Dear SBE Member:

Many years ago each April I can remember waiting patiently for the new telephone books to arrive, and was very excited to see the big yellow book hanging on the front door. As a young techie, things like that made my day. I still get that feeling every fall when the envelope from Indianapolis arrives containing the new SBE Membership Directory and Buyers' Guide. It is a terrific resource for Broadcast Engineers to connect with members and chapters throughout the US and overseas and tap into the enormous collective talent that the Society provides.

Inside you will find historical facts and data about SBE, a complete listing of the more than 5,500 members of the Society, lists of contract engineers, and a listing of our Sustaining Members that contribute much to our efforts. Please be sure and thank them for supporting the one organization created to educate, certify, and support you; the broadcast engineer. With their support along with all of our collective efforts we can continue and improve our profession and gather even greater satisfaction and recognition.

The directory also provides information on our national office staff, and sections on the staff member at the national office to contact to get your questions answered and needs taken care of.

The Buyers' Guide, the last section of the book, is an obvious source of information from manufacturers and equipment suppliers. This resource provides topical listings so you can find information quickly.

Having a problem or question that has you stumped? Use your membership directory to reach out to any of SBE's 5,500 plus members. Re-connect with engineers you have lost touch with. Make some new friends in your profession. The possibilities are endless. Use this member benefit proudly, and let everyone you know that you are proud to be a broadcast engineer, and proud to be a member of the only organization dedicated to you - The Society of Broadcast Engineers.

Sincerely,

Vinny Lopez, CEV/CBNT
 SBE President

A BRIEF HISTORY OF SBE

In 2010, the Society of Broadcast Engineers celebrates 46 years of service! SBE's history is filled with important milestones as a result of the contributions of many members.

The Society's roots can be traced back to 1961 when the Institute of Radio Engineers (IRE) and the American Institute of Electrical Engineers (AIEE) passed a joint resolution calling for a "merger or consolidation... into one organization." The two groups did finally join forces in 1963, forming what is known today as the Institute of Electrical and Electronic Engineers (IEEE). However, the new organization was perceived by some as not addressing the needs of broadcast engineers.

John H. Battison, P.E., CPBE, editor of Broadcast Engineering magazine at the time, was one of those people. He wrote an editorial that appeared in his magazine in 1961, which pushed the idea of a new organization just for broadcast engineers. Battison's continued efforts sparked interest across the country. He published a membership application in the April 1963 issue of Broadcast Engineering and the response was encouraging. With help from family members, Battison mailed membership invitations to almost 5,000 radio and TV engineers in the United States and Canada.

Finally, on April 5, 1964, an organizational meeting was held during the National Association of Broadcasters convention at the Conrad Hilton Hotel in Chicago. Approximately 100 interested broadcast engineers attended. The group formed an organization devoted to the needs and interests of broadcast engineers. This new organization was originally called the Institute of Broadcast Engineers (IBE). However, because some members feared there might be confusion in the similarity between the names of the IBE and the IBEW (International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers), the name was changed to Society of Broadcast Engineers (SBE) at that very first meeting. SBE now has approximately 5,500 members that can be found in all 50 states, four U.S. territories and more than 25 other countries.

With 114 chapters located throughout the United States and Hong Kong, SBE now commands a leadership position in the broadcast industry. Local SBE chapters provide services to members through meetings, technical seminars, certification examinations and fellowship. SBE's first chapter was organized in Binghamton, N.Y., and it is still active today. Its newest chapter is in Hong Kong, having been organized by local broadcast engineers in 2009.

The SBE Program of Certification, begun in 1977, helps individuals improve their skills and gain recognition for those skills through a national testing program. As the industry's most recognized evaluation service for broadcast engineers, SBE Certification provides important benefits to both members and employers. Those who have earned SBE Certification are proud of their accomplishment, and rightly so.

SBE is also known for its involvement in developing a nationwide network of volunteer frequency coordinators. Through these volunteers, SBE provides a vital service to stations, networks and other users of broadcast spectrum who need information about auxiliary broadcast frequencies. Through the efforts of SBE, this important spectrum is used efficiently, and interference is minimized.

The Society continually monitors regulatory issues and frequently files comments with the FCC and other federal and state agencies. In many cases, SBE is the only organization representing the technical interests of broadcast engineers on regulatory issues.

A number of SBE chapters host regional conventions each year. Most of the events combine both technical seminars and an equipment exhibition. At these seminars, expert instructors provide training on a wide variety of technical and managerial topics. The conferences provide attendees with the opportunity to improve their skills as well as to examine the latest in technology. SBE educational programs include the SBE University of on-line, on-demand technical courses, the Ennes Workshops and live and recorded webinars. SBE also offers a three-day intensive seminar on management and leadership training for broadcast engineers.

SBE has published a number of popular handbooks for broadcast engineers and also co-publishes books of interest to our members with Focal Press. SBE's website, www.sbe.org, is visited by thousands of people every month. One of the busiest areas of the website is the SBE JobsOnline, where dozens of broadcast technical jobs are advertised.

The national office of the Society of Broadcast Engineers is located in Indianapolis, Indiana, U.S.A. There, a full-time staff provides membership, chapter, certification, education and frequency coordination services and support. Additional information on membership in the Society is available on pages 12-13 of this publication, at www.sbe.org or by writing, e-mailing or calling the SBE National Office.

Throughout its history, SBE has strived to advance the field of broadcast engineering and the professional development of the broadcast engineer by being in the forefront as changes in technology have taken place. The Society will continue to help its members stay on the leading edge of the broadcast industry by providing leadership, information, education and opportunities for recognition. There have been many members who have played important roles in the 45 years of the Society's growth – too many to name here. However, many of their names appear throughout the pages of this Directory. We know you will recognize many of them as you use this publication.

PROGRAMS & SERVICES

AWARDS PROGRAM The Annual Awards Program recognizes those who have contributed to SBE, the industry or their chapters in a number of categories. Winners are presented their awards at the National Awards Dinner at the annual SBE National Meeting.

BOOKSTORE SBE members can buy broadcast engineering-related books at discounts of up to 20 percent off of the retail price. The resources are authored by an outstanding group of experts in the industry. Order online at www.sbe.org.

CANONS OF ETHICS Developed by SBE, the Canons defines the standard for the industry of how all broadcast engineers should practice their profession.

CHAPTERS There are more than 100 active chapters of SBE throughout the United States and in Hong Kong. Chapters meet on a regular basis, giving members the opportunity to network with peers, learn about new and existing technologies and share their knowledge.

COMPANY STORE Logo items such as hats, shirts, mugs and tools are available through the SBE Company Store. Order online at www.sbe.org.

CONTRACT & CONSULTING ENGINEER SERVICES For SBE members involved in contract and/or consulting engineering work, SBE provides two services designed to aid them in their work. A sample contract, written by legal counsel with input from contract engineers, is available at no charge to members electronically and covers most of the issues that concern contract engineers. In addition, contract and consulting engineers can be listed, for a small fee, in the Membership Directory & Buyers' Guide and on the SBE website at www.sbe.org.

CREDIT CARD PROGRAM SBE offers the official SBE MasterCard and American Express card through Bank of America. The SBE MasterCard is available by calling Bank of America at (800) 523-7666.

EDUCATION SBE offers a growing number of continuing educational programs designed for broadcast engineers, operators and technicians. These include the SBE University collection of on-line, on-demand technical courses, live and recorded webinars, the popular Ennes Workshops and the three-day SBE Leadership Development Course. All of these programs are created with the goal of providing practical knowledge for professional or personal development and to increase the participant's value to employers and clients.

EMERGENCY ALERT SYSTEM (EAS) SBE has been involved from the beginning with the EAS. Through its EAS Committee, the Society is working with the FCC and manufacturers to develop, implement and troubleshoot the next generation of EAS.

FREQUENCY COORDINATION Volunteers from across the country maintain local BAS databases and provide coordination to Part 74 frequency users. Coordination can be accomplished online at www.sbe.org. SBE members also offer frequency coordination for events.

GOVERNMENT REPRESENTATION The Society represents broadcast engineers and their interests to legislators and government agencies through the Government Relations Committee, SBE's General Counsel and various filings.

HAMNET SBE's "Chapter of the Air" provides up-to-date SBE information and a forum for members who are HAM radio operators, especially those not in close proximity to a local SBE chapter. HAMnet, hosted by Hal Hostetler, CPBE, WA7BGX, takes place on the second Sunday of every month at 0000 GMT. The published frequency is 14.205 MHz. The Internet Repeater Linking Project, or IRLP, is based in Denver using the WA2YZT UHF/VHF repeater system, IRLP node #3286, on the first and third Saturdays of each month at 11:00 am, U.S. Mountain Time.

INSURANCE Various insurance programs are available to SBE members at group rates. Life, home, auto, disability, business and professional liability plans are all available. For life and disability insurance, contact Marsh/Seabury & Smith at (800) 424-9883. For business and professional liability insurance needs, contact PROinsure at (866) 577-0355. For home owner and auto insurance, contact Liberty Mutual at (800) 524-9400.

JOBSONLINE JobsOnline lists broadcast engineering positions across the United States. JobsOnline is available to members only, is updated weekly and can be accessed on the Society's website at www.sbe.org. The Job database is searchable and members can subscribe to be notified when a job is posted that meets their criteria.

MEMBERSHIP SBE offers several levels of membership to meet the diverse needs of individuals involved with or interested in broadcast engineering. From high school youth to the seasoned professional to the broadcast manufacturer, SBE has something for everyone. For a description of these levels, read Article II, Section 2 of the SBE By-Laws, printed on page 17 of this publication.

PROFESSIONAL CERTIFICATION SBE maintains a comprehensive Certification Program with six classes of engineering certifications, two operator certifications, one broadcast networking certification and three specialist certifications. SBE Certification has become recognized in the industry as the primary method of verifying the attainment of educational standards. For more information about certification and how to apply to take an exam, please contact the Certification Department at the SBE National Office or your local Certification Chairman. More than 5,000 individuals are currently SBE certified.

PUBLICATIONS The Signal, SBE's bimonthly newsletter, provides members with timely articles on various broadcast-related topics, information on upcoming events, recognition of members' activities and achievements and details of SBE services. The SBE Membership Directory & Buyers' Guide is published annually to provide a quick reference to all members and Sustaining Members' services. Short Circuits is updated regularly on the SBE website and provides information on SBE activities. SBE-news is an e-newsletter sent twice-monthly to members.

REGIONAL CONVENTIONS A number of SBE Chapters host regional conventions each year. Most of the conventions include engineering seminars and trade shows for members to get the latest information, comparison shop and view current technology.

RENTAL CAR DISCOUNTS Hertz offers discounts to SBE members on rental car rates. For more information or to use the discount, contact Hertz at (800) 654-2210 or www.hertz.com.

RESUMEBANK The SBE ResumeBank features an online posting of anonymous resume profiles (comprised solely of SBE members) for prospective employers to view. For a small fee, these employers can request the member resumes of their choice from the National Office. Current SBE members can have their resume profiles posted at no charge.

ROUNDTABLE, EAS EXCHANGE, & SBE-CHAT The SBE Roundtable is an e-mail discussion group created to facilitate discussions about the Society and exchange information and ideas about broadcast and media engineering. Suitable topics include questions about the SBE; equipment for sale or wanted from individuals or stations (not dealers); job openings and positions sought. The SBE EAS Exchange is a forum dedicated and limited to the discussion of issues related to the Emergency Alert System. It is moderated by an SBE EAS Committee member. SBE-chat is for SBE members wishing to discuss anything that does not fit the guidelines of the Roundtable. Personal interests, hobbies, past careers and non-technical broadcast issues are ideal for SBE-chat. Visit www.sbe.org to subscribe.

SBE UNIVERSITY SBE's online, on-demand courses on a variety of broadcast technical topics developed by experts for the SBE. For more information and to enroll visit www.sbe.org/edu_seminars.php.

SUSTAINING MEMBERSHIP SBE's corporate level of membership provides organizations with a place to promote themselves on the SBE website, in every issue of The Signal and in the Buyers' Guide section of the annual Membership Directory. In addition, Sustaining Members have access to the SBE mailing list one time free per year, receive discounted advertising rates and can request local chapter contacts to schedule product/service presentations at monthly chapter meetings.

VIDEO LIBRARY A number of videos are available to current SBE members and chapters for loan for personal viewing, training or use at local chapter meetings. Topics include prior Ennes Workshops, a tour of an antenna farm, vectorscopes, regulators roundtable and FCC inspections. There is no charge to borrow a video.

WEBSITE Information about SBE and its programs, activities, benefits and services can be obtained through SBE's website at www.sbe.org. New Members can join online. Shop online at the SBE Store. The site is updated regularly. Messages can also be sent to the National Office and elected Board of Directors via e-mail from the website.

YOUTH PROGRAM SBE's youth program seeks to encourage high school students with an interest in the technical side of broadcasting to consider the field as a career. Youth members and adult instructors at high schools with radio or television stations receive a newsletter three times per year called The Connector, and local chapters are encouraged to hold Youth Nights in order to help students network and foster mentoring relationships.
