Stone Temple Pilots, "Vaseline," Atlantic Well, let's see, Core went platinum. No, that's not correct. It went double platinum. Well, er, that's not exactly right either, Core was a triple-platinum album. Not bad for a debut record, one that spent 70 consecutive weeks on the album sales chart. This is the band that won the Grammy for Best Hard Rock Performance With Vocal for "Plush", and along with having huge success with "Sex Type Thing," "Wicked Garden," and "Creep". Most recently, of course, "Big Empty," from The Crow soundtrack is up to 12* on the Hard Hundred and 5-2* at COR this week. And now, "Vaseline," the lead track from their second album, Purple, again produced by Brendan O'Brien. Yes, he was at the core of Core. We could give you some double-talk about how STP is at the forefront of hard-edged alternative music for the '90s. Instead, we suggest you add "Vaseline" and then lubricate your local Atlantic rep to get on the guest list (plus one, of course) to see the band after it starts a big outdoor tour June 28 that continues through September. (And get there early to see the Meat Puppets, too.) Oh, and look out for the Purple album, which hits retail June 7. There's a track on it called "Kitchenware And Candy Bars." With a title like that, it sounds like the perfect segue into/out of the Crash Test Dummies' - "Afternoons & Coffeespoons." Before the box adds include WNEW, WAAF, KNAC, KCAL, WRCN, WDRE, LIVE 105, WFNX, KROQ, and WDHA. The video for the track debuts Tuesday on MTV with the band stoppin' by to visit the David Letterman show on June 17.

Hard Acts To follow

Joan Jett & The Blackhearts, "Go Home," Warner
Bortherns "Go Home" is the lead track from the upcoming 12-song Pure And Simple album from Joan and her Blackheart stalwarts. The guest list on this LP includes members of Babes In Toyland, Bikini Kill, Metal Church and L7. Joan has collaborated with longtime partner Kenny Laguna as well as Jim Vallance, Desmond Child and Ed Stasium. She assures us that in the two years since her last album, she hasn't changed her allegiance to "hard, raw, aggressive rock & roll." Joan's never really ventured much in a blues direction, but given her status as reigning queen of club rock, it's about time she dropped a little harp into the mix. Comments KISW's Cathy Faulkner, "She has overcome most of the stereotyped obstacles she's been dealing with since 'I Love Rock And Roll'". It's been very well received by our audience and it explores a worthwhile issue." (The murder of the Gits lead singer Mia Zapata.) Joan was actually going to release this album independently, but Warner Brothers liked the record so much they snatched it up. "Go Home" is already on WIYY and KISW. "Killer," says Jonathon Shapiro at WIYY. "We're getting calls after one day of airplay."

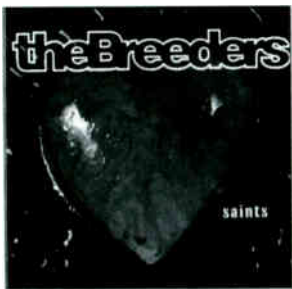

Peter Himmelman, "With You," 550 Music
Peter Himmelman, "With You," 550 Music Already a number one track at AAA, and getting airplay at over 15 alternative stations, here's the perfect starting point from Peter Himmelman's sixth solo album — a concept album. Yeah, you remember those, don't you? Your parents used to play them in the black light room. In this case, the concept is "a corrupt man... who is removed from his body and allowed to be reborn as a new person." "We wanted to do an album that had more than just some songs on it," the Minnesota-born singer-songwriter says about the current album. Himmelman is again working with his long-time band, which includes three musicians who have worked with him since, well, a long time ago. And on his upcoming sold-out tour, Himmelman's gonna play the album straight through "and then take requests." There's also a neat accompanying video for the song, which documents a day in the life of a touring rock musician. WAVF's had good early success with the track. PD Dave Rossi chimes in, "This is gonna be huge! It's already been Top 5 a few times and we've had great response from adults and females. This sounds like a hit record"

Bruce Cockburn, "Scanning These Crowds," Columbia
Bruce Cockburn. Oh, yeah, the guy who sings all those political songs. Not! Dart To The Heart, Cockburn's latest album, is an album mainly of love songs. Now, you already know the guy can play a mean six-string. And on his 1980s albums Trouble With Normal, Stealing Fire and World Of Wonders, Cockburn demonstrated he's a top-notch craftsman when it comes to assembling those things we call songs (we love that technical jargon). "Scanning" has some rocking arrangements, kind of in that roots-rock vein of "Nothing But A Burning Light." Cockburn's collaborations with guitarist Colin Linden on this album has let him start approaching tunes (yeah, we know, that's another industry term) as guitar duets. And then you've got Toronto keyboardist Richard Bell, now a full-time member of The Band and a guy who played on the Cowboy Junkies' Pale Sun Crescent Moon. While Cockburn considers the confusing and intoxicating qualities of love, it's time for alert programmers to consider scanning the crowd of new releases to make room for this one. Our only question is - is this Cockburn's 22nd or 23rd album? We ran out of fingers trying to get a precise count. Maybe we'll ask Bruce while he tours the East Coast.

The Breeders, "Saints," Elektra
The Breeders' Last Splash album turned up on a lot of people's best-of-1993 lists. Former Pixie Kim Deal and her twin Kelly offered us a hooky, droll, yet menacing album that included intense songs that often turned in unexpected directions. Sounds a bit like Paul Brown, don'tcha think? "Saints," written by Kim, is the perfect summer song. There's a remixed version of this good rock track and a great video. Sales of Last Splash are now at the 800,000 mark. WSHE, WVVV and WWBR are already in. Look for the band on this year's highly anticipated Lollapalooza tour.

Next Up: Stevie Nicks "Maybe Love" at #52 with 56 spins, 38 Special "The Squeeze" at 55 with 50, Pride and Glory's "Losin' ..." at #63 with 36. The Allman Brothers "Mean Woman Blues" at #70 with 25.

STABBING WESTWARD, "Nothing," Columbia "Nothing" makes big progress on the COR chart this week, climbing 50-40*, and 80-71* on the Hard Hundred. KIL0, KUPD and WKLL add to the 23 stations already on this track including KISW, WAAF and KIOZ. Hailing from the same region that brought us Smashing Pumpkins and Urge Overkill, the almost ten year old band brings us the Ungod album, produced by John Fryer, that is full of aggressive, yet accessible songs and has been criss-crossing the country playing gigs with Machines Of Loving Grace, Alice Donut, Course Of Empire and Front 242. Top-five phones are being seen at WXTB and KEZE. Belinda from KEZE says, "We've been on it since March 8 and decided not to wait for the official add date. Everyone loves it and now we're getting major phones!"

BOSTON, "I Need Your Love," MCA Not surprisingly, Boston nails down the top Most Added slot this week, with 116 stations immediately adding the track, and enough play already reported to fire up a 17* debut, with over 1285 spins. Though it's clearly a ballad, do note the 22* COR debut. Even more compelling is the fact that it's already the #9 Most played track at stations rated first or second 18-34 nationally. "The phones have gone nuts," says Dayna Steele at KLOL. "It's huge." "Already top five phones," says KATP's Dale Miller. "Tons of phones," says David A. Ross at KMJX. "It's fresh-sounding, but still has that Boston taste to it," says Dom Nordella at WNCN. NASA should hope for such a successful launch.

MOST ACTIVE

STEVIE NICKS, "Maybe Love Will Change Your Mind," Modern/Atlantic Stevie just got through blowing out 46 birthday candles, though she could just have easily been celebrating having the #2 Most Added track of the week, as 44 stations add the lead track from her upcoming Street Angel album. It's been 19 years since Nicks joined Fleetwood Mac and 13 years since she recorded her first solo album Bella Donna, which, by the way, contained that tune recorded with Tom Petty, "Stop Draggin' My Heart Around," which further endeared her to AOR. Now, she's winning fans with her stellar vocals. "Time stands still," comments Dale Miller at KATP. "She still attracts a good audience. It's getting top five phones." "A cool power pop record," observes Greg O'Brien at WPDH. "I can't wait to hear the whole LP," says Roger the Dodger at WZNF. "This track is good."

GREEN DAY, "Longview," Reprise Green Day — the best of the next generation of rockers — a band dripping in high energy with tunes that have cynical, insightful lyrics. "Longview" climbs 35-30* on the Hard Hundred and holds onto the #14 position on the COR chart. Thirteen adds give Green Day a tie for #5 Most Added. WXTB, WKLL, WTPA and WHTF are reporting top-five phones. Want to know boredom? "Longview" says it's "When masturbation's lost its fun." Boy, we're glad we're not that bored. Of course, in the time it takes Green Day to play one of their short tunes... WMMS is leading the way with airplay giving "Longview" 42 spins last week, while WAAF, WAXQ and WKZQ aren't far behind.

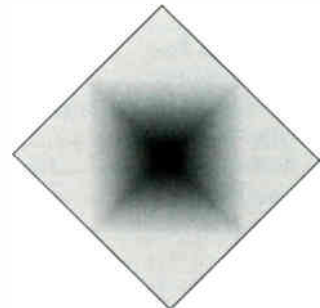

GREAT WHITE, "Sail Away," Zoo "Sail Away" continues to make steady Hard Hundred progress, moving 53-41* this week, and climbing 26-19* at AAA. There are Top 5 phones at KIL0, KEYJ, WRDK and KZOZ, examples of stations finding this is a reaction record when given a whirl or two. And a dozen new adds, including KSJO, KISS, WROQ, KSJO and WRUF. Scott Steele from WRUF sez, "The title track is 'The House of Broken Love' from 'Sail Away'." "It's a beautiful melodic song with upper demo appeal," says Joe Moss at KATS. "I fell in love with it. They're making some real cool music." "A fabulous record, a great song," says Rick at KZOZ. "Still top five phones," says KATP's Dale Miller. Roger The Dodger at WZNF says that even though the band formed in November 1984, "most people don't know it's them...I'm back-announcing and front-announcing it to make it more familiar." WHMH leads the 72 stations reporting airplay last week, giving the track 40 spins last week. This is clearly an example of how radio can have success with a band that's not getting MTV airplay and is instead impressing people with its live show.

SPIN DOCTORS, "Cleopatra's Cat," Epic No need to call in the spin docs to analyze how this record's doing - "Cleopatra's Cat" debuts at 47* on the Hard Hundred this week, 50* on the COR chart and makes a flying cat leap from 37-8* on the AAA chart. "A very fun tune," says Roger The Dodger at WZNF. "Lyrically intensive, the listeners will like it." "All in all a nice package," says Austin of WRXK. Greg O'Brien of WPDH likes the "kinda nice groove" in "Cleopatra's Cat," while TJ from WDHA likes the "scat beginning." The track is tied for fifth most-added this week, with 13 stations coming on board including KBAT, KOMP, KSEZ, KSPQ, WBLM, WCMF, WEGR, WHTF, WIMK, WLWQ, WROV and WZMT. KEYJ is reporting top-five phones.

TOAD THE WET SPROCKET, "Fall Down," Columbia It's been almost three years since Toad the Wet Sprocket released its platinum third album Fear. Now the California quartet is back with a record that's more live than studio-produced. Glen Phillips says Dulcinea is the band's first "real" studio album, because they didn't use all the layers of sound they used on earlier records due to the fact the band has tightened up from two years of non-stop touring. "CHR hasn't stolen this band," says Carl Craft at WCIZ. "This song is pop but fits in well." "Fall Down" climbs 50-34* on the Hard Hundred, holds at number six on the AAA chart, and is tied for fifth most-added of the week with 13 new reporters. WMRR is reporting top-five phones.

Live, "Selling The Drama," RADIOACTIVE Live makes dramatic rises on the charts this week, 58-44* on the Hard Hundred, 48-41* on the COR chart and debuts at 44* at AAA. With thirteen adds, Live is tied for #5 Most Added, picking up new airplay at KKEG, KMJX, KN'CN, KSHE, KYYS, KZOZ, WBZX, WGIR, WKLL, WKZQ, WNOR, WRXK and WRZK. "I love that track," says Steve Strick at WBCN. "It's a hit song. The strongest song to date, and I liked the previous LP." "We're early on it," says Guy at WHDQ, one of the four stations reporting top-five requests. "I like it a lot. It sounds like R.E.M., but you can understand the words." "Things look great for this band from just up the road in York, Pennsylvania," say Kirkster and Stash at WIYY. And as MCA's Flash says, "Even Ronnie Milsap could see this hit."

Bon Jovi, "Good Guys DON'T Always WEAR White," 550 Music/Epic "Big first week," says Beaver Brown at KDJK. He's right. Bon Jovi debuts at 49* on the COR chart, picking up six adds at KATP, KATT, KDKB, WAOR, WMMR and WRCQ. There's serious major-market airplay on the track, and KUPD is already reporting number one phones. We count 20 reporters on the track, led by KUPD, KBER, WHMH and WVCR. The video's just been added at MTV. From Curtis Johnson at KUPD, "Any preconceived notions of image problems for Bon Jovi are blown to bits by this new song. This rocks and has at least two major hooks and Richie Sambora wails on guitar. It's been Top 3 phones for us since the first spin on the air."

Francis Dunnerly, "AMERICAN Life In The Summertime," ATLANTIC Dunnerly's been going out of his way not to capitalize on his guitar playing for Robert Plant's Fate Of Nations album and Plant's '93-'94 world tour as he brings his guitar and plays at radio stations. "The more I play it, the more the audience responds," says Dale Miller at KATP. "I like it. It sounds like 'Life Is A Highway,'" says Tim Sheehan of WRKI. "American Life" makes steady chart progress, moving moves 81-78* on the Hard Hundred and 32-25* at AAA. Eight adds this week from KCLB, KISS, KLBJ, WHCN, WHJY, WRIF, WRXK and WXZL while WAPL reports top-five phones. Airplay leaders include WIYY (26) and KRRK (24).

Rob Rule, "She Gets Too High," MERCURY The song-writing and guitar of Mary's Janish's David King and the drumming of James Bradley, Jr. combine on this surging, bottom-heavy blues-rock track, co-written with 19-year-old New Jersey singer Eddie Anisko. "A real mooky song," says Carl Craft at WCIZ. "It's that little guitar hook in the first ten seconds," says Don Nardella at WNCN. "You won't be able to turn it off." "Getting good feedback," says Howard P. at WROV. "If you're not playing 'She Gets Too High,' you're not only depriving your audience of a quality rock record, you're also missing out on the opportunity to make Jennifer Capriati jokes," adds Guy Dark at WHDQ. "Too High" climbs 37-36* on the Hard Hundred and 35-23* at AAA. KICT, KSJO and WROQ climb on board this week.

The Hatters, "Dig The Ribbit," ATLANTIC WAVF's been on this track six weeks and was getting top five phones for three weeks making Dave Rossi the perfect spokesperson as he says, "This week, it's the number one phone record. It's blowing everything else away!" People are asking for this song by name after they hear this quintet of killer musicians, who can jam all night as they open for Collective Soul. Adds this week include KTYD, KEZE and WTPA. Belinda at KEZE told us, "It's really different, different great!"

Bonnie Raitt, "Longing In Their Hearts," CAPITOL Our charts didn't have long to long for Bonnie. She debuts at 99* on the Hard Hundred, following her Top Ten success at AAA. KFMF, KSEZ, KSPQ and WBLM come on board this week, adding this latest example of Bonnie's bluesy rock and her resonant voice that doesn't suggest a life of ease and luxury. The title track to her number one album, and her third Capitol offering, is getting airplay at 23 stations, with WGIF, KSQY, WHCN, WKIT and WPLR leading the way in airplay. From Mike O'Hara at WKIT, "Bonnie is an AOR staple and has been there since the beginning of the format. She adds depth to the lineup of artists." From Jon Erdahl at WGIR, "Bonnie's a legend. You can't deny her taste and quality guitar from my listeners."

Mother Station, "Put The Blame On Me," EASTWEST "Blame" picks up five adds this week — KEGJ, WCIZ, WRKI, WTKX and WXQR. The album's selling in New York, Chicago and Harrisburg. "Blame" climbs 47-46* on the Hard Hundred and debuts at 45* on the COR chart. With facts like that it's easy to see why harder stations are coming in on this record, with WAXQ giving the track 29 spins this week. Not to mention WRXL and WTPA both seeing top-five phones. Duane Doherty from KEGJ tells us, "It's a female rocker and that's a rarity today. It's a strong song with a lot of talent in the band, and they bought me lunch!"

Dig, "unlucky friend," RADIOACTIVE "Those sour opening guitar riffs in the beginning have the same effect on me as sweet-tarts and I dig sweet-tarts! A great 18-34 year old target track." That's the word from Darrin Arriens at WKLQ, cryptic as they are. Coming off the success of "Believe," this is an album that has sold 160,000 copies and considering KIOZ's Peg Pollard tells us "Unlucky Friend" is easily my favorite track on a CD full of excellent tunes" odds are many more units will fly off the shelves. The alternative story of this band is just starting to develop, so keep your ears peeled.

Motherland, "Rumor," 550 Music "With Jason Bonham feeling more relaxed than ever behind the drum kit, Motherland delivers a track with the eeriness of Zep's 'No Quarter' and the power of 'Trampled Underfoot.'" sez WKLQ's Darrin Arriens. "Rumor" gets seven adds this week, at KQWB, KRRK, WGLF, WKLQ, WKQZ, WNCN and WXTB. And "Rumor" already had ten stations behind it, led by KNAC (19) and KZRX (15). The band's album, Peace 4 Me, hits stores June 7 with a tour planned in July. Don Nordella from WNCN said, "We heard a rumor about this new band Motherland, we gave it a spin and immediately added it."

The Endless Summer II

Boz Scaggs, "Some Change," VIRGIN Already a number one track at AAA, Boz has 47 rock stations behind him thus far, and WSTZ comes on board this week helping Boz land the 54* position on the Hard Hundred. "This could be a Steve Miller record," says Michael Cross of KJKJ. "Boz is back with the blues." "A very adult record with enough guitars to attract the young audience," says Dale Miller at KATP. "Kinda reminds me of John Mayall." "It fits all demos and has a fresh sound," says Tim Harrison at KSEZ. "It's really working for us. It fits our target demos."

Elvis Costello, "Sulky Girl," WARNER BROTHERS Add some raw Costello harmonies to the great big pop sound created by the reunited Attractions, and you've got a wonderful 16th album (not including compilations) for Mr. Costello. "Sulky Girl" sounds a bit like something from the Mighty Like A Rose era, with its samba flavor, Steve Nieve's eerie organ and Pete Thomas' percussion. "Sulky Girl," like other tracks on the Brutal Youth album, succeeds in melding the Attractions' classic early sound and Costello's more recent assays.

ROLLINS BAND, "Liar," IMAGE
Rock's Tony Robbins gives us a sobering look at how susceptible the lonely are to deceit. Henry Rollins plays the role of a con man who tells the unsuspecting what they want to hear before he rips their emotions to shreds with yet another deception. You've heard of power chords — these are power words, honorable words that need to be heard. "Liar" moves 72-71* on the Hard Hundred and 33-26* at COR. And he's got top-five requests at KZRX, WKQZ, WXTB, KILO, WKLL, KUPD and KQRC. Adds this week include KBAT, KISS, WAXQ and WRZK. Enough said.

CRASH TEST DUMMIES, "AFTERNOONS & COFFEESPOONS," ARISTA
Crash Test Dummies' "Afternoons & Coffeespoons" is a huge part of the picture with over 1.5 million sold. Soon you will be able to see their new video, that was shot in good 'ol Austin, Texas, but in the meantime don't pass up the opportunity to see the group live with Elvis Costello until June 19. "Afternoons" debuts at 100* on the Hard Hundred and 31* on the AAA chart. "It's really tasty," says Jack Mitchell at WIBA. "It grows on ya, I like their sound." sez WHCN's birthday gal Pam Brooks, "Mmm Mmm Mmm Mmm" was so huge we want to see what else will work." WVVV's Kevin Walsh thinks it's, "Good stuff, I've always loved their unique sound." Debbie Gilbert of WWWV sez, "I shared a lobster with a Crash Test Dummie at Hard's house! This is a really good summer song and, hell, it's memorial day so come on." Lenny Bloch from WDHA told us, "It's a one listen sing-a-long. My 5 year old daughter digs it big time." Finally, from KZOZ's Rick Andrews, "To me, the band can transcend demographics. Their ageless sound can cover Top 40, Progressive, and Rock formats. Once you grab the hook you can sing and really sound like you can! Drop it from the diaphragm and go with it."

TUTTERING JOHN, "I'll Talk My Way Out Of It," ATLANTIC
Scratching and clawing to get himself a major label deal delivers an album of well-produced high-energy rock. "Talk" started out as a soundtrack song for the Airheads motion picture that you'll be hearing about soon. "Talk" debuts on the Hard Hundred at 98*, with 17 stations already on the track. KIBZ reports top-five phones. You can't help but like a guy who asked Eddie Van Halen, "Since you named your son Wolfgang, would you name your daughter Coyote Face?" (Van Halen told him to get lost.)

YES, "Walls," VICTORY/PLG
Yes' "Walls" is an Eighteen new adds, making it #4 Most Added, and a station count of 57 propel "Walls" from 70-66* on the Hard Hundred this week. "Absolutely," says Austin at WRXK. "Tell your audience Yes and they won't say no." "Something weird happened between 1980 and 1990," says Lenny Bloch at WDHA, "They found meaty hooks." The CD-ROM single includes a Karaoke Version of "Walls," as well as an eight-minute extended version of "The Calling," both previously unreleased.

THE TEA PARTY, "The River," TEC/CHRYSALIS
The river is starting to rise. It has been #1 phones for three weeks at KISW, with top 5 phones being reported at KEZE, KKEG, WRXL, KLBJ, KEYJ, and KMOD. The single is up in spins at WKLL, WTPA, KMOD, KEYJ, KEZE, KNCN, WRXL, and WWWV. The LP Splendor Soils in stores now is already a platinum plus release in Canada. KEZE's Belinda says, "I don't like The Doors but this is Morrison being channeled! It's got killer grooves and everyone is catching on around here." KKEG's Mark Wilson chips in, "People are going nuts. The LP would be #1 at retail if they could just keep it in stock." From WKLL's Mimi Griswold, "It an incredible combination of '70s, '80s and '90s rock, rolled into one fabulous song." From WRXL's Rick Maybee, "I think the song needs 50-70 spins before they realize they don't know who it is and begin to call and ask 'Who am I listening to?' And finally, from KISW's Cathy Faulkner, "#1 phones again this week. It combines all the different genres of rock. The guy sounds like The Doors, they rock like Zeppelin, and they put a new twist to it. Don't get hung up on 'sundalikes.' When you see them live they have plenty of originality to offer."

Industry Noise

Q104.3 WAKES UP NEW YORK

After months and months of searching, Bob Elliot and Q104.3 this week announced their new morning driver. And their gain is Doug Sorenson's loss, since for the past two years, Trent Tyler has started things out at KQRC/Kansas City. Sez Elliot, "Of the guys I listened to — and we only went through about 975 tapes — Trent was the most natural sounding jock I found who could actually do mornings. He has the energy we were looking for, he was on a similarly formatted station and he has tremendous attitude. Plus, working in New York is a dream he's had since he was 16." He starts June 6th. While we're on the subject of New York, the latest Trend is in: 12+ WNEW 2.2-2.3; WAXQ 1.6-1.9. 18-34: WQHT 7.2-7.4; WPLJ 6.7-7.4; WHTZ 6.2-6.9; WXRK 7.1-6.2; WBLS 6.1-5.8; WMXV 5.6-5.2; WAQX 4.0-4.9; WLTW 4.6-4.5; WSKQ 4.5-4.2 WNEW 3.3-3.9. 25-54: WCBS-FM 6.4-5.9; WLTW 5.8-5.7; WQCD 5.1-5.5; WXRK 5.5-4.9; WBLS 5.0-4.9; WMXV 4.5-4.4; WPLJ 4.4-4.4, WSKQ 4.1-3.5; WNEW 3.2-3.5; WAQX 1.1-1.6.

HAVLAT EXITS KBCO

Ginger Havlat

After 12 1/2 years, veteran KBCO Music Director Ginger Havlat has decided to leave the station, and for the time being, radio as well. "My big plan right now is to go to Europe for the summer and take a break," Havlat told Noise, adding, "But I will be back in radio." She also stressed that her decision to leave 'BCO was in no way connected with Doug Clifton's recent exit. "It wasn't a knee-jerk reaction to Doug leaving. I've been contemplating this move for quite some time. Now is the time for a new era at KBCO and in my own life." Of course, speculation is running high that Ginger will eventually wind up at the new 100kw Evergreen station with Doug Clifton and SBR's Ray Skibitsky. If that is the case, Ginger's not talking, saying only that she is "keeping my options open at this point." No word yet on replacements for either Clifton or Havlat, but it is expected that the MD position will be filled from within the station.

W WCT/Peoria Program Director Rick Hirshmann was elevated the Operations Manager position, and APD/MD Jamie Markley moves into the programming chair.

W PYX/Albany long time PM Driver has moved down the dial to take over operations at Z-Rock affiliate WZRQ. Nash's first actions as OM will be to take mornings local in the coming weeks. "I'm very excited about this opportunity," said Nash. "After fifteen years doing mainstream AOR, I feel like I've traded in my old, safe dependable sedan for a bright red 140mph convertible! David (Arcara, Pres/GM) and Carolyn (Holochuck, PD) have done a great job keeping the station solidly in the Top 10 — no small feat in a market with 32 signals. Now, it's onward and upward. No more misconceptions about a 'Satellite heavy metal station.' As of now, we are a 'current intensive rock n' roll animal!' AM Drive is only the beginning. More local day-parts to come." Nash had been with 'PYX almost since its sign on in 1980, except for a two year stint as swing jock/promotion assistant at WMMR/Philadelphia.

only is Jeff Cook one of the nicest guys in the business (as anyone who knows him will gladly attest), he also has one of the industry's most colorful backgrounds. Jeff's music career started back in the '60s playing in various Denver bands, including Crosstown Bus and Energy with Tommy Bolin. In fact, he co-wrote "Teaser" with Tommy, which Motley Crue covered on their Greatest Hits album. When Energy split up, Jeff took the local job with Arista, a company he'd stay with for 12 years. Next came eight years with Elektra, two of which were out of the home office in NYC. Three years ago, Jeff landed what many would consider the dream promo job—running the field staff for Phil Waklen's reincarnated Capricorn label. In the time since, Capricorn has made great strides in the Triple A and AOR arenas, due in no small part to Jeff's uniquely long term vision. By the way, that's Jeff's wife Elizabeth sharing the cover; herself a Warner Brothers promotion assistant. Now let's start with the subject on everyone's lips these days...

How has plays per week reporting been impacting your life on a day-to-day basis?

Jeff: I think that the fact that no one up to now has perfected the methodology of retrieving and collating the information in a manner that is consistent with what is really happening out there is causing a lot of headaches for us, i.e. backwards chart moves when a record actually increases in spins, and situations with some charts where frozen stations are not included in the week's overall play totals, and that kind of problem. There are so many glitches in the systems that it's really creating havoc for us, especially in the case where all of our records are breaking bands.

Yeah, and it sure makes it easy to spot the stroke adds quickly.

Jeff: Absolutely. There is another side to it that I don't think a lot of people have considered, and that's figuring out how real those records are that get most added for a week or two. If a big name artist comes out with something and three or four weeks in the spins are already dropping off, then it's pretty obvious that record was added mostly on name value as opposed to true artistic merit.

Given the fact that Triple A is Capricorn's real strength at radio, are you concerned about the format's relatively low PPW totals?

Jeff: If you're asking if the fact that they don't rotate records as consistently as other formats is that going to hurt us, my answer is no. That's because we are an artist development company that is interested in cultivating relationships with radio stations for the long term and we don't base our success or failure on what happens on any given track on any given chart. We are looking at a bigger picture and a longer run, and Triple A is a format that is more committed to artist development, in my opinion, than just about anybody out there. They will play deeper tracks for a longer period of time, that was born out with Freddy Jones being on the chart for almost a year. Widespread Panic had solid play on two and sometimes three tracks at AAA, for instance. I actually prefer to have two or three tracks played with less rotation over a longer period every time.

Is there a sense of frustration that the sell through on those bands hasn't matched the format's long term commitment?

Jeff: No, because, again, for us every record we release is a first record. Because they're debut records, we don't anticipate huge sales. We are about building and growing. We set a goal at 100,000 or 200,000 whatever it may be, and we work toward that goal. We start from square one, where there are no sales, and everything is growth from there. Let me make a literary analogy in terms of the way that I perceive this company, Capricorn, to be. If the majors out there are releasing Stephen King books, we are releasing The Bridges Of Madison County. We're looking for those records that are small, precious gems of music that occasionally will break through. We're not looking to sign huge mass appeal commercial records. We are looking for great pieces of music that will endure over a long period of time. And hence, our approach is completely different from the majors.

You do play by some of the same rules, though.

Jeff: Of course, you have to play by the same rules, and the fact that we have been in the game at the format of AOR and trying to slug it out with the majors is testimony to the fact that we are willing to play that game, too. I think that our approach is one of looking for a longer term resolution, but small and special. In this day and age, to start up a label, you really have to carve a niche and stake your territory at the beginning to survive. I think that we have been very successful in that sense.

You've just switched from WEA to RED distribution. What frustration was WB feeling and how would you describe the promise that RED recognized?

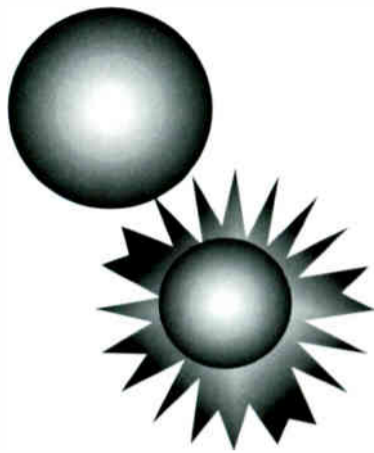

Jeff: First of all, I must say that our relationship with Warner Brothers was a great and wonderful time. In fact, my relationship with Dave Dannheisser's assistant Elizabeth was so great that we ended up getting married! You can't work with better people, you don't have a better opportunity to break and expose your product through any other source. The people there were just marvelous and gave us so much help on every level. I think that the frustration was that for us and for them, the success was not coming as quickly as we had hoped. Look at the glutted playing field right now and consider that there is basically the same amount of radio stations in America that there was ten years ago, and yet there are ten times as many record companies and staff. That tells me that the time curve has been lengthened for you to develop something. Warner Brothers could see the progression and growth, but it was not commensurate, in my opinion, with what they had hoped for. Sal Licata at RED perceived us as a company that truly was developing artists and hence the appeal.

You just came back from the RED convention. Describe the vibe.

Jeff: The people at RED are very street level, aggressive, and hard working. They specialize in interfacing with the mom and pop, tastemaker stores as well as the larger accounts. That will add a new dimension to our ability to construct a sales base.

Jeff

You obviously feel that your bands will prosper from that kind of grass roots approach.

Jeff: Yes, I do, because the most active music buyer is not going to the mall stores to buy his new record. The most active music buyer, the person that is really interested in acquiring what is new and different, is at those little stores looking for imports and different things. From 0 to 100,000 you're really targeting that marketplace.

Would you say there is still a fair amount of label skepticism about the format's ability to sell through?

Jeff: Yes, I would.

And in certain companies they have named Triple A specialists, but they have not committed the budgets. Do you feel like the format is increasing in it's ability to reach that 25-44 year old consumer? Is there anything in your roster that tells you that?

Jeff: I think so, in terms watching how virtually unknown artists sell with exclusively Triple A airplay. Where else could those sales be coming from? Of course, a certain portion is from press and a certain portion is from touring, but then there is another unexplained percentage of those sales that have to be generated from radio. Plus, you can look geographically and watch where those sales are being stimulated and see that it's a direct result of airplay. Watching KBCO grow and build during my early days as a Denver local rep was a great lesson for me. I saw that building an audience takes time for radio, as does building an audience for an artist. KBCO was no overnight sensation, it took years, and literally, there was a generation of people who grew up listening to the station who became those solid fans and spread the word.

It's also fair to say that in the radio community it took a some time for the station to be taken seriously.

Jeff: That's right, and even more so, it took longer for it become a commercially salable item. This is no instant fix format.

Word on the street was that all the women who worked there in the early days wore sack dresses and had hairy armpits, and that all the guys wore flip flops and beat t-shirts. Remember?

Jeff: KBCO was doing something so totally different that not only did the public at large not understand it, but neither did the record companies. They only perceived KBCO as a place to fill up their tracking sheets — an add to give a manager, so that he wouldn't bother them about the 'real' call letters. My, how times have changed.

You went from being a musician to a promo guy. How'd that come about?

Jeff: I was playing with Tommy Bolin, writing songs and so forth, and I was also working in the daytime at a record store. Michael Prince, who now works for Zoo, was the local Denver Arista guy, and he used to come in and visit me. One day he came in and said, 'Hey, I got promoted, and I'm moving to Atlanta. Would you like to interview for my job?' So I interviewed, and I got the job, which I did for about a year and a half. Then Michael called me from Atlanta and he said, 'I'm getting promoted. Would you be interested in moving to Atlanta?' I ended up moving to Atlanta, and basically followed Michael Prince in his career path all the way through. It wasn't long after he moved to New York that I moved there with Elektra.

How did you and Bolin hook up?

Jeff: I had a band in Denver called Crosstown Bus that was playing around town a lot. Tommy ran away from home when he was 16, and was walking down the street one snowy night, just like in the movies, and we were rehearsing in the basement of a dress shop in downtown Denver. We were playing along and we kept hearing the rattling on the door and I went up to check on it and there was Tommy standing at the door with the snow blowing down and a guitar in his hand. He said, 'Hey man, can I come in and jam?' Most of the guys didn't want to do it, and somebody said, 'Yeah, let him come in for a couple of minutes,' so he came in and started playing and we fired our guitar player the next morning.

He was that good, huh?

Jeff: He was astonishing. The kid had just turned sixteen, we were nineteen to twenty years old, and he played circles around all of us.

I remember seeing him in Zephyr when I was at Denver University. Were you ever in that band?

Jeff: No, I was never in Zephyr. I moved to England after Crosstown Bus broke up, and Tommy joined Zephyr.

What did you do over there?

Jeff: Played music, fooled around. Myself and another guy, we played blues, toured with Fleetwood Mac and Chicken Shack, all these old bands.

Was Peter Green in the band at the time?

Jeff: Yes, it was the original Fleetwood Mac, the tour that we were on was Fleetwood Mac, Chicken Shack, Sonny Terry, Bonnie McGee and B.B. King. It was great. We toured all the college towns around England, Oxford and Cambridge, etc. It was a great time. Not only did we get to play with these people but the backstage experience was wonderful. Watching B.B. King give Peter Green a guitar lesson was one of my most vivid memories.

That never really turned into a serious recording label thing for you though, did it?

Jeff: No, we were eighteen and nineteen years old, so we just had a good time.

Where you thinking of nailing down that big record deal at the time?

Jeff: No, we were just playing the blues and chasing girls.

What brought you back to Denver?

Jeff: It was just time to come home. I came back to Colorado and started a band with Tommy called Energy, which had some legendary players. We could never get a record deal, but when we broke up, Tommy joined the James Gang, the drummer replaced Buddy Miles in his own band, the bass player joined Frampton for Frampton Comes Alive and the keyboard player joined Gary Wright for the Dream Weaver album and I went to work for Arista.

So, all your buddies are up in bright lights and you're dressing up in a nurses outfit trying to get Alan Sneed to play 'Doctor, Doctor' by the Thompson Twins.

Jeff: The only thing that I regret about moving to Atlanta was my long term association with Alan Sneed.

Yes, and isn't it kind of a weird feeling when you can't get someone you've known for twenty years to add a record.

Jeff: Nobody can be there for you all the time. In all honesty, I consider my relationship with Alan to be a very precious one, because we have been able to sustain a close, personal friendship in double digit years, working on different sides of the business. We've both had to come up with some boundaries, such as 'Hey, I don't play all your records,' but that's okay, because the friendship is bigger than the business side of it.

In the context of old friends like Sneed and Prince, the other day, I was talking to another promo person who is 42 and in a company situation that's a little shakey. He called and was kind of stressing about his options if he found himself out of work at that age. Do you think there's more age-ism in the record biz than in other career fields?

Jeff: No, I have a lot of friends outside of the business, and that's a concern of everyone. They worry about their boss hiring someone half their age for a quarter of the money. That may happen, but I like to think that, personally, promotion is not all anybody can do. Those of us who have been in promotion for two decades have learned a lot of other things along the way, and I really believe that there is a place for people to spread their wings within this business always. Promotion may not be that place, but I'll tell you one thing. Someone who has been in promotion for two decades could probably save most companies a lot of money. Knowing these markets as intimately as we do, and over as long a period of time that we have worked them, has to give us a certain advantage. I would like to add, too, that I haven't found any hindrance to getting business done dealing with somebody half my age, on the radio side. The only thing that was embarrassing for me that I can remember was telling Dave Rossi at 'AVF that Pearl Jam would never happen.

When Michele Meisner returned to Elektra around the first of the year, a long line of very strong candidates immediately formed for that job. Some were unemployed, but a number had supposedly secure gigs at happening major labels. What's the Capricorn appeal?

Jeff: People perceive that we doing things a little bit differently, that we actually are a company that is carving an adult niche and we are making interesting records, too. We're not just trying to crank out the latest version of Stone Temple Pilots or the latest version of Alice In Chains. We are trying to do records that have appeal in their own genre of music and on their own merit. As far as that job, it is still open in San Francisco. I had not filled it due to the changeover from Warner Brothers to RED and Sony. I felt that until we were settled back in, it made no sense to put somebody on. I wanted to make sure that everything was solid and rolling. So, I'm still going to fill that position at some point.

Do you have a time frame?

Jeff: Within my lifetime.

Does Capricorn do much wheeling and dealing for airplay?

Jeff: First of all, it would be ludicrous for us to try to compete on that financial level. Not only do we not have their resources, but I don't consider a promotion attached to a record any kind of insurance of getting quality play on the record. If somebody doesn't feel strongly enough in the first place about a record to put it on and commit to it, then I'm not really prone to want to support it financially. If we can do a promotion that will enhance the image of the artist in the marketplace, that makes sense to me, preferably after the artist is already playing on the radio.

Is that usually in the form of making the artist available to the radio station for an appearance?

if you can build a story, all the better. I think that the Collective Soul record is a terrific example of that. That record, while not a novelty record, is certainly a unique sounding record on the radio and it stands out and really gets your attention. It's amazing to me how it was able to be crossed to several different formats. Great job, Danny and company.

Ian Moore is one of Capricorn's brightest hopes right now. What's your plan right now to take him to the next level?

than you would if you were in a market that wasn't. We know which stations in America tend to lean to the adult side, and we would certainly target those stations in advance of trying to cross that record. We are going after 'In A Daydream' for the third time. We are releasing it to AOR once again, because we know it's a record. We know that 'RFX is getting top five phones in Charlotte, and they only play 12 records. We know that 'RDU played it six times and got top five phones. At WKLS it was a #1 phone record, and WAVF has done well with it. Regionally, it's building at AOR, so we need to spread the word, so we are re-releasing it once again.

What do you do to get it noticed the third time around?

Jeff: I don't know if we can do anything differently, except to keep pointing to the successes. What we need to do is get programmers' attention long enough to show them how this record is continuing to perform. There are quotes from these radio stations on the disc that will arrive next week — direct quote from their contemporaries, saying that this record is happening. If we can get it on the air, the record will take care of itself.

How does your lack of catalogue handicap you?

Jeff: Any company that is operating without a catalogue, at this point, operates at a disadvantage. It's most unfortunate that we don't have the Capricorn catalogue to use, but that's the reality. We're quickly trying to cultivate a catalogue with our Capricorn Presents box sets and the various artists we have. Obviously, Warner Brothers and Sony and RCA and all these other big labels have two decades or more of catalogue. So, yes, we're operating at a disadvantage, but it's not something that we can't overcome because we are totally focused on creating the catalogue now.

How come you guys haven't really dealt more with the Alternative arena?

Jeff: Because we really wanted to go with what we knew first, then evolve. I think that it speaks very loudly that the debut 311 record, our first Alternative release, is at almost 100,000 now. Considering it's our one shot going into that genre of music, it's a tremendous statement.

Are you A&R guys just not oriented to that sound?

Jeff: We don't have an A&R department. Phil Walden has the ultimate final answer, but we listen to tapes from the interns, we take feedback from everyone in the company. We have not felt the need to put in place an A&R department up to this point. We will. That's coming, but at this juncture in our growth, we are at a point where we can deal with that in the future.

Are you concerned about being typecast regarding the kind of music that you tend to specialize in?

Jeff: That's inevitable in this business. Everybody is looking for a quick label to tack on everyone else, so they can just box them in, but what you see us doing in the next year and year and a half will totally eliminate those kinds of things.

If you were to step outside yourself, how might you typecast the company?

Jeff:

Those are options. I think that you can be very creative with what you do promotionally if you're always reassessing and reevaluating where you are with the record. Obviously, if the record is at 15,000 or 50,000 there is a difference with how you are going to approach promoting it, and at 200,000 it is certainly a whole different game again.

On Tuesday, when you are watching the Most Added columns, do you feel like you are competing against small appliances and cash?

Jeff: It would be easy for me to take that stance and feel badly about it, but my feeling is that the really real records survive those weeks where you only have three or four or five adds. At Elektra, we worked the 10,000 Maniacs record for a year before it popped. I remember creating and sending out a birthday card announcing to radio that it was our first birthday promoting 10,000 Maniacs. I subscribe to the long haul theory, that you have to be willing to tough out whatever you are dealt on any given week.

Do you think that home office pressure to deliver weak records is probably the biggest frustration in any promotion person's life?

Jeff: I think that it is frustrating when people perceive that obviously you are trying to cash in on a trend. If you are releasing an Alice In Chains clone, and it's so painfully obvious that is what you went out and signed, radio sniffs that out in a heartbeat. They know that's not real. They know that is premeditated and pretentious. Whereas, if you are releasing a record that goes against the grain of what's happening right now, it actually stands out a little bit. You may not get people embracing it initially, but to just keep consistently doing what we are doing. We want to keep him out on tour. He's going back to Europe again, to play there in the summer. We are going to prepare a set of three or four live songs that we will release commercially, songs like 'Blue Sky' and 'Satisfied' that reinforce the album, but give you a whole different kind of groove to the songs. We'll put that out to retail to keep building the fan base and to create more consumer awareness. We did a video on 'Harlem' and we continue to work that, not only at independent outlets, but MTV. That's our goal, to continue hammering at every level, and again, the long game. It doesn't have to happen last week. We are completely comfortable with how it's building in terms of sales and airplay.

Freddy Jones went to the top 10 with 'In A Daydream' and 'One World,' but that's been a tough act to cross out of Triple A, and you could also almost say that about the Swinging Steaks. Do you think that AOR programmers are skeptical of Triple A hits?

Jeff: No, I do not. I don't think that there is a bias against it, but I don't think that the format as a whole has had the kind of numbers that make records crossing out of it automatics.

Is it a question of AAA needing stronger overall numbers to impact more on AOR?

Jeff: Success breeds success. If you are in a marketplace with an Alternative station that is kicking butt, a programmer might take a look at more Alternative records

Hard INTERVIEW

Jeff: As music driven, which is what we say. We're not interested in fads or quick novelty type things. We want to build albums that are reflective of great music from people that are actually out there playing it.

You certainly have some regional variation in your roster, but do you think that 'Southern' would be an unfair roster stereotype?

Jeff: I think that 'Southern' is a label that is thrust on us because of the past. If you consider the fact that Freddy Jones is from Chicago, and the Swinging Steaks are from Boston and Ian Moore is from Texas and 311 is from L.A., I would say that isn't really reflective of a southern label. Sonically, there is a certain vibe musically on some of the music, but, for instance, I consider Ian's influences more urban than southern.

Do you use indies extensively?

Jeff: Yes. We have a four person regional staff. I did a study recently of all the like sized or slightly bigger companies, and our staff is smaller than most labels. So we definitely use independent help on a regular basis.

Do you rotate your indies?

Jeff: I have guys that I like to use, but I rotate a bit. It's interesting to see how each of them have different relationships and how the relationships are used.

How day-to-day involved is Phil Walden?

Jeff: Very much so. He is completely hands on in every department. He still possesses a very high degree of curiosity about how things work. He's a very intelligent man who is thoroughly engrossed in the business end and the music. We used to walk through the Warner Brothers offices, and it was almost embarrassing because the guy was grabbing everyone's CD's off their desks. He's a total music junkie.

It's wonderful to watch somebody who acts like every CD he buys at a store is the first one he's ever bought.

You've worked with Phil Walden, Clive Davis, and Bob Krasnow. What do those three industry giants have in common?

Jeff: I don't think that they have much in common, other than the fact that they are willing to step up to the bat and really go for it. It was fascinating being there as Bob Krasnow remolded and reshaped Elektra. He had a vision and a very clear idea of what he wanted to do and where he wanted to go with it, and he's been willing to take chances right on through. I recently saw Clive on a plane coming back from a Grammy show and I went up to him and said, 'There is not a day that goes by that I don't use something that I learned from you.' And that is the truth. The man has a brilliant sense of the business, and I will always treasure the time that I had there. With regard to Phil, he's the same kind of personality. He's got a dream and the willingness to work incessantly to see it through. I look for people to work with that I can learn from, and I've been very lucky to work with three extraordinary individuals, and all of them music people first.

Do you think Alternative is continuing to show the promise that encouraged Krasnow to do what he did?

Jeff: I think that Alternative radio, much like any other format of radio that has been attacked by the music business, has pulled in its oars a little bit and become more conservative. They have become big business, and it's much harder to cultivate early interest than it used to be. But the format definitely pays dividends because they have a very core fanatic listening audience which expands daily.

Do you think that it's less music friendly than it was a year ago?

Jeff: Yes, no question about it. We used to lament the fact that major label records were in the Top 10 at charts in Alternative, and now it's really rare to see an independent label anywhere in the Top 10 at commercial alternative radio.

Do you foresee that trend squeezing out a substantial number of the independent labels?

Jeff: The trend has been for major labels to swallow them whole, but the true independents — the ones that operate with the full knowledge that they can sell five to ten thousand copies of a record and make a profit on that — those guys will be there forever because they are the true entrepreneurs in the business. The distributors like RED have nurtured those labels lovingly for a good long time, and this new arrangement between Rounder and Valley Distributing is going to create a big independent network for the entrepreneurs in the music business.

What does public radio mean to you?

Jeff: Public radio is a tremendous vehicle to reach an audience that is not concerned with the latest flavor. People that are involved with public and national radio are people that are looking for alternatives to the alternative. They are really looking for completely different genres of music than what pop radio might give them.

It seems that pop is a very low priority situation with you guys.

Jeff: At this point, so far, it has been. I think that's a whole different world, both promotionally and psychologically.

Do you envision that changing, or are you just not oriented towards that kind of music?

Jeff: Again, it would change almost organically. I don't think that we would ever sign anything with the idea of 'Ah ha! This is our CHR record, let's go after it.' I think that what we might do is have success on other formats and it would translate from there. I suspect that it will happen with Freddy Jones because at some point Freddy Jones will become so popular that we might have to go to CHR with some point with a band like that because they are perfect.

Personally, you're a devout student of Tai Chi, and yet on a daily basis, you deal with all the bizarreness that makes up the record business. Do you find that an odd sort of mix?

Jeff: The philosophical side of Tai Chi is the concept of yin and yang, and what could be more yin and yang than working in the record business and doing Tai Chi? The record business is total stress and total energy and Tai Chi is total relaxation and total quietitude. It's a perfect balance.

I've heard you say you'd like to take a year or two off and travel and teach in China. Has your wife Elizabeth talked you out of that yet?

Jeff: She has just adjusted my bus schedule. I'm still going, but it may be a few years from now. I am able to at least live part of a dream, and that is I teach Tai Chi two nights a week. One night, I teach to elderly people in a church and then the next night I teach a regular class for my teacher in his studio, so I'm able to do that to really prepare myself to go when I go to China again. I have been to China before to study, but I want to go for an extended amount of time. I think that the future of the world lies in the hand of the East at this point, from manufacturing to business and all sides of the world economy. They will hold a good deal of the cards in the coming decade, and I want to be a part of watching that evolve at some point.

I read this morning that in the major metro cities in China nine out of ten people have color televisions.

Jeff: That's right, and AT&T just made a deal over the next five years to put in 170 million phones, which is a small percentage of the population.

Do you think that being in Atlanta enables you to get anything done that you could do in New York or L.A.?

Jeff: In this day and age, I don't think that there is any overpowering reason to live in New York or L.A., with all the back tracking that is going on from people in the music business to Nashville and Austin and all these other cities. Atlanta is as full of music business lawyers and managers as many other major cities in America, and we are only as far away from New York and L.A. as an airport, a fax machine and a telephone.

What would you consider the most frustrating aspect of your job?

Jeff: The lack of catalogue and being on square one with everything that we release. It's just a matter of starting from the beginning with each release. Not that following up a platinum album is always a cake walk, but it does tend to be easier, at least in the early stages.

And the most satisfying?

Jeff: Dealing with you on a weekly basis, of course.

Other than that, wiseguy.

Jeff: I guess being given the ability to exercise my instincts and intuitions. I have been given a free hand with this department by Phil and Don Schmitzlerle and they have given me the ability to go ahead and try and experiment with what I think to be right. It is wonderful to be handed the reigns and allowed to try things. That's what I've always dreamed of.

Toad The Wet Sprocket, "Dulcinea," Columbia The multi-format, platinum plus success of Fear hasn't affected Toad. Their fourth release, Dulcinea, is as honest and emotional as the debut album that they recorded in their living room. There's so much that we like about this record, we're having a hard time narrowing down our favorites, so Kelli asked the Triple A community for suggestions: Michael Parks WRLT, "I love Toad, and this album is great. We already have four tracks in the system. Our favorites are 'Fly From Heaven,' 'Something's Always Wrong' and 'Crowing.'" Zeb Norris WXLE, "Toad The Wet Sprocket has returned with an album that is more accessible than Fear without compromising the integrity that has brought them widespread respect and affection. Check out the track 'Stupid' it is absolutely brilliant." Kevin Matthews WVGO, "We put it right on the air, it fits in perfectly with our format. The three favorite tracks are 'Fly From Heaven,' 'Something's Always Wrong' and the single 'Fall Down.' We'll probably have this album around for at least the rest of this year and into '95. Toad The Wet Sprocket is one of my personal favorite bands and I think this is their best album to date." Rick Williams KKDJ, "Toad's Dulcinea is just what the doctor ordered. 'Fall Down' is #1 phones and the album as a whole is adventurous and exciting while retaining that great Toad trademark sound."

THE HOT CORNER The Hot Corner

Seal, "Prayer For The Dying," Warner Bros. Seal's powerful, emotive vocals are a natural for the Triple A format. The first single from his forthcoming eponymous LP, "Prayer For The Dying," picked up a 40th debut on the album chart and some immediate Triple A reaction: Don Ferrell KRVM, "We added Seal immediately. He's really groovy, and he's one of the few artists that can cross over to any format. He's the ultimate all-purpose artist. I love the guy. He's a great talent. If you don't like him, then there's something medically wrong with you." Steve Cole KSPN, "Seal, the next generation, has been one of the most anticipated releases to hit our stacks in some time. We have continued to get numerous requests for his first album some three years after its release. 'Prayer For The Dying' is a very tasty and promising kick-off to what we hope is an album as consistently enjoyable as the debut." Kevin Matthews WVGO, "I've only heard the single but it's got great vocals. He has one of the strongest voices I have ever heard." Brad Dolbeer KMTT, "This could be a very big record. The last record did very well for us and judging from the single, this is another strong CD for the format."

B-Tribe, "You Won't See Me Cry," Atlantic I'm a little busy munching on popcorn and M&M's right now, so I'm turning this write-up over to Chris and Jeff: Chris Douridas KCRW, "This is huge for us. The single is getting more calls than anything that we're playing right now, without question. It went into heavy rotation right out of the box." Jeff Hansen WERU, "There are certain elements on this album that remind me of Deep Forest and Bakka Beyond, which make me think that it will be pretty popular with our listeners. There are a lot of good tracks on the album that should work well." Well, whaddaya know? Popcorn and M&M's do go well together. And so do a flamenco guitar and the melody of Vangelis' "I'll Find My Way Home" with an understated touch of haunting vocals.

TRIPLE CROWN

Van Morrison, "A Night In San Francisco," Polydor There's nothing like a little live Van Morrison to get the Triple A phone lines burning: Jody Denberg KGSR, "Although Van already has done two live albums A Night In San Francisco is a truly inspired piece of work. The band operates with telepathy and supports Van at every turn. We've got a packet of songs in heavy and my favorites are, 'Did Ye Get Healed?,' 'Help Me' and 'I Forgot That Love Existed.'" Bruce Ranes WXPN, "This is one of the best sounding live CD's I've heard in a long time. How could you go wrong with the incredible musicianship from Van and his band." Steve Cole KSPN, "If ever there was an artist closely tied to the hearts and souls of our valley, it is Van Morrison. Always glad to get more Van, and this live set showcases delightfully the talents of Van and band. Plenty of wonderful moments of Van testifying, pruned, mumbling and throwing in quotes from classic tunes. In the months to come, you'll here plenty of this new disc 'On the radio, on the radio, on the radio...'" Kevin Matthews WVG0, "This album has great live options and killer blues stuff. This will be good for people who never had this stuff on the air before." Bob Terrill KCSU, "It's Van in his preferred setting and that's a live performance. Real new and original versions, that's what you get on this album."

The Devlins, "Someone To Talk To," Capitol *When Capitol President Gary Gersh cut many artists from the roster, he not only decided to keep the Devlins, but also chose to relaunch their debut, Drift, focusing in on the single "Someone To Talk To."* This time around, the Devlins are aiming at Triple A: Steve Cole KSPN, "For some reason I never quite warmed up to tracks I had heard from Drift when it was released last year and I assumed that 'Someone To Talk To' was from a new release. Imagine my surprise! 'Someone To Talk To' has me talking to myself about missing such a fine tune the first time around. Great track!" Glenn Roberts KFMU, "This is a great song! We started playing this about the end of December, early January. We really enjoyed the album so we did some digging ourselves. There's virtually been no burn-out factor on this tune. We love it. And play David Wilcox's 'Make It Look Easy' it's been most requested three weeks in a row." Bruce Ranes WXPN, "With a song like 'Someone To Talk To', I'm sure there will be a lot more people listening." Chris Douridas KCRW, "I love the record, and when it came out it was nice to see that they were putting out the follow-up single for their current tour." Rick Williams KKDJ, "I give credit to Capitol because they saw that this band was worth it. They chose an opportune time for this release to come out. I think this is a great album with a ton of good songs on it." Ian Taylor WKVT, "This track is good, the whole album has stuff you could use. This should have been approached sooner."

Ani DiFranco, "Out Of Range," Righteous Babe Records This is Triple A with an attitude, and DiFranco's emotional lyrics and passionate delivery give make that an attitude with a capital "A". Mikel Elcessor WYEP, "Ani DiFranco has been a staple for more than two years, and boy does she polarize people. People either love her or hate her, it's your choice. But the people who love her get really excited over her music. She is an artist that isn't going to be mistaken for somebody else. We don't want to sound like everyone else, and Ani DiFranco helps us define ourselves as a radio station." Jon Peterson WCBE, "Ani DiFranco's earlier work, though way cool, was perhaps too personal and indulgent for Triple A. With her new album she comes into the fold musically without sacrificing her insights and passion." Dan Reed WNKU, "I think it is often overlooked that she is a great guitar player. She is very talented and her songs have got a hook and contain great little stories. We've played her past work and she is getting better and better with every new album. All of the songs are great, but the title track stands out." Jim Olsen WRSI, "Edgy, lyric-based folk rock in the Billy Brag vein. Ani has a large grass roots following." Bob Terrill KCSU, "I really like this album, it's better than her last. Ani has a quirky original singing style that works well for us. The acoustic guitar leans to the alternative side, but the record will work well for all stations."

Otis Rush "This Way Up" Mercury

By Ben Manilla, House of Blues

This is the one. You know, the Blues CD that makes the transition to Rock, this is it. It helps to know that Eric Clapton studied Otis Rush, and Jimmy Page "borrowed" quite a bit from Rush, and Santana's "Black Magic Woman" is a re-write of an old Otis tune, "All Your Love." But that's past history. This new album is RIGHT NOW. There Ain't Enough Comin' In is his first album in over a decade. Go ahead, compare it to Buddy Guy, B.B. King, or Robert Cray — this is the real thing. Play it next to Counting Crows or Boz Scaggs or the Allman Brothers — this is "blues-based rock." More history: Otis Rush, along with Buddy Guy and Magic Sam, worked with the great Willie Dixon on an old Chicago label, Cobra. All the Brits memorized Otis' licks and brought it back to us through the Bluesbreakers, Fleetwood Mac and Zep. Otis was maybe the first (maybe it was Albert King) to take a guy named Jimi who did the same thing. I'm tellin' ya — this is smokin'. The tracks to check out are "Don't Burn Down the Bridge," "Homework," "It's My Own Fault," or maybe "Somebody Have Mercy." Take home the cassette, play it for someone you wanna impress. If it doesn't work call me — I'll give you your money back. THIS IS THE ONE.

Jimi MCA

By Rich Gordon, Sunday Night Blues, WXRX/Rockford

Jimi Hendrix, the legendary guitar player's guitarist, is still with us today. His music has inspired/influenced/touched almost everyone in the world of music. Jimi Hendrix: Blues offers a glimpse at the roots of the master of the Stratocaster. From unplugged to full blown psychedelic, it's all here captured through the magic of the CD technology. This disc contains some choice rare performances, covers blues classics and originals that define what Jimi Hendrix was. As with all works of music, beauty is determined by the ears of the listener. Musical masturbation or creative genius? — only you can answer that question. Take the trip, the journey could be enlightening. Hats off to Michael Fairchild, his album notes offer an excellent guide to what's happening here.

"He was one of the great explorers of the so called Delta blues." - B.B. King

"Hendrix was the greatest rock and roll/blues singer that there was." - John Lee Hooker

"Hendrix plays Delta Blues for sure—only the Delta may have been on Mars." - Tony Glover

Terry Evans "Blues For Thought" Pointblank

By Randi Anglin, Nothing But The Blues, WQNY/Ithaca

When Pointblank released its first album, "Ambition," by Larry McCray, the new kid on the blues label block started out with a virtual unknown. In the years following that humble beginning, Pointblank has become a premier label by taking many well known artists and giving them a boost in their career — John Lee Hooker, Albert Collins, Kinsey Report and Johnny Winter are several examples. A consistency in all the recordings are well produced, well executed albums. The label's newest release returns to its beginning by taking a new talent and show casting it in an album that retains its standards to excellence... From the very beginning, Terry Evan's Blues For Thought grabs hold of your attention and takes you on a ride of musical styles that run the gamut from funk blues to gospel with a little John Lee Hooker thrown in for good measure. Ry Cooder produced and played on this refreshingly original album. On every track, Cooder breathes life into the production and performance creating a work that stands out as an example of what a blues album can be. It's unfair to single out any release due to the diversity of styles, but for the sake of a review, some highlights are: Willie Dixon's "Too Many Cooks," Denise Lasalle's "Get Your Lies Straight," and Evan's original compositions "Natcha Bone Lover," "Live, Love And Be Friends." I wouldn't be surprised if Evan's "Shakespeare Didn't Quote That" doesn't appear in rotation on jazz shows around the country. To paraphrase a tacky commercial, Terry Evan's Blues For Thought is pure listening satisfaction.

Notable & Quotable

Sugar Blue "Blue Blazes" Alligator

"Not just another harmonica player, a true virtuoso. He sometimes sounds like 3 people." - Eric Stanley, Host of "B Bop Boogies and Blues Review," WVG0/Richmond

"Mick and the Stones were right about their former session player (on Tattoo You and Some Girls), and now the whole world will know this guy can play." - Peter Simon, Host of the syndicated "Peter Simon's Blues Jam"

"...great adult appeal...fits in our format" - David Anderson, programmer of the "5:01 Blues," KQPT/Sacramento

"...(Featuring) Sugar Blue's innovative vocal phrasing, on choice traditional tunes that clearly communicate to today's Blues fan." - Marlene Walker, Host of "Blues Kitchen," KMTT/Seattle

When, it sure is nice to see the Blues get Hard again! Given the large number of AOR Blues shows (over 170 at last count) and the increased spins on AOR Playlists, this couldn't have come at a better time. Every week this page will be devoted to providing you with a ton of information about new releases and programming tips from leading blues programmers. This column needs your input — CD reviews, quotes, playlists, etc.

Comments are welcome and criticisms — uh, sure call me anytime. Seriously, please FAX your weekly blues show playlists to Jim McGrath (716) 423-9657 by 10:00pm (eastern) Sunday evening. No later, please! Jim needs only artist, release (not song) and label info. Also, a top 5 or top 10, whatever is possible, for the week is very helpful... We'd like to congratulate Chicago's Ear Wig Records on their 15th year anniversary. Owner Michael Frank got into the business as a harp player and manager for Delta stringer David "Honeyboy" Edwards and his first release was with the Jelly Roll Kings in '78. With an impressive catalog of releases from artists like Lovie Lee and The Hot Flames Jimmy Dawkins and Frank Frost, it's a must that you hear for yourself what this great label is about. Michael lives and breathes the Blues just a short hop, skip and a borrowed cup of sugar away from Alligator HQ. Give him a call at (312) 262-0278 for promo info. Ask him for some "Good Candy," the impressive new disc from Lovie Lee (former Pianist w/Muddy Waters), and "Goin' Back In The Times" from Slidewinder Homesick James... If you can swing it, I suggest that you make a stop at the 11th Annual Chicago Blues Festival on Friday, June 3 through Friday June 5th. This the world's largest and wildest free Blues festival. I might add that it's located in the best city on the globe. With a line up that includes Koko Taylor, Jimmy Rogers, John Primer, Sunnyland Slim, Bob Margolin and Pinetop Perkins, you can't beat it. Call the Chicago Mayor's office of special events (312) 744-1507 for a sidestage press pass so you can record artist interviews/station IDs and, of course, act like a big wig... Thanks for reading. STAY BLUE!

Greg Boeder, KTGL/Lincoln

Recently here at KTGL, we did what we billed as "A Blues Show For You And Your Dog!" featuring songs with your pooch as subject matter or with actual dog barking or howling in them.

The show also featured a "Howlin Hound Dog Contest" in which we invited our listeners to call and let their dog sing or howl the blues! (Prizes included a $25 shopping spree for your dog at the Canine Consultant — toys, lessons, etc. — and a 25 lb. bag of Hi Protein dog food!!) We got some good ones too from as far away as Kansas... And the winner was a dog named Ted (after Ted Nugent), but the most fun was putting the music together! Here's a little example of some tunes you might consider: Colin James, "Lone more too!! It's hilariously funny to hear a dog sing along when he's even singing the right notes!! Good Luck! (Ed. Note: Check out guitarist Scott Henderson's hilarious Blues tribute release, Dog Party. Out on Mesa Records, this collection of tunes will make your

Wolf," Tab Benoit, "Bone Pickin'," Elvin Bishop, "My Dog," Dr. John, "How Come My Dog Doesn't Bark When You Come Around," Gatemouth Brown, "Alligator Eatin' Dog," Howlin Wolf, "Howlin' For My Baby." These are just some possibilities and there are lots

Stone Temple Pilots, "Vaseline"
(Atlantic) After releasing one of the biggest breakthrough debuts of the year in Core, most bands would want to stay close to their patented formula on their next release. Not with Stone Temple Pilots. This track will be recognizable as STP to your listeners, but this is not "Plush" all over again. With "The Big Empty" all over radio right now powering The Crow Soundtrack up all the charts (#2 at COR), including Billboard where they hit the top spot this week with 1.4 million in sales, we are preparing for the first single off the upcoming album. Purple has shipped well over a million copies before the release, and with great songs like this re-orders are going to be right around the corner. Just listen to what your peers have to say: Lenny Bloch of WDHA claims that "This will be a #1 record!", and Matt Mangus of WRCN feels that it is a "fantastic record, a step forward" for the band. Welland's smooth melodic vocals slide over the base of the driving riffs and drums to create a musical image of the fly stuck in vasoline that they refer to in the lyrics. With early adds at WAAF and WRCN, and many more to follow, we see no reason why you shouldn't be spinning two great songs from this killer band.

The Cowboy Way Soundtrack/Bon Jovi, "Good Guys Don't Always Wear White", (550 Music/Epic) While most people have been waiting to see this latest movie with Woody Harrelson and Keifer Sutherland, we don't have to wait at all to spin a new Bon Jovi track from the soundtrack. With a debut on the COR chart this week at #49, and top phones popping up, we thought that Curtiss Johnson of KUPD took the words right out of our mouths when he said, "Any pre-conceived notions of image problems for Bon Jovi are blown to bits by this new song. It rocks and has at least two major hooks while Ritchie Sambora wails on guitar. Its been top 3 phones for us since the first spin on the air!" With increases at KBER, WHMH, WVCR, to go along with those phones, and airplay at KEZE, KNCN, KRXQ, and WMMS, the buzz is there for Jon and company to continue up the charts. Bon Jovi has been a staple at rock radio for 10 years now and they continue to sell records and pack arenas all over the country. You know they want to hear it, so just play it!

The Afghan Whigs, "What Jail Is Like"
(Elektra) This band from Cincinnati - the first band not from Seattle to get signed to Sub Pop - have been making quite an impact with their major label debut for Elektra. Sales on Gentleman are over 100,000 copies, they just finished a headlining tour - word has it they stole the show at the HFSestival in Washington - and had plenty of MTV airplay for the track "Gentleman" (which spent a few weeks on the COR chart). Band heart-throb Greg Dooley has been busy playing the "Lennon parts" on the Backbeat Soundtrack in addition to his work with The Whigs. The newest track, "What Jail Is Like", is driven by a powerful, haunting melody that showcases their dark, hypnotic sound. A Top 15 performer at Alternative, but with enough of an edge to work well at COR, The Afghan Whigs are a band to watch out for.

The Crow Soundtrack/Helmet, "Milktoast" (Interscope/Atlantic Group) Two years ago, Helmet came out and churned out one of the biggest breakthrough records of the year with Meantime, and with constant touring and rabid support from the metal and alternative communities, was able to make good headway at COR radio. This latest offering, "Milktoast", a track from the hugely successful soundtrack to The Crow, is also an introduction to their anticipated LP release Betty (due out in early June). This anticipation shows in the early airplay from K100, WHMH, WKLL, KZRX, and WNCD to take big first strides in the COR arena. Their sound has always been highlighted by their trademark pummeling guitar riffs so heavy that they are unexpected from a quartet with collegiate good looks. Those chunky guitars and some fat bass are back this time around with a bit of distortion added to Page Hamilton's distinctive, restrained but emphatic voice. Don't be afraid of the powerful sound of Helmet, with the exposure from The Crow, a huge release in the works, and a summer tour with Rollins coming soon, your listeners will be clamoring to hear them, and the retailers will be smiling!

Metal Pick

Biohazard, State of the World Address (Warner Bros.) Many bands out there claim that their music is a way of life for them. But very few can say that they brought their way of life into their music or can communicate so clearly the grim reality that is life today. Biohazard achieves this with a direct expression that will leave a chill running down your spine. While the band prepares to embark on a marathon touring session - including the Pantera/Sepultura tour - metal radio has been preparing with great anticipation for their arrival. There has been no disappointment. On the strength of their first single, "Tales From the Hard Side", an introduction to the overall tone on State of the World Address, took metal radio by storm, shooting up into the Top 5 of the Hard Hitters chart in just three weeks and coming in as one of the top requested artists this week. They clocked in fifteen increases in rotation this week with heavy rotation at 26 stations including KDZR, KIOZ, KISS, KSHE, WIYY, WMMR, WSOU, WXTB, and KISW. Not a bad start for a record that has been on the streets one week! Along with a four week band profile on MTV's Headbanger's Ball, the new video - which features a cameo from Bobby Hamel's mom - is set to take over not only Headbangers, but also receive airplay on Alternative Nation. Thanks to the clean edit version of the new CD, we can now prepare to explore the neighborhood of Biohazard with the proverbial bullet proof vest on, and maybe begin to understand the hardships that millions of people try to live with every day. The entire album is strong, but if you are looking for selections, give a spin to the title track with its ominous intro and pummeling impact, or the fast paced loyalty anthem "Down For Life". "Each Day" with its grabbing hook, "5 Blocks to the Subway" - an ode to the day in and day out grind of working life - and "How It Is", which features a guest appearance by Sen Dog of Cypress Hill, are all good choices as well. As this album, their work with Onyx, and their vocal delivery all illustrate, Biohazard are one the best in the business at melding their hardcore style with powerful delivery of rap music, but without the needless violence, as the band feels that "aggravation breeds inspiration" for them, rather than channelling that anger into violence. State of the World Address is a full hour of unpolished reality: whether you find inspiration or frustration from that is your choice, but don't be left in the dust, get this album in rotation now!

Stone Temple Pilots, "Vaseline"
(Atlantic) After a monstrously huge debut record, most bands would want to stay close to their patented formula on their next release. Not with Stone Temple Pilots, while the underlying delivery is distinctive to them, the style of the new material is refreshingly original. Your first taste of new STP was from The Crow Soundtrack, and "The Big Empty" (which is also on the upcoming release) has powered that soundtrack up all the charts, including Billboard. Now we have a second morsel off the upcoming album, Purple, which has shipped well over a million copies before the release. Because of the strong support of STP from the hard rock segment, the metal stations will be receiving the full release on limited edition purple vinyl before the CD is shipped out to everyone else (look for that next week). But for now we can be entertained with "Vaseline", bound to keep our CD players nice and slippery! Weiland's smooth melodic vocals slide over the base of the driving riffs and drums to create a musical image of the fly stuck in vasoline that they refer to in the lyrics. With the success of "Sex Type Thing" and "Crackerman" at metal radio from the last release, this upbeat track will feel right at home with your listeners.

Drown, Hold On To The Hollow, (Elektra) If a poppy cheerful tune that puts a smile on your face is what you are looking for, this is not your record. But if you want gut-wrenching, angst-ridden musical devastation (and we think that you do) then this is just what the doctor ordered! The first single, "What It Is To Burn", got the ball rolling with #1 most added status a couple of weeks back; with heavy airplay at KISS, WVVV, KDZR, KIOZ, WHMH, and WKLQ to go along with increases at KISS and WHMH, it seems that the initial response is thumbs up. The full length release, Hold On To The Hollow, is in your hands — eight stations couldn't wait and added it early making now the time for the rest of you to try it out. With production duties being handled by Dave Ogilvie of Skinny Puppy, the electronic/industrial element is honed to perfection without losing the emotion and melody of the songs. Along with "What It Is To Burn", other songs that will foster the catharsis are "I Owe You" with its angry rantings and NIN-ish flair, the pulverizing guitars of "Beautiful", and the wicked rhythm of "Transparent". Having already catapulted into the Top 30 of the Hard Hitters chart, Drown is ready to skyrocket up the chart just as quickly as their music explodes into the future.

Beastie Boys, Ill Communication, (Capitol) Arriving just in time to grace every Memorial Day party are the timeless wonders: The Beastie Boys. Their newest release, Ill Communication, is jam packed with 20 new songs that, as always, test the boundaries of hip-hop, alternative, and metal with their innovative but always relevant sound. The EP, Pretzel Nugget, has been in your hands for a few weeks now — debuting at #34 on the Hard Hitters chart with fourteen new adds and airplay at KDUR, WCDB, WSOU, WHMH, WLFK, WVBR, and KOAL — while receiving rave reviews for the track "Sabotage". Also jammin' on the Beasties are MTV, who have the video in Buzz Bin rotation already. This release blends influences from all over the place - including rap, industrial, reggae, strings, disco, and even that dog in the commercials that can say "I Love You!" - with relative ease. This is the most innovative release to date for this New York band whose past release, 1992's Check Your Head, featured the track "What You Want" which popularized the distorted vocals that you can find continued on Ill Communication. Other than the prescribed tunes on Pretzel Nugget, you should check out "Alright Hear This", "Do It" and "B-Boys Makin With The Freak Freak". Of course, how can you go wrong? It's the Beastie Boys, just put it on and everyone will start groovin'!

This Dallas four piece (Jason Michael - vocals; Mitch Wintner - drums; Mick Tinsley - guitars; Carl Ray Hopper - bass) was formed in 1989 from four cover band musicians who were frustrated with the restrictions of playing other people's music and decided to make a go of it on their own. Their efforts are to our benefit, because their unique sound made up of piercing vocals, funky bass, and bluesy guitars make a mix that is melodious enough to pull in the listener, and rockin' enough to keep them there. They have also earned their keep on the road, having toured in 33 states and Canada, and played with Blue Oyster Cult, Vain, and Spread Eagle. Their passionate quality has produced a solid fan base in their native Southern area, and with two adds already at WFSE and WTSR as an indication, their audience is increasing!

Pinheads, Baked Not Fried (Alert Music) This band from Buffalo, NY specialize in straight ahead no frills rock n' roll, high on melodious, catchy tunes with a big chorus and minimal complexity in the arrangements. They went to the same school as bands like AC/DC and early Van Halen, and focus on the fundamentals with a high energy live show. That show has shared the stage with bands as diverse as Candlebox, Great White, the Mighty Mighty Bosstones, Raging Slab, Primus and I Mother Earth. They have even earned the appreciation of Howard Stern, with some of their music being used on the air. This four song EP features songs of different tempos and atmospheres - the upbeat "Sin City" is particularly entertaining - to sample for your show. So, don't be a bonehead and check out some of The Pinheads right away.

Single Matters

The Crow Soundtrack/Helmet, "Milktoast" (Interscope/Atlantic Group) This is a band that two years ago, came out and took the metal scene by storm, following a bidding war that took them to Interscope Records they churned out one of the biggest breakthrough records of the year with Meantime. Since that time we have had to be happy with their soundtrack offerings, including their pairing with House of Pain on the song "Just Another Victim" featured on the Judgement Night Soundtrack. This time we have "Milktoast", a track from the hugely successful soundtrack to The Crow, which is also an introduction to their anticipated LP release Betty (due out in early June). Their trademark has always been guitar riffs that slug you right in the gut, but at the same time fill pits with happy moshers. Those chunky guitars and fat bass are back this time around with a bit of distortion added to Page Hamilton's distinctive, restrained but emphatic voice. This single features two different mixes of the song to choose from - either will do the trick - and with 14 adds last week (with many more to come) the obvious choice is to play more Helmet.

The Crow Soundtrack/For Love Not Lisa, "Slip Slide Melting" (EastWest/Interscope/Atlantic Group) This is a track that metal radio is familiar with from the LP Merge, which had a successful run on the Hard Hitters chart last year. This year the song is part of The Crow soundtrack (you know, from the movie with Brandon Lee that grossed $11.7 million the first weekend) and is being heard by a lot more people - approximately a million and a half judging by the record sales. With that kind of exposure, spinning this song again may yield an even bigger return than it did before! "Slip Slide Melting" showcases their raw energy - normally the aspect you need a live show to discover - which is captured well on this song by producer Matt Hyde (Porno For Pyros). Also included here is the song "Daring To Pick Up", not as frenzied but still packed with plenty of emotion, from the album Merge. Whichever song you pick it is an easy choice, so spend some time with Lisa, as in For Love Not Lisa, again this year.

Metal Filings

Hey, what's news? Like you really need reminding that the Biohazard (Warner Brothers) LP, State Of The World Address, goes for adds today! Hey, who knows, maybe after a wild, three day holiday weekend you might need to have your memory jogged... After spinning the tasty snack "What It Is To Burn" we're sure you can't resist the 10 track, Dave Dgllvie produced Drown (Elektra) platter Hold On To The Hollow. Go ahead and add it May 30th/31st... For your information, metal radio will be receiving the self-titled Pride & Glory (Geffen) LP any day now. Go ahead and give it a whirl... Only one more week (June 6th/7th to be more precise!) until you get to add "Odyssey" to your playlist. The mind-melding single can be found in Part III of the upcoming Kyuss (Elektra) release, Sky Valley... Keep the Epic Records Metal Department busy (and happy) June 6th and 7th by adding any and or all of the following LPs — Alice Cooper's The Last Temptation Of Alice, Motherland's Peace 4 Me and Suicidal Tendencies' Suicidal For Life. Makes for a good playlist, don't ya think... After the debut of the "My Friend Lonely" single from Cyclone Temple (Monsterdisc), you will be psyched to know that the full record of the same name (which includes the five tracks from the out of print Building Errors EP) will be in-stores June 7th... Fear Of God (Pavement) mark their June 20th return to the metal populace with the ten track Toxic Voodoo LP... "My Soul Is Wet", the next single from Mutha's Day Out (Chrysalis/ERG), goes for adds on June 20th/21st. Be aware that when the mailman brings the parcel a "Soul" CD-pro, a video for the title track, a clip for "Locked" and a video interview will all be enclosed. It really doesn't get much better than that... It is truly cool that original gangsta Ice-T will be making a guest vocal appearance on the upcoming Pro-Pain (Energy) album, The Truth Hurts. Pro-Pain met up with Ice in L.A. last week and are currently back in NYC mastering the album. The LP is slated for a July 12th unveiling... Hearsay is that the V LP from St. Vitas has been penciled in for a July 12th release through those in the Roadrunner Records facility... Something else scheduled to drop in on July 12th is Sore from Buzzov-en (Roadrunner)... August 2nd brings on the LP Through The Darkest Hour, the first Pavement Music release from Solitude Aeternus... Headlock (Pavement) furnish the metal radio waves with the full length LP It Found Me on August 2nd. Hey everybody — take note of the changes in the current I Mother Earth (Capitol) and Stick (Arista) tour itinerary. Previous shows had been booked from June 1st thru the 6th in the mid-western part of the country, well, now the bands travel in a westerly direction from June 7th (in Lincoln, Nebraska) until the 25th (stopping in San Jose, California). Check the tour guide for further info and exact dates... The final dates of the Mutha's Day Out (Chrysalis/ERG) and Greta (Mercury) double billing are May 31st in Los Angeles, California; June 3rd in Eugene, Oregon; the 4th in Portland, Oregon; the 5th in Seattle, Washington; the 8th in San Francisco, California; the 9th in Sacramento, California and the 10th in Lake Tahoe, California. Catch 'em if you can... D-Generation (ERG) are playing select East coast gigs beginning with a coupla parties in NYC on June 3rd and 4th. The other shows include a June 11th showing in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania; June 12th in Providence, Rhode Island; June 16th in Newark, New Jersey; June 17th in New Brunswick, New Jersey; June 18th in Island Park, Long Island; and finally, June 25th back in New York, New York... Eclectic as it is Stabbing Westward (Columbia) will be joining Primal Scream (Sire) and Depeche Mode (Sire/Reprise) on tour. By getting there early you can snag the Stabbing Westward set on shows from June 5th (in Biloxi, Mississippi) until July 8th (in Noblesville, Indiana)... Looks like Joan Jett (Blackheart Records) and Po' Boy Swing (Royalty Records) are scheduled to perform at the seventh annual Fleet Week crew party on June 5th in New York

City. Jett will take the stage on the flight deck of the U.S.S. Intrepid to play for approximately 5,000 marines and sailors. The event is part of a week-long naval celebration commemorating the 50th anniversary of D-Day with ships from the United States, Italy, France, Australia and Russia all partaking in the festivities... Stompbox (Columbia) take their tunes to the road with shows planned from a June 18th blast off in Burlington, Vermont until July 4th with a stop in Washington, DC... The Skatenigs (Red Light) kick off a European jaunt — with headliners Tool (Zoo) — at the June 24th Glastonbury Festival. The duo will play 24 shows during their five week romp thru' Europe. Then, in August the 'Nigs will return to the states to entertain fans on a cross country tour... Have ya heard? Alice In Chains (Columbia) are going to be joining the mighty Metallica (Elektra) and Suicidal Tendencies (Epic) on the second leg of their current summer tour — which, as you know, has Danzig (American) filling the middle spot on the bill. Look for the Alice, Suicidal and Metallica triple bill beginning with the July 17th show in Vancouver. P.S. The trek ends on August 21st in Miami, Florida. The trio of Jack, Alain and Natasha, collectively known as Eleven, (Hollywood/Third Rail) recruited Randee St. Nicholas to direct their "Reach Out" video... And speaking of videos, hope everyone caught the MTV Headbanger's Ball debut of Pitch Shifter's (Earache) "Triad" clip on Saturday night (that would have been May 28th, don'tcha know). Flipping to the radio side of things, Cliff Nash has left the quiet life as PM Driver of Albany, NY AOR PYX to lead a more raucous life and take over operations at Z-ROCKER WZRQ. Nash, whose first action as OM will be to take on the mornings local in the coming weeks, says, "David (Arcara, Pres./GM) and Carolyn (Holochuck, PD) have done a great job keeping the station solidly in the top 10 - no small feat in a market with 32 signals. Now it's onward and upward. No more misconceptions about a 'Satellite heavy metal station'. As of now we are a 'current intensive rock n' roll animal! AM drive is only the beginning! More local dayparts to come! Music calls welcome! No restrictions apply! See store for details!" Sounds good to us!... Congratulations to WMWM's Derek Kouyoumjian on making the Dean's List this past semester up in Salem, Mass. Way to go, dude!... Industry ink includes the recent announcement that D-Generation (ERG) has joined Jim Pitulski ranks in the Roundtable Entertainment management camp. Look for the band's debut disc to arrive in mid-September... As of June 1, 1994 Earache Records, USA will have some shuffling of personnel — Dan

Mitchell, National Retail Director/Production Manager, will be leaving to pursue other interests; Matt Young, formerly National Promotions Manager, will sit in the Production Manager's chair; and Wayne Pighini will fill in as the new Retail Promotion Manager. Plus, Meg Macrae, who is the current Artist Relations/Tour Promotions Director, will take the reigns as National Radio/Video Promotions Manager. Got all that?... Henry Rollins and American Recordings owner Rick Rubin have come together to form Infinite Zero, "a special boutique label that will make available a series of classic recordings for the first time ever on CD." A roster of 9 artists/albums is set for shipment on August 16th — Dreamtime from Tom Verlaine, New Raceion from Alan Vega, the Def Jam/The Maroon Singles collection, Duty Now For The Future from Devo, Buy The Contortions from James Chance And The Contortions, Entertainment from Gang Of Four, Circular Temple from Matthew Shipp, Troublefunk Live from Troublefunk, and Reflections from Iceberg Slim. The goal of the Infinite Zero label is "simply to make widely available the founders' favorite obscure releases." The final fact of the week — The Crow Soundtrack (brought to you buy the fine folks in the Atlantic Records offices) is holding down the #1 position on the Billboard chart as well as having sold 1.4 million copies (500,000 of those in one week!). And, The Crow motion picture emerged as the nation's #1 grossing film it's first weekend out - raking in over $11.7 million. Wow! Until next time... Peace.

Once again Atlantic's Jon Nardachone proves that he is the definition of cool - it's not too tough really when you are hanging with the likes of King's X frontman/bassist Doug Pinnick and WSOU PD Kathy Pellcoro.

Cool once again featuring Jon Nardachone at the WSOU studios, this time with Sean McDonnell of Surgery and Mike DiPippa (new MD at WSOU). Peace, mon.

Help - Ron Quintana has been taken hostage while Roadrunner's Mark "Psycho" Abramson and Warner Brothers' Linnea Nan take over the KUSF studios.

In a Dallas Z-ROCK gathering Lon Friend, Prong's Tommy Victor and Alice Cooper give Spiderman a hand when the foursome took part in a metal line-up.

In another Z-ROCK related shot, Prong's Ted Parsons and Tommy Victor spend quality time with KUTZ's Kelly Kaos and Epic's Cheryl Valentine.

WHY NOT PLAY BOTH?

STONE TEMPLE PILOTS

* On Letterman June 17
 * Tour starts June 28

Beastie Boys, "III Communication," Grand Royal/Capitol

What could you possibly do to improve on an album like Check Your Head? A textbook model of the combination of excellent production, deep vibes and a heavy jams feel as only the Beasties can deliver, the record is rightly considered a modern classic by many. On their latest effort, it's obvious that the Boys have matured with a taut, extremely cohesive effort that takes elements introduced on the last record a few steps further. And the various instrumentals on the record illustrate the band's increased musical proficiency. This is a band that's made every move on their own terms, setting trends and moving forward, all the while never looking over their shoulder. And let's just say that the stage is set for absolute domination on their part — while their Lollapalooza gig is an obvious bonus, the main reason is simply the overall quality of this record. Pinfield agrees: "This a great record. It expands on Check Your Head with some good jazz flavors. Choice cuts include "Root Down", "Sure Shot" and of course the great single "Sabotage."

listen to WQMF's Randy Starr: "This record is a perfect summertime fun song — it's one of those records that when you drive down the road you crank it up. When I got the cassette and put it in, and the minute I heard it I knew it was a hit. It's probably my favorite tune that were playing right now."

Mexico 70, "Wonderful Life," Big Pop

With the first-ever release on Philly-based label Big Pop, Mexico 70 is set to take center stage in the States with a song rife with a positive summertime feel. Fronted by singer/songwriter/guitarist Mick Bund, the band has developed a solid following in their native England with their brand of buoyant, vibrant pop. Look for some major airplay action from this one as people across the country get in tune with the band. Just

Stone Temple Pilots "Vaseline," Atlantic

With The Crow Soundtrack being the #1 record in the country primarily on the strength of "Big Empty," it's obvious that the band is not ready to let up their stronghold on the nation's psyche. With material sounding fresh and (surprise!) upbeat, their follow-up to Core, entitled Purple (in stores June 7th), is proof positive that the band has left all that "Pearl Jam" baggage behind. The band is all set to start their huge outdoor tour (with the Meat Puppets) on June 28, a tour that continues through September. The video for the track debuts Tuesday on MTV, and the band is doing Letterman on June 17.

House Of Large Sizes, "North Cedar," Red Decibel/Columbia

Every so often you catch a band live that blows you away to such a level that their performance becomes a benchmark. That's what happened when we caught this band a couple of weeks back; their intense power and overall presence totally blew us away. Yeah, yeah, we'd heard all about their rabid following in the Midwest, but we witnessed the goods firsthand. And though we've raved about this record for a couple of months now, the live show hammered it home for us. Simply, this is a band that deserves support from the format, as they've got the potential for some massive reaction. High charged and earthy, HOLS delivers a sharp, direct smack to your aural impulses.

IMPORTED
GOODS

Frances Rufelle, "Lonely Symphony", (Virgin, U.K.) One of the best female vocalists to come out of England since Kate Bush. Frances Rufelle offers an enchanting melody with a captivating and unique vocal presence on this track that will sure to become a smash and multi-format hit on Alternative, A/C and Top 40. Incidentally, Frances Rufelle was the U.K. entry this year in the Eurovision song contest (which is the continental contest comprising of each European country's hottest new act or performer). An import for smart programmers looking for a hit record for all dayparts and an entire audience.

Maxx, "Getaway", (Intercord, Germany) This German duo originally hit the European charts with this track last year but decided to release some ultra-hot remixes of this pumpin' regga-house track for those that missed out. Very hip ragga vocals are joined by smooth female lyrics that give this single a unique flavor. Great for mix shows, reggae shows and the cutting-edge programmer.

Moose, "I Wanted To See You To See If I Wanted You", (RRE, Austria) Yes, Moose is back after their long awaited hit back in 1991 with "Jack". A great alternative track that is catchy, easy to sing along with and fun to listen to. Great for all dayparts... sounds good anytime and anyplace. Certainly bound for a European-wide release and probably will do well as an import here in the U.S.A. Put away your rifle because this Moose is no hunting item, it's a hit!

O.T. Quartet, "Hold That Sucker Down", (Cheeky, U.K.) It's not too often that you get a great sounding record like this one. Yes, it may be another club or mix show record or a radio record for the adventurous type... but it is defiantly a smash and is getting great response across the Atlantic. Remember the Hithouse record "Jack The Sound Of Underground?" Well this track from the O.T. Quartet is quite a bit better. A great bassline with a smart keyboard arrangement and strong female vocals make this a sure chart entry in the near future.

Tony DiBart, "The Real Thing", (Cleveland City Blues, U.K.) Currently the #1 record in England. This a very catchy pop record that will no doubt work well for mix shows, dance leaning alternative stations, CHR radio and the club circuit. The vocal presence is strong and the melody is very captivating at about 120 bpm. Sure to reach the domestic U.S. shores in a couple of months or so.

Jah Wobble's Invaders Of The Heart, "Becoming More Like God", (Island, U.K.) INCREDIBLE is maybe to formal of a term to describe this track from Wobble. With the intelligent use of alternative hooks, blended in with a funky beat and a middle-eastern presence this record comes out a winner on all ends of the spectrum. A very well produced video is available for this track (with a global view of many gods) and is already getting airplay on MTV Europe.

Echobelly, "Insomniac", (Rhythm King, U.K.) Lead vocalist Sonya and the band are one of Morrissey's favorite new alternative acts...and it doesn't take a rocket scientist to figure out why! The edgy guitars and drum beat are encompassed by the charming vocal presence of Sonya. Echobelly are already a hit with alternative fans across the Atlantic and should no doubt receive the same response when they hit U.S. (quite possibly opening up for Morrissey on his next U.S. tour).

The big news this week involves Jared Broadcasting's move into the Albany market. As of press time, WDRE was all set to start simulcasting on WWCP (96.7), possibly presenting some major problems for WEQX. Will the market maintain its support of the local, heavily creative WEQX for a station headquartered over 100 miles south? It will be interesting to see. In other DRE news, look for Loscalzo to move to afternoons this week, with Donna Donna taking over the morning show and Malibu Sue heading to mid-days... The industry at large has shown (and should vigorously continue to show) support for WIIZ, which was sold to the Schurze Corporation, which owns WASK-AM & FM (talk and country, respectively). A conservative corporation based in South Bend, word is that they'll be oh-so-brilliant and flip formats. In order to ensure that the format stays alive in Lafayette, Buzz is actively trying to get 5,000 listeners' signatures, and $5,000 worth of support from the record community. This would perhaps show the owners that the format is entirely viable in their situation. Buzz is looking for correspondence from the record community — any letters should be addressed to: WASK Inc., P.O. Box 7880 Lafayette, IN 47903. It's time to come to their support, folks... In case you didn't know, WRLG has been steadily adding hours to its programming, and they're now on all day except for the 6-9 AM morning show. Bob Reeves is on middays, Sling is doing afternoon drive, and Heather continues from 7-mid. The station gave away a tattoo live on the air as a tie-in to the Rollins show that came to town a few weeks back... Remember a long, long time ago when we first started mentioning how wonderful the Seed record was? Well, it's about to hit in a couple of weeks and there's already some heavy early add action, coming from KNNC, WRLG, and WEQX this week. This band will be huge — it behooves you to get with it early... Look for Capitol to turn the push up even higher for Mazzy Star over the next few weeks. And just wait — after the record blows up in a matter of months, everyone will once again (rightly) laud Capitol's persistence. But how many people on the radio side will remember how tough a fight it was to get the song on the air? Ahh yes, it will be those who haven't given the record a shot (stations that have played this record have realized mega-success with it). When will you step up to this record, if you haven't already?... The Backbeat band will be performing on MTV's Movie Awards Show... Did anyone get that blank CD from Cema Distribution? Any clue who the three tracks were by? You might be surprised to find out just who that band is. Let's hear some input... Considering that Cracker's Kerosene Hat has reached the 700K+ mark, the video for "Get Off This" has just been added at MTV, and the track is all set to hit CHR in a big way, anyone not keeping the song in recurrent rotation, in addition to playing "Movie Star" is, simply put, a "buffoon," according to newly "Senior-ized" Dawn Hood... More stations will soon get hip to the Dambuilders, and their brand of totally original, highly dynamic pop... Boingo and Frente! have been added to Live 105's BFD... You want tour dates?: Adrian Belew: 5/31 Bloomington, IN; 6/1 Louisville, KY; 6/3 Atlanta; 6/4 Asheville, NC; 6/7 Washington D.C.; 6/8 New York; 6/10 Philadelphia; 6/11 Morgan, NJ; 6/12 New Haven; 6/13 Burlington, VT. Elvis Costello/Crash Test Dummies: 5/31 Cincinnati; 6/2 Cuyahoga Falls, OH; 6/3 Maple, ONT; 6/5 Saratoga Springs, NY; 6/8 New York; 6/9 Philadelphia; 6/11 Wantagh, NY; 6/12 Mansfield, MA. Buffalo Tom/Madder Rose: 6/3 Vancouver; 6/4-5 Seattle; 6/6 Portland; 6/8 Berkeley; 6/9 San Francisco; 6/10 Santa Cruz; 6/12 Los Angeles. Collective Soul: 6/2 Panama City, FL; 6/6 New Orleans; 6/8 Baton Rouge; 6/9 Austin; 6/10 Houston; 6/11 Dallas. Frente!: 6/6 Vancouver; 6/7 Seattle; 6/8 Portland; 6/11 Los Angeles; 6/12 San Diego. Surgery: 5/31 San Diego; 6/1-2 Los Angeles; 6/3 Santa Barbara; 6/4 Highland Park, CA; 6/5 San Francisco; 6/8 Portland; 6/9 Seattle; 6/10 Bellingham, WA; 6/12 Salt Lake City; 6/14 Boulder, CO.

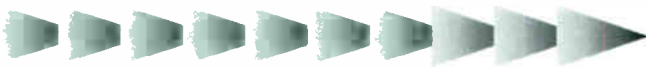

After incessant bellows of "Become A quartet!" from Joel Klaiman, the guys from Buffalo Tom held open auditions and the first one to show up was Conan O'Brien. Sadly, he couldn't catch the harmonies on "Staples."

B.B. King was finally allowed to play an invitation-only concert at the opening of a Hard Rock Cafe in Beijing, China, after the authorities there delayed the granting of a visa until the last moment. King's was a rare performance by a Western musician in the Chinese capital. "Thank God I'm here. We'll all get down and start boogying together," he told bemused reporters. The Chinese had turned down a request for a visa earlier in the month from John Denver and it looked highly unlikely they were going to let King in at all. Chinese authorities are worried about any kind of public gatherings in the period leading up to the fifth anniversary of the Tiananmen Square massacre on June 4. There were no problems at King's show.

There's a computer bulletin board (914-679-3040) for information on the two 25th anniversary Woodstock concerts. Woodstock Online provides information about the latest rumored performers as well as other details about the events. The Rolling Stones, Eric Clapton and the Grateful Dead have declined invitations to perform at the anniversary concert August 13-14 on the site of the original festival. The bulletin board has received inquiries from as far away as Germany and Australia about the festival.

Guns N' Roses drummer Matthew Sorum has pleaded innocent to a misdemeanor count of spousal abuse for allegedly beating his wife, Kai, earlier this month. Authorities say Kai Sorum was scratched and bruised when sheriff's deputies arrived at the couple's home. A June 24 pre-trial hearing has been set for Sorum.

The Black Crowes have recorded two dozen songs for their next album, due out for release in late August (on American Recordings). The band's manager says the group may release a double album, or release an "extra" album while the band is on tour.

Author Roddy Doyle warns he has nothing to do with the upcoming sequel to the Commitments movie. "Not only can I spend most of my waking life rubbishing the whole film before it's even started, but they have to pay me substantial sums of money," Doyle says.

Mark Chadwick of the Levellers has been trying to drum up opposition to a new Criminal Justice Bill in England that would give police more authority to evict people without warning, arrest people for "aggravated trespass," confiscate property, or detain people suspected of illegal activity. The measure would also make a gathering of over a hundred people illegal, even with the property owner's consent, and it would ban open-air music "wholly or predominantly characterized by the emission of a succession of repetitive beats." Members of the Levellers have been squatters and travellers in the past, and Chadwick says the new measure has been introduced by a government that is "completely out of touch with the people it claims to represent. They're in trouble and looking for scapegoats. They know they can get away with it because there's no effective opposition. The other parties can't be seen to oppose law and order." The Levellers last year tried to organize a free music festival, but ran into trouble with local governments. The latest EP from the band features spoken-word extracts of the bill, as well as covers of the Clash's "English Civil War" and Steeleye Span's "Lowlands Of Holland."

Savatage are recording their seventh album in Tampa, the first since the death last year of guitarist Criss Oliva. Alex Skolnick, formerly of Testament, has replaced Oliva in the band. "Alex was our first and only choice to replace Criss," says Jon Oliva. "If Alex had turned us down, we probably would have called it a day."

Double Trouble's Chris Layton and Tommy Shannon have now officially joined Storyville. They performed on and wrote material for Storyville's current "Bluest Eyes" album, but have now joined vocalist Malford Milligan full-time. "Few people have moved me quite the way Malford does," Layton says. "Since we started recording the album, I've known Storyville is where I want to be." Storyville, with Layton and Shannon, will be touring the U.S. this summer.

Robbie Robertson, Paul Joseph Moore of Blue Nile and Phil Collins appear on Martin Page's upcoming album, "In The House Of Stone And Light" (on Mercury Records). Page is a Los Angeles singer-songwriter who's collaborated with Robertson and Bernie Taupin in the past.

Bad Religion are recording an eighth album in Los Angeles with producer Andy Wallace. There's no title yet for the album due out in the fall, but song titles include "Infected," "Tiny Voices" and "Hooray For Me & Fuck You." Bad Religion plan a world tour after release of the LP.

The collection of Elvis Presley memorabilia to be auctioned off in Los Angeles in June was taken to London for four days of viewing at Bonhams Auctioneers. Jimmy Velvet is selling over a thousand items for which he has no more room to store. "I've been buying all this through the years and everyone always told me I was crazy," Velvet says. "Over two-thirds of the auction has items which cost less than $1,000, and there are even some for $50, so there is no reason why a fan couldn't afford something."

A Toronto firm has purchased Handmade Films, the film production company co-founded by George Harrison, for $8.5 million. Handmade will continue to work as a British-based independent.

A guitar that's been owned by David Bowie, Paul McCartney and George Michael sold for $300,000 at a London charity auction. An unidentified blonde woman said she was purchasing the guitar, built in 1987 "in the Everly Brothers style," on behalf of someone else. It was originally owned by British folk singer Ralph McTell. The auction at Christie's in London also featured a black, studded leather waistcoat worn by Marc Bolan during a 1974 tour.

Steve Howe, former Cars member Elliot Easton, and former Rascals guitarist Gene Cornish participated in an all-star guitar jam at the Classic American Guitar Show at Five Towns College in Huntington, New York. It was also a 50th birthday celebration for Cornish, organized by the publishers of 20th Century Guitar magazine. Cornish now works with a band called the New Rascals. He's working on an autobiography about the old Rascals.

Rod Stewart and his wife, model Rachel Hunter, have filed a $5 million lawsuit against a celebrity photo distribution company seeking to block distribution of photos the couple claims were stolen from their Beverly Hills home. The lawsuit against Splash News & Pictures of Santa Monica claims invasion of privacy. "Within the privacy of their home, and for their exclusive personal use and enjoyment, the Stewarts posed for and took the photographs," the lawsuit says. It says the pictures show Stewart "playfully relaxing with Ms. Hunter-Stewart and depict the Stewarts in their private residence in various stages of undress." The owners of the agency won't say whether they have the photos in question.

Sting's wife, Trudie Styler, is hoping to produce her first feature film, a black comedy based on "The Grottesque" by Patrick McGrath.

Guitarist Steve Stevens is working again with Billy Idol, as the Vince Neil Band takes time off because the former Motley Crue frontman is not going into the studio soon.

Trial has been scheduled for July for the $30 million lawsuit Geffen Records filed against Don Henley, claiming breach of contract and failing to deliver three promised albums. Henley claims his contract with the label has expired and that label founder David Geffen is "sick and tired" of the record business and isn't involved in the label's day-to-day operations, breaching a "key man" clause in Henley's contract. Geffen claims Henley still owes them two studio albums and a greatest hits album. The lawsuit against Henley is one of several that has meant that the reunited Eagles are without a record label to release an album of new material. Henley's attorney says this demonstrates a conspiracy between major record companies. "If there was no conspiracy, they'd all be jumping over themselves to get it," the attorney says. He adds the Eagles might give a new album to Geffen Records to settle the Henley lawsuit.

The The have a new nine-song album out called "Solitude" which tracks from British EPs never released in the U.S. There are remixes of "Dogs Of Lust" and "Helpline Operator" from the "Dusk" album and "Violence Of Truth" from "Mind Bomb."

Tori Amos is to receive the 1994 Visionary Award from the District of Columbia Rape Crisis Center on June 2. Amos has heard from many victims of sexual assaults in response to the song "Me And A Gun" on her 1992 debut solo album "Little Earthquakes."

The Stone Temple Pilots begin a headlining tour with the Meat Puppets this summer on June 28. The band is said to be trying to keep ticket prices low for the shows in large theaters and sheds.

Buffalo, New York, band Skate The Razor will have an album out in July (on Backstreet Records), recorded in New York.

Bone Club have released a new album on an independent label (Rocket Sound) based in St. Paul, Minnesota.

Former Ozzy Osbourne and Badlands guitarist Jake E. Lee is calling his new band Wicked Alliance. The group includes frontman Mandy Lion and former Dirty Looks bass player Brian Perry.

Merl Saunders has a new album out called "It's In The Air" (on Summertone Records) that he describes as a dance record that "has a lot more bite than new age." Proceeds from sales of the album are going to the Rainforest Action Network in San Francisco. Saunders, who says he's an environmentalist, traveled to a South American rainforest where he says he got inspiration for the new LP. "I was shocked, totally shocked," he says. "I heard the different sounds of darkness, saw pink dolphins." Saunders says he'd like to work with Jerry Garcia again, as he did on the 1990 album "Blues From The Rainforest." Saunders and his Rainforest Band are working on a new album while Saunders is also writing the script and soundtrack for a children's movie.

Extreme have finished work on a new studio album for release late this summer. Guitarist Nuno Bettencourt is working on a solo album for release next year. Vocalist Gary Cherone is playing the title role in a stage production of "Jesus Christ Superstar" in Cambridge, Massachusetts.

Allgood are playing over 200 live concerts this year, which makes it appropriate that the band has released a live album called "Kickin' And Screamin'," recorded in Augusta, Georgia. "We wanted to do a live record because everyone was telling us our studio stuff was cool, but it wasn't like our live show," says lead singer Corky Jones. "So we decided to take the studio right into the club and make a record for those folks who wanted to sort of take the live show home with them." Jones says the CD captures the band's show at its best. "We happened to get a performance that only happens, like, every six months for us," he says. "It was just one of those things where we felt like everything we could get lucky with, we did. There's so many things on a live record that can go wrong because there's no overdubbing."

Former Helmet guitarist Peter Mengede has formed a new band called Handsome, which includes former Cro-Mags drummer Pete Heines and bass player Mark Nappi.

Spoken word artist Lydia Lunch says she's started avoiding the "force-fed pleasure" of the mass media and she urges others to do the same. "The whole work-related concept is there to rob people of their time and energy so that there is no energy left to really have any pleasure," Lunch says. "Don't buy shit. Don't rent crappy videos. Don't buy crappy records. Don't buy a new fucking car. Stop being the consumers you were born and bred to be because you're just getting ripped off. It's very mathematical, it's very simple. You don't even need a fucking calculator. Realize how much of the fucking lie and the okey-doke that you're buying, realize how much time you're wasting and decide to take up a creative by-product. Your life is going to change." Lunch has always talked about child abuse as part of her spoken-word performance, a subject she notes has become more popular in recent years. "My aim is basically to relieve the frustrations of those less articulate than myself," Lunch says, "but that are intelligent enough to realize that we are all going to fucking hell in a handbasket pretty soon."

Eric Gaffney has left Sebadoh and has been replaced by Bob Fay of Crush Sr.

Duran Duran's covers album, "Thank You," is now slated for release (on Capitol Records) in September.

South Florida band Collapsing Lungs are releasing an EP this summer (on Atlantic Records) called "Colorblind" and will begin recording a full-length album this fall.

Paul Leary of the Butthole Surfers is producing a new album by Daniel Johnston (for Atlantic Records).

Buddy Guy is working on a new album in Austin, Texas, with producer Eddie Kramer.

Chris Duarte is working on an album in Seattle (for Silvertone Records). The tentative title for the LP is "Texas/Sugar/Strat/Magic."

Toad The Wet Sprocket titled their new album, "Dulcinea," for the prostitute in "Don Quixote." "A lot of the songs on the album deal with this kind of inertia, a feeling of knowing you're stuck and not knowing how to get out of it," says singer, guitarist and keyboardist Glen Phillips. "It's been a way I've been feeling. I'm in a type of rut, not challenging myself, not asking questions." One song on the album, "Nanci," is an ode to Nancy Griffith and Loretta Lynn. Toad The Wet Sprocket have kept the same line-up since the band formed in junior high school in 1986. "We play a little louder than we used to, but it's not overly aggressive," Phillips says.

Sam Phillips says things have changed for the better at her record label (Virgin Records) since the release of her 1991 album "Cruel Inventions." "A weird thing I've learned about the record business is, you never have to change labels because if you stay in one place long enough, they all come through the doors eventually," Phillips says. "Once again, Virgin has completely changed. There is a great bunch of people there who really cares about music. They're young, they have a lot of enthusiasm, and I'm very, very happy with how they're treating my record." Phillips says she's happy with the reception given her new album, "Martinis & Bikinis," which features Peter Buck of REM, Benmont Tench of the Heartbreakers and Collin Moulding of XTC. "I've been a fan of XTC, and I love his (Moulding's) bass playing," Phillips says. "I really wanted to work with him to see what he'd do with some of these songs." On a recent promotional tour, Phillips performed at the Cleveland Zoo. "It was really odd," she says. "I was in the primate house with the monkeys and the cats. I got to go backstage afterward and feed a 450-pound gorilla strawberries. That was quite a thrill."

Pearl Jam's planned summer tour has been delayed from July to at least September. The band's manager says Kurt Cobain's suicide was a factor in the delay, as it "knocked the wind out of the band."

Karl Bartos of Kraftwerk has an album coming out under the moniker Elektric Music. It's called "Esperanto" (on Atlantic Records). Bartos works with Lothar Manteuffel on the 8-song album, which includes a track called "Kissing The Machine" that features lead vocals from Andy McCluskey of OMD.

Peter Himmelman's turned the video for "With You," from his new album "Skin," into a documentary about a day in the life of a touring rock musician. "We just followed him along with the cameras rolling," says video director Nigel Dick, who's also done videos for Guns N' Roses, Paul McCartney and Alice In Chains. The clip includes footage shot on the first three dates of Himmelman's "Skin" tour — Madison, Wisconsin, Cleveland, and Morgan, New Jersey.

After hearing Michael Bolton bemoan the judgement against him which claimed he violated the Isley Brothers' copyright of "Love Is A Wonderful Thing," Entertainment Weekly magazine sent copies of Bolton's song and the Isleys' tune to eight music reviewers. They split, 4 to 4, as to whether Bolton had relied on the earlier song. "I'm extremely pleased that Michael Bolton wanted to know what I thought," says David Marsh of Playboy magazine, who agreed with the court finding. "It's my hope that he will someday ask how much a critic might imagine he owes in reparations for butchering classic — as opposed to obscure — R&B." Entertainment Weekly's music reviewer, David Browne, says he doesn't think Bolton copied the song. "Michael Bolton is guilty of many things — oversinging, lack of musical imagination, overall hackdom — but outright plagiarism doesn't seem to be one of them," Browne says.

A 66-year-old Houston piano teacher has been ordered not to touch a piano keyboard for 20 years, as part of his plea-bargained sentence for fondling nine- and 10-year-old girls. "I took away the most important thing to him," says State District Judge Ted Poe. "I don't know anything about pianos. I don't like pianos. But to him, that piano was the most important thing in his life." George Marris was accused of molesting the girls at his home while giving them piano lessons. Marris must also donate his $12,000 piano to a children's home and post a sign on his front door warning anyone under 18 to stay away.

Michael Franti, formerly of the Disposable Heroes Of Hiphoprisy and the Beatnigs, has formed a new band called Spearhead, which is working on a debut album (for Capitol Records) for release this fall. Franti is co-producing the album with Joe Nicolo, who's worked with Cypress Hill, Urge Overkill and Kris Kross.

South Bronx guitarist Michael Hill has a debut album just out (on Alligator Records) with his band Michael Hill's Blues Mob. One of the songs on the "Bloodlines" album, "Soldier's Blues," features Vernon Reid of Living Colour, who wrote the tune. Hill is a member of the Black Rock Coalition.

The LP includes "Crossroads," "Walkin' Blues," "Come On In My Kitchen" and "Travellin' Riverside Blues," among other songs also covered by more contemporary bands. Around the same time, there will also be new albums from Brownie McGhee, Blind Willie McTell, Bukka White, Tampa Red and a compilation album called "Cajun Dance Party: Fais Do-Do," as part of the same record label's Roots 'N Blues Series.

Greg Dulli of the Afghan Whigs is getting funding from the band's record label to finance a low-budget movie he's planning to write and direct.

Godspeed, who have a track on the upcoming Black Sabbath tribute album, have an album just out called "Ride" (on Atlantic Records). The New Jersey quintet is playing two months of dates with Sabbath in Europe. The "Ride" album was recorded live in the studio with producer Rachel Bolan, who is Skid Row's bass player.

Denver band Spell, formed by former Fluid drummer Garrett Shavlik, will release an album late this summer (on Island Records). It will mostly draw from a 13-song tape recorded in Denver with the addition of three new songs, including a cover of the Germes "Lexicon Devil." The band plans to go on the road in the fall. Spell also includes bass player Chanin Floyd and her husband, guitarist Tim Beckman.

Austin band the Tailgators releases a new album in the U.S. this month called "Swamp's Up" (on Upstart/Rounder Records).

The monthly Guitar Player magazine has reactivated its record label after a 17-year hiatus. The first album (on Guitar Player Records) is an album by New York guitarist Larry Mitchell, who's appeared on albums by Tracy Chapman, Ric Ocasek and Billy Squier.

Some California voters will go to the polls on June 7 to decide whether Sonny Bono, formerly of Sonny & Cher, should be the Republican nominee for a seat in the U.S. Congress. Bono, former mayor of Palm Springs, lost a U.S. Senate bid in 1992. This time he's running for the GOP bid for a seat being vacated by Congressman Al McCandless after 12 years. Bono's major opponent, Riverside County Supervisor Corky Larson, says Bono lacks political experience. "This isn't about being able to sing or dance," Larson says. "This is about Congress, the most important job that we elect people to locally."

Jellyfish have broken up after two albums, citing "creative differences." Both singer-percussionist Andy Stuymer and singer-keyboardist Roger Manning are working on separate projects. The Jellyfish song "He's My Best Friend" appears on the recent soundtrack to the film "Threesome."

The ChartHogs have included a cover of the Buffalo Springfield song "Mr. Soul" on their new album, "Do Your Mind" (on Third Stone/Atlantic Records). Much of the band's 12-song debut album was mixed by David Bianco, who's worked with U2, the Posies, Mick Jagger and Tin Machine.

Chrissie Hynde says she hasn't listen to the new Pretenders album, "Last Of The Independents," since she finished working on it. "After we get the running order together I never listen to it," she says. "I know what's on there." Hynde admits she may have "slowed down" with her music. "But I think I sing and play and rock better than I used to. I don't think that's diminished," Hynde says.

Sandra Bernhard releases her "Excuses For Bad Behavior, Part One" album in mid-August (on 550 Music).

German band Fury In The Slaughterhouse plan a summer tour of the U.S., following the success of "Every Generation Got Its Own Disease."

Sixteen unreleased Marvin Gaye songs are included on "Love Starved Heart," coming out in mid-June (on Motown Records). The album is available as part of a four-CD collection that includes digitally-remastered versions of Gaye albums from the 1970s.

Whitney Houston will put on a 25-minute show at the closing ceremony of the World Cup soccer final at the Rose Bowl in Pasadena in mid-July. The ceremony is expected to be broadcast worldwide.

The warden at a California prison has declined to allow Rick James to participate in a state drug treatment program in lieu of a five-year, four-month prison sentence. James has been receiving treatment on a temporary basis for the past five months. James' attorney, Mark Werksman, says prison officials apparently concluded "We don't like this guy."

A British woman who threatened the father of a boy who accused Michael Jackson of sexual molestation has been given a suspended one-year jail term. Denise Michelle Pfeiffer pleaded no contest to misdemeanor charges of vandalism and petty theft and was placed on three years probation. Pfeiffer had been charged with spray-painting graffiti on the sidewalk outside the father's dental office in Beverly Hills and making harassing telephone calls. Beverly Hills Municipal Court Judge Elden Fox ordered Pfeiffer to register with the county probation department anytime she returns to the United States. Pfeiffer had been free on $15,000 bond posted by the husband of British actress Lynn Redgrave. She's been traveling from city-to-city to see Jackson.

The Wonder Stuff's appearance at the Phoenix Festival, which takes place in July in the Midlands of England, will be their farewell concert. A short statement from the band describes the split as being "on very amicable terms". The statement also denies reports of a rift between the band and their UK label Polydor: "Furthermore, any reports suggesting frustration or bad feeling between the band and their record company Polydor couldn't be further from the truth. Both parties are looking forward to working together on a singles compilation due for release later this year." The Wonder Stuff are expected to release an EP of new material prior to Phoenix... Finsbury Park, which has been used as a site for one-day festivals over the past few years, could close to rock concerts. The London park has seen major shows from such artists as Neil Young, Madness, The Cult, and Pearl Jam, but residents are trying to stop the local government of Haringey Council hiring the park to promoters. Friends Of Finsbury Park say the council has gone back on an agreement to hold only limited numbers of shows at the park. Talking to a local paper The Wackney Gazette, FOP's Margot Sreberny commented: "Finsbury Park is a vital recreation area for local residents. To have it put out of bounds for four weekends, two of them in the school holidays, completely fails to recognize its importance in local people's lives." A spokesperson for the council said promoters had to adhere to guidelines over noise and litter and concluded: "Finsbury Park is there for everyone to enjoy."

Billy Bragg, Queen, Suede, The Shamen, Stereo MC's, The Orb, Peter Gabriel, Jesus Jones, The Mission and Therapy? are amongst artists who have contributed money to a new organization the Criminal Justice Campaign. As previously reported in The Hard Report, the Criminal Justice Bill, which is currently before the British Parliament, is perceived by many as a threat to civil liberties. It will, for instance, effectively stop outdoor raves and will clamp down on people with "alternative" lifestyles such as New Age Travellers and squatters. The organization is planning to place advertisements on 200 London buses. As well as support from musicians, the organization is also supported by many other figures in the music industry; advertising agencies have given money; and newspapers and magazines have been giving free space to the organization... Pet Shop Boys' new single 'Absolutely Fabulous' has run into problems. The single, which the duo recorded with British actresses Joanna Lumley and Jennifer Saunders will be the official theme tune for a British telethon entitled Comic Relief. However, singer Julie Driscoll has objected to the b-side, a version of 'This Wheel On Fire', a hit for Driscoll and The Brian Auger Trinity in 1968. Pet Shop Boys thought they had obtained permission to use the song, but Driscoll said no at the last moment. The duo wanted to use the song because it features extensively in 'Absolutely Fabulous', a hit comedy series featuring Saunders and Lumley. 'Absolutely Fabulous' will now be released with remixes on the b-side. A spokesperson commented: "We regret consent from Julie Driscoll weeks in advance of the release and we understood that there wouldn't be a problem. Then, just ten days before the release, she came back to us and said she didn't want it to come out, even though it was for charity. So then we had to find a new b-side, but we didn't have anything. That's why we had to go for remixes of 'Ad Fab'. Neil and Chris found it very frustrating. It's the first record they've done for charity and it's been held up because of the b-side." The single will be released on May 31 via Spaghetti/EMI, a week later than planned... Elastics are rumored to be on the verge of singing with Geffen. The London-based independent band, who have been picking up rave press reviews, may stay with the indie Deceptive for UK release London has also been linked with the band... Bruce Dickinson, former singer with Iron Maiden, has released his first new recordings since going solo. 'Tears Of The Dragon', a mammoth six minutes and twenty seconds long, is available via EMI and different formats feature various b-sides. Dickinson says: "The song is about facing up to your fears and finding out that you had nothing to fear in the first place. It's appropriate that it's the first recording I've released since leaving Maiden. I'm confident that it's my best work to date and I feel that I've done myself and all the Maiden fans proud." Tour details will be announced in the summer... Cliff Richard has postponed his musical 'Heathcliff'. Based around the classic novel 'Wuthering Heights', the show was to have toured the UK in November and December of this year. Instead, Cliff will play a greatest hits show on these dates and 'Heathcliff' will go ahead in 1995. Organizers blame "recording and production" delays for the postponement. Single form the musical are scheduled to be released later this year... AC Acoustics are a band whose releases are worth looking for in the import bins. Hailing from Glasgow, Scotland, the group has been picking up positive reviews for their latest mini-album 'Able Treasury'. A guitar band, AC Acoustics have been extensively played by the former New Musical Express journalist Steve Lamacq on his BBC Radio One network show. Another band featured by Lamacq are London's Prolapse who recently released a single 'Pull Thru' Barker' via Cherry Red. To quote the press release, their live show "include the strange routine of smashing up toys, ornaments, vegetables, tearing up and throwing bread and buns (with the occasional guest appearance of a toaster)." The single was produced by former Membranes frontman John Robb... Rohan Heath of dance band Urban Cookie Collective had to have 16 stitches after he was attacked in the Sheffield city center. Heath was walking through the town, in the north of England, with his girlfriend and later commented: "I was minding my own business when suddenly this guy whacked me over the head (with an iron bar). I'm lucky to be alive. My clothes were soaked in blood and I went deaf"... Arthur Lee of Love is to make a special appearance at Creation Records tenth anniversary 'Undrugged' show, which takes place at the London Royal Albert Hall on June 4. The show will also feature such artists as Ride, Bob Mould, Oasis and The Jazz Butcher. The Boo Radleys plan to appear with a 20-piece school orchestra. All artists will perform acoustically... Roger Taylor has criticized the BBC Radio One network for not adding his single 'Nazis' to their playlist. The former Queen drummer recorded the single as a reaction to the rise of the far-right in Europe and told the New Musical Express: "When I was travelling around Europe, I was watching the upsurge of the neo-Nazis, hearing them say that the Holocaust never happened, and I realized it was one of the most ridiculous things I'd ever heard. Writing a song isn't going to change the world, but you can achieve some awareness in other people. One of the things we were always good at was writing athenms. I mean, I was watching the football the other night and the crowd were all singing 'We Are The Champions'. We won't change the world, but maybe just make some people think and, if that happens, then it's been successful." Taylor suspect the song hasn't been playlisted because of its subject and use of words such as 'Nazis' and 'Jews'. Radio One deny any censorship, saying the single was "judged on its musical merits".

reaches over 59 million U.S. households, and is seen in over 288.5 million households in 88 territories worldwide on MTV and its affiliates — MTV Europe, MTV Asia, MTV Japan, MTV Brasil, MTV Latino and MTV Internacional.

CARTER ALAN, WBCN-FM

Well, the Pink Floyd machine has rumbled out of Boston and everyone here was pretty much amazed by the whole three-day experience. Bad weather plagued the first two shows, grounding the Division Bell airship but not holding back the concerts. Charles Laquidara's scheduled Morning show broadcast from the blimp was cancelled, but due to the luck of the draw, your's truly got to go up and do the radio show two days later. Some promotional genius hooked Sony mini-discs to the inside wall of the cabin, obviously playing the new Floyd album endlessly, but I was up in the cockpit getting a breathless thousand-foot high view of the stadium. Thanks to Dennis Reese and CBS/Sony, as well as the band, for all promotional opportunities and the great music... "Keep Talking" continues to hold strongly in heavy with "Take it Back" in similar rotation. That Miami live version of "Astronomy Domine" is also doing well... Thanks to RCA and ZZ Top for the special WBCN Barbeque at the Centrum last Sunday. Our listeners enjoyed the chance to meet the Texas legends. Dusty, Billy, and Frank were more than gracious, signing stuff and mugging for the cameras... Love the cool jazzy phrasings of the new Spin Doctors - an instant classic... "Big Empty" and "Round Here" continue to foster the legacy that both STP and the WBCN Top request list at #4. Rounding out the upper five is Pink Floyd "Take it Back" at #1, Collective Soul at #2, the Allman's track at #3 and Aerosmith's "Crazy" in at #5.

PEG POLLARD, KIOZ, SAN DIEGO

KIOZ-Fm enjoyed a visit from Stone Temple Pilots' guitarist Dean Deleo last week. Dean sat in for a couple of hours on my afternoon shift and played some personal favorites - and world debuted 6 new STP tracks from Purple. We appreciate the band's loyalty to the station that played 'em first! And we can appreciate their lack of enthusiasm for the so-called "cutting edge" station that waited till Core went gold before playing the band. Thanks Dean! And thanks to Atlantic for not vetoing the idea. "Meatplow" is a song from the new CD that I can't get outta my head. "Lounge Fly" is amazing. "Silvergun Superman" and "Interstate Love Song" are destined to be singles. By the way, FUCK all of you who were narrow minded enough to bag on this band... I saw the Meat Puppets for the first time this weekend. Wow. What a fun band! We added their single "We Don't Exist" (the more guitar oriented mix) this week... The band Rob Rule put on a great show here too last week. Thanks to Michael Ildis (my new "local", tee hee) for bringing us out to dinner with the band. It's truly a pleasure to meet band members you actually wouldn't mind hanging with. But hang on to your cash around these guys! We went to a nice restaurant downtown on the water called The Fish Market. After an alcohol-enhanced dinner, the singer, Eddie collected cash ($100+) to see the road manager, John, strip naked and dive off the outside railing into the bay in front of all the other customers. He will do it - so be prepared to pay up! He'll be lucky if he doesn't get hepatitis. Late.

CATHY FAULKNER, KISW, SEATTLE

I'll have all the dirt on our Rockstock 94 and Soundgarden shows next week... We're also looking forward to our KISW "Pain In The Grass" weekly outdoor shows at the Seattle Center. Every Friday (starting June 17), we will provide free performances from three local acts for our audience at a great outdoor location. It's sure to be a success. Some bands scheduled to perform: Sweet Water, Green Apple Quick Step, Mudhoney, Inflatable Soule

JD. WONE, AKRON

The excitement continues to build surrounding the two PINK FLOYD concerts coming to town later this week. We gave our listeners a chance to "GET THEIR PINK FLOYD FANATASY" with their "PINK FLOYD FIX".

For the past 6 weeks we've been qualifying listeners for the chance to win some pretty spectacular prizes. All they had to do is listen for us to play a PINK FLOYD song in its entirety. When the song ended they had to be caller number seven to qualify for one of five "Special PINK FLOYD/WONE Concert Packs", which included: tickets to see PINK FLOYD at Cleveland Stadium, a PINK FLOYD "Shine On" boxed set, and a C.D. of The Division Bell. Plus, everyone who qualified was automatically entered into the grand prize drawing for a trip for two to New York City to see PINK FLOYD at Yankee Stadium June 10. But that's not all. This past weekend was a "PINK FLOYD ENCORE WEEKEND" as we had more tickets to giveaway, plus more copies of The Division Bell. But there's more! All this week we continue to giveaway tickets to see PINK FLOYD, plus passes to the Great American Rib Cook-Off in downtown Cleveland. All listeners have to do is listen for the WONE/PINK FLOYD PIG sounder. When they hear it all they have to do is be caller seven to win! Nobody gives it's listeners more chances to fulfill their FLOYD FANATASY and GET THEIR FLOYD fix than The Home Of Rock N'Roll 97.5 WONE... The-Pick-Hit-To-Click-Of-The-Week...HORSE "Celebrate".

DAVE DOUGLAS, KEBZ/KQMG

I was recently given the privilege of listening to the entire new release from Boston. If you feel like I did with the single "I Need Your Love" then you are probably having a hard time getting the least bit interested in the latest Boston incarnation. But let me tell you, rock radio is going to love some of the other tracks on "Walk On." Cut #2, "Surrender To Me" is a rocker that is reminiscent of their "Don't Look Back" project. And the three tracks that make up the title song sequence absolutely rocked my world! especially "Get Organ-ized." If your library contains any Boston plan on feeding your listeners a big, healthy dose of the new stuff... On another note, we stumbled upon a new, fledgling Kansas City band called Sing Sing... The Blaze is having success with "Wheels in motion." They're on a small label called Lexic Records. Check it out... Also, saw the Stuttering John video - it's great!

SHARON SCHINDO, WHJY, PROVIDENCE

Many, Many Thanks to Dennis Reese of Columbia for "lifting our spirits"!! Bill, myself, Michele (promo dir.), and Amy Hagan (mid-day jock) had the thrill of riding on the Pink Floyd airship this past week. We broadcasted live from a blimp and we all got to sit in the co-pilot seat and take the helm. It was wild!! And although it was only about 40 degrees and raining, the Pink Floyd show at Foxboro Stadium was complete sensory overload!!! Musically speaking, this Francis Dunnery track is addictive! You can't help boppin' around to it... Soundgarden's "Black Hole Sun" pulled top requests it's first week on. "B.H.S." is a no-brainer!! If you haven't had the chance to sit and chill to Superunknown, do yourself a favor. The entire CD is full of stand-out material. We'll all be enjoying this release for a long time to come!... Congratulations to Chris, Kim, Ben & Matt for recognition that is long overdue!!!

MIKE LUDMA, WIZN

PINK FLOYD! PINK FLOYD! PINK FLOYD! What a concert these guys are putting on this time out! Mindblowing! Our thanks to Dennis Reese and Chris Wollman of Columbia for bringing myself and Steve Cormier down to meet these legendary artists and to catch the show at Foxboro. A wondrous night of amazing music! I didn't think that Floyd could improve on their performances from the Delicate Sound of Thunder tour, but they did! On that tour they seemed a show with a band. This time, they're a band with a show, and what a show! From the opening interplanetary psychedelia of "Astronomie Domine" on through Floyd classics new and old, the band seemed more a unit than before, more cohesive, more of a band, and the music this band made was magic! The classics resounded with power, and the new songs came alive! The passion with which the new "High Hopes" was played justified its inclusion in the otherwise classics-only second set. The Floyd have proven themselves once again! Long live Pink Floyd!

TJ BRYAN, WDHA

Coming soon...WDHA goes all-Whitney Houston! Arista's Steve Schnur had the high bid of $725 for an hour of air-time on WDHA at our third annual Rock-N-Sports Charity Auction. We raised $7000 dollars for the Names Project of New Jersey to help the fight against AIDS. The highest bid was $1200 for a beautiful autographed guitar from Joan Jett. The biggest surprise (a sign of times?): an autographed Meat Puppets lithograph went for more than three times as much as a John Lennon litho. Thanks to everyone who helped out by donating items for this great cause. We're immediately accepting collections for next year's auction, too!... STP's "Vaseline" and "Big Empty" prove that this is a band to reckon with. They are by no means Pearl Jam wannabees, just a great rock & roll band... David Byrne's "Angels" is the best thing he has done in years. If you play Talking Head, you owe it to yourself and to your audience to check out "Angels"... Other groovy things on the 'DHA airwaves these days include Live, Francis Dunnery, Cracker, Toad the Wet Sprocket, The Mother Station, Mick Ronson, and Bon Jovi... Look forward to seeing many of you at McGathy weekend when the Royals beat up on the Yankees! Go K.C.! Always, it's been a business doing pleasure with you!

KIRKSTER & STASH, WIYY, BALTIMORE

Hello from the Hotel Hearst! Congrats to Cal on her #300 last Tuesday in Milwaukee. Heard he was rockin with the Lazer, as Freddie Traube once said "Home Ruuuuuun". Thanks to Biohazard for cleaning it up. You kiss your mutha with that mouth?... "Tales From The Hard Side" and our hazards are on! Stickin with the B's sometimes you feel like a nut, so we're going with "Sabotage" early... The Beasties are back. You should add it too. Ad -Rock Needs New Shoes. We're on the offspring... Okay, who didn't add Vaseline? To be so oblivious to the obvious. We want more, we want more... Rage Against the Machine "Freedom" continues to call out like a Mofo. You would not believe the female response. Grandmothers even... Hi to John Sencio!... Since we're in the mood to share our research, Meat Puppets is the other white meat. "Backwater" continues to rain, heavy at times... Type O Negative has a track that will cup your package. "Christian Woman" got soft hands and a good grip. We like her especially at night. We think you'll agree... Look for us on Jerry Springer in August. Then you'll understand the destructive power of a lie, we don't even work at Ivy. Till next issue...

GINGER HAVLAT, KBCO

It's the strangest thing, but my ears have been ringing constantly over the last two weeks. You don't suppose people are talking about KBCO do you? Well rumor has been the topic of much conversation and speculation lately so before I finally end my "No comment" position, let me give you a top ten list.

Top Ten Rumours About KBCO...

10. KBCO is moving to Ft. Collins, Colorado.
9. Doug Clifton and Ginger Havlat quit so they could form an Adult Radio Consulting company.
8. After Stephen King's The Stand aired on tv, Boulder's promised land soared in value so we had to sell.
7. Dennis Constantine resigned to become spokesman for the Colorado Beef Council.
6. With no new Dead album in sight, what's left?
5. SBR + Evergreen = Streisand backing!
4. Despite the Boulder image, no one at KBCO has ever inhaled.
3. Doug resigned so he could freelance as a tornado chaser for the weather channel.

2. Ginger resigned so she could join the Paul and Linda McCartney frozen food tour.

1. KBCO? What KBCO? It was all an acid flashback. All in good fun. Now for more serious stuff. A lot of you already know but I'll make it official: I have resigned from KBCO. My last day will probably be June 15th. Thank you for all your concern and for years of support and friendship. It's hard to believe I've been at KBCO for over twelve years and for the longest time I couldn't even think of a career outside this Boulder gem. But I'm not afraid of change anymore and I'm ready to go on to new adventures and new challenges. The rumor mill has been filled with reasons why I'm leaving and where I'm going. The fact is I'm going to try and take off most of the summer and regain my passion for radio by taking a break from it. Look out Europe, here I come. One day I was playing Marianne Faithful's "Ballad of Lucy Jordan" and some of the lyrics really jumped out (no pun intended). The age of 37 is just around corner and I'm going to make sure I ride through Paris in a sports car. Hell, I'll settle for a moped. It's a new era for KBCO but the legacy will continue and now my talented co-workers have the chance to move up the ladder just like Doug Clifton and I did. I'm starting to feel like Dorothy saying goodbye to all her friends in Oz. But I'll be back and hopefully revved up to explore free agency. Of course KBCO will always be in my heart and again I want to thank everyone who made these twelve years in Boulder so very special.

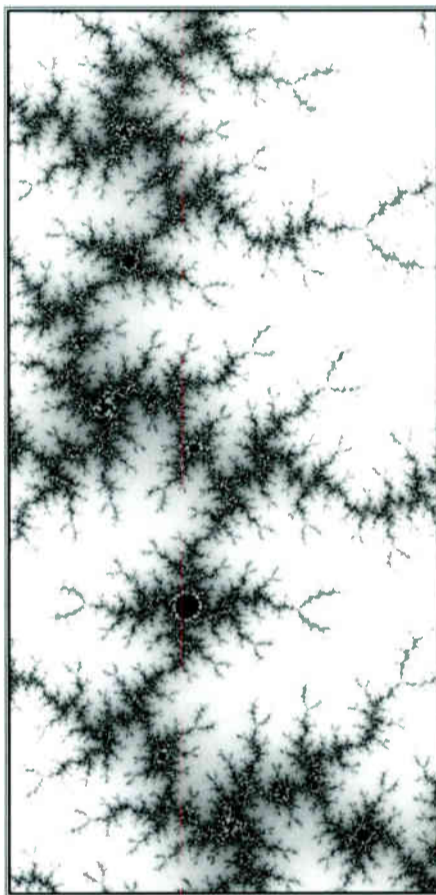

BRUCE WARREN, WORLD CAFE NEWSLETTER

How soon is now?... Well, sometimes we just lay back and wonder and say to ourselves: Do we have the coolest jobs or WHAT? That's how we felt when the Cafe welcomed like, the hottest freaking band in the country into the studio...I'm talking about Collective Soul who you'll be able to hear in the unplugged mode in just a couple of days on your radio...And thanks to Bonnie Sliifkin from Atlantic for her help on the Soul project.. Cafe host David Dye and I have been going ga-ga over the debut from Pete Drobe on American, called Necktie Second. "Great production, clever lyrics, and incredible songwriting," says Dye. And he should know -I mean, he's the Kid Leo of Philadelphia.... We're Not Worthy Dept: Ryko rocks the world with the new Lloyd Cole record, Bad Vibes... At Gavin, during his keynote speech, label boss Gary Gersh said they trimmed their roster down to artists that his staff really believed in, bands that they would want to "listen to when they get home". So, what's the deal? Yo, Gar..Do you really put the kids asleep or do the dishes to I Mother Earth, and not His Lloydness? Oh well, Ryko and Lloyd are all better for it. We suggest "Morning Has Broken" and "So You'd Like To Save The World". By the way, this isn't meant to be a dis, rather, it's trying to make the "corporate rock" decision making process more understandable... The Cafe is looking for backers for this year's official Triple A Gavin t-shirt. The front should say: "The Boulder Triple A Free Zone Conference; the back should say: Don't mess with my disco, Nadine". And if anyone out there recognizes this cool, inside reference to a recent made-for-t.v.-movie, and contacts us here at the Cafe, you'll win an autographed copy of the forthcoming biography, "Gorka: God of All Folkmen" and a cassette of Gorka B-Sides and duets with Stevie Wonder he's calling "Songs in the Key of C"... Let's Get Serious, (serious) Dept: The new Freedy Johnston record, This Perfect World is gonna be Freedy's Big Leap into Triple A, but we all know that the Cafe and WXPN were spinning Freedy back in his early days with Bare None. Remember "No Violins" from the The Trouble Tree?(that will send you md's scrambling). He was a genius back then, but his new album has some of Freedy's best songs to date, and best playing especially from Marshall Crenshaw and David Schramm (think Hoboken, kids)...Badger the folks at Elektra for an advance of Freedy's new one... Next week: It's the First Annual World Cafe Bad Rock Poetry Awards (nominees include the Indigos, Yes,

The October Project, Rod McKuen, and others... Until we meet again..Remember to stay away from the purple iced tea...

Ken Ross, KMMS, Bozeman, MT

Let the games begin!! In the season opener of "Gee honey, let's see how close we can get to the big fuzzy animal without being clawed, gored, or disemboweled" contest, the score is Buffalo -1 Tourist -0. The season's 1st challenger, a middle-aged man from GA, is currently residing in an area hospital, possibly rethinking his strategy. It looks like the champions may go for a 4th straight year as the undisputed "field" dominators! We'll keep you posted... This is really turning out to be one of the most incredible years for music. The Spin Doctors "Cleopatra's Cat" has a groove to it that just won't let you sit still... David Byrne is back and are we glad! His self titled disc is chock full of pure innovative genius. Check it out!... "Street Angel" sounds like it's going to be a huge success for Stevie Nicks. Great trax on it include: "Maybe Love Will Change Your Mind", "Blue Denim", and my personal fave - "Just Like A Woman" (But then I am partial to Mr. Zimmerman)... The reigning king-of-cool Mr. Van Morrison has just put out a most amazing live LP - "A Night In San Francisco". Start listening to it, you won't be able to stop!... One last opinion: A disc of great "class" hit your desks awhile back - Matraca Berg's "The Speed of Grace". As one indy rep so eloquently put it: "It has AAA written all over it". The disc is most certainly worth a 2nd listen. Pay special attention to "Guns In My Head". Here's to sitting on the edge of what looks to be a great summer....Protect your privates and jump! TTFN.....

A big hello from the apple capitol of the world. First my apologies to all my friends in the record community for the "cold" shoulder the last two weeks. No we are not changing formats, and no I am not being replaced. I am in the midst of creating a format for our long dormant AM station. I am also on the hunt for a new Robert's Ranch... The two artists that sound the best on the river this past week- Ted Hawkins & Francis Dunnery. Thank you to Suzi and Tracy at Geffen and to the best screamer in the business, Bonnie at Atlantic. You know Bonnie if I wasn't married... Also love the New Buffett. What a treat! Read last week about KMMS...Congratulations. Now how about these numbers. In the latest Wilhight Survey (Sorry, no Arbitron. I guess they don't think the 75,000 people are worthy) KKRK ranks the following: #1 18+ males, #1 18-49 males, #1 25-29 males, #1 25-54 males and #1 35-44 males. The average share is a 31! Also KKRK ranks #2 12+ adults with a 24 share and #3 in adult rankers 18+. And finally... Two personal notes. To my wife Toni, you've worked hard, stuck with it, and put up with a lot. And now with your 39 share you can claim the #1 midday slot in North Central Washington. I love you. Thank you. You are my true companion. And last but not least... None of this would be possible without the guy who gave me a "shot"-Larry Snider. Any body know where he is? Call me. Thanks for the time. Keep 'em spinning.

Ken Allen, KTHX

Hey all you record and radio types!!! It's yet another communique from the biggest little radio station in the Sierras...KTHX... This may be the last update for a while, but before I explain why, let me recap... As you may remember from our last episode, our frequency was bought by Sunbelt Broadcasting, owner of the local N.B.C. Affiliate Channel 4, who has plans to change the format to all news. As of now, in order for us to stay on the air for the rest of the book we may have to move the station tomorrow night (5-20-94). Why? The powers that be want to move us into the studios they are building for their new news station... So what we are looking at is a change in phone numbers and address for what is left for our time on 101.7, which should be close to the end of June. After that? Well, there are a couple of stations that have expressed some interest but want to see the new book before making any decisions. I'd like to think we'll be back on the air by September, but who knows? Anyway for the next 5 weeks the new phone # SHOULD be: 702-333-1017 or if that doesn't work try 702-322-4444. The new mailing address is P.O. Box 7160, Reno, Nevada 89510 .. Just to finish this up, rest assured we're working our butts off looking for a new home. We are confident in finding one. We've got incredible listener support (Approximately 1,000 letters and faxes), advertiser support and as of last book, a nice little growing trend in the 25-54 demo... Thanks to all of you for your support and interest. And a personal thanks to all the record reps and trade mag people for being gentle with a first time music director... Hope to talk to you later.

Rob Nicholson & Julie Hoyt, Channel Z

Hello from Channel Z in Augusta's warm little corner of the world. We'd like to begin by thanking whoever that wonderful person was who invented air-conditioning. We've been putting ours to great use and are expecting to burn those buggers out by the end of summer... The musical action around here has been even hotter this past week. The Smithereens put on an amazing show to a packed house last Monday night and were absolutely amazing. Thanks again to Angela Borchetta for bringing them by... We also had an out-door show with Madder Rose last week that was sheer beauty. Thanks goes out to Myra Simpson for bringing them by and for being the life of the party the rest of the night. The men of Augusta will be dreaming of her lovely face and saucy talk for years to come... We told you about Channel Z-TV last week, but we didn't know of the thunderous response that has taken place since. The video stores are reporting an even more rapid rental rate than last week and the response has been overwhelming! We'd like to thank Steve Leeds once again for making this as fabulous as it has become!... You will notice the extra music lists. We wanted to report our specialty show playlists so you could have a better idea of what they are all about. Included are the names of who to contact and the addresses to send music to. Once again, the shows are South by Southeast and Saturday Night Special... Until next week, remember if you're gonna play the field, you gotta wear a glove! Wrap that rascal!

JOHN LEWIS, KTOZ-FM, CHANNEL Z

I just got back from an extremely busy Blockbuster Music Plus store. Millions of Channel Z listeners are enjoying the new Toad the Wet Sprocket CD at our exclusive listening party! Blockbuster has extended their hours past midnight to accommodate those eager Toad lovers that didn't win a copy of Dulcinea over the weekend. Thanks to Joe Shuld, Uncle Mel and everyone at Blockbuster for making this another successful win-it-before-you-can-buy-it-weekend... Thanks also to Charlie Foster (From John, Scott, Shierine, Joe and Tracey) for the visit and dinner... We have a new addition to the Channel Z team starting Monday, May 30th (Yeah, it's a national holiday...but you can't get a job at Channel Z if your a gurlly man!) Eric Schmidt will be our new night man (seven to midnight), and music director. We're very happy to have him as part of our staff... We are still receiving mail at the old address. Please check your list for the new address: 309 N. Jefferson, Suite #340, Springfield MO, 65806. The new phone number is 417-869-8400, FAX 417-869-8745. Until next week...

E. HEATHER LOSE, WRLG

BDS activated May 30! BDS activated May 30!! Whoopee!! Many thanks to all the lovely record reps who helped...I'll remember you guys & gals even as the woodwork begins to crawl!... More good news this week — we enlarged our transmissions tower 70 feet and our reception has improved accordingly. We did have to go off the air for 60 hours so overall spins decreasing across the board...will be back up next week... The latest groovy stuff in my world: The Urge live at RAS-fest (thanks Fred!), Jason & the Scorchers live at Midtown Music Fest (thanks, Fred!), Maggie Estep's "Bad Day at the Beauty Salon", Superchunk this Sat. at the Exit/In. MC 900 Foot Jesus, Seed, my new Pole Climbers, King Missile tomorrow nite at 328. Wendy Naylor's understanding ear (and great taste in music!), Velocity Girl, Francis Dunnery, and a box of Tori Amos cornflakes.

DUG, WRFC/WPUP, Athens

Lots went on, so listen up. Last week started off on a putrid note, with dreams of slit wrists, plagues and rabid goats. Luckily things went much better while I was awake. I (with the incredible help of Tod Elmore) managed to get an interview with Madder Rose. My life is now complete. That evening was kind of odd. I started out my trek to the 40 Watt at the City Bar, where a 250 person party was underway to start off the festivities of the Boybutante Ball, a yearly benefit for Aids Athens. 250 of Athens leaders, most of them in drag. And this was a minor party. I headed off to the Watt, passing the restored Morton theatre, an old black vaudeville theatre. There was a blues festival underway, with people singing acapella on the sidewalk. I walk a bit farther and ran across an Elvis impersonator setting up a tattooing stand on the sidewalk. Finally I arrived at the Watt, fell asleep on a picnic table just in time for soundcheck to end. I think I remember now why I used to like this town. It's one huge reality failure... The interview was great, dinner was nice (I had the pita-pizza, Mary had a garden salad with tahini, and Billy and John had some evil looking sandwich with green spoooge oozing out os them). The band was looking at rent prices here in Athens... nah, life couldn't get that cool... On Saturday I opted not to go to the farm and try to forge a knife. Instead I went to a class on herbal medicines. The people teaching the class asked me afterwards how long I've been studying, because I seemed to know a lot. I couldn't answer, cause I can't remember a time I didn't at least know what plants would kill you... The call from John S. Hall did not come in last night, so we'll be talking today. (oh, Karen, he says hi back)... Later this week there are interviews set up with Vigilantes of Love and Vanilla Trainwreck... Tonight is not only full moon but a partial lunar eclipse as well. Perhaps this is why I'm so damned happy. Maybe it's just that one of the herbs we learned about fights depression and insanity. Free prozac, anyone? I'm going away now.

CHRIS VAUGHT, 98 ROCK, BALTIMORE

Update from the mosh pit at WIYY - Biohazard CD a major force in the mosh pit. (Thanks Linnea for everything)... Phones for Obsessed, Pride & Glory, Atomic Opera and Dio Strong!... Happening now is GWAR, Love/Hate. Remember, keep up the mosh pit and don't tank.

STEPHEN WOODWARD, KWVA

As the school year comes to a close (we're on a quarter system, so it will be in mid-June) everyone wants to know about my summer job. I am currently looking at an internship possibility in Los Angeles. If this falls through, I will still be at my desk in Eugene. I will let everyone know what will happen when I know it will happen... As to what's happening here, Biohazard out of the box! It's in the second week, and it hit top 5 phones... Thanks to Renea at Caliber Records for finally clearing up the Love/Hate mess... Let's see, by the time you read this, KWVA will officially be ONE YEAR OLD!! I want to thank everyone who has helped me over the years (including all the times during our "cable" phase). It sucks having to deal with all the extra regulations, but it's nice to make an impact on the community!

DANE GENTLE, ARISTA RECORDS

I just got out of a listening meeting that blew me away... 4 Non Blondes, Candlebox, Motorhead, White Zombie were the first tracks I heard from the Airheads Soundtrack... It's outrageous. If you haven't yet noticed, Brad Roberts of the Crash Test Dummies is one hell of a songwriter. Some got it right away when they first heard "Superman's Song" 2 years ago. A million and a half got it when they heard "Mmm, Mmm, Mmm, Mmm". "Afternoons & Coffeespoons" is more obvious. AOR CORE listeners will be adding this CD to their collections... Stick are out there touring in a van. CORE RADIO: WKDF, WLZR, KZRZ, KNCN, KRAD, WKLQ, KISS, KXQR all playing Stick's newest single "Grind". It's down!! Live Stick CD in 2 weeks with killer versions of "Taught To Lose" and "No Groovy"!... Sarah McLachlan continues to impact everywhere. Everyday my phone rings with another rock programmer asking either for a Sarah CD or for tix to see her.

WHDQ and WMMS are the first AOR's to add Sarah's "Possession". Out of the Top 200 selling albums, Fumbling Toward Ecstasy is #50!... The Church single "Two Places At Once" was #1 most added at the New Rock format this week... Recently saw Corey Glover belting out tunes downtown with a blues based band. Talk about soul!... Celebrated my birthday last week at a Horsemen show. New singer is the real deal - plays a mean harmonica and steel.

MI DEL BALZO, COLUMBIA RECORDS

Stabbing Westward is turning into quite a story. On occasion, records come along that quickly get audience reaction. "Nothing" is one of these tracks. Consistent Top 5 phones at WXTB and other stations throughout the country. This great track has caught the attention of some of the most astute programmers in the country. When Greg Mull, Bob Elliott, Dave Hamilton and Steve Young are among others are on a brand new band the first week out... there's got to be something special about the track. That's obviously the case with Stabbing Westward. If you haven't spent time with this track, you're missing something special... Pink Floyd's amazing tour is just about half-way through. "Take It Back" has jumped onto Top 40 radio and MTV has fully embraced the very "Floydian" video extravaganza. This is perfect timing for everywhere... Alice In Chains is making yet another run for the Top 5 as "I Stay Away" is powering its way up the charts. The band is on another huge tour this summer as they hit the road with Metallica. Right now they also have two tracks solidly in the Top 20... watch for the long awaited Steve Perry track "You Better Wait" coming your way just before July 4th. It is unmistakably Steve Perry and well worth the wait... There's some great new music out (or coming out) that's been monopolizing my stereo... Boz Scaggs, Elvis Costello, Billy Falcon, Rollins, Phish, Sponge and Jeff Buckley

LEA PEACOCK, ATLANTIC RECORDS, 212-275-2215

Those of you that look at me for a bit of the ummmm, unusual, be forewarned: forget it today. My record stories are too good and my lie is in to much of a heart-pounding quandary to talk about anything but Soundscan and chart jumps. Doesn't that just sound delicious?.. OK - we have the #1 record at Soundscan - the soundtrack for The Crow. Guess how many records were sold in the last five days? Gold. How sick is that? #1 grossing movie in the nation and very bloody, I hear, but then again, so is having a baby. Take it from me. STP's "Big Empty" which is selling the record, is on the new STP album too. The album's called Purple, but is it really? Play "Vaseline" too - look - it's right there on your desk under the reefer. Why Not Play Both?.. The new Stevie Nicks track "Maybe Love Will Change Your Mind" went on 55 stations outta the box! Why is that voice so seductive? I can't print what The Dick I Lived With For Seven Years useta call it. (Call for details)... Guess what's sticking it's head up? "Dig The Ribbit" by The Hatters. If A&M can work a Paw song about a dog, followed by a song about a fucking shark, followed by the same song about a dog again, these guys can certainly have a hit with a song about a FROG. What other sons has "Wo-wo-wo amphibian" as a chorus, ferchrissakes? None. Thank you. I knew you'd see it my way... There's more but I'm starting to feel like the guy on Ed Sullivan that used to juggle the plates. You're probably too young to remember that but I love you anyway.

MARK FISHER, ATLANTIC RECORDS, 212-275-2085

And now for another, I can't believe its Atlantic Records Week in history. Where doo... We start? Collective Soul's "Shine" is the no. 1 record in the country for the 3rd consecutive week in a row. Soundscan went from 29,939 to 37,651 pieces. But the biggest Soundscan story was The Crow (Soundtrack) which was the No. 1 selling record in the country, with 124,952 pieces this week. The current Five Day Order is over 500,000. And why? You might ask, Stone Temple Pilots!!! "The Big Empty" is a top 10 track at rock radio that has captivated buyers to seek The Crow. And to make it even more confusing for our trade readers, we our proud to announce the arrival of the brand spankin new track "Vaseline" from the brand spankin new Stone Temple Pilots record, due in stores June 7th. "Vaseline" is in your hands now, for reports this week. Don't freeze! That's not what vasoline is for, it's there to lubricate your station. Meanwhile, don't be an idiot either and drop the "Big Empty". This is telling your listeners that your not interested in the hottest record on the street. Don't worry, both the "Big Empty" and "Vaseline" appear on the new STP record as well. (Confused? Read this paragraph again, do not pass go, and do not collect $200)... The coolest story this week is the incredible show of support for Francis Dunnery's "American Life in the Summertime". Francis has been entertaining many of you as his promo tour makes it across the country. This week WRIF, WXZL, WHJY, KISS, WHCN, WRXK, and KCLB all came to the party. Some pretty heavy majors there... Finally, we owe a great many thanks to all of you who supported Stevie Nicks out of the box. Stevie is back with a great record and tour to follow. Make sure she lights up your dayparts... Also, please pay attention to The Hatters "Dig the Ribbit". The Hatters will be opening for Collective Soul during the month of June. They are a don't miss... And this concludes another Thank God it's Atlantic Record Week, Report.

EJ JOHANNEN, COLUMBIA 212-833-4989

If anyone out there has a copy of Conversational Klingon by all means call me, that could be the book to end all books... Ahhhh. Summer in the city. Cities across America will be chuffed this summer as the heaviest of the heavies come to town... First up the tour end all tours- Metallica, Alice in Chains and Suicidal Tendencies shit in the sheds! Crapping right before them will be the double bill from hell- Carcass/Life of Agony! Have you had enough yet? Well how's about Napalm Death/Entombed and a third player to be named later... Stompbox will be playing your neck of the woods... Are we done yet - fuck no! The Obsessed fucking rock so get crackin'!... Be sure to pick up Kerrang weekly to keep abreast of the Black Metal murder trial... Things ain't looking too good for Count Grinackh.

MICHEL SYLVIA, RYKODISC

It's nice to be putting comments in the trades for the first time in awhile, but all is not sweetness and light. I'd like to start by accentuating the positive things going on here, like the great response to Lloyd Cole (big airplay two weeks early) or Morphine (100,000!) or All Farka Toure/Ry Cooder (45,00 SoundScan despite the fact that the consultants will tell you it's not a radio record) and the great response to the latest batch of Costello reissues... Also, we have some great new music this summer from P-Funk all-stars under the aegis of Bill Laswell/Black Arc, a new Bootsy(!), Undertone reissues, and in late summer, Sugar... So what's bugging me, you ask? I got a call from a personal friend of mine who has nothing to do with "industry". For you demo-hounds; a 40-year old male who has lots of disposable income. He proceeds to wail on me because he's been hearing this song he digs on a few stations in the Northeast for a MONTH (AOR and New Rock, stations that you are all familiar with). He'd like to find out who it is so he can go out and buy the CD, but he can't find out who it is because it's not being front or back-announced, and when he calls the station he gets a bunch of can't-be-bothered-types who are either unable or unwilling to answer the question. Nice. The stations? I'll spare you...after all, this is an ISSUE, not an INDIVIDUAL problem. The song? "Shine", by Collective Soul.

Now isn't that the #1 song at two formats these past few weeks? Pathetic. How did he find this out? By watching MTV. You ever wonder how MTV still sells records while they play fewer videos? You ever wonder that it might have something to do with the fact that for 13 years, they still front AND back-announce EVERY video, no matter how obvious it may be? I figure you all are too busy bashing this trade and that trade and how wonderful you are because you now report PPW to truly serve your listeners' needs. Great. Now that you've stopped bullshitting the rest of the industry, maybe you should try to stop bullshitting your listeners! By not announcing your records, that's basically what you're doing. Last question: How many dedicated radio listeners of all demos who don't know radio or record people have this problem daily? Some of you old-timers may remember the "if you play it, say it" campaign...it vould use some CPR, or is that MPP(mentions per play).

MICHEL J. SCHAPP, THE EMI RECORDS GROUP, 212-492-1812

Nice week so far...no cars hit me and only 7 cabs blew me off! It's getting nicer out. Come on summer! A great week at The EMI Records Group as we move floors, so we are all unpacking and gettin' ready to ROCK on 39!... Mutha's Day Out are back from Europe and movin' on the road hittin' San Diego, Los Angeles, Oregon, San Francisco, Sacramento, Tahoe and Denver...just in time for the nice weather! Check 'em out live, play 'em on your radio, heck, just go on and say HI to the fellas. They're from Arkansas and are a cool bunch. Plus, Mutha's Day Out sounds great on the radio! Dig into the "MY SOUL IS WET" LP and find lots of great tunes that deserve spins. Play Mutha's Day Out or I'll run myself over with a cab!

DAVE MCK, GUITAR RECORDINGS/GUITAR ACOUSTICS (914)-935-5241

Knicks fans have been calling area sports talk shows over the past couple of weeks, talking about a cake-walk to the NBA finals. Thoroughly disregarding their next opponent, the Indiana Pacers. Granted, most of the region doesn't think any life form of not exists west of the Hudson. This team will take the Knicks to the brink, and these folks don't have a clue... The Fenwicks have taken 170 radio stations to the brink at music meetings, and have an edged out strong competitions thus far. Early supporters at commercial radio include WEQX and WIIZ for their new music shows. The record just landed on your desk this week. "Member of No Tribe" will work well for Modern Rock 18-24 demos. "Another Deadly Mother" is a great AAA track. This band will cross 18-24 and 25-34. We have a great thing going with this band... Upcoming: Blues Saraceno, guitarist for Poison, reinvestigates a Museum of Rock track for America's youth... Randy Bachman turns your market into a "Paririe Town", with help from Neil Young and Margo Timmons... And Buck Dharma provides a hair-raising version of a major B.O.C. hit for listeners to "Oh WOW!"... All this from some little dink-ass independent? Huh.

JON NARDACHONE, ATLANTIC, (212-275-2135)

How hot are STONE TEMPLE PILOTS?!?!? I think y'all know!... How incredibly wicked is the new OVERKILL single "FAST JUNKIE"? You'll find out in about two weeks!!

CHERYL VALENTINE, EPIC METAL, 212-833-5987

Suicidal... Suicidal... Suicidal... Suicidal... Suicidal Tendencies is coming your way on tour, on mylar and on whatever CDs are made of. Pick up that there pen and pad, write this down and put it somewhere memorable: ST adds for "What You Need's a Friend" on June 6 & 7 and adds for the Lp, "Suicidal For Life", on June 13 & 14. You're gonna dig this puppy - it's heavier than a new born Rottweiler!... Sepultura... Prong and Sepultura... Have we got the sickest tours or what? Sepultura will infect your mind and body when you see them this summer. Prong will pop your brain straight out of your skull and onto the concrete when you see them... Motherland are becoming near and dear to most of you very quickly. Once you've listened to "Rumor" a couple of times you can't get it out of your head. It's the total ivy growth equation... The Poor are coming Stateside to tour with the Scorpions on the East Coast and in the Midwest. If you don't have a tour date in your town yet, keep your eyes peeled to this illustrious trade for some headlining captivation! Wine makes me silly so I'm switchin' to "More Beer Waiter Please"... On June 6, you'll come to understand that the new Alice Cooper record is killer. Once you hear this in its entirety, the world opens up and swallows you for a 50+ minute ride into Alice's world. It's a great trip to be on with no nasty flashbacks... The Infectious Grooves were a blast to see! You'll have another opportunity to be infected in the Fall once they've taken care of their Suicidal Tendencies.

TOM GATES, ROADRUNNER RECORDS

"How can anyone not like this band?" -Dave from KQAL, regarding Black Train Jack. How could I disagree? "Handouts" is putting smiles on faces everywhere. A summer tour with Mighty Mighty Bosstones will begin in July and BTJ will be playing many headlining dates until then... I'll keep you posted... If you have not received the new CD from Dog Eat Dog and would like a taste of what happens when hardcore-meets-rock-meets-rap then give me a call... FYI: The Moon Seven Times will be doing a few weeks of tour dates next month... Coming: Buzzoven!

DAVID T., LEVIATHAN RECORDS

Imperium's "Too Short a Season" made some serious moves on the Hard Report and CMJ Loud 100 charts. Thanks to everyone who is blasting this across the air waves. Keep it up!! Any and every track is totally killer material. These guys incorporate the best of a lot of different influences to really play some amazing stuff... We have a lot of things brewing that I will let you know about soon. Take care and don't get sunburned.

MARIA ABEL, METAL BLADES RECORDS

On the road again... Cannibal Corpse & ME! I'll be with Cannibal and Broken Hope on some NE dates so if you haven't been spinning these bands as much as you should, better get down on your knees and repent! The Cannibal video "Staring Through The Eyes Of The Dead" is on Headbanger's so check it out. Their first video ever. The #1 indie band on the retail charts these days, thank you much... In second place is GWAR. They spew all over the audience & the people love it. Who else can say THAT about their bands?... Thanks to all who have been supporting THIS TOILET EARTH and promoting the shows. This band is on their way to the next level and we can't thank you enough... If you haven't added "Saddam A GO-GO" to your current tracks do so today. The movie Skulhed...Face and Beavis & Butthead Video game are coming soon to an entertainment center near you. Thought Industry is on the road supporting Type O. Call for info (ON THOUGHT INDUSTRY NOT TYPE O)... Beats The Hell Out Of Me arrived with SKREW. Can we say "airplay"? PLAY "Behind My Back" and "Picasso Trigger" respectively. The video for "Picasso Trigger" is amazing!... Mercyful Fate ep The Bellwitch in June... New Fate's Warning LP in July!! It's called Inside Out and the band will be on tour at the end of summer. Also coming... Desultory and Epidemic.

MICHELLE ROBBINS, HOLLYWOOD RECORDS

It's been a little busy here at HWR - take note: YOTHU YINDI just finished their grueling American tour for their Freedom release; met with much enthusiasm by the crowds everywhere! "Timless Land", "Freedom", & "Dots on the Shells" are the tracks from this record that should be spinnin' over your airwaves... Heading out on the road this week, ELEVEN hit it for 6 weeks with Soundgarden. I can't think of a better tour to see, can you??? "Reach Out" is on your desk as you read this up-and-coming-soon-to-be-in-your-face band (AOR has been on this one for a while now where've you been???)... THE BRAIN SETZER ORCHESTRA has been selling like gangbusters since its release - in all kinds of markets!! More so in those areas where "Brand New Cadillac" is being played by those truly alternative programmers; but I'd bet ya a nickel, if you check sales in your own town, you'll see some surprising numbers!! Those seeing great response and sales to airplay include: 91X, KTCL, KWOD. And a few of the Adult programmers stepping out and seeing great reaction include: KFMG, WMVY, KIOT, KTAO, WTTS, WDET!! So if you're sitting there saying to yourself, "Self, I'm seeing some interest in my market (sales, phones...), and I dig this record, and yeah, Brian's a familiar artist, but where so I put it?" Then I'd say - give a call to any of the above already successfully playing the single(s), I'm sure they'll help you out!! Of course, I'd recommend playing it in all dayparts, 3-4 times a day or so, but that's just me, I'm going to mourn the death of Next Gen now. Adios.

MARK "PSYCHO" ABRAMSON, ROADRUNNER RECORDS, 212-219-0077/207

As you read this, I will not be calling you or even thinking about you. I will be escaping the madness of the music industry for a spell (classy word for a week) down in the Virgin Islands (no virgin jokes please). Please do me a favor and don't return the favor. Please think of me, be jealous of me, even curse my name but don't forget me! When I come back we can discuss the beaches of St. John, the victorious comeback by the NY Rangers and whatever movie I dragged myself to recently... Oh, by the way, new adds on Type O include Z-rock national, WIYY, WDRZ, KZAK and hell, I love Greg and Brian so much that I'll keep including WXTB as a new station! What The Fuck Are You Waiting For!... P.S. All you Harder AOR people Really should check out Biohazard, it'll rock your world.

GREG DERBAS, PAVEMENT MUSIC, (708) 916-1155

Just one more week till the big bash in NY. The only problem is even though I know you all too well, I have no clue what half of you look like. I'm sure most of you have seen my hideous mug somewhere in the trades, so feel free to yank me aside... Then I can drill you on why you should add my Fear of God record "Toxic Voodoo" on June 20th... Onto touring news, Crowbar is heading to the west coast with Varga with a stop in Phoenix where the infamous Larry Mac at KZRX plans to get a barber's clip from none other than Kirk from Crowbar. We'll see... Unfortunately Stressball had to cancel their last week of dates with Genitorturers. Fortunately they will be able to pick up with her again starting June 8th in New Orleans... P.S. Add Fear of God, "Toxic Voodoo", June 20th.

CHUCK P. & JOHN PERRONE, CAROLINE RADIO

The future of music is coming your way next week, Future Sound Of London 'Lifeforms'. Get ready for a complete mind-trip. We promise that this will be a record like none you have ever heard before!... Peach is picking up new fans on the road. Their record 'Siesta is kickin'! They will be heading to Cleveland, St. Louis, Chicago, and Minneapolis the first week in June. Call for tix and interviews... Also out on the road in June is Mr. Head himself, Adrian Belew. Find out why the Crash Test Dummies, Nine Inch Nails, and David Byrne have worked with this musical icon. Check out 'Never Enough' and 'I See You' on his album 'Here'... Fudge will be tearing up the west coast in July in support of their second release, 'Southside Speedway'. Go and see one of the best live band out there... Seefeel is doing great! Good work on this one! Hopefully everyone will follow and realize that 'Quique' is not just a dance record. Look out for a remix for "Time To Find Me" done by Aphex Twin... RPM folks, and don't forget about Transformer 2 'Transformations' and V/A Barrumundi-An Introduction To a Cooler World... Hope to see ya in the NBA Finals! We regret to say that there will be no message from Chuck due to the fact that he is being beamed in front of his TV for the final episode of Star Trek: The Next Generation.

JILL & JEANIE, RED LIGHT RECORDS, 708-297-0KFU

First and foremost, Skatenigs will be touring Europe with Toot! Yippee! 24 dates in all starting at the Glastonbury Festival in Tipperary. (Where the hell Tipperary is I don't know, I was a communications major)... The Sarkoma tour has been great. Many thanks to Dave at KNON for the support in the Dallas area!... Gutted and Opressor are playing all over their home states with Gutted heading east in July and Opressor heading west to play the Milwaukee Metal Fest... Next up at bat we have The Pleasure Elite, then second releases from Cianide and Dave Uhrich and a new release from Delaware's own Solitude. So call me the minute you read this to let me know about summer hours so we don't miss you!... On a final note please play the shit out of the new Cyclone Temple My Friend Lonely CD. They are a fantastic band, genuine individuals and they deserve tons of support!

MARN HALPERN, ROADRUNNER RECORDS, 212-219-0077

Yes! Dog Eat Dog #1 most added. Look'n good people. Please concentrate on "No Fronts", "Think" and "Pull My Finger". They are currently over in Europe with Downset and Biohazard, and will be back in the states for a northeast club tour... Black Train Jack will be out with the Mighty Mighty Bosstones later this summer. Nailbomb is still strong on many stations, and I'm still trying to find out about interviews for those who missed the opportunity the first time around... We hope you caught Life Of Agony's intense new video for the new single "This Time" on Headbanger's this weekend. They will be hitting the road with Carcass this summer, so call for more info... The Sepultura, Pantera and Biohazard tour is coming soon to an arena near you! Everyone should be pounding out Sepultura's new single for "Slave New World" (since the tour is approaching), along with the live track for "Orgasmatron" and a hidden track of Dead Kennedy's "Drug Me" from the Alternative Tentacles compilation... Type O Negative and Motley Crue will be heading out together in June. Call me for the three new releases I have for you in July... Jay and Mike you better kick Jeff and Dean's butt at Sega this weekend!

JIM KOZLOWSKI, VICEROY MUSIC GROUP, 212-465-2357

Well, as I sit down to chronicle this week's events at Viceroy Music, my thoughts are muddled, mainly 'cuz as of today I'm less than three weeks from getting married to a wonderful lady who 1) loves music, 2) is a board engineer at WFAN 3) loves sports and 4) is a fabulous cook. OK, OK, so who cares? Well...I do... But anyway, to business - the groundswell of radio for Alvin Lee continues unabated, with KFMG and KSPN both reporting it as most requested this week, and Mick Abrahams' "Bloodwyn Pig" continuing to attract airplay on blues shows... And speaking of attracting, Sunset Heights' debut Texas Tea, has just been released in Germany and is already climbing the charts there to such an extent that the band has been tapped to do a short European tour running from June 3-23. The US release of Texas Tea is set for June 7, so get your ears ready for some hot blues 'n' rock. (After all, June 6th marks the 50th anniversary of the invasion of Normandy, so it's only appropriated that a new American/Allied juggernaut hits the shores and stores at that time.) And Sunset Heights are not alone... Robert Gordon's strong new title, All For the Love of Rock 'n' Roll, hits the stores also on June 7th, and he kicks off the first leg of a year-long tour in support of it on June 9th with NRBQ in Portland, ME, and continuing through Long Branch, NJ (6/11), Philadelphia (6/14), Stamford, CT (6/15), Boston (6/17) and Washington DC (6/21)... and in other news down the blues highway, look for a new Savoy Brown release titled Misery at the end of the summer, the debut from Robert Plant's guitarist Innes Sibun (tentatively titled Obsession) and the first recording from Naked Blue. Treasure & Pearl, both slated for summer releases... And finally, Ken Hensley's From Time To Time and Uriah Heep's The Lansdowne Tapes, the first releases on Viceroy Music's new imprint, Viceroy Vintage, should be out before the beginning of July... That's it from Viceroyland (home of the Blue Arnies) for this week. So until next time...be seeing you. Happy ears!

GINA GALL, ROUND THE GLOBE, 212-947-5575

Jumping right into things you will all be getting the latest release from New York's quirky, eclectic rock band Naked Sun entitled "Wonderdrug" on Omni Records. Check out the track on the latest CMJ and Concrete samplers. Also in the same package another band hailing from New York, Ten Wings on C'est Lo Mart Records; offering you female vocals reminiscent of Tonya (Belly), Kate (Babes in Toyland), Sinead (you know). The magic dates are 5/13-5/14. I'll be talking to ya!

BLAKE WILCOX, CONTINUUM RECORDS 908-709-0011

So how did your "Memorial Day 500" go?? "Stairway to Heaven" was #1 again this year, eh? You gotta love those "off" years when "Hey Jude" or "Won't Get Fooled Again" takes the top spot. Hey, I know. These all-time countdowns cement your heritage and beef up your cume. Wait a minute, now. What if you had a new classic that is current and fresh, but rock-solid in familiarity, both song and artist. Add a 60-date summer tour, and you've got to be dreaming... Try Daltrey Sings Townshend- "Pinball Wizard," recorded live at Carnegie Hall. You have it, so give it a listen NOW. After the first opening chord and the rise of the crowd..oh, man...it doesn't get much easier than this, especially knowing that the album is coming soon and features Pete Townshend, John Entwistle (who is joining Roger on the tour), Linda Perry, The Chieftains, and is produced exquisitely by Bob Ezrin (Pink Floyd, among others). Add "Pinball Wizard," welcome the show to your town, and crank the album all summer and beyond. Life is sweet. Liner-of-the-week: "Of all the stations in Boston...we're one of them - 107.3 WAAF."

MATT YOUNG, EARACHE, 212-343-9090

Well, this is it kids. The wacky piece of literature you are about to read is officially my last radio dialogue. I will be stepping up to fill the position of Promotion Manager vacated by the out going Dan Mitchell. Meg Macrae, formerly Earache Tour Promotion Director, will be in charge of radio and video as of June 1, 1994. Wayne Pghini, formerly of WSOU, is coming on board as Retail Promotions Manager. Congratulations to both of them. They'll do great! Call Meg with all your A.C. needs... Disgust kicks. Pitch Shifter might touch your monkey for a quarter. Thanks to everyone who helped me out along the way! God bless Earache. Call Meg 212-343-9090.

The PM Dawn mix of Beautiful People "If 60's Was 90's" is still looming in your face if you haven't dealt with it yet (WAQZ and KKNB are the most recent believers). Imagine how calm and cool your audience will feel as this tune wafts through the air of the summer night. Imagine how pleased you'll be that you got in on this in time for the season kickoff. Imagine how delighted I'll be when you beat the local CHR to the punch (of which there are 26 on...so far). Go for the spins - this is not a crap shoot.

JIM NELL, ERIC KAYSER, JENNI SPERANDEO, RHINO/FORWARD 310-441-6651

How can a well trained consumer (willingly doing their part to feed the GNP and the corporate agenda, oblivious to world hunger and anything more pressing than whether The Simpsons is a re-run) even trust their mom anymore when we're asked to buy CDs to upgrade our CDs. And speaking of social decay, how about the new 100 CD changer that has a programming limit of 32 tracks and won't even shuffle?! What's an early adopter to do?... Meanwhile, Rhino's ever ripening Forward label continues to bombard you with such good music that you can't even smell the commerce. NRBQ - Tip: Swab out your favorite caviar and pack this news in: NRBQ provoked sheer adoration at KFOG's outdoor festival in SF. 15,000 Bay area Q-Heads were launched clean into groove orbit. Who needs AI with Johnny "Get Loose" Spaminato riffing like a true Sicilian through the classics and debs alike... And what about that bastard of an album by Willy Deville? As Huck Finn said (more or less), "Put some sand in ya, ya dang wusses..." New Buster Poindexter should help put a crimp in any 12 stepper's progress and the stellar new Richie Havens is so honest you won't even believe it. Fuck art! Let's Fragment!

WINFRED JOHNSON, JUSTICE RECORDS, 713-525-4444

Don't forget to spin Tab Benoit's "Time and Time Again", Rock Radio and Adult Rock are falling in love with this guitar-singer from the delta and more are testifying every week. WCBR, KROK, WVVV, WGLF, WCKW. Give it a spin.

IM ALERT, 800-772-7640

Like the rock and roll lazarus, he truly is, Zip (Pinhead Poobah) has rebounded from the rigor of public execution only to be embroiled in yet another scandal. A federal court has ruled that the plucky Pinhead be subjected to a series of photographs of his very private parts, not unlike that "other" cultural icon, "Bubbles" Jackson. The photos will then be compared to the denial records of a number of high ranking entertainment industry executives, in an effort to determine conclusively - who's "Zoomin' who! Stay tuned to the "Baked - not fried" network - WMMS, WKLL, WKLC, WCIZ. And WKOJ for late breaking developments - Good luck pal - and as always, you're welcome!

Okay so now you all have my new telephone number... Well my records are in your face and they rule. The Dio and LoveHate tour kicked off over the weekend. They're coming towards you real soon. Both of these records are reigning the metal charts. So give up and jam to these records... Imperium is climbing the radio charts. Dig in it big time because you love this record... The full length of the Sarkoma is in your face this week. Dig on this record... The Skatenigs should be following in the mail this week... Add the For Love Not Lisa single Slip Slid Melting on the Crow soundtrack this week. We know this record will take off big time. The soundtrack is almost platinum, dude's almost a million. Mr. Pain from KMSA says just fucking do it... Coming this week is The Pleasure Elite for ads on June 6 & 7 1994... Well I'm outa' here, later.

"First of all, thanks to radio for believing and supporting Storyville's Bluest Eyes which continues to hold strong... Be looking for a new release from David Halley on dos. The album is called Stray Dog Talk, it was recorded in 1989 and released in Europe in 1990 with limited distribution in the U.S. This is the epitome of a perfect record for Triple A... Check it out! Jimmy Lafave's Highway Trance has another good week with new adds from KRVM and WCBE (into heavy!). Go back to this one and check out tracks 1,2,5,&7... By the time you read this, you'll have a new CD from Disappear Fear...look for it! Thanks guys!"

DENIS CONSTANTINE & JASON PARKER, CONSTANTINE CONSULTING, (303)440-5470

Whew! What a roller-coaster ride. You've read all the stuff about what's going on here in Colorado radio. This week's news is that Ginger Havlat, Music Director at 'BCO, has decided to leave the station after twelve years. I will miss hearing Ginger in the air everyday. Her shows are great, and her interviews are the best. My best to Ginger on her new path. As you can imagine, the very best from every corner of this industry are coming out of the closet to apply for the Program and Music Director positions at KBCO. This will be the first time in 'BCO's history that we've looked outside for a P.D... Besides the station changes, there have been a lot of c.d.'s to listen to...Nuevo Boogaloo (MCA), the new album from The Iguanas, is perfect for the start of summer. The laid-back Latin roots grooves will sound great on a sunny afternoon. I like "Loco," "Boom, Boom, Boom," "Angel," and "La Tentacion"... The master of cheesy island music, Jimmy Buffet, is back with the Coral Refer Band with an album produced by Russ Kunkel. Check out the title track, and "Everybody's Got a Cousin in Miami," both humorous tunes. My favorite on the album is "Vampires, Mummies and the Holy Ghost." Sounds like Little Feat meets Buffet... Nashville songwriter Bill Lloyd has released a pure pop album to rival anything Marshall Crenshaw ever gave us. Featuring Crenshaw both as a musician and co-songwriter, Set to Pop (ESD) is well crafted pop at its best—ringing guitars, fun melodies, and solid songwriting... Tab Benoit is back with a great new song called "Time and Time Again." Tab learned his licks from Buddy Guy, his idol, and is carrying on in Buddy's tradition of house rockin' blues. This track is a winner, with its upbeat tempo, nice groove, and stellar guitar work... The new album from Pete Droge, Necktie Second (American) arrived and blew me away. This is one talented 25 year old! Great songs, pure voice, uncluttered production—this is it, folks. This album is a format smash... Toad the Wet Sprocket's last album catapulted them into the limelight, and Dulcinea (Columbia) should prove to be a nice follow-up. Glen Phillips' voice is in fine form, especially on signature Toad tracks like "Something's Always Wrong," "Crowling," and the beautiful ethereal "Windmills." There's a lot of good music to play with on this album, from edgy alternative to semi-acoustic ballads... The British pop-meister, Lloyd Cole, is back for his second album without the Commotions. Bad Vibes (Ryko) is full of great songs, many of which you'd swear are T. Rex outtakes. The lead track is "Morning is Broken," a mid-tempo electric trip through Lloyd's mind... Booker T & the MG's new album, That's the Way It Should Be (Columbia), is out. "Mo' Greens" is a nice slow, dirty blues that is signature Booker T. right down to the Hammond B-3 flourishes. If "Crusin'" was too boppy for you, this one should work great... Okay, enough music talk, it's back to the computer to schedule another day's music...

Yabba-dabba-do. Sure, whatever...How psyched is John "Knickerbocker" Perrone? He's waited four frustrating years for this, call and congratulate him (like he actually played in the game or anything)... Thanks to Sivan for KMFDM show, En Esch was sporting a very attractive white, pleated skirt. Truly a man unafraid of fashion...Unafraid? So why petrified? Hope Factory. It's a one-man band, the guy makes records in his living room. That's real indie. No, I don't need a studio, a budget, other people, I'll do it myself, thanks anyway. The CD is in your mailbox, go get it. Play it... The Miss Alans are touring with Medicine 'til mid-June, Surgery are shimmering across the U.S. as well, call us if you're down with seeing the shows... Cher, Madonna, Prince, BOINGO. What do all these things have in common? They all have one-word names? (Actually, that's not true, Prince has that squiggly symbol-thing, now). Yes, BOINGO is INGO BOINGO, minus the INGO. It's 1994, they dropped INGO, got a problem with that? BOINGO highlights: "Hey!" (first single), "Spider", and the 16:00-minute, In-A-Gadda-Da-Vida epic, "Change"... Are you down with the GOATS? They reduced Philly's Khyber Pass, along with A.D., to smoldering rubble last week, I was floored. These guys are the real deal, Holyfield... When's the new BLACK MARKET FLOWERS coming out? Kerri? Bueller? Anyone? Anyone? Smile, y'all, it's a Doggy-Dogg world.

These all-time countdowns cement your heritage and beef up your cume. Wait a minute, now. What if you had a new classic that is current and fresh, but rock-solid in familiarity, both song and artist. Add a 60-date summer tour, and you've got to be dreaming... Try Daltrey Sings Townshend "Pinball Wizard," recorded live at Carnegie Hall. You have it, so give it a listen NOW. After the first opening chord and the rise of the crowd...oh, man...it doesn't get much easier than this, especially knowing that the album is coming soon and features Pete Townshend, John Entwistle (who is joining Roger on the tour), Linda Perry, The Chieftains, and is produced exquisitely by Bob Ezrin (Pink Floyd, among others). Add "Pinball Wizard," welcome the show to your town, and crank the album all summer and beyond. Life is sweet. Liner-of-the-week: "Of all the stations in Boston...we're one of them - 107.3 WAAF."

Well, this is it kids. The wacky piece of literature you are about to read is officially my last radio dialogue. I will be stepping up to fill the position of Promotion Manager vacated by the out going Dan Mitchell. Meg Macrae, formerly Earache Tour Promotion Director, will be in charge of radio and video as of June 1, 1994. Wayne Pghini, formerly of WSOU, is coming on board as Retail Promotions Manager. Congratulations to both of them. They'll do great! Call Meg with all your A.C. needs... Disgust kicks. Pitch Shifter might touch your monkey for a quarter. Thanks to everyone who helped me out along the way! God bless Earache. Call Meg 212-343-9090.

The PM Dawn mix of Beautiful People "If 60's Was 90's" is still looming in your face if you haven't dealt with it yet (WAQZ and KKNB are the most recent believers). Imagine how calm and cool your audience will feel as this tune wafts through the air of the summer night. Imagine how pleased you'll be that you got in on this in time for the season kickoff. Imagine how delighted I'll be when you beat the local CHR to the punch (of which there are 26 on...so far). Go for the spins - this is not a crap shoot.

How can a well trained consumer (willingly doing their part to feed the GNP and the corporate agenda, oblivious to world hunger and anything more pressing than whether The Simpsons is a re-run) even trust their mom anymore when we're asked to buy CDs to upgrade our CDs. And speaking of social decay, how about the new 100 CD changer that has a programming limit of 32 tracks and won't even shuffle?! What's an early adopter to do?... Meanwhile, Rhino's ever ripening Forward label continues to bombard you with such good music that you can't even smell the commerce. NRBQ - Tip: Swab out your favorite cavities and pack this news in: NRBQ provoked sheer adoration at KFOG's outdoor festival in SF. 15,000 Bay area Q-Heads were launched clean into groove orbit. Who needs AI with Johnny "Get Loose" Spaminato riffing like a true Sicilian through the classics and debs alike... And what about that bastard of an album by Willy Deville? As Huck Finn said (more or less), "Put some sand in ya, ya dang wusses..." New Buster Poindexter should help put a crimp in any 12 stepper's progress and the stellar new Richie Havens is so honest you won't even believe it. Fuck art! Let's Fragment!

WINFRED JOHNSON, JUSTICE RECORDS,

Don't forget to spin Tab Benoit's "Time and Time Again". Rock Radio and Adult Rock are falling in love with this guitar-singer from the delta and more are testifying every week. WCBR, KROK, WVVV, WGLF, WCKW. Give it a spin.

JM, ALERT, 800-772-7640

Like the rock and roll Lazarus, he truly is, Zip (Pinhead Poobah) has rebounded from the rigor of public execution only to be embroiled in yet another scandal. A federal court has ruled that the plucky Pinhead be subjected to a series of photographs of his very private parts, not unlike that "other" cultural icon, "Bubbles" Jackson. The photos will then be compared to the dental records of a number of high ranking entertainment industry executives, in an effort to determine conclusively - who's "Zoomin' who! Stay tuned to the "Baked - not fried" network - WMMS, WKLL, WKLC, WCIZ. And WKQJ for late breaking developments - Good luck pal - and as always, you're welcome!

MUNSEY ROCK, SKATEBOARD MARKETING LTD.

Okay so now you all have my new telephone number... Well my records are in your face and they rule. The Dio and LoveHate tour kicked off over the weekend. They're coming towards you real soon. Both of these records are reigning the metal charts. So give up and jam to these records... Imperium is climbing the radio charts. Dig in it big time because you love this record... The full length of the Sarkoma is in your face this week. Dig on this record... The Skatenigs should be following in the mail this week... Add the For Love Not Lisa single Slip Slid Melting on the Crow soundtrack this week. We know this record will take off big time. The soundtrack is almost platinum, dude's almost a million. Mr. Pain from KMSA says just fucking do it... Coming this week is The Pleasure Elite for ads on June 6 & 7 1994... Well I'm outa' here, later.

"First of all, thanks to radio for believing and supporting Storyville's Bluest Eyes which continues to hold strong... Be looking for a new release from David Halley on dos. The album is called Stray Dog Talk, it was recorded in 1989 and released in Europe in 1990 with limited distribution in the U.S. This is the epitome of a perfect record for Triple A... Check it out! Jimmy Lafave's Highway Trance has another good week with new adds from KRVM and WCBE (into heavy!). Go back to this one and check out tracks 1,2,5,&7... By the time you read this, you'll have a new CD from Disappear Fear...look for it! Thanks guys!"

DENNIS CONSTANTINE & JASON PARKER,
CONSTANTINE CONSULTING, (303)440-5470

Whew! What a roller-coaster ride. You've read all the stuff about what's going on here in Colorado radio. This week's news is that Ginger Havlat, Music Director at BCO, has decided to leave the station after twelve years. I will miss hearing Ginger in the air everyday. Her shows are great, and her interviews are the best. My best to Ginger on her new path. As you can imagine, the very best from every corner of this industry are coming out of the closet to apply for the Program and Music Director positions at KBCO. This will be the first time in BCO's history that we've looked outside for a P.D... Besides the station changes, there have been a lot of c.d.'s to listen to... Nuevo Boogaloo (MCA), the new album from The Iguanas, is perfect for the start of summer. The laid-back Latin roots grooves will sound great on a sunny afternoon. I like "Loco," "Boom, Boom, Boom," "Angel," and "La Tentacion"... The master of cheesy island music, Jimmy Buffet, is back with the Coral Refer Band with an album produced by Russ Kunkel. Check out the title track, and "Everybody's Got a Cousin in Miami," both humorous tunes. My favorite on the album is "Vampires, Mummies and the Holy Ghost." Sounds like Little Feat meets Buffet... Nashville songwriter Bill Lloyd has released a pure pop album to rival anything Marshall Crenshaw ever gave us. Featuring Crenshaw both as a musician and co-songwriter, Set to Pop (ESD) is well crafted pop at its best—ringing guitars, fun melodies, and solid song-writing... Tab Benoit is back with a great new song called "Time and Time Again." Tab learned his licks from Buddy Guy, his idol, and is carrying on in Buddy's tradition of house rockin' blues. This track is a winner, with its upbeat tempo, nice groove, and stellar guitar work... The new album from Pete Droge, Necktie Second (American) arrived and blew me away. This is one talented 25 year old! Great songs, pure voice, uncluttered production—this is it, folks. This album is a format smash... Toad the Wet Sprocket's last album catapulted them into the limelight, and Dulcinea (Columbia) should prove to be a nice follow-up. Glen Phillips' voice is in fine form, especially on signature Toad tracks like "Something's Always Wrong," "Crowing," and the beautiful ethereal "Windmills." There's a lot of good music to play with on this album, from edgy alternative to semi-acoustic ballads... The British pop-meister, Lloyd Cole, is back for his second album without the Communions. Bad Vibes (Rykco) is full of great songs, many of which you'd swear are T. Rex out-takes. The lead track is "Morning is Broken," a mid-tempo electric trip through Lloyd's mind... Booker T & the MG's new album, That's the Way It Should Be (Columbia), is out. "Mo' Greens" is a nice slow, dirty blues that is signature Booker T. right down to the Hammond B-3 flourishes. If "Crusin" was too boppy for you, this one should work great... Okay, enough music talk, it's back to the computer to schedule another day's music...

Yabba-dabba-do. Sure, whatever...How psyched is John "Knickerbocker" Perrone? He's waited four frustrating years for this, call and congratulate him (like he actually played in the game or anything)... Thanks to Sivan for KMFDM show, En Esch was sporting a very attractive white, pleated skirt. Truly a man unafraid of fashion...Unafraid? So why petrified? Hope Factory. It's a one-man band, the guy makes records in his living room. That's real indie. No, I don't need a studio, a budget, other people, I'll do it myself, thanks anyway. The CD is in your mailbox, go get it. Play it... The Miss Alans are touring with Medicine 'til mid-June, Surgery are shimmering across the U.S. as well, call us if you're down with seeing the shows... Cher, Madonna, Prince, BOINGO. What do all these things have in common? They all have one-word names? (Actually, that's not true, Prince has that squiggly symbol-thing, now). Yes, BOINGO is OINGO BOINGO, minus the DINGO. It's 1994, they dropped OINGO, got a problem with that? BOINGO highlights: "Hey!" (first single), "Spider", and the 16:00-minute, In-A-Gadda-Da-Vida epic, "Change"... Are you down with the GOATS? They reduced Philly's Khyber Pass, along with A.D., to smoldering rubble last week, I was flooded. These guys are the real deal, Holyfield... When's the new BLACK MARKET FLOWERS coming out? Kerri? Bueller? Anyone? Anyone? Smile, y'all, it's a Doggy-Dogg world.

His loving hands could not protect him enough. He must live with that. José Mercedes Sotz Caté and his son, José Estuardo Sotz Alvarez. In 1986, armed men, believed to be government agents, opened fire. Young José caught the bullets intended for his father, a Guatemalan trade union leader. At the age of three, he was left paralyzed from the waist down. At every turn, the senior José was denied adequate medical help for his son. Then friends of Amnesty International, and people like you, intervened. Not long ago, José again took his first halting steps.
