News and Comment

THE American School of the Air, incorporating several new features in its regular plan of broadcasting instruction, will resume its courses in geography, history, literature, elementary science, music, vocational guidance and current events, when it opens its sessions over a coast-to-coast Columbia network on Monday, October 21. The programs will be heard thereafter each Monday to Friday, inclusive, from 11:30 to 12 noon, P. S. T., with the usual recesses during the holiday seasons.

The plan of education by radio was started as an experiment in February of 1930. The courses met with such hearty approval of school principals, teachers and students alike throughout the country, that the following year's schedule was increased to the full school week.

Miss Helen A. Johnson, the broadcasting director, with the aid of a board of consultants comprised of prominent educators, has planned the programs well in advance. The Teachers' Manual and Classroom Guide of the American School of the Air, which is distributed to educators through the country, contains brief descriptions of the countries, persons or incidents dramatized in the daily air classes. Incorporated in the manual are suggestions for visual aids, books for supplementary reading, elementary scientific experiments and incidental music, which makes possible a complete correlation of the air courses with classroom work.

Alexander Woollcott, genial raconteur and master of whimsy, returns in the role of the "Town Crier" Sunday, October 6, from 4:00 to 4:30 p. m., P. S. T. A few hours later Eddie Cantor, supported by his familiar cohorts, Rubinoff, "Pafkyakakas" and James Wallington, will be heard in the second of a weekly series of programs from 8:00 to 8:30 p. m., P. S. T.

Philharmonic Symphony's Sunday Concerts for 1935-36

The Columbia Broadcasting System announces that the Sunday afternoon concerts and six Saturday morning Children's Concerts presented by the Philharmonic-Symphony Society of New York for the season of 1935-36 will be broadcast over the coast-to-coast network and the nationwide network on the Canadian Radio Commission. Otto Klemperer, distinguished German conductor, will direct the first broadcast, tentatively set for Sunday, October 13, from 12:00 to 2:00 p. m., PST.

Arturo Toscanini, the noted Italian maestro, returns for his eleventh consecutive season to conduct the second part of the series. The Philharmonic-Symphony Society's 1935-36 season promises to be a most colorful one in the variety of works presented to the nationwide radio audience. A highlight of the forthcoming series is the engagement of Sir Thomas Beechum, prominent English director, who will provide Columbia's radio audience with three Sunday broadcasts on January 5, 12, and 19. The Philharmonic-Symphony Society has requested Sir Thomas to investigate the possibilities of English music with the idea of presenting to the American public in these three weeks the outstanding English works. The Society has also requested Hans Lange, who will conduct four separate broadcasts during the season, to examine the field of American compositions and to arrange for each of his broadcasts, if possible, a new and interesting composition by an American composer.

President and Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt In Coast to Coast Broadcast

Forum on Current Problems, Opening Tuesday, October 15,
To Present Addresses by World Figures Here and Abroad

PRESIDENT and Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt and more than two score world famous figures in politics, literature, education, music and sociology will be heard in an extensive series of broadcasts over National Broadcasting Company networks from the fifth annual "New York Herald-Tribune" Forum on Current Problems, opening Tuesday, October 15th, in the Waldorf-Astoria in New York.

Their addresses, on the general conference theme, "America Faces a Changing World," will be broadcast exclusively during the three-day session over NBC networks from New York, Washington, Paris, London, Brussels, Chicago, Panama and Madison.

The conference, arranged by the "Herald-Tribune" for the discussion of modern problems of the home, the nation and the world, will hear from London via short wave the voice of Sir Josiah Stamp, director of the Bank of England. From Paris will come a talk by Paul Reynaud, former Finance Minister of France, and from Brussels, Paul Van Zeeland, Prime Minister of Belgium.

Cordell Hull, Secretary of State of the United States, will make the opening speech on Tuesday, October 15. The first session of the forum, on that morning, will deal with "Trade and Peace," with special emphasis on the question as to whether or not America can remain neutral in event of another war.

The speakers on this session will be Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt, who will discuss "The American Woman's Place in the World Today"; Norman H. Davis, President Roosevelt's ambassador at large, who will make the keynote speech; Sir Josiah Stamp, from London; Dr. Philip C. Jessup, professor of international law at Columbia University, discussing "Can the United States Remain Neutral?"; Paul Reynaud, talking from Paris; Paul Van Zeeland, from Brussels, and Thomas J. Watson, chairman, American section of the International Chamber of Commerce, speaking on "World Trade and Recovery."

The second session, to be held on the afternoon of October 15, will have as its general topic "Assets of the Depression." Mrs. Roosevelt will make the keynote speech on "Better Housing," to be followed by Mayor Fiorello LaGuardia of New York discussing "Depression's Debunking of Finance." Later in the session Igor Sikorsky, aviation engineer, will speak on "Wings Over America"; Miss Josephine Roche, Assistant Secretary of the Treasury, will talk on "Youth's Opportunities Today and Social Security Safeguards"; and John G. Winant, chairman of the National Social Security Board, will discuss "Social Security."

"Safeguards for the Future" will be the main discussion topic of the third session on the morning of October 16. The speakers to be heard during this meeting include Alfred P. Sloan, president of General Motors, giving the keynote speech; Ogden Mills, former Secretary of the Treasury, talking on "Broaden the Tax Base"; Dr. Neil Carothers, professor of economics of the College of Business Administration at Lehigh University, speaking on "Sane Economics"; Paul Siple, Boy Scout with the Byrd expedition; Lady Rhondda, editor of "Time and Tide," discussing "International Understanding"; Dr. Menas Gregory, former director of the psychiatric department of Bellevue Hospital, on "Juvenile Delinquency"; Judge E. Q. Johnson, prosecutor of Al Capone, speaking on "Cutting the Crime Cost," and Dr. Arthur H. Compton, professor of Physics at Chicago University, on "The Safeguard of Religion."

The fourth session of the forum will be held on the morning of October 17 and will discuss in general "The Rise of Culture in the United States." John Erskine, president of the Juilliard Foundation, will make the keynote talk to be followed by Irita Van Doren, literary editor of the "New York Herald-Tribune," discussing "Trends in Literature"; Edward Johnson, director of the Metropolitan Opera, talking on "The Place of Opera in American Life"; Reuben Mamoulian, famed motion picture producer, speaking on "The World's Latest True Art"; Helen Hayes, one of America's foremost actresses, discussing "The Stage."

"Propaganda: A Force for Good or Evil" will be the main topic during the fifth session and will bring some of America's foremost publicists to the radio audience. Dr. Harwood L. Childs, department of politics at Princeton University, will open the session with a talk on "The Science of Propaganda." Additional speakers include Edward L. Bernays, famed publicist, discussing "Moulding Public Opinion"; Colonel Frank Knox, publisher of the "Chicago Daily News," telling of "Freedom of the Press"; David Sarnoff, president of the Radio Corporation of America, speaking on "Radio and Public Opinion"; Mrs. Thomas G. Winter, of the public relations department of the Associated Motion Picture Producers, Inc., discussing "The Movies and Public Opinion"; Mrs. Grace Morrison Poole, former president of the General Federation of Women's Clubs, on "Propaganda and Organized Women"; and Dorothy Thompson, author, closing the session with a talk on "Government by Propaganda."

The sixth and final session will lay before NBC listeners a description, by authorities and representatives of some of the leading universities, of new philosophies of government which have gained ascendancy in the last few years. The general topic of discussion at this meeting will be "What Americans Should Know of the New Philosophies of Governments."

The keynote speech will be made by Dr. Glenn Frank, president of the University of Wisconsin. Dr. Harold W. Dodds, president of Princeton University, will talk on "The American Philosophy of Government"; Dr. Frederick L. Schumann, professor of political science at the University of Chicago, on "National Socialism: Menace or Promise"; Calvin Bryce Hoover, professor of economics at Duke University, speaking on "Communism in Russia"; Dr. James T. Shotwell, professor of history at Columbia University, will discuss "Italian Fascism."

At the conclusion of the entire forum, Mrs. Ogden Reid, vice-president of the "New York Herald-Tribune," will introduce President Roosevelt. The President will speak to the forum and NBC listeners in a special address from the Caribbean.

The broadcast program is now being arranged by NBC so that all the highlights of the three-day session may be brought to the radio audience. Definite time and network schedules will be announced in the near future.

Pomona College Glee Club

The celebrated men's glee club of Pomona College, winner of the national championship in 1932 (the last year in which the national contests were held at St. Louis), will be heard in five songs during "Male Chorus Parade" presentation Wednesday night, October 9, from 8:15 to 8:30 o'clock, over the Columbia-Don Lee network.

Organized in 1892, and thus one of the oldest groups of the kind on the Pacific Coast, the Pomona College Glee Club is under the direction of Ralph H. Lyman, who has served as its leader for the past eighteen years. In addition to winning the national trophy three years ago, the club has on ten occasions won first laurels in the Southwest Pacific Coast championships.

Its thirty-two voices, equally apportioned as to the four voice-ranges, will open Wednesday night's program with "Chivalry," by Everett Olive, professor of piano at Pomona College, whose "Scalp Dance" is the theme song for Fred Waring's Pennsylvanians. The complete program follows: "Chivalry," by Olive; "Swing Low, Sweet Chariot," an arrangement by Huntley; "Ave Maria," by Arcadelt; "Echo Song," by Di Lasse, and "Hail, Pomona, Hail," by Loucks.

Scripps-Howard is entering the broadcasting field. WFBE in Cincinnati is being purchased by this chain of newspapers. Other radio outlets are coming under the enterprising eyes of the "Fourth Estate-er." Rumor has it that San Francisco will soon have a Scripps-Howard station. Intensive competition will result. Hearst interests in the ether lead.

John Pickard, broadcaster and producer of Sydney, Australia, who recently arrived in this country, tells us of directing Carlton Morse's "One Man's Family" script for nine station hook-up in the Antipodes. According to Pickard, all but the character of "Jack" fit in well with the Australian scheme of things. He is typically American. Curiously enough, this splendid program, presented for family consumption, is sponsored by a brandy concern. The cigarette backer in this country did not last long on NBC. Incidentally the commercial over there is only of a few words, announcing that "One Man's Family" is presented by the "such and such Brandy Co."

Contestant Number 13 on a KYA amateur hour gave Announcer Rod Mayes and Engineer Mark Dunnigan the "whips and jingles." Asked if he wished to dedicate the selections he was about to present, the amateur nodded and started to deliver a message to a listener, the substance being he was "sorry he had forgotten to phone" that party, the very afternoon of the broadcast. The indignant Mays excitedly waved at the singer, while Dunnigan cut the program from the air. The amateur was then warned never to attempt "such a thing" again. However, Contestant No. 13 was not to be denied. He stepped to the now "live" microphone and said for the benefit of his "date"—"I'm still sorry I forgot to phone." Another headache for the master of ceremonies.

Commander A. W. Scott, member of a famous British flying family and radio commentator on the Pacific Coast, tells of an experience while flying a friend who had never "been up" before. A thousand feet in the air his motor stalled. The plane descended rapidly toward a dense forest. Scott saw his life flash before him in hazardous abandon. Fortunately for the occupants of the ship, the motor "took hold" as the tree tops loomed in ominous manner. The commander expected to find his passenger in total collapse as the plane taxied to its hangar. However, the friend, really enjoying the flight, kidded the unnerved Scott for trying to "frighten" his passenger. He was "wise" all the time.

The Mail Bag: Ralph Edwards is the new amateur MC on KSFO . . . Dorothy Scott, capable young actress, is playing the part of Connie in MacGregor and Sollie's Cub Reporters . . . Orchestra Leader Ferde Grofe is heard with Burns and Allen Wednesday nights over CBS . . . Helen Troy of the Care-free Carnival cast on NBC is searching for a suitable skit . . . Walter Patterson, who was Captain Lacey in "One Man's Family," is now drama producer at KYA.

With the Symphonists

Verdi Cycle to Be Heard on NBC from Music Hall

A VERDI cycle, in which four of the noted Italian composer's best-loved operas will be performed, will be presented on four consecutive Sundays, beginning October 6, in the Music Hall of the Air over an NBC coast-to-coast network at 9:30 a. m., P. S. T.

The operas will be sung by distinguished soloists and a large chorus and played by the Radio City Music Hall Symphony Orchestra of seventy-five. They will be broadcast from the Music Hall's own radio studio above the wings of the playhouse stage. The programs, beginning with Verdi's "Rigoletto," will last an hour.

The cast assembled has many newcomers to the Music Hall broadcasts. Foremost among the singers are Rosemarie Brancato, coloratura soprano and prima donna of the Chicago Opera Company; Bruna Castagna, contralto of the Philadelphia Grand Opera Company; John Gurney, basso of the Russian Opera Company; Martino Rossi, baritone of the Philadelphia Grand Opera Company and the Chicago Opera Company. In addition to these, important roles in the Verdi operas will be sung by Viola Philo, soprano; Jan Pearce, tenor, and Robert Weede, baritone, who have been popular soloists in the Music Hall on the Air for the past two seasons.

Following "Rigoletto" on Sunday, October 6, will come "Il Trovatore," "La Traviata," and "Aida" on successive Sundays.

Stations are KPO KOMO KFI KFSD KTAR KDYL KGIR KGHL.

Detroit Symphony Schedule

THE Sunday Evening Hour broadcast series, resumed Sunday night, September 29, will be broadcast for a period of 39 weeks over the entire coast-to-coast network of the Columbia Broadcasting System. The broadcasts will originate from Orchestra Hall, Detroit.

Programs will closely follow the pattern introduced last year, offering "familiar music in the majestic manner," by the symphony orchestra of 70 pieces and chorus of 44 voices, under the direction of Victor Kolar, associate director of the Detroit Symphony Society. A guest artist of international repute will be presented in each program.

A special Christmas program is scheduled for December 22, when a quartet of four first-rank Metropolitan Opera soloists is programmed.

The guest artists scheduled for appearance during the remainder of the year are:

Oct. 6, Lucrezia Bori, soprano; Oct. 13, Julius Huehn, bass-baritone; Oct. 20, Dalies Frantz, pianist; Oct. 27, Richard Crooks, tenor; Nov. 3, Joseph Szigeti, violinist (radio premiere); Nov. 10, Mischa Lovitzki, pianist; Nov. 17, Cyrena Van Gordon, contralto; Nov. 24, Kirsten Flagstad, soprano; Dec. 1, Albert Spalding, violinist; Dec. 8, Lawrence Melchoir, tenor; Dec. 15, Elizabeth Rethberg, soprano; Dec. 22, quartet comprising Grete Stueckgold, soprano; Kathryn Meisle, contralto; Richard Crooks, tenor, and Ezio Pinza, bass-baritone; Dec. 29, Charles Kullmann, tenor.

W. J. Cameron will continue his intermission talks throughout the series.

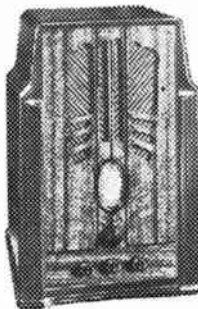

New Concert Series on NBC October 6

The General Motors concert series will return to the air 7 to 8 p. m., P. S. T., on Sunday, October 6.

These concerts last year won first award of the Women's National Radio Committee as "the best sponsored musical program."

Erno Rapee will conduct the first part of the season. He will be followed in later concerts by such eminent guest conductors as Arturo Toscanini, Sir Henry Beecham, Leopold Stokowski, Igor Stravinsky, Bruno Walter and others.

Leslie Howard Added to Array of Fall Talent

Leslie Howard, noted star of stage and screen, will be featured over the Columbia network in a new series starting Sunday, October 6, between 5:30 and 6:00 p. m., P. S. T. Howard has just returned from England to make arrangements for the radio series. He will pick his own leading lady and type of dramatic show.

New "Stream of Life" Series

This year the Community Chest is presenting a series of radio dramas, "Stream of Life," which contain no Community Chest appeal—nor even facts about Chest operations. The dramas simply portray emergencies for which there will be no help unless the Chest helps.

Financial distress often is complicated by personal and family difficulties of the most dramatic sort. These all fall in the category of problems to be solved by the Chest. Some of the most puzzling have been selected for the series, "Stream of Life," and the audience is asked to suggest what should be done.

"Stream of Life" is broadcast Saturdays at 6:30 p. m., Station KFRC.

Clem McCarthy, who grabbed the juicy assignment of doing the blow-by-blow account of the Baer-Louis fight, can thank the listeners. An important factor in his selection was that a quiet nation-wide checkup by the sponsor indicated that the agile-tongued McCarthy was tops with those who do their sports following via the kilocycles.

Hollywood, Calif. If you've been impatiently awaiting the return to Hollywood of Rudy Vallee, then you'll welcome the news that Rudy, minus his Connecticut Yankees, hit the town on September 28. Rudy's all set to handle the lead in "Let's Pretend," a Warner musical. Later, when his band arrives, Rudy will tour the coast for personal appearances at theaters. Did you know that he always rehearsed his band wearing dark glasses?

Co-incident with his announcement that he'd leave "Shell Chateau," in a few weeks, Al Jolson was planted in a heavy new musical "The Singing Kid." This week Al is happily displaying pictures of his young adopted son, Albert Jolson Jr.

Incidentally, that's a good announcing job Ken Frogley's doing on those Benny Goodman coast-to-coasters over Columbia.

Rubinoff likes to picture pose with celebrities. Fred Allen returned to the air October second. Pinky Tomlin is a former amateur lightweight boxing champion of Oklahoma. Lawrence Tibbett started a series of twenty-six broadcasts beginning September 24. Judging from the ovation Johnny Murray received opening night of his "Varieties," he's still a popular lad. Bob Shafer's voice has improved tremendously.

Predicts Banner Radio Year

SINCE the beginning of radio broadcasting, many pioneer merchants, by their courage and foresight, have done much to bring radio to its present stages of development and popularity. One of San Francisco's most active radio service centers is the I. S. Cohen Sons Company, who have specialized in radio since its inception.

Ten years in radio is longer than many decades in other lines, for broadcasting, as we know it today, is but a comparatively few years old. Notwithstanding the popularity of radio, the business has its hazards. New improvements come so fast that last year's vogue is as dead as King Tut!

Therefore it requires vision, financial strength, and faith in the future of radio to maintain a service institution where the best available is none too good for the listener-patron.

The I. S. Cohen Sons Company has an interesting history. It was founded in 1870, when I. S. Cohen was well known in political circles. He was Republican State Central Committeeman for twenty years, and his vote helped to elect State Senator Perkins when headquarters of the party were at the famed old Baldwin Hotel, on the site of the present Flood Building.

After the Fire, William Cohen, Sr., and Milton M. Cohen, continued the business under their father's name, and weathered the strenuous times without mishap. Their first store was on Sixth Street, but after the Fire they moved to Fillmore Street. In 1910 the firm moved to its present location. Sewing machines and kindred equipment was their main line for many years.

In their present store, employing twenty-five persons, the firm is recognized as one of the leading radio service centers of the bay region.

William Cohen, Sr., stated to this writer: "I have every confidence in the future of radio and, when the time comes, television. Our company did a much larger business in 1934 than in 1932 or 1933. Naturally, our peak years were from 1926 to 1928, when radio first took hold of the public fancy in a big way.

"With the marvelous new sets at a greatly reduced cost, and startling improvements, we look forward to exceeding our peak years in the near future."

This 65-year-young organization is headed by William Cohen, Sr. Milton M. Cohen heads the electrical department, while Billy Cohen, Jr., has charge of radio activities. William, Sr., is justly proud of his son, who has made a splendid success, and whose enthusiasm for modern radio shows in a consistent increase in volume of business and service to listeners from year to year.

DEAFNESS IS MISERY

Many people with defective hearing and Head Noises enjoy Conversation, Movies, Church and Radio, because they use Leonard Invisible Ear Drums which resemble Tiny Megaphones fitting in the Ear entirely out of sight. No wires, batteries or head piece. They are inexpensive. Write for booklet and sworn statement of the inventor who was himself deaf.

Ernie Smith Will Describe Gridiron Games over KFRC

Ernie Smith will handle the announcing job during the broadcast of the season's grid games over KFRC and the Columbia-Don Lee network.

Almost since pigskin battles have been reported by radio, Smith has been the "eyes and ears" for countless numbers of football fans.

This season will mark another milestone in Smith's football announcing career. It was seven years ago when the football public first heard Smith's voice hectorically describing a gridiron battle. Since then almost every important game heard in the west has been put on the air by the celebrated sports observer.

Lyndon T. Miller, account executive at KJBS, recently won first prize for an extemporaneous speech which he delivered at an oratorical contest between members of the San Francisco Speakers Club and the Advance Club.

Ripley, Nelson and Hilliard
Begin New Air Series October 6

ROBERT L. (Believe-It-Or-Not) Ripley will join Harriet Hilliard, vocalist, and Ozzie Nelson and his orchestra when the Bakers' Broadcast returns to the air for its third season on Sunday, October 6, over an NBC nationwide network at 4:30 p. m., P. S. T. Miss Hilliard and Nelson's orchestra have been starred on the programs for the last two years, but Ripley is making his debut on the broadcast.

Claude Sweeten Introduces Original Composition

ON his "Salon Moderne" program over a nation-wide Columbia network on Sunday, October 6, between 9:00 and 9:30 p. m., P. S. T., Claude Sweeten will present for the first time a new and original composition.

He has titled this new composition "Bell Dreams," and its theme is derived from the haunting, broken rhythm of bells which disturb one's slumber or sound through fanciful dreams.

Claude Sweeten has gained widespread attention for his work as a radio conductor and violin soloist, and is rapidly springing into prominence as a composer. The slow, almost chant-like melody which serves as a theme for "Salon Moderne" is one of Sweeten's compositions which he has titled "Prelude." In addition he has written many other melodies as well as atmospheric music for many of the radio programs on which he has served as musical director.

"Salon Moderne," which has been heard on previous Sundays at 7 p. m., will be presented on October 6 at 9:00 p. m., P. S. T., and will be broadcast at this time each week.

Candid Cameraman in Crime Clues Show

Amateur photographers who specialize in "candid camera" photography will have their first opportunity to take pictures of a network broadcast on Tuesday, October 8, when the Eno Crime Clues program, heard each Tuesday at 8:30 p. m., P. S. T., over an NBC coast-to-coast network, will be enacted before a studio audience composed exclusively of cameramen.

A special story, hinging on a mystery solved by means of a camera, has been prepared by Stewart Sterling, Crime Clues author, for the benefit of the photographers. Entitled "The Thin Film of Evidence," the story has been written especially to present unusual pictorial possibilities. High-powered lights have been installed in one of NBC's Radio City studios to provide the photographers with every advantage.

It's a boy papoose at the home of the Craig McDonalds. Craig plays the role of "Harka," the Indian, in the "Bobby Benson" series.

Tito Guizar's 2-year-old daughter is already following in her tenor father's footsteps—so far, she has a repertoire of eight songs.

Phil Duey is all excited about flying back to his hometown, Macy, Indiana, for a visit with the folks and a personal appearance in the church choir.

If the Voice of Experience should ever abandon his present work he could accept one of the many church pastorate rates that have been offered him.

Back in Old Missouri he was once known as a boy evangelist.

Ford Bond, ace NBC announcer, probably knows more celebrated figures in the sports world than any other broadcaster.

GLADYS SWARTHOUT
 Popular prima donna heard on
 NBC networks

Bennie Walker, jocund editor of the Woman's Magazine of the Air has managed a baking business, sung in choirs, cooked for 100 men a day (in the army) sold radios, and held down a job as floor manager in a department store.

And all the time he knew what he wanted to do—which was to enter the entertainment world. He has appeared in vaudeville and musical comedy and played character roles in heavy dramas, but found his real interest lay in radio the first time he ever sang into a microphone.

"Is there any possibility of John Hix running short of material for his 'Strange As It Seems' programs, broadcast by KHJ and the Columbia-Don Lee network?" Answer: Hardly, the noted young cartoonist has no less than 15,000 strange facts in reserve at the present time.

Alois Havrilla, announcer, has served as commentator for innumerable travelogues. Because of his ability to time his talks' accurately and make them interesting, he has gained the name of "One-take-Havrilla," one of the best compliments the film world can offer.

True Boardman, popular KHJ dramatist and writer who recently concluded his series of "Red Letter Days" program, will long count this as a sure-enough "Red Letter Day" for at 4 o'clock, September 23, a six-pound girl was born to Mrs. Boardman (formerly Thelma Hubbard) at the Good Samaritan Hospital. Mother and daughter are doing very well; the father is happily dispensing the good news and cigars, and all are extremely thrilled over the fact that the dramatic cast of "Hollywood Hotel," of which Mrs. Boardman is a member, presented the infant with a handsome crib and wardrobe, complete from whatchamaycallits to whatchamaycallits.

Victor Young, maestro of the Shell Chateau on NBC, played a medley of Irving Berlin numbers in a recent program. Young was surprised when Berlin, himself, showed up for rehearsal. The composer was so intrigued by the arrangements Young had made of his numbers that he requested and received an autographed copy of the score sheet from Vic. Incidentally, Young is himself no amateur as a composer. "Sweet Sue" heads the long list of hit tunes to his credit.

Helen Musselman, NBC singing actress who is Senorita Rita in Pan-Americana, heard over an NBC coast-to-coast network on Tuesdays, was introduced to her husband and a microphone career at the same time. . . . William Andrews, NBC Chief Announcer in San Francisco, is the husband; he announced the broadcast on which Helen made her microphone debut, and it was a case of love at first sight.

John Barclay, NBC actor, had the unique distinction of being the thirty-sixth Barclay to attend Harrow School in England. The school, founded in 1603, might more aptly be called Barclay's Institute.

Helen Hayes, heard on NBC, comes by her dramatic talent naturally. Her maternal grandfather, Patrick J. Hayes, was a great Shakespearean scholar and loved to entertain friends of an evening by quoting an entire play by the Bard of Avon from memory.

Johnny Hauser, scat-singer of "The Hit Parade," may have to mix journalism with his singing. Scores of air-struck youngsters have written to him asking how they can break into song. A prominent newspaper syndicate has recently asked Hauser to conduct a column on this subject.

Mona Greer, former Texas cowgirl who sings with Charlie Marshall and his "boys" on NBC, was married in her early 'teens and went back to school several years later. At Commencement exercises her young son was in the audience, pointing proudly to Mother.

Arthur Gordon Smith, well known illustrator, has been commissioned to execute a large batik panel commemorating the presentation by the American Legion of a silver plaque to Jessica Dragonette for her services in singing during the Legion's exercises at the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier for the past several years.

We won't have to wait for television after all. Virginia Verrill, beautiful singing star of the CBS "Sketchbook" plans to make her New York stage debut this Fall. Dudley-Tompkins have offered La Verrill a featured role in their Broadway musical show scheduled for November production.

PETER Van STEEDEN
 Orchestra director, "Town Hall
 Tonight," NBC

Minetta Ellen, who plays Fanny Barbour in One Man's Family, is the daughter of a mother almost as notable as Fanny herself. . . . A young-hearted lady who will be ninety years old this November, Miss Ellen's mother sews, takes long walks and writes light verse. . . She says, "I feel like the mother of Sarah Bernhardt when One Man's Family is on the air."

Earl Lee, NBC character actor heard frequently in the Sunday Special dramas prizes among his souvenirs a missive from a theatrical manager who wrote, firing him from the company in which he was playing. Paragraph after paragraph in the letter went on in a diatribe against Earl's acting, stage presence, make-up, voice and other items, but toward the end, the writer began to reconsider—and in the last paragraph, he re-engaged the actor, at an increase in salary.

Owing to the pressure of executive and studio work, Frank Black, NBC's versatile musical director, has been obliged to turn down an offer to orchestrate the music for a Broadway revue scheduled to arrive in late December.

Maestro David Broekman is now wearing "cheaters" . . . amber-hued horn-rimmed glasses which give him a sort of professorial air.

Frank Black will be the maestro for "The Magic Eye" program over NBC which will feature concert stars, jazz orchestras, news commentators and others.

Rosaline Greene has dropped from 125 to 114 pounds.

Phil Duey jumps to three commercials next month.

The two girl singers who are getting the most consideration from prospective fall customers are Thelma Leeds, a Jane Froman type, and Martha Raye, a "hotcha" gal featured with Louis Prima's band at the Famous Door.

Harry Sez, sound effects expert on Show Boat and the Beauty Box Theatre, is back from his vacation.

The theme song of "House of Glass," in case you've wondered, is "En Mer," written by August Holmes and published abroad.

Muriel Wilson is beginning to look more cheerful. . . Her mother is out of the hospital and recovering from a fall downstairs.

Singers sometimes have mike-fright when called upon to speak over the air. Judy Starr admits she had a large attack of the small-jitters, recently, when she introduced Pianist Joe Sullivan.

Peter Van Steeden, who conducts the orchestra for NBC's "Town Hall Tonight," will soon write a series of magazine articles which he will call, "Pardon My Back." He will tell of his appearances in radio and on the stage.

Carlton E. Morse, author of One Man's Family, who has appeared before the microphone on occasion, says he doesn't know the meaning of the word mike fright—"But the microphone reels so," he explains.

The removal of The Hit Parade program to Los Angeles delighted Kay Thompson. Her first big-time radio successes were scored there and it has always been like a second home to her.

Phil Duey, baritone, can't rest between numbers while he is broadcasting. He steps out of the studio and vocalizes until he is due on the air again. Once he forgot to return in time and the orchestra went ahead without him until Phil could be located. He's more careful now.

There's going to be another Bond on the networks one of these days, if Bill Bond, announcer with Station WAVE in Louisville, keeps up his present pace. He's Ford Bond's brother and, according to reports from Ford's home town, the youngster is headed for "the big time."

If Barry McKinley, baritone star of "Dreams Come True," breaks a shoe lace while putting on his shoes, he will not replace it with a new one till the other one wears out. It's the young NBC baritone's one superstition—a hold-over from his days in show business—so don't be surprised if you see Barry with his shoes done up in a lot of fancy knots.

Tito Guito Guizar last week was urged to accept a post as coach of the boxing team Mexico is growing for the 1935 Olympic Games at Berlin. The famous CBS tenor's boxing prowess is as well known to Mexicans as his voice. But the singer, who was once intercollegiate heavyweight boxing champion of his country, is too busy with movie-making and radio to accept.

Add golf honors for radio stars: Phil Duey, now starring in NBC's "Musical Rendezvous," recently won the Westchester County Golf Association tourney against eleven leading players. Last year he took the President's trophy at the Bonnie Briar Golf Club.

WINIFRED WOLFE
"Teddy" in NBC's "One Man's Family"

The Revelers quartette spend most of their time between programs these days replenishing their wardrobes for their European concert tour next month.

Her Radio City cronies claim that the coolest place in New York is Martha Mears' living room, newly redecorated in "rickey green" and white.

Igor Gorin, in addition to being a white hope of the movie moguls, is also a tremendous social success in Hollywood.

Frank McIntyre (Captain Henry) has received a minstrel book more than 100 years old from a lady in California.

Milton Cross and Howard Clane, National Broadcasting Company announcers, sailed from New York aboard the S.S. Manhattan recently for a brief vacation in Europe.

Frank Black is almost as excited as the Revelers quartette about their forthcoming trip abroad.

Jack Benny has the assistance of an expert dialectician in the person of his youthful orchestra leader, Johnny Green. Johnny's various "accents" are well known in musical circles and have often panicked his boys during rehearsals.

James Melton flew back to New York from Hollywood on Sept. 25, becomes the permanent singing star of the NBC "Beauty Box Theatre" broadcasts. Melton was recently signed to a contract of 108 weeks in duration for this program.

Marty May, new CBS comic, will shift to 6:30 p. m. P. S. T. Saturday nights.

Ann Tobin, mischievous-eyed 21-year-old actress frequently heard on "Mobil Magazine," recently won a dramatic assignment that she had not anticipated. Apparently wishing to express her gratitude, Miss Tobin presented the production department with a neat little cellophane-wrapped parcel containing a highly polished apple . . . a bow of red ribbon tied to its stem.

How's this for the habit of microphonic precision being carried into private life? Extremely nervous, as he paced to and fro in the hospital corridor, True Boardman automatically pressed the stem of his stop-watch when he heard the cry of a babe. Thus, he unwittingly recorded the exact second his infant daughter was ushered into this world.

HAL GRAYSON

Heard from St. Francis Hotel over KFRC net

Theodore Webb, baritone on the NBC "Beauty Theatre" programs, has received an offer to serve as guest commentator for a big-league hockey game this season. Ted was a popular hockey star while at college in Canada.

* * *

Gogo Delys, NBC vocal star, can have her choice of two Manhattan nite club spots, but with several commercial programs in the offing, Gogo says she will probably devote her time to the air waves.

* * *

Tom McKnight's program, "Sherlock Holmes" will be without a sponsor for the first time in four years. "Mr. Fortune," the program McKnight expected to feature for the same sponsor, is also being offered around.

* * *

Don Forbes, wishing to more nearly look the part of "Ye Olde Timekeeper" in his new "Rise and Shine" rôle, is growing a moustache which has just passed the diaphanous stage.

David Broekman, musical director of "California Melodies" over CBS, has turned down an offer to conduct a short season of symphonic music in Rio de Janeiro, Brazil, during the latter part of November.

THE efforts of Premier Mussolini to close down the League of Nations weekly short wave broadcasts from Geneva during the critical stages of the Italo-Ethiopian controversy, emphasize the strategic importance of an international broadcasting station in time of war or during the approach of such a conflict. Station HBL of Geneva is heard every Monday morning at 12:15 a. m., through relay by 3LR of Melbourne, Australia, on 9.58 megacycles, and because of the objections raised by the Italians, will probably be listened to now more closely than ever.

Determined to bring their country into a leading position in short wave broadcasting, Japanese radio engineers are preparing to shift frequencies and antenna systems for the winter months. JVN on 10.66 meg. has already replaced JVM for the daily broadcasts between 10:45 and 11:20 p. m., and between 1:00 and 4:40 a. m. Monday and Thursday experimental programs are now carried by JVH (14.60 meg.), JVN (10.66 meg.), and JVV (5.89 meg.) simultaneously from 1 to 2 p. m., with excellent volume being reported from the first two.

As yet, no change has been made in the carrying station for the daily "Overseas Programs," but faltering signals will no doubt necessitate such a shift in the near future.

European reception has been very erratic during the past week, and violent fluctuations were noticeable on London's number six transmission between 7 and 8 p. m. GSC on 9.58 meg. has ranged all the way from inaudible to very strong during this broadcast, and GSL on 6.11 meg. has been almost as jumpy.

England's fifth transmission, from 3 to 5 p. m., remains at a very low level from both GSC and GSB, but a considerable improvement has been noted during the late morning hours from GSD on 11.75 meg. GSI, 15.26 meg., which carries the fourth broadcast from 9:15 to 11:15 a. m., has also held up with a fair signal quite regularly.

German, French, and Italian broadcasts in the afternoon and evening have been extremely weak, with the exception of an occasional test transmission from Berlin's DJN on 9.54 meg. near 6 p. m. Morning signals, however, show some sign of improvement, and the famous French "Radio Coloniale" has often been logged with good volume on 11.88 meg. between 11 a. m. and noon.

HJ4ABE of Medellin, Columbia, still has our vote for one of the strongest South Americans on the air. This fine broadcaster has been tuned in consistently from 6 to 8 p. m. with excellent volume, and frequent English announcements enable the American listener to really enjoy the programs. Every night, talks about the country are given near 7:30 o'clock, and many alluring propositions are made to the prospective investor in Colombian real estate. Incidentally, the management of HJ4ABE now states that complete photographs of the station and staff will be sent in answer to every letter received. The frequency used for broadcasting is 5.95 meg.

As winter approaches, reception from HJ1ABE during the last half-hour of its Monday DX broadcast is improving noticeably. A new organization, called the "Rhum-boliers," is responsible for most of the entertainment. Letters from listeners in all parts of the world are acknowledged at 8:15 p. m., and the station always leaves the air with Ted Lewis' famous "Goodnight" song. Since HJ1ABE operates only five kilocycles removed from GSL on 6.11 meg., it is virtually impossible to separate the two until the latter signs off at 8 o'clock.

A short time ago, station VE9GW of Bowmanville, Canada, changed its call to CRCX and commenced carrying all Canadian Radio Commission programs between 3:30 and 8:30 p. m. on 6.09 meg. A careful check has shown, however, that this schedule is not followed very closely, and the 1000 watt transmitter usually closes down at 7 o'clock.

* * *

W3XAL, key short wave station of the eastern NBC red network, is now running daily relay programs on 17.76 meg. between 6 and 10 a. m. During the past few weeks, several experimental broadcasts were released, lasting until as late as 3 p. m., but these will probably not be continued in the future. Incidentally, W3XAL still transmits on 6.10 meg. every Monday, Wednesday and Saturday from 1 to 8 p. m.

Daily broadcasting from OAX4D of Lima, Peru, has now been temporarily discontinued, and the former Wednesday and Saturday schedule is again in effect. The management will await reports on reception of the recent test transmissions, before making any decision regarding the continuance of daily programs in the future. OAX4D operates on 5.78 meg. with bi-weekly broadcasts from 6 to 8:30 p. m. handles most of the work at the microphone during these late broadcasts, and the station may be easily identified by this feature.

The DX Corner

Station COC of Havana, Cuba has been heard testing on 6.01 meg. Sunday and Monday until 7 p. m., using the call COCOCMCY.

An unidentified Spanish-speaking station has appeared on approximately 5.96 meg., but in spite of good volume, the location has not been determined as yet. The newcomer usually broadcasts music until 7 p. m., then switching over to phone for tests with other Latin-American broadcasters.

HC2ET of Guayaquil, Ecuador, is reported to be testing irregularly after 9 p. m. on 4.60 meg. with good volume. A woman announcer

The Reichs-Rundfunk Gesellschaft is now broadcasting a full hour program in the morning for North America. The transmission is experimental only, but will be continued throughout October in addition to the afternoon and evening broadcasts. The new program will be released from DJB on 15.20 meg. daily from 7:30 to 8:30 a. m.
