1930 Census Affects Allocations

THE 1930 population census, which will result in important changes in the representation of a number of states in Congress, may also operate to bring about changes in the quota system of the Federal Radio Commission, which was based on earlier census figures, if the commission undertakes really to equalize radio facilities among the zones and among the states in each zone as required under the law.

The question of equalization has been discussed at recent meetings of the commission, which for some weeks has been toying with proposals for bringing it about, and Commissioner E. O. Sykes has joined with Commissioner Ira E. Robinson in urging that the engineering division be instructed to make a study of the entire broadcasting situation and prepare a chart in which each zone is allocated its equal share of radio facilities and each state its share of such facilities in proportion to population. It would, however, be left to the discretion of the commission whether such a set-up should be adopted in toto, modified or rejected.

Considerable improvement in broadcasting conditions could be secured, according to General Saltzman, chairman of the commission, by enforcing strictly the regulations which, he says, the records show, have been violated frequently. The commission, in his opinion, should investigate every violation and determine the worthiness of every station "with a view to the gradual elimination of the unfit and unworthy, as occasion arises, by the procedure prescribed by law, and with a view to the maintenance of the highest standard of performance by all stations."

THE possibility of fire hazard from high-frequency radio transmitting apparatus in the vicinity of airplane fueling areas and the necessity for special precautions against the operation of transmitters on aircraft while they or other aircraft in close proximity are being fueled is receiving the attention of radio experts of the aeronautics division of the Department of Commerce.

The hazard from high-frequency transmitters in the vicinity of fueling areas offers a new problem on which, in the view of aviation officials, some experimental work is required. The hazard from this source, it is explained, is similar to that from static charges accumulating on airplane gasoline tanks and gasoline supply hose. The same precautions will apply in part, but there are resonance effects in the case of high-frequency radio current which may require additional precautions or greater distance separation between the two elements of the hazard, namely, the radio transmitter and the gasoline servicing point.

These problems were discussed recently at a meeting of the committee on aeronautic radio research.

MICROPHONE GOSSIP

Over ten thousand pictures of the Happy Go Lucky Hour artists have been mailed to coast fans of the Don Lee Chain. Requests for the picture are still pouring in. The profits from the sale will be added to the Don Lee Christmas Fund.

Excitement reached fever pitch when the announcement was made that Paul Pitman, KPO's educational director, would resume the broadcasts of his Pacific Coast School of the Air on Monday, January 5, 1:30 to 2 p. m., and every Monday and Wednesday at that time thereafter until May 27.

Pitman will conduct the Pacific Coast School of the Air from the studios of the National Broadcasting Company.

* * *

There are eighty-six Scotch families on the island of Hilo who want to know whether Samuel Gayley Mortland, whom NBC listeners know as "Yir Frien' Scotty" comes from the north of Scotland or the south. They wrote to him at the San Francisco studios of NBC not long ago, asking him to settle the question. But if you think the eighty-six households sent in individual queries, you don't know your Caledonians. Cannily, they used one sheet of paper, with a round robin of eighty-six names signed to it, and requiring just one two-cent stamp.

* * *

The KFI Midnight Frolic, which goes on the air at 12 p.m. (Pacific standard time) every Saturday evening, has a new skipper—Roger King.

Roger succeeds Jerry Kay, who took over the frolic from Harry Hall about a year ago.

Several changes have been made in the announcing staff of KJBS. The new voice on the Owl Program is that of Carl A. Christiansen, who was with KJBS several years ago and since that time has been associated with KPO. Charles Parker, chief owl for the past few months, is back on the air during daylight hours.

* * *

Harold Isbell, who started his career as an announcer at KFI, Los Angeles, seven years ago, has returned to his radio alma mater. Isbell became extremely fed up with wandering up and down America, and decided that the stories about California weather were not all exaggerations. Isbell's last eastern station was WENR, Chicago, where he made an enviable record.

Jap Tapp, KGER's chief engineer the past three years, has called into play his inventive genius and puts in a double relay circuit to the municipal bandstand at Long Beach. Now when the band is playing, the technician in charge merely switches a few plugs and the announcing between numbers is done from the main studio. This saves having an announcer run down to the bandstand afternoons and evenings when the band is on the air. Fans who constantly root for "fewer announcers" will undoubtedly give unstinted praise to Engineer Tapp's new technical gadget or what-not.

* * *

Betty Mareno, NBC violinist, is the daughter of an Italian family which comes from a village near Naples. Her father was a harpist under Hadley's directorship in Seattle, and her uncle, Pietro Mareno, is a violinist with the Metropolitan Opera House in New York. Another uncle, Nicoli Pinella is a flutist in San Francisco.

* * *

Gogo Delys and Ray Winters have resigned from KHJ and are heading for their respective homes. Gogo, blues singer and star of West Coast Theatres prologues, hails from the Pacific Northwest and Vancouver. Ray, announcer, has reigned as manager at various midwest stations and is heading for the big timber country of West Virginia where a possum, wild turkey, venison and family are waiting him for the holidays. Gogo will probably get a large pink salmon.

* * *

Gerda Lundberg, who sings child songs and popular numbers on the KTAB "Night Owls" program, is featured on the college comic strip, "Educating Wuzzy." She takes the part of the delightful college freshman, gay and carefree and interested in everything. The continuity is written by Samuel B. Dickson, whose "Toby and Babs" series were so popular recently.

Bill Ray, KGER manager, has been elected program chairman for the coming year for the Radio and Music Trades Association . . . monthly meetings in Los Angeles at the Breakfast Club.

Wesley B. Tourtellotte, the famous midnight organist of KHJ, the Don Lee station in Los Angeles, no more will pull the vox humana stop on the studio organ. In the future he will operate on other organs. His place at KHJ has been taken by Leigh Harline, the Salt Lake lad, who came to KHJ via KFRC and degenerated from a singer and organist into a popular composer and staff arranger. The regeneration of Leigh Harline is the next chapter in the life and works of this Pacific Coast radio personality.

* * *

After watching a marriage procession at the KJR and Northwest Broadcasting System studios all summer long, John Pearson, popular announcer, joined the long line. He was ninth in line, eight having preceded him. John was married to Miss Mae Lowther after an extended courtship.

* * *

The latest verified reception of the KJBS Owl Program comes from Honolulu, Hawaiian Islands. Reception was reported at midnight Island time or 2:30 Pacific standard time Tuesday morning, November 4, 1930. This is the second time KJBS has been heard in the Hawaiian Islands.

* * *

Stuart Strong, who conducts the "Date Book" program over KPO every day from 5:30 to 5:45 has built up quite a reputation for himself through his ability as an orator. Stuart used to be one of the mainstays of the University of California's debating team and in three years appeared on the platform for his Alma Mater thirty-seven times. He has carried his experiences and ability into the radio field and is meeting with unusual success.

* * *

Dick Rickard has been added to the production department of KFRC, headed by Merle Matthews. Dick is being called the "chain expert" about the station. He was first a member of the KHJ staff, was transferred to KVI, Tacoma, then to KOL, and now to KFRC.

In addition to his other activities it is expected his voice will be heard on the air announcing some of the programs. He is a graduate of the University of Washington.

BEHIND the MIKE with DOBBSIE

DID you know that . . . Captain Dobbsie was born on a Kentucky plantation and now has a hobby of raising blue-blooded German police dogs?

Sambo—in real life Samuel Moore—was once well known in the South as a concert violinist. And probably still would be except for an accident suffered on a hunting trip which made his 'bow arm' stiff?

"Wee Willy" stands six feet, is broad shouldered, has blue eyes, a winning smile and just recently got married?

Captain Dobbsie formerly was a physical culture instructor and supervised construction of children's playgrounds in New York City, Denver and Seattle? Dobbsie helped survey the boundary line between Canada and Alaska?

Dick Jose was at one time one of the most famous and best loved minstrels in the stage world? Cy Trobbe's real name is Simon Trobovich?

Dobbsie was sitting in his office one day listening to the "try-out" period being broadcast over one of San Francisco's big stations. "Mrs. Allen Ryan is next on the program" Dobbsie heard. Then came a sweet voice full of true southern drawl. In that voice coming over the loudspeaker Dobbsie recognized a certain quality and individuality that he knew would "click" with his Shell Happytime audience. He called the station from which the broadcast had come and asked Mrs. Ryan to drop in at his office the following day.

"Did station—offer you a contract?" Dobbsie inquired, when Mrs. Ryan appeared the following day.

"No," she replied rather sadly, "the program director said he didn't feel that my tone was quite developed enough for broadcast work." "Well, from now on your name is Dixie Marsh," said Dobbsie to the surprised Mrs. Ryan, "and you are going to be a featured artist on the Shell Happytime. You are to sing southern melodies and whatever you do, don't lose that southern accent. It's priceless."

The voice of Dixie Marsh, which Dobbsie picked as a "winner" after it had been turned down by other radio experts, has won a warm spot in the hearts of thousands of Happytime fans. Truly, it has proven as priceless as Dobbsie predicted.

Daniel O'Brien, popular

"Irish tenor" of the Happytime program, is another who owes his radio career to Captain Dobbsie's unusual ability to judge what the radio public wants in its entertainment.

While Dobbsie was in Seattle last February to participate in the Seattle Auto Show, he attended a banquet one evening, at which O'Brien sang several numbers as part of the entertainment. So enamored was Dobbsie with O'Brien's voice that he invited him to come to San Francisco as a featured artist on the Happytime. The rest of the story is radio history. O'Brien's first appearance before the microphone brought in a flood of more than 500 enthusiastic fan letters in the next day's mail. His audience has grown rapidly until today he is one of the bright spots of radio, his voice known and loved by thousands upon thousands of listeners throughout the West. His ability recently attracted the attention of theatrical producers and he was given a contract to appear over the Radio-Keith-Orpheum circuit, where he gained additional plaudits.

William Powvers

Dixie Marsh

Star of Schubert productions, Keith-Orpheum and Publix Theaters' stages, Myrtle Leonard is among the latest to lend a charming voice and personality to the Happytime program. Miss Leonard has recently come to the Pacific Coast after a year as staff artist with the National Broadcasting Company in New York City. Prior to that she took part in numerous Schubert productions, was a member of the New York Oratorio Society and toured the United States over the circuits of Keith-Orpheum and Publix Theaters. Early this year Miss Leonard added another feather to her musical cap with her appearance as featured soloist with the Los Angeles Philharmonic Orchestra.

Had it not been for the beneficence of two people—one, a wealthy plantation owner, and the other, a Russian countess—the West might never have had the golden voice of William Powers, popular negro baritone of the Shell Happytime.

It was while Powers was singing in his school exercises at Tuskegee, Alabama, that J. C. Pinkston, millionaire cotton grower, heard and became interested in his voice and offered to send the young singer to Paris for vocal studies. The death of his benefactor a year and a half later found Powers stranded in the French capital without funds enough to return to America.

"There was nothing else to do but get back the best way I could," Powers reminisces. "The best way happened to be swabbing decks aboard a tramp steamer, which landed in New York City just as the United States entered the war."

Powers apparently didn't mind his deck-swabbing job, for he turned around and immediately joined the United States Navy. Upon the close of the war he worked his way across the country to San Diego, where his voice attracted the attention of Madame Laura De Turzuanovitcha, a Russian countess, and a favorite singer in her own country. Under her guidance Powers remained for nearly three years, culminated by a chance to tour the nation-wide circuit of the Pantages Theaters. Upon completion of his Pantages contract Powers came to San Francisco, where he met Captain Dobbsie and began his career as a featured artist on the Shell Happytime. That was nearly three years ago. Today Powers is unquestionably the greatest and most popular colored singer in the West.

Edward Randall, Jr., whose baritone voice is heard via the Shell Happytime every Wednesday morning, was at one time hailed as the coming world's champion tennis star. He had already reached eighteenth place in the United States elimination play when he discovered that strenuous tennis playing and vocal lessons do not mix and was forced to choose between the two. He chose the latter and began in earnest to cultivate his voice under the famous La Forge of New York City. The year 1926 found him in California, recovering from a series of operations. While here he met Captain Dobbsie, who, upon hearing him sing, offered him a contract on the Happytime program, where he has remained ever since.

Here's a Salary Booster

I heartily agree with S. M. of Sacramento as to her opinion of Al Pearce.

I have been listening to him for over two years now, and in all that time he has never failed to bring sunshine and happiness to me and all who listen.

Yes, Al Pearce has a marvelous voice, it is so clear and natural. He is wonderful in solo work, and in harmonizing with Cal.

Al and Cal are two marvelous boys.

I'm a very steady radio fan. Although I like KFRC best, I also enjoy other stations.

Hoping to make everybody happy with the knowledge that their efforts are being appreciated,

M. H., Monterey, Calif., Nov. 22

What's the Matter with CBS?

I want to agree very heartily with B. T. W. about KFRC. I think that it is the best station on the coast. I am not saying anything against any of the other stations, as I listen to many other programs on other stations.

I also want to back W. J. S. of Oakland, who likes Art Kirkham. I think that station KOIN should be very proud of him.

Now for a little criticism. I think that BROADCAST WEEKLY certainly ought to give the Columbia Broadcasting System a program schedule like you give to the National Broadcasting Company. (Editor's Note: CBS does not furnish us with this service.)

I think that it would be quite interesting if BROADCAST WEEKLY conducted a favorite station contest and see which station is the favorite with your readers. If you do, my vote is for KFRC.

J. J. B., Berkeley, Calif., Nov. 22

More Pictures, Please!

I don't agree with P. T. W., either, about the Open Circuit. It may contain a lot of criticism, but it gives the fans a chance to tell just what they want. And how are the programs and the BROADCAST WEEKLY itself to be improved if not by constructive criticism. Nothing is perfect, you know.

I certainly enjoy reading the BROADCAST, but may I offer a few humble suggestions? Can't Gypsy be given another page? Her articles are very interesting, but she doesn't seem to have enough space. It very often takes about three months to get an answer to a question. Secondly, I'd like to see more pictures of the radio stars. We used to get four to a page and now we only get two. Thirdly, what has become of the "Radio Tattler." They were very good articles and we do miss them.

I thoroughly agree with S. M. about the Jamboree—it can't be beat. Simpy Fitts is another artist on that program that deserves a hand.

W. R., North Sacramento, Calif., Nov. 21

Three Cheers for Casey

Three cheers for Casey, who wrote concerning the change of program of the Radio Guild and the substituting of a speech-making hour. There are some of us who look forward all week to the drama hour and then the station puts on another program, never telling us why there is a change or if at all the drama hour is coming back on the air.

I get BROADCAST WEEKLY and every Sunday go through the book marking with red pencil the programs I care most to hear for the week. Imagine anyone foolish enough to plan the marketing so they can be home in time for a radio drama and then being disappointed. Perhaps you couldn't appreciate that unless you had had to depend entirely on your radio for entertainment and enlightenment.

"Daffy Dill," Stockton, Calif., Nov. 23

Again, We Repeat—It's Up to CBS

Hurrah, at last somebody has got gump-ton to write what I have raved about for a long time, that the Columbia artists and programs get a break.

In the East they have the best orchestras, and as for sport announcers, Ted Husing has Graham McNamee beat a mile.

On the Coast, the Happy-Go-Lucky Hour is the most popular program, and now that we have the Hallelujah Hour in the morning, we always turn that on. Then there is Feminine Fancies, which I enjoy much more than the Woman's Magazine of the Air, and the Jamboree is much better than anything the NBC has.

Yours for more publicity for the Columbia network, to even things up a little.

BROADCAST WEEKLY will be delivered to your door every week for one full year for only $3.00.

PERSONAL PICKUPS

BY GYPSY

E. L., San Francisco.—Ted Husing (CBS) was born in Deming, New Mexico, about thirty years ago.

* * *

M. E., Portland.—George Eldredge (NBC, KPO) is six feet tall, weighs 195 pounds, has blue eyes, rakish red-blond hair, is in his early thirties, a San Franciscan by birth, and is of Scotch-Irish origin. His father was a clergyman and he has a brother in New York who holds a prominent place on the legitimate stage. George was educated abroad, has hob-nobbed with royalty, sung in European opera, is thoroughly cosmopolitan, and has the courage of his convictions. Genuine, liberal, absolutely unaffected.

* * *

H. B., Oakland.—Dell Raymond (KJBS) is 5 feet 3 inches tall, weighs about 145 pounds, has dark brown eyes, pleasant, regular features, and hair that is coal black. She was born in San Francisco, is of Turkish parentage, is unmarried, unencumbered with aversions, loves roses and prefers red to all other colors. Radio has claimed her for four years, and when she is not broadcasting she is arranging programs for disabled veterans or making professional appearances at various theatres and social functions.

* * *

L. L. A., Port Townsend.—The personnel of the school-day's skit heard on the Spotlight Review (NBC) is as follows: The schoolmaster, Richard LeGrand; The Three Coquettes, Annette Hastings, Margery Primley and Imelda Montagne; Spud McGuire, Ted Maxwell; Tony Spagarini, Harold Peary; Sassy Little, Bobbe Deane; Benny Ficial, Bennie Walker; Archie Lechinsky, Irving Kennedy; Sophie Svenson, Imelda Montagne; Ah Sing, Captain William Royle.

N. M. H., San Jose.—Rose Freitas (KQW) has reluctantly obeyed doctor's orders and is, after several years of consistent appearances before the microphone, taking a much needed vacation. She intends returning to her radio audiences in the early spring.

C. R., Los Angeles.—Dick Dixon (KGER) is addicted to russet shoes, cream-colored cravats and devil-may-care caps. He is 5 feet 6 inches tall, weighs 160 pounds, and is just stepping into the dangerous forties. Deep-sea fishing is his dotiest dote, but oh! the consequences. Never again will he go near the water. Never—unless, of course, he happens to have a day off with nothing to do and well—there is that swanky fishing outfit simply molding itself away. . . .

* * *

Edith, Sacramento.—Rudy Vallee was known in his home town, Westbrook, Maine, as Hubert Prior Vallee. The Rudy part was inspired through his admiration for Rudy Weidoelt from whom our radio Romeo learned all about saxophones. After completing high school, Rudy (Vallee) enrolled as a student at the University of Maine, but a year or so later he switched over to Yale. He majored in languages, graduated in due time, toured Europe, and even went in for matrimony for a few months. His eyes are greenish-gray, his hair is sort of chestnut, he is of medium height and weighs about 160 pounds.

* * *

E. L., Portland.—Mr. H. C. Connett (NBC playwright) is beloved by all who come in contact with him. He possesses a wealth of understanding and sympathy and gives of it unreservedly. His kindness warms the chilliest atmosphere and his proud, broad shoulders are never found sagging in time of need. He has experienced many strange and exciting things in his forty-odd years, but his favorite topic is Mimi. Mimi was rescued by him from a premature death in the Orient when Mr. Connett was engaged in newspaper work there, and to prove her gratitude she greets him at the close of the day in regal, Siamese cat style and together they spend the quiet evening hours; the master with his book and Mimi blinking into the firelight. * * *

Agnes, Willows.—Yvonne Peterson (KYA) is recovering from her automobile accident in true girl-scout fashion. There were unending weeks at the hospital when "she is doing nicely, thank you," means only agonizing pain for Yvonne, but at length—at long length—she was permitted to go home, and although her proud, haughty car was ruined and her own bones splintered she has lost none of her former royal sense of humor.

Ted Maxwell, NBC Billie Landers, KJR

TED MAXWELL, NBC production manager, went on the stage in vaudeville when he was 15.

"Nothing else ever gave me a real thrill until I found a place in radio." That way he accounts for the years of comedy and tragedy he spent behind the footlights.

Ted exhibited his first semblance of dramatic talent as a child, and a serious mother, who wanted him to become a druggist, could not change his young mind. When he was graduated from high school, in Oakland, relatives helped him secure an engagement in vaudeville over the Sullivan-Considine circuit.

TED MAXWELL

Soon afterward he was playing one-week stands in the popular "Rep" shows. These insured a glimpse by folk in small towns, of "Girl of the Golden West," "Two Orphans" and other "epics" of the era.

At 19 Ted found himself leading man. In those days of crepe-hair a plenty, and "peg pants," his youth wasn't the handicap it would be today, with realism the vogue.

The present NBC production manager advanced rapidly and soon organized his own "Rep" company. He played also in stock in the Middle West and took his own vaudeville act from Broadway into every state in the Union. Afterward he returned to Oakland and East Bay folk saw many productions by the Ted Maxwell Players at the old Casino and Plaza theaters.

"There was one respite, however," the actor-producer tells the interviewer. "Ill health drove me to the hills in 1923 and I farmed in Tuolumne County. Blasting tree stumps, planting trees and raising chickens was great sport for a while. I didn't do so badly either with government circulars and a helpful wife to guide me, despite some skeptical neighbors."

During the winter months, when the Maxwells were snowed in, Ted wrote plays, and out of the lot fifty-three have been produced. They are known as standard stock plays. One of these is "Cinderella O'Reilly,"

THERE is not a single blue note in her whole make-up, yet she sings blue songs. With this inconsistency, Billie Landers, one of the best blues singers in the Pacific Northwest, is recommended to radio listeners.

Clown—that's Billie. She can do more kinds of "nature" dances than the average stage performer. Her style is more comical than Fannie Brice's best. The dances never fail to bring laughs and are disconcerting to announcers on duty.

In addition, her comical nature has given her an unusual sense of humor. She never fails with a "flash-back-at-you-reply" on a bit of wit.

Billie began her radio work in Aberdeen, Wash., moved up to Tacoma and finally to Seattle. Her brilliant work brought her work at KJR. Today she is singing over the Northwest Broadcasting System, which operates the three most powerful stations in the Pacific Northwest, stations KJR, KEX and KGA.

Perhaps Billie's ability with theatricals is inherited. Her mother, the former Virginia Judge, was a favorite with theatergoers all over the United States some years ago.

When Billie sings her songs there is color and lilt not found in the quality of the average blues singer. Her singing has won her a host of friends, each wishing her well.

BILLIE LANDERS

which has been produced in the NBC studios.

Maxwell came to NBC as an announcer, but soon he was made production manager. He has written continuities, shaped programs and acted continuously with the National Players besides attending to the supervisory duties of his office.

Ted's gay young wife is Bobbe Deane, whose juvenile characterizations have endeared her to thousands of NBC listeners. Bobbe was a Denver girl who was with Ziegfeld in New York five years and came to this coast with the Sally show.

of classical works by the Chicago Little Symphony Orchestra.

6:30 to 7:30 p.m.—Palmolive Hour, KGO, KHQ,

KOMO, KGW, KFI

The brilliance of the Polonaise from

Thomas' "Mignon" will contrast with the lyric melody and coquettish humor of "When Love

Is Kind" when Olive Palmer sings these two compositions as her solos. Elizabeth Lennox, contralto, and Elliott Shaw, baritone, will be heard in a duet.

7:30 to 8 p.m.—Coca Cola Program, KGO, KHQ,

KOMO, KGW, KECA, KFSD

Captain Frank M. Hawks, famed aviator, will be interviewed by Grantland Rice, noted sports expert. The Hawks interview will be a high light on the program, which will include

Leonard Joy's orchestra and Chester Gaylord, vocalist.

8 to 8:30 p.m.—S and W Forum of the Air, KGO,

KECA, KFSD, KTAR

With a string orchestra furnishing accompaniment, a mixed sextet will be heard in a six-part vocal arrangement of "Midnight Bells" from the "Song of the Flame" during the S and W Forum of the Air. The harmonies of a string choir will be featured in an unusual scoring of Cadman's ever lovely "At Dawning." For solos the program lists "Sweethearts" and "Cargoes," with Ben Klassen, tenor, singing the first and Harold Dana, baritone, the latter song.

8 to 8:30 p.m.—Let's Get Associated, KHQ,

KOMO, KGW, KPO, KFI

"The Founding of San Bernardino," second episode in the series of Let's Get Associated plays based on the history of the California

The local time, under the "Pacific" heading, corresponds to the time indicated on the same horizontal line in any other part of the world. In order to determine whether it is the same day, or the preceding or following day, follow this rule: Crossing from dark to light area at midnight, indicates the following day. Crossing from light to dark area, at midnight, indicates preceding day. As an example, 4 a.m. here is 9 p.m. in Tokio of the preceding day. Light face figures represent a.m. Black face figures represent p.m.

Tommy Harris

KFRC

THE rise of Tommy Harris, KFRC personality singer, has been rapid and phenomenal. A few months ago he was little known, with only a varied background of vaudeville experience; now he is one of the reigning favorites over the Don Lee Coast network.

Tommy's first theatrical experience was when he sang comedy songs for Paul Ash at the Granada Theatre in San Francisco, at the tender age of ten years.

TOMMY HARRIS

Shortly after that, Tommy says he lost his voice, and for a long time despaired of ever getting it back. But mother nature was kind and about three years ago (Tommy is nineteen now) back it came all freshened up, in excellent spirits and ready for hard work. The hard work started after Tommy won a silver cup for imitating Al Jolson. From the El Capitan Theatre in San Francisco he started on a tour which took him up and down the coast and through Canada. In Port Arthur, Canada, he was taken down with appendicitis. This occasioned an international exchange of greetings when the San Francisco Chamber of Commerce sent him flowers while he was in the hospital, and the Port Arthur Chamber of Commerce acknowledged them.

Back in San Francisco again, the young singer organized a small band among some lads of his age. One night they were playing a benefit for the American Legion when the Robert Dollar publicity agent approached Tommy and asked him if he and his gang would like to go around the world. "It came so sudden," says Tommy, "and we were so excited we almost burst forth into tears."

That is how Tommy Harris' band got the orchestra berth on the President Wilson for a trip around the world. Shortly after his return to the states, Tommy joined the staff of KFRC.

He says that he loves dogs, football and baseball, and driving a car. He is unmarried.

Norman Bennett

KNX

NORMAN BENNETT is another of the KNX, Hollywood, artists who has drifted about the world a good bit before settling down before a microphone and to concert appearances in California.

Bennett—he's the tenor you hear four times weekly at KNX—came to America from Australia in early 1929 after many successes in his native land, in Japan, in Europe, and in Great Britain. And during the eighteen-odd months he has been in Southern California he has been before a microphone practically every day or night.

Coming from a noted family of actors and dramatists, Bennett combines the flair for acting with his singing. Result—he's been used extensively in the "talkies" as well as on the air.

He sang as soloist with the Melbourne Philharmonic Society; gave recitals in the Embassies in Japan; was soloist with the Oriana Madrigal Society, Royal Victoria and Lieder Tafel, the Melbourne Choral Society, the Heidelberg Choral Society and other great organizations.

In company with the English contralto, Phyllis Lett, he toured New Zealand in 1927 and the same year when Percy Grainger was choosing a soloist to sing his "Colonial Song" he picked Bennett for the part in Melbourne again.

In 1928 Dame Nellie Melba planned another farewell tour and Bennett was chosen as assisting artist, singing with her in London and elsewhere.

Coming to America, Bennett was first heard in concert in Pasadena in an all-Bach program.

Hobby: Just a golfer.

Appearance: Slender, medium height, sandy hair, blue eyes, and—freckles.

Word has just come to us that the Electric Supply Company of Oakland, California, have been appointed distributors for the Silver-Marshall Radio Receivers, covering Northern California.

The Electric Supply Company are one of the well-known distributors for Northern California, having been in business in Oakland for the past nine years and are pioneer distributors of radio in the East Bay.

- 9:30 to 10:30 p.m.—NBC Drama Hour, KGO, KFSD, KOA

"Mother of Pearl," an original radio play by H. C. Connette dealing with the psychological effect that cheating life by fabrication has on the life of beautiful dance girl. The leading characters in the play are Pearl La Narvaise, a wistful beauty with an utter inability to tell the truth and Ben O'Dell, owner of the Dos Banderos Dance Hall in Tiajuana. One of Pearl's falsehoods gives the play its plot. Pearl will be played by Dorothy Desmond, Sadie, Pearl's rival in the dance hall, will be portrayed by Bobbe Deane. "The shoe-string lady" of the docks will be portrayed by Olive West. Pearl King Tanner will complete the play's feminine interest in the role of a veteran girl of the dance halls.

- 10:30 to 12 midnight—Spotlight Review, KGO, KOMO, KFI, KOA; KGW 10:30 to 11:30 p.m.; KFSD 11 to 12 p.m.

Dedicated to the opponent of St. Mary's College in today's charity football game at Kezar Stadium, San Francisco, another period of college songs will be heard during the Spotlight Review. The regular line-up of Spotlight Review artists will take part in the balance of the program, including Ted Maxwell, Bobbe Deane, Bennie Walker, Harold Peary, the Boswell Sisters, Johnnie O'Brien, the Hill Billy Boys, Dick Le Grand, Captain "Bill" Royle and Walter Beban.
