News and Comment

THE STEADY rush of opera singers to the microphones is to be counteracted in part this winter by the new radio program, "The Metropolitan Opera Auditions of the Air," under the supervision of the Metropolitan Opera Company and sponsored by the Sherwin-Williams Company.

This innovation in radio programs, which will be heard every Sunday from 12:30 to 1:00 p. m., P. S. T., over an NBC coast-to-coast network, represents a tremendous musical gesture on the part of the Metropolitan Opera Company. Mr. Edward Johnson, general manager of the Metropolitan, will appear personally on each program for the thirteen-week series, and the Metropolitan Orchestra under the direction of Wilfred Pelletier will be featured on each program.

The basic idea of this program is to bring to the public over the air for the first time a series of regular opera auditions which have always been withheld from the public. There will be heard on this series at least thirty-six of the most promising and talented singers in America, which the Metropolitan Opera audition committee believe have the best chance to attain that ultimate goal of every singer, a Metropolitan debut or engagement. The judges will be the regular Metropolitan committee on auditions, with Edward Johnson officiating. The committee on auditions, however, will welcome any comments the public may care to send them, expressing opinions regarding the singers.

The music will be the sort that everybody loves, favorite gems from favorite operas. In other words, the "hit tunes" of opera brought down to the level of Mr. Average John Q. Public, sung by finely trained singers who are at the threshold of stardom.

This new Metropolitan Opera Auditions of the Air program is not only breaking tradition in the musical world, but creating a new and just path to the singing roster of the great opera company. It is a sincere effort on the part of the sponsors of this program and the Metropolitan Opera to give the public, through the medium of radio, the opportunity of listening to fame in the making.

Amos 'n' Andy at White House

Amos 'n' Andy in the flesh—and without any lamp black on it either—were guests December 13 of President and Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt at the first formal White House dinner of the social season. On the invitation list as Mr. and Mrs. Freeman F. Gosden and Mr. and Mrs. Charles J. Correll, the two veteran NBC entertainers and their wives were seated with some 75 other nationally known figures including the President's Cabinet and prominent industrialists and bankers.

For once, the radio comedy pair were allowed to remain private, even if far-famed, citizens, and laugh with the other guests at the after dinner entertainment in the East Room.

High "Seas" Floor Melton

James Melton, Beauty-Box Tenor, and his wife, Marjorie Melton, had a close escape from death on Long Island Sound when a rough sea spun his 50 foot cabin cruiser "Melody" around three times and stood it on its end. His captain, George Williams, ducked below in an effort to start the stalled engines and when he finally got them going, the sea was so rough that he had to stay below until Melton, at the wheel, righted the ship and steered it to shore. Instead of keeping the boat out until December 15 Melton decided to put it away at once until the summer.

Horace Heidt's Brigadiers Start New Year with Contract Renewal

Horace Heidt, noted CBS Brigadiers Orchestra leader, will extend his half-hour variety program over the Columbia network into 1936 by a contract renewal effective Thursday, January 2. The program will continue thus to be heard without interruption each Thursday, from 7 to 7:30 p. m., P. S. T.

Started by Heidt as a campus orchestra while he was a student at the University of California, the Brigadiers have developed into one of the most talented and versatile musical aggregations of the airways, numbering in the troupe a band of fifteen pieces, nine vocal soloists, a feminine quartet and a male glee club. Still playing under the Heidt baton are four members of the original orchestra—Art Thorsen, bull fiddle player and comedy singer; Gene Knotts, pianist; Warren Lewis, trumpeter, and Jerry Bowne, trumpeter and novelty singer.

Featured vocalists with the Brigadiers include lovely Lysbeth Hughes, singing harpist; Alyce King, solo member of the King Sisters Quartet, who specializes in blues songs; Art Thorsen and Jerry Bowne, who lead the novelty vocal contingent; Bob McCoy, who came to the Brigadiers from a role in "The Desert Song." Charles Goodman, baritone; Steve Merrill, tenor; Mike Vanderveer, bass, and Jack Warren, whistler. Outstanding among the several instrumental soloists is Alvino Rey, whose electric steel guitar is one of the most distinctive features of the programs.

Around KOMO-KJR

Four years ago, way down in Louisville, Kentucky, Tommy Thomas, KOMO-KJR musical director and producer, was directing a band at the Brown Hotel. The master of ceremonies was a roly-poly gentleman named Romo Vincent, one of the cleverest "m.c.'s" in the country. The two men became fast friends, but in the swirl of the entertainment world, their bookings drew them to different parts of the United States; Vincent to Chicago, and Tommy to Seattle, where he has been since, directing and producing programs over KOMO and KJR, and playing for all important society functions in the city.

Now the two men's paths cross once more, as Vincent arrives in Seattle after eighteen weeks at the Biltmore Bowl in Los Angeles, to be master of ceremonies at Club Victor in Seattle. Largely due to his friendship for Tommy and his wife, Dorothy, Romo Vincent, 260 pounds of riotous fun, consented to take part in the Radio Follies of 1935, charity show staged at the Orpheum Theatre in Seattle, proving one of the biggest hits of the entire evening's entertainment.

Library of Congress Doubles Chamber Music Series on NBC

In recognition of what the NBC Music Guild has accomplished in fostering chamber music throughout the country and in keeping with the increased appreciation of this type of music on the part of radio listeners, the Library of Congress offers NBC network audiences eight programs under the auspices of the Elizabeth Sprague Coolidge Foundation this year instead of four as in previous seasons. On consecutive Tuesdays the Library of Congress Chamber Musicales will be presented by the Roth String Quartet; the Kolisch String Quartet; the Roth String Quartet plus a soloist; Guy Maier and Lee Pattison in a program of music for two pianos; the Barrere Woodwind Octet; the Casella - Poltronieri - Bonucci Trio, and a Chamber-orchestral program.

Each program is arranged and selected by Oliver Strunk, Chief of the Music Division of the Library of Congress in Washington, D. C. They are financed, like the Library of Congress Chamber Music Festivals and the Library of Congress composers' competitions, by the Elizabeth Sprague Coolidge Foundation, created under a half million dollar endowment offered by Mrs. Coolidge in 1925 and accepted by Act of Congress the same year.

Binford Returns to Corn Cob Pipe Club

Pat Binford, veteran master of ceremonies of the Corn Cob Pipe Club, who has been absent from the air for a month because of a knee injury, returned to the program December 21.

Although confined to his bed at home with an injured knee when the Corn Cob Pipe Club program returned to NBC networks last month, Binford insisted on taking part in the broadcast by means of a bedside microphone. After two weeks his physician declared the strain too great and put a stop to the remote control broadcasts.

MICRO-SKETCHES

By RICHARD HOLMAN

ENJOYING a Jack Benny broadcast: Amazing how Johnny Green whips an orchestra into shape. He simply lives his melody and the musicians are inspired . . . Kenny Baker chewing gum before program begins. His voice is tested for the control man and clear tones emanate from his throat. He must be an artist in side-tracking his "chews" . . . Six feet tall and two hundred odd pounds distributed upon this height is Don Wilson, the announcer. He talks with the audience—is jovial and infectious . . . Jack and Mary arrive. Vociferous applause greet them. The audience is beginning to warm up. What long finger nails Mary has! Sensitive hands. Jack disappears to doff his top coat . . . Baker's jaws still in desperate struggle with gum . . . The rhythm Green is enticing from the orchestra, is very tempting to the feet . . . Jack smoothly chats with the audience. Women giggle—men howl. . . members of the cast are introduced. . . Benny produces "specs" . . . a choice remark and more laughter. He is actually going to wear them! . . . Softly he says "Doll" and Mary listens. They discuss her lines. . . Baker's jaws slowed to one chew per second, looks for a place to park IT. His eyes wander in the direction of the piano. He meditates then one hand feels about under a music stand. Kenny has overlooked the chairs, but then he probably believes that this is an old-fashioned method of "staching it" . . . Jack offers "Love in Bloom" via the fiddle, while the orchestra plays another selection. The audience shrieks . . . The deadline and a hush has fallen over the theatre . . . The program begins . . . It's over—BUT the audience is reluctant to leave. Many fannettes push their way to the stage to capture pages from the comedian's script which were thrown to the floor during the presentation . . . Benny leaves the building followed by the cast . . . Baker's jaws are quiet. Somewhere sticking to an inanimate object is the gum. The young singer stands for a moment trying to recall where. Then he sadly leaves the stage. We hurry home with much praise for Jack Benny, who never disappoints.

* * *

THE MAIL BAG: Al Jolson returns to Shell Chateau in January . . . Lee Roberts is the composer of "Smiles" . . . Andy Potter, production manager of KGGC, has become a stamp collector. He is also a garden addict . . . George Tolin, capable announcer, challenges Jay Sims of NBC to a sharp shooting match. Tolin claims to have at least one more medal than Sims. Other announcers anxious to become "big shots" should be interested in this contest . . . Louise Taber whose Gold Rush Days programs are heard on KYA, received tremendous mail inquiries from California old-timers . . . On Rod Mays' amateur hour a young girl singer appeared. She lives on Alcatraz Island and is the daughter of a guard. She sang "Tiny Little Finger Prints!" . . . A LETTER TO YOU—Happy New Year!

New Year's Eve from Coast to Coast

THE familiar lament that New Year's Eve can be celebrated only once a year won't be heard so much this year, because NBC will give radio listeners four separate occasions for celebration this New Year's Eve, in a nation-wide radio party over the combined NBC networks, starting at 9:00 p. m., P.S.T.

Dance music played by leading orchestras in all sections of the country will be heard in the four-hour celebrations. The entire country will join New York at midnight, (9:00 p. m., Pacific Standard Time) to start the party. At 9:45 p. m., P.S.T., the scene will shift to Chicago, for the arrival of the New Year in the Midwest; at 10:45, P.S.T., to Denver, for Rocky Mountain dance music and festivities, including the chilly celebration of the AdAmAn Club atop Pikes Peak, and at 11:45, to San Francisco and Los Angeles, for the fourth "arrival" of the night. The music will continue from the coast until 1:00 a. m., P.S.T.

When Dickson Played "Snow White"

SAMUEL DICKSON, NBC playwright in San Francisco, has come into contact with actors' temperament many times during his long association with the stage and microphone, but he had his most harrowing experience recently on the For Girls and Boys Only program he produces Fridays, over NBC . . . This is a broadcast in which children from San Francisco playgrounds present plays, interviews and other radio fare . . . and on a recent Friday, the Story of Snow White was presented.

The six year old youngster playing the spokesman for the good dwarfs read his lines perfectly at rehearsal, and went through half the play without a mistake. Then he suddenly decided he didn't like being a radio actor.

Little Snow White asked, "But do you really want me to stay with you, Hans?" And "Hans" stuck his finger in his mouth, hung his head and wouldn't say a word. Dickson tugged at his shoulder, whispered frantically, but no use.

Finally Dickson grabbed the script himself, and Hans boomed out "Of course we do, dear Snow White—we love you!"—Dickson hasn't lived it down yet.

When "Pink" Got Lost

Richard Svihus, radio's youngest actor, who plays Pinky in One Man's Family, is so small that it has been jovially suggested several times that Carlton E. Morse, the playwright-producer, might mislay him some time . . . But real panic gripped the serial cast the other night, when, right in the midst of a broadcast it appeared that Pinky HAD disappeared.

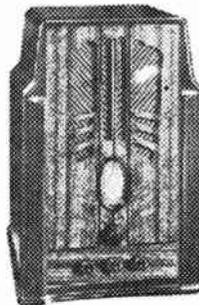

While Bernice Berwin and Minetta Ellen ad-libbed, big Bill Andrews swooped out of the studio, found the young man playing placidly in a corridor, scooped him up under his arm and set him noiselessly but firmly on the chair from which he pipes into the microphone. Pinky picked up his line without a visible sign of excitement, and the broadcast continued just as if nothing had happened.

*Palmolive Beauty Box Theatre and New Phillips Lord Show Go CBS
in January*

TWO major features in radio entertainment will be inaugurated over the Columbia Broadcasting System as the curtain rises on 1936.

They are the operettas of the "Palmolive Beauty Box Theatre" and weekly dramatizations of the achievements of the nation's peace officers by Phillips Lord.

Both presentations are new to the Columbia network and are sponsored by the Colgate Palmolive-Peet Company. Each of these new shows will have its debut in January.

The new shows will bring to the Columbia Broadcasting System's audience personalities which have reigned as long-established favorites with listeners throughout the country.

The first to have its premiere performance will be the Beauty Box Theatre which will open over a nationwide Columbia network Saturday, January 11, between 8:00 and 9:00 p. m., P.S.T. Light operas, with guest stars from the Metropolitan Opera Association, the Hollywood musical films and other renowned musical fields, will be presented in the Beauty Box series each Saturday at the same time. The exact talent will be announced later.

The new Phillips Lord production, which will aim for a constructive dramatization of the work of law enforcement officers in solving major crime, will be a weekly half hour feature also on a nationwide Columbia chain. It will be presented each Wednesday between 7:00 and 7:30 p. m., P.S.T., with the exact starting date in January to be announced soon.

Lord will write and produce and act the shows with cooperative research advice from enforcement officials. The author is nationally renowned both as the creator of the lovable "Seth Parker" and, more recently, as the author of a series of G-men dramas.

Initial work of casting, writing and producing is under way on both shows, full details of which will be announced in the near future.

Bob Burns, Arkansas Humorist, Signs Long Contract

BOB BURNS is a full fledged radio star now. The Arkansas Traveler, who used to entertain with his homespun humor on guest spots, has just signed a 26-week contract which establishes him as a regular performer on Bing Crosby's Music Hall series, beginning Thursday, January 2, 1936. (On this date the Music Hall will move to Hollywood where Bing, as master-of-ceremonies, will feature Burns, Jimmy Dorsey's orchestra and famous personages from the film colony on the programs over an NBC nation-wide network each Thursday at 7:00 p. m., P.S.T.)

In celebration of his long term contract the bazoooka-tooting comedian has purchased a new pair of bright yaller shoes. Whenever something mighty big happens in Bob's life he "jest buys a new pair o' yaller brogues."

Twice before he got shoes; when he won the A.E.F. rifle championship in France during the war, and when he was married. Bob figures the chance to appear on a regular broadcast series with Bing Crosby is the third big event of his life, so the third pair of shoes.

SHORT WAVE QUESTION AND ANSWER BOX

C. R. J., Bellingham, Washington. The best time for German reception is now in the morning from 6:30 to 7:15 a. m. Stations DJA on 9.56 meg., DJN on 9.54 meg., DJB on 15.20 meg., and DJE on 17.76 meg. are all on the air at that time, and the first three are usually received with good volume.

L. H. K., San Francisco, Calif. From the description you give, your trouble is evidently due to the fact that you are not using a second transformer between the cable lead-in and the binding posts on your receiver. 1935 models of your particular set do not have this transformer built into the chassis.

J. R. C., Sacramento, Calif. There are no regular short wave broadcasting stations in Hawaii at the present time. However, KKH on 7.51 meg. relays a program from the Beach at Wakiki on Monday night from 9:30 to 10 o'clock, and KIO on 11.72 meg. is often on the air near 4 p. m. with various test transmissions.

TOM BRENEMAN
Master of Ceremonies on Feminine Fancies, KFRC-KHJ and net, 3:00 p.m.

"The highest heels in radio" are claimed for diminutive Loretta Poynton of the cast of "Flying Time," NBC's popular airplane serial, in which she takes the ingenue role of Ruth Morrow. Her taller associates jokingly suggest that the petite actress use a box to stand on, but Loretta dons a pair of pumps with exceptionally high heels before each broadcast—"the tallest in the business," according to Harold Peary who is the Tony of the cast.

Durelle Alexander, 17 year old songstress heard with Paul Whiteman's orchestra, was born with a sense of stage presence. At the age of seven, while appearing in the "Hollywood Junior Follies," the hoop skirt of her costume fell to the floor. Durelle daintily stepped out of the skirt, and finished the dance in her ruffled and voluminous undies!

Robert L. (Believe It or Not) Ripley says goodnight the way they do in some foreign country every week, but there isn't much chance that he'll run out of material. To date he has visited 181 countries. Material he has gathered would fill plenty of radio programs.

Harold Levey, conductor of "The Cavalcade of America" orchestra, is at work on an American Suite to be made up of music he has composed for atmospheric background for this dramatic program.
 When finished, it will be titled
 the "Cavalcade of America Suite." All music for this series, with the exception of the overture, is composed weekly to conform to material covered in the script.

* * *

Mark Warnow reports that he has composed 8,563 bars of music to date especially for the weekly Helen Hayes broadcasts over NBC. Only original melodies are employed as background and atmosphere during the "New Penny" programs.

* * *

Lauritz Melchior, noted operatic tenor, arrived in New York recently after a month's hunting trip, carrying several burlap bags filled with the meat of a 600 pound bear he shot by moonlight in the Canadian woods. He also brought the heads of two large bucks, a brace of partridge and woodcock. The Wagnerian singer has often hunted on his estate at Chos-sewitz in Denmark and knows a special recipe for serving bear meat with a port wine sauce which takes four days to prepare.

Despite all talk about "mike fright," no performer has ever fainted in approximately 12,000 auditions conducted in the CBS New York studios. But the "mortality rate" of aspirants is getting higher and higher. Current estimate is that only one out of 500 crash through from the audition rooms to permanent fame on the air. Most common reason: unpreparedness and inexperience, according to Miss Lucille Singleton, who has given preliminary microphone tests to 7,500 Columbia applicants.

Radio listeners found it hard to believe that a real infant hadn't been added to the First Nighter cast on a recent broadcast. But "Snoodles" was no infant. She was an attractive young woman named Betty Roesler. Miss Roesler, by common consent has proved herself one of the most expert baby criers in radio.

Al Jolson and Bing Crosby, who are returning to the airwaves this season after a short absence, will be among the radio folk at the Rose Bowl football game in Pasadena, California. Three days after the game Al comes back to Shell Chateau. The day after Bing starts the new Kraft programs which will originate entirely on the West Coast with screen celebrities as guest stars.

"Once upon a time," Bob Burns reminds us, "someone wrote a song and called it 'The Birth of the Blues.' And ever since a lot of alleged singers are trying to write its obituary notice in a manner screamingly called 'individual arrangements.'" Burns' bawzooka playing and drawly humor is now being heard on a series with Bing Crosby.

* * *

Singin' Sam is renovating his Richmond, Indiana, country home so thoroughly that he and his wife have been living for a week in their kitchen, the only room left intact.

* * *

Rico Marcelli, who directs the orchestra on the "Fibber McGee and Molly" series, wields that baton with such artistry partly because of his ability as a fencer. Marcelli has several medals won in foil and saber competition.

* * *

No illusions about the woman's place in life does beautiful Countess Olga Albani hold. The star of "Life Is A Song" holds her husband's career far more important than her own, willingly makes sacrifices to it and happily points out that her own career is limited—that her husband's is not. In disagreement with her opinion are Hollywood studios, which for six months have been trying to persuade her to come to the coast for cinema activity.

Portland Hoffa's famous "papa," who dropped out of the "Town Hall Tonight" scripts not so long ago, is back stronger than ever. "Papa" is a real person, Dr. Frederick Hoffa, father of Portland and three other lovely daughters, and when he was ill recently, Fred didn't kid him. But he's well again now, and Wednesday nights on NBC find the air bristling with choice cracks by his famous son-in-law.

John Hughes, KFRC announcer, will soon have enough material for a book of his own poetry if "Reflective Moods," heard each Thursday over the Columbia-Don Lee network, continues on the schedules. Hughes writes all of the poetry which he reads during the period. Elbert Lachelle, at the organ, contributes a bit of music to the bill.

England is hailing Eleanor Powell, star of the CBS "Flying Red Horse Tavern," as the "Jessie Matthews of America" since her motion picture, "Broadway Melody of 1936," had a midnight premiere in London. . . . The King and Queen and Prince of Wales were there.

SHORT wave broadcasts from Iceland are now available to Pacific Coast listeners every Sunday morning from 10:40 to 11 a. m. Station TFJ, the 8500 watt transmitter on 12.24 meg., carries a special English-announced program at that time, and is received in this region with surprising volume. The management announces that an extension in the broadcast schedule is being planned for the near future, but the 20-minute Sunday transmission is the only one which reaches the Pacific States at present.

* * *

Broadcasts from the Philippine Clipper have been intercepted regularly during the huge plane's recent flight to Manila and return. Although direct reception of the craft's 100 watt transmitter was possible only during the Honolulu to San Francisco lap of the journey, station KIO of Kahuku, Hawaii, on 11.68 meg. and KAY of Manila, P.I., on 14.98 meg. stood by almost continuously to relay the voice of Bert Miller from the Clipper whenever possible. The tiny transmitter on board the plane used frequencies of 7.495 and 8.655 meg., under the call of WOEH, and the same wavelengths will probably be employed on future trips across the Pacific.

* * *

Station PRF5 of Rio de Janeiro, Brazil, seems to have improved considerably in signal strength during the past week, and may now be heard with its Government-sponsored program on 9.50 meg. every afternoon from 2 to 2:45 p. m.

Attention is called to the fact that GSB of Daventry, England, is on 9.51 meg. at the same time, and may easily be confused with the Brazilian transmitter.

* * *

A communication from Buenos Aires indicates that two new short wave broadcast stations will commence operations in that city as soon as possible after January 1. The transmitters are to work with a power of 7500 watts on 9.58 meg. and 15.29 meg. Call letters will be LRX and LRU, respectively, and the stations will relay the regular programs of LR1, the strongest broadcasting station in the Southern Hemisphere at the present time.

* * *

London's number six transmission continues to reach the western portion of the United States with fairly good volume from 7 to 8 p. m. in spite of many predictions to the contrary. Special holiday broadcasts have upset the schedule considerably for this week, and on Monday, Tuesday and Thursday, the regular news bulletin will be released at 8 p. m., instead of 7:45.

Remember to listen for GSC on 9.58 meg. Tuesday and Friday, as special surprise programs have been arranged for 7 p. m. on those days.

* * *

ZCK of Hongkong, China, continues to operate on 8.75 meg. daily, but is now believed to be transmitting simultaneously on 5.41 meg. during the early morning hours. Reception on both frequencies has been reported during the last few days. Monday and Thursday broadcasts on the 8.75 meg. wave commence at 1 a. m., and are picked up in all parts of the Pacific States with good volume. Signoff is usually effected on Monday and Thursday at 4 a. m.; on Tuesday, Wednesday and Friday at 7 a. m., and on Saturday at 8 a. m.

THE DX CORNER

The South Sea Islands are now in possession of another new short wave broadcasting station, according to the New Zealand DX Radio Club. No call letters have been given over the air, but the transmitter broadcasts regular programs on 7.10 meg. every Tuesday and Friday evenings from 8:30 to 9:30 o'clock, announcing as "Radio Oceanic." Here is a good catch for some of our own Pacific Coast DX hounds.

* * *

Station HJ4ABD of Medellin, Colombia, has once more shifted its frequency in an attempt to avoid interference and reach a cleared channel. It is now transmitting on 5.76 meg. until 8 or 8:30 p. m., daily, the exact sign-off time being determined by the nature of the program being broadcast at the time.

* * *

HBL of Geneva, Switzerland, is now broadcasting a program to Australia every Sunday evening from 11 p. m. to midnight. The transmission is effected on 9.59 meg., and reaches this country via Asia and the Pacific Ocean. Good reception is available at times, but volume seems to fluctuate quite violently from week to week.

SHORT WAVE FEATURELOG

Watch this department for day by day American and Foreign features on the short waves. New stations will be added from week to week. Please co-operate by reporting reception to ALL-WAVE EDITOR, BROADCAST WEEKLY, 1114 Mission Street, San Francisco.

(Frequencies in megacycles. Listings, Pacific Standard Time)
