COMING

ETHER

With BERNIE SMITH

Mrs. Melvin Wolf, 905 North Oleander Street, Compton, Calif.

Sirs: You missed some good spook stories if you have never heard "The Devil's Scrapbook" or "Witches' Tales." In case Mrs. Jacobs hasn't heard it, another good program of the same order is "The Hermit's Cave."

(It is comforting for editors to know that gracious readers stand ready to supply our shortcomings in the question-and-answer department. We would have known what to tell Mrs. Jacobs, but a break-down of the staff reveals that none of us is addicted to spook stories. We tumble for "bewitching" vocaloveties and bewildering comedians.)

Charles W. Kimball, 2307 Reservoir Street, Los Angeles.

Sirs: Answering Radio Life reader who bats for Art Baker in replying to the plaint of ticket holders to "All Aboard" who were shooed into the balcony, it happens that these particular tickets were press tickets. So it is fair to assume that the holders got as good a break as that given to the average comer.

Radio Life reader recommends: "To make sure of a seat downstairs, why not be there early enough?" This particular squawk came from guests who were at the door when it opened. After being shooed into the balcony, they saw plenty people ushered to seats downstairs. Glad to hear Baker has changed the system and that it is now "first come, first served."

Art Baker isn't a novice at facing an audience and the enthusiasm with which feminine fans spring to his defense whenever and however he is criticised bears testimony to his command of stage technique. By this time his eyes ought to be used to the glare of the footlights so that people back of the first few rows don't look like "dark spooks."

If an emcee envisions "dark spooks" in the audience, he will be afraid and his work will suffer. If he sees people—upstairs as well as downstairs—then his heart will go out to them and his acting will be classed with the work of the great.

(Well, folks, this looks like the ninth inning and all the bases full. If someone can just bat out one more letter on Art Baker, we'll say the score's a tie. Otherwise we'll call the game for time.)

Mrs. M. Hunsinger, 1817 North Avenue 55, Los Angeles.

Sirs: I enjoy Radio Life very much but wonder why you do not print radio logs earlier than 8 a. m. Do the programs come on an hour earlier with daylight saving time?

(Periodically Radio Life prints logs for the wee small hours. It is suggested that readers clip and save for interim reference. With advent of daylight saving time, radio programs were pushed ahead one hour to conform to the clock. So Burns and Allen, whom you have been hearing Tuesday at 6 p. m. come on now when the clock says 6 p. m.)

Mrs. A. Hime, 151 North Hoover Street, Los Angeles.

Sirs: One of your columnists thinks (and hopes) that "the day of the quiz program is drawing to a close." Thousands of us will be greatly disappointed if that happens, for quiz programs are entertaining and often educational. Facts which we have forgotten (or never knew) are revived in our minds. Too, the quiz programs have to a great extent supplanted those awful, nerve-racking jazz programs. If we lose all of our quiz programs, will the air be filled with blaring noise again, or just what will replace such programs?

On the Cover

Radio Life's Valentine cover girl is brunette-tressed, hazel-orbed Melinda Leighton of the CBS-KNX Bob Burns and Screen Guild stock companies. One of Hollywood's most capable young actresses, Melinda came to Columbia Square two years ago as Gateway to Hollywood winner Linda Johnson from Oklahoma City, Okla. She's also making current bid for film fame as the ingenue lead in Gene Autry's Republic opus "A Cowboy Sernade." Cover by Ted Allan.

A little girl I know, just 12 years old, is learning some of the facts of life. She's not learning them all from her mother, either; some of them she's learning from her radio loudspeaker!

Reared in a good home and taught the distinctions between right and wrong, this little girl was considerably shocked by what she heard on a recent Bob Hope program. I do not argue the case. I simply present the facts, herewith.

This little girl, in high dudgeon, told me all about it.

"I was listening to Bob Hope tonight," she said, "and he had some joke about a sky writer in an airplane writing 'Hello' up in the sky. And Bob Hope said an anti-aircraft gun shot out the 'O' at the end of 'Hello.' Isn't that awful?"

Well, the gag itself, as such, isn't really up to the usual Hope standard, I'll admit. But the point I'm trying to make is that kids nowadays savvy a lot more than we give them credit for. And all persons who use the microphone should be made to see, and see clearly, that their responsibility is one that weighs heavily.

Gentlemen of the airlines, once again I appeal to your good sense. Clean up your stuff now, while there still is time!

Tom Breneman's "Breakfast At Sardi's" broadcast seems to be the answer to the morning serial problem. The ladies go for it as enthusiastically as they have gone for the sob serials in past years. Tom even has taken the place of the cliff-hanging hero in the hearts of the fair sex. I know of one old lady who is nuts about the guy. And she knows many others who share her affection.

Personal Memo to all those grand people who submitted ideas to sell Defense Bonds and Stamps via radio: I've turned them over to the proper authorities and even now they are being considered for possible use. Each idea is gratefully acknowledged. You're a pretty nice bunch of guys.

Radio Gives Again

Saturday, Feb. 14, 9:45 p.m. is launched a new program over all four nation-wide networks. Titled "This Is War," it is radio's all-out contribution toward dramatizing and interpreting the wartime resources and activities of the government to the American people and the entire world. The series was offered to the government by the broadcasting industry and "gratefully accepted" by the same officials who have been "riding" the major networks for the past several months.

From a lengthy list of proposed titles and subject matter, "This Is War" was selected as most suitable for the series. Norman Corwin, top-flight CBS writer-producer who did such a magnificent job on the "Bill of Rights" program, is directing the series which will star outstanding actors, actresses, and artists. With an anticipated outlet in 500 stations, this will mark the first time in radio history that combined network facilities are employed simultaneously for a broadcast series. Arrangements are being completed to short-wave the programs as well. For the premiere, President Roosevelt speaks.

Navy Ties Vallee

Rudy Vallee, the Maine Man on the Blue Network's Sealtest show, has a knack for sustained interest in everything . . . but the same girl.

One of the first things to ever halter Rudy's interest and devotion was the United States Navy, and in World War I he ran away from home, lied about his age and managed to join the Navy as an apprentice seaman on a destroyer.

Rudy, who was commissioned an honorary Lieutenant Commander after his discharge from service by the then governor of Maine, has never forgotten his first love, the Navy, and Thursday, Feb. 12, he brought his entire radio cast to the Naval Reserve Aviation Base at Long Beach for a special broadcast.

Now that we think of it . . . maybe that's where Rudy got that idea of having a girl in every port—from the Navy!

KFCA, 7 p.m.
Thurs.

Ginny Gets Salute

Ginny Simms, the KNXtraordinarily good canary, is wearing a tiny gold miniature of a P-38 interceptor fighting plane presented to her by Lockheed aircraft workers after she made a personal appearance at the plant.

KNX, 8:55 p.m. Fri.

Benny's Barrels

To Leo Durocher, manager of the Brooklyn Dodger baseball team, this week went the following wire, and we quote:

"Would like option on all ball bats broken by dem gorgeous bums of yours this season. Best personal regards."

The wire was signed by Benny Rubin, radio farceur-baseball fan who cavorts on more comedy shows than any other comic in Hollywood.

Benny, between rehearsals for Ransom Sherman's CBS show the other afternoon, explained the reason for his interest in broken bats.

It seems that Benny is the sales manager of a company which manufactures a new type of barbecue wagon for use in homes, on camping trips and picnics.

This new, streamlined barbecue wagon, which is nothing more than an old wine cask converted into a barbecue barrel, calls for the use of oak bark instead of briquets. Baseball bats, according to Benny, are ideal for the generating of smoke in these barbecue barrels inasmuch as they are made of hickory.

"And to think I just gave away a dozen broken bats three weeks before I started selling these barbecue wagons!" wailed Rubin.

Kay's 'Lucky' Fifth

Kay Kyser, the quip-pitching Old Professor of NBC-KFI's College of Musical Knowledge, this week celebrates his fifth year as headman of the hour-long Wednesday night show for Lucky

John B. Hughes, KHJ-Mutual's brilliant news commentator, has taken his weekday comments about the sacrifices American families must begin to make in the all-out Victory effort seriously. Above, the Hughes family foursome, pauses outside their Hollywood hilltop home on the latest addition to the Hughes garage—a shiny new tandem. Left to right: Sandra, 7; John, Mrs. Hughes, and Harry John, age 4.

Hollywood Has a Heart

Walter White, producer of "Nobody's Children," a program dedicated to the interests of orphaned youngsters, books outstanding figures of stage, screen, and radio to appear on the Sunday broadcasts. Accustomed to the exigencies of the show-world, Mr. White has learned to swallow frequent disappointment when stars are demanded elsewhere. Last week the army stepped in to further complicate the situation and Buzz Meredith, instead of guesting on "Nobody's Children," made an army camp appearance.

Confronted with the problem of securing a last-minute substitute, Mr. White called Mary Pickford, who gave an immediate "yes" to his request. Turning from the phone to consult her husband, Buddy Rogers, Miss Pickford offered his services as well.

Before Mr. White could announce solution to his difficulties, the word got around that "Nobody's Children" was in a spot for a guest star. Beulah Bondi called to say she would go on if needed. Then Humphrey Bogart, who appeared on the show a couple of weeks ago, contacted Mr. White to express his willingness to help.

"It certainly renewed my faith in people and the program," Walter glowed.

KHJ, 8:30 p.m. Sun.

Never Say Die!

Encountering a problem in the middle of writing the script for the CBS "Amos 'n' Andy" show one day last week, Freeman Gosden turned to his partner, Charles Correll, and said,

"What's the number of this episode, Charlie?"

Correll looked at the margin and replied,

"Three thousand, eight hundred and four."

A happy look came over the thoughtful features of Gosden (Amos) at the answer, and he commented,

"All right, if we've done that many, we can certainly get out one more!"

KNX, 8 p.m. Fri.

Lyrics to Dresses

Marian Mansfield, first girl ever to sing a note on the air with Guy Lombardo's Royal Canadians when the Lombardos were doing a commercial with Burns and Allen for White Owl at KHJ's old Columbia network studios, now runs a tot-to-teen dress shop in Hollywood's famed Farmers' Market.

Gambles on Career

You can't convince Trudy Erwin that a chance taker never wins.

The pretty blonde vocalist of Kay Kyser's College of Musical Knowledge disclosed today that she owes her radio career to a gamble she took and won.

Several years ago, when Trudy was just starting college at the University of Southern California, she auditioned for a singing job with the Music Maids, now singing on Bing Crosby's show.

Dottie Mesmer, leader of the Music Maids, told Trudy she would let her know next day.

Trudy couldn't wait. She quit college that afternoon. She kept calling Dottie about the job every 15 minutes. Finally, Dottie told her she was "in." Trudy had gambled her college career against a singing career and won.

"Sometimes," she says, "I think Dottie hired me in self defense to stop the telephone from ringing."

Today, after a radio apprenticeship with the Music Maids, Trudy is well on the way to stardom with Kay Kyser.

KFI, 7 p.m. Wed.

Graham Tells One

Frank Graham, radio's one-man-theatre now free-lancing as an actor on a number of major shows including "Romance of the Ranchos," "Lum and Abner," and Tay Garnett's new "Three Sheets to the Wind," hailed a Radio Life reporter at Hollywood and Vine the other afternoon to report this, one of the better current war gags.

According to Frank, Hitler phoned Premier Tojo in Japan and shouted: "You! Dumkopf! You're ruining our plans—why haven't you taken Honolulu yet?" . . . "Oh, so sorry," quietly hissed Tojo, "but pardon me, Mr. Hitler, where are you phoning from—Moscow?"

There's That Man Again!

Since inception of the popular quiz program, "Take It Or Leave It," a wearisome heckler, name unknown, has religiously attended the broadcasts. Each time a contestant has hesitated about trying a $64 question, this pestiferous patron of the quiz art has piped loudly enough for microphone pickup:

"You'll be sorry!" or "G'wan, take it!"

Producers of other quiz shows were grateful that this heckler confined his advice exclusively to one show. But last week on "Double or Nothing" a familiar voice rang through the rafters and sent chills racing down Producer Harry Holcombe's spine.

The heckler is at large and producers of "Vox Pop," "Battle of the Sexes," "How Am I Doing" and other quiz shows are setting up their deluxe questions in fear and trembling. That makes the folks who ask and the ones who answer about even.

Crosby, Hope & Charity

It's no longer "Faith, Hope and Charity" . . . it's "Crosby, Hope and Charity!"

Bing and Bob, radio's top-ranking golfers, and two stars who are always ready to aid a worthy cause, began a two-week-long pitch for the Red Cross this week with a series of exhibition golf dates in the Southwest.

Bing Crosby

Crosby, playing some of the best golf of his career, opened the charity tour Monday in Phoenix minus his NBC sidekick. Hope, under treatment at home since a sudden throat ailment almost forced him off his Pepsodent show at March Field, was confined to his North Hollywood home under physician's orders as Bing played the first date.

M-G-M's sparkler and Hollywood's newest newly-wed, Mickey Rooney, is handling Crosby's Kraft Music Hall chores while Bing is away for the broadcasts of Feb. 12 and 19.

As Radio Life went to press Hope's doctor telephoned that Bob should be well enough to join Bing late this week. The Crosby-Hope junket is scheduled for stops at San Antonio, Houston, and Dallas among other key cities.

Time's New Pattern

A change in format as drastic and spectacular as the change in the maps of the world has marked the March of Time broadcasts of the past two weeks.

Devoting two half-hour programs entirely to the dramatization of a single phase of "history in the making," the Blue Network's "Time" show appears to have evolved a new technique that is finding immediate public acceptance.

The March of Time's re-creation of the heroic saga of the U. S. Marines' defense of Wake Island was followed by another half-hour devoted to the high spots of Winston Churchill's career.

Further indication that the new pattern will be continued is the announcement this week that Alfred Butterfield, one of the nation's foremost news writers, has been brought into the March of Time radio fold for the purpose of developing out of the confused news of a world at war single events worthy of re-enactment in their entirety.

Hollywood Talk

"In Hollywood", avers Herbert Marshall, some words of common usage assume special significance. Convinced that such words should be compiled as addenda for ordinary, stuffy dictionaries, Marshall has turned amateur lexicographer and between rehearsals on his Old Gold show has crystallized the following definitions:

STAR—One who receives billing just below "Bank Night" on the theatre marquee.

VILLAIN—One who gets more jobs than a hero.

PRESS AGENT—East wind with a striped tie.

THE BROWN DERBY—A body of food entirely surrounded by actors!

AGENT—Fuller brush salesman without brushes.

PALM SPRINGS—Where Indian real estate operators are getting sweet revenge on paleface tourists for that historical $24 deal on Manhattan Island.

Handcuffs For Quizzes?

The fine hand of the U. S. government can be seen in the method most of the quiz-audience shows are utilizing in the selection of their contestants — selecting persons in various branches of the armed service, from the Red Cross, a ambulance driving units, etc.

CBS' Spelling Beeliner, headlining the Sage of Sardi's, Tom Breneman, has announced that it will no longer pick contestants at random from the studio audience. Instead Producer Paul Pierce will obtain two entries from various organizations aiding the Victory drive.

Horace Heidt was probably one of the first stars of quiz shows (NBC-KFI Treasure Chest) to go for guests from the armed service. Heidt has stressed not the men with bars on their shoulders or gold braid on their sleeves, but rather the non-commissioned officers and enlisted men.

This "playing it safe" method forestalls any chances of an innocent person unwittingly giving out information over the air that might be valuable to the enemy.

Fibber's Running Gag

That brick which Fibber McGee "might" have thrown through Mrs. Uppington's window is rapidly developing into the most hilarious radio mystery since the disappearance of Jack Benny's gas man long, long ago.

In addition to Fibber, who has every right to be concerned, Bob Hope, Red Skelton and Lum and Abner are beginning to take interest in the situation. Lum even added a best seller to his rental library shelves titled: "Who Heaved a Brick Through Missus Uppington's Window?"

Like the gas man, the vanished culprit may possibly be traced to the door of Carmichael's basement parlor.

KFI, 6:30 p.m., Tues.

Short Wave

LISTENING POST

By Earl G. De Haven

Thunder of war rose to a new crescendo in the southwest Pacific this week as the crisis-climax in the battle for Singapore developed hourly. Likewise the short-wave "war of words" became more bitter as Axis and ABCD powers traded verbal punches that fairly sizzled from radio towers in London, Tokyo, Rome, Berlin, and Melbourne.

"Radio Tokyo" JWV 7.24 Mc. continued to reiterate their claims that reports in American and British press of wholesale sinkings of Japanese transports in Macassar Strait were without any foundation. Insisted that FOUR (no more, no less), constituted their TOTAL LOSSES. Continued to claim complete aerial and naval supremacy in Greater East Asia war, and reported 85 Dutch planes blasted from the skies over the Netherlands Indies. Further claimed that initial full-scale "blitz" of Singapore by Japanese planes "set huge fires that burned fiercely for hours." "Not a single enemy plane challenged our fighters during the huge raid and all Japanese planes returned to their bases safely."

Fall of strategic Moulmein in Burma, and admission by B. B. C. in London of further advances by Japanese troops in that area is indicative of grave crisis facing both Britain and China. Quoting "Radio Tokyo" further: "Fall of Rangoon, a certainty in the near future, will seal the doom of Chiang Kai Shek and Chungking government by cutting off their only life-line, the Burma Road. Rangoon radio station already silenced as a result of aerial bombardment and complete collapse of British resistance in Burma is near."

Jane Anderson, Nazi firebrand propagandist of Berlin, deplores fall of United States into "England's cleverly set trap of 'Union NOW'" and fears America has become a vassal of Churchill's Britain. Heard on Sunday at 6 p. m. over German Short-wave Station DXJ 7.24 Mc. this "nasty Nazi" saves her dirtiest "bundles of BOOS!" —for Britain."

The "crack-pots of Potsdam" struck an almost humorous note in a tirade over the Anglo-Axis "sand-pile marathon" in Libya. QUOTE from Station "Y" at Paris in German occupied France: "Britain is deeply concerned over saving the outmoded Suez Canal —and we have both entrances blockaded—but who wants the old ditch anyway. Japan will soon accomplish Treasure Chest Maestro Heidt sells Defense Stamps at Defense House, Los Angeles, in preview of the idea which will feature his nationwide tour.

Horace Heidt

★ ★ HORACE HEIDT and his famous Musical Knights have been making nationwide "in person" tours for the past 15 years . . . but never one with the far-reaching significance of the coast-to-coast trek upon which the Heidt Brigade will embark in a fortnight.

Officially designated by the U. S. Treasury Department as "Minute Men for Defense," the Knights will play the nation's largest cities during their pilgrimage for the promotion of Defense Bonds and Stamps sales.

Heidt's idea to arouse more public interest among employees of large concerns in the payroll allotment plan (already adopted by Heidt's orchestra) and the sales of bonds and stamps through the entertainment medium was approved by Secretary of the Treasury Henry Morgenthau several weeks ago in Washington. During the nationwide tour members of the Heidt Brigade will make talks and entertain gratis in factories and schools, stressing the importance of purchasing "shares of freedom" consistently throughout the year. Don Quinn (he is Fibber and Molly's writer) and Mrs. Quinn trained east last Monday to get their baby! He's John Lewis Quinn, three months old, and is to be ready for delivery at the famous Evanston (Ill.) Cradle on Feb. 18. A year ago the Quinns filed their adoption application and oddly enough, the wee one they're taking was born on Don's birthday anniversary, Nov. 18. . . . Noon of Feb. 6 saw the "Big Town" cast aboard The Chief for New York, where the show will be aired for several weeks. Ona Munson hoped to rest on the train. She lost several carefully-accumulated pounds in the hectic rush of going-away preparations. . . . It rained incessantly in San Francisco, the hotel was picketed, George couldn't get away to escort her to the night spots, and the plane ride home was the bumpiest she'd ever experienced, "so next time I go away for a visit," resolved Gracie Allen returning from a week-end jaunt, "I'll stay home."

Newscasters' Notes: Mutual's John B. Hughes is preparing a story on Japanese social structure for a national pictorial magazine. He's being congratulated on successful fruition of his campaign to oust Japanese nationals from vital areas. Understand that he added two secretaries to care for additional mail pouring in during his crusade. Among those asking for information were navy officials! . . . Bob Garred (when does he get time to sleep?) has received a letter from Captain Bill Adams and men stationed at one of the Army's outposts in northernmost Alaska, telling the CBS reporter he is heard there nightly. The letter, censored, took five weeks en route to Hollywood. . . . Because William Shirer gets so upset when he listens to after-midnight news broadcasts and spends the rest of the night analyzing the reports, his wife, Tess, has decreed a private radio blackout for the Berlin-Diary-man.

How They're Doin' Dept.: Through her husband, Bob Sparks, who was a marine in World War I and is a V.F.W. member, Penny Singleton (Blondie) has joined the Van Nuys auxiliary and devotes two nights weekly relaying coffee and cookies to a searchlight platoon. As part of her "keep fit for national defense" program, Penny carries her vitamin and mineral tablets in a cute container resembling a tiny snuff box. . . . Because he was first Don Lee man to join up, Lieut. Mark Finley has received a pair of socks knit by Mrs. Wilbur Eickelberg, wife of the network's sales manager. Mark's in San Diego. . . . At opening of the first unit of the Volunteer Army Canteen Service at Fort MacArthur, Jack Benny pitched in and helped wash coffee mugs, while Mary Livingstone passed doughnuts "like mad." . . . Playing hostess to 20 sailors at Hollywood Tropics after her recent radio appearance, Madeleine Carroll spotted a party of sorority girls and arranged for a large scale "boy meets girl" situation. Need we add that the affair was an enormous success! Al Pearce, who has been forwarding midnight coffee to a searchlight platoon near his Hollywood hill-top home, invited 12 of the boys for an early supper, set up ping-pong tables, and heated the swimming pool for his guests.

Hail and Farewell: About March 4 Shirley Temple is dated for a CBS radio series based on the New York stage clicker, "Junior Miss." . . . "Captain Flagg and Sergeant Quirt" is replacing "Wings of Destiny." Vic McLaglen is taking leave of the show, which is produced by Mel Williamson (no relation to the sponsor, Brown & Williamson). . . . Rollie Thomas has moved his belongings from KHJ to KFI and Clete Roberts (formerly KMPC) is in charge of special events for the Blue Net. . . . Look for a return of Werner Janssen to conduct Standard Symphony.

Whatnot Subdivision: Folks on Chef Milani's new reducing diet averaged a 10-pound loss in five weeks. . . . Singer Dorothy McVitty, who won the Hour of Charm scholarship, has been made staff singer at WLW in Cincinnati. . . . Kay Kyser, watching Ginny Simms from the control booth of Bob Burns' show, was questioned about his nervousness. Kay said he wasn't worrying about Ginny but whether the show was going to come out even on time. . . . Edward Novis, voice teacher of Kenny Baker, coaches his "pupil" from New York by phone. Edward is brother of tenor Don Novis, now doing a come-back on NBC Saturday nights at 10:15.

Gildersleeve said it: "We're all in the army—the army that stands back of our soldiers, our sailors, our flyers—and the better we do our job, the sooner they'll finish with theirs!"

The Patient Rallies After Doctor Sponsor Orders "Shot in Arm"

"I've come to exchange insults with you" Edna May Oliver informs Bob Burns during rehearsal. "I've followed your career," she smirks, "from the time your bazooka was still a part of somebody's plumbing. In fact, when I first heard you play it, it still sounded like something had gone wrong under the kitchen sink."

CALLING Nurse Oliver! Calling Nurse Oliver! Lips tightened in her acrimonious smile, Edna May Oliver raps smartly on Bob Burns' hospital door.

"Here, get your feet under the covers," she commands peremptorily. "Those ARE your feet?" Eyebrows and tip-end of Nurse Oliver's nose rise superciliously. "Or do you have a DOG in bed with you?"

"No, ma'm." (Burns is meek) "Just feet."

"Hum!" withers Nurse Oliver. "They feel as though you had shoes on."

"Yes, ma'm." (Burns is apologetic). "The very idea!" scolds the angel of mercy. "Going to bed with your shoes on!"

"Oh, well," (Burns brightens) "they ain't my good ones."

Nurse Oliver sniffs disdainfully. "Come now, let me take your blood count. One, two, three, four, five, comrade! One, two, three, four, five, comrade!"

"Scuse me, nurse, but what's that 'five, comrade' for?" drawls Bazooka Burns.

"That's a red corpuscle!" snaps Nurse Oliver.

"W-e-l-l," (Burns is reluctant) mebbe I'm anaemic, 'cause when I went to the farmers' market yesterday, two turnips tried to squeeze me."

"Never mind." (Nurse is tart) "Swallow one of my famous sleeping pills. You take one of dese and doze."

Burns emits some husky snores into the microphone. Nurse smiles smugly at the efficacy of her tablets.

* * *

Radio listeners aren't dozing or snoring. They are grinning with Nurse Oliver, for her curdling remarks have contributed a requisite fillip, an indispensable spice, to Bob Burns' show.

Then for the dash of sugar, Ginny Simms pours out throbbing melody.

And that's how a show which was

"I think you're a be-you-tiful lady," Bob confesses to Ginny Simms, "and I'd like to play you Mussolini's theme song to Hitler: 'How Come You Do Me Like You Do, Do, Do.'" Charming Ginny isn't to be confused with one of Bob's kinsfolk, Aunt Peachy Sims of the Van Buren (Ark.), Sims, of whom he remarked: "I've seen better looking pans under an ice-box."

Ann Rutherford chats between times at rehearsal with Producer Thomas Freebairn-Smith. While she explains how long hours at the studio and defense work keep her scampering, Bob Burns interrupts. "What do you do in the remaining three hours? Just loaf? Seems to me like you ought to be able to get in some light work—like retreading tires."

BURNS BROADCAST

"Comes to Life"

By Evelyn Bigsby

"doing as well as can be expected" and "holding its own," has rallied right out of bed into vigorous life.

This condition of needing a pick-up for the program didn't reflect in the least on Bob Burns' capabilities. He's solid, with a unique brand of humor that strikes a responsive chord in American hearts. Successful, he's still humble. Backstage he eyes his shiny new bazooka, then says, "I don't want to mistreat the old bazooka on the way up. I might have to pass it on the way down."

But it's too tough an assignment for a radio comedian to carry a show alone. Ace Benny doesn't. He has Mary and Rochester, uses Announcer Don Wilson, Singer Dennis Day, Orchestra Leader Phil Harris as stooges, even made recent call on talents of Virgil, the sound effects man. Fibber McGee is supported by Molly, Mrs. Uppington, and Bill Thompson, man of many roles. Bob Hope relies on Jerry Colonna, Frances Langford, Betty Hutton, Skinny Ennis. Similarly ensconced are other laugh-fetchers.

Last fall, when Harold Peary (Gildersleeve) left Fibber McGee and Bob Burns departed the old Kraft Music Hall, both to star in their own programs, there was speculation on their ventures.

By the end of October, when a poll of radio listeners was tabulated, Burns was close on the heels of veteran Rudy Vallee, Blondie, and Dr. Christian, was ahead of Vox Pop, Al Pearce, and Gildersleeve, who also made a creditable showing ahead of Orson Welles, Helen Hayes, and Battle of the Sexes. But he trailed far behind the top notchers like Fibber, Charlie McCarthy, Benny, and Hope.

First of this year, Burns and Gildersleeve were neck and neck, were still behind Vallee, had passed Blondie and We, the People, were still ahead of Vox Pop, Al Pearce, and Battle of the Sexes. Gildersleeve, however, was fortified with such cast members as Lurene Tuttle (Marjorie), Earle Ross (Judge Booker) and Walter Tetley (Leroy). Burns' show hadn't been given the prescription of a supporting cast.

Now, the name of the Burns opus has been changed from "The Arkansas Traveler" to "Bob Burns' Show." Guest stars are being billed weekly and Ginny Simms has been called back for three repeat appearances. First night under the new arrangement enhanced Burns tremendously, his salty remarks scooped up brilliantly by Miss Oliver or falling softly against the foil of Simm-ish femininity.

It's better this way—The Traveler jogging along with companions—and radio listeners said so, because a mythical but mathematical 2½ more persons out of every hundred tuned to the re-vitalized show. An additional 1½ was believed to have dialed in for the second program.

It's just what the doctor ordered!

★ ★ KNX, 9:30 p.m.
Tues.

The night Ann Rutherford appeared on the show, she and Ginny ran a men's clothing shop, with Burns as a customer. "Sorry," the girls chorused, "we're conserving material. No double-breasted coats, no lapels, no pockets this year." "Mebbe," proffers Burns, after I pay my income tax I won't NEED pockets. You say no collars too? I wonder if I dare mention trousers!"

Billy Artzt, Burns' maestro, does "take" as Burns tells Ginny and Ann: "I got to be careful about what I wear. I'm in radio, and I have a large following." "Oh," soothes Ann, "we'll fix that so you won't notice it."

JOHNNY on the SPOT

By Johnny Whitehead

A Valentine that you will get
Is Lovely Jessica Dragonette
From Saturday Night Serenade—
A Valentine all ready-made,
For in Calcutta far away
She was born on Valentine's Day.

● Only other St. Valentine Day baby I've been able to locate to pair with Miss Jessica is Jack Benny who first blinked his eyes in Waukegan, Ill. Mary Livingstone Benny is verra sentimental about Jack's birthday and always surprises the Jello Jester with a large romantic valentine on Feb. 14. Also in the valentine department is Trudy Erwin, now chanting for Kay Kyser, who has succumbed to the romantic pleas of Murdo MacKenzie, NBC engineer, and is due for Feb. 14 middle aisle march. . . . Radio Row's top tale-teller, Benny Rubin, was seen eyeing a window of valentines on H'wood Blvd. for His Little Lady.

Jessica Dragonette

● Rumor Dept.: Dame Rumor has it that the Rudy Vallee show may soon boast not one, but three Barrymores. Sponsors were so elated over the airesponse to the Romeo-Juliet scene enacted recently by John and Dotter Diana that a deal is on the fire whereby John, Diana and Lionel will become regulars on Sealtestime. My personal guess is that Joan Davis will still steal the spotlight. She's THAT good!

● Breezy Briefs: Mutiny! Judy (Garland) and Dave Rose are sunning themselves on honeymoon in Miami, Fla. . . . Benny tops Charlie McCarthy on current Crossley poll release . . . Look Alikes—Batoneer Freddy Martin and Buddy Twiss. NBC chief announcer . . . Good Friends—Edward R. Murrow and Bill Henry . . . Great Slogan—Matt Weinstock's "Remember Carole Lombard—Buy Defense Bonds!" . . . Burgess Meredith is reported angling for a commission in the Army Air Corps. And the Airmen could use a radio-wise character like Buzz to good advantage . . . Add inveterate cigar smokers—Lou Costello and Ray Noble.

● Brief Dept.: They'll soon be augmenting the air wardens and fire wardens with sugar wardens—how about Frances Langford for the job? . . . Signal Carnival's Jack Carson has discovered a gal who wants to know what MacArthur is doing in the Philippines without Ben Hecht! . . . Most people think of Kay Kyser as "a little guy." Well, The Little Guy tips the beams at 185 pounds and has legs and shoulders on him like a heavyweight grappler. No wonder he wears his five-years-without-a-vacation so lightly. . . . The day Churchill was handed his overwhelming vote of confidence by Parliament, the Hollywood Citizen News headlined: "Churchill Wins—464 to 1!" Sighed Maestro Paul Neighbors, the wit: "Jeepers, wish I'd had two bucks on HIS nose!"

Kay Kyser

● Heard-and-Overheard Dept.: Hal Hopper, of the Music Maids and Hal, reports this sign on a H'wood charity knitting post: "Remember! Purl Harder!" . . . Mutual's John B. Hughes' snappy comeback to a fellow passenger on a Town House elevator who was complaining bitterly about "it looks like rain": "Better rain, my friend, than bombs!" . . . Joe (CBS Hi Neighbor Scriptor) Twerp telling Comedian Jackie Gleason about the sign he'd just seen on an aircraft building: "He who relaxes helps the 'Axis!'" . . . It's Ed Cashman's (he's the genial producer of the Lucky Strike Hour): "Let's make our next blackout—the eclipse of the rising sun!"

● Profile Dept.: Radio City is a great spot to bump into a Great Profile these days if you enjoy bumping into Great Profiles. I'm a little dizzy myself after running into not one, but three Great Profiles in one afternoon. There was the original, Jawn Barrymore, rehearsing his tomfoolery for the Rudy Vallee show. Then Basil Rathbone's classic sideview came into range. And if that wasn't enough profiles for one afternoon, into Studio B walked Francis X. Bushman, now on the Sherlock Holmes show.

Francica White—prima donna of Telephone Hour.

RADIO'S Bachelor Girl

By John Whitehead

*Francica White Snubs Dan Cupid
Enroute to Fame and Fortune*

THE usual requisite for attaining a goodly amount of success in the musical field as far as sopranos are concerned is to have left at least one or two husbands behind in the dim but not too distant past, a long line of broken hearts and a series of spectacular experiences with Dan Cupid.

That was B. F. W.—Before Francica White.

All of which, as a starting conclusion, makes the lovely soprano star of the Sunday Telephone Hour over NBC's transcontinental network, something just short of a phenomenon.

For here is Francica White, at the right pretty age of 32 summers, one of the most talked of sopranos in the country, and the co-star with Tenor James Melton of one of radio's most successful programs, unable to shake any romantic skeletons out of her closets to make the fan magazine writers happy and grab headlines for herself.

The only big romance of Francica's life has been music, and it's always been that way for the 5-foot 3-inch, brown-haired, brown-eyed Telephone Hour star who practiced her do-re-mi's a few doors away from the Whitehead family home in Covina years ago.

Attractive and well poised for a youngster of 15, Francica even in her high school freshman days at Covina was far too wrapped up in trills and cadenzas to notice the admiring glances of the male students on the campus.

Francica, as I remember her in "the Covina era," could almost always be found in the music room at high school or in the drama department. Joseph Ainley, now one of Chicago's outstanding radio producers who was head of the music department at Covina Union High School when Francica was in school, used to encourage Francica to play tennis when he felt she was doing a little too much singing. On the court, Francica possessed the same fine sense of timing and relaxed breathing control that have always shown to advantage in front of the microphone.

When in 1940 Francica was signed to co-star with James Melton on the Telephone Hour in New York, a group of Francica's old friends in Covina drafted a letter to Mrs. Phoebe Ara White, Francica's mother, inviting the star to do a concert on the stage of the high school auditorium in Covina where Francica first began demonstrating her talents in the leads in high school operettas. I'll never forget the evening when Francica came back to her home town for a farewell appearance before entraining for New York.

People from near and far, old friends and new friends, youngsters who had heard the legend of Francica White but who had never seen her in person, jammed the Covina high school auditorium to the rafters to see and hear the little country girl who was making good in big-time music circles.

And the tiny soprano sang magnificently. For two hours Francica sang the classics, light opera tunes and the English folk songs that have won her much of her popularity.

Francica never mentioned her "home town" until just before her final song. She stepped out of the wings after a tremendous ovation, up to the foot-light railing at the edge of the stage and said simply:

"I love all of you for having me here to sing and please remember my songs will always be for you out here in Covina."

With that she dedicated her final number to "Aunt Ellen."

Everyone in the audience knew whom she meant by "Aunt Ellen" for "Aunt Ellen" is as famous in Covina as Francica White and Harold Teen.

One of the first persons to take a personal interest in Francica's talents as a young girl in Covina was "Aunt Ellen" Beach Yaw, one of the big name sopranos of the era just prior to World War I. Known the world over as Lark Ellen, the famous singer became "Aunt Ellen" to her friends in Covina when she settled there after a long, successful career on the stage.

Ellen Beach Yaw and Francica's mother had been friends for many years when the Whites lived in Texas, and when Francica was 5 years old "Aunt Ellen" persuaded Mrs. White to come to Covina to live.

Mrs. Phoebe Ara White, for many years a voice teacher and who had given up ambitions for an operatic career years before to marry, decided when she brought Francica to Covina that she would devote her time to teaching her daughter the singing art.

Encouraged by "Aunt Ellen," who saw great possibilities in the child's vocal talents even before Francica was out of grammar school, Mrs. White began spending more and more time on the development of Francica's voice.

While still a junior in high school Francica was being paged by Los Angeles music critics for guest appearances with the Los Angeles Philharmonic Orchestra.

At 19 she was selected to sing the

WISH

A feature of our Sardi's show is the awarding of a lovely silver Wishing Ring, designed especially for the program.

In a dramatic and serious ceremony, we fit the ring on the proper finger of the guest winning it, have everyone in the restaurant and on the air wish along with her that her wish—and it must be a very personal one—comes true.

Tom Breneman

Winner of a couple of days ago closed her eyes, breathed deeply, then wished in a voice vibrant with longing: "My wish is for a new set of tires."

OBSERVANT

Idea of KHJ's swell Continuous Newsreel, as you know, is that Newscaster Norman Nesbitt's 15 minute news show is repeated four times in a row. As is explained several times on each program, you tune in anytime between 10 and 11 p. m., listen for 15 minutes, tune out where you came in.

Well, in a morning mail of this week came a classic observation of the program. Norm showed me the letter—this is how it went:

"Station KHJ, Los Angeles. Gentlemen: I like your Continuous program very much. I listen to it for a full hour every night, and have been doing so for weeks. But there is something about it that I thought you should be told about. I don't want to be in the class of a tattle-tale, but—on three occasions in the last few weeks I am sure that Mr. Nesbitt got his script mixed up and repeated the very same news items on the program."

ARF ARF

Pinto Colvig, famed voice of Pluto of the films, has been doing quite a bit of mike work on quite a few shows. And doing a marvelous job—some program is going to hand him a real part and come up with a new air star.

But Pinto isn't happy with the good job he's doing in radio. Here's how he explained the why of that to me:

"I was in pictures years and years—and what did I do? Chiefly, I barked. As Pluto. As the Hound of the Baskervilles. As a dozen other long or short haired four legged characters. But I graduated to a few other sounds—spitting like a grasshopper, burping like an off-the-wagon bug, for example.

"Now, all I ask out of radio is that I get an opportunity to make a few other sounds than barks. And, maybe, just maybe I say, someday," (Pinto's eyes were flaming with a wild, other-world fire at this point) "maybe someday they'll even let me do something absolutely out of role, that I've always wanted to try . . . talk in a human voice."

Radio Revives Legion

Belying any idea that religion is dead or slipping, is the fact that one of the fastest growing and already one of the largest of all types of broadcasting is the religious aircast. Of recent years, broadcasting alone has been responsible for the construction of complete churches, and the rehabilitation of many a weak parish, as a result of contributions mailed in by appreciative listeners.

An example of a radio-built church is the "Firebrands for Jesus Tabernacle" at the corner of 63rd and Broadway. Two years ago Pastor Earl Ivie began his air ministry over station KFOX. Today his air schedule includes a daily 45-minute aircast, a Sunday afternoon period, and a new hour and a half program on Tuesday nights. From his experience, Rev. Ivie can say, "The radio is God's greatest medium of getting the gospel of the Lord Jesus Christ out to the hearts of the people today. It is the cheapest means and therefore the most helpful in religious work."

Recalling cures and "miracles" wrought at old world shrines, Rev. Ivie briefly points to thousands of letters received from listeners, mentioning healing they have received directly by radio. The Ivie broadcasts are now given from the church by remote control, where visitors are welcome.

Radio Life CONSUMERS' CLUB

Directed By Chef Milani

THE LADY OF THE HOUSE:

Once upon a time there was a man called Markham who thought he knew all about women. He even published a book about what every housewife should be. Of course, that was way back in 1675, but even today we think you ladies will appreciate it. The title page of Markham's book went like this:

Chef Milani

"The English housewife; containing the inward and outward Vertues which ought to be in a Compleat Woman; as to her skill in Physick, Chiruregery, Cookery, Extraction of Oyls, Banquetting stuff, Ordering of great Feasts, Preserving of all sorts of Wines, conceited Secrets, Distillations, Perfumes, Ordering of Wool, Hemp, Flax: Making Cloth and Dying; the Knowledge of Dayries: Office of Malting; of Oats, their excellent uses in Families: of Brewing, Baking, and all other things belonging to an household.—A Work generally approved, and now the Eighth time much augmented, Purged, and made most profitable and necessary for all men, and the general good of this Nation."

Well, ladies, are you up to it?

AN APPLE A DAY:

In spite of the fact that "an apple a day keeps the doctor away," the medical profession and the humble apple have finally joined forces. It's all due to the recent discovery of scientists that the pectin made from apples can be used in blood transfusions.

Apple pectin, in case you didn't know, is what is left of the apple after it has been through a cider press. This extracted pectin is then used to extend the supply of blood in transfusions, and when used in the dressing of wounds, it helps to quicken the healing process.

Up to date, America has sent 831,000 pounds of the apple pomace to England. It is from this pomace that pectin is extracted, and then—to end the thing up right—the presscake that is left is used as stock feed for cattle.

It seems that the apple plus men of medicine and scientists equals a formula that's going to be mighty useful in winning this war.

TABLE MANNERS:

Table manners, we are told, are comparatively young. Evidently, it's one of the later offspring of our complicated society. Time was when the cave man sat himself down to a simple meal at which his table manners consisted of tearing his meat with his fingers. And he was a happy, healthy man!

Today, when we dine with the Joneses, we find ourselves wondering whether a spoon or a fork is used for the melon, and if olives may be taken with the fingers. Furtively, we watch the next fellow to see what he is doing, only to find that he is regarding us just as earnestly and for the same reason.

Society being what it is, here are a few rules to follow:

All fish is cut with a fork, except lobster, which has a tougher texture, and should be cut with a knife!

Lettuce leaves may never be cut with a knife, even if they are so large and unwieldy as to make cutting with a fork impossible. It's too bad, but it can't be helped.

The fork is used for ices, frozen puddings and melons.

A spoon is called for when grapefruit, fruits with cream, or boiled eggs are served.

For any dish not mentioned, just use the process of elimination, and you will probably arrive at the right conclusion. In the meantime, let us hope for the return of those Utopian days of the Cave Man.

Recipe for Baked Noodles with Onion and Bacon

2 lbs. of beef from the chuck
1 twelve oz. package of noodles
1 large onion and a sprig of parsley
3 slices of Wilson's Old-Fashioned Bacon

First cut 2 lbs. of beef from the chuck into two inch pieces. Braize the beef with 3 slices of Wilson's Old-Fashioned Bacon chopped up. As soon as the beef is brown on all sides, take from the pan and saute in the bacon drippings, 1 onion and a sprig of parsley chopped up. Then season with 1 1/2 tsp. of salt and 1/8 tsp. of pepper. Next put meat back in the pot with onion, bacon, and parsley. Now cover with water, about 1/4 inch above the meat. Let simmer until meat is done and tender. Then boil 1 12-oz. package of noodles in 1 qt. of boiling water, and cook until noodles are tender. Now drain noodles and put in a casserole. Pour the sauce over the noodles and place the meat on top. Finally cover, and bake for 20 minutes at 350 degrees.

ADVENTURES IN MELODY—Orchestra.
HEARD: Wednesday, KHJ, DLBS, 8:30 p.m. (30 min.).

Composer-conductor-arranger Dave Rose directs an appealing musical interlude much on the Kostelanetz order, with strings predominating. His arrangements "make" the program and give the impression of many more men playing than are. Betty Rhodes does the solo stint.

Thursday, Feb. 19

KRAFT MUSIC HALL—Variety.
HEARD: Thursday, KFI, 6 p.m. (1 hour).

While Bing Crosby is junketing on a Red Cross benefit golf tour in Arizona and Texas with Bob Hope, Mickey Rooney takes over as master of the Hall.

BIG TOWN—Drama.
HEARD: Thursday, KNX, 6:30 p.m. (30 min.).

Aired from New York is "Just Troupers," the story of an old vaudeville headliner and an army camp show.

RUDY VALLEE—Variety.
HEARD: Thursday, KECA, 7 p.m. (30 min.).

Humphrey Bogart guest-stars in a high-powered comedy, "The Big Hold-Up."

STANDARD SYMPHONY.
HEARD: Thursday, KHJ, DLBS, 8 p.m. (1 hour).

Program Feb. 19: "Overture" to "Barber of Seville," Rossini; "Scheherazade," Rimsky-Korsakov; "Serenade for Strings," Herbert; "Impressions of Italy," Charpentier; "Les Erinnyes," Massenet. Pierre Monteux conducting.

DEATH VALLEY DAYS—Drama.
HEARD: Thursday, KNX, 9:30 p.m. (30 min.).

Tonight the Old Ranger dramatizes what promises to be one of the most intriguing stories of the series. Entitled, "Ten In Texas," it is the exciting, true history of the famous XIT ranch which was assigned as payment for the state capitol building. Don't miss this.

Friday, Feb. 20

MUSIC DEPRECIATION—Popular Music.
HEARD: Friday, KHJ, DLBS, 4:45 p.m. (15 min.).

With fanfare of classical intent, a number of "low-down jive" numbers are introduced in what, we think, is a very clever program of Lower Basin Street Music. Bill Davidson is the commentator.

FIGHTS.
HEARD: Friday, KHJ, DLBS, 7 p.m. to conclusion.

Ray Robinson vs. Maxie Berger in a non-title, 12-round bout from Madison Square Garden.

PHILIP MORRIS PLAYHOUSE—Drama.
HEARD: Friday, KNX, 8:30 p.m. (30 min.).

Brian Donlevy is set for a tentative appearance.

Saturday, Feb. 21

CONSUMER TIPS—Educational, Informative.
HEARD: Saturday, KFI, 9:15 a.m. (15 min.).

Under supervision of the U. S. Department of Agriculture, a dramatic treatment is presented on "Taking Care of Your Woolens" and "Facts About Flashlights."

RACING.
HEARD: Saturday, KHJ, DLBS, 1:30 p.m. (30 min.).

The McLennan Handicap from Hialeah Park.

CHICAGO THEATER OF THE AIR—Operetta.
HEARD: Saturday, KHJ, DLBS, 5:15 p.m. (1 hour).

Jan Peerce and Marion Claire co-star in "Rose of Algiers."

NEW BRENEMAN NEWS PROGRAM

The Master Photo Finishers, who develop and print pictures left at the neighborhood drug store, will present this new program over KNX, Sunday nights, 9:00 to 9:30 p. m. with Radio Life Columnist Tom Breneman as master of ceremonies.

Prizes up to $150 weekly will be offered to winners who pick up free ("no obligation") cards at all drug stores.

With news, audience participation at home, and contest cash all tied in one, the show looks like a high spot of Sunday night listening from here on.

South of Border

Ken and Wen Niles, two of radio's top announcers who spend most of their spare moments together, are off on a two-week hunting trip into Mexico.

Chicken Fricassee

A real chicken dinner in a 29-oz. jumbo tin. Tender chicken with gravy and giblets, ready to serve by heating. Great with hot biscuits or dumplings. Be sure to get LYNDEN'S.

blockade of India, making Suez of no value."

In "rebuttal" as it were in this world-wide ABCD-Axis debate, London through GSC 9.58 Mc. defends her inability to make a better showing in the Pacific war by advancing the "race against time" argument. "Many planes originally earmarked for our use were diverted to Russia, to insure success of her gallant and heroic fight against the Nazis. In TIME, planes, tanks, and other war supplies will be coming to us in great quantities from the United States to turn the tide of victory once again in our favor."

Nazi air activity over England is at an all time low, according to this same B. B. C. station GSC. "There was but little air activity over this country tonight—one German plane appeared over a south coast town, but dropped no bombs." This is typical of current reports from London on the now waning "battle of Britain."

War Extras of Los Angeles metropolitan "dailies" carry "lead story" (as this RADIO LIFE column is written), of U. S. Hospital ship "Actan" bearing wounded U. S. soldiers from Manila to Darwin, Australia, as having been bombed "nine times in one day." Twenty-four hours EARLIER "Radio Tokyo" carried news item announcing arrival of this same "Actan" in Darwin, with the statement, QUOTE: "The Actan was guaranteed safe passage to Australia by the Japanese government in face of the fact that a Japanese hospital ship was fired upon by an American vessel a few days ago. We returned GOOD for EVIL." Take your choice of these two stories, reader-listeners. And so the propaganda FLIES,—Quick boy, the FLIT to kill these lies!

Bachelor Girl

prima donna role in the Philharmonic's grand opera presentations at the Hollywood Bowl. Later, the same season Max Reinhardt engaged her for his distinguished production of "Midsummer Night's Dream," and on the strength of this performance Francia was signed by movie producers to sing the role of Jenny Lind.

One of the big factors in Francia's current success with James Melton and Don Voorhees' orchestra on the Telephone Hour from New York's NBC Radio City is her even temperament.

Francia is no "prima donna" in the Hollywood interpretation of the phrase. She goes in for none of the emotional display that characterizes the off-the-stage performances of many operatic singers. She is so completely devoid of the usual operatic mannerisms that Frances Scully, one of the West Coast's foremost fashion writers who spent a great deal of time with the soprano star when she appeared with Nelson Eddy on the Palmolive shows several years ago, was prompted to make the observation that "Francia White is a prima donna who isn't a 'prima donna'!"

Living in a New York penthouse, which is a long jump from a little orange tree-surrounded cottage in Covina, the prima donna of the Telephone Hour is still content to live a bachelor girl existence, for as Francia puts it, "with broadcasts, rehearsals, lessons and occasional operatic performances in Philadelphia and now my army camp appearances there's hardly time to think about romance."

Get Acquainted, Girls!

Mary Lou Cook, femme member of the New Old Gold's Merry Macs, hails from the same town as Francia White, Telephone Hour star,—Covina, but the girls have never met each other.

Interest in Igor

Several deals are in the making for Igor Gorin to return to one of the major networks as singing star of a series of musical comedies emanating from New York.

From West Point

Nelson Pringle, CBS-KNX early-morning news analysis, draws upon a West Point background of Army training for his sharp, authoritative comments on military operations.

Lane Plays Safe

Dave Lane, 5-foot singer on KNX shows and a protege of Al Pearce, has sent to his Charlotte, N. C. home for his clothes now that CBS producers have assured him that he looks like a permanent fixture here.

Freddy Gets Raves

Freddy Nagel, Sigma Nu pride from the Stanford campus and college chum of Ben (NBC) Alexander, is drawing raves from Chicago dance critics for his orchestra's airings over WGN-Mutual from the Trianon.

Alice's Finale

Alice Faye's appearance on Cecil B. DeMille's Lux Radio Theater the other night on CBS was probably the final public performance of Mrs. Phil Harris before she becomes a mother early in March.

KNX, 6 p.m. Mon.

Trotter's Tune

Bing Crosby's roly-poly maker of music, John Scott Trotter, and Carroll Carroll, scripter of NBC's Kraft Music Hall, have collaborated on a new tune, "Only For Tomorrow," which is in the throes of being published.

SILKS

should be preserved by gentle but effective cleansing methods. Bobrick's Ammonia insures longer wear from stockings and silk garments by neutralizing and removing perspiration acids.

Real McCoy Martha

Martha Wentworth, who plays the "Duchess" in the Blue Network's new "Red Ryder" series, can speak every known dialect. Known as the actress with 100 voices, she at one time won the role of a Japanese woman in competition with three Japanese actresses.

Years ago at KHJ after doing an imitation of Mae West on the air, the motion picture star called Miss Wentworth on the telephone and said she had to look twice at herself in the mirror to make sure SHE was Mae West.

Mother Trouble

Michael Fitzmaurice, onetime announcer-actor on West Coast and now playing the role of Phil Stanley on NBC's "When a Girl Marries," is having mother trouble. His mother, who happens to be stationed in the Red Cross booth in the RCA building where Fitzmaurice does his show twice a day, nabs her son for contributions every time he passes her station—and Michael is complaining that he's running out of money!

KFI, 2 p.m. Mon.-Fri.

Bing's Nags in Ark

Bing Crosby has sent his 8-horse string to Oaklawn Park in Hot Springs, Ark., for the important race meeting.

Friday the 13th Jinx Defied

*Big Town's Steve Wilson
Laughs at Lorelei and Superstitions*

A bra-a-a-ave man, that Steve Wilson!
Friday the 13th—a day of time-honored superstitions—doesn't mean a thing to Edward G. Robinson, the slam-bang city editor, Steve Wilson, of CBS-KNX's "Big Town." Just to prove that he holds in utter contempt the superstitions which worry most people to tears on Friday the 13th, Robinson went on a mirror-cracking, salt-spilling spree for the benefit of Radio Life's cameraman. The Big Town Terror augmented his activities shown here by lighting three cigarettes on one match. Nothing's happened—yet!

"It's bad luck to stand under an open umbrella in the house—everybody knows that," Lorelei holds out as Steve shows contempt for an open umbrella.

"It's bad luck to spill salt," insists Ona (Lorelei) Munson. "It's worse luck to spill sugar," declares our hero.

"The only kind of a ladder you have to worry about walking under," explains Steve, "is the kind that might have a bucket of paint or a keg of nails wavering on top."

"Now you've done it," excitedly shouts Lorelei. "Breaking a mirror like that is 7 years bad luck." Editor Wilson's retort perfect is: "It should happen to Hitler!"
