As tonical Lake Michigan breezes tempered the ferocity of mid-summer prairie heat, the Thirty-eighth Annual Convention of the American Federation of Musicians opened in the Red Lacquer Room of the Palmer House in Chicago, at 2:00 o'clock on the afternoon of Monday, June 19, 1933. Three hundred and twenty-three delegates, many accompanied by their families, came from all sections of the national domain. They came because of having been delegated for an official Federation purpose—reinforced by a desire to visit the Century of Progress Exposition, and to which goal of industrial and scientific pageantry remarkably attractive railway transportation rates made attendance possible.

Convention deliberations were given an inspiring prelude by the presentation of a fine program by the world-famed Chicago Symphony Orchestra, under the direction of Eric Delamarter, first assistant conductor. The musical program embraced the following five numbers:

Huldigung's March, by Wagner.

Dance Macabre, by Saint-Saens.

Waltz of the Flowers, by Tschalkowski.

Til Eulenspiegel, by Richard Strauss.

Marcia Sinfonica, by Maggio, composed in honor of and dedicated to President Joseph N. Weber.

An invocation which stressed the need of world harmony and recognized music as the offspring of Divinity was delivered by the Rev. R. Keene Ryan, pastor of the Garfield Boulevard Presbyterian Church.

President James C. Petrillo of Local No. 10 earnestly and cordially voiced the welcome in behalf of his home organization.

President John Fitzpatrick of the Chicago Federation of Labor reviewed the history of defeats and triumphs of organized labor in that community, and called attention to the vital and helpful relationship which Chicago musicians have ever maintained therewith.

One of the Vice-Presidents of the American Federation of Labor, in the person of Tom Rickert, head of the Garment Workers' International Union, helped swell the chorus of welcome and told of the deep interest which President William Green always manifests in the cause of union musicianship.

President Joseph N. Weber was given an ovation when he arose to respond to the words of welcome in behalf of the of all other pre-arrangements. Beginning with daybreak it blazed a pathway clear across the sky. At meridian it seemed to pause for quite an extended period while its beams danced and sparkled in dizzy fashion over the far-flung stretches of cement, sand and gravel pavement, and in imagination made the Sahara Desert seem like a place where cooling breezes cavort and purling streams gurgle and refresh.

Scientific rather than artistic advancement is the dominant note of the pending Chicago Exposition. It was quite inevitable that this should be so. Creative genius has received its inspiration and expended its efforts along the line of utilitarian development. How shall work be made easier? What kind of a machine may we invent as a substitute for man?

Chicago newspaper page, and in every Exposition Bulletin the glory of scientific achievement was being proclaimed, while music was relegated to a minor and insignificant place, if accorded any recognition at all.

We record these observations, not in a spirit of petulant criticism, but because of a firm conviction that in an exposition so pretentious, music was and is entitled to a commanding place on its intrinsic merits as one of the cultural forces of the world.

Every World's Fair hitherto held in the United States has featured great bands from both American cities and in Europe. If financial stringency made this impossible, Chicago, capable of providing some of the greatest bands and orchestras in the world, is right at the Exposition doors. They would have proven a dependable asset rather than a liability.

In the face of these educational defects we nevertheless advise every one who can possibly do so to visit the Century of Progress Exposition. It constitutes a liberal education along the lines it attempts to exploit. Do not try to do the job in one day. Eighty-three miles of walk are involved. When the first telegraphic message ever transmitted over a wire passed from Baltimore to Washington, the astonishment of one distinguished beholder was expressed in the words: "What hath God wrought!" If made incarnate in the flesh and brought back to earth and introduced to this scientific expositional display, what words would he find with which to express his wonderment?

THE CONVENTION WORK

American Federation musical administration could never ask for a more satisfying endorsement than was given by the Thirty-eighth Annual Convention.

Fifty-six resolutions were submitted. Of these, only twelve were adopted in their original form or as amended.

Eleven resolutions were referred to the International Executive Board.

The subject matter of four resolutions was disposed of in other measures, five were withdrawn, and twenty-four were defeated by vote on the floor.

For this record there can be but one interpretation: The careful groundwork laid during a third of a century of administrative effort, the successful building accomplished on the foundation thus laid, and present-day planning for the future met with convention approval.

When it came to the election a fine field of candidates was proposed—many of whom had never held Federation office but whose known capabilities made them worthy aspirants. The convention, however, refused to make any changes, and the new administration, like the old, will accept its newly-endorsed leadership as

NEW LAWS

BY reason of certain new laws and modifications of existing laws agreed to by the 1933 Convention, but referred to the International Executive Board for investigation as to their possible lawful enforcement, it is impossible to have the changes in these new laws and modifications of existing laws appear in the July issue of the International Musician, and, therefore, they will appear in the August issue.

The new laws and modifications of existing laws agreed to by Conventions which should go into effect on August 15th, will become effective on September 1, 1933. This order is issued in accordance with the provision contained in Section 1, Article I of the By-Laws of the American Federation of Musicians.

assembled delegates. He reviewed the trials of recent years, touched upon the signs of returning betterment, and promised that the American Federation of Musicians would in the future, as in the past, maintain a militant and aggressive front in behalf of improved living conditions and a brighter outlook for all members of the musical profession.

THE DAY AT THE EXPOSITION

The second day of convention week was marked by a surrender to the Local Entertainment Committee and, of course, the stellar attraction was the Century of Progress Exposition. By one of those perversions sometimes occurring in the realm of nature the sun felt called upon to give a demonstration quite independent

What may we accomplish in the matter of speed acceleration? Before the frenzied heat of these ambitions artistic culture is stifled, if not completely choked.

The truth of these observations is clearly evidenced within the Exposition walls. Music is shamefully neglected. On passing through the turnstiles the first musical greeting is a bombardment of radio ballyhoo in which the raucous detonations of the latest "popular" air are unsheathed from its funnel-shaped kennel. This, of course, is a scientific demonstration—but one which could be tolerated with easier grace if a higher type of music were available elsewhere in the broad acres of the Exposition grounds.

And so we found that from every Chi-

THE CHICAGO CONVENTION

a challenge and a summons to proceed in the future in the spirit of the past and in the light of events in a constantly unfolding world.

Many issues were subjected to animated and protracted discussion; but final adjournment was signalized by a remarkable demonstration of amity and good will.

The more detailed work of the Convention may be found in this or later issues of the International Musician—to the careful perusal of which we earnestly commend every member of the American Federation of Musicians.

CONVENTION BREVITIES

It is one of the long-established traditions that Chicago does everything in a big way. This spirit animates all her activities, permeates her organizations, pulsates in the lives of her citizens. Local No. 10 could not fail in the task she had undertaken and the culminating success should be to its membership a lasting satisfaction as it will be to the delegates and visitors a long-cherished memory.

The responsibility for local entertainment was placed primarily upon the shoulders of the following:

James C. Petrillo, President of Local No. 10.

Wm. C. Kowalski, General Chairman.

Frank E. Broz, Chairman, Committee of Finance.

Sylvester Kloss, Chairman, Committee on Program.

Henry D. Schiffzich, Chairman, Committee on Transportation.

Carl A. Baumann, David Katz and Edward A. Benkert, Committee on Reception.

Mrs. James C. Petrillo, Chairman; Mrs. Carl A. Baumann, Mrs. Frank A. Broz, Mrs. Wm. C. Kowalski, Mrs. Henry D. Schiffzich and Miss Marie M. Auer, Ladies' Reception and Entertainment Committee.

We shall not attempt a recital of their manifold activities. These will be carried in the hearts of all festal participants. The spirit of appreciation was displayed in the ovation tendered by the Convention as they were each one introduced to the delegates by Chairman William C. Kowalski.

An entertainment incidental which Convention visitors keenly appreciated was the fine list of orchestras appearing at various functions. For dance and banquet programs the following were heard: Bernis Cummins' Orchestra. Sylvester Kloss and His Sylvians. Hal Kemp's Orchestra. Harry Sornick's Orchestra. Richard Cole's Empire Room Palmer House Orchestra.

During a reception to the visiting ladies the Women's Symphony Orchestra of Chicago was heard in a splendid program under the direction of Ebba Lundstron. There were forty-four members of the orchestra present upon this particular occasion, while during the regular concert season the personnel is increased to ninety-five.

Speaking of the Chicago Symphony Orchestra, presented to the convention in felicitous phrase by Delegate Alfred Rackett of the Intermezzo, it was most pleasing to read in the Chicago press that financial difficulties have all been adjusted and that this great organization will function as usual for another season. Recent years have been perilous ones for high-grade musical organizations, but most of them now appear to be weathering the storm. Mr. Frederick Stock proved to be a great successor to the late Theodore Thomas. As an assistant conductor, Eric Delamarter, long and favorably known in Chicago musical circles, also seems well qualified to meet the exacting demands of his position.

For long distance mileage we believe that Delegate Robert Jackson of Local No. 325 of San Diego, Calif., has the distinction of heading the list.

Just before starting for the Convention, Delegate Leo Cluemann of Local 16, Newark, N. J., was appointed Secretary to the Director of Public Safety in that city.

The Memorial Hour is coming to be a regular feature of Convention deliberations, as the age of the Federation itself makes it inevitable that each year will reveal a larger number of members who have succumbed to the Grim Reaper's visitation. During the past year many had passed on who will be sorely missed for a good while to come. Upon this occasion the Ralph Ginsberg Orchestra, in appropriate numbers, and the beautiful vocal selections by Mrs. Fred W. Birnbach, carried to saddened hearts and minds and memories the healing touch of music.

Delegate Clair Meeder of Local No. 60, Pittsburgh, made a hurried trip home before Convention adjourned. The arrival of a fine baby boy he felt demanded his presence. The rumor that he took an aeroplane has not been fully verified.

One of the very eloquent and eagerly listened to addresses was that of Brother Daniel Tobin of Indianapolis. He is president of the International Teamsters' Organization, former national treasurer of the American Federation of Labor, and a leader with a large following in the trades union movement.

The first Federationist we saw upon arriving at Chicago was Charley Melber of Local No. 1, Cincinnati. He was on an extended visit to the Century of Progress Exposition and remained over for a visit with delegate acquaintances made during the years when he was a regular representative at national conventions. Forty years before he was with a band at the World's Fair of Chicago in 1893.

Who dare undertake to imagine the Progress another Century will make?

We can bear cheerful testimony to the safabrious effect of the Chicago lake breeze.

In order to see everything worth seeing at the Century of Progress Exposition involves a walking trip covering eighty-three miles, according to official estimate. This is quite some undertaking on a hot day.

Delegate James Kenney from Local No. 9 of Boston had just emerged from a five weeks' incarceration in a hospital as the result of contact with a truck which leaped from the street to the sidewalk in order to accomplish its ill-considered purpose. It was a close call and we are mighty glad that Jim shows every indication of a successful comeback—even though some of the scars are not yet obliterated.

All delegates were much interested in the new home and headquarters of the Chicago Federation of Musicians. It is a beautiful and commodious structure, involves an expenditure of one hundred and fifty thousand dollars, and was paid for in cash. It must be seen to be fully appreciated. It is located at 175 West Washington Street, where the old building gave place to the new.

The International Executive Board was in session eleven times before and after the regular convention session and every night but one while the Convention was in session. If there is anyone who feels the Board loafed on the job, will he please hold up his hand?

As no action was taken by the Convention, announcement of the time and place of the next National Convention will be made in due time.

Why is a thirty per cent law?

Well done, Chicago!

LABORGRAMS

The great question now is: Where do we go from here? And first we have to find out where "here" is.

There is one medicine for workers now—just one—and that is ORGANIZE!

Mr. J. P. Morgan and his merry men, they pay no income tax. But don't YOU try to dodge yours!

The great thing the government is now trying to do is to find out whether a market can be found for mass production after mass production.

General Hugh Johnson says a millionaire can't eat $45 worth of ham and eggs. But he can get Rolls Royces and private yachts, while wage-earners don't get any ham and eggs. We've found that out.

Prices are going up—once more faster than wages. The union that lets its wage scale fall now is going hell bent for suicide.

If men have got to get into unions, unions have got to make it possible.

The famous Baer once said he and his kind were God's trustees. The idea, it seems, is being greatly modified these days.

Morgan, Mitchell, Harriman, Insull—surely these were workers in the vineyard. And how their hearts ached for the common people.

OFFICIAL PROCEEDINGS

Of the Thirty-Eighth Annual Convention of the American Federation of Musicians

Opening Session

PALMER HOUSE, CHICAGO ILL.

June 19, 1933.

The opening of the Convention was preceded by a musical program rendered in a beautiful setting in the Red Lacquer Room of the hotel:

Huldigung's March, Wagner.
Dance Macabre, Saint-Saens.
Waltz of the Flowers, Tschaikowski.
Til Eulenspiegel, Richard Strauss.
Marcia Sinfonica, Maggio (dedicated to President Jos. N. Weber).

The Chicago Symphony Orchestra, under the direction of Eric Delamarter, the assistant conductor of the orchestra, gives a most masterful rendition of the musical welcome to the Convention.

The members and guests assembled in an appropriate manner expressed appreciation of a beautiful floral offering presented by the Gardeners' and Florists' Local No. 10615, of Chicago, Ill.

The Invocation was delivered by the Rev. R. Keene Ryan, pastor of the Garfield Boulevard Presbyterian Church and a member of the Division of Pardons and Pardoes of Illinois.

Bro. James C. Petrillo, President of Local No. 10, Chicago, Ill., the host of the Convention, is introduced by Bro. Alfred G. Rackett, and welcomes the Convention to Chicago in the name of the Local, assuring the members present and the guests of the Convention that all possible will be done to make their stay enjoyable and profitable.

Bro. John Fitzpatrick, President of the Chicago Federation of Labor is introduced and in the name of that body extends its part to the welcome accorded by the Local.

The speaker acknowledges the complete co-operation in every manner received from our Local No. 10 of this city. The representatives of our membership and their companions give a whole-hearted endorsement of the remarks and principles enunciated by Bro. Fitzpatrick.

Bro. Tom Rickert, President of the Garment Workers' International Union, and a Vice-President of the American Federation of Labor is introduced, and in the course of his remarks states that the American Federation of Musicians stands as high if not higher in the estimation of the officers of the American Federation of Labor than any other affiliated organization.

Bro. Petrillo presents President Jos. N. Weber, who expresses to all who participated in the welcome, the thanks of our organization and its representatives present. He briefly dwells on the plight of the musician along with all others in the impoverishment of the world at this time, and the efforts to bring about an amelioration of that condition, and touches on other subjects close to us in our efforts to safeguard the interests of those whom the Convention will represent.

The Convention is called into business session by President Weber at 3:55 P. M.

Roll call of delegates follows.

The following communications are read:

Washington, D. C., June 18, 1933.
 Joseph N. Weber, President,
 American Federation of Musicians,
 Palmer House, Chicago, Ill.

Please be assured that myself, along with all the officers and members of the American Federation of Labor, are deeply interested in the proceedings as well as the success of the Convention of the American Federation of Musicians now meeting in Chicago. I sincerely hope that the deliberations of your Convention may be influenced by sound judgment and wise counsel so that your great organization may continue to grow both in numerical strength and in expanding influence. In my opinion organized labor is standing at the threshold of a great forward organizing opportunity which I hope will encompass the unorganized workers of the nation and bring them into affiliation with the organized workers associated with the American Federation of Labor. We are confident that benefits from such an organizing campaign will apply to the American Federation of Musicians. I extend to the officers and delegates attending the Convention my personal felicitations and an expression of pride and satisfaction over the affiliation of your great International Union with the American Federation of Labor.

WILLIAM GREEN, President,
 American Federation of Labor.

Washington, D. C., June 15, 1933.
 Mr. Joseph N. Weber, President,
 American Federation of Musicians,

Dear Mr. Weber:
 I am writing to express my best wishes for a co-operative and effective Convention. Particularly would I be pleased if you would convey to all the gentlemen constituting it, many of whom I pleasantly know and in the welfare of whom I am deeply interested, my most cordial regards.

Hoping you, Mrs. Weber, all the members and their families attending the Convention will have an enjoyable occasion, I am,

Very cordially yours,
 S. T. ANSELL.

Marching Back to Work

LINES going back to work—visions of longer lines going back faster as the Recovery Act, including the construction program, takes hold.

That's the picture built by latest American Federation of Labor figures, which show 1,200,000 back in jobs since March 1st this year. In these figures, business has found more comfort than its own tables of rising activities.

The Federation, observing a gain in work through May as well as April, expresses the hope that real climbing is under way.

For the first time in many months unemployment has dropped below 13,000,000. Federation figures show it at 12,400,000 and GOING DOWN.

Attention, Wage-Earners and Salaried Workers!

DO you want higher wages, shorter hours, and improved conditions of employment, and are you willing to organize in order to secure these benefits?

The Government of the United States has established your legal right to organize!

No employer and no corporation can, without violating the law, interfere in the exercise of the workers' right to organize and to bargain collectively through representatives of their own choosing!

Here is the law. It was recently passed by Congress and signed by the President. Section 7 A of the National Industrial Recovery Act reads as follows:

"Sec. 7. (a) Every code of fair competition, agreement, and license approved, prescribed, or issued under this title shall contain the following conditions: (1) That employees shall have the right to organize and bargain collectively through representatives of their own choosing, and shall be free from the interference, restraint, or coercion of employers of labor, or their agents, in the designation of such representatives or in self-organization or in other concerted activities for the purpose of collective bargaining or other mutual aid or protection; (2) that no employee and no one seeking employment shall be required as a condition of employment to join any company union or to refrain from joining, organizing, or assisting a labor organization of his own choosing; and (3) that employers shall comply with the maximum hours of labor, minimum rates of pay, and other conditions of employment, approved or prescribed by the President."

For the first time in the history of the nation there has been written in a statute passed by the Congress of the United States a section according workers a legal right to organize and to be protected in the exercise of that right.

The question now is: Will the unorganized workers of the nation exercise this legal right to unite with their fellow workers for the purpose of securing higher wages, shorter hours, and improved conditions of employment?

The door of opportunity is open. Any corporation interfering with the exercise of the right of the workers to join a bona fide labor organization will be violating the law and subject itself to the penalties provided therein.

Sub-section B of Section 7 of the Act provides:

"(b) The President shall, so far as practicable, afford every opportunity to employers and employees in any trade or industry or subdivision thereof with respect to which the conditions referred to in clauses (1) and (2) of subsection (a) prevail, to establish by mutual agreement, the standards as to the maximum hours of labor, minimum rates of pay, and such other conditions of employment as may be necessary in such trade or industry or subdivision thereof to effectuate the policy of this title; and the standards established in such agreements, when approved by the President, shall have the same effect as a code of fair competition, approved by the President under subsection (a) of Section 3."

Here, in this subsection, collective bargaining is provided for. The President of the United States will, under the provisions of this subsection, "afford every opportunity to employers and employees in any trade or industry or subdivision thereof with respect to which the conditions referred to in clauses (1) and (2) of subsection (a) prevail, to establish by mutual agreement, the standards as to maximum hours of labor, minimum rates of pay, and such other conditions of employment as may be necessary in such trade or industry or subdivision thereof, to effectuate the policy of this title." In plain, simple language, this means that employers and employees will be accorded the fullest opportunity to negotiate wage scales and conditions of employment. In fact, a simple, sound interpretation of this section means that the government expects employers and employees to work out wage agreements through collective bargaining.

How can the workers of the nation do this unless they are organized? They must organize, as industry is organizing, if they are to receive the full benefits of the National Industrial Recovery Act.

Through organization, they may select men of their own choosing to represent them in working out industrial codes and agreements covering wages, hours and conditions of employment with their employers.

Never was such an opportunity presented the workers to organize, to bargain collectively and to be represented by men of their own choosing. Increased wages, shorter hours of work, and improved conditions of employment are bound to follow the application of the National Industrial Recovery Act to industry and to Labor. The amount of the increase in wages and the reduction in the hours of labor which working people may secure will depend very largely upon the action of the workers in organizing and in bargaining collectively through their own chosen representatives.

Subsection A of Section 7 provides, "that no employee and no one seeking employment shall be required as a condition of employment to join any company union or to refrain from joining, organizing, or assisting a labor organization of his own choosing."

In the light of this declaration adopted by the Congress of the United States and approved by the President, how can the workers of the nation identify themselves with company unions? Certainly such action would be inconsistent with the provisions of the law.

We warn the workers against company unions. Corporations are now engaged in an effort to develop company unions so that it can be made to appear that industrial codes and collective agreements have been negotiated between employers' and employees' organizations. Such action will be a violation of the spirit, if not of the letter of the Act. The company unions formed by employers are nothing more than company-controlled instrumentalities through which the corporation negotiates an industrial code and a collective agreement applicable to workers, with itself.

It is highly unfair and most reprehensible that employers of labor would organize for the purpose of fixing prices and thus enable themselves to enjoy fair profits, and, at the same time establish company unions, control workers, dominating the industrial codes and the wages and conditions of employment through their own owned and controlled company unions.

We appeal to the workers everywhere to join bona fide independent trade unions. Exercise your American right to organize under the provisions of the National Industrial Recovery Act. Have nothing whatever to do with company unions. Unite with your fellow workers in bona fide trade unions and through such organizations select men of your own choosing to represent you and to secure for you the maximum amount of benefits to which you are entitled under the provisions of the National Industrial Recovery Act.

The hour has arrived when Labor can be free; free to organize. Congress has established your legal right to organize. Workers everywhere should avail themselves of the opportunity thus presented.

The National Industrial Recovery Act will mean much to you and your families if you organize into bona fide trade unions. IT WILL MEAN LITTLE IF YOU FAIL TO DO SO.

In the name of Organized Labor I appeal to all classes of workers to act quickly, to organize immediately, to realize all the benefits and rights, to which you are entitled through organization under the provisions of the National Industrial Recovery Act.

The American Federation of Labor will assist you, will co-operate with you, and will make it possible for you to be identified with bona fide, independent trade unions affiliated with the American Federation of Labor.

Fraternally yours,

WILLIAM GREEN,

President, American Federation of Labor.

ATTEST:

FRANK MORRISON,

Secretary, American Federation of Labor.

Out Beyond the Surf

Where thought, unhastened by necessity or trepidation, sometimes penetrates to truth. Here, where the shallows throw no spray, let us ponder and enjoy the lessons of the art and the work and play of life.

These most assuredly are days of doings.

Not only has this generation a date with destiny, but it seems to have a date every day and every hour of every day.

Unless all observers who know how to observe are crazy with the heat, the United States is undergoing transformation.

If bloody revolution were in progress, the United States capital would be no more hectic than it is in the midst of this peaceful transformation.

Of course, it is too early to say that all the blue prints will turn themselves into nice new structures.

Maladministration can knock a lot of plans into cocked hats. That can happen, and we had best not overlook the possibility.

But the blue prints are there. And as amazing as anything else is the fact that the Congress of the United States has made, or approved, the blue prints.

The Congress that has enacted a whole series of revolutionary laws is composed of just about the same general type of men as any previous Congress. Many of the members are the same as were in the last Congress, and the one before that, when they didn't seem to have an idea in a carload.

But here, under new leadership, they have taken a program and banged the old stamp of approval down upon it with gusto, though perhaps not with any too much understanding.

Of course, the big fact behind that action is that the condition of affairs in the United States has become so acute that even a dullard could see that the nation had to get down to the task of finding and applying remedy.

So the gentlemen went through their paces and now they have gone home where they can stick out their chests and take a chance of keeping their shirt fronts clean.

The term New Deal is no misnomer. It's a new deal, for sure—if wrong men don't get into administrative places and gum the works. If they do, then we may have more serious times.

The present upturn in business and the piffling wage raises amount to nothing as indications of permanent remedy. They have been predicated upon expectations of inflation—nothing more.

So, we look to new banking laws, to the Railroad Consolidation Act, to the National Industrial Recovery Act and the rest of the deck of new cards. If those fail us we shall not win the game.

Labor itself has its job cut out. It must organize, and no fooling. If labor fails in its share of the job, then there will be either chaos or rival and dual unions all over the map. It is labor's great and grand opportunity. WE CAN HAVE A LABOR MOVEMENT OF TEN AND PERHAPS TWENTY MILLION WORKERS! LET'S DO IT—and so, help save America.—C. M. W.

Labor Queries

Questions and Answers on Labor: What It Has Done; Where It Stands on Problems of the Day; Its Aim and Program; Who's Who in the Ranks of the Organized Toilers.

Q.—Who is president of the International Allied Printing Trades Association?

A.—John B. Haggerty, who is also president of the International Brotherhood of Bookbinders.

Q.—Are the Marine and Navy bands still prohibited from broadcasting in competition with union musicians?

A.—No. The order of former Secretary of the Navy Adams prohibiting broadcasting by the two bands was revoked by Secretary Swanson recently.

Q.—What is the position of American labor regarding subsidies to shipping lines or shipbuilding?

A.—Labor has uniformly opposed subsidies of that type and has waged some notable and successful battles against them. Labor has regarded subsidies in the light of special privileges.

Q.—Do labor papers have an organization?

A.—They surely do. It is called the International Labor Press of America. Its president is Matthew Woll, its secretary-treasurer, R. E. Woodmansee, Box 15, Springfield, Ill. It holds conventions at the time and place of the annual American Federation of Labor convention.

MINUTES OF THE INTERNATIONAL EXECUTIVE BOARD

King Edward Hotel,

Toronto, Canada, January 4, 1933.

Mid-year meeting of the International Executive Board called to order by President Weber at 2:00 P. M. Present—Bagley, Brenton, Weaver, Hayden, Greenbaum, Jarrott, Petrillo and Kerngood.

The Board considers an appeal of Member Wm. E. Lossez from an action of Local 9, Boston, Mass., in allowing a claim against him in favor of Member Wm. Boyle. All of the documents in the case are read. On motion, the appeal is sustained.

A claim of Member E. D. Strout of Local 307, La Salle, Ill., against Manager O. R. Ross, Ingelsterre Ballroom, Peoria, Ill., for $109.00 alleged to be due him is laid before the Board and, after discussion, final decision is deferred until the contract governing the engagement has been secured and considered in connection with other documents in the case.

The Board considers a request from the Van Leeuwen Symphonette Orchestra of Cincinnati, Ohio, to be permitted to perform concert engagements in other jurisdictions on the co-operative plan. The Board holds that it is not feasible to grant such permission.

Case No. 889 of the 1931-1932 Docket is on motion reopened. The imposing of fine of $50.00 on Member B. Meroff is reaffirmed and fines of $10.00 each are imposed on Members M. Alderman, A. Arleaga, R. Bundy, F. Brown, F. Canfield, M. Druzinsky, R. Ehrhart, M. Goldstein, E. Graham, D. Lynch, L. Powell, M. Powell, B. Russell and E. Shonka.

An application for reinstatement from Ken Keller is considered and the President is directed to arrange for payments on the monthly instalment plan in line with the viewpoint of the Board.

A request to be removed from the National Unfair List is received from Paul Rabinowitz, and is on motion denied.

The Board considers a request from J. M. Roberts, member of Local 10, Chicago, Ill., for a reduction of fine of $100.00 imposed by Local 655, Miami, Fla., and sustained by the International Executive Board in Case No. 877 of the 1931-1932 Docket. On motion the request is denied.

An appeal for remission of fines imposed by Local 174, New Orleans, La., on members of Pickard's Chinese Syncopators is heard. On motion the appeal is denied, but the penalty is reduced to the imposing of reprimands.

The Board holds that claims from contracting members against employers for alleged breach of contracts must be accompanied by statements of individual loss sustained by themselves and members of the bands and orchestras and citing the names of members and locals to which they belong, and to whom all monies collected shall be forwarded by the International Treasurer.

Session adjourned at 6 P. M.

"Traveling musicians playing in a hotel, restaurant, inn or cafe in the jurisdiction of a local cannot either board or room, or both, at such hotel, restaurant, inn or cafe. This rule supercedes any local law concerning the same matter. Engagements in a hotel, restaurant, inn or cafe outside of the jurisdiction of a local in which the National law provides that same may be accepted with or without board and room are exempt from this rule."

The Committee recommends that the matter be left in the hands of the President. The Convention concurs in the recommendation.

Add to Article I of the By-Laws:

"The Executive Board may decide appeals and other matters coming before or submitted to it, without formal meeting or session of the Board. The concurrence of a majority of the Board members in a disposition of such appeal or other matters filed with the Secretary shall be deemed the decision of the Board as though made by the Board in formal or regular session."

The Committee recommends the adoption. Concurred in.

Change Article X, Section 2-C, to read:

"Orchestras or members cannot solicit nor accept a theatre season or any broadcasting engagement in another jurisdiction without the consent of the local in whose jurisdiction the theatre or broadcasting station is situated. However, if broadcasting engagements are played by traveling orchestras and the same number of local musicians are employed for the same engagement and during the same time that the traveling orchestra plays its engagement, then this rule does not apply."

A favorable report of the Committee is concurred in by the Convention.

Change Article X, Section 6, paragraph D, to read:

"Members who play for an individual, place, function, or with an organization of whatever kind or individual members thereof held and declared nationally unfair by the Federation, OR MEMBERS WHO PLAY IN AN ESTABLISHMENT DECLARED AS FORBIDDEN TERRITORY TO THEM BY THE FEDERATION, immediately suspend themselves from the Federation by such action and can only be reinstated under such conditions as may be imposed upon them by the "Executive Board of the Federation."

Change Article XI, Section 10, to read:

"In the event of the imposing of a fine against a member by a local or his expulsion from membership or allowing a claim against him, or in the case of any other judgment whatsoever for violation of local or national laws, the International Executive Board of the American Federation of Musicians shall have the right to either reject, sustain or modify the findings of the local and its decision shall be binding upon the local and members until such time that same may be otherwise ordered by a Convention in such cases wherein the laws of the Federation provide for appeal to the Convention."

A favorable report is concurred in by the Convention.

President Weber resumes the Chair.

RESOLUTION No. 1

Whereas, The commercial enterprise of broadcasting, although still in its infancy, is sufficiently developed to permanently employ at adequate wages many of our best musicians without whom the enterprise could not successfully function, and

Whereas, Due to methods of manipulations, orchestras are being employed in key stations, where chain programs classified as Commercial and Sustaining, either through studio or remote control, are booked up at nominal charge or reciprocal agreements, and

Whereas, The hookup process causes the elimination of the professional musician available in the many jurisdictions where broadcasting stations require musical services, thereby causing unfair competition, and

Whereas, Legislation by the Federal Government is essential for the general protection of our members that should prevent the evident exploitation, as well as the menace of unfair competition, that causes the abandoning of this all important field of activity to a few large cities to the detriment of many musicians throughout the jurisdiction of the A. F. of M., and

Whereas, The required Federal legislation has not been forthcoming (even though our National officers, through their legal representative at Washington, have constantly made presentations for suitable legislation that has fallen upon deaf ears), and

Whereas, The present government, through the National Industrial Recovery Act, has shown the tendency to bring about a square deal and that, therefore, the time is now opportune for militant presentations of our grievances, therefore, be it

Resolved, That in order to bring to the attention of the sympathetic government and the people of the United States our plight, the various jurisdictions who fail in their negotiations for the consummation of proper working agreements may place such station upon the unfair list, and upon application to the National office, the National officers shall declare the implicated station nationally unfair, and shall also declare unfair such stations who persist after notification to feed the local unfair station, and be it further

Resolved, That any feeding station employing nonunion feeding orchestra be acclaimed unfair nationally. Any hookup station receiving services from nonunion unfair feeding station shall also be acclaimed unfair by the A. F. of M.

ADOLPH HIRSCHBERG,
FRANK S. WATSON,
Local 77.

The Committee reports favorably with the recommendation that the first part of the "Resolved" be changed to read:

Resolved, That in order to bring to the attention of the sympathetic government and the people of the United States and Canada our plight, the various jurisdictions who fail in their negotiations for the consummation of proper working agreements, when such agreements have approval of the Federation, may place such station upon the unfair list, and upon application to the National office, the National officers shall declare the implicated station nationally unfair, and shall also declare unfair such stations who persist after notification to feed the local unfair station,

Moved and seconded to concur in the recommendation of the Committee.

President Weber makes an explanation to the Convention.

The question is discussed by delegate Hirschberg. President Weber replies to the speaker. Further discussion by Executive Officer Hayden.

Delegate Hirschberg moves to amend the resolution to read:

Resolved, That in order to bring to the attention of the sympathetic government and the people of the United States our plight, the various jurisdictions who fail in their negotiations for the consummation of proper working agreements may place such station upon the unfair list, and upon application to the National office, the National officers shall wherever possible declare the implicated station nationally unfair, and shall also declare unfair such stations who persist after notification to feed the local unfair station, and be it further

Resolved, That any feeding station employing non-union feeding orchestra and any hookup station receiving services from non-union unfair feeding station shall also be acclaimed unfair wherever possible by the A. F. of M.

Discussed by delegates Cella, Campbell, Gillette and Woeckner.

Amendment to the amendment is offered to refer to President's office.

Resolved, That the salaries of all of the national officers and executive officers, with the exception of the Secretary's and Treasurer's, be reduced materially, and that all officers of the American Federation of Musicians be requested to exercise the strictest economy.

RESOLUTION No. 49

Whereas, Members of our Federation and their dependents during the past few years have endured many hardships and privations, owing to the loss of their positions and to the diminution in patronage of entertainments wherein music plays a prominent part, and to the diminution in patronage of entertainment wherein music plays an important part, and

Whereas, Locals have lost very considerably in membership, and are finding it increasingly difficult to pay the national per capita tax and to meet current expenses, and

Whereas, The finances of the Federation reflect this unfavorable situation, be it therefore

Resolved, That Article I of the By-Laws, page 20, lines 7 and 8, be amended to read: "Fifteen Thousand Dollars ($15,000.00), and that lines 9, 10 and 11 of the same article and page, be amended to read: "And in addition thereto, a contingent expense account of two thousand five hundred dollars ($2,500.00)," and that the President be required to submit an itemized account of the expenditure of this fund, and be it further

Resolved, That the salaries of the assistants to the President, the Secretary, and the combined salaries of the Treasurer, as Treasurer of the American Federation of Musicians and of the Theatre Defense Fund, be reduced twenty per cent (20%), and be it further

Resolved, That the salaries of the Vice-President and the members of the International Executive Board or Executive Committee be reduced ten per cent (10%), and be it further

Resolved, That the salaries of the clerical force in the offices of the President, the Treasurer, and the Secretary be reduced ten per cent (10%).

RAYMOND L. WRITEMAN, E. HERMAN MAGNUSON, Local 134.

RESOLUTION No. 50

Whereas, During the past four years the average total musicians' payroll affiliated with the A. F. of M. has been cut in half and we still anticipate the scale paid to shrink to lower levels, and

Whereas, The President of the A. F. of M. in his annual report in 1932 referred to a thirty thousand decrease in membership, and

Whereas, Delegates of the A. F. of M. have been in the past too liberal in increasing salaries and creating new offices, adding financial burdens upon the members, who, due to the general collapse of the economic structure are called upon to make sacrifices which should be shared by the highly paid officials of the A. F. of M, therefore, be it

Resolved, That a drastic reduction be made in all salaries paid to the officials of the A. F. of M.

The report of the Committee is unfavorable to the resolutions.

Moved and seconded to concur in the report of the Committee.

Discussed by Delegates Berry and Steeper.

The report of the Committee, which is unfavorable to the resolutions, is concurred in by the Convention.

On motion the time limit of debate is limited to five minutes.

The Committee on Law continues its report:

RESOLUTION No. 32

Whereas, Our National Government, as well as the Governments of every State, County and City in the United States of America, has successfully started a campaign of sweeping economy in every department by eliminating and abolishing many offices, or at least reducing substantially the number of employees and reducing the salaries of all employees to a reasonable amount to conform with present conditions, and

Whereas, We consider that it is the duty of the American Federation of Labor and of all its affiliated branches to stand by our Government, States, Counties and Cities, loyally and unselfishly in their attempts to reduce the enormous and uncalled-for expenses, and last, but not least, reduce very materially the unbearable tax burdens through which hundreds of thousands of laboring men have lost their homes, for the paying and maintenance of which they have worked hard during a whole lifetime and who are now facing destitution and eventually the poor house, therefore, be it

Resolved, That, in order to lighten the burden of the rank and file of our own organization, the American Federation of Musicians, by reducing the number of delegates to the annual Convention of the American Federation of Labor to three (3) and to instruct these three delegates to do all in their power to bring about a proportionate reduction of the number of delegates of the other bodies affiliated with the American Federation of Labor, thereby saving many thousands of dollars in per diem, traveling and hotel expenses, also reducing the number of Vice-Presidents of the American Federation of Labor to only one (1). The U. S. A., which you will perhaps concede is just a bit bigger in every respect than the American Federation of Labor, gets along very nicely with only one Vice-President. The rest of Vice-Presidents over and above the one suggested, are not necessary; it is only more or less an honorary office, but still it costs the A. F. of L. quite a bit of money to maintain the luxury of additional Vice-Presidents, and be it further

Resolved, That for the very same reasons as set forth in the above resolution in regards to the A. F. of L., the number of elective executive officers of our own organization be reduced to three (3) members, two (2) of them for the United States of America and one (1) for the Dominion of Canada, be it further

Resolved, That our International President shall, whenever it becomes necessary to send a representative, he should be appointed from as near the seat of trouble as possible, in order to keep down expenses to a minimum. The International President could surely find some intelligent member in any local who could handle most all of the controversies between locals or individual members thereof or their employers.

All of which is most respectfully submitted.

ALBERT GEHRING, BARNIE G. YOUNG,

Local 203.
