Geneva Anti-Pirate Treaty: Some Strong Points In Its Favor

Years of wide-ranging music industry efforts finally produced an amendment to the existing Copyright Act providing, for the first time, copyright protection for recordings. Though the evil of unauthorized duplication of legitimate recordings continues, the amendment has already been used to help defeat this evil.

Now, the industry has an opportunity to protect itself from an international point-of-view, which is probably costing the business an additional $100 million in list revenues. Because of the impact of American recordings abroad, most of the world's pirated product consists of material originally produced by American manufacturers.

The U.S. Senate now has before it, thanks to its strong support by President Nixon, the Geneva Antipiracy treaty. Already in effect since it has been ratified by the necessary five countries, the treaty requires a two-thirds vote for ratification by the Senate. Cash Box believes that this treaty is a vital step in the anti-piracy war from several points of view. As pointed out in last week's issue, it provides that each signatory nation will protect legitimate manufacturers in other signatory nations against the making and importing of pirate recordings meant for commercial sale.

As a spokesman for the RIAA pointed out, the treaty is an effective means of "curbing traffic in pirated product from here to places abroad and from places abroad to here."

There is another point to be made in favor of passage of the treaty. All nations who are parties to this international agreement must have local protection of recordings in effect. If the Senate approves the treaty, this virtually assures continuation of the recording copyright amendment in the U.S., which took effect on Feb. 15, 1972 and is due to expire on Dec. 31, 1974. While the amendment is written into the proposed revision of the Copyright Act, there is no assurance that the U.S. will have legislated the revision by the time the amendment to the present, antiquated Copyright Law expires. As party to the treaty, the U.S. will be obligated to have some sort of anti-piracy legislation on the books.

The Geneva Anti-piracy Treaty, then, will guarantee a continuation of the amendment and protect American recordings on a global scale. If there were ever a time for letter/telegram writing to all Senators by members of the industry urging passage of the treaty, this subject matter is that time.

An Open Letter To The Music Industry

By now, almost all of you who read the trades must have a pretty good idea as to the identities of the musicians who (a) are; (b) were; (c) might be; performing together as "FAITH".

1. To those of you who had the true dedication to your profession by programming and playing "FAITH" on the basis of its music (not the historical background of its sidemen):

Thank you. You won't be forgotten - by me, by the group, or, much more importantly, by your listeners.

2. To those of you who "had it figured from the beginning":

Congratulations. Your foresight is awesome, since even we didn't know until a few weeks ago who was in and who was out, especially when one of the members almost missed his chance to both record or tour due to his unexpected hospitalization. However, his overdubs are complete, the album is out, and he will be on the U.S. tour with the rest of the group.

3. To those of you who refused to have anything to do with the group or their record because you were "turned off by all the hype", just a word from another of your profession:

Think. Think of all the times you've been told that "The business is dying"; "There's no store traffic"; "We don't have enough headliners"; all of which is true, to a degree.

If business is dying, then you have helped it along by ignoring the "FAITHS" for what they stand for. As from any other living thing, you must somehow give back what you take. The business truly cannot survive if you continue to take only what you like--Bill Graham proved that when he closed the doors to the Fillmore because he didn't like what the public liked and the public, with its bizarre need for a "cause", is still very much the majority.

We, however, on this side of the entertainment industry, have become almost extinct by our stubborn refusal to re-populate our business with excitement, and every programmer, disc jockey, station manager, music critic, concert promoter and rack-jobber in America still aren't enough to sell-out a single show at Madison Square Garden.

It's true--we don't have enough store traffic and we don't have enough headliners. We need the Alice Coopers with their pythons and guillotines; we need the David Bowies with their spaceships and spiders; we need the Bette Midlers with their unabashed energies and fabulous send-ups, just as we needed (and still need) the Beatles, the Stones, the Presleys, the Sinatras, the Grand Funks, and all the others who helped to re-populate our entertainment industry with so much excitement and so much business before them.

As for me, I admittedly take a lot of money out of the business. I also put a lot of money back into the business. Everyone takes much enjoyment, happiness and excitement out of the business--only you can help us put it back again.

Have faith,

TERRY KNIGHT

Diamond's Seagull To Columbia

NEW YORK — In less than a month after Neil Diamond officially joined the Columbia Records artist roster under a long-term contract signed 18-months ago, label president Clive Davis announces the acquisition of Diamond's original musical narrative, score and songs for the motion picture version of the best selling book, "Jonathan Livingston Seagull." Set to be his premiere album release for the company.

Rights to the soundtrack have been subject to spirited music and motion picture industry bids since it was learned that Diamond's Columbia contract allows him to retain the record rights to his original soundtracks for either film or stage projects. "Jonathan Livingston Seagull" is a Hall Bartlett Production for Paramount release.

Davis spent several days in Los Angeles with Diamond last month hearing his initial concepts for the score and seeing a rough cut of the Bartlett film.

Diamond expects to complete his score by the end of June and record it (cont. on pg. 10)

FRONT COVER:

Slade, the British champions of hard driving, basic rock and roll, are now on their second U.S. tour. Their second Polydor LP, "Slayed?" is currently #54 on the Cash Box Top 100 Album chart. Their latest British single entered the charts there in the #1 slot the first week of release. Titled "Cum On Feel The Noize," the side has just been issued here to tie in with the group's American itinerary which sees them cover the nation through to the end of May.

Slade's last five singles in Britain each attained the top spot, and Polydor is seeking to transplant that kind of excitement to these shores. Major promotions in each city the quartet will appear in are planned, as is an appearance on an upcoming edition of NBC-TV's "Midnight Special."

Atlantic Lights Up Paris During International Confab

25th Anny Cited; 19 New Albums

PARIS—Atlantic hosted in this beautiful city of lights four days of business emnventioneeering under the theme of "April In Paris" and debuted 19 new LP's that will be released in the U.S. this month and next. It was Atlantic's first international sales and promo meeting since joining WEA.

Without a doubt, the most important factor of the whole convention was the sense of being part of a huge and energetic team felt by every salesman, and promotion man. The WEA branch set-up is only two years old and the salesmen and promo men are, in many cases still quite new to one another.

"After this convention there has got to be a strong sense of security knowing that there is a vast force of friendly and talented people working all over the country on the same product I'm working on in my territory," as one promo man put it. The "Togetherness" throughout the convention, everyone seemed to feel, would have a tremendous residual effect on Atlantic's future product.

Ahmet Ertegun, Atlantic president; Jerry Wexler, exec. vp, and Nesuhi Ertegun, Atlantic vp and president of WEA International opened the convention reminiscing about the 25 years since Atlantic started in the record business. Speaking with his usual sense of humor that comes, in part from having built one of the hottest record companies in the industry today, Ertegun made jest with such comments as: "Who would have imagined that the blues and jazz we ourselves loved would some day develop into the key to the future of true American music. Yes, we made concessions to commercialism and much to our surprise, we stumble onto Rock and Roll."

On a more serious note about the early Atlantic years, Ahmet said: "We were after the real soul thing... we thought we understood Black music... we felt it and we wanted to bring it to the public. But our records were selling in twos and threes. Then I got a call from a number of people, who asked me if we had the record of (cont. on pg. 34)

Atlantic Fills New Exec Posts: 8 Mkting Directors

PARIS — Dave Glew, vice president of marketing for Atlantic Records, revealed the company's new marketing concept, involving the creation of eight new exec posts of regional marketing director at the firm's 25th Anniversary Convention.

"In our new concept," commented Glew, "we have assigned one man to each of our eight branches who will be responsible for day-to-day direction of his territory's entire sales, promotion, merchandising, advertising and artist relations activities. With the inception of our regional marketing directors we feel we are (cont. on pg. 10)

"Sales in the first nine months of the current fiscal year were 8.2% higher than the corresponding period of fiscal 1972, though 12% below the same period of fiscal 1971. It is encouraging to report that net sales in the third quarter of the current fiscal year were nearly 35% higher than the corresponding period of fiscal 1972 and 8.3% higher than the third quarter of fiscal 1971.

"Net income before extraordinary items in the first nine months of fiscal 1973 has notably increased by 400% over the corresponding period of fiscal, 1972 and nearly 900% over the same period of fiscal 1971. In contrast to a net income of $1,434,000 earned in the third quarter of the current fiscal year, the company reported net losses of $570,000 and $694,000 respectively during the same quarters of fiscal 1972 and fiscal 1971.

"Whilst reflecting the company's continued attention to cost control, this encouraging trend has been achieved primarily by the increasingly successful sales accomplishments of both Capitol Records' established stars and our new artists. The dedication of a devoted group of employees has also been invaluable. Current levels of performance in all our divisions and subsidiaries enables me to view the future with a greater degree of confidence than has been possible before."

Goody Protests Bill On Retail Recording 'Play'

NEW YORK — Sam Goody, chairman of the board of Sam Goody, Inc., has taken a strong stand against a bill (No. 1539) introduced by Senator Arthur H. Tobin (Mass.) making sellers of recordings and tapes play any of these recordings at the behest of the consumer.

In a letter to Sen. Tobin, Goody states:

"I noticed that you have introduced a bill, No. 1539, making the purveyors of phonograph records and tapes play any of these recordings at the behest of the consumer.

"I have been in this business for approximately forty years, and therefore, modestly, can speak with experience. When long playing records were first brought into existence, we decided not to permit the consumer to play these recordings on our premises as a protective measure to the consumer, as recordings can be very easily damaged by careless handling. In addition, it would be impossible, in an active store, to play a recording, which could take up to an hour to play, just to prove to the consumer that the recording is perfect. Can you imagine three or four consumers waiting on line for auditions, or five machines going simultaneously? Even ear phones prove useless because of the competing extra-ordinary sounds of the retail store. Could a consumer really hear ties or noises on his recording? Are you aware of the fact that when a needle is lifted off the recording by hand, the recording is (cont. on pg. 10)

Bread Sabbatical

HOLLYWOOD — It was learned by Cash Box that the Elektra recording group of Bread is temporarily disbanding in order that individual members David Gates, James Griffin, Larry Knechtel and Mike Botts may pursue personal and separate musical interests.

According to the group's manager Al Schlesinger, "The situation is not a permanent one as they have just recently resigned with Elektra and will be recording together again. It is only a sabbatical the fellows are taking and in no way reflects any incompatibility among them."

A spokesman for Elektra added, "Although the plans have not been finalized, it appears that Griffin will do some work with Robb Royer, a former group member who left and was replaced with Knechtel. Composer/lyricist Gates has not disclosed his immediate intentions as have none of the remaining members.

Wallichs Reports On Nine Months

HOLLYWOOD — Wallichs Music & Entertainment Company, Inc. has reported revenues for the nine months ended Feb. 28, of $6,247,557 as compared to revenues of $6,120,164 for the same period last year.

Net operating income for the nine months was $104,272, or 9¢ per share, as compared to net operating income before extraordinary item of $105,689, or 9¢ per share for the year earlier period. (The 1972 results have been restated to reflect benefit of net operating loss carry-over.)

The extraordinary item in 1972 was $67,875, or 5¢ per share, from insurance benefits paid upon the death of Glenn E. Wallichs, founder of the company.

Per share earnings are based on 1,200,000 shares outstanding for both periods.

In announcing results, Clyde O. Wallichs, president and chairman, said the performance for the nine months was as anticipated and reflects the effects of store modifications to improve sales and a transition to direct record buying to improve profit margins. The costs of these changes, which were completed early in the year and contributed to a loss for the first half, have been justified and the company is moving forward, he said.

Metromedia Net Up 39% In 1st Qtr

NEW YORK — Metromedia, Inc. has reported record net income of $1,523,612 for the first quarter, an increase of 30% over the $1,094,435 reported for the first quarter of 1972. On a per share basis net income amounted to 23¢ against 18¢ last year. Revenues amounted to $49,370,007, an increase of 21% over the $40,791,869 a year ago. Cash flow was $4,413,272 against $3,427,004, a 29% rise.

In announcing the results of the quarter, John W. Kluge, president and chairman of the board, said: "We are pleased to report the highest net income, revenues and cash flow in the history of the Company for a first quarter. Based upon business conditions and audience levels at the present time and an expected increasing profit contribution by our recent acquisitions, we look for 1973 to show substantially greater net income, revenues and cash flow than any other year in our history."

Transamerica 1st Qtr Gains

NEW YORK — Transamerica's consolidated net income for the first quarter of 1973 totaled $25.1 million, or 37¢ a share, including capital gains of $4 million, or 6¢ a share. For the same period last year, net came to $22 million, or 32¢ a share, with capital gains of $5.5 million, or 5¢ a share. Consolidated revenues rose to $495.3 million from $463.1 million. John R. Beckett, chairman, said that the United Artists operation was among the divisions sharing in the profit improvement.

Grand Junction Names Oper. VP

DETROIT — Grand Junction Records, a division of Uptight Productions, reports the appointment of George Hall — its new vice president in charge of operations.

Hall comes to Grand Junction from Big State Sound based in Houston, Texas, where he spent five-years as exec. treasurer. Grand Junction's president is Marvin Figgins.

CBS Cites Sales Splurge On Eurovision Winner

NEW YORK — CBS European subsidiaries wasted no time in translating Anne Marie David's victory of the Eurovision Song Festival into record sales. Appearing on the program which was telecast live throughout Europe, the French artist represented Luxembourg and won with "Tu Te Reconnaître" ("You Would Recognize Yourself"), released on the Epic label.

Within five days after the Festival, "Tu Te Reconnaître" was released everywhere in the United Kingdom and on the Continent in five versions: French, Spanish, Italian, German and English. Four color posters and cardboard displays were rushed into stores. To insure continued impact, CBS France has booked the artist for 20 TV shows across Europe within the next six weeks.

The result of this pre-planning and quick action was immediately apparent: sales of the single exceeded 500,000 within two weeks.

To further spread the Eurovision victory internationally, the record is being issued in other key markets in the world, including rush releases in the U.S. and Canada. Anne Marie David will travel to Canada for personal appearances in mid-May.

Says CBS International president Walter Yetnikoff, "We're very proud of Anne Marie's triumph. With the rapid and effective exploitation done by our European companies, we expect to sell well over a million records in Europe alone. This looks like the launch of an important career for this gifted and talented artist."

Musical Isle, Playback Chain 'Midnight' Sales

NEW YORK — Musical Isle of America, in cooperation with one of its prime Chicagoland outlets, the famed Playback chain, has just completed a disk Sell-A-Thon, a 24-hour a day venture tabbed "Midnite Madness," which has proven records will sell at any hour of the day or night if the price is right.

According to Tony Dalesandro, vice president of the Windy City branch of MIA, a part of United Artists' mass merchandising division, the campaign ran last weekend from 10 A.M. Thursday until 5 P.M. Sunday, with heavy advertising schedules in the Sun-Times and Tribune and 35 suburban papers, along with a number of AM and FM radio outlets.

A total of more than $30,000 had been appropriated for the ad budget overall, which also included promos by the chain on related items to records, such as equipment and accessories. Dalesandro said that as a result of the promo, dollar volume for records increased at least 30% over the normal level for the same period of time.

The push encompassed all types of product and on each day different specials were offered. Beyond this, there were a number of specials good for certain hours or time slots only. These slots included middle-of-the-night and early morning deals as well.

The first wave of the drive included all 18 Chicago city and suburban area Playback locations. A similar push was planned for the Easter weekend for 18 additional more distant Playback locations in Michigan, Indiana, Kentucky and Wisconsin.

Three Dog 1st Change In 5 Years

HOLLYWOOD — Jack Ryland is the new member of Three Dog Night, replacing bass player Joe Schermie in what is the group's first change of personnel in the five years since it was formed. Ryland, Chuck Negron, Danny Hutton, Cory Wells, Michael Allsup, Jimmy Greenspoon and Floyd Sneed in the seven-member aggregate, performing initially on recording sessions now in progress for the Dogs' forthcoming tenth album.

Ryland is sole survivor of a three-month audition period, during which more than 100 bass players were given opportunity to test for the vacancy. "He was the best and, when it got down to voting by the Dogs, was a unanimous pick," explained personal manager Burt Jacobs of Reb Foster Associates, Inc.

Schermie retired from Three Dog Night following the group's successful tour of the Far East last Dec., and is last heard on the current two-LP live set "Three Dog Night Around the World." He's now pursuing other areas of rock music interest.

Ryland, 22, was a member of the band backing Mac Davis and Helen Reddy on their recent joint-tour of the country, departing to join the audition roster. Earlier, he'd played as a sideman with Lou Rawls, Carla Thomas, Wolfman Jack and Albert Collins and for a time was a member of Seven, a group formed by former Steppenwolf members Jerry Edminton and Goldy McJohn.

Moody Blues In Quad Tape

NEW YORK — Threshold Records is moving into the quad tape market beginning immediately with the release of six Moody Blues albums re-mixed in quad, and to be released on tape via Ampex in the United States and Japan within four weeks.

The announcement was made by Threshold Records president Gerry Hoff, who said that all future Threshold product will be recorded and released in quad.

Moody Blues producer Tony Clarke did re-mixing on all of the group's past product into quad with the exception of "In Search Of A Lost Chord," which, for technical reasons, hasn't yet been re-mixed.

The tapes that are being released in quad are "Days Of The Future Past," "On The Threshold Of A Dream," "To Our Children's Children's Children," "A Question Of Balance," "Every Good Boy Deserves Favour," and "Seventh Sojourn." All six of these are certified gold million sellers in all configurations.

Knight 'Letter' To Industry

NEW YORK — At an informal press conference held in his New York office on Wednesday, (18), Terry Knight revealed the latest developments concerning his new acquisition, Faith, and also explained what prompted him to write "An Open Letter To The Industry" which appears as an ad on page 6 of this week's Cash Box.

"Faith," Knight said, "is currently working on their second album which is the most important thing they could do at the time. We haven't really planned any tour as yet, but the group will headline Madison Square Garden on Dec. 25."

Knight spent the major portion of the conference discussing and explaining the role that air personalities should play in exposing new product. "For years everyone's been telling me that it's got to be in the grooves," continued Knight, "now, all of a sudden, they're asking me to identify the members of Faith. Well I'm asking them to listen to the music and not be concerned with the group members. If they like the music for what it is, then they should play the album. It's as simple as that."

Knight also stressed the importance of keeping the industry as exciting as possible and said that it is his job to 'hype' and promote his acts just as it's the responsibility of every other manager to do the same. "I have to be sure that everyone in the industry and all of the consumers are aware that there's a Faith album on the market. That's my job. If I can do that, I've succeeded."

Goody Letter

marred by the needle coming off the groove, and when the needle passes through that point again, you will hear a click?

"It is for all of these reasons, therefore, we permit our customers the privilege of purchasing the recording and taking it home to be played once, to check the quality. We offer a guarantee that if it is defective, we would then exchange said recording at no charge, within a thirty day period. Further, we have a policy that if the consumer is not satisfied with the purchase because of content, and desires something different, we would then give him the equivalent exchange for a minimum charge of 50¢.

It is obvious to me, however, that you are not familiar with the type of people who purchase recordings. We have had young people take home their purchases, and come back after playing these recordings from thirty to one hundred times, swear they had only played it once, and insist that we exchange the record. Experience has taught us that by checking the number of indentations on the spindle of said recording, we could determine how frequent the recording was actually played. The customer, after seeing this proof, will almost inevitably repack the recording and leave.

Since dealers are not penalized when they return recordings played a minimum of times to the distributor, (this is a liberal policy of 99% of the manufacturers) they should honor any customer's legitimate complaint.

There is no question in my mind that you have been stampeded by a bunch of students who are using your office in order to legitimize their deceptions, and by so doing, jeopardize the retailer's reputation and business.

In light of what I have stated, may I say that we have developed from a small business doing $100,000.00 per year, to a business now doing close to $30,000,000.00 per year. It would seem to me that this is proof enough of the fact that an honest dealer and an honest consumer can do business.

More Than 500 Attend Atlantic's "April In Paris" Convention

PARIS—Atlantic's "April in Paris" confab was replete with highlights and sentimental moments. One of the most touching events was the Awards Banquet evening during which Atlantic brass and staffers gave each other plaques and trophies for length of service and devotion on the occasion of the company's 25 Anniversary label. In the photos above, engineer and v.p. Tommy Dowd, with his hands clasped, reminisces about the early years with the three Atlantic toppers Nesuhi Ertegun, v.p.;

Ahmet Ertegun, Atlantic president; and Jerry Wexler, exec. v.p. In the center photo the three heads of Atlantic express a special thanks to Henry Allen, who started in Atlantic's stock room some 20 odd years ago and is now the company's vice president in charge of promotion. On the right, Jac Holzman, president of Elektra Records, sister label of Atlantic under the WEA tie, is introduced to conventioners by Ertegun and Wexler.

congratulates Joel Friedman, in gray suit, the president of the WEA Corp., the branch operation that distributes Atlantic Records in America. In the third photo, Johnny Griffin, one of the first artists ever to record for Atlantic Records almost 25 years ago, takes a bow before the conventioners. On far right, Jerry Greenberg, Atlantic's general manager and senior vice president is seen at the drums. Greenberg played with a group before joining Atlantic and at the Atlantic Awards banquet, an all-Atlantic group performed for dancing.

Some of the many men who shape the course of Atlantic Records are seen during some of the sales and promotion seminars that were held at the Meridian Hotel, headquarters

Glew, marketing v.p.; Sheldon Vogel, v.p.; Henry Allen, promo v.p.; Bob Kornheiser, tape v.p. and the man who drew raves for co-ordinating a super convention; Paul Johnson, R&B promo director; Dick Klein, pop promo director; Rick Willard, merchandising director; and Arif Mardin, music v.p.

Social Highlights Of Atlantic Meet

PARIS—A convention closing boat-ride up the Seine with 500 people singing and laughing was one of the highlights of the Atlantic "April in Paris" Convention. And, of course, the opening night of the convention at the famous Lido nitery with its 50 act show will long be remembered.

Between these events there were numerous bus tours of Paris, Versailles, the Louvre, Monmartre, etc. The awards banquet brought many tears as people who had been with the company 24 of the 25 years of Atlantic's history were given plaques and trophies to denote the Achievement. Entertainment that evening from Stephan Grapelli, the jazz violinist from the original Hot Club of Paris and the original Django Reinhardt Band was greeted with heavy applause as was the performance by the all-Atlantic band featuring promo man Dave Dee on lead guitar and Atlantic vp Jerry Greenberg on drums.

The plane rides to and from Paris, and the jovial atmosphere thereon, will also be remembered as highlights of the Atlantic Convention.

Rest In Peace (3:06) (Nano, BMI—Fisher, Clyde)

Gallery has had three top 40 singles in a row, with two of them reaching top 10 status. For the group's fourth outing, they have come up with a more serious track almost in the Three Dog Night bag. There's no question about this one having the potential to reach #1. It's all there in the grooves. Flip: "River Boat Captain" (2:28) (Inca, BMI—Gold)

BETTE MIDLER (Atlantic 2964)
Boogie Woogie Bugle Boy (2:32) (MCA, ASCAP—Ray, Price)

This is going to be the record to revolutionize the music industry. It's hip enough for the kids to want, and old enough for their parents to remember. Bette Midler has done it again! Flip: "Delta Dawn" (5:10) (UA Music, ASCAP—Harvey, Collins)

TOM JONES (Parrot 40074)
Letter To Lucille (3:04) (MAM, ASCAP—Macaulay)

CHAIRMAN OF THE BOARD (Invictus 1251)
Finder's Keepers (3:32) (Gold Forever, BMI—Johnson, Brown)

With all the power of a speeding locomotive, Chairman of the Board will soon blast their way right into the top spots on both pop and r&b charts with this power packed outing. It doesn't look like anything will be able to stop this one. Flip: "Finder's Keepers (Instrumental)" (3:40) (same credits)

SLADE (Polydor 15069)
Cum On Feel The Noize (4:23) (Yellow Dog, ASCAP—Lea, Holder)

Latest from British supergroup is another rollicking rock effort teaming with commercial appeal for both top 40 and FM play. They may not be able to spell very well, but they sure can make great records! Flip: No info. available.

LAURA LEE (Hot Wax 7302)
(If You Want To Try Love Again) Remember Me (3:57) (Gold Forever, BMI—Holland, Dozier, Holland, Wylie)

Laura Lee returns in a different musical atmosphere, but with the very same biting soul that has made her a star vocalist. This time around, a bit smoother, but equally as powerful as her latest entry heads for the very top of the r&b listings. This will get great airplay. Flip: No info. available.

LOVE UNLIMITED (20th Century 2025)

Oh Love, Well We Finally Made It (3:29) (January/Sa-Vette, BMI—White)
Written and produced by Barry White (who is fast becoming a superstar), Love Unlimited unleashes a dynamic effort that will soon cross over into pop markets as well as establishing itself as a soul classic. This one is destined to explode! Flip: "Yes, We Finally Made It" (3:40) (same credits)

JOHN THUNDER (Bell 45-346)

Till The Water Stops Runnin' (2:57) (Pocket Full Of Tunes, BMI—Levine, Brown)

Here's one that'll sound a bit familiar. Possessing all of the necessary ingredients needed to happen, John Thunder comes off with a tune that has all the sparkle of a combined "Knock Three Times" and "Candida", and even sounds a little like Tony Orlando. Definitely worth programming. Flip: No info. available.

CLIFF NOBLES (Roulette 7142)

This Feeling Of Lonliness (2:58) (Kahl/James Boy, BMI—James, Wilson)

Latest musical venture from Cliff is one of his most exciting as he delivers a meticulously spun r&b item that is certain to once again return him to national prominence. Programmers will jump on this one in a hurry. Flip: No info. available.

MARTIN MULL & ORCHESTRA (Capricorn 0019)

Dueling Tubas (1:26) (no credits available)

Why dueling banjos you might ask? Well, Martin Mull has been asking the same question and has come up with a solution, too! Already getting lots of novelty airplay, this record could turn into one of the monster singles of the year. Tubas will never be the same again! Flip: "2001 Polkas" (2:15) (no credits available)

CLIFF RICHARD (Sire 707)

Power To All Our Friends (3:00) (???—Fletcher, Flett)

Already receiving widespread attention, Cliff Richard debuts with a powerful entry into top 40 chart contention. Especially interesting is the a capella intro in fascinating harmony. A must play item. Flip: No info. available.

DEBBIE (Metromedia 0108)

Living Together (2:47) (Valando, ASCAP—Crane, Davis)

At first, she sounds exactly like Karen Carpenter. But after listening over and over again, Debbie's uniquely smooth style shines on its very own. This could become an MOR classic and should muster enough sales muscle to soon be charted national. A fine debut effort. Flip: "And It Feels Like Lovin'" (2:04) (Valando/Souderwell, ASCAP—Anderson, Sager, Manchester)

DON AGRATI (Elektra 45846)

One Man Woman (2:07) (House of the Frog Prince, BMI—Agrati)

Those of you who do not recognize the name will certainly remember the face of the former 'My Three Sons' star turned recording artists. Agrati debuts with a tune that he both wrote and produced, and it looks as though he'll be around for quite some time. Record makes for fine top 40 programming. Flip: No info. available.

Granger Opens Promo Company

HOLLYWOOD — Ron Granger has announced the formation of his own indie record promotion company, Promotions Unlimited, headquartered in Los Angeles at 8647 Beverly Boulevard; telephone: (213) 651-0783. Granger, most recently with ABC-Dunhill Records as national director of r&b promo, describes his newly-formed Promotions Unlimited as "an all-encompassing professional promotion company, covering the entire spectrum of promoting and breaking a record in its particular popular market."

Granger's firm is specifically geared to work within a record company's existing structure in conjunction with its promotion staff, supplementing its efforts on behalf of its artists. Granger himself has been involved with record sales promotion at Capitol Records and ABC, as well as having headed up Ray Charles' Tangerine Record Corporation.

"It has been my experience," says Granger, "that there is a need in this business for complementary promotional activities on behalf of artists who are not receiving maximum exposure. The business of a record company is hits, but I believe that a company such as mine can help build acts, which will turn into a profit for the company by capitalizing on the appeal of such artists in particular markets."

Promotions Unlimited will offer in-depth personal and telephone coverage of such major markets as New York, Philadelphia, Washington, D.C.; Baltimore, Chicago, Detroit, Cleveland, San Francisco, and Los Angeles, and in addition to radio station coverage and trade coverage will also work with merchandising in all markets covered by its services.

Television Special:

"James Paul McCartney"

ABC-TV, NEW YORK — Much of the magic that always surrounded the Beatles as a group was apparent on the night of April 16 when the ABC Television Network presented a one hour special entitled "James Paul McCartney." The show, featuring Paul McCartney and Wings, was a joy to watch mainly because it flowed so evenly from beginning to end. It was almost impossible to predict when the commercials would appear! And that in itself is a great accomplishment.

When preparing a special of this nature, one must be sure that it will be universal in its appeal. It must, almost inevitably, take the format of a variety show. Concerning this aspect, the show was a roaring success. Men and women of all ages were able to enjoy the songs and dances performed that evening. For the young, there was "Uncle Albert/Admiral Halsey," "C Moon," "The Mess," "Long Tall Sally," and "Maybe I'm Amazed," while some of the more melodic material included performances of "Michele," "Yesterday," "House In The Country," and McCartney's latest classic-to-be, "My Love."

The show paralleled the two sides of McCartney: the one on stage with the electric bass, and the one with a simple acoustic guitar. I personally found the acoustic segments more fulfilling if for no other reason than because they were more relaxed and they accented the more melodic and structurally complex songs. All too often though, the camera seemed to focus on Linda. And by doing so (especially during the photograph scene) we were reminded of the importance she plays within the group. It is impossible for us to tell what part she plays in the actual writing of songs—but one thing is certain: Linda is a definite asset when it comes to the combined group harmonies. She definitely contributes more than her share. But this became obvious with the help of cameras highlighting Linda's role.

The two scenes which come to mind as being most effective are the opening scene where the curtains go up and we find several dozen monitors sets showing a cheering audience; and the segments which comprised the Beatles' medley as sung by the average Liverpool pedestrian. These two brief glimpses represent only a sampling of the brilliance and creativity that went into making the show what it was. The costuming during the song and dance routine was incredible—to say the least.

Those who disliked the special were obviously expecting something different from McCartney. Perhaps an entire concert with Wings. Or, maybe an intimate hour with Paul. But if we learn to take the best from what is given us, we will then be able to appreciate more of what we have.

k.k

Freddie King Lee Pickens Group

WHISKEY, L.A. — Somewhere along the line Freddie King was christened "prophet of the blues." Blues? His opening numbers more accurately suggested a musical philosophy somewhere to the right of whoopee. Commencing with the high-speed snap-piness of "Johnny Be Good," "Also Sprach Zarathustra" and "Boogey Man," it appeared as if the Shelter recording artist was through with prophecy. But he fooled us. Flanked by a five-member group including the excellent piano of David Maxwell, the guitarist/vocalist wrung-out some of the bluesiest sounds heard in southern California in many a rainy day. His "Ain't No Sunshine" broke through the clouds with a sensitivity and feeling that was more than just moving; it was overwhelming. And not to be forgotten, the Billie Holiday standard "Ain't Nobody's Business If I Do" was chanted out with the same interpretation.

The show was unveiled with Lee Pickens, a six-member rock-blues group from Texas who had a few draws in their material. They seemed to fumble a bit in what they were playing. Nonetheless, Pickens on lead electric and drummer Charlie Bas-sham still managed to glue things together with their own individual expertise. The high point, however came with an instrumental dialogue between Pickens and organist Milton Walters to "Palace of the King," which showed that with some more juggling they will have quite a group.

Incredible String Band

TROUBADOUR, L.A. — The Incredible String Band had some delicious moments the other night. Maybe not in the sense of a meal from Maxim's but at least in the right neighborhood—strange neighborhood that it was. Strange because their music was an amalgam of moods, styles and interpretations drawn from American and English lore, Far East and God knows what other sources that the group somehow lumped together into a pleasant package. Delicious because they used some expert theatrics that were exceptionally effective in elevating the show to a nice high.

Off to a slow (fast?) start with some hoe-down and hootenanny nonsense, the six-member Scottish clan performed best on "Circus Girl" from their newest Warner Bros. LP ("No Ruinous Feud") and on "Gile's Crocodile," which featured guitarist vocalist Malcolm Le Maistre in an excellent pantomime skit. This bit had Malcolm transmogrifying from Lola the Hooker to a Steve Stunning.

Maxine Weldon

ETC., HOLLYWOOD — Columbia Records has signed the maximum in talent with Maxine Weldon, whom Bill Cosby has described as "the most exciting voice since Billie Holiday." She has been appearing frequently at this popular local niter before capacity SOR crowds. The lady's a song sculptress who truly molds each song into a work of art. She does this by using gestures that assimilate exactly what her voice happens to be offering. If it happens to be the earthy "Love is Beautiful" (a fantastic song), her fingers are painfully extended to fully convey this moment of anguish. Maybe it's because she spent quite a bit of time performing in Japan that she has been able to master this kind of kabuki-esque magic.

Maxine can sing anything from a Japanese love song to a country tune on the same theme, "Johnny One Time." When she sang "My Way," the audience was pleasantly convinced that she did it her way. Her current Columbia single, "Looking For The Answer," could be another contemporary standard smash a la "Killing Me Softly." It may take a little push, but it's one well deserved.

is his story of women and hard times.

ST-11176

Woman, Woman
Lying to you of woman
The straggled breast
Each time over,
The bloody bloody fight,
Held aloft, doft and passed
From loving lights to light.
Mother of earth, mother of us
Mother of sky and fire
Not the killers we,
But warriors of life
The harpers of a holy war
And the message
Dramming in one very rill:
Amazic forms
To swell and fill and flood
And reach like giants
Out beyond the breast and scope of man.
Jubilant exultate Lying of life and heart and love

HOLLYWOOD—DON AGRATI: VOICING HIS REAL NAME

Agrati could be an acronym for the first initials in the following sentence; a guy's resolution actualizing true identity. Agrati is actually the true name of Don Grady, the prominent TV actor who played Robbie on the "My Three Sons" show for 11 years. Don Agrati made a tape in his basement about six months ago. The basement received the traditional face lifting needed for recording. Keith Olson, who converted the garage of Emitt Rhodes into a recording milieu, also takes honors here. He masterminded a 3M tape deck, which according to Don was an eight-track unit more compact than a four-track in a professional studio. Don composed 11 songs, played most of the instruments, and produced the album, which he sent off to Elektra Records. A letter of introduction accompanied the tape bearing the signature of his rightful name, Agrati. He purposely failed to mention his stage moniker or that he had been in any way associated with the popular TV show. The result was the perfect clandestine campaign.

Don explained that he had been involved in record deals in the past which tried to capitalize on the fact that he was the star of a TV show and those associations really never worked out. In addition, he also pointed out that he was just plain curious to see if he could interest a record company purely on the basis of his talent and not just his name. Elektra was more than just interested. They wanted to sign Don Agrati but first they wanted to meet him. This is understandable record company chariness—to make sure that the tape sent from Laguna had indeed been sent by an authentic, tangible human being capable of becoming a popular metaphor in the music world. So that people could someday say so and so sounds like Don Agrati. A meeting was arranged and Don came to Elektra, only he came in a disguise he concocted which consisted of very, very dark sunglasses and a flashy nylon shirt with enormous bouffant sleeves, which his hands continuously got lost in. Agrati admits to being rather conservative so this jocular

NEW YORK—ELLIE GREENWICH: (PART II) INTO THE SPOTLIGHT

By the time the year 1967 had run its course, Ellie Greenwich compositions had sold in excess of twenty million copies. A total few songwriters could boast at the sprightly age of twenty-seven, but the turn of the year brought a new, unwelcome light to the lady whose career had never taken a bad turn (or at least any appreciable one).

The second wave of the "British Invasion" was wiping out the slate of American "boy-meets-girl pop" songs, the type of tunes Ellie had been turning out with incredible success over the previous few years, and for the first time she was forced to take stock and decide upon her future. As Ellie related to me, it was the first time in years, and possibly in her life, that she had time to concentrate on herself and take care of her own well being. But Ellie's track record was not one that indicated she would sit still for long. In fact, her vacation, or "dues paying" did not last long at all. But the next phase of her career was one that was different and much unlike anything she had undergone in the past.

The formation of Pineywood Productions, Ellie's independent production company, insured a solid future and launched her new career. Where she had been previously associated with writing commercial hit songs, she was now beginning the phase of her career that would find her writing hit commercials as well as embarking into the wide world of television.

Ellie's list of commercials which she has written includes Ford, Bravura Cologne, Cheerios cereal, Prince Albert Tobacco, Lifesavers and United Milk, but her participation does not end there. She has been lead singer and background singer on countless others, including Clairol, Helena Rubenstein, Coca-Cola, Hanes, Beechnut and Noxzema and she has produced even others. Another impressive listing for the woman whose career seems boundless. But the commercial writing aspect of her production company was simply one facet.

DON AGRATI

masquerade was far from his customary dress standards; the kind one recalls his TV character of an all American family boy sans a mother, as wearing. In fact he had to scavenge up the outfit from some of his more flamboyant friends. The disguise worked for Elektra wasn't able to recognize his face and his true identity wasn't revealed until contracts were drawn up, and as Agrati glibbed, "I took off my sunglasses and it was a price in disguise. I hope they we're too disappointed to discover they weren't getting some far out freak."

Perhaps this is why he calls his publishing company, The House of the Frog Prince Music. If only Hans Christian Anderson were still around, it would have made a terrific story for him. The butterfly (which is Elektra's logo), that met up with a frog truly discovered something out of the ordinary. This something is found in Don's debut Elektra album appropriately called "Homegrown." The single culled from it is "One Man Woman." The album is definitely one that stands alone on the merit of its contents, needing no name to sell it.

Disguise is nothing new to Don, who could be crowned the music industry's "Chaney of a thousand faces." When he was doing "My Three Sons" (he left the show on his own accord last year), he became involved playing in a group called Yellow Balloon on Canteberry Records. They experienced a national hit with a song of the same name. For personal appearances Don became Luke R. Yoo, a rock and roll chinaman. Yellow Balloon took off while Don was on a summer TV hiatus affording him a few months to travel with the group. He was never recognized.

Don's theatrical background may be one reason why he is able to write songs so incredibly like scenarios. His song "Two Bit Afternoon" is a perfect example of this refreshing approach to songwriting. The opening lyric to that song goes, "Visiting places where nobody goes to and making some faces because nobody knows you," which is an interesting declaration coming from the singer with "a thousand faces" who will be known by his songs and his voice regardless of any (should there be) future disguises.

Don disclosed that he may be writing some songs for a movie project which would be geared for children. Somehow he got sidetracked for a minute and started talking about a particular children's story (not the film property, as that hasn't been decided yet) "The Velveteen Rabbit." Apparently it's the story about a nursery room of toys presided by one senior toy, a very old, worn and torn horse. The new toys seem to feel sorry for the elder rocking chair, but the horse

Ellie and Pineywood were also responsible for the music for the television series, "The Hardy Boys", a children's series which enjoyed a long run on the NBC-TV network. Which brings us, and Ellie Greenwich, to the present.

The release of Ellie's long overdue solo debut album finally became reality the first week in April. Entitled "Let It Be Written. . . . Let It Be Sung", the collection includes those great sixties rock and roll hits Ellie wrote for the "girl groups" and to say that Ellie's versions far surpass the originals would be somewhat of a mild understatement. In fact, without going out on a limb, it can be said that Ellie's album is the best album to appear from a female performer in the past five years (and that includes the Carole King collections).

Ellie explained in detail that her arrangements and choice of material was no easy task, her intention being to maintain the original feel of the song yet present the material in a contemporary manner without dating either words or music. Her choice of material was difficult in that there were many songs she could not perform or rearrange to her satisfaction, "Hanky Panky" and "Do Wah Diddy Diddy" as prime examples. She decided upon the material included on the album on the basis of the remaining contemporary nature of the songs and the success of the arrangements. She worked all of the material herself and the end result was remarkable. To listen to the songs one would tend to believe that they had been specifically written for the seventies. Ellie's arrangements of "Chapel Of Love", "Then He Kissed Me", "Be My Baby" (on which she plays, of all instruments, the accordion) and "Maybe I Know" (the projected single release) are all letter perfect and contemporary enough to succeed all over again, which at this point does not seem to be too far from reality.

As Ellie has never performed live in front of a concert or club audience, with the exception of a few lip-synching record hop dates when she was the Raindrops driving force, she is anticipating those first few performing dates but still has no idea of exactly where or when such a schedule will begin. She admits that she will probably suffer a bit from nerves at the outset. Judging from her bubbling, vibrant, glowing personality, those nerves may never become jangled enough to matter anyway.

Thus, this final chapter of the Ellie Greenwich Story comes to a close but from the looks of things, the future chapters look to be even more exciting. At the age of 32, Ellie has succeeded in bringing genuine joy to the world. Speaking for myself, and as best I can for my contemporaries, who have been living and growing during the sixties and seventies, it's all been a beautiful trip and as long as the ferris wheel turns, we're gonna keep on loving every minute of it.

POP PICKS

MILES DAVIS IN CONCERT—Columbia KG 32092

Packaged much like his last LP, "On The Corner," this specially-priced two-disk set gives the listener very little in the way of information. We are only told it was recorded live at Philharmonic Hall. When and with whom is a mystery. The two disks appear to have separate identities: one is called "Footfooler" while the other is "Slickaphonics." Miles' fans will pick this one up because all the uncertainty here can only tickle the imagination of the Davis freak.

LISTEN EASY—Tony Bennett—MGM/Verve MV 5094

Title is more or less a contradiction in terms. Tony isn't anybody's idea of background music, as the power he breathes into a song does not allow anyone within earshot to give his voice a backseat to anything. But "easy listening" in the generic sense this is—no forced beat limits Mr. Bennett in his role as master of melody and feeling. The track "Tell Her It's Snowing" is the biggest beauty here—it has to rank with "I Left My Heart In San Francisco."

A LITTLE NIGHT MUSIC—Original Cast—Columbia KS 32265

Stephen Sondheim and Harold Prince's latest music presentation is, like their "Company" and "Follies," stacked with intelligence and wit and much musical beauty. Two songs are quite outstanding: "Send in the Clowns" and "Every Day a Little Death." The recording also brings back Goddard Lieberson into the producing fold—and the cast reflects his great sense of the musical theatre. And what looks like a cast LP first: Sondheim's great lyrics are re-printed—and how well they read! Show's a hit, so the LP must be stocked. In any event, it had to be recorded.

WISHBONE FOUR—Wishbone Ash—MCA 327

This British quartet has received many a praise in their homeland. A cult for them here has been growing, and the label's been tooling up for their U. S. breakthrough for some time. Now comes the album vehicle with which the MCA folk can really move 'em on up, out and over the top. Wishbone allow the basic hardrock genre (two guitars, bass, drums) to be very open to texturization. "No Easy Road" sounds like a single, something along the lines of "Gimme Shelter" at its fevered peak.

CAPERS & CARSON—Janus JLS-3045

The return of the newly re-named Hedge & Donna duo. They redefined the folk genre on Capitol, tried their hands in hard rock for Polydor and now have an LP that is undeniably commercial as all get out, on Janus. Seldom do two voices blend together as extraordinarily as do these. The husband/wife duo should have their first hit single with "Guava Jelly" while "Silver To Blue" could serve well as a summer's end follow-up. The former is the Wailers' copyright from Johnny Nash's hit LP while the latter is an original in the class of "Cherish" and "Precious And Few."

STYX II—Styx—Wooden Nickel—WNS-1012

The hard rockers have come a long way since their debut LP. The producing team of John Ryan and Bill Traut have established a recorded presence for the group that's as expansive as that of the Who or Grand Funk. The sound leaps up and surrounds. The most powerful single instrumental achievements come from Dennis DeYoung's keyboards (especially organ on "Little Fugue In 'G'"). But the other four members know their stuff too. The smooth four-part vocal harmonies are a strong but ever-successful contrast to their prowess in the former. Styx has quite obviously turned in one hell of an LP.

SUPER DUDE I—Don Covay—Mercury SRM-1-653

Don's first single for the label, "Overtime Man" made some noise. This album will make more. There's a James Brown/Stevie Wonder treatment of "Money (That's What I Want)" that's surely one of the most spirited tracks to zip down the soul pike in many months. The reggae version of Chuck Berry's "Memphis" is also a definite high point. "Leave Him" is a strong ballad, divided into two parts. The man who made "Mercy Mercy" and "Sookie Sookie" hits the first time 'round has penned some more goodies here which he performs like the pro he is.

DOUBLE DIAMOND—If—Metromedia BML-1-0174

Not only is their label's distribution reorganized (now thru RCA), but Dick Morrissey's English band of renown is a new ball game too. Dick now is the only horn player in the ensemble, formerly likened to a British Chicago. They are now a double keyboard/synthesizer concern with drums, bass and guitar. All five supporting members handle background vocals. Side Two is especially fine, containing an elongated composition carefully edited into three identically titled short pieces "Feel Thing." Currently on an American tour, the new group should impress many.

NEWCOMER PICKS

NEW YORK ROCK—Michael Kamen—Atco SD 7020

Title is a reference to the fact that this debut is an outgrowth of the New York Rock Ensemble, the band that helped free rock of its inhibitions to aspire above boogie and beyond funk. Now as a solo, Kamen has constructed an album that simultaneously does the same for acoustic and synthesizer rock, allowing it to proceed beyond the troubadour gently strummin' and the machinery strongly freakin', respectively. In short, this is a masterpiece of a mind that will obviously affect many fellow musicians in the near future as a result of this undertaking. Accessible yet totally brilliant in scope and concept.

TWICE REMOVED FROM YESTERDAY—Robin Trower—Chrysalis CHR 1039

Robin Trower first achieved fame and fortune as guitarist for Procol Harum. He left because of musical differences to found his own band, and this is the first album resulting from his personal ambition. The group which uses Robin's name as its own features James Dewar (from Stone the Crows) on vocals and bass and Reg Isadore on drums. They're produced by another PH alumnus Matthew Fisher. All material save for one cut ("Rock Me Baby") is original, and most examples fit into the legacy Jimi Hendrix left behind.

CLASSICAL PICKS

GEORGES BIZET: CARMEN—Marilyn Horne, James McCracken and the Metropolitan Opera cast; Leonard Bernstein, conducting—Deutsche Grammophon 2709-043

The production which opened the '72-'73 season for the Met is the first American-produced opera in seven years, also marking the recording re-entry of the Met into the complete opera field (being their first since 1959). The packaging is up to the production in every respect. The three-record deluxe set smells ever so sweetly of the highest artistic considerations; the excitement it will generate on the retail level will affect even traditionally non-opera consumers.

GAETANO DONIZETTI: ANNA BOLENA Beverly Sills, Shirley Verrett et al; Julius Rudel conducting The London Symphony Orchestra; John Alldis Chorus—ABC ATS 20015/4

With the BBC's "Henry VIII" series still fresh in the minds of many, what better time for a complete and lavish new production of an opera based on the life of his second wife? Seldom do two stars of the order of Sills and Verrett appear together on the same recording stage. Four-disk set is an impressive package indeed, with tremendous sales appeal.

The American Dream Gives Birth To A Monster

Everyone's American Dream has its right-mare side. Ecology. Pollution. Social and economic strife. Now the Bar-Kays put it to music in an album that captures all their talents and energies, "Do You See What I See". It's strong words. Strong music. Music that has knocked out clubs and concert audiences from Trenton to Tokyo. From Washington, D.C. to Wattstax, L.A.

"Do You See What I See" is a contemporary album that can not be categorized, but that will be heard. Call it R&B. Call it Top 40. Call it a monster. Right out of the American nightmare.

Production Co. Opens In Miami

MIAMI, FLA. — Group 3, a record production company, has been formed in Miami by David Hieronymus, Ron Albert, Howard Albert and Steve Palmer.

Group 3 offers a "total service" concept for new and unknown artists and songwriters in engineering, production, promo, and music publishing.

All talent will be carefully screened and the company will be highly selective in those artists chosen to record.

"We'll be able to present a quality master tape to these executives because of the personnel involved in Group 3," Albert explained. "And feel we can cover the whole spectrum from jazz, rock, country and soul."

Miami was selected as headquarters for Group 3, the company said, because of Criteria Recording Studios, considered by top artists and producers to be one of the top recording facilities in the world.

Babcock To AR On Coast For Columbia

NEW YORK — Steve Harris, director of artist development at Columbia Records, has announced the appointment of John Babcock to the newly created position of regional director of artist relations-west coast for the label.

Babcock will work closely with both Harris and the label's promo and A&R department in the planning and execution of career building programs for Columbia artists on the west coast. Babcock will also be involved with concert booking activities, artist evaluation and overall support campaigns for label artists.

WHAT'S YOUR SCORE?—Arnold Maxin (left) and David Gordon, producers of the new LP album, "Sexual I.Q. Test," held by Gordon, examine self-scoring answer sheets following the launching of the record this month with a public test for an invited audience of more than 300 men and women at Carnegie Recital Hall in New York. Maxin, former president of MGM Records, has joined forces with Gordon in Gordon/Maxin Productions, Inc., which plans other "audience-response" disks as well as music publishing and recording.

The Tops' tops.

It's pretty hard to top the Four Tops. But we've found one way. With a smashing two record set called, appropriately enough, "The Best of The Four Tops." Name your Four Tops hit, and you've got it. "Baby, I Need Your Loving," "I Can't Help Myself," "It's The Same Old Song," "Reach Out . . . I'll Be There," "Bernadette," "Walk Away Renee," "If I Were A Carpenter," and more.

"The Best of The Four Tops." You asked for it. You got it. It's tops. Motown album # M764D.

Listen to what's happening at Motown. You'll hear the times change.

Canned Heat UA-LA049-F

Canned Heat is back and they've never sounded so good. "Rock and Roll Music," "Harley Davidson Blues" and "Framed" are only three of the exciting rockers that make up NEW AGE.

Wizzard UA-LA042-F

Over the years Roy Wood has been responsible for more great rock & roll records than almost anybody. With his latest group, Wizzard, the raunch continues to roll through one of the year's most rocking albums.

Groundhogs UA-LA008-F

In their sixth album, the Groundhogs prove their reputation as one of England's leading blues-based rock groups, featuring the legendary guitar of Tony McPhee and an all-new collection of songs.

Can UA-LA063-F

German rock strikes again with Can, who turn the strangeness of space-rock into the kind of melodic music anyone can enjoy. "Vitamin C," "Soup" and "I'm so Green" will demonstrate why Can is fast becoming the biggest group in Europe.

Help Yourself UA-LA079-F

Lovers of English rock, light harmonies, firm and satisfying melodies, and freeform rock jamming as well, will find endless pleasure in Help Yourself's second album, a classic of its type.

Del Reeves UA-LA044-F

The honky tonk king is back with a rousing set of roadhouse country songs. Check out "Trucker's Paradise" and "Travelling Light."

Slim Whitman UA-LA046-F

"I'll See You When" is the latest LP from Slim, and like all of his product, it is certain to have a ready acceptance. This collection blends new tunes with familiar standards, all presented in the smooth-as-silk, easy-going fashion that has sold so many millions of discs for Slim Whitman.

Chris Darrow UA-LA048-F

Veteran of eight years as a musician and a member of some of the finest rock bands, Chris Darrow steps out with an album of his own music, which draws on a thousand sources of traditional music and comes out in his own, uniquely individual style.

Asleep at The Wheel UA-LA038-F

Country music hasn't sounded this good since the days of Bob Wills and Hank Snow. Asleep at the Wheel combines a love of Western Swing with a feel for classic country songs that none can match.

Poppy

Atlantic Sales Meet In Paris

'Drinkin' Wine, Spo-Dee-O-Dee.' Since so many people were having trouble getting that record, I figured we should get the record and copy it. We cut it with Brownie McGee and had our first 400,000 seller. As a matter of fact, Decca Records then bought the original master that featured Brownie McGee's brother and covered us by issuing the original. But it wasn't long after that that we started cutting Joe Turner, Ruth Brown stopped singing Doris Day songs and started singing good blues, and then, of course, Ray Charles.

"I remember," continued Ahmet, "when our idols were Aladdin Records and Chess Records. Now we're trying to copy Elektra and Warner Bros." Looking back and extending thanks, Ahmet said: "We finally started getting paid by our distributors. We stopped getting thrown out as much by radio stations. The late Jack Walker was our first PR Director and was a great booster for Atlantic. 'Waxie' Maxie Silverman taught us how to sell R & B Records. Then Jerry and Nesuhi joined us and we went into the studio together with Ray Charles, who taught us all how to make records. And together with Elvis, the Beatles, Alan Freed and the Rolling Stones, we invented Rock and Roll. Then Nesuhi brought us Modern Jazz and started our LP catalog that is looked upon today as musical history."

Ahmet concluded his welcoming address with a comment about where Atlantic's musical head is at today: "The essential thrust of our company is an independent one. We're in the record business all day. We run faster than the next guy, and we're not afraid. We don't want to become fat casts and we want to keep that independent spirit."

Cohen Comments

Alan Cohen, Warners Communications, Inc., exec. v.p., greeted the assembly on behalf of WCI and congratulated all in the WEA division of the corporation for becoming the biggest segment of the WCI volume. He said, "We were a bit worried when Atlantic joined WCI that they might not be able to fit into the large corporate structure and maintain the same spirit of growth and excitement. But it seemed to work out fine. All we at WCI had to do was change our corporate style to fit Atlantic's."

Tom Dowd gave a demonstration of some of the company's first Quad discs featuring Bette Midler, Aretha Franklin, Herbie Mann and J. Geils. These are among the Quad LP's to be released in May.

After their opening remarks, the firm's new film, the 25 minute "History of Atlantic Records," was shown to the 500 assembled delegates, from Atlantic Records and WEA branches, and WEA International. The "History" film, which was received with much enthusiasm by the convention delegates will be shown to dealers in the U.S. after the convention is over.

Film Shown

Jerry Greenberg, senior vice president and general manager, presented the film's new releases via a short film presentation. Among the new releases introduced were new albums by Led Zeppelin (released April 1), and the Spinners (released April 7), and new albums by Yes, J. Geils Band, Cactus, Cross Country, Heads, Hands & Feet, Michael Kamen, Jimmy Stevens, King Crimson, King Floyd, Dave Brubeck, The Ann Arbor Blues & Jazz Festival, Ray Charles and Chick Corea. Four albums on Asylum, by the Eagles, Ned Doheny, David Blue, and Steve Ferguson, were also presented to the convention-goers. Greenberg also spoke on Artist Development.

Bob Rolontz, advertising & publicity vice president, spoke on the ad & publicity support behind the new releases. Rick Willard, Merchandising chief, spoke of the firm's merchandising backing the release.

Dave Glew, firm's marketing vice president talked about the WEA as marketing arm to the WEA delegates. Dick Kline and Paul L. Johnson presented the new single produced followed by a presentation of new jazz products by Nesuhi Ertegun a Joel Dorn. Jerry Greenberg presented future album releases. Rick Sanje head of the country music division Atlantic, presented new country releases. LeBaron Taylor, Atlantic R&B H&R chief, debuted new R&B releases. Some of the selections that were greeted with a strong response were a cut from the new Rollin' Stones LP, the "Jesse" cut from Roberta Flack's new LP and a strong single called "Sweet Charlie Babe" Jackie Moore.

The sales and promo men were all turned on by a taste of some "stuff the can," including Steven Stills, Wayne Davis, a Roberta Flack discovery; Ram-A-Tam; Aretha Franklin cut by Quincy Jones; Badge featuring members from Yes and the from Flash; Michael Johnson, produced by Peter Yarrow; the Bee Gees "Eliza"; cuts from Roberta Flack new LP; Danny O'Keefe; Don Hathaway and the new Rollin' Stones LP.

2-Disk Sets

Nesuhi Ertegun also introduced three double-disk $6.98 sets tying with Atlantic's 25th Anniversary called: "25 Years of Soul," "25 Years of Pop & Rock" and "25 Years of Jazz." All three albums feature various artists from the Atlantic catalog and were selected by the A&R staff to be indicative of the various years of the related music.

One seminar of the many scheduled by Atlantic for its branch staffers at the convention, included a special trade paper chart seminar, chaired by Marty Ostrow from Cash Box, Tor Lanzetta from Billboard, and Sam Parnes from Record World.

Among the Atlantic people attending the convention were producer Tom Dowd and Arif Mardin, who produce recordings by Aretha Franklin with Jerry Wexler, and Joel Dorn who produces Roberta Flack records.

Jac Holzman, president of Elektra Records was also in attendance.

WEA International representatives who were present came from Canada, Great Britain, France, Germany, Japan, and Australia. Licensees from Sweden, Finland, Yugoslavia, Switzerland, and Italy also attended.

Awards

On Friday evening (13) awards were presented to members of Atlantic's marketing arm, WEA, by Dave Glew. Joel Friedman, president of WEA, received two awards, his assistants, vice presidents Skid Weiss and Henry Droz received awards. Mike Elliot, WEA vice president, who could not attend because of illness, also received an award. The eight WEA Branch managers, Mike Spence, De England, Bill Biggs, Don Dumont, Ted Rosenberg, Tom Sims, Vic Faraco and Marv Slaveter were given awards.

Max Silverman of Waxie Maxie chain in Washington, was presented with an award as the Godfather of Atlantic Records by Ahmet Ertegun.

Henry Allan, promotion vice president, Noreen Woods, exec assistant to Ahmet Ertegun and Jerry Wexler, Lionel Crichlow, Atlantic warehouse chief, and Francine Wakschal, were given awards by Ahmet and Nesuhi Ertegun and Jerry Wexler. Tom Dowd presented the three chiefs with the "Drinkin' Wine Spo-dee-o-dee Award," and they gave another to Tom Dowd. Jac Holzman, President of Elektra, Alan Cohen, Executive Vice President of WCI, Borge Ekberg of Metronome Scandinavia, and Matt Laupe of Metronome Finland, all presented Ahmet and Nesuhi Ertegun and Jerry Wexler with awards for the firm's 25th Anniversary.

Congratulations to ATLANTIC RECORDS on your 25th ANNIVERSARY

we are proud to have served you for the last 15
of those years.

Columbia Records, Video Tape Network Concerts On Campus

NEW YORK — Video Tape Network has devised a new promotion program for Columbia Records using the closed circuit TV systems of its 234 college affiliates throughout the United States.

Performances by Columbia recording artists are featured in a series of special half-hour shows called "VTN Free Concerts," distributed free of charge to VTN affiliate colleges for ten days of unlimited plays on their closed circuit monitors, located in high traffic areas all over campus.

The first "VTN Free Concert" is ready for distribution with complete performances by Poco, Santana, Loggins & Messina, The Mahavishnu Orchestra, Dr. Hook, The Rowan Brothers and Blood, Sweat & Tears.

Lollos Comments

John Lollos, vice president/creative director of VTN commented that "by playing the tape repeatedly on carefully located VTN television sets all over campus, we are able to deliver this kind of program to our audience exactly where and when they want to see it. The 'VTN Free Concert' adds an important new dimension to our schedule of more than 200 hours of programming specially selected for the college audience. One hundred non-affiliate schools will also be receiving the 'VTN Free Concert' over the next several months as a sample of our programming."

Programs on the VTN system consistently reach over 90% of the two million enrolled students on affiliated campuses. Affiliate member colleges are serviced with cassette and reel-to-reel TV programming on a weekly basis. The Video Tape Network also provides a specially designed automated cassette system for those schools that have no closed circuit telecast facilities.

Atlantic Begins Job Search For College DJs

NEW YORK — Gunter Hauer, Atlantic Records' college promo, director, announced that the company's college department has serviced the nation's commercial radio stations with the results of Atlantic's broadcasting employment program.

During the preceding four months, college students due to graduate this year have been invited to send Atlantic mini-resumes of their experience in college radio and their desired area of employment within the radio industry.

Atlantic has collated the material they have received into a report which has been forwarded to all of the company's commercial radio contacts. Should any of the radio stations involved be interested in interviewing any of the participants in the program, they will directly contact the students who mailed in their resume.

The company hopes that this program will be of service to both students and radio stations. Should the program receive a favorable reception, it will be repeated again this year for next year's graduating class.

James Brown Starts New Film Projects

NEW YORK — In the wake of "Black Caesar," his extraordinary successful motion picture soundtrack debut, soul superstar James Brown has lined up a number of major film projects, marking an important turn in his long and distinguished career. Polydor's aptly self-styled Godfather of Soul will play a leading role, in addition to composing duties, in the forthcoming sequel to "Black Caesar," proceeding immediately thereafter into scoring of a sequel to "Slaughter." Then Brown heads to the Republic of Senegal, where he will star as an African prince in a production by Senegalese filmmakers.

Meanwhile, in a long-awaited development, Brown is currently involved in negotiations for a film story of his life and career. Ten years after the idea was first suggested to him, production plans and contract discussions are finally near completion. Further details on the James Brown film biography will be announced shortly.

The gratifying response to his first venture in the motion picture medium has given a new direction to Brown's diversified career, with a characteristic emphasis on artistic and commercial control. Already guaranteed complete control over his forthcoming filmed biography, Brown intends to have a major say in all his future film projects. Towards this end, he is considering adding a motion picture production company to a business empire that already includes his own record production outfit, three radio stations and extensive real estate holdings.

"I'm definitely going into movies in a big way," he reports. "now that I can see how that industry influences Black life. As soon as I can assemble a good staff who will do what I want them to do, I'll be off and running."

In the sequel to "Black Caesar," which has already begun preliminary shooting in New York, Brown will play a private eye, his acting debut, as well as composing the score.

Although his extensive film participation will cut his almost non-stop schedule of public appearances by almost a third, he still plans to perform around the country as much as possible. A major West Coast tour is currently under way.

Westbound Sponsors Building Fund Show (Blue Collar Workers)

DETROIT — Martha Jean "The Queen" Steinberg, WJLB radio personality, reported that Westbound Records, a Detroit-based company, sponsored a successful show on March 30, at Local 876, as its contribution to "The Queen's Blue Collar Workers Of America" building fund.

This Movement was organized by "The Queen" about seven years ago. Today, the Movement has a membership of more than 6,000 and one-hundred active captains who are the leaders of the Movement. Recently, the Movement purchased a building at 10025 Grand River. Extensive rehabilitation must be completed before the building can be occupied. Plans for moving in are set for May, 1973. Date of grand opening to be announced.

Appearing on the show were: Denis LaSalle, The Ohio Players, Jimmy Delph, Donald "Crazy Legs" Austin, Rudy Robinson & His Hungry Five plus all WJLB radio personalities Jay Butler, Al Perkins, Claude Young, Ken Bell, Donny Simpson and newscaster James Reese.

Armen Boladian, president of Westbound Records and Bernie Mendelson, promotion man, remarked "we are just giving the people something back. They help us do our thing."

"We have contacted many of our friends in the industry and the response has been tremendous to our request for support and participation in the "Queen's Blue Collar Workers of America Foundation" building fund drive. Watch all media for reports on this drive. However, the trade publications will carry complete information. We always had faith in our friends in the industry because we know they care about the least of God's children," Martha Jean stated.

'Let The Good Times Roll' Columbia Film Release Depicts '50's Era

HOLLYWOOD — Metromedia Producers Corporation, makes feature films for television, and motion pictures for theatrical release. Columbia Pictures' "Let the Good Times Roll" is the current example of the company's unorthodox excursions into complete film entertainment.

Spearheaded by production chief Charles W. Fries, Metromedia Producers, against all Hollywood tradition, makes film without possessing a sound stage; shoots a feature using tape instead of film, and takes a classic like Shakespeare's "Othello" and shoots it as a rock musical.

"Let the Good Times Roll" stars Chuck Berry, Little Richard, Bill Haley and the Comets, Fats Domino, Chubby Checker, The Shirelles, Bo Diddley, The Five Satins and The Coasters, among others.

wisely injects. "Until you've been really used you haven't been loved. The fact that I'm worn and torn means I've served those who've played with me well."

Agrati's LP "Homegrown" is the type of record listeners will listen to often, and love, and play until it too is very worn. But then that's what good things are for. As for Don's immediate future plans he announced that he intends to sign with BNB Management. They currently handle The Carpenters and will be able to get him started performing live. Up until now Don has always performed to tape. All in takes is a little bit of ingenuity and resolute confidence to establish a true identity. Agrati's done it. ron barn

NEW YORK—LEONARD COHEN: LIVE SONGS

Columbia is about to release a new Leonard Cohen album—his first in more than two years. Entitled "Leonard Cohen: Live Songs," it features ten tunes recorded during various tours over the past several years. The record was produced by Bcb Johnston, who is also heard on organ, harmonics and guitar. The LP is about evenly divided between familiar Cohen fare and new material. In the former category are such vintage gems as "You Know Who I Am," "Bird On The Wire," "Tonight Will Be Fine," "Nancy" and "Story Of Isaac." Cohen's concert renditions of these differ from the original studio versions principally in the intensity which he brings to them, perhaps as a result of the simultaneous confrontation with a live audience. "Queen Victoria," a Cohen poem first published in 1964, has been set to music for the first time and, according to the album jacket, was recorded in a "room in Tennessee." London was the setting for two of the LP's most exciting cuts: "Passing Thru," a grim commentary on the relative importance of every day events, and "Please Don't Pass Me By," an appeal for compassion performed in singalong fashion, and culminating with an extremely startling series of ad-lib revelations concerning the artist himself. It's really quite something to hear and, judging from the audience reaction, it came as an unexpected jolt. Cohen plays acoustic guitar throughout the album and among the musicians assisting him are Ron Cornelius on electric guitar and Charlie Daniels on electric bass and fiddle. It all makes for an uncompromising, straightforward and even somewhat provocative album from one of the more unusually gifted artists of the day.

NEW YORK—ROGER GREENAWAY: SONGWRITER AND BUSINESS

Roger Greenaway, one half of the very successful British contemporary songwriting team of Cook and Greenaway, finds that his creative juices work best in his automobile.

"I spend two hours each day commuting to our office in London," says Greenaway, "and I put every minute to good use. I talk and sing to my tape recorder each morning and each evening, and get a great deal of my creative work done that way. Traffic jams don't annoy me at all. I just sing my way through them."

At the Cookaway office, Greenaway gets down to the business of running the publishing firm, which is administered by Dick James Music. Cook and Greenaway began their songwriting career with Dick James.

"George Martin took us to Dick James in 1967. It's been a very good association since then. George also took The Beatles to Dick back in 1963. He was their first publisher."

Roger Greenaway is visiting New York and Los Angeles to renew his contracts. "It's very important to retain your personal contacts. I've built up a wonderful rapport with the key men at the record companies and with many producers and artists. I think it's vital to keep up these relationships."

The British songwriter also is in New York to produce a new single for The Drifters. It's called "Like Sister And Brother," and is being co-produced by Billy Davis. The song was written by Cook and Greenaway and Jeff Stevens (Winchester Cathedral, Smile A Little Smile For Me.) It will be released by Bell Records.

Born in Bristol, England, Roger Greenaway first began his show business career as a singer with a group called The Kestrels. He remained with them for eight years during which time they toured with many established and upcoming groups.

"I remember when we played a series of concerts with The Beatles. They were unknowns at that time. The star of the bill was Helen Shapiro. I remember John and Paul writing "I Want To Hold Your Hand" late one night on the bus. I guess they also liked to write while in motion."

Greenaway met Roger Cook when Cook joined the Kestrels. Three months later the Kestrels broke up and Cook and Greenaway was born. They began to record together as "David and Johnathan," and had a big hit with the Beatle tune, "Michelle." They also started to write songs, and their first hit was "You've Got Your Troubles, I've Got Mine" which was a big hit with The Fortunes. Probably their best known song is "I'd Like To Teach The World To Sing" which they wrote with Bill Backer and Billy Davis.

Greenaway has given up performing as a singer, but Roger Cook has never stopped being an active performer. Cook is a member of the Blue Mink and has recently been recording as a single. His first record, "If It Wasn't The Reason" was recently released by Buddah.

POP BEST BETS

FAITH—Brown Bag BB-LA085-F
Terry Knight's latest group find is being marketed in Long Ranger style. The industry very interested in their identities, but nowhere in the packaging is any answer given. They don't sound like anyone else either. Kind of an amalgam of current rock vogues—group utilizes harmonies, pedal steel, Afro-percussion horns, heavy organ and other elements each in their own time and place. Best cut for FM play would be the contemplative "We're A Headed In The Same Way." Who is the masked group? Beats us, kemosabe.

TRANSMIGRATION MACABRE—Ravi Shankar—Spark SPA 06
This work is programmatic in content, originally composed for the British art film Viol. The music, like the film, traces one man who struggles with the belief that his wife has been reincarnated as a pursuing cat. Shankar's first effort for the label also features Alla Rakh Kamala Chakravarti and Les Structures So ores. FM programmers can help spark the sales here—they have always been into the music of the great sitar master.

COLD HANDS, WARM HEART—Bob Ruzicka—MCA 319
Bob's music fits quite nicely alongside the of the country and folk-influenced singer/composers who have emerged over the last few years. Recorded in Nashville, the album makes maximum use of such local colorful talents as Charlie McCoy, David Briggs and Kenn Malone. The Nashville Edition fill-in very gently for the vocal backdrop. Ruzicka's own voice is very clear and believable sweet; his tunes speak of both the frigid and the passionate aspects of human existence.

CHANSON D'AMOUR—Art & Dotty Todd—Beverly Hills BH 1137
While many are off to Nashville or London to do their sessions, Art & Dotty Todd have journeyed to Tokyo. There are arrangements here by both Yoshitarou Itoh and Don Ralke with the back-up courtesy of the Tokyo Symphony Orchestra. This is the pair's first LP in many years. It would hardly be complete without their biggest hit, the album's title track the new, very smooth arrangement here could be a chart item all over again for the duo. Their velvet harmonies have not lost one bit of their original sheen.

JAZZ PICKS

LIGHT AS A FEATHER—Chick Corea And Return To Forever—Polydor PD 5525
The keyboardman has formed a new group with Airto Moreira on percussion, Stanley Clarke on bass and Flora Purim on sensitive and sensual vocals. (She's kind of a cross between Astrud Gilberto and Dore Previn.) Recorded in London last October, the group's as mellow as excitement comes. Lyrics on three tracks were contributed by Neville Potter. Sounds like Chick has a conglomerate here that will see his basic following expand immensely and immediately.

SUNFLOWER—Milt Jackson—CTI 6024
It's been a number of years since Milt had a solo LP. He hasn't lost any of his internal vibes which enable him to create so much sense with the instrument of the same name. Quite a striking line-up of sidemen as well including Herbie Hancock, Freddie Hubbard and Ralph McDonald. Titled after a Hubbard composition, the album contains a gentler mood piece in a new interpretation of The Stylistics' hit "People Make The World Go Round" and a well molded original in "For Someone I Love." Once again, CTI does it in the packaging department, almost daring the buyer not to pick it out of the racks.

NEW YORK — Chappell and Co., music publishers, is initiating its exclusive WSM, Inc. international agreement with the publication of WSM Grand Ole Opry: Stars Of The 70's.

WSM and Chappell have jointly planned a unique series that will trace the 48-year history of the Grand Ole Opry chronologically. Otr books in the series will spotlight the show, its artists and music by decade.

Initiating the series, Stars Of The 70's features 11 top country stars and their recent hits. Hall, David Houston, Bob Luman, Loretta Lynn, Dolly Parton, Mel Tillis and Porter Wagoner. A short history of WSM initiates the soft-bound edition at $2.95.

The songs which are utilized were those requested by the stars themselves and appear through the cooperation of some of Nashville's major publishers. Included are "Detroit City," "Still," "Old Dogs, Children and Watermelon Wine," "Me And Jesus," "Almost Persuaded," "What About The Hurt" and "Coal Miner's Daughter."

National merchandising plans are being formulated by both Chappell and WSM. Stars Of The 70's will be on sale at Opryland concessions when the area opens on April 22. In addition, the book will be distributed through the extensive Chappell and WSM chain of outlets.

Scruggs Score, Concert Dates Are Announced

NEW YORK — Earl Scruggs, currently engaged with his entire Revue on a national tour, has been selected to write the motion picture score for "Where the Lilies Bloom," which is being produced by Robert B. Radnitz.

The assignment marks Scruggs' debut as a composer of a complete film score. He is the writer of "Foggy Mountain Breakdown," which he also performed in the score for "Bonnie and Clyde," several years ago. The Scruggs Revue, which also features sons, Randy and Gary Scruggs on lead and bass guitar respectively; Jody Maphis on drums and Josh Graves on dobro, will perform the score in the film's soundtrack.

The new score will be original except for two songs previously recorded by Scruggs. The film deals with four orphans in the North Carolina mountains who try to stay together as a family following the death of their father. Directed by William Graham, "Lilies" was adapted by Earl Hamner from the novel of the same name by Vera and Bill Cleaver. It was runner-up to "Sounder" for the 1970 Newberry Award for outstanding children's literature.

It was also announced that the Scruggs Revue is to appear in concert at the New York summer Schaefer Music Festival in Central Park in mid-August. Immediately upcoming dates include Cleveland (4/25); Cincinnati (4/26); Omaha (5/3); Fargo, N.D. (5/4); Dubuque (5/5); Dallas (5/8) and Montgomery College in Rockville, Md. (5/18).

Country Artist of the Week:

WAYLON JENNINGS

MAKER OF HITS—With a talent as big as Texas, the state where he was born, Waylon Jennings became one of the youngest disk jockeys in radio at the age of 12. Through his teens he spun records until he met Buddy Holly and joined his group as electric bass player. After Buddy's death, he formed his own group, The Waylors, and did club acts which combined country, folk and rock 'n roll. While performing he was "discovered" by Chet Atkins and signed to R.C.A. Records where he produces his own recordings. Waylon has appeared on virtually every country show in the nation as well as A.B.C. TV's "Anatomy of Pop" and hosted "Love of the Common People" a TV Special syndicated by Metromedia. He sings primarily his own original material in the more than a dozen albums he has recorded for R.C.A.

By 1971 Waylon had become a regular inhabitant of the top ten on the Country charts, with hits like "McCarthy Park", "The Taker", "Mississippi Woman", "You Can Have Her", "Good Hearted Woman", "Tulsa", "Loving Her Was Easier", with current top release being "You Can Have Her".

Waylon Jennings just performs with an eye toward the modern outlook on the music business and is a strong contender for the title of "Superstar of 1973".

Screen Gems-Columbia Opens Nashville Office; Tannen Appointed GM

NEW YORK — Lester Sill president of the music division of Columbia Pictures Industries, Inc. has announced the opening of a Screen Gems-Columbia/Colegms Music office in Nashville, Tennessee, which will function as a major adjunct to its offices in New York, Los Angeles, Europe, and its printing division, Screen Gems-Columbia Publications, in Miami.

Paul M. Tannen, who has been active in the music industry since 1961 in both the publishing and recording areas, will be in charge of the new office; his title will be general manager, Nashville operations.

From the Nashville headquarters, Tannen will also represent the company throughout the southern and south-western regions.

CMA Meets In New York

NASHVILLE — New York City's Plaza Hotel was the site of the Country Music Association's second quarterly board of directors meeting, April 12-13, which brought members from throughout the United States and Canada to discuss past achievements and prepare for up-coming activities such as the June Fan Fair and continuing programs aimed at combating tape piracy.

"New York was selected," according to CMA Executive Director Jo Walker, "because of CMA's desire to promote Country Music in a geographical area which had, prior to WHN's innovative programming change, been reluctant to explore the commercial appeal of Country Music."

As a part of the two day affair, a luncheon hosted by WHN-New York City's first and only full time Country Music Station, was attended by nearly 600 music industry and advertising agency representatives, and the press.

Immediately following the luncheon "The Sound of Country Music" was presented. The show, written by Bob Tubert and produced by Frank Jones, featured Merle Haggard with Bonnie Owens and The Strangers, Danny Davis and the Nashville Brass, and Demetriss Tapp. CMA Director Tex Ritter served as host and narrator.

The CMA has scheduled its third quarterly board meeting in Minneapolis, Minnesota on July 10 and 11th.

Performing Arts To Book Cmdr Cody Tour

NEW YORK — Agency for the Performing Arts has taken over booking of Commander Cody & His Lost Planet Airmen, and has the Paramount Records group opening a Spring tour April 20 at Winterland in San Francisco, then down to Southern California.

Following, the band will play the southwest and midwest for five weeks, performing with Sha Na Na on major dates.

Cody's new album, "Country Casanova" will be released prior to the tour, with Paramount distributing through its own independent distributors.

When the tour hits New York City in late May, Cody will present a huge party at which their manager Joe Kerr will divulge future tour plans for the group.

C&W Singles Reviews

Picks of the Week

JOHN WAYNE (RCA 74-0947)
The People (3:46) (Devere/Batjac, ASCAP—B. Liebert, J. Mitchum, H. Barnes)
 Although this "debut" single from the Duke is a bit lengthy, the solid sentiment up front in combination with strong background chorus and accompanying orchestration will make for a tremendous instant chart and programming winner. Other "people", such as those in MOR markets, will also be joining the bandwagon. Flip: The Good Things (2:42) (Devere/Batjac, ASCAP—B. Liebert, J. Mitchum, H. Barnes)

ROY DRUSKY (Mercury 73376)
That Rain Makin' Baby Of Mine (2:34) (Blue Crest/Hill & Range, BMI—D. Frazier, W. Robb)
 Roy's easy paced ballad looks to be a big chart winner as he portrays his somewhat less than satisfying relationship in a clear, easily relatable light. Programmers will be on this one in no time and listener response and chart action will solidify its stand. Flip: This Time Of The Year (2:43) (Moss Rose, BMI—B. Goodwin, S. Williams)

STONEWALL JACKSON (Columbia 4-45831)
The House Of Bottles And Cans (2:42) (John Riggs, ASCAP—J. Riggs)
 Still winning the battles, Stony's latest is a truly satisfying ballad with tremendous potential in both chart and programming areas. The theme is loneliness, but the future once again looks bright. Flip: no info. available.

EDDY ARNOLD (MGM K 1435)
If The Whole World Stopped Lovin' (2:33) (Shelby Singleton, BMI—B. Peters)
 Culled from Eddy's latest hit album, this Ben Peters ballad should be yet another powerful chart item for the country smoothie. Fine melody and orchestration might find this one crossing over into MOR markets as well as scoring naturally high in country areas. Flip: no info. available.

BOBBY G. RICE (Metromedia Country 68-0107)
You Give Me You (2:55) (Harpeth, ASCAP—T. Moon)
 Bobby solidly delivers this strong, sentimental country ballad stressing his love for his woman. Excellent vocal performance coupled with perfectly timed melodic steel guitar make this one a strong chart contender and a sure bet for listener recognition. Flip: no info. available.

JIMMY BUFFETT (Dunhill D-4348)
The Great Filling Station Holdup (2:58) (Let There Be Music, ASCAP—J. Buffett)
 A thoroughly entertaining country ditty guaranteed to reach the heights on country charts as well as experiencing strong pop crossover. The tale of a less than spectacular robbery, highlighted by excellent lyrics and great country musical backing, with the accent on steel guitar, makes Jimmy a name to watch in music circles. A great new talent, Flip: no info. available.

HANK LOCKLIN (RCA 74-0941)
Before My Time (2:50) (Ben Peters, BMI—B. Peters)
 From the opening steel guitar strains of this smooth, natural country ballad, Hank decisively proves that he can still deliver the hits. Country programmers should expect strong listener response and chart watchers will be seeing this one as it makes its way to the upper echelon. Flip: If Loving You Means Anything (2:30) (Combine, BMI—D. Ward, J. Chestnut)

JERRY LEE LEWIS (Sun SI-1130)
I Can't Trust Me In Your Arms Anymore (2:35) (International, BMI—McAlpin, Certain)
 Considering Jerry Lee's recent successes with his British "Session" album, this vintage tune comes as no surprise. A strong country song highlighted by steel guitar and Jerry Lee's vocals and keyboard make this one a strong contender and a pleasant recollection of his past work. Flip: no info. available.

FREDDIE HART (MCA 40011)
Born A Fool (3:17) (Jack O' Diamonds, BMI—A. Zanetis)
 Freddie's on a different label now, but there's nothing at all wrong with examining his earlier days which is exactly what this strong ballad does and does well at that. Smooth, tender vocals and background chorus with sweet orchestration all add up to a serious chart item and another popular programming entity. Flip: My Anna Maria (2:56) (Touchdown Music, BMI—O. Couch, E. McDuff, S. Coleman)

LESTER FLATT AND MAC WISEMAN (RCA 74-0922)
Waiting For The Boys To Come Home (2:14) (Stamps-Baxter Music and Printing, BMI—L. Presley)
 Although this laid back bluegrass tickler might have been more lyrically apropos a year ago, the sentiment of ending war and bringing the troops home is still a thought to ponder. Mac and Lester will tantalize programmers and listeners as this one sneaks up the charts. Flip: Blue Ridge Cabin Home (2:28) (Golden West Melodies, BMI—Certin, Stacy)

RAY SMITH (Cinnamon C-755)
Tilted Cup Of Love (3:35) (Lewis Willis-Bluffer, BMI—B. Terry, T. Pairamore)
 Leaving is easier said than done in this easy paced western ballad from Ray Smith. Solid lyrics make this a definite high chart contender. Flip: I've Traded Better For Worse (2:58) (Mar-Tay-Cinnamon, ASCAP—M. Taylor)

Buck Owens hosted the press conference which was attended by over 100 guests and members of the press.

The tournament, initiated in memory of Buck Owens' brother Mel who died of cancer in 1971, has been successful in raising thousands of dollars for cancer research and has had the support of celebrities and sports figures from all over the country.

Last year's participants included Sammy Davis, Jr., Rafer Johnson, Jan Murray, Maury Wills, Peter Marshall and Don Sutton.

Concert Associates Producing Country

HOLLYWOOD — Bob Eubanks is celebrating his first year back in the concert promotion business. He founded Concert Associates in 1968 and sold it subsequently to Filmways. In 1971 he decided to return to the concert business and founded Concert Express with the intention of doing perhaps ten concerts a year in the Los Angeles area.

The first concerts the company did included Buffy St. Marie, Three Dog Night, Procol Harum, Dave Mason, Randy Newman, Jazz Crusaders, Sergio Mendes, Jose Feliciano, Carlos Montoya, Buddy Miles, Cold Blood, Jim Croce and Judee Sill. In October the company produced Roberta Flack and Quincy Jones for a full week at the Los Angeles Music Center.

Finally in November Bob promoted four Merle Haggard concerts in California and this started a general shift of the company's activities into the country field. Since then Concert Express has promoted Merle Haggard Shows in Oklahoma, Texas, Kansas, Louisiana and Missouri. Additionally the company has promoted dates with Marty Robbins and Porter Wagoner's Show. Upcoming country tours include Merle Haggard in the midwest, and Conway Twitty and Loretta Lynn, Freddie Hart, George Jones and Tammy Wynette, Sonny James and Tom T. Hall.

Concert Express this year has also promoted concerts with Jerry Lee Lewis, Eagles, Linda Ronstadt, the Giants of Jazz, Neil Young at the Forum, Sha Na Na and the Guess Who.

Country LP Reviews

KIDS SAY THE DARNDEST THINGS—Tammy Wynette—Epic KE-31937

The creative children's art on the album cover is only a delightful introduction to the superlative material included within. The First Lady of Country Music has done it again, this time through the eyes of a child and, that subject matter in tandem with Tammy's great vocals and sensitive treatment of material, makes for one of the most entertaining albums to come from the country in quite some time. Spearheading this collection of eleven songs is the hit title cut and Tammy's "D-I-V-O-R-C-E," but the rest is not far behind in sheer power and believability. Included are "Buy Me A Daddy," "Bedtime Story" and "Don't Make Me Go To School." This album is simply the next brilliant chapter in the career of the First Lady and, by the way, isn't it time for the rest of the world to sit up and take notice?

GOOD TIME CHARLIE—Charlie McCoy—Monument KZ-32215

Charlie is the most prolific harmonica player to possibly ever come about in music and his soulful treatments of his material, plus thoroughly delightful covers of recent major hits, make this "Good Time" collection one of the most enjoyable to come round the bend in quite some time. Those cuts deserving of special interest and attention are Charlie's current smash "Orange Blossom Special," "Is Anybody Going To San Antone," "Good Time Charlie's Got The Blues" and "Soul Song." But don't ignore the other seven. All are powerhouse and all are absolutely Charlie McCoy and that in itself is saying a lot.

ALONE—Chet Atkins—RCA APL1-0159

There's not much left to say about Chet Atkins that hasn't already been said. To further praise Nashville's finest guitarist seems unnecessary but this collection of brilliant material is seemingly Chet at his best (which seems to be the case with each passing album). Specifically highlighting this package is Kris Kristofferson's much recorded "Me And Bobby McGee" but portrayed in an entirely new and entertaining light, as well as "The Claw," "Flop Eared Mule And Other Classics" and "Londonderry Air." Another very necessary Atkins collection which should be gracing not only those country collections but those pop and MOR as well.

TAKE TIME TO LOVE HER/I USED IT ALL ON YOU—Nat Stuckey—RCA—APD1-0080

Nat is a fast coming country artist with an extremely bright future and this album should do much to further that cause. Leading the pack is his current Top Ten single hit "Take Time To Love Her" as well as finely rendered cover versions of Mac Davis' "Baby Don't Get Hooked On Me" and Danny O'Keefe's "Good Time Charlie's Got The Blues." It won't take long for this collection to start appearing on the album charts and from there the rise will be rapid. This year looks to be brighter than bright for this talented young performer.

COUNTRY BOY—Lester Flatt—RCA APL1-0131

A perfectly titled album for the legendary Lester Flatt because it would seem ridiculous to consider the man anything but the country genius he has been for so long now. This latest solo collection (with the assistance of a few very talented studio musicians) is yet another dose of great bluegrass and country music from Lester and is destined to be rising on the charts before too long. Highlights include "Feudin' Banjos" (a fevered "Dueling Banjos"), "Nashville Grass Breakdown" and "Don't Get Above Your Raisin' ". In this second stage of his tremendously successful career, Lester Flatt is looking stronger and more full of vitality than ever before.

MIDNIGHT FLYER—Osborne Brothers—MCA 311

The brothers are back with another strong collection of country tunes chock full of high, tight harmonies and high powered orchestration which all creates an atmosphere of good time country mood and feel. Leading the album off in fine high style is the title track which is immediately followed by the feverish "Long Lanky Woman." Other points of interest appear on "Tears," the classic "Wabash Cannonball" and "Miss You Mississippi." This album looks to be a strong chart winner and a piece of future security for the Osbornes who are quickly becoming a major name in country music.

A new record label to be known as Raft has been formed by WEA and Ian Ralfini has appointed Martin Wyatt (Formerly A & R Controller) to head the team assisted by John Darnley and Hillary Shaw. Object of the label is to "pool the resources of experienced artists, managers and record people with new talent to form a totally involved team which can work together to help and establish acts new to the recording scene." Initial release on Raft will feature two existing WEA acts—Family who will transfer from Reprise and Linda Lewis. Family's manager Tony Gourvish will also be involved in seeking new talent both for production and management. Ralfini told Cash Box WEA as a company has always tried to keep its labels identifiable and personalised. My intention in forming Raft is to extend this principal to create a forum where those involved in the many different aspects of the record business can talk through ideas on music, performance, production promotion etc. I feel that today it is vital to foster a close relationship with your artists. The structure of Raft will allow this and encourage it to its fullest extent." Distribution of Raft in the U.K. will be through WEA and international outlets are currently being finalised. Elektra will handle the label in the States.

Still with the WEA scene Dave Dee (remember Dave Dee, Dozy, Beaky, Mick and Tich) has joined the Atlantic label as a & r manager with responsibilities of acquiring new talent for the label and to maintain close liaison with current Atlantic artistes. A major step toward European unification of releases and marketing was taken by RCA Records when representatives from sixteen subsidiaries and licensees met in Rome. Jim Bailey, international marketing head for Europe conducted the meetings and took as his theme the development of specific merchandising and promotion plans for the company's artists, both established and upcoming. Delegates heard that RCA Records have featured in the charts in nearly all the European countries in recent months with particular success with David Bowie, The Sweet, Middle of the Road, Dave Edmunds, Elvis Presley, Jose Feliciano, Nilsson and others. Future classical releases were highlighted and there was also a one-day discussion of tape release and marketing programmes and a visit to RCA Italy's tape duplication facility. Bailey said "Our goal is to turn RCA's efforts from a country-by-country operation into an overall European drive."

Threshold are moving into the quadrophonic market. All Moody Blues product (with the exception of "In Search of The Lost Chord—which will be transcribed at a later date) has been remixed by Tony Clarke into quad and will be available initially in the States and Japan within the next four weeks. British release will be set as soon as Decca enter into the quad market and all future Threshold product will be recorded in quad.

Stephen James has concluded a deal with Jack Levin of Atlantic productions for worldwide exclusive rights to the soundtrack of "England Made Me" starring Peter Finch, Michael York and Hildegard Neil. Soundtrack album with music composed by John Scott and played by the London Philharmonic will be released on DJM to coincide with the film's London opening May 10th.

OPs From 15 States Jam Second Annual MOA Biz Seminar

HARLAN WINGRAVE

NOTRE DAME — Fifty three registrants, representing 15 states, attended the second annual MOA seminar conducted by the Center for Continuing Education at the University of Notre Dame.

"Attendance was good, although short of the number we expected," said MOA president Harlan Wingrave "however, the subject matter and the professors' presentations were impeccably delivered. The many participants I spoke to during the various break periods were unanimous in their praise of the program."

The seminar sessions began on Friday April 13th at 9:00 AM with a welcoming speech by president Wingrave.

Subjects dealt with in both lectures and workshop sessions were: New Perspectives on Operator Economics, by Dr. John R. Malone; Making and Implementing Personnel Decisions, by Dr. William Sexton; Communications: A Key to More Profitable Business Relations, by Dr. Sal Bella. Fred Granger said the discussion workshop sessions, which required a give and take discussion between instructor and the operators, was extremely lively and produced a sizable amount of information which will, as he put it, "be of invaluable use to the operators back home on the route."

Tradesters in attendance were: Barry Addison, Robert I. Allendy, Clayton Ballard, Robert Bender, Bill Bogle, John H. Cameron, Rodney Clennon, Fred Collins, Jr., John Cooper, Ralph Cragan, Ronny DeHaven, John Elum, John Estridge, Frank Fabiano, Kelly Flynn, W. R. Gorman, Red Hanna, Wayne Hesch, Orville Heinz, Nate Hockman, Maynard C. Hopkins, Benny Koss, Michael Leonard, Sheryl Leonard, John MacQuivey, Ken Malick, Culver McKinley, Ed Miller, Marvin Nissenbaum, Richard Peyton, Len Peyton, Norman Pink, Ben Plicker, Joe Priolo, Bob Rondeau, Lovell Rousseau, Anthony Schiavoni, Carl Sikes, Helen Sikes, Max Spaulding, James Stevens, Carol Stevens, Pat Storino, Anthony Storino, John Trucano, Don VanBrackel, Larry VanBrackel, Roger VanBrackel, Richard Vessa, Harlan Wingrave, Gwen Wingrave, Jack Young and Fred Zempke.

Rally TV'er In Full Pdt'n/Shipping

LOS ANGELES — ACA Sales and Service, national sales agents for the For-Play Mfg. Co. 'Rally' video game, announced last week that both full production and shipping to dealers has been achieved. Mickie Greenman, sales vice president for ACA, declared "our distributors throughout the country are now receiving Rally games in bulk delivery and are in a position to fill operator orders almost immediately."

Greenman said the video piece took off "like a hit record" and that orders had far outdistanced delivery (even though the game has been officially on the market for less than two months). "A hit in anything can catch the shipper short but that's no longer the case. This type of game as everyone knows, has prompted quite a bit of competition between the various factories making one on the same principle. I can confidently predict that the heavy production and shipping program here will put us in the number one position, if we're not there already," he claimed.

Greenman believes the success of their piece lies in three factors. As he put it: "our cabinet does not restrict the piece to arcades as do some others; there are no restrictive borders around the sides of the TV screen, enabling the player to score a tennis ace out the corner, and our ball speed starts up slowly before picking up speed. This enables the novice to get his feet wet in video tennis . . . some other games are too fast right off the bat and scare the novice away."

Among the distributors currently handling the Rally game in the States are: Eastern Music Systems (Philadelphia), Cleveland Coin Machine Exchange, Southeastern Distributors, Lakeland Int'l, Mountain Distributors, Sutherland Distributors, Sandler Vending, Southern Amusement, Dunis Distributing, Robert Jones Int'l, Godwin Distributing, Lew Jones Distributing, World Wide Distributors, South Alta Atlantic Distributors, Bilotta Distributing and Advance Automatic Distributing.

ABT Coin Meter Kits

ROCKFORD, ILL — A new line of Coin Meter Kits, "the Galaxy Series," is now being marketed by ABT, manufacturer of coin mechanisms, Rockford, Illinois.

Galaxy Coin Chutes for the new kits are offered in single and double models. It is reported that improved design, employing advanced engineering and manufacturing techniques, permits smoother operation. Stainless steel springs give the new chutes extra durability. Magnetic principle provides positive ferrous slug protection.

The new Galaxy Coin Vault offers larger capacity than any other vault on the market, according to company spokesmen. Heavy 12-gauge high tensile steel faceplate protects the lock. Several different locks are offered, including Abloy, Illinois Duo, Medico, Cop-Lok and Standard Ace Lock.

New Cleveland Coin Toledo Branch Boasts Superior Decor & Service

TOLEDO, OHIO — Cleveland Coin Machine Exchange recently opened brand new headquarters for their Toledo branch at 528 South St. Clair, according to firm president Ron Gold. The branch, managed by CleCoin veteran Stanley Knoll, boasts 9,000 sq. ft. of space, encompassing office, shop and warehouse with two inside loading docks. The famed CleCoin service Dept. here is run by Bob Free.

Gold stated: "I must admit to a great deal of pride in our new branch office. In-as-much as our leasing and sales program have expanded greatly in the last five years, it was our judgment that our customers deserved this superior facility."

Gold continued, saying: "our leasing division, coin machine leasing corporation has grown extensively in this same period. We continue to offer to our customers a rather unique service of accounting and legal counseling. We have found that some of the smaller firms need a bit of help in proper accounting methods and we have offered the service of our accounting firm in an advisory capacity. The net result of a properly managed operating firm is a benefit to both the operator and the distributor.

ChiCoin Releases Revolutionary New 'Trap Shoot' Gun

CC TRAP SHOOT

CHICAGO — Now shipping to the trade, Chicago Coin's new Trap Shoot game is a combination of inventive skill and sensational action. Chuck Arnold, Chicago Coin marketing director, was at his most enthusiastic during an interview at which he said, "We've just designed a dual console shooting game that is an incredible money maker. People have actually waited in line to play the game."

Arnold said that Trap Shoot has a simulated 12-gauge over-and-under shotgun which is fired at a moving lighted trap in the backfield. When the target is hit anywhere along its trajectory, it shatters. The game has sound effects to match the firing of the shotgun and the shattering of the trap.

If a player hits 12 traps in a row, he can continue until he misses or reaches 20.

Arnold mentioned that "Trap Shoot is based on real shooting contests. Accuracy requirements can be adjusted to test all levels of firing skill and timing. Our dual console design makes floor installation flexible because the gun console can be moved closer to or farther from the display console according to available space."

The game is set for 25¢ play. Arnold feels Trap Shoot is an especially effective attention getter when several games are placed side-by-side.

Kaufman also expects to see additional tradesmen join the committee this anniversary year and will hope the regular committeemen will bring in additional help.

EASTERN FLASHES

AROUND TOWN—Our congrats to Al Denver, Ben Chicofsky and the rest of the MONEY brass for coming up with a terrific technique for curtailing the breakin' problem in Fun City. It involves a simple decal (measuring about 6" square) designed to be pasted onto the location's front window. Set inside an official-looking shield, the copy warns that a $500 reward will be paid to anyone whose identification of a location burglar leads to arrest and conviction (copy is available in both English and Spanish). The decal, which lends an authoritative air that the location is protected by an official security agency, is available to MONEY members at cost (something like a dime apiece). It's a no-nonsense program which Denver says will "undoubtedly reduce breakin's and malicious mischief to our equipment." A few thousand already are in evidence around the city. . . . Harold Kaufman proudly announced that the 1973 UJA Coin Division Campaign will officially get underway Thursday May 3rd with first meeting of the executive committee at UJA Headquarters on 58th. Show gets on the road at 6:00 PM, beginning with the traditional buffet and liquid refreshments. As this is the 25th anniversary year for Israel, Harold is looking for a super campaign and hopes all on the committee will come down for the meeting. . . . ACA's Mickie Greenman due back to New York for a couple of week's vacation/business. He's quite happy these days with their hit game 'Rally'.

FROM THE BUCKEYE STATE—Clint Shockey and the Royal Distributing gang will host a gala showing of Wurlitzer's brand new 'Jukebox' on Sunday April 29th. The festivities, crowned by a grand reveal of the new "antique" wonder-machine, will take place at the Cincy Marriott Inn's Nautilus Room from 6:30 PM till midnight. Buffet, cocktails and doorprizes will add to the glamour. . . . Cleveland Coin's Ron Gold back from quickie trip to South America setting up some new customers down there. . . . MOA's Notre Dame operator seminar scored another success, weekend before last, with a near full house of operators and other traders in attendance. See story elsewhere.

HEADING SOUTH—Old buddy Nat Bailen (Urban Industries proxy) booking reat orders for new products call "Sex Tester" and "Visual Response Analyzer", units are being distributed by (among others) New Orleans Novelty Co., Cleveland Coin Exchange, Empire Dist. in Chicago, Central Distributing, New Way Sales Toronto), Central in St. Louis. ACA Sales in Oakland, Eli Ross in Florida and Robert Jones Int'l in Dedham (Boston). More dealers are now being lined up for the new arcade items. By the way, to those readers who wondered who that cutie pie posing with the "Sex Tester" was, it's Nat's hard working secretary. . . . Gail Hood at Peabody's Inc., Va. Beach-based national distributors of the Rene Pierre football table line, says they've been lining up sub-distributors throughout the country at a heady pace. "Quality will out," says Gail, "and the Pierre equipment is the best in the business," she proudly adds.

UPSTATE NEW YORK—The New York State Operators Guild met Wed. night April 18th for their regular monthly meeting. Location was the Cameo Restaurant in Newburgh. . . . Al Kress (Cortlandt Amusement) and his family drove up to the Catskills Sunday before last for visit with Vic McCarthy and his family. . . . Nat Lockman of Wurlitzer echoes factory bliss at press reception of their new Jukebox. The antique machine, as it's referred to, is a near sellout on the distributor level, so operators who are anxious to get a couple had better put their orders in immediately. A. D. Palmer at the Tonawanda factory says the amount of newspaper and broadcast space given to the nostalgic machine was "tremendous, and a beautiful thing to behold when spread out on the desk."

HERE AND THERE—Ben Chicofsky says it's "standing-room-only" status at the combined associations convention at the Mt. Airy Lodge in the Poconos. "Be a full house of operators, wives and other guests coming in from all over the state," notes Ben. PS: the anniversary journal that they assemble for the weekend is another hit, with plenty of ads from recording artists and companies in combination with congratulatory announcements from juke concerns. . . . Atlanta veteran John Nex has been appointed to the sales staff at the Wurlitzer Dist. Company's Denver branch. He and his wife Joan will be moving out there later this month. Good fortune in the new spot, John. . . . Dot Records has a budding "jukebox" on its hands—jukebox in the sense that label sources say the machines are putting it on the map with a minimum of air play and, it's making good coin. Disk, by Howard Crockett, is called 'Last Will and Testimony'. An estimated 40,000 copies have already been sold to operators thru such one stops as Harv Campbell's Mobile operation out of Pittsburgh. Dot purchased the master from a Dallas-based label called American Records. We understand it's like Cash's 'Boy Named Sue' and you all know how well that did for the trade. . . . Wometco Enterprises, a little company that started in Florida in vending and his since grown into one of the major conglomerate stock companies, acquiring everything from Coke franchises to TV production companies, now bought the Webster Outdoor Advertising operation, Florida's largest outdoor media company.

An arcade is a special place!

The FLYING ACE is the first American made game designed expressly for arcades. An exciting combat flying game, it is equipped with cockpit-contoured seat, panoramic screen with large, realistic plane images, twin, tracer-firing machine guns and joystick and all the sounds of aerial combat: engines, machine gun bursts, explosions and dives.

Eight hits wins bonus time, but when the pilot downs 14 planes he wins additional bonus time, plus:

A wild police siren begins wailing.

The big red light on top of the game starts flashing.

The pilot wins his medal—a specially inscribed Flying Ace Token.

Continued player appeal is guaranteed by offering two interchangeable discs with each unit: a disc of German World War II fighters and bombers and a disc of World War I Fokker combat planes.

The name of the game is "Paddle Ball" and it's the new t.v. ping pong un which was just recently sample shipped by Williams Electronics Inc. Distributor across the country have been most enthusiastic about it, Bill DeSelm tells us. A matter of fact, no sooner had samples been received when quantity orders began pouring in to the factory!

ON SUNDAY, APRIL 29, Royal Dist. Corp. of Cincinnati will host a gala showing of new products at the Marriott Inn. Affair begins at 6:30 PM and the invitation states that "something new and exciting from Wurlitzer" will be spotlighted during the festivities!

RECEIVED WORD FROM Wurlitzer Dist. Corp.'s manager of branches Dic Williams in DeKalb, Ill., of the promotion of Larry Vaughn to manager of WDC's San Francisco branch. Vaughn formerly served as manager of WDC's Atlanta office.

CENTER OF EXCITEMENT AT D. Gottlieb & Co.—"Jack In The Box", the firm's current running 4-player which is proving to be "the most phenomenal selling game we've ever had" and that's a direct quote from Alvin Gottlieb! "In the final analysis," he added, "this unit will rank as the longest, most consistent running of any game in our history!" . . . Within the next few weeks Gottlieb will be sample shipping its latest 2-player called "Jumping Jack"—so watch for it! . . . The only disturbing note mentioned in our conversation with Alvin was the problem of increasing prices of materials. "I'm sure most of the factories are plagued by these selective skyrocketing prices," he said, referring to the pricing of the various metals and materials used in the manufacture of games. "We sometime experience two and three price increases in the short period of a couple of months." As he further noted, this certainly hampers a factory's efforts to keep the price of games at a palatable level.

AT PRESSTIME Rock-Ola Mfg. Corp.'s field engineer Bill Findlay was getting ready to conduct a service school at the Empire Dist. office in Grand Rapids . . . George Hincker was telling us how successful the recent NAMA Western Conference was. He and several of Rock-Ola's execs and sales reps make the trip to San Diego to man the firm's exhibit. George also mentioned that the Rock-Ola phonograph line will most likely be shown at the Milan convention by the factory's Italian rep Dr. Vittorio M. Franceschini of Manitoba.

INCIDENTAL INFO: Zenith Radio Corp.'s ten millionth color TV set recently came off the assembly line. Every one of the ten million units was produced at the firm's west side plant, here in Chicago—U.S.A.! A company spokesman said ". . . we plan to continue to manufacture all Zenith color TV sets in the United States, and to further expand our U.S. production facilities." The set, by the way was presented to President Nixon who, in turn, contributed it to the Veterans Administration for use in a new VA hospital.

MILWAUKEE MENTIONS

Big event in this area last weekend was the Metropolitan Milwaukee ops group championship playoffs held at the Milwaukee Expo Center. Thankfully, the horrible snowstorm which hit Milwaukee a few days before the playoffs began was just an unhappy memory which did not hamper attendance in any way. Later this month the individual 8-ball tournament (co-sponsored by Wisconsin Novelty and G & W Venders) will hold their finals at Jefferson Hall in Fond du Lac.

LOCAL DISTRIBS AND OPS are heaping praise on the games manufacturers for the superb lineup of equipment currently on the market. Baseball games, hockey units, the t. v. ping pong games which have been so very popular (and profitable) these past weeks, foosballs, pinballs, novelty items—we could go on and on! Suffice it to say, consensus of opinion here indicates the current season will be a recordbreaker!

ROCK-OLA PHONOS ARE IN THE SPOTLIGHT at Hastings Dist. Inc. "Can't keep 'em in stock," said Jack Hastings—who's expecting a shipment of 447's momentarily! Valley pool tables have also been very consistent out there, according to Jack.

ROB HAUBER OF RADIO DOCTORS tells us he's received quite a stock of hi. LLP material from both Goldmor and Little LP's Unlimited in Connecticut. Among the hottest items from Goldmor are Al Green's "I'm Still In Love With You"; Billy Paul's "180 Degrees" and the new Harold Melvin & Blue Notes package. Sellers from LLP's Unlimited catalog include Herb Alpert's Greatest Hits; Best Of Lennie Dee; Billy Holiday's Greatest Hits; and Wes Montgomery's "A Day In The Life".

SEGA Line to World Wide Distrib

CHICAGO — Officials of Sega Enterprises of Tokyo, and Nathan Feinstein, president of World Wide Distributors, Inc., Chicago, have announced the appointment of World Wide as authorized factory distributors. In addition to products of Sega Enterprises, World Wide also will distribute games manufactured by Sega subsidiaries: Segasa of Madrid, and Alca Electronics Ltd. of London.

Choice of World Wide to represent the Sega group was influenced by "the excellent track record World Wide has established as a coin machine distributor. Their progressive policies and the consistently fine service they render make them a strong link in our international chain of distributors," it was said.

"In Sega, we feel that we are bringing games that rate among the best in the industry to our many operator friends," Nate Feinstein stated.

"In design, dependable quality and popularity, they provide everything needed for profitable operating."

V. P. Fred Skor, World Wide's director of sales, advised that the following games will soon be available for prompt delivery: Sega's Grand National Race and Match Lock; Segasa's Red Baron and El Alamein; Alca's Sky Gunner and Attack.

Bruck New Veep at Banner/Philly

PHILADELPHIA — Effective April 30, 1973, Alan Bruck assumes the position of vice president of sales and marketing in the Philadelphia headquarters of Banner Specialty Co., replacing Marc Rodstein who has resigned in order to pursue other interests.

Alan Bruck is a quarter-century member of the industry having started his games, music and vending business career on a part time basis when still in high school and continuing while attending Temple University in Philadelphia. Immediately after this he began to discharge corporate officer's roles in Amuse-A-Mat Corporation and Variety Vending System until 1961 when these two companies were acquired by the Macke Company.

Since 1961 to the present time Bruck has been in a key role in the Keystone Region of that firm. Over the past six years, he has actively served the Pennsylvania Automatic Merchandising Council, for three years as treasurer and presently as a member of the board of governors.

ALAN BRUCK

"It is expected that Alan's vast storehouse of knowledge, gained over these past twenty-five years, will add significantly to Banner's function as the Operator's Distributor," firm president Al Rodstein declared.

Rock Juke Wins Honors Again In Venezuela Vote

CARACAS — For the second year in a row, the Rock-Ola Console Deluxe phonograph was awarded a special diploma for the "best record player" (jukebox) in the opinion of bartenders, waiters, cooks and clients of locations in Venezuela.

This newest award is for the Model 447 for 1972. The Model 446 won the same honors previously in 1971. As announced by Manfred E. Sobottka, president of International Commercial Zuliana S.E. (INCOZA), Rock-Ola's giant phonograph distributor in Maracaibo, Venezuela, the special diploma was issued by an important organization of the Federal District and State of Miranda, and was presented at a gala banquet in the Hotel Tamanaco in Caracas.

"Models 446 and 447 have won the hearts of patrons and jukebox operators all over the world," Sobottka said upon receiving the award. "The Model 446 set a new standard for phonographs all over the world and this standard of excellence has been continued with the Model 447."

Pictured are Mr. Manfred E. Sobottka and his General Manager and the diploma reads "This is a diploma which the people of the Federal District and State of Miranda by popular vote award to Rock-Ola as the best money operated player (jukebox)."
