▲ GALA GET-TOGETHER at the beautiful Bel-Air Country Club heralded the start of NBC's delightful "Halls of Ivy" series. Here, among those present, are Mrs. Ralph Edwards, Ralph, Gloria Peary, the show's scribe Don Quinn, and Hal "Giidersievee" Peary.

▲ STAR OF THE SERIES, Ronald Colman, receives smiles and good wishes from Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Day, who in turn are given "Halls of Ivy" diplomas which make them honorary Doctors of Radio. Colman's role on the program is that of "Ivy College's" Dean. (NBC-Ball photo.)

▼ JOYFUL AS a couple of college kids are guests Mr. and Mrs. Art Linkletter. Lois pins colorful "Ivy" boutonniere on the Linkletter lapel.

▼ VETERAN THESPIAN of screen and radio, handsome white-haired Herbert Rawlinson was among the party's distinguished guests. He played supporting role on opening show and at the party bestowed diploma on that delightful Lucille Ball. (NBC-Ball photo.)

KNBH's "Uncle Tony" O'Dare First Taught Drawing on Radio, Has Now Found Video an Excellent Medium for Animated Instruction

By Joy Hall

Monday through Friday, 6:00 p.m.
KNBH—Channel 4

WHEN a toddler proudly shows you his latest drawings of mama or papa, don't laugh at the gigantic ears, the lopsided mouth or the crooked nose, for that youngster might some day be a great artist.

"Be encouraging," asserts KNBH's amiable cartoonist "Uncle Tony" O'Dare, "for if a child is artistically talented, he will show it by attempting the difficult without knowing any of the rules." If little fingers can project imagination onto paper, there is an excellent prospect of developing the flair.

With his Monday-through-Friday teleshow, "Uncle Tony" has been of great inspiration to ambitious youngsters who yearn to express themselves with brush or crayon. With nearly two decades of teaching cartoonery, in classes and on radio, behind him, "Uncle Tony's" clever animations are now a nightly must with young set-siders. Besides illustrating the simple steps of drawing by turning circles, symbols and letters into amusing figures and objects, he also conducts a Good Deed Club open to all children.

For Art's Sake

Although he modestly declines classifying himself as an "artiste," Tony is also a serious painter with an amazing dexterity for recapturing the line and form of his idol, Michelangelo. At eighteen the young Italian painted a thirty-foot mural in the Catholic Church in his home town of Missoula, Montana, and after graduation from the state's university he studied under George Bridgman at the Art Student's League of New York.

When 1933 hailed the Chicago World's Fair, Tony's religious pictures, depicting "The Mystery of Life" and the "Creation of Adam" among others, covered an entire wall in the Hall of Religions at the Century of Progress. The compositions were on exhibit for two years there and later at San Francisco's World's Fair. In 1935 the much-lauded art work (in the manner of the old masters) was displayed at the Los Angeles Public Library.

Jack of All Trades

Not the type to starve for the sake of art, Tony's life has been full of versatility. Instructor, cartoonist, animator at Walt Disney Studios, singer, he has been nearly everything . . . even waiter, bartender, salesman and truck driver. With his

OUR MAILBAG has brought us many happy, thoughtful notes from our Radio-Television Life award winners and from anniversary-issue readers. Because they are evidence of the niceness of folks in radio, we thought we'd share some of these with you.

Martha Wentworth, Pacific Palisades, Calif.

I still haven't come down to earth since receiving the "Distinguished Achievement Award" which you and your staff so generously bestowed upon me, and I hardly know how to describe my sincere appreciation and gratitude for this honor. Believe me, it came as a complete surprise, and gave me the exact thrill I used to have as a child on the night before Christmas. All I can say is, thank you from the bottom of my heart, and that I will endeavor to make myself worthy of your regard in my work in the future, so that I may live up to your faith in me.

Keith Hetherington, Hollywood, Calif.

CONGRATULATIONS TO YOU AND RADIO-TELEVISION LIFE ON YOUR TENTH ANNIVERSARY WITH BEST WISHES FOR YOUR CONTINUED SUCCESS SINCERELY.

Mel Blanc, Playa del Rey, Calif.

What a pleasant surprise it was to receive the citation for Featured Player from Radio-Television Life.

Thanks so very much for this honor. I hope to always maintain the respect and good will of such a wonderful magazine.

I AM MORE GRATEFUL THAN I CAN EVER TELL YOU FOR THE WONDERFUL COMPLIMENT YOU HAVE PAID ME AND GRATEFUL TOO FOR THE FINE TALENT OF THE DIRECTORS THE CONDUCTORS THE MUSICIANS THE PERFORMERS THE SOUNDMEN THE ENGINEERS WHO HAVE MADE YOUR AWARD POSSIBLE BY TAKING MY TYPEWRITTEN WORDS AND BRINGING THEM TO LIFE. SINCERELY.

Gloria Swanson, New York City, N. Y.

It is indeed gratifying to receive your Honorary Award for service in Radio and I thank you for this honor. Sincerely.

Milt Samuel and Staff, Young and Rubicam, Hollywood, Calif.

ALL OF YOUR EARS SHOULD BE BURNING. THE TENTH ANNIVERSARY ISSUE IS REALLY SOMETHING SPECIAL. CONGRATULATIONS.

Virginia Gregg, Hollywood, Calif.

Please accept my sincere thanks, not only for your very flattering award, but also for the kindnesses always shown me by you and your staff. My best wishes for your continued success.

Wilbur Hatch, North Hollywood, Calif.

You will never know how appreciative I am of the Musical Conductor Award with which you have honored me. Everyone has commented on the beautiful color and workmanship in the scroll, which is indeed most ornate. Please accept my sincerest thanks for your recognition of my work. Sincerely.

Twenty Questions

Jack Bailey vs. Tom Moore

The Emcee of "Queen for a Day" and the Emcee of "Ladies Fair" And "Meet Your Match" Don't Always Agree on the Answers They Team Up to Reveal About Lady Contestants and Their Own Shows

*Bailey: Monday through Friday, 11:30 a.m. Mutual-Don Lee-KHJ, KFXM, KGB, KVOE
Moore: Monday through Friday, 11:00 a.m. Friday, 8:30 p.m. Mutual-Don Lee-KHJ, KFXM, KGB, KVOE*

1. How many women do each of you estimate you talk to on your programs?

Bailey: "Five daily, times five shows weekly, times five years with week ends off. That's thousands."

Moore: "I talk to approximately seventy women a week or about 3500 a year."

2. What traits do you find that practically all lady contestants have in common?

Bailey: "The Twitches."

Moore: "I find that all lady contestants are extremely gracious and charming."

3. Are there any particularly annoying mannerisms or habits that ladies reveal in front of the mike?

Bailey: "Only when they mumble."

Moore: "There are none as far as I have discovered."

4. Which are the easiest to talk to, young, middle-aged or elderly ladies?

Bailey: "Elderly. They have lost all fear of life—and me!"

Moore: "Elderly ladies, then middle-aged and finally, the young."

5. Do either of you recall particular contestants with fond memory?

Bailey: "Yes. The lady that was 'Queen' and had had violent hic-

For Love o' Mike (General Comment)

Rumors Are Flying

J. C. Flippen may be the emcee replacing Steve Allen on "Earn Your Vacation." . . . Another ABC audition is titled "One False Step" (isn't that a movie title, too?) . . . According to reports, Bing Crosby doesn't like his testimonial-type commercials any better than we did and would like another sponsor next season. The fact that the same sponsor's darling, Arthur Godfrey, has gone into the orange-juice business didn't make him happy, either. . . . Frank Sinatra's old sponsor may pick up the tab for Phil Harris and Alice Faye, who still have one of the best-liked shows on the air, according to our unofficial surveys. . . . Sam Hayes may go to ABC in the spot vacated by the "Richfield Reporter," which takes Hayes's old spot on NBC. . . . Hal March stars in a new CBS audition, "Count Your Blessings," originally tabbed for Don Ameche, who may go to ABC with a show. . . . Elliott Lewis is auditioning "The Log of the Black Parrot" at CBS. Wonder what that will do to "Voyage of the Scarlet Queen," which formerly starred Elliott and was recently rumored to be returning? . . . Ginger Rogers is talking with CBS about doing an air series. In case you've forgotten, Ginger is very good on mike.

Looks Like

Glenn Ford is forsaking his role in "Christopher London" because of a heavy film schedule. . . . Hedda Hopper's NBC chatter program has been postponed until fall. . . . And the KMPC hearings are being postponed until June 5. . . . KLAC-TV's "Wedding Bells" is being sued for $250,000 by "Bride and Groom." . . . Gerald Mohr, one of our Achievement Award winners and star of CBS's "Philip Marlowe," will be one of the stars in RKO's "Seven Witnesses." . . . The presentation of the Actor's Company for Mother's Day on CBS will be "Philadelphia Story" with an all-star cast: Jane Cowl, Otto Kruger, Dorothy McGuire, Margaret O'Brien, John Garfield, Dick Powell and Rosalind Russell. Prediction: Show will again be stolen by Otto Kruger. . . . General Mills will sponsor four more NBC shows on its summer schedule: Joel McCrea in "Texas Ranger," Penny Singleton in "Penny's Progress," Sara Berner in "Sara's Private Eye" and "Dimension X." . . . U. S. Steel sponsors the NBC Symphony this summer until "Theater Guild on the Air" returns on September 10. . . . Margaret Whiting's aunt, Margaret Young, a recording star of twenty years ago, will cut her first records since then for Capitol. Miss Young's style is back in style. . . . Sigmund Romberg (he had our favorite summer replacement for years) will play himself in the film musical to be made about him. Several years ago when we interviewed him, he told us that if a film was made about him, he wished to play himself. And he's the type, too. . . . Stuart Hamblen will star in ABC's "American Barn Dance," to be heard on the coast network.

Listening In

Louella Parsons: "All of us like you, Frankie, and wish you would come back to Nancy and the children. Everybody makes mistakes. . . ."

Walter Winchell: "Rome's hard luck was that Nero played the fiddle. Something ought to be done about that piano in the White House."

John Loder, guesting on "Twenty Questions": "I appeared on this program once before, four years ago, and got one answer—it was animal, a feather in Sally Rand's fan."

Red Nichols, interviewed by Andy Mansfield on KMPC's "Andy and Virginia" program (Andy had just asked him what he'd rather do if he wasn't a musician): "I'd rather be buried standing up!"

Clyde Beatty, on his Don Lee program: "The expression 'hold your horses' sprang directly from the early circus parades. A barker rushed ahead, crying to the drivers of the local teams, 'Hold your horses—the elyphants are comin'.'"

From the Burns and Allen show, with Dinah Shore as guest star:

Gracie: "Dinah Shore is married to a Mr. Also." George: "What gave you that idea?" Gracie: "Well, once she told me that her husband's name was George Also." George: "She's married to George Montgomery, the movie star, Gracie!" Gracie (to Dinah): "Oh, Dinah, I'm so glad you're happy with George Montgomery—he'll make you forget all about Mr. Also." Dinah: "Who?!" Gracie: "See, you've forgotten already!"

Bob LeMond, announcing the "Young Love" show: ". . . And now back to 'Young Love' with Janny and Jimmet."

"Family" Five a Week

Of special interest to the faithful fans of Carlton E. Morse's "One Man's Family" is the news that starting June 5, the program will be heard every night as a quarter-hour program. Presently heard at 12:00 noon on Sundays, the final broadcast at that time will be given on June 4. For a long time, "Family" fans have written to our Ear Inspires the Pen department with the complaint that the Sunday time is inconvenient for church-goers—we hope that the 8:00 p.m., Monday through Friday time will prove to be just what they want. (We'll remind you again, via Precasts, when the show goes across the board.)

Your Cue (Shows You May Like)

"Cloak and Dagger"

Here's an exciting new entry (to judge from the first show) in the summer schedule. The story of the OSS, "Cloak and Dagger," KFI, 1:00 p.m. Sunday, has all the traditional excitement of spy stories, plus the added thrills of the documentary this-actually-happened slant.

NEXT WEEK

Variety is the spice of life, and we give ample demonstration of this old axiom with the contents of next week's Radio-Television Life.

Among its pages you'll find:

"Wedding Bells"—Story and pictures of the popular TV love-bird show which lenses a beautiful nuptial ceremony each week.

"Danger—Twice a Day"—The intimate story of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Beatty and their unique, spine-tingling career.

"Answers to Spring Garden Questions"—A feature you green-thumbs (and otherwise!) mustn't miss!

"No Rules for Writing"—An interview in which scripter Mac Benoff reveals how he has supplanted the "rules" with constructive theories.

"Small Talk"—A feature on that enchanting video program on which the younger generation has a go at many an adult topic.

Plus an informative word portrait of popular actor Ted de Corsia and a two-page picture spread on charming songstress Jo Stafford.

Plus radio-TV candids, news, record tips, handy hints, a Norma Young Menuette, and complete program information.

upon which the series is based, introduced the program with a short speech, revealing that the stories are based on cases from the files of the war-time secret-service agency, Office of Strategic Services, and are fully authenticated.

Initial broadcast was a chiller about an American OSS man who is parachuted behind German lines to establish a radio relay station for other agents operating in the midst of the Nazis. Climax came when a German SS man discovered the American sewing on a uniform button. It seems that we sew them on criss-cross style while Germans favor the up-and-down stitch, a small fact that carried out the leit-motif of the drama—it's the little things you must watch in order to be a successful spy.

The program comes from New York and has the usual fine cast of Gotham actors, including Raymond Edward Johnson, Louis G. Cowan, producer, Winifred Wolfe, scripter, and director Sherman Marks all do a good job with the melodrama.

Only phase of the show that bothers us, and it's a traditional one, is the anachronism of having Germans speak English with a German accent and occasionally throwing in a "Ja Wohl." We know there's no way around this dramatic problem—but there it is.

"2000 Plus"

Now that radio has discovered the millions of science-fiction fans in the U. S., air melodrama has taken a turn toward robots, space ships and rockets. First show to tap this audience was "2000 Plus," KHJ, 7:30 p.m., Sunday. (Understandably we confused it at the outset with NBC's "Dimension X.")

"2000 Plus" has all the interesting accoutrements of super-science fiction, along with the inevitable "Sometimes science can go too far" and "Who are we, poor pitiful creatures, to explore the secrets of the Universe" themes that crop up in all these stories.

The program gives its molecular melodrama an authentic air that makes it more exciting. A recent "rocket ship to the moon" story had an almost documentary flavor as the take-off orders were given in all languages (even Russian, we were interested to hear).

Science-fiction fans live in a world all their own, we have decided after meeting a few of them. They demand high standards in their fiction. The fact that "2000 Plus" meets with their approval is praise enough for this New York-Sherman Dryer-produced program.

Playbacks (Critical Comment)

We Point With Pride

... To talented Jeff Clark's subbing for Frank Sinatra on the past week's broadcast of "Light-Up Time."

... To Jeanette Nolan's fine performance as Sara Bernhardt on the recent "Family Theater" program concerning the legendary actress. What a challenging job, to give voice to the most famous name in the theater! Miss Nolan didn't disappoint us in a role that told the story of Sara from the time she left the convent where she was raised to her final triumphs as an actress, triumphs made in spite of age and the fact that she had but one leg.

... To Gerie Raymond for the way he has worked into his "John J. Malone" role on "The Amazing Mr. Malone." We like Gene's light comedy touch—makes the role very much his own.

... To Henry Morgan's dead-pan dramatization of the advertisements on the comic-strip pages. You know the type of ads—they're drawn like real comic strips and always concern a girl who wishes to be popular and a member of the "town's top social set." Henry carried this saga right through to the inevitable happy ending where the heroine buys the right product and is immediately surrounded by handsome men at the country-club dance.

We View With Alarm

... Some of the practices that have developed on audience-participation shows, principally the trading in on sorrowful situations to build audience interest in a contestant. Also the continuous applause that greets every answer made by a contestant, even things as obvious as "How many hours in a day?" "Twenty-four." Wild applause. Why?

... The manner in which "Life With Luigi" has resorted to joke-type humor when it has a star whose interpretation can have us hovering between laughter and tears with his pathos and sensitivity. J. Carrol Naish's portrayal is never less than wonderful.

... The night club that advertises itself on the air as a spot for "you plain folks," implying that the listeners wouldn't be acceptable customers at plushier spots. What sort of thinking is this? We're under the impression that anybody in this democracy with the time and money to waste can waste it where he chooses. And who wants to admit that he's "just plain folks"?

... And in much the same vein—the announcer who delivered a commercial concerning time-payment plans for a TV set. "Only a dollar a week," he carolled, "why, that's no more than you spend on entertainment and luxuries every week!" A facetious young man who was sharing our listening talked back at this point. "H—no!" he snapped at the radio. "Some weeks I go as high as a dollar and a half!"

Bing and Mary

Last week a page ad in Variety said "The many friends of Miss Mary Martin should catch her spectacular performance on the Chesterfield program tonight." It was signed "Bing."

We're not exactly a friend of Mary's, but we were fans of hers back in the days when she was duetting with Crosby every week on the old "Kraft Music Hall" and we looked forward to the duo's re-teaming. If you heard the resultant show, you don't need to be told how successful it was. Nobody yet has topped Mary's spring-like rendition of "I'm in Love With a Wonderful Guy" and, wonder of wonders, the Crosby-Martin delivery of "Wait Till the Sun Shines, Nellie" topped even their fine recorded version of some ten years ago.

We loved Bing's John Alden-like proposal of marriage to Miss Martin on behalf of Gary, Dennis, Philip and Lindsay Crosby. "All four of them want to marry me?" exclaimed Mary. "What shall I do?"

"Accept 'em," said Bing, "and come here and kiss your father-in-law."

On Mike (About Studio Happenings)

Deejays Team

Adeline Hanson, Hollywood gal-about-music, is teaming with Eddie Smardan, well known for record shows in Northern California, Washington and Oregon, in a disc-jockey series titled "The Town Criers" on KOWL, 3:00 p.m. Mondays. Adeline is known to listeners through her disc programs on local stations and her video show, "The Clef Dwellers," on KLAC-TV.

"Game of the Day"

Three Mutual-Don Lee network broadcasting crews will be assigned to as many major league ball parks each day so that only live "Game of the Day" broadcasts will be aired.

The network announced that it has set up two standby play-by-play broadcasting crews. One or the other of these will present the "Game of the Day" in the event the regularly scheduled game, to be handled by Al Helfer, is postponed.

The network is presenting play-by-play descriptions of major league games in its "Game of the Day" Monday-through-Friday series. Art Gleeson and Gene Kirby, who assist Helfer in the "Game of the Day," will each head a stand-by crew. Prior to this arrangement, Helfer has on occasion been forced to "reconstruct" games from wired reports when his originally scheduled game was rained out.

Education Awards for Mutual

Two Mutual-Don Lee network shows, "The Family Theater" and "Symphonies for Youth," have received citations from the Institute for Education by Radio.

"Family Theater," a weekly half-hour dramatic show which adapts the foremost classics of literature for its broadcasts, won a first-place award in the religious field "for its wide appeal and fine presentation of the value of religion in everyday living." "Theater is produced and directed by Jaime del Valle and features some of Hollywood's brightest stars.

"Symphonies for Youth," a series of concerts for children of school age, presented each Saturday by Alfred Wallenstein and the Los Angeles Philharmonic Orchestra for a three-month period (January through April), received a special commendation, which reads, in part: "A series like this is valuable for young people throughout the country to broaden their musical horizons."

Atwater Kent Finals

Again this year the semi-finals and finals of the annual Atwater Kent Auditions are being broadcast over station KECA and the American Broadcasting Company network.

The 1950 Atwater Kent Auditions mark the eleventh annual presentation of this notable musical activity which, to date, has auditioned over 300,000 young, non-professional singers and has awarded prizes in excess of $250,000. In this year's auditions, over 1500 singers have been heard in the preliminaries competing for a chance at the awards totaling $15,000. Final determination of the winners will be made during the course of the ABC broadcasts of the finals at 9:00 p.m., Saturday and Sunday, May 20 and 21.

Off Mike (Personalities)

Along Radio Row

Announcer Art Gilmore beamed over the turnout at the opening of his new TV and all-appliance store in the Valley (4735 Van Nuys Boulevard)—and rightly so. Among the estimated two thousand folks who streamed in the door during the four hours of festivities were "all my brother Rotarians," grinned Gilmore, and such radio-TV-film personalities as Jack Bailey, Lurene Tuttle, Preston Foster, Brooke Red Ryder, Temple, "Sandy" and "Candy" of "Sandy Dreams," Jack "Cisco Kid" Mather made a Spanish-flavored speech and was followed by Rosemary De Camp, "Dr. Christian's" Judy Price, who acknowledged her intro with "Doctor Chreestian's Of-feece, I theenk."

Monday dress-rehearsal break at "Lux Radio Theater," backstage in the Green Room of the Columbia Playhouse on Vine Street, is fun! Coffee Dan's sends over sandwiches and coffee for everyone and hungry actors, soundmen, pages, press agents and people like us mill around talking and gesticulating with pottery cups in one hand and sandwiches and scripts in the other. William Bendix, handsome young Richard Long, Meg Randall and Rosemary De Camp again were relaxing after their "Life of Riley" rehearsal stint when we looked in to share their food—but not their work. And if Bill Bendix wants to know who spilled coffee on his script, we're gonna be sneaky and tell on the madcap De Camp, who gesticulated in the wrong direction—with the wrong hand!

Thrill of the week: Sitting quietly in the Brown Derby, looking as world-championish as ever, the one-and-only Jack Dempsey. . . Roomful of celebs included Dinah Shore, who is sporting an awfully cute haircut . . . George Brent, tanned and handsome. . . Sara Berner, who told us she was terribly excited about General Mills sponsoring her new show, "Sara's Private Eye," because "I just love men in uniforms."

Vacation note from Jane Pelgram, our TV editor, now vacationing in Mazatlan, Mexico: "Got three sailfish my first day out—biggest was nine feet, eleven inches and weighed 145 pounds. I got the biggest and most." That's our gal!

"Workshop" Follow-Up

In a recent issue we carried a feature about the juniors of the four networks who have organized themselves into an industry-wide workshop group in order to compete with their recorded productions. Spark of the first meeting was Robin Wood, a page in the NBC parking lot who got all the other young workers together and helped direct their talents in the competition.

It's nice to report that the week before our story came out, parking-lot page Wood was no longer in the parking lot. His efforts had brought him to the attention of a Honolulu radio station, and at this moment, tanned and talented, he's announcing whatever programs the Island station carries. Miss Bettie Rose is his successor as president of the combined workshop group. Bettie is employed at KLAC-TV as secretary to the technical director of the station and is carrying on Robin's work as head of this enterprising group of youngsters.

Best-Laid Plans?

Lloyd Adams of Los Angeles has the dubious honor of being the second contestant to be lost during an "outside stunt" in the history of NBC's "People Are Funny."

After being dressed in torn clothes and made up to look as though he had been in a fight, Adams was sent by emcee Art Linkletter to a nearby street to see if he would get any help from the people in the houses. Adams was told by Linkletter to go from door to door and say that he was in trouble, and to let him in because someone was chasing him. However, Linkletter had sent Mr. Adams's wife after him to knock on the door of the home that gave him refuge, and tell the people that she was looking for her no-good loafer husband.

Adams found a house where the people would listen to him, but before he could finish his story he was whisked inside, the door was securely locked, and the people called the police. His wife, following him at a safe distance, hadn't seen which house he had entered and couldn't find him to carry out her part of the stunt. After a fruitless search, she had to return to the NBC studios to report on the stunt before the show was over.

About fifteen minutes after the show was off the air, in walked Mr. Adams accompanied by two policemen. He had not told the people in the house that he was a contestant from "People Are Funny," but when the officers threatened him with arrest, he was forced to disclose that he was a contestant, trying to prove for Art Linkletter that "People Are Funny."

For Monroe Fans

Vaughn Monroe and his popular music aggregation are on an extensive tour of this area that will probably bring them within hearing of many eager fans. He'll be coming down the coast from Victoria, B. C., starting on May 27; June 2 he'll play San Jose; June 3, Oakland; June 4, San Francisco. After that comes Stockton and Fresno and then the Flamingo in Las Vegas on June 10.

Dux in the Air

The letters D-U-Z as the airlines code letters for Truth or Consequences, New Mexico, named for the Ralph Edwards NBC show, were officially approved this week by the Civil Aeronautics authority.

Thus the product which has sponsored the program for the past ten years is now a standard code word in approximately 5000 airline reservations, ticketing operations and weather reporting stations throughout the world.

Former call letters for the resort, which was formerly Hot Springs, were HSP. Name of the town was changed honoring the tenth anniversary of the "Truth or Consequences" program, April 1.

Change of the call letters was suggested by Bob Curtish, chief meteorologist for Continental Airlines, Denver.

Letter of Distinction

A fan letter is always sweet fruit to an actor, but when a college instructor in no less astute a subject than anthropology pens his praise, a performer can certainly take special pride.

Recent recipient of such a missive was Ted de Corsia. Letter writer was Dr. Gordon W. Hewes of U.S.C., who wrote of de Corsia's portrayal of "Inspector Peter Black" on CBS's "Pursuit": "The local color and depth of characterization are both above reproach."

Cheesies

(The best ever)

- 1 c. margarine or butter
- 1 c. firmly packed, grated nippy cheese
- 1 t. Worcestershire
- Dash of cayenne
- 3 c. sifted flour

Soften the margarine or butter, then work in the cheese with the Worcestershire sauce. When perfectly blended, work in flour.

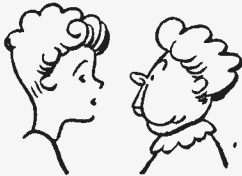

Make into rolls, about the diameter of a fifty cent piece, place in refrigerator to chill thoroughly and harden, then slice about one-eighth inch in thickness, and bake at 350 to a nice brown. Watch carefully, for they love to burn and then you don't enjoy eating them. Keep them (if you can) in an air-tight tin box, and serve with salads or cocktails.

Note: If Radio-Television Life readers have household or cookery problems, call Norma Young, between hours 9 a.m. and 4 p.m., Hudson 2-2133.

GAGS

OF THE WEEK

V. M. Stinnett, 4177 McConnell, Venice, Calif.

Heard on "Take It or Leave It": Eddie Cantor: Cherokee, are you married?

Cherokee: No, I figured no squaw, no squawk!

Virginia Inman, 5909 Willoughby Avenue, Hollywood 38, Calif.

Heard from Arthur Godfrey: Godfrey: I was so cold I couldn't sleep last night.

Announcer: Did your teeth chatter? Godfrey: I don't know . . . we don't sleep together!

The Ear Inspires the Pen

Rita Peschke, 3951 South Hill Street, Los Angeles 37, Calif.

"The Hour of St. Francis" has provided our family with much enjoyment. Its unique stories and fine dramatizations make us wonder if it is a local program only or if it is heard nationally?

Believe that "The Hour" is heard over 600 outlets throughout the nation.

Mrs. F. A. Worth, address withheld, Monterey Park, Calif.

I'm so tired of hearing the same people on the radio programs I could scream. It's disgusting especially when they change their names. I know their voices before they say their names. Are the eemces so blind that they don't recognize them? They tell the same old stories all of the time. If Mrs. _____ tells her story about needing an operation again, I'll scream. Mrs. _____ tells how she met her husband in the cemetery. Mrs. _____ tells about her three sets of twins, and the _____ give out with the Southern accent. Why not give the out-of-town people a break?

Mrs. Edward Suchwan, address withheld, Los Angeles 4, Calif.

I think Jack Benny's program has outlived its usefulness. His "tightwad" role theme has been so overworked that his programs have become a monotonous bore, regardless of the retinue of press agency and writers and high Hooper ratings of the glorified Jack Benny. I am not impressed with this unfunny nonsense. Another nuisance is the way that Benny must be coddled with a shower of applause with every breath he takes. . . . In my opinion another thing which any loyal American would call very poor taste is the remark he made on his program against Senator McCarthy, who is trying to expose the Red termites in our government. . . . We have struck out "Lucky Strike" cigarettes along with Benny's program from our home.

We miss the consistently funny "It Pays to Be Ignorant" program. Some sponsor is missing a good bet if he does not take on this hilarious comedy program.

Name withheld, Huntington Park, Calif.

Just read a list of the best ad-libbers in radio but there was no mention of Walter O'Keefe and I do think he is the very best ad-libber on the radio, so natural, and he doesn't laugh at his own jokes . . . he draws his contestants out and they tell their own story in their own way. When they get confused, their stories are a scream and most enjoyable. "Double or Nothing" comes on at the lunch hour, but I would rather miss my lunch than his show.

Name and address withheld, Los Angeles, Calif.

In my opinion Steve Allen is just about the greatest comedian to be brought to the attention of radio listeners in recent years. He is, as Garry Moore said, not just a comedian, but a great humorist. . . . I'm glad to see that he is getting the break he so well deserves. Recently you mentioned that he was the author of a book of published poems, "Windfall." Do you know where I could obtain a copy?

A bookstore should be able to help you.

Mrs. Modene Burry, P. O. Box 85, Toluca Lake Station, North Hollywood, Calif.

I have a fan club in honor of Hank Penny, who is a very charming entertainer and has a disc show on KWIK in Burbank, and we would appreciate a story on Hank in Radio-TV Life . . . he is so deserving of the publicity.

Request noted.

Mrs. H. C., address withheld, Los Angeles, Calif.

How refreshing to listen to the lovely voices of Dorothy Kirsten and Jeff Clark on "Light-Up Time" without having to bear those screeching girls.

Johnny Johnson, 4162 Fifth Avenue, Los Angeles 8, Calif.

One of the most interesting programs I have been hearing for some time is "The Lonesome Gal" over KHJ, 10:30 p.m. I've seldom miss any of her shows. Her commercials are very cleverly presented in a charming and different way. . . . I would like to see a story on her soon.

More power to Mercedes McCambridge. She has a very unusual type of voice and is getting the recognition she so well deserves.

Mrs. M. G. Starr, 535 Daisy Avenue, Long Beach, Calif.

I have recently purchased an FM radio and was very glad to find in Radio-TV Life the FM logs. . . . I do hope you will occasionally have some FM news too. I think FM has such satisfying music . . . the tone has such a rich quality.

Mrs. G. M. Sannis, 1278 North Harper Avenue, Los Angeles 46, Calif.

Thank you for the FM logs and I do hope you will continue to include them in Radio-TV Life.

Eye Inspires

Mrs. D. M. Martin, 1375 Erwin, Van Nuys, Calif.

Our television-wise children are missing a lot of the fun of "let's pretend" by seeing all their stories. Why not a "story lady" to read aloud from the old favorites, fairy tales, nature lore, etc., that are a youngster's heritage? Just a book, a reader and words, without pictures.

Mary Harris Wilson, 3932 Orange Drive, Los Angeles, Calif.

I noticed that you do not have any letters discussing the Hawthorne show on KLAC-TV. My friends and I feel that Hawthorne is utterly silly and just doesn't make sense. . . . I've wondered how others feels about this?

Now you've started something!

Leo Mayer, 3822 Bentley Avenue, Cuiver City, Calif.

Often wonder why we are compelled to see British films of the latest issue and American films of the year one type? We fail to enjoy the British films : . . . also wish to comment on too long and too many commercials. A short, sweet commercial is a delight.

About Your Letters

All letters to the Ear Inspires the Pen Department should include name and full address of the sender. Name and/or address will be withheld on writer's request. Opinions expressed in the letters printed are those of the senders and do not necessarily reflect the opinion of Radio-Television Life.

STATION IDENTIFICATION WITH NETWORKS

(For convenience of Radio-TV Life's rapidly growing family of readers outside the immediate Los Angeles area we herewith publish call letters of stations with their network affiliation. This will assist in locating programs where logs do not cover your own home area.)

Help, Letter Writers!

We love to have you write to this department, but too many of you are writing letters that are much too long. Please try to state your comments concisely (50 words or less), otherwise we shall have to cut your letter in order to permit others, too, to express their opinions. Write, but write right to the point!

RECORD Notes to You

By ANDY MANSFIELD

(Hear Andy and Virginia, KMPC, Monday-Friday, 6:00-7:00 a.m.)

BEST WAXINGS OF THE WEEK:
Gordon MacRae-Lucille Norman selections from "New Moon" (Capitol LP) . . . Dennis Day-Freddy Martin's "Stars and Stripes Forever" (RCA-Victor) . . . Helen Forrest's "Sister Kate" (MGM) . . . Bob Crosby's Bob Cats' "Washington Post" (Coral). . . In the classic field, lovers of chamber music should not overlook the Hollywood String Quartet's "Quartet No. 6 in E Major" (Capitol LP). Making extensive use of basic Brazilian melodies and rhythms, composer Villa-Lobos has interwoven native characteristics into an unusual musical pattern, further enhanced by the excellent reading given this work by the four artists comprising the quartet. . . . Other LP Microgroove discs include five Louis Alter modern impressions of "Manhattan," and the "Gershwin Concert," presenting "An American in Paris," "Rhapsody in Blue," "Second Rhapsody," and "Cuban Overture." Both were recorded in the early forties by the Paul Whiteman organization for Decca, and still stand as top examples for brilliance in modern mood. . . . Red Nichols' Five Pennies and his top jazz classics of the early thirties are again available on Brunswick LP. If it's before your time and you want to hear how Red, Big T, Krupa, Goodman, J. Dorsey, Glenn Miller, Joe Sullivan and other jazz greats worked together, don't miss this "un. . . . Roberta Quinlan, via the TV route, debuts on Mercury with "Buffalo Billy" and "I Never Had a Worry in the World," to the fine backing by Jan August and the Harmonicats. While the gal isn't sensational, future releases could be eagerly watched because the styling is there, and experience and material should do much to help. . . . Martha Tilton (Coral) has a tune called "An Arm With a Bow in Its Hand," strictly on a hoe-down kick, but good to the last note and good liltin' from Tilton. "No Dice" on the flip is exactly that. . . . Woody Herman and the Band That Played the Blues yesterday are back with a pair on Coral for reminiscing, "Blues on Parade" and "Farewell Blues"—still nothing but Good! . . . Jo Stafford has been singing ballads for so long, we almost forgot she could do anything else until we heard "Simple Melody" and "Pagan Love Song" with Weston's Dixie Eight for Capitol! If this is the result, leave your hair down more often, Jo—on you it's becoming! . . . (P.S. . . . Wonder when Mildred Bailey's newies for Decca will be available? . . . Can hardly wait. . . . A.M.)

Handy Hints

WITH DOROTHY GARDINER

of KTLA's "Handy Hints,"
Monday through Friday, 6:45 p.m.

Each week we pick the best Handy Hint sent directly to Radio-Television Life, 6361 Selma Avenue, Hollywood 28, and use it, with your name and address, in this column as well as on the air over KTLA, Friday evening at 6:45. A lovely gift will be sent to everyone whose hint is used here as KTLA-Radio-TV Life Hint of the Week.

This week's winner is: Mrs. T. J. Green, 154 N. New Hampshire, Apt. 205, Los Angeles 4, Calif.

The hint is: Just drop a little vanilla in the paint before using it in the house and you will not have any odors from it. The vanilla will not discolor the paint either.

Here is a hint for keeping flower pots on the fence and fence posts. Just drive a long nail into the fence or post (¼ or ½ of the way, leaving an inch or so sticking out). Place the flower pot over the nail (nail goes in the hole on the bottom of flower pot). Now you can shake the fence or bump into it without the worry of your flower pots falling over and breaking.

Use your egg poacher to heat the baby's lunch. Simply put his carrots, spinach, etc. in the sections.

When writing with ink and you make a mistake and want to erase it, take a tooth pick, wind a small amount of cotton on one end, dip into Clorox or any similar bleach and apply gently to the part you wish to be erased. Be sure that the paper is dry before writing again in the same place.

An ordinary matchbook makes a neat sewing kit for your purse. Remove the matches from the book and wrap the cover with thread. The stubs of the matches make a handy cushion for needles.

On washdays put your left-over starch in one of the ice-cube trays and keep it in your freezer. During the week when you rinse out a blouse or something that needs starch, simply take as many cubes of starch as you need and dissolve them with boiling water.

Removing the screw-in base of a broken light bulb can be something of a problem. Try pressing a large cork over the jagged edges of glass. Then the base can be unscrewed easily. For safety make sure the current is off.

To take care of paint brushes, drill a small hole in the handle of each paint brush and run a stiff piece of wire through these holes. Lay the wire, with the brushes on it, across the top of a container. This will keep the paint brush off of the bottom of the container, and the bristles will remain straight.

Instead of removing boiled eggs from the boiling water with a spoon, try using an orange-juice strainer. You'll find you will have a firmer grip and can cool the egg more easily under cold water.

To keep the saws of your table saws separated, put them in an old record album, it will keep them from getting nicked and you'll know where they are.

Laying linoleum is an easier job if a large suction cup such as a drain plunger is used to lift the corners. For a tight grip, rub soap on the cup's edge.

Take a wire pot-scouring pad to scrub potatoes, carrots, etc. instead of peeling them. Then you do not lose all the best part of the vegetables. Hold them under running water while scrubbing.

In & Out of Focus (General Comment)

Looks Like

First J. Arthur Rank, now 20th Century-Fox, through their head man, Skouras, says 20th won't furnish any pix for MacDonald's Phonevision. Twentieth will use their pictures for their own big-screen theater TV early next year. Phonevision meanwhile is making a case of refusals, saying it is illegal for any movie company to refuse the use of film to Phonevision, which will offer standard prices to book the films for telephone telecasts. . . . Looks like there is a change of format, expansion to a half hour, and the addition of a new starring personality to "Lee's Lair," a Monday night KTSB program. Popular solo-singing pianist Matt Dennis now joins the sports-minded who gather in the "Lair" to entertain and interview the visiting sportsworld and celebs. . . . Dells Restaurant owner Mike Gaynes is interested in originating a television show from his La Cienega eatery featuring a once-a-week, half-hour celebrity interview program. He's already interested his La Cienega neighbors, the Century Theater Group, in providing talent for the show.

Looks like the Al Jarvis "Clock-watchers' Club," seen on KLAC-TV, is disproving any mention that there is no place for daytime TV. His contest draws an average of more than 5,000 letters a week. . . . The NBC-TV audition on Dean Martin and Jerry Lewis is delayed again while that foot-loose duo fulfill a New York night-club commitment. . . . "Miss Los Angeles" is going to be selected via television, KTTV announces. All local unmarried girls between eighteen and twenty-seven are eligible, and the station asks that you contact the station if you have some undiscovered beauty living next door to you. . . . The Andrews Sisters' manager sent letters to all TV stations informing them they may not imitate the Sisters on tele. His burn is credited to three Gotham comics who played a record and anticked it up, as the Andrewses, to the sound. Invasion of privacy. . . . Screen and stage vet James Gleason is discussing a TV-radio series of circus stories to be written by Thomas W. Duncan, author of "Gus the Great" and "Ring Horse." Duncan would create a new clown character for Gleason to play. . . . The Electric League figures now have the Los Angeles TV area at one set for each 3.3 families. That puts LA in front of Chicago and Philadelphia, and second only to New York. San Diego is estimated at about 35,000, and San Francisco at near 50,000. . . .

Page Thirty

KTLA's Stan Freberg, who does the voice behind the popular character "Cecil, the Seasick Serpent" in "Time for Beany," has etched a Capitol album of children's records. . . . KECA-TV will pick up the Western Open Championship golf matches at the Brentwood Country Club May 18 through 21. The L. A. Junior Chamber of Commerce sponsors. . . . The Bureau of Labor Statistics reports about 5,000 new jobs in the U.S. as a result of TV manufacture in radio-TV factories. Do they mean 5,000 new-type jobs—or 5,000 new old-type jobs?

Stop, Listen, Look (Shows You May Like)

"Yesterday's Newsreel"

If you can bear to give up the first fifteen minutes of "Hoppy's" Sunday night reels, you will profit greatly by watching KTTV's (6:30 p.m., Channel 11) series of old-time newsreels.

Each fifteen-minute stanza covers a sporting event, a few personages of the era, fashions, aeronautical developments, and a general timely topic of the year. And the years range from before the twenties through the middle thirties. One night we even saw some faded early footage on the original Pancho Villa, Mexican badman who gave the United States Cavalry a rough go of it for some years.

If sports mean to you such legendary figures as Bobby Jones, Helen Wills, Jack Dempsey, Red Grange, Paavo Nurmi or Bill Tilden, you can sooner or later see them all.

And if you have forgotten that we once had presidents who weren't named Roosevelt or Truman, the "Yesterday's Newsreel" is a good refresher course with clips on Taft, Coolidge and Hoover.

Hardly a new masculine viewer will be able to contain his horror—at both the old and the somewhat similar contemporary—when the fashion parade of the old days is flashed. But with the dowdy dress some other pretty wonderful things were going on, and this Sunday night slot is a great opportunity to look back on them.

Pet Exchange

No matter what its recentness, our last mention and recommendation on many scores of KTTV's "Pet Exchange" (Friday, 7:00 p.m., Channel 11) has been too long ago.

This show started about a year ago; Frank Wright's Calo Dog and Cat Food Company stand the cost; and it is a half hour devoted to finding homes for pets. The entertainment value lies in the animals paraded—everything from pups and kittens to lions and elephants. (A recent four-and-a-half-ton pachyderm visitor nearly played hob with the set when she excitedly trumpeted and the blast of air from her great trunk carried away part of a flimsy wall.)

Well-known guests—usually big names from the movie colony or stage or radio—put in a weekly appearance to give their pitch on the care and welfare of four-footed friends.

That's all very good, but our praise goes not for the fun of the show, but to the myriads of people who work ceaselessly after the show has faded from the channel. Calls asking for dogs, cats, birds and mice are followed up, homes are checked as to their desirability as future resting places for the pets in question, and the animals are catalogued for further checking on to make sure they are happy.

Pets are taken in, allocated to the different homes about the city that the S.P.C.A. maintains for the homeless four-footers, and the animals are catalogued for mention on the show.

What other television show puts in this careful, detailed effort on their props between appearances?

Of course the boxing bears, visiting elephants and performing lions seen appear only to keep things lively for the unimaginative who can't get their kicks from just plain dogs, cats and birds. These animals have homes, trainers and jobs, and aren't available by calling the show and asking for them, as are the other animals on view.

The Calo show gets the homeless pets they offer for viewers from the Southern California Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals, and if you haven't seen the quarters the Society maintains for pets they have taken in, a lesson is in store for you. They are an endorsement for humanity.

Perry Como's Supper Club

Practically ever since it went on the air, KNBH, Channel 4 (Sunday at 8:00 p.m.) has been carrying the eastern kinescope of Perry Como's Chesterfield Supper Club. By very reason of its continued weekly presence and continued weekly excellence, we just accept without mention. It's a good show to watch.

Each week Perry, the Fontanne Sisters and Mitchell Ayres's orchestra hang a few songs around some simple gimmick, introduce a guest or two, and generally have fun. Typical was a recent Sunday's stunt of having the viewer follow Perry around the day before the show to see what went into making up a telecast. There were songs to be chosen, song pluggers to be listened to, the Fontanne Sisters to be rehearsed with, and guest Morey Amsterdam to be endured throughout his tortuous pursuit of Como in an effort to "sign him up." This last bit of horseplay was alive with Amsterdam antics, gags and routines, and the comedian served as perfect foil for the Como.

For a brief few seconds the well-known canine of eastern television, a bored basset hound, put in an appearance. He yawned, eyed the camera, shot the principals a couple of disdainful glances and that was that, but we go along with the consensus. He definitely has personality!

We've been Como fans since the days when he used to hang on a mike and sing "Wishing" with Ted Weems's band. He's singing just as well, but what Mr. Como has added is tremendous savoir-faire and the ability to emcee most graciously.

Guest Appearances

KTLA not long ago added new hours to its weekly schedule and started telecasting at 1:00 Sunday afternoons on Channel 5. Only last week we got with the new shows, wondering what could go on that could be labeled only "Guest Appearances" and still be interesting enough to televise.

Dick Garton—we like to identify him as co-emcee of the Wednesday night KTLA "Man's Best Friend" show starring Gypsy, Freckles, Pancho and all—holds down the host's chair, with Korla Pandit on hand at the organ.

The first guests we saw were none less than Buddy Cole and his wife, the pretty Yvonne King. After some interesting, informal chatter, both Yvonne and Buddy performed, Buddy at the piano with some of his best-knowns from his albums; Yvonne vocally with an old standard, "Everything Happens to Me."

They were no sooner out of range than two marvelous East Indian dancers not only performed, but explained their dances and their costumes.

Between guest appearances Korla entertains at the organ with the mood music for which he is so famous.

Garton has an easy manner perfectly designed to put dropper-inners at their greatest ease, and he apparently knows enough about each guest so that there is no halting, stumbling question-and-answer routine to suffer through before you finally discover whom you are seeing and why he is a guest of note.

We don't know whom you might meet Sunday afternoons on "Guest Appearances," but apparently they will all be caliber guests who can actually entertain.

"Easy Aces"

That delightfully sardonic "Mr. and Mrs." team, Jane and Goodman Ace, are back again making matrimonial mockery, this time on KTSL's Channel 2 via Du Mont teletranscription, each Wednesday night at 9:15.

Listeners who chuckled sympathetically over the barbed domesticities of Mr. Ace and JANE will find their video format comes ever closer to the hearth, for the "Easy Aces" typify a couple whose sole entertainment is, naturally, television.

Premiere found them, along with Jane's mother, a lovable old hypochondriac, absorbed in a filmed presentation of the Irish Sweepstakes. Jane of course was vowing she'd give a hundred bucks if she could win and buy some new dresses. "Mama" was wistfully thinking of all the operations she could have were the purse to come to her. Goodman was frantically trying to hear the film's narration, placate the two women, explain to his wife the values of money and convince his in-law that there was nothing left within her to remove.

Only disappointment voiced here would be that but a fleeting glimpse was to be had of the "Aces" themselves. Show concentrates mainly on these veterans' glib commentary and odd observations, focusing on the pair only at the end. However, their chatter does suffice . . . and old radio fans will vouch for that.

Fun at the Beach

The antics of some of Los Angeles' beach-goers have been considered entertaining enough for national magazine coverage, but it took KTLA to realize the potentialities of a Sunday afternoon video show lying in our local sands.

Now each Sunday at 3:00, a trio of the Channel 5 cameras are hauled down to Lick Pier in Venice. Two of them are perched on platforms in the sand, the third toted to the end of the pier where water traffic will be easily caught by the lens. Dorothy Gardiner and Ken Grauer interview the game players and eager passersby and generally spark the activities that make up the hour-and-a-half session. Water skiers, tumblers, acrobats, kids just around for fun of the games and contests KTLA puts on, lost screaming children and chilled-looking adults all contribute to the melee that immediately sets viewers to wishing they were at the beach.

Second Glances (Critical Comment)

Ruby Still Sparkles

Big excitement for this viewer was the recent guest appearance of the tap-dancing flash of the thirties, Ruby Keeler, on the Ken Murray show. Ruby, retired for almost fifteen years and the youthful looking mother of five children, was our first favorite movie star. You can imagine with what trepidation we awaited her appearance on TV.

Murray set the show off on the right foot by giving her a production-number setting that brought in couples dancing in the costumes and to the tunes that Ruby made famous in her musicals. Hoofers did a bit of "Forty-Second Street," a West Point cadet and a gal in organdie soft-shoed to "Flirtation Walk," sailors reprised "Don't Give Up the Ship." All very exciting.

Ruby made her entrance to "Liza," and if you saw "The Jolson Story" you'll recall the significance of that. She proved to be the same loose-ankled, forthright little hooper that we remembered, her lovely dancer's legs as trim and silky as they were in "Go Into Your Dance." Her taps were as mellow and measured as ever as she did her "Liza" and "Forty-Second Street" numbers, and the way she had of telegraphing a gag-line by ducking her head just before she said it remained the same. My, we enjoyed it—maybe this is the golden age of TV!

Tips

By JANE PELGRAM

While the public worries about converting to color television, if, when and as; and while the FCC is in a turmoil over the decision they ultimately have to make regarding which color system (CBS, NBC, and Color Television, Inc.) they will accept as most workable—the theaters may beat the whole bunch on regular commercial video broadcasting through providing big-screen color before it is available in homes. Paramount Television affirms it has two color systems ready for its theater TV process, and 20th Century-Fox is working on large-screen color video.

The theater men realize that to be at all successful they must offer something more than people can get at home; they also realize that RCA's unveiling of a TV tint tube that fits the coaxial cable and the highly successful demonstration on standard, commercial, twelve-and-a-half-inch-screened RCA table models of its single-tube system behoove the movie makers to get with it first, or else be obsolete by the time color arrives in homes.

If Paramount can photograph and transmit a show in color, it can do its own telecasting for theater video—but if its big-screen process entails filming the video images from the face of a receiving tube, the theater company would have to wait for commercial color video before it could take a show off the air from a regular color telecast and throw it back on the screen in color.

The folks at Twentieth are being equally secretive about their process, but it is believed to be a film process, and an outgrowth of one of their developments in the line of color for regular film-making.

Those buyers waiting for color seem to have a good long wait ahead of them, and the possibility of missing a tremendous amount of fine entertainment in the interim. The FCC doesn't move with the speed of light at best, and with bigger and better developments arising almost daily in the three network systems under consideration, more hearings on color seem to be in the offing. Waiting for color before buying seems a nowhere precaution.

Pit & Podium

By JOAN BUCHANAN

Like Frank Fontaine says, I wasn't doing anything, just standing there in the Studio Bookstore, not doing anything, when a large, familiar figure loomed in the doorway. Turned out to be Sigmund Spaeth, whom I've recently mentioned here in connection with songs that sound like other songs. Having thus conjured up the former "Tune Detective," I managed to dig a few facts for this column. Spaeth, understandably mistaking me for a lady book dealer, told me he was interested in plugging his new book, a novelized version of the Clara and Robert Schumann love story. His ABC program, not heard locally, was broadcast from Hollywood while he was in this area.

I was interested in the musicologist's continuing adventures with the American popular song. His book of several seasons ago, History of Popular Music in America, is the most fascinating thing on the subject.

He revealed that on trips like the current one he lends an attentive ear to juke boxes in restaurants and that he thinks the old-time music being revived is giving a needed lift to popular tunes in general. We got on the subject of his recent lists of the most popular songs of the last fifty years. They were, in case you missed the Variety and Time articles: "Sweet Adeline," "School Days," "Shine On, Harvest Moon," "Let Me Call You Sweetheart," "Down by the Old Mill Stream," "I Want a Girl," "St. Louis Blues," "Smiles," "Stardust" and "God Bless America."

"But people get confused," he sighed. "They thought I'd said those were the best popular songs of the last fifty years. Best and most popular are two different things." In order to straighten readers out, Spaeth then compiled his list of the best: "Waiting for the Robert E. Lee," "Lazy," "The Man I Love," "Chloe," "I'll See You Again," "All the Things You Are," "If I Loved You" and "Were Thine That Special Face."

Two of the most popular songs, "Stardust" and "St. Louis Blues," also made Spaeth's "best" list. Big surprise was his rating of an overlooked Coie Porter tune from "Kiss Me Kate," "Were Thine That Special Face," a beautiful and seldom played number. Spaeth looks for it to do a slow climb, a la "Begin the Beguine," another Porter hit that took a mere decade to catch on after its introduction in a Broadway musical. "When Cole read the list, he called me up," Spaeth smiled. "He was very pleased."

coughs for years. I loved her."

Moore: "I especially recall a dear old lady from Springfield, Illinois. She was a grandmother, Shirley Donovan, eighty-one years old, and possessed a beautiful soul. She was the kindest, sweetest person I have ever met."

6. Is there any similar experience in your background that fitted you for your present dealings with the ladies?

Bailey: "I have spent all my life saying 'yes' to women and still love it."

Moore: "I have always preferred the company of ladies."

7. How many women comprise your immediate families? What do they think of the way you handle their sex on the air?

Bailey: "I've only one wife and on this subject she can't be reached for a statement."

Moore: "There are four women in my immediate family and my mother thinks I'm wonderful."

8. Do you ever dream about your program?

Bailey: "Always."

Moore: "The only dreams I ever have concerning the program usually consist of one where I am not getting off the air in time."

9. What is the percentage of men appearing with you in comparison to women?

Bailey: ".000½."

Moore: "I would say only about one-fifth of the people appearing with me are men."

10. Would you say that women have a better sense of humor than men? Are they better sports?

Bailey: "Yes and no—or in some cases vice-versa."

Moore: "Women have a much better sense of humor than men and are far better sports."

11. What is your technique in handling a nervous contestant? A brassy one?

Bailey: "I love 'em nervous and help them. The brassy type are not long for my mike."

Moore: "I have no particular technique other than doing my best to put them completely at ease. Brassy contestants we just don't have."

12. Have you ever met? If so what was the occasion?

Bailey: "Never. I travel in a much younger set."

Moore: "I have never met Mr. Bailey, but have long admired his eighth-grade picture which is still being used for publicity purposes."

13. Do you think radio could use a clinic where weary emcees could take their troubles?

Bailey: "The nut houses are already full."

Moore: "No need to look for a clinic for this emcee, as I never worry and have no troubles."

14. Could you compare embarrassing experiences for us?

Bailey: "When my zipper slipped in 1945!"

Moore: "Most embarrassing moments as such stem from perfectly natural occurrences, as per example, a contestant mentioning that she is going to have a baby. I believe it should be handled as the perfectly natural thing it is and usually congratulate her and give her a year's diaper service."

15. Have either of you ever been topped unexpectedly by a fast-talking femme?

Bailey: "Yes. I asked a lady if she'd lived here all her life. She said, 'No, not yet.' I was dead."

Moore: "I am constantly being topped by contestants and love it."

16. Have you found that contestants from one section of the country are quicker or more poised than those from others?

Bailey: "I love all sections."

Moore: "No, I haven't found this to be true."

17. How do each of you handle "regulars"?

Bailey: "Give them a good letting alone. I know most of them by their first names."

Moore: "The regulars are a necessary part of our audience and occasionally we use one of them—but if they are once on our show, it is understood they will not be used again for a year."

18. Do you find yourself drawn toward any particular type as ideal contestants?

Bailey: "No. Bring on all comers!"

Moore: "I suppose everyone has their favorites and mine happen to be grandmas and children."

19. Have you found that physical types follow their traditional descriptions (fat ladies are jolly, thin ones are not, pretty ones are coy, short ones are "cute")?

Bailey: "They all fit."

Moore: "No, I haven't found this to be especially true."

20. If you had it to do all over again, would you?

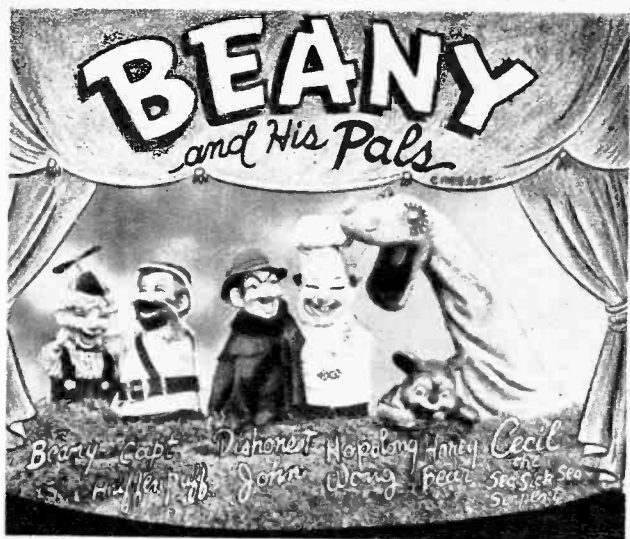

Bailey: "Yes, but for more money."

Moore: "Would I? You bet your boots I would and I hope to continue for many years to come."

Just Like a Boy!

"Beany," Engaging Lead Man of a Popular Television Puppet Series, Isn't Unlike Most Small Boys in That "Eating Time" Has Great Bearing on His Life's Story

Monday-Friday, 6:30 p.m.
KTLA, Channel 5

AN OLD jingle about snips and snails supposedly ties up the mystery of "what little boys are made of." One of the most popular little boys in the country, the propeller-capped, grinning little "Beany," no doubt substantiates this. It is how "Beany" came into being that makes a story.

Like most small boys, real or fancied, events of his life are closely linked with eating. He was conceived in a Wilshire Boulevard delicatessen late one night. Creator Bob Clampett had stopped by for a late snack, and as he ate, watched, then eagerly sketched, a rosy-faced child dressed in a striped shirt, beany cap and suspender suit, his idea of long mulling was taking form.

Table Talk

"Beany's" actual birth was the result of another round-table coffee-klotch session among Bob and his team of workers who today are principals in the successful "Beany" picture. The name "Beany" arose from a breakfast-table session between Bob Clampett and his mother. Several names were possible choices, but Bob's mother held out for the present perfect moniker.

Bob grinningly says there are, outside of the show's dear little title character, five real principals. Daws Butler, who does the voice for "Beany"; Stan Freberg, who articulates for "Cecil"; set-designer and artist Bill Oberlin; writer Charles Shows, and a producer-director by the name of Bob Clampett.

Any time that, after a regular show, these five turn out of Para-mount's KTLA to go next door for a snack, new "Beany" adventures are born.

It was table talk that led to the inspired "Schmoon" trip. Inter-planetary travel was discussed as a theme, but the moon seemed too cold a body for the popular crew to try and force, educationally, onto children. It was Bill Oberlin who came up with the warmer, unexplored "Schmoon."

These inspired "cuffo" ideas, while charming, aren't relied upon solely. A good deal of work and research follow up each jolly suggestion. Once the trip was decided upon, the entire group of "Beany" creators spent evening upon evening trooping en masse, up to the observatory. When rocket propulsion came into the puppet-series story line, Bob's own intensive study of a book on rocket propulsion served as guide. The group painstakingly copied and studied charts of the interplanetary system before plotting the "Leakin' Lena's" flight. These accurate charts were later craftily integrated into the show and put on view to stimulate child interest in the real heavenly bodies.

When the group hit upon the idea of a safari into the jungle in the "Middle of East Nowhere," a suitable jungle was painstakingly searched out. From an old travel book a photo depicting a lush South American jungle was finally chosen as the model.

Award Winner

Early in January, after a success-

bers of the moment and invites his correspondent to furnish information of tourist interest. He also calls singers and musicians touring the U.S. and records phone conversations to be played later as interviews.

When Masterson contacted London's famed Grosvenor House with a request for music information, the house orchestra under the direction of bandleader Sidney Lipton cut a sixteen-inch record, playing the most popular tunes and sending greetings to Masterson and the program. The disc jockey had to go to the customs warehouse in Alameda to pick it up. Careful customs officials, finally convinced that it was not a plot to defraud the government, let it go through for a dollar eighty-five duty.

Sources of information tapped weekly by Masterson include Variety for the over-all music picture, and the music magazines, including the British equivalent of Down Beat, Melodymakers. He also reads travel folders put out by resorts and steamship lines and is convinced that the cleverest writers in the business work on them. "Get this," he says, quoting one of his favorites, "Curling surf, breaking on crescent beaches—mountains rising behind beautiful

PAUL MASTERSON, from KNX, cabled a hotel in Papeete, Tahiti, "SEND NAME OF MOST POPULAR SONG IN TAHITI WE WILL PLAY IT ON INTERNATIONAL DISC JOCKEY PROGRAM." The answering cable: "MOST POPULAR SONG IN TAHITI POAVOE MARURERE PATAUTAU TAUHOAHER."

On this occasion, "International Disc Jockey" Masterson was stumped, but from most of the glamorous spots in the world he has received accurate (and translatable) titles that have gone to make up his jaunty program.

Masterson does all the research and writing on the program, and in the process reveals that he's learned a lot about music, geography, travel and how to send cables. He's also learned that the American popular song, once considered a pretty lower-class commodity, is actually a better ambassador for the U.S. than any number of official delegations. All over the world, American songs are whistled and sung with the same interest they're accorded here. Sometimes it becomes a formatting problem for "International Disc Jockey." From France, Italy, Belgium and even the Taj Mahal Hotel in Bombay, Masterson received cables that "Again" was the most popular tune being played at the moment. The jockey would like a little more variety than that.

Maps and Music

The unique record program was Masterson's own idea. He had been subbing for Tom Hanlon on the "Merry-Go-Round" record show when the chance came to have his own KNX series. Always intrigued by the idea of travel, he dreamed up a combination of music and globe-trotting. Every week he sends cables to hotels and night clubs all over the world; replies are paid for in advance. Masterson usually requests titles of the four most popular num-modern buildings . . ." That gem is from a hotel in Rio de Janeiro.

Home Boy

Masterson's actual traveling has been confined to one trip to Mexico City and a wartime tour of New Caledonia and Tokyo. He's a Long Beach native and started in radio on KGER while still in high school. Listeners have also heard him previously on KMPC and ABC. In the service in 1942, he was a control-tower operator with the Army Air Corps and later a member of the Mosquito Network gang along with Bob LeMond and Hy Averbach.

Paraphrasing a Tune About Carolina Is The Best Way to Describe a Son of That State—KLAC's Sparkling Johnny Grant

By Gaye Howe

WE'RE awfully glad that Bob Hope gave the shirt off his back to Johnny Grant and that Lucky Strike auctioneer "Speed" Riggs talked fast enough to convince the cherubic-faced Johnny he belonged in California, or else we'd have missed meeting KLAC's delightful young personality who nightly entertains dialers from the Citroette Room of the famous Hollywood night club.

From Goldsboro, North Carolina, Johnny still speaks with a slight, though charming, drawl. When he revealed that he'd been a clown and stunt driver, might have become a professional pitcher with the Cardinals, and has just chalked a decade in radio, we wondered if he couldn't just be part magician, too . . . for how could anyone do so much and still look so young? Probably no one but Johnny.

Speed Demon

At a tender age when all boys yearn to join the circus, Johnny became a clown. When his home town got a radio station, he was made official reporter for the high school. After graduation, he joined Jimmy Lynch's Death Dodgers . . . and didn't even know how to drive!

A daring driver, Johnny walked away safely from 200 turnovers, jumped off cars clocked at seventy miles an hour and got the thrill of his life when he drove his idol Tom Mix through a stunt. Four summers of feats and Johnny quit the pits. ("My luck couldn't hold out forever!") He's now the most prudent driver on any highway and rarely has the speedometer passing thirty.

Broke Bond Record

During the war Johnny did Public Relations in the Army . . . for a while was assigned to WAC recruiting in New York ("Most enchanting!") . . . had a WINShow "Strictly G.I.," much like his present stint . . . and hit an all-time high for War Bond Sales when he auctioned off personal possessions of movie stars in honor of the Lost Battalion's return.

For the auction Johnny flew to

Squeakin' Deacon Brings Homespun Atmosphere, People, Humor to TV

Saturday, 7:00 p.m.
KECA-TV

↑ HOW DE DIDDLE DE DI DO!
Squeakin' Deacon speakin'!

↓ I'M JUSTICE of Peace.

I'VE FOUND out one thing," Carl "The Squeakin' Deacon" Moore declared, "there's something of home folks in everybody. Everyone's either visited a farm at some time, or lived on one, or wanted to. And our television show is done with the hope of pleasin' the home folks.

"When I thought about doing a program on television, I set my mind to think of something original yet with proven entertainment factors. In the end, I tried to combine the established appeal of many things—like the humor of Bob Burns, who had the country folks laughing with him and the city folks laughing at him; the gimmick of Uncle Ezra's five-watter which supplied the springboard for variety acts such as folks always like to see; and the homespun ways of Will Rogers, who has always thrilled me to pieces and who has remained my ideal and sort of a goal."

The result was KECA-TV's homey Saturday night fun-fest, "Squeakin' Deacon's Store." Its setting is the town's general store where the Deacon, who occupies every official capacity in the township, presides over the comings and goings of the townsfolk who regularly gather there. During the second half of the program, a pseudo radio show is staged during which talented young people perform. The Deacon happily related to us that one of the youngsters who appeared on his show was viewed by Roy Rogers, who was so impressed with her ability that he had her signed to a contract.

Penned All-Time Hits

The Deacon's own career story is one of a homespun Arkansas boy with an ear for music and a talent for fun-making. He started out with a high-school band playing the De-Soto Gardens in Hot Springs, went on the road with an eight-piece Dixieland jazz band, later playing hotels all over the country including a smash engagement in Chicago's swank Drake.

"Deacon" Moore is co-writer of such nostalgic standards as "Ding Dong Daddy," "St. James Infirmary" and "Bye Bye Blues." He has appeared in Warner Brothers pictures and is heard daily over radio's KXLA in addition to his weekly Channel 7 video capers. Of his forty-seven years, the Deacon avows he's spent twenty-two of them making people laugh.

International Disc Jockey

Interest in his out-of-the-ordinary disc-jockey program has mounted so that Masterson receives more suggestions and ideas than he could ever use. He doesn't have time to use the things he's thought of. Some of the deejay's ideas for future "International Disc Jockey" programs include an airmail delivery of the actual recordings from foreign cities and discings of ship's orchestras from the luxury liners. He's also fallen prey to the travel-folder writers and ideally would like to visit all the spots he cables for first-hand recordings.

Glamorous cables make him dream as his listeners do of traveling. From Rio, he's found himself addressed as Senhor Masterios. But surprisingly homey was this one from Chez Innez in Paris: "LOVERMAN SQUEEZE ME SOLITUDE STOP RESTAURANT INNEZ FEATURES SOUTHERN FRIED CHICKEN PARIS MAGNIFICENT."

"Nuthin' Could Be Finer"

Hollywood, got one of Hedda Hopper's fabulous hats, Dorothy Lamour's sarong, Bob Burns's pig (which went for the highest bid of $300,000) and the shirt right off Bob Hope's back. Back in Wichita Falls, Texas, the auction lasted fifty-nine minutes, brought in 1,300,000.

Comedian Hope came back into the picture when he was the initial guest on Johnny's civilian-time program, "Johnny on the Spot." (The show title came from the name Ben Gross dubbed on Johnny after he had air-scoped a plane crash on Wall Street.)

In 1947, Johnny trekked to California his home-town friend, "Speed" Riggs, was influential in the move, and also had Johnny doing some Lucky Strike testimonials on radio. For a short period, he strayed away from the air to promote racing in midget and stock cars, but came back with shows from the King's Restaurant and Ham 'n' Egger, and now has a nightly record and chatter show with the stars airing from Ciro's. (KLAC, immediately after the baseball games.)

Besides radio, Johnny has appeared in several movies, including "Fancy Pants" (Bob Hope starrer) and "Gun Crazy," and was thrilled to have the reporter role in "The Babe Ruth Story." Still an avid baseball fan, he's partial to the Cleveland Indians, will still modestly tell friends how he hit the only home run of the game when the disc jockeys held their annual "Out of This World" series last year.
