INSIDE TOP 40 by Dave Sholin

PBS recently featured a series called "Television," hosted by former network anchor Edwin Newman. Each program focused on TV's history in particular format such as Westerns, comedy, news, even MTV. It was fascinating to watch how the medium and the tastes of its audience changed through the years. There are numerous lessons to be learned in programming entertainment or information for mass consumption. In an episode about variety and game shows, Merv Griffin explained why two of his most successful shows--"Jeopardy" and "Wheel Of Fortune"--are so popular. He credits one factor: the game itself. Admitting that there are scores of games on TV giving away millions of dollars, he believes the prizes and the production are not what draws an audience but rather, "It all comes around to the game." In radio, it all comes around to showmanship and the people who put that show together. I'm sure we can all think of those once-"heavy" call letters which lost their luster once the key players departed. Simplicity and originality--as well as the creative people who are able to produce programming containing those two critical elements--continue to separate the winners from the runners-up.

It didn't take long for TERENCE TRENT D'ARBY to score his first Stateside top ten single. Now charted top ten by Z100 New York 16-10, Z94 Boston 18-9, 92X Columbus 20-10, Q104 Gadsden 13-8, BAM99 Montgomery 14-10, KPHR Rapid City 16-10, Y95 Dallas 11-2, KKQV Wichita Falls 12-6, KWSS San Jose 13-10, KITI Chehalis 13-10, KZZO Clovis 19-10, etc.

Excellent chart growth for PEBBLES evidenced by a HIT FACTOR increase of 55% to 71%. A long list of major moves led by WAVA 15-5, WKPE 19-10, WHIT 22-16, 100KHI 30-23, Z95.5 21-13, WCLG 22-14, WDJX 23-17, HOT 105 24-16, WZYQ 17-8, WROQ 24-17, WGBQ 20-12, WLXR 29-18, 106RTB 29-19, KUBE 24-14, KSND 26-14, KOWL 29-15, KKOS 31-22, KMOK 24-15, WLRW 29-15, WOVO 24-15, KZ103 21-13, etc.

Just about everyone playing WHITE LION is reporting heavy phone action which was the story right from the start. HIT FACTOR rises to 33% as it closes in on 200 stations. Now top twenty at KFTZ 22-15, KXUS 25-20, KDWB 26-18, B97 25-20, WMMS 21-16, WSPT 24-14, Z104 25-13, WJET 26-19, WVKZ 21-14, etc. Adds include Q105 Tampa, KLYV Dubuque, WHHY Montgomery, KKYS Bryan, KLBQ El Dorado, FM96 Valdosta, etc.

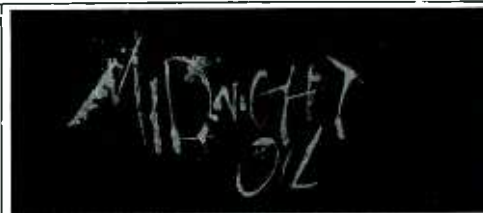

No contest for the highest debut this week, as FOREIGNER earns that distinction by a large margin. Noteworthy top thirty debuts Neil Todd for KJEZ #19, Bob Weber WLLI #23, Jack Alexander KKAZ #23, Jim Leven and Larry Clark WWFX #24, Stef Rybak and Jim Cruise KC101 #28, Cadillac Jack and Catfish Cooper KQID #18, Shane McIntosh WLZ #26, Dave Robbins WNCI #25, etc.

After building a nice base--including a top ten listing at early believer KMEL San Francisco--BRENDA RUSSELL bypasses CHARTBOUND for a healthy debut inside the top forty. HIT FACTOR is already 11% with gains at Z100 Portland 29-23, FM104 Modesto/Stockton 29-21, POWER 104 Houston 23-20, KQCR Cedar Rapids 27-22, WPST Trenton 28-22, etc. Adds include 93Q, G105, Y108, WDBR, KGRS, WHYT, Z95.5, KCIL, Z93, WFTW, KZZU, KPLZ, KKSS, KQLA, WPFM, etc.

One month ago MORRIS DAY became RECORD TO WATCH. Since then, his airplay has more than doubled, and he's piled up enough chart points to also skip by CHARTBOUND. Currently top ten at KMGX 3-3, B95 10-3, KITY 4-4, KHIT 13-7, KSTN 11-9, KKFR 5-5, etc. New on Z103 Tallahassee, EAGLE 106 Philadelphia, KROC Rochester, KUUB Bozeman, KVXO Spokane, etc.

ERIA FACHIN continues to pick up positives in several areas. Bruce Stevens at WBBQ Augusta is impressed by the fact that although "This isn't a big area for dance records, every time it's played we must get at least ten calls, mostly female adults 25 plus." Gains at KYOS 26-15, FM102 21-18, Q106 debut #29, POWER 99 26-24, WILI 27-19, HOT 103 26-21, PRO/FM 13-10, B95 27-23, POWER 106 25-22, etc.

What must be considered the most talked-about Alternative band so far this year, MIDNIGHT OIL, is taking their act to top 40 radio. Already top 5 at LIVE 105 they pick up 25 adds including KATD Los Gatos/San Jose, WMMS Cleveland, 99KG Salina, FM102 Sacramento, OK95 Tri-Cities, 100KHI Ocean City, Y94 Fargo/Moorhead, WDBR Springfield, etc. Charts #21 at CKOI Montreal and #40 Y95 Dallas.

Number-one listings at KSTN and KMEL help THE DEELE take off fast and show a hot 29% HIT FACTOR. Biggest moves at KWSS 25-17, KWES 33-19, KISN 22-15, POWER 106 30-21, Y95 37-18, KCPW 28-21, KKFR 12-8, etc. New on Q105, Z100, B104, WROQ, WKQB, G105, Q106, KPSI, Y108, WIZM, etc.

Rockers respond instantly to KINGDOM COME's evocation of the sound that put Zeppelin on the map. Top twenty at KXUS, KKAZ, and KKTX plus moves at WCIL 28-25, WGKS 33-29, WMMS 31-27, and debut #27 at POWER 105. Adds at WWFX, Y95, KRG, KKXL, WKLQ, WAGQ, etc.

Quick take-off for last week's RECORD TO WATCH, BRENDA K. STARR. Jeff Spencer at WILI/FM Willimantic reports top five requests after just one week of play. Steve Perun at Y100 Miami takes it 18-14 plus a 25-17 gain at KMEL. New on KIHK, POWER 99, PRO/FM, KWNZ, KCPX, KISN, B95, KMGX, Z93, WNYZ, 106X, KBBZ, KZZP, POWER 104, 93Q, KCPW, etc.

INSIDE A/C

Whitney Houston's new number one marks the fourth time in eight singles when she's gone to number one A/C. No single by Whitney has ever peaked lower than number seven on our chart.

Thirty-eight new HEAVY rotation reports take Louis Armstrong into the top five.

Gloria Estefan & Miami Sound Machine have taken the chart by tropical storm. An amazing 207 stations in four weeks, including 48 HEAVY rotation reports, tell a hot airplay story.

Art Garfunkel has climbed 12 rungs of the ladder these past two weeks. Sixty adds during that time and a 0% to 55% HIT FACTOR move.

Scarlett & Black is beginning to kick in A/C. Only seven adds last week, but 17 new this week. Included now are KKOB, WJON, KWAV/FM, KFMB, WHTX, KKHT, KYJC and WAHR.

Basia (pronounced Bosh-uh) is making a name for herself in A/C as she approaches 100 stations. Among the 44 stations with HIT FACTORED rotations are KBOL, KQIP, KVSF, WSER, KLDI, KLOG, WIUO, WASK and WSKY.

Brenda Russell's "Piano In The Dark" is beginning to see the light. With 44 adds the past two weeks, it's finally validating our February 5th RECORD TO WATCH designation.

As predicted, Foreigner has an absolute, stone-cold A/C smash with their ballad, "I Don't Want To Live Without You." Bed check will be two weeks from tonight. Anyone not on it by then will be AWOL.

Another former RECORD TO WATCH, "I Wasn't The One" by Agnetha Faltskog and Peter Cetera, joins Foreigner as this week's highest chart debuts. They did it with a 39% HIT FACTOR and 18 adds including KMWX, WGAD, KBLQ, KWLO and KTYL.

Last week's RECORD TO WATCH, "Shattered Dreams" by Johnny Hates Jazz, was probably this week's most talked-about record. It's this week's 2nd MOST ADDED record, tied with Fleetwood Mac at 43 adds. A single digit future is a lock.

This week's RECORD TO WATCH, "Always On My Mind" by The Pet Shop Boys, hasn't even begun to realize its ultimate A/C potential, but already on board are J107, KCMJ/FM, KGW, WMT/FM, KGY and KFYZ.

REVIEWS

by Ron Fell & Diane Rufer

RUBEN BLADES

Hopes On Hold (Elektra)

A question of trust, a matter of commitment to another. The riddle of a relationship brings with it a certain surrender in return for a possible truth. Mr. Blades may have his obsessions for the body politic, but his sensitivity towards warmer bodies and their own tender mercies is this wonderful song's bottom line. Though proudly Panamanian, his English phrasing convincingly conceals his Latin roots.

AL B. SURE!

Nite And Day (Warner Bros.)

A clean and cool groove shimmering with subtle studio technology and Al B.'s sure-thing vocal style tell a tale of a 60-minuteman who wants to be around 24 hours a day.

K.T. OSLIN

I'll Always Come Back (RCA)

Little Bo Peep will always come back to ewe. She's gonna put the boom back in boomerang. Faithful to a fault, she hoping wool be together again.

DAVID LANZ & PAUL SPEER

Desert Rain (Narada/MCA)

The track's blatant similarity to their previous success in A/C radio, "Behind The Waterfall," is actually an attractant. It's meditative, melodic and shamelessly charming. Phones for sure.

REGINA BELLE

How Could You Do It To Me (Columbia)

The critical acclaim accorded her debut solo album and the HIT FACTOR success of her duet with Peabo Bryson on "Without You" set her up for a winner all by herself.

GODLEY & CREME

A Little Piece of Heaven (Polydor/PolyGram)

Fifty percent of 10 cc visit a dude ranch and, while potentially out of their element, the dudes have made a campfire singalong, complete with harmonica. Could be big.

RUBÉN BLADES

BY KENT ZIMMERMAN

Though Ruben Bladés had already released Buscando America and Escenas on a major label, it was in his first movie, "Crossover Dreams," that he first astonished English-speaking audiences with his commanding presence. Rubén portrayed a Latin singer who hungered for Anglo acceptance, only to be devoured by the music industry and left devoid of his musical freedom and sense of community. While the movie contained few autobiographical parallels, Rubén's experiences with Willie Colon and Fania Records provided him with authentic life experiences to flesh out his character.

Rubén's appearance at this year's Gavin Seminar revealed the man behind that role--a mixture of steadfast idealism regarding music and politics and healthy self-mockery. Ruefully, he described how an offhand remark led "60 Minutes" to bill him as the self-proclaimed "future president of Panama." Nevertheless, the Harvard law graduate left no doubt about his political engagement, affirming that his future is in his native land, and not just as a musician.

As with his public statements, the music on Nothing But The Truth is an open window to his soul. He pulls no punches while he stubbornly and constantly questions authority.

Nothing But The Truth is a collection of solo efforts and collaborations with artists like Lou Reed, Elvis Costello and Sting--each of them contributing vital material and ideas. Unlike standard songwriting sessions, each Rubén Blades collaboration is the result of deep soul-searching. It was easy to get Rubén to go into emphatic detail on a few of the album's many highlights.

Juggling a successful musical reputation and an exploding acting career (he opens this week in Robert Redford's film adaptation of John Nichols' "Milagro Beanfield Wars"), Rubén Blades appears to be enjoying his time in the sun. Yet, as his homeland is racked by turmoil, this could also be Ruben's "calm before the storm."

"There was a time when ignorance made our innocence strong.

There was a time when we all thought we could do no wrong.

*There was a time, so long ago, there was a time...
But here we are, in the calm before the storm."*

Lou Reed & Rubén Blades--
"The Calm Before The Storm"

KZ: From the first listen, it's obvious that Nothing But The Truth isn't just an English-language remake of your last three albums. It is truly a departure for you.

RB: Yes. I wanted to have the freedom to explore different styles and situations, not rehash old songs. Nor am I in any way trying to patronize a new audience. I've never done that. I consider audiences intelligent enough to like or dislike something on their own without me having to load the dice.

KZ: Who is your audience these days?

RB: People who understand I am writing about life--about situations they are familiar with, that they know exist. I don't follow the easy road of cliché or repetitive formula. The people who like my work stay with me throughout my career. I don't have a fleeting fame situation. The true followers will read and listen to what I am saying, and they judge whether my integrity is intact. And that's what they'll do no matter what language I write in. They will not accept a lie from me. Nor will I attempt to lie to them in order to sell a record.

KZ: The album seems to examine a potpourri of emotions.

RB: If you really think about it, this whole album explores violence and love--violence that comes as a result of our incapacity to resolve problems in a way compatible with the needs we have and the way we expect others to deal with those needs. You have the violence of "The Hit." You have the violence of "In Salvador." And then there is the intellectual violence of "Ollie's Doo-Wop." You have the uncertainty of love in getting involved in a relationship in "Hopes On Hold." There is the tremendous difficulty of admitting love in "Shamed Into Love." Then there is the admission of affections without any reservations in "The Letter."

KZ: "The Letter" deals with AIDS. How did that song come about?

RB: If you consider the fact that AIDS is not only testing our immunological systems, but testing character and our capacity to have compassion, you will find that the problem that this disease presents is twofold. On the one hand it can kill the body, on the other hand it can poison the spirit. You cannot approach the problem of AIDS thinking, "Well, the people that get it deserve it because of their lifestyle." When you make that type of judgment, you are not being compassionate. You are not understanding the human and emotional level of the problem. If you make a judgment at the expense of the compassion that we should have for all human beings, then how can you show emotional concern for the people that you care about? I mention AIDS because it illustrates something that is happening right now. It really could have been anything.

KZ: "Letters To The Vatican" attacks another tough problem--the homeless.

RB: You have the issue of love when those people in that bar know they can't resolve Rosie's problem, but on the other hand, they don't abandon her. And that's what we see here with the homeless. We are not going to resolve the problem of the homeless by giving someone a dollar on the street or looking the other way, pretending they don't exist. There is a big lesson in "Letters To The Vatican." These people who are also down and out did not abandon one of their own, although they knew they could never resolve the problem that her madness presented. They held her until she stopped shaking. They were showing her the compassion that we seem to lack today for the people around us. That's what the whole record continues to stress.

KZ: What about in "The Hit," where you sing about "Papo the Hitman, Sweet Tyrone and the Perez Boys"?

RB: Those guys go out and kill somebody because that person betrayed them. We tend to look at things like that very objectively by saying, "A gangland murder occurred at such-and-such..." Look at the source of the problem: the inability to trust, love and share. In a way, we kill other people every day with our indifference--or at least we condemn them with our indifference. That fact that we are not pulling the trigger doesn't make us any less responsible.

KZ: And "The Calm Before The Storm"?

RB: Again, another example. We look at the things that no longer exist, such as the value of concepts. What does honor mean today? What does integrity mean today? What about honesty?

KZ: "Hopes On Hold," your collaboration with Lou Reed, is surprisingly tender.

RB: If you listen to Lou Reed's later albums, you're going to find that Lou has become much more comfortable admitting his own vulnerability and recognizing the value of being able to say, "I love you." He wrote that beautiful song where he's singing about being on the rooftop and he sees a light. He thinks about his love--his girl--and then he rushes down to tell her, only to find out that the light was something else. The song was "Tell It To Your Heart." That's a beautiful love song!

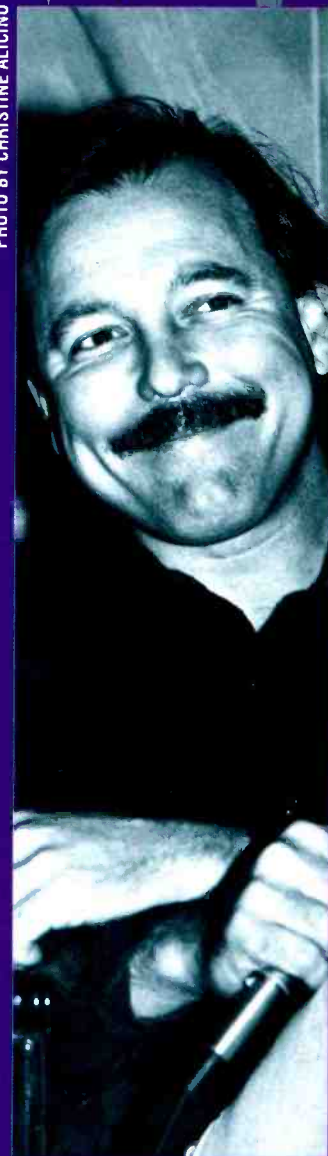

KZ: "Chameleon" is the most Latin-flavored track.

RB: I figured that if people like to dance, let them dance to this. Let them dance and think a little bit.

KZ: Is that possible?

RB: We do it in Latin America. This is a world controlled by the mediocre who try to shove down our throats preconceived notions of what we want and/or what they think we deserve. It tends to happen in cycles. The pendulum swings, and all of a sudden we find ourselves staring at the truth, a truth that, no matter how painful

SALES, PROMO STAFFS GROW VIRGIN BURGEONS

Virgin Records has made a slew of changes in its sales and promotions department, moving Jerre Hall to Midwest Regional Sales Manager and Diana Fried up to National Singles Coordinator, while adding Alex Miller as Northeast Regional Promotion Manager, Dave Watson as Great Lakes Regional Promotion Manager and Cary Vance as East Coast Dance Promotion Manager.

Miller had been National Album Promotion Coordinator for Atco Records; Watson comes from CBS Records. "Both Alex and Dave are important new additions and will enhance our efforts on a national basis," says Virgin VP/Promotion Phil Quartararo.

Vance, formerly of Vinylmania Records, will report to Iris Dillon, Director of National Alternative Promotion. "Cary knows the dance market from the ground up," says Dillon. "His knowledge will be the key in our ongoing efforts to break new and exciting acts."

BLEVINS GM AT KNEW/KSAN

Former Christal Radio Executive VP Bruce Blevins has been named GM of Country combo KSAN and KNEW in Oakland/San Francisco. "I'm really honored to be a part of these radio stations, and of Malrite Broadcasting," says Blevins. He adds that he is "laying out plans" for the stations' future, but promises they won't be too radical. "We're doing pretty well," he notes. Blevins comes crosstown from the VP/GM chair at KHIT, the Olympic Broadcasting outlet known as "The City" before dropping eclectic rock for Top 40 some months ago. KHIT is still technically in the process of a sale to Jim Gabbert, who is appealing the FCC's turn-down of the license transfer. KHIT programming consultant Brian Burns, however, is showing no signs of being a lame duck. He's brought in a live air staff, and looks like he's in for the long haul.

PD Kate Hayes, a holdover from "The City" era, has announced plans to head for Sacramento to take mornings on a new station to be put on the air by Duchoissois Broadcasting (owner of WHFS-Annapolis). She will also have the title of Assistant PD, working

Randy Hock

Ricky Schultz

Congratulations to Randy Hock and Ricky Schultz, both wearing new VP stripes at MCA Records. Hock has been named VP/Album Promotion, replacing Bill Bennett, who will soon announce details of his new role at MCA subsidiary UNI Records. Hock had been directing MCA's album efforts in NY. That job will now be handled out of Boston by Roman Mancinkiewicz.

Randall Kennedy
Ted Higashioka
Don Lucoff

Schultz's title is now Vice President of Jazz for the label, a promotion that reflects the integration into the label of Zebra Records, which he founded in 1984 and brought under the MCA umbrella a year later. "We consider Jazz an important business here," said MCA Records President Myron Roth, "and this way it can receive the same emphasis we give to all the other styles of music." The move means new titles for Schultz's Zebra staff: Randall Kennedy is MCA's National Director of Jazz Marketing. Ted Higashioka is National Director of Jazz Promotion; and Don Lucoff is National Director of Jazz Public Relations.

"Jazz is now part of the enumerated responsibilities of MCA marketing and promotion people," explained Schultz. "I am no longer the only person with bottom-line accountability." Making what he called a "bold statement," Schultz took some of the credit for the current major-label interest in Jazz. "If imitation is the sincerest form of flattery, I guess we feel flattered," he said.

BRADY MOVES TO MORNING CRAZY EDDIE EXITING KLAC

"I can't talk about it until April 1st," said KLAC-Los Angeles morning man Crazy Eddie Edwards when we confronted him with the rumor that he was headed for San Antonio, scene of the nation's newest and hottest Country radio battle. KLAC confirms that Eddie is exiting the Malrite outlet, to be replaced by midday host Jim Brady.

The situation in Alamo-land is, as they say, fluid. Both Country powerhouses, KAJA and KBUC, have new PDs as of this month—Mark Tudor at the former, Mike McCoy at the latter. A third player entered the fray last month, when NewCity Communications transformed A/C KLLS into KCYU, with Carl Becker at the programming helm.

with OM Alan Mason, a veteran of King Broadcasting. Managing the station will be Henry Grambergu, former GSM at WRIF-Detroit.

LEVIN JAZZED

Susan Levin, currently National Promotion Manager, A/C and Jazz, for EMI-Manhattan Records, has been named Director, Promotion & Marketing for its Jazz label, Blue Note Records. Levin, known as "Radar" to her three million closest friends, says she will also handle radio promotion for all Capitol Jazz product, starting with Shadowfax and Norman Connors. "I love it," she said of her new position. "Jazz is what got me into this business, and I'm very, very happy that I'm able to support myself because of it."

TOPS WAPW IN ARBITRENDS HOT NUMBERS FOR HOT 103

Less than two years after signing on as a dance-oriented Top 40, New York's HOT103/WQHT has moved into second place among the Big Apple's music stations. The latest Arbitrends show the station edging out POWER95/WAPW, and trailing only all-news WINS and Z100.

"Obviously, we were overjoyed," said PD Joel Salkowitz. "It's a pretty good testimonial to the staff." He credits the improvement to a slightly more mass-appeal orientation "and changes at POWER95 than may have caused people to look elsewhere."

For HOT103, the new frontier is a.m. drive. "We have a seven or eight share at night and about a 3.2 in the mornings," Salkowitz says. "Simple math will tell you that if we can get the people who listen at 7 at night to listen at 7 in the morning, we'll probably be number one."

Asked to envision a dream morning show, Salkowitz described "a couple or three people, topical and funny—not another Howard Stern—who can maintain the station's music image but also let some personality create an anchor in the morning, both for the upper demos and the rest of the cume."

GANIS VEEPED

"I have been with the Atlantic Records family for nine years, and we undoubtedly have the greatest promotion staff in the country," exulted a proud Andrea Ganis, discussing her new title of Vice President of National Pop Promotion. Ganis has been the label's Senior Director of National Singles Promotion since November, 1986. Senior VP Vince Faraci noted, "Andrea's enthusiasm, dedication and professionalism clearly play a vital part in our department's performance. It is with great joy that I acknowledge her accomplishments with this much-deserved promotion."

Promotions are a symbol of what the organization values.

BEFORE YOU PROMOTE SOMEONE...

Tell me who gets promoted in your organization, and I'll tell you a lot about the future health of the business. Promotions are terribly important because, regardless of level, we are putting someone in charge of human and capital resources. People who don't perform well after promotions not only foul themselves up, but also cause repercussions affecting many other aspects of the business.

I would go even further. Because that person has responsibility for critical resources that affect many segments of the business, "not fouling up" is not enough. We need to expect that person to galvanize those resources in the optimal way, so that the health of the business is distinctly improved as a result of the promotion. Whether the promotion is to a supervisor's position or to general manager of a division, the principle is the same: We're giving someone responsibilities for critical resources of the business, and in today's violently competitive marketplace, we must expect some "value added" for our efforts.

Another reason promotions are important is because they are a symbol of what the organization values. Since promotions are so visible and infrequent, everyone looks to see who gets promoted, and then makes assumptions about what's really considered important. For example, suppose management is trumpeting the importance of higher productivity and performance. Do promotions therefore go to people who have demonstrated those qualities--or do they go to people who have kept their noses clean, been around for a long time, and merely turned in an "acceptable" (i.e. mediocre) performance? Suppose management publicly insists that it is committed to the long-term viability and health of the business. Do promotions go to people who have a long-time horizon and the patience and love of the business to build it slowly and systematically? Or do they go to the analytically detached types who are primarily concerned with making the numbers look good on a quarterly basis? Suppose management is calling for renewed vigor in innovation and creativity, or sales, customer service or anything else. Do promotions therefore go to people who clearly exemplify those qualities? Unfortunately, the answer is often no. But the symbolic power of promotions is so great that, regardless of what management says it wants, people will look at management's actions--in this case, who gets promoted--and make their own conclusions about "what's really important around here."

Naturally, then, even if management doesn't really say anything about what's really important, people will figure it out just by looking at who's getting promoted. And what they figure out may not be what management would like them to figure out. Even worse, if there is no rhyme or reason to the promotions--sometimes it's an innovator, sometimes an apple-polisher, sometimes a new go-getter, sometimes an old-timer who's just logged the years--then people don't know what is important, or what the organization really stands for. Accordingly, they become confused, frustrated and cynical, and the health of the organization ultimately suffers.

The point of this discussion is to illustrate that promotions at all levels are much more important than we often realize. We must therefore give careful--even obsessive--attention to whom we promote and why. Let's consider this point a bit further.

Whom do we ordinarily promote? Often, it's the person who we feel merits a reward for doing a superlative job in his or her current job, or has the requisite technical skills and experience. Or it could be someone who's simply been around for a long time, played his or her political cards right, or simply stayed out of trouble.

It should be clear that I am far less sympathetic to the latter three reasons than I am to the first two. Promotions are simply too important, and today's organizations can't afford the luxury of promoting anyone but the very best.

But what is "the very best"? Even the first two reasons--reward for merit and experience/skills--may not be enough. There is another criterion we should consider--one that unfortunately is rarely considered in a serious or systematic manner. Yet it may be the most important thing we should look at when we are deciding whom to promote. I hate to leave you hanging, but I'm afraid that must remain the subject of our next discussion. ■

by RON FELL

TERENCE TRENT D'ARBY

His last name is actually Darby. He says he added the apostrophe to give his name "some flair."

TALKING HEADS

Chris Frantz and Tina Weymouth are working on another Tom Tom Club album and expect to tour this summer in advance of the next Talking Heads project. Jerry Harrison plans a Casual Gods tour as well this summer, and David Byrne is already at work on the soundtrack for another film, "The Forest."

DONALD FAGEN

"Century's End" from "Bright Lights, Big City," is not his first song for film. He wrote and performed the theme from the 1978 movie "FM." It was the last we heard from his duopoly, Steely Dan.

RICHARD MARX

His voice has been heard in numerous television commercials, including a recent spot for Nestle's Crunch.

PATRICK SWAYZE

In his upcoming film, "Roadhouse," he portrays a nightclub bouncer.

SUAVE'

This 22-year old Los Angeles native is the son of Waymond Anderson, Sr., a member of the soul/disco group, GQ.

BEACH BOYS

Their long-lost "Smile" session tapes have been found and are being remixed and edited by Brian Wilson for a probable summer release. Fragments of these 1965-66 sessions became part of the band's Pet Sounds album.

MICKY GILLEY

The Urban Cowboy has signed with a new record label, Airborne Records, and will soon release an album produced with the help of Larry Butler.

MICHAEL JOHNSON

At the age of 21, Michael went to Barcelona, Spain, to study classical guitar with the legendary Graciano Tarrago.

JENNIFER HALL

A graduate of Cambridge University, she's the daughter of actress Leslie Caron and Sir Peter Hall, Director of Britain's National Theatre.

CHER

The Barbara Walters TV special on Oscar night, April 11, will include an interview with Cher.

JOE JACKSON

His next album will be a two-record compilation of live performances recorded between 1980 and 1986.

OMD

Their latest album, The Best of OMD, is a chronological history of their first ten years together. The first seven albums represent what Andy McCluskey and Paul Humphreys refer to as "Phase One."

STACY Q

Her real last name is Swain. She was a vocalist for a group called SSQ, which recorded an album for EMI-America in 1983.

KEITH SWEAT

His current success as a recording star has forced him to take a leave of absence from his employer of the last four years, the New York stock brokerage house of Paine Webber.

JEAN CARNE

Early in her career, she toured and recorded as a backup singer for Earth, Wind & Fire and Duke Ellington.

THE FALL

NOTHING BUT THE TRUTH-RUBEN BLADES (ELEKTRA)

Nothing But The Truth is a risky presentation. By generously drawing from the entire spectrum of formats (since Blades refuses to be limited by format), here is an album that can be appreciated not only by an extraordinarily wide demographic, but on as many levels as you care to scratch through. A song like "The Hit" could likely appeal to those who appreciate a "street epic" in the same vein as a Bruce Springsteen storyboard. But beneath the deceptively simple verse, lies the other layers of the onion. The characters and situations are, at times, allegories for many of the principal issues that plague (or even enrich) our troubled society. When it comes to the instrumentation, that's where the risk enters the picture. By defiantly not conforming to either a strictly rock or pop format, Blades challenges his listeners in a way that is rare. While Blades did leave himself open to his collaborator's influences, there is a central power that displays the man's stubborn demeanor. My favorite track is the Lou Reed/Ruben Blades love song, "Hopes On Hold." It is a tightrope walk sans the safety net. Other trax: "Letters To The Vatican," "The Miranda Syndrome" and the ominous "The Calm Before The Storm." Listen hard, because there's blood on the tracks.

THE BEARS RISE AND SHINE

RISE AND SHINE-THE BEARS (PMRC/IRS)

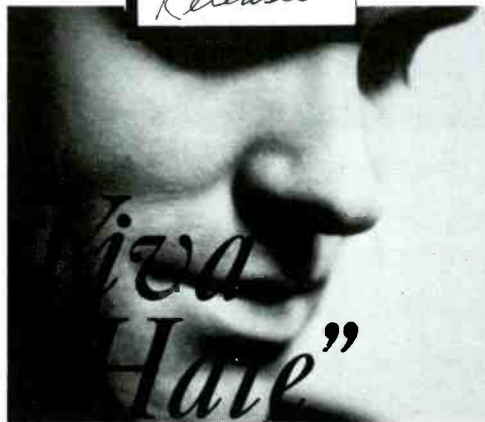

An instantly likable piece of work. "Aches And Pains" (serviced as the single) is good naturedly cluttered with a few pleasant diversions, held down with a steady backbeat. As the album unfolds, the concept of the Bears as a democratic-sounding quartet becomes all the more believable. Though I've always admired Adrian Belew's talents as a front man, he excels as a team player. Trax like "Save Me" and "Not Worlds Apart" show that sometimes four heads are better than one. The Bears' playing is tight with the crisp digital recording capturing all the subtleties. This is smart music, though certainly not overly highbrow or artsy.

RAINTOWN-DEACON BLUES (COLUMBIA)

Like Paul Carrack's early work with Ace, Deacon Blues shows a deep reverence for blue-eyed soul and American music structures. While "Dignity" begins to cast its spell on programmers across the country, I see a song like "When Will You Make My Telephone Ring" casting an even larger, more foreboding shadow. Deacon Blues remind me a lot of Prefab Sprout. Both bands wear their appreciation of Americana like black market Levis.

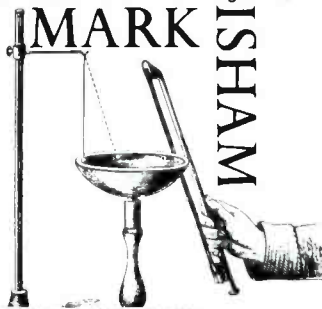

NEW

VIVA HATE-MORRISSEY (SIRE/REPRISE)

Here is an unabashed triumph. Now on his own, Morrissey proves his worth as a prolific journeyman of verse and mood. Vini Reilly (the guitar master of Durutti Column) makes his debut into the "pop" field with shining results. While Morrissey croons, Reilly takes bold stabs at simulating lunar landings with sweeping chord work. Together they thrust the art of rock sadness and emotional depth into new unspeakable realms. Unafraid of nakedness, the verses explore forbidden areas. All that stands between the music and the listener is absolutely nothing. Trax: "Late Night, Maudlin Street," "Suedehead," "Margaret On The Guillotine," "Everyday Is Like Sunday," and the frantic "I Don't Mind If You Forget Me."

CASTALIA-MARK ISHAM (VIRGIN)

Mark Isham crawls out from under the "new age" dogpile to record a spirited jazz-textured project. His non-vibrato trumpet tone may remind you of Miles, but Isham definitely has ideas of his own. "The Ground Parade" gives Castalia a grand entrance. Guest players like Mick Karn, Patrick O'Hearn and the great David Torn make Isham's debut as a "Virgin" something to get excited about.

"10 MEN WORKING"-NEIL YOUNG (REPRISE)

Back home on ole Reprise, Neil Young takes a liking to the blues, choosing to play them working class style. Leaning heavily on a fat horn section, Young retains his eccentricity even within the 12-bar blues format. The longer version features an extended avant-garde blues guitar solo.

"LOVE CHANGES EVERYTHING"-HONEYMOON SUITE (WARNER BROS.)

On the other side of the coin from Glass Tiger, Honeymoon Suite pulls out more hardware, getting their mainstream message across like gangbusters. This track rivals Foreigner when it comes to mixing melody and hard rock. This is aggressive, hit-oriented material.

"I'M STILL SEARCHING"-GLASS TIGER

(EMI-MANHATTAN)

Glass Tiger maintain their relationship with producer/Bryan Adams collaborator Jim Vallance as the chemistry continues to make creative waves. "I'm Still Searching" is a gritty, uptempo number designed for rock radio. It's good to see Glass Tiger not playing it safe.

GREEN THOUGHTS-SMITHEREENS

(ENIGMA/CAPITOL)

Whatever "Green Thoughts" may mean, it certainly doesn't mean "green" as in inexperienced. Smithereens play like seasoned veterans cognizant of where they've been, sure of where they're going. Still, this album is a milestone of self-confidence for a band at this stage of their career. As songwriters, they are quite capable of filling two sides (or one CD) with viable and expressive rock n roll. While some songs succeed more than others, I don't hear one throwaway in the crowd. Trax like "Only A Memory," "The World We Know," "Drown In My Own Tears 2" (number one being Ray Charles' epic tearjerker) and "Deep Black" make for a deep sophomore effort. This is a critical phase in a young band's career. I give them credit for entering it with an impressive cache of songs so revealing and close to the heart.

"BODY & SOUL"-JENNY MORRIS (ATLANTIC)

Produced by Andrew Farris of INXS, Jenny Morris mixes it up with a cranked-up rock dance song suitable for framing. The instrumental track boasts a percussive motion while the vocals are sure but sultry.

MORRISSEY

"Viva Hate"

(1/4/2-25699)

The highly-anticipated solo album from the former lead singer of The Smiths.

Featuring

(12" 0-20877)

It's Morrissey alone, and with stunning results. As the single "Suedehead" garners mass attention at alternative radio, the James Dean-inspired video promises to put Morrissey where he rightfully belongs: first and foremost in mind, heart and chart.

INSIDE ALBUM

NEW ARTIST ALERT. As we close out the first quarter of 1988, it looks like this year (or at least early '88) is shaping up to be a building year for new artists. As such acts as The Church, Midnight Oil, Henry Lee Summer, Balaam & The Angel, Kingdom Come, Smithereens and Sinead O'Connor continue to not only invade our Top 25, but actually hold on for weeks at a time, bear in mind the old weightlifting/health club axiom, "No pain, no gain." So as you tally up those retail reports, don't forget that it takes time for these new band to "sell through." However, as classic rock continues to maintain its grip on Album Radio's hallowed reputation, acts like these may save our format from its own obsolescence. In his recent NARM keynote address, CBS Records President Al Teller had some harsh observations regarding Album Radio. Teller observed: "With an ever-shrinking number of exceptions, AOR is not the first place to look for new artists, to discover new music. AOR has largely become COR--'catalog-oriented radio.'" That the head of a major label singles out a radio format is alarming. Teller could easily be contented with moving low-overhead catalog. Yet looking at the big picture, the importance of new music is yet again becoming a major issue, a thorn in the side of the status quo. Frankly, I applaud Teller's honesty. I also agree with his assessment of Alternative Radio (a term he used to openly eschew). "I urge you to pay close attention to and strongly support the college and alternative formats. They are the cutting edge of rock radio today and could well be the rock-radio mainstream of tomorrow."

HAPPY BIRTHDAY KILO. KILO- Colorado Springs celebrated its 10th birthday with homecoming reunions with alumni Doug Clifton and Art Phillips. According to Alan White, one of the chestnuts dug from the archive was an old Huey Lewis interview, pre-Sports.

AROUND THE HORN. In addition to signing the Doobie Brothers (consisting of the original line-up before the Michael McDonald era), Capitol has signed Dave Edmunds and Shadowfax...Says WDHA's Mike Boyle: "Here comes a pretty bold statement...if you're not playing Tracy Chapman's 'Fast Car', you should hang up your headphones"...In reporting this week's KBCO adds, Ginger Havlat sounded like she was reciting the Seven Dwarfs, "Joni, Tracy, Christy, Ziggy, Willy and Mighty--that is, Joni Mitchell, Tracy Chapman, Christy Moore, Ziggy Marley, Willy DeVille and the Mighty Lemon Drops"... Charlie Turner of WKXE-White River Junction, VT, broke it to me first. There is a new Leonard Cohen song called "Ain't No Cure For Love." On CBS, says Charlie, "The contrast between the black background singers and Leonard's voice is astounding"... KROQ adds the Surf Punks' "Ballroom Blitz" (an LA fave by The Sweet), EIEIO's "Andy Warhol's Dead", Tracy Chapman and Talking Head's "Totally Nude"... A tired Rick Alan of KKEG-Fayetteville, AR, in a weary voice, copped to the middle-of-the-night interruptions of his newborn son. "He's practicing towards being an all-night jock. He's a bit of a screamer, but I'm working with him." AWWWWW...WHFS's David Einstein had a unique problem. When calling in his report, he noticed he was reading from the wrong playlist. Unfortunately, the right playlist was being sat on by a guest in the studio who was performing live, acoustically, on the air. "I just can't barge in there and interrupt." The good news was that the performers were Michelle-Shocked and Clive Gregson. You may remember Clive from Any Trouble. You may remember Michelle from the Gavin New Artist issue of last July. Shock, the Texas folk star of Europe, has just signed with PolyGram. They will release her classic Texas Campfire Tapes in a few short weeks. Recorded under a tree with a single Sony microphone, Shocked showed signs of becoming a major songwriter of the '80s. Suzanne Vega, look out She's now working on her studio debut with Dwight Yoakam's producer, Pete Anderson. Stay well. Yer pal, KZ.

INSIDE ALTERNATIVE RADIO

by Peter Standish

The Church have shown the endurance of a cross-country skier but they only have one obstacle and that's Robyn Hitchcock. The Church may eventually triumph, unless new arrival The Mighty Lemon Drops disrupt the intimate month-long struggle these top two have endured. Mega-Lemon Drop response is reported by Jim Keller-KJET and Kandy Wilkens-WXCI ("#1 in response"). The Talking Heads are building a potential #1 profile and attracted the most comments this week including Jamey Karr-KACV, Mike Summers-KJQN, Jetson-WOXY, Tim Zeigler-KUSF ("our #1 record"), James Lien-WTUL (preparing for their big annual marathon fundraiser this week), Josh Rosenthal-WCDB, Eric Broome-KUCI ("their best album since Remain In Light"), Mark Miller-KABL, Deb Brady-WXXP and Valarie Pittman-WRAS ("lots of phones"). Morrissey is an easy top five record and is also lighting up Alternative phones for Kakie Urch-WRFL, Susan Kennedy-WWVU ("Everybody loves him"), Ivar Hamilton-CFNY, Mike Marrone-WHTG ("exploding...completely out of control... most requested by more than triple over the next record"). Wire is another major mover with the single drawing raves from Faith Henschell-KCMU, Mike "Bud" Thomas-WMDK, Doris Duwe-WTSR, Lisa Securo-WUNH and John Koski-WRVU ("tons of requests and #10 airplay in one week!"). Most Added last week, The Smithereens are our highest debut. Treat Her Right gets the royal treatment with a ten-spot leap and a chart point surge of 10%. The Mission UK are our other Certified debut, with most everyone expecting big gains for "Children" on their playlists. Our Record To Watch is Christy Moore who was 3rd Most Added last week and improved his chart points by over 50% with bipartisan support from both commercial and college stations.

SPOTLIGHT LP

In Full Effect - MANTRONIX (Capitol)
Mantronix have stitched together a huge quilt of urban underground fans, making them one of the most influential funk/hip-hop bands around. Backed by sophisticated rhythms and harmonious vocals, their music is more than just a drum machine with voices. "Gangster Boogie" and "Join Me Please" are my favorite Go-Go Crankin' rhythm cuts. Also worth a spin are "Get Stupid" (Trevor Horn street music?) and "Simple Simon."

"The Big Apple Rotten To The Core" Vol. 2 - Compilation (Raw Power)
For weeks, Alternative music maverick Mike Marrone, MD at WHTG-Asbury Park, has been lobbying me about "Nightmare At Noon," the Ism track on this album. I can hear why it's one of his stations most-requested songs. While it may not make revolutionary musical statements, it's a sort of straightforward garage pop with a compact hook. "Nightmare" is also available as a 12" single. This compilation album is jam-packed with other quality tracks like Norman Bates & The Showerheads' "Young Punks In Lust" and "Tarantula," Ed Gein's Car's "Turning In The Folks" and "Annette." My favorite track is the Bunker's Boys' "Magical Spot", which has a partying ("drinking Mickey's Big Mouth") and fatalistic mood. Call Raw Power at (718) 631-3868.

SPOTLIGHT PROMOTION OF THE WEEK

A BIRTHDAY CELEBRATION

Tony Terry gives us a thumbs up at the First Anniversary Party for KISS 102-New Bern, NC. Over 3,000 people jammed the event, which featured performances by Terry, Joyce Sims, Soft Touch, Lillo Thomas and others. KISS 102 listeners attending the show donated canned goods for the local Salvation Army, and were treated to an autograph signing party while they mingled with the performers.

◀ TOYS FOR JOY

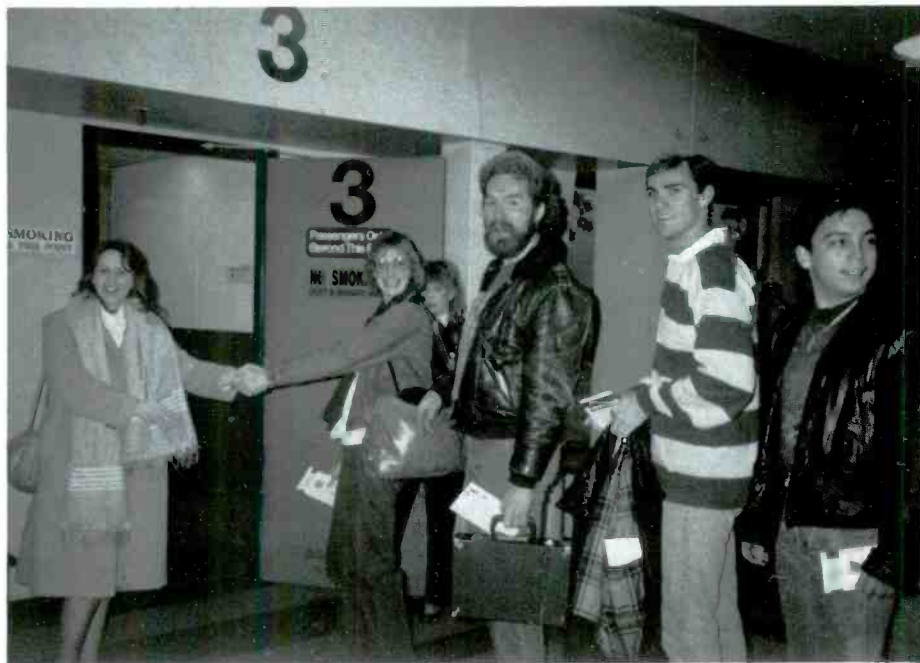

Staffers at KBUF-Garden City, KS, play Santa as they load up their van with gifts for less fortunate children. The KBUF air staff asked listeners for donations of toys and money, with a goal of $1,030 in total donations. They more than reached their goal with over $1,500, went on a giant shopping trip, wrapped all the packages and delivered them through the Salvation Army's Christmas store. From left: GM Scott Smith, Salvation Army Lt. Greg Voller, MD Lory Williams, PD Jesse Morgan and (kneeling) air talent Phil Weaver.

FLYING TO FLOYD ▶

Spirit 99-Spokane's Lisa Moon (left) bids farewell as 15 "Fly To Floyd" winners and their guests winged their way to the Pink Floyd concert in Seattle. The winners were chosen by being the ninth caller correctly identifying a Pink Floyd song during their daily "99 Minute Music Marathon."

If you don't use your brain, somebody else is going to use it for you. If you cannot distinguish between fantasy and reality, you become a victim of the fantasy.

the results, we helped to create. That's why I ask in the song, "What color are you wearing today?" What is your excuse today? Are you thinking with your stomach all of the time, even when you don't have to? What channel is your heart tuning into today, or are you disconnected? Are you on hold or are you on?

KZ: You and Elvis Costello tackle stereotypes in "The Miranda Syndrome."

RB: We tried to show that people who are entertained and distracted by stereotypes become the victims as well. While you are busy being entertained by stereotypes created by people who are in control and want to remain in control, you lose control of the truth. That loss of control is then utilized by the people in "the room without windows" to extract reactions that will benefit their view and their control. "Rooms without windows" can be the government agencies or anything that acts to advance special interests that don't necessarily correspond with the general interest. That's why we used the line, "Why don't you speak the way she spoke?" There is obviously a lack of understanding over what is a stereotype and what is reality. So you lose control of your own life. If you don't use your brain, somebody else is going to use it for you. If you cannot distinguish between fantasy and reality, although you may be distracted by the fantasy, you also become a victim of the fantasy. Eventually, those in control are questioned. You think you're John Wayne? Where are your spurs? You won't buy a mutt, so you bought a police dog? Where is its police badge? This is the land of rich and honey. Where is your oil well, pal?

KZ: Was "The Miranda Syndrome" born out of a serious discussion between you and Elvis Costello?

RB: Yes! To be a good songwriter, you have to be a well-informed person. So we discussed! And out of the discussion, points of view arose. Usually songs are written when something goes number one, you get the record and copy it. "Let's use the lick that worked in 'Every Breath You Take.' Let's sing like so and so. Let's get the number one producer that has the Top Forty hit of the moment and let's cut a record!"

KZ: When you and Lou Reed wrote "Hopes On Hold," another very deep discussion must have taken place.

RB: I came out with a melody and the root of the song. Both of us feel that when you address the subject of love, you must address all the angles and complexities of affection. It is very honest to say, "I don't know if I should get into this relationship. On the other hand, if I don't, my feelings are going to die. What is more important, my fear, my feelings or my need for affection?" Now you have an interesting and very seldom presented aspect of the mystery of love, instead of singing, "OH BABY, COME WITH ME AND I'M GONNA SHOW YOU WHAT LOVE IS!!! WITHOUT YOU, BABY, I'LL DIE!" You won't die! You won't even have a fucking headache! C'mon! There are nine million insincere love songs out there. Who needs another?

KZ: So we're talking about a bottom-line emotional reality.

RB: In a way we're dealing with the conflict of the appearance of love, which is very real. But because it's real and not a cliché, people tend to want to write a song not dealing with that question. A song that says, "I'M IN CONTROL! HEY BITCH, YOU HURT ME AND I'M GONNA SHOW YOU." All those things are part of points of view of love, but what about the doubt? Very few people deal with that.

KZ: So the collaborations were an essential center focus for this album.

RB: Yes they were. We were learning things about ourselves. We didn't casually sit down, sip champagne and off-handedly resort to stereotypical ways of writing a song. We had discussions about all kinds of things. I would like, someday, to write with someone like Paul Simon. Paul was willing, but he could not due to his own commitments. Maybe we could sing a duet. But I didn't want to record a duet on this album because that seemed like a traditional formula move: "Let's have a duet! Let's put so-and-so with so-and-so." I didn't want that.

KZ: How did Sting's song end up on this album?

RB: I was supposed to get together with him and write, but he's very busy doing movies, records, and it's very difficult for him. I didn't hear back from him until almost a year after the letters were sent to people asking if they would consider collaborating on this record. To Sting's credit, he answered, sending a song he'd written and saying, "Re-write it if you want. Write additional passages if you want. I would be honored if you did that." But I heard the song and didn't feel there was anything for me to touch. I wasn't going to force myself to write something for the sake of saying, "Oh, yeah, Sting and I wrote a song." If we ever write together--and I hope we someday will--I'd like to do it with him, as I did with Lou and Elvis.

KZ: You sound shockingly like Elvis Costello when you begin singing "Shamed Into Love."

RB: (laughs) I think it has to do with the fact that it's very definitely an Elvis Costello melody. He thinks I have a better voice than he does. But he was influential in the final shape of "The Miranda Syndrome" and "Shamed Into Love." In retrospect, I should have made Elvis the producer of those two songs, as I did with the other people I wrote with. Maybe next time. But he was very instrumental in defining the shape of the arrangements. Please make note of that.

KZ: You sound like a different singer when you sing in English.

RB: I should imagine that it comes from the different manifestation of emotion, using a different language. Remember, when you record with someone, you are both a beneficiary and victim of influences. Working with Elvis Costello, at one point, I heard myself talking a little British, eh? (speaks in a Panamanian/English accent). That happens when you live five days with one guy, and that's all you hear. You unconsciously begin to sound like the other person, especially if you have a musical ear or if you tend to agree with what that other person is saying. It's almost a way of becoming one. Aside from that, there are lots of influences from listening to lots of English music.

KZ: On your third Elektra album, Agua de Luna, you worked with Gabriel Garcia Marquez, the Mexican poet who won the Nobel Prize for literature.

RB: We got along very well. Although we come from different countries, and although there is a difference in age, we both live in the same emotional continent where age is not important, and background is all that matters. I told him I was going to make some "dancing literature" and hoped that people would start reading him more, especially those who don't know of him in both the Latin and English-speaking communities. He liked the album immensely. He was singing bits and pieces to me the last time I saw him.

KZ: Do you think your music had any impact on his writing?

RB: I doubt it. He has had all the influences he needs. Perhaps, though, at some level, we all nurture each other's ideas. I'm sure that Gabriel's humility and his character would permit him to be influenced by what he sees around him, no matter where it comes from. But I'm not going to be as arrogant as to say that I actually influenced him.

KZ: Yet I felt your musical interpretations of his writing evoked the same odd mix of psychedelic mythology and street reality.

RB: What happens is that we are born in surrealism. We are not afraid of the absurd. Not only do we understand the absurd, but also, it doesn't frighten us.

KZ: I found it ironic that the character you portrayed in "Crossover Dreams" was almost the antithesis of Ruben Blades.

RB: The problems the character in the film had--I would never in my life have made any of those mistakes. In terms of character, I had an emotional background that he lacked. (Director) Leon Ischaso wanted to do a film capitalizing on my music and on the fact that I could carry a movie. He was interested in the Latin scene. That's how it all happened. For me, it was very good because it showed that I could "carry a movie." At the time, I didn't even know what they meant by that.

KZ: Still, you have a hard-line philosophy regarding radio crossover.

RB: I don't believe in that crossing-over nonsense. I refuse to accept the official differences that have been established by prejudice disguised as commercialism. I'm not going to accept this nonsense that in order to be played on a certain radio station, I have to play music that is identified by race or cultural background. Some people may think, "This is not entirely a rock album, so we can't play this record." Without even hearing it? Without considering whether it's good or not? Without considering that some of it might be worthwhile for people to listen to? I'm not going to accept that.

KZ: Top Forty seems to judge things solely on whether a song is good.

RB: Then it's about time! But you still have all those formats in radio. What's the next thing--a radio with a white person instead of a dial number? Then a black person, then a Latino, so on and so forth, instead of numbers on the dial? Is that what we're coming down to now?

KZ: Above and beyond Top Forty and maybe A/C or Alternative, I guess the answer is yes.

RB: Well, I'm not gonna go for that shit. I'm going to continue to do albums the way each song should be dealt with. Who are these people to determine value and what it is that the audience wants to hear? Who gave them that right? How do we know they're right? Who questions them? I think it's the most offensive thing in this country that you have race dials. If that's not another extension of racism, I don't know what is.

KZ: I understand that Bruce Lundvall, who's now with EMI-Manhattan, signed you to Elektra.

RB: Yes, and I'm very proud to be on that label. If I ever in my life leave that company for whatever reasons, let it be on the record that I think that they are an example of what a label should be. I was the first Latin artist signed by WEA in a long time, certainly the first on Elektra. They treated my albums in Spanish with respect. They gave them the same media distribution as their English-speaking artists. Even though they entered a market with distributing that they didn't understand, they tried. And when it came to this English album, nobody from the company--neither Bob Krasnow or anybody--ever told me what to record. Not once! In today's situation where artists are being packaged as if they were a jar of mayonnaise, I find it a tremendous privilege to be involved with such a company, in the company of people and artists that they have.

KZ: So while most artists find that when they sign with a major label, it's time to climb into the mayonnaise jar, you feel your experience is different.

RB: It's not what I think! Go look at it! Look at the heavy metal bands. Tell a heavy metal band to record something that is not expected of them. Everybody has this expectation that they have to look one way or sound one way. My feeling is that a lot of artists don't have the freedom because the company has commercial expectations. That is, unfortunately, a consequence of the existence of formats on radio. If a song is too white, it's not going to get played on black radio, and if it's too black, it will not get played on white radio.

KZ: Your last few songs have been recorded digitally. That's a financial and technological commitment that not a lot of artists have been getting for the past three years.

RB: I'm very disciplined. When I walk into a studio, I know what I'm doing. I only know one other artist firsthand who does that, and that's Joe Jackson. I have the utmost respect for Joe and his integrity.

KZ: Any trouble finding quality movie roles?

RB: I haven't found it that hard. I feel terrible saying that, knowing how many people find it so hard even getting into a damn agent's office. I turn down a lot of roles because I may not like the attitude of the company that I was dealing with, or the role was one-dimensional and offensive in terms of my background.

KZ: You must get a lot of crappy scripts.

RB: In a way, it's our own fault. I've been in Los Angeles for almost two years, and one thing that I've learned is that we Latinos must write our own screenplays. So I'm beginning to write my own screenplay.

KZ: You've already finished a Spanish album with your band as well.

RB: Yes. And I went back to the trombones. It's called Antecedente--"Antecedent" in English. I'm going back to the horns for this one album only. The next one, I might use a group from India. (laughs) I don't know. I'm not going to get painted into a corner. I'm not going to get into a number that has marked the end of many an artist.

KZ: I guess after people read this, they'll understand why the album is called Nothing But The Truth. You don't hold back.

RB: I wasn't trying to be arrogant or pompous. I'm not saying I know the truth, and you don't. That's not what I mean at all. This is the way I see things. I'm not bullshitting you. I'm not trying to patronize you. I'm not trying to be insincere to sell a record. This is the way I look at life. You be the judge. ●

INSIDE COUNTRY

AND THE WINNER IS...There weren't a lot of surprises at this year's Academy of Country Music awards. Hank Jr. won the Entertainer of the Year honors for the second time in a row. Randy Travis walked away with three awards - Top Male Vocalist, Single & Song of the Year ("Always and Forever"). Reba was once again Top Female Vocalist. New-comer K.T. Oslin stole the show and two awards (Top New Female Vocalist and Best Video), and Ricky Van Shelton stole some female hearts as he accepted the Top New Male Vocalist award. Other winners included Highway 101 as Best Group, The Judds as Best Duo, and Dolly, Linda & Emmylou's Trio as Best Album. One of the highlights of the evening was when Dwight Yoakam sang with his idol Buck Owens. Another was when Roger Miller was honored with the Pioneer Award.

COUNTRY CHANGES. John Gatlin informs us that WKNZ has just moved into beautiful new studios right in the heart of Hattiesburg. Their new address is Route 15, Box 667 - Hattiesburg, MS 39402...Rick Young has returned to KCMJ

AM in Palm Springs as MD...And finally, Wayne Ball has been named the new Music Director at WAAX-Gadsden. Jim Pruett remains PD.

WHICH TO PLAY, SIDE B OR A? For those of you who listened to the Louise Mandrell single and decided you liked the B side with Eric Carmen better you're not alone. Our friend Jeannie Ghent from Mandrell Management tells us they've decided to work the B side because it's gotten such positive response. If the tune sounds familiar, it's probably because it's the theme to the TV series "Growing Pains."

PROGRAMMERS ARE TALKING ABOUT...Joe Langdon at KYXE-Selah/Yakima has gotten instant audience acceptance to the new Southern Pacific. He's predicting, "This will be a big one here"...Clif Desmond at WTRS-Dunnellon reported a lot of requests on Jeff Chance...One of our newest reporters, T.C. Webster at WGMR-State College, PA, tells us the "What'll You Do About Me" cut from Randy Travis' LP is his #1 request ...Paul Proctor at KYSS-Missoula is already picking up hot requests for Tanya Tucker's new single. "Women love this one" adds Paul...

Talk to you next week. The Gavin Country Crew

INSIDE URBAN RADIO

TERENCE TRENT D'ARBY replaces MICHAEL JACKSON at number one after Michael's two-week stint at the top. It was gratifying to see "Man In The Mirror" reach number one and stay there two weeks, since Michael is donating the royalties to Camp Ronald McDonald for Good Times, a California charity for children with cancer. If you're not familiar with the charity, Ronald McDonald Houses are set up at many of the country's larger hospitals, providing housing for the families of terminally ill children. And while we're on the subject of generosity, Michael has donated $600,000 to the United Negro College Fund, and received an honorary doctorate from Nashville's Fisk University at the UNCF's 44th Anniversary Dinner. Watch these pages in the coming weeks for yet another unique accomplishment from the man man of Captain Eo fame.

TERENCE TRENT D'ARBY has the highest Hit Factor of songs moving up this week's chart: 98% of all stations carrying it have it in heavy or medium rotation. Quite a feat since BILLY OCEAN is hot on his trail, with LEVERT and GLADYS KNIGHT both climbing fast--and Gladys with a 97% Hit Factor. A look at our two Certified's is an indication of just how diversified our chart is these days: KOOL MOE DEE's "Wild Wild West" is just that--a wild number from these less-than-mild gents. The other Certified listing goes to PEBBLES' "Mercedes Boy," which has a history of amazing phone action over the past few weeks. Philip David March, WJYL-Louisville, who commented "immediate phone response after only one play here."

AL B. SURE! continues to prove listeners have taste--Lisa Lipps, KACE-Los Angeles, reports their callers can't get enough of this one. Here's a case of a gifted individual who had to make the decision between music and sports. This 19-year-old, after earning three high school letters in baseball and football, was offered a gridiron scholarship to the University of Iowa. He chose music, writing and recording demos until he graduated in '86. From the look of the early success of this first single, he may not have to ask Jack Clark whether he made the right choice!

Frank Barrow, KRIZ-Seattle, reports JEAN CARNE is generating adult male and female phones, and that JESSE JOHNSON is already getting to the younger adults. Earl Boston, WFXM-Macon, says JESSE couldn't be hotter out-of-the-box. Tony Wright, WJIZ-Albany, is very high on the Jesse, too.

This week's Record To Watch, JOHNNY KEMP's "Just Got Paid" pays off for Tom Owens, WBLZ-Cincinnati, who feels it's different enough to be good enough to compete with the best of them, and should do it for Kemp. Mike Love, WUSL/FM-Philadelphia, had just one word for Kemp, but he said it five times: "Hot, hot, hot, hot, hot!" He also raved about NARADA, saying "Smash, smash, smash, smash, smash!" (We'll only indulge Mike this once.) Thomas Lytle, K94-Norfolk, echoes that Kemp's his RTW. "Most definitely--could be as big as KEITH SWEAT is here." P.C. Wiley, WGSW-Greenwood, says the phones light up for Sweat like you can't believe. RANDY HALL could've been RTW, too, because Steve Crumbley, WOWI-Norfolk and WPDQ-Jacksonville, says it's doing well at both stations, and K.J. Holiday, WJDY-Salisbury, says to watch it because it's a "smoker!" JUNIOR had a good week, according to Tony Lype, WZFX-Fayetteville, and Scott Jantzen, OC104-Ocean City, who both commented that's it's one to keep an eye on. Ciao for now, Betty.

REVIEWS

By Betty Hollars and John Martinucci

JESSE JOHNSON - Love Struck (A&M)
We're anxiously awaiting the LP, "Every Shade Of Love," after the impression this debut single had on radio's playlist this week. Jeff Lorber gives additional keyboards an impressive touch.

PEABO BRYSON - Come On Over Tonight (Elektra) If the refrain sounds familiar, it may take you back to "Sexual Healing." This is one of the outstanding singles of the week, and could do well in more than one format.

PRINCESS AND STARBREEZE - Baby It's Over (MCA) In looking over the production credits, you can't miss Fenderella, the bassist from Klymaxx. Jeff Lorber also worked the board, his effort is equally noticeable and distinctive. It cooks!

NARADA - Divine Emotions (Reprise)
Narada comes out from behind the mixing board to sing lead on the title track from his forthcoming LP. The track can already be found on the soundtrack to "Bright Lights, Big City", and the result is a knock-out.

JOHNNY KEMP - Just Got Paid (Columbia)
"You gotta hear the 12" mix" is what everyone's saying. Either way - 7 or 12 - they're hot this week. Executive producer listed is Kashif.

DAVE SHOLIN'S PERSONAL PICKS — SINGLES

THE CHURCH - Under The Milky Way (Arista) More ammunition for the Australian invasion. Top three on both the Album and Alternative charts, and looking good for number one. While it may not be the most obvious tune right off the bat, stick with it and give several careful listenings. Deserves to go under the heading ULTRA-Contemporary, highlighted by a stunning chorus.

CHER - We All Sleep Alone (Geffen) "Star" is a term thrown around loosely these days, but it sure applies when the name Cher is mentioned. As Aretha Franklin and Gladys Knight have proven, all it takes to get back on track is the right material. Here comes another powerhouse melody and lyric that should be well on its way by Oscar night.

PRETTY POISON - Nighttime (Virgin) For all those who loved their debut release, "Catch Me I'm Falling," it's impossible not to like this follow-up, which is one of this week's Most Added items. Co-written by the group's Jade Starling and Whey Cooler, who wisely stick with their winning formula.

GLASS TIGER - I'm Still Searching (EMI-Manhattan) Straight-ahead rock 'n' roll with a pop edge is this group's forte. With producer Jim Vallance at the helm, they turn several new musical corners while keeping their identifiable sound intact. Quite a few program and music directors have told me they are searching for records like this.

HONEYMOON SUITE - Love Changes Everything (Warner Brothers) And yes, here's another mass-appeal rocker from Canada. Though they've had some regional success, I feel this is their strongest effort to date. Besides showing off some excellent musicianship, the vocal treatment is energetic without getting loud.

SWEET SENSATION - Take It While It's Hot (Atco) No strangers to the club scene and dance/crossover formats, where they've done very well with their last two efforts. This track is already on at HOT 103 New York and Top Ten at KMEL San Francisco. In position to capture increased top forty airplay.

CHEAP TRICK - The Flame (Epic) It's been quite a while since we've heard from this band, and they obviously have been hard at work. Producer Richie Zito takes them in a new direction with thrilling results. The success of power ballads by Aerosmith, Europe, Whitesnake and Def Leppard has paved the way for this subdued approach to rock. Cheap Trick proves they have mastered the art.

RON FELL'S PERSONAL PICKS — ALBUMS

GODLEY & CREME - Goodbye Blue Sky - (Polydor/PolyGram)
 This duo of Kevin Godley and Lol Creme has directed some of the finest rock videos of the MTV generation (Duran Duran, Sting, Elton, etc.) while putting their own music on a back burner. But they're back - bolder than ever. Seems as though each of the titles on this album could inspire feature-length films. But no!! The tracks are humorous little parcels - comic strips if you will-of aurally inspired genius. These guys are in a perpetual orbit, fearlessly wobbling through the dangerous layers of commercial music's ozone and avoiding the dreaded atmosphere of conformity. They play with an odd collections of instruments - one is obviously some sort of harmonica - another sounds like a synthesizer which has been force-fed an overdose of chili beans. But far be it for me to take the low road. On the album's higher levels of appreciation, I'd note that G&C are restless modern artisans who thankfully provoke through inventive application of technology. They mess with your head - exorcising the devil of predictability from those who seek adventure in music.
