THE MUSIC TRADE MAGAZINE

Sheena Easton

BY ALEX HENDERSON

AT THE RECENT SOUL TRAINMUSIC AWARDS, SHEENA EASTON thanked the Black music community for supporting her. Though the Scotish singer's early hits were pure pop—and though she continues to fare well in Top 40/CHR circles—Easton has been a definite force in R&B and/or dance music circles since 1984 thanks to "Sugar Walls," "Do It For Love," "U Got The Look" (a duet with Prince), "Strut" and other hits. Easton has worked with such prominent figures in Black music as Prince, L.A. & Babyface and Nile Rodgers while maintaining her CHR presence. "When I first started doing dance-furk-pop," Easton recalls, "I had to explain it to people—it's not pop, and it's not Black music per se; it's somewhere in the middle. What I'm doing now is a continuation of that work—and these days, if you turn on MTV or the radio, you can hear that it has become a popular style."

With 1988's gold The Lover In Me and its mega-hit title track, Easton switched from EMI to MCA Records. The newly-released What Comes Naturally, Easton's second album for MCA and ninth overall, marks the first time she's recorded some songs she co-wrote. "It means a big step forward," Easton explains. "It means a lot to me that I finally got together the guts to be able to expose myself to the public like this... In the last few years, I've been writing more and more, but it's taken me all this time to get it together to where I've progressed enough in my writing to commit to it and want to record it myself."

UNBELIEVABLE! VANILLA ICE AND M.C. HAMMER ARE NOT ON THIS

LIST: The RIAA's March list of gold and platinum certifications, amazingly, doesn't add another million sales to either Mr. Ice's or Mr. Hammer's totals. But that doesn't mean nobody's selling records out there in retail land. To wit:

Multi-platinumers last month, some of them a few years old, were Bruce Hornsby's The Way it Is and Steve Miller's Greatest Hits: 1974-78 (three million each), and Depeche Mode's Violator, Eric Clapton's Journeyman, Rick Astley's Whenever You Need Somebody, Bette Midler's Some People's Lives, Keith Sweat's I'll Give All My Love to You and Metallica's Master of Puppets (two million each).

In the platinum circle were David Bowie's Changesbowie, Gloria Estefan's Into the Light, C&C Music Factory's Gonna Make You Sweat, Chicago's Greatest Hits: 1982-1989, Alan Jackson's Here in the Real World and Tesla's Five Man Acoustical

Goin' gold last month were Into the Light, the Judds' Love Can Build a Bridge, Orchestral Manoeuvres in the Dark's The Best of OMD, the Cure's The Head on the Door, Digital Underground's This is an EP Release, Paul Simon's Negotiations and Love Songs: 1971-1986, Oleta Adams' Circle of One, Trixter and Eric Johnson's Ah Via Musicom.

And that's not all. Jason Berman, the RIAA president, is about to give an honorary platinum record to the U.S. Customs "in recognition of its long-standing efforts over the years to protect the music industry from unauthorized sound recordings." How 'bout that.

SERIOUS FUND: The family of the late Doc Pomus, writer of such rock standards as "Save the Last Dance for Me" and "Little Sister," has established a memorial fund to provide financial assistance to rhythm and blues musicians. Pomus, who died on March 14, was a steadfast supporter of musicians of all stripes. Contributions can be sent to the Doc Pomus Memorial Fund c/o the Rhythm and Blues Foundation, 14th and Constitution Ave. NW, Room 4603, Washington D.C. 20560

IF BEALE STREET COULD SING: B.B. King, whose career was launched on Memphis' famous Beale Street, is, in a way, coming home. B.B. King's Blues Club will open on the famous thoroughfare on May 3rd. King will perform at the 300-seat club at least four times a year.

PUTTIN' ON THE RITZ: "Live at the Ritz," a new concert series for Japanese Satellite Broadcast (JSB), will soon commence production at the famous New York venue. Performance Video, the video arm of Metropolitan Entertainment Inc., will produce the series, which will consist of 13 90-minute shows. John Scher, the concert promoter who has booked the club for six years, will serve as executive producer and the shows will be directed by Bob Lampel.

WHO WON THE AUSTIN MUSIC AWARDS, WHO WON THE AUSTIN MUSIC

AWARDS???The Joe Ely Band, Stevie Ray Vaughan, "Tick Tock," the Arc Angels, Joe Ely, Marcia Ball, Eric Johnson (he won two), Sarah Brown, Reese Wynans, Chris Layton, Butch Hancock and Jimmie Vaughan, that's who.

MUSIC, MUSIC: It's not too late for bands to apply to participate in the musical portion of the New Music Seminar, rolling into New York July 12-17. You've got till May 1st (April 15th for non-U.S. performers) to send some songs and a $15 fee to A&R Department, New Music Nights, 632 Broadway, 9th Fl., New York, NY 10012.

EXECUTIVES ON THE MOVE

■ Geffen Records has named Clndy Gray a media & artist relations director. Gray will handle national publicity campaigns for Geffen and DGC artists. Before joining Geffen, the New York-based Gray spent two years as director of media & artist relations for Island Records and, before that, was manager, national publicity for Uni Records. ■ Chris Baca has been promoted to director, album promotion for EMI Records USA. Before this promotion, Baca was director, album promotion, West Coast for the label. Baca will report to Gray Norm Osborne, vice president, album promotion. ■ Impact Records has appointed Laura Kuntz senior director, East Coast operations/National Top 40. Before joining the MCAdistributed Impact, Kuntz was senior director, national dance promotion/Northeast regional promotion for Chrysalis Records. ■ Brenda Hazell has been appointed national urban marketing manager for EMI Records USA. In her new capacity, Hazell will report directly to national director, sales Phil Blume. Before this appointment, Hazell was singles sales specialist and product development coordinator for BMG Distribution.

Gary Briggs has been named national AOR promotion manager for Reprise Records. Before this appointment, Briggs was a local promotion rep for Reprise in San Francisco. And, Andre Fullerhas been named West Coast promotion manager, Black music for Reprise Records. Fuller's previous experience includes spending three years as national marketing coordinator for Solar Records and serving as West Coast singles specialist for WEA. ■ ++ □□▲ has promoted Robbie Snow to director, marketing, making him responsible for providing strategic and creative direction to the label's artists, album projects and product. He will be instrumental in the planning and execution of projects for RCA's new marketing division. A three-year label vet, he was most recently product manager, West Coast; he will now be based in New York. And Janet Kleinbaum has been named director, video promotion and artist development. Formerly of Island Records, Kleinbaum will be responsible for all video promotion activities for the label's artists. ■ +□■I ★◆▲※ has appointed Robert Grabowski director, administration and finance, studio operations, putting him in charge of all financial and administrative controls for the Sony Music Studios operations in New York and Los Angeles. He has been associate director, recording operations, for over five years. And Tim Geelan has been made director, operations for the same division; he'll be planning and overseeing all construction, design and equipment selection for Sony's New York studio, as well as directing its day-to-day technical operations. Grace Szwagulinski has been named manager, publicity and public relations, Sony Music Video. She was most recently at Geltzer & Co. And Columbia Records has made two promotions in its dance music promotion department: Michael Becker has been made associate director and John Strazza has been made manager, East Coast. ■ BWarner/Chappel has promoted Kenny MacPherson to vice president of creative services in its New York offices.

Atlantic Records has promoted Mojoe Nicosia to creative manager of the Dance Music Department and appointed Marco Navarra manager of dance music promotion. Nicosia and Navarra will both report to director of dance music Joey Carvello. ■ Bruce Tenenbaum, senior vice president, promotion for Impact Records, has announced the appointment of his field promotion staff. The appointments include Jan Teifeld, northwest regional promotion rep; Jeff Davis, Southeast regional promotion rep; Trish Merelo, Mid-Atlantic promotion rep; Suzanne Slas, Chicago promotion rep; Patt Moriss, Dallas promotion rep; Kevin Morton, Missouri/Colorado promotion rep; Tom Scheppke, Carolinas/Tennessee promotion rep; and Don George, Ohio/Michigan/upstate New York promotion rep. ■ WEA has appointed Pam Bannister national product development coordinator and Dan Caldwell in-house marketing rep for the New York branch. Bannister has been with WEA since 1976, most recently serving as singles specialist. Caldwell joined WEA in 1989 as an account merchandising rep.

POP REVIEWS

■ SINGLES

□ RUN-D.M.C.: "Faces" b/w "Back From Hell" (Profile PCD-7328-DJ)

The release of slammin' "Faces" as the latest single from Run-D.M.C.'s current album, Back To Hell, serves as a reminder that the Hollis Crew is making the hardcore rap audience, not the pop crowd, its #1 priority. Equally hardcore is a remix of Back From Hell's title track that is less metal-influenced than the album version and boasts guest appearances by Public Enemy leader Chuck D and the infamous "brother ya love to hate" Ice Cube.

☐ THE HORSE FLIES: "Sally Ann" (MCA CD45-1351)

"Sally Ann," the first single release from "alternative" band The Horse Flies' current album, Gravity Dance, is an eerie pop song with quirky "alternative" touches. Produced by Hilton Rosenthal.

ALBUMS

☐ MR. BIG: Lean Into It (Atlantic 82209-4)

Headbangers and AOR programmers have plenty to check out on Mr. Big's Lean Into It. The album's AOR-friendly hard rock cuts include "Voodoo Kiss," "Alive And Kickin'," "Never Say Never," "Daddy, Brother, Lover, Little Boy

(The Electric Drill Song)" and "My Kinda Woman." While Billy Sheehan & Co. bring plenty of blues feeling to much of the material, "A Little Too Loose" is especially bluesy. Lean Into It was produced by Kevin Elson, who handled the mixing and engineering with Tom Size.

☐ SAFIRE: I Wasn't Born Yesterday (Mercury 846 651-2)

Safire is known as one of the leading figures in "Latin hip-hop" or "freestyle"-a form of dance music also associated with TKA, Judy Torres, The Cover Girls and Denise Lopez. But that's only a small part of what the singer does on I Wasn't Born Yesterday, a 10track CD. I Wasn't Born Yesterday contains plenty of material for the dance floor, including "Taste The Bass" (which is on the hip-house tip), "Shame," "Made Up My Mind," "Some Things Never Change" and the title track (an R&B/pop song with some rapping). The New York-based Latina provides some R&B/pop balladry with "I Can't Cry" and "Whatever Happens." David Morales, Tony Moran, Gerry Brown and Ian Prince are among the album's producers.

☐ YVONNE JACKSON: I'm Trouble (Ichiban ICH 1105)

I'm Trouble boasts Florida native Yvonne Jackson belting out the type of gospel-influenced soul music that was so thrilling in the 1960s and '70s. Nothing resembling a drum machine is heard on "No Deposit, No Return," "The Woman In Me," "Whacha Gonna Do About It," "Sweet Memories" and other gritty numbers that come alive thanks to Jackson's expressive singing and the presence of real musicians playing real instruments—including James Brown associates Maceo Parker (alto sax) and Fred Wesley (trombone) and bluesman Lucky Peterson (who's heard on Hammond B-3 organ). The 10-track CD was produced by drummer Jim Payne.

□ EARL KLUGH: The Best Of Earl Klugh (BlueNote CDP 7 46625-2)

Before Kenny G, Deborah Henson-Conant, Tim Weisberg and other providors of light, inoffensive pop-jazz realized there was money to be made by appealing to the yuppie-filled "quiet storm" and "wave" markets, guitarist Earl Klugh was among the lightest of the light-a fact underscored by The Best Of Earl Klugh. This 12-track CD's innocuous material ranges from the 1976's "Angelina" to "Dr. Macumba" and "Long Ago And Far Away' (both of which appeared on 1977's Finger Painting) to 1981's "Calypso Getaway" to "Tropical Legs" (1984). Four of the songs on The Best Of Earl Klugh were produced by GRP leaders Dave Grusin/Larry Rosen, while others were produced by Klugh himself.

☐ SPARKS: Profile: The Ultimate Sparks Collection (Rhino R2 70731)

Rhino Records spotlights Sparks' 20-year career with the release of Profile: The Ultimate Sparks Collection, a two-CD set totaling 40 songs. The delightfully wacky pop and pop-rock ranges from the band's early 1970s work for Bearsville ("Wonder Girl," "(No More) Mr. Nice Guys," "The Girl From Germany") to better known songs from the Island and Columbia years, (including "Something For The Girl With Everything," "This Town Ain't Big Enough For The Both Of Us," "At Home, At Work, At Play," "Achoo," "Big Boy," "Never Turn Your Back On Mother Earth" and "Hasta Manana, Monseiur") to such '80s Atlantic or MCA songs as "Cool Places" (which features then-Go-Go Jane Weidlin)," "Modesty Plays," "Moustache," "Music That You Can Dance To" and "All You Ever Think About Is Sex."

EAST COASTING

SAY IT LOUD: That weird James Brown press conference—announcing his June 10th pay-per-view concert at the Wiltern Theatre—reminded me uncomfortably of another press conference I attended some years ago: the announcement of the Jacksons' Victory tour. That press conference, held at Tavern on the Green, was a farce, as was this. For the Jacksons it was Don King, the boxing promoter, doing the announcing; for Brown, it was Butch Lewis, the boxing promoter (Lewis, fight fans, is the guy who wears thousand dollar suits, silk ties and no shirts).

Like that distant press conference, the celebrities who turned out here were not from the world of music, but rather from the world of boxing (Joe Frazier and Michael Spinks) and community activism (Al Sharpton and C. Vernon Mason). In fact, it also brought to mind the last time I went to a James Brown press conference, about four or five years ago. Sharpton announced a James Brown concert at Yankee Stadium, a concert that never took place.

Don King, you'll recall, ended up embroiled in some dispute with the Jackson family, and his participation in the Victory tour finally disintegrated (although lots of money changed hands somewhere).

So am I saying that this pay-per-view thing won't come off? No, I'm not saying that. I am saying that, in my opinion, there's not enough interest in James Brown's return to performing—as noteworthy a musical event as it is—to get people around the country to shell out 20 bucks for the privilege of watching it at home.

Ed Bleier, president of Warner Bros. Pay-TV (co-producers, along with Butch Lewis Productions and Black Entertainment Television), conceded that "concerts haven't been extraordinarily successful on pay-per-view," but suggested that this was more an "event" than a concert.

How much of an event we'll see, even with the promise of "guests" (none of them yet announced). Remember, Brown, before his recent troubles, had been reduced to playing the Lone Star Cafe in New York: a club. And Bob Grossweiner of Performance Magazine raised a good point after the press conference: How many black homes across the country have access to pay-per-view?. Hmmmmmm.

For his part, "The Godfather of Soul"/"The Hardest Working Man in Show Business"/"Mr. Dynamite"/"Soul Brother No. 1" came across as somewhat embittered, stating that the hardest thing about his prison term (he served two years of a six-and-a-half-year sentence) was that "I could never find a reason I was there."

"Pride kept me in trouble," said the 57-year-old legend, "because I never outlived the '60s. I could have walked home if I had pleaded guilty—90 days community service, that's it."

Brown also said he'd begin recording a new album soon and would tour "everywhere" after the June 10th airing, even promising to return to the Apollo—"the Mecca," as he put it.

In other remarks, Brown—whose career will be the subject of a four-CD PolyGram boxed set in early May—said, "The music business doesn't owe me nothing... The disk jockeys around the world never stopped playing James Brown and the rappers never quit using Brown."

When asked if there would be any rappers on his new album, Brown said, "I've been on their records so there's no need for us to go back and forth."

PolyGram, of course, doesn't want anything written about the boxed set before it's released, so—despite the advance CD copies of it that went around a couple of weeks ago—I won't tell you that it's absolutely, positively, in every conceivable way, fantastic. And if you can wear grooves out on a CD, my grooves'd be worn down pretty good by now. But we'll talk about that next month.

In any case, this is what Pee Wee Ellis, Brown's former saxophonist and musical director, said a couple of months ago when asked about how his still incarcerated ex-boss would do once he's released:

"Eventually they'll let him out, and he'll pursue his career and pick up the pieces as he sees fit or is advised," he said. "And he'll either be as big as anybody's ever been or he'll fall on his face."

I wish James Brown a lot of luck. Stay tuned.

POINTS WEST

THE TROUBADOR IN HOLLYWOOD is usually a place where heavy metal wanna-bees hang out, strut their stuff and dream of glory. Recently, however, the r&b/jazz/rock inflected group, Clout, held a showcase there that even impressed the regulars. The band is rock-solid professional with singers who can actually exist outside the studio. The problem with the outfit is that they were so generically professional that no personality came from them. Everyone hit their mark and seemed to be having a good time, but there was nothing you hadn't seen before; in fact, there was less. What Clout need to really push them to the top of the class is to find some element (a dazzling musician or added singer) who is going to give them a spark to set them apart from the crowd. They're very good, and it's great to see a band that puts the emphasis on talent. Now, they need to work on originality.

DESPITE THEIR POPULARITY, THE PET SHOP BOYS are one of the most under-rated acts in pop music. Thankfully, that appears to be changing—somewhat; their last album, Behaviour, made the cut on several critics' 1990 year-end Top 10 lists; the quick and jeering dismissal has given way to thoughtful analysis of their work (the Los Angeles Times even went so far as to dub them "poets...for the confusing, sad world"), and the potency of their synth-pop has been recognized as being as rich and heady as any guitar god's. Their current (and first) world tour, Performance, may, ironically, charm critics while leaving many of their fans in the cold. A mixture of Broadway, performance art and Las Vegas, complete with costume and set changes for every number, as well as a dozen dancers, the concert dazzles the eyes while highlighting Neil Tennant's somber lyrics. (When I spoke to Chris Lowe, he laughed that one of the reasons the Pet Shop Boys have waited so long to tour is that this is the first time they could afford to lose the enormous amount of money they're losing on this tour). Before the evening ends, the audience has been whisked through a boarding school (and into the repressed sexual fantasies of its inhabitants), a "West End dive," a Russian square and a corporate boardroom. Tennant's detatched vocals are surprisingly strong and effective live while Chris Lowe handles his rap and choreography with his own brand of detachment (his slo-mo, soft pelvic thrust actually restoring the heat to a move that's become common and meaningless). Highlights of the show were when backing vocalists took over the leads for "Rent" and "My October Symphony" and had the crowd screaming their approval. Overall, however, the gap between the presentation and audience's expectations was a huge one and one tbat may have been impossible to overcome. For one thing, the Pet Shop Boys' music works on so many levels, (there were fans there dressed in tee-shirts ranging from Paula Abdul and Skinny Puppy to Heavy Metal bands) that any interpretation of the song's was bound to leave someone feeling alienated or even betrayed. How do you figure out what it is in one body of work that appeals to such an incredibly diverse crowd? To their credit, the PSB didn't even attempt to calculate for the lowest common denominator. There was quite a bit of grumbling as people were exiting the Universal Amphitheater; some were claiming that they hated the show, others that they just didn't get it. And though some may feel that the duo were a little too ambitious with this outing, what they actually did was preserve the validity of every single person's take on Pet Shop Boys music, no small feat with such a far ranging crowd.

BY CHRISSY ILEY

TEN YEARS AFTER: Remember back to the dour years—the beginning of the Thatcher Decade? She told us to tighten our belts and the music scene exploded with fresh talent. Complacency never inspired a decent single, suffering was always a better motivator. Or maybe it was just simply that all those people wandering around on the dole had to have something to do.

For whatever reason, the recession is back, and so are they: The early '80s eccentrics ride again.

Julian Cope came from Teardrop Explodes to contort and twist around his microphone. All stringy-legged, he sang about twisted compulsions and went off to hibernate in suburbia where he collected Karmen Ghias of the standard and miniature variety—thousands of Dinky toys raced around his attic. But now a new single, "Beautiful Love," is on the charts. It comes from his much trumpeted new album.

Cope was managed by Bill Drummond, who retired from the music business in 1986 to make damson jam and embark on a novel. He got no further than page 367 when he teamed up with Jimmy Cauty and formed KLF, recently at the Number One spot. In a previous incarnation they were the Timelords, with the deliriously awful "Doctorin' the Tardis."

Drummond, far more successful as an artist than a manager, has become the only person to reach Number One twice in two different bands. With his tongue wearing a hole in his cheek, he wrote The Manual (How to Have a Number One the Easy Way.

Japan, those wispy ethereals with twig-legged David Sylvian, epitomized a mood of the early '80s and then sank without a trace. Sylvian's solo wailings, something about forests, were doomed never to be played. Now Japan has reformed.

That emminent English eccentric, Boy George, also returns to form with his album The Martyr Mantras. Pete Wylie. Remember him from the Mighty Wah!? He's back. Joe Strummer has been forced to public attention once more by the Levi advert using the Clash's "Should I Stay or Should I Go." The Sisters of Mercy celebrate 10 years since their incarceration by Andrew Eldritch, Oxford graduate in Chinese.

Morrissey, not that he was ever away, has come up with a typically macabre album, Kill Uncle. Song titles and lyrics are more eccentric than ever. "The Harsh Truth of the Camera Eye." "There's a Place in Hell for Me and My Friend." "Asian Rut." "I'm the End of the Family Line." And my favorite, "King Leer," which deals with a homeless chihuahua.

Joining the ranks of '90s eccentrics comes Jonathan Perkins, with his devilish goatee and his compulsive little album, Snaketalk. Love, hate, obsession, the usual. He was discovered by Dave Stewart—you can't get more eccentric than that. And he also plays in his band, the Spiritual Cowboys.

Steve Booker is a whimsical entry to the world. His album, Dreamworld, was written from his dreams and as a result of his not leaving the house for three years. "I'd pull the curtains and do a few exercises to keep myself alive, but hardly ever went out." He simply paced his room and wrote.

One thing we may note here is that all of these English eccentrics are men. And what does this prove? That it is less acceptable for a female to be barking mad and taken seriously. Once again, what a man gets away with a woman would be mocked for. There's a wannabe English eccentric in the person of Tanita Tikaram, but talking about donuts as an interesting concept with schoolgirl churlishness doesn't really qualify. She's too unformed and, above all, eccentrics have to have lived from the cores to the seams of existence.

TOKYO—A triple platinum certification was awarded to "Ai Wa Katsu" (Love Wins) (Kan./Polydor) by the Japan Phonograph Record Assn. (JPRA). In addition, "Futari Wa Otona" was certified double platinum and "Gingira Paradise" earned a gold award. At the same time, Tengoku No Door by Yumi Matsutoya on Toshiba EMI became a Quintuple Platinum album; Lovers by Princes Princess on CBS Sony, Quadruple Platinum; Princes Princess Triple Platinum; and Risky by B'z on BMG Victor, Double Platinum.

MASANOBU IAHARA, founder of Seikodo (one of the major record distributors in Japan), died on Feb. 13, 1991 due to a heart attack at the age of 87. About 60 years ago, he and his wife opened a small record retail outlet in Tokyo. It was a big struggle then, but through the years they built the company up to include 33 branch offices throughout the country. Considered a major success story in the music industry world of Japan, Jahara's company was estimated to be worth $670 million in 1990.

NIPPON COLUMBIA president Kazuo Mochizuki has announced the purchase of U.S. jazz label Savoy for an estimated several hundred million yen (about three or four million dollars). Nippon Columbia purchased the label as well as its entire catalog and will utilize Savoy as part of a new worldwide strategy it is now developing.

ACCORDING TO the Association of Video Softwares of Japan (AVSWJ), total shipment of video software in Japan for 1990 amounted to 262,609 million yen or more than $2 million, an increase of 14.7 percent over the prior year. Included in this report, cassettes were reported up two percent over the previous year, and 48.1 percent of the total shipped, while disks made up the remaining 51.9 percent with an increase in volume of 24.4 percent over the prior year. The large increase in both value and volume has been credited to the prominent growth of the laser disc.

STUDIO SAVAGERY: Aerosmith is scheduled to venture to Vancouver in June to begin recording its follow-up to 1989's Pump, which is quadruple platinum in the U.S. for American sales exceeding four million—and which has sold more than six million units worldwide. In fact, Pump is Steve Tyler & Co.'s second best-selling album yet—1975's Toys In The Attic being their most successful. Pump pump pump pump it up... Geffen Records has a release date of April 16 for Hanoi Rocks' All Those Wasted Years, which is coming out in the U.S. for the first time. Released in Europe and Japan in 1984 as a two-LP set, the live recording will now be available on one CD in America. All Those Wasted Years, recorded at the Marquee in London in December 1983, includes "Lost In The City," "Tragedy," "Malibu Beach Nightmare," "Don't Never Leave Me," "Back To Mystery City," "Visitor," "Beer And A Cigarette," "11th Street Kids," "Mental Beat" and "Taxi Driver"... Seattle's definitely in the house, y'all. A&M Records has a release date of April 16 for the debut album by Temple Of The Dog, an Emerald City posse consisting of Soundgarden headbangers Chris Cornell and Matt Cameron and Mother Love Bone graduates Stone Gossard and Jeff Ament. Meanwhile, Soundgarden is scheduled to begin recording a new album of its own this month. A&M is hoping to have it out by September... Be on the lookout for a new Bob Seger album this summer. disco, 'cause you'll never even get him out on the floor... April 30 is the MCA-distributed Impact Records' release date for a self-titled hard rock album by Contraband, an all-star posse boasting Michael Schenker of UFO, Scorpions and MSG fame on guitar; Ratt's Bobby Blotzer on drums; Tracii Guns of L.A. Guns on guitar; Vixen's Share Pedersen on bass; and Richard Black, formerly of the L.A. band Shark Island, on lead vocals... This month, death-metal thrashers Cannibal Corpse are scheduled to begin recording Butchered At Birth, their followup to 1990's Eaten Back To Life. Once again, the production is being handled by Scott Burns, who has also worked with Death, Obituary, Deicide, Sepultura and Atrocity..

HIGHWAY TO HELL: Without a doubt, many fans of The Black Crowes and ZZ Top are still seething over the Crowes being booted off Top's current U.S. tour (which commenced in January and last until early May) by Top's management and corporate sponsors. Top's members themselves didn't make the controversial decision. The trouble stemmed from Crowes lead singer Chris Robinson's references to corporate sponsorship--"This is live rock & roll being brought to you commercial-free" being one of his lines. The fact that such harmless rhetoric could result in a popular band being kicked off a tour is an outrage—a slap in the faces of the many Top fans who looked forward to seeing the Crowes. It is also a sad reminder of the fact while rock was once counterculture and "antiestablishment," it has long since become "the establishment." Thus, is it any wonder that more and more white kids are turning to rap—which is undeniably, the most creative, revolutionary and thought-provoking thing happening in music today—for its rebellious, uncompromising, no-sellout attitude? Were Public Enemy headlining a tour with Boogie Down Productions and lce-T, can you imagine PE allowing either Ice or BDP leader KRS-One to be kicked off the tour for saying, "This is live rap being brought to you commercial-free?" In Homie The Clown's words, I don't think so... Rod Stewart, whose world tour commenced in Scotland on March 25, is scheduled to headline arenas in England, Germany, France, Switzerland, Sweden, Holland, Belguim, Italy, Spain and Portugal before before finishing the tour in late July. And for mid-September, the man who gave us "Do You Think I'm Sexy," "Hot Legs" and "Maggie Mae" has an extensive U.S. tour on his agenda. Stewart's current tour coincides with the release of Vagabond Heart, his first new album of all-new material since 1988... Having completed its tour with Iron Maiden, Anthrax is prepared to head out on the highway to hell with fellow thrash metal posses Slayer and Megadeth in late May... Duuuuuude! The ever-thrashin' Testament, which recently toured with Slayer, is planning to terrorize Japan (The Land Of The Rising Mosh Pit) in early May... After completing its current European tour, The Fixx intends to begin a seven-week North American tour on April 17 and remain on the road until early June. The crew is touring in support of Ink, its current album on the MCA-distributed Impact Records...

NEW FACES

Tyketto

BY ALEX HENDERSON

THE DAVID GEFFEN COMPANY HAS A POTENTIAL AOR HIT in Tyketto's debut album, Don't Come Easy, which was released on DGC label in March. The New York-based band consists of long-haired rockers Michael Clayton (drums, vocals), Jimi Kennedy (bass, vocals), Brooke St. James (lead guitar, vocals) and Danny Vaughn (lead vocals, acoustic guitar, harmonica). Don't Come Easy was produced by Richie Zito, who has also worked with Heart, Cheap Trick, Eddie Money, Martha Davis, The Neville Bros., Berlin and Bad English.

As Clayton sees it, the 10-track CD reflects different sides of the posse. "It's like going to the office but on the weekends, getting st-faced," Clayton explains. "On one hand, we have a song like 'Wings' that gets the 16-year-old girls screaming. But on the other, we have 'Strip Me Down' and 'Bourbon Street,' which appeal to another kind of girl—the kind that, well, sticks around after the show... You take a girl home, rip each other's clothes off and go for it right there. ("Strip Me Down") has no redeeming social value whatsoever... Of course, that's a side to the band we never brought home to my mom's house."

A Lighter Shade Of Brown

BY ERNEST HARDY

"WHEN PEOPLE LOOK AT US," says ODM of A Lighter Shade of Brown, "they don't see three black guys, they don't see three white guys, and they're not even sure they see three Hispanic guys. We're Mexican, and each one of us is a light shade of brown, so that's how we came up with the name."

A Lighter Shade of Brown want to educate as well as entertain. They feel that through their music, they are able to educate about their heritage, and at the same time give something back to people by setting their lyrics to some seriously funky grooves.

Their debut album on Pump Records is appropriately titled Brown and Proud. It contains ten cuts that span a wide range of beats and themes, with a little bit of "Spanglish" tossed in. Containing a little bit of something for everyone, ODM, DTTX and Fab Love will soon have everybody "doing the brown thing."

Brother Makes 3

BY ERNEST HARDY

New York-based group, Brother Makes 3, according to lead singer Shock, "write songs that make people want to get up and dance... (with) fun lyrics about what you dream about doing if you only had the nerve." The outfit's first single, "Do You Wanna Dance," has taken the dance charts by storm and become a huge club favorite. (Ace remixer, Justin Strauss recently took a turn at re-tooling the track, ensuring an even wider appeal for the club hit). The song was co-written by Shock and members of 2 In A Room (of "Wiggle It" fame and who also lent backing vocals to the track) and has turned into a jewel for Cardiac Records. Rounding out Brother Makes 3 are dancers Sister Julie and Sister Cindy. Currently working on new material and performing select club dates on the east coast, Brother Makes 3 are looking into hitting the road soon, bringing a high energy hip house show to fans across the country.

Gospel Music '91: When The Dove Flies Home

BY KIMMY WIX

LIKE A BIRD THAT'S TAKEN ITS

FLIGHT, it soars through the air and often lands near the hearts of those who could use a greater sense of peace, love and freedom within their lives. For others, it has remained an eternal friend—offering guidance and a greater inspiration to the mind and soul. Some would perhaps say that it soars in the form of music, with hope of eventually tapping the ears of those who have not yet taken the time to really listen.

For those who haven't been listening, Gospel Music has, in recent years, whirled into a major network-continuously garnering a larger listening audience, increasing product sales in leaps and bounds, and bringing forth a sound quality that's pure state of the art. According to Gospel Music Association executive director Donald W. Butler, Sr., and figures revealed from the Recording Industry Assn. Of America (RIAA), approximately $400 million worth of gospel recordings were sold this past year throughout the United States. Such a figure makes up for almost 5-percent of overall record-

As the Gospel Music Assn. celebrates its 27th anniversary, so does Gospel Music Week open the doors even wider to a business that's become more prosperous than ever. Gospel Music '91, dubbed as one of the premiere industry events of the year, fills the schedule of April 7-11 at the Stouffer Hotel and Convention Center in Nashville, Tennessee. As in years past, the GMA features gospel music's top artists in a series of nightly concerts, artists showcase events, press conferences, listening parties, seminars and round-table discussions. Additional highlights of GM '91 include the annual awards luncheons hosted by performing rights organizations ASCAP, BMI and SESAC. "This year's Gospel Music Week will continue to better equip people on every level of participation," comments Butler. "We anticipate GM '91 to continue more than a decade of steady growth. It promises to be a great week."

The five-day celebration will conclude with the 22nd Annual Dove Awards ceremony on Thursday evening at the Grand Ole Opry House. As always, the prestigious awards ceremony will honor gospel music's most outstanding performers, writers and artists. Co-hosted by super recording artist Sandi Patti and star of NBC's television series Amen, Clifton Davis, the Dove Awards are voted on by approximately 3,000 members of the Gospel Music Assn. It's membership represents all facets of the industry including radio, record labels, television, promoters, talent agents and publish-

COCINANDO

BY TONY SABOURNIN

Musical Productions, Inc. gave its recording star Nino Segarra a Gold Record as acknowledgement for sales exceeding 50,000 units for the production Con La Música Por Dentro during Segarra's presentation in WAPA Television in San Juan, Puerto Rico.

COÑO! WHAT MUST WE DO TO GET GLENN MONROIG out of Puerto Rico? Something tells me this is the most oft-asked question in WEA Latina headquarters. Let's face it: Glenn Monroig is an acquired taste, more difficult to imbibe if one remembers his father Gilberto's gut-wrenching guitar-trio boleros. Causa y Efecto ought to erase such similes forever.

Glenn Monrolg

To be understood, this nom-myohorenke-kyo of a production has to be analyzed in its totality, beginning with the cover, designed Dante's Inferno-style to fit a Roman architectural columns framing equally dispersed cutouts of various personalities, including U.S. president Jorge Arbusto. The CD booklet has other interesting details. Like the glossary for the Puerto Rican vernacular used in the song "No Finjas," or the note on "Mid-Life Crisis" bemoaning the absence of an appropriate Spanish translation for that very important phase of a man's life, or the commment under "Sin Tu CariÑo": "This song is my wife's private property. Whoever wishes to sing it must obtain her consent. Once the playing starts the songs hit you. Like "Jugando a la Casita," an appeal to battered women—musicalized to a tropical funk beat—to stop "playing house." "No Finjas," a plea—also in funkish lingo—for people in general to be honest with themselves. Halfway through the song, Monroig breaks into a homeboy rap that mocks today's raperos and ends with severe criticism of the

By the time one listens to the title cut, or "Tu y Yo," or "Casitas de Cartón" (all eminently radio-programmable in terms of sounds, non-obscene lyrics and, except for the latter, length) one wants to grab the nearest dancing partner available—human or not—and Astaire around the room to Monroig's and Pepe Ojeda's cascading string arrangements, layered flexibly enough to fit the bouncing rhythm section, and Glenn's seamless and forever-rising cre-

1 think Causa y Efecto suffers from the same illness recently diagnosed here for Willie Colon's Color Americano, and that we will from now on call St. Thomas' PDs Disease. Why? Because programmers, overwhelmed by an ever-growing number of releases, subconsciously prefer non-icons to come to the stations and make themselves available for promotional purposes—this being for them the most justifiable reason to listen to their most recent offering and, hence, believe.

Even though this is strictly a matter between the label and the artist, WEA Latina ought to use its persuasive best to get Glenn Monroig to do a promotional tour throughout the United States and Latin America, and get the world to hear Causa y Efecto.

Because, coño, this is one hell of a production.

THIS SHOULD BE STORED IN THE WHAT-TO-DO-WHEN-You've--Been-Squeezing-Your-Brains-In-Important-Contract-Negotiations File. Lore has it that, after a hard day's work ironing out contract details with a Dominican superstar, Sony Discos A&R VP Angel Carrasco decided to go for a muchdeserved break to the lobby of the Jaragua Hotel. There, he was suddenly enchanted by the voice and performing style of one of the hotel's featured performers, a man named Domingo Contreras. When Carrasco was introduced to the singer his first question was: Can you get two other female singers? Contreras said, "Sure thing."

Cut to the next morning. Contreras called Carrasco from his hotel lobby with Kathryn Rose—a blonde Puerto Rican beauty from Ponce who had done back-up vocals for balladists like Basilio—and Rebeca García who had done similar stints with Braulio, Vikki Carr and Rocío Jurado. The next thing Carrasco did was place two calls: One went to Sony Discos' one-A&R workshop, Jorge Luis Piloto, to set aside three of his most recent compositions. The other was to eminent Dominican producer Manuel Tejada, for arranging and producing responsibilities. And just like that, Triada was born.

But, to paraphrase Duke Ellington, a birth without swing don't mean a thing. Tríada—thank God and Manuel Tejada-swings right off the bat with "Dando el Alma"

(well received with both a radio version and a club re-mix), Piloto's "Contigo" and "Congelada," as well as Víctor Víctor's "Deja." Yet don't expect Tríada's swing to overwhelm you immediately. There are no nerve-wrecking sax guajeos a la Coco Band or any a lo maco jumps. Just soft, not boring, radio-friendly tunes that leave the listener—tapping feet on a-one-and-a-two—wanting more.

It's a damn shame that visa difficulties have made it impossible for the trio to make a planned promotional tour of the United States and Latin America. Notwithstanding that minor obstacle, I think Tríada has with this production successfully established that merengue-pop might just be the one musically homogenizing hemispheric bond. Carrasco promises the next production will be even better. I can't wait.

R&B SONGSTRESS NATALIE COLE has long expressed a desire to do a tribute to her father, the late, great Nat King Cole, on record (she's done so in concert for years). Well, her debut release for her new label, Elektra, will be just that. Executive producer on the project will be Tommy LiPuma, with tracks produced by LiPuma, Andre Fisher and David Foster. The double-length effort will feature big band arrangements by Bill Holman and string arrangements by Johnny Mandel and Michel LeGrand. Twenty-six Nat King Cole classics and standards will be recorded, including: "Route 66," "Don't Get Around Much Anymore," "Mona Lisa," "Unforgettable," and a medley of "For Sentimental Reasons," "Tenderly," and "Autumn Leaves." Following the album's release, Cole will embark on a national tour.

REVIEW:

THE WINANS HAVE HELPED bring gospel music into the nineties in a big way. Their blend of traditional gospel fervor and current r&b/pop production have created an audience comprised of hardcore gospel fans and those who may have found traditional gospel not to their musical tastes. In their recent concert at the Wiltern here in Los Angeles, they took that process one step further when they re-worked Beatles classics like "I Wanna Hold Your Hand" and "Yesterday" into gospel tunes. (The latter became "I Believe In Calvary.") Later they brought out some all-star vocal power (not that they needed it) in the form of Jasmine Guy, Tevin Campbell, Keith Washington and Big Daddy Kane (I'm sure it was just coincidence that, like the Winans, these are all Warner Bros. artists.) As if that weren't enough, brother Be Be Winans brought down the house with his surprise appearance. (It was explained that his singing partner, sister Ce Ce, was at home.) For those still unimpressed with the drawing power of the Winans, Los Angeles Lakers stars A.C. Green and Magic Johnson took the stage for a good natured rap that didn't cause Kane to lose any sleep. A concert that would have impressed even non-believers.

RAP/DANCE

NEWS:

SMASH RECORDS HAS SIGNED Chicago House giants Steve "Silk" Hurley and Jamie Principle, as well as hip house artist, M.Doc. to record deals. Both Principle and Hurley are among the most sought after re-mixers and have superstar status in the U.K. The Chicago-based label plans to sign even more progressive dance artists to its roster and, considering that Chicago is the home of House music, that shouldn't prove too difficult. All three of the artists are polishing up albums that are due later in the year.

INTERVIEW:

THE ALBUM, With Respect, by Elektra recording artists, Mr. Fiddler is one of those efforts that is in danger of being slotted away as a critical darling, but never finding a wide audience. Yes, it's just that good. Choosing to see the glass as half full rather than half empty, however, there are some good signs that the disc will find the huge audience it deserves: '70s funk is really in among trendoids; real musicians are in vogue again; style coupled with talent is the formula being touted as the next big thing... All of which bodes well for Mr. Fiddler.

With Respect brings to mind George Clinton, Cab Calloway, and Kid Creole, among others. Socially conscious lyrics co-exist with whimsical ones; funky grooves and jazz riffs inhabit the same universe... it's a hybrid of some of the best influences you could list and Mr. Fiddler make it work. Still, not everyone is pleased with all parts of the equation.

"We got a lot of flack from some people because we used a drum machine on some things and they said we weren't completely pure," says

Amp Fiddler, "but our thing is, it's 1991. The technology exists and if you use it well, it can be incredible. The thing is to use it to enhance your strengths, not mask your weaknesses."

The same people who try to knock the group for using subtle technological flavoring are the people who are flocking back to the past to prove their coolness, raiding record collectins from the seventies and flaunting it like some shiny new bauble to show how hip they are. Ironically, these people are so narrow-minded in their approach to music that they are often turning their backs on the gems of today.

"One thing that really frustrates me," says Fiddler, "is the fact that the so-called underground, and I know a lot of those people very well, can be so limited in their approach to the music. They want to be hip and cutting edge, but they have a very narrow list of what they will allow. They don't even see the contradiction in that. So, something like my record won't get played in the clubs because I acknowledge what time it is," he laughs. "If I were completely retro and not putting my own twists or interpretation on it, then I'll bet they'd play my stuff."

PICK O' THE WEEK:

Last weekend, my roommate walked out of his bedroom, into the living room where I was and said, with some frustration, "We have easily over two hundred

The Bandera's

CDs in this place. Think you could play something else for a change?" The object of his frustration and my obsession was/is the single, "This Is Your Life" Banderas. Former band members with the Communards (and current good friends/opening act for Jimmy Sommerville), Banderas have concocted what will easily be one of the top singles of the year, in large part due to intelligent lyrics that basically implore the listener to live life to the fullest in order to justify his/her existence. Banderas are sort of the female Pet Shop Boys, blending intelligent, sort of somber lyrics with irresistible, state o' the art dance grooves, and stringing a line of melancholy throughout the whole affair. Johnny Marr and Bernard Sumner lend a hand and production was handled by Stepen Hague (Pet Shop Boys).

HEART MUSIC

FROM A CORPORATE STANDPOINT, HOUSTON is associated with the oil industry more than the music industry. Nonetheless, the

Tab Bartling

Tony Campise

southern Texas city has given us an impressive amount of music ranging from Johnny "Guitar" Watson to The Crusaders to the infamous Geto Boys to Hubert, Ronnie, Eloise & Debra Laws. At least three indies are Houstonbased: Rap-A-Lot Records, Justice Records and Heart Music, which was founded by Tab Bartling in 1989. Two of the three albums Heart has released thus far are jazz-fusion efforts by guitarist Erich Avinger. Heart Magic and the current Si. The third release, alto saxophonist Tony Campise's First Takes, is acoustic mainstream jazz.

"I've known (Justice Records president) Randall (Jamail) since junior high," Bartling explains.
"It's interesting that there were no jazz-oriented record companies in Houston, and all of a sudden, there were two. There is a lot of talent in the South. I've watched the scene here for a long time, and what's kind of funny is that people from around here don't really have enough respect for people who come out of here. They've taken years to support even people who had national success like Stevie Ray Vaughan and Eric Johnson. It's amazing that it took those people so long to get the acceptance and the press here, whereas nationally, they were accepted a lot earlier... I don't have to go to Nashville to hear great music—I can hear a lot of it in my own back yard."

Bartling estimates that Heart's sales are about 60% CD and 40% cassette. "We quit making vinyl pretty quickly," he points out. "It did not sell. The cost vs. the net profit was appalling."

Though Heart has focused on jazz thus far, Bartling stresses that he's open to recording other styles. "I have about 3,000 jazz albums; so jazz is a main area of interest," he asserts. "But I like a lot of other music too. I might get into (recording) blues. I've always got my eyes on zydeco and Cajun music. That's long-term—nothing in the immediate future."

■ INDIE NEWS

FANTASY: Fantasy Records—owner of the Prestige, Stax/Volt, Riverside, Contemporary and Hot Wax/Invictus catalogues—has acquired the catalog of yet another significant indie: Specialty Records. Founded by Art Rupe in the 1940s, Specialty recorded such greats as Little Richard, Sam Cooke, Percy Mayfield, Guitar Slim, Lloyd Price, Floyd Dixon, Don & Dewey and Joe Liggins. Fantasy president Ralph Kaffel, who estimates that less than 10% of the rich Specialty catalog is available on CD, notes, "Over the next two or three years, we plan to build a catalog of some 80 to 100 CDs that are truly representative of Specialty Records." Billy Vera will serve as reissue producer...

DOCTOR DREAM: After five years with Doctor Dream, vice president David Hansen is leaving the Southern California rock label to pursue other interests. Neil Lowelthal joins Doctor Dream in April as assistant to president David Hayes...

RHINO: These days, Rhino ain't frontin' when it comes to classic soul music. The indie that gave us the excellent Soul Shots series has added five more volumes to its series Didn't It Blow Your Mind: Soul Hits Of The '70s-bringing the total to ten-and has released dope Isley Bros. collections and reissued Betty Wright Live. The party line among some uninformed pop critics is that '70s soul was inferior to '60s soul. But the richness of '70s soul is apparent on Volumes 6-10, which boast such gems as The O'Jays' "Back Stabbers," War's "The World Is A Ghetto," The Dramatics' "In The Rain," The Staple Singers' "Respect Yourself," Billy Paul's "Me And Mrs. Jones," Harold Melvin & the Bluenotes' "The Love I Lost," Curtis Mayfield's "Freddie's Dead," Bill Withers' "Lean On Me," Isaac Hayes' "Theme From Shaft," The Persuaders' 'Thin Line Between Love And Hate," The Chi-Lites' "Have You Seen Her," The Four Tops' "Keeper Of The Castle" and Sylvia Robinson's sexy "Pillow Talk"... Serving as further proof of the splendor of '70s soul is Betty Wright Live, initially released on T.K. Records in 1978. The sassy southern soul singer gets all the way down on both versions of her hits "Clean Up Woman," "Where Is The Love" and "Tonight Is The Night" and a spirited reading of Brainstorm's "Lovin' Is Really My Game." In fact, the live version of "Tonight Is The Night" was so strong that the song became a hit for a second time ... The Isley Brothers Story: Volumes 1 and 2 takes a look at 26 years of the group's lengthy career. Volume 1: Rockin' Soul (1959-68) ranges from The Isleys' first major hit "Shout" (1959) to its early '60s hit "Twist And Shout" to its subsequent Motown smash "This Old Heart Of Mine." Especially interesting is the original 1964 recording of "Who's That Lady," which was given plastic surgery in 1973 and became a mega-hit as "That Lady." Vol. 2: The T-Neck Years (1969-85) is a two-CD set totaling 28 gems ranging from the T-Neck/Buddah hits ("It's Your Thing," "Lay-Away," "Work To Do," "Pop That Thang") to their chartbusters as a sixpiece band for T-Neck/Epic, including "That Lady," "Fight The Power," "For The Love Of You," "The Pride," "Harvest For The World," "Footsteps In The Dark," "Between The Sheets," "Livin' In The Life," "Don't Say Goodnight," "Inside You" and "Choosey Lover." One could nitpick about the absence of 'Voyage To Atlantis" or "Hello It's Me," but the fact is that every song on Vol. 2 is worth having...

WAYLO: The Memphis-based Waylo Records has signed an exclusive national distribution deal with Independent National Distributors, Inc. (INDI). Artists recording for Waylo include soul man David Hudson and rap crew M-Team. Waylo owner Willie Mitchell is known for his work with Al "Let's Stay Together" Green...

SINGLES

☐ TWILA PARIS: "Cry For The Desert" b/w "He Is A Song" (214/JCI TOC-5000)

Singer/songwri ter Twila Paris has two Amy Grant-ish pop songs in "Cry For The Desert" and "He Is A Song." Their similarity to Grant isn't surprising given that the songs' producer, songs' producer, Brown Bannister, has also worked with Grant.

ALBUMS

☐ RAY ANDERSON: Wishbone (Gramavision R2 79454)

In 1991, a great deal of highquality jazz can be heard, but very little innovation is occurring in the genre. One of the most strikingly unique jazzmen around is Ray Anderson, who has fused elements of 1920/'30s-style trombone playing a la Jack Teagarden with the attack of a post-bop J.J. Johnson or a Curtis Fuller. This unorthodox approach worked surprisingly well on his previous efforts, What Because and Old Wine, New Bottles, and remains equally interesting on Wishbone—an hour-plus CD uniting the improvisor with bassist Mark Helias, pianist Fumio Itabashi, drummer Dion Parson and percussionist Don Alias. While the eccentric Chicagoan's phraseing is angular, "Cape Horn," "Ah Soca," the ballad "Duke Ellington's Sound Of Love" and other originals are fairly accessible. Anderson's humorous, quirky singing on "Come Love" is hardly in a class with Joe Williams or Eddie Jefferson, but the obvious fun he has with the song does its part to counter the notion that jazz must be "stuffy."

□ VARIOUS ARTISTS: Rhythm Safari: The Best Of World Music (Rhythm Safari CDL 57137)

A variety of world styles can be heard on this 11-track CD, which ranges from the South African (Ladysmith Black Mambazo's "Township Jive" and Mahlathini & The Mahotella Queens' "Kazet") to the Brazilian (Margareth Menezes' "Elegibo" and Djavan's "Amazon Farewell") to the Algerian (Cheb Mami's "Do The Rai"). Rhythm Safari Records is distributed by Priority.

☐ DAKOTA STATON: Dakota Staton (Muse MCD 5401)

Like Dakota Staton, Houston Person treats jazz and blues with equal respect; thus, the gritty tenor saxophonist was the perfect producer for this 12-track CD. The soulful Staton approaches pop standards as jazz ("Cherokee," "Jim" and "Body And Soul") and belts out the blues (including Bessie Smith's "C.C. Rider" and B.B. King's "The Thrill Is Gone") with equally finesse. Besides Person, Staton's accompaniment includes Bross Townsend on piano, Fred Hunter on bass and Paula Hampton on drums.

☐ KENNY NEAL: Walking On Fire (Alligator ALCD 4795)

Louisiana bluesman Kenny Neal employs James Brown associates Maceo Parker (alto sax) and Fred Wesley (trombone) as sidemen on his latest effort, Walking On Fire. While "Blues Stew," "Things Got To Get Better" and "The Truth Hurts" are among the 12-track CD's straight-up urban-style blues cuts, "Look But Don't Touch," "I Been Missing You Too" and "I Put My Trust In You" are best described as bluesy soul. Singer/guitarist Neal produced Walking On Fire with Bog Greenlee. Have mercy!

NATIONAL LEAGUE MUSIC-Rick James, the multi-faceted artist/writer/producer, known for his hits "Super Freak," "Party All The Time" and "In My House," is having an unprecedented chart run as a result of being the most sampled writer of 1990, according to National League's president, Jay Warner, Rick's publisher. The king of punk-funk in the 80's, Rick's songs have become fertile ground for rap artists who have turned songs like "Candyman," "Hard To Get" and "Super Freak" into new hit compositions. Leading the pack is the 10 million plus selling album from MC Hammer, including the "Super Freak"-based single "U Can't Touch This," which recently won a Grammy for Best R&B Song of 1990. Right behind is LL Cool J with "Around The Way Girl" hitting the top 10 R&B charts and top 20 Pop charts, as well as appearing on LL Cool J's Mama Said Knock You Out gold album. Warner stated "It's a tribute to the timelessness of Rick James's music that five to ten years after it's initial success his music is having an effect on a whole new generation, in a whole new music medium." Along with the above, Candyman on Epic has also gone gold containing the song "Candyman Theme," and Sir Mix-A-Lot's "Seminar" album spent 56 weeks on the R&B charts which included James' sampled "I Got Game" chart single. The international market has also jumped on the bandwagon as England's Kylie Minogue gold album contains part of the "Candyman" composition in the song "Always Find The Time." Be on the lookout for Rick James' new Warner/Reprise album due for release real soon...

AMIGO STUDIOS-There's plenty of action at Amigo in North Hollywood. Hot L.A. group, Soy Cowboy, is in recording and mixing their new tape. I dropped by the sessions and mark my words, you'll be hearing a lot about this great act. Hit track record producer Bob Ezrin, who just finished the newly released David Geffen Company's act The Throbs, stayed on board at Amigo to do Julian Lennon's new album. Bobby Caldwell (Sindrome Records) has just released his new album, and is currently on tour in Japan. White Lion and the Bulletboys have recorded their demos earlier this year. Also released and recorded at Amigo: Sam Riney (Spindletop), Reverend (Charisma), managed by Rosevine and Junko Yagami, and Freeway Philharmonic (Spindletop). Also, Van Halen was doing vocals with Sammy Hagar. Mixed at Amigo: Chris Issak's new venture Heart Shaped World, Timmy T and 2 Live Crew's Live album. The studio has just completed a real time cassette duplication room. Phone (818) 980-5605...

STEVE TYRELL/PT. I - Always workin', award-winning producer/composer/music superviser Steve Tyrell is hotter than ever. Check this out. As music supervisor, he just finished pre-recording most of the music for the new Robert Townsend film, The Five Heartbeats. Stanley Clark did the scoring, George Duke & Tina Clark did the rest of the music. He's starting a new comedy, The Favor (Orion Pics), for director Donald Pietre of Mystic Pizza fame, which Steve also worked on. The Favor stars Ken Wahl, Elizabeth McGovern and Harley Cosack. In '90 he co-wrote, along with Joe Sample and Stephanie Tyrell (Steve's wife), "Remember The Dream," a stirring song about Reverend Martin Luther King, for an after school special, "My Past Is My Own." The song was sung by James Ingram. Actor Tim Reid (Frank's Place, Snoops), mentioned the song to his friend Bob Johnson, owner of Black Entertainment Television. Johnson got in touch with Tyrell, heard the song, and was so moved by it that he offered to make a video of it to show regularly on the BET Network. The song has now been re-recorded by Ingram, along with Sample playing and in the video. Hopefully it will be released if there is a James Ingram Greatest Hits album (which is in the works). BET will run the video no matter what. In a few weeks, Tyrell's going to start co-production, along with Peter Asher, on a few sides for Linda Ronstadt's new album. This will be Tyrell's third time with Ronstadt... more next week...

PHIL RAMONE—Legendary eighttime Grammy award-winning producer Phil Ramone, recently completed work on projects for Paul Simon, Paul McCartney and SBK Records' new prodigy, Russ Irwin. Hailed by Solid State Logic's "Black Book" as one of the world's top record producers, Ramone is sure to affirm his revered status as the music industry's "Pope of Pop." His helping hand on Paul Simon's Rhythm Of The Saints, partially recorded in Brazil and released to critical and public acclaim, continues the successful relationship Ramone and Simon have enjoyed since the early '70s. Simon's new recording features the sounds of the Groupo Cultural OLODUM, the unique inprimatur of the Uakti of South America. Ramone's associations with McCartney and Elton John are now entering their third decade. McCartney's latest endeavor was the single "P.S. Love Me Do," released in Japan on the 10th anniversary of the death of John Lennon. Ramone's recent studio time with Elton John entailed travelling to London to work on "Measure Of A Man," the title track to Rocky V. This continues his notable movie soundtracks, including A Star Is Born (#1 single "Evergreen"), Flashdance ("Manhunt" & "Maniac," a #1 single on a multi platinum LP), Ghostbusters, VisionQuest, White Nights, Ruthless People, Yentl, all multi-platinum albums, among others. Additionally, he served as musical director for Flashdance, the first film that demonstrated to MTV and the world the extraordinary potential in the marriage of popular music and film. Ramone's production work on a spring release for Russ Irwin, validates his continued interest in both established and young up-and-coming talent. Ramone recently completed work with Gloria Estefan on Miami Sound Machine's Into The Light, and was on hand to applaud her comeback performance at this year's American Music Awards. Thank you Phil Ramone for all the great music. I am a big fan...

SANTANA IN RIO--Santana's appearance at Rock 'N' Rio II was highlighted by an unprecedented second show, which the Brazillian press deemed the most well-received performance of the ten-day event. Santana shared the stage with noted guitarist Pat Methany, and singers Djavan and Jelberto Gil. Also on the bill were INXS, Joe Cocker, Prince, Billy Idol, Faith No More and Guns 'N' Roses among others. Santana's new double CD, Lotus should be on the streets any minute...

Country songwriter Dave Gibson, who wrote Alabama's "Jukebox In My Mind" and Tanya Tucker's "If It Don't Come Easy," has signed a long-term publishing agreement with NEM Entertainment. In addition to these, he has written songs recorded by artists such as Steve Wariner, Mickey Gilley, Southern Pacific, Larry Boone, Reba McEntire, Reba McEntire and the Forester Sisters among others. Shown at the signing (I-r) are: Richard Butler, NEM creative manager, Nashville; Gibson; and NEM president Ira Jaffe.

ON JAZZ

BY LEE JESKE

IN HIS OWN SWEET WAY, Dave Brubeck recently turned 70. So Music-Masters, his new label, threw a party. And George Wein, the producer of the JVC Festival, at which the new septuagenarian will perform, showed up for a hug. The bookends are the label's Larry Palmacci (left) and Jeffrey Nissim.

JVC NO EVIL: Another year older and deeper in debt. Why does the annual announcement of the JVC New York Festival bring that old Merle Travis (via Tennessee Ernie Ford) line to mind? For some reason, nothing makes me realize that another year has flown by than another midday press conference with one George Wein, who's been churning these things out since the year before I was born. And maybe the "Sixteen Tons" line also comes to mind because its time to pay the tax man. Am I beginning to associate George Wein with taxes?

In any case, Wein last year promised a restructuring of the festival—trying to breath some life into the old dinosaur (this is its 20th annual stomp through New York's concert halls)—and, at first blush, the line-up looks pretty good to me. There's a heavy emphasis on the young jazz mainstreamers, Ornette Coleman is back for his first New York concert in four years, all-star tributes to some of the recently-departed former JVC headliners (Sarah Vaughan and to some of the recently-departed former JVC headliners (Sarah Vaughan and Dexter Gordon) are on tap, some deserving avant-garde musicians are being presented in a free all-day concert (free free jazz), Doc Cheatham will be feted with a tribute, etc., etc. Here's the rundown, decide for yourself:

JUNE 21: Ralph Sutton (Weill Recital Hall, 5 pm). "Homage to Duke Ellington" with Mel Torme, Clark Terry and Tommy Flanagan (Carnegie Hall, 8 pm). Miles Davis/B.B. King (Avery Fisher Hall, 7 & 11 pm).

JUNE 22: Piano Spectacular with Neville Dickie, Jay McShann, others (Waterloo Village, 1 pm). Geoff Keezer (WRC, 5:30 pm). Tito Puente/Celia Cruz (CH, 8 pm). Wynton Marsalis/Jazz Futures (Roy Hargrove, Marlon Jordan, Mark Whitfield, Carl Allen, Tony Hart, Benny Green, Chris McBride, Tim Warfield) (AFH, 8 pm). "Jazz Meets the Blues" with Bobby "Blue" Bland, Elvin Bishop, Arthur Blythe, others (Ritz, 10 pm).

JUNE 23: New Jersey Jazz Society's Jazz Picnic with Howard Alden, Al Grey, others (WV, noon). Arthur Blythe/David Murray/Steve Lacy/Donald Harrison, others (2 pm, Damrosch Park, free). Joanne Brackeen (WRH, 5:30 pm). "Bobby Short's New York, New York" with Ruth Brown, Margaret Whiting, others (CH, 8 pm).

others (CH, 8 pm).

JUNE 24: Niels Lan Doky (WRH, 5 pm). A Salute to Doc Cheatham with Dizzy Gillespie, Wynton Marsalis, Harry "Sweets" Edison, Jon Faddis, others (Town Hall, 8 pm).

(Town Hall, 8 pm).

JUNE 25: Sammy Price (WRH, 5 pm). A Tribute to Sarah Vaughan with Billy Eckstine, Dizzy Gillespie, Roberta Flack, Shirley Horn, Carmen McRae, Joe Williams, others (CH, 8 pm). Terence Blanchard/Mark Whitfield (Equitable Center, 8 pm).

JUNE 26: Ellis Larkins (WRH, 5 pm). Tuck & Patti (World Financial Center, 6:30 pm, free). "A Celebration of Marian McPartland's Piano Jazz" with Dave Brubeck, John Lewis, Marcus Roberts, Renee Rosnes, Roland Hanna, others (AFH, 8 pm). "Swing: 40 and Under" with Howard Alden, Ken Peplowski, Jesse Davis, others (EC, 8 pm).

JUNE 27: Jimmy Rowles (WRH, 5 pm). "Bebop: 40 and Under" with Jon Faddis, Mulgrew Miller, Bobby Watson, James Williams, others (EC, 8 pm).

JUNE 28: Barry Harris (WRH, 5 pm). Spyro Gyra/Bob James (Beacon Theatre, 7 & 11 pm). Jazzmobile Salutes George Butler (CH, 8 pm). "A Celebration of the Life of Dexter Gordon" with Shirley Scott, Dizzy Gillespie, Bobby Hutcherson, Slide Hampton, others (AFH, 8 pm). Roy Haynes/Roy Hargrove

Hutcherson, Slide Hampton, others (AFH, 8 pm). Roy Haynes/Roy Hargrove

(EC, 8 pm).

JUNE 29: Ray Charles/Regina Belle (AFH, 7 & 11 pm). Ornette Coleman (CH, 8 pm). GRP All-Stars, others (BT, 8 pm).

It all sounds pretty good to me and all of it has some genuine connection to jazz; in the past, this festival has always contained a number of concerts that had almost no ties to jazz whatsoever.

George Wein is calling the festival "Jazz Lives!" and the emphasis on the young mainstream players is no accident. Wein has come to two realizations

His constant struggle to present—and sell—the avant-garde (mainly a response to critics) is no longer necessary, because something has replaced young experimental players: young bebop players, young players who are getting both critical and commercial attention. Fusion and avant-garde jazz used to cause this big tug-of-war, which, for now, has settled around the success of the young beboppers. If experimentalism is losing out, so is blatant commercialism. Everything's a compromise.

Wein's other realization is that it's up to him to help establish an audience for younger musicians. Sarah Vaughan and Dexter Gordon are both subjects of all-star memorial concerts this year, concerts that will no doubt sell out. But they're replacing actual concerts by Vaughan and Gordon, who also used to sell out shows, but sell them out on an annual basis. Wein is losing his drawing cards to the inevitable passage of time, and if he doesn't help build the audience for their replacements, there'll be no replacements.

Anyway, jazz does live. And the JVC New York Festival, which has shown signs of growing moribund in the past few years, lives too. L'Chaim to both.

PASSING ON: The jazz world has suffered a spate of deaths: Bud Freeman, Jimmy McPartland and Al Klink, three elder statesmen of pre-bebop styles, died recently. They'll all be missed. Clarinetist John Carter, who died of lung cancer on March 31st, never became an elder statesmen, but he was one of the most creative musicians jazz had and he was one of the nicest men I've ever met. Carter stuck to his guns—he was a determined musical experimenter and a determined player of the clarinet—quietly creating an impressive body of work, much of it with his longtime associate, trumpeter Bobby Bradford (both of them associates of Ornette Coleman, with whom Carter grew up in Fort Worth). He was a composer, teacher and conductor and, in the last 10 years, he created an American musical masterpiece: "Roots and Folklore: Episodes in the Development of American Folk Music," five suites that, together, paint a wide-ranging, unique can vas: part chamber music, part folk music, all jazz. The suites (some on Soul Note, some on Gramavision) could one day be recognized as some of the most important serious music made in this country in the '80s. John Carter was 61.

New Artists Signings Result In Expansion For Music Square Talent

THE ESTABLISHMENT OF A NEW PRODUCTION COMPANY is the result of Music Square Talent's recent booking agreements with recording artists Shenandoah, Carlene Carter and J.P. Pennington. According to Allen Whitcomb, company general manager, the additional production provisions will allow the agency to provide full service production and promotion for their artists, as well as exclusive booking representation. Production operations of Music Square Talent will be headed by Patrick Logan, in addition to agent Jim Dallas, formerly of the Bobby Roberts Agency, who also joins the staff, along with office manager Peggy Bradley.

BMG Music Signs Nashville TV Performer - Darlene Austin

From (I-r): Henry Hurt, Darlene Austin, and Merlin Littlefield

TAGGED ACM'S TOP NEW FEMALE VOCALIST IN 1987, Darlene Austin, who has also enhanced her career by becoming one of Music City's most popular TV performers, has signed a publishing agreement with BMG Music Publishing. The announcement was recently made by Henry Hurt, vice president/general manager of BMG/Nashville. "We were very impressed by the songs Darlene brought us," says Hurt. "I knew that she could sing the heart right out of a song, but I didn't realize she had so much songwriting talent. We're proud to add her to our roster of songwriters."

Through extensive television performances, including those on TNN's Nashville Now and other programs such as Hee Haw, Pop Goes The Country and Nashville Alive, Austin has garnered successful national prominence. "I felt I was finally ready to go into songwriting full force and BMG Music Publishing was my first choice," Austin comments. "I feel I'm associated with the best bunch of writers and creative staff in the business.

Music City News Announces 1990's Top 10 Hits

DURING A RECENT PRESS CONFERENCE, held at Nashville's Vanderbilt Plaza Hotel, country entertainers Kathy Baillie (Baillie & The Boys) and Jimmy Dean announced the Top Ten Country Hits of 1990. All ten songs which were voted on by Music City News fans, will be performed on TNN's 90-minute telecast of the Music City News Country Songwriters Awards on Monday, April 29, at 9:00 pm E.S.T., live from the Grand Ole Opry House. The year's number one song will be announced during the special and named Song Of The Year. Baillie, Dean, and Ray Stevens will join together to host the program. The ten songs (in alphabetical order) include: "Friends In Low Places," "He Walked On Water," "Here In The Real World," "I Meant Every Word He Said," If Tomorrow Never Comes," "Killin' Time," "Love Without End, Amen," "Til A Tear Becomes A Rose," "Wanted" and "When I Call Your Name." The awards program will recognize songwriters, music publishers and performers.

Wright State University's Ervin J. Nutter Center in Dayton, Ohio, had its first country show sell-out with the Judds' Love Can Build A Bridge Tour w/Garth Brooks and opening act Pirates Of The Mississippi. Shown here with a presentation of a momento from the Nutter Center (I-r) are: Brooks; Wynona Judd; Paige Mulhollan, WSU president; Naomi Judd; Steve Pritchard of Pro Tours, and Thomas Oddy, Nutter Center director.

Country Tid-Bits...

JOHN HITT, a senior agent at the William Morris Agency, left the company on April 1 to manage country superstar Roy Clark on a full-time basis. The veteran agent had earlier joined the Morris Agency as a result of the merger between William Morris and The Jim Halsey Company. Much of the decision was based on Hitt's desire to reduce his prior work-load.

COUNTRY COMIC JERRY CLOWER celebrates his 21st year on MCA Records this year with a June 25 album release entitled Raccoonteur. Clower's 21-year album output on MCA is the longest run on a major label of any humorist in America, and has resulted in sales exceeding 5,000,000 albums.

Alternative country sensation k.d. lang recently bussed tables, while recording artist Chrissie Hynde waitressed and served up a storm at the PETA (People For The Ethlcal Treatment of Animals) "Tame Yourself" record release party. The Hard Rock Cafe hosted the gala with a no-meat, no-dairy, no-egg menu. Giant/Warner Bros. recording artists Raw Youth also performed the hit single "Tame Yourself," and singing along were River Phoenix, the B-52's, Hynde, lang, Lene Lovich and Liza Minelli.

NASHVILLE NOTES

BY KIMMY WIX

Project H.O.S.S. Creates All-Star Production

HELP OUR SCHOOLS SURVIVE is the request from a star-studded line-up of top-name country recording artists who join together in hope of turning a request into an action. More than fifty country artists recently gathered in Music City to record "Let's Open Up Our Hearts," an appeal through song, which will hopefully help our children pursue their dreams. All proceeds from this release will benefit Cities In School (CIS), the nation's largest non-profit dropout prevention organiza-

Hoss Burns, air personality for Nashville's WSIX Radio, initiated Project H.O.S.S., as well as co-wrote the tune with Vanderbilt University professor Don Huber. The project arose from Burns' desire to emphasize the need for everyone to take responsible action to help save our schools and our children's education. Artists scheduled to contribute to the recording of "Let's Open Up Our Hearts" include: Daniele Alexander, Duane Allen, Bill Anderson, Matraca Berg, Clint Black, Garth Brooks, T. Graham Brown, Lionel Cartwright, Rodney Crowell, Charlie Daniels, Linda Davis, Billy Dean, Joe Diffie, Skip Ewing, Exile, William Lee Golden, The Goldens, Vern Gosdin, Great Plains, Lee Greenwood, George Jones, Kentucky HeadHunters, Brenda Lee, Patty Loveless, The Mandrell Sisters, Kathy Mattea, Lorrie Morgan, Jimmy C. Newman, K.T. Oslin, Eddy Raven, Restless Heart, Ronna Reeves, Ricky Skaggs, Ray Stevens, Les Taylor, Aaron Tippin, Travis Tritt, Wild Rose and Trisha Yearwood.

TNN Provides Weekly Showcase To Stardom

Lisa Foster & Bobby Randall

THE BRAND NEW "BE A STAR"

SERIES continues to say "You Can" to aspiring artists. It was only eight years ago when the popular You Can Be A Star program made its debut on The Nashville Network. The nightly, talent-competitive program, hosted by Jim Ed Brown and Dan Miller, awarded grand prize winners with both a recording contract and a cash/prize package valued at more than $25,000, in addition to various performance appearances, including the Grand Ole Opry. The production of You Can Be A Star, however, came to a halt just a short time ago.

What better time than the present to re-open such an avenue for ambitious country artists—a time when new talent seems to be the core of today's country music industry? Enters Be A Star, a brand new series, co-hosted by TNN's Lisa Foster and former Sawyer Brown member, Bobby Randall, who experienced his origin of recording success following a multi-win on the very similar Star Search telecasts. The Be A Star concept is quite comparative to the former You Can Be A Star series, with the exception of how winners are determined. Contestants will compete for a grand prize of $25,000 in cash, a recording contract with PolyGram Records and appearances on Nashville Now and On Stage. The grand-prize winner will also have the winning performance fashioned into a video which will be telecast on TNN's VideoMorning and VideoPM. The winning results, however, will be determined by a ten-member panel composed of members of the studio audience, thus resulting 'people's-choice" outcome. The original You Can Be A Star contestants were judged by country celebrities and executives.

Taped in Nashville's TNN studio, Be A Star telecasts Monday through Friday at 7:30 PM (repeats the following weekday at 1:30 PM; all times Eastern). Performers interested in becoming contestants must submit a cassette tape of two songs and a photograph to: Be A Star, 2806 Opryland Drive, Nashville, TN 37214, or call (615) 885-2115.

The smiles seemed to have been endless at this year's Country Radio Seminar. Pictured here at the annual Artist-Attendee reception are from (I-r): recording artist Jeff Chance and Randy Carroll of KASA Radio, San Antonio, Texas. Chance just recently released his new country single entitled "Strangers On The Street."

WELCOME TO THE PANEL—WAMZ Radio in Louisville, Kentucky, sparks just one of the newest stations to become an asset to the Cash Box reporting panel. WAMZ's line-up includes: Dickie Braun 5-9am; Bobby Jack Murphy 9am-2pm; Coyote Calhoun 2-6pm; Dan Robinson 5-11pm; and Mark Griffin 11pm-5am. Mary Ellen Stanton serves as WAMZ's programming assistant.

STAR SEARCH—WMZQ Radio in Washington, D.C. is conducting auditions for country bands and soloists to perform in June on the WMZQ Texas In The Parks showmobile, which is part of the Kennedy Center's Texas Festival, June 11-22. Auditions are open to all country music groups or soloists

"This is a great opportunity for new talent to get exposure and possibly perform with a festival that will attract a very large audience," says Charlie Ochs, WMZQ vice president/general manager. "WMZQ is proud to be a part of the Kennedy Center's Texas Festival.

Six finalists will be chosen to perform at Texas In The Parks and WMZQ will pay each finalist $500 for their performance(s).

OUT OF THE BOX

□ SHENANDOAH: "The Moon Over Georgia" (Columbia 38 73777)

Producers: Rick Hall/Robert Byrne

Writer: M. Narmore

Absolutely nothing is going to stop these guys from doing what they do best! Once again, they've done it! As Shenandoah continue to peel off cuts from their phenomenal Extra Mile project, it becomes even more evident that this group will eventually be known as one of country music's legacies. In this inspiring story of romance, Shenandoah's fused harmony brings out love's true value, as the heart-

FEATURE PICKS

☐ HIGHWAY 101: "Bing Bang Boom" (Warner Bros. 26588)

Producers: Paul Worley/Ed Seay

Writer: Hugh Prestwood

For those of us who feared Highway 101 would perhaps lose their zesty country punch after changing female leads—fear no more! The rowdy "Bing Bang Boom" sparks the first release from the group's forthcoming album and the result is ultimately positive. New addition Nikki Nelson falls right into place with her low-keyed, sultry vocals and adds a new and refreshing sound to the band's keen

☐ THE JUDDS: "One Hundred And Two" (Curb/RCA 2782-7)

Producer: Brent Maher

Writers: Paul Kennerley/Don Potter/Wynonna Judd

Leave it to the Judds to create a unique and mysterious mood within their music. Just as we feel ourselves easing into this laggish-paced number, the energy begins to build as Wynonna's growling vocals lead us to a new dimension of inspiration. "One Hundred And Two" might not jump out and grab, but it will certainly sculpt a new and desirable statue of romance, as well as add another layer of artistic growth to the Judds' empire of talent.

☐ MARTY STUART: "Till I Found You" (MCA 54065)

Producers: Richard Bennett/Tony Brown

Writers: Paul Kennerley/Hank DeVito

We know this guy can rock hillbilly style, but his more polished and sensual approach is yet to be fully recognized. Stuart offers such an opportunity with the latest release from his current Tempted album. "Til I Found You" gently reveals how true love is worth the wait.

DAN SEALS: "Ball And Chain" (Capitol 79674)

Producer: Kyle Lehning

Writer: Dan Seals

Seals grinds out a rather mystic approach to this easy listener about love's luring powers. "Ball And Chain" reveals a much more personal and indepth shade of Seals singing colors, as he tones down his usual vibrant energy and emotions to a very mellow and thought-probing performance.

□ DAVIS DANIEL: "Picture Me" (Mercury 848 291)

Producer: Ron Haffkine

Writers: Brian R. Shaw/Mentor Williams

With a rich and southern flutter in his voice and an obvious storm of heartfelt emotions ready to erupt, newcomer Davis Daniel brings the true roots and liveliness of country music to a sound surface. The first release from his debut Fighting Fire With Fire album spills out such a quilt of country comfort, and Daniel ultimately pours out a traditional performance that just could be the beginning of the next country super-stardom story.

☐ JOHNNY CASH: "The Mystery Of Life" (Mercury 422-848 051)

Following a recent performance in Marion, Virginia, by new MCA recording artist Mark Chesnutt, WMEV Radio's afternoon-drive personality, Gary Lynn Heath, caught up with Chesnutt for some "say cheese!" action. Pictured from (I-r) are: Chesnutt and Heath.

INDIE INSIGHT

Teresa Ramey: Shooting For The Top

Teresa Ramey FROM SINGING IN CHURCH AT THE AGE OF NINE to recording yet another national charted single, country recording artist Teresa Ramey proves her roots to be strong and her talent to be growing continuously.

Like many aspiring artists who claim music as their personal fulfillment, Ramey has done so since a child. When she was only nine years old, playing the guitar seemed to fit naturally with her singing in church, and it was during those early years that she began developing an authentic, gutsy and emotional vocal ability. As years grew as well as her love for singing, Ramey's career also began to launch. After taking on various nightclub stints, it wasn't long before she was recognized by someone who could really make a dif-

An eventual introduction to Wayne Hodge and Stargem Records soon transitioned her career from club gigs to the recording studio. Her first two releases on Stargem were country/rock standards, "Hey, Good Lookin" and "Me And Bobby McGee." Even with her first two recordings, Ramey's bluesy-soaring vocals stirred an emotional explosion, and it was those qualities, in addition to an out-pouring of sincerity, realism and a thriving desire to touch her listeners, that led her to releasing material which easily garnered national Undeniable chart success ultimately paved the way for her first video release, "Better Off Blue," which coincided with yet another successful single in 1990. As another year turns for Ramey, so does another success story. This one begins with her current single entitled "I Know How You Feel." Climbing up five additional positions this week, the single makes its move to #63 (with a bullet) on Cash Box's Top 100 Country Singles Chart.

So how does the story end? It most likely won't. That is exactly what makes Ramey so unique compared to many other artists who claim music as their personal fulfillment, and even those who first began singing at an extremely young age. Ramey holds onto a heart-burning hunger to hit country music with her best shot, no matter what it takes. As her current single nears the Cash Box #1 Indie spot, it's perhaps safe to say that she'll keep on shooting all the way to the top.

INDIE FEATURE PICKS

DEWAYNE SPAW: "Preservation Of The Wild Life" (One Way OW-001)

Producer: Danny Day

Writers: Jim Allison/Linda Young

Southern rock-n-roll has never sounded better as newcomer Dewayne Spaw punches this snappy number with a sultry and hard driving performance. "Preservation Of The Wild Life" presents both a glimpse of the good times at their rowdiest, and a new artist who's obviously destined to become one heck of a country entertainer. In addition to Spaw's forceful and gripping vocals guiding this cut to the finish, great production and flavory instrumentation join forces to create what should be a bright addition to any radio playlist.

Bally's Harley-Davidson Pin

IN HONOR OF THE CLASSIC AMERICAN DREAM MACHINE Midway Manufacturing Company has captured the heart, soul and spirit of a Harley-Davidson Softail Custom, with the introduction of Bally's Harley-Davidson pinball machine.

The balanced playfield design has been created to challenge players of all skill levels as they find themselves in a coast-to-coast, ten-city race that starts in Los Angeles and travels all the way to Laconia, New Hampshire for the possibility of earning a Multi-Million point progressive JACKPOT value. In addition, by spelling out H-A-R-L-E-Y D-A-V-I-D-S-O-N players increase a separate Harley bonus that can advance to 500,000 points or a special operator-adjustable timed Speed Bonus with 5 Million point scoring.

This new model offers players a difference they can feel—the rumble and roar of the open road from the seat of a Harley-Davidson, and it abounds in challenging scoring opportunities. The non-stop action of Quick Two-Ball Multi-Ball or Three-Ball Multi-Ball plus the chance of scoring 5 Million points by spelling out the letters in the name of the game or getting Unlimited Million Point Loop Shots through the spinner lanes as well as spotting cities on the way to possible JACKPOT or even DOUBLE JACKPOT keep the excitement going from start to finish.

To complete the package, the game has spectacular effects, shaker motor, fantastic graphics and heart-thumping music.

Further information may be obtained through factory distributors or by contacting Midway Manufacturing Company at 3401 N. California Ave., Chicago, IL 60618.

AROUND THE ROUTE

BY CAMILLE COMPASIO

IN THE WEEKS PRIOR TO THE OPENING OF ACME '91 at the Sands Expo & Convention Center in Las Vegas (March 22-24), Cash Box touched base with AAMA's executive veepee Bob Fay to get a handle on how things were shaping up. He told us he was confident this year's event would be the best ever. By the same token, we contacted a number of convention regulars who planned to attend but were not exactly enthusiastic about doing so. Well, as it turned out, Bob Fay was right on target and those who were reluctant to go were glad they did! The 1991 American Coin Machine Exposition indeed fulfilled the expectations of its sponsors and, most importantly, earned high grades from attending tradesters, who tagged it "great," "terrific," "a really good show!" The industry needed something like this right now to uplift the spirt and medicate the doldrums. As observed by C.A. Robinson & Co. prexy Ira Bettelman, the people who came in with a negative attitude did a complete turnabout by the time they left. Did everyone approve of the convention site? The Sands & Expo Convention Center got an A plus for its layout, wide aisles and easy accessibility to the exhibits (and ACME management for a well organized show). Las Vegas itself got mixed reviews. Do you really want two major trade shows, in the same city during the same year? What about attendance? Based on our queries, it did not appear to be of record-breaking proportions but, considering reports that the seminars were well attended (and these sessions are populated by operators), let us assume ACME drew a respectable operator attendance. Or, as noted by Rowe veepee Joel Friedman, it's not so much quantity as "quality" that counts—and he welcomed a good number of "quality" ops to the Rowe exhibit. The computers are still at work so it will be a while before a complete attendance breakdown becomes available

Now let's get down to what really made this show tick. Equipment—a good mix of equipment. Atlas Dist. prexy Jerry Marcus felt there was "enough product to stimulate interest and create an improved market climate." New technology. Sega's Hologram Time Traveler made a tremendous impact at the convention, attracting heavy traffic at the exhibit. Looks like the innovator has done it again, with a bold new concept that holds unlimited possibilities and was the talk of the show. But the excitement didn't stop here, Rad Mobile and Clutch Hitter were among the other big attractions in the Sega exhibit... Can we pause for a moment and heap accolades on Bromley, Incorporated prexy Lauran Bromley who gave new meaning to the color purple and enjoyed hit-of-the-show reaction to her new Ghost Town redemption piece... Did pins make the scene at ACME? Yes indeed! Data East's Checkpoint—wow!; Premier's Cactus Jack's-a "barn burner!"; Williams' Bride Of Pin-Bot-a hit revisited!... And then you've got Leland's Indy Heat, Capcom's Street Fighter II, Namco's Steel Gunner, Atari's Panarama (3 monitor version of Hard Drivin') and Batman, along with Mad Dog McCree, the runaway hit from AMOA Expo that will be sporting a new scenario, Midway's Strike Force kit, Williams' 'mini' Shuffle Inn shuffle alley, which is unique for its reduced size, allowing ops more flexibility for installation; the new Data East redemption pieces; and, of course, NEO-GEO. Lots of favorable comments were made regarding SNK's continuous support of its NEO-GEO system... Konami's Simpsons video was a pre-show hit; already established; already being ordered. Showgoers did not converge upon this exhibit, knowing it held an outstanding piece they would be buying anyhow. Williams' Slug Fest baseball game attracted lots of attention for its many unique features and versatility. It can be set to automatically dispense baseball cards, or as a ticket dispenser, or for just straight play. This exhibit also featured the new, improved Bally Midway Trog, which will be out in limited edition dedicated or as a kit... Heard so many comments about the new NSM jukebox... And how about the Wurlitzer New York New York... We've just touched on some of the equipment shown to give you an idea of what this convention had to offer... By the way, Marty Bromley is the lucky fella who won the '68 sports model Corvette raffled off by the American Amusement Machine Charitable Foundation!... For the second year in a row, C.A. Robinson & Co. received the prestigious AAMA achievement award for outstanding performance. Our congratulations to the Bettelman family... Congrats also to Rowe who received the award of excellence for its LaserStar CD 100 jukebox (which was also voted the best jukebox of the year by U.S. operators)... We will, of course continue to focus on ACME '91 converage in subsequent editions of Cash Box, so keep tuned.

As for other news developments, hear tell that Doug Wilson, formerly of Hilltop Distg. in Weirton, West Virginia, has joined the Mondial Distg. office in Pittsburgh as branch manager, working under Nik Arakelian, who heads up the Philadelphia office... Bob Denver, who starred in the popular Gilligan's Island to series, was in Chicago recently, as reported on the WLUP radio morning show. His major stop was at the Williams Bally/Midway factory. Do you think a Bally Gilligan's Island pinball machine will be coming out this spring?
