THE VIDEO - RADIO SCENE

▼ THIS PARTICULAR SHOT OF THE USS ST. PAUL was taken just off Korea, by H. G. Jordan, PH 2, a photographer for the United States Navy. Several months and one big accident later, and safely back in Long Beach, California, waters, the ship, her captain and crew played host to the press. Opening chapters of the NBC-TV- and Navy-created series "Victory at Sea" were run, and the press was given a tour of the big cruiser. The spectacular film series began November 10 on KNBH's Channel 4.

Mickey Katz

The First American-Jewish Disc Jockey

IT TOOK Mickey Katz more than twenty years of hard work to finally hit the big time in show business. Oddly enough, Mickey had been sitting on a pot of gold his whole life and had never fully taken advantage of it.

The ABC star has always been an excellent musician, a fair singer and a "natural" before an audience and with a mike in his hand.

A native of Cleveland, Ohio, he headed his own band at the age of seventeen, and then joined Phil Spitalny's first orchestra. (That was before Phil formed his all-girl ensemble.)

It was in New York during World War II that Betty Hutton first caught Katz and his hepcats in action. She persuaded Mickey and his crew to join her on a special tour entertaining GI's in the European Theater of Operations.

With Spike

Back in the States again, the pint-sized comedian landed a job with Spike Jones and toured the country with the zany "School of Musical Depreciation."

Of course these were no slouchy achievements. But up till now Katz hadn't fully capitalized on his biggest asset.

In one simple statement, it is this: Mickey Katz is Jewish. Of course, so are millions of other people.

However, Mickey had several advantages. He not only had a tremendous background in show business, but he understood and loved and knew how to satirize his own people—in both words and music.

Mickey was on the right track when he and Hal Zeiger produced "Borscht Capades" and made successful tours around the nation.

January 9, 1953

↑ THIS STORY TELLS HOW Mickey Katz, the first full-time American-Jewish disc jockey, finally came into his own after twenty years in show business.

↓ HERE'S WHAT Mickey looks like when he does one of his novelty numbers. His son is Joel Gray, who has recently blossomed into one of America's newest singing sensations.

The big break finally came when his Yiddish records, particularly such numbers as "Haim Afen Range," ("Home on the Range"), "Hershele at the Induction Center," and "Tico Tico," made the best-seller lists.

Natural Choice

These smash hits made Mickey a natural choice to become the "first American-Jewish disc jockey" for the ABC Sunday radio show, which started in September, 1952.

Of course there are many other American-Jewish deejays on radio, but not with a strictly Yiddish show such as Mickey's.

Besides spinning records with a Yiddish twist, "Botch-a-Me" ("Patcha-Me" — Katz style), "Walking My Baby Back Home" ("Shleppin My Baby Back Home"), "Bugle Call Rag" ("Bagel Rag"), "Wheel of Fortune" ("I'm a Schlemiel of Fortune") and finally "The Little White Cloud That Cried" ("The Little White Knish That Cried").

At the present time he is planning a special trip to the British Isles for ten charity concerts. (You'll continue to hear his radio show on tape recordings.) Mickey assures us, however, that he's coming because he loves it in California.

Can You Pull an Occupation From Out of a Hat Like the Panel Experts Do on "What's My Line?"

"Test Yourself"

By Mildred Ross

NEWSPAPERMEN who from time immemorial have boasted of the "interesting people they meet" have nothing on panelists Dorothy Kilgallen, Bennett Cerf, Arlene Francis and Hal Block, as well as moderator John Daly of CBS-TV's "What's My Line?"

Occupations

This quartet of right guessers have met: a sword swallower, a bubble dancer, a pretzel bender, a lady plumber, a tombstone salesman, a pickle packer, a sky writer, a flea-circus operator, a human cannonball, a mattress tester, and a worm raiser. These occupations are among the 200 or more already guessed by the panel, and so far the producers have never duplicated occupations.

Supplementing these diversified categories are celebrities, who are the highlighted mystery guests of the program, ranging from famed sports figures and politicians to glamorous show-business folk and military leaders.

Wild Guesses

Before the questioning begins, each panel member is allowed one "wild" guess on the basis of the contestant's appearance, an inspection of his hands, the label of his suit, etc. Occasionally "wild" guesses work. But not often enough. Appearances and occupations just do not seem to coincide. The occupations of the two unidentified guests with moderator John Daly will be found on page seven of this issue. See how accurate your "wild" guess can be?

Percentages

Getting rather technical, we asked the group about percentages. Their score for accuracy was extremely high. They have been stumped by about one out of six persons in the unusual-occupation group. Out of 105 shows, they have missed on only five mystery guests . . . Dizzy Dean, Paul Winchell and his dummy, Jerry Mahoney, Chico Marx, Sam Levenson and dance master Arthur Murray. One of the toughest guests was CBS's Arthur Godfrey, who spoke with a German accent. When he strummed a ukulele, Miss Kilgallen guessed the obvious.

Thumbnail Sketch—John Daly

The moderator and panelists of "What's My Line?" are busily engaged with their own professions when off-camera. Moderator John Daly began his radio career, not as an actor or emcee, but first as a relief announcer, then as a special-events reporter and news analyst. His list of news assignments is impressive. He was born in Johannesburg, South Africa. His father was an American mining engineer. His mother was English.

Away from the studios, he enjoys reading and plays some golf and tennis. His library contains a large number of books on contemporary history, world politics and the Civil War. He and his wife live in suburban Rye, New York, and have three children, John Neal, John Charles IV, and Helene Grant.

Hal Block

Husky, curly-headed Hal Block has proved that he is just as adept at dishing out the laugh lines verbally as he is at beating them out on a typewriter. Block is a Chicagoan, and it was law and not humor that originally stirred his ambitions. Upon graduation from the University of Chicago he met comedian Phil Baker, whose act, Baker, Bottle and Beetle, was a radio hit. Block talked him into giving him a job on his writing staff. Subsequently he supplied hilarious radio material for such stars as John Barrymore, Ken Murray, Burns and Allen and Milton Berle (radio program).

Arlene Francis

Lovely Arlene has graced practically every television panel show as a visiting guest. She keeps busy, outside of broadcasting, by lecturing to women's groups and emceeing fashion shows. Arlene has performed on countless daytime serials and dramatic airers, and also appeared in numerous Broadway plays. She is married to Martin Gabel, Broadway producer-director-actor. They have a six-year-old son, Peter.

(Our personal observation of the panelists gives Miss Kilgallen a slight edge over her confreres at being a shrewd guesser of occupations.)

Dorothy is a working newspaper-woman, following family tradition. However, she branched out as a performer in radio and television, going her dad, International News Service's James L. Kilgallen, one better. Dorothy is married to producer-actor Richard Kollmar. They have two children, Richard, Jr., and Jill-Ellen. Miss Kilgallen exemplifies femininity. She likes hats, perfume, bubble baths, night clubs and dancing.

Bennett Cerf

Panelist Bennett Cerf has had a long and distinguished career as publisher, anthologist, lecturer and columnist. A native New Yorker, Cerf graduated from Columbia's School of Journalism. After a brief stint as columnist he entered the publishing business. He is married to the former Phyllis Frazer. The couple have two sons, Christopher Bennett and Jonathan Frazer. The prominent publisher-author claims he is still smitten with awe whenever he meets an author. His early experiences with the irrational behavior of a few authors left a lasting impression on Cerf.

Comedy

The show has developed into one of the most humorous of all quiz programs, because the audience is secretly informed of the contestant's occupation before the questioning begins.

Comedy writer Hal Block, consciously or otherwise, comes up with ▲ THE CLAIRVOYANTS PAUSE FOR A MOMENT OF RELAXATION with moderator John Daly. In the past two years, the producers have amassed a file containing some 5,000 occupations from the more than 100,000 persons who have sent in letters hoping for a chance to be on the program.

provocative questions. Of the sword swallower, he asked: "Do you work outdoors—or is yours considered an inside job?" Of Gypsy Rose Lee, he inquired: "Are you famous for your beautiful clothes?"

A mattress tester was asked: "Can both men and women perform this job?" "Does it take a great deal of training?" "Does it require strength?"

Block muggingly asked mystery celebrity Artie Shaw: "Have you ever been married?" When Dizzy Dean was the mystery guest someone suggested it might be he. "Oh no," said Dorothy Kilgallen, "that couldn't be Dizzy Dean. He sounds too intelligent."

So you see the experts can be wrong, but not often. If you'd like to try to stump them with your out-of-the-ordinary job, write a description of your work to the producers of the program, Mark Goodson and Bill Todman, care of CBS, 485 Madison Avenue, New York 22, New York. However, if you're a mortician save yourself the trouble, because oddly enough they have sent in the most requests to participate, and thus far the program has never duplicated an occupation. What's yours?

▼ BECAUSE THE VIEWING AUDIENCE IS PRIVATELY let in on the contestant's occupation before the questioning begins, the show has developed into one of the most humorous of all TV quiz programs.

▼ CARMEN MIRANDA COULDN'T STUMP THE EXPERTS even though they were blindfolded. The panelists must guess the identity of the mystery guest by the celeb's voice inflection or by following up a lead.

Close-Ups on KNBH

▲ MERRY HOLIDAY TELLS the sleepy lion, "Sleepy Slim," "Jump Jump" and "Achi Pagli" that they must learn their parts for the play, of the day!

▲ KATY DID LOOKS speculative, and "Jump Jump" just plain delighted, as the two meet. But Katy Did couldn't get into the spirit of "Jump Jump's" daily Channel 4 show and had to be removed.

You'll See More on Channel 4

▼ BIG OLIVER HARDY and sleepy looking Stan Laurel have been favorites of two generations. Now their films are seen each Saturday afternoon on KNBH's Channel 4.

▼ THEY BUNGLED IT again, as anyone familiar with their classic trial-and-error comedies can see. Laurel looks resigned. Hardy's look is an exasperated, "Well?"

Proudly Presents Its

Tenth Annual Distinguished Achievement Awards

This week TV-Radio Life proudly announces its Tenth Annual Distinguished Achievement Awards.

The awards, which will officially be presented at a gala Hollywood Ad Club luncheon, Monday, January 19, at the Hollywood Athletic Club, are unique in the TV and radio fields.

They are not presented on the basis of a popularity poll or "box-office" receipts, but they are given in recognition of outstanding achievements in the fields of radio and television entertainment for the year of 1952.

TV-Radio Life was the first publication to give formal recognition for the year's outstanding achievements. Also, in order to be fair about the matter, no duplication is permitted over a period of years.

This year, the awards have been divided into two main categories: national and local. Details on the winners will be contained in a special feature and pictures in our Thirteenth Anniversary Issue, to be published in a few weeks.

This Week in TV

In & Out of Focus (General Comment)

Which Storm?

We mentioned, a week or so ago, a moment on TV during which Snooky Lanson, on NBC-TV's "Your Hit Parade" (Saturdays, 7:30 p.m., KNBH) crooned about thunder just as a blast of earthquake proportions hit above our heads. A kindly reader, interested enough to sit down and pen a note to TV-Radio Life, suggested that we had our wires crossed. It seems that she noticed the same bit, and that it was not Snooky singing, but a girl!

In most cases the customer is right. Now that the song is sung weekly. And almost weekly Southern California has had a storm and thunder. On top of that, the newspapers are doing their level best to confuse us about girls and boys with their continual talk of Christine and George and which is which. But we will never confuse Mr. Lanson with either Dorothy Collins or June Valli. Nope.

Guess we know how to tell fellows from girls . . . they sing differently!

On Our Cover

Featured on this week's cover of TV-Radio Life are KTTV's versatile announcer, Bill Welsh, and the popular and handsome grappler, Bobby Managoff.

Bill appears to be slightly awed by the size of Bobby's muscles. Bill is not alone. Managoff has long been respected as one of the finest and most capable wrestlers in the business, and during the past few months he has been particularly brilliant in his local Incidentally, Jules Strongbow, TV-Radio Life's wrestling editor, is now handling the interviews on Channel 11's Monday night wrestling show from Hollywood Legion Stadium, while Bill takes care of the blow-by-blow description.

Jules, who was formerly on Channel 5, can also be heard on KECA-TV's wrestling show on Tuesday night. In his weekly "Wrestling Is My Business" column on page 34, our wrestling editor tells about his experiences at KTTV's big "Fan Night" at the Hollywood Legion last week.

One other point we do not want to forget—the excellent cover photo of Welsh and Managoff was taken by Bill Harvey of the Rothschild photo shop. During the past year, Bill has provided our magazine with some of the best photography we have ever published.

Takes Two

Holiday fever got us last week. That's when we lauded KNXT's "Cavalcade of Books" and the discussion that went on of goodies hitting the stalls. We mentioned Georgianna Hardy, femcee, and the unequivocal, deft way she handles things. Well, it takes two to make a "discussion" of anything, from books to baking a cake, and a personable, well-informed gentleman by the name of Everett Noonan, who emcees while Georgianna femcees a good, two-people show, provides the other half of that discussion. If Mr. Noonan but knew what fans we are of this TV show that keeps us informed on what's being written, he would know only an abundance of Christmas activities kept tired fingers from typing his name in on the "Point With Pride" that we repeat herewith: We "Point With Pride" to "Cavalcade of Books."

Around TV Row

... What seems to us TV's most exciting and provocative science-fiction series, "Tales of Tomorrow," which you see on KECA-TV Friday nights at 9:30, has been renewed clear into June. Not only that, it has been adapted for radio and will be heard weekly. . . . And "Ramar of the Jungle," KTTV's Tuesday night nature feature starring Jon Hall, a former "Tarzan," and some pretty fascinating outdoor footage, is going to be hacked and patched together into a feature motion picture. Ah, TV and its power.

... It has to do with guys and dolls, a doll in this case replacing two guys, on NBC-TV's "Club Embassy," seen late Tuesday nights on Channel 4. Mindy Carson is a mighty popular miss, and without taking anything away from her and her abilities we look with disfavor on any move that deprives us of the antics of Bob and Ray, heretofore laugh sparkers on this quarter hour. "Cinderella Girl" Mindy tells on another network (ABC-TV's "Chance of a Lifetime," January 8, 8:30 p.m.) how she went from an obscure secretarial position to top record, TV, theater and radio recognition. And Happy New Year to you, Mindy.

On Lens ( About Studio Happenings )

Paddy Gardenseed

Every time we hear of the Government getting up a gift train or a food lift to friends abroad our hearts swell and chests puff with pride. Well, we can all swell and puff two-fold over the work of a gentleman named Patrick Mozier. You've seen him on numerous TV shows lately. And heard him on radio a lot.

But he's usually introduced as Paddy Gardenseed. And with reason. Paddy is in real life an officer in Military Sea Transport. Every time he goes abroad he carts with him all the garden seed packets he can get together. He last took 155,000 packages of garden seeds, donated by TV and radio viewers and listeners, abroad with him to Guam, Singapore, Borneo and India. Every package, aside from containing a potential ten dollars worth of food, feeds several mouths for several months.

Figure it up. If Paddy takes abroad a quarter of a million packets of seeds, that is roughly $1,250,000 worth of food, with no cost to our Government. No wonder the President of the United States congratulated Mr. Mozier on his heartfelt work. And no wonder Paddy says he is working toward building a "green band around the world."

While here, Paddy has appeared on such shows as Art Linkletter's, Roy Maypole's, "Pass the Word" on KBIG and many others. If you hear him pitching for a seed or monetary contribution, don't hesitate. He's still working on that "green band around the world." And isn't green the one color of the spectrum that can kill Red? A band of the green stuff that grows is just as bright in color as the green stuff you spend, seems to us.

March of Dimes

The Jack McElroy March of Dimes contest will start on the popular emcee's daily telecast Monday, January 5 (Channel 4, 3:30 p.m.).

To enter the contest, participants are requested to send a letter to McElroy estimating the number of dimes, laid flat and end to end, to cover the distance between KNEH and the Children's Hospital on Sunset Boulevard, east of Vermont. The distance will be measured by an Automobile Club of Southern California official car.

The contest, which runs for four weeks, with prizes each week, and a grand prize of a new automobile, offers a long list of fabulous prizes contributed by Los Angeles County manufacturers.

Prizes that may be won include: gas ranges, vacuum cleaners, dinner sets, sewing machines, hot-water heaters, garbage disposals, hams, footballs, basketballs, bicycles, radios, irons and pressure cookers.

Second Glances (Critical Comment)

We Point With Pride

... To a man who each Sunday gives us the urge to do something about the outdoors—great, or small and patchy and existing just around our own apartment front. He is Joe Littlefield, whose "Chats" on KTTV each Sunday at 12:30 inspire a great urge to get out and mulch, or prune back, or something. Just anything to be outdoors. If his effect on the hothouse-flower type whose idea of the ground is something to walk on is this great, the real gardener type must go berserk under Joe's easy-to-follow, constructive suggestion.

... To CBS-TV's "Racket Squad" daring to present a hokey, heart-warming bit about Santa and the kiddies during a time when everyone expected something a bit meatier. We're all for it. The play was good, the sentiment nice, the acting superb, and after all, the boys in blue can catch up with bad-check artists any old week. This was Christmas, fellahs.

PICK of the PIX

by Aubrey Dahl

My great New Year's resolution is that there will be no more punning or plays on words in this space, and that I'll be honest at all times. In other words, I'll column the way I seem.

"History Is Made at Night." (5) Jan. 11, 7:30. Suave, debonair Charles Boyer plays a suave, debonair headwaiter who falls in love with a sweet, adorable young lady, played by sweet, adorable Jean Arthur in this important film of a few years ago. The main obstacle in the course of their true love is the young lady's husband, who happens to own a few ocean liners. Boyer and Arthur get on one of these tubs, and when the cuckold learns of it he wrecks the thing and the lovers have a deuce of a time getting lifeboat space. The film makes for pleasant enough viewing... the shipwreck scenes are pretty good... and, in a minor role, presents a Leo Carrillo very unlike the one who becomes so maudlin when confronted by a TV camera.

"Knight Without Armor." (7) Jan. 12, 10:45. A Russian aristocrat, Marlene Dietrich, and an Englishman working with the Bolsheviks, Robert Donat, become embroiled in the violence and recriminations of the Russian revolution and decide to forget their dialectical differences in each other's arms. They have all sorts of exciting adventures before they are able to devote themselves wholeheartedly to each other, and it all adds up to an engrossing hour and a half... especially when Miss Dietrich is flitting about the lawn of her estate in a filmy negligee, or nightgown, or whatever it is. It looks mighty enticing, anyway.

"Love on the Dole." (2) Jan. 14, 11:00. Since Deborah Kerr began making pictures in Hollywood, she has, for the most part, been relegated to roles of the simpering princess variety, as in "The Prisoner of Zenda" and other parts of that ilk. "Love on the Dole" fully established Miss Kerr in the acting profession and allowed her to demonstrate what an extremely able exponent of the art she is. The movie investigates the problems of a poverty-stricken British family during the depression-ridden days of the thirties, and is both compassionate and humorous in its treatment.

"The Man Who Lost Himself." (5) Jan. 10, 9:30. Brian Aherne plays a double role in this one . . . a bad guy and a good guy: Kay Francis is married to the bad guy, but falls in love with the good guy. The picture has a real twist ending . . . everything turns out fine.

Tricks 'n' Treats

By Corris Guy

Corris Guy appears on KTLA (5) every Friday at 3:30 p.m. Her choice recipes will appear on alternate weeks in this exclusive column for TV-Radio Life. For your TV "Tricks and Treats" listen to and read Corris Guy's helpful hints.

STUFFED PEPPERS

If you prefer a milder pepper flavor, parboil the peppers for 5 minutes in boiling salted water after removing seeds and before stuffing.

- 2 large green peppers
- 1/2 pound ground meat
- 1/2 cup corn, cut from cob
- 1/4 cup finely chopped onion
- 2/3 cup chopped fresh tomato
- 3/4 teaspoon salt
- 1/2 teaspoon chili powder
- 1/4 teaspoon pepper
- 1 eight-ounce can tomato sauce

Wash peppers. Cut thin slice from stem end of each; remove all seeds. Combine all of the remaining ingredients except the tomato sauce. Pack lightly into the pepper cases. Place in small casserole dish; pour tomato sauce over all. Bake in a 375-degree F. oven for one hour or until meat is cooked through. Yield: 2 servings.

Contests
AND OFFERS

One of the most popular features of KTTV's "Town Hall Party," which you see Mondays from 7:00 to 7:30 and 8:00 to 8:30 p.m., is the contest recently inaugurated by Eddie Dean, one of the show's stellar Western artists. Each week he names a "Pal of the Week," who is honored by a surprise party staged by the entire cast of the show and residents of the community in which he lives. Here's how it works: Dean encourages children to write letters about some special neighborhood "pal." The writer of the winning letter is invited to appear on "Town Hall Party" to receive his prize, and the letter identifying the pal is read. Meanwhile, the party has been arranged and the neighborhood guests arrive to "surprise" their pal. Cast of the program provide entertainment and prizes for the evening.

Lifelines

BY EVELYN BIGSBY

ONE AFTERNOON LAST WEEK on the "Our Miss Brooks" set at General Service Studios, I met the prettiest school teacher in these United States, according to a contest recently completed by radio and TV's "Our Miss Brooks." The teacher spent her holidays in a Hollywood swirl and by now is probably catching up on her beauty sleep back home in Dallas, Texas. (Yes, she talks with a drawl.)

BEFORE I MET WINNER NELL OWEN I had seen her pictures, but coming face to face with "teacher," I found her prettier in person. Though her saucily bobbed hair is blonde, her lashes and eyebrows are brown and her coloring very peaches-and-creamy. Eve Arden said, "Isn't she a doll?"

NATURALLY, MRS. OWEN THOUGHT Miss Arden was pretty swell, too. The prettiest teacher said a couple of her pupils had entered her picture in the contest. Though Mrs. Owen was delighted to be chosen, it probably came as no distinct shock because she was quite a belle at S.M.U. and has had her beauty singled out before.

Prettiest teacher has classes in speech at Bonham School in Dallas. About 650 students no doubt have difficulty keeping their minds on their work with such an attractive mentor in charge. Mrs. Owen is just finishing one year as a schoolmarm, having started a week or two before her graduation from University last January.

EVE ARDEN'S TWO LITTLE GIRLS just about ate up the pretty Mrs. Owen when she visited the star's home. Little Connie developed a very violent attraction for the teacher, climbing on her lap and then trotting out all of her Christmas toys for her inspection. Besides visiting Miss Arden's home and tele-studio, Mrs. Owen went to Ciro's, Mocambo and other spots. Her husband, a young chap she met at S.M.U., came along for the trip. He was able, because he's his own boss in a new chemical engineering company. And he is smart, for if I were he, I wouldn't let a little queen like Nell go to Hollywood alone.

I ASKED EVE WHETHER SHE HAD ever had a teacher as pretty as Mrs. Owen. She remembered one with deep dimples and big brown eyes who had taught her in the fourth grade in San Francisco. Said she had seen her as recently as four years ago when she recognized the dimples and eyes from across the room in a restaurant.

PEOPLE IN THE TRADE ARE STILL talking about the appalling speech Philip Morris board chairman Lyon made at conclusion of a "Lucy" telecast a couple of weeks ago. I don't ever remember hearing any sponsor tell his audience that if they didn't continue purchase of his product the show might be lowered in standard or cancelled. That's what Lyon's remarks added up to. It seemed especially bad to have this appeal on a cigarette program viewed by millions of youngsters. It also seemed rather ridiculous to have it on the nation's top show, ratingwise. Mr. Lyon can be sure that if lack of audience response resulted in his dropping of "Lucy," the line would form to the right for those trying to snap it up. And while on the subject of this teleshow, I think a word of praise is due writers Jess Oppenheim, Madlyn Pugh and Bob Carroll for their delightful scripting of the expected baby situation. All in good taste and good fun, so far. I understand Lucille Ball will actually go to the hospital Monday, January 19, for Caesarian section.

A POINT WITH PRIDE TO VANCE GRAHAM for his very lively and listenable KMPC "Bolero Time" taped during a Christmas trip to Taxco. . . . And to Murrow's wonderful Christmas in Korea. It made me squeeze back the tears to see those boys standing in the snow on Christmas morning, bayonets ready, planes zooming, guns firing,

LOOKS AS IF PEGGY LEE HAS COME into her own, both in movies and on TV. She looked gorgeous on "Colgate Comedy Hour." Gloria and Jimmy Stewart seem like good bets to come back on TV again, their debut on Benny's teleshow made such a fine impression. Sara Berner was nothing short of sensational, and it did my heart good to see a gal who has been a radio mainstay for years get a wonderful break on video.

ART AND ALICE BAKER GAVE the crew a holiday party after Art's KECA show, and I'm sorry I couldn't get away from my own open house to attend, because hear tell it was jolly and that Alice outdid herself heaping the festive board with food, food, food. . . . KTLA hosted a little party at Lucey's after its popular Roberta Linn debuted in a new show last Wednesday night. Roberta, who was personality plus, said she was on Cloud 9 with a show of her own at last. Just hope she doesn't try to do too much. Roberta's pleasant mother enjoyed the party, too, but said she was wondering how she could plan and make a new dress every week for this show as well as the Welk telecast. Lawrence sent his best wishes to his vocalist, along with a magnum of champagne.

THERE HAVE BEEN LOTS OF Christine jokes floating around the past couple of weeks, but Benny's radio show had one of the best giggles when he said, "I've been out West where men are men—I've been to Paris where women are women—and to Denmark, where—!"

For Love o' Mike (General Comment)

Radio Ramblings

Marie Wilson and Cathy Lewis, "Irma" co-starrers, are astrological sisters, having been born (just three days apart) under the sign of Capricorn. . . . Hazel Guild, Ralph Story's handy Annie, is on a six-week leave of absence. She's headed for Lima, Peru. . . . CBS correspondent Eric Sevareid received the "One World" award for promoting international understanding in the field of radio. . . . John "What's My Line?" Daly heads up the crack ABC reporter team for the net's inaugural coverage. . . . KBIG's John Poole has set September 1, 1953, as a target date for the start of KPIX, new L. A. television station (Channel 22). . . . David Lee, The Sonny Boy of films, returned to his first love—show biz—via the Jack Owens KECA ainer. . . . Don Lee is starting the New Year with a batch of whodunits (see precasts for listings).

"Time Capsule" Picks Top Ten

This is the time of the year when almost everybody is picking the top ten in every conceivable category. ABC's "Time Capsule" has tape-recorded a diversity of events for posterity throughout the past year. These have been sealed and put away for rebroadcast for our great-great grandchildren in 2052.

As a topper they have picked ten events in the year, tabbing them the best feature stories of 1952. As producer Bill Berns puts it: "Here are the fads, fancies and crazes of 1952 . . . they have become part of the record of the Fabulous Fifties from 'Time Capsule' broadcasts."

1. President Truman playing the piano.
2. Puerto Rican delegate Romany supplying a light touch at the Republican national convention.
3. Eye-witness reports on the "flying saucers."
4. The psychologists' field day—the college-student panty-raids.
5. A summary of the wives of the Prince of Wales, crying Johnny Ray, with a commentary by Down Beat editor Leonard Feather.
6. The marriage of Li'l Abner and Daisy Mae, as explained by cartoonist Al Capp.
7. Bernarr MacFadden's parachute jump.
8. Be-bop stories told by musicians Bobby Sherwood and Buddy Rich.
9. The American land-locked "Loch Ness monster"—eye-witness stories from way down south.
10. Story of the London busses that crossed the United States—narrated by London bus-driver Ted Hearn.

"SAGA OF SCROOGE"

Walter Scharf, musical director of the Phil Harris-Alice Faye show, has composed a new symphony entitled "Saga of Scrooge," based on the Charles Dickens character.

CIVIL WAR RELICS

Bill Ballance, KNX Radio staff announcer, has an all-absorbing hobby, that of collecting Civil War data. He has an extensive library of photographs and books on the subject, as well as some weapons from that era.

"Jason and the Golden Fleece"

Wednesday, 7:00 p.m.
NBC-KFI, KFSB

The philosophical adventurer in NBC's series "Jason and the Golden Fleece" is no newcomer to radio. He is handsome, competent MacDonalld Carey, who thrilled and chilled radio listeners many years ago in some of the early Arch Oboler "Lights Out" classics.

"Jason" is the proprietor of a New Orleans cafe and skipper of the Golden Fleece. Adventure seems to seek out Jason. People will charter his boat to escape many things... emotional frustration or deep-rooted realities. Once out at sea the Golden Fleece, with a little help from "Jason," seems to put life in its proper perspective.

BILL CONRAD

People from all walks of life meet him in his bar in the New Orleans French Quarter. His bartender and sidekick, "Louis Dumont," is played by Bill Conrad, who gives the role a warm and convincing interpretation. While "Louis" mixes the potential passenger a drink, "Jason" serenades him on his concertina.

On a recent broadcast the Golden Fleece was chartered by the frantic wife of a sea captain who was stubbornly fighting a losing cause. His crippled ship was doomed to sink, in fact two sailors had already lost their lives. But the captain was determined to go down with his ship in true nautical tradition. The pitiful pleadings of his wife were to no avail. He strapped himself to the mast and went down with his ship.

A cynical reporter who was also aboard the Golden Fleece added a touch of irony to the situation. He felt that the two sailors lost their lives needlessly and that the erstwhile captain had been preparing for such histrionics all his seagoing days. The three-way conflict between the captain, the wife and the reporter had Jason handling his role as tactfully as possible under the circumstances.

This particular script was not up to the usually high standards of the series. The philosophical and spiritual Jason was considerably curtailed.

Herb Ellis and Cleve Herman handle the scripting chores, while Frank Worth provides the musical bridges. —M. R.

Off Mike (Personalities)

Elena Verdugo

When Audrey Totter's studio refused to put its stamp of approval on her video performance as "Millie Bronson" in the CBS "Meet Millie" series, lovely Elena Verdugo stepped into her shoes.

Elena Verdugo

Then when Miss Totter resigned her radio role, Elena added the mike chores to her weekly camera duties, thus giving her full "Millie" status.

A native of California, Elena has been playing character parts since she was fourteen.

Her elementary schooling was garnered in Los Angeles and graduation from high school was via the movie studio lots, where two of her classmates, Roddy McDowall and Stanley Clements, were later to become her leading men. Coming from a musical family, Elena says, "My parents had me enrolled in dancing classes ever since I was old enough to stand on my own two feet."

Elena's first "public" appearance was in 20th Century-Fox's musical, "Down Argentine Way." Among her movie credits are "Rainbow Island" with Dorothy Lamour; "Big Sombraero" with CBS Radio's Gene Autry; "Tuna Clipper" with McDowall; "Jet Job" with Clements; and "Cyrano" with Jose Ferrer.

She was also featured vocalist with Xavier Cugat's orchestra. Elena's recreational hobbies are painting, ice skating and tennis. Her ambition is to swim well, "But somehow I just can't seem to make it," she admits. In private life she is the wife of screen writer Charles R. Marion and the mother of three-year-old Richard.

Ear, Eye Inspire the Pen

Fran Saylor, 3520 W. 12th St., Los Angeles, Calif.

I would like to congratulate you on the attractive photo of Roberta Linn on a recent cover of TV-Radio Life. I think it is the most eye-catching cover you have put out this year.

Thank you, Fran. Over 100,000 individuals must have agreed with you, because that issue with Roberta Linn on the cover was the first issue of TV-Radio Life to hit the 100,000 mark. Here's another photo of the popular vocalist, who now has her own show on KTLA.

Roberta Linn

Joe Lotspeich, 3838 Pontiac Avenue, W. Riverside, Calif.

I think the Ritz Brothers on the "All-Star Revue" were the best I've seen in a long time.

Mary Watters, 1601 266th St., Harbor City, Calif.

For my money Bob Barker is very handsome and charming. Someone is missing a good thing by not getting him back on TV.

Mrs. Ruth W. Schultz, 1415 S. Lafayette St., San Gabriel, Calif.

"Frosty Frolics" has gone to pot since Dorothy McCusker and Roy and April Schramm left, and they started on the nursery-rhyme shows. The original was much better when we saw the orchestra and heard them sing and play.

Florence Sullivan, 716 N. Cherokee Ave., Hollywood, Calif.

Our favorite programs are "Teleforum," "City at Night," and Peter Potter's. We are all Korla Pandit fans here and miss him very much.

Rosalind McGrath, North Hollywood, Calif.

This is not a fan letter to your fine publication, but I want to thank you for the pleasure it gives me through constant, daily use—for years. Particularly, I am writing to ask: Could you please get some worthwhile radio programs on Thursday evenings? Radio is a complete blank every Thursday night.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. M., 25249 Muscatel, S. San Gabriel, Calif.

It is really a shame that Ina Ray Hutton lost a sponsor for that incident on TV. But did she cause that? Heavens, that is an act that no one can control or do a thing about. So if a prospective sponsor is that narrow-minded then I say good riddance, as someone else will pick up her show as we love it and never miss it.

Harriett Ross, 2004 W. Garvey, Baldwin Park, Calif.

There is a question in my mind that I would like to ask someone. I have picked on you because I do not know to whom I should go. Maybe you do. Why, oh why, do the different TV channels show the same film so many, many, many times? Surely there are thousands of good films that haven't been shown.

I think with pity of the hundreds, probably thousands of people who are dependent on TV for escape from the pain they are suffering. They turn on TV only to find the same old film they have seen two or three or four times before. Try another station—same thing!!! So they turn it off.

I think with wonder of the advertisers, who pay out good money for TV time, only to have viewers turn it off because it is the same old film.

Saw "Stagecoach" last evening. A grand film. Always tune in Barbara Ann Bread and Star-Kist Tuna program. Always sure of a fine film. Why can't GOOD films be shown daytime viewers and a larger variety of films?

Two main reasons: (1) real good films cost lots of money; (2) the major movie studios have not released some of the best films as yet.

Mrs. Mike Chalupnik, Route 2, Box 175, Brawley, Calif.

Are the four violinists and one accordion player on the Ina Ray Hutton show young girls under twenty or are they near thirty years of age?

According to KTLA, the "Four Squeaks and a Squeeze" are under thirty years of age.

Mrs. A. N. Mewha, 4172 Yosemite Way, Los Angeles, Calif.

Television isn't the same without our favorite story, "The Files of Jeffrey Jones."

O. Norris, Los Angeles, Calif.

I certainly enjoyed the panel discussion of Miss Hayes, Jackie Robinson, Dr. Taylor and Ed Morgan recently on Channel 2, but I feel Ed Murrow was in very poor taste. Whenever he was before the camera we watched him through a smoke screen from his cigarette. It seems to me that none of his guests smoked, and due to the type of discussion, it would have been possible for the moderator to have refrained from smoking for thirty minutes.

Mrs. L. Beckett, 4120 Lincoln Ave., Culver City, Calif.

Could you tell me what program Kay Armen is on? She is my favorite singer.

Edward R. Murrow

Besides making guest appearances, to our knowledge Kay is not heard regularly on any West Coast TV-radio programs.

Mrs. Yvonne Gould, 3403 Bellflower Blvd., Long Beach, Calif.

I just got finished reading your Ear and Eye Inspire column, and I thoroughly agree with the girl who wrote in about Lawrence Welk saying that she didn't like that silly grin of his. He's always got that same grin on his face, and never changes it. And it gets so everyone that watches him gets sick before the show is over. I'm glad that someone else agrees with me.

Lawrence Welk

A Welk Fan from Twenty Years Ago, North Hollywood, Calif.

Your column really gives us a chance to blow our tops and we love it! To the person who wrote the asinine letter about the Lawrence Welk show: There is only one thing wrong with Lawrence's program; it is too darned short and only comes once a week. Anyone who doesn't like the sparkle of his Champagne Music belongs in one of two places—either a mortuary or Norwalk.

Mrs. W. F. Howard, 5137 Alvada St., Compton, Calif.

To the lady who thinks Lawrence Welk's program is corny: Nobody is asking you if you like Lawrence Welk or his program. I like him and so does my family. I think the way he treats his band is great. They seem so pleased to have him lead them.

Mrs. K. F. Hutchison, 221 E. El Sur, Monrovia, Calif.

There are viewers who enjoy a clean, refined show, something above the average. Everyone on the Lawrence Welk show looks and acts like a blue-blood.

Marilyn Scheetz, 1645 E. Florence Ave., Los Angeles, Calif.

Why doesn't Ina Ray Hutton fix her hair? Also, why doesn't Liberate record "The Old Piano Roll Blues" and make another million dollars?

Liberate

The Webb Family, Hollywood, Calif.

Anybody who thinks Lawrence Welk's pleasant grin is silly, ought to take a look in the mirror. But don't forget to open the eyes when doing so.

George R. Weaver, 389 Ashtabula St., Pasadena, Calif.

I listened to "Our Miss Brooks" four years ago, and found it a ludicrously unreal program wherein an alleged high-school English teacher makes frequent grammatical errors in her conversation. I listened again last Sunday and found no improvement. Miss Brooks said "kind of cute" where an English teacher would have said "rather cute," and "kind of soothing" where such a teacher would have said "rather soothing," and "I feel like I'm in a dream" where an English teacher or any educated person would have said "I feel as if I'm in a dream" or "I feel as though I'm in a dream." And this character actually aspires to be the HEAD of the English Department! Phooie!

Fay Hutchinson, 4241 W. 139th St., Hawthorne, Calif.

I can't tell you how thrilled I was to hear Gene Conklin's voice on "Frosty Frolics."

On the Ball

With Ted Hilgenstuhler

Meet Mr. Larkin

One of the great sport stories of 1952 was the dramatic comeback of Keeny Teran. I'm sure all of you remember the details.

You read about it in the daily papers, particularly THE MIRROR, which ran an exclusive story on how "The Kid" licked the dope habit. You saw on Channel 13 how he got off the canvas to defeat Tommy Umeda in a thrilling ten-round bout.

But how many people remember the reporter who was primarily responsible for the comeback? His name was Lou Larkin.

Ever since the story broke, I've been planning to meet Mr. Larkin because I felt our readers should know more about him. It was a unique experience—a reporter interviewing a reporter—but this past Friday I finally got around to it.

Since I am still a "rookie" in this racket, I soon discovered that although Lou has been in Southern California only since the end of World War II, he himself is a "vet" in the TV-radio world.

To begin with, the thirty-four-year-old reporter's very first job in L.A. came about when he walked into the office of a press agent, one Mr. Jack Daly. Today, Jack is the circulation manager of TV-RADIO LIFE who has been greatly responsible for the magazine's phenomenal growth during the past year and a half.

After "breaking in" with "Jackson" (and Professor Daly has a "master's degree" in the art of angles, gimmicks, and publicity know-how), Larkin worked for THE HOLLYWOOD REPORTER for two years. In October, 1948, he became the first TV-radio editor of THE MIRROR.

In August, 1950, he attended UCLA for a semester and then returned to THE MIRROR as a "general assignment reporter." He's been doing the same ever since.

Lou's life wasn't exactly dull before coming West, either. Born and reared in New Haven, Connecticut, he broke into the newspaper business as a copy boy for THE NEW HAVEN REGISTER at the age of seventeen. Two years later young Lou got itchy britches and knocked around the country getting odd jobs.

For example: a used-car dealer in Norfolk, Virginia, paid him five bucks (a young fortune in the depressive thirties) for thinking of a slogan for his lot. It read: "Used Cars With a Future!" He earned another

Wrestling

Is My Business

By Jules Strongbow

Two weeks ago we talked about wrestlers blossoming out into popular after-dinner speakers, but that was only a small part of the story of the demand on my colleagues who have developed not only their biceps but also their wits.

Most current example is Lord James Blears, British Empire champion, war hero and now citizen of the United States. His Lordship appears on the Groucho Marx show "You Bet Your Life" on the radio version, January 7, and on the television program, January 8. Not only does the popular English athlete do well on his bit but he walks off with the jackpot of around $2500.

I have mentioned several times in this column that Lord Blears is a witty, interesting conversationalist, and quick fin from a haberdasher for the slogan: "Men Swear By Our Men's Wear."

Broke but happy, Lou finally got around to marrying his high-school sweetheart, Shirley. Still broke, but still happy, they settled first in New Rochelle, New York (where Lou wrapped packages for a department store), and then moved to White Plains, New York (where Lou pounded copy for THE WHITE PLAINS DISPATCH).

As with millions of other Americans, the war loused up Lou from 1942 to 1946. He served with the "Americal Division" in the Pacific, and was later a public-relations officer with the Eighth Army in Japan. He and an AP correspondent were the first ones to uncover the Tokyo Rose myth—there were really four of them—during the early days of the occupation.

Finally the ace MIRROR reporter got the most-welcomed heave-ho from the Army—but not before he tried to regain some of the ninety-two pounds he had lost by taking an eighteen-day recuperation cruise back on a slow-moving transport.

After a few whiffs of an un-mild winter in Worcester, Massachusetts, he and his wife decided to come to sunny California to get the chill out of their bones.

There's lots more I'd like to tell about Lou, especially some of the drama and conflict and even the philosophy behind his Keeny Teran and other feature stories. But I've already used more than my allotted space for this column.

I'll sum it up this way: A good reporter, like a good doctor, must take pride in his work. Lou Larkin, the reporter, has a right to be proud.

this network broadcast will bear me out.

Not too long ago, 'way back in 1952, Referee Mike Ruby, once a matman, walked off with the prize money on the Groucho Marx show too.

Currently appearing in the motion picture "My Wife's Best Friend" is the Kansas sunflower, Wild Red Berry, who has a part tailor-made for him as a misogynist. Red's prairie-plain mug is unmistakable.

Wasn't it good to see him last Monday at Hollywood Legion Stadium and on KTTV? If anything, his vocabulary has increased, and he left a plain old Oklahoma boy like me on the far turn with his 16-cylinder words—but he is the same old Red—and he is looking forward to coming here to stay the first of February.

More wrestlers now working in the motion pictures are Chester Hayes, Vic Holbrook, Hans Schnabel and Tom Renetau, who have been in the cameras at Universal for the past six weeks on a picture called, I believe, "The Thief of Bagdad."

Dr. Barney Kosnick, one of the fellows who paid his tuition through the university and medical school by wrestling, has signed up to do a series with Michael Phillips Productions. Dr. Kosnick has been a thespian for years and even managed an opera company. I am planning to do an article soon on the doctors who have become doctors by wrestling. There are a number of them who earned their way through medical school and who continue to climb into the squared circle for the fun and exercise.

I want to thank the thousands of fans who turned out at the Hollywood Legion Stadium last Monday night. Any of you who missed it, either in person, or via your television screens, missed a real treat. All of KTTV's top stars were on hand and it was a thrill to meet them and have a part in the program. Included were: Jackson Wheeler, whose late show we usually catch after returning from the arenas; Ed Reimers, with whom I hope to cook an arni plaff on his Cinema Chef program soon; Tito Guizar, Dude Martin, Sheriff John (the boys never miss him), the interesting newscaster George Putnam, Eddie Dean, and many other top-notch favorites.

It was a gala night, and it is a real pleasure to become associated with the friendly staff at KTTV.

Jimmy Weldon proves:

It Takes Brains To Be A Three-Year-Old!

By Ted Hilgenstuhler

IF YOU went up to a man and said: "You act like a three-year-old kid," he would be very much insulted. But not Jimmy Weldon. When "Uncle" Jimmy has little "Webster Webfoot" in his arms, and when he's thinking of ideas for his KLAC-TV show, that's exactly what he has to do.

Exhaustive studies in the care of children indicate that it takes great maturity and understanding to learn the whims and ways of a three-year-old child. And when you talk to twenty-seven-year-old Jimmy Weldon, you soon realize that this man has trained for many years to become the TV success he now is.

Originally from Texas, the curly-haired KLAC-TV star knocked around for many years on radio and TV in the Southwest. During World War II, he was a combat engineer with Patton's Third Army in Europe.

Honorably discharged in England, he studied for several years at the Royal Academy of Dramatic Arts, made several pictures, and finally returned to the States—accompanying a pretty English ballerina named Muriel Doreen Jones.

Before he got married, Jimmy wanted to make sure his wife-to-be liked his native land. She did. They were married September 26, 1947.

Birth of "Webster"

One day in 1949, while spinning records for a local station in Chickasha, Oklahoma, Jimmy ad-libbed several lines imitating a duck. That was the birth of "Webster Webfoot."

After a successful TV show in Texas with "Webster," and with the aid of such people as Jimmy Wakely and Don Forbes, Jimmy came to Hollywood this past summer and presented his ideas to KLAC-TV and the May Company. The official signing of a contract was just as easy as shooting ducks in a pond. (Please excuse the metaphor, "Webster.")

When you see "Webster Webfoot" just once, you can readily understand why it didn't take Jimmy very long to land a show and a sponsor. Seeing and hearing the cute, sharp-witted duck, you just have to smile. The program has been described as "the show everybody watches with a smile on his face."

Although the KLAC-TV presentation is a comedy show for kids, "Uncle" Jimmy becomes very serious and straight-faced when he talks about the aims and purposes of his unique creation.

"Uncle" Jimmy Explains

"Children are alike the world over," Jimmy explains. "But you've got to always remember that they are children."

"There are too many shows on TV which scare rather than entertain children. I don't want to scare anybody. I want to make people laugh—both grown-ups and the kiddies."

As a consequence of his "crusade" for better children's shows, Weldon stresses two main things: safety and courtesy.

Maybe it's just Jimmy's inherent Southern hospitality, but in person he is undoubtedly one of the most courteous, sincere, and conscientious persons to appear on the Hollywood TV scene for quite some time.

Occasionally little "Webster" gives "Uncle" Jimmy a few anxious moments. But after all, you can't expect a three-year-old to be perfect. Ask any parent.

VITAL STATISTICS ON "WEBSTER WEBFOOT"

Date of Birth: February 31.

Age: "Webster" was three years old when he was born, and always will be three years old.

Height: 21½ inches.

Eyes: Black, with white pupils.

Hat: Wears size seven.

Hair: White feathers.

Hobbies: Baseball and girls. ("I love 'em all," says "Webster.")

Favorite Food: Vegetables, milk, and in general all the food a three-year-old child should eat.

Pet Peeve: Hates to see "duck" on a restaurant menu.

HARRY OWENS

ONE OF the outstanding

The near-sandhills refugee and his musicians and hula dancers, whom you see weekly on KNXT's Harry Owens Show, have been recognized for over ten years as the tops in native music. All a listener has to do is hear "Lovely Hula Hands" or any one of a dozen other Island tunes and he immediately thinks of Harry Owens's Royal Hawaiian orchestra.

Yet the man who wrote "Sweet Lei-lani," "The Hawaiian War Chant,"
 "Lei Aloha" and half a dozen other tunes you hear on TV weekly started out as a trumpet-tootin' pop band leader on the 1930 starvation circuit.

tives and lovely, dusky misses doing a sinuous turn. His early days were marked by crowded busses, dreary hotels, hash-house food and white-faced fellow musicians who had it tough getting cakes and coffee.

Yet it was Hawaiian music which got Harry his start. Closing a job one night, Harry and the band he was with cracked out a couple of Hawaiian numbers on the final "set." A total stranger offered Harry a job on the spot . . . a job in Hawaii.

He went, organized a band on the Islands, played for the guests of the Royal Hawaiian Hotel, and swelled a four-month contract into nine years.

Royalty Made—Not Born

When Pearl Harbor was bombed, Harry returned to the United States and started successfully familiarizing people here with his band's brand of exciting, captivating native music.

Even if the glasses-wearing Mr. Owens weren't first to admit that he is Hawaiian only where his heart is concerned, the most casual observer of the band can see that some of the fellows in it are about as native as Ole Olsen. As a matter of fact, one of Harry's bandmen is named Ole Olsen. On the other hand, Prince Kawohi is as Hawaiian and as "royal" as you can get, and employs his title honestly.

It is in spirit that the "Royal Hawaiians" are the real McCoy. Most of the band have been with Harry for years. All of them love the music, the lore and the sight of the Islands, and beat it for Honolulu every time a pause occurs between jobs of presenting Hawaiian music to the American public.

The group have always entertained in the best native tradition, and what they put on for televisioners is a real Hawaiian show.

One aspect of Owens's career that must be included in any mention of the band and its music is the fact that approximately seventy-five per cent of all Hawaiian music played in the United States today comes from the Owens musical library.

Keeps the Flavor

Almost yearly Harry pays a visit to his beloved adopted land and digs out old, almost forgotten Hawaiian folk melodies to dress up with arrangements geared to the tastes of mainlanders and islanders alike.

He also imports new talent for his show and his band. It is probably lucky that TV at last came to Hawaii December 1, 1952, when the Honolulu station opened. If a kinescope of the Harry Owens Show is sent over the water, the people of the Islands can enjoy some weekly authentic Hawaiian music and dancing.

Check our accompanying pictures of the "Royal Hawaiians" and see if you can tell which of the aggregation of entertainers was actually Island-born.

(If you pick Eddie Bush, you are wrong. Eddie, long lauded for his renditions of ancient Island melodies, and a real Hawaiian, was born on the not-so-tropical shore of Lake Michigan!)

PETITE, LOVELY MOANA has been "grass-skirting" with the Royal Hawaiians since 1949. Her slithering dance numbers depict rippling Pacific waters as well as sunny Island paradise beaches. Moana, of course, is a true Hawaiian.

NA PUA, WHICH MEANS "Little Flower" in the soft language of her native land, often joins Hilo Hattie in stirring up fun in comedy song-and-dance routines on Harry's most complete weekly half-hour of Island entertainment on Channel 2.

Her Secret Weapon

↑ TODAY THE LOVELY singing star is able to dance and entertain as ably as though she had never been confined to a hospital bed as the result of a horrifying plane accident. She learned a lot while recuperating, Jane feels.

↑ REPRESENTATIVES of all branches of the Armed Forces line up to pose with one of their very favorite entertainers. Jane says the boys are "a real great audience . . . or a rough one. Very rough." But she prefers them to white-tie crowds.

↓ PFC. EDDIE FISHER, fresh back from Korea, joins Jane weekly on "U. S. A. Canteen," a big show khaki-colored in the nature of its songs, dances and especially its audience. The setting of the show is an Armed Forces canteen.

ABOUT EVERY decade one of the philosophers of whatever the time may be pens a line or two advising that we pass through this life but once; that good boomerangs; that good deeds bounce home; or reflecting the thought that if we give the other guy not only a fair shake, but a courteous one, that's what we'll get in return.

The readers of that time for the most part skip it entirely, yawn and read, or read and discard, spreading their brand of cheer by carpingly victimizing the next in echelon at the office. Next reading down.

The Heeders

About the only people who heed an admonition on life's shortness—and what they can make of that brief span—are the people who have almost had their own life snuffed out, as did Jane Froman. Remember when the plane she was aboard crashed into the sea and Jane clung to life and hope in freezing water for fourteen hours? With an injured spine?

There would be no reason to assume that Miss Froman wasn't a Class A sweetness-and-light girl ever before her accident if her own words, in a recent article, hadn't exposed her as pretty much like everyone else . . . to a degree selfish, impatient, forgetful, just like all of us.

Today her cultured larynx is augmented by a selflessness, an irresistible personality, an incredible vitality and a warmth that comes out like a human radar beam.

She has developed a wonderful weapon. It is a genuine affection for people, all people. Men and women in our Armed Forces, cab drivers, doormen, waiters, elevator operators, bank presidents and network brass.

Tough Audience

This vital girl who suffered so in bringing good cheer in large doses to people she likes. This is specially true on her new CBS-TV show, "U.S.A. Canteen." It is no coincidence that Jane is a favorite entertainer of the boys and girls in uniform.

"Boys in the Armed Forces," she says sagely, "can be a swell audience. And they can be rough. Real rough.

"They won't stand for the phony or the inept entertainer. And if you play down to them you're a dead pigeon. Do an honest job, the same one you would do for a white-tie crowd, and you're home free. They'll love you."

Never Forgets

The weapon of honest good fellowship which Jane developed in the process of living a lot and enjoying everyone has as part of it a fantastic memory. She makes people so important to her that she doesn't forget them.

One of her favorite stories is about a GI she met overseas during World War II. The boys, she says, insisted on giving her trinkets after each performance. No Hope diamonds, just simple little gifts to show their appreciation. One GI after a performance rushed up and fumbled at an inexpensive ring. It was too large, much too large, so the boy wrapped it with a ragged string.

The Test

Years later, in New York City, Jane was in a cab when the driver turned around and looked at her. Plaintively he asked . . .

"Do you remember me . . . during the war . . . in Germany . . .?"

Jane had occupied a good many recuperative hours remembering occasions and faces and learning to value them. Her response was without hesitation.

"Of course I do. You were the GI with the ring you had tied up with string. What's more, I've still got it."

Cab drivers are among Jane's most faithful supporters. Rehearsing for "U.S.A. Canteen" recently, she took a cab for the studio, and the cabby refused to accept the fare. "You have given us so much enjoyment when we were in the service," he mumbled, "I figure you've paid many times over for the ride."

Jane, who would make a terrific public-relations expert, didn't affront him by refusal. "Okay. How about me sending you some autographed pictures for your children?"

"Great," the happy cabby enthused. "Make it three. I got three girls."

The Beauty And Her Bow

▲ BEAUTIFUL and talented Ginger Smock is the featured jazz violinist of KTLA's "Dixie Showboat."

GLEVISION VIEWERS are well acquainted by now with the marvelous violin talents of Ginger Smock, who appears regularly on "Dixie Showboat."

Like many other artists, the KTLA star trained a lifetime to achieve her present skill. Although born in Chicago, she came to Los Angeles at an early age, attended Jefferson High School, Los Angeles City College, and finally the Zoellner Conservatory of Music.

But in Ginger's own words: "I found out at an early age that I wouldn't get very far if I tried to compete with Heifetz." Consequently, she concentrated on popular and jazz music, and switched, figuratively speaking, "from the violin to the fiddle."

Two Phone Calls

Two unexpected phone calls have provided the two big breaks for the former captain of the women's basketball team at L.A. City College. The first was in 1943, when an agent who had never heard her play wanted her to appear at a local night club. That was actually the beginning of her career as a "jazz violinist."

The second call occurred when she was asked to guest on "Dixie Showboat." An immediate hit, she appeared several more times, and was finally signed to a permanent contract in January, 1952.

Since TV-Radio Life is the first publication to interview Ginger, here are some personal facts gathered from the glamorous gal: She's single and lives with her aunt and uncle in southeast Los Angeles. Although she's stuck strictly to fiddling on TV, she also sings, plays the organ and piano, and dances.

More Personal Data

Hobbies: making earrings out of beads and sequins. She also likes music and men. Additional hobbies: "There's more?" replied Ginger, good-naturedly.

She thinks Fritz Kreisler is tops in the classical field, for violinists, with Joe Venuti taking honors for the jazz field.

The violin which Ginger uses was made in Czechoslovakia and is 103 years old.

Besides her various night-club appearances, she plays each Friday for the patients at the Sawtelle hospital for veterans, and at church every Sunday morning.

Remarks Ginger, quite bluntly: "I'm not saying it to polish apples, but I love my work on 'Dixie,' and I especially like each and every person who has anything at all to do with the show."

No. 10 of a Series

Alex Cooper

By CLEGG HOYT

We all know that a goldfish has no privacy, but how does a goldfish feel about it? Alex Cooper, leading Los Angeles disc jockey, can supply the answer. His show emanates nightly from a sidewalk window at the busy intersection of Sunset and Vine in Hollywood. At midnight Sunset and Vine takes on the appearance of a boiler factory that has suddenly hired five thousand extra help.

All night long all sorts of characters file by the window. One fellow in particular "had one too many." He stopped in front of the window, raised a mythical baton and for two hours conducted his own symphony. This didn't bother Cooper at all except for the fact that not once did the fellow have the right beat.

Another time a frustrated ballet dancer appeared. She proceeded to execute several ballet numbers. "Execute" is putting it mildly. Night after night when Alex would come to work, she'd be waiting for him and beg him to be her manager and publicity agent. Cooper would always manage to think of a polite excuse.

Alex first started his career as a disc jockey in a small town in California. The owner of the local "cut-rate" drug store was instrumental in getting Cooper his first job. He was also Alex's first account. Everything went fine until he referred to the cut-rate drug store as the "Cut-Throat" drug store. The next morning found Alex filling in an application at Lockheed. Fates intervened and the station decided to give him another chance. He stayed there quite a while, and his familiar "Good evening, this is Alex 'Pick up a couple of bucks' Cooper" became practically a household phrase.

When the street audience reaches large proportions, Alex goes into extracurricular antics. As a record nears its end, he starts searching madly through the papers on his desk, a look of great consternation appears on his face, he jumps up quickly, knocking his chair over, and rushes to the files tossing papers in the air. The onlookers sense something of great importance is going on. They crowd closer to the window, peering intently. Suddenly Alex stoops down, picks up a piece of paper, and a look of great relief appears. Then, just as the record ends, he makes a leap for the microphone, holds the paper in front of him and says, "The time is now two-thirty."

After he is finished interviewing the various celebrities, for want of someone to talk to he interviews an old character named "Sourdough." Said "Sourdough" is about eighty years old and has a dry caustic wit. Alex asks him all sorts of questions and "Sourdough" can be depended upon to answer with rapier wit. Very few people know that "Sourdough" is also Alex Cooper.

When six a.m. finally rolls around, Alex locks the door behind him, climbs into his Jaguar and goes home to his beloved Dolores, a Siamese cat. He showers, has breakfast and reads the morning papers. Does Alex have any hobbies? Yes, collecting sponsors.
