No. 9 in D Minor, will be offered at the suggested list prices, $9.59 monaural and $11.59 stereo. In April, Epic will also make available "Three Favorite Beethoven Symphonies" on 3-1/3 i.p.s. tape, which will carry the suggested list price of $11.59.

Also in April, Epic is releasing the fourth and final set of Mozart concertos played by pianist Lili Kraus, "Mozart: Piano Concertos, Vol. IV," with Stephen Simon conducting the Vienna Festival Orchestra. The four three-record packages present the complete piana concertos of Mozart.

ABC Offers Six LP's

NEW YORK—ABC Records has released six new albums on its affiliated labels, three on ABC, one on Impulse, one on Dunhill, and one on 20th Century-Fox. All are distributed by ABC Records. Current promo activities are labeled "March into Spring."

Two of the disks present new concepts and new sounds. One of these is "A Touch Of Greece" by Nick Demetrius and the Athenian Forum. This is one of the first collections to integrate the Greek musical sound into popular American music, and contains top chart hits employing Greek instrumentation. The second concept is called "Thoroughly Modern" by Bob Thiele and his New Happy Times Orchestra. This is the first recording by Thiele, ABC's director of A&R, as an artist. Thiele conceived and recorded the album, based on the sound of the Twenties and Thirties, incorporating the rhythmic patterns of today. Two songs by Teresa Brewer are featured, as are two by Steve Allen as a vocalist. Frankie Laine's first album for ABC follows up his hit single and carries the same title, "I'll Take Care Of Your Cares". Frankie Laine performs a lilting, softly swinging collection of rhythmic tunes featuring electric guitar and fender bass. His newest single, "Making Memories", was taken from this album.

The one Impulse release is the label's first metion victures cound.

"Making Memories", was taken from this album.

The one Impulse release is the label's first motion picture sound-track—"Sweet Love, Bitter", starring Dick Gregory, Don Murray, and Diane Varsi. The music is composed and played by Mal Waldron and a group of outstanding jazz musicians. Dunhill offers "The Dis-Advantages of You", by the Brass Ring, tagged for their current hit single, based on the popular TV commercial theme. As in its previous albums, the Brass Ring includes a number of motion picture themes including, "The Sand Pebbles", "Born Free", "A Man And A Woman", as well as other songs.

"In Like Flint" is the 20th Century-Fox Records release, distributed by ABC Records. This is the newest 20th motion picture soundtrack from the flick etarging Lower Coloury with

London 'Circus' LP In Ringling Tie-In

NEW YORK—The circus is coming to town and London Records is ready with one of its most ambitious Phase 4 issues to date, "Circus Spectacular."

Nearly a year in preparation, the set is titled "Circus Spectacular" and is the only album of authentic, live circus sounds and music ever to receive official endorsement and sanction by "the Greatest Show on Earth," the Ringling Brothers-Barnum and Bailey

Ringling Brothers-Barnum and Baney Circus.

Release on Tuesday (4) has been set to coincide with the 1967 New York opening of impresario John Ringling North's famed three-ring spectacular. The book-fold package, representing nearly an hour from a complete circus performance, contains a six-page, bound-in booklet with full-color photos of all the star performers and a running text, carefully geared

Recorded in various locations, the album itself features musical director
Merle Evans, the circus maestro for 50 years, leading the band in all the familiar marching and background music for the acts. The introductions to the acts, the roar of the animals, and the acclaim of the crowds were taped during an actual tent performance. Additional sounds of sideshows, complete with barkers, were recorded with wireless mikes in the lower sideshow areas of Madison Square Garden in New York. Evans himself flew to England to baton the recording there of the actual band music.

London is planning an all-out promotion drive on the new "Circus Spectacular" LP which will incorporate a close working liaison with the promo, exploitation, and advertising forces of the circus itself. Joint promotion will be carried out in every city on the circus' itinerary for the next 11 months. During each performance clowns will parade through the ring from time to time carrying "sandwich" signs advertising the album, which will be on sale by vendors at each and every performance.

Evans, as well as many of the "Greatest Show's" clowns and star attractions, are to make numerous radio and television appearances in the tour cities to plug the album. Circus people will make many personal appearances in leading record stores as well.

sonal appearances in leading record stores as well.

On the merchandising side, London has prepared a 36-in-high mobile in the likeness of a clown with a flashing red bulb for a nose. In New York, a number of leading stores have already set window displays, featuring the clown mobile and album covers. Giant wall hangers and streamers have also been prepared, and London has scheduled a recordbreaking distribution of albums for stereo radio and in-store demonstration use.

'WHAT MONTH WERE YOU BORN'—Kelli Ross and Art Wayne of Alouette Productions have announced plans to release a "new concept" in a comedy LP entitled "What Month Were You Born?," which will be a comical look at the horoscope. The set is due in 2-weeks on the Fontana label. The writer/performers of the set are shown above: (from left) Dorothy Van, Johnny Melfi, and Jim Evering. Kelli Ross and Art Wayne, producers of the album balance out the photo on the right.

The Alouette publishing compound (consisting of: Sheenteen Music, Pawnbroker Music, Bonjour Music, Josco Music, Buffee Music, Lillimar Music, Earth Music, Enchanted Music and Jenny Music) is doing well with the currently charted "California Nights" and forthcoming releases by Keith, Tony Bennett, Robert Goulet, Ramsay Lewis, the Tremeloes, Miriam Makeba, and Ray Charles. The year-old firm is also in the process of servicing A&R men and deejays with Janis Ian's latest Verve/Folkways LP in advance of her sked'ed appearance with Leonard Bernstein on the maestro's CBS-TV special late in Apr.

Alouette has assigned part of its roster to be produced by Al Brown, Sammy Lowe, and Bob Halley for Smash, Philips, Kapp, Diamond, and Columbia. Wayne is currently setting other production deals involving records, commercials, and TV.

The affair will start with a cocktail reception and dinner on Monday evening, followed by an all-day meeting Tuesday. The sessions are held annually at the opening of the firm's new fiscal year.

Tuesday. The sessions are not nually at the opening of the firm's new fiscal year.

During the meeting, new product in both singles and LP areas will be unveiled and new sales programs will be announced. A recap of last year's business is scheduled, as well as a budget projection for the new 1967-1968 fiscal year.

NEW VAUDEVILLE GOLD—The New Vaudeville Band showed up recently on the Mike Douglas TV'er to receive dual Gold Record awards for their "Winchester Cathedral" single and LP. The Fontana single became eligible for the award after it was certified by the RIAA as having sold more than a million units. The LP was confirmed a million-dollar seller.

Capitol LP Promo: Spring Is Something To Sprout About

HOLLYWOOD - "Something to Sprout About" is the theme of the first half of Capitol's 60-day spring promotion campaign, which gets underway today (3) with the distribution of nearly a quarter of a million seed packets to dealers and the release of the label's April pop album

The second half of the campaign will have as its theme "Pick a Spring Bouquet of Hits," and will be launched to coincide with the release of Capitol's May album product.

During the 60-day campaign, nearly a half-million of the seed packets will be given away, along with a special "flower pot counter dispenser" that holds 24 of the packets. Seeds inside the packet are mixed annuals, an assortment that will grow almost anywhere in the U.S. Pictured on the back of the packets are photos of the six albums involved in the April promotion: "Aloha From Tennessee Ernie Ford"; "A Taste Of Brass," Jackie Gleason; "On The Move," by Sandler & Young; "Stan Kenton Plays For Today"; "Sincerely," by Nat King Cole; and "From Germany With Love," by the Botho Lucas Choir.

The six LP's are also affixed to Capitol's "Something to Sprout About" display. The wire rack being used in the 60-day campaign is newly designed with replaceable display fixtures. At the end of April, a new centerpiece and theme for the display will be provided.

At that time, the six new albums in the campaign will also be displayed on the rack, and an additional 250,000 seed packets will be shipped. The May albums in the campaign are: "Extra albums in the campaign are: "Extra Special," by Peggy Lee; "Hearts Were Full Of Spring," by the Lettermen; "Too Much," by Lou Rawls; "Just For Now," by Nancy Wilson; "Buck Owens And His Buckaroos In Japan"; and "Song Of The Year—Woyne Nowton Style" Wayne Newton Style".

Other materials in the campaign include streamers and hanging mobiles, one set for each month. Copy on the first streamer reads, "Get your free flower seeds here"-followed by the artists' names.

Other New Releases

In addition to the albums mentioned above, Capitol also has a wide variety of other packages, all set for release

New pop LP's on the Cap label inlude: "Invitation To The Movies," by Matt Monro; "Hello Solly," an original cast recording of the latest Yiddish comedy production by Mickey Katz; "The Outsiders-In," by the Outsiders; "The Beatles Songbook, Vol. 4," by the Hollyridge Strings; "A Man And A Woman," by Laurindo Almeida; "The Best Of The Four Preps"; and "The Best Of Andy Capitol's country and western catalog has five new additions: "I'm A Lonesome Fugitive," by Merle Haggard; "America's Most Wanted Band," by Buck Owens' Buckaroos; "Need You," by Sonny James; "Burning Bridges," by Glen Campbell; and "Reckless Love Affair," by Wanda Jackson.

A five-album tour of Germany, Austria, and Switzerland is featured in Capitol's new "Capitol of the World" release. The release includes: "Wiedersehn Mit Marlene," by Marlene Dietrich; "Music Of The Swiss Alps"; "Austrian Folk Favorites"; "Music For A Trip On The Danube"; and "From Germany With Love," by

New additions to the label's "Capitol Classics" series include the first 'pop"-oriented album by tenor Franco Corelli and a set by the Pittsburgh Symphony, conducted by William Steinberg, featuring Ravel's "Bolero" and other "good-time" classical pieces.

On Capitol's Angel label are five new albums: a package of Donizetti and Bellini duets performed by soprano Mirella Freni and tenor Nicolai Gedda; a set of English tone poems performed by the London Symphony, Conducted by Sir John Barbirolli; an LP containing two solo cantatas by Bach, sung by mezzo-soprano Janet Baker with the Ambrosian Singers and the Bach Festival Orchestra, Yehudi Menuhin conducting; a program of violin concertos by Bach and Vivaldi, with violinist Nathan Milstein and the Baroque Ensemble; and "Herman Prey Sings Famous Folk Songs," by baritone Herman Prey, with members of the Graunke Symphony Orchestra, conducted by Willi Mattes.

Three new LP's have been added to Capitol's Melodiya/Angel series. Pianist Grigory Sokolov performs Tchai-kovsky's "Piano Concerto No. 1," with the U.S.S.R. Symphony, conducted by Neimye Yarvy; Mezzo-so-prano Larissa Avdeyeva is featured in a recording of Prokoviev's "Alexander Nevsky"; and Yevgeny Svetlanov conducts the chorus and orchestra of Radio Moscow (with soloists) in an album of highlights from Rimsky-Korsakov's opera, "Mlada".

New Tape Release

Included in Capitol's April tape release are five new single pack 8-track stereo tape cartridges: "Georgy Girl," by the Seekers; "Lady Godiva, by Peter & Gordon; "The Best Of The Kingston Trio, Volume 3"; "Portrait Of My Love," by the Lettermen; and "Brighten The Corner," by Ella Fitzgerald.

New additions to Capitol's 334 i.p.s. reel-to-reel stereo tape catalog include: "Georgy Girl," by the Seekers; "Open Up Your Heart/Together ers; "Open Up Your Heart/Together Again," by Buck Owens; and "The New Beatles Songbook/Oldies But Goldies," by the Hollyridge Strings.

Completing Capitol's new tape release is a 7½ i.p.s. reel-to-reel stereo recording of Thaikovsky's "D-Major Violin Concerto," performed by violinist Igor Oistrakh and The Moscow Philharmonic under the direction of David Oistrakh.

The state of the s TALENT ON STAGE

BOBBY DARIN

NEW YORK—Artists who attempt to make hay with a Jack-of-All-Trades approach usually end up as master of none as far as their audiences are concerned. But, Bobby Darin pulled it off at his recent opening at the Copa. Darin's combo of song, comedy and patter is impressive and, more important, pro showmanship. As a singer, he has mastered the craft of taking on all types of tunes, from folk-rock (e.g. his hit, "If I Were a Carpenter") to Tin Pan Alley romanticising (e.g. "I've Got You Under My Skin"). One would assume that he's treading on the brink of boredom by moving into a mimic stanza. But, the segment is an uncanny demonstration of the subtlest nuances of the likes of W. C. Fields, Dean Martin, Robert Mitchum, Cary Grant, among others. Variety is definitely the spice of Darin's current nitery routine. Instead of leaving his audience flat, the Atlantic disk star shines each new revelation of his remarkable dimensions as an artist. A most talented fella.

PETER, PAUL & MARY

NEW YORK—Peter, Paul and Mary, Warner Bros. recording artists, took Carnegie Hall by storm last Friday (24). Before a huge and enthusiastic throng, the trio demonstrated the reasons for their prominence on the folk Displaying brisk professionalism, the artists zipped through song after song, giving the audience more than its money's worth. Peter, Paul and Mary acknowledged their debt to Bob Dylan by singing four of his compositions: "When The Ship Comes In," with which the trio opened the program; "Don't Think Twice;" "The Times They Are A-Changin'." and Times They Are A-Changin';" and "Blowin' In The Wind," which served as an encore.

Peter, Paul and Mary each performed solo turns during the evening. Paul sang a tune he composed about the house which he had offered up for sale; Peter rendered "Weep For Jaime," a tragic, haunting song he Jaime," a tragic, haunting song he wrote which describes a girl's reaction to her father's death; and Mary delivered two romantic melodies.

The trio offered a number of their old standbys, "The Lemon Tree,"

"Puff, The Magic Dragon," and "If I Had A Hammer." They also presented their latest single, "Hurry Sundown."

Peter, Paul and Mary evinced the smooth, effortless technique which puts them miles ahead of the field. They are a joy to see and hear.

JOHN GARY

NEW YORK—Easter Week in New York was a music arts here York was a music arts happening, and one of the most pleasant was John Gary's two-a-day at Carnegie Hall last Monday (27) afternoon and Possessing one of the most unusual pop vocal ranges, Gary gave an appreciative afternoon audience of at least three generations of female ad-mirers fine singing and sincere and often humorous patter. Vocally, he was "Warm & Willing," which is one of the songs he has made his own. In essence, his concert act retains most of the elements of his nitery efforts. His ballad style is pure and individual, including that effortless falsetto technique, which Gary. fortunately, doesn't let get out of hand. Some of the RCA Victor artist's strongest mo-ments are readings of "The Impos-sible Dream," "Sunrise, Sunset," "Un-chained Melody" "She Loves Me" and "Danny Boy," all the more touching with a son-going-to-war intro. A stint with guitarist Tony Mottola offers intimate renditions of "The Shadow of Your Smile" and "The Most Beautiful Girl in the World."

Gary apologized for using a somewhat cumbersome mike. It was a recording mike for an eventual "live" LP of either the afternoon or evening performance. Gary has already cut 13 LP's for RCA (his latest, "Spanish Moonlight") over the past three years.

HUGH MASEKELA

HOLLYWOOD — If we accept the thesis that what's currently occurring on this western front is a prefiguration for other areas, then this Zulu warrior could eventually outflank the nation. (And who knows-tomorrow the world?). His first LP for MGM ("The Americanization of High Masekela") was a word of ears and mouth happening here just about a year ago. His second ("Hugh Masekela's Second Album") continued to disperse the gospel in L.A. and then S.F. Now he's on Chisa, a new locally based label headed by Stu Levine and Larry Spector, with his latest LP a current coast jazz best seller ("The Emancipation of Hugh Masekela"), a title concerned with musical rather than freedom This abbreviated booking at the Whisk-a-Go-Go, sandwiched between Anthony and the Imperials and the Temptations is strange. But no less than Masekela's music. Masekela himself with his ornamental triplets set Temptations is strange. But no less than Masekela's music. Masekela himself, with his ornamental triplets set against the rhythms of the congas, is not that radical a trumpeteer. Occasionally gutteral, always showy, he could well fit into the Ellington organization or any fine jazz bandakind of Cootie Williams, though with less prodigious range. And, like all eloquent jazz performers, his solos first punctuate the theme, then enlarge upon and extemporize the message. His vocal efforts, particularly with the traditional African songs, are delightful if not outstanding. It's the background rhythms that make the difference, the work of Big Black on congas, Chuck Carter on drums, John Cartwright on bass and Charlie Smalls at the piano that put the Johannesburg in its jazz and the unique in the unconforming results. Chisa, we are told, cannot literally be translated into English. The word, loosely defined, means something that loosely defined, means something that is quite marvelous and slightly out of this world. In this world of teenybopper talents, maestro Masekela comes awfully close to delivering that delineation.

MAHALIA JACKSON

NEW YORK—Before a sparse audience at Philharmonic Hall on the evening of Easter Sunday (26), Mahalia Jackson, Columbia recording artist, performed a selection of the gospel songs for which she is famous. Although the artist displayed fitful flashes of power, her performance was somewhat subdued. This was perhaps due to the fact that the singer has been ill of late.

On those occasions when Miss Jackson's songs caught fire, the audience joined in with rhythmic handclapping. But these bursts of enthusiasm were of short duration, and the excitement that the artist usually creates was lacking.

The United Nations Jazz Choir rendered a group of international folk songs during the first half of the program. The Choir gave a spirited if somewhat unpolished performance.

CHECKMATES LTD.

HOLLYWOOD — Following word of mouth from Vegas that the Checkmates were "explosive" in their mates were "explosive" in their month ago engagement there, the fivesome were no less fulminating in their bang-up engagement this past week at Ciro's. Musically they are virtually on a par with their visual impact. Which is to say that in both departments they are compelling, original, soulfully artistic and excitatory. Offering a variety of rhythms in their 45 minute stint at the newly re-established strip emporium, and taking turns on drums, they are marvelously choreographed, quicksilver in concept, offering conclusive evidence that the years have been well spent in developing the intense avalanche upon their audience's visual and auditory senses.

FUGS

NEW YORK—The Fugs are not really musicians. It is true that they play and sing a rather crude variety of rock music, but that does not appear to be their main concern. No, judging by their performance Tuesday night, Mar. 28, at the Players Theatre in Greenwich Village, their chief interest is, to put it as nicely as we can, total freedom of expression.

Imagine, if you will, a young man with long, thick, bushy hair, uncombed and shaking like a fright wig whenever he moves. Imagine his clothes: a multi-colored sport shirt, a silver-gold vest, unpressed black pants and dusty white shoes. Imagine him singing numbers with such titles as "The Slum Goddess From The Lower East Side" and "Kill For Peace," shouting four-letter words, wiggling and jiggling and toying with the microphone. Imagine—but surely this is enough. We give you Ed Sanders, leader of the Fugs. Ed Sanders, leader of the Fugs.

Not wishing to be hypocritical, we will not condemn Sanders and his group on moral grounds. Our objections are purely aesthetic. Jokes and gestures that seem riotously funny at a poker party or in a smoking room do not necessarily provide material for a good stage performance. And if the Fugs are serious, if they are attempting, as we said in the first paragraph, "total freedom of expression," then we feel that they are simply on the wrong track. the wrong track.

JA Re-Inks Caiola

NEW YORK-United Artists Records nas re-signed Al Caiola, one of the world's foremost popular instrumental artists. The new pact is the third exclusive three-year deal with UA by Caiola. At the same time, Stewart announced that Caiola had completed nis chores as featured soloist for the soundtrack of the new Bob Hope film, Eight On The Lam," with music composed and conducted by George Romanis, and co-starring Phyllis Diler, Jonathan Winters, Shirley Eaton and Jill St. John.

For the past eight years, Al Caiola, rifted guitarist-conductor-arranger, nas issued some thirty albums and sixty singles, which have been popular not only in the United States, but in Europe, Japan and South America. His single platters of "The Magnifient Seven" and the "Bonanza" themes were big successes.

Caiola's next disks for UA will be nder the aegis of the label's new A&R chieftan, Henry Jerome.

Imperial Offers 3 LP's

LOS ANGELES-A trio of albums by major artists comprises a new Imperial dealer program, underway immediately through April 30, with terms available from Imperial distri-terms available from Imperial distributors.

Vocalist Jackie DeShannon's "New Image" highlights the single "Come On Down," as well as "The Wishing Doll," which the thrush will sing at next month's televised Academy Award presentations.

Slim Whitman, C&W artist, is showcased via his "15th Anniversary Album," which features new performances of sixteen of his tunes in a deluxe double cover package, complete with a series of candid photos reprinted on the inside.

Imperial's fourth Frank Pourcel LP, "A Man And A Woman," is the third set in the dealer program.

Madame Berberian In American Tour

CHICAGO—Confirmation of an American visit and concert tour by Madame Cathy Berberian has been received at Fontana's executive offices. The American born operatic soprano, who has recorded interpretations of Beatle tunes, has lived in Europe since 1950. She arrives April 5 in Los Angeles. She will appear at U.C.L.A. and other colleges in the Los Angeles, San Francisco and San Diego areas.

Madame Berberian is also scheduled for an appearance at Ravinia Park in suburban Chicago. She then plans a visit to New York City where her parents live.

Her Fontana LP, containing twelve Beatle songs is titled "Revolution."

Capitol Cartridge Players: Fast-Forward Ejection

HOLLYWOOD—Two new tape cartridge players from Capitol Records offer "revolutionary" advancements in playback, according to Oris Beucler. special products manager of Capitol Records Distributing Corp. The units the "Apollo" (CC895), a self-contained system that will list for $298.95, and the "Satellite" (CD885), a playback deck which will list for $149.95, will be available on April 15.

Developed jointly by Capitol engineers and Universal Tapedex Corp. of Van Nuys, Calif., the players offer features that cannot now be found on any other model in the industry: A) Fast-forward selectivity. By pressing a "Fast-Forward" button, a silence-sensing device automatically locates the beginning of the next selection.

B) Eject-a-matic operation. This feature automatically pushes the cartridge away from the tape playing heads when the machine is shut-off, thus eliminating the major reason for tape and machine damage.
In addition, both sets also offer "Vertical Tracking," a process that Capitol says virtually eliminates cross-talk. "Automatic Off" and "Replay" buttons give the listener a choice of continuous play or an automatic shut-off after the last selection. This feature eliminates the problem This feature eliminates the problem of having to start a tape in the middle of a selection—a desirable feature for classical and spoken-word cartridges.

RIAA Show Due At NAB's Chi Confab

NEW YORK—The Record Industry Association of America (RIAA) is sponsoring a talent presentation at this week's convention of the National Association of Broadcasters (NBA) in Chicago. Event will take place on Monday (3) in the Grandballroom of the Hilton Hotel, scene of the confab. at 4 p.m. Some 1500 radio execs will be entertained by Eddy Arnold (RCA), Pat Cooper (UA), Donna Lee (Columbia), Boots Randolph (Monument) and Jean Paul Vignon. The RIAA show is called "Record Stars & Radio," and will be emceed by Henry Brief, exec secretary of the association.

Columbia Issues Sting-Ray Single

Columbia Records has just released "Come Out A Fool," the debut single by the Sting-Rays of Newburgh. The recording was produced by Howard Roberts, producer, Columbia Records popular artists and repertoire.

"Come Out A Fool" will be officially introduced by The Sting-Rays when they appear at J. C. Penney's Mid-Valley Mall store in their hometown. Newburgh, New York, on April 8. They will autograph copies of their record and greet their fans. This appearance is the first in a series of similar visits to all of the J. C. Penney stores along the east coast.

Although The Sting-Rays of Newburgh are just beginning their recording career, they are established in other areas of the show-business world. They have performed at such New York resort spots as Grossinger's and The Concord, and they have appeared in New York City at The Bitter End. In addition, they are featured in the radio commercial for Life Savers Sours.

WB/Reprise Joins Playtape System

BURBANK—The entire Warner Bros. and Reprise record libraries are being converted to the play tape two-track cartridge system, according to a joint announcement made by Frank Stanton, president of Play Tape, and J. K. Maitland, president of Warner Bros. Records ton, president of Play Tape, and J. K. Maitland, president of Warner Bros. Records.

The addition of these two major labels brings the number of record company catalogs in the Play Tape family of music to 20. Play Tape now has well over 1,000 different selections in its total inventory.

Represented in the new acquisition are such artists as Frank Sinatra, Dean Martin, Sammy Davis, Jr., Buddy Greco, Allan Sherman, Bill Cosby, Connie Stevens, Peter, Paul and Mary, Petula Clark, Trini Lopez, Anita Kerr, Don Ho, the Mojo Men, Harpers Bizarre, the Tokens, James Darren, the Electric Prunes, the Grateful Dead, and the Kinks.

Commenting on the association, J. K. Maitland declared, "Warner Bros. expects to be part of the rapidly expanding home entertainment market. We recognize that it is a burgeoning one, taking on many facts. Play Tape is one of the modern, forward-looking companies who are part of the 'new' entertainment industry. We are proud of our association with Play Tape."

Emerging from its intensive test.

Play Tape."

Emerging from its intensive test marketing campaign, Play Tape will have its national distribution pattern set by July. "By just in these test markets alone," said its president. Frank Stanton, "Play Tape has sold over 500,000 play tape machines within the past six months."

Play Tape will introduce its automotive and plug-in home units this June.

"Sherry" Songs Don't Measure Up To Kaufman & Hart Dialog

NEW YORK—Elaborating on "The Man Who Came to Dinner" with songs and a few dance routines doesn't alter the fact that the classic American comedy is a one-man, one-joke show. In its present state as "Sherry," the authors, James Lipton (book & lyrics) and Laurence Rosenthal (music) have failed or not attempted to outwit George S. Kaufman and Moss Hart. Instead, we have much of the original and still funny Sheridan Whiteside broadsides—deliciously delivered by Clive Revill—and therefore an enjoyable evening, musicalization enjoyable evening, musicalization an enjoyable evening, musicalization or no.

The songs are rather tame, but their amiability doesn't really get in the way. There are some tries at spoofing the rhythms of the late 30's, when the times were hep, not hip. Good musical satire, however, should have some distinction of its own, which is not the case for, let us say, the opening number, "Turn On Your Radio." The title song draws an ob-the best song of the show. It also serves to introduce Dolores Gray to the mad proceedings. Unfortunately, nothing she does later is on a par with "Sherry" or her talents. One tune that would make a good disk duet (or even solo) is the spirited reproach, "How Can You Kiss Those Good Times

In "Sherry," one is still impressed with the theatrical ingenuity of Kaufman & Hart. Too bad its musical descendant couldn't add a clever dimension of its own—like Lerner & Loewe did for George Bernard Shaw's "Pygmalion." This is sad, for the cast of

London To Handle Hickory For UK, Spain & Portugal

NEW YORK—Hickory Records, under a new agreement signed last week in New York, will henceforth be distributed in the British Isles, Spain, and Portugal by London Records through the Decca Record Company Ltd. of England. The contract was signed by Mimi Trepel, manager of foreign distribution for London Records, and Hickory exec Bob McCluskey, who was in New York for the occasion. Terms of the contract call for the Nashville-based label to be handled by London for an initial three-year period.

The deal involves such Hickory pop stars as the Newbeats, Sue Thomp-

The deal involves such Hickory pop stars as the Newbeats, Sue Thompson, and Neal Ford and the Fanatics. Also included will be singer-song-writer-producer Dorsey Burnette, who recently inked a recording and producing contract with Hickory. The Burnette operation covers Burnette's own disks, as well as those he produces by Gary Crosby and George Richey, who has a budding hit on Hickory in the United States with "Jimmy Brown." Cincinnati deejay Tom Dooley, whose Hickory disk of "Have A Happy Happy Time" is showing signs of strong chart activity, is included in the arrangement as well.

Also covered by the Hickory/Lon-as well.

Also covered by the Hickory/London agreement are a number of prominent country artists presently associated with Hickory in the States, a development which is particularly significant in view of the steady growth of country interest in England and Eire. The country roster includes, among others, Roy Acuff and the Smokey Mountain Boys, Ernie Ashworth, Bob Luman, Bob Gallion, and Sandy Mason.

Capitol Names Attorneys

HOLLYWOOD—Elliot Chaum, director of the legal department of Capitol Records, has announced that in order to further the specialization efforts of the legal department, Charles Tillinghast and Russell Harding have been appointed senior attorneys. In their new positions Tillinghast will be responsible for all legal matters pertaining to A&R and copyright, and Harding for all general law matters. Tillinghast first joined the CRI legal department in April, 1965. Prior to that he practiced law with Musick, Peeler and Garrett (Los Angeles) for seven years. A native of New Jersey, Mr. Tillinghast earned his B.A. from Colgate University and L.L.B. from the Harvard Law School. Harding, a native of Texas, joined Capitol's legal department in Dec., 1965, following four years as an attorney for the Federal Trade Commission and U.S. Justice Dept. Harding is a graduate of the University of Texas Law School and earned his B.A. at Texas Western.

Tillinghast and Harding will continue to report to Mr. Chaum as well as will John Macleod, attorney for Capitol Records (Canada) Ltd. Attorneys Richard Schulenberg and Joel Strote will now report to Tillinghast and Harding, respectively.

Dirksen, Yorty To ASCAP NEW YORK—J. J. Bregman, chair-man of the ASCAP Membership Com-mittee, reported to the Society's Board at its March meeting the elec-tion of Senator Everett M. Dirksen as a standard composer.

Senator Dirksen's best-selling album "The Gallant Men," was published by ASCAP publishers Chappell & Company.

At the same time, Bregman reported the election of Sam Yorty, Mayor of Los Angeles, as a popular author. He is credited with the song, "Take'a Me Back'a Tony."

COUNTRY ROUND UP

ASCAP has scheduled an open house for writers and publishers in Nashville on Apr. 4 in order to point up the fact that many of these same writers and publishers may be losing money by not being aligned with the collection organization. Set for 2:30 P.M. at the First American National Bank, the shindig is open to all tunesmiths and publishing houses, whether ASCAP members or not. Juanita Jones, the society's Nashville rep, will host the meeting along with Paul Marks, head of the ASCAP survey and distribution department; Carl Zenger, the senior attorney for the organization; and well-known ASCAP writer Don Robertson.

organization; and well-known ASCAP writer Don Robertson.

Sonny James called from Holly-wood where he and the Southern Gentlemen are out taping the Lawrence Welk TVer for nationwide exposure. The gig is evidently a rest break for the crew, who have been doing a land office business on their latest tour. Sonny and the boys tore 'em up at the San Angelo Fat Stock Show and Rodeo in Texas early in March, and followed up with highly successful Lone Star appearances at the Houston Fire Department Show (17 & 18) and in Corpus Christi (19). The Welk Show, to be aired on Apr. 15, precedes the busiest Apr. in history for the group, and, as a matter of fact, the biggest month of show appearances he has ever scheduled. A note from the Newkeys offices says that the brand new Earl Scott release, "Changing Arms," has been shipped with a completely different tune other than the intended one. Decca A&R man Harry Silverstein discovered the mistake and quickly recalled all the copies that were already in circulation. A new, corrected pressing went out already and the label assures us that this time "Changing Arms" is really "Changing Arms."

Chart prexy Slim Williamson in-

Chart prexy Slim Williamson informs us that his most eye-catching artist, Lynn Anderson, is taking the itle of her latest hit seriously. Cur-rently leaping along with "If I Kiss You (Will You Go Away)," Lynn is packing her bags to leave for Germany this summer (and we haven't even kissed her!!). Michael Arends of Arends Musikverlag in Bavaria has made arrangements for Lynn to cut German language sessions for Cornet Records, which will also release her American masters there. While in Deutschland, Lynn will also do TV and personal appearances, promoting her first American hit, "Ride, Ride, Ride," which is set for release overseas at this time. Her debut album, a real goodie called "Ride, Ride, Ride," (what else??) is set for release very shortly. lease very shortly.

PUSHING A BILL THROUGH CONGRESS—When Bill Anderson was informed that he had walked away with a listener popularity poll conducted by radio station WPLO-Atlanta, the Georgia-born songster winged on down to accept the award which was waiting for him, and found that the Georgia legislature was waiting for him also. It seems both the State Senate and House of Representatives had passed resolutions honoring the popular artist for his outstanding contributions to country music. Representative Kent Dickinson, shown in the photo with Anderson, introduced a Privileged Resolution honoring the performer in the House, while Senators Hill, Minish, Lee and Miller sponsored the resolution in the Senate. A separate ceremony honoring Bill was also conducted by newly-elected Governor, Lester Maddox. elected Governor, Lester Maddox.

Claude Gray was in Nashville last week recording a single, "If I Ever Need A Lady" b/w "Because Of Him," due for immediate release on Decca . . . Jack Clement has just finished up a couple of Hank Williams, Jr. sessions in Music City, one of which will be released at the end of this month as a followup to "I Can't Take It No Longer" . . . Marve Hoerner has signed 'Little' Vern Davis to a personal management contract. The songster has just cut his first record for TNT, "In The Days Of Old Nebraska," which, incidentally, is being pushed for nomination as the official State Song in the midwestern state.

Wizard Records, Jack Turner and Tom Donahue narrowly escaped injury recently when a blinding snowstorm caused the car they were driving to have a head-on collision with another vehicle. . . . Molly Bee has just knocked off appearances on the Mike Douglas Show and is packing her bags to head for the Désert Inn in Las Vegas where she opens on Apr. 11. . . . Speaking of the Mike Douglas Show, Eddy Arnold just finished a week-long co-hosting stint with the video package, to be aired this week (Apr. 3). Eddy left immediately for a seven-city tour which will be part of a large promotion campaign being put on for him by RCA Victor. . . Jake Hess, housed in the Victor building in Nashville, will now be representing well-known gospel songwriter Mosie Lester. . . . Late this week (8), Archie Campbell will march triumphantly into Rome. On that day the citizens of Rome, Ga. will laud the comic with "Archie Campbell Day" in honor of his being musicdom's leading exponent of fighting roosters. . . . Jim Edward Brown, Connie Smith and Ray Pillow recently teamed up with guest host Roy Stingley for the Mar. 25 "American Swingaround" show. The shot marks Connie's fourth appearance on the show. . . . Brite Star Records and Promotions bolsters its promo staff with the addition of Bill Laakson in Flint, Mich., Jack Parker in Denver, Joe Drake in Seattle and Jane Beavers in Boston, thus bringing the drumbeating department to a total of 21. General manager Tex Clark states that more are to be added this month. . . . Dick Schuler kieks off his second decade as a country promoter by scheduling an Apr. 13 package at the Edmond Town Hall Theatre in Newtown, Conn. The show will feature Johnny Paycheck, Charlie Moore & Bill Napier and the Dixie Partners. son will also play week-long host to two other Heard acts, Van Trevor (May 15) and Johnny Dollar (22). ... Bobby Helms and his wife, Dori, have both signed recording pacts with Little Darlin' Records. Bobby's first, due out shortly, will be called "Kamikaze Heart," while Dori will debut with an answer to Johnny Darrell's "Ruby Don't Take Your Love To Town."

KGBS-Los Angeles stages a spectacular this week (7) at the Shrine Auditorium with Don Gibson making his first West Coast appearance. The bill will also feature Merle Haggard, Bonnie Owens, gospel singer Stuart Hamblen, Johnny & Jonie Mosby and the Jack Halloran Singers... WWVA-West Virginia is promoting safe driving with its "Girl In The Red Convertible" cruising the area on the lookout for courteous drivers. Those spotted have a description of their cars relayed to the station for broadcasting on the air, and drivers tuned in to the station can collect prizes if they have their cars described over the air. . . WEEZ-Chester, Pakicked off the month of March with a wild Shindig #4, claimed as being the largest ever held at the Convention Hall in Philadelphia. The first of five set for this year, the show was headlined by Loretta Lynn, the Wilburn Bros., Faron Young, Carl Smith, Little Jimmy Dickens, Joe & Rose Maphis, Johnny Dollar and Don & Ronnie Reno. Special guests included over 50 Viet Nam veterans from the local Naval Hospital. . . . Smiley Monroe, who has been doing a number of country deejay shows on various stations in Southern Calif., sends out distress signals for records. Mail them to him at 709 N. Adams, Glendale, Calif. . . . Brad Melton has just joined the air team over at KFOX-Long Beach, handling the midnight-to-6 slot. . . WEXL-Detroit program director Dale Lewis Tino has been promoted to account executive, replaced by Dave Carr who was formerly serving as Music Director. Dale's former airtime position has been taken over by staff announcer Bill Anderson. . . . KCIN-Victorville, Calif. pulled in over 1000 fans for a country jamboree staged on Mar. 19 at the Victor Valley Chrsyler-Plymouth setup. Show featured Skip Graves and his band, Wayne West, George Stoner, Jack & Ginger Nunerly, Bill Langley, Jeannie Gayland and Robin West. A highlight of the evening came when 15 couples won free vacations in Las Vegas. . . . WGOV-Valdosta, Ga. has switched its format to a modern country sound, with Ken Rogers taking over as new general manager. Ros Brooks has been named as the new program director and Jon McCranie will be taking over as the news and special events director. . . WHIL-Boston staged a "Claude King Day" recently, in conjunction with the Columbia artist's appearance at the local New Beacon Club. Program director Bob Ness reported a sell-out for Claude's show. . . A belated welcome to Emily Bradshaw, who recently took over the promotion-public relations duties at WSM-Nashville. . . . WQSN-Charleston celebrated its first anniversary as a country outlet on Mar. 21, with a console radio-stereo awarded to the listener who collected the most valid signatures on an anniversary greeting petition. The prize was awarded last weekend (2) at the Charleston Ceorge during the show for his outstanding contribution to country music. George reciprocated by presented to George during promoting them into two of his biggest hits in the past year. The station's final Shower of Stars Show of the year will be staged on May 7 at the Medinah Temple and will feature the Johnny Cash Show along with the Kitty Wells Show.

CMA Forms International Department

Invites Membership From All Nations

NASHVILLE—Prompted by the upsurge in the acceptance of country music in foreign lands, the CMA made another major move last week with the announcement of the formation of an international division within its own organizational structure. The announcement, which closely followed the recent CMA board of directors meeting in Puerto Rico, stated that, effective immediately, the association would be open to membership bids from anywhere in the world, on an individual or organizational level.

Country music, which gained a strong foothold abroad during World War II, has taken on a tremendous popularity among European and Asian peoples in recent years, and has been extremely influential on music forms eminating from these lands of late. A round-robin effect has been noted in many an instance where foreign musicians have "borrowed" from American country music, added their own flavoring and expoted the from American country music, added their own flavoring and expoted the resultant sound back into the Ameri-can pop music scene, where it was then "borrowed" and flavored again. In addition, country artists have become mainstays on many a foreign chart, including those in Europe, Asia and Africa, where such names as Jim Reeves, Wanda Jackson, Buck Owens, etc. have consistently sold records in great volume.

A further example of the popularity of country music abroad shows in the influx of foreign exponents of this sound in our country. Among the "foreigners" who have thus far made a name in American country circles are such people as Hank Snow (Canada), Stu Phillips (Canada), Frank Ifield (Australia) and the Canadian Sweethearts, among others. Other acts have been migrating to the U.S. from New Zealand, England, Japan and South Africa.

Recognizing the international strength and the tremendous growth of interest throughout the world in this type of music, the CMA has at last truly internationalized a truly American art form. The doors are now open to people and companies of any nation.

Details on membership, benefits, etc. may be obtained by writing to Mrs. Jo Walker, c/o CMA, 700 16th Ave. So., Nashville.

NECMI Convention Set For Wheeling, W. Va.

WHEELING, W. VA.—North East Country Music, Inc., an organization promoting country music in the eight Northeast States, Maine, New Hampshire, Vermont Massachusetts, Connecticut, Rhode Island, New York, Pennsylvania, plus West Virginia, will hold it's annual convention in Wheeling, W. Va. on April 21 and 22. NECMI is made up of performers, fans, deejays, and representatives from all the fields related to getting the country sound to the public. Dusty Miller, Radio Station WAFS-Amsterdam, N.Y., is president. Membership is open to anyone, anywhere, interested in country music. It's a non profit organization created to bring the Northeast deeper into the world of country music. Going into it's fourth year, NECMI is continuing to grow in membership, the past year being the year that saw the membership doubled.

The Ponderosa Club, a few miles out of Wheeling, will be headquarters. A general meeting, and election of officers, will be held, plus a meeting of the board of directors. A membership talent Jamboree will be held on the evening of the 21st "with some of the biggest names in country music performing." Many membership artists will be appearing on the WWVA

Jamboree on the 22nd, and all concerned will wind up the convention by attending the WWVA Jamboree on that night. New members will be accepted at the convention. Registration is scheduled for 10 A.M. on the morning of the 21st. Hugh Clinton from Radio WBUX, Doylestown, Pa. is in charge of talent, and all talent intending to appear should register with him. Dody Varney, Ford Edward, N. Y., is executive director, and further information can be secured from her.

Boston Music Fest. Due

NASHVILLE—A sampling of American heritage as manifested in today's Popular Music will be the purpose of the American Festival of Music '67 in Boston, to be held Apr. 20—23.

Sponsored and completely underwritten by the Boston Herald-Traveler Corp., the 4-day event will feature top artists in the field of Folk, Jazz, and Country-Western music, as well as a presentation of music from Canada, the Caribbean, Mexico, and South America, according to George Akerson president and publisher of Akerson president and publisher of the Herald-Traveler.

AN IMPERIAL SIGNING-Nashville talent manager Joe Taylor, who recently announced the signing of singing group the Imperials to his agency, poses (third from right) with the group as the boys put their respective signatures on the dotted line. The group, which is known primarily for inspirational songs as well as being a background recording group, consists of (left to right) Gary Mack, Lee Armond, Larry Benson, Jim Murray, Rick Powell, Joe Moscheo and Jake Hess (seated). Their first single, "I've Got It," was released on Apr. 1, while an album (their 13th) has already been cut.

Singleton Pushing Nashville As Int'l Tourist Attraction

NEW YORK—A drive initiated several weeks ago by well known producer-publisher Shelby Singleton to promote the city of Nashville as an international tourist attraction is generating enthusiastic support from some of the biggest names in country music, as well as leading civic spokesmen in Music City.

The movement, which coincides with, and runs parallel to the CMA's opening its doors to international membership, will see Singleton producing a 45 rpm promotion single aimed at bringing Nashville to the attention of foreign tourists. Produced through his Shelby Singleton Productions outfit, the disk will be distributed by the U.S. Travel Service, a division of the Department of Commerce established by Congress to promote tourism to this country. The single will contain music by the Tennessee Guitars to point up the Nashville sound, as well as messages by Elvis Presley, Roy Acuff, Eddie Arnold and Roy Orbison from the music world, and Nashville's Mayor Beverly Briley and former Tennessee Governor, Frank Clement, as civic spokesmen.

The U.S. Travel Service facilities will guarantee global distribution of the deck, which will be accompanied by translations for the areas in which they are to be aired. The message contained in the record will be to point up Nashville not only as the focal point of country music, but also as a scenic and cultural area as well. The disk is scheduled for recording within the next week or two, and should be available to the government agency sometime in May. The record will also be available to travel writers, news services and the travel trade news services and the travel trade both here and abroad.

Singleton is coordinating the project as a public service.

Ichi-ban Hank-san

Bros. Warner Warner Bros. waxmaster Hank Thompson, who has lately come back in the public eye in a big fashion, recently winged across the wide
Pacific with his Brazos Valley Boys to give Oriental fans a taste of his famed Western dance

Hep Expands

ST. PAUL, MINNESOTA—Hep Records, at 2551 Aldine Street North here in St. Paul, is being reorganized as a closed corporation, with initial capital of $50,000 and provisions for additional growth to $250,000.

President and chairman of the board of the newly formed group is Henry J. Auge, Jr., better known as Bud Auge, writer of numerous country songs, including "The Violet & The Rose."

Primarily a C&W label for the past

The Rose."

Primarily a C&W label for the past ten years, Hep plans a forthcoming expansion into the pop field.

The company also announced that Jimmy "Z" Zubulake, former deejay and a writer with the firm, has been named its public relations head.

Shannon Inks Happy Shahan

NASHVILLE—Mary Reeves, in her capacity as president of Jim Reeves Enterprises, last week announced the signing of singer Happy Shahan to an exclusive recording pact with her Shannon Records label. Shahan who formerly has had two releases on Musicor, "Everybody Wanta See The Elephant" and "Let's Shake Hands," will have all of his releases on the London label.

His first release under the new contract will be "Secret Love And Undercover Man," written by Acclaim tunesmith Buddy Mize, and "Poocho The Bow-Wow-Less Fido," penned by Clarence Selman and Bobby Cavazos.

Drusky Leaves SESAC

NASHVILLE - Mercury recording artist Roy Drusky, who has been heading up the Nashville offices of SESAC for almost three years, resigned from the organization last week. After running the operation since its opening in 1964, Drusky cited increasing demands on his time for TV and personal appearances as his major considerations in leaving.

The anouncement was made by SESAC executive vice president and managing director Alice Prager, who stated, "It is with great reluctance that we accede to Roy Drusky's wish to leave our Nashville office. The job he has done in bringing SESAC publishers to the fore is evidenced in the strongest possible way by the appearance of these publishers' works on the national C&W and pop charts. We also recognize his obligation to a career as an artist that he has worked hard for and so richly deserves. We all feel a sense of personal loss and wish Roy only continued success as a recording artist. regular member of the Grand Ole Opry and a much in demand performer."

Drusky left the organization last week (Apr. 1) and a successor is to be announced within ten days.

THE CASH BOX BULLSEYE

ALL THE TIME (2:36) [Cedarwood, BMI-Walker, Tillis] WANTING YOU BUT NEVER HAVING YOU (2:48) [Blue Crest, BMI—Frazier]

JACK GREENE (Decca 32123)

Jack Greene follows up his giant "There Goes My Everything" with what should be another biggie in "All The Time." Also pop-flavored, this pretty ballad could stir up excellent twin-market reaction. "Wanting You But Never Having You" is a bittersweet blueser.

PAPA GENE'S BLUES (1:58) [Screen Gems-Columbia, BMI-Nesmith]

I WANNA BE FREE (2:21) [Screen Gems-Columbia, BMI-Boyce, Hart]

FLOYD CRAMER (RCA Victor 9157)

The ace keyboard specialist tinkles the ivories in a version of "Papa Gene's Blues" that's bound to capture the fancy of many a spinner and buyer. The happy-go-lucky instrumental ought to be a sizeable seller. "I Wanna Be Free" is a moody, pensive piece.

> MAMA SPANK (2:37) [4 Star Sales, BMI-Anderson] TO THE LANDLORD (2:18) [Yonah, BMI-Anderson]

> > LIZ ANDERSON (RCA Victor 9163)

Just off her "Wife Of The Party" hit, Liz Anderson offers another first-rate self-penned deck. Top side, called "Mama Spank," is a real cute tale of a woman with a wandering man. Good sound. "To The Landlord" is a charming romancer.

> I KNOW ONE (2:23) [Jack, BMI—Clement] BEST BANJO PICKER (2:08) [Jack, BMI-Clement] COUNTRY CHARLEY PRIDE (RCA Victor 9162)

Country Charlie Pride got his foot in the door with "Just Between You And Me" and should be right back with "I Know One." The songster does a real smooth job on this tear-tugging stanza. "Best Banjo Bicker" is a bright lively at " Picker" is a bright, lively galloper.

> YOU CAN STEAL ME (2:30) [Jack, BMI-Lehner] RAMBLIN' MAN (2:09) [Southwind, BMI—Cash] BONNIE GUITAR (Dot 17007)

Bonnie Guitar bids for chart honors once again with this plaintive ballad called "You Can Steal Me." Bonnie does a real pretty vocal job on the tune, and can expect nice reaction. Flip is a lively, prancing version of Johnny Cash's "Ramblin' Man."

YOU WEREN'T ASHAMED TO KISS ME (Last Night) (2:45) [Acuff-Rose, BMI-B./F. Bryant]

I DON'T NEED YOU ANYMORE (2:11) [Cedarwood, BMI—Joy, Westberry, Wilkin]

ANITA CARTER (RCA Victor 9156)

Anita Carter's latest offering, "You Weren't Ashamed To Kiss Me (Last Night)," could well see plenty of turntable activity for her. A feelingful lament, this one gets an excellent treatment from the songstress. "I Don't Need You Anymore" is a funky, low-key item.

WILDWOOD FLOWER (2:06) [Peer Int'l. BMI—Carter]

FARTHER ON DOWN THE ROAD (2:32) [Brazos Valley, BMI—Gray]

MERLE TRAVIS (Capitol 5876)

For sheer excellence in musicianship Merle Travis' version of the standard "Wildwood Flower" has to rank as a superfine recording. Programmers should lay on this one, and lovers of good picking should flip. "Farther On Down The Road" gets the added ingredient of a Travis

CASH BOX BULLSEYE

A LETTER TO DADDY (3:06) [Tree, BMI-B./S. Braddock] DRAGGIN' THE RIVER (2:31) [Channel, ASCAP-Wooley] SHEB WOOLEY (MGM 13705)

What with his other half (Ben Colder) doing considerable record activity, Sheb Wooley could zoom back into the spotlight in his own right with "A Letter To Daddy." A sentiment-filled, heart-tugging recitation, this one may really go. "Dragging The River" is a mid-tempo thumper.

LAST TRAIN TO CLARKSVILLE (2:49) [Screen Gems-Columbia, BMI—Boyce, Hart]

I'M GETTING BETTER (2:07) [Lynlou, BMI-Bruce]

ED BRUCE (RCA Victor 9155)

The Monkees topped the million mark with their version of "Last Train To Clarksville," and Ed Bruce seeks a similarly healthy response with his countrified version. Sound could be a giant for Ed. "I'm Getting Better" is a self-penned woeser.

Newcomer Picks

I'M A DRIVER FOR THE A.T.A. (2:14) [Goldstrick, BMI—Kelly, Logan]

THE SPARKLE OF GOLD (2:40)
[Goldstrick, BMI—Sadler, Kelly, Turner]

Roy Kelly (Bonanza 4822)

Here's a high-powered session called "I'm A Driver For The A.T.A." that could bring Roy Kelly into the national spotlight. The chanter gears down through a racing, diesel-powered ditty that's worth a listen. "The Sparkle Of Gold" is a softly done weeper.

MARION WORTH (Columbia 44074) | MERLE KILGORE (Epic 10146)

OLD HABITS ARE HARD TO BREAK (2:45) [Central Songs, BMI—Worth] Well-known songstress Marion Worth has come up with a heart-throbbing, emotion-packed tear-tugger that could garner heaps of spins for this deck. Give it a careful listen.

(B+) ESPECIALLY YOU (2:35)
[Moss-Rose, BMI—Worth]
Poignant, slow-paced woeser on this side.

JERRY SMITH (Chart 1440)

LIL' OLD ME (1:55) [Tune-ville, BMI—Smith] Could be a healthy amount of sales action in store for this zestful piano instrumental. Watch it closely.

(B+) ANNETTE (2:05) [South-town, BMI—Smith] Rich, romantic piano instrumental over here.

JIM WHITE (Gregg 26701)

(B+) BOOMERANG (1:53) [Bullet, ASCAP—White] Fastmoving, blues-laden finger-snapper.

B) LOOKING FOR A RAIN-BOW (2:46) [Bullet, ASCAP-White, Fite Gripping, emotion-filled ballad.

BETTY BEE (Vokes 107)

(B+) JUDGE OF HEARTS (2:45) [Vokes, BMI—Wallace, Cokes] Shuffling, reflective love-ode.

(B) I'VE GOT MY HONEY (2:20) [Vokes, BMI—Bee, Summerville] Catchy, spirited toe-

I JUST DON'T CARE ANY-MORE (2:18) [Screen Gems-Columbia, BMI—Rabbitt] Veteran chanter Merle Kilgore should get loads of attention with this bitter-sweet, mid-tempo bouncer. Eye it.

(B+) I'D CRY LIKE A BABY (2:34) [Al Gallico, BMI—Kilgore, Pino] Plaintive, moving weeper on the flip.

LONZO & OSCAR (Nugget 256)

GETTING THE HANG OF
IT NOW (2:27) [Lonzo & Oscar, BMI—Sims] Lively, rhythmic swinger could make a lot of noise for the noted bluegrass duo. Deserves attention.

(B+) A FUNNY WAY OF LIVING (2:15) [Lonzo & Oscar, BMI —Henson] Same here.

ERNIE BIVENS (Flame 8201)

COUNTRY REVIEWS

NEED YOU—Sonny James & Southern Gentlemen—Capitol T/ST 2722
Currently riding the Country Top 50 with their latest single, "Need You," Sonny James and the Southern Gentlemen might well have another chart-destined item on their hands with this LP of the same name. In addition to the title track, the set includes "Where Do We Go From Here," "How Many Times Can A Man Be A Fool," "Red Mud," and eight others. Watch this one rise.

I'M A LONESOME FUGITIVE—Merle Haggard & Strangers—Capitol T/ST 2702

Merle Haggard and the Strangers hit big with both side of their latest single, "I'm A Lonesome Fugitive" b/w "Someone Told My Story," and their new LP stands a good chance of becoming an equally sought-after item. Besides the two above-mentioned songs, the set includes such selections as "All Of Me Belongs To You," "Life In Prison," and "Mary's Mine." Could go all the way.

AMERICA'S MOST WANTED BAND—Buck Owens' Buckaroos—Capitol T/ST 2722

Buck Owens' famed Buckaroos step out on their own here and offer a driving, rhythmic collection of country ditties that could easily win them a top chart spot. Included in the set are "The Happy-Go-Lucky Guitar," "It Takes A Lot Of You For Me," "You'll Never Miss The Water," and "Something To Remember You By." Don't let this one out of your sight.

THE WALKER WAY—Billy Walker—Monument MLP 8072/SLP 18072

Billy Walker should score quickly with this powerhouse LP. Highlighting the set with his current charter, "Anything Your Heart Desires," and his recent hit, "Bear With Me A Little Longer," the noted chanter also offers such feelingful ballads as "Love Me Now Hurt Me Later" and "I Gotta Get Me Feeling Better." Look for this one on the charts.

JUST JIM—Jim Edward Brown—RCA Victor LPM/LSP 3744

Done in his familiar straightforward style, Jim Edward Brown's latest album should win the approval of thousands of country listeners. Leading off the set with his current chart single, "You Can Have Her," Jim goes on to sing eleven others including "If You Were Mine, Mary," "Have I Stayed Away Too Long," and his recent noisemaker, "The Last Laugh." Bound to be a big one for Jim here.

MOON MULLICAN—Moon Mullican—Starday SLP 398

SLP 398
Popular country pianist and singer Moon Mullican gives a performance of some of his most famous numbers on this spirited set. Included in the package are "I'll Sail My Ship Alone," "Sweeter Than The Flowers," "Wabash Cannonball," and "Bottom Of The Glass." Could be a healthy amount of sales action in store for this one. Give it a listen.

TOMMY SCOTT'S COUNTRY CARAVAN—Tommy Scott's Country Caravan—Request RLP/SRLP 6027.

Tommy Scott's Country Caravan presents a generous selection of swingers and tear-tuggers on this dynamic package. Among the fourteen numbers on the set are such rousing ditties as "Jack Of All Trades," "I'm Hanging My Teardrops Out To Dry," "I'm Going To Cry For A Long Time," and "Bound For The Wide Missouri." Should do nicely.

The Eurovision Song Contest of 1967 will take place in Vienna on Saturday, April 8, when Austria, last year's winning country, will welcome this year's contestants. During the past few weeks preliminary heats have been held in the 17 participating countries to find the songs and singers which they will be sending to the international event. The artists taking part are pictured above alphabetically by countries.

U.A. have just released Shirley Bassey's latest single "If You Go Away" composed by French singer Jacques Brel with lyrics by American singer/writer Rod McKuen and published by United Artists. Her second album for the label "We Were Lovers" has also been rush-released.

For the twelfth year running, the Ivor Novello Awards were presented to Britain's top music men responsible for writing, publishing and exploiting works which in the opinion of the judges represented outstanding contributions to British Popular and Light Music. This year's judges (presided over by Paddy Roberts, Chairman of the Songwriters Guild) were Kenneth Baynes (BBC Light Music), music critics Pat Doncaster and Derek Johnson, deejay Peter Murray and artist manager Evelyn Taylor. The winners in each category received bronze statuettes and the runners-up engraved certificates of honor. Full list of the awards were as follows:

Having scored many hits in Britain—their current charter being "Happy Jack" on the Reaction label—the Who are finding fame on the continent particularly in Scandinavia where they recently had three chart entries in one week. The territory still to be conquered is the United States and the boys have just left for a ten-day visit to promote "Happy Jack" which has just been issued there on Decca.

Ian Ralfini and Martin Wyatt of the newly-formed management company, Young Music Enterprises, have just returned from a twelve-day visit to New York. They had meetings with Koppelmann and Rubin resulting in the U.S. release by them of "Saturday Night People" by new British artist Scott Henderson on the K.R. label (issued in the U.K. by Pye). Koppelmann and Rubin's publishing interests are handled in the U.K. by Pye). Koppelmann and Rubin's publishing interests are handled in the U.K. by Robbins Music of which Ian Ralfini is General Manager. Wyatt, who is personal representative in the U.K. for Petula Clark, Kenny Ball, the Young Idea and Alan Freeman Associates, also had discussions with major American agents. As a result, Kenny Ball will make a return visit to the States later this year. Kenny has just signed a contract for future recordings to be issued in the U.S. by American Decca. First release is latest British release "Rosie" penned by "The Winchester Cathedral" composer Geoff Stephens, published by Meteor and released here by Pye. The Young Idea also have their first U.S. release "Gotta Get Out Of The Mess I'm In" on Capitol.

George Seymour, General Manager of Campbell Connelly, leaves for his first visit to America on April 17th. After visiting Hollywood and San Francisco, he will be in New York for the week commencing 23rd April Seymour will explore the U.S. record and publi at The Flamingo Club Las Vegas followed by a fortnight at The Eden Rock Hotel, Miami. Philips will issue "What'll I Do" in America to coincide with their visit. Their first album "Live At The Pickwick" has just been issue them.

The Easybeats elated that their United Artists single "Friday On My Mind", their first British release and a big success for them, has now entered the American Top 100. In Britain, indie producer Shel Talmy has waxed their follow-up single "Who'll Be The One You'll Love" which, like "Friday On My Mind," is one of their own compositions issued and published by United Artists.

Scottish singer Andy Stewart is currently on his third tour of Canada and America taking in Toronto, Ottowa, Hamilton, Regina, Edmonton, Calgary, Vancouver, Boston, Chicago, Delmont and terminating on May 16th with a concert at Carnegie Hall, New York. Stewart has the distinction of being the only Scottish singer to hold a Silver Disk for sale of over quarter million

Little Tony's 'Cuore Matto' Biggest San Remo Seller Since Solo's 'Lacrima'

MILAN — Elisabel Mintangian, vice president of Durium, has reported that total sales of the Little Tony disk, "Cuore Matto" has passed the 700,000 sales mark. "Cuore Matto" is therefore the best-selling song among those presented this year on the San Remo stage. It is eight consecutive weeks that it has been listed at the top of the Italian hit parade. This serves to point out again the extraordinary promotional power of the San Remo Festival. One has to go back to 1964 to come up with similar big sales on a San Remo song, with the Bobby Solo hit "Una Lacrima Sul Viso" being the first single selling over a million in Italy. If the sales of "Cuore Matto" continue with the same momentum, the Little Tony disk will repeat such a performance.

Mrs. Mintangian also announced that Little Tony will leave for the States on April 22. CBS is introducing on the US market the English version of Little Tony's other big hit, "Ridera'," translated as "Let Her Go." In the States, Little Tony will perform as guest star on a major TV show.

Strong Global Coverage For Remo Winner

MILAN—The San Remo song contest has proved to be the only event in the world able to create an international hit in twenty four hours. No exception for the 1967 edition, whose winning composition is "Non Pensare A Me" composed by Eros Sciorilli with lyrics by Alberto Testa. The song is published by Sciorilli's pubbery Edizioni Mascotte. The tune has been sub-licensed in all countries of the world.

sub-licensed in all countries of the world.

In France the song has been licensed to Editions Jacques Plante of Paris, and translated as "Quand Tu T'En Iras." The song has been waxed by the top French artist Mirelle Mathieu, under the Balclay label, and by the Orchestra conducted by Caravelli, for the CBS label.

In the States the song is published by Chappell. The English lyric is titled "Time Alone Will Tell." It has been recorded by Connie Francis under MGM and by Jerry Vale for CBS. In England and Commonwealth, sub-publisher is also Chappell. The first waxing issued in England has

label by a recent discovery, Malcolm Roberts.

Southern Music of Spain is the subpublisher of the tune in Spain and Portugal. The Spanish title is "No Pienses En Mi" and seven different recordings have been released. Gelu for Spanish EMI, Cristina Y Lo Stop, Segundo Galarza, Orquestra De La Radio Suiza Italiana, all for Belter, Luis Gardey for Zafiro, Jose' Guardiola for Vergara and Marruja Garrido for Sonorplay. Latter is a flamenco interpretation.

For South American countries subpublishing rights have been acquired by Fermata. Four different recordings have been produced in Argentina: Juan Ramon for RCA Victor, Las Cuatros Voces for CBS, Jose' Antonio for Microfon, Dario Dantes for Music Hall. Of course, together with these recordings original Italian waxings of the composition have been released in all the countries, firstly, of course, those of the San Remo winners Iva Zanicchi (RI.FI) and Claudio Villa.

CBS Holds London Meet For Reps In Scandinavia, Central Europe

TJB To Far East

HOLLYWOOD—Herb Alpert and his Tijuana Brass left last weekend for their first concert tour in the Far East. Initial stops on the three-week tour which has been sold out for more than a month are in New Zealand where group will play concerts in Auckland and Wellington.

On April 1, they opened an Australian concert series with two performances in Brisbane, then play to Melbourne to tape a television special followed by a four-day concert series. The Australian tour winds up with three days of concerts in Sydney.

On Monday, April 11, Alpert and company depart for Tokyo, for a one-week engagement. Tour winds up with one-nighter in Honolulu April 16.

Accompanying Alpert and the Brass will be his A&M Records partner, Jerry Moss, and personal manager Sherwin Bash.

Raphael To Britain

LONDON — Spanish singer Raphael recently visited Britain to cut "Speak To Me Of Love" the English version of his Eurovision entry "Hablemos del Amor" for rush release by Pye. Raphael first hit the international headlines when he represented Spain in the 1966 Eurovision Song Contest with "Yo Soy Aquel" (I Am That Man). This led to major TV appearances in Britain—his latest being the BBC's International Cabaret and The Rolf Harris Show.

A&M Gets Its Own UK Logo

LONDON—An agreement has been signed between Gil Friesen, vice president and general manager of A&M Records and Louis Benjamin, managing director of Pye Records whereby the A&M product previously released on Pye International will come out under its own logo in the U.K. The first single, released March 31, is "Casino Royale" by Herb Alpert and the Tijuana Brass. It's the Burt Bacharach theme from the film of the same title, which gets its London premiere at The Odeon Leicester Square on April 13. The disk will be housed in a special promotion bag. Since Pye took the A&M produce for Britain in 1964, label has enjoyed considerable success notably via Herb Alpert's "Spanish Flea" and "Cherry Street."

New Vaudeville To Appear On Grammy TV'er

LONDON—The New Vaudeville Band flies to New York on April 7 to take part in the NBC-TV "Grammy Award Show," during which they will be presented with their Grammy for "Winchester Cathedral," nominated "Best Contemporary R&R Recording of 1966."

Alpert albums have all been tremendous sellers keeping him constantly in the charts with LP's such as "Whipped Cream And Other Delights," "What Now My Love," "Going Places" and currently "S.R.O." Other hits have come from Trini Lopez, Chris Montez, The Sandpipers

Simon & Garfunkel: SRO In England

NEW YORK — Simon & Garfunkel have just returned from a completely sold out tour of England. Three concerts were presented by Elektra Productions (concert wing of Elektra Records U.K.) in association with Roy Guest Guest.

Simon & Garfunkel, CBS artists, arrived in Britain on Thursday, March 16, to do several television shows including programs for BBC and Granada, followed by a CBS press luncheon and press conference. The first concert was SRO at the Royal Albert Hall on Saturday, March 18, with over 6,800 persons in attendance, including 300 standees in the galleries. Equally successful concerts were held Sunday the 19th at Birmingham Town Hall, and Monday, the 21st, at the Manchester Free Trade Hall. Si-mon & Garfunkel were accompanied to England by their manager, Mort Lewis Lewis.

Jac Holzman, of Elektra Productions, noted that this was the fourth major attraction that his company han brought to Britain. Previous concert tours have been sponsored by Elektra for Judy Collins, Tom Paxton, and French singer Jacques Brel. Holzman said that he had become interested in concert production as a means of exploiting his own Elektra talent as well as other outstanding international artists.

Stones Coming To Italy This Week

MILAN—As revealed in last week's column from Italy, the Rolling Stones are set to make their first appearance in Italy this week. They arrive in Milan on the 4th and continue on to Bologna, where they will perform on the 5th at the Sports Palace. Then they will perform in the Sports Palace of Rome (6) and return to Milan on the 8th. They conclude their tour in Genoa on the 9th. Estimates see 15,000 attending each performance. Their latest single, "Let's Spend The Night Together," has sold 150,000 copies in Italy.

Janglers Get Gold For 'Limelight' LP

STOCKHOLM — Top Swedish group Ola and The Janglers have won a Gold Disk for their latest LP, "Limelight," which has sold over 10,000 copies in Sweden alone. During a recent visit to London Gunner Bergstrom and Dag Haggqvist of Sonet Records signed an agreement with Decca for the group to record in London under the supervision of Ivor Raymonde. Raymonde, who recorded the international hit "Black Is Black" by Spanish group Los Bravos, recently flew to Stockholm to discuss the first recording which is scheduled for April. Ivor Raymonde Productions will be released by Decca in the British Commonwealth and U.S.A. but in all other territories of the world the disks will be released by Sonet's normal licencees.

Correction

The Australian column of March 25 incorrectly noted that the Festival release of the new Twiggy single, "I Need Your Hand In Mine"-and "Beautiful Dreams," was a master leased by Festival from Island Records. Actually, Jeff Kruger, president of Ember Records informs Cash Box, Twiggy is an exclusive pactee-artist on Ember, which leased the deck to Festival.

Musical 'Josephine' Set For Shirley Bassey

For Shirley Bassey
LONDON—Shirley Bassey is to play the title role in "Josephine," a new British musical by Gavin Lambert and Kenneth Hume, who with Gil King has also written the lyrics. The musical, based on the Napoleon-Josephine story, will be Bassey's first major dramatic role, and in order to play it she has had to cancel engagements worth an estimated million dollars.
Kenneth Hume will present the play in London this autumn followed by a Broadway production and a film. Bassey will star in all three. Her leading man has yet to be announced.

CANADA

Larry Lee and the Leesures have a very commercial LP outing on Columbia. "Club Date" will be must material for the group's many fans. Sides include: "Toodle-Oo-Kangaroo," "Solitary Man," "Barefootin," and a couple of standards, "I Left My Heart In San Francisco" and "Strangers In The Night." "Summer Wine" was a belated smash for Nancy Sinatra with English-speaking deejays in Canada. Now, Claude Valade has a French-language version of the very commercial song on Elyses (distributed by London) that appears to be a money maker in the French market of Quebec. Entitled, "Vin D'Ete," it is selling very well.

Some moves on the record scene at the distributor level in Winnipeg are of interest across Canada. Mark Anderson, one time branch topper for London in the Manitoba Capital, has relocated with the Musimart branch there. New men at London include Bob Tait who joins the label's Winnipeg sales force after a lengthy period with the City's Capitol distributor, Electrical Supply. Another newcomer at London is "inside man" Rick Inglis.

Gerry Young at London in Winnipeg has a couple of regional breakouts that could well develop into national sellers. "This Is My Song" by Harry Secombe on Philips has been getting a great deal of Winnipeg air play as has a strong entry currently featured in the Liberty album debut of the Nitty Gritty Dirt Band. "Candy Man" has been played heavily from the LP by the City's pop outlet, CKRC. A single on the "Candy Man" side is being rushed onto the market. Two Deram releases are making big chart noises in the Prarie area. Saskatoon is doing big business on Cat Steven's latest, plus the one by the Move, "Night Of Fear."

Ed Lawson is going to be a busy fellow as his Quality office is really swinging with one hit-bound sound after another on the Atlantic and/or Atco labels.

toon is doing big business on Cat Steven's latest, plus the one by the Move, "Night Of Fear."

Ed Lawson is going to be a busy fellow as his Quality office is really swinging with one hit-bound sound after another on the Atlantic and/or Atco labels. "The Lady Came From Baltimore" extends Bobby Darin's chart string and figures to sell as well, if not better, than the Darin smashes of the immediate past. The latest outing by Wilson Pickett has received instant air play on most pop-formatted stations. Aretha Franklin continues to rake in the coin for her great bluesy reading of "I Never Loved A Man etc." while the Arthur Conley smash, "Sweet Soul Music," develops into a sales giant all across Canada.

Barry Paine wagers that the new Frank Sinatra LP, "Sinatra/Jobim," will be another sales monster across Canada. Pretty safe bet that. His duet with daughter Nancy ranks as one of the fastest-rising chart records ever. Nancy's "Love Eyes" and her smash LP outing, "Sugartown," keeps the family name very much in evidence these days. Barry has rave notices for Decca's two new soundtracks, "Thoroughly Modern Millie" and "Countess From Hong Cong," which are shaping as blockbusters.

Paul Clark figures that a CHUM #44 listing means sales action for his Cantebury version of "Yellow Baloon" by the group of the same name. CHYM's Larry Shannon manages a group by the name of the Shan-De-Leers. The Kitchener-based group has just debuted on record with a 4-Square release. Plug side is "Can't Mend A Broken Heart". Meanwhile the Paupers get more and more chart listings everyday with their newie on Verve-Folkways, "Simple Deed."

Good side out of Cleveland on the Main Line label with no known Canadian distributor as yet. It's the Sam Cooke-penned, "Shake" by the Selective Service.
Les William Tennant is the new M.D. at Regina's pop-powerhouse, CKCK.
He comes to the new post from CKOM, Saskatoon.
Al Mair predicts big chart doings for the latest by the Count Five. "You Must Believe Me" will do as well, says Al, as "Psychotic Reaction", first outing by the group.

Must Believe Me" will do as well, says Al, as "Psychotic Reaction", first outing by the group.

Some great new things by Canadian artists are about to take the chart scene by storm. "Don't Make Promises" by Susan Taylor is a sure thing for chart action, if it is given half a chance by way of airplay. The new Wes Dakus side, "Shotgun," will take the Edmontonians to the top rungs on any station's playlist. "Barefootin," by Larry Lee on Columbia will be a big winner for this good group. "Money by the Main Line on Reo can hold its own with any R&B sound on the market today.

Next smash instrumental right across the country would appear to be the great Bell outing by the Tennessee Guitars, "Third Man Theme." Side has clicked in the pick department with a great many stations in Canada, and they're not all pop-oriented either. It has merit for middle of the road programmers too. Quality will be so busy as Spring springs across Canada with a slew of red hot sides from A&M. Don Graham at the Hollywood-based label is wildly enthusiastic for a new side by the Tiajuana Brass, "Casiono Royale." Upcoming movie publicity won't hurt the great TJB single one bit. "In The Midnight Hour"—already a smash in the Windsor-Detroit area—is taking the rest of the country in leaps and bounds. It's by the Wanted. Don't overlook a strong commercial side by the Parade. "Sunshine Girl" has one heck of a happy sound going for it.

PLANNING AHEAD—Decca producer Ivor Raymonde (seated, right) is shown here surrounded by Ola & the Janglers during his visit to Stockholm. While in Sweden, Raymonde is planning recordings for the group to make when in London (April).

Music publishers J. Albert & Son are out with the sheet copies on "Hap-iness Is," "Nashville Cats," "There's Kind Of A Hush" and the theme from The Bible."

Local girl Lynne Randell has her latest single out ("Ciao Baby") for the CBS label. This was recorded in the States when Lynne was there a couple of months back. She has now returned to America to promote the disc when it appears on the Epic label. It is shaping here like the biggest record ever in Lynne's career.

New single by the Monkees, "A Little Bit Me A Little Bit You," set for release early in April. It now looks to be some time before we get to see the television series by the Monkees. The show is one of many that are being delayed as a result of price dispute between American film distributors and Australian television interests.

New product from the Astor group includes "Puppet On A String" by Sandie Shaw; "Ciao Baby" by the Montanas; and on the Go!! label is the local group the Cherokees with "Minnie The Moocher."

local group the Cherokees with "Minnie The Moocher."

The Beatles slam solidly into our best-seller list this week with "Penny Lane" which has only been on the market for a couple of days.

Frank & Nancy Sinatra are on their way to a runaway best seller across Australia with their first duet together, "Somethin' Stupid". It's been ages since we've heard a record grab so much air-action as this one.

For the seventh week in a row the Royal Guardsmen hold down the number one spot on our national best-seller list with 'Snoopy Versus The Red Baron" out on Festival. Interesting to note that there doesn't seem to be any Australian publisher representation on the song. It looks odds-on that "Return Of The Red Baron" will soon be fighting it's way up the charts here. The "Snoopy" disc is holding the Seekers out in number two spot with their international giant "Georgy Girl."

Newies from EMI are "Happy Together" by the Turtles, a big one from the

The Alan Price Set is featured with their English click "Simon Smith And The Amazing Dancing Bear," Sam the Sham with "Oh That's Good, No That's Bad"; and the Yellow Balloon with "Yellow Balloon."

W&G Records have announced the signing of a deal with Ember Records of England under which W&G will have the Australian rights to certain range of the Ember product. In making the announcement, Ron Gillespie told Cash Box, "We (W&G) will release material from Ember in every category of our catalog—from regular priced albums through EPs and singles." Negotiations on behalf of Ember were handled by Jeffrey Kruger.

Oden's Dennis Dunn reported to Cash Box that his label will cut an album with the main artists taiking part at the Latin American Song Festival to be held in the city of Salta April 6 through 16. The contest will feature artists from several other Latin American countries and is regarded with high interest among the folk people. Contract was signed by the Festival toppers and the label a few days ago, and both Dunn and local A&R man Edgar Spinassi will be on hand during the recording sessions.

Jazz critic Walter Thiers will start operating his own label this month with offices located at Florida 520, Buenos Aires. Thiers has the representation of the ESP Jabel and will also make local recordings of musical and poetic works in cooperation with the Di-Tella Foundation.

CBS' Leo Dan starred a benefit Festival in his native city of Santiago del Estero. The show was arranged with the cooperation of the Government of the Province and the Air Force. Another young artist, folk singer Eduardo Avila, has been inked by "Sabados Circulares," the successful TV program aired weekly by Channel 13. Avila is also recording his first album. Teen songstress Nancy Li has been contracted by Channel 9 for its "Special" program. Singer Sandro has signed a contract for two films to be shot this year, while one of his albums has been released in the States.

Mauricio Brenner of Fermata infos that "14 With Tango Music," the album produced last year with the cooperation of well-known poets and musicians, has been awarded the prize for the "best popular music production" at the Mar del Plata Record Festival held from the March 19th to the 26th. The record has been also released in several other countries, and International success is expected. Procucciones Fermata has now released an album devoted to the recent San Remo Festival and an EP recorded by French star Brigitte Bardot for AZ in France.

The Press Department of Discos Quinto infos that a recent recording by Los Clinco Latinos is doing very well. The title is "En Un Rincon del A Bernardo Sondermann (Fábrica de Discos Rozenblit) informs us of two important single releases in their Mocambo label: one with the Happenings with two more hits after chart number "See You In September," and Italian chanter Memo Remigi who sings the San Remo Fest number that was to be interpreted by Brazil's Roberto Carlos.

From the new AU (Artistas Unidos) label comes word that the single cut by baby-voiced new chantress-composer Martinha is heading for the charts, as well as deejay's Luiz Aguiar, in spite of a prohibition of the São Paulo censorship for radio promotion of one of the sides of disk, "Cinderela Moderninha."

censorship for radio promotion of one of the sides of disk, "Cinderela Moderninha."

Miltinho Gama of the promo department of Discos Chantecler announced release of following albums: "My Generation" by British teen-group the Who, a Decca original; "La Vie En Rose" by Italian top chanter Bobby Solo, (Ricordi); an excellent LP presenting "Tijuana Taxi" by the Jonah Jones Quartet; a local recording by one of the best-liked chantresses, Giane, who is also popular in other Latin American countries, Portugal and Africa provinces—also included chart number "Ollhos Tritses" in which deejay Barros De Alencar participates. The disk is called "Giane, A Voz Doçura."

From CBS de Brasil we learn that bolero king Carlos Alberto is scoring success with his album "Meu Coração Canta Para Voçê" (My Heart Sings For You." The number "Poema Do Fim" by Portuguese composers Manuel Paião and Eduardo Damas is one of the top hits of ballad chanter Carlos José whose album "Uma Noite de Seresta" is scoring very high sales in Rio. Teen chanter Ed Wilson with a new single in the market "Saudade" has a potential hit. Chart album by Brazil's top teen star, Roberto Carlos, beat all sales records to date, selling over 150,000 copies. The latest acquisition of CBS for its local cast is new chantress Marienne who will soon see released her bow single with "Deixa-me Falar Meu Amor" b/w "Quando Estou Triste."

Another Brazilian artist going to the United States and who will soon be heard of: chantress Flora will join Manfredo Fest (pianist and composer) and his Trio for a tour of the country. Although Flora is one of the most progressive MPM interpreters, she will present a traditional "samba" repertory too.

Los Indios Tabajaras has a new single containing two famous evergreens: "La Mer" and "Smoke Gets In Your Eyes" For the Piper Club Series, RCA Italiana has released a new single by Patty Pravo which includes "Sto Con Te" (Italian version of the Four Seasons' number "Tell It To The Rain") coupled with "Qui E La" (Italian version of another American number, "Holy Cow").

The fourth disc is devoted to two of the latest releases of Barry McGuire: "A group recently pacted by EMI Italiana, I Nomad, has obtained a first a group recently pacted by EMI Italiana, I Nomo Ci Saremo." Following the first success, EMI Italiana will release a first LP of the group. Among the titles contained in the new album there are, "Dio E' Morto," "III Disgelo," "Noi," "Per Fare Un Uomo," "Ma Piano Per Non Svegliarni," etc.

Another new EMI Italiana artist, recently presented on the musical scene has been the will guest the TV show of Giorgio Gaber (RI.FI) and Caterina caselli (CGD) "Diamoci Del Tu."

Young English singer Chris Farlowe, who had a pretty good success in Italy, with his recent hit folut of Time," will have a second disc strongly promoted over here. The number "Ride On Baby" will be presented via the top Radio program "Bandiera Gialla" (Yellow Flag) by Gianni Boncompagni, Christopa, Millan, and this is a good premise for the success of the enterprise.

The new facilities are located in the center of Milan, and this is a good premise for the success of the enterprise.

Songstress Mina (RI.FI) will appear every week on the TV show entitled "Saturday Evening." In this show, she will present a new tune entitled "Se C'E' Una Cosa Che Mi Fa Impazzire" (If There Is Something Which Makes Me Fool). Other songs that Mina will present in this program are, "Portami Con Te" (Bring Me With You) and "Sabati E Domeniche" (Saturdays and Sundays). Of course, these two tunes will be released on a new single.

RI.FI has released in Italy the first disc of the Royal Guardsmen originally published under the Laurie label: "Snoopy Vs. The Red Baron" translated in Italian as "Snoopy E' Il Cane Di Charlie Brown."

The leit-motiv of two of the top films of this season have been coupled by RI.FI on a new single: "The Hong-Kong Comtesse" and the second one from "Is Paris Burning?" The disc is performed by the Orchestra conducted by David Russel.

The "Grand Prix" which will be held for all of Europe on April 8th of this year in Vienna is a festival steeped in a very young but worthy tradition. One star who was launched on a European career through the festival was certainly Udo Jurgens. Udo, who had "been around" for years and years, never quite found his style through other song writers and producers, but when he was able to turn to his own song writing talent for hits, the result was high places in the festival two years running and a first place last year. Since then, Udo has drawn top dollar all over the continent for his personal appearances and is most probably Germany's highest paid artist at present. On June 1st, his new record tie will be the young firm Ariola-Eurodisc, which has signed up top talents such as Peter Alexander, Rex Gildo and Rudolf Schock among others. The contract may be history making. The famous German journalist "Hunter" wrote in his nationwide column that the guarantee sum is set for 450,000 DM per year which is about $112,000. This sum is only for the German language areas of Germany, Austria and Switzerland. The only contract which can compare with this is that of Caterina Valente who did a world-wide deal with Teldec for a ½ million ($125,000) DM guarantee several years ago. Although no official confirmation of the guarantee sum is present, Udo's manager-producer-publisher Hans R. Beierlein remarked "I'm content with the new contract."

Export manager George Ehmke of Ariola writes us that the firm has 3 songs set for this year's "Grand Prix" including entries from Germany, Austria and Italy. Early in March Ariola partners CUPOL from Sweden, Metronome from Denmark and Nor-Disc from Norway met at Ariola in Guetersloh to discuss new release and publicity plans.

One of Germany's top promotion men-publishers Jack Martin who left Polydor where he headed the radio promotion department for years to take on the task at the newly-formed Hansa Productions of Peter Meisel has reported that he will leave Hansa to go to another new ou

The promoting show of American record company Stax Otis Redding, Booker T. and the MGs', Sam and Dave, Eddie Floyd, Arthur Conley, the Mar-Keys has been a very great success on the Olympia Stage. The Compagnie Européenne du Disque which distribute Stax records in France immediately released an LP album titled "Rhythm and Blues Panorama" featuring all the main Stax stars. C.E.D. also released EP records by Otis Redding ("Day Tripper"), Sam & Dave ("You Got Me Hummin'"), Eddie Floyd and Arthur Conley.

It is interesting to note that in France American records are gaining a more and more important position. The loosers appear to be the English groups. The Beatles, Rolling Stones and the Kinks are still very strong, but the American upswing seems to be irresistible.

Mrs. Derieux who manages Decca records in France, informs us that Raymond Legrand recently created a product company-Decca International in France for the Belgium line of Decca. Decca France will distribute the most interesting productions from the Raymond Legrand group.

Petula Clark is still our number one with her last hit: "C'est Ma Chanson". However, other very good interpretations of that song are available: Les Compagnons de la Chanson (CBS records) Tereza and Tino Rossi (E.M.I.).

Marianne Faithfull sang in the first French musical for TV Serge Gainsbourg's song "Hier ou Demain." The song is featured on her last EP (Decca). Through that same label, Maurice Larcange, famous accordionnist, just released an LP album with the greatest songs written on Paris. Title is "Ca C'est Paris." Chantal Goya is recording a new EP with new songs by husband Jean Jacques Debout, Roger Dumas, and André Popp. (Concorde Publishing).

Imudico A/S has obtained the publishing rights for Denmark of the British entry at the Eurovision Song Contest, "Puppet On A String." Originally recorded by Sandie Shaw in Britain, a Danish recording with Grethe Sønck is to be released soon. Danish lyrics ("Lille marionet") were penned by Volmer-Sørensen. Furthermore, Imudico A/S has obtained the world rights to "Mr. Joyful," the new single by Sir Henry & His Butlers, according to John Rasmussen of this EMI publishing house.

Recent releases from HNF (Hede Nielsens Fabriker A/S) include "Gonna Get Along Without Ya' Now" with Trini Lopez on Reprise, "Misty Morning Eyes" with James Darren on Warner Bros. as well as a number of LPs on RCA Victor and Monument. Among the LPs can be mentioned "More Of The Monkees."

"Top 20 for the Easter from EMI" is topped by "Penny Lane" with Beatles on Parlophone, "Sidste Dans" with Keld & Donkeys on HMV and "A Kind Of Hush" with Herman's Hermits on Columbia, according to a circular letter from EMI to all record retailers. Just before the Easter holidays, EMI rushed out "Lille Marionet," a Danish version of Britain's Song For Europe, "Puppet On A String" with Grethe Sønck on Columbia. The releases also included two British Columbia singles as well as four singles on Tamla-Motown. At the low-price label Regal was released six LPs.

FINLAND

"Batman Theme" by Neal Hefti is a single on a label called Batman released by Scandia-Musiikki Oy. Eino Grön has done "Lacrime" by Guido Cergoli with a local tune at the flip side on Scandia label. Both tunes are tangos. Other releases from same company include three Atlantic singles as well as a number of LPs on Pickwick, Metronome, Kapp, Riviera, Atlantic, Top-Music, Ember and Sue.

Latest releases from Oy Finnlevy includes Fredi on Philips with "Varjoonsuojaan", Finland's Song For Europe, backed with "Too Late My Love" in Finnish.

NORWAY

NORWAY

Arne Bendiksen A/S has just rushed out "Veslefrikk" (words and music by Ola Listrup) with Karin Krog on Triola—it's another of the songs in the recent local Song Festival here—backed with a Norwegian version of "I (Who Have Nothing)", here titled "Jeg." With this record in the pop field, Miss Krog hopes to convince the record buyers that she is not only a jazz vocalist but also able to get somewhere with a pop tune. Other releases from the same company include Everly Brothers on Warner Bros. with the LP album "The Hit Sound Of The Everly Brothers," Hank Thompson's Brazos Valley Boys on the same label with "The Countrypolitan Sound Of Hank Thompson's Brazos Valley Boys," Anita Kerr, also on WB, with "The Sea," and finally another WB LP album with Mexicali Singers.

Norsk Phonogram A/S (NPA) has three CBS LP albums, Barbra Streisand with "Je m'appelle Barbra" and an Andy Williams LP. Anne-Mette Pålsrud, local talent, only nine years old, has a single with two local tunes just released on Philips.

New sheet music from Polar Music AB includes the local tune "Jag tror på sommaren" (I Believe In The Summer), penned by Stig Olin, a waltz so far recorded here by Mats Olin (son of the composer) on Polar and Ann-Louise on Philips. Screen Gems Musikförlag AB is out with a folio with 16 songs titled "The Monkees Song-Book."

Symbols has a single at Polar label including the titles "You'd Better Get Used To Missing Her" and "Hideaway." It's originally a recording from the President label.

Recent releases from Scan-Disc Record Co. AB include Ulla Sallert with "The Shadow Of Your Smile" and "Maybe It's Because I'm A Londoner," both in Swedish on Scan-Disc. Other releases include Tommy James and Shondells on Roulette with "I Think We're Alone Now"/"Gone, Gone, Gone" and M. T. Else on Pep with "Stewball"/"The Way I Feel."

Osten Warnerbring, to represent Sweden at the Song For Europe in Vienna now has the Swedish entry also available at a Karusell EP.

Cupol has two local singles, one with Stockdoves and one with Stieg Ericson's Orchestra just out before Easter. Outsiders on Reprise (the Swedish label) has done "Don't Fight It" "From Four Until Late." Two singles at the Troll label include Davy Dean with "Take Me Home To Mama" b.w. "Houston" and a local single with Tony Jordan's Orchestra.

New sheet music from Southern Music AB include "Mellow Yellow" by Donovan Leitch, "Peek-A-Boo" with Swedish lyrics ("Gullegris") by Kerstin Aulén, "Winchester Cathedral" with Swedish lyrics ("I morr'n klockan två) by Amri-Per Spelman, "Semi-Detached Suburban Mr. James" with Swedish lyrics ("Vem kan motstå en mörkröd ros?") by Amri, and "Epistle To Dippy" by Donovan Leitch.

Funhouse or Flophouse?

What's to be said for many of our arcades? They're dirty, smell bad, the games are broken, the paint on the walls peel, the changemakers are bored, wearing Sunday's shirt until Wednesday, the popcorn machine is wide-open for a public health inspection—and you say you wonder why collections are down?

Such arcades exist not only in fact, but they exist in the minds of some city councellors as being the only types that exist-so down comes the man from City Hall and mumbles something about new licensing laws. Lost: one location.

A location which could have been saved by minimal expenditure and some honest work. Take out the old games, trade them in for newer ones, fix them or break them up for scrap. Paint the walls, sweep the floors each night before closing and each day before opening, demand of the employees that their clothes be clean, even if they can't smile while making change. Scrub down all food dispensing units every night, without fail.

A child would see none of these faults; so far as he's concerned, it's a marvelous playland. He doesn't mind dirt; he seeks it out. But if he asks Mama and Papa to take him to the arcade on a spring or summer's evening and mater familias sees how shabby the palace is, that's three customers lost. A reputation gets around and before long the customers are narrowed to the occasional kid stopping in for an occasional gumball.

One other thing: remove all "joke" items that may conceivably be in bad taste. These blacken an arcade's reputation; besides which the items are simply not funny. If the argument is raised that "the kids will get that stuff somewhere anyway," let it be somewhere else. Why take the risk of hanging yourself on a novelty tie with a risque slogan?

There is enough prejudice against arcades, as there is against all coin-operated equipment. In England the traveling fairs and arcades are fighting for licenses in every village they play. In metropolitan areas the arcades are being bulldozed or licensed to death.

If arcade locations are to be held, or new ones found, they must look like what they are supposed to be: simple, harmless amusement houses for the family. Clean, efficient and above all-profitable!

Chicago Coin Swings into Spring with 'Bullseye' 2-P Baseball Game

ChiCoin BULLSEYE 2P

CHICAGO — The more than usual flurry of activity at Chicago Coin— March 21, the first day of spring, 1967—is dramatically attributed to ChiCoin's hefty slugging "Bullseye" two-player baseball novelty amusement game. Heralding this introduction, a la "Lippy" Durocher and Eddie Stanky, Mort Secore, director of sales at Chicago Coin Machine Company, division of Chicago Dynamic Industries, Inc.; and Ross Scheer, director of customer relations and field sales, proudly intimated that ChiCoin's "Bullseye" stands ready to step up to the Baseball Hall Of Fame in Cooperstown along with such immortals as Babe Ruth, Ty Cobb, Honus Wagner and Larrupin' Lou Gehrig.

Scheer advised that "Bullseye" novelty baseball amusement game is geared for easy acceptability and continuous play in all sorts of locations. He pinpointed the fine playing and scoring features during an interview in his office last week with the Cash Box roving reporter.

He stated: "Here are some of the

He stated: "Here are some of the 'Hall of Fame' features in this outstanding amusement game: First and foremost, there is the 'Time Tested' 'Bullseye' opening on the colorfully illustrated playfield, which is adjustable to numerous, varied sizes. The 'Pop Up' ramp repeatedly pops up during the course of the game and retracts after each out is recorded on the light box. The ramp leads to the 'Bullseye' and increases the player's chances for a high score.

"Furthermore," Scheer added, "the 'Pitcher Control' units in the backbox make this game truly competitive, and keep two players constantly vieing in the game at all times. There are three selector buttons at the front of the cabinet, within very easy reach of the player, for 'pitch curves', 'fast balls' and 'slider' pitches.

He further explained that a "Cancel Out" feature awards a longer game to the skilled player by cancelling one out when bleacher hits are made by the player. In the event that (Continued on page 70)

Nebraska Ops Do the Weekend Thing

■ Sales Tax, Mech Class & Good Fun On the Agenda

OMAHA—Howard N. Ellis, secretary-treasurer of the Coin Operated Industries of Nebraska, Inc. (COIN), announced that the big spring meeting of the statewide association was scheduled for Saturday and Sunday, April 1-2, in the Holiday Inn, Grand Island, Nebraska.

The weekend activities were to kick off on Saturday afternoon when the entire contingent goes off to the races at the local track. COIN, again this year, was to present a blanket to the winning horse in one of the feature races. The rest of the Saturday activities were to be during the evening hours with a cocktail party and buffet dinner.

There was to be an up-to-date report on the performance rights legislation pending in Washington, D.C.

to open the business meeting on Sunday afternoon. Other business on the agenda was concerned with the state sales tax problems and other pertinent business. After this, a service school class on a coin-operated phonograph sponsored by one of the major phonograph manufacturers. This was to be followed by a cocktail party and the closing banquet, with door

Among the coin machine distributors in the wide area who participate in the Coin Operated Industries of Nebraska, Inc. meetings are: Hymie A Sales Company, in Omaha; Central Sales Co., headed by Lou Singer; and Philip Moss & Company. The Moss contingent is headed by Phil Moss, accompanied by Joe Blend.

1967 MOA Show Committees Named | Williams Breaks Out With 'Shangri La' 4-Player — 3 or 5 Ball Play — Ah, So!

Wms. SHANGRI LA

CHICAGO—Sam Stern, president and general manager of Williams Electronics, Inc., last week acclaimed what he proudly considers to be the ultimate in coin-operated flipper amusement excellence when he announced the introduction to the international coin machine markets of amusement excellence when he announced the introduction to the international coin machine markets of Williams "Shangri La" four player game, which is adjustable to three or five ball play; and, also, convertible to an add-a-ball model for certain areas in this country.

Not to be overlooked in this newest addition to a very successful full line of coin-operated amusement games at Williams Electronics is the fact that "Shangri La" is a four player, loaded with money making playing and scoring features, according to C. B. (Bill) DeSelm, who ranks as somewhat of an expert in the sales end of the amusement game field as one of the deans in point of service time over the years.

"Williams four players over the many years," DeSelm stated, "have attained a stature in the world's coin marts that is unrivalled. Countless hours of planning and preparation go into the creation of a flipper four player here at the factory before designing and engineering combine their considerable skills in readying a Williams amusement game for the final approval and production planning schedule.

"We are convinced that we have the very best for all locations ning schedule.

"We are convinced that we have the very best for all locations throughout the world in 'Shangri La' four player," he added. During a visit in the huge, modernly equipped Williams factory, located on the far northwest side of Windy City, Deselm explained the multitude of appointments and features of "Shangri La" four player flipper for the Cash Box roving reporter.

Box roving reporter.

To add to the thrills and suspense for players there are now four rotating targets on the playfield, strategically located. There is also a Williams "Number Match" indicator on the backglass.

Making the red one, two and three on the playfield lights up the red star at the bottom of the playfield. Also, stepping up in play by making the white one, two and three then lights up the white star at the bottom of the playfield. Then when the player continues along by making the blue one, two and three then lights up the blue star in the star series at the bottom of the playfield.

This exciting action steps up the center power action and progressively increases the point values. Following this the star value increases considerably as well. As Steve Kordick, the Williams engineer who is chiefly responsible for designing "Shangri La," spelled it out, the playing and scoring action on the playfield and lightbox builds up with such suspense and flashing activity that there is greater inducement to play the game "along the sidelines" in the location.

Actually, lighting a star opens a gate on the playfield (each time), and this again increases the values on the playfield. Lighting all three (red, white and blue) stars lights the "Special."

"Shangri La" four player is equipped with an automatic ball lift, individual lift out coin trays, stainless steel moulding and trim surrounding the playfield atop the cabinet, a stainless steel front door, and the Williams "Plastikote" finish on the playfield for greater durability. Single, double or triple coin chutes are optional equipment.

Deselm stated in conclusion that all Williams-United (Seeburg) distributors will shortly be well stocked with "Shangri La" four player flipper amusement games, along with the "Altair" puck bowler and other popular Williams-United games.

When John Tac Elms Sr. celebrated his 35th anniversary in the business in New Orleans on March 10, Seeburg Sales Corporation president Bill Adair was right on the scene to join in to congratulate.

Midway Bows 'Cobra' Shuffle

CHICAGO — "Spring has definitely 'sprung'" at Midway Manufacturing Company, where every effort in the beautiful, modern factory, located in west suburban Schiller Park, is being extended to considerably step up production and shipping to meet the immediate demands nationally for the new Midway "Cobra" puck shuffle alley bowler and "Fun Ball" baseball novelty amusement game.

When the Cash Box reporter huddled last week in the company's spacious offices with Midway's prexy Mark Wolverton, vice president Hank Ross and treasurer Art Rapacz there was no doubt that the firm's heads left no stone unturned to make available to the nation's coin machine operators the most exacting advanced and developed coin-operated shuffle and developed coin-operated shuffle alley amusement game.

"Now that we are in production," Ross declared, "we are confident that the operators have the best opportunity to reap maximum earnings in "Cobra' puck shuffle alley bowler. We now have available for locations everywhere a revolutionary, credit indicator feature on the backglass, whereby the standard midway amusement game is now equipped with two chutes. It will definitely out earn a single chute game anytime."

Ross further explained that now quarters are recorded when deposited in the chute. In other words, a credit new, sturdier, self-standing backbox. And, this, he said, requires no further explanation to those operators who have shuffle alleys in locations. The normally all-formica playfield now has formica on the top edge and sides (rails) for the maximum in striking appearance as well as durability (a definite plus feature).

And, if this isn't enough to whet the palate Ross then spelled out two now playing and scoring features offered with Midway's new "Cobra" shuffle alley bowler. In "Big Strike" bowling the player continues playing whenever the strike is made on the playfield. "Bonus" offers a build up to bonuses for each player. Actually, the "Bonus" game is adjustable to give unlimited strikes for the skilled player. There is also a "Regulation Bonus" scoring game, and the standard "Regulation" bowling; as well as "Flash" bowling, whereby the traveling lights across the playfield accentuate the excitement in playing to make maximum scores at precise flashing instances on the playfield.

Sample shipments of Midway's "Cobra" puck shuffle alley have been rushed out to the company's family of distributors, and operators are urged to drop in to see and play the game.

Vending Potential 'Tremendous': O'Malley

ST. LOUIS — Narrower margins temporarily but no long-range slow-down were foreseen for the nation's vending industry today by Patrick L. O'Malley, president of Canteen Corporation poration.

Addressing a luncheon meeting of the St. Louis Society of Financial Analysts, O'Malley said the vending industry "has a tremendous potential and without question one of the most industry "has a tremendous potential and without question one of the most glowing futures of any industry in our economy."

But he cautioned that "increased salaries and product costs within the industry could result in temporary narrowing of margins, calling for tighter management efficiency and controls."

O'Malley emphasized, however, that Canteen's own corporate goals still include reaching an annual volume approaching one-half billion dollars by 1970, with commensurate growth in earnings.

He declared that Canteen Corporation has become firmly engaged in the industry's new special service areas, including schools, hospitals, concessions, restaurant management and municipal service markets as the direct result of diversification programs instituted by new management in 1962.

Canteen sales in the past five years, he noted, have increased more than 60 per cent from $191 million in 1961 to the $313 million reported for fiscal 1966. Per share earnings have climbed from 40 cents in 1961 to $1.41 in 1966, and net earnings, excluding extra-ordinary gains, have more than tri-pled, rising from $2.69 million in 1961 to $9.69 million in 1966, O'Malley

Although declining to forecast 1967 results, O'Malley stated that all Canteen divisions were operating at a profit, and that current operations were proceeding at a record pace.

there are no outs to cancel, a higher score is awarded the player.

Also, two fixed "Home Run" ramps loft the ball for upper tier scoring. Extra runs score if both bleachers are hit during the course of the igame. In addition, according to Ross Scheer, the star target is adjustable for extra runs or cancelling an out. Chicago Coin's "Bullseye" baseball novelty amusement game is mounted in a pin game size cabinet whose bright "baseball" colors herald the through the spring season. The agree is set to receive 10¢ and 25¢ coinage in the free play or novelty models.

Chicago Coin has incorporated the design of the spring colors and the design of the spring season.

Chicago Coin has incorporated the desuse of a new type chrome steel dooring and cabinet trim, and coin rejectors Authow are reportedly equipped with desimicro switches. AUTOMATIC 'SATELLITE'

ST. PAUL—Automatic Products Company, is now offering its Satellite series of Smokeshop cigarette vendors with redesigned columns for accomodating the new, extra long cigarettes. This innovation will save cigarette sales now being lost by other vendors which cannot handle the increasingly popular 100 millimeter and Super King brands.

Up to nine extra loug brands can be vended from the 27 and 36 column Smokeshops.

Available in three different capacity-models, the versatile Smokeshop has consistently incorporated the latest vending features for operator convenience, according to Merrill Steincamp, executive of Automatic Products Company. As examples, he cited such other advantages as the ease of price changing, and the unique, selective change maker.

A "flick of the finger" for each column can change a price up to 50 cents. Futher increases to $1 are accomplished with a simple service adjustment.

"As a result," said Steincamp, "the Smokeshop cannot be made obsolete by price factors."

The change making merchanism, an Automatic Products exclusive, accepts half dollars, quarters, dimes and nickels, and returns change in nickles.

In addition to these features, the Smokeshop is a "sales stimulator because of its incomparable eye appeal."

The brand selector panel is attractively styled and easy to use, and the sleek, modern cabinet combines handsome vinyl finish and chrome trim, plus generous "personalizing" space for identifying the location. There are six eye-cathing vinyl finishes to choose from—black walnut, driftwood, turquoise, tangerine, astro flame, and astro peacock.

Each is available in any of the three Smokeshop models—the 630 pack capacity, 850 pack, or the 900 pack designed expressly for banked vending. "And each model also features Automatic Products exclusive interior design, which utilizes a minimum of parts for the most efficient operation and economical servicing, "said Steincamp."

perforated "pages," one the cover of the little LP—with the specific titles —the other two containing title strips and miniature covers for insertion in phonograph and wallbox display pan-phonograph and wallbox display panels.

Twenty title strips and six miniatures are provided in the pack, all perforated for easy removal.

The four LP's released last week (see reviews in this issue) are "Spiced With Brazil" by Nancy Ames, "Bobby Hackett Plays Tony Bennett's Greatest Hits," "Almost Persuaded" by David Houston and "If You Go Away" by Damita Jo. by Damita Jo.

Epic Records chief Len Levy said last week that "our choice of material for jukebox little LPs is made very carefully to provide the operator with what will sell for him. The jukebox is one of the last remaining voices for 'adult good music' and we think these little LPs are good for jukeboxes and good for us."

The exciting, new features in both would easily fill this column space. . . Williams prexy Sam Stern will meet with a group of coin machine execs in Windy City to get the ball rolling in this year's Combined Jewish Appeal fund drive in conjunction with the Amusement Trades Division on Wednesday, April 5.

fund drive in conjunction with the Amusement Trades Division on Wednesday, April 5.

As a result of the recent board of directors meetings of MOA in Washington, D.C. the various 1967 convention committees roster has been appointed by Jim Tolisano, president of MOA, and approved by the board of directors. Convention co-chairman are A. L. (Lou) Ptacek, of Bird Music Co., in Manhattan, Kansas; and Russell Mawdsley, of Russell-Hall, Inc., of Holyoke, Mass. The chairmen under their guidance are: Howard N. Ellis, Committee on Committees; William Anderson, Banquet Committee; Les Montooth, Registrations; Jack Bess heads up the Membership Committee; Frank Fabiano handles double duty with the Exhibit Committee and Nominating Committee; Henry Leyser, Public & Foreign Relations, a subject he is eminently qualified for; and who else conducts Forums as Johnny Trucano (Forums Committee); Bill Cannon, who wears many hats at MOA, will head up the Awards Committee as well; and Al Denver, who has been in the forefront for these many years, will direct the Evaluation Committee. All this leaves Fred Granger and Bonnie York is just a heck-uv-a-lot of work in their own little bailiwick at convention time (which is October 27-29) in the Pick Congress Hotel.

While on association business, Chicago Chatter is happy to report that our favorite legislator, Zeke Giorgi, an esteemed representative in the Illinois Legislature, and owner of Midwest Distribs in Rockford, will be one of the featured speakers at the big Sunday (April 23) meeting of the Illinois Coin Machine Operators Association (ICMOA). Giorgi will report to the assemblage on the pending pinball law. Others who will compile reports on this legislature are ICMOA's Legislative Committee members—Harry Schaffner, Alton; Les Montooth, Peoria; and Earl Kies, of Niles, Illinois. MOA's Fred Granger will also address the group on the recent MOA board meeting in Washington, D.C.

recent MOA board meeting in washington, D.C.

All profit making targets, we're told by Mort Secore and Ross Scheer, of Chicago Coin, are aimed at Chi-Coin's new "Bullseye" baseball game, and it's a beauty. . . Since NAMA reactivated Operation Alert earlier this year for its members more than 103,000 decals for cigarette machines warning minors against the illegal sale of cigarettes have been distributed by the association, according to Tom Hungerford, NAMA's genial executive director. . . . Certainly one of the biggest location pieces in recent months making its way out to locations everywhere from the confines of Bally Mfg. Co., according to our favorite historian Herb Jones, is our favorite historian Herb Jones, is the exciting "Capersville" flipper amusement game. Reports from distribs attest to the phenomenal ac-

Just last week Pete Entringer, of Advance Distribs in St. Louis, Mo., held a showing in "Little Egypt" (the Cairo-Cape Girardeau area) featuring "Capersville" along with the Rowe-AMI "PhonoVue" audio-visual adaptor and "Music Merchant" phono and the equally exciting Fischer pocket pool table models (Frank Schroeder could easily give us a mere five thousand words on this subject!).

Over at D. Gottlieb & Co. the fine spring season is beginning to really make itself obvious. Alvin Gottlieb indicates that this will be a big year in more ways than one. It is also the 40th anniversary of the company as the dean of the pinball amusement games. . . The Coin Operated Industries of Nebraska (COIN) meetings was held in Grand Island, April 1-2, with such worthies as Howard Ellis, Tel Nichols, Harry Abramson, et al; and, distribs Hymie and Eddie Zorinsky, H. Z. Vending & Sales Co.; Phil Moss and Joe Blend, Philip Moss & Co.; and Lou Singer, of Central Sales holding forth. . . . Coinvet Les Montooth, of Peoria, distributes a monthly "Cheer" publication to his friends and customers monthly, and has been doing it for quite a while. It is well written and well prepared typographically. He should be commended for such resourceful thinking (and so we are) doing just that!).

NEWS ALONG THE DISTRIBUTION FRONT: Now that Eddie Ginsburg and Mike Blumberg are back in their offices at Atlas Music Co. the weather here turned into something resembling the sunny climes (think they had something to do with it?). . . . Gil Kitt, Joe Robbins, Jack Burns and Bill Milner are having a field day at Empire Distribs with deliveries of Rock-Ola phonos, amusement games and Fischer pool tables, business is that great there. . . We get the message from Fred Skor at World Wide Distribs that the new Williams "Shangri La" four player is a terrific flipper, and should have great success. . . . Joe Schwartz and Mort Levinson, of National Coin Machine Exchange, expected a healthy spring season—and thus far they're not being disappointed. They are burning the midnight oil getting deliveries out to their customers. . . . DON'T FOR GET TO GET YOUR EARLY RESERVATIONS OUT TO THE HOLIDAY INN EAST IN SPRINGFIELD FOR THE ICMOA MEETING, APRIL 22-23!

MILWAUKEE MENTIONS

Kenny and Johnny Glenn, of K C Sales & Services, in St. Paul, will host a three day showing, April 3, 4, & 5, in their showrooms featuring Rowe-AMI's "PhonoVue" audio-visual adaptor along with the "Music Merchant" phonograph. Paul Huebsch, midwestern representative for Rowe Mfg. Corp.; and Joel Kleiman, of Pioneer Sales & Services, in Milwaukee, will also be on hand to greet the areawide operators and service Pioneer Sales & Services, in Milwaukee, will also be on hand to greet the areawide operators and service personnel. . . . Very busy Joel Kleiman relates that orders in Cream City on Rowe-AMI's "PhonoVue" are so heavy the Pioneer staffers are pushing hard to fill the orders. And, he added, that goes for "Music Merchant" phonos and Rowe vending machines. The big job at Pioneer is scheduling truck deliveries on a tight time basis. Busiest bee at Pioneer keeping an eye on deliveries is Sam Cooper. . . . Sam Hastings, of Hastings Distribs, is back in his own bailiwick after the hectic meeting action in the nation's capital. . . MOA director Jerome "Red" Jacomet, of Red's Novelty Co., is definitely becoming more immersed in MOA activities. During his stay in Washington for the board meetings he somehow was tabbed by prexy Jim Tolisano for the convention committees. . . A very busy coinman in Cream City is Nate Victor, of S. L. London Music Co., with a very heavy increase in deliveries of Seeburg music and in deliveries of Seeburg music and vending equipment and Williams amusement games. . . . The key to getting action, as spelled out by Empire Distribs man-in-motion Bob Rondeau, is getting out where the action is in good weather or foul. Bob covers a lot of mileage during the year in calling on his customers in Wisconsin and Michigan.

CALIFORNIA CLIPPINGS

PICO BLVD. REVISITED . . . We had originally planned to reminisce about the activities that were taking place ten years ago this week. But low and behold, we discovered that there was no California Clippings (how did they do without us for so long?)! Then we decided to look back 5 years ago, but still there was no C.C. (unbelievable). But, at last, success, in 1963 Cash Box annexed California, and added this column, which we realize everyone will be eternally grateful for. Dateline April 6th: Main topic of conversation was centered around Williams "Major League" and Midway's "Slugger." Clayton Ballard and family were spending the weekend in their cabin in the mountains. There was a lot of talk about Bally's new 5 ball "Moon Shot." The California Medical Association Convention was going on at the Ambassador. George Cates paid a visit to California Music promoting his Dot disk, "Diamond Head." Leo Simone was district manager of the Seeburg west coast office. Duarte International was keeping busy with load of export orders shipping to such far off parts as Australia, Japan and the Phillipines. Hank Tronick was talking about something.

USED EQUIPMENT CONTINUES something.

something.

USED EQUIPMENT CONTINUES TO MOVE WELL AT C. A. ROBINSON... Not only that but Hank Tronick is still talking (we love you Hank). This week in 1967 he reports that Mike Hall, service manager, is heading for St. Louis to take care of a little business and to visit with his mother. Hank says that he will be sorely missed, because used equipment sales are at an all time high. But Mike promises to work twice as hard when he gets back. Charlie Robinson and wife are expected to leave the end of this week on an around the world trip. Another well known figure in the coin machine business, Ray Eberts, ex op, and now in the furnace business, also leaves for an extended 3 month world tour.

FROM THE RECORD RACKS...

for an extended 3 month world tour.

FROM THE RECORD RACKS . . .

Talked with Buddy Robinson of California Music, and he was in fine spirits, he quipped, "L.P.'s are really taking off, looks like it will be the end of 78's! Anyway, Buddy goes on to say that the Nitty Gritty Dirt Band is getting great response with their single "Buy For Me The Rain" on Liberty. Looks like Lou Rawls is back on the charts with his latest deck for Capitol, entitled "Dead End Street." An R&B breakout that has gone pop in a big way is "I Never Loved A Man (like I loved you) by Aretha Franklin on an Atlantic label. The new George Shearing single "On A Clear Day You Can See Forever" is the cause for much delight among jukebox operators. Buddy tells us that he is "breathlessly" awaiting the arrival of the Sinatra and Antonio Carlos Jobim album. Buddy heard it and said that it was just brilliant, and that's saying a lot, coming from Buddy. One album that is in stock, and really climbing up the charts is "Surrealistic Pillow" by Jefferson Airplane on RCA. . . . The Solle sisters at Luenhagen, give us the news that Buck Stapelton of Capitol was checking on the progress of Buck Owens' newst "Sam's Place." Biggest seller over there, according to the gals, is "A Little Bit Me And A Little Bit You" by none other than those wild Monkees.

HERE AND THERE . . Bob Portale of Advance Automatic Sales, just FROM THE RECORD RACKS

HERE AND THERE . . . Bob Portale of Advance Automatic Sales, just back after spending a few days in San Francisco. He reports that Chicago Coin's "Beatnik" going great guns with ops. Also still continuing to bring in the bread is Gottlieb's "King of Diamonds". . . . Sorry to hear that Britt Adelman of Paul A.

Laymon Co. is out sick. Jimmy Wilkins tells us that another shipment of late model used equipment just arrived. Audio Stereo tapes for restaurants and bars, are moving along very well, according to Jimmy. We hear that Don Peters, formerly of Los Angeles, and now owner of his own town in Nevada, Denio, is expanding his operation with the addition of a restaurant. If you like the wide open spaces it's a great place to be. It's a hundred and thirty miles from nowhere.

Upper Mid-West Musings

North Dakota operators were pretty well represented in the cities this week as Stan Baeder of Fargo in town to pick up his daughter in school and drive her home for the Easter vacation. . . . Mr. & Mrs. Jack Backus, Jamestown, in town for a few days. Brought their two daughters along for a little vacation. Jack busy making the rounds and the girls having a field day shopping in the stores. . . . Mr. & Mrs. Bob Addington, Bismack, in town for a couple of days, flying in over the weekend and flying home. . . . Bob Leonard back from his trip to Florida. Spent about 5 weeks there and enjoyed every minute of it. . . . Mr. & Mrs. Dave Chapman just returned this week from a nice vacation in Miami. Dave coming back with a nice tan and ready to go to work. . . Jim Stansfield in town for the day. Son Jim Jr. in the reserves for 6 months at Columbia, Ga. . . . Sy Wiederholt in town for a few hours, . . . Mr. & Mrs. Don Hazelwood are driving to the west coast for a few weeks vacation . . . Darlow Maxwell in town overnight and driving back to Pierre. . . . Clayton Norberg in town for the day just having returned from a 5 week vacation in California visiting his daughter. . . . Mr. & Mrs. Gordon Runnberg and their children in town for the day just having returned from a 5 week vacation in California visiting his daughter. . . . Mr. & Mrs. Gordon Runnberg and their children in town for the day picking up parts and records. . . . Doug Smart in town for a few hours. . . John Galep in town for a few hours. Was in a bad accident about 10 days ago. Driving with his uncle, the back end of his wagon was hit by a freight train crossing the track. Station Wagon was demolished, Johnny luckily was just bruised and a few scratches but Harry was injured badly and rushed to the hospital and later transferred to St. Joseph hospital at St. Paul, Minn. Harry later suffered a slight stroke and is doing as well as can be expected.

Off to Sunny Puerto Rico - Winners of "Rowe-Mance" Tour

ST. LOUIS—Leaving for a week of sun and fun in San Juan, Puerto Rico on a cold 20° morning is a mighty nice thing by itself. But, when it doesn't cost you even a red cent, that's really hitting the jack pot! This good fortune recently came to Gary Morris and his wife Barbara of St. Louis, Mo.

The young Morrises were really pinch hitting for their father, Sydney Morris of J. S. Morris & Sons Novelty Co., St. Louis, Mo., who recognizes a bargain when he sees one. A few months ago, when the Rowe Manufacturing Company introduced their new Music Merchant Phonograph, they offered to reward anyone who wanted to become a "Music Merchant" with a free luxury trip.

Advance Distributing Company's sales manager, Pete Entringer, called on Sydney and told him of this package deal based on points earned by purchases. Sydney took advantage of the opportunity by placing a volume order for phonographs, which he needed to purchase anyway. Before very long, Sydney and brother Walt had enough points to get the free trip, but they had recently absorbed another operating company and were too busy to take a trip at this time.

Gary had some free time from his Court Dockets and was planning a vacation anyway, so father gave him enough points out of his purchases to take the trip. Sydney and Walt Morris still have enough points left so that they can take a trip later.

Says Entringer, "I have found that my customers really like the idea of buying phonographs as they need them and at the same time accumulate points to take a free vacation. It has helped my sales tremendously."

H. C. Keels and his Arcade; Playing his Song at Myrtle Beach

FLORENCE, S.C.—Music operating is his business but a sparkling new amusement arcade he opened less than one year ago in the nearby Myrtle Beach resort area is his pet pleasure. That's H. C. Keels—president of the Keels Music Co., chairman of the board of the South Carolina Music Operators association, MOA director and operator of the Grand Stand Amusement Park Arcade.

Keels first opened the doors of his

Robbins: What to do to Avoid Those Direct Sales

Those Direct Sales

CHICAGO—The gay approach of the spring season in the coin machine industry always accelerates and greatly enervates the production and promotional activities in the various departments in the factories and distributor showrooms and offices. Accordingly, the ever bustling office of Joe Robbins, vice president and general sales manager of Empire Distributing Company, Inc., in Windy City, demonstrates this intensification in planning and preparation, since he and Gil Kitt, president and owner of Empire Distribs, are convinced that spring of '67 offers fireat potentials in sale of all types of coin machines (new and used) and vending equipment for locations.

However, Robbins tempered his glowing optimism with an ominous warning to the nation's operators to exercise caution and to beware particularly of the threat in various regions of direct-to-location sales of coin-operated equipment.

"This is an ever increasing problem," he warned, "and, from time to time, it becomes a serious problem in certain vulnerable areas. In some cases it is due to a blue-sky selling operation by some opportunists. But, in many other cases it is a situation which is caused, in part, by the operator himself through neglect and carelessness.

"In any event," Robbins added, there location events who has a pool which is caused, in part, by the operator himself through neglect and carelessness.

"In any event," Robbins added, "any location owner who has a pool table (for example) in his place of business for a long period of time is a prime prospect for the location seller. The location owner observes the table in operation month after month with very few, if any, service problems, and with a fine steady income. He may observe the operator or his service personnel recloth the table on location with comparative ease and simplicity.

"It is only natural, therefore, for any location owner to start to thinking about the possibility of purchasing his own equipment. It begins to appear more logical with every pass-appear more logical with every passing day. The operator should always be aware of these ominous pitfalls, and make it his business to keep upto-date equipment in his locations at all times to keep the location owner satisfield that he is being given the kind of treatment he rates."

Robbins set forth certain important guidelines for the alert operator to consider if he it to accomplish an harmonious relationship with his location owners.

He said: "While in some situations it is absolutely impossible to avoid the direct-to-location sale, there are many things that the operator can do, and should do immediately, to forestall this evil practice in his area."

He listed the following guidelines: (1) Purchase new pool tables for all locations which warrant them. (2) Remove coin chutes from used tables and recondition and recloth them for sale to home buyers. (3) Keep one or two spare tables in the shop for switching purposes. If possible, switch a table instead of reclothing on location. In any event, try to avoid re-(Continued on Cover 3) arcade to the Myrtle Beach tourist set on June 20, 1966. It was an instant and consistent success throughout the summer months. Kicking off the 1967 season March 24th, barely two weeks ago, with an estimated 25,000 men, women and youngsters in attendance, his Myrtle Beach fun palace should enjoy good fortune this year again.

should enjoy good fortunate again.

Although a relative newcomer to arcade operation, Keels' simple success formula is well worth noting—it works! 1. operate multiple banks of ski balls, bowlers and gun games; 2. offer plush, quality prizes for game score winners and 3. dress the location in attractive promotional aids such as lighted signs, stuffed animals and other samples of premiums available to winners.

er samples of premiums available to winners.

Of the 100-plus pieces of new amusement equipment which line the arcade's aisles, Keels operates 16 ski balls, 20 big ball bowlers, 20 Midway Captain Kid guns, 20 William Pitch & Bat baseballs (all in clean, even banks) plus four U.S. Billiards 3½ x 7 coin tables, two Model 14 Auto-Photo studios, ten All-Tech and Bally kiddie rides and an assortment of miscellaneous devices—all in an area measuring approximately 100 x 100'

Keels is determined that every player goes off with at least one prize, even offering premium tickets valued at 1¢ for just playing the game. Prizes on display vary from a simple comb for a few tickets up to waffle irons, cameras and rifles for multiple ticket winners. Naturally, a huge inventory of prizes is maintained adjacent to the arcade's redemption counter.

"Just on our opening weekend," Keels advised, "we gave away in excess of 300 prizes ranging in value from $3.00 to $5.00."

The entire operation can be easily supervised from Keels' paneled office above the floor where a large picture window and a public address system afford him the freedom to see and speak to his ten changemakers and maintenance men shuffling among the machines below.

Arcade operation in Myrtle Beach, needless to say, is a profitable venture for Keels. What the future holds in store as far as expansion is concerned will have to wait for now. For the present, the ping, pang, clang of these machines keeps him fairly well occupied. Looking down from his vantage point, Keels remarks, "they're playing my song."

What's so special about Fischer tables that makes them the favorite of operators coast-to-coast?

DAMITA JO

"If You Go Away"—Epic Stereo Little LP 5-26244

"If You Go Away"—Epic Stereo Little LP 5-26244

It is pleasant to record that a girl who started off as a "cannibal" singer is now secure in her own style; Damita Jo began her career with Yes, I'll Save The Last Dance For You, an "answer" to Save The Last Dance For Me—a technique devised by some promotion executive in the far-flung pop music industry which must come under the heading of "Wretched Excesses"—this was in the 1950's and Damita Jo remained more or less submerged after her first effort. Now she is back with If You Go Away which she's done all by herself and the resultant acclaim and radio play prove after all that there can be a Happy Ending. Mark how she takes command of that great old chestnut Dinner For One, Please, James. Wisely, she sings it once through and quits; a reprise of the ridge and last chorus would ruin a long like James, since it is pure narrative and paints a detailed picture. "He doesn't cheer my lonely hours/—No, don't move my favorite flowers"... or "He will not be dining/Yes, you may bring the wine in." A fine performance on a song for which comparative tears may be shed today. Also included are Yellow Days; Love, I Found You; A Time To Love and No Guilty Feelings. The arrangements are standard as befits the standard type songs, with battalions of sighing violins. Program in good music locations.

BOBBY HACKETT

"Plays Tony Bennett's Greatest Hits" —Epic Stereo Little LP 5-26220

Considering that Hackett is one of the best jazz horns around, and considering that Bennett (in this reviewer's opinion) is the finest American pop singer extant, it is a pity they couldn't have gotten together on this album. Bennett's feel and respect for jazz and good musicians would have provoked some outstanding performances. But Hackett alone is still worth quite a lot, although he doesn't get a chance (except for one track) to cut loose. The album is a "mood music" effort, with all the tempos save one the yawning, How about a little kiss? type, and Hackett performs the "mood" trumpeter's function—play straight melody with fuzzy frills in between, lay out for a chorus of strings, come back and play the melody and spend a lot of time getting to the last note. For what it is, it's good—Hackett's reputation as a "mood" horn is supreme. But on Just In Time he loosens up and has some fun with the tune, Considering that Hackett is one of clothing the same table on location more than a few times at all. If you repeatedly recloth a pool table on location this only makes it apparent to the location owner how easy it is to maintain a pool table and serves as yet another factor in getting him to think of how very simple it would be for him to acquire his own equipment.

to think of how very simple it would be for him to acquire his own equipment.

(4) Always install the largest possible pool table in a location. It appears that a larger pool table is not only more impressive, but will actually earn more money. In addition, in the event that the location owner is ever approached concerning purchase of his own tables, he will find that the larger table will cost him a great deal more money, thus may tend to dissuade him.

(5) Keep first quality balls and cues on location at all times. Many complaints are received from locations concerning broken, bent, or otherwise unusable cue sticks, and balls that are chipped, discolored, etc.

Robbins stated in conclusion: "We seriously believe that if an operator follows the aforementioned guidelines he will be doing all he possibly can he will be doing all he possibly can to avoid and forestall any direct location sales in his territory. It may not completely eliminate the possiblity, but it certainly will cut down the probabilities.

squeezing out the last note as if it were something fat trying to get through a narrow door. Hackett, who appears to be playing trumpet on these tracks instead of his usual and favored cornet, has been compared in tone and feeling to Bix Beiderbecke, and listening to these sides brings memories of the stories about Bix sitting through the Paul Whiteman "concert" arrangements until it was time for him to get up and blow a few bars. But let that go—the album is excellent jukebox material. Program in sophisticated locations.

NANCY AMES

"Spiced With Brazil"—Epic Stereo Little LP 5-26238

Little LP 5-26238

Remembered as the long tall blonde with Ethel Merman's lung power and Sassy Vaughn's coziness from the days of "That Was The Week That Was," Miss Ames slips through five Brazilian numbers and a bossa nova treatment of the Beatles' I Feel Fine, proof again of the writing talents of John Lennon and Paul McCartney. The original Beatles' harmony and modulations of I Feel Fine—leaving out the electronic gimeracks—have not been used in her version, and they might have been to great advantage. But these sides strike a kind of balance between pure bossa nova and acceptable commercial music. So Nice is a tune that, if sung as written, can't come off bad, and since Miss Ames knows how to sing, she and the song get along fine. Best of the lot is Laia La Daia, which appears to be an unabashed prayer to some delightful pagan god to send a lonely nymph a satyr. Miss Ames does a superlative job on this tune. It should be mentioned that on So Nice, the performance is aided and abetted by the guitar of Laurindo Almeida, who should be playing a lot more than he does on these tracks, but he is caught in the same situation as Bobby Hackett, playing to a type instead of swinging for the sake of it. Also included on this album are Mas Que Nada, A Man And A Woman and Love's Like Wine. Program in good music locations.

DAVID HOUSTON

"Almost Persuaded" — Epic Stereo Little LP 5-26213

Well, anyone listening to this album, specifically the first track, Almost Persuaded, will know why Houston won the Grammy award. For the same reason that "The Sound of Music" and all who had a hand in it, cleaned out the Oscar factory last year. It sells; "it" referring to country & western or "town and country" music; a specific song which is ultra-type, as is Almost Persuaded, and a singer who milks the song mercilessly—and, most important, with complete sincerity. Houston and the tune and the style fit exactly. Let it be said that there is nothing wrong with this arrangement; the reaction to T & C tunes and performances depends on one of two things: whether one is selling it or whether one likes it. If most T & C seems at times to be bathetic or simply hilarious and campy, that is personal taste; but if T & C is legion to several millions of people, well and good. Now having dispensed with the apologia, let us get on with the album. Houston's style, perfect, as mentioned, for Persuaded, does not work on something like Ramblin' Rose—Nat Cole's interpretation was correct. As for Tonight You Belong to Me, the only competition is the decade-old version by Patience & Prudence—so help him Hannah, this reviewer will take P & P. To go back to "town and country" for a minute; note that the instruments on Tonight You Belong To Me include a vibranote that the instruments on Tonight You Belong To Me include a vibra-phone and that Little Pedro contains Spanish-strummed 12-string guitar. Don't Mention Tomorrow and From A Jack To A King are standard, with polite arrangements. Program in T & C locations; the name alone will
