Creative Community Honors Writers, Artists

On the eve of "Country Music's Biggest Night," performing rights societies ASCAP and BMI held their annual awards galas, and the industry turned out in force to celebrate. Though the scheduling was met with displeasure by many in the publishing community, the coinciding dinners may have set a record for most awards presentations per minute.

At the Opryland Hotel & Resort, ASCAP's 42nd annual Country Music Awards honored Songwriters of the Year Chris DuBois and Neil Thrasher. DuBois won for his hits "19 Somethin'," "I Love You This Much" and "Little Moments," while Thrasher earned his award with "I Melt," "There Goes My Life" and "Wrinkles."

ASCAP's Songwriter/Artist of the Year was Brad Paisley for "Celebrity" and "Little Moments." The Country Song of the Year award went to Jim "Moose" Brown for "It's Five O'Clock Somewhere." EMI Music Publishing was named Publisher of the Year.

The evening's highlight was the presentation of ASCAP's Founders Award to Emmylou Harris, who performed with original members of her Hot Band, including James Burton, Rodney Crowell, Hank DeVito, Emory Gordy Jr., Glen D. Hardin and John Ware.

Billy Bob's Texas received ASCAP's Partners In Music Award, which is presented to a licensee who furthers the reach of country music. Dierks Bentley, Rivers Rutherford and Mark Wills were among the night's performers. ASCAP President/Chairman Marilyn Bergman, CEO John LoFrumento and Sr. VP Connie Bradley co-hosted the festivities.

Only hours away from their simultaneous launch of greatest hits projects, Toby Keith and Shania Twain were big winners at the 2004 BMI Country Awards held at the PRO's Music Row office building.

"Forever and for Always" earned Twain the 36th Robert J. Burton Award for Most Performed Country Song of the Year. Casey Beathard was named Country Songwriter of the Year for "Drinkin' Bone," "Hot Mama," "The Love Song," "No Shoes, No Shirt, No Problems" and "Walk a Little Straighter."

Keith was recognized as Country Songwriter/Artist of the Year for his multi-week No. 1s "American Soldier," "Beer for My Horses" and "I Love This Bar." Sony/ATV Music Publishing earned Country Publisher of the Year with 18 titles on the year's most performed ranking.

BMI President/CEO Del Bryant led Kris Kristofferson and Randy Owen in a tribute to President Emeritus Frances Preston, who was recognized with the President's Award.

113 Country reporters. Songs ranked by total points for the airplay week of 10/31-11/6. Bullets appear on songs gaining points and/or plays or remaining flat from previous week. If two songs are tied in total points, the song with the larger increase in points is placed first. Songs below No. 1 and down in points and plays for three consecutive weeks are moved to recurrent. Most Added is the total number of new adds officially reported to R&R by each reporting station. Songs unreported as adds do not count toward overall total stations playing a song. Most Increased Points lists the songs with the greatest week-to-week increases in total points. Station Weight = AQH Persons + (Market rank X 10) divided by 4180. Total Audience equals Average Quarter Hour Persons times number of plays (times 100). Each daypart on each station is assigned an AQH number.
