YOUR ANNUAL REPORT FROM RECORD WORLD

As we go into the 1970s, let's take a long, hard look at the record industry and where it's going.

It actually takes very little unemotional analysis to recognize that our industry is poised for a period of growth over the next decade which will far surpass anything that has come before. Having topped the billion dollar mark in the 1960s, there's no doubt that the record industry will achieve the 2 billion dollar mark in the early '70s.

INCALCULABLE GRIP

The grip that recorded music, in any form or configuration it takes, now has on people all over the world is almost incalculable. For the first time in history, music has become more than a source of entertainment; it is now a means of communication to whole segments of our society who aren't being reached any other way. Think of the significance of that. Without losing its traditional appeal to people of all ages who love to hear music, a whole new group of listeners has been reached. They are into an appreciation of music and lyrics that goes beyond aesthetics and into life-style. The vistas this opens to all of us for the future are certainly the most exciting ever.

Today we see advertising agencies, television networks, motion picture producers, government agencies, the majority of AM and FM radio stations and people of every age and interest in countries all over the world vitally concerned with the record industry. We are what's happening.

AUDIO-VISUAL AGE

Technically, we are about to enter an era that staggers the imagination. There will be new and more sophisticated configurations. The advent, within the next couple of years, of the video-cartridge fulfills the prediction of McLuhan of an audio-visual age.

Certainly this means a greater degree of responsibility than we have ever before faced. It also means that we will have to concern ourselves with all of these "publics" as they concern themselves with us.

NO 'LUXURY ITEM'

But most of all it means that we are no longer just a "luxury item." We are a part of the growing-up, the maturing and the pattern of living in today's world. We have ascended to a plateau of mass appeal occupied by virtually none of the arts in all of the long history of show business. That is what makes the vistas of the future the most exciting ever.

Sincerely,

Bob Austin & Sid Barnes

We've got it all.

MOR, Hard rock, C&W, Pop, Classical, Spoken...it takes all kinds to make a major record company. Certron has the best of other labels and the best of the undiscovered talent.

We're doing something other record companies don't do.

We have our own distribution points... for distributors, rack jobbers, and one-stops. Eight regions... four of them with Regional Service Centers. Each with their own sales, distribution, promotion, and shipping departments.

Watch us move our product. And your product, too.

We've got it together.

We're very big on tapes...and getting bigger. Certron's Custom Duplication Service will take a master...re-master or duplicate it...and put it on cartridges or cassettes. Then we'll distribute it (if you want) under the Certron label...or your own label.

A picture of The Memphis Sound.

The Memphis Sound includes everything that's happening now. Music that comes from where a person really lives. The translation of honest gut emotions into music. Most of all, real music—with an honesty that communicates real feelings to real people. That's Soul, Brother. And you can't talk about soul without talking about the Stax Memphis Sound.

The Memphis Sound: Soul Music, an energy with a message that has no regard for political preference, ethnic background or ideologies. Check it out . . . It's the real thing from Memphis,

U.S.A., where everything is everything.

The Year Of The Butterfly

*Half-remembered image
Nearly vanished thought
The vision of a butterfly
A dream within is caught
Up, and suspended...free.
No longer an eerie echo
However brief...a reality.*

Years, and some changes at Warner/Reprise

Mo Ostin Once a conservative CPA-type specializing in recordings by Sinatra-Martin & Co., he's now Warner/Reprise's president. He also is rumored secretly to have burned his once extensive collection of Nehru shirts.

Ian Ralfini A slender English lad who discarded the once-seemingly-inevitable bowler hat for fetching sideburns and the spectacularly successful (and only a year old) Warner Bros. Records of England, Ltd.

Joe Smith In a former incarnation, Joe was Boston's top-forty DJ king slamming it to the kids over WBZ. He's come along, and now rates as Exec. VP for the company. A just reward for co-existing five years with The Grateful Dead.

Clyde Bakkemo Earlier, Clyde was an L.A. promo man in a shiny sharkskin, touting our Connie Stevens singles. Since, he's become Assistant General Manager for the Warner Bros. label. And more relaxed.

Hal Halverstadt Once a cherubic opera fanatic and editor of a New York magazine aimed at pot throwers, Hal now heads our merchandising forces, and has forsaken Callas for Miss Mercy of The GTO's.

Joel Friedman Marketing VP for Warners now, and handsomely ruffled o'er his collar, Friedman in earlier days lived in a modest tract home in the San Fernando Valley. Now he refers to Phil Ochs as something of a right-winger.

Ed Thrasher Years back, Ed was doing all those smiling Jackie Gleason-Al Martino covers for Capitol. Since the revolution, our shaggy Art Director seems more at home with Arlo Guthrie and Neil Young. He's even beginning to resemble them.

Don Schmitzerle A while back, Don was our on-the-streets promo guy in Detroit, swilling rum-and-cokes with the Motor City's influenceable DJs. Well, Don just came back from vacation with a face full of hair, the better to resemble his job as Assistant General Manager for Reprise.

Ed West When sideburns started lengthening in the office of our erstwhile Treasurer, the Harry Fox auditors started looking a little more nervous. No matter. He'll always be Honest Ed to us.

Ron Saul In high school, our National Promo Man had stylishly crew cut locks, and danced a lot to Chubby Checker records. Lately, his hair has blossomed into handsome loops under the stimulus of such shaggies as Norman Greenbaum and The Fugs.

Phil Rose Our international veep, Rose came to Burbank from Canada, where his super-straight reputation had once made him matinee idol of his college drama society. He currently is active explaining Frank Zappa to our South America licensees.

Stan Cornyn Often referred to in the past as "Prof" by the teenage girls he assaulted, Creative Services veep sprouted shaggy after an early trip to Golden Gate Park, where he learned that academics is not everything. He then took up writing saucy ads and wearing breath-takingly tight pants.

Keeping up with the times is not all hair. Totally hairless, the men at Warner/Reprise would still be ahead of the game. It is for that reason that their record labels are in many circles referred to as THE GOLD DUST TWINS.

A black and white photograph of Buck Owens singing into a vintage microphone. He is wearing a dark suit jacket, a white shirt, and a dark tie. The lighting is dramatic, highlighting his face and the microphone against a dark background.

Buck Owens Lives Every Word

Why Is BUCK OWENS Such A Great Artist?

Of Course, His Unique Singing Style,
His Showmanship And His Stage Personality

Are All Part Of The Answer. But What Really Sets BUCK OWENS Apart From Other Artists Is His Infinite Talent To Live Every Word He Sings.

No more censorship in Denmark. (Or in Sweden, Spain, Venezuela.)

Now, CBS Denmark, Spain, Venezuela and Sweden are CBS subsidiaries.

This means that we can solve our own problems. And, in general, be as dynamic a manufacturing and marketing force in these countries as we are at home. (And that's pretty dynamic.)

If you're plagued by red tape, dull minds, or even censorship, come on over to the CBS International Network.

Now in Denmark, Sweden, Spain and Venezuela as well as the usual places.*
