KMEL FIRES HALF OF MORNING TEAM

San Francisco's KMEL fired half of its morning team last week. General Manager Paulette Williams cited philosophical differences as the reason for terminating Ron Engleman. Engleman and his longtime "Morning Zoo" partner John London have been a popular duo on KMEL for three years. They have consistently enjoyed good ARB numbers, rising from 10th among listeners 18 to 49, to number one in the Spring Arbitron.

Engleman's termination follows that of former traffic and entertainment reporter Sue Hall. Hall was replaced on the "Morning Zoo" by KMEL's nighttime personality, Renel Lewis.

Ron Engleman and John London have worked together at several stations. Engleman plans to stay in radio, and wants to remain part of a team. GM Williams says she has no plans to replace Engleman with another member for the "Morning Zoo."

WXXP PITTSBURGH IN THE DARK

WXXP in Pittsburgh is in the dark right now. New General Manager Chris Wegmann is excited about the changes to come. "We're raising the power from 20,000 to 50,000 watts and renovating the building," he said. Only three members of the air staff remain. Formerly an Alternative station, WXXP will return to the airwaves, "hopefully in a few weeks," Wegmann said, "The format will be contemporary. That's all I'm saying."

BILL STAIRS NEW KYUU PD

Ending months of speculation, Emmis Broadcasting has named Bill Stairs Program Director of KYUU in San Francisco. A Bay Area native, Stairs was most recently Operations Coordinator for Olympia Broadcasting in Seattle.

"I am truly excited not only to be working for Emmis, but to be coming home!" said Stairs.

Stairs is targeting early September as a start date, "but you never know," he said. In any case, it won't be any earlier than that. As for KYUU's format, Stairs promises that it will be "predictably unpredictable. San Francisco is a tremendous radio market. We intend on coming in and doing high profile programming and promotion. We'll be the station in your face!"

RADI-O-RAMA

WDHA-Dover, NJ, OM Mike Boyle leaves the station to pursue a career in journalism. Replacing Boyle is Andy Dean from WWPR-New York...Congrats to Tracy Johnson at KCPW in Kansas City. Wife Cyndi just gave birth to a baby boy, Alexander...Burns Media appoints Elizabeth Curran to the post of VP of Research. Sarina Araujo is now VP of Operations...At WZIX in Colum-

ALL ELVIS, ALL THE TIME

WCVG in Covington, Kentucky is now all Elvis, all the time. PD/Innovator Steve Parton says: "We have a normal rotation just like any other station. I'm working on it now, and by the end of today (Tuesday 8/9) we will have four categories, including gospel."

Right now a sample hour includes such familiar favorites as "Don't Be Cruel," "Teddy Bear," "Heartbreak Hotel," "Crying in the Chapel," "Hound Dog," and "Dayton." Parton expects that 1/8 of the records played on WCVG will be gospel recordings. "Would you believe that the inspirational songs were the only ones Elvis won Grammys for?" he asked.

An unabashed Elvis fanatic, Parton fully expects the format to last. "As a programmer and a fan I can truly say that this is a workable format. Elvis fans are the most devoted fans in the world."

INSIDE TOP 40 by Dave Sholin

Whoever coined the term "everything old is new again" can rest assured it will never lose its meaning. Fashion designs shift from baggy looks to tight pants, from short skirts to the longer knee-length look. One can predict with certainty that wide ties will get skinny, or visa versa. When it comes to records we've had our share of remakes, and artists that have gone into the archives to resurrect certain genres of music. While Steve Winwood's "Roll With It" may remind some of his Spencer Davis days, most everyone under twenty five has only a vague memory, at best, of that group. Refurbished renditions of "old" hits and past musical styles are only old to those who were around to hear them the first time. When it comes to radio contests and promotions, I learned a long time ago that it's smart to keep a file of just about everything for future use. Many great contest ideas can be recycled and updated with new phrasing or mechanics. Like the fashion world's infamous Nehru jacket, there are songs and radio concepts that have outlived their usefulness. Nevertheless, the past holds a treasure chest of "new" ideas for future generations.

When it comes to writing and performing music for film, KENNY LOGGINS is shooting a perfect score. He enters the top fifteen with a sharp 44% to 66% surge in HIT FACTOR. Top Ten at KKXL Grand Forks 15-7, WKZQ Myrtle Beach 16-9, KDOG Mankato 16-9, KRIT Ft.Dodge 11-7, KOZE Lewiston 13-9, KTDR Del Rio 17-8, WSPK Poughkeepsie 16-8, WBXQ Altoona / Johnstown 22-10, POWER99 Atlanta 20-10, KKCK Marshall 14-9 and Y104 Hattiesburg/Laurel 14-10.

Twenty three new believers on JOAN JETT AND THE BLACKHEARTS lift them beyond 200 total reports. Steve Taylor at WQUT Johnson City takes it 28-21 and describes it as an "all around winner." Steve mentions wide audience appeal, hot phones and strong sales for what he calls "an anthem." New on WQLK, WNSL, KBIU, WSTO, Z95.5, WZOU, B94, WYAV, KS104, KWES, KAFX, G105, KLYV, Q102, WGGZ and KDWB. Gains into the top twenty include 99KG 25-18, WAZI 21-15, KFIV 25-17, KZFN 24-19, Q96/76 22-18, KFMW 23-14, WPFM 26-20, WROQ 22-18, WKQB 31-19 and WCLG 25-20.

Explosive is the only word for BOBBY MCFERRIN, who propels his way onto the chart with top thirty debuts at KUBE Seattle, KKXX Bakersfield, KZLS Billings, KPXI Mt.Pleasant, K104 Erie, WAIL Key West, Y106 Orlando and WIFC Wausau. Big gains posted by WDJX 27-21 (Jill Meyer notes it's headed to number one in requests soon), WHYT 23-18, Z104 30-23, Z100 Portland 20-10, KMGX 29-23, KDON 22-14, KCPX 22-14, KKFR 16-8, EAGLE 106 30-21, Q105 19-14, WSPT 28-21, Y94 26-16, WAVA 29-23, etc.

It's not often that the fifth single release and the fourth hit off an album encounters the incredible reaction that DEF LEPPARD is getting right now. Kevin Chase at KMOK Lewiston reports "the phones lit up after one play and it's number one in requests, with album sales at number two." Debuts in the top twenty-five at WAVA Washington D.C., WKPE Cape Cod, KOKZ Waterloo/Cedar Rapids, HOT 105 Miami, KIXY San Angelo, Y108 Denver, WROQ Charlotte, KDWB Minneapolis and WCIL Carbondale.

First number one listing on ERASURE comes from Bill Richards and John Cook at 93 Houston. Crosstown it's also in the top five with Paul Christy and Cheryl Broz at POWER 104, where it moves 5-4. Also very hot at POWER99 10-6, LIVE 105 3-3, KYOS 4-3 and Y108 26-10. 25 adds including KPLZ, FM104, 106X, WIGY, KDWB, KKYK, KMGZ, KSTN, KKRC, WHKW, etc.

35 adds put D.J. JAZZY JEFF & THE FRESH PRINCE well over 100 reports, with a hefty increase in chart points, moving them close to a slot on the Top 40. Steve Perun takes it top ten at Y100 Miami 15-8, as does KGGI 12-6, KS104 10-8 and KSTN 12-4. Hot debuts at KITY San Antonio #18, WHYT Detroit #19, WNYZ Utica #21, KIXY San Angelo #16, KZFN Moscow #20, WGGZ Baton Rouge #23 and Z100 New York #29.

Impressive 28% for the second effort from AL B. SURE! Dene Hallam adds it at KCPW Kansas City, and says his research shows it to have the same profile as The Whispers, "Rock Steady," The Deele's "Two Occasions" and The Systems "Don't Disturb This Groove." Doing well at HOT 103 28-20, B93/FM 29-23, KMEL 10-7, KMGX 11-8, KITY 23-16, etc. New on 93Q, POWER 104, POWER 106, KRQ, WRCK, WRGI, KLBQ, and KIXY.

Four years after its release, UB40's "Red Red Wine" is back on the "UP & COMING" page. HIT FACTOR is 17%, while it stays at number one in Phoenix. Debuts at #13 for Bob Harlow at KATD Los Gatos/San Jose, who says it's been the number one requested song for the last three weeks, with only Def Leppard and Bobby McFerrin coming close in total calls. Other debuts at Y100 #9!, KDON #16, LIVE 105 #21 and Y106 #30. 27 adds including KSND, KNIN, WNVZ, B94, POWER 104, KWSS, KBEQ, KS104, WAVA, WZZR, G105, WJZQ and Z100 Portland.

Dave Shakes at WTIC/FM Hartford is getting excellent response to BOBBY BROWN. Dave takes it 33-28 and reports "great 12 inch sales and #6 in requests." HIT FACTOR is 39% with big moves at KKQV 31-21, K100 25-19, KSTN 11-5, FM102 8-2, KITY 33-10, Y106 30-27, POWER 104 15-8 and WHYT 12-10. Added at HOT 103, 96/76, KFIV, KDON and POWER 106.

Gregg Swedberg and Karen Wong at WLOL Minneapolis are the first to take GIANT STEPS into the top five with an 8-4 gain. New on KIIS Los Angeles, Q106 San Diego, KITY San Antonio, 95XXX Burlington, WPXR Rock Island, FM104 Modesto/Stockton, Y108 Denver, KATD Los Gatos/San Jose, KEZY Anaheim and KTRS Casper. On at KMEL, KROC, KWCM, KWSS, KMGX, KKXL, etc.

INSIDE URBAN

The response to last week's Rap issue was impressive. Not only did we get music people asking if we could do more. We also got responses from radio types who have been known to say, "We don't play rap." Do you know what they're saying this week? After giving us their list of heavy rotation, we're getting comments like: "I can't believe I've got all four of those rap records in heavy rotation!" We're glad you liked the issue, and we promise to do more like it in the future. L.D.McCollum, XHRM-San Diego, is excited about the success of D.J.JAZZY JEFF & THE FRESH PRINCE's "Nightmare On My Street." "It's appealing to adults now, as well as obviously huge requests from teens." Randy Sterling, KGBC-Galveston, says: "Something new and exciting from the up and coming super rapper is doing very well here." We chose LEVERT as our front page "Hot" listing. It's debuting at #24, with good news from Cedric Hollywood, WJHM-Orlando: "Instant phones...looks like another Casanova." Andy Henderson, WQKI-St. Matthews, agrees, saying, "It's doing extremely well." Andrew Bailey, WYNN-Florence, also figures that "this is their hottest thing since Casanova." Last week we made the KARYN WHITE our Top

Tip, and it went crazy. We were rewarded with many of you making it your RTW this week, Rob Morris, WVKO-Columbus, had to mention producers just as we did in the review: "Hitmakers L.A. and Babyface are at it again. This one caught our attention right away, it'll be big!" Jimmy Smith, KKDA-Dallas, seconds the motion, saying, "Babyface and L.A. work their magic once again. This time for KARYN WHITE." When Steve Crumbley called in his three reports, he said that at WOWI-Norfolk, "It is, without a doubt the hottest thing around." At WPDQ-Jacksonville, he's getting major calls for ERIC B. & RAKIM, and at WPZZ-Indianapolis, THE JETS are hot on the request line. P.C.Wiley, WGSW-Greenwood, had to play on words with Johnny Kemp: "This is a hot follow-up to "Just Got Paid" and he SHOULD get paid - he's great!" Alton Palmore, WQIC/FM-Meridian, wasn't short on lines, either: "The new VANESSA WILLIAMS is my record to watch, and I can watch it again and again." Jay Jefferies, KXZZ-Lake Charles, feels "Straight From The Heart" from the GAP BAND should have been a Valentine's Day release because it's such a good tune for lovers. It's doing well with adult demos.

Looks like BOBBY McFERRIN started something with "Don't Worry, Be Happy." Kevin Morrison, WDKX-Rochester, says it's doing well there because it makes everyone feel happy.

Now GOOD QUESTION has a song out that's doing well for Robert L. Scott, KKFX-Seattle, who says, "Sounds good, gives me a good feeling." Rick Stevens, WCKX-Columbus, likes to feel good and says the MICO WAVE does it for him: "Super uptempo, super dance tune, instant phones." TOP TIP, OHIO PLAYERS has been added at ten stations: WHUR-Washington, KRNB-Memphis, WABD-Clarksville, WJYL-Louisville, WKXG-Greenwood, WLWZ-Greenville, WYNN-Florence, KMJM-St.Louis, WVOI-Toledo and WWWS-Saginaw. Earl Boston, KATZ/FM-St.Louis, comments on the 101 NORTH, saying, "This song will light up the phones any time of the day, any format." We're giving the Record To Watch nod to firsttimers JAMM. Their debut single has been added at WDKX, WJDY, WKIE, WOWI, KOKY, WHYZ, WJIZ, WPDQ, WQMG, WTMP, WYLD, WVOI, WZAK and KNON. Looks like a good head start for them. Ciao for now, Betty.

NEW RELEASES by Betty Hollars and John Martinucci

BOOGIE DOWN PRODUCTIONS -
Stop The Violence (Jive/RCA)

Not only are the lyrics clever, the message is presented in such a way that it might get through to some of the violence-makers. One of our more politically-oriented rap groups, they've printed a letter on the picture sleeve of this single to remind us of the fact that they're serious about resolving the problems of violence, no matter what form it takes.

POINTER SISTERS - Power Of Persuasion (Columbia)

The beat is back on this one—with more upbeat soul than prior releases. From the "Caddyshack II" soundtrack, this one should make par on Urban playlists.

SADE - Nothing Can Come Between Us (Epic)
...or between Sade and hit records. Once again, it's that unmistakable voice that blends nicely with her own special brand of smooth instrumentation. A strong romantic ballad.

GOOD QUESTION - Got A New Love (Paisley Park/Warner Bros.)

These two can really sing - and if the clubs in your area get this before you, watch for great club reaction! Even if you can't dance, check this out - it'll teach you instinctively.

INSIDE A/C

ELTON JOHN's new number one, "I Don't Want To Go On With You," is his second A/C number one in less than a year. "Candle In The Wind" made the grade on October 30th of last year.

Next up...probably James Taylor's "Baby Boom Baby." Of the underlined potential heirs, only James has cleared 200 stations. CHICAGO has 86% of its airplay in maximum rotation and LITTLE RIVER BAND probably couldn't get to number one even if all their airplay was HEAVY.

CROWDED HOUSE adds 28 HEAVY rotation reports this week, and despite only two adds moves into the top ten.

As was the case last week, the top ten are not getting adds. HUEY LEWIS & THE NEWS scored nine of the twenty-one adds. LEWIS & THE NEWSMEN have climbed 21 to 10 on the chart the past two weeks, and of the six-week old records its a hands down winner.

PETER CETERA's 29 to 12 move in the past two weeks leads the five-week wonders up the chart. The other notable. BRUCE HORNSBY & THE RANGE's "Look Out Any Window," leads in HIT FACTOR (82% to 79%) but lags in stations (178 to 187) and in HEAVY rotation (29 to 54). Don't mean to pit one against the other, though.

RICK ASTLEY is now HIT FACTORed by two-thirds of his players and has been averaging nearly 35 adds a week since its release.

NATALIE COLE's new ballad, "When I Fall In Love," had a better week than its three point jump on the chart indicates. It took on 20 new A/C's including KFQD, WROK, KWLO, KFYZ, WQTU and WGAD, and 71% of those stations playing it more than one week are committing to serious rotations.

BOBBY McFERRIN is this week's highest chart debut, and ties OLIVIA NEWTON-JOHN for fifth MOST ADDED, both have 33. McFERRIN adds this week at KEFM, WHTX, WTRX, WKMI, WGOW, WGOL/FM, WELI, WSKI, etc.

CHRISTOPHER CROSS wins this week's PLUS FACTOR with a 22% increase, and comes in fourth in adds with 38, including KFMB, WJON, KGY, WMTR, WKLI, KQIP, WLLH, KWAV/FM and WAHR, etc.

CHEAP TRICK's "Don't Be Cruel," last week's RECORD TO WATCH, is approaching CHARTBOUND with a 37% HIT FACTOR, and adds from B100, KQIP, WHYC, WFEB, WKMI, KASY, WSER, KCMJ/FM and WJZM.

The 41 adds on the STEVE WINWOOD, "Don't You Know What The Night Can Do?" came while the previous single, "Roll With It," was still being played by 163 A/C's in HEAVY rotation.

Our TOP TIP this week, OLIVIA NEWTON-JOHN's "The Rumour," will debut in the better part of the 30's next issue. "Rumour" has it she's back and it's already confirmed by 71 A/C's including KKHT, CKFM, WRMF, WKCX, KEFM, WCVQ, KWEB, KDZA and WMT/FM etc.

This week's RECORD TO WATCH, "Indestructible," by the Four Tops debuts in UP & COMING with 35 A/C stations. Not bad for a song that has been out for 10 days by a group that's been together for nearly 12,000 days. Adds already from KYJC, B100, WMT/FM, KTYL, WEBE/FM, WSKI, WAFL, WAEB, WKYE and WQHQ/FM.

JULIO IGLESIAS
ae, ao (Columbia)

About half of Miami Sound Machine, including Emilio Estefan, help Julio make a vibrant, full-bodied production out of a wonderful Latin party song.

KYLIE MINOGUE
Loco-motion (Geffen)

When Little Eva had the first hit with this Carole King/Gerry Goffin composition, she was just seventeen. Kylie, while still a teenager in her native Australia, made this track her first single and it went to number one like a rocket. The song's familiarity with adults and the state-of-the-art production can make it happen here.

SCARLETT & BLACK
Dream Out Loud (Virgin)

This one is right down our alley and up our block. It's a plain and simple love song textured with earthtone harmonies and a delicate lead vocal.

CARLY SIMON
Do the Walls Come Down (Arista)

For someone who sings live about as often as Oliver North, Carly gives about as perfect a performance as is humanly possible. As with Claudette Colbert and Clark Gable, "It Happened One Night." With Carly it was one emotionally charged late afternoon on Martha's Vineyard.

RICHARD ELLIOT
The Power Of Suggestion (Intima/Enigma)

If you're looking for an "up" instrumental that's powered on melody, Mr. Elliot has a strong suggestion. More beats per minute than most jazz tracks, and a true blue melody.

WILD HAPPENINGS IN WACO ▼

This fine-looking "Rumper Sticker" was a ticket to meet the stars at a Steve Wariner/Foster & Lloyd benefit concert sponsored by K95-Waco. The back of the sticker could be filled out for a drawing, with the winners getting to hang out backstage after the show. The free concert, which was filled to capacity, was tied in with the local broadcast of the Children's Miracle Network Telethon.

PIECE OF CAKE ▲

In Springfield, MA, 93/WHYN-FM General Manager Marc Berman (left) and PD Bill Hess flank a $5,000 prizewinner. The dough went to the 93rd caller after the station played "American Pie." The contest caused phone service meltdown for 250,000 local customers.

TAKES ONE TO KNOW ONE ▼

Jefferson City Mayor Louise Gardener joins KTXV's morning show host Gary Spice as his honorary "Disc Jockey For A Day." Louise got a hankering to try out the profession after reading a report in USA Today that "mayor" ranked as the 201st most desirable job to hold, while "disc jockey" was 110th.

ANOTHER DISC JOCKEY ▲ ARRESTED

WBLZ-Cincinnati's Bob Summers is led away after being arrested while on the air as part of the March Of Dimes Celebrity Night Court promotion. Bob was charged with "playing the most music and the least commercials of any radio station in Cincinnati." While Bob was in the hands of the law, callers phoned in to the station and made pledges to get him out of jail, and his $750 bail was finally raised. All in good fun and all proceeds went to benefit the March Of Dimes.

Crowded House was built from the remnants of a wonderful New Zealand cult band, Split Enz. Paul Hester and Neil Finn got their chops down during an eight year term in the "Splitz." When the group broke up, Paul and Neil hooked up with Nick Seymour, an accomplished bassist and aspiring graphic artist.

The trio came to Los Angeles from down under with a sack full of tunes and a game plan. Holed up in a crowded apartment in La La Land, the three merged with American producer Mitchell Froom to make a critically acclaimed debut album, eponymously titled Crowded House.

The album's first single, "Don't Dream It's Over" enjoyed its initial success with Gavin Adult Contemporary stations. After peaking mid-chart, the single began to develop at Top-40, eventually reaching #3 on April 10, 1987, eight months after its release.

With the release of their new album, Temple of Low Men, and its first single, "Better Be Home Soon," Crowded House is becoming a household name. We talked to Neil Finn from London, in the middle of a two-week promotional tour of Europe and Japan and just a few weeks before they launch a major concert tour of the USA.

by Ron Fell

RON: You guys are thought of as a "down under" band, yet you've spent a great deal of time in the States.

NEIL: Right from the start we were concerned that our record was coming out via a major label, in a major city, Los Angeles. We wanted to cut out all the middlemen, so we went to Los Angeles to record. We wanted to meet the people who would directly be working on the record and they could meet us. In the past we'd had a lot of problems with too many chiefs between the band and the record company.

RF: Has the American way of life influenced you and the band?

NEIL: Well I'm sure it has, but not in ways I could put a finger on. You spend a certain amount of time anywhere and it rubs off on you. We've definitely been influenced by having worked with Mitchell Froom, our first American producer, and living in L.A. certainly had an effect. In fact, one song, "Mansion on the Hill," was written partially about Los Angeles, probably not in a very refreshing way!

RF: Legend has it the band's name refers to your living conditions in L.A.

NF: Well, it certainly added fuel to that name. We thought of it independently, but as soon as we said it a few times, we said, "This is perfect." We did share house a together for about four months. It was only two bedrooms for three people, and we had family and friends and all sorts of people coming through the house at various stages, so, yeah, it described the birth of the band in many ways.

IN A CROWDED HOUSE

FF: That particular location may never become the Graceland of Los Angeles, but do you remember the street address?

NF: I do, actually. It was 1491 North Sycamore, just above the Magic Castle.

FF: When you were putting the band together, did the eventual sound of Crowded House come out the way you thought, or was it something that evolved through the recording process?

NF: A little bit of both, really. Working with Mitchell had an influence on the sound, so it did turn out a little different. But when I write a song and hear it on the record, the song is essentially the same beast. It doesn't go through a massive transition, whereas the last band I was in, Split Enz, there were so many elements added to songs afterwards. With this band, at least, the songs are put across very simply. They retain a lot of the original spirit.

RF: What was your role in Split Enz?

NF: I started off as a rather hopeless guitarist who was added through pure nepotism.

RF: Meaning your brother Tim was already in the band.

NF: Yeah, I struck it lucky. My brother pulled a few strings and got me in the band. But it wasn't my idea. They did ask me. It soon developed into a writing division, and once that happened I was obviously involved in the arrangements too. Split Enz was very much a band that shared a lot of time together. We all had definite ideas and for that reason, it was both a joy, and sometimes very confusing as far as what people were trying to get out of it.

RF: True Colours was probably the most brilliant album in Split Enz's career, yet the band never seemed to break out of its cult status--and with Crowded House you've been able to enjoy a tremendous amount of mass appeal. What do you think was the difference?

NF: There are a lot of factors involved. One of them being that we were lucky with Capitol. They never gave up on the first record. Possibly it came at a good time for them, when they

GAVIN 2013

Several years ago we visited Gavin Central in San Francisco for a high level contributing editor luncheon with publisher Ron Fell. While killing an hour or so waiting for him to get off a call to Ahmet..or Clive..we shuffled through some of Ron's drawers..well, make that rifled through some of his personal papers. We stumbled onto some pre-written Gavin Reports for the year 1999 and prevailed on the Big Guy to allow us to publish excerpts from those editions. You may have read them here.

Lo and behold we've come across more of the same and we'd like to share with you some items which will appear in another Gavin Report of the future. This copy is dated August 15, 2013, some 25 years hence! Gavin, as you may have noted, has been expanding and improving each week, and the 2013 edition bears this out. We're determined that the Gavin Report of those days will be even MORE comprehensive a publication than it is today..if that's possible. Here's what those of you who are alive will be seeing:

28th Anniversary Victory Tour: 55 year old Michael Jackson commenced his Victory Anniversary tour at Detroit's new 400,000 seat DukaKisdome this week with high-tech security the order of the day. Solar powered-laser metal detectors searched the purses of the great unwashed, all of whom paid $495 face value for their seats. Scalped tickets, most of which were snapped up by Irv Azoff and Jack Nicholson, were running as high as 10 G's a seat. Press response to Michael's new silver curl was generally favorable.

Speaking of concerts, the Tiffany Comeback Tour was a rousing success. L.A.'s Rose Bowl, now finally restored after the great quake of '06, was filled to capacity with DAT owners attempting to relive their youth. The 41 year old matron brought the crowd, some aided by walkers, to their feet as she regaled them with her hits of the 80's. During intermission one could hear nostalgic comments about old playback configurations, with the biggest chortles coming when the term 'CD' was mentioned.

Presidential hopeful Jesse Jackson brought a mob to ITS feet when he appeared at Deborah Gibson's house for a campaign fundraiser. Gibson, who enjoyed a short period as a musical artist decades ago, and whose daughter Candy now tops the Gavin Hot Thousand with her dance hit, "I Walked On Mars," was gracious, charming and living proof that older women are as interested in pop music as they are in knitting sweaters. Representing the 49 to 97 demo, Gibson told reporters, "Jackson stands for everything we admire in America, and I, for one, appreciate the fact that he promises that someday America will actually consider a non-caucasian for the highest office in the land."

The fifty-fifth anniversary of The Gavin Report coincides with the 28th annual Gavin

Seminar For Medium Professionals in 2013, and the Gavin office has big things planned. Stopped by a reporter while being wheeled into Gavin's palatial Mission district offices, Gavin Associate A/C editor Diane Rufer stated, "Our panels are all set. TNT Cable President and CEO Tim Brough will chair the tribute to the music once known as 'Country' and artists who actually performed in this now defunct style of music will make an appearance certain to bring tears to the eyes of anyone over 90."

The 95th attempted competition to Johnny Carson's Tonight Show was launched this week by the Fox Network, with Donny Osmond's grandson, Fetus Osmond as host. Fetus' first guests were Zsa Zsa Gabor IV, comic Sam Kinnison Jr, (most of the material was bleeped), and authoress/seer Shirley McLaine, whose new book reveals that she was Warren Beatty's sister in a previous life. Sidekick Don Anti was a jovial yes-guy to Fetus, as he roared with laughter at the host's witty jibes.

Virgin Records owner Phil "Whatta Guy" Quartararo announced the release of the 98th Steve Winwood single from his Roll With It LP. The feisty exec noted that the album has never dipped below 387 on the Gavin Hot 400 for the past 28 years. Quartzville also pointed out that Steve will be opening for the newly re-formed Cowsills on an upcoming spring tour.

Legendary AM Driver Gary Owens joined L.A.'s rocker outlet Q6576YG2 this week where he'll be teamed with 101 year old cable comic Joe Franklin. Owens told elderly Gavin lady Betty Hollars "It's an honor to be partnered with a guy whose face looks like a pound and a half of sardines in tomato sauce."

President Steve Garvey announced today his lineup for the annual White House Entertainment dinner. Appearing will be the highly visible Marvin Hamlisch, along with comic/ex promo-man William Brill, monologist Danny Davis, Jr, professional Bostonian "Jill", and an MOR duet consisting of Kylie Minogue and Kenneth Loggins. President Garvey's Veep, Alan "Bland leading the bland" Thicke will emcee the affair.

Actress Elizabeth Taylor announced her 14th marriage today. The 80 year old star of the most forgettable films of the last century will wed KISS members Gene Simmons and Paul Stanley on Sept. 35th. Simmons told Gavin editors Kent and Keith Zimmerman Jrs, "Paul and I are honored that Liz would choose us for her next husband. Her great verve, spirit and zest for life are an inspiration to us and all of humanity. Sly Stone and Ike Turner will be bridesmaids, PeeWee Herman maid of honor. Howard Stern will give Liz away, and the Fat Boys will sing "Ave Maria" from the choir loft of the church, St. Bruce, in Asbury Park, New Jersey. ●

ON MANAGEMENT

by Oren Harari

THE PROJECT

About a year ago (August 22, 1987, to be exact), my column in this space was entitled "Slim Down Those Fat Firms!" In that article, I argued that effective business firms are reducing the number of their management layers not only to cut down on massive overhead, but also because leaner, "flatter" organizations are fleetier and more flexible.

I also argued that decisions in lean organizations are made faster and more accurately because information has to travel through fewer layers and thus has less opportunity of becoming distorted. Often, for example, upper managers in excessively layered firms are unaware of what's really happening in the "trenches" because information from the trenches (like how employees react to management initiatives) becomes sanitized and unrecognizable by the time it reaches the top. Recently, one of my MBA students showed me a flyer illustrating this point beautifully. This flyer, typed and Xeroxed, had been secretly making the rounds in the large bloatedly-layered firm for whom he worked. I'd love to give him public credit for sharing this with me, but since he would still like to keep his job, I'll just reprint the content of the flyer.

The Project

In the beginning was the Project, and then arose the Assumptions. And the Project was without form and the Assumptions were void. And darkness was upon the faces of the Implementers. And they spake unto their manager, and their voices said,

"It is a crock of shit, and it stinketh."

And the manager went to the 2nd level manager, and he spake unto him saying,

"It is a crock of excrement and none may abide the odor thereof."

And the 2nd level manager went to the 3rd level manager, and he spake unto him saying,

"It is a container of excrement, and it is so strong that none may abide before it."

And the 3rd level manager went to the Headquarters Director, and he spake unto him, saying,

"It is a vessel of fertilizer, and none may abide its strength."

And the Director went to the Divisional Vice-President, and he spake unto him, saying,

"It contains that which aids plant growth, and it is very strong."

And the Vice President went to the Division President, and he spake unto him saying,

"It promoteth growth, and it is very powerful."

And the Division President went before the Executive Board, and he spake unto them saying,

"This powerful new project will promote the growth of the company."

And the Executive Board looked upon the Project, and saw that it was GOOD...●

P.D. NOTEBOOK

by Eric Norberg

UHHHHHH...
YOU KNOW...

... Those are two of the most annoying repetitive habits of speech that intertere with good communication with the listener. There are others, such as the habitual "lip smack" when you open your mouth to say a sentence. Of course, these are not common just to radio announcers; in fact, even the worst radio offenders do it less annoyingly than the average listener does in his or her conversation. But that doesn't make it good. How about you? Or your staff? Are there common speech habits that interfere with "talking to the listener?" And, if so, how do you get rid of them?

Step number one is always becoming aware that there is a problem. If the person doing this sort of thing is unaware of it, no improvement is possible. (Special note to the Program Director: Nothing is more irritating to your staff than being guilty yourself of something you are criticizing your staff for; so make darn sure you've examined your own airwork for problems of this sort, and gotten rid of them, before you start working with others!)

If you have a staffmember with an annoying speech habit and they don't realize it, start out by airchecking them -- and play them the aircheck, pointing out each instance in the tape. (You might even want to follow up the tape, in the same session, with an edited tape retaining just the annoying habit, assembled from that aircheck...a tape full of "uh's!") Don't be sarcastic or nasty -- you want them to work on the problem, not get hostile to you -- but call attention to each instance in the tape as you play it back. After a little while they'll start to anticipate your doing it each time, as they hear the tape, and this will lead to an awareness of it each time they do it on the air. Only when they recognize the problem can they fix it.

You may have to go through this sort of "consciousness raising" session with him or her more than once to get that awareness going; but when they start showing an aversion to hearing themselves do it, it's time to assign them "Step Two": To abort it on the air as they find themselves starting to do it. Although in most cases you wouldn't want your talent to "learn on the air", breaking habits like these -- which are subconscious and habitual -- will probably require it.

What I'm saying is, when they start to say "uh" in a sentence -- or "you know," or whatever it is they are doing -- their "assignment" will be to stop it in advance. This will make them sound awkward on the air at times, but this is part of the learning process, and they will start to accomodate themselves to the change by "censoring themselves in advance" Our communication skills are largely habitual on the air, so we can concentrate on what we are saying rather than how we are saying it, and this temporary self-consciousness is necessary in order to "rewire the program in the brain" and fix the problem.

When I was breaking an "uh" habit myself over 20 years ago, I doggedly substituted a pause for the "uh" I would have said. (For me, the "uh" was a crutch to give me an extra moment to get the next thought together, and I was still learning that I should outline my breaks in my head beforehand, adlibbing from the outline when I got into the break.) The pause sounded a little awkward at first, but I began to notice on my tapes that it didn't sound nearly as bad as I thought it would. In fact I began to notice that the "pros" also use pauses in this way, as well as for effect, and ever since then, the slight midsentence pause -- keeping the rhythm of the delivery and using inflection to pick up after the pause and keep it sounding natural and normal -- has helped me make adlibs sound as smooth as scripted material.

It would be nice if there were a way to do this without having to break the habit on the air, but I'm inclined to think that since it's an on-air habit, it'll have to be broken on the air. The result is well-worth the effort. However, if the person involved shows the same habit in normal conversation, get them to try and make the same change off the air as well. It will speed the process and make them a better public speaker.

More on the self-improvement subject next week! ●

BIOFEEDBACK

by Ron Fell

•RANDY NEWMAN

Although he released the soundtrack to the Robert Redford film, The Natural, in 1985, Randy has not had a pop album since Trouble In Paradise in 1983. But a new single is due in September with a studio album to follow in October.

•JOHN TESH

The co-host of Entertainment Tonight and recording artist for Private Music has won two Emmys. One was for his accounts and descriptions of the 1987 Tour De France and the other for the music he composed for CBS Television's coverage of the '87 Pan American Games.

•DIONNE WARWICK

For her new album Dionne has recorded one track with the Spinners with whom she had a hit, Then Came You, in 1974.

•JAMES REYNE

He is the former lead singer of Aussie band Australian Crawl.

•THE CONTOURS

The quintet which is touring as part of the Dirty Dancing roadshow includes two original members, Joe Billingslea and Sylvester Potts.

•JEFFREY OSBORNE

Prior to launching his solo career in 1982, he was a member of LTD for ten years. He was hired as the group's drummer, but was soon the lead singer.

•STANLEY CLARKE

His cover version of Janet Jackson's Funny How Time Flies is not his first cover. In 1985 he recorded an instrumental version of Bruce Springsteen's Born In The USA for his album, Find Out.

•KARLA BONOFF

Before she recorded her first solo album in 1977, she had written three songs for Linda Ronstadt which appeared on Linda's Hasten Down The Wind album including "Someone To Lay Down Beside Me."

•COLIN JAMES

As a teenager growing up in the Canadian province of Saskatchewan, Colin toured with an Irish bluegrass band called Sod Hut and the Buffalo Chips.

•JOHN MAYALL

Considered by many to be the father of British blues, Mayall has signed to record for Island Records.

•U2

Their next LP, Rattle and Hum, will be a four-sided project, with two sides of new studio material and two sides of live performances. The first single, Desire, will be released in mid-September with the full album to follow in October.

•PAUL SIMON

He recently returned from a month in Brazil with producer Phil Ramone where they recorded tracks with a samba band for a possible new Simon album.

•GUNS AND ROSES

Their current single, "Sweet Child O' Mine," was written by Erin Everly, daughter of Don Everly of The Everly Brothers.

•BOBBY MC FERRIN

His current single, "Don't Worry, Be Happy," was inspired by the philosophy of Meher Baba whose work similarly inspired The Who's "Baba O'Reilly."

•WAGONEERS

The video for the group's single, "I Wanna Know Her Again," contains rare film footage of a live performance of Hank Williams Sr.

•REBA MC ENTIRE

The bass player on her new album, Reba, is Wayne Nelson who plays bass as a member of Little River Band.

HEAR & THERE

by Sheila Rene

WHCN's Kim Alexander with Bruce Dickinson

Album-oriented WHCN in Hartford was recently faced with replacing their vacationing morning team. The station's MD, Kim Alexander, remembered that Heavy Metal rockers Iron Maiden were playing in nearby New Haven. When Bruce Dickinson, the group's fencing fanatic-vocalist heard of the opening, he gladly agreed to play morning drive DJ for a day. "Bruce's visit generated four of the hottest hours in Connecticut radio history," said Alexander. After his air shift, Dickinson drove to New York, where Maiden performed at Nassau Coliseum, one of the many stops of their world tour supporting their Capitol LP Seventh Son Of A Seventh Son. On August 20th IM headlines England's Castle Donnington "Monsters Of Rock" concert.

Now Hear This: Dolly Parton has chosen longtime friend Ricky Skaggs as the producer of her next country-flavored Columbia album. The twosome have known each other 10 years and have worked together before, but not as artist-producer. They met a few weeks ago in Nashville to discuss song material and the general tone of the LP. According to Skaggs, material will be varied and will include a mix of old and new songs, some written by Dolly and others by songwriter friends. At this time there are no plans for a Parton/Skaggs duet.

On schedule for late August is the much-anticipated re-release of the Misfits' first LP for Slash Records Walk Among Us. This hardcore horror band from New Jersey is being cited as an influence by today's new breed of speed metal bands, and is one of Red Sox outfielder Todd Benzinger's favorites.

Bits And Pieces: Auditions are underway for a new vocalist to replace singer Chuck Mosley in Faith No More. Reportedly Mosley is forming a folk-rock skate team. Pop Will Eat Itself was a highly sought after band that signed with London/UK. However, after only one month's affiliation, the label dropped the group, giving no reason for the termination. Capitol artist Pat McLaughlin, out on tour with Bruce Hornsby, is traveling with a legend-packed band that includes guitarist Billy Bremner (Nick Lowe, Dave Edmunds), and keyboardist Ian McLagan (Faces, Rolling Stones). McLaughlin plans to take a short rest when the tour ends on August 21 in L.A. before beginning his next album projects. At the Hornsby date in Concord, CA, the audience was treated to an appearance by Huey Lewis, who jammed with Bruce on four tunes. Lewis started his own tour the next night in Pasa Robles, CA. Ian McLagan will do some touring with Cry On Cue plus some recording with his own band, Loco, using producer Glyn Johns.

In one week, Epic metaliers Living Colour will release a treat for your turntable... a live recording of their hit "Cult Of Personality" backed with Tracy Chapman's "Talkin' Bout A Revolution." Vernon Reid and company has been one of the highlights of the recording year for this reporter. Producer Bill Laswell (P.I.L. and Iggy Pop) has been signed to work on the next P.I.L. album. Dangerous Age for Bad Company will be released August 23rd on Atlantic Records. Vocalist Brian Howe and guitarist Mick Ralphs co-wrote the new songs with producer Terry Thomas. The first video and single is "No Smoke Without Fire," and the tour is set for September through November. The next Run D.M.C. single for Profile Records will be "I'm Not Going Out Like That," with the re-mix being handled by Heavy D.

Road Warriors: Columbia recording group New Kids On The Block embark on their first major North American tour in support of their second album, Hangin' Tough. The Kids are opening for Tiffany on a tour that extends through September 4th. UNI Records has announced that Wet Wet Wet will open for Elton John on his U.S. tour that gets underway September 5th. The Bible may begin their tour in September with a set in the U.S.S.R. They'll follow that with trips to Europe and Canada, opening for Steve Earle, producer of their album, Eureka.

All That Jazz: "Bird," the film biography of jazz saxophone great Charlie Parker, directed by Clint Eastwood, will premiere in New York and Los Angeles on September 30. Eastwood first heard Parker in 1947, and now, four decades later, pays tribute to this genius who died two years before even the simplest stereo recording came into general use. The soundtrack features recordings of Parker on saxophone that have been updated to modern standards. Bird's solos on "Ko Ko," "Now's The Time" and "Parker's Mood" were taken from the original Savoy recordings. "April In Paris" comes from the Verve label, the film's opener, the magnificent "Lester Leaps In," was recorded at the Rockland Palace in Harlem, and will be the first video.

Def Jam/Columbia artists Public Enemy are back on the charts with a new single, "Don't Believe The Hype," from their second album It Takes A Nation Of Millions To Hold Us Back. After less than a month the 60-minute LP has passed the RIAA gold sales mark.

Kip Winger worked on two albums and a tour with Alice Cooper before launching his own band, Winger. The first video and single is "Madalaine," but check out the Jimi Hendrix classic, "Purple Haze", featuring Dweezil Zappa. The connection to Cooper is still strong...bandmate Paul Taylor and Winger are working on two songs for Cooper's next album. The Winger promotional tour begins in September.

The 19th World Popular Song Festival in Tokyo has selected Enigma recording artists, Hurricane, as one of the twelve entries from nine countries to perform in October. Their new album, Over The Edge, was co-produced by mega-platinum producers Bob Ezrin (Pink Floyd, Alice Cooper, Kiss) and Mike Clink (Triumph, Survivor, Guns 'N Roses).

Enigma Records and GWR Records are signing an exclusive joint venture agreement for North America. This will provide the up-and-coming British label with all the advantages of a major pressing and distribution deal. Initial releases under the agreement include new recordings by Fastway, Hawkwind, Batfish, Girlschool, Adam Bomb and a live album from Motorhead.

The popular NBC daytime soap opera "Santa Barbara," has signed a five year deal with the New Jersey-based metal band Sacred Sword. So far "Desolation Love" and "Summer Heat," off the band's five-song EP Give 'Em Hell, have been used on the show which boasts over 70 million viewers in 20 countries.

Metal and Movies: "Nightmare On Elm Street, Part 4: The Dream Master" will be released August 19th on approximately 1900 screens. Chrysalis Records provides the music and the metal from such artists as Billy Idol, Vinnie Vincent, Armored Saint, Angels, and the Sea Hags. MTV will air a one-hour special about the movie over Labor Day weekend, including a video of the "Love Kills Theme" by Vinnie Vincent, in conjunction with the movie release. ●

MOONLIGHTING

by Moon Mullins

WAR HELL ON HOME FRONT, TOO

There's been a lot of press lately concerning whether it's truly analogous that radio stations war with each other.

Bill Moyes and the Research Group have extended the theory of warfare promulgated by Trout and Reis in their book, "Positioning: The Battle for the Mind," and subsequent publications to ingenious lengths. The Research Group calls it "War College" and it is taught exclusively by Bill Moyes himself.

Terms such as "the enemy," "offensive," "guerrilla attacks," "controlling hills" and so forth, are used to convey deeper meanings than simply saying "the competition," "take the first steps," "use beguiling tactics," or "be the station foremost in the listeners minds when certain categories of radio programming are named."

Categorizing subject matter is the way we human beings deal with an overload of information pertaining to a particular topic.

Trout and Reis, Bill Moyes, Ted Chin, Dr. James Makens, et al, have discovered that the best way to communicate their marketing philosophies is to use militaristic terminology.

Recently, one of the Research Group's major competitors, Coleman Research, in their monthly newsletter criticized those who accept these warfare principles without second thought.

According to the article, written by Coleman's Vice President of Research, Richard Harker, thinking militaristically is romantic, but not realistic and useful.

Harker states that in warfare there is generally one enemy, while in radio we have many competitors. He goes on to accuse Trout and Reis of being simplistic in their use of the world of cars, computers and other "high-entry cost" products as containing a "handful of companies competing for market share."

The last time I looked, there were dozens of firms competing in those areas. Granted, there may be an IBM, Apple and COMPAQ at the top of the computer field, but many, many firms compete for the share those do not capture. (Whoops, there I go!)

Radio is similar. In a lot of markets, one, two or three stations dominate the shares to such an extent that little remains for those that follow. That's where the "boutique-ing" or "narrowcasting" principle enters. Then you have a whole different set of players.

There are some 30 or 40 formats, format derivatives and sub-formats in radio today. Some markets contain 30 or 40 stations with each in one of those formats. But, their primary competitor or enemy is the station marketing for the same audience as they are, to the exclusion of everyone else.

In this world, the station that markets itself based upon military principles against its format competitor is the smart operator.

Harker goes on to make many other statements that are right on target. One is that too many stations pay too much attention to the enemy and not enough to themselves, and so can be driven by the competition to become more retaliatory than standing on their own. Another is that some stations are their own worst enemies.

Accurate as these statements are, they do not support the allegation that planning market strategy according to military principle is false.

To see the two sides in their entirety, why not contact the Research Group and Coleman? I'm sure they would supply reprints of any material they have pertaining to the subject. It's still one of the most fascinating around.

KNOW YOUR BATTLEGROUND AS A STATION OR AS A TALENT

1. Learn who your Prime Prospects are. Prime Prospects are those you want to attract, not those you already have.
  - a. Who are they?
  - b. Where are they?
  - c. Why do they do what they do?
2. Learn the Prime Prospects' perceptions of your station.
3. Learn the Marketplace structure.
  - a. What makes it different?
  - b. Where does your station fit in?
  - c. Is there enough Prime Prospects in your market to financially support your effort?
4. Determine strategy.
  - a. How do you stand out in the crowd?
  - b. Will the Prime Prospects believe you?
  - c. What are the reasons to believe you?
  - d. Is there something (a benefit) in it for them?
5. Determine your Image or Persona and reflect that in everything you do. ●

INSIDE COUNTRY

TRIVIA, TRIVIA, TRIVIA. Yes, we already know that most of you know everything there is to know about Country Music. But, could there perhaps be a few facts you're unaware of? It's time to find out, with our new weekly Country Trivia Question. This week's question is:

What Country Music group toured with the Beatles during their 1964 American tour?

Next week we'll print the answer and give you the name of the first Trivia wiz who answered the question correctly.

CHANGES, CHANGES, CHANGES. Changes underfoot at KNYN-Santa Fe/Albuquerque, with Sally Summers taking over the MD spot and Lynn Younger becoming the new PD...Diane McClain takes over as the new MD at WCMR-Elkhart, while Greg Harris moves over to Continuity...Mark Burns at WCAV/FM-Brockton reports that they've got a new area code. Their new number is now 508-587-2400...Chris Stevens has moved over from WKUS -Orlando to become the new PD at WDKC-Ft.Pierce...Barry Warner, who most recently co-hosted a sports/talk program at KHOW-Denver, has become the host of "Sportsmouth", a new sports/talk show on KILT-Houston... John Anthony, MD at WMBC-Columbus /Starkville has moved over to WKOR-Starkville. The new MD at WMBC is Kristie Blake, and PD Mark Sebastian taken over the morning show... KYCK-Grand Forks PD Jaci Anderson has named Jon Davis as the station's new MD.

WHEN IT RAINS, IT POURS. While most sections of the country are now getting some much needed rain, many programmers are still reporting that "Rain" songs are very popular. A couple of them are pretty obvious, The Burch Sisters' "Everytime You Go Outside I Hope It Rains" and The Wright Brothers' "Come On Rain", but some LP cuts you might consider are: Vern Gosdin's "Is It Raining At Your House", Nanci Griffith's "I Wish It Would Rain," Larry Boone's "A Reason For The Rain", Tom Wopat's "The Rain Don't Care", and the "B" side of Billy Joe Royal's current single, "Let It Rain."

ARTIST HAPPENINGS. Conway Twitty, Ronnie Milsap, and The Oak Ridge Boys Richard Sterban have banded together to form The Twitty, Milsap, Sterban Foundation, a non-profit organization dedicated to generating scholarship funds for qualified students excelling in scholastics and athletics. In addition, the foundation has a specific program to provide financial aid to gifted visually-impaired students interested in attending college.

HIT FACTOR

Country Research:
Lisa Smith/Elma Greer

Hit Factor is a percentage of stations which have it in Heavy or Medium rotation, ie: 100 stations playing the record — 60 stations have it in Heavy or Medium rotation — Hit Factor = 60%

NEW RELEASES by Lisa Smith & Cyndi Hoelzle

MICHAEL JOHNSON - That's That (RCA)
The winning combination of Michael Johnson and Brent Maher just keeps cranking out the hits. Once again they've turned to tunesmith Hugh Prestwood ("The Moon Is Still Over Her Shoulder") for another of those beautiful ballads. This one deals with coming to terms with a lost love — thus the title.

JEFF DAYTON BAND - Summer When The Sun Goes Down (Winners Circle)
Glen Campbell's backup band have built up a following in their native Arizona with catchy songs like this. The band sounds tight, with the fiddle and mandolin right up front. Dayton does an admirable job at capturing the mystery of a summer twilight.

BILLY JOE ROYAL - It Keeps Right On Hurtin' (Atlantic America)
Nothing but pure country from Royal, whose voice takes us back to the days before synthesizers.

NITTY GRITTY DIRT BAND - I've Been Lookin' (Warner Bros.)
This is the first single from NGDB's upcoming "Workin' Band" album, and was co-written by the group's Jimmy Ibbotson and Jeff Hannah. They're delivering some more of that lively, uptempo music that the band has been gracing us with for over twenty years. What's not to like?

"PARADISO"-SKYWALK (ZEBRA/MCA)
 "Paradiso" is an advance taste of Skywalk's third long player. It is an electric and melodic joy. Hailing from Canada, Skywalk perform on their instruments confidently, building their sound in layers. At the very top of this track is a nice saxophone hook played by Tom Keenlyside. The album will be released September 1. The band hit the road later that month. If you're interested in presenting them in your market give Ted Higashioka a call at 818-777-4008.

GOING HOME TO SEE MAMA-ROY GAINES (BLACK GOLD)

According to the album notes, guitarist Roy Gaines draws his inspiration from three late guitar legends--Charlie Christian, T-Bone Walker and Wes Montgomery--which gives both programmers and listeners fair warning. By checking the songs on the label (for some reason, Roy omitted them on the sleeve), you notice that Gaines covers a wide region stemming from Joe Sample to Benny Goodman. My favorite is "Nap Town," written by Roy Alexander, who supplies the funky Hammond B-3 interchange between Gaines' guitar licks and the laid-low rhythm section. Gaines covers a lot of ground on his debut, from sweet arrangements, standard soloing and beautiful jazz/blues styling.

VENUSIAN FANTASY-JOE HACKNEY (HAPPY HOUR)
HEAVY HITTER-JOE HACKNEY (HAPPY HOUR)
LIVE AT MAHOGANY HALL-DUKES OF DIXIELAND (HAPPY HOUR)

One of the joys of working in this new Gavin Jazz section is getting a box of music like this. Part of the tiny Happy Hour CD label are four outstanding Jazz entries, each a completely different animal. Most prominent is the Alumni Tribute To Stan Kenton, the Jazz pioneer who stuck up for West Coast Jazz when New York was grabbing all the headlines. Paul Cacia handled the project with integrity and included prominent soloists like Lee Konitz and Jack Sheldon, arranger Shorty Rogers and more. Joe Hackney is a British-born saxman. Though his Jazz is of the electric fusion description, his has a rough and aggressive tone. His previous effort, Venusian Fantasy delves deeper into the electric side of things. The Dukes Of Dixieland, my personal favorite from this shipment, simply wails like there's no Jazz tomorrow. Give the folks at Happy Hour a shout by phoning Judith Wannon at 714-621-9903.

JULES BROUSSARD (HEADFIRST/K-TEL)

Here's something from our own Bay Area via Minneapolis. Jules Broussard is a seasoned sax player whose work has spanned jazz and rock, having played with Boz Scaggs, Van Morrison, Ray Charles and Santana. What makes this disc so special is that it is comprised of only two musicians --Jules and the talented Santana keyboardist Tom Coster. If you remember Coster's own solo work, the sonic beauty of the electronics will not surprise you. Coster's melodies are effective vehicles for Broussard's alto lines. The high spots include the opening "Dawn Dance," "Jammin At Roland's" (a San Fran joint where Jules regularly appears), "Maltese Connection" (an ode to Tom's homeland) and "Joe Deco." Contact Laura-Ann Starita at 612-559-6826.

should be listening very closely to this album, especially tracks like "Living For You," "The Shouting Stage" and the cerebral, Jazzy "Stronger Love." Since Armatrading is producing as well as writing and arranging, one must assume that this is indeed a personal quest. Not only does The Shouting Stage push Armatrading toward new directions, the music blots out the inevitable Tracy Chapman comparisons. "HE'S A SHAPE IN A DRAPE"-
JOE JACKSON (A&M)
No doubt created as a period piece for the Coppola film, Tucker, Joe Jackson comes up with a cool piece of Jazz boogie woogie.

the GAVIN REPORT

The horn section is clean, providing energy alongside the steady boogie woogie melody lines. HERESAY-PAUL McCANDLESS (WINDHAM HILL)
Paul McCandless provides a symphonic feel that obliterates any easy "New Age" tag. With gracious instrumental support from players like Steve Rodby (on acoustic bass) and pianist Art Lande, McCandless maintains a soundtrack-like expanse. The opener, "Sojourner," sets the tone for Heresay. A multi-instrumentalist, McCandless uses woodwinds like oboes, bass clarinets, a variety of saxes, plus synths to simulate a wide-open aural space. However there's frequently a sequenced synth giving the impression of motion. "A WHITER SHADE OF PALE"- DAVID LANZ (NARADA LOTUS)

After recording an instrumental version of "A Whiter Shade Of Pale" for an upcoming solo release, David Lanz tracked down Matthew Fisher to record the authentic Hammond B3 track that is so very much the hook of the song. Available on this CD single is also an unreleased solo piano version. A nice radio-accomodating touch Lanz and Narada include spoken pre- and back-announces.●

Steve Williams became PD of Bell Broadcasting's WJZZ/Detroit in early 1986. After spending five years at non commercial WDET, Steve came to 'JZZ in late 1985 as Production Director. It was just a few months later that Steve was asked to become the station's Program Director. We spoke to Steve about his initiation as PD, the musical flavoring of WJZZ and some general views on Jazz programming.

KZ: How did you go from production to programming?

SW: I wasn't your ace Program Director off the bat. I made a lot of mistakes because I didn't have anybody to tell me what was right and what was wrong. I had come from a public radio station, and commercial radio kind of looks down on public radio. Also, I was a young guy at 25. Being young and the newest person on staff, there was resentment on the part of some of the staff. I had to do a lot of learning on my own.

KZ: Did you try to seek out any advice?

SW: I would call Program Directors at other stations in other cities. Out of ten or twelve PD's that I called, one called me back. James Alexander from WJLB-Detroit gave me a few answers to questions that I had about numbers--why this book went up or this book went down.

KZ: How did you change the station when you arrived?

SW: It's hard to tell in the numbers. We have gone as high as 2.6 since I've been PD. Right now, we're at a 2.1. When I started, WJZZ played quite a bit of mainstream jazz. It was a two-for-two thing--two mainstream songs, then two fusion songs, with a lot of R&B vocals. WJZZ didn't play Sade, Joni Mitchell or white pop artists. That's the major change in the sound of the station since I've been here. When I first took over as PD, I told the station manager that we should be playing Michael McDonald, James Taylor and Sting. At that time, Dream Of The Blue Turtles had just come out. Our audience was buying those records and we could have lost listeners every year if we hadn't become more up to date. Then the Wave thing happened. Sure enough, it was working in LA, Chicago, D.C. Then it came to Detroit. WVAE did pretty well with their first book. They got a two share. They spent hundreds and thousands of dollars in promotion, using billboards and TV commercials.

KZ: So reacting to WVAE helped clear the way toward making your music changes?

SW: We had to react. Our audience had been calling up and asking why we hadn't been playing Sade. I had managed to get it going before WVAE got on the air. It was like a reaction, but more of a pre-emptive strike. I got a chance to add things like Level 42 and Joni Mitchell three months before they hit the air.

KZ: Describe the musical flavoring of the station.

SW: We use a ratio system. We play four or five contemporary jazz tunes to one mainstream. We play fifty minutes of contemporary jazz and at the top of the hour we play two classic jazz tunes. On the contemporary side, we'll play Sting and Sanborn. We'll play some Latin jazz like Tito Puente, Daniel Ponce or Carlos Santana because of the heavy concentration of Hispanics here in Detroit. We play all kinds of classic jazz...everything from Ellington and Coltrane to Jimmy Smith and Ahmad Jamal.

KZ: Is there a way to blend all those different kinds of artists?

SW: When I first got here, the station had a policy of blending the contemporary and mainstream stuff. They'd play Sanborn and right after that, with no break, there would be John Coltrane. I found that to be annoying to our listeners on both sides of the fence. The contemporary people would hate it because the station would go from Sanborn to something that was foreign to them, and not a part of their time. Now we put the two classics at the top of the hour and separate them with commercials. Then there's enough space between the two so it's not a jarring kind of thing. After the second classic tune, we stop and back-announce the two tunes, and move on to the contemporary stuff.

KZ: What's your rotation schedule for a big artist like David Sanborn?

SW: We choose the tracks. But with an artist like Sanborn we can play as many tunes as we want. Sanborn is an out-of-the-box add, and he gets lot of orders before his record gets in the stores. If it's a new artist, like Nelson Rangell, we will choose the best two or three tunes. They are added to a rotation that limits the play to every four hours. That's our heavy rotation.

KZ: What makes Detroit a unique market?

SW: Detroit is uncommon to the degree that there's a pulse here unlike any other town that I've been in. It works in Detroit if it has a rhythmic intensity. This is a very industrial town. It's working class with the rhythm of the machines, the factories, the cars and the flow. People might refer to the rhythmic intensity in the same light as the racial makeup. But that has nothing to do with it. Whites and blacks both have this Detroit pulse. That's probably why the Wave really doesn't work in this town.

KZ: What are the station's strong dayparts?

SW: We have more listeners between six and midnight, but we try to keep the station sounding as consistent as possible. I don't change things too much between 6:00 AM and midnight. Everybody uses the same basic rotation. It's a cafeteria rotation with four different categories We play two currents, then an "A category" which is a three or four month old recurrent. Then we use two other recurrent categories--Classic Contemporary and Classic Mainstream Jazz.

KZ: If a non-Jazz station wanted to devote some block programming for Jazz, what advice would you give that programmer?

SW: You must consider the diversity of your listeners. When you're trying to program Jazz, the inherent thing is diversity--mainstream, fusion, avant garde, Latin. You have to include all elements. I don't think you should just play one kind of jazz. You should make all of the pieces of the pie available. That will make the show interesting. You can't rely on phone calls. They're nice but you can't use it as a gauge for programming, unless you ask your listeners to call up and tell you what they like. A lot of people won't call. They'll either dig it or they won't dig it. You have to put it out there and not make any judgments about the music.

KZ: Is that a secret to WJZZ's success?

SW: You have to be careful not to put your personal feelings about the music on the air. That's why we consistently pull two shares in a big city. If you look at some of the programming techniques of stations in smaller markets, you'll find that the most successful stations are the ones who program artists like David Sanborn, Duke Ellington and John Coltrane. That's the key. Even if you have a three hour show in Dubuque, every hour should have that diversity. You shouldn't program one hour of mainstream, one of hour of fusion, etc. You shouldn't block it or checkerboard it. You have to have diversity but you have to listen to the music to find out what flows so it doesn't jar and distract the listener. Mix the music, but give it a smooth transition.●

THE ROBERT CRAY BAND

Don't be afraid of the dark

DON'T BE AFRAID OF THE DARK-THE ROBERT CRAY BAND (HIGHTONE/MERCURY)

This is the first full release where the Cray Band can commercially test the staying power of their blues rock n roll sound. Was it the song "Smoking Gun" or a new band with a new sound that turned heads late in 1986? Songs like the title track (which has already carried the band to number three on our Album chart), "Night Patrol" and "Acting This Way" prove a lot. With this album, the Cray Band can pride themselves as an outfit with a golden touch, rather than a blues band that became a token exception. As an expressive guitar stylist, Cray can take his place next to the likes of Mark Knopfler and Eric Clapton. The band will look back at this album as an important milestone. By remaining true to their original vision and not being afraid to add a few sonic spices to the mix, the Cray Band enter the nineties grandly, taking the blues and its integrity as an artform with them.

FATE-HUNTERS & COLLECTORS (IRS/MCA)

After a week of listening to eyewash and ear candy Fate was this week's Most Valuable Player. "Hunna" Mark Seymour scores again as an earnest and communicative frontman. His talents as a lyricist foretell many a gut level truth, wielding both strength and vulnerability. This is a consistent effort starting with "Back On The Breadline," a song that thankfully can be interpreted on many levels. Since transforming himself into a muscle-bound athlete, Seymour has taken Hunters & Collectors to new heights--heights that have yet to be fully appreciated stateside. I have many memories of their fine live shows. Fate comes closest to recreating the power this band musters onstage. Start with "Breadline" and work your way up to great rock n roll like "Do You See What I See," "Faraway Man" and "Wishing Well."

NEW RELEASES

"CULT OF PERSONALITY"-LIVING COLOUR (EPIC)

Interest is being sustained (or shall I say resurrected) in this fine record by Vernon Reid's band, Living Colour. While a cache of key stations pick up on this rock n roll collage of our times, a special live EP is on the way with a very special B-side, an unlikely cover of Tracy Chapman's "Talking 'Bout A Revolution."

THE INDESCRIBABLE WOW-SAM PHILLIPS (VIRGIN)

The Indescribable Wow is one of T Bone Burnett's very best productions. Both he and singer Sam Phillips toy with psychedelic music eras, juggling influences and desperately avoiding the sensitive female folk singer syndrome. Instead, the stable of Burnett sidemen plus Phillip's compatible wit make for a wonderful combination of music and attitude. "I Don't Want to Fall In Love" is a beautiful opening position statement. I couldn't help noticing that half the song titles either say "Can't" or "Don't". Sam (formerly Leslie Phillips) reveals herself as a clever and endearing writer. By mixing up the arrangement styles, the listener is never stuck in a rut. The virtue of The Indescribable Wow is its quirky sense of unpredictability. This is a fresh collection for the spontaneous of heart. Trax: "I Don't Know How To Say Goodbye To You," "Holding On To The Earth," "Flame" and "Remorse."

RUMBLE-TOMMY CONWELL AND THE YOUNG RUMBLERS (COLUMBIA)

Tommy Conwell and his band are making severe inroads, taking their hot roadshow from Philly to audiences across the country. Look for this debut to gather its rotation points, pack 'em in a suitcase, hit the road and storm up the charts. On Rumble, Conwell and his band get rowdy, recalling the best of David Johansen's early solo work. The guitar licks are spare and bluesy. And while occasionally the sound may lack the overall versatility of a performer like Tom Petty (who, in my book, sets the standard for this genre of American squirm), Conwell and his Rumlbers play it tough and focused. I especially like "Half A Heart" "I Wanna Make You Happy," and the sentimental "If We Never Meet Again."

"TRUE LOVE"-GLENN FREY (MCA)

Clutching his beautiful Gretsch White Falcon guitar, Glenn Frey offers u his heart and soul. He convincingly retains his love for the classic Stax period sound and in the process easily captures this week's Most Added honors by a Memphis mile.

SHOOTING RUBBERBANDS AT THE STARS-EDIE BRICKELL & NEW BOHEMIANS (GEFFEN)

Originally billed just as the New Bohemians, Edie Brickell and her band of free spirits release an affectionate and likeable debut. With the success of bands like 10,000 Maniacs, look for programmers to be listening with open ears and minds. Like this band's name denotes, the Bohemians experiment with out-of-time music styles blending the instrumentation with Brickell's notebook squiggings. Whether it's the use of the first person in songs like "Air Of December," "Beat The Time" or "What I Am" or characterizations like "Little Miss S," you'll find Edie Brickell's observational skills to be keen and acute. # INSIDE ALBUM by Kent Zimmerman

GAVIN QUIZ. Who holds the record for the most Time Magazine covers? Answer at the end of this column. (Hint: It's not Wayne Gretzky, but you're close.)

CHART TALK. If you're sick of seeing Steve Winwood at the number one slot, brace yourself. His Michelob ad received a ton of adds this week, second to Glenn Frey's new single. If Little Feat or Robert Cray intend on dethroning Winwood, they had better get aggressive because Steve has just thrown his vehicle into overdrive...After a few weeks of stalling, Melissa Etheridge broke away and is aiming at the Top Ten. Reinforcement trax are starting to surface. Besides "Water," "Chrome Plated Heart" is starting to get some nods...Besides Melissa, this week will be a key week for Rhythm Corps, Paul Kelly and Cheap Trick. All three should be looking back at Robert Plant who has been gaining ground the last two weeks. Bet on big movers like Tommy Conwell & his Rumblers, Blue Oyster Cult and Glenn Frey.

AROUND THE HORN. Congrats to Bob Wayne and his staff at KJKJ-Grand Forks. Since abandoning their Top Forty format, the station moved from a 2.5 share to a 13.8 12+. They are now less than two percentage points away from the dominant Top Forty. If you haven't checked in with Bob at KJKJ, give him a call at 701-746-1417. Address is 215 North Third, #200, Grand Forks, ND, 58201...In typical Rebel 100 fashion, Ned Horton is having good luck with Lita Ford and Shriekback. Knowing them, they're probably playing them back to back...Lora Porter joins KPGA/FM-San Luis Obispo as Assistant Music Director...Bryan Ferry opened his tour in Boston. Raves from the WBCN staff indicate this will be one of the shows of the year...Ginger Havlat at KBCO reports two new Melissa Etheridge trax on the playlist--"Watching You" and "Like The Way I Do." Broadcasts at KBCO included a full hour of Bruce Hornsby, two songs by opener Pat McLaughlin and an in-studio concert by Richard Thompson...I have to agree with Jack "Gene Siskel" Isquith. Midnight Run is a good flick, but runs about twenty minutes too long. My recommendation? Wim Wender's Wings Of Desire. It's got a rock n roll attitude as well as appearances by Crime & The City Solution and Nick Cave and his Bad Seeds...At KSPN in Aspen Steve Cole is getting results from adult pleasers like Robben Ford, Karla Bonoff, Gregg Allman and Joan Armatrading...Dave Logan, wearing the Music Director hat, picks two more trax off the Robert Cray album. KFOG added "Night Patrol" and "Don't You Care."

WELCOME TO THE MACHINE. Yet another station crosses the border from Top Forty. Please welcome KKTX-Longview, TX. Nick Roberts is the PD. Over the months, the station has been steadily evolving toward an Album Radio sound. With that transition complete, Roberts reports "tremendous response." Give Nick a call at 214-984-2001. Address is Box 192, Kilgore, TX, 75662. KKTX is currently serving four different Texas metro regions. Once they hit the 50K level, the sky is the limit.

GOLDEN THROATS ON RHINO. I know it's been out there a few months, but if you haven't yet heard the Golden Throats album compilation on Rhino, you're missing out on a perfect AM Drive masterpiece. The gist of the album is the collection of actors and celebrities covering rock n roll songs during the Sixties. Examples? Poor Leonard Nimoy (who cut a half dozen albums) struggles with Fogerty's "Proud Mary."

Sebastian Cabot reciting Bob Dylan is hilariously embarrassing. Joel Grey singing Cream's "White Room," Jack Webb reciting "Try A Little Tenderness," and Jim Nabors singing Stevie Wonder is bad enough, but wait until you hear William Shatner reciting "Lucy In The Sky With Diamonds." I found the liner notes almost as entertaining as these blunders. Whadda package! Incidentally, Rhino also pulled off a hip coup by releasing the 18 classic Roy Orbison Monument trax on CD. Congrats to the Rhinos. Keep 'em coming.

GAVIN QUIZ ANSWER. Who holds the record for the most Time Magazine cover appearances? Why, Jesus Christ with seventeen Time covers, that's who. Meanwhile, stay well. Yer pal, KZ.

INSIDE ALTERNATIVE RADIO

The Sugarcubes pull off the unexpected by rebounding to number one. They join only a handful of bands achieving such a feat. There isn't a stronger record moving up the chart than the Primitives. This record is gaining airplay from both commercial and college stations with listener response lighting up the phones, including those of, Jamie Karr-KACV, Heidi Fridlund-KUCI, Kim Saade-WRAS ("Beginning to sell well"), Joe Simon-KTCL ("One of the summer's biggest"), Cyndie Wathen-KFSR ("The BIG record around here") and Bruce McDonald-WFN ("#2 most requested"). Big Audio Dynamite and Siouxsie & the Banshees are both potential number one threats. Hothouse Flowers is having a tremendous debut and is clearly Top Ten material. Ivar Hamilton-CFNY and Damen Stewart-KJET both are looking for Hothouse Flowers to do big things at their stations. UB40 has quietly been racking up astounding airplay, while last week's Top Tip In Tua Nua, is buzzing right behind them.

The Married To The Mob Soundtrack is the largest gainer on the chart with a 30 position jump. The Joy Division compilation album is our Top Tip and highest debut on the chart. Hunters & Collectors are the Record To Watch and Most Added. Judging by phone response they should make a healthy leap next week. Icicle Works ("Coming along nicely," Mike Summers-KJQN), Joan Armatrading (moving well for Rich Robinson-WHTG and Jeanne Atwood-WDST), Robert Cray, Reckless Sleepers and (last week's Record To Watch) Public Enemy all debut. Another debut is Fatal Flowers who really turned it on this week. Kim Saade-WRAS ("It's my pet record") and Seana Baruth-WUSC ("It rocks") report strong reaction on the album. Eddie Brickell & New Bohemians was our third Most Added record and Mike "Adult Contemporary" Thomas-WMDK wants to go on record as saying the it's "gonna be a smash ...you heard it here first." OK Mike! One record that's moving fast is My Dad Is Dead. This record should chart next week and is causing lots of commotion for Jason Cohen-WNUR, Chris Crowley-WUSB and John Koski-WRVU. A few records bubbling just under Chartbound include Dwight Yoakam, who's quickly making waves for Kakie Urch-WRFL and Patrick Ferris WWVU. Sparks' new album is already a big club hit (Top Ten) and was Top Five as an import at KROQ and Live 105. The Close Lobsters are approaching and likely to make an intermediate stop in Chartbound next week before hitting the chart. Transvision Vamp is another band that's racking up adds and is battling for a position on an increasingly competitive Chartbound. The last few weeks have seen a flood of releases, making Chartbound space a premium.

NEW RELEASES

"Every Angel" - ALL ABOUT EVE (MERCURY-12")

All About Eve stretches their sound horizontally, with a wide atmospheric spectrum that reverberates in dramatic fashion. Bright vocals by lead vocalist Julianne Regan contrast with a dark and haunting musical mystique. Imagine Annie Lennox singing with Mission UK and you get the idea. Look for a full album early next month.

really needed to break a new act. With A&M, (Split Enz's label), they were very enthusiastic and did a very good job, but when they met a lot of resistance, there was always something else to distract them--a Squeeze record or whatever. Also, Split Enz always took a slightly perverse attitude toward touring America and spending that much time there. I never felt like we communicated very well with the record company. So with this band I didn't want to make the same mistake.

RF: You touched on the fact that Capitol never gave up on the first album, particularly the first single, "Don't Dream It's Over." Did you at any point ever dream that it was over during that nine months that it took for the record to happen?

NF: Plenty of times. I'm just as pessimistic as I can be. I wasn't feeling really bad about it or anything--in fact I was looking forward to doing another album--but by November of 1986, I'd more or less accepted the fact that the thing wasn't gonna happen. I said to Gary Stampler, our manager, that I didn't see any point in coming to America to tour unless we got into the top hundred, thinking at that stage that we weren't going to, and I'd save myself a bit of traveling. But he rang me up in January and said, "Well, we're number 86, so when does the tour start?" I had to actually live up to my commitment.

RF: After "Dream" had been out for months and was a hit strictly at the Adult/Contemporary level and nowhere else, I can remember Capitol's Tom Gorman saying, "We'll stay with it as long as we have to. We know we've got a hit record."

NF: Part of that was because we had spent enough time with the people to make them feel like they had a personal involvement in it. They had some of their own pride at stake as well. There's a lot of distance between bands and record companies, but even today record companies are made up of individuals who just want to feel good about what they're doing. If you can help them feel good about their job, they'll kill for you.

RF: It was the Gavin Stations which broke the record.

NF: We are very aware of the help we've received from the Gavin stations because that was basically where it all started with "Don't Dream It's Over." Sometimes they may feel they're overlooked at times. We appreciate them, very much.

RF: How would you describe your mates in the band, Paul Hester and Nick Seymour?

NF: I tend to be almost overwhelmed by both Paul and Nick. When they're on form, they're capable of an almost manic sort of energy. Paul is a natural comedian. He gets it making people laugh and being able to imitate people. We've got a new keyboard player, Mike Gub, a New Zealander, and Paul had him down within two days. He does him better than he does himself. Paul is also very domestic. He loves to make a cup of tea and have the room very tidy. He has the tidiest room on-tour by far. The other side of his comedic personality is the dark side, which comes out from time to time. But you just leave him alone and he's fine.

RF: Is he a practical joker?

NF: No, but he's always looking for any kind of comic opportunities that occur during the day. You can find yourself at your tiredest and most discouraged on tour, and all of a sudden you'll be laughing because Paul will completely turn it around. He's a good guy to have around.

RF: And Nick?

NF: Nick will talk to almost anybody who will come along for at least half an hour, no matter what sort of person it is. Often he'll end up talking to some complete idiot. But he's got a lot of time for people. Nick's a very visual person.

RF: He does the graphics on the albums, too.

NF: He did all the artwork for both album covers, painted our backdrops for stage, and he is involved with all the film clips. His energy in those areas has been fantastic. I find that when I'm with both of them, I tend to sit in the background a little bit, which is fine with me. You can't compete with them when their both going for it.

RF: What do you guys think of Paul Hogan?

NF: I think Paul Hogan is a crazy man but, I think we're all a bit sick of the way Paul Hogan has come to represent Australian society to the majority of people around the world, but there is a lot more than that to Australia. It's a stereotype, we don't have many barbecues. If we ever do, we only have sausages and no shrimp. So he's less of a novelty for us than I think he is for people who don't see his movies.

RF: What is the significance of the album title, The Temple Of Low Men?

NF: I think it's a good, ambiguous title. That's what I look for in an album title. But it's actually from seeing that phrase scrawled on a wall in Los Angeles. I liked the sound of it. When we saw Jimmy Swaggart apologizing to his congregation on the same day, I thought, "There's something about this that's quite indicative of the times, and of living in Los Angeles, and also indicative of some of the lyrics on the album." It's like we all try to do our best and see some meaning in life, but at the end of the day we're all capable of being quite low.

RF: I'm sure I'm not going to be the first to comment that there seems to be a lot of Beatles influence on this album.

NF: You're not the first. If they were still together they'd be doing a lot better than what we're doing. I feel we're only scratching the surface of what we're capable of. It's enormously flattering to have people say those sort of things. I love the Beatles, and nobody can touch them as songwriters. If there's an influence there I accept it, but I don't believe it's ever been a conscious thing--that I've set out to imitate the spirit of the Beatles. The way I sing was influenced by British music, but I would never want to make it too conscious. I don't even listen to Beatles records these days because they're too special.

RF: The current single, "Better Be Home Soon," has a very American quality to it. You could adapt it for Country radio play with some different production.

NF: Oh, it has. I was aware that it had a Country flavor. It just came very simply one day, and I think that's the joy of good Country music. It's only been recently that I've started to appreciate Country music, I used to think it was the worst thing in the world, but Mitchell opened my eyes to people like Hank Williams. The beauty of good Country music is its absolute purity, simplicity and expression of emotion, so if it works on that level, it's great.

RF: In your lyric and the precision of your recording, you are very serious, yet you're very goofy on stage.

NF: There's an odd bit of humor in the records, but when we get on stage, we seem to bring out a an exuberant side of each other, and it lightens me up a bit. It's good to have a balance. If you've got songs which are often dark, some of them expressing quite morbid things, it's good to balance that out with a pretty "up" sort of stage persona. I find that the contrast makes people think that the band's really good, and there's nothing better at a concert than having a laugh and then being drawn into a melancholy song.

RF: The mood swings in your show create a tremendous amount of emotion within the audience.

NF: On a good night, I think we pull it off really well. On a bad night, sometimes, we can be distracting to people. If we happen to choose the wrong song and fool around beforehand, it can undermine the impact of a song like "Hole In the River." Occasionally we've had a bit of a joke before that song, and it takes half the song to get into the right mood. So we are aware of the fact that it carries a certain amount of risk being that loose on stage.

RF: Do you ever lose it in the middle of a song?

NF: Yeah I've had moments. You'll see when we get to America, Mike, our keyboard player, plays with such enthusiasm, and he's got such a characterful face that he's actually very funny when he plays. If you watch him for too long you can actually lose it. The first night we played in Copenhagen, I found myself thinking in the middle of a song how incredibly funny the whole thing was, and I lost it completely.

RF: When can we expect this tour?

NF: We're due there in mid-September until about November.

RF: With whom will you be touring?

NF: Well it's not 100 percent, but it looks as if we'll be with Hunters & Collectors.

RF: And that's Nick's brother?

NF: Nick's brother Mark.

RF: And what about your brother, Tim. He participates on a couple of tracks on this album. Is he going to tour with you guys?

NF: He might turn up in a few places, but his album will just be out then. From what I've heard so far, he's making a really good record, and I wouldn't be surprised if sometime in the next year we were together on stage. ●

PERSONAL PICKS

SINGLES by Dave Sholin

KYLIE MINOGUE - *The Loco-Motion
(Geffen)

In a year that's given us "The Twist" and "Do You Love Me," why not resurrect the 1962 Goffin/King hit first made famous by their baby sitter Little Eva? Both the original, and a 1974 remake by Grand Funk, went to number one. Skillful use of echo enhances this latest production that topped the Australian chart recently.

CINDERELLA - *Don't Know What You Got (Til It's Gone) (Mercury/ PolyGram)

Power ballads by Cheap Trick, Whitesnake, Van Halen Europe, Def Leppard and Aerosmith have raced up pop playlists over the past year. Get ready to add Cinderella's name to the list of rockers who've conquered Top 40 land by going the mellow, more melodic route. Absolutely spectacular song, and great arrangement.

ALBUMS by Ron Fell

LITTLE FEAT - *Let It Roll (Warner Bros.)

I know I'm late, but I figure if they can take eight years off, I can have two weeks. Featmusic, I thought, was an acquired taste - one which comes to a slow, slow boil. At least that's the way it used to be. Let It Roll's immediate acceptance both at radio and in sales breaks with tradition. Featnics in the 70s spread the word of a hot band which drew its inspiration from the roots music of Memphis, New Orleans and The Ozarks. Featnics were once protective of their discovery - not unlike the moonshine underground. It wasn't until the tragic death of good ole boy Lowell George in 1979 that public reverence and tribute reached the band. George was in large part, both figuratively and literally, the focus of the band.

His penmanship, lead vocals and slippin' slide guitar were benchmarks in every mix. Let It Roll is the Feat's first post-Georgian album with new lead singer Craig Fuller (ex-Pure Prairie League and Fuller Kaz Band). And though Fuller lacks the barrel-chested, overhauled torso, he understands the essence of Featmusic - soulful, filter-free, true grits hominy and harmony. As a semi-certified Featnic, I'd like to put the past in a safe place and accept Let It Roll as the beginning of a new night of honkin' and tonkin'. I'll select HATE TO LOSE YOUR LOVIN', LONG TIME TILL I GET OVER YOU, LET IT ROLL and a special atypical Featsong, VOICES IN THE WIND with Linda Ronstadt.
