ON THE COVER ELTON JOHN

BY ALEX HENDERSON

MCA RECORDS IS SPOTLIGHTING ELTON JOHN'S 20-YEAR CAREER with the release of to be continued..., a four-CD/four-cassette boxed set containing many of the pop-rock singer/composer's major hits as well as important sides that weren't among his lost list of hits. ...to be continued will range from original master recordings of mega-hits like "Philadelphia Freedom," "Tiny Dancer," "Daniel," "Rocket Man" and "I Guess That's Why They Call It The Blues" to a previously unreleased demo of "Your Song" to the 1965 recording "Come Back Baby," which John recorded as a member of Bluesology. Andy McKaie, vice president, catalog development and special products for MCA Records, compiled the boxed set with John himself and his long-time songwriting partner, Bernie Taupin. "Our basic intent was to cover career highlights and give insights into some of the nooks and crannies as well," McKaie explains. "Some Top-20 hits are missing, but we had to leave some out in order to accomodate B sides, alternate takes and rare material. We cover as much territory as possible within the context of five hours of music, spread over four CDs." O

MCA And Matsushita Sign Merger Agreement

UNIVERSAL CITY, CALIFORNIA and OSAKA, JAPAN-MCA Inc. and Matsushita Electric Industrial Co., Ltd. today jointly announced that they have signed a definitive agreement providing for the acquisition of MCA by Matsushita for $66 per share in cash. As part of the transaction, MCA shareholders will also receive shares in the MCA subsidiary which owns WWOR-TV, MCA's independent television station based in Seccaucus, New Jersey. The aggregate value of the transaction to MCA shareholders will be approximately $6.13 billion plus the value of the WWOR-TV shares.

The definitive agreement provides for a cash tender offer by a wholly owned Matsushita subsidiary of $66 for each share of MCA's common stock. MCA has approximately 92.8 million fully diluted shares. The tender offer will commence no later than November 30, 1990, and will be followed by a cash merger in which any shares not tendered will be acquired at the same price. It is expected that the offer will be consummated by early 1991.

The boards of directors of both companies have approved the transaction.

Simultaneously with the execution of the merger agreement, the MCA board of directors declared a special dividend of all of the WWOR-TV shares on the basis of one WWOR-TV share for every five MCA shares. Subject to certain conditions, the dividend will be paid immediately prior to the closing of the tender offer to all MCA shareholders of record on the date the tender offer expires. Upon payment of the dividend, the corporation which owns WWOR-TV will become a stand-alone, publicly traded company.

In an effort to be responsive to environmental and other concerns which have been raised, MCA and Matsushita intend to sell Yosemite Park and Curry Company to a qualified American buyer within twelve months after the closing of the acquisition. All net income generated by the Yosemite concession in the interim will be donated to the National Park Foundation for the benefit of Yosemite National Park and the National Park System. Prior to the sale, Yosemite Park and Curry Company will be held in escrow and operated by its existing management and board. Neither MCA nor Matsushita will play a role in the management of the Yosemite concession.

MCA and Matsushita said the transaction will not result in any other significant changes in MCA's structure or operation. MCA will continue to operate under its own name and will be run by its existing management. Lew Wasserman, chairman of the board and chief executive officer, and Sid Sheinberg, president and chief operating officer, will remain in their current positions along with other senior managers.

No changes are planned on the MCA board of directors as a result of the transaction although a majority of additional directors will be named by Matsushita.

Both companies emphasized that as a result of the transaction, MCA does not intend to make any changes in its management or staff as it is now structured, and that no decreases in employment levels are planned.

In a joint statement, Mr. Wasserman and Mr. Akio Tanii, president of Matsushita, said that both companies are committed to maintaining the creative independence which has established MCA at the forefront of the entertainment industry. They said it is their common goal that the artists, writers, directors and producers associated with MCA continue to produce great works of entertainment in a stable and supportive atmosphere. They also said the combination will provide MCA with significant resources for the development of major entertainment projects in new areas and that it will increase MCA's access to evolving international markets.

Matsushita said it fully shares MCA's commitment to preserving MCA's film library, the world's largest film collection. Matsushita recognizes that MCA's film library is a precious national resource and has pledged to dedicate resources to MCA's continuing efforts to restore and preserve America's films.

Mr. Tanii said, "We have long regarded MCA as the leading company in its field. Its management, in which we have complete confidence, has done an outstanding job of building its film, music, themed entertainment and publishing businesses. One of the primary reasons for entering into this relationship is our great respect for the wisdom and judgment of MCA mangement. We are particularly pleased that this management will continue to plan and direct MCA's future. We are also honored to form this association with the many creative individuals whose talent and artistic expression are unrivaled elsewhere in the world."

"l am pleased that MCA will be joining with a company which has a long history characterized by global vision and a consistent commitment to the enrichment of lives and culture around the world," said Mr. Wasserman. "This agreement, which was consumated on an entirely friendly basis, will create synergies that neither company could achieve alone. The combination of MCA's creative talent with Matsushita's high-technology research and manufacturing capabilities will create strong, long-term participation in an increasingly global marketplace."

Mr. Sheinberg added, "The conviction that MCA must enter into a major strategic relationship did not come to me quickly or easily. However, the expansion of our business and the changes that have occured on the world entertainment scene have convinced me that entering into such a relationship is nothing short of a duty we owe our shareholders, our employees, our creative colleagues and indeed all those with whom we enjoy relationships.

"It is clear to me that Matsushita possesses the resources as well as the complementary skills, services, and products which offer the potential of great future success. They have indicated their respect for our autonomy and our company culture," Mr. Sheinberg continued. "I am convinced that this alliance will best assure MCA's future success."

Matsushita has been operating in the United States since 1959 and had American sales of $5.4 billion in the fiscal year ended March 31, 1990. Its brand names include Panasonic, Quasar and Technics. Matsushita Electric Corporation of America (MECA) has operations in 26 states. MECA employs more than 9,000 people in the United States at 13 manufacturing plants, seven research facilities and more than 140 sales and service centers. Matsushita has an American unit whose purpose is to promote the export of U.S.-made products to Japan and the rest of the world. Matsushita also imports into Japan some $600 million a year worth of U.S. products.

Instead of receiving cash in the tender offer, Mr. Wasserman will exhange all of the approximately five million shares of MCA common stock that he owns directly for preferred shares of a wholly owned subsidiary of Matsushita which has been organized for purposes of the acquisition. The preferred shares are intended to have a value equivalent to the cash price offered to all other shareholders.

MCA said the WWOR-TV spin-off to MCA shareholders will conform to all applicable Federal laws and regulations governing the ownership and operation of television stations. The station's management will remain in place, and WWOR-TV will continue to serve New Jersey and its other existing markets. WWOR-TV had operating cashflow of $31 million in 1989.

The MCA board has determined, based in part on the opinion of Lazard Freres & Co., its independent financial advisor, that the transaction is fair to and in the best interest of MCA shareholders, and has recommended that MCA shareholders accept the offer.

The tender offer will be conditioned upon, among other things, Matsushita receiving valid tenders for more than 50 percent of MCA's outstanding common stock on a fully diluted basis. Consummation of the offer is also subject to receipt of necessary regulatory approvals for the WWOR-TV spin-off and to payment of the WWOR-TV dividend. Certain customary conditions must also be satisfied.

Simultaneously with the execution of the agreement, MCA has granted Matsushita an exclusive option to purchase approximately 16.9 million shares of MCA at a price of $71 per share, exercisable under certain circumstances. Under the terms of the merger agreement, Matsushita will be entitled to receive aggregate fees and expenses up to $125 million in the event, among other things, that MCA receives an unsolicited higher offer and accepts that offer pursuant to the fiduciary responsibilities of the MCA board of directors.

Matsushita is advised by Creative Artists Agency, Inc.; Allen & Company Incorporated; and the law firm of Simpson Thacher & Bartlett. MCA is advised by Lazard Freres & Co. and the law firm of Wachtell, Lipton, Rosen & Katz.

MCA is a diversified international company engaged in production and distribution of theatrical, television and home video products; manufacture and distribution of recorded music and music publishing; merchandising of a wide variety of sports and entertainment-related products; operation of theme parks and concert facilities; book publishing; retailing; television broadcasting; and real estate development. Revenues were approximately $3.4 billion and net income was $192 million in the fiscal year ended December 31, 1989. Founded in 1924, MCA's holdings include Universal Pictures, the MCA Television Group, Universal Studios Hollywood and Universal Studios Florida, MCA Records, Geffen Records, Putnam Berkley Books, Spencer Gifts, WWOR-TV, Yosemite Park and Curry Company, a 50 percent interest in USA Network, and a 49 percent investment in Cineplex Odeon.

Matsushita (pronounced mot-SOOSH-ta) is Japan's largest manufacturer of consumer and industrial electric and electronic products. Matsushita employs some 200,000 people and markets its products in over 160 countries around the world. Revenues were approximately $37.8 billion and net income was $1.48 billion in the fiscal year ended March 31, 1990 (converted at $1=159 yen). The company was founded in 1918 by Konosuke Matsushita and grew rapidly as consumer demand for electric and electronic products escalated in Japan after World War 11. In subsequent years, Matsushita continued to expand its product lines, always building on its traditional strengths. The company is now involved in such fields as communications and industrial equipsemiconductors, new ment. audiovisual products and housing-related systems.

(Cash Box Publication commends MCA Inc. and its dedicated board for the prosperous conclusion which will further enhance and benefit the entertainment industry throughout the world.)

Paris

IN THE TRADITION OF THE NA-

TION OF ISLAM, of which he is a devout member, Tommy Boy Records rap artist Paris hopes to "uplift and educate" African-American youth through his music. Unlike many socalled socially aware rappers, Paris puts his music where his mouth and mind are—and the results show he's not just hopping on anybody's bandwagon. The video for the first single, "Break the Grip of Shame," features an electronic collage of such Black leaders as Marcus Garvey, Malcolm X, Elijah Muhammad and Louis Farrakhan juxtaposed against images of skinheads and the KKK, hoping to focus on the good that each of these Black leaders—regardless of ideological differences—have done for Black people. Paris isn't only concerned with social and economic politics, however, but also, with those that dictate how rap is presented and received.

Says Paris, "My music is really an alternative to the misplaced materialism of the gaudy gold chains and the sick-minded misogyny that has been broadly portrayed by some of the media as the mindset of rap."

When asked about broader aims and goals he hopes to achieve through his music, the 22 year-old rapper replies, "I may or may not make a difference, but if I make an ignorant album and a new wave of ignorance overcomes the listeners, then I am part of the problem. If I make a righteous album, then at least there is the possibility that I can be part of the solution. I'd rather take the higher ground and strive for righteousness than bask in ignorance."

MENTS with quirky, spacey, artsy, bizarre "alternative" touches, and you've got the music of The Horse Flies—a band from Ithaca, New York whose album, Human Fly was released independently in 1987 and recently reissued by MCA Records (for which the band is now recording). Violin and banjo are key instruments on Human Fly, which also has its share of synthesizers. The album's content includition of the sizers.

thesizers. The album's content includes an unorthodox version of the lullaby "Hush Little Baby" and a cover of The Cramps' "Human Fly."

The lineup on Human Fly includes Jeff Claus (vocals, banjo, guitar), Rich Stearns (vocals, banjo), Judy Hyman (vocals, violin) and John Hayward (bass). After the album was completed, The Horse Flies' lineup was augmented to include Peter Dodge (synthesizers, accordion) and Taki Masuko (drums, percussion. Presently, the band is in Los Angeles working on a follow-up to Human Fly with producer Hilton Rosenthal, who has worked with South African artist Johnny Clegg. MCA is looking at a possible spring 1991 release.

Teenage Mutant Ninja Turtles

UNIVERSAL AMPHITHEATRE, LOS ANGELES— The Turtle concert was fantastic. Their singing was great. The characters: are the bad guys Shredder, Baxter Stockman and the foot soldiers; the good guys are April, Splinter and the Turtles.

Shredder hates music so he tried to steal all the music. Donatello, a turtle, made a shield that would make them invisible to the Shredder for five (5) minutes. April and two (2) workers were tied up. The Turtles said the only way to bring music back was to sing. We got the music back. Then the Shredder left. This is my review of the concert, "Coming Out Of Their Shells."

HIGHWAY TO HELL: During Doro's recent American tour, some live material was recorded in various cities for a "best of" album that will contain both live tracks and previously released studio material. The album may be released in Europe in January 1991, but at this juncture, it is undecided whether or not PolyGram will release in the U.S... Death Angel is playing some West Coast dates in late November and December... In late November and December, Sweet FA is touring in support of its debut album on MCA Records, Stick To Your Guns. Lead vocalist Steve DeLong, whose 19-year-old cousin is among the American soldiers stationed in the Persian Gulf as a result of Iraqi dictator Sadam Hussein's invasion of Kuwait, recently sent him a case of cassettes of the album—asking him to distribute the tapes among American troops station there...

VILLAINS ON VIDEO: A*Vision Entertainment, Atlantic's video arm, is scheduled to release Skid Row's first-ever home video on December 4, titled Oh Say Can You Scream. The video will contain concert footage of live performances of songs from the band's triple-platinum debut album of 1989 as well as songs not included on the album. The 100-minute video will also contain Skid Row's videos for "18 & Life," "Youth Gone Wild," "I Remember You" and "Piece Of Me"... Def American Recordings has released a video for Slayer's "War Ensemble," a chilling cut from Seasons In The Abyss—which is turning out to be the death-metal thrashers' most successful album yet. The black-andwhite clip is basically a "concert" video depicting a "live" performance... Another recently-released thrash video is Testament's clip for "Souls Of Black," the title track of its current album on Megaforce/Atlantic...

ALBUMS

RUN-D.M.C.: Back From Hell (Profile Records PCD-1401)

Inarguably the most successful rap act thus far, and certainly one of the most influential, Run DMC have also been one of the most lambasted-by critics and fans alike. Their credibility reached a real low with their Ghostbusters rap, a career move that cost them dearly. Answering those who have counted them out altogether, though, finds the trio lean and sharp. Gone are the obvious and grating bids for crossover appeal, a move that may actually be what brings them that coveted bonus as well as restore their street creed. Harder than they've been in a very long time and with some of the dopest rhymes of their impressive career, Run DMC are back in rare form

THE POGUES: Hell's Ditch (Island 422-846-999-2)

The Pogues continue fusing traditional Irish music with punkish rock & roll on their latest effort, Hell's Ditch. On "The Wake Of Mesusa," the band combines their Irish and rock sensibilities with Middle Eastern touches—if you can imagine that. But despite its contemporary feel and progressive nature, the album is consistently rootsy and steeped in tradition. Hell's Ditch was produced by Clash graduate Joe Strummer.

GERALD ALBRIGHT:

Dream Come True (Atlantic 7 82087-2)

Like its predecessors, Gerald Albright's third album, Dream Come True follows a commercial jazz/R&B/pop path that "quiet storm" programmers are likely to greet with open arms. The selfproduced album contains mostly originals, an exception being a cover of Johnny Gill's "My, My, My." Although Dream Come True is mostly instrumental, the straightup R&B cut "Growing With Each Other" boasts guest BeBe Winans singing lead.

□ THE HORSE FLIES: Human Fly (MCA 10123)

Violin and banjo are key instruments on The Horse Flies' Human Fly, which fuses rather rootsy, folksy elements with abstract, offThe Horse Flies the-wall "alternative" pop. If you can imagine Anglo-American folk played as bizarre, spacey "alternative" fare, you've got The Horse Flies in a nutshell.

D BLUE PEARL: Blue Pearl (Big Life/PolyGram 847 405-2)

Just in time to restore your faith in dance acts' authenticity, Blue Pearl manage to move both your feet and your heart—and the person billed as the singer, Durga Mc-Broom, is just that; she also wrote or co-wrote almost everything on the disc. The lyrics are meaningful (covered here is Kate Bush's "Running Up That Hill") and provocative, matched by the McBroom's hearty, rich vocals. A great debut from a very promising new musical entity.

□ SPECIAL GENERATION: Take It To The Dancefloor (Bust It/Capitol C1-94846)

This release on M.C. Hammer's Bust It label is, on side one, predictably upbeat dancefare that should bowl them over at Top 40 and urban radio stations—as well as young party-goers. Side two slows things down a bit for ballads with beats. This pop/hip-hop won't impress the hardcore set, but will easily win over everyone else.

E.U.: Cold Kickin' It (Virgin 2-91379)

E.U., known for its 1988 hit "Da Butt," has been associated with gogo—a 1970s-born style of funk that flourished in the band's native Washington DC. But there's no hardcore go-go to be found on E.U.'s latest effort, the high-tech and generally Black radio-friendly Cold Kickin' It. The album ranges from the slow, romantic "Longer Than Time" to the reggae-influenced "M-O-N-E-Y" to technofunk cuts like "Keep It Up," "Hot Cakes" and "Funky Like A Monkey"—which have more in common with contemporary Cameo than Chuck Brown & the Soul Searchers or Rare Essence. The album's most go-go cut is "Let It Go," but even that song is high-tech and Black radio-conscious.

SINGLES

 PRINCE: "New Power Generation" (Paisley Park/Warner Bros. 9 21783-0)

One of the funkiest entries from the Graffiti Bridge soundtrack is retooled here, with one mix featuring a rap seamlessly blended into the groove. Includes three previously unreleased tracks.

BEATMASTERS: "Who's In The House" (Rhythm
King/Sire/Reprise 9 21784-0)

Hip house from the same British production team that has had great success with Betty Boo. In addition to three mixes of the title song, includes the club hit, "Ska Train."

□ STAX: "Mary Had A Little Boy" (Next Plateau NP50136W)

Strong female vocals and a clever (male delivered) rap set against a pumping House groove. Tailormade for clubs.

EXECUTIVES ON THE MOVE

Executives Ron Fair has been promoted to the position of senior vice president, A&R/staff producer at EMI and will be re-locating to the company's New York headquarters. Prior to this appointment, Fair was vice president, A&R/staff producer at EMI in Los Angeles. Adam Block has been promoted to the position of manager, Marketing EMI Records. Block will continue to be based in the company's New York headquarters. Prior to this, Block was in the Publicity Department, having held that role since he joined EM1 in 1988. Charley Lake has been appointed vice president of national promotion for East West America, a division of Atlantic Records. In his new capacity, Lake will oversee East West America's CHR, AOR and adult contemporary promotions. Before joining East West America, Lake was vice president of promotion for Epic Records. Before that, Lake spent years at A&M Records, four of which he held the position of director of national pop promotion. Elektra Entertainment has promoted Tom Finch to the position of vice president, production. The four-year Elektra veteran was previously director, production; he began his record industry career with Arista in 1976. DPJyGram has named Barry Fiedel attorney, legal affairs; he comes to the label from the law firm of Kaye, Scholer, Fierman, Hays & Handler. CBS Records has named Jennifer A. Stewart director, procedures and controls, CBS Records Operation. A CPA, she comes to the label from Integrated Resources, Inc. The label has also named John Ingrassia and Jonathan M. Polk directors of business affairs, making them responsible for the negotiation of contracts with artists, the associated labels and others. Ingrassia had been director, A&R administration; Polk has been at PolyGram since '88. PolyGram Records has promoted Ann Latora to the post of assistant controller, PRI and Associated labels. She was most recently a manager of financial reporting for the label. And Michael Klein has been named local promotion manager, Mercury Records, based in Denver.

Cafaro NewA&M President

LOS ANGELES—Al Cafaro has been named to the position of president of A&M Records according to a joint announcement made by Jerry Moss, chairman and CEO/A&M Records, and Herb Alpert, vicechairman/A&M Records.

Most recently Cafaro served as the label's senior vice president and general manager. He joined A&M in 1977 as promotion manager for the Carolina's and went on to serve in a similar capacity in Philadelphia and New York City. He became the label's album promotion director in 1983 and worked in that position for four years. In 1987, he was promoted to vice president of promotion and relocated to the label's Los Angeles headquarters. In 1988, Cafaro was promoted to vice president and general manager. Earlier this year, he was named senior vice president and general manager.

Prior to joining A&M, Cafaro was the GM and morning man at WRPL, Charlotte, NC, and he first worked in the industry as an on-the-air personality at WDXY/Sumter, SC and at WGCD/Chester, SC.

Commenting on his appointment,

Cafaro said, "I believe in our artists. I believe in our people. My job is to forge a future based on the best of A&M's traditional values and our new competitive team spirit. I am confident that I will deliver on the trust that Herb and Jerry have placed in me."

EAST COASTINGS

AHOY!: Pete Fornateie has been on New York radio since before the flood, so K-Rock celebrated his first anniversary with them with a cruise. Here Pete is flanked by a couple of Biues Project aium, Ai Kooper (left) and Steve Katz.

LITTLE JACK HORNER AND THE MAN IN THE MOON: In the words of the Wizard of Oz, the late Harry Chapin was a Good Deed Doer. Years before this-Aid and that-Aid, Chapin was a tireless worker for various charitable organizations, particularly the effort to battle hunger in America. Whatever you think of Chapin's songs (they're a bit sappy for me), his good deeds need to be remembered. World Hunger Year, which he helped found, continues to put food in hungry people's mouths, a chore that must be harder to do every day.

Chapin's songs and his concerns were both remembered in a moving Carnegie Hall concert on December 7, 1987, to celebrate the awarding of a posthumous Congressional Gold Medal to Chapin. Bruce Springsteen, Pete Seeger, Judy Collins, Peter, Paul and Mary, Pat Benatar, the Hooters, the Smothers Brothers, Graham Nash, Tom and Steve Chapin, Oscar Brand and Richie Havens were among the performers, each one performing a Chapin song, some backed by a symphony orchestra. One thing about Chapin's songs—despite his tendency to getting sentimental they were filled with honesty; he was probably just a sentimental guy.

In any event, the best moments of that concert have just been issued by Relativity as Harry Chapin Tribute (kind of a clunky title), with all royalty proceeds going to several hunger charities, include WHY. Yep, the Springsteen performance ("Remember When the Music") is included. No, there's no performance of "Taxi."

With all these big, gaudy boxed sets on everybody's Christmas list, this nice little CD should make a fine stocking stuffer; it's filled with warmth. It's good to remember the Good Deed Doers, especially this time of year.

HAHAHA: Is it my imagination or are comedy records making a comeback? Once upon a time, comedy records were big business, first with the likes of Shelly Berman, Bob Newhart and Bill Cosby, later with guys like George Carlin, Steve Martin and Richard Pryor.

If I had an abacus and the energy, I'd probably find a cycle to this (you know, like every seven years or so people want to buy records that intentionally make them laugh). Or I'd make some socio-political statement (when the going gets tough, the populace wants more yocks). Me, I'll just laugh it up, feeding my CD player new releases from the late Robin Harris, Carlin, Robert Klein (not only has Rhino released a new Klein album, but they're reissuing his early catalogue, including the classic Child of the '50s) and Eric Bogosian (Sex, Drugs, Rock & Roll, fresh from SBK, isn't exactly comedy, but it isn't exactly not comedy; the one-man show of the same name—funny, scary, and oh-so-true—is back for a limited run at off-Broadway's Orpheum Theatre).

I like having all these albums, because it finally gives me an answer to the oft-asked question, "What's so goddamned funny?"

ATTENTION NARAS, ATTENTION NARAS!!!: Look, 1 don't want to start another scandal, but I feel this is part of my journalistic responsibility: I just caught a glimpse of that new George Michael video, "Freedom '90." It's a great video of a real good song, but I don't think that's George doing the singing. No, I'm almost positive that this is a case of lip-synching. Sorry, George, but it would have come out eventually.

BUZZING ABOUT: The beat generation jazz of the James Taylor Quartet has been around for four years, but only now is it the NEXT BIG THING. Bands like the Charlatans and the Inspiral Carpets are citing the JTQ's Hammond organ as their major influence with as much pride as George Michael touts Stevie Wonder.

JTQ says they are part of the Acid Jazz Movement. You will know when other groups have jumped onto that bandwagon, not necessarily because of the beat generation groove, but because of the goatees, high fringes, duffle coats and parkas.

And if that isn't enough to make you suspect that pop music is getting just a touch hollow, let me "Take Your Breath Away."

Four years ago, this became a classic ballad when Terri Nunn and her group Berlin took it to the number one spot for several weeks. The same song—no remix, no cover version, everything note for note—now nestles at number three. This is the first time that a song which has not been re-recorded has managed to do this in such a short space of time.

l was surprised to see Terri once again reclining over her Top Gun fighter plane on Top of the Pops, but not as surprised as she was: "You're kidding. Are they crazy? Why?"

She had a vague recollection of the song being used for a car advert, but wasn't sure what car. Berlin has long since split up and Terri has just started recording with a new band. No one even bothered to tell her about the re-release. Obviously she has done no promotion, no press, and yet the song, because of the power of the advert—which was re-released after the television screening of Top Gun, where the song is part of the soundtrack—is doing almost as well the second time out.

Which is more than can be said for self-destructive Adamski wailing, "I don't care," like a carbon copy of John Lydon. Even Mark Goodyear of Radio One, who was his champion, says that his latest single, "Flashback Jack," has 'lost the plot."

Posters show him posing with a gun to his head. Poor precious Adamski is sick and tired of fame and success and L.A.. All he wants to be is a crooning old punk. Tainting himself with this air of delicious tragedy, he is laboring under the misconception that old punks die—vaporizing in a whiff of too much glue or on the end of a slinky silver needle. But old punks, like his hero Lydon, end up as surf bums in Malibu, spearheading an advertising campaign for Jimmy'z surf gear.

Happily, Seal, who sang on Adamski's number one, "Killer," has become a hero. He has signed up with forgotten genius Trever Horn, the man who invented the producer as personality, who was making hits for the Frankies and the like while Stock Aitken Waterman were making tea.

TOKYO NEWS

TOKYO—Marking its 25th anniversary, Tokuma Japan Records recently held a charity concert at Tokyo Bay Hall in Tokyo attracting some 6,000 people. With this event, the company established a "Thanksgiving Fund" which will be used, according to label chief Yasuyoshi Tokuma, to protect the natural environment and for welfare of the elderly and needy children of the world.

According to the Japan Assn. of Rights of Authors, Composers and Publishers (JASRAC), total royalties collected during the first six months of fiscal year 1990 (April 1 - Sept. 30) were 28,974 million yen ($223 million), up 20.8% over the comparable period of the prior year. A breakdown of this figure reveals that performance royalties rose 22.8% to 7,799 million yen ($60 million), while mechanical royalties climbed 23% over the comparable term of the prior year with 17,248 million yen ($132 million). A JASRAC spokesman said that the "increase of royalties collected by the organization was due to the prosperity enjoyed by the record industry in Japan this year."

"P.S. I Love You," by Pink Sapphire and "Manatsu No Kajitsu," by the Southern All Stars were both certified platiunum singles by the Japan Phonograph Record Assn. (JPRA) in October. At the same time, the Southern All Stars' "Inamura Jane" was certified a gold album.

Next year, CBS-Sony Group will establish Shizuoka Second Production Center, its second record pressing plant in Shizuoka. The new facility will have a pressing capacity of three million units per month. The company's present facility currently manufactures nine million compact discs in one month.

■ INDIE PROFILE SILVETO/EMERALD

HORACE SILVER FOUNDED SIL-VETO RECORDS for the same reason

many other artists start their own labels: a desire for artistic freedom. When the legendary jazz pianist (who Chick Corea cites as one of his main influen-ces) recorded for BlueNote, the company wasn't overly supportive of what he terms "metaphysical self-help music"-a unique style of jazz with lyrics expressing Silver's spiritual philosophy. Since starting Silveto in 1981, Silver has recorded five albums for his label, the most recent of which is 1988's Music To Ease Your Disease. Especially interesting was The Continuity Of Spirit, for which veteran jazz deejay Chuck Niles (arguably the Symphony Sid of L.A.) portrayed the spirit of Duke Ellington.

Saleswise, Silver's spiritual jazz hasn't fared as well as his instrumental secular jazz. Thus, he founded another label, Emerald Records, in 1984. Emerald's first two releases contained previously unreleased live dates by Silver and trumpet great Clark Terry, both recorded in 1964. Emerald's most recent release (and its first CD release) is the previously unreleased The Natives Are Restless Tonight, which was recorded live at the Half Note in New York in 1965 and '66 and features Joe Hender-son on tenor sax, Carmel Jones or Woody Shaw on trumpet, Larry Ridley or Teddy Smith on bass and Roger Humphries on drums.

"At the time I started Silveto," Silver recalls, "I had no inkling of Emerald in my mind-I was so gung-ho about the metaphysical music I started in the early 70s with The United States Of Mind series on BlueNote. But then, I kind of realized that some of the fans weren't into it. Some of them accepted it, but some of the old fans just wanted to hear the instrumental Horace Silver music with no metaphysical or spiritual connotation. I didn't want to lose those people. Rather than put both types of music on the same label, I said, 'Let me keep the Silveto label for metaphysical music, and let me start the Emerald label for straight-ahead jazz.' Right now, I'm mainly interested in building up the Emerald catalogue and having as many releases on Emerald as I do on Silveto. I've got five releases on Silveto and only three on Emerald. Quite frankly, Emerald is more favored by the public. The concept of the Silveto label isn't as well-accepted as the straight-ahead things on Emerald. I'm not giving up the Silveto label by any means; but before I do any-thing else with Silveto, I want to bring the Emerald catalogue up to five releases.'

Silver's first project for 1991 is reissuing his Live 1964 album on CD. After that, he plans to record a soundtrack for a musical he's written, titled Rockin' With Rach-mananov. In conjunction with the City Of Los Angeles, Silver hopes to present the musical live at the city-owned Barnsdale Auditorium in June and later release a soundtrack on Emerald. "This extended work entails an 8-piece orchestra, choreography, male and female signers and narration," Sil-ver explains. "I told (L.A. Mayor) Tom Bradley that the premise of the thing is that (classical com-poser) Rachmananov dies and goes to heaven and meets Duke Ellington, who turns him on to jazz. They become buddies, and Duke introduces him to various jazz masters who have passed on like Louis Armstrong, Thelonious Monk and Coleman Hawkins."

Silver's other goals for 1991 include recording a trio album for Emerald and reissuing Music To Ease Your Disease. Running two labels is an expensive, time-consuming task, but one thing that helps cover expenses is the royalties he earns from his many compositions—including "Song For My Father," "Strollin'," "Sister Sadie," "Senor Blues," "Que Pasa," "Filthy McNasty" and "Peace." While many jazzmen record as many standards as originals, Silver estimates that he's recorded at least 95% original material over the vears.

BAINBRIDGE: At a time when an abundance of mindless Kenny G and David Sanborn clones are being passed off as legitimate jazz-fusion artists, Active Ingredient is showing just how exciting and spontaneous real fusion can be. Fantasy, which owns the Stax/Volt catalogue, once again showed its commitment to keeping classic soul available with its recent acquisition of the Hot Wax and Invictus catalogues. This 20-track CD contains some of the major soul hits recorded for those labels during the early 1970s, including material by Honey Cone ("Stickup," "Want Ads"), 100 Proof Aged In Soul ("Somebody's Been Sleeping In My Bed," "Everything Good Is Bad"), Freda Payne ("Band Of Gold"), Chairman Of The Board ("Give Me Just A Little More Time," "Pay The Piper") and Laura Lee ("Rip Off").

College and "alternative" radio may want to investigate Big Clock's abstract The Boy With The Wooden Head. Lyrically, the CD's most thought-provoking cuts include "Lori," which describes a young woman's difficult search for romance in The Big Apple, and "If I Had My Way"—a reflection on Nicaragua before and after the 1979 revolution.

ON JAZZ

BY LEE JESKE

ANOTHER ARTICLE ABOUT WYNTON MARSALIS: When Wynton Marsalis burst on the jazz scene a decade ago he had astounding technical abilities and an icy mastery of hard bop. Yet as impressed as I was with his abilities—I've always sat in awe of his abilities—for years I felt something was missing: the potent combination of joy and pain that ennobles true jazz giants. Anger was there, but exultancy was missing.

But recently Marsalis has been delving deeply into earlier jazz styles and techniques—experimenting with mutes, allowing his tone to get raw and ragged to express emotion, conveying humor—and it has completed the player. Wynton Marsalis is finally as good as he's supposed to be.

The evidence of this was on ample display two weeks ago at Alice Tully Hall, where Wynton presided over a rare gathering of the musical Marsalis clan: father Ellis on piano, brother Branford on tenor (a public rapprochement— Wynton remains bitter over Branford's decision to tour with Sting years ago), and 13-year-old drummer Jason on drums. Only trombone-playing brother Delfeayo was missing.

The show, a benefit for the Graham-Windham child care agency and two autism treatment foundations (one of Ellis Marsalis' six sons is autistic), bounced amiably along for two hours, with members of Wynton's band notably bassist Reginald VeaI and drummer Herlin Riley—fleshing out the various groupings of Marsalises.

The concert never really crackled, it sort of rambled. Still, everyone was loose and swinging: Branford aired his pillowy new sound, Ellis played with jazz club nonchalance, the twig-skinny Jason whipped the drums intently (a talented 13-year-old, he's not yet professional material), and Wynton, in a natty bright red suit and purple vest, played with the ease, confidence and wit of a master.

I don't think Wynton Marsalis—whose next album, his Ellingtonish soundtrack to Tune in Tomorrow (that dumb new movie in which he and his band appear), is due this month—has made a great album yet, but I finally think that he's become a truly great trumpet player. And I think he did it the old-fashioned way: through hard work, study (of Ellington and Armstrong in particular) and sheer determination; he's never rested on his reviews.

Wynton is also one of New York City's most frequent jammers; he's always showing up at clubs with trumpet in hand. Many of those are unplanned appearances, but on Nov. 30 and Dec. 1 he's going to be a scheduled guest with Elvin Jones' band at the Bottom Line. Jones, who hasn't made a U.S. record in ages and does most of his performing abroad, was positively ferocious when he brought his Jazz Machine (with its unique two-saxophone front line, Sonny Fortune and Joe LaBarbera) into the Blue Note earlier this year. With Elvin causing a percussive rampage behind his ear, Wynton should sizzle like a Benihana steak.

ICE THE BUBBLY: Would you believe that New Year's Eve is next month? Right, next month. I know, you hate New Year's Eve. But that won't stop you from dragging your tired behind to some slightly depressing gathering, will it? Admit it, it won't will it? Well, booby, there is an alternative. National Public Radio always manages to slap together a nice show for those wise stay-athomes and this year's no exception. And you get to sing "Auld Lang Syne" three times, as NPR dashes through America's time zones. The thing begins at 10 p.m. Eastern time from New York, where Nina "If-I-Show-Up-At-All-I'll-Probably-Only-Do-Fifteen-Minutes" Simone and Lionel Hampton will be performing at the Grand Hyatt Hotel, moves over to Tipitina's in New Orleans for Snooks Eaglin, Johnny Adams and Earl King (now we're talking), and closes up at L.A.'s Catalina Bar & Grill with Freddie Hubbard. Then it's 1991. Yikes.

HOHOHO: So New Year's Eve is next month, it stands to reason that Christmas is next month too (hey, 1 didn't spend four years in college for nothing). Is it my imagination, or are there a lot of Christmas albums coming out this year? Back in the '50s and '60s, Christmas albums used to come out in stacks, but those days have been gone for decades, haven't they? I guess they haven't—a day hardly goes by without another Christmas album. Jazzwise (the wise this page concerns itself with) there's Joe Williams' The Holiday Feelin' (Verve), reissues of old Ella Fitzgerald and Stan Kenton holiday packages (Capitol), Blue Note's mostly-new compilation Yule Struttin' (with Benny Green, Dianne Reeves, Bobby Watson, John Scofield, Dexter Gordon and others), Marcus Roberts' three-song Let It Snow EP (RCA/Novus) and Columbia's A Jazzy Wonderland (with two Harry Connick, Jr./Branford Marsalis duets and numbers from Monte Croft, Terence Blanchard and others). To name a few. That's not to mention Columbia's wacky Christmas Party with Eddie G (with its raft of oddball Christmas novelties from yesteryear) or its Acoustic Christmas (which features the unlikely pairing of Poi Dog Pondering and the Dirty Dozen Brass Band, as well as a Wynton Marsalis/Marcus Roberts duet and Connick's "Winter Wonderland"), Rhino's packages of country Christmas numbers and traditional (like Bing and Nat Cole) Christmas hits, etc., etc., etc. Christmas, it seems, is in this year. Jack Frost is nipping at my nose.

CTI REDUX: Creed Taylor's back and PolyGram's got him. Taylor, whose CTI records represented the hallmark of crisp, clean recording back in the '60s and '70s (and whose productions continue to live on as A&M and CBS CD reissues), has revved up the old imprint again. What he's up to now, no surprise, is high definition television, which is currently unavailable here in the States. Not to worry, it's coming, and when it gets here, you can look at Rhythmstick, which features a whole mess of jazz players (including Dizzy Gillespie, Charlie Haden, Tito Puente, John Scofield, Bob Berg, Robben Ford and Phil Woods) videotaped in HDTV, with multi-track audio to match. November 20th's the release date of what one suspects is the first of a new wave of CTI productions, both to look at and listen to.

Janet Jackson fans will definitely want to check out her new Rhythm Nation Collection—if for no other reason than to see the number of cleavage shots director Herb Ritts manages to cram into the clip for Jackson's new single, "Love Will Never Do Without You." Includes the already familiar mini-films for "Come Back To Me," ~"Alright," "Escapade" and the two dozen or so other videos culled thus far from the Rhythm Nation 1814 CD.

Very quickly, two more video compilations of note, both from SBK Records: Vanilla Ice—Play That Funky Music White Boy, which includes the title clip as well as "Stop That Train" and "Ice Ice Baby." And also, Technotronic—Trip On This—The Videos, already in stores.

Motown's golden cherubs, The Boys, are set to star in "Tears For a Christmas Tree," a radio play to air the weekend of December 22 and 23 on the nationally syndicated entertainment news program, RadioScope. "Tears" tells the story of an inner-city kid, Marcus, who (along with his brother, Teddy) hooks up with a neighborhood drug dealer to get some fast money in order to give the family a decent Christmas. The results, predictably, are disastrous. Cameron Turner, RadioScope managing editor, says he wrote "Tears" because, "America is a very materialistic society and poverty creates a unique kind of shame that is particularly strong during the holidays."

BAHIA SOARS TO NEW ALTITUDE: Bahia Entertainment recording artists Altitude recently completed studio work on their debut album project under the new label, for release in late February next year. The album features two cuts produced by Norman Connors—"Someone Like You" and "I Can't Resist." Connors is pictured above (far right) with Altitude group members Terrah, Pam Baker and Pam Gibbs (I-r), Bahla director of A&R, Dino Perera; and Greg Peck (rear I-r).

HOMEGIRL MADE GOOD: Warner Bros. recording artist Jasmine Guy, whose new single, "Try Me," is currently moving up the charts, was recently honored in her hometown of Atlanta, GA by Mayor Maynard Jackson. Guy, who also stars as Whitley Gilbert on NBC's A Different World, was in Atlanta promoting her self-titled LP, Jasmine Guy. Shown in photo (I-r) are: Kathy Jones, Atlanta City Council alde; Brenda Smith, promotion manager, Warner Bros. Records; Jasmine Guy; Mayor Jackson; Pat Jones, manager, artist relations, Warner Bros. Records; and Teddy Astin, national director promotion, Warner Bros. Records.

COCINANDO

BY TONY SABOURNIN

EXCUSE ME, BUT MY AFRO IS UP AND SEETHING THIS week. This is why. During this past Thanksgiving, my wife, my brother and sister, a client/friend and I decided to trek to The Palladium-that wonderful beehive of musical activity and technological wizardry at 14th St. and Irving Pl.--to see a Ralph Mercado production of a sonero festival featuring the usual suspects of late: Luis Enrique, Tony Vega, José Alberto ("El Canario"), Tito Nieves, Millie P, Tito Bridge, etc; and some recent ones, like Domingo and returning veteran Ismael Miranda. The price, $30 a pop. l didn't mind. The lineup was worth it. l didn't even mind that my name wasn't recognized at the press door; I had not called ahead of time and, after all, I could never pay Mercado all the freebies I've gotten from him throughout the years. Neither my brother nor my sister had been at the Palladium. So it was fascinating to see them each recording and absorbing everyone's moves, the light games and the sound that reached perfectly to the third level balcony, where, away from the oppressive crowds, we enjoyed live cinema under the Renaissance-decorated cupule. The music was alright too. Luis Enrique, in particular, played a set far more vibrant than his recently chronicled Garden performance. The problem was when we departed, and saw the ominous yellow NYPD tape extended across The Palladium's main exit. Eventually, the news reported the tragic death of one of the club's doormen and the wounding of another, allegedly caused by an enraged customer ejected minutes before the incident.

(To the club's defense, it must be stated that every paying customer is forced to walk a gauntlet of security personnel who frisk male bodies and check women's bags. In this case, the alleged shooter went to the adjacent parking lot after his ejection, retrieved the weapon from his car and returned for his carnage.)

This particular crime really got me upset, though, for a number of reasons. First, for the sudden loss of a human life, a feeling which exacerbated the bitter memory of a similar death in my family. Then, it reminded me that 1 hadn't been at the Village Gate for the past two years, since that fatal Monday when, at a Sonora Ponceña and El Gran Combo double bill, someone 45-ed somebody else to a sizzle at the club's doors. Before then, six years ago, I gave up going to Queens for the same reason, just as 1 quit on The Bronx and Upper Manhattan more than three years ago. Now Death had successfully stalked The Palladium doors, less than five blocks away from my suppossedly safe-area East Village residence.

This was just the latest incident affecting Downtown's club life. Three blocks north, the Underground, once-popular with the Bridge & Tunnel crowd, was recently forced to change its name, and then to close altogether as a result of gun-related violence. Four blocks further north, two people were killed several months ago in front of Kilimanjaro, a venue catering to World Music audiences. The Emerald Club, known in a former incarnation as The Red Parrot, another popular Latin spot on West 57th St. near 12th Ave., has been closed for the longest time for the same reason. The national attention bestowed on the murder of Utah tourist Brian Watkins by hooligans who used the money to go to a nearby Roseland event effectively eliminated operations at this important venue for club, house and hip-hop acts.

l won't subscribe to the limiting theory of blaming New York City Mayor David Dinkins for the perceived increase in citywide crime, an issue overblown by the media in general. I place the blame on the gun proliferation nationwide, a federal issue upon which Dinkins, like any other U.S. mayor, has very little control. More specifically, l'll focus on the gun lobbyists primarily sponsored by the National Rifle Association.

These fools survive on three notions. One is that the Constitution allows citizens the right to bear arms, a poppycock vantage when the intent behind this freedom was the defense of the incipient nation's territory and independence. Another supposes that guns don't kill people, but rather that people kill people. Those simpletonian minds who wish to adhere to this theory just have to think that, if we'd use fruits as weapons to discharge our psychological anger the land used for cemeteries will be filled now with condominiums, as no one has been known to die in a banana or apple duel. The last notion is that arm-bearing is a time-honored method to preserve one's own property, hence becoming part of our system's common laws.

As much as I agree with the relative merits of this last point, that principle hardly applies in a heavily condensed and highly-patrolled metropolis like

New York City. Particularly when the illegal gun trade has reached a pervasive public accessibility at an almost retail level, cheapening human lives in the process to the approximate value of a chewed gum stick stuck on someone's shoe.

When it comes to our beloved music industry, this presents a highly poignant problem. The music-consuming citizenry has to feel confident in its ability to go out to a reputable club in a safe city area. Otherwise, nightlife will dwindle and clubs will disappear. (Real estate principles claim that, by comparison, shopping malls are more profitable and less troublesome.) The artistic community needs clubs. They are essential for the development of artists who aren't gold-record sellers yet, and, with the correct mix, they are a healthy form of recreation.

Record companies need an artist development process that precedes the gold record profitability phase. Therefore, it stands to reason that a reduction in club attendance will also affect record sales negatively. In the absence of a known pertinent body (sort of a National Association of Night Clubs), it behooves a record industry entity (perhaps RIAA or NARAS) to counteract the gun lobby efforts, supporting tougher gun control laws, and abrogating for severe legislation and castigation at a state level—preventive measures all against this nightclub crime wave that threatens to become, like piracy and parallel imports, an overwhelming problem.

If you think this is New York's problem exclusively, think again and look around your big city. Then think again, and ask yourself whether you're willing to give up a part of personal and corporate entertainment as integral to a healthy development as backseat necking.

TWO FINAL THOUGHTS ON TWO FINE INDIVIDUALS EDITED FROM last week's column. It's about time someone understands that in Dominicana, bereft of electricity but swamped with work, is Manuel Tejada, arguably the most successfully prolific producer of recent years, who multinationals rarely think of when it comes time to choose an overall musical producer. Let's hope his Dominican ethnicity doesn't pigeonhole him exclusively for merengue bands or tropical productions. He's capable of a lot more.

Even less recognized than Tejada is another good soul, Moisés Abkarián. In addition to continuously lending his Audiolab Studios as a womb to the most exciting talent emanating from Dominicana, confirmed lore has it that he relinquished to Juan Luis Guerra his commercial trademark of the name Grupo 4-40 gratis!. People like Abkarián justify my optimism about the few remaining unmercenary hearts still existing out there.

dent Sam Trust announced that jazz guitarist/composer Grant Geissman has been signed to an exclusive writer/co-pub deal. Geissman, in addition to his six solo albums, has played and recorded with such artists as David Benoit, Michael Mc-Donald, Tiffany, Dan Siegel, Chuck Mangione, Air Supply and David Byrne. His latest album, Take Another Look (Mesa/Blue Moon), made the Top 20 on the contemporary jazz charts and hit #2 on the R&R NAC chart. His other albums include All My Tommorrows (featuring eight of his own compostions), Snapshots, Drinkin' From The Money River, Put Away Childish Toys and Good Stuff. His playing has appeared on literally hundreds of commercial jingles, TV shows and feature films. Geissman recorded the now-classic guitar solo on Chuck Mangione's two million-selling hit "Feels So Good," appeared on four Chuck Mangione albums and toured internationally with Mangione's band. "I am thrilled to have signed with Primat," said Geissman. "Sam Trust has repeatedly demonstrated enthusiasm for my music. I wanted to be with a publisher that would fully exploit my ablilities in the areas of writing and scoring for film and television. The creative team of Brooks Arthur and Tami Lester affords me those possibilities. Sam has shown an ongoing commitment to artist development that I believe will be fully realized at Primat." ...

VIRGIN MUSIC— New Signings just-inked, out of the box smash new group Deee-lite, is already being touted in the press as "the most innovative music to come from NYC in the last 10years— Holographic house groove." Already a hit in the US and UK, and rapidly spreading throughout the rest of the world. The media coverage has been incredible, including Lady Miss Keir recently doing a photo shoot for Italian Vogue... Also new to the company roster is Love On Ice, a four-piece rock band from Portland, Oregon. Already signed to Interscope Records, big name managers are chomping at the bit for this new act... Writer News-Mick Leeson & Peter Vale, from England, who wrote Maxi Priest's song "Human Work Of Art," were currently visiting the L.A. offices, meeting with Virgin Staff and other record company executives... Elliot Wolff is writing and producing Robert Daniel's (Columbia) debut album... Russ Ballard was in L.A. working with Bad English (Epic), for their next release... Derek Bramble is in the studio with Mick Murphy (Atlantic) working on his solo venture. Derek is also working with Tisha Campbell (Capitol) for her solo outing ... Cole & Clivilles (Columbia) are finishing their album project-C & C Music Factory, as well as Trilogy's (Atco) LP... Nicky Holland is working with Lloyd Cole (CBS Associated Labels) for her upcoming debut album... and Oliver Leiber is working on new songs for Paula Abdul's (Virgin) followup to her smash debut LP ...

SAMUELLE'S SOLO-After the separation of his former group Club Nouveau, writer/artist Samuelle's (Atlantic) first single off his debut LP, "So You Like What You See," sailed up the charts to the #1 spot in record time. His second single and LP title track, "Living In The Black Paradise," is expected to do just the same. The success of this LP could be considered a homecoming. It marks the reunion of his current producers/co-writers Denzil Foster & Thomas McElroy of 2-Tuff E-Nuff Productions and himself, all who were former members of Club Nouveau. This LP also adds to the growing number of hitmakers from the new music powerhouse city of Oakland, CA, that serves as home to groups such as, Foster & McElroy, MC Hammer, Tony! Toni! Tone! and En Vogue...

JIMMY BUFFETT-FEEDING FREN-ZY FOR PARROT HEADS—Jimmy Buffett (MCA) threw an intimate little beach party for 40,000 of his closest friends. The fun started at 11:00 am on Smathers Beach in Key West, Fla. That's when and where Buffett premiered his brand-new, world-class, rollicking live album, Feeding Frenzy, before the multitudes gathered there for the 12th Annual Fantasy Fest. Why give an album its world premiere on a beach? Why not do what every other artist does when he unveils a new album: play it in a recording studio for a bunch of high-powered record company executives, pop open a few beers, serve a little wine, munch on some cheese and call it a day? If you ask why, you don't know Jimmy Buffett, or the rabid fans he calls Parrot Heads. "I made this album for the Parrot Heads," Buffett says. "So I might as well play it for them first, too." Recorded during four hot & wild August nights in Atlanta and Cincinnati, the LP includes such Buffett standards as "One Particular Harbor," "Fins," "Volcano," "A Pirate Looks at Forty," "Cheeseburger in Paradise," and, of course, "Margaritaville." In addition to those numbers--each landed on Buffett's concert program via votes cast by members of his fan club-the album also includes two new songs, "In The City," and a reggae-ized version of the Harry Belafonte hit 'Jamaica Farewell." The 15-song LP is out now. Buffett, who is also the author of a children's book, The Jolly Mon, with his daughter Savannah Jane, is working on "a character novel with a mystery in the middle about a seaplane pilot named Frank Bama who gets into trouble just for being who he is." Hmmm. Sounds like Jimmy Buffett...

Recording Artists Against Drunk Driving (R.A.D.D.) recently held a press conference at the Los Angeles China Club to present Stevie Wonder with an honorary Global Founders Award for writing the song "Don't Drive Drunk," which was the inspiration for the forming of R.A.D.D. After accepting the award, Wonder surprised the crowd with a rousing performance of his song, "Let's Keep Our Love Alive."

NASHVILLE NOTES... Country Radio Seminar Exhibit Hall Filling Fast

CRS Exhibition Hall 1990 ALTHOUGH THIRTY PERCENT MORE BOOTHS have been made available, almost half of the exhibit hall for the 1991 Country Radio Seminar has been booked. Due to such response, interested organizations are being urged to contact the presenters of the annual event for booth space.

CRS Exhibit Hall coordinator Dave DeBolt says that although more exhibition space has been made available for the annual March event, advance bookings are nonetheless nearing the 50 percent mark. "We'll have more space available this year and we're already nearly half full," Debot comments. "It's a real 'the sooner, the better' situation. The sooner we receive a commitment, the better the choice of booth space."

According to DeBolt, who has served as exhibit hall coordinator for several years, many exhibitors have reserved multiple booth space for CRS 22. Among them are Broadcast Data Systems, Radio Computing Service, Music City News, Birch/Scarborough Research Corp., Country Music Association, RRN Inc., Tapscan Inc., TransGraphics and Satellite Music Network.

The upcoming seminar will again open its exhibit hall for a total of 20 hours, with half of that time being exclusive, which means no other seminar activities will be taking place while the exhibit hall is open. In addition, two annual seminar functions—the Thursday luncheon sponsored by TNNR (The Nashville Network Radio) and the Friday wine and cheese party will be conducted inside the exhibit hall #### area.

Various music associations, equipment manufacturers, trade publications and radio syndicators and program suppliers are among the types of companies and organizations within the country music industry who have utilized the exhibit hall in past seminars.

Representation availed through the exhibit hall is considered to be an excellent opportunity to heighten a company's or organization's profile within the country/radio music industry simply by sponsoring one of the many diverse events occuring during the seminar. Past event sponsors include such companies as McGavern Guild, Red Man Golden Blend Tobacco, ASCAP, BMI, The Nashville Network Radio, the Academy of Country Music, the Country Music Association, Emerald Entertainment Group, IDB Communications Group, Mutual Broadcasting, Drake-Chenault/Jones and the Canadian Country Music Association.

The 22nd Annual Country Radio Seminar will take place March 6-9, 1991, at Nashville's Opryland Hotel and Convention Center. The theme for CRS 22 has been designated as On The Road Again.

For exhibit hall information contact Dave DeBolt, or for event sponsorship information contact Frank Mull, at CRB Inc., 50 Music Square West (#604), Nashville, TN 37203, (615) 327-4487 or 3274488.

For publicity information contact Aristo Publicity, P.O. Box 22765, Nashville, TN 37202, (615) 269-7071/2, fax (615) 269-0131.

Extensive Distribution Opens Door To Independents

IN AN EFFORT TO NARROW THE COMPETITION BETWEEN INDE-PENDENT AN MAJOR record labels.

the Atlanta-based Intersound Inc. is making available its massive national and international distribution network in an attempt to overcome one of the biggest obstacles facing independents today.  Following a recent signing of a longterm distribution agreement with Nashville's DPI Records, Intersound is now offering to put the same global network to use for other select country independents as well.

"What we are offering is a viable national alternative to the piecemeal, regional distribution situation that most small labels and independents find themselves in," says Intersound president Don Johnson. "The simple fact is, it doesn't matter how good a given music product happens to be, if it never reaches the market place."

Since 1982, Intersound has distributed its own labels and a select group of independents through its branch distribution system reaching every major retail outlet in the United States on a direct basis. Backed by regional sales managers in New York, Minneapolis, Los Angeles and Atlanta, and international coverage through licensees and distributors in 26 foreign countries, Intersound's distribution includes such diverse independents as Chuck Mangione's Feels So Good Records, Steve Halpern's Halpern Sounds and DPI, a new Nashville label founded by country legend Mae Axton.

In addition to its extensive distribution network, Johnson noted that Intersound can also offer a flexible array of other services designed to help independents compete with the majors. He noted that these services included digital editing and post-production mastering, art and package design, compact disc and cassette manufacturing, national country radio promotion, chart promotion and marketing, national press and publicity, video production and promotion, national sales and merchandising, international sales coverage and copyright and mechanical royalty reporting.

"In a crowded marketplace, Intersound's distribution services give independents a tangible advantage over labels opting for the CEMA style or independent distributor route," concluded Johnson.

Parties interested in such service can contact Johnson at 1-800-695-4282.

Baillie & The Boys BAILLIE & THE BOYS OPENING ON ROGERS' CHRISTMAS TOUR: RCA Records duo Baillie & The Boys will be spending a great deal of the Christmas season with a very famous bearded fellow-Kenny Rogers. The two are slated to open for Rogers during his annual Christmas tour, which began in late November and concludes on December 23, highlighted by appearances in Detroit, Philadelphia, Cleveland, St. Charles, IL and Westbury, NY. The artists are concluding a year that has seen them appear in concert with some of country music's biggest names, including Reba McEntire, Ricky Van Shelton and K.T. Oslin.

The Bellamy Brothers BELLAMYS RECORDING IN

EUROPE: The Bellamy Brothers have recently begun recording an album in Germany, exclusively for the European market. Produced by Ralph Siegel, a noted German producer, the LP will be released by Jupiter Records early next Spring in Germany, Austria, Switzerland and The United Kingdom. It was in Europe that the Bellamys first found fame with their worldwide hit, "Let Your Love Flow." Since that time, they have annually played overseas. Plans are currently underway for the duo to tour Germany, Austria and Switzerland in June, 1991.

Merle Haggard HAGGARD CON-CLUDES 1990

TOUR: Curb recording artist Merle Haggard is busy completing the last leg of his 1990 concert tour. Haggard is currently on a 24-day tour, including concerts in Daytona Beach, Florida, Charlotte, North Carolina, Tulsa, Oklahoma, and other cities, in addition to the taping of Austin City Limits in Austin, Texas. This leg of the tour finished December 2nd in Chattanooga, Tennessee. Haggard's second single "Blue Jungle" from the Curb album of the same name has just been released to radio. He recently recorded his selfpenned 1969 hit "Swinging Doors" as duet with Curb/Capitol Nashville recording artist Tony Toliver for Toliver's album to be released April 5, 1991. A re-issue package of Haggard's Christmas music entitled Merle Haggard-A Christmas Present has also been released. The package includes his classic "If We Make It Through December."

STEP ONE REC

1300 DIVI

Curb recording artist Ronnle McDowell and his long-time producer Buddy Killen are all smiles after glving their final touches to McDowell's rushreleased single "Unchained Melody." The song was recorded in Nashville at Masterfonics Studio. At the same time, a new music video will also be released, which features the sultry dance team of Kim Beasley and Alan Parker.

RONNIE McDOWELL: "Unchained Melody" (Curb CURBD-035)

Producer: Buddy Killen

Writers: Alex North/Hy Zaret

For a voice deserving nothing less than an incredible song, enters the magic of the long-time favorite "Unchained Melody." After witnessing the Righteous Brothers carry this musical treasure to the top of the pop charts, McDowell carries on the tradition by adding an even more emotional, yet personal approach. McDowell's pillow-textured vocals croon out a bouquet of soulful tones like never before—flaunting a spectrum which stretches from gut-level baratone to a commanding high-tenor ring. "Unchained Melody" on country radio? Go for it—this could be big!

FEATURE PICKS

MARTY STUART: "Little Things" (MCA 53975)

Producers: Richard Bennett/Tony Brown

Writers: Paul Kennerly/Marty Stuart

Insert disk, push play, crank it up and don't take it out—this hillbilly rocker has a power-playing tune on his hand! If you thought the "Hillbilly Rock" single endured heavy radio friction, just wait until this spiced-up number soars through the speakers. "Little Things" sparks a lot of gut, grind and grit, and Stuart's wailing performance is nothing less than commanding!

DONNA ULISSE: "Things Are Mostly Fine" (Atlantic 3443-2)

Producers: Josh Leo/Larry Michael Lee

Writer: John Adrion

Fresh from the Atlantic roster is newcomer Donna Ulisse, who vocally defines the meaning of pure tone quality and heart-felt singing. "Things Are Mostly Fine" generates a soothing ballad quilted with a powerful force of emotion and inspiration. Ulisse ultimately creates the magic for this tune, and you can bet this single will add some magic to her career—and quick. This one is ready to blossom!

TEXAS TORNADOS: "A Man Can Cry" (Reprise 7-19516)

Producers: Bill Halverson/Texas Tornados

Writers: Freddy Fender/Wayne Duncan

The sensation of Mexican-Country hits the scene once again as the tranquilizing vocals of Freddy Fender and the Texas Tornados deliver this emotional diddy about love's tearful heartaches. Enhanced with a graceful 50's doo-wop melody and relaxing instrumentation, "A Man Can Cry" should create a fresh addition to radio's battle of the traditional/new country format.

C RAY STEVENS: "Help Me Make It Through The Night" (Curb/Capitol 79430)

□ JOHNNY CASH: "The Greatest Cowboy Of Them All" (Mercury 360) □ BOBBY VINTON & THE CURB GIRLS: "Mr. Lonely" (Curb CURBD-003)

■ INDIE SINGLE RELEASES

D JOEY WELZ: "Headin' For Armageddon" (Caprice CJR-2370) Producer: Joey Welz

Writers: James Myers/Ed Galiagner

The latest release from Caprice recording artist Joey Welz, presents an unusual blend consisting of both traditional country and on-edge southern gospel flavors, yet targets its listeners with a straight-forward message. Explicit lyrics penned by long-time tunesmith James Myers, who is also credited for such work as the famed "Rock Around The Clock," places emphasis on the world's many dilemmas and follows up with a sensible solution. Welz' gravely vocals provide a unique melodic narration and displays emotions lined with concern and sincerity.

CASH BOX DECEMBER 8, 1990

"The Lord Of Birmingham" sparks the latest single release from Badger recording artist B.T. Kern, and in its third week on Cash Box's Top 100 Country Singles Chart, the single moves up five slots to #80. Shown here from (I to r) are: Kern; Badger Records' Billy Joe Burnette; and Bobby Harden, who sings back-up on the new single, in addition to writing Mark Chesnutt's recent hit "Too Cold At Home."

ATLAS HOSTS POST-EXPO SHOWING AT NEW DIGS

CHICAGO—The new Atlas Distributing, Inc. facilities at 4500 W. Dickens in Chicago, provided the setting for a post-AMOA Expo showing which saw full manufacturer representation and a steady flow of operator traffic throughout the daylong event. It must be reported that attendees were as impressed with the new digs as they were with the terrific equipment spread. Atlas has a modern, spacious new home that is a far cry from its previous location (which everyone seemed to notice). Company luminaries Jerry Marcus and Ed Pellegrini, together with the members of the Atlas staff, went all out as hosts, making certain there was plenty to eat, drink and see! (photos by Pam Caposieno)

Getting set to play Grand Products' Dyno-Bop are ops Terry Gold and Corey Dyer of Just Games.

Rock-Ola's field service engineer Ed Olson, Joe Riggio and Atlas's Ed Pellegrini surround the lovely, new Mirage CD Juke.

Paul Sawicki and Jerry Korbecki, giving Data East's Simpsons a workout.

Atlas's Jerry Marcus (center) with ops Jim and Kem Thom of Western Automatic Music.

At Taito America's Space Gun with staffers Natalie Kulig and Julle Filips and ops Kevin and Frank Mundt of Spot Amusements.

Jaleco's newly intro'd Cisco Heat with the firm's Larry Berke and Howie Rubin.

A buddies shot of Konami's Steve Kaufman and Data East Pinball's Gary Stern.

Getting their Int'l. Flipper Pinball Assn. pins are CB's Camille Compasio and Premier's Dan Clarton, from iFPA veepee Ed Velasquez (I) and that's Title Fight at the right.

The FABTEK/irem lineup included Pound For Pound, Hammerin' Harry and Blood Bros.—and you'll recognize Steve Blattspieler, of course.

Another buddies shot, with Bromley's Lauran Bromley, and Data East Pinball's Gary Stern and Shelley Sax.
