... and the MUSIC STATION

for all Southern California is

KFAC

MORE than a decade ago KFAC responded to the demand for a station in the Los Angeles area that featured better music. Eighty-five percent of our time is now devoted to outstanding musical programs. With this area rapidly becoming one of the cultural centers of the world our policy has been successful. We are proud to list some of the largest firms in the West among our regular advertisers—and they stay with us.

Fanny Schuelein, 168 North Mansfield Avenue, Los Angeles 36, Calif.

Sirs: I went to see the teacher. Yes, I am talking about Chef Milani and his faithful assistant, Lou Mar-celle, on KFWB. I have been a student of the cooking school for a long time, and I was familiar with the contest which asks listeners to send in recipes, and the best one of the day is chosen. Recently I was one of the pupils of Kitchen Kollege asked to appear at the microphone. I admit I was scared stiff, but it certainly was one of my most thrilling experiences. I am grateful to Chef Milani not only because I was a prize-winner, but also that I was allowed to see how gracefully and charmingly the program is managed.

Sirs: Why couldn't we have a story about the entire "Scouting Trail" group? They give us and our American boys some worthwhile programs.

Tell us about the radio scoutmaster. Clem Glass; Lyle Bond, the announcer; the bugler, Fred Webb; comedians Bill Wait and David De-Haven, along with Mr. Mitchell and his boychoir.

Request noted.

Fanny Schuelein, 168 North Mansfield Avenue, Los Angeles 36, Calif.

Sirs: I want to thank you very much for the feature, "They Can't Stand Jack Benny" in Radio Life. To many of us it was hard to understand. Thanks to Evelyn Bigsby for giving us the enlightening article on it and some of the clever entries. Many contest lovers, and I am one of them, are so used to praising a product or raving about a person-ality, that it was difficult to enter at all. I admit I did not even attempt to find fault with this witty Sunday friend. Now I'll know better how to handle a negative contest. It was unique and clever, it will have a large following in the same line.

Sirs: Recently in Radio Life there have been so many complaints about the time "One Man's Family" is on the air. Personally I think the time is perfect and hope it will never be changed because it is over before guests arrive. For those who cannot listen at that time, I think it would be very nice if there could be a rebroadcast by transcription, at a later hour if possible.

I am very sorry that "It Pays to be Ignorant" left the air. More of that kind of program and less crime stories, is my request. I also miss Evelyn Bigsby's broadcast.

Lucy Jones, Pacoima, Calif.

Sirs: Would like to know what has happened to Nora Martin who used to sing on the Eddie Cantor show.

Nora has been "on the road." She hopes to be back on the air soon.

Mrs. Oscar Lund, 609 East Broadway, Long Beach 3, California

Sirs: Oh, please liberate us from the repulsive habit of hearing the the repuisive habit of hearing the same contestants on audience participation shows! There is one character in particular who has appeared on numerous programs ("GE Houseparty," "Meet the Missus," "What's Doin' Ladies?", "What's the Name of That Song?", and "Queen for a Day."

jealousy in this regard, only it is monotonous to hear the same individual make his appearance day after day on different radio programs. Thanks for your assistance—we know it will help.

The enices of oudenee-participation shows are all faced with the problem of repeaters and "professional contestants." Many times they can be disregarded, but some manage to get on the air regardless. The poor enicee cannot be improcious and incur the writh of a high studio and others of the air audience who may not be as aware. But most of these "professional" contestants have become known to the emeces, who do their best to combat the problem. We think your letter will help.

Marjorie Phillips, 118 South Stanford Way, Whittier, Calif.

Sirs: I really would like to enter a protest against the "suds-sobbers." So often during the day I am faced with the alternative of switching my radio off or listening to sobbing, whining, hysterical women. After fifteen minutes of "John's Second Wife's Third Cousin," I desperately feel the need of a good psychlatrist to keep from going neurotic, too. Such programs as Edgar Harrison Wileman's "Backgrounds for Living," "This Changing World," "What Do You Say?" and "Hollywood Fan Magazine" are really a boon while dusting the furniture.

Doris Crawford, Arlington, California

Sirs: I like Diggin' Discs with Jack Lawson very much and wish it could be in each issue or, at least, more often.

Would you please have Perry Como on the cover and an up-to-date article soon—and maybe a picture of his family? We liked the article last fall, but if you'll read it, you'll find that he has made so much progress in the last few months that the article seems older than it is. And we'd like a good picture on the cover, though that other one was super.

Why doesn't Chesterfield let him broadcast from the Pacific Coast when making a picture instead of getting such poor substitutes? When Perry isn't on, we just don't listenincluding Jo Stafforo's nights.

Radio Life always profers doing its stories first hand and hopes to interview Perry when his scheduled trip west takes place.

Florence Stevenson, 16 Grant Street, Redlands, Calif.

Sirs: I would like to ask for a "special request" that some week in the future, you print an article about Miss Evelyn MacGregor with her picture. She is my favorite radio artist, and I feel sure her admirers would be pleased to read about her. The Evelyn MacGregor Fan Club was organized on August 15th, 1945. There are many California members.

Barbara Lewis, Altadena, California

Sirs: Do miss Janet Waldo's "Corliss Archer." It was so refreshing, clean and fine for our 'teen-agers. Hope she will soon be back in it.

Looks like Janet will be back soon as "Corliss." Radio Life will precast the date of the show's return.

Our thanks for the letters, phone calls, and visits to our new Hollywood House. And thanks for dialing KGFJ. The response of RADIO LIFE readers is very gratifying.

You're seeing it an billboards . . .
hearing it from your friends . . . All over Los Angeles people are getting the 790 habit, finding something new that they like on KECA. Hollywood's glamourous beauties are no exception:

PAULETTE GODDARD says: "When I'm in the Mood for Radio, I Tune 790 First."
GINGER ROGERS says: "More and More, I'm Leaving My Radio Dial at 790."

People are switching to 790 because the shows that are making news in radio are on KECA-ABC:
Theatre Guild on the Air, Alan Young, This Is Your FBI, Breakfast in Hollywood, Enchantment, Radio Hall of Fame, Dark Venture, Fat Man, Bride and Groom, Murder Will Out and scores more. For the really new things in radio, follow the listening habits of Hollywood's film lovelies: DIAL 790 FIRST.

BREAKFAST TIME AT THE GILDERSLEEVE HOUSEHOLD finds Uncle Mort (Hal Peary) fortifying himself with plenty of food against a difficult day as Summerfield's Water Commissioner. "Somebody" has just let the toast burn and Birdie (Lillian Randolph) is opening the window to let out the smoke. Marjorie (Louise Erickson) and Leroy (Walter Tetley) assume milfed airs as Gildy sputters: "Seems I can't eat even a piece of thin, dry toast without general disapproval. But don't mind me—I just pay the bills around here!"

—Gene Lester Photos

Sunday. 8 p.m. NBC-KF1-KFSD

OT QUITE five years ago, a well-loved character stepped from the cast of Fibber McGee and Molly to star in a show of his own. Hal Peary's "Gildersleeve" became nucleus for a delightful, plausible, situation-type comedy program laid in the town of Summerfield, where "Uncle Throckmorton" and his family, Niece Marjorie, Nephew Leroy, and cook, Birdie, get in and out of more situations with themselves and the townspeople than Writers Sam Moore and John Whedon ever experienced in real life.

THE DOORBELL INTERRUPTS THIS pleasant scene and in walks Widow Leila Ransome (Shirley Mitchell). She's just been to see the palm-reader, Sartorius, who's told her she'll "come into a sum of money within three months"—"and that in itself is uncanny" drawls Leila, "because I was just WISHING I had some money." She's already bought a Persian lamb coat on strength of Sartorius' prediction.

THROCKMORTON DISCREDITS SARTORIUS' POWERS, calls him a faker. He decides to consult his friend, Judge Hooker, and notify the police department. "You're SO conservative", replies Leila to Gildy. "But you'll see! When I'm wearing my new coat and driving around town in my new blue convertible, you'll wish you'd..."

They Burn His Toast, Scott At His Advice, Which Makes Him a Character—and One to Whom Millions Like to Listen

GILDERSLEEVE AND JUDGE HOOKER (Earle Ross) invade the barber shop of Floyd (Arthur Q. Bryan, rear) and as a committee of two they upbraid Chief of Police Gates (Ken Christy; in chair) for allowing "phonies" to operate in Summerfield. "Before you get moving, it wouldn't surprise me to see the City Hall taken over by gypsies!", scolds Gildy.

SARTORIUS STARTS TO read Gildersleeve's palm, but stops abruptly and orders his assistant, Kalinga, to return the gentleman's two dollars and show him out the door. "He was smart", says Gildy. "He knew I was someone im-portant and he didn't dare take my money."

Lovable "Gildy" and his friends, invariably ranking among radio's top fifteen shows, consistently held listeners' interest this, their fifth year, with ratings anywhere from a fat 16.9 to a lush 19.7.

A typical "Gildersleeve" script, "televised" for Radio Lifers in the accompanying photographs, also serves to picture some of the cast members.

GILDY GOES HOME, feeling somewhat better, when Leila rushes in. "Throckmorton, it's happened! I got a special delivery letter about some old stock Beauregard left me. It's suddenly worth a fortune. Just like the man said: Isn't it thrilling?

CHIEF GATES IS FINALLY aroused to do something about

Sartorius and his racket, but he's short-handed for men-

We can't agree with lovely blueeyed Audrey Pearce about the "blow". Because somehow the big, shining white house does remind one of a castle perched atop a high hill —surveying the jeweled city below it. And who better to inhabit it than the Duke and the Captain!

"We love it," explained Audrey, "because the eight years we've spent

THE CHARM OF THE Pearces irresistibly draws their numerous friends up that steep hill. "Or maybe it's the smell of Al's barbecue wasting down," grinned Audrey.

Its 3rd Annual

Distinguished

Achievement

Awards

"Theater Guild"

S RADIO LIFE concludes its sixth year of publication, it issues, for the third consecutive year, its Distinguished Achievement Awards. These recognitions, unlike the usual popularity polls, are bestowed by Radio Life upon those radio programs and personalities which, in its studied opinion, deserve signal honor for progress and achievement during the past twelve

In conferring these honors, the staff took many factors into consideration. Scripts were read and reread, performers were observed at the microphone and listened to at the loudspeaker. In some instances, choice was exceedingly difficult, but decision was arrived by secret ballot of staff members. Hence, the votes represent a majority opinion.

The problem of outstanding performers and radio craftsmen winning awards several years in succession was, perhaps, the most difficult with which to cope. After due consideration, we have tried to stimulate effort and reward rising ability by shifting some of the awards from "repeat" winners to others in the same classification who have shown distinguished merit during the year just passed.

Congratulations to winners of the 1946 Awards, and may many more be worthy candidates in 1947.

Brothers' Farewell

Beloved 63-year-old actor Noah Beery Sr., died last Monday morning in the arms of his brother, actor Wallace. They were to have appeared together that same evening (with Wally's young adopted daughter, Carol Ann, in her first big ether role) on CBS' "Lux Radio Theater." The day was also Wally's birthday, and a party had been held the night before, as the brothers believed they would be too busy with their broadcast the following day.

Noah Sr., whose last appearance was in the Broadway version of "Up in Central Park," was planning on visiting the coast only until the play opened in Chicago.

Following his sudden death, Beery's role on the "Lux" show was taken by actor Ed Max, while Wally and Carol

Ann went on with their scheduled performance in the true trouper tradition of "the show must go on."

At the conclusion of the "Lux" hour, producer William Keighley stepped to the microphone to pay tribute to the departed actor:

"It is with deepest sorrow that we announce the sudden passing of a beloved man and a truly fine actor, Noah Beery, who was to have been a member of our cast. Our heart-felt sympathies go to his brother, Wally, who true to the traditions of a high profession has appeared with us tonight."

It was Wally's birthday, too, but the occasion was saddened by the sudden death of the actor's actor-brother, Noah Beery, Sr., who was also to have appeared on the "Lux" show. SURPRISE VISITOR backstage at CBS' Joan Davis show last week was Mickey Rooney, newly-returned to his favorite casual civilian garb. Dynamo Rooney didn't waste any time, either. Not only did he deliver the above bunny-hug to Joannie, but also plugged his latest song for Andy Russell. (See story in Radio West).

to be ordained a rector in the Episcopal Church next fall.

Wanna Buy a Song?

CBS' Joan Davis played hostess to star Mickey Rooney, who visited the ether comedienne last week backstage at her airshow. Mickey, appearing in civvies again, was the life of the gang... but he didn't come in the capacity of actor. He was strictly a song plugger that night, complete with a new song in his hand. "It's my latest ditty," quipped Rooney, "and I'm interested in getting Andy Russell interested in it."

What about it, Andy?

Hats! Hats! Hats!

More than fifteen hundred feminine radio fans—and a sprinkling of courageous males—crowded into the Little Theater of the Broadway-Hollywood Department Store the other day to witness and take part in the first auction of hats in ABC's national Tom Breneman-Hedda Hopper hat contest. Hedda and Tom were on hand to help with the auction, and the first chapeau on the block brought in $1000. Proceeds from this, and the other auctions to follow, will be donated to the Braille Institute of America, Inc., which will use the money for the rehabilitation of blind war veterans.

Declared Mrs. Ramey of Davenport, Iowa, who gave the thousand dollars for the first hat (one of attractively woven red cellophane, with a white ribbon): "None of us can spend too much on the boys who came back, in memory of those who remained."

For Corwin

Norman Corwin, CBS writer-producer and first winner of the Wendell Willkie One World Award, was given a testimonial dinner last week, prior to his departure on his globe-circling jaunt. The dinner was given at the Beverly Wilshire Hotel by five hundred radio workers, and featured a program sponsored jointly by the Hollywood Independent Citizens Committee of Arts, Science and Professions and the California Committee for Radio Freedom.

At the program's conclusion, Paul Robeson presented to Corwin a scroll containing a message to the people of the United Nations which the producer-writer will take with him on his round-the-world flight.

The scroll read, in part: "It is fitting that this greeting is brought to you by Norman Corwin, our most distinguished radio writer. His pen and voice have been strong and firm in the expression of our hopes and desires for one world."

Aggie's Show

Radio Life listened to Agnes Moorehead's new air show Sunday, March 31, and found Aggie delightful but the broadcast a let-down. It was not our idea of what a fine radio actress like Miss Moorehead should offer as star of her own program.

In our opinion, she sounded too much like "Marilly," although several sequences in the script afforded her an opportunity to display her versatility with dialects and characterizations. In the second place, her script uncle smacked too much of Lionel Barrymore. Finally, the script was disappointing. From Agnes Moorehead as star of her own radio show, we expect a distinguished dramatic program, not a mildly pleasant offering.

We're hoping the bugs get ironed out in the next few weeks. After all, there wasn't much time to throw a show together during the week of re-adjustment following Marlin Hurt's death. But if some changes aren't made, we're afraid listeners won't be tempted to tune out Charlie McCarthy in favor of "Calamity Jane."

Producer Ill

Hilarity on the usually hilarious Jack Carson studio stage at CBS was at a low ebb last Wednesday. Missing from the control booth was the program's well-liked producer, Larry Berns. Stricken with a sudden heart attack on the previous Friday, Berns was still seriously ill in the hospital. At this writing, his condition has improved, reports his radio actress wife, Sandra Gould.

To Wed

Bob Garred, CBS news reporter, will fly from Hollywood to New York early in May to marry Frances K. Lawler, on Saturday, May 11th. Garred and his bride-to-be met when they were both in the Navy.

The Iggidy Song

Listeners to NBC's Bob Hope show Tuesday, April 2, were in on the be-ginning of one of those jive talking fads that drive the saner-minded citizens mad.

Skinnay Ennis and Shirley Ross (subbing for Frances Langford) dittied a new ditty called "The Iggidy Song" (penned by Jay Milton and Jules Fox). The lyric has "Iggidies" sprinkled liberally right smack in the middle of words until you're ready to go M.jggidy-AD! Try it out for yourself.

"If you want to say in a diff'rent way
T'm so in love with you'

JOE SINAY AND HIS girl, Barbara, always listen to NBC's Fred Waring show as they ride to work together. One day, at Sinay's request, Waring played Joe's popularized version of Barbara's lavorite tune for her and also added a proposal for Joe! Barbara said "Yes", and now the happy Sinays have a portrait of Waring occupying a choice spot in their home. It's autographed "John Alden". (See story in Radio West).

John Alden

Fred Waring's NBC audience had ringside seats recently for a romance aided and abetted by radio, music, and Waring's Pennsylvanians. Leader Fred received a transcontinental phone call one day from one Joe Sinay of L. A. Sinay's request was that Waring help him woo and win his girl, who drove to work with him every morning and listened to the Waring show on the car radio.

on the car radio.

Joe's girl, Barbara (affectionately called "Bambi"), plays the piano and has a particular liking for Beethoven's "Fur Elise." So Joe, assisted at Waring's suggestion by the Pennsylvanians' arranger, Roy Ringwald, popularized the melody, turning out a beautiful ballad titled, "Is This All a Dream?" He then asked that Waring play it—and propose to "Bambi" in his (Joe's) name. Waring did, Joe and his girl heard it—and "Bambi" said yes. said ves.

Since then, there's been a wedding, followed by a honeymoon in New York, where the Sinays were hosted by Fred "John Alden" Waring. An autographed picture of the star now occupies a choice spot in the Sinays' happy home.

For Sharp Ears

If you were listening to Jascha Heifetz' recent guest-starring on the "Telephone Hour," your musical ear might have noticed a slight—but slight-snap as the great violinist was playing Castelnuevo · Tedesco's "The Prophets." Heifetz' E-string on his famous Guarnerius broke! Without a moment's pause, Davis Frisina, con-certmaster of the Los Angeles Philharmonic who was playing in the Telephone Orchestra on its Hollywood appearance, handed Heifetz his Stradivarius. He took it calmly and continued the number. Completely unruffled, Heifetz didn't even frown!

Tang and mellowness in balanced gradation combine to make the perfect beer. The mellow tones of taste in Eastside might be likened to the soft, mellow tones of the piano or harp drawn forth by the sensitive touch of the artist. Nature's careful, patient ageing and a lifetime of experience by one of the world's really great brewmasters, combine to make Eastside the completely satisfying beverage you enjoy today.

AUDIENCE REACTION

While comedian Jack Kirkwood was traveling with a dramatic stock company many years ago, the tour suddenly burst the regular bounds of "coast-to-coast" and took a tour to China. While there, the company was set upon by a band of brigands, but Jack will never tell whether the brigands saw their show and then attacked, or whether they had a higher purpose of felony in mind.

REPEAT HONOR

"America's Town Meeting" claims the distinction of being the first repeat winner in the history of the George Foster Peabody Radio Awards following its selection by the Awards Committee as "the outstanding educational program of 1945."
The ABC program also received the medal in 1943.

* JACK WAS NIMBLE

Jack Sherman of KMPC's "Housewives' Exchange" program has joined the famous group of hole-in-one golfers when he made such a shot at the Westward Ho Golf course the other afternoon.

RADIO WEST

they had push-button radios tuned to 710, and rewarding such listeners with $7.10 (for 710 on the dial).

"Free Speech Mike" stayed to chat with us, then called in his engineer to record our interview on KMPC's wire recorder (war correspondents used similar equipment). Our short conversation consumed about 2,000 feet of wire.

"Free Speech Mike" is making calls regularly on every Monday and Thursday. So far he has found seven dials tuned to KMPC in the homes of listeners on Franklin, Citrus, West California, Harper, Fountain and Westmount Avenues. In all, the station is giving away $10,000 during 1946.

The Three B's

On the New York Philharmonic broadcast March 31, composers represented by works were the three B's-Beethoven, Brahms and-Barrymore. Artur Rodzinski featured as opening selection a Partita by rising composer Lionel Barrymore. Speaking of his composition Barrymore says: "In the Partita, I tried to approach the style and musical language of the early 18th century. The experiment made me very happy and I look at this work just as a gesture of admiration and devotion to the great masters, Bach and Handel."

Cut in from Hollywood after the playing of his work, jubilant Barry. more sounded as happy as an Offenbach overture. In the tones of an excited small boy, he exclaimed, "They said they could play my piece and they've done it!"

Back On Air

Al Jarvis' "Can You Tie That?" returned to the air on Sunday, April 7th, and is being heard on KLAC weekly at 12:05 p.m. The program features pre-release recordings which are judged and graded by guest ex-perts. Nat "King" Cole, Freddy Martin, Dinah Shore and Dave Dexter were Al's initial guests. The program is an audience show.

Freddy's Shop

Freddy Martin, batoneer of CBS' Jack Carson show, will open his own radio-phonograph record store on or about June 1st. It will be located in the Ambassador.

about every star who is just out of uniform, James Stewart, Robert Taylor, Douglas Fairbanks, Jr., Wayne Morris, among others. In fact, when we put on Melvyn Douglas in "To Mary, with Love," he had just served three years in the army and was still in uniform."

In the first seventeen weeks of its existence the show used only one feminine star, Loretta Young, whom Vanda calls the "best radio actress."

Susan Peters made her first radio appearance in "Seventh Heaven" on "Theater of Romance." The only actors with two appearances to their credit so far are Alan Ladd, Robert Walker, Humphrey Bogart and Van Johnson. Vanda refused to state whether or not that was a barometer of romantic appeal. "The only qual-

This instrument produced the eerie effects that aided Cary Grant in his interpretation of the ghost in "The Ghost Goes West". CENE THREE. Hollywood Confessions — intimate revelations from famous Hollywood personalities!"

When Erskine Johnson's KHJ-Mutual Don Lee fans hear Announcer Mel Vickland deliver these words, ears prick up all over the dial lanes. For Erskine Johnson's "Hollywood Confession" department, although it has been aired less than four months, is already the favorite chapter of an outstanding program.

Johnson had been doing interviews with famous stars of screen and radio, people behind the Hollywood scene, and others for months on his program before he started "Hollywood Confessions."

Each interviewee, at the close of his chat with Johnson, must tell the radio audience something about his private life, hopes and fears which has never before been voiced. So far, the stars have confessed like staff writers at "True Story." They hold nothing back.

Press Agents' Fault?

"Maybe it's because they're so used to Hollywood's press agents twisting the truth on them that it's a relief to get the real story off their minds," is the solution Johnson offers. "Roy Rogers, for instance. He was our first Hollywood confessor. A press agent interviewed him one day, found out he met his wife through a lemon pie

JANE WITHERS CONFESSED to Erskine that she loves to play cops and robbers. Here she illustrates how she "mows 'em down".

SCREENLAND'S BIG BAD villain is just a gentle guy at heart, admits Dan Duryea, famous heavy, pursuing his hobby of raising flowers, not cain.

HERMAN HOVER, OWNER of Hollywood's famed nightery, Ciro's, confided he hated night clubs, never eats at Ciro's, but instead, at Schwab's drug store (blue plate special).

she baked for him as a fan, and rushed off to the presses without waiting for the rest of the story. As a result, Roy has been forced to eat, for publicity reasons, some sixty lemon pies which Mrs. Rogers has been asked to bake.

"It wasn't until Roy got on my show that he was ever allowed to tell the rest of the tale—that he hates lemon pies and hopes he never sees another as long as he lives."

Then there was Jack Benny. There's been plenty of publicity about Mary Livingstone's heckling of IGNORANT ARCHIE (ED GARD-NER) of "Duffy's Tavern", murderer of the king's English, told Erskine that all through grammar and high school he got straight A marks in English.

AMBITION OF SINGER DAVE STREET is to have room of his house devoted to electric trains set up on tables. "This room's no good", he said. "The rug sticks up between the ties and the trains catch on it."

the famous comedian, but it took Erskine to draw out of Jack that the heckling started long before their courtship. It seems when Jack was in Seattle once, Mary's parents in vited him to hear their daughter play the violin. Jack listened and didn't like it, and Mary got wind of the verdict. So at Jack's next vaudeville performance in the Seattle theater, Mary and her friends sat in the front row and gave him the heckling of his life.

Mary's Confession

Years later, Mary and Jack drove to

Seattle on their honeymoon, and as they approached the city limits, Jack fell to reminiscing about his other visit. "Did I ever tell you about the time the girl heckled me when I played here?"

"You don't have to," said Mary. "I was the girl."

Nevertheless, Johnson's theory about stars getting the real story off their chests doesn't account for all the confessions he has wrung out of his radio guests. Jane Russell, for instance, simply let down her hair directly from the bodies of dead Japs. They aren't very appetizing looking are they?"

(Please Turn to Page 98)

THREE CONFESS: ROY ROGERS told Johnson about having to eat sixty lemon pies; Annie Kreuscher, chief switchboard operator at Republic Studios, wishes they'd dispense with gum-chewing operators in movies and let real operators play parts; Dale Evans, Western star, said she was scared stiff first time she was in "wild west" production.

Mrs. Pearce grimaced and led us into the warm, dubonnet, mirror-lined living room. "Our place is de-ceptive," she confided, "and to give the rooms a larger appearance, we've used mirrors freely."

Al soon joined us with his "favor-ite cowboy" in hand. The homely old fellow was a Williams carving, of which Pearce has a collection. But Audrey prefers dainty elephants and copies of old songs. "I derive more pleasure from them."

Tour of Home

Leaving Al to answer the front door, the Duke led us to the upper floor, which contains a master bedroom, a guest room, two baths, a small den and an outdoor bedroom, which Audrey explained was a catch. all. "It's wonderful sleeping in the summer, but we don't use it during the winter."

Al's den is lined with books, ranging from Zane Grey to Tolstoy. Perched on top of the window ledge is his "Oscar" lovingly presented to him by Mrs. P. "It's a tired old eagle," she laughed. "Look at his bandages." Al, who has made three movies, feels his best was his latest. "I like pictures," he said, "but they're darned difficult when you're weed to darned difficult when you're used to radio."

From the beige satin master bed-room a perfect view of the back yard is afforded. Al's one year-old police dog, Mel, and tomcat, Tuffy, pair off against Audrey's chow, Ching. "It's a madhouse at times," Al laughed, "Mel grabs Tuffy by the head and drags him all over the yard."

Most of the cages are empty at present. But there's one which isn't and its occupant lets you know he's there. He's a big Canadian Honker named Hank, which Al brought back from a recent hunting trip. Hank, who is a better watchdog than Mel or Ching, recognizes the sound of Al's voice and always talks to him at any hour of day or night.

A few ducks, chickens and turkeys inhabit the rest of the cages. "One Thanksgiving Al's enthusiasm got the best of him and he promised more turkeys than we had. He ended up by buying six to give away."

Is Good Husband

Audrey met Al when he was do-ing the "Happy Go Lucky Hour." "We've been married sixteen years and I must admit he's a most thoughtful husband." The gorgeous diamond ring, dainty gold earrings and watch she was wearing were all gifts from her husband. "He loves to surprise me."

Mrs. Pearce rarely accompanies her husband to his daily broadcast, but listens at home. Nearly every room is accommodated with a loudspeaker. She sometimes contributes ideas for his Elmer Blurt routine, but in most instances he thinks of them himself.
"Whenever he gets an idea for a gag, a certain look comes over his face. (I know it well.) He has a marvelous memory and rarely needs to jot down his inspirations."

The Pearces confess to being homebodies and prefer to entertain there, though many weekends are spent on their 480 acre ranch in Marysville. They rarely nightclub but like good plays and movies.

"We don't have to go out," laughed Audrey. "Our entertainment comes to us. Al is always bringing new acts home to audition. Just listen and you can hear the trio singing for him in the living room. See what I mean about our home having 'everything'?"

Isn't It Romantic?

ity is good performance," he smiled, "if it's a good show-it's romantic!"

Much Decorated

Incidentally, this Vanda fellow is the only radio producer we've ever met who was also a lieutenant. colonel during the war. It's a far cry from producer of "Suspense," "Stars Over Hollywood" and "I Was There" to officer with the Office of Strategic Service overseas, but that's the ex-perience of Charles Vanda. He was awarded the Legion of Merit for work in eighteen countries and eight languages, and also the Order of the British Empire, the Order of the Nile, and was decorated by the Greeks and Hungarians. He worked with the Greek guerillas, was attached to the Second Ukranian Army and the South African Army under General Jan Smuts. An autographed picture of the General is one of Vanda's most cherished possessions and hangs in his office at CBS.

"I'll admit, though," he laughed, "that sometimes I looked up at the sky in some out of the way spot and said to myself, 'What in the world are you doing here? You belong back in the Brown Derby!" While Vanda was with the Russian army, his son, Bruce Peter, was born in Hollywood. Under the impression in hollywood. Under the impression that he was to be father to a girl, he sent all the girls' dresses he could to his wife. "A happy mistake," he concluded, indicating the picture of eighteen month-old Bruce Peter on his deck his desk. We asked if it was difficult coming back to radio to produce "Theater of Romance" after such excitement.

"When they take me out of radio," he laughed, "it'll be feet first. As for the war, I wouldn't take a million dollars for the experience, and I wouldn't do it again for a million dollars!"

and said "I'm tired of being glamorous. I'm tired of having photos taken in a slinky, seductive dress. I just want to be myself!" And Tom Breneman flatly announced, "I HATE to get up in the morning, and I NEVER eat breakfast!"

No, it must be Johnson's own amiable, semi-fatherly, salt-of-the-earth personality that makes people confide in him as they never did in their own mothers. Eddie Albert, actor in a sea picture and owner of a fifty-two-foot boat, told him that unless he keeps his eyes on the horizon and his feet on deck he's horribly seasick. Jerry Colonna confessed that he has a specially-designed little snood to keep the hairs in his moustache in place while he sleeps at night. Hoagy Carmichael confided that deep down inside, he's always wanted to be a barber; has a barber chair at home in which he cuts the hair of his two children. In fact, everybody who talks to Erskine seems to want to open up.

List Admissions

So for the benefit of Radio Life's readers, here's a half a baker's dozen of Hollywood Confessions, Johnson style:

Ida Lupino—"I chew gum all the time. I'm so nervous that I have to have something to calm me down. If you ever see me when my mouth sn't moving. either talking or chewing gum, something's wrong."

Lawrence Tierney—"During my career as a model, I posed for those dramatic pictures used to illustrate the stories in confession magazines. I don't know why, but I always seemed to be walking out on heautiful young women—never walking in on them. In fact, I think I hold the record for it."

Jim Moran—"Before I called on 'Charlie Potsito-lick,' the Eskimo I sold that ice-box to, I filled the thing with whale blubber—an Eskimo delicacy!"

Billie Burke—"Although I portray a nervous; flustered type of woman, I'm really a very orderly and routine person and keep everything in its proper place."

Marjorie Main—"I love old clothes. That probably makes me the most unusual woman in Hollywood—but I don't think clothes have character to them until you've worn them a long time."

Barry Sullivan—"I'm terrified to watch myself on the screen. If you see me walking in to the premiere, I'll be in the lobby smoking cigarettes when the picture starts."

Lois January—"Although I receive letters with household hints day after day for my radio show, and talk about tricks for housekeeping, cooking, and interior decorating on the program, I hate to do housework and whenever I think about it I shudder."

The Truth

"Everybody wants to get into the act," says Johnson, "everybody, that is, but one. When I told Ralph Edwards, of "Truth or Consequences" about it, he said:

"That's wonderful, Skinny; and I know what I'll confess. You know. every time I do a show I wish I could be out there with the contestants—running up and down fire escapes, riding elephants, kissing strange women . . . you know. For once, I'd like to do what they doget some fun out of it!

"'Ralph,' I said, 'that gives me a great idea. Why don't you illustrate your Holly wood Confession right on the program? I'll get a lemon pie and you stand still."

"You know that so-and so wouldn't do it? It just goes to show . . . the guys who can dish it out . . ."
