She gazes at the ceiling and prefers to be alone during her broadcast. From May 4 she will be on each Saturday at 6:45 p. m. over WSAI (NBC-WEAF). VOL. I WEEK ENDING APRIL 21, 1932 No. 48

CROONING GETS THE GATE

In radio programs as in everything else, styles are always changing. No sooner does the ceaselessly swinging pendulum of popularity reach one dizzy extreme than it pauses and starts an equally dizzy descent.

That recurring manifestation of human nature as it affects broadcasting fare is particularly to the fore at the moment, for the favor-and-disfavor curve has just described another of its breakneck dips, this time with crooning as the thing left high and dry.

Two or three months ago, the crooners were getting all the breaks. No program of popular music was complete without a soft singer. Indeed, there were times when dialers who wanted vocalizing of any other sort were hard-pressed to find it. But now everything has changed.

True, a few crooners are still doing business at the same old stands. However, their ranks have been sorely decimated. Soft voices which charmed millions not so long ago are not heard throughout the land these days. Young men and women who were drawing princely paychecks at the turn of the year have discovered that unemployment is not just a catch-phrase.

Why this sudden cooling of popular favor?

Perhaps the best explanation is that crooning was very much overdone. As always, the broadcasters stampeded to cash in on the success of a few leaders, not wisely but too well. The result was desolating monotony from what might have been pleasing variety.

Also, it must be pointed out that crooning is little more than a trick technique. Tricks seldom remain the vogue for long.

Then, too, the technical necessity for singing softly has passed. In the beginning, crooning came into being largely because old-fashioned microphones were unequal to handling full-voiced singing. That, of course, is not the case with modern studio equipment.

At any rate, regardless of why, it is pretty clear that crooning finally has fallen a victim to the well-known depression. Possibly it will come back. Other types of programs have bloomed again after withering under popular disfavor. But just now it does not look as if a come-back will be in the very near future.

What next is the question that is disturbing the studio powers that be. While they are deliberating over that, they might also ponder—and penitently—the gold-rush exploitation which did so much to snuff out the crooning goose that laid such shining eggs.

Around the Dial

By THE DIAL TWISTER

Back to Columbia after wintering with National, the Wonder Hour (WKRC, Sunday at 1:30 p.m.) upholds its reputation for quality. It's a superior program of contrasts, splendidly done in all departments.

Grace Moore, who adorns that Wednesday Goodyear program (NBC over WSAI, at 9 p.m.), has no fewer than 250 dresses and 75 pairs of shoes. She probably insists she "simply has nothing to wear."

About those Radio Follies for which Chrysler pays and pays (CBS over WKRC, Sunday at 8 p.m.), what's in a name? Meaning, with the Ziegfeld spell shaken off, just what would there be to distinguish this half-hour from a dozen other good air shows of the same sort? Think it over.

According to a bulletin from "Grapevine Service," Norman T. Baker, who used to do plenty with his now muzzled KXTN, is building a 100,000-watt station just over the line in Mexico. If XER is a fair sample, this new voice from the land of bull-fights is going to give American broadcasters considerable to worry about.

Louise Ryder keeps up her good work (WCKY, Thursday at 8:15 p.m.). A rich colorful contralto and thoughtfully planned programs are the winning combination.

Charlie Lyon, the NBC Chicago announcer, collects dictionaries as a hobby. We would be more inclined to call that strenuous exercise.

HE WOULD HAVE WORDS WITH HIM.

If you like glimpses back-stage, the Ivanhoe Playhouse (WLW, Thursday at 9 p.m.) is worth a hearken. It's a well-diversified show, in an agreeably novel setting.

Jane Froman doesn't like to use a telephone. It makes her stutter.

The NEC Symphonic Hour (WLW, Sunday at 1 p.m.) is still one of the week's high spots. Fine music and Walter Damrosch's personality make it something that can't be duplicated. That recent Tchaikowsky program was a shining demonstration.

Since they went on the chain, Amos and Andy have introduced over 50 characters in their act. And the end is not yet.

The True Story Hour (NBC over WSAI, Tuesday at 8:30 p.m.) is asking for listeners' reactions to the feature. Such a check-up usually means that the sponsor has his doubts about continuing. It ought to show that this program has a big and enthusiastic following.

And add this to the "how times have changed" file. When Paul Whiteman started his band, his men averaged $35 a week. Now some of them draw down $350 to $650. Who started this silly rumor about a depression?

That new series of talks on "You and Your Government" (NBC over WCKY, Tuesday at 8 p.m.) sounds mighty profitable and timely.

As if balancing the budget weren't enough of a chore, the Senate is still figuring on broadcasting its sessions. The proposition is ticketed as the Dill-Howell bill. But if we know our listeners, it had better be rechristened as the "Howl bill."

Oh, Columbia!

ALMA YOUNGQUIST

When the censors depart, Alma Youngquist arrives. Placing both of her best feet forward, Alma has stepped out as one of the more popular Columbia television features in interpretative dances over W2XAB each Tuesday at 8:15 p.m. Due acknowledgment is here made to television.

Victor Herbert and George M. Cohan on The "Curtain Calls"

Victor Herbert's "The Red Mill" and some of George M. Cohan's song hits will be heard in "Curtain Calls" by the WLW Concert Orchestra and Vocal Sextet, Wednesday (April 20) at 10 p.m.

Soloists will be Helen Marie Anderson, Franklin Bens, Louis John Johnen, Virginia Marucci and Eugene Perazzo. The program follows:

- The Red Mill (Miniature)
- 1 Overture
- 2 Beautiful Isle of Our Dreams
- 3 Moorhearts
- 4 Everyday Is Ladies Day
- 5 Finale
- George M. Cohan Hits
- 1 Forty-five Minutes From Broadway
- 2 So Long Mary
- 3 Mary Is a Grand Old Name
- 4 Stand Up and Fight Like a Man
- Finale: Over There

Editor The Dial: Here is an aid to remembering whatever we wish over the radio. I have a looseleaf notebook on top of the radio with a pencil at hand. I always make notes on desirable things and may bring them to mind at once by reading the notes. I make a note of such subjects as future programs I wish to hear; about radio contests in which I am interested; special trial offers of advertised products; mistakes in English (and you'd be surprised!) and numerous other things. I go over the Radio Dial when it first comes and mark special interests, "double crossing" those of most importance as I said once before. I may then run down the line and note at a glance what I wish. In my notebook, I have written in order of the day special programs which are given regularly, hour by hour, and in this way: (Central Time)—

- 8:45 a. m.—WLW—Mail Bag Time—Wed.—Sat.
- 9:00 a. m.—WLS—Sands of Time—Mon.—Fri.
- 10:45 a. m.—WLS—News of the day.
- 11:00 a. m.—WGN—Happy Hank—daily except Sat.—Sun.
- 12:00 noon.—WLW—National Farm and Home Hour.

McCormick Fiddlers of WLW

From generation to generation many of the songs of these McCormick Old-Time Fiddlers have been handed down by mountain-folk and have yet to be written down on paper. By all odds one of WLW's most popular features, the McCormick Fiddlers have just returned to WLW following a successful theatrical tour of three weeks through Kentucky and West Virginia. The band consists of "Ma" McCormick at the piano; Frank Miller, fiddler; Omar Castleman, banjoist; Odas Mattox, guitarist and tenor, and "Pa" at his 52 harmonicas.

says: "By the end of the week, our copy of The Radio Dial has been looked at and consulted until it is almost in pieces. It is a big help."

L. R., Newport, Ky.: The Street Singer with Pillsbury Pageant is Arthur Tracy.

Reader, Cincinnati: Guy Lombardo and his Royal Canadians are now heard over WABC and other Columbia stations Monday, 10 p. m., Thursday 12 midnight, and Saturday 7.30 p. m. and 12 midnight.

KIDDIES' CONTEST

Tommie and Willie, Coca Cola Twins of WCKY, are conducting a contest for children via water colors and crayons. They are on weekly at 6 p. m. nighly except Sunday.

Sidney TenEyck and his "Doodlesocker Dribbles" are on a week's vacation. Even humor nods, you know.

ANNOUNCER: We are broadcasting from the annual banquet of the Amateur Crapshooters Convention in the Ballroom of the Hotel Crappy in N'Yawk.

Osseous O. Bones, 97-year-old Crapshooter and Crooner, will hum the cracked theme song of our program. It is the theme song of Wola Wegri's motion picture, "A Woman Demands," and is entitled "Paradise."

WSMK 1380 kilocycles HIGHLIGHTS

By J. B. MILLER

This Monday night half hour of WSMK Stars on Parade (10:00 p. m.) always presents entertaining variety. Next week the "stars" who will be glorified are Barbara Runyan, pianist, organist, and songstress; Gladys Nye, accordionist; Jack Wymer, popular ballad baritone; and Sunny Oliver, "Voice of Dixie." James Burton is master of ceremonies.

WSMK has added more drama. The John Lawrence Players, well known to radio audiences through their transcriptions and appearing at a Dayton theater, take the air each Sunday at 10:15 p. m. with stories of the Kentucky hills, written by the director, John Lawrence, who is also heard in prominent roles.

Another dramatic feature is the play to be given in the Tower Theater of the Air next Wednesday at 6:30 p. m. The story deals with the "hereafter." The author is the Tower Theater's directress, Jane Bishir.

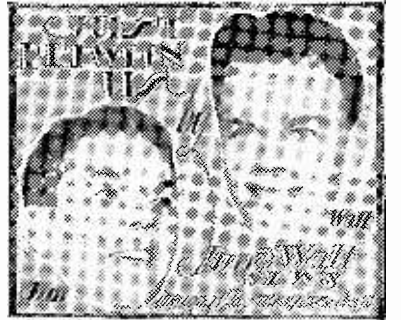

Ralph Kempf has written a series of sketches to be heard weekly on the Radio Home Hour. The first of these, "I'll See You Later," is scheduled for production Wednesday at 9:15 a. m.

Drama followers should find WSMK's 1380 an ideal dial spot. Beside the foregoing, dramatic features of various types are heard at the following times: 7 p. m. daily except Saturday and Sunday ("Footlights and Big Time"); 5:15 p. m., Monday, Wednesday and Friday ("Agnes, Millie, n' Lil"); 6:30 p. m., Monday, Wednesday and Friday, and 10:30 p. m., Monday (Tower Theater).

Three Sunday features start this week in the Tower Studios. They are the Henning Trio in chamber musicale, 5 p. m.; Carl Nill, tenor, 6:15 p. m., and sweet harmony by the Wolff Twins at 7 p. m.

Hello Folkses. . . .

We've bought a new car (new to us. We've decided to call her "Sally" because we got her for a song. (This nomenclature complex comes natural to us; we live on a street called "Emma") Sally is a lady with a past, having had two owners before us, but she's ready now to settle down. As she remarked only yesterday between stop lights:

"It's a good home I'm wanting now and gentle care; my wild oats days are over."

We played a theater some time ago that had a Kroger Grocery opening off the lobby; that worried us—too easy for the customers to buy eggs and vegetables as they went in. Fortunately for us no one took advantage of this unique service.

OUR WEEKLY "ANTIC-DOTE":

We're not sure whether we dreamed this or whether it really happened. We were playing the Sherman Theater in Chillicothe and stopping at the Warner Hotel. We ordered chicken dinners sent to our rooms. There came a tapping at the door; we opened it and in walked a little red hen. She had a determined look in her eyes and a quizzical expression played around her mouth. "Why, what are you doing up here?" we asked. "Well," she replied, "I'm the hen that's going to be roasted for your dinners, so thought I'd come up to look you guys over—just to see what I was getting into." Let Bob Ripley and Lowell Thomas smoke that one in their pipes!

Our favorite master of ceremonies was always Frank Chaw of "Coffee Dan" fame—then we tuned in and heard Pat Harrington on that Crosley Dealers' Night Club program. The kid's clever! Have you heard him? (Tuesday nights at ten.) Pat has had a lot of experience at that stuff; he has been entertaining the folks around the studios with his wit and humor for some time, but it looked like he was doomed to the life of a crooner until that Night Club program came along. Not that he can't out-Downey Downey anytime but we got a kick out of hearing him out-Shaw Coffee Dan.

Jim recently recorded a program for the A. and P. South American Coffee people on his home-recording outfit and they sent him several pounds of coffee. Wonder if we couldn't record those Ziegfeld Follies programs for Chrysler?

JIM AND WALT.

COLUMBIA BROADCASTING STUDIOS, NEW YORK CITY.—Spring came into my life with a profound sneeze. All the same I know that in the country the tulips and jonquils are coming up. You can buy them here in flower shop windows.

Spring in Columbia was confirmed yesterday when Teddy Bergman (who was on the Henry-George programs last year, do you remember?) came walking in with his bride, Finette Walker. The marriage took place in City Hall, and terminated a romance (or perhaps terminated isn't the word!) which began in the CBS studios.

Radio has played cupid to more than one couple, and if I were to go Winchell-ish I could whisper things in your ear that I notice around the corridors and in the reception room.

However, that's neither here nor there. Teddy has the starring part in a new series which began Tuesday (April 12) over Columbia—"Joe Palooka." Teddy has portrayed more than 800 dramatic roles in radio performances and the Missus appeared in "My Maryland" and "The New Yorkers." She came across Teddy in the Columbia television studios, W2XAB.

George Beuchler (announcer) has a new Scottie dog called "Woozie." The other day as I walked into the corridor which leads from the Press Relations Department (ahem) into the reception room and elevators in the 18th floor, I saw a small black Scottie dog go scurrying around the corner and down the hall, evidently concerned about something. I heard laughter and the people in the reception room told me that the pup had gotten off the elevator all by himself, and proceeded to do a Canine Sherlock Holmes all over the place. Nobody knew to whom he belonged.

In the midst of the amused debate the elevator door opened and who should get off but George. "Woozie" greeted him eagerly and George exclaimed, "Why, how did YOU get here?" in a rather deprecating voice. He explained to us that he had gotten off the elevator on a floor below and that Woozie hadn't, and that since then they had both been getting on and off elevators trying to find each other, but hadn't been able to make connections! Woozie has a pedigree that makes him one of the Canine 400.

The other day I wandered into a Robert Burns Panatela rehearsal. There was Gracie Allen eating a sandwich and murmuring wifely instructions to George Burns, while said gentleman beat a frantic itinerary around the room looking for his hat, brief-case or what-not.

Meantime I heard Guy Lombardo conversing with Gracie. (Burns and Allen are doing "five a day in Brooklyn, you know.)

Guy: When does the show go on?
Gracie: The minute we get there. It's on now. (Another bite out of sandwich.) George, we got to be back here by 5:30!

Guy: Do you go by subway?
Gracie: Yeah, some fun. Come ON George!

This is followed by a 25-yard dash to the elevators.
Well, life is just a bowl of corn-flakes, or something.
