INSIDE TOP 40

by Dave Sholin

Tuneout! Catch your attention? Once all your creative effort in attracting listeners has paid off, the last thing you want to do is lose 'em to a competitor. Besides playing music that will please your listeners rather than drive them away, how do you hold their interest? One key factor that can make a radio station sparkle in the crowd is the production director. Today's media-conscious society is bombarded by an average of 200,000 messages annually.

I was reminded of that fact while I overheard a discussion about general listening habits. Programmers face a daily battle of getting and maintaining listener interest. See how fast a viewer starts flipping through the channels if that TV show doesn't grab hold in the first few minutes...or witness a reader skip over a newspaper article is the headline is boring...or how quickly a listener (PD or MD) will lose interest if a song doesn't get to its hook fast enough. We're conditioned to instant gratification. The public receives so much input these days, they've become accustomed to either physically or mentally tuning out without a second thought. It's important to remember the job of communication lies squarely on the shoulders of the communicator. It is that person who has the responsibility of getting other people to listen. We'll be looking into the subject of production, in depth, in coming months.

Skyrocketing HIT FACTOR for the JETS, who soar from 40% to 64%. Sunny Joe White and Sue O'Connell WXKS Boston blast it into the Top Twenty with a 23-14 move. Big increases also for Brett Richards Q96 Norwalk 23-13, Stef Rybak KC101

New Haven 24-15, Mark Potter and Steve Taylor WQUT Johnson City 22-15, Ray Mariner WPHR Cleveland 23-18, Roger Piper and Dave Kallaway KKLS Rapid City 20-12, J. Harvey KLAZ Hot Springs 22-14, Gary Bryan and Tom Hutylar KUBE Seattle 21-11, etc.

34 adds take the WHISPERS over 200 reports. Number One at KYNO, KSTN, KATD, KMEL, and KRQK with Top Ten action at K106 Beaumont 11-8, WHYT Detroit 15-9, KCIL Houma/New Orleans 21-10, WNVZ Norfolk 13-10, B94 Pittsburgh 16-9, KZZP Phoenix 15-9, WBBQ Augusta 12-7, etc. The number of stations who went with this early attests to the record's amazing staying power.

Heavy initial airplay is beginning to convert into some strong chart debuts for LIVING IN A BOX. Among those debuting it Top Thirty this week are Rick Jeffrey KQKY, Steve Kennis WXTQ, Jeff Blake and Bob Vandergrift WYAV, Kelly Jaye KEYJ, etc.

Instant belief from many Top 40 programmers makes DIONNE WARWICK AND JEFFREY OSBORNE the second most added record for the second week in a row. In the add column this week WYDD, B94, KIXY, KBEQ, WSPT, KUBE, KIIS, Y108, KWNZ, KBBZ, KYYY, KZ103, WNCI, WFME, PWR 99.7, Z103, WANS, 100KHI, etc.

Looks like there's some new life in another old song, as AMAZULU'S remake of the 1970 summertime hit "Montego Bay" is making noise in several spots. John Eric Stevenson at WZIX Columbus/Starkville moves it 11-5 and reports it is "Outrageously hot." Also doing well for Chris Collins and Kevin Kei at FM102 Sacramento, heading up 17-15. New on LG 73, KZFN, KRIT, 106RTB, WANS, ISLE 95, KATD, etc.

If the last two weeks of airplay are any indication, BANANARAMA is on their way to CHARTBOUND in a hurry. Added at KDWB Minneapolis/St. Paul, Q104 Gadsden, HOT 103 New York, KGOT Anchorage, Y108 Denver, KS103 San Diego, POWER 106 Los Angeles, Z104 Madison, 99KG Salina, WOAY Oak Hill, Beckley, WAVA Washington, KWIN Stockton, etc.

Update on our RECORD TO WATCH of three weeks ago: THE CURE. It continues to be most impressive in Northern California with LIVE 105 and KATD charting it 3-2 and KWSS San Jose confirming that with a 20-11 move. Also big for KFMV Provo/Salt Lake City 6-4. Adds include Z95.5 Detroit, JLK/FM Asbury Park, 95XXX Burlington, KZZP Phoenix, KIYS Boise, etc.

19 adds on last week's RECORD TO WATCH, FAT BOYS WITH THE BEACH BOYS, (which will be the listing of all new pressings of the single). Takes a 20-10 leap at KFIV, 20-13 KITY, G105 28-23, Y100 14-12, Y106 13-11, Q105 30-28, 12-10 at KZZP, 8-5 POWER 104, 23-19 FM102, 26-21 B94 etc. New on WCIL, KZOU, FM96, WRCK, WKPE, KNIN, KMGX, KSTN, KLBQ, WJZQ, etc.

DEPECHE MODE builds a healthy chart profile out West with a 26% HIT FACTOR. Biggest move comes from KATD San Jose/Los Gatos 25-12. Top 5 for LIVE 105, with other moves at KCPX 21-18, KDON 29-25, KFMV 15-11, Debut #26 POWER 96, KNVR 25-21, etc. Adds include POWER 106, KTMT, and KOZE.

Lots of talk at the Poe convention about L.L. COOL J and the remarkable sales story on the album. Several key programmers are stepping out early on the track destined to be the next single, "I Need Love." Charted #22 at WAVA and #26 at WKXX. Added by Bob Case Z93 Atlanta, Duff Lindsey HOT 105 Miami, John Hampton KSTN Stockton, Jerry Lousteau KZOU Little Rock, Dene Hallam KCPW and Steve Perun and Karen Barber KBEQ Kansas City, etc. Immediate response everywhere it's played. ●

DEAD KENNEDYS VS. BORK DUKES

Pretrial motions are scheduled for July 13th in the infamous Dead Kennedys case. A year ago last month, Los Angeles City Attorney Michael Guarino claimed a poster included in the album Frankenchrist represented "distribution of harmful matter to minors." If convicted, lead singer Jello Biafra and four others could face fines of $2,000 and a year in jail. Although the Dead Kennedys have disbanded, Alternative Tentacles Records has released a retrospective compilation, Give Me Convenience Or Give Me Death. Included are such classics as "Too Drunk to

RADI-O-RAMA

George Watts takes over as GM at WRAS-Atlanta, where former Private Music promo rep Jane Davis becomes PD and Valerie Pittman becomes MD ... Welcome to these new Music Directors in Alternative-land: John Koski at Nashville's WRVU, George Spillman at KUCI-Irvine, CA and in Corvallis, OR, Michelle Haunold at KBVR.

Don "Early" Allen, last heard on WOWI-Norfolk, is now on wakeup duty at Urban legend KMJM. He says his new nickname is "Earlybird" ... Frankie Crocker says all the rumors about the future of Pyramid Broadcasting's WRXR-Chicago are true--or false. All he'll say is the format will be "the best." The world will find out August first ... In Washington, DC, new crossover outlet WPGC adds Dave Ferguson from KEZB-El Paso in middays, replacing John Dowling.

BONE TO CHRYSALIS

Mike Bone, Senior VP for Marketing & Promotions at Elektra Records, has replaced Jack Craigo as President of Chrysalis Records. Bone's old job at Elektra will be split: Brad Hunt moves from Album Promotion to Senior VP/Promotion, while Hale Milgrim is Senior VP/Marketing.

ROCKIES ROLL

Several days of nonstop "Louie Louie" covers preceded the unveiling of KOOL105, Denver's newest oldies station. The former

Country KBRQ is now "good-time rock 'n' roll" KXKL, playing what PD Steve Nicholl calls "music of the '60s, with an '80s presentation." Nicholl, brought in from KMGC-Dallas by new owner Shamrock Broadcasting, says the target audience are adults 25-44s--"the big bubble in the Denver." Although there's been much speculation that the station would challenge Y108's Top 40 monopoly, Nicholl says, "I'm not sure teens are so salable here--or in a lot of markets, for that matter."

CUSTARD'S LAST STAND

Does Larry Tisch know about this? Our spies report the highlight of the CBS Records convention in Vancouver, B.C., this week was a massive pie fight. The orchestrated event quickly degenerated into individual skirmishes. If the lemon meringue hadn't clogged our Graflex, we'd have some dynamite shots of George Chaltas in hot pursuit of Marc Benesch.

BEST EARS IN THE BUSINESS

Giving new meaning to the term "listening to records," Barry Mayo, center, poses with fellow officers of the New York Market Radio Broadcasters Association. The WRKS VP/GM was elected Secretary of the organization. Flanking him are WNCN's Matt Field (Vice Chairman), with mike and WNSR's Mark Bench (Chairman) in fire hat. Recording it all for posterity is Z100's Dean Thacker, at right.

IT'S A (COUNTRY) BOY!

On July 2, 1987, Lisa Smith, our Associate Country Editor, gave birth to a baby boy, Kody Christopher Robbins, seven pounds, 11 1/2 ounces. Congratulations to Lisa and husband Keith Robbins.

WFNX CARRIES BIGGER STICK

Congratulations to Boston's WFNX, which has a new antenna and tower. PD Michael Bright says the technical upgrade will "solve a number of signal deficiencies within the city. While we don't have visions of huge rating increases, we do expect radio in Boston to get a little more interesting." Bright adds his thanks to "the labels and individuals who have understood us, believed in us, and supported us in the past four years, despite our size."

BELIEVE ME

One out of five female college students now says she wants her next lover to be a virgin. That's a 100 percent increase since 1977. Coincidentally, only one out of three college men now admits exaggerating his sexual conquests, compared to two out of three ten years ago.

EVERYONE ELSE

NOW IT'S TIME FOR YOU TO CONFESS.

STAR POWER

With a hearty "Hi-Yo, Silver!" KIIS-LA's Rick Dees, at lower left, presents actor Clayton Moore with a star on Hollywood's Walk of Fame. Dees' campaign for a star for The Lone Ranger was spurred by the knowledge that Jay Silverheels, who played Tonto had gotten his star a long time ago. KIIS Music Director Jack Silver denies any involvement.

GULP!

Folks down at KCIL-Houma, Louisiana, celebrated our nation's birthday a little differently—with a "Fun Fest" featuring a Most Outrageous Contest. Winner of the $1,000 prize was a young man who gulped down a live mouse...in three bites. KCIL programmer Mark Kelly says the feat inspired an inebriated onlooker to attempt to replicate the event with a can of worms. Told the contest was over, the bystander responded violently, causing enough damage to Kelly's snoot to warrant a trip to the hospital. Mark's conclusion: "If a drunk tells you he's gonna eat a can of worms—let him!"

R.I.P. SNAKEFINGER

Plagued by a heart condition throughout his life, recording artist Snakefinger died July 1, 1987 after a performance in the Austrian city of Linz. Ralph Records spokeswoman Sheenah Timony says, "We miss him, but know he continues to live in his music and in our minds."

CHIN AIDE

If this column seems a little spiffier this week, credit goes to our summer intern, Alice Reiling, who arrived from KBVR-Corvallis a week ago and in that brief time has already excavated the Chinwag desk as far down as the original varnish, alphabetized our phone messages and contributed a couple of her own stories. She may be calling YOU soon!

THE NETS

Correspondent Bob Madigan is departing NBC's The Source to take a shift on sister Talknet. He begins July 11th, in the 7-10 p.m. weekend shift now handled by Bernie Meltzer ... Mutual Broadcasting names Joe Hildebrand VP/Director of Sports Sales ... Steve O'Brien is the new host of "HOT ROCKS" for United Stations Programming.

HAIL TO THE VEEPS

HAIL TO THE VEEPS
In Tampa, George Sosson, VP/GM of CBS combo WSUN/WYNF moves up to VP/Operations for the net's FM O&Os. Crosstown, Mike Shields is named VP/GM of WDAE/WUSA. At sister Gannett combo KIIS AM/FM in Los Angeles, VP/GM Lynn Anderson-Powell moves up to President/GM ... Congrats also to KMEL-San Francisco GM Paulette Williams, awarded VP stripes by Century Broadcasting ... David Noll wins the same promotion at Malrite's WEGX-Philadelphia.

A 'HUMDINGER' TURNS 75

Giving new meaning to the term "listening to records," Barry Mayo, center, poses with fellow officers of the New York Market Radio Broadcasters Association. The WRKS VP/GM was elected Secretary of the organization. Flanking him are WNCN's Matt Field (Vice Chairman), with mike and WNSR's Mark Bench (Chairman) in fire hat. Recording it all for posterity is Z100's Dean Thacker, at right.

STAMP OF APPROVAL

The U.S. has Arbitron and Birch. Canada has the Bureau of Broadcast Measurement—and the Canada Post. CFOX-Vancouver forwards this proof of popularity among "mail" demos. The letter from Britain addressed only to "The Local Radio Station, Vancouver, Canada," was delivered to CFOX.

WSIX PACKING IT IN?

Depending on who's telling it, WSIX-Nashville is possibly/ for sure switching from Country to Top 40/Oldies/Album. The format change, which may soon follow this week's formal acquisition by Hicks Communications, has already caused ripples in the Country format across the nation. WSIX "Wrecking Crew" chief Eddie Edwards has gone to Malrite's KLAC-Los Angeles, moving Gerry

House to mornings at FM sister KZLA. R.J. Curtis, who was on KZLA mornings and MD for both stations, is now PD at KNIX-Phoenix, where OM Larry Daniels says, "He's a great people person as well as knowing the music. I'm really looking forward to working for him." Back in L.A., music duties will be split between OM Bob Guerra and Music Coordinator Norm Visger.

INSIDE A/C

As predicted, almost 60% of Al Jarreau's MEDIUM rotation reports converted to HEAVY this week to take the top slot on the chart. The new threat is a strong Steve Winwood record, Back In The High Life Again, which is taking format lead in A/C.

Suzanne Vega's trend 23-17-12 in chart ranking parallels her 56%-74%-81% growth in HIT FACTOR, while she continues to pick up double-digit adds each week.

Dionne Warwick & Jeffrey Osborne have a staggering 172 stations in just three weeks, testifying to the power of a well-written and performed ballad. The record will clear 200 stations and a 70% HIT FACTOR next week. Any bets?

Chris DeBurgh is taking a short course to the top with a 13-point chart jump over the past two weeks.

Larry Carlton's Minute By Minute improvement includes topping the one hundred station mark. Whether it's considered a vocal or an instrumental by programmers, it sounds like a winner to many A/C listeners.

Two records have reached critical points in their development. Surface and The Commodores have respectable HIT FACTORS in the 70s (meaning both are doing well where played) but total airplay commitment needs to be broadened.

Bernie Taupin's Citizen Jane, this week's highest chart debut, does so with only a third of A/C playing it, but a HIT FACTOR, now at 63%. It'll soon become harder to ignore than any centerfold referred to in the song's lyric.

This was the biggest week in recent memory for adds at A/C radio. Seldom do the three most added records total, as they do this week, more than 150 adds.

Last week's RECORD TO WATCH, Rosanne Cash's The Way We Make A Broken Heart, adds 15 stations and now includes excellent rotations from WMT/FM, WALG, KGY, KTIM/FM, WSKY, KLOV, WFMJ, WASK and KPTL.

This week's RECORD TO WATCH, La Bamba by Los Lobos, gives the 28-year-old original by Ritchie Valens a tuck 'n' roll face lift. The impressive list of early ons include K101, B100, KKLK, KHYL, KCRG, WMT/FM, WEBC, KATW and WLIP.

REVIEWS

by Ron Fell & Diane Rufer

LEVEL 42

Running In The Family
(Polydor/PolyGram)

The song gets its A/C credibility from a cool bass line and a relative plot line which thickens an almost "Leave It To Beaver" scenario.

RESTLESS HEART

Why Does It Have To Be (RCA)

These guys made a lotta friends last time around in A/C radio with I'll Still Be Loving You. This one should lock them in with smooth harmonies and a bright, likeable attitude.

GRATEFUL DEAD

Touch Of Grey (Arista)

Think about it. Some of these guys have aged beyond the core demographic of A/C radio, as have many of their Dead Head followers, yet the band is still a "young persons" band. It's all in your mind, not in the natural color of your hair.

HUEY LEWIS & THE NEWS

Doing It All For My Baby
(Chrysalis)

Six guys doing their fifth hit from their album "Fore." With able support from their buds, Tower Of Power, Huey & The Newsboys scored 52 adds in A/C, and 162 in Top 40.

13 ACTS KNOCKIN' ON THE DOOR

by kent zimmerman & peter standish

inspired by a combination of hunch, hype and shameless conjecture, here is Gavin's Second Annual New Artists Salute. Last year we did A-OK. Included were artists like Suzanne Vega, LL Cool J, BoDeans, Robert Cray, Steve Earle and X; acts all comfortably nestled on playlists and bestseller lists worldwide. Other artists we featured are doing nicely also, including T-Bone Burnett (who has since signed with Columbia Records), Chris Isaak, Neville Brothers, Woodentops, The Blow Monkeys, Charlie Sexton and the upcoming-second coming, The Waterboys with Mike Scott. Sticking our necks out again, here are this year's lucky thirteen.

Honorable Mentions

These 13 acts are all you need to know about or and coming bands, right? Wrong, outsideback-brush. Here is an additional listing of bands you should or will eventually be dealing with.

DAVID S. GARDNER - Atlanta-based, they move from 688 Records to Island as they begin work on their next album.

CAMPUS VAN BETHHOVEN - From San Francisco, CVB aspire to become the Grateful Dead of the '80s.

FLESH FOR LULU - Contemplating their next move after starting on the Some Kind of Wonderful soundtrack.

LOVE AND ROCKETS - The stultans of "big hair" are spreading quickly. Watch them invade the bigger halls of America.

GENE LOVES JEROME - British "twin power" beavies up after a successful American "cut" tour.

THE GODFATHERS - Nothing to do with Brando or Puccio. This is rock n roll.

REPERE LEMON HEADS - Representing Liverpool's latest generation of guitar stingers.

SURF-IT THE CAT - Look what Alternative Radio dragged in from Boston.

WASHINGTON SQUARES - Neo-folkies alarmed at their generation driving BMWs. You are not alone. Let's organize!

10,000 MANEATS - Their new LP, In My Tribe, produced by Peter Asher, is a stunner.

FASTER PUNYCAT - L.A. Glam meets Aerosmith. Potential roadie darling.

ZODIAC NINE WARP - Moorhead and T. Rex go to Allentown.

WATERBOYS - Last year's Gavin New Artist rave. We're ready when you are. Mike Scott.

CURIOSITY KILLED THE CAT - Britain's NBT (Next Big Thing) are the current enertoppers in Thatcher land.

JESUS & MARY CHAIN - If "April Skies" is an indication of the new LP, better start on that backyard bomb shelter. The album will annihilate.

ERASURE - This latest project from the Daniel Miller/Mute people is already selling big in the USA.

THE CHURCH - One of Australia's finest bands comes out swinging with a new deal with Arista.

SWING OUT WEST - Unlikely pop effort from Magazine, A Certain Ratio and Working Week alumni.

PRIVATE DOMAIN - Probably already getting the major label eye thanks to steady weekly airplay. Featured on the Back To The Beach Soundtrack.

JOE ZLY - Signed to Hightone Records, Joe's day in the sun is coming.

GUNS & ROSES - Los Angeles' NBT. They've already got the killer logo.

WEDNESDAY WEEK - First there was Go-Go's, then Bangles, now Wednesday Week featuring a guitarist of the male species.

WILL SEXTON & THE KILL - That's right, Charlie Sexton's younger brother.

10 MILLION - Look for their following to grow with their great new LP, Clutching At Straws, a progressive performance piece.

DASH RIP ROCK RIPPING AND ROCKING

A casual snapshot of Dash Rip Rock

Dash Rip Rock have been thrashing bayou listeners in Louisiana for a few years. At first, we didn't know what WTUL, WBRH, WHMD, KLPI and Paul Westerberg of The Replacements were endorsing until we heard it for ourselves. This Baton Rouge trio throws rockabilly, country, swamp, blues and rock influences into one huge, burnin' bonfire. Founder Bill Davis puts a masters degree in journalism to good use by mixing newsreel-stark lyrics with vivid Louisiana images of graveyards, whiskey, rough neighborhoods and rougher tales of love. Ned "Hoaky" Hickel rides the bass while Fred LeBlanc bashes the drums.

The band's name—three words so as to portray the distinct identities of Dash, Rip and Rock—derives from, depending on whom you believe, either from an obscure Flintstones character or Ellie Mae Clampett's suitor on the "Beverly Hillbillies"—or both. Dash Rip Rock started their roll with two songs from the 688 Presents compilation album released last fall. Now with their own LP out, it's four-alarm fire time for anyone with a turntable. PS

MICHELLE-SHOCKED THE TEXAS CAMPFIRE TAPES

There she is, sitting on a fence. Michelle-Shocked's aptly titled The Texas Campfire Tapes LP was literally recorded around a campfire during an East Texas folk festival. The Gilmer, Texas, native wasn't even the star of the fest. Her performances were confined to a couple of guest spots under trees and her only ovation is the chirping of crickets and whoosh of passing trucks and cars. But British folk enthusiast Pete Lawrence's portable Sony captured real magic in the form of fourteen diamonds in the rough.

Shocked's imagery and song-writing abilities are awe-inspiring and sharp in songs like "Fogtown," "Stepping Out," "5 A.M. In Amsterdam" and the complete "Incomplete Image." How great can an album recorded around a campfire be? Enough to crack the British independent charts and garner an appearance on The Tube, the world's hippest music show. The notion of these songs being brought to life with sensitive

THE CURE BACK IN BLACK

Here is the top of our pyramid of new artists. The Cure are not the newest act in this issue, but this dark and eclectic band's immense base positions them on the brink of mega-stardom. Those in the industry who dismissed The Cure as weird and inaccessible years ago have seen their latest works go gold as the band packs arenas with young people dressed in black.

The ladder to success has been a ten-year grind that's included some stormy times and personnel revisions. The Cure's focal point has been the inimitable Robert Smith, whose direction has been unwavering and uncompromising. "I don't think our increased popularity has really changed anything within the group," he says. "It's happened so slowly and gradually that we're not really aware of it, which is how we wanted it to be."

While the band's style has seen significant changes, their audience has also broadened—most noticeably by the addition of teenagers disillusioned with mainstream radio. "I think they all crawl out of their bedrooms whenever we go

Before there was Fire Town, there were nine recorded songs that eventually became In The Heart Of The Heart Country, an album originally released on tiny Boat Records out of Madison, Wisconsin.

"The band evolved out of the songwriting," explains vocalist Doug Erikson, "Phil Davis and I had been writing songs for about four years. We had all these songs that we had decided to record. We gave it a name and put an album out. This was before we started performing. Our experience with audiences has been good because we had a product out before we had even played. From the very beginning, that gave the band a focus."

Hometown radio support materialized quickly on Jonathan Little's Z104, as well as WMAD and WIBA. Airplay eventually rippled as far Milwaukee and Chicago. Next came international interest. In fact, Fire Town was inches away from signing to a British label when the call came from Atlantic Records.

"The day we were about to send the contract, we got a call from Atlantic. It was that close. If the lawyers in England had been faster and on the ball, there's no doubt we

Atlantic wisely settled on releasing In The Heart Of The Heart Country in its original form.

"Atlantic took the record 'as is' and remastered it," recalls Davis. "The record is exactly how we conceived it, from the photo on the cover to the inner sleeve. We recorded it at Smart Studios, which is our drummer, Butch Vig's studio. The band produced the record, but it was his studio. He engineered it. That's his job. He produces records locally."

Davis is proud of the new attention paid to music from the Midwestern states. "Groups here have something different. Things have been brewing for a while. People are just now starting to notice. Look at the success of the Violent Femmes out of Milwaukee, the BoDeans out of Waukesha, the Replacements out of Minneapolis and, of course, Prince."

He disagrees, however, that there is a specific Heartland sound. "The flavor and openness is different from music centers like New York or Philadelphia," he concedes, "but to label it strictly as Midwestern rock n roll, I don't agree."

So far, most of the attention has been centered around the lead track, "Carry The Torch," a graceful song that caters to a determined sense of strong will and devotion. With monogamy beginning to make a comeback in our society, the sentiments of "Carry The Torch" strike a chord. "I like to believe that people who care about you continue to care," Erikson says. "There's so much leaving and splitting apart. The last twenty years have been a history of people leaving each other. But I believe you don't just walk out. Part of you stays behind." KZ ● around America," notes Smith, "They've become younger—or maybe we've gotten older. But our audience has increased because we've managed to retain our original fans."

Slowly, the masses are beginning to take notice of this movement as the current single, "Why Can't I Be You," crosses over onto a growing contingent of Top 40 radio stations. To those who were surprised that the band released a double album, Smith says, "We couldn't fit all the different styles and ideas we had on one record. We recorded enough music to fill three albums and actually mixed 25 songs. I think it's the best record we've ever done." PS ●

WEBB WILDER INTERPLANETARY SOUTHERN ROOTS ROCK

"Bobby Fields and I grew up in Hattiesburg, fantasizing that we wanted to be from England," says Webb Wilder. "The older we got, the more we realized how much we liked Elvis. Reading about Pete Townshend got us turned on to Eddie Cochran. We finally figured out that rock n roll came from right where we came from and that we were luckier than anyone from England could ever be."

Today, the biggest influences on Wilder and Fields are hard-boiled private eyes and...Mayberry.

"Raymond Chandler has a lot to do with our stage persona—Andy Griffith, too. He's the backbone of Southern television fandom." Wilder also draws his inspiration from the Twilight Zone's Rod Serling and a coming-of-age, picaresque Holden Caulfield-type novel by Barry Hannah called "Geronimo Rex."

After touring Texas with soon-to-be remnants of The Howlers and the Leroi Brothers, the two came to Nashville, where they joined forces with maniac guitarist Donny Roberts (aka The Twangler) and bassist Cletus Wollensak. Fields, nicknamed The Ionizer, soon graduated to producer, handing his trap set over to Jimmy Lester. The result was a weird blend of science fiction and rock n roll in the form of an album, It Came From Nashville, released on the Landslide label out of Atlanta.

"We worked the South for a long time. Then we found ourselves venturing to Kansas City. Since then, no place is too far. We've never been to California, but we're about to go to New York for the second time and Boston for the first. Now we need roadies. We still unload our own stuff and it's still heavy, too. It's like The Replacements said, 'Anybody who tells you that you can use a little amp and let the PA do the work is either a wimp, a fool or a liar.'"

Webb Wilder's ambitious road schedule has cultivated a wide audience of rockers, critics and programmers spinning such gems as

The Webb-man and his red hot band: Cletus, Jimmy, Webb and The Twangler.

"Horror Hayride" and Steve Earle's "Devil's Right Hand." Reluctantly, Wilder admitted that A&R people have been snooping around at some of the band's gigs.

"When we played New York, we got a lot of muckety-mucks out. You know, the big wigs, the 'definitely/maybe' guys. My theory is that labels like to get somebody to somehow make it. Then they clone that, milk it until it's dry. Finally it gets absurd. Then they have to get somebody new. That's when a new act can slip in.

"We're impatient. We want foreign record deals, foreign tours, roadies and the next album, which we want to release in early '88." How did the science fiction motif enter into the weird world of Webb Wilder?

"That comes from a film I did called The Webb Wilder Private Eye, The Saucers Reign that the USA Network shows every once in a while." Wilder's spaciness also derives from his life on the road. "Last Wednesday, we left Nashville to play Springfield, Illinois. This is in a van with all of us, all our luggage, all our equipment, no roadies, multiple sets and one vocalist. From Springfield it was on to Cincinnati. Next night it was the Chicago Institute of Art, and the next day we flew to Nashville to do the big WKDF 'One For The Sun' show. We flew back to Chicago, then on to Toledo and back to Chicago to do a Sun-Times interview. Now I'm talking to you." KZ ●

PUBLIC ENEMY A BODY BLOCK ON 'BUPPIES'

Over many critics' and programmers' dead bodies, rap artists have been turning pop music upside down in recent years. Following in the footsteps of (and sometimes opening shows for) rap giants like Run DMC and the Beastie Boys, Public Enemy has taken aim at what they consider black middle-class pretensions—the "buppies" who've forgotten their brothers and sisters on the streets. "I'm a person who's always going to speak out against the things I see wrong," says leader Chuck D. "It's not time to get 'ill' or get 'stupid.' It's time to get aware of what's going on. Right now, if you ask a lot of black kids who Malcolm X was, they don't know. Ask 'em who Martin Luther King was, they'd say, 'He was a great man, but they don't know what he did. Kids in our communities talk about 'getting busy,' but they don't even know what's going on. We're in deep trouble if kids this ignorant end up as our future leaders."

Chuck has been involved in the rap scene for over ten years, as a radio deejay, hiphop promoter, rap show promoter, and avid fan of the genre. Working at the Adelphi University station, WBAU, he would bring in his own tapes, which attracted the attention of Run DMC and led to a recording contract with Def Jam Records. Chuck D is confident that Public Enemy will cross over into the large arena: "We're the Lawrence Taylors of the music business. We're gonna rush, the show and there's no way of stopping us from appealing to the public." ●

CRUZADOS BED OF LIES ON A ROAD OF TRUTH

There's more to Cruzado Tito Larriva than even Cruzados' music reveals. Born in Mexico, raised in the U.S.A., Larriva left Texas after graduating high school to spend a few years in Alaska and then five years in Mexico City dabbling in television.

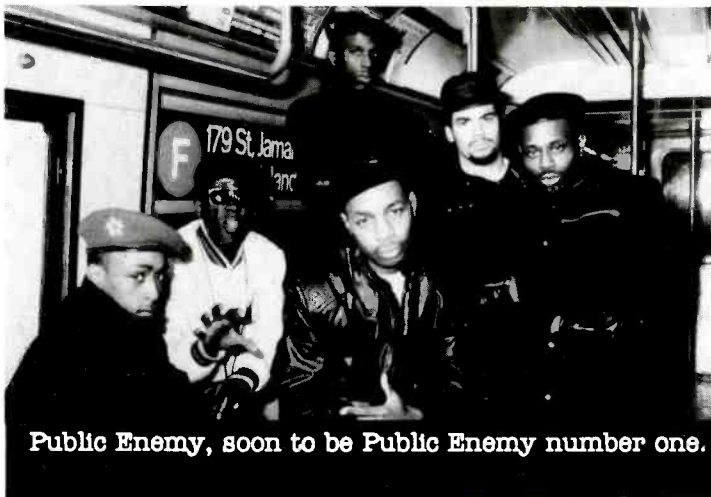

"By the time I hit L.A., I'd done a lot of theater acting. I've also danced ballet since I was sixteen," he says, adding, "That's not something I generally spread around. People in rock n roll don't want to know you've done 'Carmen!'"

Tito first met Charlotte Caffey of the Go-Go's when he shared a house with members of Wall Of Voodoo. "We all lived in this place called X Project. We weren't quite hippies, not quite punks. Out of that came The Mask, a club that was the breeding ground for X, The Go-Go's and The Plugz, which is what we used to be known as."

After Dark, Cruzados' second album, was a year and a half in the making. "We had a good opportunity to step back, listen to the record and live with it a while," says Tito. "Not too many bands get to do that." Although they were satisfied with Rodney Mills' production, the band still felt a little fine-tuning was in order. The album was finally finished under the guidance of Greg Ladanyi and guitarist Waddy Wachtel, who remixed and recut the vocal and guitar parts.

The first track serviced to radio was "Bed Of Lies," a tale of hopelessness drenched in alcohol. "I don't drink at all, but everyone I know is an alcoholic," says Tito. "Bed Of Lies" is taken from a real-life incident involving a friend of mine. I embellished it a bit."

Tito also confesses that he met the song's co-writer, Lynne Stewart, on the Pee Wee Herman Show. "I did a character named Hammy on the Pee Wee Herman HBO Special, if you can believe that. I wore guns and we both wore shoe mirrors. Don't tell anybody—I don't want to scare my fans. Anyway, Lynne Stewart is Miss Yvonne on the Pee Wee Herman Show."

The Most Beautiful Woman in Puppetland co-wrote one of the top songs on Album Radio?

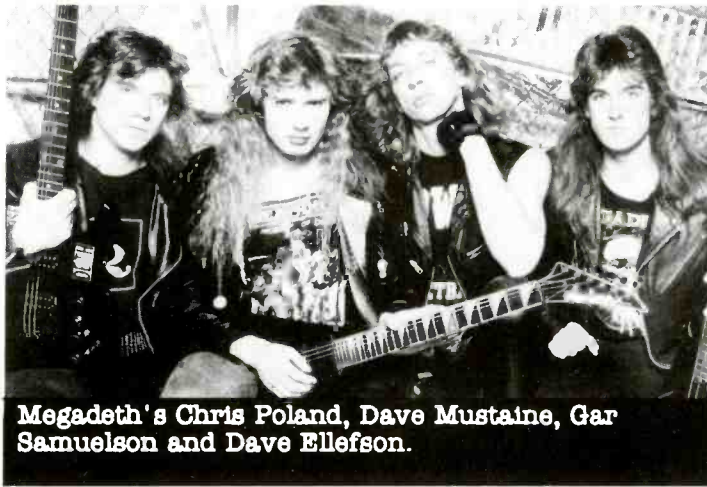

"Yes. We were talking about this drinking thing. She goes to Al-Anon and AA meetings to get material for her characters. She gave me this great title, "Bed Of Lies." We worked out part of the verses and modeled it after all our beautiful friends. She's a great person. She's never written a song before."

Between albums, Larriva appeared as Ramone in the David Byrne film, True Stories, singing the song "Radio Head."

Now what about the name "Cruzados"?

"Roughly, it means 'crossing the border.' It's a kind way to say 'wetback.' I liked the way it sounded, the idea of getting things across. Later, my uncle who used to be a pachuco told me that when they used to get fucked up on heroin, they'd say, 'I'm gonna get cruzado. I'm gonna cross myself with something. I'm gonna get cross-eyed.' When Rolling Stone printed that, everyone assumed we were drug addicts, but we're not. I'm very straight." KZ ●

Metal is loud, but some metal is louder, faster and harder. The variety that Megadeth pounds out used to be—maybe it still is—relegated to Sunday night ghetto hours. But since taking over the top end of the retail charts, all varieties, including the speed metal that Megadeth peddle, is getting more than a casual evaluation.

Guitarist Dave Mustaine formed Megadeth in 1983 after leaving Metallica due to "musical differences." A founding Metallica member, Mustaine co-wrote four songs on that band's independent debut. By the time two of those tracks found their way on Metallica's Elektra debut (now over one million units), Mustaine was long gone. Taking with him elements of punk, speed metal, haunted house images and a sense of the old renegade, Megadeth have since assembled a coven of several thousand Megadethibel devotees.

(Mega) Beth Gustafson of Metal Rendezvous magazine notes that "Megadeth proved once and for all they have emerged from the realms of the underground with class and style without going commercial and without losing their original, dedicated fans."

Even as you're reading this, it's a safe assumption that Megadeth is on their way to yet another barnstorming, hellraising, earsplitting live gig. Look for them to join Motley Crue, Metallica and Whitesnake, up where the air is thin and the competition is fierce. KZ ● contributing to the fan base. Since, the chalice has passed on to Tommy Conwell and the Young Rumlbers. Conwell and his Rumlbers have been assaulting the Northeast with their aggressive brand of rock n roll since 1984, when the band's personnel jelled.

Their debut album on Antenna Records, Walkin' On The Water, has barely been smuggled west of the Alleghenies, but that's okay. The buzz has been centered deliberately around the Northeastern United States. Young music fans there are well aware of Conwell's live fire. Six of his shows have been broadcast or simulcast on radio and television. Songs like "Love's On Fire" and "Do You Still Believe In Me" reveal the early stages of something that, once produced and fine-tuned, will rival The Hooters in national appeal. Conwell's most recent vinyl contribution was as a guest guitarist on Patty Smyth's version of Danny Wilde's rocker "Isn't It Enough." But expect Tommy Conwell and his band to make it with their own songs as 1987-88 looks to be their time for a big breakthrough. KZ ● praise. "When people say they're influenced by Wire, I wonder if they're just picking up on a certain period of music and seeing us as a representation of it. People have come up to me and said we've been a major influence on them and, frankly, I just can't hear it. I think it has more to do with attitude. We took a different stance. I think our sense of detachment is something that has been admired. It's something we have to retain at all costs."

Formed over a decade ago, Wire has retained its original line-up: Colin Newman, Robert Gotobed, Bruce Gilbert and Graham Lewis. All had one thing in common: Wire was their very first band (or "beat combo," as they prefer). Less than six months after their stormy first gigs, they were signed to EMI Records in England by producer Mike Thorne and Nick Mobbs, who once signed the Sex Pistols. Since 1976, they have released four albums, with varying degrees of lack of commercial success—but a monumental impact on young, impressionable groups such as U2.

Ask some of the leading cutting edge bands to name their biggest influences and the only band that you'll hear as often as the Velvet Underground is Wire. As REM's Michael Stipe states, "Wire changed my life in '77. It's time for this decade's dose." Wire's Colin Newman is modest about such

As their relationship with EMI deteriorated, the band members began working on individual projects. Wire put their "beat combo" concept on the shelf. Colin recorded solo material and produced the Virgin Prunes and Minimal Compact. Gilbert and

MOJO NIXON & SKID ROPER FREE WHEELING PSYCHOTIC SPIRIT

Lewis became involved in their "Dome" projects. By 1982, Newman completely quit music for about three years, spending 14 months in India. "I felt very disillusioned with Western culture in general. I got fed up with the London scene and the pretentiousness of its artists," he says. Returning to England, however, Newman contacted Lewis and they concurred that indeed, Wire was in need of renewing.

"It was inevitable that we would re-group at some point. During the intervening time, people started discovering our albums from the 70s," he says. Today, Newman isn't content with the acclaim the band is now generating through their first album and tour in seven years. "I think the most important thing for Wire is to start getting ahead of itself again." PS ●

At February's Cutting Edge Music show at the Gavin Seminar, Mojo Nixon nearly stole the show from a group of prestigious guests. On vinyl, Mojo and Skid Roper produce entertaining music by microwaving country and washboard-influenced blues with contemporary wacked-out lyrics. Examples include songs like "I Hate Banks," "Stuffin' Martha's Muffin," "Jesus At McDonalds" and "Burn Down The Malls." The outspoken and witty Mojo describes his sounds as "free-wheeling psychotic spirit."

Due early next month is a new LP titled Bo-Day-Shus. The first track, "Elvis Is Everywhere," is about the omnipresence of Elvis Presley. "He's everywhere, in everything, in everybody except for the anti-Elvis—Michael J. Fox," Mojo says. Another song, "I'm Gonna Dig Up Howlin' Wolf and Put His Skull On My Guitar," is "guaranteed to offend all those people who take the blues too seriously," Nixon says, adding, "I love the blues and I think Howlin' Wolf would have liked it."

Whether he's attacking the serious demeanor of music enthusiasts, financial institutions, cable networks, fast food chains or religion, Mojo always has something to say about current issues. What does Mojo want for himself? "To be on the radio so that people can hear us. I love the underground, but I don't want to be King of just that forever." PS ●

k.d. LANG QUEEN OF TORCH AND TWANG

k.d. Lang momentarily sans her Reclines.

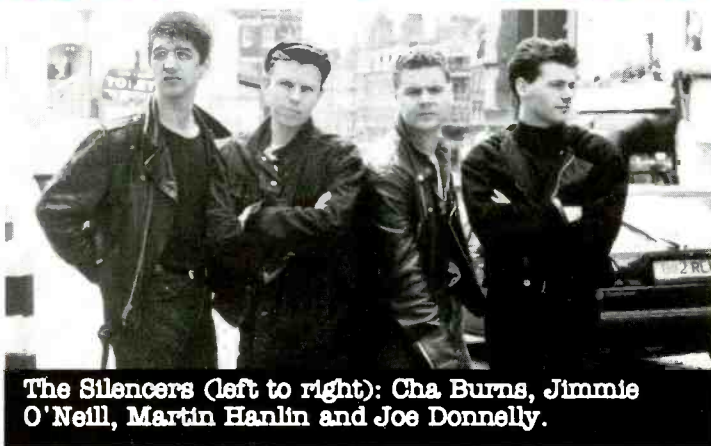

To understand what Kathy Dawn "k.d." Lang is all about, you've got to experience her live performance. Johnny Carson was impressed enough to invite her twice onto the Tonight Show. When Sire's Seymour Stein saw her at the Bottom Line in New York, he knew he had to sign her. A recent swing through the States gained the Canadian artist a reputation as a live-wire performer, blending a variety of country, rock, blues, polka, and other assorted styles.

Ironically, Dave Edmunds, the producer of her album Angel With A Lariat, had never seen her perform. Consequently, k.d. admits, "The album doesn't show the versatility of the live show. But I'm proud of it. I think if he had seen us live, he would have seen the individualism that we use on each song." Although k.d. began her professional career only about three years ago, she had been playing music since the age of ten (and writing since 13) in the Alberta farm town of Consort. k.d. studied music in college, developing a talent in painting and performance art. There was never any doubt that music was her destiny. "I knew what I was going to do, I didn't want to be wasting my time playing Holiday Inns. I waited until it was the right time and place."

In 1983 she formed the Reclines, drawing upon a variety of early musical influences, including Linda Ronstadt, Rickie Lee Jones, Joni Mitchell, Peggy Lee, Kate Bush, Julie Andrews, Anne Murray and, of course, Country music legend Patsy Cline. Country radio has been giving k.d. a shot, although she realizes, "I've still got a ways to go. It takes a while to prove yourself." For k.d., the key element is diversity—and honesty. "I'm into interpreting a song with honesty and emotion. I can't pick a favorite style. That's like asking if you have a favorite child." PS ●

THE SILENCERS THE NEW PRIDE OF SCOTLAND

The Silencers are a happy collision between Jimmie O'Neill, formerly of Fingerprintz, and Cha Burns, who spent time playing lead guitar for Adam Ant. They have been together a mere two years, but so far, it's been a productive two years. Augmented by bassist Joe Donnelly and drummer Martin Hanlin, this Scottish foursome is handled by Edinburgh-based Schoolhouse Management, who also tend to the affairs of Simple Minds and China Crisis. A year of recording demos resulted in a worldwide recording contract with RCA Records. Last September, the band began recording their debut album, A Letter From St. Paul, with Dave Bascombe, who engineered Peter Gabriel's So and Tears For Fears' Songs From The Big Chair, and produced an LP with It's Immaterial. Throughout last winter, The Silencers bounced around studios in Berlin, Denmark, London and Scotland before ending up with a gleaming finished project. The music has a sweetness that recalls other Glaswegian aggregations, Aztec Camera and the Bluebells. Yet, as a guitar-oriented quartet, O'Neill and his Silencers lay down capable melodic grooves in the grand American tradition of Dwight Twilley and Tom Petty. Their first single, "Painted Moon," has been receiving attention on Gavin Album, Top Forty and Alternative stations since its release. The song was also selected as theme music for the new Lynn Redgrave movie, The Home Front." KZ ●

Several weeks ago, a major record company known by three initials picked up, lock, stock, and Bowie, and moved from the sunny climes of Southern California to the climes of New York City. This record company might be RCA, EMI, CBS, GRP, MCA, MTM or some other. Figure it out. Having done record promotion in both the New York and L.A. venues, we were shocked that a number of staff members of this three-initial company have actually ACCEPTED relocation from The Big Orange to The Big Apple!

We have to assume employment in this business is scarce. This leads us to the public-service nature of this column. Many employees of the record company in question have never lived in The Apple and probably have no idea as to its many pleasures and unique quality of daily life. We hereby direct the following letter to all those beach bunnies and surfer-boys who'll be moving to Gotham because they want to keep working for a company with three initials:

Dear soon-to-be-relocated employees of well-known manufacturer:

Your friend, (us) has worked in The City Which Never Sleeps. We have many memories of that period and would like to start spreadin' the news about some of them...what we miss, what you'll encounter, etc.:

1. We sorely miss the third world entrepreneurs who mysteriously appear on 6th Ave. (known to you Californians as Avenue of The Americas) during rainstorms with 30-cent paper umbrellas and sell these items for five dolllars from makeshift counters made out of 12-pack Charmin cartons. It's always been fun, out of desperation, to purchase one of these only to have it turn inside out within 30 seconds.

2. We miss 21-dollar hamburgers served at chic spots like "21." You'll want to check this out upon arrival, particularly you secretaries who've been given a five-dollar-a-week cost-of-living increase for your move. These under- or over-cooked burgers are served on upscale toast. If the price annoys you, remember that you're soaking up a celebrity atmoshpere. Last time we lunched at "21," Robbie Nevil's rabbi was at the next table.

3. As you won't be able to afford cabs (unless you're the CEO, and we all know there'll only be one of those), the subway will be part of your regular enjoyment. Unless your name is Licata, you'll not only have to be wary of roving bands of murderous muggers, but of nerdy Bernie Goetz clones, who present a newer threat, particularly if you're in the boom box division.

4. The weirdos on the streets and avenues may seem like interesting local color to Angelenos used to a few thousand pounds of protective metal between them and their fellow man. It may SEEM like interesting color...for about twenty minutes. Then it can get a bit uncolorful, particularly when many of these weirdos hail from planets unknown to Captain Kirk or R2D2. Often, members of this element will approach a sun-tanned alien (you) and request a few drachmas. Since your last drachma has gone to the above-mentioned third-world guy for a paper umbrella, you'll have to HOPE the weirdo will understand.

5. We've mentioned N.Y. bars here before. We're mentioning them again. If you enjoy an occasional aperitif or highball, you'll want to pack plenty of green or a VERY valid, underextended Amex card, as one scotch on the rocks or something NYC calls a rye 'n' ginger can run about what a liter of Chivas runs in L.A.--and this is for drinks which wouldn't fill a hollow tooth.

6. Here's something fun about NYC that you transplanted record folks might note: The Tonight Show can be viewed by you a full THREE HOURS before we can catch it on the West Coast. So those of you who have our personal private unlisted home number can call us with Johnny's monologue material long before we can hear it, so we can begin stealing Johnny's gags for this column...and we thank you for your support.

7. We miss Mets games. You might enjoy New York ballparks, but will find them just a tad, shall we say, DIFFERENT from Dodger Stadium. Doris Day and Dyan Cannon won't be at Shea Stadium sipping wine coolers. In their place, you'll find teamsters named Guido chugging suds and tossing the empties at your face, particularly if they've heard you mention Werner Erhardt. Actually, N.Y. sports venues are a valuable course. You young secretaries will get a real boot out of the colorful comments aimed your way by Guido as he follows you into an empty subway car at 1 a.m. after a 14-inning pitcher's duel.

8. When you first arrive in N.Y., you'll be charmed by the renegade cab drivers who will fight amongst themselves to bring you into town. These "cabs" are unmarked, which is what you may NOT be after a 70 MPH career along the Van Wyck and FDR before being dropped off at the N.Y. Hilton, where the three-initial company is putting you up for a day or two until you find your $2,000-a-month one-room walk-up flat. The beds will be unmade when you check in and the room service tray from the previous night's hooker will be sitting on the dresser. When you call the desk to remedy this situation, you'll be told to do to yourself what Jim and Tammy Bakker did to their PTL prayer partners.

Hope we've been of service.

Lord Of The Highway-Joe Ely (Hightone-CD)

Alive and still champion, Joe Ely and guitarist David Grissom offer more correspondence from beautiful East Texas. Gavin songwriter fave Butch Hancock contributes two songs, including the title push-track, "Lord Of The Highway." "Everybody Got Hammered" does a blacksmith number on your head. "No Rope Daisy-O," the wah-wahed "Don't Put a Lock On My Heart" and "Me And Billy the Kid" show Ely and his fine band faithfully committing live energy to disc. Unlike his last LP, Hi-Res (which I still dig), this one is a rootsier, more basic portrait. But like Hi-Res, there's a "letter song" that serves as the disc's centerpiece. Like "Letter From Laredo," "Letter To L.A." sends us an overview of a waycrossed Texas heart. I hear an early Stones feel as the emotions peak and the instruments flail and solo. Long live Joe Ely! He not only survives, but chronicles that survival artfully. When last seen live, all his equipment had been stolen. On hired and borrowed gear, Joe and this exact band played their hearts to a sizzle. I'll never forget that gesture.

"You Can Make Me Feel"-Dave Perkins (What?/A&M)

From the folks who gave us Tonio K's last album (and I'm still eternally grateful) comes one Dave Perkins. Long ago, Dave was a folkie until he discovered the first Paul Butterfield Blue Band LP. Electric blues turned Perkins into a serious rock n roller. "You Can Make Me Feel" three times on the tape feels good. As Jacqueline Suzanne once wrote, "once is not enough."

"Dark Light"-Beat Farmers (Curb/MCA)

It's lookin' like a great week for American rock n roll. After last year's fantastic Van Go LP, The Beat Farmers bounce back even higher with this snaky, slidey preview track from their upcoming Pursuit Of Happiness album. This one pounds, slides and goes bump in the night. Night music, to be sure.

Gossip-Paul Kelly & The Messengers (A&M)

I generally avoid ragging on about the selection of Album Radio twelve-inch pros. In fact, I'd like to ignore the entire species, as there are many instances when one singled-out track falsely categorizes an artist's direction. I can understand the frustration trying to peg Paul Kelly with just one track. This guy is all over the road. Who is he? Bands like Crowded House and Hunters & Collectors have been endorsing Paul Kelly as Australia's next big contribution. Gossip is the band's fourth album originally released in Aussieland on two discs with 25 trax. "Last Train To Heaven" is the US retro-reggae opener. "Before The Old Man Died" recalls the best of Squeeze during their Argy Bargy days. "The Execution" operates on a U2-type guitar groove. My favorite track (today) is also "Don't Harm The Messenger." There's even a few folkie/Country songs. Outstanding and stark, this is a truly special release by a special new artist I wished we'd included on this week's cover. Don't get 12 inch-itis on this one. Check out this 15 song album that's well worth the extra effort. You'll thank yourself.

Wetton/Manzanera (Geffen)

After an stormy relationship with Asia, John Wetton surfaces again with Roxy guitarist Phil Manzanera. On this new album, they feed off of each other, walking the line between material that's radio-pliable and progressive enough to be challenging. Surprisingly simple and direct, gone are the garish excesses of Asia and the elegances of Roxy Music. Songs like the bass dominant "It's Just Love" and "Suzanne" lead the pack instrumentally. "Do It Again" places the emphasis on vocals. The sound is lean and clear.

"Alex Chilton"-The Replacements (Sire)

Ladies and gentlemen, the right song for the right time--now. "Alex Chilton" is as open a homage to Big Star as can humanly possibly be recorded. Big Star's Memphis spirit metaphysically lurks between the pauses, the notes and the backbeat. Bravo again.

"Why"-Wednesday Week (Enigma)

The Los Angeles Times and The Gavin Report have something in common. Both feel that Wednesday Week were one of last year's overlooked bands. Here is a re-release of "Why," the album's magic moment.

Discovery-Larry Carlton (MCA Master Series) Still Life (Talking)-Pat Metheny Group (Geffen)

Two different guitarists of amazing dexterity tantalize those Album Radio stations who feel instrumental genius fits the mood they are trying to transmit over the airwaves. Both take radically different directions. Pat Metheny, as many of his fans already know, is an expressive soloist in the classic vein of the late Bill Evans. Entrenched in his signature tone, Still Life (Talking) is a gallery much the same way American Garage was a still life. "Minuano" in 6/8 is an opening Metheny/Lyle Mays collaboration. Metheny combines voice with the instruments to present a soaring effect. Larry Carlton couldn't be more different. Mr. 335 (who has expanded toward an acoustic approach) doesn't let technique overshadow emotion. Discovery is a beautifully recorded tribute to the simple art of melody. His version of "Hello Tomorrow" is in hot rotation across the hall in Ron Fell's pad. After a grueling day on the phones, treat yourself (and your listeners) to a sidetrack.

"Surf Or Die"-Surf MC's (Profile)

That's right. Surf or die. Just splash the Beasties with cold salt water...you get the picture. Two mixes on CD to choose from. Wipe out. Zero Gravity-Steve Bach (Cafe/Mobile Fidelity) Keyboardist Steve Bach isn't lost in space. Rather, he's in keyboard heaven. Those of the instrumental persuasion will find Zero Gravity a gem of a discovery. The format is no real radical departure. Keyboards, both electric and acoustic, are combined with aggressive bass and sax work. But Steve Bach does his job well. Call 707-778-0134 for your taste. Should sound great inside a rapidly moving motor vehicle.

INSIDE ALBUM

by Kent Zimmerman

A WEEK LIKE THIS only happens a few times a year. That is, this week's chart has "reorganized itself," which sounds like a polite way of saying a twister hit it. The Grateful Dead join the rare few whose album not only debuts at #1, but is added like an album, five trax deep. All week long (as you'll be reading elsewhere in this column) we've been hearing about number one request reports. When push comes to shove, don't hesitate on The Dead, especially when their upcoming tour schedule includes dates with Bob Dylan, who knows a great backing band when he hears one.

ALSO HOT. Other chart bloomers this week include Fleetwood "Midnight" Mac, an even stronger pumping Heart, the Lost Boy Soundtrack, Joe Walsh, Fab T-Birds, Cruzados, U2's "Spanish Eyes" (which just passed the LP), Neil Young is four trax deep, including the "Inca." John Hiatt celebrates his fourth week at #15, underline and all. Rookies of the week are The Silencers. Big movers include the CERTIFIED Great White, La Bamba and Steve Jones.

AROUND THE LEAGUE. Bob Linder is high on WDHA-Dover add ex-Camel Pete Bardens...There's diverse response to Warren Zevon with guys like Dave Hatton at KMED- Medford and KKDJ-Fresno's Jeff Riedel high on "Detox Mansion." Single to Top Forty is "Leave My Monkey Alone."

TRUCKIN'. Phones are Dead at WMRY-St. Louis, #1 requests. Paul Shagruae at WRXL-Richmond saw #2 phones on "Push Comes To Shove." Kevin Vargas at KWHL-Anchorage has "Hell," "Push" and "West L.A. Turnaround" in heavy. Alan White at KILO-Colorado Springs just may be right. Is "West L.A. Turnaround" written about John Belushi?...The two hottest moving records at KLOL are The Grateful Dead and Great White, or is it The Great Dead or Grateful White...Mark Chernoff at WNEW/FM has "Touch Of Grey" logged in as #1 requests while "Hell In A Bucket" clocks in at #3...Three generations of rock n roll were added at WHFS. Bob Showacre reports adds on The Dead, Echo & The Bunnymen and Danny Wilson...Softrocker KNX/FM are two deep Dead as well. KTCZ-Minneapolis/St. Paul's Jan Fredericksen reports The Dead as number one "far and away." KTCZ skew 25+. They are four trax deep with "Touch," "Push," "West L.A." and the bluesy "Black Muddy River."

ODDS AND ADDS. While on 4th of July holiday, I picked up a copy of the the late Colorado flash guitarist, Tommy Bolin on CD. On the notes of the Teaser CD is a "Thank You" list that includes none other than Gary Hart. Two songs were penned by Jeff Cook. The Jeff Cook of Elektra Records?...Another believer in Charlie Daniels is Brian Talley at WSMI- Litchfield JL. Brian also added Robert Vaughn and The Shadows from San Diego...Speaking of San Diego, how about that brawl after the beaming of Cubbie Andre Dawson? All this has nothing to do with this week's 91X Peoples' Choice track, "Understanding Jane" by the heaved-up Icicle Works... Unusual Carter Alan WBCN adds this week include "XYZ" by Andy Summers, Echo & The Bunnymen's "New Direction" and Suicidal Tendencies' "Join The Army"...How's this for Top Five Phones: Charlie Wrobbel at

KTCL/FM-Fort Collins read 'em off. #1. Pat Metheny, #2 Mondo Boffo's "I Wanna Be A Marine," #3 Young Fresh Fellow's "Amy Grant," #4 the seasonal "4th Of July" by X and #5 Jesus & Mary Chain's "April Skies"...Jody Petersen and WNCS-Montpelier are rockin'

INSIDE ALTERNATIVE RADIO

by Peter Standish

The Cure repeats at #1, but leading a serious charge is X who improved their chart points by nearly 20% in one week! Both albums are among the most requested from all of our reporters. That Petrol Emotion, The Go-Betweens and Warren Zevon are all gaining strength. The Silencers, The Call and John Hiatt are all building too. The fastest gainer is the Lime Spiders with John Koski WRVU - Nashville and Heather Young WUSC-Columbia, SC, noticing great listener response. Last week's Record To Watch, The Young Popular and Sexy Compilation LP, improved their points by 33% and rose 18 positions! The La Bamba, Nitzer Ebb and Bleached Black albums are in healthy shape with 12 or more jumps. Echo & The Bunnymen stopped in to debut at #32 on their way to the top ten, with heavy response reported from Deb Brady WXXP-Pittsburgh, Doris Duwe WTSR-Trenton, Gina Mainwal KUNV-Las Vegas and John Jesser

WOXY-Cincinnati. Sonic Youth is also attracting tons of calls for Steve Balcom WXYC-Chapel Hill and Kandy Wilkens WXCI-Danbury. Joining Echo as our only other debut is Homestead Records' versatile compilation album, The Wailing Ultimate.

Our Record To Watch, Dinosaur, cracks Chartbound and wins big fans in Jason Cohen WNUR-Chicago, Ron Phillips WUSB-Stonybrook, Arthur Burris WPRB-Princeton, NJ ("best record in 6 months"), etc. The Dead Milkmen fail to make the page but look for that to change soon. Ivar Hamilton CFNY-Toronto and Jonathan L KEYX-Phoenix report lots of calls. The Mighty Lemon Drops are #1 Most Added and, along with #3 M.A. Plasticland, should convert those adds to rotations to chart debuts. Segue of the week while on hold...WFNX-Lynn/Boston with Human League's "These Are The Things" into the Call's "I Don't Wanna."

SPOTLIGHT LPS

The Cave Comes Alive-THE LIME SPIDERS (Virgin) The Lime Spiders have been exporting their brash Australian rock to loyal fans here in the states for years. The thrashing garage spirit still lies in the Lime Spiders' soul but their upgraded production and musicianship on "The Cave Comes Alive" should propel them beyond their present cult following. You can get a sore throat just listening to Mick Blood's raspy vocals on "My Favorite Room," which also includes some paisley-inspired wah-wah guitar. "Action Woman" cuts the deepest groove, while "Space Cadet" may be the strongest track, with its cleaner vocals and rocket-fueled guitar. The munchkin voices dropped in gives it a '50's sci-fi theme. "Jessica" portrays a serene side of the band including some acoustic piano by bassist Tony Bambach. Other burning cuts include "Rock Star" and a daring cover of Cream's classic "NSU." This album of all new material is being simultaneously released in Australia and the U.S.

Lonely Is An Eyesore Comp. (4 A.D.) 4 A.D. has etched out an outstanding reputation over the years as the vanguard of British bands and "homeless" American artists. This one disc - with spectacular triple gatefold and 25-page booklet packaging - is essentially a 4 A.D. all-star line-up. There's a variety of styles to choose from, with the prime choice being Colourbox's rap-rock "Hot Doggie." Colourbox, you may recall, were featured in last year's New Artists issue. I've always been a fan of This Mortal Coil's dreamy gothic proof that you don't have to be aggressive to be adventurous. The Cocteau Twins (surrogate parents of This Mortal Coil, since they share band members) are similar in style but slightly more directed. The up-and-coming Dif Juz are here sounding like a dark-gloom and underground Pat Metheny. The eerie Clan of Xymox and Boston's Throwing Muses (recently signed to Sire Records) have contributed their talents as well. PS

GAVIN ALTERNATIVE SURVEY RESULTS

By Denise Daniels

Earlier this year, the Gavin Alternative department conducted a survey, asking both radio stations and record companies involved in the format for their opinions on criteria for reporting to the Gavin Report. Our purpose was to refine the guidelines set up nearly five years ago, when we established a separate section to deal with the most influential noncommercial stations and their most adventurous commercial counterparts.

The results were both gratifying (more than a 50 percent return rate!) and interesting. We found a remarkable unity of opinion on the important qualifications of an Alternative reporting station. Of the possible criteria, only a few were considered "unimportant."

We found the unanimity of radio station and record company opinions interesting and surprising—especially since the criteria are almost a "wish list" for record companies, while the radio stations actually have to execute them. Another surprise was that college radio is not as "free-form" as its reputation suggests. Nearly nine out of the ten radio respondents felt MDs and PDs should set up programming guidelines and record rotation systems and almost all said they should influence the station through personally communicating to DJs about records.

The results showed record companies consider playing local artists the top criterion for "local visibility" of alternative stations. Almost all record company respondents (and three-quarters of those in radio) believe that tracking retail sales locally is important. Finally, record and radio folks agreed stations can make up for a low-power signal through quality programming or year-round format consistency.

Comments and feedback included on the survey responses reflected the diverse trends in the format. On the subject of playlists, they ranged from "Too many deadbeat stations that were once significant but have lately gone into extended eclipse" to "There are stations which are too progressive. There is nothing wrong with them but there should be more stations which are at least half & half in order to create more of a balance." Others liked the balance: "Your reporters are the most varied and important alternative stations around, you have every end of the spectrum reporting to you and at the same time you're selective about reporters."

Record company comments centered on retail. "Tracking record stores outside of your broadcast range, particularly for up and coming indies, can keep a station closer to the so called cutting edge. I don't mean if you're in L.A. you should call Pittsburgh, but L.A. should call Orange County or even S.F." Quite a few respondents mentioned the idea of publishing a retail chart "listing the top ten in retail and the top three retail on each station's playlist."

Others commented on the importance of communication between the two industries. One record company representative stated, "A suggestion well-taken for Gavin and other trades is to publish a survey such as this frequently. Your survey inherently suggests some standards which you assure are understood by your readership." On the topic of consistency, a radio program director said, "Too often, when management graduates, the station is left cold, leaving new management to start from the ground up. No radio station can develop or progress with this type of approach."

and rollin' to Lucky 7 and stayin' mellow with Pat Metheny...Jack Randal at WIQB reports Ann Arbor's top seller is The Cure.

SCREAMER OF THE WEEK was Larry the Duck screaming about WLIR reading Andy & XTC's "Earn Enough For Us" after making it their SCREAMER last December 4th. This week's SCREAMER was "Hot Hot Hot" by The Cure. Big phones on an exclusive import called "Star Trekkin" by The Firm on tiny Bark Records-UK. Yes, it looks like the band will have to change their name if Jimmy Page decides to hold on to his band. "The song is stupid until you see the phones light up," screams Larry...I'm on the same wavelength as KLOS, who just added the coolest track on the John Waite album, "Encircled"... Ron Garrett celebrated his birthday this week by having all kinds of artists call him during his airshift. Nobody sings "Happy Birthday" like the Crue. Added: Wetton/Manzanera... There's a new face at KSPN-Aspen and he's PD/MD Steve Cole...Hot hot hot at the KAT in Amarillo, according to Dale Miller, is Sammy Hagar. Bill Webster at WJXQ-Lansing is in complete agreement. Sales and phones are "red" hot. Remember "Red" by Sammy Hagar on Capitol? Somebody dust off that track.

SOFA HOWLERS. Ray Diggins sez KOTR (The Otter) in San Luis Obispo are on "The Sofa Circuit" by the Fabulous T-Birds. They're also in Joe Walsh's "Car"...Dave Logan and newly added partner in crime, Sky Daniels along with the KFOG crue hosts Omar & His Howlers with a live broadcast. Listen for me. I'll be in the crowd...If you tied him to a chair and played hard rock, KATS-Yakima's Ron O'Brien hopes it will be Whitesnake, Cult and Sammy Hagar, hard rock that's happening on their station. Rappin' Ron also reports fast response to Jon Butcher's "Wishes"... Catfish Phil at WHMD-Hammond sez they're the only station playing The Cure, who are showing up with Top Five sales...Who's that guy with the new headsets? That's Bill St. James at KZEL who's test driving them with "In The River" by The Call. St. James also claims World Party will not die...Erin Riley calls in the WMMR adds: Marillion, The Dead and Pete Bardens...Congrats to WFNX on their new stick. Bruce McDonald is thrilled that the FENIX will be beaming throughout all of Beantown... WXRT's Lin Brehmer, certainly one not prone to exaggerate loves The Silencers. "It's a smash! It's historic! I guess I sound like one of those raving Music Directors." Seriously, he loves it, especially the second track on Side Two, "I Ought To Know," as he well ought to. Stay well and have an All Star Week. Yer pal, KZ

Another radio respondent lamented, "It seems like everything on this list is important. I'm sorry to say that doesn't necessarily mean it is carried out at the station." Another said, "All of these objective criteria are insignificant compared to how good a station is to listen to in the town it lies in. Stations with pretty playlists are often dull, noisy, disorganized and impossible to listen to."

PDs and MDs had a lot to say about programming: "I think trade magazines should be used to see what stuff a station is missing--not to decide what goes on the air. The person who plays a record because it's #1 on the college chart is as non-alternative as the person who consciously does not play a #1 chart record because it's #1." Another noted, "Stations must have a good training, indoctrination, brainwashing program. Tossing a DJ on the air is no good." Other comments: "DJs should make much of their own choices--(and be) informed about the new music that comes in and listen to a variety of it before they program their own shows." "In order to break new artists, people need to hear it, realize they like the song, learn the name of the artist, and this all takes more than one listen. Even the hippest listeners need to hear a brand new artist a few times."

Thanks to all of you who took the time to fill out and return the survey. We're delighted that the results indicate we've been on the right track, and the new information you've given us will help us serve you even better in coming years. Our aim is to continue to provide the most credible Alternative chart and maintain the impact we've achieved over the years.

INSIDE COUNTRY

For those of you who skipped Chinwag this issue, we're proud and happy to announce the arrival of "Little K"--Kody Christopher Robbins. He and mother Lisa Smith-Robbins are doing fine. Lisa sends her best to all our Country correspondents. (For more info see page 15.)

Restless Heart takes a major leap to the number five position with a seven-point jump. With a solid 96% HIT FACTOR and 89 stations playing them in Heavy Rotation, they will undoubtedly keep moving up. Michael Martin Murphey makes his way into the Top 10 with a five-point hop to number six. Mark at WAOV says retail sales in Vincennes, IN, have been heavy. R.J. Curtis at KZLA/ KLAC-Los Angeles reports positive female reaction to Exile's "She's Too Good To Be True," which helps to explain their climb up the chart to number 16. Dan Seals proves he's a winner as "Three Time Loser" takes an impressive ten-point jump on the chart. Mike Austin at KTGR-Columbia, MO, reports a good response to Dan. Debuting at number 37 and also this week's CERTIFIED, Nitty Gritty Dirt Band piles up a big following with a 29%

HIT FACTOR and 40 stations playing them in medium rotation. "Positive early action," says Scott Winston at KVOX-Fargo, ND. Listeners have obviously caught on to the lyrical hook about a "hall of fame for mothers" in the Glen Campbell/Steve Wariner duet. Also catching listener's attention is "Make It Last," an unusual single with a Country twist by The Beat Farmers--it's worth a close listen. "The response is astronomical," says Phil Badger at WKRE-Exmore, VA. "and we've only been on it three days!" P.J. Emmerson at KFAT-Corvallis, OR, also gave the Farmers a chance and reports it this week as a Top 3 request. Last week's RECORD TO WATCH, Joe Kenyon, continues to do extremely well at WDVA- Danville, VA, is getting a "bushel of calls" for Chuck Walley at WGAA-Cedartown, GA, and is a Top 3 request at WRNS-Coastal, NC. This week's RECORD TO WATCH, Emmylou Harris' "Someday My Ship Will Sail," is a beautiful ballad which will definitely satisfy her faithful fans. Looks like a hit on the horizon for Emmylou.

Have a great week! Natalie & Elma

REVIEWS

EARL THOMAS CONLEY - Right From The Start (RCA) This one is destined to be a summer smash, right from the start.

NANCI GRIFFITH - Cold Hearts/Closed Minds (MCA) Multi-talented Nanci Griffith is quickly elbowing her way into the Country center stage. This catchy original reveals an intriguing story executed with intensity.

JEFF DUGAN - Once A Fool, Always A Fool (Warner Bros.) There's no foolin' Warner Brothers. This new smooth-talking artist delivers a song with lyrics your audience can relate to.

HANK WILLIAMS, JR. - Born To Boogie (Warner Bros.) Hank shows why the Academy of Country Music named him Entertainer Of The Year with this collection of rockin' songs. "Young Country," an original featuring Steve Earle, Highway 101, T.Graham Brown, Keith Whitley and other rowdy friends, is an anthem for the new Country pioneers. One of the most serious songs we've heard from Hank Jr., in a while, "Shadow," describes what it's like living with the ghost of a legend. The standout is the slow HEAVEN CAN'T BE FOUND. Also

by Jerry Boulding

PRIZED-- AND COMPROMISED

In recent years, urban contemporary radio has expanded considerably, both in share of listeners and number of stations. The format—or one of the several versions it's spawned—could well become one of the strong music formats of the future. Some of its success is accounted for by the phasing out of format definitions. Traditional black or "Quiet Storm" stations moved into the urban contemporary radio orbit so Madison Avenue would feel more comfortable. The blurring of station formats is due to the over-reaction of time buyers and others who think they understand the music, and then label our stations and formats according to what they perceive the music to be.

While the new title has drawn a lot of attention, the success of the format has also lost some of the source of its pride. This is both predictable and understandable. So is another ironic by-product of success: as urban contemporary radio proliferates, it loses some of its advantage as a winning format because of that proliferation.

But the format will survive and thrive because it fills a hole. The music continues to be strong. Artists now have VH-1 and MTV exposing their talents on television. Performers like Anita Baker, Janet Jackson, Prince, Lionel Richie, Stevie Wonder, Smokey Robinson, Freddie Jackson, Miami Sound Machine and The Jets are consistently crossing over to Top 40 and A/C. Even rap music has come into its own. The wide acceptance of black and urban artists is a fact—and not just an extension of disco, as some would have us believe.

Has black music lost something in the process? The answer is yes—but so what? There's no doubt that the music had to compromise. Ten years ago, the raw, earthy sounds of Aretha, Earth, Wind & Fire, The Ohio Players, Al Green and others contained few pop ingredients, and often lyrics that non-ethnics could not really understand or relate to. These trailblazing artists had to rely on the sheer magic of their music and its infectious beat and rhythms to lure mainstream audiences over to them. When they went on tour with a strong rock act, as Stevie Wonder did for The Rolling Stones, it was all over. There are some things that our audiences just do well, and putting on a great visual show is one of them.

There is no doubt that the success of the urban contemporary format has been aided by crossover music—the new songs and artists that most other formats will wait on or avoid completely. So how do the artists themselves feel about this? We've talked with a number who are frustrated. On one hand, they want to do what they feel—what made them stars. On the other hand, they want to reach that crossroad. Jeffrey Osborne, whose "Woo Woo" song sent him to new heights, feels most people want a song they can relate to and sing along with—even though they may not be able to hit the same notes. If a song hits them that way the first time, and they want to hear it again, that's usually the critical difference.

Crossing over also means risking the loss of your base audience, and ending up back in the minors. Yet sometimes, labels try to force black artists into a mold for the sake of mass acceptance. Aretha, in her early days before she moved to Atlantic, was placed in an environment of lush strings and wimpy songs. Despite her enormous talent, it just didn't work. The truth is that even a top ten black song or album will sell only so much. If abandoning ship will take them further, some will.

As black and urban songs make their way into movies, music videos, Top 40 and A/C, its uniqueness begins to fade. Today, a large percentage of artists are producing a sound that is almost indistinguishable from contemporary pop music in terms of production values. Very often the only thing that makes a song "urban" is who is singing it, and the fact that urban stations are taking the lead in playing it.

Black music and dance music will go in and out of style according to the taste of the public. But in the quest for wider acceptance, the unique qualities that make black music special—the earthiness, the emphasis on vocal expression over technical gimmickry, the emotional release—shouldn't get lost in the shuffle.

As competition between musical formats heats up, stations and owners will keep searching for the sound that will keep the ratings high and the costs reasonable. For many, urban contemporary fills the bill. Now we have more competition than ever—cable television, compact discs and a plethora of mind-boggling new high-tech devices have expanded the range of leisure options. The spectrum of black music and artists is also broadening. But in this fragmented business, consistency is still the key to success.

Finally, as might be expected, today's urban contemporary format has made most of its penetration from FM outlets, primarily in the top 10 markets. The format's achievements are even more interesting when you consider the fact that urban contemporary radio accounted for less than five percent of the stations on the FM band in the top 100 markets measured in the 1986-87 Arbitron sweeps.

Looking from another angle, urban contemporary radio is the highest-performing of all formats in the top 50 markets, based on an index that reflects total (AM and FM) audience share, divided by the number of radio stations in each market. The urban contemporary format garnered an index of 358, far outdistancing all-news, the second-place format, which had a 207. The question is: Is urban contemporary radio black with white dots—or white with black dots. The answer is...both. ●

INSIDE URBAN RADIO

I can't start this summary without immediately talking about the incredible response to the L.L.COOL J album cut, "I Need Love." As Ray Boyd, V103- Atlanta, puts it: "It's not offending the adult listeners and the teens are screaming for it." Daisy Davis, WBMX/FM-Chicago, tells me calls are coming from the 16-28 year-olds—that's some research! John Eric, KJAM-Mission, TX, has all demos, as do James Alexander and Belinda Briggs, WJLB-Detroit. Melvin Jones, KRNB-Memphis, says response is "super!" Gary Weiler, WBLZ-Cincinnati, says, "Quote this: I've never had as many calls for a record in the six years I've been here!" Rumor has it that Columbia will release the single in two-three weeks, but with everyone in Vancouver, it has not yet been confirmed.

Next week's Gavin cover guys, LEVERT, are the biggest mover in the chart, going from 40-23. Heavy phones reported by Randy Sterling, KGBC-Galveston, from 14-25, L.D. McCollum, XHRM-San Diego, 18-34, and Steve Crumbley, WOWI-Norfolk and WPDQ-Jacksonville. Steve says, "Our calls are across-the-board, 12-49, and looks like one of those you'll play so much you'll get sick of it." Kelly Karson, WTLC-Indianapolis, is getting calls from females of all ages.

Certified BABYFACE was our "check this out" record the week of June 19th, and it's coming home: Bill St. John, KIIZ-Killeen, has female adults calling for it. Stevie Collins, WBLQ-Erie, has sales as well as requests. In all, 63 stations are one it, with 35 playing it in heavy or medium rotation, resulting in a 55% Hit Factor. It's no wonder, since BABYFACE wrote "Rock Steady," "I'd Still Say Yes," SHALAMAR's current "Circumstantial Evidence," and is a member of THE DEELE. Stan Tompkins, WTOY-Roanoke, made THE DEELE his "Pick It Or Stick It" choice, and has had nothing but requests for it since, especially 12+. Terri Avery, KKDA-Dallas, says callers on the young-end are calling for it there. Frank

Barrow, KRIZ-Seattle, reports males, all demos phone there. Record To Watch, SALT-N-PEPA's "Tramp," is a rap-flavored version of the Otis Redding/Carla Thomas '60s hit by three ladies from Queens. Mickey Arnold, WRDW-Augusta, tells us young adults want to hear it, Steve Hegwood, KHYS-Pt. Arthur, says it's hot there, and he's not talking about the weather. Believers include WXYV/EM, WVEE, WGOK, WJIZ, WJTT, WRDW, WWIL, KCLT, KFXZ, WCKX, WWWS, WXOK, WZAK, KMJQ, and KDAY. Ciao 'til next week. Betty

By Betty Hollars and John Martinucci

COLONEL ABRAMS - How Soon We Forget (MCA) Unlike the other Colonel in the news this week, this one's back without any "Speculation." Here's a chance to combat the puberty-stricken female overload on our playlists with a strong Pendergrass/Vandross flavor.

PRINCE - U Got The Look (Paisley Park/Warner Bros.) Uptempo funky get-down beat is The Look For Summer for all you fashion-conscious readers. Holding court, His Royal Badness has granted audience to Sheila E. and Sheena Easton, with fab results.

DEBARGE - Dance All Night (Striped Horse) You could probably dance all day to this, too. Clubs should be looking for an extended mix, and the summer street kids will be steppin' out on this one.

CHILL FACTOR - Conversation (Warner Bros.) Dynamite intro! Or are those machine guns? The conversation is not what makes this, the instrumentation is. Reminiscent of "Freak-A-Holic."

SCHOOL'S OUT ◀

In Columbia, Tennessee, WRKM's annual School's Out Pool Party provided food, swimming and prizes for any listener who was willing. From left: morning man Mark Ramey, account exec Maria Wetherington, PD Gary Moss and night host Tracey Scott.

SAY VELVEETA ▶

THAT'S THE TICKET ◀

IDOL EYES ▶

BEAUTY ABOUNDS ▶

Miss North Carolina (with tiara) tells WFJA-Sanford PD/MD Bill Freeman he does not look a thing like Gary Hart. The confrontation took place at a local mall opening in which WFJA participated.

GOING WHERE NO RADIO ◀ STATION HAS GONE BEFORE

A group of K101/FM-Iowa City/Cedar Rapids listeners beam down to pick up their Arbitron diaries. PD J.D. Stewart notes that Iowa is the home state of Star Trek's Captain Kirk, but he got a little suspicious when Spock popped a brew and asked to meet Spuds McKenzie! The foolishness took place during the Kalona Days Parade sponsored by the station.

AND WHAT ABOUT ALL-NIGHTS?

Last week, I began a list of topics which a program director in the South suggested I write about in this column. This week I continue with these suggestions.

Overnight on AM--is it really worth it? Good question! And one that relates equally well to FM. Twenty-four hour operation can enhance a station's perceived reliability by "being there" whenever the listener tunes in...but in most market situations, there is a very small potential audience. Is there is a lot of all-night industry in your locality? Does the station have a wide-area nighttime signal? Is there potential for selling blocks of time to all-night businesses, or devising a "total audience" rate which includes an occasional spot in the all-night show?

Youth-oriented formats tend to pick up some listening from the regular audience during the all-night period, but the only older audiences are all-night workers and the elderly who cannot sleep well. I certainly don't think it's necessary to go 24 hours to avoid losing large amounts of audience, but if I were signing off each night, I'd try to do it at 1 a.m. or later, and sign on at 5:30 a.m. or sooner, to take full advantage of the audience flow and the way ratings are structured.

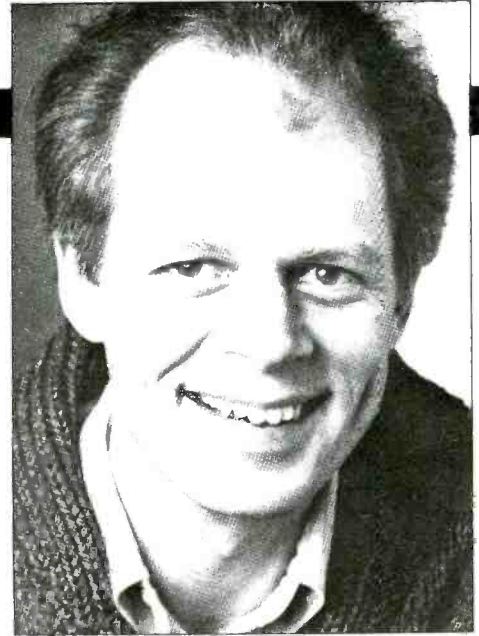

Another topic raised by my correspondent was the role of a program director. "I am aware of many staff members at various stations who think a PD has nothing to do but read magazines and listen to music," he wrote. "This is a gross injustice. When it comes to research, clearance reports, promotions, scheduling, etc., the job can be almost endless."

Well, that's true. Of course, such details can often be delegated, but be sure not just to slough off the "dirty work" on your staff--don't delegate away the very matters which you as a PD you are most responsible for--the format consistency of the station! The PD must build a team, but often instead of a team the PD winds up with cliques. Delegating in a even-handed way can be helpful to bulding and maintaining a team spirit if it is done properly. It may help your staff understand more of what your job entails, too!

"Image liners"--what's hot and what's not. How about the topicality of the language in posted liners? Surely they must speak in the language of the listener, whatever demographic or psycho-graphic they may be in, or they will have the opposite effect than desired. If the question relates to industry buzzwords, I have always found it most profitable to define my programming on the air in ways that may be out of fashion within the industry, but not with listeners. They have no idea what is "in" among imitative programmers. By avoiding "what's hot in the industry," you can confound your competitors because they won't understand what you're doing--and they get unnerved when it works! If they react to what you've done without understanding why it works, they may react in precisely the wrong way, completing the victory for your side. Plus, of course, listeners frequently do recognize and appreciate originality.

How about you? What are your responses to these same questions? The question about the advisability of all-night operation was particularly fascinating, I think, because in the nine years I've been writing this column, that question has never come up. Apparently for most people, doing so is one of the necessities of the business, whether it makes any sense from a business (or programming) standpoint, or not. For some stations, it's pointless--and for others it truly is a necessity. What's your experience? What do you think?

By avoiding "what's hot in the industry," you can confound your competitors because they won't understand what you're doing--and they get unnerved when it works!

WATERLOGGED ▲

No one can accuse Jay McKay of having a dry wit. The KAEZ/FM-Longview, WA, air personality set two simultaneous Guinness world's records--on the air. First he broke his own previous mark of 72 hours, by spending 74 hours sitting in a hot tub. The second record? Continuous JOKE TELLING - a new mark of 50 hours. Incredible, Jay, but you're dripping on the cart machine.

MORNING MENAGERIE ▼

FORMAL REMINDER

In cooperation with seven local rent-a-tux companies, CFX-Victoria, B.C., has come up with a "friendly reminder" about the dangers of drunk driving. The station is placing cards in the pockets of 2,000 formal jackets saying, "Be a friend...friends don't let friends drink and drive. From your friends at CFX." PD Terry Spence says, "With so many weddings and graduation ceremonies this time of year, we felt it was important to help spread the message."

SPOTLIGHT PROMOTION OF THE WEEK

THE ACT YOU'VE KNOWN FOR ALL THESE YEARS...

To raise money for The American Cancer Society, KILo-Colorado Springs morning man Red Noize helped to put on a benefit concert featuring his own band, Red Noize. Local groups like Yella Fever, Tom & The Terrifics, Band Of Doom, Lip Service, Auto No, and Tiny Barge & The Big Chill jumped on the bandwagon, and shared the billing on this familiar-looking poster with Max Headroom, Eric Clapton, The Fab Four, Lowell George, Rich Hawk, Alan White. Red Noize himself is second from left.

GET OUTA TOWN

Q107-Washington, DC, is going all out to make sure its listeners get the most out of summer. Concerts and summer party packs containing soda, suntan lotion, t-shirts, tickets and albums are only part of the picture. They're also sending their listeners across the Atlantic, giving away trips for two to Paris to see U2 in concert and London to see Genesis. Future prize destinations include Sydney, Hawaii and Los Angeles.

DAVE SHOLIN'S PERSONAL PICKS — SINGLES

GRATEFUL DEAD - Touch Of Grey (Arista) Toss aside all preconceived notions about this band. Praise the Lord, being a Deadhead is not a requirement for liking this highly commercial track. The release of the Dead's first album in seven years is an event sure to garner plenty of press, building increased interest on the part of the public. Here's one that's gotta be a plus for Top 40s looking to satisfy their adult audience.

THE OTHER ONES - Holiday (Virgin) All it takes is hearing the first verse - and waiting for it to repeat - to know this off-the-wall entry has a special quality. They're bound to love it in clubs and on the radio during vacation time '87.

CROSSOVER PICK

NATALIE COLE - Jump Start (Manhattan) She's already in high gear at Urban Contemporary radio, arriving at Top 40 power-charged for added momentum. Witnessing the dynamic comeback of this tremendous talent is indeed a pleasure.

RON FELL'S PERSONAL PICKS — ALBUMS

BOY GEORGE - "Sold" (Virgin)

I for one hope this album's music takes him out of the gossip columns and puts him back in the entertainment pages. Getting him off the street and into the studio is kinda like sending a trapeze artist back out on the high wire after a fall. Consider this album the first tentative steps—conservative and less experimental. The voice is occasionally scruffy. The writing is more collaborative than Culture Club's would have been. But the soul is willing and, with the help of Stewart Levine in the producer's chair, BG begins to step out. The album's leading single, EVERYTHING I OWN, has already had a spectacular run in Europe, and was a highly sought-after import Stateside before its U.S. release. The track FREEDOM sounds like a likely follow-up single, as does JUST AIN'T ENOUGH. Those who expect Boy George to tell all will have to read between the lines. Now, if we can get him to work without a net again.
