Waldron GM/PD At KUTQ

After five months of "not looking very hard," former KISN-Salt Lake City program director Gary Waldron has taken over as general manager/program director of crosstown Top 40 Q 99.5 (KUTQ).

"The only thing we're going to change is the ratings and the demos," Waldron said of his new charge. KUTQ, he says, with its 3.6 share of the Salt Lake City market, owns teens but not much else. Waldron is seeking 18-34 women, "and lots of them."

Waldron spent seven years at KISN and prior to that stint was at KCPX—also in Salt Lake City—for fifteen years.

"The way I feel about it (becoming a general manager) is when I left my last job I felt I should find a better boss," Waldron laughed, "and so I found me."

JRS REORGANIZES

After a year of struggling to make it in a crowded marketplace, JRS Records has pared its field staff to five regional representatives.

According to label chief Artie Mogul, the company is reorganizing, and there are no indications that it is going under. Among those remaining are Dave Urso, Jeff Donovan, Tom Fricke and Fred Meyers.

The label has only had two Top 40 entries—Maggie's Farm and Curtis Salgado—since its inception. See Rotations in this issue for the names of JRS promoters who are available.

MULTIPLE APPOINTMENTS AT SONY/COLUMBIA

Four appointments were made this week at Sony Music/Columbia Records, topped by the naming of Ted Green, who'll take the post of Vice President, Sony Music.

Green, formerly Executive Vice President, Administration

& Operations at Atco Records, will work with Sony Music label heads, and oversee various projects. Green has also worked at PolyGram and CBS Records.

"I have enjoyed knowing and working with Ted for many years,

Naumann Upped To VP

Jeffrey Naumann, who's been with Virgin Records since its U.S. debut, has been promoted to Vice-President, Radio Promotion.

Most recently Senior Director of Promotion, Naumann has worked with most of the label's successful acts, including Lenny Kravitz, Iggy Pop and Divinyls.

"Naumann's intensity when it comes to developing acts and getting airplay is unmatched in the business—he gets results," said company Senior Vice-President Promotion, Michael Plen. "He broke many acts when he was at RCA and has been delivering for Virgin for five years now. It will be a great pleasure to have Jeffrey involved in every aspect of our promotion department."

in different companies," said Sony Executive Vice President Mel Ilberman. "...his dedication and business acumen have never failed to impress. The range and scope of his abilities is exceptional...I'm confident Ted will prove a powerful asset for Sony Music.

Also at the company this week, three local promotion managers were named in Columbia's Black Music Department.

•Joe Bullard has been appointed Local Promotion Manager for Florida/Alabama. Bullard has been with the label since 1988, prior to which he was PD/MD at WANM-Tallahassee.

•John G. Green is now the Carolinas Local Promotion Manager. He comes to the label from Leow's Lorillard, where he was a Marketing Specialist.

•Allan Cole has been named Local Promotion Manager for Atlanta. Most recently in radio, Cole was an account executive at WALT-Meridian, Mississippi.

Tom Ennis has been promoted to Vice President, Product Management at Arista Records. He has been with the label for 13 years, most recently as Senior Director, Artist Development.

Terry Anzaldo is National Director, West Coast Promotion and Dance Radio Promotion for RCA Records.

Richard Sanders has joined Arista as Vice President, Artist Development.

Mike Kelly has been named Field Director, Rhythm and Black Promotion at Mercury Records.

Pollack Calls Top 40 Dead

At his yearly conference held in Los Angeles last week, top radio consultant Jeff Pollack, addressing clients from as far away as Australia, France and England, charged that Top 40 is all but dead.

"We may actually be witnessing the death of mainstream formats as we know them," Pollack said in his annual state-of-the-dial address. "Niche formats now win regularly, and Top 40 radio is in a desperate situation."

Pollack sees Dance and Alternative as the formats of the future. "It is the first real trend since the 1960s when Album Rock went FM," Pollack said of Alternative radio. "It is based on artists, not songs, and by the end of 1992, Alternative formats will explode onto the scene in most markets."

See this week's Inside Top 40 for more comments from one of this country's most successful radio consultants.

RHINO, ATLANTIC SIGN DISTRIBUTION PACT

Rhino Records, the label that releases many popular compilations, has signed an agreement with Atlantic Records calling for Atlantic to distribute Rhino's audio product worldwide. It will be in effect starting on March 31 of this year.

As part of the deal, Rhino will work with Atlantic to reissue some of the label's classics.

"We are extremely excited," said Rhino President Richard Foos. "The Atlantic catalogue is unparalleled for its musical legacy. We are thrilled to be able to distribute our releases through the great WEA system."

"We are very proud to enter this agreement with Rhino, the company which has set the standard for high quality compilations," said Atlantic Vice Chairman/CFO Melvyn R. Lewinter. "Their expertise is second to none in our business, and they boast a rare combination of music knowledge, artistic sensibility and marketing savvy."

"Mancow" Says "Good Morning" on KSOL

Morning zany Erich "Mancow" Muller, formerly the host of KDON-Monterey/Salinas' "Mancow's Morning Madhouse," has packed his bags and moved north to KSOL-San Francisco.

"KMEL is the sleeping giant that has been resting on its laurels, and I'm the giant killer," asserts "Mancow" of the daunting task of taking on the market's #1 music station.

In less than six months at KDON, "Mancow" took the station's morning ratings from a 6.7 to a whopping 20.0 share of persons 18-34. During 1989 and '90 he was co-host/writer/producer for shockmeister Randy Miller, whose morning show on KBEQ-Kansas City, Missouri was #1 in that city.

"I feel like I'm in the WWF ready to head in the 'royal rumble,'" "Mancow" said in closing.

Meanwhile, KSOL is preparing to move to San Francisco from its longtime offices in San Mateo. They'll be at 55 Green Street, San Francisco. The relocation is scheduled for the beginning of March, but, according to a source within the station, it could be pushed back, so don't change your Rolodex cards until we give you the final word.

This year's annual T.J. Martell West Coast fundraising drive was kicked off in Los Angeles recently. The campaign slogan is "Share The Dream" and Frances W. Preston, BMI President and CEO is the honoree. Pictured here l-r: Warner/Chappell Music Chairman/CEO Les Bider; EMI Records Group North America Chairman/CEO and last year's T.J. Martell Humanitarian Charles Koppelman; MJJ Productions V.P. Communications Bob Jones; Preston; Tabu Records President Clarence Avant; A&M Records Chairman/CEO Jerry Moss.

AIR the GAVIN COMPETITION

TIM WATTS

Formerly KHTT/SANTA ROSA, CA

"When I look at the list of previous AIR CHR winners I realize AIR signifies the best cars in the business. Frankie, Keith, Kevin and the others have proven they're the best, not only through the AIR Competition but in their day-to-day programming. Winning the first AIR Competition for Gavin programmers is an extreme thrill for me and a special achievement I will always be most proud of. My goal is to work hard to go on from here to achieve and maintain the same high standards set by these past winning programmers."

"Thank you Active Industry Research for the opportunity to compete and have fun at something we all revere and love so much in this business ... listening to music!"

INSIDE TOP 40

by Dave Sholin

In a speech delivered during his annual Los Angeles radio conference, Pollack Media Group Chairman/CEO Jeff Pollack all but nailed the coffin shut on mainstream Top 40 radio. Excerpts printed in The Hollywood Reporter included this assessment, "We may actually be witnessing the death of mainstream formats as we know them. Niche formats now win regularly and Top Forty is in a desperate situation."

Earlier this week Jeff clarified his comments explaining that, "Mainstream Top Forty in competitive environments is done. If you're not in a niche, meaning Dance radio, meaning Alternative radio, meaning Rick Dees, because that to me is a niche, mainstream Top Forty has nothing unique to offer and thereby is squeezed on all sides and is in desperate shape. Now if you are by yourself—great! You can continue to function as a mainstream Top Forty outlet."

Citing Dance Top 40 as "healthy" and Alternative Top 40 "on the way up," Pollack maintains those two niches are the Top 40 formats that will survive in the years ahead. To insure we're in agreement on terminology, Jeff defines "mainstream" in the traditional sense of stations that play "a little bit of everything—play Nirvana, Michael Bolton, Hammer, maybe dally around with Metallica's 'Enter Sandman,' maybe not, but basically cover the whole gamut." And he doesn't single out Top 40 as a format that requires a niche but, "Album and A/C stations" too must have either a "specific niche or the aberration of a great morning show."

As for small and medium market stations, he again stresses, "If you're format-exclusive, you can continue to be more of all things to all people." Hot A/Cs have been helped over the last few years, according to Pollack, because of the confusion at Top 40—especially the exodus of adults who don't want to hear Rap. As for Adult Top 40, the analogy he used during his speech was, "It's like trying to cast Dustin Hoffman in 'Bill and Ted's Bogus Adventure' in a bid to get adults to see the film. There is no such thing as Adult Top Forty."

In the final analysis he maintains that in markets with "strong A/Cs and Dance stations and possibly an Alternative station," a mainstream competitor faces an uphill battle. Five years ago, niche formats were the last resort; now, the whole marketplace has shifted so that the mainstream arena has nothing unique about it. The variety comes from all the stations not one individual station." Readily admitting these are his opinions and many will disagree with his views, Jeff "doesn't see mainstream formats being a solution anymore in markets where there are so many other places you can go to to get super-served and you can continue to switch your dial to fit the mood you're in." Several programmers will share their feelings about Jeff's comments next week. Most of us would agree with one of his final observations, said with mild laughter, "It's an exciting time to be programming!"

Some of the week's bigger HIT FACTOR increases include MICHAEL JACKSON, up a staggering 38% to 78%, MICHAEL BOLTON featuring KENNY G, more than doubling from 30% to 61%, and GENESIS, off to a hot start 7% to 31%. And although she has yet to top 200 reports, PAULA ABDUL is doing well where she's being played with a HIT FACTOR growth pattern of 53% to 73%. ON MANAGEMENT

by Oren Harari

LAYOFFS AND FIRINGS:
4 COMMON MISTAKES

This week we have a question offered by someone who wishes to remain anonymous because the label she works for is laying people off in waves. I can truly appreciate both her question and her desire to stay anonymous. Here it is:

What are the most common mistakes made when it comes to laying off or firing employees?

Answer:

Not long ago, a poll was conducted with executives around the country. One of the questions had to do with the most difficult decision they'd ever had to make. By far, the most common response was that their most difficult decision was to lay off people. Even granting the possibility that some of these executives were Darth Vader types who didn't lose a moment's sleep in destroying the lives of their people, the fact remains that most managers agree that letting someone go is usually a very difficult, painful process for all involved. And the pain has a ripple effect. That is, those who keep their jobs become paranoid that they will be the next to go (and they might), or they become angry with the manager for what they perceive to be a grossly unfair decision.

Furthermore, the topic of layoffs becomes emotionally charged because frequently top management is indeed ruthless, capricious and self-serving, or at the least, grossly misleading and insensitive, in how they handle layoffs. All too often, people on the payroll are considered expendable, as mere "costs" of production that can be moved in or out arbitrarily like chess pieces. No wonder so few companies elicit loyalty among their people. How can you be loyal or committed to a company that's going to shove you out the door at any moment?

Yet the situation becomes even more complicated because as painful and difficult as the decision can be, sometimes it's the right decision to make. Many organizations are overstaffed. That is, too many people are on the payroll draining costs and providing only marginal value, or, alternatively, the number of people is okay but there may be a person or two who is simply not performing well despite all the manager's efforts. Under either of these circumstances, a manager who doesn't let people go is not doing his or her job properly.

I mention this because the subject is more complex than we think, and besides, sometimes people assume that one of their basic inalienable American rights is a permanent job in whatever organization they choose. No such luck. For now, let's stay with the basic premise of the question—that a layoff or firing is a given (rather than alternatives like attractive retirement packages, job rotation, job retraining or senior management pay cuts). The fact is that too many managers and too many companies make unnecessary and sometimes cruel mistakes when they do decide to let people go. Here are some of the most common mistakes:

1. Lack of honesty. This is the biggie. It should be #1, #2 and #3. The biggest mistake is that management is not straight with people. Solution: If you, the manager, think that people (or an individual) might have to be laid off, tell them ahead of time. Tell them why. Don't hide anything; show them whatever numbers or trends underlie the decision. If large-scale layoffs are a distinct possibility, make it public throughout the organization, personally, not through a memo. Answer questions, personally, not through a memo. If possible, encourage those who may have to leave to be creative in helping you figure out creative ways so they won't have to be let go. How can they restructure their jobs or their compensation so that they truly add value? Don't keep them guessing. And if it's an individual who may not be performing up to par, first ask yourself if you, the manager, have done your job in the past by being straight with him/her in terms of constant feedback and coaching. If the answer is no, start. If the answer is yes, either move the person to another job that they will do well, or fire the person quickly and cleanly, and tell the survivors exactly why. But the bottom line is to keep the rumor mill and whispers to a minimum by talking about these issues in as direct and honest (sometimes painfully honest) way as possible. Share information, share your concerns, share possible decisions, share alternatives.

Good managers and effective companies are honest. Bad ones believe that honesty is unnecessary, or that it will cause people to become unmotivated and disloyal. In fact, it is dishonesty and withholding of information that will cause people to become unmotivated and disloyal. Being shocked at termination (because your boss never mentioned that your performance was below par), or reading about imminent layoffs in your own company in a trade publication (which means reporters knew it but you didn't) are the ultimate lowest indignities delivered by poor management. Why don't we get it?

2. Lack of sensitivity. The callousness and impersonality with which organizations get rid of people is appalling, and it damages the morale and loyalty of the survivors to boot. You know the horror stories: a memo telling you (singular or plural) sayonara, a curt statement by your boss that you're out here, a half hour to get your stuff out of your office and get lost, and so on. Solution for management: Act like a human being. There is no other way to build rapport and teamwork within your organization, even with the survivors. If you have to tell someone that they 'have to leave,' don't do it on a late afternoon, or on a Friday where they'll have the entire weekend to feel in a state of semi-suicidal shock. Instead, show some courage. Spend time with them. Talk to them. Commiserate with them. Advise them. Let them ventilate. Answer their questions. Give them Kleenexes. Tell them you'll be available if they have questions later on, after the shock has worn off. And do so.

3. Lack of counseling and placement assistance. Poorly run companies just cut bait. Their attitude toward people is "out of sight, out of mind." That shortsighted attitude always comes back to haunt them in terms of low employee morale, poor motivation and poor reputation out in the field. Solution: Even if you have to let people go, do what you can to help them survive the crisis and consider offering them help in getting other employment. The best companies put significant energy in this direction. If you have to lay off people who are doing a good job but through no fault of their own are in a situation that demands pruning, then consider hiring experts who can give people very fast psychological counseling, or experts who can advise people on how to get new employment. This is not as expensive as you might think; we're only talking about a day or two, but the information these experts can provide in a day or two is extraordinary. Further, make sure you tell these people that within reason you will do whatever you can personally (act as a reference, write a letter of recommendation, talk to someone) to help them out. You may, as one successful company did, keep them appraised through the subsequent months about the possibility of being rehired; send them notices, updates, newsletters and so on. Even if you have to fire someone who's not doing the job effectively but at least is trying, offer him or her some advice or help in terms of finding a job that he or she might be able to do successfully. The point is that when people get laid off for any reason, they need help, be it emotional or professional. Effective managers know that they have a responsibility to offer it. It's the right thing to do morally, and it pays off professionally.

4. Lack of attention to the survivors. Companies often assume that survivors are not adversely impacted by observing the carnage around them. How gullible. Solution: Back to #1 and honesty. Be straight with people. Tell them why layoffs occurred, what the prognosis is for the future, and why they, as survivors, were in fact survivors (was it just blind luck, or was it their performance or tenure?) Ask for their help and support; offer it to them in return. Be physically available to address their concerns, answer their questions and discuss opportunities for improving the business so further layoffs don't occur. Offer them coaching and counseling so that they can improve their ability to do their jobs better and take on additional roles that their predecessors held. Don't take the survivors for granted.

There are few things in life as painful and demeaning and scary as losing one's job, especially during recessionary times. Keep that in mind. You may have to let people go, but at the very least you can do it in a way that is personally humane and professionally mature. I also hope that the person who asked this week's question was not one of the unfortunate ones who were let go, and that if she was (and for all those who were let go), that her employer didn't make the four common mistakes discussed above. ●

NEW HIP HOP RELEASES by Brian A. Samson

LORD FINESSE - Return Of The Funky Man (Album) (Giant/Reprise) Making the big comeback for 1992 is none other than Lord Finesse. He carved out his own little niche back in 1990 with his debut album, "The Funky Technician," and now Finesse is back to collect crazy props. Backed by DJ's Mike Smooth and Steve D, who provide the funky beats, this Bronx native flexes serious vocal skills to impress even the hardest of the hard-to-please. The first single and title track of the album should be able to provide your audience with some neck-snappin' action and if they listen to the lyrics, they'll find out what happened between him and his old label. With the help of Ice-T and the Rhyme Syndicate, Finesse has settled down with a new company and as has had the opportunity to concentrate on laying his versatility down on wax. Cuts to check: "Yes You May," "Fat For The 90's," and if you're looking for a phuncky phat beat to loop, check the "Lord Finesse Intro." Give give Ward White a call at (818) 953-3790. K-WOO

WC & THE MAAD CIRCLE - Ain't A Damn Thang Changed (Priority) Coming off their Top Ten single "Dress Code," WC & The Maad Circle aren't letting their fortune and fame get to their heads as it says in the title of the album, which is also the second single. Letting the world know that everything is still the same from the gear that they sport to who their friends are, WC and Coolio's rhymes are well complemented by a familiar De La Soul loop on the remix.

Flip it over to the B-Side and you'll get an earful about a serious problem that plagues today's society. Contact Ern at (800) 235-2300 for your copy, and tell him that Gavin sent ya. K-WOO

2 PAC - If My Homey Calls (Interscope) 2 Pac releases his second single from his retailslept on album. "If My Homey Calls" is a dope uptempo cut that should get immediate mixshow and college response. Lay the needle down on the second track as 2 Pac, aka Tupac Shakur, addresses drugs and teenage pregnancy. A slammin' cut. Contact Fade at (213) 653-5881. BAS

COLLEGE BOYZ - Victim Of The Ghetto (Virgin) The L.A. based College Boyz, aka Rom, Squeak, The "Q," and Baxter drop an adventurous ghetto tale spiced with Rasta flava. At 92 BPMs, T.C.B. describes a typical afternoon in the hood. Lyrically, T.C.B. comes at you with basic dialogue and a rhymescheme that doesn't separate them from other message rappers. The concept is realism, and the track is clearly dictated non-explicitly, making it suitable for radio play. I recommend the "Raggamuffin Remix" for cool flava. Contact Dave Rosas at (213) 288-2459. BAS

Last week TLC's "Ain't 2 Proud 2 Beg" missed Up & Coming by one report! This week we make it our Record To Watch with adds/on at WILD, WDKX, WUSL/FM, KJMS, WBLX, WPEG, KDKO, KJMZ, KMJQ, KBMS, KKFX, etc. Keep an eye on Top Tip TIM OWENS' "Smile" because with adds at WILD, WABD, WANM, WFXA, WQMG, WKKV and KBMS this week, coupled with activity already at KGRM, KMZX, KQXL, WFKX, WJMI, WLOU, WXOK, WXVI, WMVP, WRNB, WTLZ, WVOI, and KKFX, it could be coming into its own—topping our Up & Coming listings. Big Daddy Gilford, WYBC-New Haven, likes M.C. LYTE's "Poor Georgie" and says, "Good record with a good beat—nice message concerning alcohol, sex, and peer pressure." Stan Boston, WNHC-New Haven, makes ATLANTIC STARR's "Masterpiece" his RTW and says, "I feel this is their best record since 'Always' and has number one potential in multi-formats." Paul Butler, WJDY-Salisbury, likes GLADYS KNIGHT's "Where Would I Be" saying, "From the moment I heard this, I knew this song would be a smash. This is classic Gladys Knight." Tom Reddick, KKFX-Seattle, likes MARIAN MEADOWS' "Love Was Never" because, "Gene Rice and Angela Bofill's vocal contributions are excellent. It's a damn good song!" Curtis Carter, WKGC-Panama City, likes BOBBY BLUE BLAND's "You're Putting Something In My Food," saying, "I like it and it's getting good phone response." Ciao for now, Betty

by John Martinucci

CALLOWAY - Let's Get Smooth (Solar/Epic)

Brothers Calloway cruise into the music arena on a smooth tip. We haven't heard from Cino & Reggie since "I Wanna Be Rich" made a lot of noise as they crossed it to Top 40. This duo sets their romantic mood to music and at the same time creates another hit for Urban Radio. JM

BAS NOIR - Superficial Love (Atlantic)

Whoa Nellie! Talk about a runaway hit! These two ladies deliver an uptempo track (a la Skyy and Seduction) chock full of energy that keeps your attention, especially the harmonies in the chorus. Out of the box adds at WDKX-Rochester and WFKX-Jackson. JM

HAMMER - Do Not Pass Me By (Capitol)

Hammer's performance of this festive gospel track during the opening of the AMA was uplifting. This spiritual features Tramaine Hawkins along with Hammer's vocal entourage of Benito, Trina Johnson and The Voices, and will surely rouse listeners' emotions. JM

CHIC - Chic Mystique (Warner Bros.)

With audiences looking for dance club flashbacks, Le Freak-sters have returned in search of stations who'll play their disco sound updated from the one that, if you recall, in the late seventies had many of us dancing our sses off! Bernard Edwards and Nile Rodgers still fuel the dance flame. JM

DA YOUNGSTA'S - Somethin' 4 Da Youngstas (EastWest America)

On the crest of Another Bad Creation and Hi-Five's success comes the latest in an ever-growing crop of young Urban soulsters. Da Youngsta's will likely appeal to those who are and those who wish they were once more. Basically, that's something for all of us. Brett Durand Atwood

AARON HALL - Don't Be Afraid (Soul/MCA)

Slam together the production genius of Hank Shocklee and the Bomb Squad with the vocal talents of Guy singer Aaron Hall and don't be afraid! The result is an unusual mixture of true soul and techno-sample trickery (as is the Shocklee trademark). From the hot "Juice" soundtrack, this up-to-date uptempo track signifies a possible future solo outing for Hall. BDA

JAZZ NEW RELEASES

ATTENTION: BECAUSE GAVIN SEMINAR '92 OFFICIALLY BEGINS ON THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 13, WE WILL BE TAKING JAZZ/AA REPORTS ON WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 12 FROM 9 a.m. TO 3 p.m. PST.

ALL OF ME - JOHN PIZZARELLI (NOVUS/RCA)

Together with Valerie Rubin's Soul Eyes, Novus drops the other shoe of its twofor Jazz vocal release. After a few hitches on small labels, culminating with a splendid Chesky release called My Blue Heaven, John Pizzarelli debuts on a major label with All Of Me. With the success of Harry Connick's traveling Big Band and Natalie Cole's tribute to her father, America has never been more ready for John's own cultured croon. Being the son of Bucky Pizzarelli gave young John a front row seat on the world of Jazz, and no doubt the chops have rubbed off. We like the innocent bossa-nova treatment of "S'Wonderful," complete with a whistling, single note guitar solo. He challenges the Nat King Cole Trio by performing his own version of "This Will Make You Laugh" in front of a thirty piece band, resplendent with vibes, violins and grand piano. Through it all, Pizzarelli plinks out his dependable, rhythmic Django-styled electric box guitar chords. Jazz folks should try "I Know That You Know" for a quick novelty sting. While his are not quite as jarring as young Chet Baker's, Pizzarelli's vocals on the samba-flavored, "The River Is Blue" will bring some class and charm to Jazz airwaves.

CAULDRON - JOHN BEASLEY (WINDHAM HILL JAZZ)

Partly because of its upbeat music-for-moderns rhythms, pianist John Beasley's Cauldron album is remarkable from the very first note. On the opening "Beehave Yourself," reedman Bob Sheppard sneaks a little bass clarinet into the funkiified undercurrents and jettisons the listener to the unmistakable vibes of Miles' Bitches Brew. Cauldron is also relevant because of its graceful balance between traditional acoustic piano solos awash in chord structures and electric guitar-bass-synth licks that'll satisfy younger/modern/progressive Jazz ears. Beasley manages to soar with both feet planted firmly on the ground. He sacrifices a blues feel in favor of a more decidedly funk/dance flavor. We love the way "Sierra" winds down to just piano, chunky tribal percussion and conga-type rhythms. In fact, the whole disc percolates with a cultured (yet not overly obvious) Afro-Cuban foundation. Also try the earthy "Cado Bayou" and the Boppish juggernaut, "11:11."

NO LOOKING BACK - CLARENCE "GATEMOUTH" BROWN (ALLIGATOR)

Clarence "Gatemouth" Brown, the San Antonio Ballbuster, is back with some groove blues/swing tracks that cool Jazz programmers can sink their molars into. "C-Jam Blues" and "Digging New Ground" have a fingersnapping Big Band feel that will compete with any other diehard Jazz score. Brown's red-hot blues shuffle licks nicely underscore each trumpet, trombone or sax solo. No fake Blues Brothers-type licks need apply here. It's a barroom/ballroom/nightclub ambience all rolled into one! And when Brown pulls out the fiddle and duets with the horn section on "Stop Time," his virtuosity peeks through his torrid chops. Also check out the T-Bone Walker-inspired single note axe grinding Gatemouth lays on "The Peeper." There's more than a roomful of Blues and more than a few cracking Jazz pitstops on No Looking Back.

I've gotten lots of calls asking if men are invited to the Women In Music Session at Gavin Seminar 1992. There's only one answer and, of course, it's YES. This year's meeting will be a case study of a woman who's looking for a job in the music business. Moderator Sheila Chlanda and guests will spotlight on women's emergence in the last ten years and the effect of the decade's changes on their careers. Make it a point to join us on Thursday, February 13, at 2:30 p.m. in the Colonial Room at the Westin St. Francis Hotel...

Gloria Steinem has been on the talk show circuit lately discussing her new Little, Brown and Company book Revolution From Within: A Book of Self-Esteem. Steinem has long been one of the most prominent activists for women's rights and social equality, but she also explores men's problems in her book. In addition, Steinem talks about her own battles with feelings of worthlessness, profiles celebrities and passes along practical tips and inspirational stories. She's in town during the seminar and will furnish us with four autographed copies of her book, so drop your business card into the basket at the women's session. A drawing will be held at 4:30 p.m....

internal friction were reported in newspapers and magazines around the world in late 1991. "We've had a lot of good years together," says lead vocalist and songwriter Bret Michaels. "But the reasons for the split are musical, personal and who knows what else. As far as Poison is concerned, right now we can only look ahead for a new guitarist, preferably an unknown, who's got his head on right and wants to jump in full-throttle." Poison will be writing and recording throughout 1992. They've projected that a new album will be released in January, 1993...Legendary jazz vocalist Little Jimmy Scott has signed with Sire Records and is currently working with producer Tommy LiPuma, arranger Johnny Mandel and an all-star backup band on an album due in late spring. Scott is best known for his work as vocalist with Lionel Hampton in the forties, his stint on Savoy Records in the fifties, recording with Ray Charles' Tangerine Records in the sixties and recording for Atlantic Records in the seventies. Currently, Scott's song "When Did You Leave Heaven" is featured on the soundtrack to the upcoming film "Street of Dreams"...Producer Tuhin Roy checked in from Los Angeles to say that Giant artist Tara Kemp just finished work on a track called "Anything You Ask." It'll show up on the Warner Bros. soundtrack for the next Kid N' Play movie, "Class Act"...

There are lots of events before the Gavin Seminar officially begins on Thursday, February 13. First, on Wednesday, February 12, beginning at 8 p.m., there'll be an informal, no-host, all-format gathering at the Q Club which is located at 61 Golden Gate Avenue. The club is a beautifully restored art deco palace with 37 ivory-inlaid antique pool tables. Free pool, billiards and snooker is being provided courtesy of BreakThru.

Right around the corner at the Warfield Theater Joan Jett and the Blackhearts will be performing, with DGC artists The Freewheelers opening. Jett is still out in support of her super Epic album Notorious, which, like the lady herself, is pure rock and roll...

JAZZ NEW RELEASES

HEART OF GOLD - ELLIS MARSALIS (COLUMBIA)

Ellis Marsalis, the cool papa of the amazing Marsalis clan, gave Columbia a set filled with standards. But rather than sounding retread or overdone, these selections have an indescribable air of patience that makes each track vibrantly crafted and splendidly reborn. Marsalis' timing and rhythmic manipulation are seamless and natural. He could be attacking you with a flurry of notes, like on "Swinging At The Haven," but you rarely feel overwhelmed. As the liner notes say, he deliberately takes the slow road for maximum expectation. While EM is best known for teaching young intellectuals like Terence Blanchard, Harry Connick, Jr., and his eldest sons Branford and Wynton, Heart Of Gold reminds us that the best is yet to come. Check out the funeral marchin' "Dr. Jazz." Ray Brown glides throughout, and drummer Billy Higgins and bassist (and former EM pupil) Reginald Veal blossom from Marsalis' restrained swing style. "This Can't Be Love" is one of the set's drivin' wheel tunes, and the in-the-pocket-drummer sitting in for Higgins is fourteen-year-old Jason Marsalis. Talent sure runs in the Marsalis family tree—from the deepest root to the highest branch.

HAVANA CAFE - PAQUITO D'RIVERA (CHESKY)

Here is a premium recording for practically every persuasion of Jazz programmer. Havana Cafe proves through and through, cut by cut, that Cuban exile Paquito D'Rivera is the finest Latin Bop sax player on the scene today. Not to belabor the point, but Jazz radio is constantly searching for quality Latin-flavored music to pepper up their sets. Too many Salsa/Latin discs by major Jazz artists fall short—feckless live gig recordings harboring tired standards. Often the sex-charged masculine/feminine interplay of rhythm and melody is reduced to adolescent court and spark. Bop infusions that give the beatsophisto and unpredictability only dilute further. Not so with Havana Cafe. On tracks like "Jean Pauline," "The Return" and the combustible title track, Sammy Figueroa's congas and Jorge Rossy's lone drum kit rivals Santana's entire front line. Paquito, now a New Yorker who defected from Cuba via Spain in 1980, keeps his spiralling solos gutsy and hooked to the grooves. On first listen, this sextet delivers like a band twice its size and, as a bonus, guitarist Fareed Haque smokes a few.

BLAME IT ON MY YOUTH - HOLLY COLE TRIO (MANHATTAN)

Canadian Holly Cole is a multi-faceted jewel of a singer. She's part torch singer, part cabaret vocalist, part Jazz interpreter and part sophisticated stylist. She'll tug on the tastes of many music lovers. Her delightfully hip playbook puts Lovett and Waits alongside Lerner and Loewe. But like hall of fame baladeers of the past, Holly knows the importance of developing her own personality. Blame It On My Youth's tallest challenge will be in measuring up to the buzz of her onstage allure—a somewhat gradual process that will no doubt happen with increased exposure and touring. Meanwhile Jazz radio is kicking in its share with an impressive first week of forty adds. For Crossover consideration, Cole thoughtfully includes Bagdad Cafe's "Calling You," the first standard broken by the Adult Alternative genre. Her version melts in and out of Jazz mode with Aaron Davis' gentle, prodding Bop piano chords. We like her sentimental pastel strokes on Waits' "Purple Avenue." Blame It On My Youth is the pause that refreshes. It's one of those rare musical moments when less is more and minimal is intimate. Can't wait to see her live.

NIA PEEPLES

by Annette M. Lai

ANNETTE M. LAI: Even though this is your second album, you've said this project is your first?

NIA PEEPLES: It's the first one that's really such a part of me. With the first but they really believed in me. The only thing it (the album) had to have was something I could really relate to and turned me on.

AML: You proved it could be done.

NIA: Yes, and I felt that way from the beginning, but you never really know

NIA: Coming from a background of musical theatre, television and dance, videos are really an exciting thing for me. I tend to work extra hard on my videos and concentrate on the performance. High fashion photographer Wayne Maser directed the new video. It's very sexy and Euro-

NIA: I'm not disciplined enough. When someone asks, 'Are you a dancer?' I always say, 'No' because to me, dancers are people who work six or eight hours a day just on that craft. I dance. God blessed me with a very strong body, so I've been able to torture it a little bit by not practic-

From West Covina To The "Street Of Dreams" And Beyond

Thanks to the television show "Fame," I have long admired Nia Peeples for her talents as an actress, dancer and singer. As I followed the weekly adventures of her character, Nicole Chapman, I hoped that someday, Nicole's West Covina-born alter ego would land a recording contract.

That break came in 1988 when Nia released her debut Mercury Records album Nothin' But Trouble, which spawned the #1 Dance smash, "Trouble." Nia's second album, released last September on Charisma, already has a Top Ten hit, "Street Of Dreams," to its credit. The second single, "Kissing The Wind," is just now starting its run at Top 40.

In between albums, Nia's found time to pursue more television projects, a movie and perhaps most importantly, a happy family life that includes marriage to Soul singer Howard Hewett (whom she met while working on Nothin' But Trouble), and motherhood.

album, the recording business was so new to me, that I just showed up and did what everybody asked me to do. I was more of a guest vocalist. The guy who A&Red it was wonderful and cared about what I thought and how I felt, but I don't think that I knew exactly how I felt. However, on my Charisma album, I wrote half of the material and chose everything that's on there, so it really speaks from my heart.

AML: Is the material more diverse?

NIA: Actually it is, which is a scary thing these days, seeing as how segregated everything, including radio, is. Plus, a record company wants to know what kind of an album they're going to have so they know what kind of a marketing plan to use. I couldn't honestly say I wanted to do a whole album's worth of just Dance, Rock or Pop material. I wouldn't be giving my all to limit it to one type. It was a little frightening for the label, until you get it out there. Everyone from R&B magazine critics, to Rock 'n Roll critics love it—there's something for everyone. Take "Hurricane," one of my favorite cuts. It has these heavy-duty Rock guitars on top of it, but it also has a soulful R&B backbeat.

AML: "Kissing The Wind" has just been sent to radio. Tell us about it.

NIA: One of the reasons I fell in love with this song is that it's about being in love, and we know how confusing that can be. Love will keep you up all night. The music has a European Rock/Dance feel—it's ethereal in the way the vocals are done and in the way the sitar is utilized. And when they wrote "sayonara, dreams," I knew exactly what that meant—it means I'm not gettin' any sleep tonight. I have these tingly goosebumps all over me and I'm laying here in this bed all by myself!

AML: What's the video for "Kissing The Wind" like?

pean looking. There was no choreography—just me and the music. What it allowed me to do was put across physically what the song makes me feel. Wayne was able to pull out the sensuality in this video. Aside from that, he gave me some of the most GORGEOUS male models to work with! I thought, 'Oh my God, it's a good thing I'm married because I'd be in so much trouble!'

AML: Do you see yourself as a sex symbol?

NIA: (laughs) No! 'Sex symbol' is a weird thing. Everybody is sexy in their own way and their own time—it's not a matter of the way you look, it's the way you feel. It emanates from the inside out. There are some models who are not very beautiful, but they're so sexy that they're really, really attractive.

AML: Discipline was a theme in your "Street Of Dreams" video. Do you consider yourself disciplined?

ing enough and just doing it, but that wreaks havoc on my body. I've learned that with all the different talents I have, if I can pick and choose one at a time, I do much better. When I was getting ready to shoot this video, I put everything else on the back burner and said, 'I want to be strong in the studio. I want to be able to do aerials, do flips and work on the uneven bars, so I have to get my body in shape.' I made that a priority. I worked out six weeks prior to the video—God knows I don't keep that regimen up now. Years ago, or even a year ago, I expected to do all of that, as well as all my vocal exercises, acting classes and writing, plus be a mother and a wife! I tend to be a perfectionist, so I was really kicking myself in the butt and was so unhappy. Now I'm learning to just do the things that count.

AML: Carl Sturken and Evan Rogers from Rythm Syndicate wrote several songs on this album. How did you hook up with them?

NIA: The A&R people at Charisma had suggestions and I met with different people, listened to their material and chose from there. I loved the album they (Sturken and Rogers) had just put out, and was familiar with their other work. They're a perfect, talented team because Evan is such an incredible vocalist and Carl is such an incredible musician. Together they are really wonderful to work with.

AML: What about working with your husband, Howard Hewett?

NIA: I listed Howard as my Vocal amazing voice that just hangs in the air. However, I would love to do the right duet with Howard. We looked for one for my album. He's on "Faces Of Love," but it's not really a duet. In fact, we might have to write the right one.

AML: Looking through the sleeve pages of the album, I saw Biblical notations listed for each song.

NIA: When I hear a song and its lyrics, there's always a Bible scrip-a specific denomination is because I can't totally and honestly agree with what they say. I may find out tomorrow I'm wrong, but I believe God expects us to live up to what we know and believe—not take some other man's word for it. The Bible has all the answers and sometimes they're difficult to find, but they're there. You have to understand that your mind is not totally capable of understanding everything God takes you through and that's why there's an element of pictures is actually a wig. My real hair is short now, but it wasn't when we started. We also did one set-up with my long hair and it looked beautiful, but we had to make a decision. I was saying, 'You have to go with the long hair because that's just who Nia is.' But everyone looked at me and said, 'Oh, no! This (the short hair) is so much more hip!' It's great, I love it and I've been wanting to cut my hair for a long time. I have a tendency to look young, and my long hair made me feel like a teenybopper. I just had to get used to seeing myself with short hair.

AML: Someone told me you've got a movie coming out.

Consultant, when he really should've been more of an Executive Producer. Howard knows everything that goes on in my career and my life. I bring my career home and he does the same thing. Every song, every lick, every everything that goes through this house goes through each of us. We were supposed to both do albums at the same time, but we couldn't. Now he's doing his and it's like I'm doing it as well.

AML: How does it affect your relationship?

NIA: It makes our relationship stronger. The only thing you have to be careful about is to not let it take it over. We love our work so much and it's such a big part of us that it's not an outside thing. You have to let your relationship exist apart from that.

AML: If you were to do a duet in the future, aside from Howard, who would you want to sing with?

NIA: Steve Perry has an amazing, ture that applies to it. With everything I go through, there's a way out, an answer—no matter how difficult it gets. The Bible is such a functional part of my life—it summarizes certain things for every song.

AML: Are you more religious or more spiritual?

NIA: I'm a born-again Christian, non-denominational. I believe in God, the Bible and Jesus, but I believe the responsibility lies in me to understand what these concepts are and apply them to my life. One of the reasons I've never been able to join trust there, too.

AML: Let's talk about the new image, especially cutting your hair. It's been long for so long...

NIA: Everybody knows me for my long hair. It was an inadvertent decision. We pulled together a team of high fashion people to shoot my pictures. I tried on certain types of clothing, so we knew what we wanted style-wise, but we didn't know what to do with my hair and makeup. The photographer asked if I'd try on some wigs—what you see in my NIA: Yes, there's a movie coming out February 14th called "I Don't Buy Kisses Anymore," and I play the female lead. It co-stars Lou Jacobi, Lainie Kazan, Eileen Brennan and Jason Alexander. It was a wonderful film to work on. It's a very sweet movie—a feelgood movie—from a small, independent film company.

AML: "Fame" is still big in other parts of the world?

NIA: It's amazing. You don't realize the impact you have on people when you don't travel. I went to Italy a couple of years ago and it was like a Beatles' movie—I couldn't go anywhere! I mean, baseball cap, glasses, the whole disguise thing. Kids chased me down the street! It's different in other countries. Kids aren't so jaded, they appreciate certain things and all they want to do is hold and touch you. In the United States, maybe more so in L.A. and New York, they're like, 'How do I get into the

INSIDE A/C by Diane Rufer and Ron Fell

It looks as though PAUL YOUNG will beat former labelmate MICHAEL BOLTON to the top of the chart. In any case, next week's stats will be critical to both songs.

Moving #27 to #16 to #8, AMY GRANT's "Good For Me" blasts into the Top Ten at #8. HIT FACTOR has moved 38% to 62% to 84% in that time, while 54 ADDs have taken it over the magic 200 reports.

ERIC CLAPTON has a convincing Top Ten A/C track with "Tears In Heaven." Eighty-three percent of its players are HIT FACTORing from 180 A/C stations. Among the 10 ADDs are K103, KCMX, KLSQ/FM and WTPI.

VANESSA WILLIAMS' "Save The Best For Last" has picked up 72 ADDs in the past two weeks and it'll easily clear 200 total stations next week. New hits issue for WMGI, KEZR, WFAS/FM, WMYX, KTID, KFYZ, WELL, KLSS, KYMG/FM, etc.

Though not an official single, ROD STEWART's cover of ELTON JOHN's first hit, "Your Song," moves #37 to #23 this week. It's our format's second MOST ADDED behind RICHARD MARX. New for ROD include WAFL, WKGW, WDUZ, WFRO, KTHT and WEBS.

Right on ROD's heels at #24 is KENNY LOGGINS' "The Real Thing" with 37 new including WQLR, KMJC/FM, KELO/FM, KAAK, WOBM/FM, WWDE, WQLH/FM, WJCL/FM and WSKY.

RICHARD MARX easily tops the MOST ADDED title with 70 ADDs and debuts at #27 with 149 players in its first two weeks of release. New for WZNY, KMXV, WIVY/FM, WTCB, JOY99, KCMJ/FM and WAHR.

TOP TIP this week is DESMOND CHILD's musical reunion with MARIA VIDAL on "Obsession." With 90 A/Cs already committed, expect this obsession to realize its own chart number next week. Already on KBLQ, WQLR, WNMB, WMT/FM, WMXB, WSUL, WZNY, KKLD, KOST, KIDX/FM, WFFX/FM, WEIM and WHAI.

Last issue's RECORD TO WATCH, MR. BIG's "To Be With You," now has an impressive 80 A/Cs with 35 of those ADDs. On our Top 40 side, this single now sits at #3 on the chart. Among the new who are on the side of MR. BIG this week are WHFM, WXPS, WKFN, WNMB, KIZZ, KWLO, WQLH/FM, WRDB, KLSQ/FM, KWXX, KYMG/FM and KEZR.

The current RECORD TO WATCH, ROY ORBISON's "I Drove All Night," is taken from the compilation album, "Nintendo White Knuckle Scorin'". Debuting in UP & COMING with 26 mentions and ADDED at WEIM, WKYE, WFFX/FM, KZLT, WFRO, WQLH/FM, WQLR, KBJJ, KIZZ, WCKQ. Already on WBLG/FM, WKFN/FM, KQLS, WMYX etc.

LISA STANSFIELD

All Woman (Arista)

Lest there be any doubt...Ms. Stansfield can carry a tune and this song of feminine affirmation is a home run.

BETTE MIDLER

In My Life (Atlantic)

Second single from "For The Boys," this John Lennon/Paul McCartney classic, familiar and fresh at the same time. Can't miss!

KATHY TROCCOLI

Everything Changes (Reunion/Geffen)

Producer Rick Wake provides a hot arrangement to match the strong and passionate voice of Ms. Troccoli. This week a MOST ADDED in Top 40-expect nothing less in A/C now.

ROXETTE

Church Of Your Heart (EMI)

A rare lead vocal from Per gives the Roxette sound a different texture but the result is the same-a hit.

GINO VANNELLI

Hurts To Be In Love (Vie/BMG)

A live version of one of Gino's best compositions recorded in Montreal in the Fall of 1990. Should be heard to be believed.

INGRID CHAVEZ

Hippy Blood (Paisley Park/Warner Bros.)

The Latin light mix/edit is sure to be a popular A/C track as Ms. Chavez rides a mellow groove through paisley days.

JANIS IAN

Days Like These (Mercury)

Janis originally entered the music scene as a teenager back in 1967 with her hit "Society's Child." From the movie "Falling From Grace," it's written by Ms. Ian and produced by John Mellencamp.

PHYLLIS HYMAN

When You Get Right Down To It (Philadelphia Int'l/Zoo)

This track has the rhythm that you're looking for along with the sultry vocals of an adult-oriented artist.

When Eric Clapton toured Japan late last year with George Harrison, they reportedly did not perform LAYLA, Clapton's song about Pattie Boyd who was married to both men.

•BRUCE SPRINGSTEEN

The two albums to be released by Bruce Springsteen later this year are titled Human Touch and Lucky Town. Performing on both albums, (besides Bruce) are Bruce's wife, Patti Scialfa, keyboardist Roy Bittan and bassist Randy Jackson. Lucky Town was recorded in Bruce's home studio in Los Angeles.

•MADONNA

This Spring, Madonna will begin filming her co-starring role in Body Of Evidence. She shares top billing with Willem Dafoe.

•BONNIE RAITT

It was two years ago this month that Bonnie Raitt swept the Grammy Awards, taking home four statues.

•GEORGE MICHAEL

At about the same time George Michael and Andrew Ridgeley were calling off their collaboration as Wham!, George was already recording with Elton John. His contribution to Elton's 1985 album Ice On Fire includes the single NIKITA.

•ASLEEP AT THE WHEEL

The song ROUTE 66, which celebrates the once-most-famous highway in America, has been re-recorded by Asleep At The Wheel for March release on Arista. The group will also perform in a number of cities and towns along the route as part of a Spring tour sponsored by Coors.

•C+C MUSIC FACTORY

Robert Clivilles and David Cole of C+C Music Factory honed their skills as musicians in the eighties working with the likes of Fleetwood Mac and Janet Jackson, while producing and arranging for The Cover Girls, Seduction, Lisa Lisa & Cult Jam, Martika, New Kids On The Block and, most recently, Mariah Carey

•ARETHA FRANKLIN

As part of this year's Grammy Awards telecast, Aretha Franklin will make a rare live appearance, singing EVER CHANGING TIMES with Michael McDonald.

•JOHN MELLENCAMP

Like Madonna did with Truth Or Dare, John Mellencamp is taping and/or filming his current world tour for a possible feature length documentary.

•BOBBY MCFERRIN

"Sarafina," the film version of the Broadway musical being filmed in South Africa and starring Whoopi Goldberg, will include music written and performed by Bobby McFerrin.

•LORRIE MORGAN/DEAN DILLON

•ENYA

After a brief stint in the Irish band Clannad, Eithne, later to be known as Enya, worked on the music for a BBC television series known as "The Celts." She then released her 1987 hallmark album, Orinoco Flow, which to date has sold five million copies worldwide.

•GENESIS

Genesis began as a five man band of teenagers in 1969 but they've been reduced to a trio of Banks, Rutherford and Collins since 1977.

•JOHN TESH

"Entertainment Tonight" anchor and serious pianist John Tesh will have a new album out in May titled, The Games. The set includes music Tesh wrote and recorded for NBC's coverage of the '92 Summer Olympics.

•NIA PEEPLES

Photographer/filmmaker Wayne Maser, most famous for his Jordache jeans commercials, has directed the video for the new Nia Peoples' single, KISSING THE WIND.

•LUKA BLOOM

Ireland's Luka Bloom was born Barry Moore, but adopted the first name 'Luka' in tribute to the character immortalized in Suzanne Vega's hit LUKA. The last name, Bloom, comes from a James Joyce character, 'Leopold Bloom.'

•NEIL YOUNG

Hard as it may be to believe, but the last and only time Neil Young had a number one single was twenty years ago this month with HEART OF GOLD from his Harvest album.

•BARBRA STREISAND

Nearly twenty-eight years after she had her first hit single, PEOPLE, Barbra Streisand's contract with Columbia Records has expired. She's currently negotiating a film and recording deal with Columbia's parent company, Sony Music.

ALBUM NEW RELEASES

BY KENT ZIMMERMAN

"SHE RUNS HOT" - LITTLE VILLAGE (REPRISE)

It's John Hiatt, Ry Cooder, Nick Lowe and Jim Keltner together again as the Justice League Of America of bands. I'm dreaming. This can't be true. There is a God. Prayers have been answered. In a heartbeat you hear the chemistry at work, eating away at the walls and formats that separate us. Lemme see, according to the notes, that's Hiatt on the first verse, Lowe on the second, Ry on the third and the whole crew on the choruses. Frankly, sometimes it's hard to tell. But speaking of hot, Little Village runs hot. In fact the whole damn album is a bad mamajama.

BLACK-EYED MAN - COWBOY JUNKIES (RCA)

Part studio, part rehearsal hall, part candle-lit front porch. While the Cowboy Junkies branch out by adding overdubs, a smidge of horns and stray stringed instruments, Black-Eyed Man turns an important corner and approaches the fork in the road. Born out an "alternative" Canadian mind-set, the Junkies now find themselves in the same position John Mellencamp found himself with Blood On The Scarecrow. Or Steve Earle with Copperhead Road. Or Tom Petty with Southern Accents. Or Rosanne Cash with Interiors. Or John Hiatt with Slow Turning. It's hard to explain. It's a crucial leap that the Junkies take with the help of John Prine (who sings a duet on "If You Were The Woman") and writer Townes Van Zandt (who sparks a trilogy of songs that conclude this album). Black-Eyed

Man is one of those seminal recordings where a band becomes spiritually linked with what it means to be making music in North America today. One dozen songs push the Cowboy Junkies further up the creative ladder where the air is thin and rarefied. Trax: "Southern Rain," "Oregon Hill," "Murder: Tonight, In The Trailer Park," "Black Eyed Man" and my fave, "A Horse In The Country."

"STANDING IN THE SHADOW" -

ADRIAN BELEW (ATLANTIC)

A nice blend of Belew's Rhino noodlings, acid-soaked Beatle juice and Zeppelin's "Wanton Song," Adrian finds himself with Levi Stubbs, in the shadows of love on the cusp of an inner revolution. "Standing In The Shadow" is a quick jolt backward followed by an ever quicker jolt forward. If it weren't for the digital read-out, I'd say this one flies by like a two minute song.

"HOT AND BOTHERED" - CINDERELLA (REPRISE)

A hot rockin' biscuit, just the thing to rouse a couch-potato like Wayne. As Wayne's World takes on gigantic corporate proportions with a big movie and a soundtrack, will cable access be the next goldmine for talent? While the movie may be a laugh piece, Cinderella takes their job seriously. They ain't joking around here. But you can't help conjuring up that mental picture of Wayne rockin' out to those chords.

"WE WILL ROCK YOU" - WARRANT (COLUMBIA)

I s'pect in Britain, where Queen and the memory of Freddie Mercury represents rock royalty, this cover could get you ten years in the Tower Of London. However, Warrant put their own stamp on this Queen stadium basher. Rather than try to compete by layering vocals, Warrant revs the song up their own special way with a rave-up at the end. From the upcoming Gladiator soundtrack.

"DESIREE" - RICK VITO (MODERN RECORDS)

Stevie Nicks puts in a high profile appearance especially for her buddy Rick Vito. Considering the exit Nicks made from the Fleetwood nest, this could be the last time you'll hear this combination of vocals. Vito holds up his end admirably. "Desiree," in addition to being a heartless tease, is a hot, twangy song.

SPOOKY - LUSH (4AD/ REPRISE)

Lush are neither drunken nor syrupy, but they are (as the title connotes) a little spooky. Produced and engineered by Cocteau Twin Robin Guthrie, who has had a big hand in the 4AD sound, Lush sacrifice image for texture. Of all of the bands that practice that aggressive, electric school of ambient sound, Lush is a leader of the pack. Start with "Nothing Natural" and "Stray."

JUST FOR A DAY - SLOWDIVE (SBK)

Similar in mode of operation to Lush, Slowdive specialize in "soundtracks for walking through a bright green field on a misty morning, staring at the stained glass of Gothic cathedral, flying through a dense, light cloud at sunrise" ...you get the idea. I believe the Buffalo Springfield used to call it flying on the ground. Trax include "Catch The Breeze" and "Spanish Air," two more than suitable titles.

RISKIN' IT ALL - D.A.D. (WARNER BROS.)

I like this feisty Danish band. I like how they play like AC/DC and mix up their lyrics with sly references to the politics of oil and energy. Also like AC/DC, there's always a chorus of call-and-response background voices bouncing off lead vocalist/guitarist Jesper Binzer's grunts, groans and choppy riffs. While D.A.D likes to fool around with pigeon English titles like "Bad Craziiness" or "Makin' Fun Of Money," the lyrics are savvy and original. "Disneyland Law" is the band's credo, a cocky declaration of global interdependence. "I Won't Cut My Hair" has a similar fun-loving defiance, with hair follicles figuratively growing off the lyrics. My favorite of the batch is a bluesy little number called "Down The Dusty 3'rd World Road." The band slows things down to a crafty blues gospel a la Tennessee Ernie Ford, describing a "line in the sand" situation a la the Persian Gulf. "Hearts and clocks slow down/And the sand reverberates with a tremulous sound/On a diet of water and thick air/I wouldn't know 'bout the government policy/But the waterhole water looks like coffee." It would be too easy to dismiss D.A.D as a hard rock band but really, they're much, much more.

NEW RELEASES

MIRACLE LEGION - DRENCHED (MORGAN CREEK)

To this day, Miracle Legion's Backyard EP remains one of my most treasured pieces of vinyl. At the start of their career, the band were constantly compared to R.E.M.—a comparison I never really understood, but then again, I've never been lucky enough to see Miracle Legion play live. Many years and just as many career ups and downs later, Miracle Legion has unleashed Drenched on an unsuspecting-but-hopeful audience. And honestly, these guys haven't sounded so damned good since—well, since The Backyard. The lead single, the disarmingly catchy "Snacks And Candy," is the kind of song you sing along to all day before it finally dawns on you that it's about the racially-motivated killing of Yusef Hawkins, a young black man from the Brooklyn neighborhood of Bensonhurst. Very sneaky, but this sort juxtaposition lies at the heart of the band's songwriting style for yourself. Other favorite tracks include the scorching "Everything Is Rosy," the somber, "So Good," "Sooner" and "Out To Play." The backyard does seem so empty now. LINDA RYAN

IAN McCULLOCH - "HONEYDRIP" (REPRISE)

Ian McCulloch—he of sugared lips and honeyed voice—returns to radio with the killer track "Honeydrip." This time 'round, McCulloch enlists production guru (and Cocteau Twins member) Robin Guthrie to twiddle the knobs, and the results might surprise a few people—myself included. Instead of that wispy, ambient sound that so many bands produced by Guthrie employ, the sound on "Honeydrip" is dominated by guitars—some gentle, but most loud and rockin'. We're talking guitar solo, folks. After a less-than-auspicious debut solo effort (Candleland), McCulloch seems to have found his footing. It could be he's more comfortable in his sans-Bunnymen situation than in past, or it could just be that it took a while to de-program this Echo fan. In any case, "Honeydrip" is classic Ian McCulloch; so good it could've been a Bunnymen song. LR

THE JAZZ BUTCHER - "SHE'S A YO-YO" (SKY)

Welcome to the oddly-angled mind of Pat Fish. Every release finds The Jazz Butcher's cult swelling in ranks, which culminated at an all-time radio high with the release of "She's On Drugs." His latest, "She's A Yo-Yo," (same ups and downs, highs and lows) should make further inroads at radio for The Butcher. This highly-charged romp—a lunatic fringed, melodic noise-fest—highlights the articulate maverick genius that is The Jazz Butcher. ("Now I'm going just as fast as I can/I still feel like The Elephant Man.") Too much to handle? Don't worry—it's encased by some to-die-for guitar riffs and lots of hooks. One listen and you've crossed the threshold into another dimension—the Jazz Butcher's very own Twilight Zone. LR

CHRIS BELL - I AM THE COSMOS (RYKO)

When you think of Big Star, the name that immediately pops into your mind is Alex Chilton. That's fair enough I suppose, as Chilton is a living, breathing testament to the band's work. Let me introduce you to another equally important Big Star name—Chris Bell. Without regurgitating too much of the bio, Bell left Big Star after becoming disillusioned with the band's lack of recognition. I Am The Cosmos is the album he worked on after leaving the now-legendary group. Unfortunately for his fans, Bell died in a car accident in 1978, and with the exception of one single ("I Am The Cosmos" b/w "You And Your Sister"), none of this material has ever been released before. Personal faves include the aforementioned "I Am The Cosmos," "Speed Of Sound," the acoustic version of "You And Your Sister" and "I Got Kinda Lost." The perfect album for old fans and new fans alike. LR

REVOLVER - "CRIMSON" (HUT)

If Revolver keeps writing these kinds of catchy pop songs, they'll find themselves booted right out the "shoe-gazers" club. "Crimson" begins with a flourish of guitars and drums and continues in a very in-your-face-pop-song kind of way. There's nothing shy or hesitant about this one. Having said that, the vocals are a bit on the naive side, but the self-assured guitars (not to mention the attention-seeking drum fills!) balance this effort out nicely. Look for this one in the import section of your favorite record store.

THE WEDDING PRESENT - "GO-GO DANCER" (BMG/U.K.)

As you probably know by now, The Wedding Present plan to release one single a month throughout '92. Seeing as how this is February, I thought I'd tip all of you Wedding Present fans to their new single, "Go-Go Dancer." This could easily be the most accessible single Gedge and Company have released since day one. As you might expect, there's a certain amount of chaos and frenzied guitar playing on "Go-Go Dancer," but underneath the noise is a pop song—pure and simple. I like this on much better than January's offering. Find it if you can! LR

THE EDEL AUCTIONEER - "STARFISH B/W BORDERLINE" (DECOY)

O.K.—plain and simple—the B-side alone is worth the import price. The Edsel's irreverent romp through Madonna's "Borderline" is a concept in fun whose time has most definitely come, and this Leeds outfit push this concept to the limit. This one's bound to burn up your request line! Once again, head for the import section. LR

ROLLINS BAND - THE END OF SILENCE (IMAGO)

The title of Rollins' latest LP couldn't come closer to the truth. "The End Of Silence" is unequivocally the end of silence.

Rollins Band unveils a powerful sound that will completely rock your world. Loud powerful guitars churning out endless chunky riffs accompanied by the vicious shrills of Rollins' vocals is pretty much what you can expect from this brutal band. The lyrics suggest that Rollins is fed up with life and is getting a few things off chest. "When you see the one that sees right through you/when you see the one that laughs at you/it's me." Being angry and playing rock'n roll is not only a satisfying experience, but a healthy one. Go ahead and punch some holes in the wall, it's O.K. Check out "Blues Jam" (I'm a sucker for long songs—this one is eleven minutes), "You Did't Need Me" and "Obscene." ROB FIEND

PERSONAL PICKS

SINGLES by Dave Sholin

TOP - No. 1 Dominator (Island/PLG)
After becoming addicted to this track after weeks of hearing it on San Francisco's Modern Rock outlet LIVE 105, I was ecstatic a few weeks ago when Jimmy Steal reported it was an ADD at KEGL Dallas. If you haven't got into this one yet, grab a copy and prepare to be dazzled—and dominated! England keeps delivering bands with innovative approaches to Rock 'N' Roll like Top, who have a sound that can best be described as T-Rex meets Roxette.

STACY EARL - Romeo & Juliet (RCA)
Stacy's promotional tour won her lots of friends in radioland, bringing everyone face-to-face with her personality, passion for music and boundless energy. Now that "Love Me All Up" has paved the way, it's the right time to let loose with Stage Two, which deserves to explode twice as fast and travel even farther up the chart.

OMD - Sailing On The Seven Seas (Virgin)
Considered pioneers on the Alternative music front, OMD hooked me right from the start, so it's not surprising to find them make their way onto this page just about every time they issue a single for Top 40. Already a proven winner in several countries overseas, including a #1 run up the British chart, this uptempo Pop entry maintains commerciality without sacrificing hipness.

TIA CARRERE - Ballroom Blitz (Reprise)
Soothing ballad—NOT! Tia is the female lead in the movie "Wayne's World" where this song is featured, and does an exceptional job of covering this Seventies' treasure from The Sweet catalog. Expect a lot of young moviegoers to be hearing this song for the first time and discover its staying power.
