◀ HARRIET PRINCE, in a "Dance Ballerina" pose, has been on many local TV shows, is a fifteen-year-old American-born girl from Fairfax High, and is training for the Sadler's Wells ballet.

WHILE SMOKEY ROGERS seldom gets time away from KFMB-TV's Channel 8, he does prove in an off-camera moment that he is a genuine cowboy with a horse as tricky as a slide rule. ▶

▶ WHEN LAWRENCE WELK and his Champagne musicians hit the airways, either TV or radio, they are introduced to audiences and dancers by a genial guy named Ralph Portner, whose witticisms are rapidly becoming known as "Portnerisms."

▶ ART LABOE, RIGHT, WAS CAUGHT, apparently by an infra-red camera, interviewing people in their cars during his "Original Roving Disk Jockey Show" on KXLA at 1:30 each morning. The program is currently in its third year, and takes place from Scrivners Drive-In. Art is also on KGFJ five afternoons a week. (Plowman-Field photo.)

Getting Along . . .

The Modernaires Are in Tune Both Professionally and in Daily Life

By Carol Davis

THE MODERNAIRES . . . top singing group . . . line up for a formal shot. Paula Kelly is flanked by Fran Scott, Hal Dickinson, John Drake and Allan Copeland. (CBS-Polin photo.)

HERE IS an attractive lesson to be learned from The Modernaires, indisputably referred to as "America's Number-One Singing Group."

It may be summed up by paraphrasing that title to read: "America's Number-One Group in Getting Along." For getting along, by temperamental artists in the high-tensioned environment that is the entertainment business, is not a matter to be left to chance. Like marriage itself, it must be worked at, sacrificed for, and it calls for no little humility among the individuals.

The Mods are keenly aware of this responsibility, and their very profession itself is a constant reminder of the important elements of happy relationships.

As Hal Dickinson puts it, "When we sing, each of us is wary of the wrong note, knowing that obvious discord would result. So we carry that knowledge over into our relations with each other. With just as much zeal we avoid a bit of peevishness, a thoughtless word."

"And take the rests in a bar of music," contributes Paula Kelly, the distaff member of the Mods and Hal's wife. "Every musician knows they are there for better harmony. So it is with living. One can't keep going at a terrific pace. Neither life nor music is at its best—or as interesting—without rests. As busy as we can be we make time to rest or play."

"By the same token," inserts Fran Scott, "every singer knows the value of constant practice. No matter how big he is—Metropolitan or juke-box artist—he keeps his vocal cords exercised. That applies to living too. The big acts of generosity are possible only when thousands of little acts have preceded them. We try to remember that we can't let down on the little things around the people close to us."

The Modernaires have had a long time to ponder and see the worth of their philosophy. They are constantly together, either working on CBS's "Club 15" (since 1947), in a theater or a night club, or a motion picture. It has been this way since 1942 when, after a brief time with Ray Noble, they branched out for themselves as The Modernaires.

Their Parts

Unlike most other groups they do everything for their group, from vocal and orchestra arranging to special comedy skits, to dance routines, even to song composing. Each member has a specialty. Allan Copeland, Los Angeles-born and a former member of the Robert Mitchell Boychoir, is the vocal arranger. Fran, who once played trombone with Red Norvo and Blue Barron, and John Drake, who once doubled on the clarinet and sax for Eddy Duchin and Dick Stabile, handle the band arrangements. Hal, who's always been singing-group-minded, writes the special material and composes tunes ("The Whistler," "Coffee Five, Doughnuts Five," "These Things You Left Me"). Paula serves as the group's spokesman, although her principal job is taking care of her own little trio, all daughters.

Although their summer hiatus from "Club 15" is relatively short (eight weeks) they are packing a lot of activities into their vacation. Immediately after the last broadcast June 27, they hurried to New York to play the Paramount Theater. At present they are working on one of the six musical shorts they have scheduled for Universal-International. Meanwhile they are recording for Coral to meet the demands increased by their recent revival hits, "The Dipsy Doodle" and "Goody Goody."

As the first singing group ever to appear at theaters, hotels and night clubs as a single act, The Modernaires have an unusual prestige to live up to. And first consideration in maintaining it is keeping that perfect harmony among themselves as persons, singers and friends.

FRAN AND HAL TALK OVER a new arrangement as Paula serves (left) John and Allan. Paula is the group's spokesman, although her principal job is taking care of her own little trio, all daughters. The Modernaires keep perfect harmony among themselves.

SINGERS NEED NOURISHMENT TOO. Paula, with help from her husband, Hal (right), and Allan, a former member of the Mitchell Boychoir, is vocal arranger, and Hal writes special material for the group.

HERE IT IS, you Welk fans! For months now we have been swamped with mail requesting information about the members of Lawrence Welk's "Champagne crew." TV-Radio Life has done several features on both Roberta Linn—Southern California's number-one vocalist—and Lawrence himself. Now it's the turn of the "boys behind the bubbles" to pop off:

ORIE AMODEO: Born March 9, 1921, in Mechanicville, New York. Plays flute, piccolo, clarinet, alto sax and tenor sax. Wife's name is Gloria; has one four-year-old daughter, Lois Ann. An excellent photographer, Orie took most of the pictures on this page and on our cover. "Some day," says Orie, "I'd like to have my own home and business right here in California."

GARTH (Bo Bo) ANDREWS: This handsome, athletic vocalist and sax and clarinet player comes originally from Redmond, Utah. Only twenty-seven, he wants to become a "name" singer and would also like to try some acting. Pet peeve: "People who sound their horns needlessly in traffic tie-ups."

GEORGE AUBRY: Married, with one child, he specializes in comedy imitations, besides tooting a fair clarinet and sax. Originally from New Orleans, he dislikes people who step on the gas when you try to pass them.

GERALD T. BURKE: Real "vet" of Welk gang, who plays organ, celeste and piano. Born July 26, 1911, in Marshalltown, Iowa. Single. Hobby: third-dimensional color photography and cooking. "Some day I'd like to retire and live in the mountains."

DICK DALE: Twenty-seven-year-old vocalist who sings a soothing song, plus playing a mean sax and clarinet. Married; comes from Algona, Iowa; would like to build a new home. Hates getting up early; also hates people who make so much noise that he can't sleep.

▲ LAWRENCE WELK and his band recently celebrated their first full year at the Aragon Ballroom. Seen regularly on KTLA, Welk and his group apparently will be around for some time to come. (KTLA-Amodeo photos.)

MYRON FLOREN: Personable extraordinary accordionist, who "loves to work hard" and "to write songs that the average man can sing and enjoy." He and wife, Berdyne, have two baby girls. Ultimate ambition: six children.

LARRY HOOPER: Piano specialist. Comes from Lebanon, Missouri, and hopes to build home in California and "break 80 in my golf game." Hobbies: Fishing, golf, gardening, carpentry. Children: "None—as yet." Just married April 7, 1952.

JOHNNY KLEIN: Drummer boy from Strasburg, North Dakota. Married, has two children, Jay and Jean. Former high-school music teacher, and Army band drummer for four years, who likes small jazz combos, historical novels, and the St. Louis Cardinals. "I have to like the Cards—that's my wife's home town."

BARNEY LIDDELL: Trombonist from Gary, Indiana. He and wife, Ethel, have three children. Hobbies: golf, good music, serious jazz. "I'd like to learn to relax all the time and enjoy life as I have since I've been off the road and living here in California."

BOB "SMEDLEY" OLAH: Good-natured saxophone, clarinet and violin player, who takes a lot of ribbing—and hands it out too. Twenty-seven years old; home town: Aurora, Illinois. Seven years with Dick Jurgens's band. Marital status: single. Ultimate ambition: to stay single.

▲ ROBERTA LINN, in one short year on television, has proven to be one of the biggest sensations ever to appear on the screen. She has shown that she can not only "sell a song," but her pleasing personality and professional poise forecast even bigger things for "The Champagne Lady."

George Aubry

Gerry Burke

ROBERT M. PILOT: Bob is the big bass and tuba boy of the band. Single. Originally from Chicago, and loves all sports, and cooking. Band "philosopher" who believes "if we are to sustain our way of life in this modern world, everyone must work just as hard as possible to eradicate bigotry and discrimination wherever we can."

GENE PURSELL: Popular Irish tenor, from Neola, Iowa. Married, with four children. Hobbies: mechanics building, and remodeling.

CURT RAMSEY: Arranger and vocalist, who plays trumpet. Married, has one son, and was born October 1, 1916, in Grand Meadow, Minnesota. Like most of the boys in the band, he would also like to buy a home and stay in California.

ROCKY ROCKWELL: A St. Joe, Missouri, trumpeter, who specializes in novelty numbers and short haircuts. Married with two children, he loves horses and model railroads. Wants to own a ranch in California and would like to work in Western movies.

CLARENCE WILLARD: Clarence claims he was born February 7, 1776. Proven facts: married to a lovely gal named Lucille, likes golf and coin collecting, and has played with the top bands of the nation. Says Clarence: "A TV fan noticed that I'm not a singer like the boys sitting on both sides of me. She wrote me that I was like a rose between two thorns."

On this sweet note we end our report of the "boys behind the bubbles."

CLOSE-UPS ON KNBH

↑ VISITORS TO JACK McELROY'S daily KNBH show line up under placards of the home state, the better to whoop it up when any place other than Brooklyn or you know what state is mentioned on the show! (NBC-Bailey photo.)

You'll See More on Channel 4

↓ "TOPPER" AND "HOPPY" in a pose that thrilled thousands the first time the silver-haired "Hopalong Cassidy" appeared on TV. Boyd's films are now seen Tuesday nights on KNBH.

↓ THE RETURNEE TO TV looks not a bit different than he did before! Boyd lined up a production company to turn out film for NBC-TV, and the new series will roll this fall.

↓ RUSHING TO KNBH Tuesday evenings will disappoint young fans. The series showing is made up of the best of original "Hoppy" films, and fans will do better by watching on Channel 4.

Second Glances (Critical Comment)

Around the Row

"They're" saying . . . that if you notice Eloise McElhone of KNXT's "Eloise Salutes the Stars" fluffing a bit or missing camera cues, it's excusable. She expects her first baby in October.

Eloise McElhone

. . . That film actress Barbara Britton has signed to do "Mrs. North" to Richard Denning's "Jerry North" in the "Mr. and Mrs." series to bow on TV this fall.

. . . That the name Ava is cropping up again in connection with a TV show for Frank Sinatra. It would take an Ava to make us watch another show like Frank's last year's fiasco.

. . . That when Darren McGavin, of CBS-TV's "Crime Photographer," appeared on a "Your Lucky Clues" show with two real-life detectives and a couple of other TV detectives in the person of John McQuade and Basil Rathbone, he made the whole passel of them look sick. What he didn't know he guessed quickly and accurately.

. . . That Liberace has been signed as the big grandstand attraction for the Pomona County Fair. The event is the Fair's Twenty-fifth Silver Jubilee, and Liberace appears in concert every night for nine days. If anyone can pack 'em in for nine days, he's the boy!

We View With Alarm

. . . The lighting which many times reduces Korla Pandit's interesting face to a hash of paste. As Korla turns to the piano, away from the organ, a spot designed to light him comes from above and to the right. Out goes the other light—the one in the musician's eyes. KTTV's usual fine brand of staging and camera work are nowhere in evidence during these moments. Or maybe this is the new look—turning a positive into a negative.

We Point With Pride

. . . To the way the fishermen on KECA-TV's Wednesday night "Fishing's Fun" remember that fishing is fun—bait it's more fun for the non-angler when there are a couple of games and contests mixed up in the half hour of tips on where to get the big ones, fresh or salt. Andy Kelly, Art Shippey and Eileen Shippey are the trio who parade everything from German brown trout to rock cod on camera, with stories and tips and contests and prizes for even the beginning bent-pin-and-string angler.

. . . To the presentation, on KTTV's Thursday night "Open Road" show, of "The Fallbrook Story." You'd have to wade through a heap of reading in a dozen or so periodicals to get what this one film brought to viewers in a fascinating hour of constructive information. The whole story of the big water grab, the fight of the Fallbrook residents to protect their God-given rights, and the result of their stand were on film for us—proving again the bit about a single picture being worth all the words. To producer Charles Peters goes great credit for making the film. To "Open Road" pro-

A Table at 'Ciro's

Monday-Friday, 10:45 p.m.
KNXT, Channel 2

Paul Coates is a pretty funny columnist. He gets some good angles, and his quotes are meaty and juicy. He grew into being a TV panelist through being witty in print, and we presume into a TV star through being witty on the panel.

But he shouldn't let it stop there. Paul has a table at 'Ciro's where he sits five nights a week. He smiles a lot. And he waves at people out of camera range. Sometimes he raises one provocative eyebrow. Many nights Herman Hover, owner of the place, sits with him, and they chat. We wish Mr. Hover would do a time step. We hear he used to be a real great dancer. Probably still is.

Oh, yes, Paul interviews glamorous citizenry who stop by the night spot for a spot of entertainment or something. We are disappointed. We think a guy who can write like Paul falls into a pretty tiresome pattern of drivel. We are as glad as the next fellow to see someone get a blathering build-up, but it does nothing for our interest.

Mr. Coates in print is a charming, funny, thoughtful and well-informed pillarist with great timing and word usage. We tell you because if you have seen him only at "A Table at Ciro's" you'd have no idea of all that, as far as we can see.

We keep watching in hopes the meaty sort of interview he writes will emerge some night.—J.P.

Auditions Being Held

Are you over sixteen? Talented? Then head for KTTV's Studio R some Tuesday evening from 7:00 to 8:00. Auditions for the ten amateur talent acts to be featured on each Saturday evening's presentation of "Your Reserved Table" are being conducted by the producers at these Tuesday sessions.

Chadwick Tries Again

Florence Chadwick has established September 20 as the day of her next big splash from Catalina to the California mainland. After this interesting woman's last heartbreaking effort, the new go at it is interesting in itself.

But around TV-radio row a big question is on the fire. Two TV stations say they are covering the swim for viewers.

KNBH has an "exclusive" contract with Florence for the swim. KTLA feels that a camera pickup of an event on the high seas is scarcely an invasion of privacy. She is performing publicly, and anyone in a boat can watch or take pictures, past the three-mile limit. True enough. But then what happens to the "exclusive" she signed with a station?

Florence insists publicly that she's having no dealings with anyone but KNBH, quite satisfied with that station's excellent all-night coverage of her first try. Statements from KTLA reveal that station's eagerness to support the girl's new effort. All Channel 5 lacks is the contract KNBH signed. They have the equipment and "freedom of the seas"—this last even as you and I.

Our own brand of support lies in rooting for the right tides and weather, favorable wind and water conditions. We'd like to see the girl make it—whether she is covered by one station, two—or all seven. We can watch her on only one anyway.

CARRYING PROBLEM

The biggest handbags aren't roomy enough for all the things a gal needs for a day on the sets. Hillary Brooke, Charles Farrell's girl friend on KNXT's "My Little Margie," and at work on the Abbott and Costello series of this summer, carries a market basket to work instead of a purse.

HO HUM

NBC's Willard Waterman says he knows a politician who is a "dream orator." The minute he opens his mouth, people fall asleep!

COLOR TV

Since we first started advertising in this magazine, thousands of people have purchased Great Western's TV-Color Filter. Many of those people have re-ordered and sent this filter to friends and relatives. To those of you who have not purchased a filter, this is what it is: Made on Eastman Kodapak film, this 3-color filter is easily attached to your TV set by means of scotch tape, and can be just as easily removed. This TV color filter gives the ILLUSION of color (green, yellow and blue) and is a temporary answer to the Government's ban on the manufacture of TV color sets. Great Western's TV color filter will do this for you: reduce "snow" and "ghosts"; make the picture clearer, improve "fringe area" reception; eliminate glare and eyestrain. Send check or money order for $2.00 in an envelope addressed to: Great Western, Dept. 95, c/o TV-Radio Life, 6361 Selma Ave., Hollywood 28, Calif. We'll put your filter in the mail within 48 hours. Please allow one week for delivery. Specify screen size with order—sizes 8" to 21". Send your order today. Sold on money-back guarantee.

Handy Hints

By Dorothy Gardiner and Dick Gar-ton, stars of KTLA's "Handy Hints," Monday through Friday, 6:45 p.m.

On alternate weeks we pick the best Handy Hint sent directly to TV-Radio Life, 6361 Selma Avenue, Hollywood 28, and use it, with your name and address, in this column as well as on the air over KTLA, Wednesday evening at 6:45. A lovely gift will be sent to everyone whose hint is used here as KTLA-TV-Radio Life Hint of the Week.

Here is the winner for this week's column: Mrs. L. W. Todd, 310 So. 10th St., Burbank, Calif.

The hint is:

It's easy to make a tiny cultivator for your window-box plants or potted plants out of an inexpensive old table fork. Bent down to make a right angle about halfway down the tines, it is a miniature replica of a garden rake.

HOME-MADE SPICE CHEST . . . Use round glass jars with screw lid that you buy filled with olives or honey. Paint lids bright color and insert screweye in the lid. When filled with spices, hang under kitchen cabinet with cup hooks. They add a very decorative touch.

TURN IT INSIDE OUT . . . Take the legs and base of your old high-oven stove and enamel it white or any bright color. Set a piece of plate glass on the frame without fastening. Painted square wood molding of the designed thickness will bring the glass flush with the frame and provide you with a sparkling accent to the garden or patio.

PICK of the PIX

by Aubrey Dahl

This week I'll spare you my ever-ready waggery and charge you instead with the following battery of pictures to inspect.

"The Young in Heart." This is a comedy, and a fairly good one, about a group of impoverished actors who palm themselves off as members of the landed gentry and live as house guests until they are forced to go to work. Roland Young is excellently funny as the chief bum, and good jobs are done by Douglas Fairbanks, Jr., Paulette Goddard, Janet Gaynor and Richard Carlson.

"House Across the Bay" is where Joan Bennett lives while she waits for evildoer George Raft to get out of Alcatraz. To pass the time, she makes friends with Walter Pidgeon and enemies with Lloyd Nolan and bears up bravely. The real action begins when Raft, seemingly dissatisfied with the treatment accorded him on the rock, swims the bay and resolves all dilemmas in a fusillade of lead.

"Dishonored Lady," Hedy Lamarr is a lady of dubious reputation in this one, in which she is accused of murder and sundry other frowned-upon accomplishments. She falls for a struggling doctor, however, and it turns out that all she needed was the love of a good man. Dennis O'Keefe plays the good man.

"The Magic Bow." Having played the local movie houses for some time, "The Magic Bow" now shows up on TV. It's about Paganini, the great violin virtuoso of the nineteenth century, and stars Stewart Granger, late of "Scaramouche," and Phyllis Calvert.

"Headline," David Farrar in a British version, patterned after the American version of what a newspaper reporter is like: He wisecracks, wears his hat on the back of his head, drinks hard likker, sasses his boss and makes furious love.

Just a Question

Is it inevitable that too much fame and/or too much money alter people to the point where they forget they fundamentally are people, and are only secondarily personalities?

I've got an answer. What's yours?

Back in Business

Enuff philosophy. Back now to the more dull but informative routine of telling you what to expect sportswise on your TV-radio dials in the near future:

Florence Chadwick's next channel attempt, set for September 20, will not only be a historic and exciting event to watch on your screen, it might also be of paramount legal significance for future TV programs of a similar nature.

Last week, exclusive contracts were signed between Donald A. Norman, general manager of KNBH, and Phil Jacobson, attorney and business adviser for Miss Chadwick. KTLA's Klaus Landsberg, for one, doesn't say he will also TV the swim, but he claims that if he wants to, he certainly has the right to set up his cameras out in the ocean the same as anyone else.

Poor Flo is having her troubles. First her former press agent, Ted Bentley, ups and sues her for breach of contract, and then this "invasion of private rights" controversy pops up. It's not enough that she has the sea and the wind against her, but now she's got several man-made messes to contend with. Let's just hope all this legal talk doesn't affect her swimming stroke.

It isn't often that we know the Pabst Blue Ribbon Bouts (Wednesday, Channel 2, 7:00 p.m.) three weeks in advance, but here they are: September 3—Del Flannagan vs. Johnny "Red" DeFazio, from New York. September 10—Archie Moore vs. Clarence Henry, from Chicago. September 17—Chuck Davey vs. Rocky Graziano from Chicago. Sounds good and bloody.

Guess who will announce KNBH's filmed version of the L.A. Rams games every Saturday following the date of the game? Who else but Ole Kel? Whether you belong to the "love" or "hate" school concerning Bob Kelley's sportscasting abilities, there's one thing you've just got to admit about the fiery little guy: he knows more about the Rams than any other announcer in town.

KHJ radio, not to be outdone, will broadcast eleven of the top PCC games, also beginning September 20.

... I'll see you next week. Or will I?

Lifelines

BY EVELYN BIGSBY

VACATION, TO MOST PERSONS, seems to mean a trip somewhere. To me, this year, it meant getting out of an office to which I had applied myself almost too closely the past two years. It meant digging in the garden, painting the fence, helping lay a patio and other manual chores that soon made me forget the stress and strain of business. It also meant a voluntary relief from both radio and TV. With exception of the political conventions and a few telecasts turned on to please guests, I made no bones about not looking or listening for almost a month.

EVENTUALLY, RADIO BEGAN TO APPEAL, not TV. This was interesting to check, and I decided that since I was in a leisure mood, radio seemed less of an effort. It was only the last week of vacation that I had an impulse to "see what's on TV."

ENJOYED "LIFE WITH ELIZABETH" and tuned Liberace. Wondered why he didn't conform to the season and ditch his full dress. A white jacket would have looked fine and probably would have kept him from dripping perspiration and mopping his brow between numbers. Quite unglamorous!

WATCHED COVERAGE OF THE BAKERSFIELD earthquake and thought some of the pictures exceptionally good. But resented the attitude of one emcee in particular, who apparently just couldn't wait for the wonderful treat, goody, goody, of showing the disaster pictures. Any person who has gone through a major earthquake (and I did in Compton in 1933) knows that a big shake isn't anything to rub hands over in happy remembrance and certainly can't even force a smile discussing pictures of the damage.

LATER IN THE WEEK I WAS disappointed in viewing "Bachelor's Haven." Obviously it has not improved in the past couple of months. The cracks were either reaching or rancid and I turned away from the channel thinking "Here's a show that should use the sponsor's product."

MISSED A BUNCH OF PARTIES WHILE out of circulation, but expect there will be plenty more as the fall season swings into high. "Worked" one afternoon covering the new TV

A FAVORITE STORY

Barry Nelson, star of "The Hunter," on CBS-TV, recalls the time he was rehearsing for a new play. One of the actors in the cast always removed his jacket and draped it over a chair while they went into action. One day a couple of fellow players decided to have some fun with him and dug up a big picture of a donkey's head which they pinned to the back of his jacket. Came the end of the day's work and they all went to wash up. Then the actor picked up his jacket and noticed the donkey's head. Calmly he surveyed the rest of the group, then asked, "Which one of you fellows wiped his face on my coat?"

version of "Our Miss Brooks," for which eight telefilms were completed before cast members sped off on a month's vacation. Eve Arden, her husband and children went to Connecticut — visited with Eve the last day of shooting and she told me they were returning to the estate where she and Brooks had been married. Both of them have gone overboard hooking rugs; Brooks designs and Eve has acquired the knack of hooking and watching TV at the same time. She can give a very funny take-off of herself hooking and watching "Dragnet."

Eve Arden

YOU'LL BE HEARING A LOT ABOUT the new "Mr. Boynton" on Eve's tele-show. He's the Jeff Chandler type, but a little different. Larry Berns, executive producer, told me he had had Bob Rockwell, the new chap, under wraps for two years.

ACTRESS HELEN GERALD DOLAN remembered me with a card bearing pictures of her adorable twins on their first birthday anniversary. Helen's husband is Toscanini's librarian, and Helen is doing both radio and TV in New York. The twins' godfather, Wal-fredo Toscanini, grandson of the Maestro and a recent Yale graduate, threw a party for the babies' anniversary.

ALSO WHILE I WAS AWAY FROM the salt mines, Norma Young postcarded from Hawaii to tell about her vacation. She has sold her delightful home in the foothills and has moved into a North Hollywood apartment. Will never forget Norma's family of raccoons, which stole down into her yard every night and waited to be fed. Nights when she was late getting home, the raccoons would be standing in a body near the garage, almost silently accusing her for her laxness. By the time Norma got her car parked, the animals would be huddling at her kitchen door waiting for "chow's on!"

A DELIGHTFUL NOTE FROM THE Argentine I'll pass on for its charm and the happy thought that TV-Radio Life is important there, too. It read: "By means of the Information Service of the United States Embassy, I have informed me that your review is especially dedicated to television, therefore I would like when you kindly would send me informations and when it is possible, as exemplary."

Radio Ramblings

Because Meredith Willson returns to New York this month to fulfill radio and TV commitments, his lovely Mandeville Canyon home will have to be boarded up for nine months. . . . In our Cathy Lewis story last August, we reported that Cathy was restless with her "Jane Stacy" role because she was becoming type-cast. In the interim CBS and Cathy have talked things over and everything is rosy once again. Cathy Lewis returns later this month to the role which she created for CBS radio and television. . . . "Let's Pretend" launched its twenty-third year of consecutive broadcasting on the CBS Radio Network last week. Orchids are in order for creator-producer Nila Mack, who has "worked" the series since its debut in 1930. . . . "Amos 'n' Andy" celebrate their 10,000th broadcast on November 16. The pair pioneered in radio more than thirty years ago. . . . NBC's popular quizmaster Walter O'Keefe commented on his recent birthday, "I'm thirty-eight, a year younger than Jack Benny."

cended her love for a British colonel. Although actions hit a low, emotions ran high in the script.

Sally reached the depths of despair when her brother and father seem sympathetic to the British, particularly the officers occupying their Oyster Bay, Long Island, home. Despite her dislike of the British she falls in love with a British officer. But when she realizes that the capture of West Point is at stake, she turns against the officer, reporting his plan to the Americans and thus dooming it to defeat. Her personal sadness is lessened only by the knowledge that her brothers and father were not Tories but had been working right along on the side of the colonists.

The calibre of the production was up to the usual high "Cavalcade" standards. After seventeen years, listening to "Cavalcade" is almost second nature. Its familiarity has a comfortable and entertaining quality.

We Point With Pride

To the deftly handled amusing situation on a recent "Meet Millie" broadcast. While actress Audrey Totter was making headlines from Korea her transcribed CBS radio series was producing peals of laughter at home. "Millie" had a problem. Her mother (Bea Benadaret) was tired of housekeeping and wanted to get out into the business world. When "Ma Bronson" took over the receptionist's duties at "Millie's" office the sparks began to fly.

Art Linkletter

Funmaker Art Linkletter returned to the air and video lanes this week with his old format, but with a new approach—a back-to-back simulcast. The CBS Television Network carries "House Party" coast-to-coast at 11:45 a.m. (KNX), followed by a 12:15 p.m. broadcast over the CBS Radio Network. Since the consecutive airings allow no time for editing of the audio portion, Linkletter and staff must take every precaution to see that television's informality meets with radio's "stricter censorship." Another challenge to "House Party" will be for them to maintain the audio aspects of the stanza in proportion to the video. It will be interesting to note how the genial emcee handles the back-to-back simulcast. It will be the first time in TV-radio history that this has been tried.

Incidentally, we have a feature story on Art Linkletter's eldest son Jack scheduled for our September 26 issue.

DOES YOUR SCHOOL HAVE
G-R-O-W-I-N-G
P-A-I-N-S?

Do you know what the tremendous rise in the national birthrate is doing to school enrollment? In the next four years, our already over-crowded schools will have to handle six million more students. This fall alone 1,700,000 more children will start to school! Schools that were adequate last year—will be hopelessly over-crowded next year. How about our schools in our town? How about your children's school? You can start now to insure better school facilities for a better future for your children. Find out how other citizens in other communities are working together for better schools. Write National Citizens Committee for the Public Schools, New York 19, N. Y.

Record Notes to You

By ANDY MANSFIELD
 (KFI, Monday through Friday, 9 a.m.)

THIS WEEK'S NATURAL SEVEN: Les Paul's "Meet Mister Callaghan" (Capitol), Gordon MacRae's "There's a Lull in My Life" (Capitol), Ray Bloch's "Some Day" (Coral), Neal Hefti's "Two-Faced Clock" (Coral), Mitch Miller's "How Strange" (Columbia), John Raitt's "Because You're Mine" (Decca), Errol Garner's "Laura" (Okeh).

"The Merry Widow" (Capitol LP). These excerpts from the always-popular operetta by Lehár feature the voices of Gordon MacRae and Lucille Norman in rare warmth and romantic ardor, while George Greely conducts the orchestra and chorus to lend admirable support to soloists MacRae and Norman. Faithfully recorded with all its natural brilliance, the gay music of "The Merry Widow" was never more beautiful.

Dixieland is the order of the week in jazz, with Good Time Jazz label garnering the market. Pete Daily's Rhythm Kings romp helter-skelter over "Clarinet Marmalade," but slow down to a calmer tempo for the seldom-recorded old Louisiana Five standard, "Yelping Hound Blues." . . . Firehouse Five plus 2 have a great up-tempo'd goodie in a novelty arrangement of "Chinatown," backed with yesterday's flower song, "When You Wore a Tulip," just as fast 'n' loud 'n' good. . . . Turk Murphy's Jazz Band spotlights blues chanteuse Claire Austin for "Oh, Daddy" and registers a steady beat backing to good effect. . . . Kid Ory's Creole Jazz Band rounds out the release with his horn showing the way to the old "1919 Rag" and the slower "Down Home Rag" with its nostalgic touch of yesterday's ragtime. . . . Yes, the two-beat's here and mellower than usual.

With the dance bands, "Meet Mister Callaghan" gets the usual light Lawrence Welk instrumental treatment that can't help but register, as will "Flirtation Waltz" on the flip (Coral). . . . Great swing is provided in pairing the Neal Hefti Orchestra and Modernaires for "Four or Five Times" and "When My Love Comes Back to Me," adapted from the old New Orleans parade number, "When the Saints Go Marching In" (Coral).

Vocally, Patti Page (Mercury) heads the glamour department with "I Went to Your Wedding" and "You Belong to Me," both tops in arrangement and sales appeal. . . . Johnny Desmond (Coral) gets the male nod for the rhythmic and viddy commercial "Trying" and the unusual wild "Wild Guitar." . . . Johnny Prophet (Kem) registers good quality vocal against slightly over-backed orchestra on "Where in the World," but could click if it gets the breaks. . . . A.M.

HILTON "THE SPEED DEMON"

Author-host James Hilton of CBS radio's "Hallmark Playhouse" took only four days to write his most famous novel, "Good-by Mr. Chips."

Ear, Eye Inspire the Pen

Private Robert Brown-Parker, 2 900412, 3 Central Ammunition Depot, Marrangaroo, N.S.W., Australia

I hope to find young American penfriends. I am eighteen years of age. My interests are football, baseball, show business, and the American people. You see, my grandfather was an American and I feel that I have a little bit of that Yankee blood in me. If you could do this for me I will surely appreciate it.

Mrs. Bell, San Gabriel, Calif.

For heaven's sake, tell those wrestling promoters not to think we are ignorant enough to have that "Jungle Boy" act crammed down our throats.

Joanne Brezina, 1704 Wright, Pomona, Calif.

When will "The Comedy Hour" be back on TV? And which comedian will appear first?

Martin and Lewis will kick off "The Comedy Hour" on September 21.

Florence K. Boehme, 11712 S. Broadway, Los Angeles, Calif.

I was wondering if June Hutton is Ina Ray Hutton's daughter or young sister? Their mouths and eyes are the same shape, and there are other characteristics that seem to make them resemble each other.

Ina Ray and June are sisters.

Mrs. Leonard De Marte, 1619 Fargo St., Los Angeles, Calif.

Cannot something be done about Bill Welsh's constant heckling of wrestlers on Monday night? He seems to think it is smart and funny, but along with several of our friends we do not like it.

Miss La Rue Kemp, 6717 Osler St., San Diego, Calif.

How old is Jack Mahoney?
Jack is thirty-two.

N. E. Steig, El Monte, Calif.

It seems so stupid for people to criticize good talent and "beef" about a program as wonderful as Ina Ray Hutton's.

Lois Freehill, 1198 W. Washington, Fontana, Calif.

Would you please tell me if Patricia Linn on Bill Stulla's program and Roberta Linn of KTLA are sisters?

Patricia's last name is spelled LYNN. She and Roberta Linn are not sisters.

J. Palucci, 41230 Sunset, Los Angeles, Calif.

One of the reasons for Joe Graydon's success is that his intonation is excellent, and it would have to be so since Mr. Graydon arranges many of the tunes he sings.

Mrs. Margaret Sullivan, 10525 Helendale Ave., Tujunga, Calif.
Both my husband and I enjoy watching children on Bill Stulla's program, and I have bought many of the things mentioned by Mr. Stulla, but each time we turn on the TV set we get this blast of his voice in our ears. I am convinced there is nothing wrong with the set, for I've called the repairmen to check it. Johnny Dugan is another who should be spoken to, for he alters every song he sings so that nobody recognizes it.

Mrs. M. A. Ellison, 3923 San Rafael Ave., Los Angeles, Calif.
I liked Mr. Jarvis very much when he was on KLAC-TV. His program of today is difficult to watch.

Mrs. H. Donnell, 476 W. Ave. 46, Los Angeles, Calif.

What was the last issue in which you had a story on Jack Bailey? A friend of mine in Indiana would like to know more about him.

Since 1943, TV-Radio Life has had seven full-length features on Jack Bailey. The last one appeared July 25, 1952, on page five.

D. H., 320 Santa Ana Ave., Newport Beach, Calif.

Ina Ray Hutton is doing a swell job and should be congratulated instead of insulted!

The Three McKees, Gardena, Calif.

Why doesn't this Ted Hilgenstuhler get "on the ball" and learn how to write? What kind of a pull does he have to take up so much space in such a good magazine? Other writers of the magazine do a much better job and use less space. Getting tired of seeing his face all the time. Could he be in love with himself?

K. Pierotti, 2629 E. 53rd St., Huntington Park, Calif.

I think the Lawrence Welk TV program is the best thing to happen to Southern California. Roberta Linn is wonderful.

Jessie Jones, Los Angeles, Calif.

We just love the prayer that Horace Heidt says.

John Sharpe, 26 E. Mason, Santa Barbara, Calif.

I hope Hombre Montana beats Lou Thesz.

Marion Dalton, Box 513, Santa Barbara, Calif.

Lou Thesz must be slipping. He was dirty and also worried about the time while wrestling Sandor Szabo recently.

Betty Ross, 827 Third Ave., Los Angeles, Calif.

I think Dave Levin deserves a hand. He is not only a good wrestler, but is a perfect picture of good sportsmanship.

Ethel Carpenter, 1990 Lime Ave., Long Beach, Calif.

Is it necessary for the beer commercials to show someone drinking beer? That is hard on the folks who are on "A.A." and should be omitted.

Jack Bailey

Helen White and Clara Marks, Inglewood, Calif.

Thanks a million for your article on that wonderful newscaster, George Putnam.

Mrs. James W. Edwards, Burbank, Calif.

I do believe Jack Rourke to be the most gracious and most amusing master of ceremonies on TV.

Frances Swanson, 14116 Elmcroft Ave., Norwalk, Calif.

I used to watch "Stop the Music" with Bert Parks on Channel 7. Would you tell me if it is still on?

"Stop the Music" was dropped from Channel 7.

Bill Risko, 569 Woodbury Rd., Altadena, Calif.

I would like to see all of the TV stations put on Fred Waring's version of "The Star Spangled Banner" at the close of each day. In my opinion his is the best vocal arrangement ever made of our National Anthem.

Mrs. Julia Hall, 13450 E. Athol St., Baldwin Park, Calif.

I think Miss Rebel Randall is deserving of all laurels for her outstanding services rendered to the servicemen and girls and their families with her show, "America Calling."

Mr. Carroll Van Court, 316 1/2 West 48th St., Los Angeles, Calif.

At last I have found the funniest emcee in radio. My favorite of all is Jan Murray on the program "Meet Your Match." He rolls them in the aisles on Tuesday night at 9 o'clock, KEI.

Ruby Edison, 1021 W. 48th St., Los Angeles, Calif.

We do not consider that any fan club sets up the artist as an idol. It is rather an expression of appreciation for the many hours of enjoyment the artist has given, and also indicates the following of an artist, and the friendliness of the people toward them.

Mrs. T. D. Buntington, 4221 N. Vermont Ave., Los Angeles, Calif.

I think TV is the grandest entertainment medium ever invented, and I think the lovely McQuade Twins are the grandest thing to happen to TV.

Mrs. P. L. W., Los Angeles, Calif.

Betty White is doing a grand job on "Hollywood on Television"! She sure is a cutie.

Betty White

The Ewing Sisters, Los Angeles, Calif.

May we express our sincere appreciation for the many times you have selected our pictures to accompany any letters concerning us. We never miss an issue of TV-Radio Life, so we have felt real honored to be so selected among so many, many other great talent. This fall we hope to be back on TV regularly and maybe we can better deserve your fine column and readers.

We are all looking forward to seeing the Ewing Sisters on our screens again.

Connie Long, 1753 259th St., Lomita, Calif.

I think KTLA did a fine job in bringing Roller Derby to the people in many homes.

Mrs. Merle Edwards, 455 Palm Dr., Covina, Calif.

One of my favorite programs is "Life With Elizabeth." We have a special feature coming up on "Life With Elizabeth."

Wrestling Is My Business

by Jules Strongbow

The wrestling profession has always been in the hands of wrestlers and it always will be because only a wrestler can understand wrestling and wrestlers. Wrestling is a unique business and the highest skilled art in the world. It is not learned by serving a two- or four-year apprenticeship, nor by getting a college degree. Doctors, lawyers, carpenters and machinists learn their profession or trade and start to work. But there is no time limit in learning to wrestle, and a wrestler never reaches the completion of his training.

The problems and personalities of wrestlers can only be shared and known by other members of the profession.

Right now the most important men in the wrestling world are in Los Angeles for the big National Wrestling Alliance meeting. To bear out what I say about the profession, here are a few of the men who make up the great governing body.

No matter what section of the country you are from, you are represented in the meeting. If you come from the North Central section, around Minnesota and Nebraska, you know Tony Stecker, the booking promoter and matchmaker in that section. Tony managed his brother, Joe, to the world's heavyweight championship.

Around the Northeastern section, Ed Don George is the wheel. George promotes now in the Buffalo-Toronto area but fans remember him more not only for his winning the professional heavyweight championship but as a great amateur. George is the only man to defeat Earl McCready as an amateur. He is a colorful personality.

Fans from New York City know Joe "Toots" Mondt, who promotes wrestling there.

Here now representing the Deep South are Paul Jones, the greatest figure-four scissors wrestler of all times, and Bluebeard Bill Lewis, about whom we have written before.

Kansans and Missourians remember Oroville Brown, promoter in those Middle Eastern states, who was en route to a match with Lou Thesz to determine the world's heavyweight championship when a tragic automobile accident forced him to give up active wrestling.

Around the Windy City, Fred Kohler was a well known wrestler many years ago.

The state of Texas is so big that it is divided into four parts. The Houston territory, largest of the sections, is promoted by Morris Siegel and Dr. Karl Sarpolis, one of the greatest wrestlers of his day.

Pacific Coast residents have Joe Malcewicz, who wrestled as the Utica Panther.

In Los Angeles, the greatest light heavyweight who ever lived is promoting the Hollywood Legion Stadium and San Diego Coliseum—Hugh Nichols.

These fellows will be here until next week. If you see any of the famous "old-timers" on the street, stop them and say "hello" and tell them where you saw them wrestle. They will be happy to talk wrestling with you because they love it and believe in it as the greatest profession and sport of all.

"The People Act"

*CBS Documentary Dramatizes
The Initiative of America,
U. S. A.*

PEABODY WINNER Irving Gitlin has come up with another documentation that is decidedly in the award-winning category. It's "The People Act," which is presented jointly by the CBS Radio network and the Ford Foundation.

The program presented twenty-six representative case histories of community problems which were effectively dealt with through the use of democratic procedures. The series marked the first full-scale use of radio by the Ford Foundation. Dr. Milton Eisenhower, President of Pennsylvania State College and chairman of "The People Act" committee, explains that his committee was ready to offer consultation and advice to individuals and groups that were stimulated by the broadcasts to overcome their respective problems. To say that there were more requests than the committee anticipated would be the understatement of the year. To this writing there were 7000 communications from the United States, Canada and overseas.

Getting back to the program, producer-director Gitlin ("The Nation's Nightmare," "Hear It Now," and "See It Now") estimates that more than 235 miles of tape were used to record the voices and sounds of people and events from every corner of the country. Approximately sixty hours of editing were required to put each show together. Sounds probably never heard before on the air were recorded: ancient sacred harp music in a backwoods area; treatment of mentally retarded children; a 200-foot tree being felled by loggers; and labor and management in dispute.

Cross-Section

The major artistic premise of "The People Act" is that the people themselves are the actors. A cross-section of problems presented on this program of actualities is more than impressive. Some of the broadcasting highlights were the rehabilitation project for the physically handicapped at Binghamton, New York . . . the juvenile problems in King County, Washington . . . the antagonism between military personnel and civilians in Belleville, Illinois . . . and the slum conditions in overcrowded Harlem. These are but a few of the problems which were solved by the initiative and effort of individuals and groups concerned.

"The People Act" committee has set up a consultation service. The aim of the service is always to encourage local communities to discover their own answers. Visits between communities seeking to learn from one another are encouraged.

Global Aspects

The impact of the programs has not been confined to the United States alone. American education officials in Germany and Austria are using scripts and recordings in adult-education classes. The Israeli Ministry of Education has asked for the series "in building our community life." "The Voice of America" is now beaming the programs overseas and an Indian student in Seattle wishes to take "The People Act" transcriptions back to India.

As a result of the widespread response to "The People Act" the series has become available on records (for home education and enjoyment). The twenty-six tape-recorded actuality broadcasts produced by Irving Gitlin, with Robert Trout as narrator, can be obtained by writing to The People Act Center, State College, Pennsylvania.

↓ ELSIE THOMPSON, A WORKER on the production line at Inland Steel Container Corporation, tells Dave Moore, CBS Radio field reporter, her personal impressions of life in the plant since union-management harmony replaced industrial strife.

↓ LOGGER BOB JACKIN MAKES CUT in tree while reporter Dave Moore records sounds of chain saw for the program's report on the Mt. Adams area. "The People Act" broadcasts covered diversified sections throughout the country.

The Truth About TV Tiffs

The Man in the Middle of Some of the Best-Known Says They Are as Real as a Living-Room Argument, and Last Just About as Long

AT ONE time Johnny Jacobs found himself standing before 20,000 people under a circus tent announcing that the next act would be "the greatest—the most sensational—the colossal . . ."

Today a good many more than 20,000 hear Johnny's easy-to-take voice announcing a group of guests who seem bent on giving the impression they and their particular sex belong in the class of things "greatest, most sensational and colossal" ever visited on the viewer of television. He "moderates" KNXT's popular "Bachelor's Haven."

The show has set up spark after spark for audiences to ponder as possible conflagration starters among "Haven" panelists.

Fights—or Fun?

A good many viewers take the tiffs between international beauty Zsa Zsa Gabor (who may be in Europe doing a motion picture at the time this story appears) and columnist Paul Coates very seriously. "Listen to those two. How they must hate each other!" Still another group go so far as to write to the show asking if Paul and Zsa Zsa aren't cloaking their real feelings with a pseudo air feud.

Johnny Jacobs is in a fine position to know the truth about these best-known of TV tiffs. He's the man in the middle, every time.

And Johnny admits that the tiffs are real. "But no one is actually mad. Any more than people arguing at a friend's home. You see, every Sunday night after the show we all adjourn to a nearby Hollywood spot for a sort of post-mortem. The only time a panel member didn't come was when Zsa Zsa and Spike Jones had a near-battle on the show. That was the same night she broke a record over Paul's head and cut her hand on the broken edge. She swept out of the studio later with head up and eyes flashing."

Socials Sunday Only

"Usually at these meetings the attitude of the studio session is carried on, and the fur flies. But you can't actually be furious with Zsa Zsa for the ideas she airs. She actually believes those statements eighty-five per cent. The cracks about marrying rich men, driving Cadillacs and so on come as good advice. Her mother told her so!

"None of us see one another during the week, so by the following Sunday all is forgotten—or forgiven," Jacobs laughed.

The middleman between feminine and masculine protagonists has developed the ability never to side with his own sex no matter what the provocation. Actually, he terms Paul Coates as quick-witted as they come, and almost with relish mutters the thought that he personally doesn't think Paul really likes Zsa Zsa. He has come under fire from the witty columnist only on occasions when Johnny has come up with an answer or witicism of his own during that moment of study Coates employs just before he delivers one of his bon mots.

The air tiffs don't disturb the good-natured Irish Jacobs a particle. "But one night I thought I was in for it. I was introducing Zsa Zsa's poodle, Harvey Hilton. I stumbled around and finally blurted out 'Harvey Hoople.' Zsa Zsa laughed, but she gave me a terrible look—she loves those dogs!"

And has Jacobs ever slipped into a tiff with panelists? "Nope," he grins. "Of course I fight with Bill Brennan, the program manager, all the time, but that's just about money. We fight after the shows."

Staunch Fan

Another post-show reaction of Johnny's is the beefing done at home when the startling blonde Hungarian has waxed too flagrantly egotistical.

"But every time, my wife, who is a terrific Zsa Zsa fan, straightens me out," he cheerfully explains. "She always says, 'Listen, without Zsa Zsa you'd be dead, and you know it!'"

"And I do know it. When you're in the middle you can always stop a TV fight—but you have a tough time getting one started!"

"Aw-w-w-w, wait a minute, Paul. What Zsa Zsa meant was . . ."

"Now if Paul took back what he said, the least you can do . . ."

"Zsa Zsa, please. Let one of the guests have a chance . . ."

"How can they talk like that and still part friends? Wow!" (CBS-Rana photos.)

Boxing Beats Box-Office Bogey

SPORTS PROMOTERS around the nation have been doing a lot of squawking since TV started to cut in on their gate receipts.

Boxing, in particular, has felt the pinch in its usually lucrative pocket-book. There was a prime example of this right here in Hollywood.

Since the early 20's, the Friday night bouts at Hollywood's Legion Stadium had been one of the most successful pugilistic enterprises in the country. Then TV (and the Gillette fights on Friday) came along. For over six months the Legion club took a beating at the box office. The average gate (around $5,000) was cut in half. For a while it even looked as if this "birthplace of many champions" would have to fold completely.

Old But Good

Finally the club resorted to some old but effective strategy: "If you can't whip 'em, join 'em!"

Starting in March, the entire Legion card was telecast by KECA-TV. At present, it is the only card in the country which shows each and every bout on TV. Because of this, and because of the fine efforts of match-makers Cal Working and "Hap" Navarro, TV viewers and the Hollywood club both got a break.

Naturally the telecasts continued to cut down on the actual attendance. Under present arrangements, however, the Legion and KECA-TV go fifty-fifty on all the sponsors' money. The Legion is still not making the dough it did prior to TV. But the added revenue, plus the regular gate receipts, have enabled the club at least to survive.

Another factor, pointed out by ABC's Hank Weaver, is that the bouts have provided an added incentive to young boxers, particularly the boys who have to fight the preliminaries.

Big Hank Speaks

Although Big Hank is an all-around news and sports announcer, he has a soft spot in his heart for the boys who slug it out in the ring.

"By and large, they are the best damn sports in the world. Unlike many other athletes, you find few 'cry babies' in this business. When a kid's in the ring, he's out there all alone. He can't look to the bench for comfort. And win, lose, or draw, every one of them has to absorb an awful lot of punishment.

"I've been around boxers all my life; the more and the better I know them, the greater my respect becomes for them."

Except for one gripe, Hank is happy with his three-hour Saturday night job: "I wish the State Athletic Commission would make it compulsory for one boxer to wear white trunks and the other black. Not only would it aid me in being less repetitious, but even more important, it would be a big help to the people watching the bouts at home.

"It's a strange paradox," Hank continued during a special TV-Radio Life interview. "When KECA-TV started the Saturday night telecasts of the entire Legion card, most people thought it would be the death knell for the boxing game. Paradoxically enough, TV has turned out to be a life-saver!"

Maybe ailing, anti-TV sports promoters around the nation should take a hint from Hollywood?

Ronnie Kemper

RONNIE KEMPER? He was born in Montana, but soon afterward moved to California and considers himself a native Californian. Most of his career has been spent in traveling with bands as a pianist and vocalist. For eight years he was with Dick Jurgens's band and sang with Eddy Howard.

His best-selling record as a vocalist was "Cecilia."

Ronnie is a KECA disc jockey who believes in combining his talents for singing and piano-playing with platter-spinning. He hopes to keep busy in both radio and television. The era of the Golden Thirties, with its nostalgic tunes, is his favorite "music period."

North Hollywood is his home, where he loves doing things with his wife and their three children: Tiffany, age seven, Kevin, five, and Clay, three years old. Picnics are a regular family affair with them. Ronnie also enjoys playing squash at the Hollywood Athletic Club.

He dreams of writing and producing his own musical comedy some day, loves to listen to symphonic music with the hope of understanding it and admits to being a Crosby fan.

This KECA disc jockey looks forward to spinning more records in the near future and said, "I can do a little of anything . . . but I never brag about anything I've done. Things are popping for me in radio and my enthusiasm is growing."

delighted in preparing tempting meals.

Three Cooking Tips

According to this TV cook there are three rules to follow in concocting tasty meals . . . "eye appeal, taste appeal and nutritional value." Eye appeal comes first with her and she believes that she has "a flair for dolling up food." This culinary touch seems to have come from her grandmother, who was famous for setting a beautiful table. At one time she served thirty-two people and left the door open for more.

Marjorie feels that she can express herself with food as other people might with paint and canvas. Her favorite kitchen "chore" is to "put frosting on the cake." She has taught her two sons, Martel, nineteen, and Harry, seventeen, how to be helpful in the kitchen. Both boys like to cook, with Martel preferring baking cakes and filleting fish and meats, while Harry is best at garnishes, hot d'oeuvres and fancy things.

A Man in the Kitchen

With two sons, and a husband who is in the concentrated fruit-juice business, Marjorie is accustomed to having "a man in the kitchen." Her KTTV man in the kitchen is Ed Reimers. She claims: "By the time I get through with him he will be a master cook. He has a flair for it."

Marjorie has some very specific TV ambitions. "I want to get across the techniques, those little pointers, which are so important in successful cooking: the secrets about making a smooth sauce, a crisp salad or a flaky pie crust." Another theory of hers is that "People never learn to love to cook because they have too many failures. I want to help them avoid the failures."

When she moved into the KTTV kitchen she took part of her home life with her. Every afternoon she has a party for home viewers just as her home life is punctuated by preparing "one party after another . . . and loving every minute of it."

↑ MARJORIE HEID has a flair for dolling up food. Eye and taste appeal are as important to her as is the nutritional value of food.

TV COOKING is neither a problem nor a chore for Marjorie Heid, KTTV. She said, "I love to cook. I love to put on a show."

Before coming to KTTV, Marjorie lived in New York dreaming of the day when she and her family would move to California. She taught classes in food preparation and edited and compiled the Woman's Home Companion Cook Book.

Marjorie did not decide years ago that she would have a career in either television or cooking. It was an accident. When her first son was not even a year old he was underweight, and this situation prompted Marjorie to take all sorts of courses at Pratt Institute in New York City in food, nutrition, and cooking. Her success in building her son's health only caused her to be that much more
