NEW ALLOCATION PLAN SOUGHT

ABANDONMENT of the Davis "equitable distribution" provisions of the radio law and substitution of a new method of allocation of broadcasting facilities based upon the population, area and number of receiving sets in each state is proposed in legislation introduced in Congress by Senator Shipstead of Minnesota.

Sharply arraigning the Davis provisions as tending "to deprive the people within certain zones of the radio broadcasting facilities to which they are clearly entitled and which it is the expressed purpose of this section of the act to guarantee to them," the Senator declared that the establishment of population by the act as the sole basis for determining equitable distribution "is so manifestly unreasonable that the Congress itself, in dividing the country into zones for the purpose of this act, did not use population as the sole basis, but likewise gave consideration to geographical area."

The zone system was adopted purely for administrative purposes, Mr. Shipstead asserted, and was never intended to be used as a basis for the distribution of radio facilities.

Under the new bill, the factors of population, area and receiving sets would be harmonized by multiplying the last two by 40 and 10, respectively, which would give area as 121,071,560 and receiving sets as 120,783,450 as compared with a population of 122,770,546; adding these three together and then dividing the result by three, giving a total of 121,541,52 as the "weighted" figure on which distribution of facilities would be based.

The same procedure would be followed with respect to each state, and facilities would be divided among the stations in the proportion which their "weighted" figure bears to that of the country as a whole.

It is pointed out by the Senator that the five zones created by the radio act vary in population from 12,300,000 to 28,700,000, in area from 138,000 square miles to 1,786,000 square miles, and in number of receiving sets in homes from 866,000 to 3,784,000. "They conform to no geographical, social, economic or political groupings," he complained. "Equitable distribution among the states is rendered impossible by the requirement of equal distribution among the unequal zones. The quota for each state must at present be determined solely by its relationship to the zone, not to the country as a whole."

PERSONAL PICKUPS

BY GYPSY

E. W. L., Oakland.—De Witt Jones is a free-lance writer. That accounts for your having heard his plays on various stations. He is a former newspaper man, about thirty-five years of age, is very witty, fond of horses and dogs, lives in Oakland and is unmarried. His Americanism goes 'way back (two of his ancestors fought in the battle of Kings Mountain with the Revolutionary troops from South Carolina). His mother was born in Illinois, his father in Indiana, and DeWitt made his first appearance in Baxter Springs, Kansas. He does not form likes and dislikes quickly, enjoys plain food, wild roses (the kind that grow on river banks), all colors, Sigmund Romberg's music, and is a most congenial person unless—unless someone addresses him as "Jones."

Helen, Portland.—Carl Buebke (KEX) is a student in architecture at the University of Oregon, wears a large sapphire ring on the middle finger of his left hand, a Theta Chi crest ring on the middle finger of his right hand, is a stamp collector and a demon at auction bridge and pinochle. He is twenty-one years of age, 6 feet 3½ inches tall, weighs 170 pounds, has clear blue eyes, medium brown, wavy hair and is much, much too good looking to be sensible, but is. (Sensible, I mean.) He budgets all expenses, has a savings account that runs 'way, 'way up and has earned every dollar of it himself. Carl's ambition is to travel. After he has had his fill of globe trotting he expects to settle down to house-planning and writing. He belongs to any number of fraternal organizations, plays an excellent game of tennis, is interested in photography and biology and enjoys symphony concerts.

Mrs. T. H., Los Angeles.—Billy Evans may be heard from Station KELW. Hobbles Stevens (Stebbins Boys, NBC) is in real life Harry Humphreys. (It might interest you to know that he is a graduate from the University of Southern California and the author of "The Skull," which was presented in various Duffy theatres on the coast a few years ago.) Chandu (KHJ) is written by Vera Oldham. Cecil Wright (KFRC) was married last year on November 28. Mrs. Wright was Miss Dorothy Smith, a San Francisco girl, not identified with radio.

L. H., Biggs.—Muzzy Marcelino (Lofner-Harris, NBC) is a nineteen-year-old San Francisco boy of Italian parentage. Everyone likes "Muzzy"—he was christened Maurice—for his unassuming, natural friendliness and lack of conceit. He has been on radio for three or four years, appeared in the leading rôle of "Educating Wuzzy," Samuel Dickson's serial, when it was broadcast over KTAB, and has worked at all manner of odd jobs since he was a youngster in grammar school. Swimming and boating are his favorite sports, blue is his color and the rose is his flower. He is 5 feet 4¾ inches in height, weighs 135 pounds, has blue-gray eyes and curly chestnut-colored hair.

T. J. W., Sacramento.—Walter Winchell (NBC) is about thirty-four years old and toured in vaudeville before he became a columnist and broadcaster. Some time prior to his affiliation with the Lucky Strike company he broadcast for an eastern shoe concern over CBS.

Lols, Ventura.—Frank Gage is now heard from Station KELW. "Uncle John" Daggett acts as program director and special announcer at Station KGFJ.

Diana, Vancouver.—Donald Novis (NBC) was born in England and is in his early twenties. Anson Weeks is thirty-something, American born, married, and the father of two sturdy sons. Phil Harris is NOT colored. You may tell your "debating society" that he is blond, blue-eyed, about twenty-seven years old, 5 feet 11 inches tall, weighs 170 pounds and has as much, if not more, personality off the air, than on. And oh, yes, Diana dear, he is married. I'll try to answer your postscript next time. It was fun hearing from you even though you did say "I told you so."

Scotty Fans.—"Yir Frien' Scotty" is to be heard over KPO at 5:15 o'clock each evening except Sunday in a new program entitled "A Couple of Mouthfuls."

Benj., Los Angeles.—The Spotlight Revue "pupils" are as follows: Benny Fishel, Benny Walker; Sassy Little, Bobbe Deane; Ishouldsockit Toyou, Captain William Royle; Sophie Svenson, Imelda Montagne; Iky Lechinsky, Irving Kennedy; Marjorie, Marjorie Primley; Spud MacGuire, Captain Royle; Annette, Annette Hastings; Tony Spaglarini, Harold Peary. The "professor" is Max Waizman. "Miss Ethyl" is Refa Miller. The quartet is composed of Harold Dana, Irving Kennedy, Gwynif Jones and Armand Girard, and "Lord Bilgewater" is none other than your old friend, Monroe Upton.

M. E., Tucson.—Ray Perkins (NBC-KGO) was born in Boston, grew up in New York, graduated from Columbia University in 1917, and made his radio debut in 1926 over Station WJZ. During the past thirteen years he has been active as a salesman, an editor, a columnist, Hollywood theme-song writer, stage comedian, pianist and writer of numberless popular melodies. He is married, lives in Scarsdale, has a sister who is an actress and another sister who is a well-known novelist—Grace Perkins—does the name sound familiar—She wrote "Night Nurse." Julietta Novis (KFWB) is the wife of Donald Novis. John Fulton has been with the Paul Whiteman organization seven years, is a native of Phillipsburg, Pa., has black hair, blue eyes, is six feet tall and was twenty-eight years old on his last birthday. He goes in for all sports, never neglects his exercises even when on tour and looks forward to the day when he may own his own airplane.

Florence, Sacramento.—Sarah Kreindler (NBC) announced her engagement early in January. The husband-to-be is a young blond sculptor of San Francisco whose name is Norman Baltor.

Lorraine, San Diego.—An excellent likeness of Phil Harris, in conjunction with a Silhouette, was published in Broadcast Weekly in the November 1 to 7 issue.

MICROPHONE GOSSIP

A cartoon illustration of a man with a mustache and a suit, looking into a vintage microphone. The microphone is on a stand with a circular base. The man has a surprised or engaged expression.

• • • An unusual service was rendered some of KGB listeners on a recent Sunday, when a flash announcement was made of the fact that snow had fallen to a depth of eight inches at Julian, a mountain resort near San Diego. Phone calls the following day indicated that a number of KGB listeners had heeded the announcement and enjoyed a day of winter sporting.

• • • After all the trouble Cecil Underwood, NBC announcer, took to imitate Walter Damrosch in a recent Associated Spotlight program, he was dismayed to receive this fan letter from Portland the other day: "Dear Mr. Underwood: Your impersonation of Beethoven on the Spotlight program was immense. I hope you will repeat it again some time soon!"

• • • Have you noticed a new popular singer, by the name of Peggy O'Neill, on KFI-KECA? She has a sympathetic soprano with quite a definite tone of hot-yearn. Miss O'Neill's accompaniments are always played by Polly Grant Hall—for a good and sufficient reason, since Peggy O'Neill is Polly Grant Hall. She chose the second name so that her work as popular accompanist and soloist might not be confused with her newly-found vocalism.

Polly is famous for a piece of crocheting that she started during leisure hours some three years ago. It's a second Penelope's web, having never been quite finished.

• • • John McIntire has left the KMPC announcing staff for KTM, Los Angeles, and Dick Licence, formerly of KTM, will join KMPC as announcer and master of ceremonies of the Top of the Morning Club broadcast.

• • • "Your daily Raising Junior broadcast is a blessing," a woman recently wrote to NBC. "My husband hasn't helped me with any housework for fifteen years. After listening to the domestic affairs of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Lee in the Raising Junior program tonight, he came into the kitchen and washed the dishes." Peter Dixon, author of the scripts, also wrote the song, "Washing Dishes With My Sweetie."

• • • Ben Bernie learned the fundamental about orchestra conducting from Carl Fenton, who presides over the musicians supporting Bing Crosby. At the time Ben had made a name for himself as a vaudeville artist, but was ambitious to break into the maestro class. Carl engaged the players for Bernie's debut as a baton-wielder at the well-known Reisenweber's of days gone by.

• • • Alexander Gray, romantic baritone featured in "Music That Satisfies," stands five feet ten inches, weighs 165 pounds, and is of Scottish-American ancestry. His full name is Alexander Pringle Gray, the seventh consecutive one of his family to bear that monicker. It is a traditional christening for the first born sons.

• • • Juanita Tennyson, songbird of KFRC's "Home Sweet Home Hour," recently learned that she has for two years had an unknown namesake.

When Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Ritchie, Torrance, California, sought a name several years ago for a little girl born to them they decided upon the given name of their favorite radio singer, Juanita Tennyson. They christened the baby Juanita Murdock Ritchie, but it was not until a few days ago, when a friend of the family requested a number to be dedicated to baby Juanita, that Miss Tennyson learned of her unknown honor.

• • • John White, NBC's Lonesome Cowboy, was born in Washington, D. C., and wears spats instead of spurs. His songs are genuine, nevertheless. He learned them from real cowboys on an Arizona dude ranch where he got his only experience of western life.

• • • Texas Slim, the handsome young prank player with NBC's Colorado Cowboys, doesn't know what to make of "these eastern gals." He received his share of attention from western girls when his broadcasting was confined to the NBC Denver station, KOA. But since his audience has become nation-wide, through extension of the program over WJZ network, his mash notes from romantic-minded eastern girls have become "downright unsettlin'." One girl wrote that she is selling her car so she can come to Colorado and meet him.

• • • Dedications on the air have had a considerable range since Mel Roach came to KGER in Long Beach, but during a recent program with pupils of the Coster-Hewlett vocal studios singing, a request was made for a number to be dedicated to a horse. Mel made the dedication, then proceeded to find the details concerning the nag.

When you stop and consider that the radio dedication was for E. A. Stewart's blue ribbon Hackney pony, "Carnation Rainbow" which is valued at $9,500 then you can realize that a horse like that might really merit musical entertainment. If you've ever watched a Hackney pony strut around a sawdust oval drawing a shiny little rig . . . then you'll know that that's a high hat horse. Not only that, but the owner of this horse, "Carnation Rainbow" is also owner of the famous "Carnation Stables" at Pomona and he likes his horses no end.

• • • Madame Sylvia, former Hollywood health and beauty expert now heard over NBC network, doesn't believe in using heavy gymnasium paraphernalia, but adheres to "exercises of relaxation." She says strenuous work stiffens the muscles, while her method makes them strong, yet flexible.

• • • Arnold MacGuire has been added to the KTAB announcing staff.

• • • Billy Page, NBC juvenile actor—Billy Smithers to you, if you're a Memory Lane fan—undertook a new role the other day—teaching music by mail. The mother of a small boy who "wanted to play the jews-harp like Billy Smithers" wrote to the thirteen-year old star for help.

"What is a jews-harp; where could we buy one, and where could he learn to play it?" she asked.

Billy wrote a long, careful letter of instruction in the art of playing the instrument, then went on a shopping tour all by himself and picked out what he termed "a jews-harp with a real good tone" and sent it to his youthful pupil.

• • • Mr. W. J. Welsh of Nelson, New Zealand, thinks that station KOA in Denver, 5,000 miles away from his native land, is missing a good bet. "From March to September here in New Zealand your station is received very clearly," he writes. "Why don't you get in touch with a line of goods made in America and sold here in New Zealand?" His suggestion for a New Zealand commercial program broadcast by KOA is bolstered by the fact that as high as 27 fan letters from the dominion down under have reached KOA in one mail delivery.

• • • Bing Crosby received recently what is one of the largest letters ever sent by air mail. It came from the Spokane Chamber of Commerce, congratulating him on having signed for an additional ten weeks' engagement at the New York Paramount. The letter was four and a half feet long and three feet wide. The postage came to $4.05.

• • • Ralph Kirbery, NBC's Dream Singer, tried for months to crash radio "big time," and when the chance came he nearly lost it. Kirbery had passed his third audition and had been told that he would be notified about a booking "in a few days." Many days passed and Kirbery heard nothing. He visited the studios to learn that officials had been searching for him for days. He had neglected to state that his Thirtieth Street address was in Paterson, N. J., not in New York City.

• • • Monroe Upton, known as "Lord Bilgewater" and "Simp'y Fitts" to a large army of NBC fans, was a ship's radio operator for several years, and "Simp'y" was created as a short-story character while Upton was at sea.

• • • Lawrence Tibbett, baritone, heard each Monday night over an NBC network as the Voice of Firestone, has sung the role of Colonel Ibbetson in "Peter Ibbetson" seventeen times since the premiere of Deems Taylor's opera at the Metropolitan a year ago.

• • • Dr. Sigmund Spaeth, broadcast master of the world's largest piano class, never took a piano lesson in his life. He studied the violin as a boy and "picked up" piano playing while a college student.

• • • John Fogarty, NBC tenor, was raised on a Montana ranch and will forego a singing engagement any time to see a horse race.

• • • J. F. Doyle, radio editor of the Oakland Post-Inquirer, in his daily column, which has thousands of followers, has started a movement for Oakland representation in the Lucky Strike dance program. Doyle selected Tom Coakley and his Athens Athletic Club Smilers to carry the Oakland banner and has received hundreds of letters addressed to Mr. Lucky Strike, care of his newspaper.

Doyle has pointed out in articles that Oakland is the third city on the Pacific Coast and the third in California. He reminded Walter Winchell that Oakland produced such names as Marjorie Rambeau, Jimmy Gleason, Lucille Webster, Maude Fulton, Rex Cherryman, Ferris Hartman, Paul Steindorff and a host of others, and recalled that Lon Chaney once shifted scenes at Idora Park and that Paul Ash, Horace Heidt and Walt Roesner started across the bay.

• • • George Taylor is building up a large following over KJBS, where he conducts the Bridge Hour every afternoon. This popular informal program is one of the bright week-day afternoon spots on the air and includes many unannounced highlights. During the past week such celebrities as Duke Ellington and the Weaver Brothers' group of "Arkansas Travelers" from the RKO circuit contributed to the entertainment. From time to time other well-known RKO artists will be introduced to the Bridge Hour's listeners, as Taylor has recently completed such a deal with the theatres. Some of the regulars who appear on this popular program are Cotton Bond, Clem Kennedy, Alma Robbins, Joanne Lee, Christine Eddy, Danny Webber, Dell Raymond and Art Fadden.

• • • Jerry Wilford, better known to KFRC audiences as "the Old Vagabond," was recently presented by an admiring radio listener with a blue-blooded Irish setter. The dog is said to be valued at $1,000.

• • • "Unless you go on a vegetable diet you will meet an early death," a physician told Frank Black, NBC orchestra director and pianist, a few years ago. Frank accepted the diet and followed instructions rigorously, even though he hated it. One day he observed a group of wrinkled Indians doing a war dance in a musical show which he conducted. He learned that several of the red men were more than ninety years old and subsisted on a diet of beef and coffee. Black immediately threw his diet out of the window and threatened to do likewise with his physician.

• • • Fan met fan in the Columbia studios the other evening when Alexander Gray, baritone heard nightly in "Music That Satisfies," shook hands with Bud Kelley, former college baseball star. When Alex was an undergraduate at Penn State he was always on hand to root for Bud. The diamond star returned the compliment after he had heard his classmate on the air and came up to the studio to applaud Alex. It marked their first reunion since leaving college.

• • • J. Warde Hutton, director of KGB's programs from Hotel del Coronado, recently made his debut as microphone observer at the San Diego Junior League Charity Ball. Mr. Hutton described the stage acts, decorations, and costumes, bringing KGB listeners a graphic word picture of this distinctive social event.

• • • When the San Miguel Hill Billies, KGB's newly formed organization of haywire entertainers, made a personal appearance with their program at the Vaclain Home in San Diego, a complete loudspeaker system was installed for the occasion. Patients who were confined to their beds heard the program through headphones wired from the yard of the home where Richard La Salle and his boys from the San Miguel Hills were on exhibition for those patients who could be moved in wheel chairs.

• • • Charlie Lyon, Chicago NBC announcer, almost stopped the show with his "ad lib" announcement during the broadcast of Jane Froman and her orchestra. Miss Froman had difficulty in finding her voice when Lyon announced she would sing, "the theme song of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals—River Stay Away from My Door." Then Lyon continued "If it doesn't it's going to drown a lot of wolves."

• • • Naum Coster, dramatic opera singer, who appears on KGER in Long Beach in connection with his vocal studios, is a robust gentleman of no small proportions but if you'd seen the way he danced the light fantastic in the KGER control room when a mouse was discovered . . . you'd a died!

• • • Lloyd Huntley, who directs his Isle o' Blues orchestra in several programs a week over KOA, Denver, who has been heard often over the NBC network, and who takes turns with other leading directors at leading hotels throughout the country, was not accepted to membership in the musical fraternity at the university he attended. However, since graduation, he has won distinction in the field of music with his fine interpretation of dance melodies.

• • • The organ studio of KGER was recently renovated and re-dressed for spring with a new ceiling spotlight for inspirational effects. It is so focused that it plays directly on Cyril Godwin, violinist when playing with Helene Smith's organ accompaniment. Charlie Rush, KGER technician and student of calculus, decided that the rays of the new spotlight might have healthful possibilities since it resembled a sun ray device he saw advertised, and ever since, the Beach City boys and girls have had trouble keeping Charlie from exposing his anatomy to the soothing rays of the new beam . . . (Radio does it to everyone sooner or later.)

• • • A pre-hearing of the latest phonograph records, both classical and jazz, may be enjoyed by tuning in the "Music Box Program" over KJBS, conducted by Andy Anderson. Anderson, an accomplished musician, offers very interesting and amusing information in his description of the new recordings. The "Music Box" is broadcast three times a week.

• • • Virginia Karns, soprano, has joined the staff of KTM as a soloist. She was originally with WMAC, New York, and more recently with WLW, Cincinnati. Born in Dayton, Ohio, she studied at the Cincinnati Conservatory of Music and the Chicago Musical College.

• • • David Ross, poet and announcer, has gone in for song writing in conjunction with Marty Quinto, Columbia guitarist. Dave's first one is entitled "Thank You, Until Tomorrow Night," which is reminiscent of a phrase that he has repeated many times over the air during the past year.

• • • Olive West, veteran actress who played for almost half a century on the stage before she joined the NBC staff in San Francisco, is a noted "dialectician." In "The Melting Pot" by Israel Zangwill, she never uttered an English word on the stage for an entire season, as all her lines were in Hebrew and Yiddish.

• • • As the only San Diego station releasing programs to the Pacific Coast, KGB is now represented on the Columbia Don Lee chain each day of the week except Sunday with the concert and dance programs of J. Warde Hutton and Gene Quaw and their respective groups.

• • • Frank Cope, custodian of the records at KJBS, advises that the Mills Brothers are now giving Bing Crosby a merry contest for first place among requests received.

• • • Mary Wood, gifted young soprano who is a member of the San Francisco staff of the National Broadcasting Company, gets as much fun out of designing gowns for her friends as she does out of hitting high vocal spots before the microphone. Color and line fascinate Mary, and she works with them like an artist. An idea for a gown may come to her while she is vocalizing in the morning, and she probably will appear at the studio that evening in the finished creation.

LOS ANGELES

... RADIO NEWS ...

A DEMAND that the polar regions give up the secret of their atmospheric effects upon radio, telephony and telegraphy, the results of which are frequently felt far into the temperate zones, has been made by twenty-six nations banded together for an intensive study of the subject, so far advanced that world demands for governmental economy cannot be permitted to stop it.

Beginning last August at more than one hundred stations throughout the world, one-third of them especially erected in the Arctic regions for the purpose and a smaller number established in the Antarctic, the collection of scientific data which eventually may lead to the prevention of atmospheric disturbance was undertaken, to be continued for a period of thirteen months. The expense of this work will be heavy, the share of the United States alone amounting to $30,000.

The subjects to be studied during the thirteen-month period will include the magnetism of the earth; the aurora or polar lights; the natural electric currents which flow in the earth's crust; the electric condition of the atmosphere; the relation of radio transmission and reception to all these phenomena and to the condition of the surface of the sun, and meteorological conditions at great heights in the atmosphere.

From past studies scientists have developed definite relationship between disturbances in magnetism, disturbances in the natural earth currents, displays of polar lights, changes in condition of radio transmission and reception, and changes in the so-called "spots" on the sun's surface. We know much about the relation of these subjects to each other in temperate or tropical regions of the earth, but we know extremely little about this relation as it exists in the Arctic and Antarctic regions.

Participation of the United States in this program is essential to its success. Fairbanks, Alaska, where an American observation station is planned, occupies a key position in the distribution of polar-year stations. There are no other stations near by, and unless Fairbanks is occupied as a station, about one-fourth of the entire Arctic region will be totally neglected. Thus, if the United States should not carry out its part of the program, with observations at Fairbanks, it would greatly affect and reduce the value of the entire work.

LACK of funds is greatly hampering the effort of the radio division of the Department of Commerce to improve broadcasting, protect life at sea by adequate inspection of ship radio installations and keep the various services under proper supervision.

The difficult situation in which the radio division finds itself was outlined to members of Congress by William D. Terrell, chief, in discussing a reduction of more than $48,000 which is to be made in the appropriation for the fiscal year beginning July 1, next. By rigid economy, it was shown, the division can operate during the coming year at a cost of something in excess of $590,000, but this will not permit the increased inspection service which is considered really necessary.

Because of the lack of funds, Mr. Terrell explained, the monitoring station at Grand Island, Nebraska, erected at heavy expense and equipped with the most modern apparatus available, can be kept in operation only eight hours a day, although it was contemplated that the station should be in service the full twenty-four hours, checking the frequencies of broadcasting and other stations in all parts of the world in the effort to reduce interference.

It is also impossible, he said, to make the fullest possible use of the test cars operating in the field as mobile laboratories, measuring the power and operating frequency of stations of all classes, investigating interference and locating unlicensed stations. These cars have now been secured for all districts except New York, where a permanent station is to be built.

As many inspections of ship radio installations are made as is possible with the limited personnel available, Mr. Terrell explained, but the number of such inspections should be materially increased in the interest of safety of life at sea, and there should also be more frequent inspections at Porto Rico, Alaska, Hawaii and other territorial points.

Lack of personnel has made it necessary for the field staff to work long hours, it was pointed out. The monitoring work on the test cars is carried on mostly at night and many of the men work until after midnight, returning to duty the next morning in order that the work may be kept current.

WITH practically every foreign nation of importance seeking to break down America's domination of the radio field, exercised through our use of about 50 per cent of the available channels, American delegates will go to the international radio convention at Madrid next spring prepared to fight any attempts to limit our radio activities.

Officials of the State Department are preparing to send a delegation of six government men and thirteen technical advisers, together with the necessary staff of clerks and translators, and are seeking an appropriation of $120,000 to cover the expenses of the party during the three or four months the meeting is expected to last.

The Madrid convention is expected to be the most important international radio conference yet held, for at it will be discussed and disposed of the recommendations prepared by the various countries since the Washington convention in 1927 at which seventy nations were represented.

"Our big job at the Madrid conference," it was declared by Irwin Stewart of the State Department in discussing the project with members of the House appropriations committee, "will be in seeing that we will not have to accept a great deal of stuff that will be harmful to American communication interests.

"The United States has a larger number of radio stations and consequently a greater amount at stake than any other country. In many respects our interests are somewhat in conflict with those of Europe, and if we are not adequately represented at Madrid we stand to be put in a position whereby our present leadership will be lost.

"The time is coming very soon when there will not be very many frequencies available," he continued. "Assertions have been made that American radio stations are now operating on 50 per cent of the available frequencies. New countries are looking around for places to get frequencies, and they find the most desirable ones occupied. If they can do anything to disturb our position in reference to those channels they may do it. At the present time nobody knows exactly what right flows from the fact that we got on those frequencies first, but we are sitting pretty at the present time and it is imperative that we be very careful to look out for our position."

Radio, Mr. Stewart pointed out, cannot be surrounded with the protective measures that serve to guard us from the outside as in the case of our other activities. Forts and navies do not protect and agreements with other nations are our only means of insuring against interference from the rest of the world.

One of the important matters to be considered at the Madrid meeting, it is anticipated, will be the recommendations of some of the European countries that the present broadcasting band be widened. American interests are prepared to fight this plan, which would not only necessitate the re-arrangement of services now operating on the frequencies which under the European proposals would be diverted to broadcasting, but some 13,000,000 American receiving sets would become obsolete through their inability to receive programs on the added frequencies and until distribution of a large number of new sets was accomplished it would be impossible for American broadcasting and advertising interests to make profitable use of the new channels.

Other recommendations are expected to seek further restriction of amateur activity, looked upon in Europe with less favor than here, which also will be fought by the United States delegation as being against our policy of giving every possible encouragement to amateur operation as contributing to the development of radio and the building up of an operator reserve for use in case of emergency.

TWO additional radio field cars, known as "traveling laboratories," will be added to the equipment of the radio division of the Department of Commerce early in February. One will be operated out of Boston, the other out of Seattle, Wash.

Every radio district in the country except New York will be equipped with mobile units upon receipt of the two machines. For the present it is not contemplated to put a car in the New York district.

SILHOUETTES

BACK before the war there was a stage-struck kid of thirteen who earned his coffee and cakes as a singing usher in a movie house in Harlem. Eventually he graduated to vaudeville where he earned $100 a week as a hooper. But he quit the stage and went to work as a news writer for $25, because he thought he'd like that better.

And apparently he was right, for now he's turned the coffee and cake money into an income which would make many a millionaire water at the mouth, and he's known to hosts of people as Walter Winchell, the world's champion gossip collector.

The boy who sang in the Harlem movie is the man who now writes a column syndicated all over the country, and who talks over a National Broadcasting Company network three times a week. His voice is heard in Cuba and Hawaii, in London and Paris and Montreal, as well as throughout America, as he calls orchestras to go on the air in various parts of the world.

It's quite a story, that of his rise to fame:

Walter was born in New York in 1897. "No rag went into an extra edition over the event," he says. He went to the public schools until he was thirteen, when he started on his roundabout road to Broadway. He was in 6B when he left school to join the "Imperial Trio"—three singing ushers in a Harlem "moon pitcher" house.

That trio wasn't famous then, but look at the members of it now. Winchell isn't the only one who's famous on the NBC air waves. Another of the boys was Eddie Cantor. And you've heard of the third one, too—Georgie Jessel. Those three used to keep the crowd out of the aisles, collect late tickets, and during intermission sing popular "chunes" to illustrated slides.

Cantor was the lead, Jessel sang bass, and Winchell was the tenor. Winchell was spelled with only one "l" then, but shortly afterward Gus Edwards put the trio into a revue and the printer spelled it in the present form on the program.

"What the 'l,'" said Walter, and accepted the addition.

It was with this act that the trekking started. Walter played the boards in various acts from coast to coast until the war started and he enlisted in the Navy. "And can you imagine?" he says. "They make me confidential secretary to two admirals. A juicy slice of irony. First confidential sec to a battleship, and now the mogul scandal-monger."

When the papers were signed which stopped the firing, Winchell returned to vaudeville, but soon decided to quit the stage. He wanted to be a newspaper man at any price, and while he was thinking about it he started "The Daily News Sense"—a couple of typewritten sheets which he used to tack up beside the mail box in every theater where he appeared.

Finally one theater owner showed it to Glenn Condon, editor of the New York Vaudeville News, who agreed to meet Walter's demand of $25 a week for his reportorial services. Soon he was earning fifty, and after Condon agreed to allow him 20 per cent on the advertising, he was making more than the editor.

Then a new "tab" was started in New York and Winchell was hired as dramatic critic, amusement editor and columnist at $100. Four years later he was getting $300, and a little later still the New York "Mirr," as he calls it, hired him at $25,000 a year for the column alone.

"Broadway is my world," he says. "I get up promptly at four every afternoon, make the office by five and prepare the column for the next yawning. Then comes the nightly round of theaters, sin-dens, ritzy parties, cognoscenti conclaves, drink a little giggle-water here and there and sniff out the news about the celebs. At about seven in the morning I go to bed."

Winchell says you "must pump people for news." You can always manage to find a leak in the person who promised not to tell, he finds. In addition he has regular news sources in Newport, Palm Beach and the other resorts, as well as in Europe.

"It's a dizzy business," he says, "a dizzy job. Yet I'm happy where I am. All of Broadway is my back yard."

Winchell married June Aster before he left the stage and they have two girls—Gloria and Walda. They're in Florida now and he gets lonesome sometimes, but he is too busy writing and broadcasting to be really unhappy about it.

EUGENE EUBANKS got several good whiffs of grease paint from his uncle, who was a Shakespearian actor with the great Sir Beerbohn Tree. That was enough to satisfy Eugene that although only several years old at the time, grease paint, Shakespearian plays and footlights was to be the life for him.

As you can see, he had several years to think it over before actually doing anything about it. But even that didn't do any good and the tender age of 12 years found him playing Robin in "The Merry Wives of Windsor" with William Faversham.

This all happened in England, where Eubanks was born. At the age of 15 he came to America with the Stratford-Upon-Avon Shakespearian Festival Company and toured the States. Completion of the tour found the young Englishman so enamored with this country that he decided to stay here. His father was connected with the British Diplomatic Service in Washington, so Eubanks went there to live and attend school for several years.

But the smell of grease paint again proved too strong and Gene left school to join a road stock company. At 20 he was playing with Guy Bates Post in "Bird of Paradise," followed by a nationwide tour with the original "Garden of Allah" Company.

Hollywood beckoned him next and for nine years he did everything from directing pictures to acting in them, but principally acting. He was a member of the original Lasky Stock Company, which numbered such future stars as Wally Reid, Sessue Hayakawa, Raymond Hatton, Dustin Farnum and others too numerous to mention. Gene co-starred in many productions with them.

Once again he returned to the legitimate stage for a final fling before coming into radio. He played the escaped convict part in the original "Front Page" company, thus gaining a familiarity with English as it is spoken in America. He learned numerous words and phrases in this company which he says have been of inestimable value since. We can't print them here, however.

Gene came to radio at the instigation of the late Dudley Ayers, who asked him to be his assistant in dramatic production at KYA. From KYA Gene came to KFRC as assistant production manager and dramatic director, where he has remained since October, 1931.

Listeners may hear him on the air every Sunday evening at 8:15 in his dramatic interpretations of the classics and in several programs during the week on which he is special announcer. His ambition is to do a series of Shakespearian plays in regular stage style over the air. He wisely adds to this declaration, "When the public is ready for them."

A la Houdini

EVERYBODY yelling about Amos 'n' Andy, Personal Closeups, and Bing Crosby all coming on the air at 8 p. m. is kinda getting my goat. But then perhaps they aren't old enough that they remember when they used to try and watch a three-ringed circus. I am. And the only remedy I know is to make up your mind you like one the best and listen to it.

I'm pretty easily satisfied, but what drives me into the "maniac state" is when a station does a disappearance act with one of their "steadies" (Scotty, KPO, and Upton, KFRC) without the slightest explanation. Gosh! that makes me BOIL! I wish you had a page entitled "Behind the MIKE." We listen to these people and really feel acquainted with them, and when they just suddenly disappear we feel that we want to know what has become of our friends.

BROADCAST WEEKLY is just a "SUPER" radio magazine. Depression or not, it is the last thing I would give up. As far as Dyal Turner is concerned, he is DYAL-CONTROLLER around these diggin's.

Finding Fault Doesn't Cure a Fault

ONE hesitates to be writing to say things about other people's business, but your excellent magazine is a pleasure and profit to any radio fan. The recent listing of stations makes BROADCAST WEEKLY the only book needed for any purpose of a receiving set. The printed programs are so complete as to furnish something for every taste and makes it possible to know when and where to find one's wants in programs.

In so far as your magazine may influence broadcasting, we feel that the West generally appreciates very much, dramatic entertainment and informational programs. For example, the program today at 3:30, the Drama Hour from KGO, the Campana First Nighter programs, the Sherlock Holmes stories on Mondays, the Spotlight Revue, and others are alike pleasure to young as well as older people.

The music of Rudy Seiger, Cy Trobbe, and Max Dolin are delightful and are superior to most of the programs from the East coast. The work of Bennie Walker, Bobbie Deane, Michael Raffetto, Ted Maxwell, and many others are artists whom any person should enjoy.

There are some things on the air for which we do not care, but finding fault does not cure a fault. So long as there is much good to be had we are content to attend to that, leaving the other to those who may care for it. May it and you continue.

Little But Mighty

HAVE been reading BROADCAST WEEKLY for over two years and must say it is a wonderful little magazine; in fact I read it from cover to cover.

There are so many wonderful programs it's hard to say which we like best. I greatly admire "The Crosscutters," and so glad John and Ned are on regular schedule; we love to hear them sing. But what are we to do about Amos 'n' Andy and dear old Bing Crosby coming on at the same time? My husband and I love to listen to both, but have to give up one of the two every evening. Can't we have Bing at 8:15? That would be marvelous. I know of so many others who would appreciate having them on at different times.

kindest wishes to your little magazine.

An Earful

YOUR little book, BROADCAST WEEKLY, certainly brings the world to our door, in the form of entertainment, and did never fully appreciate what a radio can supply until I subscribed. I think many who write harshly of entertainers are unfair, for we do not all care for the same sort of diversion at the same time, since we as individuals are not always of the same moods.

Perhaps I like some artists better than others, but when they combine to bring me and my household such a wealth of enjoyment, happiness and information, I cheerfully declare, "God bless 'em, artists all!"

Being of artistic turn, perhaps I can elucidate in verse, submitting the following symphony called

AN EARFUL!

(Apologies to Mr. Woodyard Crippling, or is it Goodyard Coupling—no hand at names myself.)

*A grouch there was—with a radio,
E'en as you and I
Who pulled up his chair all set to go—
E'en as you and I
He twisted and turned the helpless dial
But what he heard brought nary a smile
Couldn't find anything quite worth while—
Tho' not so you and I!
When he heard Walt Winchell's hearty boom,
My, O My, O My!
And Medbury's cheerful tribe a'bloom,
A sigh, a sigh, a sigh!
He didn't like music, patter or song—
They made all programs far too long,
On every station the same ding-dong,
Yoi, O yoi, O yoi!
He could have turned the blamed thing off.
E'en as you and I!
But he preferred to knock and scoff.
Why, O Why, O Why!
His manner thus most autocratic,
And storming right in his own "attic"
Was just what caused his radio static,
Ki yi, Ki yi, Ki yi!
He missed all Sousa's melody,
Tho' not so you and I!
Wranglers wrangles, croons of Vallee,
Passed all by, all by!
Could he enforce his crabbed will,
We'd have no worldly static thrill,
And all be Quakers prim and still,
Ah, then, Amen, Ami!*

Nerts! says D. D.

RUDYARD MONTANA wrote in asking about the Readers' Guide. I have waited to see if others wouldn't write in, but so far no comments. Their idea of getting all the Joseph Henry Jackson fans to protest about the Readers' Guide being taken off the air is a good one. I believe Mr. Jackson had a large following and, unless he was obliged to discontinue the half hour because of other work, I think it quite disgusting of KGO to rob us of a program that was so delightful and helpful to many. The programs are supposed to be for the pleasure of the public, but KGO has a habit of cutting off a feature as Mrs. O. C. M. says, without ever a word of explanation. We write in to the station but our letters are ignored. Yet they are always telling us they need visible applause. Nerts!

Bring on the Ballot

FOR my own amusement and for what light it might throw on the situation, I checked the two chain programs of NBC as published in this week's BROADCAST WEEKLY.

On the two chains there is a total of fourteen broadcasting hours between the hours of 5 p. m. and midnight. Of that time an average of six hours nightly was devoted to music by jazz bands; some of them sponsored, some provided by the station. This is slightly less than 50 per cent of the best part of the listening public's time. The remaining slightly more than 50 per cent of the time is divided among all other forms of radio entertainment, including blues singers and crooners, which, regardless of their value, will appeal to the same public as the jazz orchestras. I'm afraid of what the results might have been had I checked these programs also.

It seems to me that the radio chains have fared well at the hands of the public. Through the public's representative the Radio Commission, they have been granted the use of air lanes which are really the property of the people. They have been allowed to exploit these lanes by selling advertising which is not always pleasant but which the public accepts as its due for providing programs. The public is expected to buy radio-advertised products, and must do so, or sponsors would have faded from the picture long ago.

The radio public also buys receiving sets and other equipment from concerns which own at least one of the chains.

It is impertinent to suggest that we tune out if we don't like their programs. It is impudent for any station to totally ignore the wishes of a large portion of the public, on whose sufferance they exist. They were granted the use of the air and others were denied the use of it, on the assumption that they would not break faith with the public.

In place of these dance bands, of which the proper proportion would be acceptable to almost anyone, we once had Baron Keyes, Stranger Than Fiction Tales, the Pacific National Singers, the NBC Drama Hour, the Hill Billies, the Story Teller, Scotty Mortland, Joseph Henry Jackson, Paul Pittman, Split Second Tales, and any number of equally high class programs. Bring on that BROADCAST WEEKLY ballot—but most of my favorites have already gone.

Albert K., Berkeley, Calif., Feb. 19

Always Finds Something Worthwhile

WE have taken BROADCAST WEEKLY for almost a year and enjoy it immensely, especially the "Silhouettes" and news of our favorite artists, also the page by Dyal Turner.

Dyal Turner is a very fair and worthwhile critic, so we always feel much pleased when he admires our favorite artists and programs.

We love our radio and listen to many programs. Our favorite program is the Happy-Go-Lucky hour. Its informality is so refreshing and they always give us good, clean entertainment. Our favorite artists on that program are Hazel Warner and Norman Nielsen. Hazel has such a lovely voice and personality. Norman is such a versatile artist, but we especially like to hear him sing. Wish he would sing more often and favor us with some of the beautiful old songs he once sang to us on Fridays.

Another favorite program is the Hallelujah hour. Ken Niles is an excellent announcer, the orchestra good, Charlie Leland a delightful comedian and we love to hear Bob Bradford and the others sing—the program just seems to start our day out right.

We always enjoy the Merry Makers on Saturday night. We follow many of the radio skits and plays (some good, some bad) as well as many of the good symphony and concert orchestra programs. In fact we like a variety of programs and can almost always find something to our liking any time, so why kick, we can always turn our dial. We never object to a reasonable amount of advertising on a program. As long as our radio programs are a gift we should not complain too bitterly.

We shall continue to subscribe for your excellent little paper and wish you worlds of success.

Sincerely,

Mrs. C. B., Los Angeles, Calif., Feb. 18

I just DON'T like them all—and so
I'll tell you WHY and—let' er go.
Some GOOD, some BAD, and some are WORSE
Here are a FEW set down in verse.
I doze a bit—then comes a HUM
A MELODY that surely comes
From far-off seas—yet proves to be
A PIIIIHARMONIC SYMPHONY.
CRASH!! Walter Winchell starts to BAWL,
"You're lucky, O. K. Montreal."
A LOT OF STATIC proves to be
"Parade of States" by McNAMEE.
"Are you listenin'"—that's enough
Of Morton Downey's CAMEL stuff.
Vermont Lumber Jacks—by heck,
"Seth Parker," "Check and Double Check."
Then came something to appetize
That healthy morning exercise
"Yeast Foamers" and the "Pittsburgh Quakers,"
"Jean Wakefield and her Mischief Makers";

Got them "Thru an Opera Glass."
"Gen Good Time" and his popper
Heaven save me from "Miss Hopper."
"El Sidelo," "Cecil and Sally,"
"Romance" way down in "Death Valley."
"Sherlock Holmes" gave me a cup
Of "Dated Coffee"—woke me up.
The three programs that sure please me
Are CB—NB and Don Lee.*

Scotty Is Now Back on the Air

AS one of your oldest subscribers may I break into print by registering our protest to that of many others for "Scotty" Moreland being removed from the air with his News Digest. People living in the mountains and especially those many miles removed from railway transportation, depend almost entirely upon news received over the air as the San Francisco papers are many times several days late in delivery. Mountain people are particularly interested in the last weather forecast and even this important factor has been eliminated since Scotty's fifteen minutes has been used for other purposes. Is it not possible for KPO to include this last forecast at some time prior to seven in the evening?

Tom and Dud who have seemingly replaced Scotty are of very mediocre caliber and mighty poor substitute for the "Sparkling Edition of the Air."

Very sincerely yours,
C. D. and L. L. S., Grass Valley,
Calif., February 18

O. K.! Broadcast Weekly

YOUR magazine is great. O. K. BROADCAST WEEKLY, as Walter Winchell would say.

Here are some of the programs that I especially enjoy, and I hope there are others that do also.

Hallelujah, Happy-Go-Lucky, KMTR Hill Billies, Cecil and Sally, Disturbers of the Air (Mort Harris and Zizz Black), Bing Crosby, Russ Colombo, The Story of Women's Names with Ted White, tenor, and orchestra under the direction of Jess Norman, Ralph Hansell and the Four Kings from station KOA, Solitaire Cowboys, from the same station, Lucky Strike Hour, M.J.B. Demi-Tasse Revue, auto races on Sunday afternoons, fights and many other programs from the east.

I've noticed that lately there have been a number of bricks tossed to Amos 'n' Andy. I'd like to say just this. That it is no easy job to keep all of the people interested as long as Amos 'n' Andy have. Sometimes they aren't as good as they are at other times, but I expect if some of us had to keep a program going all of the time like they do, we wouldn't have any listeners. While there are some who don't care for Amos 'n' Andy any more, there are many more who do. If you don't like them, turn your dials to different stations, your arms surely aren't all broken. There are many other stations and programs to choose from. Take your pick.

It's getting to be a worse job every time Personal Close-ups changes time. Now we have Gypsy, Bing Crosby and Amos 'n' Andy to choose from. They are all good programs, therefore a person has to change around and give them each a different night.

I hope that my letter will not be so long that it will take up all the room, if it is printed.

Best wishes to the best ten cent magazine on the newsstands today.

Respectfully,
Eunice W., Victorville, Calif., Feb. 19

Some Good—Some Not So Good

YOUR Open Circuit gives people who "listen in" a chance to release some of their real feelings about the programs, so I will say that I agree with Dyal Turner in the most of his opinions.

I realize that no program can suit all the people, but some of them seem to appeal to the wrong people and so defeat their purpose. For instance, does Medbury's special brand of humor (?) appeal to the women who buy coffee? and is there not too much trashy so-called music and so-called fun? Real humor is appreciated by almost everyone, but there seems to be a lot put on the air that can amuse only morons or brains befuddled, and some programs that were good have been dropped. There I agree again with Dyal Turner, a "let-down on a flock of programs."

However, some of them are always good. The Lumberjacks have been improved greatly and now give us really good music and no silly conversation. I appreciate the change. Cy Trobbe, the Stringwood Ensemble, Paul Carson, George Nyklicek, Charles Runyan, and so many other entertainers are certainly worth while.

John and Ned are always clean and sweet. Myrt and Marge are also, and I could go on with the list of clean and helpful entertainers. Where are Billy Jones and Ernie Hare of Interwoven fame? Where is the Quaker Girl? etc.

Mrs. C. O. G., Palo Alto, Calif., Feb. 16

Every Reader Should Vote

PLEASE accept my thanks for the Parker pencil which you sent me for solving all of the first pictures correctly that you submitted in your Radio Artists Contest.

Of course I was very much disappointed in not winning one of the major prizes, but we cannot all win, and I want to congratulate those that were so lucky. Also I wish to congratulate BROADCAST WEEKLY for the fair manner in which the contest was conducted. Here's hoping you will have another some day.

We are glad to see in the new issue of BROADCAST WEEKLY just received that you are going to conduct a "Program Preference Ballot." We sincerely hope that every BROADCAST WEEKLY reader will vote and try to help improve our radio programs and do away with such disgusting announcing and advertising as is put on the air by Walter Winchell.

We will say, however, that his orchestras of late are 100 per cent better than the old B. A. Rolfe orchestra. If Lucky Strike would just keep that tiresome "Okeh" voice of Walter Winchell's off the air I am sure their programs would be enjoyed by all.

Pardon the length of this letter, but I wanted to get this out of my system.

Wishing you continued success with your very valuable little magazine, which is more to us than the daily paper, I beg to remain,

C. H. U., Merced, Calif., Feb. 19

Just One Thing After Another

ON Sunday evenings from 10:45 to 11 p. m. on KGO, there is one of the finest programs that comes to our radio and I want to take this means of telling others of it. I refer to "Builders of the Bridge to Dreamland," by Paul Carson. Any, who have not listened to that program have missed a rare treat.

And now a complaint. "Scotty" Moreland who used to give us the news at 5:45 p. m. on KPO seems to have been removed for some unknown reason and we surely miss Scotty. Can see no reason for the NBC taking this feature off the air, as there were hundreds of us here in Sacramento who always stopped long enough to listen to Scotty.

And Gypsy has been given the same time as Amos 'n' Andy. That might be called a dirty trick, because we always liked to hear Gypsy interview the various radio artists, and now how can this be done, with Amos 'n' Andy on the same time.

And Mr. Medbury has done away with Elsie, the dumb dame. That was the best part of his program. And what has KFRC done with Hazel Warner? We never hear her anymore. We are given some blues singer that could well be dispensed with as far as we are concerned.

Critique of the Week, by Dyal Turner is a fine feature in your little magazine and his comments as a rule are mine. I heartily agree with him regarding his remarks concerning "Sperry Smiles." We like and enjoy Lee S. Roberts and his memory box. But of late there has been too much talk and not enough of Mr. Roberts. They (the Sperry Flour Company) pay for the time, and it is an advertisement for them, but they got their advertising over much better with the old program than they do with the new. Anyway, tell Dyal to keep up the good work, and let us hear Gypsy at a different time so we can hear her.

David L. J., Sacramento, Calif., Feb. 21

More Confusion

FOR one certainly do agree with Dyal Turner in your February 14 issue. What have they done to the Spotlight Revue? Even "Schooldays" lacks the spontaneity it formerly had when Dick Le Grande was schoolmaster.

No more Ted Maxwell and Bernice Berwin, after all the years of Roads to Romance. It was just that little touch that made the program perfect. Whatever made it run is gone is right, Dyal Turner. Won't someone speak to Mr. Associated and get it fixed? We'd much rather have Ted and Bernice than Lord Bilgewater.

And who is Mr. Associated? Wasn't Cecil Underwood good enough for all those little speeches? Whoever this man is he sounds as though he learned his parts with much difficulty. I'm strong for Cecil myself, though it does seem as though they're trying to make him do all the rest of the work as well as announce.

We, here in Stockton, are pretty strong for Michael Raffetto. There's not another at NBC can compare with him. Why don't we have more of him in parts worthy of him. Remember Professor Quoone? There was a part worthy of his talent. The good old drama hours that have fallen by the wayside were so much better than some of the junk they put on now. We enjoyed them so much.

Now if somebody would shoot Walter Winchell, put Bing on the air at 8:15, and bring Ted and Bernice back to Spotlight I should be much happier; and, of course, give Michael a real part.

Also, we love your magazine. I should be lost without it. I read it from cover to cover and enjoy it so much.

Claire S., Stockton, February 15

Also Ran

I AM one of the "also ran." At least I won a pencil, and they are not only useful but aren't they good looking! I only wish all those who entered the contest could have seen those last fifty face-o-graphs, and I take my hat off to those two who had them all correct.

I notice you still list KFJI as located at Astoria. I'm sure it is because you have not been informed that this station was changed to Klamath Falls, and the kilocycles were changed from 1370 to 1210. We were all glad to get a station here, as we had no daylight reception. We came from up north where we could get all the National programs, and we certainly miss them.

However, we can still get the evening programs and have our favorites like everyone else. The Spotlight Revue is one of them, the M. J. B., Gypsy's interviews, the Stebbins Boys and many others, but, like I. Mc of Chico, all others are forsaken on Sunday evening at 10:15, for our dial, too, is tuned to KGO and Paul Carson. I have listened to his wonderful Sunday night concerts for months and have never been able to turn to anything else afterwards. As I. Mc says, don't let anything else spoil the magic of that hour. There is nothing on the air so beautiful, so restful. Who wants to listen to a dance band after such music.

There seem to be many of us who drop everything else as soon as our BROADCAST WEEKLY arrives; we can't wait to read the latest gossip about our favorite stars and programs. And yet there are people who pan Walter Winchell. Of course, there are people who don't read movie magazines, too—in fact there are people who don't even go to movies. But the millions who do must surely enjoy the latest about the stars. Imagine most of the "tuner-iners," as W. W. calls them, would enjoy a little gossip about their favorite radio stars, too. There's an idea for John P. Medbury. Instead of tossing out a lot of nonsense about nothing in particular, why can't he give us the latest news about the radio stars of the West. I can imagine that Gypsy would appreciate it, for, according to all reports, she must be swamped.

There are two other beautiful programs I want to mention. One the Arion Trio with Irving Kennedy from KGO on Sunday from 8 to 9 a. m. The other, "Book of Memories" from KHQ (Spokane) at 10:15 p. m. on Wednesday. Walton McKinney has the most pleasing tenor voice in the Northwest and Margaret Emahiser the loveliest soprano. I'll guarantee you'll never have to tune your radio down because her voice grates your nerves; it just can't. I think even Dyal Turner would enjoy their duets.

I like Dyal Turner. He very seldom steps on my toes, but when he does I don't mind. I go on liking my program anyway—and his page in BROADCAST WEEKLY.

CRITIQUE OF THE WEEK

By DYAL TURNER

CHARLES FRANCIS COE with his "Crime" knocks me for a loop. Golly! that boy packs a verbal wallop. Funny, Amelia can't see 'im. Neither can the lady across the way. Wonder if all wimmen feel that way about him? Guess maybe they do. 'Melia's a pretty fair barometer for her sex. Wish his time could be switched so more fellas could hear 'im. . . . That's a hint, NBC. S'pose you c'n do something about it? No kiddin', Coe oughta be heard by masculine audiences. Matinees were invented for the patent-leather heroes.

The way Ray Paige an' his gang down at KHJ treated the Duncan Sisters on a recent Sunday night sure burned me up. Say, Paige, who conducts your orchestra, you or the men? Well, then, why don't you hold 'em down. When you weren't hurrying the girls to death you were drowning 'em out. An' then, that announcer dismissed them with a curt "Thank you, call again." Why invite people to your studio if it's too much trouble to be courteous to 'em after they get there?

My idea of the most useless advertisin' is the kind where an announcer reels off words to a piano obligato. Seems to be quite the thing at small stations. Practiced by some that oughta know better, too. The tinkletinkle background makes the talk as insignificant as a gnat an' just as annoyin', if anybody should happen to ask.

Those Melomoderns who come trippin' thru' National every so often know somethin' about harmony. I'm as keen about 'em as I am about my favorite tobacco. Just the right blend.

Count von Luckner on Columbia's one o' my anticipations. "By Jove," I like the man. If they called 'im Mr. Smith from Kalamazoo, he'd still be excitin'. There's somethin' about him—a romantic aura or somethin' that shines right thru' the ol' loudspeaker. Maybe I'm specially sold on 'im cause I favor salt water seasonin' when it comes to war stories.

Oscar Young an' Dell Perry's perfect coordination always brings to mind—"united we stand." They're oke, those two. Been clickin' with me for some time now.

Whatever the Aloha Hawaiians on KJBS lack in the way o' polish an' showmanship, they make up in comfortable simplicity. At least one Hawaiian outfit sticks to native music. Programs are always agreeably restful.

Little Orphan Annie goes over a million with the Jones' twins. It's not my kind of broadcast but that's only 'cause I've outgrown the po'try writin' stage. I'd be dead from the neck up if I didn't recognize the cast as bein' one hundred per cent.

When I miss an episode o' Myrt and Marge I feel as cheated as I do on the nights Amelia serves bridge-party left-overs for dinner. Talk about your human interest stuff with life-like effects—say they don't miss anything in this CBS 7:45 special.

Mary Wood over on National has a liltin', pleasin' quality, but I can't say I'm crazy about her diction. Guess I'm funny. I like to hear the words of a song.

Gee! that li'l Grace Allen's a caution. Know the one I mean? Comes with Lombardo. Always feel I oughta kiss 'er to shut 'er up.

Wonder when they'll declare open season on psychiatrists—an' hill billies—an' walkathons—an' poop-poop-de-doops—an' dedication hours—an' lithping announcers who talk marcel's an' water-waves—an' transcriptions that scratch an' grind—an' trumpet solos—an' accordion-padded orchestras—an' sloppy ballads—an' bum dialects—an' delicatessen jokes.

AN OUTSTANDING RADIO VALUE

SUPER-HETERODYNE

IT ISN'T the name that makes a radio good, it is the radio that makes a name good.

That's the way Remler has come by its reputation. That is the reason thousands of radio buyers are choosing the new Remler "10" Superheterodyne, which is the featured value of the 1932 Remler offerings.

Complete with six tubes, including Pentode and Mu, this table model is compactly housed in a newly designed cabinet of pleasing proportions, modernistically finished in contrasting woods. Volume, distance and tone of the traditionally fine Remler quality make the Remler "10" an outstanding value. Including tubes. $39.50
