PROGRAM PREFERENCE BALLOT

THE problem of radio programs has grown to gigantic proportions and importance. The radio audience has been augmented by thousands of additional homes newly equipped with modern receivers. The present National Congress is literally besieged with bills providing all manner and description of panaceas for dealing with the radio situation. Amid such conditions only an immediate, concerted, and overwhelming expression of public opinion can assure the public being served and satisfied. And so, at this psychological moment, in the interest of better radio programs, as a duty and a service to its thousands of discriminating readers, BROADCAST WEEKLY has arranged to make such an expression of program opinion possible. Voiced through an impartial, old-established medium like BROADCAST WEEKLY, which for so many years has been both guide and spokesman for the western radio audience, such an expression will be doubly effective.

What are your favorite programs? This very minute stations or sponsors may be contemplating their substitution or removal because adequate evidence of their present popularity is wanting. Are there on the air programs which you feel should be disapproved and discontinued in favor of better entertainment? Expressed independently, your own personal approval or condemnation will accomplish little or nothing. But thousands of other readers must feel about many programs exactly as you do. Stations and sponsors recognize BROADCAST WEEKLY's more than two score thousand readers as the representative radio audience of the West. The concerted expression of so large and representative an audience cannot be ignored by either stations or sponsors.

To make this expression possible BROADCAST WEEKLY will conduct a "Program Preference Ballot." Next week's issue will contain the blank ballot for your use in recording your program preference for each period from 6 p. m. to 11 p. m. during the entire week of February 28. Watch for this ballot, and use it. Returns will be made available to all radio stations and sponsors. Don't fail to vote. The greater the vote the more it will accomplish. A similar survey last year, BROADCAST WEEKLY's "Program Popularity Contest," was the direct means of stimulating extensive action obedient to the preference the poll indicated. Let's make the present ballot unanimous, the verdict unmistakable, the results positive and far-reaching.

You who are most interested in radio,

PERSONAL PICKUPS

BY GYPSY

Mrs. G. A., Sacramento.—Dudd (Tom and Dudd, KPO) entered the radio field approximately five years ago, after several seasons in pictures and considerable stage experience.

He was born in a log cabin up in Alaska, where his father was a mining engineer, was sent to an eastern military academy and later, on returning to the coast, enrolled at the University of Washington. His friends call him "Handsome," a name, acknowledged by his fiercest rivals to be entirely apropos. He is a combination collar ad and western-thriller type, twenty-seven or twenty-eight years of age, over six feet tall, weighs 190 pounds; his eyes are brown and he has a natural marcel, almost-black, a cleft in his chin, very heavy brows and a modern but not freakish upper lip adornment. Married, my dear, and Dudley Williamson, Sr., since last September.

Lorraine, San Diego.—Clarence Hayes and Phil Harris (NBC) are two separate individuals. An excellent likeness of Phil was published in Broadcast Weekly in the November 1 to 7 issue in conjunction with a Silhouette.

M. S., Goldendale.—Guy Lombardo (CBS) is twenty-nine years old, has dark eyes and hair and weighs 153 pounds. When he remembers to keep an appointment he is invariably late, always listens to other people's advice and then does as he intended before asking, keeps a radio in his car and conducts with a violin which he has not played for years. Carmen (Guy's brother) plays the saxophone and sings the solo numbers, but would rather be known as the world's best backgammon player. Leibert (another brother) is a movie fan, has invented and built his own home apparatus and gives regular performances for his friends. Occasionally he sings during the broadcasts but most of the time he supports the trumpet section. Victor (the youngest Lombardo) is twenty-one years old, pretends to be older, plays saxophone and likes the ladies. Brunettes, preferred. Victor, or "useless" as the boys call him, insists brunettes are more reliable than blondes. The other members in the orchestra are Fred Kreitzer, Larry Owen, Derf Highman, Ben Davies, Jim Dillon, George Gowan and Francis Henry. (Something about them next time.)

Mrs. L. L., Portland.—Shipley D. Burton, in addition to being program manager at KSL broadcasts the "SlumberHour" on that station each Monday night. He was born in Salt Lake City thirty-three years ago, is six feet tall and weighs 225 pounds, has gray eyes, curly blond hair and wears glasses. His radio career began two years ago. Before that he was engaged in farming, salesmanship and concertizing. He is married and the father of two children, a little girl of eight and an adorable baby aged one year.

Mrs. E. C., San Francisco.—Barry Hopkins is now heard over KPO Tuesday nights at 8:45. Jerry Wilford's (Vagabond-of-the-Air, KFRC), book of poems is entitled "To You." John McCrea has given up broadcasting for the business world. Edward Randall, Jr., is heard on the Sperry Smiles programs. The Buckaroos are Ted Maxwell and Charles Marshall.

Mrs. S. B. C., Stockton.—Joseph Henry Jackson's Sunday night program has been discontinued, but he may still be heard on Friday night at 8 o'clock over KPO.

S. A., Sacramento.—The Hundley Twins (KTAB) are Oakland girls, honest-to-goodness twins, both single, young and decidedly attractive. Katherine is the soprano and violinist and her sister Elizabeth is the contralto and pianist of the team. Each resembles the other to such a marked degree it is difficult to tell them apart and their tastes are almost identical. Until recently they had never considered forming a vocal act, but their friends kept urging them to harmonize and one day, more for fun than anything else, they decided to make an appointment for an audition. The violin and piano still come first with them, but they both agree that singing has a thrill of its own and since the vocal and instrumental work can be combined, what more can be wished for? Mountain hiking is their favorite means of keeping physically fit and there is no keener pleasure, in the estimation of either, than summer camping and trout fishing.

C. C., Pittsburg.—George Taylor (KJBS) has never been married, to my knowledge. Cecil and Sally (NBC) are not engaged or married to each other. Mel Peterson is a bachelor.

Mrs. A. W., Sacramento.—Fred Lane (KFRC) is a native son, twenty-nine years of age, 5 feet 11 inches in height, 160 pounds in weight, brown-eyed with almost-black hair and a reserved, preoccupied manner. After graduating from Poly High in 1921, he went to sea as wireless operator, served in this capacity on every conceivable type of vessel for a number of years, spent one year in New York and returned to San Francisco to join the KFRC staff. He is a drama fan, writes continuity, does the book reviews heard on Thursday afternoons and announces various programs throughout the week. His aversions are dancing and swimming and of course he hates to get up in the morning. He enjoys fishing, must have a marine view wherever he lives, never tires of shellfish, loathes cake, reads Time, Ben Hecht and Robert Browning and prefers the color blue to all others. Married.

Kitty, Sacramento.—Max Waizman is the present teacher on the Spotlight Revue (NBC). Gus Arnheim's broadcasts originate in Chicago. The Van and Don seal's identity must be kept secret for the time being at least. The personnel of the NBC Hill Billies reads as follows: Charles Marshall, Charlie Caver, Johnnie O'Brien, Ace Wright and Johnny Toffoli.

Mary, Sacramento.—Dollo Sargent is the organist heard with Personal Closeups and the theme song is entitled "Gypsy." It is a published number written by Gilbert. Paul Carson's schedules are to be found in the program department of this issue. "Don Amaizo" has been off the air some time.

MICROPHONE GOSSIP

• • • Arthur Brooke (KFI, KECA), first flutist with the orchestra, is the former conductor of the Honolulu Symphony Orchestra. Born in Leeds, England, Brooke has served with the greatest names in orchestral modern history—Mengelberg, Toscanini, Muck—and was for years solo flutist with the old Boston Symphony. Brooke is slender, of medium height, most decorous and genteel of manner, and is addicted to eye-shades while playing. Until one conducts him and hears him follow the baton closely as a barnacle, one is apt to think he cannot see one, don't you know.

• • • A birthday—even a seventieth birthday—didn't deter Walter Damrosch, dean of American conductors, from spending a full day at work, Saturday, January 30. In 1922, Dr. Damrosch closed his autobiography with: "I have climbed a few hills, but only to seek the mountains beyond rising higher and higher, the path upward often indiscernible through the mists surrounding the peaks." Since then, as NBC Musical Counsel, he has spent the busiest years of his life. He has also come to the conclusion that at seventy a man isn't old. "I don't feel old and I don't intend to quit. There's still too much to be done," he tells his interviewers.

• • • Joe Tarto, who plays the bass violin in support of the Boswell Sisters, is considered one of America's outstanding authorities on the technique of that instrument. He has written two books on the subject.

• • • Wilbur Hatch, musical director of KNX, who wrote that popular musical number, "I'm So Lonesome When You're Gone" for his wife, before they were married, has just received a request from Tom Brenneman, formerly with KNX and now with NBC, to send him the song to use in a chain program.

• • • "Axel," he of the Swedish dialect heard over the Blue Monday Jamboree and other KFRC productions, will leave for Hollywood the latter part of this month.

"Yup," admits Axel, whose real name is

Clyde Barlow. "Aye bane going in the movies."

The inimitable KFRC Swedish character will be given a starring part as the Swede fireman in "The Phantom Express," which will be produced by a Hollywood "independent" company. He was chosen for the role "sight unseen," after Emory Johnson movie director, had heard one of his performances during the Blue Monday Jamboree.

Upon completion of the picture, Axel will return to his usual place on the KFRC staff.

• • • Captain Dobbsie, skipper of the "Ship of Joy," heard each morning over KFRC and the Columbia Broadcasting System, is gaining additional fame as a song-smith.

In collaboration with Merton Bories, composer of many popular hits, Dobbsie has produced "What Aloha Means" and "Ship Ahoy," both tremendous successes published nationally by Villa Moret. His latest is "Just Another Kiss," which experts declare holds promise of being the song smash of 1932.

• • • Harriet French, director of KTAB's Miniature Symphony Orchestra, has two violins. She calls one "Lena" and the other "Oscar." "Lena" is given much more care than "Oscar," as she is of a tender age.

• • • Lord Bilgewater, the famous old riddle master himself, greeted his countless followers through new radio channels Saturday night, February 6, when he made his debut as the newest addition to the Associated Spotlight list of distinguished artists. Bilgy as he is known to his intimates, in private life is Monroe Upton. He will appear as Lord Bilgewater, his most famous and popular characterization, exclusively on the Associated Spotlight henceforth when the program goes on the air each Saturday evening over the NBC-KGO network.

• • • Ernie Smith of KTAB's Sports Page of the Air has a new car. Yet he still can be seen dashing about the streets—a-foot of course. But he likes to look at the car.

• • • Reinald Werrenrath, baritone, was born in Brooklyn, N. Y., of Danish parentage. Werrenrath inherited his musical gifts from his father, who was a famous singer. He received his education in America and was graduated from the New York University.

• • • Kenneth Carpenter (KFI, KECA), the affable young man who makes such a good job of announcing the Standard Symphony hours when they originate in Los Angeles, comes honestly by his courtliness. He is the son of Dr. Carpenter, eminent divine of the Universalist Church in Pasadena. Kenneth is a good writer, and started professional life as an advertising and merchandising expert.

• • • A canvass of NBC artists in San Francisco to determine the characters they play in various serials on the air revealed the fact that Captain Bill Royle, war ace and versatile microphone star, sometimes portrays as many as seven different dialect types in the NBC Matinee. He is "Snowball," African etiquette addict; Lord Fitznoodle, Britisher; Tim the Irishman; Sing Lee the Chinese houseboy; Izzy Hockolevitch, Jock McTavish and Hiram Blinks in various Matinee skits. In the Associated Spotlight, he adds another characterization by appearing as the Japanese schoolboy, Ishud Sokitoyou, in the School Days sketch.

• • • KNX has been literally deluged recently with amused requests by listeners of the Hollywood station for the true identity of that noble character, "Spike," who is heard at "de mike" each Thursday evening from 8 to 8:30 o'clock.

Very confidentially, it is none other than the versatile Stuart Buchanan. Stuart's program, incidentally, lays a formidable claim to the longest name of any radio sponsor. It is, to-wit: "Super-special Parfum de Potpourri a la Cologne, Vegetable Grandee." The color is "poiple" and it sells for a "buck a quart!"

• • • Miss Frances Rosalie Lynch and William S. Rainey, production manager at the New York studios of the National Broadcasting Company, were married February 2, in the home of the bride's brother, Willard A. Lynch, 1070 Park Avenue, New York City. The bride was attended by Miss Kathleen Condon, and Charles G. Norris, the author, was Rainey's best man. Rainey joined the NBC radio ranks four years ago, after a successful career as an actor and producer of plays, to become program director of the Pacific Division. He founded the Cherry Lane Playhouse, widely known as an experimental theater. During his four years in radio, Rainey has appeared in outstanding dramatic broadcasts, but is now taking a less active part owing to executive duties.

• • • Ray Collins, who receives the assignment for many dialect parts in the March of Time (CBS) has a penchant for statistics. He recently calculated that in his twenty-six years on the stage he had enacted more than 900 parts. He estimated that there were on the average of fifty pages of script to his rôles. With fifteen lines to a page and ten words to a line, he boasts that he has memorized at least 2,250,000 words.

• • • A particularly bright star on KFI-KECA is Georgia Stark, tall, lissome, witty coloratura soprano. Imagine a coloratura who is tall, lissome and witty! Anyway, Georgia is from Missouri, has toured Europe and South America with Italian companies, has a remarkable collection of ear-rings dating from pre-Pharaoh days, and is altogether a charming person.

• • • Ted Weems, the famous maestro, says that times are so tough down in Dixie that old tubas are being sold for still coils.

• • • Bing Crosby has designed a special card which he uses to send fans who write for his autograph. Four bars of his theme song, "When the Blue of the Night," are written out exactly as they appear on the sheet music and under them he signs his name in red ink.

• • • Edna Fisher is proud, and rightfully so, of her little Boston terrier, "Slip," a gift to her from an admiring radio fan.

Edna entered him in the recent Golden Gate American Kennel Club Show, held in Oakland and "Slip" walked off with two first prizes and three seconds, marking him, among other things as "the Pacific Coast's best bred dog."

Proud of him? You bet! "He's the grandest dog in the world," declares Edna.

• • • Roy Kellogg, who writes and produces the Gilmore Circus programs over the Pacific Coast chain of NBC and released through KFI on Saturday evenings at 8:15, little thought that when he was a student at Stanford, that some day he would be producing a circus which everyone would be able to listen to in their very homes. And the atmosphere which he has created with animal noises, old Gilmore's roar, circus bands, and clever performers has established him in radio circles as one of the cleverest producers of radio programs in the West. His natural instinct for entertaining and his many contacts with prominent clubs led to the opening for this successful radio work.

• • • Don Thompson, NBC sports announcer, has been missing from the microphone recently—but there's a reason. He and Miss Celia Martinez of San Francisco were married on January 23, and left for a month's carefree ramble through Arizona and old Mexico, where the bridegroom expects to gather some more material for his series, "Impressions of American Wastelands," which are presented through the NBC-KPO network.

• • • June Pursell, KFVB's supercrooner, is bidding all her co-workers a fond farewell. She is leaving for New York, where a nice, fat contract awaits her in regard to a Ziegfeld show, with a radio appearance to come later. KFVB wishes her bon voyage and all the luck in the world.

• • • If an author wrote twenty novels in four years, he would begin to think himself another Dumas. Carlton E. Morse, NBC continuity writer has written enough words in the form of serials, dramas and musical programs, to fill almost two dozen full-length books, it was revealed in his interview February 3 with Gypsy, who brings NBC stars before the microphone Wednesday nights, in "Personal Close-ups."

• • • Jose Casillas is the serious young man who blows a clarinet in the KFI-KECA orchestra. When Jose was twelve years old, his town was captured by a Pancho Villa, who in the process massacred practically all the Casilla family. Young Jose had studied clarinet, and he was promptly drafted into the Villa band. Pancho developed the band; presented it with $60,000 worth of uniforms and instruments, and finally left it to its own devices after the defeat of Celaya. Casilla drifted to America, extended his musical experience and education, and landed at KFI-KECA. He is married and has two children.

• • • Two of the three Funnyboners, CBS, have studied music ever since the days they started going to school, yet it is Dave Grant, the third member of the group, who never has taken a lesson in his life, who supplies the piano background for their singing and comic antics. Gordon Graham majored in musical theory when he attended Dartmouth and Bunny Coughlin was known for his violin and saxophone activities with several of New England's leading orchestras.

• • • When Gus Arnheim brought his famous Cocoanut Grove orchestra to Chicago the last week in January for an engagement at the Cafe Winter Garden, he was returning to his home town for the first real visit in sixteen years. Gus, a former Chicago boy, and Abe Lyman started out together in orchestra work in the Windy City. Arnheim played piano and Lyman drums in a small combination which used to furnish music at the dance halls and back room saloons. The Arnheim opening at the Winter Garden was a great homecoming. Stars of stage, screen and radio gathered there to greet him. Among them were Ben Bernie, Harry Richman, Amos 'n' Andy, Paul Whiteman and Ted Weems. The Arnheim orchestra is heard nightly over WBBM, Chicago, and they are scheduled to make three chain broadcasts a week over the Columbia Broadcasting System.

• • • A baton wielder with political aspirations is Vic Meyers, popular MCA orchestra leader of the Pacific northwest, who is a candidate for the office of mayor in Seattle, Washington. Vic, who directs an orchestra at the Butler Hotel, manages his own ballroom, and keeps two other MCA orchestra units going, hit the front pages of all the Seattle papers with his plea for "A Musical Mayor."

• • • Doug Richardson, KFVB's popular baritone, was all dressed up in his tuxedo for the Sunday Nite Hi-Jinks, and was going full steam ahead toward the sound stage—an action which meant crossing a very muddy pool of water. Fortunately, a car was parked near by, so Doug gingerly edged his way along the bumper, then just in the middle of the precarious crossing his foot slipped! There was a terrific splash—and another tuxedo went to the dry cleaners! Witnesses say that Mr. Richardson's language was nothing short of sheer genius of phrasing!

• • • Success is usually due to intelligent application and study—no less the victory of Eleanor V. Coryell, the brilliant young coloratura soprano who last year won the Far West Atwater Kent National Radio audition. One day during the early stages of the local contests Miss Coryell was listening to various phonograph records of "Caro Nome" sung by world famous stars. The thought came to her—"why pick the flaws in others—why not have a record made of her own voice?" Acting on her own idea Miss Coryell went to a recording laboratory and arranged for her own record of the song. Then she took the record to her teacher and together they studied its defects with the result that Miss Coryell became the singing champion of the West.

• • • Dennis Charles, KTAB's baritone, has a hobby. He is a collector of old songs.

• • • An epidemic of "hoof" trouble has hit the KFRC studios. Meredith Wilson, KFRC musical director, started it off by being confined to the hospital for several days with an infected foot. Caltana Christoph was next on the sick list when she slipped in the studio and tore the ligaments in her ankle. Eleanore Allen, organist; Merle Matthews, production manager, and Listen Bowden, sound technician, followed in short order with injuries or fractures located in their pedal extremities.

• • • Miss Emilia Da Prato, whose beautiful voice is heard twice daily over KNX from the Paris Inn Cafe in Los Angeles, is a true daughter of sunny Italy.

She came to America with her parents at the age of 3, residing in Tacoma until she was 7. Then her family moved to San Francisco, where she attended grammar and high school. Completing a course in business college, she went to work as a stenographer in a lumber yard.

All the while, this dark-eyed young girl was studying assiduously with her vocal teacher, Ione Pastori Rix. Climaxing her years of faithful study, Miss Da Prato won second place in the first Atwater-Kent Radio Audition.

• • • Leigh Lovel, who plays Dr. Watson in Sherlock Holmes, wears a monocle. He is an Englishman and has been on the stage for years.

CONTEST WINNERS

The following are the winners of the first 25 prizes in BROADCAST WEEKLY's Artist Identification Contest. All other winners have been announced in our December 27th issue.

Margaret McDermott, Pittsburg, and Mario Balistreri, San Francisco, tied for first and second prizes and elected to split the prizes. Third prize, O. T. Alexander, Sacramento, Calif.; fourth prize, Miss Irene Leonard, Sacramento; fifth prize, Mrs. E. W. Decker, Berkeley, Calif.; sixth prize, Miss Alma Heinzerling, Yardley, Wash.; Leon Paulson, Hayward, Calif.; Genevieve Paulson, Hayward, Calif., and Mrs. C. H. Spring, Sacramento, Calif., are still tied for prizes 7, 8, 9; tenth prize, Grace L. Jensen, San Jose, Cal.; eleventh prize, E. Toshiharu Oka, San Juan Capistrano, Calif.; twelfth prize, Miss Irene McDonough, San Lorenzo, Calif.; thirteenth prize, Wm. Moore, San Francisco, Calif.; fourteenth prize, Georgie M. Walker, Sutter Creek, Calif.; fifteenth prize, Mrs. C. J. Goodpastor, Roseville, Calif.; sixteenth prize, Miss Ethel Dickenson, St. Helena, Calif.; seventeenth prize, Mrs. G. P. Kettlewell, St. Helena, Calif.; eighteenth prize, P. J. Sommers, San Francisco, Calif.; nineteenth prize, Mrs. Harry C. Bell, Roseville, Calif.; twentieth prize, Harry C. Bell, Roseville, Calif.; twenty-first prize, Mrs. N. C. Stines, Los Gatos, Calif.; twenty-second prize, Norman C. Stines, Stanford University, Calif.; twenty-third prize, Mrs. R. H. Redman, Modesto, Calif.; twenty-fourth prize, Mrs. H. C. Carpenter, Berkeley, Calif.; twenty-fifth prize, S. I. Bostrom, Petaluma, Calif.

... RADIO NEWS ...

FACED with the necessity of framing a tax bill which will produce $1,000,000,000 a year in revenue, members of Congress are understood to be giving consideration to the feasibility of placing a tax upon broadcasting and possibly other types of radio transmitting stations.

Suggestions by former Secretary of the Treasury Mellon that a tax of five per cent be imposed upon radio receivers, met with a storm of opposition from set manufacturers, who claimed that no one in the industry made money last year and that the further handicap of a tax would drive many out of business.

So unanimously adverse was the testimony of representatives of all the industries whose commodities the Administration proposed to tax that members of the House ways and means committee declared that it appeared impossible to impose any excise levies without driving whole industries out of business and it would be necessary to look for other ways of raising revenue.

Two suggestions have been made for the taxing of transmitting stations. Both would impose the bulk of the burden on broadcasters. Under one plan, investigated three years ago by the Federal Radio Commission, a tax would be imposed on all radio licenses, including those of amateurs. In the past, the commission has opposed such a levy on the ground that it would adversely affect the listening public, because the increased cost to the stations might influence broadcasters to economize on their programs. This argument, however, will not carry much weight under present conditions.

The imposition of a tax of this nature, it is believed, might be preferred by broadcasters to the tax proposed by Representative La Guardia of New York of 25 per cent of all sums earned through the handling of commercial programs. It is also provided that if a licensee uses his station to broadcast for his own gain or advertisement or the advertisement of his own business, he shall pay a tax equivalent to 25 per cent of the fair value of the broadcasting so done.

There are, all told, some 22,000 transmitting stations licensed by the government, slightly more than 600 of which are broadcasters, over 16,000 amateurs, and the rest devoted to aviation, police service, commercial communications, and miscellaneous services. Proponents of a tax on licenses point out that the broadcasters and operators of communication services, on the whole, derive a profit from the operation of their stations, and therefore could pay taxes based upon the estimated value of their licenses to them.

Nominal taxes, it is said, could be imposed upon the amateurs and the police, aviation and miscellaneous services which are not primarily commercial, as well as on the ship installations which are required by law, but not upon ship installations on large passenger vessels operated for the benefit of the public. The taxes on communications stations, particularly those engaged in international operations, and on broadcasters would supply the bulk of the revenue.

No estimate of the total sum spent on radio advertising is available, but there is little doubt that it runs heavily into the millions of dollars. Proponents of this form of tax assert a large sum could be raised and in support of the equity of such a levy point out that radio advertising is free of the tax which is imposed upon newspaper and magazine advertising in the form of heavier postage rates for the advertising sections of publications than for reading matter.

U SING the most modern scientific methods, radio inspectors in the Government service have closed a detective story which reads like an adventure of Sherlock Holmes with the revocation by the Radio Commission of the licenses of three amateurs and the issuance of a warning to a fourth.

The case centered around the construction in Brooklyn, New York, of an unlicensed transmitter by an unlicensed operator, who was assisted by the three licensed amateurs and used the call letters of one of them. One of the amateurs also was found to be using the call letters of another and with rebroadcasting the programs of broadcasting stations, while all three were charged with operating off their assigned frequencies. The amateur who was warned was charged with having stood by listening-in to the rebroadcasting of the broadcasting station programs.

PROFITS of hundreds of thousands of dollars alleged to have been made through recent sales of broadcasting stations have resulted in the issuance by the Federal Radio Commission of orders designed to eliminate the traffic in radio frequencies and licenses, continuation of which, it is contended, would eventually result in forcing advertising rates so high as to make them a burden upon advertisers and, through them, the public which buys their products.

All future applications for assignment of broadcasting licenses, under these orders, will have to show the replacement value of the physical assets to be transferred and the value of the "intangibles," including good will, and the price to be paid for the station.

It is pointed out that the difficulty and expense of securing a permit for new stations has served to increase the value of licenses held by existing broadcasters, and that the right to broadcast is frequently the most important asset involved in the sale of a station. Issuance of the commission's orders was prompted by information that construction permits have been secured and stations built for the express purpose of selling the broadcasting license at a good profit.

Traffic in radio licenses is not a new problem with the commission. During its initial efforts to reduce the number of stations licensed at the time of its creation, the commission found that there were organizations holding a number of licenses which had been secured just prior to the enactment of the radio act of 1927 with a view to their sale.

In one instance, the "station" of such a licensee was found to consist of a few pieces of discarded apparatus thrown into a hen coop. The licensee had never operated and had not intended to operate, the privilege of broadcasting being the only asset he had to dispose of.

A SUNDAY "blue law" for radio broadcasting, prohibiting the transmission of advertising announcements, had been proposed in Congress by Representative Thomas R. Amlie of Wisconsin.

Pointing out that in many states the operation of business enterprises not essential to the public welfare is prohibited on Sunday, Mr. Amlie expresses the belief that the sentiment of respect for the Sabbath voiced in those statutes should be extended to broadcasting.

There is no reason, he holds, why a state whose people have voiced their approval of Sunday observance by prohibiting theatrical and commercial activity should be compelled to listen to extensive advertising propaganda, and his bill would amend the radio act so as to provide that "on Sundays there shall be no commercial announcements, whether direct or indirect, broadcast by any station, except that the name of the sponsor may be given at the beginning and at the end of each program and with a minimum period of one hour between such announcements."

It is pointed out that many commercial products are advertised in fifteen-minute broadcasting periods, of which possibly as much as five minutes may be devoted to identifying and selling the product, so that from one-fourth to one-third of the one day in the week which most people can devote to extensive radio entertainment and instruction may be taken up by advertising.

It is Representative Amlie's idea that any commercial organization sponsoring a program on Sunday will receive sufficient advertising through the mere announcement of its sponsorship and that there should be one day in the week when the public is freed from the necessity of listening to lengthy panegyric announcements as an accompaniment to their entertainment.

TWO engaging youngsters—and two dyed-in-the-wool professionals! Yes, they're both one and the same thing—are Emerson Tracy and Gay Seabrook, who have made "Growin' Up" one of the most delightful and heart-tugging skits on the air. Heard over KFWB every evening except Sunday, at 6:45, "Growin' Up" weaves the story of two small-town kids who take life as they find it, and who find it very full of excitement!

But the two kids themselves? Well, that's another story! Blonde, blue-eyed Emerson Tracy, who crinkles his nose when he laughs, first saw the light of day in Philadelphia, and in fact went so far as to attend St. Joseph's College there. Then the stage lured him away from the academic path, and he played as juvenile in the same show with Ann Harding and Eva Le Gallienne, and then toured the New England states with a stock company. John Golden, eminent producer, saw him and took him to New York to play the lead in that hilarious comedy, "Pigs."

Henry Duffy wanted to produce the show on the west coast, so he wired for the boy who had made a sensation in New York. Tracy played "Pigs," then "Tommy," "Take My Advice," "Jonesy," "Skidding," and "Elmer the Great."

It was in "Pigs" that he first began working with Gay Seabrook, the little dark-eyed girl who has such an appealing voice and such an infectious laugh.

Seattle was her birthplace, and her first stage engagement was in Salt Lake City. Then the big chance—the part of the little cripple girl in Channing Pollock's play, "The Fool." Even now, her eyes widen and grow black when she remembers that triumph! Duffy brought her West, too, to play in "Pigs," and so she met the boy whose future became so intertwined with hers.

They worked in a few more plays together, and then were separated. But Emerson wrote two originals—"Down With Women" which was produced in Pasadena, and "Mrs. Mary Sawyer" which had its world premiere in San Diego—and Gay figured prominently in those.

Meanwhile, the radio seemed to be a virgin field. They prepared a skit, but for a time it went begging. Then came their big break—Mr. Opportunity knocked at their door in no uncertain manner, and soon after they made their debut over KFWB in "Growin' Up." The heart-aches and happiness and sorrows and pleasures of two youngsters going through the process of becoming adults make their story one so human that every listener can think, "Why, that's just the way I felt!"

VAUGHN DE LEATH has been air-minded ever since her father began making windmills in Mount Pulaski, Illinois. She shared her family's windmilly enthusiasm for big hailstorms and cyclones. The farmers' old wooden wheels came down, and up went Mr. de Leath's red, white and blue steel fans.

V AUGHN DE LEATH

Air and fans had a broader significance for George Von de Leath's daughter. For the information of Tibetan tiger hunters who may not know, Vaughn is the world's original radio girl. She was the first woman to sing into a microphone.

Then it was a social lark. Today Vaughn de Leath and her sympathetic songs are features of the Columbia Broadcasting System.

While de Leath, pere, achieved success with a new kind of windmill, his daughter won fame with a new style of singing. She is not a "crooner" in the latest sense, for hers is a strong, natural contralto timbre. But she originated modulated singing before the microphone. It was born of necessity. A full voice blew out the early transmitter tubes.

Although Vaughn de Leath has been a radio headliner for years and has tasted the theatrical thrills of Broadway, she never has applied for a job in a booking office. She attained wealth as an artist, but her first paid job in radio was as a station manager. Her early "wireless" performances were done for the fun of it, between phonograph recordings.

Vaughn took up music as a pianist. Her family doctor, examining her throat, encouraged her to study voice. Years later, she made her vocal debut at seventeen on the Los Angeles concert stage. Critics then compared her with Marcella Sembrich, reigning concert star of the time. Fame came only after a struggle.

"I'm just a small-town girl who still thinks ice cream and cake make a party," Vaughn says today.

The OPEN CIRCUIT

This department is open to all. Send in your letters. Anonymous letters will not be published. Give full name and address.

We Bite—Why Don't They?

OF COURSE, I take BROADCAST WEEKLY and enjoy it immensely.

Looking through the letters written each week to the "Open Circuit," I often wonder why those who stand for better entertainment do not write as frequently as do those who spend so much effort and paper on the discussion of the good and bad of different dance orchestras, crooners and blue singers.

Mr. Henry C. of Washington states in his letter, that the sponsors of programs must take the evening audience for morons and jazz hungry saps. They evidently do for about two-thirds of the time on the air is devoted to them.

It has been said that if we did not like the programs, we could turn the dial, but, for instance—when Lucky Strike is on the air taking up three valuable hours each week, over most of the important stations, owing to congested wave lengths or static, we, in the South find it difficult to get independent stations satisfactorily, although Thursday evening dear old KPO renders us a delightful program, relieving us of this orchestra's second weekly spasm of rhythmical noises and ballyhoo.

Another thing: We realize that a certain amount of advertising is necessary to finance our programs, but we have become so sick and tired of the trash and vocal gymnastics that some of the business concerns spread on the air, we would not buy any of their products on a bet.

We owe our thanks and support to the Standard Oil Company's "Symphony Hour," the marvelous performance of the Long Beach Municipal Band, given each afternoon over KGER, the "Voice of Firestone," the beautiful voices of the Enna Jettick Company, and many others that lack of space forbids us to name.

We feel that these wonderful artists have given us the best to be had, and we leave the radio with a friendly feeling toward the sponsors, resolving that soon, we shall purchase the gasoline, shoes, or Packard cars so tactfully mentioned in these delightful programs.

Sincerely

Mrs. E. F. H., Santa Barbara, Feb. 5

Old Songs as Only Hazel Can Sing Them

I AM a new reader of the radio BROADCAST WEEKLY. I enjoy each and every article written about each radio star. To me it has been like finding a buried treasure. For it brings to me an idea as what sort of people they are whom we listen to through the medium of the radio.

My favorite is the Happy-Go-Lucky Hour. Its stars give the best of entertainment of all types. But most of all I love to sit and listen to Hazel Warner. Her personality seems to come out of the radio loudspeaker and actually makes one feel she is right in the room.

On Chestnut Day, Friday, February 5, she sang "Beautiful Ohio." I was just a youngster when that song was written. It brought back many memories. It would be wonderful to hear more of those old songs sung by a person with a sweet caressing voice and such a charming personality as Hazel.

Why not a program for her of just such old, sweet songs.

Print a picture of her in the WEEKLY sometime in the future. I don't know what she looks like. Certainly hope Mr. Pearce doesn't get rid of any more old favorites. The program loses a certain individual feeling. Too many strangers.

Lots of luck to Edna Fisher and Tommy Harris.

Lots of luck also to "Who Cares Hour," especially Miss Benay Venuta and "Carmelita."

MORE POWER TO BROADCAST WEEKLY.

Hope I haven't made my letter too long or tedious.

Dyal Knows His Bitter-Sweet

JUST a word about Dyal Turner. He's J. O. K. even when I don't agree with him. Anyway, he knows his bitter-sweet.

Some of the bitter I agree with:

"Disturbers of the Air." N. G.—Out! Boo! Boo!

Walter Winchell—thumbs down.

Good old NBC dramas—almost extinct. They used to be the high spots of the week to me. Split-Second Tales and Memory Lane and those from the Eastern studios are still good, but what's the matter with our own gang? Where are the hour and half hour dramas we used to get? Now it's all serial, serial and darn poor ones at that. Give us some more like Michael Raffetto's series of court-room dramas, the series where Seldy Roach played the old country doctor, Dick le Grande, as "Captain Post." They were great entertainment, as well as many of the individual dramas.

Baldwin McGaw has done wonders with the KPO Drama Guild but even good players can't make a poor play worth hearing. After the first two or three installments of "Yankee Sam," I lost interest.

Between "Dead Men Prowl" and that idiotic thing before it started and "The Lavender Ray," and "'Ventures to Venus" and what not—well, I wish they'd get down to earth and put on some good, old, everyday murders if they want mystery in everything.

Here I am getting all het up. This is supposed to be a pat on the back for Dyal Turner and instead it's headed for the complaint department. Just one more little "bitter" and then the "sweet."

It's this—why, oh why, does Sam Hayes mix, soak, saturate, dilute (or what have you) every bit of news with Richfield gas. Just when you're expecting a bit of news you get a whiff of gas—then after that you get a Richfield "news" item that we have all heard 6,935 times already. He has a good voice, style, diction, but who wants to be continually sprayed with Richfield? Not me!

Now the sugar coating:

Howard Milholland's style — how the words roll off that man's tongue!

"Isle of Golden Dreams"—and not the least of its charms is Johnny Walker's delightful drawl.

Sperry Smiles—just a group of favorites of mine.

KNX Violin Choir—it's got everything.

Charlie Leland with his solemn jokes.

Vera Van with her soft, mellow voice.

Gypsy's interviews—but why change to eight o'clock? When other members of the family have to get their nightly dose of Amos n' Andy, I lose out. Missed Carlton Morse's close-up for that very reason. Too good to miss very often.

Numb and Dumb with their delightful imbecilities. Where are they? Let's have them back on the Spotlight.

"Bridge to Dreamland" and "Voice of Pan"—lights low and radio tuned down, easy chair, everyone else in bed—then you can listen. That's all for that night—turn it off. No jazz after they finish.

As I said Dyal Turner knows his bitter-sweet. Can't you give him two pages instead of one? Oh, thanks, I knew you would. I'll be waiting for them.

Sincerely,

Pauline N. V., North Sacramento, Feb. 5

Follows Dyal's Recommendation

SOME of the late night programs are S worthy of more consideration and praise than they have been receiving from the radio critics. However, I am glad to see that BROADCAST WEEKLY has not altogether overlooked these excellent programs.

Sometime ago, I read a little comment by your much-abused but very worthwhile critic, Dyal Turner, in praise of a midnight organ recital over KGO; and as I am one of the night-owl gang of listeners, I decided to take a chance at this program, on his recommendation. Its loveliness and worth, in comparison with the rest of the late night programs, proved to be all and more than he had claimed for it. Since then, I have been a regular listener to this organist.

But imagine my surprise, when, just about two weeks ago, I tuned in, a little earlier than usual, on station KPO, and found this same organist, Dollo Sargent, playing another interesting program of old and new favorite melodies. Wondering if I had 'em, or if my ears deceived me, I tuned in, as usual, at twelve o'clock on KGO, and, sure 'nuff, there she was again. Now, I ask you, how does she do it—this lightning change stunt of whisking from station to station in a matter of moments? Maybe she is of that fairly troupe which travels "On Wings of Song." Perhaps Gypsy will be kind, and spare enough space in her much appreciated Personal Pickups, to tell us "how come?"

Anyway, since this discovery, on several nights a week I have enjoyed the extra delight of an added half hour of organ melodies played as only this artist can play. I hope that Dollo Sargent, and also my favorite singer, Hazel Warner of KFRC, may continue to delight with their lovely programs for a long, long time. God bless 'em, both.

And thank you, too, good old once-a-week friend and visitor, BROADCAST WEEKLY, for that keener interest your coming adds to my radio enjoyment; and for the space you give this letter, should you see fit to print it.

We've Received Hundreds Like This

WE HAVE subscribed continuously to your valuable magazine since you started publication in 1923 or thereabouts. This is our first kick and this one is not directed at you for we have noticed that you are constantly improving and trying to please your readers more and more.

When KGO first started one of the educational features, entertainingly arranged was "Chats About New Books" by Joseph Henry Jackson, which later became "The Readers' Guide." At that time, when radios were the exception rather than the rule, we had weekly gatherings of neighbors to listen to this feature. We have followed it continuously, noting the change to poorer and poorer time allotments by inferior commercial programs until finally this fine feature has been discontinued entirely. We want "The Readers' Guide"!

And what happened to Scotty? We tuned in Monday night as usual to KPO at 5:45 and the announcer said "You will be entertained by Tom and Dud." Not us! A flip of the dial gets us better entertainment than that. Give us Scotty again!

We live in the mountains off the beaten track, snowbound at present, and such features as these are very valuable to us.

We thank you for giving us this chance of expressing our views.

Very truly yours,

Mr. and Mrs. C. G. D.,

Growland, Calif., Feb. 5

More Talks

I HAVE just heard Senator Sanborn Young talking over the radio and addressing the Commonwealth Club at San Francisco on the "Narcotic Evil." Why can't we have more of these interesting and instructive talks and less jazz and blue songs? Why wouldn't it be a good idea to print a list of subjects wanted by radio listeners?

H. D. N., Los Gatos, Calif.

Phil Wins the Fur-lined Bathtub

I JUST received my copy of BROADCAST WEEKLY for week of February 7 to 13, and think Wm. R. McD.'s suggestions very good but what do you expect for a dime, big boy? And anyway if BROADCAST WEEKLY changes a bit it won't be BROADCAST WEEKLY.

Do we like Walter Winchell? Well, I'll say we do, and how. As for real orchestras I don't think any of them can hold a candle to the Lofner Harris gang over KGO. And say, when old Phil Harris struts his stuff "Some Little Bug's Gwine Get You Some Day." And Muzzy Marcellino sure can sing. Give the little boys a big hand, please. Anyway I think the fur-lined bathtub goes to Phil Harris.

Best regards to BROADCAST WEEKLY and the gang.

Luckies Not Lucky Here

I WANT to commend you for your splendid magazine. We read it with much interest. I also want to endorse the article in the current issue by Gene W. C., Seattle, Wash., concerning the Lucky Strike hour. I know very little about their program. The announcing and advertising is so disgusting that we don't listen to them. They occupy a full hour of all the Western stations that give the best reception here, so that oftentimes it is choice of something that is "less irritating to your throat" or a bunch of phonograph records.

If the government is ever driven to take over the broadcasting business it will be by such advertising as the Lucky Strike people and that doctor from Milford, Kansas, are doing. However, the good programs far outnumber the poor ones.

Sincerely yours,

Theo. J. O., Wenatchee, Wash., Feb. 4

To Dyal

YOU certainly "hit the nail on the head" when you said the Spotlight Revue sounds stuffy and forced. What used to be the best part of the program—"School Days" is "rank"—what with Prof. Knicklebine gone and a new "Spud" McGuire. The jokes are stale and re-hashed and we can't "crack our faces" at the fun (?) anymore. They have too much advertising now and the person who reads it gets all mixed up—making it twice as painful to hear. We certainly are angry. The Spotlight is terrible—no more, no less.

By the way—why not say a few well-chosen words in your page (which is a "wow"—the best thing in the BROADCAST WEEKLY) about NBC stopping those marvelous "Miniature Tales" at 10:45 on Monday evening? That was the best and most original thing we've ever heard on the air. Mr. J. Anthony Smyth's fine interpretation made it a gem. It seems that no sooner is something good put on the air, than it is snatched away again.

Keep up the good work—we're for you 100 per cent.

Radio Silent Now for First Time

I SUPPOSE no publication would ever be perfect in the opinions of all its readers, but yours is the best I have found for radio purposes. It is not always quite accurate, and I suspect it is not always the fault of the station concerned. Anything that could be done to increase accuracy would be a boon. A suggestion already made to indicate the type of program struck me as good. Regular listing of all stations covered would be another improvement; some only appear at intervals—KTM, for example.

Since the NBC took over the chain of stations which included KPO, it seems to me the programs have deteriorated rather than improved. Let those who want jazz and "modern" dance music have it, also speeches, plays, piano, "blues," etc., but surely it ought to be possible for such a large chain as the NBC to arrange for decent music on one station that is gettable generally, at least say from 5 to 11 p. m. To find the Lucky Strike program on one long list and Syncopators on another at the same time is not quite the thing, for example.

After all, there is more than one type of musical taste. Quite often now our radio is silent where before it was on constantly, simply because we cannot find the type of music that appeals to us on the stations gettable at the time.

F. J. B. W., Atascadero, Calif., Feb. 9

Likes Medbury

I DON'T agree with Arthur J. B. of San Francisco in his protest of Medbury.

Jimmy Grier's Band and his assisting soloists are fine. They can be heard any night, whereas Medbury's chatter can only be heard twice a week. Medbury's chatter is only in fun and what is life without a little wise cracking. I wouldn't be offended if I had to listen to him every night.

I noticed in last issue a suggestion in regards to changing the time of Bing Crosby to 8:15 so that both he and Amos n' Andy can be heard. Personally I hope this change is made.

I certainly enjoy the dance music heard over the air, and I must say I like the coast orchestras in preference to the eastern, Jack Coakley's Orchestra being one of my favorites.

H. Z., Westview, B. C., Feb. 1

Scotty—Paul—Gypsy

WHAT is the matter with KPO that they take such programs as the News Digest by "Scotty" Mortland and the Children's Hour conducted by Paul Pitman off the air. Both programs were gems. We take a morning and two evening papers and yet the entire family looked forward to hearing "Scotty" at five forty-five. He made the news so snappy and was far ahead of any other "editor" on the air. The program that now occupies that hour is rubbish and our radio is silent.

And as to Paul Pitman, he was an inspiration and our kiddies, in fact all of us, loved to listen to him. He was a wonderful influence to our children.

And why choose eight o'clock to feature "Gypsy." We all love her and hate to miss her interviews but no one will forego Amos n' Andy. It seems poor judgment to put her on at that hour.

CRITIQUE OF THE WEEK

By DYAL TURNER

THE Damrosch Symphony on Sunday morning through National is a constant joy. Cleansing and inspiring as a beautiful church service. Always gives me a fresh grip on things an' starts the week right.

There's a lotta good sound educational stuff on the air channels these days. Trouble is most o' the lessons are broadcast at a time when people who'd like to improve their minds are out makin' a livin'. It'd take a brave station to open up an air night school but I've been wonderin' if it wouldn't be worth a try. Handled properly, seems to me, it could be made mighty interestin'.

I'm with the folks who maintain we've got too much jazz on the ether. Nope, I'm not for killin' it off. A certain amount of it's alright. But dance band after dance band, hour after hour gets pretty monotonous. Jazz was invented for exercise. It belongs to youth an' crowds. Youth goes where the crowds are. The rest of us stick at home an' get somethin' like a second-hand smoke. No kiddin', it's tough on the ear-drums. You've gotta dance an' it's a cinch you can't dance hour after hour, night after night with your own wife. What would the neighbors say?

Campus Comedians, issuing from KPO is clever. Plenty of atmosphere an' wise-cracks. Entertaining enough to make even an ol' grouch like me sit up an' take notice. If Baldwin McGaw'd only stick to this type o' stuff instead of attempting the more ambitious things he'd get somewhere. How 'bout it, McGaw?

That New York Drama Guild presentation on February 6 was what I'd call the real thing. Did more to promote the spoken drama than anything I've heard in many a moon. Held me so tight I passed up the Merry Makers an' when I pass up that bunch o' live-wires it's somethin' to write home about. Nazimova nearly had me makin' a fool o' myself. That lady can make an epigram of the rawest line in the calendar.

The way NBC's put The Old Singing Master an' Seth Parker right on its heels looks like a contest or somethin'. I'm not the only one who's noticed it. Correspondent o' mine calls it "bad management." Jus' what t'is, lady.

Amelia an' I had it back an' forth the other night 'bout Kolb an' Dill. She said they'll never get by, stage stars never did, on radio. I said, forget they've been on the stage. Listen to 'em open-mindedly. I'm of the opinion they'll make the grade.

Take 1 wash-boiler, 1 cracked washboard, 1 potato grater, 2 egg beaters, 6 forks, a pound o' rosin, 3 large fly swatters—what've we got? Answer: A Symphony in Blue. Doesn't it beat all the license they take?

The Glen Sisters comin' thru NBC on Monday are one o' my anticipations. Gee, it's comfortin' to hear a harmony team that doesn't try to dazzle a-body with doodle-dee-does an' upper an' lower auxiliaries every other measure. Their interpretations are fine and artistic. Leave a fresh taste of normalcy in their wake.

I wonder if anybody'd listen to Paul Whiteman's band if it was announced as John Smith's. His programs, as a whole, are just average to my way o' thinkin'.

Dyal Turner: Say, old man, don't be so hard. Sperry Smiles is a great program. A piano and a pipe organ are always great. As for Lucky Strike, it's a Lula, and I don't think Chesterfield is copying the L. S. program no more than they are L. S. cigarettes, which are good. So that's that.

Yours truly, R. B., Helena, Montana.

Say Yourself—I've never been guilty o' takin' a crack at the music on Sperry. I'd be an awful dumb-bell not to realize it's fine. What I object to is the way the sponsors baited us with personality an' then jerked it out an' handed us a lotta garish commercialism. On the Lucky Strike versus Chesterfield business—you evidently didn't hear the earlier Chesterfield programs when they shot through a female voice with testimonials.

who constitute the real radio audience, are particularly and vitally concerned by this ballot. Others whose interest is less or whose tastes may not coincide with yours, will vote. Therefore, if the type of program you want is to prevail; it behooves you to vote, and to see to it that others who favor such programs vote. This promises to be the most sweeping, most impressive, most effective expression of radio opinion ever registered in the West. Certainly you will feel lax in your duty and will be left no justification for complaint if you fail to register your opinion, and do everything to make the poll successful. Tell your friends. Enlist their support. BROADCAST WEEKLY is for sale at more than 10,000 news-stands throughout the West, and every copy of the next issue will contain a ballot.

As a further incentive and contribution to the success of the poll, BROADCAST WEEKLY will give to every reader who participates a useful present, absolutely FREE. And in addition thereto will distribute among participants thirty cash prizes of from $1 to $100 each. Watch for the ballot and complete instructions in the next issue, and VOTE.

NEW S. F. RADIO SUPPLY HOUSE OPENS

JOHN H. SHAW, who has conducted the Universal Agencies, as factory representative, for many years, has entered the wholesale radio supply business and announces the opening of the Wenger-Brill Company of San Francisco, located at 1270 Mission Street. They will cater to the radio dealers and service men only, carrying a complete line of radio replacement parts and radio accessories.

Mr. Shaw pioneered the Arcturus tube on the coast and is well known to the trade throughout the coast.

Frank Comins, well known to the trade, will cover the peninsula territory and part of the San Francisco territory for this new organization.

RADIO listeners in the United States received a real thrill February 3 when an official of the Cuban telephone company in Santiago described the earthquake which shook that city over a network of American stations.

Back of the Cuban's eloquent description of the catastrophe could be heard the crash of falling walls as successive shocks threw them down. His account of falling buildings, shaking stairways and debris-filled streets brought the event home vividly to his more fortunate listeners who had never experienced an earthquake.

MUCH of the news of the Sino-Japanese situation carried in the daily newspapers in recent weeks came to the people of this country by radio.

Reports on early events, during the Japanese invasion of Manchuria, came through the 6,000-mile circuit between San Francisco and Mukden, established only last year by R. C. A. Communications, while more recent developments in Shanghai were reported over the circuit established with that city in 1930.

In addition to the handling of straight newspaper stories, the American public was kept conversant with the situation through the oral "articles" of radio reporters sent to China expressly to cover the "war."
