HITS OF THE WEEK

SINGLES

NEIL YOUNG AND GRAHAM NASH, "WAR SONG" (Silver Fiddle, BMI). In the tradition of "Ohio," Young has written an angry reply to the renewed bombing of North Vietnam. In addition to its obvious social significance, it's the best Young has sounded in some time. Reprise 1099.

PAUL SIMON, "DUNCAN" (Charing Cross, BMI). Third single to be released from the "Paul Simon" album is slightly more subdued than the first two. A song-saga that should score as did "The Boxer." Columbia 45638.

THE OSMONDS, "HOLD HER TIGHT" (Kolob, BMI). The very hottest bunch in the business have written, produced, played and sung a hard rock number here, but one which preserves their patented harmonies as well. More gold without doubt. MGM 14405.

JOE SIMON, "POWER OF LOVE" (Assorted/Gaucho/Belinda, BMI). Soulman's distinctive voice is put to appropriate use on a number he co-wrote with Kenny Gamble and Leon Huff. Headed for "Drowning In The Sea Of Love"-type action. Spring 128 (Polydor).

SLEEPERS

JULIE BUDD, "SEE YOU IN SEPTEMBER" (Vibar, ASCAP). Spirited rendition of the Sid Wayne-Sherman Edwards standard that last hit for the Happenings in 1966. Songstress is already a veteran at the tender age of 18, and seems ready for her first hit. RCA 74-0741.

GERALDINE HUNT, "BABY, I NEED YOUR LOVING" (Jobete, ASCAP). Reprise of the Holland-Dozier-Holland Four Tops classic is as across-the-board in appeal as they come. Sounds like a smash! Roulette 7129.

BRINSLEY SCHWARZ, "NIGHTINGALE" (Wellchart, ASCAP). Fine British group have never gained the recognition they deserve on these shores. This lilting ballad is a perfect wedding of music and lyrics. Watch it move. United Artists 50915.

PETER COFIELD, "WHAT EXACTLY IS A FRIEND" (Fade Smeads, BMI). New singer-writer enters a crowded field, but comes off much better than most with a new perspective on the trendy "friends" theme. Thought-provoking and musically fine. Metro-media 248.

ALBUMS

"SIMON AND GARFUNKEL'S GREATEST HITS." The long-awaited album actually does contain the best of what these contemporary pop giants gave to a generation. Four live tracks include "For Emily, Whenever I May Find Her," "Feelin' Groovy," "Homeward Bound" and "Kathy's Song." Columbia KC 31350.

JACKIE DeSHANNON, "JACKIE." Gifted stylist's first album for the label is, without doubt, the best she's ever done. All material is carefully selected with tunes borrowed from John Prine, Neil Young, Steve Goodman, Van Morrison, to name a few. Jackie's own songs are stunning compositions too. Atlantic SD 7231.

"TWO SIDES OF LAURA LEE." It's hard to sit still when Laura Lee hits the turntable. She excites the nerves with nine cuts, all of them potential hit singles. "Rip Off," "Workin' and Lovin' Together," and "When A Man Loves A Woman" are the classiest components of what will be a big seller. Hot Wax HA 714 (Buddah).

ENGLAND DAN & JOHN FORD COLEY, "FABLES." Does one song make an album? Hardly, but in this case "Free The People" should gather enough ears to make these extraordinary artists happen. Some of the finest session men play, and Louie Shelton does an outstanding job as producer/musician. A&M SP 4350.

Court Upholds Copyright Law

■ NEW YORK—A three-judge Federal Court in Washington, D. C., dealt record and tape pirates a staggering blow by dismissing a suit challenging the constitutionality of the law enacted last year (PL92-140) that granted copyright protection to sound recordings against unauthorized duplication.

The Court rejected the claims of the plaintiff, Ronald Shaab, that sound recordings do not qualify as writings that may be constitutionally copyrighted, that the statute is vague, and that it failed to provide for a compulsory licensing of recordings in the same manner as it provides for compulsory licensing of musical compositions. This, said the plaintiff, discriminates against someone like himself whose musical works are subject to compulsory licensing.

The defendants in the action were the U. S. Attorney General and the Librarian of Congress, the officials charged, respectively, with enforcing the criminal provisions of the Copyright Act and administering the Copyright Office. RIAA was granted permission by the Court to intervene as an interested party in defense of the new statute.

The Court held that although sound recordings were unknown and unanticipated when the copyright clause of the Constitution was framed, the clause "must be interpreted broadly to provide protection for this method of fixing creative works in original form." Recording firms that provide the equipment and originate the diverse talents of arrangers, performers and technicians, satisfy the requirements of authorship

Partridge Family—'Stickball' Mix-up

By JOHN GIBSON

■ HOLLYWOOD—The unlikely mistake of the year occurred last week when approximately 1200 copies of the new Partridge Family (Bell) single, "Breaking Up Is Hard To Do," went out to stations across the country accidentally defective. The defect was that the Partridge Family labels were on the wrong records. And the wrong record was "Stickball," Tony Bruno's pornographic-nostalgic record.

"Stickball" is a music business oddity, and has sold in excess of 60,000 records on its own. It has been Tower Record's hottest single for a couple weeks (Tower was even playing it on the p.a. in the store), and with no airplay whatsoever, it nevertheless is shaping up as a big record.

Tony Bruno and Gus Savalas, who own "Stickball," say it started out as a joke "Xmas Card" by Bruno. They got extra exposure at Bell's expense last week with the pressing plant error.

In addition, Warner's responsibilities will include artist relations and publicity/press relations, coordinating them with promotion. According to Toller-Bond, this new assignment has been made in an effort to strengthen the London promotion network and to enable the company to better serve the needs of the artists as well as the product.

Motown Headquarters In L.A.; Will Phase Out Detroit Operation

■ LOS ANGELES — Motown Record Corporation is phasing out its operation in Detroit effective immediately, ending a more than 10 years residence, and is establishing its worldwide headquarters in Los Angeles where its expanding activities in the entertainment world can better reach its full potential, according to the company's new Vice President and General Manager, Amos Wilder.

"It's just simply a matter of sound business judgment, economics and logistics which dictates this development," Wilder said.

He pointed out that the creative center of the entertainment world is on the West Coast and this is exactly the reason why practically every major recording company has relocated there.

"Our expansion into motion pictures, as well as establishing new labels such as Mowest, make it mandatory for us to make the move at this time," Wilder said.

The executive pointed out that it was not economically feasible for Motown to maintain its full staff in Detroit while developing a major operation in Los Angeles, because of inevitable duplication of functions.

Clyde McPhatter Dies; Original Drifter Was 41

■ BRONX, N.Y. — Clyde McPhatter died of an apparent heart attack here last week (13). He was 41.

In 1953, McPhatter founded the original Drifters, with whom he recorded such early rock & roll classics as "Honey Love" and "Money Honey" for Atlantic Records. He began his professional singing career as a member of King Records' Billy Ward & the Dominoes in the early 1950s.

After a mid-decade Army hitch, McPhatter returned to the recording field as a solo artist in 1956, again on Atlantic. His biggest hits during this period were "Treasure Of Love" and "A Lover's Question"; in 1962, he made a comeback with the top 10 side "Lover Please," for Mercury.

McPhatter, in recent years, made his home in Teaneck, New Jersey.

NARM Outlines Anti-Piracy Drive

■ BALA CYNWYD, PA.—Announcement of the NARM program to combat bootleg and counterfeit tapes and records was made at the first meeting of the Regional Chairmen of the NARM Anti-Piracy Committee, which was held at Chicago's Regency Hyatt House on June 6.

Under the aegis of NARM's nine regional chairmen, close to 1000 shoppers are being retained by NARM. These shoppers will cover the nation's retail outlets and report on bootleg product being handled at the retail level. Shoppers will cover all types of outlets, including independent music stores, department and discount stores, truck stops, service stations, and any other place where bootleg tapes and records are sold. The army of shoppers will give the music industry an unprecedented investigatory force throughout the 50 states.

The second prong of the double-barrelled attack will be the concentrated effort to instigate state anti-piracy legislation. Only 10 states have such legislation, and in the states where it exists, legitimate wholesalers and retailers have an additional valuable tool with which to fight bootleggers. The 10 states with legislation are Arkansas, Arizona, California, Florida, New York, Pennsylvania, Tennessee, Virginia, Texas and Washington.

Within the next two weeks, NARM's nine regional chairmen will meet with the members of their committees, and state chairmen will be appointed, to actively pursue legislation. Charles B. Ruttenberg, of NARM's law firm Arent, Fox, Kintner, Plotkin and Kahn, has drawn up a model state statute and a set of guidelines to be used when approaching state legislators to instigate anti-piracy legislation. This material is available to other members of the industry who are interested in joining the fight for state legislation.

In making the announcement to the industry of the new NARM programs, Jules Malamud, its Executive Director, stated, "NARM is the only organization within the music industry which is so uniquely suited to doing the kind of grass roots job throughout the nation. The manpower of the manufacturing and publishing segments of our business are concentrated mainly in New York and Los Angeles. In NARM, we

"The Eagles 'Take It Easy' is simply the best sounding rock single to come out so far this year."

Bud Scoppa, Rolling Stone

Berrie Leadon, Randy Meisner, Don Henley and Glenn Frey are Eagles. Four veterans of the L.A. country-rock scene who play the cleanest, tightest, most life-affirming music around today.

Their debut album has prompted Rolling Stone reviewer Eric Scoppa to comment, "they'll stand proudly right next to the best recordings of the Byrds, the Buffalo Springfield, Burrito Bros. and the other premiere Los Angeles groups."

Their debut single, "Take It Easy," has received chart comments like these: 46* Billboard, 23* Cashbox and 37* Record World.

Eagles. A breath of fresh air on Asylum Records and Tapes.

Grass Roots Re-Up With ABC/Dunhill

■ LOS ANGELES—ABC/Dunhill President Jay Lasker has announced the renewal of recording contracts between the Grass Roots and the label. This celebrates the seventh year the Grass Roots have been associated with ABC/Dunhill, an association that has made the group one of the most consistently high-selling groups in the industry.

Over the past seven years, the Grass Roots have continued to hit the charts with million-sellers, among them are tunes like "Sooner or Later," "Two Divided By Love," "Glory Bound," "Temptation Eyes" and "Let's Live For Today."

Chart-making producer, Steve Barri, who has produced the Grass Roots from the beginning, has announced he will now have the added assistance of group members Warren Entner and Rob Grill involved in production.

'Fiddler' Sets Broadway Long-Run Record

■ NEW YORK — "Fiddler on the Roof" last Saturday (17) became the longest running show in Broadway history, and at the same time RCA Records announced that its original cast album of the show not only has become one of the all-time best-selling Broadway albums but also continues to be a best seller after seven years.

Worldwide, the original cast album has sold more than two million copies, and it was the first show album to sell more than 200,000 copies on tape since it was the big Broadway smash when Stereo 8 cartridge tapes were introduced.

In this country, Americans have paid more than $10 million at the retail level to own copies of the album, and today, "Fiddler on the Roof" ranks second to "Hair" as RCA Records' all-time best-selling Broadway show.

AGAC Salutes Harnick, Bock

■ NEW YORK—The council of the American Guild of Authors and Composers, at its regular meeting held June 13, passed a special resolution congratulating and commending with the highest praise its members Sheldon Harnick and Jerry Bock upon the occasion of "Fiddler On The Roof" becoming the longest running production of any kind in Broadway history.

■ HOLLYWOOD — RCA Records, here, has been cited for its approach and positive application in the hiring of California's returning veterans.

S&G: Instant Gold

■ NEW YORK—Columbia Records has asked that the RIAA certify "Simon and Garfunkel's Greatest Hits" album gold upon release. Columbia has received advance orders in excess of 600,000 units which more than qualifies the album for instant gold status.

The certification of "Simon and Garfunkel's Greatest Hits" will make the seventh gold album for Paul Simon and Art Garfunkel who have seen every album they have recorded turn gold: "Parsely, Sage, Rosemary & Thyme," "Sounds of Silence," "Bookends," "The Graduate," "Wednesday Morning, 3 A.M.," "Mrs. Robinson," "Cecelia" and "Bridge Over Troubled Water" were gold albums for Simon and Garfunkel. In addition, Paul Simon's album, "Paul Simon," was certified gold by RIAA in March.

More Osmonds Gold

■ LOS ANGELES — The Osmonds (MGM) have collected their eleventh gold record, for the album "Phase III," to push farther ahead as the greatest producers of million-selling product in a one-year period. They set the record a month ago, when they hit the 10 mark to surpass the Beatles, whose nine until then was the high for a 12-month span. Elvis Presley ranks third with eight.

"Phase III" is the artists' fourth album to be certified as a million-seller by the Record Industry Association of America (RIAA). A new one, "The Osmonds 'Live'" is scheduled for release this month, as well as a new Osmonds single.

Recent releases by Donny Osmond, the album "Portrait of Donny" and the "Too Young" single, are nearing qualification for gold.

Together with the forthcoming releases, it's possible that the Osmonds may score 15 gold singles and albums before the one-year period concludes.

Video Vis-A-Vis The Record Business

By DANNY GOLDBERG

■ Danny Goldberg was most recently Director of Publicity for Famous Music Corp. He is a widely-published journalist, having appeared in Rolling Stone, Hit Parader, and other music publications; the former Editor of Circus and Music Editor of Record World, he has also worked for Albert Grossman in music publishing. Goldberg is now affiliated with Video White Light, the first video group to specialize in tapes of musicians.

Many friends and acquaintances in the music business have asked me with bewilderment why I've left a good job with one of the fastest growing record companies in the business, to devote my time to video. Most people have read or heard about "video tomorrowland," where cable TV replaces magazines, where pay TV lets a man see anything he desires in his own home, where two-way cable lets him shop and bank via TV, where videocassettes and not records are what he buys to play over and over.

But both CBS and RCA have scrapped their video plans after having made a big fanfare a couple of years ago and spending millions in between. What is happening? When is it happening? And what does it all have to do with the music business?

Everything in this article is about video today and its uses in the music business today. Despite all of the futuristic platitudes, not enough has been written about the immediate value of video and cable TV to the music business. The video revolution consists of two facts:

1—Cable TV will reach a peak because of recent FCC rule changes. Cable means that the consumer has up to 40 channels on his TV set instead of the present 3 to 7. Cable TV is highly localized. Over 500 cable franchises have extra channels available today and the means to transmit extra programs. The only thing missing are programs. The potential audience today for such programs is 12 million people . . . not a bad test market. These figures are for the United States and Canada. Presently there are 2000 other operating cable franchises in these two countries and all of them will eventually transmit extra programs. In addition to that, there are applications for another 1500 cable franchises pending.

2— $\frac{1}{2}$ inch videotape equipment, which was developed in the late 1960s, makes it possible to produce professionally acceptable programs for about one-tenth what it costs to produce them using 16 mm film.

The result of these two breakthroughs is that starting now, TV is becoming a medium of specialized interest programming, while up until now, it had been strictly a general interest one. The music business epitomizes a specialized interest industry and the use it can make of video should be obvious.

Cable TV is a great means to expose artists to those 12 million people. What record company knows positively how to sell albums—especially those by a new artist? The elements of album promotion, radio and print advertising, outside PR agencies, support of tours which includes all or part of transportation and equipment costs, and press parties, posters, window display and independent promotion men, are very costly. It's too expensive to give this kind of support to every album released. TV exposure through cable is not only one of the most effective ways of exposing artists, but one of the most inexpensive.

Cable TV programs will be like magazines: after the record company picks up the basic production expenses either directly or in the form of advertising, the exposure costs nothing. Furthermore, in addition to the direct TV exposure, they get what amounts to a free ad, paid for by the local cable franchise, placed in the local newspaper. With proper follow-up, a review of the program and thus the artist, another press clipping will be added to the artist's folder. This can be very potent in impressing distributors, rack jobbers, radio stations, and stores.

It can also impress local promoters who may reinforce the whole process by booking the artist in concert in the area. An artist on tour frequently has off-nights, especially inexperienced performers, but videotape will capture him at his best and he will never have a bad gig.

Cable TV won't be able to create a hit anymore than airplay or advertising can—but it can reveal a hit. Everyone knows that some albums sell millions without a hit single while others sell poorly in spite of a hit single. How to control album sales is a problem that even the giants haven't licked, and cable TV can be a valuable tool. Giving an artist a fair chance without risking too much money is a headache that this too can help cure.

How much money is spent on press parties alone? For a rock group, equipment and PA systems are always a problem. For any artist, nervousness can always hurt. The same videotape that is shown on cable, can be shown at parties, meetings or conventions; it can be shown not just in a couple of major cities, but in every market with the only extra cost the postage of mailing the tape.

International sales are a problem for any artist who doesn't tour overseas. TV stations around the world are very receptive to American music shows, especially if they cost little or nothing. TV exposure will do wonders for international sales, and if the artist does want to tour, TV exposure will certainly help bookings. Once again, the investment required is small enough so that every good album can get a chance to sell rather than a company having to gamble a lot on one or two products while staving off angry phone calls from managers of the other acts.

Even singles sales can be helped by cable TV, especially during a record's fragile "pick hit" stage. Since cable is so local, a tape of the artist can be programmed parallel to airplay and the result will certainly help to get records into stores, phone calls to the radio station, and store reports to the trades.

Agents can use video and cable TV to impress promoters and get bookings; managers can use videotape to show the artist what he looks like on stage, so that he can improve his visual presentation. A videotape recorder and monitor cost the same as a good stereo system. Think of the time a&r departments can save when managers bring them tapes of their group performing, rather than insisting that the guy go out to some remote club at midnight. Music publishers are rightly nervous about royalties from cable TV play, but after the legal dust clears, the fact that cable is a major new way of presenting music and it will make money for everyone involved.

The power of TV in selling records cuts across all stylistic boundaries. Glen Campbell, Johnny Cash and Tom Jones all reached sales peaks while on TV; the Monkees, Bobby Sherman and David Cassidy were TV creations. The Beatles were presented to America on the Jack Paar and Ed Sullivan shows. "Shindig" and "Hullabaloo" helped the Rolling Stones and other groups immensely, and in its heyday. "American Bandstand" could make a hit record. The list is endless—could Ed Ames, Flip Wilson, Lily Tomlin, Bill Cosby, Jim Nabors, the Archies, Leonard Bernstein, Vladimir Horowitz have sold records without TV? Until now, cable TV, like top 40 radio has been very restricted. Cable TV, it has been suggested, is FM TV. The only difference is that far more money is invested in cable than ever was in FM radio.

The music business changes very fast—not only the music itself, but the ways of selling it. The last 10 year have seen the rise and fall of FM radio, underground newspapers, teen magazines, folk and jazz clubs, rock ballrooms and rock festivals as major ways to sell albums. Some of these still have some effect on sales. Record companies, producers and managers who knew how to use these tools have millions of dollars today.

Those who use videotape and cable TV to their advantage will be the leaders of the next few years. The music business, more than any other American industry, has benefited from the social changes of the last 10 years. Using video and cable today as a merchandising tool for records, and using records as a lead-in for videocassettes, the music industry can remain at the center of modern culture—with all of the glamour and the profits that such status entails.

MICKEY NEWBURY—Elektra 45789

REMEMBER THE GOOD (Acutt-Rose, BMI)

Country-pop singer-writer has here what may be the "Help Me Make It Through The Night" of 1972. Destined for dozens of cover versions, and what better way to hear it first than by its author?

MICHAEL ALLEN—Lion 120 (MGM)

Fine singer tackles a new Sedaka-Greenfield song with gusto. Allen has been on the verge of stardom for a couple of years, and this may do it for him.

ARTHUR CONLEY—Capricorn 0006 (WB)

"Sweet Soul Music" man has incorporated the "Shaft" sound and, with his voice sounding as good as ever, has himself a winner. Reminiscent of the Faces' "Stay With Me."

THE DILLARDS—Anthem 51010 (United Artists)

Mellow, sensuous sounds from a promising male vocal group. Has what it takes to cut across MOR-pop-soul boundaries.

JOAN BAEZ—A&M 1362

IN THE QUIET MORNING (Almo/Chandos, ASCAP)

Song written in memory of the late Janis Joplin by Joan's sister, Mimi Farina, is performed sensitively. Truly moving.

BOBBY SHERMAN—Metromedia 249

I DON'T BELIEVE IN MAGIC (Famous, ASCAP)

An answer to the Lovin' Spoonful's signature song? In any event, it's a solid pop performance, and spells chart return for Bobby.

ARTIE KORNFIELD—

Neighborhood 4206 (Famous)

ISLAND SONG (G.V.V.K./Two People, BMI)
FEEL (G.V.V.K./Two People, BMI)

Whether reggae is a full-fledged trend or not, there are a lot of records of that style in and on the air. This is one of the best and most commercial.

PAUL ANKA—Buddah 314

Thoughtful, reflective song that shows another side of the superstar's nature while remaining a tuneful piece of pop music. Nice job.

ENNIO MORRICONE & HIS ORCHESTRA—

United Artists 50917

DUCK YOU SUCKER (United Artists, ASCAP)

JUDY COLLINS—Elektra 45791

SOMEDAY SOON (Witmark, ASCAP)

ELLEN McILWAIN—Polydor 14131

CAN'T FIND MY WAY HOME (Irving, BMI)

Tremendously talented vocalist-guitarist makes a great Stevie Winwood song her own, as anyone who listens will discover. Hopefully, many will.

JUDEE SILL—Asylum 11002 (Atlantic)

RIDGE RIVER (April-Blackwood, BMI)

Unusual song takes some getting used to, but it's well worth it. Ms. Sill is certainly a talent to reckon with.

THE STEVE KARMEN ORCHESTRA & SINGERS—

Audio Fidelity 179

EVERYBODY LIKES IT (Sandlee, ASCAP)

Crisp, catchy cola commercial could click as an MOR-pop novelty, if given a chance. Without the mention of the product, lyric takes on more suggestive overtones.

He ain't underground anymore.

Sometimes an artist goes "underground." Sometimes an artist has a small, fanatical following. Sometimes an act comes into a club or appears at a college campus. The word goes out on the street—he's in town. Go see him. That's the way it's been for Randy Burns: a few kind words here, an ecstatic review there. Beautiful. Sensitive. Mellow rock. Great songwriter. Great singer. Slowly, the word gets around. Listen. No more whispering, people, Randy Burns is up front with his first Polydor album, and we're gonna shout about the album a lot. Discover the mellow world of Randy Burns.

EVERYTHING YOU ALWAYS WANTED TO KNOW ABOUT THE GODFATHER

THE CRAZY GANG—Columbia KC 31608
It had to happen. Hilarious tribute to 1972's king of swing. Great routines featuring Chuck McCann in a perfect Brando-like impersonation of big daddy. Steve Landesberg almost steals the show in a multitude of roles. Needless to say, album should sell like gangbusters.

FIDDLER ON THE ROCK

DON "SUGAR CANE" HARRIS—MPS/BASF 20878

German label's first American release is sure to turn some heads. Sugar Cane, the brilliant violinist has been a jazz/pop favorite for a long time, but proper recognition somehow slips by. Harris is beautifully aided here by Harvey Mandel, Larry Taylor and Paul Lagos, one fantastic drummer.

LEON WARE

United Artists UAS-5582

The well known writer has finally made his first album, and it's as good as it was cracked out to be. Naturally, all songs are penned wholly or in part by Ware, and needless to say, they're all r&b naturals. Check out "The Spirit Never Dies" and "Mr. Evolution." A first class effort.

JOHNNY LEE

JOHN LEE HOOKER—

Greene Bottle GBS 3130 (Famous)

This collection was too much to ask for. Ancient Hooker, and it's as good as any Hooker we've ever heard. All selections written with Bernie Besman who did a monumental job of producing and bringing the recording up-to-date. All these ingenious musical thoughts began in the late 1940s.

UPENDO NI PAMOJA

THE RAMSEY LEWIS TRIO—

Columbia KC 31096

Love is together is the meaning, and music is together is the feeling. The Lewis trio will once again crossover from jazz to pop. Tight album through and through, due in no small measure to the abilities of Ramsey, Cleveland Eaton and Morris Jennings. Style is soft, easy and darn good.

JOHN HURLEY DELIVERS ONE MORE HALLELUJAH

Bell 6075

Mr. Hurley does get it on. He shows complete versatility with a smashing array of songs, all of them written with keyboard leader Ronnie Wilkins. Expert production by Rick Jarrard, and great stuff like "Salvation Lady," "The Family," "Lullabies Of Jesus." Check out the whole thing.

PRESERVE WILDLIFE

MAMA LION—Family FPS 2702 (Famous)

Neil Merryweather and Lynn Carey are continually knocking at those golden doors of pop stardom. Maybe this time they'll get to walk on through. Album is already receiving substantial FM airplay. "Ain't Too Proud To Beg" and "Wildcat" the straight out best. Wish you were a cub? Suffer.

BIG BAMBU

CHEECH & CHONG—

Ode SP 77014 (A&M)

Cheech & Chong's brand of street humor has been turning them on all over the country. And there's much humor there, if you can get by the constant repetition of trendy cliches. Some of the bits are outrageous, the best being the "television medley" and "The Continuing Adventures of Pedro & Man."

BEGINNINGS

RICK SPRINGFIELD—Capitol SMAS-11047

Get ready ladies. Australia's Rick Springfield is about to become your new heart-throb. He writes all tunes. Excellent acoustic work enriched by full production. Rick will be a giant here with songs like "Speak To The Sky" and "What Would The Children Think." Magazines will love his face.

SYREETA

MoWest MW113L (Motown)

Syreeta Wright to some, Mrs. Stevie Wonder to others, has a unique vocal style almost like a mature child reaching out to be heard. Stevie makes his presence felt through production, writing and gifted instrumentation. All songs demand your attention. Simply, a beautiful album.

NATURALLY

THE ROCK FLOWERS—

Wheel WLS-1002 (RCA)

Even the Rock Flowers aren't immune to personnel changes. Exit Rindy. Enter Jacquie. Their music, as was the case last time, exhibits a high degree of 1972 commerciality. Strong production by Wes Farrell outdoes prior effort. "See No Evil," the new single. But then, the album is filled with singles.

HOME GROWN

BOOKER T. & PRISCILLA—A&M SP 4351

The musical husband and wife team gave us a brilliant album last year, something for everyone. This album is strange in that the vocals seem like they were recorded in another room. Some real interesting cuts in "Born Under A Bad Sign," "Maggie's Farm" and "Who Killed Cock Robin?" Listen.

IF AN ANGEL CAME TO SEE YOU, WOULD YOU MAKE HER FEEL AT HOME?

BLACK OAK ARKANSAS—Atco SD 7008

When this group retreats to the hills to make new music, they usually return with something worthwhile, this effort being no exception. Their fans will be pleased with cuts like "Fertile Woman," "Our Minds Eye" and "Our Eyes Are On You." Leader Jim Dandy to the rescue. A score.

KOSSOFF-KIRKE-TETSU-RABBIT

Island SMAS-9320 (Capitol)

As far as we know, this isn't really a group at all, especially since Kossoff and Kirke have just completed a tour with Free. However, they seem to be experts at the art of hard driving rock. Even softer tracks like "Anna" are totally worthwhile. Good future if they get it together.

He will be responsible for developing sales and marketing programs for the three-studio complex, a division of Hormel Enterprises, owned by Geordie Hormel.

He will be working in the Los Angeles area with record, film and TV production firms whose needs are for sophisticated equipment.

Jazz-Blues Emphasis

The executive will zero in on the jazz and blues musicians since the studio complex is designed to present an informal, casual, home-like work environment. "That's why our client list includes Sly and the Family Stone, Delaney and Bonnie, Canned Heat, Alice Coltrane, Harvey Mandel, B. B. King and Stevie Wonder."

The King In New York

■ NEW YORK — POW-POW. POW-POW-POW. A blitz of mini-cubes flash from cameras that don't focus, don't adjust, often just don't work, but blind the eyes of those who wait for Elvis Presley to turn toward them. One feels naked without an Instamatic, and screaming, for the most part, is outré. The cultural event of many good people's lives is being turned into a souvenir before it has even begun.

And for those who are afraid that their snapshots will not come out, taken as they are from a distance some dozens of yards from the Madison Square Garden stage, that, bathed in the most exotic flavors of blue, orange, green, and pink light, is a pedestal for Elvis, the Sweet Inspirations, a rockabilly band, and an orchestra—there are special posters, programs, and binoculars. Elvis Presley, who does not seem to make films any more, has "come out" to perform in the flesh before thousands who know only his two-dimensional image as it flickered on large screens and small.

Only a few months before, Elvis had played Philadelphia's Spectrum, where the p.a. and the dismal airplane hanger atmosphere of the room had put a damper on his kaleidoscopic-

Meet The Press

The afternoon preceding the first of his record breaking four-concert engagement at New York's Madison Square Garden, Elvis Presley, above, fielded questions at a press conference convened at the Hilton Hotel. His favorite among his recordings? "It's Now Or Never." Yes, he is looking for a good, straight-acting movie script. No, he doesn't use greasy kid stuff anymore.

ally diverse set of tunes. In the Garden, his voice is strong and clear, as he opens with "That's All Right Mama," an acoustic guitar slung across his chest, a reminder of rocking and rolling in days gone by. He sings nothing but the hits, his own and those he has remodelled to suit his sense of musical extravagance, countered by an aw-shucks attitude toward his own awesomeness. "All Shook Up" and "Hound Dog" mix with the "Impossible Dream" and "Teddy Bear," held together by Elvis' unspoken assumption that somehow all of this material is right for him. The biggest numbers are the best. "Never Been to Spain" is a worthy successor to Elvis' "Bridge Over Troubled Water," while "Suspicious Minds" and "You've Lost That Loving Feeling" are powerful on a scale that only Presley and a few Phil Spector groups have mastered. "American Trilogy" and "For the Good Times" close the show, and faster than a speeding bullet, "Elvis is out of the building."

It will take his 20,000 fans somewhat longer to file out, as they stop to purchase poster after poster, admire each other's hot pants, permanents, and wives. There is a liberal sprinkling of hippy types, who leave the Garden laughing and smiling, notably camera-less, because who needs to remember history while it is still happening. Keep a-rockin'.

Stones Rolling—And Rocking

■ LOS ANGELES — Compared to the last tour of the United States, the Stones did, this one is progressing with a surprising smoothness. The last time the Stones did a two show day at the Forum they were over fashionably late, leaving a full crowd for the second show standing outside for hours. This time late arrivers might have found the Stones show already on, perhaps even over. Bill Graham is running tight shows.

Yet there is a price for this smoothness, and the inside of the hall, even while the group is on, is tense, anxious. Stevie Wonder played to a distracted crowd, one that milled, one that seemed to be paying little or no attention to him. Plainly, they were waiting for the Stones. Tickets had come hard, expectancy had been raised to fever pitch on the radio and in the papers (Robert Hilburn covered the first dates of the Stones concert here in the Times, for days, radio stations held "ticket exchanges," ticket auctions, and ticket give-aways, as they are doing everywhere now.) Strangely enough though, when Wonder finished his set, he got a standing ovation.

The stage was quickly made ready for the Stones. A huge scrim was lowered onto the stage. It was painted as a dragon, a day-glo green and red parody. The Stones bounded onstage, and Jagger made his entrance ripping through the tongue of the dragon. Guess who went wild?

They came on a little after 9:00 and went off at 10:30, and did 16 songs, counting the encore. They did songs from their more recent albums for the most part, and got the biggest, most intense reaction from the "Let It Bleed" material, "Gimme Shelter," "Love in Vain," "Midnight Rambler," and "Let it Bleed." "Jumpin' Jack Flash" is also a biggie. The encore number is "Honky Tonk Woman," a short version. The newest material was not as familiar to the crowd. "Sweet Virginia" though, stood out.

There are a lot of factors that lend excitement to the whole thing: the size of the crowd, the freewheeling (and free) publicity, the lighting, the sound system, but if you listened to this band alone in a cow pasture in the dark, it'd be much the same. This is a great rock & roll band. They have a finesse with power, an absurd grace, and they're entertaining first and through all the madness.

Jagger minces, prances, flops, and runs through the show. He disrobes partially, which is standard procedure, he exhorts the crowd, he gives them their money's worth even if they were gouged by scalpers. The music is superb, Nicky Hopkins is largely invincible, but plays flawless piano. Jim Price and Bobby Keyes got raggedy a couple of times, but overall were big pluses. Keith Richard is the only one other than Jagger that bops for the crowd, and they love it.

A measure of the tenseness in the Forum was the kind of breathless "uh oh" that ran through the crowd when, three different times, cherry bombs went off in the rafters. The Stones, on stage, didn't seem to notice, but the smoke drifting near the ceiling was painfully ominous for others, especially people from Atlantic Records. Security (checking bags and pockets at the doors) will probably be tightened on the rest of the tour.

Stones Row

■ SAN DIEGO — Police here ran into a little trouble outside the San Diego Arena as the Rolling Stones performed inside. A police spokesman said, "we had rocks thrown, bottles thrown, property damage to the Arena, we had damage to private vehicles in the parking lot, nine officers injured, one with a broken arm, and 60 arrests made."

Police speculated that the trouble might have started with people who had been sold counterfeit tickets, but they also pointed out that "it all took place outside. There were 16 thousand people inside and no problems at all of any kind (inside)."

Stars Shine For McGovern

■ NEW YORK—Every once in awhile it happens. Perhaps not often enough, but in this business one learns to be grateful for the opportunity to witness a real musical event. And the concert gathering at Madison Square Garden (14) supporting the Presidential aspirations of George McGovern was a musical event of the highest magnitude. It brought some people back together like Simon and Garfunkel, Peter, Paul and Mary, and Mike Nichols and Elaine May, not to mention Dionne Warwick, though she never left.

Todd Rundgren: Teenage Head

■ NEW YORK — In a multi-media expression of teenage head, Todd Rundgren and his magic band blew away an enthusiastically idolatrous cross-section of New York youth recently (8) at Carnegie Hall. With various Hello People opening each of the show's two sections offering a mixture of tight so-so musical material and quite funny, if rather obvious, mime commentaries, Todd's long awaited full-scale New York debut was marked by a rather unique obviousness, which alternated between moments of exhilarating Flash and what seemed to be hours of awkward adolescent exhibitionism, of the kind that has always been a function of Rundgren's self-consciousness, but which in live performance tend to get in his way.

There was an interesting tension between the sophistication of Todd's songwriting and the memory of his precision on record, and the hit-or-miss energy of his newest band, compounded by the kind of unpredictable vocal range we've come to associate with sloppily entertaining showmen like Ray Davies, Ronnie Lane, and, most lately, Joe Cocker.

Todd's greatest asset, aside from his unbelievably sharp guitar playing, comparable only to that of Rick Derringer and a very few others, is his empathy with the teenager's need to excel and his fear of failure. As good as Todd is, and as many people who have come to appreciate him, he still doesn't trust himself. His studied nonchalance came off as the most stylized egocentricity since McCartney's effusively fatuous "Ram." Todd simply will not let his music speak for itself, and when he wasn't involved in his material, as between numbers or when he felt it necessary to establish "audience contact" or whatever, he just didn't shut up, and nobody really expects a musician to be a comedian, too. The nadir of these sessions of forced humor was a tape of the silliest derivative hippy monologues anyone could ever want to forget, run during intermission making it impossible to even hear complimentary remarks on the first part of the show.

But if Todd is almost too compulsively an entertainer, the kids, and that's what most of his audience seem to be, unabashedly loved his honesty, wise-ass attitude and the impression he gave of being the first fabulous New York musical success since the Rascals or the Blues Project. Performing to promote a national top 20 record, "I Saw the Light," Rundgren seemed the local boy who made good and didn't quite feel comfortable with his success.

The best numbers were those on which Todd worked lead guitar, the role he seems most at ease with; "Black Maria" and "Broken Man With A Busted Heart" were even stronger and more direct than the album versions for his virtuosity. With support from Tommy Cosgrove, N. D. Smart, and Stu Woods, Rundgren's renditions of favorite weepers like "It Wouldn't Have Made Any Difference" and "Hello It's Me" were diamonds-in-the-rough, acceptable in their awkwardness like Beach Boy Dennis Wilson forgetting the lyrics to his own beautiful tunes. Bopping rave-ups on "Slut" and "Wolfman Jack" helped bring the show to a strong close, after which Todd was joined by Moogy Klingman and Buzzy Linhart for the most satisfying display of New York talent that the Apple's concertgoers have been treated to in quite a while.

As annoyed as some older Rundgren-record fans seemed to be with the gap that such a concert created between their preconceptions of Todd and the way in which he sees himself, it is hard to see how he could be other than a newly improved version of the teenager he once was and still feels for. And if your kid brother had written even one of Todd's better tunes or could play guitar half as fast, you'd never listen to anyone criticize him, would you? What you see, is what you get.

■ The records we have been talking about the past few weeks as advance tips came heavily into their own this week in the top 40 field: Donna Fargo is well over 300,000 and went on the heavyweight pop stations this week: WCFL, WLS, WMEX, KJR, WIXY, WMPS. It exploded to #5 at WRIT and #20 at WOKY in Milwaukee, Jumped 20-13 at KILT Houston and broke at KLIF Dallas. Gilbert O'Sullivan. We are so proud of what happened to this record this week that we are popping our buttons. It exploded 16-8 KJR, came on WFIL at #23, 20-7 KOL. New believers: WCLF, KHJ, KQV, CKLW, WHBQ, WMEX, KFRC and many, many more.

Luther Ingram. This has been certified at a million. It is now on WQAM, WIXY, KJR, KILT, KLIF, it exploded 27-11 WTX and 21-12 WHBQ, 10-3 WPDQ, #3 CKLW. Congratulations to Stax promo man, Harold Burnside, for the job he did with it at WFIL Philadelphia and all his other Memphis smashes that he has broken out of Philadelphia so early in their history.

Flack & Hathaway. This is our new smash of the week. It is just about #1 r&b in sales in Chicago, Philadelphia and other cities. It is exploding pop all over the nation. It is quite obvious that this will be one of the biggest selling records of the year.

Tip: Barbra Streisand. Rick Shannon from KTAC Tacoma, who is another one of our key secondary market hit-spotters, tells us there is great response to the single. Many people are asking for the album, which, of course, doesn't exist. Obviously it would be a great thing if an album came out with this record in it, because the sales would be huge.

Confirmed sales smash: Hollies. Good requests WMAK, big in Boston and L.A., exploded 16-4 KOL and 19-10 KJR both of which, of course, are in Seattle. It went on the chart at KILT, KLIF and went on WIXY, WOKY, WRIT.

Sure shot new releases: Osmond Brothers, Al Green, Chi-Lites, Rolling Stones.

Atlantic has turned Aretha Franklin over to "April Fools" which was written by Bacharach and David and there is no question that this will be a big one.

Sure hit tip: "You're Still A Young Man" by Tower of Power distributed by Warner Brothers. It went right on the chart at KFRC, 25-19 KOL, exploded at KJRB. Although this is a pop group, we must point out to you that this is a pure doo-wop r&b soul sound. We are certain that it will explode r&b in Philadelphia when Alan Lott of WEA does his magic and that it will explode in Baltimore and Washington when King Kong, George Goodman, does his magic. In other words, we want to go on record right now to tell you that this will be a million seller gold record.

Cheech and Chong LP "Big Bambu" is instantaneously bringing droves of people into the stores. This album has many cuts in it that are suitable for top 40 AM air play. The best cuts are: "Sister Mary Elephant," "Streets of New York or L.A. or San Francisco" and "Tortured Old Man." They are the comedy giants of youth today via word-of-mouth and their incredible appearances all over the nation. There is no doubt in my mind that they are, by far, the most important youth culture comedy find of our day, because they communicate right on with the kids. Retailers all over the nation have smiles on their faces because of this album. Top 40 programmers would be wise to put these cuts on the air, because FM programmers have been stealing the old AM thunder by playing Cheech and Chong in the past . . . the other sensational LP is the Columbia "Godfather" album. We understand that the phones are burning out at the M.O.R. stations in San Francisco and other cities. Gertie Katzman of WNEW says: "It is the biggest smash LP that I am playing and we are giving concentrated air play on one side of the single 'The Favor'."

Sneak of the week: The Crusaders on Blue Thumb "Put It Where You Want It." Last week we paid tribute to the gang at Paramount and Famous. We forgot to mention their brilliant marketing director, Carmen LaRosa. It appears now that when you're hot, you're hot and that Carmen is going to get writer's cramp from taking orders. We accompanied the powerhouse Philadelphia promotion men softball team on a chartered bus to Central Park in New York City. We all went up to Paramount in the Gulf & Western Building for a Hoagie party. Everybody wanted this record played over and over. Dean Tyler of WIP was so impressed with it that he put it right on the air. The following celebrities boogied their heads off for a couple of hours: Harvey Holiday of WDAS, Red Schwartz, Buddy Dee, Tom Kennedy, Matty Singer, Harold Burnside, Frank Sciarra, Joe Isgro, Billy Harper, Fred DiSipio, Bruce Greenberg, Arthur Fields, Diane Sousa, Gail Brooks, Marilyn of AVCO and the most fantastic boogie dancer, Clarence the bus driver.

Flash. Good action starting in Boston. It is on WRKO and WMEX. Chart debut: KLIF. The album is selling very well. We have a feeling that some heavy stations will be going on this record.

Jody Miller. We are getting a lot of early indications on this record. It went right on KLIF. Ron Tompkins of WROV tells us that he feels it is very strong. This could very well be the next Donna Fargo.

Raspberries. Dave "gold record" Sholin flashes: "Instant sales" and tells us that "the phones lit right up." He says he was forced on full rotation by play as an LP cut. Many people have told us that this group is going to happen. As a matter of fact, we are very much impressed with the way the new Capitol promotion director, high energy Al Coury, has turned Capitol around in the last 30 days. He has 11 albums on the charts, three of them with bullets and every one of them is a "work" album. The new Pink Floyd album has advance orders for 300,000. The Joy of Cooking is over

Shukat To Leave Wm. Morris Post

He also initiated the representation of composers who do films, with such clients as Michael Small, Garry Sherman, Fred Karlin, Galt MacDermot, and Stephen J. Lawrence.

Polydor June Album Release Numbers Five

■ NEW YORK — Polydor has announced a release of five new albums for June. The releases include new albums from James Brown, James Last, Randy Burns (his first for Polydor), the JB's, and the original cast recording of the smash Broadway musical "Don't Bother Me, I Can't Cope."

"Don't Bother Me, I Can't Cope" was recently the recipient of the Outer Critics Circle Award for Best Musical, and recently received two Obies: Best Music and Lyrics for an off-Broadway Musical went to Micki Grant who also stars, and Best Male Performance in an off-Broadway Musical was awarded to Alex Bradford. The album was produced by veteran hitmaker Jerry Ragavoy.

James Brown's new album is called "There It Is." Produced by Brown, the album includes such recent hits as his "King Heroin," one of his most important performances, "I'm a Greedy Man," "Talkin' Loud and Sayin' Nothing," and the smash title hit "There It Is."

The new album from James Last is titled "Love Must Be The Reason." Last has sold over 10 million albums worldwide and Polydor plans a huge promotion and advertising campaign in support of his new album. Last has had recent hits with Paul Simon's "El Condor Pasa" and his own "Music From Across the Way." "Love Must Be The Reason" features arrangements of such contemporary favorites as Neil Young's "Heart of Gold," Carole King's "It's Going to Take Some Time," "Wedding Song," and the "Love theme from 'The Godfather'."

The first release on Polydor for Randy Burns is called "I'm A Lover, Not A Fool." Burns, a near-legend on the folk-rock scene, has garnered a fanatical campus and underground following and a reputation for singing and writing some beautiful folk-rock songs; highlighted by "Hold On," "Lisa," and "Circle of Joy," his first Polydor release was produced by Barry Seidel.

The JB's "Food for Thought" highlights the funky soul-group's recent soul and pop hits "Gimme Some More," "Pass the Peas" and "Hot Pants Road." The group, which is James Brown's backup band, puts down funky soul arrangements with just a hint of rock and jazz. Their album was produced by James Brown.

50,000, the Raspberries LP is over 100,000. The Goose Creek Symphony album is huge through the south from Atlanta to Charlotte to Dallas. The Al Martino is over 200,000. The Anne Murray LP is over 75,000, the J. J. Cale LP "Naturally" is over 300,000 and is back on the charts now that another single is breaking out of it. The Quicksilver Messenger LP is over 150,000. The Bloodrock live LP has exploded to over 110,000. The Flash LP is going berserk and is over 150,000 and we ourselves are witnesses to the incredible activity on the Cannonball Adderley LP "Soul Zodiac" which broke first out of Philadelphia, Miami and Detroit and is now spreading like a disease.

R&b ear pick of the week: "Heart Of Gold" Betty Lavette. There is no question in my mind that this song can easily be just as big on the r&b charts via this incredible tour de force performance as it was on the pop charts.

The new Rolling Stones single is "Happy" and the "B" side is "All Down The Line."

Eddie Gilreath of Motown out of New York City ashes that: "Smokey Robinson will be giving his farewell concert in Philadelphia on June 25". Eddie was happy to hear from us that Paul Drew wrote us that he agrees with our evaluation that the hit cut in the Frankie Vali and the Four Seasons album is "The Night" . . . if it comes out as a single and gets play. By the way, we understand that Drew will become the consultant at WAVZ in New Haven and several other stations. Paul, we hope that your eye gets better real soon, and please don't bite the dog back because that would make news.

Tommy James. Jim Connor of WMEX flashes: "Instant phones and sales." It is also on the chart now at WOKY, WPDQ and WIXY. Because of the powerful lyric, this record could crash through.

Fabulous Rhinestones. Heavy stations are starting to jump on this record. A lot of important people feel that it has all the ingredients of a hit.

Sailcat. Our big tip of last week is now confirmed by "golden ear" Bob Mitchell and racetrack expert, Mike Green, both of WTIK 16-10. Tom "golden throat" Murphy of KOL Seattle confirms 27-10. It went 19-6 at KJRB Spokane. It made the chart at KLIF and went on WRIT and WMAK.

There is no doubt now that the hit side of the Melanie is "Steppin'". This is confirmed by WROV Roanoke. We sure wish that Peter had put this out as the plug side in the first place, because it was the most requested side from the album long ago in Roanoke. We hope that programmers will not walk away from this giant artist.

Jim Croce. It is getting good sales in L.A. There is no doubt in my mind that he will be a hit artist.

Beverly Bremers. Despite the lack of bullets in some trade charts, this is a hit record. It was just confirmed 21-13 at KJR, 34-20 at KLIF, 10-6 WROV, 5-3 KJRB. It is 22 at WDGY, broke at KLEO, went on the chart at WRIT and is on WOKY. It is #8 at KLIV and is a smash in Pittsburgh at KQV.

We personally cannot understand the lack of a bullet in a trade on a record this big and this well confirmed.

Argent. It is getting good sales in L.A. It is #9 WMEX is on the chart at KILT and KLIF and WPGC. New: KLEO, WKBW.

Joey Heatherton. We have been tipping this record week after week after week. As you can see, it has broken all over the trade charts this week. Ben Scotti, V.P. of MGM Records, is to be commended for doing a fantastic promotion job. Obviously we had total faith from the beginning that Ben would bring this complete left-fielder in.

Loggins & Messina. We just had a late flash from Larry Green at 20,000 watt WRAS in Atlanta that this record is #3 in phone requests. Sales are opening up at the L.A. one-stops and it is probably close to going on the chart at KHJ. Clive Davis, Steve Popovich, George Brewer and King Kong Bruce Lundvall should really marshall the Columbia troops this week for an all-out assault on behalf of one of the finest bands in the entire world of music. We really mean that from the bottom of our heart. The one other band that we personally love as much as Loggins and Messina is the legendary Boz Scaggs. We agree with Jann Wenner that there are hit singles in Scaggs' Columbia and Atlantic albums. Why in heaven's name does such great music have to get lost when dedicated people care so much? The thought of what is happening is almost obscene.

Gayle To MCA

Mancuso To A&M A&R

■ HOLLYWOOD — Louie (Butch) Mancuso has been named an A&R Coordinator for A&M Records, according to Chuck Kaye, A&M Vice President in charge of publishing and A&R. Mancuso worked for A&M's publishing department for two years prior to his present appointment.

Carlin Farrell U.K. Publishing Rep

■ NEW YORK — Wes Farrell, President of Wes Farrell Organization, has announced that he has finalized negotiations and has resigned a new deal to have Carlin Music, headed by Freddie Bienstock, represent Farrell's publishing group in the United Kingdom.

Farrell revealed that Freddie Bienstock's Carlin Music has been responsible for more than 20 chart records owned by Farrell publishing in the United Kingdom. Those songs include such major hits "I'm Going To Make You Mine," by Lou Christie; "Knock Three Times" and "Candida," by Dawn; and David Cassidy whose most recent single, "Could It Be Forever" and album are both listed in the top five in England.

Farrell stated that executives from both his West and East Coast operations will now be spending more time in Europe — "staying in close communication and reporting important activities of the Farrell Group." Farrell also revealed that with his new international alignment he plans to acquire more important product from "untapped talent" for Chelsea Records, which is manufactured and distributed by RCA Records.

■ "The simplest and the most obvious is the most often overlooked."—Sherlock Holmes.

I suppose in 13 years of daily connection with broadcasting that I have never seen it quite like it is today . . . from the management standpoint, business in the United States is generally bad . . . and has been for some time . . . no matter what propaganda we might get off this wire or read in that paper . . . and while radio has not been hit as hard as some business, it still has been affected by the general overall attitude of the public . . . the groups from Chicago to San Francisco to New York that have suddenly been educated as to how a station is supposed to operate according to the FCC . . . and their follow-through of charges against station licenses . . . along with continued pressure on the FTC to stop false advertising . . . and then the program director insisting that spots should be kept at a minimum to keep ratings up . . . and that some spots should not be run on the air at all because they give the station a bad image . . . is enough to make station managers and owners wonder why they didn't just buy a shoe store and forget show business. I point out the plight of management just to say in front that radio programmers aren't the only ones with problems. Our problems are problems because we are having to deal with change . . . and the basic orientation of today's human being is to resist change . . . but that's another subject entirely. 1972 is indeed the year of confusion in broadcasting. There is not specific direction being taken by all of radio . . . there have been no all-saving answers to be found as happened in 1964 . . . or in 1954. As a result, rather than calling this the year of confusion in radio, we might be better off to call it the year of experimentation . . . and certainly that is positive . . . for, out of the trip, betterment just naturally will come . . . the question is how long will it take . . . and how many explosions will occur in our laboratory before a cure for "the public's boredom" emerges.

151 different markets in the U.S. are now receiving ratings results from the American Research Bureau . . . it's the biggest rating taken all year long . . . for some markets it's the only rating they have for the next 12 months . . . for others, it's one of four in 1972. The results so far don't immediately show any specific trend . . . except possibly the trend of broadcasters I have spoken to, to down the systems defeated by ARB. Certainly, it's very easy to down those systems . . . one program director told me that in the 18-24 category (so important to the national sales picture) 39 people were all that were represented in his market . . . in other words 39 books were all that represented that demographic category in a city of about two million people . . . there are other gripes . . . besides the sample being too small . . . placement of books is a real major problem to speciality stations . . . the difference between total market and metro market is hell for stations with bad signals . . . the downers are endless . . . It is obvious that the methodology of computing listeners in a market is beginning to wear on program directors everywhere . . . a long and arduous study of what to replace that with will follow. Problem is . . . and it's an old saying in radio . . . "If the ratings are bad . . . we got screwed . . . If they're right on . . . the rating services did their job"

So the people that yell about the ratings are generally the people who got beat . . . and the change will only come when radio, as a whole, decides to take positive action. And this is no indictment of ARB, Pulse or Hooper . . . I mean I can point out a bunch of places where I think they're wrong . . . but I like them . . . I can't quite figure out what the "right" in the situation is. All of this rap leads to this reality . . . that program directors live and die (as well as radio stations) by the ratings . . . a major market station will not take a down book very long . . . unless the circumstances are such that the station is a speciality and they're selling on that basis.

Now, the sad part . . . contemporary radio, in most of the books that have come in so far, is taking a beating . . . when the top contemporary station in a city (whatever the city) only has a 5.0

New Allocation System For Stones Tix

■ NEW YORK — Sunday Promotions Inc., in cooperation with Madison Square Garden Center, will utilize a postcard mail selection system to sell tickets for the Rolling Stones' three New York concerts dates (July 24, 25, 26). This method will eliminate long lines at the box office, reduce ticket scalping and allow those who work, and can't wait on line, a chance to get tickets. The selection system will involve the sale of 55,000 tickets.

The first announcement of the postcard mail selection system in the Sunday (11) New York Times in a full-page ad describing the procedure for entering the system.

Those desiring tickets will send in postcards with their name, mailing address including zip code, and daytime telephone number to "Stones", c/o Madison Square Garden, P.O. Box 153, General Post Office, New York, N.Y. 10001. In order to qualify for selection, cards must not be postmarked prior to 12:01 am, Sunday June 11 and must be received in the P.O. Box no later than 12 noon Friday, June 16.

Under the supervision of a firm of certified public accountants, cards will be selected at random, then programmed into a computer which will eliminate duplications. Seat locations will be assigned on a first drawn-best seat basis, without regard to date.

Official notification card will be required to pick up their tickets in person at Madison Square Garden box office any time within the period indicated on their notifications. Cards will indicate what forms of identification will be required at the box office. It will not be necessary to arrive early since seat locations will have already been assigned; those who do, will be asked to return later.

All notification card holders will be entitled to purchase a maximum of four tickets.

All tickets, regardless of location or date, will be $6.50. Only cash will be accepted at the box office.

NARM Board To Meet With Manufacturers

■ PHILADELPHIA — The NARM Board of Directors will hold its first meeting with the Manufacturers Advisory Committee, a new body appointed for the first time this year by NARM President David Press.

The meeting will be held this Monday afternoon (19) in the Americana suite of the Americana Hotel in New York City, and will continue through the evening. Members of the Manufacturers Advisory Committee are Al Bell, Stax Records; Irv Beigel, Bell Records; Bob Fead, A & M Records; Joel Friedman, Warner Bros. Records; Rick Frio, MCA Records; Herb Goldfarb, London Records; Mort

Hoffman, RCA Records; Phil Jones, Motown Record Corp.; Michael Lipton, United Artists Records; Bruce Lundvall, Columbia Records; Brown Meggs, Capitol Records; and Lou Simon, Mercury Records.

On Tuesday (20) the NARM Board of Directors will hold a regular meeting of its own at which recommendations from the Manufacturers Advisory Committee will be considered, as will those forthcoming from the meetings of the Distributors Advisory Committee and the Retailers Advisory Committee held last week in Chicago. Members of the NARM Board of Directors are David Press, President of D & H Distributing Co., Harrisburg, Penna.; Peter Stocke, Vice President of Taylor Electric Co., Milwaukee, Wisc.; David Lieberman, Secretary of Lieberman Enterprises, Minneapolis, Minn.; Harry Apostoleris, Treasurer of Alpha Distributing Corp., New York City; Jack Grossman of Jack Grossman Enterprises, Woodbury, New York; Jay Jacobs of Knox Record Rack Co., Knoxville, Tenn.; James Schwartz of District Records, Washington, D.C.; Jack Silverman of ABC Record & Tape Sales, Des Moines, Iowa; and George Souvall of Alta Distributing Co., Phoenix, Ariz. Also attending the meeting will be Jules Malamud, NARM Executive Director, and Earl Kintner, NARM General Counsel.

have people whose business operations cover the 50 states—yes, even Hawaii and Alaska. We are in a position to direct the shoppers campaign we have instituted, at close range, and provide information on bootleg activity at the retail level, which will be unprecedented. Secondly, in the matter of state legislation, here again our membership can be of greatest value. We have already seen a number of amazing successes at the state level—look at what Sam Marmaduke accomplished in Texas, and Len Singer in Arizona. We believe our members are capable of that in all other states where legislation does not exist. We are now providing specific tools for them—actual directions on how to go about getting a bill in your state. We believe we can best serve the industry in its fight against the evil of piracy, by doing what we can do best. Our two-fold program should pay off for the entire music business.”

The NARM plan was devised by the NARM Board of Directors: President David Press; National President of the Anti-Piracy Committee, James Schwartz; Executive Director Jules Malamud; NARM counsel Charles Ruttenberg; in conjunction with Jules Yarnell of the RIAA and John Clark of Abeles and Clark, representing the Harry Fox Agency. Press, Malamud, Ruttenberg, Yarnell and Clark were all in attendance at the Chicago meeting, where the plan was presented to the regional chairmen by National Chairman Schwartz.

in overall shares . . . something's wrong . . . that's obvious to just about everybody . . . there's no news there . . . but how to get those ratings up seems to be somewhere out in space . . . and it won't come down.

Hence the experimentation . . . and hence the explosions. . .

We found out a long time ago that subjective programming is ridiculous . . . and the constant danger that rides with a programmer is the temptation to put something on his station because he likes it . . . BUT . . . what am I hearing on the telephones now, but “the request lines are just a bunch of teeny-boppers . . . and record shop reports are hypes” . . . so the return to subjective programming . . . and the explosion. I am 30 years old . . . my hair is long . . . I have no children in my home . . . I fly somewhere in the U.S. about once a month . . . I've been to every major city in both this country and Canada . . . I've had the opportunity to sit with leaders of our country . . . I can go see a group play anytime I want to . . . music is a 24-hour a day affair in my life . . . I could continue with all the variables in environment that makes up my list of likes and dislikes. Now, my next flight is to Ashland, Kentucky and I walk down the street and ask the dude sitting there on the corner whittling on a stick, how he likes the new Tower of Power album . . . and does he dig the Whiskey . . . and has he ever had any of this? . . . and he looks at me and says . . . “If you don't get outta here, I'm going to call a cop.” Now, if I were the program director in Ashland, Kentucky, I'd most probably have a hard time getting that dude to listen to my station . . . I played him all the things that I liked . . . while the example is extreme it does serve to show that subjective programming is an ego trip supreme. So when you tell me that people aren't buying Donny Osmond records . . . and I know you're telling me that because you don't like Donny Osmond records . . . then I have this desire to program the station across the street against you. Yet, in city after city the belief that the album cuts are where it's at and throw all that bubblegum crap away . . . no matter what record sales or request lines say . . . continues to grow. . .

True request lines and record shop reports have their problems just as the sampling of ARB has its problems . . . but at this point, they're the best we've got . . . While the advertising industry is now governed by psychological motivational research, the radio programming business seems to be headed in the other direction. If you're going to continue to rip out your phones . . . and stop your trips to the shops . . . let me know . . . I want to have time to run for cover when the ARB comes in.

The music part of this report is not here this week because I'm writing this while on vacation . . . we'll return with the second half of the report in two weeks. . .

Certron Unveils New Products Packaging

■ LOS ANGELES — Increased emphasis on point of purchase materials and a completely new youth-oriented graphics program have been introduced by Certron Corporation. The new packaging at the 6th Annual Consumer Electronics Show in Chicago, June 11-14.

All five major additions to the product line, including Certron's exclusive “Canned Cassettes” are now available, according to Ray Allen, Certron Vice President-Marketing/Sales. The “Canned Cassettes,” labeled “Your Top Tin Canned Goodies” and “Tin Can Alley,” feature a major packaging development in the tape industry.

“With six 60 or 90 minute cassettes in each sealed can, our product offers advantages in pilfering security, freshness, storing, shipping and point of purchase display,” Allen reported. “Each can also includes a plastic cover so once opened they can be resealed to keep out dust and dirt and prolong cassette life.”

Other products featured at the show included “Triple Play” and “Double Play” blank cassettes which include mini posters in their newly-designed packages, a “Ready Repair Kit” for transfer of jammed pre-recorded tapes to new cassettes and “Tape Caddy,” with four 8-track cartridges sealed in a lined box with self-adhesive backing for mounting in cars or on walls.

Certron also introduced three new cassette tape grades at the Show. “Standard,” “Pro” and “Lab” grade cassettes offer merchandisers a complete line of other tape products. “In fact,” Allen reported, “a retailer or wholesaler can order his entire tape needs from Certron and save on bookkeeping and buying costs, as well as eliminate all the running around trying to find products to fill out his tape line.”

Memorex Adds 45-Minute Cassettes

■ SANTA CLARA, CALIF. — Memorex has announced the addition of a 45-minute cassette to its line of low noise, high output audio tape cassettes and reels.

“We're introducing 45-minute cassettes primarily because 45 minutes is the ideal length for record album recording,” said Robert Jaunich II, Vice President and General Manager of Memorex's Consumer Products Division. 95 per cent of all popular records run 45 minutes or less, Jaunich pointed out.

Weather Report: The Contemporary Sound

By MARTIN SNIDER

■ NEW YORK — Music seems to be heading in a new direction, and it's about time too, for it had seemed as though it was going to be caught up in nothingness, with no new path to follow.

A few groups have stepped out in the open, risking their very musical existence in order to participate in the progression of the music. The feeling and the need to drive forward with music seems to be in many musicians, but the necessity of the dollar has forced many into commerciality.

This new music, called jazz, progressive music, preferably called "contemporary" by Weather Report, may very well move into the rock spotlight. Weather Report is one of the major forces in helping music advance, along with Columbia Records, their label.

Contemporary music is already a major trend in most European and South American countries. Joe Zawinul and Miroslav Vitous, keyboards and bass of Weather Report recently explained how they received a 45-minute standing ovation in Europe. The equipment was packed and being taken off the stage, but the crowds kept on screaming. As I heard a radio announcer in Boston say, "their new album is great, but you must see them in order to feel the full impact." She was so right.

When the group's first album was released, called "Weather Report," they had never played a live performance, and they were together only three weeks. They like the first one, but their newest album, "I Sing The Body Electric," is their pride and joy. One side was recorded in the studio, while the other is live from Tokyo, Japan.

Since the first album, Eric Grevatt has joined the group on drums ("he is a great experience for us") and Dom Um Romao on percussion. Wayne Shorter remains on reeds, a musician who is indispensable to the group's final musical outcome.

Weather Report has just returned from a South American tour, where they performed with Frederick Gulda, the concert pianist. They played to 10 sell-out houses out of 13 concerts. As I write this, they are performing in Boston at the Jazz Workshop, where they did a live concert on WBCN-FM. All performances at the Workshop are sold out.

The new album is great and the energy content is extremely high. The success of their music seems inevitable. Exposure is the necessary ingredient and there will be no stopping them. The industry should become aware of a new music which is creeping up from behind. Columbia is.

A national promotion tour has been scheduled by their manager Bob Devere, an ex-Columbia executive. The audiences are becoming more intelligent and are looking for more from the music they listen to. The tour is going to provide it for them.

Covering Randy Newman

■ BURBANK — Many of the songs written and sung by Randy Newman on his recently released fourth Reprise album "Sail Away" are cropping up in the repertoires of other top artists. Within the next few months many versions of the "Sail Away" selections will have been recorded as singles and album cuts by a great number of singers, groups and instrumentalists.

Publishers of Randy Newman song have indicated that Bobby Darin, Merry Clayton, Gayle McCormick, Art Garfunkel, Ray Charles, Roberta Flack, Les McCann, Chris Smither, Bonnie Raitt and the Mills Brothers have recorded or are contemplating recording versions of the tunes in the "Sail Away" album.

Reprise is now preparing to release "Political Science" as Newman's own single from the "Sail Away" album.

Lorenz Sons Head WBLK-FM

■ BUFFALO — Upon the recent death of their father, George "Hound Dog" Lorenz, Frank and Fred Lorenz assumed control of radio station WBLK-FM, here. "Scenes" will continue to appear, edited by Mickey Turntable.

Ask Gold For Doors 13

■ NEW YORK — Elektra Records has requested certification from the RIAA of gold record status for the Doors' album, "13." The album will mark the eighth gold album for the Elektra group; previously certified gold are "The Doors," "Strange Days," "Waiting For The Sun," "The Soft Parade,"

"Morrison Hotel," "L.A. Woman" and "Absolutely Live." In addition, the group has acquired three gold singles for "Light My Fire," "Touch Me," and "Hello, I Love You." Only one other American rock group, the Beach Boys, have surpassed their total of gold albums. The Beach Boys have nine.

Record Research: Music Man's Reference

■ MENOMONEE FALLS, WIS. — How long was "Itsy Bitsy Teenie Weenie Yellow Polka Dot Bikini" on the charts? Who recorded the number one song "Game of Love?" What label did Booker T. & the MG's record for? When did "I'm Into Something Good" by Herman's Hermits first hit the charts? You'll find all these answers and more in Joel Whitburn's book, Record Research.

To attest to its usefulness and demand, Whitburn has sold more than 3,000 copies of his book to radio stations, interested individuals, program directors, and recording artists in all of the 50 states and many countries of the world, from Australia to Switzerland.

Also in the printing stages are Whitburn's country & western and rhythm & blues books, both covering the years 1949-1971, plus a new pop-rock edition going back to the years 1940-1955. Once issued, these Record Research volumes will represent the complete history of all charted pop music. In the works are similar publications with identical information on classical, jazz, easy listening, and albums.

Whitburn's Record Research, 1955-1969, represents five and a half years of work and research. More than 2,200 artists and 10,000 records are listed, alphabetically by name of the artist, from the first entry by Abaco Dream with the 1969 single "Life and Death in G & A" on A & M Records, to the Zombie's 1969 "Time of the Season" for Date Records. Each listing has the date that the record first hit the best seller chart, its highest position in the ratings, total weeks on the chart and the label and number of the record.

"I really had no idea how many copies would be sold," he says. "I sent out flyers describing the book to all of the radio stations, and also took out ads in the trades.

Just why would a radio station want Record Research? "Well, you take a disc jockey who's pulling records for his show. Say, for example, he wants to play an oldie—something like Perry Como's "Catch a Falling Star." So he looks up Como in the book and takes down the following information on the record: First date on the charts—Jan. 11, 1958. Highest position on the charts—9. Number of weeks on the charts—23. Label and number of record, RCA-7128.

"And when he gets on the air, his spiel is all set: "And here's one for you, granddad, right from the heart—Mr. Warmth himself, Perry Como, in the 1958 classic that hit the top 10 and stayed on the charts for a full winter, "Catch a Falling Star!" Hit it, Per, baby!"

Just browsing through the book can be interesting for anyone who likes pop music. Johnny Mathis holds the record for a single with the longest stretch on the charts—39 weeks for his 1957 tune, "Wonderful, Wonderful."

Elvis Presley has more listings than any other pop artist, with 110, followed by the Beatles, Pat Boone, Brenda Lee, Connie Francis and James Brown. Only a few records appear on the charts after they have had their vogue but one was Chubby Checker's "The Twist," which first turned up for 18 weeks in 1960 and again for 21 weeks in 1961-62. Bing Crosby's "White Christmas" is the all-time champ in that regard, appearing on the charts for a few weeks each holiday season for eight years in a row, from 1955 to 1962.

Joel works at his home office in Menomonee Falls, Wisconsin. Here he is surrounded by his records, charts, files, every magazine dealing with his world of music, and a ample supply of Record Research publications. Still have any left for sale, Joel?

"I think I could find one," he smiles, "and the address is Record Research, P.O. Box 82, Menomonee Falls, Wisconsin 53051."

Atlantic Jazz Week Held At Gimbels

■ NEW YORK—Atlantic Jazz Week was held at Gimbels Department store on Broadway at 33rd Street here, last week featuring Dave Brubeck, Herbie Mann, David Newman, Bobby Short, Max Roach and Gary Burton.

On each day of the week, a different artist appeared in a special gazebo constructed for the promotion in Gimbels' record department to host an autograph party for their current releases. Large crowds attended each day's appearance—in such numbers that many forthcoming artist appearances are now being scheduled.

On Monday, June 5, Dave Brubeck appeared on behalf of his double release, "The Last Set At Newport," and "Truth is Fallen." On Tuesday, Herbie Mann autographed copies of his new album, Mississippi Gambler," and David Newman his recent, "Lonely Avenue," Wednesday brought forth Bobby Short, with his inimitable "Bobby Short Loves Cole Porter," and Thursday, Max Roach signed copies of "Lift Every Voice and Sing." Friday concluded Jazz Week with Gary Burton as artist of the day, along with his album, "Paris Encounter," recorded with Stephanie Grappelli.

Festival Tie-In

Jazz Week at Gimbels was held in conjunction with the 1972 Newport Jazz Festival, which will be held this year in the streets, on the rivers, in the stadiums, and concerts halls of New York City, July 1-9. Each of the artists participating in the event will appear in the festival.

ESP To Release Charlie Parker Discs

■ NEW YORK — ESP-DISK will release 14 albums by Charles "Yardbird" Parker, previously unreleased broadcast performances from the period of 1947-54.

Bird One

Arrangements were completed this week with the Estate of Charles Parker for permission to release the material. The first album of the series, "Bird One," has been scheduled for ESP's July release.

ESP's September release schedule will include the second volume of "Ellie Holiday Broadcasts," the first volume of "Lester Young (1938-1939)," and the first release of "Bud Powell, The Early Years."

JAZZ LP PICKS

INTENSITY

CHARLES EARLAND—Prestige PR 10041
With four extended performances, two originals and two pop tunes, this is organist Earland's best and most satisfying record to date. He received inspiration and strong support from the late Lee Morgan, Dick Griffin, Hubert Laws, Billy Cobham and others. Should find audiences from many areas.

BAD LUCK AND TROUBLE

MEMPHIS SLIM—Barnaby ZG 31291 (CBS)
This specially-priced set contains both of Memphis Slim's Candid albums from 1961. Featured with Jazz Gillum and Arbee Stidham, he explores many blues classics and original material. Quality varies from excellent to fair. The valuable set should play a big part in Slim's current resurgence.

DUES

MAYNARD FERGUSON—Mainstream M-359
This reissue features one of Ferguson's strongest bands with Mike Abene, Frank Vicari, Lanny Morgan et al. "Airegin," a Sonny Rollins tune, is the records highlight.

MERRY-GO-ROUND

ELVIN JONES—Blue Note 84414
Surrounded by the keyboard brilliance of Chick Corea and Jan Hammer and saxophonists Joe Farrell, Pepper Adams, Steve Grossman and Dave Liebman, Jones and his bassist Gene Perla present some very strong jazz here. The material is varied, and the blowing is strong. Corea's "La Fiesta" is especially attractive.

MIRROR

CHARLIE MARIANO—Atlantic SD 1608
Charlie Mariano is a brilliant saxophonist, who is all too often overlooked. This is his first record in more than eight years. And it is as exciting and powerful as Mariano can be. "F Minor Happy" is stunning. Mariano also illustrates his ability on flute and bass flute on "Theme From Summer of '42." An outstanding disc.

NEPTUNE

THE VISITORS—Cobblestone 9010 (Buddah)
The Visitors is a long standing Philadelphia group led by saxophonists Earl and Carl Grubbs, nephews of the late John Coltrane. This debut record presents five originals and one Coltrane tune. The Grubbs and their rhythm section provide some very sensitive and unique music. Check them out.

AFRICAN COOKBOOK

RANDY WESTON—Atlantic SD 1609
This disc features one of the finest groups led by pianist-composer Randy Weston. Included are Booker Ervin, Big Black and Ray Copeland. The music is a masterful blend of African music and jazz that should reach many ears.

The fact that these performers got back together for McGovern indicates a change in conceptual format from four prior concerts presented in other cities through the efforts of Warren Beatty. It had to be different. And it just couldn't have been any better.

Peter, Paul and Mary haven't performed together for two years, but you'd never know it. Not only did songs like "Blowin' In The Wind," "The Times They Are A Changin'," and "The Great Mandala" receive tremendous ovations, but individuals lines brought roars from a crowd tuned in to any and all political issues.

Nichols and May hadn't performed together in 12 years, and if we can believe Mike Nichols, they hadn't even talked. Again you would never know it. Their humor is so sophisticated and subtle that many in the audience were either too young, or too disinterested, to fully grasp their brand of hilarious comedy. Now, that's not supposed to happen in New York, right? The great majority loved it.

Senator McGovern in a short speech following the concert, called Dionne Warwick "the frosting on the cake." And, she was, but Simon and Garfunkel easily took the cake. They were incredibly loose, winning the crowd with hit after hit song. Simply, theirs was a brilliant performance. In fact, so was the entire show. Brilliantly conceived, thrilling, magnificently paced and just wonderful to witness. I guess that's it. You had to be there.

NEW YORK—PERSONAL PICK: "I'll Find A Way (Loneliest Man In Town)"—Black Ivory (Today). Taken from the group's latest album, you will be able to hear the versatility of this group. Sounds very good . . . monster.

"Power Of Love"—Joe Simon (Spring)—Written and produced by Gamble-Huff collaborating with Simon, this tune really will be bigger than all the others. Very funky with unbelievable lyrics. Give this dynamite side a listen.

DEDE'S DITTIES TO WATCH: "No Easy Way Down"—Walter Jackson (Wand); "Baby, I Need Your Loving"—Geraldine Hunt (Roulette); "I Don't Want To Do Wrong"—Love, Peace & Happiness (RCA); "A Little More Trust"—David Ruffin (Motown); "Rita"—Arthur Conley (Capricorn).

Chuck Mann, President of Cinema West Productions and Producer of the upcoming Soul and Blues Awards set for July 24, 1972 at the Century Plaza Hotel, has announced, that the Awards have attracted some of the biggest names in the Soul market. They have formed a Board of Governors and an Advisory Board. Sitting on the Advisory Board are: Russ Regan, Dick Clark, Larry Shaw, and Al Bell. He also would like to announce that 50 top Black deejays will be presenting the awards along with some leading movie and television personalities. Dinner tables will cost $500. With that you get dinner and show. Proceeds are going to the Negro Scholarship and Sickle Cell Anemia Foundation. For further details, contact Chuck Mann at (213) 654-7353.

Rev. Carlton Coleman, The Rock Minister, would like to make personal appearances. For those who would like to hear the truth about the world situation and everyday occurrences, call (212) 582-1960 or 265-3551.

As of Tuesday, June 13, Luther Ingram's "If Loving You Is Wrong (Then I Don't Want To Be Right)" on KoKo has sold a million copies. It looks as though the Stax Organization has another superstar.

For NATRA '72, being held in Philadelphia this year, emphasis will be placed on education. Also, they will be dealing with stations who do not serve the community. See you there.

"The Empress Of African Song," Miriam Makeba, has been signed to Armstead Visual Productions, Ltd. They have filled the duration of 1972 with tours throughout Africa, Europe and Scandinavia. In 1973, she will be touring the United States and the Carribean.

Radio Station KNOK has made some changes. "Mr. B." is now the Assistant Program Director and Music Director. Guy Brody formerly with Radio Station WOL is working drive time, 2-6 p.m. Congratulations to both.

President Nixon had a treat this past week when the Chi-Lites performed for him and his family. We understand that it was a great success. Hats off to what we consider the number one male recording group in the country.

Testimonial time again . . . it's about that we did pay homage to Al Jefferson of Radio Station WWIN. The affair will be held in Washington, D.C., around the beginning of November. Be watching for further details.

Arlene Schesel is now with Invictus Records, based on the coast. Arlene, congratulations to you and Invictus Records.

Our sympathy is extended to the family of Clyde McPhatter who passed away June 13.

How concerned can a major trade publication be about the Black movement if they in fact are holding a conference at the same time as NATRA?

Stevenson Will Produce GSF Discs

■ NEW YORK—Mickey Stevenson has been signed to produce for GSF Records, according to Len Sachs, Vice President of the firm. Stevenson is well-known for his string of major successes on the Motown family of labels.

Hits

He produced such hits as "Dancing In The Streets" and "My Baby Loves Me," by Martha and the Vandellas; Stevie Wonder's "Uptight;" "What Becomes Of The Broken Hearted," by David Ruffin; "Hitchhikin'" and "Pride and Joy" by Marvin Gaye; and, on another label, "This Old Town" by Wilson Pickett.

Initial Efforts

Stevenson will focus his initial production efforts on two new acts, Jessie Smith, and a group known as the Classic Example. Miss Smith, from Los Angeles, has worked as a background singer on many of Stevenson's productions. The Classic Example is also West Coast-based. First singles for both acts are due in August with albums to follow in the Fall.

Jimmy Castor: Just Beginning

By MIKE SIGMAN

■ NEW YORK—It's been a long time since Jimmy Castor, at the age of five, first took the stage at New York's Apollo Theater. This week Castor, along with his band, the Jimmy Castor Bunch (RCA), reaches the peak of his career thus far, as his "Troglodyte" jumps to the number six spot on The Singles Chart with a bullet. And, as the title of his RCA album (29) with a bullet suggests, "It's Just Begun."

In the 1950s

Born and bred a New Yorker, Jimmy both learned from and contributed to the 1950's New York rock & roll scene. His writing of "I Promise To Remember," a hit for Frankie Lymon & the Teenagers, was the high point of his early career. Then, after a brief period studying to be, and actually becoming, an accountant, he put another band together and had another hit, the unforgettable "Hey Leroy."

New Band

Now, of course, he's back in the thick of things again with a new band, consisting of Jimmy, Doug Gibson, Gerry Thomas, Bobby Manigault, Harry Jenson and Lenny Friddle. Asked about the emergence of "Troglodyte," he explained: "It was a Washington breakout record. Chuck McCool at WOL started playing it as an album cut, and the phone requests started pouring in. Then Harv Moore went on it at WPGC, and Jim Schwartz of Schwartz Brothers picked it right up and made the record for me." "Troglodyte" was forced out as a single, and the rest is history.

For the immediate future, Castor and his band plan more recording, writing, producing and playing live gigs.

CTI Moves

■ NEW YORK—In order to accommodate the expanded activities of CTI and KUDU Records,

Creed Taylor and his staff moved last week to new corporate quarters at One Rockefeller Plaza.

Soul Truth

Ingram (KoKo); "Let Me Take You"—Detroit Emeralds (Westbound); "Soul Train"—Ramrods (Rampage); Sleeper: "If This Is Our Last Time"—First Born (Atlantic); Additions: "Just Because He Wants To"—Moments (Stang); "Sexy Woman"—Endeavors (Gambit); "We've Come To Far"—Miracles (Tamla); "That's When I'll Stop"—W. Rogers (Ronn); "Honky Tonk"—James Brown (Polydor); "April Fools"—Aretha Franklin (Atlantic); "Was I Just A Fool"—Tyrone Davis (Dakar).

Jackson 5 Cuts New Davis Tune

■ NEW YORK—Clifton Davis, co-star of the new "Melba Moore-Clifton Davis Show," has written the title song of the new Jackson 5 album "Lookin' Through The Windows" on Motown. Davis wrote both words and music for the song.

His last song recorded by the Jackson 5 was the two million selling single, "Never Can Say Goodbye," which netted the star of the Broadway musical "Two Gentlemen of Verona" a Grammy Nomination for "Best Rhythm & Blues Song of the Year".

With Love

Al Green Folio

■ MIAMI — Screen Gems-Columbia Publications has released a songbook of hits by Al Green titled "Let's Stay Together." The folio contains the hit singles that have firmly established Green as one of the top male vocalists on the pop scene today.

Million Sellers

Headlining the book are the million-selling "Let's Stay Together" and "Tired Of Being Alone," as well as 11 other Al Green favorites, one of them being his latest smash single, "Look What You've Done For Me."

Motown To West Coast

However, Motown will continue to maintain Detroit-based recording studios and a creative staff.

"Our overall employment will be at an all-time high," Wilder said. He added: "Motown's obligation to its employees and their families call for it to positively maintain its competitive position in the industry. This is the only way to insure Motown's economic health and consequently the security of those who work for us. We now employ more Blacks than any other record company in the world and we will continue to do so, operating from our headquarters on the West Coast, which will allow us to lead the industry creatively."

Isaac Hayes To Score Tver

■ NEW YORK — Isaac Hayes (Enterprise) has been signed to create the overall theme music for the new ABC Television Network trilogy "The Men." The series will encompass "Assignment: Vienna" starring Robert Conrad, "Jigsaw" starring James Wainwright, and "The Delphi Bureau" starring Laurence Luckinbill.

■ Renovó Philips-Polydor su contrato de distribución en Estados Unidos y Puerto Rico con Miami Records, empresa de Don Carlos Díaz Granados, que sale esta semana hacia Buenos Aires. Después de cien conjeturas, quedó aclarado que Philips y Polydor se encuentran satisfechas del modo en que la empresa miamense está tratando su catalogo. Carlos Díaz Granados cuenta con un excelente equipo promocional, encabezado por el buen amigo Tito Garrote . . . Grabará Vicky Leandros, la excelente cantante griega, el tema ganador del Festival de Eurovisión 1972, "Aprés Toi" en Español. El tema ha sido bautizado en nuestro idioma como "Después de Tí" . . . Pedro y José María Fuentes, Gerente y Sub Gerente de Discos Fuentes de Colombia estuvieron de recorrido por Estados Unidos. También nos visita desde Perú el siempre cordial Augusto Sarria . . . Victor Manuel terminó su última película en Asturias y se presentará próximamente en un concierto en Madrid. Puerto Rico también comenzó a mover las grabaciones de este artista que está conquistando el mercado internacional latino con sus grabaciones . . . Saldrá próximamente el nuevo "álbum" de Elio Roca . . . Firmó Peer International a Hansel Enrique como compositor exclusivo. Hansel es autor del tema "Hoy Voy a Hacer mi Equipaje" ya grabado y exitoso en la voz de Kristian y en Discos Mónica, en producción de Augusto Monsalve y arreglos de Stan Wolf.

Vicky Leandros

Muy activo Mateo San Martín de South Eastern Records Manufacturing de Hialeah, Florida, en planes de creación de la Asociación de Fabricantes de Discos Latinos de Estados Unidos. Entre las grandes aspiraciones, figuran crear un medio fuerte latino, para hacerle frente a la piratería y duplicación ilegal de discos latinos, así como la eliminación de las grabaciones "cubre-exitos" en esta área.

Victor Manuel

Mateo se reunirá próximamente en Nueva York con los buenos amigos Jerry Massucci de Fania Records, Joe Cayre de Caytronics Corp. y Roger Lopez de Parnaso Records. Entre los temas que pretende Mateo llevar a mesa de discusión, es el cobro indebido por ciertas editoras, de temas que ya son de dominio público en ciertas oportunidades y en otras, duplicidad de exigencia de cobros, por varias editoras al mismo tiempo. Creo que existe un terreno ampliamente abonado, para que las gestiones de San Martín conlleven triunfo inmediato . . . Van Logrando triunfo los integrantes del Trio Los Reales del Ecuador, con el tema "Puerta de Oro" en grabación Fadisa . . . Declaró Gustavo Quintero al periodista colombiano Hernan Barrera Sosa: "En Colombia los artistas mueren pobres, en la absoluta miseria, cuando a costa de sus provisiones e inspiraciones, otros enriquecen."

Hansel Enrique

Avanza notablemente la influencia exitosa de la música nortea en todo México . . . Se presentó Andy Russell en el Century Plaza de los Angeles, en un elegante banquete ofrecido por la organización californiana "Nosotros". Andy recibirá el "Aguila de Oro" en Mexico en Julio 30 y actuará en Agosto 10 al 19 en Sheraton Inn de El Paso, Texas, para de ahí salir hacia Jack Pot, Nevada, donde actuará desde el 22 al 27 Agosto . . . pagos, Ramón Ayala y Cornelio Reyna, se han juntado de nuevo como dueto. La primera versión de este acontecimiento ha sido grabada en la etiqueta Gapoca y lleva por título "Soné con los Relampagos" . . . Filmando Sabú en Argentina su nuevo film "Rosas a Sandra" en una producción de Carlos Estevani en un argumento de Norberto Aroldi . . . Triunfa Claudia de Colombia en sus presentaciones en Caracas, Venezuela. Claudia está pegando fuerte en ambos países con su interpretación de "Tú Me Haces Falta" . . . Tico prepara el lanzamiento de nuevas grabaciones de Celia Cruz y La Lupe. El long playing de Celia contendrá parte de sus grandes éxitos en nuevos arreglos de Tito Puente y bajo el título de "Algo Especial para Recordar" . . . Se realizará próximamente un homenaje al Maestro Agustín Lara en Miami. Se espera que acudan Toña la Negra y Pedro Vargas . . . Y ahora . . . ¡Hasta la próxima!

Philips and Polydor re-inked their contract with Miami Records. This label is releasing their product in the United States and Puerto Rico. Carlos Diaz Granados, owner of Miami Records will travel to Buenos Aires, Argentina this week. Although a lot of comments had been traveling back and forth, it seems that Philips and Polydor are completely satisfied with the way Don Carlos and Tito Garrote are conducting the promotion of the labels in this area . . . Vicky Leandros, winner of Eurovision 1972 with "Apres Toi" in Greek, will cut this theme in Spanish under the title "Después de Ti" . . . Pedro and Jose María Fuentes, General and Sub-General Managers respectively of Discos Fuentes, Colombia, were in the States for two weeks taking care of their label's business . . . A new album by Elio Roca will be released in two weeks in the States . . . Provi García, International Manager of the Peer International Corp's Latin Division has announced the signing of Hansel Enrique, 20-year old Cuban-born composer to an exclusive contract. Ms. García feels that Enrique has the potential to become a major contemporary Latin composer. "He combines modern ideas in his lyrics with traditional Latin flavor and rhythm," Ms. García said. Enrique's first single "Hoy Voy a Hacer mi Equipaje" (Today I'm Going to Prepare my Luggage), arranged by Stan Wolf and produced by Augusto Monsalve, has just been recorded by Kristian on Peer Productions Inc.'s Discos Monica label. The single is already showing good response in Los Angeles and Miami.

Mateo San Martin, from South Eastern Records Mfg. Corp., is very active these days in an effort to create the Latin Records Manufacturers Association of the United States of America, in order to fight bootlegging and cover version releases in this area. Mateo San Martin will meet Jerry Massucci from Fania Records, Joe Cayre from Caytronics and Roged Lopez from Parnaso in order to get their impressions regarding the future of such an organization. Mateo is also planning to create some kind of understanding regarding the big problem that the industry is

■ LONDON—Apple Records in conjunction with Leslie Perrin have undertaken an intense promotion campaign for Chris Hodge's single "We're On Our Way," which could well repeat its Stateside success here. Singer-writer Hodge is signed to independent producer Andy Black's company with Robert Mellin, Blackberry Music.

Radio One disc jockey Rosko will broadcast his weekly Saturday program live from the U.S.A. during a visit which also includes the taping of several interviews with the Rolling Stones during their current tour. Meanwhile ex-Radio One jock, Kenny Everett makes a welcome return with a comedy show on Radio Four in which he will also include some contemporary music.

Polydor hitting hard with six singles in the current top 50—Slade, New Seekers and Chakachas are joined by America's Staple Singers and Frederick Knight via Stax and Judy Collins' ever-green version of "Amazing Grace," which Elektra left with them in spite of their recent switch to W.E.A. Among Polydor's new releases are Donny Osmond's chartbound "Puppy Love" (MGM), Shovel's reggae-styled "Learning To Live Again," and an excellent album from German rock band Faust. The company also joins the ranks of the "revivers" by reissuing Tin Tin's "Toast And Marmalade," competing with other companies looking to repeat previous successes this week: Atlantic (WEA)—"Soul Man" by Sam and Dave, Probe—"California Dreaming" by the Mamas and Papas, "Hit The Road Jack" by Ray Charles, "Sealed With A Kiss" by Brian Hyland, President (who have obtained the services of top music man Micky Clark to give them promotional assistance), "Getting Mighty Crowded" by Betty Everett.

Deep Purple will headline the Rainbow Theatre's re-opening on June 30 and a second appearance will follow on July 1. Other important forthcoming events include Don McLean's Royal Albert Hall concert on June 12, supported by the Natural Acoustic Band, a repeat performance at the same venue by Neil Diamond on June 17 and a free concert by the Beach Boys some time during the summer. McLean, happy about his first visit here will return for a vacation in August, while the Beach Boys, not quite so happy about their performance at last Saturday's Crystal Palace festival, due to unsuitable equipment, will undertake a free concert to give their fans compensation.

Instant success deserved for Vigrass and Osborne's single "Men Of Learning" and album "Queues" when released by MCA here shortly. Watch for Suzie Quatro's debut single which has now been chosen, from several tracks, by Micky Most—"Rolling Stone." Also due for release on Most's Rak label is an album by new band Alexis Korner and Peter Thorup (vocals), ex-King Crimson members Mel Collins (Sax/Flute), Bonz (bass), and Ian Wallis (drums).

■ BERLIN—Without modest people who grind out their daily task, and who are too often categorized as "little people," there wouldn't be any big people, and such is the case of friendly, helpful Gerhard Tornow who celebrates his 26th anniversary working for RIAS, Berlin in the Post Department. Gerhard told me he's a little man, but in my humble opinion, Gerhard's heart and soul are as big as the Empire State building.

Sounds like the new Musicor single, "Popcorn," will pop all over the charts shortly. We wish the Talmadges good luck . . . Captain Hank Kushmier, recently Chief Pilot of "Modern Air" jets all over Europe, and now Vice President, has our trade as a hobby, and when he's flying several thousand feet above mother earth, then he gets "Heavenly" ideas for the next recording session, and one of these days I'll accompany him around Europe sitting up front in the cockpit and dream up a "Jet Hit" . . . It couldn't have happened to a more deserving artist. I refer to Sammy Davis, Jr. with Candy Man, No. 1 stateside and tonight, Sammy's on my dj show via taped message plus a humorous quip from his buddy Dean "M" . . . Incidentally if any of you golfers ever get over to Berlin you can follow through on Berlin's greenest green by calling Sgt. John Linderman, Berlin 8196-537, and when you get to the golf course and order a drink, don't be surprised to see Connie Francis serve you. It's really Priscilla, the sergeant's wife, who's a double for Connie . . . The new single by Libby Morris due for release shortly on Electrola/EMI here, and this gal has a pair of golden pipes.

One of America's most talented and experienced radio station men is John Hendrik with RIAS, Berlin, and his many radio shows are not only a golden earful, but so is his quiet sincerity. So here's orchids plus golden cufflinks for John, especially his very popular show "Second Breakfast at Europa Center" on the air each Mody from 11:15-12:20, whereas his Club 18 Sundays, his "Klingendes Amerika" his "So beliebt wie damals" are all radio pearls . . . Polydor's James Last just returned from a Russian tour to Kiev, Leningrad and Moscow, and played to standing room audiences, but forgot to bring home some cold Borscht . . . What the devil is happening over at Liberty/UA office in Munich . . . Their Grand Prix artist Katya Ebstein suing them, the business chief Dr. Gerhard Weber has quit, etc. etc . . . Note to that fine lady in Italy of Durium Records, Lady

Elisabeth Mintangian. No, my dear, this reporter hasn't forgotten about his promise to you. It's only that the German record company you're interested in hasn't as yet come up with a hit for your country . . . Ariola Records in Munich has another hit with Udo Jürgens, "Vergiss die Liebe nicht (Don't Forget Love.)"

Here I go again making predictions for our industry all over the globe . . . The big summer hit of 1972 in Germany will be "Beautiful Sunday" by Daniel Boone on Bellaphon (Penny Farthing Records in England) . . . Johnny Cash, who missed Berlin on his recent tour of Europe, will make a special trip this fall to sold-out houses in Berlin. Uwe Lencher of Metronome Records in Hamburg will settle down in Hamburg while working for Metro-nome Records, will fall for a Hamburg lass and get hitched . . . Kurt Richter, Teldec director, will get photographed for the umpteenth time and wear a broad smile while granting another gold record. Dr. Hans Gerig of the great Gerig pubbery will form a record label called "Gerig" . . . BASF Records will hit the stateside album charts with a great jazz album . . . Larry Uttal will ring the cash register bell again with a European master . . . Ariola Records will buy another big star . . . August Seiths and Fred Sammüller will hit the LP charts with the "Kaiserliche Böhmischen (Kaisers Bohemians)" . . . Maple Music Junket

A party of 20 French-speaking journalists and broadcasters flew in two days ahead of the Junket for shows at La Butte A Mathieu, Val David (3) and La Place Des Arts (4).

The Maple Music Junket was a project launched by Canada's recording and popular music industry, supported financially by the federal government and the record industry, and designed to develop markets in Europe for Canadian popular records.

The guests who arrived in Montreal last weekend as part of the Junket included many of the most prominent youth-oriented writers and programmers in the world.

Both Radio One and Two networks of the BBC, and BBC-TV, had representatives reporting on the Junket. Newspaper reps from Britain included writers from the Times, the Daily Mail, the Guardian, the Evening News, the Daily Mirror the Sunday Times, and the Evening Standard. U.K. pop press was represented by New Musical Express, Disc and Music Echo, Melody Maker, Record Mirror, Music Week, Petticoat and Sound.

Continental broadcasting was represented by program staff from Austrian Radio, Radio Madrid, TV Esanola, TV Sweden, Sveriges Radio, Danish Radio, Belgian Radio, Dutch Radio and Finnish Radio.

Magazines reporting on the Junket included Best, Chaval, Salut les Copains, Sonovision, Extra (France); Bravo, Der Musikmarkt, Burda, Show (Germany); El Musical (Spain); Muziek Express (Holland); Suosikki (Finland); and Jukebox (Belgium).

Together these media people make up the largest collection of foreign press ever to assemble on Canadian soil at one time.

The $100,000 Junket was financed by members of the Canadian Recording Manufacturers' Association, CAPAC and BMIC (the two performing rights societies) and the Federal Government through the Secretary of State.

Only French and Belgian journalists and broadcasters turned out for the two Quebec Chaud French-language concerts on the weekend but the full contingent of delegates made it to the first five hour English concert at the Theatre Maisonneuve (Place des Arts) on Monday (5).

The Stampeders and Anne Murray rounded out the show that included The Poppy Family, Tapestry, Frank Mills, Moe Koffman and the superb pianist Andre Gagnon.

On Tuesday morning (6), the guests were transported to Toronto on three special railway coaches. The concert, that evening, started an hour late and featured folk music. Showcased were: The Mercey Brothers, Christopher Kearney, Mur-

College Seminar Update

By GARY COHEN

NEW YORK — ABC/Dunhill Records has announced a change in format regarding their college radio seminars. The label, innovator of college radio seminars, has been holding seminars every month for college radio people in the L.A. area, but now will be scheduling them only when there is a special event or artist they feel is important enough to invite the campus broadcasters to see and hear. In the past, seminars were held once a month by a number of labels (see Record World Campus Report of May 27) and the scheduling of so many seminars at one time was beginning to cause conflicts and lack of attendance.

Steve Resnick, National Promotion Director for ABC stated, "college radio people are operating under limited finances, on their own time, without college credits. Rather than hold our seminars regularly on a monthly basis, we will hold them whenever a special event warrants it. We hope that this new format will be more convenient to college radio staffers, already hard-pressed for spare time."

ABC's most recent seminar was held last May 21 at the Holiday Inn in Santa Monica, preceding the last appearance of the artists in the Impulse West Coast Tour. Over 70 representatives from college radio stations throughout Southern California gathered there, and had an opportunity to meet Alice Coltrane and Michael White. On the record side were label's Dennis Laventhal, Vice President in charge of sales and promotion, and Julie Zimand, who discussed record merchandising, pressing, and distribution with the college broadcasters.

By their latest move, ABC continues to improve the campus seminar program they pioneered.

While most college stations take the time to communicate with record companies, there are a few that don't. Companies spend many thousands of dollars a year to service college radio operations, and while most of them give feedback, communication, and take time to answer questionnaires, some few don't. Polydor Records dropped some stations from their mailing lists for non-communication, and sent them the following letter:

"This is just a note to inform you that your station has been dropped from Polydor's regular college mailing list. We manufacturers are constantly flooded with complaints from college radio stations about lack of service and communication. We at Polydor have a very active college promotion department and must receive in turn for service some consistent feedback regarding our product, what is being played, cuts, etc. On numerous occasions I have requested that your station form lines of communication with Polydor by way of answering simple questionnaires that were accompanied by self-addressed stamped envelopes for ease of reply. In my opinion Polydor has initiated a method of communication between college radio and the company that is very beneficial for all concerned. Your station by not keeping those channels open has, we assume, decided to ignore the opportunity for communication. It is unfortunate, but we now feel obliged to eliminate those stations who have not at any time replied to our attempts of solidifying relations."

Savoy Brown celebrated their fifth hit album by setting three extensive Stateside tours. The band, still amazingly unsuccessful here, will tour the East Coast between August 3-27 the West Coast between October 4-16, and will return in February, 1973, to fulfill dates nation-wide.

Steve Gottlieb has announced the appointment of Hilton Price as a director of Phonodisc, the distribution organization for all Phonogram and Polydor product. Price was formerly general marketing manager for Phonogram.

CBS has completed negotiations for two major signings this month. Firstly, American-born British resident Scott Walker has signed a long-term contract to make two albums a year and secondly Cat Stevens' talented guitarist Alun Davies debuts with his album which is already completed. The company will also issue new albums by Lesley Duncan "Some Sweet Day," and Colin Blunstone (Epic) who is mid-way through his next.

Court Upholds Copyright Law

found in the copyright clause, the Court held, noting that this point was even conceded by the plaintiff during the oral argument.

The Court also found a clear distinction between compulsory licensing for copyrighted musical compositions which, it said, "promotes the arts by permitting numerous artistic interpretations of a single written composition." and the plaintiff's demand that such compulsory licensing likewise be extended to sound recordings.

"If Congress in 92-140 had extended the compulsory licensing provisions to call for licensing of companies that wish to make and sell identical versions of the recorded compositions, these public benefits would not result. Consumer choices would not be broadened since identical interpretations would be supplied first by the originator and later by the licensee. Equally important, competition and the creative aspects of the industry would be impaired since established recording firms would be discouraged from investing in new arrangements and performers, if they were compelled to license their successful interpretations to those desiring to take advantage of the originator's initiative and to add nothing themselves."

Finally, the Court rejected as without merit the argument that the law was ambiguous. It held that the purpose of the statute was to provide a limited copyright in sound recordings to protect them against unauthorized duplication and "piracy," and said that the language in the law is designed to carry out that purpose.

Partridge Family

Meanwhile, as soon as Bell found out about the mistake they sent out hundreds of telegrams warning stations to audition the new Partridge record before putting it on the air. Irv Biegel Bell Records Executive Vice President explained, "the mistake was made at the factory. In order to be sure that there is absolutely no possibility of error at the radio stations, we are shipping out regular label copies. We advise everyone who has received a deejay copy to listen to it to be sure that they have the Partridge Family record."

■ Freddie Hart has cut two songs, "Riderless Wagon" and "When You Speak to the Kids" for the 20th Century-Fox movie, "When A Legend Dies" . . . Freddie concludes interviews and/or conversations with reports on a polite and courteous note: "Bless your heart and thank you" . . . "Bless Your Heart" is title of his current chart-riding single. . . .

This is Bluegrass Music Month and the founding father of that type of music, Bill Monroe, has been appointed an honorary page in the U.S. House of Representatives, thanks to efforts U.S. Rep. Richard Fulton (D.-Tenn.).

By now it is assumed that nearly everybody knows that Chet Atkins fell off a platform while taping an appearance on the Jerry Reed CBS-TV summer series in Hollywood (June 8) and suffered a badly injured knee. The knee is in a cast and will be for more than two weeks.

Songwriter Shel Silverstein added insult to injury for his friend Atkins when he commented, "Chet will probably wear the cast for two days to ease the pain — and two weeks for sympathy."

Vandals have cut down and stolen the Star Spangled Banner that flies daily on a flagpole in Roy Acuff's yard four times in the past six months. Roy is angry. "I'm fed up with this kind of thievery," Roy told the local police. The lawmen offered Acuff this sympathetic observation: "We cannot recall hearing of an American flag being stolen. A flag is just something that is not usually stolen."

Porter Wagoner and his show are vacationing until July 14, when they begin a long hot summer of Fair dates . . . Singer Jamey Ryan will join Faron Young's act for 30 performances during the hot months. The Stoneman Family will do 25 concerts next month in Kentucky towns, sponsored by the Kentucky Rural Electric Co-op (KRECA) . . . Howdy Forrester has been elected president of the Nashville Association of Talent Directors . . . Strong and silent Howdy, who heads up Acuff-Rose Artists Bureau, succeeds Tandy Rice of Top Billing, Inc.

Midwest booker Hap Peebles signed the Jack Greene-Jeannie Seely show for 40 Fairs. Hap says this is the greatest number of dates he's ever used an act during one season.

Birthdaying: Chet Atkins, Jimmy Driftwood, Roy Drusky, Diana Trask, June Carter.

Tommy Cash and his Tomcats concluded successful three weeks engagement at Harrah's Club lounge in Reno . . . Did 56 shows during their 21-day stand. . . .

Hee Haw co-host Roy Clark makes his movie debut in a western comedy titled "Up Hill All the Way" . . . Clark will pick, sing and act in the picture. "It's about two cowboys who can't do anything right," says Clark, who'll write the music, too. "I play one of them. The co-lead hasn't been cast. We'll film next fall in Oklahoma, Colorado and probably Hollywood." The project is being produced by Roy's company in conjunction with his manager, Jim Halsey.

Dedicate Library, Media Center

■ NASHVILLE—More than 80 persons representing the Nashville music industry, local businesses, city universities and State and City government gathered in the downstairs section of the Country Music Hall of Fame building for the formal dedication of the Country Music Foundation Library and Media Center.

The Library was completed at a cost of more than $200 thousand and the modern facility includes collections of books, bound periodicals, audio and video tapes, film, newspaper and magazine clippings, and more than 14 thousand disc recordings. Taken as a whole, the collection is one of the finest in the world related to Country Music and Anglo-American folksong.

In his keynote remarks in the half-hour ceremony, Ralph Rinzler, Director of Programs in American Folklife for the Smithsonian Institution, stressed the close relationship between American folksong and commercial Country Music, and emphasized the importance of special libraries in the preservation of the materials of folk and popular culture.

William Ivey, County Music Foundation Executive Director, termed the ceremony a "reunion," and indicated that nearly everyone present "had a direct role in the growth of the Country Music Hall of Fame, (Continued on page 44)

SINGLE JODY MILLER, "THERE'S A PARTY GOIN' ON," (Algee/Flagship, BMI). Sherrill scores again! This will launch Jody as the country chart topper she should be. Another tricky production, which this time utilizes a cappella breaks to enhance the lyric. Epic 5-10878.

SLEEPER RONNIE SESSIONS, "NEVER BEEN TO SPAIN," (Lady Jane Music, BMI). Exciting Larry Henley production on a tune that's long overdue as a country record. Song has been a pop hit so boxes will probably move slowly, but airplay will come hot and heavy. A country smash! MGM K14394.

ALBUM "CONWAY TWITTY'S GREATEST HITS VOL. 1," When Decca says "Greatest Hits," this time they're not whistlin' Dixie! Can you believe one side of an album with "Hello Darlin'," "I Wonder What She'll Think," "Fifteen Years Ago" and "Darlin' You Know I Wouldn't Lie"; and on the other side "I Can't See Me Without You," "How Much More Can She Stand" and "The Image of Me!" And there's four more goodies! Better get two copies, you'll wear it out! Decca DL7-5352.

The tremendous tune that's taking tiny, thirteen-year-old Tanya Tucker to the top:

Ivey stressed that "it is important to note that the energy which produced the Library and Media Center came almost entirely from the private sector of our economy." He continued by emphasizing the dedication of the music industry: "few industries have shown such dedication to the preservation of their own pasts. The completion of the Library and Media Center is a remarkable achievement for the music industry and the Nashville community."

In addition to its basic collection of books, periodicals, and recordings, the Library and Media Center publishes a quarterly journal, The Journal of Country Music, and maintains an oral history project which seeks to preserve, in tape-recorded interviews, the living memories of important artists and businessmen within the Country Music field.

The Library also maintains a video-tape program, which records television productions for use by students and researchers

Junior Samples is back at the Hee Haw set taping shows for next season. Docs have advised Junior to reduce his weight, cut down on his food and liquid intake and get more sleep. "Junior," quips Grandpa Jones, "will have to do more napping and less nipping."

Loretta Lynn scrubbed a planned vacation in Florida and is resting at home. The Decca diskstar needs a rest. She's been working much too hard.

Ferlin Husky took time out during tour of Maryland to visit his longtime friend Gov. George Wallace at the Silver Springs hospital where he is recovering from wounds suffered in that shooting.

The pretty blonde on the cover of Porter Wagoner's newest RCA album, "Ballads of Love," is his 17-year-old daughter Denise Mayree Wagoner. She also wrote the liner notes; cleverly done. Mac Wiseman is presenting his second annual Renfro Valley Bluegrass Music Festival July 14-15-16 at Renfro Valley, Ky. . . . The who's who of bluegrass tunes will perform . . . The promotional brochures about the festival aridly warn: "Alcoholic Beverages Not Allowed in Concert Area" . . . The Culpeper Va. Bluegrass festival drew 10,000. 50 per cent of the crowd for the June 10 and 11 dates were college kids, according to Bluegrass booker Don Light.

COUNTRY SINGLE REVIEWS

JOHNNY CASH & JUNE CARTER—Columbia 4-45631

IF I HAD A HAMMER (TRO/Ludlow, BMI)

PP&M had a monster hit on this Pete Seeger song several years ago. Johnny's Larry Butler production is funky enough for a successful rerun.

JERRY REED—RCA 74-0738

ALABAMA WILD MAN (Vector, BMI)

TAKE IT EASY (IN YOUR MIND) (Vector, BMI)

Jerry's summer TV show debuts June 20, so this is a timely release. Uptempo rockabilly feel that has characterized the "Nashville Wildman" since he sold a million copies of "Amos Moses."

WAYNE ARMSTRONG—Cutlass CC-116-S

I'D TAKE A CHANCE ON TOMORROW (Moss-Rose, BMI)

THE MOST BEAUTIFUL THING IN THE WORLD (Moss-Rose, BMI)

Billy Carr's new label has come with an easy rocking country outing that is a fine intro for the new country outlet. Flip is a beautiful John Wesley Ryles song which is worth a listen also.

DALE WARD—Dot DOA-17425 (Famous)

I CAN'T BUILD A BRIDGE TO GET ME OVER YOU (Moss-Rose, BMI)

SOMETHING YOU GOT (Thursday, BMI)

Popular Jim Foglesong has produced his best stone country product on good sounding Ward. Well thought-out lyric.

BILLY EDD WHEELER—RCA 74-0739

200 LBS. O'SLINGING HOUND (United Artists, ASCAP)

THE HOEDOWN (Family of Man, ASCAP)

Great record from a top rate artist who's due for a big hit. Super-fast tempo and cute lyric will guarantee quick airplay.

CHARLIE McCOY—Monument ZS7-8546 (CBS)

I'M SO LONESOME I COULD CRY (Fred Rose, BMI)

This is the follow-up to Charlie's Number One harmonica instrumental. Very much a beer drinker's country blues rendition that will bring a tear to listeners' eyes. A moving hit.

CHUCK RODEN—Nashville Talking Machine M-002

TRUCK DRIVER'S LAMENT (G. B. Music, Inc., ASCAP)

606 LOVE STREET (Glaser, BMI)

Terrific lyric that should hit truckers right between the eyes. Driver laments the fact that he's away from his family so much. Label belongs to the Glaser Bros.

GUNILLA HUTTON—Dial 1015 (Mercury)

YOU CAN SAY THE PRETTIEST THINGS SOMETIMES (Tree, BMI)

THE GREATEST STORY NEVER TOLD (Tree, BMI)

Red Lane and Larry Henley wrote the Hee Haw regular's first country record. Buddy Killen produced this highly commercial product.

LORETTA LYNN—Decca 32974

HERE I AM AGAIN (Evil Eye, BMI)

Beautiful ballad from the Playboy pen of Shel Silverstein. Perfect blend of country lyric and memorable melody line.

TOM T. HALL—Mercury 73297

SHE GAVE HER HEART TO JETHRO (Hallnote, BMI)

THE MONKEY THAT BECAME PRESIDENT (Hallnote, BMI)

Both sides are from the "We All Got Together And" album. Plug side is a novelty. Flip is a heavy thing with a kick line that says: "She gave her heart to Jethro and her body to the whole damn world."

KITTY WELLS—Decca 32976

LOVE IS THE ANSWER (Needahit, BMI)

A BRIDGE I JUST CAN'T BURN (Needahit, BMI)

The "Queen" has an uptempo rinky-tink love song written by her front man Bill Phillips and her guitarist Wayne Manning.

David Houston means every word when he sings his next #1 hit!

Maple Music Junket International Draw

ray McLauchlan (backed by bassist Dennis Pendrith), Gary Buck, Bruce Cockburn, Fergus and Perth County Conspiracy.

The final Maple Music concert (7) proved to be by far the most exciting, highlighted by excellent sets from Lighthouse and Crowbar. Also appearing were Pepper Tree, Fludd, Edward Bear and April Wine.

The CBC has announced that shows on the Maple Music Junket will be broadcast on the CBC-TV network and both CBC-AM and FM radio networks.

There will be two 60-minute radio specials entitled Maple Music-Ahead of the Record. On the AM network the first program will be broadcast Saturday, July 1 at 1:30 pm and the second program, Friday, July 7 at 8:30 pm. These same two programs will be telecast on CBC-FM stations with the first scheduled for Saturday, July 1 at 6:05 pm and the second, Saturday, July 8 at 8:30 pm.

The television special will be a 90-minute color film to be scheduled to the full network late in September.

The television special was produced and directed by Athan Katsos. The radio program was produced by Paul Mills. Both the radio and television programs are written by Bill Howell, freelance writers.

The sound was recorded on 16 track by Enactron, under the supervision of Brian Ahern and engineer Chris Skene.
