COVER STORY

Chris LeDoux: No Looking Back

THIS WEEK CHRIS LeDOUX SCORES his first number one single, "Whatcha Gonna Do With A Cowboy," the title cut from his second Liberty album. Sharing vocal credits, as well as song writing credits on the song, is labelmate Garth Brooks who immortalized LeDoux in his early hit, "Much Too Young (To Feel This Damn Old)." This golden ounce of publicity was enough to bring a successful independent career into the Liberty Records fold and secure the release of two major label albums, as well as the re-releasing of his entire independent catalogue, which had reached sales figures nearing four million dollars. He has most recently signed a deal with H.K.O. Management and his appearances at Billy Bob's in Texas are always "standing room only."

A World Champion rodeo rider, LeDoux's songs mirror his true-grit character, as he could easily be dubbed the troubadour of the American cowboy. Yet his next single release, "Cadillac Ranch," a song penned by Chris Waters and Chuck Jones, will be showcasing some fancy footwork. The LeDoux Shuffle has been created and will involve an all-out dance club promotion. Hitting over 30 clubs nationwide, the contest will award the grand-prize winner an all-expense-paid "City Slicker Weekend" to Texas Lil's dude ranch in Ft. Worth, Texas.

NEWS

MAMMOTH DEAL: Atlantic Records and Mammoth Records have entered into a long-term, worldwide joint venture. Under terms of the agreement, Mammoth will continue to market recordings through independent channels as well as through Atlantic and the WEA system. Based in North Carolina, Mammoth and its staff will remain intact—independently signing, promoting and developing artists. Mammoth was founded by Jay Faires less than four years ago. Among its successes have been the Blake Babies, which included Juliana Hatfield—now a solo artist.

HE'S THE ONE: Elton John, along with George Michael, Lionel Richie, and Bruce Hornsby will perform the first concert to benefit the Elizabeth Taylor AIDS Foundation on Sunday, Oct. 11 at New York's Madison Square Garden. Whoopi Goldberg will host the event. As the national chairperson for AmFAR, Taylor continues to raise funds for much-needed education and research in the quest for a cure for AIDS, both in the States and abroad. She decided to redouble her efforts in October, 1991 by starting her own personal foundation to make funds available primarily for patient care. The work with one complements the other. Tickets are available at the Garden's box office and all Ticketmaster locations. All seats are reserved with tickets priced at $200, $100 and $50. For additional ticket info call (212) 465-MSGI.

PAUL JABARA DIES: Songwriter/producer/actor Paul Jabara, who won an Oscar and a Grammy for his huge disco smash, "Last Dance" with Donna Summer, died on Tuesday (29) at his home in Los Angeles after a long illness. He was 44. His other platinum and gold records included "The Main Event" (Barbra Streisand), "Enough Is Enough" (Summer & Streisand) and "It's Raining Men" (The Weathergirls). Private burial services will be held in New York.

Private burial services will be held in New York. AUTOMATIC MOVE: Warner Bros. supergroup R.E.M. has signed with agent Buck Williams of Monterey Artists, Nashville for representation. Williams, who recently came to Monterey after the F.B.I./InterTalent merger, has known several members of the band for 15 years. R.E.M.'s new album, Automatic For The People, is set for an October 6 release.

MUZAK TO OUR EARS: Muzak, the company that pipes in easy listening music to elevators and dentist's offices, has announced that its management team and Centre Capital Investors, an affiliate of Lazard Freres & Co., have acquired Muzak Limited Partnership from Marshall Field V. The 58-year-old music company was owned by Field for the past five years. Muzak, the nation's leading provider of business music, broadcasts 12 styles of music including its well-known Environmental Music with Stimulus Progression, to more than 200,000 business locations throughout the U.S. and the world.

Many BMG artists plus other celebrities joined BMG chairman and CEO Michael Dornemann as he accepted his "Spirit of Life" Award from the Music and Entertainment Chapter of the City of Hope recently. BMG raised more than $2.5 million, making it one of the most successful campaigns in the history of the chapter. Pictured are (I-r) B.B. # Lawyers Deny Joel's Claims of Collusion in Investment Scam

By M.R. Martinez

AN ENTERTAINMENT LAW FIRM, being sued by pop star Billy Joel, claims that when it represented Joel it was not responsible for guarding the singer/songwriter from bad investments made by his manager. Responding to a complaint filed by Joel against his lawyers recently, attorney Bert Fields said in a written statement that the firm of Grubman, Indursky, which claims to have negotiated only Joel's music contracts, "was given no authority or responsibility over his investment policies or other tax or business matters."

Grubman, Indusrsky "categorically denies" the claims in Joel's recent suit that the lawyers were in collusion with Joel's attorney and has threatened a countersuit, saying that they are "anxious to get this matter to trial."

The new complaint stems from a suit filed two years ago against Joel's former manager, Frank Weber, against whom the songwriter won a more than $2 million judgment. Weber, however, filed for bankruptcy shortly after the judgment in a New York court. "At that time," the Fields' statement says, "no one made a claim against Grubman, Indursky or even suggested they'd done anything wrong." The statement said that the firm "neither knew nor had reason to know that Mr. Joel's manager was behaving improperly. They never paid any direct or indirect kickback to him or made a payment to him that wasn't a valid business transaction."

The lawyer said that they believed that Weber was a competent financial advisor, and that the law firm itself had invested in the same deals as Joel and also lost their investment. "They," the statement said, "were just as much a victim of those deals as he was.

"Over the years, Grubman, Indursky did an outstanding job for Joel in making his record-setting music deals, getting his copyrights back in other phases of his entertainment life," the statement said. "What thanks do they get? Years after the fact, even without any warning, they get sued supposedly for not finding out something that wasn't even in their area of responsibility."

Senate to Consider DAT Bill

By M.R. Martinez

WITH ONE LEG OF THE RACE WON, a proposed law that would lead to a levy on the sale of digital taping equipment and blank tape is closer to becoming a reality. A version of the Audio Home Recording Act must now be approved by the U.S. Senate, following its recent passage by the House of Representatives. Lobbying in behalf of song scribes, the Songwriters Guild of America, led by president George David Weiss, joined a coalition of hardware manufacturers in America and from overseas to successfully get the House of Representatives to pass the Audio Home Recording Act. The measure would call for a collection of royalties to be doled out to songwriters, publishers, musicians and record companies that lose money to home taping.

'The most remarkable thing is that there was a collective effort by previously warring factions that got this bill passed," Weiss told Cash Box recently. "The electronics industry, record companies and songwriters have previously not been on the same side in this fight. So it's a landmark victory on a number of fronts."

The bill is on its way back to the Senate, where a slightly different version of the bill was approved last June. The bill specifically calls for a royalty fee for each tape and recorder sold. In return, manufacturers will have immunity from copyright suits filed by music companies. "Songwriters depend on royalties to provide for themselves and their families," Weiss said. "Our royalty checks are our paychecks—plain and simple."

PRINCE AND THE N.P.G.: "My Name Is Prince" (Paisley Park/Warner Bros. Pro-CD-5770)

(Paisley Park/Warner Bros. Pro-CD-5770)
Well, all hail his funky high-ness. Sure, he's got $100,000,000.00 and now he can blow his own horn louder than anyone. This song can be interpreted a few ways. 1) a slammin' funky, but meaningless dance track; 2) his self-obsession is blocking his ability to write anything poignant; 3) the man is a full-blown, Napoleonistic, megalomaniac who has now launched himself into the same self-glorifying world as Michael Jackson and Madonna. Naturally, he produces himself.

■ ROGER WATERS: "What God Wants, Part I" (Columbia CSK 4607)

(Columbia CSK 4607)
This single is from Roger's latest brain/ear-food effort,
Amused To Death. We know much of the artistry of the entire Pink Floyd phenomenon was due to Roger, and it's in furthering that same larger-than-life, surrealistic approach to rock music that this single projects. In addition to his poetic brilliance, and infectious beat, there are huge crowds chanting in the background. Patrick Leonard produces with Waters along with Nick Griffiths.

KIMM ROGERS: "Two Sides" (PRCD 6737-2)

"Two Sides" is the title track from Kimm's sophomore lp, following up 1990's Soundtrack Of My Life. The folkrockin' ditty has alternative and pop overtones and would probably find a home easier on college radio stations. Rogers' voice is probably the key here, switching from affected, punk anti-tones to spoken dialogue to an occasional melodic outburst. Regardless, her theme on this track is spirited and spunky. Matt Wallace produces.

CHANTE MOORE: "Love's Taken Over" (Silas/MCA

MCA5P-2091)
Debut artist, new label. Chante's model looks are subtley surpassed by her sweet and soulful voice. This advance release single is from her upcoming lp, Precious. With this single, she hopes to establish herself as a career artist in the pop/soul vein and shouldn't find much resistance from CHR, AC or Urban radio. This soft-sung, funky-smooth R&B ballad was co-written by Moore and producer Simon Law. Co-production credit goes to "Patches."

■ VANESSA PARADIS: "I'm Waiting For The Man" (Polydor CDP 754)

(Polydor CDP 754)
Vanessa Paradis has been a pop queen in her native Paris since she was 14. She has also garnered acclaim as an actress by winning a Cesar (a French Oscar) for her work in the film Noce Blanche. This single marks the English-speaking debut of the multi-talented young singer. Her Ricki Lee-meets-Dylan remake of the Velvet Underground classic is produced by Lenny Kravitz. We can also see a bird-caged Vanessa in the new "Coco" Chanel perfume commercials.

ALBUMS

BLIND MELON: Blind Melon (Capitol CDP 0777 7

W6585 277)
Here's an interesting blend of sounds. This group has band members from Mississippi, Indiana and Pennsylvania, yet they found themselves in Hollywood and their 13-cut debut album was produced in Seattle. Musically, you have a sort of melding of late '60s acid wash with some harmonic '70s blend, some '80s punk/thrash-ism, and production from Pearl Jam and Temple Of The Dog's Pick Paracher Still severely in the alternative mold (al.) Rick Parasher. Still severely in the alternative mold (although slightly more melodic) this sound has been covered plenty.

THE FRAMES: Another Love Song (Island 314-512

Out in front of this Dublin-based band is Out in front of this Dublin-based band is singer/songwriter/guitarist, Glen Hansard, who you probably don't remember as the guitarist in the film The Commitments. The eclecticism and diversity in style on this 12-cut debut lp come from the varied assortment of players that round out the group, a funk bassist, a heavymetal drummer, an Irish fiddler, and female backing vocals a la T. Rex. But it's still Hansard's show, and he fancies Dylan. Produced by Gil Norton and Al Clay.

BRENT BOURGEOIS: A Matter Of Feel (Charisma 0777 7 86311 2 5 V2-86311)

Brent's second solo album further demonstrates his love for and influence by many different artists from the "70s and '80s like Stevie Wonder, Sly Stone, The Beatles, Steely Dan and Todd Rundgren. First single, "Funky Little Nothing" is a good example of Brent's pop/white funk, while on "I'm Down With You," he writes and sings a dance-beat duet with Robert Palmer. The 12-track CD is co-produced by Glenn Rosenstein, Brent Bourgeios & Tommy Simms.

THE WOLFGANG PRESS: Queer (4AD/Warner Bros.

This British trio has been enjoying alternative success in their native homeland with a string of albums and EPs since 1983. Queer marks the second American-released lp consisting of 15 tracks of underground U.K. club scene jive. Included is the group's subtle twist on Randy Newman's "Mama Told Me Not To Come," and many more tongue-in-cheek offerings sounding a lot like Donovan fronting the Pet Shop Boys. Produced by Drostan Madden, T.W.P.

Here's a little retro-rock in the fun sense. These boys Here's a little retro-rock in the fun sense. These boys make no bones about wanting to be commercial, and their music is straight-ahead, slam-dancin' hard rockin' with a sense of humor. Citing the music of The Rocky Hor ror Picture Show as influence, as well as the Ramones and Judas Priest, the Rocky Horror vibe prevails on this 10-cut debut album. First single is the hard buzzing, "Science Fiction Boy." Richard Gottehrer (Blondie), Earl Mankey and Star Star produce.

BILL CHINNOCK: Out On The Border Line (East Point EP 003-2)

Singer/songwriter and guitarist Bill Chinnock's latest effort is nine songs of rhythm and blues-oriented material. The title track has deeper full-on blues roots and could very easily have been covered by B.B. King, His writing style has been compared to the likes of Michael McDonald circa the Doobie Brothers years. No wonder he has recently been writing with the group. "Take This Heart Of Mine" is strong indication the rumors are true. Bill produces himself.

PICK OF THE WEEK:

EXTREME: III Sides To Every Story (A&M 31454 0006 2)

Had it not been for the smash success of a couple of the band's softer tunes a while back ("More Than Words," "Hole Hearted") most would not have ever learned of Extreme. What most people who haven't bought their records don't haven't bought their records don't know is how far—and in how many directions, this band of talented, diverse musicians can swing. Hence the name. This album has a strong underlying political message running throughout the 14 tracks of screaming rock, thumpin' funk, powerful epic rock ballads, tasteful acoustic treats and tight blendful acoustic treats and tight blending harmonies. This band is picking up where Queen left off. Bandmember Nuno Betancou! produces along with Bob St.John Alison Krauss may be a swell fiddler, but it's her voice that'll make your heart melt. Need proof? Every Time You Say Goodbye (Rounder) or, better yet, go hear her at the Bottom Line, Oct. 14.

ALL TOUR UP: I know, I know, you've been to New York a million times and you've seen it all: the Statue of Liberty, the Empire State Building, Chinatown, the Flatiron Building, Mama Leone's, MOMA...you're all out of tourist-type things to do.

Come to the city during the weekend of Oct. 16-18 and you'll be able to settle your jaded derriere on a bus and, for a mere 10 bucks (to go to the worthy T.J. Martell Foundation for Leukemia, Cancer and AIDS Research), let Danny Fields take you on the Tanqueray New York Rock-N-Roll Trivia Bus Tour.

See where the stars lived! (Cher! Bob Dylan! Keith Richards!

Madonna! Billy Joel! Frank Zappa!)

See where your favorite album covers were shot, and pose like one of the New York Dolls did for their first album at the East Village's Gem Spa (and while you're there, get an egg cream) or like the Ramones did for their first album in that behind-CBGB's alleyway!

See the Brill Building and the Bitter End! Revisit the sites of the Fillmore and the Cafe au Go Go! Eat in the very Chinese restaurant that served a dish called Mother and Child Reunion to a guy named Paul Simon!

Fields, who has been a publicist and columnist and is, along with Lisa Robinson, rock and roll's premier gossipist, will burn your ears with all sorts of scorching tidbits. He'll make you laugh! He'll make you weep! He'll make you wish you were still in bed with your remote control!

If you want to get on this bus (if you've got the nerve) call Ticketmaster and get yourself some ducats. If you can't make it here (...you can't make it anywhere...), Tanqueray will gladly send you a copy of its Rock-N-Roll Trivia Map by just writing to them at P.O. Box 511, Gibbstown, NJ 08027. You don't even have to prove that you drink their gin. Then you can use it to tantalize your friends, who had no idea whatsoever that Cyndi Lauper used to schlep horses around Belmont Racetrack after they ran.

YOU'VE GOT THE GIN, NOW GET THE CIGARETTES: The Benson & Hedges Blues Festival is now something called Benson & Hedges Blues and Rhythm and it has begun a confusing hodgepodge of concerts and club dates, some private parties for big ticket advertising clients, some headlining concerts. It's too complex to go into here, but if you're in Miami, Atlanta, Houston, Detroit, Chicago, New York, Boston, Philadelphia, Cincinnati, New Orleans, Dallas or Cleveland, just keep your ears peeled, and if you get invited to one of the parties, go—the acts include Dr. John (who played at the New York party announcing this thing), Eddie Palmieri, the Radiators, the Dirty Dozen Brass Band, Toots & the Maytals, the Texas Tornadoes, B.B. King and Buddy Guy. Not chopped liver. As for the concerts, they are: Gerald Levert/Regina Belle/Jonathan Butler (Detroit, Nov. 6), Levert/Belle/Grover Washington/Lalah Hathaway (Atlanta, Nov. 7), Freddie Jackson/Najee (New York, Nov. 10; Chicago, Nov. 12), and Levert/Washington/CeCe Peniston (Cincinnati, Nov. 15). The vision of George Martin

A&R-ABSURD RIDICULOUS: Where are the visionaries... the people who find, develop and nurture talent? Not since Berry Gordy's Motown has a label had a consistent stream of hitmaking artists, and there's not a soul alive that doesn't believe the talent is out there... somewhere.

I was at a gathering of music industry marketing professionals recently and was horrified to hear some of these pencil-necks talking about record sales in the '90s. They were so sure, because of these recessionary times, and because of the low volume of mainstream pop music selling, and the high volume of country music selling (Garth Brooks, Billy Ray Cyrus), this was sure-fire indication of the recession hitting harder in urban areas and less in the rural (more country-buying) markets. What? Are they crazy?

First of all, let's back up a few years. Since the advent of the compact disc, and the more recent standardization thereof, nearly every catalog of music released beforehand has been remixed, repackaged and reissued on the format, the sales of which have soared way into the multi-millions. This, naturally, has padded music sales figures over the last several years, giving a false impression of the true amount of new music being purchased by consumers in the pop market, and the demographics of the average consumer.

Next, let's look at what has dominated the pop charts recently. Rap music has been a cost-effective boon to the industry, and it doesn't take a rocket scientist to figure out the demos of the consumer here. Sure, it brought out a new section of record buyers, and because of the same cost-effectiveness, it has been shoved down the throats of the radio listener in recent years to the point of station format changes nationwide... do you follow

my lead?

Several years ago, oldies stations were popping up all over... why? More recently, country stations have been taking heed. Hell, the ratings points of talk radio have grown considerably in urban areas. Is there a pattern forming here? Many radio listeners and record buyers are disillusioned over CHR and are staying away in droves. The more current influx of alternative programming (and sales in this area) are further indication there is a problem in new mainstream music. Yet, the amount of new releases in the alternative field (in the hope of finding the next Nirvana) is staggering. Gee, let's beat that horse to death. We're also talking about another recently tapped, relatively small demographic, ignoring once again the larger, more affluent baby-boomer demo.

Which brings us back to Garth and Billy Ray. This is not country in the traditional sense. Not too much fiddleplaying and twanging going on here. The bottom line, folks, is these guys are pretty damn good, and their borderline country status is only slightly filling a vast void in the market right now. It ain't just the economy. Never really was. Considering the longevity, recorded music is one of the best entertainment bargains available (of course, nothing beats the boob tube).

Despite the recession, I believe the music scene is ripe for another cultural pop sensation, like it was nearly 30 years ago when four boys from Liverpool, England rose to fame and claimed the pop music culture, and just as before, I'm sure it will stumble onto the scene. Remember... those boys were turned down plenty, there and here.

Speaking of which, Capitol Records is celebrating the 30th anniversary of the recording of The Beatles first single, "Love Me Do," with yet another re-issue. Think about it. Next week...

Ramones: Always and Forever

INDIE MUSIC

By John Carmen

NO MATTER WHAT the pundits say about the Velvet Underground, MC5, Iggy, the New York Dolls, or whomever, the Ramones invented and defined "punk-rock" as we know and Nevertheless, if you had told an observer at CBGB's, the band's old stomping grounds back in 1975 that the Ramones would be alive and well in 1992, they'd be rather surprised.

Punk-rockers they were 17 years ago, and punk-rockers they are now. The Ramones began on Sire when it was basically an indie, and have come full-circle, signing with their manager Gary Kurfirst's MCA-distributed indie Radioactive label. The group's debut for the label is Mondo Bizarro, a 13-track CD which once again hits their turf as hard as nails.

Featuring the wall of distortion with pop on top, which is the band's unmistakable trademark, Mondo Bizarro is the band's best effort since 1984's Too Tough To Die. Kicking off with an articulate, anti-PMRC rant, "Censorshit," and moving through the band's first ever Marky Ramone (the group's on-again, off-again drummer for the last 14 years) composition, "The Job That Ate My Brain," the quartet reclaims the stormy punkoid high ground it has avoided in search of the elusive hit.

Not that they've given up in this area completely. The CD's first single, "Poison Heart" is bathos-laden and catchy, the perfect combo for the "Edge" radio formats that have sprung up in America, post-Nirvana. Although the song's chorus is more or less a rewrite of the Dylan classic, "Blowin' In The Wind," which skateboarding, Bermuda short-wearing kid will know it? What they may recognize is that the song's video will be directed by the same director who did "Smells Like Teen Spirit," a winning Live is where these dudes have made their living, and live they'll be this autumn all over the U.S. Supporting the Ramones at most dates will be Social Distortion and recent profilees Overwhelming Colorfest. The band's live gigs will undoubtedly be more of the same blitzkrieg style that has sustained them: "1-2-3-4," then three-chord gem, "1-2-3-4," three-chord-gem ad infinitum. Even though the band has switched bassists and labels, the more they've (or the world around them) has changed, well, you know the rest.

The Philadelphia Music Alliance, represented on the right by Grover Washington Jr., and NARAS, represented on the left by Mike Greene, are forming an organizing committee to solicit potential NARAS members in the Mid-Atlantic region. You know who you are.

BATTLE OF THE BANDS: One of the nights they're still talking about here in New York is the night the Count Basie Orchestra engaged the Chick Webb Orchestra in a battle of the bands up at the Savoy Ballroom. What gave the night an extra sense of drama was that it took place at midnight following the famous January 16, 1938 Benny Goodman Carnegie Hall concert, jazz's first real foray into symphonic spaces, and everybody just trundled up from 57th St. to Harlem for the festivities.

On October 22, Carnegie Hall is going to unveil its first ever homegrown jazz series and, with it, its first ever homegrown big band: the Carnegie Hall Jazz Band, under the direction of trumpeter Jon Faddis. Ironically (maybe), the CHJB debuts three nights after the Lincoln Center Jazz Orchestra, under the baton of David Berger, ends its first tour with a gala benefit at the New York State Theatre, a seven-and-a-half-minute walk from Carnegie Hall.

The battle of the institution-organized, New York, all-star jazz repertory bands is joined.

In this corner: Carnegie Hall, consisting of Faddis, Kamau Adilifu, Earl Gardner, Byron Stripling, Lew Soloff, Slide Hampton, Douglas Purviance, Steve Turre, Dennis Wilson, Jerry Dodgion, Ralph Moore, Gary Smulyan, Lew Tabackin, Bobby Watson, Ron Carter and Lewis Nash (pianist to be named later). Cornerman: Rob Gibson.

In this corner: Lincoln Center, consisting of Wynton Marsalis, Lew Soloff, Marcus Belgrave, Umar Sharif, Jerry Dodgion, Norris Turney, Todd Williams, Joe Temperley, Bill Easley, Britt Woodman, Art Baron, Wycliffe Gordon, Roland Hanna, Reginald Veal and Herlin Riley. Cornerman: George Wein. (Sharp-eyed observers will note that Messrs. Soloff and Mr. Dodgion seem to be doing double duty).

And let's not forget the ailing, but not dead yet, American Jazz Orchestra (whose institution is Cooper Union), and, holding down the southern front, the Smithsonian's Gunther Schullerled band. Oy vey!

Well, heck, let the fight begin. Carnegie's series opens on Oct. 22 with a bevy of saxophonists fronting the band: Grover Washington Jr., Buddy Tate, Flip Phillips and out from the section, Lew Tabackin. On line: "The Legacy of Miles Davis" with Shirley Horn, Joe Zawinul, Jackie McLean, Milt Jackson, Lee Konitz, Roy Hargrove and others (Dec. 3); "Salsa in Jazz," a tribute to Tito Puente (Mar. 4, 1993), and "A Tribute to Errol Garner" with Roland Hanna, Dick Hyman and others (Apr. 15,

I hope that one day we get to see the Carnegie and Lincoln Center bands go at it tooth-and-nail (kind of like the old Mets-Yankees Mayor's Trophy games). In the meantime, mortgage the kids and get tickets for it all.

Joe Cocker/Sass Jordan

By Robert Adels

GREEK THEATRE, LOS AN-GELES, CA-The New World Order may have failed the U.S. economy and the Yugoslav Unity movement, but it's working out fine for Joe Cocker. Six months into his biggest tour ever, he's still able to belt out 18 songs without stumbling, even once, over the words or the stage itself.

For a career long-troubled by emotional breakdowns, booze and drugs, the uneventful nature of Cocker's New World Order Tour is headline news in which we can all rejoice. The spotlight is finally illuminating Joe's music instead of fading into the giant shadow his tortured soul once Cocker's current show features seven of his nine biggest singles, including ever-revelatory versions of "Cry Me A River" (his opener) and "Up Where We Belong" (his #1 Grammy-winning hit). Most of the rest of his signature tunes are reserved for his five-song encore segment, freeing the concert proper to amaze you with newer and less-familiar material.

Cocker's July-released Capitol album Night Calls provides two high points: his current bluesy single "Now That The Magic Has Gone" replete with raspy-voiced wizardry; and his rockin' reworking of Gary Wright's "Love Is Alive" which ranks with "The Letter" and "High Time We Went" in the high-energy depart-

Two Ray Charles tunes ("Lonely Avenue" and "Unchain My Heart") salute the man with whom Cocker has so often been so favorably compared. But it's on non-blues source tunes like Randy Newman's "You Can Leave Your Hat On" and Elton John's "Sorry Seems To Be The Hardest Word" (from the Two Rooms album) that Cocker most definitively defends his longstanding right to remain "King Of The Interpreters."

Visually, Joe's new tour combines a glitzy slide and laser light show (projected on overhead trampoline-like screens), with Cocker's trademarked, spasmodic "air piano" hand movements which have always given his concerts an "on-the-edge-ofyour-seat" quality.

Cocker's voice is still the classic blues instrument, but one that has now come through the better-lit end of the tunnel to emerge victorious rather than victimized.

Joe Cocker

There's enough motorcycle mama in opening act Sass Jordan to make Bonnie Raitt and Melissa Etheridge sound tame. But this Impact recording artist carefully balances her hard-driving image with a mane of flowing blonde hair that doubles as her silent dance partner.

Sass struts some great original material in "Make You A Believer" and "If You're Gonna Love Me" (both co-penned with producer/guitarist Rick Neigher from her MCA-distributed debut album Racing.) But if her torrid version of Rufus Thomas' "Walkin' The Dog" is any indication, Ms. Jordan can redefine classics as easily as Joe Cocker.

While Sass's hoarse-rock style is reminiscent of Kim Carnes, it's never before been so fervently applied to Southern-style rock. Why and how an English-born, Montreal-raised female has taken up the All-American and virtually all-male mantle of Black Oak Arkansas and Lynyrd Skynyrd is still a mystery (as is her Southern pronunciation of "think" as "thank"). But like any legendary detective, Sass Jordan succeeds in turning mystery into a career that fascinates both sleuth and audience alike.

10,000 Maniacs

By Hilarie Grey

THE WILTERN THEATRE, LOS ANGELES, CA-In a benefit for "Rock The Vote," the MTV and League of Women Voters-sponsored organization which encourages young voters to make their voices heard, 10,000 Maniacs spun an exhilarating set which dipped into the band's treasure chest of hits and previewed some inspiring material from their brand new Elektra release, Our Time In Eden.

The crowd of Maniac devotees that packed the small theater to the rafters greeted the less familiar offerings (the new album was not yet available) with the same wild enthusiasm that propelled sing-a-longs on "Cherry Tree" and "Like The Weather." They had good reason: from the bright exuberance of set-opener "These Are Days" to the haunting, reflective piano-based "Noah's Dove" and "How You've Grown," the songs from Eden were immediately compelling, reinforcing and expanding on the territory which made In My Tribe and Blind Man's Zoo so successful.

Lead singer Natalie Merchant's emotive voice was supported by multi-layered arrangements and inventive time changes (like the stunning mood alteration in "Jezebel") which brought out the emotional colors in the poetic, image-heavy lyrics. Particularly effective were Mary Ramsey's viola flourishes, and the surprising addition of a threepiece horn section on "Few and Far Between" and "Candy Everybody Wants." The sunny brass sound also added new life to Maniac standard "Hey Jack Kerouac."

Much of the joy and intrigue in 10,000 Maniacs' set came directly out of the commanding performance of Natalie Merchant, who spun about the stage in a brightly colored striped skirt. She was completely absorbed in the material throughout the set, kneeling to sing to the audience on "A Campfire Song," skipping and dancing a happy jig during the wedding celebration, "My Sister Rose," and breaking down tearfully, unable to finish "What's The Matter Here?" This spontaneous show of emotion only added to the underlying power of the musically bright chronicle of child abuse.

Merchant was visibly shaken by the appearance of a pair of adoring stage-jumpers who broke her magic trance, but quickly recovered her composure for several encores, including "Trouble Me," with its sweet harmony and carefully controlled guitar accents, and a powerful reading of the lilting lament, "City Of Angels," which was enough to inspire anyone to go out and vote. Merchant strapped on a guitar to contribute to the bristling, recurring riff of "Don't Talk," which was a strong, beat-driven cap to a fine set. Fans were left shouting for more, and looking forward to spending more time in Eden with 10,000 Maniacs.

Warm-up band Toad The Wet Sprocket (Columbia), the second act in a three-part bill which also included T-Bone Burnett, also boasted a legion of devoted fans in the audience. The Santa Barbarabased quartet, drawing from their current album, Fear, offered an uneven hour, faring best with warm acoustic-based songs like the hit "All I Want" and encore "Walk On The Ocean," which featured some furious mandolin soloing.

Kris Kross

By Sarah Baltazar*

GREEK THEATRE, LOS ANGELES, CA-Screams reached for miles as the Mac Daddy and Daddy Mac made their appearance at the Greek Theatre last week. Most of the crowd wore their clothes backwards and "Cross Colours" signs were everywhere. The feelings on my side were unbelievably wild, because Kris Kross is not only my absolute favorite group in the world, but it seemed like the whole crowd felt the exact same way.

As the shadows of Kris Kross materialized in a shaft of light on the pitch-black stage the crowd went crazy. Then beats of their hit song "Jump!" mixed with flashing strobe lights and a super screen display with computerized figures of Kris Kross, filled the Greek with incredible mind-blowing sensations.

At the end of each song the stage slammed black again as Kris Kross disappeared understage then returned with new excitement wearing different backward styles. They also sang "Warm It Up," "Shame," "I Missed The Bus" and "The Way Of The Rhyme."

Fans stood on seats rocking with the beat of their rhyme..." Warm It Up, Kris/I'm about to/Warm It Up, Kris/Cause that's what I was born to do..." Born 13 years ago, both Krisses call Atlanta, Georgia their hometown. "Daddy at the mall/Shooting to kill, got the gun/Kris Kross show 'em how it's done!" Interestingly enough, Jerimine Dupry discovered friends, Kris Kelly and Kris Smith at a mall dressed backwards and the rest is Kris Kross history...can ya comprehend?

Warm-up acts included MC Lyte, Ed Lover and Todd 1. Lover and Todd 1 had a dance contest on who could do the Daddy Mac dance the best. Winners received $50 each. MC Lyte appeared with two dancers. Her rap songs gave teenagers messages about staying in school, off drugs, and safe sex. "In school, and off drugs/In school, and off drugs..." the crowd chanted over and over again, as MC Lyte drove her message

But Kris Kross kept the crowd hottest to the end, "believe dat!" * Sarah Baltazar is 12 years old.

Lorez Alexandria

M.R. Martinez

VINE ST. BAR & GRILL, HOLLYWOOD, CA-Making the best out of a bad situation is something that veteran jazz vocal stylist Lorez Alexandria has made as much her career as she has belting out soulful, throaty riffs with passion and expertise. She managed to do some of that belting recently at the Vine St., but she spent far too much time keeping her supporting cast in tempo. While she has enjoyed considerable support in her adopted hometown of Los Angeles, it was a sparse but appreciative audience that listened to Alexandria deliver a professional set during the first of four shows she would do that weekend.

The centerpiece of this set was the classic "Something Cool," a lilting lament that the singer introduces with a sad story—tongue firmly planted in cheek. During the song, Alexandria infuses drama with skilled lyrical interpretation to make up for the checkered accompaniment she received from a mostly able trio. Pianist Art Hilary, bassist Richard Simon and drummer Clarence Johnston seemed to come together better on the blusey ballad "Where Have You Been?" They seemed more comfortable with Alexandria's patented quick tempo shifts within this song.

Having recently recorded a new album for Muse Records, Alexandria seemed reticent to perform any of the new material, which consists mostly of standards and jazz gems from yesteryear. Maybe with a backing unit with which she has proper time to rehearse, the public will be treated to such a menu.

RHYTHM & BLUES

By M.R. Martinez

Even though his current album, Heaven And Earth, is firmly ensconced on the charts, Al Jarreau (left) was recently in the studio with the album's producer, Narada Michael Walden (center), and engineer Dave Frazer kicking around some ideas and concepts for Jarreau's next album.

SAMPLES: The first time out she was raw, and this time she's coming with some Homebrew. We're talkin' about Virgin recording artist Neneh Cherry, who jumped off large on her solo debut album, Raw Like Sushi, in 1989. Cherry, whose unique blend of funky pop, rap and jazz- influenced grooves paced her debut, is back with with a refinement of the same. "Money Love" is the first single from the package, which is largely produced by collaborators from her first album, including Booga Bear and Jonny Dollar...Black Moses, or Isaac Hayes to the uninitiated, could be back in the studio shortly after the success of his music to a 60second spot for the California Lottery. Hayes' "Fat Cat" groove for the Lottery has reportedly gotten the '60s and '70s Hot Buttered Soul innovator, perhaps best known for his million-selling soundtrack to the film Shaft, calls from several record companies and has inspired him to put together a fresh band. Hayes has not recorded since 1988...It all started with the New York City Taxi and Limousine Commission. That's who Steel Pulse leader David Hinds sued in a $1 million class action case because he-and other Rastas-were frequently denied cab service in the city. Not only did the dreadlocked Hinds sue the city, but he wrote the song "Taxi Driver," which will be featured on Steel Pulse's upcoming live album on MCA Records, Rastafari Centennial. The song will be the first single from the album. There's an upcoming video in which Hinds and the band are seen in actual TV news footage leaving a courthouse press conference. Jay Leno and Branford, along with some cabbies, make cameo appearances in the clip.

REVIEWS

■ THE POWER OF SEVEN: Up Front (Sheffield Lab CD-33). Producers: Jeffrey Webber with The Power of Seven.

Backing vocalists rarely get their props. And in this day and age many star artists rely more and more on such singers to bring an artistic integrity to their own vocals. The seven ladies on this disc, recorded studio live, all acquit themselves in unison, as frontline singers and backing each other. The material is wide ranging: from the funky/folky "Mockingbird" and the Billy Preston hit "Will It Go Round In Circles?" to the contemporary arrangements of "Stranger in My Bed" and "Back-up Singer's Blues." The latter song exhibits an engaging sense of humor. The live recording and minimal mixing allow some fine singing to be imbibed.

SARAFINA! SOUNDTRACK: Various Artists (Qwest/Warner Bros. Pro-C-5741). Producers: Mbongeni Ngema and Michael Omartian.

This is uplifting World Beat church music with capital performances and production. Miriam Makeba and Hugh Masekela, both South African expatriates, breathe genuine fresh air into this music, which is an essential piece to the adapted stage play by Mbongi Ngema. The harmonies of this mbaqanga- style of music is never more evident than on the song "Sechaba." But throughout, the music never fails to galvanize spirit. Its unpretentious and organic feel make the music universal and distinctly African all at once. The duet between the picture's star Leleti Khumalo and Makeba on "Thank You Mama" is heart-rending and could become a gospel staple, even though the lyrics are mostly secular.

RAP/DANCE MUSIC

By M.R. Martinez

BAD VIBES: Rush Communications founder and chief Russell Simmons recently released a statement debunking the notion that he has cast asper-sions on the ability of the editorial staff at the new Time Publishing/Quincy Jones-backed magazine Vibe to adequately deliver news about the hip-hop culture. Simmons' severance of involvement with the magazine last May, he says, was due to "creative differences." The Rap Padrone also says that he did not call into question the sexual orientation of the Vibe editorial staff, that his comments in a New York Times article used his comment out of context. "My purpose for expressing this opinion is not in any way to discredit the ability of the current editorial staff, but as a member of the rap community for over 10 years, I feel it is imperative that a publication based on a musical genre that was created and that grew from the struggles and efforts of young, straight urban males should have input from someone with that background to help shape the publication's direction and perspective," Simmons says in the statement. He added that, when he interviewed Vibe editor-in-chief Jonathan Van Meter along with Quincy Jones and Time Warner, "I approved of his hiring only if he surrounded himself with people from the hip-hop community...unfortunately (this) has not been implemented." Vibe recently released a preview issue and held huge parties in New York and Los Angeles. The slick, colorful magazine is being hailed as the second coming of Rolling Stone. As they say: KEEP WATCHING.

REVIEWS

■ BUSHWICK BILL: Little Big Man (Rap-A-Lot/Priority P4 57189). Producers: Various.

The Little Big Man of the Geto Boys drops some solo lingo that's not for the faint-of-heart. The gritty autobiographical story of "Ever So Clear" is the centerpiece of this 12-track collection, which also features some pretty straight-ahead soul sounds of the early '70s variety. But the the minimalist and spacey grooves of the album's "Intro" get things started on an ominous note. The title track is Bushwick's concession to boasting, while "Chuckwick"—a sendup of the movies' horror doll Chucky—demonstrates Bushwick's sense of humor. There doesn't appear to be one track of this album that's radio legal. But who cares?

TWEEDY BIRD LOC: 187 Ride By (PAR PAR 2014-2) Producers: Ronnie Phillips, Robert Lewis, III & Battle Cat.

And the dissin' continues, getting harder and more strident each week. This time it's Compton's Tweedy Bird Loc, who not only takes on New York City ("South Bronx Can't Touch Compton"), but also some of his Compton celebrity homies like N.W.A. ("What's Really Goin' On?"). The lyrics aren't particularly distinguished ("f**k this, f**k that"). But they are delivered earnestly. Musically, however, 1877 Pide Pro-Offers up again intriguing however, 187 Ride By offers up some intriguing riffs, particularly on the aforementioned "South Bronx Can't Touch Compton," "Black Court In Session" and "Tweedy's Teed Off."

■ REDMAN: Whut? Thee Album (RAL/Chaos AOC 52967)
Producers: Various.

Straight outta New Jersey, EPMD posse-member Redman hardly pulls any punches and the titles to his tomes—including "Psycho Ward," "So Ruff," "Rated 'R'," and "Hardcore"—are apt descriptions of what he has to say. Not the most agile rapper, not the dullest, Redman proceeds workmanlike to bring off the rhymes. The music is sampled and derived from some recognizable funk and soul from yesteryear. The best of this 21-track extravaganza is "Watch Yo Nuggets." If you're walkin' around in this man's neck of the woods, that's great advice.

VIDEO REVIEWS

Newsies (A*Vision) October 14 ($94.95)

Newsies never found its niche, never found its audience in its early spring theatrical release. After all, kids have no experience, no frame of reference for the musical genre, with people breaking out in song and dance for no apparent reason. And adults didn't find the subject matter, the New York newspaperboy strike in 1899—true story—all that compelling. But I ask you, can a movie that stars Robert Duvall and Ann-Margret be anything less than worthwhile? Absolutely not.

In a portent of labor struggles yet to come, colorfully-named newsies such as Kid Blink and Racetrack fight unscrupulous newspaper publisher Duvall to gain their rightful benefits and better wages, and they succeed in a Disney kind of way. Alan Menken (Beauty and The BeastM) contributes story-advancing original music. Choreographer Kenny Ortega (Dirty Dancing) gets his first feature directorial assignemnt.

Newsies is not this reviewer's cup of tea, but it went down smoothly enough. And you can watch it with the kids in the room.

Straight Talk (Hollywood) Currently Available ($94.95)

Peripatetic Dolly Parton has turned into quite an accompished actress. In Straight Talk, a svelte Dolly stars as country girl Shirlee Kenyon, who departs for Chicago after getting fired from her job as small-town dance instructor. She lands a job at the aptly call-lettered radio station WNDY, whereupon she is summarily promoted to a position as Windy's on-air psychologist when she innocently walks through the wrong door at the right time. Wisecracking Parton disperses down-home wisdom and homilies as only she can do and wins the hearts of an ever-increasing share of Chicagoans, including station manager Griffin Dunne (My Girl) and hard-boiled (are there any other kind?) newpaper reporter James Woods in a typically cynical turn. Radio/TV star Jay Thomas is also on hand to comic effect.

Eight Parton songs are included, too many in a background kind of way. Hollywood Records has the soundtrack.

Though Straight Talk grossed $20 million and its studio's similar film, Sister Act did six times that figure, rental business for Straight Talk ought to come nearer that of sell-through title Sister Act. Parton fans and comedy fans, don't miss this one.

Rock N Roll-The Greatest Years-1963, 1964,1965 and 1966 (Strand Video) Currently Available ($14.98 per volume)

Strand Video, a division of Europe's largest independent video company, Video Collection International, has released four volumes of live performances of hit material performed in four of rock's mid-'60s formative years.

The four volumes are packaged in gold-stamped collector's boxes and feature plenty of rock legends along with some one-shot wonders performing in a British televison, black and white setting of the era. There are 15-17 performances per video, which average 42 minutes in length. Though the perfomances included aren't always those a rock historian would choose to best represent the era—British groups are over-represented at the expense of their American brethren, most of whom weren't touring Britain at the time-Strand's series is probably as good a take on British rock of the era that we are likely to get. Hip highlights include the Stones doing "I Wanna Be Your Man" and James Brown doing "Prisoner Of Love" ('63); Roy Orbison performing 'It's Over" and The Kinks singing "You Really Got Me" ('64); a Del Shannon performance and The Who doing Can't Explain" ('65); and Cream doing "I Feel Free" ('66).

A good buy at the money, this is great background action for your Sixties party.

Glasser Goes Straight On Strait Country

By Milt Petty

Isabel Glasser

BOY MEETS GIRL. Boy loses girl. Boy gets girl in the end.

"Oops! Maybe I shouldn't be giving away the plot," says George Strait's Pure Country costar and love interest Isabel Glasser of the Warner Bros. film set to open October 23 at a multiplex or drive-in near you.

"George plays this big celebrity, Dusty Chandler, but I don't know who he is when I meet him. He comes on like a regular guy. Well, I fall in love with him, then later discover who he is. That changes things. But we get it together. After all, who could pass up Dusty Chandler?"

Strait's Chandler is a country music star (bet you thought rodeo George was going to play an opera singer or a doctor) in Pure Country, which is accompanied by an MCA soundtrack already in release and a video, "Cross My Heart," that is running non-stop. Chandler rebels against both the glitz and the boredom of his career while doing a show in Vegas and decides to stop touring and return to his Texas roots and horseback lifestyle. In short order, he meets Glasser's character Har-

Pure Country also stars Lesley Anne Warren, John Doe and Rory Calhoun and is directed by Chris Cain. Sounds about right.

Glasser was taking a short break from her preparations for a press junket that took her to the north central Dallas, Texas-area site of the principal filming for what turned out to be Glasser's theatrical debut. She got the part late last spring after she had been seen in a key role opposite Mel Gibson in Warner's Forever Young, which won't be released until November.

In that film, Gibson plays a cryonically frozen test pilot who awakens decades later and is befriended by a young boy. Glasser is the woman he loves who meets the tragic fate responsible for the cryonics.

Kisses with George Strait and Mel Gibson in the same spring? This is clearly an actress heading for bigger and better things. The new redhead in town on the list to get a look at the late 20's-early 30's parts, she couldn't be happier. Can't you imagine all the Texas actresses who would have loved to play opposite Strait?

"I knew George's name. But I wasn't a big country music fan," says Glasser. "Country music is just getting started in the New Jersey and New York area where I'm from. Now that I've been in L.A. for a year-and-a-half (she originally came out here to do a Proctor & Gamble shampoo commercial), I'm a little more familiar with it. But at the time, I hadn't even seen George's beer commer-

~~"It was funny how I met him. When I went in to meet with Jerry Weintraub, the producer, he first introduced me to a life-sized cutout of George, and we had a good laugh. I thought to myself, Oh!, that guy. I've seen him.' Then George walked in."

So maybe Isabel had an equestrienne background to fall back on. Not!

"I had never ridden a horse," she admits. "Maybe twice in Girl Scouts. But I was excited about learning how. They gave me this 20-year-old horse named Puff to ride. Puff was very gentle. Just right for me. And George is the genuine article. He was always right there in case Puff got a little rambunctious. Now, I've fallen in love with the sport of horseback

"George was a dream from the second I met him," Glasser is quick to add. "Easy-going, downto-earth, no ego, great sense of humor.

So how does Strait compare to "Mel is a really, really nice guy. A crazy kind of guy. He loves to laugh and have a good time. He is very available to new ideas and to other actors' input. Whereas people were always clamoring to get at George on the set, we had a more closed set on Forever Young, so it was easy to spend more time with Mel.

"I've been very blessed to get

As is often the case, this overnight success is rooted in lots of hard work. Glasser is a graduate of NYU's Drama School, founded her own theater company and had appeared in the New Yorkbased, ABC soap, Loving, in which she played a recovering alcoholic, and the NBC drama True Blue.

GOSPEL MUSIC

TALENT REVIEW

The Great Adventure Comes To Nashville

By Cory Cheshire

Steven Curtis Chapman's Great Adventure Tour, in support of his fifth album release by the same name, began September 14 and will hit a total of 57 cities. Already 12 venues, including the Atlanta Civic Center, have been advanced sell-outs. Pretty good for a "gospel" act.

WHEN SPARROW RECORDING ARTIST and 12-time Dove award winner Steven Curtis Chapman performed at Nashville's Starwood Amphitheatre last weekend, a brimming audience (including 2,000 complimentary tickets for youth pastors), it actually proved to be a telltale sign of the enthusiasm contemporary Christian music is generating lately. While Chapman remains the leader in the genre with a youthful charisma and sincere drive, the audience was completely taken with him, and no doubt the variety he offered in his stage show was the reason.

After a somewhat subdued introduction by the softer sounds of the husband and wife duo Out Of The Grey and Top 10 artist Susan Ashton, Chapman's two-set show began with the revelry of his signature "Prologue" which aroused the audience for his next two upbeat singles 'The Great Adventure" and "That's Paradise." Chapman never failed to entertain, however, as he set his "Great Adventure" theme song to the sounds of country, gospel, and jazz in a savvy showcase of talent. Rock-style lighting and smoke added to the explosive feel of the outdoor event, yet Chapman was able to control the mood of the entire evening easily finessing a segue between his pop-tinged electric guitar numbers and the altar call medley of songs including "Heart's Cry," "His Strength Is Perfect," and "Waiting For Lightning."

The second set mellowed a bit, as Chapman traded in his black-onblack for a more casual jeans and blazer set. The audience was ready when Chapman came back with his award-winning "For The Sake Of The Call," which allowed for the more intimate timing of the night with prayer and a very moving "More To This Life," the title cut from his third album.

While Chapman has confessed that he cannot "hip-hop," he more than wowed the audience with his "Got To B Tru" rap styling. At other venues, a predetermined contest winner performs the rap section of the song on stage with the singer, yet the Nashville concert allowed for DC Talk's Toby McKeehan, who adds vocals on the song's recording, to come and do the sequence live. Chapman, however, who donned a "rap" hat and oversized cross, pulled off a few steps.

Perhaps what makes Chapman stand out as a contemporary Christian artist is that while he could draw on the intimacy of a small church gathering with honesty, humility and blatant worship, he remained vibrant, entertaining, and completely reachable to the mixed audience. Chapman may be nearing the status of his fellow Contemporary Christian movers and shakers in the pop arena (as evidenced by the crowd response), but with a finale which offered a sincere heart-to-heart talk with the audience, Chapman definitely remains focused on his calling.

REV. DAN SMITH: Just Keep Goin' On (Word/Epic) Rev. Dan Smith, some 80-plus years young, has put together a very interesting musical package. This veteran has infused the sounds of folk, blues, spirituals and traditional southern soul gospel, topped off with his enormous talents on the harmonica. The music here is simple and uncluttered, giving off an unrehearsed, spontaneous feel. Highlights include popular CCM artist Bryan Duncan joining Smith on the cut, "God's Radar."

KIM BOYCE: Facts Of Love (Warner Alliance)

The "facts" regarding Kim Boyce's debut project for Warner Alliance include: it's an album packed with energy; has lyrics that can relate to a growing audience; features the cystalline vocals of Boyce's voice at its best; and is filled with a steady rhythm from beginning to end. Boyce delivers a less synthesized sound this time and encompasses a more live-band accompaniment. However, the project still grooves with danceable cuts, power ballads and flowing mid-tempo tunes. Picks include "Until Now," Facts Of Love" and "Thank You For Being My Friend."

GREG HOOVER & C.A.C.C.: Sweet Holy Spirit

The "choir boys" of Sweet Rain Records have once again gone into the trenches of this country's urban territories to discover, yet another hot, talented choir. This "live" recording puts the listener on the front row. It's almost impossible not to be engulfed by the energy unleashed by Hoover and this fantastic choir.

Sparrow recording artist Michael Card recently completed filming his first music video, So Many Books..., at Nashville's historic Marathon Village warehouse. Card (center) is pictured with keyboardist Scott Brasher (I). The video, executive produced by Sparrow's Nancy Knox and produced and directed by Eric Haymes, is tagged with a service announcement for The Bible League.

MVE-Music Video Encouragement

By Gregory S. Cooper

VIRGINIA NOW BOASTS a new weekly video program titled Music Video Encouragement (MVE). It premiered May 30, 1992 and airs weekly on television stations WJCB-TV 49 in the Hampton Roads area and WZXK-TV 65 in the Richmond market.

WZXK serves 426,000 homes, with more than 150,000 served by cable television in Richmond, Henrico, Hanover, Caroline, and King William counties. WJCB reaches 650,000 homes with more than 320,000 by cable television in Virginia Beach, Hampton, Suffolk, Chesapeake, Portsmouth and Williamsburg, VA.

Robert Streater, a marketing consultant with his own firm, Robert Streater Associates, founded the show and serves as an off-camera host. A 1985 graduate of George Mason University, Streater is an experienced radio and television broadcaster. According to Streater, numerous letters have come in stating "how good" it is in these times to have a program such as MVE. It serves as a positive alternative to watching music video programs that depict sex, violence, and the use of drugs and profanity.

"Youth, who are the focus of this television program, encounter numerous problems with peer pressure, self-esteem, etc. The show has something for all age groups to appreciate; however, their target is to reach today's generation who are easily exposed to negative influences in society," stated Streater in a recent interview.

Streater also serves as the creative consultant for MVE and has most recently been elected executive director of the National Religious Broadcasters Associa-

Stars Shine at Montreux Atlanta Int'l Music Festival

By Gregory S. Cooper

THEY'VE BEEN DOING IT IN MONTREUX, SWITZERLAND for 27 years—celebrating the best of jazz and world class music at the prestigious Montreux Jazz Festival.

Now in its fifth year, the Bureau of Cultural Affairs in Atlanta, Georgia produces a dynamic counterpart, The Montreux Atlanta Music Festival. Most of the concerts, held over Labor Day weekend, were free in city's Piedmont Park.

From August 29-September 9, more than 450,000 people came to enjoy concerts offering the best in country, pop, rock, gospel, blues, reggae, jazz, and urban contemporary music. The unpredictable weather did not hinder the success of this 10-day event sponsored by the Atlanta Bureau of Cultural Affairs, Bud Dry, Coca Cola Classic, and Swissair. Additional support was provided by Adams Outdoor Advertising, Advanced Media, Alpha Omega Novelties, Atlanta Penta Hotel, AT&T, Coca Cola Lakewood Amphitheater, the Montreux Office of Tourism, and local radio stations and theaters.

Based on a musical partnership between the city of Atlanta and the city of Montreux, several Atlanta-based artists have performed at the Swiss festival in the past as musical exchange artists. This year, Atlanta presented gospel music from the 45-member Atlanta Super Choir, directed by phenomenal musical director Kelvin Broughton.

Sunday, September 6, dubbed "Gospel to Blues" featured artists Charisse Stevens, The BC & M Singers, The Atlanta Super Choir, Dorothy Norwood, The Richard Smallwood Singers, Bobby "Blue" Bland, and the Dells.

Hurricane Garth-No, He's Not Retiring!

MEGA SUPERSTAR GARTH BROOKS has announced plans for a parental leave of absence from his musical career; he will not be retiring. Brooks will be "on leave" from December '92 through mid 1993 to be with his wife and new daughter, Taylor. The announcement came during the live September 22 broadcast from Westwood One Studios in Los Angeles, which was hosted by Entertainment Tonight's Leeza Gibbons. Over 750 top market radio stations worldwide previewed Brooks' new album, The Chase during the broadcast, which enabled listeners to talk directly with Brooks about his new music, his personal family matters, and his six-month hiatus.

Though Brooks has admitted he's considered quitting the music business, he stated in the broadcast, "I'm back in the chase again, hitting harder than ever and I pray to the Lord that I'm running in the right direction." Brooks' fourth studio album since he first hit the scene in 1989, The Chase, surpassed multi-platinum status even prior to its release on September 22, with advance sales of over four million copies.

Brooks, with Liberty Records vp of promotions Bill Catino, says OK" to the crowd at a recent press conference for Feed The Children, held by Washington, D.C. radio station WMZQ.

ANOTHER DAN IN THE ENTERTAINMENT BIZ-A

number of children's charities including Feed The Children, The Dream Factory Inc., The Magic Of Music, and the Make A Wish Foundation have chosen to respond to Indiana Representative Dan Burton's most recent statement published against Garth Brooks, saying the statement was inappropriate. Feed The Children, the Oklahoma City-based international hunger relief organization, has worked with Brooks for several years and was recently named by Brooks as the charity to receive $1 from every copy of his newly released Christmas album, Beyond The Season. Founder and president Larry Jones commented, "I find it shocking to hear that a U.S. Representative would publicly criticize someone who cares as much about children as Garth Brooks. His continual contributions of time and funds to Feed The Children have helped feed and clothe thousands of hurting children."

Gonna Live" (Mercury 779) Producers: Joe Scaife/Jim Cotton

■ BILLY RAY CYRUS"Wher'm I

Writers: Billy Ray Cyrus/Cindy Cyrus

Album: Some Gave All

All 99 bottles of beer are off the wall and Cyrus and his barroom buddies are chanting "Wher'm I Gonna Live When I Get Home?" The third in a series of infectious singles caused by the Cyrus breakout.

FEATURE PICKS

■ LITTLE TEXAS "What Were You Thinkin" (Warner Bros. 18741) Producers: James Stroud/Christy DiNapoli/Doug Grau Writers: Christy DiNapoli/Porter Howell/Dwayne O'Brien/Brady Seals

Album: First Time For Everything

Spawning another harmony-laden single from their debut album, Little Texas keeps it on the country/rock edge with "What Were You Thinkin'.'

■ MID SOUTH "You Were At The End Of Every Road" (Epic 04792) Producers: Chris Waters/John Mays Writers: Chris Waters/Robby McGee

Testing the country radio waters, Mid South brings together their trademark harmonies, known more exclusively in the Christian country market. With this release, Mid South easily joins other country bands dedicated to wholesome lyrics, harmony, and clap-along rhythms.

ALBUMS

■ Garth Brooks The Chase (Liberty 98743)

As if it matters what's said about this album—it shipped quadruple platinum, and it's been in stores less than two weeks. Brooks pushes the envelope even further with The Chase than he did with Ropin' The Wind, as the lead single,"We Shall Be Free," an original spiritual tune penned by Brooks and Stephanie Davis, steadily climbs the Top 100 Country Singles chart in leaps and bounds, and has prime potential for crossing over to pop radio. Brooks remains in the bounds of country tradition with "Mr. Right," a tongue-in-cheek look at the singles bar scene, as well as in the cover of the Patsy Cline classic, "Walkin' After Midnight." Another uniquely done cover is Little Feat's "Dixie Chicken" with guest harmonies from Trisha Yearwood. The intense, focused Brooks who can bore a hole through steel with that bulleting blue-eyed stare, remains poignant and open-hearted with the reminiscent "Every Now And Then" and "Learning To Live Again," while his vocals reach a sincerely tender edge on "Somewhere Other Than The Night." As for the envelope-pushing songs, Brooks chases some topics usually pretty elusive on the country lyric sheet, such as "That Summer," a theme straight out of The Graduate.

The fifth single from the Brooks & Dunn album Brand New Man, "Lost And Found" is also a little restless, climbing nine notches to stay a week at #39.

Mercury artist Ronna Reeves recently made her first visit to New York City to open for Billy Ray Cyrus at Radio City Music Hall. While there, Reeves stopped to visit Wayne Fisk, manager of network programming and satellite tour services for ABC Radio Networks. (Photo credit: Tammi Jackson)

Dropping Anchor On The Pirates

ILLEGAL DUPLICATION and distribution of sound recordings is a serious criminal offense punishable by up to five years in prison and a $250,000 fine. Even so, it happens everyday—in underground warehouses, renovated storage sheds, condemned buildings, and other upstanding locations. In the first six months of 1992, over one million illegally manufactured cassettes have been confiscated as a direct result of the implementation of The Recording Industry Association Of America's anti-piracy plans.

While crimes against the music industry such as record piracy, bootlegging, ticket-scalping and counterfeiting are hardly given police priority considering the nature of other crimes being committed in this country, they are crimes none the less. Yes, it's difficult to consider million sellers like Michael Jackson or Garth Brooks as "victims" of record piracy, but the fact is—they are. We Piracy is a crime, and the Robin Hood theory does not apply. These pirates are not taking from the rich and giving to the poor. They are taking from an industry whose success or failure depends on simple supply and demand. Unlike some standard industries such as insurance or health care, the music business isn't forced onto an unwilling public out of necessity. While people are required to purchase insurance and pay for health care, they buy Garth Brooks or Michael Jackson recordings because they choose to do so.

According to The RIAA, record, tape, and CD piracy is one of the most serious crimes threatening the U.S. sound recording industry today. It accounts for the loss of hundreds of millions of dollars per year in displaced sales. In today's marketplace, 84% of all record releases don't make back production costs. Record companies rely on income from the 16% of recordings that are successful to invest in new artists and alternative music, and to keep their business operational. As expected, it is the profitable recordings—usually the Top 40 hits—that the pirates copy.

Artists, musicians, and songwriters, who have put as much creative energy as possible into producing the best quality sound recordings they can, are hurt by piracy through loss of royalties and fees. More importantly, however, their reputations are damaged when consumers unknowingly purchase poor quality copies of their work. Retailers and distributors lose sales to pirates and cannot compete with the low prices charged for cheaply-produced copies. Consumers are the ultimate victims of record piracy. Most illegal recordings are inferior in sound quality, often defective, and cannot be returned to a legitimate manufacturer for replacement.

Pirated recordings are often found at flea markets, swap meets, and convenience stores where they are sold at prices far below the manufacturer's suggested retail price. If you suspect illicit records or tapes are being sold, immediately call RIAA's Antipiracy Unit at the toll-free number: 1-800-BAD-BEAT (1-800-223-2328). The RIAA takes immediate action when notified of piracy. If you choose, your identity will remain anonymous.

Joey Clay

A CHANGE OF HEART—New Orleans native Joey Clay was intent on being a rock and roll singer. But as the young musician drove his big rig through the Gulf states one rainy night, it wasn't a lightning bolt that converted him to country music; it was Merle Haggard singing on the only station Clay could pick up on that stormy night. Still behind the wheel, Clay decided that while he was dreaming about a music career, he would start dreaming about a country music career.

"I Like The Way You Think" is the result a dream come true for Clay, who eventually moved to Mobile, Alabama where he sang nights at a local club. Once there, he signed on with country music promoter Lou Byrd, who secured him a recording contract.

Clay's debut album, produced by Dick McVey, is slated for an early 1993 release. In the interim, Clay will be playing the Greater Gulf State Fair, the Hank Williams Memorial Show, and various Ohio dates in October.

INDIE CHART ACTION—New York's own Bo Harrison swings this week's top indie position as his latest single on Door Knob Records, entitled "Give Our Love Another Try," holds, with a bullet, at #56.

The rest of the indie line-up remains pretty stagnant this week, with only slight two- and three-point moves. Melba Montgomery does garner a hefty eight-point jump. Her Playback single, entitled "Your Heart Turned Left (And I Was On The Right)" advances to #59 this week on the Top 100.

As for debuts, Ted's Boys enters the chart with "Memories Are Like Mirages" at #85, while "Wish I Could Hold You Again" by Chuck Tyler makes its entrance at #86.

"Mama Geraldine Forystek must be proud of her 3 sons."

-Mike Greenblatt, Editor Country Music Special Magazine

"There's nothing like the harmony of brothers Jim, Sam, and Jack Forystek, otherwise known as Ted's Boys, have that classic familial sound that only brothers have."

> -Jennifer Fusco, Editor Country Song Roundup Magazine

goes to press a day before the show opens so we cannot as yet zero in on all of the specifics of the convention and what it had to offer-but keep tuned. The pre-show concensus indicated that attendance would be up there, with ops and distribs looking forward to viewing some interesting new equipment that could perk things up in the marketplace. The element of "surprise" that is traditional at Expo might be overshadowed a bit by the various pre-show products that were introduced at the regional distrib showings that were hosted by some of the factories weeks before the scheduled opening of the AMOA convention in Nashville. However, there was the promise of enough brand new stuff on the exhibit floor to make the trip to Nashville worthwhile, especially for the op community. Besides which, the aforementioned pre-show pieces were revealed to distribs, so ops would have had that much more to look forward to as they traveled the exhibit floor!

NEW OWNERS OF ROCK-OLA. It became official on Sept. 8, 1992. Antique Apparatus of Torrance, California purchased the jukebox division of Rock-Ola, complete with the trade name; and is currently in the process of moving the entire manufacturing structure into Torrance. Rock-Ola's new c.d. juke for '93, the Gala, was being showcased in the factory's exhibit at AMOA Expo '92, with Antique Apparatus prexy Glen Streeter, along with AA team members Russell Ethridge, Jerry Leiby, Ross Blomgren and Jerry Abbott joining Rock-Ola vet Frank Schulz in manning the booth. As stated by AA/Rock-Ola prexy Glen Streeter, "This is a major step in the continuing growth of Antique Apparatus, to merge our organization with one of the oldest and highly regarded names in the coin-op industry. Our goal is to provide the Nostalgic line with the Rock-Ola music system and name, to the trade in early 1993." The Gala c.d. juke that was being featured at AMOA Expo was scheduled for delivery in November and the machine employs a contemporary look and dynamic new graphics. At this point in time, it appears that the Rock-Ola distrib network will remain intact.

Walker Upped To A Veepee Post At Capcom

CHICAGO—Jeffrey A. (Jeff) Walker has been named vice president of the arcade and amusement products division of Capcom USA. In this position, he will oversee all strategic product development, licensing, marketing, sales, and distribution activities for Capcom's rapidly expanding business unit.

"Jeff has been selected to lead Capcom's arcade and amusement products division based on his tremendous insight and proven ability," stated George Nakayama, president of the company. "Since joining Capcom two years ago, his contributions have been invaluable to the overall growth and prosperity of Capcom."

Walker, an 11-year veteran of the coin-op industry, joined Capcom in 1990 as national sales manager, where he was responsible for directing North and South American sales and distribution activities for Capcom's coin-operated arcade products division. Over the past two years, he has directed the highly successful introduction and sale of Capcom's phenomenal Street Fighter game series.

In addition to overseeing arcade sales and distribution, Walker has been instrumental in shaping Capcom's strategic direction, and has spearheaded the company's broad diversification into the non-video, amusement game marketplace.

Capcom's amusement product line now serves as a rapidly growing profit center featuring Bowlingo, an innovative, miniature bowling lane that offers a new twist to the sport; and Capcom's Memories 2000, a modern-day, instant photo booth utilizing Polaroid's patented, automatic film loading technology, and a host of other features.

Prior to joining Capcom, Walker founded Geoff Co., Inc., an independent manufacturers' representative company catering to the amusement game industry and focusing on the licensing of key properties for its clients.

Walker's previous affiliations in the coin-op industry included executive and mangerial positions with such firms as Data East, Premier Technology, Nintendo of America, Bally Midwest and Atari Distributing.

He holds a B.S. degree in recreation administration from Western Illinois University.

IFPA Champ Headed For Australia

CHICAGO—Dave Hegge, IFPA's reigning World Pinball Champion, has been invited to Australia to participate in a major pinball promotion, planned by Australia's Leisure and Allied Industries. His sponsored appearances are part of a national media tour promoting the "Timezone National Pinball Championships," which are scheduled to take place in early October throughout Australia. His schedule will include extensive mass media interviews, news conferences, and various other personal appearances.

Doug Young, executive director of the AMOA-International Flipper Pinball Association, noted that Hegge, who won the IFPA Championship last spring, is overwhelmed by the good fortune his title has brought him. "This is just unreal!," said Hegge, "I guess, like other players, I've dreamed of something like this happening...and now it's a reality! I'm beginning to think I wasn't so foolish for pumping all the quarters into those machines." Regarding his thoughts about IFPA, he added, "In a way, I really owe this whole thing to IFPA. Without the operator and manufacturer alliance, there's no way this could have happened. IFPA made the difference."

While IFPA does not want to take all the credit the association did confirm the critical role it played. As stated by Doug Young, "AMOA-IFPA plays a vital role in promoting the growth of leagues and tournaments for pinball. Without this international network, sponsored by the AMOA and the manufacturers, there simply would be no story like this one to relate."

Hegge's itinerary in Australia will include stops in Sydney, Melbourne, Gold Coast, Adelaide and Perth. As an incentive for Australian players to participate in the "Timezone National Pinball Championships," their champion will be invited to compete in IFPA's third annual event, scheduled for May of next year, in Milwaukee, Wisconsin.

Konami's Bucky O'Hare

CHICAGO—At the recently held AMOA convention in Nashville, Konami, Inc. showed two of its newest games, Lethal Enforcers, which was featured in the factory's exhibit booth (Cash Box, 10/3/92), and Bucky O'Hare, which was showcased in a suite.

Bucky O'Hare is a 2-, 3- or 4-player, horizontal monitor kit (dip switch adjustable), with buy-in and continuation features. Player controls include one eight-way joystick and three buttons (for shoot, jump and super weapon).

This is a high flying, intergalactic adventure game where the objective is to save the Universe from the destructive forces of the Death Toad Kommandos. As you might have surmised, we're not dealing with people here, and players have their work cut out for them during some serious confrontations.

Among the main characters are Captain Bucky O'Hare, chief gunner's mate Dead Eye Duck, pilot Jenny, and Blinky Android First Class—who make up the crew of the Righteous Indignation. These are the good guys who must do battle with the Supreme High Commander of Combined Toad Military Forces as they race through dimensions far, far away.

Lots of action...lots of challenge!

Further information may be obtained through factory distributors or by contacting Konami, Inc., 900 Deerfield Parkway, Buffalo Grove, IL 60089-4510.
