Mr. & Mrs. A. B. Metcalf, 902 15th Place, Hermosa Beach, Calif.

Sirs: Don't you think the fans of the Beverly Hillbillies are entitled to a better explanation than that mentioned, after their very sudden with-drawal from the air? Why not let the public in on the real reason, for, after all, the listener is the one who seldom gets a break when a program is removed, just as in this very case.

The reason for a show going off the air suddenly is seldom given. Usually the sponsor has the say-so as to what goes—or stays. All we can do is join you in hoping that the Benerly Hill-billies, Hollywood radio fixtures for years, return soon.

Mrs. Anne Neal, 2625 Marsh Street, Los Angelus 26, Calif.

Sirs: What happened to the Jack Kirkwood show? We used to hear it on Sundays. We enjoyed it and miss it a lot. Any chance of it coming

Also, what happened to "Try and Find Me," daily at 12:30? We surely do miss it.

Enjoy your Radio Life very much.

Still rumors that Jack Kirkwood may be back on the air. Let's hope it's true. "Try 'n' Find Me" seems to be off permanently. (At least at this writing.) The sponsor now presents Edwin C. Hill.

Mr. John Renshaw, 117 East Weaver Avenue, El Monte, Call?.

Sirs: I would like to see all the pictures of the news reporters on KFI and KNX, and a picture of Mr. Chet Huntley. My birthday is soon, and seeing these pictures would be one of my nicest gifts.

Chet Huntley

Sirs: Enclosed you will find a picture of Andy Russell, and one of Vaughn Monroe, which I drew. In your March issue you used a picture of Frank Sinatra a contributor drew, so I hope you can use these, too.

Vaughn Monros

Andy Russell

I am sixteen years old, and in my junior year at Abraham Lincoln High School in Los Angeles.

Louise Osborne Harris, 930 Lankershim, Highland, Calif.

Sirs: Please give us an interview of the "Man with the Laughing Voice"-handsome Jack Smith, who has the best fifteen minutes in radio! Who is a more attractive "singsation" than this sincere young man with the "Voice"? Let us show Mr. Smith how much we appreciate him.

Radio Life is the best source of authentic radio information. It is especially helpful when I tune in, in the middle of a new program, and don't know what it is—then Radio Life comes to my rescue.

I like the department which mentions future programs, and lets me select, beforehand, the special pro-grams that add to my listening pleasure,

Jean Sundstrom, 469 Newport Boulevard, Costa Mesa, Calif.

Sirs: Well, now that we have "The Jolson Story" (played by someone else on the screen and a personal guest appearance by Al on the "Amos 'n' Andy" show, I believe it is the radio listeners' and Jolson fans' cue to say: How about a weekly radio program starring Al Jolson?

I know he had a show in Hollywood a couple of years ago and I was privileged to attend one of his broadcasts... but that was then.

There's certainly nothing wrong with his voice, showmanship, magnetic personality or the glorious memories of his fans. So, how about it?

Runiors are flying that Jolson will soon be back in radio. It's nice to have it proved all over again that the memories of the American public aren't as short as most producers insist they are.

Jean Sundstrom, 469 Newport Blvd., Costa Mesa, Calif.

Sirs: I want to say that in my estimation Gene Norman conducts, in a very easy-to-take manner, the best record-spinning show on the air. And meeting all the great musicians and vocalists, who are his guests, with their hair down, and learning so much about them and music in general, is a wonderful experience for me. I listen as quietly as a mouse so I won't miss a word or a note. Until the day I have my own record collec-tion of everything from symphony to the lowest of the low-down, I shall listen-and I'm so lucky!-to the recordings made by so many greatly talented artists-and hear about the composers, lyric writers and conductors behind all the wonderful music on my favorite disc-jockey's show.

Lone Ranger and friend.

Darlene Bice, 2161 East Chevy Chase, Glendale 6, Calif.

Sirs: I have often bought Radio Life, and never seen a picture of the famous Lone Ranger. Could, or would, you print a picture of him in Radio Life?

Mrs. Blanche Robbins, 1347 Alamitos, Long Beach 6, Calif.

Sirs: I agree with a recent contributor to this column. Too many of the best programs go on at the same time. "Meet The Missus" and "Bride and Groom" conflict daily at 2:30. Too, I like to hear Bing Crosby sing.

but never miss Jack Carson, so I do have to miss Bing's good program. Then at 9:00 p.m. on Thursday I give up hearing "Suspense" in favor of George and Gracie. But Friday evening is the worst time of all! "People Are Funny" and Ginny Simms are on the air at the same time, ditto "Hank McCune" and "It Pays to Be Ignorant."

Get together, KFI, KECA and KNX, and do something about it!

Dick H. Juers, Box 871, South Pasadena, Calif.

Sirs: I have been a reader of your magazine since the beginning. My copies go back as far as 1939 and 1940. I have some sample copies, also. Because I have so many, I would like to give them away to some hospital, or some shut-ins, so if you know of anyone who would like to get them, please let me know.

Mrs. O. T. Chambers, 35631/2 Jasmine, Los Angeles 34, Calif.

Sirs: We miss "The Guiding Light" program in our home. So many have told me that Dr. Rutledge's talks and his efforts to help so many people with so many problems that we all meet in daily life, have helped them. I know his good philosophy has helped me through many a day.

All the others on his programs have seemed to make themselves a part of our family. It's been called, many times, one of the best on the air. Seems a pity any of the good ones have to go.

Litigation has threatened "Guiding Light's" air existence. It's settled now, we understand, but no word yet as to the program's return.

Jane Davison, 187 South Bonnie Avenue, Pasadena, Calif.

Sirs: My husband and I never miss the Jack Smith show. His young singing voice is splendid, and his speaking voice is charming. His personality seems to shine through it all. I hope to see a picture of him in your Radio Life some day soon.

Jack Smith had a story and pictures in Radio Life last July 7.

Diana Moren, 380 Eagle Rock Boulevard, Los Angeles 41, Calif.

Sirs: I am a steady reader of Radio

Lucille "Portia"

Life. I am also a regular listener of the "Portia Faces Life" series. Would you please print a picture of the star of the show, Lucille Wall? And please print the real name of Walter Manning.

Here's Lucille. Bartlett Robertson plays "Walter."

L. C. Fuller, 615 South Alexandria Avenue, Los Angeles 5, Calif.

Sirs: As many emcees advise young men to join the army and navy I am sure they do not want to knock their own efforts, yet that is exactly what many of them are doing. The young man who listens in almost has to come to the conclusion that all army and navy men are either wolves, gamblers or sports, so if he does not happen to care to get into that sort of company he naturally does not join the army or navy.

Then, the emcees should give a thought to the mothers who have sons in the service. What must they think when you give them the impression that you think that all army and navy men are wolves, gamblers or sports?

Why not just treat army and navy men the same as other contestants?

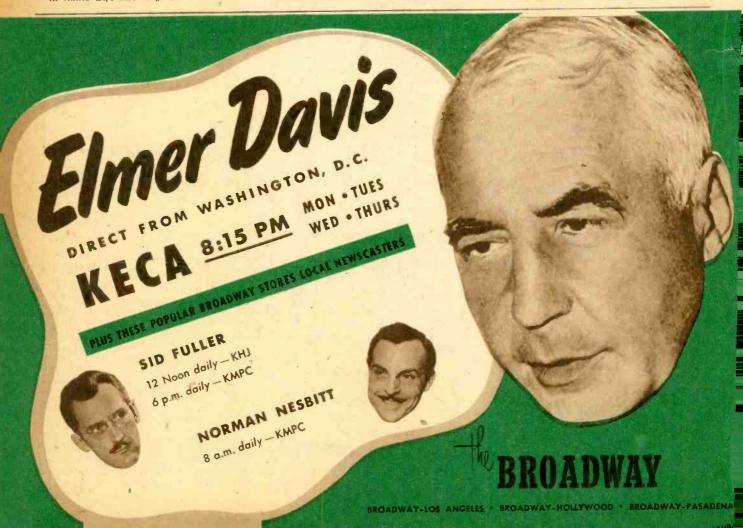

T. W. C. Burton, 141 South Bonnie Brae Street, Los Angeles, Calif.

Sirs: With much interest I read the various letters regarding radio programs. I heartily agree with the critics of commercials. Last night we were attempting to find some Christmas music, failed because of a loud female voice dealing with a commercial.

I like good music, but it's all swing or very symphonic, which is so very classical that a person who is not a musician can find little that appeals. If some of the sponsors would only have a weekly hour of light classics. such as dear old Stravinsky and Company, I feel sure there are many who would listen to this type of program.

More power to your letters—may they make a dent on the radio sponsors.

disease in our own Southern California communities, where postwar overcrowding has aggravated their dangers.

This program is aired every Saturday evening from 9 to 9:30, with scripts by Karl Schlicter and production by Ken Higgins. "Conquest" is presented by KFI and the Los Angeles County and Long Beach Tuberculosis and Health Association... as another public interest series.

THE PROGRAM THAT LEADS THE FIGHT AGAINST DISEASE.

STANLEY FARRAR

Success of "Conquest" is due in large part to the performance of its two leading radio actors... Stanley Farrar, who plays Dr. Carson, the untiring medical research analyst, and Alice Drake, who plays nurse Wilson, his competent, understanding assistant.

The authoritative drama of "Conquest" brings you vivid descriptions of the fight against disease. On the opposite page a doctor reads an X-ray to detect any signs of tuberculosis or abnormal heart shadows, while below him an X-ray technician is checking miniature films just taken by a new mobile X-ray unit.

Awards

Pago Www.americanradiohistory.com

Final decision as to many of the bestowals was extremely difficult. Many of etherdom's personalities and personnel are so outstanding in their respective fields that their supremacy would probably pass unchallenged in any group of radiominded award-givers. Yet, with the objective of lending encouragement and stimulus to hard-striving radioties, Radio Life, in several instances, has deemed it advisable to recognize those who have made deserved progress during the past year. In cases where decision was very close, honorable mentions were given runners-up.

Best wishes to the winners and best of luck to all those who strove during 1946 to bring information and entertainment to the kilocycles.

OZZIE AND HARRIET NELSON, whose show is winner of Award for Comedy Script Writing. Scripts are invariably clever, but never risque.

THIS DYNAMIC SCENE IS FROM A SILENT COMEDY ENTITLED, "The Lovin' Swede", written, produced, directed and acted by one Edgar Bergen. "It was my own screen test," confided Bergen. "I got my friends to help shoot it.
Who showed it? I showed it!" Edgar's professional career, which started with club dates and chautauqua engagements, now included a real moving picture!

TWO HAPPY FACES were apparent in this picture taken in Boston while Bergen was on a vaudeville tour. Charlie hadn't yet graduated to the top hat, white tie and tail class, but he had financed Edgar's education at Northwestern University. After college, Bergen and McCarthy stepped right into big-time vaudeville.

Edgar felt that the entire point of ventriloquism, the illusion practiced on the audience, would be lost. Rudy Vallee persuaded the team of Bergen and McCarthy to give radio a trial, and four months on the Vallee show convinced everyone that

AN EARLY TALKIE SHORT MADE FOR THE WARNER BROTHERS. Charlie and Edgar made twelve of these one-reelers between 1929 and 1933. It's an advance from the days of the "Lovin' Swede," but who would have guessed that the pair were to be the stars of such pictures as "Goldwyn Follies," "Letter of Introduction" and "You Can't Cheat an Honest Man"? (No, there's no microphone visible on this set. In those days they hid them in the floor lamps!)

MERE'S BERGEN AND McCARTHY IN THEIR FAMOUS OPERATION ROUTINE. It's the act that Edgar used the most in vaudeville and you may have seen it on the Orpheum circuit as late as 1934. Edgar can't remember who the girl in this case was, but he recalls that one of his assistants actually married a doctor after touring as the nurse in this act!

AND HERE'S THE BERGEN AND McCARTHY we know today. They've been together since 1921 and on the air for Chase and Sanborn they're starting their 11th year! Who said it wouldn't last? Charlie donned the top hat and tails for his night-club engagements following the collapse of vaudeville. Engagements at the Chez Paree, and in the Rainbow Room, where Rudy Vallee saw them, were the turning point in Edgar's career.

Sirs: May I also express my regret that the quality of music performed by that wonderful Stradivari orchestra is not like that which was performed under Paul Laval.

It seems almost a desecration of those beautiful, two or three-hundred-year-old violins. Can't we go back to the program as it used to be?

Unfortunately, the program you mention has gone off the air again, Let's hope it returns the way you formerly liked it.

Alexander Crossan, 3800 T Street, Sacramento 16, Calif.

Sirs: I agree with Red Skelton's "personal" commercial, and feel it is the least courtesy we can give a sponsor of the nationwide hookups to listen to their announcements. If we enjoy the program the sponsor has provided, and often at near "astronomical" costs, we certainly should grant him the two or three minutes out of the half hour that he asks for his own benefit.

Of course, there are exceptions. I never listen to the annoying reiterations of the Tobacco Auctioneers in their opening and closing commercials. Why don't the sponsors learn the difference between pleasant commercials and those that offend?

The networks themselves are to blame for putting popular programs on at the same time. Why must they try to cut each other's throats?

Can you give us a picture of Don McNeill's new girl soloist, Patsy Lee, from Oakland? Also, her real name and a little sketch about her in the KECA mike memos?

We'll Iry. Must send to Chicago.

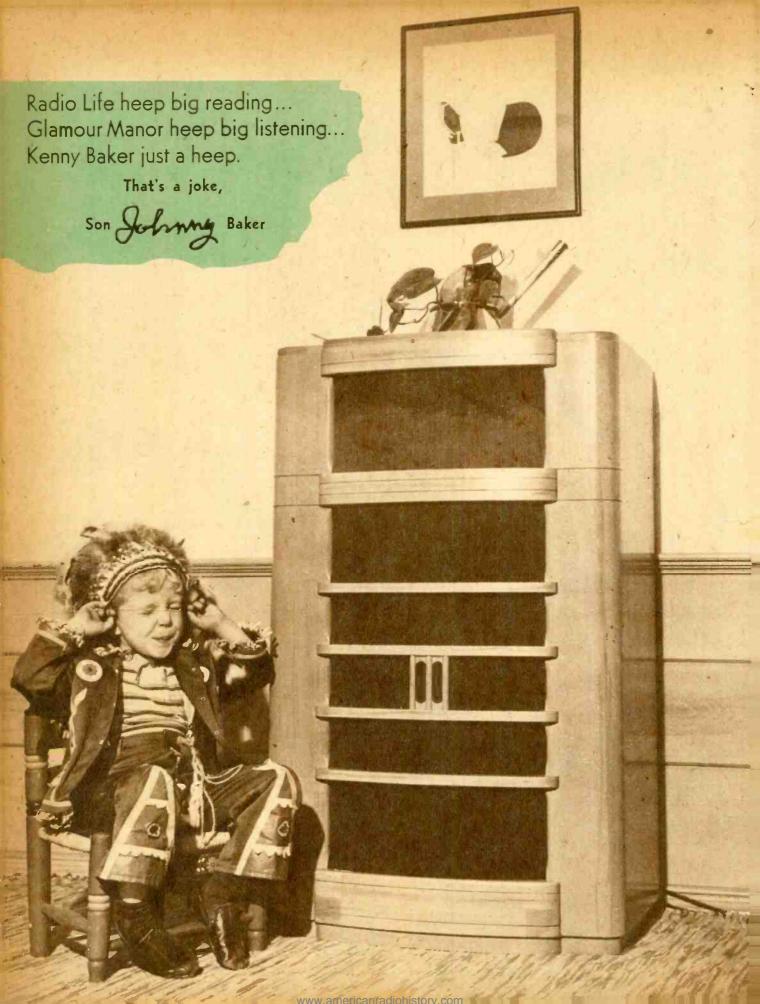

A CLASSIC BONER

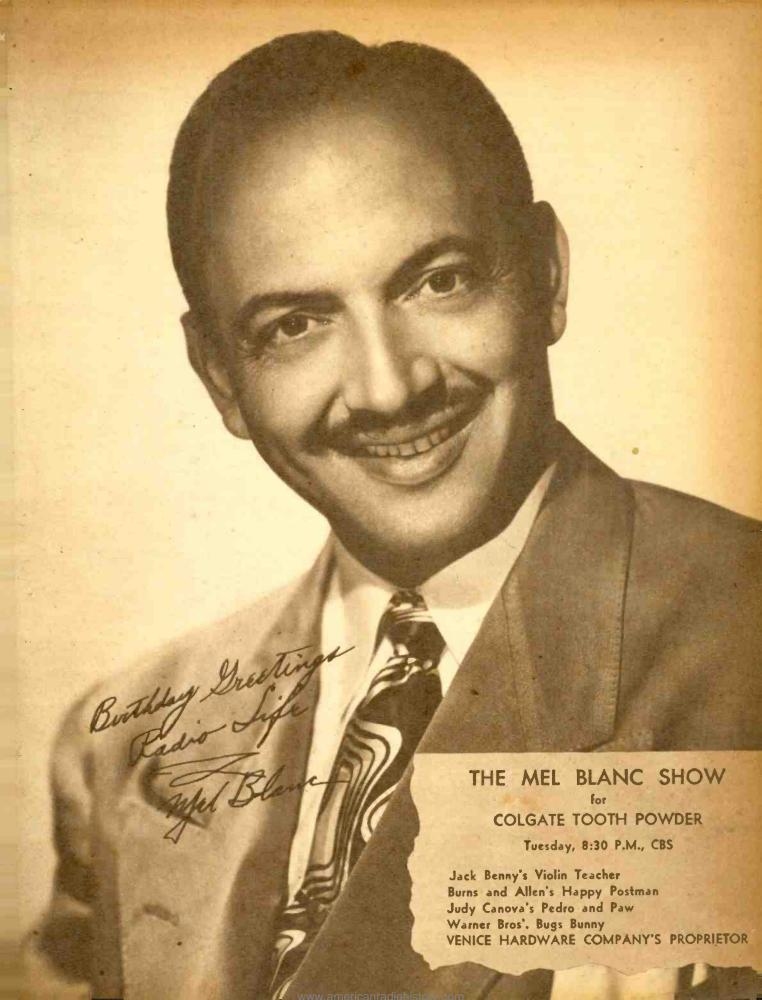

Jack Paar, newest entry into the radio comedian sweepstakes, was working in radio at the age of sixteen, as a straight announcer for various midwestern stations. Some classic ad lib remarks while trying to cover a mistake made in announcing finished Paar as an announcer, but led him to a career as a comic.

CBS' Harry Flannery's broadcast texts have frequently been used by college and high school classrooms throughout the country as the basis of economics class discussions. Latest to use the Pacific Network newsman's broadcasts is the Oakland Technical High School in Oakland, California.

NEWS and COMMENT

For Love o' Mike (General Comment)

Made Memorable

Nothing pleases us more than to hear someone do a good job at the microphone, particularly when it is a good job done with a not-so-good script. This was recently accomplished by Joan Bennett, when she starred on the January 16th broadcast of CBS' "Suspense", in "Overture in Two Keys".

She turned a script that would otherwise have been termed inferior into a talked-about broadcast.

Because we have previously often spoken unfavorably of screen stars' guest appearances on the radio (and rightly so, we think, as so many of them are not mike-wise), we consider it only fair that when a guesting movie celebrity does give a commendable performance, that mention be made of it.

Your Cue (Shows You)

Frank Parker Show

Frank Parker, we think, is pleasant listening personified, and it's very gratifying to find him on our dials each weekday at 11:45, over KECA. Radio isn't always so good as to bring listeners the people they want most to hear in the type of show listeners think they should have. That's quite an order, and the Frank Parker Show fills it.

Ably aiding him in the pleasant patter department is announcer Andre Baruch (who also makes you want to spend a pleasant afternoon browsing through your neighborhood Newberry Store) and on the feminine side of the picture is Kay Lorraine. Like Frank, Miss Lorraine lends an experienced voice to a song, and together, they offer extremely listenable renditions of melodies you aren't likely to hear on other shows.

Bob Elson

"Bob Elson on the Flagships" sounds like a super Buck Rogers type children's show, but don't let the title fool you. It's interview entertainment of high quality heard on the air every week night at 10:15 on KNX, just in time for the folks who are beginning to be sated with the jive record programs and who aren't yet ready to settle down with the goodnight news.

Former sports reporter Elson did a similar series of broadcasts from the Twentieth Century Limited and his present program has the same excitement of people who are going somewhere. In the terminal, Bob catches the passengers who are en route via American Airlines and queries them about their jobs, their homes and their destinations. We have yet to hear a dull interview. This is partly due to Bob's ability as an interviewer and partly to the fact that everyone seems interested enough in his or her occupation to speak of it intelligently. Lately we can recall hearing a student, a disc jockey, an ambassador, a chemical engineer, a furniture buyer, an interior decorator, and an advertising man among the many people who were flying to or from their work. Each of them had us as an interested listener. Each of them told us something we didn't know before, and proved that an ordinary citizen who has something to say is a much more interesting subject than a celebrity who is merely being a celebrity.

Yesteryears

With our radio dials deluged with recorded shows of varying content, it takes something on the unusual side to attract our eye—and ears. Lately, we've found ourselves looking forward each morning to the very listenable twenty-five minute feature on KMPC called "Those Were the Days" (Monday through Friday, 9:05 a.m.), a show which presents just what the name implies.

If you find enjoyment in hearing again the hit tunes of the past few decades, wrapped up in a nostalgic package of lost thoughts, you'll be entertained by "Those Were the Days". Written and produced by Lou Huston and narrated by Charles Stone, it recalls to mind the minor and major happenings of the years past and embellishes your own cherished memories with recorded melodies fondly remembered.

Just to give an idea of the yesteryear tunes you will hear on the program, here are a few samples with the date of their birth: "I Want To Be Happy" (1924), "Old Crinoline Days" (1922), "Moonlight Bay" (1912), "S'Wonderful (1927), "By the Waters of the Minnetonka" (1919), and "I Kiss Your Hand, Madame" (1928).

Don't the very names alone conjure a million memories?

"Grand Slam"

Irene Beasley's "Grand Slam", KNX, 8:30 a.m. Monday through Friday, is one audience participation quiz show where the listening audience has just as much if not more of a chance than the folks who are in the studio coping with the questions.

Each question is made up of five musical queries and our one criticism of the show is the fact that Miss Beasley doesn't gauge her questions to her contestants. They just step up and take meir chances, which makes it nice for the folks at home who reap the prizes on the questions which trip the studio quizzees. For instance, how often can the average middle aged housewife identify the "Carioca", "Big Apple", or "Pennsylvania Polka"?

Nevertheless, Irene keeps her show moving at such a fast clip that she never tries the patience of listeners who are sick of hearing dull contestants getting the answer dragged out

By the way, in Fortune's January Issue there's a complete story on the Groaner...It analyzes the entire Crosby empire, his family, associates, profits, rela-tions with the radio industry and gives a profile of Bing himself.

There have been all sorts of year end There have been all sorts of year end awards and choices publicized these last few weeks, but did you see the list of Bing's five favorite songs of 1946? They are "Rumors Are Flying," "I've Got The Sun In The Morning," "You Keep Coming Back Like a Song," "Old Buttermilk Sky" and "South America, Take It Away." They're probably your favorites too. . . especially if you've heard Der Bingle sing them on his Wednesday night shows over KECA at 9 o'clock.

AROUND RADIO: That perennial favorite among the detective airers, David Harding, Counterspy, has just been renewed by its sponsor, The Schutter Candy Company, for another 52-week period (KECA-ABC at 2:30, Sundays)... The one and only Paul Whiteman returns this week from his tour of the principal cities in eastern U.S. and Canada to his new Wednesday night dial spot, KECA at 6 p.m. . . . It's time for an author to take a bow . . Here's Craig Rice, foremost woman mystery writer in these United States, whose thrill series, "Murder and Mr. Malone" was a recent addition to KECA's Saturday night listening lineup (9:30 p.m.). Miss Rice has authored an enviable list of best sellers and motion picture scenarios, including the re-cent hit picture, "Home Sweet Homicide." The Broadway's "News Feature Page" with Sid Fuller reporting is now heard Mondays thru Thursdays at 8:15 p.m., and commentator Elmer Davis is heard Mondays thru Fridays at 10:30 p.m... That former Tuesday night drama, "Retribution," is now aired on Friday nights at 9:30, with "The Fat Man" moving into the 6 o'clock dial spot Fridays. The musical show featuring Betty Russell, ABC's vocalovely, "The Tune, The Play and The Girl," hits the airlanes on Thursday nights at 8:30.

Etting's Return

No recent event in radio was looked forward to with greater anticipation and excitement than Ruth Etting's and excitement than Ruth Etting's return to the spotlight via Rudy Vallee's January 21st broadcast. Save for the occasion of vital news happenings, we have never seen NBC employees gathered around the building's loudspeakers as they were for Miss Etting's appearance at the Vallee microphone

We think everyone who listened will agree that the famous singing star did not disappoint - but that Rudy, the veteran showman, did!

Except for Miss Etting's all-too-fleeting time at the microphone, the show was sadly lacking in sparkle. There was no feeling of suspense which should have preceded the songstress' stint, her introduction was poorly written (save for the Falstaff poem!), her two numbers only teased our appetite, and no one (not even Rudy and his trapeze act) should have followed the climactic appearance of Etting. The program should have closed on that thrilling note.

We had hoped—and expected—that the entire show would be built around the return of the long absent star, as it certainly should have been. We would have liked to hear her sing a complete medley of many of the songs she helped make famous.

All of the above notwithstanding, Ruth Etting made it a thrilling and memorable occasion. In the past six years, a parade of varying feminine song stylists has made its marks on the public's taste in music. We were curious to hear this famous song. stress of a decade ago, to learn if her particular vogue had changed and if not, what our reaction would be to

We found ourselves delighted when the Etting vocal revealed itself to be her identical style of old, and it made us realize that many of the singing styles of today will not weather the years as well.

We were given a nostalgic whirl with her wistful warbling of "Shine On, Harvest Moon", and the quickie interview which told us a little something of what she has been doing dur-ing the years she has been away, satisfied much of our curiosity.

In addition, our backstage glimpse revealed the beautiful Ruth to be a still utterly charming woman, with soft grey hair, tanned skin, those same large sad eyes, and a warmly natural and modest manner ("My hushishly habital and modest manner ("My hushishly hushishly habital and modest manner ("My hushishly hushishly habital and modest manner ("My hushishly hushi band thinks I have a nice singing voice, but I don't know," we heard her remark).

Yes-R.L. joins with W.W. in heralding Miss Etting's triumphant return with the best of our verbal orchids.

We'll admit it was a feather in Vallee's cap just to have the incomparable Ruth return via his program but if he had employed the showmanship to be expected from him, he could have made that feather look like a full-fledged Indian headdress!

What Exciting Years?

A good idea that got off shakily on the wrong foot on its first broadcast is the new sustainer, "Those Exciting Years", heard on ABC, Thursday at 8:30 p.m. The show is a nostalgic and reminiscent one, based on the great news stories of the past.

Quinn Ryan is the narrator and the show starts well with the orchestra playing a tune popular in the bygone year during which the news story took place. In this case the tune was "Sleepy Time Gal" and the year was 1925. We were reminded that "Arrow-smith" and "Beau Geste" were the best sellers, that Graham MacNamee broadcast the first World Series and that the Scopes Evolution trial was in progress. All very pleasing.

Then the big news story—a dramatization of Floyd Collins, a Kentucky farmer who was trapped for seventeen days in a cave. Collins was pictured as a poet and dreamer, a courageous explorer who went down into the cave to study nature. The story was greatly over-musicalized, and over-poeticized.

In the clear cold light of 1947 the twenties look ridiculous at best and Floyd Collins seems like merely a very foolhardy young man.

We asked a young old-timer if he recalled the incident when it happened. He did. "Why did Collins go into the cave?" we wanted to know.

"As I recall," our informant told us, "he was looking for a good place to take summer tourists."

Like we said, the show has a wonderful idea, and an effective format. Let's hope it begins to play fair with its listening audience and gives us the real news stories of the past, stark and unvarnished as a newspaper report should be.

Listeners Come Through

The final count of listeners' contributions to the "streptomycin fund" raised by Columbia's Chet Huntley for the treatment of a stricken threeyear old, brings the total sum to fifteen hundred dollars.

Chet told the story on a recent broadcast and suggested that contributions would be appreciated by the child's parents and by the Los Angeles Children's Hospital for the purchase of the rare and expensive drug, the only known cure for miliary tuberculosis. Money from CBS listeners bought the drug, which is currently being used in treatment and the little girl is on the road to recovery. That's good news from "Ten O'Clock Wire".

"Quiz Kids", KFI, 1:00 p.m., Sunday. For complete details on the "Best Teachers" contest, listen to announcement on the program on Sunday, February 2. The selection will be made on the basis of letters received from school children on the subject. "The Teacher Who Has Helped Me the Most". These nominations will be followed by questionnaires and personal interviews with the teachers. The winning teacher will be given a $2,500 award to be used for a year's advanced study at a university of his or her choice and the three next winning teachers each will receive an award of $500. A total of $1,650 will be divided among writers of the best letters—one hundred dollars to the winner, fifty dollars to the next best and the remainder divided among 600 others.

"Magic of Electricity", KMPC, 8:30 p.m. Sunday. Entry blanks for participation in this program have been circulated among the three hundred electrical and radio appliance stores in Los Angeles and vicinity. Participants are to complete this form which requests that they write in a few words, "Why I would like to own a particular radio or electrical appliance." Five top entries are selected each week and the individuals who wrote them will be telephoned during the program. If they can correctly identify the program, they will receive one of the prizes awarded that evening.

"Free for All", KNX, 1:30 p.m. Saturday. Program exchanges gifts for letters from listeners. Emcee Wes Battersea reads a letter from a listener requesting a gift, but substitutes the word blank for the name of the item. If a member of the studio audience can tell Wes what the requested item was, he, too. whis a handsome prize. Address: Free for All, KNX, Columbia Square, Hollywood 28, Calif.

"The People Who Live in the Burns House"

CELEBRATING

THEIR 15th ANNIVERSARY ON THE AIR

MAXWELL HOUSE COFFEE TIME

WITH

Bill Goodwin and Meredith Willson

OVER NBC ... THURSDAY NIGHTS

WRITTEN BY PAUL HENNING AND KEITH FOWLER

Pader Life lines By Evelyn Bigsby

TO CELEBRATE EDGAR BERGEN'S tenth year on NBC, the network and agency threw a swellelegant party after the broadcast. Fibber and Molly, Benny, Kyser, Hope, and Nelson Eddy were among the three hundred guests dining in the Palm Room at the Beverly Hills Hotel. Victor Borge convulsed with his piano routines. Bob Hope made one of the funniest cracks when he said: "It's nice to see all these radio comedians relaxing here-after all, we're all suffering from the same disease, Henry. Morgan . breathing . down - our . neck-

A perfect emcee for the after-dinner program, Benny made such typical remarks as, "Crosby couldn't be here, but he sent a nice transcription."

Bergen was gifted with the first postwar television set in the country (from NBC) and a gold key (from his agency, J. Walter Thompson) and what went with it, a new Lincoln Continental. That called for a few moments of dialogue between Edgar and Charlie, which was climaxed when Edgar said, "Well, Charlie, I guess this is just about the happiest day of my life."

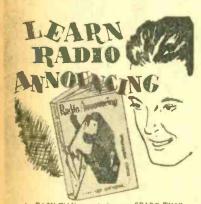

"I guess it is, Bergen, except for one," replied Charlie.

"What's that?"

"The day you met me," chuckled McCarthy.

Benny summed up the evening when he closed with, "Edgar, we hope you'll always be first in war, first in peace, and second in the Hooper ratings."

ANYBODY DOING A STORY on Hedda Hopper should, we think, give more credit to her manager, Dema Harshbarger, than Collie Small did in writing the recent Saturday Evening Post yarn. Dema is one of the shrewdest, yet kindest, persons we know of in Hollywood . . . One of Radio Life's most ardent readers is former star Trixle Friganza . . . No wonder singer Jo Stafford looks so knockoutish. We hear she's lost fifty one pounds. Wish the "Pat Novak" writer would restrain himself a little. He's similehappy... Watch for Bea Lillie's guest appearance with Bing. They cut the record the other night and did the "double dozen double damask dinner napkins" dialogue which is very funny.

DIDN'T "VOX POP" do a smooth broadcast from San Francisco? And wasn't it fun when Adolph of the Palace's Rose Room received, as one of his gifts, two dinner reservations to the St. Francis? A show like this is almost as broadening as travel and does a lot to build understanding and good will between various parts of our diversified country.

JIMMY FIDLER'S BLAST against publications which he thinks coerce stars to take advertising in special editions didn't make Radio Life quake a quarter inch. It doesn't fit this magazine.

In this Anniversary number you'll find "Messages from the Stars," a paid advertisement department carefully executed with pictures of radio personalities who have autographed their ads or written other greetings to the readers. Every such person taking an ad was merely given the opportunity.

There has never been any connection between the editorial and advertising departments of this magazine. We don't even know, here in the editorial office, how much an ad costs. We print our news stories and features when, as, and if we evaluate them as worthy. We think we can put out a cleaner magazine that way.

A magazine is able to stay in the black by income from two sources: advertisements and circulation. You readers do your part by buying the magazine. Food and other merchan-dise advertisers, finding Radio Life of vital influence in thousands of homes, use our columns. Likewise the networks, stations, agencies, and radio

THEY AREN'T

Sammy Kaye and Danny Kaye are not at all related. Nor are Kate Smith and Alexis Smith. Jay "Mr. District Attorney" Jostyn is not a lawyer. Eddie Cantor is not the father of "Kilroy Wojowsky Cantor". Kilroy is merely a figment of Cantor's scriptwriters' pens. "Hildegarde" is not her full name. It's Hildegarde Loretta Sell. It's Hildegarde Loretta Sell.

KXLA12:30-5:00 a.m. TUESDAY THRU SUNDAY

BLESSING DISGUISED

CBS newscaster Bob Garred recently received a letter from the Bureau of Internal Revenue. Reluctant to face bad news, he left the enve-lope on his desk for four hours. When he did slit the envelope, it was to find in side a check for $1,623.63
... refund on income taxes
Bob had paid before going into the Navy four years ago!

NOT GOOD ENOUGH

The Glee Club teacher in a Brooklyn high school turned down Robert Merrill many years ago, on the grounds that Bob "wasn't good enough" to make the glee club. Robert Merrill is now the star of the Sunday morning RCA Victor show.

SMALL FRY

Donald O'Connor, new comic on CBS' Ginny Simms show once was the inspiration behind a note in the Hoagy Carmichael songbag. Donald, then a boy, was to appear in Bing's "Sing You Sinners" so Hoagy whipped up "Small Fry," one of his best remembered hits.

MELODIES AMERICA LOVES

The Peer Gynt Suite, by Edward Grieg, will be featured on the weekly Inglewood Park Cemetery Association concert, "Melodies America Loves" over KNX, at 7:30 p.m., Tuesday, February 4. Earl Towner directs the augmented CBS Concert Orchestra, with Cliff Howell as narrator.

The great epic poem "Peer Gynt" by Henrik Ibsen was set to music by Edward Grieg, with the two celebrated suites for orchestra.

This presentation includes: "Morn-g", "Abduction of the Bride", "Dance ing", "Abduction of the Bride", "Dance of the Mountain King's Daughter" "In the Hall of the Mountain King", "Peer Gynt's Homecoming", and "Solveig's Song"

"HANNAH" A VETERAN

Henrietta Tedrow, portrayer of the Foster family's maid, "Hannah," on the NBC Tuesday "A Date With Judy" show, is a newcomer to that cast, but a radio veteran. Miss Tedrow was in the famous "Myrt and Marge" cast. Helen Mack, "Judy" show producer, starred as Marge after the original one died.

CORRECTION

Some typesetter's finger slipped when the "Sports Round Up" ad was set for this edition . . . we think it's on Page 67. Anyway, please note that the time is not 4 p.m., but 4:45 p.m. Saturdays, on KHJ.

HAPPY TO SEE IT

Happy "Pot o' Gold" Felton has created a kiddies' character named "Otto the Octopus," which will emerge as a book, a record album, a doll, and possibly a radio program and movie cartoon.

Daily Dozens

The wealth of material in the daily "Kate Smith Speaks" program is the result of considerable research by none other than Miss Smith herself. Kate avidly reads some ten newspapers daily, as well as subscribing to thirty magazines which she peruses with what THE AUDIENCE DOESN'T SEE are the numerous details of preparation which precede every hour-long "Lux" airing. Members of the program's personnel regularly view top film productions with an eye to their suitability for radio adaptation. Then the show's talent buyer, Harry Kerr (second from left) sets about securing the stars to appear in the ether version. Here, with Cornwell Jackson of the J. Walter Thompson agency (wearing glasses) he signs up Barry Sullivan, Maureen O'Hara and Dick Haymes for a mike version of "Do You Love Me?"

THIS IS WHAT THE AUDIENCE SEES as CBS' famous "Lux Radio Theatre" goes on the air. Man with face concealed by curtain is Director Fred MacKaye, awaiting signal from control booth to cue announcer John Milton Kennedy to speak those oft-heard words, "Lux presents Hollywood!" Beside the flag, Producer William Keighley awaits his turn at the microphone.

CBS Photos

Monday, 6:00 p.m. CBS-KNX

T IS estimated that a total of some seven hundred manhours go into the presentation of a single hour long "Lux Radio Theatre" broadcast. A group of five members of the program's personnel regularly view hit Hollywood movies, with an eye to adapting them to the medium of radio. Many are difficult to transfer to sound, a few have proven impossible. One such is "The Spiral Staircase", in which the feminine star (Dorothy Maguire on the screen) does not speak. "What would we do with her on the air?" "Lux" scripter Sam Carter threw up his hands. "We're afraid that her voice on a filter, to suggest her thoughts, would become tiresome."

Carter stated that it nevertheless remains their desire to do this particular screenplay, and they aspire for a solution.

Almost all of the motion pictures present various problems of preparation for their presentation over a microphone. A main difficulty, of course, is reducing the length of the drama from the one to two hours of running time it was given on the screen to the forty-five minutes allotted for the actual story dramatization on the airshow.

BACKSTAGE MECHANISM controlling curtains and lights gives same appearance as a Broadway theatre. Stagehands at work are Bob Ozborn, Dave Dominguez and Elmer Kinder.

Radio Life is Ushered Behind the Curtain Of Radio's Top Dramatic Show to Discover Its Behind-the-Scenes Production Problems

By Shirley Gordon

"Another difficulty," scribe Carter pointed out, "is scene setting. On the screen, the audience can see where the actors are. On the air, it often becomes necessary to insert a stupid line like, 'Well, here we are in a restaurant."

CBS' "Lux Radio Theatre" originated first from New York with adaptations of Broadway plays. Shortly after its inception, the show was switched to the West Coast, with its scripts garnered from cinematic gems, usually featuring the talents of the stars who originally appeared in the screen versions. Considered by most as radio's top dramatic show, "Lux Radio Theatre" is now in its thirteenth year.

ADIO'S NEWEST hit show

ADIO'S NEWEST hit show is "Juvenile Jury", featuring a panel of five children from six to eleven years old. No prodigies these, they are typical American kids who ride the airways once a week to tackle the everyday problems of childhood.

Twenty-eight-year-old Jack Barry deservedly receives much of the credit for this show. He originated the Jury and conducts it with affable grace and charm. He interviewed thousands of kids, looking for just the right five who would be glib enough to hold a radio audience, and natural enough to make the questions and answers believable.

Jack Barry's brain child was born at the "Uncle Don Show". Barry saw a group of youngsters doing a play for Uncle Don. After the show, he got them together and asked them whatever questions popped into his mind. Their answers were so logical and original that he decided to try these kids on a show.

The kids comment, debate, and decide on questions submitted (by letter and in person) by other boys and girls of that approximate age bracket. Out of the mouths of babes have come some of the wisest and funnlest words aired on the kilocycles.

The five moppets who comprise the Jury are Glenn Mark Arthurs, Patsy Walker, Miriam Blumberg, Dick Orlan and Stevie Apter. They tackle such questions as "Should an eleven-year-old girl wear lipstick?", and pose such problems as:

"A few weeks ago, my uncle gave me a toy electric train, but before you know it, my father took it apart. When he put it together again, it didn't work. That's what happens to all my toys. What can I do?" Or a mother will write in and ask the Jury what to do about her eight-year-old son who has been copying his father in criticizing her hats.

On one of the early broadcasts, a fourteen-year-old girl wrote in the following complaint: "Every Saturday night my parents leave me to take care of my three younger brothers. It is very dull, except when the bables start crying for different things. What should I do?" The Jurors sailed into this one. One juror advised "Spend half of your allowance and get a baby-sitter." "Tickle the babies' feet", said a second. "Play gin rummy" said a third, and still another "Get a boy friend over and then play post office."

Glenn Mark Arthurs, the six-yearold star, was confronted with the question: "When mother sends me to the store, grown-ups crowd in and steal my turn. What can I do?"

Glenn suggested—"Why doesn't the boy catch the measles? Then all the other people would have to run out of the store."

On another occasion when a mother asked the Jury what she could do to cure her son of making funny faces when they were in public, Glenn advised her simply . "Leave him home."

Mrs. Anne Neal, 2625 Marsh Street, Los Angeles 26, Calif.

Sirs... One week my husband went to see "Hollywood Star-Time" and Ken Niles was the announcer... A couple of weeks later I went to the same program and Wendell Niles was announcer... My husband said

Ken Niles tries to push Wen Niles away from that mike.

I was mistaken, that there was only one Niles and that was Ken... I am almost sure I heard right ... but could you please print pictures of the two of them or one if there is one?

Are they any relation if there are two Niles announcers?

You win. Ken and Wen are brothers and brother announcers. Here they are.

Lloyd L. Garwig, 1643 West Fourth Street, Los Angeles 13, Calif.

Sirs: We have been buying your magazine for some time, and we think it is just the thing to guide one in obtaining the most out of their radio. How about giving us a story on Jack Berch sometime?

But I don't understand why you sell your magazine for eight cents a copy (which is cheeeep), but ask four dollars and fwenty-five cents for a year's subscription. Fifty-two weeks at eight cents a week figures up to four dollars and sixteen cents. Why the other nine cents?

But don't change the magazine just because we don't send for a subscription, because we will certainly continue to buy it at the store for only eight cents.

Postage accounts for price difference. Single copies mailed in unsealed envelopes go for two cents each. Our regular mail subscribers' copies go in a bunch by weight.

Mrs. T. P. Harris, 1804 South 7th Street, Alhambra, Calif.

Sirs: It seems to me that the squawk about transcribed programs is, to say the least, inane.

If the announcer did not say so, who would know? We would miss many good programs were it not for transcriptions.

Mrs. J. A. Warren, Sago Route, Dove Creek, Colorado

Sirs: I want to say that your magazine and my radio are my only relaxation and amusement, as we are too far out for any other. The pleasure we get from them is priceless.

The daytime serials make housework fly. If there is someone to talk with, or the radio to listen to, time surely goes by more pleasantly. But we all miss "Guiding Light," and hope to again hear it.

We want to tell you we appreciate your efforts, by' which you give us such a good little magazine. When it comes I just have to sit down and at least look through it, then usually end up by reading all of it...even though my work has to wait. But then I feel more like working...so what!

Miss Jeanne Morse, 6526 Repton Street, Los Angeles 42, Calif.

Sirs: I have a pet peeve. Why is it that almost all of the announcers at some time or another must murder the King's English? The use of "r's" is quite abundant when there is no use for them... "Canadar, Russiar, Californiar," etc. Please let's look to our dictionaries and English books before we become announcers.

How about a story on Art Baker? I listen to his program every day, and enjoy it very much.

I wouldn't miss a copy of your wonderful magazine for anything! So keep up the good work.

Looking Backward with Bergen

though not every ventriloquist could be a hit in radio, a certain Charlie McCarthy would be a smash any time, anywhere!

In the fall of 1937, Bergen and Charlie became the stars of the Chase and Sanborn show on NBC, and there they've been ever since.

Charlie has become world famous as not only the other voice of Edgar Bergen, but as the little wise guy who speaks for millions of Americans every time he opens his mouth.

His vast audience thinks of him as a real person, and even those who work in close association with Bergen treat Charlie as a fellow cast member. Margaret O'Brien, who has made several guest appearances with Bergen and McCarthy, is convinced that Charlie is a real person. She directs all of her conversation to him as to another child, "and disregards me completely!" sighed Edgar.

adaptations for the broadcast, was formerly its director, while his co-worker, writer Sam Carter, who handles the show's framework and interview dialogue, formerly worked as a publicist and story writer. Harry Kerr, who lines up the stars for each Monday's airing, also formerly worked in publicity and, preceding his service in the Navy, was one of "Lux's" writers, too.

Musical conductor of the series for the past ten years has been Lou Silvers, who arranges and conducts the show's score, and composes, with Rudy Schraeger, the original music used. This phase of the "Lux" production also presents its problems. Permission can seldom be obtained, because of union restrictions, to use the original score from the movie, and in addition, "Lux" ordinarily employs an orchestra with an average of fifteen pieces in contrast to the sixty-piece group doing the initial screen scoring.

The actual Monday night six o'clock airing of a "Lux" broadcast is preceded by numerous conferences and rehearsals—the preliminary ones between the producer, director and writers, the initial rehearsals with the engineer, sound man, musical conductor, and AFRA cast (with its members "standing in" for the stars), and then, on the Friday evening before broadcast day, the first rehearsal with the program's complete personnel, including name performers, in attendance.

Cut Record

A full dress rehearsal is held on Sunday afternoon, with a record of it being waxed, to which the program's cast and crew listen upon its completion. Last-minute cuts and revisions are then made, with final rehearsals scheduled on Monday afternoon before airtime.

Equally meticulous care goes into the preparation of the interviews with the stars which are heard at the close of each "Lux" show. "For instance," reported Carter, who pens them, "when Lauren Bacall and Humphrey Bogart were scheduled to appear on the program, I went out to their house and we sat around for awhile, chatting leisurely. The conversation centered on boats and chickens, those being the Bogarts' main interests, and the interview with them was written around those subjects.

"Oh, and Lauren's whistle!" the scripter recalled. "She blew it on the show, remember? Well, I wrote that in, after an episode that occurred while I was talking with them at their home. When Mrs. Bogart wanted to call in the butler, she blew her whistle!"
