Renewed Spending Power

Americans, thrifty in recent months to the point of making record deposits in savings banks, are loosening their purse strings. The report from the retail area indicates that as spring breaks through, the Easter buying season is blossoming forth with strong consumer reaction.

While it is premature to take stock of the effect of the fantastic political development of the past week, it is generally agreed that the economic picture looks good. Specifically, the dollar is expected to gain new prestige as an aftermath of the recent decision in Stockholm to establish a "paper gold" reserve, and, of more immediate import, the consumer seems to no longer fear the prospects of tax surcharge, the need for which was amplified once more in President Johnson's dramatic, I am not - a - candidate - for - the - Presidency speech. Also, the President's move to achieve a negotiated settlement of the Vietnam war is also worthy of mention as a stimulus to greater economic stability. Favorable stock market reaction to North Vietnam's decision to discuss the President's actions also helps a number of indie companies in the disk industry that make investments in securities.

All these points may seem far removed from the record business, but those factors that account for an upturn in the nation's economy can eventually have an impact in record sales. A buyer for one of the major discount chains, in fact, told us the other day that record sales were in good shape. He did, however, point out that the business could use an "exciting new record." You know, the kind that comes along and makes the whole business look good for a couple of months.

It is one thing, of course, for an economy to have developed to a state where the consumer has the eagerness and capacity to spend his money and another for a specific industry to be the benefactor of this renewed spending-power. The record industry of late has had its problems, some of the most crucial of which have had nothing to do with supplying "exciting" product. Product with strong turnover potential has been around, but so has confusion regarding the changeover from a mono & stereo LP business to stereo only. Most labels, however, have erased new mono inventory, with the compatible concept in its varied forms now well established.

As for product, well that's the business' big X factor. The creative process, unfortunately, does not rise or fall with economic or political barometers. However, it is at least comforting to create with the knowledge that there's a market out there that is more likely to part with the luxury-goods dollar.

MCA Gears For Int'l Look

NEW YORK—MCA is on its way toward becoming an indie disk factor around the globe.

This prospect was covered last week at a press conference where Bill Gallagher was named to head MCA's label operations in the U.S. and abroad. MCA Records was formed in England last Jan. when a rep deal with British Decca came to an end. An arrangement with British Decca for the Continent is being terminated this Dec. At that time, Gallagher said, the MCA logo will debut throughout Europe, with particular emphasis in the key markets of Italy, Germany and France.

Gallagher, who recently spent an entire month looking into the disk scene in England and on the Continent, is optimistic about the potential of disk sales abroad. He said that the Continent would virtually become a single market when tariffs are removed—as part of the Common Market philosophy—as of July.

Gallagher also said that the areas of Asia, South America and Australia would also be blueprinted into the international growth of MCA's disk interests.

All past editions of Cash Box and those to follow are being put on microfilm through the New York Public Library. The project, which is expected to be completed over a period of several months, was initiated following many inquiries to the Library by those interested in obtaining access to back issues of the magazine.

FRONT COVER:

Simon & Garfunkel, a remarkable success story before their music and singing in the hot film, "The Graduate," are doing memorable post-"Graduate" sales for the Columbia label. The soundtrack of the "Graduate" is a number 1, RIAA-certified gold seller. And previous LP product, including "Parsley, Sage, Rosemary & Thyme" and "Sounds of Silence," have been revitalized on the charts. A new LP, "Bookends," is off-and-running, Columbia reports. Album contains the pair's new single, "Mrs. Robinson," which appears in a shortened version in "The Graduate." Single-wise, S&G are solidly represented now with "Scarborough Fair." They appear, by the way, on the April 28 Andy Williams' TV special, "H. Andrew Williams' Kaleidoscope Co."

Decca Faces New Era As Gallagher Heads MCA Labels

NEW YORK—A full-scale reassessment of the Decca Records operation will be a chief responsibility of Bill Gallagher, who was named last week operational head of all the record divisions of MCA. These include Decca, Brunswick, Kapp and Uni.

While Gallagher was given the general title of vp of leisure-time activities when he joined MCA late last year, it was assumed that the veteran music man would play a key role in calling the shots for MCA's activities in the record business.

Directs All Phases

Gallagher, according to Berle Adams, exec vp of MCA, to whom Gallagher will report, will be responsible for the policy and the operations as well as the planning in all areas of the record division, including manufacturing, promotion and talent development. He'll also direct all label operations abroad (see separate story).

All executives from the various labels will report to Gallagher. It's understood that Milton Rackmil, vice-chairman of the board of MCA, who was chief of Decca, will shift his activities to other areas of MCA. Other major Decca execs, including Leonard W. Schneider, Syd Goldberg and Marty Salkin, continue in their posts. Schneider, who is past MCA's mandatory retirement age of 65, is expected to be retained for "consultant assignments," Adams said. Adams pointed to the "unusual" aspect of company loyalty at Decca, with many members who joined the company when it began operations back in 1934 still on the personnel roster. Among those, Isobel Marks, head of the copyrights, and Lou Buckner, accounting dept. head, will stay on.

However, both Gallagher and Adams, appearing at a press conference in MCA's board room in New York last week, make it plain that the Decca set-up was being fully studied, with the general aim to create a "swinging" operation in place of one that both execs regard as "conservative."

Gallagher and Adams said that MCA was now in a good position to judge the merits of "two distinct organizations," a factory-owned distrib operation (Decca) and one channeled through indie distributors (Kapp and Uni). Uni was formed by MCA a little more than a year ago, while Kapp came under the corporate umbrella of MCA last year.

Gallagher stressed the importance of Decca's catalog as a backbone that "works for you" during the peaks-and-valleys of running a record company. However, he and Adams indicated that new, young "stars" must be created, even at the risk of "making mistakes." Adams, by the way, said that a "star system" would play a key role in talent acquisitions—a method, he added, that had worked for MCA's film interests.

In an official announcement of the Gallagher appointment, Adams said that the "record industry throughout the world is in the throes of an evolutionary phase. MCA must keep abreast of the new technical developments and the new merchandising techniques emerging in our industry." He cited the change from mono to stereo, the tape cartridge field, the consolidation and continued growth of rack jobbers in the U.S. The emergence of mass marketing techniques abroad, he said, is

Capitol Sets Internal 'Indie A&R' Concept In East Under Kornfeld

NEW YORK—A unique "independent A&R" concept within the structure of Capitol Records has been established.

Artie Kornfeld, writer-producer, has been named to helm this new direction under the tag of director of contemporary recording, reports Stan Gortikov, president of the label.

Kornfeld's clear-field in possessing the autonomy to sign artists, producers, masters and even place ads and institute direct promotional campaigns is underscored by the fact that he will operate out of offices separate from those at Capitol's New York headquarters. Also, it's understood that the agreement calls for Kornfeld to employ his own public relations outlet. In this regard, he has selected Richard Gersh Associates, based in New York.

Define Concept

Gortikov defined the label's "independent A&R" philosophy by declaring that Kornfeld would have "an unprecedented opportunity to act spontaneously and to initiate instant market action with all the freedom and flexibility he may require. This is what we mean by 'independent A&R.'"

Gortikov also noted that while Kornfeld joins the company "on-staff, yet he will remain, functionally, truly independent in all that he does for us." He termed the move "an industry break-through."

The Kornfeld move is seen as another move by Capitol to strengthen its representation on the east coast, with special emphasis on New York.

Exec Responsibilities Shifted At Capitol In Line w/ Label's Long-Range Blueprint

NEW YORK — Capitol Records management structure has undergone a major realignment of executive responsibilities.

Bob Yorke, vice president and general manager of CRDC, said that the firm took into consideration "our immediate and long range objectives" and reshaped the organization "to best provide growth for the company and our employees."

He stated that the new organization "will better serve to define levels of responsibility, improve communication channels, and organize related activity so that we most effectively and efficiently use the individual and collective talents of every CRDC employee."

Marketing/Sales Changes

Pete Goyak has been appointed national sales training manager and a six division-eighteen district sales system is being instituted to aid John Jossey, Capitol's national sales manager, in maintaining the marketing and sales organization's reputation "for being quick, responsive and hard-hitting."

Yorke noted that "we feel that our future is best assured by training and development within the company. In this role, because of his experience and knowledge, Goyak is ideally suited to undertake this new task." Assisting Goyak will be Seattle's former field merchandising manager Jay Swint.

Roger Brown will continue as special products manager working with various tape merchandise as well. New to Jossey's staff will be Gil Coen, named administrative manager.

In the expansion of the sales organization, managers of the six divisions will report directly to Jossey, and each will be responsible for three districts in his geographical area.

Division #1 will be centered in New York under management of Charlie Nuccio; #2 in Washington, D.C. will be headed by Bill Dawson; Dick Miller is manager of District #3 in Atlanta; #4 in Chicago is to be run by George Gerken; Dallas will be fifth District, and is managed by Jack Griffity; and Marvin Beisel will head District #6 in Los Angeles.

Angel district sales promotion managers, where they exist, will now report to divisional managers as will special product sales managers. Such managers will now "provide a specialized knowledge and experience to assist the divisional manager in securing maximum sales in his area of responsibility; call on key accounts and provide promotional and merchandising assistance in their specific specialized areas; and assist in training district salesmen, participate in sales meetings and coordinate district and divisional problems in the particular area."

Epic's Eve-of-Summer Meet For 'Hot' Sales

NEW YORK—Epic Records reaffirms this year its contention that the summer months are an "extremely important and lucrative" time of the year for record sales by holding a sales convention on the eve of summer.

Date of the meet is June 17-20 in Las Vegas. The convention, reports Mort Hoffman, director of sales, promo & marketing, begins with a cocktail party June 17, followed by two days of business meets and closing with a banquet and show on the evening of June 19. The business meets will introduce new product.

As for summer sales, the company said that "there is increased retail activity during this period, and Epic feels it is imperative to have product introduced and available at the beginning of this peak season in order to take full advantage of the sales potential."

Bell Sales Climb 25% In 6 Months

NEW YORK—Bell Records sales for the past six months are 25% over the same period last year, reports Larry Uttal, president.

Uttal attributed the rise to the continued success of such Top 10 Bell artists as The Box Tops, whose third straight hit, "Cry Like A Baby," has been a top ten charter for three weeks, to the Delfonics' "La La Means

Larry Uttal

"I Love You," four weeks in the top ten, to the strong R&B success with artists like James & Bobby Purify, Oscar Toney, Jr., James Carr and Al Greene, plus hit singles and LP's by Mitch Ryder, The Scaffold ("Thank U Very Much") and Nirvana.

In the album field, Uttal said, Bell has enjoyed a long sales run with the "All Mitch Ryder Hits" set and is getting heavy underground activity with "The Story of Simon Simopath" by Nirvana. The latter disk, plus the Scaffold single and forthcoming album, are British product distributed by Bell. Uttal flies to London next month to host a party celebrating the success of the first two British Bell releases, "Cry Like A Baby" by The Box Tops and "Captain Of Your Ship" by Reparata & The Delrons.

"Our success," Uttal said, "is based on the creativity of the independent producers whose product appears on our label, the care of selection we make in releases, and our total concentration on promotion and sales."

Columbia Names Wisner Producer, Artist

NEW YORK—Jimmy Wisner, whose arrangements have been heard on numerous hit disks, has joined Columbia Records as a pop A&R producer and artist.

Wisner, also a writer, reached a peak of success late last year when seven records with his arrangements appeared on the best-selling charts. He reports to Jack Gold, vp in charge of A&R at the label.

Wisner joins Columbia with almost 12 years of indie arranging, producing and writing. His gold record associations include "1-2-3" by Len Barry, "The Rain, the Park & Other Things" by the Cowsills and "I Think We're Alone Now" by Tommy James.

Other artists who have recorded with his arrangements include Ed Ames, Jerry Butler, Al Hirt, Jay & the Techniques, Miriam Makeba, Herbie Mann, Marilyn Maye and Spanky & Our Gang. Barbra Streisand's current Columbia single, "Our Corner of the Night," was arranged by Wisner. He also produced recordings by Len Barry, Robert Cameron, Jim & Jean and Gloria Lynn.

Pete Records Opens Offices In Hollywood

LOS ANGELES — Pete Records has made its debut in Hollywood, it was announced last week (1) by Chris Petersen, president of the new firm and head of the Petersen Company, one of the nation's leading film and TV commercial producers. The diskery will be a subsidiary of the parent company.

At the same time Petersen announced the signing of singer Gogi Grant as the first artist on the new label.

"The Pete Record Company, in addition to a catalog of albums, will also introduce new sounds and new artists," Petersen explained.

"We are in the process of signing unknown, but talented, young performers whom we feel will make a major contribution to the music field. We are also seeking established performers," Petersen concluded.

Petersen also disclosed the appointment of Robert Kirstein, for thirteen years vice president and sales manager of Contemporary Records, and for two years general manager of Phyllis Records and Phil Spector Productions, as vice president and general manager of the new organization.

Kirstein is currently arranging national and international distribution for the new company, in addition to signing new artists for the label.

First release of the new company will be a single from Gogi Grant's forthcoming album. Title of the single is "Down Here On The Ground," based on Lalo Schiffrin's Oscar-nominated score from the Warner Bros.-7 Arts film "Cool Hand Luke." Lyrics were written by Gail Garnett.

"Ground" is being rushed out in order to capitalize on the airplay for the Schiffrin Academy Award contending score.

Lincoln Mayorga A&R'd the session. Flip side is "The Magic People," an original by Lincoln Mayorga and Bert Garfield.

RCA Promo Sees Stereo 8 As 'No. 1 Choice'

NEW YORK—"Everyone's No. 1 Choice" is the theme of an extensive Stereo 8 cartridge campaign launched by the RCA Records. The promotion emphasizes 42 "best of" cartridges as well as the fact that "Stereo 8 cartridge tapes have become absolute-cartridge market."

Announcement was made by E. O. Welker, manager of recorded tape marketing for RCA, who said the campaign has been launched after Stereo 8 cartridges had "enjoyed tremendous first quarter sales throughout the nation, and that the campaign in effect recognized the growth of Stereo 8 as the dominant force in the tape market."

"Whether you call these tapes 'golden hits,' 'greatest hits' or 'best of,' is unimportant," said Welker. "The fact is that the campaign focuses on 42 cartridges, each of which represents a stand-out effort of an important artist. The titles represent RCA cartridges as well as the catalogs of all those labels manufactured and marketed by RCA."

Included in the 42 titles are seven brand new Stereo 8 cartridges—"The Best Of Peter Nero," "The Best Of The 50's," "The Best Of Skeeter Davis," "The Best Of Connie Smith," "The Best Of Mancini, Vol. 2," "The Best Of Mario Lanza, Vol. 2," and a twin-pack, "The Best Of Glenn Miller And The Best Of Glenn Miller, Volume 2."

Magazine Advertising

The merchandising program also will kickoff a national advertising campaign through which such national magazines as Look, Newsweek, Playboy, Esquire, Sports Illustrated, Hi-Fi Stereo Review, and High Fidelity will receive multi-insertions. Trade advertising and radio buys in key markets will continue through the year.

Fieldmen and distributors have been given special "Everyone's No. 1 Choice" kits and for the first time RCA has prepared major window/in-store display kits the focal point of which are mobiles which can be used as window or in-store displays. These kits also contain mobile "Everyone's No. 1 Choice" headers, envelope stuffers, and easel displays.

Stereo 8 Promo Display

"We have launched this campaign at this time since the sale of new cars is on the up-beat and there has been a corresponding rise in the number of Stereo 8 players sold in new cars. At the same time, home and portable players sales continue to rise.

"As a result, mass merchandisers are actively merchandising Stereo 8 as the dominant tape in the cartridge market. Large retailers are setting up tape centers with equipment for demonstration and playing tapes. Also, many music dealers who were on the sidelines have jumped on the Stereo 8 bandwagon. Stereo 8, in short, is the brightest spot in the recorded entertainment business today, and we have set this campaign in motion to take advantage of the Spring impetus," Welker continued.

"We are merchandising 42 titles, but the title of the campaign also clearly lets the public know that it has made Stereo 8 'Everyone's No. 1 Choice,'" Welker said.

He added that RCA alone now has more than 700 titles in its Stereo 8 catalog.

Reisman Heads RCA A&R On West Coast

NEW YORK—Joe Reisman has taken over A&R activities for RCA Victor Records on the west coast.

According to Harry Jenkins, vp of record operations, Reisman, who carries the title of manager and executive producer of west coast A&R, will assume total responsibility for all A&R activity on the west coast.

He replaces Neely Plumb, who has left the company after a nine year association. Reisman has been associated as a producer with RCA for the past four years. However, he first joined RCA in 1955 as a producer in Hollywood. He left the label in 1959 to become an indie arranger-conductor-producer.

It's understood that Reisman has made his first appointment, that of vet producer-arranger Sid Feller to the west coast A&R staff.

Jenkins said that Reisman's promotion will help RCA "expand in the youth market as well as to build its key position in the area of Hollywood motion picture and television soundtracks."

Reisman reports to Ernie Altschuler, vp and executive producer of pop A&R. Reisman's staff in Hollywood also includes Rick Jarrard and Al Schmidt.

He will visit major U.S. cities with radio and tv guest spots, newspaper and magazine interviews now being set.

Pete Garris, Dot's new national promotion director, is pulling a non-commercial single, "Come Rain or Come Shine" from Morris' LP for a special mailing to radio stations across the nation.

Kapp In Singles Expansion, Inks 5 New Acts

NEW YORK — In connection with its continuing expansion in the singles market, Kapp Records has signed five new recording acts. The announcement was made by Jack Wiedenmann, general manager of the label.

The artists are: Turley Richards, a youngster with a growing teen and college fan following; Leroy Van Dyke, a leading spokesman for C&W, who has been moving in top TV and recording circles and leans towards pop delivery within a grass roots framework; Betty Barnes, a newcomer to the recording scene, having recorded for one other label prior to signing with Kapp, and who is seen by Wiedenmann and others as having a wide appeal with great potential; a new group known as the Marshmellow highway, which features a pop and folk-rock sound; and Wendy Farrell, a 19 year-old New Jersey college sophomore.

Wiedenmann indicated that there are more new artists who will be signed with Kapp and these will be announced shortly as Kapp moves toward greater market contention than ever before in pop singles production.

'Bonnie & Clyde' Writers See No Limit To England's Talent Success Expansion

Mitch Murray and Peter Callander, writers and English publishers of Georgie Fame's smash hit "The Ballad of Bonnie and Clyde," are in The States for talks with their American publishers Peer Southern. They said that they were motivated to write the song by a feeling that while the Bonnie and Clyde fad had caught on in England, there was no song expressing the "atmosphere" the film had created. The songwriters approached the entire era as if it were a "fairy tale," and tried to capture the glamour and the air of the time, and to give it a "camp" flavor.

Murray and Callander have been writing together for over two years. Among their international hits are "I'm Telling You Now," and "You Were Made For Me" with Freddie and The Dreamers. They feel that the artist selected for the song is of great importance in having it click. Their songs have been recorded by such top stars as Diana Ross & the Supremes, Johnny Mathis, the Dave Clark Five and of course, Georgie Fame. "Bonnie and Clyde" is the first song the writers published themselves in England. To date, more than 2 million records have been sold, and there are many other individual recordings of the song, covering several categories of music. Callander feels a reaction of this type is what makes a song a standard, and is much more personally satisfying than a quick hit.

The writers attribute England's sudden wealth of talent to the success of The Beatles. "England," Callander said, "has caught new life, and anyone creative has a chance to get hot." The writers feel that the talent which is so evident in England today lay hidden for years because artists couldn't afford to write full time. Until the Beatles succeeded in opening up the American and world markets, even a best seller in England wouldn't garner an artist enough money to enable him to write full time.

With the great new markets for England's songs, these artists have broken out of the slump. Murray and Callander feel that with so many artists at work in England today, the competition among them is tremendous, and this brings out the best they have to offer, elevating and broadening the music scene.

Schifrin Choral Work Bows In 'Bible Music' Program

HOLLYWOOD — Composer Lalo Schifrin's cantata, "They Shall Not Learn War Any More," based on a passage from Isaiah, was given its world premiere March 30 at the University of Judaism in Hollywood when the University's Chamber Choir presents "The Bible in Music."

Schifrin, noted for his motion picture and television scores including "Cool Hand Luke" (nominated for an Academy Award), "The Fox," "The Rise and Fall of the Third Reich" and "Mission: Impossible," made a contribution to religious music several years ago when he composed "The Jazz Suite on the Mass Text." The controversial work, which combined Gregorian chants and 20th Century techniques, was the first Catholic Mass celebrated in English after the Ecumenical Council decreed that Latin was not mandatory.

The concert, under the direction of dean Erwin Jospe, was presented in the school's Moses E. Gindi Auditorium at 625 Sunset Blvd. at 8:15 P.M.

Write-In Ballots Suggest 'Your Own Thing' For Tony

NEW YORK—Write-in ballots on behalf of "Your Own Thing" were mailed out Apr. 1st by Zev Bufman, co-producer of the off-B'way musical, currently running at the Orpheum Theatre. The ballots went to the 441 voters for this year's Antoinette Perry "Tony" Awards, for which the show is not eligible due to its being an off-B'way as opposed to a B'way venture.

Bufman, a member of the League Of New York Theatres (which supervises the awards), insists that his write-in ballot campaign for "Your Own Thing" is in no way an attempt to harass the League: "We're not suing anybody or seeking any injunctions, we're just doing our own thing in dramatizing the need for a new reality in awarding the 'Tonys'. We feel that the rules need to be changed so that merit and not geography determines what is best. We'll find out from our write-in ballots, how many of the voters agree with us."

WB/7 Arts Aiming At College Market

BEVERLY HILLS — In response to the continuous upward swing in record sales on the college campuses throughout the country, Mike Maitland, president of Warner Bros./Seven Arts Records, is putting additional sales stress on this particular market. The diskery realizes that the older students can afford to pay more for albums than the younger students, and is surveying the college market in a more comprehensive manner.

The first step in this direction was the dispatch of Don Schmitzerle, publicity and public relations manager for diskery, to the National Convention of the Inter-Collegiate Broadcasting System which was held in the Palmer House in Chicago, on Saturday, March 30th. While at the junior broadcasters conclave he sat in on seminars and delved into the problems of the collegiate deejays and the type of record programming they are outlining to meet their broadcast standards.

Nielsen Society Elects Thomas Frost To Board

NEW YORK—The Carl Nielsen Society of America has elected Thomas Frost, executive A&R producer at Columbia Masterworks, to its board of directors. Frost has produced the American premiere recordings of Nielsen's Symphony No. 1, Symphony No. 6, Pan and Syrinx, Rhapsodic Overture, and Prelude to Act II of "Maskarade."

A veteran of sixteen years in the recording industry, Frost has garnered many awards and has been responsible for producing recordings by many of the world's greatest soloists, ensembles and orchestras. During his eight years at Columbia, he has produced recordings by Vladimir Horowitz, Rudolf Serkin, Glenn Gould, Isaac Stern, the Cleveland Orchestra conducted by George Szell, the Philadelphia Orchestra conducted by Eugene Ormandy, the Mormon Tabernacle Choir, and the late Bruno Walter.

Recently Frost won two "Grammys" at the Tenth Annual NARAS Awards Banquet: one for Orff's "Catulli Carmina," which tied with another Columbia recording, Mahler's Symphony No. 8, as Best Classical Choral Performance (Other Than Opera), and one for "Horowitz in Concert," which was named Best Classical Instrumental Soloist Performance. He was appointed to his present Columbia post in 1966.

NEW MERC A&R MGR—Helen Nerko has been appointed manager of A&R administration for the Mercury Records New York setup. Mrs. Nerko has been and will remain office manager of the NYC office.

Charlie Fach, A&R veep and director of recorded product, said that her new duties will entail coordination of production activities between the company and its staff and indie producers. She will also be responsible for session and studio contacts.

Starting with Mercury nine years ago as a secretary, Mrs. Nerko became office manager a year ago.

Ellsworth Named Liberty Dir. Of Eng. Research

LOS ANGELES — Irv Kessler, vice president of Liberty Records, has appointed Allan R. Ellsworth to the newly-created post of director of engineering research and development. The appointment represents a major expansion move by the diskery's manufacturing division.

Ellsworth will retain his present position of general manager of the wholly-owned Liberty Los Angeles pressing facility, Research Craft, as well as assuming the new position.

Ellsworth's scope of operations will include Research Craft, All Disc Records and Liberty Tape Duplicating, all divisions of the Liberty manufacturing division.

He will also act in an advisory capacity for the Liberty Studios.

It was at Ellsworth's insistence in 1966, that Liberty Records became the first company to purchase the only publicly available automatic album manufacturing press, which was then in its pioneering stage. He helped the investors of the press to make necessary modifications and at the present time Liberty has seven of the machines which have advanced the pressing industry.

NEW YORK—The American Society of Composers, Authors and Publishers has appointed Martin Bookspan, former program consultant for the New York Times radio station WQXR, and music and dance critic for TV Channel 7, to the post of coordinator of symphonic and concert activities. The announcement was made by ASCAP president Stanley Adams.

A native of Boston, Bookspan received his B.S. degree from Harvard University. He is a member of the Music Advisory Panel of the United States Information Agency, and for many years has been a contributing editor to HiFi/Stereo Review. For more than three years Bookspan was consultant to the Music and Arts Panel of the Rockefeller Foundation. His book, entitled "101 Masterpieces of Music and Their Composers," is being published next fall by Doubleday.

In making the announcement, Stanley Adams noted: "Martin Bookspan's appointment as ASCAP's new co-ordinator of symphonic and concert activities gives great impetus to the achievement of the Society's goals in this field. He will have the responsibility of gaining more recognition for the American serious composer, as well as increasing the public's awareness of the many things that ASCAP does in behalf of the serious writer. It looks like the new Bobby Vinton record is going to keep moving up, Pete Bennett is of course very excited about it and reports that Vinton is getting hotter and hotter all the time.

Donna Lee, who recorded Gladys Shelley's "Clown Town" on Columbia, headlined shows over the weekend at Palisades Park.

May 4th will witness the coupling of the 5th Dimension with the Turtles at the Hilton in Washington, D.C. The occasion is the graduation from Georgetown of 650 diplomatic relations majors. Members of the White House staff, the Senate, and the House of Representatives will be in attendance along with a goodly number of White House pressmen.

Ron Eden and Charles Monaco have formed an indie outfit known as Char-Ron Productions, operating out of room 804 at 1697 B'way. Artists signed include: the One Way Street, represented by "I Want To Be With You Girl" on Boutique Records; Linton Quinn; and the Glorious Revolution. They have also formed Upsadaisy Music, a BMI affiliate headed up by Tommy Ciulla. Boutique is currently involved in a talent search and may be contacted through Char-Ron.

The Association is off on another cross-country college tour set to take them from Philadelphia through Washington, Baltimore, New York, Pittsburgh, Buffalo, Erie, Indianapolis, Santa Barbara, Eugene (Ore.) and Yakima.

HOLLYWOOD

Back in February '65 the Mancini-Livingston-Evans title tune from "Dear Heart" looked like the odds-on runaway Oscar copper. But KFVB, then the powerhouse format outlet in town, suddenly tapped the New Christy Minstrels' version of "Chim Chim Cher-ee" as a double "pick hit" selection (by both Wink Martindale and Gene Weed), KRLA jumped on the bandwagon naming it their "Record of the Week" and KMPC chimed in with concentrated action. By April "Chim-Chim" was a top twenty record in town (though it never got higher than 60 on the national charts) and firmly established itself as a last minute favorite with Academy members. It could be happening all over again. A few weeks ago we would have bet our right arm and given points that "Talk to the Animals" would stroll off with the Oscar this year. But "Look of Love" continues to have the look and sound of a most substantial threat.

On the eve of the awards presentation in Santa Monica, KMPC's straw poll, in association with Gibraltar Federal Savings, shows "Look" with 44% of the vote, "Talk" slipping to 25% and "Millie" a weak third with 13%.

Movie of the year, according to the listener poll, is "Bonnie and Clyde" (31%), "Heat of the Night" second (22%) and "The Graduate" third (21%). Actor of the year—Warren Beatty leads (26%) with Rod Steiger just a point behind.

Actress — Faye Dunaway ahead (33%) and Katherine Hepburn just four percentage points behind.

We checked with Andy Williams, an authority in the pop field for a number of reasons. But particularly because he has, for the past several years, come up with a flock of best selling Academy associated LP's utilizing Oscar winners as album titles ("Moon River," "Days of Wine and Roses," "Born Free" etc.). In most cases the LP's were pressed just prior to the Oscar presentations. So we figured he might know something. Though he did miss one with—"Dear Heart."

"Actually I'm glad we used 'Dear Heart'—it was a better album title than 'Chim.' In the same way I don't think a title like 'Talk to the Animals' is going to mean much a year from now . . . As for an Academy album this year, I doubt it. We may go for an album sticker on 'Love Andy' which features 'Look of Love'—if it wins. If you'd ask me to pick the Oscar song for this year I'd have to say that Bacharach and David will probably be second again."

Our own fence straddling forecast—the winner or winners will be one or two of the following: Hal David, Burt Bacharach or Leslie Bricusse. A month ago it seemed no contest. Now . . .

Our "West Coast Girl of the Week" is actress-songstress Jackie Russell who you may recall as the delectable secretary in "Guide For a Married Man." She has appeared in a number of motion pictures, TV commercials and we caught her just the other night as Daisy June on the Red Skelton Show. Jackie, whose bobbies include horseback riding, golf, tennis and bowling, has recently set her sights on a platter career. She's currently prepping an act. No disk affiliation at this writing. But soon.

Contemporary Public Relations' new address is 9118 Sunset . . . D.J.-songsmith Roger Christian has formed In-Sound Productions in Hollywood with key execs Rick Donovan and Rich Russell. They'll be producing radio and TV jingles as well as a teenage TV package titled "The Saturday Nite Thing" which premieres locally in June.

William Siddons now repping The Doors as personal manager in all fields with Rogers, Cowan and Brenner and the Agency for Performing Arts continuing to rep as public relations consultants and talent agents respectively.

Dick Clark has signed the Cream to sing the title tune in his forthcoming flick "The Savage Seven"—song planned as an Atco single.

A multiple picture deal between Lee Hazlewood and 20th Century is being negotiated, we hear, as a result of the new Joe Pasternak flick "The Sweet Ride," in which Hazlewood makes his acting debut and also provides the theme music.

Don Costa Prod., building its own talent roster for the co's indie record operation, has signed two new young singers, Dick Jensen and Cathy Carlson. Costa recording them in three separate sessions this week.

Milton Berle's first single for VMC Records, produced by Tony Harris, will be, we're told, a straight singing job on "Yellow Submarine." But the arrangement is something else. Vance, incidentally, has shifted to larger quarters, their second expansion move. Address remains the same—6922 Hollywood Blvd.

Title of the new Legend single on Megaphone Records is "Portrait of Youth" b/w "Enjoy Yourself." Group, currently touring the southwest, returns to town next week.

Quote of the Week from U.A.'s west coast regional manager Charles Goldberg (concerning so called disk-pornography) "I agree that there is no room for dirty lyrics in our industry but . . . Martin Buber, Spinoza, Galileo too were considered rebels in their days . . . recently, when lyrics were being questioned, a certain radio chain asked a record promo man to submit the lyrics on Irving Berlin's 'Blue Skies.' I rest my case."

CHICAGO

The big excitement in town this past week, of course, was the 46th annual NAB convention (over 5,000 strong) at the Conrad Hilton Hotel. Among the early arrivals for this year's show were the SESAC people. Chuck Scully and a crew came in on Wednesday to set up the suite, which was done in country & western style (complete with swinging doors!)—and, as usual, this was one of the most popular gathering spots for visitors! . . . Local lark Harriette Blake will be on the Don Rickles bill in the Sherman House 4/15-30 . . . The Happy Medium sends word that Wayne Cochran's opening has been switched to April 30 . . . Kent Beauchamp announced that the new Sky label has been added to the Royal Disc Dist. roster . . . The Cryan Shames, scoring with "Up On The Roof" (Columbia), continue their grueling schedule of one-nighters through April, with appearances in Michigan, Indiana, Iowa, Wisconsin and Illinois! . . . Rockford, Ill. group The Iron Gate, intro'd their first Mobie Records single "Get Ready" on the Jack Mulqueen "kiddie a go go" TV'er . . . TV star Gregg Morris (Mission Impossible), who recently signed with Dot, is expected in Chi 4/19 . . . Empire Room maestro Ben Arden has formed Ben Arden Associates, a musical entertainment service, with a special "Music On Campus" wing to be headed by Al Curtis . . . Called over at United Record Dist. and got the low-down on some of their hot new singles, like "Ain't Nothing Like The Real Thing" by Marvin Gaye & Tammi Terrell (Tamla), "Get In The Kitchen" by Harmonica George (Taddlin Town), "Gotta Hold On" by Wylie Dickson (Taddlin Town), "Competition Ain't Nothing" by Little Carl Carlton (Back Beat) and "Why Can't I Stop" by The Esquires (Bunky) . . . It was nice chatting with songstress June Valli who was a brief Chi visitor last week. June's been devoting a great deal of time lately to entertaining GI's in Japan and Germany, and hopes to return to the disk scene shortly with an album which was cut in Japan during her most recent tour . . . Kent Beauchamp and Ed Yalowitz (Royal Disc) hosted an opening night bash at the Plugged Nickel (3) to herald the Gabor Szabo engagement . . . Errol Garner, who departs in late April for a series of concerts in Europe, performed in Detroit's Memorial Building last Friday (5). Garner's newly completed album "Up In Erroll's Room" will be released shortly.

gel but the group was in evidence (either as a whole or individually) at a considerable number of different affairs throughout the week.

We offer our sincere wishes for a speedy recovery to Jack Spector, deejay at WMCA-New York, who is recovering from an eye operation in the New York Eye and Ear Hospital at 2nd Ave. and 14th St.

Art D'Lugoff has opened a personal management firm to operate out of his Village Gate at 160 Bleeker St. Named Gate Artist Management, the firm will probably be most frequently referred to as GAMI.

Spencer Davis was at the premiere of the "Scalp Hunters" flick last week. The Spencer Davis Group was given a big bash at Danny's Hideaway by United Artists in connection with the Ren Grevatt publicity office.

Ren Grevatt's right-hand-man is our East Coast Girl of the Week this week. Appropriately enough, she's on the west coast at the moment, handling press and pr for Traffic and the Spencer Davis Group. She is Carolyn Reynolds, a multi-lingual, college grad who has been involved in the music business for about three years. Carolyn enjoys looking at the George Washington Bridge at dawn and is possessed of a number of cats, three of which are of the Russian Blue variety. She is particularly partial to the state of Texas but makes her home in New York.

Worthy Patterson and Judy Corman visited the Cash Box offices last week with songstress Paula Wayne . . . Charlie Morrison visited the offices with the Troggs.

Stephen Paley started in the pop photography field by taking pictures of the Bee Gees. Atlantic has been using him a lot of late.

Dick Corby's Pleasure Seekers are working out at Arthur, packing all of the other pleasure seekers into that east side nitery.

Capitol's 'remarkable' Roy Batachio has remarked that this week will be a very busy one for the label, with several major openings: Nancy Wilson and Cannonball Adderly at the Appolo, Peggy Lee at the Copa, and George Shearing at the Rainbow Grill.

Micky Wallach notes that the Richard Harris record on Dunhill has been getting all kinds of orders throughout the New York area after the artist made two appearances on local TV.

Brooks Arthur has been appointed by Koppelman & Ruben to do the engineering for the Tim Hardin concert at Town Hall on the 10th. He has also been assigned to do Peggy Lee at the Copa and her album at his Century Sound studio.

It looks like the new Bobby Vinton record is going to keep moving up, Pete Bennett is of course very excited about it and reports that Vinton is getting hotter and hotter all the time.

Picks of the Week

DIONNE WARWICK (Scepter 12216)

Do You Know the Way to San Jose (2:50) [Jac/Blue Seas, ASCAP—Bacharach, David]

Coming off her biggest single in a long time with "I Say a Little Prayer"/"Valley of the Dolls," Dionne Warwick springs back into the running for top ten honors with a bouncy cutie that features bright rhythmic of Burt Bacharach, sparkling lyrics and a delivery that is hers alone. Immediate acceptance has already begun for the "San Jose" side and it is possible for the slow bluesy ballad flip to see added response from r&b deejays. Flip: "Let Me Be Lonely" (3:35) [Same credits.]

ELVIS PRESLEY (RCA Victor 9600)

We Call On Him (2:32) [Gladys, ASCAP—Karger, Weisman, Wayne]

You'll Never Walk Alone (2:45) [Williamson, ASCAP—Rodgers, Hammerstein]

Still moving rapidly up the pop charts with "U.S. Male," Elvis Presley makes a timely re-entry with this Easter release of two inspirational sides. Feature track is "We Call on Him," which can be expected to earn many spotlights on both pop and easy listening channels; while the "Carousel" selection coupler, "You'll Never Walk Alone" is another powerful lid with holiday appeal. T

BOBBY VEE (Liberty 56033)

My Girl/Hey Girl (2:33) [Jobete, Screen Gems-Columbia, BMI—Robinson, White, Goffin, King]

Sparkling combination of two oldies gives Bobby Vee a solid shot at another top ten spot. Satin-rock backdrop glides through changes from the Detroit smash "My Girl" into the older Bobby Scott "Hey Girl" and back with the soft Vee vocal always on top of the situation. Taken from his "Just Today" LP, the track should stir up a sales sensation with pop and middle of the road fans. Flip: "Just Keep It Up" (2:15) [Travis, BMI—Blackwell] Fine dance side with good teen appeal.

IMPRESSIONS (ABC 11071)

We're Rolling On (Part 1) (2:15) [Camad, BMI—Mayfield]

Taking up where "We're a Winner" left off, the Impressions bounce along in a similar vein with just a bit more snap and speed this time. Message, party flavor and melody carry the "Winner" earmark, and the extra drive of this new venture should keep the team (as the title says) "rolling on." Flip: "Part 2" (2:05) [Same credits.]

BEACH BOYS (Capitol 2160)

Friends (2:30) [Sea of Tunes, BMI—Wilson, Wilson, Wilson, Jardine]

Barbershop harmonizing to a soft rock backdrop provides the Beach Boys with a departure from their "Wild Honey"/"Good Vibrations" style. Easy-throbbing waltz tempo and a unique vocal sound cast a new type of magical spell for the team, one that should have them rising rapidly on the best seller charts. Outstanding track. Flip: "Little Bird" (1:57) [Sea of Tunes, BMI—Wilson, Kalinich]

AL MARTINO (Capitol 2158)

Lili Marlene (2:44) [E. B. Marks, BMI—Schultze, Leip, Connor]

Fifty years old and still going strong, "Lili Marlene" is brought back for a solid run at the best seller lists in this new recording by Al Martino. Easy listening and middle-of-the-road outlets can be expected to pick up an immediate response and pop stations will probably break up the rock pace with many playings of the standard. Flip: "Georgia" (2:17) [Peer Int'l, BMI—Carmichael, Gorell] Smooth recap of the Ray Charles sensation.

TONY BENNETT (Columbia 44510)

Yesterday I Heard the Rain (3:39) [Dunbar, BMI—Lees, Manzanero]

Tender performance comes across so powerfully that the side has taken over the spotlight from his current release. Tony Bennett is at his melancholy best in this dramatic session that builds almost imperceptibly to a brilliant close that will garner immediate response in middle of the road and easy listening stations, and could move into pop sales picture ala "San Francisco." Flip: "Sweet Georgie Fame" (3:47) [Notable, ASCAP—Dearie, Harris]

JACKIE WILSON & COUNT BASIE (Brunswick 55373)

Chain Gang (2:47) [Kags, BMI—Cooke]

Sharing the spotlight once again, Jackie Wilson and Count Basie dip into the oldie bag that gave them "For Your Precious Love" on the first go-round. Big-band-blues backing and another stunning vocal from Wilson make this a deck that will climb well in the r&b and pop pictures. Excellent updating of Sam Cooke's side with exceptional power. Flip: "Funky Broadway" (2:35) [Routeen, Drive-In, BMI—Christian] The orking is "Busted," the lyrics are Pickett's and the solid delivery is all new on this crisp coupler.

SPENCER DAVIS GROUP (United Artists 50286)

After Tea (3:05) [Spencer Davis, PRS—Fenwick, Eivgk] Looking Back (2:58) [Unart, BMI—Davis, Sawyer]

Both sides of the new Spencer Davis Group's single have strong selling points. "After Tea" is a highly attractive English blues throbber with dance appeal and a grabbing performance from the team. The "Looking Back" track is also a snappy tempo rock tidbit and has a built in exposure draw through use in "Here We Go Round the Mulberry Tree" movie and soundtrack LP. Anticipate best seller response for "After Tea" and a strong showing from "Looking Back."

JAMES & BOBBY PURIFY (Bell 721)

I Can Remember (2:30) [Big Seven, BMI—Illingworth, March, Grasso]

Sentimental stylings punctuated by brilliant vocal showings from the Purifys give the duo a strong pop showing with very bright blues prospect as well. The coasting ballad is something of a change-of-pace for the team, and one that shows a side as bright as their more familiar beat aspect. Expect the deck to move high into the sales picture. Flip: "I Was Born to Lose Out" (2:27) [Papa Don, BMI—Dillard, Schroeder]

Picks of the Week

BILL MEDLEY (MGM 13931)

I Can't Make It Alone (2:40) [Screen Gems-Columbia, BMI—Goffin, King]

Symbolic title for Bill Medley's first single since he left the Righteous Brothers should prove false as the side picks up sales momentum. Deep vocal power shines on this potent ballad with strong pop prospects and a likely showing in blues areas to boost the overall picture. Excellent side that may be the opener to a bright solo career. [No flip info available.]

BYRDS (Columbia 44499)

You Ain't Going Nowhere (2:48) [Dwarf, ASCAP—Dylan]

New Dylan material and the new Byrds stoke up a new head of steam for a big run at the best seller charts. Heavy country stylings with a rock inlay make up a glittering mosaic of modern sound that could shake up pop trends. Biggest Byrd hit before was a Dylan track, and this renewal of acquaintance could bring the team back into the winner's circle. Flip: "Artificial Energy" (2:17) [McHillby, BMI—Hillman, McGuinn, Clark]

JOHNNY DARRELL (United Artists 50292)

With Pen in Hand (3:18) [Unart, BMI—Goldsboro]

Hot on the heels of the Bobby Goldsboro breakthrough with "Honey," Johnny Daryll makes a strong move to open up pop minds to material once considered solely c&w. Melancholy ballad with gently moving orchestral luster and a fine vocal showing, this side could well follow the Goldsboro path to the winner's circle. Flip: "Poetry of Love" (2:53) [United Artists, ASCAP—Wheeler]

JERRY BUTLER (Mercury 72798)

Never Give You Up (2:56) [Parabut, Double Diamond, Downstairs, BMI—Gamble, Huff, Butler]

Smooth drifting vocal on this attractive ballad should have Jerry Butler extending his latest string of hits. Following up the blues and pop success of "Lost," the chanter eases through a hazy ballad backed by some fine soft instrumentals with just a trace of rhythmic push from the brass line. Side with appeal that grows with each listen. Flip: "Beside You" (2:56) [Same credits.]

SERGIO MENDES & BRASIL '66 (A&M 924)

The Look of Love (3:03) [Colgems, ASCAP—Bacharach, David]

With Academy Awards in the public mind, a programming demand for "The Look of Love" has already been created, and this delightful reading from Sergio Mendes & Brasil '66 is likely to be the most heard version in the coming weeks. Samba beat, snappy vocals and a crackling orchestration could make the Dusty Springfield hit from "Casino Royale" happen all over again. Flip: "Like a Lover" (3:51) [Berna, ASCAP—Cammy, Motto, Bergman, Bergman]

ROGER WILLIAMS Kapp 907)

The Impossible Dream (3:01) [Sam Fox, ASCAP—Darion, Leigh]

Hauntingly fragile backdrop accents the piano majesty of Roger Williams on this new reading of the hit that has exploded on both pop and r&b fronts through readings by Jack Jones and the Hesitations among others. Exquisite rendition here should bring the song back into easy listening and middle-of-the-road showcases yet once more. Flip: "If You Go (Si Tu Partais)" (2:47) [MCA, ASCAP—Parsons, Emer]

CARLA THOMAS (Stax 251)

A Dime a Dozen (2:49) [East, BMI—Hayes, Porter]

Back from "Pick up the Pieces" with a fine showing, Carla Thomas steps up for another r&b breakout with this socking session that is highlighted by Memphis backing, a terrific vocal workout and choice material that should spread into many pop playlists. Side is a solid dance track with hot sales potential. Flip: "I Want You Back" (2:29) [East, BMI—Parker, Frierson] Strong beat ballad.

JESSE JAMES (20th Century Fox 6704)

Green Power (2:07) [Jema, BMI—Heartsman]

Grand performance by Jesse James and incisive lyric by a punchy ork thrust give the chanter a big track that is likely to crack open with heavy r&b sales and show a sizeable pop spillover. Tangy delivery ala Joe Tex, and a dance beat make this single a candidate for big exposure and fine sales. Flip: "If You're Lonely (Take My Hand)" (2:40) [Same credits.]

JIMMY HOLIDAY (Minit 32040)

Spread Your Love (2:50) [Asa, ASCAP—Holiday]

Standout vocal and arrangements highlight a fine song on this blues belter which is a good entry to watch for pop and r&b action. The side packs a very fine dance beat and a performance from Jimmy Holiday that shines with a fire that should have him winning spotlight showcases on many stations. Should happen. Flip: "We Got a Good Thing Goin'" (2:19) [Metric, BMI—Holiday]

ROOSEVELT GRIER (Amy 11015)

C'mon Cupid (2:18) [Press, Ben I. Wilson, BMI—Grier, Thomas, Jones]

This could be the new one to break Roosevelt Grier onto the national charts, after several noise-making efforts. The track packs a powerful beat and a top-drawer vocal showing aided by some very fine orchestral push. Dance appeal could move the side up the charts on both pop and r&b fronts. Look for breakout acceptance on this one. Flip: "High Society Woman" (2:16) [Press, Ben I. Wilson, BMI—Grier]

SMITHS (Columbia 44494)

Now I Taste the Tears (2:49) [Hastings, BM!—Clifford]

Folky presentation of a blues tale opens softly and builds with each succeeding verse to a shattering finish. Imagery, lead vocal and production credits all stand out on a side that could easily become the 2 minute 49 second "Billie Joe." Explosive sales action built-in for this tale of suicide. Flip: "I Can't Stop" (2:38) [Fifth World, BMI—Budnik, Cliburn, Carter]

FAT ALBERT ORK & CHORUS (Tetragrammaton 1500)

Fat Albert (Hey, Hey, Hey) (2:05) [Ganja, ASCAP—Elliott, Cosby, Persky, Denoff]

Following its introduction on the recent Bill Cosby tv special, the "Fat Albert" received acceptance beyond all expectation creating demand for release of "the song that started it all." Striking orchestral drive in a medium-slow tempo make the side a top dance track not only for the "Fat Albert," but for a number of current steps. Anticipate immediate breakout for this track. Flip: "Cosbyanna" (2:24) [Ganja, ASCAP—Elliott] Tetragrammaton Records, 359 No. Canon Drive, Beverly Hills

TINY TIM (Reprise 0679)

Tip-Toe Thru' the Tulips with Me (1:48) [Warner-7 Arts, Witmark, ASCAP—Dubin, Burke]

Sheer enjoyment is packed into this deck by the falsetto vocal, off-the-wall orchestral arrangement and one-of-its-kind performance punch from Tiny Tim. With a television reputation already made and his first LP gaining momentum, Tiny Tim's single should burst on pop outlets with force enough to make it the novelty success of the year. Flip: "Fill Your Heart" (2:49) [Irving, BMI—Williams, Rose]

MONTAGE (Laurie 3438)

Flip: "I Got to Get You Into My Life" (2:40) [Mclen, BMI—Lennon, McCartney] r&b rendering of the Beatles song.

BOBBY LILE (White Whale 267)
Time to Be a Woman (2:47) [Mirby, Exbrook, Rollo, BMI—Lile] Pretty chamber-rock offering with a beat that grows. Track has a shining performance from Bobby Lile that could come into pop favor with a bit of exposure. Flip: "Down Comes the World" (2:23) [Same credits.]

HARBINGERS (Columbia 44490)
The Bridge (2:35) [Ameropean, ASCAP—Gluck] Seekers styled folk-rock offering with a lively appeal and cute lyric that could click with pop and many light middle-of-the-road programmers. Could become the name-maker for this team. Flip: "April Come She Will" (2:03) [Charing Cross, BMI—Simon]

FRENCH FRIES (Epic 10313)
Danse a la Musique (3:05) [Daly City, BMI—Stewart] Novel handling of the current hit by Sly & the Family Stone, this instrumental workout could pick up a good deal of change-of-pace exposure with its "comedie." Flip: "Small Fries" (2:50) [Same credits]

KICKIN' MUSTANGS (Plato 80286)
Kickin' (1:59) [DeVile, BMI—Parnell, Loving, Minnefield] Lively Blues combo work on this session could attract spotlight recognition for the offering. Team has plenty of vigor and a verve that may put the track into a breakout picture. Flip: "Take a Miracle" (3:15) [DeVile, BMI—Minnefield] Plato Records, Milton, W.V.

SEÑOR SOUL (Double Shot 127)
Spooky (2:30) [Lowery, BMI—Sharpe, Middlebrooks, Buie, Cobb] Flute showcase on a zesty handling of the recent Classics IV deck. Good jazzy track for a break on middle-of-the-road, r&b and pop schedules. Flip: "Psychotic Reaction" (2:03) [Hot Shot, BMI—Ellner, Chaney, Byrne, Michalski, Atkinson]

LARRY BUTLER (Imperial 66296)
Lady Madonna (1:58) [Maclen, BMI—Lennon, McCartney] Nothing country about the new Larry Butler piano session, which is a relatively faithful instrumental reading of the Beatles hit (with chorale touch). Could attract pop play. Flip: "Honey" (2:40) [Cason, Russell, ASCAP—Russell]

LOU (MOONDOG) LAWTON (Heart & Soul 202)
St. Louis Blues (3:11) [Handy, ASCAP—Handy] Subtitled the "1968 Version," this updating of the blues classic brings new life and a solid interpretation that should snag a lot of airplay on r&b and pop outlet schedules. Big beat for dance fans and a top vocal performance. Flip: "The Whole Human Race" (2:50) [Alpha-Phi, BMI—Lynn]

TOMORROW'S YESTERDAY (Airtown 80333)
I Still Care (2:35) [Club Miami, BMI—Huff, McGuire, Murray] Heavy emphasis on beat makes this side a highly danceable track with plenty of teen sales potential. Could gain pop action. Flip: "Summer Dreamin'" (3:20) [Club Miami, BMI—Huff, Huff, Murray]

Shuler Opens Capitol Hunt For R&B Indies

HOLLYWOOD—Wayne Shuler, newly appointed A&R producer in charge of indie productions for Capitol Records, has begun an intensive search for new product in the "down home" area of r&b.

Among the first results of his hunt

Fats Domino Signs In With Reprise Records

NEW YORK—One of the leading figures in the birth of rock, Fats Domino has just signed an exclusive recording contract with Reprise Records. Although no immediate sessions have been scheduled, Mo Ostin, vice president and general manager of the label, said that Domino's recording will be supervised by A&R director Richard Perry.

Domino started with Imperial Records, where he helped spearhead the pop rock explosion. He later worked for ABC (then ABC-Paramount) and more recently had a release from the Dover label complex.

Among his major hits, which have sold more than 60 million recordings since his 1949 start, are: "Blueberry Hill," "Let the Four Winds Blow," "When My Dreamboat Comes Home," "I'm Walkin'," "I'm In Love Again" and "Margarita."

for indie r&b productions is a multiple release pact with New Orleans producer Joe Banashak. Banashak sports a hit roster that includes "Land of 1,000 Dances," "Mother-In-Law" and many of the Irma Thomas hits with Minit, which he formed for Imperial Records. First release coming from the contract was "Lover and a Friend" with Eddie Bo and Inez Cheatham which was marketed about two weeks ago. Upcoming singles will include Bobby Williams' "Boogaloo Mardi Gras" and "A Good Thing Baby" by the Hollywood Jills.

In another stop on his "down home" search, Shuler visited Jackson, Miss., where he reached an agreement with George Soule and Tommy Couch for the release of "That's How Much" featuring Eddie Houston. Side was cut at Malico Studios in Jackson.

An earlier agreement in Houston, Texas, saw the issue of "Miss You" by Jerry Jackson from Genesis Productions. Leo O'Neil and Genesis also have just been represented through the release of Henry Boatwright's "I Can Take or Leave Your Loving," an r&b cover of the recent Herman's Hermits hit.

AN EPIC SIGNING—Epic has signed vocalist Maxine Brown (right) to an exclusive recording contract. She will be produced for Epic by Detroit-based producer Mike Terry. Born in New York, the lark made her first public appearance at the Apollo. Dave Kapralik (left), Epic's vice president of A&R, said, "The addition of the distinctive talent of Maxine Brown to the Epic roster is another major step in broadening the spectrum of Epic's A&R representation."

Tomscos: Latest Mr. & Mrs. Songsmiths

NEW YORK—Among some of the biggest hits of recent years are songs penned by husband-and-wife teams.

The songs written by husband-wife teams could fill a chart of all-time Top Tens. There's "You've Lost That Lovin' Feeling," "Blame It On The Bossa Nova," "Looking Through The Eyes Of Love," "Uptown," "Only In America," "Walkin' In The Rain," "We Gotta Get Out Of This Place," "Hanky Panky," "Chapel Of Love," "Leader Of The Pack," "Do Wah Diddy Diddy," "I'm Into Something Good," "Oh No, Not My Baby," "The Locomotion," "California Dreamin'," "Creeque Alley" and many more from the prolific pens of Barry Mann and Cynthia Weil, Gerry Goffin and Carole King, John and Michelle Phillips and Ellie Greenwich and Jeff Barry. The newest addition to the roster is George and Barbara Tomscos, writers of the current Fireballs' side, "Goin' Away," pulled from the "Bottle of Wine" LP.

George is the Fireballs' lead guitarist and he and Barbara have been penning tunes ever since they were married, four years ago.

Tommy James & The Shondells recorded a Tomscos song, "Say I Am," as the follow-up to their first big hit, "Hanky Panky."

"Ain't That Rain," another Tomscos-composed ballad, has been recorded by The Smothers Brothers and Carolyn Hester. It's also included in the current Fireballs album.

Folksinger Carolyn Hester has used "That's My Song," a ditty turned out by the Tomscos's, as her theme song for many years.

George has been writing songs on his own ever since he joined The Fireballs. He clefted all their instrumental hits, including "Torquay," "Bulldog" and "Quite A Party."

He had 35 song copyrights to his credit before he met Barbara, and together they've added an additional 25. Their songs are published by Dundee Music.

Oscar Night Sparkles With MGM Disk Stars

NEW YORK—TV's Oscar night will be studded with MGM Records artists, who will not only be involved in the Academy Awards program itself, but will dominate other ABC-TV shows prior to the Oscar telecast this week (8). Wayne Newton, Orpheus, and Lainie Kazan will all make TV appearances on Academy Awards night, which is called the biggest TV viewing night of the year by most rating services.

Leading things off for MGM will be Wayne Newton, the newcomer to MGM Records, with his first TV spectacular "One More Time!" (8:30 EST, 7:30 CST). The Newton show is tightly tied to a promotion scheme set up by MGM which will unfold with the show. Among the important facets are the release of an album entitled "One More Time!" which will be in retail stores the morning after the TV show. This show and the album are being backed up with extensive advertising and publicity.

The Newton special is quickly followed on the ABC-TV network by a featured appearance by the latest group to emerge from MGM's Boston promotion, Orpheus. The singing group appears and vocalizes for a documentary special, "The Great Mating Game" (9:30 p.m. EST; 8:30 CST). The show covers the means and the mores young people apply in getting mates in today's society.

Aretha Receives #5 RIAA Gold Record

NEW YORK—Aretha Franklin racked up her fifth million-selling single last week when the Record Industry Association of America (RIAA) certified her Atlantic recording "Since You've Been Gone" for a gold record award.

Even now, the flip side of the single has begun to gain in air play and is a top 100 hit. "Ain't No Way" and its topside are both included in Aretha's most recent LP, "Lady Soul," which is expected to soon pass the million-dollar sales mark.

The four previous goldies in Aretha's catalog include: "I Never Loved a Man (The Way I Love You)," "Respect," "Baby, I Love You," and "Chain of Fools." She has also earned a gold LP for "I Never Loved a Man."

An Academy Award singing spotlight goes to Lainie Kazan who has been selected by the producers of the show to perform an Oscar soundtrack nominee, "The Eyes Of Love," from the motion picture "Banning." The Academy Awards Show will be telecast 10:00 p.m. EST, 9:00 p.m. CST.

To celebrate its domination of Oscar night, MGM Records has instituted a number of promotions tagged "Oscar Night is MGM Records Night!" Streamers have been circulated to retailers and trade and consumer advertising has been placed in support of the artists being showcased.

Buddah, United Airlines In Sales Promo Tie-In

NEW YORK—Buddah Records and United Airlines have entered into a major promotional tie-in, with free mileage on the carrier as the prize.

Neil Bogart, general manager of Buddah, said that the program, dubbed "F.R.E.E." (Flight Rewards, for Extraordinary Endeavor) is available to all Buddah distributors, promo reps, and salesmen. "Each man can win free miles for every radio station serviced, for meeting sales quotas and for participating in special promotional campaigns."

Bogart said he plans to offer 50,000 free miles on the first Buddah release by the Ohio Express, "Yummy, Yummy, Yummy," issued last week. The deck reportedly has advance orders of 50,000 copies. Bonus certificates of 400 miles up to 2,500 miles will be awarded for work done on the Ohio Express single.

Lou Hoff, United Airlines sales representative, who concluded the agreement with Bogart, said the carrier is preparing a special booklet outlining the program for Buddah sales and promotional representatives across the country. The mileage certificates are redeemable through United Airlines, which services 32 states, 20 state capitols and 117 cities. "In addition to United Airlines terminals, these certificates will be honored for any destination in the world, even if the flight is on another carrier," said Hoff.

"Buddah is very proud of the effort and continuing performance of its distributors, salesmen and promotion representatives," said Bogart. "This agreement with United Airlines provides the greatest rewards and added incentive in the entire record industry."

Muntz Seeks To Support Label Projects

VAN NUYS—Muntz Stereo-Pak has initiated a large-scale program to establish a network of record label support bases across the U.S. The move is aimed at lending the company's sales and merchandising efforts to projects sponsored by its associates in the record field.

Earl Muntz, the cartridge firm's namesake and president, said that support bases are already being established in Chicago and New York and that his company will work now to more fully and efficiently serve the merchandising needs of the record companies for which Muntz duplicates and distributes cartridges.

The program marks Muntz as the first cartridge duplicator to base fully record-oriented staffs in this country's three major markets. The development was acknowledged as an attempt to more closely coordinate the previously unilateral merchandising efforts of Muntz Stereo-Pak and the record labels with which it is associated.

Music Merged Into Sales

One element central to the general Muntz theme of stepping up its aid to record label merchandising programs has been the complete reorganization of the Muntz music department which has been directed to report to the company's sales division, now headed by veteran record figure Gene Block. Meanwhile, music director Ed Michel has been elevated to national record relations director, and will continue to administer Muntz music policy and programming from the west coast.

Block and Michel are currently examining record personnel to fill the company's new division in New York. Block will continue the search in New York later this month when he joins Jere Davis to supervise Muntz participation in the Premium Show. Block and Davis will interview applicants at the New York Hilton, April 19-27.

Bob Demain had been selected earlier to preside over the company's record label task force in the midwest and south and has already established Muntz headquarters at 1220 North State Street in Chicago.

The Chicago and New York divisions have been committed by Block to apply sales and merchandising techniques traditionally used by record label music departments. These staffs will work also to affect concurrent record/cartridge release dates.

Additionally, the new Muntz staffs will participate in scheduling weekly music releases, developing merchandising material and negotiating with record label representatives. Also included in their assignments will be continued support of the national Muntz "More With Four" campaign.

Veteran record industry sales figures will supplement the Muntz merchandising teams in New York and Chicago. The New York office will represent the Muntz product line of equipment and music to outlets throughout the east, while Chicago will be responsible for marketing in the midwest and south.

"Our present rate of success," said Muntz, "has enabled us to advance our timetable sufficiently to take this significant step in bridging relations between the record and cartridge field."

Muntz said that his announcement signals merely the first in a series of steps to advance the record-oriented and music-related sales and promotion activities that will be undertaken by his company.

Redding's Widow Named To Redwal's Bd. Of Dir.

NEW YORK—The stockholders of Redwal Music Co. have named Mrs. Otis Redding, widow of the late soul singer, to the board of directors of the corporation. Mrs. Redding was also elected vice president of Redwal by the directors. She will actively participate in the company's operation.

Phil Walden, manager of the late singer, was upped to president of the company and has announced plans for Redwal's expansion. The firm recently constructed a demo/audition facility for its writers. Currently under contract are several key writers including Arthur Conley, Roy Lee Johnson, Earl Simms, and Billy Young.

Redwal's success over the past year in music publishing has been considerable with the company publishing three million sellers: "Sweet Soul Music," "Respect," and "(Sittin' On) The Dock Of The Bay." The firm currently has two tunes on the top 100 charts: "Dock Of The Bay" and "Funky Street."

Mrs. Redding recently represented the Redwal firm at the Nashville NARAS Awards Dinner. She will concentrate her activities in the field of public relations.

"Respect," penned by Otis Redding, and published by Redwal, earned two Grammy awards.

11 New Portable Radios Marketed By Columbia's Masterwork Audio

NEW YORK—A varied line of 1969 portable radios has been announced by Masterwork Audio Products, a division of Columbia Records.

The 11 new models will be supported by a number of sales aids created to promote and advertise the new line. Line books, inserts, glossies of the eleven models, promotional ad proofs and a counter merchandiser with a pilfer-proof design are being made available for dealer store and window display.

'Double Power' Feature

The Masterwork line has been known since its inception for its "Double Power" feature found in all full-sized radios: operation on either batteries or AC current with no adaptor required. This merchandising extra, plus such standard equipment as RF stages, dial lights, Skai stitched-leatherette cases, die-cast fronts, earphones and batteries, is represented strongly throughout the line.

Masterwork's 1969 line incorporates slide-rule vertical dials with "log" scales to assure pinpoint reception. A new feature is a distance switch to boost reception in fringe areas.

Highlighting the line is the new "Space Rover," M-2918. The "Space Rover" is a combination four-band radio and radio direction finder with azimuth scale, designed to provide navigational aid on land, sea and air.

Four Masterwork portables come equipped with Tuned RF stage and three-gang condenser, providing extra sensitivity, pinpoint frequency selection and minimal "cross-talk." In addition, two units, M-2900 and M-2904, are available in a choice of cabinet colors.

The eleven models in Masterwork's 1969 portable-radio line are grouped in three categories: AM, AM-FM, and Multi-Band units.

Each of the two AM Masterwork portables comes complete with "Double Power," slide-rule dial with "log" scale, and a distance switch.

M-2900, an AM model with eight transistors, is available in a choice of black or brown Skai leatherette and carries the suggested list price of $19.95.

M-2902, a ten-transistor AM unit, features Tuned RF stage, three-gang condenser and a dial light. Encased in black Skai leatherette, M-2902 is priced to sell at $24.95.

In all four AM-FM units in the 1969 line, Masterwork has incorporated a slide-rule dial with "log" scale, a distance switch and AFC.

M-2904 is a compact, ten-transistor AM-FM unit with RF stage and has a wrist strap. Available in either black or ivory Skai leatherette, M-2904 is suggested to list at $22.50.

M-2906, a ten-transistor AM-FM radio priced to retail at $29.95, comes in a black Skai leatherette case and features "Double Power," as well as a dial light and RF stage.

M-2908, an AM-FM portable encased in black Skai leatherette, is a twelve-transistor unit with "Double Power" and dial light. Model M-2908, with RF stage and six controls, is priced to list at $39.95.

M-2910, another AM-FM portable in black Skai leatherette, is a twelve-transistor model with "Double Power" and dial light. M-2910 features a Tuned RF stage and three-gang condenser, and it carries the suggested list price of $49.95.

Multi Band Units

Masterwork's five Multi-Band units come with "Double Power," slide-rule dial with "log" scale, AFC, and dial light.

M-2912, a twelve-transistor, three-band model with RF stage and distance switch in a black Skai leatherette case, offers AM-FM-Short Wave reception and is suggested to retail at $49.95.

M-2914, a four-band unit (AM-FM-SW1-SW2) with distance switch, Tuned RF stage and three-gang condenser, is encased in black Skai leatherette and priced to list at $59.95.

M-2916 is designed for six-band reception (AM-FM-SW1-SW2-SW3). This model, in black Skai leatherette, offers RF stage, push-button operation, a distance switch and fine-tuning control and carries the suggested list price of $79.95.

M-2918, the new, twelve-transistor "Space Rover," is a four-band model (AM-FM-LW-SW1) with radio direction finder, Tuned RF stage, three-gang condenser, meter-type tuning indicator, fine-tuning control and tone control. Encased in black Skai leatherette, the "Space Rover" also comes equipped with a rotating direction finder with azimuth scale, a code chart and a deflection finder designed for navigational aid, "homing" and cross bearings and for obtaining an accurate position "fix" from marine and aviation radio beacons, as well as AM and LW stations. This unit carries a suggested price of $89.95.

M-2920 completes the Multi-Band line. M-2920 is a deluxe, sixteen-transistor, six-band unit with AM-FM-LW-SW1-SW2-SW3 reception, RF stage, push-button operation, meter-type tuning indicator and fine-tuning control. Elektra To Release Bikel's 'Rich Man'

NEW YORK—Elektra Records is releasing Theodore Bikel's performance of two songs from "Fiddler on the Roof" as a single.

The recordings were made in Las Vegas, where Bikel is playing the Tevya role in a road show production of the long-term Broadway show. He has been playing the lead to sell-out audiences at Caesar's Palace.

Top side of the single will be "If I Were A Rich Man." Coupler is "Sunrise, Sunset." Both tracks were recorded with a full orchestra conducted by musical director Milton Greene.

NEW YORK—Scott English will be spending this week in London negotiating for the scoring of a comedy film for release later this year.

During his week-long stay, the Helios Music exec-writer will also work at placing new material and consult with associates for American use of local material.

Talent On Stage

JOAN BAEZ

CARNEGIE HALL, N.Y.—A packed house greeted Joan Baez upon her return to Carnegie Hall on Saturday night, March 27, and she did not disappoint her admirers for a moment during her concert. Still the most acclaimed American female folksinger of modern times, she held her audience in rapt attention with the lyric power of her voice, assisted only by her own guitar.

Her program included a number of folk standards, among them "Blowin' In The Wind," "If I were A Carpenter" and "Kumbaya." She gave excellent readings of Lennon and McCartney's "Eleanor Rigby," Leonard Cohen's "Suzanne," and Pete Seeger's "Oh, Had I A Golden Thread," and she amused everyone with her tongue-in-cheek version of the rock and roll hit, "Little Darlin'." At one point in the concert, she gave a humorous account of her experiences in jail (she was incarcerated briefly as a result of her participation in anti-Vietnam demonstrations).

Joan Baez has survived the death of the folk boom with her popularity intact, and judging by her performance at Carnegie, she should be around for a long time to come. She may be heard on wax via her numerous Vanguard albums.

STONE PONEYS JERRY JEFF WALKER

BITTER END, N.Y.—The Stone Ponies, with Linda Ronstadt singing lead, are certainly one of the most pleasant (both visually and vocally) record acts to have played the Village in recent times. Linda has a powerful and gutsy voice which, when blended with her near impeccable phrasing, her gentle inflections, and a precise musical backing brought about through the tasteful use of two amplified acoustic guitars, a Fender bass, and a drum, makes for a very exciting performance. They, of course, performed their "Different Drum" and current Capitol single, "Up To My Neck In High Muddy Water." Two other highlights of the show were both written by the Poney's rhythm guitarist/harmony vocalist, Bobby Kimmel. They are "Driftin'" and "New England Winter," a hauntingly beautiful effort. The group does a particularly good job on Dylan's "I'll Be Your Baby Tonight."

Jerry Jeff Walker, who was formerly with Vanguard's Circus Maximus, opened the club with his own "Mr. Bojangles," "Gypsy Song Man," "Maybe Mexico," and "Morning Song For Sally," in addition to a humorously revamped treatment of "Talkin' Guitar Blues." Walker's rhythm guitar and vocals were backed by an excellent guitarist named Dave Bromberg. This act is not under record contract at this time although Walker is currently in negotiation with several firms.

JAMES COTTON BLUES BAND JACK LANDRONE

THE TROUBADOUR, Hollywood—Almost a century since the Blues was first improvised in the barrel-houses and honky-tonks of New Orleans, the idiom has been revitalized of late, thanks to such contingents as the James Cotton Chicago Blues Band which rocked the Troubadour last week. With a potpourri of 12 bar and rag, from the deep-south-home variety to the more contemporary flavored R&B, the group even managed to toss in a latin flavored item to the delight of the assembled crowd.

Show opened with a set of four driving instruments by 4/5's of the act at which point Cotton arrived on the scene to take over. Among his best—"Sometimes I Wonder" and "Knock on Wood," the performance on the latter so compelling that one wished the group had included several more like it from today's bag.

Another highlight—when Cotton picked up his harmonica and wailed.

Musicianship was stunning and met with great approval from a knowing opening crowd sprinkled with local musicians. Group maintained the aura of authenticity fusing it to an absence of showmanship which was disarming but welcomed. Fivesome seemed to know their thing; went out and did it.

Show opened with newcomer, singer-guitarist Jack Landrone whose sophisticated songbag ranged from Aznavour and Simon and Garfunkel to a number of very effective originals. Landrone comes very close to the "chanteur" class with a fine, attractive tenorish voice, sensitive delivery and excellent musicianship.

New NY H.Q. For A&M

NEW YORK—A&M Records' New York branch has opened new offices at 1855 Broadway, which will house Bill Mulhern and John Rosica.

RICHIE HAVENS TROGGS

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

FILLMORE EAST, N.Y.—The United States of America, Columbia's latest rock find, opened the bill at Bill Graham's lower 2nd Ave. rock mecca last week and, before their act was half through, were greeted by occasional torrents of boos, jeers, and generally debasing phrases from scattered segments of an otherwise hip and sympathetic audience. The U.S.A. uses electronic means to embellish their rock/art-song act in an apparent attempt to reach and explore distant musical horizons. For the most part, they succeed. The group is not at all difficult to enjoy, especially when augmented by the now famed Joshua Light Show. All it takes, assuming basic intelligence, is a bit of thought. The same kind of thought that was once necessary to appreciate John Dowland or Charles Ives, not to mention some of the better known jazzmen or rock units of today.

The Troggs, English-based Smash recording artists, are, to put it as simply as possible, not a rock act. They are a rock 'n' roll act and in that field they are particularly good. The 4-man group went through a series of their hits that included: "With A Girl Like You," their while back No. 1 "Wild Thing," and the currently charted "Love Is All Around." An additional highlight to the Troggs' performance was Art Wayne's "Somewhere My Girl Is Waiting," which has never been released in the United States.

Backed up by a lead guitar, bass, tabla, and tambura, Verve's Richie Havens ambled out onto the stage and took over. It was his night and he knew it. Even the stage crew had chalked a sign at his feet saying, "Richie, we love you." He talked quietly for a while and then launched into a carefully selected group of tunes, comprised basically of the better known titles of recent vintage. His guitar style is pure Richie Havens, tuning the instrument to any one of a number of open chords (as opposed to standard guitar tuning) he chords by means of a finger bar, pounding out rhythm with the other hand. It's simple and incredibly effective.

Informing his fans that he knew neither the words nor the chords to his "favorite song in the whole universe," Richie offered to hum the tune and fake the chording, providing the audience would sing "at least on the chorus." It worked and a delightful version of "I Get By With A Little Help From My Friends" went on for about 15 minutes. He encored for a couple of numbers but "I Get By With A Little Help From My Friends" remained the apex of his gig.

Hassles Promo Hits Cleveland, Balt-Wash

NEW YORK—The continuing promotion campaign by United Artists Records in behalf of the Hassles moved last week through Cleveland and the Baltimore-Washington, D. C., area with a round of personal appearances and interviews.

Accompanied by UA director of special projects, Danny Crystal, the pop/rock group taped the "Upbeat" and the Ken Hawkins shows, then traveled to the capitol region to appear on the Scott Wallace Show, the Kirby Scott Show, visit area radio stations and hold press interviews.

With Ed Levine and John Davies, respectively national singles and album promotion directors, arranging additional exposure opportunities, Crystal anticipates drives into other areas to bolster the increasing activity of the group's album and single, "Every Step I Take."

Upon their return to New York, the group will tape the WPIX-TV Peter Martin Show on April 10th, appear at The Hullabaloo Club in Lindenhurst, L.I., on the 27th, to be followed by several prom dates in the Long Island and Westchester areas.

Big Bookings For Blues Band

NEW YORK—The Dirty Blues Band, recording for ABC's BluesWay label, is booked for a heavy schedule of weekend appearances on the west coast.

They played at the Orange Groove in Costa Mesa, California to close March and last weekend brought them to the Ashboro in Los Angeles. A concert in Palm Springs follows, with a booking at Cheetah beginning on May 17th and an appearance scheduled at San Francisco's Fillmore Ballroom in late May.

Rod Piazza, singer and blues harpist with the group, has been signed as an exclusive writer by BMI.

BluesWay has just released a new single from the Band, "Hound Dog" and "New Orleans Woman."

Esther & Abi Ofarim Heading For States

LONDON—After appearing here last week (3) at Albert Hall, Israeli singing artists Esther and Abi Ofarim are scheduled to visit the U.S. in mid-April to guest the Ed Sullivan Show. The concert at Albert Hall was sold out in advance, with the duo's single, "Cinderella Rockefeller," being number 1 on the British charts for the past several weeks.

Esther and Abi Ofarim's repertoire is multi-lingual.

Screen Gems-Columbia Fills 2 GPM Slots

NEW YORK—Screen Gems-Columbia Music has appointed two general professional managers, according to an announcement by Emil LaViola, vice president and general manager of the firm. The two appointees are Irwin Schuster, who joins Screen Gems-Columbia Music from T.M. Music, where he was general professional manager, and Al Altman, who joined the music publishing division of Screen

Gems and Columbia Pictures Corp. last year.

In making the announcement, LaViola called the twin appointments necessary in view of the rapid expansion of the company in all areas, including motion pictures, television and theatre and the burgeoning of its own Colgems Record Label. Altman will be in charge of Screen Gems-Columbia's pop catalog. Schuster's responsibilities will lie in the areas of catalog, motion pictures, television, theatre, and other catalog.

He will work closely with writers, composers, and lyricists relative to themes and title music, and television material, and will handle exploitation of material from these areas. Both men will report directly to LaViola.

Schuster entered the music business with Trinity Music in 1955 and remained there until 1963 when he joined Hill & Range. In 1964 he re-joined Trinity, which had by that time been purchased by Bobby Darin and renamed T.M. Music. As general professional manager, he worked with such writers as Jeff Barry, Ellie Greenwich, Van McCoy, Arthur Resnick, Rudy Clark, Paul Leka, Joe Levine, Buffy Sainte-Marie, Bobby Scott, and Kenny Young, and was an important factor in more than 20 BMI awards, numerous chart records, and strong album activity.

Emil LaViola (seated, vice president and general manager of Screen Gems-Columbia Music) congratulates Irwin Schuster (left) and Al Altman on their appointments as general professional managers.

Decca Faces New Era Under Gallagher

affecting the traditional distribution system employed in the record industry. He said the new structure for MCA's pre-recorded music interests will be "best equipped to take advantage of the growth potential . . ."

'Music In Any Form'

Asked to comment on the tape cartridge scene, Gallagher said that he was ready to "sell music in any form." He held out, however, special promise for the cassette system. He said that an MCA affiliate, Gauss Geophysics, had developed a new tape duplicating system that has specific benefits in the duplicating of cassette tapes. One major asset, he said, was a unique system of preventing the stretching of tape during duplication. Decca is marketing 4 and 8-track cartridges, and has announced plans to enter the cassette field.

Club Ties

The record club situation at MCA is now divided, with Decca and Kapp having varying affiliations, including some on a non-exclusive basis. Gallagher and Adams indicated that the future may see an arrangement with Spencer Gifts, the large mail-order house also acquired by MCA last year. It was pointed out that many labels make use of what is considered one of the best mailing lists around.

Before joining MCA, Gallagher was a key exec at Columbia Records for 16 years. At the recent NARM convention, he was named "Record Man of the Decade" by the wholesaling association.

Dressel To Wand Mgmt.

NEW YORK — Hermie Dressel has joined the staff of Wand Management Corp., it has been announced by Paul Canto, vice president of the company.

Due to the great expansion of the activities of Dionne Warwick Enterprises, which includes the production of television, concerts, records, and music publishing, Cantor invited Dressel to join him and Wand Management. In addition, Miss Warwick will be co-starring in her first film with Stephen Boyd and Ossie Davis, which will go into rehearsal on June 15th and will commence production on July 1, 1968.

Cantor and Dressel

Dressel will be involved in all the general activities of Wand Management Corp., which in addition to Miss Warwick includes the following roster of clients: the Esquires, B. J. Thomas, Ronnie Milsap, Anita Sheer, Gene Stridel, Tony Vallo, Mel Shayne, and the Kingsmen.

Hermie Dressel brings many years of varied show business experience to Wand Management to add to Paul

Sinatra Hails Caesars Palace

LAS VEGAS—Four one-minute singing commercials have been recorded by Frank Sinatra for Caesars Palace in Las Vegas. The singer signed last summer to perform at the hotel. The spots, touting the extensive facilities and accommodations of Caesars Palace, will be used in major national markets across the country starting in May.

Academy Award winning song writers Sammy Cahn and Jimmy Van Heusen have written special lyrics to the songs "Come Dance With Me" and "Swinging On A Star." Three of the lyric commercials are based on the "Star" tune and one on the "Dance" melody. A 17 piece orchestra provides the backing and is conducted by Sinatra's own baton-wielder, Bill Miller.

The commercials, which have no connection with the singer's forthcoming appearance at Caesars Palace, will be placed by Sid Gathrid, director of advertising for the hotel.

Cantor's extensive background. He has been a musician most of his life, having played drums with a number of name bands and was with Alan Freed's Big Beat band for three years at the Paramount Theatre in New York that started the whole rock 'n' roll era. He also led his own jazz group for a number of years in the New England area while at the same time conducting one of the few substaining six night a week jazz shows in this country. The show was called Hermie Dressel's Jazz Alley.

In addition to handling all of Woody Herman's public relations and publicity for a number of years, he was also promotion manager for Mercury Records in the Northeast from 1961-1963. He joined the management firm of Scandore & Shayne in 1964 in New York, whose client roster included Don Rickles, Johnny Tillotson, Pat Henry, Pat Cooper, and others. He subsequently headed up the east coast operation of that firm.

Ninandy Releases

NEW YORK—Andy Stroud, president of Ninandy Records, who recently returned from an extended business trip to the west coast, is engaged in preparing his label's latest single, "I Love You" b/w "You Can Count On Me," by Samuel Waymen, for release. The artist penned both tunes.

Last week, Stroud A&R'd an instrumental, "Dand And Night," by Montego Joe. The lid will be issued later this month.

A recent move with this in mind was the appointment of Tom Morgan as vp of eastern operations.

Kornfeld's most recent triumphs as a producer-writer were disk successes by the Cowsills, MGM's family act. He and writer Steve Duboff penned the team's first two hits, "The Rain, the Park & Other Things" and "We Can Fly."

He has also written songs or special material for Wayne Newton, Connie Francis, the Shirelles, Woody Allen and actor George Segal. His material is published through his own music company, Luvlin Music, established eight months ago.

Capitol Exec Realignments

named to report directly to Yorke in the merchandising area. As vp and general manager he has assumed all merchandising responsibilities in view of the need for supervised coordination between A&R sales and merchandising.

Reporting directly to him, the four product managers named were Rocky Catena for pop product; Brad Engel handling classical product; Hal Rothberg, manager of special products; and country music manager Wade Pepper.

Each of these four, along with their project managers, will be responsible for servicing, motivating and providing the marketing support programs and drive for their respective product lines.

Promotion Centralized

In the new organizational alignment, all the promotion services of the company will be consolidated under the direction of Ken Mansfield, newly named national promotion manager. Mansfield will head the area which, according to Yorke, "is unquestionably the pivotal factor in launching new artists, gathering chart attention and maintaining sales vitality."

Reporting to Mansfield will be Ron

Granger, who will assume the responsibility of field promotion manager, and all field promotion personnel. Field merchandising managers who are also involved with promotional activities along with sales assignments, will continue to report to their respective district sales managers.

"These changes," York said, "all help to guarantee that Capitol will be able to hit harder, with greater impact, and in more places." Divisional and district managers are to be supplied with complete details on how the promotional man will relate to the district sales activity regarding communication and reporting responsibility. "We realize," Yorke continued, "that having promotional men reporting to the Tower is a sensitive area and procedure will need, and shall receive, a new definition."

With Fred Rice as manager of merchandising display devices, the creative service department will include Bob Bates as production manager and Lew Marchese managing traffic and production.

Oris Beucler will continue as CRDC vp of special products with his department effectively integrated into the sales and merchandising fabric of the company.

Nobody saw. Nobody heard.

HEAR & NOW—Gene & Debbe—TRX LP/LPS 1001

Gene & Debbe follow up their chart single, "Playboy," with an LP featuring that tune as well as ten other pop melodies. Six of the ditties, including "Playboy," were penned by Gene. The duo's voices blend together attractively in such songs as "Go With Me," "Don't Try To Change Me," and "Let It Be Me." The success of "Playboy" presages equal preeminence for this album.

STEVE LAWRENCE'S GREATEST HITS—Columbia CS 9565

Steve Lawrence, currently starring on Broadway with his better half, Eydie Gorme, in the musical hit "Golden Rainbow," renders a set of pop goodies which show him to good advantage. In warm, clear tones, the artist chants such tunes as "Go Away Little Girl," "The Impossible Dream," "More," and "What Now My Love." The LP should please the songster's many followers.

FEVER TREE—UNI 73024

Fever Tree's debut album includes their single, "San Francisco Girls (Return Of The Native)," in addition to such tunes as "Day Tripper," "We Can Work It Out," and "The Sun Also Rises." The package is a mostly hard rock excursion into psychedelia that should see a lot of sales action.

HELLO PEOPLE!—Aliza Kashi—Jubilee JGM/JGS 8012

Songstress Aliza Kashi, who has appeared frequently on the Merv Griffin TV'er, is recorded live on this LP at Caesar's "Monticello" in Framingham, Mass. The lark creates a good deal of excitement with her dramatic interpretations of such tunes as "I Didn't Know What Time It Was," "Goin' Out Of My Head," "Swanee," and "Havah Nagilah." The package should find fast favor in the marketplace.

12 SMASH HITS—Enoch Light Singers—Project 3 PR 5021 SD

This is the first Enoch Light Singers album and it is filled with sprightly, light-hearted treatments of some of the bigger tunes of current vintage. Some of the titles include: "Love Is Blue," "Ode To Billie Joe," "Green Tambourine," "Up, Up And Away," "Valleri," "It Must Be Him," and "Somethin' Stupid." The set should enjoy plenty of middle-of-the road and light pop play in addition to racking up lots of sales activity.

MADE IN FRANCE—Mireille Mathieu—Atlantic (SD) 8160

French songstress Mireille Mathieu offers her second Atlantic album. Singing with an orchestra conducted by Paul Mauriat, the artist weaves a powerful spell with her dramatic, dynamic delivery. Featured on the set are "La Derniere Valse," "En Ecoutant Mon Coeur Chanter," "Les Yeux De L'Amour (The Eyes of Love)," and "Chant Olympique." The LP should do much to further the lark's popularity in this country.

Pop Best Bets

IF THE WHOLE WORLD STOPPED LOVIN'—Val Doonican—Decca DL 4962/74962

British chanter Val Doonican makes his Decca album debut with this package of pop ditties. Included on the LP are the title song, which was a chart entry for the artist, "Small World," "If I Were A Carpenter," and "Yesterday." Doonican sings with lilting grace and gentleness, and the set figures to catch the fancy of an appreciable listenership.

IN SEARCH OF EROS—Rod McKuen—Epic BN 26370

Rod McKuen, who has met with considerable success during the past year in musical combination with Anita Kerr, here serves up a warm presentation of twenty-one of his poems, all on a "loneliness and love in the age of eroticism" theme. The readings, by McKuen, are backed with occasional and particularly tasteful musical accompaniment. Dealing, as it does, with Eros, the set may meet with opposition in some quarters, but it is a front running candidate for addition to many an album collection.

THE BEST OF JIMMY ROSELLI—United Artists UAL 3645/UAL 6645

Well known Italian songster Jimmy Roselli, here offers some of the Neopolitan songs that he is usually associated with, includes such previous singles as: "Mala Femmena," "Anema E Core," and "Innamorata." Roselli's appeal is basically an ethnic one and these lyrical, sentimental efforts should get plenty of spins. The album should garner a healthy portion of the sales pie.

LIL' WALLY SALUTES LAWRENCE WELK—Lil' Wally Jagiello—Jay Jay 5117

Lil' Wally Jagiello zips through a set of polkas, as he pays his respects to Lawrence Welk. Jagiello's concertina creates a happy, danceable sound in such efforts as "It Couldn't Happen To A Nicer Guy," "When Music Starts To Play," "Lawrence Welk Polka," and "What Good Are We Together." The LP should find a market among listeners who enjoy bright, fun-filled toe-tappers.

FELICIANO! — Jose Feliciano — RCA Victor LPM/LSP 3957

For the past few years, Jose Feliciano has been building a worldwide coterie of fans that's just liable to result in international stardom for the young songster/guitarist. This set, highlighted throughout by Feliciano's dazzling guitar, offers such well known titles as: "California Dreamin'," "Light My Fire," "In My Life," "And I Love Her," "Sunny," "Here, There, And Everywhere," and "The Last Thing On My Mind."

Jazz Picks

SOUL FLOWERS—Johnny Hammond Smith—Prestige PR 7549

Highlighted by a long (5:00) version of the "Dirty Apple" single, this set also includes such big cleffings as: "You'll Never Walk Alone," "Alfie," "Ode To Billie Joe," "Days of Wine and Roses," "Tara's Theme," and "I Got A Woman." The powerful organ of Johnny Hammond Smith sets the pace throughout and special attention should be given to Wally Richardson on guitar and Jimmy Lewis on bass.

Classical Picks

SPANISH MUSIC FOR HARPSICHORD—Igor Kipnis—Epic LC 3974/BC 1374

Igor Kipnis performs an album of Spanish harpsichord music, written by Domenico Scarlatti, Blasco de Nebra, and Antonio Soler. Much of the music is ruminative and subdued, and Kipnis' interpretations are thoughtful and technically adept. Scarlatti's "Sonata In C Minor, K. 84 (L. 10)," Blasco's "Sonata No. 6 In E Major," and Soler's "Sonata In D Minor, M. 8" are among the seven pieces on the LP. A fine classical package.

THE MASHUGANISHI YOGI—Bill Dana/Joey Forman—A&M 144/SP 4144

The Bill Dana Comedy Theater lampoons the current craze in this country centering around Eastern mysticism. Joey Forman, as the Mashuganishi Yogi, portrays a guru you are not likely to encounter in many a moon. The material, written by Jerry Mayer, Forman and Dana, is shot through with cheerful lunacy, and the album is likely to enjoy widespread success.

WALT DISNEY PRESENTS RUDYARD KIPLING'S JUST SO STORIES—Sterling Holloway/Camarata—Disneyland ST 3950

Here's a charming children's album which includes three stories by Rudyard Kipling. Narrated by Sterling Holloway, the set features music by Camarata. A ten-page illustrated booklet is included with the LP. "The Elephant's Child" relates the story of how the elephant got his trunk, and children should find this tale, as well as the entire disk, utterly delightful.

THE GREAT WALTZES—Roberto Mann Strings and Voices—Deram DE 16013/DES 18013

Easy listening at its best is represented on this set of waltzes as performed by the Roberto Mann Strings and Voices. Lush, sweet treatments of "Moon River," "My Cup Runneth Over," "Somewhere My Love," and "I'll Be With You In Apple Blossom Time" are highlights of the album. The LP should see generous middle-of-the road play.

IRISH CAPERS—Go Lucky Four—Emerald SW 99466

Here is the spirit of the Irish people, still striving to be free and Gaelic as well. The spirit is turned into song as it has been for centuries and fairly seethes with the excitement and pathos that is Irish song. Included among the better tracks are: "Belfast Brigade," "Clare's Dragoons," "God Save Ireland," and "It's A Grand Old Country." Should be plenty of spins and sales in store for this one.

YO SE QUE TE AMO (I Know I Love You)—Roberto Yanes—Columbia EX 5207/ES 1907

Argentine chanter Roberto Yanes renders a set of romantic Latin pop tunes in a warm, lyrical fashion. The artist lends his talents to the title song, "Si Todos Fuesen Como Tu," "Esta Tarde Vi Llover," and "Pobres Besos Mios." The album should have appeal for the Latin market in the U.S.

SOUL DUO—Shirley Scott and Clark Terry—Impulse A/AS 9133

Here's a powerhouse jazz album, pairing Shirley Scott at the organ with Clark Terry on the trumpet. The tracks are filled, for the most part, with a joyous feeling, punctuated with close interplay between the two artists. Other musicians on the session include: Mickey Roker, George Duvivier, and Bob Cranshaw. Irving Berlin's "Heat Wave" standard is an outstanding effort on this set, with organ and trumpet trading off leads.

LULU—Karl Bohm/Evelyn Lear—DGG 139 273/75

Here's the first recording in nearly twenty years of Alban Berg's lyric theatre effort, "Lulu." The package, which features Evelyn Lear in the title role, is a live recording from the 1968 Deutsche Oper production. This set uses three artists from the prize winning (Grande Prix du Disque and Grammy) DGG release of Berg's "Wozzeck." The "Lulu Suite" is used as the third act and a complete libretto is enclosed in the box.

Mack, owner of Mack Cadillac Corp. and Mack Leasing Co. in Mount Prospect, and a director of Consolidated Leasing Corp. in Chicago, acquired the outlet from Lester Vihon. Prior to becoming WEXI, the station's call letters were WNWC. WEXI features the music of such artists as Barbra Streisand, Herb Alpert, Nancy Wilson, and Frank Sinatra during the day. At night the "now" generation takes over, with such performers as Ravi Shankar, Leonard Cohen, the Beatles, and the new "underground" groups in the spotlight. Vihon continues with WEXI as executive vice president; Wayne H. Smith, formerly with WNWC, also continues with WEXI as vice president and general manager. Joining the outlet as program director is Ray Smithers. Martin C. Burke is sales manager.

KNX was the first station in this market to recognize the need for large news blocks, and based upon the public's acceptance, we have continuously expanded our coverage. Last summer we solidified our commitment to news with the addition of 'Newsday AM' and became 'Newsradio' for the southland. In the face of increasing world tension and the public's concern for quality news coverage, KNX is again expanding its highly acclaimed news format in order to meet the increasing demand by the people of this community for in-depth, responsible news broadcasts." CBS-FM's DeWitt Gets Presidential Award

NEW YORK—The citation for Meritorious Service, awarded by the President's Committee on Employment of the Handicapped through Gov. Rockefeller's New York "Employ The Handicapped" committee, was given Mar. 30th to CBS-FM's John DeWitt, producer of "The Young Sound," currently being aired in twenty one markets throughout the United States. He was presented the citation by Abe Voron president of the National Association of FM Broadcasters and general manager of Philadelphia's WQAL-FM, at a luncheon held at the Palmer House in Chicago as part of the NAFMB's annual convention there. Voron presented DeWitt with the award on behalf of Harold Russell, chairman of the President's Committee, and Henry Viscardi Jr., chairman of the Gov.'s Committee.

William Greene, director of CBS-FM, had this to say in commenting on DeWitt's receiving the award: "John DeWitt has been prominent in FM broadcasting for eight years. He is a professional musician who brought a much needed fresh approach to a relatively unexplored field of broadcasting. Though under a severe personal handicap, he has performed with extraordinary distinction a highly competitive business."

Nearly Blind

John DeWitt is afflicted by uveitis (a little known eye disease) and severe glaucoma. He is blind in one eye and has approx. 5% vision in the other. Overcoming this handicap, he received both Bachelor's and Master's degrees from the Juilliard School of Music. He has composed and taught music courses at Juilliard and at Manhattanville College. He has been choral director of the New York Society for Ethical Culture and assistant director for the Interracial Fellowship Chorus. Additionally, he organized and conducted the DeWitt Chorale, a 30-voice concert choir. Before joining CBS-FM in 1966, DeWitt served as associate music director at WBAI-FM (the local Pacifica outlet) and as music director for WRVR-FM in New York.

Developed 'Young Sound'

While developing "The Young Sound" at CBS, DeWitt created an efficient system for cataloging the musical elements of individual musical selections, which has since proved to be the basis of programming the nationally syndicated service.

Concept Of 'Young Sound'

DeWitt, in explaining the concept of the "The Young Sound," said: "The 'Young Sound' has always tried to be unique in that it lies somewhere between rock and middle-of-the-road. That, by the way, is a very tight line to walk and still maintain the programming focus. Broadcasters who, like many others, tend to be followers rather than leaders (speaking now of progressive rock on FM and of rock in general on FM) have established a trend toward this kind of music. I think that, in the course of '68, there will be a profusion, perhaps even an abundance, of rock stations on FM. 'The Young Sound' is not going to go rock but will continue to be uniquely off-center.

"I was pleased," he added, "to get recognition for apparently doing a good job in bringing 'The Young Sound' to the point where it is nationally known. I've never really thought of myself as being handicapped. I don't put myself into a special category saying, 'I'm blind... I can't see.' If I find myself in a difficult situation, I find ways to overcome it. One of the ways I've used has been my ears. In essence, I've developed an integrated concept of programming from the selection of music through the on the air sound. I think that my work in developing and producing 'The Young Sound' is why I've been recognized by my peers and the President's committee."

signment. His new areas of activity will involve producer contact work as well as new product acquisition. He will work closely with managers and agents in connection with appearances in the area by London and London group artists.

Recently, Hoff was closely associated with the highly successful series of Coast appearances by John Mayall's Blues Breakers and by Jonathan King. He also worked in connection with Las Vegas appearances by Phil Harris and Sam Butera, whose product is released through the London operation.

Most recently, Hoff and Walt Maguire, the company's national singles sales and A&R manager, hosted a bevy of deejays, press people, distributor personnel, and key retail accounts at Tom Jones' colorful Vegas opening at the Flamingo Hotel.

Turoff is actually rejoining the firm. Formerly in charge of West Coast promo operations for London and London group product, he has been associated for the past year with Kapp Records in sales and promotion. For London, Turoff will focus on general promotion activities and will also be in day-to-day contact at the sales level with all key rack and dealer accounts in Los Angeles, San Francisco, Denver, Salt Lake City, and Phoenix.

Epic Rushes Fame Album w/April Release

NEW YORK—Epic Records is rush-releasing a Georgie Fame album including his top ten single "The Ballad of Bonnie & Clyde" for inclusion with an April release of five LP's and five more classical packages from the Crossroads affiliate label.

Heavy orders have anticipated the release of Fame's new LP that will feature his single. The LP shipped last week as the artist wrapped up a promotion tour in the U.S. One of Europe's leading jazz-blues artists, Fame's material on the set includes "St. James Infirmary," "Someone to Watch Over Me" and more recent tunes from the current rock scene. He is scheduled for a continental concert tour this spring with Count Basie, and has filmed BBC-2's "International Cabaret" with a project now under consideration to film his entire stage show at the Mayfair Theatre in London.

Ten LP Releases

Five more popular sets and an equal number of classics will also be marketed by Epic and Crossroads for April. In Epic's product are: "Live from East McKeesport" with Donna Jean Young, a comedy album marking the recording debut of a youngster made popular through appearances on the Merv Griffin TV show; "Flamenco Fire" from Spain with various artists performing authentic Flamenco music; the second LP on Epic from the Dubliners, "More of the Hard Stuff"; "A Touch of the Queen" by Detroit's Martha Jean the Queen, and "The Funny Side of Bonnie & Clyde" spoof featuring Jesse White, Bruce Gordon and others.

From Crossroads come: Palestrina's "The Song of Songs" performed in the original Latin by the Slovak Philharmonic Chorus; a collection of four works by Ravel and Debussy in a French Impressionist compilation with "Mother Goose Suite," "Pavane pour une infante defunte," "Rondes de Printemps" and "Iberia" performed by orchestras under the direction of Jean Fournet and Antonio Pedrotti; a recording with the same conductors of "Nights in the Gardens of Spain" and a suite from "The Three Corners Hat" by de Falla; Smetana's "Festive Symphony" in its first recording available from the Czech Philharmonic; and "The String Quartets of Schumann" with the Bulgarian String Quartet.

These ten albums are available in stereo versions only.

Mercury Family Markets 13 New Albums

CHICAGO—The Mercury Records family of labels has scheduled a thirteen album release for the month of April with heavy promotion, advertising, publicity and merchandising campaigns already planned for highlight LP's from Mercury, Philips and Fontana. Central sets in the promo spotlight are Merc's "Like to Get to Know You" from Spanky & Our Gang; "Mortimer" on Philips and the Fontana release "Two Suns Worth" from the Morning Glory.

The new Spanky set is the team's second for the label and features a four-color poster included with the double-fold package. A full color merchandising display is available with the LP for in-store use, and the title song has already been released as the Gang's newest single.

Philips' three-man team Mortimer will receive priority push from Philips via the combo's first LP. After a year of preparation, the team will make its LP premiere with "Mortimer," including the new single "Dedicated Music Man."

Fontana's key set stars a San Francisco quartet the Morning Glory. Produced by Abe "Voco" Kesh, the album will receive extensive publicity, consumer advertising and merchandising support. "Two Suns Worth" package features a day-glo color cover for added sales impact.

Pat Lundy Cuts Radio Jingles

NEW YORK—Vocalist Pat Lundy, whose latest Columbia LP is "Soul Ain't Nothin' But The Blues," has jumped into the jingle field with the dinking of major radio commercials for Kool cigarettes, Wink and Sport Cola beverages.

The lark moved into singing commercials following recent booking, press and radio plug drives. Her entry into the commercials field is part of a total campaign set by her personal manager, Buddy Scott, and press representatives, The Music Agency (TMA), to promote her overall popularity as a performer and to boost her current album.

Four More From Merc

In addition to the Spanky LP, Mercury will release four other sets. Manfred Mann's soundtrack score from "Up the Junction" heads the list, with other packages including "The Lennon Sisters Today" marking the team's debut with the label under Snuff Garrett's production; another debut LP by the "Riverboat Soul Band" produced by Paul Vance; and "Chris & Peter Allen's Album Number One" with an Australian duo now making a series of television appearances across the nation.

Philips-Fontana Additions

Madeline Bell's LP follow-up to her single hit "I'm Gonna Make You Love Me" keys Philips' April release behind "Mortimer." Also bowing is Esther & Abi Ofarim's "Free Like the Wind" set including "Cinderella Rockefeller" which hit #1 in England and is moving up the U.S. charts.

Also up from Fontana is "Love Is All Around" from the Trogs highlighted by the group's major single which titles the package.

From Mercury's Wing label come three budget LP's: "Love Is Blue" with the Riviera Strings, "This Is Faron" with country star Faron Young and "Strings of Fire" by Clebanoff & his Orchestra with lush arrangements of standard tunes.

MGM Promo Tour Pushes Medley's 1st Solo Disk

NEW YORK—A 12-city, 15-day tour to promote former Righteous Brother Bill Medley's first record as a single performer has been set up by MGM Records. The lid is available now and is entitled "I Can't Make It Alone."

The Whirlwind tour kicks off in Los Angeles April 14 and then hits a succession of cities on successive days. Los Angeles, Chicago, St. Louis, Memphis, New Orleans, Atlanta, Miami, Philadelphia, Cleveland, Detroit, Houston, Dallas and then back to Los Angeles is the way the tour lines up now. Accompanying the former Righteous Brother is Harold Berkman, director of singles promotion for the label. The tour winds up back in New York where network TV and other high voltage promotion will take place.

MGM Records label manager Lenny Scheer has pulled out all the stops to promote this first release of Medley as a single, which the artist produced himself. Backing up release of the single will be trade ads, heavy deejay concentration, and radio spot buys. A TV promo film is also in the works for the young singer.

MTA/RECCO PUSHING—Recco record and audio departments have launched an across the board merchandising program on MTA Records' artists, King Richard and the Fluegel Knights and William Russell Watrous. The in-store promotion includes massive displays with signs and covers cross merchandising audio equipment and MTA product. Backed up by both AM and FM radio spots, the campaign will continue through April.

'Young Girl' Gets Gold For Union Gap

NEW YORK—The Union Gap has won its second gold record for its second Columbia Records single, "Young Girl." The award symbolizes sales in excess of one million copies as certified by the Record Industry Association of America (RIAA).

The Record, which was produced by Jerry Fuller, producer of Columbia Records west coast A&R is number one this week on the Top 100. "Young Girl" has duplicated the sales and airplay success of The Union Gap's debut single, "Woman, Woman," which achieved a gold record earlier this year.

The quintet's first Columbia LP, entitled "The Union Gap," is currently high on the album charts. During the first week of its release, "The Union Gap" reportedly sold over 100,000 copies, and on the basis of this sales success, Columbia executives anticipate that the LP will soon achieve a gold record of its own.

The Union Gap, one of Columbia's west coast-based groups, features members Gary Puckett (vocals, guitar, organ, piano), Dwight Bement (organ, sax, piano, bass), Kerry Chater (bass guitar, vocals), Gary "Mutha" Withem (sax, organ, piano, vocals), and Paul Wheatbread (drums).

Hip Pocket Records wouldn't be so hot if the artists on them weren't so hot.

• Each of the two numbers we put on a Hip Pocket Record has made it big.

Sold maybe a million copies or more.

That leaves just forty-nine million kids to buy these hits on HP's.

The numbers are still getting a big play on the air.

Kids are still screaming for them.

But, for the most part, just can't find them on 45's any more.

That's where Philco Hip Pocket Records come in.

And at only 39¢* (for two big hits) they may make selling the second million copies easier than selling the first million.

*Manufacturer's Suggested List Price.

Neil Diamond (Bang). Rated #1 male artist by Cashbox.

He's on HP's with "Cherry, Cherry," "Girl, You'll Be a Woman Soon," "You Got to Me." And "Solitary Man."

We'll drop a few more names. Sonny and Cher (Atco). Otis Redding (Stax). Keith (Mercury). Jay and The Techniques (Smash). Lesley Gore (Mercury). Spanky and Our Gang (Mercury). Van Morrison (Bang).

Tommy James (Roulette). Rated #1 male artist by Billboard.

Hip Pocket Records have him and The Shondells with these hits:

"Mirage." "I Think We're Alone Now." "Hanky Panky." And "Getting Together."

Add the best sellers of The Buckingham's (U.S.A.). The Young Rascals (Atlantic).

And Wilson Pickett (Atlantic).

And you're beginning to see why Hip Pocket Records can put a lot of new profits in your pockets.

The Doors (Elektra). Rated #2 new singles artist by Billboard.

HP's have them too. With "Light My Fire" and "Break on Through."

Also in on the big starting push for HP's: The Happenings (B. T. Puppy). Mitch Ryder and The Detroit Wheels (Dyno Voice). The Five Americans (Abnak). Arthur Conley (Atco).

Aretha Franklin (Atlantic). Rated #1 female artist by Billboard.

She's getting Hip Pocket Records off to a flying start with these big ones! "Respect." And "Soul Serenade."

Just try to name another label with that stable of talent and top sellers.

As we said, Hip Pocket Records wouldn't be so hot if the artists on them weren't so hot.

Col Launching Major Country Push

NEW YORK—Columbia Records is celebrating the popularity of country music this year by launching a major 2-month promo, merchandising, and advertising campaign. A longtime influence in the C&W field, Columbia is playing an important role by demonstrating the versatility and universal appeal of country music and its better known names.

The theme of the program is "Welcome To Columbia Country." Full page ads will feature the Columbia promo campaign in Sunday supplement rotogravure sections reaching 16 major markets. This is in addition to trade and consumer advertising. The label has also scheduled comprehensive advertising of "Welcome To Columbia Country" in some of the leading C&W journals. An effort will be made to assure cover and feature stories in these issues.

A C&W sampler featuring 20 artists and 20 songs is the spearhead of the promotion. The LP is available for $1 with the purchase of any other Columbia LP. There is a black and white inner-sleeve featuring 56 cover reproductions of Columbia C&W LP's that is designed to accompany the sampler.

April's releases feature: Lonzo and Oscar with "Mountain Dew," Carl Smith with "Deep Water," Lefty Frizzell with his "Puttin' On" LP, the Hardin Trio with "Sing Me Back Home," Tommy Collins with "On Tour," and Lester Flatt and Earl Scruggs with "The Story of Bonnie and Clyde."

Highlighting the May C&W releases will be "Johnny Cash at Folsom Prison," an LP that the artist had been waiting to do for three years. Cash feels that: "There's something special about a prison audience that is great for me. Its reaction is so fresh and alive. When they're in the mood, I'm in the mood."

Other important releases in May are Marty Robbins' "By the Time I Get to Phoenix," Little Jimmy Dickens' "Big Man in Country Music," "Our Country World" by Carl Butler and

Pearl, "Anna Gordon (of the Chuck Wagon Gang) Sings Country Gospel Favorites" and "The Nashville Strings Play Great Country Hits."

One of the visual concepts created by Columbia for this campaign is a metal rack fixture, featuring a new and colorful header sign, "Welcome to Columbia Country." This rack holds one hundred albums and displays seven album facings. In addition, Columbia has made available to dealers a major display unit featuring six to eight new releases; colorful window streamers; the Saul Lambert sketches of several top Columbia C&W artists for window and in-store display use; and order forms for the label's entire C&W catalog.

Along with extensive radio coverage of "Welcome to Columbia Country," the label has planned a consumer sweepstakes, which will be run on radio by local promotion managers. Local prizes of albums will be awarded, and national winners will attend the Country Music Association's annual convention in Nashville as Columbia Record's guests.

Bobo, Carter Acquire Nugget Enterprises

NASHVILLE—Bobby Bobo and Fred Carter, Jr., announced last week the purchase of Nugget Enterprises, Inc., which includes three established record labels, studios and real estate, a music publishing company, a talent bureau and a show promotion and production company.

The Nugget label will move immediately into international distribution through more than 45 distributors, with shipments of the first release moving out within a week. It will be a full line label, with top 40, R&B as well as country product. The distributors will be the same ones Bobo has used in the past.

Additional facts and plans are as follows:

1. All offices will remain at the studio building on Tinnin Road outside Goodlettsville, Tenn. A music row office may come later, particularly for the publishing company.

2. The Nugget name and label—now more than 10 years old—was retained for the company's first line product, after consumer and industry research showed it to be well established and familiar.

3. Custom record production will be expanded. There is already considerable activity for private labels, and the Clark and Amphion labels, also part of the purchase, will be made available to selected custom product.

4. Studio facilities will be improved, with the immediate addition of new 4-track equipment.

5. The music publishing company name has been changed to L. & O. Music, inc. (formerly Lonzo & Oscar Music), to avoid confusion with the previous owners. The catalog includes a number of important copyrights, such as "What Kinda Deal Is This?" (Bill Carlisle's hit) and "Pass The Booze" (Ernest Tubb). The company is managed by newly-appointed Bud Reneau, formerly an independent producer and publisher in Cincinnati. Reneau reports they are now signing new writers.

6. Still another entity, Nugget Productions, Inc., has been in full operation for some time booking and producing packaged shows.

General manager—and now named president—is Bob Sechrest. Shows under contract for '68 include such stars as Marty Robbins, Del Reeves, Bobby Lord and Bill Monroe.

7. Sechrest also manages the artists service bureau, and reports negotiations now in progress with several top industry stars.

Bobo, formerly vice president and general manager of Boone Records, a label which he founded five years ago, resigned that position when he sold his interests to Hal Smith Enterprises. Carter is one of Nashville's better-known guitarists, as well as a songwriter. He has been a part owner of Nugget since last year when he purchased 1/3 of the firm. Both men are experienced as A&R men and producers.

Country On Stage

ELTON BRITT ROSALIE ALLEN

NASHVILLE ROOM—It was a night of sentimentality as two great names from the past teamed up last week in N.Y. to prove that "old country soldiers never die." Rosalie Allen and Elton Britt found a large coterie of avid fans on hand for their joint opening at the club on Tuesday night, to say nothing of a sizeable aggregation of RCA execs, on hand to publicly welcome Britt back to the label's roster.

From the moment Miss Allen stepped on stage it was old-time country music all the way, with every inch of the liveliness, camaraderie and party-time flavor that that phrase implies. It was yodeling and foot-stomping and hand-clapping. It was just the wild 'n woolly sort of performance that the fans came to hear. And the audience ate it up—so much so that the grand ole gal was greeted with a standing ovation when she left the stage after a workout that would have tired a lumberjack.

Also a favorite, whose popularity is remembered 'way back when,' Elton Britt sounds almost exactly the same as he did twenty years ago, and his interpretations of his tunes from that era—tunes such as "There's A Star Spangled Banner Waving Somewhere"—were received excitedly by a crowd that came specifically to hear those tunes.

Capping his dandy performance, Britt let loose with his just-released RCA single (the subject of a big pre-show cocktail bash staged jointly by Victor and the Peer-Southern publishing organization), "The Jimmie Rodgers Blues," recorded in conjunction with a 40-year anniversary celebration currently being launched by the pubbery.

A CAPITOL AFFAIR—Glen Campbell, currently blazing a trail as one of the hottest artists on the country trail, recently came to New York's Nashville Room where he broke all attendance records for the week-long gig. Campbell was greeted on opening night with a host of Capitol personnel, some of whom are shown congratulating him after the show. From left to right, in the photo above, are district promo manager Joe Maimone, N.Y. singles promo man Bob Smith, singer Eileen Barton, N.Y. district sales manager Ralph Schechtman and division manager Charley Nuccio.

CashBox Country Reviews

Picks of the Week

RAY PRICE (Columbia 44505)

I've Been There Before (2:11) [Gramitto BMI—Gosh, Kidd]

Hardly pausing since "Take Me As I Am (Or Let Me Go)" slipped from the chart picture, Ray Price uncorks another soul-filled offering in "I've Been There Before." The strong ballad gets a typically fine Price reading and should be another chart boomer for the songster. Flip: "Night Life" (3:17) [Pamper, Glad BMI—Nelson, Buskirk, Breedland]

MARTY ROBBINS (Columbia 44509)

Love Is In The Air (2:03) [Wildwood BMI—Robbins]

Moving into a sort of folk-country bag, Marty Robbins delivers a self-penned tune called "Love Is In The Air," which looks like another charter for him. The change of pace tale of troubled love may see some dual-market response. Flip: "I've Been Leaving Every Day" (2:38) [Airborne BMI—Buchanan]

HENSON CARGILL (Monument 1065)

[Blue Crest BMI—Frazier]

Six White Horses (2:34)

[Tree BMI—Bond]

Pick a side, either side. The Henson Cargill followup to "Skip A Rope" makes for tough handicapping. "Row, Row, Row" is a mild, but catchy comment on contemporary society, which looks like it'll take an early lead, but "Six White Horses" is a strong anti-war theme that will be hard to beat in a long race. But since the pairing is an entry and the odds are the same, either choice looks like a winner.

MEL TILLIS (Kapp 905)

You Name It (2:17) [Sawgrass BMI—Elmore]

Another fine effort by Mel Tillis, "You Name It" should soon see the popular songster once again lumbering up the charts at a rapid pace. The free-wheeling, barrelhouse flavor should make this one a strong juke-box sing-along item. Flip: "Something Special" (2:11) [Blue Echo-Griff]

JOHNNY DARRELL (United Artists 50292)

With Pen In Hand (3:18) [Unart BMI—Goldsboro]

Definitely looming as the biggest disk of his career is this powerful Johnny Darrell release called "With Pen In Hand." The Goldsboro-penned ballad has a heart-wrenching poignancy and a tasteful pop-flavored production which could turn it into a twin-market monster. Flip: "Poetry Of Love" (2:53) [United Artists ASCAP—Wheeler]

WANDA JACKSON (Capitol 2151)

My Baby Walked Right Out On Me (2:20) [Party Time BMI-Wayne]

Wanda Jackson's latest bid for country chartdom comes in the form of a galloper called "My Baby Walked Right Out On Me." Happy in sound, but sorrowful in lyric, the item should carve out a nice Top 50 position for the pretty songstress. Flip: "No Place To Go But Home" (2:23) [Wilderness BMI-Howard]

Newcomer Picks

JOHNNY DUNCAN (Columbia 44484)

I'm The One (2:55) [Shelby Singleton BMI-Peters]

Johnny Duncan has stirred up some noise with past Columbia sessions but the timing may be just right for this one to break him into the big picture. Songster delivers a mid-tempo romancer called "I'm The One," which just may be the one for him. Flip: "Solo Soul" (2:33) [Athens BMI-Walker]

EDDIE RABBITT (Date 1599)

The Bed (2:38)

[SPR, Noma BMI-Rabbitt, Heard]

Holding On (2:10)

[Piedmont ASCAP-Tepper, Bennett]

With two strong sides going for him, songsmith Eddie Rabbitt stands an excellent chance to make his mark as a disk artist. One side, "The Bed," is a potent, low-key ballad with a hard-hitting lyric, while the other lid, "Holding On," is a pretty bittersweet blueser, also with a good sound. Take your pick.

WOODY STARR (Jab 9014)

How Long Have You Been There (2:40) [Tree BMI-Moeller]

Another in a solid list of newcomer goodies this week, "How Long Have You Been There" by Woody Starr is a must for deejays to pay attention to. A tune that could easily cross the twin-market bridge, this one is a loping stanza that just keeps getting stronger with each spin. Don't ignore it. Flip: "Maw's Kids" (2:33) [Tree BMI-Hurley, Wilkins]

Best Bets

CLYDE OWENS (Chart 1028)

The Pillow That Whispers (2:42)

[Yonah BMI-Veale] Clyde Owens makes a good bid for big action with this one. The tear-tugger could get lots of attention from spinners and buyers. Flip: "I'm Afraid" (2:55) [Yonah BMI-Woods]

GENE CRAWFORD (MTA 147)

Heartaches In Color (2:35) [Moss

Rose BMI-Mills] May be some healthy response to this new Gene Crawford lid. A mid-tempo tale of woe, the deck could wind up a Top 50 winner. Flip: "Me, Myself And I" (2:10) [Moss Rose BMI-Lewis]

BILL MACK (Kapp 903)

Waitin' (1:40) [Lesrie/Wycliff BMI-

Mack] Could be some strong action in store for this easy-paced release. The songster may not have to wait too long for response. Flip: "Drinking Champagne" (2:23) [Lesrie/Wycliff BMI-Mack]

MURV SHINER (MGM 13900)

I'd Rather Be A Fool (2:15) [Jack

BMI-Williams] There's plenty of potential in this Murv Shiner offering. Side is a mid-tempo wooser that gets a highly effective treatment from the songster. Flip: "How Are You, Brown Eyes" (3:00) [Jack BMI-Clement]

CashBox Country Roundup

An incident at a recent concert was causing for a good deal of misgivings among the music people who were in attendance. The incident in question occurred when one of the headliners suffered a rather serious mishap onstage in the midst of the show and in full view of the thousand or more people in the audience. The evening's act was delayed temporarily, keeping the entire crowd—as well as the roster of performers—perched anxiously on seat edge until word came down that the artist seemed to be all right.

A short while later, the injured singer stumbled onstage in the great "show must go on" tradition, and more than half of the crowd was on its collective feet applauding wildly. But one look at the artist and it was obvious that the man was in need of more medical attention than the once-over he had gotten backstage—if for no other reason than the security of a double-check. Label personnel and fellow performers strongly recommended that he admit himself to a local hospital for treatment and a checkup, but he refused to leave the show, stating that he had "never missed a show in his life." And so, he continued with the show, even though he occasionally appeared on the verge of collapse.

And the audience loved every minute of it!

Or at least most of the audience.

A few of the more practical minds at the sideside paused to look beyond the glamorous "no business like show business" aura and ask themselves about the advisability of such a move. Naturally the artist who finds himself in such a position feels a loyalty to his fans and wants to go all out to please them—especially a country artist. And naturally he may feel that he's deserting his fans by walking out in mid show. But what about the artist himself? Doesn't he owe a little loyalty in his own direction? Isn't he risking a great deal by discounting the possibility of injuries which go farther than he realizes, and by ignoring the benefit of at least an examination?

What happens if, at a later date, complications arise from the accident (injuries to such areas as the head and the back quite often make for problems afterwards)—complications that might have been prevented by immediate care? Is it worth it?

These comments are by no means a putdown on the artist in question. The man is obviously a great professional and a master showman. And no doubt his fans hold him higher in their esteem than ever before. What we are trying to point out is that his course of action may not have been the most advisable—not only for him but for his fans as well. For if complications did set in in the future, and the artist were forced to be inactive for any period of time, then the fans would also feel the loss, wouldn't they?

ACADEMY'S MAN — Comedian-TV personality Joey Bishop, a surprise winner in the recent Academy of Country/Western Music Awards Show, clutches the "Man Of The Year" award while KBBQ spinner Eddie Briggs slips in a quick interview with him and Assembly Speaker Jesse Unruh, who presented the honors. Bishop won the award as a result of his continuous programming of country acts on his network video show.

Congrats to brand new mother Joyce Bush at the Tree pubbery. The new member of the Bush family dubbed Melissa Lee, checked in on Mar. 26, tipping the scales at 8 lbs., 8 oz. Melissa Lee is the first for the Carter Ray Bushes. . . . Another birth announcement comes from the Little Darlin' organization, where national sales and promo manager Tom McConnell also met with the stork early in March. Tom and wife Linda doubled their stable with the arrival of brand new Lance Mayhew McConnell on Mar. 8. The couple already have one daughter, age 5.

Promising newcomers in the country field may be getting a nice break thanks to the producers of the John Gary network TVer. In contrast to most of the network spots that use only the biggest names in country music (when they use any at all), the Gary show has begun a two-fold operation which includes, not only the showcasing of top names (the show has already booked such personalities as Buck Owens, Ferlin Husky, Webb Pierce, Glen Campbell, Bill Anderson, Jan Howard, LeRoy Van Dyke and Don Bowman), but also giving a helping hand to worthwhile newcomers and lesser known talents. The show's producers, Scripps Howard-WGN Continental Productions and Joseph Csida Enterprises, will be notifying talent agencies and labels to make any of their exciting new talents available to them.

Best wishes for a speedy recovery to Columbia's Sonny Wright, who is just getting over a bout with pneumonia. Johnny, whose wife LaVelle has just recovered from the same ailment, has just released a Columbia deck titled, appropriately enough, "Pain Remover."

Mr. Guitar left for Los Angeles Sunday (7) to film segments of the forthcoming Grammy Award Show, "The Best On Record," which will be taped this week at the NBC Studios in Burbank. Atkins, whose RCA LP, "Chet Picks The Best," was named the best Instrumental Performance of 1967 (other than jazz) by NARAS, will be part of the organization's 10th anniversary celebration, to be aired on May 8.

A Mississippi Highway Patrolman on duty near Durant, Miss. found himself playing the role of Good Samaritan one night recently when he stumbled on the Stonemans and their broken down limo-bus sitting alongside the highway leading to Texas. When the crew explained that the vehicle had burnt out a bearing, the anonymous lawman drove off to the home of an auto parts dealer, woke him up and had him go down to his warehouse for a replacement and then carried the part back to the stranded family of musicians. The errand of mercy wound up taking him 36 miles out of his way.

Jimmy Key has packaged a potent lineup for a 30-day tour of the Southwest, opening Apr. 12 in Albuquerque and winding up in Austin, Tex. on May 12. The bill includes Porter Wagoner and the Wagonmasters, Dolly Parton, Bobby Bare, Dave Dudley and the Roadrunners, Jimmy Newman and Tom T. Hall. . . . Jeannie Seely made an unexpected jaunt to Atlanta to join friend and contemporary Dottie West on stage at the Playroom there. As a result of their performance, plans are in the offing to book them back in together for New Year's Eve. . . . Tompall & the Glaser Bros. are in the midst of a heavy schedule that will run through Apr., May and June. Dates will carry them from Alabama all the way to Toronto. . . . Max Powell has been lined up for a batch of TV shots, including an already-filmed segment on the Webb Pierce Show and a stint this week on the Mel Jass TVer up in the Minneapolis area. The latter will be done while Max is putting in a week-long gig at the famous Flame Club in Minneapolis. . . . The Merle Haggard Show has been set for appearances in Michigan later this month, with stops in Grand Rapids (19), Lansing (20) and Flint (21). The lineup includes, in addition to Merle & the Strangers, Bonnie Owens, Glen Campbell, Red Simpson and Kay Adams. . . . The Homesteaders have been set for a six-week stand at Lake Tahoe, along with the Bob Luman, and Harold's Club in Las Vegas. The group returns to a heavy schedule of park and fair dates in the summer, including the DuQuoin State Fair, where they will team up with Lynn Anderson and Roy Clark. . . . Johnny Dollar was in N.Y. last week (4) to tape segments for the extended country broadcast going out over Radio Free Europe.

Our condolences to Date's Van Trevor, whose brother passed away last week.

Mrs. Ruby Vokes, stepmother of countrydom's Howard Vokes has been confined to the hospital where she may undergo a leg amputation. Cards and letters would certainly be appreciated, and can be sent to her at Room 431, St. Vincent's Hospital, 2351 E. 22 St., Cleveland 14, Ohio.

CashBox Country LP Reviews

YOU ARE MY TREASURE—Jack Greene—
Decca DL 4979/74979

Jack Greene has cut three Decca albums prior to this one—his first one enjoyed a fantastic sales run, and his others are still riding on the national charts. The newest, titled after his current smash single, "You Are My Treasure," has all the earmarks of a repeat. Whether delving back into the past for such pop-country gems as "Fraulein" and "My Special Angel" or delivering the more contemporary sounds of "By The Time I Get To Phoenix," Jack makes for some excellent listening all the way through.

THE GENTLE COUNTRY SOUND OF GEORGE
HAMILTON IV—RCA Victor LPM/LSP 3962

As a further extension of the new "bag" that fits George Hamilton IV so comfortably, the songster offers an exceptional collection of folk-country melodies in this set. Material from the pens of Joanie Mitchell, Gordon Lightfoot, John D. Loudermilk pervade the grooves in an excellent example of the tightly-knit bonds between country and folk music. The splendid choice of material includes "Circle Game," "Canadian Railroad Trilogy" as well as his recent single hit, "Little World Girl."

RUNNING WILD—Del Reeves—United Artists
UAL 3643/6643

The immediacy of this Del Reeves LP, should result in the platter sharing simultaneous chart billing with his latest single, "Wild Blood," which is also the top track in the set. Del's fine versions of both familiar chart winners and lesser known newies lend a strong feel to the album and help make it one of his top efforts. Spotlight tracks include "Pretty Womanitis" and "Take A Little Good Will Home."

COUNTRY SOUL — Johnny Paycheck — Little
Darlin' LD 4010/SLD 8010

The keynote to this Johnny Paycheck session is "standards." Old country evergreens and more recent material, (nonetheless heading down the path toward standardville), get the distinctive Paycheck treatment here in an album that's a sure-shot to gratify his most demanding fans. Chanter does his usual fine job with such items as "There Goes My Everything" and "Danny Boy," as well as "Green, Green Grass Of Home."

DEEP WATER—Carl Smith—Columbia CL 2822/
CS 9622

Carl Smith's chart success with his singles of "Deep Water" and "Foggy River" should result in equally strong reaction to his latest Columbia LP, which features both of those hit numbers. The songster should also find favor as a result of his interpretations of such familiar country standouts as "Love's Gonna Live Here Again" and "I Really Don't Want To Know," to name a few. Stock up quickly.

WELCOME TO COLUMBIA COUNTRY—Various Artists—Columbia CWS 2

Collection sets are generally popular items, and this tasty Columbia shishkebab should definitely fall into that pattern of popularity. Twenty different artists and acts have been crammed into the package, ranging from Johnny Cash and Marty Robbins to Ray Price and Flatt & Scruggs, with a good many doing their own recent single outings. Among the top tracks here are "Ruthless" (Statler Bros.), "Promises And Hearts" (Stonewall Jackson) and "The Long Black Veil" (Johnny Cash).

INTERNATIONAL SECTION

April 13, 1968

Great Britain

With the possible exception of the overall business culled by the lucrative Capitol label in this country, the dynamic Tamla Motown banner is doing more volume business hereabouts than any other American record label. As with Capitol, the Tamla Motown trade is handled by EMI which has superlative distribution and is well-practiced in the promotion of a fast-selling line of product. Even with these plusses which go a long way to facilitating the growth of a hit label, the Tamla Motown label has distinguished itself here with its own distinctive sound. That Berry Gordy product scores by this immediate and unmistakable identification is illustrated in its current chart performance. At the present time in the singles index the Four Tops have a Top Ten entry with "If I Were A Carpenter" while Smokey Robinson and the Miracles "If You Want" is upcoming. But the real measure of Tamla's success lies in the album field. Currently the label has eight albums in the Top 25. Particular success has been scored by the Four Tops who have three LPs riding high and by Diana Ross and the Supremes who have two LPs prevalent. Also hot are the album packages of various artists which make up the balance of the spiraling Tamla album trade.

Tamla Motown was launched under its own banner by EMI in February, 1965, but it was not until the fall of 1966 that the now money-spinning sound caught the public ear. In some measure the success of the label was stimulated by the personal appearances here of a whole string of Tamla artists who came in for concerts and the radio-TV plug round.

The promotional power of the Eurovision Song Contest which is tailored in a couple of dozen countries prior to the actual event is this year more than ever clearly demonstrated in the already escalating fortunes of some of the competing songs. Britain's entry "Congratulations" by Bill Martin and Phil Coulter is a classic example. Premiered in the Cilla Black TV series with five other entries all sung by Cliff Richard, this year's contestant from the U.K., the number is already high in the domestic hit parade. Last year's winner "Puppet On A String," another Martin-Coulter penning, became a global hit but also other songs featured in the event have proved lucrative copyrights. "Love Is Blue," now a top international seller, was fourth in last year's final. Others which finished in the top bracket have also been picked up by top selling artists such as Elvis Presley, Mirielle Mathieu and others. The crop of songs this year are expected to do even better as the vast audience for the song contest grows and the instant exposure for the work of top writers becomes more widely recognized.

Television's romance with Tin Pan Alley may have cooled a little in the area of frantic pop music but the big name performers are still spelling magic for the networks. For instance, BBC-TV has pacted with Sammy Davis, Jr., for a series of musicals which the Americans will make for the network while over here for the stage production of "Golden Boy." Same web has also picked up a color special from the States featuring Frank Sinatra, Nancy and Frank, Jr., plus Davis and Dean Martin. An Andy Williams special has also been acquired by the network. The new station, Thames-TV which will operate in London this summer, has paged Liberace for a show while regional TV station Southern TV has secured a full commercial network deal for a series hosted by Petula Clark.

New duo Rane and Raj made their debut recently with "Feel Like a Clown" produced by Joe Roncoroni's indie Marquis Enterprises by Don Broughton and issued on Fontana published by Marquis. The disk is issued in the States by American Decca and published by Al Gallico's Mainstay Music.

Last Monday and Tuesday, meetings were held at the Philips London HQ at Stanhope House with Mercury Records. Top executives from America in London for the event were Irving Steinberg (Vice President), Lou Simon and John Sippel (Press and Promotion). Many of Mercury's top European personnel also flew in for the event. Later in the week the American contingent left for similar meetings in Hamburg and Paris.

Quickies: David Day of Francis Day & Hunter and Ben Nisbet of Feldmans currently in New York for meetings with Francis Day & Hunter, Inc. . . . Due to the record success of "Rock Around The Clock," Columbia Pictures will shortly re-issue film of same title.

Argentina

Adolfo Pino of RCA reported to Cash Box that his diskery has already started its recordings in the new four-track-equipped "T.N.T." studios, which has resulted in a strong improvement in sound. First artists to record have been Palito Ortega via his new single "Estoy Celoso," and beat group Los Gatos, "Viento, Dile a la Lluvia" (Wind, Tell the Rain). An intensive recording plan has been scheduled, and the development is expected to bring better results for local recordings in other markets.

A bright opening took place at the Poncho Verde night club devoted exclusively to folk music. The club is directed by well-known critic and composer Eduardo Lagos, and first artists to be contracted are Los Chalchaleros, Los Arroyeños, guitar player Moncho Mierez, percussionist Domingo Cura and special guests. Most of the folk artists—among them Tucho Spinassi, Jaime Davalos, Carlos Di Fulvio and many others—were present at the opening, and it seems that Poncho Verde will turn into a strong item among tourists and folk music fans.

CBS reports strong action for two new singles recently released, "Call My Name" by James Royal and "The Ballad Of Bonnie And Clyde" by Georgie Fame, and the second LP by the Tremeloes, along with renewed movement around Luis Aguile's single "Cuando Salí de Cuba." The album by Aguile may also run well, and the album "Flower Power" is also reported to be selling strongly. For the budget market, there is an album with a recording of some of the top hits of harpist Felix Perez Cardozo which is appearing under the Harmony logo.

TV producer and disc-jockey Ricardo Kleinman has secured the rights to the Beatles' TV film, "Magical Mystery Tour" which will be projected in his "Modart Numero Uno" TV program. Radio program "Modart En la Noche" has been switched from Radio Excelsior to Radio Libertad, and he is starting a late night program, from 2 to 5 AM tagged "Trasnoche Modart" with a selection of current hits and soft music.

Mercedes Sosa, the Cuarteto Vocal Zupay, Los Andariegos and the Grupo Vocal Argentino are starring a series of concerts at the Payró Theater emceed by Hamlet Lima Quintana and Ivan Cosentino and scheduled till the end of April. The theater is planning to present this sort of concert all through 1968 contracting not only folk but also modern song and even pops artists for the dates.

Music Hall is releasing a new album by Italian artist Little Tony, recorded originally by Durium, as well as another album by Roberto Grela with the Domingo Federico tango ensemble. There is also a single by Trini Lopez under the Reprise banner: "Nochecita." Changes In 'Record For Summer' Designed To Add 'Star' Excitement

MILAN—There are some changes that have been introduced in the 1968 edition of the "Record for the Summer" contest.

Usually, to the contrary of what happens in the case of the San Remo Festival, record companies, which are directly involved in the organization of the "Disk for the Summer" profit from this occasion by introducing new talents on the record scene in 80% of the cases. The fact that no big talents took part in the contest partially reduced the interest of the public in the event.

This year RAI (Radio & TV Company) has put a condition down for organizing the 5th edition of this big Festival: to have the right of selecting at least one top artist among those under agreement with the record firms which ask to participate.

This is the reason why there is a great number of top artists in the list of the participators this year, and this is the reason why there is already a great interest from the Italian press for this contest.

This is the list of all artists who will take part in the contest together with the title of the song they will present:

Fausto Leali Is A Gold Seller In Italy

MILAN—Recordings by Fausto Leali have hit the million-sales mark in Italy. Many top personalities on the Italian music scene were on hand recently to see Giovanbattista Ansoldi, president of RiFi Records, present the singer with a gold disk in honor of his achievement at a special reception at the Terrazza Martini. It should be noted that performers earn gold disks in Italy for sales of 1 million for all of their releases (the much larger American market sees a gold disk for individual million-sellers).

The Leali disk that did the most to reach the million-sales plateau was "A Chi," an Italian version of the American hit, "Hurt," that has sold over 800,000 copies to date.

Among those attending the gold disk ceremony were other RiFi execs, including Wladimiro Alberta, Pino Velona, Laura Panerari, and Mario Corsi, general manager of Phonogram, Alberto Carisch, president of Italian Southern, Gianni Ravera, the San Remo organizer.

SOUTH OF THE BORDER—At the RCA Latin American convention in Buenos Aires, Dario Soria (standing), vice president of RCA's international record dept., addresses the audience. With great success Bovema's pop department presented a wonderful series of fourteen albums this week. The "Star Series" got numerous reactions in the Dutch press, so there's little doubt that this series will become a bestseller. The series consists of material of the Beatles, the Beach Boys, the Seekers, Cliff Richard, Lou Rawls, Al Martino, Nat King Cole, the Hollies, Mr. Acker Bilk, the Fred Silver Band, Timi Yuro, Jaques Brel and Charles Aznavour. Bovema's General label manager Mr. Roel Kruize declared that this series is the most beautiful one Bovema has ever released. A huge campaign in the publicity and promotion field is backing this release.

Bovema's classical department released this week the wonderful series "Great Voices Of Our Time" featuring Maria Callas, Rudolf Schock, Fritz Wunderlich, Elizabeth Schwarzkopf, Franco Corelli and Jussi Björling. Of course, these names will guarantee enormous sales!

The British Manfred Mann group visited Holland to promote their hit single "Mighty Quinn." The group topped the bill in the very popular Moef Ga-Ga TV-Show. "Mighty Quinn" is currently high in the top Ten. Following the U.S. success of Madeleine Bell, N.V. Phonogram also released "I'm Gonna Make You Love Me" as a single. It is now evident that Esther & Abi Ofarim were the most successful artists on the Grand Gala Du Disque. Their record "Cinderella Rockefeller" reached the number 1 spot this week. Special promotion will accompany the first Blue Cheer record. This type of music is quite fashionable in Holland and "Summertime Blues" should be a pretty big hit here. Their first Philips album will be released in short time. President Records has a top group in Holland with the Equals. After a very successful TV show, the group has two records in the charts now: "I Get So Excited" and "Baby Come Back." N.V. Phonogram will continue the heavy promotion for the group. Enthusiastic reactions for the new Turtles single called "Sound Asleep." This White Whale Recording should be a new Top Ten success for the tremendous Turtles. Due to a possible rock 'n roll revival in Europe, N.V. Phonogram re-released Ritchie Valens' "Donna/La Bamba" (President) and Bill Hailey's "Rock Around The Clock" (Brunswick).

Negram-Delta is reporting strong airplay on the just released record "Storybook Children" of Nancy Sinatra & Lee Hazlewood. Although the local version has entered the top 20, more chart activity is expected from Nancy and Lee.

A selection of twelve top 100 hits just released as a budget LP on the newly-formed PPX label. Selections include "Mighty Quinn," "Words," "Bottle Of Wine," "Bend Me, Shape Me," "Susan" and "Suddenly You Love Me."

April 1st, Negram-Delta started the first "Country On Kapp" campaign in releasing a series of six singles by Mel Tillis, Hugh X. Lewis and other C & W stars. The next move will be a low-priced introduction LP and a sales promotion campaign on the 12 strongest Kapp albums.

A strong promotion drive on the Eddysons is expected for the second half of April. Their first single, the greatest sensation since the Bee Gees, "Ups And Downs" will be released after a series of T.V. Shows. Although most Dutch stations are interested in scheduling the record, its release is held back till April 14th.

This week CNR record company has 4 records as tips for the charts! The Blue Diamonds with "Someday," English version of "Morgen" the Dutch Eurovision Songcontest number. This number has also been released in Scandinavia, Finland, Belgium, Germany, France and Singapore. The Tielman Brothers cancelled a visit to Athens for recording in Holland. Last week CNR released on the Injection label "Little Dog/Yellow Bird." Two very strong numbers, which also will reach the top 20. The Tielman Brothers are now appearing in Basel (Switzerland). Heintje's "Zwei Kleine Sterne" sells very well and it looks like this will become the 3rd hit for this 12-year-old boy singer. Also his first LP is reaching extremely high sales. Last week Heintje appeared for the first time on Dutch TV in the progressive program "Mies En Scène." Gert en Hermien, the popular Dutch duo, has also a hit with the number "Geen Rozen Zonder Doornen."

Editions Altona was very happy, to have amongst the bunch of talent on the famous Grand Gala Du Disque two of the best items. Dutch Edison winner Willy Alberti sang a duet with Master of Ceremonies Wim Sonneveld entitled "Amsterdam." This wonderful ballad received predictions from all sides as hit possibilities. Without any doubt the Four Tops from Tamla-Motown were "top of the bill" this night and manager Wim van Vugt is proud to handle their outstanding success "Walk Away Renee." This title was already more than six weeks in the Dutch charts, but the wonderful performance of the boys themselves might extend this success.

Altona-manager Wim van Vugt nowadays is a happy man, having 11 records in the Dutch Top 40.

Amongst these are the Equals with the numbers "Baby Come Back" and "I Get So Excited" (Kassner), "A Banda" (Dutch version De Fanfare), "Am I That Easy To Forget" (Palace), "Green Tambourine" (U.A. Music), "Love Is Blue," "Walk Away Renee." Altona's production department scored a hit with a special Dutch version on the American title "Come To My Bedside," produced by Peter Koelewijn, the legendary Dutch hit maker. Singer is a well-known disc-jockey and his colleagues are plugging the song like mad. Wim van Vugt of Altona also told us that Peter's recent success "Beestjes" (Small Animals) sung by Ronnie, was now placed with Ariola in German version entitled "Weisse Mäuse."

For Holland March saw the release of many albums and singles of "the big stars." New singles of the Monkees, Elvis Presley, Peggy March, Jim Reeves and Buffy Sainte-Marie. New LP's of Jack Jones, Ed Ames, Perry Como, Porter Wagoner and many others. The fantastic latest single of the Monkees "Valleri" has been released in Holland this week. During the Grand Gala Du Disque 1968 Buffy Sainte Marie, the representative artist of Vanguard and Inelco, was really a sensation. She had to sing three songs: "Cripple Creek" and "Until It's Time For You To Go" (which have been released on single for Holland) and "Los Pescadores." Peggy March becomes more and more popular in Germany, Belgium and Holland. Her "Romeo And Julia" was a real surprise. Her latest single "Canale Grande Number One" is very good too and there's no doubt about it: A hit!! After the RCA albums of Jefferson Airplane and the Vanguard albums of Country Joe & The Fish, Inelco released the first Vanguard album of Circus Maximus. Five boys from Dallas and they "work" in the newest psychedelic rock club of New York: The Electric Circus. "You Never Are Far Away" is the title of Perry Como's album that has been released this week in Holland. It's a splendid album with songs as "Red Sails In The Sunset," "There Must Be A Way" and "When I Fall In Love." In June Nina Simone will again visit Holland for live performances in De Doelen in Rotterdam and the Concertgebouw in Amsterdam promoted by Paul Acket.

Otto Mayer Serra, one of the most famous newspapermen in the Mexican record industry and editor of the magazine Audiomusica, died March 19, victim of a heart attack. He will be tremendously missed by all in the record business.

After having ignored the low-priced album field for many years, Australian Record Company Limited, which is the CBS operation in this country, has announced its first release of Harmony label albums. The Harmony line will retail for (Aust) $2.50 the same price as most other major budget ranges in Australia.

Australian Record Company Limited have launched Harmony in a big way with an initial output of 40 albums to start with. The repertoire is drawn from the vast CBS catalog and includes such established names as Erroll Garner, Liberace, Peggy Lee, Michel Legrand, Doris Day, Andre Kostelanetz, Tommy & Jimmy Dorsey, Burl Ives, Johnnie Ray, the Kirby Stone Four, Duke Ellington, Gordon Jenkins, Mitch Miller, Frankie Laine, Ken Griffin, etc.

It has taken Australian Record Company Limited a little time to make the move into the budget arena, but they should prove to be formidable opposition to the other labels battling for the biggest slice of the $2.50 market.

Record production figures for the month of December, 1967, (the latest period available) showed a strong increase over any of the previous five months. Biggest lift was in singles which showed a boost of close to 25% over the month of November; but in the same period, album production took a slight dip.

Latest sheet music issues from the Essex Music group of publishing companies bring "She Wandered Through The Garden Fence" and "Conquistador" (both recorded by Procol Harum); "She's A Rainbow" (Rolling Stones); "Bottle Of Wine" (the Fireballs); and "Fire Brigade," as recorded by the Move.

In keeping with their practice of making a special sales and promotion effort on a particular artists' records, RCA are currently lending big support to their catalog of material by John Gary. The push includes five albums, two EP's, and two singles by the artist. The drive on the John Gary material is being personally handled by Bill Walsh, general manager of the record division of RCA of Australia Pty Ltd's.

Another shot in war for the market of low-priced albums has been fired by EMI in the form of their first release of fully imported packages from Pickwick of the United States. These albums are priced to retail at $2.50 here and some of the featured artists include Jack Jones, Sammy Davis, Jr., John Gary, Nat King Cole, Tennessee Ernie, Ferrante & Teicher, and Faron Young.

Some months back an Australian artist known simply as Ja-ar decided to move to England to try his luck. This week, the same man using the name of John Rowles, has his first English-recorded single issued here on the CBS label. The "A" side is "If I Only Had Time," c/w "Now Is The Hour," the record was arranged and produced in London by Mike Leander and is out in England on the new RCA label.

Visiting American country & western artist, Dee Donovan, who has been in Australia for several months, has his first single out on the Columbia label through EMI. It carries "Hello Walls" and "Main Road To Happiness."

Publishing and record producing house of J. Albert & Son are making a concerted promo drive on the new single by the Easybeats, "Hello, How Are You," which is just out on the Parlophone label. J. Albert & Son have secured the local copyright on "Susan," "Wild Honey," "We Can Fly," "Kiss Me Goodbye," "Deliah," "Lapland," "Everlasting Love," and "This Is My Life."

Australian group the Dream have their first single released on Festival with "Who Could Be Lovin' You" and "Mercy, Mercy, Mercy." The disc was produced by Hit Record Productions, a company operated by Geoff Edelman.

Latest from Australian Record Company Limited bring Peaches & Herb with "The Ten Commandments of Love," Michele Lee with "L. David Sloane," O. C. Smith is heard with "The Son of Hickory Holler's Tramp," the Union Gap with "Young Girl" Simon & Garfunkel with "Scarborough Fair," and Inez & Charlie Foxx are out with "Count The Days." All carry the CBS logo.

Denmark

"Lady Madonna" with Beatles on Parlophone became number one at the charts about ten days after its release.

Poul Rudi has done a new local RCA Victor single following up his recent success with "The Last Waltz." This time he has done "I'm Coming Home" in Danish, b.w. a local tune. Hede Nielsens Fabriker A/S is also out with "Just Dropped In" with First Edition on Reprise, "Dear Delilah" with Grapefruit on RCA Victor, "Everything That Touches You" with Association on Warner Bros. and a number of LP albums.

Procol Harum with "Quite Rightly So" on Polydor is among the latest NPA releases here. A number of LP albums on Ace of Clubs, Decca, Polydor, CBS, Fontana and Philips were also released here last week.

With Esther and Abi Ofarim riding high at the charts here at the moment with their "Cinderella Rockefeller" on Philips, EMI last week took advantage of their popularity by releasing Esther Ofarim as soloist in the Capitol LP "Israeli Songs." Bjorn Tidmand on Odeon has done this year's Swedish entry at the Eurovision Song Contest in Danish b.w. "Spanish Eyes," also in Danish.

Finland

Kari Häme, a newcomer at CBS here, is out with Finnish versions of "Darsi Un Bacio" and "Bud" as the debut single. Finnlevy is at the moment very successful, according to Osmo Ruuskanen, who reports strong action on "Suddenly You Love Me" with Tremeloes at CBS, "Love Is Blue" with Vicky at Philips, "Words" with Bee Gees on Polydor and Esther and Abi Ofarim at Philips with "Cinderella Rockefeller." Robin, local Philips artist, has done "Congratulations" in Finnish, Britain's entry at the Eurovision Song Contest this year.

Lasse Martenson counts on a great hit with his Finnish recording of "If I Were A Rich Man" on a Scandia single. Brita Koivunen on the same label has done "If You Go Away" together with a Swedish tune, also in Finnish.

Alex Everit of Pye Records Export Department was in Paris to supervise a Chris Baldo session during which the singer recorded the English treatment of the Luxemburg entry in the Eurovision contest. A few days before Everit was visited in London by Vogue artist Antoine to plan the promotion of the "Tramontane" English treatment. Antoine will soon return to London to present his song on radio and TV.

Francis O'Neill and Roger Corsin, formerly publishing group managers with Jacques Plante, left the company to create their own: E.P.O.C. O'Neill will soon fly to New York, Nashville and Los Angeles and renew personal contacts with his many friends there.

Festival Records just released an LP album with 12 songs composed, arranged and directed by Andre Popp, composer of "Love Is Blue." 11 foreign companies are already scheduled to release it: MGM (United States), W&G (Australia), Artone (Benelux), Nippon Columbia (Japan), Archambault (Canada), Verara (Spain), Gamma (Mexico), Sicamericana (Argentina), R.S.L. (Great Britain), Odeon (Turkey), Musikvertrieb (Switzerland).

CBS released Jean Segurel's 5,000,000th record. At the same time they celebrated the 20th anniversary of Marcel Merkes and Paulette Merval on the Odeon-CBS label. This famous couple also celebrated their 20th year in musical comedy. CBS also released Donovan's "Jennifer Juniper" which he translated into French. The record was heavily played by disc jockeys even before the normal release. Donovan is scheduled for a stage appearance in Paris on April 16th. Prior to that he will be at the Olympia for a one night program with another CBS artist, David McWilliams.

Quickies: Brigitte Bardot just released a new EP through the AZ label with four original Riviere and Bourgeois songs. Main title is "Oh Qu'll est Vilain." . . . New Marie Laforet EP through Festival with orchestra directed by Andre Popp. First title is a Popp composition "Le Lit de Lola." . . . Roger Whittaker will feature at the Musicorama Show on April 8th at the Olympia. . . . New name through CBS label: Michaele. She comes from Egypt where she enjoyed a stage career. Her first record in France: "Joachim" and "Le Cinema."

Atlas Records, local label handled by A/S Nor-Disc (distribution), this week released "Good Life"/"I've Got A Woman" with Andrew Dabrow, soloist in the Stan Getz Orchestra.

Sweden

New sheet music from Modern Music AB includes the Italian tune "Uno Tranquillo," in English known as "Suddenly You Love Me," here with lyrics by Olle Bergman titled "Livet är sa härligt."

Angeliques is a new female trio from Gothenburg in western Sweden, who have just done their debut single on Cupol. The three girls in the group are Linda Nowith, 14, born in Hollywood, Irene Svensson, 15 and Titti Thysell, 16, the latter two from Gothenburg.

The coming summer seems to promise greater opportunities for local pop groups than usual since the Swedish Musicians Union decided to say no to the more-and-more growing import of foreign group, mainly British. MU is only willing to let British groups in provided that British MU will allow the same number of Swedish groups in Britain. John Mayall and His Bluesbreakers was the first British group to be stopped by this new stipulation. However, since the Swedish group Hansson & Karlsson got the green light from Britain, the British group got an okay. Ola & Janglers, another Swedish group, will be touring Britain in April, and in exchange British group Mud is touring Sweden the same time.

Metronome Records AB introduces a new local label, Mallwax, April 16th with Shakers as the first name on the new label.

The list is not yet complete, even if it includes almost all the most important Italian record firms. Still to come are the artists who will participate from Det, Belldisc Italiana, C.D.B., King, and some others.

The songs that will be presented this year for the "Disk For The Summer" will be 55, but only 24 songs will take part to the finals.

Songs admitted are only those written and composed by Italian authors.

This year the contest will start on April 21st, but one of the interesting changes consists in the fact that together with the daily special broadcasts devoted to these recordings, four top TV shows have been especially scheduled to introduce to the TV public all fifty-five songs. The public and twenty special juries will select the 24 songs which will be presented in the three TV final nights. And there is another change: while usually all three final nights take part in the "Casino De La Vallée" at Saint Vincent (a well-known tourist resort in the Aosta Valley) this year only the first two nights will be televised from Saint Vincent. Final night will be televised and broadcast from the new big TV studio of Turin. Also taking into account the great number of people who will be present for the last night of the event, the final of the "Disk For The Summer" will serve as a good occasion for the opening night of this new TV studio.

Twelve songs will be selected from the 24 presented in the first two TV nights for the final show. It has been also announced that all the 24 songs which will enter the finals will be broadcast in special summer radio programs until the end of September.

It is interesting to note that until now, with less promotional facilities "A Disk For The Summer" manifestation has been able to bring into the first position of the charts a good number of interesting songs each year (it is enough to mention "Il Mondo" and "La Mia Serenata"). It is possible that the stronger promotional media offered by the monopolistic company this year will increase the number of summer hits in 1968.

Editorial

The Family Fun Center

If you haven't a bit of capital on hand, a first-class credit rating and some adventure in your blood, don't bother to read this article any further. This is a suggestion for the fellows we usually refer to as "enterprising, aggressive and solvent." And rather than posing a new idea, our subject is simply a new approach to one of the oldest concepts in the coin machine business—the amusement arcade.

There's no doubt that a great percentage of today's arcades (especially those in large metropolitan areas) have degenerated into machine museums—dusty, dingy joints whose quasi-carnival atmosphere appeals more to the shiftless than to the family looking for a fun place to spend its leisure time. Many in the arcade trade argue that this carney appeal draws the crowds but let's be honest—are there really crowds anymore? And if so, is this the type of clients that spends real money?

The basic lesson is quite analogous to the face-lift that elevated the smokey poolroom to its present position as "wholesome family entertainment." We understand the same transition helped the bowling business tremendously. Gearing these sports toward the family does require a face-lift, often an expensive refurbishing of the entire establishment or, just as often, the creation of a brand new "family-oriented" place of business.

The family fun center—sort of a new, modern look to the traditional "playland"—is already a working reality at many places throughout the country. Howard Keels' place at Myrtle Beach and Jimmy Tolisano's at Clearwater, Fla., are two prime examples of how a well planned, clean, modern amusement center can attract mom, dad and the kids. And—the coins!

A prerequisite, of course, is to display nothing short of brand new or well-reconditioned equipment. Pins, bowlers, rifles, shuffles, baseballs, pool tables (yes, a section reserved for up to a half-dozen six-pockets), a music machine and an assortment of other novelties such as soccer tables, knowledge machines, photo studios, voice recorders, kiddie rides, etc. Those units that should be banked, bank 'em. Others should be spaced well apart. In addition, such museum pieces as 'Grandma's' and 'peep machines' are okay, provided they look as new as possible. The center should also offer snack facilities (hamburgers, pizza, soft drinks, etc.) and a couple of cigarette and candy machines.

As necessary to a correctly planned family fun center as prime equipment is a modern, spacious and comfortable decor. Paneling on the walls, acoustic ceiling to cut down noise, potted plant partitions between rows of games, generous carpeting, modern change-making facilities, some sort of rest area near the snack bar with tables and chairs and perhaps most important—a modern facade on the outside with a crisp, conservative display sign saying 'Family Fun Center' instead of some garish, blinding neon creation screaming 'Palace of Pleasure' or something of that ilk.

Streamlining an existing arcade or creating one from scratch represents a tremendous capital outlay but a properly planned, well located, well run family center can be a source of consistent profit for many, many years. The accent is, of course, on: 1. Proper Planning—estimating the cost of equipment, real estate, decorating, payroll, licensing and then determining the right fiscal strategy with your accountant; 2. Proper Location—the place you select is extremely important, for obvious reasons. But remember, with the accent on the "family," a whole host of new spots open up, away from the carney areas which seem to sport the majority of today's arcades; 3. Well Run—creating an amusement center that's accepted by the family deserves constant attention to keep it that way. Naturally, a qualified mechanic should be on the premises at all times. And again, of primary importance, make sure the place is well-policed. Have the staff keep a constant eye out for trouble makers and discourage teenage loitering out front. There's nothing like a gang of corner-hangers to discourage mom and dad from patronizing a place—any place.

It's not necessary to offer coupons redeemable for premiums at your fun center. This will often merchandise a few extra games but it can be omitted without undue loss of customers.

The family fun center concept should especially appeal to our games distributors, not only for the extra sales but as a means of bringing new blood into the business. Someone has also suggested that an enterprising distributor could quite properly set up a number of centers in his territory and later turn title over to an operator or some new face either by outright sale or through some sort of franchise agreement.

There's no denying that the family fun center is a costly proposition, but for the tradesmen with financial footing, realistic foresight and as we said, a touch of the adventurer, it does present an area for expansion in a business too often called static.

Williams Offers "Lady Luck" 2-Play

CHICAGO—Williams Electronics, Inc. announced last week that their latest amusement game, "Lady Luck," a two-player that is convertible to add-a-ball, is now available for immediate delivery through their chain of distributors.

"Lady Luck" is the dealer in this exciting game of '21,' and any player who beats her will receive an extra ball and 300 points. Those beating the dealer with exactly 21 points will receive a free play, extra ball and 300 points.

Each time a ball is played it is a new game, while the dealer's hand is revealed on the completion of each ball played.

"Lady Luck" features a 'trap' bumper, match feature and the gate will open after the player's card score exceeds 21 points for an extra shot and a new deal.

The cabinet features Williams' standard mechanisms. The new game is now available for a look-see at all Williams Distributors.

Sega Intros "Motopolo" Game

TOKYO—"Motopolo," a new coin-operated game based on the increasingly popular sport of Motorball, has just been put into production by Sega Enterprises. Familiar to European fans, the sport of Motorball combines motorcycling with polo and soccer.

Sega's coin-operated version of this dangerous and thrilling game makes use of two motorcycle riders who attempt to score by propelling a ball toward their respective goals.

The realistic, miniature motorcyclists move around the playing field without visible means of propulsion. They are, in fact, controlled by powerful magnets attached to a special mechanism under the surface of the table.

Authentic and thrilling sound effects heighten the illusion of actually playing this exciting game. The new, self-contained sound effects unit is one of the latest developments in the trend toward realistic sound effects started by Sega. It incorporates an easily-changed endless cartridge tape, a 3 watt 5 inch speaker, and a sensitive volume control dial.

Movement in any direction on the table is guided by a single "joy-stick" lever. A wire hoop is attached to each model motorcycle to simplify "running" with the ball. At test locations throughout Japan, "Motopolo" has proven to be extremely popular and profitable.

Promotional Firm Enters Coinbiz With "Space Patrol" Kiddie Ride

Space Patrol

NEW YORK — Robert C. Gennaro, president of Premium Productions Corp., announced last week the introduction of a new coin-operated kiddie ride, 'Space Patrol'.

Premium Productions is a 12 year old manufacturer of promotional and transit vehicles with executive offices in New York City and plant facilities in Hazleton, Pa.

Space Patrol was originally used as a promotional device for the H. J. Heinz & Co. and Endicott-Johnson

Shoe Company.

Gennaro stated, "the Space Patrol gained such a remarkable degree of child response that we decided to install a coin mechanism and market the vehicle directly to the coin machine market." He further revealed that, "one four week promotion in Baltimore this past year elicited over 60,000 child contest entries."

The Space Patrol car's specifications are as follows: fibre glass body, steel roll dome, ¼ horsepower motor, satellite horn, transformer, rubber caster wheels; the kiddie ride is also equipped with nine outside flashing lights and two interior flashers. It is approximately six feet in length and has a gyrating motion. It weighs approximately 195 pounds and Premium Production is manufacturing the unit in four basic colors: white, red, yellow and green.

For further details about the unit and the manufacturer contact Gennaro, either at the plant location—19 E. Magnolia St., Hazleton, Pa. 18201—or at the New York office location, 432 Park Avenue, South, New York, N.Y. 10016.

"What's A 100 Mile"?

100 MILE, BRITISH COLUMBIA — Should there be a doubt in anyone's mind, "100 Mile" is actually the name of a town in the William's Lake district of British Columbia.

In the old stagecoach days, settlements eventually grew up around the areas where passengers were picked up and discharged. It was therefore normal in the course of progress that inns were later established where riders, coachmen and horses were offered food and lodging for the night.

Miles were measured between stagecoach stops, and it naturally evolved that the names of these settlements were taken from the number of miles at that particular stop. These unusual names have been retained until the present day. This town being known merely as 100 Mile . . . where buses, rather than stagecoaches, still pick up and discharge passengers!

At 100 Mile you'll find The Coffee House, recently opened by Dave and Anne Shields. Just a few short weeks ago, George Brown, Wurlitzer Distributor for the William's Lake area, placed seven Wurlitzer Americana II Phonographs in various locations along the "mile" strip. Among them

JUF Kicks-Off 1968 Campaign

CHICAGO—Business leaders and associates in the fields of Automatic Merchandising, Coin Machines, Confectionery, Phonograph Records and Tobacco, gathered at an Orientation Dinner on behalf of the 1968 Jewish United Fund campaign for $10,500,000 plus millions more to the Israel Emergency Fund, Thursday, March 28 at the Standard Club.

The meeting's purpose was to organize a joint effort to help raise over $200,000 for the Regular drive plus increases in the Israel Emergency Fund.

According to Sam Stern, president of the Williams Electronics Mfg. Co. and Associate Chairman, JUF Trades, Industries and Professions Division, "we are bringing together wholesalers, retailers, manufacturers, distributors and business suppliers in an effort to communicate the magnitude and urgency of Jewish needs in 1968 — here at home, in Israel, and throughout the world. In this violent, inflationary world, both the sheer number of Jewish men, women and children who need our help—and the cost of helping them—have escalated to a point previously undreamed of. Because of the relentless searching eyes and ears of modern communication, Jewish problems anywhere in the world can no longer remain hidden from us. And we cannot hide from them. It is of the utmost importance that the men and women in our industries are fully aware of their responsibilities, as Jews living in the freedom of the wealthiest nation on earth, to answer the cries of help from our brethren, no matter where they come from. And in 1968 we hope to achieve the greater outpouring of gifts in the division's history."

B. B. Great Praises "World Cup" Soccer

Bill "Moose" Skowron, retired baseball star, who won fame while playing with the New York Yankees, Chicago White Sox and Los Angeles Angels, says, "Bally 'World Cup' soccer is more fun and excitement than any game I've played since I retired from baseball." "Moose" is shown competing with unidentified friend in Hansa Club, popular Chicago cocktail lounge.

West Coast

Jerry Barish of California Music Reports that The Rascals have another goodie with "Beautiful Morning" on Atlantic. Big coin phonograph following is expected for Dionne Warwick's "Do You Know The Way To San Jose" on the Scepter label. California op's are also expected to pick-up on the potential of Wilson Pickett's latest disk "She's Looking Good" on Atlantic. Jay & The Techniques' "Baby You Make Your Own Sweet Music" on Smash is expected to get a lotta play on jukeboxes also. West Coast reports indicate that motion picture and B-way musical tracks are popular there—if so—Herb Alpert and TJB should score well with their title deck from "Cabaret" on A & M—another possibility could be the Theme from the movies "The Fox" by Peter Duchin's Piano and Orchestra. The music was written by Lalo Schifrin who also wrote the title music for the popular TV series Mission: Impossible.

Southwest

American Music out in Houston says operators are giving good attention to "Me, The Peaceful Heart" by Lulu (Epic), Tommy Boyce & Bobby Hart's (A & M) "Goodbye Baby," Tommy James & Shondells' "Mony Mony (Roulette)," "Unknown Soldier" by The Doors (Elektra) and "Unicorn" by the Irish Rovers (Decca).

The Facade of Fischer's new $750,000 plant.

Fischer Cuts Ribbon on Giant New Factory

TIPTON, MO. — At approximately 2:30 Saturday afternoon (March 30th), Ewald and Margaret Fischer joined hands with Thomas Eagleton, the Lt. Governor of Missouri, to cut the ceremonial ribbon officially opening the Fischer Mfg. Company's brand new 75,000 sq. ft. pool table plant here in Tipton.

The mammoth factory, which took nine months to complete, sits on a 35 acre tract just outside the Tipton town limits and down the road from the firm's original 55,000 sq. ft. plant. Complete with its wood cutting, punch pressing and other table assembling machinery, the structure is estimated to have cost about $750,000. According to Mr. Fischer, the new facilities will now enable them to turn tables off the assembly line in less than eight minutes apiece. The Tipton Building Co. served as the plant's general contractor.

Over 200 employees and guests were in attendance for the dedication and ribbon cutting ceremony, which was staged within the factory. Those on the dais included: Mr. and Mrs. Fischer, Lt. Governor Eagleton, general manager Marvin Mertes and Col. K. K. Johnson of the State Highway Patrol.

Rev. George Igo offered the invocation. Father John Fischer (son of the company president) pronounced the benediction.

In his address to the assemblage, Mr. Eagleton cited the tremendous growth of the Fischer company within the recreation industry, as well as its vital economic role in the Tri-County area centering around Tipton. Ewald Fischer, obviously pleased and proud on this occasion, thanked his family, friends and loyal employees for their confidence and support through the years as the company grew literally from a cellar-operation (back in 1949) to the ultimate realization of the giant plant being dedicated that day. He also indicated that his two original employees, Sylvester Wolf and Emil Gerke, were still with the firm, serving as lumber purchaser and traffic manager respectively.

"Over the years, I've held to a policy of personal service to the customer in contrast to firms who sell and forget it," Fischer advised. "It's really paid off."

"Selling has been my stock in trade over the years. Couple that with promotion and a good product and you have something," he declared. "Anyhow, it has worked for me."

At the conclusion of the ceremonies, factory workers set the machinery in gear in order to afford visitors an opportunity to watch how raw materials are turned into the superb pool tables which have made the company famous. Highlighting a special display of Fischer's present product line was the very first Skittle Pool table which Ewald personally made back in 1948 and delivered to the buyer atop his station wagon. The table had since been retrieved by the factory for historical value.

Those tradesmen in attendance included Harry Silverberg of W. B. Music in Kansas City, Eli Ross of the Florida distributor bearing his name, Bert Betti and John Rafer from Eastern Novelty and Jones Frankel of the Frankel Advertising Agency. From the Fischer staff were coin division sales manager Frank Schroeder, business manager Charles Bailey and home table sales manager Lou Wermers.

After a dinner held at the Tipton Country Club for honored guests, an open house dance was held back at the new plant complete with live music and refreshments.

Ewald Fischer (right) demonstrates how the game of Skittle Pool was played on the first table he ever built to Mr. and Mrs. Ed Adlum of Cash Box.

Three views of the expansive facilities at the new Fischer plant.

"I was running a cigar stand in the lobby of the CBS Building in 1938, when one of my friends who ran a luncheonette in the same building said to me one day, pointing at an old 12 record counter model phonograph, 'now there's a good business to get in to.'"

Ben Chicofsky, managing director of Music Operators of New York, said to his friend, "Yeah, I would think so," and went right out and bought a 12 piece route of the counter model phonographs, making his debut in the coin machine business. Slowly but surely Ben began to enlarge his operation and within a few years had a sizable route of phonographs and pingames.

"Those early days were the good ones," Chicofsky reminisced, "that was back when a week's collection of $3 to $5 was considered a good location. There were only four major record companies to buy records from. We bought them direct from the label because there were no one stops back then. I think the labels showed more concern and respect for the coin phonograph operator back in the thirties and forties than they do today. The business is saturated with record labels now and they seem reluctant to merchandise their product directly to the operator, which I think is a grave mistake."

In 1945, Chicofsky entered the Merchant Marine Academy of the U.S. Maritime Service, located in Kingspoint, New York.

"I spent 18 months in the academy assigned to security duty. Just before leaving for the academy, I sold my first route at a very low cost. As I recall, if I could have held onto it for another 6 months or so. . . I could have sold it at 4 times the cost," Ben said.

After leaving the academy, Chicofsky and his brother Joseph obtained another route of phonographs, (it was around this period that pins were banned in New York). "Things were going real well up until the middle fifties when we started having trouble with local paper unions, (editor's note: a paper union is a union organized on paper but has no concrete position in labor), they attempted to organize New York operators by offering them the world when in actual truth they could offer us nothing. At the time, I was on the board of directors of MONY and Al Denver was the president (Denver has been president of the association since it was formed in 1938), we all strongly opposed the union and finally won the battle in court. All they wanted was monthly dues—offering nothing—we saw thru their thinly disguised attempt to organize us as a union," he recalled.

When Chicofsky was 20 years old he weighed only 95 pounds. Conscious of his weight, he decided to join a youth club and it was here that he became interested in boxing. He joined Sam Zuccaro's Boxing Association out of Union City, New Jersey and began training for competition in the fly-weight division. Doug Jones' former trainer Lippy Breitbart took Ben under his wing, brought him up to 112 pounds and under the direction of Lippy and his manager, Alex Koskowitz, fought his way to the semi-finals of the Diamond Belt Championships. During his career as a boxer, Chicofsky accumulated a total of 16 amateur fights and 12 professional bouts.

After hanging up the boxing gloves, Ben continued his physical training up until about five years ago. "Physical fitness is a great problem among Americans today, I only wish I were in a position to encourage it more. I don't go to the gymnasium like I used to, but I still take an occasional walk. I would like to get in more physical exercise, but my schedule doesn't allow much extra time anymore," Ben stated.

Ben Chicofsky

Ben was partially responsible for Sol Tabb's introduction to the coin machine business. He had a retail record store in New York and Ben sold him used records. "I was in his offices one day and told him about this route Babe Kaufman had for sale and Tabb bought it," Ben says.

Chicofsky was in the operating end of the business up until 1963. He said, "I saw the handwriting on the wall and decided to get out of the coin business. The loan-bonus cancer became so great I could no longer see a profitable operation. My route was absorbed by another firm. Shortly after this happened I visited the offices of MONY and learned that Nash Gordon had left the association as managing director and Al Denver offered me the job on April 1, 1963. I took it on a 90-day trial basis. I wasn't sure if I could make the transition. I had been used to being outdoors most of the day and felt uncertain whether I could sit behind a desk all day. I didn't want to be fully committed in the event things didn't work out. Well, the way things went I became so engrossed in the many problems facing coin machine operators that I decided to stay and see what I could do to help eliminate some of them. As a former operator, myself, I was well aware of the serious operating conditions and decided to do all that was in my power to help create an improved atmosphere. I've been in this segment of the business since 1963 and have thoroughly enjoyed it. Some of the best people in the business belong to our organization."

One only has to leaf through MONY's Anniversary Journal, attend one of their Annual Conventions or visit Ben's office to see the amount of work and responsibilities he shoulders. The journal had 134 pages of advertising last year and Chicofsky expects to exceed that this year. He works closely with Al Denver in laying out the journal and staging the convention. His very capable secretary, Sophie Selinger, according to Ben, "is always a great help to me—I just couldn't do without her, Sophie's been with the association for ten years and is an all-around girl Friday, personal secretary and book keeper."

TRAVELERS—Oakland's Hank Leyer stopped off briefly at JFK Airport to huddle with Color-Sonics' Mickie Greenman before jetting off to Europe for conference with the NSM brass. . . . Mondial's Suren Fesjian returned recently from a three week tour of the European market. Heavy shipments of the equipment the firm represents in the foreign market are due to arrive there shortly, now that the dock strike is over. . . . Bert Betti and John Rafer of Eastern Novelty in Los Angeles last week at the firm's West Coast office headed by Sol Mollengarden. The Eastern lads stopped off in Tipton, Mo. over the previous weekend to attend the marvelous Fischer Mfg. dedication festivities (see separate story). . . . Eli Ross, also on hand at the Fischer affair, back to Florida office. Eli says 1968's first sales quarter has been terrific, thanks largely to popularity of Rock-Ola music and can vendors.

TOURNEY GOES WEST—U.S. Billiards' Len Schneller off to Los Angeles for preliminary meeting toward establishment of sanctioned location 8-ball tourney. Len's received numerous requests from operators throughout the country to get info on the promotion and will be finishing explanatory literature on the contest soon as he returns to the Amityville plant. Meanwhile, the Greater Long Island contest is proving out to everyone's expectations. The boys at D & S Vending say one table location, which was down to $15 every two weeks, shot up to $85 per week after they brought in the tournament. Another spot reported rose from $110 per week to $240. That's merchandising!

CANNON & WITSEN MERGE—Billy Cannon and Harry Witsen have merged their music and games operations, and while still to select a new corporate name, have already grouped their employees and consolidated their locations under one day-to-day management umbrella. The two operators find the combination extremely satisfactory and intend to take maximum advantage of all the tools available from equipment to merchandising aids and ideas to further expand the huge route. Cannon will act as president, with chief responsibilities in policy and planning while Harry will perform as general manager. Bill, incidentally, jetted off to India last Thursday evening for a three week visit. Say hello to the Guru for us!

HERE AND THERE — Wurlitzer's A. D. Palmer into New York City's Summit Hotel for two days last week. Numerous appointments both within and without the trade kept the promo exec mighty busy. . . . Jack Wilson info's the next regular meeting and dinner of the New York State Operators Guild will be held at the Nelson House in Poughkeepsie on April 17th. Affair kicks off promptly at 7:30 p.m. . . . Congrats to Mr. and Mrs. Dick (American Shuffleboard) Delfino on birth of little Deana Marie. The new Delfino weighed in at 7 lbs. 2 oz. . . . Musical's Harold Kaufman anxiously awaiting delivery of ChiCoin's brand new Melody Lane shuffle alley. The distrib is cooking pretty good with United's model 200 table as well as ChiCoin's All-Star baseball unit. . . . Kaufman off to Puerto Rico this weekend for nine days. . . . Last Wed's UJA meeting announced that Victor Mayer will cater the May 11th victory dinner and Marty White's band will supply music. There'll be a telephone marathon this Tues. April 9th starting at 10:30 a.m. and a committee meeting that evening at UJA headquarters.

Houston Happenings

A rugged, congenial and ambitious chap is Larry M. Troy, University of Houston student regularly employed at Record Service Co. here. He travels out of city and even out of state for Record Service when trips do not conflict with U.H. class schedules. Larry and wife, Glenda, soon will celebrate their second wedding anniversary. . . . Op. Jack Stazo, head of Big State Music, one of the major operating firms here, reported steadily expanding overall operations. Jack was president of Houston Coin Machine Operators Association during the several years of its existence. . . . Becky Lancaster, thoroughly experienced in both wholesale and retail record sales, now with Central Sales Wholesale Record Distributorship on Leeland Ave. . . . Op. Carl Benton, owner Benton Music Co., seldom seen around coinmatic market places of the city. . . . Helen Connell, widely known in local coin operated phonograph and retail record store buying circles, recently signed up as counter sales girl for United Record Distributors. . . . As a locksmith, John E. Williams, ABC Music, stacks up very well as a music operator. An elderly lady living near ABC Music slammed front door with keys inside. Johnnie worked up a real sweat in vain effort to "pick" the lock, then suggested she call a pro at that sort of activity.

Lloyd Felder, Gulf Coast Distributing service dept., hard at it putting finishing touches on new Wurlitzer Americanas prior to some operator rolling them aboard a location bound truck. . . . Op. C. M. Robertson, taciturn as usual but did hint as to how business was above average good. . . . Coinman Jack Walker taking on a batch of new operating equipment and spare parts at H. A. Franz Company loading docks. . . . Quite some time since we've glimpsed either Phillip or Robert Matranga, co-owners and operators of Matranga Music Co. . . . Musicman Russel Merritt busy enough these days handling an agency for well rated automobile oil filter along with his phonograph operations. . . . New city sales tax: sharply increased prices for car and truck State license plates; and three cent a gallon boost for gasoline are some recent happenings not calculated to increase new profits of coin machine operations in this area.

Milwaukee Mentions

All eyes across the nation were focused on this area last Tuesday for the exciting primary. In fact, local coinbiz was prepared for a 4-day week! . . . A couple of recent graduates of the National Institute of Coin Mechanics in Denver have found placement hereabouts. David Fonder joined the staff of Mel's Coin Machine Exchange in Green Bay and Peter Helf will be employed by Empire Dist. in Menominee. . . . Got the word from Gordon Pelzek over at Record City that the new Ohio Express single "Yummy Yummy Yummy (Buddah)" is steadily gaining momentum hereabouts! . . . Chatted with Russ Townsend of United, Inc. Business is good, says Russ, with emphasis on the United Billiards line of pool tables which are really selling up a storm these days, and the fast moving "I. Q. Computer." . . . The Wisconsin Automatic Merchandisers Council met over the weekend in Milwaukee's Holiday Inn on Wisconsin Ave. Highlights, according to Hal Blotner, included a discussion of dual licensing by state and local public health officials, a public health report by NAMA's Dave Hartley an interesting lecture entitled "Your Partner, the Vending Thief and How He Succeeds" of representatives of the Mosler Safe Co. and a session called "Cooperating with Your Police in Apprehending Criminals" delivered by Detective Andrew Anewenter of the Milwaukee Police Dept.

Chicago Chatter

Latest entry from the Williams Electronics plant is "Lady Luck," which is now being shipped to the firm's distributors! Sam Stern, Bill DeSelm, et al, are extremely pleased with initial reaction to the new piece! . . . The Jewish United Fund and Israel Emergency Fund pay tribute to Governor Otto Kerner at a dinner on Wednesday (10) in the Great Hall of the Pick Congress Hotel . . . Les Rieck, sales manager of the music division at Rock-Ola Mfg., just returned from a field trip through the midwest and western territory, and is currently digging into a desk full of accumulated work—attributable, says Les, to the growing demand for the "Princess Deluxe" and "Ultra" phonographs! Happy to hear that George Hincker, who was ailing for a couple of days last week, is all well and back at his desk . . . Wurlitzer's Bob Harding conducted a service school at National Coin Machine Exchange last Wednesday. A good turnout was reported. Distrib's Mort Levinson adds that the "Americana II" continues to "sell up a storm"! . . . Talked to Johnny Frantz at the busy J. F. Frantz Mfg. Co. plant. Busy's the word, says Johnny, with emphasis on his current lineup of counter games topped by "U. S. Marshall Gun," "Kicker & Catcher," "Pot 'O Gold," "Basketball" and "Little League Baseball." Firm's in full production and going strong! . . . Williams' Sam Stern, in his capacity as associate chairman of the Jewish United Fund's Trades Industries & Professions, Amusement Division, enjoyed an excellent turnout of local coin people at the recent dinner he hosted in the Standard Club. During the function, plans were discussed for the upcoming annual dinner dance slated for late May . . . The Spring season and the resultant surge in business is being strongly felt at Atlas Music Co. Everyone's plenty busy! . . . Bill Chrysler of Decatur One Stop in Decatur, Ill., lists the following singles as very strong with the area's operators: "Honey" by Bobby Goldsboro (UA), "Young Girl" by The Union Gap (Columbia), "Big Daddy" by Boots Randolph (Monument) and "Take Good Care Of My Baby" by Bobby Vinton (Epic) . . . What have we here! Following last week's announcement of the engagement of World Wide staffer Cathie Goehry, we were informed that the lucky fella is Bob Milchuck of World Wide's background music department. Furthermore, we discovered that another staffer, Jackie Hedges, niece of Al Hedges who heads up the distrib's background music division, was also engaged and plans a June wedding. Cathy's nuptials will be in May. Need we add that love is definitely in bloom at World Wide!

Association news: IAAP members are being urged to scout around for historical amusement park mementos (i.e. pictures, parts of rides, posters, games, etc.) for use in a special display being planned for the association's 50th anniversary convention in Chicago this year . . . NAMA's Steve Polcyn sends along some additions to the recently published schedule of 1968 State Council Meetings (not to be confused with the regional management conferences). Dates are May 3-4 Pennsylvania Automatic Merchandising Council annual meeting, Host Farms, Lancaster, Pa.; June 7-8-9 Minnesota Automatic Merchandising Council annual meeting, Quadna Mountain Lodge, Hill City, Minn.; and June 14-15 New Jersey Automatic Merchandising Council annual meeting, Holiday Inn, Atlantic City, N. J.

California Clippings

LAYMONS' IS OUT OF "WORLD CUP" FOR THE UMTEENTH TIME . . . Spoke with an excited Jimmy Wilkins who told us that business is booming. Pin games, shuffle allys and bowlers are all moving along very well, and the "World Cup" is all sold out again. Jimmy went on to tell us that he thinks this game is the biggest item the domestic market has had in many years. We almost forgot —A belated Happy Birthday goes out to Paul A. Laymon, who just celebrated his "39" birthday, as well as his 39th year in the coin machine business. When we asked how could he only be 39 years old and have also been in the business for that same amount of time, Paul quipped, "I was born in the business." We didn't ask any more questions . . .

MARCH IS RECORD BREAKER AT C. A. ROBINSON . . . A smiling Al Bettlemen reports that the month of March looks like it was one of the best in years, thanks to the movement of Valley pool tables, Midway basketball games and large quantities of used equipment. The "windy month" has proved, according to Al, to be the best in the history of C. A. Robinson. As a matter of fact Al says that he can't wait to give the good news to Charlie Robinson when he returns from his world wide tour in a couple of weeks. Arriving just in time for the spring season is Midway's new rifle "One Million B.C.". The Samples are being eagerly awaited and there is no question in the operator's mind of the success of this rifle, based on all the orders already placed. Ira Bettlemen, oldest son of Al, enters Cedars of Lebanon Hospital on April 7th. All things being equal, Ira should be ready to go full steam ahead in about three weeks. We all wish him a speedy recovery. Hank Tronick says that he enjoyed visiting some old friends at the recent vending show. Hank said that he was most pleased with the favorable comments on the "new" and revised looks of C.A.R. . . .

FROM THE RECORD RACKS . . .

Jerry Barish of California Music reports in with the news that the Young Rascals have another hit with "Beautiful Morning" on Atlantic. Dionne Warwick is singing about the charms of San Jose with her latest single "Do You Know the Way to San Jose" on the Scepter label. Wilson Pickett is bouncing back on the charts with his newest disk "She's Looking Good" on Atlantic. Jay and the Techniques are coming on strong with their newest "Baby, You Make Your Own Sweet Music." TJB. should score well with title deck from "Cabaret" on A&M . . .

PROFILE

MONY has a membership roster of approximately 100 and Ben revealed that, "they're nearly 50 other potential members out there, but I just can't seem to get across to them how important it is to belong to an association. We can offer them so many advantages, I can't understand why they refuse to join."

One of the finest benefits offered by MONY is the location contract—free of cost to their members. "Location contracts are extremely important today," Chicofsky said, "I think I can sum it all up with the words of a boxing referee when he calls the opponents into the center of the ring, '... and remember fellows, protect yourselves at all times.' This is exactly what the operator does with a location contract... he's protecting himself at all times."

"This is a good business, but we can't expect too much new blood in the future purely because the initial investment is too high... it's not just the price of equipment... it's also the price of goodwill. And this loan-bonus is not just hurting the operator, but its hurting the distributor—it ties up the op's money and he cannot purchase new equipment, Chicofsky added.

In late 1964, Chicofsky began negotiating with Rolf Bjorenson of the New York City Board of Education, Nelson Hopper, the director of State Labor Department and interested New York distributors in an attempt to push thru a plan to train jukebox mechanics thru the Manpower Training Division of the NYC Board of Education. Approximately one year later, $70,000 was granted by the State Department to train mechanics on equipment loaned by distributors to the Board of Education. The school was successful. It obtained its objective—to train mechanics, but the trade failed to take advantage of this worthwhile training program. MONY and Chicofsky started a trend 'tho other associations followed in their footsteps and many fine mechanics have been trained by government subsidized schools.

"It was a shame the school had to fold," Chicofsky said, "we did everything in our power to keep it alive, but if you don't have the trade's support and the interest isn't there—what's the use?"

Chicofsky and his wife, Molly, reside on Long Island and are the proud parents of 25 year old Gary, a professional musician who played at President Johnson's Inaugural Ball with Lester Lanin's Society Band. Gary is currently teaching music and playing night club dates on week ends.

From cigar stand proprietor to coin machine operator to managing director of a solid, progressive trade association... a noble climb up the ladder of success, we think!

SOMETHIN' FISHY!

REAL BEAUTIES—were caught recently by Sam Hastings of Hastings Dist. Co. in Milwaukee, Wisconsin, during his Florida vacation. We couldn't quite figure out what species the fish are, but maybe if you give Sam a call he can tell you—we understand fishing is a big hobby with him!
