Number 24

We have just received a letter from a representative of a large radio advertiser, who states that he was interested in the editorial contained in our March 8th issue. This editorial projected our opinion that the majority of radio programs were determined in their appeal by the letters written to the broadcasting station and the advertiser, and that since only a minority of the radio audience wrote letters expressing their opinion of the program, and that minority preferred a particular type of program, this type of program was the one most usually selected for presentation, under the impression that it had been selected by a "representative part of the people listening in to the programs." The letter then goes on to state that how an opinion can be obtained from the non-writing type of listeners would certainly be of great interest to us. Your reply will be kept strictly confidential."

The writer of this letter evidently expected us to include in our reply some dark, secret formula for extracting from unwilling letter-writers an opinion of a broadcast program; some such formula, for example, as an alchemist of old would present to one who wished to know how to extract gold from one of the baser metals. But we are no practical alchemist, and we have no formulas guaranteed to transmute the silence of a part of the radio audience into enthusiastic expressions of opinion. We can, however, offer our opinion of the course which advertisers would do well to follow in this matter, and, provided that our correspondent was not being merely cynical, this should be of some encouragement.

When an artist hangs one of his paintings up in a public gallery he quite naturally expects that a certain percentage of those who view it will express their opinion of his work to him or to the gallery attendant. But we have yet to hear of an artist who tabulated these expressions as "for" and "against," and regulated his future work along these lines by the preponderance of one class of opinion over the others. The wise painter realizes that of the many people who saw his painting only a few were willing to voice their opinion, and the opinion of those few was by no means representative. Inasmuch as it was impossible to elicit an expression from all who saw his picture the artist would, in future paintings, follow the dictates of his own tastes, secure in the knowledge that if the work pleased him it would also be pleasing to thousands of people whose tastes in art were as elevated as his own.

If De Vinci, Michelangelo, Rembrandt, and, to delve into another field, Wagner, Beethoven and Liszt had abided by the opinions of the people who were quick to voice their dislike for anything even slightly unconventional, what would have become of the works of art which have been such a joy and inspiration to the people who lived at the time they were produced as well as those of the future? And do the sponsors of our broadcast programs of today really believe that when they have produced and put on the air a program which shall rank as a classic they will be made aware of this fact by the letters which they receive?

Our advice to advertisers, which is, after all, only our own opinion, and carries no weight other than that of the argument above, can be deduced from what has preceded. We suggest that the commercial sponsors of broadcast programs disregard entirely the letters which come pouring in after each broadcast; disregard them, that is, as an indication of the quality of the program. As a means of creating an enthusiasm in the minds of a certain percentage of the radio audience for the product advertised, letters, and contests, and other such forms of ballyhoo probably have their uses. There are undoubtedly thousands of listeners who have become well acquainted with the trade name of a certain product thru repeatedly writing to the advertiser requesting a sample, and stating that "I enjoy your program very much." However, we doubt the value of such testimonials, or even those which have been sent unsolicited, as an indication of public opinion.

Finally, we suggest to our correspondent, and to commercial sponsors in general, that they cease searching for nonexistent straws in the wind. If they, the advertisers, are satisfied that their program is produced by competent people, that the artists are in every respect satisfying, and that the whole is presented to the listeners in a satisfactory manner, why not allow the program to stand on its own merits? There is no royal road to a knowledge of the quality of a broadcast program, and one of the least reliable of the paths to this knowledge is that of letters from listeners.

GORDON QUARTET TO PLAY IN SWIFT "GARDEN HOUR"

A quartet of the youngest musicians ever to reach the heights in ensemble playing in America will be guest artists in the Swift "Garden Hour" program which will be broadcast Sunday from 2:30 to 3 P. M. over NBC and KYW. The program, sponsored by the Vigoro plant food division of Swift and Company, is the sixth of a series of 13 Sunday broadcasts over the same network.

The quartet, Jacques Gordon, its leader, Josef Vieland, Edwin Eidler and Nahoun Benditsky, have played before the most critical audiences in the country, according to its sponsors. They have given 12 concerts under the auspices of the Library of Congress and appeared in recitals at Yale University, the Boston Public Library and the festival at the Congressional Library in Washington, D. C.

Jacques Gordon received his early musical training in Odessa, Russia, his birthplace, and came to the United States at the age of 13. His musical career was a series of many successes until in 1921 he was made concert master of the Chicago Symphony Concert, the youngest musician ever to be appointed to this post with a major symphony orchestra. He recently resigned from this post, in order to devote all his time with his quartet.

 Drink to Me Only with Thine Eyes
 Serenade by Lalo
 Molly on the Shore
 Notturmo by Borodin
 Turkey in the Straw

"LIEBESTRAUM" BY CRAWFORD

Jesse Crawford, Royal Poet of the Organ, has prepared a special arrangement of Frank Liszt's "Liebestraum" for his program during the Royal Typewriter Hour on WBBM and the Columbia Broadcasting System, Sunday from 9 to 9:30 P. M.

The remainder of the program will include songs by Paul Small, tenor, and medleys of popular request hits played on the organ by Crawford. Louis A. Witten will be in charge of production and will announce the broadcast.

Liszt wrote three short tone poems for piano which he called "Liebestraum." The first two he gives a subtitle of Nocturne, but they are in reality "Songs Without Words," as they are in truth simple songs of several stanzas which the piano decorates by cadenza and accompaniment.

The most famous of the three is this Liebestraum in A flat, published in 1850 as a piano solo. Liszt originally used this melody as a song, which was set to the poem by Ferdinand Freiligrath (1810-1876), a German Revolutionary poet, who in his youth wrote many charming lyrics reflective of Romanticism. His poem "O Love" made a very deep impression on Liszt, who first used it as a song, then as this transcription.

Ben Bernie, the "Old Maestro," and his orchestra are heard over KYW nowadays as well as the CBS chain and WBBM. Bernie's KYW program is the Phoenix bill broadcast every Tuesday night at 7:45 o'clock. He does his own announcing in the fashion that has made him such a popular broadcaster.

CLASSICS FOR JAPAN

Young America may like its jazz, but youthful Japan wants the classics, to judge from recent NBC audience mail. During the 1930 international Yuletide broadcast, a modicum of syncopation was ether-waved across the Pacific to cherry blossom land. "But", writes one Jap listener, "why not Beethoven instead of 'Mamie Blues'?"

PHIL SPITALNY

The versatile orchestra leader pictured above ranks as one of the most popular conductors in the country, winning triumph after triumph wherever he appears both as a purveyor of dance tunes and the more soothing music. Before coming to Chicago for an engagement at the Edgewater Beach Hotel Spitalny ranked as one of the "Big Four" among eastern conductors of dance bands. Since arriving here he has taken the middle west by storm, not only because of the infectious gaiety and rhythm of his dance music but because of his unusual versatility, which permits him to interpret the greatest of classical selections with the same ease with which he directs his orchestra thru the mazes of modern dance tunes.

Phil is the younger brother of Chicago's own H. Leopold. He believes that radio listeners are sentimental—dancers are not. "The average person sitting at home beside the fire and listening to the radio," Spitalny declares, "like a much quieter type of music than those who have 'gone out' somewhere for a good time." And since Phil is at his best when conducting his orchestra thru the "quieter type of music," his popularity is with those who nightly tune to KYW, or to the NBC network, to hear him.

UP FROM THE GUTTER

Sax Rohmer, the noted author, who was recently heard over an NBC network as guest speaker on the Collier's Radio Hour, started his career by writing comic songs. His real name is Arthur Ward.

PHILHARMONIC CONCERT

One of Dvorak's lesser-known works, "Othello" overture, will open the concert by the New York Philharmonic Orchestra, under the direction of Arturo Toscanini, at 2:15 P. M. Sunday, to be broadcast from the Brooklyn Academy of Music over WMAQ and the nationwide Columbia network.

The overture was originally written as part of a trilogy, in which the three movements, "In der Natur," "Carneval" and "Othello" represented pictures of childhood, youth and manhood. But the composer was persuaded to issue the works separately, although at one of the Richter concerts in 1897, the three were played in succession according to the original plan. The first and third have been overshadowed in popularity by the "Carneval," but "Othello" contains, in contrast with the joyous amours of youth, a musical characterization of the deeper passions and tragedies of the soul.

Generally regarded as the greatest living symphonic composer, Jean Sibelius, the Finnish patriot and nationalist, is represented in the program by his Fourth Symphony in A minor. This is one of eight orchestral works in this form, and reflects the consistent attitude of Sibelius, mingling a profound love of nature with a grave and almost melancholic meditation.

During the intermission which follows the symphony the music will be described by Olin Downes, the distinguished critic, and the concert will conclude with Richard Strauss' "Don Quixote," which he described as "fantastic variations on a theme of knightly character." The program: Overture, "Othello" ..... Dvorak Symphony in A minor,

CHRIST AS PROPHET

"Christ enters Jerusalem: Prophet," will be the title of the sermon to be broadcast by the Rev. Donald Grey Barnhouse from the Tenth Presbyterian Church of Philadelphia on Sunday, from 4 to 4:30 P. M., over the WMAQ-Columbia network.

Although everyone admits that Jesus Christ had a great message to deliver, Mr. Barnhouse states, there is a great difference of opinion as to what the message and its significance were. He will take the Bible teaching on this much discussed subject as the basis of his sermon.

East meets West, musically, at the Sunday meeting of the Be Square Motor Club, over the Columbia network and WBBM 9:30 to 10 P. M.

The Oriental fantasy, "In a Chinese Temple Garden," played by the Bransdall Symphony orchestra, brings the meeting to order. After another touch of the Orient, "Where My Caravan Has Rested," Conductor Rudolph Seidl re-dresses the stage in western attire, with "Sweethearts of the Prairie" and selections from "No, No, Nannette."

Lee Sims, pianist, and Ilo May Bailey, soprano, will be the featured performers on the Yeast Foamers' program to be broadcast from NBC's Chicago Studios and KYW Sunday at 1:30 P. M.

NBC NEWS

What does the radio announcer do with his spare time? Of course it all depends on his hobby. In the case of Ted Pearson, Popular NBC announcer and head of the production department, he spends his time in his apartment, playing over his collection of phonograph records.

Pearson is a great lover of modern music and has a valuable collection of American and European recordings some of which are very rare.

When the first episode of Andy's trial for breach of promise with Madame Queen went on the air it marked the 913th episode of the Amos n' Andy broadcasts—including those made before joining NBC. The episodes average from 100 to 1800 words, and not an episode has been missed because of illness or accident.

COLUMBIA STUDIO GLIMPSES

Donald Hughes, 12-year-old actor in La Palina's "Daddy and Rollo" sketches, finds a kindred spirit in Chester (Production Department) Frost's young son who is waiting for his dad to take him home . . . "Your announcer—the Shadow!" says a deep, sinister voice . . . It's only Harry von Zell counterfeiting the tones of Detective Story's announcer

. . . A crowd gathers in one corner to watch a staff musician perform on a "Theremin" . . . Attendants begin to string plush-covered cords and portable stands to aid in handling the crowd of visitors which will soon arrive for "True Story" . . . Henry Burbig stops at the reception desk for his fan mail . . . The hostess hands him several pounds of it . . . Lowell Thomas and H. V. Kaltenborn, fellow news commentators, compare notes.

CORRECTION

The Local Loan program from WBBM, featuring a fourteen piece dance orchestra and a tenor soloist, has been changed from Thursday, 9:15 to 9:30 P. M., to that same period each Monday evening.

RADIO DEBATE—IN THREE PARTS

A debate between students of Harvard and the University of Chicago on the merits of the Anderson Plan, as incorporated in the Wickersham Report, was broadcast over WBBM and the Columbia network last Saturday.

EMPIRE BUILDERS

Montana's famous cowboy artist, Charles M. Russell, is the principal character in the story which the Old Timer relates on Empire Builders Monday night at 9:30 over KYW.

Through Russell's paintings the life of the old west will live forever, but it is the old, lovable Charlie himself, close friend of Will Rogers, that the Old Timer tells about. Probably three-fourths of the homes in the United States today have one or more reproductions of Charlie Russell's western pictures, and those who admire him only as a painter will love him as a man when they "listen in" on the confab between him and the Old Timer, a few years back, out in Mr. Russell's studio cabin, at Lake McDonald, in Glacier National Park.

A musical background has been arranged by Josef Koestner, director of the Great Northern orchestra, featuring Mark Williams, singing cowboy, who will be introduced to the national networks for the first time on the Great Northern program. The story is by Edward Hale Bierstadt.

WGN THEME SONGS

WGN has sent us a list of the theme songs used in their programs, which we pass on to the reader: Clara, Lu and Em—"Somewhere in the World," by Hare. Whispering Pines—Handel's "Largo." Olson Rug Program—Victor Herbert's "Oriental Dance." Painted Dreams—"I'm Yours." Around The Table of Melodies—"The Old Refrain" by Kreisler. Thompson's Menu—"Cross Your Heart" by L. Gensler. Atlas Program—"Caprice Vennois" by Kreisler. National Tea Program—"Tea For Two" by Youmans. Tune Tangles—"Memories." Uncle Quin Reads the Comics—Victor Herbert's "Babes in Toyland."

WBBM VARIETY

"A little nonsense now and then—" And on that theory WBBM is now throwing all of the comedy at its command in the first portion of the Variety Hour, 3 to 3:30 P. M. each Sunday. Eddie Kooden, trumpeter, whose clowning as a member of the staff orchestra finally brought him before the microphone, is the featured entertainer in this first half of a varied bill. Dialect comedy is Eddie's specialty.

Charley Agnew's band, playing from the Merry Gardens, provides a fifteen minute interlude, 3:30 to 3:45 P. M., and then J. Wilson Doty, new WBBM staff organist, rounds out the hour.

FOR CHILDREN

"Blue Valley Ben"—in private life Bobby Brown—is introducing a new children's program over WBBM, 5 to 5:15 P. M. daily, except Sunday.

As one of the novel features of the broadcast, the calls of the birds soon to fill the woodlands are reproduced before the microphone. The juvenile listeners test their out-of-doors lore by attempting to identify the various calls. The program is sponsored by the Blue Valley Creamery Company.

ADVANCE SPORT NOTICE

The sport pages of the newspapers are relating enthusiastic tales of the possibilities of the local baseball teams, and in California, Texas and Florida the railbirds watching the training exercises of major league teams have heard the welcome sound of bat crashing against horsehide in the first sweet symphonies of spring. It therefore behooves us to regale the sport fan with a recital of the broadcasts which he may anticipate for the coming season.

Graham McNamee for NBC, Ted Husing for CBS, and Pat Flanagan, Bob Elson, Hal Totten, and other local sport announcers are polishing their microphones, attuning their tonsils, and otherwise preparing for what they expect to be a strenuous outdoor season. Our Cubs, under the competent direction of Roger Hornsby, are all set to run off with the National League pennant, and the White Sox are highly confident that they will finish better than they did last year, so we may expect great things from the baseball broadcasts this summer.

One significant fight already looms on the fist horizon in the Stribling-Schmeling battle for the world's heavyweight laurels, with other battles in the making. Whatever the site of this for the rings most coveted crown the listener may be sure that a microphone will be stationed close enough to the gladiators to pick up the thump of the gloves as the blows land.

Altho Bobby Jones will not be a competitor this year, the national golf meets both here and in England will arouse the usual amount of interest among listeners. And then there will be the Kentucky Derby, which is THE event of the year in the "sport of kings;" the intercollegiate track and field meets, which are being watched even more closely than usual this year. For at one of these events some unknown performer may display an ability that will greatly enhance the chances of the United States in the Olympic games to be held in Los Angeles next year.

Enthusiastic sport fans who are unable to attend the big outdoor spectacles this year will find that all the important sporting events can be seen thru the eyes of experienced radio reporters.

FOR A CLEANER CITY

The station has donated its facilities for four broadcasts, April 1, 8, 15 and 22 at 2:25 P. M. Speakers will urge Chicago to make a thorough job of the spring renovation. All of the children in the public schools are enrolled in the movement.

R B ARISTOCRATS

Dan Baker, Chicago's favorite radio tenor, inaugurates a new two-a-week series when he appears with the R. B. Aristocrats Tuesday, 9:15 to 9:30 P. M.

Programs will be given at that same hour each Tuesday and Friday thereafter. Song hits from the current Broadway and Chicago shows, and hits from the light and comic operas of other days, will be featured by the tenor and piano duo.

HINTS FOR NBC APPLICANTS

An invisible jury sits in judgment on the qualifications of those who aspire for places on the entertainers' staff of the new mid-west "radio center" of the National Broadcasting Company at Chicago.

Applicants for these positions are first classified by Miss Elena De-Marco, assistant to A. W. Kaney, program director. From their training and experience she gathers some idea of whether they are even ready for an audition. In the event they are, the time is set. When the applicants assemble they are taken into one of the studios, while Miss De-Marco goes into the studio control room where she can hear them through a reproducer. Special notices, giving the time of auditions, are sent to all the department heads. In the office of each is a large RCA reproducer, and each department head dials in the particular studio where the audition is to be held. Thus, these ten or twelve men are enabled to judge the qualifications of the applicant without ever leaving their own offices. The entertainers, themselves, are unaware of this jury, and insofar as they can tell, there is no one listening except the persons in the control room.

These "secret hearings" are better from a psychological viewpoint, it has been found. As a rule, entertainers appearing for an audition are somewhat nervous. Were they to be taken into a studio where there were ten or twelve people sitting around, it would only magnify their nervous state. As it is, they are able to present their numbers uninfluenced by the thought that people are watching them.

BERNICE CLAIRE ON WGN

Bernice Claire, stage and screen star, will be the guest artist of Rudy Vallee and his Connecticut Yankees, during the Fleischman Hour to be broadcast over an NBC-WGN network, Thursday from 7 to 8 P. M.

Both Miss Claire and Vallee will broadcast from WBBM, NBC associated station at Buffalo, N. Y. Miss Claire is especially noted for her performance in the screen version of "The Song of the Flame" and "Kiss Me Again," the screen version of Victor Herbert's musical operetta, "Mlle. Modiste."

MRS. HOOVER ON WENR

Mrs. Herbert Hoover will speak over an NBC network and WENR on Monday night, from 6:45 to 7:05 o'clock, under the auspices of the Women's Division of the President's Emergency Committee for Employment.

As she faces the microphone, and just before she goes on the air, the First Lady of the Land will receive from a girl scout, a young girl who will represent all other girl scouts in the country, a report on what the scouts have done as their bit to help the cause of the President's Committee. The girl scout has not yet been selected. After she receives this report Mrs. Hoover will make a reply which will be broadcast. This will mark Mrs. Hoover's fourth appearance on the air since occupying the White House.

Three years ago she spoke to members of the 4-H Clubs, addressing them from the President's Camp at Rapidan, Va. Two years ago she spoke extemporaneously at a meeting of the Daughters of the American Revolution, and a few months ago NBC microphones broadcast her remarks at the launching of the S. S. President Hoover. It is expected Mrs. Hoover will speak from the White House.

"FROLIC" TIME DOUBLED

"Farm Frolic," the hilarious period of songs, orchestral music and general highjinks, is now presented twice weekly over WBBM and the Columbia Farm Community network.

In addition to its regular schedule, each Monday at 12:05 P. M., the Frolic, with new songs and antics, is given an added performance on Friday at that same hour. The program, "Songs That Never Grow Old," former occupant of this Friday period, has been moved to Wednesday, 12:05 P. M.

HARRY CARROLL

Harry Carrol, composer of many popular song hits, will be the guest of the Happy Wonder Bakers in an all-Carroll program to be broadcast over an NBC network and WIBO Tuesday at 8:30 P. M.

Carroll's first big hit was "The Trail of the Lonesome Pine," named after the best seller novel of a score of years ago. Carroll will be heard in several of his own numbers which also include the orchestra directed by Frank Black, the male trio with Will Donaldson at the piano, and Doc Sigmund Spaeth, master of ceremonies.

HIS MASTER'S VOICE

Richard Maxwell, NBC staff tenor, once sent his dog by express to his parents' home in a small Ohio town. Not long afterward the dog—a Chesapeake Bay Retriever—heard his master's voice through a small receiving set. He took one lunge, crashing through the panel of the receiver—and his master's voice stopped. The set was broken.

CHICAGO GIRL MAKES AIR DEBUT

Radio listeners had an opportunity to judge when a young Chicago girl made her radio debut a few weeks ago on the Household Celebrities program over WGN and the NBC.

She is Giovanna Siragusa, a native of Chicago of Italian parentage, and when she faced the microphone, she was within five days of her nineteenth birthday. Singularly enough, Miss Siragusa started out to become a pianist and so proficient was she that in 1928 she won first prize of $1,000 in a piano contest conducted by the Chicago Herald and Examiner. The following year, however, it was discovered by a member of the staff of the National Broadcasting Company that she had a beautiful natural voice, since when she has been devoting all of her time to vocal lessons.

RCA CAST CHANGED

Radiotron Varieties have changed the personnel of their program. Broadcast every Wednesday and Saturday evenings over an NBC-WIBO network from 7:15 to 7:30 P. M., the program now features an orchestra under the direction of Fred Berrens, Welcome Lewis, contralto, and Lew Conrad, crooner. The type of program has not been changed however, it is still a fast moving fifteen minutes of light, scintillating song.

For the past several months the program has been presented by an orchestra directed by William Merrigan Daly, Sam Herman, xylophone soloist; Harold Van Emburgh, tenor; Welcome Lewis, contralto, and Arthur "Bugs" Baer, noted newspaper humorist.

BORAX

The story of an earthquake that led to the discovery of rich borax deposits will be dramatized during the Death Valley Days broadcast over NBC and WENR Tuesday night at 8:30 o'clock.

Back in 1872, F. N. Smith, a poor prospector, made a living for himself and his wife by cutting and delivering wood to mining camps. A sudden earthquake near their shanty revealed the borax and transformed him from a woodcutter to "Borax" Smith, the borax king.

FINAL COLUMBIA CONCERT

With the recital by Abram Chasins, pianist-composer, which is scheduled for 9:30, Wednesday, the first series of concerts sponsored on WMAQ and Columbia by the recently-formed Columbia Concerts Corporation will come to an end. Another series will be arranged next fall.

In his recital concluding the series, Chasins will be accompanied by the augmented Columbia Symphony orchestra directed by Josef Pasternack.

On the recommendation of Ossip Gabrilowitsch, Chasins was accepted as a pupil by Richard Epstein, with whom he remained until that teacher's death. His next instructor was Ernest Hutcheson, under whose guidance he remained for six years and at whose suggestion he entered the competitive examination for Juilliard Foundation fellowships where he won awards both in piano and composition. He studied composition under Rubin Goldmark and, at the age of 20, began writing music.

Chasins' works now have been universally performed. His recent performance playing his own concerto with the Philadelphia Orchestra was conceded by leading critics to be one of his outstanding accomplishments.

"RAILROADERS"

"Railroaders," a dramatized story of the adventures of a station agent's two sons, both ambitious to become railroad men, will be brought to radio listeners during the Hamilton Watchman period on WJJD and the Columbia Broadcasting System, Thursday, at 7:45 P. M.

What occurs when a washout on the main line destroys a portion of the track only eight minutes before the Limited is due, furnishes a thrilling climax.

DUTCH MASTERS

"Peter Zorn" and his Dutch Masters will present another half-hour of old-time popular songs over WBBM and the Columbia network from 7:30 to 8 P. M., Friday.

As was the case with their previous programs, the Dutch Masters' presentation this week will include five groups of musical selections, each group consisting of four different numbers. One selection in each group has been chosen from the period of 1895 to 1901, another from 1902 to 1908, a third from 1909 to 1915 and the fourth from 1916 to 1922.

The songs on this week's program will be grouped as follows:

Goodbye Girls, I'm Through; Hello Central, Give Me No Man's Land; Honey Suckle and the Bee; Love Me and the World Is Mine.

In the Shade of the Old Apple Tree; Mr. Dooley; I Love Her, Oh, Oh, Oh; I'm Just Wild About Harry.

Madelon de la Victorie; I've Got a Pain in My Sawdust; All Aboard for Blanket Bay; Goodbye, My Lady Love.

Hello, My Baby; Waiting at the Church; Mother; Give My Regards to Broadway.

VITALITY PERSONALITIES

Feminine stars of stage and screen will appear as guest artists in a new weekly program, Vitality Personalities, which will have its premiere over WBBM and CBS, Wednesday, March 25, at 9 P. M.

Among entertainers already signed for the series are Belle Baker, Ruth Etting, Grace Hayes, Ginger Rogers, Beth Challis, Lee Morse, Dorothea James, Claudette Colbert, Nan Halperin, Billie Burke, Gertrude Lawrence, Evelyn Hoey, Catherine Fields and Aileen Stanley.

Vitality Personalities is believed to be the only fifteen-minute network broadcast featuring a different celebrity on every program.

The supporting orchestra will be under direction of Freddie Rich, who will lead his thirty musicians in his own arrangements of popular tunes of the day. Ted Husing will serve as master-of-ceremonies for the program.

THE POPE SPEAKS TO AMERICA

Frequent rebroadcasts in the near future from HVJ in the Vatican City were forecast following the successful completion of the initial Papal radio program Thursday (February 12).

No definite arrangement for a regular schedule of programs has been made as yet but experimental work inaugurated three weeks ago will be enlarged upon. In order to determine the fullest possibilities of rebroadcasts from the Vatican much of the testing by engineers under his direction will be conducted on a twenty-four-hour-a-day basis. Particular attention will be focused on atmospheric conditions and signal strength at various hours of the day and night.

Radio officials were particularly impressed with interest displayed by the listening public Thursday in the informal two-way conversations put on the air following the Vatican City station ceremonies.

The United States, England, Brazil, Argentina, Canada, Australia, the Philippines, South Africa and other countries rebroadcast the ceremonies to hundreds of millions of listeners. Seven shortwave stations in this country supplemented the Vatican station and the regular NBC chains by rebroadcasting the program to remote corners of the earth.

England, unable to receive HVJ's signals satisfactorily, depended upon a relay through the General Electric shortwave station at Schenectady for the program and reported highly satisfactory results. All sections of the world reported remarkable reception. The Rev. Father Edmund Walsh, of Georgetown University, radioed he had listened to the broadcast aboard the trans-Atlantic liner Bremen fifteen hundred miles from New York.

Senatore Marconi advised that four hours after the program concluded the Vatican State telegraph station operating at high speed capacity, had received 400 telegrams and cables. Thousands more were expected within the next few days.

NBC officials later declared that the results obtained justified the two years of experimentation, research and chart making in connection with shortwave broadcasting. Two years ago NBC attempted this task, in the hope that every fireside would become a front seat at all world events. With ever increasing frequency, engineers have brought to the ears of radio listeners the voices of foreign notables, the descriptions of interesting events and special messages from abroad.

The Papal broadcast climaxed this long work as the greatest and most successful international broadcast yet attained. Particular tribute to the genius of Senatore Marconi, builder of the Vatican City station, was paid.

NEW CBS OFFERINGS

The ever-changing panorama of radio, with new programs, new artists and new methods of presentation insistently pressing for attention, was never more vividly illustrated than during the first two months of 1931.

A survey of the features heard over the Columbia Broadcasting System reveals that twenty-two sponsored programs and thirteen major sustaining presentations have been inaugurated since January 1.

One outstanding development in this freshening vista has been the entrance of a new group of radio personalities into national favor through the medium of fifteen-minute "recitals." The case best known, perhaps, is that of Morton Downey whose high and unusual tenor voice has found its way into nation-wide popularity almost over-night. His audience mail has grown extravagantly and through dint of his radio activities he contracted for a series of personal appearances at theatres at a weekly salary of $5,500.

Other entertainers who have been heard in the new policy of presentation are Lee Morse, character singer; Art Gillhan, "The Whispering Pianist"; Mary Charles, featured in her own song vignettes; Barbara Maurel, whose contralto voice is heard on a special program, and Ben Alley, tenor, who appears with Ann Leaf, organist, every Saturday night.

Because of the great influx of sponsored programs since the advent of the new year lack of air time has limited other new sustaining features. A number, however, have merited particular attention. The most important is the Columbia Concerts Corporation Program, one of the results of the merger of seven important concert bureaus by the broadcasting system. There have been brought before the microphone on this feature such artists as Florence Easton, Max Rosen, Nelson Eddy, Luella Melius and Ernest Hutcheson.

Through the efforts of Georgia Backus, Columbia's Director of Dramatics, listeners-in have been enabled to attend a series of experimental laboratory plays, presented each Wednesday night. These productions, written expressly for radio, constitute an innovation in radio dramatics, contributing unusual effects in script acts. "Split Seconds" and "Murder in the Studio" are examples of plays already presented.

"Radio Roundup," corraling different guest artists each week, together with a forty-piece orchestra under Freddie Rich, has provided a fast-moving musical program on Thursday nights. Returning after a year off the air Don Clark's "Story in a Song," a dramatic and musical offering, returned to the air-waves in February.

Twenty-two sponsored programs, embracing virtually every type of radio entertainment, and bringing to the studios talent from every branch of show business, have had "opening nights" since the first of the year.

These features, many of which are heard several times weekly, include the Simmons Program, Dutch Masters, Three Bakers, Golden Blossom Honey Orchestra, Eno Crime Club, Sunkist Musical Cocktail, Wallace Silversmiths, Oxol Feature, Daddy and Rollo, Graham-Paige, Bond Bread Program, Sweethearts of the Air, Peter Pan Forecasts, Devils, Drugs and Doctors; Old Gold Character Readings, March of Time, Blue Ribbon Malt Jester, Chiclet Chuckles and Uneda Bakers.

On these programs have appeared such celebrities as Julia Sanderson and Frank Crumit, Edgar Guest with the Detroit Symphony Orchestra under Victor Kolar, Lillian Taiz, Mary Pickford, Bebe Daniels, Leo Reisman, Beniamino Gigli, Richie Craig, Jr., Dr. Howard W. Haggard, Associate Professor of Physiology at Yale; Captain Edward Molyneux and Maggy Rouff.

New dance orchestras also have appeared. Frank Winegar and his Pennsylvanians, now playing at the Village Barn, New York, and Noble Sissle's Orchestra, entertaining at the Princesse Restaurant, Park Avenue, are two bands that already have established popularity. Both are under contract exclusively with the Columbia System.

Nor is there a tendency to let the existing broadcasting situation stand. Within a few weeks a number of other features will have been added for the nation's radio fans—the new blending with the old in the ever-changing panorama.

BONHUEUR ARCO GUEST

Rosa Bonheur, celebrated French artist, will be the "reincarnated" guest of honor at the Arco Birthday Party to be broadcast over an NBC network and KYW Thursday at 8:00 P. M.

The musical program honors composers whose natal day occurs this week in March.

Program details:

Songs of Araby..... Clay Bass solo, John Moncrieff

My Heart Ever Faithful..... Bach His Lullaby .....

DON BERNARD

Like so many others who have made their mark in the radio world, Don Bernard, program advisor of NBC's Chicago studios and director of the Great Northern Railway's "Empire Builders" dramas, started out with the ambition of being a singer.

After a short career in music following study at Ohio Wesleyan University and the Bush Conservatory of Music in Chicago, Mr. Bernard was bitten by the radio bug. He became program director of a small station in Ohio, then went to New York with NBC, and later was transferred to Chicago as program manager.

In accounting for the popularity of the Great Northern's Monday night playlets, due credit must be given the lavish musical setting which is provided for each program. "Built" would be a better word, for Mr. Bernard and Josef Koestner, conductor of the Great Northern orchestra, collaborate in writing a great deal of original music for this program, as well as in working out special arrangements, all of which are painstakingly designed to strengthen and make more effective the dramatic action of the story, developing expectancy, creating suspense, suggesting danger or discord and the countless other opportunities afforded by each script to play upon the emotions of the listeners and make them really "feel" the reality of the story and actually "live" it with the actors.

There is probably no better example on the air today of the employment of music to strengthen dramatic effect or to beautify a dramatic presentation than the music which not only surrounds but is a vital part of every Great Northern production.

In addition to his work on Empire Builders, Mr. Bernard is the director of two outstanding musical presentations, "Armour Hour" and "Maytag."

KING AND WEEMS SWAP

Wayne King's orchestra playing at the Aragon Ballroom and Ted Weems' orchestra playing at the Trianon Ballroom, exchanged ballrooms recently. Thus Weems' music will be heard on KYW instead of King's. The "swapping" arrangement will also be in effect Thursdays.

VAN HEUSEN PROGRAM

Lee Morse

Lee Morse, stage and radio star; Larry Murphy, tenor; Harry von Zell, master-of-ceremonies, and an eighteen-piece orchestra conducted by Eugene Ormandy, comprise the talent to be heard on the Van Heusen Program over the WMAQ-Columbia network every Friday at 9 P. M. The feature will be announced by Don Ball.

An extraordinary range of voice, which enables Miss Morse to sing either high soprano or a deep contralto that is almost a baritone, is both a heritage from her mother and her childhood. During her school days in a small Tennessee town, Miss Morse received her first vocal training as a member of her brother's quartet in which she was required to sing a masculine part. Her mother is now director of a church choir in Allen, Oklahoma, where her father, the Rev. P. J. Taylor, is minister.

Murphy, soloist for several Columbia features, will be heard in the vocal choruses of the orchestra selections.

REAL LIFE
DRAMA

9:15 to 9:30 P. M. Mondays. This fifteen minute period will include "The Venetian Love Song" played by the WIBO string ensemble—and "Waltzes from Three Little Girls" by the orchestra under the direction of Eric Sagerquist. The addition of music should make the period of greater interest.

KEYSTONE CHRONICLE

Aunt Hessie, the stormy petrel of Madagascar county, conceives one of her distorted ideas and puts it into instant and devastating effect during the Keystone Chronicle program to be presented Saturday afternoon, from 12:30 to 12:45 P. M., from the Chicago NBC studios, and WLS.

MEMORY TEST

Whose song memory is best—yours or that of J. Wilson Doty, new staff organist at WBBM?

J. Wilson bets on himself in a new series of programs each Monday, Wednesday and Saturday, 9:45 to 10 P. M. It's something of a game. The listeners write to the station, naming some old-time and almost forgotten ditty. Doty does not see the letters until the program is started. Then they are selected at random, and the titles called out.

If Doty can play the number, he does. If he cannot, the writer gets a prize. The radio memory game is sponsored by the Liberty Cleaners.

NBC DISCOVERS McCOY

The southern syncopation interpreted by Clyde McCoy and his crew of Kentuckians, playing at the Morrison Hotel's Terrace Garden, has been "discovered" by the NBC network, and now McCoy's orchestra has been scheduled by NBC to go over WENR, each Thursday night at 11:30 o'clock.

WWAE CUCKOO CLUB

Earl Babcock, who is well known to local listeners as one of the members of Paul Whiteman's Nutty Club broadcast over WBBM, has gone and started a midnight club of his own on WWAE. He calls it the Cuckoo Club, and presents it every Saturday night at midnight. Carl sings many of his own songs and for relief he introduces some of his own jokes. We don't quite know which of the two is better (or worse), but they're certainly original.

SPEEDY GROWTH

John Brewster, the actor who takes the part of "Henry" in the Columbia Broadcasting System Henry-George "Blackout" dramas, says that he thought the ultimate in speedy growth was reached five years ago when he played a twelve-year-old boy in one play and ten minutes later rushed to another theatre to play the part of an 85-year-old man. Brewster changed his mind during the Henry-George skits recently when he had to whine like an infant in one act and two minutes later take the role of a nonagenarian sea-captain.

RADIO SPELLING BEE

Girls have a three-to-one edge over the boys as the 1931 Radio Spelling Bee from WBBM goes into the semi-final stage.

Thirty-five girls, and only eleven boys, have qualified for these semi-finals, with twenty-three of the scheduled twenty-six preliminary contests finished. The semi-finals will be held this Saturday, 8:30 to 9:30 P. M. The finals will be held on Saturday, April 4, 8:30 to 9:30 P. M.

Edwin J. Tobin, superintendent of Cook county schools; William J. Bogan, superintendent of Chicago schools, and the Rev. D. S. Cunningham, head of the Catholic school board, are among the judges. The winner will be given a free trip to Washington, D. C., with his or her parents. The school represented will receive a cup from the Chicago Times, sponsors of the contest.

AUTHOR! AUTHOR!

Occasional sound effects and musical interludes by Freddie Rich and his studio ensemble have been added to the Daddy and Rollo acts during the La Palina program every Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday at 6:45 p. m., over the WMAQ - Columbia chain.

J. P. McEvoy

These additions are simply radio "props," enabling the author of the scripts, J. P. McEvoy, to get more than one episode into a fifteen-minute period.

One hears the squeals of monkeys and the roar of the lions, for instance, when Daddy takes Rollo to the park zoo; the clang and rumble of a street car for perhaps thirty seconds, and the half hour that it would take them to get home from the park is consumed; a fade-out into a half minute of music, and the scene changes.

DID HE EAT THEM?

LETTERS

Ft. Atkinson, Wis.

Dear Sirs:

I wish to say I am certainly thankful I heard of the Radio Weekly, as the four copies I've received so far have given me much pleasure, and are so very interesting I shan't miss a single copy from now on. It's the best magazine of its kind I've ever seen, and I'm sure it's going to get better and better each issue its printed. As soon as the magazine arrives I drop whatever I'm doing to glance thru it; then later I take my time to read it very carefully, and enjoy each picture and item telling all about the radio stars and the different programs for the coming week.

I'm sorry I had to miss all those copies before I knew of the magazine, but I assure you I won't miss any of those you print from now on.

Mrs. Elsie Reap.

(Well, well, we thought only radio stations received letters like that one, and here we are getting more of them all the time. We are certainly grateful to you readers who take the time to tell us what you think of the Weekly, because only with your help can we make it what you would like it to be.)

Chicago, Ill.

Gentlemen:

I have been much interested in the weekly column written by the Cynic.

Inasmuch as he has already attacked two of the finest programs on the air, may I suggest that he be allowed to present a program of his own? I know a number of people who would gladly write his column for him that week.

Also, may I say to him, "who killed your dog, mister?"

Mrs. D. K. Magee.

Irving, Ill.

Gentlemen:

I read the Radio Weekly each week and like it very much. I think it fine and very interesting. I would like to know, too, if you have had one for WENR. I like this station best of all. It seems that they have such good programs on account of the variety. I would like to know how I may get a picture of East and Dumke. I enjoy their program daily, and wonder if they have been in the Radio Weekly.

Mrs. Cecil K. Wiley.

(We have not yet dedicated an issue of the Weekly to WENR, and due to the change of ownership of that station, many of the best liked artists are now appearing from other local stations. One of the early issues of the Weekly contained a full page story and picture of the popular conductors of the Sisters of the Skillet, but copies of this issue are now as scarce as phonograph records on a chain broadcast. Some day soon, however, we will publish their latest picture for you Sisters.)

LETTERS—Continued

Chicago, Ill.

Gentlemen:

I like your little weekly very much, but it is still very incomplete and besides you are behind the times.

In the last copy you have noted very few of the WENR-WLS changes for which your readers are anxiously waiting, I am sure. You didn't even know about "Webster's Grocery Store," which heretofore has been on WENR at 9 P. M. o'clock on Thursday, and I was also waiting to find out from your paper if there has been any change.

Surely, you know the Smith Family has moved to WMAQ at 8:30 P. M. on Wednesday, that Farmer Rusk of WLS also has gone to WMAQ, that Mike and Herman will be on WBBM beginning the 15th, and you still have all these listed at their old places. I think your paper is prepared and printed too far in advance to get all the desirable features in that could and should be put in.

Also you have so many of the programs listed only as "talks" or "popular music," not stating whether they are by artists who are on the staff regularly. You have some listed this way but not enough.

Here's for a bigger and better paper.

Mrs. B. Archambault.

(Give us a little time, Mrs. Archambault, and all these things you complain of will be adjusted satisfactorily.)

Chicago, Ill.

Gentlemen:

Your issue of March first introduced me to your publication, which, I am glad to say, and you, no doubt, are happy to hear, I found very interesting. Your Weekly gave me the sort of information about the different radio performers that made me feel as tho I were being allowed to stand in the wings of a great theatre. I can say that I was rewarded for allowing myself to increase my budget five cents for the purchase of your magazine.

Not having read your publication before, I do not know whether or not you have printed any article about Knute and Sven, who are heard nightly over WCHI. They aren't listed in your program so I take it that you either don't know of them or have no information about them. I have been curious to know just who they are—especially if Axel Christensen is one of the characters. Whoever they are they certainly have a brogue and a story that is really amusing. In fact they had a court scene that was more humorous than any situation Amos and Andy ever experienced. Please find out who these two characters are in real life and pass the news on to us.

G. F. Becker.

THE CYNIC

What a lot of hokum one can imbibe in a single adventurous expedition up the dial! Where formerly the cultists, the fadists, and those enthusiastic but misguided old women of both sexes who believed they had discovered a cure for all the ills to which the flesh is prone, were limited to a small circle which included their friends and the friends of their friends, today one can find them all reaching out greedily for more and more followers via the radio. Even the chains are not averse to giving a certain amount of time each week gratis to some demented person who believes himself or herself (usually herself) to be a "voice crying in the wilderness."

One night last week I started at the top of the dial, working down, and found no less than four cults represented. After listening to their line of hokum I was surprised that so few people really become converts. All are forceful, convincing speakers, all use phrases and catchwords which any advertising man would be proud to call his own, and they are all either students of psychology or complete fools. I haven't yet decided which. The two broadcasts which I thought worthy of mention were those of Dr. P. L. Clark, who has started a school of "Sanitology" and who spouts from WCHI, and Lorna Fantin's Numerology program on the Columbia chain.

The Doctor opens his program by shouting in a stentorian voice, "The whiter the bread, the sooner you're dead!" which he follows up with, "adios means good-bye in Spanish but operation means bood-bye in every language." For those among his audience who may still be skeptical, he advances countless proofs. He proves (?) that starch and proteins, when eaten together, are fatal to human beings; he proves that the medical "trust" is envious of his reputation, and is slandering him in their official organ; he proves that all medical men are quacks and fakers, and he proves, most convincingly of all, that he is just another nut who thinks he has discovered a cure-all.

Lorna Fantin goes about her mission a little less ruthlessly, and a little more "high-hat," which is the reason she broadcasts over a large chain. Nevertheless, there is more hokum spilled in her fifteen minute program than in that of Dr. Clark. All life, it seems, moves in cycles of 9 years. If you were born during a 1 year, you will be rich and powerful; being born in a 2 year makes one discontented and unhappy. Miss Fantin has a fine radio voice, and when she speaks of the "magnetic, electric 5" the listener would infer, if said listener couldn't understand English, that she was saying something of tremendous importance. I venture to guess that money is Miss Fantin's one idol, for money is sprinkled liberally thru her talk. "Tomorrow," she will say, "is a money day," or, "the 2 person will make a lot of money" Miss Fantin is no doubt a 2 person, for no one less fortunate could get away with the stuff she does and get paid for it.

Bob White asks Lucille Husting why he should save the day for the Army, at the risk of his neck. White and Miss Husting are heard in the Empire Builders series of radio dramas, broadcast over the NBC network and KYW Monday night, 9:30 to 10 P. M.

At last we have succeeded in getting a picture of "Old Pappy," who is heard each noon from WLS. He is Clifford Solbier, former character actor with the Dudley Players at the Kedzie Theatre, Chicago.

Marian and Jim Jordan, two more of the staff of WENR who are finding an outlet over WMAQ. Every night but Wednesday at 6 they present their "Smack Outs," a rural dramatic sketch.
